Notes for Lella M. McClarin:

Oct. 24, 1973 - Lysock View's newest residents are believed to be the first set of twins to have lived at the county operated home. They are 92-year-old sisters, Lura May McClarin and Mrs. Lella May Marquardt, formerly of the 2200 block of West Fourth Street Mrs. Marquardt is the widow of William Marquardt. The sisters have lived together for many years. An official at Lysock said the sisters are the "pets of the place" with other guests. They enjoy visiting other resident and took their favorite chairs to the home. The official also commented that the sisters lived for many years with another sister, Ida, who died at the age of 97. Currently, there is one way to easily tell the twins apart Miss McClarin's right arm is in a cast as a result of a fall last July. Both are former silk mill workers. They were born in Salladasburg on May 15, 1881, daughters of Robert and Ella Thomas McClarin. They have no close relatives.

Notes for Gottlieb A. Waltz:

GOTTLIEB WALTZ, contractor and builder, was born in Upper Fairfield Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, October 20, 1847, son of William and Mary (Hurr) Waltz. He received a common school education, and at the age of sixteen he left home to learn the carpenter's trade, which business he has followed up to the present. He was employed by Peter Herdic for several years, and had charge of much of his work. He was superintendent in the erection of the Weightman block and of Trinity church. After the failure of Mr. Herdic he engaged in contracting on his own account, and has since erected many of the best buildings in the city. He built the First Presbyterian church, St. Paul's Lutheran church, the Wadley Memorial church, the Annunciation Catholic church, remodeled Christ church and the court house, erected the Hays Building, and the Young Men's Christian Association building, the Rubber Works building, the Hotel Updegraff, and is now engaged on the chapel of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Waltz has been twice married; first to Elsie Carr of Danville, Pennsylvania, who died without issue; in June, 1875, he was married to Fannie, daughter of O. H. Randall of Williamsport, and has five children: Carrie May; Orin Hubbard; William Lee; George Randall, and Abigail Case. The families are members of Erie Avenue Baptist church, in which he is one of the trustees. He is a Republican, and is a member of the I. O. O. F. Mr. Waltz went to Denver, Colorado, in 1879, where he remained five months, returning thence to Williamsport. In the fall of the same year he went to Pueblo and brought his brother, William, home, he being sick. During the years 1886-87, he was in partnership with A. S. Wagner, doing contract work under the firm name, of G. Waltz & Company.

Notes for Wilhelm Hurr Waltz:

WILLIAM H. WALTZ, architect and builder, was born in Fairfield Township, Lycoming County, September 17, 1855, and is a son of William and Mary Waltz. He was reared in his native township, and received his education in the public schools and at Williamsport Commercial College. At the age of twenty he came to Williamsport, and learned the carpenter's trade. In 1879 he went to Denver, Colorado, worked at his trade until April, 1881, and took a trip over the Rocky Mountains to the head waters of the Arkansas River. He then went to Pueblo, Colorado, where he was engaged in the building business until November, 1881, when he was taken sick with the mountain fever, and returned to Williamsport. In April, 1882, he formed a partnership with his brother Gottlieb and engaged in contracting and building. Among the prominent buildings of the city that have been erected by Mr. Waltz are the First Presbyterian Church, St. Paul's Lutheran church, the Lycoming Rubber Works, and the residence of the late Judge Cummin. The partnership with his brother was dissolved in 1884, and since that date Mr. Waltz has continued alone.

He was married in 1884 to Josephine Amelia, daughter of O. H. Randall, of Williamsport, and has one son, Floyd R., and one daughter, Merab C. Mr. Waltz and wife are members of the Erie Avenue Baptist church, in which he has served as chairman of the board of trustees since the organization of the church or for the past five years, and is now chairman of the building committee. Mr. Waltz was assistant superintendent in the erection of the government building in Williamsport, under Harrison's administration. He is a staunch Republican, and is a member of the Knights of Malta.

Notes for Ruth Evelyn Ulmer:

Williamsport Sun Gazette, January 27, 2009;

Ruth Evelyn Ulmer, (II Tim. 4:7: "...I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.") of Ashland, Kentucky, went to be with her Lord on January 25, 2009. She was born on July 11, 1907 in Hepburn Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the daughter of the late Thomas L. and Ida Jane Waltz Ulmer. Ruth grew up on her parent's farm near Balls Mills, Pennsylvania.

Born again into God's family at the age of 10, she was baptized and accepted into the membership of Hepburn Baptist Church, Cogan Station, Pennsylvania in 1917. She graduated from Philadelphia School of the Bible, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1930 and attended Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1931 also in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Upon completion of her schooling, Ruth served the Lord at Green Pasture Jewish Mission, Brooklyn, NY and then in the youth ministry of the local church at Mehoopany, PA. In 1932, from deep in the mountains of eastern Kentucky, there came a call for help. A missionary had to leave her field of service due to illness. Would someone please come and take over her work? So, Ruth like Abraham, "went out by faith, not knowing wither (s)he went" (Hebrews 11:8), Virgie, Kentucky was not even on the map; but the Lord was leading and she followed. There was no promise of support so she stood firmly on Philippians 4:19; God promised he would provide. She had nine wonderful, thrilling, years sharing his word with the people of Virgie. Through the years, there followed other areas of service: Printer, Kentucky for 10 years, at Volga, Kentucky for 27 years and finally at Ashland, Kentucky, working in the local church in Sunday School work and visitation ministry. All who knew Ruth were impressed by her gentle spirit. From time to time, she would come back to Pennsylvania, where she was always invited to speak at churches in the local area. She told of different experiences that revealed her love for God and the people she served.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Nelson W. Ulmer and T. Theodore Ulmer and her sisters, Florence A. Gehr and Gertrude E. Paulhamus.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday, January 29 at the Summit Church of the Nazarene, with Pastor Tim Daniels officiating. Burial will follow in Coalton Cemetery. Funeral arrangements by Steen Funeral Homes.

Kiess, clerk in the office of the register and recorder, was born at Blooming Grove, in Hepburn Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, February 7, 1862, son of Jacob D. and Sophia (Kehrer) Kiess, natives of Lycoming County, and of German origin. His mother died in December, 1862, and several years after her death, his father moved to Iowa. He was educated in the common schools of that township and at the Muncy Normal School. At the age of sixteen he engaged in school teaching during the winter season, and attended school during the summer. In 1883 he graduated from the State Normal School at Lock Haven, after which he taught for two years in the public schools and was then one of the teachers in the Williamsport Commercial College for three years. Mr. Kiess was appointed assistant postmaster of Williamsport in 1888, and filled that position until 1890, when he was appointed clerk in the prothonotary's office, and in January, 1891, he was appointed to his present position. He is a staunch Democrat, and is now a member of the school board from the Eighth ward. He has been connected with the I. O. O. F. since 1884, and has passed through the chairs.

Notes for Rev. Abraham Pierce Waltz:

From: Rev. A. Pierce Waltz; 3209 Tauomee; Kansas City 2, Kansas [printed stationery]
4535 Mary Ellen Avenue; Sherman Oaks, California [typed return address]
February 16, 1959 To: Rev. H. Eldon Waltz; 259 Madison Avenue; Madison, West Virginia

Dear Brother: I just received your welcome letter of the 11th and was glad to hear from you. I noticed that you are doing a marvelous work down there in West Virginia. Your work reminds me very much of my ministry. On my first field I drew the plans and supervised the building of a parsonage. My first field was with two churches in a new field in South Dakota, organized only three years in a territory opened to white settlers eight years. My next field was in western S. D. where I drew the plans for a church building and supervised the work. In my next field I drew the plans for a new church building; picture enclosed. This was a building that was recognized as the finest all through building in the country, using cut glacial deposit rock picked up in the same county. We gathered them and dressed them for laying in wall. They were of various colors of gray and different shades of pink. In my third field we planned for a new building but because of the depression we had to drop it for the time but then I went to another field in Nebraska to finish a building. The church got stuck financially and the pastor left.

Building was a natural for me as I had three uncles who were building contractors in Williamsport, and a brother a carpenter. However this was not all for in every field enlarged the membership in a very satisfactory way. I am retired now after 49 years in the ministry under paid service. Since then I have been in some very active work in my home church.

Well now about our genealogy! I am not sure that you are as much interested in this as I am, but it is interesting anyway to know something about our ancestry. I see that we, you and I, are not related very closely, but we do have some relationship. I am quite sure that your mother's grandfather was a brother to my grandfather. On page one of my copy I sent to you; first there is John Waltz who with his son Michael came from Germany in 1806. John George, son of John Sr. came from Germany in 1804. It is interesting to recognize that it took them, George and his group, from June 6th to September 18th to get here on their sailing. It's interesting to compare that with present air travel. On page one I gave Michael's family but did not follow it any further. I personally knew some of their descendents but not very well.

Following John George's family you will find on page 4, I am quite sure that at the top of the page 4 the name John Waltz married to Mary Sheets who I am sure were your mother's grandparents. William Waltz married to Mary Hurr was my grandparents (my Grandfather). Now then my Aunt Barbara, daughter of my grandfather married Samuel Ulmer, bottom of page 6. Now go to page 16 you will find that Elizabeth Ulmer was married to Jacob C. Waltz, who you say in your letter was your father's brother. Further on page 18 you find Bertha Ulmer who married Henry Waltz. Bertha is a sister to Elizabeth. See page 8. These went to Nebraska and then because of her health they moved to the Ozarks in Missouri, but she did not live very long. I visited them in Mo. Then Edward their brother on page 8 was a pastor in Nebraska but they moved away before I got to see them. I had a letter from him after landing in South Dakota. Emma Ulmer, page 8 married Orville Sollenberger; page 18. They also moved to Nebraska and I visited them several times while I was working for Central Seminary. She passed away about 1-1/2 years ago. I do not know any Dr. Ulmer.

