Notes for Jakob Fliemann, Sr.:

Jacob Flieman arrived in the United States about 1849 with another family and as a young man came to Holland where he married, raised his family and started a successful Wagon and Blacksmith Shop.

The Holland Sentinel - Friday, February 25, 1921

JACOB FLIEMAN dies Friday afternoon at Holland Hospital. Was widely known for his hunting lore; was 83 year old. After an illness of about two weeks, Jacob Flieman, one of the best known men though out Western Michigan as a hunter and trapper, died Friday afternoon at one o'clock at Holland Hospital. He was 83 years old.

Mr. Flieman was one of the best known men in this community. For many years he was looked upon as an authority in hunting and trapping lore. He spent most of his life in Holland and engaged in a wide variety of work, among other things having been a wagon maker and a blacksmith. But he was best known as a hunter. For many years he went to the north woods each autumn to shoot deer and it was his pride that he never came home without a deer. And when he did come home with a deer it was certain that he had shot it himself and not bought it. He made this trip regularly each year until he was about eighty. Recently in a public pulse article contributed to a Grand Rapids paper he said he expected to go to the north woods again next fall.

During recent years he did a considerable business in muskrat flesh as a delicacy. He taught many reluctant persons in Holland to relish this delicacy as much as they do chicken. Flieman himself learned from the Indians to use muskrat as a food.

He married (1) Dorothea Meng 01 Jan 1867 in St. Joseph, Buchanan Co, Missouri. She was born 05 Mar 1845 in Rotenbach, Wurtemberg, and died 19 Dec 1883 in St. Joseph, Buchanan Co, Missouri. Notes for John William (Wilhelm Fliehmman) Fleeman:

St. Joseph, Missouri, Oct. 1, 1898 - William Fleeman, a gardener aged 55 years, whose home is near King Hill, just south of the city, has not been seen nor heard of by his friends and relatives since Thursday morning. Just now his wife and other relatives are very much worried concerning the continued absence of the old gentleman. The circumstances of the case are such that it is a great mystery where the old gentleman is and what caused his disappearance. For many years Fleeman has been bringing his produce to the market at the city hall. Thursday morning, as usual, he loaded his wagon with vegetables and fruits and came to the city. He drove to the market and remained there for the greater part of the morning and sold nearly all of his goods. Since he drove away from the market nothing definite has been heard from of the gardener and his relatives and the police are at a loss to account for the mysterious disappearance. Not only has the gardener completely vanished but his team and wagon have likewise disappeared. Man, horses and wagon are as completely lost as though they had been swallowed up by the earth. For over forty-eight hours nothing has been seen or heard of either the old gentleman or his outfit. That they could be in the city all of that time without being seen by some one is hardly possible.

This state of affairs has naturally caused the relatives a great deal of anxiety and they are using every means to find some trace of him. Yesterday afternoon, Herman Sidenfaden, who is a son-in-law of the gardener, called at the Central police station and told the story of the disappearance to Sergeant Frans. Immediately every police officer in the city was notified and if the gardener is in the city he will be found in a very short time. No reason for his absence can be imagined by the relatives of Mr. Fleeman. There is nothing known that would cause him to leave home voluntarily. The domestic relations of the family have always been of the happiest. Mr. Fleeman is also well off in this world's goods. He is said to be worth fully $20,000.

It may be that the gardener was suffering a temporary fit of insanity and while out of his mind drove into the country. Such a circumstance, it is believed, would have been noticed by someone and reported to the authorities ere this. But the insanity theory is probably the only one that can be given to explain the case. It could hardly be possible for anyone to steal the gardener and his team even if there was an object to be gained by so doing. At the time he was last seen Mr. Fleeman had with him no great sum of money. Of course, he had in his pocket the receipts for his load of produce. At the most the gardener could have had on his person not more than $50. Foul play can hardly be considered when such a small amount of money was at stake. This leaves nothing but the insanity theory to base the disappearance upon.

The value of real estate transferred in St. Joseph Thursday, as shown by the deeds filed in the office of Recorder Karnes, aggregated $60,930. A number of deeds were filed in which the stated consideration was $1 and had the actual value of the property been given in such instances it is thought that the amount of the transfers would have been shown to be much larger. The deed which is said to indicate the heaviest improvements was from William Widman and wife to John Fleeman. The consideration is $10,000. The property is described as being a part of the one-acre tract known as "Wilhelm's Platz." in Widman's addition. The lots are on the east side of King Hill Avenue, South St. Joseph, and run north and south from Missouri Avenue. They contain about a half-acre, and it is reported that store buildings are to be erected upon them.

John W. Fleeman, member of the lower house of the council, the purchaser of the property, is in St. Louis, and no definite information could be obtained as to his intentions toward improving the property. The rumor has been current in South St. Joseph, however, that a long row of brick store buildings are to be erected in the vicinity by Fleeman, and the conveyance of the property is reported to be a verification of the rumor.

Before the days of the greater St. Joseph, which is to say, before the large packing houses were located in South St. Joseph, there was but one large brick house in the now thriving suburb. This house is located on the property purchased by Fleeman. It is just opposite Missouri avenue, and was built before South St. Joseph was laid out as a town. Real estate men say the assurance that the Rock Island is to build a bridge across the Missouri river has been the means of greatly stimulating the movement of real estate. It is said that there is every indication of great activity in real estate within the next few weeks. Many important deeds have already been made, but as improvements will not commence until winter breaks up the purchasers have not seen fit to file deeds.

A full list of the transfers made Thursday is as follows: List of Transfers. "William Widman and wife to John W. Fleeman. a part of the one-acre tract known as "Wilhelm's Platz," in Widman's addition. South St. Joseph $10,000.

From the "History of Buchanan County and the City of St. Joseph and Representative Citizens":

John W. Fleeman, a well-known and highly esteemed citizen of St. Joseph, who entered into business here in 1865, was born in Washtenaw County, Michigan, May 1, 1842, and is a son of Leonard and Engelika (Rheinfrank) Fleeman. The parents of Mr. Fleeman were natives of Bavaria, Germany. Leonard Fleeman came to the United States in boyhood and lived in Easton, Pennsylvania, until 1834, when he moved to Washtenaw County, Michigan. There he secured a large tract of wild land and resided there. He married Engelika Rheinfrank, and they had a family of 10 children. Our subject and three of his sisters have established homes in the West. Elizabeth married John Haeflinger, and resides in St. Joseph; Louisa married Charles Hohlfeld, and resides in Montana; Kate married E. Miller and lives five miles north of Atchison, Kansas.

John W. Fleeman was educated in the schools of Washtenaw County, and started into business life as a clerk in a store at Saline, Michigan, where he was employed for three years. By this time he had decided upon the trade which seemed to offer the best future, and he entered upon a three-years apprenticeship to a carriage-maker and worked at Ann Arbor, Michigan, and at Columbus and Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1864, Mr. Fleeman came to St. Joseph, Missouri, and was employed for a short time in work at his trade by M. Moore, of this city, subsequently becoming a member of the carriage-making firm of Fraser & Company, on the corner of Third and Charles Streets. Mr. Fleeman remained with this firm for two years and later was in the employ of W. E. Williams for a short season.

About this time, Mr. Fleeman began to invest in South St. Joseph property and after acquiring about 7 acres at King Hill began market gardening. He raised vegetables and fruits and later made a specialty of the growing of celery. While he prospered in this industry, he continued to invest in land on the south side and now owns a number of very desirable houses and unimproved lots in this portion of the city. For years it has been his habit to spend a portion of his time in Colorado, where he has also acquired large property interests, owning 334 lots and a substantial business block in Colorado City, Colorado.

