Marriage Notes for Harry Stanley and Grace Kinsloe:

A romance begun in St. Joseph during the summer of 1909 culminated in the marriage Saturday afternoon June 6, 1914 of Harry C. Stanley and Miss Grace Elizabeth Kinsloe at the Washington Park Congregational church, Chicago. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stanley are well and favorably known in the twin cities, having spent their summer seasons in and about St. Joseph and Benton Harbor for the past five years. Mr. Stanley is a well-known member of the summer colony on the Lake Shore Drive. He won considerable recognition among the younger set through his ability to wield a tennis racquet, and has participated in a number of the tennis tournaments on the drive. He is a musician of much talent. Mrs. Stanley, while a comparative stranger on the Lake Shore, was one of the belles among the resorters along the river. For several season, with her parents, she was the guest at the well-known river bluff country homes. It was at one of the Saturday evening dances "up the river" that Mr. and Mrs. Stanley were Introduced by a mutual friend. Although strangers up till that time, they were attracted to each other by the fact that both lived on the south side in Chicago, and that both moved in the same social circles. Miss Kinsloe, a prominent member of the Beta Gamma Epsilon sorority at Wendell Phillips, and St. Stanley became better acquainted during the winter months, and it was freely predicted that the affair would result in a June wedding. Mr. Stanley however, heeded his father's wishes, and entered the University of Nebraska where he studied architecture. Shortly after Mr. Stanley return from college, Mr. Thomas West Kinsloe announced the engagement of his daughter to Mr. Stanley. Because the young couple had met in June, the wedding date was set for the month of brides and roses.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Clarence M. Burkholder, at 4 o'clock, in the presence of 200 guests. Mrs. Amy Young attended the bride, and H.W. McCay was best man. A reception followed at the home of the bride, 5728 Indiana Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley are spending their honeymoon in Berrien County.

Notes for Elayne Ada Launer:

Elayne Bloom went home to be with the Lord on April 2, 2018. She passed quietly at her home in Aledo, Texas with her daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter in attendance. She was born on April 28, 1924. She was beautiful outwardly and inwardly, gracious and loved people. She treasured visitors and always made them feel welcome. As a young woman in her teens, she loved to sing and was asked to join a travelling band to which her mother wisely said no. She was an executive secretary most of her working life, but developed an interest in real estate sales and changed careers. She had a passion for decorating and creating, so her later years saw her in the business of designing and selling gift baskets to those who wanted "one of a kind". It was a good description of her as well.

She was a loving wife, losing her husband to a crop-dusting accident in 1961. She was a loving mother who stayed ever devoted to her daughter and a doting grandmother to her granddaughter. Active in Calvary Chapel, Simi Valley, California before moving back to Texas in 2017, she shared the wisdom of her years with the ladies of the Bible studies and worked to setup and decorate for events until it was no longer possible for her. Elayne was predeceased by her four brothers and leaves behind her daughter Traci Miller, granddaughter Layne Miller, son-in law Rick Miller and numerous nieces and nephews whom she loved staying in touch with.

Bless you, Mother, you will be missed beyond words. Memorial service will be held at Calvary Chapel Simi Valley, California on May 20th following Sunday service.

Dr. George Roger⁷ Klare (Magdaline Elizabeth (Lena)⁶ Launer, Johannes⁵, Rosina Catharina⁴ Basler, Georg Friedrich³, Christian Friedrich², Johann Friederich¹) was born 17 Apr 1922 in Minneapolis, Hennepin Co, Minnesota, and died 03 Mar 2006 in The Plains, Athens Co, Ohio. He married Julia Marie Price 24 Dec 1946. She was born 05 Feb 1922 in Colony, Kansas, and died 13 Jan 2016 in The Plains, Athens Co, Ohio.

Notes for Dr. George Roger Klare:

George R. Klare was born April 17, 1922, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, son of George C. Klare, and Lea L. (Launer) Klare. He served as senior class president in North Bend High School in North Bend, Nebraska and graduated from that school in 1940. He received a Regents Scholarship to the University of Nebraska, where he studied before being called into the Army Air Force in 1942. He then took more college and officer training at the University of Missouri.

Following military and flight training, Klare served as a navigator on B-17 bombers in the Eighth Air Force in England. On Dec. 31, 1944, he was shot down over Germany. He spent the rest of World War II in German POW camps. He was liberated by advancing Soviet troops from Stalag Luft One on May 1, 1945. He was honorably discharged as a First Lieutenant in December, 1945, receiving the Air Medal, the Purple Heart, European area ribbons and the Prisoner of War medal.