You mentioned in your letter the name of Conrad Waltz. Note that on page 2 you will find a Conrad Waltz, son of Michael Waltz who came from Germany with his father in 1806. But of course, as I mentioned above I did not follow the records of that family.

I was interested to note that your mother's grandmother's name was Mary Sheets. My mother's name was Mary Sheets also. My mother had a brother George Sheets who was a minister. You may note that on page 2 there is a John Waltz married to Mary Sheets. William a brother of John was my grandfather. Maybe I mentioned that above. I am acquainted with the Anthony church and preached there once. My mother's people lived in that area.

I have been out west during all my ministry after I was ordained in 1910. The last ten years except two of my ministry I worked for the Central Seminary in Kansas City, Kansas in the department raising money for their expenses. You will note that I am out here in California. I am here visiting my daughter who lives near Los Angeles. I expect to leave in about a week and go visit my brother in Florida for a few weeks. He and I are the only ones left in our family. I have a son who is a minister in Kansas City, Missouri who is doing a fine work and expects next may to receive his D.Th from Central Seminary.

I am sure glad to have your letter and hope that you might be able to meet him sometime. When you come to the annual American [Baptist] Convention in Des Moines, Iowa, I would be glad to have you come and visit us on your way. I am not sure that I will get to attend that meeting, although it is not so very far from our place. Very cordially, A. Pierce Waltz [signed].

The Stabler Companies Inc. 635 Lucknow Road; Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17110. Private Company Incorporated: 1955 Sales: $200 million (2004 est.)
NAIC: 212321 Construction Sand and Gravel Mining; 233110 Land Subdivision and Land Development; 234110 Highway and Street Construction

The Stabler Companies Inc. is a privately-owned collection of subsidiaries primarily involved in transportation-related products and services and real estate development. The anchor of the company is Eastern Industries, Inc., which builds and repairs roads and provides quarry aggregates used in the making of concrete. Eastern also owns Work Area Protection Corporation, a Chicago-area maker and distributor of cones, drums, barricade lights, vests, "stop/slow" paddles, message boards, and other safety products. In a similar vein, Protection Services Inc. offers traffic control products and services, including signs, barriers, cones, and electronic message boards. Precision Solar Controls, based in Garland, Texas, manufacturers solar-powered highway message systems and traffic lights. Stabler's ASTI Transportation Systems subsidiary is involved in a wide variety of high-technology transportation products, including traffic congestion detectors, over-height vehicle detectors, flooded roadway detectors, speed limit systems, roadside cameras to help monitor and improve traffic flow, and alarm systems to alert construction workers when a vehicle has violated a safety zone. Stabler Land Company is a real estate development subsidiary, whose primary interest is the Stabler Center, a planned corporate and residential community located in Pennsylvania's Lehigh Valley, strategically located near New York City, Philadelphia, and Washington, D.C. Finally, Stabler Companies also owns the Center Valley Club, a tournament-caliber golf course that is part of the Stabler Center. The company also operates DBS Trans Inc., which provides helicopter service for the affiliated companies, and SCI Products Inc., holder of patents on several of the Stabler's products and operator of a sales force for Work Area Protection and Precision Solar Controls.

The man behind the Stabler name was Donald Billman Stabler, born in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, in 1908. He learned the value of hard work from his father, George William Stabler, who had been raised on a Pennsylvania farm, cobbled together an education by attending a Williamsport business school, and then became a circulation director of Grit, a weekly newspaper popular with rural America. The younger Stabler was able to attend Lehigh University, a well-regarded engineering school, and earn a bachelor's degree in civil engineering in 1930. He then took a job with a Pittsburgh contractor, Dravo Corporation, but due to the Great Depression that was precipitated by the stock market crash of 1929, he was laid off after just six months. His father then managed to pay for Stabler to return to Lehigh and earn a master's degree in 1932. He now found work with a Harrisburg contractor. Although the pay was meager, just $15 a week, the work was challenging. "It was the best training I've ever had in my life," he told the Allentown Morning Call in a 1989 interview. In 1940 Stabler was ready to strike out on his own, and with $1,300 in savings he laid the foundation for the Stabler Companies by starting Stabler Construction Company in Harrisburg. He already had a contract in hand, having made a successful $40,000 bid on a road work contract in Huntingdon County. He also operated a sole proprietorship, Donald D. Stabler Contractor. The early years were a struggle, however, and to make ends meet he also served as superintendent of public works at Fort Indiantown Gap, a facility that would soon be humming with activity as the United States entered World War II. Stabler attempted to enlist in the military but was rejected because of poor eyesight.

Following the war and a brief recession, the U.S. economy roared to life and the federal and state governments made a vast commitment to a highway building program, deemed an important component of national defense given the potential need to move troops and materials from coast to coast. As a result, Stabler received a bounty of road building contracts. The year 1955 was a watershed for Stabler's business and his family. He merged Donald B. Stabler Contractor and Stabler Construction Company to form Stabler Companies, and in that same year began to diversify. He added to Stabler Companies by forming Protection Services to produce construction safety products and acquired State Aggregate, a sand and gravel company that operated quarries in northeastern Pennsylvania. But it was also in 1955 that his daughter, Beverly Anne, turned 16 and received a driver's license. On a family trip late in the year, Stabler and his second wife, Dorothy Louis Stabler, were driving in one car while his daughter followed in a second car. She was struck by a drunk driver, was severely injured, and was for many years confined to The Woods School, a institution in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, devoted to the developmentally retarded and people with the kind of head injuries Beverly received. The incident sparked the philanthropy that would become a hallmark of Stabler's life. He and his wife launched the Donald B. and Dorothy L. Stabler Foundation to support central Pennsylvania colleges and hospitals. He also became a generous supporter of Lehigh University, not only contributing money for building programs and establishing scholarships but also by devoting his time. He served as a member of the board of trustees for more than 30 years, and during his two-year term as head of the school's alumni association, he traveled almost 20,000 miles to visit 30 alumni clubs, the most any president ever completed.

Despite his personal tragedy and increasing volunteer work, Stabler continued to grow his business empire. The next addition of note came in 1965 when he launched DBS Transit Company. It initially supplied trucks to Stabler's construction and materials companies, but later it would provide helicopter service to the subsidiaries. The most significant acquisition in the history of the Stabler Companies occurred in 1976 when Eastern Industries, Inc., was purchased, along with subsidiaries Elco Paving and Elco Hausman Construction, which provided blacktop, sewer grading, and concrete construction services in the Lehigh Valley. The business started out in 1941 as Eastern Lime Corporation and provided limestone to cement companies as well as agricultural limestone and crushed stone for ready-mix concrete and highway construction. Eastern added its first quarry in 1957 and a year later became involved in the blacktopping business when it acquired Harlem Blacktop, Inc. The company entered the block and masonry industry in 1961, and in 1965 the collection of business began operating under the Eastern Industries name. Over the next decade it added further materials, equipment rental, and construction assets until in March 1976 Stabler's Protection Services bought 98 percent of its stock. The year was also noteworthy because Stabler, now in his late 60s, underwent successful open heart surgery.

The mission of Stabler Companies Inc. (SCI) is to focus its most valuable asset, the employees, toward the common goal of long-term growth and prosperity for the employees' families and for SCI and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. Despite his age, Stabler looked to new challenges in the 1980s, moving beyond the construction field he knew so well to real estate development. In 1983 he formed Stabler Development Company to own and lease his real estate interests, primarily the quarries that supplied aggregate for construction purposes. A year later he launched Stabler Land Company to develop 1,700 acres of Lehigh Valley property. About 1,600 of those acres were acquired in 1984 from Gulf & Western Natural Resources Group, the land part of New Jersey Zinc Company and available after the mining operations were shut down in 1983. Knowing that Interstate 78, which would provide a direct link to the New York metropolitan area, was likely to be built, Stabler believed that the Lehigh Valley was set to enjoy the benefits of its proximity to major Eastern Seaboard cities and envisioned building a major technology research center, similar to Princeton's prestigious Forrestal Center, home to such major research facilities as the Plasma Physics Laboratory. "I have always like the Valley," Stabler told the Morning Call in 1995, adding, "When this opportunity came along, it was sort of the fruition of an inward dream I really didn't realize was there. It just sort of developed as my thinking went along." What would one day become the Stabler Center became his "baby," as he once describe it, and the preoccupation for the rest of his life.

Going from vision to realization, however, required a great deal of patience and resolve. First Stabler had to secure permission to build by winning over area residents concerned how such a massive development would affect the rural character of the community. An example of Stabler's commitment to the project and salesmanship occurred in January 1985 when he faced some 200 hostile residents at an area high school. With his only aid a chalkboard, he made his pitch. "Stabler turned his 5-foot 5-inch frame to the blackboard and began scribbling in big letters," according to the Morning Call. "The development's assessment, he said, would be at least $168 million. The township supervisors and school district officials at the meeting perked up. That meant at least $10 million in real estate taxes." He further wrote, "Add 50 percent to your township budget. Triple your school district budget." Furthermore, he argued that development was coming to the area whether he did it or not, whether the residents liked it not. He offered them quality development from someone with a concern for the local environment. "We don't want any trash development. We want something to be proud of. We're not big city slickers. We're just like you guys." According to the newspaper account, "The crowd grew silent. Stabler put on his raincoat and, followed by his architect, slowly marched out of the auditorium, leaving behind the message on the blackboard.... Several months later, Stabler's plans for an office park were approved."

The township approvals he needed were all in place by 1987, but Stabler soon faced another major obstacle: a real estate crash that caused a slump in the corporate real estate market. However, because his business was diversified, he was able to wait out conditions. In the meantime, Stabler did not neglect his core businesses. In 1986 Eastern acquired Work Area Protection Corporation, the largest maker of traffic cones in the United States, followed in 1990 with the addition of Precision Solar Controls Inc., a major supplier of solar-power message systems, LED traffic lights, and monitoring systems.

