Notes for Johannes Gross:
Starting of the Nebraska Colony - (Written by Sophia Heim Ulmer)

In the year of 1870, David Vetter of Rulo, Nebraska, went to Pennsylvania to visit his relatives, one of who was his cousin, Margaret Staiger Heim, wife of Gottlieb Heim, on the Loyalsock. He told his story so well that Jacob G. Heim, son of Gottlieb and Margaret Heim, and my father, returned to Nebraska with him to see for himself what the country was like. At that time the railroad stopped at the Missouri River.

Father fell in love with the country and wanted to sellout right away, but Mother would not consent. She could not leave her people and take a large family so far. But Father kept talking about it and finally she consented when she realized that in a few years her children would begin to scatter as in Pennsylvania. They could not get land for them in the old settlement. Then it took some time to find a buyer for their rocky, hill farm, so that in all, it took four years.

In the spring of 1873 a group of Blooming Grove men decided to go west and buy land. Just what part they were headed for we don't know, but they had been reading or hearing about the wonderful land in the Republican River valley, in the southern part of Nebraska, so it is likely that was their goal. In the group were Frederick Schaefer, John (Johnnie) Heim and John J. Heim. Several other men sent money with these to be invested in land for them also. One of these was Christian D. Heim. They intended to stop in Ohio and Rulo, Nebraska, on their way. It seems their intention was to start another closely-knit colony similar to Blooming Grove. But knowing now how plentiful the Indians were in that part of the State at that time, perhaps it is a good thing the plan was abandoned.

While this group was visiting in Ohio, "Johnnie" Heim received a telegram telling of the death of his little daughter Martha on May 19. He at once decided to turn back and the others gave up the plan also and returned to Pennsylvania with him. They took it as a "sign" that they were not to carry out this colonization plan. Some of these men later moved west and some never left Pennsylvania. . If they had continued on at that time the rest of this history would, no doubt, have been quite different.

So in the spring of 1874 father sold the farm and held a big sale of all his stock, farm implements and household goods. Everything was sold but bedding, clothes, books and a very few keepsakes that were packed in with the bedding. They were told they could buy everything again in Nebraska, but it was years before we got any but the most necessary things.

For seven weeks after that we visited in Blooming Grove, and at last about May 23 we bid all our friends and relatives goodbye and were taken to the train in Williamsport. Grandfather Heim (Gottlieb Heim) and Uncle Chris (Christian D. Heim) went with us to Nebraska. Our own family, besides Father and Mother were Joe, Sarah, Sam, Jonathan, Rebecca, Solomon, Sophia and Mary.

We were ferried across the Missouri River at Atchison, Kansas and got on another train to come on up to Rulo. Here Mr. Vetter helped the folks rent a small house and get the family moved into it. We spread bedding on the floor and used a big packing case for a table and the trunks around it to sit on. Here four of us proceeded to have measles. The other five had them after we got moved.

Father next bought a team and wagon at Falls City and he and Mr. Vetter went out looking for land to buy. Farms near Falls City were already too high for us, so they went on west to the Henry Allen's (where I. L. Heim now lives). Mrs. Lib Buser Allen was an old neighbor of father's. Just across the road from Allen's was an 80-acre farm he could buy from Tom Fenton. One of its best features was a fine, never failing spring. They went back to Rulo to get Mother to see it and she thought she'd like it there, too. So they bought it for $2,300. With it we got the crops growing on it, some corn in the crib, some hogs and a few hens. Dawson was then called Dawson's Mill because Joshua Dawson owned the grist mill and was postmaster. There were hardly a half dozen houses in the town, but the Atchison & Nebraska Railroad went through it by then, going as far as Lincoln. We moved to this farm July 3rd. The house was very poor, just two small rooms, not plastered or even boarded on the inside. Just the outside up and down boards with strips over the cracks.

This was a land of terribly cold winters and three-day blizzards, so we could not live in that house through the winter. So in August the folks started building a large basement house, using big blocks of limestone, dug out of the ground near the old house, for the walls of the basement. It was several years before the house was entirely finished upstairs, but we moved into the basement that fall and lived in two rooms of it that first winter.

The day father and the boys hauled the first loads of lumber for the new house, the grasshoppers arrived. They were a hungry horde and ate everything but the prairie grass. We had no screens on doors or windows, and if they got in the house they ate holes in our clothing. Wheat had been harvested, so we had that for our flour, and we butchered our own pork, but other foods were very scarce.

About September 1, Solomon got sick and on the 4th he died. The doctor from Salem said it was membranous croup, but doctors now say there is no such thing, so I don't know what it was, but he choked to death in Mother's arms. Have thought perhaps it was some after effect of the measles, which he had in Rulo. Then, about seven weeks later, little sister Mary got sick and in five days she died, on October 26. The doctor said it was membranous croup, too, but she did not die the same way at all; she just got weaker and weaker. The loss of these two children was such a shock to all of us and made us feel so alone in this wild prairie country. Father would have left and gone back to Pennsylvania, but Mother said, "We can't go back; our money is invested here. Back there, there is no place for us, and if we did go back, our children would not be there."

So they went on with building the house.

The next spring, 1875, about the time the crops were up nicely, the millions of grasshopper eggs that had been laid the fall before, began to hatch. Those hoppers again ate everything in sight. By the middle of June they had wings and all left at once with a rushing noise. We planted corn and got a fair crop. Late garden also did well.

The first years in Nebraska Sam and Jonathan herded cattle on the prairie, our own and sometimes neighbors' cattle with them. There were 200 in the herd sometimes. It was a lonesome business out there all day with just the cattle, the pony and the prairie. It was an occasion when some one else with his herd came along and visited while the cattle grazed. All was prairie from the railroad north to the old Hill place, and northwest to the Cornelius farm. A strip between went all the way to the Muddy Creek. To the northeast it went nearly to where the town of Stella now is. A few farms had been broken out in those stretches, but not many. Prairie fires were numerous but never harmed homes because of the watch each farmer kept. But they were a fearful sight to see sweeping so swiftly over the long prairie grass, flames and smoke leaping high in the air.

Father wrote back to relatives in Pennsylvania and Ohio, and told them if any wanted to come out to Nebraska, they should be sure to ship their household goods out and the people could stay at our house till they had a new home bought. He wanted others to profit by his experiences.

The first people to accept father's offer were Mr. and Mrs. John Sippley, their children, Henry, Mollie, Ella and Andrew, and her father, John Gross, all of Bucyrus, Ohio. They came in March 1879, and bought a farm about a mile east of us. John Gross was mother's uncle.

In the spring of 1880, came Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Marquardt and family, of Pennsylvania. She was a half cousin of mother's. Also in 1880 came Mr. and Mrs. Christian Wuster and family of Pennsylvania. She was a daughter of the Marquardts.

On May 31, 1880, our baby sister and the last member of our family, Maggie Emma, was born. In the winter of 1880 came Mr. and Mrs. David Wagner and sons, George, Sam and Reuben. Also their son, Will Wagner, and his wife. They came from Ohio and bought a farm southwest of Dawson. David Wagner was a brother-in-law of John Gross and a half-uncle to Mrs. John J. Heim, Johnnie Heim and Mrs. Jacob Ulmer.

On May 27, 1881, Johnnie Heim and wife Margaret, with their family of Rosa, Regina, Jonas, Chris, Linda and Alma came from Pennsylvania. They brought a car of household goods and stayed with us till they could pick out and buy a new home. They bought a 160-acre farm a half mile north of Dawson, where Paul Heim now lives. Later they bought the rest of the land from there on south to the Nemaha River, about 260 acres. It was on part of this that the Heim Cemetery was laid out. Linden E. Heim lives on 180 acres of this land and the remainder was sold. Emanuel Ulmer came with the Johnnie Heim's in 1881.

In February 1882, came John J. Heim and wife Rosina, with their family of Elizabeth, Jacob, Anna, Mary, Israel, William and Lucy. They had sold their 80-acre Pennsylvania farm for $5,500, and came to Nebraska with a carload of household goods and stayed with the Johnnie Heims till they bought the Henry Allen farm of 160 acres for $4,500. This was just across the road north of us. The buildings on this farm were fairly good, so no changes were made for several years.

In the spring of 1883, Henry W. Heim came from Pennsylvania. He was father's nephew, and our only first cousin in Nebraska. He worked for us for a year and then rented the O'Donnell place, later buying the farm now owned by All Ramsey and still later selling it and moving to the Johnnie Heim farm.

In the summer of 1883 we built a big bank barn. Had a regular old time "barn raising." Up to that time we had only straw sheds for the stock.

In October of 1883, John and Margaret Kerr and their four children, Minnie, Charles, Emma and Carrie, came from Bucyrus, Ohio. Mrs. Kerr's sister, Ella Eckard, also came with them. They bought a farm a half mile east of us. Later they sold this and bought another southwest of Dawson. Mrs. Kerr is a granddaughter of John Gross and a cousin to mother. Also, through her grandmother she is a cousin to Mrs. John J. Heim, Johnnie Heim and Mrs. Jacob Ulmer.

In January 1884, Jacob and Mary Ulmer and family of Rebecca, Sarah and Solomon, came from Pennsylvania. They bought the 80-acre farm adjoining Dawson on the northeast and were also next to us on the south.

In November 1884, Mrs. Catherine Ulmer (mother of Emanuel) came from Pennsylvania with her family of Israel, Sarah and Martin. They bought the farm where Berton W. Williamson now lives and in 1885 Israel and Martin bought the farm where Martin and I still live, paying $8,000 for it.

In February of 1885, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Eckard of Ohio, came. For a time they lived in a house on the John Sippley place, later buying a farm about 31/2 miles east of Dawson. Mr. Eckard was a brother to Mrs. John Kerr, a grandson of John Gross, and a cousin to mother. Also, through his grandmother, he was a cousin to Mrs. John -3. Heim, Johnnie Heim and Mrs. Jacob Ulmer.

In 1886, William and Mary Stoltz and family came from Pennsylvania. She was a niece of Mrs. Catherine Ulmer. They bought a farm several miles northeast of Dawson.

After this no more families came to Nebraska to live. It may be noted that after the country revived from the grasshopper years, there was about one new family a year came for a number of years. It may also be noticed that each year land was higher in price.

As this is strictly a Heim record, several of these families really have no part in it, but since they were all related to each other in some way, and because the folks were so glad for every one that came, I have included all. I have not gone into so much detail about the families who came after we did, as they did not have quite so many hardships.

The Migrating Families

Between 1874 and 1887, 13 families and three individuals of German (Pennsylvania Dutch) descent from the Williamsport, Pennsylvania vicinity, who were related to each other, migrated to the Dawson, Nebraska area where they formed what is called the "Pennsylvania Colony in Nebraska." Those families included the Jacob G. Heim family (1874), John Gross and the John Sippley family (1879), the Frederick Marquardt family (1879), the Christian Wuster and David Wagner families, (1880), the John "Johnnie" Heim family and Emanuel Ulmer (1881), the John J. Heim family (1882), Henry W. Heim (1883), the John Kerr and Catherine Ulmer (widow of Martin) families (1884), the John Eckard family (1885), the William Stoltz family (1886), and Ella, Emma, and George Eckard (1887).

The ancestors of these families came mostly from southwest Germany, province of Wuerttemberg, beginning in 1804 with the voyage of the "Margaret." The Heim family descends from brothers Christian and Jakob, who arrived in America in 1817 and settled at Blooming Grove north of Williamsport. The Blooming Grove Historical Society maintains a museum there and has extensive records on the families which settled and remained there. For information on the genealogy of the colony in Nebraska and their antecedents in Germany, contact Keith M. Heim, 1700 N. 62nd St., Lincoln, NE 68505 (e-mail rvnjake@navix.net).

A family picnic has been held annually in August at Dawson or Humboldt since 1922. This year's picnic is slated for Sunday, August 11 at Humboldt. The Pennsylvania Colony of Nebraska Historical Society was formed in 1996 and publishes a newsletter, "The Colony Penn," three times a year. The Society's address is RR 1, Box 127, Dawson, NE 68337 (e-mail bob@penncolonynebraska.org.)

67. Johann Friedrich[5] Wagner (Christina Barbara[4] Herthneck, Johann Michael[3], Caspar[2], Johannes[1]) was born 06 May 1813 in Moehringen, Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, and died 21 May 1873 in Crawford Co, Ohio. He married Anna Maria Neef 04 Apr 1837 in Blooming Grove, Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, daughter of Michael Neff and Eva Thaler. She was born 11 Sep 1815 in Moehringen, Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, and died 29 May 1886 in Crawford Co, Ohio.

Notes for Johann Friedrich Wagner:

Johann Friedrich Wagner secured a small farm on a hillside near Hepburnville, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania. Here all the children except Sam were born. Since there was not enough work for all at home, the older ones worked out. Gottlieb worked several years for Philip Lahman. Desiring to have a larger farm for the boys, the father sold the farm and made a trip to Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio were his brother Abraham and the Gross's, Auck's and Cook's had already settled.

He purchased Wagner's corner east of Bucyrus, from his brother, Abraham. The original purchase comprised only the southwest corner (80 acres). Later, on account of the inconvenience caused by the Pennsylvania Railroad running though his land, Jacob Cook sold him the portion of his farm lying south of the railroad. The land was immediately fenced and used as pasture for sheep and calves. Rose Cook relates that it was her job to carry milk and water to the calves out there.

The journey from Pennsylvania to Ohio occurred on the 8th of September 1856. The family came by train to Crestline arriving at 9 A.M. A covered wagon drawn by one horse was hired to take them the remaining distance. There were no cushions on the wagon. Mother Wagner sat with the driver and the girls huddled in the back of the wagon. The boys except Henty walked behind the wagon. They left Crestline at noon and arrived at Wagner's corner, just at supper time. Distance of 10 miles.

Family life at Wagner's corner was much the same as that in other German homes in that community. The house, which was large and roomy was the scene of many family and neighborhood gatherings. Visitors and guests were always welcome. Even tramps and wayfaring men were admitted. These visitors were usually given a horseblanket and sent to the barn for lodging. But sometimes were allowed to remain in the house.

On one occasion a suspicious looking old tramp had with him a large powder ball and percussion cap revolver. This Gottlieb Wagner purchased because he considered the tramp a dangerous man with such a weapon. At the age of 15 years Sam Wagner used this revolver to shoot a wild goose at a distance of 300 yards. The revolver is now in the possession of Glen Wagner.

Clothing for the family was nearly all homemade. The flax was grown on the farm during the summer and spun and woven into clothing during the winter. Each member of the family had a hand or several hands in the process. Remnants of the cloth are now in the possession of Rose Cook, grain bags were also made of home-spun sloth. Many of these were sold by father Wagner at $1.50 each. Glenn Wagner and Earl Cook each have one of these bags.

Tallow candles were used for light before kerosene or coal-oil came into use. The tallow was saved from cattle killed for beef. This was melted and poured into metal forms in which wicks were suspended.

Besides farming father Wagner followed the trade of stone mason and brick laying. His usual assistants were his sons Joseph B. and Jonathan T. One summer Samuel B. worked as an apprentice. The masonry of several of the large bridges spanning the Sandusky ....

Notes for David Edward Neff:
A CENTENNIAL BIOGRAPHICAL HISTORY OF CRAWFORD COUNTY, OHIO. CHICAGO - The Lewis Publishing Company 1902; page 89:

David E. Neff - As a thorough and successful farmer, an excellent neighbor and a highly respected citizen David E. Neff enjoys the esteem of the community in which he lives, and is regarded as a representative citizen of Liberty Township. His birth was in Hepburn Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, on September 17, 1825, a son of John Michael and Christina (Wagner) Neff, and he was one of a family of eight children, the three survivors being David E.; Christina, a maiden lady living with her brother Joseph; and Joseph, a farmer in Holmes Township.

John Michael Neff, the father of our subject, was born in the town of Moehringen, Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1783, a son of Michael and Catherine (Graff) Neff, both of whom died in Germany, after rearing a family of six sons and one daughter. These sons were all of fine physique, all of them except John Michael being over six feet in stature. Two of them, Lorentz and Frederick, during the German war with France were chosen, on account of their fine appearance, as members of the king's body guard at the battle of Leipsic. In 1818 our subject's father, with his own family and three brothers, Lorentz, Abraham and John, emigrated to America. At that time the trip was a long and wearisome one. They took a flatboat from their home and came down the river Rhine on it to Amsterdam, and there embarked on a sailing vessel, the Susan, and added their number to the three hundred passengers already on board. Before sailing two deaths occurred, but there were none later on the voyage: on the contrary there were two births, one of these being a son born to our subject's parents, when in sight of land, and he was previously named Gottlobe, the meaning of the name being Praise God. As the voyage had consumed eighty-six days, seventy-six of these being without sight of land, the joy and thankfulness over its ending was universal, and perhaps no one rejoiced more than did John, who had been hidden in a barrel of household effects.

The destination of the family was Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and there they settled. The father was thrice married, his first wife and her infant died together. It was the wife of the second marriage that made the voyage with him, and she bore four children, all of whom are deceased. The mother of our subject, Christina Wagner, was the third wife. She was born in the same locality as the father, and was a daughter of John and Christina (Herdtneck) Wagner. The paternal grandparents of Mrs. Neff came to America on the same vessel with Mr. Neff, and were in very limited circumstances. Having a family of seven children, Christina and her sister Dorothy were bound out, after landing, to a family in Philadelphia, to work out their passage, and at the expiration of three years Christina was married to our subject's father and became the former's estimable mother. An uncle of Mrs. Neff occupied the position of veterinary surgeon to the king of Wurtemberg. In Germany the Wagner family at one time had been prosperous, but unfortunate limes came and they also came to America to repair their fortunes and settled in Lycoming County.

With his brother Abraham, John Michael Neff bought one hundred and twenty acres of land in Hepburn Township, each taking sixty acres, and both added to their estates in later years, the father owning at one time one hundred and twelve acres. After the death of his second wife he walked to Philadelphia to bring back with him the bright girl he remembered so well, and with her as his bride returned to the farm, through ten inches of snow. By trade he was a potter, and he established a pottery on his estate, but the country was too sparsely settled to make this pay. Here he lived, and died on April 21, 1841.

Our subject grew up on his father's farm in Pennsylvania and received his education in the common schools, in the German language, and for six weeks received instruction in English, after he was twenty-one years of age. At the age of eighteen he apprenticed himself to the cabinet-making trade, in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, and remained until he was a finished workman.

In April, 1848, he took passage on a canal boat to Philadelphia, being able to work for his passage, as the owner of the boat was a friend, and he soon found employment in Philadelphia, at his trade, following it there for fifteen months, at the expiration of which time he returned to Williamsport.

In 1851 Mr. Neff took a trip to Crawford county, Ohio, with his brother John, who was returning to Ohio with his bride, this being a pleasant excursion of sixteen days in an old prairie schooner. He spent the winter in Crawford county, returning to Williamsport in the following June, but in the spring of 1858, as his health seemed impaired, he removed with his wife and two children to Crawford County, in order to be again with other members of his family. His mother, with his brothers Jonathan and Joseph, with three sisters, had moved to this locality the previous year. Our subject lived with the family eight years. They had purchased two hundred acres of land and our subject worked with them in Holmes Township and assisted in paying for it. In the spring of 1866 he purchased his present farm of one hundred and sixty acres and removed to it, where he has ever since resided, engaged in developing and operating this fine property.

The marriage of Mr. Neff was on September 7, 1854, to Miss Mary Wise, a native of Lycoming County and the daughter of Jacob Wise, also a native of Pennsylvania, who with his wife, Mary Magdalene (Ott) Wise, were of German extraction. The children born to Mr. and Mrs. Neff numbered four, these being Henry E., living at Ada, Ohio; Ellen M., deceased; Charles J., the farmer on the home farm ; and Louisa, deceased.

In politics Mr. Neff has been for many years a staunch supporter of the Republican Party, although his first vote was cast for a Democratic candidate. His family belongs to the English Lutheran church, which he also attends and to which he gives liberal support. The social standing of the family in Liberty Township is high, and Mr. Neff is well known as a liberal-minded and most estimable citizen who enjoys the respect of all with whom he has either business or other relations.

She was born 31 Dec 1843 in Blooming Grove, Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 24 Dec 1935 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Johann (John or Johnnie) Heim:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1087:

The late John Heim, who for more than a generation was a well-known and well-to-do farmer of Dawson, Richardson county, was a native of the old Keystone state, which he left and came to Nebraska in 1881 and farmed in this county for the remainder of his life, or up to the time of his death in 1916. He was born on July 18, 1836, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the son of Christian and Rosina (Wagner) Heim, natives of Germany, who came to the United States in an early day.

John Heim left Pennsylvania in 1881 and on coming to Richardson County settled on a farm north of Dawson. His first investment in land was one hundred and sixty acres, on which he carried out many necessary improvements and planted to crops. Later, he added a further tract of one hundred and sixty acres and still later he bought eighty acres of prime land, all lying in Dawson. He met with considerable success on these different parcels of land and was regarded as an enterprising and modern farmer in his methods, and at the time of his death on April 14, 1916, his passing was a source of much sorrow to his many relatives and friends throughout this and neighboring counties. Mrs. Heim's son-in-law, Henry W. Heim, is now the owner of the old home place on which John Heim originally settled; the eldest son, Jonas A. Heim, owns the other one hundred and sixty acres and Mrs. Heim is in occupation of the eighty acres on the site of which the United Evangelical church and cemetery are located.

John Heim was united in marriage on April 27, 1861, to Margaret Heim, who was born on December 31, 1843, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a daughter of Jacob and Regina (Steiger) Heim, natives of German and Pennsylvania, respectively. To John and Margaret Heim, eight children were born as follow: Rosa, Regina, Jonas A., Christian F., Martha, who died in infancy; Malinda, Bertha, who died in infancy, and Alma. Of these children, Rosa became the wife of Joseph G. Heim, of Dawson; Regina married Henry W. Heim and has seven children, Lottie, Charles, Martha, Paul, Harlan, Jessie and John, and Lottie married Clyde Iliff and has two children, Harlan and Enid; Charles married Pearl Klima and has two children. Anna Martha and Genevieve; Martha is the wife of Arthur Klimar and has one child. Virginia, Jonas A., a farmer near Dawson, married Ida Emerson and has four children, Linden, Edna, Waldo and Marie, Christian F., of Eddyville, this state, married Ada Barlow and has two children, Margaret Ruth and Ellen; Malinda, who married Bert Judd, of Dawson, and has two sons, John H. and Delbert, and Alma, who was the wife of William James and was the mother of one child, Alma. Mrs. Heim has seventeen great grandchildren.

The late John Heim was a member of the Dunkard Church while living in Pennsylvania, and was a consistent supporter of that organization. In politics he was a Republican, but had never been a seeker after public office. His death was the occasion of general regret in this and neighboring counties, where he was well known and esteemed.

Notes for Johann J. Heim:

The John J. Heim family arrived in Dawson in the spring of 1882, coming from the same area of Pennsylvania as the other Heim families. When the Johnnie Heim family migrated to Nebraska in 1881, John J. came with them, the two men were brothers-in-laws as Johnnie's wife Margaret, was his sister. Probably one reason John J. came in 1881 was to see what this wonderful Nebraska looked like, as he might want to come sometime too. He liked what he saw, no stones in the fields, and the hills were not hills compared with those of Pennsylvania. He sold his 80 acre farm in Pa. for $5500 and had a public sale of property they could not use here or could not bring. They did ship a car of household goods and came by train themselves as everyone did by this time.

This family of father, mother, and seven children stayed a short time with the Johnnie Heim family until they bought the Henry Allen farm of 160 acres, paying $4500 for it. Henry Allen had passed away in 1877 at the age of 58, so this might have been at the settling of his estate or from the heirs. It was across the road from the Jacob G. Heim farm and is the present home of Violet Heim and the late Lowell Heim. He was a great grandson of John J. and Rosina Heim. All the buildings on this farm were fairly good and no changes were made until 1886 when they built a big basement barn. Since that time many changes have been made.

John J. was good at grafting fruit of all kinds and did quite a bit of it for him and for others. On his 80th birthday he set up several shocks of wheat just to prove to himself that he still could do it. Grandma Rosina loved flowers and brought with her from Pa. starts of some favorites. As the children married and had homes of their own, all received starts of them, for they loved them too. These were the very double yellow daffodils, the very fragrant Madonna lilies, the single Tiger lily and a thorn less, double white rose. She also always had a bed of Spice Pinks of various shades of pink and red.

Their family was, Elizabeth Heim, who married Samuel F. Heim. They had their own farm about 2 miles northwest of the home farm. In later years their large pear orchard should be remembered by many as it supplied many people in the area with fruit. They built all the buildings on this farm. It was raw prairie when Sam started farming it a few years before they married. A granddaughter, Janis and her late husband, Bill Martin now own the farm.

Jacob S. Heim married Rebecca Heim (the girl who lived across the road). Jake and Becky had their own farm, three and a half miles from Dawson, where Dennis Thacker now lives. Jake planted a large Cedar and White Pine Grove and parts of that grove is still standing. All buildings on this farm were built by them to relocate and renew those on the farm when they were married. Becky loved trees too and bought and planted the first Tulip tree (sometimes called Yellow Poplar) in this part of Nebraska. The last of May and first part of June it is covered with yellow tulip shaped blossoms. She had "the green thumb" if anyone did as she grew houseplants from seed. The tulip tree still stands near the drive into the Dennis Thacker home yard.

Anna Heim married Charles E. Stoltz. Anna and Charley farmed in the county and for several years owned and operated the Hardware store in Dawson. He was overseer of the Prison Farm at Lincoln for several years. After retirement they lived in San Antonio, Texas.

Mary Heim married Clarence W. Stratton. This couple worked in the area and their decedents are still living in the Dawson area.

Israel L. Heim, who married Gertrude Draper built a home of their own on his parent's farm near their small home and took over the farming. He and Gertie took care of his parents for many years. Many were the big family gatherings held first at grandpa and grandma's that soon out grew their small house and were later held at Uncle Israel's and Aunt Gertie"s house instead.

William C. Heim married Ethel Barlow. He learned telegraphy from the depot agent in Dawson. Later he started working for various railroads advancing in the work as the years passed. At retirement he was chief freight agent at Phoenix, Arizona for the Southern Pacific Railroad. They then bought an apricot ranch at Cupertino, California. Through the years Ethel nearly always had a class of music students which she enjoyed teaching.

Lucy Heim married Dr. Walter E. Draper, who was a physician in Manila, Iowa, later moving to Sioux City, Iowa. He specialized in rectal disorders. After retirement they went to live near their daughter and family in Billings, Montana and Albuquerque, New Mexico.

And as you may have guessed by now, John J. and Rosina Heim were the parents of my father, and my grandparents. Jacob S. and Rebecca Heim were my parents.

Notes for Christian Hieber:
Christian Hieber farmer: P.O. Bucyrus: was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, Nov. 7, 1836. His father, John G. and his mother, Fredricka (Shnarrenberger) Hieber, were both natives of the same place. They emigrated from Germany with four of their five children to the United States in 1854; the oldest son, John had been here about two years before the rest of the family. They came direct to Ohio and settled in Liberty Township of this county, and bought 80 acres of good land. The family was in good financial circumstances in Germany, and brought a considerable quantity of cash with them, which was a material help to them here.

The names of all the children are as follows: John, Christian, Fredrick, Christina and William. Shortly after they came here, their father met with a serious accident: while descending the stairway into the cellar, he fell breaking his wrist, which disabled him for life. He lived to see his family all in homes of their own, and was called away in 1872: his wife still survives and lives on the old homestead with William, in her 73d Year. The oldest son, John moved to Illinois and bought a farm there, and about eighteen or nineteen years ago he wrote to his folks in Ohio, that he was going to sell out and come back to Crawford County; since the sale of his property, there has never been any account of him heard to this day, and all inquiry as to his probable fate has proved futile. Christian got his education in Germany, but learned to read readily in English.

Jan. 25, 1866, he married Christina Wagner: she was born in Lycoming Co., Pennsylvania, in February 1838, and came to Crawford Co. in 1856. Mr. Hieber had purchased 60 acres, sometime before he was married, to which he and his wife repaired, and when they had lived on it one year he sold it to his brother and bought the 80 acres where he now resides, and has added by purchase, until he owns in all 192 acres of good land. They are all industrious, and a spirit of enterprise prevails in the Hieber family notwithstanding, their quiet, unassuming disposition. Mr. Hieber has five children-John G., Mary L., Lydia F., Annie and Sarah B.

Notes for William Christopher Kiess:
A Centiennial Biographical History of Crawford County, Ohio. Chicago - The Lewis Publishing Company 1902; page 38:

William C. Kiess - The subject of this review is a self-made man who, without any extraordinary family or pecuniary advantages at the commencement of his career, has battled earnestly and energetically, and by indomitable courage and integrity has achieved both character and fortune. By sheer force of will and untiring effort he has worked his way upward and is numbered among the leading citizens of Crawford County, where he is now occupying the position of judge of the probate court, having entered upon the duties of his office on the 9th of February, 1900. His public service has demonstrated that the trust reposed in him is fully merited, and his name is now found on the record of reliable and capable officials in this section of Ohio.

Mr. Kiess was born on a farm in Whetstone Township, in 1857, and is a son of Jacob and Catherine (Delker) Kiess . His paternal grandfather, Christopher Kiess , was a native of Germany, received excellent educational privileges and became a successful teacher in his native land. Crossing the Atlantic to' America, he followed the profession of teaching for twenty years in Pennsylvania. Jacob Kiess, the father of our subject, was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, and after arriving at years of maturity wedded Catherine Delker, whose birth occurred in Germany, and who came to the United States when a maiden of fifteen summers. In the year 1850 they removed to Crawford County, locating upon a farm, which the father owned and operated until his death, which occurred in 1882, when he was seventy-one years of age. His wife passed away in 1885, at the age of sixty-nine years. They were people of the highest respectability, enjoying the esteem and good will of all with whom they came in contact. Of their family, four sons and a daughter are living, namely: William Christopher, of this review; Jonathan H., Simeon and Joseph H., all of whom are successfully following farming in Whetstone Township; and Mrs. M. A. Butts, of Hiawatha, Kansas. Two sons, Daniel and Samuel, and two daughters, Lydia and May Margaret, are deceased.

Born upon his father's farm, William Christopher Kiess was there reared and early took his place in the fields to assist in the work of plowing, planting and harvesting. In the public schools he acquired his elementary education, which was supplemented by study in the Ada Normal University in the year 1887-8. Subsequently he became identified with educational work, and for seven years was known as a competent instructor in the schools of Whetstone Township. His fellow townsmen, recognizing his worth and ability, then called him to public office, and for four years he served as clerk of the township, and was also land appraiser there. In the fall of 1899 he was elected to the office of probate judge of Crawford County and entered upon his duties February 9, 1900, for a three years' term, so that he is the present incumbent. He is extremely faithful, prompt and reliable in performing the labors that devolve upon him, and is making a most creditable record.

Mr. Kiess was united in marriage, in 1879, to Miss Sarah E. Wagner, a daughter of John and Mary Wagner, of Whetstone Township, who came to Crawford County from Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, about the year 1852. Both have now passed away, the father dying at the age of sixty-four years, the mother being called to her final rest when sixty-nine years of age. The marriage of the Judge and Mrs. Kiess has been blessed with two children, Thomas Clinton, who is now seventeen years of age and is a student in the high school, and Bessie Belle, who is also pursuing her studies in the schools of Bucyrus. In his political affiliations the Judge has ever been a Democrat, and keeps well informed on the issues of the day, politically and otherwise. His religious views are indicated by his membership in the Evangelical church. On the 15th of March., 1900, he removed his family to Bucyrus, where they now occupy a pleasant home, which is celebrated for its gracious hospitality. In the county which has been his home throughout his entire life Judge Kiess has made many warm friends, owing" to his possession of those sterling traits of character which everywhere command admiration and respect.

History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 692:

William C. Kiess, vice-president of the Second National Bank of Bucyrus, Ohio, is also largely interested in real estate and conducts an extensive business along this line, dealing in both city realty and farm property. He has been a representative citizen of Crawford County for many years and has frequently been honored by election to offices of trust and responsibility by his fellow citizens. He was born on his father's farm in Whetstone Township, Crawford County, Ohio, in 1857, and is a son of Jacob and Catherine (Delker) Kiess.

Jacob Kiess was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a son of Christopher Kiess and wife, who were natives of Germany. Grandfather Kiess was an educated man and first taught school in his native land and afterward, for twenty years in Pennsylvania. He thus was useful in his day and generation although he never accumulated as much property as have a number of his descendants. In 1850, Jacob Kiess and wife settled on a farm in Crawford County, improved it and there he died in his seventieth year, in 1882. In early manhood he had married Catherine Delker, who was born in Germany, where she lived until fifteen years of age. She survived her husband, passing away in 1885, when aged 69 years. They were members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church and were worthy of their name and profession of faith. Of their children there are three sons and one daughter living, namely: William C., Simeon, Joseph F., and Mrs. M. A. Butts, of Hiawatha, Kansas. William C. Kiess was reared on the home farm and early took part in the necessary toil that successful cultivation of land demands. His education, however, was in no way neglected and he was ambitious as well as intelligent. After attending the public schools he enjoyed higher training in the university at Ada, Ohio, where he was specially prepared in the Normal classes for educational work. For seven years afterward Mr. Kiess taught school, confining his efforts to Whetstone Township, and he met with a large measure of success. He looks back upon that period as a useful season of his life, in which he did his best and felt rewarded for his efforts. Among his warmest friends of the present are those who were once his pupils. From the school-room Mr. Kiess entered public office, serving as township clerk for four years and as land appraiser in his township. On February 9, 1900, he entered upon the duties of probate judge of Crawford County, to which honorable office he had been elected in the previous autumn, and his services on the bench demonstrated his particular fitness for that position. Judge Kiess subsequently turned his attention to dealing in real estate and has numerous additional interests. He is a notary public and maintains his office in the Rowse Building.

