Notes for Gottlieb Heinrich Binder:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Henry Binder, upon the successful establishment of industrial and commercial interests depends the growth and prosperity of every town and city, and the real founders and promoters of a community are those who successfully control its business interests. In this connection Henry Binder deserves mention, and although more than a decade has passed since he was called to his final rest, he is yet remembered by the great majority of Ann Arbor's citizens as one, who, in pioneer times, conducted a leading hotel in Ann Arbor, and in 14 later years contributed to the city's development by the erection of many of its business blocks. A native of Germany, he was born June 7, 1831. His parents always resided in that country and passed away there. The father devoted his entire life to agricultural pursuits. In the common schools of his native country Henry Binder acquired his education, and then began learning the harness maker's trade, which he followed in the fatherland until his emigration to America in 1852. He was at that time twenty-one year of age, and with the hope of benefiting by the superior business opportunities of the new world he crossed the Atlantic and made his way direct to Ann Arbor. There was only a small hotel here at the time, and, believing that there was an opening for a good hostelry, he began business in that line near the old Michigan Central Railroad depot. The value of his business foresight was soon proven, as within a short time he secured an enviable patronage, his hotel finding favor with the traveling public. His capable management brought to him a gratifying measure of success, and as the years passed and his financial resources increased, he made judicious investment in city property and erected many of the store buildings now on Main Street. These brought to him a good rental, adding materially to his annual income. He continued in the hotel business until his later years, when disposing of his hotel he lived retired, save for the management of his invested interests, up to the time of his death.

Mr. Binder was married to Miss Caroline Pfitzenmaier, who was born in Germany, September 5, 1831. Her parents were residents of Stuttgart, and both died there. Mrs. Binder was the only one of the family to come to America, making the voyage across the Atlantic and the trip to Ann Arbor with a lady friend in the year 1853. Eleven children were born unto Mr. and, Mrs. Binder, of whom eight are now living. Mary, 'the -eldest, is the widow of August Graf and resides with her mother. Her husband, also a native of Germany, came to Ann Arbor in an early day, and was engaged in the hardware business here until his death on the 2nd of June, 1881. Pauline Binder is now the wife of Martin Haller, owner of the largest furniture store of Ann Arbor. Henry is engaged in the jewelry business in Detroit. Louise is the wife of Gabriel Elskie, of Detroit. Caroline is the wife of John Lindenschmitt, a member of the firm of Lindenschmitt, Appel & Company, clothiers of Ann Arbor. Fred, who was formerly engaged in the hardware business in Ann Arbor, now resides in Chicago. William is acting as bookkeeper for his brother-in-law, Martin Haller, in the furniture store. Emma L. has always made her home with her mother. Those deceased are: Pauline, Frederick and Emma. The death of the father occurred on the 13th of November, 1894.

In politics he was a democrat, and socially was connected with the German Workingmen's Society of this city. He attended the German Lutheran church, and his widow and children also worship there. At the time of his death the family were residing over one of his store buildings on Main street, but Mrs. Binder has since erected a large and beautiful residence at No. 108 East William Street, where she and her two daughters reside. Mr. Binder was one of the leading citizens and pioneer German residents of Ann Arbor. He made no mistake in his decision to seek a home in America, for he found here good business opportunities; and as the years passed, worked his way steadily upward until he occupied a position of affluence. His methods, too, won him honor and respect, and he is today numbered with the pioneer residents of Ann Arbor whose labors proved of value to the city.

He married Rebekka Walz 28 Aug 1874 in Whitley Co, Indiana, daughter of Joachim Walz and Anna Nonnenmacher. She was born 18 Aug 1849 in Hochdorf, Calw, Wurtemberg, and died 23 Jul 1915 in Columbia City, Whitley Co, Indiana.

Notes for Gottlieb Friedrich Binder:

1907 Frederick G. Binder – During the years immediately preceding the Civil War six brothers by the name of Binder emigrated to the United States from Germany and settled in various towns in eastern Michigan. As they wrote favorable reports back home, another brother, Jacob U., was tempted to come in 1860, and settled at Ann Arbor, where one of the others lived. He established a butcher shop in connection with stock buying, and became an old style drover, taking cattle to Buffalo and New York. At one time he received an order to send forty yoke of cattle to Lake Superior and after some lively hustling procured the number in two days and drove them to Detroit, for shipment by boat. He brought with him, Frederick G., who was born at Wittenberg, Germany, March 12, 1853, and learned the butcher trade, while with his father in Ann Arbor.

