Notes for Johann Martin Gaekle:

On Thursday last August 30, 1913 the children and grandchildren of Martin Gakle took it in their heads to remind him of his eightieth birthday. The surprise was complete from start to finish. At noon his son, John, and wife of Sabatha, Kansas, walked in on him and later in the afternoon three nieces of Jackson made their appearance and before he had quite got over the surprise of their arrival, in the early evening about thirty more, including his children, grandchildren and a few intimate friends.

Of his children there were present Mrs. Lucy Snebly of Detroit, Edward of Ann Arbor, John of Sabatha, Kansas, and Mrs. George Theurer of York. The grandchildren were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schneider and Mr. White of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gakle and children of Ann Arbor and the three Theurer children. It is needless to say they came with well filled baskets of good things to eat. Each one left a token of their esteem. All had a jolly time and it will long be remembered by both host and guests.

Notes for Jakob Friedrich Ukele:

Berwick Misc. Items Dec. 22, 1893 - Ed Ukele departed from this place yesterday morning Dec. 21, 1893 for parts unknown by us. George Kohler returned from his western trip Sunday. J. R. Ford and Mr. Strahm made a business trip to Sabetha Wednesday. Mr. Ukele is shelling corn this week. Jacob Ukele, of North Dakota, is visiting his brother, Fred, at this place. Uncle Jake (as they call him) is quite taken up with this locality. Sylvan Ukele had a severe attack of the grip, but we are glad to hear he is better. T. Strahm shipped several loads of hogs during the last two weeks and is looking for more. Fred Ukele returned Monday night from a business trip to Holton.

Dec. 21, 1899 Sabetha, Kansas - Fred Ukele, of Berwick, had on the market 26 steers, four of which sold at $6.50 for the Christmas trade, and, the rest brought $5.65. These cattle were bought in Kansas City, last August and were fed 150 days five months and the lot put on a gain of 515 pounds each, weighed out of Kansas City and back at Kansas City. One of the four best steers was bought for Mr. Ukele at $4.00 per, hundred and weighed at Kansas City 1,180 pounds. He weighed back at Kansas City, 1,880, and at $6.50 brought $122.20. This bunch of cattle was bought on an order Mr. Ukele sent the commission firm of Scruggs-Hall. Charley Henry of that firm both bought and sold them. The put-on for the five months was over 100 pounds a month per animal, and the selling price was $1.30 to $2.15 above the price paid.

August 16, 1900 A Family Reunion. - A kind of a family reunion was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ukele at Berwick last week. Among those present were: Mrs. Wiltt and Mrs. Reid, of Jackson, Michigan, sisters of Mr. Ukele; Mr. and Mrs. E. Ukele, of Wallace, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Ukele, of Holton, Kansas; Mrs. P. Johnson, of Salina, and E. T. Ukele, of Vermillion. A very enjoyable time was spent together at their comfortable home. Mr. Ukele settled on the farm that he now occupies some thirty years ago and has seen the ups and downs of Kansas. He has met with reverses as well as advancements, including drought, grasshoppers and cyclones, yet he never lost faith and forged ahead until now year after year he adds to his bank account by the hundreds of hogs and cattle that go out of his fattening corrals. Mr. Ukele is an enthusiastic Republican and votes with the party that helps bring about prosperity.

'Genealogical & Biographical Record of North-Eastern Kansas' dated 1900:

Fred Ukele - Through thirty years Mr. Ukele has been identified with the agricultural interests of Nemaha County and now resides on Section 28, Berwick Township, where his fine farm indicates his careful supervision and his progressive spirit. His careful prosecution of his business affairs has brought him creditable success and he is today numbered among the substantial citizens of his community.

A native of Michigan, Mr. Ukele was born in Washtenaw County on the 12th of April, 1842. His father, Christian Ukele, was a native of Germany and on crossing the Atlantic to America, in 1817, took up his abode in Washtenaw County, where he made farming his life work. He was, however, a baker by trade, although in this land he devoted his energies to agricultural pursuits. His death occurred when he was about fifty-eight years of age. In the 1830's he went to Chicago, which was then but little more than a frog pond.

It was his intention to engage in the bakery business in the future metropolis, but death ended his labors there before he had actively become connected with business interests. In his family were eight children. Fred Ukele, the subject of this review, is the fourth in order of birth and was reared in the county of his nativity, where he remained until 1861.

In that year he went to Henry County, Illinois, where he enlisted in Company I, One Hundred and Forty-sixth Illinois Infantry, and served in 1864-5, until the war was closed, when he received an honorable discharge. He was very loyal to duty and faithfully fought to protect the cause represented by the flag.

Returning to Henry County when his services were no longer needed on the field of battle, he began to work at the blacksmith's trade, which he carried on in that locality for three and a half years. Thinking, however, to better his financial condition in the less thickly settled districts in the west, he chose Nemaha County, Kansas, as the scene of his future labors and he made his way to the Sunflower state, purchasing the farm upon which he now resides. It was then a tract of wild prairie, on which not a furrow had been turned or any improvements made, but with characteristic energy he began its development.

He is one of the oldest settlers in the township and he has made his farm one of the most valuable and attractive properties. He owns two hundred and forty acres of rich and arable land, all of which is under a high state of cultivation, and the various improvements on the place indicate the activity and enterprise which have characterized his career. In connection with general farming he is also engaged in stock raising and now has upon his farm about 150 head of cattle which he is preparing for the market.

In 1873, while Mr. Ukele was chopping wood, a tree about two feet thick fell across his right side, crippling him for life. Notwithstanding this accident, however, he has continued to superintend his farm and has through his well-directed efforts become possessor of a handsome competence. In 1864, in Geneseo, Illinois, Mr. Ukele was united in marriage to Miss Christie Oleson, a native of Sweden, who came to America in early girlhood and was reared in Henry County, Illinois. Two children have been born of their union: Edward, whose birth occurred in Henry County, Illinois, and Sylvan, who was born in Nemaha County, Kansas.

The family is well known in the community and its representatives occupy a leading position in social circles. Mr. Ukele is a man of pronounced political opinions, unswerving in his support of the Republican party and on that ticket he has been elected to a number of township offices, wherein he has discharged his duties with promptness and fidelity.

He holds membership in the Baptist Church and is one of its deacons. His life has been well spent and while his business affairs have gained him a handsome property his straight forward dealing has won him the respect and confidence of his fellow men.

History of Nemaha County, Kansas. By Ralph Tennel, Standard Publishing Company; Lawrence, Kansas; 1916. Page 408:

Fred Ukele. - The accomplishments of Fred Ukele during the forty-seven years of his residence in Kansas are truly remarkable when one considers that for the past forty-three years Mr. Ukele has been a cripple. During his period of residence in Kansas he rose to become one of the large land owners of Nemaha County, and has reared a fine family. It is a noteworthy fact that Mr. Ukele cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln on the great battlefield of Lookout Mountain. He is one of the last of the vast army of Union veterans who fought to preserve the Union. His life has been marked by a display of good citizenship and he has served his fellow citizens in various useful capacities during his long life. Pioneer settler, Union veteran, substantial citizen, Fred Ukele is one of the honored men of Sabetha and Nemaha county.

Fred Ukele was born in a log cabin located in a clearing of the dense forest of Washtenaw County, Michigan, in April, 1842. He is a son of Christian and Christina (Stohlstamear) Ukele, who were the parents of eight children, as follows: Mrs. Lena Reade, Mrs. Louise Gakle, Mrs. Mary Maley, deceased; Fred, the subject of this review; John, deceased; Mrs. Rachel Weldt, living in Michigan; Edward, Wallace County, Kansas; Jacob, residing in South Dakota. Christian Ukele was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1808, and became a baker in his native city. Not very long after he became of age in Germany, he decided to immigrate to America. He located in Detroit and worked at his trade of baker for some time and was there married. After his marriage he and his wife journeyed to the dense woods of Michigan and hewed a farm from the wilderness of Washtenaw County and reared a family of children, as before stated.

The mother of Fred Ukele was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1811, and was a daughter of John and Sarah (Sterley) Stohlstamear, who drove a team to the port of Hamburg and there set sail for America, making the long voyage by sailing vessel. They were on the ocean for seventy days. John Stohlstamear sold his team of horses in Hamburg, but was unable to sell his wagon. He accordingly had it loaded on the vessel, and upon landing at New York City, he purchased a team of oxen, which furnished the means of transportation for his family and belongings to Michigan, where he made his home.

Fred Ukele was reared amid the most primitive surroundings in the great forests of Michigan, and attended district school, held in a little log school house. When he became old enough to wield and swing an axe, he began working in the timber and continued at this occupation until 1861. At this time he moved to Henry County, Illinois, and three years later, in 1864, he enlisted for service in the Union army. He became a member of Company I, One Hundred and Forty-Sixth Illinois infantry, and took part in some severe fighting until the close of the war. He was at the battle of Columbus, Tenn., and participated in the chase after General Hood's army through Tennessee and the Carolinas. When he returned from the war, Mr. Ukele learned the blacksmith's trade and worked at that trade for three and a half years, in the employment of the Chicago & Rock Island Railway Company, at Geneseo, Illinois. In 1869, he came to Nemaha County, Kansas, and worked for one year as a farm hand at $25 per month. He then bought 160 acres of prairie land in section 27 of Berwick Township. His first move was the erection of a shanty, 16x18 feet, the boards for which were sawed from cottonwood logs and hauled from White Cloud, Kansas. Mr. Ukele paid $7 per acre for having his land broken to plow and made ready for planting his first crops. He gradually improved his land and prospered, as he deserved, and made a great success as a stockman, specializing in hogs. At one time Mr. Ukele owned 600 acres of land in Nemaha and Smith counties, which he deeded to his sons. He retired from active farm work in 1906, and moved to a nice residence property in Sabetha.

Fred Ukele has been twice married, his first marriage being with Jena Olson, in 1864. The first Mrs. Ukele was born in 1839, and died in 1908. Two children were born to this marriage, namely: Edward, farming the home place in Nemaha County, and Sylvan engaged in the insurance business at Kansas City, Missouri. Mr. Ukele reared another child named Clyde Muxworthy, who lives at Bern, Kansas. In 1910, Mr. Ukele married Sarah Bowser, born August 11, 1874, in Geary County, Maryland, a daughter of Hiram and Barbara (Brown) Bowser, the former of whom was born in 1842 and died in 1896. Mrs. Barbara Bowser was born in 1846 and, died in March, 1881. Both parents were born and reared in Maryland. Mrs. Ukele came to Kansas in 1900 and joined her brother, Emery, at that time farming near Bern, in this county, but who is now living in Dickinson County, Kansas.

Mr. Ukele is a Progressive in politics, and in former years was the Republican leader of Berwick township, and cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln at Lookout Mountain, Tenn. He has held several township offices and was a member of the school board in Berwick Township for twenty-one years, and has served as justice of the peace. He is affiliated with the Grand Army of the Republic Post of Sabetha. One of the interesting heirlooms of the family which is highly prized by Mr. Ukele is an old newspaper published in New York, January 4, 1800, by Samuel Freer & Son.

Mr. Ukele has one grandson, Fred Ukele, and a granddaughter, Charsta Ukele.

March 23, 1923 - Fred Ukele, pioneer of Berwick Township and a veteran of the Civil War, died Thursday, March 2, 1923 at his home in Sabetha. Mr. Ukele came to Kansas in 1869, working as a farm hand at $25 per month. He then bought 160 acres of prairie land in Berwick Township. He had cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln at Lookout Mountain Tennessee. Mr. Ukele was twice married. To the first marriage two sons were born: Edward, farming the home place near Sabetha; and Sylvan, engaged in the insurance business at Kansas City. To his second marriage a daughter, Frances, now six years of age, was born. His widow, daughter, sons and two grandchildren survive him. Mr. Ukele's funeral was held from the Baptist church under the auspices of the G. A. R., Rev. Bolton officiating at the church services. Mr. Ukele's son, S. F. Ukele, formerly lived in Holton.

After an illness of about ten days Fred Ukele died Thursday March 8, 1923 at his home on the northside in Sabetha. And there was lost to this community one of its finest, kindest, gentlest men. People were astonished that Fred Ukele had reached 82 years of age at his death. He did not appear to be so by fifteen years or more. He was on the street almost daily a familiar and a beloved figure, whose death is deeply regretted by friends who have known him since his young manhood. Fred Ukele was a man who never grew old, because of his kindly sympathy and understanding of youth. A fine man who lived out his years consistently, and leaves as a legacy generosity to his children and appreciation of their worth to his friends.

Mr. Ukele is survived also by one grandson, Fred Ukele, a granddaughter, Charsta Ukele, and his six-year-old daughter, Frances Ukele. Fred Ukele broke his first ground for plowing in Nemaha with a team of oxen. Lou Lynch was the driver of the team. The ground broken was virgin prairie. On his first round of this eighty he killed eighteen rattlesnakes. At that time deer were plentiful in this county and venison was a staple food. From further west came buffalo meat that was peddled regularly thru this land. Fred Ukele was filled with interesting stories of the pioneer days of two states, Michigan and Kansas. Mr. Ukele was buried from the Baptist church Saturday at 2:30 p.m. The G. A. R. had charge of the services which were conducted by Reverend Bolton. Mr. Ukele's son Sylvan, from Kansas City was here for the funeral.

We wish to thank our friends and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our husband and father. Mrs. Fred Ukele and the family.

Notes for Christina Kjerta Olson:

Mrs. Christina Ukele, one of the pioneers of Berwick Township, whose fatal illness was mentioned in the Herald last week, passed away at her home in Sabetha Sunday April 5, 1908. Mrs. Ukele had been ill for several months, but her condition did not become critical until recently. It would be hard to give adequate tribute to Mrs. Ukele's kindness and helpfulness. From the early days the Berwick neighborhood leaned on her in sickness and in time of need. Beginning as a house keeper in a log house near the present site of Berwick in the early 70s, she knew the trials of the pioneer and lent a helping hand to many a new comer in the neighborhood. Mrs. Ukele was born in Silvertsburg, Sweden. The town overlooks the Baltic sea, and many were the stories Mrs. Ukele told her children of her girlhood days there; of the water dashing upon the shore and of seeing the great ships come in from other lands. The boys remembered it, and at her funeral a beautiful floral anchor was their contribution to the profusion of flowers sent.

Mrs. Ukele, whose maiden name was Christina Olson, was born May 10, 1839. She came to America when she was 14 years of age, settling in Illinois. She met Fred Ukele there On August 15, 1864 she was married to Mr. Ukele. Mr. Ukele felt it his duty to enlist in the Union cause, and the honeymoon had hardly begun when he went off to fight for freedom in company I, 10th Illinois serving until the close of the rebellion. During his absence Ed Ukele was born, and Mr. Ukele returned to find his son quite a chunk of a boy.

Mr. Ukele, who owned house in Geneseo worth perhaps $400 traded the house sight unseen with a man named Pete World for quarter section of land which he still owns near Berwick. The land is now worth $125 an acre. He started out alone, arriving at White Cloud. He crossed the Missouri River at White Cloud and walked to Albany, and from there he took look at his patch of prairie. He went to work for T. B. Collins, formerly mayor of Seneca, and John Brady, now of Pomona, California, Collins and Brady were cattle men and Mr. Ukele worked for them by the month for a couple of years. During that time he managed to erect a log house 14 feet square on his quarter section. To this place he brought his wife and son Ed Ukele, junior. Later Ed Ukele, senior his brother, now living in Wallace County, Kansas, came to this locality.