Stabler's vision for the development of the Lehigh Valley began to take shape in the 1990s, but progress proved elusive. Stabler had always predicted that the project would take 20 to 25 years to be completed, and was aware he would not be alive to see his dream fulfilled. What he did witness were essentially minor achievements. The Center Valley Club and its upscale 18-hole public golf course opened in June 1992, and later in the decade it would host a pair of PGA Nike golf tournaments. In the meantime plans for a three-story office building fell through and only a handful of companies located facilities in the massive site. In 1994 an ALDI Foods distribution center opened on a 66-acre lot, followed by offices of a law firm and AD computers, a payroll processing company. In 1995 SPJ Properties of Parsippany, New Jersey, was hired to lure research and technology-oriented companies and other major businesses, but nothing materialized from these efforts.

On December 30, 1997, a week after he turned 89 years old, Donald Stabler died at his Bal Harbour, Florida, winter home. Eight years younger, his widow inherited most of his fortune, although a great deal of that was already earmarked for the charities the couple had supported for so many years. She would live until February 2005 when she passed away in Florida at the age of 90. Before he died, Stabler groomed his successor, Cyril C. Dunmire, Jr., who was president of Protection Services and then in 1995 became president and chief operating officer of Stabler Companies. Upon Stabler's death, he became chairman of the board. The Stabler Companies carried on without its founder, the individual subsidiaries continuing to pursue their own agendas, while complimentary businesses were added. In 1999 ASTI Transportation Systems, a developer of intelligent transportation systems based in New Castle, Delaware, was brought into the fold. Stabler Companies then formed SCI Products to hold a number of patents and provide a sales force to represent the products of Work Area Protection and Precision Solar Controls.

Although movement had been slow, Donald Stabler's pet development project began to finally take shape following his death, albeit it required some deviation from his original plan for Stabler Center. In 2000 Liberty Properties Trust broke ground on a $10 million, 70,000-square-foot office building that when it was opened was immediately occupied. In March 2001 plans were announced to build a 225-room hotel at the entrance of Center Valley Golf Course, but difficult economic condition forced that project to be put on hold. A similar situation occurred with Optimum Corporation, a Florida Internet company, which in July 2001 agreed to build a $3 million, 25,000 square-foot research and development. Several months later, due to a severe slump in the telecommunications industry, the project was shelved. A minor accomplish in 2002 was the opening of the Allentown Business School at Stabler Center. Also, about 100 homes were built in a residential district that could accommodate ten times that number.

Part of the reason for slow progress at Stabler Center was a desire to stick as close as possible to Donald Stabler's vision. Officials at Stabler Land Development had been extremely selective about tenants over the years, because the company was privately owned and did not have debt to service. This factor, along with difficulties in gaining subdivision permits, prevented Stabler Center from taking advantage of the Internet-boom of the late 1990s, which in many ways turned out to be a blessing in disguise. To help spur development, local officials, desperate for tax revenues, made changes to township zoning ordinances, which would allow for the development of smaller office buildings at Stabler Center, as well as a taller conference center, restaurants, and boutiques. The zoning changes had the desired effect and within two years Stabler Center, in the words of the Morning Call, emerged as "one of the region's hottest development sites." Olympus America agreed to move its headquarters there from Long Island; plans for a 427,000-square-foot upscale mall were announced; D&B Corporation was also looking to build a 167,000-square-foot building to replace its Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, offices; and in December 2005 Sierra Management Company broke ground on the first of a three-building, campus-style complex, with one of the unit devoted to medical tenants. Sierra owned land in the Stabler Center on which it planned to build the long-proposed executive conference center, Saucon Creek Resort. Plans were also in the works for a 372-home "active adult" community. While many of these projects were not what Donald Stabler had in mind when he bought the old New Jersey Zinc property a generation earlier, there was still plenty of land available should a major technology research tenant materialize.

Stabler Scholarship Fund, the Stabler Teaching Award, and the Dorothy L. Stabler Tower on Lehigh's Mountaintop Campus. The Stablers believed education is a key to both your future and that of the generations to follow. The complexities that face us today, tomorrow, and henceforth require solutions that can only be solved from a foundation of knowledge.

Born on Dec. 9, 1914, in Dayton, Ohio, Dorothy was the daughter of Ralph and Grace Witwer. She married Donald B. Stabler in 1952 and upon his death in 1997, accepted the position of Vice President and Director of Stabler Companies Inc. and its subsidiaries. She was also a trustee of the Donald B. and Dorothy L. Stabler Foundation and served on the board of trustees of Messiah College, Harrisburg Area Community College Foundation, and Woods Services in Langhorne, Pennsylvania.

Donald Stabler '30 passed away in 1997. He married Lois Irene Paulhamus Aft. 1946. She was born 1928.

Notes for Rev. Charles William Ulmer, Jr.:

Rev. Charles William Ulmer went to be with our Lord on Feb. 27, 2015 at the Aultman Compassionate Care Center. He was the son of Charles and Margaret (Dangle) Ulmer, and was raised on the family farm in Rose Valley, Pennsylvania. with his five brothers and five sisters. He attended Sharon Center High School near Medina, Ohio his first year, but returned home where he graduated from the Williamsport High School in the class of 1944. He graduated from Cleveland Bible College (Malone University) in 1948. He pastored two Evangelical United Brethren Churches in McZena, Ohio. While there, he went to Ashland College and graduated with a B.A. degree, followed by one year at Ashland Seminary. He then moved to Naperville, Illinois for two years, where he completed his seminary at Evangelical Theological Seminary and received his B.D. degree. While there, he served the Pontiac Evangelical United Brethren Church. He returned to Ohio, where he received an appointment from the East Ohio Annual Conference as Pastor of the McDonaldsville St. Paul Evangelical United Brethren Church (now United Methodist) in 1955. He served McDonaldsville for 32 years, retiring in 1987, and was given the title of Pastor Emeritus by the congregation. While there and as the church family grew, he was involved in three building programs: the parsonage, the educational unit, and the addition to the sanctuary and social room. Following retirement he became Pastor of Visitation for 14 years at Westbrook Park United Methodist Church in Canton, OH, retiring in 2001. In the United Methodist Church Conference, he served on the Board of Ordained Ministry and on the Council of Ministries in the Canton District, and served as Youth Director for the Canton District several years.

He was a compassionate, humble Pastor, living an exemplary life doing God's work, putting other people's needs before his. He was always "On Call", 24 hours a day, seven days a week, even postponing vacations because someone needed him, whether it be church family or someone outside the church. We will miss his beautiful, meaningful prayers, both at church services or functions, and our family gatherings, and the annual reading of the Christmas story with the family on Christmas Day. Their large garden was his & Lois' hobby.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife of almost 70 years, Lois I. (Paulhamus) Ulmer, three daughters, Marvalene (Dennis) Matson, Marcia Ulmer, and Diane (Kim) Morrison, and one son, Charles W. (Sheryl) Ulmer, II, PhD. He is also survived by four grandchildren, Denise (Dylan) Palmer, Eric (Jennifer) Matson, Melissa (Christopher) Coultas, and Amanda (Derek Ehrman) Matson, PhD, five Great-grandsons, and one Great-granddaughter, two sisters, two sisters-in-law, and one brother-in-law. Along with his parents, he was preceded in death by three sisters, and five brothers, three brothers-in-law, and three sisters-in-laws.

Funeral services will be held Sunday, March 8, at 2 PM at Westbrook Park United Methodist Church with Dr. Joel Adkins officiating. Friends may call at Karlo-Libby Funeral Home on Saturday, March 7, from 4 – 8 PM and one hour prior to the service at the church. Memorials may be made to the Meals on Wheels of the Westbrook Park United Methodist Church, 2521 12th Street Northwest, Canton, Ohio

He was born 01 Dec 1926 in Montoursville, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 28 May 2013.

Notes for Andrew Walter Stabler, Jr.:

Andrew W. Stabler Jr., who rose from clerk at The Grit, which billed itself as "America's Greatest Family Newspaper," to president of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Association while providing generous support to his family and community, died on Tuesday. He was 86. He died of heart failure in his home in Montoursville. Stabler's strong Christian ethics defined his life and guided his business practices, extensive donations and volunteer work. He served on the board of the American Rescue Workers and for many years volunteered as a chaplain in the Susquehanna Health System. He was an active member of Community Baptist Church in Montoursville, and in the past had served as an elder there.

His business savvy enabled him to guide the Grit through years of growth, until he became President of its publishing company and Lamco Communications. Later, he served as chair of the Christian Businessmen's Committee and president of Williamsport's Industrial Management Club. While making careful management decisions, Stabler also freely gave his time and money to innumerable worthy causes. His family, friends and city remember him for endless generosity. Stabler was born on Dec. 1, 1926. After graduating from Montoursville High School, he entered the Air Force and joined the occupying troops in Italy at the end of World War II. When he returned home, he earned a business administration degree from Bucknell University.

His survivors include his wife of 62 years, Dorothy Ulmer Stabler of Montoursville; his sons, Dr. Craig Stabler in Williamsport, Kurt Stabler in Dunn, North Carolina, and Kevin Stabler in Bolivia; his daughter, Sandra Stabler Diehl in Park City, Utah; his sister, Edna Strouble in Montoursville; 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A memorial service to celebrate Andrew's life will be held on Friday, May 31 at 6 p.m. at Community Baptist Church, Rt. 87, Montoursville, with Pastor Michael E. Wright officiating. Friends will be received following the service in the church foyer. In lieu of flowers, the family request that memorials be made to Ministry to Missionaries, 145 Dohl Road, Berwick, Pennsylvania 18603, for its Bolivia School Project or the missions fund at Community Baptist Church, Route 87, Montoursville, Pennsylvania 17754. She married David Putnam Lewis 12 Sep 1936 in Pennington Co, South Dakota. He was born 12 Mar 1909 in Herrin, Williamson Co, Illinois, and died 25 Oct 1992 in Sherman Oaks, Los Angeles Co, California.

