Notes for Johann Georg Mast:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

George Mast. The writer knows of no calling that has been dignified and graced in modern poetry more than that which is practical life is generally most prosaic. Longfellow and Schiller especially have thrown a veil of romance and heroism about the towering form of the blacksmith, that while it stands out in all its muscular strength, is lent an awe-inspiring majesty. He whose name is above has been connected for many years with this calling, and is now retired from active labor, residing in Chelsea. He was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, December 19, 1830, and is a son of John and Margaret (Mast) Mast, natives of the same place in which their son was born. Our subject's father was a farmer by calling, and by prudent, provident ways they amassed a competency, and were exempt from the hardships of labor in their later years.

Our subject's parents passed away in the Fatherland. They were devoted members of the Lutheran Church, and were people whose purity of morals and simplicity of life made a pleasing example for their son. They had a family of six children, only two of whom came to America, they being George, and his sister, Pauline, now Mrs. Ottmer, of Jackson. Our subject's career has been closely connected with life in America, the greater part of his manhood years being here spent.

George Mast received the educational advantages for which the Fatherland is so noted among nations. He lived at home until nineteen years of age, and then crossed the ocean for America, landing in New York City, and thence proceeding to Detroit, where after a stay of a few days he left for Ann Arbor, and thence moved to Dexter, where he engaged in the blacksmiths' trade with Asa Bailey, and worked with him for one and a half years, when he came to Chelsea and finished his trade with Newton Robinson, with whom he worked for about four years, when his health failed him and he gave up his business and removed to Jackson, remaining there two years. Our subject came to Chelsea in 1850. After this rest and the recuperation of his health, Mr. Mast went to work at Freedom, this county, remaining there for two years, and then located in Dexter, where he worked for three years, after which he returned to Chelsea, first working alone at his trade, and later entering into partnership with his former employers, Balcher and Philip Christner. Later Philip sold out and some years later our subject bought Balcher's interest in the shop, and carried on the business from 1868 until he was burnt out in 1888, when he retired from active business.

The original of our sketch is the owner of some fine village property. He first rented a dwelling on Main Street, and then bought a house on Middle Street. Later he built the fine dwelling wherein he now lives, erecting it in 1880, at a cost of $1,600, which does not include the value of the lot. In 1864 our subject was married to Miss Louisa Artz, of Germany, the daughter of John Artz. Three children have come to these parents; they are Lizzie, Minnie and George.

Mr. Mast affiliates with the Democratic Party, believing in the power of that body to legislate for the masses. He belongs to the German Labor party, and he with his family are members of the Lutheran Church, of which he is Secretary. Our subject is a self-made man, and is one who is respected by all, having attained a high position in the regard of all classes of people in Chelsea.

He married Katharina Margaretha Schaefer 27 Dec 1853 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Heinrich Schaefer and Anna Hermann. She was born 16 Jun 1833 in Oeschelbronn, Boeblingen, Wurtemberg, and died 21 Jan 1912 in Muskegon, Muskegon Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johannes (Gutekunst) Gute:

1870 Census Owosso, Shiawassee Co, Michigan page 371:

Gute, John 39 Wurtemberg brewer, wife Martha 1833 Wurtemberg, children all born in Michigan: John 15, Albert 13, Clara 9, Louisa 6, Matilda 3, Herman 11/12 July; and Gute, John G. 15 Wurtemberg, Gute, Jacob 70 Wurtemberg and wife Agatha 66 Wurtemberg; also Miller, William 22 Michigan works in brewery, Ndrune, Frederick 20 Germany works in brewery, Gabriel, William 20 Prussia works in cooper shop and Gabriel, Chas. 19 Prussia works in cooper shop

John Gute founded the Owosso Brewery in 1855 on Corunna Ave; Owosso, Michigan.