Judge Kiess was married in 1879 to Miss Sarah E. Wagner, a daughter of John and Mary Wagner, old residents of Whetstone Township, who have long since passed to their final rest. Two children living were born to Judge and Mrs. Kiess, a son and daughter, Thomas Clinton and Bessie Belle. Judge Kiess and family are members of the Evangelical church. Their pleasant and hospitable home is at No. 475 Galion Street, Bucyrus.

Notes for Johann Carl (Charles Jetter) Yetter:

Charles Yetter enlisted for Civil War service as a private, August 21, 1862, at Medina, Ohio (Medina County), August 21, 1862, in Company K of the 103rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiment, for a term of 3 years. Occupation: Shoemaker. He was mustered out May 18, 1865, at Camp Dennison Ohio by Order of the U.S. War Department. His brother, John H. Yetter, also served in Company K, of the 103rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

Charles was born in Liverpool Township, Medina County Ohio and died in what is now Brunswick Hills Township, Medina County Ohio. At the time of his death he lived with his wife and three children at what is now 1925 Marks Road in Brunswick Hills Township, Medina County Ohio. The original farmhouse was severely damaged by a fire in 2009 and by early 2011 it had been razed. The farm had originally consisted of 40 acres, on which were located the house which had been added on to, a large barn, and a smaller storage-type barn-like structure. The woman living on the property in about 1973 was named Carol Miller. The property was for sale then for $80,000.00. The property changed hands and in the 1990s was subdivided twice. The first parcel to the east now has a luxury home with a small private lake and a parcel to the north was developed into a cul-de-sac with access from Marks Road containing about 15 new homes. The property which contained the old farm house and barns was close to Marks Road and the house was even closer to the road. As of May 3, 2011, it is unknown what will become of this property.

Charles was married a first time and had two sons, John and George before his wife died. He then married Magdalena Groll. They actually had four children (William P. Yetter, Anna Yetter, and Minnie Yetter). One child died as an infant.

If is quite possible that the parents of Charles and John H. Yetter are buried in Lot 61. The cemetery records are very unclear if so. If they are neither has a grave stone.

Notes for Herman Zimmerly:
Akron, Ohio Obituary January 10, 1954

Services for Herman Zimmerly, 85, one of Akron's early meat dealers and founder of the Zimmerly Bros. meat market, will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday in the Billow Chapel. The Rev. Reuben J. Schorer will officiate. Burial will be in Mt. Peace Cemetery. Friends may call at the chapel after 4:30 today.

Mr. Zimmerly, a native of Switzerland, who learned the meat business as a young man in Akron, died Saturday in Barberton Citizens Hospital after a short illness.

He came to Akron from the "land of clocks and cheese," as he used to say, in 1881 and soon went to work in a butcher shop on Sherman Street. The owner was a Swiss who made the first frankfurters sold in Akron. Working under this man Mr. Zimmely learned the mechanics of the meat business. When he was offered a partnership, he refused, knowing he wanted to go into business with his brothers, John, Jacob and Gottlieb. Mr. Zimmerly, youngest of the brothers, used to explain: "I wanted to work with my brothers because my mother told us that if you put four match sticks together you can't break them as easily as you can break a single stick."

The year 1894 marked the opening of the Zimmerly meat market at Main and Center Streets. Herman, youngest of six brothers, actually started the business. He was the last of the brothers to die. Besides John, Jacob, Gottlieb and Herman, there were Fred and Sam. The brothers peddled frankfurters and sausages by horse and wagon at first. Herman and several of his brothers made sausages in the basement of a house at Main and Center streets.

Their business grew and they built a packing house on the outskirts of town in 1904 - the "outskirts" now being Kenmore District. John ran the office, Jacob managed the packing house, Gottlieb handled the retail side of the business and Herman bought the cattle. The brothers moved the store in 1920 out to the site of the packing house because of the rapid expansion of business in the present heart of the city. Six years ago the two remaining Zimmerly brothers, Herman and Gottlieb, sold the business that had been in existence 53 years.

Herman, who lived at 4332 Manchester Rd, Portage Lakes, was a member of the Swiss Society, Akron Liedertafel and Turner Club and was an honorary member of the Kiwanis Club. Mr. Zimmerly's wife, Emma died 10 year ago. He leaves three nieces, Ida Zimmerly and Mrs. T. B. Tomkinson of Akron and Mr. G. S. Work of Auburndale, Florida and a nephew, Dr. J. F. Planz of Akron.

J. Howard Heim, the well-known and popular cashier of the Bank of South Williamsport, was born in Williamsport, June 29, 1890, the son of David J. and Hulda M. (Schaefer) Heim.

David J. Heim was born in Hepburn Township, Lycoming County, June 17, 1859. His wife, also a native of Hepburn Township, was born January 4, 1861. They now reside at Williamsport. He was the son of Jacob C. and Rosanna (Ulmer) Heim, the former a native of Hepburn Township, died in 1890; the latter, a native of Gamble Township, Lycoming County, died in 1917. Both are buried in Blooming Grove Cemetery, Hepburn Township. Jacob C. Heim was a prominent farmer of Hepburn Township. To David J. Heim was reared on his father's farm and attended the township schools. He began his independent career at the age of 18, serving an apprenticeship as a wagon maker at Trout Run, Pennsylvania, and later worked at his trade in Williamsport. In 1880 Mr. Heim established a business of his Own on East Fourth Street, which he conducted for 18 years. He sold this in 1898 and returned to Hepburn Township and purchased the old homestead, which he conducted for two years. He sold the farm in two years and purchased a farm adjoining. This he operated until 1912, when he sold it to his son, I. Fernando Heim. In 1912 Mr. Heim removed to Williamsport and secured a position with Christ Gold's Carriage Works, which position he still occupies. Hulda D., a graduate or Bucknell University and had charge of the domestic science department of Curtin Junior High School, married Clarence G. Ebert, a teacher in Curtin Junior High School, Williamsport.

Mr. Heim began teaching in the rural schools of Lycoming County, in which profession he was occupied for two years. In 1910 he entered the employ of the Northern Central Trust Company of Williamsport as a messenger, and was promoted to general ledger bookkeeper. In 1924 he accepted the position as cashier of the Montour National Bank, of Montour Falls, New York. He resigned this position to accept the cashier ship of the Bank of South Williamsport, which position he now holds.

Notes for Joseph Gross Heim:
History of Richardson County, Nebraska: Its People, Industries and Institutions, Volume 2, 1917, page 1331-1332:
Joseph G. Heim, of Dawson, Richardson County, is a man of varied attainments in the agricultural life of the community in which he resides. As a farmer, breeder of cattle, hogs, and sheep, as well as fruit growing, his life may be described as a busy one. He was born on March 9, 1857, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, also natives of the same county and state.

Jacob G. Heim was born on June 15, 1832, in Pennsylvania, the son of Gottlieb and Margaret (Steiger) Heim, who were natives of Wurtemberg, Germany, and who came to the United States about 1808. Jacob G. Heim, who followed the occupation of farming all his life, came to Nebraska in 1874. He located on section 15, Grant Township, Richardson County, and bought four hundred acres of land. His first experience in this place was somewhat unfortunate, as he lost the whole of his first year's crops, the grasshoppers eating every growing thing on his land. This experience, however, was not repeated and he continued to farm with much success up to the time of his retirement. A few years before his death he moved to Dawson; later he moved to the farm home of Emanuel Ulmer and died there in 1914. His wife, Regina (Gross) Heim were the parents of eleven children, four of whom are deceased, the others being Joseph G., the subject of this sketch; Mrs. Sarah Ulmer, who lives in Grant township; Samuel F.; Jonathan E.; Rebecca, the wife of Jacob S. Heim; Sophia, who married Martin D. Ulmer; and Maggie who married Thomas Wuster, and all of whom are living in Grant township, this county.

Joseph G. Heim came to Nebraska with his parents in 1874, he then being seventeen years of age. In 1882 he rented land from his father and in 1884 he bought his first farm in section 10, Grant precinct. The tract was all unimproved and he set up to work to bring it into a state fit for cultivation. He built a substantial house, put up three barns and set out ten acres to an orchard for fruit growing, in which he has been very successful, selling his fruit locally and shipping large quantities. He is regarded as one of the most progressive fruit growers in this part of the state.

Mr. Heim's entire acreage i sections 19, 26 and 27, in Grant Township, amounts to two hundred and forty acres of choice land, all of which with the exception of the portion set out to the orchard, is operated for general farming purposes. He is an extensive breeder of Holstein cattle and Duroc-Jersey hogs and has an excellent strain of pure breed Shropshire sheep, several of which he keeps for breeding purposes. For several years Mr. Heim has been a member of the Shropshire Breeders Association of Lafayette, Indiana. In all his varied business activities he has shown much enterprise and sound judgement.

On December 22, 1881, Joseph G. Heim was united in marriage to Rosa Heim, daughter of John and Margaret (Heim) Heim, who came to Richardson County in 1881, the year of their daughter's marriage to Mr. Heim. John Heim is dead and his widow is now living on the farm in section 15, Grant Township. Joseph G. Heim and wife are the parents of six children, namely: Mrs. Bertha Shively, of Calloway, this state; Mrs. May Belden, of Grant Township; Emerson, who lives on the homestead in Grant Township; Olive and John, both deceased, and Alice, who is attending high school. The Heim family are members of the United Evangelical Church and are active in all its good works.

Mr. Heim is a Republican and gives active support to that party, though sometimes voting the independent ticket. For two years he acted as township assessor, giving general satisfaction in that office. He was elected to the Dawson school board about twenty years ago and has been an active worker on the board during that time, serving as president of the board for several years. In 1892 Mr. Heim became superintendent of the Sunday school attached to the United Evangelical church in Dawson, and has continued since in that capacity. He increased the membership of the classes form twenty-five to over two hundred, thus giving evidence of his zeal on behalf of the Sunday school. He is also a trustee of the church. In June, 1916, Mr. Heim moved to Dawson where he built a modern and well-equipped bungalow and where he and his family are comfortably situated.

Falls City - Joseph G. Heim, 74, pioneer farmer and fruit grower, died Saturday night Oct. 3, 1931 at his home in Dawson following a stroke. He moved to the Dawson vicinity with the first settlers from Pennsylvania in 1874 and until a few years ago lived on a farm. He had been a community leader 20 years, was president of the school board and a member of the village council. His widow, a son and three daughters survive him.

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 945:

Among the extensive and prosperous farmers of Richardson County must be included Samuel F. Heim, of Grant Township, owner of seventeen hundred and sixty acres of excellent farming land, three hundred and twenty acres of which are located in sections to and 16, in Grant township, and fourteen hundred and forty acres in Hitchcock county, this state. He was born on November 17, 1859, in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, and is the son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, who were also born in the Keystone state and to whom further and more detailed reference is made in another part of this work, in the course of a sketch relating to Joseph G. Heim, a brother of the subject of this sketch.

Jacob G. Heim, who came to Nebraska in 1874, was born in Pennsylvania on June 15, 1832, the son of Gotleib and Margaret (Steiger) Heim, who came to America from Germany about 1808. Up to the time of his retirement a few years before his death, Jacob G. Heim was actively engaged in operating his farm of four hundred acres in section 15, Grant precinct, in which he was the pioneer settler of the Pennsylvania colony. He was married to Regina Gross, who was born on July 13, 1825, and is now in her ninety-second year.

Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim were the parents of eleven children, four of whom are deceased, the others being Joseph G., who lives in Dawson, this county; Mrs. Sarah Ulmer, who lives in Grant township; Samuel F., the subject of this sketch; Jonathan W.; Rebecca, the wife of Jacob Heim; Sophia, who married Martin D. Ulmer, and Margaret, who is the wife of Thomas Wuster, and all of whom are living in Grant precinct, this county. The father of these children died in 1914 and his widow now lives with her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Ulmer.

Samuel F. Heim was in his fifteenth year when he came with his parents to Nebraska, arriving on June 11, 1874, and remained at Rulo for a brief period of three weeks with some friends and on July 3, moved with his parents to Grant precinct. His first employment in Richardson County was herding cattle on the plains and farming. Sometime later he obtained his first tract of land from his father, who had purchased a half section in Grant Township, and Samuel F. Heim began farming operations on his own account.

As he prospered in his farming work, he continued to add to his land holdings and is now the owner of seventeen hundred and sixty acres of prime tillage and fattening land. On his holdings, generally, Mr. Heim has effected some very extensive improvements and has set out an excellent grove of trees and an orchard and in the latter is engaged in fruit-growing, the produce being sold and shipped in large quantities. Mr. Heim has been one of the Richardson county farmers who has helped to reclaim the prairie and convert it into well-cultivated fields and pasture lands.

On February 14, 1889, Samuel F. Heim was united in marriage to Elizabeth Heim, who was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and is the daughter of John J. and Rosa (Heim) Heim, who were the parents of seven children, all of whom are now living. John Heim and wife now reside of section 10, Grant Township. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Heim are the parents of six children, namely: Mrs. Luella Clark Belden, residing in Montana; Mrs. Adah F. James, who lives in Porter precinct; Tillie, who married Ed. Richards, living in Porter precinct; Melvin, Mary and Richard, at home.

Mr. Heim is a supporter of the Republican Party, but has never held public office. He and his family are members of the United Evangelical church, and are liberal supporters of its various activities. In 1916 Mr. Heim installed throughout his home and barns a Delco electric system, using the lights in the home and the outbuildings; also using the electric system for pumping water, washing and many other purposes.

Samuel Franklin Heim, son of Jacob G. and Regina Gross Heim, was born near Williamsport, Pennsylvania, Nov. 7, 1859, and died Jan. 8, 1946, having attained the age of 86 years, 1 month and 21 days. Early in 1874 he moved with his parents to Nebraska, settling first at Rulo. In July of 1874 the family moved to the old Jacob G. Heim farm at Dawson, now occupied by the Arthur Heim family.

He was united in marriage to Elizabeth Heim on Feb. 14, 1889. During that summer they built the home in which they resided for more than 53 years of their married life, and which remains as an old landmark in the community. To this union were born six children, Mrs. Luella Belden of Buffalo, Montana, Mrs. Adah James of Dawson, Nebraska, Mrs. Tillie Richards who preceded him in death in 1938, Melvin J. of Dawson Nebraska, Mrs. Mary Bilsing of Culbertson, Nebraska, and Rev. Richard A. of Hastings, Nebraska.

In old age he found much comfort and Joy in his 25 grandchildren, 23 of whom survive, and in 11 great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held in the Evangelical church of Dawson, Nebraska, on Friday, Jan. 11, with the pastor, Rev. C. E. Nichols, in charge. Burial was in the Heim cemetery in Dawson.

John J. Heim, also a native of Pennsylvania, was born on July 2, 1847, in Lycoming County, that state. He continued to live there for thirty-five years, at the end of which time, in 1882, he came to Grant precinct, Richardson County, and bought one hundred and sixty acres of land, which he at once proceed to cultivate. As time went on, he prospered in his farming operations and later added to his land holdings. He owned the place on which his son, Jacob S., now lives, and he is now living retired on the Israel L. He was born 23 Apr 1870 in Cogan Station, Lycoming Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 22 Jun 1944 in San Antonio, Bexar Co, Texas.

Notes for Charles Edward Stoltz:

Charles E. Stoltz, for years a well-known and successful farmer, living in Franklin precinct, this county, has recently disposed of his fine farm consisting of one hundred and sixty acres of prime land, all in an excellent state of improvement; however, he is still the owner of forty acres of land in Texas, in the irrigated section of the Rio Grande. He was born on April 23, 1870, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the son of William and Mary (Ulmer) Stoltz, also natives of the same county and state. William Stoltz was a son of Jacob Stoltz, a native of Germany. Mary Ulmer was the daughter of Isaac Ulmer and wife.

William Stoltz came to Richardson County from Pennsylvania in 1886 and located between Dawson and Stella, where he bought one hundred and sixty acres of raw prairie land. He moved his family to the farm the following spring and began the task of clearing the ground for cultivation. William Stoltz was born in 1847 and died on March 20, 1915. His wife, Mary Ulmer, was born on May 31, 1849, and died on January 11, 190l. They were the parents of the following children: Charles E., the subject of this sketch; Jacob F., who lives in Aurora, Illinois; Isaac H., of Onaga, Kansas; Samuel, who lives in Chicago; William F., who lives on the home farm; Ezra W., of Jerome, Idaho; Daniel, who died in 1878; Martin, who died in 1896; Mrs. Clara Bobbitt, who lives in Jerome, Idaho, and Hattie, who lives in Porter precinct. Following his education, Charles E. Stoltz assisted his father in building up a home and continued in this way up to the time of his marriage in 1893. In the latter year he rented his father's farm for four years and later bought out the home place, subsequently selling it. In 1904 he moved to Dawson and for two years was engaged in the hardware and implement business and then sold out. In 1906 Mr. Stoltz bought an improved farm near Holdridge, Phillips County, Nebraska. He was the second man to pay fifty dollars an acre for land in that locality, and sold his holding at an enhanced price of seventy-five dollars an acre. He then moved to Franklin precinct, this county, and bought the farm which he vacated about twelve months ago, paying one hundred dollars an acre for the same in 1908. This tract of one hundred and sixty acres he parted with in 1916, obtaining one hundred and seventy-five dollars an acre for the land.

On February 9, 1893. Charles E. Stoltz was united in marriage to Anna Heim, who was born in Lycoming county-, Pennsylvania, on February 11, 1869, daughter of John J. and Rosina Heim, also natives of that state. Further mention of this branch of the Heim family will be found in another part of this work in a sketch relating to Israel Heim. He subsequently bought the farm from his father and had the house, which was, built in 1899, remodeled in 1913 and is now modern in every respect, amply surrounded by shade trees and evergreens. His farm of one hundred and sixty acres is located in section 10, Grant Township, and is well improved and in excellent condition. In 1912 Mr. Heim began breeding Aberdeen Polled Angus cattle and has some splendid specimens of thoroughbred, "Dinsmore Lad:, bought, from L. H. Howe, of Humboldt. She married August Osterholt, son of Bernard Osterholt and Anna Sanders. He was born 21 Sep 1854 in Beardstown, Cass Co, Illinois, and died 07 Jun 1903 in Morgan Co, Illinois.

Notes for Katherine Margaretha Walker:
Catherine Margaretha (Walker) Osterholt Born November 20, 1860 Married-? Died June 6, 1941 Transcript from Recording of Shirley Allen on January 30, 2008. Additional notes for clarification are in parenthesis and were added by Shirley's granddaughter Sharie Clausen.

My mother's mother, we always called her Grandma Oats, because her last name was Osterholt. She always lived in a rented house in some part of town with her older son. In that day, the older sons always stayed at home and took care of their mother so they were always there to take care of the old folks. The older son often didn't marry in that time. Ruth (Shirley's sister) and I speculated about Uncle Ed, he was a little different. He stayed at home and he was a painter and he took care of his mother. They always lived in these little houses around town.

I'd go with my mom (Helen (Osterholt) Evans) once a week. She was always big in the "not look in the mirrors."

My mom would say she was a little girl and she was standing in front of a mirror, looking at herself and her grandma just jumped all over her and turned the mirror to the wall. They didn't want anybody to be thinking about their looks, I guess. I don't know what age she was. She told lots of tales about her childhood it was really interesting. We'd go to bed with her and she'd tell us these things that she did when she was a child.

Grandma Oats would kind of scold us kids because I assume she was raised by this grandmother that turned the mirror to the wall and wasn't allowed to be anything. So she would criticize us quite a bit because Ruth was born a little too soon. It seemed a little unusual at that time that she was not born out of wedlock, but was born a little too early. People were really looked down on and you know it was miserable for them.

Grandmas Oats, Ruth would say, would look at Ruth as a little child and shake her head and say, "For shame, for shame." Now that's what Ruth remembered about being a little child with her grandmother and what else was she referring to except, you know.

I can remember one time I went with my mom and we'd walk down there to Grandma's and I went and sat on mom's lap and I was probably a great big kid, I don't remember how old I was at the time. I went and climbed up on mom's lap and sat there and Grandma Oats would sit there and say, "You don't need to sit there on your mother's lap. She's tired and she doesn't need you to be doing that." You know she was scolding me for being a kid.

She had a kind of a sense of humor a little bit. She'd say things that were kind of strange. She wasn't all bad.

Grandma Oats side, they were all Lutheran's and she went to church faithfully and all.

There was a grandmother Osterholt in Germany that we always suspected was Jewish. That's going back a ways. I've got one picture of her. (Catherine (Boepple) Walker (German ascent)- Helen's grandmother or Barbara Schlecht – Helen's great grandmother?).

Helen's grandmother came over from Germany. Her mother would send packages to Germany for Christmas and things. She said they would send the package in muslin and sew the ends and that is how they would be sent.

We have had a cousin of mother's that has gone to Germany and he says he's found the place where those people lived. Although not so sure, He's made a few mistakes on our family.

Notes for Henry George Reitz:
A History of Cuyahoga County and the City of Cleveland; By: William R. Coates. Publishers: The American Historical Society Chicago and New York, 1924:

HON. HENRY GEORGE REITZ, well known citizen and civil engineer of Cleveland, was born on the family homestead farm in Rockport Township, Cuyahoga County, on the 14th of January, 1883, the place of his birth being now within the city limits of Cleveland, in the district known as West Park. His grandparents on the paternal side were Peter G. and Barbara (Lehr) Reitz, who came from Germany to the United States on a sailing vessel in 1842, and who landed in the Port of New York City, whence they came to Cuyahoga County. The grandfather purchased land in Rockport Township, developed a productive farm and continued farming during the remainder of his life, both he and his wife having died on the old homestead.

On the farm above mentioned the birth of John G. Reitz, father of Henry G., occurred in the year 1855, and there he was reared to manhood, his educational advantages having been those of the schools of the locality and period. He continued his activities as a farmer in his native township until about the year 1912, when he retired from active farming. He served two terms as township trustee and two terms as a member of the village council of West Park. He and his wife were members of the Protestant Evangelical Church in their community, and he served forty years as its treasurer. He died in June, 1922. He married Mary S. Barthelman, who was born on Puritas Road, Rockport Township, in 1858, and she survives her husband. Of the children, Henry G., of this review, is the eldest; Frederick William owns and operates a greenhouse at North Olmsted, this county; Anna K. remains with her widowed mother; and the youngest of the number is John C., who is now associated with his eldest brother, Henry G., as a member of the Henry G. Reitz Engineering Company.

John C. Reitz was graduated from the Case School of Applied Sciences, as a member of the class of 1913, with the degree of Civil Engineer. He served with the United States military forces on the Mexican border, and in the World war he was for ten months in service with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, he having received commission as captain. He was for some time engineer for the City of West Park.

Henry G. Reitz was born in the same house as was his father and was reared on the old home farm. He was a member of the first class to be graduated in the West Park High School, in 1901. In 1906 he received from Case School of Applied Sciences the degree of Bachelor of Science, and in 1913 that institution conferred upon him also the degree of Civil Engineer. The first engineering service given by Mr. Reitz was with the engineering department of the City of Cleveland, with which he continued his connection twelve years. In 1917 he became village engineer of West Park, and in 1919 he was elected mayor of that village, which obtained a city charter in 1921, and, of which he became the first mayor under the charter. He was the incumbent of this office at the time when West Park became a part of the City of Cleveland, and thus he has the distinction of having been the first and the last mayor of the little City of West Park.

Mr. Reitz was one of the organizers and is secretary and treasurer of the Riverside Greenhouse Company; he was one of the organizers and is a director of the Cleveland Motor Car Sales Company; he is treasurer of the Thrift Savings & Loan Company, in the organization of which he assisted; and was one of the organizers of the United Greenhouse Company, and treasurer of the company.

Mr. Reitz is a member of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, the Cleveland Chamber of Industry, the American Society of Civil Engineers, the American Association of Engineers, the Cleveland Engineering Society, the Cleveland Yacht Club, the Lakewood Country Club, the Western Reserve Club, the League of Republican Clubs, and the Protestant Emmanuel Evangelical Church. He is a member of North Star Lodge No. 638, Free and Accepted Masons; West Park Chapter No. 214, Royal Arch Masons (of which he was high priest in 1920); Forest City Council No. 111, Royal and Select Masters; Forest City Commandery No. 40, Knights Templar; Lake Erie Consistory, Scottish Rite (thirty second degree); Al Koran Temple, Mystic Shrine; Al Sirat Grotto; the Tall Cedars of Lebanon, and the Order of Rameses.

On June 7, 1911, Mr. Reitz married Miss Clara Herthneck, daughter of John and Christina (Baumgardner) Herthneck, of Brooklyn Township, Cuyahoga County, and to them two daughters have been born, Edna Jayne and Jeanne Clare.

Notes for Ralph Friedrich Herthneck:

Ralph F. Herthneck, one of the best known and most highly esteemed farmers of Liverpool Township, was suddenly called by death on Tuesday morning November 4, 1921. He had been in Cleveland all day Monday and had spent Monday evening at Brunswick, returning home in apparently his usual good health. He was, however, attacked with heart trouble toward morning and lived but a short time. He was three days over 31 years of age, and leaves a wife and three children, the youngest of whom is but two weeks old.

Funeral services were held Friday morning at the home and interment made in Hardscrabble Cemetery. Mr. Herthneck was township clerk and a candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket without any opposition on the Republican.

Tuesday morning Nov. 1, 1921 about 6 o'clock, Ralph Herthneck, prominent citizen and farmer of Liverpool Township, died suddenly at his home two and one-half miles west of Brunswick center, from heart disease. Mr. Herthneck was apparently in good health up to the moment of his death. The previous day he took a load of potatoes to Cleveland, and transacted business at Brunswick the, same night, there being no indication of illness or indisposition at. that time.

The deceased was 31 years old and is survived by a widow and three children, one only two weeks old; father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Herthneck, also of Liverpool Township, a sister, Mrs. George Thompson of Atlanta, Georgia, and a brother residing in Cleveland. Mr. Herthneck was township clerk and local registrar of vital statistics at the time of his death.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the home, and interment made in Hardscrabble cemetery.

Notes for Mahlon (Driesbaugh) Dreisbach:
July 1, 1952 - Newspaper Article - Mahlon Dreisbach is retiring after more than 50 years with the Babcock Y Wilcox Company:

To follow Dreisbach's career is to trace the development of industrial progress since 1900. His first job in Barberton was in the front shop where he chipped and fitted boiler doors.
He remained there until 1907 when he helped to install boilers on the battleship, USS Georgia, in Bath, ME. For the next several years he traveled about the Midwest installing boilers. Later in the Barberton works, Dreisbach set up the draw benches for shells during World War I. He helped to reconvert the drum and forge shops to boiler production at the close of the war. For the last several years he has been a foreman in the forge shop.

Dreisbach and his wife live at 2395 East Ave, a home they built in 1908. They have a son, Herman, living in Akron. Although Dreisbach's principal hobby might be considered his flower gardens, fishing occupies a close second place with him and his wife. Every summer for years they have traveled to Guelph, Ontario, Canada.

Handwritten on the back of this photo: On March 17, 1951 Mahlon Dreisbach, Assistant Foreman in the Forge Shop will celebrate 50 years of continuous service with B&W. Mr. Dreisbach, who started work before B&W purchased the Stirling Consolidated Boiler Co Barberton Works remembers when only two persons drove their cars to work and the Barberton shops had only two to three ton cranes in the whole shop. He has been attached to the Barberton operation for his entire period of service with the company. He worked for a short time in the Front Shop, than was sent to Machines Shop to learn the trade. One of his first interesting assignments took him to Bath, Maine where he was sent to help with the overhauling of the battleship Georgia. Later, he was on the road 4 years erecting Stirling boilers. During WWI, Mr. D was moved from Machine Shop to the Barberton Works Powerhouse. Later during the war, he made the first and last of the 9.2 shells manufactured by the company.

Notes for Barbara Jean Neff:
Bucyrus - On Sunday, August 25th, 2019, Barbara English, extraordinary wife and mother, passed away at the age of 79. She was born and raised on the family farm near Bucyrus, Ohio, and graduated from Mt. Zion High School in 1958. Barbara met her husband, Stephen, at The Ohio State University where she majored in music (piano) and sang in the University Chorus. Following their marriage, she and Steve lived in Michigan for several years before moving west to raise their family, living in Oregon and Idaho for more than 30 years before returning to Michigan. ""Barb was a wonderful pianist," said her sister-in-law Betty. "She could breeze through Chopin in a heavenly way." Singing with her two brothers in the "Little Kids Trio," her soprano blended perfectly with their tenor and bass. How we were touched by their rendition of Carmen Ohio!

A lifelong learner, Barbara earned two Master's degrees. She taught piano lessons for more than 30 years, and frequently shared her musical talents and the talents of her students in many community events. While living in Orofino, Idaho, she helped organize and raise funds for a yearly series of community concerts, which brought talented musicians and artists from various parts of the world into smaller communities. She also obtained a second Master's degree and devoted much time and love to laboring in the school and public libraries—a service she continued upon moving to the upper peninsula of Michigan. She and her cousin Miriam curated and published a book of genealogy cherished by branches of the Neff family nationwide. She married an outdoorsman; Barbara and her husband, Steve, were known for introducing friends and family to new ways of cooking. "We'll never forget the elk steak or the smoked salmon. Her fruitcake never failed, and was eagerly appreciated every year. A jar of jelly was her calling card!"

Barbara was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and held several unpaid positions of responsibility, service, and mentorship, most particularly serving youth and children. She played the piano and the organ in every congregation she attended, and at the time of her passing was serving as the instructor of the adult Sunday School program in Germfask, Michigan.

She is survived by Stephen, her husband of 57 years, son Ben, daughter-in-law Evangeline, grandson Stephen, and granddaughter Ryan, brother Roger Neff and sister-in-law Betty, brother Richard Neff and sister-in-law Jackie, sister-in-law Patty Neff, and numerous extended family members. She joins a wonderful family on the other side of the veil, including father Ralph Neff, mother Margaret, brother Jim, and sister Dorothy.

A graveside service for Barbara will be held on Saturday, September 7th at 11 AM at the Oakwood Cemetery in Bucyrus, Ohio. A memorial service will be held on Monday, September 9th at 11 AM at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Germfask, Michigan. Flowers are welcome; anyone who desires may make a donation in Barbara's name to the Curtis Public Library, P.O. Box 220, Curtis, Michigan 49820. She will be tremendously missed. There was simply music wherever she went.

Marriage Notes for Thomas Heim and Ruth Haines:

A very pretty but quiet wedding occurred at Winfield yesterday Sept. 12, 1918 when Miss Ruth Violet Haines became the bride of Thomas J.S. Heim, of Williamsport, Pennsylvania. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents at 2:30 p.mn., and was most beautifully solemnized by Rev. C.S. Roush, associate pastor of the First Baptist church, of Elmira, New York, a brother-in-law of the bride.

Both of the young people ware very well known throughout this community. Miss Haines is the youngest daughter of A. Haines of Winfield, and a graduate of the Buckell School of music in the class of 1915, in which class she took the "Aviragnet" prize for excellence in music. Mr. Heim also a student of Bucknell University, at the present time being a member of the Junior class. During the past year he has held the position of Student Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., besides being very actively connected with many other college organizations. During the past summer Mr. Heim has served as summer pastor of the Eagles Mere Baptist church and worked as clerk at the Forest Inn Hotel, Eagles Mere Park. The bride is a member of the Mu Phi Epsilon Sorority at Bucknell and the groom a member of the Delta Sigma Fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Heim will be at home to their many friends at North Second Street, Lewisburg after November 1, at which place Mr. Heim expects to continue his studies in preparation for the ministry.

Notes for George McKinley Ludwig:
A Letter From Father to Son By G.M. Ludwig (George H. Ludwig, son of G. M. Ludwig, enlisted in the army Wednesday, May 22, and is now stationed at Fort Snelling).
Dear Son George:

This is the first letter I have ever written to you. There is much I could say but most of it would probably do you very little good now. There are, however, a few things that should be of mutual benefit. You are now on your own. Up to last week most of the decisions were made for you. Tour own personality was more or less a part of the Ludwig family. Now you will no longer be recognized as "the son of" G.M. Ludwig but as George Harry Ludwig. Your personality is now your own. Your initiation into the modern complex social life will bring you both an opportunity and a responsibility. And because you are immediately so far removed from the routine of life to which you were accustomed you will find before you a new social life that will bring you both good and ill. No longer will you benefit directly because of the virtues of your parents. Neither will you be handicapped because of their vices. The primary social circle to which you were accustomed has now widened into a secondary social circle that will recognize you for what you yourself are. The people with whom you are now coming into contact will care little who your parents are, nor will they be interested in the school and the church you attended. What they will want to know is WHAT YOU ARE AND WHAT YOU CAN DO.

I am far more happy than I can tell you that your obedience to your parents was so complete. Your actions were always under parental scrutiny. Your whereabouts were always a matter of family knowledge. This is rather an old-fashioned way of bringing up children. Today, in many instances, young men, long before their 18th birthday, take a wide range of liberties and pursue a course of action of which their parents are absolutely ignorant. Your parents consider this wrong. For your obedience and your co-operation your mother and I are profoundly grateful. But now you are graduated from high school. You are a young man. It would be absolutely wrong for such a close supervision to continue. The break, in fact, already has come. You are now obliged to act for yourself. Your life habits will now be a matter of your own choosing.

