Notes for Susan Carol (Sue) Aichele:

Susan Carol Jones (nee Aichele), beloved wife of the late Dick Jones, passed away at the age of 86 on Sunday, December 1, 2024. Sue was born in Cleveland in 1938 to Louis and Dorothy Aichele (nee Brunner) and was quite the spoiled baby sister to Louis and George. She was a proud 1956 graduate of West Tech High School and went on to have a successful career in telecommunications, retiring early from Sohio/BP. Sue loved spending summers at her parent's cottage at Geauga Lake and throughout her life enjoyed family get-togethers where her taco salad and cheesecake were legendary. As a mother of all girls, it was common, much to their chagrin, to dress them all in matching outfits insisting on only white knee socks. She loved ladybugs, feeding the critters that frequented her backyard, pretzels with cream cheese and all things red, white and blue. Being a grandmother and great-grandmother, however, was by far the thing that brought her the most happiness. She enjoyed attending the many things they were involved in and loved taking them to the zoo. As the grandkids grew up to have their own families, zoo passes were a gift of choice to keep visits going. She bragged like only a grandmother and great-grandmother could do and her family was her pride and joy.

Sue is survived by her daughters, grandchildren and great-grandchildren: Kim Wade / Bo Dunigan; Debbie & Art Neuman / Tiffeny & PJ Anderson (Emma, Clara) / Arthur & Sarah Neuman / Jaclyn & Marcus Borman (Isabella, Maxton, Grace) / Nicole & Jake Shaker (Kristina, Jacob, Jianna); Lisa Riedel / Jessica Hale & Cody Behunin (Azlynn, Landon, Addisyn, Brynlee) / Richard Hale (McKenna, Sydney); Dawn & Curtis Henderson / Ian & Olivia Bowman-Henderson (Parker) / Maggie & William Tittle / Camryn Henderson.

She was preceded in death by Lori Kelly, survived by Melissa & Tim Noel (Timmy, Matt, Andrew, Jenna) / Daina & Ian Grimaldi (Eleanore, Franklin) / Alex & Beth Kelly (Harrison, Robin).

Friends will be received at Nosek-McCreery Funeral Home, 8150 Brecksville Rd., Brecksville, Ohio 44141 on Saturday, January 11, 2025 from 11:00am-1:00 pm where a short celebration of life will begin at 1:00 pm.

Notes for Richard Larry Berger:

Apr. 18, 2018 - Medina, Ohio - A Brunswick man pleaded not guilty Tuesday to charges that accuse him of killing a woman in 2016. Richard L. Berger, 68, is charged with two counts of murder, one count of involuntary manslaughter and one count of abduction in the April 18, 2016 death of Starr Pawliczka, according to court records. Berger initially claimed Pawliczka had a seizure before she died at his apartment, according to a police report. Detectives and medical examiners later ruled her death was a homicide. A two-year investigation resulted in Berger's arrest, Brunswick police Lt. Robert Safran said.

He remains in custody at the Medina County Jail on $500,000 bond. Detectives arrested Berger Saturday at his apartment at the RHM Manor on Stoneybrook Lane in Brunswick. Brunswick police officers and paramedics found Pawliczka unresponsive there two years ago, according to a police report. Pawliczka, 25, died of complications from blunt force head injuries and cervical compression, the Cuyahoga County Medical Examiner's Office determined. Investigators believe she was strangled, according to the police report.

Berger waited approximately one hour before he called 911 to report Pawliczka was unresponsive, the police report says. He told investigators he thought she may have overdosed on drugs, and did not want her to be arrested, the report says. Investigators did not find any drugs or evidence of drug use in the apartment. Pawliczka had been staying with Berger for a few days after a break-up, the report says.

Nov. 13, 2019 - A Medina County judge sentenced a Brunswick man to 10 years in prison for strangling his friend. Medina County Common Pleas Court Judge Christopher Collier sentenced Richard Berger, 69, Tuesday, according to court records. He pleaded guilty in October to involuntary manslaughter and corrupting another with drugs in the April 18, 2016 death of 25-year-old Starr Pawliczka, records say. Prosecutors dropped murder and abduction were dropped as part of a plea deal.

Berger told investigators Pawliczka suffered a seizure before she died at his apartment on Stoneybrook Lane near Aspen Lake Drive. But the Cuyahoga County Medical Examiner's Office later ruled her death a homicide after it was discovered the cause of death was blunt force trauma injuries and neck compression. Investigators determined she was strangled, Brunswick police Det. Sarah Merhaut said Wednesday in an interview with cleveland.com.

Berger waited an hour before he called 911 to report that he thought Pawliczka overdosed, according to a police report. A two-year investigation led to Berger's arrest and charges April 11, 2018. The investigation revealed Berger was the only person to have caused the injuries to Pawliczka, Merhaut said. "Based on the way the injuries looked, the medical examiner was able to give a pretty exact time of when that happened," she said. "He was the only person who could have caused those injuries."