The Owosso Sanitarium - "Magnetic Mineral Springs and Water Cure"

According to county records, land transfers show ownership through the years to John Bliss - 1844, W.H. Kyte, M.W. Quackenbush, Charles Howard, A.L. Wills and A.L. Williams before John Gute became the owner of Gute Hill. In 1871, Gute developed the property into a mineral bath company, because the water was to have 'curative powers'. Publicity by Gute at the time made great claims for the "health-giving waters." Instead of storing their beer in the cold caverns they heated the mineral springs within and used the baths for a health spa.

People began to visit the spring to bathe in its waters in hopes of curing rheumatism, arthritis and even tuberculosis. One woman, reportedly came from Toronto, Canada, convinced she could be cured by bathing in the spring in Owosso.

In the 1900 Census, it lists George, Herman and Katherine Gute as the proprietors of the Owosso Sanitarium, and that Dr. Frederick W. Noble as the Physician. The site was on the hill (bluff), 1/2 mile south of downtown Owosso, today known as Gute Hill.

That spring, or flowing well, however, had become nearly dry by 1910 and it is interesting to note that it was across the street from the Oak Hill Cemetery, through which, at least some of that 'great tasting spring water' would have been filtered.

In 1909, the German Arbeiter Society let the property go back to the Gute Family, because of financial problems. It was later sold to Bible Holiness Seminary and Holiness Church changed the school's role from a seminary and Bible college to that of a four year Christian liberal arts college.

In June of 1970, the Owosso College cut all ties with the church sponsored affiliation. And in 1972, renamed it, John Wesley College of Owosso.

Marriage Notes for Johann Egeler and Margaret Keeler:

May 5, 1905 - Throwing his wife into pails of hot water and throwing the baby out of doors would appear to be the chief amusement of George Egeler, according to the petition for divorce filed by this wife with the clerk of the district court this afternoon. The plaintiff declares that she married the defendant in Butte during July of last year. Since that time she says he has treated her with extreme cruelty, throwing her out of the house and striking her in the face with his fist. He has also varied these exercises, she says, by throwing her into pails of boiling water and appeared to be a student of the "Gentle Art of Cooking wives." The plaintiff also complains that the defendant is possessed of considerable property but does not support her and has forced her to leave him through his cruelty. She asks for a divorce, $25 a month alimony, $100 attorney's fees and the costs of the case.

Notes for Frederick W. Egeler:

History of Calhoun County, Michigan, Volume 2. By Washington Gardner. Page 859:

FRED W. EGELER. Another of Marshall's native-born citizens of practical and useful vocation and a man whose industry and economy have raised him from modest means to a position of material success, is Fred W. Egeler, whose work as a moulder is well known in this community. His family represents the solid German virtues which have been proved so important in both intellectual and industrial enterprises of the world. Mr. Egeler's parents were J. C. and Emily (Hoffmuth) Egeler, both of whom were born in Wittenberg, Germany, emigrating to America while quite young, J. C. Egeler being but fifteen years of age when he came to seek his fortunes in a strange land. In 1857 he settled in Michigan, first spending one year in Albion, after which he made Marshall his permanent home. The blacksmith shop which he opened here was long a feature of Marshall's activities, for he conducted it for no less than fifty-six years. His faithful and unpretentious life continued until January 23, 1908—his seventy-fifth year. He was especially active and prominent in the fraternal life of the city, being a member of Albans Lodge No. 20 of the Free and Accepted Masons; of Lafayette Chapter No. 4, Royal Arch Masons; and of Marshall Commandery No. 17, Knights Templar. Emily (Hoffmuth) Egeler lived an inconspicuously noble life, continued until April 16, 1912, at which time she had passed her seventy-sixth year.

Fred W. Egeler, the son of the above-mentioned estimable pair, was born in this city on April 12, 1870. He passed through the public and high schools of Marshall, leaving the latter for the work he found at hand in the blacksmith shop of his father. Here he learned the inherited trade, in which he continued for five years. This was excellent as preliminary to the occupation to which he then passed; for he next entered the employ of Anton Egeler, his uncle. Having mastered the details and operations of this work, Fred Egeler accepted a position in the establishment of Samuel F. Dobbins, a manufacturer of hot air furnaces. From that time, the year 1899, he has steadily continued in the same line of activities with Mr. Dobbins and has proved himself to be a most efficient workman.