Sylvan Ukele, the second child was born here. While Mrs. Ukele left only two children, Ed Ukele, of Berwick, and Sylvan Ukele, of Holton, she reared Clyde Muxworthy, whom she took when he was only nine months old. He is now 27 years of age, and has always lived the Ukele family. When Mr. and Mrs. Ukele left Berwick two years ago they were the oldest, residents of the township, except Jacob Miller, who is soon to move to Sabetha. Fred Ukele was one of the men who induced the Rock Island to establish the station of Berwick. He gave the company a right of way across a corner of his land to get the station. He had the first, combined reaper and mower in that locality. At the funeral of Abraham Lincoln, the company with which Mr. Ukele served was an escort.

Mrs. Ukele was confirmed in the Lutheran church in childhood, but about ten years ago she with her husband joined the Baptist church in Sabetha. The funeral services were held from the Ukele home in Sabetha Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 p.m., Rev. G. W. Porter officiating. Interment was in the Sabetha cemetery.

84. Emmanuel (Manuel or Samuel)⁹ Ukele (Johann Christian⁸, Gottfried⁷ Uckele, Johann Georg⁶, Hans Georg⁵, Tobias⁴, Tobias³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 25 Sep 1848 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 08 Jun 1933 in Wallace Co, Kansas. He married Jennie (Jane) Muxworthy 12 Feb 1877 in Sabetha, Nemaha Co, Kansas, daughter of ? Muxworthy. She was born 20 Nov 1854 in Devonshire, England, and died 09 Jun 1939 in Dodge City, Ford Co, Kansas.

Notes for Emmanuel (Manuel or Samuel) Ukele:

Berwick Misc. Items Dec. 22, 1893 - Ed Ukele departed from this place yesterday morning Dec. 21, 1893 for parts unknown by us. George Kohler returned from his western trip Sunday.

July 26, 1906 - Ed. Ukele brother of Fred. Ukele who left Sabetha eighteen years ago owns 1,110 acres of land in Logan County, out in the short grass country. He makes a specialty of raising cattle. Mrs. Thomas Moore of Oneida recently spent several weeks visiting Ed. Ukele. Mrs. Ed. Ukele and Mrs. Moore are sisters. Mrs. Moore says the grasshoppers are damaging crops in Logan County She brought home a sample of alfalfa which had been denuded of all its foliage by the grasshoppers. Mrs. Moore says the grasshoppers rose in swarms wherever she walked in Logan County. She brought back some fine samples of wheat and other grains.

Jan. 30, 1908 Sabetha, Kansas - Emanuel Ukele, brother of Fred Ukele, is here from Logan County, Kansas, to visit relatives and old friends. Emanuel Ukele lived here 33 years ago. He remembers all the old timers and most of them remember him. He had a blacksmith shop in Sabetha, and was one of the town's first business men. For over twenty years he has been living in Logan County, Kansas, and his experience in the short grass country will no doubt prove interesting. Ukele is near Gill. He is only 31 miles from the Colorado state line. He is strictly in the short grass country. Ukele was well fixed when he went to Logan County. He acquired considerable land, and started in on the theory that he could get rich raising wheat and other grains. He bucked the wheat proposition hard. He got one big crop and then there were several failures, and he suddenly found himself busted and in debt after he had tried wheat and everything else.

He went to Colorado and worked in the mines at Leadville until he paid off his debts and had a little start. Then he tried cattle raising, combined with growing alfalfa and just a little kaffir corn, oats and corn. That combination was a success. He now owns 1,120 acres of land. He has 160 acres in alfalfa bottom land, but believes it can be successfully grown on up land and is trying that proposition. Aside from alfalfa, kaffir corn and corn, all his land is devoted to cattle grazing on regular old, original buffalo grass. The seed from 75 acres of alfalfa last season brought Ukele $2,500. He fattens his cattle on grass including alfalfa, and markets them. He tried all sorts of combinations and has narrowed down to the system as explained. He says last year a farmer out there made big money on wheat, but as a general proposition it is a gamble with all the chances against the farmer. Under Ukele's system a man can make money, but this story has told what happened to him when he tried straight farming. Ukele's oldest boy Arthur is making money on three quarters, and the next oldest Clarence has 160. Both were born in Sabetha. They are single, Mr. Ukele has just returned from Pamona, South Dakota, where he visited his brother, J. C. Ukele. Will Tarr, who is here on a visit, says Emanuel Ukele looks younger every time he visits Sabetha.

Notes for Arthur Emanuel Ukele:

June 19, 1930 Scott City, Kansas - Considerable excitement prevailed last Tuesday morning when it was rumored that the skeleton of a man found on the south branch of the Smoky near the Arthur Ukele ranch house south of McAllister was that of Morris Moran who disappeared from Hill City last year. Similarity in partial description of clothing, etc., gave cause to the rumor and county officials of Graham county investigated the matter. Positive identification was had however when Arthur Ukele identified the skeleton by the name stenciled on the underwear as that of E. J. Teague, who had been working for him for several months and had left the place April 21. The deceased was an epileptic and had been confined in a sanitarium in North Carolina, which accounted for the name of the clothing. He had come to the Ukele ranch wanting work and had been employed by Mr. Ukele. A team had run away with him the day before he left and it had annoyed him, and his employer was under the impression he would return but he never did.

The body was found by Mr. Ukele Monday June 16, 1930 as he was looking for some cattle in an inlet in a group of trees about a mile west from the Ukele house, face down with the hands stretched out. The deceased usually carried a small bottle of medicine which he was in the habit of taking to ward off attacks of his chronic ailment, and it is presumed his death was caused by an overdose of this medicine, as there were no discernable marks of violence to be found on the body, or the disease had caused death. The case was investigated by Acting Coroner Roy Davis, of Oakley and County Attorney C. A. Spencer and the coroner's jury gave a verdict of death from unknown cause. The remains were decomposed to the extent that nothing remained except the skeleton and had it not been for the preservation of the clothing, identification would have been impossible. Personal effects of the deceased left at the Ukele ranch were investigated and eastern relatives were notified of the death. The remains were taken to Winona.

April 16, 1908 Sabetha, Kansas - Mrs. Jacob Ukele, of Dakota, arrived in Sabetha last week to see her brother-in-law Fred Ukele. She did not know until she arrived that Mrs. Fred Ukele had died. Mrs. Jacob Ukele had been to Hot Springs Arkansas, for treatment of rheumatism. Mrs. Ukele visited Thomas Moore at Oneida also.

Ramona, South Dakota, April 23, 1945 - Mrs. J. C. (Elizabeth) Eukley died at Ramona Sunday evening April 22, 1945. She was born in Meersburg, Germany, on July 11, 1858, and was nearly 87 years old at the time of her death. She came to the United States with her parents when a small child, settling in New York City. In the early '80s she came to Dakota territory and homesteaded on land located about six miles from what is now Ramona. While proving up on her homestead at the land office in Mitchell, she met J. C. Eukley whom she later married. After a few years on a farm near Kimball, they moved into the Ramona district, where Mr. Eukley for years was a prominent farmer and thresher-man. About 35 years ago they moved into their present home on a small tract adjoining Ramona. In 1936 they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mrs. Eukley was a typical pioneer and bore the hardships and privations of the pioneers with a cheerfulness that never deserted her, even in her declining years. She was well known for her friendliness and hospitality.

She was preceeded in death by her husband who died in 1943 at the age of 93, and by her daughter and three brothers and three sisters.

112. John Nikolaus¹⁰ Gakle (Louisa Carolina⁹ Ukele, Johann Christian⁸, Gottfried⁷ Uckele, Johann Georg⁶, Hans Georg⁵, Tobias⁴, Tobias³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 10 Apr 1857 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 22 Dec 1931 in Sabetha, Nemaha Co, Kansas. He married Martha Ellen Scoby 06 Mar 1880 in Berwick, Nemaha Co, Kansas, daughter of John Scoby and Wilhemenia Steibler. She was born 18 Nov 1858 in Hamilton, Butler Co, Ohio, and died 26 Mar 1939 in Muskogee, Muskogee Co, Oklahoma.

Notes for John Nikolaus Gakle:

July 16, 1880 Hiawatha, Kansas - The arrest and trial of John Gakle for selling "intoxicating liquors" was an event of considerable interest to the citizens of Sabetha and vicinity. Gakle was arrested and brought before police judge Fagan, on last week, on complaint sworn to by city marshal Bowman. R. C. Bassett, attorney for the defense, moved that the court should adjourn. The court recognized the motion and adjourned until Tuesday at 9 o'clock a. m. Court being called on Tuesday morning, considerable time was spent in arguing as to the jurisdiction of this court and as to validity of the ordinance under which this case was prosecuted. But Attorney Conwell, of Seneca, colleague of Messrs. Sargent and Coleman for the prosecution, presented a decision of the supreme court on a case in which a similar ordinance was held valid, and of course this court could but decide for the prosecution. A number of the witnesses were then sworn and placed upon the stand, but all were blissfully ignorant as to whether there were any "intoxicating liquors" in the lemonade which they said they had procured of Gakle. One witness from Brown County was procured who testified that he had purchased liquor in lemonade of L. R. Bingham, at Gakle's stand. The de-claimed that Bingham was not acting as agent for Gakle, and as the court did not thoroughly understand point it adjourned for half an hour in order that the prosecution might produce witnesses to enlighten it. During the adjournment L. R. Bingham hunted up the Brown County witness and attacked him, but was repulsed with loss to such an extent that when court was reopened it had to adjourn, he nor being able to testify. At 3 :30 p. m., Wednesday, court again reopened and the prosecution produced the witness who testified that he was acting as agent for Gakle. The last leg was thus knocked from under the already tottering defense and after an adjournment of half an hour Gakle was pronounced "guilty," and in spite of a motion to arrest judgement filed by R. C. Bassett the court fixed the fine at fifty dollars and costs. The necessary papers and bond were then filed and the case was appealed to the district court.

The sociable at the residence of Mrs. W. G. Sargent on Wednesday evening last was a splendid success. The grounds were illuminated with Chinese lanterns and all went merry as a marriage bell. The Sabetha band, under Prof. Pace, were present and enlivened the entertainment with appropriate music – The Maj. Fountain building is roofed and inclosed. The Major will "move in" in a few weeks – Corps are just too nice to mention. – Weather warn, but nice breezes. – The temperance folks are jubilant over the conviction Gakle the "lemonade slinger."

Sept. 23, 1915 Atchison, Kansas - A Sabetha man recently had an experience similar to the one passed through by Conductor Bill Gordon, of the Burlington plug. The Sabetha Herald says: John Gakle was completely knocked out Sunday by three bees. He took the count for more than an hour and it required the services of Dr. Carlyle to bring him back with a heart stimulant. Mr. Gakle went out without his hat to put a top on a beehive. The bees were angry and three of them got in his wool and stung him. Mr. Gakle brushed the bees off. In a short time he fell unconscious to the ground. Dr. Carlyle got into Will Ingham's car and made a record run of eight miles to the Gakle home. In an hour Mr. Gakle regained consciousness but he was too tired to move around much all-day Monday. Tuesday he was all right again. Sabetha physicians say they never heard of but one case like it and that time the patient died. The poison from the bees got into Gakle's blood and went to his heart. The sting on top of the head an unusual place for the poison enter. It got directly into the circulation.

Notes for Carl Edgar Yaudes:

Fire Chief Carl F. Yaudes of Fredonia Township collapsed and died, apparently of a heart attack, while directing the fight yesterday Jan. 31, 1966 against a fire that destroyed the William Good residence on 15-1/2 Mile Road southwest of here. The chief was 61 years old. The fire, which started in the clothes drier, burned out the inside of the home. The Loss of the structure and of clothing, furnishings and appliances would amount to more than $12,000, according to Mr. Good.

He and his wife planned to acquire a trailer home for temporary shelter. They stayed last night with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jacks Thompson, who live across the road. Mrs. Good, who was at home at the time the fire broke out, about 1:10 p.m. and checked on the clothes drier in a room next to the bedroom. She found flames around it and called the Fredonia Fire Department. Mrs. Good is well known as the only woman competitor in corn picking contests.

Chief Yaudes was born Oct. 4, 1904, in the same house where he lived his entire life, a son of Frederick and Mary (Gollmer) Yaudes. He and Lena Brown married June 2, 1928, in South Bend, Indiana. He attended Bush School and Marshall High School. He was a member of the Calhoun County Firefighters Assn. and was appointed Fredonia's first fire chief in April, 1951, and had held the position since. He served on the Bush School Board for 20 years, was a 4-H club leader for 13 years, had been a farmer in Fredonia Township, and was a member of the Calhoun County Farm Bureau.

He is survived by his wife, Lena, and a son, Carleen E. of Fredonia Township.

Funeral services for Chief Yaudes will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday from the Court Funeral Home in Marshall, the Rev. Bob Rhymer of the Baptist Church in Tekonsha officiating. Burial will be in Oakridge Cemetery in Marshall.

Arrangements of roses and carnations were used on the table and on the buffet. The Misses Eleanor, Judy, Kathleen and Marie Bender, all cousins of the bride assisted in serving. She married (2) Robert Dennis Shaffer. He was born Aft. 1940. She married (3) Christopher Wilson Nygren 2003. He was born 05 Dec 1945.

Notes for Margaret Louise Watson:

Margaret Louise (Watson) Nygren, 71, passed away peacefully on Feb. 18, 2020, at Kansas City Hospice House after a courageous seven-year battle with cancer. Margaret (Maggie) Watson was born on January 8, 1949, at Bethany Medical Center in Kansas City, Kansas, to Arthur Francis and Frances Margaret (Ukele) Watson. She grew up in Bonner Springs, Kansas, where she graduated from Bonner Springs High School. She studied pharmacology at the University of Colorado Boulder and English at the University of Kansas before pursuing a career in film. First working as a film editor/director at Calvin Productions, Maggie later became a video producer, director and script writer for Sprint. In addition, she freelanced as a film editor and post production assistant at Paragon Posting. As a film editor, she had the opportunity to impact both local and national films, including a number of Disney feature movies. Switching gears in her midlife, Maggie attended Rockhurst University, earning a Bachelor of Nursing degree, which launched her next career. She subsequently devoted more than seventeen years as a nurse, caring for patients at Research Medical Center, Baptist Medical Center and Menorah Medical Center. Passionate about helping others, Maggie mentored many nurses and other health care professionals at Menorah. Frequently working through lunch and breaks, Maggie provided compassionate care that made a difference in the lives of her patients. Physicians who had the opportunity to work with Maggie respected her knowledge and counsel, frequently implementing her recommended care plans.

Maggie led a full life. She married her first husband (Robert) while at the University of Colorado Boulder. While the two eventually parted ways, they were proud of their twin boys, Mark and Arthur. Life as a single mother was challenging, but Maggie approached life with a positive attitude. She introduced her boys to the joys of cooking with homemade fried chicken dinners complete with mashed potatoes and fruit pies on Sundays as a reward for behaving at church. She also instilled in them a love of adventure and curiosity. The boys experienced many adventures, to Maggie's chagrin, when she took them to work with her at Calvin, to Harper's Fabrics for sewing classes on the Country Club Plaza or to any number of stores around town. Maggie also impressed upon her twins the value of a good education by exposing them to books, books and more books.