Notes for David Putnam Lewis:

David Putnam Lewis (March 12, 1909 - October 25, 1982) was a screenwriter born in Illinois. His first writing credit was for a 1947 TV adaptation of A Christmas Carol. In the 1960s, Lewis wrote extensively for Western TV shows such as Outlaws, The Wide Country and The Virginian, and many of his scripts were co-written with Andy Lewis, with whom he scripted the 1971 movie Klute. Between 1973 and 1976, Dave Lewis worked in partnership with Booker Bradshaw. Among the scripts they co-wrote were TV Shows such as Planet of the Apes (episode "The Horse Race"), Columbo and Ellery Queen. Lewis seems to have retired from screenwriting around 1980.

Oct. 30, 1992 - David P. Lewis; Creator of First TV Soap Opera

David P. Lewis, who took a handful of actors, a $300-per-episode budget and a plot line from his own saccharine novel and melded them into television's first soap opera, is dead. Lewis, an advertising copy writer, TV producer and director, was 83 when he died Sunday in a Burbank hospital of what his family called a short illness. In 1945 he was producing a radio show in Omaha for the Caples advertising company when he noticed a story in Life magazine about the commercial viability of TV. He persuaded his bosses to establish a TV division in New York and got himself appointed its head.

When the war ended, he approached the DuMont "network," a loose affiliation of Allen B. Du Mont's television interests and one of two TV broadcasters in the nation. NBC was the other. Du Mont, Lewis recalled in a 1981 interview, was desperate for programming of any kind. It was presenting old films, amateur acts or "anything they could get their hands on" during the nine hours of weekly programming it shared with NBC in New York City. Thus was born "Faraway Hill," a 30-minute, five-actor tale of Karen St. John, an attractive widow who found love, intrigue and a new life with her cousin's son on a primitive Kansas dirt farm, hundreds of geographic miles and cultural light years away from her sophisticated existence in Manhattan.

The first broadcast (live, of course) was on Oct. 2, 1946, from the basement of Wanamaker's department store in Greenwich Village in a makeshift studio for DuMont's WNEW. It was a Wednesday evening, noted Lewis, because DuMont was the only network permitted to broadcast that night. Primitive surveys showed that in 1946 there were 3,200 New York City households that contained television sets, and it was estimated that a whopping 400 of them watched the turmoil on "Faraway Hill," a novel Lewis had started years earlier but never finished. Despite the show's success, it ran only 10 episodes. Lewis declared at the time that it was only an experiment. It never made a cent and had no commercials. So he wrote the melodrama's demise into its final episode over the outcry of faithful fans. He wanted, he said years later, not a successful series but to "test the mind of the viewer."

He remained in TV to direct one of the first, if not the first, detective series--"Barney Blake, Police Reporter"--for NBC, but he pulled back from television when networks began to take programming power from sponsors. Lewis returned to advertising, moving to California in 1959, where he wrote scripts for some TV series on the side. But not another "Faraway Hill." "I've never been a fan of soap operas," he admitted.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothy, a son, a daughter and three grandchildren.

Marriage Notes for Dorothy Waltz and David Lewis:

At a charming wedding, at Camp Judson, Pactola, Saturday Sept. 12, 1936, Miss Dorothy Hope Waltz, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. A. Pierce Waltz, of Chadron, was married to David Putnam Lewis, of Chicago. Only members of the bride's family were present, each having a part in the service. The Rev. Mr. Waltz performed the ceremony. Mrs. Waltz gave her daughter's hand in marriage. Miss Mary Lenore Waltz attended her sister as bride maid, and Richard Langhorne Waltz, her brother, acted as best man. The wedding took place before a massive fireplace with burning logs. The log cabin was elaborately decorated with autumn leaves, large ferns and roses. After the ceremony the family enjoyed a wedding dinner by candle light. After dinner the newly-wed couple left for Sylvan Lake, returning later for a few days honeymoon in the cabin. The Waltz family were long residents of South Dakota, before going to Chadron eight years ago. Mrs. Lewis is a graduate of Sioux Falls college. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will make several visits in this vicinity before returning to Chicago, where they will make their home.

766. Rev. Dr. Richard Langhorne<sup>9</sup> Waltz (Abraham Pierce<sup>8</sup>, George William<sup>7</sup>, Wilhelm<sup>6</sup>, Johannes (Johann Georg)<sup>5</sup>, Johann Georg<sup>4</sup> Walz, Johann Georg<sup>3</sup>, Johann Niklas<sup>2</sup>, Hans Peter<sup>1</sup>) was born 13 May 1926 in Ipswich, South Dakota, and died 22 Apr 2003 in Kansas City, Missouri. He married Hazel (Becky) Beckenridge 1950. She was born 20 Feb 1932 in De Soto, Jefferson Co, Missouri, and died 08 May 2014 in Overland Park, Johnson Co, Kansas.

Notes for Rev. Dr. Richard Langhorne Waltz:

1952 - Waltz remembers the letter that came two months before he was graduated from Washburn University. He had groomed himself through college to become a high-profile management member of uncle Don Breckenridge's hotel chain. "I got this letter from my uncle," said Waltz, the 33-year-old head pro at Overland Park Racquet Club. "It said, 'We had this board of directors meeting. They decided there was going to be this no-nepotism rule.'"

So much for family connections. Waltz was crushed. Waltz, a former basketball, football and tennis star, thought he had his life mapped out. Instead, he started down another route, working for Hallmark Cards. From there he went to Woodside and Homestead country clubs as an assistant pro. Five years ago Waltz returned to Overland Park. Heaven was 14 indoor courts and a year-round junior program to fill them. The rapport he developed with juniors at Woodside and Homestead carried over. Today Waltz probably is the king of the juniors in Kansas City. His former students include national-caliber players like Sam Fotopoulos, Dave Thies, Kim Clingan and John Rippey. His latest prodigy, Andrew Schmidt, is headed to Oklahoma from Shawnee Mission West and is ranked third in the Missouri Valley boys 18s. Schmidt beat the No. 1 player in the Missouri Valley, John Schneider of St. Louis. in the consolation round of the boys national 18s hard-courts recently in Burlingame, California. "I could promise them (Overland Park) $30,000 to $50,000 before I walked in the door," Waltz said. "You just look at Overland Park. That's where the majority of juniors play. I don't want to get the other clubs mad but . . . ". . . but that's the way it is. Maybe Waltz's success comes from his ability to relate to his juniors. The relationships are more friend-friend than coach-player. "John is a big kid," said Fotopoulos, a former player at Shawnee Mission East, Texas and Oklahoma. "That's a way to describe him. He can talk in a way they understand. The one thing I admire about him is he always had time to play with me."

If Waltz doesn't have time, he tries to make it. Fifty to 60 hours a week are taken up with lessons in the summer. That falls to 40 to 50 hours in the fall and winter. The only indication of a weakness on the solid 6-foot-2, 195-pound frame is a scar on the right knee from a football injury in college. "I could still do this until I'm 65 as long as I'm healthy and in shape," Waltz said."

Richard L. Waltz, 76, of Kansas City, Missouri, died April 22, 2003, at the Specialty Hospital of MidAmerica. Funeral services will be held at the First Baptist Church of Kansas City, Kansas at 3 p.m. on Friday, April 25. Friends may call 6-8 p.m. Thursday, April 24, at the Porter Funeral Home, 8535 Monrovia, Lenexa, Kansas. A visitation will also be held one hour prior to the service at the church. Cremation. Rev. Waltz was born May 13, 1926 in Ipswich, South Dakota, to Rev. A.P. and Mrs. Anna Waltz. He served in the infantry in World War II and was a charter member of the U.S. Army Ground Forces Band playing the trumpet. He received a degree in Mechanical Engineering from Iowa State University in 1949. He attended Central Baptist Seminary receiving a Bachelors, Masters and a Doctorate in Theology in 1959.

He was the pastor of Besonia Baptist Church, Kansas City, Missouri (1950-1959); the First Baptist Church of Parsons, Kansas (1959-1964); the Director of Evangelism & Church Extension for the Kansas Baptist Convention (1964-1970); Director of Personal Services for American Baptist Churches, USA in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania (1970-1975); pastor of the First Baptist Church of Kansas City, Kansas (1975-1985); and the Executive Minister of the American Baptist Churches of the Dakotas (1986-1991). He was a board member emeritus for Central Baptist Seminary, a member of Prairie Baptist Church, Prairie Village, Kansas, and a former member of the Kansas City, Kansas Rotary Club.

Survivors include his wife of 53 years, Becky; sons, John and his wife, Marlene, Kansas City, Missouri, Paul and his wife, Jane, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Charles of Los Angeles, California; daughter, Melanie Lowe and her husband, Doug, Overland Park, Kansas; grandchildren, Bret and Blair Waltz, Lauren Waltz and Jennifer, James and Jonathan Lowe; sisters, Dorothy Lewis, Fresno, California and Lenore Wade, North Kansas City; brother, Allen and his wife, Doris. June 30, 2016 - When Kurt Stabler and his family moved to North Carolina nine years ago, they were unsure as to whether they would continue to farm. Previously, Kurt and his family had lived in Pennsylvania, where they ran a successful, small-scale farm. They moved to Dunn, North Carolina so that they could attend Foundations Bible Collegiate Church and so that their children could attend the academy and college sponsored by the church. Crownview Farm is one of the premier vendors at the WakeMed Farmers Market. They are also unique in that the farm is operated for the benefit of the students it employs from nearby Foundations Bible College. The students who work at Crownview Farm use the money from the sale of their crops to help pay for their college education(s). Owner of Crownview Farm, Kurt Stabler, explains: We're not a nonprofit, but we kind of run [the farm] that way. My wife and I don't make anything off of the farm; it's just for the kids.

History of Crownview Farm -We moved from Pennsylvania about nine years ago, and we were doing some farming (which was small scale) up there; and when we came here, we didn't really know if we were going to continue. We bought Crownview Farm in 2010; and I work at Foundations Bible College, which is right next door to our farm. We have five children that are here in this area. My son, Timothy, actually runs the operations in the field and oversees the other kids who work here. We really embarked on this farm for them [the students]. Originally, we started out with one young man who needed help going to school, and last year, we had about twelve different kids involved.

