Acts 1913, No. 109, & 14, providing that no director of a corporation shall pay money there of to any political committee for any election expenses. (See note at end of this case)

Exceptions from Circuit Court Ingham County COLLINGWOOD Judge Criminal action Jacob Gansley convicted of violation of corrupt practices act and alleges exceptions. The facts are stated in the opinion.

AFFIRMED

Grant Fellow, L.W. Carr and William C. Brown for People.

Warner, Raudabaugh & Person and Fred A. Baker for respondent

(358) STONE, C.J. This case is brought here upon exceptions by the respondent after conviction, and before sentence, for an alleged violation of section 14 of Act No. 109 Pub. Acts 1913 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3841), entitled:

(359) "An act to regulate and limit nomination and election, expenses to define and prevent corrupt and illegal practices in nominations and elections to secure and protect the purity of the ballot, and to require accounts of nomination and election, expenses to be filed and providing penalties for the violation of this act".

The accusation set forth in the information reads as follows:

That heretofore, to wit, on the 1st day of April, AD 1914 at the city of Lansing, and in the county aforesaid, one Jacob Gansley, being then and there an official, director, and manager of the Lansing Brewing Company, a Michigan corporation and acting for said Lansing Brewing Company, a Michigan Corporation, did pay, give and lend to a certain political committee, to wit, the Personal Liberty League of Lansing, Michigan, the sum of five hundred ($500.00) dollars, in money belonging to the said Lansing Brewing Company, for the payment of election expenses incurred in opposing local option at an election to be held and which was held on the 6th day of April, A.D. 1914, in the said County of Ingham, to ascertain the will of the electors of said county whether or not the manufacture of liquors and the liquor traffic should be prohibited within the limits of said county the said Lansing

Brewing Company being then and there a corporation incorporated and existing under the laws of the State of Michigan and doing business at the city of Lansing in said State, and not being a corporation formed for political purposes; the said Personal Liberty League then and there being a committee opposing local option at the election to be held and which was held in said county of Ingham on the 6th day of April, A.D. 1914 to ascertain the will of the electors of said county, whether or not the manufacture of liquors and the liquor traffic should be prohibited within the limits of said county - contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the people of the State of Michigan."

Upon arraignment the respondent stood mute, but moved the court to dismiss the information for the (360) reason: That it set forth no offense known to the law That said section 14 is unconstitutional and void because:

- 1) Said section is not within the title to the act .and is in conflict with the provision of the Constitution of this State requiring the object of an act of the legislature to be set forth in its title.
- 2) That said section 14 is in conflict with the provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States that no State shall deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws. That corporations are persons within the meaning of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and said section 14 denies to all corporations domestic or foreign other than corporations organized for political purposes the right secured to natural persons by section 3 of said act to make expenditures of money for nomination or election expenses.
- 3) That the title of said act confines it to the nomination and election of candidates for office and it can have no application to local option elections in the several counties of the State under the local option prohibitory liquor laws of this State.
- 4) That said section 14 is in conflict with section 4 of article 2 of the Constitution of this State.
- 5) That the act is indefinite, uncertain, and vague and the intent and meaning of the same cannot be interpreted.
- 6) That it is class legislation especially section 14 of the act.

The trial court overruled the motion to which ruling respondent duly excepted and thereupon a plea of not guilty was entered by order of the court. The assignments of error are to the effect that the court erred in overruling respondent's motion to dismiss the information which motion was made at the time said respondent was arraigned and renewed after the evidence had been submitted also in adjudging the respondent (361) guilty contrary to the objections to said information. In this court counsel for respondent argued the question presented under the following heads:

- 1) Whether the act has any application to elections under the local option prohibitory liquor law.
- 2) That section 14 of the act is unconstitutional and void, first, because it denies to corporations, as artificial persons the right granted to natural persons to make the legitimate expenditures authorized by section 3 of the act; and second it denies to corporations the right to make such lawful expenditures as may be necessary to protect their interests in contest to be determined by the people at the polls.
- 3) That section 14 is also in conflict with the provision of the Constitution of this State which (section 4, art. 2) reads:

"Every person may freely speak write and publish his sentiments on all subjects being responsible for the abuse of such right and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press."

