Notes for Isaac Christian (Burkhardt) Burkhart:

A history of California and an extended history of Los Angeles and Environs, Volume 3. By James Miller Guinn; Historic Record Company, in Los Angeles, California, 1915. Page 889:

Isaac Burkhart. Among the immigrants who came to this country from Germany in 1796 was Tobias Burkhart, who made settlement in Pennsylvania near Williamsport. His wife, Christina Kiess, was also of German birth and parentage and received a good education in the schools of Stuttgart, Germany. Born to these parents were four sons and two daughters, all of whom were born at Williamsport, Pa., and of whom the two daughters and one son are now living in Ohio; one son, George, died in 1913.

Isaac Burkhart was born November 28, 1840, and was therefore about seven years of age when the family home was transferred from Pennsylvania to Ohio. To this youthful traveler the journey was interesting indeed, and he well remembers the loading and unloading of the two covered wagons that held the family possessions. Settlement was made on a farm two miles east of Bucyrus, Crawford County, and there the family lived contentedly for ten years. After this, however, the children left home one by one to establish themselves elsewhere, until only Isaac and Jacob remained with the parents. Tobias Burkhart finally disposed of his property in Crawford County and settled in Williams County, also in Ohio, and purchased three hundred and forty acres of land which he gave to the two sons just mentioned.

In 1867 Isaac Burkhart was united in marriage with Elisabeth Kaiser, who like himself claimed German antecedents, although she was born in Ohio. It was about twenty years after his marriage, and after the death of both his father and mother, that Mr. Burkhart made his first trip to the west in 1888. Among other places visited was Los Angeles, which city impressed him very favorably for large business opportunity. Associated with his brother W. H. he erected an apartment house on Temple Street 60x80 feet with forty rooms. After the completion of the building Isaac Burkhart returned east for the purpose of disposing of his holdings there, and on April 17, 1890, entered Los Angeles for the second and last time, and made his home in the apartment house on Temple Street. It was during that year also that Isaac and W. H. Burkhart put in operation the Nickel Plate Railroad, a dummy line running from the end of Temple Street to Hollywood. The undertaking was carried on successfully for several years, when the brothers became owners of the Santa Fe avenue horse car line. This also was operated with good returns for several years, the brothers then purchasing from Abbot Kinney a tract of land on Dayton Avenue. The interests of the brothers in this property were divided later, each taking his share and thus ending partnership associations covering many years.

It was about 1895 that Isaac and Elisabeth Burkhart bought ninety foot frontage on Los Angeles and Seventh streets and upon it erected an apartment house of forty-five rooms, on its completion removing to it from the Temple street property. In the following year, 1896, Mr. Burkhart built a number of cottages on Dayton Avenue, still later putting up a three-story block on the corner of Temple and Figueroa streets.

Mrs. Elisabeth (Kaiser) Burkhart passed away March 31, 1900, and on January 1, 1902, Mr. Burkhart married Elisabeth Basler, a native of Germany. After holding the property on Los Angeles Street for about ten years Mr. Burkhart sold it to H. E. Huntington in 1905. A few weeks afterward he purchased property at the corner of Main and Jefferson streets, upon which he built a two-story business block and also a residence at No. 111 West Jefferson street, which has been his home ever since. In addition to the properties already mentioned he built a two-story business block at No. 2614 Pasadena Avenue, with garage, and also purchased and improved the corner of Vernon Avenue and Figueroa Street, besides improving about forty other places, and is still interested in building.

The entire life of Isaac Burkhardt has been molded and influenced by religious convictions, for at an early age he was converted to a belief in the teachings of Christ, under the preaching of Mr. Shireman and George Haley in Ohio. He is identified with Salem Evangelical Church, at the corner of Twelfth and Hope streets, in which he has filled every office except that of pastor and at present is treasurer and a trustee. Although Mr. Burkhardt had no children of his own several children have come under his protecting care and received educations that but for him would never have been possible. Two of these children married and died in Terre Haute, Indiana. Another, Keziah Favorite, makes her home in Eaton Rapids, Michigan. Two others live in California. Frank in Los Angeles, and Fred in Pomona. It is needless to say that Mr. Burkhardt has been a keen observer of conditions and possibilities in Los Angeles during his residence of nearly thirty years here, and his investments voice his sentiments more favorably than could words.

(LA 1293. Department One. – January 31, 1905)

FRANCES BROOKS (formerly BURKHART), and WILLIAM H. BURKHART, Appellants, v. UNION TRUST AND REALTY COMPANY, Respondent.

RESULTING TRUST—PAROL EVIDENCE—RECITAL OF CONSIDERATION.—Parol evidence is admissible to establish a resulting trust in real property arising under section 853 of the Civil Code, notwithstanding the recital of a money consideration in apparent opposition thereto, which was not in fact paid by trustees, who had received the title to the property without consideration and had agreed orally to hold it in trust in definite proportions for those who had furnished the consideration.

ID.—ACTION BY DIVORCED WIFE AND FORMER HUSBAND—TITLE UNDER JUDGMENT AND SHERIFF'S SALE—JOINT OWNERSHIP—PAROL EVIDENCE.—In an action by a divorced wife remarried and her former husband to enforce a resulting and constructive trust, where the former husband had obtained a judgment which he had assigned to his wife, under which the title was obtained at sheriff's sale, the testimony of the divorced wife is admissible to show that the judgment and sheriff's sale there under belonged to herself and former husband in equal shares.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT — JURISDICTION UNDER AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION.—Under the provisions of section 4 of article VI of the constitution, as amended in 1904, this court has power to make rules having the force of positive law so far as the rights of the parties are concerned, if they do not conflict with any act of the legislature.

ID.—RULE REQUIRING SERVICE OF PETITION FOR REHEARING.—Rule XXX of this court, requiring a petition for rehearing to be served upon the adverse party within twenty days after the judgment is pronounced, and allowing time for an answer to be filed thereto, is valid; and a petition filed without such service must be disregarded if no showing is made of unavoidable accident or excusable mistake and substantial injury to be inflicted by its enforcement.

APPEAL from a judgment of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County and from an order denying a motion for new trial. N. P. Conrey, Jud&e.

The main facts are stated in the commissioner's opinion, and further facts are stated by the court in Bank on petition for rehearing.

Dunnigan & Dunnigan, for Appellants.

Walter Bordwell, for Respondent.

SMITH, C.—This is a suit to enforce an alleged trust (resulting and constructive) in land conveyed to defendant's grantors by plaintiffs' alleged trustee. The findings and judgment were for the defendant; and the plaintiffs' appeal from an order denying their motion for a new trial. Both parties—with an exception that will be noted—rely on the same deraignment of title, which is as follows:—

1. Judgment in favor of plaintiff Burkhart against Teresa Luhning, of date September 19, 1891, for the sum of $85.85— afterwards assigned to plaintiff Brooks; who was then the wife of Burkhart, but afterwards divorced.
2. Sheriff's sale under execution on the judgment for the sum of $135.75, and certificate of sale to plaintiff Brooks, on date July, 1895; at which time, it is alleged in the complaint and not denied, she was still the wife of Burkhart. On this point there seems to be some confusion. The finding of the court is to the contrary of the allegation; and in the respondent's brief it is said that the parties had been divorced nearly two years prior to the sale. But we are cited to no evidence in support of this assertion, and have not been able to find any. The point is material only to the matter in evidence.
3. Assignment of certificate of sale, for recited consideration of $135.75, and subsequent sheriff's deed, January 22, 1896, to Daniel Burkhart and Leonard Brooks; sons, the former, of plaintiff Burkhart, the latter, of plaintiff Brooks.
4. Conveyance by Leonard Brooks to Daniel Burkhart, and allotment of the land in question to the latter, by judgment in a partition suit, in the year 1899.
5. Deed of Daniel Burkhart, during his last illness, to Sexton & Grider, of date January 8, 1901.
6. Deed from Sexton & Grider to defendant, of date January 9, 1901.

In addition to the above, it is alleged in the second count of the complaint that during the last illness of Daniel Burkhart, and before his deed to Sexton & Grider, a deed, in execution of the trust, was made and delivered by him to his father, and brother, John Burkhart. But there will be no occasion to consider this aspect of the case.

It is alleged by the plaintiff in effect: That the plaintiff Mrs. Brooks, under agreement to that effect, took the certificate of purchase at the sheriff's sale for the joint use and benefit of herself and husband, in certain definite proportions; that the certificate was assigned by her, and, by the direction of plaintiffs, the sheriff's deed made, to Leonard Brooks and Daniel Burkhart, without consideration, and upon a parol agreement and understanding that they should hold the land in trust for plaintiffs; that the deed of the former to the latter was made by direction of plaintiff Burkhart upon the same trust and confidence; that the trust was repeatedly admitted by Leonard and Daniel; and, finally, that the deeds from Daniel to Sexton & Grider, and from the latter to the defendant, were taken by the grantees, respectively, with full knowledge of the trust.

It is further alleged, in effect: That the deed to Sexton & Grider was procured by the fraud and undue influence of the grantees, acting in conspiracy with one Bigelow and others; and that the defendant took the deed with knowledge of the trust relations between Daniel and the plaintiffs, and of the fraud and conspiracy of its grantors and Bigelow. These allegations occur in the second count of the complaint, wherein all the facts set out in the first count are also alleged. On all of the issues thus raised, the findings were adverse to the plaintiffs.

The points urged by the appellants are: That the material findings are not supported by the evidence; that a new trial should have been granted on the affidavits of newly discovered evidence; and that the court erred in sustaining the objections of the defendant to questions put to the plaintiff Brooks and her son Leonard as to the agreement or understanding under which they took their respective titles.

The last point, if sustained or held to be untenable, will dispose of the appeal; and, as we are of the opinion that it is well taken, it will be sufficient to say of the others that evidence was introduced by the plaintiffs to prove their material allegations—some of it of a very cogent nature; and that it is claimed by the appellant, not without some plausibility, that "had the court not been in error upon the law of this matter, it would doubtless have granted a new trial on the affidavits." Our attention will, therefore, be confined to the point raised by the exclusion of the testimony of Mrs. Brooks and her son Leonard.

As to the former, it is urged by the respondent that the evidence offered was inadmissible because it appeared that Mrs. Brooks was "the owner of the judgment which was the consideration of the sale." But—leaving out of view that it appears that advances for sheriff's costs were made by Burkhart, which would constitute part of the consideration—her testimony as to her part interest with her husband in the property purchased (the fruit of the judgment) would have been cogent to prove that she was similarly interested in the judgment itself; and the justice of this inference is confirmed by her own express testimony to that effect. Nor were it otherwise, are we to be understood as holding that the point would be tenable.

But the principal point urged relates to the testimony of Leonard, and is, that, a money consideration being recited in the assignment of the certificate, and in the sheriff's deed to him, parol evidence was inadmissible to establish the alleged trust; in support of which contention Russ v. Mebius, 16 Cal. 350, and other cases are cited. But these were cases where the trusts sought to be established were in favor of the grantor; and if it be assumed for the purposes of the decision, that such trusts continue to exist, as resulting trusts, under the codes (Feeney v. Howard, 79 Cal. 5301), yet the principle announced in Russ v. Mebius is peculiar to that class of cases, and has no application to the kind of resulting trusts referred to in section 853 of the Civil Code. In trusts of this kind the consideration is usually recited, yet parol testimony is always admissible. (Hidden v. Jordan, 21 Cal. 93; Btylcs v. Baxter, 22 Cal. 575; Millard v. Hathaway, 27 Cal. 119, 142; cases cited, Pomeroy's ed. Civ. Code, section cited.) The evidence offered was, we think, clearly admissible, and its exclusion material error.

We advise that the order appealed from be reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial.

Cooper, C, and Gray, C, concurred.

For the reasons given in the foregoing opinion, the order appealed from is reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial. Van Dyke, J., Shaw, J., Angellotti, J. 112 Am. St. Kep. 162.

On petition for rehearing in Bank, the following opinion was rendered February 28, 1905, by the court in Bank:—

THE COURT.—The respondent has filed with the clerk a petition for rehearing without serving a copy thereof on the adverse party. Section 4 of article VI of the constitution, as amended November 8, 1904, contains the following provision :—

"The supreme court shall make and adopt rules not inconsistent with law for the government of the supreme court and of the district courts of appeal and of the officers thereof, and for regulating the practice in said courts."

In pursuance of this authority and command the Supreme Court has adopted rules of practice which are now in force. Rule XXX provides as follows:—

"1. Applications for a rehearing of a cause by the court rendering judgment therein must be filed and a copy served on the adverse party, within twenty days after the judgment is pronounced. The adverse party may file an answer thereto not less than two days before the expiration of the time within which the rehearing can be granted. . . .

"4. The times herein prescribed shall not be extended, and the clerk must not file any such application or answer after the time therefore has expired."

By virtue of the power conferred by the amendment, the Supreme Court now has authority to make rules of practice which have the force of positive law so far as the rights of the parties are concerned, provided such rules do not conflict with any act of the legislature. The provisions of rule XXX, above quoted, are consistent with the law. They confer a positive right upon the prevailing party to have a copy of such application served upon him, at least ten days before the expiration of the time within which the application can be considered by the court, and give him at least eight days thereafter within which to file an answer thereto. These are substantial advantages to adverse parties, and if they are wisely used the court will be materially aided in the disposition of the application. Where rules of court are of such a nature that important rights are given by them, a compliance therewith must be strictly enforced. In cases where it is shown that by unavoidable accident or excusable mistake parties have been prevented from observing such rules, and it appears that substantial injury will be inflicted by their enforcement, the court may, on proper terms, allow a departure there from. Such cases, however, must be extremely rare and the circumstances extraordinary, and the court will be reluctant to vary in the least from the exact practice prescribed. Under the circumstances here shown the petition should not have been filed without the service upon the adverse party, and it must be disregarded.

Notes for Samuel Kiess:

Mr. Kiess has quite a rare collection of bric-a-brac, which is of very great value to a lover of relics as he is. He has a Bible, the former property of a German in New York, that was printed in the year 1668, and for which he has been offered $3,000, refusing to take that amount. It is about 16" long x 10-1/2" wide x 6" thick, and is bound in what is supposed to be the leather made from the skin of a hog, with heavy brass corners and clasps, and was printed in Frankfort, Germany. He also has a fine collection of ancient coins and currency, among which is a three cent piece issued by the West Branch Bank of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, on the first of January 1863; a ten-cent piece from the Williams County, Ohio, and also some from the State Bank of Ohio, bearing an early date.

Notes for Jacob John Burkhardt:

The County of Williams by William Henry Sinn, Madison Wisconsin - Northwestern Historical Association, 1905; page 314:

Jacob J. Burkhardt, a successful farmer and highly respected citizen of St. Joseph Township, Williams Co, Ohio, was born in Lycoming County Pennsylvania, October 15, 1842. He is the son of Tobias and Christina (Keiss) Burkhardt, both natives of Germany. Tobias Burkhardt came to the United States in 1804 with his mother, Dorothy (Beal) Burkhardt, and located Pennsylvania, where she died. His wife, Christina (Keiss) Burkhardt, came to America in 1817, both of her parents having died in Germany. They came to Williams County, Ohio in 1865 and settled on a farm in St. Joseph Twp, where he died in 1876, aged eighty years, and she died nine years later, aged eighty-three years.

Jacob J. was reared on his father's farm and educated at Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio. Having learned the shoemaker's trade, he set up a shop in Edon, Williams Co, Ohio, and plied his avocation there for almost fifteen years. Selling his shop he invested the proceeds in a farm of sixty acres about two miles northwest of Edgerton, on which he has lived the past twenty-two years, following general farming. To public office he has never aspired, notwithstanding he is a very active Democrat.

Jacob J. Burkhardt married Miss Harriet Mowery, who was born in Sandusky County, Ohio, January 27, 1851, and died November 9, 1887, aged thirty-six years, four months and twelve days. On July 4, 1889, he married Miss Mary E. Hollinger of Sandusky County, born May 24, 1859, the daughter of Charles and Philipina (Hopp) Hollinger. Charles Hollinger was born in Bavaria, Germany, September 14, 1814. He married in 1841 and emigrated to America seven years later, locating in Sandusky County, where he resided on a farm until 1867, when he removed to Williams County, Ohio, settling on a farm two miles northeast of Edgerton. His wife, also a native of Bavaria, was born June 14, 1814. They are both dead, he dying July 21, 1889, aged nearly seventy-five years, and she on January 23, 1905, aged nearly ninety-one years. They were the parents of seven daughters and three sons, all of whom are living. Bartlett Hollinger, the father of Charles Hollinger, was a native of Germany and came to the United States with his son in 1848, and died in Sandusky County. Fred, Jacob, brothers of Charles Hollinger, came over at the same time, the former dying at Fremont, Ohio, in 1889, and the latter is now a resident of Sandusky County, his farm being twelve miles west of Fremont. Henry Hollinger, who came to Sandusky County and died at Bettsville in that county in 1889. Two sisters and a half-sister of Mr. Burkhardt's first wife emigrated to America, locating in Baltimore, Maryland, where all died except one sister, who died at Bowling Green, Ohio.

To Jacob J. Burkhardt and his first wife there were born four children. They are: Fred Isaac, born December 4, 1872; Willis Daniel, born November 13, 1874; Maudie Elizabeth, born January 19, 1877, and died June 28, 1895; and Samuel Jacob, born October 18, 1881. By his second wife he had three children, all daughters: Gladys May, born January 26, 1892; Flossie Ladortha, born February 19, 1894, and Carrie Gertrude, born May 18, 1895. Mr. and Mrs. Burkhardt are members of the Evangelical Association. In politics Mr. Burkhardt is a staunch Democrat.

J. W. Shaffer, farmer, P. O., Galion; was born in Washington Township, Morrow County Ohio, July 17, 1846; his parents (still living on the farm adjoining) were among the early settlers, coming from Mansfield, O., but originally from Germany. Mr. Shaffer Has spent all these years on his father's farm, or that portion of it which is come into his possession. His opportunities for an education were limited to the public schools in the near vicinity, but these were eagerly seized and conscientiously improved. May 3, 1866, he married Miss Mary Burkhardt, whose early home was in Pennsylvania, but more recently in Marion Co. of this State. They have three children; the two oldest are as follows: Sarah Ellen, 13 years, and Ida May, 7 years of age. Mr. Shaffer has a fine farm, numbering 50 acres, in a fine state of cultivation. In this he interests himself, keeping it in good repair, raising good crops, and is making a success as a practical farmer.

Notes for Ludwig Christof (Lewis Miller) Mueller:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Lewis Miller (deceased) was born in Scio Township, Washtenaw County, in 1844, and was a son of Godfrey Miller, a native of Wurtemberg, Germany. He married, in Scio Township, Fredericka Burkhardt, who settled in this county in 1848. Mr. Miller became a farmer of prominence in Scio Township, owning at the time of his death 235 acres of valuable land. His widow sold this property in 1880, and at present resides in Ann Arbor, where she owns valuable city property.

Michigan Argus, August 13, 1875:

A shocking tragedy occurred in Scio, six miles and half west of this city on Tuesday night. Ludwig Miller, a farmer of considerable property and of good social standing was murdered in cold blood. The deed was committed by an adopted son only fifteen years of age, who bears the name of George Luman Burkhardt. This lad entered the bed room of Mr. Miller, where he was in bed and asleep with his wife and a young child, and deliberately shot him, causing his almost instantaneous death. The lad had made careful preparations for his deed, sometime in advance, as an extra gun loaded and cocked and standing against a brick oven in the rear of the house, seemed to indicate, he evidently intended to use this if the other failed. An old bookcase or cupboard in a room over the woodshed, in which Mr. Miller kept his powder and shot, and which was securely locked, was found to have been broken into, and a portion of the contents taken. Suspicion early fastened upon him, and when threats were made in his presence he ran away. He was soon caught however and put under arrest. For a long time all efforts to get a confession from him failed, but at length he made a clear breast of the whole matter, and said that he had killed Mr. Miller because he was recently whipped him and since that time he did not like him. He said he had prepared the guns in the evening, and when all were quiet and asleep, between eleven and twelve o'clock, he approached the bed of Mr. Miller, which was plainly seen by the light of a burning lamp in an adjoining, and saw him lying on his right side and well up on the pillow. He took deliberate aim at his breast and fired. He then replaced the gun beside the other at the brick oven, and returned to his room upstairs. He was afterward on hand when the alarm was given, and ran to one of the neighbors to tell them that Mr. Miller had been struck by lightning.