We do not intend that you should sever your relationship with the Ludwig home. You will, forever, I am sure, be a part of the Ludwig family. You will want to see the old home often. You will want to come back to your old room, and find it just as you knew it during your youth. You will want to sleep again and again beneath those rustic old rafters, being lulled to sleep by the sound of the rain on the exposed shingle roof, or rocked to slumber land by the swaying of the winter storm without. The memory of your youth, you will want to cherish as long as you live. The bitter experiences will soon fade out of sight and the sweet will become ever more hallowed and sanctified. This sudden break has been all the more intensified by your enlistment into the army. Many consider this step of yours foolish. I consider it otherwise.

You have now done what twice I have been prevented from doing. First during World War I and then again World War II, I took steps to enlist as a Chaplain. In both instances' technicalities prevented me. You have now done what I didn't get accomplished. As a soldier in the army you will help defend the standard of the most wonderful nation on earth. Your devotion to Old Glory will, am sure, be just as unrestricted and wholehearted as was your devotion to your parents. There are many hirelings and "foreigners" in this country who would pollute our sacred flag had they an opportunity. Your forefathers came to America to find and preserve a home where freedom and personal opportunity should prevail. There are others, many of them, who call themselves patriots, but their hearts are corrupt. Had they the opportunity they would substitute a foreign flag. As a soldier you can help expose such treachery and insist on preserving America for Americans. The army may be your opportunity. I have yet to find a situation that cannot be accepted either as a drudgery or as a chance to do something great. If you find that which is repugnant, if you meet doubts and disappointments, look for a break. It is bound to come and challenge you to the limit of your ability. You will be sure to find the company you are looking for. Many of the boys will indulge freely in dissipations. But every time this occurs you will find some boys like yourself looking for a more sober comradeship. So be patient. What will appear as vicious ostracism at times may present you in disguise the most challenging opportunity for constructive leadership. Anywayyou are in the army now. Lots of good luck and write often.

Your father, G.M. LUDWIG

Dr. Harlan S. Heim was a dedicated physician and served the Humboldt, Nebraska community for over 40 years. He was an ordained minister of the United Methodist Church, and substituted for absent or vacationing pastors. He performed many marriages, conducted funerals and baptisms. His speaking ability made him a frequent choice for banquets, conferences, and commencement exercises.

He married Golda Mountain in 1927 and she was his companion for life. Golda was a housewife, mother of their three children, and during the years that they owned and operated the Humboldt Hospitals, she bought the food and hired the help for the two hospitals and was her husband's secretary and chauffeur. She often remarked that, "her occupation was to keep Doc going." And this she did!

Dr. Heim attended the Dawson Public Schools, Westmar College in LeMars, Iowa, and while there was influenced by Dr. Neibel, then secretary of the Evangelical Association, to become a medical missionary in China. A close friend, Walter Ulmer, also from Dawson, served for many years in China and encouraged Dr. Heim to follow the same path.

Receiving his B.A. from Westmar in 1920, Dr. Heim attended Cornell Medical School in New York City, which at that time was one of the few medical schools in the United States offering courses in Oriental medicine. Finishing medical school in 1924 and with two years of internship in 1926, Dr. Heim was interviewed by the Rev. J.J. DeWall, head of a new mission of the Evangelical Association at Red Bird, Kentucky. Conditions in China being unsettled, Dr. Heim went to Red Bird until the way should open up to China. It never did.

The couple spent 6 ½ years in the Cumberland Mountains. While at Red Bird Mission, Dr. Heim established a 16-bed hospital, the first to serve the Cumberland Mountain area of southeast Kentucky. Golda was quoted as saying, "On our wedding trip we rode mule back along the creeks the only roads available on the last lap of our journey in route to our home at the mission. I had never ridden a mule!" While there were many great changes at Red Bird Mission through the years, Mrs. Heim often spoke of her vivid memories of life there when she taught in the mission school. Classes were held off and on according to the weather and the condition of the creek beds. The mission dormitory housed about 100 students.

Returning to Humboldt in August of 1933, Dr. Heim started his medical practice. In addition to serving the Humboldt Community, Dr. Heim served on the board of trustees of Westmar College from 1943 to 1971, was president of the board of trustees from 1960 to 1968, and later was named the life trustee of the college.

Two daughters were born while they were in Kentucky, Betty Jean was the first baby born in the new hospital, which the Heim's were instrumental in building. She spent most of her life as a medical technician at the Espanola Hospital in Espanola, New Mexico. She passed away in 1982 and is buried in the Heim Cemetery at Dawson, beside her parents. Donna Marie was born January 3, 1930 and married Lloyd Epley, a lawyer of Coralville, Iowa, where they still make their home. A son, Robert Harlan was born January 6, 1942 and passed away August 10, 1991. He held several degrees and taught in several schools, the last being the University of Iowa at Iowa City, Iowa.

Dr. Heim was instrumental in founding a hospital in Humboldt in 1939 and he and his associate, Dr. A.P. Stappenbeck, opened the Holman Maternity Hospital in 1949. Dr. Heim was active in founding the Humboldt Community Memorial Hospital, the Colonial Acres Nursing Home and the Humboldt Clinic. He also managed a small home for older people known as the "cottage."

Dr. Heim was born on September 17, 1897, a son of Henry W. and Regina Heim, on a farm north of Dawson. Dr. Heim grew up in the Dawson Bethel Church where he held his membership all of his life. Golda passed away in 1971 while on a trip to Red Bird Mission, and Dr. Heim passed away in 1974. Both are buried in the Heim Cemetery at Dawson, Nebraska.

Humboldt, March 12, 1974 - Funeral services for Dr. Harlan S. Heim, 76, longtime physician and civic leader here, were to be held Tuesday at the United Methodist Church in Humboldt. He died Saturday, March 9, 1974. A native of Dawson, Dr. Heim came to Humboldt in 1933 after serving as a full-service missionary in Appalachia for 7-1/2 years. An ordained minister in the old Evangelical Church, Dr. Heim for many years filled area pulpits on a substitute basis, averaging about a sermon a month. He served as director of the United Methodist Church choir here for 40 years. Dr. Heim was a World War I veteran and was active in American Legion work. He was also a leader in Rotary and Masonic circles. In May of 1973 Dr. Heim was honored by his community in two days of special tribute.

Surviving are his son, Robert of Iowa City, Iowa; daughters, Betty Jean Heim of Espanola, New Mexico, and Mrs. Lloyd (Donna) Epley of Coralville, Iowa; brother, John of Fremont; sisters, Martha Klima of Kansas City, Missouri, and Mrs. James. DeWeese of Humboldt; and three grandchildren.

Marriage Notes for Dorothy Heim and Jim McArtor:

May 2, 1946 - Linden E. Heim announces the engagement of his daughter, Dorothy Ione Heim, and Jim B. McArtor of Grant. Miss Heim attended the University of Nebraska and is now teaching in Ogallala. Mr. McArtor was recently discharged from the Navy after four years of service. The wedding will take place in early summer.

Candelabra of tall white tapers lighting the altar banked with syringa and the chancel beautiful with baskets of pink peonies and pink rambler roses, set the scene for an unusually pretty wedding at the Evangelical church in Dawson on Sunday afternoon, June 2, 1946, at 3:00 o'clock, when Miss Dorothy Ione Heim, eldest daughter of Linden E. Heim of Dawson, became the bride of Jim Bill McArtor, son of Mr. and Mrs. V.V. McArtor of Grant, Nebraska. Marjorie Heim, youngest sister of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly," and Mrs. Alex Lambrecht, sister of the groom, sang “Ich Liebe Dich” and “Because,” with Miss Arlene Sobolka (the bride's roommate at Ogallala, where both have been teaching) , accompanying at the piano.

Miss Betty Nichols and Miss Nadine Ulmer, wearing floor-length dresses of pastel pink with corsages of white and pink roses, lighted the tapers. Then as Miss Sobolka played the opening measures of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, Rev. C.E. Nichols, officiating clergyman, the groom and his best man. Don Woodruff of Chappell, took their places at the altar to await the bride and her attendants. Miss Evelyn Heim, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, and Mrs. Duane Dunning of Lincoln (college roommate of the bride) a matron-of-honor preceded the bride to the altar. The former wore floor-length aqua chiffon and a white bonnet with matching aqua ribbons and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses, the latter wore floor-length pink chiffon and a while bonnet with matching pink ribbons and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses. Little Alan Dale Fiala, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Fiala of Beatrice, and cousin of the bride, wearing all-white suit, carried the rings upon a white satin cushion, and Lorna Heim, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heim, dressed in floor-length frock of pastel blue eyelet embroidery, scattered rose petal before the steps of the bride.

Then, upon the arm of her father, came the bride, chaste in a pure white satin gown with embroidered net overskirt and court train, wearing a beaded tiara and carrying her bride's bouquet of red roses and baby-breath. Complying with the traditional "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue," she wore a prized family heir-loom of the McArtor's - a gold brooch which had been the groom’s great-great-grandmother’s and is at least two hundred years old. Sweet and sacred were the solemn words as each repeated the vows of the double ring ceremony which made them man and wife. And tender and fervent were the host of silent prayers of blessing which ascended from the large congregation of witnesses as Rev. Nichols offered a prayer of blessing and pronounced a benediction upon their union.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the basement rooms of the church. Ushers for the wedding were Loren Noa and Roy Auxier. Miss Margaret Sue Fishwood was in charge of the guest book, Miss Blondena Howerton, Miss Juanita West and Mrs. Dwight Wuster were in charge of the gifts. Mrs. H.M. Fishwood, Mrs. C.E. Nichols, Mrs. Floyd Howerton, Mrs. R.L. Ulmer and Mrs. Henry A. Georgi served the refreshments of white cake and fruit punch at the reception. A three-tier white bride's cake, decorated with pink roses and ornamented by a miniature bride and groom on top, centered the reception room. Mrs. John L. Parriott, Mrs. Nelson H. Ulmer and Miss Edna Ulmer furnished flowers for the decorations in both sanctuary and reception rooms. The bride and groom left soon after the reception amidst a shower of confetti and in an appropriately decorated car, for a brief wedding trip, and will be at home by June 10 at their farm home ten miles from Grant Nebraska.

The bride wore a rose-colored traveling suit of butcher's linen with hat to match and black accessories. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. V.V. McArtor and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lambrecht, Grant; Mr. and Mrs. Joe McArtor, Plymouth; Mrs. A.B. Sobotka and Miss Arlene Sobotka, Crete; Don Kildare, Ogallala; Mr. and Mrs. Duane Dunning, Lincoln; Mrs. Eva Lyons, Auburn; Mrs. Kate Lyons, Peru; Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Notes for Dr. Alan Dale Fiala:

Dr. Alan Dale Fiala, astronomer and expert on solar eclipses, died on May 26, 2010 in Arlington, Virginia, of respiratory failure after a brief illness. He was 67. Fiala had been a staff astronomer at the U.S. Naval Observatory in Washington, D.C., for his entire professional career, where he rose from a position as a summer intern to become the Chief of the Nautical Almanac Office, responsible for annual publications for astronomy and navigation that are used the world over. He retired from the observatory in 2000. Although a childhood case of polio affected his mobility for the rest of his life, he seldom let his physical constraints limit his activities, which were many and varied.

Alan Fiala was born in Beatrice, Nebraska on November 9, 1942, the middle son of Emil A. (“John”) and Lora Marie Fiala. Fiala’s father was a postal clerk and Civil Service examiner. Fiala expressed interest in astronomy at a very young age. He contracted polio when he was 9. He graduated from Beatrice High School in 1960 with a straight-A average and went on to study at Carleton College. He received his B.A. summa cum laude after three years, in 1963, with a major in astronomy and minors in physics and mathematics. He was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi, and Pi Mu Epsilon (mathematics).

In 1962, Alan Fiala obtained a job as a summer intern at the Naval Observatory in Washington, working in the Nautical Almanac Office (NAO). He entered the graduate program at Yale University and continued to work summers at the observatory. He received his Ph.D. in 1968, under Gerald Clemence. His dissertation was titled "Determination of the Mass of Jupiter from a Study of the Motion of 57 Mnemosyne". After receiving his doctorate, Fiala became a permanent member of the Naval Observatory staff. Computers were just being introduced there and he participated in the automation of many procedures used to prepare the annual publications of the Nautical Almanac Office. One of his first assignments was to prepare a visual identification chart of the navigational stars to be used for backup navigation on Apollo 8 and several subsequent space missions.

In 1973, Alan Fiala was assigned to take over and modernize the prediction of solar and lunar eclipses. He developed software for calculating eclipse phenomena and generating eclipse maps that is still the basis of the computations at the observatory almost four decades later. As one of the world's experts on eclipse calculations, he was the lead author of the chapter on eclipse calculations in the 1992 Explanatory Supplement to the Astronomical Almanac, and was also the co-author of Canon of Lunar Eclipses 1500 B.C–A.D. 3000 with Bao-Lin Liu, the foremost Chinese expert. In 1979, Alan Fiala began a collaborative effort with two other colleagues, supported by NSF and NASA, to observe solar eclipses in order to detect possible long-term variations in the solar diameter. Fiala pioneered the use of portable video cameras to record the disappearance and reappearance of the Sun from behind the Moon's limb during an eclipse, as viewed from the edges of the central eclipse paths. He was the leader or co-organizer of expeditions to ten solar eclipses around the world and was the co-author of several articles on this project.

In 1996, Alan Fiala was appointed Chief of the Nautical Almanac Office. The office, which dates from 1849, is responsible for four annual publications that set the international standard for accuracy for positional astronomy and celestial navigation. Fiala made great progress in modernizing and standardizing the production process for the publications. He also began revision of the scientific basis of the books while adding complementary information on the Internet. Fiala was Chief of NAO during its sesquicentennial and, with Steven J. Dick, co-edited the Proceedings of the Nautical Almanac Office Sesquicentennial Symposium.

Alan Fiala received numerous awards during his career at the Observatory, including the Captain James Melville Gilliss Award for service. Minor planet 3695 Fiala was named in his honor on the occasion of his retirement in 2000. Alan Fiala was elected to the International Astronomical Union in 1976. He was also a member of the American Astronomical Society, Institute of Navigation, and several other professional societies. He served as the chair of the AAS Division on Dynamical Astronomy during its 25th year.

Alan Fiala had many interests outside of astronomy, including sports car racing. He started as a member of a racing team and continued as a volunteer official in technical inspection for the Sports Car Club of America. He was generous with his time, serving as a leader of citizens groups in Northern Virginia and a national organization for people with post-polio syndrome. Other interests included genealogy, gardening, photography, cooking, travel, languages, literature, and the arts. He was also a master beekeeper.

Fiala is survived by his two brothers, John and Kent. He was buried in Odell, Nebraska, not far from his childhood home. Fiala will be remembered fondly by his many friends and colleagues, who will miss his good humor and his meticulous approach to any subject he wished to master. Fiala's life was an inspiration to many, and he left behind a valuable legacy of work not just for astronomy, but also for the many organizations to which he donated his time.

A remembrance by Dave Ignat: Alan Fiala died May 26, 2010, in Arlington, VA from respiratory failure, one of the effects of polio contracted in youth. He graduated in 1963 with several awards, including magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa and the Sigma Xi prize, three years after entering Carleton with the class of 1964.In the Yale graduate program in astronomy he concentrated on celestial mechanics following the lead of professor Dirk Brouwer. At the US Naval Observatory he became expert on calculating voluminous data useful in studying solar eclipses, including precise measurement of the solar radius. On his retirement from the USNO in 2000 colleagues arranged to have his name assigned to an asteroid discovered in 1973, which is now "3695 Fiala." He had many interests outside of astronomy. When we were roommates in New Haven in 1963-1964 I found his regular attendance at pro wrestling in the arena across the street from our apartment an interesting contrast to his academic achievements. Later he was a member of a sports car racing team and a master beekeeper. Two formal obituaries: By George Kaplan, U.S. Naval Observatory In the Beatrice, Nebraska Daily Sun, June 4, 2010Dave IgnatUpdate: An Alumni Distinguished Achievement Award will be given posthumously to Alan Fiala at the Carleton College reunion in June 2013.

Alan Dale Fiala came to Carleton from Beatrice, Nebraska, the son of a postal clerk, and the second of three boys raised in a four-room house in a small prairie town. He was a brilliant student, graduating magna cum laude in three years with a major in astronomy and a minor in mathematics, elected to Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi and Pi Mu Epsilon. Although his degree was awarded in 1963, he always considered himself to be part of the Carleton class of 1964. During a summer break at Carleton, Al arranged an internship at the Naval Observatory in Washington, D.C., and after being awarded a Ph.D. in astronomy from Yale in 1968, he went on to spend his entire career at the Observatory, winning numerous awards as an internationally recognized astronomer.

Assigned in 1973 to modernize prediction of lunar and solar eclipses, Al developed software for calculating eclipse phenomena and created eclipse maps that are still the basis of computations at the Observatory. He wrote numerous articles and papers on eclipse calculations, and was leader or co-organizer of expeditions to ten solar eclipses around the world. In 1996, Al was appointed chief of the Nautical Almanac Office, where he'd been a summer intern in 1962. He was responsible for four annual publications that set the international standard for accuracy for positional astronomy and celestial navigation, modernizing them, revising their scientific basis, and overseeing public distribution through the Internet. He won frequent recognition during his observatory career, including the Captain James Melville Gilliss award for service. When he retired in 2000, his colleagues named a minor planet discovered in 1973 as "3695 Fiala" in his honor.

At age 9 in Nebraska, Al Fiala was diagnosed with polio, leaving him with impaired mobility and a lifetime of associated health issues. But he refused to allow his physical condition to define him, or to interfere with his incredibly diverse interests in science, music, sports, gardening, beekeeping, literature, cooking or travel. He learned to play the tuba during high school, and he even managed, as a young man, to join a sports car racing team as a mechanic. His brother John Fiala later noted Al's tenacity: "Alan went through several surgeries all alone at hospitals in Minneapolis. The surgeries were to put a rod in his spine, which partially straightened the scoliosis and increased his height by seven inches. His later work as a mechanic bending over that low Team Celtic Lotus strengthened his abdomen so that combined with the spine surgery, he could abandon his back brace."

Throughout his life, Al amazed friends with his positive outlook, his sense of humor, and his meticulous attention to detail in any project he decided to pursue. He was an inveterate sports fan, from Carleton and Yale football to professional wrestling. For nearly two decades, he was a regular at the Indianapolis 500. He loved to cook, and specialized in overseeing holiday dinners with his family. When his brother started doing genealogy research on his parents, Al pitched in enthusiastically, scheduling stops at libraries and courthouses in Illinois and Indiana, and even taking classes in the Czech language to try to help translate what they found. Al was blessed in his later years by his relationship with Mary McHugh, a longtime friend who joined his travel around the world and in the U.S. They particularly enjoyed driving to Garrison Keillor's "Prairie Home Companion" tapings in various places, including a European cruise featuring the entire cast.

As his brother John later recalled, "Mary's sudden tragic illness and death in 2008…was a devastating blow to Alan, and he did not ever really recover from the loss." An obituary prepared for the American Astronomical Association noted Alan's professional achievements, his inevitable good humor, his grace under adversity, and his constant willingness to donate his time to innumerable worthwhile causes. It concluded: "His life was an inspiration to many."

He was born 22 May 1889 in Gove Co, Kansas, and died 27 Jun 1974 in McCook, Red Willow Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Tillie Myrtle Heim:
Tillie Myrtle Heim was born September 2, 1893 at Dawson, Nebraska. Here she spent the growing years of her childhood and youth. Then 24 years ago, March 18, 1914 she was united in marriage to Mr. S.E. Richards. For a number of years Mr. and Mrs. Richards made their home at Humboldt, Nebraska. In 1929 they moved on a farm northeast of Culbertson. The next year they moved to their present location from which she so recently departed from this life. Three children, Harlen, Ramona, and Donajean were born to this home.

Mrs. Richards was reared in the Christian faith. Religion in her home was a very real thing, not only on Sundays, but seven days every week. As a result of this training and influence, she joined the Evangelical church early in her youth. After her marriage and when the family moved to Humboldt, she transferred her membership to the Presbyterian church of that community, and she was a member of this fellowship at the time of her death. Mrs. Richards was an energetic worker. Her enthusiasm often carried her beyond her strength. Her health broke about a year ago, and she never completely recovered her strength after this illness. Early this spring she had another attack which proved to be the beginning of her last sickness. During these days she leaned heavily upon her God and because of this fact, it was a pleasure to minister to her spiritual needs. She prayed fervently and her faith and hope were strengthened and brightened as her bodily energy diminished.

Death came Wednesday afternoon, June 15, 1938. She was 44 years, 9 months, and 13 days old. She leaves to mourn her going her husband, S.E. Richards; her three children, Harlan, Ramona, and Donajean; one grandchild, Shirley Ann; also her father and mother of Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. S.F. Heim; and five brothers and sisters: Mrs. Clark Belden of Buffalo, Montana; Mrs. Adah James of Dawson; Melvin Heim of Dawson; Mrs. Charles Bilsing of Culbertson; and Rev. R.A. Heim of Lincoln, besides many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Evangelical Church with the Rev. H.A. Norenberg officiating and the Pade&Herrman Funeral Directors of McCook in charge. Special numbers were sung by a quartet consisting of Mrs. H.A. Norenberg, Mrs. George Hein, Alex Eisenach, and Bernard Gillespie. Ronald Clark sang a solo. Interment was in the Culbertson cemetery. The church was filled with sympathizing friends and the many beautiful and large floral pieces reflected the esteem in which she was held by the communities in which she had resided.

Mrs. Richards was a former president of the Presbyterian Working and was vice president this year. She had also been re-elected as secretary of the Culbertson Woman's Club this spring, which duties she had faithfully performed last year. Among her many other duties she took time to act as East Riverside correspondence for The Progress, who are indeed sorry to lose her as one of their correspondents.

Notes for Philip Arthur Bilsing:
Culbertson, Nebraska - Philip A. Bilsing, 26, of Culbertson, a state highway employee, was crushed to death Tuesday June 27, 1950 while unloading lumber on a siding here. Bilsing was with a state crew building a bridge south of Culbertson. C. J. Schuster, construction engineer on the bridge, said he had learned that Bilsing was on top of a flatcar full of lumber loosening the tie straps, when the loosened lumber slipped and threw him to the ground. The lumber then fell on top of him.

Philip Bilsing, 27, a member of the state highway department crew that is constructing a steel span bridge across the Republican river here, was fatally injured at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, when he was crushed beneath a pile of heavy bridge timbers that fell from a railroad flatcar located on a siding east of the Culbertson Sale Barn. Bilsing and other members of the crew were preparing to unload the 4 x 12-inch timbers of 20-foot length when the accident occurred. He and Joe Ortiz had removed three of the side stakes from the car and were in the act of taking out the fourth and last stake when about a dozen of the huge timbers, weighing around 700 pounds apiece, toppled and fell. Ortis managed to get out of the way, but Bilsing was crushed to the ground beneath the pile. Dale Lantis who was on top of the car came down with the timbers and received a badly bruised right shoulder.
Bilsing never regained consciousness and died before the arrival of a doctor and ambulance from McCook, about half an hour after the accident. He had been working with the state highway crew here for three or four months. Chest injuries are said to have caused his death. One of his legs was also fractured in several places.
He is survived by his wife and a four-months-old daughter, Penny. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bilsing, farm residents south of Culberson, are his parents.
Funeral services are to be held in the Evangelical U.B. Church in Culbertson tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. M.G. Braun officiating. The body will lie in state at the church from 10:00 a.m. to noon that day.

She gave her heart to Christ as a child and united with the Evangelical church of Blue Springs, where her father was pastor. she graduated from the Dawson high school, in 1924 and from Westmar College in 1928. She entered nurses training in the University of Iowa, but after two year was forced to discontinue because of a serious break in health. Her goal was to become a missionary nurse. She was united in marriage to the Rev. Richard A. Heim on June 6, 1931, and the couple established their home on their first appointment in Fremont. She served as mistress of the parsonages at Fremont, Ithaca, Lincoln Calvary, and Murdock Churches. For eleven years she carried most of the home responsibilities alone while her husband traveled the western part of Nebraska as conference superintendent.

For a number of years, she served as a n executive officer of the Nebraska Branch of the Women's Society of World Service. The only limitation to her service were the limits of her strength and endurance, which were often exceed without complaint. She leaves in a loneliness her parents, Rev. and Mrs. William W. Unterkoffler of Lincoln. He husband, Richard of Murdock, a son Robin and daughter Marilyn at home, one brother Paul of Los Angeles, California, and one sister Mrs. Ester Handorf of Reading, Pennsylvania. One son, Stanley Conwell, preceded her in death in 1941. She was a gracious hostess, a meticulous homemaker, and a careful guardian of her family. Her first and last concerns were for them. She was a peacemaker among people, a counterbalance for her husband, and a careful seeker to do the will of God.

Funeral services were conducted on Sept. 24th at the Murdock Evangelical United Brethren Church Conference Superintendent dr. John F. Wichelt of Kearney officiated, and the Reverend Doyle Hays of hastings delivered the funeral address. Interment was in the Heim cemetery at Dawson.

721. Marian True[8] Stratton (Mary Louise[7] Heim, Rosina[6], Rosina[5] Wagner, Christina Barbara[4] Herthneck, Johann Michael[3], Caspar[2], Johannes[1]) was born 11 Nov 1895 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 16 Nov 1991 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. She married Reuben Lauren Ulmer 16 Jun 1915 in Brownville, Nebraska, son of Emanuel Ulmer and Sarah Heim. He was born 24 Feb 1893 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 30 Jul 1973 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Reuben Lauren Ulmer:
Reuben Ulmer (1893-1973) bought from his father, Emanuel Ulmer, 80 acres of treeless untilled land, bordered on three sides by farms of brothers and a sister, Reuben never traveled outside Richardson County until he went to Brownville to marry True Stratton (1895) in 1915.
Osage orange hedges were planted as fences and windbreaks which, when grown, provided fence posts and firewood (cut by axe) an grew again to posts and firewood.

Reuben built a barn and outbuildings and helped build the house. (In retirement he was a carpenter.) He and True landscaped the house area with elm and maple trees around a curving drive to the house and dreamed of when there would be enough shade for their children to play in: Marian (Leatherman) and Evelyn of Dawson; Lorraine (Shorney), Plattsmouth; Sylvia (Anderson), Springfield, Missouri; Ernest, New York City; and Nadine (Hill), Gresham, Oregon.

Reuben and True contributed much to the Dawson Evangelical Church, including as choir director, pianist and organist, and as musicians for funerals. True was a piano teacher for many years. The children all played musical instruments, encouraged by Ruby Brown, who involved nearly every Dawson school pupil in the music program. Ernest went on, following service in World War II, to a career as concert pianist and professor at the Manhattan School of Music in New York.

A progressive conservationist, Reuben planted many trees and in the 19305 an acre of hackberry trees, which did not survive the drought and were replaced by Chinese elm. The drought years of the 1930s were hard for the family and for scores of destitute men and even whole families plodding down the highway in summer, for whom Reuben and True provided food and shelter.

After 1940 the county gave support to the Stratton Cemetery near Verdon, which had been started by True's paternal grandmother – interesting because the Heim cemetery in Dawson was started by True's maternal grandparents.

Reuben and True's married life spanned changes from breaking sod by single horse-drawn walking plow to tractors; from kerosene lamps to electricity by Delco generator to the Rural Electrification Administration, with its aim of bringing electricity to every farm (Reuben was instrumental in bringing it to the county), with refrigerators replacing the old cooling method of lowering containers of food into the well by ropes anchored to a well box; from travel by horse and buggy with a heated soapstone for warmth in winter, to seeing by television man on the moon.

Marian and Wayne Leatherman now own Reuben and True's farm, where they raised five children, and brought modern equipment and methods to the farm. Their daughter Linda was the first fourth generation graduate of Dawson High School in 1964, being the great-granddaughter of Mary Heim Stratton, who graduated in 1891 in Dawson's first graduating class of five persons.

Reuben L. Ulmer, 80, Dawson, died Monday July 30, 1973 at Falls City. Survivors: wife, True: son, Reuben, New York City; Daughters, Evelyn, Mrs. Allen (Lorraine) Shorney, both Plattsmouth, Mrs. Dale (Sylvia) Anderson, Springfield, Missouri, Mrs. Wayne (Marian) Leatherman, Dawson, Mrs. Ron (Nadine) Hill, Gresham, Oregon, sisters, Mrs. Mary Wuster, Edna, both Humboldt; 13 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren.

Ernest R. Ulmer age 90 of Lincoln, formerly of Dawson, NE. Passed away Saturday, February 25, at the Gateway Senior Living Center in Lincoln, Nebraska. A funeral service for Ernest Ulmer will be held Saturday, March 3, at 10:30 a.m. at the Methodist Church in Humboldt, Nebraska. Burial will follow at the Hiem Cemetery near Dawson, Nebraska. Military Graveside Honor will be provided by the Humboldt American Legion Honor Guard and the Army National Guard Honor Guard. No viewing or visitation is scheduled for Ernest Ulmer.

Ernest Ulmer was born May 18, 1921, in the home of Reuben and True Ulmer north of Dawson, Nebraska. He began his study of piano at the age of three with his mother and the study of violin at age 7 with his father. He attended Peru State College with his two sisters in 1938 for one year.

The following year he stayed home. In 1940, he began piano studies under Earnest Harrison at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln. While there he also studied violin and organ. He obtained a bachelor's degree in abstentia, graduating two months early so he could go to the Army.

He was drafted into the Army in March of 1943 and attended basic training at Camp Roberts in California before being transferred to Ft. Custer, Michigan. In January of 1944 he was sent overseas, serving in France, Germany, Belgium and England for two years, landing on Normandy Beach 6 days after D-Day. Following the war, he studied at Trinity College in London with Nicolas Medtner and Marguerite Wolfe while awaiting passage to the United States. He was honorably discharged in 1946 from the Army.

When he returned to the States, he attended the University of Nebraska at Lincoln and received his Masters' degree in 1947. Subsequently in 1947 under the GI bill, he studied at Manhattan School of Music in New York under Harold Bauer and Dora Zaslavsky, and in Paris during the summer of 1948 with Robert Casadesus and at the Paris Conservatoire in 1948-1949. While at the Conservatoire, he was awarded a Premier Prix in piano. In Paris he also studied privately with Nadia Boulanger, the distinguished harmony, counterpoint, piano and composition teacher whose other students included such distinguished American composers as Aaron Copland and Elliott Carter. With Boulanger, Ernest pursued a rigorous course of study in harmony and counterpoint as well as examining a vast repertoire ranging from Monteverdi madrigals through the Bach cantatas to the music of Debussy, Ravel, and Stravinsky. After Boulanger's death, a collection of Ernest's letters to Boulanger were privately published in France with the title, "Spet lettres de Ernest Ulmer a Nadia Boulanger, 1959-1979." He also made frequent appearances with the conducting class of Eugene Bigot. He returned to New York in 1949 as a student at Manhattan School of Music, and received his Masters' Degree prior to teaching there. He became a professor of piano at Manhattan School of Music in 1956 and served as Co-Coordinator of the Piano Major Department starting in 1965. He taught there for 34 years prior to his retirement in 1990. In 1991 he received a Distinguished Faculty Citation from the school.

His debut performance in New York City was in 1950 and throughout his career he played numerous concerts in New York City at Manhattan School of Music, Town Hall (initially in 1954, "the place" to perform solo in New York City at that time), Kaufman Auditorium, two concerts at Carnegie Recital Hall, as well as concerts in the major capitals of Europe (1957-1958) and in southeast Nebraska. On March 9, 1960, the New York Times described his performance of the night before as "brilliant," "meticulous as to detail and performed with much grace." His playing was also described as "quite delightful." He was also invited to perform concertos with various local and regional orchestras during a period when every city in the United States of any size had a first rate orchestra.

In addition to his tours as a soloist, Mr. Ulmer toured the United States with chamber ensembles and the Robert Shaw Chorale (1951-1952). He was an accompanist for Ruggiero Ricci, Cleve Genzlinger, Carol Feurer, and Mrs. Ruth Lloyd (mother of actor Christopher Lloyd and Sam Lloyd). He made ensemble appearances with Camilla Wicks and the Manhattan Trio, of which he was a founding member in 1952. The two other members were Manhattan School colleagues, violinist Oliver Colbentson and cellist David Wells. The Trio regularly performed live concerts on the radio in the 1950's.

His favorite composer was Claude Debussy and he recorded the Debussy Violin Sonata with Oliver Colbentson for Concert Hall Records and in 1979, Ernest recorded his only solo album, a complete recording of Debussy's two books of Preludes for piano solo on Protone records. Stereo Review described the latter recording as "a major contender among the fine recordings of these works." He also received a rave review from Harris Goldsmith in High Fidelity magazine.

In 1988, the Vantage Press published Ernest's book on piano technique, A New Approach to Piano Technique for the Serious Musician.

In 1993-1994 he traveled to Japan, where he taught piano at Kobe College for Women for a year before returning to the United States.

Ernest was known as a French specialist, frequently performing the music of Debussy and Ravel, but his favorite composers included the three B's, Bach, Beethoven, and Brahms. Like many other musicians, Ernest was dazzled by Bach's compositional technique and he studied the contrapuntal writing in the two books of Bach's The Well-Tempered Clavier in microscopic detail. He also arranged some of Bach's organ compositions for the piano.

In the summers of the early 1980's, he traveled throughout Spain, Italy, and Switzerland with his good friend Don Edman, another American pianist trained in Paris. They met in Manhattan in the early 1950's. They were lifelong friends. Ernest's friends included artists, musicians, writers, and intellectuals who met at the home of painter John Koch and his wife, Dora Zaslavsky, a noted piano coach under whom Ernest studied. Ernest indicated he became acquainted with this couple through his friend, Mrs. Lloyd. Ernest was actually featured in several of Mr. Koch's paintings, one of which hung in his own living room for many years. In 2007 he donated this painting to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. The paintings he owned at one time were featured in a showing at a New York gallery in the late 1990's, and in a book published about Mr. Koch. He also collected paintings by Jean Minard and Maurice Grosser.

