Notes for Johann Michael Buehl:

With a party of their friends and neighbors, the Beals came down the Rhine to a secluded seaport and on June 9, 1804, embarked on a sailing vessel, the Margaretta, for America. They were tossed on the waves of the Atlantic for two and one-half months before they reached their safe haven, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

From Philadelphia the party proceeded to Germantown and in the following spring went on their way to the point for which they had started, Williamsport, in Lycoming County. There they built a roughhewn edifice which they dedicated to church purposes, in 1828, and the little building still stands. There Conrad F. Haller expounded the Scriptures to them as a lay reader, being a man of some learning.

In 1833 a part of the colony came on to Crawford County with a view of improving their material condition, and from the favorable reports received from them, the Ohio lands were fertile and desirable. This information led to a part of the Beal family coming to Crawford County in 1842 and the remainder in 1843.

They purchased land situated about three and one-half miles southeast of Bucyrus and a part of this is still in the possession of the Beal family. The original purchase of 200 acres was made for $3,000. while this same land at the present time could not be purchased for $100 per acre.

Johann Michael (Buehl) Beal's wife and daughter died in Pennsylvania. His sons became farmers in Crawford County and all have been noted for good citizenship. A few of the older members of the family have always subscribed to the doctrine of the Pietist community, that being the name given the religious colony, while others have become identified with more liberal sects.

Notes for Rev. Friederich (Frederick) Lust:
A Centennial Biographical History of Crawford County, Ohio. Chicago - The Lewis Publishing Company 1902; page 445:

Frederick Lust. Among the settlers who came to Crawford County in pioneer days and were long identified with the up building and development of this portion of the state, and none have been more highly respected or more worthy of high regard than the Rev. Frederick Lust, who not only gave his attention to agricultural pursuits, but also devoted much of his time through forty years to the work of preaching the gospel as a minister of the Pietist Church. He was born in Wurtemberg', Germany, in 181 5, and with his father, John David Lust, he came to America in 1820, crossing the ocean on one of the old-time sailing vessels, which required weeks to make the passage. On reaching the shores of the new world the father brought his family to Ohio, and first located in Marion County, and ten years later coming to Crawford County. From that time forward until his death Frederick Lust was a resident of this county. He lived in Lykens Township and there he purchased a tract of wild land, which he transformed into a productive farm.

As a companion and helpmate for the journey of life Mr. Lust chose Sophia Beal and unto them were born nine children : Samuel, now deceased; Lydia, the wife of Frederick Heiber, of Liberty Township; Sophia, the wife of Martin Durr, by whom she had three children; Benjamin, deceased; Louisa, who married Charles Lindner, of Valparaiso, Indiana; Susan, deceased; Emanuel, who is living in Holmes Township; Isaac, who has passed away; and Nathaniel, who resides at Sulphur Springs, Ohio. For his second wife Rev. Mr. Lust chose Dorothy Gross.

Throughout his active business career he carried on farming, and at the time of his death was the owner of two hundred and fifty acres of valuable land, for as time passed he made judicious investments of his earnings and thus gained a valuable property. He was also the first minister of the Pietist Church in this locality and for forty years gave much time, energy and consecrated thought to the work of helping his fellow men to walk in the path pointed out by the Savior. In politics he was a Democrat, and served as school director and trustee of his township. He took an active interest in educational affairs and in all movements tending to benefit the community. By precept and example he labored for the cause of the church, and his influence was very marked. His memory remains as a benediction to all who knew this worthy and upright pioneer.

270. Rev. Isaac (Buehl)⁸ Beal (Johann Georg (Beal)⁷ Buehl, Johann Michael⁶, Michael⁵, Anna Catharina⁴ Eckhardt, Martin³, Hans² Eckardt, Martin¹ Eckert) was born 26 Aug 1828 in Hepburn Twp,

Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 06 May 1917 in Crawford Co, Ohio. He married Christina Hurr 15 Sep 1853 in Crawford Co, Ohio, daughter of Jacob Hurr and Christiana Kehrer. She was born 25 Dec 1830 in Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 29 Apr 1916 in Crawford Co, Ohio.

Notes for Rev. Isaac (Buehl) Beal:

In 1842, he came to Crawford Co, Ohio, locating on the eastern border of Sandusky Plains.

History of Crawford County and Ohio Biographical sketches, Part III, Chicago - Baskin & Battey, Historical Publishers, 1881; page 718:

Isaac Beal, farmer: P. O. Bucyrus; son of George and Barbara (Shearer) Beal, was born Aug. 28, 1828, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. He remained there going to school and on the farm until 14 years of age. In 1842, he came to Crawford County, Ohio, locating on the eastern border of Sandusky Plains. He went to school two terms on the old Mud Pike, and, Sept. 15, 1833, married Christina Hurr, daughter of the late George and Christina (Kehrer) Hurr. By her he has the following family: Mary A., born Dec. 2, 1854; Simeon G., Oct. 19, 1856; Elizabeth, Sept. 21, 1858; Benjamin F., March 31, 1860; Katie, March 9, 1866; Ellen B., April 11, 1872 and Martha Jan. 23, 1876. Of this family Daniel and John are dead; the former's death occurred in 1872 and the latter's in the same year. Mrs. Beal was born Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, Dec. 25, 1830. Mr. Beal is a kind husband and an affectionate father. He now has charge of the old homestead to which he has added 124 acres of land. His parents are yet living making their home with their son on the old farm. Mr. Beal takes much pain in the rearing of blooded stock and at present has some fine specimens of full blooded short-horn and Durham cattle. He is a Democrat in politics, but sometimes deviates from voting the straight Democratic ticket. Beal is a member of the M. E. Church and the Beal family are known to be intelligent and highly respected people.

History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 620:

Rev. Beal, a highly respected retired farmer of Bucyrus, Ohio, and a lay preacher in the German Methodist Church, was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, August 28, 1828, and is a son of George and a grandson of John Michael Beal, the latter of whom married in their native village near Stuttgart, Germany. He was born September 3, 1759, and she was but a few years younger. After the birth of their children, namely: John Michael, Jr., George, Frederick and Dorothea, they joined a colony that had determined to seek a country where religious opinions were not regulated by law. With this party of their friends and neighbors, the Beals came down the Rhine River to a secluded seaport and on June 9, 1804, embarked on a sailing vessel, the Margaretta, for America. They were tossed on the waves of the Atlantic for two and one-half months before they reached their safe haven, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

From Philadelphia the party proceeded to Germantown and in the following spring went on their way to the point for which they had started, Williamsport, in Lycoming County. There they built a rough hewn edifice which they dedicated to church purposes, in 1828 and the little building still stands. There Conrad F. Haller expounded the Scriptures to them as a lay reader, being a man of some learning. In 1833 a part of the colony came on to Crawford County with a view of improving their material condition, and from the favorable reports received from them, the Ohio lands were fertile and desirable. This information led to a part of the Beal family coming to Crawford County in 1842 and the remainder in 1843. They purchased land situated about three and one-half miles southeast of Bucyrus and a part of this is still in the possession of the Beal family. The original purchase of 200 acres was made for $3,000, while this same land at the present time could not be purchased for $100 per acre.

The grandmother of Rev. Isaac Beal, and one daughter, died in Pennsylvania, but the grandfather survived until he was eighty-nine years old and died in 1848, in Crawford County. His sons became farmers here and all have been noted for good citizenship. A few of the older members of the family have always subscribed to the doctrine of the Pietist community, that being the name given the religious colony, while others have become identified with more liberal sects. While still residing in Pennsylvania, George Beal was married to Barbara Sherer, who was also born in Germany and came to America with her parents when she was five years old. George Beal and wife were among those members of the family who continued in communion with the Pietists. They were worthy, virtuous, self denying people, examples of Christianity, and they were permitted to live long lives together, his death occurring in 1881, two years after that of his wife, when they were about eighty-seven years of age. Four children were born to them, Isaac, the eldest, being the only survivor. Mary, the second in order of birth, died in December, 1910. She was the wife of Nathan Mutchler, who is also deceased. Jacob, the third member of the family, died at Youngstown, Ohio, in 1909, and is survived by a family. Benjamin, the youngest, was a citizen of Bucyrus and for many years was secretary of the Crawford County Mutual Fire Insurance Company. A family survives him.

Isaac Beal was reared in Lycoming County and was with the first section of the Beal family that came pioneering to Crawford county in 1842 and has been identified with this section ever since. After his father's death he became owner of a part of the old homestead and for many years has carried on extensive operations both in farming and stock raising. During his active years on the farm he made a specialty of growing sheep. He continued his agricultural activities until 1891, when he retired to Bucyrus, where he has resided ever since. For many years a member of the German Methodist Church, he has also been a trustee and lay preacher, and in the latter relation is valued by a congregation that holds him in the highest esteem.

Mr. Beal was married in September, 1853, to Miss Christina Hurr, who was born in Pennsylvania, December 25, 1831, and was a member of the Pietist colony that came to Crawford from Lycoming County. She is a member of the German Methodist Church, in which faith the children have been reared. They are as follows: Simon George, who is a farmer in Crawford County, married Catherine Sherer, who died December 17, 1910, leaving one son, Milton S.; Mary A., who is the wife of H. F. Miller; Lizzie, who is the wife of J. G. Hipp, of Bucyrus, and has five children- Raymond, Rufus, Mary, Naomi and Martha; Benjamin F., a minister of the German Methodist church, and a graduate of Wallace Theological college, having a charge at Cleveland, who married Josephine Deitrich and has six children - Carl, Paul, Theodore, Maria, Catherine and Wilbur; Catherine, who is the wife of Rev. J. C. Gerlach, a German Methodist minister at Cincinnati, a graduate of Wallace college; Ellen B., who lives with her parents; and Martha M., who graduated from the Bucyrus High School in the class of 1894 and for ten years has been an acceptable teacher in the city public schools. The Beal family enjoyed a reunion on August 29, 1911, and among the other entertainments was an interesting history of the family that had been prepared with much care by Miss Martha and was read by her to those present. The record showed a long line of sober, faithful, honest, industrious, law-abiding and God fearing ancestors.

He married Mary Stolz, March 19, 1861, and began farming on 80 acres of land just east of the pike; where he lived until 1879 when he came to his present farm on the old pike - he owns 185 acres of fine farming and grazing land, and has dealt largely in sheep since 1872; buying, grazing and feeding for market.

His wife died November 14, 1867 three children were the fruits of this marriage, viz., Albert G., born February 11, 1862; Daniel Wesley, born March 10, 1865, and Emma born June 7, 1866. His father was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, February 14, 1793, and came to America with his father's family in 1805, being at the time 10 years old; the family settled in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, where he followed farming until he grew up. In about the year 1825, he married Anna B. Shearer, a native of Wurtemberg whose family came to America in 1804 settling also in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. After marriage they lived on a farm there until 1843, when they came through to Ohio in a large covered wagon and settled in Whetstone Twp, Crawford County, Ohio, where he still lives; he is in his 86th year and his wife, in her 80th year; he purchased 160 acres of land when he came to the county and by energy and industry added another quarter-section to it. Kimbrell v. Rogers. - Hill in Equity for Foreclosure of Mortgage.

1. Limitation of appeal.—When an appeal is claimed within the statutory period (Code, §3619), and security for the costs is lodged with the clerk or register, the right of appeal is perfected, without regard to the issue or service of a citation.

[Kimbrell v. Rogers.]

2. final decree.—Under a bill for the foreclosure of a mort is (toil gage, the existence of any indebtedness being denied, a decree which declares that the complainant is entitled to relief, and has a lien on the land for any balance that may be found due on a statement of the account by the register, which is ordered, is interlocutory only; and the decree which, on the coming in of the register's report ascertaining the balance due, confirms the report, and orders a sale of the land for the satisfaction of the indebtedness, is the final decree.

3. Assignments of error, on appeal from final decree.—On appeal from the final decree in a chancery cause, errors may be assigned on all previous interlocutory decrees, but not on orders or decrees subsequently rendered, such as awarding a writ of assistance, or confirming the register's report of sale.

4. Husband and wife as parties to bill.—Since the passage of the statute now in force, February 28th, 1887 (Code, §§2341-51), the husband is not a necessary party defendant to a bill which seeks to charge or subject property belonging to the wife's separate estate; but, when the bill seeks to foreclose a mortgage on lands, in which the wife joined with her husband, in the form required for her relinquishment of dower, she is properly joined as a defendant, in order to bar her rights.

5. Description of lands in mortgage.—A mortgage conveying "the following described tract or parcel of land, to wit, the property known as Kimbrell's grist and saw mill and gin, together with all the privileges and appurtenances belonging thereto, is sufficient to convey two acres of land, on which the mill and gin were situated, which had always been used in connection therewith, and shown to be necessary to the enjoyment thereof.

6. Adverse possession by widow, as against heirs.—When a widow remains in possession of her husband's lands, her dower not having been assigned, holding in recognition of the title of the heirs, and claiming only as widow, she cannot assert a title by adverse possession against an alienee or grantee of the heirs.

7. Errors prejudicial to some of appellants only.—When the final decree in a chancery cause injuriously affects the rights or interests of some of the defendants only, but they all jointly appeal, and join in the assignment of errors, such errors are not available to work a reversal: the parties injured should assign errors separately as to those matters.

Appeal from the Chancery Court of Marengo.

Heard before the Hon. Tuos. W. Coleman.

The bill in this case was filed on the 26th March, 1887. by William I). Rogers against Roland Kimbrell and his wife, Mrs. Sallie Kimbrell; and against Edward B. Rentz, Riehani E. Rentz, and Mrs. Alice MetJehee, a married woman, who were the children of Mrs. Kimbrell by a former husband; and sought to foreclose a mortgage which said Kimbrell and wife had executed to the complainant. The mortgage was dated August 7th, 1883, and purported to secure an indebtedness of said Kimbrell and wife to Rogers, evidenced by several promissory notes, aggregating $700; and it was signed and re^ularly acknowledged by Kimbrell and his wife. The property conveyed by the mortgage was therein described as follows: "The following described tract or parcel of land, to wit: the [Kimbrell v. Rogers.] property known as Kimbrell's grist and saw mill and gin, together with all the privileges and appurtenances belonging thereto, situate, lying and being in the county of Marengo." The bill sought to condemn, as the property conveyed, two acres of land on which the mill and gin were erected, particularly describ^ed by metes and bounds, on the ground that they were "ordinarily used in connection therewith, and are necessary to its proper use."

The mill was built on a tract of land containing about 133 acres, which had belonged to Benjamin Rentz, who was the first husband of Mrs. Kimbrell, and who was killed at the battle of Chickamauga, in September, 1863; the other defendants being their children. At the time of the death of said Benjamin Rentz, his wife and infant children were living on the tract of land, and they continued afterwards to occupy it as a homestead; but there was no allotment of a homestead, nor any assignment of dower to the widow. In 18<>7 Mrs. Rentz married said Roland Kimbrell, and he built the mill and gin a year or two afterwards, occupying the land with his wife and her children. On the 12th April, 1880, the three children, E. B., R. E. and Alice Rentz, the latter being then a minor, conveyed their interest in the tract to said Roland Kimbrell, by deed duly acknowledged on the same day, which was in these words: "Know all men by these presents, that in consideration of the sum of $<><> to us in hand paid by R. Kimbrell, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, we do jrrant, bargain, sell and convey to said Roland Kimbrell, the following describ^ed real estate, containing 133 J acres," describing it; "to have and to hold to the said R. Kimbrell, his heirs and assigns forever. Witness our hands and seals," &c. During the year 1880 Kimbrell formed a partnership with W. D. Rogers, the complainant, in carrying on the business of the mill and gin; and on the dissolution of the partnership in August, 1883, the notes and mortgage were given to secure the balance ascertained to be due to complainant.

The defendants jointly demurred to the bill, on the grounds, (1) that Mrs. Kimbrell was improperly joined as a defendant, and (~2) that the husband of Mrs. Alice McGehee was a necessary party; but the chancellor overruled the demurrer, on each ground. Separate answers were filed by the defendants.

Kimbrell and wife denied any indebtedness to Rogers at the time the notes and mortgages were executed, and assailed their validity on the ground of fraud and misrepresentation on the part of Rogers; and each denied that the mortgage was intended to convey any part of the land. Kimbrell asserted that he had no interest in the land, and intended only to con [Kimbrell v. Rogers.] vey the mill and appurtenances which he had erected; and Mrs. Kimbrell alleged that she refused to sign the mortgage until assured by the justice of the peace, before whom it was acknowledged, that it did not convey any land whatever; "that no land was mentioned on it;" and she also alleged that she had been in possession of the land, under claim of ownership, since September, 1803; and pleaded her coverture in defense against any personal liability on the notes. The other defendants, in their answers, each asserted their mother's possession of the land, and claim of ownership, from their earliest recollection; and as to their said conveyance to R. Kimbrell, dated April 12th, 1880, alleged that it was without consideration, and that it was procured at the instance of the complainant, who was then scheming to get the property; and Mrs. Alice McGehee alleged that she was a minor when she signed the instrument.

On hearing on pleadings and proof, the chancellor rendered a decree, January 18th, 1888, " that the complainant is entitled to relief, and has a lien upon the property described and conveyed by the mortgage, and is entitled to have said property sold to satisfy his said debt, or the balance due thereon ;"* and lie ordered an account to be stated by the register, to ascertain the balance due. On the 28th March, 1888, the register having made his report, showing a balance of $(547.18 due to complainant, the chancellor confirmed the report, and rendered a decree for the sale of "the following parcel of land," describing it by metes and bounds, "containing two acres, more or less, with the mill located thereon, and all the privileges and appurtenances unto said mill belonging." From this decree the present appeal was prosecuted, by all of the defendants jointly, and they here assigned it as error, together with the decree on the demurrer to the bill, and the decree of January 18th, 1888. The appeal was sued out March 28th, 1889.

The record shows, also, that the register sold the land on the 4th June, 1888, the complainant becoming the purchaser, at the price of $500, which he paid to the register; that the complainant, as purchaser, made application for a writ of assistance, the defendants having refused to surrender the possession on demand; that the chancellor granted the writ, by order dated July 2d, 1888, against the objections of the defendants; and that on the 16th October, 1888, the register's report of the sale was confirmed, the defendants' exceptions thereto being overruled, and a personal decree was rendered against R. Kimball for $333.37, the balance due on the decree with costs, after deducting the proceeds of sale. Errors were assigned on each of these decrees; [Kimbrell v. Rogers.] but the appellee submitted a motion to strike them out, and also to strike out the assignments founded on the decree, of January 18th, 1888.

Eugene Mccaa, for appellants. Tayloe & Johnston, contra.

McCLELLAN, J.—The decree appealed from was rendered on the 28th day of March, 1888. The respondents below prayed the appeal, and executed security for the costs thereof, on the 28th day of March, 1881). The undertaking to secure costs was approved and tiled in the office of the register on that day. The citation of appeal was not issued, however, until the following day, March 29th, 1881); and not served until April 2d, 1880. Upon this state of facts, it is insisted that the appeal was not taken within a year from the rendition of the decree, is consequently barred by the statute, and that appellee's motion to strike out the assignment of errors should be granted.

We cannot concur in this view. An appeal is "taken," within the meaning of our statute, when the party desiring to prosecute it has complied with the conditions upon which the law gives the right. The only condition precedent in this ease was the filing with the register, within one year from the rendition of the decree, a sufficient undertaking to secure costs. This was done, and the right fully perfected within the time limited. Whatever else remained to be done, in effectuating a review of the case by this court, depended upon the discharge of duty by a public officer, and not upon any act of the appellants. The appeal having been taken on March 28th, it, became the register's duty to cite appellee to its defense in this court, and make out and file here a transcript in the cause. The citation is no part of, nor does it constitute any step in, taking the appeal. Section 3631 of the Code demonstrates that it issues only after the appeal has been taken, and accomplishes its office, if it carries notice of the appeal to the appellee ten days or more before the day on which the appeal is returnable. The duty of the officer is fully performed, if the citation is issued in time to accomplish this purpose, as was done in this case.—Moore

v. Spier, 80 Ala. 12!).

The decree from which the appeal is prosecuted, was the final decree in the cause. That of January 18th, 1888, was interlocutory. It adjudged that complainant was entitled to relief; that he had a lien on the land for the payment of any sum still due on the note and mortgage: and that for the satisfaction of such balance he was entitled to have the land sold. Whether there was anything due on the mortgage, was a disputed question in the case. The indebtedness claimed was denied by the answer of R. Kimbrell. The issue thus presented involved one of the equities upon which complainant's right to relief depended. This issue of indebtedness vel non was not determined by the decree of January 18th, but was by that decree referred to the register, and the essence of the relief prayed—the sale of the land for the satisfaction of the mortgage—could not be, and was not granted, until after the coming in of the register's report, ascertaining indebtedness under the mortgage; the confirmation thereof, and the decree of sale of March 28th, 1888.—Earnest v. Pruitt, 32 Ala. 13. The January decree was, therefore, interlocutory—it did not settle all the equities between the parties, nor fully adjudge the relief for which complainant prayed. That of March was final, and the appeal brings it and all previously rendered interlocutory decrees up for review.—Walker v. Crawford, 70 Ala. 567.

There was no error in the decree overruling demurrers for non-joinder and misjoinder of parties. Under the act of February 28, 1887, which was of force when the bill in this case was filed, the husband was not a necessary party defendant to a bill filed against a married woman, seeking to subject or charge her separate estate.—Marshall v. Marshall, 86 Ala. 38.3. The theory of the bill is, that the lands embraced in the mortgage belonged to Roland Kimbrell. The conveyance having been executed by his wife, in the manner prescribed by the statute for the relinquishment of her inchoate right of dower, she was a proper party defendant to the suit to foreclose the mortgage, and cut off that right by a sale of the fee. Sims v. Nat. Com. Bank, 73 Ala. 248; McGehee v. Lehman, Burr & Co., 65 Ala. 320.

The mortgage in terms conveys "the following described tract or parcel of land, to-wit: the property known as Kimbrell's grist and saw mill and gin, together with all the privileges and appurtenances belonging thereto, lying in Marengo county," &c. It was in evidence, that two acres of land, upon which the mill and gin were situated, had always been used in connection therewith, and was necessary to the enjoyment thereof. This land, we think, is embraced in the descriptive words of the conveyance, as "the tract or parcel of land known as the Kimbrell grist and saw mill and gin property." But, were this otherwise, the land manifestly is appurtenant to the mill and gin, and essential to their reasonable use; and while, ordinarily, land cannot be said to pass as appurtenant to land, [Kimbrell v. Rogers.] if the land expressly granted does not admit of reasonable enjoyment without certain adjacent land, which has been constantly used with the land granted, it will also pass.—Woodman v. Smith, 53 Me. 81; Biddle v. Littlefield, 53 N. H. 508; Voorhees v. Burchard, 55 N. Y. 102; Euty v. Currier, 98 Mass. 502; Allen v. Scott, 21 Pick. 25.

The contention of appellants, that the mortgage is void, proceeds upon the assumption, that the land in controversy belonged to the statutory separate estate of Mrs. Kimbrell. The proof fails to support this assumption. On the contrary, there is no dispute but that the property belonged to her first husband, and passed to his heirs, who are defendants to this bill. Her claim to have acquired title by adverse possession, cannot be allowed. The evidence is free from conflict, that she at no time claimed to hold otherwise than as the widow of Benjamin Rente, and in recognition of the title of his heirs. Her only right, therefore, was to have dower assigned out of the land, and to occupy it until that could be done. This right lies in action only, and constitutes no estate in the premises. Beeves v. Brooks, 80 Ala. 26.

Whether her right to dower was barred by the lapse of twenty years from the date at which it might have been asserted (Barksdale v. Garrett, 44 Ala. 280), or whether, if still subsisting, it was, or could have been made, available in resisting the present bill, are questions which are not presented by this record, as will be seen further on, in such way as that we can consider them.

The land in controversy was sold and conveyed, in April, 1880, by the heirs of Benjamin Rentz, deceased, to the respondent, Roland Kimbrell. Two of the three grantors in that conveyance were of full age at the date of its execution. The third, Alice Rentz, now Alice McGehee, was a minor. That part of the purchase-money which belonged to the adults was paid. This deed, it is very clear, vested all the right, title and interest of the adult heirs in the respondent, Roland Kimbrell. The mortgage executed by the latter and his wife, it is equally clear, passed all his estate in the land conditionally, into the complainant. The decree foreclosing the mortgage, and ordering a sale of the land for its satisfaction, is certainly free from any taint of error which could prejudice or impair any right or interest of the adult heirs or their grantee, the defendant, Kimbrell. The plaintiff was, beyond question, entitled to have their interests foreclosed, and their estates in the property subjected to the payment of his debt. It may be conceded, that the undivided one-third interest of Alice McGehee did not pass by the deed of 1880 to Roland Kimbrell, because [Kimbrell v. Rogers.] of her disability of infancy, which is pleaded in this case, and that, of consequence, this interest did not pass by the mortgage to the complainant. It may also be conceded, without affecting the result of this appeal, that there was some outstanding property right in Mrs. Kimbrell, resulting from her survivorship of her first husband, which the mortgage was not efficient to convey. And as a deduction from these concessions, the decree may be admitted to be erroneous, in that it forecloses and orders to be sold the property rights of Alice McGehee and Mrs. Kimbrell. Yet, manifestly, the error in this regard affect only these two respondents. They alone have a right to complain of it, and to ask this court to reverse the action of the Chancery Court by which their rights are prejudiced. The error, if any, is without injury to the other appellants, and no reversal on account of it can be had at their instance.—Norwood v. M. d C. R. R. Co., 72 Ala. 603; Gilman v. J\l r. O. d S. R. R. Co., lb. 566; Walker v. Jones, 23 Ala. 448.

This appeal is taken and prosecuted by all the defendants below. The assignments of error in this court are made by them jointly. The decree appealed from involves no error injurious to the appellants, E. B. Rentz, R. E. Rentz, or Roland Kimbrell. If it involves error working injury to the rights of the other appellants—an inquiry which it is not necessary to enter upon—they should have severed in the assignment of it. The former adjudications and settled practice of this court impel us to disregard assignments of error, made jointly by all the appellants, as to matters which are available, if at all, to some of them only.—McGehee v. Lehman, Burr d Co., 65 Ala. 320.

Those assignments which are directed against the decrees of July 2d, 1888 (ordering petition for writ of assistance), and October 16th, 1888 (confirming report of register), must lye stricken out in response to motion of appellee. The record shows that no appeal was taken from either of these decrees. Atkinson v. C. d N. Railway Co., 34 X. W. Rep. 63; Horn v. Volcano Wate?* Co., 18Cal. 142; Bortiheimer v. Baldwin, 38 Oal. 671.

Affirmed.

Notes for George Washington Rentz:

George W. Rentz Confederate Soldier was born Nov 28, 1838, he died Nov 13, 1921. He enlisted Mar-1862 Linden, Alabama as a private in Company B, 43rd Alabama Infantry. Widow Rhoda Ann Rentz is buried in the Confederate Memorial Park Cemetery Chilton County. He is buried in the Sweetwater Cemetery Marengo County.

Linden - Died at a Selma hospital on Sunday morning, November 13, 1921, after a lingering illness, Mr. G. W. Rentz, aged 83. Burial took place at his home, Sweet Water, Alabama, the funeral being held from the Methodist church, of which Mr. Rentz was a member. The attendance was perhaps' the largest ever seen in the community as numerous friends of the deceased came long distances to pay the last tribute of respect.

Surviving him are a widow; one son, Mr. G. A. Rentz, of Myrtlewood, Alabama; two daughters, Mrs. G. F. Nichols, of Nicholsville, and Mrs. W. E. Rhodes, of Linden, besides seven children of a deceased daughter, Mrs. M. H. Mayo, also an adopted daughter.

Mrs. McMurphy, of Mobile. The parents of Mr. Rentz were German immigrants who came to this country in pioneer days, settling among the stately pines of South Marengo, where they established a home and reared their family. George Washington grew up a man of sterling qualities who never compromised with wrong or indulged in even questionable transactions, but through a long career led an honest, upright and blameless life. In the Civil War he served in the Confederate army doing his duty as a soldier and sharing the dangers hardships and privations of the men who wore the gray. He was devoted to his church his Sunday school, and his preacher, and never failed to contribute liberally to their support. As a tangible evidence of the esteem in which he was held by the community, a beautiful window was erected as a background to the altar of the church and dedicated to his memory a touching tribute of appreciation tendered while he was yet alive to receive and cherish it. He was an ideal citizen. The world is better for his having lived in it. His works will live after him he is immortal.

Linden, Dec. 29. 1921 - George Washington Rentz was born Nov. 28, 1838, and departed this life Nov. 13, 1921, lacking only a few days of being 83 years old. He was married twice. His first wife was Miss Nancy Miller, to whom he was married on the October 11, 1859. To the union were born four children, his first wife preceded him to the grave several years ago. His second marriage was to Mrs. Rhoda Corgill, April 12, 1906, with whom he lived in perfect peace and harmony until his death on above date. His parents, George and Margarite Akkart Rentz, came from Germany in 1833.

Brother Rentz was converted and joined the church at the age of twelve. He lived a beautiful consistent member of the same ever afterward. He loved his church and her ministers. He was ever alert for the comfort and convenience of his pastor. From early young manhood he served in various official positions in his church, and when he died. He held the offices of Sunday school superintendent, steward, and trustee. He was faithful and efficient in these relations to the church. He never missed any service of his church unless providentially hindered. One sentence of his prayer was for a "gracious revival of true spiritual religion that would result in genuine conversion of sinners, and the building up of the saints in the most holy faith."

He lived to see the manifestation of God's grace to men demonstrated over and over again, and it was especially true last spring whence attended his last revival on earth and saw his church again quickened with revival fires. Brother Rentz lingered several months before the end came. The writer had several talks with him during his illness, always with the assurance that he was prepared for death and ready to meet his Lord. "He sleeps in Jesus that blessed sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep." Bro. Rentz served during the Civil War and was wounded in the battle of Chickamauga, the scar of which he carried with him to the grave.

Besides a number of grand and great-grandchildren, the following; children survive him: Mrs. Annie Nichols, of Nicholsville, Alabama; G. A. Rentz, of Myrtlewood; Mrs. Ella Rhodes, of Linden; a third daughter; Mrs. Willie Mayo; preceded him to the other world. We laid him away in the Sweet Water cemetery beside his former wife to await the resurrection of the just. We said "Good-bye;" but we shall see him again. His Pastor, D. L. Folsom.

Notes for William Jefferson (Matt) Lewis:

The Sweet Water Cotton Gin at Sweet Water, Alabama (ginning for over 140 years)

Sources: The Rentz Lewis Family & The Thomasville Times

Sweet Water, Alabama is a small community located on Highway 10 in the southern part of Marengo County. The Sweet Water Cotton Gin has been a large part of the landscape of downtown Sweet Water for many years. Traveling from the east on Highway 10, the cotton gin is the first thing that you see as you enter Sweet Water. There are several large cotton storage warehouses located on the left side of the road and the cotton gin is on the right.

This Sweet Water Cotton Gin has been in operation for over 140 years. William Jefferson Lewis began it on a nearby family farm in 1870. The operation was moved to its current location in 1927. The Lewis family still owns and operates the cotton gin. The ginner after William Jefferson was his son, Norman Lewis, and then his son, Rentz Lewis, and the current ginner is Rentz's son, Will Lewis. Today, the ginning process is a joint effort of the Rentz Lewis family. Will Lewis manages the cotton gin. Sim Lewis, manages the farming operation which includes the planting and picking of the cotton fields. Matt Lewis manages trucking which includes transporting the cotton from the fields to the gin and transporting the finished cotton bales to customers.