Mrs. Miller does not know how she was aroused, but when awake, she smelled the burning sleeve of her husband's shirt, which had been ignited by the wad from the gun. Extinguishing this she noticed his unnatural breathing, and tried to arouse him, but failing she thought he must have been struck by lightning and immediately called a hired man from the chamber. He ran to a neighbor to convey this intelligence, but before he had returned the unfortunate man had breathed his last. Not till after this did they learn what was the true cause of his death, as but few drops of blood came from the wound.

On a post mortem examination performed by Dr. Frothingham, it was ascertained that the charge from the gun had entered the breast just below the left shoulder, passed between the second and third ribs, through the two lobes of the left lung, shattered the seventh and eighth ribs and finally lodged within the body.

The hardened youth took the matter of his arrest very coolly, and burst into laughter when the handcuffs were put upon his wrists. On coming to this city he asked of the sheriff what work he would probably have to do in State Prison, and seemed to look forward to it with some degree of pleasure. It is hardly conceivable that so unprovoked and premeditated a deed could have been wrought by the hands of this young boy, who had never wanted for anything that would make him industrious, honest and educated. Mr. Miller had always been very kind to him, using no more chastisement in his training than any father upon his son. He had endeavored to keep him at Sunday school instead of having him roaming in the fields or woods hunting on the Sabbath, and this curb on his vicious spirit had provoked to this horrible deed. The boy was always well clothed, and had plenty of spending money when he needed it; the verdict of all Mr. Miller's neighbors is that he treated him too well.

The earlier history of this boy murderer is as follows: Mrs. Miller's brother a Mr. Burkhardt, shortly before the war married a young French woman. Two sons were the fruits of this union, when the father joined the army, and not long after was killed, leaving his widow with these two children, one of them George something over two years old. Their mother being poor and not caring to be burdened, put them into the County House. One of her husband's relatives, in pity took them to this home and reared them up till George was eight years old. At this time Ludwig Miller was married and George Burkhardt was bound over to him as an adopted son. But alas! for human calculations, the efforts of an honest, hopeful man to reclaim a cast-off child have recoiled upon him, and caused the shedding of his life's blood. The annals of Crime present scarcely anything so repulsive as this horrible murder, and we can hardly feel satisfied with the leniency of justice in the punishment of its perpetrator. It is almost beyond comprehension that a youth of his age could become so hardened as to deliberately shoot his own benefactor. Even the brute creation have more feeling than this!

Mr. Miller, by his death, leaves a wife, two small children and a widowed mother. But they are not without abundant means subsistence, as a farm of 245 acres is left for their support. A large number of wealthy relatives and kind friends stand ready to offer their assistance and sympathy. Mr. Miller was a nephew of Mr. Henry Paul, of this city, and brother of J. G. Miller who died recently and quite suddenly on Detroit Street. He was thirty years of age, and was doing finely in the way of the world's possessions. His funeral will be held at his residence this morning at ten o'clock.

The crime has given the community a shock from which it will not soon recover, and will form one of the darkest chapters in the history of this county, if not the State.

Notes for George Lyman Burkhardt:
Michigan Argus, September 17, 1875:

The boy murderer, Lyman Burkhardt, was brought into court at the opening of the session on Wednesday afternoon, to answer to the charge of the murder he committed. In reply to the question of "guilty or not guilty," he said promptly, "guilty." When asked further by the Court if he knew what pleading guilty meant, he replied that he understood it perfectly well. Again the judge inquired: "Do you really comprehend the enormity of the crime you have committed?" "I do," he calmly answered. His whole bearing and conversation in court were marked by the same cold indifference and heartlessness that have characterized him all along. He was ordered by the judge to be returned to prison to await his formal trial, which by the law of the State must be granted.

Michigan Argus, October 1, 1875 (from Jackson Patriot):

It is hard to think of a boy "fifteen years old and in person for life," but that is the brief history of Lyman Burkhardt, who was brought yesterday from Ann Arbor, to begin the punishment awarded him for the shooting of his foster father, Mr. Miller, in Scio, Washtenaw County, last month. The story of his crime has been told before in this columns and needs no rehearsal at length. At the prison yesterday we sought him out and had some little conversation with him. He is fifteen years old and very slight even for his age. He is dark in complexion with large grey eyes, small mouth, large, irregular teeth and full lips. His expression is far from being brutal or devilish, and in any other place and under circumstances less odious he would be regarded as a handsome boy. To sit and look at him would find it hard to persuade oneself that it is the face of a cold-blooded murderer; but at times as he became excited in telling his story his eyes would flash and there would come into them a look of fierce passion that made one shudder, and which showed that he possessed a large share of latent evil in his composition, and which was enough to inform the observer what sent him there. He told his story briefly but frankly. That he murdered the old man he at once admitted, and said that he did it because he was severely and continually maltreated by Mr. Miller, who took him from his father seven years ago to live with him, his father being very poor.

The boy's actions and demeanor since he committed the crime have been a riddle. He made no attempt to escape and did not seem to realize the probable consequence of his act; he had slaked his revenge and was satisfied. When he first arrived yesterday he manifested the same indifference, or assumption of it, for it is difficult to tell whether he is or is not playing stoic by an effort of will. If he really can realize his situation and future and experiences and emotion he does not care to have it known, for once Saturday it was seen that his eyes were filled with tears, but as soon as he saw he was observed he dashed them away, and refused to say what had moved him. In the afternoon he had evidently been doing some thinking, and was more disposed to look his future in the face. He enters on his life with a feeling of hope and asks us if we did not think he would be let out in six years if he was good. The idea that his whole life must be spent inside alls his mind did not seem able to comprehend, and he was confident that his term would be shortened by some dispensation of Providence. The opinion of nearly every one who has seen him is that his mind is not sound, and that he is mentally unable to comprehend more than vaguely what he has done and what it entails.

It is saddening to talk with or think of this boy convict, with what seems only blankness before him. It is bad enough to think of any man being sentenced to prison for life, but when a mere child, one just at the threshold of life, as it were, is called on to undergo this ordeal it is simply fearful to contemplate.

Notes for Georg Michael Burkhardt:

Old Pioneer - Death of Michael Burkhardt, Flagman at Center Avenue Crossing:

Michael Burkhardt, one of the oldest and best known German citizens of Bay City, died at 3 o'clock yesterday morning at his home, 604 Jackson Street. Mr. Burkhardt came to Bay City in 1852, and followed the business of teaming. One day while driving along Columbus Avenue his rig was struck by a Pere Marquette train and he was seriously injured. Upon his recovery the railroad company appointed him as flagman at the Center Avenue crossing and in his position he has remained, filling its duties until about ten days ago when he became ill. He boarded a street car and rode as far as Jackson Street, remarking to the conductor that he was sick and was going to die. The conductor made light of the assertion, but "Mike" knew his condition better and gradually failed until death came.

Mr. Burkhardt was born March 1, 1831. He was twice married, having twelve children by his first wife, five of whom are living. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the house.

The five surviving children are Frank, Henry, of this city, Catherine and Minnie of Detroit, and Mrs. Neusendeck (Mensendick), of Sioux City, Iowa.

The deceased had been a member of Bethel Lutheran Church since its organization. He was also a member of the Arbeiter Society.

Children of Georg Burkhardt and Regina Frueh are:

- 966 i. Paulina Katharina (Katie)<sup>8</sup> Burkhardt, born 04 Dec 1858 in Bay City, Bay Co, Michigan; died 14 Jul 1890 in Lake City, Minnesota.

Notes for Paulina Katharina (Katie) Burkhardt:

St. Paul, Minnesota, July 15, 1890 - Sunday evening a cyclone or hurricane struck the little city of Lake City, located on Lake Peppin, about seventy miles below here, and a large number of people were killed by the sinking of a steamer. The steamer Sea Wing was coming up the lake at about 9 o'clock at night, and when opposite the City the storm struck in fairly and sent it to the bottom. There were on board 150 people from Diamond Bluff, and about fifty more were on a barge which was in tow. The steamer Sea Wing left Red Wing in the afternoon with 250 passengers on board, bound for Lake City, where the state encampment of the state militia is in progress. At several small towns along the shore of Lake Peppin enough more people were taken on board to make about 350 people when the boat reached its destination. A barge was in tow which carried 100 of this number. Late in the afternoon the party re-embarked for home. The steamer was in the middle of the lake, off Lake City, when the cyclone struck that place. The boat became unmanageable at once.

The barge was cut loose and after an hour drifted to shore with about twenty people on board. The others were drowned. Among the dead are some of the best known prominent people of Red Wing and vicinity. A number of bodies are already washed ashore, and the citizens have formed a voluntary police service to patrol the shores and watch for the others. The storm did great damage to property in and about Lake City, but no lives were destroyed on shore so far as reported. The tornado also swept the shores of Lake Gervais, nine miles north of St. Paul, killing eleven people outright and injuring forty or more, some of them fatally.

The following is the list of the names of bodies that have so far been recovered: John Heffler, and wife and two children, Peter Gevlen, wife and five children, Mrs. Hemfobling and three children, Mrs. Schuelberg and daughter, Minnie Fisher, Mark Skoglund, Katie Daley, Mrs. F. Sherf and daughter, Fred Christ, Annie Steiger, Francis Steiger, George Nelson, John Bahrs and wife, Charles Dinstager, Fred Severs and daughter, Tom Larson, Addie Wing and sister, H. Redlus and two children, Fred Hattemeyer, Mamie Adams, Henry Stiffney, Katie Burkhardt, A. O. Anderson, Eddie Christeferson, Herman Hipper, George Haris, Mrs. Hellie Woohrn and son, Milly Niles, Biersohn Fiby, Cordy Johnson, Floy Smith, Mirty Meere, Ira Fulton.

It is quite probable that there are yet fifty or sixty people missing in addition to the list of identified dead. It is thought that all of these are in the wreck which lies off the point near Lake City. The undertaking establishment here is crowded with friends of the dead and many cases of prostration have occurred. Business is completely at a standstill.

The work of pulling in the wreck of the boat was commenced as soon as it was light enough to see Monday morning. At 11 o'clock six bodies were taken from the cabin. The body of a woman, as yet unidentified, was picked up on the shore of the lake near here. The lake is filled with debris from the wreck - chairs, boards and life-preservers strewn on the beach for a mile up the lake shore. Hundreds of citizens of Lake City flock the shore, among them many friends and relatives of the missing ones whose bodies are still beneath the water. The general opinion is that the estimate of the loss of 125 lives will be verified.

Notes for William Gross:

Warren Man is fatally hurt by automobile. William Gross dies few minutes after being struck by car; was on way to hospital to visit wife; stepped from curb in front of car. PLAN NO INQUEST. The Second violent death in the vicinity of Warren in fourteen hours occurred last evening about seven o'clock when William Gross, 64 years old, of 1607 1/2 Pennsylvania Avenue west, sustained fatal injuries when he was struck by an automobile driven by Aaron H. Scranton, 45 years old, an employee of the Rouse Hospital. The accident occurred at the intersection of Pennsylvania avenue west and Wetmore Street, when Mr. Gross is alleged to have stepped from the curb directly in front of the machine operated by the Youngsville man. He was moved to the hospital by the W.E. Lutz ambulance but died just as he was admitted. Examination by a physician who was present showed that he had sustained a badly crushed skull, broken neck and other injuries. A regrettable feature of the accident is the fact that the wife of the victim is a patient in the hospital, in such condition that it was deemed advisable to delay telling her until today. Evidence brought out in the investigation of Coroner Ed Lowrey and Lieut. Ray Eckhardt, of the Warren police department, and testimony of two eyewitnesses tended to exonerate the driver from blame. Apparently Mr. Gross either was walking along the curb or partly in the pavement. Mr. Scranton stated that he was driving about 25 miles an hour, and was almost in the middle of the intersection before he observed Mr. Gross stepping from the right curb at the southeast corner of the intersection, but a few feet in front of him. Marks in the pavement showed that he pulled sharply to the left, but Mr. Gross was struck by the right bumper and light, in such a manner as to throw his head against the framework of the windshield on the right side. The car was stopped in about twenty-five feet, and then pulled to the left curb, after which Mr. Scranton aided in carrying the injured man off the pavement. He later visited the hospital and reported the accident to the police station after which he returned to the scene with the officials. The body was moved to the W.E.Lutz funeral home, where friends may call. Plans for the funeral had not been completed today. After completing the investigation into the accident today Coroner Lowrey announced that unless there were further developments justifying the same, there would be no inquest. Mr. Gross has resided in Warren for the past ten years.

He is survived by his wife and three children: Alice, aged 11, John, 9, and Herbert, 5.

He had been employed at one time at the Warren Axe & Tool Company plant, later engaging in the baking and distribution of doughnuts in the borough.

Notes for Sanford Wesley Burkhart:

History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 765:

Sanford W. Burkhart, who is one of the well known farmers and stock raisers of Whetstone Township, Crawford County, Ohio, residing on his valuable tract of 82 acres, was born in Marion County, Ohio, October 7, 1866, and is a son of John S. and Elizabeth (Shaffer) Burkhart.

The Burkhart family is a numerous and respected one in Pennsylvania and there John S. Burkhart was born. An enterprising spirit brought him to Ohio in youth and in Morrow County he was married to Elizabeth Shaffer. They reside on their farm in Marion County, Ohio, where they have lived for many years and have taken part in the useful activities and interests of that section. The following children were born to them: Sanford W.; Louise, who is the wife of Abraham Guinther; Ella, who is the wife of John Lepp; and Ora.

After his school days Sanford W. Burkhart assisted his father on the homestead and remained with him until he was 32 years of age and then purchased his present place from Isaac Noblit. A new barn and entirely remodeled house changed the appearance of the property in a very short time and a pleasant air of thrift and prosperity is very noticeable. Mr. Burkhart raises some excellent stock for his own use and grows the grains that do best in this climate.

On March 4, 1898, Mr. Burkhart was married to Miss Emma Christman, who is a daughter of Henry and Lucinda (Speace) Christman, both of whom are now deceased. The father of Mrs. Burkhart was a farmer in Marion County and his children were as follows: Sadie, who is the wife of Silas Hill; Edward, who is deceased; Iva, who is the wife of Rev. David Raiser, pastor of the Reformed church at Tiffin, Ohio; Bertha, who is the wife of Ora Bensley; and Emma, who is the wife of Mr. Burkhart. To the last named have been born: Verda, Lester, Joan, Mildred, and a babe that died. They are members of the Reformed Church. In politics Mr. Burkhart is a Democrat.

Joseph F.<sup>8</sup> Burkhart (George<sup>7</sup> Burkhardt, Tobias (Burghardt)<sup>6</sup>, Johann Georg (Burghardt)<sup>5</sup>, Johann Michael<sup>4</sup> Burckhardt, Agnes<sup>3</sup> Thoni, Johannes<sup>2</sup>, Michel<sup>1</sup>) was born 25 May 1858 in Eden Twp, Wyandot Co, Ohio, and died 1929 in Williams Co, Ohio. He married Lettie Elizabeth (Aletta) Casebeer 25 Dec 1884 in Williams Co, Ohio, daughter of George Casebere and Elizabeth Kniseley. She was born 15 Dec 1866 in Tracy Twp, DeKalb Co, Indiana, and died 04 Feb 1946 in Edgerton, Williams Co, Ohio.

Notes for Joseph F. Burkhart:

The County of Williams by William Henry Sinn, Madison Wisconsin - Northwestern Historical Association, 1905; page 315:

Joseph Burkhart, a practical and prominent farmer of St. Joseph Township, Williams Co, Ohio, was born in Crawford County, Ohio, May 25, 1858. He is the son of George Burkhart, when twelve years of age he removed with his parents from his native county of Williams County, receiving his public school training in both counties. reared on a farm, it is quite natural that he has chosen farming as his avocation in life. In addition to this he has paid special attention to stock raising, a centure that has in his case proved remarkably remunerative. He is the owner of two hundred and eleven acres in St. Joseph Township and twenty acres in DeKalb County, Indiana, the two pieces of land joining. This property has practically all been made by him as he received little assistance from his father. While an active Democrat, he has never been an aspirant to public office. He and his wife attend the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she is an active member.

On December 25, 1884, he married Miss Lettie Casebere, who was born in DeKalb County, Indiana, December 15, 1866. She is the daughter of George and Elizabeth (Kniseley) Casebere, the former born October 8, 1832, in Tuscarawas County, and the latter in Canal Dover, of the same county, November 2, 1835. George Casebere was the son of John and Nancy (Smily) Casebere, who came to Williams County in 1840, where he died September 4, 1881, and she in 1869. They had twelve children, of whom eight are still living. The father of Mrs. Burkhart, George Casebere, for years a prominent merchant at Blakeslee, Williams County, died in July, 1896, and his wife three years earlier. They had four children, of whom three are still living.

Joseph Burkhart and wife are the parents of three children: Ora Glen, born July 5, 1885; Earl Lyston, born August 22, 1888; and Arthur Dale, born February 11, 1890. Mrs. Burkhart is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In politics Mr. Burkhart is a Democrat, but has never sought office. He pays strict attention to his farming interests, assisted by his sons.

Joseph Burkhart. A prominent and prosperous agriculturist, and an extensive land holder, Joseph Burkhart, of St. Joseph Township, is widely known as proprietor of Twin Elm Farm, which consists of 260 acres of land, twenty acres of which lies in Dekalb County, Indiana. He also owns another farm of 240 acres in the same township, and is carrying on general farming and stock raising most successfully. A son of George Burkhart, he was born, May 12, 1858, in Crawford County, Ohio, where he lived until twelve years of age.

Born and educated in Pennsylvania, George Burkhart came to Ohio in early manhood, locating in Crawford County, where he ran a saw mill for a few seasons. Moving to Bucyrus, in the same county, he took charge of a furnace. He subsequently invented the old Excelsior reaper, the first one that had a patent dropper, and traveled on the road selling the machines. Coming to Williams County with his family in 1869, he spent his remaining years on a farm in St. Joseph Township. He was a democrat in politics, and a member of the Evangelical Church, with which he was prominently identified. He married Roxanna Songer, who was born in Pennsylvania, and as a child came with her parents to Ohio, locating in Crawford County. Of the children born of their marriage, seven are living, as follows: Joseph, the special subject of this sketch; Sarah, wife of Solomon Suffel, living near Montpelier, Williams County; Samuel F., engaged in farming in St. Joseph Township; Frank, of Edgerton; Ida, wife of Chester Isenhood; Anna, wife of John Richmond; and Sophia, the eldest child of the parental household, wife of Daniel Mowery, of St. Louis, Missouri.

Coming with the family to Williams County in 1869, Joseph Burkhart was educated in the district schools, and after finishing his studies spent many years on the home farm, remaining with his parents until twenty-five years old. Choosing the free and independent occupation to which he was reared. Mr. Burkhart has met with no failures in his undertakings, at the present writing having title to 400 acres of choice land, from which he reaps bountiful harvests, the rich soil responding readily to his methods of culture.

Mr. Burkhart married, December 25, 1884, Aletta Casebere, who was born in Tracy Township, Dekalb County, Indiana, December 15, 1866, a daughter of George Casebere, and granddaughter of John and Nancy (Smiley) Casebere, who settled in Williams County, Ohio, in 1840. George Casebere was born in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, in 1832, and died in July, 1896. His wife, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Kinsely, was born in Canal Dover, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, November 2, 1835, and died in 1893. Four children were born of their union, as follows: Lee Casebere, of Bryan, Ohio; Solomon, of Butler, Indiana; Marshall, deceased; and Aletta, now Mrs. Burkhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkhart have three children, namely: Ora Glenn, born July 5, 1885, married Ethel Spaulding; Earl Lyston, born August 22, 1888, is single, and lives at home; and Arthur Dale, born February 11, 1890, who was graduated from the Edgerton High School, and the Fort Wayne Business College, married Jette Kimball. Mr. Burkhart is a democrat in politics, and Mrs. Burkhart, true to the religious faith in which she was reared, is an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Samuel F. Burkhart, brother of Joseph Burkhart, was born in Crawford County, Ohio, near Bucyrus, June 6, 1862, and at the age of seven years came with his parents to Saint Joseph Township, where he acquired his early knowledge of books, and became acquainted with the various branches of agriculture. Finding farming both agreeable and profitable, he turned his attention to agriculture when young, and has now 180 acres of land in his home farm, and is managing it with exceptionally good results. He has accumulated considerable property, in addition to the farm which he now occupies having formerly had title to sixty-five acres nearby, and is a stockholder in the Farmers Commercial Bank of Edgerton.

Mr. Burkhart married Lena Landel, and they have three children, namely: Charles, a graduate of the Edon High School; Oscar, a graduate of the Edgerton High School, is now, in 1920, a sophomore in the University of Illinois, at Urbana; and Raymond, a student in the Edgerton High School. Mr. Burkhart is a prominent and useful member of the Evangelical Church, in which he is an elder, and is an active worker in the Sunday school, which he has served as superintendent. He is a steadfast democrat in politics, and has served as a member, and as president, of the local school board.