In addition to art, he collected matchbooks, stamps and coins from all over the world. He took numerous pictures while traveling in Europe. Ernest moved to Florida in 1995 to enjoy his retirement years, continuing to perform when requested for friends. He returned to Nebraska in 2003 to be closer to family. His family frequently requested performance of "The Canary," a piece he composed, as well as many others. After being in ill health for several years, Ernest died peacefully in his room at Gateway Senior Living in Lincoln, Nebraska on February 25, 2012. Ernest was preceded in death by his parents, and two sisters Evelyn Ulmer and Lorraine Shorney.

He is survived by his sisters Sylvia Anderson of Sprigfield, Missouri; Marian Leatherman of Dawson, Nebraska; Nadine Hill of Gresham, Oregon; nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

The days are long but made much shorter knowing you in my heart. Just as the days of a flower are spent in preparation, growing deeper so the blossom can be even more beautiful-just for you. The footprint you placed in my soul brings joy that can never be taken away. And now that distance separates, makes the past so much more precious bringing life into my soul. Counting the ways as each step is taken toward THE DAY of our rejoicing!

Vermaas, Humboldt, Mrs. Pearl M. Kirkwood, Columbus, Ohio. Services: 3:30 p.m. Sunday, United Methodist Church, Dawson. Heim Cemetery, Dawson.

Arthur William Heim - August 12, 1909 - April 29, 1982 was the sixth child of Jonathan W. and Louisa Shafer Heim of Dawson. With his brothers and sisters, Mattie, Howard, Wesley, Pearl, and Edith (Clarence died in infancy), Arthur grew up on the family farm in the house built In 1874 by his grandparents, Jacob G, and Regina Gross Heim, Jacob G. (Jakey to friends and neighbors) and Regina and family were pioneer German settlers from, Pennsylvania who came to Nebraska seeking richer, less rocky farmland than they had in the East.

As a boy Arthur ranged up and down the farm's creeks, enjoyed the cold permanent spring that had caught his grandfather's eye, collected bird' eggs, and learned to farm, He soon began his lifelong interest in music. All Jonathan's children sang well and had excellent pitch, and Arthur settled into a true, mid-tenor voice. He took violin lessons as a teenager, riding the train to Humboldt once a week, played violin in the Dawson church orchestra, and was in demand for violin solos in the community,

Arthur attended elementary and high school in Dawson, walking to school over the farm fields. After high school graduation in 1927, he attended the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, where he went out for track, took banjo lessons, and began a liberal arts course. After one semester, Arthur returned to Dawson: his father had suffered a serious farm accident and could no longer work the farm. Arthur began farming the home place in 1929 and farmed for his entire life. In November 1934, he married the youngest child of Clarence and Mary' Heim Stratton, Lucile Marie born October 4,1910, whose sisters and brothers were True, John, Isaiah, and Helen (another child, Mary, lived only a few days). Arthur and Lucile had known of each other since childhood, and their friendship grew at first, not surprisingly, around music - Lucile was a talented pianist who could play all the popular jazz songs of the 1920's. Arthur and Lucile had two children, Alan Arthur born in 1937, and Lorna Mary born in 1941. They maintained their interest in music, teaching their children very early to sing and to play instruments. In the 1950's, Lucile directed the Ladies Chorus at Dawson, a group who sang for many church and community events. Both Art and Lucile lent their talents to musical variety shows, well known in the Dawson community in the 1940's and 1950's, and to church programs and plays.

Arthur Heim, a meticulous farmer, was interested in conservation of water and topsoil, terracing, good fences and floodgates, and clean and well-kept buildings, fields, and pastures, Arthur retired from full-time farming in 1971 and began renting the use of his row-crop ground. He remained very vigorous, however, raising cattle, mending and replacing fences, cutting hedge, putting up hay, mowing pastures and fencerows, improving the family home and buildings, and managing, Retirement did give him more time to read, a lifelong hobby, and to continue many activities in his beloved United Methodist• Church in Dawson, In his last winter, at 72, he reorganized a choir at the Dawson church; selected music, and rehearsed and directed the choir in both Christmas and Easter seasons.

Four generations have now lived in the large, native limestone and white pine house north of Dawson. Few are now left to recount the experience, but the house and farm remain as a tribute to the Pennsylvania family who brought their faith and hopes to Richardson County in 1874.

Notes for Jonathan W. Heim:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis,

Indiana; page 1086:

Jonathan W. Heim is another of those Richardson county farmers who have come to this part of Nebraska from the old Keystone state and who have become owners of land on extensive scale. He lives on a farm on which his father settled in July, 1874, containing eighty acres of land in section 15, Grant precinct, and is the owner of one hundred and sixty acres in section 10 and another tract of eighty acres west of Henry Heim's place. He was born on August 11, 1861, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of the same county and state. Who settled in Richardson County in 1874.

When Jacob G. Heim settled here he bought eighty acres of land on which his son, Jonathan W., now resides. He proceeded at once to prepare the ground for crops and was in a fair way to make a success of his work, when in common with the other settlers he suffered from the plague of grasshoppers which visited Nebraska in 1874. The first year spent on his new holding was a hard one; in addition to the grasshopper pests, it turned out to be a dry year and vegetation did not thrive. He also suffered the loss of two children. His courage, however, did not desert him and by perseverance and industry he prospered, later buying, another half section of land.

Jonathan W. Heim-was about twelve years of age when he came with his parents from Pennsylvania to the state of Nebraska. He was educated in the district schools and in Dawson, this county. He helped his father on the farm and later bought one hundred and sixty acres of land from his father. On this tract he commenced farming operations on his own account and meeting with a fair measure of success, he added to his holdings by the further purchase of eighty acres. Some time before his father's death he bought out the home place, the father having gone to reside in Dawson, and here ever since he has continued to make his home. The house in which he resides is nicely situated back from the road on a hillside, with a nice grove of walnut trees in the rear. The house and outbuildings are all in excellent condition. By his thrift and industry Mr. Heim has been in a position to pay cash for all his land.

On December 26, 1894, Jonathan W. Heim was united in marriage to Louisa Shafer, who was born on October 20, 1872, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a daughter of Samuel and Mary (Heim) Shafer, who now reside in Canada, just across the border eight miles west of Buffalo. They formerly lived in Nebraska and later went to the western portion of this state. Sometime later they went to Dickerson County, Kansas, and remained there for a number of years and in the late nineties moved to Iowa, going from there to the old home place in Pennsylvania. From the latter place they moved to Canada, across from Buffalo, about three miles from Lake Erie and now reside in a settlement among his church people, the Brethren in Christ. Mr. and Mrs. Heim are the parents of seven children, namely: Mattie M., Howard John, Pearl Mary, Wesley Laurence, all at home; Clarence Walter, who died at the age of three years; Arthur William and Edith Viola, both at home. Mr. and Mrs. Heim and family are members of the United Evangelical church and take a proper interest in all church matters. Mr. Heim is a supporter of the Republican Party, but has never been a seeker after office.

Notes for Robert Thurston Pinnell:

Lee's Summit, Missouri – A man and his wife were killed here late today April 20, 1950 when a gasoline truck was struck by a Missouri Pacific train. The accident victims were Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Pinnell at Lee's Summit. Pinnell is an operator of an independent gasoline company. Pinnell, about 40, was driving the truck and his wife was riding the cab beside him. The train was a mixed train of about 10 freight cars and express cars enroute to Kansas City.

The impact crushed the cab and a gasoline container on the truck. Both victims were believed to have been killed instantly. Part of the truck was carried four and a half blocks before the train could be brought to a stop. Mr. and Mrs. Pinnell are the parents of two girls, both of whom in school at the time of the accident.

The accident happened about three blocks from the center of business district of Lee's Summit. R. J. Lierman of Sedalia, Missouri, the engineer, and R. B. Luebbert of Jefferson City, Missouri, were burned about the face and neck. They said the first they knew of the accident was when flames began leaping through the engine cab. A freight car, directly behind the engine tender, caught fire but quickly extinguished. Pinnell's body was thrown out of the cab but his wife was caught the wreckage and dragged down track by the train. Her body beneath the engine tender and the engine had to be jacked up to remove it. The wreckage caused the pilot wheels on the engine to jump the track but the cars of the train, which was made up mostly of mail cars, remained upright.

Lee's Summit, Missouri – Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Pinnell of Lee's Summit were killed and two trainmen suffered burns in a truck-train collision here yesterday April 20, 1950. The victims were in a gasoline tank truck that burst into flames when hit by the Missouri Pacific mail train. R. J. Liorman of Sedalia, the engineer, and R. B. Leubbert of Jefferson City, the firemen, were burned about the face and hands as the flames swept up around the locomotive. Neither was injured dangerously. Pinnell, 35, was a bulk agent for a petroleum company. He and his wife, 31, were parents of two daughters.

Notes for Robert Edmond Evans:
Bob Evans by Shirley Allen recalls memories of her brother Bob Evans on February, 2008 as told to her granddaughter Sharie Clausen
Bob Evans was very tall. He was 6 feet or more and very slim and handsome and all the girls were after him. I guess he'd say we were poor but we lived on the west end of town on the edges so we weren't considered as poor as the others were poor. It was very divided. So being the tall handsome guy – one of the rich families' daughter latched on to him and wanted to grab him and he did date her for a while and it was very funny because the Curry's were regarded as upper class. Everybody was amused at it. Jackie Curry just really latched on to him.

Finally it simmered down and it didn't continue. Probably her folks got after her, "Don't get into that family."

Bob Evans was very talented and he wrote books and I am so sorry that he didn't publish. Oh, he did publish and someone gave the folks or Ruth something that he published when he was in the army and I don't know what it was or when it was. I'll ask Ruth, she probably remembers. He wrote all kinds of things and he turned towards horror tales. He'd tell Ralph and I things just to scare us. He'd tell us what was in the closet and we wouldn't go near that closet. He was always doing stuff like that. So I don't know to a point, Chet (Shirley's son) may be a lot like Bob Evans, but just to a point, because that is what Chet used to do to Tim (Shirley's youngest son); tell him scary stuff. He would show him pictures; he was always drawing pictures of scary stuff. Chet could draw really well.

While he (Bob) was in the army, he was in the military police and he was in England and met Margaret. It was a big deal and he got married in England.

Bob Evans had a really strange life, I guess so did Ralph; I guess everybody has a strange life when you get down to it, really.

He was in the invasion or right after the invasion of Germany and he was wounded.

Notes for Robert Damon, Jr.:
Robert "Junior" Damon, 26, popular young man of Millersburg, has fought his last battle for life. Thrice during a near tragic youth, which seemed unjustly crowed with misfortune, he has hurtled upon the doorstep of death. First he escaped a watery grace when, after a long struggle, he was hauled from the freezing, swollen waters of the old Killbuck Creek in the dead of winter while ice skating with a part of young friends.
Not long afterward he narrowly missed being killed when shot thru the leg by a thoughtless marksman shooting target in the direction of a group of boys who were playfully wrestling on a hillside.
Still late he was again subjected to grave danger when accidentally struck by a horseshoe at the local horseshoe courts when fractured his skull. But on each occasion a strong will to live enabled him to gain his health and mature into manhood among an enlarged and ever growing circle of friends.
Then, without warning, he was stricken by an unseen and fatal assailant - streptococcus meningitis. After a brief illness of only two days he expired at 11:30 Sunday night at the Pomerene Memorial Hospital.
Mr. Damon was born October 17, 1912, in Millersburg. He attended school here and was graduated from high school with the class of 1930. While enrolled at MHS, Junior, as he was known to everyone, was prominent in the affairs of the school and in athletics, playing on both the varsity football and basketball teams.
On September 7, 1935, he was united in marriage to Kathleen Teisher, who survives. Mr. Damon was a member of the Methodist church and for the past two years has been employed by the Standard Oil Service Station here...

Marriage Notes for Robert Decker and Dorothy Shaver:

The soft tone of the carved woodwork, blue velvet draperies and carpet in Bridges Hall of Music on Pomona college campus made the effective background for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Lucretia Shaver and Robert Edward Decker Sunday afternoon August 3, 1952. Gladioli and hybrid delphinium lighted by myriads of candles in candelabra were at the altar. The cross and candles were used in the chapel during the time the bride and groom attended Pomona, while the altar cloth or organdy and lace was made by the grandmother and great-grandmother of the bride. The Rev. Bertrand Hause, former rector of the Holy Trinity Episcopal church, read the 5:30 p.m. service which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley B. Shaver, E. Badillo Street and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Decker of Pomona.

The bride wore a gown of nylon net, designed and made by herself. White satin edged the pleated ruffles making the three-tiered skirt and point venise roses beaded with seed pearls were appliqued on the bodice and long train. Her illusion veil was held in place by a spray of orange blossoms from her mother's wedding veil. The bridal bouquet was white orchids, stephanotis and lily of the valley. A strand of matched pearls, a gift from her aunt, Mrs. Robert Hartless, completed her costume. Her father gave her in marriage.

In pretty contrast to the bride's white gown was the rich winter rose tone of the attendants' dresses. Identically styled, the girls' gowns were of nylon net over matching satin with bodice top blouse and ballerina skirts. Their flowers were shower bouquets of pink roses accented with blue delphinium. Mrs. Arthur Hensel of Palo Alto served matron of honor while Miss Carol Decker, sister of the groom, was the matron of honor. Others in the entourage, all college and high school friends of the bride, were Miss Shirley Tedder, San Francisco; Mrs. Fred Tellum, Palo Alto, Mrs. Phillip Arnot, Redwood City as bridesmaids with Miss Beth McHann, Chico; and Miss Barbara Ann Hartless, River Forest, Illinois, cousins of the bride, as junior bridesmaids. Mrs. Earl Colver served as chancellor at the chapel.

The candle lighters, also the bride's cousins, were John McHann, Glendora; and Robert Briggs Hartless II of Forest River. Serving as best man was Richard Decker, Berkley. The ushers included Harlan Harmsen, James Charnholm, Richard Gist, Kenneth Venolia, Craig Hubbel and William Byers, all Pomona college friends. The men in the wedding party all wore white jackets. Wedding music was supplied by Roy Adams of Pomona at the organ, playing the traditional Lohengrien wedding march and accompanying the soloist, Martin Johnson of Pomona as he sang "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The 500 guests were received after the ceremony in the attractive gardens of the Shaver home. Friends of the family and school friends of the bride served as hostesses and assisted with serving the cakes. Mrs. Shaver was gowned in champaign Chantilly Ince combined with nylon net with which she wore a matching hat and pale pink accessories while the groom's mother chose a dusty rose crepe and lace gown, Navy hat and pink corsage. Dorothy is the granddaughter or well-known southland pioneers. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McHann. E. Workman Avenue. She is a graduate of the local schools, Pomona college where she was a popular campus member, serving as honorary colonel at the military ball, homecoming queen on Alumni Day and princess of the Women's May Day. During her senior year she was sponsor for the freshman girls. Last year she was on the teacher's staff at Los Altos. Her husband also claims Pomona as his alma mater. He has done graduate work at Stanford and had training for CPA at San Francisco School of Accounting and is now employed with Charles Ross Accounting firm in Riverside. To make the day complete for the Shaver family, Dorothy's brother, Pvt. Stanley Shaver Jr. arrived home the morning of the wedding from Fort Holabird, Baltimore, Maryland. For her going away ensemble, Dorothy wore a softly tailored suit in a cocoa shade accented with white cuffs and collar. Her shoes and bag were reptile. After a honeymoon at an undisclosed spot, the newlyweds will be at home in Riverside.

1123. Karen Josephine[9] Neff (James Charles[8], Joseph Charles[7], Joseph[6], Christina Catharina[5] Wagner, Christina Barbara[4] Herthneck, Johann Michael[3], Caspar[2], Johannes[1]) was born 20 Apr 1942. She married Howard Albert Seckel. He was born 05 Aug 1938 in Marion, Ohio, and died 25 Mar 2022.

Notes for Howard Albert Seckel:

On August 5, 1938, God made a farmer, Howard Albert Seckel. He lived for 83 years, farming the land and tending to his livestock in Caledonia, until he was called to his heavenly home on Friday, March 25, 2022, at the Kingston Residence with his loving family by his side following an extended illness. Howard was born in Marion, Ohio, the oldest of four children of the late Albert M. and Vera Mae (Smith) Seckel. Growing up, he was raised attending Trinity Baptist Church, and he started working with his father on the family farm as soon as he was able. His favorite toy was a corn picker, made out of wood, which he still has. He also graduated from Claridon High School in the class of 1956.

In 1960, Howard took a short break from farming to honor his commitment, being drafted to serve in the US Army. During his three years in the military, he was prepared to serve in the Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba, and one of his primary duties was sewing tents and fixing sewing machines for his comrades. In 1963, Howard returned home to work on the family farm and he resumed his school bus route for Claridon and River Valley Schools that he started before heading into the Army. Along the way, he met a school teacher at River Valley, Karen Neff, and from there the rest is history. Howard and Karen were married on June 3, 1967, and shared fifty four loving years of marriage. Together they raised two children: Keith and Amy. Later in life, when asked what his proudest achievement was, he didn't hesitate to share that it was: "Finding Karen".

Always looking up to his father, Howard proudly followed in his footsteps, carrying on their family farming tradition. During his seventy plus years of farming, he cared for all kinds of livestock: sheep, pigs, goats, geese, chickens, and rabbits, though he was most known for his cattle, which his grandfather, Harold "Clay" Smith, helped him get his start with. Howard carried on the farm alongside his brother, Gerald aka "Peanut", sharing in the duties of their family's farming operations. Howard will rest peacefully knowing his son, and grandsons too will carry on the family farm, just like he did for his father. A tireless worker who could fix anything, Howard added another job to his life in 1969, when he became the Service Manager for NU Supply, Inc. He worked there until the family business closed in 2001, because of the death of the owner.

In addition to farming, driving school bus, and being service manager at NU Supply Inc., Howard had a fourth job, which was more of a hobby than work for him. This "job" stemmed back from early childhood experiences of deaths in the family, and the impressions made on him by the local funeral director who cared for their family, Harold "Pop" Denzer Sr. So much so, Howard considered going to mortuary school, but chose instead to help his father with their family farm. Nevertheless, starting from the age of 18, Howard would go in to the Schaffner-Denzer Funeral Home and help however he could. Many throughout the Marion community will remember him for his warm, jovial personality as they came through the doors of the funeral home for visiting hours or a funeral. He welcomed you in with an ornery smile with a toothick, and a cinnamon candy in his hand. He helped Pop Denzer and Harold Denzer Jr. from 1956 to 1975. He then helped Gene Farison and Jack Hottinger with the Denzer-Farison-Hottinger Funeral Home from 1975 to 2006. He was there again to help Chad Snyder with the Snyder Funeral Homes, Denzer Chapel, from 2006 until as long as he was able. There is a bronze plaque with his likeness on the wall next the front entrance, to honor his years of service to the funeral home.

Very faithful, Howard was a dedicated member of the Prospect Street United Methodist Church, where he served the church in many capacities and however he could. He served on the pastor parish committee, finance committee, and as a trustee. He also loved being a greeter, usher, and helping with their live nativity scene every year. He served on the Claridon Township zoning board for fifty plus years, and was a member and past president of the Lions Club. He was a member of the Marion County Farm Bureau. He volunteered for Mobile Meals, and at the Marion County Fairgrounds, helping fix many of their buildings over the years. He especially enjoyed helping his grandsons with their cattle they took to the Marion County Fair every year. Having a heart of gold, Howard was truly was one of the most selfless people you could ever meet. His many candy apple red trucks, always had a regular route he would take to stopping to see how he could help, whether it was stopping at the church, the funeral home, regularly visiting friends at the nursing home, and on and on. He would give endlessly, never wanting anything in return. He also had his canine companion pugs, Bella and Susie, in his truck with him, with their tongues hanging out the window to greet you.

Left to cherish his memory are his beloved wife, Karen Seckel; two children: Keith Seckel, and Amy (Brad) Sponseller; four grandchildren: Kory, Klay, and Kaleb Seckel, and Sophia Sponseller; three siblings: Gerald "Peanut" (Diana K) Seckel, Mary Anne Seckel, and Janis (Donald) Parthemore; and numerous nieces and nephews.

His family will greet friends from 4 – 7 pm on Wednesday, March 30, 2022, at the Snyder Funeral Homes, Denzer Chapel, 360 E. Center St., Marion. Services honoring his life will be held at 10 am on Thursday, at the Prospect Street United Methodist Church (address below), with Pastors Josh Freshour and Joseph Miller officiating. Burial with military honors provided by the Marion County United Veterans Council will follow in Claridon Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Marion Community Foundation, c/o A.B. & Hazel Augenstein Scholarship Fund supporting River Valley High School students, and to Prospect Street United Methodist Church, 185 S. Prospect St., Marion, Ohio 43302. On behalf of his family, they would like to extend a heartfelt "Thank you" to all the amazing caregivers who helped Howard this past year; everyone from the DeWolfe Place, Kingston Residence, and Tranquility Hospice. They will never be able to thank you enough for all you did. Snyder Funeral Homes, Denzer Chapel, are honored to serve Howard's family and will forever be grateful for his decades of service to the Denzer Funeral Home and it's successors.

Notes for Eli Raymond Shaheen:

The Rev. E. Raymond Shaheen, special assistant to the president of Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, died on Dec. 12, 2006, at Nottingham Village in Northumberland. A pastor and ambassador, Raymond was affectionately referred to as “Padre” within the Susquehanna University family. Raymond was born May 9, 1915, in Williamsport, the son of Eli Shaheen, a Lebanese immigrant, and his wife, Ida Mae Borack. A graduate of Montoursville High School, he earned a bachelor of arts degree from Susquehanna University in 1937 and a divinity degree from Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary in 1940. That same year, he married the former Winifred Heim. They had two sons, David, who is now pastor of Christ Lutheran Community Church in Upper Darby, and Jon, who died in 1989. Raymond and Winifred enjoyed nearly 62 years of marriage together until her death in February 2002.

Raymond served as pastor of Messiah Lutheran Church in South Williamsport from 1940 until 1956 before moving his family to Silver Spring, Maryland, where he served as pastor of St. Luke Lutheran Church for 29 years. In addition, he wrote weekly columns for The Grit and Williamsport Sun-Gazette newspapers. During his tenure at St. Luke, Raymond served as Dean of the Washington District of the Maryland Synod and on the Executive Council of the Lutheran Church in America. In addition to this work, he conducted retreat sessions for military chaplains and church pastors, and served as a preacher and evangelist in India and South America.

Upon his retirement from St. Luke in 1985, he returned to his alma mater and volunteered for the next 20 years, twice as interim chaplain, in 1986 and 1996, and as special assistant to Susquehanna’s president. His devotion to Susquehanna University was exceptional. He coordinated numerous special events for alumni and students, and was special missioner for various local congregations. In 1990, he founded the Susquehanna University Institute for Lifelong Learning to provide educational and social opportunities for hundreds of older adults in the central Pennsylvania region as well as at branches in York and Silver Spring, Md. He guided and nurtured the institute’s growth over the next 11 years, bringing people together for fellowship and personal enrichment, before retiring as director in 2001.

Raymond was the inspiration for such awards as the Class of ’37 Scholarship, the Ruth Cunningham Scholarship Fund, the Stephen C. Fiedler Memorial Prize, the Pastor Raymond Shaheen Scholarship Endowment, and the Susquehanna University Institute for Lifelong Learning Scholarship. His achievements were honored in 1999 by the award of an honorary Doctor of Public Service degree from Susquehanna, and in 2002 he received the Alumni Association Award for Service from Susquehanna, in addition to the Alumni Award for Service in a Parish Setting from the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg. He was also awarded an honorary doctorate of divinity from Gettysburg College. Raymond was once quoted as saying, “I try to affirm the worth of every person I meet.” That goal was realized thousands of times over in the interactions he had with friends and first-time acquaintances alike. Raymond was a one-of-a-kind individual who had a special way of making us feel better in his presence. A kind word, an amusing anecdote, a provocative question or an encouraging insight ñ these were his trademarks.

Raymond is survived by a son, the Rev. David Shaheen, his wife Teri, and two grandsons, Timothy and Christopher. A memorial service at Susquehanna University will be planned and announced at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made to Susquehanna University, 514 University Avenue, Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania 17870, and will be added to existing scholarship funds honoring the Shaheen family.

Notes for Sara Fae Metzger:

Sara Fae Metzger Heim, 88, of Inselheim Road in South Hero and Allen Road in South Burlington, died of cancer on January 13, 2010, at the Vermont Respite House. She was born Dec. 13, 1921, in South Williamsport, Pennsylvania, daughter of Homer S. and Crissa (Bastian) Metzger. Her father was a district forester, and she grew up enjoying the streams and mountains of central Pennsylvania. She graduated in 1944 from Mansfield State Teachers College in Mansfield, Pa., with a degree in home economics, and for two years taught at Southold High School on Long Island. In 1946, she married David J. Heim, a Baptist minister. They lived in Boston, Massachusetts and Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, before moving to Burlington in 1955, when her husband began his 31-year pastorate at First Baptist Church. She returned to teaching in 1969 and taught home economics at Burlington High School until 1982. In retirement she frequently assisted as a volunteer in Burlington elementary schools. She was a beloved member of First Baptist Church, serving the congregation in countless ways behind the scenes. At the parsonage in Burlington and at the home she and her husband built (with the help of church members) on Lake Champlain in South Hero, she offered memorable hospitality to friends, parishioners, students, visiting speakers, and whoever needed a meal and a place to stay. In later years, she divided her time between South Hero, where she enjoyed participating in the life of the Congregational Church, and her apartment in Harborview/Allenwood sharing happily with many new friends in this community. She forged enduring friendships with people of all ages, entering deeply into their joys and sorrows. She loved sharing with others her own interests, especially her passion for antiques and for fruits and pies.

She leaves behind a brother, Homer B. Metzger, of Columbus, Ohio; three sons, Mark (wife Melissa Lewis Heim) of Newton Centre, Mass.; David (wife Barbara Hofmaier) of Oak Park, Illinois, and Peter (wife Laurie Schultz Heim) of Washington, D.C.; and five grandchildren, Sarah, Jacob, Daniel, David and Nicholas. Notes for Marc Bryan Entz:

Marc was raised in Moses Lake by his parents, Ned and Jeanette, where he attended Moses Lake schools K-12. He attended Central Washington University and received a BA in Business. At a young age, Marc was inquisitive and full of adventure. Marc was a handsome and intelligent young man who excelled in everything from academics to sports. He was a socially active youth who enjoyed a broad association of friends across many different "walks of life". He was always engaging and shared his love of life with his friends and siblings.

Marc was preceded in death by his father, Ned W. Entz; grandparents: Howard and Christine Trullinger, Herbert and Lillian Entz; Uncles: Thomas Murphy, Lowell and Warren Trullinger, Robert and David Entz, Cousins: LeAnna, Lindsay and Jessica. Marc is survived by his Mother, Jeanette; brother Ray (Jeanne); sister Tracy Risdon; three nephews Derek (Anna),and Justin Entz, Cooper Risdon; one niece Lindsey Risdon; many aunts, uncles, cousins, and extended family and friends.

Marc lost a long and arduous 43-year battle with mental illness and the arsenal of medications that took a lasting toll on his body. As we all do, his family and friends struggled with his illness along with him in silence. Whether trying to understand it, cope with it, or simply trying to be aware of it, it shaped our relationship with him. This personal struggle is more evident now than ever before. His death is a light teaching us that it was never important to understand or cope, but to enjoy the moments we had and let those moments create the space to just be present and available.

If you were a friend or family, you know the reality of life with mental illness. As you read this, we ask that you not turn away from this group of people but see them and engage them as part of our community. Embrace them and do not just look away, ignoring them and their circumstance. We cannot address mental illness if our first reaction is to turn away and avoid confronting them or the issues they endure. Be kind and love one another.

Funeral services will be held at 11 am Saturday, February 8, 2020, at the Grace United Methodist Church in Tiffin, where there will be a time of visitation from 9am Saturday until the services and following during the reception. Memorial donations can be made in Nona's memory to Grace United Methodist Church, Tiffin First Responders, or Essence of Life Hospice.

Nona L. Ludwig was born November 9, 1934, at Mercy Hospital in Iowa City, the daughter of George and Alice (Heim) Ludwig. She grew up in Tiffin where she attended school, graduating from Tiffin High School in 1953. While in school Nona was involved in many school activities, including the girls' basketball team. She had many memories of her basketball days, some of these memories stayed with her to her final days as she cherished and relished them. After two years of dating, Nona married Ivan L. Walker at the Grace United Methodist Church on February 10, 1954. The first eight months of married life began in Oklahoma as Ivan completed his Army service. They then returned to Iowa to farm and start their family. Their life together would span over sixty-two years before Ivan's death.

Farming became a true partnership when they talked about Nona going to work away from home, or she could become the "hired hand" to further the family business. She was there beside him in everything they did, with that smile and work ethic that few could match. She would be the first to tell you how blessed she was with her family, friends and good neighbors. She lived to be around everyone, always the generous and loving hostess. She could cook, bake, garden, keep the kids, Ivan and livestock where it needed to be, and yet could still shoot a mean basket from her glorious days of basketball with the grandkids. Keeping pantry shelves stocked with canned goods from the garden and freezer well-stocked with garden produce and farm-raised chickens was among her "hobbies", often providing for church meals as well. She had a true servant's heart and filled many positions and duties with the Tiffin United Methodist Church. She became a grandma at a young age, but it was certainly a term of endearment that she held proudly. She enjoyed babysitting and the many special activities she shared with the grandkids including baking cookies, coloring Easter eggs, carving pumpkins, and Play-Doh time.

Her family includes her three children, Debbie Bryant, Mike Walker (Elizabeth) and Linda Osbron (Roscoe); grandchildren, Dessie Myers (Mike), Dena Dietzler (Bryan), Rex Bryant (Jessi), Bart Bryant, Bailey Dickey (Brian), Kate Walker, Nick Walker, Jeremy Johnson (Ashley), Wesley Johnson, Jake Johnson, Jacqueline Osbron and Ashley Arbes (Bruce); great-grandchildren, Ian, Audrey, Cora, Jocelyn, Tyler, Max, Evelyn, Taylor, Dane, Nathan, David, Channing, Casen and Lily; sisters-in-law, Mildred Lovetinsky, Ros Ludwig and Kathleen Ludwig.

Nona was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Ivan; son-in-law, Richard Bryant; grandson, Alex Myers; brothers, George, Robert and Dean Ludwig; and sisters, Phyllis Ludwig and Genevieve Merck as well as brothers-in-law Arthur Merck, Orville Walker, Leo Hotz, Jack Lovetinsky, and sisters-in-law Betty Walker and Velma Hotz.

Notes for Ivan Leroy Walker:

Ivan L. Walker, 83, longtime resident of the Tiffin area, died at his home Tuesday, June 14, 2016. Ivan Leroy Walker was born July 17, 1932, in rural Johnson County, near Lone Tree, the son of Earl and Marie (Cline) Walker. The couple has farmed their entire married lives near Tiffin, raising their children, enjoying their grandchildren and great-grandchildren on their farm. He raised hogs and feeder cattle, later changing to a grain only operation and sold seed corn and beans for a number of years. He was known for careful maintenance of his equipment and vehicles.

He enjoyed much in his life, shooting, hunting, pulling in tractor pulls, traveling the country, especially the Black Hills; playing cards with family and friends, and of course he could always find a reason to go down to the casino! But most of all, Ivan loved his family and friends. He had a ready smile and infectious laugh.

His family includes his wife, Nona; their children, Debbie Bryant, Mike Walker (Elizabeth), and Linda Osbron (Roscoe); 12 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, sister, Mildred Lovetinsky, and sisters-in-law, Betty Walker, Phyllis Ludwig, Ros Ludwig, and Kathleen Ludwig..

She left a legacy of unconditional love and service to others. Visitation will be November 29th from 4:00 to 7:00 PM at Sharon Center United Methodist Church in rural Kalona, Iowa. A Celebration of Life service will be at 10:30 AM on November 30th at the church. Donna wishes were to donate her body to the University of Iowa Deeded Body Program for research. In lieu of flowers, Donna requested memorial gifts. They may be sent to the family in care of Dea Epley Birtwistle/ 275 N. Taft #202 /Mason City, Iowa 50401 or directed to Sharon Center United Methodist Church, or to the Red Bird Medical Clinic in Beverly, Kentucky. The Peterseim Funeral Home is assisting the family.

Donna was born in Beverly, Kentucky on January 3, 1930 where her father, Dr. Harlan Heim, was the first medical doctor in southeastern Kentucky, and a missionary at Red Bird and a licensed minister for what is now the United Methodist Church. Her mother, Golda Heim, was a high school teacher at the Red Bird Mission School. Her younger years were spent in the poverty-ridden mountains of Appalachia where she watched her father start the first child-wellness clinic, family medical insurance for the loggers, and build the first hospital in the area.

On May 11, 1952 she married an older classmate from Westmar College, Lloyd Epley, at the Methodist Church in Humboldt, Nebraska. They were married for 67 years, and Lloyd comments that marrying Donna was the best decision he ever made in his life. They modeled a wonderful partnership for their friends and family. During their first year of marriage, Donna taught high school English in Ogden, Iowa while Lloyd was in Korea. Donna and Lloyd then settled into home in Coralville, Iowa. She was a life-long learner, and her involvement in many activities demonstrated her passion for diversity. She and Lloyd took vacations with their children to all 50 states primarily camping at national parks and also traveling to several European countries. They participated in mission trips to Red Bird in Kentucky, Guatemala, Mexico, Nome, Alaska, the Heifer Project in Perryville, Arkansas, McCurdy School in Espanola, New Mexico, the United Methodist Committee of Church Relief (UMCOR) in Baldwin, Louisiana, and Mission Jamaica. Later in life they enjoyed Elderhostel trips to Japan, Big Bend, Texas, and Canada.