He worked both in Ypsilanti and Detroit, but in 1874 came to Whitley County, Indiana, which was destined to be his permanent home. He first worked with Fred Bush and for eight years for Daniels Brothers, in Columbia City, but being ambitious to enter business on his own account he began at South Whitley, with a capital of two hundred dollars. However, he had a partner by the name of Dickey, whose standing enabled him to get all the needed credit. In 1885 he opened business, at the stand where he now is, though the intervening years have made wonderful changes in his financial condition. His business as a butcher, stock-dealer, and meat merchant grew steadily, through good management, skill and industry until now after twenty years Mr. Binder can consider with pardonable pride what he has accomplished. His annual sales now exceed twenty thousand dollars and he pays to the farmers of Whitley County between ten thousand and fifteen thousand dollars a year for stock. By confining himself strictly to his own business and giving it his undivided attention, he has achieved well merited success. He is now located in the same building in which he worked while employed by the Daniels Brothers, buying it in 1893.

In politics his is a Democrat and has frequently been honored by his party, while in turn rendering it faithful and judicious service. He was county chairman for two years and has been delegate to the county and state conventions. He was a member of the city council for two years and held the office of city treasurer twelve years in succession. Mr. Binder would not be a German could he not find time for social intercourse and for the enjoyment of the society of friends. He contributes to all influences to develop and improve his adopted city. He is a stockholder in the furniture factory, one of Columbia City's most valuable industries, besides having other real estate and business interests. He is a charter member of the Knights of the Maccabees and has been a trustee ever since the institution of the lodge.

In 1974 Mr. Binder was married to Rebecca Waltz, of Marshall, Michigan, and they have an interesting family of five sons. Fred G., the eldest and namesake of his father, is a printer, Otto S. and Edward C. remain with the father. Walter is clerk with the Providence Trust Company and Homer is in high school.

Fred G. Binder, 75, brother of the late Samuel and Chris Binder, pioneer Butte men, died January 6, 1929 in Columbia City, Indiana, it was learned here yesterday. Mr. Binder visited in Butte several years ago and was known to meat dealers here.

Among survivors are two nephews, Elmer and Ernest Binder Butte men, other relatives in Butte and five sons. Mr. Binder died suddenly after a cold developed into influenza and pneumonia.

Fred G. Binder was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob U. Binder, who emigrated from Germany in 1862 and became a pioneer in the cattle and butcher business in Ann Arbor, Michigan. The son had been in the meat business in Columbia City since 1885.

He is survived by his wife, the former Grace Peppers, retired vice president of the Anthony Wayne Bank at Fort Wayne; two brothers, Edward C., of Columbia City, and Homer P., of Sun City, Arizona; two nephews, Walter F. Binder of Tri Lakes and Otto Binder, Alexandria; three nieces, Miss Beatrice Binder of Sturgis, Michigan, Mrs. Betty Boyce of Battle Creek, Michigan, and Mrs. Ann Stannard, Manitowoc, Wisconsin.

Las June Mr. Binder was presented her in Blue Lodge ceremonies with an Indiana grand lodge gold award as a 50-year Mason. On Friday evening he and Mrs. Binder were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Binder.

He was born 17 Dec 1908 in Perranporth, Cornwall, England, and died 04 Jul 1992 in Silver Bow Co, Montana.

Notes for Velma Mary (Thelma) Staebler:

Butte, Montana, May 27, 2010 - Thelma Prowse, 90, was born to Henry and Lettie (Wills) Staebler in Butte, on Sept. 25, 1919. She graduated from Butte High School in 1937, and attended a business college in Spokane, before moving to Great Falls to work for General Mills for two years. She then returned to Butte and worked for the Anaconda Co., for 10 years until marrying Ken Prowse in 1951. Her daughter and the joy-of-her-life, Corlette, was born in 1953. Thelma was devoted to Jesus from her earlier days. She belonged to Grace Methodist Church as well as Aldersgate Methodist Church, where she was a member of United Methodist Women and served as church secretary and Sunday school treasurer for many years. She was an active member of the Martha Rebecca Lodge for close to 50 years, and served as treasurer of the Silver Bow General Hospital Auxiliary. She also worked for Safeway, Montana Hardware, and James Jewelry.