Mr. Egeler's interests are chiefly those of his vocation and of his home. The latter was established when Miss Winifred Hughes became the companion of his domestic life on September 1, 1902. She is a daughter of Patrick Hughes, an old and much respected citizen of Marshall.

Fred Egeler is politically conscientious but not politically conspicuous, preferring to let the thoughtful casting of his vote be his chief expression of national and civic interest. He votes the Democratic ticket. Mr. Egeler lives in a comfortable and attractive home, which he owns, at 302 South Madison Street. He is in possession of considerable good property and is regarded as one of the enterprising and honorable citizens of Marshall.

She was born Oct. 22, 1869 in Marshall, the daughter of Patrick and Bridget (Freeman) Hughes and spent all her life here. She was married Sept. 1, 1902 to Mr. Egeler in Marshall. He died Dec. 28, 1933. She is survived by several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Dec. 3, 1952 Marshall - The will has been admitted to probate by Probate Judge Edmund R. Blaske. 6826. Antone¹⁰ Egeler (Johanna Barbara¹⁰ Schwaegler, Johann Jacob⁹, Johann Martin⁸, Maria⁷ Buehler, Ursula⁶ Boeckhlin, Johannes⁵, Ursula⁴ Weinmar, Conrad³, Urban², Benedict¹) was born 15 Dec 1839 in Bondorf, Boeblingen, Wurtemberg, and died 1919 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan. He married Maria Louisa (Mary) Karstaedt 10 Dec 1868 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan, daughter of Friedrich Karstaedt and Louisa Stalfelder. She was born 18 Feb 1848 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan, and died 22 Jan 1931 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan.

Notes for Antone Egeler:

Biographical Review of Calhoun County, Michigan. Chicago, Hobart & Mather, 1904.

Antone Egeler, a resident of Marshall, Calhoun County, Michigan, was born December 15, 1839, in Wurtemberg, Germany, a son of Christopher and Johanna Barbara (Schwagler) Egeler. Mr. Egeler brought his wife, a daughter of Jacob Schwagler, and children to America in 1847, the ocean trip consuming fifty-six days, on September 5, of the same year, locating in Detroit, Michigan, where they remained for twenty-two months. From that location they removed to Albion in 1849, a year later purchasing a farm of eighty acres in Fredonia Township, Calhoun County, upon which they continued to make their home for two years, thirty acres of the land being under cultivation. They then came to Marshall, where the father worked at his trade which was that of a blacksmith. He died in 1876, his wife having passed away in 1868, and they are both interred in Oakridge cemetery. The father had been a member of the Lutheran church throughout his entire life. To Mr. and Mrs. Egeler were born eleven children, of whom five were brought to America by their parents, one dying during the passage.

Anton Egeler remained at home with his parents until he was twenty-eight years old, receiving a common school education while he assisted his father at his work. In 1855 he began an apprenticeship to learn the trade of iron and brass moulder, and after a period of three years when he had finished his apprenticeship, he worked as a journeyman at Dixon, Illinois, for seven months, going there in the fall of 1857. He returned to Marshall in April, 1858, and there worked as a journeyman continuing until 1865, when he spent a few months in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. Returning to Marshall the same year he was employed until 1884, when he opened a foundry and machine shop of his own and has since continued in business for himself for a period of twenty years. At present his work is mostly in repairs, although at one time he was engaged in the manufacture of plows. He now owns the shop which he has occupied many years and also owns a good home on Locust Street.

December 10, 1868, Mr. Egeler married Mary Louisa Karstaedt, a daughter of Frederick and Louise (Salzfelder) Karstaedt, whose biography appears on another page. To them was born one daughter, Nellie Matilda, her birth occurring March 11, 1869. She lived but a short time beyond the age of ten years, dying December 1, 1879. She had early developed a taste for study and had shown herself a conscientious and painstaking student, securing many prizes in competition. She was also quite talented in music.