The corrupting another with drugs charge is related to the fact that the medical examiner found methamphetamine, fentanyl, cocaine metabolite, opiates and benzodiazepines in Pawliczka's system, Merhaut said. Investigators determined Berger provided her with the drugs. But ultimately the injuries are what caused her death. Berger and Pawliczka met two years prior to her death. She worked at Christie's Cabaret, an adult entertainment club in Brunswick, where Berger was a customer, she added. They became friends shortly after meeting.

Children of Cynthia Brown and Dennis Huey are:
185 i. Jeremiah Dennis¹¹ Huey, born 07 Apr 1992 in Pennsylvania; died 14 Jan 2016 in Commodore, Indiana Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Jeremiah Dennis Huey:

March 10, 2018 - "He was just an overall good kid." So Cindy Huey recalls her son Jeremiah Dennis Huey, 23, of Clymer. "He worked in the coal mines, worked in the gas wells," she said. "He excelled at baseball and football and track. He loved to ride his quad. He just enjoyed life and lived life to the fullest." However, Jeremiah Huey, a 2010 Purchase Line High School graduate, had his share of misfortunes, right up until his fatal heroin overdose on Jan. 14, 2016. "I was in a real bad car accident the day before my son passed away," Cindy Huey said. She was in UPMC Presbyterian at the time, seriously injured in a crash that left her pelvis broken in two places, as well as her tailbone.

"Brad knew that he was so upset because his mom had wrecked her car," Jeremiah's mother said. She was referring to Brad Troup, age 39, of Northern Cambria. On Friday in Pittsburgh, United States District Judge Cathy Bissoon imposed a sentence of 10 years in prison and three years of supervised release on Troup, who pleaded guilty on Dec. 2, 2017, to charges that he provided the heroin that killed Jeremiah Huey. Cindy Huey said it wasn't enough of a punishment but, "we had to settle for that." Prosecutors told the family Troup could have walked if the case had gone to trial and just one juror voted for acquittal. "Will that ever bring my son back?" Cindy Huey asked. "No." However, referring to Troup, she said, "we could be in that same boat that his parents were in.” Not that Cindy and her husband, Dennis, are in much better shape.

“My husband goes to the cemetery every day,” Cindy Huey said. “There isn’t a day he hasn’t missed.” Assistant U.S. Attorney Katherine A. King prosecuted the case against Troup. A spokeswoman for Pittsburgh U.S. Attorney Scott W. Brady said federal sentencing guidelines provided for a maximum sentence of up to 20 years in prison, and/or fines of up to $1 million. “It was rough,” Cindy Huey said in the hours after the sentencing. “We had impact letters read. There was a lot of emotion, a lot of crying going. It was hard for our attorney to read my letter.”

On Oct. 10, 2011, Jeremiah Huey and his brother Joshua were going to the hospital to visit a friend who had been suffering from seizures — when their car struck a woman walking on Route 286. Then-Indiana County Coroner Michael Baker suspected that the victim, Jammie Lee Locke, 32, of Meadville, Crawford County, was under the influence of alcohol or drugs, though there was no evidence that she was impaired. Still, several drivers said they nearly hit her before Jeremiah Huey’s car came along.

Jeremiah Huey was not charged in that crash, but as his mother recalled Baker telling him, “Unfortunately, you have to live with this.” In 2012 he totaled his pickup truck in a case of underage driving under the influence. “He went for the ARD (Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition) program,” his mother said. “He went to The Open Door,” a rehabilitation program, and Jeremiah Huey met and began liking a girl who had been addicted to heroin for eight years. That started him on heroin, and likely got him in touch with Troup.

“You meet a lot of people there,” Jeremiah’s mother said. “Was he his friend? I would say they were friends at one time. It’s just a sad all-around thing. Did Jeremiah want any of this to happen? No. He was just weak.” He tried to get clean and stay clean. “We told him, ‘You have to do something about this. He went ahead and told his boss in the mine, who told him, ‘Get fixed up and your job will be here when you get back,’” Cindy Huey said. “He was in rehab for 43 days and got out, and was clean for 11 months.”

Then he totaled his father’s car in early in 2014 and broke his back. “He had surgery,” his mother said. “They gave him fentanyl and morphine. We told them, ‘You don’t do that to an addict,’ but the doctor said, ‘He’ll be fine.’” That was Jan. 18, 2014, two years to the day before Jeremiah Huey was laid to rest. “He was a big inspiration to everyone,” his mother recalled. “Fifteen hundred people came to that funeral home to give respects to Jeremiah. It was snowing out.”

Jeremiah’s survivors include his brothers Jordan and Joshua. “Joshua was actually the one who found him,” their mother said. “My sons have been struggling.” Another survivor is his son, Tanner, born Feb. 13, 2016. Cindy and Dennis Huey have custody of their grandson. There also is the support of the family’s church, Christ Bible Fellowship Church. “They have been so supportive to us,” Cindy Huey said. “They have been there since day one.” Cindy Huey’s advice? “Hug your kids,” she said. “Never say it’s not going to be my kids, because it’s going to come back. It is a struggle out there every single day for these addicts.” Brady credited state police, Pittsburgh city police, the Drug Enforcement Administration and district attorneys in Allegheny and Indiana counties for their work investigating Huey’s death and Troup’s prosecution.