Thelma was happiest when she was pouring herself out for others. She loved to cook for large family gatherings, which usually ended with animated games, waves of laughter, and warm conversation. She was devoted to Ken, gladly accompanying him on any adventure; she would happily sit knitting in the car while he waded trout streams in western Montana. Thelma delighted in Corlette and welcomed every opportunity to encourage and support her, which often resulted in driving carloads of giggling girls from one activity to another around Butte.

Thelma overflowed with kindness and generosity, gladly extending her heart and resources to help others. She was absolutely dependable; once she committed to something, it was as good as done. She had a special heart for the elderly, and found great joy in visiting, caring for, and driving older people around, especially her mother's friends.

Thelma and Ken moved to Billings in 1990 to live with their daughter's family. Ken died in 1992, after 41 years of devoted marriage. Thelma went on to live in a "grandma heaven" for nearly 20 years. She joyfully cared for her two grandchildren, Megan and Jeff, delighting in their energy and enthusiasm. She always had time for them, and nothing they asked was ever too much trouble. One of her greatest joys was to have one of them crawl into her bed during a thunderstorm and snuggle up close to feel safe and loved.

Thelma had an abiding love for the Lord. She faithfully met with him every morning as she read his Word, worshipped him, and prayed for those she loved. When her health declined and her activities outside the home diminished, she maintained an amazingly sweet, thankful, and contented spirit that made her a joy to live with. Her warmth, kindness, and gracious attitude drew people in, so she enjoyed regular visits from many friends, young and old alike, especially from her church family at Rocky Mountain Community Church. As her health failed in May, Thelma's core qualities shone more brightly than ever. She constantly sought to encourage others, to lighten their hearts with her sense of humor, and to convey her peace and joy at the thought of soon seeing Jesus face to face.

She died peacefully on May 24, 2010, in the arms of her daughter. Thelma was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Lettie; her husband, Ken; and her siblings, Roland, Lucille, Mercedes and Henry Staebler. She is survived by her beloved daughter, Corlette; son-in-law, Ken Sande; grandchildren, Megan and Jeff Sande; sister-in-law, Isabel Prowse; and nieces, Lucy Martin Gianino, Wilhemina Eaken, Georgie Richardson, Sue Steele, Bonnie Staebler, Charlene Kautzman and Janet Morrison.

Memorial services will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, June 8, at Wayrynen-Richards Funeral Home, 1800 Florence Ave. Her family will be greeting Thelma's friends from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. at the funeral home. Thelma requested that memorials be sent to Peacemaker Ministries, Box 81130, Billings, 59108, or the charity of your choice.

He returned to Butte and married Thelma Staebler on Aug. 12, 1951. He was devoted to his family and liked family outings. He also was an avid fisherman. He had a special affection for elderly people, devoting a great deal of time to encouraging and supporting older family members and friends.

Mr. Prowse developed a variety of vocational skills, but derived his greatest satisfaction as a furniture salesman. He worked at The Warehouse Furniture, Rosenburg's and Shiners until he retired in 1976. He had a gift for meeting the public and made friends quickly. He also was a gifted craftsman, and spent many hours remodeling his family home and helping neighbors with repairs. In his later years, he helped his daughter and son-in-law remodel their home. He served as financial secretary of the Aldersgate Church in Butte for 53 years. He also belonged to the Butte Executives Club, and was its secretary-treasurer for four years. And he was a member of UCT and the Silver Bow Kiwanis Club. In 1990, he and his wife moved to Billings. The following year, they joined Rocky Mountain Community Church.

He was born 27 Sep 1913 in Avant, Osage Co, Oklahoma, and died 18 Jun 1997 in Missoula, Missoula Co, Montana.

Notes for Doris Winifred Binder:

Missoula, Montana - Doris Winifred Binder Eudaily, our beloved "RaRa," died of natural causes on Sunday, April 2, 2000, at Village Health Care Center. She was surrounded by the members of her family - those she treasured most. Doris was born on May 27, 1916, in Butte, to Elmer O. and Mary (Mae) Theresa Dinn Binder. She attended grade school and high school in Butte, and then, at age 16, went to Dillon to Montana State Normal School, now known as Western Montana College of the University of Montana. It was there that she met Ralph S. Eudaily, who was to become both her husband and her best friend. They were married in Butte at St. Joseph's Church on Dec. 27, 1936, and remained married for more than 60 years until Ralph's death on June 18, 1997. The couple had two children, Gloria and Gary.