My mother grew up on a dairy farm in Pennsylvania, so I kind of had something in the background. Also, when I was young, my grandparents had gardens, and we did a little bit. When we were living in Pennsylvania, we bought a small farm. We just started with a garden, and we read and learned. At that point, I was actually working in town, in printing. I'd come home in the afternoon and work with the kids. I had an older son who thought he wanted to farm, and he did it for a couple of years before he changed career paths. So, when he got out, the rest of the family just took it over. We had several children in the early teens back then, and rather than go into town and get a job, we decided – "Well, let's just try to do this and make it work here on the farm." From there, it just kept growing, and it went so well that I finally quit my town job, and we started doing it on a larger scale.

We've been farming now for about 15 – 16 years, and we don't do anything original. We've read and talked to other farmers. For example, we had some really good Amish friends that taught us a lot – and you just read, read, read, and you try things and get better. My kids would tell you that one of my favorite sayings is, "Well, next year..." because you start, and you plant, and you see what happens about 60 days later, and then it's too late for this season. We're not certified organic, but we do an all-natural, chemical-free approach, so we need things that are disease resistant.

We try things all of the time. We buy our seeds from catalogs and online, and it's pretty much commercial seed. Most of what we grow, you wouldn't find the seed packets at Lowes or Walmart. We're also taking things fresh to the local markets, so we want stuff that's tender, that's tasty – and oftentimes, what's at the big stores does well at the store...but you put it in the field, and it may not taste the best. For example, we've tried a dozen different broccoli types to get it to the ones that work best for us, and we've tried a bunch of different lettuce. All of our lettuce is selected to take the heat as well as be flavorful. I know there's a big debate out there whether a natural, chemical-free approach is any safer. All of the chemical industry came out of what they learned in WWII- so for thousands of years, people were farming without chemicals, and they made it work. We're just a throwback to the way it was when my mom was a kid on the farm; we use manures and rock powders, and compost.

My property is about 5.25 acres, and we'll have about 2.5 acres in production. We use every bit of space that's available to us. The timing of the weather is the biggest challenge. We've got to do things when we have a window of opportunity. When we get behind, we get in trouble. Many of our crops are transplanted every week, so you have a continuous batch of stuff. Something like the squash gets planted every three weeks, and it will be harvested over a long period of time – but lettuce? You cut it, and it's gone. So, next week, you've got to have the next batch in there. If we get behind, we could dip at the market and not have something that everyone's looking for...or if the weather is extra warm and things grow quickly, two batches could get ready at the same time, and we might not be able to sell it all.

Most of the kids who come to work at the farm don't know anything about agriculture or farming. However, most of the things that we do are not hard to learn at all. We try to teach the kids not only what we're doing but why we're doing it. We want them to learn the principles behind things so that they understand what they're doing (versus feeling like they're just doing a task). For a lot of kids, this is their first outside-of-the-home job that they've had, so they have to learn how to work, how fast to work, how well to work, etc...and that's a good process. This is a great environment for them to learn in.

This is a biological, living system. Today, farming has gone more towards a business model. Now, you've got to be a businessman to make a living in farming – but you can't treat crops like machines! I worked in printing. It's a lot different to work around printing presses and folding machines than it is crops. Crops are living, and you've got to treat it as such and respond to its needs. The soil for us is everything. We try to take care of that and be in harmony with the way God created it, and it will grow us crops.

This is for these kids. In order for us to make money for them, we've got to produce a really good product that's in demand out there. People are wanting chemical-free stuff, and that's what we do. Crownview Farm is based out of Dunn, NC. You can visit Crownview Farm at the WakeMed Farmers Market, Tuesdays, at the Raleigh Campus from 10am – 2pm throughout the summer.

He was born 03 Dec 1933 in Jersey Shore, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 06 Apr 1987 in Williamsport, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Ann Louise Waltz:

Ann (Waltz) Thomas, cherished mother, caring sister, and beloved aunt, departed this world on Sept. 23, 2022, at Geisinger Medical Center, Danville, with her son Greg by her side, and was met by her loving husband, Gary, on the cusp of their wedding anniversary. Ann was born on Feb. 11, 1940, in Williamsport, the daughter of the late Howell and Evelyn (Paulhamus) Waltz, where she was raised on the family farm, and then resided just above her homestead in a house she and Gary built together, and where they enjoyed and created many happy memories together, and for many other people. She attended the one-room schools of Steam Mill and Stoney Gap until ninth grade, when she went to Williamsport, and graduated in the class of 1958 from the "old" high school.

Immediately after high school, she worked briefly at the Grit, and then she went to the former Bank of Newberry, where she worked for many years before Greg came along and she became a full-time mother until 1990, when she went back to the workforce and worked for Jersey Shore State Bank where she worked until her retirement in 2005. She was an active member of the State Road United Methodist Church, where she was the organist for over 60 years, taught Sunday School, helped with VBS, cooked meals, played piano at the various nursing homes, was the altar guild, etc. If the church doors were open, she was there doing something or at least helping out in the background. She was a volunteer for Meals on Wheels for many years, and enjoyed the friendships she made not just with the clients, but also with the other volunteers as well. She was also a life-member of the Blooming Grove Historical Society, and was proud of the fact that her family was one of the original settlers in Anthony Township, and according to lore, the location of her house was one of the first locations in the township that was cleared.

She met the one and only love of her life, Gary Thomas, on a blind date at a bowling alley, and they were wed at the State Road church on September 25, 1965, and together, they celebrated 21 years before his passing on April 6, 1987.

She is survived by her son, Greg, of Jersey Shore; her brother, Marvin (Kathryn) Waltz, Jersey Shore; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

A funeral service will be held 10 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 28 at State Road United Methodist Church, 6738 Daughertys Run Road, Linden, with her Pastor Elizabeth Jackson officiating. She will be laid to rest beside her husband in Wildwood Cemetery immediately after the service. A viewing will be held Tuesday, Sept. 27 from 6 to 8 p.m. at Knight-Confer Funeral Home 1914 Memorial Ave., Williamsport. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Ann's name to Blooming Grove Historical Society, 397 Dunkard Church Rd, Cogan Station, PA 17728.

Notes for Orville Junior Schmidt, Jr.:

Never one to acquire or take stock in material possessions or the riches of many, Orville Schmidt enjoyed the simple pleasures in life. A hard working man, he provided well for the family he loved deeply in his own quiet way. With a faith filled heart, he served his community while his keen sense of humor added much to the days of those around him. Sadly missed, he will be long remembered in the hearts of those he leaves behind. Orville's story began in the year 1925 as a sense of joy filled the air. Charlie Chaplin flicks and Babe Ruth baseball was all the rage while the Roaring Twenties brought forth the Charleston and the infamous flapper. Not only was America experiencing a time of rapid growth, a young couple from Portland, Indiana was as well. Raymond and Marie Schmidt were blessed with the birth of their first child, a son they named Orville on April 21, 1925. Hard working farmers, Orville was a welcome addition to their lives.

While just a two-year-old toddler, Orville's family packed up their life in Indiana and headed north to Michigan, settling in the town of Kendall. Over time young Orville became a big brother to four siblings, Pauline, Everett, Richard and Frances. During his youth he occasionally helped his father clean the Kalamazoo Speedway which was an exciting time for him. As the onset of the Great Depression cast a shadow of hardship and struggle for all from coast to coast, Orville's family was no exception. Like many during this time in small rural communities, he attended school in a one room schoolhouse in Kendall before eventually setting out to find work. Before long Orville found himself with a family of his own. He married a young woman named Elsie Like and together they made their home in Plainwell. It was a good place to raise a family, and they were soon blessed with two children, Karen and Jim. Orville supported his family with his work at Allied Paper which he acquired in the 1950s. He began there as a truck loader and then as a mechanic. In time he worked his way into becoming a truck driver for the paper mill and after 38 years of dedicated employment there, he eventually retired. Sadly, his wife, Elsie passed away in 1974.

Often described as a quiet fellow, Orville had quite a sense of humor. He was very personable and enjoyed the company of close friends and family. However, when his sister, Pauline wanted him to meet a friend of hers, Orville simply put aside the phone number of Peggy Rhodes for several weeks before deciding to do anything with it. He did, however, finally make that phone call, and before they knew it they were exchanging vows of marriage. On May 26, 1977 he married Margaret "Peggy" Schmidt in the front room of their home.

At the age of 52, Orville's life turned in an exciting new direction. It was then when he accepted the Lord into his life, was baptized and became a dedicated member of the First Baptist Church of Plainwell. With faith as his guide, Orville found a sense of contentment and new meaning in his life. He worked as a constable for the City of Plainwell police department for a few years, and spent over 50 years volunteering on both the Plainwell and Gun Plain Township fire departments. With a shared love for travel, Orville and Peggy traveled often and nearly each summer enjoyed visiting the state of Pennsylvania. Among his varied interests, Orville liked dancing and was an avid polka dancer. He collected belt buckles and had quite a sweet tooth he fancied satisfying well into his later years. In time health issues overcame Orville and at the age of 86, he passed away on Friday, July 29, 2011. Gone but never to be forgotten, he will be dearly missed.

Orville's family will receive friends Monday, August 1, 2011 from 4-7 PM at the Life Story Funeral Home, 120 S. Woodhams, Plainwell (685-5881). Funeral services will be held Tuesday, August 2, 2011, 11:00 AM at the First Baptist Church of Plainwell. Burial will be at the Hillside Cemetery. Orville's family includes his wife, Margaret "Peggy"; children: Karen Rocha and Jim (Liz) Schmidt, both of Kalamazoo; two step-children: Daniel (Jan) Rhodes of Portage and Diana (Dale) Curtis of Grand Rapids; nine grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; sister, Pauline Anderson of Plainwell; his brothers: Everett (Pat) Schmidt of Otsego and Richard Schmidt of Plainwell; numerous nieces and nephews. Along with his first wife, Elsie, Orville was also preceded in death by his sister, Frances Pittsley.