The Sweet Water Cotton Gin was upgraded in 1997. This upgrade included the installation of a new metal structure directly over the old 1927 traditional looking tin-covered gin building. A section of the old building extends from the north side of the new building.

520. Nathaniel⁹ Lust (Sophia⁸ Beal, Johann Michael⁷ Buehl, Johann Michael⁶, Michael⁵, Anna Catharina⁴ Eckhardt, Martin³, Hans² Eckardt, Martin¹ Eckert) was born 30 Sep 1861 in Lykens Twp, Crawford Co, Ohio, and died 28 Apr 1917 in Crawford Co, Ohio. He married Catherine Susanna Klopfenstein 25 Sep 1884 in Crawford Co, Ohio, daughter of Isaac Klopfenstein and Mary Bittikopfer. She was born 01 Sep 1864 in Ohio, and died 14 Aug 1924 in Crawford Co, Ohio.

Notes for Nathaniel Lust:

A Centennial Biographical History of Crawford County, Ohio. Chicago - The Lewis Publishing Company 1902; page 354:

Nathan Lust, who resides in Liberty Township, was born in Lykens Township, on the 30th of September, 1861. His father, Frederick Lust, was a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, born December 24, 1813, and during his childhood he came to America with his parents. After a short stay in Pennsylvania the family removed to Marion County, Ohio, where the grandparents took up their abode, and as the sons, Caleb, Conrad and Frederick, attained sufficient age and strength, they secured work on the Columbus & Sandusky turnpike. In this way they earned the capital which they later invested in land, each securing a farm of one hundred and sixty acres early in the '30s. Caleb, who was married, and Frederick Lust came to Crawford County with their household effects loaded in a wagon, and on reaching Chatfield Township; they located on a farm in the forest. Caleb there entered one hundred and sixty acres of land and erected a cabin as quickly and as cheaply as possible, while Frederick Lust, who was preparing for the ministry, boarded with his brother and sister-in-law. He adopted the ministry as his life work and for thirty years engaged in preaching the gospel. Although he was not a member of any organized church, he gained many followers through his teachings, his wonderful personality and his clear presentation of the truths of Christianity, and erected what was known as the Lust Church. In recent years the old house of worship was torn down and a substantial brick church was erected, which is still known by the old name. Rev. Lust was a man of wonderful memory, of strong mentality and of unquestioned fidelity to the principles in which he believed and which he taught. He labored among his fellow men for their own good and up building of the cause and never sought remuneration for his work in the church. Sometime after his arrival in Crawford County he purchased one hundred and sixty acres of land of Robert Knott, who was the original settler of the place. The farm was located in Lykens Township and there he resided up to the time of his death, which occurred in 1883. In his political views he was a Democrat and he gave his hearty co-operation to every movement or measure which he believed would prove of public benefit. In early manhood he married Miss Sophia Beal, who was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, June 1, 1821, a daughter of Michael and Sophia Beal, both of whom were natives of Germany, but became early settlers of Crawford County. Mrs. Lust passed away December 23, 1864, when our subject was only four years of age, and the father afterward married Miss Dorothy Gross, who still survives him, and is now the widow of Ernest Wilhelm. Unto the parents of Nathan Lust were born nine children, five of whom are yet living, namely: Lydia, the wife of Frederick Hieber, of Liberty Township; Sophia, the widow of Martin Durr, of Chatfield Township; Louisa, wife of Charles Lindner, of Valparaiso, Indiana; Emanuel, who is living in Holmes Township; and Nathan.

In taking up the personal history of Nathan Lust we learn that his boyhood days were spent under the refining influences of a good Christian home and there was received the foundation for his upright character and his useful career. His literary education was obtained in the common schools. On the 25th of September, 1884, he married Miss Catherine S. Klopfenstein, a daughter of Isaac Klopfenstein, a prominent merchant and stock man of Sulphur Springs. The young couple began their domestic life upon his father's farm, which Mr. Lust rented until 1889, when he removed to Sulphur Springs, and, in partnership with his father-in-law, purchased the flouring mill at that place, carrying on the enterprise for three years, after which they exchanged the mill for one hundred and sixty acres of land, known as the "Old Fry" farm, just north of the town. To this place Mr. Lust removed, making it his home, and after the death of his father-in-law in 1898, he purchased it in partnership with the Keller brothers, cultivating the place for one year. On the expiration of that period he sold his interest in the farm and purchased his present home of forty-one acres in Liberty township. He also owns forty-eight acres in Sandusky Township, which has been his property for the past ten years.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lust has been blessed with four children, of whom three are yet living, namely: Wilbert Lee, Frederick I. and Lloyd E. The daughter, Lulu L., who was the third in order of birth, is now deceased. Mr. Lust keeps well informed on the political issues of the day and votes with the Democracy, but he has never been a politician in the sense of an office-seeker, although he served for twelve years as school director. He belongs to the German Reformed church, in which he has held the office of deacon and elder for several years, and for five years he served as superintendent of the Sunday-school. By all who know him he is highly esteemed as one of the representative men of his community, honored for his sterling worth and respected for his social and friendly nature.

Notes for Rev. John Beal:

A Centennial Biographical History of Crawford County, Ohio. Chicago - The Lewis Publishing Company 1902; page 463:

Rev. John Beal, whose life has been devoted to agricultural pursuits and to spiritual work among his fellow men, is a gentleman of wide influence, teaching by example as well as precept of the development of one's higher nature through the influences of Christianity. He was born in Holmes Township, this county, on the 9th of June, 1857, and is a son of Conrad Beal, a native of Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, who, after arriving at years of maturity, married Elizabeth Wagner, and unto them were born the following children: Daniel, of Bucyrus Township; Magdeline, wife of J. D. Durr; Solomon, of Chatfield Township; Lydia, wife of Samuel Shawl, of Liberty Township; Sophia, who married Jacob Berger, of Holmes township; and John, of this review. It was in the year 1848 that Conrad Beal left his home in the Keystone state and came to Crawford County, taking up his abode upon a farm in Whetstone Township, where he remained until 1854, when he settled in Holmes Township upon a farm of eighty acres now owned by Jacob Meek. There he lived until 1869, when he went to Chatfield Township, purchasing two hundred and forty acres of land, constituting the farm which is now owned by Emanuel Kalb. There Mr. Beal continued to carry on agricultural pursuits until his life's labors were ended in death and he was called to the home beyond. He passed away in October, 1895, at the age of seventy-one years, his birth having occurred in 1824, and his wife died in 1900, at the age of seventy-four. They were consistent Christian people, holding membership with the Pietist Church.

Rev. Beal, of this review, was a lad of twelve summers when the family removed to Chatfield township. At the age of eleven years he began working as a farm hand, and was thus employed for two years, while throughout the remainder of his minority he assisted his father in the work of the home farm. His educational privileges were those afforded by the common schools, but subsequent reading, study, experience and investigation have broadened his mind, added to his store of knowledge and made him a well-informed man.

On the 8th of August, 1880, Mr. Beal was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Elizabeth Lust, a daughter of Conrad Lust, and their marriage has been blessed with the following children: Mattie, Laura E., John W., Frederick N., Reuben E., Jessie D. and Edna N.

Soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Beal began their domestic life upon her father's farm, where they remained for five years, and in 1885 they came to their present home in Chatfield Township, where Mr. Beal has made splendid improvements. He is carrying on general farming and stock-raising with good success, his labors bringing to him a desired financial reward. His progressive methods are indicated in the attractive appearance of the place. During the past eleven years he has also served as the minister of the Pietist Church, and his labors have been productive of great good, as he has put forth strong efforts for the spiritual advancement of the neighborhood. He votes with the Democracy, and is known as a public-spirited citizen, deeply interested in everything pertaining to the welfare of his native county and contributing to its advancement along material, social, intellectual or moral lines.

Jacob Sherer, farmer: P.O. Bucyrus was born in Whetstone Township, Crawford County, Ohio on, January 18, 1835. He is the son of Jacob and Christina (Gross) Sherer. Jacob Sherer was raised upon his father's farm, receiving a good common-school education. He, like his brother has always resided upon the old home farm and he now owns 319 acres of nicely improved land.

He was united in marriage with Miss Mary Hurr October 13, 1859. She was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania July 17, 1841. From this union five children were born to them: Emanuel D., Sarah E., Emma C., John W. and Laura A. Mrs. Sherer died December 27, 1875. Mr. Sherer was again married, to Miss Sarah Beal, on December 14, 1878. She was born in Crawford County, Ohio Oct 21, 1856. Mr. Sherer is a Democrat and has held a number of positions of honor and trust in the township in which he lives.

A Centennial Biographical History of Crawford County, Ohio. Chicago - The Lewis Publishing Company 1902; page 223:

Jacob Sherer, one of the leading and successful farmers of Crawford County, is a native son of the Buckeye state, his birth having occurred in. Whetstone Township, Crawford County, on the 18th of January, 1835. He is a son of Jacob and Christine (Gross) Sherer. The father was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1792, and in 1805 came with his parents to America, locating in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, where Jacob Sherer grew to years of maturity and engaged in farming. In early life he also engaged in the manufacture of looms for weaving, and in later years worked at that occupation in connection with his agricultural pursuits. In 1833 he emigrated to Ohio, and after spending one winter in Richland county he came to Crawford County locating on the farm now owned by a Mr. Kurtz in Whetstone Township. A few years later his parents joined him in this state and he purchased the farm adjoining the one on which our subject now resides on the north, where he spent his remaining days, passing away at the advanced age of eighty-five years. At the time of his death he owned five hundred and twenty-eight acres of land, and was accounted one of the prosperous and representative citizens of the county. He made thirteen trips by wagon to Pennsylvania, having assisted many families to remove to this state.

Mr. Sherer was united in marriage with Christine Gross, also a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, born on the 5th of January, 1797. She came to America in 1804, and her death occurred at the age of seventy-seven years. They became the parents of three children, two of whom still survive, and the sister of our subject, Catherine, is now the wife of Jacob Hurr, of Bucyrus, Ohio. Although not a member of any religious organization, Mr. Sherer was an active worker in the Pietist Church, contributing liberally of his time and means to its support. He was a Democrat in his political affiliations, and both he and his estimable wife were numbered among the worthy and honored' citizens of their adopted county.

Jacob Sherer, whose name introduces this review, enjoyed only the educational advantages afforded by the pioneer schools of his locality, but as the years have passed he has greatly augmented his knowledge by observation, reading and by practical experience. At the early age of twelve years he earned his first money working for a cattle buyer, and by saving his earnings he was soon enabled to purchase a calf, and later on, a colt. He was married at the age of twenty-five years, after which he located in a log cabin on his father's farm and was engaged with the latter in agricultural pursuits until 1870, when he and his brother Samuel took charge of the homestead farm. Sometime later the father divided the land, giving each of the two sons a third interest and retaining the remainder for himself. Mr. Sherer is now the owner of two hundred and seventy-eight acres of the finest land to be found in Crawford County, and there he is engaged in general farming, his efforts being attended with a high and well merited degree of success.

As a companion on the journey of life our subject chose Miss Mary Hurr, a native of Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. She came to Ohio, where their marriage was celebrated. She was a daughter of George Hurr. Unto this union were born five children, all of whom still survive, namely: Emanuel D., a resident of Bucyrus Township, Crawford County; Sarah E., the wife of John Heverly, of Iowa; Emma C. and John W., at home; and Laura A., the wife of Isaac Kurtz, of Whetstone Township. The wife and mother was called to the home beyond in 1875, and three years later Mr. Sherer was united in marriage with Miss Sarah Beal, a native of Crawford county, and the daughter of Jonathan Beal. Two children have graced this union, Bertha E. and Ruth M., both at home. Mr. Sherer exercises his right of franchise in support of the men and measures of the Democracy, and he served one term as trustee of his township. Both he and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which he has held a number of prominent offices, and both are active workers in the cause of Christianity. The family is one of prominence in their community, and they enjoy the high regard and esteem of many friends and acquaintances.

Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio, and died 12 Apr 1908 in Columbia Center, Lorain Co, Ohio. He married Mary (McCully) McCullough 23 Dec 1891, daughter of Samuel McCully and Helena Livingston. She was born 18 Feb 1871 in Ohio, and died 17 Jun 1956 in Crawford Co, Ohio.

Notes for Rev. Albert G. Beal:

Minutes of the ... annual session of the North Ohio Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. By Methodist Episcopal Church. North Ohio Conference; page 80:

Rev. Albert Beal was born on a farm near Bucyrus, Ohio, February 11, 1862. He died in the parsonage home in Columbia Center, Lorain County, Ohio. The end came at 3.30 Sunday afternoon, April 12, 1908. For more than two months he had been in failing health. He had taken treatment in a hospital in Cleveland, Ohio. For a little time all were hopeful that he would regain his health. But not so. The final break soon came, and all hope gave way, for it was certain that he was hearing the end of this life. He was prepared to make the great change, and died in peace. He wanted to live, yet was fully prepared to go. He laid down the activities of life and entered into a full reward in heaven. Brother Beal attended the district school near his father's home. Later he entered the high school in Bucyrus. During his years in the high school he laid a good foundation for his education. With marked ability he completed this course. He graduated with the class of 1882, receiving the first honors of his class, being chosen valedictorian. He then entered his father's office, who was secretary of the Crawford County Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. Later, he taught school for a number of terms—until the fall of 1888, when he entered the Ohio Wesleyan University. In June, 1893, he graduated, and received the B. A. degree. The same year he entered the Boston Theological Seminary, from which he was graduated in 1896, and received the S. T. B. degree. The same year he received the degree of M. A. from the Ohio Wesleyan University. While in the seminary "he served, as assistant pastor, the Shawmut Congregational Church. After graduation, he entered the New England Conference, and with ability served the following charges: Chester, Conway, North Brookfield, and Winchendon. He continued to work in this Conference until 1904, when his health failed, and for a time was compelled to give up active work. He spent a year at the home of his wife's parents, on a farm near Crestline, Ohio. In the fall of 1905 he again took up the active work. He was transferred to the North Ohio Conference, and was appointed to the Lagrange charge. At the Conference at Oberlin, Bishop McDowell appointed him to Columbia, which charge he served until the time of his death.

Brother Beal was well born. He was the son of the late Benjamin and Mary Beal. They were among the early settlers of Crawford County. They did much to build up the best things in their community. He was converted under the ministry of Brother O. Badgley when but a youth. At once he became an active worker in the Church, and grew to manhood clean in life and pure in heart. Through his high school course he was a leader of the young people in all right living; was kind and helpful to his associates. This same way of life was very marked while at college and in the seminary. It was the prevailing power in his life during the years of his active ministry. He was a good man. A man of God. As such he served the Church most effectively. As a student, he was careful and thorough. All duties were attended to at the right time and with marked care. He was a man of order. He loved the Church. The great profession to which God called him was very dear to him. He served the Church gladly and gave to it all he had, in body, mind, and heart, until his Lord called him to the Triumphant Church.

On December 23, 1891, he was happily married to Miss Mary McCully, of Crestline, Ohio, who was a faithful and competent co-worker with him. Together they served the Church. Together they lived a most happy life. One daughter, Beatrice, who is eleven years old, with the faithful wife, are still with us. On Tuesday afternoon, April 14th, funeral services were held in his church at Columbia. Dr. G. A. Reeder, District Superintendent of the Cleveland District, together with other of his brethren in the ministry, conducted this service. The body was then taken to Bucyrus. On Wednesday afternoon, April 15th, in the church where in former years he had been a faithful worker, a large congregation gathered to bear a tribute of love to his memory. Dr. S. E. Idleman, with twenty of his ministerial brethren, conducted this service. His body was tenderly laid to rest in the beautiful Oakwood Cemetery, where also rests the dust of many of his kindred and friends of his early life.—G. A. Reeder, A. Philpott.

551. Daniel Wesley⁹ Beal (Benjamin (Buehl)⁸, Johann Georg (Beal)⁷ Buehl, Johann Michael⁶, Michael⁵, Anna Catharina⁴ Eckhardt, Martin³, Hans² Eckardt, Martin¹ Eckert) was born 10 Mar 1865 in Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio, and died 13 May 1950 in Crawford Co, Ohio. He married Eva Minerva Beall 04 Oct 1888 in Crawford Co, Ohio, daughter of James Beall and Mary Keckler. She was born 19 Feb 1868 in Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio, and died 14 May 1956 in Crawford Co, Ohio.

Notes for Daniel Wesley Beal:

History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 914:

Wesley Beal, a substantial citizen of Crawford County, Ohio, proprietor of a productive farm near Bucyrus, is president of the Crawford County Mutual Fire Insurance Company and is active in all public spirited movements in his section. He belongs to a very highly regarded old family of this part of Ohio, one that has many representatives. He was born in Bucyrus Township, Crawford County, March 10, 1865, and is a son of Benjamin and a grandson of John George, and a great-grandson of John George Beal.

Benjamin Beal was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, in 1840, and in 1843 accompanied the family to Crawford County, where he was reared and attended school to such good purpose that he was a satisfactory teacher in early manhood, afterward becoming a fanner and when he moved to Bucyrus, in 1889, in order to give his children better educational opportunities, he was the owner of two valuable farms. Here he shortly afterward became secretary of the Crawford County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, an office he retained until the close of his life, in 1898. He was a Republican in politics and was interested in the election of suitable men to office but he never countenanced irregular methods in that connection nor in any other. He was known as an honest and upright man. He was one of the organizers of Bucyrus Grange, No. 705, and was master and secretary for some years, and was identified also with the Masons and the order of the Eastern Star. In early life he was a member of the German Methodist Church but at the time of death and some years before, he was united with the English Methodist Episcopal church and was an official. He was also secretary of the Crawford County Agricultural Society for many years.

Benjamin Beal as married first in Bucyrus Township, Crawford County, to Mary Stoltz, who was born in Whetstone Township, her people having come to this county from Pennsylvania three generations ago. She died in 18688, and in 1870 Mr. Beal was married to Lydia A. Rexroth, who died in 1889, the mother of eight children, the following of whom survive: Benjamin, Jr., who lives in Bucyrus township and has three children; Mary A., a graduate of the Delaware University, who is the wife of Rev. Thomas Housel, a minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Delaware and has two children; Edward G., a graduate of the law department in the Delaware University, who is cashier of the First National Bank at Bucyrus, and who married Rachel Monnett; William D., who has but recently returned from a missionary labor of seven years in India, being a Methodist minister and who married a daughter of Bishop Robinson, a missionary of the Methodist church in India; and Bertha E., who is a graduate of the Delaware

University and later a teacher in the Bucyrus High School. To the first marriage of Mr. Beal three children were born: Albert, Wesley and Emma. The eldest son died in 1908. He was a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware and then spent four years in the Boston Theological Seminary and subsequently served the Methodist Episcopal Church as a minister for eight years in Massachusetts and then was transferred to Ohio and continued in his religious work until his death. He married Mary McCully, who survives and resides with her father at Crestline, and has one daughter, Beatrice. Emma, the only daughter, is the wife of Charles E. Ensminger and they live on the old Beal homestead. Their children are Gertrude, Arthur and Edgar.

Wesley Beal, after completing his education, turned his attention to agricultural pursuits. In 1903 he purchased one of the Beal farms and since then has carried on farming and stock raising. For a number of years he has been a director of the Crawford County Mutual Fire Insurance Company and since 1910 has been its president. He is one of the influential Republicans of the county and is a man of high standing in business and politics as well as personally.

In 1888 Mr. Beal was married in Bucyrus Township to Miss Eva Beall, born in 1868, a daughter of James P. and Mary A. (Keckler) Beall, natives of Harrison County, Ohio. They came to Crawford County some 50 years ago and settled in Bucyrus Township, where he became a man of consequence. He died in 1904 and was survived by his widow until 1911. They were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Of their nine children, two died in infancy, seven grew to maturity and five are yet living. To Mr. and Mrs. Beal the following children have been born: Ruth M., Dorsey A., E. Naomi and James B. The family as a unit, belongs to the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Notes for Johann Georg Gross:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Saline Windmill - J. G. Gross & Bros., the manufacturers of this mill, bought out the firm which occupied a building on West Chicago Street, and started the pump and windmill business on November 16, 1875, had patented the "Saline Standard Windmill," which they now manufacture. They occupy one large manufacturing building, one pattern shop and blacksmith shop, and have in their employ 12 men. They also deal extensively in Fairbank scales and farm implements, and carry a stock of about $1,500, while their annual sales amount to nearly $18,000. The "Standard" mill has secured an enviable reputation throughout the surrounding country. A foundry was formerly in connection with the shops, but has been discontinued.

Notes for Emanuel M. Luick:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Emanuel Luick is a member of the firm of Luick Bros., (Gottlob and Emanuel) manufacturers of sash, doors and blinds, their place of business being on the corner of North and Fifth Avenues, Ann Arbor. Our subject was born in Washtenaw County, April 1, 1844, and is the fourth of twelve children. His parents were David and Barbara (Beck) Luick, both of whom are natives of Germany, emigrating to the United States in 1839, and locating upon a farm in Washtenaw County. Mr. Luick was a most successful farmer until his death, which occurred in 1872, his wife preceding him to the better land in 1856.

Our subject, Emanuel Luick, passed his boyhood on the farm, having such school advantages as were offered to the average farmer boy of that time. At the age of eighteen he learned the trade of a carpenter, which he followed for some years, until he became thoroughly acquainted with the branches of the business. He formed a partnership with his brother Gottlob under the firm name of Luick Bros., and started a planing mill, which partnership is still in existence. The brothers first started on a small scale, doing all the work themselves, but as business increased they enlarged the capacity of the mill and now have one of the most substantial industries of Ann Arbor, turning off each 3 ear a large amount of business. The main building is a two-story brick structure which was erected in 1874. They employ a large number of men, and the machinery is driven by a forty horsepower engine. Their business is centrally located in the best part of the city near the Michigan Central depot.

In 1874 Mr. Luick was married to Miss Lora Kalenbach, the daughter of Gottlob Kalenbach, of Fredonia, this county. Her parents were both natives of Germany, and were among the early settlers of Washtenaw County, to whom the county is so much indebted for its present thrift and growth. Mr. and Mrs. Luick have four children—Olive L., Albert C, Malinda and Walter. Mr. Luick is one of the stockholders of the Piano and Organ Manufactory, and is also a stockholder and director in the Vinegar and Fruit Works. In politics he is a Democrat. In the very pleasant home with good surroundings at No. 28 East Liberty Street, Mr. and Mrs. Luick take delight in dispensing hospitality to their many friends in the city.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Luick Bros., proprietors planing mill, and sash, door and blind factory, Ann Arbor, transact a large and increasing business in the above line. As the name implies, they are of German descent. They were born in Michigan, Emanuel in 1844, and Gottlieb in 1846. They were educated in Lima Twp., and learned the carpenter and joiner's trade. They have built up a lucrative business by honesty and integrity.

Notes for Charlotte Lydia Stabler:

Houston, Texas - Puzzled Harris County officers hunted clues today in the mystery death of Miss Charlotte L. Stabler seventy-one-year-old La Porte woman. The woman's body was found Saturday March 10, 1951 in Clear Lake. An autopsy showed that she died from a brain concussion and not by drowning as first suspected. Justice of the Peace Calder Ewing of La Porte said he wanted more evidence in the case before returning a verdict. The body was found floating face-down about six yards from shore. Miss Stabler's automobile was found nearby, but the keys were missing. Her spectacles and the hearing aid which she habitually wore were found at her home, eight miles away. Friends theorized Miss Stabler could not have driven her car eight miles without her glasses. Capt. Lloyd D. Frazier, who is investigating the death, declined to say whether he thought the death was a murder, but other officers said there was a possibility she was killed at her home and taken to the Lake. Sheriff Buster Kern said a locked safety deposit box in the South Texas National Bank, which he hoped to see opened today, n hold the secret of the death. The dead woman was one of La Port's pioneer citizens.

La Porte, Texas, March 12, 1951 - Foul play was hinted today in the strange death of a 72-year-old La Porte woman who was found in Clear Lake. An autopsy revealed that Miss Charlotte Stabler died of concussion, caused by a blow on her head. The not drowning. Authorities believe she fell against something hard or was hit with a blunt instrument. Justice of the Peace Ewing said he wants more evidence before he returns a verdict. Miss Stabler lived alone at her home in La Porte. Her automobile was found near Clear Lake but her dentures and a $100 check she received in a deal to sell her home were missing.

Baytown, Texas, March 13, 1951 - Verdict of accidental death from unknown causes was found today in the death of Miss Charlotte L. Stabler, 71, whose body was found floating in Clear Lake Saturday morning. Justice of the Peace Calder Ewing of La Porte returned the verdict after Miss Stabler's purse was found and her safe deposit box at a Houston bank was examined by Sheriff C. V. (Buster) Kern. Any suspicions investigators had of foul play disappeared when the purse was found in the sand near the point where the body was found. In the purse was $147 in cash, proving that she was not killed in a robbery, officers said. Her car was parked on the road near the lake and her keys were in the purse. Also, in the handbag was a key to her safety deposit box which contained a will and several bonds. The will bequeathed $500 each to two cousins in Michigan and left the rest of her estate to Faith Home.

Investigators said Miss Stabler had been seriously ill for a long while. They theorized that she arose early after a sleepless night and sent for a drive. They believe that she stopped the car and suffered a dizzy spell or tripped and fell, striking her head on some posts piled nearby. She probably fell at the edge of the water, and when the tide came in her body was swept toward the bank, she said. She was seen on her porch by neighbors about 6 a.m., investigators found. They believed she died about an hour later. Funeral services were to be at 2 p.m. today in the La Porte Community Church, with Dr. John Eichorn officiating. Burial will be in Forest Park Cemetery in Houston.

Lansing - The city council Monday night June 21, 1948 accepted an invitation from the board of cemetery and public park commissioners to attend a dedication ceremony at Stabler park, three blocks south of Kalamazoo Street on Allen Street, at 1 :30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The park property was given to the city by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stabler. 412 West Ottawa Street, in 1937 as a memorial to their only son, Milburn E. Stabler, who with his two children, was drowned in a motor boat accident in 1931 at Morrison Lake. The gift was made by the Stabler's with the provision that it be developed into a park and that a recreation building be erected on the site, with a tablet dedicated to their son. The Stabler's also recently donated $1,500 and five lots adjoining the park for further development. Mayor Ralph Crego will give the dedication address, and Dr. D. Stanle Coors, pastor of Central Methodist church, will give the invocation. The tablet will be unveiled by Catherine I. Dale, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dale, 152 Chesterfield Parkway, East Lansing, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stabler. The two grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. Stabler will be unable to attend the ceremony, as the one, Robert C. Dale is attending college in Denver, Colorado, and the other, James C., is vacationing in the upper peninsula. Ernest Gibbs, president of the park and cemetery board, will be chairman of the dedication program, and other members of the board will be present.

Lansing - Christian E. Stabler, 95, one of Lansing's early residents and a key figure in the preliminary growth of the city, died Wednesday Jan. 26, 1955 at his home, 413 W. Ottawa St. With the exception of but a few years spent in Minnesota, Mr. Stabler had lived in the Lansing area since he was seven-year-old. He was the founder and senior partner of the C. E. Stabler Coal company, located originally where the Hotel Olds now stands, sad with a brother, Jacob, was one of the city's early real estate dealers.

In 1887 and 1888 he bought and timbered 405 acres of land, the bulk of it in the area now known as Waverly park. In 1892, forced to find larger quarters, he moved the Stabler coal company to 636 E. Michigan Ave.

Later, he sold the Waverly park property and purchased the old Bush farm of 183 acres. He cut the timber, but left enough standing for a park to be built and after sale of the property to J. H. Moores, Francis park and the Lansing Country club were established on the site.

Mr. Stabler retired from the coal and wood business in 1938, leaving it to a son, Milburn, and son-in-law, Clarence Dale, but still remained active in real estate and was treasurer of a company that bought the Cameron farm, east of Holmes St. In 1930, he donated five and a half acres of that property to the city for Stabler park, in memory of his son and two grandsons who had drowned in Morrison Lake.

Mr. Stabler was a member of Central Methodist church and had assisted on its official board for many years. He was a life member of Capitol Lodge No. 66, F. and A. M., Capitol Chapter No. 9, R.A.M., Lansing Commandery No. 25, Knights Templar, and a member of Arbutus Chapter No. 45, O.E.S.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Dale of East Lansing; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel. Rev. Paul Morrison of Central Methodist church officiating. Interment will be in Deepdale cemetery.

Marriage Notes for Christian Stabler and Katharina Eppley:

Lansing – The C. E. Stabler home, 115 North Chestnut Street, was brilliant with flowers Tuesday Nov. 23, 1937 for the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Stabler. All afternoon large floral arrangements containing blooms of every shade of yellow and gold were received from friends, and in the evening about 125 persons called. Mr. and Mrs. Stabler greeted their guests with their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Dale and Mr. Dale. Mrs. Stabler wore a deep blue cut velvet gown and a corsage of yellow rosebuds, and her daughter wore a red velvet gown trimmed in brilliants. Robert and James Dale, grandsons of the honored couple, greeted the guests at the door. Palms formed the background for the bouquets of chrysanthemums of all varieties and roses of golden hues which were placed in the two living rooms and music room. Assisting in these rooms were Mrs. Martin Lather Fox, wearing blue velvet, Mrs. Joseph H. Burton, wearing a red crepe gown trimmed with brilliants, and Mrs. Earl O. Davidson, wearing an Alice blue gown trimmed in white satin.

The dining room table was centered with a spreading bouquet of Garcia, pom-poms, and yellow roses. Presiding at the silver service were Mrs. Carl Richardson and Mrs. Samuel Young who poured from 8 to 9 o'clock and Mrs. Frank Dent and Mrs. George Dean who poured from 9 to 10 o'clock. The buffet was centered with golden Melba chrysanthemums, pom-poms, and roses. A tall bouquet of tiny talisman rosebuds stood near a window. Miss Mina Leadley and Mrs. E. R. Wilson were assisted by Mrs. William C. Peck, Miss Virginia Robinson, Miss Margaret Tower, and Mrs. A. M. Dean. The honored couple received many gifts.

Marengo Co, Alabama.

Notes for Charles William (Charlie) Baty:

Linden, March 27, 1924 - This community was grievously shocked Saturday morning when news reached here that Mr. C. W. Baty had been killed in railway accident the night before, near Union Springs. Mr. Baty was a Linden boy and lived here until the outbreak of the war with Germany when he joined the army. After the war he spent a few months here and then went to Montgomery and from there to Union Springs to enter the employ of the Birmingham Southern Railroad as acetylene welder. He was highly regarded by all who knew him.