In the 1980s, Donna returned to school, first getting an LPN through Kirkwood and then going on to obtain her RN license. She worked as a nurse at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics for ten years caring for adults who had recently received a bone marrow transplant. When Iowa City Hospice started and needed adults to comfort those in their homes, Donna volunteered. Donna was a vivacious and brilliant woman who was a natural leader and played that role in almost every organization she was a part of at both the local and state level. Governor Branstad acknowledged her with a state volunteer award. She was instrumental in starting the Coralville Library when she was a Girl Scout troop leader for her daughters. She was the president of Cardinal Girl Scout Council and later the Executive Director for the Girl Scouts of Eastern Iowa and Western Illinois, overseeing the merger with councils in Cedar Rapids, Davenport and western Illinois. As her son grew, she was also an active leader for the Hawkeye Area Council of Boy Scouts.

Steadfast faith radiated from Donna, and she was a Sunday School teacher and Bible School teacher for over 65 consecutive years at the churches she attended. She was active in United Methodist Women and Church Women United. She was a member of PEO, Chapter KP in Iowa City and a 50-year member of the University of Iowa NN (No Name) Book Club. She was an active member of Sharon Center United Methodist Church in rural Kalona for over 65 years serving on many committees, primarily with education and missions. At the University of Iowa, she served as a docent volunteer for the Field Museum for many years conducting field trips.

Donna was acknowledged in the 2016 Coralville Parade for her community work, on the Parks and Recreation Commission and the Coralville Library. In 2018, she was the state recipient of the Trustee Award for the Iowa State Library Association. She was passionate about the baby book bags that she assembled and which were delivered to every new parent attending the library in Coralville. Moreover, Donna was compassionate and gracious. Her home served as a hearth for many fantastic meals for new-comers to the community including international students as well as local and far-away friends. She was the first to offer help for a family experiencing a crisis and was the communication switchboard for her family. There were no strangers with her, only friends she had not yet met. Her greatest joy was her family, and her children and grandchildren modeled from her how to bird-watch and savor a good book.

Donna is survived by her husband Lloyd Epley of Mason City, her children, Dea Epley Birtwistle (John) of Mason City, and their daughter Anne of Milwaukee; Jean Epley Carleton and her children, Dr. Timothy Carleton (Justine) of Columbia, Missouri, Chris Carleton of Dallas, Texas, and Katie Carleton of Houston, Texas; and her son, David Epley (Barb) of Indianola, and children Chloe Epley of Iowa City, Mina Epley of Cedar Rapids and Mitchell and Nathan Epley of Indianola. She embraced her husband's family and is also survived by many special nieces and nephews.

Notes for Lloyd Arthur Epley:

Lloyd Arthur Epley, 97, died peacefully in Coralville at Lantern Park Specialty Care on September 21, 2023. He was discharged as an Army Corporal in 1953 and moved with his wife to Iowa City to finish law school, graduating in 1955. Lloyd and his partners renovated an old feed store on Gilbert Street in Iowa City and he practiced in Iowa City as well as Kalona until he retired after 60 years from law at the age of 90. The law firm continues today as Honohan, Epley, Braddock, and Brenneman. The Johnson County Legal Secretaries Association named him Boss of the Year in 1972. Over the years, he modeled civility to his co-workers and clients and enjoyed mentoring young law students.

Lloyd and Donna raised their three children in Coralville, Iowa. He enjoyed camping with his family at national parks all over the United States, gardening, teaching Sunday School and singing in a praise band well into his nineties. He was an avid Cubs and Hawkeyes fan and a voracious reader. He said his greatest accomplishment in life was being part of the "Dirty 30" from Iowa who collaborated with Afro-Americans and others in Dallas in 1968 to merge the Evangelical United Brethren Church and the United Methodist Church. Although vilified by some, he did what he believed was right and what God directed him to do.

Lloyd considered all of Johnson County his home. He was active in the Coralville, Iowa City, Sharon Center, and Kalona communities. He served on the Johnson County Civil Service Commission, the Zoning Board for Coralville as well as the Coralville Library Board and the Johnson County Historical Society. He was also on the Goodwill Board in Iowa City. He was a member of Old Capital Toastmasters in Iowa City as well as a long-term member of the Kalona Rotary and a Paul Harris Fellow. He was active in Gideons and the Oakdale Prison Ministry. He was on the Pleasantview Nursing Home Board in Kalona. The organization that captured his involvement later in life was the local chapter of Veterans for Peace. Lloyd and Donna were active members of the Sharon Center United Methodist Church where he was a lay minister. He considered Sharon Center UM Church members to be part of his family. They were involved in many mission trips and Elderhostels in the U.S. and abroad. He retired in Kalona, Iowa in 2016 with his wife and then lived in Mason City until moving back to Coralville in April of 2023. Music continued to be a big part of his life, and he witnessed to staff in the four different nursing homes where he lived by singing hymns from memory and speaking of his blessings after surviving COVID three times.

Proceeding him in death were his parents, and his four older sibling and their spouses, Milton Epley (Mae), Perry Epley (Chalice), Florence Lundberg (Bert) and Ivan Epley (Evelyn), and his cherished wife, Donna, who died in 2019. He is the last of his generation, the descendants of Jacob and Mary (Becker) Epley of Waverly, preceded in death by all his first cousins and all but one of his second cousins.

He was extremely proud of his family and is survived by his three children and his eight grandchildren: Dea Epley Birtwistle (John) of Tiffin and their daughter Anne Nankee (Bryant) of Milwaukee, Jean Epley Carleton of Plano, Texas and her children, Timothy Carleton (Justine) of Phoenix, Christopher Carleton of Dallas, and Kathleen Miller (Sam) of North Augusta, and David Epley (Barb) of Indianola and their children, Corey Epley of Des Moines, Mina Epley of North Liberty, Mitchell Epley of Ankeny and Nathan Epley of Indianola. Survived by wife, Martha, of Omaha; sister, Cindy Nisley (Ken); son, Oliver (Robin); daughter, Andrea “Andee”; son, Noel (Andrea); step-son, Jim Pearson (Carmen); step-daughter, Amy Chittenden (Stuart); grandchildren: Ivy, Noel, Bailey, Ryan, Braden, and Griffin; former wife, Mary Lou Hoig.

The family will receive friends on Friday, Jan. 11th from 5pm to 7pm at Countryside Community Church, 8787 Pacific. CELEBRATION OF LIFE: Saturday, Jan. 12th at 2pm, Countryside Community Church. In lieu of flowers, memorials are suggested to University of Nebraska Foundation—Robert G. Hoig Scholarship.

Bob Hoig was well known in the community for his professional and civic accomplishments. In 2012, he was inducted into the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce’s Business Hall of Fame, selected as the Omahan of the Year by the Suburban Rotary Club of Omaha, and doubly honored by the Omaha Press Club as part of the first father-daughter “Faces on the Barroom Floor” (with Andee Hoig, publisher of metroMAGAZINE) and by being inducted into the organization’s Hall of Fame. Bob once said he didn’t want people to know him as just a publisher.

He took his first flying lesson at age 70 and bought a Cessna 182 two years later. He took up skiing in his 60s and continued well into his 70s. Bob swam daily throughout the 1960s and 1970s as he approached middle age, and even taught himself to play the saxophone in his 40s. He also loved playing tennis, a sport he continued into his early 80s. “It never occurred to me to place some kind of age restriction on what I could do if I was really interested,” he said. Bob also had a wanderlust that began when he was 16 years old and hitchhiked across the country on Route 66. In 1983 he visited every country in Europe and returned to the continent 21 more times by the early 2000s.

Before he became a publisher, Bob was a shoe-leather journalist. He was only 24 in 1957 when, on his way to a corporate job interview, the New York Daily News building drew him in. Bob landed a job there as a copy boy, soon working his way into a promotion. “I had plenty of derring-do about me, chutzpah. I’d try anything,” he said. Over the next two decades, Bob also wrote for the Miami News, wire service United Press International, the Lincoln Journal and the Omaha World-Herald. He also served as managing editor of the Omaha Sun and the Douglas County Gazette. During much of his tenure as a writer, Bob served as a crime and corruption reporter. In 1971, he was nominated for a Pulitzer for an Omaha World-Herald series that led to changes in state law. Bob saw an opportune niche in Omaha media when, in 1975, he launched this publication. It was a risky endeavor at the time, but Bob considered a willingness to take risks “one of the hallmarks of my definition of an entrepreneur.”

His words about his love of flying, “And you’re off into the wild blue…” now take on a special significance. Fly high, Bob.

Jan. 27, 2019 - As publisher of... the Midlands Business Journal, the regional weekly business newspaper he founded in 1975, Robert Gregg "Bob" Hoig has become a well-known figure in the community who's been lauded repeatedly for his professional and civic accomplishments. In the last five years alone, Hoig was inducted into the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce's Business Hall of Fame, selected as the Omahan of the Year by the Suburban Rotary Club of Omaha, and doubly honored by the Omaha Press Club as part of the first father-daughter "Faces on the Barroom Floor" (with Andee Hoig, publisher of metroQuarterly) and by being inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame.

As he approaches his 85th birthday in September, Hoig can reflect on a remarkable life. But what's most remarkable now for him is life. After a heart attack, several strokes and a bout with pneumonia earlier this year, his prognosis was grim. His heartbroken family was making hospice arrangements and preparing themselves for the painful task of planning memorial services in the midst of their grief.

But Hoig surprised everyone. Instead of mourning the end of his life, the family is delighted to be supporting him as he makes an incredible and unexpected recovery. "To me, he's come back to life," Andee Hoig said. "That he's still here and doing great is amazing." It's not the first time Hoig has amazed the people around him. It's not even the first time he's beaten the odds medically.
When Hoig was two years old and critically ill, his grandparents—who were raising him at the time—were told "flat-out that my chances were one in a thousand," he said.

But "It was a bit of luck having the grandparents I had," Hoig said. "Granddad worked for the Missouri Pacific Railroad." What sounds like a minor biographical fact was actually an extremely fortunate situation: Hoig's grandfather's employment meant his grandson could be admitted to a particular hospital that just happened to have a physician on staff with the rare expertise needed to treat him. In short, Hoig lost a kidney instead of his life. And he hasn't slowed down since.

In fact, his current state of recuperation is a testament to the benefits of maintaining an active lifestyle. Hoig said he's glad he quit smoking cold turkey and gave up alcohol—once hallmarks of a newsman—decades ago. He ignored standard retirement age almost two decades ago. He took his first flying lesson when he was 70 years old and bought a Cessna 182 two years later. He took up skiing in his 60s and continued well into his 70s. Hoig swam daily throughout the 1960s and 1970s as he approached middle age, and even taught himself to play the saxophone in his 40s. "Saxophone playing and swimming had a lot in common for me from the standpoint of getting out of yourself and losing yourself in the moment," he said. Hoig also loved playing tennis, a sport he began at age 11 and continued into his early 80s. He played competitively for years, winning in several local championships as well the Senior Olympics in the 1980s. Some of his local tennis opponents included esteemed physician Dr. John Sage, television personality Dave Webber and former U.S. Senator Dave Karnes.

His enthusiasm for tennis took him to the U.S. Open on more than one occasion. And whenever Hoig traveled, he took his tennis racquet along in hopes of finding a friendly game of tennis in cities like Munich and London—which he always found, Hoig recalled, although he admitted that many of his opponents wearied of playing against a man "who traveled with his racquet." Hoig's wanderlust began as a young twentysomething in the early 1950s when he and a friend hitchhiked across the country on Route 66. In 1983 he headed over to Europe and visited every country. The following year he returned with son Noel to attend the winter Olympics in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia. He visited Europe 21 more times with current wife Martha in the late 90s and into the 2000s. "It never occurred to me to place some kind of age restriction on what I could do if I was really interested," he said. "In fact, it was more like a powerful current, where once I got in the current I was just rafted along."

Being pulled into a current is an apt metaphor for the start of his journalism career, too. Hoig was only 24 in 1957, hoping to make his way in New York City. On his way to a promising job interview with a major airline, something caught his eye. "I was walking in the 200 block of East 42nd Street. There was this building, this beautiful building with a big globe in the lobby I caught in my peripheral vision," he recalled. It was the New York Daily News. Hoig had a little college under his belt but no journalism background or even any previous aspirations to be a reporter. At the time, he actually fancied himself to be more of a poet, despite criticism received at age 18 that he recalls to this day: "Your work strikes me as a strange mixture of banking and alchemy." Something else struck the hiring manager. "I had plenty of derring-do about me, chutzpah. I'd try anything," Hoig said. He managed to get himself hired as a copy boy, and soon worked his way into a promotion. "It was a very fortuitous way to get started in that business, with that newspaper, because in those days, you had to work your way up internally. So I landed on my feet with that," he said. "Landing such an important newspaper job at that age was wonderful. Other papers in town, they wouldn't even talk to you."

Over the next two decades, Hoig also wrote for the Miami News, wire service United Press International, the Lincoln Journal and the Omaha World-Herald. He also served as managing editor of Omaha Sun and the Douglas County Gazette. During much of his tenure as a writer, Hoig served as a crime and corruption reporter. An early highlight was covering a Sheldon, Iowa, banking scandal for UPI that was picked up all over the country. In 1965, Hoig authored a surrender plea carried by UPI that induced 22-year-old bank robber/murderer Duane Earl Pope, a Kansan whose crime was committed in Big Springs, Nebraska, to turn himself in after a nationwide manhunt. In 1971, Hoig was nominated for a Pulitzer for an Omaha World-Herald series about loose security procedures for sexual psychopaths at what was then the Nebraska State Hospital; it led to changes in state law. He also interviewed a host of legendary figures from World War I-era pilot and later Eastern Airlines Chairman Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker and Everest climber Sir Edmund Hillary to former presidents Lyndon Johnson, Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford. The gregarious Hoig became acquainted with some interesting everyday people as well.

"Some people, you meet and they seem really screwy. But you get to know them for a while and you listen to their ideas and they become more familiar. And eventually–you discard the ones who are really screwy, and some, they grow on you," he said. Hoig's colleagues ranged from brilliant to barely competent. "You get around enough of these kind of people and you just think, 'I don't want to let them call the shots for my life.'" By the mid-'70s, "I finally, frankly, just became tired of working for other people."

As a reporter, Hoig had to be independent and self-driven, qualities that suited a latent entrepreneur. "I always thought I would be sort of a Warren Buffett figure, somebody who would amass different businesses and run them all brilliantly," he said. "It happened that I didn't have the proper credentials for that kind of thinking. I was much too anxious to not make mistakes, which is not a good habit for an entrepreneur. I soon got rid of that habit, but then just losing that habit doesn't guarantee you're going to find a good one." So although he didn't aspire to be a mogul, he did see an opportune niche in Omaha media. In 1975, Hoig launched the Midlands Business Journal. The fledgling publication had some serious detractors.

"'No chance.' 'It's foolish.'" he recalled. A colleague told him, "Within a week you'll be begging for your job back at the Herald." "My response was, 'Just find a way to help me get some advertising and I won't be back begging for a job from anybody; I'll be on my own and successful.'" Even the optimists were hesitant to commit. "People very quickly offer their support but you find that there can be quite a time lapse between when it's supposedly going to come and when it actually does," Hoig said. "Anybody who's ever started their own paper can sympathize with that."

The Midlands Business Journal slowly gained steam and a name for itself. "I did have the good wishes of a guy who billed himself as a 'futurist.' He saw a copy of one of the papers we'd set around the lobby of different hotels and one of them was where he was staying," Hoig said. "And he said, 'I saw your paper, and to me, that's the thing of the future.' It caught the eye of somebody who stood out in his area, and that further spurred me on." With increasing success, Hoig learned to take risks. "It's one of the hallmarks of my definition of an entrepreneur, if you're willing to try things that hold promise and then abandon them quickly without a lot of tears," he said. His many successful ventures include adding the Lincoln Business Journal in 1996 and the annual "40 Under 40" awards started in 2002 to honor young businesspeople. Hoig said innovation isn't always about coming up with something new. "It's more a question of being willing to steal something," he said. "You know, I was far from the first '40 Under 40' program in the country."

Kim Davis worked for Hoig as a new college graduate when the Midlands Business Journal was still a relatively young venture. "I look back fondly on those years," she said. "Bob is remarkable." Davis recalled her two and a half years at the paper, her very first job before leaving to pursue a master's degree, as a great learning experience. "It was hard work, but it was good work, and he set an example for a young person just starting out," she said. "He was supremely ethical in everything, and it taught me the value of hard work. We had to do 10 stories a week, two a day—and those weren't short stories. And we also had to work on Saturday mornings…You learned a valuable work ethic when you worked for him, and he was right there next to you. It wasn't as though he was out golfing or something. "He was very proud of his paper, you could tell he was he had very high expectations for it. Once he began to trust you he didn't micromanage. But he did review every story."

Davis said Hoig had a distinctive brand of criticism and a "tell it like it is" approach to writing evident when he returned the first draft she submitted to him. "It was covered in red ink. I made the changes, and after looking at what I had written and what the suggestions had been, it was a way better article when he made the changes to it," she said. "He sat me down and said he didn't want me to be disappointed; he was very nurturing even then. And he said, 'Here's the thing, Kim. A lot of people who read the magazine, they know what the word ameliorate means, but they don't want to have to think that hard.' I'm like, 'Okay, I get it. You're spending a lot of time making it pretty and that's not what anyone wants.'" Davis still works in the field of communications today as the vice president of development for the Nebraska Humane Society. Her time at the Midlands Business Journal was in the era of manual typewriters, pre-Internet and email, but she said many of the skills she learned there she still uses today. "I learned to act like a professional."

Linda Lovgren, president and CEO of Lovgren Marketing Group, has also known Hoig since the early days of the Midlands Business Journal and said she sees his legacy as even larger than being a publisher: local champion of small businesses. "Bob, through his publication—and personally as well because he's such an advocate—has given small businesses visibility they might not otherwise have had, and a way to build their brand," she said. "The success of a business is the sum of all the people who have influenced the life of a business, and he certainly has been one of those individuals." Lovgren isn't alone in characterizing Hoig as an important catalyst for business development. Cella Quinn, president of Cella Quinn Investment Services, said, "Bob helped small businesses grow by telling us about each other. We didn't have to leave our businesses to network, we could read the Midlands Business Journal and find other compatible companies with which to exchange ideas and do business."

Quinn also acknowledged that Hoig has been a good newsman above all. "A good reporter holds a mirror up to society so we can all objectively see ourselves and make changes we deem merited. Whether it was business news or the legal notices in the middle of MBJ, Bob managed to do that," she said. "He did this in a special way because he believed in the adage attributed to an anonymous Texas newspaper editor, 'A news story should be like a miniskirt on a pretty woman: long enough to cover the subject but short enough to be interesting.'" Greater Omaha President and CEO David Brown, whose organization has a mission to ensure a thriving business community, praised Hoig for his genuine enthusiasm and unflagging support.

"Bob has a real passion for small business, and I think that was reflected in the path that the MBJ took. There are a lot of different markets it could have covered, but I think he has such a keen interest in seeing small businesses being supported and recognized for the impact that they have on the community, that he decided that the Journal should be focused on that type of topic," he said. "I think Bob's passion shows up in how the MBJ is written every week." That passion is even more evident in person, Brown added, like at the annual "40 Under 40" awards. "He seems to always be in his element at those events because he is surrounded by small-business people. And he loves being around folks that have the same passion for small business that he does," he said. "So whenever I think of Bob, I think of this those moments I saw him at those awards breakfasts, smiling from ear to ear because he's surrounded by people he respected a lot."

Hal Daub, another notable Omahan who's "had the pleasure of knowing Bob and his wife and family before they started their journalistic enterprise," remarked on Hoig's extraordinary commitment to the business community. "I've known him because I've active in local affairs, not just political affairs but community affairs as well as business here. I got to know him and I can tell you that—through my experiences with him before I went to Congress, while I was privileged to be in the House of Representatives, and while I was privileged to be mayor and now as a member of the Board of Regents, and as a practicing lawyer for 50 plus years here in Omaha—Bob Hoig has been the steadfast champion of Omaha and her small business interests," he said. "The family have been great citizens of the community. They've been charitable and philanthropic and they spend lots of time encouraging people to get together and do good for our community. They're not only great citizens of Omaha and our state, but they're very patriotic and really believe in America and free enterprise, and I think that's what Bob teaches, mostly, that free enterprise is the cure for all the ills of life."

Daub also said Hoig has made the Midlands Business Journal is a blend of edifying and interesting. "If you stop to think about it, every small business is affected or afflicted by city, county, state and federal government and the bureaucracy of regulations and licensing. So when you can pick up the Midlands Business Journal, you get stories of small business, you get all new corporate filings going on in Douglas County, and you get some flavor of the philosophical/political things that are going on," he said. "You've got a perfect half an hour to an hour of wonderful learning experience every time the Midlands Business Journal hits your in box."

Like Daub, John Bothof (president of Northwest Bank) said he considers Hoig a friend as much as someone to be admired. "Bob is a historian and passionate about his country and his business. Bob is a friend, a visionary, a risk-taker and a great businessman. Businesses of Omaha and all of Nebraska have a great asset in the MBJ and most importantly, Bob Hoig," he said. "Bob has had a huge impact on small business with the introduction of the Midlands Business Journal. Bob stepped out and, like other small businesses and entrepreneurs, risked his professional reputation and personal finances for what would become the Friday business paper that we all wait to be delivered. If you want to know what is happening in Omaha in business, business expansion, new technology or who is doing what, you read the Midlands Business Journal." Both of said his company's relationship with the Midlands Business Journal has been beneficial.

"The MBJ provides a medium to tell your businesses story. Many businesses subscribe to the MBJ and it has been a good method for Northwest Bank to open doors to new opportunities," he explained. "Several years ago, we decided to join with Bob for the introduction of the "40 Under 40" event. This event recognizes 40 people under 40 years of age on their business or professional success. We thought it was an excellent opportunity for a new start-up bank to invest in recognizing the future leaders of our community. The "40 Under 40" event moved our brand to new heights." He also noted Hoig's boldness. "If the stories of businesses in the MBJ doesn't take all of your idle time, you have to read Bob's editorials and get a common-sense approach to issues facing business, our country, and the political environment, to name a few." Hoig has made friends everywhere he goes. Restauranteur Leo Fascianella of Pasta Amore said Hoig has been a patron since 1986. "I've known Bob since day one when I opened the restaurant. He's always been an inspiration to me and encouraged me about the business and told me how wonderful I was doing," Fascianella said. "He's a beautiful person to talk to and such a nice man. I feel like I'm part of his life, I've known him for so long. He's very encouraging, very supportive of small business in Omaha. He's such a great person."

Fascianella also mentioned Hoig's love for flying small aircraft, a pastime he's had to regretfully step away from. "That's the most devastating thing about this…when you have to give up something you just so truly love," Hoig said. "It took me such a small amount of time to build a thousand hours. Flying gets in your system. It gives you a certain push to your life to just know you've got the keys in your pocket to simply at any time go to Eppley, cart off the plane and you're off into the wild blue." Stepping out of the cockpit is just one hard adjustment forced by age, and as Hoig recovers, his plans for the future are still in flux. But he said he's developed a renewed sense of gratitude for his loved ones.

"The joys of family, and the understanding of how family can rally around you and it really means something, not just a cliché. That's probably the most significant truth of my life right now," he said. Taking stock of his family, Hoig said he's glad to have a friendly relationship with ex-wife Mary Lou, the mother of his children. He's happy in his current marriage to Martha. And he's especially proud of who his three adult children (Oliver, Andee and Noel) have become. "That's one of the real satisfactions of life, once you've seen the path that you chose is the one that is right, and they're all in their own separate careers—with some small help from you in choosing the right thing at the right time for them," he said. And looking back at his 85 years, Hoig said he doesn't want people to know him as just a publisher. "Good father in an odd way. Pilot in a good way. Skiier in an unusual way," he said. A remarkable life. Still aiming higher. "The joys of family, and the understanding of how family can rally around you and it really means something, not just a cliché. That's probably the most significant truth of my life right now." ~ Bob Hoig 1229. Marjorie May[9] Heim (Linden Emerson[8], Jonas A.[7], Johann (John or Johnnie)[6], Rosina[5] Wagner, Christina Barbara[4] Herthneck, Johann Michael[3], Caspar[2], Johannes[1]) was born 25 May 1931 in Pawnee Co, Nebraska. She married Dr. Floyd James Fithian 08 Nov 1952 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. He was born 03 Nov 1928 in Vesta, Nebraska, and died 27 Jun 2003 in Annandale, Virginia.

Notes for Dr. Floyd James Fithian:

Floyd James Fithian (November 3, 1928 – June 27, 2003) was an American educator and politician who served as a United States Representative from Indiana as a Democrat. He was one of the forty nine Watergate Babies who won election to the House of Representatives in the wake of the Watergate scandal during the 1974 House elections with Fithian himself defeating Earl Landgrebe, who became infamous for his stalwart defense of President Richard Nixon. He was one of the fourteen members of the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) and believed that the Kennedy assassination in 1963 was orchestrated by members of organized crime.

Floyd James Fithian was born in Vesta, Nebraska on November 3, 1928, and graduated from Vesta High School in 1947. In 1951 he became the first in his family to graduate from college when he received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Peru State College in Peru, Nebraska. He enlisted into the United States Navy in the same year and rose to the rank of lieutenant by the time he left in 1955. However, he continued to serve in the United States Navy Reserve, retiring in 1971 as a commander. While in the navy, Fithian was able to attend the University of Nebraska, where he received his Master of Arts in 1955 and, after teaching at a high school from 1956 to 1959, a Ph.D. in American history in 1964 from the same institution. He taught briefly at Nebraska Wesleyan University and moved to Lafayette, Indiana in 1964 to become an associate professor of history at Purdue University. During his time at Purdue, he managed and operated a small farm in Tippecanoe County.

During the 1968 presidential election he served as an associate Tippecanoe County coordinator for Robert Kennedy's presidential campaign. Afterwards he served as an associate Tippecanoe County coordinator for Birch Bayh's reelection campaign in Indiana's Senate race. During the 1970 midterm elections he served as Tippecanoe County coordinator for Philip A. Sprague's house campaign against incumbent Republican Earl Landgrebe and as president of the 2nd District Win-Dems organization. Landgrebe narrowly defeated Sprague in the general election by only 1,204 votes, but he was the first Democratic congressional nominee to win Tippecanoe County since the 1930s. He was also selected to be one of the Democratic nominees for Tippecanoe County's three council seats by the county Democratic Central Committee, but came in fourth place.

Fithian ran for Indiana's Second Congressional District during the 1972 elections and won the Democratic nomination. In the general election Landgrebe easily defeated him by riding off of the coattails of Richard Nixon's landslide victory in the 1972 presidential election and in Indiana where he received 66.1% of the vote statewide against George McGovern and received 72,000 more votes than Landgrebe in the second congressional district. During the Watergate scandal Landgrebe was a stalwart defender of Nixon, explaining his refusal to listen to or read the transcript of the "smoking gun" tape that was released on August 5, 1974, and documented Nixon's complicity in the Watergate coverup, by stating, "Don't confuse me with the facts. I've got a closed mind. I will not vote for impeachment. I'm going to stick with my president even if he and I have to be taken out of this building and shot." Landgrebe received a massive backlash from voters in his district for his support of Nixon and was resoundingly defeated in the 1974 election in a rematch with Fithian. Fithian easily defeated Landgrebe in a landslide with 101,856 votes to 64,950 votes becoming the first Democratic candidate to win in Indiana's Second Congressional district since George R. Durgan in the 1932 elections when the Democrats also saw a landslide victory nationally.

In the 1976 elections the Indiana Republican Party ran a slate of candidates to defeat Fithian in the general election and retake the formerly strong Republican seat and chose Assistant Secretary of Agriculture William Erwin out of a five-man primary. However, Fithian won reelection with 54.6% of the vote against Erwin. In the 1978 elections Fithian saw his second largest margin of victory, behind his victory against Landgrebe in 1974 due to the Watergate scandal hurting Republicans, due to Republicans running Jay Philip Oppenheim, a failed primary candidate in the district from the 1976 attempt to unseat Fithian, who had little name recognition and with William Costas, a Republican turned independent, taking votes from Oppenhiem gave Fithian a 20.3% margin of victory. Despite the Republicans performing well nationally in the 1980 elections and in Indiana, Fithian was able to win reelection by 8%.

In 1975 he introduced a balanced budget constitutional amendment, but it failed to gain any traction. In 1977 he supported the Torrijos–Carter Treaties which would give control of the Panama Canal to Panama in 1999 despite the majority of his district being against it. In 1976 he sent a letter to Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld asking him to demand former Air Force Undersecretary James W. Plummer's resignation as executive vice president of Lockheed Corporation due to the conflict of interests that would be created. In 1982 he reintroduced the Equal Rights Amendment which had failed to be ratified by 38 states before its deadline, but it failed to pass. During his tenure, Fithian served on the House Small Business Committee, the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, the House Committee on Agriculture and the House Committee on Government Operations where he served on the House Select Committee on Assassinations to investigate the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr.

In 1982 Indiana lost a congressional district after the 1980 Census. Fithian's district was split between three more conservative districts. Fithian criticized the reapportionment and brought up that according to the apportionment formula Indiana was entitled to 10.574 congressional districts and New Mexico was entitled to 2.505 congressional districts yet despite the Indianan figure being higher Indiana was losing a district and New Mexico was gaining a district.

On July 13, 1981, Fithian announced that he would retire from the House and would not seek reelection in either the 3rd, 5th, or 7th congressional districts or challenge Senator Richard Lugar and would instead run for Secretary of State. However, on February 16, 1982, he announced that he would seek the Democratic nomination for Senator to challenge Lugar in the 1982 election. In the Democratic primary he faced Indiana State Senator Michael Kendall, who he earlier encouraged to run for the Senate who he defeated with 59% of the vote. On November 2, 1982, he was defeated by Lugar who won with 54% of the vote against Fithian's 46% and won by 149,901 votes.

After his defeat he served as Chief of Staff for Illinois Senator Paul Simon from 1983 to 1992, and worked as the campaign manager for Simon's 1988 presidential campaign. Fithian also worked for Senator Lloyd Bentsen as the finance director when he was the head of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee from 1983 to 1985. After working for Simon, he joined the Department of Agriculture working as Secretary of the Farm Credit Administration. In 1991 Oliver Stone's JFK, a political thriller based on the investigation into the Kennedy assassination by Jim Garrison, to critical acclaim although it was criticized for its historical inaccuracies and Floyd criticized the film for its manipulation of the past. On March 14, 2003, he joined seventy two other former congressmembers and signed a letter asking President George W. Bush and Prime Minister Tony Blair to give more time to the United Nations inspectors in Iraq. On June 27, 2003, Fithian died at his retirement home in Annandale, Virginia after suffering from Parkinson's disease and was interred in Arlington National Cemetery.

Floyd Fithian, the area's former congressman who left a lasting legacy with the expansion of Indiana Dunes Nation Lakeshore in the 1970s, died Friday June 27, 2003 at his retirement home in a suburb of Washington, D.C. The 76-year-old, who had Parkinson's disease, had become increasingly sick recently, a family spokesman said. Fithian, of Lafayette, represented the state's old 2nd Congressional District from 1975 to 1982. The district included all of Porter County and the southern portion of Lake Couty, as well as several other counties, including his home, Tippecanoe County.

Marriage Notes for Roger Shorney and Lorrene Younker:

Miss Lorrie Younker and Mr. Roger Shorney were married Friday evening, Sept. 19, 1975, in a double-ring ceremony at Plattsmouth Memorial Park. The setting for the wedding was a giant oak tree tied with a yellow ribbon. Tiki torches decorated with fall leaves formed the background with two baskets of yellow mums and orange glads with yellow ribbons completing the setting. The couple was married by Pastor David Haynes of Calvary Christian Church Bellevue. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Younker and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Shorney, all of Plattsmouth.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a gown of candlelight ivory organza over stain with a rounded neckline accented by a gold necklace that was her great-grandmother’s wedding gift from her great-grandfather. The A-line skirt was embroidered with a grape cluster and leaf motif, and her chapel-length train was edged in the lead design. The full sleeves of sheer organza also carried the grape cluster and leaf motif with lace edging on the cuffs. Her veil was of silk tulle with pearls embroidered on the headpiece. The bride’s bouquet was of Abernathy roses and pixie carnations with white pompoms and baby’s breath arranged in a cascade.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Sandy Ham. Mrs. Linda Shorney and Mrs. Dee Shorney were brides’ matrons with Miss Christina Topliff as junior bridesmaid. They wore princes-styled dresses of a colors with sheer sparkling organza jackets and headbands of the same material. They carried colonial bouquets of bronze and yellow mums with baby’s breath and yellow organza pompons.

The groom was attired in a brown tuxedo with orange shirt and wore a rose and baby’s breath boutonniere. The groomsmen and ushers were attired in brown tuxedos with yellow shirts. Kenneth Shorney of Bellevue, brother of the groom, served as best man and David Shorney served as groomsman for his brother, Clayton Younker, brother of the bride, and Jim Shorney, younger brother of the groom, served as ushers.

The ringbearer was Kevin Shorney, nephew of the groom. He carried an ivory satin pillow and was also attired in brown with a yellow shirt. The flower girl wore a yellow crepe dress and carried a net basket of pompoms. Music for the ceremony was furnished by Larry, Randy and Ricky Younker, cousins of the bride. The played the guitar, mouth harp and zither and sang "One Day At A Time," "The Wedding Song," and Thank You, Lord."