Notes for Constance Lou (Connie) Heim:

Constance "Connie" H. Metherell peacefully passed away on February 26th in Salt Lake City, Utah after a New Year's diagnosis of brain cancer. She was born in Montoursville, Pennsylvania on June 12, 1933. She was the daughter of the late Luther and Constance A. Heim. Connie married Robert D. Metherell in 1951. While working for the National Park Service they raised three children: Kenneth (Kay), Michael, and Kathryn (Dayle) Flanigan.

Connie had the opportunity to live in many beautiful national parks from the Northeast to the Southwest. While living in Cedar City, Utah, she was preceded in death by her husband in the winter of 1973. She enjoyed old friends, travel, and meeting new people. She began teaching alpine skiing at Brian Head, Utah. That work and a desire to experience city life, led her to Salt Lake City, Utah where she taught skiing at Park City. Connie was an avid reader with a great love of learning. Many charitable organizations have been grateful for her generous support. She was a good friend and kept in touch with many folks she had enjoyed throughout her life. Family was first for Connie and she always felt lucky to have spent good time with her four grandsons and seven great grandchildren. Connie often expressed gratitude for the spouses who joined the family along the way. Her great presence and beautiful smile will be missed by all who called her Connie, Mom, Grandma, Goldie, and friend.

To reflect and celebrate her life, there will be two separate gatherings of family and friends. One will be held in Salt Lake City on March 17. Summer will find her family traveling to Montoursville, Pennsylvania where she will rest in a cemetery with her husband, mother and father. In lieu of flowers, Connie wanted donations made to the hurricane relief fund for the island of Anguilla, BWI. She loved the many friends she made there and it was her favorite travel destination. Children of Carolyn Metzger and Galen Menne are:

- 1669 i. Michele Janeen<sup>11</sup> Menne, born 07 Nov 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts; died 19 Mar 2016 in Bowie, Maryland. She married John Forney.

Notes for Michele Janeen Menne:

Michele Janeen Menne Forney, 49, on Saturday March 19, 2016 died of brain cancer at the home of her parents in Bowie, Maryland. Michele was born on November 7, 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts, the daughter of Rev. Galen Menne and Carolyn Menne. Mrs. Forney was a beloved media specialist (school librarian) in Prince Georges County Schools. Prior to her illness which began in November 2014, Michele was librarian both at High Bridge Elementary School in Bowie, Maryland and Seabrook Elementary School in Seabrook, Maryland. She previously was a librarian at Anne Arundel County Schools: Jessup Elementary School and Manor View Elementary School. Michele graduated from Eleanor Roosevelt High School in Greenbelt, Maryland in 1984. She attended Towson University and received a bachelor's degree in mass communications in 1988 and later earned a Master's Degree in library science.

She was a member of Pasadena United Methodist Church, sang in the choir and was elected as president of the United Methodist Women. As a librarian, she was president of the Maryland Association of State Librarians and served on the Black-Eyed Susan Committee to select children's books to be read by children at participating schools. Michele was also a member of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Bowie Chapter, where she has served as secretary.

Eulogy for Michele Forney-part 1 - Michele was born on November 7, 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts to her parents Carolyn and Galen Menne. Her parents moved from Pennsylvania to Ware so that Galen could be a student pastor of the Methodist Church in that town while also being a student at Boston University School of Theology. As many of you know, Michele worked as a school librarian. Since she was always selecting children's books to be part of the Black-Eyed Susan nominations for the year or reading to the children that came to the library, we could not resist reading a child's book that she received this past Christmas. The title is "On the Night You Were Born" and the author is Nancy Tillman. Michele this book is dedicated to you.

On the night you were born, the moon smiled with such wonder that the stars peeked in to see you and the night wind whispered, "Life will never be the same." Because there has never been anyone Like you...ever in the world. So enchanted with you were the wind and rain that they whispered the sound of your wonderful name. The sound of your name is a magical one. Let's say it aloud before we go on. MICHELE! It sailed through the farmland high one the breeze. Who in the world is exactly like you? Who who who. Over the ocean and through the trees... Until everyone heard it and everyone knew of the one and only ever you. Not once had there been such eyes, such a nose, such silly, wiggly wonderful toes. In fact, I think I'll count to three so you can wiggle your toes for me.

When the polar bears heard, they danced until dawn. From far away places the geese flew home. The moon stayed up until morning next day. And none of the ladybugs flew away. So whenever you doubt just how special you are and you wonder who loved you, how much and how far, listening for the honking. High in the sky. (They're singing a song to remember you by.) Or notice the bears asleep at the zoo. (It's because they've been dancing all night for you!) Or drift off to sleep to the sound of the wind (Listen closely...it's whispering your name again!) If the moon stays up until morning one day, or a lady bug lands and decides to stay, or a little bird sits at your window awhile, it's because they're all hoping to see your smile. For never before in story or rhyme (not even once upon a time has the world ever known a you, my friend, and it never will, never ever again... Heaven blew every trumpet and played every horn on the wonderful, marvelous night you were born.

Michele entered the world and was cared for by her parents and always surrounded by a loving and caring family of those who were in the church. Five times Michele moved with her family—(from Ware to Peabody, Massachusetts) then (from Peabody to Hagerstown, Maryland,) then from Hagerstown to Lothian, Maryland,) then from (Lothian to Damascus, Maryland,) and lastly (Damascus to Glenn Dale, Md.). Michele was always making new friends at each place she lived, then would leave them and say goodbye and start all over. When Michele grew up she kept on doing what she was good at—making new friends. She has made many, many friends and they stood by her during her illness. They visited her, they cheered her up, they brought food, they brought flowers, they brought gifts and most importantly of all was that they remembered her in their prayers.

Michele had many happy days in her early years. When she was just two years old, her mother would read a book over and over again and soon Michele was able to say the words out loud on one page and know what words to say when the pages were turned. When she was four years old, her brother Jeremy was born. Michele loved her baby brother and as they grew up they played together, Michele especially enjoyed the trips to see her grandparents, aunts and uncles, and cousins in Pennsylvania. She loved the sights and sounds of living in the country and getting to know the farm animals. She went with her family on summer vacations to the town where she was born. Michele and Jeremy would sit in the back seat of the car with the ice chest in between so that they did not fight.

Michele loved going to the library and checking out books. What a joy it was for her when she was able to read books herself. It opened up a whole new world. One assignment she had in elementary school was for her to write a children's book. She did write a book and treasured it. She brought it to her school library one day and showed it to the students. Maybe one day the students that saw her book will write a book too or perhaps even become a school librarian. Michele attended three different high schools- Damascus High School in Damascus, DuVal High School in Lanham, and Eleanor High School in Greenbelt. Michele was an alto and sang in the choirs at each of the schools including the production of the Sound of Music. In addition, she received varsity letters in both cross country and track. Her goal was to get to state competition in each of these sports Michele's first job was at Baskins and Robins dipping ice cream. In 1984, she graduated from Eleanor Roosevelt High School. Then she went on to Towson University, graduating in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in mass communications.

Eulogy for Michele Menne Forney –part 2 - Shortly after completing college, Michele married John Forney, who was a member of the Glenn Dale Church. Michele began a job working for The Baltimore-Washington Corridor Chamber of Commerce in Laurel. Soon her son Colin was born. So she ended her job so that she could take care of him. When he was a couple of years old, she would read books to Colin. From that time on until his teenage years, she made sure that at every birthday party she read a book to all of the children attending. Michele looked forward to family vacations and was a good mother. When Colin was in elementary school Michele encouraged him to participate in activities within his church and school. For a time Colin took lessons at playing the violin and he was in the Cub Scouts.

Things changed for Michele when her marriage ended in divorce. She worked part-time and then went back to school at Towson University. From there, she received a Master of Science degree in library science. She became a librarian in Anne Arundel County Schools—Jessup Elementary School and Manor View Elementary School. Michele was the fourth generation of school teachers. Later she became a librarian at Prince George's County Schools—Seabrook Elementary School and High Bridge Elementary School. Michele lobbied the school board seeking more money in the school budget for library services.

In the years before her illness, she worked 3 days at one school and 2 days at the other. Michele was a member of the Maryland Association for School Librarians since 2004 and served as president in 2010-2011. She was also a member of the Black Eyed Susan Awards Committee since 2006 and helped nominate the children's books to be read in Maryland elementary schools for each year. At her schools, Michele encouraged students to read these books and then select the book or books that they liked the best. She always planned an ice cream party for all children that participated. Her favorite annual event was to attend the National Book Festivals held in Washington. Michele's biggest thrill was to meet an author of a children's book and then have him or her autograph the book. She would even write to some of the authors telling them how much the children at her school liked the book.

Michele's life changed when a friend introduced her to Michael Morris. They dated, became close friends, and after awhile they became engaged. Michael, Michele and Colin traveled to Florida to visit a friend. While there, Michael became ill, was taken to the hospital, and there he died. Michele went through a rough time in her life. Then someone suggested that she attend a meeting made up of persons who were grieving because of some loss that they had experienced. There she met a woman who would become her closest friend and soon they both were having some fun times not alone but together. Michele always showed ways to care for her friends. She liked to send greeting cards—birthday, sympathy, anniversary, thinking of you—just to name a few occasions. When someone was hurting, she was there to listen.

Michele found time not only to attend her church, but participate in many ways. She attended Baldwin Memorial United Methodist Church and then Pasadena United Methodist Church. She sang in the choir, was the story teller at Vacation Bible School, participated in Christmas plays, helped at Bazaars, and was a member of the United Methodist Women. At Pasadena Church she was president of the United Methodist Women prior to her illness. The summer before she became ill she went with her church work team to Camp Hope. Camp Hope is a project stationed in Frostburg, Maryland which brings together over the summer adult teams of workers to make repairs to the homes of shut-ins and persons with low incomes. Michele enjoyed this outreach program so much and planned on going again.