The body arrived in Linden Sunday afternoon, accompanied by Messrs. Butler and Dykes, of Union Springs, and was met at the train by hundreds of the citizens of the community and escorted to the home where it was kept until the following morning and then carried to Sweet Water to be interred in the cemetery there. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Tate, assisted by Rev. Clendenin of Sweet Water. The pall bearers were ex-service men. A large number of the friends of the family from Linden accompanied the body to Sweet Water where they were joined at the grave by the citizens of that community, assembled to assist in paying the last tributes of respect to the dead. The funeral offerings were unusually numerous and beautiful. Details of the accident in which Mr. Baty met his death, as given by Mr. Dykes and Mrs. Butler who accompanied the remains from Union Springs were that Mr. Baty had been sent out to repair a steam shovel and was returning to Union Springs, accompanied by Mrs. Baty. A car of long telegraph poles was just in front of the passenger coach. The lurching of the poles alarmed a lady on the train and she left her seat. Mr. Baty laughingly took her place and had been seated only a few minutes when the stanchions on the front of the car of poles broke. The front end of the poles dropped to the ground and several catching on a little bank were thrust back through the side of the passenger coach. Mr. Baty was struck in the stomach and pinned down beneath the poles, the coach being completely wrecked but did not leave the rails as the train was traveling slowly. Mr. Baty lived about two hours pinned under the poles. He never lost consciousness. He talked to those who were at work trying to extricate him, that telling them he was going to die and calmly gave directions as to sending his body home. He was entirely unafraid and ready to go. The conductor of the train suffered a broken leg, and Mrs. Bell, the lady whose seat Mr. Baty had occupied was slightly injured.

Mr. Baty's fellow employees paid a high tribute to his character and the estimation in which he was

She married James Nathan (Jim) Fortner 24 Jun 1903 in Marengo Co, Alabama. He was born 01 Feb 1861 in Alabama, and died 07 May 1945 in Alabama.

Notes for Eunice Vandalia Rentz:

Sweet Water, Alabama, Feb. 28, 1940 - A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral services of Mrs. Eunice V. Rentz Fortner, 68, on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 25, at two o'clock at the Sweet Water Methodist church. The Rev. D. M. Pearson, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by the Rev. Julius P. Maxwell, of Pine Hill, conducted the last rites. Two favorite hymns of the deceased were sung by a selected choir directed by Mrs. J. C. Jones.

Although Mrs. Fortner had been ill for some weeks, her death came as a shock to her friends, who thought that she was improving. Mrs. Fortner was born, reared and married in the Sweet Water vicinity. She was the daughter of the late William and Jane Kelly Rentz, of Sweet Water. She was married to Mr. J. N. Fortner June 27, 1903. Three children were born of this union, two dying in infancy. The bereaved husband and one daughter, Mrs. Lauree Alderman, wife of Gwin Alderman, of Evergreen; and three sisters, Mesdames M. F. Middleton and S. L. Perry, of San Antonio, Texas, and C. B. Baty, of Linden; and a large number of nieces and nephews, survive.

Mrs. Fortner, who took an active part in church, school, and community work, will be greatly missed. She was particularly interested in young people and counted many warm friends in that group. Many beautiful flowers bore testimony of the love and esteem in which she was held. Burial was made in Sweet Water cemetery, Koster directing.

Notes for George Alexander (Sandy) Rentz:

George Alexander was the son of George Washington Rentz & Nancy C. Miller Rentz, passes Saturday Morning.

Concluding a long and well spent life, Mr. George Alexander Rentz, 82, passed peacefully away at his home in the Camp Ground community, Myrtlewood RFD, at 10:35 o'clock Saturday morning, July 1. He had been confined to bed since the preceding Tuesday. For several years past he had been in failing health and at times had suffered severe attacks of illness, but had been blessed by the ministrations of a devoted wife and children who did everything possible for his comfort.

A son of the late G.W. Rentz (Uncle Wash) and Nancy Miller Rentz, G.A. Rentz was born at Sweet Water, March 6, 1862, and spent his childhood and young manhood there. He moved to the Camp Ground community about fifty years ago. On January 21, 1897, he married Miss Fannie V. Rentz of Camden, who survives him. Mr. Rentz in addition to his farming interests was a pecan grower on an extensive scale, and was also interested in the ginning business, having owned and operated gins at Half Acre and Myrtlewood for many years. It is related of him that he started to ginning cotton at the age of four, driving a mule to furnish power. He was also a partner in the Linden Motor Co.

He joined the Methodist Church in early childhood and for many years had served as a steward of the Camp Ground Church. He had been a Mason for fifty-five years and was the oldest member of his lodge, which a few years ago had honored him with life membership.

Surviving, besides his widow, are a daughter, Mrs. D.E. Barkley of Linden; four sons, W.G. Rentz of Mobile, George G. Echols, and Charles E. Rentz, all of Camp Ground; a sister, Mrs. Annie Nichols of Nicholville; five grandsons, and other relatives.

Funeral services were held from the home Sunday afternoon at five o'clock. The services at the home were conducted by the Rev. R.I. Lawrence, Methodist pastor, assisted by the Rev. A.T. Elsberry, Presbyterian pastor. From the home the body was carried in the Masonic procession to the Camp Ground Church Cemetery where it was interred with the honors of the fraternity by Nanafalia Lodge No. 335 A.F. & A.M., with worshipful Master Luther E. Moore of Thomasville, in charge of the rites. A large throng of friends from far and near joined with the bereaved family and relatives in paying the last tributes of respect to the dead and many beautiful flowers signified the esteem in which he had been held.

Wilson of Montgomery, the Rev. T. H. Maxey of Linden, and the Rev. A. T. Elsberry of Nanafalia. Mrs. Rentz was a member of the Camp Ground Methodist Church. Pall bearers were Y. K. Lewis, Walter Beshears, Alfred Morgan, Jr., Willie Carter, Willie Greer Young, and Robert Brown.

Mrs. Rentz was the daughter of Godfrey and Lucinda Rentz of Camden. She had been a resident of this county since her marriage to G. A. Rentz, January 21, 1897. During the fifty years that she had lived in this county she had endeared herself to a wide circle of friends, to whom news of her last illness and death brought sorrow, and the large number who attended the funeral services and the many beautiful floral tributes attested the esteem and affection-in which she was held.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. D. E. Brkley of Linden, and four sons, W. G. Rentz of Mobile, George, Charles and Echols Rentz of Myrtlewood, RFD; five grandchildren, and two step-grandchildren.

Notes for Jacob Charles Hieber:

History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 635:

JACOB HIEBER, whose model farm of 101 acres lies seven miles northeast of Bucyrus, Ohio, in Liberty Township, was born on this farm in 1875, and is a son of Frederick and Lydia (Lust) Hieber. The Hieber family is of German extraction on both sides and the father of Jacob Hieber was born in Germany, while the mother was born in Lykens Township, Crawford County, of German parents. Ten children were born to them, namely: Frederick W., Elizabeth, Samuel, Benjamin, Joseph, Jacob, Sarah, Isaac, Sophia and Reuben.

Jacob Hieber was educated in the district schools. He remained at home and operated the home farm until he purchased the same in 1908, since which time he has made many excellent improvements and it may now be numbered with the model farms of the township.

Mr. Hieber has a pleasant family circle. He married Miss Louisa Kafer, who is a daughter of Jacob and Magdalena (Shealy) Kafer, old residents of Crawford county, and they have had two children: Winfield Jacob, who died at the age of two and one-half years; and John Frederick, who resides at home. Mr. Hieber and wife are members of the German Lutheran Church. He is an intelligent, wide awake citizen and as such is interested in public affairs in his neighborhood. He is a Democrat in politics.

John Robinson Beal, a journalist and author whose career spanned more than 50 years, died July 30 at Shady Grove Hospital in Rockville, Maryland. He was 79 years old and lived in Gaithersburg, Maryland. Mr. Beal joined United Press in 1929 and later was on the editorial staffs of Newsweek and Time magazines. In 1946, at the behest of Gen. Obituary: William G. Beal / Broadcasting pioneer and film producer

Wednesday, March 26, 2003 By Adrian McCoy, Post-Gazette Staff Writer

William G. Beal was both a pioneer in local broadcasting and a devoted preserver of its history. Mr. Beal, of Edgewood, died Sunday at age 91, following a bout with pneumonia.

He was a native of Evanston, Ill. Once on a train ride through the Pittsburgh area, he noticed a sign for Carnegie Institute of Technology -- now Carnegie Mellon University -- and decided that was where he wanted to go. He majored in theater, graduating in 1934, and ended up making the area his home, his son, Peter, also of Edgewood, recalled.

After graduation, Mr. Beal worked for a film production company and then joined KDKA-AM, where he worked as an announcer, script writer and continuity editor. In the 1930s, Mr. Beal was the announcer for one of radio's more unusual programs, which was developed by pioneering radio inventor Frank Conrad: "Messages to the Far North" was a weekly show that aired Saturday nights on KDKA. Mr. Beal would read letters with messages from listeners to family or friends who were working and living in remote areas of Alaska and Canada. Through shortwave radio, they could pick up the broadcasts. In 1938, he traveled to Alaska to meet some of the people who tuned in to the broadcasts.

According to "When Radio Was Young," a book about local broadcasting history which Mr. Beal co-authored, the show was dropped during World War II because the Nazis were using it to send messages to a spy network in this country.

Mr. Beal also wrote and produced the well-known "Pitt Parade," one of the earliest television programs to focus on local news. He sold the DuMont TV network on the idea, and the show aired here during the early days of WDTV, now KDKA-TV. Mr. Beal would go around the city with a film camera and shoot news events, have the film processed in the evening, edit it quickly and air it before the station signed off. Years later, KDKA re-aired some of the vintage footage on the noon news.

Mr. Beal left broadcasting and started his own film production company. From the 1950s through the 1990s, he made more than 160 industrial films for clients like PPG, Alcoa and Kennywood. Many of his films were donated to the Senator John Heinz Pittsburgh Regional History Center and are now archived in its collections. His film work was the subject of "Bill Beal: Pittsburgh Through the Years," a documentary by Pittsburgh filmmaker Kenneth Love, which premiered in 1998 at the history center.

Mr. Beal retired in 1992 but kept active with many interests: writing, literacy tutoring and volunteer work with Meals on Wheels. His writing projects included a biography of the late news anchor Paul Long, who was a close friend, and a series of biographical stories of famous people. In recent years, he was active in the ongoing effort to establish a broadcasting museum in Pittsburgh, with preservation of the garage Conrad used as a laboratory as its centerpiece. "He worked so tirelessly for this project," said Rick Harris, chairman of the Conrad Project/ National Museum of Broadcasting. Just lately, he finished writing "Ode to Pittsburgh," a tribute to the city he loved and a long catalog of the many good things to come out of Pittsburgh:

"You can have your London, Paris, your Tokyo -- I will go with Pittsburgh, the City with a Heart of Gold and the Can Do spirit so brave and bold. We knew all along that Pittsburgh was great, it's time we began to appreciate one of the great cities of the world, and my hometown."

In addition to his son, Mr. Beal is survived by three other children, Terry Beal of Jefferson, Maine, Nancy Mostow of New York City and Jean Burton of Gallupville, N.Y.; seven grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

There is no funeral or visitation. Memorial contributions can be made to the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania, 1212 Smallman St., Pittsburgh 15222.

WILLIAM G. BEAL, On Sunday, March 23, 2003, at his home, age 91, beloved father of Terry R. Beal of Jefferson, Maine, Nancy Lord Beal of New York, New York, Jean Robinson Beal of Albany, New York and Peter Bennett Beal of Pittsburgh. William G. Beal, a graduate of Carnegie Mellon University, has worked as a radio actor and Continuity Chief on KDKA radio, an account executive for Walker and Downing advertising in the Radio Department, and a writer-producer for Mode-Art Pictures. While at Mode-Art Pictures, Beal wrote, researched and helped to produce a series of training films on the use of carbide tools.

During World War II these films were sent to Russia to help them gain an understanding of these new tools, which were important in machine-tool technology. Beal developed his own production company, Packaged Programs Inc., in 1947. This company developed radio programs for national syndication and local sponsorship in Pittsburgh. In 1949, this company produced "Pitt Parade - the Picture Story of the Pittsburgh Scene," a five minute news program for television that aired daily at 10:00 PM on WDTV (now KDKA television). In 1952, Beal sold Packaged Programs Inc. and began another production company named William G. Beal Inc. From 1952 to 1992, this company produced films and videos on the fields of industry, education, and entertainment. Funeral arrangements private. Arrangements by H. SAMSON, INC.

She taught at Dold school in Lodi Township for 16 years School, then taught at Kuebler school in Freedom township for a year at Mooreville for a year, and then returned to Kuebler. Along the line in 1931 she graduated from Eastern Michigan. She got married that same year.

She always had time for outside activities, including her own orchestra, "Helen's Orchestra", to play at parties and square dances -- "I'm a fiddler, not a violinist," she says -- travel every summer that has so far taken her to 44 states, and gardening, indoors and out. Just last week, at a PTA function in her honor, she was presented with a floor planter for her famed African violets.

The 41 busy years have left many memories, including the fact that her starting salary was $85 a month, and there was wood to carry in and ashes to carry out, and the ink froze overnight in the winter. She remembers older ways of travel, when parents at Dold brought their children to school in bob sleighs, and she had to shovel her way home every night and out in the morning. "There hasn't been so much snow lately." She remembers the hayrides that were enjoyed by parents and students alike, at Kuebler school, and the many Christmas programs that brought families from miles around. She also recalls vividly a birthday surprise party that really was a surprise to her, at Pleasant Lake school in 1956.

Yes, teaching has changed a great deal, she believes. For one thing, "children have much more freedom now in the school room than they used to"; and "children used to walk to school Now they take busses". For another thing, there are more visiting teachers, these days -- to teach music, art, and even special reading.

She recalls the first school officers she met at each of her schools: at Jedelee, it was Albert Frey, George Bohnett and Mark Sweetland; at Dold, it was Lauren Stark, Reuben Bredernitz, Alfred Rentschler. At Kuebler, her first officers were Jake Bihlmeyer, Oscar Staebler, and Christ Kuebler; at Mooreville, Clarence Searfoss, Gus Grams, A. J. Turner; and at Pleasant Lake, Alton Horning, Roy Bihlmeyer, and Nathan Alber. By and large, they are all pleasant memories and she believes she'll "miss it, when fall comes". In fact, says Mrs. Gross, "I may do a little substitute teaching once in a while."

Helen (Klump) Gross (b. 15 Mar. 1902 Lodi Twp., Washtenaw Co., Michigan, d. there 5 Mar. 1983) of Lodi Township, Washtenaw County, was a retired teacher. She was the daughter of Jacob and Christina Klump who were themselves children of German immigrants. She learned to play from her father, and played for dances; in later years, she regularly played for them at the rod and gun club in Willis. Helen was an influential fiddler from Saline, Michigan. Helen played for dances from her youth and influenced other fiddlers in the area.

Helen M. Gross, 7385 Noble Road in Lodi Township, died March 5, 1983 at Saline Community Hospital. She was born April 15, 1902 at the above residence where she had lived her entire life, the daughter of Jacob and Tina Stierle Klump. On August 3, 1931, she married Rudolph (Butch) Gross in Ann Arbor; he survives. Mrs. Gross was a member of St. Paul United Church of Christ and the Ladies Fellowship of the church, the Saline Woman's Club, the Saline Hospital Auxiliary, the Washtenaw Farm Bureau, the Ann Arbor Senior Citizens, the Saline Senior Citizens, the National Retired Teachers Association, the M.R.T.A., and the M.E.A. She taught school in Washtenaw County for more than 40 years. Mrs. Gross enjoyed music and was a musician for many years. She is survived by her husband, Rudolph; one uncle and cousin.

Funeral services were held Monday at Bahnmiller Funeral Home with Rev. Ronald Boldman officiating. Burial followed in Lodi Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Paul United Church of Christ Building Fund or the Michigan Heart Association.

Notes for John Edward Fiegel:

Mr. John Fiegel, a highly respected farmer of Pittsfield, was killed last evening by a very sad and unexpected accident. The ladies of Zion church, of this city, had been holding their regular weekly social at his house. When the ladies were ready to return home at about half past five o'clock, Mr. Fiegel appeared with his team to take them as far as the motor line. He had a hay-rack on the wagon with seats along the sides and twenty-one ladies and two children were loaded in the wagon. Mr. Fiegel then got up on the front seat. One of the lines either dropped or lay on the whiffletree and Mr. Fiegel reached forward to get it. As he did so, the cushion on which he was seated slipped and he fell, striking his head on the pole and breaking his neck. One of the horses kicked him, nearly severing the right ear. The horses then turned around and started to run, bringing up between the barn and fence. Most of the ladies were thrown out. Some fell beneath the wagon. One lady was thrown over a high board fence. Mrs. Fred Schlanderer fell under the horses heels, out of the front end of the wagon, but escaped injury; Mrs. Ludwig Walz was bruised about the shoulder and wrist. No one was seriously injured, though several fainted.

Mr. Fiegel has twice been elected treasurer of Pittsfield township on the democratic ticket and was treasurer at the time of his death. His popularity among his neighbors in this strong republican town is thus strongly attested. He leaves a wife and seven children, the oldest daughter having been married but three weeks. The funeral will be held Sunday. The blow fell so suddenly that the wife could hardly believe her husband dead, and the scene was a most pitiful one.

Notes for Sylvia Elenore Fiegel:

Battle Creek - Mrs. Sylvia Hooper, 27, of 114 Orleans Avenue, died at Sheldon Memorial hospital in Albion about 3:20 this morning March 4, 1930 while her husband, William, 28, is not expected to live, following an automobile accident on US-12, near Parma, Sunday night. They received fractures of both legs when the Oldsmobile coach Mr. Hoover was driving skidded into a fence. A heavy board plowed through the side of the car and crushed their legs. A passing motorist found them unconscious in the car late Sunday night and brought them to Albion hospital.

Mrs. Hooper appeared to rally somewhat Monday but embolism set in and was the cause of her death. She sustained a triple fracture of one leg and a compound fracture of the other. Mr. Hooper has compound fractures of both legs. While the couple had not been residing long in the city both were popular and had many friends. On graduating from the University of Michigan Mr. Hooper, an Ann Arbor resident, entered the employ of G. O. Lewis company as a construction engineer, three years ago. A year ago last June he married. Mrs. Hooper was Miss Sylvia Fiegel, before her marriage, and a private secretary in the university. She has a sister residing in Detroit, but her parents are not living.

Mr. Hooper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hooper, reside in Ann Arbor and the local couple had been visiting them and were returning when the accident happened. The couple belonged to the Masonic Country club, while Mrs. Hooper was a member of the Eastern Star. The body of Mrs. Hooper was being kept at, C. E. Marsh's undertaking establishment today awaiting further development in the condition of her husband.

Notes for William H. Hooper:

Battle Creek - William Hooper, 28, like his wife, failed to survive the severe injuries which both received in an automobile accident near Parma late last Sunday night March 2, 1930. Mr. Hooper, a construction engineer with the G. O. Lewis company, and University of Michigan graduate in engineering, died at the Sheldon Memorial hospital, Albion, about 10:05 Wednesday night March 5, 1930. Both Mr. and Ms. Hooper received compound and triple fractures of the legs when their car skidded off the US-12 highway and hit a fence, a board from which pierced the side of the automobile and struck them. The couple had been married since June 1928 and were living at 114 Orleans Avenue, Battle Creek.

Their bodies were taken today from the C. E. Marsh undertaking parlors and removed to Ann Arbor where funeral arrangements were being made today. It is believed that services will be held there Saturday with burial there likewise. Mr. Hooper is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hooper, of Ann Arbor. His wife leaves a sister in Detroit but has no parent living.

1543. Albert Oscar¹⁰ Kalmbach (Karl (Charles)⁹, Gottlieb⁸, Anna Katharina⁷ Stierlin, Katharina Barbara⁶ Eckardt, Johann Michael⁵, Matthias⁴ Eckard, Hans Jakob³ Eckhardt, Hans² Eckardt, Martin¹ Eckert) was born 15 Jun 1888 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 03 Apr 1940 in Rifley, Lauderdale Co, Tennessee. He married (1) Jennie E. Nillaus. She was born Aft. 1888. He married (2) Annie Williams 30 Jan 1918 in Wentworth, Ontario, Canada.

Notes for Albert Oscar Kalmbach:

Ann Arbor, April 4, 1940 – A description of Oscar A. Kalmbach, 45 years old, of Manchester, Michigan, tallied exactly with that of a middle-aged man found slain Thursday near Dyersburg, Tennessee, Chief Deputy Austin Lassiter, of Dyersburg, saw. The body bore a head wound, Lassiter said, and a .22 caliber rifle was clutched in we man's hand. Lassiter said that he doubted that the wound could have been self-inflicted.

"We found a place that looked as though the skull had been mashed near the left temple," the deputy said, but added that an X-ray had revealed no trace of a bullet. Police said that they believed that an Ann Arbor man might be implicated because Tennessee officers traced the .22 rifle to a Dickson (Tennessee) hardware store where a clerk said he had sold the weapon to a tall, dark man who said he was a resident of Ann Arbor.

The victim was well-dressed, but all labels had been stripped from his clothing. There was no billfold or driver's license in his pocket, and the license plates had been removed from the car. Lassiter said that the victim had been seen in Hall, Tennessee, on Tuesday and that the car then carried Michigan license plates.

Michigan State Police determined that Kalmbach, a World War veteran, had been despondent for some time and left Manchester at about 9 a.m. Sunday with $400. He had lived with his mother, Mrs. Charles Kalmbach, at Manchester.

Arthur E. Jenter, Manchester undertaker, will go to Tennessee Friday, he said, to identify the body and return it to Manchester. Semper said that Kalmbach had a wife and twenty-one-year-old son in Canada.

Dyersburg, Tennessee - Chief Deputy Sheriff Austin Lassiter said today a description of Oscar A. Kalmbach, missing Ann Arbor, Michigan, motorist, tallied "exactly" with that of a well-dressed middle-aged man, found dead in a parked automobile near here today April 4, 1940. The body bore a head wound and a .22-calibre rifle was clutched in one hand but Lassiter expressed doubt the wound could have been self-inflicted. Identification marks had been stripped from his clothing and the car bore no license plates.

Michigan police telegraphed Lassiter that Kalmbach, a part-time laborer, left Manchester, Michigan, recently driving a light sedan of the type in which the dead man was found. "An X-ray revealed no trace of a bullet," the deputy said, "but we did find a place that looked as though his skull had been smashed near the left temple by some object. We also found a handkerchief on the body bearing the initial "K." Lassiter said the victim was seen in Halls, Tennessee, Tuesday. "His car had Michigan license plates on it then. He didn't have anybody with him."

Ripley, Tennessee, April 8, 1940 - Oscar A. Kalmbach, 45, of Manchester, Michigan, whose body was found in an automobile near here Thursday was murdered, sheriff's officers said today. They announced they were working on a clue "that will not be revealed as yet." Kalmbach's body was identified Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. A. E Jenter of Manchester, who said they came here representing the victim's mother, Mrs. Martha Kalmbach.

1681. Milburn Eppley¹⁰ Stabler (Christian Emmanuel⁹, Friederika (Riga)⁸ Koch, Rosina⁷ Eckardt, Johann Michael⁶, Johann Michael⁵, Matthias⁴ Eckard, Hans Jakob³ Eckhardt, Hans² Eckardt, Martin¹ Eckert) was born 06 Mar 1891 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 17 May 1931 in Boston, Ionia Co, Michigan. He married Martha Galbraith Draper 21 May 1918 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, daughter of Frank Draper and Eleanor Galbraith. She was born 29 Oct 1893 in Michigan, and died 17 May 1931 in Michigan.

Notes for Milburn Eppley Stabler:

Lansing - State police Monday afternoon still were dragging the waters of Morrison Lake, in Ionia County, for the bodies of Lawrence Stabler, 11, and Grenfall Stabler, 9, who with their father, Milburn E. Stabler, 40, Lansing coal dealer, were drowned shortly after noon Sunday May 17, 1931 when the motor boat Mr. Stabler was piloting, capsized. The body of Mr. Stabler was recovered during the night, after police had dragged the lake for approximately 12 hours. A detail of state police was ordered to the lake Monday morning to relieve the officers who had worked during the night. The new detail continued the search for the bodies of the two children. Edward W. Roe, teller in the South Lansing branch of the American State Savings bank, a brother-in-law of Mr. Stabler, who was with him and the two children in the boat, was rescued by L. F. Phillips of Grand Rapids.

At noon Monday six boats manned by state police and officers of the Ionia county sheriff's department, were dragging the lake, but at 1 o'clock no trace of the bodies of the two children had been found. When the tragedy occurred, Mr. Stabler was testing a speed boat that he purchased last fall and had planned to enter the motor boat events to be held July 4th at Spring Lake near Grand Haven. Mrs. Stabler and Mrs. Roe who were at the lake were invited to accompany their husbands in the test but declined to go out on the lake.

Witnesses asserted that Mr. Stabler attempted to rescue the two children and was clutching them when they disappeared below the surface of the water. Mr. Roe clung to the overturned boat while Mr. Phillips who had witnessed the accident from his cottage was rowing to the scene directly in front of the cottage but nearly a half mile from the shore. When he reached the ill-fated boat, Mr. Stabler and his sons had disappeared from view.

Mr. Stabler was interested in Morrison Lake Gardens club, an organization consisting of prominent Grand Rapids, Ionia and Lansing resident which sponsored entertainment for the cottagers. He had planned to attend a meeting of the entertainment committee late Sunday afternoon to consider a program of motor boat events to be held later in the spring or early summer. Deputy Sheriffs Edward Good of Saranac and William McKendry of Ionia were called to the accident and took charge of the search for the bodies. Later state police officers, Segriest and Arnett of the East Lansing post, were ordered to the lake.

Long a resident of Lansing, Mr. Stabler, was associated with C. E. Dale in C. E. Stabler and company, 638 E. Michigan Avenue. The business was established by Christian E. Stabler, his father, who later retired and now resides at 115 North Chestnut Street. The two boys were the only children of Mr. and Mrs. Milburn E. Stabler. His marriage to Miss Martha Galbraith Draper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Draper, 230 Rumsey Street, was the first naval wedding in Lansing during the World war. The event took place while Mr. Stabler was awaiting orders to report at the Great Lakes naval station where he had enlisted. He was a graduate of Lansing high school and of Carroll college. Wisconsin. Mr. Stabler was a past master of Capital lodge No. 66. S.O., and was a member of Lansing Commandery No. 25, Knights Templar and Capital chapter No. 9 R.A.M.

Surviving relatives besides the widow and mother, Mrs. Martha Draper Stabler are Mr. Stabler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christian E. Stabler and a sister, Mrs. Erma Stabler Dale, wife of Clarence E. Dale, all of Lansing.

Nuptials for Lansing's first naval wedding were held Tuesday May 21, 1918 at noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Draper, 225 South Pine St., when their daughter, Miss Martha Galbraith Draper became the bride of Milburn Eppley Stabler. Mr. Stabler, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Stabler recently enlisted in the navy and is soon to leave for the Great Lakes training station. Reno Carrier also in training at the Great Lakes station was home for the wedding at which he acted as best man. The bridal party was unusually striking; the bride in her gown of white georgette, topped with her mother's wedding veil and wearing brides roses and swansonias bowed with tulle with her bridesmaid. Miss Irma Stabler, sister of the groom, in dainty white and yellow organdy and carrying daffodils, completed a picturesque arrangement with their attendants in navy costume. Little Miss Marjorie Draper, sister of the bride carried the ring in a Calla lily. Miss Ellen Donald Draper, also the bride's, sister assisted in serving. A simple setting of American flags and palms was used. Rev. Martin Luther Fox of the First M. E. church performed the ceremony. Miss Irma Stabler sang.

A wedding luncheon was served at one o'clock. Wedding guests included only immediate relatives. Miss Anna Galbraith of North Branch being present from out of the city. Mr. and Mrs. Stabler left on a motor trip to Detroit. Mrs. Stabler was employed by the Lansing Stamping and Tool Co., and Mr. Stabler is the junior partner of the C. E. Stabler Coal Co. Marriage Notes for Irma Stabler and Clarence Dale:

Lansing - Tall wicker vases filled with rose-tinted gladioli, the favored flower among the brides of the late summer, with a background of ferns which banked the fireplace, formed a garden-like setting for the wedding of Miss Irma Stabler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Stabler to Mr. Clarence Dale, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dale which was solemnized today at high noon August 30, 1920 at the home of the bride's parents, 115 Chestnut St. As the bride and her attendant, Miss Irene Dale, a sister of the groom, descended the stairway, the Lohengrin wedding march was played by Mr. Milburn Stabler, a brother of the bride. Miss Stabler wore a lovely bridal gown of white georgette and lace and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and swansonias showered with narrow satin ribbons. The bridesmaid was gowned in pale pink crepe de chine and her flowers were pink roses and snapdragons, showered with pink ribbons. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John C. Willits of the Central Methodist church and Mr. Earle Shuttleworth assisted Mr. Dale as best man.

A mound of pink roses and snapdragons centered the table in the dining room, where a four-course luncheon was served following the wedding ceremony. Smilax and pink roses, and pink candles in crystal candle sticks completed the dainty table decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Dale left immediately for the north- They will be at home after September fifteenth in the Hadley apartments. Mrs. Dale is a graduate of the Lansing high school with the class of 1913. She later attended the Waukesha college in Wisconsin for one year and graduated from Oberlin in 1917. Dr. Dale is the junior partner of the C. E. Stabler Coal company.

Notes for Paull Whiting Saffold, Jr.:

Paull W. Saffold, Jr. (July 11, 1919 - March 13, 2007) and Jean Compton (March 23, 1925 - April 18, 2004) married February 24, 1941. He was born in Montgomery, Alabama he married Alma Jean Compton from Thomaston, Alabama. At the time they met dad was working as an engineer for the Alabama Highway Department in the area of Thomaston. He joined the Alabama National Guard in August 1936 as an enlisted soldier and was discharged in August 1939. One month after the attack on Pearl Harbor he re-enlisted in the Army and was accepted as an aviation cadet in November 1942. After finishing flight school, he was transferred to England where he flew ninety-six combat missions in a P-47 from Duxford England in the 8th Air Force, 78th Fighter Group. During that time he took part in the first daylight bombing of Berlin and numerous other bomber escort and low level strafing missions. To his disappointment, he was sent home for R&R just prior to the D-Day invasion. He spent a total of twenty-six years on active duty, retiring in May 1964 as a colonel in the United States Air Force. Prior to having children mom worked for a while as a secretary having obtained a position that both she and her former English teacher had applied for although she had not finished high school. She spent her time raising two sons after they were born until we moved out.

When he learned to fly, he had a flat tire on the nose wheel of my airplane. Being Sunday, no one was there to fix it so he had to get mom and dad to pick me up at the Council Bluffs airport. While waiting for them, several people were getting ready to sky dive. They tried to get him to go with them but he told them that he should wait for my parents. On the way home he told dad about the invitation. He gave me one piece of advise that he never forgot. "Son, there is no reason to practice something that you only have to do once."

My first experience in the military was in the Alabama National Guard. I enlisted as a Private on August 22, 1936 at the age of 17. I attended drill regularly and made two summer camps at Fort McClellan Alabama as a private in HQ CO 167th Infantry. In WWI it was part of the Rainbow Division. I served until August 1939. After the second year I informed my Company Commander, Johnny Snider, a WWI veteran, that I had taken a job with the Alabama Highway Department in Abbeville and could no longer attend drills. I was placed on the inactive list and remained there until the expiration of my three-year term August 21, 1939.