Later in life, Maggie met and married her second husband (Charles). Together they had a son (Michael Frederick), who unfortunately died when he was only a few months old. In 1999, Charles also passed away peacefully at home, leaving Maggie with many wonderful memories. As Maggie worked to rebuild her life, immersing herself in her nursing career, she met her third husband (Christopher). The two wed and enjoyed more than 17 years together, honeymooning in Europe and frequently traveling to both coasts to visit family and friends. Maggie was an avid reader and connoisseur of movies. She loved to cook, explore new places and garden. Her creative talents were many, including her sewing and knitting creations. Always carrying around a large bag with a knitting project, Maggie's friends affectionately nicknamed her the "bag lady." Quick witted and intelligent, Maggie loved to spend time with her family and friends.

In February 2014, Maggie was initially diagnosed with Stage IV cancer. Over the following seven years, Maggie fought cancer and completed stem cell replacement therapy. While Maggie was victorious over the cancer, its toll on her body was too much. Resilient and feisty, Maggie maintained a "can do" attitude and vowed to fight until the end, which is exactly what she did. After a brief stay at the Kansas City Hospice House, Maggie passed away peacefully with family and friends nearby.

Maggie was preceded in death by her parents, Arthur and Frances Watson; husband Charles Nichols; and son Michael. She is survived by her husband of more than 17 years Christopher Nygren; sons Mark Shaffer and Arthur (Linda) Shaffer; brother Fred (Mary) Watson; grandchildren Logan, Victoria and Zoey Shaffer; stepdaughters Stacy Knellinger and Laurie Nygren and step grandchildren Zachary and Timothy.

While the family plans to hold a private burial, they will host a Celebration of Life later this spring. The family would like to thank all of Maggie's caregivers, especially those at KU Medical Center, Menorah Medical Center and Kansas City Hospice House. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to Kansas City Hospice House.

220. Irving Ernest¹¹ Wildt (George Martin¹⁰, Regina Dorothea (Rachel)⁹ Ukele, Johann Christian⁸, Gottfried⁷ Ukele, Johann Georg⁶, Hans Georg⁵, Tobias⁴, Tobias³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 18 Nov 1892 in Pulaski Twp, Jackson Co, Michigan, and died 23 Mar 1970 in Homer Twp, Calhoun Co, Michigan. He married Susan M. Petrie 09 Dec 1919 in Eaton Rapids, Eaton Co, Michigan, daughter of Neal Petrie and Pearl Harwood. She was born 15 Jun 1891 in Eaton Rapids, Eaton Co, Michigan, and died 24 Jun 1976 in Mission, Hidalgo Co, Texas.

Notes for Irving Ernest Wildt:

Loss is set at $30,000 - Fire, which for a time threatened the entire north side of this community's business district, this morning destroyed the interior of three store buildings housing four business places with a loss estimated at $30,000. Departments from five nearby communities assisted Hosier firemen in checking the blaze, but not before the Stub's Grill, the Sinclair Plumbing shop, the Blodgett Watch Repair store and the Wildt barber shop had been burned out. The fire was discovered shortly before 8:30 a.m. by George Ballentine, who turned in the alarm. It was presumed to have started from a defective electric water heater in Stub's Grill, which Wesley Zull, returned Marshall veteran, purchased only a month ago from Robert Daton. The flames quickly spread from the wooden frame building to the Sinclair and Wildt buildings, also of wooden construction.

Summons Aid Fire - Chief Robert Gregg summoned departments from Albion, Litchfield, Concord, Marshall and Sheridan Townships. The three buildings, the only wooden ones on the north side of the main street, were in the center of the business district. Herbert Sinclair, who estimated his loss at $6,000, stated he carried only $500 Insurance on the building and contents, mostly plumbing supplies. A small part of the building was rented to Leo Blodgett, watch repairman. He saved several cases of watches and said his sale, containing many more, was fire-proof. Mr. Zull's loss was covered by insurance in the amount of only $4,500. he said. Furniture owned by Vern Sweet, stored on the second floor of the building, was destroyed.

Irving Wildt, who suffered a bad fire less than a year ago, succeeded in removing his barber chairs and show cases before the flames destroyed the building's interior. Charles Bradley was atop the roof of his grocery adjoining the Wildt building with a hose, playing water upon the flames. Fearful that the town's large water tank might run dry before the fire was extinguished, three large Pet Milk Co. trucks hauled water from the plant to the scene. Hundreds of people from Albion, Concord, Litchfield, Marshall and the surrounding countryside thronged into town as news of the fire spread. Heavy smoke blanketed the community during the morning. Only the framework of the three buildings remained after the fire was extinguished about 10:15 a.m. Officers from the Calhoun county sheriff's department directed traffic and were in charge of the crowds.

Irving E. Wildt, 77, of 421 Lake St., Homer, died Monday March 23, 1970 at his home after several months of illness. He was born in Homer Township and lived for several years in Eaton Rapids. For 30 years he had resided in Homer, where for 20 years he owned and operated a barber shop, on Main Street. He retired several years ago.

Wildt of Charlotte; daughters, Mrs. Lyle (Pauline) Longwell of Mission, Texas, Mrs. Selah (Avis) Chapman of Jackson and Mrs. Elwood (Pearl) Potter of Homer) a brother, Earl Wildt of Homer, and a sister, Mrs. Kenneth (Louise) Gordon of Litchfield.

Karen (Szucs) Ukele, passed away unexpectedly Thursday, October 11, 2018 surrounded by her family. Karen was born on May 15, 1945 in South Bend, Indiana to Paul and Maxine Szucs, who preceded her in death. Left to cherish her memory is her husband of 54 years, Barry Ukele. Together they had four girls: Carmen Ukele (Tim Wolfe), Carla Price (Dave), Coleen Manspeaker (Dave), Cara Hudson (Ted) all of Mishawaka. Cara preceded her in death in 2008.

Also surviving are ten grandchildren: Colin (Christina), Nathan (Lindsey), Adam (Erin) Wojtysiak; Wesley (Ashley) Holbert, Sara Hudson; Taylor, Alex Price; Trevor, Kaley, Trace Manspeaker, as well as six great grandchildren, all of Mishawaka. Two sisters are also left to cherish her memory: Norma (Don) Toth of Texas, and Ceal (Don) Sherwood of Florida.

Karen had wonderful memories of travelling and visiting with her sisters. Siblings who preceded Karen in death were: Paul Szucs (Diane), Sandy Szynski, and Tom Szucs. Karen was so proud of her family and enjoyed spending time with them all. There wasn't a day that went by that she didn't talk to at least one of her girls, if not all of them. She was famous for calling each family member on their birthday to very badly sing to them. We surely will miss these calls. She enjoyed fishing with her husband and helped with The Walleye Club in Mishawaka. She also enjoyed reading, garage sales, and her penny slot machines.

A visitation will be held on Sunday, October 21, from 1-4 pm at The Walleye Club, Mishawaka. A celebration of life to honor Karen's memory will be held directly at 4 pm at the club with a dinner to follow. Chapel Hill will be assisting the family with arrangements. Memorial contributions can be made to The Walleye Club for the MWA Ukele Scholarship. Our family will miss her presence forever, but know she is reunited with her daughter, Cara, and loved ones. We will rejoice in memories until we all meet again.

More About Kenneth Licht and Virginia Buell:

Marriage: 21 Aug 1951, Pontiac, Oakland Co, Michigan

Children of Virginia Buell and Kenneth Licht are:

- + 577 i. Christopher Reed¹³ Licht, born 21 Jun 1952.
- 578 ii. Jeffrey Licht, born 12 Mar 1954.
- 579 iii. Cynthia Ellen (Sam) Licht, born 25 May 1957.

Notes for Cynthia Ellen (Sam) Licht:

La Crosse, Wisconsin, March 6, 1984 - When Cynthia Licht picked up a 108-pound, stuffed dummy and slung it over her shoulders La Crosse firefighters looked a little shocked. But she said they were supportive of her efforts to be the first female firefighter in the city. "What their reaction will be if I get on may be another story." Although she still is awaiting word from the fire department, she admits her chance of becoming a firefighter may not be good because she has poor, uncorrected eyesight. But the 147 pound, 5-foot 4-inch Ms. Licht had no problem passing the fire department's physical agility test because she is a weightlifter. She spends six days a week lifting barbells and working out on. Nautilus equipment working on her legs and lower body one day and her upper body the next. In addition, she plays racquetball, swims and attends exercise classes.

On a recent day at La Crosse Ironworks, a weightlifting club at 312 S Fourth St., Ms. Licht was working on her upper body. She was wearing blue sweatpants and a yellow T-shirt that said, "Women - you can't beat 'em. After loosening up a bit, she started on the bench press with 10 repetitions of lifting 85 pounds. She eventually worked up to five reps (repetitions) of 125 pounds and then finished with 10 lifts of 100 pounds. At the end of the set I can do 15 reps of 100 but it's not in my routine. The most she has cleanly lifted on a bench press is 140 pounds. She has placed in several women power weightlifting meets third at the Wisconsin State Fair, fifth in Dubuque, Iowa, and first at last year's La Crosse Oktoberfest.

Ms. Licht, 26 has been weightlifting ever since she wanted to gain strength for another favorite pastime of her's wrist wrestling. The Evanston, Illinois, native started in that sport while bartending at Poor Richard's, a tavern in suburban Chicago where wrist wrestling was popular. When she started attending the University of Wisconsin La Crosse, she began lifting weights to prepare for a national wrist wrestling tournament in Cudahy. But her training was for naught. Every match I was in, I got beat," she said. Still, she finished well in many state wrist wrestling competitions. After joining the track team at UW-L for the shot put, she continued to lift weights. She then began working out at the YMCA/YWCA and got a part time job as a weight training and Nautilus instructor at the YWCA. When La Crosse Ironworks opened last year, she joined and started working out there on a regular basis. She alternates between free weights at the Ironworks and the anchored Nautilus equipment at the YWCA. She said she enjoys weightlifting and the increased strength and flexibility that comes with it. It makes me look better and feel better." At first, some of the male weightlifters resented her for intruding on their territory, she said. But that soon changed. They realize I'm serious I'm not here to pick someone up or to look at good legs. She admits, however, she does not fit society's concept of what a woman is supposed to be "I'm kind of unorthodox, she said I like it that way."

La Crosse, Wisconsin, July 27, 1989 - Cynthia Licht is a massage therapist. Touching and healing people is what she plans to do for the rest of her life. But on Sunday, the 32-year-old Licht, who is also a weightlifter, leaves La Crosse on a flight to New York City and then on to Russia for the International Powerlifting competitions to be held in Leningrad and Krasnoyarsk. Licht, who works out at the La Crosse YWCA, is one of eight women among the 47 powerlifters and a handful of reporters making the trip. She's the only one from Wisconsin.

The trip is one of several during the year by the Association for International Cultural Exchange Programs in Quebec, Canada. Athletes are invited to attend but either have to pay their own way or find hometown sponsors. She figures the trip will cost her about $3,000. That will put quite a dent in her savings, she admits. "But I was thinking, at 32, if I'm going to compete, I should do it now." About $150 was raised in pledges and donations Saturday during a two-hour lift-a-thon. Donations to help Licht pay her expenses on 6 I was thinking, at 32, if I'm going to compete, I should do it now. Cynthia Licht the trip will be accepted until Friday noon at the YWCA. About two months ago, Licht received a letter telling about the competition in Russia. At first, she didn't consider going. But she gives a great deal of credit to a 79-year-old Sparta woman who encouraged her. "I work in the women's Nautilus center here and she drives in from Sparta a couple of times a week," said Licht. Ruby Bacon said: "Sure I encouraged her. She's a lovely little gal and I like to see young people get ahead."

Just what is powerlifting? Licht explains. "What you see on TV is usually Olympic lifting. In many ways, powerlifting is almost exclusive to America. In some ways the Soviet Union is still exploring this kind of lifting. They had this powerlifting thing in Russia last year and the audience just went nuts." The lifter does three lifts: the squat, the bench press and the dead lift. Licht has lifted a total of 630 pounds for all three lifts. She can lift 225 pounds in the squat; 150 in the bench press and 255 in the dead lift. "That's where you try to lift the weight off the floor and stand erect with it." "That's how you win a meet... by your total," she said. Judges then use a formula that takes into account your body weight, (hers is 143 pounds), to come up with your total, she said.

"Charming name, huh?" asks Cynthia after she completes "the squat" and has lifted 135 pounds. But first there is the preparation. She wraps what looks like Ace bandages around her knees for added support. Then she buckles on a thick leather belt to support her spine. On a bar which is on a rack nearby she places a metal disc weighing 45 pounds on each end of the bar. She takes a moment or two to psyche herself up. When she's ready, she gingerly takes her place under the bar. She straightens up, lifting the bar off the rack and onto her back. She's now holding 135 pounds across her back.

She lowers herself into a squatting position. She exhales, blowing air like a blowfish. Cheeks puffed. Exhaling in short pants. Or, at other times, in one long puff. She rises, then bends and lowers herself in a squat again before replacing the bar back on the rack. She's used to remarks, like the one made the other day by a male observer. He watched her demonstration of powerlifting, then said: "Well, I guess I'd never want you to get mad at me." Her reaction to comments such as that? "A lot of it is teasing and the usual stereotype of the woman weightlifter," she said. "As a massage therapist, I'm a very gentle, caring person. Just because I lift weights doesn't make me some macho, steroid football maniac. I think that's what a lot of people think of when they think of powerlifting."

La Crosse, Wisconsin, March 24, 2003 - Cynthia "Sam" Licht is joining Sue Kolves Salon and Day Spa" as a full-time massage therapist. She brings fifteen years of experience providing massage therapy to the La Crosse area, promoting its benefits through teaching, lectures and presentations. She has been an active advocate for improved licensing and regulation both locally and at the state level. Cynthia is a graduate of the Boulder, Colorado School of Massage Therapy and is a member of the American Massage Therapy Association. She continues her education by expanding her skills through workshops in Neuromuscular Therapy, Sports Massage and Yoga, accruing close to 2,000 hours of additional training. Prior to her massage career, she was as accomplished competitive power lifter and traveled to the Soviet Union to represent the United States in team competition. Cynthia used her years of exercise experience to teach strength training, employing both free weights and Nautilus equipment. Her background also includes providing patient care as a physical therapist aide, administering hydrotherapy, range of motion and treatment modalities.

Sue Kolve says, "We're delighted to have someone with Cynthia's experience, expertise and enthusiasm joining our team. People interested in scheduling an appointment with Cynthia can call. Sue Kolve opened her first salon in a converted downtown La Crosse duplex in 1985 with 300 clients and no employees. Over the years, the business outgrew its 1800-square-foot space. 336. Arthur Frederick¹² Gakle (Edward Elmer¹¹, John Nikolaus¹⁰, Louisa Carolina⁹ Ukele, Johann Christian⁸, Gottfried⁷ Ukele, Johann Georg⁶, Hans Georg⁵, Tobias⁴, Tobias³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 06 Jan 1925 in Sabetha, Nemaha Co, Kansas, and died 27 Sep 2005 in Greenville, Plumas Co, California. He married Loana Constance Casper 12 Dec 1957 in Quincy, Plumas Co, California. She was born 22 Jan 1932 in Chicago, Cook Co, Illinois, and died 19 Feb 2009 in Greenville, Plumas Co, California.