In January, 1867, Mr. Fleeman was married to Dorothea MING, who was born in the Black Forest, Germany, and who died in 1883, leaving four children: Charles C., who married Emma Haeberle, and is a gardener at Red Bluff, California; Olivia, who married Ferdinand Haeberle, a farmer and market gardener of Washington township; Lillie C., who married H. O. Sidenfaden, who conducts an undertaking business in St. Joseph, at the corner of Fourth and Messanie streets; and Flora, who married Gustaf Haeberle. The family reside at No. 5606 South Third street, St. Joseph. Mr. Fleeman's second marriage was to Frederika Haeberle, who was born in Stuttgart, Germany, and died in 1897, leaving one son, William, who is employed as an undertaker at Chicago Heights, Illinois.

Politically a Democrat, Mr. Fleeman has taken some interest in politics but not to the extent of accepting political preferment, except when he was an independent candidate for the City Council, receiving 35 more votes than both the other candidates that opposed him. He has been honored by the citizens of South St. Joseph by the naming of one of their leading thoroughfares for him. Fraternally, he is a member of Red Cloud Tribe, No. 31, Improved Order of Red Men, of which he has been the treasurer since its organization, and a member of the Fraternal Home Association, Banner Lodge, No. 31, South St. Joseph. A portrait of Mr. Fleeman accompanies this sketch.

John W. Fleeman, aged 83 years, who had been a resident of St. Joseph, Missouri for sixty-one years, died at 4:10 o'clock Monday afternoon Oct. 12, 1925 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gustave Haeberle, 6020 Pryor Avenue, after an illness of ten days. Mr. Fleeman was born May 1, 1842, in Washtenaw County, Michigan, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fleeman. His parents were natives of Bavaria, Germany, and came to the United States in 1834. He started as a clerk in a store at Salina, Michigan. Later he entered an apprenticeship to a carriage maker at Ann Arbor, Michigan, and followed that trade at Columbus and Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1864 he came to St. Joseph and became a member of the firm of Fraser & Co., carriage makers, at Third and Charles Streets. Later he invested in South St. Joseph property and after acquiring considerable land on King Hill began truck gardening.

Mr. Fleeman was married in 1867 to Miss Dorothy Ming, a native of Germany, who died in 1883. Of this union he is survived by three daughters and a son, Mrs. H. O. Sidenfaden, Mrs. Ferdinand Haeberle, Mrs. Gustave Haeberle and Charles C. Fleeman, all of St. Joseph.

His second marriage was to Miss Frederika Haeberle, who died in 1897, leaving a son, William J. Fleeman, who is engaged in the undertaking business here.

The funeral services were conducted at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Zion Evangelical church, Ninth and Jule Streets. Rev. C. Maier officiated and burial was in Ashland cemetery. The pallbearers were Adolph Tischner, Thomas Hendra, Rudolph Kramer, Thomas B. Bell, Fred Wenz and John Dobler.

Notes for Emmanuel Friedrich (Emanuel Frederick) Layher:

Emanuel Frederick Layher, N. Ann Arbor Street, died Friday morning January 24, 1930, after a short illness. He was the eldest child of a family of thirteen children, born in southern Russia, in the province of Bessarabia in the village of Gnadental on the last day of the year 1854. His parents lived on a farm in the lowlands of Russia not many miles distant from the city of Odessa on the Black Sea. An edict by the ruling czar, that the children of immigrants, upon attaining the age of 18, must serve in the Russian Army, caused the family to sell their property and emigrate to America. The family arrived in Michigan in 1871 and made their home in Freedom Township just northwest of Pleasant Lake, where young Frederick grew to manhood. He spent all of his life in Freedom, Bridgewater and Saline townships. He was married to Julia Fliehmman in 1878. They made their home in the village of Bridgewater, where Mr. Layher was a respected business man for many years. He entered the employ of the old Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad in 1896 and later served faithfully as section foreman for the New York Central Lines until retired at the age of 70. While serving his company in 1904 he was transferred to Saline and took up his residence on North Ann Arbor Street where he lived for 26 years.

He leaves to mourn his passing his bereaved widow and 12 children, Leonard of Battle Creek, William of Palmyra; Fred and Adolph of Saline; Rudolph of Dearborn; Arthur of Ann Arbor; Harold of Bay City; Mrs. L. J. LaCroix and Mrs. Norman C. Wolfe of Detroit; Mrs. Herman Wenger of Ann Arbor; Mrs. N. E. Wagg of Niles; Mrs. George Schmid, Jr. and Mrs. William Schmid of Saline, besides 24 grandchildren, three brothers and four sisters.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the residence and 3 at Trinity Lutheran Church, Rev. Adolf Lederer officiating. Interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

He married Lucina (Luzina) Brooks 02 Apr 1885 in Holland, Ottawa Co, Michigan, daughter of Charles Brooks and Eliza Brown. She was born 15 May 1866 in Oliver Center, Ottawa Co, Michigan, and died 13 Jan 1948 in Tillamook, Tillamook Co, Oregon.

Notes for George Henry Flieman:

George Henry Flieman - Tried Farming in Michigan, but by 1910 moved to Washington to work as a laborer in a lumber camp. In 1913 move to Tillamook, where he worked as a sorter in a lumber camp in Wheeler, Oregon. This is where he spent the rest of his life until his death in 1927. His death certificate states that he is buried in the Odd Fellow Cemetery in Tillamook, Oregon.

There is some confusion about where George and his wife are buried. Sunset Heights manages this cemetery and Sunset Heights memorial Gardens. All I know is he is buried in plots owned by another person who was an Odd Fellow and had purchased them for use by people who could not afford the expense of burial-Thus my Great Uncle and his wife. So God Bless him for this effort.

Jacob Flieman Jr., has built a boat house at the foot of Sixth Street and will run a boat livery. He has a good stock of boats and will let them at reasonable rates.

First Married to Marie.

Second he married Anne T. Pattingell on November 21, 1887 in Grand Haven, Ottawa, Michigan. One child was born from this union: Lloyd Luther Flieman born December 7, 1889 in Holland, Ottawa, Michigan. Lloyd died in 1963 in Wisconsin. He was married with two sons-Lloyd & Curtis. Jacob & Ann divorced in 1900, with Ann moving to Wisconsin with her son Lloyd. She must of had a lingering love for Jacob, as many times in census etc she states she is widow, no mention of divorce.

Jacob died of concussion of brain as result of fall down stairs at the Bristol Hotel. There is more to this family story, but it is just that, no proof. Also stated that he was divorced. He was 39 years, 10 months, 24 days at the time of his death and a blacksmith.

Notes for Johann Georg (John George) Schmid, Jr.:

August 29, 1940 - The barrier over the street in front of Schmid's Food Store was removed Friday and the new front was ready for the public to see. It is an attractive cream brick, laid in special design, with the entrance at the extreme north end instead of the middle as the old store front was. This leaves the window open in the large pane making it much nicer for display purposes.

The store was built approximately 50 years ago by George Lindenschmidt, who opened a meat market there with a Mr. Schwalm as his partner. Mrs. Schwalm was a Boettger. Later Mr. Lindenschmidt bought out Schwalm and continued the market as sole proprietor. When John George Schmid and his family came from Germany and located in Saline he at first did slaughtering and took the meat to Ann Arbor. He built up a fine trade and after a time bought out the Lindenschmidt market and it has, except for a few years when Layher & Wenger operated it, remained in the Schmid family. Having learned the trade in the old country. Mr. Schmid cured and seasoned meat according to the formulas for which that country was famous. His sons learned the trade from him and now the grandsons are benefiting by the same knowledge. Schmid's market makes a specialty of home cured meats and finer foods and numbers among its customers those who for three generations have purchased meat over their counter.

As he was crossing the intersection at Michigan Avenue and Ann Arbor Street on his way from the barber shop Christmas Eve, Dec. 24, 1948, George Schmid was struck by an automobile and knocked to the pavement. He suffered a scalp laceration which took several stitches to close and was otherwise bruised about the body, and will be confined to his home for a couple of weeks. His daughter, Miss Lucille Schmid, a nurse at Deaconess Hospital, Detroit, was home during the weekend to care for him. The driver of the car which struck him had applied the brakes and the machine slid nearly 30 feet before hitting him.