Notes for Samuel F. Burkhardt:

The County of Williams by William Henry Sinn, Madison Wisconsin - Northwestern Historical Association, 1905; page 316:

Samuel F. Burkhardt, a successful farmer and livestock dealer of St. Joseph Township, Williams County, Ohio, was born in Crawford County, Ohio, June 6, 1862. He is the son of George and Rosanna (Songer) Burkhardt, both natives of Pennsylvania. His grandparents were Tobias and Christina (Keiss) Burkhardt, both natives of Germany. Tobias Burkhardt came to the United States in 1804 with his mother, Dorothy (Beal) Burkhardt, and located in Pennsylvania, where she died. His wife, Christina (Keiss) Burkhardt, came to America in 1817, both of her parents having died in Germany.

Samuel F. Burkhardt having been brought up on a farm, it is but natural that he has made farming his occupation for life. The thorough training that he received while working for his father fitted him for a successful life in the same line of work. His ownership of one hundred and sixty acres of the most valuable and productive land in the county, located one mile from Edgerton, measures to some extent his success as a farmer. He deals extensively in horses and buys and sells all other kinds of livestock. Having a thorough knowledge of stock of all kinds, and being a shrewd trader, he has met with unusual success as stockman. Possessed of sound judgement and good common sense, he is rated as one of the most successful business men in the county. His time is wholly taken up with the management of his business affairs, so that he has no time to engage in any other enterprises. In politics he is a staunch Democrat, but in no sense an office seeker. In church work he and wife are identified with the Evangelical Church.

On May 16, 1890, he was wedded to Miss Lana Landle, born in Edgerton, February 15, 1866, the daughter of Christopher and Lana (Miller) Landle, a prosperous farmer of St. Joseph Township. Three children have blessed the union of Mr. and Mrs. Burkhardt, named Charlie, born March 15, 1893; Oscar, born October 16, 1900; and Raymond, born June 19, 1903.

While still comparatively a young man Mr. Burkhardt has achieved success of which he has just cause making a close study of live stock, always depending on his own judgement, he ranks among the foremost of the men of affairs in this county.

Notes for Frank Burkhart:

The County of Williams by William Henry Sinn, Madison Wisconsin - Northwestern Historical Association, 1905; page 313:

Frank Burkhart, one of the progressive and highly successful farmers of St. Joseph Township, Williams County, Ohio, was born in Crawford County, Ohio, January 12, 1864. He is the son of George and Rosanna (Songer) Burkhart, both natives of Pennsylvania. His grandparents were Tobias and Christina (Keiss) Burkhart, both natives of Germany. Tobias Burkhart came to the United States in 1804 with his mother, Dorothy (Beal) Burkhart, and located in Lycemburg, Heppin Twp, Pennsylvania, where she died. His wife, Christina (Keiss) Burkhart, came to America in 1817, both of her parents having died in Germany. They came to Williams County, Ohio in 1865 and settled on a farm in St. Joseph Twp, where he died in 1876, aged eighty years, and she died nine years later, aged eighty-three years. The maternal grandparents of Frank Burkhart were George and Catherine (Encen) Songer, he a native of Germany and she of Pennsylvania. George Songer was born in 1807 and emigrated to America when seven years old, locating first in Pennsylvania and then Crawford County, Ohio in 1850, where he and his wife died.

George Burkhart was born March 22, 1829, in Pennsylvania, and came with his parents to Crawford County in 1847, and from there moved to Williams County in 1865, settling on a farm in St. Joseph Township, where he now resides. Prior to farming for himself he was for some years engaged in the saw and grist-mill business, in tensive patronage that he enjoyed. In politics he was an active Democrat and with his wife a member of the Evangelical Church. They have had seven children, three sons and four daughters. They are: Sophia, born July 23, 1854; Joseph, born May 24, 1858; Sarah, born January 21, 1861; Samuel F., born Jun 6, 1862; Frank, born January 12, 1864; Ida December 25, 1866, and Anna, born April 4, 1872.

Frank, the subject of this sketch, was reared on his father's farm, receiving a fair common school education. Farming is his chosen avocation, and the fact that he now owns two hundred acres of very valuable land within a mile of Edgerton proves that he has made a wise choice. In addition to general farming he deals largely in horses and the stock, shipping his purchases to all parts of the country. While affiliated with Democratic Party he has sought a public office. He and his wife attend the Evangelical Church.

On January 31, 1895, Frank was wedded to Miss Catharine Groff, born in Sterling, Illinois, January 8, 1870, the daughter of Henry and Sarah (Johnson) Groff, the former a native of Pennsylvania. He Groff followed the occupation of milling for a number of years, but now resides on a farm in St. Joseph Township. He and wife had had seven children, six of whom are still living. John Groff, the father of Henry Groff, removed from Pennsylvania to Ashland County, Ohio, in an early day and there both he and his wife died at a ripe old age. Frank Burkhart and his wife have had one child, Harry, born September 10, 1900.

A standard history of Williams County, Ohio, Volume 2. By Charles A. Bowersox; The Lewis Publishing Company; Chicago & New York, 1920. Page 216:

Frank Burkhart. - A prominent and enterprising citizen of Edgerton, Frank Burkhart is not only vice president of the Farmers Commercial Bank, but is one of the leading farmers of Williams County, and carries on an extensive business as feeder and shipper of livestock. A son of George Burkhart, he was born, January 12, 1864, in Crawford County, Ohio, of German ancestry.

Tobias Burkhart, his paternal grandfather, was born in Germany, and as a child came with his widowed mother, Dorothea (Beal) Burkhart, to the United States in 1804, settling in Lycemburg, Heppin Township, Pennsylvania. Choosing the free and independent life of a farmer, he came with his family to Ohio a few years after his marriage to Christena Keiss, locating first in Crawford County, but later moving to Williams County, where both he and his wife spent their declining years, his death having occurred in 1876, and hers in 1885.

Born in Pennsylvania, March 22, 1829, George Burkhart came to Crawford County, Ohio, with his parents in 1847, and assisted in the pioneer labor of improving a farm in that locality. In 1870 he settled in St. Joseph Township, Williams County, Ohio, and from that time until his death was identified with the agricultural interests of the community in which he resided. He married Rosanna Songer, who was born in Pennsylvania, a daughter of George Songer, who emigrated from Germany to the United States in 1815, locating first in Pennsylvania, where he married Catherine Ence, who was born in the Keystone State in 1807, and later moving to Crawford County, Ohio, where both spent the later years of their lives.

Of the union of George and Rossana (Songer) Burkhart several children were born, as follows: Sophia, born July 23, 1854, is the wife of Daniel Mowry; Joseph, born May 25, 1858, married Lettie Casebeer; Sarah, born January 21, 1861, married Solomon Suffel; Samuel F., born June 6, 1862, now a farmer in St. Joseph Township, married Lena Landel; Frank, the special subject of this sketch; Ida, born December 25, 1866, is the wife of Chester Isenhood; and Anna, born April 4, 1872, is the wife of John Richmond.

Brought up in St. Joseph Township, Frank Burkhart obtained his early education in the district schools, and as a boy and youth acquired valuable experience in the agricultural arts. Continuing a member of the parental household until thirty-one years old, he had the entire management of the home farm the last seven years that he lived upon it. A man of undoubted business and financial ability, Mr. Burkhart has judiciously invested a part of his wealth in land, owning a fine farm of 200 acres near Edgerton, and in addition to carrying on general farming with good results makes a specialty of feeding and shipping cattle and livestock, a branch of industry that under his management is exceedingly profitable. He was one of the organizers of the Farmers Commercial Bank of Edgerton, which has the following named officers: George Weber, president; Frank Burkhart, vice president; James J. Jennings, cashier; and the directors are George Weber, Frank Burkhart, James J. Jennings, Jessie Houlton, Lewis Groff, E. A. Geauque and D. G. Koehner.

Mr. Burkhart has been twice married. He married first, January 31, 1895, Catherine Groff, who was born in Sterling, Illinois, January 8, 1870, a daughter of Henry Groff. She died in early womanhood, leaving one son, Harry W. Burkhart, who was born September 10, 1900, and was accidentally killed January 27, 1917.

On November 29, 1916, Mr. Burkhart married Mrs. Mary (Hughes) Walker, a daughter of Ephraim and Elizabeth (Alvert) Hughes, the former of whom was born in Seneca County, Ohio, and the latter in Pennsylvania. Her father, a school teacher in his younger days, came, after his marriage in Seneca County, Ohio, to Williams County, settling on a farm in Superior Township, where he was successfully engaged in tilling the soil during his remaining years. He was a republican in politics and ever interested in local matters.

Notes for Samuel A. (Koch) Cook:

Samuel A. Cook, a prominent farmer and stock raiser of Florence Township, Williams County, Ohio, was born in Crawford County, Ohio on March 10, 1858. His is the son of David and Dorothea (Burkhart) Cook, both natives of Pennsylvania, where the former was born April 19, 1834, and the latter on October 29, 1834. His grandparents were George and Margaret (Young) Cook, both natives of Pennsylvania, and the latter the daughter of David and Rachel (Kiess) Young, natives of Germany, who settled in Pennsylvania in pioneer days. Later they removed to Crawford County, where the later died in 1835. After the death of his wife George Cook married Rebecca Ronk of Crawford County. He died in 1892.

George and Barbara (Swilly) Cook, the great grandparents of Samuel A. Cook, emigrated from Germany to America and located near Williamsport, Pennsylvania, in a very early day. David Cook, the father of Samuel A. Cook, grew to manhood on the parental farm in Pennsylvania and received his education in the log school houses of the native county. At the age of nineteen years he came to Crawford County, Ohio, and in 1864 removed to Williams County, locating on a farm of eighty-five acres in Florence Township, which he at once proceeded to clear and improve. Later he purchased an additional tract of seventy-five acres, and he now owns altogether one hundred and sixty acres of well improved and highly productive land. He is a Democrat in politics, having served as school director and road supervisor for a number of years.

On November 20, 1856, David Cook was wedded to Miss Dorothea Burkhardt. To this marriage there have been born the following children: Samuel A.; Rebecca, the wife of George Rockey of Florence Township; and Isaac, who married Miss Essie Beebe of Richland Township, Steuben County, Indiana.

Samuel A. Cook was reared on a farm, educated in the country schools and has chosen farming as his life work. He and his brother Isaac are managing the home farm in connection with their individual and adjoining farms. They are extensively engaged in general farming and stock raising. In his own farm there are one hundred and forty-seven acres, while in that of Isaac there are seventy-eight acres. He is a Democrat and with his wife a member of the Evangelical Church.

On March 10, 1883, he chose as his helpmeet in life's journey Miss Ida M. Davids, born in Guernsey County, Ohio, on June 19, 1864, the daughter of John C. and Mary Ellen (Bell) Davids, the former a native of Ohio and the latter of Maryland. Both died in Guernsey County, the former in April 1864, and the latter on February 14, 1886. John C. Davids was the son of William and Experience Davids. To Mr. and Mrs. Davids four children were born, all of whom are yet living. After the death of her first husband Mrs. Davids married Balis Kackley, by whom she had three children, all living.

To Samuel A. Cook and wife there have been two children. They are: Mary Elizabeth, who was born January 6, 1884, and died January 9, 1903, having been married on May 22, 1902, to C. W. Kappler, a native of Germany; and Irwin Dwight, born April 17, 1889, who is assisting his father in the management of the home farm.

Notes for Isaac E. Cook:

A standard history of Williams County, Ohio, Volume 2. By Charles A. Bowersox; The Lewis Publishing Company; Chicago & New York, 1920. Page 272:

Isaac E. Cook. - Almost without exception the men of any of the smaller cities of the country who rise to be owners of their business enterprises are possessed of the highest character. If they were not, they could not have gained the public confidence to such an extent. Where congestion is greater, dishonesty may seem to prosper for a time, but in the communities where each man's life is open to the inspection of his associates, unless he measures up to the standards they believe to be right and dependable, he soon finds that he lacks their support, and without it he cannot carry on his undertaking. Therefore, when a man in such a community has been able to interest his fellow citizens, and keep their custom, it is certain beyond any reasonable doubt that he is in every way worthy of their approval.

Isaac E. Cook, junior member of the well-known implement firm of Buell & Cook, is one of the highly respected merchants and citizens of Edon and Williams County. He was born in Florence Township, this county, August 7, 1869, a son of David and Dorothea (Burkhart) Cook, natives of Pennsylvania. They came to Crawford County, Ohio, and then to Williams County about 1856, and located in Florence Township, and there spent the rest of their lives. Early joining the Evangelical Church they were liberal and active supporters of it and were devout Christian people. In politics he was a democrat, but he never cared to hold public office, although had he cared to do so, doubtless could have been elected to one or the other of the township offices, for he was held in such high regard by his neighbors that they would have felt honored had he been willing to represent them. He and his wife had three children, namely: Samuel, who lives at Edon; Rebecca, who is the wife of George Rockey, of Edon; and Isaac E., who is the youngest.

Growing up on the old farm in Florence Township, Isaac E. Cook remained on it until his father's death and acquired a knowledge of the fundamentals of a public school education in the neighborhood. He learned the carpenter trade and worked at it until he bought a half interest in his present firm, in 1916, at which time he located permanently at Edon. In addition to his business, Mr. Cook owns 100 acres of valuable land in Florence Township.

On December 25, 1893, Mr. Cook was married to Essie Beebe. Like his father he is a democrat, and, also like him, he has never taken any active part in politics.

She was born 03 Sep 1877 in Jackson Twp, Steuben Co, Indiana, and died 25 Aug 1957 in Montpelier, Williams Co, Ohio.

Notes for Dr. David Theodore Kiess:

A standard history of Williams County, Ohio. By Chalres A. Bowersox; The Lewis Publishing Company – Chicago & New York, 1920. Page 251:

David T. Kiess. - An enumeration of those men of the present generation who have won honor and success for themselves, and at the same time by their lives have honored the locality to which they belong, would be incomplete were there failure to make mention of the one whose name forms the caption to this sketch. He has sustained a very enviable reputation in business circles and today is numbered among the progressive and enterprising citizens of Montpelier. David T. Kiess was born at Edon, Williams County, on August 3, 1867, and is a son of Samuel and Sarah (Burkhart) Kiess, both of whom were born and reared near Williamsport, Pennsylvania. They came to Williams County, Ohio, with their respective parents and here met and were married. After their marriage they located in Edon, where Mr. Kiess engaged in the boot and shoe business, having been a shoemaker by trade. Sometime later he sold this business and for a time was engaged in farming. Later in life they went West, locating in Nebraska, where their deaths occurred. They were the parents of five children, three of whom are now living, namely: D. W., a contractor in Los Angeles, California; David T.; the subject of this sketch; and Lizzie, the wife of Ora Eyster, a farmer in Williams County.

David T. Kiess received his education in the district schools of Williams County and in Nebraska. He then entered the Chicago Horological School and the Chicago Ophthalmic School, where he was graduated in 1893. He then was employed as jeweler and optician at various places for fifteen years, but then located at Edon, where he engaged in the jewelry business, in which he met with good success. In 1914 Mr. Kiess came to Montpelier and opened a jewelry and optical goods store, to which he has given his personal attention, though he also still operates the store at Edon. Thoroughly qualified by training and experience both as a jeweler and optician, Mr. Kiess has met with a well-deserved prosperity and is considered a thoroughly reliable and trustworthy man in every respect, and that is as much as can be said of the best of men.

Mr. Kiess was married to Bertha L. Twichell, of Orland, Indiana, but who was born in Steuben County, Indiana. She received a good education, being a high school graduate, and prior to her marriage she was engaged as a school teacher. To this union have been born five children, namely: Reginald, who is a graduate of the Montpelier High School; Kenneth, Elinore, Esther and Robert, who are in school.

Mr. Kiess and family are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church and, politically, he gives his support to the Republican Party, having served seven years as treasurer of Edon Village. Fraternally he is a member of the Free and Accepted Masons, in which he has taken the degrees of the Blue Lodge, Chapter and Council. He and his wife are members of the Order of the Eastern Star. Among those who know him best, Mr. Kiess bears a reputation of a man of sound judgment, good business ability and an expert in his special lines of effort. He has pronounced views, keeping himself well informed on all matters pertaining to the public welfare, and because of his genial disposition and excellent qualities of character he enjoys the confidence and good will of all who know him.

Obituary of Russell Lowell Teegardin. Steuben-Republican 31 Jul 1968, page 6, Col 3 Russell T. Teegardin (the T is wrong), 74, of Hamilton, died late Friday the 26th, in the Cameron Memorial Hospital, where he had been a patient. Teegardin and wife, Carrie, had just purchased a home in Hamilton, and were in the process of moving at the time of his death. The couple had resided near Edon, Ohio.

Surviving besides his wife, are 2 sons, Herman and Ronald Dean of Rt. 2, Hamilton; a daughter, Mrs. Preston Moody, of Rt. 1 Fremont; a sister Mrs. Maude Musser of Angola.

Funeral services were conducted at the Swift Funeral Home, Hamilton, at 2 pm Monday, July 29, with the Reverend Kenneth C. Thomas, Church of Christ, officiating. Internment following in the Teegardin Cemetery near Hamilton.

Per Evelyn Everitt Teegardin Sept 1995 Russell inherited the Jacob Teegardin farm on the cable line road in Steuben County. Russell and Carrie lived there while raising their children. Approximately 1945 they sold this place and moved near Edon, Ohio to be near Herman (their son) and his family. When Herman's family moved back to Steuben County (they had been renting a farm near Cooney) and purchased land on the Cable line Road, Russell and Carrie stayed in Williams County, Ohio.

Per Susan Musser Minch 1995 As a small girl, I can remember Russell and Carrie driving down the road to visit Herman and Evelyn. It seemed you could see them coming forever because Russell drove so slowly down the road in his little pink car. I remember Russell being at least 6 ft tall, and Carrie was maybe 5 ft tall. They were quite the contrast. I also remember the farm in Edon. They lived in a 1 story house surrounded by farm fields and Carrie's flowers. Carrie was 100% German and seemed to know the special recipes of the old German cooks. She was an excellent cook.

Notes for Melanchthon George Nungesser:

Ohio Legislative History: 1909-1912, Volume 1. By: James K. Mercer. Page 608:

Hon. Melanchthon George Nungesser. (Crawford County.) Like his predecessors who have represented Crawford County in former General Assemblies of Ohio, Mr. Nungesser is a high-class German-American resident, and the Democracy of Crawford County have a custom of sending only their best citizens as members of the General Assembly. Mr. Nungesser is a farmer by occupation, and a teacher as well, and he gives intelligent consideration to everything he undertakes.

Melanchthon George Nungesser was born at New Winchester, Crawford County, Ohio, January 16, 1863. His father, Christian A. Nungesser, was born in Hesse Darmstadt, Germany. The son began his education in the common schools of Crawford County, and at the age of 17 he entered Ohio Central College at Ibera, Ohio, and, later, he attended Northwestern University at Ada, Ohio. In the year 1887 Mr. Nungesser was married to Miss Matilda C. Burkhart, of Marion County, Ohio, and they have one daughter living, Cleoda Darling. Mr. Nungesser has always been a man of consequence in his community, and he served several terms as Justice of the Peace. In the election of 1912 he was chosen, as a Democrat, to be a member of the Ohio House of Representatives, and his majority was 2900. Representative Nungesser was studious and attentive to his duties throughout the regular session of the 80th General Assembly in 1913, and he probably was most interested in measures affecting the agricultural interests and taxation. He served as a member of the following committees, namely: Agriculture, Dairy and Food Products, Taxation, and Villages.

Notes for George Wahr:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

George Wahr, a successful dealer in the book and stationery trade, who has his establishment at No. 4, North Main Street, Ann Arbor, where he succeeded to George Osius Co., was born near Chelsea, this county, February 18, 1861. He is the son of Gottlieb and Agnes (Katz) Wahr. They were both natives of Germany, who emigrated to the United States in 1835, in hopes of bettering their fortunes. The father was a man of moderate means, and his goodly family of two sons and four daughters, taxed his resources to care for and educate them. Our subject is third in order of age in this household, and he received his school training in the city of Ann Arbor.

He of whom we write began his mercantile experience as clerk in the store of John Moore, a dealer in books and stationery, and there he remained for ten years, after which he formed a partnership with Mr. Osius under the firm name of George Osius & Co. Somewhat later he purchased his partner's interest in the concern, and now carries on the business at the same stand here. He has a fine stock of the latest and most popular works of the day, as well as the best known and favored lines of stationery. He also keeps a large stock of wall paper and such notions as are usually to be found in a store of this kind, and he makes a specialty of periodicals and books.