Michele also experienced some exciting times of travel. In 2003 she and her grandmother went to London, England because her parents were living there that summer. Her grandmother who was in her eighties had never ridden on an air plane before. Michele had so much fun showing her grandmother around. Michele and Colin went on two cruises to the Caribbean. Michele had other interests as well. On Friday nights she would play bunko. She was also a member of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Bowie Chapter, where she served for a time as secretary.

Michele first discovered that she had brain cancer in November 2014. She moved into the home of her parents in Bowie. She entered into a series of chemo and radiation treatments at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. Many friends came to visit. Many friends kept her in prayer even to go as far by putting this prayer request on the prayer list of their church. Many persons kept track of how Michele was doing by going to the internet to a website called "Caring Bridge." And still others dropped by to visit. This past July Michele no longer had the strength to walk. She was confined to a bed. She received help from Hospice.

There was a point in this struggle that Michele could say only a few words. One morning she awoke and spoke two sentences. One sentence was "Can I go to school today." Her friend Karen, who introduced the first song, read the words to it and then shared a portion of the eulogy, came to visit Michele and brought her bunny rabbit. She placed the bunny on Michele's bed and immediately the bunny cuddled under her chin. This time Michele spoke one word. She said "Wow!" And that happened to be the last word that she would speak. God is at work in mysterious ways and is still performing wonders. What an awesome God you and I have—WOW!

Friends, soon, come Sunday, we will add to the one word of WOW. We will hear the words "Christ the Lord is Risen" and we will respond "He is Risen, Indeed." Death is not the end. Because Christ lives, we shall live also.

He then attended Pennsylvania School of Technology and received his Aircraft and Power Plant license. Ned came to Moses Lake in 1955 to work for Boeing. - 1758 ii. Marc Bryan Entz, born 12 Oct 1960 in Tacoma, Washington; died 06 Oct 2022.

Notes for Marc Bryan Entz:

Marc Bryan Entz passed away at his home on October 6, 2022. Marc was born on October 12, 1960 in Tacoma, Washington. Marc was raised in Moses Lake by his parents, Ned and Jeanette, where he attended Moses Lake schools K-12. He attended Central Washington University and received a BA in Business. At a young age, Marc was inquisitive and full of adventure. Marc was a handsome and intelligent young man who excelled in everything from academics to sports. He was a socially active youth who enjoyed a broad association of friends across many different "walks of life". He was always engaging and shared his love of life with his friends and siblings.

Marc was preceded in death by his father, Ned W. Entz; grandparents: Howard and Christine Trullinger, Herbert and Lillian Entz; Uncles: Thomas Murphy, Lowell and Warren Trullinger, Robert and David Entz, Cousins: LeAnna, Lindsay and Jessica. Marc is survived by his Mother, Jeanette; brother Ray (Jeanne); sister Tracy Risdon; three nephews Derek (Anna), and Justin Entz, Cooper Risdon; one niece Lindsey Risdon; many aunts, uncles, cousins, and extended family and friends.

Marc lost a long and arduous 43-year battle with mental illness and the arsenal of medications that took a lasting toll on his body. As we all do, his family and friends struggled with his illness along with him in silence. Whether trying to understand it, cope with it, or simply trying to be aware of it, it shaped our relationship with him. This personal struggle is more evident now than ever before. His death is a light teaching us that it was never important to understand or cope, but to enjoy the moments we had and let those moments create the space to just be present and available.

If you were a friend or family, you know the reality of life with mental illness. As you read this, we ask that you not turn away from this group of people but see them and engage them as part of our community. Embrace them and do not just look away, ignoring them and their circumstance. We cannot address mental illness if our first reaction is to turn away and avoid confronting them or the issues they endure. Be kind and love one another.

- 1759 iii. Ray Entz, born 13 May 1965.

Bridesmaids were Miss Susan MacAvoy, of Shavertown, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Judy MacAvoy, Newport News, Virginia, also sister of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Gina Green, Renova. Notes for Dorothy Claire Weitzel:

Dorothy Claire (Weitzel) Jordan, age 71 of Lynn, died on Monday June 1, 2020 at Salem Hospital after a brief illness. She was the wife of Thomas Jordan, with whom she shared 45 years of marriage. Born in Lynn, she was the daughter of the late Kathleen (Soucy) Weitzel. She was raised in Williamsport, Pennsylvania and Swampscott and was a graduate of Swampscott High School, class of 1967. She would later earn an Associate's Degree from North Shore Community College. Dorothy had lived in Swampscott for the greater part of her life before moving to Lynn in 2000. For many years "Dot" worked for Advanced Automation, and then for the Lynn Economic Opportunity (LEO) Head Start Program. She always had a passion for helping people (especially children) and her years working at Head Start allowed her to help low-income families improve their child's health, nutrition, and early childhood education. She found this work to be the most challenging, yet most rewarding of her life. A former member of the Boston Church of Christ, Dot was an active member of the Rebekah's and she and her husband for many years helped organize the Odd Fellows Pilgrimage for Youth trip to New York City. They also took great pride in coordinating quarterly lodge newsletters for the IOOF Kearsarge Lodge #217 of Swampscott for more than 20 years. She had a passion for flowers and food, especially sweets and she loved to make people laugh. Her greatest joy came through spending time with her family and her beloved grandchildren, who meant the world to her. As the family matriarch, she would make sure that her children kept connected to the entire extended family.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by 2 sons; Torry Jordan Morris and his wife Melanie of Clinton and Michael P. Jordan and his wife Amy of Peabody, 6 grandchildren; Damian, Laine, Miana, Jag, Meadow, and Owen, a sister Diane Philbrook of Florida, 2 sisters-in-law Patricia McBain and Colleen Jordan, both of Swampscott, and many nieces and nephews, including her two god daughters Christina Jordan of Swampscott and Melissa Re of Peabody. She was also the sister of the late Paul Weitzel.

Adhering to the guidelines of the CDC and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, services are private. Arrangements are under the direction of the Solimine Funeral Homes. In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to the NSMC Cancer Walk.

Children of Dorothy Weitzel and Thomas Jordan are:

Notes for Michael Robert Metherell:

Michael Robert Metherell passed away at his home in Cornville, Arizona on Saturday, August 15, 2020 surrounded by his family. Michael was a 'park brat' growing up in Acadia, Yosemite, Yellowstone and Zion National Parks where his father was a biologist. As a young man, Michael traveled to both Canada and South America to work as a fishing guide before permanently settling in Jackson Wyoming. In Jackson, he worked for Barker Ewing as a whitewater river guide for over 25 years running the biggest water ever recorded on the Snake River. In the fall he worked for several different outfitters in Wyoming guiding hunters into the mountains surrounding Jackson. Michael's biggest passion, besides his family, was fly fishing.

Michael relocated to Arizona in 2006 and worked as a carpenter and a ranch hand. He retired in 2013 after moving to Cornville where he enjoyed helping neighbors and visiting with friends new and old. Michael was often seen driving the back roads with his four dogs piled around him barking all the way. He was the President of Rippling Waters Irrigation Association for three years until he resigned due to health issues.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Connie and Robert Metherell. He is survived by his sons, Jakob (Molly) Metherell of Apple Valley Minnesota, Luke (Becki) Metherell of Anchorage, Alaska; grandchildren, Quinn and Griffin Metherell; sister, Kathy (Dayle) Flanigan of Beaver, Utah; brother, Ken (Kay) of Salt Lake City Utah; nephews, Jake (Sarah) Flanigan of Salt Lake City, Seth (Jennie) Flanigan of Boise, Idaho and grand nephews, Liam, Westley and Lochlan and grand nieces, Sloan and Aster, as well as his partner, MaryAnn Canning; her children, Cody Canning, Emma Canning; son-in-law, Jorge Tejada and grandchildren, Iris Marie, Nico and Penelope and dog, Thomas.

In lieu of flowers, Michael asked that donations be made in his name to Ivy Brain Tumor Center of Phoenix

Longtime Jackson Hole resident, outfitter and guide Michael Metherell died Aug. 15 at his home in Cornville, Arizona, at age 66. He passed away peacefully after a valiant 15-month battle against glioblastoma. His family provided the following. Michael was born Feb. 22, 1954, in Williamsport, Pennsylvania. His father worked for the National Park Service as a ranger, and Michael was afforded a youth surrounded by the best scenery this country has to offer. They lived in Blue Ridge Parkway, Acadia, Yosemite, Yellowstone and Zion national parks. That upbringing instilled in him a love for wild places that he carried with him throughout his life.

Michael settled in the Jackson area in 1973, living with family friends in Grand Teton National Park. He began a career as a guide on the Snake River for Barker-Ewing that would span 25 years and would lead to guiding opportunities from Manitoba to Argentina and Peru. Michael was at his best behind the oars and left an indelible impression on all who encountered him in the riparian realm. The fall months found Michael high in the backcountry of the Wyoming and Wind River ranges chasing big game as a guide for various outfits. Experience gained there led to the purchase of Swift Creek Outfitters, which Michael owned and operated with his family for a number of years. The remainder of the year Michael found employment where he could, including Jackson Hole Mountain Resort. After realizing that the path of the seasonal journeyman made it difficult to feed his growing boys Michael transitioned into a full-time career as a carpenter, where his methodical perfectionism served him well.

In his twilight years Michael moved to the Verde Valley in Arizona. He found residence and employment on the Rockin' River Ranch, where he could work with his beloved horses and dogs. That led to a life of quiet retirement on a small and beautifully irrigated parcel in the community of Cornville. It was just big enough for his two horses, dogs, cats and chickens. There he could pursue his passion for gardening, and a short walk away was a spring-fed creek for fly-fishing. Michael was passionate about fly-fishing and could cast to a timeless rhythm that many seek but few actually find. To watch him with a fly rod was nothing short of mythic. Watching him cast was emblematic of how he lived his life as a whole: slow, calm, quiet, present and in tune with the natural world around him. Michael's impact on this world will continue to reverberate here with us and beyond just like the ripple from a perfectly placed dry fly.