John George Schmid Jr., 97, died February 2, 1983 at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Lucille Steffey, after a long illness. He was born March 11, 1885 in Saline, the son of John George and Melanie Brisson Schmid Sr. On February 18, 1908 he married Julia M. Layher in Saline. She preceded him in death June 19, 1936. Mr. Schmid was in the meat business with his father while growing up, eventually establishing Schmid's Food Market in Saline with his sons, Alfred and Erwin. A charter member of St. Paul United Church of Christ in Saline, Mr. Schmid directed the church choir for many years, and also directed and played in the Saline Band.

Survivors include: two daughters, Mrs. Lucille Steffey of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Marie Trumbull of Hamburg; two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Helene Schmid of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Nona Schmid of Saline; eight grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. Besides his wife, he was preceded in death by his sons, Lewis, Erwin, and Alfred; a granddaughter, Penny LaFata; brothers, Joseph, Fred, and Alphonse; and a sister, Mary Schleh.

Services were held Saturday at St. Paul United Church of Christ with Rev. Ronald Boldman officiating. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the Choir Fund of St. Paul Church.

Notes for Lester Fred Meyer:

Lester Meyer was the youngest of 4 children and the only one to finish high school and attend college. He was a bachelor until 31 years old and then he met my mother, who must have swept him off his feet as they married in 1937. Lester's grandfather Jacob Flieman lived with the family later in life and taught him to hunt, fish and trap. He remained an avid fisherman his whole life, mostly fly fishing, while hunting and trapping were stopped early in life.

When WWII came along he was too old to join up, but with all the boys going off to war, the factories were looking for good help, so he went to work for Oldsmobile and remained there until he retired. Having lived through the depression, he would never give up a secure job to do what he loved and that was being a coach, even though Audrey encouraged him to go back to college and finish his degree at Western Michigan.

Notes for Audrey Marie Wemple:

Audrey Marie Wemple Meyer born on Townline Road between Lansing and Delhi Twp on now called Jolly Rd, Lansing, MI north of Delhi Twp. During birth, a young doctor was called in when complications developed. Notes for Verona Grace Fliehmman:

Grace Buchanan, 93, longtime Victor resident and more recently of The Living Centre of Stevensville, passed away peacefully Monday morning, June 1. Grace was born Verona Grace Fliehmman, to parents Leonard and Ida (Reilly) Fliehmman, January 26, 1927 in Gebo, Wyoming and raised in Thermopolis, Wyoming, as the baby of her family. She joined half-sister, Anna, half-brother Robert, and brother Jack spending her childhood between summers on the family farm and the school year in the house in town. Being a farmer's daughter, her family weathered the Great Depression well. With the advent of World War II, her brothers joined the Army, and though a student, Grace joined the Civil Air Patrol to do her part. Grace was an avid learner and excellent student. She skipped a grade to graduate as Valedictorian of her class. Grace graduated from Denver University with a major in math and minor in German, and there being no careers for a Wyoming girl in those areas, she obtained a teaching certificate. Before embarking on her lifetime in education, however, she took a steamship to Europe for the Grand Tour and traveled by steam train. After three years of teaching elementary school in her hometown, she met Nolan "Bud" Buchanan while he was working on the Boysen Dam in the Wind River Canyon, and they were married September 1, 1950 in Cody, Wyoming. Her mother later had an article in the local paper that Grace and Nolan had married in the Catholic Church in Cody to save face, but in reality, Grace followed her heart and the couple eloped. Anyone who knows Grace and her well planned out details would know what a surprise that would have been!

Traveling the Northwest, following major construction projects, they had a son, Daryl, born in Pasco, Washington. One of their homes was in Depoe Bay, Oregon, where they vowed to retire, but never got the chance to do so. In 1955, after Grace's parents "retired" to a farm in Corvallis, her father was stricken with cancer. Grace stayed with her parents to help care for her father and the farm. When her father died, Grace was unable to move, being very pregnant, so Bud found a new company in Western Montana to work for and they stayed on in Corvallis, where they had their daughter, Tamara. Grace resumed her teaching career in the Hamilton School system, teaching elementary and later as reading specialist. During this time, she became a part of the Five Valley Reading Council and served for a time as its president. She was instrumental in the "Readdit" program by developing booklets and video to encourage reading skills at home. She participated nationwide as a presenter in educational conferences, and created games to assist in developing reading and math skills. Grace joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints after moving to Corvallis and served in many positions with unwavering faith and determination. In addition to her many years of church service, she volunteered until the age of 88 with the Cub Scout program. She also served a mission for her church in the Canada, Toronto Mission, as the only older sister in her proselyting mission. Ever a champion of children, family and working with youth were the center of her life. She had a passion for reading, Jeopardy, and the Trivia Quiz, and Old Time Fiddlers that the Centre provided. She loved her surroundings, her caregivers and the many phone calls and visits she received. Grace was preceded in death by her parents, and siblings, including a half-brother, Leonard, who died before she was born, and her husband.

She is survived by her son Daryl (Marge) Buchanan, Tamara (John) Barker; grandchildren, Jessica (Ron) Beckman, Thomas (Patrisha) Buchanan, Timothy (Sara Jo) Buchanan, Brett (Genalea) Barker, and Marcella Barker; several great grandchildren, and one gg grandchild. She is also survived by many extended family members and friends she adopted as family.

The family are grateful in her behalf for the loving care she received at The Living Centre, Partners in Health Hospice, her medical caregivers, and finally, Whitesitt Funeral Home, for their wonderful service in these difficult times. Grace would tell you that if you can, mentor a child, or donate your time and talents to The Living Centre (Or nursing home close to you.) "A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another." John 13:34

Born in Sebewaing, Michigan, Manske grew up in a family of Lutheran school teachers. He considered a career in law but felt called to pursue professional service in the Lutheran church. He attended St. John's College in Winfield, Kansas (A.A. 1952); Concordia College in St. Louis (B.A. 1954); Concordia Seminary, St. Louis (M.Div. 1958); Washington University in St. Louis (M.A. in Sociology-Anthropology); and the University of Southern California, where he earned a Ph.D. in Social Ethics (1979).

After a 10-week summer visit to Southern California in 1953 to work with Lutheran congregations, Manske saw great opportunities for the church because of the region's ethnic diversity. Upon returning to his studies at Concordia Seminary, he wrote a set of life goals. One of them was to “start a new Lutheran college in Southern California.” In 1973, during his 15 years of serving as campus pastor at the University of Southern California, Manske was asked by a group of Lutheran leaders in Southern California to help establish Christ College Irvine. Known for his determination and his track record as a campus minister and spokesperson for the church, in 1976, under Manske’s leadership, Christ College Irvine launched its first academic year with 36 students in a single building that housed dorms, classrooms and administration offices. Manske served as president until 1979, when he transitioned to a faculty position.

Even though he was the founding president of Christ College Irvine — now Concordia University Irvine — Manske was perhaps best known as a gifted teacher and mentor to students. From 1973 to 1998, he taught on the topics of theology, ethics, world religions and Christian apologetics. He also served as director of graduate programs in the School of Arts and Sciences, establishing the Master of Arts Program in Reformation Theology, and the Ethnic Pastors Certification Program, now called the Cross-cultural Ministry Center, a four year, in-residence seminary curriculum in cooperation with Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.

Later in his career Manske developed the television series “Christianity on Trial,” which focused on issues of Christian apologetics, Reformation theology and world religions. The 82-program series ran for six years with Manske serving as producer and host, winning four Angel Awards for excellence in media in international network television. He also produced the TV program “Point of Truth” and served as a member of the LCMS Board for Communication Services. Manske was instrumental in the founding of an LCMS congregation — “the only Lutheran presence and ministry” — in the Cayman Islands, according to Pastor Leif Hasskarl, “and is still fondly remembered here by many of the original parishioners.” Safe Harbour Lutheran Church, formerly Christ Lutheran Church, was started in 2001 “to bring Christ to the residents, expatriate workers and visitors” to Grand Cayman Island, he said.