Klare later recounted his experiences as a prisoner of war in a chapter entitled "Questions" in Interrogations, Confessions, and Entrapment, published by Springer in 2004. In this extraordinary account, Klare tells how he narrowly escaped death three times on January 3, 1945. While on a railroad car en route to the Luftwaffe Interrogation Center, Klare survived a friendly-fire bombing in the rail yard in Fulda, Germany, the target on this third mission one week earlier. Klare and his crew were ordered by a German guard to remove packages from the Fulda freight station that was on fire from the Allied bombing. The guard then ordered the men out of the burning building just before it collapsed. A crowd of angry German civilians soon gathered near the collapsed freight station. The German guard, who was an English-speaking Luftwaffe captain, was armed only with a pistol. Yet he managed to hold off the mob and take Klare and his crew to a safe building. "I owe my life to him," Klare wrote. "He was the bravest man I ever saw."

After World War II, Klare earned a BA degree cum laude in 1946, a MA degree in 1947, and a PhD degree in 1950 in psychology from the University of Minnesota. After working for The Psychological Corporation in New York City and the University of Illinois, he became an assistant professor of psychology in 1954 at Ohio University. It was during that period, he published, with Byron Buck, Know Your Reader: The Scientific Approach to Readability. This work introduced to the public the extensive research behind the popular readability formulas of the likes of Rudolf Flesch and Robert Gunning. The book showed the average reader in America was an "adult of limited reading ability," with half the population reading below the 9th-grade level. The readability formulas could be used to select and create literature and texts of different reading levels. Without appropriately graded texts, people will not read or improve their reading skill. His other books include Elementary Statistics (with P. A. Games), A Manual for Readable Writing, How to Write Readable English, and The Measurement of Readability. He also published 85 articles and book chapters.

Klare won a Fulbright grant to the Open University of England. He also won the Best of Show award in the Journal Article Competition of the International Technical Communication Conference in 1978 and the Oscar S. Causey Award for Outstanding Contributions to Reading Research in 1981, and was elected to the Reading Hall of Fame of the International Reading Association in 1997. He served on the editorial boards of eight journals, as well as The Literary Dictionary. He is listed in Who's Who in America and was listed in the Fourth Edition of Who's Who in the World. In 1978, he was named Distinguished Professor of Psychology. While at Ohio University, he served as chair of the Psychology Department from 1959 to 1963, as acting dean of the College of Arts and Sciences in 1965–66 and in 1984–85, and as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1966 to 1971. He was also acting associate provost for graduate and research programs from 1986 until his retirement in 1987.

George R. Klare, 83, died Friday, March 3, 2006, at his home in The Plains, Ohio, from pneumonia. He was born April 17, 1922, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, son of the late George C. Klare, and the late Lee L. (Launer) Klare. A 1940 graduate of North Bend, (Neb.) High School, he served as senior class president. He received a Regents Scholarship to the University of Nebraska before being called into the Army Air Force in 1942, taking additional college and officer training at the University of Missouri.

Following basic military and flight training, he served as a navigator on B-17 bombers in the Eighth Air Force in England until he was shot down on Dec. 31, 1944. He spent the remainder of World War II in German POW camps, and was liberated by advancing Soviet troops from Stalag Luft One on May 1, 1945. He was honorably separated as a first lieutenant in December, 1945, receiving the Air Medal, the Purple Heart, European area ribbons and the Prisoner of War medal.

After World War II, he earned a BA degree cum laude in 1946, a MA degree in 1947 and a PhD degree in 1950 in psychology from the University of Minnesota. After holding positions at The Psychological Corporation in New York City and the University of Illinois, he became an assistant professor of psychology in 1954 at Ohio University. He was named Distinguished Professor of Psychology in 1978, retiring in 1987. While at Ohio University, he served as chair of the Psychology Department from 1959-63, acting dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1965-66 and 1984-85, and dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1966-71. He also served as acting associate provost for graduate and research programs in 1986-87. He was author or co-author of five books, including "Know Your Reader," "The Measurement of Readability," "Elementary Statistics," "A Manual for Readable Writing" and "How to Write Readable English," the latter published in London in 1985. He also published 85 articles and book chapters, including "Assessing Readability," which was named a Citation Classic by the Institute for Scientific Information. He served on the editorial boards of eight journals, as well as "The Literary Dictionary."

He received numerous research grants and contracts, and served as a consultant to a number of education, industrial and military organizations. He also held a Fulbright grant to the Open University of England. Notes for Carol H. Watt:

Resident of San Mateo - Carol Watt Parker, age 81, passed away peacefully Saturday evening, April 25, 2009, with her four daughters by her side. Born in New York City in 1927, she grew up in McKeesport, Pennsylvania, and attended Carnegie Tech, where she met and married her husband of 37 years, Norman F. Parker. They moved to southern California in 1949, where she attended UCLA to finish her degree in chemical engineering. From Whittier, the family moved to Michigan for 2 years, then to Woodside in 1968. Carol was always involved in community activities, from Girl Scouts, PTA and Children's Home Society when her children were young, to worldwide organizations involved in exploring and preserving nature later in her life. She loved the outdoors, traveling extensively to see places throughout the world. She hiked and camped with enthusiasm. Her adventures included sports car rallies, skiing, and whitewater rafting. Never idle, even indoors, she was an accomplished seamstress, knitter, and pottery maker. She enjoyed both bridge and Yahtzee. Her biggest love, though, was horses. She was active in most of the local equestrian groups, both as a rider and a volunteer. She was known in the San Mateo County Horseman's Association, the Los Altos Hunt, Los Viajeros Riding Club, the Woodside Town Trails Committee, the Woodside Trail Club, Jack Brook Horse Camp and the Folger Stable project, for her lively participation and her strong support. Carol took life in stride and rose above many obstacles along her way. Alzheimer's was her biggest challenge- she retained only fragments of herself as the disease progressed. Her cheerfulness and her polite behaviors, as well as her enjoyment of music and her great fondness for ice cream, were the last to go and will be long remembered by those who knew her.