Doris started teaching at the age of 18 in a one-room school at Apex. Her job included building the fire in the classroom stove, getting the school ready for the day, and teaching her three students in grades one through eight! Doris taught elementary pupils for 30 years, first at Apex, then at Hall and finally at Target Range School in Missoula. She watched Target Range School grow from a two-room school to its present size. Many of her former students especially her Target Range first-graders, still keep in touch. After retiring from Target Range School, Doris joined Ralph in a second career lasting 14 years at the Montana State Legislature. She was the "Spouse of the House" and enjoyed every minute of it. Doris was able to accompany Ralph on Western Legislative Conference trips throughout the West, Alaska and Hawaii. She and Ralph made many friends on these trips and during their time with the Legislature.

Doris survived by her daughter GlanaVolland and her husband, Walter, of Bellevue, Washington; their children, Gregory Volland of Bellevue, Washington, and Kirk and Michelle Volland of Pace, Florida. She also is survived by her son Gary Eudaily and his wife, Lisa, of Missoula; grandsons Michael Eudaily of Missoula and Sean Patrick Eudaily of Laurel, Maryland.

Doris and Ralph devoted their lives to their family, to Montana, and to education, and were extremely proud of the success and progress of all four grandsons. These boys were indeed the "apples of her eyes" as well as the source of her nickname. RaRa, we will miss you so very much, but we all know how blessed we were to have you as a mother and grandmother.

Services will be held at Malletta Funeral Home, Livingston Chapel, 224 W. Spruce St. Visitation will be 5-8 p.m. Wednesday, April 5, with funeral services at 2 p.m. Thursday, April 6. Burial will follow at the

Notes for Ralph Stoner Eudaily:

Ralph S. Eudaily, 83, of Missoula, Montana passed away Wednesday, June 18, 1997, at St. Patrick's Hospital of natural causes. Ralph was born Sept. 28, 1913, in Avant, Oklahoma, the son of Albert H. and Elma Stoner Eudaily. He moved to Montana as a small child. He is a graduate of Park City High School; attended Arkansas City, Kansas, Junior College and graduated from Montana State Normal College (UM-Dillon). He lettered in basketball, football, and baseball while at Dillon. He earned his master's degree in education from the University of Montana. Ralph met Doris Binder while both were attending college in Dillon. They married on Dec. 27, 1936, in Butte. The couple celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary last December.

Ralph is survived by his wife, Doris Eudaily of Missoula; his daughter Gloria, and her husband, Dr. Walter Volland of Bellevue, Washington; his son Dr. Gary Eudaily of Missoula; and his four grandsons, Lt. Kirk Volland, U.S. Navy, and his wife, Michelle of Barber's Point, Hawaii, Sean Patrick Eudaily of Missoula, Gregory Volland of Bellevue and Mike Eudaily of Missoula.

Ralph began his career in education as an elementary teacher and high school coach at Belmont and later at Bridger. In 1938-1941, he was superintendent at Reed Point, and from 1941-1943 at Elliston. He was principal of Granite County High School in Philipsburg from 1943-1949. He joined the staff of District 1 in Missoula in 1950, serving as principal of Whittier School until 1961 when he became the first principal of the then-new Russell School. He remained at Russell until his retirement in June of 1976. In November of 1976, Ralph was elected to the first of seven consecutive terms in the Montana House of Representatives. In his years in the legislature, he served on the Education, Judiciary, and Fish & Game committees. He was Majority Whip in 1987, and was a member of the Legislative Council for eight years, serving as chairman during his last term. He also represented Montana at the Western Legislative Conference for many years.