Concordia University System President Rev. Dr. Dean O. Wenthe said Manske’s “vision for combining rigorous intellectual engagement with an articulate defense of the Christian faith in Lutheran higher education has been a blessing not only to Concordia University Irvine but to the entire church. “His warm, personable and caring manner served to recommend that vision to colleagues and students alike,” Wenthe told Reporter. “As our culture becomes more challenging, the wisdom and foresight of his leadership becomes all the more evident. Throughout his manifold labors and achievements there was a clear witness to Jesus Christ as the Way, the Truth and the Life. We give thanks for God’s grace in sending such a servant who now rests in his Savior’s arms.”

Manske is survived by his wife, Barbara, three children — David (Tammy) Manske of Lake Forest, California; Christine (Kristopher) Schneider of Las Vegas, Nevada; and Noël (Michael) Fairchild of Irvine — and eight grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, gifts may be made to the Rev. Dr. Charles & Barbara Manske Scholarship Endowment by contacting Eron Jacobson.

Charles (Chuck) Manske died on July 4th, 2015 - just as fireworks filled the sky over his home-a Heavenly welcome! He was born in Michigan in October 20, 1932 and attended colleges in Indiana and Kansas. His seminary days were spent in St. Louis and Chicago. He moved to California in 1958 where he served for 15 years as Lutheran Campus Pastor at UCLA and USC. Always an academic-he earned his M.A. from Washington University, St. Louis and in 1978 his PhD in Social Ethics from USC.

His family moved to Irvine in 1973 and he served as founding President of Christ College Irvine (later known as Concordia University, Irvine). He later taught as professor of Social Ethics and World Religions and director of Graduate Programs. His involvement in the beginning years of Christ College Irvine brought his greatest joys and challenges. In all his years of ministry, Chuck demonstrated that the Christian faith, when it is vital and robust could engage the world with the joy of truth and knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Chuck was a loving and supportive husband to Barbara for 49 years and a caring father to David (Tammy) Manske, Christy (Kris) Schneider and Noël (Mike) Fairchild. His 8 grandchildren delighted him. He was preceded in death by parents, Carl and Lorna Manske; his brother, Arthur and sister, Alma Denner; and is survived by their 4 children and 13 nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at Concordia University, Irvine at 11:00 am on July 18, 2015. In lieu of flowers, please make a contribution to the Charles and Barbara Manske Scholarship Endowment for Concordia University, Irvine, California.

The trial court sentenced defendant to concurrent terms of twenty to forty years' imprisonment for the first-degree CSC conviction and eight to fifteen years' imprisonment for each second-degree CSC conviction. Defendant appeals as of right. We affirm.

Defendant first argues that the trial court erred in allowing the prosecutor to cross-examine a defense witness with evidence of a prior criminal charge for which he was acquitted, contrary to People v. Falkner, 389 Mich. 682, 209 N.W.2d 193 (1973). We disagree.

Complainant, who is learning disabled, testified that when she was fifteen years old, her uncle (defendant) fondled her on three separate occasions and digitally penetrated her once. Defense witness Robert Ganger, who was employed by defendant to investigate the allegations, testified that on the two occasions he spoke with complainant, she denied that defendant had either "touched [her] private parts" or "put his finger in [her] private parts." Following direct examination, the prosecutor moved to question Ganger concerning the fact that he had been charged and acquitted of first-degree CSC against his daughter, then a child under the age of thirteen. The prosecutor argued that evidence that Ganger had been through the entire criminal process and ultimately acquitted of a charge similar to that for which defendant was on trial was admissible to show that he may have colored his investigation and testimony in defendant's favor. Over defense counsel's objection, the trial court permitted the prosecutor to cross-examine Ganger regarding the prior charge. The trial court reasoned that the prior charge was not being offered to impeach Ganger's credibility or to show his predisposition to commit CSC crimes. Instead, the trial court ruled that the evidence was being offered for the limited purpose of showing Ganger's potential bias toward defendant. In addressing the issue of bias, the trial court stated:

[The prosecutor] certainly could argue on the one hand that the witness would be biased because he is employed, I would assume, by you [defense counsel] and your client [defendant]. She could also and apparently seeks to do so, argue that as a result of him being accused and acquitted of a crime which he claims he did not do of a very similar nature, that he is therefore biased in the Defendant's favor and presumably would color his testimony to help the Defendant, another person who he may believe would be also wrongly accused of the same crime. The prosecutor subsequently extracted testimony that Ganger had been charged, tried, and acquitted of first-degree CSC against his daughter and that he knew defendant had been charged with first degree CSC when he spoke to complainant and her aunt during his investigation.

Defendant next contends that the trial court abused its discretion in admitting, as excited utterances, statements complainant made to her mother in 1986 concerning a prior sexual assault defendant allegedly committed against complainant. We disagree. The decision whether to admit evidence is within the trial court's discretion and will not be reversed absent an abuse of that discretion. People v. Lukity, 460 Mich. 484, 488, 596 N.W.2d 607 (1999). At trial, complainant's mother, Adeline Layher, testified that when complainant was five years old, she sent her into the house to retrieve a clothes basket. When complainant did not return, Layher went inside the house and found complainant naked and crying behind a door. Over objection, Layher testified that complainant told her immediately after the incident, both at home and at the hospital, that "her uncle had touched her in the wrong places," but without specifying where she had been touched. Approximately one week after the incident, Layher took complainant to a therapist. Layher testified, again over objection, that with the aid of anatomical dolls, complainant stated that defendant had put his "thing" on her and pointed to her mouth, buttocks, and vaginal area.

Defendant also argues that the third statement made during the therapy session could not be deemed an excited utterance because it was made one week after the alleged incident and was induced through questioning with the aid of anatomical dolls. We disagree.

The evidence established that after complainant had twice told Layher that defendant had "touched her in the wrong places," she took the child to therapy a week after the incident because the child was "emotional," "really disturbed," and nonresponsive. At the therapy session, complainant did not use technical terms to describe what defendant did, but merely stated that defendant had put his "thing" on her and pointed to her body parts. Unlike in Straight, cited by defendant, there is no record evidence to support his claim that Layher or the therapist repeatedly and emotionally asked complainant what happened until she answered. These circumstances, combined with complainant's young age, mental deficiency, and the relatively short interval between the assault and the statement, militate against the possibility of fabrication and support an inference that the statement was made out of a continuing state of emotional shock precipitated by the assault.

Defendant next argues that the trial court abused its discretion in admitting evidence of the alleged 1986 sexual assault under MRE 404(b). Defendant contends that the proffered rationales for the admission of this other-acts evidence were not in issue and that the unfair prejudice emanating from it outweighed its probative value. Again, we disagree. Pursuant to MRE 404(b), evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts is admissible if (1) the evidence is offered for a proper purpose rather than to prove the defendant's character or propensity to commit a crime, (2) the evidence is relevant to an issue or fact of consequence at trial, and (3) the probative value of the evidence is not substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice.

In the present case, complainant testified that the alleged instances of sexual abuse occurred while she and defendant were living with her grandmother (defendant's mother) and that two of the molestations took place while family members were present in the apartment or sleeping in the same room. The prosecutor offered evidence of the prior assault, which allegedly occurred while complainant's mother was around, to rebut defendant's theory that complainant had fabricated the instant allegations, by showing that defendant was, in both instances, willing to risk assaulting complainant while other family members were nearby. Consequently, the evidence was offered for a proper purpose and was relevant to an issue of consequence at trial.

Finally, defendant argues that he was denied a fair trial because the prosecutors involved in the case intimidated complainant with threats of jail and perjury in order to gain favorable testimony from her. However, defendant failed to preserve this issue because he did not raise it before the trial court. After a contextual review of the record, we conclude that the prosecutors did not intimidate complainant with improper threats, but merely informed her, apparently in response to her questions on the subject, that she could face perjury charges if she testified falsely. Defendant has therefore failed to demonstrate a plain error that affected the outcome of the trial.