Two relics of his native land, Mr. Egeler keeps in his home, one being his German primer, printed in 1843, and the other the family Bible. This ancient book was printed in 1736, and was owned by Mr. Egeler's grandmother, and probably was in the family previous to that. Though quite young when he left Germany he remembers many customs and implements common to the country at that time, one of which is the wooden plow.

Mr. Egeler has become a prominent man in this community, as a Democrat in politics, his first presidential ballot being cast for McClellan, and he has often been called upon to serve in the interests of this party. For fourteen years he has represented the fourth ward as alderman, and has occupied the office of city treasurer for two years. At the present time he is acting as supervisor of the fourth ward, this being his second year. Fraternally he has been a member of the Knights of the Maccabees since 1883, being a charter member of the lodge here, in which he has acted as finance keeper and lieutenant commander. He is also a charter member of the German Benevolent Association and has held all of the offices of that organization. Mr. Egeler is a very extensive reader, and has thus kept himself well informed on the topics of the day, in which he takes the greatest interest. He is a broad minded and public spirited man and gives his most enthusiastic aid toward the promotion of all enterprises calculated to advance the general welfare.

Notes for Johannes (John Schlee) Schleh:

October 4, 1906 - Death has again entered our midst and claimed another of our honored and highly respected citizens who has been well and favorably known here for many years. John Schleh was born February 19, 1837, in Durweiler, Wuertemberg, Germany. His parents were John Schleh and Regina, whose maiden name was Fry. His mother died when he was four years of age. In 1865 Mr. Schleh came to America and has since made Saline his home, living on the farm south-west of town until three years ago when he and Mrs. Schleh moved into the village. About a year ago signs of disease began to creep upon him and he has since been a patient sufferer until death came at an early hour Saturday morning.

November 12, 1869 he was married to Miss Sarae Katz, and this union was blessed with five children, four sons and one daughter. One son Frederick, met accidental death by getting into a horsepower at the age of 8 years. John was drowned at the age of 17. The other children Mrs. George Ehnis of Plymouth, and the two sons Chris and Carl of this place Survive him.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon October 1, 1906 at the Lutheran Church. Rev. C. A. Lederer officiated in German and Rev. C. A. Lederer Jr. of the Freedom church, in English. Besides the three children, a bereaved wife and eight grand-children survive him.

Notes for Julia Herlinger:

Mrs. Julia Weimer, aged 89, 245 Jefferson St., for 80 years a resident of Youngstown, oldest living member of the Martin Luther Church and one of its charter members, died at five a.m. today as the result of a fall two weeks ago. Mrs. Weimer had been in apparently good health until she fell in her home, injuring her hip. She never rallied from the shock of the fall.

Born in Germany Dec. 13, 1841, Mrs. Weimer came to the United States and to this city in 1851. Charles Weimer, her husband, died some years ago. Until her injury Mrs. Weimer was active in her church. She wanted to live to see the dedication of the new Martin Luther Church now under construction at Hudson Drive and Clearmont Ave. She was widely known in the Brier Hill district where she leaves many friends to mourn her passing. Mrs. Weimer always attended the annual Lutheran picnic and had expected to attend the outing of her Church this year. Mrs. Weimer made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Schroeder.

She leaves three other children, Mrs. Julius H. Dahman, Mrs. Lena Klemm and William Weimer. Miss Julia M. Dahman of 404 N. Worthington St. is a granddaughter. Mrs. Weimer leaves 13 other grandchildren.

John Heinzmann. From early historical days when Northern Italy was the Mecca of merchants and when by internicine troubles and foreign wars were scattered the goldsmiths, workers in steel, leather merchants and dealers in oriental stuffs to the four winds, Germany has been at the head of commercial life. No other merchants show such great energy and such foresight as do they. Those that have become citizens of the United States have brought with them their strength in this direction and to them America is indebted in a great degree for being so widely known as one of the greatest marts of the world.