Notes for Arthur Frederick Gakle:

Arthur Frederick Gakle was born to Edward and Elsie Gakle, the youngest of three boys, which included Willis and Paul. After his father died when Arthur was 6 months old, Elsie moved her family to Chico, where she became a Registered Nurse for Enloe Hospital specializing in private care. Arthur, as well as Willis and Paul, worked from a young age to help the family make ends meet. Arthur's first job, at the age of 7, was as a paperboy in downtown Chico. While in high school, he worked at Diamond Match Company, Miller's Market and on a ranch as a wrangler.

Upon graduating from Chico High School, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy. He trained to be a signalman specializing in visual communication, blinker, semaphore flag and flag hoist. He was promoted continually throughout World War II and received an honorable discharge. Arthur returned to his hometown of Chico and enrolled at Chico State College to begin pre-veterinary studies. He transferred to UC Davis briefly before lack of finances forced him to reconsider his career choice. He then decided to pursue a B.S. in biological sciences while returning to Chico State College, and then finally completed his degree at San Jose State. After this, he again returned to Chico State College to earn a general secondary teaching credential and administrative credential. He would now begin what evolved into a 30-year teaching career in high school science.

His first position was at Fort Bragg for one year. He then transferred to Tamales High for the next four years. In 1956, his childhood friend and backyard neighbor, Jack Rubke, who was the Greenville High School music teacher at the time, suggested Arthur apply for the recently vacated science position at GHS. Wanting to return closer to home, and being quite familiar with Indian Valley and Lake Almanor in his youth, he applied and got the job. He had been at GHS only one year when he met his future wife, Loana, a recent Ithaca College graduate from New York and new GHS social studies and English teacher. They were married three months after their first meeting on the first day of school. So, on December 19, 1957, they became husband and wife and enjoyed a Hawaiian honeymoon which was the first of many trips the couple would take over the years, including trips to China, Portugal, Spain, England, France and Tahiti, as well as many Christmases on the Hawaiian Islands and Easters in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Twelve years later their only child, Kathleen Elizabeth Ann, was born. Arthur spent many hours as a devoted father building a strong relationship with his daughter. He often took her to Clear Creek Park, played with her, let her play beauty shop on him, chauffeured her everywhere, helped out in her classroom, taught her how to ski and golf, and took her sailing after school. He always was a strong support by effortlessly guiding her whether it be an algebra problem, choice of attire or advising her on life's inevitable lessons we all must learn. His natural teaching ability was evident not only as a father but as an educator.

During his tenure at Greenville High, teaching biology, chemistry, physics, earth and life sciences, Arthur received many honors, including being selected to attend the Mineral Industry and Society Summer Institute at the Mackay School of Mines, the National Science Foundation Award and several invitations in the summers to be a guest lecturer and professor of geology at Chico State. Also, while employed for Plumas Unified School District, Arthur earned a master's degree in geology from the University of Oregon. His master's thesis was on the geology of Keddie Ridge, a place he particularly enjoyed.

His lifetime appreciation for the outdoors was clearly evident upon his retirement from teaching in 1980. At this time he was able to embrace a life free of deadlines, commitments and time constraints. He fished, skied, golfed, camped, traveled, hiked, explored, hunted and sailed to his heart's content for the next 25 years. As well, he was an active longtime member of the Chester Lion's club, holding the office of secretary and receiving the honor of Lion of the Year. This past June he was also honored for his dedication to educational excellence at Greenville High school by being selected, along with Loana, as Alumni Emeritus.

In his later years, Arthur enjoyed reading and relaxing in his Lake Almanor home, often spending hours looking out to the lake and soaking in the serenity. He took great pleasure in getting to know his son-in-law, Robert, and was elated with the birth of his only grandchild, Chloe Spencer Copeland. He delighted in her squeals, giggles, chattering and walk, often commenting of her milestones and smiling. Arthur has been married to his wife, Loana, for 48 years; he has a daughter, Kathleen Elizabeth Ann Copeland; a son-in-law, Robert McLeod Copeland; and a granddaughter, Chlo? Spencer Copeland. His brother Paul Spencer Gakle lives in Ohio with his wife, Ginny. His nephew David Gakle lives in the Bay Area, and his niece Sandy Farowich lives in Maui, Hawaii with her husband, Dana. Other loved members of his family include brother and sister-in-law Bill and Jane Saunders of Yorba Linda; sister-in-law Mary Ellen Rybarcyk of San Diego; niece Jacqueline Oberle and husband, Donny, of Corona; nephew Dennis Saunders and wife, Melinda, of Chino Hills; and grandnieces Priscilla, Amanda, Raelene and Taryn.

A celebration of Arthur's life was held Monday, Oct. 3, 2005, at St. Anthony's Catholic Church with burial following at the Greenville District Cemetery, in Greenville. The family requests that donations in Arthur's memory be made to the High Sierra Animal Rescue, PAWS or the Chico Cat Coalition, c/o of Fehrman Mortuary and Crematory, P.O. Box 803, Greenville, CA 95947

Marriage Notes for Kenneth Wymore and Beverly Weindorf:

Los Angeles - Two pieces of paper brought to domestic relations court by her estranged parents yesterday Feb. 27, 1947 made no difference in the life of Christine Rae Wymore, 3. Her mother, Mrs. Beverly Ruth Wymore, 36, was there with a writ of habeas corpus designed to wrest possession of the child from her father, Kenneth Arnold Wymore, 30, former Seabee. However, Wymore had a slip of paper of his own in the form of an order from San Bernardino Superior Court, where his divorce is pending. It was a temporary order restraining Mrs. Wymore from taking the child. Superior Judge Fred Miller, who reminded, the couple and their attorneys that undivorced parents have equal rights in the matter of custody, denied the writ, because, the San Bernardino court has jurisdiction. Without favoritism little Christine Rae hugged her parents. She kissed her weeping mother good-bye and was carried away by her father. At present she lives with him and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wymore, in Ontario.

Notes for Lee Fred Ukele:

Holton, Kansas — A Kansas man is the fourth member of his family to die from injuries suffered in a crash that happened more than a year ago as they returned home from watching the man's sons play in a state high school football championship, according to a prosecutor and funeral home. Lee Fred Ukele, 60, a farmer from Sabetha, died last Wednesday at the University of Kansas Hospital, according to Popkess Mortuaries. Funeral services are scheduled for this Wednesday.

He was critically injured in a November 2017 crash that killed his 42-year-old wife, Carmen Ukele; his 11-year-old daughter, Marlee Ukele; and his 62-year-old brother, Stephen Ukele. Jackson County Attorney Shawna Miller said Monday that Lee Ukele was placed in a rehabilitation facility after the crash because injuries to his head and other parts of his body were so severe.

The family was returning home from watching two of Lee Ukele's sons, Tanner and Carson Ukele, win the championship in Hutchinson, Kansas, with their Sabetha High School teammates when the crash occurred. Authorities have said that Maria Perez Marquez, 49, of Omaha, Nebraska, struck the family's minivan head-on while trying to pass another vehicle on U.S. 75 north of Holton, about 70 miles (112 kilometers) west of Kansas City. Coach Garrett Michael said at the time that Lee Ukele's sons were pulled off the football team bus after a celebratory dinner. A trooper later told them their father, himself a former football player, had been hurt and the others had died.

Marquez is scheduled to be sentenced in June on three misdemeanor counts of vehicular homicide and one felony count of aggravated battery. Miller said that "unfortunately" she can't file additional charges against Marquez because she already pleaded guilty in the case as part of a plea deal. She had originally been charged with three felony counts of involuntary manslaughter. But she said the judge could consider Lee Ukele's death when making a sentencing decision. "Obviously, myself and the family will ask for the jail time because of all the loss in this case," the prosecutor said.

Lee Fred Ukele, well known Sabetha farmer, age 60 passed away Wednesday, May 8, 2019 peacefully surrounded by his family at University of Kansas Hospital in Kansas City, Kansas. Lee was born on August 22, 1958 in Sabetha, Kansas to Marshall and Geneva (Brigham) Ukele. He attended Excelsior Country School, Sabetha Elementary School, Junior High School and High School and graduating in 1976. He participated in football, wrestling, 4-H and FFA. He attended Highland Community College and graduated in 1978. He also attended Kansas State University taking classes in agri-business. He returned to farm with his brother, Stephen on the Ukele family farm around the Berwick area. They created a diversified grain crop and commercial livestock business. He married Carmen Kay Baumgartner on March 27, 1999. To this union three children were born, Tanner Marshall, Carson Samuel and Marlee Geneva. Lee was a loving husband, father and devoted uncle. He was well known for his true business savvy and work ethics at farming operations, remarkable memory for facts and figures and ways to achieve success and having fun with family and friends. He had a sunny disposition and genuine concern for the well-being of others. Lee and family attended NorthRidge Church in Sabetha. He was on the board of directors for the United Bank and Trust, the Nemaha County FSA Community Committee, and several social committees. His family was always the top of his list. He will be missed by all who knew him.

Lee was preceded in death by his parents; his loving wife, Carmen Kay; his daughter, Marlee Geneva; his brother, Stephen Marshall; his uncles, Fred Ukele and Gerald Summers; his aunt, Dorothy Summers; and his cousins, Jim Summers and Kim Summers.

Lee is survived by his sons, Tanner Marshall and Carson Samuel both of Sabetha; his sisters, Pamela Day Ukele of Hannibal, Missouri and Paula Sue Miller (Alan) of Shawnee, Kansas; a sister-in-law, Pamela Sue Ukele of Sabetha; numerous nieces and nephews; and Lee's family extended to the Leonard Baumgartner family and cousins, Beth Mazzola Summers, Gary and Sylvia Summers, Jeri and Janice Summers, Jon and Janet Summers, Kirk and Stefni Summers, who loved Lee like a brother.

Funeral service will be Wednesday, May 15, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. at the North Ridge Church in Sabetha. A visitation will be Tuesday, May 14, 2019 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the North Ridge Church in Sabetha. The interment will be made in the Sabetha Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made

Notes for Carmen Kay Baumgartner:

Saturday should have been a day of celebration for Sabetha, Kansas, after the high school in the town of about 2,600 residents won a state football championship. But tragedy muted the joy. Carmen Ukele was driving back to Sabetha Saturday night after watching her sons, starting offensive linemen Tanner and Carson, win the Class 3A state football championship in Hutchinson. On U.S. 75 north of Holton, Kansas, in northern Jackson County, on a stretch of road locals complain about for its frequency of accidents, Ukele crashed head-on into another vehicle that was trying to pass traffic on the two-lane highway, according to the Kansas Highway Patrol's report.

Ukele died, and so did two of her three passengers: Marlee Ukele, the football players' 11-year-old sister, and their uncle, Stephen Ukele, 62. The players' father and Ukele's husband, Lee Ukele, was seriously injured. Condolences are pouring into the town and team from neighboring communities and sports opponents alike.

Holton, Kansas — A Nebraska woman has been sentenced to more than four years in prison for a November 2017 head-on crash in northeastern Kansas that killed four members of a Sabetha family who were returning home from a state championship football game.

The Capital-Journal reports that 49-year-old Maria Perez Marquez, of Omaha, Nebraska, was sentenced Friday to four years and one month in prison. She pleaded no contest to aggravated battery and three misdemeanor counts of vehicular homicide for the crash that killed 42-year-old Carmen Ukele, her 11-year-old daughter, Marlee Ukele, and her brother-in-law, 62-year-old Stephen Ukele. Carmen Ukele's husband, 60-year-old Lee Ukele, initially survived the crash but died last month of his injuries.

Investigators say the family was returning home from watching the Sabetha High School football team win the state championship when Perez Marquez crashed into their minivan while trying to pass another vehicle. At the time, two of Lee Ukele's sons played on the team.

Carmen K. (Baumgartner) Ukele, 42, of Sabetha, Kansas passed away Saturday, November 25, 2017. As a Christian, Carmen served her Lord and Savior in numerous ways. This was most evident in her exceptional devotion to her husband and children. Her hospitality and kindness was felt by many, and her home was always open to anyone. Carmen attended NorthRidge Church in Sabetha where she and Marlee served in the nursery. Earlier in the day of her passing, she celebrated with her two sons the excitement of winning the 3A Kansas State Football Championship.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Nancy (Hartter) Baumgartner; and her cherished daughter, Marlee.

She is survived by her husband, Lee and two sons, Tanner and Carson of the home; her father, Leonard Baumgartner of Sabetha; and siblings, Jeff (Kim) Baumgartner, Jay (Heidi) Baumgartner both of Bern, Kansas, Heidi (Jeff) Bahler of Wolcott, Indiana, and Holly (Duane) Meyer of Bern, Kansas. Carmen was adored by her numerous nieces and nephews. She will be lovingly remembered by the countless acquaintances and friendships she cherished, always sharing a word of encouragement. 400. Mark Robert¹² Shaffer, twin (Margaret Louise¹¹ Watson, Francis Margaret¹⁰ Ukele, Jakob Friedrich⁹, Johann Christian⁸, Gottfried⁷ Ukele, Johann Georg⁶, Hans Georg⁵, Tobias⁴, Tobias³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 18 Aug 1968 in Denver, Colorado, and died 08 Apr 2023 in Bellevue, Washington.

Notes for Mark Robert Shaffer, twin:

Mark Robert Shaffer, 54, arrived in this world on August 18, 1968 in Denver, Colorado. Born August 18, 1968 to Margaret Louise and Robert Dennis Shaffer, Mark was the "older" twin by four minutes with his brother Arthur following closely in his footsteps. While still a baby, Mark's parents relocated back to his mother's home state of Kansas, settling briefly in Lawrence and finally in Kansas City, Missouri. Mark and Arthur were inseparable as young children, continually going on adventures and getting into mischief. Moving on from those early years and Boone Elementary, the boys graduated from Center High School. From there, Mark attended Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg, Missouri, and earned his Baccalaureate.

Throughout Mark's youth, he was immersed in scouting. Growing up, he eagerly looked forward to his summer camp at the Bartle Reservation near Clinton, Missouri. When he was old enough, he even worked for a number of years at H. Roe Bartle Boy Scout summer camp as a swim instructor and eventually achieved Scouting's highest honor, Eagle Scout. He enjoyed summer camp and participated in the honor scouting program of Mic-O-Say. Mark embraced many of the lessons he learned on his scouting journey, including always helping others. After graduating from college, Mark spent time in Kansas City and Santa Fe, New Mexico. He learned more about his craft by working for a nationally renowned photographer and then branching out on his own as an independent photographer. Shifting gears in his late 20s, Mark decided to pursue a career in telecommunications and technology, working first at Sprint in Overland Park, Kansas, and then at HCL and Microsoft in Seattle, Washington.