Ralph was an avid outdoorsman, who especially enjoyed hunting and fishing. He hunted in Montana's first ever pheasant season. His favorite fishing was always the salmon fly hatch on Upper s Rock Creek, where the family has had a cabin since 1944. He passed his love of the outdoors on to both his children and to his four grandsons. The greatest joy of his life came from his family and home. Whether it was in the summers at the family's cabin on Rock Creek or at home during Christmas, Ralph's family always came first. Ralph was active in local and state PTA; State and National Elementary Principals' Association, serving from 1956-1959 on the Executive Committee of the National Department of Elementary School Principals; he was chairman of the School District 1 Insurance Committee for 26 years; he served many years on the Elks Scholarship Committee and the Campfire Girls Council; he was a life member of the Montana Officials Association, officiating both football and basketball (including a Harlem Globetrotters game at the old men's gym at U of M); and has been a longtime member of the Western Montana Fish and Game Association and of Ducks Unlimited. He had an abiding interest in preserving Rock Creek as a blue-ribbon trout stream.

Ralph was widely recognized for his outstanding contributions to education in Montana, receiving awards from Northwest Montana Elementary and Middle School Principals, University of Montana - College of Technology, UM-Dillon, Park City High School, State Retired Teachers Association, U of M Foundation, Montana Association of Elementary School Principals, Missoula PTA Council, and AARP National Retired Teachers Association.

Visitation will be at the Livingston-Malletta & Geraghty Funeral Home Sunday, June 22, from 4 to 6 p.m. A memorial service is planned for Tuesday, June 24, at 2 p.m. at the CM. Russell School gymnasium, 3216 Russell Street in Missoula. It was Ralph's wish that in lieu of flowers memorials may be sent in his name to the University of Montana Foundation, P.O. Box 7159, Missoula, Montana, 59801-7159, or the Elks Scholarship Fund, Hell Gate Lodge 383, P.O. Box 7187, Missoula, 59807.

June 19, 1997 - His colleagues in the Legislature and in Missoula's School District 1 agree that Ralph Eudaily was a tireless public servant, who never backed away from what he believed was right.

Eudaily, 83, died Wednesday June 18, 1997 afternoon after an illness. Gov. Marc Racicot remembered Eudaily from Racicot's days in the Legislature's print shop and called the longtime legislator a "highly respected, kind and thoughtful gentleman." Earl Lory, who served six sessions in Helena with Eudaily, said he was a "great guy." "The principal interest Ralph had was in education," Lory recalled. Lory said Eudaily doggedly pursued educational interests in his seven sessions at the capital, and would spend hours each night reading, rereading and underlining the bills for the next day's meetings. "I guess that showed his teaching habits," he said.

Eudaily was an educator for 40 years and was a principal in Missoula School District 1 for 26 years. In 1976, Eudaily retired from education and won election to the 1977 legislative session. "He was a gentleman," said former Gov. Ted Schwinden. "He was always courteous, always polite. You inevitably have differences party-wise, but Ralph came from the old school." Missoula County Commissioner Barbara Evans remembered Eudaily's years of service to the state Republican Party. "I always found him to be Responsive to the public and a good, dedicated and conscientious public servant," Evans said. "That all sounds very melodramatic, but he did look at his service that way."

In his years as a Missoula educator, Eudaily led the vanguard that brought law enforcement into Montana's public schools, said Sheriff Doug Chase. Chase said Eudaily was a "pioneer" in bringing police officers together with students in a learning atmosphere. "He dared to adventure," Chase said. "And you always felt welcome (in his schools). "He was just a classy, classy person. I am deeply saddened." As a legislator, Chase said, Eudaily was a man who "always advocated for excellence." He got "the best bang for the buck," Chase added. Former Missoula School District 1 Superintendent Jake Block said Eudaily's fierce advocacy for education surpassed party lines. "It never seemed to be about the party," Block said. "It was about what's best for the kids." A memorial service will be planned for a later date.

Published in San Francisco Chronicle from May 5 to May 10, 2013

Gordon Milton Binder, M.D. was born on Nov. 10, 1918, in Butte, Montana. His family moved to San Francisco in 1928. He attended local schools, graduating from Galileo High School, UC Berkeley, and UCSF. After receiving his MD in 1943, he was inducted into the US Army where he served as a Battalion Surgeon in the 9th Infantry Division of Omar Bradley's First Army. He landed at Normandy and treated the wounded on the front lines across northern Europe. He survived the Battle of the Bulge and crossed the Remagen Bridge under heavy enemy fire days before its collapse into the Rhine in March, 1945. He was awarded a bronze star and, in 2009, France's Chevalier de la Legion d'Honneur, for his service.

