Notes for Elizabeth K. Ohler:

Mrs. Elizabeth Schroen- The departed was born on the 10th day of January, 1847, in Mengshausen, Kreis Hersfeld, Kurshessen, Germany, the daughter of George and Elizabeth Ickler. As a child of Christian and God-fearing parents, she was consecrated to God in infancy, and at the age of 14 years, after careful instructions in the fundamental doctrines of our holy religion, she was confirmed in the Evangelical Church in the land of her birth. At the age of 15 years her sister and herself came to America, going first to her relatives in Canada, with whom she spent four years, after which she came to Freedom Township, Washtenaw County. It was here that she met her future husband, the late Adam Schroen. They were married on the 21st of February, 1870.

This union was blessed with four sons and six daughters, two of whom passed away in infancy. In recent years two sons, John and Adam, Jr., and two daughters, Melvina and Olga, passed to their reward. After 46 years of wedded life, on July 19, 1916, death severed this marriage, when her husband passed away.

After the death of her husband, Mother Schroen made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Kaiser, of East Lansing. It was there that she passed away quite suddenly on length on Wednesday, July 18, 1934, at about 1 o'clock in the afternoon. She had always retained her membership in St. Paul's Church here and the Ladies' Aid Society.

She is survived by two sons, Charles and Eckhardt Schroen, of Ann Arbor; two daughters, Mrs. Jacob Kaiser of East Lansing and Mrs. George Gartung of Chicago, Illinois; five sisters, one residing in Chicago and four still living in Germany; 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, besides other near relatives and many friends. The time of her long earthly pilgrimage was 87 years, 6 months and 18 days.

Milan Man Killed In Motor Accident - Wilson W. Schroen Dies As Car Hits Culvert

YPSILANTI--Wilson W. Schroen 26 years old, Milan, was instantly killed and Chester Rutkowski, 20, of near Belleville, was injured at 8 o'clock last night when the car driven by Schroen, on Hannan Rd., east of here, hit the end of a concrete culvert and rolled over and over for 200 feet along the road. The car was almost completely demolished, the doors on both sides being torn off and both men hurled out onto the road. Schroen was dead when other motorists reached him, and Rutkowski is in the Wayne General hospital with head, back and hip injuries.

Schroen, a former employee of the United Stove Co. here, and Rutkowski were members of a dance orchestra employed at Frank's Inn, on the Ann Arbor Trail at Merriman Rd., and were inroute to that place to fill their nightly engagement when the accident occurred.

Rutkowski told Trooper Jess Ralph of the state police that Schroen was blinded by the lights of an approaching car which crowded him toward the edge of the road just as he was approaching the culvert, which spans a ditch some six feet deep. An iron railing is at the top of the concrete of the culvert. Parts of the car were scattered along the road, and the machine came to rest with the front end down in a three-foot ditch along the east side of the road.

Schroen, who was born in York Township, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schroen and lived with his parents on their farm at 14039 Darling Rd., near Milan.

He is survived by his parents and a sister, Mrs. Maud Yaeger, of Saline Township. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

- 52 iv. Charles Oliver Schroen, born 19 Dec 1915 in York Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 03 Jun 1934 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