A couple of years ago, Mark shifted his focus once again, this time pursuing a career in cybersecurity. Recently appointed as a principal at CliftonLarsonAllen (CLA), Mark was exuberant about his "dream job." He loved everything about his job, especially his co-workers. During his time in Seattle, Mark developed a great love for the beautiful outdoors and explored the open road on his Harley Davidson. Supporting the Seattle Mariners was also a favorite pastime although he never missed an opportunity to see his favorite hometown teams when he visited family in Kansas City, the Kansas City Royals and Kansas City Chiefs.

Above all other things in life, Mark was a devoted father to his nearly five-year-old daughter Zoey Shaffer. Although Zoey's time with her father was cut way too short, she should have no doubt about her father's love for her. He loved to spend time with her watching cartoons, going to the park, playing games or simply hanging out. She was the light of his life.

Mark never met a stranger. He exuded confidence and filled every room he entered with his larger-than-life personality and infectious laugh. Mark saw the best in everyone and was eager to help anyone in need—whether they needed a meal, a warm coat or simply a friend. His friends were many. Mark experienced the highs and lows of life. Mark valued his support and friendships, especially his long-time friend Jim who loved him like a brother. Mark always saw the good in people and never hesitated to volunteer to help others achieve their true potential. Mark was a proud member of the Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross in Redmond, Washington, where he sang in the choir. In addition, Mark embraced his family heritage through the Sons of the American Revolution and spent many weekends volunteering with the Kairos Prison Ministry Foundation.

Mark is preceded in death by his grandparents, Arthur and Frances Watson, and his mother Margaret Nygren. He is survived by his daughter Zoey Shaffer, father Robert Shaffer, twin brother Arthur Shaffer (Linda), Logan, Victoria, Uncle Fred (Mary) Watson.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions to Eastside Intergroup. Please indicate that your donation is in memory of Mark Shaffer.

Child of Mark Robert Shaffer, twin is:

Notes for Dana Jean Hungerford:

Dana "Jean" Wildt, 97, died Friday, September 25, 2015 in Spring Arbor, Michigan. Jean, a beloved and life-long Concord, Michigan resident was born April 28, 1918. Jean was born in Concord Township to Dana and Alberta Hungerford. She attended school in a one-room schoolhouse in Concord Township before marrying and moving to Concord where she raised a family. Prior to her passing, Jean was the oldest living member of her 1935 graduating class.

Jean lived her life devoted to her family and the town that she served. Jean was the Concord Township Clerk, serving in this position for 42 years, a record of the longest-serving township clerk in Jackson County. While serving in the clerk position, she also served as the treasurer for the village of Concord. It was not uncommon to see Jean at various Concord events, such as the Christmas Reception at the Hubbard House, or the Fireman breakfasts. A friend to all, she would often make time to chat with friends and fellow residents of Concord at the now-closed Shannon's Market, the Post Office, the Cadet or the M-60 Grill.

In addition to being a township and village servant, Jean was a mother and is survived by three sons, Bob (Sue) Beals, Tom (Penny) Beals, and Lynn (Mickie) Wildt as well as one daughter Ann (John) Novak and their families. She has 13 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren who will all remember her fondly as a caring, selfless, loving woman who was quick to laugh at their jokes and was always interested in what they had to share.

Jean had many hobbies throughout her life. She loved cross-stitching and knitting, and taught many of her granddaughters how to do both. Her homemade dish clothes were always a gift that members of her family looked forward to receiving. Jean also loved to do fill-in word puzzles and read romance novels. Many of the cabinets at her house were filled with her collections of both, and she would often give her books to the many friends who would stop by and visit her.

Jean was very family oriented, often holding holiday dinners at her house, especially Fourth of July picnics. Family members would shoot off fireworks every year, after Jean had notified the police to "make sure you don't patrol Union St. between 9 and 10 PM!" She made her legendary deviled eggs at family gatherings and would always have plenty of card games like Skip-Bo and Uno that she and her family members would enjoy. Jean was a loving mother and grandmother and would often have her grandchildren spend time during the summer at her house, where she would take them to downtown Concord, the cemetery, and drives in the country.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, Alvin Beals, and her second husband, Harold Wildt, her parents, Dana and Alberta and her brother Frank. Not only does she leave her family behind, but several friends, including Star Clark and Rosemary Beals, neighbors, and cousins.

The family would like to thank the staff of Arbor Manor for providing such wonderful and loving care to "Jeannie" over the past 4 years. A special thank you to Toni and Amy, two her her main caregivers over the years. We would also like to thank all of the wonderful family and friends in the Concord area. Our mother would have never been able to remain as independent as she was if it had not been for all of you who elected her to office for 42 years and watched over her. All of you knew her patterns and if she wasn't out bugging all of you on a regular basis, you were checking on her! She would often say "I have to report in before I leave town, or the police will be calling you."

A memorial celebrating Jean's life and accomplishments will be held on Saturday, October 17, 2015 at the Universalist Church, 200 Hanover St., Concord. Family will receive guests starting at 1PM with the service to follow at 2PM. A luncheon will be served at the Hubbard House, 317 Hanover St., immediately following the service. All donations can be made to the Hubbard Memorial Museum Foundation. PO Box 463, Concord, Michigan, 49237.

Notes for Jason Lee Ukele:

August 6, 2018 - An employee of Showalter Fireworks was seriously burned in a flashover fire Monday morning while disposing of powder from old fireworks at the business site west of Inman. Jason Ukele, 39, of Salina, was airlifted from the scene off North Plum to the St. Francis Medical Center burn unit in Wichita, where he was listed in critical condition Monday afternoon. He suffered burns to his right leg and right hand, said business owner Steve Showalter, who is Ukele's father-in-law.

"We were destroying powder and it went wrong," said Showalter, who has operated the firework business in McPherson County, less than a mile north of the Reno County line, for 32 years. "We were just doing a few pounds of loose powder," Showalter said. "We were lighting it in small batches, of 3 to 4 ounces at a time. We do this routinely. This one flashed instead of burned. I have no idea why it did what it did." Ukele was igniting the powder with a flare attached to a four-foot pole, Showalter said. They were the only two at the burn pit and Showalter was not hurt. "This is something we'd done for 30 years -- destroying fireworks that are not serviceable," he said. "It's a safety thing for our customers, rather than put these products out to the public. This time it didn't work."

Notes for Cara Michele Ukele:

Cara Michelle Hudson, 37, of Mishawaka, passed away at 4:00 a.m. Tuesday, April 15, 2008, in Saint Joseph's Regional Medical Center, South Bend, surrounded by her family. Cara was born January 13, 1971, in South Bend, Indiana, to Mr. and Mrs. Barry, and Karen (Szucs) Ukele. She was the fourth of four girls in the Ukele family. Cara was a graduate of Penn High School, class of 1989, and was employed as the office manager at Associated X-Ray of South Bend. For the last several years, Cara was a homemaker. On October 21, 1995, the former Ms. Ukele was united in marriage to Mr. Ted W. Hudson.

Remaining to cherish her memory are her husband, Ted, along with their precious children, Wesley and Sara Hudson, both of Mishawaka; three sisters, Carmen (Mike) Wojtysiak, Carla (Dave) Price and Coleen (Dave) Manspeaker, all of Mishawaka; and her parents, Barry and Karen Ukele of Mishawaka. Surviving as well are her mother and father-in-law, Eugene and MaryJane Hudson, 14 nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles and many cousins.

Visitation will be held from 2 to 8 p.m. Thursday, April 17, in Chapel Hill Funeral Home, 10776 McKinley Highway, Osceola, Indiana. Graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, April 18, in the Good Shepherd Mausoleum on the grounds of Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens, Osceola. Cara loved to cook for our many family outings, and was known by her nieces and nephews as "the best cooker." She liked to work outdoors and enjoyed fishing. Cara loved her family dearly and was loved greatly in return. No words can express the loss we feel and how we will miss her every day until we meet again. We are certain Cara is at peace. Little did we know that day, That God would call her name. In life we love you dearly, And in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, Although you did not go alone, For part of us went with her, That day God called her home. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in honor of Cara's children, Wesley and Sara.

She was born 18 Aug 1955 in Monroe Co, Michigan, and died 18 May 2011 in Pontiac, Oakland Co, Michigan.

Notes for Lori Ann Salow:

Lori Ann Garland, age 55, of Adrian, Mich., formerly of Monroe, passed away unexpectedly Wednesday, May 18, 2011 at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital, Pontiac, Michigan. Lori was born Aug. 18, 1955 in Monroe, Michigan to Richard and Lois (Klingensmith) Salow. Lori married the love of her life, Chris Garland, on June 27, 1993 in Johnson City, Tennessee. Lori attended Monroe High School and was also a graduate of the Hamtramck Barber School. When Lori was three years old, she was chosen as the first "Miss Hospitality" (of Monroe) during Michigan week. Lori's kind heart and compassion for animals was very apparent at an early age, as any stray kitten or puppy "mysteriously" followed her home on a regular basis. Lori was an outgoing, fun-loving person who enjoyed her family, friends and many pets, fishing, her musical favorite Tom Petty, and NASCAR, especially #24, Jeff Gordon. Her love of family was only surpassed by her love for God.

Lori is survived by her husband Chris, sons Garret Salow, Chris Jr. and Randy Garland, all of Adrian; step-daughter Kristen Garland of Johnson City, Tennessee; parents Lois (Donald) Ritchie of Harrison Township and Richard (Betty) Salow of Knoxville, Tennessee; father-in-law and mother-in-law Jerry and Carol Garland of Elizabethtown, Tenn.; siblings Randall (Deb) Salow of New Boston, Michigan, Christina (Michael) Loudon of Warren, Michigan; step-brothers Larry (Sue) Pickens of Monroe, Michigan and Terry (Teresa) Pickens of Van Wert, Ohio; brother-in-law Dennis (Carol) Garland of Johnson City, Tennessee; sisters-in-law Tracy (Harold) Howell and Penny Garland of Johnson City, Tennessee. She also leaves behind to cherish her memory four grandchildren and her many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, extended family and friends.

Sadly, Lori was preceded in death by her grandparents, Charles and Emily Klingensmith and Norman and Viola Salow, all of Monroe.

Cremation is being handled by the L.J. Griffin Funeral Home, Westland, Michigan. There will be no public viewing, but the family asks that you keep them in your thoughts and prayers during this time. - 887 iii. Samuel R. (Sammy) Haun, born 15 Jun 1984.

Notes for Samuel R. (Sammy) Haun:

Samuel Haun grew up in East Texas with a very artistic family. After graduating from Longview High School, he traveled the world as a steel worker building satellite earth stations. In 2001, he joined the United States Navy and served directly in the Joint Task Force Horn of Africa campaign aboard the USS Mount Whitney. After serving in more than 25 cities and in over nine countries, he returned home with an honorable discharge and the desire to put his life experiences towards a new passion of film making.

A self-taught Texas film maker, Haun started his own video production company in early 2006, the same year his son Ayden was born. He directed and produced music videos, documentaries, television commercials and short films for festival circuits. He developed a strong knowledge of how to construct heavy visual environments with the resources around him, and often without the luxury of financial support.

Haun's music video "Firestorm", for the band The Vehicle Reason, was featured by Sennheiser USA as a worldwide premier. "Hank and Jim", his dark comedy short film, premiered at the Blood Bath Film Festival in Dallas, Texas. These projects allowed him to find his own natural style with limited resources and only a few talented crew members. He truly began developing his skills as a Director and Cinematographer by working as a photographer & camera operator on features "Boggy Creek", "Humans VS Zombies", and "Bernie" and as Director of Photography/2nd Unit Director for the independent feature, "Patient Zero". In early 2012, he directed the opening title sequence for William Kaufman's "One in the Chamber", a film starring Cuba Gooding, Jr. and Dolph Lundgren.

Haun's strong networking skills allowed him to work with many great Texas film makers including Richard Linklater and William Kaufman, experiences which inspire Haun to push himself artistically by trusting his instincts to reach his unlimited potential. The end result is ongoing but has produced a new artistic focus through the works of his most excited project and feature length directorial debut in "Project 112."

891 ii. Seth Taccola, born 2002.

Notes for Seth Taccola:

Oak Forest senior offensive lineman Seth Taccola excels on the field and in the classroom for the Bengals. The first time Seth Taccola put on a pair of shoulder pads was his freshman season at Oak Forest. Up until that point, Taccola had only played flag football. "I was a little nervous at first," Taccola said of playing with equipment. "I wanted to see how I would stack up playing with pads."

As it turned out, Taccola, a 5-foot-11, 215-pound senior offensive lineman, had nothing to be nervous about. Flag football had prepared him well for the rigors of contact football. "Playing flag football was a big help for getting me ready for high school football," Taccola said. "It taught me to play on both sides of the line and to learn plays. I really didn't think it was a big difference playing with pads."

Taccola is part of a senior class that has won a lot of football games at Oak Forest. The class went 8-1 as freshman and 9-0 as sophomores. It hit a little bump in the road last season, finishing 6-4 as juniors. However, as seniors, they've regained their winning form, boasting a 3-0 mark heading into a Friday matchup against rival Bremen. And they don't plan on slowing down any time soon. "I think it's fair to say that," Taccola said when asked if the Bengals were on a mission this year. "There was some friction last year between the seniors and juniors. But we have the band (seniors) back together from our freshman and sophomore years. We want to go undefeated." Taccola has been a major reason for the Bengals' success, providing a steady influence on the offensive line and in the locker room, according to Oak Forest coach Brian McDonough. "He's a great kid and a wonderful leader," McDonough said. "Seth is an outstanding lineman. He works extremely hard. He's just an all-around great kid." A kid who also cherishes giving back to his community, as he participates in events that enhance the lives of senior citizens. He also excels in the classroom, having amassed a 6.05 GPA and scored 32 on the ACT. A member of the National Honor Society, he currently ranks No. 8 in the senior class.

His older brother, Luke, a sophomore at UIC, played football for four years at Oak Forest. Younger brother Mark is on the sophomore team. "We're pretty competitive," Taccola said of his siblings. "My parents always stressed the importance of academics, ever since I was 6 years old. I've always wanted to be the best in each subject."

While football has provided Taccola with great memories, he's prepared to hang up his cleats after this season. Yes, he enjoys the game. But the combination of working toward a chemical engineering degree and the time demands of playing college football have made the decision to give the game up an easy one. "I love the game, but I don't want it to take over my life," Taccola said. "It's a big commitment at the college level. I have to set myself up for the rest of my life and football isn't going to do that. Getting a good degree and a good job will."

He isn't certain where he'll attend college, though he counts Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Northwestern as top choices. Taccola has been dealing with some injuries the past two seasons. He tore a labrum in his left shoulder last season and has incurred some aches and pains in both knees. However, it's not enough to idle him. There's too much at stake. He wants to help his teammates produce an unforgettable season. "We have a good shot to make some noise in conference and in the 6A playoffs," Taccola said. "We have to stay together and do what we need to do. This is a very unique group. We're pretty confident looking ahead."

892 iii. Mark Taccola, born 2004.

Notes for Linda Louise Wymore:

Quincy resident Linda Louise Wymore passed from this life unexpectedly, early Wednesday morning November 5th, 2008, at the University of California Medical Center in Sacramento, California, with her loving family at her side. Born July 14th, 1951 to the late Kenneth and Hilma (Berg) Wymore in Pomona, California, the family moved from Pomona to Victorville, California in 1964 where Linda attended Victor Valley High School and graduated as a member of the "Class of 1969". Linda went on to attend Victor Valley Junior College before becoming a pre-med student at San Diego State College. She graduated from San Diego State with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Bio-Chemistry in 1976. On October 18th, 1980 in San Diego, California she married the love of her life and best friend Martin "Marty" Byrne, a handsome young man whom she met while attending Junior College. To this union three sons with hair as firey as their mothers were born. Linda has been a resident of Quincy for the past fourteen and a half years relocating here with her family from San Diego where she had resided for thirteen years prior.