She is survived by her daughters and their husbands- Leslie and Al Sasuga of Bishop, California, Kerry and Rick DeBenedetti of Woodside, Sandy and Henry Garbowski of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Noel and Art Ortiz of Twain Harte, California, and 6 grandchildren and their spouses- Miles and Beth (Obenour) DeBenedetti, Alan DeBenedetti, Torey (Sasuga) and Carson Beach, Cabe Sasuga, Liana Garbowski and Michael Garbowski.

The family would like to thank everyone at Canyon House in Menlo Park, for their years of kindness and care. No memorial service is planned; Carol may be remembered through contributions made in her name to the Alzheimer's Association of Northern California.

He married Eileen ?. She died Apr 2005.

Notes for Raymond John Madsen:

Raymond John Madsen - Neighbors say Fremont, Nebraska, resident Raymond Madsen mostly kept to himself, but when no one saw the 88-year-old man for a few months, suspicions were raised and authorities were called. Deputy Chief Jeff Elliott of the Fremont Police Department said officers discovered Madsen's body Friday in his home at 1425 N. Maxwell Ave. He appears to have been dead for about four months, authorities said. The results of an autopsy of the badly decomposed body are being reviewed, and a cause of death has not been determined. "We have not categorized the death as either suspicious or not suspicious," Elliott said. "We still have a lot of work to do."

Madsen's daughter, Kathy Madsen, 57, also lived at the house and police are talking to her about why the death was not reported sooner. "We are looking into all aspects of the situation," Elliott said. "The investigation will be turned over to the Dodge County Attorney's Office."

Veronica Hultgren and her husband, Darrell, have lived next door to the Madsen family for about 30 years. They decided to call authorities after becoming concerned about an infestation of bugs in the dilapidated house next door. "They were private people who wouldn't let you in their home," Veronica Hultgren said. "But it was kind of apparent something was wrong."

Madsen told neighbors he had retired from Western Electric in Omaha. He sold his one-story ranch home in 2000 but remained as a tenant, neighbors said. Another neighbor said he and Raymond Madsen bonded over their interest in citizens band radios, but their conversations grew less and less frequent in recent years. "He wasn't very mobile anymore, but I used to see him on the porch getting air," the neighbor said. "Then I didn't see him at all. It was a very strange situation."

Elliott said the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services asked that officers check on the elderly man. Court records show that Madsen's wife, Eileen, died in April 2005.

July 2011 - Fremont Police have arrested the daughter of an 88-year-old man whose badly decomposed body was found in his home. Kathy Madsen, 57, was charged with concealing the death of another person and false reporting, both misdemeanors, Deputy Chief Jeff Elliott stated in a press release. Elliott said Madsen provided misleading information to officers when they arrived to check on Raymond Madsen. Elliott said the investigation continues and additional charges are possible.

Police initially were called to check the welfare of Raymond Madsen, who lived in the 1400 block of N. Maxwell St., on July 7 by the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services. Officers were unable to contact anyone at the home and tried again several times the next day. They were finally able to make contact with Kathy Madsen at almost midnight July 8. When officers checked the house, they found the badly decomposed body of Raymond Madsen lying in a bed in a mummified state. Fremont detectives and Douglas County Crime Scene investigators determined he had been deceased for at least four months.

Kathy Madsen had been living in the home during that time. An autopsy was conducted by the Douglas County Coroner's Office. A preliminary report stated the cause of death could not be determined. She was released from custody after posting a $2,000 cash bond. Her first court date is set for Aug. 9 in Dodge County Court. Elliott encouraged people to call the police department if they have not seen or had contact with a neighbor for some time. "We're sad to see a situation like this develop, and with the help of our citizens we hope to prevent something like this in the future," Elliott said.

Child of Raymond Madsen and Eileen ? is:

297. Dr. Donald Arthur⁷ Fuesler (Ruth Maria⁶ Zwicky, Fredericka Katherine (Ricky)⁵ Launer, Rosina Catharina⁴ Basler, Georg Friedrich³, Christian Friedrich², Johann Friederich¹) was born 25 May 1924 in Norfolk, Madison Co, Nebraska, and died 31 Jul 2020 in Longview, Cowitz Co, Washington. He married Margaret June Ralston 16 Jun 1946 in Norfolk, Madison Co, Nebraska. She was born 09 Jul 1927 in Norfolk, Madison Co, Nebraska, and died 31 Aug 2021 in Longview, Cowitz Co, Washington.