- 4) That the whole act should be declared unconstitutional and void.

It may be said at the threshold of this opinion that the construction and validity of the act in question in so far as it affects the conduct of the respondent are here involved.

1. As we understand the first position of counsel for the respondent it is that this act which is generally spoken of as the Corrupt Practices Act has no application to what may be termed local option elections "that looking at the title and body of the act together neither should be construed as applying to local option elections." We have with some care made an analysis of this act copying such sections as are particularly relevant and as this is the first time we have been called upon to examine the act, we include such analysis here.

(362) Section 1 of the act (1 Comp. Laws 1915, & 3828) limits the sum of money to be paid or expenses authorized or incurred by or on behalf of any candidate, to be paid by him, in order to secure or aid in securing his nomination to any public office or position in this State. It also provides that no sums of money shall be paid and no expenses authorized or incurred, by or on behalf of any candidate who has received i nomination to any such office or position, in excess of a stated amount further that no sum of money shall be paid and no expense authorized or incurred by or on behalf of any candidate contrary to the provisions of the act.

Section 2 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3829) provides that every political committee shall appoint a treasurer who shall receive keep and disburse all sums of money which may be collected or received by such committee or by any of its members, for election expenses; and unless such treasurer is first appointed, it shall be unlawful for a political committee or any of its members to collect receive or disburse money for any such purpose.

Section 3 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3830) provides that no candidate and no treasurer of any political committee shall pay give or lend or agree to pay give or lend either directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing for any nomination or election expenses, whatever except for the 11 purposes therein specified. It also provides that none of the provisions of the act shall be construed as relating to the rendering of services by speakers writers publishers or others for which no compensation is asked or given.

Section 4 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3831) provides that every candidate and every treasurer of a political committee shall file within the time specified a full true and detailed account and statement of all money (363) received or disbursed by him for nomination or election expenses and specifies what such statement shall contain.

Section 5 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3832) makes it unlawful to administer the oath of office or to issue a commission or certificate of nomination or election to any person nominated or elected to any public office until he has filed an account as required by the act, and provides that no such person shall enter upon the duties of his office until he has filed such account nor shall he received any salary or fees for any period prior to the filing of the same.

Section 6 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3833) provides that such accounts shall be open to public inspection. Sections 7, 8, 9, and 10 (1 Comp Laws 1915, 3834 & 3837) relate to the statement and what may be done in case it is not filed or is not conformable to the statute.
 Section 11 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3838) is as follows: "No person who is not a candidate or the treasurer of a political committee shall pay give or lend or agree to pay give or lend any money whether contributed by himself or by any other person for any election expenses whatever except to a candidate or to a political committee."
 Section 12 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3839) provides that no money paid shall be credited to any person other than the one furnishing it.
 Sections 13 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3840) makes it unlawful for any candidate or treasurer of a political committee or person acting as such treasurer to disburse money received from any anonymous source.
 Section 14 (1 Comp Laws 1915 & 3841) is the section which respondent is charged with having violated. It reads as follows:

There must be some basis for its action. There must be a petition setting forth the facts said to be wrongful either directly or upon information and belief or in some way facts and circumstances must come to its attention which seem to show a violation of the statute. It is not enough for a party to say: "There may have been a violation of the statute. We don't know. We would like to have the court investigate and lay the facts before us. As will be seen the statute gives to everyone the power to examine minutely every expenditure made If any one of them is illegal the attention of the court should be called to it."

Notes for Jacob Friedrich Schaible:

Howell - In his opening statement to the jury Tuesday afternoon July 26, 1921. Prosecuting Attorney Glenn C. Telland outlined in detail the events leading up to the alleged robbery at the home of Fred and Christiana Schaible near here on May 26, 1921 last for which the two Italian bandits, Anthony Valenti and Sinegrande Fingo, are on trial at a special term of the Livingston County circuit court in session here as being accomplices in the robbery. How their operations had been traced by the officers from the time they first entered this county until they were arrested in the county of Oakland, that they made three trips here from Detroit, each time going over the same route, up Grand River Road to what is known as the Hubbard hill and from there taking the town line road around the lake and thence through a cross road by the Devereaux farm and on through to the Hartland Road via the F. E. Eager place, and leaving the Hartland Road passing on down past the Schaible farm which is about a mile north of the so-called Hartland Road. The first trip they stopped at the Schaible home on Sunday, May 22, and asked Ml. Schaible what he raised there and requested the purchase of a dozen eggs, tendering; a $1 bill in payment at this time. On the Wednesday following that Anthony Valenti and John Conti, Jr., had come out with a motorcycle with side car and this time had passed the Schaible home and stopped at the Durfee place which is about a mile farther north and purchased a dozen eggs and inquired the way to Detroit, that this trip was made wholly for the purpose of getting the lay of the land and that some eight or ten different persons had noticed the men on the first trip especially on account of their driving a Stutz car which has a righthand drive and wire wheels, this style of car not being numerous in that locality. The men in the motorcycle and side car had been identified by these same men who were employed on construction of a new state road and others as two of the occupants of the Stutz car which had made a trip over the same road a few days previous, and who were also seen on the day the robbery was committed.

Immediately following the opening statement, Attorney F. J. Shields, special prosecutor, called Thomas Eager as the first witness for the prosecution. After a few questions had been asked Eager as to his age, occupation and place of residence, Attorney Mathews, of Pontiac, who is assisting Attorney Webster, of the same city, in the defense, objected to the trial continuing further until Miss Schaible had given her testimony, and Judge Collins excused the jury and took a recess until Miss Schaible, who is 76 years of age and very feeble, could be brought from her home about three and one-half miles in the country.

Miss Schaible stated that on the Sunday previous to the day the robbery was committed, which was on Thursday, May 26, two men had come to her home and requested the purchase of a dozen eggs which she produced for them, one of them tendered a one dollar bill in payment and that she stepped into the pantry where she kept her pocketbook to get the change. The men asked her if she had ever seen them before and she at first said that she didn't remember but later recognized them as the two that had stopped at her place two years before and asked her to care for one of them, who was sick. After conversing with her a few moments the men left.

On the morning the robbery was made Miss Schaible testified that these same two men came to her home and asked for a pail in which to carry water for the radiator of their car and in returning the pail asked for three dozen eggs, which she got for them, this time tendering a $10 bill in payment and that after she stepped into the pantry to get her money from the tin coffee can, to make change, one of the men, who she identified as Fornelli followed her in and held a handkerchief saturated with chloroform to her nostrils and when asked if she struggled with him. Miss Schaible replied "You better believe I did."

She said he put the handkerchief to her face several times, each time struggling with him until she was overcome with the drug. She said she saw the man identified aa Peter Brusso, who was killed in the gun battle later in the day, pick up the $10 bill and also take the contents of her two pocket-books, one in which she kept small change and a larger one which contained about $40 in bills. That when partly conscious she heard them whispering and later heard them walking around upstairs. That she was unconscious for about one-half hour and finally when she came to, found herself on the floor and by making a great effort got up by hanging onto the stove and pantry door. John Conti, Jr., and Anthony Valenti were positively identified by Oral Durfee as the two men who came to his home the Wednesday before the robbery at the Schaible home and asked for drink of water. H. Durfee, Oral's father also identified the men. Both men said that they came to the house in a motorcycle. Oral Durfee stated that he talked with the men for half an hour.

This was the most important evidence introduced during the course of the trial of Fornelli. Valenti and Fingo for the robbery of Miss Christine Schaible on May 26, Wednesday forenoon.

Thomas Eager was the first witness called. He lives about two miles from the Schaible home. He stated that he saw the Stutz car occupied by five men go by his farmhouse on Sunday previous to the robbery at 8:30 in the morning. He said that he could not identify the men but did identify the car as the same one as is now in Hoff Brothers garage in Howell, which his said to be the one used by the alleged bandits. He stated that he knew them to be foreigners because he heard them conversing in some strange language. Mr. Eager also said that he saw the same car on the day of the robbery.