Linda was a devout member of the Quincy Community United Methodist Church and was involved in multiple ministries of the church. She served as a Lay Speaker, Chair of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee and as the Secretary of the Administration Council. Linda loved to study and be a part of the political scene. She was the Plumas County representative to the California Democratic Committee and enjoyed social networking and expressing her views and that of her party. An avid reader, Linda enjoyed a wide range of books, especially those dealing with world events, politics, Native American cultures and extra-terrestrials. Above all Linda had a passion to ensure that the provision of educational services was provided to students with special needs. As the Family Empowerment Coordinator of Plumas Rural Services she was respected for her tenacity in ensuring that these services along with In Home Respite Care services were available to all those in need.

In passing Linda leaves her husband of twenty eight years; Marty Byrne, son and daughter-in-law; Kenny and Aurora Byrne of Concord, California, sons; Tim Byrne, currently attending Western Washington University and Brendan Byrne of Quincy, California, her precious two grandchildren, Anjali and Joseph Byrne along with her sisters, Carol Hanson of San Diego, California and Chris Kelly of Surprise, Arizona.

She will be greatly missed by a vast network of friends and family. Linda will be greeted in heaven by the Lord who she so dearly loves and trusts, by her parents, a brother and other family and friends who have preceded her in passing. A celebration of Linda's life will take place 2:00PM Sunday November 9th, 2008 at her beloved Community United Methodist Church of Quincy, California. An opportunity to express your condolences to the family along with signing the memorial guest register is available online at www.fehrmanmortuary.com. The family suggests any remembrances in Linda's memory be made to either Plumas Rural Services Empowerment Center or their ALIVE Program or the Kiwanis Family House of Sacramento, California, c/o Fehrman Mortuary and Crematory P.O. Box 53 Quincy, California 95971.

Notes for Zana Beth Manche:

My name is Zana DeJong and I am a Kansas native that was transplanted into South Dakota after getting married. I graduated from Kansas State University in 2011 and started working for Goessel High School in June. During my six years at Goessel I served as the agricultural education instructor, FFA advisor, assistant high school volleyball and girls basketball coach, as well as a volunteer summer softball coach. Outside of being at school I was active in volunteering for our county 4-H fair, my local church, and traveling to my home town of Hiawatha Kansas to visit my family. My chapter focused on creating a well-rounded chapter which led us to be a top 10 National Chapter finalists for the last three of my six years. Each proficiency award I took to districts competed at state with one National qualifier. I served as the district FFA advisor for one year, have had two district officers, and multiple top five state teams, and top 10 state individuals. I love to provide unique opportunities for my students to explore what the agricultural industry has, think bigger than our own chapter, and live with a servants heart.

In June 2017, I was blessed to get married to Wyatt DeJong. Wyatt was also an agricultural education instructor in Winner South Dakota where we lived. We worked together with his chapter, local 4-H club, and his family ranch to keep us busy. Wyatt has a distinguished FFA history serving as district, state, and a national officer. He has extensively traveled the world, facilitated many conferences, and prides himself on leadership development both at chapter and state levels. We are overjoyed to be able to work in Wood River and look forward to utilizing his expertise in livestock judging, biotechnology, horse judging, Parliamentary procedure, and vet science CDE's. Wyatt will be working on expanding DeJong Ranch in Nebraska this next year. He enjoys working with show animals and the top tier of the family's herd. You will be able to find him attending many national shows showcasing what the ranch has to offer.

I enjoy being in the classroom and the challenge of finding out how each student learns best. I have developed my curriculum to be very hands-on oriented, challenging, but also very rewarding for students. I will always keep my students best interests in mind, push them to be more than they think, and support them in all of their endeavors.

If I was ever asked where I would end up living, I'm confident that Wood River, Nebraska wouldn't have made the short list. It could be because two years ago I didn't know it even existed. However, as luck, prayer, and faith intervened, Wood River has become our home away from home and I couldn't be happier about that. My name is Zana DeJong, the agricultural education instructor and FFA Advisor. I started off this adventure of life outside of Salem, Nebraska where my family lived on the state line. Due to the proximity to Kansas and my mother being a teacher in Kansas, I never attended school in Nebraska. I grew up participating in 4-H, helping on the family farm, and being watched by my grandparents' dairy where the work ethic, determination, and compassion were instilled in me by my family.

I graduated from Hiawatha High School in 2007 where I had been active in FFA, athletics, band, and many clubs and organizations. I was very thankful to go to a school that provided many opportunities even if that meant I was constantly busy going from one event to the next. After some soul searching and college visits, I landed on a major in agricultural education at The Kansas State University. I was proud to become a Wildcat and have been a proud alumnus since 2011. I am currently a student as I work on finishing my Master's in agricultural education.

From Manhappiness, I began my teaching career in Goessel, Kansas. While at Goessel, I was privileged enough to work with great students and staff that allowed me to receive a few teaching awards, have the 8th best FFA chapter in the state, be a coach of a state champion team in volleyball, and a proud supporter of state winning band and chorus programs.

Then in one crazy summer, I traveled to Maryland for some teacher training where I met Wyatt DeJong. I was the representative from Kansas and Wyatt represented South Dakota. As we bonded over inquiry based learning and our love for agricultural education, we kept in touch over a year where we served as Agricultural Education Ambassadors. After a surprise proposal on a livestock judging trip in the middle of winter, I packed up my life in Kansas and headed north. From there, we were married in June of 2017. We resided in his hometown of Winner, South Dakota for one year where Wyatt was the resident agricultural teacher and I worked on my Masters and tended to our funny farm, while being the Assistant FFA Advisor.

As differences in vision arose, Wyatt and I looked for a new school that could match our vision, and found it at Wood River. I have been the agricultural education instructor for the past two years. Wyatt and I spend most of our time in vehicles traveling to Kansas, South Dakota, and cattle shows across the nation. We love any free time we have spending it working with cattle or on the ranch in South Dakota. We have two puppies, Maisy and Lola that keep us on our toes. Together we have eleven nieces and nephews that we love to spoil and spend time with. Our nomadic life has been full of adventures and we have been blessed to travel across the nation and abroad through FFA and agriculture.

She was born 06 Apr 1951 in Battle Creek, Calhoun Co, Michigan, and died 27 Jul 2018 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan. He married (2) Sandra Lee (Sandy) Stearns 24 Nov 1977 in Clark Co, Nevada. She was born Aft. 1949.

Notes for Mary Marie Wesley:

Mary Marie Wesley, a full-blooded Native American, walked on July 27, 2018. Mary was born on April 6, 1951 in Battle Creek. Her father, Joseph George Wesley was a member of the Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Tribe and mother Irene a member of the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of the Potawatomi Indians. Mary's great-grandfather was the Potawatomi Chief Stephen Pamptopee and her great-great-grandfather was Chief Phineas Pamptopee. Her paternal great-great grandfather was Chippewa Chief Buffalo (Ojibwe: Ke-che-waish-ke/Gichi-weshkiinh) "Great-renewer". Chief Buffalo is memorialized in the U.S. Capitol where two busts are on display and his profile was imaged on the buffalo nickel. Irene was Chair of the first Elders Committee which served as the Judicial Branch of Government for NHBPI. Mary's brother Joseph George Wesley Jr. was Tribal Chairman from 1979 - 1981 and had the reservation updated to a historical status, was the first to start housing and grants, and took the first steps for NHBPI to become a federally recognized tribe. Mary's sister Laura Wesley Spurr, Tribal Chair, led a ten-year campaign to establish FireKeepers Casino near Battle Creek and planned and implemented the construction of office buildings, housing, medical facilities, and tribal ceremonial grounds on the reservation.

Mary graduated from Athens High School as Valedictorian of her class in 1969, and from Kellogg Community College as a Registered Nurse. Her pride was her family and children Robert Keith Potter II, Bradley Stephen Potter, and Sarah Marie Joslyn. Mary worked at the Battle Creek V.A. Hospital for 21 years, the Regional Psychiatric Hospital in Kalamazoo, and tenderly cared for her 95-year old mother and special needs son for 48 years. Mary enjoyed participating in tribal pow-wows, Potawatomi gatherings, and special events involving Indian culture, dances and crafts such as weaving baskets from black ash and preserving and collecting native cultural artifacts. Mary attended the Athens Methodist Church and the Athens Indian Church. She formed lifelong friendships with many townspeople from Athens and the surrounding area.

Mary was well known for her kindness and compassion, and for her honesty and candor. She was not capable of deception, and would always tell you exactly what was on her mind. Mary did not hesitate to speak out against injustice, such as decisions of the tribal government and court orders threatening to evict her then 94 year-old mother Irene from her home on the reservation where she was born in 1922, refusing to acknowledge and honor Irene's legal will, and blocking the family from retrieving their personal household property and treasured relics preserved for generations.

Mary was predeceased by her parents, Joseph George and Irene Wesley, her husband Carl Joslyn, brother Joe Wesley Jr., sister Laura Wesley Spurr, and her beloved daughter Sarah Marie Joslyn. She is survived by her sons Robbie and Bradley, Aunt Millie and her cousins Sharon Kelley, Priscilla Wesley Piowar, Maureen Kisabeth, Georgan Matthews, Brian Wesley, and Penny Honke, brother-in-law Stephen (Joy) Spurr, her friend Donald Watkins, and a large extended family.

Notes for Bradley Stephen Potter:

Bradley Stephen Potter, 47, walked on, on October 5, 2022. Brad was born on February 15, 1975 in Washington D.C. to Mary Marie Wesley. His grandparents were Joseph (a tribal member of the Bad River Band of Lake Superior Chippewa) and Irene Wesley (a tribal member of the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi Indians). Brad graduated from Athens High School and attended Kellogg Community College, studying to become a paralegal assistant or game warden, but instead became a Journeyman Ironworker and qualified rigger in Michigan Ironworkers Local 25. He later enrolled in Wayne County Community College in Detroit to further develop his welding skills.

Brad enjoyed crossbow hunting, stock car racing, National Geographic media events, growing medicinal plants and the music of Pink Floyd. He was an accomplished author with volumes of handwritten notebooks and had a photographic memory. He could hold his own on the TV program "Jeopardy", which he enjoyed with his aunt Joy and uncle Stephen Spurr, Brad's caregivers during the period of his treatment for pancreatic cancer. During his illness, Brad continued to enjoy family vacations, cultural events, museums, parks, and would often go fishing at the Lake St. Clair pier. He particularly enjoyed cruising the neighborhoods of Detroit, where he would occasionally spot coyotes. Most of Brad's lifelong friends lived in Battle Creek or Athens. He took great pleasure in taking their children shopping, surprising them with Christmas gifts, or teaching them outdoor skills that he had learned from his grandmother Irene. Once Brad took a carload of his friends' children to Chicago for a tour of Shedd Aquarium. Brad and his mother Mary valued nature, animals and environmental responsibility highly.

Brad was predeceased by his sister Sarah Joslyn, his mother Mary Wesley, his aunt Laura and uncle Joe, and his grandparents Joseph and Irene Wesley. He is survived by his brother Robbie.

A Celebration of Brad's life will be held on Saturday, November 12th from 3:00 - 6:00 p.m. at Baxter Funeral Home Dinner Hall, 375 West Dickman Road, Battle Creek, Michigan 49037. We would ask that donations on Brad's behalf be sent to the Athens Area Community Foundation, P.O. Box 205, Athens, Michigan 49011. Arrangements by the Baxter Funeral & Cremation Service.

Notes for Sarah Marie Joslyn:

Sarah Joslyn Hendricks walked on, on April 18, 2012. Sarah was born in Kalamazoo, Michigan on May 9, 1978 to Mary Wesley and Carl Joslyn. She attended Galesburg-Augusta schools, and graduated from Athens High School in 1996. She studied at Kellogg Community College, and graduated with certifications in corrections, and in landscaping and horticulture. She was married to Lonnie Hendricks on December 1, 2009. Sarah was a member of the Nottawaseppi Band of Huron Potawatomi. She was a direct descendant through her grandmother Irene Wesley of Steven Pamptopee and his father Phineas Pamptopee, both of whom were prominent Chiefs of the Huron Potawatomi. Before federal recognition of the Huron Potawatomi was restored on December 19, 1995, Sarah was a member of the Lake Superior Band of Bad River Chippewa Indians. She was also the great-great granddaughter of Chief Buffalo, the last Chief of that Tribe, whose profile appears on the Buffalo head nickel. Sarah was proud of her Potawatomi heritage, and participated in powwows, gatherings and other Tribal and intertribal cultural events. She was a competitive traditional dancer, and was also highly proficient in Tae Kwan Do. She worked in various positions for her Tribe, and obtained the first federal grant for the Elders' Council, which is now known as the Elders' Committee. Sarah was known for her quick wit, cheerfulness and good nature.

She is survived by her husband Lonnie of Oshtemo, her brothers Bradley Potter, Robert Potter, her mother Mary Wesley, and her grandmother Irene Wesley all of the Huron Potawatomi Reservation, and a special uncle John Joslyn from Portage, Michigan. Life is a journey and the path is different for everyone, but we all have the choice to either embrace the way marked for us or to shuffle along each path while wishing we were somewhere else. Margaret Garey was one who rejoiced in the promise of each new day, drinking in each and every moment. She lived to reach out to others and loved to prepare both savory and sweet treats for those in her life. Margaret treasured her faith and it was during the sunset of her life that it became the true melody of her life. A true gift to those around her, she leaves behind a treasure trove of memories that will be forever held near to the hearts of those who loved her.

The dawn of the fifties ushered in a generation of great change in America with an increased pace within the civil rights movement, our first taste of space exploration, and the expansion of our nation with the addition of Alaska and Hawaii near the end of the decade. It was during this unprecedented time that David and Gladys Dodson celebrated the birth of their daughter, Margaret, on August 2, 1951. Born in Albion, Michigan, Margaret was one of three girls in her family. She was raised in Albion by two women who were friends of the family, Doris and Iva. The two women basically adopted Margaret, but she visited her parents and sisters from time to time. As a young girl, she loved going to an area lake where she spent time with family. She attended local schools including Albion High School where she played the clarinet in the marching band.

It was while she was in high school that Margaret met the young man who would change the course of her life forever. He was a fellow classmate named Tadd Garey and they began dating while still in high school. Not long after graduating from high school in 1970, Margaret and Tadd were married during the early seventies, deeply in love.

The newlyweds settled in the Coloma area where they were thrilled to welcome three children into their hearts and home: Michael, Mary, and Agatha. Margaret stayed home and cared for the children, watching other neighborhood children as well. She loved cooking for her family and was a fantastic cook, too. Margaret was known for her roast beef, broccoli and cheese soup, breads, cookies, and pies, but she was most famous for her cheesecake that was second to none. She often "paid" people with food – something that was always welcomed by the recipient. As her children grew older, Margaret passed her love for cooking on to them. Margaret was actively involved in the lives of her children including serving as a Scout leader for both her son and her daughters. Their family enjoyed trips to Tennessee where they visited good friends as well as day trips to the beach.