Notes for Dr. Donald Arthur Fuesler:

Dr. Donald Arthur Fuesler of Longview died July 31, 2020 at Community Home Health and Hospice at age 96, following a stroke several days earlier. He was born May 25, 1924 and raised in the city of Norfolk in the rolling farmland of northeastern Nebraska and was the eldest of four children. His paternal grandfather had immigrated from Germany, and his parents were Arthur and Ruth (Zwicky) Fuesler.

Dr. Fuesler leaves a legacy of courageous service as an infantryman during World War II and more than 40 years as a popular Longview family physician. Together, he and his wife of over 70 years, Margaret Fuesler, enriched the community through personal service and philanthropy. Almost immediately following his passing, messages honoring him and offering condolences began to appear online. A simple Internet search should locate nearly all, including sites that recount his years as a combat soldier in Gen. George Patton's 3rd Army, as well as the awards that Dr. Fuesler and his unit - the 95th Infantry Division - received in later years.

In 2016, the French government awarded him the French Legion of Honor - the nation's highest award for military service. (He displays the medal in the photo above.) Previously, he had been awarded more than 20 military medals - four of which were French - including the Bronze Star Medal for bravery, the French Medal of Victory, the Medal of Metz, and the Croix de Guerre. (A 73-minute interview of Dr. Fuesler about his war experiences can be found online through the Library of Congress Veterans History Project. Interviewer is Jerry Hickey who had it taped at Longview's KLTV studios for his Eagle Scout project in 2007.) Blessed with a wry sense of humor, Dr. Fuesler wrote an autobiography, My War (Pacific Printing, Longview, Washington: 1995) which, unfortunately, is out of print.

While war is never funny, he managed to find humor in some of the absurdities of military life, as well as the occasional mischief that he and fellow soldiers would get into in order to make Army life and war more bearable. He begins one chapter with, "Privates are the mushrooms of the Army - constantly in the dark and always covered by manure." This same type of humor occasionally would come out in his one-liners in the Letters to the Editor column of The Daily News. After reading about how aggrieved wife Lorena Bobbitt had cut off her husband's penis while he slept, Dr. Fuesler wrote: "Mrs. Bobbitt bobbed it."

But humor couldn't blot out the occasional nightmares about combat that dogged him to the end. So much has been written in the press and online about his Army service that it's easy to overlook his personal side as a family man and physician (his patients loved him), not to mention as a philanthropist and community activist. Donald and Margaret Fuesler kept the family active. During school vacations, they often would go the island of Oahu, Hawaii, where the children would build sand castles with their father. The couple also owned several acres of farmland in the hills above Stella, 10 miles west of Longview, where Dr. Fuesler could relax and enjoy wandering around the woods and looking after the family's beef cattle, sheep, and horses. Besides keeping saddle horses for recreation, he co-owned race horses with two local doctors. Their gelding Ninety Five Five was the biggest winner.

Following his retirement in 1992, Dr. Fuesler actively took part in CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate), a non-profit organization whose volunteers provide support to children in the courts in cases of abuse or neglect. "He loved little kids," daughter Margretchen Fuesler says. "If they were in foster care, he would be in charge of overseeing their care" after establishing a one-on-one relationship with the child. "If their biological parents wanted them back, Dad would mediate, go to court, and then report whether he thought the children should be returned or not." Over the years, Donald and Margaret Fuesler have generously contributed to Cowlitz County organizations dedicated to arts and culture, education, basic needs, and health. Five years ago, they decided to better channel their philanthropy by forming the Donald and Margaret Fuesler Foundation through the Community Foundation for Southwest Washington where donations in honor of Dr. Fuesler can be made. Address is 610 Esther St., Suite 201, Vancouver, Washington 98660.

Besides daughter Margretchen Fuesler of Longview, survivors include wife Margaret at home; daughter Juliana Fuesler of Maple Valley, Washington; son Thomas Fuesler (Susan) of Garnet Valley, Pennsylvania; and a sister, Marjorie Lorenz of Cypress, California. A memorial service will be announced at a later date.

Notes for Margaret June Ralston:

Dedicated wife and mother Margaret June Fuesler, 94, passed away August 31, 2021 at a local care facility after a long illness. That date fell a year and one month following the death of Dr. Donald A. Fuesler, her beloved husband of 74 years. (They are pictured here on their 70th anniversary in 2016.) Margaret was born July 9, 1927 in Norfolk, Nebraska, to Robin and Marian (White) Ralston and was the youngest of five children. (All four siblings have preceded her in death.) She attended local schools and graduated from Norfolk High School in 1945.