Affirmed. MARKEY, J., concurred. FITZGERALD, J. (dissenting).

I strongly dissent from the majority's conclusion in issue I that the trial court properly allowed the prosecutor to cross-examine a defense witness with evidence of a prior criminal charge for which the witness was acquitted.

We hold that in the examination or cross-examination of any witness, no inquiry may be made regarding prior arrests or charges against such witness which did not result in conviction; neither may such witness be examined with reference to higher original charges which have not resulted in conviction whether by plea or trial. Accordingly, I would conclude that the trial court abused its discretion by allowing the prosecutor to cross-examine Ganger regarding a prior unrelated charge that did not result in conviction.

The issue, then, is whether the error was harmless. The only evidence of defendant's guilt was the testimony of the complainant. Thus, Ganger's credibility was a key issue in this case. If the jury believed Ganger's testimony that on two separate occasions complainant stated that defendant had not sexually touched her or placed his finger in her vagina, defendant would likely have been acquitted. Thus, after an examination of the entire record, it affirmatively appears that it is more probable than not that the error was outcome determinative.

Filed July 17, 2001 - PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN, Plaintiff-Appellee, v No. 116315 NETO ALAN LAYHER, Defendant-Appellant. BEFORE THE ENTIRE BENCH WEAVER, J. Defendant appeals the judgment of the Court of Appeals affirming his conviction for one count of first-degree criminal sexual conduct, MCL 750.520b(1)(b)(ii), and two counts of second-degree criminal sexual conduct, MCL 750.520c(1)(b)(ii).1 We granted leave limited to whether the

The trial court sentenced defendant to twenty to forty years imprisonment for the first-degree CSC conviction and to concurrent terms of eight to fifteen years imprisonment for each second-degree CSC conviction. trial court erred so as to require reversal in allowing the prosecutor to cross-examine a defense witness concerning a prior charge for which he was acquitted. We conclude that the overly broad holding of People v Falkner, 389 Mich 682, 695; 209 NW2d 193 (1973), which states "no inquiry may be made regarding prior arrests or charges against" a witness that did not result in a conviction, is inconsistent with precedent and with the approach to the admission of evidence that we have followed since the adoption of the Michigan Rules of Evidence.2 We hold, consistent with existing precedent and the Michigan Rules of Evidence, that a trial court may allow inquiry into prior arrests or charges for the purpose of establishing witness bias where, in its sound discretion, the trial court determines that the admission of evidence is consistent with the safeguards of the Michigan Rules of Evidence. We conclude that evidence of the witness' prior arrest without conviction to show the witness' bias was admissible under MRE

402 and MRE 403. The judgment of the Court of Appeals is affirmed and the defendant's conviction is upheld.

Defendant, Neto Layher, was convicted by jury over his general denial of three counts of criminal sexual conduct involving his minor niece, the complainant. During trial, all witnesses were sequestered. In the summer of 1996, complainant was fifteen and staying with her grandmother, defendant's mother. Complainant, who is mentally slow, testified at trial that three incidents occurred sometime before July 5, 1996. During the first incident, defendant rubbed complainant's breasts and genitals, first over and then under her clothes, while she was sleeping in her grandmother's bedroom. Complainant testified that she did not tell anyone because she was scared. The second incident happened when she was sleeping on the floor in her grandmother's room while her grandmother and complainant's sibling slept in the bed nearby. Defendant woke her by touching her over her clothes in the same manner as before. He left the room and then returned again, this time touching her under her clothes as before. Defendant asked her if she would tell. Again, she testified that she said she would not because she was scared. The third incident occurred when complainant was lying on her grandmother's bed. No one else was in the room. She testified that defendant gave her five dollars because she was not going to tell and then took the money back. Defendant again began rubbing complainant under her clothes. During this incident, complainant testified that defendant penetrated her vagina with his finger.

Complainant and her siblings had, throughout their lives, been moved from the home of one family member to the next. As a result, none of the witnesses were able to testify with specificity regarding when the children were at one home or another. For example, complainant's grandmother testified that the children were not with her at the beginning of the summer of 1996, but, rather, were with her at the end of the summer. The grandmother's testimony was inconsistent with that of all the other witnesses.

Sometime after the incidents described above, complainant and her two siblings went to live with Karen Byrd, the girlfriend of another uncle. Complainant and Ms. Byrd testified that complainant told Ms. Byrd of the incidents. Ms. Byrd then contacted the authorities. Soon after the authorities became involved, complainant and her siblings were moved from Ms. Byrd's home to the home of Christine (Layher) Walton, an aunt. While the children were staying with Ms. Walton, Robert (Bob) Ganger, who was working for defense counsel, was sent by defense counsel to investigate the case. Mr. Ganger testified that he was sent in response to a call defense counsel received saying that Ms. Walton and complainant wanted to talk to an attorney. It was not specified who made that call. Mr. Ganger first visited with Ms. Walton and then with Ms. Walton and complainant on two additional visits. Mr. Ganger became the lead defense witness as a result of these conversations. As a result of the conflict in testimony between Mr. Ganger and complainant, the prosecution sought to introduce the fact that Mr. Ganger had been tried and acquitted on the charge of criminal sexual conduct involving a child under the age of thirteen. The prosecution reasoned:

My position is that is certainly relevant in this case to show bias. Bias is very important for the jury to hear. And this particular charge . . . is necessary for the jury to hear about because of this particular case and the fact that Neto Layher is charged with a criminal sexual conduct.

I certainly think that that shows bias that he's going to try to assist another person who has been charged with the same thing he's been charged with, and obviously I would believe he would think wrongly accused of. The trial court allowed the cross-examination to proceed. The Court of Appeals affirmed the trial court's ruling on this evidentiary matter. We granted leave to appeal, limited to whether the trial court abused its discretion by allowing introduction of this evidence of Mr. Ganger's prior arrest and acquittal.

The prosecutor introduced evidence of Mr. Ganger's past arrest and acquittal of criminal sexual conduct involving a child less than thirteen to create an inference of bias on the part of Mr. Ganger in favor of defendant. Bias is a common law evidentiary term used "to describe the relationship between a party and a witness . . . in favor of or against a party. Bias may be induced by a witness' like, dislike, or fear of a party, or by the witness' self-interest."

Conclusion - Evidence of a witness' past arrests may be admitted to establish bias if, in its sound discretion, the trial court determines that admission is consistent with the safeguards of the Michigan Rules of Evidence. However, to ensure against abuse of this rule, I would require a finding that a particularized bias exists, and that it is reasonably probable that the past arrest caused witness bias. Here, the trial court's failure to analyze the challenged evidence's prejudicial effect and to compare that to its probative value was an abuse of discretion. Because it affirmatively appears that the error in this case resulted in a miscarriage of justice, I would reverse the Court of Appeals decision to affirm defendant's convictions. Marriage Notes for Erwin Schmid and Nona Milhan:

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Paul's Church last Wednesday night March 16, 1938 when Miss Nona Juanita Milhan became the bride of Erwin Walter Schmid. Rev. C. H. Wittbracht performed the ceremony in the presence of 500 relatives and friends, using the impressive double ring service. The altar was banked with palms, tall baskets of snapdragons, gladioli and stocks while on either end were lighted white tapers. Before this beautiful setting the bridal party took their places, the bride entering on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. She was charmingly gowned in white taffeta, her finger-tip veil gracefully gathered about her head by an open work cap. She carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Douglas Milhan, sister-in-law of the bride, was her maid of honor. She wore aqua-marine taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas and wore pink rose buds in her hair.