Although located in an inland town the trade of the gentleman whose name is at the head of this sketch has gone beyond local limits, and he with his partner, is a large dealer in flour, grain, wool, leather and hides. Their house in Ann Arbor is located at No. 9 W. Washington Street, the firm being known as that of Heinzmann & Laubengayer. Our subject was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, September 5, 1847. He is a son of Jacob and Catherine (Duttenhofer) Heinzmann, both of whom were born in Wittenberg, Germany. They emigrated to the United States in 1826, locating first in the city of New York, thence they removed to Columbiana County, Ohio, settling in the town of Columbiana, where the father was engaged in the tanning business. In 1851 our subject's parents removed with their family to Ann Arbor, where both father and mother still reside. Their family comprises six children four sons and two daughters. Of these our subject is the eldest. His school days were passed in the city schools of Ann Arbor, and on leaving these excellent educational centers he took a course in the business college of this city. He then began working in a tannery in partnership with his father, under the firm name of J. Heinzmann & Son. They continued in business together from 1860 until 1888, when our subject's father retired from the firm and the works were shut down. Three years later he formed a partnership with Jacob Laubengayer and for the past seven years this gentleman and our subject have handled in a very extensive manner the articles above named. They have engaged extensively in the leather business. In 1887 our subject built an elevator on the track of the Toledo & Ann Arbor Railroad. The capacity of this elevator is ten thousand bushels. This firm handles all sorts of grain. Their storeroom is 21x80 feet in dimensions and three stories in height. All of this is used in the business.

Mr. Heinzmann has been twice married. His first union was with Miss Barbara Weimer, their marriage taking place in 1877. The lady was a daughter of Michael Weimer and died in 1881. She left one child, a son, whose name is J. Eugene. Four years later, February 5, 1885, he was united, in marriage with Helen Weimer, a sister of his first wife. This union has been most happy, Mrs. Heinzman making a pleasant home for her husband. Politically of whom we write is a Republican. He has served as Alderman from the Second Ward for four years. Our subject owns a pleasant home at No. 9 West Washington Street.

Notes for Jakob Laubengayer:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Jacob Laubengayer. As Ann Arbor is the center of so rich and wide an agricultural region and is so accessible by rail to the great distributing points and ports of the country, the enterprises are numerous for dealing in the staples of the region. While manufactures are still in their infancy, the middlemen that are the medium between producer and the manufacturer are numerous. One of the most successful of these firms is that of which our subject is junior partner and which does business under the firm title of Heinzmann & Laubengayer, dealers in wool, grain, flour, feed and hides. Our subject is a product of this county, although, as his name would indicate, he is of German descent. He was born in the township of Scio, September 14, 1843, and is a son of J. Fred and Christina (Schmidt) Laubengayer, both of whom were natives of Wittenberg, Germany. They were married in Scio Township, this county.

The parents of our subject emigrated to the United States in 1830, landing at New York City, thence coming direct to Washtenaw County and located in Scio Township upon a farm where the father carried on a general agricultural business, devoting himself principally to stock-raising and the growing of wheat. He was one of the prosperous tillers of the soil of his neighborhood, employing the advanced German scientific methods in making his tract productive. His decease occurred April 22, 1891. He was born in 1805. The mother of our subject is still living on the old homestead, being in her seventy-second year. She is the mother of four children, three of whom are living—Frederick, Jacob and Tobias.

Jacob Laubengayer passed his boyhood in his native county and spent his early days in attendance at the district school of his neighborhood. He remained under the home roof of his parents until twenty-one years old. After reaching his majority he started out in life on his own account, still making his home, however, with his parents until reaching the age of twenty-four years when he bought a small farm which he began to develop and to engage in stock-raising, though his dealing in stock was in a small way. However, he kept adding to his farm until he was the possessor of two hundred and forty-seven acres, taking great pride in keeping a fine breed of cattle and good sheep. He continued to be actively engaged in agricultural pursuits until December, 1889, when he removed to Ann Arbor and embarked in the wool business in connection with various parties. In the last named year he formed a partnership with John Heinzmann and has dealt largely in the products above mentioned ever since. In connection with this business they also handle dry wood, having extensive wood yards near the grain elevator on the Toledo & Ann Arbor Railroad. The firm handles all kinds of grain and also does quite a large business in grinding feed for the farmers in the vicinity and also for general sale. The celebrated brands of flour from the Pillsbury Mills of Minneapolis are here found and the firm with which our subject is connected does a large business in this direction. They doubtless have the largest dealing in wool of any firm in Washtenaw County.