17. Louise<sup>3</sup> Schroen (George Ernest<sup>2</sup>, Johannes<sup>1</sup>) was born Oct 1868 in Michigan, and died 14 Apr 1928 in Yellowstone, Montana. She married Charles Henry Guthardt 21 Apr 1892 in York Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Carl Guthardt and Anna Bieber. He was born 06 May 1868 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Charles Henry Guthardt:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Charles Henry Guthard, conducting a general hardware, stove and implement business in Saline Township, was born on the 6th of May, 1868, in Saline township, but like many of Washtenaw county's citizens is of German lineage. His father, Henry Guthard, was a native of Kassel, Germany, and came to Washtenaw County, in 1845, after seventy-seven days spent on the voyage between Germany and America. Here he became the owner of a farm of eighty acres. He found Washtenaw county an almost unbroken wilderness with only here and there a settlement to tell that the seeds of civilization had been planted which in due time were to bear rich fruit. The farmers in those early days drove ox teams to Detroit, where they secured their supplies. In connection with the other early settlers Mr. Guthard aided in transforming the county into a rich agricultural district and he continued a valued resident here up to the time of his death, which occurred September 16, 1903. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Katherina Bieber, was also a native of Kassel, Germany, and her death occurred on the 19th of September, 1904. The members of the family were as follows: John, who is living on the old homestead farm in Saline Township; Emma, who became the wife of Carl Bickel, of Cleveland, Ohio, and died in May, 1905; Mary, the wife of Herman Weihe, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Kate, the wife of John Heininger, of Saline Township; Clara, the wife of Rev. James Rilling, of South Bend, Indiana; and Miss Libbie Guthard.

The other member of the family is Charles Henry Guthard of this review, who at the usual age entered the district schools of Saline Township, wherein he continued his studies until thirteen years of age, when he began work as a farm hand. He was thus employed for a number of years and when from his earnings he saved sufficient capital to engage in business on his own account he became a partner of Adam Hornung in the spring of 1903 in the conduct of a hardware business in the village of Saline. The partnership was dissolved in April, 1904, at which time Mr. Guthard admitted Henry A. Schroen into partnership. They conduct an extensive business as dealers in stoves, general hardware, farm implements, buggies, paints, glass and seeds and draw a large trade from the surrounding country. Their specialty in stoves is the Round Oak. Their business is growing rapidly, yet along healthful lines and they are now accorded a liberal patronage which brings them a good return upon their investment.

On the 21st of April, 1892, Mr. Guthard was united in marriage to Miss Louise Schroen, a sister of Henry A. Schroen and a daughter of George Schroen, of Saline. They have two sons, Edgar and Raymond, the former a student in the Union high school. Fraternally Mr. Guthard is connected with Saline lodge of the Maccabees, while in his political affiliation he is a stalwart republican and in religious faith a German Lutheran. His entire life has been passed in the village and township of Saline and his life record is well known to his fellow citizens, who regard him as a man of genuine worth, thorough reliability and excellent business capacity.

Wilhelmina Christina (Minnie)<sup>3</sup> Schroen (George Ernest<sup>2</sup>, Johannes<sup>1</sup>) was born 19 Mar 1876 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 12 Oct 1945 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Georg Wilhelm Seeger 19 Feb 1902 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Matthaues Seeger and Christina Hack. He was born 05 Sep 1875 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 02 Sep 1960 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Wilhelmina Christina (Minnie) Schroen:

Death came to Mrs. George W. Seeger at the Saline hospital, Friday morning, October 12, 1945, where she had been critically ill during the preceding two weeks. Mrs. Seeger was handicapped by ill health for more than 20 years, and in recent years had been confined to her home. Two weeks ago her condition made hospital care a necessity. During the years, days of illness were borne patiently and were not permitted to interfere with her home making responsibilities. Mrs. Seeger was born in York Township, the daughter of George and Christina Schroen, March 19, 1876. Her marriage to Mr. Seeger was an event of March 19, 1902. After farming for ten years she and her life was spent. When St. Paul's Church was established in 1906 she became numbered among its communicant members and her interest and support of that Church was faithfully maintained until her death. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society, and of the Order of Eastern Star.

Surviving Mrs. Seeger are her husband, her daughter, Mrs. Lucille Henderson, two granddaughters, Mrs. Carl Crothers of Columbia, South Carolina and Miss Phyllis Henderson, Washington D.C.; brother, Mr. Henry Schroen; a sister, Mrs. Alma Wood, and a number of nephews and nieces. She was preceded in death by an infant son, a sister, Mrs. Charles Guthard, and three brothers who died in infancy.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2:30 o'clock at St. Paul's Church, Rev. Alvin Siemsen officiating, with burial in Oakwood Cemetery.