Following the ceremony, a reception and wedding dance were held at the Lions Club Room with Mr. and Mrs. Loren Topliff as hosts. Helping serve were aunts and cousins of the bride. They were Mrs. Maxine Younker, Mrs. Marilyn Boswell, Mrs. Margaret Poulos, Mrs. Marjorie Meredith, Mrs. Mary Everett, Mrs. Diana Helsey, Mrs. Ann Younker and Mrs. Gale Younker. Mrs. Ida Mae Bickett assisted with the cake. Miss Kathy Austin had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Judy Owens and Angela and Mrs. Shirley Brannon and Tima had charge of the gifts. Notes for Jacqueline Helen (Jackie) Stratton:

Jacqueline Helen (Stratton) O’Donnell, the mother of all the years, died on the evening of Saturday, December 30, 2017, at the Bickford Cottage assisted living facility in Ames, Iowa. She was just eight days short of her 94th birthday. Nine of her 14 living children, a granddaughter and a son-in-law and daughter-in-law were with her. The body has been cremated. A memorial service will be held later this year.

Mrs. O’Donnell, who until recently lived in Slater, shaped the lives of her children and their offspring and contributed to her community in ways that will reverberate for decades. In the early 1960s she began an 18-year career as a postal clerk and became friends with nearly everyone in town, often learning their personalities, problems and histories. In retirement, she helped found a local historical association and museum and served as an officer, spending hours organizing documents and developing exhibits. Mrs. O’Donnell was a volunteer first responder and also helped develop the Heart of Iowa Nature Trail from Slater to Huxley and beyond. But she was most proud of the family she raised with her husband, Augustine Daniel O'Donnell: eight boys and six girls. (Another daughter, Nora, died shortly after birth in November 1966.) All 14 attended college, an aspiration Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell had always held for their children. Many have advanced degrees. "And not a bum among them," as Mrs. O'Donnell sometimes said.

She was born Jacqueline Stratton on January 7, 1924, on a farm near Raymond in southeast Nebraska, the daughter of Isaiah "Jack" Stratton and the former Yvonne Marie Ernestine Pavard, whom Mr. Stratton had met in France during World War I. The family, including two older brothers, struggled to survive through the Depression. Mr. Stratton worked a series of jobs and farmed. Food often was short, but Yvonne Stratton was adept at stretching a meal, gardening and canning, teaching her children a resourcefulness and work ethic they employed later in life. As a teenager, Mrs. O'Donnell was named the healthiest girl in Nebraska. She graduated from Stockham High School and attended York College for a year. She taught primary school for a year and worked briefly at a California airplane factory during World War II. Mrs. O'Donnell was a clerk at Harvard Air Base, an Army Air Force training center in southeast Nebraska, when she met her future husband, a handsome sergeant who had served as an airplane mechanic in New Guinea and was awaiting his discharge. After a brief, intense courtship, they married on August 1, 1945. Mr. O'Donnell trained in the building trades at Iowa State College in Ames and then worked in construction. The couple (now with three children) moved to Slater in 1949. They lived in a succession of houses, each bigger than the previous one to accommodate more (and more) children until 1961, when they found a foursquare with ample bedrooms.

For four decades, Mrs. O'Donnell devoted herself to her husband and family. She sewed dozens of shirts and dresses, raised and canned vegetables and oversaw homework and prayers. She was her children's first and best teacher, finding small and large lessons in everything from insects to stars. Each child got as much attention as he or she needed, plus a little more. In the mid-1950s, A.D. O'Donnell got a job with Capp Homes, makers of pre-cut houses, and for years lived away from home during the week as he helped construct the buildings on site. By the early 1960s the couple had 13 children whom Mrs. O'Donnell would shepherd alone (albeit with help from the oldest ones) while her husband was away. The couple wrote each other regularly and their letters provide insights into their deep love. In 1963, Mr. O'Donnell wrote this from a Fairfield motel: "I hope this tells you what I've thought to myself so many times. How proud of my whole big bunch I am. How glad that I can provide you with a nice, big house that you all can be happy in. Also, how proud I am of you that you look so nice to me, not in spite of 13 children but because of them. … You are the mother of all the years." Mrs. O'Donnell replied: "I only hope that when the kids are all raised and on their own that you & I can have a few years to get to know each other again, to be able to talk together without interruption, to be able to enjoy a few fruits of our labor."

Mr. O'Donnell later worked at Capp Homes' Des Moines plant, allowing him to come home each night. He developed Parkinson's disease, a condition that shortened the years the couple hoped to enjoy together. Mrs. O'Donnell cared for her husband until his death in January 1997. She often said her one regret was that her husband didn't live to see his children's success and to know many of his grandchildren. For most of the next 20 years, Mrs. O'Donnell volunteered and traveled, often with her daughter, Mary, who came to live with her in Slater in 2010. Mrs. O'Donnell rarely spoke a harsh word of others. Her strongest oath was "Lord, give me strength," uttered only when managing a family of 14 verged on the impossible. She was an amateur botanist and ornithologist, able to identify any wild plant or bird. Words cannot describe how much her wisdom, caring and love will be missed.

Survivors include six daughters: Louise and Josephine "Jodi" O'Donnell of Ames, Mary O'Donnell and Yvonne (David) Raes of Slater, Margaret O'Donnell (Rick Herrman) of Ft. Davis, Texas, and Jacqueline O'Donnell of Davenport; eight sons: Michael (Cynthia Michaelson) of Northfield, Minnesota, Daniel (Joyce) of Loveland, Colorado, Robert (Robin) of Payson, Arizona, Charles (Helen) of Westerville, Ohio, Patrick (Nancy) of Sioux Center, Thomas (Paula Mohr) of Ames, Alphonsus (Patricia) of Ft. Collins, Colorado, and Cole (Peggy) of East Moline, Illinois; 32 grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren. Apart from her husband and a daughter, Mrs. O'Donnell was preceded in death by her parents, brothers Marcel and Walter Stratton, and two grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the Slater Area Historical Association, Box 487, or Friends of the Slater Library, Box 598, both in Slater, Iowa 50244; or St. Malachy's Catholic Church, 405 Gerald Street, Madrid, Iowa 50156.

Notes for Augustine Daniel O'Donnell:

Nov. 2023 - How my parents raised 14 children in small town Iowa - Louise O'Donnell as told to Ronna Faaborg with the Des Moines Register.

Editor's note: Louise O'Donnell first told this story on stage at the Des Moines Storytellers Project's "Family." The Des Moines Storytellers Project is a series of storytelling events in which community members work with Register journalists to tell true, first-person stories live on stage. An edited version appears below. Picture this — around the dining table sit my family, all 15 of them. Oh, excuse me, 14, one was still in the highchair. Later on there would be one more, to total 14 children. I was the oldest. Some statistics from this 1963 scene — our family consumed 25 loaves of bread a week, 15 pounds of sugar, 10 quarts of orange juice, four dozen eggs, 18 gallons of milk, 20 pounds of potatoes and about four pounds of butter. For a while we kept a cow, Bridey. She lived in the ditch across the street. She would get out and there is no way to understand how big a Holstein is until you see her eating the neighbor's peonies. The truth is, my dad was supporting a small village.

Back to the scene. Mom, Jackie O'Donnell, is at one end of the table, Dad, Gus O'Donnell, at the other. If you were lucky enough to be at his end, that's where the food collected and where the real butter resided. Seats were assigned to prevent internecine warfare and there was a social structure. There were big kids and little kids. The big kids closely guarded this caste system. Of course, being a big kid gave you some privileges but more tasks too. The real reason was the right to boss the little kids around. It was a fiefdom. Whenever I cautiously tell people that I am the oldest of a large family, that I have eight brothers and five sisters, the inevitable question is "How did your mother do it?" When mom was asked this question she answered, "Well we just did it one at a time." I guess that's true. What is just one more?

I have a parlor trick. Every night we would say our prayers and almost every year I added another name to the "God Bless" list. Louise, Mary, Mike, Dan, Margy, Jacki, Robby, Charlie, Jodi, Pat, Tom, Evy, Al, Cole. I think dad had all those kids to tell stories to, and to open the garage door and change the channel on the TV and fetch his one Pepsi a night he allowed himself. We did not get soda, the Pepsi was his treat and privilege. When I was very little I would imagine fratricide. There would be a car accident and everyone but me, mom and dad and, of course, the baby were sort of evaporated. We all always loved the baby until it was it was supplanted by the next one.

My mother was born a true optimist. She didn't see the bad, she saw the good, and she loved children. After my youngest brother was born, she spoke wistfully of having another. We kids always loved the new babies and a favorite memory is being sat in a line on the sofa and then passing the baby around when mom and baby had arrived home from the hospital. Mom was also indomitable. I would never use the word tough, that she was not, but she climbed each mountain without complaint.

When I was 14 and absolutely clueless, as you could be in the very early 1960s, I went upstairs where mom was changing beds, which she did every week. We all had our own beds, so let's see, that would have been 11 or 12 total beds at that time. I remember standing there while she said that she thought she might have the baby tonight and she was going to drive to Ames to the hospital, 15 miles away, that evening. My father was working on the road and was out of town. Later I climbed into the Lutheran minister's wife's car. She was my ride to the concert we were giving at school. I blithely announced that my mom was going to go to the hospital that night and she was driving herself. "Oh no she's not," announced Mrs. Bjorlie, who herself was the mother of I think five. She promptly fetched mom. My sister Evy was born that night.

Mom and dad raised us without any family or any close friends around to help in our small town of Slater. There wasn't a complaint, although my dad, who had married this optimist, had a little of the melancholy Irishman about him. They had known each other briefly and it was said that they had their first serious date on the Fourth of July and were married Aug. 1 after dad thought he was going to be mustered out. Mom describes their dates, dad borrowed a buddy's car and they went to a dance and sang songs all the way home. When he thought he was going to be leaving the base, he said he didn't want to leave her, she took off the ring — she was engaged to an absent pilot — and they started off on their great adventure.

Mom said later in life that it was all planned. I think it was in defense of having so many children and some comments that were inevitably made. Planned maybe, but the fact that my father was diagnosed with Parkinson's at 45 and retired at the age of 50 with nine children at home was not a plan. Mom once said she never worried. Really? But I guess you couldn't have 14 children and been a worrier. Dad made up for it — after all he was supporting his small village. I remember when I was small him saying to mom that he didn't know how they were going to make it through the winter. I went to bed and with my little 8-year-old brain tried to figure out how to save the family. I was the oldest, and I took life very seriously.

So here we are this big family. What was it like for my mother and for us? We all had chores of course, but we all also felt we were a little spoiled. We all have memories of the special things she would do for each of us, taking time and care to make sure something we wanted would happen. She nurtured our curiosity — taking us out in the evening and laying on the grass to look at the stars while she pointed out the constellations. Teaching us tumbling in the yard. She was just having fun. Until I was 14 we lived in a small four-bedroom house with one bathroom and one closet. With one bathroom you did not linger, and on bath night it went chronologically which meant sometimes, being the oldest, I was up until, wow, 10 o'clock. Then we moved into the big house with two bathrooms, six bedrooms and a seventh in the basement.

There was no library in town. We had a small library in our school classroom. For me, initially, there was the family Bible which had big color photos of classic paintings that I looked at over and over again. Mom bought books at house sales. I read the "Pony Rider Boys in Louisiana," "Dave Darrin's First Year at Annapolis" — you get the picture. But she did buy, I think with box tops or something, a series of classic books we all grew up with, "Heidi," "Black Beauty," "Robin Hood," "Huckleberry Finn," "Through the Looking Glass" and more. By the time I was in college, dad had built floor to ceiling shelves in the TV room and they were full of books.

Each August, mom bought several bolts of cloth and cut out three shirts for each boy. At one time she had six boys in school. She whipped them up and did the buttonholes by hand. The boys hated it since they looked like their brothers, with the same fabric for each shirt. She made us dresses, blouses, skirts, shorts, all kinds of clothing. And she made prom dresses and wedding dresses for us. She even made my brother Charlie a suit. She would be up until 1 in the morning meeting some event deadline. This was her relax and play time. She helped us make all our valentines for school, sitting with us with red construction paper, doilies, paste and scissors. So maybe 20 to 30 for each child, times maybe five, so over 100 valentines. The same with May Day baskets, and she took us out to deliver them in big boxes in the back seat. Then Halloween, with so many homemade costumes. In one instance I was, I think, in first grade and came home for lunch and announced I needed a costume that afternoon. She promptly sat down and made me a wonderful ghost costume out of an old sheet and saved me from being the odd kid with no outfit.

Mom and dad read to us at night. Mom at one point wrote a children's book. I think she sent it off, but I was so small I never asked her about it. All this was done while she kept up her schedule, a necessity to keep our village functioning. Monday wash, Tuesday ironing, Wednesday ironing, Thursday the upstairs cleaning, Friday the downstairs, Saturday the grocery shopping, Sunday make the dinner, usually with three pies. Fit into this cooking dinner every night and making lunch every day. And caring for the baby.

My job was usually vacuuming, which we did every day. I was a mean and dangerous older sister, throwing away treasured rocks, feathers, and once, alas, a baby tooth in a glass of water waiting for the Tooth Fairy. Not good. I deeply desired order which was rather hopeless. Sister Mary usually helped cook. Every night promptly at 5:30 we had a full meal with some meat, potato, vegetable, salad and dessert. On Friday mom could make a 13-egg omelet in an old cast iron skillet, high and fluffy and stuffed with Velveeta! Mom made dad's lunch and our lunches. She would lay out the Wonder Bread on the counter in a row, take the squirt bottle of ketchup and run it along the row of slices, then slap down the bologna and put the lid on them. She wrapped them in wax paper, and if we were lucky she would have some pudding or dessert that she put into used baby food jars, a great embarrassment to many of us.

My parents made sure we had piano lessons and astoundingly put up with the practice on the old upright in the small dining room. And we each played an instrument, mine the clarinet, which I was banished to practice in the closed off stairway. Patience only went so far. Mom and dad loved to sing and favorite memories are of singing in the car sometimes with made up songs. She said that was a part of falling in love with dad. They sang in the car on their dates.

They were building us brick by brick with the cement of example. My parents would pack us up and head out — to the fair, to the art center, to the park, lunches packed, and baby in tow. The amount of energy to do this amazes me. Arriving at the fair with a carful of kids — one year we were tied together just to make sure they didn't lose anyone. We ate in the car, and cad stood on the roof to see the races in the Grandstand.

Often cad would yell “Who wants to go for a ride?” on a Sunday afternoon and you would of course say yes in the very outside chance he might stop for ice cream. The only long trip we would take once a year was to grandma’s house, a little house in a little town in Nebraska. Eventually we got farmed out to neighbors to sleep. We didn’t really visit other people. Who needs a small village descending on them? About 1959 dad bought a Cadillac limousine, a big black car that had been a mourners’ car and still had smelling salts in the glove compartment. No power steering. I took my driver’s test in that car and I didn’t even have to parallel park. Later dad bought another limousine, a Marshall Field company car. This one had air conditioning and, best of all, a window that went up between the driver and the peanut gallery in the back. The seating was strategic to get everyone in, with little kids on big kids’ laps. Dad was really great at yelling he was going to stop the car and drop us off if we didn’t behave. Actually one time they forgot my brother Charlie at a gas station. Mom’s line when I was very small was “I’m leaving and I’m never coming back because you are so bad," then she’d tie on her babushka and put on her jacket and go hang up the clothes.

One Easter when I was maybe 8 which meant Mary was 7, Mike was 6, Danny was 5, Margy was 4, Jackie 2, and Robby was 1, I woke up and smelled baking but went back to sleep. The next morning we didn’t have candy, I don’t know if they didn’t get to the store or if they were watching the money, but she had worked through the night to make each of us a big gingerbread bunny which stood up on legs and was decorated. Of course we wanted candy. She loved making bean bag games, rocking horses, toys, and more. We always had a birthday cake. Our allowance was a quarter, but on our birthday we got $1. My little sister was born three days after my 15th birthday. I remember mom making my cake and it just fell apart when she tried to frost it. She went upstairs and wouldn’t come back down, so dad took us to a movie, a REALLY special and rare event. It was “Cinderfella” with Jerry Lewis. Hey it was air cooled.

Without fail we went to church every Sunday. If you were on the ball, you got up and went with mom to 7 o’clock mass. If you were a lay about, you went with dad to the 9 o’clock mass. Dad was always late, so you ignominiously usually walked in with our crowd late and had to march up to the front pew. But if you went with dad his personal treat and ritual was to stop at a shop in town and get a chocolate malt and a Saturday Evening Post and shoot the breeze while we went through the comic book rack. If you sat in the front seat you may have gotten to steer while he drank his malt and read the magazine on the way home.

I was out of the house at college by the time my last sibling was born. Through those years mom was president of the PTA, Cubmaster, founding member of the historical society, advocate for the trails. How could we her children not grow up to contribute as both mom and dad set as examples? I was the first to go to college and in the end all 14 did, with a doctorate and masters degrees, authors, executives, professors, scientists and public servants. The example our parents set meant more than any lecturing. My parents created and raised a village of people and set them out into the world with no looking back except to realize how fortunate we all were in the choice of our parents. How lucky can you be?

My dad made it to their 50th wedding anniversary when we all gathered. After many speeches mom stood up and gave her short brief speech, “Well, I kept you clean and fed.”

1303. Arthur William[9] Heim (Louisa S.[8] Shafer, Samuel B.[7], Elizabeth Emily[6] Heim, Rosina[5] Wagner, Christina Barbara[4] Herthneck, Johann Michael[3], Caspar[2], Johannes[1]) was born 12 Aug 1909 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 29 Apr 1982 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. He married Lucille Marie Stratton 02 Nov 1934 in Humboldt, Richardson Co, Nebraska, daughter of Clarence Stratton and Mary Heim. She was born 04 Oct 1910 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 07 Jun 2010 in Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Arthur William Heim:

Arthur W. Heim, 72, Dawson, died Thursday April 29, 1982 in Lincoln. Survivors: wife, Lucile; daughter, Lorna M. Carter, Denver; son, Alan A., Lincoln; sisters, Mrs. Mattie M. Vermaas, Humboldt, Mrs. Pearl M. Kirkwood, Columbus, Ohio. Services: 3:30 p.m. Sunday, United Methodist Church, Dawson. Heim Cemetery, Dawson.

Arthur William Heim - August 12, 1909 - April 29, 1982 was the sixth child of Jonathan W. and Louisa Shafer Heim of Dawson. With his brothers and sisters, Mattie, Howard, Wesley, Pearl, and Edith (Clarence died in infancy), Arthur grew up on the family farm in the house built In 1874 by his grandparents, Jacob G, and Regina Gross Heim, Jacob G. (Jakey to friends and neighbors) and Regina and family were pioneer German settlers from, Pennsylvania who came to Nebraska seeking richer, less rocky farmland than they had in the East.

As a boy Arthur ranged up and down the farm's creeks, enjoyed the cold permanent spring that had caught his grandfather's eye, collected bird' eggs, and learned to farm, He soon began his lifelong interest in music. All Jonathan's children sang well and had excellent pitch, and Arthur settled into a true, mid-tenor voice. He took violin lessons as a teenager, riding the train to Humboldt once a week, played violin in the Dawson church orchestra, and was in demand for violin solos in the community,

Arthur attended elementary and high school in Dawson, walking to school over the farm fields. After high school graduation in 1927, he attended the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, where he went out for track, took banjo lessons, and began a liberal arts course. After one semester, Arthur returned to Dawson: his father had suffered a serious farm accident and could no longer work the farm. Arthur began farming the home place in 1929 and farmed for his entire life. In November 1934, he married the youngest child of Clarence and Mary' Heim Stratton, Lucile Marie born October 4,1910, whose sisters and brothers were True, John, Isaiah, and Helen (another child, Mary, lived only a few days). Arthur and Lucile had known of each other since childhood, and their friendship grew at first, not surprisingly, around music - Lucile was a talented pianist who could play all the popular jazz songs of the 1920's. Arthur and Lucile had two children, Alan Arthur born in 1937, and Lorna Mary born in 1941. They maintained their interest in music, teaching their children very early to sing and to play instruments. In the 1950's, Lucile directed the Ladies Chorus at Dawson, a group who sang for many church and community events. Both Art and Lucile lent their talents to musical variety shows, well known in the Dawson community in the 1940's and 1950's, and to church programs and plays.

Arthur Heim, a meticulous farmer, was interested in conservation of water and topsoil, terracing, good fences and floodgates, and clean and well-kept buildings, fields, and pastures, Arthur retired from full-time farming in 1971 and began renting the use of his row-crop ground. He remained very vigorous, however, raising cattle, mending and replacing fences, cutting hedge, putting up hay, mowing pastures and fencerows, improving the family home and buildings, and managing, Retirement did give him more time to read, a lifelong hobby, and to continue many activities in his beloved United Methodist• Church in Dawson, In his last winter, at 72, he reorganized a choir at the Dawson church; selected music, and rehearsed and directed the choir in both Christmas and Easter seasons.

Four generations have now lived in the large, native limestone and white pine house north of Dawson. Few are now left to recount the experience, but the house and farm remain as a tribute to the Pennsylvania family who brought their faith and hopes to Richardson County in 1874.

1335. Beryl Vivian[9] Thomas (Viola Mary[8] Gross, Samuel Albert[7], John J.[6], Dorothea[5] Wagner, Christina Barbara[4] Herthneck, Johann Michael[3], Caspar[2], Johannes[1]) was born 07 Mar 1919 in Kelseyville, Lake Co, California, and died 23 Oct 2005 in Lake Co, California. She married Charles S. Sylar, son of Henry Sylar and Lou Hillyer. He was born 10 Jun 1909 in Lake Co, California, and died 12 Jul 1972 in Los Angeles Co, California.

Notes for Beryl Vivian Thomas:

Beryl Vivian Thomas Sylar Peoples - Lake County pioneer family member Beryl Peoples passed away at Sutter Lakeside Hospital in Lakeport on Sunday, Oct. 23, 2005 from complications due to heart failure. She was 86. Family members had been in attendance during her hospital stay. Born in Kelseyville on March 7, 1919, in the house next to the bridge that is now the Serenity Day Spa, Beryl was the first child of Viola (Gross) Thomas and Delwin Lewis Thomas, second-generation pioneer family members. Beryl's grandfather, Benton Lewis Thomas, who built this home, also hauled the materials for the first Kelseyville bridge with his team of mules. He eventually moved with his wife, Susan Frances (Fanny Gard) to the house and property at the end of Thomas Drive near Finley (now the Garcia Ranch).

Beryl enjoyed accompanying her father, Del, to his pear ranch to the west of Adobe Creek and enjoyed overnighters with her grandparents. After completing her primary education at Kelseyville Grammar School, now Gard Street Elementary, Beryl moved from the Kelseyville home with her family, which by then included sister, Erlene and brother, Leroy, to the Joe Laughlin Ranch on Argonaut Road (currently the Riley-Davis Ranch). Soon sister, JoAnn was born and the family struggled during the Great Depression to keep the ranch afloat. Beryl worked at local fruit cutting and packing companies, and picked fruit and walnuts for her parents and the Gross and Thomas grandparents. She enjoyed the company of her cousins, including several double cousins, (two Thomases married two Grosses), and eagerly looked forward to the family's yearly Fourth of July picnics at Lakeside County Park. She took piano lessons from George and CorabellePiner in Kelseyville, and played with the orchestra at Kelseyville High School concerts. From her earliest years, she had a zest for reading. Principal Thaddeus Johnson recognized her intellect and talent and encouraged the "A" student to plan for college. Unfortunately, the family was not able to send her, but she did find a future with her first sweetheart, Charles Sylar, a member of the Hank Sylar family of Kelseyville, who swept her off her feet at one of the Saturday night old-time dances in Kelseyville. Charlie, who took voice lessons from the Piners, became an accomplished singer and performed on radio shows both locally and in the Bay Area. Beryl would accompany him delivering ice at various venues around the county, including the Jago Bay and Hobergs Resort. After marriage, the couple moved to San Francisco, where children, Thomas Charles and Carole Deanne were born.

Eventually they moved back to Kelseyville and soon son, Steven Gary, was born. During the summers, Beryl packed pears at the Kelseyville Packing Company (now Adobe Creek Packing), and after becoming a single parent, met and married Harold Peoples, who managed the shed's "monster" automatic packing machine each summer. Beryl and her children's next years were spent in Indio, across the street from the Date Festival Fairgrounds, where Harold was a carpenter and where his children, Marilyn and Judith, grew up. Besides raising her family, Beryl packed tomatoes, worked seasonally at J.C. Penny, worked in food service at College of the Desert, where her son, Steven, attended, and became the assistant of a local opthamologist. After many years in Indio, the couple retired to Fort Bragg where they enjoyed membership in the local Footlighters theater group. It was at Fort Bragg that Beryl spent hundreds of hours diligently researching and recording the histories of the Thomas (Thomas Drive), Gross (Gross's Cutoff), Gard (Gard Street) and Sylar (Sylar Lane) families, a passion she continued until her passing.

When Harold's health began to fail, they moved to Kelseyville, where Beryl looked after him until his death in 1987. Beryl moved to Brookside Retirement Residence in Ukiah in 2001, then back to her beloved Lake County in 2003, her last home at Aqua Village Mobile Home Park in Lakeport.

Beryl is survived by her children, Steve (Cathy) Sylar, Carole Barnes (Wayne Hozie) and Tom (Kathy) Sylar; stepchildren, Marilyn (Don) Villaneuve and Judith Hempel and families; grandchildren, Natalie May Sylar, Rob Jackson, Michael, Mark, Scott and Kim Sylar; step-grandchildren, Nicole (Jim) Anderson; great-granddaughters, Kristin, Hannah and Kiley; nieces, Lori (Pat) McGuire and family, Connie (Sam) Wright and family, Jeannie (Terry) Lewis and family, Adele (Hong) Sylar and family, Dianna (Sylar) Linden and Susie (Peter) Colombo and family; cousins, Gwennie (Gross) Rush and family, Barbara (Gross) Schnabl and family, Geneva Gross and family, Thora Gard and family, Sue (Rowe) Cupples and family; and numerous other cousins; and great-grandchildren.

A celebration of life will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 12 at Chapel of the Lakes Mortuary, 1625 N. High St. Lakeport, Califonria. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Red Cross.

Notes for Lola Bell Kaderly:

Lola B. Kaderly Smith Drury - In the early morning of Sunday, August 22, 2021, as our mother drew her last earthly breath, there was a joyous reunion, as she began her eternity in the presence of our LORD and Savior Jesus Christ. With very heavy hearts we mourn our deep loss, but we rejoice greatly in her heavenly reward.

Lola was born on April 24th, 1939 to Bert and Hattie (Lewis) Kaderly in Barton County, Missouri, growing up in the Golden City area on their family farm, where they fished and hunted. She married Richard Smith on March 27, 1956, he preceded her in death on January 22, 1973. They had 6 children they raised in Jasper, MO where Lola would reside the rest of her life. She retired from the Jasper County Sheriff's Dept as a commissioned deputy after 27 years of service. Lola enjoyed spending time with family, playing mother/daughter softball with her daughters in their younger years and league bowling; even having a team of 5 that consisted of her and her four daughters at one point. Lola enjoyed going to the lake in years past, having coffee at Judy's with her twin sister and best friend Lois, and playing bingo. She was a longtime member of Jasper Christian Church, her family's "church home". Her children were by far her proudest accomplishment, something she did not hesitate to tell you, and grandchildren just added to that joy.

Lola was also preceded in death by her second husband, Don Drury on January 21,1993, her firstborn child, Diane Smelser on July 5, 1996, both parents, and her siblings. Lola is survived by her daughter Lola Wilhelm, Carthage; daughter Lois Yust and her husband Neil, Carthage; son Mike Smith, Jasper; son Steve Smith and his wife Misha, Jasper; daughter Rhonda Tiller, Carthage; sixteen grandchildren, Matt Smelser, Sarah Dwyer, Aaron Wilhelm, Jacob Wilhelm, Luke McWilliams, Ashley Nichols, Hannah Yust, Hunter Yust, Abbie Hasselquist, Kathryn Woodall, Payton Smith, Regan Smith, Gage Tiller, Katey Miller, Kiley Williams, and Gannon Tiller: and thirteen great grandchildren.

Notes for Rev. Millard W. Mead:

Rev. Millard W. Mead was a man who lived to serve others. His positive attitude towards life and strong sense of perseverance, despite long-term health issues and many challenges, allowed him to continue serving his God and helping others. On January 31, 2019 he earned the ultimate reward and was called home to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He was born May 27, 1930 on his family's farm in Cherry Valley, Ohio, the son of the late Myrlen and Winnifred (Mills) Mead. Millard was a 1948 graduate of New Lyme High School and that summer, on August 7, married his high school sweetheart, Janet Hummell. They shared 46 years raising a family and serving others until her death in 1994. He married Marilyn (Kiess) Linn in 1995. Marilyn survives and they've enjoyed many travels and created memories in their 23-year marriage.

Millard operated the family farm and raised Holstein dairy cattle until 1962 when he surrendered to God's call to the ministry. He grew up in the Cherry Valley UMC where he had served as a lay minister, readying him for his new profession. Millard received his B.S. in Education from Kent State University in 1970 and his Master of Divinity from the Methodist School of Theology in 1973. He ministered to the congregations of Johnston Federated UMC in Cortland, Grace UMC in Bucyrus, and St. Mark UMC in Galion before retiring in 1992 and joining Scioto UMC. Rev. Mead was honored as Pastor Emeritus at both Grace and Scioto UMC. Millard enjoyed conducting weddings and remained active in couples' lives in hopes of successful marriages. He was also thankful that God gave him words to help those in grief. Millard was active in many Methodist committees and organizations over the years and was particularly proud of his time spent on Methodist history and archive activities as well as being a founding member and trustee of the Northshore Retirement Home in Lakeside, Ohio. He was a longtime member of the Cortland Masonic Lodge No.529; Warren Council RSM; and the Jerusalem RAM.

He had the privilege of traveling all over the world and was humbled by his visits to the Holy Land. He and Janet enjoyed going to Oberammergau, Germany where they witnessed the once a decade Passion Play. He and Marilyn enjoyed many RV trips to Winter Haven, Florida and when unable to travel there, Millard enjoyed parking the RV at Foxfire Campground to just take in what God had to offer. In addition to his involvement in church life, Millard was an avid recycler of old appliances, enjoyed reading books by Zane Gray, and loved relaxing in front of the TV to a good western.

In addition to his wife, Marilyn, Millard is survived by three children, Jacqueline Doyle of Andover, Ohio, David (Robin) Mead of The Villages, Florida, and Susan Mead of Montrose, Colorado; three stepchildren and their families, Victoria Shawk, Dan (Teea) Linn, and Diana (Tim) Shroll; four grandchildren, Joshua Mead, Rebecca (Daniel) Castle, Richard Dyer, and Elizabeth Dyer; two great grandchildren, Tabitha and James Castle; two brothers, Maynard (Marvel) Mead and Leonard (Florence) Mead; one sister, Myrna (Richard) Walish; and two sisters-in-law, Leah Mead and Beverly Mead. In addition to Janet, Millard was preceded in death by two stillborn sons; two brothers, Merlin Mead and Maurice Mead; one son-in-law, Hubert Doyle; and a stepson-in-law, Dale Shawk.

The funeral service will be held on Sunday, February 3 at 4:00 pm at Scioto UMC with Pastor Dennis DeLong officiating. Friends may call at the church prior to the funeral from 3-3:55 pm. A brief service will also be held on Wednesday, February 6 at 11:00 am at the Cherry Valley UMC, OH-193 & US-6, Cherry Valley Twp., Ohio, before Millard is laid to rest in Cherry Valley Cemetery. Donations can be made payable to Scioto UMC and will be accepted through Wise Funeral Service, 129 W Warren St, Bucyrus, Ohio 44820 or at either service location. Memories and photos are encouraged to be shared on his Tribute Wall.

Children of Marilyn Kiess and Gale Linn are:

2192 i. Victoria Jo[10] Linn, born 25 Aug 1955. She married ? Shawk.

2193 ii. Diane Sue Linn, born 19 May 1958. She married Tim Allen Schroll 14 Oct 1978; born Aft. 1955.

Notes for Diane Sue Linn:

March 14, 2020 - Diana Shroll is a daughter of Gene Linn and Marilyn Kiess Linn Mead. Diana's siblings are Victoria Shawk and Daniel Linn. Diana went to Holmes Liberty, Lykens and Wynford schools, where she was involved in band, choir and drama. She loved science and math because she wanted to be a nurse like her Grandma Ada Kiess. Diana was a farmgirl and said growing up on the farm was an enriching experience. She was a member of Holmes Liberty Litter-Mates and showed hogs at the fair. She has fond memories of sitting on Tim Shroll's 'fair box' in the cattle barn. He was also involved in 4-H and FFA.

When Diana graduated from Wynford in 1976 she went to Mansfield General School of Nursing for two years, then quit to marry her high school sweetheart Tim Shroll. While school was important, she told her parents, "I just wanted to get married and have kids." Tim is the son of Dale and Judy Shroll and has two brothers Tom and Roger. Tim and Diana own DT Petroleum, a propane business located near Bucyrus High School. Diana has worked there most of its 30 years. After quitting nursing, and the children were born, she became a dental assistant for Dr. Palenshus. Diana also worked for Dr. Yaussy and then about 12 years for Dr. McMurray. Next, Diana became a successful Mary Kay sales director earning seven cars, including "The Pink Cadillac" because of her high sales. Diana also started the Canine Cookie Jar business making homemade dog treats, and still bakes part time. She distributed the treats locally, and to businesses in Ashland, Mount Gilead, Columbus, Findlay, and other area. She quit doing that massive amount of baking when she opened the smoothie shop.