Pearl Harbor December 7, 1941

Jean and I were attending a movie in the Paramount Theater when it was flashed on the screen that the Japs had attacked Pearl Harbor. We went to Mother's home on Holcombe Street and listened to the news for several hours (no TV in those days) before returning to our home in Clanton Alabama. I was with the Alabama Highway Department when I learned that the Army Air Corps was accepting applications for Aviation Cadet training from married men. Two weeks after Pearl Harbor I spent a full day at Maxwell Field taking mental and physical exams and returned to Jean in Clanton who approved what I had done. I had wanted to be a pilot for a long time. Especially an Army Air Corp pilot. I had been taking lessons at the small airport in Clanton from Charlie Wade who was the fixed base operator. I had about four hours ($6 per hour dual) in a 13 Piper Cub when I received a telegram about January 15 to report to Maxwell Field for enlistment. Jean had to sign a paper that she was not dependent on me for a living, Being the good wife, as she always had been, she signed the paper. When I enlisted I was never asked if I had previous military experience. It was found while processing for retirement that I had three years in the Alabama National Guard that I had not applied for longevity. This added three years to my retirement. I was told that I could file a claim for longevity pay that I had been entitled to so I did. About six months later I received two checks, one from the Army and one from the Air Force. The two amounted to about $4,000. It had taken about six months for the two services to calculate this claim.

Aviation Cadet 1942

There were twelve of us at Maxwell to be sworn in as Aviation Cadets in January 1942 .. One was William May who was a classmate and became a member of the 78th Fighter Group and a good friend. After several weeks of preflight training at Maxwell I was sent to Lodwick Aviation Military Academy at Avon Park Florida for primary training in the PT -17, Stearman (a bi wing trainer) then on to Greenville, Mississippi for another 60 hours in the BT-13 (Vultee Vibrator) While in Greenville, Jean and a friend Virginia Crew, came over on a bus and stayed a couple of weeks. Virginia's husband Jeff and I had alternate open post. We only had open post every two weeks when we could leave the base. Boy was it hot in Greenville. No one had air conditioning in 1942.

After 60 hours in Greenville I was sent to Craig Field, (Air Force Bases were called Fields at that time) Selma, Alabama, for advanced training in AT -6s. I felt lucky since three out of five cadets had been washed out. I started training in the class of 42-I but was hospitalized for about a week with an infected hand. So I finished with the class of 42-J and was commissioned 2nd Lieutenant on November 10, 1942. The last 10 hours of flying was in a P-36, about 3 or 4 flights. This was not recorded in the 60 hours of advanced flight training. I thought I was a hot pilot then.

Operation Training in P-40s November 1942 to January 1943

I was sent to Pinellas Field at St Petersburg Florida for operational training, mostly formation, acrobatics, and gunnery practice. I received about 40 hours in the Curtiss P-40. Jean and Nita came down for about two weeks and had a room in St Petersburg, near Tampa, while I trained and waited orders to go overseas. Archie Hill's mother and father were there for a while and we went to dinner with them several times at their expense. Mr. Hill was the Chevrolet dealer in Huntsville Alabama and when they left Tampa to go home they dropped Jean off in Montgomery. I thought we were going to be sent to the Pacific since P-40s were in combat over there. While at Pinellas we were issued parachutes, a Colt 45, a gas mask and clothing impregnated with a horrible smelling oily substance that was to be used in case of a gas attack. Pinellas had one runway, a small wooden building used for administration and operations, and squad tents for those who lived on base. It is now an International airport.

Port of Embarkation

Near the end of December we boarded a train bound for Fort Hamilton New York, which was a port of embarkation. It was about a thirty-minute subway ride to Manhattan on the Sea Beach Express. I was in Times Square New Years Eve on January 1, 1943. That was an experience I will never forget. I had a little too much to drink and went to sleep on the subway and must have made three or four trips between Manhattan and the Fort Hamilton before waking up. I was among about twelve 2nd Lieutenants who boarded the Queen Elizabeth three days before departing for England for instructions to help the troops find where they were to be quartered when they boarded. American and Canadian troops started boarding after dark and continued all night. About 12,000 boarded from 5 or 6 gangplanks. The ship sailed before daylight without escort. Officers were crowded twelve to a stateroom. Accommodations for the enlisted men were atrocious. We had two meals a day. Could not smoke on deck day or night. Anything thrown overboard could leave a trail for the enemy. Lt Col Hub Zemke was the senior Air Force commander and was accompanied by all of his Officer and enlisted personnel of the 56th Fighter Group. As senior officer he commanded all of the Air Force personnel on board. One thing I remember was he allowed only one canteen of water per day per man. We had to bath in salt water so we didn't bath very often. The 56th Group had trained in P-47s for more than a year at Bridgeport Connecticut and had the most experienced pilots ever to fly in the 8th Air Force. They produced more aces than any group. Men like Bob Johnson, Francis Gabreski, Walter Beckam, Jerry Johnson and many more. I was headed for England as a replacement pilot to be assigned to a group later. We arrived in the Firth of Clyde in Scotland on January 9 and I was in a group that boarded a train. The next morning we arrived at Stone, a small town in northwest England. Stone was where we waited for our next assignment. I was there about a week before being sent to Shrewsbury in Wales, another place to wait for assignment. We made up our flying time flying J-3 Cubs while there. I was there about three weeks before receiving orders to be 78th Fighter Group located at Goxhill.

78th Fighter group at Goxhill

Goxhill was located on the south side of the Humber River with the large seaport city of Hull on the north side. German aircraft frequently came over at night and dropped mines in the river. The 78th arrived in England after training in California in P-38s. The P-38s were soon transferred in February to North Africa with most of their pilots. They were needed in the fighting there. The officers left at Goxhill were the group, squadron and flight commanders and the some enlisted men. P-47s were flown in from Ireland by ferry pilots. A few at a time. I had never seen a P-47 until then. Ferry pilots checked out most experienced pilots who in turn checked out the rest of us. We trained at Goxhill in gunnery over the North Sea. Gunnery consisted of firing at a long canvas sleeves about 8 feet tall and 20 feet long towed by a long rope behind a British Lysander. Four P-47s participated in each practice flight with ammunition in two guns, which made a colored mark on the target. The rest of the guns were empty. The target was dropped on the airfield and the colored marks were counted to determine the score of each pilot. This method was also practiced in Florida over the Gulf of Mexico. I did not do very well in gun practice which showed later in combat. I missed a few enemy aircraft that I should have shot down. After about 15 hours of training at Goxhill the 78th with its three squadrons left Goxhill for Duxford in April 1943.

Duxford 1943 and 1944

Duxford airfield was built in 1919 during World War I. Located near Cambridge 50 miles north of London it was used by Spitfires and Hurricanes during the Battle of Britain. The British turned the base over to the 78th Fighter Group in April 1943. I was assigned to the 84th squadron. I flew on the third mission flown by the group. My first mission, on April 29 I was wingman for my squadron commander, Major Eugene Roberts. A Fighter squadron consisted of three flights of 8 or 10 pilots and a Fighter Group consisted of three squadrons.

The first mission I flew was a fighter sweep (rodeo) over northern France. We made landfall near Calais and then over Abbeville hoping to entice Adolf Galland and his experienced pilots to come up to meet us. They didn't come up. Abbeville was heavily defended with anti-aircraft guns so we didn't go down to strafe. We were up only one hour and thirty minutes. We didn't get belly tanks until later.

On May 4 we flew fighter support for bomber diversion over Dunkerque and other French towns at 28,000 feet. Heavy flak but otherwise uneventful. Up 17:45 down 19:10.

On May 13 we flew an escort mission over northern France. Up at 15:33 and down 17:15.

On May 15 we staged at Horsham, an advanced base, for refueling and on to Amsterdam. One hour thirty minutes. No belly tanks yet:

May 19, I flew my first bomber escort mission. It was a bomber diversion mission. We crossed into Holland at 30,000 and returned to the English coast at Oxfordness. The mission was uneventful except for heavy flak. The mission lasted one hour and twenty minutes. At 30,000 we were indicating 189 mph but true airspeed was more than 300 mph. There were only a few bomb groups in England at this time. About 4 or 5. They could put up only about 200 bombers. Bombers would usually take off before daylight and form up to cross the enemy coast in line with the other groups. Eighth fighter command would schedule the fighter groups to takeoff at different times to rendezvous with its assigned bomb group at the proper time for escort. The fighters would fly one or two thousand feet above the bombers and make s-turns to stay with them because we could not fly as slow as the bomb groups. As more fighter and bomb groups became available an escorting group could be relieved by another flight group and if we had enough fuel we could go down and look for targets of opportunity such as enemy airfields, trains, barges, trucks and anything valuable to the enemy.

From May 19 to November 26 I flew many missions but I think November 26 was the first with belly tanks. This was an escort mission over France. Jack Price leading Red flight shot down a ME 109 and an FW 190. Bombers were attacked by at least 30 enemy aircraft, mostly 109s. We lost my good friend Wayne Dougherty just north of Paris, hit by a ME 109. The mission lasted 3 hours. Wayne was flying number 4 in Price's Red flight.

As I approached 200 hours which was the normal tour in combat I thought the invasion would soon take place because of the strafing and bombing we were doing on the French coast. I wanted to take a part of the invasion. So on March 17, 1943 I submitted a request to fly additional missions. This had to be approved by the squadron flight surgeon, the squadron commander, the group commander, and through channels all the way to 8th Fighter command headquarters.

The Luftwaffe was almost decimated by then. They had lost most of their experienced pilots. They were still building fighter aircraft and flying them with pilots that had only a few hours of flying time.

After my retirement the Air Force sent me my Mission Summary Reports and my AF Form 5s that are a complete record of my military flying time.

To write about all of the missions I flew is just too lengthy. Anyone so inclined can find the details in the Mission Summary Reports. They are contained in a large brown envelope along with the AF Form 5s that are a monthly record of my flying hours. These 96 Mission Summary Reports are on flimsy brittle second copy typewriter paper located in my office for anyone so inclined to review.

After flying 50 missions I had received the Distinguished Flying Cross and 4 Air Medals. Air Medals were awarded for each 10 missions. I later received two more DFCs but no more Air Medals. I guess 8th Fighter Command decided not to give more. The commendations for the additional two DFCs have been lost but they are recorded in my retirement Form 214 and in newspaper reports in my scrapbook. I flew 96 missions and somewhere in my files show that I had 252:15 combat hours.

While Paull and I were in London we visited Duxford home of the Imperial War Museum a branch of the Imperial War Museum in London we also visited. We also visited the American Air Museum on the same airdrome with the Duxford museum. I told an attendant at the American Museum that I had been a pilot at Duxford during the war and wanted to meet the director of the museum. He gave me directions to his office, which turned out to be the building that housed the 78th Group headquarters. We proceeded there and were met by two women, the Director was not there, who greeted us and gave us a copy of the dedication of the American Museum, which took place one month earlier. They also had a copy of the Duxford Diary and wanted me to autograph it. They also suggested that we visit the Officer's club across the road, which we did. On the way back to the Imperial Museum we met two men who were very anxious to meet me. They took us to their office, which was in the hanger that had housed our briefing room. They brought out a large photo album of pictures of pilots and ground personnel and wanted me to provide names. Many of the pictures were of me. After spending about an hour with them they provided a vehicle and driver to take us to the train station in Cambridge. Lets leave Duxford for a little recreation.

London

About once a month we were given a three-day pass and we usually went to London with a couple of friends. We did not stay at the Red Cross club where the accommodations were meager. We stayed at the better hotels such as the Strand Palace, the Mount Royal or the Park Lane. London was blacked out at night and I mean black. Prostitutes were everywhere. Mostly around the streets of Piccadilly Circus. You couldn't walk fifty feet without being propositioned. Many were refugees from France, Poland and other occupied countries as well as the English. Men trying to sell condoms would approach us. We wore blue patches under our wings to show we were combat pilots. That was supposed to give us priority in bars, hotels, train stations and so on but I don't think it worked very well. We usually met friends from other stations while in London. I remember meeting Grover Hall of the Montgomery Advertiser and Sam Perry Dixon, a B-17 pilot and son of the Alabama Governor, as well as many flying school classmates while in London. We also took advantage of visiting many of the historical sites. Many buildings were damaged or destroyed. Barrage balloons and anti-aircraft guns were everywhere. Hyde park was full of them. The Germans would send a few airplanes over London at night. They were known as nuisance raids. They would be caught in several searchlights and the anti-aircraft guns were fired at them. It was a sight to see until you had to take cover from the flack falling from the British guns. The British bars were allocated different kinds of liquor. They would run out of scotch and gin and if you wanted a drink late at night you would have to settle for a terrible rum drink.

Return to the Zone of the Interior

On May 8, 1944 Quince Brown and I received orders from VIII Fighter Command to return to the States for thirty days rest and recuperation. We were flown in the group's U-78 to Blackpool. The commanding officer there was Colonel W. A. Gale. Col. Gale, a WWI veteran, had been a popular mayor of Montgomery for many years. I went to his office and introduced myself as a native of Montgomery and learned that he knew my mother and father from years ago. He greeted me warmly and invited me to have my meals at the table reserved for him and his staff, this saved me from waiting in a long chow line. Colonel Gale arranged to have his adjutant drive me to Blackpool to visit many of the nightclubs. We had a ball. After a few days we boarded the SS Argentina. One of about 2 ships in a convoy for a long voyage to New York. About four navy destroyer escort ships escorted us. Every 3 or 4 nights they would weave through the formation and drop depth charges. We never knew if they were for enemy subs or practice. We had boat drills about twice a day. We had to don life preservers and go to a designated place near a lifeboat. We were at sea about two weeks. When we landed in New York we spent about an hour on board before disembarking being questioned by some men, the FBI, I think. They were mainly wanted to know how the P-47 performed against enemy fighters. I saw my first bubble canopy P-47 on a ship in the harbor. Quince and I checked in at the Commodore Hotel and left by train our homes. An overnight trip. Jean and Nita (my mother) met me at the station. Jean had made reservations at Greystone Hotel where we spent the night after a short visit at home. Nita had a nice party for us at the club at Maxwell. We spent some time at Johnnie's cabin on lake Martin. After meeting many pilots at Maxwell who said they wished they could be assigned overseas I became disillusioned about returning to England.

Anyway, we had a nice stay at home and two pilots at Maxwell volunteered to fly me to New York in a C-45. We landed at LaGuardia airport, which was the only airport in New York at the time. We checked in at the Commodore and I was having a drink at the bar when I walked Quince Brown wearing Major insignia. Quince was an ace with several victories. He had received word of his promotion to Major and was celebrated by a Quince Brown day in his hometown of Bristow Oklahoma. He returned to the 84th and shot down 3 or 4 to bring his total to 13. I read in the Eagles of Duxford that he was shot down by flack and crash-landed Germany. Quince was shot and killed by a German civilian. The German was tried after the war by the War Crimes trial and was executed.

Quince and I left New York by train for Atlantic City. The Air Force had taken over the Ritz-Carlton hotel for a redistribution center. Since my birthday was in July I was due for an annual physical exam. Doctors at the center did this and I was told I had severe combat fatigue. I was sent to a convalescence center at SL Petersburg Florida. The center was the Don Cesar Hotel. Jean came down to be with me and since I did not have to stay overnight at the hotel we rented a nice motel on the beach within walking distance of the hotel. I had to check in at the hotel every morning for treatment. When I was released for duty I was sent to Chanute Field to be trained as an Aircraft Engineering officer. They must have seen on my records that I had been a highway engineer. It was a good thing for me as it turned out. The course was nearly a year. We lived in Champaign Illinois about 10 miles from the base.

I was then transferred to Mitchell Field NY. I didn't like it there on Long Island and told the Colonel I was to work under that I was looking forward to being closer to home. He picked up the phone and called the base commander at Richmond VA, Colonel Hughes, and asked if he could use a fighter pilot trained as an Aircraft Engineering Officer and the answer was yes. So I left that very day for Richmond. I was pleased because it was closer to home and I did not like Long Island at all.

My first duty at Richmond was a flight test engineering officer. Richmond was a training base for P-47 pilots.

I flew several times a day testing aircraft that had just been through periodic inspections. I was later made flight line maintenance officer to supervise maintenance of aircraft needing repair. I stayed at Richmond until the war with Japan ended September 2, 1945. Paull was born April 16, 1945 and my commanding officer gave me permission to fly a P-47 to Montgomery to see my son and wife. The Germans surrendered May 7, 1945. The P-47 was quite an attraction at Maxwell. Few people had seen it. Jean joined me later at Richmond and shortly after we were ordered to Shaw Field where we were when I was relieved from active duty in December 1945.

CIVILIAN LIFE AGAIN

I received a letter from the Director of the State Highway Department congratulating me for serving my country and offering my old job back. I rejected it because of the low pay. I later accepted a job with Eastern Air Lines in Montgomery as assistant station manager. It didn't pay much either. I later went back in the Air Force when I learned that ex officers could enlist with the grade of Master Sergeant. The pay was much better. About $300 a month. I had a nice job in base operations. Bobby was born December 17, 1947. With the Korean War looming I was recalled to active duty October 1947 with my old rank of Captain and sent to Bergstrom Field at Austin Texas.

BACK TO AIR FORCE LIFE

I was assigned to the 313th Troup Carrier Group an aircraft maintenance officer. We were equipped with C-47s for a few months then we began getting C-82s. The C-82 was a nice troop carrier aircraft. We could carry 40 paratroops and tow two gliders. We provided support for the 101st Airborne Division at Ft Campbell, KY and the 82nd Airborne Division at Ft Bragg, NC. The United States Air Force became a separate branch of the service in 1947. It was previously the Army Air Corps.

HAWAII

In May 1950 I received orders to proceed to Hickham AFB. Jean and our two boys accompanied me. We departed San Francisco on an army troupe ship for a seven-day voyage to Honolulu. I was assigned to the 1500 Maintenance and Supply Group as an aircraft maintenance officer. Hickham was equipped with two squadrons of C-54s and one squadron of C-97s. We had several C-47s for support and I flew supplies to about seven units on the outlying islands such as Maui once a week. I was called to the office of Major Busby, chief of maintenance, and was told that I was needed to replace the maintenance office on Johnston Island and was given the choice of going there or staying at Hickham in the Inspector General Office. I chose to go to Johnson Island. I didn't want to have any part of the Inspector General. I went to Johnson Island with my family who was very unhappy about my decision.

JOHNSTON ISLAND 1950 1951

The Korean War started in 1950 and there was a lot of traffic thru Johnson Island, a refueling base. The tour there was 12 months. Maintenance personnel were kept very busy refueling and providing maintenance on aircraft that needed it. I did get a chance to go to a maintenance conference in Tokyo. Conditions were very poor there since they were recovering from the war. Life on Johnston was miserable for Jean but Paull and Bobby seemed to enjoy it. I didn't mind it because it kept me busy and I had the use of the only Jeep on the island. The fishing was very good. We used the rescue boat when available. When my tour was up I received orders in March 1952 to return to Chanute AFB and assigned to the 1114th Special Air Mission Squadron. The mission was to provide VIP transportation for the 2nd Army in Chicago. While at Chanute I received a phone call from Group Headquarters in Washington offering me the job as commander of the 231st Special Air Mission Squadron at Dobbins AFB. I had been promoted to Major while at Chanute. I accepted the job and moved to Marietta with my family in March 1953.

DOBBINS AIR FORCE BASE

I enjoyed my job as squadron commander and flew as much as any pilot in the squadron. We were providing executive transportation for the 3rd Army that covered seven southeastern states. I flew personalities such as General Mark Clark and Werner Von Braun. While at Dobbins I received a call from Air Force Headquarters in August 1957 that I was to attend Air Command and Staff College at Maxwell APB. I considered this an honor since I had not applied for it.

COMMAND AND STAFF COLLEGE

Command and Staff College was a great experience for me. We had students from many nations. They left during the break for Christmas. After Christmas we got into a lot of top-secret stuff I flew C-45s for flying time. I qualified for Command Pilot while there. I had previously qualified for Senior Pilot while at Dobbins. I graduated on 12 June 1958 and was assigned to 1st Missile Division, Strategic Air Command at Vandenberg APB where I was working with the Titan I missile. I worked with a group that did all of the missile staff work for SAC

STRATEGIC AIR COMMAND HEADQUARTERS

In September 1960 SAC decided to transfer the staff work to SAC headquarters and many of the officers I worked with were transferred to SAC headquarters. I was a project officer on Titan I and Titan II. I worked under Major General James Wilson. I got my flying time in C-47s flying staff members to various SAC bases. One of the C-47s was equipped with compartments to train navigators. One of the navigators who flew with me was a Lt Colonel who dropped the atomic bomb on one of the cities in Japan. I was promoted to Colonel shortly before I retired in July 1964. This was the end of a wonderful and rewarding career.

Notes for Henry Routon Shows:

Henry Routon Shows of Luverne, Alabama married Merle Compton of Marengo County, Alabama. She is the daughter of Samuel William Compton, a teacher, lawyer, farmer and cattleman, and Ella Boozer. Merle attended Judson College and intended to become a teacher. She did teach for two years after graduation but did not enjoy that profession. She accepted a position as Director of Child Welfare in Luverne, Alabama in 1931. It was while working in this position that she met Henry Routon Shows. He was the bank president and successful widower about town and she the new and bright young lady from Tennessee. Merle said that she and a girlfriend with whom she worked would visit a local drugstore at noon each day to get a cup of coffee to go with their sandwiches for lunch. She said that Routon would "siddle up to the car" and try to talk to her. She "never paid him much mind" but several months later they were married.

It was about this time that the bank failed. The depression was hard in Luverne and the bank was suffering. A Dr. Ford, local physician and major depositor in the Bank of Luverne, decided to remove his money from the bank. Merle said that Routon came home that day, fell across the bed and cried like a baby. No amount of talk could persuade Dr. Ford to keep his money in the bank. It was then that several of the members of the board decided that a merger with a second bank in Luverne would be the best way to go. When this merger was completed, the second bank dumped their debt on the Bank of Luverne and it folded. Routon and his brother Taylor were too poor to carry the bank by themselves so they went into other ventures. Taylor and Routon had a falling out and Taylor left the area. His young son Thomas didn't want to leave the area so Merle and Routon took him in. Routon died an early death in 1947. Merle raised young Tom and is well respected in the community. She was unaware that the Shows families in Rutledge were directly related to Routon but she was instrumental in getting some of them accepted to colleges in the south. One of those was to Judson, her Alma Mater.

Merle has managed the Shows interests in Luverne for the last 53 years after Routon's death. She made the rounds in the early days and collected the rents from the tenant farmers. She sold the cattle and horses and made all the decisions for a 2,000-acre estate. So, while Routon was certainly an outstanding Shows man, Merle has been the one to stand in the breach for the last half century and built an outstanding estate. As told to Ron Shows by Merle and placed here with her permission.

1938. Martha Friederika¹⁰ Stoll (Johanna Christiana⁹ Mezger, Christina Friederike⁸ Eckhardt, Jakob Friedrich⁷, Jakob Friedrich⁶ Eckardt, Hans Jerg⁵ Eckhardt, Sebastian⁴, Hans Jakob³, Hans² Eckardt, Martin¹ Eckert) was born 13 Apr 1880 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 14 Mar 1975 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Junius Jacob (James) Mayer 24 Oct 1906 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Johann Mayer and Anna Heininger. He was born 14 Nov 1882 in Dixboro, Superior Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 29 Jun 1959 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

More About Martha Friederika Stoll:

Burial: Mar 1975, Bethlehem Cemetery Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan

Notes for Junius Jacob (James) Mayer:

Junius J. Mayer married and divorced from Martha Mayer (see reported divorce case, Martha Mayer v. Junius J. Mayer (6 Mar 1934), which reports, in part:

The parties lived together contentedly for about 25 years. Their separation and divorce were caused by the relations of defendant [Junius Mayer] with a woman whom he met in Detroit about two years ago and for whom he was willing to leave his family and home. The parties have one child, a son 26 years old, underdeveloped mentally, able to do much simple farm work but needing direction and personal care. He lives with his mother.

The parties have always lived on a farm. Both are industrious and frugal and, except for defendant's lapse, bear excellent reputations. Defendant also has established a business in sale of tractors and farm implements, which he conducted from the homestead.

The family home is a farm of 150 acres, inherited by defendant. He owns also a farm of 40 acres, a half interest in 140 acres, a house and lot in Ann Arbor, and personal property. The court awarded plaintiff the homestead, some livestock, farm tools and one automobile, together worth from $15,000 to $18,000, and ordered defendant to pay her $50 per month during her lifetime, with the understanding that as long as the son makes his home with plaintiff defendant should not be liable for any additional sum for his support. The property retained by defendant is worth $24,000. He complains that he cannot conduct his tractor business anywhere else than on the homestead and offered to give plaintiff all the rest of the real estate if he could have the home.

Defendant inherited all the land or purchased it with inherited money. However, plaintiff assisted him in conserving it and in acquiring personal property. The property does not admit of ready division upon the basis of values alone. The proportion of worth of the award to the wife is rather more than is usual. But there is no rigid rule of division and the security of a living for the wife is a major consideration. It does not appear that the homestead may be divided conveniently. It does not appear that other property would be as suitable for the wife's livelihood. She ought not to be driven from her home because of defendant's misconduct. Defendant's business can be readily established elsewhere. We think the court reached an equitable result and it should not be disturbed.

2225. Orthella Louise (Arthelle)¹¹ Lust (Frederick Isaac¹⁰, Nathaniel⁹, Sophia⁸ Beal, Johann Michael⁷ Buehl, Johann Michael⁶, Michael⁵, Anna Catharina⁴ Eckhardt, Martin³, Hans² Eckardt, Martin¹ Eckert) was born 28 Dec 1922 in Harrison Co, Ohio, and died 01 Oct 2008 in Camarillo, Ventura Co, California. She married Newell Ray Phelps. He was born 07 Jan 1928 in Lincoln, Lancaster Co, Nebraska, and died 20 Dec 2009 in Camarillo, Ventura Co, California.

Notes for Orthella Louise (Arthelle) Lust:

Arthella "Artie" Louise Phelps of Camarillo departed from this earthly realm on Oct. 1, 2008. She will be dearly missed by her husband, Newell "Ray" Phelps, her children and grandchildren, her Baha'i community, and all who knew her. Artie was born in Harrison, Ohio, on Dec. 26, 1922...

Notes for Newell Ray Phelps:

Newell Ray Phelps, beloved father and grandfather, passed away Sunday, Dec. 20 after receiving injuries from a fall. He was 81 years old. Ray, as he was known to his friends, was a resident of Camarillo since 1965. He was outgoing, friendly, generous of spirit, and much loved by his family, friends, and his Baha'i Faith community.

He is survived by: son Paul, daughter-in-law Meg and grandchildren Cole and Emily of Santa Paula; son Scott, daughter-in-law Lisa and grandchildren Aidan and Ariel of Pasadena; and daughter Stacey, son-in-law Tom and grandchildren William, Gregory, and Allison of Lexington, Kentucky. He was preceded in death by his brothers Marlin and Jack, and wife of 55 years Arthella Phelps.

Born in College Station (now Lincoln) Nebraska, he came to Southern California with his family in 1931 where he fell in love with surfing, spending many long hours catching waves on longboards; at age 13 he was surfing Santa Monica Bay when he learned of Pearl Harbor. At age 15, too young to join the Navy like his big brothers he fibbed about his age to enter the Merchant Marines. He was later drafted into the Army during the Korean War where he served at the Port of Whittier near the Aleutian Islands. While in the Army he had the good fortune to hear the all-girl swing band "The Victory Sweethearts" at a USO event in Indianapolis, Indiana. The lead trumpeter, Arthella Louise Lust, immediately stole his heart; they were married in 1954 and settled in Southern California, living in Santa Monica and the Pacific

Palisades.

In 1965, on a tip from a friend, he traveled to Camarillo to check out a new golf course, and returned home that day with a deed to a new house. When he broke the news of their new domicile to Arthella, she replied "be sure to write." However, Camarillo quickly became their home and they enjoyed that home for the rest of their lives. Their son Paul was born in 1958, Scott in 1963, and Stacey in 1964. He was involved with the early development of applying computer code to enable business applications around Southern California. Additionally, he moonlighted doing switch-service for the phone company, and driving a bread delivery truck. From the late '60s to 1991 he worked as a civil servant database administrator for the Navy at the Port Hueneme Sea Bee base.

In 1955, pulling graveyard shift with a friend, Ray heard about the Baha'i Faith, and immediately connected with its message of the Unity of Humanity. He and Arthella were active members of their Ventura County Baha'i community. They traveled on Baha'i pilgrimage to Haifa, Israel in 1986 and 2007. Ray's enthusiasm for life was extraordinary. He was an avid, some might say rabid, golfer. Gin-rummy and bridge games with friends often became all-night marathons. He embraced any opportunity for a drive, the farther the better. He and Artie enjoyed music and dancing their whole lives. To Ray, strangers were friends waiting to be made, regardless of their age, their background, or the color of their skin. He learned early in life what was important; material things were only important for the joy they brought to the spirit, and time and experiences with friends and family brought the greatest joy.

Friends of Newell Ray Phelps are welcome to attend services at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 26, at Conejo Mountain Memorial Park, with a reception following at the family home. Arrangements are under the direction of Conejo Mountain Funeral Home, Memorial Park & Crematory, 2052 Howard Rd., Camarillo.

Notes for Alwin Friedrich (Allie) Gross:

The Gross hardware store was broken into Monday night May 29, 1933 sometime between 2 and 6 a. m., and about $200 worth of merchandise taken. The thieves gained entrance through the window at the rear of the store. After helping themselves to all the baseball equipment, they started on the guns and ammunition, pocket knives, flashlights, and then sorted over the locks. Going upstairs they tried several of the keys in the door of the office occupied by Dr. Sigler, finally springing the door, but could find nothing but a sweater Mrs. Sigler sometimes wears in the office. They overlooked about a hundred dollar worth of gold Dr. Sigler uses for fillings. The sheriff's office was notified immediately when Alwin Gross arrived at 6 o'clock and Deputy Knight came over in Search of clues. Later Sheriff Andres arrived, bringing a finger print expert of the state police force. It is understood some good fingerprints were- secured. Saline has been the victim of about enough robberies lately and it is thought the sheriff's force soon will get to the bottom of all of them. Several suspects are being watched and no, doubt arrests will be made soon.

Mr. Gross was the founding owner of the John Deere Farm Equipment dealership in Saline since 1925. With his retirement several years ago, the Grosses moved to Cape Coral, Florida, but made, frequent visits back home to Saline.

A son, Robert, continues to operate the business. Mr. Gross was a Saline City Councilman for 19 years. He was Mayor of Saline for 8 years and during this time Saline became a city. He also served on the Saline Volunteer Fire Department for many years. Mr. Gross worked with the Boy Scouts of America for 22 years and received the Silver Beaver award, one of the highest honors available to scouting workers. He was a member and past president of the Michigan Farm Equipment Association and served on the Board of Directors for 8 years. A charter member and past president of the Saline Rotary Club, he was honored by his Rotary friends years ago as a Paul Harris Fellow. Notes for Dorothy Marie Gross:

Dorothy Gross Leverett and her late husband Charles (Chuck) ran Leverett Country Market at the corner of Packard and Carpenter Road on Carpenter's corners. And that market started in 1956, and the story that Dorothy told me was that it began when her brother-in-law had some extra corn and asked if the kids wanted to go down to the road and sell it. And they did, and they sold it all in two hours. And so the market was born.

I met Chuck at the Pittsfield Grange at Saturday night dances in 1937. We both graduated from high school in 1938. I was from Dexter High and he was from Ypsilanti High. I attended Henry Ford Nursing School on a scholarship and Chuck went to Michigan State. When war broke out in 1941, I went to work at the bomber plant. We were ... I worked there for about six months, I guess, and then I went to visit my husband who was in the service. We were married in December of 1942, while he was in his senior year, having been allowed to finish as he was in ROTC. He graduated in 19 ... April '43. Three weeks after graduation he reported for military duty, went to Fort Custer at Battle Creek, and then to Camp Barclay in Abilene, Texas. He entered into the Officer's Medical Training School. In July, I went to Texas and we had a one-room apartment with a lovely family. Chuck had to be at camp but usually had week-end passes. In December '43, after nine months of training, he graduated as a Second Lieutenant in the Medical Corps. Overseas duty followed in March of '44. He left on April 1st. I arrived in Corsica and then on to Italy. He was lost in the Alps while helping one of his fellow officers who had been injured. And then he went on to France. He served in French hospitals, then Germany for the next 21 months. I lived with my parents near Dexter and our daughter Judith was born July 1944. We were with them for 23 months.