Mr. Laubengayer was married in December 1880, to Miss Amelia Weimer, of Scio Township, this county. She is a daughter of Michael Weimer, her parents having come to this country from Germany. Our subject and his wife are the parents of three children, whose name are Melinda, Robert and Walter. The original of this sketch was elected Justice of the Peace of Lodi Township, being near the line of that township. He casts his vote with the Democrat Party, in whose principles and practices he has unbounded faith. Our subject resides at No. 76 W. Huron Street, where he has a very pleasant home.

Notes for La Verna Mueller Sinclair:

Jan. 22, 1950 - Mrs. Walter Laubengayer of Ann Arbor, a frequent Port Huron visitor and sister-in-law of Mrs. George C. Dunn of 4444 Gratiot Avenue, is in the race for the republican nomination for lieutenant governor. Mr. Laubengayer is a brother of Mrs. Dunn. Announcement of Mrs. LaVerna Laubengayer's candidacy is made in a news release from her home. Mrs. Laubengayer is described as a matron, housewife, traveler and lecturer, and she makes the announcement on an optimistic note.

"My campaign will be complete in detail, including speaking in each of Michigan's 83 counties," said Mrs. Laubengayer. "This is no time for republican pessimism. The party is politically solvent at the voter level. The people want social progress without a "welfare state. They demand businesslike administration in government."

Mrs. Laubengayer, who spent last summer at Birch Beach, says further of her candidacy: "I shall pull no punches. The capitol in Lansing should be a peoples' clearing house, not a rendezvous of intrigue, nor a private trading post. Women merit responsibility in government."

LaVerna Laubengayer is a native of Bay City, the daughter of George and the late Amanda Sinclair. In Washtenaw County she has been long prominent in republican circles, the State Historical society, the Ann Arbor Garden club and a frequent exhibitor and judge at floral shows.

She and her husband also operate 300-acre dairy farm in Washtenaw County. He is a graduate of the forestry department of the University of Michigan and the University of Washington in Seattle. He's a constant forester and active in pulp and paper interests and general timber operations.

8176. Jacob Frederick Theophilus¹¹ Gutekunst (Friedrich¹⁰, Christian Friedrich⁹, Friedrich⁸, Johann Friedrich⁷, Michael⁶, Johannes⁵, Catharina⁴ Weinmar, Hans³, Urban², Benedict¹) was born 26 Sep 1831 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co, Pennsylvania, and died 28 Apr 1917 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co, Pennsylvania. He married (1) Emma Louisa Erskine. She was born 29 Jul 1835 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co, Pennsylvania, and died 13 Mar 1880 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co, Pennsylvania. He married (2) Sarah A. ? 1884. She was born May 1854 in Pennsylvania, and died Bef. 1910.

Notes for Jacob Frederick Theophilus Gutekunst:

Frederick Gutekunst was the son of a cabinet maker who claimed to have been born in Germantown in Philadelphia and this story of his birthplace is often reproduced in histories. However, according to his obituary in The Photographic Journal of America he was born in Germany, possibly Haiterbach, Württemberg as was his father. Hence, he was born in a "German" "town". The reason we should accept this account is due to the friendship between Mr. Gutekunst and his former assistant and at the time of the obituary the founder and publisher of The Photographic Journal of America, Mr. Edward L. Wilson. Mr. Gutekunst most likely wanted clients visiting his studio and gallery to believe that he was born in the more rural and genteel Germantown than a poor immigrant ghetto along the Delaware River waterfront. His birth date is another matter as there were two different dates published during his lifetime. Additionally, among census records there are different years recorded for his birth. The 1880 Census lists his year of birth as 1831, but other Census' list him as born in 1833 and 1835.