When stationed in San Antonio, Texas after V-E Day, he met his sister's former college roommate, Gladys Grant, and they were married five months later. They moved to the Bay Area and after completing a surgical residency at Peralta Hospital in Oakland, Gordon hung his shingle in Millbrae as a Physician and Surgeon in 1948. He practiced medicine there in partnership with Dr. Richard Aulwurm until 1980. He and Gladys were charter members of Millbrae Baptist Church which was founded in 1951 and he continued as an active member for 62 years, serving at various times as Deacon and Chairman of the Building Committee. Gordon was a talented piano player, an enthusiastic golfer, and a rabid duplicate contract bridge player. In his later years he spent many happy hours with his friends at the Bayshore Bridge Center. He was thrilled to recently attain the designation of "Silver Life Master."

He was predeceased by his wife, and his sisters, Audrey Binder, who died before he was born, and Lois Nichols and her husband, Roy. He is survived by his children: Brooks Binder, Elaine Obernesser (Bill), and Ross Binder (Marilyn); his grandchildren: Deborah Tisdale (Matthew), Michael Binder, and Grace Ann Binder; and a great grandson.

Friends are invited to attend a memorial service celebrating Dr. Binder's life on Sat. May 11, 2013 at 2 p.m. at Millbrae Bible Church, 20 Magnolia Ave., Millbrae.

Three grandchildren: Deborah Obernesser of Washington, DC, and Michael and Grace Ann Binder of Manlius, New York.

Gladys was a dedicated Christian, and she and her husband were founding members of Millbrae Bible Church for 55 years. An avid student of the Bible, Gladys had a compelling interest in world missions, corresponding knowledgeably with numerous missionaries, supporting them financially and in prayer and frequently housing them on their furloughs. Always a very positive and upbeat person, she was a wonderful wife and mother, and her family was her most cherished possession. She loved to travel and with her husband traveled extensively in Europe and elsewhere overseas. A highlight was visiting the Grant Castle of her forebears, the Grant Clan, in Granttown-on-Spey, Scotland.

Notes for Gioacchino (Jack) Gianino:

Stage professionals look back at decades of devotion to their craft

Jack Gianino has worked in the theatre for more than 45 years, mostly as a stage manager. His shows have included the Pulitzer Prize-winning original 'night, Mother; The Scarlet Pimpernel; Black and Blue; The Tap Dance Kid; and Love, Janis. But most likely you've never heard of him. Which is all right with Gianino, who in his own words has "kept a low profile and preferred it that way." And besides, who other than a theatre aficionado would know anything about stage managers?

Gianino is one of the legion of theatre people — production crew, casting directors, lighting technicians, musicians — who work behind the scenes with no publicity, and yet without whom the shows we love would not be possible. What does a stage manager do? "A stage manager is a director's right-hand man," Gianino says. "If the show runs for a while, he or she becomes the surrogate director, responsible for keeping the director's vision in the show and making sure that what the director had in mind remains on the stage." The stage manager "watches the show every night and gives notes to the actors. He's involved in casting replacements when the director is not available, rehearsing the replacements and understudies, and putting those people in the show." But there's more. "I try to make a happy company, which is very important, both to the people involved and the quality of the show." Gianino was born and grew up in Boston, the son of Sicilian immigrants. He had a happy childhood, but one devoid of theatre. He entered the University of Massachusetts at Amherst as a chemistry major, but in his second year, he "saw an ad in the school paper for a play being cast — a one-act, The Informer. I auditioned and got the job, and we took it to a theatre festival in Pittsfield, Massachusetts. We were driven there, and we were given lunch. And I thought, wow, I get driven around, I get a free lunch, there are pretty girls. This theatre stuff is a really good racket."

So he kept on acting. Eventually, he moved to New York, getting jobs in the city, in road companies, in stock and regional theatre. But he had married and was starting a family. So he had a chat with a good theatre friend, Norman Rothstein, who was then a production manager and was to become a producer and general manager. "And Norman asked if I would consider stage managing." And that's how his career as a stage manager began. "I think most of it has been fun," Gianino says. "There have been a lot of ups and downs, good years and lean years, but I've been very fortunate. I met my wife through the theatre; we're still together, and we have terrific children." Theatre, in fact, runs in the family. His wife, Lucy Martin, is an actress. His son, Gian-Murray, is an actor, and his younger daughter, Antonia, is also a stage manager. (His older daughter, Gemina, is an educator.) "Sometimes there are disappointments," he says, "and sometimes you have to struggle to pay the rent. But I certainly wouldn't hold anyone back from going into it." Yes, it can be hard to get a job. "But when nothing is happening, and you think there's no hope," he says, "all of a sudden the phone rings."