Notes for Rolland John (Barney/Rowland) Gainsley:

Rolland J. "Barney" Gainsley, former Ann Arbor police chief and retired University security officer, died unexpectedly Tuesday night April 21, 1981 of a heart attack. He was 71. Gainsley had lived with his family at 1400 Iroquois Avenue for the past 40 years. He suffered the fatal seizure while seated on a rear porch of his home. A popular command officer with a ready smile, Gainsley never let the sometimes-grim business he was in get him down.

The policeman who probably knew Gainsley as well as anyone, Walter E. Krasny, recalls the former chief as "an up-beat guy, someone who always had a good word, always could see the bright side..." Krasny, who succeeded Gainsley as city police chief in 1966, says Gainsley was a "great individual... a dedicated policeman." "I suppose 'dedicated' is used too much these days, but certainly you have to use that word in speaking of Barney Gainsley. He liked people, and he felt he had to help whenever he could. He never counted the hours, never watched.

Rolland John (Barney) Gainsley, 1400 Iroquois, Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 71, died suddenly Tuesday evening, April 21, 1981, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. He was born May 28, 1909 in Deerfield, Michigan, the son of Edwin and Catherine Lewis Gainsley. He had been a resident of Ann Arbor over 50 years. He was married to Marcella C. Tentinger in Deerfield, October 4, 1937. Mr. Gainsley was a member of St. Francis of Assisi Church, where he served as an usher. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus Council No. 587; the Rotary Club (Union); and had been active in many other civic organizations. Mr. Gainsley joined the Police Department in April of 1935 and rose through the ranks to become Chief, retiring in 1966. After his retirement he became chief of security at the University of Michigan retiring from there in 1976 and since that time he has maintained his affiliation with the University.

Survivors include: his wife, Marcella; two daughters, Mrs. Marty (Judith) Zimmerman of Los Angeles and Mrs. Charles (Jane) Mueller of Saginaw; three sons, Patrick of Ann Arbor, Stephen E. of Livonia and David R. of Ypsilanti; six grandchildren; and a brother, Hobart of Cavanaugh Lake. He was preceded in death by four brothers.

The Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 11a.m. Friday at St. Francis of Assisi Church with the Rev. Father Phillip D. Sessions officiating. Burial will follow in St. Thomas Cemetery. Memorial Contributions may be made in Mr. Gainsley's name to the St. Francis of Assisi Building Fund. The family will receive friends on Wednesday evening from 7 to 9p.m. and on Thursday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. A Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Notes for Stanley Clarence (John S.) Ganssle:

St. Thomas, North Dakota, Nov. 29, 1919 The Stanley Ganssle farm lying about three miles north of this city has been sold during the past week for a good figure. The farm has quite a remarkable history, as a few years ago it was considered one of the most run down pieces of property in the county, but since Mr. Ganssle took charge of it in person, he has by careful and systematic farming, built it up to where it is considered one of the most desirable properties in the county. Mr. Ganssle was employed in the Farmers' State bank here for a number of years, and his determination to go onto the farm created no little surprise at the time he resigned, but his subsequent success has convinced the most skeptical that his views on proper agricultural methods for the Red River Valley were sound in substance.

Notes for Eileen Martina Ganssley:

From the January 13, 1938 Flushing Observer.

Eileen Martina Ganssley was born on the Seymore Road about four miles south of Flushing. She attended the Flushing high school as a freshman last year. She enjoyed our glee club that year but was unable to take it this year. She has been, however, in orchestra both years. Last year in the carnival, Martina took part in two of the short skits that were given. As a hobby she keeps scrapbooks. She has one on the Detroit Tigers, one on the Dionne Quints, another filled with favorite short stories cut from magazines or papers, and last but not least, one on a trip she took last year. This sophomore has a camera and likes to take pictures, especially when you don't know about it. Another scrapbook or album holds these pictures. Martina plays the piano too. Her favorite songs are "Rosalie" and "There's a Gold Mine in the Sky." She likes to read and does a lot of it. She has a small library of her own and wants to train at the University of Michigan to become a librarian. She likes to travel and has crossed the straits of Mackinac and saw Sault Ste. Marie and the Locks that link Lake Superior with St. Mary's River. She would like to see Yellowstone National Park. Martina said she thought her biggest thrill happened when she saw the Tigers win over the Yankees. It was the Tigers third game and they had lost the other two. -- Verna May Demeritt