Margaret and Don became engaged in 1945 after he was discharged from the U.S. Army, and they were married in 1946, just before he enrolled as an undergraduate at the University of Omaha. Margaret later worked for a radiologist while he was attending medical school at the University of Nebraska. Following Don's graduation, the couple moved to Portland, Oregon, where he completed his residency. They then moved to Longview during the early 1950s. Margaret patiently accepted his frequently having to leave the house evenings and weekends when his services were needed.

During spring breaks, the family often went to the island of Oahu, Hawaii. After Don retired, the couple enjoyed going on cruises and traveling overseas. Daughter Margretchen Fuesler remembers her mother as "an impeccable dresser and a very kind and loving person" who loved hosting parties at home, especially during the Christmas season. A voracious reader, she would read as many as four or five books a week. She also enjoyed needle point and playing bridge and was a member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Cowlitz Medical Society, PEO, the Women's Century Club, the Junior Service League, and the Longview Country Club.

Survivors include daughters Margretchen Fuesler of Longview and Juliana Fuesler of Maple Valley, Washington, and son Thomas Fuesler (Susan) of Garnet Valley, Pennsylvania.

Donations in honor of Margaret can be made to Community Home and Health Hospice in Longview or to the Donald and Margaret Fuesler Foundation through the Foundation for Southwest Washington, 610 Esther St., Suite 201, Vancouver, Washington 98660. Arrangements are by Green Hills Northwest Crematory. A joint memorial celebration of Margaret and Don's lives will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, November 6, at the Longview Country Club.

Notes for Edna Barbara Reichert:

Fort Meade - Edna Barbara (Reichert) Basler, 92, of Rapid City, went to be with the Lord on November 3, 2006, at Fort Meade VA Medical Center. She was born on July 25, 1914, to George and Drusilla (Boshart) Reichert of Hereford, South Dakota, where she grew up. After high school graduation, she trained to be a nurse at St. John's McNamara School of Nursing in Rapid City. After graduating she did private duty, worked and eventually moved to Detroit, Michigan to do post-graduate obstetrical work at a hospital there. She enlisted in the Army Nurse Corps the day after the attack on Pearl Harbor, and served in New Guinea and the Philippines, often hearing gunfire nearby and occasionally crawling under her cot when shrapnel was falling from the skies of war. She was very proud of her service during this time, taking care of wounded men and boys under miserable conditions during World War II. She actually observed a Jap plane drop a torpedo that just missed by 15 feet the hospital ship she was on between islands. She came home from the war on the same ship that carried the infamous Tokyo Rose. On June 17, 1948, she married Orlin (Pat) Basler. To this union were born Steve, Jill, and Sherry. Edna loved being a wife, mother and homemaker, and devoted herself to this job with a much love, enthusiasm and dedication as she had to her nursing career. She maintained her status as an RN while raising the children, and returned to work as an obstetrical nurse when they were older. She was a longtime member of Calvary Lutheran Church, and was interested and involved in community and political issues. She loved to visit neighbors and shut-ins. Those who might still be here would remember her as a caring and giving friend. After retirement, she and Pat enjoyed some of their favorite pastimes together -- camping, rock hunting, gardening, grandparenting, fishing and boating. She loved to travel and see new country, and they often took extended trips to see family and friends. She will be greatly missed and never forgotten by those who knew and loved her.

She is survived by her son, Steve Basler of Everett, Washington; daughter, Sherry Basler of Rapid City; son-in-law and daughter, John and Jill Tesnow of Sturgis; a brother and sister-in-law, Hugh and Connie Reichert of Hereford; four grandchildren: Cody Tesnow and Callie Tesnow of Minneapolis, Minnesota; Caleb Tesnow, currently serving in the Army in Afghanistan; and Cara Tesnow of Sturgis and two great-granddaughters Isabella Tesnow and Ava Shuring of Brookings, South Dakota. She was preceded in death by her husband, two brothers and two sisters.

The family would like to express sincere thanks to the staff at the Fort Meade VA Extended Care Facility in Sturgis for the fine care she received there for the past two years. Visitation will be from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m. today at the Osheim-Catron Funeral Home. Services will be at 1 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 6, at Calvary Lutheran Church with Rev. Dwight Stensgaard officiating. Interment, with military honors provided by the Sturgis Honor Guard, will follow in Black Hills National Cemetery. A memorial has been established to the Children's Care Hospital and School.

In a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Sylvan R. Moe in the St. John's Lutheran church Sunday June 29, 1941 at 8 a.m., Miss Ethel Johanna Krogstrand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mikal Krogstrand, Hilland, became the bride of Sterling A. Basler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Basler, Rapid City. While more than 100 guests assembled organ music was played by Miss Agnes Shoberg. Preceding the arrival of the bridal party John Larson sang, "O Promise Me" (DeKowen), and "At Dawning" (Cadman), "The Lord's Prayer" was sung at the close of the ceremony. Miss Shoberg played the "Wedding March" from "Lohengrin" (Wagner) for a processional, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for a recessional.