During this time, the property on the farm for the trailer park was sold. I don't have the exact dates of it, but I mean, that's when it was handled. Chuck returned from overseas in 1946 to his first child of 19 months. Still was in the Army Reserve, attended meetings once a week. He obtained the rank of First Lieutenant while overseas and actually shy of two weeks of being a Captain. We had a short to get reacquainted with his wife and child and now look for a job. Jim Warner, owner of Warner Dairy on Washtenaw Ave, asked him to come to work. His major in college was Dairy Manufacturing. He offered him $200 a month, six day a week. He accepted. He became the plant superintendent immediately. But after two years there would be no chance for advancement as Jim's son-in-law had started working there.

So in 1948, Chuck and his father talked it over and decided to go back to general farming and the farm house was made over for both families. The folks moved upstairs and our family was downstairs. We had two children at that time. Becoming a resident of Pittsfield Township, I registered to vote with Dan Ellsworth, who was the clerk. Dan Ellsworth farm was the corner of Carpenter and Ellsworth.

Well, August 22nd, 1962 was the day our son was killed under the tractor. He and Bill Brooks were going to go get sweet corn and that's been 39 years ago. All property south of Packard and Ellsworth, actually to I94 we farmed. And the farm on Ellsworth Road known as Doc Cady Farm, which is now all private homes we used for farmland. We rented a farm on Morgan Road and a farm on Liberty Road and that's all now in a big subdivision.

The Christmas of 1962, we had purchased our Christmas trees and the Boy Scouts sold them. We had everybody in the subdivision and all our friends had been so generous, we set up a memorial fund. And the Scouts came and sold the trees, and all the profit went into the fund. And I think we did that for four years. And many boys and girls in the Carpenter District were allowed to apply for help to start their college. I think it was $300 they would give them. It was handled by the Ann Arbor Trust. It has been closed out. Some went to the Saline Church Home and they decided the remainder should go to our son Mike's college upon the death of his father.

The Leverett farm was sold to Sam Frankl for a shopping center. That was in 1963, and that was when they put our house up on beams and got it ready and we cleared the orchard out. And I remember that was a time that President Kennedy was shot and I ran all the way down to the orchard to tell Chuck and the other guys that were working. And we also put up a barn to hold all our machinery, reopened our market with Robert Lilly doing the carpenter work. Later flowers she had attached to the market which served its use for the sale of flowers and Christmas trees. The market was opened May 1st to November 1st and then we opened December 1st usually till about the 18th.

In 1975, Judy and Christine, now out on their own, no longer helped at the market. Christine was married and she had an adopted son, our grandson from Korea. Mike was in college at Western Michigan. Chuck was doing more soy beans, grain farming, possibly thinking of ending the market business. With all the kids gone it was kind of hard. Some worked after school too. Some of those Lilly kids worked over there too.

And then November 1976, my husband had a heart attack in the morning, and was rushed to the hospital. By 6:30 that night he was ... had a massive heart attack on the operating table and passed away.

Mike was still in college. He came home weekends and we worked till late at night, combining and ... One night the combine on Morgan Road got mired in wet area, and thanks to Richard Sakstrup, who came to our rescue and pulled it out.

We decided the farm work had to come to a close. The market we could handle. Did do the sweet corn for another year, as Mike was home in the summer. Then a great friend said he would raise our sweet corn and we could pick it up each morning freshly picked. We had really built our business on our sweet corn because it was always fresh, being picked all day long. Weekends we had sold 300 dozen per day. We never went back to that amount though. All our corn was picked by hand, carried on a bushel basket.

Mike did transfer to Eastern which made it easier, except it added one year of college to him. We have continued going to Detroit market three to five days a week for produce and plants and flowers. This means leaving for Detroit by two a.m. and then come home and work from nine to seven, seven days a week. Long hours, but still rewarding.

We had an auction and sold all our farm equipment after we decided not to do any more farming. In 1979, I sold the farmhouse there. And Mike and I bought a condo on Earhart Road and I lived there 19 years. And then in 1986, we heard the house was going to be sold for a car wash, and we knew it adjoined the rest of us, so we bought ... I bought it back.

So we rented the market out for one year. He didn't succeed and he left without paying, so that was ... the building stands empty as far as I'm concerned. Then my daughter Chris did it for a year, and she didn't make out too well, so she said it was too many hours for no little ... for nickels and dimes. It's been empty for several years. In two ... last ... in 2000, this couple opened it through July and October but they're not planning on doing it.

We're doing wholesale only now. My son Mike is the manager. He still buys in Detroit. He does all the buying. He has the long hours, and this will be our 40th year purchasing trees from Duddle's Tree Farms. They sent me a note with our Christmas card this year. And this is our 45th year in business. We're going to continue on the wholesale business and Christmas trees in December. Seems to be slowing down myself. I turned 80 last December but still work three mornings a week to help pack the produce and I hope I can continue.

Dorothy Leverett was born in Dexter, Michigan on December 18, 1920. She grew up in Dexter on the Gross family farm, on the same property where she lives today. She graduated from Dexter High School in 1938 and took one year of nurses training at Henry Ford Nursing School. When World War II broke out, she went to work at the Ypsilanti Bomber plant doing office work. She married her husband Charles, whom she met at a Pittsfield Grange dance in 1937, in December of 1942. He served in the Medical Corps in Europe during the war. They had four children: Judith, Charles W. (who was killed in a farm accident in 1962), Kristine, and Michael. Her husband Charles died of a heart attack in 1976.

In 1948, Charles went back to general farming at his family farm located at Carpenter's Corner (Carpenter and Packard Roads). In 1957 they opened a produce stand, which evolved into Leverett's Country Market, which became a 45-year institution in the Township. This interview deals mostly with Mrs. Leverett's memories of running the market.

He graduated from Grass Lake High School in 1940. He served in World War II on an artillery unit in Italy from 1943 until the end of the War. He married Ella Mae Smith in 1946; they were married for 66 years when Ella Mae passed away in July, 2012. He was beloved by several relatives: Dave and Martha Luick, Joan and Jim Hoffmeyer and Joan's son and grandson, Duane and Dale Luick.

Dean was raised on the family farm on East Michigan Avenue which he continued to manage throughout his lifetime. He was elected county commissioner several times and served two terms on the Jackson County Road Commission, retiring in 1992. Grass Lake residents who are now adults may remember him for his years driving a school bus for Grass Lake students. Dean had long working relationships with both the Pierce family and the Wolpert family. We also want to mention the help given by the Low family and the wonderful support given by Kim Miller as well as Dean's nephew, Larry Champney. We want to recognize the long-term friendship Dean had with Phil and Sally Sherwood and their thoughtful assistance in caring for our father on many occasions. He will be remembered as a hard-working, skilled farmer, cooperative with others, generous to his friends, a dedicated member of the United Methodist Church, thoughtful and affectionate to his family, an entertaining story-teller and a gently competitive Euchre player. He loved to travel, visiting countries in Europe and South America. One of his last trips was an ocean cruise around New England with his adult grandchildren. He enjoyed the many family reunions and visiting family around Michigan. He was a regular at VFW meetings and a welcomed participant at coffee gatherings for neighbors, friends, and fellow farmers.

Thank you to all of his friends, nurses and doctors who cared for our beloved Dean over the years. A celebration of life service is being planned for the summer at the Grass Lake United Methodist Church. Arrangements are entrusted to Sherwood Funeral Home, Grass Lake.

- 3569 iv. Jennifer Lee Gross, born 23 Sep 1958 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 02 Sep 1991 in Pleasant Plains, Lake Co, Michigan. She married Brett Matthew Fischbach 18 Sep 1982 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan; born 25 Jun 1953 in Corona, Riverside Co, California; died 24 Oct 2007 in Baldwin, Lake Co, Michigan.

Notes for Brett Matthew Fischbach:

Brett M. Fischbach, (formerly of Saline) editor of the Lake County Star, died Oct. 24, 2007, at his home in Baldwin. He was 54. Mr. Fischbach was born June 25, 1953, at the U.S. Naval Hospital in Corona, Calif., the son of Frederick and Marylouise Fischbach. Even as a child, he gave evidence of a lively intelligence, boundless curiosity and a passion for fishing. Mr. Fischbach attended grade and high school in Ann Arbor and Saline, graduating from Saline High School in 1971. At the age of 18, he volunteered to serve in the U.S. Army and served in the Third Army at Fort Ord in Seattle and Fort Bliss in El Paso, Texas. He was honorably discharged in 1974. Following his Army service and 13 years in the Merchant Marine, he earned college degrees from Central Michigan University in zoology and history, ultimately attaining master's degree in both disciplines. He also taught undergraduate courses in ichthyology, fisheries biology, limnology and zoology, and served as assistant curator of the university's Museum of Cultural and Natural History. A longstanding love of ships and the sea inspired Mr. Fischbach to pursue a career in the Merchant Marine. Following his training at the Harry Lundeburg School of Seamanship in Piney Point, North Carolina, he received his Able Seaman's certificate and, for many years, worked on Great Lakes vessels, both as a deckhand and later as boatswain.

In 1983, Mr. Fischbach married Jennifer Lee Gross of Ann Arbor. His beloved first wife died after a long illness in 1991. In 2005, he was wed to Cappy Beins, originally from Toledo, Ohio, whom he recruited to write as a regular contributor to the Lake County Star.

Mr. Fischbach assumed the post of editor of this weekly newspaper in 2002. He quickly established a reputation for being a fine reporter who relentlessly pursued stories, and a clever feature writer who's popular and award-winning "Virtual Bait Shop" became one of the best-loved columns in the area. Being a Master Angler as well as an avid football fan, Mr. Fischbach was well equipped to cover a wide variety of outdoor activities and sports. He was also profoundly interested in politics and extraordinarily well informed about current events. A fervent champion of the common man, who despised cant and was always willing to speak his mind in the face of any opposition, Mr. Fischbach composed a fine series of "op-eds" on subjects ranging from war to the economy to public welfare and education, never failing to provoke thought and useful discussion. He was recognized for his outstanding work as a writer and editor by the Michigan Press Association.

Everyone who knew Mr. Fischbach well agrees that he was a most remarkable and truly unique individual. Humorous, bright, kind, and amazingly well read, he never lost his childlike fascination with ecology, gardening, chess, wartime strategy and field equipment. An expert on the American Civil War and World War II, he could identify any and every tank, plane or weapon from memory. There was not a single general on either side that he did not recognize by sight. While serving at Fort Bliss, Mr. Fischbach's Army colleagues who knew of his chess talent arranged a match for him with a Mexican National Master from nearby Chihuahua. Mr. Fischbach won the match when the master made a "poor move" in Mr. Fischbach's words at about the eighth move.

Mr. Fischbach was outstanding in biological taxonomy: his powers of retention were such that he could quickly classify any animal, whether terrestrial or aquatic, and explain its most important characteristics. Perhaps most of all, his relatives and friends will cherish the memory of his wonderful conversation. He lived a life that was jam-packed with adventures and could relate delightful anecdotes about rescues in the waters of Lake Superior, violent storms, occasional wild encounters with very colorful characters from Mexico to northern Canada, and fine musical concerts. Though he met literally hundreds of people during his life, Mr. Fischbach never forgot a name (or the lyrics to a song). Mr. Fischbach was a member of the American Legion, the Pere Marquette Watershed Council, the Lake County Property Owners Association, and the Federation of Fly Fishers.

Besides his widow and parents, survivors include three siblings, Cort S. (Maureen) Fischbach of Pinckney, Kristin Louise (Harold "Hal") Holcomb of Chelsea and Dirk F. (Kathryn "Katy") Fischbach of Saline; nephews Skylar Smith of Pinckney, Evan and Colwyn Fischbach of Saline, and Scott and Kenneth Gross; one uncle, R. Curtis Fischbach of Adrian; nine cousins; Jennifer's beloved mother, Jutta Gross; and a host of friends.

A memorial service will be held noon Saturday at Reddeman Farms, 555 S. Dancer Road. Another service is planned noon Nov. 10 at Verdun Funeral Home in Baldwin. Cremation has taken place, with ashes to be interred at Lakeview Cemetery in Ludington following the service. Memorial contributions in Mr. Fischbach's name may be directed to Museum of Cultural and Natural History, Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, MI 48859. Envelopes will be available at the services. Rest in peace.

Notes for Norman Louis Grob:

Norman Louis Grob of Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 97, passed away peacefully surrounded by loving family on August 30th, 2015 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Norm lived a long and amazing life as a loving husband, devoted father, and proud grandfather. He was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan on June 23, 1918 to Cora (Geyer) Grob and Edwin Grob. He attended Ann Arbor High School and graduated class of 1937. Norm was renowned as a gifted athlete, lettering in four varsity sports: football, baseball, basketball, and track. His high school yearbook said it best "a sportsman through and through." Norm began his 40 year career with King Seeley and Chrysler in 1940, working at their facilities in Ann Arbor and Grand Rapids.

In 1947, he married Helen Dieterle and she survives. He and Helen lived a happy life together for more than 67 years of marriage, filled with many travel adventures. They enjoyed driving each year between their "up north" vacation home in Houghton Lake, and their "down south" home in Winter Haven, Florida. They also enjoyed sharing in the management of the family farm in Milan. Norm's favorite hobbies included playing golf, snowmobiling, fishing, and boating. He also was known as the family "lucky charm" and no family member ever wanted to venture into a card game or casino without having Norm at their side. Norm always had plans and ongoing home improvement projects at his properties. He especially enjoyed frequent morning meetings with all of his friends at the Washtenaw Dairy, talking about his favorite teams, the Michigan Wolverines and Detroit Tigers. Even as he grew older, he looked forward to weekly visits "going to the dairy to shoot the breeze" with his buddies over coffee and donuts. Norm was a member of the Moose, a lifelong member of the Elks Lodge, and a lifelong member of Bethlehem United Church of Christ in Ann Arbor.

He is survived by his wife of 67 years Helen, his daughters Denise (Kenneth) Gregg of St. Clair, Michigan, Norma (Conrad) Foster of Plymouth, Michigan, and his grandchildren Christina Gregg of Okemos, Michigan, and Blake, Brock, and Brett Foster, of Plymouth, Michigan. He is also survived by many cousins.

Visitation will be Thursday, September 3rd from 4-7 PM at Muehlig Funeral Chapel, 403 S. Fourth Ave, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48104. Funeral services and a celebration of Norm's life will take place on Friday, September 4th, beginning at 11:00 AM, at Bethlehem United Church of Christ, located at 423 S. Notes for Helen Ruth Dieterle:

Helen Ruth Grob, age 91, passed away peacefully surrounded by loving family on May 11, 2016 at Angela Hospice Care Center in Livonia, Michigan. Helen lived a long and amazing life as a loving wife, devoted mother, and proud grandmother. She was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan on August 14, 1924 to Ruth (Westfall) Dieterle and Ernest Dieterle, a young builder and farmer. She grew up in Ann Arbor and moved to the family farm in Milan when she was 12. She attended Milan High School and graduated in 1942. As a young adult, Helen enjoyed her clerical work at Jones Insurance Agency in Milan and at Irvin Foundaries in Ann Arbor. When World War II began, she was a secretary for a department head at the Willow Run Bomber Plant. She then became a calibrator at King Seeley in Ann Arbor where her cousin Bob Phillips introduced her to a young foreman at King Seeley, Norman Grob. He had been transferred to Grand Rapids to assist with the production of bomber fuses.

After a long courtship, Helen and Norm married at Marble Memorial Methodist Church in Milan on September 20, 1947. The young couple resided in Grand Rapids for two years for Norm's King Seeley work. While there, Helen worked for the IRS and the Federal Housing Administration. When Norm transferred back to the plant in Ann Arbor, they lived at the farm until they purchased the house on Prescott. Helen continued with her clerical career at Edwards Brothers. From that position, she worked at the City Hall in the Ann Arbor Police Department's License Bureau and then transferred to the City Clerk's office where she worked until her brother Howard was tragically killed in a train accident in 1953. After five years at the Prescott house, Helen and Norm had the house on Sanford Place built. Denise was born soon after Howard's death and Norma followed three years after that. Helen chose to be a dedicated wife, mother, and homemaker until both girls went to school. During this time, her mother passed away. Then, she went back to work at the Ann Arbor City Health Department. Her father, Ernest, moved in with the family in the early 70s, and everyone helped to make sure he was comfortable. When the city and county health departments merged, Helen worked in the County Building until she retired in 1987. Helen was a member of Bethlehem United Church of Christ. Some of her volunteer responsibilities included working at the Senior Center and at the Moose Lodge, helping out in Bethlehem United Church of Christ's nursery and office, and fulfilling the duties of coffee hour at church for many years.

With retirement came the birth of four grandchildren; Blake, Brock, and Brett Foster, and Christina Gregg. Helen loved family trips to "the greenhouse" at Houghton Lake and winter trips to the home in Winter Haven, Florida. She loved doing handiwork including sewing, knitting, crocheting, gardening, and candy making. She was very involved with the operations of the farm. Helen and Norm lived a happy life together for more than 68 years of marriage, filled with many travel adventures. Helen is preceded in death by husband Norman Grob.

She is survived by daughters Denise (Kenneth) Gregg of St. Clair, Michigan, Norma (Conrad) Foster of Plymouth, Michigan, and grandchildren Christina Gregg of Howell, Michigan, and Blake and Brock Foster of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Brett Foster of Plymouth, Michigan. She is also survived by a nephew, Bernard Dieterle and niece, Vicki Martin, and many cousins. The family appreciates the many visits from cousins Nancy King, Mary Petrillo, Pat Schleh, and Barb Wood during her extended illness.

Visitation will be Monday, May 16 from 4-8 PM at Nie Funeral Home, 3767 W. Liberty Rd., Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103. A visitation at 10 AM followed by a funeral service will take place on Tuesday, May 17, at 11:00 AM, at Bethlehem United Church of Christ, located at 423 S. Fourth Ave, Ann Arbor, MI 48104 with Pastor John Kennedy officiating. Following the service, interment will be at Bethlehem Cemetery in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Memorial contributions may be made to Bethlehem United Church of Christ, 423 S. Fourth Ave, Ann Arbor, MI 48104, or Angela Hospice Care Center, 14100 Newburgh Rd., Livonia, MI 48154.

Marriage Notes for Letha Fill and Dwight Edwards:

Lansing, Feb. 26, 1982 - Letha and Dwight Edwards today celebrate 65 years of a marriage that began with a resolve never to go to bed with an argument unresolved. "It's give and take that makes a marriage last; I think that's probably the best way you could put it. You can't always agree on things. But, if you argue, make up before you go to sleep," Edwards said. "You have to give a lot and take a lot," his wife agreed, when they were asked why their marriage lasted as it did. Edwards believes his wife's good cooking helped, but wasn't the most important thing. "The problem today," Edwards said, "is it's so damed easy for young people to fight a little bit and get a divorce. Seems like back at the time we were married, if you had an argument, you made it up. People (nowadays) don't know how to overcome their differences. You have to learn to talk it out."

He was 20 and she 19 when they were married in 1917 in the Lansing home of her parents, Ed and Lydia Fill. Edwards will be 85 on March 11 and his wife will be 85 on July 14. "We've seen an awful lot of change. Actually, we've gone from the horse and buggy days to the airplane," Edwards said, reflecting on their 65 years. "Oh, there's been so many improvements. It's been quite a transformation. Everything today is tied to machines, computers. Even farmers are using computers." Edwards was a farmer until he and his wife retired and moved to Grand Ledge in 1957. She was a saleswoman in the J.C. Penney and J.W. Knapp department stores. Asked what kind of a farmer he was, Edwards replied with a laugh, "A darned good one!" He said he raised milk cows before he turned to purebred Hereford cattle. "When we gave up raising cattle, we got the third highest price in the state the year we sold them," he said with pride. They lived in the Willow Highway farmhouse that had been home for Edwards since he was 10.

They have three daughters Frances Chapman of Houghton Lake, Ruth Kaylor of Eaton Rapids and Martha Eveleth of Lansing; eight grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. Edwards includes Ronald Lundeen who married great-granddaughter Shelli Shortz in Portland last summer.

Marriage Notes for Florence Stoll and Fred England:

Lansing - Among the many social affairs given in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Florence Stoll, was the dinner at which Miss Irene Dale was hostess, Thursday evening, Feb. 16, 1922, at her home on N. Capitol Ave. A bowl of sweet peas centered the table and a boutonniere of the same blossoms was at each place. The guest of honor received a large bouquet of sweet peas. The evening was spent informally. Mrs. Clifford Foster, of Grand Rapids, formerly Miss Sarah Kirby, of Lansing, was an out-of-town guest.

Lansing - Florence Stoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Howe, and Fred England, Jr., of Detroit, spoke their marriage vows Saturday evening Feb. 25, 1922 at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 212 W. Hillsdale St., with Rev. G. W. Simon of the First Presbyterian church officiating at the ceremony. The Howe home was decorated with palms ferns, and tall standards of Columbia roses. The greenery was banked in the sun parlor to form the altar, while on either side were wicker baskets filled with pink roses and ferns. Smilax was wound about the staircase and in the archways, forming almost a bower of green through the lower part of the house. The bride wore a gown of white canton crepe with net overdress heavily embroidered in iridescent sequins, the design outlined with seed pearls. Her long tulle veil was arranged in cap effect, and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Columbia and sunburst roses, with orchid and white sweet peas, arranged in a huge colonial bouquet and held with a shower of lover's knot fashioned from narrow chiffon ribbon.

Attending the bride was Mrs. W. J. Clark, who wore a white satin gown, en train, and carried a colonial bouquet of roses, freesia, and sweet peas in pink and white, Little Miss Mary Jane MacKichan, who attended the door, wore a simple little frock of black pannevelvet, with black Bilk socks, and carried a quaint colonial bouquet of narcissus and roses. Robert MacKichan, the ring bearer, carried the ring in a pink Columbia rose. He wore a suit of black panne velvet and white silk crepe. Ralph England, of Detroit, attended his brother as best man. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Stoll, assisted by Miss Anna Bayha.

Following the ceremony and reception a wedding supper was served. The bride's table was laid in the dining room. It was centered with a low bowl of early spring blossoms, and lighted by pink candles, whose holders were bowed with pink tulle. The other guests were served in the rooms on the second floor where small tables were arranged, each bearing lighted candles in pink and white. During the ceremony and afterward through the reception hour, Harry Baumgras furnished harp selections. Mr. and Mrs. England left immediately after the ceremony for Chicago, and when they return will live at the Porter. Mr. England has accepted a position with the Durant Sales Co., of Lansing.

Out-of-town guests attending the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred England, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph England, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boerth, Howard Cook, Grant Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Foster, all of Detroit; Miss Louise Clemens of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. John Moss of Indianapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carpenter of Clinton.

2954. Irvin Gray (Erwin)¹¹ Rentz (George Godfrey¹⁰, George Alexander (Sandy)⁹, George Washington⁸, Margaretha⁷ Eckhardt, Johann Michael⁶ Eckardt, Johann Michael⁵, Matthias⁴ Eckard, Hans Jakob³ Eckhardt, Hans² Eckardt, Martin¹ Eckert) was born 29 Sep 1927 in Sweet Water, Marengo Co, Alabama. He married Joan Magahee 11 Jun 1950. She was born 16 May 1931, and died 25 Oct 2014.

Notes for Irvin Gray (Erwin) Rentz:

MOBILE, Alabama — The history of Meadowbrook subdivision has been one of respect for tradition coupled with preparation for the future. In 1951, Meadowbrook was developed from pasture land purchased from Graf Dairy near Grant Street (later replaced by Airport Boulevard) in what was considered "west" Mobile at that time.

Westlawn Elementary School, a Mobile County Public School established in 1947, was already in operation. In 1954, the Catholic Diocese of Mobile (now Archdiocese) bought land fronting Sage Avenue to break ground for Pius X Catholic Church and, in 1957, St. Pius X School.

Now the neighborhood is in Midtown Mobile, with easy access to the malls and I-65. The subdivision is bounded on the east by Florida Street (except for one later section across Florida) and the Pathway Apartment complex outside Meadowbrook; on the west by Sage Avenue; on the north by the Walton Avenue area; and on the south by Jennings Drive (in two parts, bordering Airport Boulevard), according to resident Patricia Rhinehart.

Current resident Artie McGowan composed this pledge in a "Meadowbrook History" in 2004 to present and future residents alike: "We respect the dignity and worth of our neighbors and value the diversity of culture, heritage, and history within our community. We pledge to strive to improve the quality of life of all our residents by working together to assure all of our neighbors a clean, safe, economically viable and progressive community that is responsive to changing needs." Residents of Meadowbrook tend to settle in and stay for long periods of time, and their offspring sometimes return to live there also.

The civic club sponsors a number of annual activities designed to pull neighborhood people together and keep the neighborhood up, Rhinehart said. Popular events include the rolling Santa tour at Christmas, in which a vehicle with Santa and carolers aboard drives through the subdivision, picking up children along the way. Neighbors come out to wave, enjoy the music and grab candy thrown by Santa. Parents with children have pictures taken at the end of the ride. The neighbors also enjoy an annual Halloween supper and an Easter egg hunt. The civic club is also a Mobile Community Action Group, which meets with Mobile Police Department representatives and stays in touch with other critical services, such as the fire department. Designated block captains keep their area informed with emails, event flyers and a new resident greeting service.

Original owners Irving and Joan Rentz had their home built in 1953 when Rentz worked for a local building supply company. The plans (1,296 square feet with three bedrooms and a bath) and price of $8,800 were agreed upon through a handshake and verbal commitment between homeowner and contractor. The interior walls were (and still are) covered with plaster because wallboard was not then in use, Rentz said.

As their five children came along, they added on instead of moving any further west, which was too far out in the country, Rentz said with a laugh. The Rentz family has never left home during a hurricane. Even during Hurricane Frederic in 1979, they "had a ball with their neighbors," staying on the front porch through most of it because Meadowbrook was centered in the eye of the storm. During 13 days without power afterward, the neighbors "ate like kings and queens" to dispose of their refrigerated and frozen food before it spoiled, Rentz remembered. "We love the neighborhood and enjoy living here. It is still to us a private little neighborhood and yet convenient to everything. I don't where we would want to move today," Rentz said.

2955. Virginia Inell Gavin¹¹ Rentz (Charles Edward¹⁰, George Alexander (Sandy)⁹, George Washington⁸, Margaretha⁷ Eckhardt, Johann Michael⁶ Eckardt, Johann Michael⁵, Matthias⁴ Eckard, Hans Jakob³ Eckhardt, Hans² Eckardt, Martin¹ Eckert) was born 10 Jul 1941 in Butler Co, Alabama, and died 24 Mar 2012 in Selma, Marengo Co, Alabama. She married William Herbert McGee 02 Jun 1963. He was born 25 Jan 1937 in McNairy Co, Tennessee, and died 27 Nov 2006 in Selma, Marengo Co, Alabama.

Notes for Virginia Inell Gavin Rentz:

Virginia Inell Gavin Rentz McGee, age 70, of Selma, Alabama, died at her residence on March 24, 2012, after a courageous battle with colon cancer. She was surrounded by her family in death as she was in life. Inell was born on July 10, 1941, in Butler, Alabama, to Wittie (Carlisle) and Charlie Rex Gavin. Charlie Gavin died when Inell was three years old, and Wittie married Charles Edward Rentz of Myrtlewood, Alabama, who raised Inell as his own daughter. Charles Rentz died in 1986, and Wittie Rentz died in 2006.

On June 1, 1963, Inell married William Herbert McGee of Selmer, Tennessee, her college sweetheart and a celebrated athlete at Huntingdon College. They were married until his death on November 27, 2006.

Inell is survived by three children: Stan McGee (John Finley IV), Boston, Massachusetts; Dr. Monica McGee Decker (Dr. Bill Decker), Marion, Ohio; Gavin McGee (Rebecca Huizinga), Phoenix, Arizona; and two grandchildren, Benjamin Decker and Rachel Decker of Marion, OH. Inell is also survived by her two sisters, Charlene Meadows (Don), Wetumpka, AL, and Sherry Hill (Steve), Alabaster, AL, plus many nieces and nephews. Inell was also blessed to have many friends throughout her life, many with whom she still visited until very recently.

In 1959, Inell graduated from Linden High School, where she was both the homecoming queen and class valedictorian. She attended Judson College from 1959-1960 and then transferred to Huntingdon College where she participated in many activities – among others, she was a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma, Treasurer of the SGA, member of the Huntingdon Choir, and was voted Miss Charming. She graduated from Huntingdon in 1963 with a degree in Home Economics. Juggling work and family commitments, Inell later attended Livingston University where she received her Masters of Education in 1980.

Inell began her teaching career in 1963 in Tuskegee, during the first year of desegregation of the public schools there, and then moved to Selma and taught 6th grade at Byrd School from 1964-1968. She taught at Potter Station (7th-9th grade) from 1970-1971 and then moved to Southside High School where she taught English for two decades. She retired from teaching in 1993 but was called out of retirement in 1997 and taught one year at Morgan Academy.

Inell was very proud to be a school teacher because she knew she was making a difference in the lives of her students. She taught them how to speak well, read well, and write well. In many students, she instilled a life-long interest in learning and introduced them to the literary classics. She knew these skills would help her students throughout their lives. She loved her students as if they were her own children and took great pride in their many accomplishments and successes.

Inell was also an accomplished musician throughout her life. She was a pianist for her country church before her feet could even reach the pedals. Inell continued to play for enjoyment throughout her life. One of the many highlights in Inell's life was in 1992 when she was awarded a National Endowment for the Humanities scholarship to study Mozart in Vienna. She was one of 15 participants selected from the United States to receive this honor. Inell treasured the lessons and the life-long friendships she made on this trip, the first of several trips she would make to Europe.

Inell was extremely creative, not only in writing, but also with sewing, interior decorating, and with craft projects. She designed the house that she and Herb built in 1971 and re-designed and renovated it in later years even after her cancer diagnosis. She considered yard work and gardening to be therapeutic and loved to be outside and in her greenhouse tending to her many flower beds and citrus trees. From early on, Inell adored and was surrounded by many loving pets. Inell also loved to read and usually had a few books she was reading at any time. She was intellectually curious and used books as a means to travel to places outside Alabama well before she actually did. As anyone who ever sat next to her on a plane during one of her many trips could attest, she took tremendous pride in the accomplishments of her children and those included, among many others, a son who was a Rhodes Scholar, a daughter who was Girl of the Year, and a son who is a mechanical engineer and test driver for Ford Motor Company.

Inell was a member at Church Street United Methodist Church, where she was also a member of the choir. Inell was also a member and former President of Delta Kappa Gamma (International Honorary for Women Educators) and was active with Selma's Ossian Club and the Reading Group at the Selma Public Library.