Diana remarked that she vowed not to be like her Grandma "Eegee" Edith Linn, but has learned she is exactly like her. Diana has always been active at Mount Zion United Methodist Church, but has stopped her Sunday school job teaching high school children. She was also their youth leader, saying she probably misses that job the most. Her family is her greatest accomplishment in her life. Their son Joshua is a physician in San Antonio, married to Sierra Vig, an oncology pharmacist. Tim and Diana's daughter Ashley is a veterinarian in Findlay married to Matt Leopold a machinist in Findlay. They are expecting their first child together in April. As a grandmother to four step-grandchildren, Matt's children; Diana is tickled pink about being a first-time grandma to their little girl Harper. Diana started baking dog treats at Ashley's request. Diana is a dog lover and has two Saint Bernard dogs, the love of her life.

"Fit Fab Fun" is located at 209 S. Sandusky Ave., one block south of the square. The business happened when Diana hired a trainer at the Fitness Warehouse in Galion. Wes Kochheiser owned the gym, and they became friends and discussed physical fitness training. Diana lost 30 pounds and, with his influence, she became more aware how people should eat and take care of themselves. While working at DT Petroleum in 2017, Steve Schifer asked Diana if he knew someone who would purchase the Picking Building where the "Fit Fab Fun" is now located. Tim and Diana felt it would be a good place for Diana to open a smoothie shop. J and F Construction totally renovated the building and they opened in July 2018. The menu offers smoothies, wraps, soups, coffee and other healthy options. Looking back on her decision, many people told Diana the business wouldn't be successful, that people in Bucyrus weren't ready for it. She said that maybe it was stupid, but she likes taking risks and she took that as a challenge. It has been almost two years and they are busy everyday no matter what the season. The number one Smoothie is the Green Fusion, which includes spinach. People have realized that Bucyrus was ready for healthy options. The priority for Diana is good food, but she prides herself in the fact that their service is as good or better than the food. Their slogan is "serving up smoothies and sunshine" and they feel passionate about making someone's day a little bit better. Diana and her staff are "Wynford girls" making them very connected. They are Michelle Light; Sarah Shifley; Rhonda Emerson Rohrer; and June Smith Gebhardt. Payton Miller and Kaylie Heckert, both college girls who work in the summer.

"I've had a very full, happy life, full of challenges, but I truly believe life is what you make it. I'm almost 62 but not ready to retire. I love working. My parents instilled a good work ethic in me, and I'm not going to be done until God says so," Diana said.

THE BEGINNING OF CITY TRUCK SERVICE, INC. BY ALBERT L. BREHM, FOUNDER
July1998

It was near the end of the depression of the 30's, specifically in May of 1939, with a working capital of $100, which was borrowed from my wife's grandmother Renz, that I started a truck and trailer repair business in my father's machine shop, which was known as "The Brehm Machine and Tool Company." It was located at 3115 Croton Avenue, in Cleveland, Ohio.

In the beginning, not knowing that there was another business called "Truck Repair Service, Inc." on East 34th Street just over the bridge not too far from me, I named my new business "Truck Repair Service." At that time we had little conflict with the names; however, they really didn't like me having the same name.

I had several advantages which helped me to get the business started. First of all, I had no overhead such as rent or utilities to pay and already had someone to answer the phones. Secondly, I had the use of all the machinery in my father's shop and the advice and guidance of my Uncle Steve Lovell, who worked in the shop for my father. Another advantage was my determination to create a successful business and prove that the people who said that I couldn't do it were wrong.

There were many small businesses in the immediate neighborhood as well as two larger companies on the next corner at East 32nd Street. My first large customers were Trucking, Inc., and Standard Excavating, both were located at the corner of East 32nd and Croton Avenue. There was so much competition in the repair business that my prices had to be lower and my service better. I was able to do this because of my low overhead costs.

I would go out and solicit business in the mornings, and do the work in the late afternoon and evenings. If I got a big job to do at night, especially if it was a Ford truck, I would get my father-in-law, John Renz, to help me. John was a Ford mechanic and taught me a great deal about Ford trucks. My buddy, Wally Hodgins, was a mechanic for Gulf Oil and would help me at night and on his days off. As I remember, you could buy a Ford factory rebuilt engine for $89 and the labor to install it was about $24. Two men could change a Ford engine and have it out the door in four or five hours. A side-line business that I had was buying old trucks to repair and resell. I also sold trucks on consignment. I even had a small scrap iron business. There was a junk yard next door, and they helped to teach me how to buy and sell scrap.

As World War II progressed in Europe, our country came out of the Depression. My father took on a partner, Jim Thomas, and the machine shop business flourished with war orders. Sometime later, my father sold out to Jim Thomas. As the machine shop business grew, my working space got smaller and smaller. Thomas wanted me to move my business out.

I had a competitor a few blocks away that wanted me to be partners with him. We formed a mutual partnership, and I moved my business into his small shop at 2611 East 25th Street, between Orange and Woodland Avenues. My new partner's name was Al Wensink. Al was a big man, and larger than me, so we were known as "Big Al and Little Al." Big Al's building was about 40 by 60 feet, and was full of old cars and junk. The move took place on New Year's Day, 1943.

We had four or five part-time helpers working for us. My friend, Dick Kluth, who was with Rocky River Police Dept., Wally Hodgins from Gulf Oil, my neighbor, Art Fitzgerald, who worked for Republic Steel, and several others were part-timers. We also employed a mechanic named Tony Tripple who lived on the southside of Cleveland.

As the war continued, Uncle Sam kept telling me, "I want you!" With two pre-war children (girls) and one war baby boy, I had been exempt from the military service in favor of single men and men without children. When my last deferment was coming to an end, I began to look for a replacement to work with my partner Big Al and help him to run the business so that I would have something to come back to after the war. I didn't think that Big Al could handle the business by himself. I had a business associate, Edwin (Pat) Patten, whom I had known for a long time. Pat worked for Wagner Electric Corporation at East 19th and Carnegie Avenue, and specialized in brakes and front end work. Pat had been after me for some time to go into business with him, so this was a good opportunity for him to get into an established business. We sold him a third interest for a nominal sum, which he was to pay with his share of the profits from the business. We changed our name to City Truck Service. This removed the conflict with the other repair shop, Truck Repair Service, Inc., which made them happy.

The very day Pat began as a partner, I was inducted into the United States Arm, and was assigned to the Manhattan Project at Los Alamos, New Mexico. There I participated in the detonating of the first atomic bomb at Trinity Site. After spending my time in the Service, I rejoined my partners. We continued to do well and the business was growing. However, we had no possibility of expanding or bettering the business because of the building size.

One of my first customers from Croton Avenue, Standard Excavating Company, which had changed its name to Murray Hill Excavating, was owned by good Italian men, Peter (Pete) Salvagio and Benjamin (Chief) Consolo. Pete was in charge of all the equipment and truck maintenance. Pete took a liking to me and treated me like a son. He was always there when I needed help. Pete told me that he and Chief were going to build a new garage on Green Road, and they wanted to sell this garage to me. Murray Hill had built this building in early 1941 just before the war began. The more that I thought about it, the better that I liked the idea of owning that building. January 1st of 1950, we moved into 2902 Orange Avenue. We were really proud of our new shop. We immediately picked up new fleet accounts from across the street in Wenhams Terminal. We worked hard and long hours with part-time help. We hired Howard Smith as our first full-time mechanic. We paid off our mortgage in less than three years. Our shop was now getting too small for our rowing business. In the fall of 1953, we built on a drive-through addition of about 2,000 sq. ft. By that time we had two full-time mechanics.

In January of 1955, we hired my son-in-law, Michael Guzay, as an apprentice and parts chaser. As time went on, we hired more help, started doing body work, frame stretching, painting, and various other things. By 1956 we had six full-time mechanics, and I quit working in the shop to take care of the office, new business and customer relations. That year we also started an electrical and carburetor business known as City Truck and Ignition Service. Pat quit working in the shop and became the shop supervisor. Big Al took care of the road calls and chased parts.

In March of 1962, Big Al retired at age 65, and Pat and I bought out his interest in the business. In May of 1964, Pat died of a heart attack; that left me with the need to buy out his widow, which I did within the year. We had a good clientele of customers and a good personal business relationship with them. Some of the better accounts were Texaco, Inc., Mobil Oil, Hough Bakeries, Shippers Dispatch, and many more.

As you can see, from the beginning of my business career, the Lord has been good to me. On the way to work in the mornings, I would say a prayer, "Lord, help me to know what you want me to do and then give me the grace to do it. Enlighten my mind with your divine wisdom and warm my heart towards others so that your will may be done. Bless all my employees today, Lord, that they will do a good and honest job for our customers. Amen."

Over the years, several family members have worked for the company, and by 1976 out of eleven people on the payroll, seven were family. In 1978, the US Postal Service took over our property by eminent domain for a regional post office for that area of town. We looked all over for a building to buy or lease but nothing was suitable or in the right location for our operation. We were thinking of closing up and going out of business, but that was hard to do after forty years in business.

In 1979 we bought urban renewal property and built the present building that currently houses City Truck. It is located at 5301 Crayton Avenue. Yes, we did make the right decision about building relocating. In August of 1982, when I reached 63 years of age, I sold the business to my son Don and my son-in-law Mike, and they formed a full corporation known as City Truck Service, Inc.

With God's help, I have been very fortunate to be in the right places at the right time, to have good honest partners and loyal suppliers. I was also blessed to have a son and son-in-law to take over my business for me. This was the end of my business career in truck repairing.

1554. Janice Barbara[9] Renz (John Benjamin[8], Friedrich Wilhelm[7], Barbara Sophia[6] Herthneck, Johann Georg (Heartneck)[5], Casper (Kaspar Hertnegg)[4], Kaspar[3], Caspar[2], Johannes[1]) was born 08 Aug 1926 in Cleveland, Cuyahoga Co, Ohio, and died 08 Nov 2012 in Arizona. She married Robert Warren Eggleston 14 Sep 1945 in Elkin, North Carolina. He was born 16 Aug 1926 in Chicago, Cook Co, Illinois, and died 01 Jan 1992.

Notes for Janice Barbara Renz:

Janice Barbara Eggleston (Renz)- "I'll say what I've always said: I want to go to heaven!"This is how Jan responded when asked in early November if she wanted to move from the hospital to hospice care. She was there just 24 hours before she departed peacefully for her desired destination. Jan was like that: she achieved her objectives, even if it took 86 years.

Jan was born in 1926 in Cleveland, Ohio, to John Renz and Mae Ishaam Renz. Brother Garvin (now deceased) and sister Ginny (who lives in Florida) adored the youngest addition to the family. John supported the family as a machinist building parts for diesel trucks while Mae dedicated her time to church camps and revivals. Jan was serious about life and Jesus from a young age. After graduating high school in 1942, she chose Southwestern Bible College in Waxahachie, Texas, for its business program and classes on the comptometer, the first commercially successful key-driven mechanical calculator.

On arrival she was disappointed to discover that the comptometer instructor had been drafted. On campus, she found the "holy roller" chapels to be at odds with her more conservative style of worship. When the school's assistant cook disappeared, she volunteered as a way to avoid the chapels. Even then she was independent-minded and often found herself in trouble -- which is no surprise to anyone who knows her. She gained more freedom from school by landing a job at a laundry in town.

Her experience at the laundry helped prepare her for the copious amount of ironing back at school where women were required to iron the men's shirts. Seeking to reduce her workload, she convinced the headmistress that a shirt required 15 minutes to iron. She easily completed the task in half that, ingeniously carving out time for herself.

After a year of Bible college, Jan was determined to learn a marketable skill. She headed to Chicago and enrolled in business school to finally learn and master the comptometer. At the same time, she attended night school at the Moody Bible Institute.An attractive young woman, Jan garnered her share of attention. But a man not passionate about missions quickly learned he didn't have a chance with her. At a prayer meeting one night, she knew she had found her man before even laying eyes on him. She heard his voice -- deep, measured and sincere -- as he prayed aloud and knew in that moment that she would marry him. With this innate knowledge, she was unsurprised to learn he shared her passion for missions.

Robert W. Eggleston (Bob) was a skilled craftsman (bricklayer and marble setter), Golden Gloves boxer and upright fellow. He was only 19, however, and his parents refused to give him the necessary permission to marry. Bob and Jan eloped on Sept. 14, 1945, to Elkin, North Carolina, where the legal age of marriage without parental consent was just 18. After the ceremony, Jan sent her parents a telegram from Elkin to report she was "happier than ever."Now legally united, the young couple returned to Chicago and began preparing for the mission field and whatever else came their way. And something else indeed came their way: family.

The health of Bob's mother declined, requiring Jan's care until her death. Bob and Jan's first son Gary was born in 1950; Greg followed in 1953. The family moved to Texas where Bob had found work. It was here that Bob and Jan felt they could again start training for the mission field and began raising support through the church. Their church later decided not to support the mission, a disappointing betrayal the Egglestons would not soon overcome. A third son, Dave, was born in 1957 who was followed by a "surprise" baby, Robert, in 1960.

If hell needed a second name for Janice, it was Texas. Allergies were debilitating for her, depleting her of the necessary energy to keep up with four young boys, a house and societal expectations. The next blow came when Bob was badly injured during a fall from a building. While he recovered, Jan returned to work and the comptometer to support the family.

With Jan at work, her busy boys found their share of trouble. The final straw came when someone “progressive” built an underground dwelling next door to the beautiful brick house Bob had crafted for the family. Bob and Jan sold the house, bought a travel trailer and left. The couple felt if they couldn’t do missions in Africa, they might as well pull a trailer over 1,200 miles of gravel to Alaska.

Jan had always dreamed of Alaska and was excited to get some relief from the endless Texan grind. The adventure took all summer and led the family to some amazing places. The boys stirred up trouble by sneaking aboard military tanks while on maneuvers, explored abandoned towns and saw the wild. The trip was so long, however, that the family was not able to get to Texas in time for the school year. The Egglestons settled near relatives in Washington State and ended up buying an old farm. Bob, having grown up on the mean streets of Chicago, now had his chance to raise cattle.

In later years, Bob and Jan looked back at the farm as some of their best. The workload on the 20-acre spread was enormous with fences to build, rampant blackberries to remove from the fields and an old house to make livable. Jan’s independence and work ethic helped the family overcome these obstacles to make the farm a home. At the peak, 20 head of polled Herefords roamed the fields, two boxers ran freely, a dairy cow was milked twice daily, chickens produced eggs and multiple trees grew fruit for canning. It was not uncommon for Jan to hear a son to complain, “Steak again tonight?”

But trouble still came in the form of loud hippie squatters, recession of the '70s, breast cancer and the death of their son Dave in 1976. Dave’s death changed the family, mostly making it more forgiving and aware that every day counts. In those years, one of the best influences on Jan was Women’s Bible Study Fellowship. Jan progressed from attendee to leader and found some measure of hope while grappling with the loss of her son. She also kept her grief at bay by becoming an emergency medical technician for the Longbranch volunteer fire department. A phone call would have Jan leaving dinner on the stove and running out the door at a moment’s notice.After their youngest son left home and with their finances in order, Bob and Jan again turned to their old missions dream. Bob’s building experience made them perfect candidates as support missionaries.

Almost 40 years after declaring their dream to one another, they sold the farm and headed to Sudan Interior Missions in Monrovia, Liberia. While helping with construction, they made many friends and enjoyed the slower pace and exotic environment. In the African heat, however, Bob was unable to drink enough water and formed kidney stones. Bob endured a painful flight from Liberia to New York where he was treated. Persistent, they returned to Africa, but another kidney stone signaled the end of their foreign missions.

They decided it was time to pursue another dream of managing a small motel. They signed up with Motel 6 and managed hotels across the Southwest before settling in Tucson, Arizona. While plotting their next adventure, Bob died suddenly at age 66 of a heart attack. Anyone looking at Jan in 1992 could plainly see the loss of her soul mate written across her face.She dealt with this blow as she had everything in her life: with prayer and determination. She went back to school and studied those newfangled computers. She bought a duplex to supplement her income. She made things for her four grandchildren, Greg’s daughter Carlie in Oregon, and Gary’s sons Blake, Travis and Cameron in California. She donated her time to her church and took her love of quilting to the next level by making quilts for unwed mothers. She helped gather supplies for orphanages on short mission trips to Mexico.

Jan perhaps found her ultimate calling with Child Evangelism Fellowship, an organization that bridged the gap for working families by providing Christian education for children who had nowhere to go after school. She taught and organized CEF classes, gathered and made materials, encouraged countless young people and targeted any pastor or layperson who dared excuse himself or herself from this important task.She brought home a beloved canine companion, Peanut, and energetically raised two litters of boxer pups. For 12 years, Peanut spent her days entertaining Jan and her evenings on her human mom’s lap gently snoozing. Ever faithful, Peanut died just three weeks before Jan’s passing.

Cancer returned in 2004 and again in 2008. Jan continued to be involved with CEF as much as her health would allow. Even after losing son Greg in 2009, she kept working for CEF and making beautifully crafted quilts, pillows and placemats. In 2011, cancer and chemo came again and conversations about the end surfaced. Jan refused to give up, however, not with CEF classes needing teachers and so many unfinished quilts. She beat cancer once again.But when cancer came one last time in 2012, there were no more treatments. She was given the chance to participate in an experimental treatment out of a cancer hospital in Rochester, New York, and administered by a satellite facility in Tucson. With so much still to accomplish, Jan signed up. Even if she didn’t make it, maybe the research would help someone.The chemo did indeed work and significantly shrank her tumors. But it worked too well and killed her immune system. At the end, her mouth and throat pain made it virtually impossible to swallow and she rapidly lost weight she could not afford to lose.

Before she passed, her blue, blue eyes opened, seemed to momentarily focus on the familiar face next to her and then shifted heavenward. On Nov. 8, 2012, she was on her way.Some would say Jan "lost" her battle to cancer, but her family and friends know differently. Jan's body could go no further, but the spirit ofJanice Barbara Eggleston never gave up nor did she lose to anything. She persevered to the end, always fighting the good fight, embracing life with an unparalleled exuberance, a deep love and reverence for God and a joyous expectation about her final heavenly destination.Her family takes comfort today in knowing she made it.

Audrey Elizabeth (Betty)[9] Kirkpatrick (Roberta (Berta)[8] Renz, Robert Ephriam[7], Barbara Sophia[6] Herthneck, Johann Georg (Heartneck)[5], Casper (Kaspar Hertnegg)[4], Kaspar[3], Caspar[2], Johannes[1]) was born 22 Nov 1933 in Patterson Twp, Lemhi Co, Idaho, and died 04 Aug 2014. She married Wallace Neal Facer, son of Willard Facer and Lucy ?. He was born 18 Jul 1923 in Malad City, Oneida Co, Idaho, and died 27 Jun 2000 in Malad City, Oneida Co, Idaho.

Notes for Audrey Elizabeth (Betty) Kirkpatrick:
Audrey Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, "Betty", was born on November 22, 1933 to Roberta and Bill Kirkpatrick in the beautiful Persimeroy Valley near Challis and May, Idaho. Bill owned a small ranch in Challis and Roberta taught school there. Betty's days growing up were filled with fun times and hard work. All of her life, Betty talked fondly of her days on the ranch with her sister June and her brother John. Betty developed her love for reading from her Mother who was never a "traditional" woman. Roberta's mother, Josephine Kennedy Renz, was the first female postmaster in the Western United States serving in Leadville Colorado. Roberta's early feminist ideas and her career as a traveling school teacher had a profound effect on Betty who was also a proud feminist all of her life.

Betty graduated from Challis High School in 1951 where she had to board away from home for two years due to the isolated location of the ranch. Betty was musically gifted and played in the school band and a dance combo group. At 18 she met a handsome World War II veteran named Wallace Neal Facer from Malad, Idaho. They decided to share the adventure of life together and were married on April 7, 1952 at the Kirkpatrick Ranch in Challis. They embarked on a long and happy journey and remained together for nearly 48 years until Dad passed away in 2000.

Betty was loved dearly by her 3 daughters, Pat DeHerrera (Steve DeHerrera), Jean Facer (John Martinez) and Joy Facer (Russ Mellor). She has two grandsons, Nathan and Mike DeHerrera and four granddaughters Mindy Gulati, Monica Frew, Jackie Decker and Madison Facer. She also has seven great grandchildren. Gage, Myia, Devery, Destiny, Alex, Rizah and Carmen.

She worked at HAFB for 22 years until she retired in 1987. She was one of the first female computer operators in the newly emerging field of IT. Both Betty and Neal were lifelong Democrats and Betty was proud to vote for Barrack Obama. Throughout her life she loved to fish, watch softball and travel with her best friend Neal Facer. She spent many years watching her grandkids, reading, quilting, flower gardening and canning. She loved to travel; she visited Florida, California, Las Vegas, Idaho and Hawaii.

In 1986 she was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis. She faced MS with courage and dignity and she persevered for many years battling her disease not letting it limit her life and her happiness. She will always be remembered for her kindness, generosity, stamina, and toughness. Her will to live was strong and she lived her life to the fullest. Her spirit will always be with us and she holds a very special place in our hearts. " . . . death is not an ending but a symbol of movement upon the path of which we are all traveling. As it may be painful to lose contact with the physical aspect of the one we love, the spirit can never be lost. We have been and will always be part of each other." John Denver

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday, August 6, 2014 at 11 a.m. at Lindquist's Layton Mortuary, 1867 N. Fairfield Road. Friends may visit with family from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. prior to the service. Betty will be buried next to Neal in the Malad, Idaho Cemetery at 2 p.m. that same day. He was born in Malad, Idaho on July 18, 1923 and lived a life that included happiness, family and adventure. He will be remembered by those around him as a loving husband, father, brother and a cherished friend. Neal was born in Southern Idaho to his parents, Lucy Williams and Willard Facer. He had seven siblings: Ila, Elmo, Rula, Jack, Sherman, Carol and Alma. Neal was a veteran of World War II, serving his country in the U.S. Air Force. He was stationed in several states throughout the country prior to an extended tour of duty in England and France during the war. He was very proud of his military service and of his country. He was also proud of his brothers and sister who served their country during and after the war.

In 1952, Neal married Audrey E. (Betty) Kirkpatrick from Challis, Idaho. She became his companion and dearest friend through 48 years of marriage. Neal was loved dearly by his three daughters and their families: Patricia DeHerrera and her husband Steve, Joy Facer and Russ Mellor, and Jean Facer and Steve Decker. Neal has two grandsons, Nathan DeHerrera and Michael DeHerrera; and four granddaughters, Mindy Facer, Monica Greenway, Madison Facer and Jackie Decker. He also has two great-grandchildren, Gage and Myla DeHerrera.

Throughout Neal's life, he loved to go fishing, watch softball games and travel with his best friend, Betty. He took his family on many trips and supported all of them in their lifelong endeavors. He spent many hours watching his grandkids and taking them on fun and happy adventures. He was always busy with his brother, Sherm, fishing or working together on Sherm's farm. He was also very proud of his racecar-driving brother, Alma. He shared many happy birthdays with his little sister, Carol, and he had fun times visiting Rula in South Dakota. Neal was very close friends with Betty's dad, Bill Kirkpatrick. They loved to spend time hunting and fishing together in the mountains of Idaho. Neal showed everyone he was around what a kind and generous person he was. He was dearly loved by his family and friends and he will be in our hearts forever.

She married Dean Alan (Moose) Moosman, son of Ernest Moosman and Belle Simmons. He was born 29 Oct 1932, and died 14 Apr 2005 in Maumee, Lucas Co, Ohio.

Notes for Dean Alan (Moose) Moosman:

The "Dean" of bowling in Northwest Ohio, Dean A. Moosman, died at 72, on Friday, April 15th, 2005, at St. Luke's Hospital, Maumee. To list Mr. Moosman's accomplishments on the bowling lanes would fill a scrapbook, or two, as evidenced by his induction into the Toledo, 1978, Bowling Green and Ohio (both 1992) Halls of Fame. In addition to his talents on the lanes, he was a respected businessman. In the summer of 1977 he purchased Varsity Lanes in Bowling Green and operated that center until August of 2004: until 1984 with his partner, Darell Ducat.

As a proprietor, "Moose" as he was known throughout the state and beyond was well respected and earned recognition nationally with an article written in "Bowling Center Management" in January of 2000. Also, the Bowling Green Bowling Association honored him with a distinguished Service Award.

As a 15 year member of the Professional Bowler's Association, Moose earned three top 20 finishes in the PBA event held in Toledo, including a ninth and 10th place finish. As a proprietor he hosted one of the highest paying PBA regional events in the nation. The regional also included the largest Special Olympics Pro-Am event in the country. Other individual accomplishments include winning the Ohio State Match Game title and two Ohio Majors championships.

More than individual honors, he liked to focus on team accomplishments. In that respect, he also excelled as captain of the Reeb Funeral Home team, he earned more than 10 traveling classic league titles. The team also recorded what at the time was the Toledo record team series as well as being second in the nation.

In 1994, Moose established the career pinfall record in the Classic league. He continued adding to that record establishing a mark that may never fall.

The "team" man was also part of two different teams that established city records in Bowling Green for team high game, and later for team high series, as he led the later with a 781 set in the Champion of champions tournament.

The Reeb team also won the Ohio Match Game championship in 1975. Mr. Moosman was also part of two national Elks tournament championships. He also earned numerous city championship titles in Toledo and Bowling Green, as well as other numerous tournaments honors.

Age did not slow him down. Just prior to his death he rolled a 652 in the singles event at the American Bowling Congress tournament being conducted at Baton Rouge, LA. That was his 39th consecutive appearance in the tournament where he earned a better than 200 average. In 1992, the Reeb team won the ABC team all events title. Though not one to brag about his accomplishments, he was rather proud of the fact that he had earned a no-hitter in baseball, a hole in one in golf and a perfect 300 game of bowling. (The legend was born). From the first time he picked up a bowling ball in 1949 until the last time he rolled a ball down the lanes, he was a success, earning at least one title in six consecutive decades. More importantly, Moose was known as a gentleman and a class act. "Whatever I did, baseball, basketball, golf or bowling, I've always wanted to be good at what I do," Mr. Moosman told a reporter in 1992 at his induction into the state hall of fame. "I wanted to be the best that I could be, so I gave it my best shot"

He certainly did. Dean was an Army Veteran of the Korean War. He was a member of the Elks. He is survived by Arlene (Kazmaier) Moosman; son, Jamison Moosman; daughter, Dana (Gordon) Andrews of Perrysburg and a grandson, Collin Andrews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ernest C. and Belle (Simmons) Moosman and a brother, Robert Moosman.

Notes for Richard W. (Dick) Kazmaier, Jr.:

Dick Kazmaier - As a 155-pound fifth team tailback on the 1948 Princeton University freshman football team, Dick Kazmaier was lightly regarded by the Tigers' head varsity coach, Charlie Caldwell, who felt he was "too small for varsity athletics."

At the time, Caldwell, a legendary Princeton coach, had not yet been able to discern Dick's determination, competitiveness or burgeoning talent as a football player. But Caldwell soon came to appreciate those qualities as Dick developed into one of Princeton's greatest players, who, as a senior in 1951, would lead the nation in total offense, be selected to the All-America team, named the Associated Press male athlete of the year and awarded the Heisman Trophy as the best college football player in the country.

One of the last of the outstanding triple-threat backs, skilled at running, passing and punting, he is perhaps remembered best for his elusiveness as a runner. But as a senior he also led the nation in passing efficiency while completing 123 passes for 960 yards and 13 touchdowns as he led Princeton to its second straight undefeated season and the Lambert Trophy, emblematic of the best college football team in the East.

Drafted by the Chicago Bears of the National Football League, Dick bypassed professional football, electing instead to get a Master's Degree in business at Harvard. Following three years in the U.S. Navy as an officer, he began a long business career, which included the presidency of Kazmaier Associates, a marketing and financial services company based in Boston. In addition, he served as trustee at Princeton, as chairman of the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sp orts under presidents Ronald Reagan and George Bush, as a director of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, and as a member of the executive committee of the American Red Cross and the Knight Foundation Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics.

A native of Maumee, Ohio, Dick was named Princeton's Football Player of the Century and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1966. As to the Heisman Trophy, he once said, "I don't think of it as something I did. I think of it as something we did as a group. I have two requests that I make when I say my prayers, which I do daily. One is to accomplish, and one is to contribute." Dick Kazmaier has done both in extraordinary fashion.

The Untamable Tiger - Sunday October 22, 2000 8:08 PM by Molly Moore – CNN Sports Illustrated:

On Oct. 27, 1951, undefeated Cornell, one of the best teams in the country, visited Princeton's Palmer Stadium to take on the also unbeaten but underdog Tigers. Cornell coach Lefty James had spent an entire year developing strategies to defend Princeton All-America back Dick Kazmaier. "Stop Kazmaier," James theorized, "and you stop Princeton."

But Kazmaier was too much for the coach's machinations. The triple-threat tailback threw for three touchdowns and ran in two more to lead Princeton to a 53-15 victory. He completed 15 of 17 passes (88.2%, still a Princeton record) for 236 yards. His 124 yards rushing gave him 360 overall, a Tigers record that stood for 30 years.

After the game, James sorrowfully concluded it was "the greatest one-man performance" he had ever seen. A performance that went a long way toward Kazmaier winning the 1951 Heisman Trophy as the best player in the land. "My approach was fairly routine," Kazmaier says. "I tried to look at every game the same and prepare the same way." Led by "Kaz," the Tigers went undefeated in 1950 and '51, winning a major- college-record 22 straight from his sophomore year to the end of his senior season. The 1950 offense averaged 38.8 points per game, still a school record. In '51, Princeton ranked sixth nationally and won the Lambert Trophy as the best in the East.

This was a far cry from Kazmaier's humble beginnings as a third-team tailback on Princeton's freshman squad. Coach Charlie Caldwell thought the 5-11 Kazmaier, then 155 pounds, "was too small for varsity athletics." Kazmaier didn't gain Caldwell's full confidence until the third game of his sophomore season, when he completed 8 of 12 passes, averaged nine yards per carry and scored both Tiger touchdowns in a 14-13 loss to Pennsylvania.

Kazmaier was a star from then on, fooling defenses with his equally effective passing, running and punting. He was accurate throwing on the run and completed 123 passes for 960 yards and 13 touchdowns his Heisman season. He was also a skilled rusher, changing pace and direction quickly. "They may stop Kazmaier from passing, they may stop him from running, but they can't do both," Caldwell said.

Kazmaier led the nation in '51 with an Ivy League-record 1,827 yards of total offense. In addition to winning Princeton's only Heisman Trophy-and the last by an Ivy Leaguer-Kazmaier was named AP Male Athlete of the Year, Ivy League Player of the Decade and Princeton's Player of the Century.

The modest Midwesterner would rather discuss team triumphs than his individual honors. The way he saw it, he was simply doing his job. "When anyone begins thinking contrary to the best interest of the team, that's when you don't win all of your games," Kazmaier says. "Obviously, we didn't have much of that thinking."

Football was not the top priority for the psychology major, who also lettered in basketball and worked part time to help pay for college. Kazmaier played sports because he enjoyed them, and as his father told him, "Dick, you're at Princeton for an education, not to play football." His devotion to the classroom over the gridiron was evident when the 1952 Chicago Bears draftee shunned the NFL for Harvard Business School.

After Harvard and three years in the Navy, Kazmaier continued in business and eventually started Kazmaier Associates, Inc. At 69, he still manages the Boston-based family investment company with the same tenets-consistency and discipline-to which he credits his athletic success. He also has served as a director of the National Football Foundation, chairman of the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports and on the Knight Foundation Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics.

Almost 50 years after he stopped playing, Kazmaier agrees with his decision to forgo the NFL. "If you won the Heisman in those days, there wasn't much more to accomplish," he says. "After such a wonderful time and so much success as a college player, why not go out on top?"

THE ALL-AMERICAN BOY - by Jerry Price with the University of Princeton
Dick Kazmaier '52 honored as the Princeton Athletic News Player of the Century

He was a kid, and there was a war going on. The older boys from the town left, one after the other. Most came back. The ones who didn't were gone. Forever. They were brothers of kids he'd played with. Kids themselves, really. He knew them. Remembered them. Watched them grow up around the neighborhood. And then they were gone, and each time the whole town struggled to accept it. He knew, of course. They all knew. They all knew they owed something to those kids, the ones who wouldn't have a rest-of-their-life. They owed something big, on the order of the freedom to live their own lives.

One day he left Ohio, after the war had ended, but he took it all with him. It's still with him today, and that's why, when people speak of him more than 50 years later, you still hear about modesty and teamwork and hard work and effort and loyalty and how these are the things that matter most to him.

He is Dick Kazmaier, and he is the Princeton Athletic News Princeton University Football Player of the Century. Princeton football in the 1900s featured 45 players who were named first-team All-America. The College Football Hall of Fame inducted 10 member who played at Princeton during that time.

Kazmaier's accomplishments, though, stand alone. Playing the tailback position to near-perfection in Charlie Caldwell's single wing, Kazmaier was a two-time consensus All-America who led Princeton to perfect seasons in 1950 and 1951 and victories in the last 22 games of his career. With Kazmaier as a running or passing threat in the backfield, Princeton set a school record that still stands by averaging 38.8 points per game in 1950 and followed that with 34.4 points per game in 1951. In the 18 games of 1950 and 1951--all Tiger wins--Princeton scored at least 40 points eight times, at least 50 points six times and at least 60 points three times.

As a senior in 1951 Kazmaier guided Princeton to the Lambert Trophy as the top team in the East and a No. 6 ranking in the final Associated Press and United Press International polls. He put together perhaps the greatest single game in Princeton history. He had his picture on the cover of Time magazine. At season's end he became the only Princetonian ever honored with college football's highest honor, the Heisman Trophy.