After her marriage ended in divorce in 1993, Margaret started working at Regal Finishing in Coloma where she sorted parts. She later moved to Atlantic Automotive where she met her best friend, Aunt Dar. Aunt Dar took Margaret under her wing and because they complimented each other as total opposites, they were really good for one another. After working at Atlantic Automotive, Margaret began working for Wal-Mart, first in South Haven and when she moved in with Aunt Dar three years ago, she transferred to the Wal-Mart on Ninth Street in Oshtemo. Margaret worked there as a phone operator in customer service and truly enjoyed her work. The people she worked with always liked having Margaret around as well.

There were many things that made Margaret such an extraordinary woman who was so dearly loved. She liked country music the best, although she liked any type of music with a good beat, but dancing was never her forte. Margaret enjoyed reading romance novels, and she also liked sewing and watching Food Network. She treasured the relationship she shared with her special friend, John, over the years. Margaret had a special place in her heart for animals and rescued both a little puppy she named Taffy and a cat she named Leo. She was always around, always giving of herself to others, and she was like a mother to everyone. Faith played an important role in Margaret's life, and she was usually connected to a church wherever she was living. Over the last six months, she became more passionate about her faith through her children.

Margaret Garey was a delight to those around her in each and every way. Her kind and tender touch reached many through the years, yet no one held a more prominent place in her heart than her children and grandchildren. Margaret loved Halloween, complete with her handmade costumes, but it was cooking for others that always brought her the greatest joy. Those who knew Margaret will be forever changed for having loved such a special woman.

Notes for Marcella Ann (Marcie) Barnes:

Muskegon, Michigan - Marcella Ann Wildt passed away unexpectedly at the age of 66 on April 17, 2020. She was a mother, daughter, nana, sister, friend, and so much more. She was born to Leola M. Barry and William P. Barnes on May 9, 1953 in Fremont, Michigan. She was youngest of their five children. William Barnes (passed away January 15, 2020), E. Michael Barnes, Mary Vander West, and John Barnes. She was "Mom" to her four children (listed in order of age): Jaime Kim Meekhof (m. to Jamie R. Baeza), Andrew Patrick Meekhof (m. to Angela Meekhof), Paige Traves Wildt, and Sagan Marie Wildt. She had five grandchildren: Brynn and London Meekhof (Andrew's daughters), Greyson and Paisley Shay Evans (Sagan's kids), and Tucker Cearley (Paige's son).

Jaime thought kids were overrated so she got a dog instead. Marcie loved hanging out with her girlfriends over the years. Whether it is was for coffee, antiquing, bonfires, or just hanging out, they all held a special place in her heart. Denise, Kathy, and Sharon were just a few of many. Marcie worked at Wayne's Deli for 14 years so many people knew her from there. You were probably greeted with a smile and a sarcastic greeting of some sort. That meant she liked you. She often complained about being on her feet for long hours but she loved that job and the interactions she had with people on a daily basis! She also worked in some of the local school cafeterias. Nelson was her favorite. She loved her co-workers and all of the children there! She was a humble woman who never asked for much and never wanted to inconvenience anyone. She put up a hard fight and struggle (go figure) up until the very end. She will be dearly missed by her siblings, children, grandchildren, friends, and everyone else's whose life she touched. There will be a memorial at a later date once this crazy world will allow it so we can share memories about this wonderful woman!

Notes for Mathew Martin Wildt:

2011- While many Homer residents are preparing for the 7th Annual Hogstravaganza Aug. 5-6, the Wildt family is preparing for the 163rd Calhoun County Fair, which gets underway a week later. Matt, 17, and his cousins, Lauren, 16, and Morgan, 11, show hogs year-round, including at the fair. They said they are looking forward to the challenge. "It's fun to do," Matt said. "When you go to fair, you show pigs with your friends and you learn a lot of life skills having to get up every day and feed, walk and wash your pigs." For the Wildt children, they said showing hogs is in their blood. "It's a big family thing for us," Lauren said. "We are out here (on the farm) every day for fair and other shows. Our dads are really into it too." Todd Wildt, Matt's father, said for those not in 4-H, it's hard to understand what the experience is like. "Every year it's a big deal for them to go over there and camp and hang out with their friends. It's a good learning experience for the kids."

Lauren said her grandfather, mother, and older sister all showed pigs as well. Matt said he has two older sisters that used to show too. "It's been in the family a long time," Lauren said. "Most of my friends show pigs or livestock." Up until three years ago, the Wildts used to run a pig farm, but they stopped due to the expense of it. "We did it from the time I was 15 until I was 44 and I'm 47 now," Todd said. "The decision to stop was purely financial. We are no different from other dairy farmers, and the fact is they aren't surviving. I still dairy farm because I've always done it. Morally, it's hard for me to say, stop." Even though they gave up pigs, Todd said they still raise dairy beef and farm 1,000 acres of hay, soybeans, wheat and corn.

For Todd, he said he feels that it's important to keep his children and nieces involved in 4-H. "4-H is very important," Todd said. "The kids have to keep records on what they feed the animals, veterinarian practices, cost of bedding - it teaches them how to pay bills. 4-H kids get a good head start on paying bills and learning life." Matt said it's helpful because they can learn if they are making money or losing money, especially with all the shows they take part in.

They have taken part in nine shows this year in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana and in November, and they will be showing at the Calhoun County Fair in August and at the North American International Livestock Festival in Kentucky in November. They participate in the Green and White in January at MSU pavilion in Lansing, the Ohio Buckeye Circuit twice in February and twice in June, the Spartan Classic in June in Lansing, Michigan Livestock Expo in July, and the Calhoun County Fair in August. They also participate in different jackpot shows throughout the year, where the top three winners earn money. "With all that, it kind of gets hard to show another animal because we are so focused on pigs," Lauren said.

Lauren said they discussed showing cows at the fair, but she says because they are only allowed to show one large animal, she doesn't think she could stray away. "If we wanted to, we could switch but we wouldn't want to," she said. "If we wanted to show steer we would have to give up pigs, and I'm like, 'No.'" They purchase 18 pigs for whole year. "We have two sets of pigs, one for the county fair and one for state shows," Lauren said. "We need two sets because of the different weight limits needed. If we used the same pigs, they would be too old or too heavy to go year-round." The Wildt's don't show all 18 pigs, but they train all 18. "We don't show them all, but you work with them all just in case," Lauren said. "You never know. We had a pig one year that just before show, stepped on something and couldn't walk. That's why we get extra and train extra just in case." Lauren and Matt have been showing for eight years, while Morgan has been showing for three. "When it comes to show pigs, how well you do depends on what you do at home," Lauren said.

The kids work with the pigs daily, walking them, washing them, feeding them and cleaning their pins. "We wash them every day or every other day because when it comes to showmanship, it's important," Lauren said. "If they are laying around all day, it can stain their skin. Washing them shows the judges that we care." The pigs are fed a blend of food that is good for building muscles and some is more fattening. "It's all about the feed," Lauren said. "We get food that they like, that tastes good to them." The Wildt's also walk each of the pigs half a mile each day. "When you walk them, they are building more muscle too," Matt said. "We walk them every day also so they learn to go long distances. It shows the judges you spend time with them when they listen to you." Lauren said when showing the pigs, they can be on their feet for 20 or 30 minutes, and if the pigs get tired they'll "get huffy and puffy" and begin to not listen as well. "You wouldn't put someone who hasn't ever ran in a marathon," Lauren said. "It's the same idea." Overall, Lauren said she thinks they spoil their pigs. "In the summer they are in the barn with fans on them and in the winter, they are in a heated barn," she said. "I think they are pretty lucky." The kids work with all the pigs, but when it comes to showmanship, they pick which pig they will work with so the pigs respond better to that person. "If you train them good enough they'll listen to anyone," Matt said. "When you go to the fair, you can tell who's worked with them and who hasn't. If the pig walks slow by your side you know they've worked with their pig."

But the kids say even though showing pigs is a lot of work, it's worth the reward, especially when it comes to being named Grand Champion. "They (Todd and his brother Doug) try to take turns giving us kids what they think is the best pig in hopes that each of us can win Grand Champion (the best pig at the fair)," Matt said. "Sometimes we don't know until a week before or a few days before who is taking the best pig because it changes." Last year, they gave the best pig to Matt in hopes that he would win Grand Champion. "But it doesn't always turn out the way our fathers want it to," Matt said. Instead, the judges picked Lauren's pig. "Matt was pretty happy for me, but I wanted him to get it," Lauren said. "Hopefully one day, Matt can know what it feels like to get Grand Champion. We don't always know what the judges will think is the best pig." Lauren said they picked a pig they felt was second-best for her and because of that she had to work extra hard with her pig during fair time. "We were in the barn every day, twice a day, because pig wasn't gaining a lot of weight," she said. "We took extra care, and it was a big deal when I won. I cried. It feels so good when you work so hard at something and are rewarded for it. I was in shock."

But that wasn't Lauren's first time winning Grand Champion. She won it in 2005 as well. She also was awarded Grand Champion at the Michigan Livestock Expo on July 17 at MSU and Grand Champion at the Spartan Classic in 2009. Lauren also won at a jackpot a couple weeks ago in showmanship in Ludington. Morgan won Grand Champion in 2009 at the County Calhoun Fair and beginner showmanship class last year. "It means a lot," she said. "It's a big deal when you work so hard." Two years ago, Matt won two of his divisions at the Michigan Livestock Expo and three years ago he got reserve at the fair. "There's a lot of people just like us that work just as hard," Lauren said. "We've been really blessed in what we do and blessed in our family and the friends that we have." After the fair, all pigs have to go to market. The kids said at first, they did grow attachments to their pigs. "For the first couple years we did it, we got really attached to the pigs, but after awhile you learn that that is the way it is and it gets easier," Matt said. Each year, they name their pigs for fair. "We have named pigs every single year, and this is the first year that we haven't named them yet," Lauren said. "Pig people name their pigs. I usually like to wait to name the pigs so I can see their personalities." Lauren said they usually have named the pigs by now, but she said they will be sure to name them before fair.

Notes for Kip Paul Taylor:

Major Kip Taylor was excited about the coming months for two reasons very dear to him: the birth of his second child in late October and a promotion in November. Now, his wife, Nancy, and family are gathered in his McLean, Virginia, home waiting to receive word that Taylor's remains have been recovered. Taylor, among those missing at the Pentagon, had been stationed there for about three years, said his brother, U.S. Army Lt. Col. Dean Taylor. "He was the poster boy for the U.S. Army," Taylor said. The son of a career Army officer, Kip Taylor enlisted after graduating in 1985 from Northern Michigan University. At the time of the attack, Taylor, 38, worked in the adjutant general's corps and was a key aide to Lt. Gen. Timothy Maude, who is also missing. Taylor was soon to become Lt. Col. Taylor, his brother said, but delayed the ceremony until late November so relatives could attend. They also would see his new baby. "It was going to be a meaningful thing," his brother said.

Lieutenant Colonel Kip Paul Taylor's 16-year ascent through the Army ranks began when he received his commission from the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Northern Michigan University, a unit run by his father, Don. A few months after graduation, Taylor was shipped to a base in Nuremberg, Germany, where he served for 3 1/2 years. The Michigan native returned stateside at the end of 1989 for a 15-month stint as an instructor at Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indiana. He was again sent on a foreign tour in 1991, this time as an adjutant for a task force in Honduras. After that five-month assignment, he rose to commander of a troop brigade back in Indiana, where he remained until the summer of 1994.

Taylor moved from base to base for four years before arriving at the Pentagon as executive officer in the Army's Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel in July 1998. The 38-year-old career serviceman -- who enjoyed running, basketball and golf in his free time -- was serving as a military assistant in that office when he was killed September 11, 2001. "His office was on the outside ring and took a direct hit," Taylor's sister, Ann Zaenglein, was quoted as saying in USA Today. "There was nothing left of his office." A Major at the time of his death, Taylor was posthumously promoted to Lieutenant Colonel. He is survived by his wife and son.

The joys and trials of new fatherhood were on Kip Taylor's mind. At 8:26 a.m. on September 11, 2001, he e-mailed friends from his office in the Pentagon about how his life had changed since the birth of his son, Dean, almost two years earlier. He was happily anticipating the birth of his second son in a month. "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say, 'Hi honey, I'm home' wrote the U.S. Army Major. "My conclusion is that what we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day."

At about 9:40 a.m., Taylor, 38, was killed when American Flight 77 hit the Pentagon. "We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life," said his wife, Nancy. "I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." The Taylors were happy because they had achieved something that earlier seemed impossible. After their attempts to conceive had failed, the couple turned to medical science to help them have children. Dean was the result of in vitro fertilization, as was Luke, born October 25.

The babies are a great source of comfort. "I can't imagine if I had gone through the IVF two times and it had not been successful, and then lost my husband," Nancy Taylor said. So, when her husband's friends and admirers started asking where they could donate money in his memory, the answer seemed obvious. Nancy Taylor started a charity for infertile military couples and called it the Kip P. Taylor Fund. She explained that there are only two military facilities worldwide where in vitro fertilizations are performed, one in Washington, D.C., and one in Texas, making it difficult for military couples stationed abroad or elsewhere in this country to receive the subsidized treatment.

The fund will help couples offset the cost of traveling to the clinics and paying for lodging and food. Its Web site, www.kiptaylorfund.com, estimates that couples pay up to $5,100 out of pocket for treatments. Donations from family, friends and neighbors have brought the fund to $40,000 to date. "It's a lot," Nancy Taylor said. "But it's not enough to sustain this."

Having children is a challenge for military couples, she said, with being stationed in various places, long absences and combat service. But children play just as important a role in military families as they do in any other community, she said. "The military community does really rally around its children." To Taylor, balancing his work with a home life was essential. Though the 6-foot-5 Major cut an imposing figure in uniform, he was just as happy in jeans, cooking on his outdoor grill, building a deck on the couple's McLean, Virginia, home or tending to the lawn. But most of all, his wife said, he loved fatherhood and couldn't wait to someday coach his sons' Little League teams and attend their music recitals. Without him, his wife said, she tries to enjoy the "blessing" of her sons. But it's hard. She has not yet felt ready to return to her job as the editor of a medical newsletter. "At first I was getting by hour to hour," she said. "Then it was day to day. Now it's week to week. I hope some day it will be month to month. But it will be a while."

Six weeks after losing her husband Sept. 11, their second son was born

As Nancy Taylor endured the physical pain of childbirth October 25, 2001, at Bethesda Naval Medical Center, Maryland, she also struggled with powerful emotions and memories. Just six weeks earlier, her husband, Army Lieutenant Colonel Kip Taylor, was killed in the September 11 attack on the Pentagon. "It was hard," Taylor said. "I had been there at Bethesda less than two years before, when I had Dean. I kept recalling what it was like when Kip was there." Kip's sister and sister-in-law were with her during the delivery, which was a comfort. But still, "It didn't seem right that Kip wasn't there," she said. "It was horrible."