Visitation will be at the Lawrence Brown-Service Funeral Home in Selma, Alabama, from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM on Tuesday, March 27, 2012. On Wednesday, March 28, 2012, there will be a brief graveside burial service at the New Live Oak Cemetery followed by an 11 AM memorial and celebration of life service at Church Street United Methodist Church led by The Reverend Fred Zeigler. All attendees are asked to stay, enjoy refreshments and visit with Inell's family following the service. Pallbearers will be Andy Meadows, Rev. Tim Meadows, Brian Hill, Michael Naro, Charlie Lucas, Bill Tate and Edwin Wilson. Honorary Pallbearers will be Steve Hill, Ralph Hobbs, Don Meadows, Billy Rentz, Dean Wilcox and the Linden High School Class of 1959. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Delta Kappa Gamma "Girl of the Year" Scholarship Fund (c/o Donna Wiltsie, 2110 Delanie Drive, Selma, AL 36701), Church Street UMC or Huntingdon College, Montgomery, Alabama. Inell requested that all of her former students wear a small white ribbon so that her family can see all those she taught throughout her career. These ribbons will be available at the visitation and at the memorial and celebration of life service.

Notes for William Herbert McGee:

William Herb McGee died on Monday, November 27, 2006, at Warren Manor in Selma, Alabama, after an extended illness. Before his retirement in 1994, he was Director of Child Nutrition and Transportation for the Dallas County Schools and a cattle farmer in Summerfield. He was born January 25, 1937, in McNairy County, Tennessee, and grew up near Selmer, Tennessee. The National Jr. College Basketball Tournament brought him to Alabama where he was recruited by Coach Neal Posey of Huntingdon College in Montgomery. In 1960, Herb became the first pitcher on Huntingdon's first baseball team and a forward on Huntingdon's basketball team. In 1993, he was named to the Athletic Hall of Fame at Huntingdon.

Coach McGee came to Selma in 1964 and coached years at Parrish High School later Selma High School. In 1969, he was named All-Star Coach in both baseball and basketball. After getting his M. Ed., he moved from coaching to assistant principal at Southside High School and then later to principal. He was a avid fisherman and hunter in addition to his administrative duties and his work as a cattle farmer.

He is survived by his wife, Inell Gavin Rentz McGee, three children: Stan McGee (John H. Finley, IV) of Boston, Massachusetts, Dr. Monica Decker (Dr. Bill Decker) of Marion, Ohio, and Gavin McGee (Becca Huizinga) of Phoenix, Arizona, and two grandchildren, Benjamin and Rachel Decker. He is also survived by two brothers, John Ernest McGee of Madison, Alabama, and Bennie McGee of Alamo, Tennessee, and two sisters, Joyce Brooks of Selmer, Tennessee, and Doris Robinson of Memphis, Tennessee, along with numerous nieces and nephews. Friends who want to remember Mr. McGee are encourage to contribute to Church Street United Methodist, Huntingdon College Athletic Hall of Fame, the Diabetes Foundation or to a personal charity of their choice.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, November 30, 2006 at 11:00 a.m. at Church Street United Methodist Church. Visitation will be on Wednesday from 5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

More About William McGee and Virginia Rentz:

Marriage: 02 Jun 1963

Children of Virginia Rentz and William McGee are:

- 3892 i. Carl Stanley¹² McGee, born 09 Mar 1969. He married Rev. John Huston Finley IV 12 Nov 2005; born 15 Jun 1970.

Notes for Carl Stanley McGee:

2005 - When informed of their son's decision to take up with Carl Stanley McGee, a lawyer from Alabama, the family of John Huston Finley IV, a Bostonian, was dismayed, but not about the fact he was in a serious relationship with another man. "My parents were far more upset that Stan was a Hilary Clinton-supporting Democrat than they were about us," Mr. Finley said. "I remember them asking Stan a lot of 'coming out' type questions: 'Maybe you didn't have a good Republican experience? Have you told your parents how you feel?' " They were introduced by a mutual friend nearly 10 years ago. "Our first date was at a monastery," said Mr. McGee, who is 36 and known as Stan, recalling their meeting at a service at the Society of St. John the Evangelist in Cambridge, Massachusetts. "Stan thought it was a very bizarre gay date, but we were both interested in theology," said Mr. Finley, now 35 and a candidate for ordination in the Episcopal Church. "When the monk came by with the holy water I saw Stan take what I assumed was a deep and profoundly pious bow. Later I realized it was because he was wearing a suede waistcoat which he didn't want to get stained."

The affably preppy Mr. Finley, who is also the founder and the director of the Epiphany School, a private, tuition-free middle school in Boston for children of poor families, has a classic New England pedigree, which includes a degree from Harvard, where his grandfather was a master of Eliot House. His family, he said, was staunchly Republican "until the second Bush administration." The bespectacled Mr. McGee is a Harvard Law School graduate and a former Rhodes scholar who now works as a junior partner in the Boston offices of WilmerHale. He has a serious mien, a booming drawl and a shock of prematurely white hair. His passion for Democratic politics is rooted in the Deep South, and he has long been interested in the "pernicious connection" between church and state, he said.

"John had more of a sense of faith being a positive force," Mr. McGee said. Yet, of the two, he says Mr. Finley "is more impetuous, more Gestalt, more big picture." He added, "We're more yin-yang, more complementary, than opposites. John's all sugar and I'm all lemon zest." Religion, the Constitution and confectionery ingredients notwithstanding, the day after their first date Mr. McGee sent Mr. Finley a dozen red roses; Mr. Finley sent Mr. McGee two dozen. A month later, while driving down Storrow Drive in Cambridge, they first spoke of their feelings for each other. "It felt right from the very beginning," Mr. Finley said. "The affection I felt radiated back to me." Mr. McGee agreed: "There was a sense of completeness I felt with John that I'd never experienced before."

Eventually their relationship came to include a weekly visit with the Finley family in Brookline. "Stan's mother had dinner at our house once," recalled Mr. Finley, who, unlike Mr. McGee, had revealed his leanings to his family at age 13. "Everyone but her knew at that point that Stan was gay. When we walked into the dining room where a portrait of my grandmother hangs, she turned to me and said: 'Your grandmother is very beautiful.' I said, 'With a fur and pearls I could look just as beautiful.' From behind the bar came a crash; Stan had dropped a tray of oysters." Politics aside, both families were never anything but fully accepting of the relationship, Mr. Finley and Mr. McGee both said. "My mother was the first of her circle to send out a Christmas card with a gay partner included," Mr. Finley said. In time they were sharing an apartment in Boston and making plans to wed under Massachusetts law.

"Stan and John are deeply conservative and old fashioned and traditional in every way," said Jennifer Bradley, a college friend of Mr. McGee's. So a civil marriage ceremony paired with a religious service was planned at the Church of the Redeemer in Chestnut Hill, the Episcopal parish where Mr. Finley's family are longtime members. On Nov. 12, 2005, their wedding day, the couple greeted guests in front of the church. Friends and family watched from candlelit pews as Mr. Finley and Mr. McGee walked down the aisle holding hands.

State Senator Jarrett T. Barrios, who received permission from the state to officiate, led the civil ceremony, pronouncing to thunderous applause that the couple were "fully and legally married." The Right Rev. M. Thomas Shaw, the bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts, then presided over the Eucharist. That the couple decided on a wedding in the classic mold came as no surprise to those who know them. Neither did the black-tie reception at the Brandegee House, an estate they had rented in Brookline. After a dinner for 250 in an elaborately decorated and heated tent on the grounds, guests filed into the mansion's ballroom, and danced as a 14-piece orchestra played swing. Somehow everything old seemed new again. As Ms. Bradley said of the marriage, "Seeing people who have been locked out of it makes you appreciate it more."

Feb. 7, 2008 - A top official in the Patrick administration has been placed on unpaid leave because he was arrested in Florida and charged with sexually assaulting a 15-year-old male in a steam room at a $500-a-night Gulf Coast resort. Carl Stanley McGee, 38, assistant secretary for policy and planning, is scheduled to be arraigned next week for sexual battery in Lee County, Fla. McGee helped draft Patrick's casino bill, life sciences legislation, and his plan to bring broadband Internet service to the farthest reaches of the state.

According to police reports, McGee was arrested Dec. 28 and accused of performing oral sex on the 15-year-old, who was a guest at The Gasparilla Inn & Club, a 95-year-old hotel and championship golf course in Boca Grande. McGee was held overnight on a $300,000 bond. Few state employees were aware of the arrest. An account had appeared in the local newspaper, the Boca Beacon. McGee's co-workers said they had been told he was out sick. McGee, whose annual salary is approximately $150,000, could not be reached for comment. His lawyer, Charles Rankin, did not return phone calls from the Globe.

Kofi Jones - spokesman for McGee's direct supervisor, Secretary of Housing and Economic Development Daniel O'Connell - issued a brief written statement saying, "Mr. McGee was placed on administrative leave effective January 7, pending the outcome of the matter." McGee, a former Rhodes scholar and Harvard Law School graduate, was previously a corporate lawyer at the law firm Wilmer Hale. He was instrumental in the movement seeking to defeat efforts to overturn legalization of same-sex marriage, serving as director of the civic and business outreach efforts of the advocacy group MassEquality.

A year after same-sex marriage became legal in Massachusetts in May 2004, McGee's wedding to John Finley IV was highlighted in the "Vows" section of The New York Times. Former state senator Jarrett T. Barrios officiated. Known for his shock of platinum hair, McGee was named one of The Boston Globe's 25 most stylish Bostonians in November. In the article, he described his style as "traditional, but it's also subversive and ironic." "You cannot wear pinstripe suits and have my hair color," McGee said. Friends and supporters in state government were stunned by the news of McGee's arrest and said they do not believe the charges. "I know it didn't happen," said one official, who asked for anonymity because she was not authorized to speak on the matter.

According to a probable cause statement filed by the Lee County sheriff's office, an "unknown white male" approached the alleged victim the day before the alleged assault, striking up a conversation with him in a bathroom. The next day, the alleged victim was in a steam room when the same man, later identified as McGee, entered the room and sat beside the teenager. McGee is accused of masturbating and performing oral sex on the teenager. An officer from the Lee County sheriff's special victim's unit tried to interview McGee that day, but he refused to answer questions without a lawyer present, according to the probable cause statement. Later that day, another officer spotted McGee, who voluntarily went with the officer.

The alleged victim then "positively identified the individual as the person who sexually battered him," the probable cause statement said. McGee's arraignment on the charges was scheduled for Jan. 28, but was postponed until Feb. 11, according to Lee County court records. Two days after his arrest, he was stopped for speeding in the same Florida county and assessed a $181.50 fine. According to county records, he is due back in court for a traffic hearing Feb. 13.

May 6, 2012 - Carl Stanley McGee (he goes by "Stan"), a top aide to Massachusetts Governor Deval Patrick, has been hired as interim director of the new Massachusetts Gambling Commission. Unfortunately for McGee and for the commission, McGee was charged with sexual assault on a 15-year-old boy in Florida four years ago. Although most people involved are claiming this no big deal, some—including the boy and his family—are raising objections.

McGee, who is originally from Alabama, was a Rhodes Scholar and holds a degree from Harvard Law School. Before being hired by Governor Patrick, McGee worked for the Wilmer Hale law firm. In 2004 McGee was actively involved in the effort to keep gay marriage legal in Massachusetts. In 2005, McGee and his partner John Finley IV married, and they even featured in the trendy and exclusive New York Times Vows column.

An excerpt: The affably preppy Mr. Finley, who is also the founder and the director of the Epiphany School, a private, tuition-free middle school in Boston for children of poor families, has a classic New England pedigree, which includes a degree from Harvard, where his grandfather was a master of Eliot House. His family, he said, was staunchly Republican "until the second Bush administration."

The bespectacled Mr. McGee is a Harvard Law School graduate and a former Rhodes scholar who now works as a junior partner in the Boston offices of Wilmer Hale. He has a serious mien, a booming drawl and a shock of prematurely white hair. His passion for Democratic politics is rooted in the Deep South, and he has long been interested in the "pernicious connection" between church and state, he said. "John had more of a sense of faith being a positive force," Mr. McGee said. Yet, of the two, he says Mr. Finley "is more impetuous, more Gestalt, more big picture." He added, "We're more yin-yang, more complementary, than opposites. John's all sugar and I'm all lemon zest." Apparently, McGee is quite the man about town. In 2007 he was named one of the Globe's 25 most stylish Bostonians. In the accompanying interview, he described his style as English traditional with an Alabama twist. I am not someone who is always chasing fads or trends. I spent a fair amount of time at Oxford on a Rhodes fellowship. My style wasn't created there, but I think it was reinforced. Many would call it traditional, but it's also subversive and ironic. You cannot wear pinstripe suits and have my hair color.

ALLEGED SEXUAL ASSAULT - From The Boston Globe, February 7, 2008:

A top official in the Patrick administration has been placed on unpaid leave because he was arrested in Florida and charged with sexually assaulting a 15-year-old male in a steam room at a $500-a-night Gulf Coast resort. Carl Stanley McGee, 38, assistant secretary for policy and planning, is scheduled to be arraigned next week for sexual battery in Lee County, Fla. McGee helped draft Patrick's casino bill, life sciences legislation, and his plan to bring broadband Internet service to the farthest reaches of the state. According to police reports, McGee was arrested Dec. 28 and accused of performing oral sex on the 15-year-old, who was a guest at The Gasparilla Inn & Club, a 95-year-old hotel and championship golf course in Boca Grande. McGee was held overnight on a $300,000 bond. The Globe reported that McGee's co-workers were surprised to learn of the charges, because they had been told he was out sick during that time.

Here's a little more detail about the alleged assault. McGee...met the boy, who police said is between 12 and 16 years of age, in a bathroom at the resort a day earlier where they engaged in small talk, according to the police report. The boy told police he ran into McGee again the next day in the resort's steam room. McGee sat next to him, removed his towel, rubbed the boy's back and shoulders and performed oral sex on him, according to the police report. The boy's father contacted police, who spotted McGee at the resort based on a description from the boy.

In March the Lee County prosecutor decided not to press charges even though the police investigator disagreed. ...[A] child abuse investigator asked by the Florida governor's office to review the case told the Cape Cod Times Thursday he found the boy's story credible. He urged prosecutors to reconsider criminal charges, he said. "The child reported it immediately, he identified (McGee) from the backseat of a police car, and he gave a good statement to police," Terry Thomas, a special agent with 27 years of experience investigating child abuse cases with the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, said Thursday. Then he reiterated something he wrote in his report: "I have seen cases successfully prosecuted with less evidence than this case."

There was just one more little bump in the road before McGee could breathe a sigh of relief and return to his glamorous life and brilliant career. When the prosecutor declined to move forward with charges, Boston attorney Wendy Murphy filed suit in 2009 against McGee on behalf of the boy and his family and the case was settled in a confidential agreement in 2011, she said Thursday. Hmmm...sounds McGee had to pay a few bucks to get out of his little scrape, doesn't it? I wonder how his husband reacted to all this? I checked and they were still married as of this year.

CURRENT CONTROVERSY - Fast forward to May 2012. After the hiring was reported in the Globe, some people started asking questions. But the gaming commission wasn't worried.

Stephen Crosby, gaming commission chairman, said commissioners reviewed the incident and were convinced it should not be a factor in whether to hire him. "Two of us had looked into it quite a bit and everyone we talked to from the state attorney in Florida, to his employer at the time Dan O'Connell, to Gov. Deval Patrick — everyone came to the same conclusion that there was zero substance to these charges,” Crosby said. “Given that there is zero substance to the allegations, to hold that against him would be inappropriate. He’s a superstar. He’s very intelligent and a first-rate public servant.” A superstar who likes to take advantage of underage boys. But so what, “there is zero substance to the allegations” even though Stan settled a civil suit by the boy’s family. Today, the Globe reported that the gaming commission didn’t actually investigate the incident or contact Florida law enforcement or prosecutors. In fact the chairman of the commission felt really sorry for poor Stan and probably couldn’t imagine him doing such a thing. The chairman of the state’s new gambling commission last week called Carl Stanley McGee’s record pristine, saying he had reviewed the 2007 sexual assault charges against McGee in Florida and found them warrantless and meritless. “He went through this horrendous experience of being accused of a sexual harassment charge several years ago in Florida,” chairman Stephen Crosby told his colleagues Tuesday, according to a transcript of the meeting posted on the agency’s website, before they voted to name McGee interim executive director. But today, Crosby admitted to the Globe that he didn’t really bother to order an investigation, he simply relied on what he read in “news reports.” “I did not do any independent analysis of the state attorney’s work, nor do I believe that would be appropriate,” he wrote in an e-mail to the Globe Friday. “Stan is presumed to be innocent of the allegations.”

The Globe reported last week that law enforcement officials in Florida had believed the alleged victim, who was 15 but looked younger, and had urged the local prosecutor to bring charges against McGee soon after the alleged attack. They described a teenager who was scared but credible, providing consistent accounts of the incident. Crosby claimed he had been assured by the Patrick administration that the charges were “meritless,” but according to the Globe that would have been impossible because the Patrick administration never investigated the charges either.

The alleged victim in the case, now a 20-year-old college student, reacted angrily Wednesday after reading that McGee’s former boss — Daniel O’Connell, formerly secretary of housing and economic development in the Patrick administration — had called the allegations false when interviewed by the Globe about McGee’s selection. The family then released the results of a 2008 investigation by Florida child welfare officials recommending that McGee be prosecuted. The state investigation was conducted after the family complained to the Florida governor’s office about the local prosecutor’s decision not to press charges. An investigator for the Florida Department of Law Enforcement subsequently recommended that the prosecutor reconsider the charge of sexual battery on a child under 16 and add a second charge of lewd and lascivious acts upon a child under 16. But the prosecutor still refused to press charges, and the family filed suit and won a settlement from McGee with the help of Massachusetts victim rights attorney Wendy Murphy.

And that’s the whole sordid story so far. I decided to tell it in detail, because I think this is probably typical of what happens when a successful, powerful person is accused of an offense against a child. Why do Americans place so little value on the lives of children? And so another child predator goes free. Raise your hand if you think this was the only time Stan took advantage of a young boy. Perhaps another victim will come forward after all the publicity.

John Morgan Nichols, 88, of Montgomery, Alabama, known to his family as Daddy Nick and to his church friends as Mr. John, died peacefully on Sunday, Feb. 27, 2011, at a local hospital surrounded by the love of his family. Born in Crenshaw County, Alabama, on Dec. 6, 1922, he was the oldest son of John D. and Victoria McLeod Nichols who preceded him in death.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Dorothy Lee Mayo Nichols. They would have proudly celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary in April of this year. He is also survived by his brother, Lifford Nichols; sister and brother-in-law, Gladys and Charles Sport, all of Luverne, Alabama; daughters, Joan Nichols Sledge and husband James, Jo Nichols Cochran and husband Douglas, Jan Nichols Honsberger and husband Peter, and chosen daughter Kayren Pittman; grandchildren, Joanna Sledge Weintraub and husband Herman, Privott Sledge Stroman and husband Steven, John Nichols Cochran and wife Amy, Jessica Cochran, Laura Honsberger and Jacob Honesberger, and his chosen grandchildren, Powell Pittman and Elizabeth Pittman; great grandchildren, Rebecca Weintruab, Daniel Morgan Weintraub, Andrew Cochran, and Allison Lee Stroman; nieces, nephews and his large and loving St. James United Methodist Church family.

He is remembered by his family and friends as a strong man of honor, wisdom and faithfulness who was always supportive of his extended community. He began his career at 18 years as a shipping clerk at Burroughs Business Machines, now known as Unisys Corporation, retiring as service manager 42 years later. In this capacity he installed some of the first computers in Alabama, often taking up the entire building basements of Alabama state office buildings and local banks. He proudly served his country for three years during World War II in the Quartermaster Corps of the United States Army, with service in the Phillipines, New Caledonia and in occupied Japan. He especially enjoyed the training and care of service dogs, remaining a "dog whisperer" for the rest of his life. He was promoted to Staff Sergeant. He was a member of the American Legion. Upon his retirement from Unisys, he began his second career as Building Supervisor at St. James United Methodist Church. He served in this capacity for 28 years, up to his death. His title minimizes his role at the church as he was honorary grandfather to the children of the St. James Christian Preschool, advisor and counselor to the church staff, and devoted friend and supporter of the entire church family.

A memorial service will be at 11:30 Wednesday, March 2, 2011 at St. James United Methodist Church, Montgomery, Alabama with visitation at the church one hour prior to the service. Interment will follow at 3:00 p.m. at the Darien Primitive Baptist Church, Patsburg Highway, Luverne, Alabama. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. James United Methodist Church, attention, Scooter Leonard, Executive Director.

Jim was born on July 17, 1942, in Port Arthur, Texas. The family later moved to Houston where he graduated from Bellaire HS. Jim served 4 ½ years in the Navy after high school and was stationed in the Philippines for part of that time at the beginning of the Vietnam War. He began his career at Texas Instruments in 1969 as an electrical engineer. His work eventually brought him to Singapore where he met his wife Anita. They moved back to Texas in 1996 when Jim retired. His dream was to live by the water, and he spent the last twenty years living that dream.

A passionate woodworker and master craftsman, Jim had a workshop in his garage where he built many heirloom pieces for himself and his family. He was also mechanically inclined and was happiest when figuring out a new engineering project such as NASCAR certified racing Volkswagen Bug. James Hurt, of Detroit, Michigan, was organist for the wedding and James Osuga, of Columbus, O was the soloist. He sang a hymn, "Nuptial Benediction;" "O Perfect Love," Barnby; and "The Lord's Prayer," Malotte. The bride was presented in marriage by her father. She was attired in a gown of white satin, designed with princess lines and tiny, covered buttons to the waist line. Soft folds of material lined the redingote which fell into a cathedral length train. Her head dress of folds of illusion, forming a crown, was accented with pearls on each-of the four points, and held the fingertip veil in place. The bride carried a white prayer book, topped with a white glamelia and larkspur.

Mrs. Ralph Dobberstein, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Richard Balthaser, of Springfield, Ohio, sister of the bridegroom, was brides matron, and Miss Marilyn Eschelbach, of Ann Arbor, was bridesmaid. Notes for Alvin George Reimold:

Manchester - Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Reimold, Manchester, have been notified by the War department that their son, Pvt. Alvin G. Reimold, has been missing "somewhere in France" since Aug. 4. Pvt. Reimold, selected for service last December, was an infantryman, and had been seen action in France since the early part of July. He was home last April on a 14-day furlough before going overseas the following month. The 20-year-old soldier was trained at Camp Sheeler, Georgia, Fort George Meade, Maryland, and Camp Grant, Illinois. Before joining the Army, Reimold worked on his father's farm near Manchester.

"It was just like the old mouse trap play in football," said Pvt. Alvin G. Reimold in describing capture by the Germans last August. The 20-year-old member of the Fourth Infantry Division has just returned to the United States, after being interned by the Germans for nearly 10 months. "We were riding on tanks through France, and thought that the going was pretty easy. Four of the tanks got off onto the wrong road, and for a while we wondered if the Germans were still in the country. After a while we approached the town of Versailles, near Paris, and rolled right in without a bit of opposition. "Then it happened, we had driven right past the German emplacements, and once inside town they opened up. At first we tried to escape, but the Germans cut us to ribbons. Out of the 75 men in the group, only 15 were taken prisoner, the rest were killed."

Reimbold had very high praise for the American Air Force. "We were first taken to Lindburg, and then to Mooseburg," he said, "and during the time that they didn't make us walk, we were herded into boxcars. It is a funny feeling to be bombed and strafed by your own planes, but the AAF hit every thine that moved in Germany. Our train was wrecked, but luckily, I wasn't hurt. I can say that though the Germans didn't feel very well, we weren't kick around by them. They did stripe us of everything, including my watch. "I was then taken to Munich where they put me to work on the railroad for a while. That was about the most useless task I ever did, because as soon as we fixed the rail, American boomers wrecked them again. The city was a mass of destruction. The rail yards were all torn up, with the rails standing straight up in the air.

"The living conditions were terrible, and the food was worse, but the latter was aided by Red Cross parcels, which I got about once a week. We had to sleep on a straw tick, with no bed. It was so full of lice and bedbugs, that most of the time I just slept on the floor. "Then I got a break. I was sent to work on a farm about 50 miles from Munich, and there, was treated very well. The men ate the same food that the farmer did, we had clean clothes, and a good place to sleep.

"The German for whom we worked had a son who was a prisoner in New York. He told us his boy was 15 years old, and was set to become an officer when he was captured. The German press and radio had been telling the people about the terrible destruction that German planes were dealing out to New York City, but few of the people believed it, except the soldiers on the front lines. The farm I worked on was very backward. The only thing that I learned there was how to drive a team of oxen. There were few tractors, but this may have been because of the fuel shortage. "We were liberated by American troops early one morning in May, and then spent the rest of the day rounding up Germans. We also led the American troops to other farms, where we knew Americans were being kept. I wanted to go on with the patrol that freed us, and finish the war, but it was no go. They sent us, to Munich, and from there we flew to LaHarve, France, and from there we were sent home."

Reimbold entered the Army Dec. 4, 1943, and was trained at Camp Wheeler, Georgia. He was sent to Fort Meade, Maryland, where he left for England, arriving in July, 1944. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reimbold, Manchester are holding an open house in his honor from 1 to 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Alvin G. Reimold of Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 84, died Monday Jan. 28, 2008 at the University of Michigan Hospital. He was born July 5, 1924 in Freedom Twp, Michigan, the son of Alfred E. and Alma (Kappler) Reimold. He married Irene M. Wilson and she preceded him in death on June 25, 1997. Notes for Connie Jane Swartz:

I am delighted to announce that the winner of the Welch Award for the Year 2005 is professor of education, Dr. Connie Zitlow. Connie graduated with honors in Music Education at Wittenberg University and then went on to earn the M.A. and Ph.D. in English Education at The Ohio State University. She taught both Music and English at high schools in Ohio and Indiana and came to Ohio Wesleyan as an assistant professor in 1988. She was promoted to associate professor in 1994 and to full professor in 2000.

Dr. Zitlow has published more than two dozen articles in professional journals and as book chapters. She has presented over forty papers at professional meetings, national and international. In 2002, she published a book entitled Last Masterworks of Young Adult Literature, and is now completing a book under contract with Heinemann Press on Teaching the Young Adult Novels of Walter Dean Myers. In 1995-96, she served as President of the Ohio Council of Teachers of English Language Arts; from 1997-2000, she served as Editor of the Ohio Journal of English Language Arts; and she has continued to serve, since 1999, as Feature Editor of "Professional Links" in English Journal (a publication of the National Council of Teachers of English). Connie also continues to serve on the editorial and advisory boards of several peer-reviewed publications. And, in 1998, she was selected as the Outstanding English Language Arts Educator in Ohio.

Connie's service to the college and the broader community is much too extensive to describe today, but suffice it to say that at Ohio Wesleyan she has been the perfect campus citizen, with distinguished service on the Teaching & Learning Committee, the Academic Policy Committee, and the Faculty Personnel Committee.

Dr. Zitlow is, according to her students, and in their words: "knowledgeable," "informative," "enthusiastic," "creative," "charismatic," "caring," "demanding," "fair," "approachable," "sincere," "understanding," "supportive," "thought-provoking," "inspiring," and "extraordinary." They say that she "cares deeply," "does her homework," "is an advocate of original thinking," "encourages thinking and good writing," and that she is "rigorous yet flexible."

As one student put it: "Dr. Zitlow practices what she teaches, she has made me really want to teach." Said another: "Professor Zitlow makes it a point to get to know her students and, in turn, the students get to know each other." Another reported: "she holds her professional role well but never hesitates to add a personal touch.” Yet another student characterized her classes as “LOTS and LOTS and LOTS of hard work but ALL of it useful and relevant.” And another: “Dr. Zitlow helped me on the practical as well as the intellectual level; I know all kinds of things that I can’t wait to implement in the classroom as a teacher.” And, finally, one student described the impact on her coming out of Dr. Zitlow’s classes: “The joy of discovering a new genre of literature, the satisfaction of developing interesting teaching techniques, and the acquisition of knowledge of how my future students will read.”

Notes for Glenn H. Lahman:

ANNAPOLIS, Maryland - Glenn H. Lahman passed peacefully at his home in Annapolis, Maryland on October 10, 2011, from cancer. "The Captain" loved his long time adopted home of Annapolis and was a familiar downtown sight, greeting friends, armed with his iconic Tilley hat and pipe. Born in Bucyrus, Ohio in 1924, to Cloden Lahman and Hilda (Fauser) Lahman, he was a 1942 graduate of Holmes -Liberty High School. Active in school events he played the tuba and performed in school plays. Following high school, he entered the old Dodge Radio Institute in Valparaiso, IN. WWII intervened, and he was inducted into the Army serving in both the 6th Armored Division, 68th Tank Battalion and in the 2nd Armored Division. These divisions, as part of Patton's 3rd Army, saw action in the Battle of the Bulge. He proudly wore his original Army MSgt's uniform in annual Washington DC and Annapolis Memorial Day parades.

His lifelong interest in radio fueled both his hobby of ham radio and his career in radio and television broadcasting. Moving to Baltimore, Maryland in 1948, Glenn was a pioneer in the budding television industry, from his early days as a television technician at WAAM TV, helping to build this new TV station (the 13th in the US at that time), through to management positions at Westinghouse television and radio stations in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Boston, Massachusetts and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Active in related organizations, he served as National President of the Society of Broadcast Engineers from 1975-1977 and in 1995, was recognized by the Veteran's Wireless Overseas Operator's Association (VWOA) with the Marconi Memorial Gold Medal of Achievement for "his many valuable contributions to the art of radio communications".

Glenn loved the water, especially from the deck of a boat, and was the proud owner of the steam tug Nellie Jeanne. He enjoyed returning to Bucyrus to visit family and the annual Bratwurst Festival. He also took great pleasure in his memberships in the American Legion, Post 7, Fleet Reserve Club of Annapolis, Veterans of the Battle of the Bulge and the VWOA.

Glenn leaves behind Jeanne, his loving wife of 61 years; one brother, Lyle (Mary) Lahman of Fostoria, Ohio; daughters, Ellen "Becky" Lahman, CAPT, USN, Nurse Corps, Retired, Harwood, Maryland, Paige (John) Cumberpatch; granddaughter, Lily, of Annapolis; beloved first cousins, Carol Keller of Bucyrus, Ohio and William Lahman of Cleveland Heights, Ohio. He is deeply missed by his extended family of cousins and the legions of friends who knew and loved him. For those ham operators, W3GMB is SK.

Notes for Jeanne Carre:

Jeanne Carr Lahman, the matriarch of middle East Street, reluctantly left her family and many friends on December 23, 2016. Born in Baltimore on April 8, 1926, to Janie Purdy Dawson and Paul E. Carre, she grew up on the campus of McDonogh School, where her father taught for 60 years. Her local roots were deep, however, and moving "home" to Annapolis in 1977 ushered in one of the happiest times of her life. In her later years, her most treasured outings would be with cousin George Dawson and they explored her childhood vacation haunts of Mayo, Carr's Wharf and Cadle Creek.

Together with husband Glenn, whom she wed in 1950, they opened their East Street home to friends up and down the street as well as across oceans and between continents. For so many, "Jeannie" was the mom to those whose own family lived far away, moved away, and sometimes had passed away. The quintessential mid-century housewife, she dutifully followed her husband Glenn, locally known as "the Cap'n" as his career moves with Westinghouse Broadcasting took the family to Boston and Pittsburgh, far from her beloved Maryland. She was preceded in death by Glenn in 2010.