Of all of Michael's accomplishments he was foremost an incredible father and grandfather. His love survives with his partner Maryann Canning, brother Ken (Kay), sister Kathy (Dayle) Flanigan, children Jakob (Molly) and Luke (Beki), Maryann's children Cody and Emma (Jorge), grandchildren Quinn and Griffin, Maryann's grandchildren Niko, Iris and Penny, nephews Seth (Jenny) Flanigan, and Jake (Sarah) Flanigan, their children Liam, Sloan, Westly, Lochlan and Aster, and most importantly his beloved dog Thomas.

A memorial for Michael will be held at a future date. In lieu of flowers please send donations to the Barrow Neurological Foundation IBTC, 124 W. Thomas Road, Suite 250, Phoenix, Arizona 85013

Notes for Lindsay M. Entz:

Lindsay M. Entz, 17, of 161 Ruth Lane, Jersey Shore, went to be with the Angels Thursday, Feb. 5, 2004, as a result of injuries sustained from a motor vehicle crash on Route 44. Born Feb. 6, 1986, in Williamsport, she was the daughter of Eugene D. Entz and the former Michelle C. Stabley. Her mother and father and a brother, Evan D. Entz, survive her. Also surviving are her paternal grandparents, C. David and Donna Entz of Salladasburg; a paternal great-grandmother, Laura Mae Swarthout of Jersey Shore; maternal grandparents, Sam and Helen Lowmiller of Mosquito Valley and Ronald and Linda Stabley of Pine Creek; a maternal great-grandfather, Harry Robison of Avis; and a maternal great-grandmother, Lois Stabley of Jersey Shore.

Lindsay's education started at Salladasburg Elementary School in September of 1991. She attended Jersey Shore Area High School where she would have graduated with the class of 2004. Lindsay's dream was to attend college and become a teacher for special needs children. While attending Jersey Shore schools, Lindsay was involved in many activities, including being a cheerleader for 10 years and a member of the track and field team for four years. She participated in softball and assisted the varsity wrestling team at Jersey Shore High School for three years; filming all the team videos and assisting coaches in any way possible. Lindsay helped to plan the Junior-Senior Prom and the Junior-Senior Girls Powder Puff Football game.

She was a conscientious and energetic worker, having been employed by Crist Farms, The Crest Restaurant, The Gamble Farm Inn and presently by The Restless Oaks. She was also a caring and loving baby-sitter to many area families. More importantly than her school or work activities, Lindsay had a passion for sharing her love of Christ with others. Lindsay had strong feelings and was tender-hearted to both the young and the old. She took pleasure in visiting with her grandmother, great-grandmother and their friends at Manor Care. In her spare time, Lindsay loved spending time with her family and friends, especially her boyfriend, Samuel Eck. Every year, Lindsay looked forward to hunting with her Dad and brother Evan and was very accomplished, having bagged a deer every year. Lindsay also had a special talent for arts, crafts and pottery-making.

Funeral services will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 10, in the Jersey Shore Church of God. Friends may call from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. in the church. Burial will be in the Jersey Shore Cemetery. Arrangements are being handled by Welker Funeral Home, 125 N. Main Street, Jersey Shore.

She married Shane Eia 22 May 2004 in Pennsylvania. He was born 01 Mar 1981.

Notes for Trena Marie (Trina) Shaffer:

Jan. 2019 - A series of devastating events emotionally pummeled Trina Eia and her young family the first week of November, leaving the 36-year-old mother of four struggling to regain her composure. A Nov. 5 X-ray discovered a 6-centimeter mass in the Paxtonville woman's chest near her esophagus/trachea/heart region. A followup CT scan on Nov. 8 revealed a 3-centimeter mass in her lower right lung.

"That first week was especially brutal. My grandmother, who I was really close to, passed away the Sunday before my masses were discovered. The whole time at her funeral, I kept thinking, 'Am I going to be next?'" said Eia. "I had a hard time sleeping and would wake up crying. I couldn't think about my awesome husband or wonderful children without bawling. I even recorded a message to be played at my funeral." A Nov. 14 bronchoscopy led to news that she did, indeed, have cancer. On Dec. 6, she met with a team of doctors who shared that her cancer was Stage 3 mucoepidermoid carcinoma of the lung, an extremely rare form of cancer. "Mucoepidermoid carcinoma is usually associated with the salivary gland, and even then it is considered rare," said Dr. Rajiv Panikkar, chair of the cancer institute at Geisinger Medical Center. "Only about 6 to 8 percent of people who have cancer of the head, neck or throat have mucoepidermoid carcinoma, and it is much more rare for it to show up in the lung."

Treatment options for Eia's condition are limited. "At this point, they're pretty sure it is considered low-grade, which means chemotherapy would not work, and I agree with the doctors that surgery would be too dangerous because of where the lymph nodes are placed in relation to the rest of my body," said Eia. "Because of its rarity, they were not 100 percent sure yet if radiation would work." On Dec. 11, Eia had a second consultation at the Envita Medical Center in Arizona and was encouraged by some of the facility's treatment options.

"We had lunch with someone who actually went there and is currently cancer-free and would recommend it to anyone who has cancer," she said. "Because they also do more natural ways of dealing with cancer, a majority of the treatment will not be covered by insurance and the typical range for Stage 3 cancer like this at the facility ranges from $80,000 to $100,000." Despite the numerous potential hurdles, Eia relayed that she is in a much better place emotionally thanks to her faith. "One day in the shower, I felt the overwhelming love of God. I did not know if I would live or die, but I did know at that moment that Jesus Christ loved me very deeply," she said. "Since then, my emotions are a whole lot better. I just keep thinking of how I can best glorify God through this process.”

The experience has led to healthier eating for Eia — which has, in turn, helped reduce some of the symptoms she’s experienced with chest pain and chronic coughing. “I learned through some research that cancer feeds on sugars, so the day after finding out about the mass in my chest, I cut out all processed and refined sugars,” she said. “Now my diet consists of raw vegetables, fruits, nuts and seeds. While I do not enjoy eating this type of food, I feel so much better.” Another thing that has helped throughout the dark moments of the process is the outpouring of support the family has received so far. “It has been a truly humbling experience. I feel such love from God and others. People have sent cards, prayed with us, cleaned our house, gave our family Christmas presents, brought meals, offered to babysit, gave money and helped our children transition from homeschooling to taking classes at the Juniata Mennonite School,” she said.

Trina and her husband, Shane, are not new to suffering or other’s generosity — but have done quite a bit to reach out and help others. After a series of miscarriages and issues with infertility, the family decided to adopt two children from Ethiopia. “We sent our paperwork over to start the process, and found out a month later that I was pregnant,” Eia said. “Thankfully, the adoption agency allows us to continue with the adoption.” Several months later, they were matched with Zeynu and Fozia, both around 18 months old at the time. “When we brought them home, they were still in 3-6 month clothing. Our son could not handle any textures in his mouth and just started to crawl at that time,” she said. “They received a lot of therapy and once again, we were blessed by those around us.” Zeynu and Fozia are now each 8 years old, Leif is 7 and the couple’s second biological son, Elias, is 5. “It is a lot easier now that they are older, but when they were 3 and under, it was extremely challenging,” Eia said. Despite the dire diagnosis, Eia admitted that God’s love and provision through the family’s current trials is visible through those who have offered their love and assistance. “It has been very humbling and encouraging to see people’s love and kindness to our family,” she said. “I really appreciate the prayers and I pray that God would be glorified through this all.” A GoFundMe account has been set up to help the family offset Trina’s growing medical costs.

On Sunday, April 18, 2021, Trina Eia, incredible wife and loving mother of four dearly loved children, passed away at the age of 38. Trina was born Aug. 9, 1982, in Lewisburg, to David and Marilyn (Ulmer) Shaffer. She graduated from Middleburg High School in 2001 and Lancaster Bible College in 2004 with a bachelor’s in social work. On May 22, 2004, she married Shane Eia in a field at her parents’ home. We eventually had three sons, Zeynu, Leif and Elias, and a daughter, Fozla.

Being a mother was something she always wanted and enjoyed it greatly. She homeschooled our kids until she was diagnosed with cancer and was unable to do it any longer. We were married just shy of 17 years; she has been a true pleasure to be married to and we will miss her greatly. She loved the Lord and wanted her life and eventual death to bring Him glory. Beyond being active in her church, Christ Church of Beaver Springs, she was passionate about missions and making Christ known. She would often tell me that she didn’t want to be remembered as a good person but rather as a sinner saved by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone. She had no enemies besides the weeds in her garden. Everyone who knew her will forever remember her smile and she would never let anyone go without a goodbye hug. If you had an ailment, she always had an oil for that. There is much more than could be said, I’m just sorry if you didn’t know her, she was a true joy to know and be around.

In addition to her husband and children, she is survived by her parents, Dave and Marilyn Shaffer; siblings, Michelle Moran and husband Ken, Daniel Shaffer and wife Paula, Calvin Shaffer and wife Nichole; in-laws, David and Cindy Eia; brothers-in-law, Caleb Eia and wife Ashley, Andrew Eia and wife Angela; as well as sister-in-law, Amber Ulrich and husband Brent, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She has chosen to donate her body for science so there will be no viewing or funeral. A time of visitation with the family will be held from 10 to 11 a.m. Saturday, April 24, at Christ Church of Beaver Springs, 800 Center Ave., Beaver Springs, followed by a Celebration of Life ceremony at 11 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations are being accepted for a fund to benefit the children when they get older. Donations can be sent to Shane Eia, 2083 Paxtonville Road, Middleburg, Pennsylvania 17842. Arrangements are by the Hummel Funeral Home, 574 Hill St., Middleburg.