Notes for Georg Wilhelm Seeger:

A well-known resident, George Seeger, observed his 83rd birthday last Thursday October 16, 1958 in a happy manner, for he accompanied Everett Wolfen to Grand Rapids to attend the sessions that day of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. His faithful service of 34 years as Sentinel of the Saline Chapter of the O.E.S. was recognized in the East. Mr. Seeger is also a Past Master of the Saline Lodge of the A.F.&M. On Saturday evening his daughter, Mrs. Lucille Seeger, entertained at a surprise party at their Home, the diversion being euchre.

This week a lifetime of civic service ended, when funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at that same church for George W. Seeger, 84, who had served his community for many years as a former City Councilman, Fire Chief, and treasurer of the Board of Education before the consolidation of the school district. A lifelong resident of the Saline area, Mr. Seeger had been in business here for 48 years. For a time he operated a hardware store, in partnership with his brother-in-law, the late Henry Schroen. Later, he operated a harness shop, and finally — until a few days before his death -- a shoe repair shop in the building at the corner of Michigan Avenue and N. Ann Arbor Street. Although he missed a day at work last winter because of icy weather, he had never been sick in his life until he suffered a stroke about two weeks before his death Friday at Saline Community hospital. Besides his charter membership and board membership in the church, he was active in such other community efforts the building of Henne Field . . . for which he was given the honor of laying the final piece of sod.

Notes for Carl Heinrich (Charles) Schroen:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Charles Henry Schroen, who was born in York Township, November 30, 1870, and makes his home in Saline, is a son of Adam Schroen, whose birth occurred in Mankshausen in the duchy of Hesse, Germany, November 1, 1845. He sailed for America in August, 1862, coming to York Township, where he occupied a farm of one hundred and twenty-seven acres upon which he still resides. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Elizabeth Egglar, is also a native of Hesse and sailed for the United States on the same vessel on which her future husband was a passenger. They were married after arriving in this country and they are yet worthy residents of York Township, where Mr. Schroen gives his time and attention to agricultural pursuits, being one of the well-known and enterprising farmers of his community. The members of their family are as follows: John J., a resident farmer of Pittsfield township; Eckhardt E., who was graduated from Saline high school in the class of 1905 and in 1906 expects to enter the University of Michigan; Adam G., a resident farmer of York township; Charles Henry, of this review; Mary, the wife of Jacob Kaiser, who is living in Ingham county, Michigan; Melvina, the wife of Frederick Kaiser, also of Ingham county; and Leah and Olga, who are at home. Charles Henry Schroen, reared under the parental roof, early became familiar with the duties and labors that fall to the lot of the agriculturist and assisted his father in the work of the home farm through the period of his youth.

He was married on the 21th of May, 1896, to Miss Emma J. Hauser, a daughter of John and Heinericka Hauser, of Pittsfield, and they now have three interesting children: Clarence Karl, Edwin W. and Luella M. The parents are members of the German Lutheran church. Their residence is a handsome home in Saline, where they have a wide and favorable acquaintance, enjoying the warm regard of all who know them. Mr. Schroen's business connection with Saline is that of a merchant and in trade circles he bears an excellent reputation by reason of his up-to-date store, for he carries a large line of well selected merchandise and also by reason of his honorable methods and his earnest desire to please his patrons.

Notes for David Harold Schroen:

5, 4, 3, 2, 1... Houston, we have liftoff. David Harold Schroen has successfully returned to the Lord's kingdom on February 28, 2025. He was 83. While David was best known for being a happy, thoughtful, loving brother, husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, little known is that he was a member of the Apollo Space Program team. After graduating from the University of Michigan with a degree in Aerospace Engineering and earning a Master's in Aerospace Engineering from the University of Southern California, David spent his early career helping America enter and win the race to the moon.