She is survived by Ellen "Boo" Lahman, CAPT, Nurse Corps, USN, Ret of Harwood and Paige Cumberpatch of Sherwood Forest. In addition to Boo and J.P., Jeanne leaves her loyal and sole surviving sibling Lynne Carre Fenwick, of Harwood, as well as her granddaughter and soulmate Lily, with whom she shared a bond oblivious to the 68 years that separated them. Life was sweeter, saltier, spicier, juicier, and infinitely more exciting with Jeanne in it. She will be missed. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Meals on Wheels of Central Maryland. Attn: Development Office, 515 South Haven Street, Baltimore, MD 21224.

Her taffeta gauntlets were edged with the lace and her finger-tip illusion veil was caught to a lace bonnet trimmed with tiny seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of the white ball-type mums, white baby pompons and white angel feathers. For something old, the bride wore a gold band ring belonging to her grandfather. She also wore the gift of the bridegroom, a pearl necklace and earrings.

The attendants all wore identical ballerina gown of nylon chiffon styled with cowl necklines which fell to a deep-V in the back, continuing to form a graceful drape to the hem of the skirt. Their head bands were of matching velvet encrusted with seed pearls and trimmed with tiny face veils and orchid pompons. Miss Sandra Linn, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor wore Nile green while Miss Joan Kiess, a cousin of the bride, and the Misses Lillian Ralph and Susan Jo Kehrer bridesmaids, wore pink, shocking pink and lilac. Each carried a muff of sheer shell pink velvet with crescent arrangements of orchid pompons, shell pink carnations and mint green adianum. Completing their outfits were pearl necklaces and earrings, gifts of the bride. The little flower girl was Cynthia Everett of Upper Sandusky, a cousin of the bridegroom, who wore a dress a shade of green and carried a princess basket of flower petals. The little ring bearer was James Spreng, a cousin of the bride. Serving as best man was Charles Spiegel, a friend of the bridegroom, while Calvin Taylor, Norman Schiefer, Alan Schiefer and Richard Schiefer, ushered. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kiess chose a French blue taffeta dress with a palette pink hat and gloves. Mrs. Linn wore aqua taffeta with brown velvet accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of briercliff pink roses.

A reception followed in Fellowship Hall of the church with member of the Fellowship Class in charge. Curtis Kuenzli played the organ selections. Mrs. Philip Moseley of Lima, a cousin of the bride and Miss Sonia Cook, a former roommate of the bride, served the six-tiered cake which centered the serving table. The cake was wreathed in greenery and flowers in the bride's colors. Joan Brinkman poured the punch and the Misses Carol Wieman and Susan Linn also assisted in serving. Miss Marlene Hinaman was at the guest book. For her going-away outfit the bride wore a tweed costume suit of autumn brown with the harmonizing accessories. Her corsage was of yellow and bronze pompons. On return from their undisclosed trip, the couple will live in a newly remodeled home on the Lemert Road in the Holmes-Liberty district.

Miss Linn entertained at the spinster party Friday evening while Charles Speigel entertained at the bachelor party. The rehearsal party was held in the Kiess home Saturday evening. Among the guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Cook. Mr. Cook is chairman of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and has been visiting here for the past week. Children of Gale Linn and Marilyn Kiess are:

- 4252 i. Victoria Jo¹³ Linn, born 25 Aug 1955. She married ? Shawk.
- 4253 ii. Diane Sue Linn, born 19 May 1958. She married Tim Allen Schroll 14 Oct 1978; born Aft. 1955.

Notes for Diane Sue Linn:

March 14, 2020 - Diana Shroll is a daughter of Gene Linn and Marilyn Kiess Linn Mead. Diana's siblings are Victoria Shawk and Daniel Linn. Diana went to Holmes Liberty, Lykens and Wynford schools, where she was involved in band, choir and drama. She loved science and math because she wanted to be a nurse like her Grandma Ada Kiess. Diana was a farmgirl and said growing up on the farm was an enriching experience. She was a member of Holmes Liberty Litter-Mates and showed hogs at the fair. She has fond memories of sitting on Tim Shroll's 'fair box' in the cattle barn. He was also involved in 4-H and FFA.

When Diana graduated from Wynford in 1976 she went to Mansfield General School of Nursing for two years, then quit to marry her high school sweetheart Tim Shroll. While school was important, she told her parents, "I just wanted to get married and have kids." Tim is the son of Dale and Judy Shroll and has two brothers Tom and Roger. Tim and Diana own DT Petroleum, a propane business located near Bucyrus High School. Diana has worked there most of its 30 years. After quitting nursing, and the children were born, she became a dental assistant for Dr. Palenshus. Diana also worked for Dr. Yaussy and then about 12 years for Dr. McMurray. Next, Diana became a successful Mary Kay sales director earning seven cars, including "The Pink Cadillac" because of her high sales. Diana also started the Canine Cookie Jar business making homemade dog treats, and still bakes part time. She distributed the treats locally, and to businesses in Ashland, Mount Gilead, Columbus, Findlay, and other area. She quit doing that massive amount of baking when she opened the smoothie shop.

Diana remarked that she vowed not to be like her Grandma "Eegee" Edith Linn, but has learned she is exactly like her. Diana has always been active at Mount Zion United Methodist Church, but has stopped her Sunday school job teaching high school children. She was also their youth leader, saying she probably misses that job the most. Her family is her greatest accomplishment in her life. Their son Joshua is a physician in San Antonio, married to Sierra Vig, an oncology pharmacist. Tim and Diana's daughter Ashley is a veterinarian in Findlay married to Matt Leopold a machinist in Findlay. They are expecting their first child together in April. As a grandmother to four step-grandchildren, Matt's children; Diana is tickled pink about being a first-time grandma to their little girl Harper. Diana started baking dog treats at Ashley's request. Diana is a dog lover and has two Saint Bernard dogs, the love of her life.

"Fit Fab Fun" is located at 209 S. Sandusky Ave., one block south of the square. The business happened when Diana hired a trainer at the Fitness Warehouse in Galion. Wes Kochheiser owned the gym, and they became friends and discussed physical fitness training. Diana lost 30 pounds and, with his influence, she became more aware how people should eat and take care of themselves. While working at DT Petroleum in 2017, Steve Schifer asked Diana if he knew someone who would purchase the Picking Building where the "Fit Fab Fun" is now located. Tim and Diana felt it would be a good place for Diana to open a smoothie shop. J and F Construction totally renovated the building and they opened in July 2018. The menu offers smoothies, wraps, soups, coffee and other healthy options. Looking back on her decision, many people told Diana the business wouldn't be successful, that people in Bucyrus weren't ready for it. She said that maybe it was stupid, but she likes taking risks and she took that as a challenge. It has been almost two years and they are busy everyday no matter what the season. The number one Smoothie is the Green Fusion, which includes spinach. People have realized that Bucyrus was ready for healthy options. The priority for Diana is good food, but she prides herself in the fact that their service is as good or better than the food. Their slogan is "serving up smoothies and sunshine" and they feel passionate about making someone's day a little bit better. Diana and her staff are "Wynford girls" making them very connected. They are Michelle Light; Sarah Shifley; Rhonda Emerson Rohrer; and June Smith Gebhardt. Payton Miller and Kaylie Heckert, both college girls who work in the summer.

"I've had a very full, happy life, full of challenges, but I truly believe life is what you make it. I'm almost 62 but not ready to retire. I love working. My parents instilled a good work ethic in me, and I'm not going to be done until God says so," Diana said.

Sandra Jo¹² Linn (Dorsey John¹¹, Alta Ardella¹⁰ Lust, Emanuel⁹, Sophia⁸ Beal, Johann Michael⁷ Buehl, Johann Michael⁶, Michael⁵, Anna Catharina⁴ Eckhardt, Martin³, Hans² Eckardt, Martin¹ Eckert) was born 16 Jun 1936, and died 12 Sep 2018 in Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio. She married Allan Eugene Schiefer 30 Jun 1956 in Brokensword, Crawford Co, Ohio. He was born 15 May 1937 in Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio, and died 19 Sep 2022 in Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio.

Notes for Allan Eugene Schiefer:

Allan E. Schiefer, 85, died Monday, September 19, 2022 at his home under the care of his family and Southern Care Hospice. He was born May 15, 1937 in Bucyrus to the late Welden and Ruth J. (Heinlen) Schiefer. Allan enjoyed growing up in rural Crawford County where he played, explored, farmed, fished, hunted, and graduated in 1955 from Holmes-Liberty High School. He raised livestock and was active in 4-H and FFA. Allan married Sandra Jo Linn on June 30, 1956 and they shared 62 years of marriage until her death in 2018. Allan delivered milk for Lone Pine Dairy and then worked in manufacturing for various companies before joining his brother-in-law, Gene Linn, in the fertilizer supply business, establishing County Line Soil Service. He also sold insurance, in addition to farming his own land and helping family and neighbors.

Allan's life was changed eternally when he accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior in April 1972. A month later, as he grew in his new faith, he quit smoking cold turkey, trading cigarettes for a toothpick he often held in his mouth. Allan was instrumental in the growth of Wayside Chapel under the ministry of Reuben Leuthold. He served on the deacon board, helped establish the school, and grilled hot dogs to serve after his favorite Singspiration Fellowship services. Outside of church, Allan enjoyed lunches with his siblings, school and family reunions, boating and camping at Lake Erie, coon hunting, and gathering with family to freeze corn each fall that his granddaughter Rachael affectionately named "National Corn Day." He enjoyed mowing the lawns at his home, researching genealogy, listening to (some would say napping through) Rush Limbaugh, and the company of his beloved dog, Andy.

Allan is survived by son, Geoffrey (Stephanie) Schiefer; daughter, Linn (Tim) Ash; son-in-law, Scott (Anita) Harris; grandchildren, Coltan (Allyson) Schiefer, Levi (Anna) Schiefer, Bethany Harris, Marianne Harris, Gretchen (Seth) Keller, Nathanael Harris, David Jay Ash, and Rachael Linn Ash; great grandchildren, Audyn Lake Schiefer and Maura Keller; sisters, Karen (Donovan) Scott & family and Marian (Larry) Vance & family; and Norman & Ellie's sons, Tom Schiefer and John Schiefer & their respective families. In addition to his parents and wife, Allan was preceded in death by daughter, Jennifer Jo Harris; granddaughter, Grace Harris-Nichols; and brother Norman and sister-in-law Ellie Schiefer.

Services will take place at Wise Funeral Service on Saturday, September 24. Family will receive friends from 1-2:55 pm, followed by the funeral at 3:00 with Pastor Jerrill Wyler officiating. Burial will follow in Brokensword Cemetery. Rather than flowers, memorial donations are encouraged to be made payable to Wayside Chapel, Crawford County Genealogical Society, or the Grace Harris-Nichols Foundation ("Grace's Light") and given at the funeral home.

Muncie, Indiana – The wedding of Miss Judith Ann Krauter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Krauter of Greenville, Michigan, and Ensign William F. Spencer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Ryan of Kenmore, took place in the First Congregational Church in Greenville at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, Aug. 8, 1954. The Rev. Richard L. Ford read the double-ring ceremony in the presence of a large number of guests, before an altar banked with palms, baskets of white gladioli, pink carnations and seven-branched candelabra bearing white tapers. The pews were marked with pink satin bows and ivy streamers. Mrs. Peter Field of Ann Arbor, Michigan, aunt of the bridegroom, played the traditional wedding music and the organ accompaniment for the soloist. Miss Marjorie Bell of Covington. The bride, who was escorted to the altar on 'the arm of her father, chose a gown featuring a petal bodice of imported Chantilly lace over satin, enhanced by a scalloped edged, sweetheart neckline revealing a crushed insert of nylon tulle. There were petite petal sleeves, matching lace mitts, and a flowing lace overskirt which opened in front to show tiers of nylon tulle ruffles ending in a long train. A Chantilly lace cap trimmed with seed pearls and a scalloped edge of lace secured the finger-tip length veil of nylon. The veil was designed and made by the bride and Miss Sally White of Milbrook, New York. The bride's bouquet was starlight roses and stephanotis tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Barbara Anne Spencer, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride as maid-of-honor. She was attired in a gown of pink crystallite in waltz-length, a V-neckline above a softly draped bodice with lovers knots at the very brief sleeves. A full skirt swirled into the back and featured a center panel of unpressed box pleats. Her pumps were pink and she carried a white satin ribbon basket filled with pink carnations and ivy. On her head was a circle of pink rose buds and ivy. Miss Joan K. McAnelly of DeMoines, Iowa, and Miss Thelma Grosvenor of Greenville, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses identical to that of the maid-of-honor. Ensign Robert Fraser of Sunmount, New York, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom was the best man. Eldon Black, Thomas Mock and James Wagner of Muncie, Larry Sweet and Walter Allen Krauter, both of Greenville, were ushers. Mrs. Krauter chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of beige lace over taffeta. It was designed with a sweetheart neckline out lined - in pearls and sequins, and with it she wore beige accessories and a green orchid corsage. Mrs. Ryan wore a bisque color, pure silk shantung jacket and dress. The dress featured an empire waistline and a jewel trimmed scoop neck. With it she wore purvanch colored accessories and a lavender orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Sweet presided as Master and Mistress of ceremonies as the wedding party received their guests at a reception held at the Greenville Country Club. Edwin Peterson provided the organ music. The Misses Sabra Carl of Muskegon, Michigan; Patricia Parker of Chicago; Elizabeth Shannahan of Goshen; Mary E. Ranney of Greenville; Jacqueline Reinke of Greenville, and Mrs. Thomas Hoffman of Mansfield, Ohio, served the guests. The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated in the bride's chosen color scheme of pink and white. Baskets of pink carnations and white gladioli and bouquets of garden flowers were placed at intervals in the clubhouse. The bride and bridegroom used a 150-year-old loving cup in the Spencer family. The first date on the cup is 1804, next date, 1904 and it now bears the 1954 inscription.

Following the reception, the couple left for a honeymoon in Florida. For traveling, Mrs. Spencer wore a pink suit. Her accessories were white and she wore a white orchid corsage. The couple will be at home in Great Lakes, Illinois, for several weeks following their wedding trip. Mrs. Spencer will return to the campus of Purdue University this fall to continue her studies in the School of Science. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority at the university. The bridegroom is a member of one of Muncie's most prominent families. He was graduated from Purdue University this month and is entering the service as an ensign, USNR, at Great Lakes Naval Training Command. He is a graduate of Burris High School and is a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Notes for David E. Luidhardt:

David E. Luidhardt, 72, of rural New Washington was ushered into heaven Sunday afternoon, September 13, 2015 at Mount Carmel East Hospital in Columbus where he was fortunate to be surrounded by all his children and family. He was born November 24, 1942 on Orr Road in Chatfield Twp. to the late Calvin and Mary (Cameron) Luidhardt and was raised for a good portion of his childhood by his grandparents, the late Harvey and Edna Luidhardt. After attending Chatfield High School, he was a member of the first graduating class of Buckeye Central High School in 1961. While in school, he met LaVon Pfahler and they were married October 2, 1964. She survives having been blessed with 50 years of marriage. David was a loyal and faithful employee of PPG Industries in Crestline for 43 years, earning numerous attendance awards, and served in the Army National Guard in Tiffin from 1964-1970.

David always loved to build and tinker and was a jack of all trades, slow and meticulous with every project, often quoting his Grandpa Harvey's philosophy, "If it's worth doing, it's worth doing well." He'll be remembered for his long jokes, intricate and thoughtfully wrapped gifts and his love for farming equipment and photography, some of his work being selected for the PPG company calendar. David looked forward to the Crawford County Fair every summer, especially the tractor pulls and horse races, though he never gambled. He enjoyed a cold Pepsi and slice of bread with jelly and loved the opportunity to travel to see his children and grandchildren. He was a member and current chairman of the board of the Lust Cemetery Association, board member of the Portage Holiness Camp and yearly attendee of the Beulah Beach Bible and Missions Conference. David and LaVon were 1970 charter members of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church of Bucyrus where he was a trustee for 40 years, 17 as chairman; served 35 years in the audio and tape ministry and 13 years as a youth fellowship adult leader.

David was passionate, proud and pleased of his family: daughter, Julie (Jonathan) Suter of Waldo and their sons, Benjamin and Jonathan Jordan (Nicole) Suter and children, Jaxon and Johanna; daughter, Teresa (Mike) Oberlander and son Ryan of Gurnee, Illinois; son, Keith (Danielle) Luidhardt and children, Brandon, Cassandra and Nathan of Alamogordo, New Mexico; son, Kurt (Kristen) Luidhardt of Greenwood, Indiana and son, Gene (Annie) Luidhardt and children, Grace, Dax, Hayden, Asher and Kieran of Bloomington, Indiana.

David is also survived by siblings, Daniel (Kay) Luidhardt, Melvin Luidhardt, Lavina Newcomer, Ann (Graham) Dunn, Cathy (Randy Main) Bloomfield, Edward (Cheryl) Luidhardt and Janet (Dick) Dunbar; Aunt Connie Luidhardt, Uncle Donald Rothhaar, Aunt Eileen Auck; and brothers and sisters-in-law, Wayne Auck, Rev. Ray (Wanda) Pfahler and Dr. Larry (Deborah) Pfahler. In addition to his parents and grandparents, he was preceded in death by his sister, Naomi Auck and in-laws, Lewis and Gladys Pfahler.

The Luidhardt family will receive friends on Wednesday, September 16 from 1-3 and 6-8 pm at Wise Funeral Service, 129 W. Warren St. in Bucyrus. Funeral services will be Thursday at 10:30 am at First Alliance Church, 1955 Hopley Ave. in Bucyrus with Pastor Bill Strader officiating, followed by burial in Lust Cemetery, Chatfield. Memorial contributions are encouraged to be given to First Alliance Church to be used for international missions or to a charity of the donor's choice through the funeral home.

Richard and Carol Zeeb are new neighbors at 168 Harper Dr. They moved here about the first of September, 1966, from Ann Arbor. They have a small son, Richard Brian (better-known as Ricky), who will be two in February. Richard, a native of the Dixboro area and a graduate of Ann Arbor High School, is studying business administration at Eastern Michigan University now. Carol spent most of her childhood in Ann Arbor and Dexter, and graduated from Dexter High. But Saline is sort of home to her, too, since she and her family lived here for a few years when she was a small child. She began her school days here . . . she attended kindergarten and first grade in Saline, and she still has fond memories of those days. The Zeeb's met when they were both members of 4-H horse clubs. They have more or less outgrown their interest in horses, although their parents have horses on their farms, and Ricky has a pony named "Popeye" at his grandparents' farm near Dexter. The Zeeb's like living in Saline. They have several fine friends here from the days before they moved in, and they have added to the list since then.

A viewing with the family begins 1-hour prior. On Mon. Sept. 19, a visitation will be held at Muehlig Funeral Chapel (403 S. 4th Ave.) from 5 to 8 PM with a remembrance service at 7 PM.

Born on June 2, 1934 of Manx and German heritage, Allan decided to become a physician at age 5 and was known to childhood friends by the nickname "Doc," after he began treating playground injuries with band-aids. As a teenager, he played saxophone in a dance band and was on the wrestling and debate teams. A lifelong Ann Arborite with a historian's memory, Allan learned the name of every street in town as a delivery driver for his father's grocery store - Grennan and Clague's on Packard. Allan completed all of his education in Ann Arbor: he was valedictorian of Ann Arbor High School's Class of 1952 and received the Chute Medal "in recognition of the highest type of school citizen," he received his B.A. in philosophy from the University of Michigan in 1957, and completed U-M medical school in 1961. After an internship and residency at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, he returned to U-M to study neurology and became an expert in electroencephalography, serving as Clinical Professor at U-M Medical Center (1968 - 91). He directed the EEG labs at St. Joseph and Herrick Hospitals. Also in private practice, he devoted himself to both patients and an old-school approach to personalized medicine. He retired on Jan. 1, 2015 at age 80, but proudly maintained his medical license. Allan was a true Wolverine football fan, who for over 70 years attended nearly every home game. He first entered the Big House in 1943 at age 9 as a last-minute substitute water boy. Rain or shine, win or lose, Allan stayed to the last snap.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the American Heart Foundation or Kidney Fund. Doctor, husband, father, and grandfather, Allan was mentally sharp until the last and in so many ways more joyful than ever. He will be missed, never forgotten, and he passed as he dearly wished - at home with his wife of nearly 52 years to whom he was utterly devoted.

He married Flora May Smith 20 Mar 1954 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Lucian Smith and Elsie Miller. She was born 03 Jun 1932 in Jefferson Co, Alabama, and died 08 Oct 2013 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Robert Edward (Bob) Kalmbach, Sr.:

Bob Kalmbach, a staff photographer for the University of Michigan for decades, has died. He was 66. He died Monday Feb. 12, 2001 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a long illness. Mr. Kalmbach grew up in Ann Arbor and graduated from Ann Arbor High. He worked as a photo printer at Michigan Photo Services, and after eight years, he became a photographer. He told The Ann Arbor News in an interview last year that he had shot "everything from presidents to pigeon dung."

Robert Kalmbach, University photographer for 47 years, died Feb. 12, 2001 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. He was 66. Kalmbach retired from full-time work at the University in July 2000 but continued to work part-time for the Athletic Department. A familiar face-behind-the-camera to many at the University, Kalmbach visually documented visits from politicians and presidents, writers and artists, and the daily events that tell the tale of the University. His photographs have been featured locally and nationally in such diverse publications as The University Record and National Geographic magazine. A variety of his work is displayed in the Founders' Room at the Alumni Association Building.

Among his personal favorites, which he displayed in his darkroom in the Fleming Building, was a portrait of a pensive Arthur Miller and a photo of an elephant performing at Mott Children's Hospital. Over the years, he delighted in telling the story that no one batted an eyelash or registered surprise as the elevator containing the elephant stopped at various floors at Mott. Kalmbach was feted at a Universitywide reception last summer, with remarks offered by President Emeritus Robben W. Fleming, football coach Lloyd Carr, friend Keith Molin, and Joseph Owsley and Julie Peterson, former directors of News and Information Services.

"I'll always remember a conversation we had once when you described an opportunity you had to photograph an actual surgery-in-progress," wrote one individual in a memory book of the occasion. "I was amazed at your willingness to go wherever called and your always inquisitive reporter's approach to every assignment. And with all of the amazing, talented and influential people you have met and photographed in your work, you've always remained real and approachable—and able to capture that real moment for others." Said another, "I have many fond memories of my early days at Michigan. When I called you constantly to photograph a geology grad or help with other LS&A things . . . you never said no, and as a newcomer, it was appreciated and was never forgotten."

Yet another remarked, "If a picture is worth a thousand words, mere words cannot describe your long career of services to this University. Your photos have been appreciated around the world as well as on this campus. They will continue to illustrate the University's life in the future as people seek them out in the Michigan Historical Collections. "While you have worked with negatives for half a century, you are a totally positive person, a friend, an artist and an icon of this University." And in a resolution honoring Kalmbach, the Regents in July noted, "He understands Michigan in ways few of us do."

As noted the July 17 Record in a photo essay of his work, Kalmbach "leaves a rich tapestry of photographic history that captures all of the moments that make the University of Michigan unique."

Kalmbach was born March 19, 1934, in Ann Arbor, the son of Karl and Dorothy (Koch) Kalmbach. He married Flora Smith on March 20, 1954. He loved the outdoors, especially fishing and hunting.

He is survived by his wife, Flora; children, Chryle (Doug) Adams of Chelsea; Robert Jr. "Rusty" (Deborah) of Ann Arbor; Terri Kalmbach of Ann Arbor; and Kim (Diane) Kalmbach of Gregory; six grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and grandson, Steven Kalmbach.

Helen M. Pollman, 89, of Grayling passed away on Tuesday, May 1st, 2007. Helen was born in Lansing, Michigan on December 27, 1917, the daughter of the late Carl and Gertrude (Robinson) Hepfer. She worked as office manager for Lundberg Screw Products, Michigan Manufacturers Association, and Ford Motor Advertising Fund until her retirement in 1979.

Helen married Robert E. Pollman on January 16, 1976 in Roscommon, Michigan. She loved children, grandchildren and animals. She especially enjoyed the grandchildren as "babies". She had many animals over the years, and particularly like the name of Alfie for a pet. She also enjoyed golf, swimming, gourmet cooking, gardening, designing and decorating homes, painting scenery and above all she enjoyed giving parties and entertaining her friends.

She is survived by her husband Bob of 31 years. Notes for Robert Raymond Reason:

Robert Reason married October 17, 1942 Helen Hepfer of Dimondale, Michigan - Her parents: Mr. &

Mrs. William Geisenhafer of Dimondale. [Bob a Private in the Army (Air Force?) at the time of the marriage.] "Staff Sgt. Robert Reason and wife of Hobbs Air Field, New Mexico" ...and, this: "Sgt. Bob Reason, aerial engineer and crew chief of a Flying Fortress, arrived at Selfridge field the other day on a flight. (Selfridge is N of the Detroit area) His dad is Lieut. John Reason, communications officer, Headquarters Group 637, CAP (Civil Air Patrol): here and the sergeant hadn't seen the lieutenant for quite a while.

Sergeant Bob hitch-hiked to Lansing, arriving here about 6 o'clock in the morning. That gave him about an hour with the lieutenant, who said, Don't worry, we'll get you back in plenty of time. Upshot was that Lieutenant Reason flew Sergeant Reason down to Hartung airport, Detroit, three hours later in a 'flier' plane, got him back to Selfridge in time to return to Hobbs field, New Mexico in a B-17." This was Bob's first marriage which ended in a divorce ...

Bob's last wife, Rosemary Randall, may have been only the second. Rosemary was a close friend of Bob's sister, Jane Lenore. Rosemary was the daughter of a Doctor Randall of Lansing and had been married to someone named Harkness. I notice that the two boys are listed as Jeffery Harkness Reason and David Harkness Reason. The girls don't show Harkness. Were they not from the Harkness marriage? Rosemary had worked in the office at Michigan State University where Elmer O. Peterson was in charge of the Teller Stations where Rosemary worked. Rosemary died a while back in the Harrison area, maybe; she had left Lansing to be near a child or children in the northern part of the Lower Peninsula.

Lansing - The wedding of Miss Ellen Diffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Diffin of Corunna, to Lawrence Fill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Fill, R. 4, Lansing, took place Saturday Oct. 9, 1943 at 4 p. m. in First Presbyterian church in Flint. Before an altar banked with palms and Tiffany baskets of Picardy gladioli and white "mums" and lighted with candelabra. Dr. Ralph D. Kearns read the double ring service. Seventy-five relatives and friends were present.

For her marriage the bride wore a brown suit with aqua accessories and a corsage of gardenias and sweetheart roses. Her sister, Miss Ermine Dillin of Corunna, was maid of honor, wearing a soldier blue suit with brown accents and a corsage of yellow roses and bronze pompons. Dallas Young of Flint attended the bridegroom and ushers were John Lyman and Albert Duch, both of Flint.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Clarence Eddy. Mrs. Diffin wore a black crepe gown for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Fill, mother of the bridegroom, wore navy blue with fuchsia accessories. They both had corsages of roses.

A reception to the church parlors followed. Small white flowers decorated the table on which the tiered wedding cake was placed. Fall flowers were about the rooms. Miss Shirley Blom and Miss Virginia White, both of Flint, assisted. After a short trip to Chicago, the bride and groom will reside at 2032 East Bristol Road in Flint.

3702. Margaret Louise¹² England (Florence Amelia¹¹ Stoll, Clara Lydia¹⁰ Deeg, Rosina Amelia (Emma)⁹ Staebler, Friederika (Riga)⁸ Koch, Rosina⁷ Eckardt, Johann Michael⁶, Johann Michael⁵, Matthias⁴ Eckard, Hans Jakob³ Eckhardt, Hans² Eckardt, Martin¹ Eckert) was born 24 Aug 1923 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 07 Sep 1991 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan. She married Louis Haynes Andrews 21 Sep 1946 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, son of Louis Andrews and Virginia Maynes. He was born 04 Jan 1922 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 29 Oct 2009 in Sun City, Maricopa Co, Arizona.

Notes for Margaret Louise England:

Lansing, Jan. 31, 1974 - Mrs. Louis H. Andrews Jr., first woman director, of the First National Bank of East Lansing, insists her new role "has nothing to do with women's lib." "What's with this lib thing anyway?" asks Mrs. Andrews. "I've always done my thing. And, besides, what's so unusual about a woman being a bank director when women control huge chunks of finance all over this country?" Born Margaret "Peggy" England, daughter of the late Fred M. England of California and the late Mrs. England, Mrs. Andrews meant every word of doing her thing. "I've always expressed myself and gotten involved," she continued, "from the time I was a little girl." One highlight of her adolescent years was playing a clown in the Hospitaler Circus. "My Dad was the chairman, and it was no trouble at all for him to talk Otto Griebing, world-famous clown, into making me up and letting me get into the act" Talented in both writing and acting, Mrs. Andrews majored in speech and radio at Christian College and Northwestern University, where she later worked on the theater staff.

When she returned to Lansing she took on two careers simultaneously. She was a society writer for The State Journal and at the same time she shared a radio program with Howard Finch. "Neither media especially liked it that I worked for the other, but it kept things exciting," she said. After she was married in 1946, she resigned from the Journal and kept her part-time talk show with Uncle Howdy." It was during these years that she joined Civic Players Guild and starred in many lead roles. She also appeared in several editions of the Junior League Follies. "From the time we had our children, Ginny (now Mrs. Robert Outwater) and Rick (a student at Eastern Michigan University) I kept to the volunteer jobs I could work out within my family's schedule."

She managed during these years to serve as president of the Junior League, Town Hall Inc., Edward Sparrow Hospital Guild and the Harriet Mifflin Society of the First Presbyterian Church. For sports, she enjoys cross-country skiing and golf. Her hobby is doing original needlepoint designs of scenes and other things that have sentimental meanings for her. Just for kicks, and because she believed in the philosophy when she slimmed down a few years ago, she teaches a Weight-Watchers class three times a week. Will the bank job take much of her time? "I think it will mean monthly meetings and some consulting. I know I'll enjoy it" she said as she sat quietly doing her needlepoint in the sunny living room of her heirloom-filled home on Northgate, East Lansing. "The particularly fun thing ' about the bank directorship," she said, "is that my Dad founded it in 1955. And Andy and I took the children over and opened the first savings accounts. Ginnys was No. 1, Rick's No. 2 and ours No. 3." Fred England co-founded the England-Cook Chevrolet "dealership in 1922 with the late Howard Cook. It was sold in 1970 and now England's son-in-law owns and operates the new Andrews Chevrolet dealership in Mason.

"One reason I've always felt community-minded," reminisced Mrs. Andrews, "is because my family was always into everything. My mother was chairman of Red Cross volunteers during World War II and after, and Daddy was president of the Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, Downtown Coaches and a number of other civic things. It has always been away of life for us." Mrs. Andrews mother, the late Florence England, died in 1970 and subsequently England married a long-time family friend, the widowed Mrs. Robert Paul whom the Andrews all call "Aunt Mary." She still resides in Carmel, California, although she keeps up her summer home at Ironton where the Andrews family vacations.

Margaret E. "Peg" Andrews of Lansing, age 68, died Saturday, September 7, 1991. Mrs. Andrews was born August 24, 1923 in Lansing. She was a graduate of Lansing Central High School; Christian College, Columbia, Missouri; and Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois. Peg was a community volunteer; a past President of E.W. Sparrow Women's Association; honorary member of Sparrow Hospital Board of Directors; member of Sparrow Hospital Foundation; past President of Junior League of Lansing and Sparrow Hospital Guild. She was founder and past President of Lansing Town Hall and a member of Lansing Women's Club. Through the years, she was active in women's activities of First Presbyterian Church and the golf activities at the Country Club of Lansing. She also was active on several community boards and served as a director of First National Bank of Michigan. Her profession included writer for the Lansing State Journal; announcing for WJIM radio; and 18 years as a lecturer for Weight Watchers.