Tall white tapers in cathedral candelabra lighted the altar, and large white baskets filled with harmonizing flowers against a green background decorated the front of the church. White vases of colored flowers and baby breath were placed in the windows and bouquets of flowers tied with white ribbon decorated the pew ends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown, princess style with leg-o-mutton sleeves, heart shaped bodice with seed pearl trim and a long train. Her long tulle veil fell from a tiara of satin ribbon bows and seed pearls and extended beyond the length of her train. She carried a prayer book of white kid from which fell a shower of white gladiola.

Miss Ella Mae Krogstrand, as her sister's maid-of-honor, wore a floor length gown of yellow silk net. Mrs. Amos Smolik as bridesmaid, wore a gown of aqua silk net. Both carried nosegays of contrasting flowers and wore golden crosses gifts of the bride. Marjorie Basler and Zona Lee browning, flower girls, in dresses of dotted swiss, carried baskets of rose petals which they scattered on a white carpet as they preceded the bridal procession. The wore jeweled pendants, gifts of the bride.

Pat Basler acted as his brother's best man and Amos Smolik and Charles Basler were ushers. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Krogstrand wore a costume of navy blue with dusty rose trim and white accessories. Mrs. Basler, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in blue with white accessories. A dress of printed silk with blue and white accessories was worn by Mrs. Anna M. Johnson, grandmother of the bridegroom. All wore shoulder bouquets of sweet peas and Talisman roses.

White tapers, crystal candelabra and bowls of roses formed the table decorations at a wedding breakfast served at the home of Mrs. Cecil Urban, sister of the bride, for members of the bridal party and guests. ON their return from a two weeks trip to Yellowstone National Park, the Teton mountains and Denver, Colorado, the couple will make its home in Rapid City. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. C. Marriage Notes for Kathryn Redmond and John Reed:

At a 4 o'clock ceremony on Sunday afternoon, June 19, 1960, the marriage of Miss Katherine Redmond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert E. Redmond of Norfolk, to John L. Reed, son of Dr. and Mrs. E.B. Reed of Lincoln, was solemnized at St. John's Lutheran Church in Norfolk. The Rev. R.L. Johnson read the lines of the service before a background of lighted candles and white gladioli.

Mrs. Robert Embury of Plattsmouth, the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Helen Susan Reed of Lincoln, and Miss Sandra Atkinson, were frocked alike in celestial blue white-flecked organdy sashed in the blue velvet. Lee K. Hermann of Lincoln served as best man, and seating the guests were Joel Johnson, Frank C. Johnson, both of Omaha; Jerry McCall of Lincoln, and Roy Redmond.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white embroidered organza over taffeta. The briefly-sleeved Empire bodice was designed with portrait neckline, framed with scallops, and tiers of scalloped flounces created the extremely bouffant skirt which was completed with a chapel train. A crown of pearls held in place her triple-tiered veil of imported illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white glamellias encircled with white carnations.

Mr. Reed and his bride, following a reception in the church parlors, left for a honeymoon trip through the western states, and upon their return they will reside at 608 So. 38th Street, Omaha. She grew up in Scribner, Nebraska, where she attended school and graduated from high school, in 1957. Jane went on to attend Wayne State College in Wayne for one year. On August 9, 1959, Jane was united in marriage to Gary Spear at St. Peter Lutheran Church in Scribner, by Rev. O.W. Wehrmann. They would be blessed with three children: Jenny, Tim, and Chris. The couple's first home was in Wayne, and then the family lived in three Nebraska cities, Tecumseh, Omaha, and Chappell, before moving to Auburn.

Jane worked as Secretary to the President of Wayne State from 1958 to 1960. In addition to be a full-time mom, she had other jobs in the places they lived. After moving to Auburn in August of 1977, Jane began her career in banking at Carson National Bank, which continued until 2006. Starting as a teller, she eventually became operating officer and served on the bank's Board of Directors. She became very knowledgeable in banking compliance regulations, and taught classes at banking seminars. In every town in which she lived, Jane was a member of and extremely active in Lutheran churches. She sang in church choir, belonged to LWML, and taught Sunday School and Catechism. In Auburn, as a member of Trinity Lutheran Church, Jane was instrumental in forming the Trinity Foundation.

After suffering a heart attack on April 17, 2017, Jane spent the next 11 days fighting for her life at St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Lincoln, Nebraska. Notes for Gary Arthur Spear:

Gary Arthur Spear, only child of Gifford and Edna (Sumner) Spear, was born in Omaha, Nebraska on July 12, 1938; his childhood years were spent in Scribner, Nebraska. Upon graduating from Scribner High School in 1956, he attended the University of Nebraska – Lincoln for one year and then finished his teaching degree at Wayne State College in Wayne, Nebraska. After graduating from college, Gary taught social sciences courses and coached in Tecumseh, Nebraska before moving to Omaha, where he served on the opening staff at Burke High School. During the summer months, he taught driver's education, both in-person and via public television. Because he and Jane wanted to raise their family in a small town, they moved to Chappell, Nebraska, where Gary taught and coached from 1971-1977. After teaching and coaching at Auburn High School from 1977-1981, he spent twenty-one years as a supervisor for Farmer's Mutual Hail of Iowa, where he utilized his teaching skills in damaged fields, agents' offices, and continuing education classrooms.