Douglas Milhan, brother of the bride, was best man. Alfred Schmid, Junior Layher, Herman Heininger and George W. Seeger were ushers. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Lueile Henderson played appropriate music. As the bridal party entered the church she played the familiar and well-loved strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. Miss Rubena Bredernitz and Mrs. George Wood sang "O Promise Me" and Mrs. Wood sang, "Because".

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for seventy relatives and close friends of the bridal party. Spring flowers and pink and white decorations made a very attractive setting here. Mr. Schmid is the son of J. George Schmid and his bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Milhan. After a short trip the bride and groom will make their home with the bride's parents. Mr. Schmid graduated from Saline High School in 1930 and is associated with his father in the grocery and meat business. The bride graduated in 1936.

Notes for John William Fred Layher:

John William Fred Layher of Saline, Michigan passed away peacefully at StoryPoint Assisted Living on October 9, 2024 from pancreatic cancer and congestive heart failure. John was born in Dearborn, Michigan on January 26, 1927 to the late Thema (Schnirring) and Rudolph Layher. He graduated from Saline High School in January, 1945. He joined the Allied forces during the end of WWII when he joined the US Coast Guard right before his 18th birthday. His dad suggested the US Coast Guard so he wouldn't have to serve overseas. As per John's luck, he joined the other unlucky 20% of the Coast Guard that had to serve overseas. He was stationed in the Mid-Pacific as a Radio Technician 3rd Class. On May 12, 1956 he married Elaine Kurowicki in Milan, Michigan. They were married 66 years when Elaine passed on June 29, 2022. They met on a blind date arranged by their good friends Tom (deceased) and Noreen (Schwartz) Love.

John was a life-long member of St. Paul United Church of Christ in Saline, where he was baptized and confirmed. He served on church council multiple times, building and grounds committee, memorial committee and sang in the choir. John also volunteered with the Saline Historical Society for many years and enjoyed taking many an elementary class for a historical tour through downtown Saline, Rentschler Farm and the Saline Depot. He retired from the USDA Soil Conservation Service in 1993 after 37 years of service, where he worked as a Soil Conservation Technician. He worked with farmers, school districts, and Engineers throughout Washtenaw and surrounding counties, designing drainage systems, ponds and other earth related projects. He also farmed on his family farm on Maple Road in Saline with his brother Rudolph (Bub) Layher. John was an environmentalist long before it was a thing. Caring for the earth, growing earth sustaining plants and trees, and clean water were his priorities.

John loved the Lord and had read the Bible cover to cover four times (if not more). His Bible was highlighted throughout and he loved to argue theology with his pastors, many of whom called him a Biblical Scholar. In November 2023 at age 96, John took an honor flight, with his grandson, to Washington DC from Toledo, Ohio. He was the oldest veteran on the flight and the only Coast Guard veteran besides the pilot. He was welcomed back with a celebration for all the veterans that never received a welcome home when they returned from war.

What John loved the most, besides his family, was to visit with people. Into his late 80's, he was often seen walking around Saline, to the grocery store, hardware store and barber shop. He would stop to talk with whoever was along his route. In November 2022 he moved into Assisted Living at StoryPoint, Saline. There he made many new friends that became very important to him, including his best friend Donna Dahlenberg and her daughter Deb Gumucio, Janet Laatch, Charles, Ed, and fellow Vets living at StoryPoint. John thanks everyone who came to visit with him while in StoryPoint including Betsy Marl, Scott Rentschler, Pastor Jim Coran and many others who called and spoke with him for many hours at a time. He wanted to thank his caregivers as StoryPoint for caring for him so well. And he wanted to thank Corsocare Hospice for their wonderful work. He wanted to especially thank his grandson Jared for his many hours of companionship, shopping for and lovingly taking care of grandpa, niece Susan Yuhasz who lived down the street, and his dear neighbors Fred and Laura Girbach and Donald and Denise Hatfield.

John is survived by his children Patricia (Craig) Richter of Saline, Paul (Rikilynn) Layher of Frankenmuth, and John (Jan Mata) Layher of Tecumseh. Spending time with his grandchildren was his "Happy Place".

He is survived by those beloved grandchildren, Joshua Richter of Canton, Jared Richter of Saline, Sarah Richter (Rachel Krawchuk) of Grand Rapids, Sadie Layher (Conner Applebee) of Boston, MA, Samuel Layher of Oak Park, Bryan and Daniel Layher of Ypsilanti. He is also survived by his sister-in-law and brother-in law Janet and Donald Hann of Holland, brother-in-law James Weber of Grand Rapids, sisters-in-law June Fowler of Morenci and Jean Kurowicki of Evansville, Indiana.

John was preceded in death by his beloved wife Elaine, his parents, his sisters and brothers-in-law Lucille (Walter) Hinderer, Elizabeth (Donald) Dechert, brother and sister-in-law Rudolph (Marjorie) Layher, his sisters-in-law Stella Weber and Linda DeVee, and brothers-in-law David Kurowicki and Paul Kurowicki. He is also preceded in death by his favorite dogs, Mandy and Cindy.

She was born on November 2, 1920, daughter of Norman and Ruth (Lahyer) Wolfe. Betty was born and raised in Detroit. She graduated from Detroit Cooley High School June 24, 1938. While in school she was on the swim team winning numerous awards in the backstroke. Betty always had a love for singing and music, in school she was also a part of the Cooley High Choral group. She learned to play the piano early on and was an accomplished pianist as was her mother Ruth. She would "tickle the ivories" any chance she got until later in her life. Betty also made sure that all of her children had the opportunity to learn an instrument or the piano. Music was always a part of her life, we can still hear her singing along to a new album or the radio in the house while working along. She enjoyed traveling, needlepoint and loved reading a good book as well. Betty loved her family dearly. She was a wonderful, caring lady with an infectious laugh and warm smile who was well liked by those in her congregation as well as those in the community. She had a generous spirit and helped those in her congregation as long as she was able. Betty was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses in 1936 and remained active and faithful throughout her entire life. Betty's faith was a large part of everything that she did and her hope was to see family and friends again in an earthly paradise.

Betty was preceded in death by her parents, Norman and Ruth; her first husband, Adolph Waswick; her second husband, Eugene Hayden; three brothers, Duane, James, Norman Jr. and grandson, Ryan Finch. Marriage Notes for Tyler Flieman and Kaylee Groenwold:

"You be the anchor that keeps my feet on the ground, I'll be the wings that keep your heart in the clouds" Tyler John Flieman and Kaylee Lyn Groenwold were formally introduced through a mutual friend in August of 2013 at a housewarming party while they were both students at Grand Valley State University. Tyler thought Kaylee was obnoxious and Kaylee thought Tyler was weird because he tucked his t-shirt into his basketball shorts. Although they had their differences, they continued to talk over twitter and text. One day Tyler noticed that Kaylee was looking for someone to attend a concert with, and he asked if she would like him to tag along. To his surprise, she said yes!

They met at a Biggby coffee shop in downtown Grand Rapids before the show. They talked for so long they almost forgot about the concert! Neither of them knew the band and they were both a little awkward, but they had the time of their lives. About a month later they became a couple. They are still obnoxious and weird, and are in many ways opposites. But as the wise Paula Abdul once said: "You know it ain't fiction, just a natural fact. We come together, cuz opposites attract." The two now live together in Holland with the two best dogs that have ever been blessed upon this earth, Chief and Watson. They can't wait to get married and finally become Mr. and Mrs. Flieman!

Tyler proposed to Kaylee on a beautiful Tuesday in June. She had just gotten home from work, and he asked if she wanted to take their bikes down to Dunton park to do a little fishing. Of course she couldn't say no to a summer bike ride and fishing! So they packed up their things and headed to the park just down the street. Tyler was obviously nervous, but tried hard not to show it. All of the sudden, Kaylee looked behind her and saw a dog running at them. It was their Chow Chow Chief! Kaylee wondered how he had gotten out of the house, and when she turned around, Tyler was on one knee. She said yes so fast that she almost didn't see the note on Chief's collar that read "will you marry me." So many emotions and so many happy tears. It will be a day that neither of them will ever forget

229. Robert Henry⁷ Flieman (John B.⁶, John Baptist⁵, Jakob⁴ Fliehmänn, Sr., Georg Jacob (Jakob)³, Leonhard², Johann Adam¹) was born 11 Oct 1959. He married Roxanne Overway. She was born 28 Feb 1959, and died 14 Jan 2022 in Hudsonville, Michigan.