On the 10th of September, 1884, Mr. Wahr was united in marriage with Miss Emma Stabler, daughter of Fred Stabler, a prominent stockbroker of Ann Arbor, and to this couple has been born one little daughter, Nathalie. They are constant attendants of the Lutheran Church, and their home on South Fourth Avenue, possesses many comforts and is pleasantly situated.

George and Emma Wahr House, 1890 - 445 South Fourth Avenue

Four years before George Wahr constructed a similar high-style Queen Anne house on North Division Street next to the Wilson-Wahr House, he built this house on South Fourth Avenue near the intersection with Packard Street. Embellished with an elaborate display of the woodworker's craft, the house is detailed with carved barge boards, sunbursts, dormers, bays and gables, all blending together in a wonderful example of Victorian excess. It is rumored that Wahr had a feud with his neighbor who hung the wash out on a line to dry. This apparently upset him enough to move to the other side of town! (His increasing prosperity might also have prompted the move to a more exclusive part of town.) Wahr's bookstore on Main Street became quite successful by the late 1880s when his name appears in bold letters in the City Directory. Four years after he built this house, he opened his second bookstore on State Street. It outlasted his Main Street store by many years, remaining in business until the 1970s. The first occupant after that was Border's Books, then a used and rare book shop.

Wahr sold the property to the Schaffer family who lived here for close to a century, which helps explain its intact condition today. George D. and Elizabeth Schaffer moved into the house in 1894 and by 1900 they had seven children: Anna, Bertha, Carrie, Elizabeth, Ella, George Jr. and William H. By 1915 only Carrie, Anna, and Bertha were still living with their parents and by the mid-1930s only Anna and Bertha were still here. In 1935, their mother Elizabeth, a widow, married the man next door, Mr. Frank Ohlinger, and moved into 451 South Fourth Avenue. In 1965 she was again widowed. In the late 1970s, probably after her mother's death, Bertha moved into 451 and rented out 445.

After Bertha's death, both properties were sold and the house at 445 was purchased by the William Johnson family in 1981. They did a major overhaul of the house, restoring it to its original splendor. They were recognized by the Historic District Commission in 1988 for their splendid efforts at reviving this glorious structure.

Lt. Melvin Alber of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Office was found dead in bed at his home at 211 North Ann Arbor Street Tuesday afternoon December 7, 1948. He had been off duty for about ten days, following a minor surgical operation and neighbors who had been calling on him daily, discovered his body. It is presumed that he died sometime during the night. Lt. Alber, on the sheriff's staff for nearly twenty years, was a motor cycle officer in Saline for several years before joining the sheriff's staff. "Abe" as he was generally called, was a member of the Elks, the Masons and the American Legion, and had endeared himself to the people of the community and was especially loved by the young in whom he had always a deep interest. He had joined the sheriff's department during the administration of the late Sheriff Jacob Andres and most of the time had served on the 12 to 8 "mid-night" shift as desk sergeant. He was born in Saline 52 years ago and attended the Saline High School. In 1917 he enlisted in the U. S. Army Signal Corps, a served overseas for about a year. He had never married.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lillian Burgan of Saline, and a brother, Grover Alber, who lives in Detroit. Funeral services will be held today at St. Paul's church at 2 o'clock. Rev. Alvin Siemsen, pastor of St. Paul's will officiate and burial will be made in Oakwood Cemetery, with Saline Ledge No. 133, F. & A. M. having charge of the services at the grave side. Members of the Lodge are requested to meet at the Masonic Hall at 1 o'clock. Obituary April 18, 1900 William Wolf:

William Wolf who a couple of weeks since moved on the Harrison Bassett's farm was taken violently ill Saturday with a severe pain in the region of the stomach which soon showed the cause to be appendicitis. Doctors Sheeder and Darling did what they could for no avail. Wednesday pneumonia too made its appearance and despite every effort death grew nearer until about 6 o'clock when it crept in and all was over. Mr. Wolf was one of the men who stood well in our community and had a host of friends, honor and honesty formed a great part in his motto of life. He had been a tenant on the Gregory farm for over twenty years. Deceased held a policy of $2,000 in each the Maccabees and A.O.U.W. and was also a member of the Arbeiters. The funeral will be held at the house at one o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Notes for George Grant Burkhardt:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

George Burkhardt, postmaster of Saline, and a popular and well known citizen, comes of worthy German ancestry. He was born in this village May 30, 1862, but his father, Charles Frederick Burkhardt, was a native of Wurtemberg, and in his childhood days was brought from Germany to America by his parents, who settled in the Township of Freedom. There Charles F. Burkhardt was reared and educated, and after putting aside his text-books he worked for his father on the home farm for several years. He then took up his abode in the village of Saline and secured a clerkship in a dry goods store. Later he started in the dry-goods business on his own account in the early '60s, and is still identified with business interests here. He then bought a farm of one hundred and twenty acres three-fourths of a mile west of Saline, becoming owner of this property in the early '80s. He has since carried on agricultural pursuits through his son, Charles F., and is one of the representative farmers of this part of the county. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Maria L. Case, was born in Saline Township, and died at the age of twenty-six years, when her son George was six years of age. The other members of the family were: Frederick JT., who is engaged in clerking in his father's store; Charles F., who occupies the home farm in Saline Township; Mrs. John Wahr, of Ann Arbor, who died in 1890; Mrs. William Cody, of Pittsfield Township; and Louise, who is living with her father in Saline. George Burkhardt acquired his education in the village schools, completing a course in the Saline high school with the class of 1880. From his early youth he was more or less familiar with mercantile methods through the assistance which he rendered his father, and for seventeen years he remained in his employ as a clerk.

During this time he was married on the 19th of May, 1892, to Miss Marguerite Harmon, a daughter of Anson and Jane Harmon, of Saline, representatives of an old family of that township. Mr. and Mrs. Burkhart have an adopted son, Donald, the child of his wife's cousin, born April 26, 1894. From early boyhood days Mr. Burkhart has taken an active interest in politics and has always been a champion of republican principles. He has taken an active and helpful interest in the work of the party in this locality, has been president of the corporation of Saline, also a trustee and the treasurer of the village. He is now not only serving as postmaster, but is also a director of the school board, and the cause of education finds in him a warm friend. He received appointment to his present position as postmaster in 1897, and gives a public-spirited administration, characterized by promptness and fidelity in the discharge of all his duties. It was through his efforts that the postal authorities consented to have two extra mail deliveries made in Saline, using the electric railway for this purpose.

Fraternally Mr. Burkhart is connected with the Masons and has taken the Royal Arch degrees. He is also a Knight of the Maccabees and is clerk in the Modern Woodmen camp. He is also identified with the Modern Brotherhood of America and is a member of the Arbeiter Verein. Mr. Burkhart is one of the most popular and esteemed residents of Saline, possessing a kindly manner, a cheery disposition and an unflinching courtesy which render him a favorite with all with whom he comes in contact. A stranger visiting the village always finds in him a friend who is willing to do a favor or grant a courtesy to the visitor. Both he and his father have been actively associated with the welfare and improvement of Saline for many years, and their efforts have found tangible evidence in hearty co-operation in many movements that have been of direct good.

She was born 22 Oct 1884 in Manchester Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 08 Sep 1939 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Friedrich Ludwig Burkhardt:

Fred L. Burkhardt, a life-long resident of Saline, passed away at his home last Thursday morning March 27, 1941 after an illness of several months. Mr. Burkhardt was born in Saline September 10, 1879, the son of Charles and Adelaida Buehler Burkhardt. He married Miss Caroline Stegmiller of Manchester August 19, 1909. She died September 8, 1939. Mr. Burkhardt's father founded the dry goods business under the name of Burkhardt & Aldrich 70 years ago in the same location years ago the business was taken over by Mr. Burkhardt's two sons, George and Fred, who continued the store under the name of Burkhardt Brothers. Fifteen years ago Fred Burkhardt became sole owner and again the name was changed, to Burkhardt Store. Mr. Burkhardt was a member of the Saline Rotary Club and St. Thomas Catholic church in Ann Arbor and the Holy Name Society of the church. When the business men of Saline had an indoor baseball team, back in 1911-12-13, Mr. Burkhardt played short stop on the team. In 1912 Saline won the state championship. Mr. Burkhardt is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Everard Beasley, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Miss Jeanne Carleen Burkhardt; granddaughter, Karyl Jean Beasley, of Milwaukee; a brother, Charles Burkhardt; two sisters, Mrs. S. Y. Cotton and Mrs. William Cody.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Thomas Church, Ann Arbor, and burial was in St. Thomas Cemetery. Stores and business places here were closed during the hour of the funeral. Members of the Rotary Club and business associates of Mr. Burkhardt were honorary ball bearers.

Sept. 18, 1941 - Of interest to all was the opening of the Burkhardt Store on Saturday. While they admired; the store in its new streamlined appearance, many turned back in memory to what it used to be. Being one of the first stores in Saline it is rich in history and has grown along with the community through the changes which the years have brought. The store was built about 1871 and was established by Charles F. Burkhardt, grandfather of the present owners, and a Mr. Aldrich carrying lines of groceries, crockery, dry goods, hardware, carpets, curtains, and taking farm produce in exchange for merchandise. G L. Parsons recalls some of the stores of that period as his grandfather had a similar store. He says many of the farmers came to town only once in three or four months, then they drove the team on a wagon, often struggling through mud a foot deep or more. They bought provisions to last for a spell because the trip really meant effort. Usually one store handled all the merchandise any family would require even to the family heating stove.

In 1888 Mr. Burkhardt purchased the interest of Mr. Aldrich and for ten years conducted the place alone. He continued the general merchandise, including wallpaper, gloves, fly nets, etc. In 1898 he sold the business to his sons George and Fred. Mrs. Burkhardt helped in the store too and increased her circle of friends rapidly. The brothers, through their long experience in the store, were familiar with the wants of the people and continued the policy of handling merchandise which these customers knew was reliable and dishing it out with friendliness and accuracy. The business continued to grow and the reputation of the firm spread for miles around. The brothers had the stairs built which residents recall at the front of the store. On the second floor they had carpets, linoleum, wallpaper and curtains.

Mrs. Gertrude Lutz, who joined the staff in 1913, has a photograph taken inside the store. It is interesting because it shows the manner of display. As was, customary then, coats, dresses and suits were suspended from the ceiling, the cornice, any place where they would be high enough for customers to walk beneath them. The notion counter has always been at the front.

Plainly visible in the picture are the collars, niching and stays which were fastened in neckwear to hold it securely behind the ear. (A neckline in those days really reached the neck and choked it, too.) Counters were the same as they have been until the present remodeling. Along the east side premiums were displayed, shoes, shirt waists, yard goods, underwear. The ribbon counter was large and well-filled. In fact, the stock was so tremendous that the space behind the counters was filled almost to the ceiling. George and Fred Burkhart and Mrs. Lutz are in the picture. In 1927 Fred Burkhart bought out his brother and became sole owner of the store. Groceries were discontinued, as other lines of merchandise were specialized, in and handled, catering to that particular line of trade, the Burkhart store gradually emerged from a general into a dry goods and men's wear store. Jean Carlene Burkhart laughingly recalls the first sale she ever made. She was 13 years old and sold a hat to a lady. She was thrilled and has never forgotten the joy of the moment. Later she was allowed to try a sale on yard goods. She cut through four folds of cloth in trying to cut off the right length of sheeting, but laughs over it now. Mrs. Beasley also recalls her first sale. She too was thrilled because she was allowed to wait on a customer. It chanced the lady wanted to purchase some cheese-cloth. As most of us know, that's one item which is hard to handle and harder still to cut because of the coarse mesh, and the points of the scissors getting tangled in the weave. She became entangled in the cloth and the purchaser told her she thought she could do a better job of cutting the cloth herself, so she dropped the bolt on the counter and told the lady to help herself and ran to the back of the store. But Papa Burkhart had been watching all the time and letting daughter get some experience. He gently but firmly told her to go back to the front of the store and apologize, take the scissors and cut the cloth. So she did. Those who knew Mr. Burkhart can readily imagine the kindness with which he taught his young daughter successful business principles.

After the death of Mr. Burkhart, the question of the future of the store hung in the balance. Mrs. Beasley (Maree) was married and lived in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Miss Jean Carlene had graduated from Cleary College and due to the illness and failing health of her father she had stayed in the store instead of seeking a business connection elsewhere. The question was, should the Burkhart store, the only store which has continued from its establishment to the present day under its original name, be sold. The sisters talked it over and Mrs. Beasley left it up to Jean Carlene to decide. She could sell out and be free to locate where she pleased, continue her schooling or seek a business career in the city, or continue the Burkhart tradition. She was undecided. It had been a severe strain for her, the long weeks of her father's illness, the recent death of her mother, the responsibility of the store, and it seemed like dropping a load to consider selling and starting life over somewhere else. While in this unsettled frame of mind, she walked down to the store one afternoon and looked around. Here were the old counters upon which her grandfather had displayed merchandise, here her father had sold yards and yards of cloth, here she had played as a child, and here she had shouldered the load of ordering, invoicing, unpacking and selling merchandise. Many times she and her father had discussed the future of the store.

He had dreams and plans. He wanted to put in enlarge the stock. Then his health failed and he gradually slipped more and more of the responsibility from his hands to those of his daughter. She stood thinking of those visits with her father, the shadows of the past became more real, then she knew that the Burkhart store would go on. Here were her friends, the people she had grown up amongst, the house of Burkhart would continue to serve them just as it had in her grandfather's day, her father's time and now. A quiet, thoughtful girl walked slowly home. She did not see the familiar houses with children playing on the lawns and house-wives sitting on the porches, she was seeing a new store rise from the ashes of the past. Freedom, the city, an easy job where she carried no responsibility but her pay-check were not alluring now. Late into the night she and her sister made their plans. It would mean changes, work, responsibility, new things to learn, but the decision was made and they were ready to forge ahead. What took place Saturday was the result of that decision and the efforts which have followed. The remodeled store is very light and attractive but as much as possible of the old store has been retained. The same counters are still used. The tops are solid walnut and have stood the wear of year in a remarkable manner. The fronts of the counters have been painted a rich cream to match the walls, while the ceiling is pale gray. The shelves have been dropped 22 inches at the top and this space is used for display of bedspreads, yard goods and miscellaneous articles. A modernistic counter at the front takes care of handkerchiefs and hose.

Perhaps the greatest change is at the rear in the men's department. A large late-style counter displays handkerchiefs, socks, and ties. The shelves merge into a cabinet which has deep drawers for shirts. Boots and shoes are in concealed cupboards with sliding doors. The cupboards are, made so that different sizes are kept in separate compartments. On the west side new shelves have been built which take care of overalls and work pants. Beneath the shelves are cupboards with; sliding doors where wampuses, mackinaws, coats of all descriptions may be easily seen. Down through the center of the store j four tables will display merchandise, sweaters, blouses, etc. Fluorescent lights have been installed and while enough of the past has been retained so that it is still the Burkhart store, yet one feels the freshness of paint, the crispness of new goods, the rebirth of an old institution to fit the needs of this day and time.

Assisting in the store are Mrs. Lutz, who has endeared herself to all patrons, and Mrs. George Winkle. Five years ago, when Mrs. Lutz was very ill for a length of time, Mrs. Winkle came in to help on Saturdays, holidays and whenever extra was needed. For the past two years she has been a full time helper.

Mrs. Beasley Might have been an architect, for she has the mind which can design and figure out how to put ideas into working order. Mrs. Beasley and Miss Burkhart share the credit of the modernized store with Mrs. Lutz and Mrs. Winkle. "We all had ideas, pooled them, and here's the result," We share the work and we share the pleasures, too." Huge baskets of flowers throughout the store Saturday bore witness to the great esteem with which this store is held. Among the local friends who sent flowers was a beautiful basket of dahlias from the Greenhouse, abasket from Mr. and Mrs. Wells of the C. F. Smith store with vivid colors and beautiful blossoms, three baskets from Mrs. Herman Heininger, one featuring purple and gold, one yellow and white, and one of red flowers; a gorgeous bouquet of gladioli from Mrs. Lutz, a bouquet from Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sturtz which fitted into its setting perfectly, asters and rosebuds from the Bridgewater Lumber Company were dainty and sweet. Other friends also sent flowers. Among the firms sending contributions was a basket of giant chrysanthemums from Edson-Moore of Detroit, the Krolick Company of Detroit sent a large basket of red roses, Finck & Co., makers of overalls, sent a basket of orchid colored flowers, Goodrich Company of Detroit also sent flowers, and the Lovely Lady Beauty Salon. It was joy day at the Burkhart store Saturday. Everyone was happy over the expressions of praise and appreciation from friends and patrons. And now the store is launching forth with a new captain at the wheel and will continue to serve the community in the true Burkhart style. Another generation is now playing in the store as little Karyl Jean Beasley plays wrapping packages and amuses herself quietly while business moves on. That the building was well built as well as the traditions of business was proved when workmen began tearing out old shelves, partitions, and found most of the wood used to be whitewood, almost extinct now.

Notes for Johannes Friedrich (Unser Fritz) Leucht:

Fritz Leucht considered himself a grocer. A history of the building and his business was listed on the back of a menu of the current business being operated, Amebrosini's Restaurant & Lounge at 1367 Wabash Avenue (US 40) at 14th Street, Terre Haute, Indiana. The Italianate building was erected in the 1880's on the southwest corner of Wabash Ave & 14th Street across from what is now Gilbert Park, though it also has been known as City Park and Steeg Park. Frederick Hoffman owned the first business in the east half of the premises. By 1889, a German beer garden was located here which ultimately became Ahren's Beer Garden. Its proprietor was William Ahrens.

Ahrens and Hoffman sold the building to Fritz Leucht, who conducted a restaurant, bar and delicatessen for many years. German wieners with homemade mustard, huge dill pickles from a large glass bottle on the bar and plenty of beer were regular fare. Other "homemade products" were available during Prohibition. The west half was occupied by a barber shop. Next door was Schwarz & Kipple Bakery. Unser Fritz and his son, Fred, operated at this location until his death in 1945. In 1948, Louise Ambrosini and her son, Albert, leased the property.

Frederick Leucht and his wife, Mary, are buried in Highland Lawn Cemetery in Terre Haute, Indiana in section number 6, lot 524.

Based on Frederick Leucht's application for Life Insurance with John Hancock dated December 16, 1924: born in Stuttgart, Germany on June 2, 1874 (or 3), wife Mary, occupation Grocer. He died at 63 of dropsy, one brother died at age 32 of disease of stomach, 3 sisters are all a live ages 42, 47 and 52, mother died at 43 of pneumonia.

Fred J. Leucht, 70, well known restaurant man, died Thursday, morning at 8:30 o'clock at the Union Hospital where he was taken a few days ago suffering an attack of pneumonia. He is survived by one son Fred R., and two daughters, Mrs. August Depperman and Mrs. Kenneth Deakins, Terre Haute; one sister, Mrs. Max Art, Detroit, and five grandchildren.

In earlier days, Mr. Leucht, known to many friends as "Unser Fritz" was connected with Herman Mewes O. Nicholal and other downtown restaurants. In 1910 he purchased the Maurer place at Ninth and One-half and Wabash and later moved to Fourteenth and Wabash, where he has been for 14 years.

He was born near Strasbourg, Germany, and came to America with his father in 1886. He made two return trips to Germany to visit his relatives. He had been active in his business until a few days ago. He was widely known for his German cuisine and prior to the war was an importer of foods and beverages. The body was taken to J. N. Hickman & Son's Funeral Home pending funeral arrangements.

She was also a member of the Littlebits chapter of the Children's Home Society, the AAUW, the 20-40 Club, and many bridge clubs. She and her husband traveled the world with family and friends after retirement, and she was always ready for the next trip. He was a teacher and administrator in the Carmel Unified School District from 1946 to 1975. During that period he was principal of Woods and Tularcitos elementary schools, and was the last principal of Sunset School. He was instrumental in the development of Carmel Middle School as the first middle school on the Monterey Peninsula, and was its first principal. He was later curriculum coordinator for the district. He was a past president of Carmel Kiwanis and a member of Carmel Valley Kiwanis. He was a volunteer driver for Meals on Wheels and a member of St. Timothy Lutheran Church in Monterey.

Mr. Rogers was a World War II veteran, serving in Burma and India. He retired after 21 years as a major in the USAR Signal Corps.

He is survived by Evelyn, his wife of 64 years; his daughters, Janis Lynn Dewar (Tom) of Alamo and Diane Marie Williams (Gary) of Pacific Grove; and six grandchildren.