Children of Lucy Martin and Gioacchino Gianino are:

- + 296 i. Gemina¹¹ Gianino, born 12 Feb 1970.
- 297 ii. Antonia Adelle Gianino, born 07 Apr 1973. She married Joel David Hoekstra Oct 2003; born 13 Dec 1970 in Chicago, Cook Co, Illinois.

Notes for Joel David Hoekstra:

November 4, 2020 - It kept me playing guitar for a living," said Hoekstra. Joel Hoekstra (born December 13, 1970) is an American guitarist currently in the band Whitesnake and also tours with Trans-Siberian Orchestra and Cher. It would be snowing in Tahoe and I'd say, "Not in the house. The son of classical musicians, he started out playing cello and piano at a young age, but it was hearing Angus Young of AC/DC that inspired him to start playing the guitar. Hoekstra played on The Purple Album (released May 2015) which was a re-imagination of classic songs from David Coverdale's time as the lead singer for Deep Purple. Joel Hoekstra is a American Guitarist, who was born on in New York, NY. When I did that one thing straight for six months because I'm not going to lie I just stopped. He started out better then everyone else so even if he starts to lose it he'll still be better then most of the people singing. Tawny, thank you for taking the time.

Antonia Adelle Gianino and Joel Hoekstra have been married for 17 years. I play guitar for Whitesnake and Trans Siberian. He caught a break while working with singer Cathy Richardson, who went on to portray Janis Joplin in the musical Love, Janis, and helped get him a spot in the production. You have to find your way through," he said. Login [8] He also made a cameo appearance alongside Sebastian Bach, Nuno Bettencourt, Kevin Cronin and Debbie Gibson in the big screen movie adaptation of Rock of Ages. So I never drank and I tried one particular drug one time for six months. Is that how you landed on Celebrity Rehab? Sometimes Joel goes by various nicknames including Joel P Hoekstra, Joel Peter Hoekstra and Bryan Hoekstra.

Marriage Notes for Antonia Gianino and Joel Hoekstra:

Oct. 19, 2003 - Antonia Adelle Gianino, a daughter of Lucy Martin Gianino and Jack S. Gianino of New York, was married on Monday to Joel David Hoekstra, the son of Jean E. Spyksma of Lisle, Illinois, and Dr. Thomas E. Hoekstra of Grayslake, Illinois. The Rev. David Stout performed the ceremony at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church in New York.

The bride, 30, will continue to use her name professionally. She is a freelance production stage manager in New York whose recent work includes "Hank Williams: Lost Highway," which was at the Little Shubert Theater in New York, and "Love, Janis" at the Village Theater.

The bride graduated from Vassar College. Her father, also a freelance production stage manager, is now working on "Rounding Third" at the John Houseman Theater. Her mother is a stage actress known professionally as Lucy Martin.

The bridegroom, 32, is a guitarist and composer and met the bride when he joined the band of "Love, Janis." His self-produced compact disc, "The Moon is Falling," came out in August. He studied music performance at the Musicians Institute in Hollywood. His mother is the organist and choirmaster at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Wheaton, Ill. His father is a professor of music and a chairman of the music department at College of Lake County in Grayslake. The bridegroom is the stepson of Sheila Hoekstra and Austin Spyksma.

He had been employed by the Ann Arbor Fire Department for over twenty-five years until his retirement. Paul also spent over 30 years farming properties on Mooreville Road and Weber Road in Saline. Paul was never short of ideas when it came to growing his crops or expanding his businesses. Barnes Pickle Farm soon became Barnes Farm Market which eventually led to a greenhouse and sweet corn business. At the peak of his career, Paul was as famous for his blueberry donuts as he was for his unconventional farming. In recent years Paul had developed much of his 40-acre farm into two subdivisions and has overseen the construction of several homes.