Notes for Roxanne Overway:

Roxanne Flieman, age 62, of Hudsonville, Michigan, was joyfully welcomed Home to Heaven on Friday, January 14, 2022. Though she has known and walked with Jesus all her life, she didn't earn her entrance. Her Savior paid an enormous price, and His joy in her arrival was directly linked to His sacrifice. Roxanne will be remembered for her loving smile, beautifully coordinated and brightly colored outfits, having a great tan, spending time outside floating in her pool and sunbathing on the beaches of Anna Maria Island. She believed that life is an adventure and intentionally celebrated everything, both big and small. She was an encourager - made sure that everyone around her was laughing and having fun!

She was a wonderful wife for 35 years who enjoyed traveling up North (to Northern Michigan) and down South (to Florida) with her husband and friends. Her greatest treasures were her children and grandchildren. She served her South Blendon Reformed church family as an Elder and spent over 40 years as an excellent Social Worker, supporting those with Traumatic Brain and Spinal Cord injuries through Hope Network neuro-rehabilitation services.

She will be lovingly remembered and missed by her husband, Robert Flieman; children, Elizabeth (Roman) Likhnovskyy and Jonathan (Ariel) Flieman; grandchildren, Andrian and Evelyn Likhnovskyy and Wesley Flieman; mother, Janice Overway; brothers, Rick (Janice) Overway, Randy Overway and Rodney (Maribel) Overway; mother-in-law, Jayne Flieman; brothers and sisters-in-law, John (Jody) Flieman, Shevonne (Dave) Hartfield, Rylenn (Linda) Flieman, Patti Webb, Tom (Bonnie) Flieman, and Laura (Jerry) Norton; many nieces, nephews and cousins.

An outdoor celebration of life will be held at a later date.

Children of Robert Flieman and Roxanne Overway are:

- 389 i. Elizabeth Joy⁸ Flieman, born 20 Nov 1988. She married Roman Likhnovskyy 13 Sep 2015; born 1985 in Ukraine.

Marriage Notes for Elizabeth Flieman and Roman Likhnovskyy:

As Elizabeth Flieman began her wedding vows, one unusual detail may have caught the guests' attention - the bride wore orange earplugs. Because the groom, Roman Likhnovskyy, is deaf, the couple made their vows to each other in American Sign Language. An interpreter spoke their words aloud so all the guests could follow along. Elizabeth decided to wear the earplugs, too, as a symbolic way of joining with Roman as they began married life together.

Elizabeth and Roman's wedding day, celebrated Sept. 13, 2015, was one of the many treasured moments that occurred since the couple met four years ago - ones they never would have predicted. "Never in a million years did I think that I would know (sign language), or that I would be marrying someone who is deaf," Elizabeth said.

The couple met in July 2011, when Elizabeth walked into a bar in Windsor with a group of friends. She saw Roman - noticed he was tall and handsome. And Roman saw her - and noticed her "long blond hair and gorgeous blue eyes." He grabbed her hand as an invitation to dance. They danced throughout the evening, along with their friends. Elizabeth tried to make small talk a few times and wondered why Roman didn't respond. Toward the end of the evening, he took out his phone and typed, "My name is Roman. I am deaf."

Roman, who lived in Hamtramck, moved from Ukraine with his parents at age 15. Elizabeth lived in Grand Rapids and worked as a recreational therapist at Hope Network. After that first meeting, they kept in touch through texts and Facebook. Elizabeth took a sign language class. "I wanted to know more about his story in Ukraine and about deaf culture," she said. "I knew the only way I could get that information was to learn his language." Their relationship grew - and so did Elizabeth's interest in sign language. Eventually, she started a two-year program at Lansing Community College to learn how to be an interpreter. She hopes to use the skill in her job as a recreational therapist.

Roman, meanwhile, had to adapt to American Sign Language - he had grown up using Ukrainian Sign Language - and he learned to lip-read in English. "He is so positive," Elizabeth said. "Communicating always felt easy with him because of his personality and his joy." And Roman is impressed by Elizabeth's joyful spirit, as well. "She's amazing and the greatest woman in the world," he said in an email. "She makes me happy, and her love has made me a stronger man."

The couple chose to get married in a Lakeshore ceremony - at Camp Blodgett. Although the place was booked two years in advance, they were fortunate to find out it was available the one day that worked with Elizabeth's fall class schedule. They were married beneath clear sunny skies, on a deck overlooking Lake Michigan. Renting Camp Blodgett's facilities for the night was their splurge, Elizabeth said. They had hotel rooms for the bridal party. Some relatives rented cabins. They didn't spend a lot on decorations and flowers, Elizabeth said. They didn't feel the need, given the location beside Lake Michigan. "It's so naturally beautiful out there," she said.

235. Roy Charles⁷ Fleeman (Roy Charles⁶, Charles Christ⁵, John William (Wilhelm Fliehmman)⁴, Johann Leonhard³ Fliehmman, Leonhard², Johann Adam¹) was born Jan 1936 in Florida, and died 06 Aug 1981 in Fulton Co, Georgia. He married Myrna Louise Lowe 28 Jul 1956. She was born 19 Nov 1935, and died 10 Jul 2017.

Notes for Myrna Louise Lowe:

Myrna Louise Fleeman (November 19, 1935 - July 10, 2017) grew up in Miami, Florida. During her early years she enjoyed ballet, summer trips to Highlands, North Carolina where she first found her love of horses, golf outings with her father and fun on the beautiful Miami beaches. She attended Miami High School where she was a majorette. After high school, Myrna began her modeling career. She worked as model for print photos and runway fashion with the Coronet Modeling Agency. She would say that her favorite modeling shoot was on the beach, when she wore a gold lamé bathing suit. Myrna was beautiful then, and beautiful now.

She married Roy C. Fleeman, Jr. in 1956. Her beautiful and elaborate wedding was considered a "high society social event" at the time in Miami. She even modeled her wedding dress and photos were used in wedding magazines.

During her marriage and while living in Miami, she had two children, Roy and Melinda. Her husband Roy was a horse trainer and Myrna loved the opportunity to be involved with the horses. After living in Miami for some time, Roy was offered a job as a horse trainer for a new stable. The family moved to New Jersey where their third daughter Christine was born. It was hard to conform to the cold winters of the north for these "sun birds" of Miami so they moved back down south to Tampa, where Roy became the trainer for the Tampa Yacht Club Stables. Myrna enjoyed a wonderful social life there and began to show The American Saddlebred Horses that Roy trained.

In 1969 the family moved again and settled nicely in Marietta, Georgia and raised their three children. Myrna and Roy divorced many years later and Myrna began a career as a riding instructor. She loved being around the horses and even more so, loved to see her students enjoying them as well. Her focus was Saddle Seat Equitation and she sent a few riders on to become champions in show. Myrna moved her riding instruction business to Henderson Stables in College Park, Georgia, which was run by Dewey Henderson. Myrna and Dewey became a great team and continued the horse show circuit for many years. As sometimes happens in partnerships, they fell in love and became a pair. Dewey was undoubtedly the love of Myrna's life.

In 1978 they decided to move away from horse training and teaching. Myrna helped Dewey with his aspiration to build a horse auction facility which became a highly recognized auction and event venue in Union City, Georgia - Henderson Auction Arena. In keeping with her love of horses and riding students, Myrna opened her own shop within the facility, Hobby Horse Tack

Shop. During this time, Myrna and Dewey became synonymous with each other and were widely known throughout the horse industry. They also became active in business and social events in South Fulton County, Georgia where the auction facility was located.