Notes for Jesse W. Suffel:

Fire completely consumed the county home of Jesse Suffel and family southwest of Montpelier at 10 a. m., Easter Sunday. Delma Brown, fireman, narrowly escaped injury fighting the fire when the house's chimney fell, he was burned on the shoulder by hot tar, probable from the roof. The fire broke out in the upper part of the house, and the electric wiring is believed to be the cause of the blaze. The family was unaware that the house was burning until neighbors noticed the flames in the roof and gave the alarm. Most of the furniture and personal belongings were taken from the house by the family and the neighbors. The fire blazed from 10a.m. until 11:30 a.m. The Montpelier fire department emptied two tanks of water on the fire. The firemen did not have a nearby source of water.

The fire department prevented the blaze from spreading to surrounding building, including a house on the opposite side of Blue's Bride road which was in danger for a time because of flying embers.

Occupants of the house, on the old Will Brown farm southwest of Montpelier, were Mr. and Mrs. Suffel, three sons, Harold, Dean, and Lester, a daughter Ruby, and a daughter in law, Mrs. Harold Suffel. The nine room house was covered by insurance

The auditorium of the church was beautifully decorated, a profusion of palms, ferns, lilies and delicately tinted delphinium being used, also many tall ivory cathedral candles. The pews were marked with satin bows each holding a rose. Alfred Wills of Detroit, an uncle of the bride who played the wedding music for Mr. and Mrs. Graff twenty-three years ago presided the organ rendering a delightful program and concluding with the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin which heralded the approach of the bridal party. The bride was escorted by her father who gave her in marriage. The officiating clergyman was the pastor of the church, the Rev. Wm. Chapman who read the single ring service at 4:00 o'clock in the presence of many relatives and invited guests. During the ceremony Mr. Wills played an appropriate selection and Mr. Lachlan Currie "Because" and "I Love You Truly." The bridal party retired from the church the while Mr. Wills played the Mendelssohn Wedding March.

The bride was gowned in a white satin floor length model fashioned along princess lines with a short train. The neckline was outlined with small satin flowers, and the long sleeves finished with a point over the hand were adorned with rows of tiny satin buttons reaching from the wrist to elbow. The veil of lace and was confined by a small cap banded with an organdie ruffle. Her flowers were a bouquet of white roses, lilies, white sweet peas and Val lilies, tied with satin streamers finished with tiny rose buds. The maid of honor Miss Lorene Culver of Coldwater, roommate of the bride at Albion college, wore a long green organdie frock with large matching bow at the neck and large puffed sleeves. Her hat and accessories were yellow and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses. Miss Frances Henley of Battle Creek and Miss Harriet Graff, a cousin of the bride, who acted as bridesmaids, wore floor length gowns with small ruffled capes fashioned of organdie. Miss Henley was in pink and wore a dainty blue net turban while Miss Graff was in blue with a pink turban and pink accessories. Their flowers were arm bouquets of pink roses and delphinium. Phyllis Bae Cook of Burlington, niece of the groom, wore a yellow frock with ruffled skirt. She served as flower girl and carried a yellow basket filled with matching roses.

Harry Brewer of Battle Creek was best man, while Ralph Palmer of Tekonsha, James Kerr of Battle Creek and Harlo Hornberger of Saginaw ushered.

The bride's mother wore a flowered chiffon gown, with orchid accessories and large braided straw hat. Her flowers were a shoulder bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Cook was wearing a dubonnet model of chiffon and silk, with white accessories and a corsage of sweet peas and roses.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the Graff residence in Exchange Street, the guest list numbering seventy-five and including relatives only. Many clusters of garden flowers were used about the rooms. The bride's table with covers marked for sixteen was centered with a large decorated three-tiered bride's cake, surmounted with a miniature bride and groom under an archway holding a wedding bell. A low bowl of roses was placed at either end of the table and was flanked by tall ivory tapers, in three-branch silver holders. Each cover was marked by individual corsages. Other covers laid at small tables which were centered with bud vases holding white rosebuds. Assisting in the serving of the three-course menu were Mrs. Wendell Miller and the Misses Ethel Elsie, Mildred Bastian of Albion, Fanny Fiske of Battle Creek, Janet Barclay of Detroit and Helen Hawkins.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Cook left on a two weeks motor trip east where they will visit points of interest including New York. They will return by way of Canada. Notes for Dr. William Frederick Koch:

Scientific Therapy and Practical Research - - William F. Koch. Ph. D. M.D. - Dec. 15, 1925

William Frederick Koch was born in Detroit, April 6, 1885. He received his early education in the schools of Detroit and his collegiate education at the University of Michigan from which he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1909, the degree of Master of Arts in 1910 and the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in 1917. He taught four years in the University of Michigan, two years (1910-1912) as Assistant in Physiology, and two years (1912-1914) as Instructor in Histology and Embryology.

In 1914, he was made Professor of Physiology of the Detroit College of Medicine a position which he held for years. He received the degree of Doctor of Medicine from the Detroit College of Medicine and Surgery in 1918 and was licensed to practice medicine in the state of Michigan the same year. He held the position of Pathologist at the Woman's Hospital, Detroit, for the years (1917-1919) and has since been Consulting Pathologist to this hospital.

But the interest of the medical profession in Dr. Koch centers about this work as a research student. While at Ann Arbor he early directed his attention to the experimental study of the function of the parathyroid glands. The results of his researches were published in contributions to the Journal of Biological Chemistry, 1912 and 1913, to the Journal of Laboratory and Clinical Medicine, 1916, and to the Journal of Medicine and Surgery in 1917. This early work was favorably commented on in the Journal of the American Medical Association and was cited by Dr. Lewellyn F. Barker of John Hopkins. Dr. Paton of the University of Glasgow later confirmed Dr. Koch's findings. He demonstrated in these early researches that the parathyroid glands have a protective function against the guanidine poisons.

Dr. Koch is an indefatigable worker. No sacrifice of sleep, food or pleasure was ever too much for him to make in order to stay on the job of watching the behavior of his parathyroid-ectomized dogs or of the chemicals in his retorts. Even at the University of Michigan he had many discouragements to encounter, many obstacles to overcome. One of his darkest days was when on going to his laboratory his dogs were missing and on inquiry was told that they had been killed, as there was no fund to purchase food for them. Oh, how gladly he would have sacrificed anything to have fed those dogs, if only he had been warned of what was going to happen.

After going to Detroit, he continued his research, but now directed his attention primarily to the study of cancer, a subject in which his interest had been quickened by the death of his father after much suffering from cancer of the stomach. 'Applying the results of his experiences in the study of the parathyroid glands, he undertook a study of the chemistry of the toxins present in persons afflicted with cancer. As a student of bacteriology and histology he had found what he thought was the germ of cancer, which he now believes was the motile bacillus stage of the Glover parasite. His chemical studies gave him a new concept of antitoxins, namely, that they are converted toxins. His final conclusions were that cancer is a germ disease, that the cancer tumor is an effort on the part of Nature to produce a protecting gland whose function is the conversion of toxins into antitoxins, and his final accomplishment was the production of a 'synthetic antitoxin' which when injected into the cancer sufferer causes the conversion of the toxins into antitoxins and as a consequence of the digestion and absorption of the cancer tumor, the reconstruction of damaged parts and the relief of all toxic symptoms. In short, he had been able to work out on the observed facts that he finds are incontrovertible, and the establishment of the immunity process, to offer to the medical profession a substance which was not only a cure for cancer but a protective against cancer and an immunizing agent against the recurrence of cancer.'

Preliminary reports of his findings were published in the Detroit Medical Journal, July 1919, and in the New York Medical Record, October 30, 1920. Since then the way of the searcher for truth, and the benefactor of humanity have been beset with many difficulties. He, like Holmes, Semmelweis, Lister and other contributors to scientific therapy, has been denounced by his former associates, by dominant members of the medical profession and by medical bodies and their official journals. He has suffered the loss of his professorship and the loss of his membership in the local medical society and, par consequence, in the American Medical Association.

But Dr. Koch is the type of man who having observed facts that he finds are incontrovertible, does not give up in discouragement. Even though he has not been able to get a medical committee to conduct a proper examination into the clinical value of his treatment for cancer (such an examination would require at least six months of observation of cases) he has kept doggedly at the research, has made important changes in the original formula of his synthetic antitoxin, has made many valuable clinical observations and is really gradually attracting the attention of worthwhile men to his work.

Through the Journal of the American Association for 'Medico-Physical Research' the work of Dr.

Koch has within the last few months been brought to the attention of 15,000 to 20,000 physicians, many of whom are watching his work with interest, particularly since the studies of other men have brought forth what seems to be conclusive evidence of the parasitic origin of cancer—the isolation, culturing, sub-culturing of the germ and the tracing of its life history.

Notes for William Frederick Koch, Jr.:

If the people of Gulf Stream remember William F. Koch Jr. as lovingly as he remembered the town, history will have been served. At his death on June 17, 2012 Bill Koch had been Gulf Stream's mayor for 46 of his 91 years. But he'd come here first as a boy in the late 1920s, and he remembered it well. He remembered when Gulf Stream had caves where the St. Andrews apartments stand today, because he'd played in them. He remembered "Cap," the local beachcomber of his youth, and kept the broken neck of a green, hand-blown bottle Cap gave him, all his life.

Mayor Koch remembered Prohibition, when lanterns were hung from the town's water tower to guide rumrunners through Boynton Inlet. "He used to tell me he remembered when his grandfather would take him to Key West on the old Flagler railroad, and watching the coal sparks fall in the water," his son, William Koch III, remembers. "He used to tell me how much he loved doing that." Mayor Koch was a Midwestern boy who grew to become a Florida man and made Palm Beach County a better place without making a lot of noise while he did it.

"He never asked for public recognition for anything he did," said his daughter, Claudia Koch Burns. "He never sought out the limelight, or accolades for his public service. He just truly enjoyed helping build his little area of South Florida."

William Frederick Koch Jr. was born Feb. 18, 1921, in Ann Arbor, Michigan, the son of William Frederick and Luella Koch, and first saw Florida during winter visits to his grandfather's Delray Beach home. At Ann Arbor High School, he was a freestyle swimmer who made the Olympic trials. In Delray Beach, he was a lifeguard.

He enrolled in Rollins College, then left to serve in World War II. As a bombardier in the U.S. Army Air Corps, he flew in a squadron of B-17s on D-Day. His plane had a painting of the actress Lana Turner on the side, and its mission was to destroy railroad targets in Nazi-occupied France. Looking down, Bombardier Koch remembered what he saw. "The trees were covered with what looked like giant white flowers," he told his son. "But they weren't. They were the parachutes of our guys who had been shot and just left hanging there."

After the war, he returned to college, earned a degree in business, and met his wife. Bill and Mary Lou Koch — whom everyone knows as Freddie — celebrated their 64th anniversary on May 31. In 1956, he opened a realty office in Delray Beach, and when he complained about the mosquitoes tormenting Gulf Stream's polo field, the town gave him $150 and named him mosquito commissioner. He sprayed twice a week and joined the commission. The mosquitoes stayed, he remembered, and he left to serve on the county's planning board. Ten years later he returned, was appointed mayor, and stayed mayor through 15 terms, for the next 46 years.

Rita Taylor, the town clerk, has known him since the early 1970s. "He was always here before the Town Hall opened so we had an opportunity to discuss business," she remembers. "Many people probably didn't see the side of him I saw. He could be gruff, but to me he was a very kind gentleman. He had a lot of empathy for mankind." When state environmentalists declared Australian pines a non-native species and ordered them destroyed, Mayor Koch led the fight to have State Road A1A through town declared a historic highway. The trees are still there. After checking in at the Town Hall each morning, he drove on to the real estate office.

"He was really amazing," remembers Muriel Mowry, the office manager for 11 years. "He just had so much energy for his age. He came in every single day and would go out to lunch with the guys and his friends." He favored the Fifth Avenue Grill and La Cigale. "We always had to flip for lunch," remembers George Elmore, a friend for 30 years. "Of course, when he'd lose, he'd grumble, and when somebody else lost he'd tease them a little. Talking to him, he was gruff and outspoken, but he was a very caring man." Another lunch pal was Joel Strawn, his personal attorney since 1966. "You never needed to worry about what was on his mind, because if you asked him, he would flat-out tell you," Strawn remembers. "He was forceful and honest, but with a great sense of humor."

In his time, Mayor Koch served on the boards of Episcopal churches; WPBT-2, the public television station; and SunTrust bank. In the mid-1950s, he was among a group of residents who decided Good Samaritan Hospital in West Palm Beach was too far away. Four years later, Bethesda Memorial Hospital opened in Boynton Beach. "He was involved from day one and stayed on as a board member," says Roger Kirk, the hospital's current president and CEO. "We were always a little better prepared when we knew we were going to face Mr. Koch, because we knew he would ask the tough questions. But we grew to love and respect him." After his death, Mayor Koch's daughter was asked if he had any hobbies. She had to think for a moment. "If he had a hobby," Claudia Koch Burns said at last, "I guess you'd have to say it was community service."

In addition to his wife, son and daughter, he leaves a daughter-in-law, Laura, of Gulf Stream; a son-in-law, Scott Burns; a grandson, Scott Frederick Burns, and a granddaughter, Lauren Christine Burns, all of Phoenix, Arizona.

The family suggests that donations be made to Bethesda Hospital Foundation, 2815 S. Seacrest Blvd., Boynton Beach, FL 33435. In 1929, when Bill Koch was a little boy playing in Gulf Stream's caves, the town had 16 registered voters. Today, there are 650. In 1929, the town's total assessed value was $111,260. Today, it's $652 million. When Bethesda Memorial Hospital opened in 1959, it had 32 doctors and 70 beds. Today, there are 650 doctors on staff and 450 beds.

In his 91 years, Mayor Bill Koch saw Gulf Stream grow and change, and change again, from hidden caves to dazzling mansions. Some of the changes he championed, and some he opposed, but he always worked for what he thought best for his town. And for that, he should be remembered.

Marriage Notes for Marie Burkhardt and Edward Beasley:

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Burkhardt entertained at a delightful dinner on Valentine's day February 1932, in honor of their daughter, Miss Maree. The occasion marked the announcement of her engagement to Everard Beasley of Battle Creek. The colors at the table were in gold and pink. A centerpiece of pink rose buds in a bronze vase, with pink taper candles at either end. These were surrounded by golden cupids and tiny hearts suspended from gold ribbons. The message was conveyed to the guests on pink and gold valentine hearts. Miss Burkhardt's valentine was a cupid with the ling tied to the bow in his hand. Those entertained were girl-friends of Miss Burkhardt. No- date for the wedding has been arranged, as Miss Burkhardt has returned to Ann Arbor to resume her studies at St. Joseph Hospital School.

St. Thomas Catholic Church in Ann Arbor was the setting for a fall wedding at 10 o'clock Saturday morning October 22, 1932 when Miss Maree A. Burkhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Burkhardt of Saline was united in marriage with Everard J. Beasley, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shurtz of Saline. The nuptial mass was solemnized by Rev. Thomas R. Carey, pastor of the church, in the presence of about seventy guests. Prof. Anthony Whitmire of Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor, played two violin selections before the mass and also played, during the service. While Miss Nell Brown, church organist, contributed, to the recital before the service and played the processional and recessional marches. The bride, who was escorted by her father, also honored her mother by being married on her birthday, chose, a; becoming gown of egg-shell, satin smartly fashioned with a molded bodice and long sweeping skirt cut on the bias. The deep V neckline distinguished, the bodice and the long sleeves had brief puffs at the elbow and were tight fitting to, the wrists where they ended in points. Handmade flowers of the satin at one side at the high waistline formed the only trimming. Her veil formed a long train extending from a tulle and lace cap, ornamented with real orange blossoms. The lace of the cap draped softly from either side to the shoulders. She wore, white slippers and in place of the usual flower's, carried a rosary and white prayer book, family heirlooms, and dainty old lace handkerchief which was made by Miss Katherine Sears of Saline, an intimate friend. Mrs. Christine Harrington of Jackson, the bride's godmother, was matron of honor, and Miss Jean Carleen Burkhardt of Saline, sister of the bride was maid of honor.

The bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Kearney of Ann Arbor, Miss Alice Schleh and Miss Muriel Woodbridge of Saline and Miss Florine Blackman of Milan. Mrs. Harrington was charmingly attired in a gown of midnight blue velvet, surplice style, with three-quarter length puffed sleeves. Her hat was of the same shade of blue and she wore black suede slippers and eggshell gloves. Miss Burkhardt as maid of honor selected a smart frock of an unusual shade of red velvet, the pleats of the sleeves starting on the shoulders, giving a broadening effect. The skirt was cut on the bias, while the cowl neckline followed the latest, mode and. was especially attractive. Golden brown velvet was selected for the bridesmaids' frocks and all wore small matching hats with tiny nose veils. Two of the bridesmaids' frocks were designed with square necklines, with the high waistline marked by shirring and the long flowering skirts becomingly cut on the bias. Short puffed sleeves were a smart note.

The other two gowns were designed with high necklines with the broad shoulder effect, achieved, through shirring at the shoulders and the sleeves being fashioned of four tiers of velvet. Points at the high waistlines were unusual in the design of the bodices and the skirt were long and full. All of the bridesmaids, including the maid of honor, wore matching suede slippers and velvet gloves. They and the matron of honor each carried a single bronze chrysanthemum. Mrs. Burkhardt, mother of the bride, was costumed in a modish gown of deep wine shade of velvet made with a beaded white chiffon yoke. Her accessories included black velvet pumps and a black velvet hat with a tiny nose veil. Mrs. Shurtz aunt of the groom, wore a black chiffon lace dress with black accessories. Both Mrs. Burkhardt's and Mrs. Shurtz's corsages were pale yellow rosebuds around orchid sweet peas. George Armstrong of Lansing attended, Mr. Beasley as best man, and the ushers were Leroy Staib of Ypsilanti and Garry Lynch of Ann Arbor, Dickie, Roberts, cousin of the bride, and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Roberts of Detroit, was attired in a full dress suit, and served as ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a buffet breakfast was served to 50 relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents. Fall flowers were used throughout the home and white tapers and: white chrysanthemums graced the bride's table. The couple left immediately for their home in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where Mr. Beasley is employed. The bride's traveling costume was a brown swagger suit with a Lapin coat and tweed skirt with which she wore a brown velvet hat with nose veil, and matching suede shoes, and eggshell gloves. Her purse also was of brown suede and she wore a corsage of rosebuds and violets. Mrs. Beasley is a graduate of both St. Thomas school and St. Joseph Mercy Hospital School of Nursing in Ann Arbor, while Mr. Beasley is a graduate of the Michigan State Normal College and Cleary College in Ypsilanti. The rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents in Saline.

Notes for Jean Carleen Burkhardt:

Mrs. Marie Beasley entertained for her sister, Miss Jean Carlene Burkhardt, who is leaving Saturday Oct. 3, 1942 for Des Moines, Iowa. She has joined the WAACS and will receive her training there. Business men and their wives were guests at an informal get together at the Tavern Monday evening from 8:30 to 11. The room was beautiful with flowers, gifts from the firms whose merchandise is sold in the Burkhardt store. There were baskets of gladioli in many colors, chrysanthemums and combinations of flowers making the room attractive indeed. A representative from Edson Moore & Co., gave a fine toast in honor of Miss Burkhardt and Mayor Alwin Gross on behalf of the business people presented her a lovely service watch which is water proof. Refreshments were served and Miss Burkhardt received the good wishes and congratulations of all present. She is the first from this vicinity to enter any of the army auxiliary services.

Feb. 24, 1944 -Sgt. Jean C. Burkhardt of Saline, Michigan, has been awarded the Good Conduct Medal. She is stationed at First WAC Training Center Fort Des Moines, Iowa. This is one of the first awards of this nature ever presented to a Wac at Fort Des Moines. The Good Conduct medals were awarded to Wacs who had shown exemplary behavior, efficiency and fidelity and who had served in the Army for a year or more. Since no medals are presented by the War Department during the war, the Wacs received red and white striped ribbons and will be awarded the medals when the war ends. The ribbons are worn over the left upper pocket.

A life well lived drew to a close Dec. 8, 2007 when Jean Carleen Burkhardt Austin of Saline died. She was born April 9, 1917, to Fred and Caroline (Stegmiller) Burkhardt. Mrs. Austin's heritage was a family with deep roots in the history of Saline. Her grandfather, Charles Burkhardt, established the Saline Savings Bank and Burkhardt Dry Goods Store in downtown Saline. Her father, Fred, ran Burkhardt Store until his death, when Mrs. Austin and her sister, Maree, took over the family business. Mrs. Austin graduated from Saline High School in 1934 and then attended Cleary College. In 1942, her patriotism prompted her to enlist in the Women's Army Corp. She served in the Army as a sergeant and was honorably discharged in 1945.