"He was amazing, just a great ballplayer," says Frank McPhee '53, himself a two-time consensus All-America and a member of the Princeton Football Association All-Century team who was a year behind Kazmaier. "He was the most determined kid I ever saw. He could do it all. He could do everything you should be able to do on a football field."

Kazmaier certainly wasn't a big man when he arrived on campus. "I was about 155 pounds when I first came to Princeton," he says. "I'm not sure they thought I was going to make that big of a difference in my four years there. But we had 120 men at that first meeting freshman year, and only 12 of us would letter as seniors."

Kazmaier came to Princeton from Maumee, a small town just outside of Toledo. He came of age during the heart of World War II, and he was in high school when it ended. "The war hit home when one of your friends' brothers went off into the service," Kazmaier says. "One of my teammates, he had two of his brothers go off to the war. The oldest brother, he never came back. This happened in every town, in every community in the country. The war was a very, very real thing to us."

But they were still safe. There would be no invasion in Ohio, and they knew that. And while they mobilized on the home front, they still found time for other things. For the kid from Maumee, this meant one thing. Sports.

"I had always been a great football fan," he says. "I knew about football from around the country, particularly in the Midwest. Michigan was only 45 minutes away. After the war ended, we'd get in a car and drive up there and try to get tickets. We had access to a lot of good football at a time when travel wasn't easy and roads weren't that good." He grew up playing all sports, not just football.

"I had good coordination and speed," Kazmaier says. "And I practiced. I shot baskets. I threw a football through a rubber tire. I'd field ground balls. It was just a natural part of life. There were no sports camps, no special training. You wouldn't start getting ready for football until August 1st each year. The coach would send you a letter that said practice would start on such-and-such date, make sure you're in shape." Maumee High School had a total of 150 boys. There were 72 total students in the Class of 1948, there were six grades in one buiding.

"My father was a manager of a glass company, and his boss was a man named Henry Dodge from the Class of 1932," he says. "The head of the Toledo schools was Gilmore Flues of the Class of 1926. They decided when I was a junior in high school that I should go to Princeton. My father was a graduate of Toledo, had played football there, and he wanted me to go to the best possible school I could. Princeton sounded like a pretty good place."

He began his Princeton career as a fifth-team tailback on the 1948 freshman team. "Did I ever think we were going to have the success we would have?" he asks. "No. But I always was striving for the best. That's one of the fundamentals of athletics. I'd watched the college All-America teams, followed it for years. That's how you were raised. Jack Armstrong, the all-American boy. I thought maybe I could do those things."

Princeton started the 1949 season 2-3 before winning its final four games. Kazmaier became a consensus All-America as a junior, and he had some epic performances as a senior. He ran for 262 yards on 37 carries in a 12-0 win over Brown. It was in the 1951 game against unbeaten Cornell, however, that Kazmaier put together a game that has grown to legendary proportions.

"I was a sophomore, and he was a senior," says Dick Cliggott, Cornell Class of 1954 and the leading receiver on the 1952 and 1953 Big Red teams. "Both teams were hyped up for that game, I remember that. Kazmaier just had one of those perfect days. Every move he made was just perfect." Kazmaier completed 15 of 17 passes for 236 yards and three touchdowns, with a completion percentage of 88.2% that is still the Princeton single-game record. He also ran 18 times for 124 yards and two more touchdowns in the game, and his 360 yards of total offense was the school record for 30 years. Princeton won, 53-15.

"I thought we were ready for him that day," Cliggott says. "He had been well-scouted by us, and we thought we had a good defensive plan. He just executed everything so well. He was the best offensive player I ever played against, and he deserved all the plaudits he received."

Kazmaier finished the season with 861 rushing yards on 149 carries, and he completed 123 passes for 960 yards and 13 touchdowns. He was 172 for 289 for 2,404 yards and 35 touchdowns while rushing for 1,950 yards for his career. He still ranks third all-time at Princeton in total offense.

"I had no real consideration or thought of the Heisman Trophy," he says. "The only thing we thought about was winning every game. One day I was called to the Dean of Students Office, Dean Francisco Godolphin. He was a fearsome person, because if you were in trouble, you had to go see the dean. He and Dan Coyle, who was the sports information director at the time, they were the ones who told me I'd won. I thought it was nice. Then I went back to class."

Kazmaier, who also won the Walter Camp Award and was named AP Player of the Year, played in one postseason all-star game, and he would be drafted by the Chicago Bears. He would never play football professionally, however. "Mr. [George] Halas called me," he says of the legendary Bears owner. "I knew I could earn more money in business than I could in professional football, but there was more to it than that. I had played with a great group of people at Princeton. The players. The coaches. Everybody at Princeton was a first-class individual. I had achieved everything I could achieve as an individual and as part of a team. What more could I want? I felt there was nowhere to go but down."

Kazmaier went to Harvard Business School instead of the NFL, and he's never looked back. He spent three years as a Naval officer, and he then set out on his business career. Today he is president of Kazmaier Associates, a marketing and financial services business with investments in the sports and leisure industries.

He has also been involved in countless other endeavors, including serving as a member and chairman of the President's Council on Physical Fitness under President Reagan and President Bush, as a member of the executive committee of the American Red Cross and as a trustee at Princeton. He was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1966 and has more honors and lifetime achievement awards than he can mention. The football field at Maumee High School is now named Richard Kazmaier Stadium.

"Dick Kazmaier is a modest man, too modest, but his career is not modest" says McPhee, who played in the NFL before injuries ended his career. "He was the best player I ever played with. It was a magical time at Princeton, and he was the main reason why. Dick Kazmaier was the No. 1 player we had, and he continues to stand out. He does more for the University than anybody. He did great things again and again and again, and he still does. I know I'm proud of him."

Today he is based in both the Boston area and the Florida Keys. He and his wife, Patricia, raised six daughters, and he loves to spend time with his grandchildren.

"It was an honor to play against him," Cliggott says. "I've met him many times since, and he has always been very modest. He's a very humble guy, very friendly, very down-to-earth. He's the type of individual anyone would be happy to be associated with. He is the type of person that every Heisman Trophy winner should be."

The original Heisman sits in the Princeton football office in Jadwin Gym, and Kazmaier has a replica of his own. It doesn't come up much, but he knows what he has accomplished.

"It's been a long time since someone recognized me as a Heisman winner," he says. "I don't think of it as something I did. I think of it as something we did as a group. Football is a consumate team sport. Nobody does anything of substance unless they do it with everyone else on the team. You have to have the team. The rest? It's just hype.

"I believe in history and I believe in accomplishment. I have two requests that I make when I say my prayers, which I do daily. One is to accomplish. One is to contribute." Princeton's best football player this century has done both. How could he not? He was a kid, after all, and there was a war going on. How could he not be touched by it?

Notes for Richard E. Herthneck:
Swartz Creek, Michigan is taking another look at its blanket ban on door-to-door sales after a challenge by an attorney who says the city is violating the First Amendment. Ohio-based attorney Richard Herthneck claims Swartz Creek's rules against uninvited sellers going door-to-door violates protections for commercial speech. Herthneck represents independent distributors of Kirby home cleaning systems.
Herthneck's son and law clerk, Oliver Herthneck, said similar letters have been sent to municipalities throughout the country, including to several others in Genesee County. He declined to comment on exactly which municipalities in Genesee County have received letters.

Herthneck said Green River, Wyoming recently revised their ordinance regarding door-to-door solicitations after threats of lawsuits. "We have written to a lot of different places," Oliver Herthneck said. "We're just trying to get everything current." Swartz Creek City Manager Adam Zettel said an ordinance change will be considered during a city council meeting at 7 p.m. on Monday, March 24 at City Hall, 8083 Civic Drive. The changes, created by city attorney Mike Gildner, would ban solicitation on sites with signs saying "no commercial solicitors" and "no solicitors." It would also call for a commercial solicitation permit. Door-to-door and mobile solicitation would be set to between 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., or sunset, whichever is earlier, according to the draft.

Notes for Lindsay M. Entz:
Lindsay M. Entz, 17, of 161 Ruth Lane, Jersey Shore, went to be with the Angels Thursday, Feb. 5, 2004, as a result of injuries sustained from a motor vehicle crash on Route 44. Born Feb. 6, 1986, in Williamsport, she was the daughter of Eugene D. Entz and the former Michelle C. Stabley. Her mother and father and a brother, Evan D. Entz, survive her. Also surviving are her paternal grandparents, C. David and Donna Entz of Salladasburg; a paternal great-grandmother, Laura Mae Swarthout of Jersey Shore; maternal grandparents, Sam and Helen Lowmiller of Mosquito Valley and Ronald and Linda Stabley of Pine Creek; a maternal great-grandfather, Harry Robison of Avis; and a maternal great-grandmother, Lois Stabley of Jersey Shore.
Lindsay's education started at Salladasburg Elementary School in September of 1991. She attended Jersey Shore Area High School where she would have graduated with the class of 2004. Lindsay's dream was to attend college and become a teacher for special needs children. While attending Jersey Shore schools, Lindsay was involved in many activities, including being a cheerleader for 10 years and a member of the track and field team for four years. She participated in softball and assisted the varsity wrestling team at Jersey Shore High School for three years; filming all the team videos and assisting coaches in any way possible. Lindsay helped to plan the Junior-Senior Prom and the Junior-Senior Girls Powder Puff Football game.

She was a conscientious and energetic worker, having been employed by Crist Farms, The Crest Restaurant, The Gamble Farm Inn and presently by The Restless Oaks. She was also a caring and loving baby-sitter to many area families. More importantly than her school or work activities, Lindsay had a passion for sharing her love of Christ with others. Lindsay had strong feelings and was tender-hearted to both the young and the old. She took pleasure in visiting with her grandmother, great-grandmother and their friends at Manor Care. In her spare time, Lindsay loved spending time with her family and friends, especially her boyfriend, Samuel Eck. Every year, Lindsay looked forward to hunting with her Dad and brother Evan and was very accomplished, having bagged a deer every year. Lindsay also had a special talent for arts, crafts and pottery-making.

Funeral services will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 10, in the Jersey Shore Church of God. Friends may call from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. in the church. Burial will be in the Jersey Shore Cemetery. Notes for Darrel Lee Blevins:

Darrel Lee Blevins died in Powell on Nov. 6, 2013, after a courageous battle with pulmonary fibrosis. He was 71. Darrel was born in Powell on Sept. 18, 1942. After graduating from high school in Helena, Mont., he began college at Northwest Community College in 1961 before marrying Janet Kaye Cavalli on Aug. 5, 1962. Darrel and Janet met when they were 15 years old and living in Cheyenne. After they married, they lived in Powell until 1963 when they moved to California so that he could attend USC.

Darrel's career with Safeway stores began in 1959 as a box boy and continued until 1989. In those 30 years, he held several positions, but spent most of his career as director of human resources for the Butte, Portland and Salt Lake City divisions. He also spent time in the Bay Area offices. He and Janet embarked on a new career, with the urging of his brother, Ron, by opening Red Lodge Office Supply in 1991. They then purchased Powell Office Supply in 2003 and moved back to Powell, finally coming back home after 40 years. During his various careers, Darrel volunteered with many different organizations, including Boy Scouts of America, and touched many lives over the years. Darrel was the scoutmaster for Troop 411 in Sandy, Utah. During his tenure as scoutmaster, he mentored many Boy Scouts to go on and lead by his example. He was a man who preferred to do good work with many different people, and shied away from being recognized for all that he accomplished.

Darrel was a true family man and loved spending time with his children and grandchildren, especially in the mountains.This quote by Winston Churchill helps describe Darrel's life: "We make a living by what we get; we make a life by what we give."

He leaves behind his wife and best friend of 51 years, Janet Blevins and their two sons, Randy Blevins (Vickie) of Colorado Springs, Colorado, and Martin Blevins (Heidi) of Bainbridge Island, Washington; and six grandchildren, Justin, Tyler, Donavan, Darrel, Zoe and Sophie. 1800. Charol Lynn[10] Heim (Lloyd Harold[9], Emerson Walter[8], Rosina (Rosa)[7], Johann (John or Johnnie)[6], Rosina[5] Wagner, Christina Barbara[4] Herthneck, Johann Michael[3], Caspar[2], Johannes[1]) was born 12 May 1942 in Seward, Nebraska, and died 22 Feb 2022 in Omaha, Douglas Co, Nebraska. She married (1) Wayne Knudsen Aft. 1960. She married (2) Daniel Pleiss 1982.

Notes for Charol Lynn Heim:

Charol Lynn (Heim) Pleiss, 79, of Omaha, Nebraska, was born on May 12, 1942, in Seward, Nebraska, to Harold Lloyd and Charlotte (Moorman) Heim. She grew up in Dawson, Nebraska, and was the oldest of four children. Charol attended school in Dawson through her high school graduation. She went to Wesleyan University for a short time before marrying Wayne Knudsen. They had three children, Kris, Linda, and Kent. In 1982, she married Dan Pleiss and became step-mom to Deb and Phil. Nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren soon followed.

Charol's life began with a story. When she was born, her parents decided it would be fun to combine their names to create her name. So, Charlotte and Harold became Charol. And for the next 79 years she told this story to those who asked why her name was spelled C-H-A-R-O-L. Her hobbies included sewing, knitting, and puzzles of all kinds. Charol was also an avid reader. While she was especially interested in Nebraska authors and stories, she read a wide variety of fiction and nonfiction, and enjoyed her time in book clubs over the years. Always reading; always learning.

One of Charol special interests was genealogy, and in particular the history of the Heims and other families who settled in Dawson, Nebraska in the nineteenth century. Always active in the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society, she worked for many years as the secretary of that organization, and was instrumental in establishing the Penn Colony Museum. She spent time working with her Aunt Shirley, Keith Heim, and others to produce the newsletter. Her work also included fundraising, acquiring historical items and documents for the museum, and arranging the annual watermelon feed and picnic. She always enjoyed visiting with family and catching up with old friends and neighbors at these events, which were the culmination of a long year of hard work. Charol felt a strong connection to the past, and her commitment to the Penn Colony was a celebration of that connection and a way to share that connection with others.

Working together side-by-side, Dan and Charol started their own CPA firm and ran it very successfully when they decided to merge with another firm in the mid-1980s. After a few more years with that firm and then starting their own CPA business again, they retired in March of 2021, making many lifelong friends along the way. On February 22, 2022, with her family by her side, Charol passed away at her home in Omaha, Nebraska. She was preceded in death by her parents; niece Stacie Olson.

Charol is survived by her husband, Daniel; children: Kristin (Bruce) Eckhardt of Lincoln, Nebraska, Linda (Robert Cavigli) Knudsen of Anthem, Arizona; Kent (Ann) Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Debra (Richard) Clopton of Auburn, Nebraska; Philip (Marian) Pleiss of Omaha, Nebraska; grandchildren: Matt (Jessica) Eckhardt of Lincoln, Nebraska; Jennifer (Ryan) Adams of Phoenix, Arizona; Chelsea (Jesse Sanchez) Eckhardt of Vicenza, Italy; Jim Kinghorn of Omaha, Nebraska; Audrey Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Jane Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Ellis Clopton of Lincoln, Nebraska; Danielle (Robbie) Gilbert of Omaha, Nebraska; Jenni (Calloway Tims) Pleiss of Omaha, Nebraska; great-grandchildren: Eleanor Eckhardt, Jackson Adams; brothers: Doug (Judy) Heim of Omaha, Nebraska; Don Heim of Atkins, Arkansas; and sister: Barbara (Gary) Schacht of Petaluma, California; aunt: Shirley (Neal) Pierce of Salem, Oregon; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, February 27, in Omaha, NE, at Heafey Hoffman Funeral Home. Pastor Glenn Schacht officiated. Interment was on Monday, February 28, in Dawson, Nebraska, at Heim Cemetery. Officiants were Glenn Schacht and Charol's dear friend, Pastor Mary Ellen Gaither-Marburger of Humboldt, Nebraska. Charol's son-in-law, Rich Clopton, recited the poem Last Fragment by Raymond Carver. A luncheon followed at the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society of Nebraska Museum in Dawson, Nebraska. Memorial contributions may be given to the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society.

Notes for Kathy Ludwig:

July 3, 2015 - Life is indeed short. There's no time to waste and it's never too late to try something new. Especially something that carries on Crozet's spirit of farm business. Bob and Kathy Ramsay wanted some livestock on their secluded small farm on the south side of Crozet, which they've named Wynott Farm. Bob's family had moved from Maryland to Missouri when he was 10 years old and there he grew up on a small farm his parents, Jim and Jeanne Ramsay (who now live next door), named Wynott Farm. Bob—and his brother, who has an operation called Wynott Quarter Horses—have carried on the name. The family came back east to Virginia in 1975. "We like to say about the soap, 'Have you tried it? Wynott?'" said Ramsey.

Kathy started out with chickens and still raises them. "She recommended goats to me," recalled Bob, who was not initially taken with the suggestion. "About eight months later, I thought, yes. I came across an Internet group on mini-Nubians that included someone from Charlottesville, who it turned out we knew." Now they raise mini-Nubians, a breed that began to be developed about 25 years ago when Nubians, a dairy breed, began to grow too large and breeders sought to reduce their size. Nubians were crossed with Nigerian Dwarfs. Breeders are trying to retain all the other Nubian characteristics such as long, dangly ears and Roman nose, Ramsey said.

There are now four does, eight kids and of course, a buck. While they're fresh, the does are milked twice a day, 12 hours apart, on the sixes. The Ramsay refrigerator is crammed with containers of creamy-looking milk. The goats, inside a fence of welded panels—goats are good at defeating a fence—are guarded by two Karakachans, an old breed developed in Bulgaria that by reputation is willing to take on bears. The large dogs raised exclusively with the goats, regard them as part of their pack and defend them accordingly.

Ramsay bought a seven-goat herd from an elderly woman who was selling out. Since then he's also bought goats from Wisconsin, Wyoming and one that hails all the way from Washington State. He transports them with a camper shell on his pickup. That separated from the truck once while travelling and blew off, but amazingly none of the 17 goats on board decided to jump out. Since them he confines them in dog crates for transport. "We got the mini-Nubian breeding business going, and one day I saw goats' milk soap for sale. I came home and said, 'Let's start making soaps! It was like a high school [science] experiment. There are five qualities in soap recipes, things like 'handiness,' 'lather.' We loved the soap."

Soap-making takes the goat milk, which reacts with lye, the cleaning agent, and adds fats such as coconut oil and shea butter and finally scent oils. Once the ingredients are properly blended in their kitchen, the soap is poured into wooden molds to cure. Molds line the hallways of their home. Once ready, the Ramsay's package the five-ounce bars in a burlap wrap secured with their Wynott logo sticker. Kathy's mom Ros Ludwig helps with that. The soap is offered in 10 scent varieties based on five essential oils, mainly used in combinations, such as lemon/eucalyptus, cedarwood/rosemary, coffee/peppermint or lavender/teatree (their best-selling scent). There is also an unscented bar. Six months ago they had a logo designed for them and from there it's been all about getting soaps to markets. They are making about 500 bars a month now. They rest while the goats are dry in January and February. (Like most farmers, they have full-time nonfarm jobs, Bob at State Farm and Kathy as a nurse.)

Kathy took some bars to the Crozet Farmers Market and sold nine at $6.50 each the first time out. Now the soap, also available in a 2.5-ounce size, is offered at the Charlottesville City Market as well as a dozen stores including Parkway Pharmacy and the new Crozet Artisans Depot. It can be found in shops in Charlottesville, at Michie Tavern, in Staunton, Lexington, and at The Cheese Shop in Stuarts Draft, too. It can ordered online though their website, wynottfarm.com. "I'm just thrilled for only doing it for two years. I love talking about it," he said. "I learned a whole lot from the managers at the city market," said Bob. "They were very encouraging." A new project is a gift shaving kit that includes the Wynott soap, a shaving brush and a small, locally made pottery mug.

"Everything in the soap is natural, no chemicals, no alcohol, no detergents," said Kathy. "Goat milk is good for you and your skin; it helps people with sensitive skin. It moisturizes and it has lactic acid, which helps remove dead skin cells. It's packed with vitamin A, which helps reduce wrinkles, and it has vitamins C and B and zinc, too. It's pH level is very close to that of skin. You won't go back to another soap. We know Cleopatra used to bathe in goat's milk. She knew it was good for her."

He married Cynthia Ann Michaelson. She was born 14 Jul 1956 in Ottawa, Illinois, and died 05 Feb 2022 in Northfield, Minnesota.

Notes for Cynthia Ann Michaelson:
Cynthia Ann Michaelson, known to a generation of middle school and high school students as "Mrs. M," died Feb. 5 in peace at home in Northfield, Minnesota, after a decades long struggle with cancer. She was 65. Cynthia served as a substitute teacher for many years in south-central Minnesota schools. She loved working with students, and she had a soft spot for those in alternative schools or with special needs. She took delight in the music of their names as she called the roll in the morning, and she often came home with anecdotes about the kids, always interesting and often amusing.

She was trained as a journalist and read the newspaper front to back every day. She took special pleasure in the unusual, so the police blotter was her favorite item to read. She was an avid bicyclist who averaged better than 1,000 miles a year along nearby bike trails. The Root River trail through Lanesboro was her favorite. Cynthia was never happier than when she was behind the wheel of her car on a cross-country trip. Late in life, she often put her bike on the rack and took off for places near as Faribault and as far away as Albuquerque.

Cynthia was born July 14, 1956, in Ottawa, Illinois, to Richard and Theresa (Bernardini) Michaelson. The family moved to Peru, Illinois, in the 1960s, where her father worked in the grocery business. She loved the parks of central Illinois, with a special affection for Starved Rock State Park. She graduated from LaSalle-Peru High School and attended Illinois Valley Community College before transferring to Southern Illinois University, where she discovered her passion for journalism. At Southern, she rose to become editor in chief of the Daily Egyptian, the university's award-winning student-operated newspaper. Her first job after college was as a copy editor at the Quad-City Times in Davenport, Iowa. There she met her husband, Michael O'Donnell, a sportswriter for the paper. They were married in January 1982. They moved to Evanston, Illinois, in 1983 when Michael was hired by the Chicago Tribune. Cynthia worked as publications director for the Chicago CPA firm Blackman Kallick, then took on her favorite and most important job, raising her two daughters. The family moved to Forest City, Iowa, then to Albert Lea, Minnesota, and finally Northfield, Minnesota. She began substitute teaching in 2009.

Cynthia is survived by her husband, Michael O'Donnell; daughters Frances O'Donnell (William Blakeley) of Auburn, Alabama, and Dana O'Donnell (Patrick Vernon) of San Diego; brothers Steve (Sher) Michaelson of Williams Bay, Wisconsin, and David (Lori) Michaelson of Granville, Illinois; her beloved aunt Lora Lockhart of Ottawa, Illinois; and dozens of nieces, nephews, cousins, and sisters- and brothers-in-law.

No services will be held. Memorials should be made to the ThreeSixty Journalism program at the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota.

She married William Clifford Mobley 15 Sep 1979 in Coralville, Johnson Co, Iowa.

Notes for Jacqueline Marie O'Donnell:
Jacki O'Donnell, Davenport, Iowa, 51 years since Ballard High: I have always lived in Iowa. Slater, Ames, Iowa City and now Davenport for the past 39 years. I ran a gamut of jobs, including 23 years at home raising my children. I volunteered relentlessly for non-profit organizations; at one point I started my own nonprofit for community gardening. My final job was as Executive Director of the Quad Cities Cultural Trust, a privately endowed fund to support the arts in the Quad Cities. I'm retired now, the job I was born for.

I raised two very fine children, Pat and Jackie Mobley, who are living out their passions in life, Pat as a civil rights attorney, and Jackie as an organic farmer and animal wrangler. I do not have grandchildren; thank you for asking.

The pandemic kept me from my children, my family, and my friends. Luckily I am an introvert and managed enough human contact to keep me sane. I decided to make face masks as a Zen practice, and donated them to a refugee organization, to a civil rights organization, to family, friends and neighbors. In the side mirror I see the pandemic retreating, but "objects in (the) mirror are closer than they appear" certainly applies.

1962. Jean Martha[10] Heim (Howard John[9], Louisa S.[8] Shafer, Samuel B.[7], Elizabeth Emily[6] Heim, Rosina[5] Wagner, Christina Barbara[4] Herthneck, Johann Michael[3], Caspar[2], Johannes[1]) was born 01 Mar 1930 in Lafayette, Tippecanoe Co, Indiana, and died 20 Dec 2021 in Houston Co, Georgia. She married Richard Benson Feitshans 23 Jan 1954. He was born 18 Apr 1923, and died 10 Jun 2014 in Perry, Houston Co, Georgia.

Notes for Jean Martha Heim:

Jean Feitshans, née Heim, departed this life on Monday, December 20, 2021. She was 91. She resided in Houston County, Georgia. She is survived by two sons, Stephen, also a resident of Houston County, and Theodore (Ted), of Raleigh, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Richard Feitshans, and her parents, Howard J. Heim, and Gretchen Heim, née Sprecher. As one of Stephen's fellow Rotarian said when told her death, "She was one spunky woman!" And that she was! But she always surprised and amazed me with her vibrant intellect and her love and knowledge of plant life (she held a master's degree in plant physiology from Purdue… graduating top in her class!). She would probably fuss at us for sharing that, since she never was one to promote herself.

After receiving her master's degree, she worked for Charles "Boss" Kettering in his laboratory in Dayton, Ohio. The research in which Jean was engaged was on the use of algae as a food source for the world's growing population. After her marriage to Richard, she joined him at the residence on his farm near Greenville, Ohio. In 1960, she helped Richard and two outside investors with establishing Mossy Creek Farms, a few miles north of Perry, Georgia. She was able to apply her training in plant physiology to great benefit in their farming operation. She also taught at Perry High School for a semester or two.

Yet Jean was so much more than that. She devoted her life to being a good wife to her husband Richard, and to being the mother of Stephen and Ted. She followed her love of nature by continuing to be a student of God's beautiful creation and by promoting it through her involvement with the American Camellia Society and other organizations. Her yard around her house is full of all varieties of unique plant life! And she had that special quality of wisdom… not just knowledge… and she would gently share that wisdom when she felt it might be helpful, as she has on several occasions with her sons, and many others. She will be greatly missed…

Arrangements for a memorial have not been completed at this writing, but Stephen has indicated to me that they want to get pass the Holidays, and this recent upsurge of COVID infections, and perhaps do something in March. Her cremated remains will be interred in the Heim Cemetery in Dawson, Nebraska, beside those of her husband, Richard, and adjacent to the graves of her parents. Please remember family in your thoughts and prayers. The family asks that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made in Jean's name to the American Camellia Society.

Stoltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Stoltz, Jerome. Baskets of yellow and white gladioli and daisies carrying out the bride's color theme, decorated the altar. The 6:30 p.m. double ring rite was performed by the Rev. L.M. Dougherty. Mrs. H.L. Lee was organist.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white embroidered nylon organdy over taffeta. It was fashioned with a lifted waistline with round neck-line and short sleeves and featured a short tulle train falling from the back of the neckline. A waist length veil of bouffant illusion sheer was attached to a crown of nylon leaves and pearls. Her cascade bouquet of white daisies was accented with a yellow bow.

Eileen Taney, Blackfoot, maid of honor, and Mrs. Leroy H. Swann, Reseda, California, the bride's sister and Claudette Creger, Torrance California, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns street-length, and in a soft yellow chrome spun, the gowns were designed like the bride's. Ribbon streamers fell from the back of neckline to the hem. They wore headpieces of daisies with ribbon streamers. Mrs. Taney carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies with gold ribbon and the bridesmaids' bouquets were backed with white ribbon. Best man was William Bennett, Carlin, Nevada, and ushers were Harold Stoltz, Jerome, brother of the bridegroom, and Loyd Harris, Twin Falls. The bride's mother selected a light blue boucle empire sheath dress with electric blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose rose lace with a white satin hat and beige accessories. White gladioli corsages complimented their ensembles. Sally Olsen, Mackay, registered the guests.

After a reception in the Hotel Bannock Pioneer room, the new Mrs. Stoltz changed to a red striped Madras bolero dress with red accessories and a natural straw hat for a wedding trip to Boise. For the summer, the couple is living at 344 Second Avenue north in Twin Falls where the bridegroom is employed by Ralph Harris Moving and Storage company. 2701 iii. Austin Etcheson, born Jun 2002.

Notes for Austin Etcheson:
Oct. 6, 2021 – Austin Etcheson grew up in Jasper, Missouri, with his parents Joe and Penny Etcheson. Early on, he began helping his uncle Louis Etcheson with cattle chores and his dad with construction. He soon understood how to care for cattle and had a good grasp on his dad's business, Etcheson Construction. His grandpa had once farmed but sold his ground in the 1970s and Austin said he has always wanted to get into farming. About four years ago, Austin started working for Russell Dintaman, a local farmer. His dad Joe knew Russell and it provided a great opportunity for him to get involved in farming. "I was the only one at the time working for him and I helped pick up rocks, row crop, take soil samples, work ground, spray and work on tractors and equipment," Austin said.

During the school year, Austin, worked for about three hours every evening. After about a year, he started to help plant and Russell started a pivot irrigation business called Steele Rain Irrigation. Austin helped put together pivots and the first summer they built three pivots in Laclede County, Mo., driving from Jasper every day. "Whenever we first started putting pivots together, he hired more people. We went from just me to six other guys. I managed the other help and kept everyone on track. The pivots are sent on a semi-trailer bundled up. We put them together and make sure they run properly. We can also troubleshoot them to find out what is wrong and fix it. I still help him on the farm as well. He can now give me an idea of what we need to get done such as spraying or planting, and I can just go out and take care of it. During the summer, especially when we are building pivots and going really hard, 70 or 80 hours a week is not outrageous. "I would advise young people to work hard. sometimes it's not going to be fun, but you just have to do it anyways. If you work hard, you'll be rewarded."

"Once I worked for Russell long enough, I was able to get myself into a place where I could rent 80 acres of pasture and buy some cows," he said. Austin currently has 25 black Angus cows of his own he really enjoys. He still occasionally helps his dad with dirt work, building terraces and waterways and putting in drain tile for other farmers. "Some jobs are better than others, but I enjoy all of it," he said. Austin also bales hay for local farmers. He already had a mower, but recently has bought his own tractor and baler. Austin was his FFA chapter's vice president, and the organization is a part of his family's legacy as well.

"My dad and two sisters were in FFA and I wanted to be in it. I came into FFA as a freshman and did horse judging the first year, making it to state. From then on, I really enjoyed it. Last year, I won a proficiency in ag service with repair and maintenance. Our agronomy team made it to state, placing fourth. I have learned a lot from FFA and being an officer has helped me on the job manage my team of guys." Austin also received his State FFA Degree this year and won the state Star Placement Award at the State FFA Convention in Sedalia, Mo., for his work with Steele Rain Irrigation and will go through a few more interviews and represent Missouri at nationals. "I would advise young people to work hard. Sometimes it's not going to be fun, but you just have to do it anyways," Russell said. "If you work hard, you'll be rewarded. I got started working with my dad and he has always inspired me. I helped him when I was younger, and he helped me get the job with Russell. He said he didn't care what I did as long as I was working and enjoyed it most of the time." Austin is attending Crowder College this fall for ag business, with an emphasis in agronomy. He would then like transfer to Missouri State University to obtain a bachelor's degree in agronomy with hopes of finding a job thereafter and continuing to expand his own farm.

Notes for John Marshall Hume:
Born on July 26, 1958, to Harold and Jeanne Hume in Fairbanks, Alaska, John Marshall Hume resided in Fairbanks his entire life, with the exception of two brief periods at Anchorage and Douglas where his dad was posted as a state police trooper. John grew up a very happy boy and young adult. He began working at age 15 while going to high school at 7 a.m. to noon, then going to work with his friend Pat Nault at the Firelight Restaurant on Second Avenue which was owned by Pat's dad, Sam. John continued working after graduation with Don Rosen and Lew Bratcher at Lew-Dons Cabinets until they purchased Donny Brook Lumber where John was a trusted and productive employee for many years until the lumber business was closed. Ultimately, he was employed by Fairbanks Paint & Glass for over 20 years, retiring days before his death and 65th birthday.

He was a contributing young man as he developed into a responsible member of the community. Between the ages of 17 and the mid-20s, John was very active in the Civil Air Patrol where he was the ground search coordinator for many search and rescue missions, when the CAP was the primary S&R organization. He was VP and president of the local chapter of the American Red Cross at age 19-21. John was always active in gun safety through membership in the Tanana Valley Sportsman Association where he held every NRA Instructor Certificate, including range master. He was president of the Rifle & Pistol Club for a number of years, and he managed the two gun shows annually at the university gym for many years.

On John's 28th birthday, he was with his best friend, Richard McCotter, when he lost his best friend and was severely injured himself in an auto accident. John never complained, however, it was very clear that he suffered various levels of pain throughout the remaining 35 years of life.
John loved his family deeply, particularly his two sons, Jordan and Brian. He will be missed by many who benefited from his services through employment (he was the go-to guy) and his commitment to gun safety in local organizations. He was very loyal to his employers and his friends.

Survivors include his sons, Jordan (Kayla) of Denver and Brian of Fairbanks; parents, Harold and Jeanne Hume of Fairbanks; sister, Laura DesJarlais of Anchorage; brothers, Gary Burke (Sharon) and Todd Hume (Hettie), both of Fairbanks; nephews, Christopher Axtell of Anchorage, and Ryan Burke (Taylor) and Eric Hume of Fairbanks; nieces, Jennifer Murphy (Sean) of Florida and Katie Jane Hume of Fairbanks; his best friend and adopted sister, Madeleine McCotter Gaiser (Richard's sister)(Mike); and many aunts, uncles and cousins in the lower states. A celebration of life will be held from 3-6 p.m. July 29, 2023, at Pike's Waterfront Lodge Binkley Room.