The approaching anniversary of the attacks has been an emotional time. She often thinks about what she, Kip and Dean were doing a year ago, including a trip to the beach a few weeks before September 11. When she looks at Dean, who turns 3 on December 28, 2003, she sees his resemblance to Kip. Baby Luke, who just started crawling, looks more like her. "The kids are my saving grace," she said. "They keep me busy. It's not that I don't think of Kip every day, because I do."

Kip Taylor was the military assistant to the Army deputy chief of staff for personnel, Lieutenant General Timothy Maude, who also was killed in the attack. Taylor decided the best way to honor her husband's memory was to help military families like hers who need fertility treatments to conceive. Both her boys were conceived through in vitro fertilization at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington.

She has established a fund to help military couples with travel and lodging expenses while they receive fertility treatments at Walter Reed or at Wilford Hall Medical Center in Texas. The Web address is <http://www.kiptaylorfund.com>. The fund has paid the expenses for five couples so far, she said. At least one of the five has been successful in getting pregnant. The Kip Taylor Memorial Fund covers some expenses for ROTC students at Northern Michigan University in Marquette, which Kip attended on ROTC and basketball scholarships.

Taylor collects letters, pictures and other memorabilia from generals, drill sergeants and others who worked with Kip and from schoolchildren who wrote to her after September 11. She has been overwhelmed by the generosity of those who wrote and sent gifts, many of them strangers. She has tried to respond to everyone. She points to a picture of President Bush embracing her September 17, 2001, at the Pentagon as he toured the rubble. It was a chance encounter - she was there only to pick up Kip's car from the parking lot. As her escort officer walked her through the building, Bush, who was there for a memorial service that had just concluded, appeared in the hallway with his large security entourage.

"We were told to move to the side of the hallway," Taylor said. "Everyone lined up started applauding, and he stopped and began shaking hands." Taylor approached, holding a picture of her husband that she was carrying, and told Bush that Kip had been at the Pentagon on September 11 and was still missing. Bush talked to Taylor for "a good two minutes," then embraced her and urged her to take good care of herself and her baby. Now, almost a year later, she finds that the biggest changes in her life are "the littlest things."

"Kip's absence is constantly evident," she said. "It's so different, not having him here to call and talk to during the day. Not seeing him in the house, not hearing his voice is just a huge void. It's an unspeakable loss." It has changed her perception of time. "I think time passes quickly when you have something to look forward to. Not that I don't have something to look forward to, but I guess my life is just not normal," she said. "Having no contact with Kip for a year, I feel like I haven't talked to him in years." Looking ahead, she focuses on her boys and their view of their father. She talks to her children about him often, showing them his picture. "I hope they think about their dad in a happy, positive way, and not let the sadness overcome his memory," she said. "I'm trying to overcome that myself. At night, we pray for daddy, mommy and the whole family."

In the first year of Dean's life, she put together a time capsule for him that includes audiotapes with messages from Kip and other family members. She hasn't listened to Kip's tape. When he was recording it, he asked, "You're not going to listen to this, are you?" she said. She knows he would want his children to be aware of how much he loved them: "He wanted them to be happy and have a good life." Now she's gathering items for a time capsule for Luke. But that effort is moving slowly. "I find it hard to ask people," she said. "There has been so much sadness in the family." That sadness lingers. These days, Taylor can think of Kip and find herself smiling. "But more times, I'm crying."

Notes for Nancy Ann Melvin:

Washington - When Nancy Melvin Taylor died of cancer last week (18 November 2003) at the age of 39, it was the final act of a family tragedy that began on the morning of September 11, 2001. When they bury her at Arlington National Cemetery, she will rest in the same grave with her husband, Army Lieutenant Colonel Kip P. Taylor, 38, who was killed in the terrorist attack on the Pentagon. Husband and wife will share a simple white marble marker in Section 64.

Two years ago, Kip and Nancy Taylor were living a dream. They'd struggled for years to have a child, and finally through in-vitro fertilization Nancy had given birth to a son, Dean Ross Taylor. She was eight months' pregnant, and their second child was due in October.

At 8:26 a.m. on September 11, in his office in the Pentagon, Kip sent this e-mail to friends about the joy of fatherhood: "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say: Hi honey, I'm home! ... What we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day." At 9:40, terrorists steered American Airlines Flight 77 into the offices of the Chief of Personnel of the Army, killing many of those who worked there, including Kip Taylor. Nancy said: "We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life. I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." Six weeks later, on October 25, 2001, Nancy gave birth to their second son, John Luke Taylor. While she was in the hospital, bringing a new life to this world, the doctors discovered that Nancy had cancer. Terminal cancer.

Nancy packed as much living as she could into the precious months that were left to her. She established a charity for infertile military couples, helping to pay their way to the only two military facilities where in-vitro fertilizations can be performed. The Kip P. Taylor Memorial Fund helps offset travel, lodging and food for military couples traveling to the hospitals. (Donations to: Kip P. Taylor Fund, P.O. Box 185, McLean, Virginia 22101.)

She loved and cherished her babies full-time, even as she wrestled with her grief over the loss of Kip Taylor, a 6-foot-5 Michigan native who came into the Army with an ROTC commission at Northern Michigan University in a program run by his father, Don. Nancy said her husband had loved fatherhood and couldn't wait for the day he could coach his sons' Little League baseball teams and attend their band concerts. On October 10 of this year, Nancy was inducted into the University of Rochester's Athletics Hall of Fame. She'd been a regional All-American in field hockey while attending the Nursing School at the university. She was, her coach said, "by far the best offensive player in school history."

What will happen to two little boys, orphaned at ages 4 and 2? Kip's brother Dean and his wife will care for them - and the Special Operations Warrior Foundation will ensure that Dean Ross Taylor and John Luke Taylor will have free college educations, everything included, in token of the fact that their father served a tour as adjutant of the Army's top-secret Delta Force.

If you're looking for a worthy charity this holiday season, you might consider the Warrior Foundation (www.specialops.org), which was created in 1980 as the Colonel Bull Simons Scholarship Fund (named for Colonel Arthur D. Simons, a legendary special-ops officer who died in 1979) to provide college educations for 17 children of nine American soldiers who were killed or disabled in the Desert One mission to rescue American hostages in Iran. That fund and others supporting Special Ops troops and families merged and became the Warrior Foundation in 1995. Its purpose is "to provide a college education to every child who has lost a parent while serving in the Special Operations Command during an operational or training mission." The Warrior Foundation provides grants, not loans. It covers tuition, books, and room and board. To date, 48 children of Special Ops soldiers have graduated with this help. More than 400 children of 380 Special Ops personnel who have died in service to our country are guaranteed the assistance. That will cost $25 million through 2010. The Warrior Foundation has $3.8 million in the bank.

Nancy Ann Melvin Taylor died on November 18, 2003 at the National Naval Medical Center. She was born in Syracuse, New York on June 25, 1964. She was a graduate of Fayetteville-Manlius High School, University of Rochester Nursing School with B.S. and received an MBA from Syracuse University. Nancy worked as a nurse in Richmond, VA and then in Syracuse, NY while she worked on her MBA. She then moved to Washington where she continued working in the health field. She was inducted into the University of Rochester's Athletics Hall of Fame on October 10, 2003. Her field hockey coach referred to her as "by far the best offensive player in the school's history". She was selected for the first team, All-Mid East Regional All-American. Nancy also enjoyed skiing and more recently golfing. She was predeceased by her husband Lt. Col. Kip P. Taylor, who was killed at the Pentagon on September 11, 2001.

She is survived by her two sons, Dean Ross, 4 and John Luke 2; her parents, Merle and Ann Melvin of Manlius, New York; two brothers, Ross D. of Syracuse and John W. of Cazenovia; an aunt and uncle, May and William Legg of LaFayette, New York; and several cousins.

Calling hours are 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday, November 23, at the Arlington Funeral Home, 3901 N. Fairfax Dr., Arlington, Virginia. There will be a memorial service at the Dewitt Community Church in Dewitt, New York on December 5 at 11 a.m. Interment and private graveside services at Arlington Cemetery will take place at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Kip P. Taylor Memorial Fund, PO Box 185, McLean, Virginia 22101; or the University of Rochester, New York 14627; or the charity of your choice.

After being diagnosed with terminal breast cancer in 2002, Nancy Melvin-Taylor compiled a "to-do" list:

- Potty train her son, Dean.
- See her infant son walk and talk.
- Get her will in order.
- And return to the University of Rochester, the place of so much glory, for her induction into the Athletic Hall of Fame.

"It wasn't easy for her," says her former coach, Jane Possee. "She wasn't well enough to come in 2002 (when she was first selected), but she came back the next year. She made it." Weeks later, she was gone, a 9/11 widow leaving behind two young sons and a story so tragic it resonates more than a decade later. On Saturday, 12 of her teammates will return to UR for homecoming on Meliora Weekend. They will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the field hockey team's first state and ECAC championships — a team powered by Melvin-Taylor. And they will celebrate having known Nancy.

"Nancy was a phenomenal athlete," says former teammate Christine Mitchell, her close friend since middle school. "But you'd never know it to be around her. She was just this happy-go-lucky person." Possee recruited her along with two teammates from Syracuse's Fayetteville-Manlius High — Mitchell (the former Chris Joor) and Dorie Gostin Massie. But make no mistake. "Nancy was the star," Possee says. "She was the best offensive player I'd ever seen."

The Syracuse native was UR's field hockey All-American and graduated in 1986 as the program's record-holder for game-winning goals in one season (7) and career (19), career goals (50) and career points (114). The four-year starting forward was named to three all-state Division III teams and helped UR repeat as state champs in 1985. Not bad for someone who didn't play the game seriously until high school. "I credit her mom with that," says Nancy's dad, Merle, now 86. "When Nancy was in high school, everyone was playing soccer. Ann thought field hockey would be good for Nancy. And she excelled." She was a star in the classroom, too. She graduated from UR with high honors with a bachelor's degree in nursing and went on to earn an MBA from Syracuse University.

Life in D.C.

Melvin-Taylor met her husband, Kip Taylor, when she was working in medical marketing research in Washington, D.C. They married in 1996, and two years later Kip — the son of a career Army officer — began working at the Pentagon as an executive officer in the Army's Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel. The two struggled to conceive but finally welcomed their first child, Dean, on Dec. 28, 1999, through in vitro fertilization. Two years later, Nancy became pregnant again via IVF. It was, the Taylors said, a miracle. They lived in McLean, Virginia, and loved grilling on their deck and working in their yard. The 6-foot-5 Kip enjoyed running, and playing basketball and golf. He said he dreamed of one day coaching his son's Little League team or attending dance recitals.

Their second child was due in October 2001, and Kip had another reason to be excited: That November, he would be promoted from major to lieutenant colonel. He had asked the Army to delay the promotion so that his family, who would be in town to see the baby, could be there. It was a big deal. The Taylors were on top of the world, but that world was about to be turned upside down. At 8:26 a.m. on Sept. 11, 2001, Kip e-mailed friends from his office in the Pentagon and poignantly discussed how his life had changed since becoming a dad. "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say, 'Hi honey, I'm home,' " he wrote. "My conclusion is that what we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day."

Seventy-four minutes later, the 38-year-old Taylor was killed when American Airlines Flight 77 struck the Pentagon during the terrorist attacks on America. His office took a direct hit. Also killed was Kip's boss, Lt. Gen. Timothy Maude, with whom Kip was meeting. Maude was the highest-ranking U.S. military officer killed in the Sept. 11 attacks and the most senior U.S. officer killed by hostile action since Lt. Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner in 1945. "We knew early on that Kip was missing," says Mitchell, a marketing consultant in Boston at the time. "But Nancy thought he might be in a hospital. So many people had been severely injured and hospitalized. But someone from the military came to her house two days later and said he had been in a meeting with Kip just before the plane hit. He said there was no way Kip could have survived based on where he was."

Nancy scheduled a memorial service for her husband at Arlington National Cemetery, less than two weeks before her due date. The Army posthumously promoted Kip to lieutenant colonel. "For a long time, she didn't accept that he was gone," Mitchell says. "They didn't find his body until two days before the service. And that service was something. The place was packed to the gills with all sorts of military personnel, and you could see the Pentagon from the (burial) site. It was still charred." Nancy recounted her feelings in an interview with ArlingtonCemetery.net after the memorial service.

"We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life," she said. "I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." On Oct. 25, 2001, Nancy gave birth to another son, Luke. "The babies are a great source of comfort," she said afterward. "I can't imagine if I had gone through the IVF two times and it had not been successful, and then lost my husband."

A 37-year-old widow with two children, Nancy courageously trudged on and started a charity in her husband's name for infertile military couples. The Kip P. Taylor Fund assisted with travel and lodging expenses for couples who received fertility treatments. Nancy found it impossible to think about returning to her job as editor of a medical newsletter. There were no other family members in Washington. A part-time nanny helped, and friends like Mitchell did their part when they visited. It was a lonely, painful time. "At first, I was getting by hour to hour," she told ArlingtonCemetery.net. "Now it's week to week. I hope someday it will be month to month. But it will be a while."

But time was not on Nancy's side. While nursing 3-month-old Luke in February 2002, she felt pain in her breasts. Doctors assumed it was mastitis, an infection of the breast tissue, and put her on antibiotics. When that didn't work, they did further tests and discovered Nancy had Stage 4 inflammatory breast cancer. She was given two months to live. She initially refused chemotherapy, wanting to maximize her time left with her children. But after being diagnosed with HER2-positive breast cancer, she began taking herceptin, which blocks cancer cells from growing.

"It basically buys time," Mitchell says. Melvin-Taylor packed as much life as she could into her remaining time. She worked on the fund named after her husband. She dealt with the endless paperwork that comes from being a 9/11 widow, even the chore of selling Kip's car. And she ran a gamut of emotions. "I'd go down and we'd have gloom and doom weekends," Mitchell says. "She was very angry. But there were other weekends when she was upbeat, and we'd go apple picking with the kids."

Memory lives on

Nancy died on Nov. 18, 2003, leaving behind her 4- and 2-year-old boys. She was 39. She is buried next to her husband in Arlington National Cemetery, beneath simple white markers. Dean and Luke, who soon will turn 15 and 13, have been raised in Colorado the past 11 years by Kip's brother and sister-in-law, Dean and Donna Taylor. Dean was a lieutenant colonel in the Army, and he retired to raise his brother's children. Dean and Donna did not have any children of their own. The Special Operations Warrior Foundation ensured that Dean Ross Taylor and John Luke Taylor will have free college educations. "You get through it," Merle Melvin, Nancy's father, says of the tragedy. "You take things as they come." Merle and Ann are divorced. They have four grandsons in all — Nancy's twin, John, lives in Cazenovia and has two boys. But they don't often see Dean and Luke. "It has been a while," Merle says. "I know Luke plays baseball. That much I know."

Nancy held the UR points record for 28 years until junior Michelle Relin broke it last month. UR coach Wendy Andreatta told Relin about Melvin-Taylor's life and death the day before the record fell. "It's humbling," Relin says. "I had no idea she had such a compelling story, and such a moving story. I wish I could have met her this weekend."

Melvin-Taylor remains first in career game-winning goals and third in goals scored. But again, those are just numbers. Her legacy is more about the person she was, the wife and mom she became. "She was an incredibly strong woman," says Possee, now an associate director for athletics at UR who oversees recreation programs. "She wasn't just a great athlete, she was a great person. The story is so very sad."