After the NASA program was retired, David returned to his home state of Michigan to spend the remainder of his brilliant engineering career with the Ford Motor Company. He was part of the team that developed the Ford Explorer years before the vehicle went into production in February of 1990. This revolutionary vehicle set the wheels in motion for a vehicle type dominance that continues more than 30 years later. While his professional achievements were literally "out of this world," Dave was best known for being a brother, husband, dad, and grandpa. He was the firstborn of Robert and Arlene Schroen of Chelsea, MI in February of 1942. Dave had three siblings: Duane, Sue, and Carol.

He married Myrna Kay Palmer in 1964 and raised three children: Jeff, Mark, and Tracy. Dave and Myrna's marriage was considered by all to be an absolute rock. They loved their children and helped create a true family foundation. Their home was a refuge and a residence to celebrate life for all.

In 1996, Myrna started her battle with cancer, and with Dave by her side, she returned to the Lord's kingdom in 1999. By the Lord's grace—and most likely some guidance from Myrna in heaven—Dave was able to meet Marie and once again spend another 25 years as a loving husband and stepfather. Dave's nature was optimistic and jovial. Every day, he proved the narrative false that nice guys finish last. His laugh will always be a part of the people who knew and loved him.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you honor his memory by going out of your way to make someone's day. Hold your tongue and say something nice or kind when anger sets in. Play a round of golf—and regardless of your score, consider the day precious. A Celebration of Life for David will be held on Saturday, May 10, 2025, 11:00 a.m., at St. Paul United Church of Christ, 14600 Old US-12, Chelsea, Michigan 48118. A luncheon will immediately follow.

Palmer of Southfield. Her fiancé, a graduate of Chelsea High School, is a senior in aeronautical engineering at the University of Michigan. An August wedding is being planned by the couple.

Myrna Palmer in a ceremony performed at the Southfield Methodist Church. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schroen of Chelsea and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Palmer of Southfield.

She married John Robards 1971.

Notes for Kristine Helen Schroen:

Kristine Helen (Schroen) Robards lovingly known as 'Schatz' by family and close friends united with her Lord and Savior as well as heavenly family members on February 5, 2021. Kris traveled from Arizona to her home in Stonefort, IL to be with family for her final days after a lengthy battle with meningiomas tumors. One of her blessings was to reunite with her grandchildren, Aimee (Rob) Hall, Emma, and Garrett Robards and her two new great-grandsons Jase and Robby.

The love of horse trail riding led Kris and John to leave the small town of Grass Lake for the beautiful countryside of the Shawanee National Forest in Southern Illinois where they resided for 25+ years. Kris was a country girl and a business woman like no other! She had many DBAs in her lifetime, never afraid to seize an opportunity for a new business venture and always happy to be a saleswoman. Kris began with Kris' Kountry Kurl beauty shop in her home and expanded to horse trainer / breeder, custom saddles designer, and so on until her most successful business of grooming and breeding dogs such as Aussiedoodles & Shepadoodles. Wishing to continue her dog breeding legacy, Kris has mentored her granddaughter Aimee, whose expertise in business and animal management will continue the Double R business.

Kris is survived by her husband of 50 years, John Robards, siblings Frederick (Barbara) Schroen, John Schroen, Heidi (Mike) Gerber, daughter-in-law Angela Robards, father-in-law Roland Robards, grandchildren (above), nieces Allison (Ricky) Walter, Jessica (Brian) Eva, Sarah (Carlos) Kitchen, Scott Timms (Krystal) and an abundance of horse and dog loving friends that number like the stars in the sky! Kris was preceded in death by her precious daughter, Amy Sue and son, Jake Robards, parents Herman and Barbara Schroen, mother-in-law Donna Robards, and nephew Alex Schroen.

Kris had an incredibly strong faith that she freely shared and demonstrated by supporting many ministries throughout the years. In addition, Kris selflessly gave to many individuals in times of need! She was rock solid in knowing her Lord and Savior and cherished the thought of being reunited with her children in heaven. As Covid-19 has altered the ability to gather, there will be a small memorial service at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Hospice of Southern Illinois, 204 Halfway Rd, Marion, Illinois 62959.