Surviving are her husband of 45 years, Louis H. Andrews; daughter and family, Virginia Louise, Richard Herrmann and granddaughter, Emilie Louise of Poway, California; son, Frederick E. Andrews of Lansing; sister-in-law, Shirley V. Andrews of Okemos; brother-in-law, Robert Andrews of Lansing; several cousins, nephews, grand nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, 11 a.m., in the First Presbyterian Church, 211 N. Chestnut Street, Lansing, with The Rev. David L. Evans, Pastor, officiating, assisted by Joe C. Foster, Jr. Interment will follow in Evergreen Cemetery. Honorary bearers will be James W. Clark, Thomas Culpepper, W. Gordon Dahlberg, William Harrison, Dr. Huston Mallory, Dennis Mosholder, J. Woodward Row, Rex E. Sessions, Theodore Swift, Thomas N. Tabler and Robert Zoeuller.

The family will receive friends at Gorsline-Runciman East Chapel, East Lansing, Tuesday, 7-9 p.m. Friends desiring may make contributions to Foundation of First Presbyterian Church, E.W. Sparrow Hospital Foundation Endowment Fund or charity of one's choice in memory of Mrs. Andrews.

Andrews, 514 Leitam Street. Six hundred guests were present for the ceremony performed at 8 p. m. by Dr. D. Stanley Coors. Quantities of white flowers were used to decorate the church, from the foyer where bouquets and white satin bows were tied to the newel posts at the stairs, at the pews along the white carpeted center aisle, and on the altar. An organ prelude was played by Mrs. Samuel Fredenberg, Jr., of Portland, before the ceremony began. She played accompanying music and Moushagh Alexanian sang "Because" and "I Love Thee." Five attendants, costumed in aqua slipper satin, their headdresses huge, perky bows of aqua faille, and their bouquets each containing a large bronze glamelia and tritoma, interwoven with garlands of bittersweet and colored foliage, preceded the bride to the altar.

The bride was traditionally gowned in white. The skirt of her heavy satin gown was draped from a long, fitted bisque into a circular, chapel length train. Her veil of fine net which had been worn by her mother and also by Mrs. William J. Clark, fell in two tiers from an oval crown rose pointe lace. The heirloom Gross, gift of Mrs. Robert A. Paul whose family had received it from Duchess of Argyle, edged the top flounce of the veil, falling to the shoulders, and the second tier of veiling hung to knee length. The satin gown was made with a bias, draped bertha below a high-necked marquissette yoke, and long, fitted sleeves buttoned at the wrists and pointed over the hands. The bride's bouquet was a shower of white orchids with an orchid corsage as a center. Her pearls were an engagement gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Dorothy Jean Krall of Watervliet was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Swift and Miss Joanne Plasterer of Kansas City, Missouri, formerly of Lansing. Junior bridesmaids were Margaret Bresnan and Margaret Reineke Cook of Owosso. Their gowns, V-necked and with flared, cap sleeves, were made with tight waists, fitted to the hipline, which was emphasized with full, double peplums reminiscent of the frocks of Dresden shepherdesses. The skirts were full, stiffened at the hem, and dipping into a suggestion of a train in back. The headdress bows of stiffened faille, were piped in wide satin bands. They wore gauntlet mits of aqua faille, elbow length, with wide cuffs piped in satin.

Alton D. Ambrose, brother-in-law of the bridegroom was groomsman. Ushers included Robert Boerth of Detroit, a cousin of the bride, Robert Andrews, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Walker, Carlyle Graham, and Samuel Fredenberg, Jr., of Portland. James Clark lighted the altar candles before the service. Mrs. Alton D. Ambrose was mistress of ceremonies for the bridal party at the church.

The bride's mother was gowned in a honey-beige crepe made with cascade drapery at one side of the skirt where it was caught with a bow. She wore long, dark brown gloves, a tiny hat of dark feathers, and a corsage of yellow orchids. Mrs. Andrews, mother of the bridegroom, was in black crepe, with a hat of pink feathers trimmed in sequins, and a corsage of pink orchids.

The entire club floor of the Hotel Oldswas reserved for the wedding reception attended by some 200 guests. At the entrance to the American room where they were received by the bridal couple, who were standing before banks of palms, was a table covered with a madeira embroidery cloth on which were many bags of rice. Notes for Joe Compton Luker, Jr.:

Joe Compton Luker, Jr., 74, of Eureka Springs died Dec. 2, 2015 from complications after open heart surgery. Joe was preceded in death by his father and mother, Joe Compton Luker and Zula Inez Stanley Luker Broyles. Joe was the dearly loved spouse of Melva Luker, cherished brother of James Charles Luker and sister-in-law Myra Luker, and adored father and stepfather of Jonathan Luker, Anne Ream, Robert Ream, and Kary Ream. His grandchildren--Cami, Alaina, Marisa, Joey, Jules and Arline--adored their "Papa Joe." He will be deeply missed by family and many friends, young and old.

As is fitting for a loving and beloved man, Joe was born on Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, 1941, in Little Rock, Arkansas. An outstanding athlete and scholar, Joe was an All-State varsity football player and lettered three years in varsity basketball. He was Salutatorian and Harvard Book Award recipient of his 1959 graduating class at North Little Rock High School. Joe went on to receive his Bachelor of Engineering from Northwestern University, his Juris Doctor from University of Arkansas and a Master of Laws (Taxation) from New York University. Joe served honorably as Lieutenant Commander and Judge Advocate General (JAG) in the United States Navy. He successfully practiced law in both Arkansas and California. A dedicated and trustworthy community activist, Joe served as President, Legal Advisor and Volunteer for the Grassy Knob Fire Department, Emeritus Foundation Director of The Carroll and Madison County Library Foundation, and as a member of the Opera of the Ozarks Guild.

Joe was insatiably curious--a life-long learner. His keen interest in novels, poetry, music and theatre fed his love for world travel. He was also a skilled fisherman. Few could make a top-water lure dance to catch more fish than Joe Luker. He was an ever-loyal Arkansas Razorbacks and Northwestern Wildcats fan.

Captain Compton was known as one of the brightest and best fighter pilots of his day, flying alongside famous test pilot Colonel Chuck Yeager, who is known for being the first to break the sound barrier. Jack was chosen as lead pilot in the "missing man fly by" formation at President Eisenhower's funeral in 1969 over the U.S. Capital. Jack Compton then spent 35 years at NASA training astronauts and was instrumental in the formation of the Sky Lab, Space Shuttle and Space Station programs. Jack was responsible for mission planning, flight data, and led the astronaut preparation process. Jack is credited for writing the "Astronaut's Bible" during the space Shuttle program.

While Jack Compton could've bragged about his earthly accomplishments, his legacy stands as one of humility, gentleness and servant hood. Jack Compton was the first to serve, always putting others before himself. He loved the Lord Jesus with all his heart, soul and mind. Everyone who was privileged to know Jack immediately felt his unselfish love, caring heart and compassionate spirit. One of his greatest joys in life was serving as an usher and greeter at Compassion Church in San Antonio, Texas, where his son Adrian pastors. While there is a gaping hole here on earth without Jack Compton, angels are rejoicing at his presence in Heaven. We will see him again.

Jack Compton is survived by his loving wife of 48 years, Leticia Laing Compton; Sons John Anthony Compton and Adrian Brian Compton, Grandson John Jr., and Brother Sam Compton.

A Visitation is set for Tuesday, May 26, 2015 from 5:00pm to 9:00pm and a Funeral Service on Wednesday, May 27, 2015 at 12:00pm at Sunset North Funeral Home with a graveside Service at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery to follow. The Compton family will host a reception for all guests immediately after the graveside service at 1050 Harry Wurzbach at Fort Sam Houston Golf Club.

He attended Lawrence Technical Institute and thereafter managed and owned Patterson Laboratories in the Detroit area. He was also a retired U.S Air Force pilot who by way of his keen flying skills was selected to train B-17 pilots during the tenure of World War II. Though Dick never flew in combat he quietly and without self-praise recalled harrowing tales of life as an instructor pilot and the sadness that came with reading of so many of their deaths in the European or Pacific theaters. He persevered with his flying and the US Air Force and honorably retired as a Lieutenant Colonel in March, 1972.

Dick was always a business man and many of his friends and associates were champions of various industries. He was an avid sportsman with many golf, handball, and speed skating triumphs over the years. He succeeded in a variety of real estate ventures in Michigan and made his way to the Valley of the Sun in the 1980's. Dick has lived in Fountain Hills, Prescott, and Sun City West, Arizona. His interests were varied but he took special care to be an excellent Rotarian (Paul Harris Fellow) with perfect attendance for forty years. He was a Mason, a supporter of many and varied benevolent and charitable agencies, and a loyal member of his church. The Shepherd of the Hills United Methodist Church has been his spiritual home through the joys, successes and trials of life and a comfort in his last days. Dick is survived by wife and friend Joan Shoop and family; daughters Dr. Sherry Gearhart of Allen Park, Michigan and Karen Brandt of Austin, Texas; step-sons John and James Colson of Glendale, Arizona and Dr. Michael Colson of Kamuela HI; and numerous grand-children and other family. Notes for Jasmin Cheyenne Brickey:

Sept. 5, 2017 - Authorities are searching for a missing Michigan woman who sent a series of messages to her family that she was in a "dark room" and "scared." Jasmin Cheyenne Brickey, 20, was last seen around 11 p.m. Sunday in Grand Rapids, news station WZZM reported. "The last thing she [got] out was [that] she was in a dark room [that] she thinks is a basement and she is scared," her mom, Barbara Brickey, wrote on Facebook.

The 6-foot-1, 190-pound Brickey was last seen wearing dark blue jeans with holes in the thighs, black sandals, a white shirt and a black hooded sweatshirt. Her mom continued to share posts on Facebook pleading for information Tuesday about her daughter's disappearance. "If it was your child you would be posting til your fingers bleed," she said.

Sept. 6, 2017 - The family of a missing woman whose last message to them said she was in a "dark room" and "scared", have spoken of their relief after she was found. Jasmin Cheyenne Brickey went missing from Grand Rapids, Michigan on Sunday. The 20-year-old then sent a series of messages to her family before her phone went dead. Her mother, Barbara Brickey, said she had been "kidnapped" and was being held in a "dark room somewhere". "Ok all friends and family please help Jasmin has been kidnapped she is in a dark room somewhere she don't know where. THIS IS NOT A JOKE," she wrote on Facebook. "The last thing she go out was she was in a dark room she thinks is a basement and she is scared." Two days after her disappearance, Ms. Brickey, again took to Facebook to announce her daughter had been found. "She is OK," she wrote. However, the details surrounding the case have yet to emerge.

Grand Rapids, Michigan -- A 20-year-old woman who went missing late Sunday has been found safe, police said. Police about 7:45 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 5 said Jasmin Brickey had been reunited with her family. She went missing about 11 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 3 after she was seen near Division Avenue and Withey Street. After she went missing, Brickey sent several messages to family and friends indicating she may be in danger, police said. Police did not divulge where she had been while missing.

Notes for Ricky Lee Doering:

Rick Lee Doering, age 65 of Delano, passed away April 2, 2018 after courageously battling cancer with dignity and grace. He truly perceived his diagnosis as a "win-win" situation saying, "I win if I beat the cancer, and I win when I get to go to Heaven". Rick was born to Orlin and Orvella (Bullert) Doering on May 5, 1952 in Cokato, Minnesota. He was baptized on June 1, 1952 at St. James Lutheran Church in Howard Lake, Minnesota. He attended grade school at St. James Lutheran Church and School where he was confirmed on April 3, 1966. Rick graduated from Howard Lake High School in 1970 and Gustavus Adolphus College in 1974. He worked as a manager for Burger King for 5 years before spending 31 years at BFI/Republic Services. Here he was fortunate to hold a variety of jobs: Sales Rep, General Manager, Area Sales Manager, and assisted in Acquisitions. Since retiring from Republic Services, Rick spent several years doing part-time consulting work for Russ Schweihs in environmental services.

Rick was united in marriage to Karen Frey on July 9, 1977 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He loved her with all his heart enjoying every minute of their marriage. Their marriage was blessed with a loving companionship, three wonderful children and a commitment to the Lord. They first lived in Mound and later built their home in Delano in 1984, where they have since resided. Rick was known for his love of food/desserts, sense of humor, pragmatic attitude, and his warm smile. His children and grandchildren were the absolute delight of his life. Spending time and playing with them was always a top priority. Rick never missed an activity or sporting event and was their greatest cheerleader, supporter and advisor. He continued to be the rock of his family until the end. Hours before he passed, Rick awoke and saw his wife and children surrounding the bed. He looked at each, smiled and said repeatedly, "Wow. What a life!", "This has been real special", and "I love my family". Rick willingly gave his time in service to the church. He enjoyed positions of leadership and was honored to serve his Lord in many capacities. At Mt. Olive Lutheran Church, he served as President, Vice President among many other board positions in addition to serving as Treasurer and Chairman at West Lutheran High School. Jackie grew up in Saline, Michigan as one of eight children to farmers, Elmer and Virginia Tobias. Hard work, growing and nurturing were traits that rippled through her life beyond the farm.

A retired employee of the University of Michigan Hospital, she was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She loved spending time with her sisters, grandchildren, cooking, crafting, and going to up north Michigan. Most of all she loved her family. She valued family and never drew lines on where her family ended. Everyone was welcome in her home and you felt that warmth immediately because to her, love was something everyone should have in their life. She had a big heart and extended her home to many people because she wanted them to feel devoted love and give them a safe place they could call home. Jackie considered her family her greatest achievement and loved her children, grandchildren and husband without complexities and with a depth that can't be measured. They have a love that they will carry with them forever. She taught and ingrained in her children that the simplicities of life shouldn't be taken for granted. Being kind, honest, trustworthy, and genuine will ultimately form the kind of person you will become - and she led by example. She continually showed her loved ones a strength and perseverance that was limitless and amazing. Jackie's imprint on the many lives that she touched will never be forgotten.

Survivors in addition to her husband, children and grandchildren include her extended children Vanessa Kusak, and Heidi (Ronald) Hamill-Coakley. Other survivors include her siblings Thomas (Julia)

Tobias, Marilyn (Ernie) Weaver, Barbara Lopez, Linda Hopkins, Diane Banks and Timothy Tobias, twelve nieces and nephews, twenty-one great nieces and nephews, and six great-great nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents Elmer and Virginia, sister Janet Sue (Susie) Tobias, and niece Deborah Jean Kolander.

A Memorial Service will take place in the near future at the Milan Baptist Church in Milan, MI. Please check back for more information. Memorial contributions in her name may be made to The Myositis Organization for continued research and awareness Arrangements are entrusted to the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline.

Sept 28, 2020 - After 12 years with Royal Oak Schools as a teacher and instructional specialist, Alyssa Reimold is the high school's new assistant principal. More than 120 people applied for the job and Reimold was selected after three rounds of interviews with candidates. She stood out for two reasons, said Michael Giromini, high school principal.

"First, she has an incredible ability to develop meaningful, supportive relationships with everyone she encounters, including students, staff and families," he said in a statement. "Second, her appreciation for diversity and her commitment to equity and inclusion have already had a profound impact on Royal Oak High School ... I only see that influence growing." Reimold was the design and technology teacher at the high school last year and was named High School Teacher of the Year for the district. School officials said Reimold is known for recognizing her students as individuals and they in turn respond to her calm demeanor. Pat Wolynski, executive director of staff and student services, said in a statement that Reimold has taught at the elementary, middle school and high school levels. "She has ... consistently demonstrated leadership qualities with a commitment to equity and inclusion for all students," Wolynski said. "For the past six years she has led the Student Diversity Council at Royal Oak High School."

Reimold has a bachelor's degree in visual arts education from Eastern Michigan University, where she also earned a master's degree in educational media and technology. In her profile on the school district's website before she was named assistant principal, Reimold described herself as a specialist at the high school who supports teachers with instruction and technology integration. "My passions are teaching, learning, traveling, digital design, the arts, technology, design thinking and project based learning," she said. "I wear many hats in the building and I love it all!"

Fall 2020 - I'm Alyssa Reimold, one of the Assistant Principals at ROHS. I received my bachelor's degree in K12 Visual Arts Education and my master's degree in Educational Media and Technology, both from Eastern Michigan University. My passions are instruction, curriculum, equity, service, learning, traveling, design and the arts.

In my time working in Royal Oak I have taught elementary Visual Arts (Oak Ridge, Oakland & Keller), Visual Arts and Design Technology (Royal Oak Middle School), Graphic Communications, Visual Imaging Technology, Web Design and Interactive Media, Digital Photography and the Raven iLab (Royal Oak High School). I have held a number of professional support roles such as Response to Intervention Data Coach, Teaching and Learning Specialist and IB Diploma Programme Creativity, Activity and Service Coordinator.

I lead Equity and co-lead School Improvement and am a representative for technology on our district's Learning Council. I also sit on the Oakland County Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Social Justice Council and am a member of the Cultural Competence Engagement Committee (CCEC), CCEC planning team and DK-12 Diversity, Equity and Inclusion team.

Notes for Leonard M. (Len) Lahman:

Former San Jose Mercury News photographer Len Vaughn-Lahman lost his battle with cancer on Friday, July 10 after fighting for more than a year. Vaughn-Lahman, 55, died at his home in Aptos. He joined the Mercury News in 1981, after stints at the Arizona Daily Star, where he was the chief photographer preceded by staff photography positions with the Los Angeles Times, Columbia (Missouri) Daily Star, the St. Petersburg Times (as an intern) and National Geographic Magazine (also as an intern).

He was honored with the Robert F. Kennedy Award in 1981 for a freelance piece published by the Escondido (California) Times-Advocate, on the plight of immigrants making the dangerous trek across the desert from Mexico to cross the border into the United States, seeking a better life. Mercury News Director of Photography Michael Malone said, "During his time at the Mercury News, Len excelled in a great variety of assignments, including coverage of the Rodney King trial riots in Los Angeles, the U.S. invasions of Afghanistan after the Sept. 11 terror attacks as well as the invasion of Iraq. He is also known for a project in which he and writer Pete Carey exposed what have become known as the 'golfing judges' superior court judges who took Fridays off from their court dockets to play golf instead. He was well known for his never-say-die, there's-always-a-solution attitude. He was gregarious, fearless, larger-than-life and relentless, yet he was gentle, funny and always made everyone feel valued and important."

"His favorite motto," said Sharon, his wife of 12 years, "was 'Drive it like you stole it.' And he ran his life that way. He lived life fully. His favorite thing was being a foreign correspondent, traveling to Iraq, to Afghanistan, any place there was a war. He was an adrenaline junkie. He liked being put into different situations and then figuring out how to dig out." His wife and friends said Vaughn-Lahman brought the same intensity to his battle with cancer as he did to the photojournalism that won him numerous awards and took him on often hair-raising assignments around the globe. "We tried very hard to heal his body," his wife said. "We tried conventional medicine and that wasn't working, so we went the alternative route and he gave it our best shot."

Born in North Carolina in 1953, and raised in Fostoria, Ohio, he gravitated at an early age to the black-and-white world unfolding in the pages of the local newspaper. After first photographing weddings at 13, he took a job at 16 at the hometown Review Times Fostoria. He was a graduate of the photojournalism program at Ohio University Athens and the post-graduate program at the University of Missouri.

Mercury News photographer Maria J. Avila-Lopez called him “the patriarch of the photo department.” Mercury News photographer and longtime friend Karen Borchers took a lot of wild journalistic rides with the good-natured storyteller who often looked as if he had just blown in from some exotic locale. “While we were covering the Rodney King riots,” she said, “Len got his rental car windows smashed by an angry mob. But I always knew we were in good hands and I always felt protected when Len was running the show.”

Mercury News writer Paul Rogers recalls driving through a remote stretch of Brazil’s rain forest with Vaughn-Lahman when “We came across 10 or 15 men with machetes, illegally clearing out the land. It was the perfect picture, but it was very dangerous. Len jumped out of the car with his cameras blazing and ran right toward them. He didn’t speak Portuguese but he got the shot and somehow ended up talking to them. I stayed in the car, but they seemed to be smiling. He was the most fearless newspaper photographer I’ve ever worked with,” said Rogers. “He was Indiana Jones with a camera.”

But it was in Iraq and Afghanistan after the Sept. 11 attacks that the Vaughn-Lahman legend really took off. There were his incredible photos of fierce gun battles with the Taliban. He was carjacked and robbed in Iraq. Rogers recalls Vaughn-Lahman telling him how he once used a small mirror on a stick to take pictures from around a wall during a shootout. Upon his return, Vaughn-Lahman wrote: “We feel as if we’re trapped in an elaborate video game as we rattle down the rutted ditch that serves as the road to Taloqan. It’s the 14th century, but with rocket launchers.”

He is survived by his wife, Sharon, of Aptos; his daughter Lisa; his brother Bruce Lahman of Boulder, Colorado; and his mother and father, Mary and Lyle Lahman of Fostoria, Ohio.

- 5048 i. Grace Jeannette¹⁴ Harris, born 01 Jul 1993 in Ohio; died 18 Oct 2021 in Columbus, Franklin Co, Ohio. She married Jeremy Nichols.

Notes for Grace Jeannette Harris:

Grace Jeannette Harris Nichols, 28, of Bucyrus, died, Monday, October 8, 2021. Her family will receive friends from 1-3 and 5-7 pm Thursday, October 21 at Bucyrus Nazarene Church, where her celebration of life service will be held at 12:00 noon Friday. The staff at Wise Funeral Service will publish her complete obituary in the Thursday edition of the newspaper.

Grace Jeanette Harris-Nichols, 28, was called to Heaven Monday evening, Oct. 18, 2021, at The Ohio State University's Wexner Medical Center. Grace was born July 1, 1993, to Scott and Jennifer (Schiefer) Harris. Jennifer was called to heaven Oct. 27, 1996. A short time later, Grace was blessed with a new mother, Anita (Smith) Harris, who has loved and claimed her as her own for the past 25 years. Grace grew up on the outskirts of Bucyrus, with her three sisters and brother. She was a member of Wynford Color Guard, Royal Singers, Senior Choir, and 4-H. Upon her graduation from Wynford High School in 2012, Grace put her love of music and children to use by becoming a member of the musical ministry team, Encounter Revival Ministries. Through that ministry, God used her musical gifts to bless people throughout the states, even reaching as far as Africa. Through those two years traveling, she touched the lives of so many people, making friendships that last even to this day.

Upon ending her time with ERM, Grace attended State Beauty Academy. It was here that Grace found her passion for cosmetology. Grace loved helping people feel beautiful. It gave her the opportunity to show people what she saw in them. Grace always saw the best in people. She found great joy working in retail for Amish Vault and Graceful Gifts. Going to work, helping the patrons there was another way she touched the lives of so many. She was a hairstylist, makeup artist, and nail technician at Angles Salon. Anyone who sat in her chair knew that Grace not only cared but loved them. She loved her Salon Girls! Grace was a faithful attendee and worship team member at Bucyrus First Church of the Nazarene. Grace was so talented, and she used those talents for the Lord. She loved music; singing was how she praised God. She lived out Matthew 5:16. Grace's greatest joy in life was falling in love with Jeremy Nichols, her fiancé. The love that she had for him was all consuming; she took great pleasure in broadcasting her love for him. Grace and Jeremy were to be married Oct. 23, 2021. After Jeremy, Grace loved her niece, Maura, above anyone else. She loved being "Auntie Gacie" and spent many a day showering Maura with gifts, love, and attention. Grace was a shining light. To know her was to love her, and to love her was a gift. Grace boldly took on the challenge of leaving this world better than she found it. Every person that met her left her in better spirits. She loved with her whole heart, evidenced by the mark she's left on the hearts of all who knew her.

Grace is survived by her loving fiancé, Jeremy Nichols; parents, Scott and Anita Harris; four siblings, Bethany Harris, Marianne Harris, Gretchen Keller (husband, Seth and daughter, Maura), and Nathanael Harris; grandparents, Allan Schiefer, Earl and Joan (Stuckman) Smith, and Martha (Kocher) Smith; and a host of loving aunts, uncles, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Jennifer Harris; grandparents, Sandra (Linn) Schiefer and Boyden and Judy (Burleson) Harris; great-grandparents, Ernest Maynard and Frankie Burleson, Dorsey J. and Edith Linn, Mary Harris, Nathan Woodrow, and Warren Smith amongst other loving aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Grace's celebration of life will be 12 p.m. Friday, Oct. 22, 2021, at Bucyrus Nazarene Church, with Pastor Ray LaSalle officiating. Burial will follow at Brokensword Cemetery, Bucyrus.

Visitation will be 1-3 p.m. and 5-7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 21, 2021, at the church. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made payable to Bucyrus Nazarene Church. A foundation will be made with the funds in Grace's honor to further the Light of Christ through her testimony. Donations will be accepted at the church or Wise Funeral Service.

Notes for Dr. Kaitlyn Elizabeth Hefferan:

Kaitlyn Hefferan, Orthopaedic Surgery Lead, Physician Assistant and Fellowship Director, The Detroit Medical Center

Most recent education: Master of Science, King's College

Certifications: Certified Physician Assistant, PA in Orthopaedics

Kaitlyn Hefferan is the rock star of physician assistants.

Leading a staff of 20, Hefferan not only makes house calls but she also was lead in educating Sports Medicine staff and streamlining the process when the DMC implemented electronic medical records. She even developed custom templates for physicians in Orthopaedics, saving each surgeon an estimated 16 hours a week. Moreover, one of her initiatives is saving DMC $230,000 a year per PA. Hefferan developed and implemented a 12-month post-graduate physician assistant fellowship program at the DMC. It's one of only four such programs in the nation. Within two months, the program was nationally accredited, and she recruited her first trainees two months after that. A member of several industry and community organizations, Hefferan often lets aspiring medical professionals shadow her in the office or operating room and has encouraged high school and college students in the process.

"Whether supporting our physicians or leading the charge to enhance the physician assistant experience, Kate is a force to be reckoned with. She seems to have no 'off' button. And though she repeatedly achieves success, she is never satisfied nor complacent. Instinctively, Kate is an optimal leader and an achiever, by choice," said Chris Cowan, physician assistant in the department of Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine, DMC.

- 5165 i. Jill Renee¹⁴ LaRocque, born 13 Feb 1983 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 26 Jun 2005 in Montana.

Notes for Jill Renee LaRocque:

Airman First Class Jill Renee LaRocque, 22, of Manchester and Tecumseh, died suddenly on June 27, 2005 in Great Falls, Montana. She was born on February 13, 1983 in Ann Arbor, the daughter of Jacques LaRocque and Debra Klumpp LaRock. Jill graduated from Manchester High School, Class of 2001 and joined the U.S. Air Force in November of 2004. She was trained by the Air Force in Security Forces and was looking forward to a future in law enforcement and serving her country. Jill attended Tecumseh Church of the Nazarene.

Jill is survived by her father, Jacques (Sue) LaRocque of Manchester; mother, Debra LaRock of Tecumseh; brother, Seth LaRocque of Manchester; sister, Emily LaRocque of Tecumseh; step-brothers, Justin Tinkle, Joshua and Jordan Guest all of Manchester; paternal grandmother, Marilyn La Rock of Manchester; maternal grandparents, John and Shirley Klumpp of Saline; grandparents, Loren and Carole Hansen of Saline; and very special friends, Sid and Debbie Barrow.

Visitation will be on Friday, July 1, 2005 from 2-4 and 6-8:00 p.m. at the Tecumseh Chapel of Couture-Handler Funeral Homes. The Funeral Service will be on Saturday, July 2 at 11:00 a.m. at the Tecumseh Church of the Nazarene with Pastor Rob Lewis officiating. Interment will follow at Oak Grove Cemetery in Manchester. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Lenawee County Humane Society, Oak Grove Cemetery of Manchester, or Tecumseh Church of the Nazarene.

Feb 2, 2014 - For the past seven years, Jill LaRocque's family has commemorated her life by sponsoring a blood drive for the American Red Cross close to the date of LaRocque's death, June 26. Those drives collected a total of 1,016 units of blood, enough to potentially save 3,048 lives. LaRocque, who was an airman first class in the Air Force, was murdered by her ex-fiancé in 2005 when she was 22 years old. This year, instead of a blood drive, LaRocque's family decided to honor her love of animals by organizing a drive for money or in-kind donations to the Lenawee Humane Society.

"The girl loved animals," said LaRocque's mother, Deb Werner, who is advertising manager at The Daily Telegram. Her daughter especially loved cats, Werner said. The family decided to seek the donations leading up to what would have been LaRocque's 31st birthday Feb. 13, and they have named the effort "31 for Jill." They are asking for donations in quantities of 31 — $31, 31 cans of pet food, 31 volunteer hours — Werner said. The donations should be sent or taken directly to the Humane Society, she said.

Her daughter had just finished basic training and technical school and was assigned to Malmstrom Air Force Base, Great Falls, Montana, Werner said. LaRocque planned to make a career in the Air Force as a military police officer, she said. LaRocque's former fiancé, who also was assigned to Malmstrom, killed LaRocque after she broke off their engagement, Werner said. He was sentenced to 90 years in prison for the crime, Werner said.

Along with their fundraiser for the Humane Society, LaRocque's family is collecting money for the Catherine Cobb Domestic Violence Shelter in Adrian and the Safehouse Center in Ann Arbor. LaRocque's family include her stepfather, Will Werner, brother Seth LaRocque and his wife, Elise LaRocque, of Saline, sister Emily LaRocque of Livonia, and Emily LaRocque's fiancé, Chris Oz.

On June 26 this year, LaRocque's family, along with any friends who care to join them, plans to donate blood at the Washtenaw-Lenawee Chapter of the American Red Cross in Ann Arbor and then use the money they have collected to buy items needed by the domestic violence shelters. Because her daughter's murder was "something so horrible," she wants to do something good, Werner said. "I think people just need to look past their own hurts and do something for somebody else," she said.

Tim was a graduate of Campbell University, where he attended on a baseball scholarship.

Tim was a wonderful and caring father, which could be seen in the quality time he spent following his children in sports. Tim enjoyed God's beauty outdoors, as was reflected in the appearance of his yard, and even though he loved playing golf, it was the comradeship of being with his family and friends on the golf course that he enjoyed most. Tim served his country in the United States Army Airborne Division, a veteran of the Vietnam War. Tim will be remembered by his many friends for his quick wit and dry humor.

In addition to his mother, Tim is survived by a very loving and caring wife of 38 years, Mary Ann Simpson Howell; his children, Lauren Moity and husband, Sebastien, of Raleigh and Jarman Howell and wife, Jill, of Goldsboro; his brother, Christopher R. Howell and wife, Paula, of Greensboro; his grandson, who he loved and adored and nicknamed "Highway," Christian Howell; and many nieces and nephews.

The Howell family would like to thank its family and many friends for the love and care shown to them during Tim's illness. May God bless each of you. A service to celebrate the life of Tim was held at 11 a.m. today in the chapel of Seymour Funeral Home, with the Rev. Neal Wingfield officiating. Burial with military honors will be held at Wayne Memorial Park. Pallbearers will be Marshall Smith, Griff Howell, Fred West, Steve Herring, Eddie Stewart and George Codgell.