After the war years, she met and married Vem Austin of Dundee on May 1, 1947. In 1948, her daughter, Angela, was born and the family moved to the countryside of Saline, where she resided until June 2006.

Mrs. Austin was a longtime member of St. Andrew's Catholic Church in Saline and in later years a member of Immaculate Conception Church in Milan. She took an avid interest in government and served on the York Township Planning Commission. Her steadfast life commitments were clearly to God, family, country and friends. #### Marriage Notes for Jean Burkhart and LaVere Austin:

Simple dignity marked the 12 o'clock wedding Thursday, May 1, 1947, at St. Thomas, the Apostle Catholic Church of Ann Arbor where Jean Carleen Burkhart, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederic L. Burkhart was united in holy matrimony to LaVere Vaughn Austin, first son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Austin of Dundee. The impressive double ring service was solemnized by Msgr. Warren W. Peek in the presence of the immediate families. While profound strains of organ music sounded the traditional processional, the bride was escorted by her brother-in-law, E. J. Beasley. They were preceded to the altar of the Blessed Virgin by Miss Clara Bowen of Oakland, California, as maid of honor, and Miss Karyl Jean Beasley of Saline, a niece of Miss Burkhart, as bridesmaid. Soft shades of delphinium blue were chosen, as the color theme. Miss Burkhart wore a smartly styled double peplum, two-piece' deep blue gabardine suit, accentuated by accessories in old ivory. Honoring her mother, the bride carried the white prayer book and pearl rosary, gobs of many years ago. Complementing the bride's costume, her attendants were gowned in subtle prints of modish basque design. Their tiny poke bonnets in matching material and creamy lace mitts were suggested by the veiled "Kate Greenway" hat worn by the bride. Mr. Austin presented his bride with a lapel spray of old ivory gardenias and her two attendants with, shoulder corsages of beautifully shaded pansies, deftly completing the ensembles. The bride's sister, Mrs. E. J. Beasley, chose a dressmaker suit in pale grey with, grey green accessories. Mrs. Austin, the groom's mother, wore beige crepe, with black accessories. The former wore a corsage of pale pink rosebuds, while rosebuds of deep crimson were worn by Mrs. Austin. Roland Kraeger of Dundee was best man. Seating the guests was Glen Austin, the bride's groom's brother, of Dundee.

Informal floral arrangements of white snapdragons and yellow daffodils completed the setting for the luncheon served in the candlelight dining room of the Saline hotel, following the ceremony. Acting as hostess, Miss Donna Mae Austin of Dundee, a sister of the bridegroom, seated the eighteen guests. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Austin were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shurtz, uncle and aunt of Mr. Beasley. The couple left immediately for a honeymoon in Canada. Mrs. Austin, a graduate of Saline High school and Cleary College, Ypsilanti, before entering the Woman's Army Corp was co-owner of Burkhart Store. Mr. Austin, a graduate of Dundee High School, having attended Michigan State College, volunteered in the Medical Corp as a dental technician. He is at present employed by the Hoosier Engineering Co., preparatory to resuming his professional career. Both Mr. and Mrs. Austin may be sincerely complimented for their diligence and military standings while serving their country four years.

Notes for Frieda Clementine Leucht:

Obituary - Mrs. Frieda C. Moody:

Mrs. Frieda C. Moody, 44 years old, died at 8:30 o'clock Monday night at the residence, 3810 South Sixth Street. She is survived by the husband, Louis; five sons, Edard Payne of Brazil, Louis Jr., James, Russell and Robert Moody, all of Terre Haute; seven daughters, Mrs. Charlotte Bowies of West Terre Haute, Misses Florence, Ernestine, Ruth, Helen, Alice and Mary Moody, all of this city; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stickson, of Terre Haute, and two grandchildren. The body was taken to the Gillis funeral home and will be returned to the residence this evening from where funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Burial in Highland Lawn cemetery.

First marriage, Stickson, some of Bills' family say she was married to a stickson and others say she took her stepfathers last name. Either way, she had one child with the last name Stickson. No sure of the circumstance (maybe born out of wedlock). Freda then married John Edward Payne and had three children. Freda then married Louis Scott Moody and had sixteen children, of which one of them was Bill Johnson's mother, Mary Jo Moody. All three spouses were buried at Roselawn Cemetery in Terre Haute, Indiana.

Notes for Floyd James Stanley:

Floyd James Stanley of St. Martins Point, Hessel, was best known for his wooden toys and love of athletics. An expert craftsman, his wooden train sets, cars, airplanes, and boats grace many homes. He was an avid fan of Cedarville High School athletics, helping at games whenever he could. He loved golf and worked part time at Les Cheneaux Club Golf Course in Cedarville into the 2005 season, greeting everyone with a smile. "No one got more out of life than Floyd," said neighbor Marilyn Kraft. "The people on the Point and others loved the man."

Mr. Stanley died unexpectedly at the age of 85 Thursday, April 13, 2006, at War Memorial Hospital in Sault Ste. Marie. He was born in Farwell March 10, 1921, to Clair and Mabel (nee Myers) Stanley and grew up in that area. He was a 1939 graduate of Hayes Agricultural School in Harrison (now Harrison High School), where he participated in varsity basketball for four years. He married Irene Pifer, with whom he had two sons, Michael Stanley, who died as an infant, and Richard Stanley. The couple separated, and Irene Stanley passed away in 1971. Mr. Stanley later married Ruth (nee Cooley) Fosnight October 30, 1947, and she preceded him in death February 7, 1981.

Mr. Stanley owned and managed a gas station in Lansing and also worked at Holly Carburetor in Clare, at Stanley Oil for his brother, Leon, and at Witbeck's IGA grocery store. He was a former member of the Saginaw Valley Callers Association for square-dancing, coached in the Farwell Little League Association, was a deacon at Harrison Congregational Church, and was a member of many golf and bowling leagues. Mr. Stanley moved to Hessel in 1981 and was a life member of the St. Martins Point Association. "He was just a really great guy, and we're going to miss him out here," neighbor Dave Sudol told The St. Ignace News, recalling that his children enjoyed visiting Mr. Stanley at his workshop. His home workshop, where he made wooden toys and decorations, was a place of wonder for local children who visited, and he always drew a crowd of delighted children and adults to his table at local craft shows.

He was "Toy Man" to some, the "Toymaker" to others, and Mr. Stanley took part in the Artist in Residence series at Les Cheneaux Community Schools. "Our school will not be the same without him," said Elementary Principal Eric Cardwell. "Our world would be a better place if there were more people like Floyd. His compassion and dedication to the community will truly be missed." Mr. Stanley enjoyed watching Cedarville High School sports, especially basketball, and rarely missed a game. He was thrilled to attend the Cedarville varsity boy's basketball Class D semi-final game in East Lansing March 23. He was a Cedarville Trojan Booster Club member and picked up pizzas for the club's concession stand. He was also an avid Detroit Red Wings fan.

Mr. Stanley is survived by three children and their families, Richard and Kitty Stanley of Charlotte, Leigh Wood of Clare, and David and Donna Stanley of Lake Orion; seven grandchildren, Elaine and Jeff Pruden of Farwell, Allen Wood of Lake, Stephen and Holly Stanley of Lansing, Jennifer and Tony DiSpirito of Grand Rapids, and Adam, Amanda, and Andrew Stanley of Lake Orion; three greatgrandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents and brothers, Otis, Leon, and Leonard Stanley.

Memorial services were Tuesday, April 18, at the Stephenson-Wyman Funeral Home in Clare. Pastor Denny Emmons of Gengellville Community Church in Lake Orion officiated. David Stanley's sister-in-law, Cheri Woodman of Saginaw delivered the eulogy. Visitation was held prior to services. Memorials can be made to the American Heart Association or to the American Cancer Society. The family is planning a second, local memorial service near his St. Martins Point home at a later date. Fatal crash on west side of Ann Arbor resulted from driver suffering medical condition, police say

A 66-year-old man (John Richard Fritz) died Thursday after his car was hit by a 48-year-old man who suffered a medical condition, causing him to pass out and run a red light, according to police. The accident occurred at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the intersection of Maple Road and Dexter Avenue, according to Ann Arbor police Lt. Renee Bush. She said the 48-year-old man was traveling east on Dexter Avenue when a medical issue caused him to pass out. His Saturn ran a red light and he collided with the 66-year-old man's Toyota, which was traveling north on Maple Road, Bush said.

The 66-year-old man died at the scene from the injuries he sustained in the collision. Bush said the 48-year-old man was transported to the hospital by Huron Valley Ambulance to be treated for his medical issue. Police are not releasing the nature of the medical issue that caused the man to pass out, Bush said. The Toyota was hit near the driver's side door, pinning the 66-year-old man inside the vehicle, Bush said. Ann Arbor Fire Department Battalion Chief Robert Vogel said when firefighters arrived at the scene, the man was pinned inside the vehicle and not breathing. Vogel said firefighters used the Jaws of Life to remove the man from the Toyota, but he was declared dead at the scene.

Authorities originally reported three cars were involved in the crash, but Bush said only two cars were involved. The third car thought to be involved in the crash was actually a witness who had pulled over to the side of the road to wait for authorities, Bush said. The identities of the men involved in the crash have not been released. Thursday saw two traffic accidents resulting in deaths. A man was killed after being hit by a semi-truck while walking onto Interstate 94 near Stone School Road. Police reported witnesses said the man appeared to walk out in front of the truck deliberately.

John Richard Fritz of Ann Arbor, Michigan, 1945-2012, died unexpectedly in an automobile accident on the evening of Thursday, April 26th. Notes for Cody Crawford:

Cody Crawford enters his third year with the Gators after joining the Allegheny football staff in June 2018. Crawford arrived in Meadville after spending the 2016 and '17 seasons as running backs coach and assistant video coordinator at Division-II University of Indianapolis. After the Greyhounds finished 6-5 during Crawford's first campaign in 2016, the squad rolled to an 11-1 record a season later, capturing the Great Lakes Valley Conference title and earning a spot in the NCAA playoffs. Crawford mentored a pair of All-GLVC running backs during his tenure, including Andrew Walker and Al McKeller, who was also named the 2017 GLVC Rookie of the Year. In 2017, Crawford helped lead a UIndy ground unit that averaged 230 rushing yards per game and ran for 27 touchdowns to bolster a Greyhound offense that averaged 38.2 points per game.

Prior to his two-year stint in Indianapolis, Crawford began his coaching career at his alma mater, Albion College, where he spent the 2015 campaign as the running backs coach. That year, the Britons finished 9-2 overall, tied for the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) championship, and advanced to the NCAA Division III playoffs, boasting an offense that ranked third in the nation in total offense (559.7 yards/gm) and sixth in scoring (47.0 pts/g). A major reason for the Britons' offensive success came from Crawford's running back contingent, as three players ran for at least 550 yards, including a pair of 1,000-yard rushers in Colin Parks and Mike Czarnecki, who were both tabbed All-MIAA.

As a student-athlete at Albion, Crawford put together a solid four-year career at wide receiver. He appeared in 40 games, totaling 96 receptions for 1,210 yards and 12 touchdowns, helping the Britons earn MIAA titles and NCAA playoff appearances in both 2011 and 2013. He was the recipient of the Steve Gilbert Coaches' Award, voted by coaching staff to the player who best demonstrates hard work and leadership, as well as the 2014 Captain's Award, as voted upon by teammates.

A native of East Lansing, Michigan, Crawford was a double-major at Albion, earning degrees in both Kinesiology/Exercise Science and Communication Studies in 2015.

Notes for Mary Jane Hempstead:

Mary Jane Hempstead was the longed for blessing born to parents who had been denied children for more than ten years. Needless to say, Mary Jane was a cherished child. Both Scott, with the artistic temperament, and Carrie, the hard-working, practical one doted on their daughter. Even when baby brother, Scott Jr. was born, the focus of attention remained on this shy, compliant but determined, talented, intelligent girl. Gifts of grace surrounded this little one from the time she was an infant to the time she left home to serve her country at the outbreak of WWII. Though her parents were very poor, even by Depression Era standards, Mary Jane suffered few denials. Naturally quiet and painfully shy, she never asked for much, but her wealthy relatives lavished her with the best of their stylish clothing, paid for years of piano lessons, and supported her through business college. She paid them back by becoming a real beauty, full of grace and dignity, an entertaining pianist, and a brilliantly competent secretary. Mary Jane attracted attention where ever she went with her meticulous grooming, chic clothing, and impeccable manners.

At Broad Street High School in Columbus, Ohio, Mary Jane loved her Latin courses and journalism classes, and her high school sweetheart, Chuck Elkins. Chuck became a regular fixture at the Hempstead house, eating dinner every evening with the family and then doing homework with his girl. Truth be told, not much homework got done. Mary Jane also enjoyed quiet pursuits like reading, working crossword puzzles, playing the piano, drawing, cutting up Sears catalogues and making paper dolls, going on family picnics, boating on Buckeye Lake with her beaux, and attending high school dances, but leaving the jitterbugging to the more energetic girls.

Not too long after high school and business college, Pearl Harbor was bombed and the world was changed forever. Mary Jane joined the Navy, mostly because the Marine uniform color and style was not as attractive on her as the Navy's, especially with the gloriously sophisticated and stylish W.A.V.E. hat. Trained as a gunner at Pensacola FL, then stationed in Hutchison KA, Mary Jane eventually met her match in Chief Warrant Officer, Henry Jackson. It was love at first sight for the Chief, who persuaded her to rush off and get married after a two month whirlwind romance.

It was a time of change and adventure for the couple. After the war was over, Hank, a highway patrol officer, and Mary Jane, a homemaker, settled in Compton, CA. Soon the children came: Josi, Jackie, and Mickey, all within four years. In addition, Mary Jane had the misfortune of contracting polio between the births of her second and third children, so things were pretty complicated and difficult for the young woman who lived over two thousand miles away from her mother in Ohio. Nevertheless, through hard work and diligence in rehabilitation, she was able to walk without a noticeable limp and eventually take care of her children again by herself.

While her children were growing up, Mary Jane tried new avenues of personal growth including becoming a member of the Toastmistress organization, honing her public speaking skills as well as organizing meetings, social events, and serving as the president several terms; quite an accomplishment for the once shrinking violet. In addition, she helped her now expert witness in accident reconstruction husband with his depositions, preparing for court dates and his testimonies. She was his right-hand man, coaching him on proper grammar and persuasive rhetoric, typing court documents perfectly. This experience helped her to gain enough confidence to pursue a position at the Downey branch of Rockwell, International. She transferred to Autonetics in Anaheim, during the exciting Apollo mission era, eventually triumphing in the landing of Neil Armstrong and his crew on the moon. That was the most exciting time in Mary Jane's life. Rockwell was her life and salvation, especially after being widowed at the young age of 48, providing her with a social network and financial support for the rest of her life. After many years of service, Mary Jane eventually retired from Rockwell, never forgetting her friends, staying in contact with them until her dying day.

All in all, Mary Jane lived an amazingly fruitful, enjoyable, and long life. Though quiet, she could have crazy fun with her friends; though not domestic, she could still bake a mean macaroni casserole; though not outgoing, she could still attract loyal friends; though not the most maternal woman on the earth, she evoked absolute devotion and service from her grown children and grandchildren. She would definitely say it was a wonderful life.

Notes for Stella Josephine Kozbiel:

Stella J. Shellenberger, age 84, of Marshall, died peacefully at her home on Tuesday, April 3, 2007. Stella was born on March 19, 1923 at 5 AM at her parent's home in Albion to Daniel and Helen (Gavolin) Kozbiel. Both Stella's parents had immigrated here from Poland, and instilled a strong work ethic in Stella that stayed with her throughout her life. She grew up in Albion and attended Albion Schools until graduating from Washington Gardner High School. Stella then worked in Albion and Homer grocery stores, mainly as a cashier.

In the mid-1940's, Stella was married to Robert F. Anderson. Their marriage ended in divorce in 1958. She lived in Albion and Homer over the years until 1960. On May 21 of that year, she married Lewis P. Shellenberger and moved to Marshall where she has made her home since. Stella was a Stanley Home Products dealer for 46 years. Her husband, Lewis P. Shellenberger, had worked with her until his death on Oct. 16, 2000.

They had Stanley booths at both the Calhoun County and Hillsdale County fairs for many years. Stella had a widespread and loyal customer base because of her dedication to her clients and her service as a saleswoman and dealer. She won numerous awards from Stanley for her sales, and enjoyed her work to this day. In 1977, Stanley Home Products appointed her as District Sales Manager. She was very active in the Marshall community. Stella was a former member and past president (in 1967) of the Marshall Business and Professional Women. She was a steadfast member of Zion Lutheran Church and volunteered with their former Walter League, working with church youth.

Stella was a dedicated volunteer with area youth over the years, something she enjoyed very much. She started as a recreation and photography leader in 1957. She served a number of years as Acting Administrative Leader for the 4 Leaf Clovers 4-H Club. She resigned from that position in 1977, but continued her work as a leader in her areas of photography and recreation. She structured her photography groups to start with children when they were 10, and taught them different skills until they graduated from high school. Over the many years, she only had two children that started in the group that did not finish all of it. Stella loved family holidays and gatherings. No matter how sick she may have been as she battled health problems, she insisted on organizing and being at those special events.

Surviving are her daughter, Kathleen Sue (Michael) Hewitt of Marshall; her step-sons, Lewis H. Shellenberger and Larry L. Shellenberger both of Marshall; 2 grandchildren, Derrick L. Wirebaugh of Homer, and Todd R. Wirebaugh of Fremont; 6 great-grandchildren, Travis, Kimmy, Amber, Justin,

Children of Louis Shellenberger and Bernice Anderson are:

- 3169 i. Lewis H.<sup>11</sup> Shellenberger, born 08 May 1936 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan; died 28 Apr 2015 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan. He married Linda M. Whittington 1989 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan; born 19 Sep 1947 in Hagerstown, Washington Co, Maryland; died 04 Mar 2014 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan.

Notes for Lewis H. Shellenberger:

Lewis H. Shellenberger, age 78, of Marshall, died at Oaklawn Hospital on Tuesday, April 28, 2015 after a lengthy illness. Lewis was born on May 8, 1936 to Lewis P. and Bernice (Slate) Shellenberger. He attended Marshall Schools and was a member of the Marshall High School graduating class of 1955. His interest in the fire service started as a youngster when he was a frequent visitor to the Marshall Fire Department. He would catch the back step of the fire engine as the firefighters left on a call. He started his career as a volunteer firefighter with Marshall Fire Department during his senior year in high school, in 1955.

In March of 1957 he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force. He served as an aircraft crash and rescue specialist, as well as serving on base fire equipment as a structural firefighter. Lewis returned to Marshall in April of 1960, rejoining Marshall Fire Department as an auxiliary firefighter. He became a career member of the Battle Creek Fire Department that same year. He served at Station 1 on the Rescue Squad for 3 and ½ years. An opening for a career firefighter came up at Marshall Fire Department and he earned that position when he was hired on October 24, 1962 by Chief Bruce O'Leary. He served as a Captain and department training officer. On July 10, 1970 he was promoted to Assistant Fire Chief by then Chief Chester Travis. On February 4, 1974 he was again promoted by City Manager Richard Chesney and became Marshall's Fire Chief. He served until his retirement on April 24, 1993. After his retirement he enjoyed working for many years at the National House Inn until ill health prevented him from working.

During his career he served as Assistant Civil Defense Director for Marshall, and was appointed in March of 1974 as Chief of Fire Services in Calhoun County under Calhoun County's Coordinator of Emergency Services Joseph Liebherr. His professional memberships included International Association Of Fire Chiefs, Michigan Fire Chief's Association (and served as a board member), Michigan State Firefighter's Association, Michigan Chapter of International Association of Arson Inspectors, Charter Member of National Police and Firefighter's Association, Charter Member of Fire Service Section of National Fire Protection Association, member and Past President of Calhoun County Firefighter's Association. For many years he volunteered the majority of the week during the Calhoun County Fair when the County Firefighters Association provided gate, parking and security services.

Lewis enjoyed antique fire apparatus. He owned a 1929 LaFrance fire engine. He participated in many fire musters in Michigan, including some he helped organize in Marshall. He was a member of the Society for the Preservation and Appreciation of Antique Motor Fire Apparatus and was a charter member of Greenfield Village International Antique Fire Apparatus Association. He was a former member of the Marshall Optimist Club and a member of Christ Lutheran Church. In the mid 1960's, Marshall's funeral homes went out of the ambulance business. The City of Marshall attempted to run a service for a period of time, but was unsuccessful. Lewis reacted personally to the need for emergency care in Marshall's extended community and founded Marshall Ambulance Service in 1967. He owned and operated this until 1974 when he sold it. He also formerly owned and operated a Marathon Service Station and Wrecker Service at the corner of W. Michigan and Fountain Street in the later 1960's. He served the city as a Reserve Police Officer for many years.