The first listing for Frederick Gutekunst Sr. in Philadelphia is in McElroy's city directory in 1837 as: Gutterhurst, Frederick, carpenter, at St. John Street (currently N. American St.) north of George in the Northern Liberties section of Philadelphia. This would be the block where N. American St. meets Germantown Ave. This was known as a neighborhood of German immigrants and where Philadelphia's second German Catholic Church, St. Peter's, was established. One of the remnants of the German character of this part of town is the German Society of Pennsylvania on Spring Garden St.

Frederick Gutekunst Sr. wanted young Frederick to become a lawyer and so he was indentured for six years to Joseph Simon Cohen, prothonotary to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. However, by the time he was eighteen he became more interested in the art of the daguerreotype and became a frequent visitor to Marcus Aurelius Root's gallery, and his talents turned toward chemistry. One of Frederick's experiments was a method to mass-produce daguerreotypes; although it was a success, it was not financially practical.

Frederick's father found work for him in the drug store owned by the consul for the Kingdom of Wurttemberg in Philadelphia, Frederick Klett, who was also one of the founders of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy from which Frederick Gutekunst graduated in 1853.

He found employment at Avery Toby's drug store at 1235 Market St., later at 451 Market St., and spent two years working there. His interest in photography was renewed and he was able to exchange a homemade battery for a camera owned by Isaac Norris, later the Secretary of the Franklin Institute. His work and ambitions in photography grew and he bought a better lens for five dollars from the "Buckeye Blacksmith" who ran an ambrotype gallery near Toby's drug store, and this was where he was introduced to the ambrotype process. His father, the accomplished cabinetmaker, proceeded to build a camera for the lens and thus began Frederick Gutekunst's amateur career.

Frederick's brother, Louis Gutekunst, was a barber-hair dresser with a business at 4th and Vine and had noticed the talent displayed by Frederick with a camera. When Frederick had mentioned to his brother that a storefront on Arch St. was for rent on Friday and would be a good place for a gallery, Louis secured the property at 706 Arch St. on Monday. F & L Gutekunst photographers opened for business in 1856, and currently there is only one known daguerreotype by Gutekunst. However, by 1859 Louis was again working as a hairdresser at 219 N. 4th Street. The 1856 McElroy's also lists Frederick living at 1220 Ogden in Philadelphia.

When the Civil War began, soldiers came to have their portraits made at the Gutekunst studio, and then officers came, and eventually the generals arrived. The growth of the business meant that it was time for a larger space, and in 1864 Gutekunst moved a few doors up Arch St. to number 712, and occupied the whole building. A full description is found in The Photographic Times & American Photographer, November 1885. One notable feature of the reception room was an "orchestration" which used a large cylinder much like a music box to provide music for waiting patrons.

The portrait of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant seems to have been the work that stirred uniform national interest and set Gutekunst apart from his contemporaries. Here he tells the story of the how it was created. "Grant was stopping at the Continental Hotel at the time, and I sent someone over there to invite him to come to the studio for a sitting. In a short time he strolled in and said he would have come here himself, without an invitation as his brother officers wanted to come to me. When he arrived I was busy in the operating-room with a sitter, and while he waited his turn Grant sauntered around the reception-room, his right hand in his trousers-pocket, his left resting in his negligently worn vest. I kept him waiting as little as possible, and when I came out I found him in the attitude in which he is photographed. 'General', I said, 'that is a very nice position; just keep your hand that way.' Then I took him under the skylight, and he resumed that attitude which was so characteristic while I made the photograph. The picture has been considered the best taken of Grant; it has been used for the statue of him in Galena, and General Sherman sent me a letter in which he asserts his belief that it is the most characteristic of the great General."

