Generation No. 5

Notes for Lillie M. (Lilla) Finkbeiner:

Lillie Finkbeiner Dempsey was a very devout Christian who was a part of the WCTU - The Women's Christian Temperance Union. They spearheaded the drive towards prohibition in this country. Lillie apparently was a particularly strong member and did lasting psychological damage to both her sons with her obsessive beliefs. She caught them both smoking once and ordered them to chew and swallow the tobacco that they might never forget how terrible it was. Ray did so and was terribly sick. Roy simply refused. Roy became an alcoholic in later life which destroyed his marriage and alienated his children and ultimately ended up contributing to his death. It's more than possible that Lillie contributed to his decline through her devoutness. Lillie and her family moved to Michigan because she bought a farm in Standwood, Michigan - which is 8 miles south of Big Rapids. They later moved to 4th Ave in Big Rapids...just three houses down from Bertha Carlson and her young children. That's where Roy met Marie Carlson, they knew each other since childhood. Before moving to Big Rapids I believe they lived in Chicago, Illinois.

Notes for John Edward Dempsey:

John Dempsey - Around 1940, John moved west to 'find himself'. He wound up a medic in the army and was already in the Philippines in December of 1941 when it was attacked. He survived the Bataan Death March, only to die 6 months after the fall of the Philippines from the cruelties of war (diarrhea, dyhydration, and malnutrition).

His mother Marie, would never fully recover from his death. More than likely, she was still affected by the loss of her first son, Leroy. Losing another son so young was too much for her to bear. Her grandchildren remember her with an 'air of formal sadness'. She was a loving, caring grandmother...but her sadness was palpable.