Lewis was well known for his skills in the kitchen! The fire crews enjoyed wonderful meals he enjoyed cooking, and the Fire Department Christmas and family parties all benefited from his ability to create great meals for large groups of people. He will be remembered for mentoring many young people who he saw have an early interest in serving their community in the fire service and/or emergency medical field. Lewis gave them opportunities while still teen agers that resulted in many of them serving even today.

Surviving are his partner of 34 years, John Seiler, his brother Larry (Phyllis) Shellenberger; step-sister Kathleen Sue Hewitt and nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at Craig K. Kempf Family Funeral Home, Marshall on Thursday from 6 PM-8 PM. Services to celebrate his life will be held at the funeral home on Friday, May 1, at 1 PM with Rev. James Codde officiating. Interment will follow in Oakridge Cemetery. Following interment, friends and family will gather back at Kempf's Fellowship Hall at the funeral home for snacks and fellowship. The family suggests you remember Lewis with memorial contributions to Marshall Firefighters Ambulance or Marshall Fire Department. Assistance with memorials is available at Kempf Funeral Home.

Marriage Notes for Elspeth Graff and Stewart Cook:

Marshall - June lilies and blue delphinium, in tall wicker baskets, and potted palms and ferns made an effective background for the marriage of Miss Elspeth Fraser Graff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Alfred Wills of Detroit, a brother of Mrs. Graff, who played at her wedding, gave a half hour organ program before the service, playing the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin as the bridal party assembled. Mr. Wills also played during the ceremony and used the Mendelssohn Wedding March as a recessional. Lachlan Currie sang. Because, before, the troths were plighted and I Love You Truly, during the ceremony. The bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. Miss Lorene Culver of Coldwater was maid of honor while Miss Franks Henley of Battle Creek, and Miss Harriet Graff were the bridesmaids. Phyllis Rae Cook of Burlington was flower girl. The best man was Harry Brewer, of Battle Creek. The ushers were James Kerr of Battle Creek, Ralph Palmer of Tekonsha and Harlo Hornberger of Saginaw.

The bride wore a lovely gown of white satin, fashioned on Princess lines, with a long train and a high neck edged with white satin flowers, and long sleeves full to the elbow. A three-quarter length veil was draped from a small net turban and her flowers were an arm bouquet of white roses, lilies and white sweet peas. Miss Culver was attired in pale green organdie, with a large satin bow in front and she wore a yellow hat and carried yellow roses. Their flowers were shoulder corsages of roses and sweet peas. More than 100 guests were invited for the church service.

A reception, with a wedding dinner, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graff followed. The bride's table, at which places were laid for 16, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom under a wedding bell. On either side were silver candlesticks with three white tapers and bowls of white roses. Tiny nose-gays formed the favors for the women. Notes for Archie Robert Caswell:

Party of Eight Crowded Into Ford Touring Car When Driver Swerves at Curve - A young wife was killed and seven other persons were injured when the automobile in which they were riding was wrecked on US-12 two miles east of Battle Creek shortly after 10 o'clock Saturday night Oct. 29, 1932. Mrs. Evelyn Williams, 18, of Stewart lake, south of Marshall, died at the scene of the accident. She was taken to Nichols hospital, however, before it was determined that she was dead. Her husband, Pownell Williams, suffered a fractured left shoulder.

Others injured were the driver of the car, Archie Caswell, 25, of 422 North Mulberry, Marshall, his side hurt; Miss Ida Large, 18, of 113 East VanBuren, Battle Creek, badly bruised and shocked; Misa Freida Potter, 18, of Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Freed of Spring Street, Battle Creek, and Walter Adams of 422 North Mulberry, Marshall, who received minor scratches and bruises.

The party of Battle Creek and Marshall persons, crowded Into Caswell's Ford touring car, were on their way from Battle Creek to the Williams home at Stuart lake, southwest of Marshall. The accident happened on a curve a short distance east of the Calhoun, county hospital.

Caswell told Coroner Willard N. Putman and police who investigated the accident that he was driving about 50 miles per hour and had passed a truck just before rounding the curve to discover a slowly-moving automobile in his path and another approaching from the opposite direction. To avoid smashing into the car ahead, he said, he swerved sharply to the left. The car turned over, righted itself and then crashed into a telephone pole. Remarkably, none of the occupants was thrown out.

The driver of the car ahead, Fred Fausz, also of Marshall, and Thomas Stoke, South Division Street garageman who had been working on a truck close by, assisted the injured to leave the car. All except, Adams were taken to Nichols hospital. It was not immediately learned that Mrs. Williams was dead, those at the scene believing she was merely unconscious. They thought they detected her breathing, but Coroner Putman afterward expressed the opinion that she died immediately after the crash. Death, he said, was due to a fractured skull.

Mr. Fausz and Mr. Stoke each took several of the injured to the hospital. Adams drove the damaged car on to Marshall, where he went to Oaklawn hospital to have a scalp wound treated. None of the others was believed to have a serious injury, and only Miss Large, severely shocked, remained under care early this morning. Coroner Putman questioned Caswell at police headquarters after his side injury had been treated at the hospital. He was not detained. Dr. Putman said he was undecided, whether to hold an inquest.

Marshall - Archie R. Caswell, 76, of 1016 S. Kalamazoo Ave., died today April 24, 1984 in Community Hospital, Battle Creek, where he had been a patient since Monday. He was born in Gratiot City and had resided in Marshall most of his life. He was employed by the Eaton Corp. and retired in 1975 after 46 years of service. He was a former member of Marshall Moose Lodge 676.

Surviving are his wife, the former Margaret L. Bramble; a daughter, Karen Cubbon of Nottawa Lake; a son, Carl Caswell of Fort Wayne, Indiana; and three grandchildren.

Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Craig K. Kempf Funeral Home. Memorial donations may be made to the National Kidney Foundation of Michigan.

Notes for Oscar (Mike) Alber, Jr.:

Oscar Junior Alber "Mike" born May 5, 1931 in Salem Township, the son of the late Oscar and the late Louise (nee' Hertler) Alber, and the younger brother of the late Elberta (Combs) and the late Geraldine (McGarry). Died Jan . 30, 2023. Mike attended Salem Townline a one-room schoolhouse and worked on the farm with his parents, a habit he continued to a lesser degree well into his retirement. He said he "worked as an electrician to support his farming habit"! Oscar "Mike" served in Korea from January 1953 until Jan 1955, as an Artillery Survey Specialist in the 623rd Field Artillery Battalion. At 24 years of age and happy to be home from Korea he met Joanne Pappas, age 19, on a blind date and they were married September 25, 1955, the couple had just celebrated 67 years!

In April of 1957 Mike completed the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Apprenticeship. Mike was a farmer by birth, self-taught mechanic, carpenter, plumber, roofer, beekeeper, wine maker, pilot, storyteller, machinist, welder and engineer. He was an Army-taught surveyor and a Union taught Electrician. He saw what others could not see, from the sky, in the earth, in metal and in wood. Always making and doing things that others said could not be done. While most people are drawn to either ideas, people or things, Mike understood people, and restored, invented and improved things and explained his ideas usually by drawing a diagram on a napkin.

Mike and Sue threw enormous parties from lobster boils to breakfast on the woodstove in a snowstorm. Mike and Sue were members of the Washtenaw Model T club, the "Washten-Naughties" and had fun getting together and joining in parades. They were also members of the BMW Motorcycle family, and the BMW "Airheads" and had years of adventures on their bike, across the country and the continent, and even across Costa Rica (!!) on BMW's with their friends. When it came time to put the bike away they got out their little Airstream Bambi and continued their adventures. Mike had an answer for everything, there wasn't anything he couldn't do, and he always had a project going on! Mike always had a story to tell, with a beer in hand! There were always folks just dropping by, and usually there was a gang in the shop, because that is where Mike was, doing something interesting!

He is survived by his wife Joanne "Sue", his children, David, Carrie (DeJonghe) and George Albercook, 9 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren, 2 great-great grandchildren.

Visitation for Mike will be Sunday, February 5, from 4:00 PM until 7:00 PM. A graveside service will be 2:30 PM, Monday, February 6, 2023 at Washtenong Memorial Park with Military Honors under the Auspices of the Veteran's Honor Guard of Washtenaw County.

2772. Loren Alton<sup>10</sup> Koengeter (Elsie Edlein (Elsa)<sup>9</sup> Loeffler, Elise Catharina (Lizzie)<sup>8</sup> Stierle, Abraham<sup>7</sup>, Christina Katharina<sup>6</sup> Burkhardt, Johann Fridrich<sup>5</sup>, Johann Michael<sup>4</sup> Burckhardt, Agnes<sup>3</sup> Thoni, Johannes<sup>2</sup>, Michel<sup>1</sup>) was born 06 Jun 1923 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 12 Apr 2012 in Jackson, Jackson Co, Michigan. He married Dorothy Geraldine Grau 08 Sep 1945 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Arthur Grau and Rubena Staebler. She was born 12 Mar 1926 in Sharon Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 20 Feb 2010 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Loren Alton Koengeter:

Dorothy and Loren Koengeter, Chelsea: Life on the farm 50 years ago was about the time people started using tractors to do the hard work. We still had horses. I marveled at how good they were to work with. Much of the work was hard and they got very tired. When it was very hot they got very hot but never seemed to not want to work. This was also the time of the one room school, with one teacher for all grades. When I attended there were about 20 pupils. Some schools had 50. We had outside toilets and a pump for water. We'd pump a pail full and everyone dipped from that. In winter we had a large wash boiler placed on an electric plate. Then we warmed pupils' lunches, which they'd brought in glass jars. Farmers didn't go to town often. They mostly went to town on Saturday night so that the whole family could go. We didn't buy many groceries because we raised beef, pork and chickens and canned many jars of fruits and vegetables.

Loren Alton Koengeter of Chelsea, Michigan, age 88, passed away on Thursday, April 12, 2012 at Legacy Assisted Living in Jackson. He was born on June 6, 1923 in Freedom Twp., the son of Wilbert and Elsie (Loeffler) Koengeter. On September 8, 1945 he married Dorothy Geraldine Grau and she preceded him in death on February 20, 2010. Loren had lived in Chelsea his entire life and was a life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church, Chelsea, where he was also a Church Council member. He graduated from Chelsea High School in 1941 and was Kiwanis Farmer of the Year in 1989. He was a member of 4-

H, the Washtenaw County Livestock Council, and a former Chelsea Fair Board member. Loren exhibited at the Junior Livestock Show at the Michigan State Fairgrounds.

Surviving are three children: Nancy (Garry) Hopkins of Galesburg, Donald (Wanda) Koengeter of Chelsea, and Robert (Dee) Koengeter of Chelsea; eight grandchildren: Todd, Scott, Amy, Daniel, Beth, Lisa, Laura, and Joe; eight great-grandchildren; and his brother- and sister-in-law, Lloyd (Arlene) Grau of Chelsea. In addition to his wife, he was preceded in death by his parents.

A Funeral Service will be held on Monday, April 16, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. at Zion Lutheran Church with Rev. John Morris officiating. Burial will follow at the church cemetery. The family will receive friends at the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home on Sunday from 4-8 p.m. and at the church on Monday from 10-11 a.m. Expressions of sympathy may be made to Zion Lutheran Church.

Notes for Ileen Faye Loeffler:

Ileen Fay (Loeffler) Kinsey, age 86, of Chelsea, Michigan and formerly of Ann Arbor, died at home on March 29, 2014 with her loving family surrounding her and in the care of her granddaughter Stacey, a licensed nurse practitioner who was inspired by her mother and grandma Ileen to become a nurse. Ileen was born in Chelsea in 1927, the daughter of Herbert and Edna (Maroney) Loeffler. She graduated from Chelsea High School in 1945 and shared valedictorian honors that year. Ileen attended Michigan State University (then Michigan State College) and graduated "with honors" in 1949 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Medical Technology. She worked as a Medical Technologist at the University of Michigan Hospital before devoting her life to homemaking.

In 1947, she married Richard "Dick" Kinsey of Chelsea, Michigan and he survives. Dick and Ileen celebrated 66 years of "wedded bliss." They had their disagreements, but through it all they were fun-loving, hardworking partners in life that were the exemplar for a strong marriage. Ileen was a devoted wife, mother and homemaker. Ileen was the beloved mother of Karna (Dennis) Brandt, Kathy Kinsey and Rich (Toni) Kinsey. She was a very insightful, quick witted, inspirational figure to her five grandchildren: Robert Brandt of Dewitt, Chris Chambers of Ann Arbor, Stacey Chambers of Canton, Rick Kinsey of Marquette and Peter Kinsey of Traverse City. Ileen was a great-grandmother to Nicholas, Jacob and Tyler Brandt, all of DeWitt.

Ileen battled lung cancer for 8 years and never lost her wry sense of humor, keen intellect or honest appraisal of life as she encountered it. Ileen was an extraordinary woman and her family agreed that although she was shy in nature to those outside the family, she was a perceptive, sensible and frank matriarch of the family. Ileen enjoyed traveling, reading, summering on North Lake, slot machines on occasion and knitting. Her knitting was incredible and each family has numerous examples of her sweaters and Afghans to keep them as warm as their memories of Ileen.

The family wishes to thank all of the wonderful caregivers who assisted Ileen in her final days. The staff at the University of Michigan Hospital, the nurses from Synergy, and Arbor Hospice were kind and compassionate throughout Ileen's final struggle. This kindness and compassion will never be forgotten. Cremation and a family memorial have taken place. The family urges well-wishers to enjoy time with their own families and give to the charity of their choice.

Notes for Richard Lee (Dick) Kinsey:

Richard "Dick" Kinsey was born on July 10, 1924 in Chelsea, Michigan. He was the son of Peter and Elizabeth (Thompson) Kinsey and the youngest of four siblings, Matt, Peg and Tom. Dick's mother died when he was an infant and he was raised by his immigrant father and his 14 years-older sister Ivy M. "Peg" (Kinsey) Pierce during "the Great Depression." Dick was a 1942 graduate of Chelsea High School and served in the U.S. Army in the European Theater of Operations with the 116th Regiment of the 29th Infantry Division from Omaha Beach on D+3 through the Battle of St. Lo. He was severely wounded in combat operations in Normandy on August 17, 1944 and may have been one of the first soldiers medically evacuated by aircraft back to England. After returning from the war he met the love of his life, Ileen Fay (Loeffler) Kinsey who he married in 1947 and remained married until her death in 2014. Dick and Ileen moved to Ann Arbor and had three children Karna, Kathy and Rich. Dick was always on the move, a worker and a saver. He began working in onion marshes north of Chelsea at about 10 years-old and held various jobs until finding a job he loved selling beer for O & W Inc. There he was a beer truck driver/salesman for 17 years and rose to Sales Manager for the rest of his 36 year career. Dick loved people and found his niche selling beer. In later life he loved vacationing with his wife Ileen and spending time with his family at his home on North Lake. If you ever went to dinner with this tough old World War II vet with a heart of gold, you were in for a fight if you tried to pick up the tab. He loved to eat, drink and be merry virtually until the day he died. He would not, however, play bingo! Dick was a devoted husband, father and grandfather who always put family first.

Dick was the beloved father of Karna (Randy) Piebenga of Haslett, Kathy (Russ Ferguson) Kinsey of Ann Arbor and Rich (Toni) Kinsey of Chelsea. He was a wise, fun-loving grandfather--who could be trusted with a secret--to five grandchildren: Robert Brandt of Dewitt, Chris (Toni) Chambers of Ann Arbor, Stacey (Rachel Hudson) Chambers of Decatur, Georgia, Rick (Ashlee) Kinsey of Vulcan, and Peter Kinsey of Traverse City. Dick was a great-grandfather to Nicholas, Jacob and Tyler Brandt all of DeWitt. He was a loving uncle to Shirley, Lois and Betty.

He was the Godfather of Frank (Denise) Moore of England who he became very close with especially later in life. Dick will be missed by his family and all who knew him for his quick wit, great stories, big smile and generous nature. He was an outstanding example to his family of what a "good man" should be. Dick's life was an embodiment of as he joked 50 years ago "Another job, well done, by your friendly Strohman." The family wishes to thank the entire staff at Silver Maples, the care givers of Synergy and Arbor Hospice for their outstanding care but more importantly for the love he felt while being cared for. A special thanks to "Bertie" for her kind words and service keeping the feisty old vet in line during some long nights toward the end.

Cremation has taken place and a family memorial will be planned for a later date. Burial will be at Oak Grove Cemetery, Chelsea. The family urges well-wishers to enjoy time with their families, give to the charity of their choice and raise a glass to the man who will be remembered by his family as the Greatest of the "Greatest Generation."

Notes for Zachary Taylor Owings:

Eastern Michigan University junior infielder Zachary Owings (Saline, Michigan) was selected in the 33rd round, 981st overall, by the Miami Marlins in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft Wednesday afternoon, June 5, 2019. Owings becomes the 76th EMU player to be drafted all-time into the MLB, and becomes the third selection from EMU in as many years, joining 2017 Seattle Mariners pick Sam Delaplane, and 2018 Oakland Athletics selection Max Schuemann. Owings is the second Eastern player to be drafted into the Marlins organization, joining Steve Weber.

Owings was EMU's best offensive weapon in 2019, as he led the team in batting (.345), slugging (.527), on-base percentage (.395), stolen bases (14), runs (38), and doubles (18), as well as hits (76) and RBIs (34). The infielder also tied for the team lead in triples (five), and ranked second in home runs (four). Owings piloted the team with 26 multi-hit games, and paced the EMU lineup with seven multi-RBI games. Additionally, Owings added a 23-game reached base streak to go along with his team-best 14 game hitting streak.

Within the Mid-American Conference's regular season, Owings ranked fourth in hits, sixth in total bases, ninth in batting average, 10th in slugging percentage, and tied for fourth in both doubles and triples, respectively. The junior is no stranger on the national stage either, as he ranked inside the top-30 in triples, and inside the top-60 in hits and doubles. In the field, Owings was outstanding, defending the hot corner at a near-perfect .974 clip. In all, the third baseman made just five errors in nearly 200 opportunities. The anchor of the fourth most efficient fielding unit in the MAC, Owings closed the season without making an error in his last 25 games played.

In addition to his top-tier statistics, Owings has compiled an impressive list of awards in 2019. The infielder was twice named the MAC's Scholar Athlete of the Week, recognized by College Sports Madness as the league's player of the week, named Eastern Michigan University Credit Union's Athlete of the Week, and was named a National Strength and Conditioning Association All-American for the second straight year. Most recently, the junior was tabbed as one of league's best for the second straight year, as he was named Second Team All-MAC, and to the All-MAC Defensive Team.

Owings closed his third season at EMU having played in 157 contests, including making 146 starts. The lefty has knocked 187 hits, including 34 doubles, seven triples, and 10 home runs, on his way to batting .325, good for 15th all-time at Eastern.

Union City – Miss Dorla Lou Barnes became the bride of Gerald Thomas Herman Saturday Sept. 6, 1952 at 10a.m. before an altar banked with white gladiolas in the first marriage ceremony to be performed in the new Our Lady of Fatima church here. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. George Higgins, pastor of St. Charles Catholic church in Coldwater. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Barnes of Union City and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Herman of Sherwood. The bride was gowned in imported chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. Her billowing gown fell into chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held in place by her Juliet cap fashioned with a small tiara of seed pearls. Completing her attire was a strand of choker pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried an orchid on a prayer-book which was covered with chantilly lace from which fell showers of lovers' knots.

Miss Carolyn Donovan, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her ballerina-length gown was formed by layers of champagne nylon net over satin. She carried a cascading bouquet of buff gladioli. The four bridesmaids, were gowned in identical royal blue, fashioned like that of the maid of honor. Each carried cascading bouquets of yellow gladioli. Bridesmaids were Mrs. LaCerne Cutchall, Miss Betty Tobey, Miss Suzanne Herman and Miss Shirley Towle. Little Susan Leitch was the flower girl, preceding the bride down the church aisle to the altar and wearing a powder blue nylon net gown over taffeta and carrying a basket of baby mums. William Ross of Jackson served as best man. Ushers were Robert Brott, Ross Worden, John Rocho and Delbert Musselman, all of Union City.