On August 9, 1959, Gary married Mary Jane Cordes at St. Peter Lutheran Church in Scribner, Nebraska. They were blessed with three children: Jennifer, Timothy, and Christopher. Family life revolved around church and school activities. Gary served as a Sunday School teacher, elder, and delegate to the LCMS National Convention. He was a faithful attendee of his kids' band concerts, piano recitals, volleyball games, cross country and track meets. As a devoted grandpa, Gary added choir concerts, soccer tournaments, dance performances, and baseball games to his repertoire.

Gary grew up hunting, fishing, and participating in baseball, football, basketball, and track. He was a lifelong sports enthusiast and a rabid fan of the San Francisco Forty-Niners, the New York Yankees, the Boston Celtics, and the Nebraska Cornhuskers. He was a voracious reader, with a library of novels by many of his favorite authors. Gary had a deep appreciation for a variety of musical genres; he and Jane enjoyed live performances, and their home and vehicles were seldom without music in the background. After retiring, he served on civic boards in the Auburn community, delivered Meals on Wheels, and taxied non-drivers to their medical appointments in Omaha/Lincoln. Gary and Jane delighted in taking road trips to visit kids and grandkids; a favorite annual destination was Hilton Head Island, where Gary enjoyed walking the beach several times each day.

During the past three years, poor health took a toll on Gary's mobility. He moved to an assisted living facility in Omaha for about a year before returning to Auburn, where he was a resident of the Good Samaritan Society during the final twenty months of his life. Gary entered hospice care on June 19, 2024 and passed away on Monday, June 24, 2024. His parents and wife, Jane, preceded him in death.

Those who will cherish their memories of Dad/Grandpa include Jenny and Keith Long of Papillion, Nebraska; Tim and Suzanne Spear of Overland Park, Kansas; Chris and Michelle Spear of McLean, Virginia; grandchildren Mykayla, McKenzy, and Maleigha Long; Joshua (Codee) and Madison Spear; and James, Anna, Thomas, and Eva Spear. From his earliest days until his final breath, Gary was blessed to be surrounded by cherished students and athletes, lifelong friends, his church family, favorite caregivers, and his loving family, all of whom will miss his sense of humor and his laughter.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, August 10, 2024, 10:30 a.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church in Auburn. Visitation will be on Friday, August 9, 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., with family greeting friends from 5:30 to 7:30. Graveside committal of ashes will take place on Saturday at 4:00 p.m. in the Scribner Cemetery at Scribner, Nebraska. 440. Thomas Charles⁸ Stanley (Charles Castle⁷, William Fred⁶, Katherine Barbara (Katie)⁵ Basler, David Christian⁴, Georg Friedrich³, Christian Friedrich², Johann Friederich¹) was born 08 Jul 1958 in Hennepin Co, Minnesota. He married Melissa Lynn Melnik 1993 in Minnesota. She was born Aug 1966.

Notes for Melissa Lynn Melnik:

Sept. 10, 2018 - It was during the 10 days her son went missing from the river's edge that Melissa Melnick made a promise. Her eldest son, Chris Stanley, was just weeks from a post-graduation bike ride to the Gulf Coast when he was swept into the Mississippi River on April 25, 2017. Anxiously awaiting a call, a knock on the door-anything-Melnick vowed to either ride alongside Chris in celebration or on her own in his memory. Sadly, Chris wasn't pedaling beside her when Melnick departed her hometown of Minneapolis on Monday for the eight-week tour down the Mississippi River Trail. His body was found May 4, 2017, three miles downriver.

But Melnick, pastor of Tapestry Ministry, was far from alone when she set embarked on the 1,500-mile trek, sent off by a group of family and friends and accompanied by Shannon Coyne, a dear friend of her late son. The Fueled by Love Bike Tour, which will take Melnick south to Louisiana over the course of the next eight weeks, serves honor Chris and share his love for life with people along the way. Preceded by a water ceremony and tree planting at Bohemian Flats Park in Minneapolis, Melnick will make stops at eight congregations over the course of the ride, including a stop Sunday at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in La Crosse, where she preached Luke 10. "Part of what I want to share, even in all the grief: Chris was about life and love and hope and joy," Melnick said.

Melnick always used to tell Chris he would be a preacher. Kindhearted and driven by his convictions of equality, tolerance and compassion, Chris participated in the Climate March and Black Lives Matter March, supported a $15 minimum wage and practiced sustainability. He was born April Fools' Day in 1995, a date Melnick called fitting, as Chris was known for his infectious sense of humor and quick wit. He loved singing, dancing, yoga and travel, and wrote poems about his affinity for the Mississippi River.