Sadly Dewey succumbed to cancer in 1987. Myrna was heartbroken. Soon after Dewey's death, Henderson Auction Arena was sold. She took some time to contemplate her life and decided to try her hand at real estate. This is where her career really took off. She started small by selling houses with Bob Fuller Real Estate Company. She excelled in her real estate career and became even more well known in the South Fulton area. She was elected president of the South Fulton Chamber of Commerce in 1991. She was a member of the American Cancer Society as well. Soon Myrna tired of selling houses and turned her attention towards commercial real estate with Metro Brokers. During this time she built a new home and moved to Fayetteville, Georgia. She worked as a premier real estate agent until she retired at the age of 72.

Myrna was active in the Fairburn community. Her church home was the Fairburn United Methodist Church where she taught Sunday school, served on many committees and helped to organize church social events. She was a volunteer at Cochran Mill Nature Park. She loved the nature center and enjoyed teaching others about the animals and natural foliage. Myrna was a part of the "Knit Whits" and knitted shawls which were donated to other organizations to distribute to people who were ill. She started a book club with friends and developed a nice library in her home. Myrna enjoyed the classics such as the Atlanta Symphony and the Atlanta Opera. There was always beautiful music playing in her home. She loved the outdoors and gardening. Her gift was with orchids. Friends would bring her their dying orchid plants and she just had a way of bringing them back to life. She was a "dog person" too and doted on her precious Jack Russell Terriers. They were her comfort and her companions. No matter what organization or whom Myrna was with, she always left a lasting impression of professionalism, kindness and a wealth of knowledge.

Myrna is survived by her three children, Roy C. Fleeman III, Melinda Boteler, and Christine Cobb, husband Tyrus Cobb. She has four grandchildren, Roy C. Fleeman IV, Nick Fleeman, Allison Cobb MacDowall, and Billy Gibson. She has three great-grandchildren, Charlie Mae Fleeman, Finnick Beau Fleeman, and Saylor Elizabeth MacDowall.

We are grateful to the caregivers and friends at Presbyterian Village in Austell, Georgia and the gracious and loving family of Arbor Terrace of Burnt Hickory in Marietta. We are indebted to the truly caring staff of Tranquility Hospice of Kennesaw Mountain in Marietta. The family prefers for guests to bring orchid plants which will later be donated to Presbyterian Village, Austell, Arbor Terrace of Burnt Hickory, Tranquility Hospice, Marietta.

He was born 02 Apr 1938 in Britton, Lenawee Co, Michigan, and died 28 Dec 1979 in Manistee, Michigan.

Notes for Jerry Scott Losee:

Funeral services were held Monday for Jerry S. Losee, 41, 1100 Jeffrey Lane, at St. Paul United Church of Christ with the Rev. Ronald Boldman officiating. Mr. Losee died Dec. 28, 1979 in Manistee, Michigan. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery. Losee was enjoying a woodgathering outing with his family and friends when he suffered heart failure and apparently died instantly.

Mr. Losee was born April 2, 1938 in Britton, the son of Ellsworth and Inez Losee. He married Pamela Schmid of Saline August 6, 1960. He was an employee of the R & B Machine Tool Co., a veteran of the United States Air Force and a former member of the Saline Area Fire Dept. Mr. Losee was member of the St. Paul United Church of Christ. Survivors include: his wife, Pamela; three children, Patrice Lynn, Jerry S. II, and Brett; his mother and stepfather, Norman and Inez Hedger of Britton; three brothers, Jack and Jan of Saline, and Dean of Britton; one sister, Mrs. Joseph (Carol) Hargezeeb, kenneth of Ann Arbor; his maternal grandparents, Mona Gauntlett; two aunts, one uncle, and many nieces and nephews. Memorial contributions may be made to the Children's Educational Fund.

On Friday, December 28, 1979 all of us at R & B Machine Tool Company lost one of our most loved and respected coworkers. Jerry Losee, shop superintendent, died of a heart attack at the age of 41. Jerry was truly an exceptional person. He possessed technical skills that enabled him to do everything involved in the building of a machine tool. He was a problem solver, a leader, and his involvement guaranteed quality in the finished product. First of all, however, Jerry was a teacher and advisor to those who worked for him, a dear friend to those who worked with him. Criticism was not his way. Help, encouragement and a "pat on the back" were.

Every member of the R & B family feels a tremendous loss in Jerry's passing. A little of each of us has gone with him, but in far greater measure a part of Jerry will live on with each of us. Even-with his passing, Jerry has continued as a teacher and advisor to all of us. He teaches us now to show our appreciation of valued friends and associates every day of our lives. So, in Jerry's memory, we want to declare our deep belief: Jerry Losee was typical of the wonderful working associates that we have at R & B Machine Tool Company. He and they are our most treasured assets, both as friends and as the people most responsible for our firm's y progress.

Notes for Lori Jean Strome:

Lori Jean Strome Lee, age 57, of Edwardsburg, died in her home Friday, October 2, 2020, on the anniversary of her first born son's birth and passing. What a great moment for her waking up in heaven on his thirty-eighth birthday! Her life began March 27, 1963 in Dowagiac, Michigan, the oldest of four daughters born to Raymond and Donna Strome. She graduated from Ross Beatty High School in Cassopolis in 1982 and lived in this area all of her life. As the oldest of four girls, Lori looked out for her sisters and father, especially after her mother died. She loved her daughter and son and was devoted to her granddaughters. Lori enjoyed the weekly sleep overs and the daily telephone calls with her "luvbugs." She lovingly crocheted multiple baby blankets and hats and enjoyed cooking. Family meant everything to her and she enjoyed family gatherings and events. Lori was a good and loyal friend who was always available to anyone who needed her. She loved capturing pictures of family and friends. Lori was an active member of Union Baptist Church. She was excited about her relationship with God and sharing her faith. Lori loved her trips to Georgia and the beach with her best friend, Jennifer Parsons. She said her bucket list was complete after a visit to the ocean. Lori will be greatly missed by family and friends.

She is survived by her daughter, Erica Lee of Niles; her son, Justin (Chyvon) Lee of Cassopolis; three granddaughters, Emma Jean Lee, Natalie Lee, Alivia Lee; her father, Raymond Strome of Cassopolis; three sisters, Jennifer (Doug) Diltz of Cassopolis, Mary (Gary) Wright of Vandalia, Tara (Kevin) Baker of Dowagiac; a host of nieces and nephews; and best friend, Jennifer (Doyle) Shelton Parsons of Decatur and her family. She was preceded in death by one son, Jeffery Dale Lee, Jr and her mother, Donna Strome.

Family and friends will gather Tuesday, October 6, 2020 from 4:00 p.m. until time of service at 6:30 p.m. in Connelly Chapel Wagner Family Funerals, 202 North Broadway Street, Cassopolis. Pastor Brian Taylor will be officiating. Lori will be laid to rest in a Graveside service Wednesday, October 7, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. in Prospect Hill Cemetery in Cassopolis. The family prefers contributions in memory of Lori be made to the family for her granddaughters' education. Arrangements have been entrusted to Connelly Chapel Wagner Family Funerals, Cassopolis.

Ed Morrison and Amanda Diltz met at work in Chicago, Illinois March of 2017. Amanda was new to the company and Ed had recently been selected to move from the company's UK office to help grow the sales team in the US market. Amanda recalls telling her friends after her first day that she met a guy named Ed and she could tell they were going to be "best friends". The two developed a fast friendship and after some convincing Ed persuaded Amanda to go out to eat with him. Amanda made sure Ed knew this was in no way a "date" as she wasn't sure about getting involved with a co-worker. They went to a small Irish pub called Dublins on a Sunday afternoon and they have been inseparable ever since. Ed and Amanda live together in Chicago's Lincoln Park and recently welcomed a puppy named Stella into their family. The couple look forward to celebrating their love with family and friends in Ed's home country on September 18th.