Railroads needed photographers to show what was to be seen from a train and what was nearby to induce people to travel. In the 1870s Gutekunst was a photographer for the Pennsylvania Railroad and a collection of stereo views were taken. The Library Company of Philadelphia has a set of these prints some of which can be viewed at LCPIImages.org.

The next great achievement for Gutekunst was the panorama of the 1876 Centennial Exposition held in Fairmount Park in Philadelphia. The description of the work is as follows: "This ten feet long by eighteen inch wide picture was made from seven negatives by William Bell that were taken from a scaffold erected near the Belmont reservoir. The panoramic view printed on a single sheet of paper show all the buildings from Agricultural Hall to the Observatory on George's Hill. The large sheet of albumen paper for this panorama was supplied by the John H. Clemons factory on Sansom Street. The whites of one hundred and twenty five dozen eggs were required to coat the paper. To produce the print the entire sheet had to be exposed to sunlight, one section at a time, under each negative. Careful joining of the negatives was required to prevent a dark line from appearing at each juncture. Each section had to be printed to the same density despite the ever changing light from the sky. After printing out to a much darker shade than desired, the final appearance of the print was achieved through gold toning which had to be evenly applied or some of the blacks would have a bluish cast and others a reddish tone. Great difficulty was also encountered handling such a large sheet of wet paper as it passed through the fixing baths, toning and washing processes. The success with which he achieved a uniform color and tone can be seen today from a framed copy of the print hanging in the Library Company of Philadelphia."

Louis Gutekunst was placed in charge of developing the print and described the process at a meeting of the Photographic Society of Philadelphia in January 1877. The work was met with praise from all over the world. Frederick Gutekunst was recognized for the monumental work with the Cross of the Knights of the Austrian Order from Emperor Franz Joseph I of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Queen Victoria of Great Britain, and King Victor Emmanuel of Italy also sent similar honors, and the Emperor of Japan rewarded him with two gold-lined bronze vases.

Gutekunst was as much artist as businessman and on a visit to Germany in 1878 he purchased the rights for the Phototype process. One year later upon visit to Philadelphia, J. H. Fitzgibbons, the editor of the St. Louis Practical Photographer, noted that Gutekunst was manufacturing thousands of prints every day. Eventually, this new factory needed to move out of Arch Street and up to 813 Girard Ave where a staff of forty under the supervision of the engraver, James P. Harbeson, kept up with demand for reproduction for publications, etc. Girard Ave was a perfect location for this endeavor since this part of Philadelphia was more industrial and less retail than Arch St.

Some of the products of this venture were illustrations for books such as the Biographical Album of Prominent Pennsylvanians, Artistic Houses, and Artistic Country Seats published by D. Appleton & Co. of New York. Also, Gutekunst began to use what we would now call a panoramic camera which took a photo of one hundred and eighty degrees and from which the studio could produce a print thirty-six inches in length.

On the morning of January 26, 1886, a fire started at 715-719 Arch St. which burned down the five-story building at that address. Additionally, the fire spread across the street to the Gutekunst establishment and caused approximately $10,000 in damage. What impact this had on his business is difficult to estimate because Frederick Gutekunst did not seem to mention this fire in any later interviews. Walt Whitman admired Gutekunst and after recovering from an illness Whitman went to have his portrait taken. Gutekunst took the last professional portrait of Whitman.

By 1893 Gutekunst had been in business almost forty years and an additional studio was needed for the growing enterprise. The new studio was established in an upscale part of Philadelphia at 1700 N. Broad St. with William Braucher as manager. With this Gutekunst also acquired a house nearby at 1842 N. Bouvier St. The success early in his career meant that he could he move his home out of Center City Philadelphia and own a home on Pulaski Avenue in Germantown in Philadelphia. A year before his death Gutekunst incorporated his business and some of the older employees became stockholders, but Mr. Braucher resigned at that time.

Frederick Gutekunst died April 27, 1917. Eight weeks earlier he fell down the steps of his N. Bouvier residence returning to his studio after lunch at home. This fall and Bright's disease seem to have caused his death.