A reception was held for guests immediately following the ceremony. Presiding at the serving table were Miss Shirley Robinson, Miss Barbara McNett and Mrs. Delbert Musselman. Wedding cake and punch were served to the guests. For travelling, the bride wore a navy-blue suit with navy and white accessories and a corsage of a single pale lavender orchid. The young couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls. Upon their return, the couple will live in Sherwood. Mrs. Herman is a graduate of Union City high school and is employed by the Model Finance company of Coldwater. Notes for Richard Charles Shellenberger III:

Richard Charles Shellenberger III died unexpectedly on Friday, Jan. 22, 2016, after a brief battle with pneumonia and complications of congestive heart failure. Rich was 43 years old, and will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him. Rich was a resident of Holden, where he lived with his family.

Rich was born in Panorama City, California, on Aug. 25, 1972, and grew up in Battle Creek, Michigan, where many of his close friends and family still reside. Rich was born with Down Syndrome and attended school at the Doris Klaussen Center until the age of 18, was active in Special Olympics in his younger years and loved bowling. He tried his hand at various jobs after graduation before deciding he was happiest creating art and being a writer while spending more time with his family and friends - especially his dad. He loved being the center of attention, enjoyed playing his guitar, singing karaoke and going to dances and other activities with friends from the Johnson County Sheltered Workshop and the Down Syndrome Guild of KC. Rich made friends everywhere he went, loved to give and receive hugs, and was particularly concerned with helping those who were hurting or sad. He had a strong and simple faith in God, and often spoke of heaven and those who had passed on before him.

Rich loved nothing better than being in the middle of a large gathering of friends and family—the more, the better. In keeping with his wishes to celebrate with everyone whose lives he touched, even briefly, all are cordially invited to his memorial service to honor his memory and celebrate his life.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 30, at the Church of Jesus Christ Warrensburg Restoration Branch, 104 NW 361 Road, Warrensburg, Missouri 64093. Memorial contributions may be sent to the family at P.O. Box 138, Warrensburg, Missouri 64093.

He married Ann Carol Brady Sep 1974. She was born 15 Dec 1951.

Notes for John Matthew Wahr:

John Matthew Wahr died from pancreatic cancer, November 11th, 2015 at his home in Boulder Colorado. He was born June 22, 1951 in Ann Arbor, Michigan, to John C. Wahr and Janet C. Wahr, and grew up in Midland, Michigan with his sister, Jan. In 1973 he graduated from the University of Michigan with honors in both Mathematics and Physics. He attended the University of Colorado Physics Department as a graduate student, where he earned his PhD in December, 1979, and married Ann Carol Brady, also from Midland, in September, 1974. In January, 1980, John and Ann moved to Princeton University, where John was a Postdoctoral Fellow in both the Department of Geological and Geophysical Sciences, and in the Geophysical Fluid Dynamics Program. John returned to the University of Colorado in 1983, as a Professor in the Physics Department and a Fellow of the Cooperative Institute for Research in Environmental Sciences. John spent his professional career as a geophysicist, with interests that varied from such things as fluctuations in the Earth's rotation; Earth tides; interactions between the solid layers of the Earth and the overlying atmosphere, oceans, and ice sheets, as well as with the underlying fluid core; and with whatever else happened to interest him. He was the recipient of numerous prestigious national and international awards, including election into the United States National Academy of Sciences. What meant as much, or more, to John than the scholarship and joy of scientific pursuit, was the opportunity it gave him of interacting with scores of fellow scientists of all ages and backgrounds from around the globe. The mentoring of students, and his collaborations with so many bright and energetic colleagues always kept the work continuously fresh and alive. But John's greatest joys in life were, by far, in his family, in music (especially opera), and in the outdoors. His love of the outside, instilled in him by his parents, formed the foundation of a life-long passion for the outside, which he shared with Ann, and passed on to his children, Katie and Andrew. He constantly marveled at the good fortune that allowed him to live and grow in this marvelous place in the Rocky Mountains. He was a passionate hiker, backpacker, cross-country skier, and road biker. He climbed every named peak in RMNP and the Indian Peaks; most of them several times. He and his family would go on extensive backpack trips, summer and winter throughout Colorado, Wyoming and Utah.

John is survived by his wife, Ann; his children Katie and Andrew and their spouses Paul Calvert and KjerstiWahr, his father John C. Wahr, and sister Jan L. Wahr, and was preceded in death by his mother Janet C. Wahr. John did not wish to have a service following his death.

Professor John M. Wahr passed away on November 11, 2015 at the age of 64. Professor Wahr was the first geophysicist to join the Department of Physics at CU-Boulder. He joined the department as an Assistant Professor in 1983, built the Geophysics Group within the Department, and had a highly distinguished career. He was also a Fellow of the Cooperative Institute for Research in Environmental Sciences. John entered semi-retirement (retiring only from departmental duties) and became a Research Professor in 2013 after having taught for 30 years. John received his B.S. degree from the University of Michigan and his PhD degree from CU-Boulder and then held a post-doctoral position at the Geophysical Fluid Dynamics Laboratory at Princeton University before being called back to CU-Boulder as a faculty member in 1983. Professor Wahr is a world-renowned scientist who made seminal contributions to many areas of geophysics and geodesy. In his early research career, John was successful at developing the theoretical framework to understand the effects of the Earth's interior structure as well as atmospheric and oceanic mass distributions on the Earth's rotation, tides, wobble and nutation. Later in his career, and even more prominently, he worked on determining the effects of large-scale deglaciation on the Earth's surface vertical motions, sea-level changes, and the Earth's gravity field. In each of these research areas, he made groundbreaking contributions. His models of Earth's tides and nutation served as international standards for nearly 20 years.

In the last two decades, Professor Wahr devoted most of his research efforts to developing tools and models to observe and analyze the time-variations in the Earth's gravity field as observed from space. This has led to pioneering advances in a broad range of disciplines, including hydrology, glaciology, oceanography, meteorology, and solid-Earth geophysics. He was one of the principal intellectual forces behind NASA's highly successful satellite gravity mission, GRACE (Gravity Recovery and Climate Experiment). Using GRACE gravity data, John and his collaborators quantified the mass loss in Greenland and Antarctica since 2002 due to ice melting. He also examined seasonal and secular variations in ocean mass and terrestrial water storage on both global and basin scales. These innovations opened up entirely new avenues to observe and study mass movements in the shallow subsurface of the Earth on different time and spatial scales. These advances not only directly impact Earth science but also have profound societal significance. Professor Wahr's research received wide recognition and acclaim. He won two major awards from the American Geophysical Union: the James B. Macelwane Award and the Charles A. Whitten Award in 1985 and 2006, respectively. He also received the VeningMeinesz Medal from the European Geosciences Union in 2004, was awarded the Guy Bomford Prize for Geodetic Research from the International Association of Geodesy in 1983, and was inducted into the US National Academy of Sciences in 2012. Professor Wahr's research excellence was acknowledged locally by his being named a Professor of Distinction by the College of Arts and Sciences at CU-Boulder in 2012. Moreover, John was simply a great colleague in the Physics Department and within the national and international geophysical communities. He was unselfish, modest and collegial. He was always willing to help junior colleagues at the university and elsewhere.

Professor Wahr was a dedicated teacher and mentor: always caring, patient, and insightfully helpful with his students, collaborators, and colleagues. He taught Physics at CU-Boulder for 30 years, from introductory undergraduate physics to advanced graduate physics and geophysics courses. He has advised nearly 30 PhD and post-doctoral scholars; many of whom, following his example, remain active in teaching and geophysical research. In addition to his outstanding research career, John was an avid outdoorsman, strong athlete, and devoted family man. He was often found hiking with his family and his solo hikes and bike rides were legendary. To clear his head he would take the bus to Nederland and walk back to Boulder. One of his favorite solo outdoor activities involved a week in the backcountry of Yellowstone: long days covered on cross-country skis and then winter camping in snow caves of his own construction. John was a baseball fan, first of his hometown team the Detroit Tigers but he adopted the Colorado Rockies after they formed in Denver, and would regularly attend Rockies games with his family. He was an accomplished musician with a fine singing voice, and a particular love of opera. John was an intensely humble and private man who, nevertheless, had an enormous impact on people around him that extended well beyond the scientific insights that he shared with and inspired in others. He was respected and well-liked by essentially everyone who came into contact with him.

Professor Wahr is survived by his dear wife Ann Wahr, by his daughter Katie Wahr, an elementary school teacher, of Boulder and son Andrew Wahr, a civil engineer, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and by his sister Jan Wahr and father John Wahr, both of Boulder.

Celeste Burkhardt, Local Foods Coordinator, has found two recurring themes in her life: community and service. As an NC Teaching Fellow, she attended UNC Asheville, where she was able to impact students through tutoring programs, participate in NSF-funded undergraduate research, and find a home in the beautiful mountains of WNC. After graduating with a bachelor's degree in mathematics, Celeste chose to return to her hometown. Here, she spends most of her days in the midst of teenagers as an educator at her alma mater, Shelby High School. Through her involvement in several local organizations, she enjoys being in a position to facilitate connections between community partners. She has been so lucky to further develop these skills as Local Foods Coordinator for FFM. Outside of these roles, Celeste likes to cook with foods grown by the friends she's made at the farmers' market, go on walks with her pup, Millie, and practice yoga.

Notes for Randall Jay Piebenga:

Randall Jay "Randy" Piebenga, age 69, of Haslett, Michigan, went to be with the Lord on December 18, surrounded by family. Born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, Randy attended South Christian High School. After graduation, he served as a medic in the US Army Reserve for six years. He learned the family trade in plumbing, earning the distinction of Master Plumber. A lifelong vocalist, he sang bass in church and community choirs and the quartet 4HYMN. He was a sure-handed left fielder, a silver-tongued crossword aficionado, an avid fisherman—and most of all, a steadfast fan of the Michigan Wolverines. Randy's greatest joys were faith and family. He was a devoted Christian, husband, father, son, brother, uncle, and grandfather whose booming laugh will be remembered by all who met him. He fulfilled a lifelong dream when he and his beloved wife, Karna, purchased a cottage on Wall Lake, where he spent several happy summers.

He was preceded in death by his father, Donald; his mother, Marilyn; and his late wife, Catherine "Kay" (Lovejoy) Piebenga; who passed away in 2000, 2021, and 2014, respectively. He will be lovingly remembered by his wife, Karna Piebenga; sons Mark (Casey) and Scott (Susie) Piebenga; brothers Daniel (Yvonne) and Kevin (Tracy) Piebenga; sister Kathy Ingle; stepson Robert Brandt; stepdaughter Jennifer Lovejoy; grandsons Nick, Jake, Tyler, Beau, and Marvin; three nephews; three nieces; and his faithful greyhound.

In lieu of flowers, charitable contributions may be made to the American College of Rheumatology. A celebration of Randy's life will be held in mid-January, with details to be announced shortly.

Notes for Bretin Staudacher:

Oct 24, 2018 - Northview senior Bretin Staudacher wasn't sure if he was going to play football this fall after missing all last year due to a broken right wrist. The freak injury was so painful, and the rehabilitation process has been so long that Staudacher said he didn't even know if he wanted to play again. "I didn't know if it was worth it," the 5-foot-11, 215-pound linebacker said. Once Staudacher made up his mind to play, there has been no stopping him. Staudacher, who also plays right tackle, is the leading tackler on a Northview team that has qualified for the Division 3 state playoffs and will visit Grand Rapids Christian in Friday's round-one game. It still hurts during games and practices, and he plays with a cast. He continues to work on his flexibility, too. But Staudacher said it has all been worth it. Northview, which finished 1-8 in each of the past two seasons, has been one of the area's most pleasant surprises this fall. The Wildcats have won six-straight and head to the postseason 7-2. "Oh yeah, everything is worth it. I would do everything all over again if I could," Staudacher said. "It's because of my team. I know how hard they are working and the pain of going 1-8 two seasons in a row, and how they keep fighting and how hard they are trying and how much heart they are giving. It pushes me to want to do better for them."

Staudacher was a starter his sophomore season, and expectations were high entering his junior year. However, Staudacher was injured the second day of two-a-days in the second practice when he tackled a blocking dummy.

"I looked at my hand, and it was all puffy," Staudacher said. "I went to the coach and trainer and showed them, and they had me go see the doctor. The doctor said I broke my scaphoid and ulna. He said the injury was one in a million." Northview coach Trip Gallery said Staudacher has been a key reason for the Wildcats' turnaround this fall, and he praised him for the leadership he has showed in the weight room after the injury. The Wildcats defense has cut the number of points they have allowed from a year ago in half. Northview has given up 203 points compared to 411 last season. "He has had a huge impact," Gallery said. "We are really emphasizing the defensive side of the ball this season, and he has been a lightning rod at the linebacker position. He is fast and has made a lot of tackles in key situations. His performance has been a huge reason for the team's success.

"He was a young man who had some injuries his sophomore year and a serious injury his junior year. He had reservations (about returning), but the support of our community through private donations have redone our entire weight room. He was the leader in there for his rehabilitation. He did a great job with his preparation in the offseason." Swimming been a part of his rehabilitation, too. Staudacher is a member of the Northview swim team and competes in the butterfly event. He served as an alternate on a Northview relay that qualified for state last year. "I started swimming ever since I could pretty much walk," Staudacher said. "That was my first sport, and it has helped me with football. It is an all-around full body workout, and it has made me faster and more powerful." Staudacher has goals of playing college football, too. "I would imagine that there would be a lot of places where he would be a great fit," Gallery said.

Notes for Richard Thomas (Rick) Kinsey:

Richard Thomas "Rick" Kinsey graduated cum laude from Olivet College, where I swam at the collegiate level, in 2011 and moved to the UP in 2012. I fell in love with the wilderness, freedom, wildlife and my wife while living in Marquette. I decided that the UP was the place for me, and I spoke to my financial advisor about becoming an Edward Jones financial advisor. In 2017, began my career with Edward Jones. Helping clients achieve their financial goals is a profound profession and I love what I do.

I have a wonderful wife, Ashlee, and two amazing sons, Marvin and Mack. We also have a crazy hound dog named Panda and live on a small farm in the Buck Lake area. We choose Iron county to live, work and play because the people are amazing, the local businesses have excellent customer service and we are only half hour from where my wife grew up and her family resides. Iron County has the best wilderness and we believe it's an incredible place with opportunities for our professional and children's futures. Our family enjoys farming, ATVs, paddling, exploring, hunting, shooting in competitions, family time and staying involved with the community. I am on the executive board of the Iron County economic chamber alliance, vice president of the Iron River Down Town Development Authority, a member of the Iron County Single Track Club and a member of all the local shooting and trail clubs.

My dedicated branch team is two strong with myself and branch office administrator, Sherri Tarsi. We share the same passion for serving our clients and being involved with our community. We look forward to meeting you and your family, if we have not already met. If we have met, we look forward to seeing you again and partnering together to help build your empire.

Notes for Dustin John (Bunk) Crites:
Monday, March 13, 2017

A Grabill man was killed Sunday night after being struck by a car on Interstate 69 in Steuben County, the county sheriff's department said. The sheriff's department said it was called about 8:30 p.m. Sunday to the 344-mile marker of the interstate, south of Angola, because a pedestrian had been struck. Dustin J. Crites, 36, was driving north on I-69 when his vehicle became disabled, the sheriff's department said. Crites pulled his vehicle into the berm, turned on his hazard lights, called a relative for help and then got out of his vehicle, police said. For some reason, police said, he crossed the median into the southbound lane of I-69, where he was hit by a vehicle driven by a 49-year-old Angola woman. Crites died at the scene, and the crash is under investigation.

Dustin "Bunk" Crites was an artistic, gentle soul known for giving everything to help others. He got the nickname Bunk as a child. He named a stuffed animal Bunky, and the name stuck. His family said almost nobody called him "Dustin" or "Dusty." It was always Bunk. "One day I went to pick Bunk up so he could get his car. I ran out of the house and forgot to grab my purse. I got to the gas station, where his car was, and realized that I was out of gas. He handed me the $20 from his wallet and told me to fill up. I told him I only needed $5, but he insisted I take it all. A few hours later, I got a call from my mother-in-law, Mary, because she had just picked him up. He had gotten himself stranded by running out of gas because he'd given me all of his cash and was out of gas, too," Liz Crites, his sister-in-law, said. That's just the type of guy he was said his family. He was always giving everything to everyone.

"The world needs more people like Bunk," she said. "He was an all around, amazing person." Crites always had his guitar on him. He enjoyed singing and writing lyrics. His mother, Mary Crites said music was his therapy. "He relieved his anxiety by playing music, sitting in nature, and more recently going to church," she said. "He recommended music to help solve your problems," his daughter Lexy Crites said. His mother shared when Dustin was little, they were camping as a family and she asked the kids what they wanted to do when they grew up. She expected the typical answers of firefighter or police man. Bunk's answer was, "I want to be a good dad." She joked and told him fine, but pick something else, too. He was persistent, saying that all he wanted in life was to be a good dad.

Crites has two children, Dakota Crites-Osmun and Lexy Crites. "He loved his kids dearly. He was a great father," his daughter Lexy's mother, Cassandra Crites said. "He was a great guy, a great dad." "We (Lexy and Dakota) meant a lot to him. He always put us first," Lexy said.

Crites' kids were his life, and he was involved with his niece and nephews as well. He loved to show them the woods, take them mushroom hunting and hiking and out to enjoy nature. "His son is very much like him," Summer Osmun, mother of Dakota said.

Bunk was known to help others through their own struggles, even when he was struggling himself. He had been in touch with others recently that had been down paths similar to his own, and his family said he was encouraging them to keep going. He also served every Thanksgiving at the St. Mary's Soup Kitchen, 1101 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Indiana, with his mother. "He loved serving at St. Mary's every year," she said. Bunk was very close with his father, Kenny Crites. They both worked for Lakeside Farms, and would eat breakfast together every morning before work, and dinner every night after. On Fridays, they'd go to a men's Bible breakfast at church before going into work. The two would go out west during the wheat harvest and help out. "We'd run harvest from Texas to Canada," Kenny said.

Bunk was never one driven to fame or money. He wanted to use his life to make people happy and make music. He sometimes envied his brother, Jason Crites, saying that he wanted to be like Jason because he had his life together, where Bunk was "living day by day." Liz said she finds comfort in that for the last few months, Bunk had made peace with Jesus and had accepted Him. "He struggled at times with his faith, but in the end he had found Jesus again and started going back to church," she said. "Bunk had a good sense of humor and laughed at all the jokes. He caught the funny moments and was always laughing," Liz said.

Mary has been in contact with the woman involved in Dustin's accident, and she thought about what he would want her to do. "It didn't take me long to know I had to reach out to her," she said. "This woman hasn't been able to drive since the accident because she's afraid. I've encouraged her to stop dwelling on what happened because it's not her fault. He wouldn't want her suffering." Mary reached out to the woman on social media, and has kept in contact with her because it's what Bunk would want. Liz Crites said they also gave the last few dollars out of his wallet to Jason Mavis for his upcoming mission trip. "Bunk was so passionate about supporting Jason, so we knew exactly what he'd want done with the money," she said. He lived his life without a lot of possessions; his family said he didn't need them. To be happy, he needed his music and his family.

Dustin John "Bunk" Crites, 36, passed away Sunday March 12th, from injuries sustained in a traffic accident. He was born March 6, 1981 in Fort Wayne, Indiana, to Mary and Kenny Crites. Dustin graduated from Fairview High School in 1999. His childhood was spent exploring the woods and farm at his home in Hicksville, Ohio. Dustin married Cassandra Blue on September 22, 2007. He worked at Lakeside Farm Market in Angola, Indiana. Bunk was an individual, a free spirit. He was artistic, musical, and passionate. He had a way with words, a way to make people feel special, feel included. Bunk had a contagious smile, and he had a sense of humor that not many possess. He found the most comfort in nature, and would often say; "A walk in the woods can sooth an anxious mind." Bunk was extremely smart and loved to study new things. He was never afraid to ask questions. He was inquisitive. Bunk was passionate about music and could feel music in his soul, it spoke to him. You would often see him strumming his guitar and learning new songs. He was generous, and often saw the good in others that no one else could see. He was compassionate. He was loved. "The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched. They must be felt within the heart." -Helen Keller

He is survived by his children, Dakota, son of Summer Osmun, and Lexy, daughter of Cassandra Crites. Also surviving are his mother, Mary Crites of Fort Wayne, Indiana, his father, Kenny Crites of Angola, Indiana, and his brother Jason (Liz) Crites of Orland, Indiana. Dustin was a proud uncle to Emma, Jacob, and Mason Crites.

The visitation will be from 2 pm to 8 pm Friday, March 17, 2017 at Life Changing Realities Fellowship, 2201 North Wayne Street, Angola, Indiana. Funeral services will be held at 10 am Saturday, March 18, 2017 at Life Changing Realities Fellowship in Angola, Indiana, with Pastor Rick Stiver officiating. Charitable donations are asked to be sent to Lexy and Dakota's Education Fund.