"He just loved the river. It brought him a lot of joy," Melnick said. "He lived more in his 22 years than most people do in 80, so I suppose if that was how he was going to go, it was fitting for him." How Chris ended up in the river is uncertain, Melnick says, though the Star Tribune reported a roommate told police the pair had climbed a fence and were sitting at the river's edge when a wave swept them into the water and over a waterfall. When the roommate emerged from the water, he couldn't find Chris, according to the report.

It was two hours after the roommate lost track of Chris that Melnick was informed her son might be lost in the river. Melnick's younger son, Austin Stanley, answered the door when the police came. Arriving home shortly after, Melnick screamed and drove to Chris's residence, calling 911 and putting out alerts on Twitter and Facebook for any information. With water high, mass searches along the river were deemed too dangerous for volunteers, though officials spent days canvassing the shore. "Really it was just 10 days of waiting," Melnick said. "Certain times in life you can't do anything, and that was one of those times." In the days after Chris went missing, several friends had matching sailboat images tattooed on their wrists, a nod to the Bible story in which Jesus calms the storm, which Chris told to his dad, Thomas Stanley, when Thomas was in the hospital after a stroke. Friends and family were returning to Bohemian Flats Park after a community bike ride May 4 when the water patrol supervisor called Melnick, arriving at the park and breaking the news, that Chris' body had been recovered.

"It was a very difficult time. It was kind of confusing. I didn't know what to do with those emotions," said Coyne, who met Chris in 2016 in a class at the Center for Spirituality and Healing at the University of Minnesota. Majoring in neurobiology and minoring in sustainability and Spanish, Chris was a member of the Mindfulness Club and meditated daily. Just two weeks from graduating when he went missing, he received his diploma posthumously. "I really connected with Chris on so many different levels," Coyne said. "He had his beliefs and what he stood up for and an easy connection with people!" Coyne and Chris had often talked of taking a bike trip together, but schedules had gotten in the way. She chose to join Melnick for the first leg of the Fueled by Love Bike Tour and attended Sunday's service in La Crosse before returning to Minneapolis. Melnick departs Monday for Bettendorf, Illinois.

"I think the ride is a great way to remember Chris by and carry his message on," Coyne said. Chris' memory, and morals, live on in many ways. He was bio-cremated, a more environmentally sound form of cremation using water rather than flame. A portion of his ashes were buried at the base of his memorial tree in Bohemian Flats, and some were sent down the river. Melnick has chosen not to view the Mississippi with tragedy, purchasing a condo overlooking the river for Austin and herself. At times, she says, it feels like his death was just yesterday, and other days it seems like a lifetime ago. She takes the grief day by day. "Chris really lived a full life-full of love and full of joy," Melnick said. "Part of my faith is believing we'll get to see each other again someday!"

Chris attended Park Spanish Immersion, St. Louis Park Junior High School, St. Louis Park High School, and was set to finish his senior year at the University of Minnesota in the College of Biological Sciences with a degree in Neurobiology and minors in Sustainability and Spanish. His diploma will be conferred on Sunday, May 14, 2017. Chris was astonished at all that he was learning and looked forward to using his studies in some kind of related research.

Chris came into this world with force and passion and he left it in the same way. Chris's many talents and interests included writing poetry, composing music, singing and playing guitar, bass and piano, biking, dancing, meditation, yoga, gardening, jamming with his friends, eating Mexican food, traveling and hanging out with friends. He was always open with his affection, love and compassion for those around him and for the world in which we live. He volunteered with MPIRG, a student organization at the University of Minnesota. He was part of the Mindfulness Club and meditated daily. Chris was also part of the Minneapolis Bicycle Coalition. He participated in the Climate March in New York City in 2014 after which he decided to become a vegetarian. He was known to eat any vegetarian leftover from others' plates. He participated in marches for Black Lives Matter, $15 minimum wage and other causes for justice and equality. Chris continued to learn more and more about his place in this world and was walking with others for a just society.

Chris had the opportunity to travel to Guatemala, Mexico and Canada and loved his time in all of these countries. We took many family road trips together to Yellowstone, Ohio, Wisconsin, Chicago, and other places. He also enjoyed trips with his Central Lutheran Youth Group to Camp Amnicon, New Jersey, New Orleans and Montana. Chris enjoyed working last summer for Wilderness Inquiry as a guide and his love for the outdoors was enhanced by his trips to the Boundary Waters Canoe Area, Voyageurs National Park, Glacier National Park and his many trips leading school kids and families in the Minneapolis Area.

Chris has left us with a beautiful legacy that was conveyed through his huge smile and strong hugs. We are blessed to have journals full of his poetry, thoughts, calculations and drawings. His love for God's creation, for his communities at school, church and in the neighborhood were apparent in the way he lived his life. Chris was a person who lived his life every single day to the best of his ability. He smiled, laughed and loved big. Chris will be missed by all who knew him and will forever be a shining light to his family and friends.

Chris had been planning to bike the length of the Mississippi River in August after he graduated and led some groups with Wilderness Inquiry. In honor of his memory, we are planning a Bike Trip for August, 2018. Start training now and join us next year!
