She married ? Schulze. He was born Aft. 1900.

Notes for Anna Elizabeth Dieffenbacher:

My mother, Betty Schulze, who achieved 95 years of life before her departure on Wednesday, Dec. 24, 2003, was a true American who embodied our most noble characteristics of love, independence and hard work. She did not have a privileged childhood. Her father, a New York City harbor inspector, died of typhoid during 1908 when she was six months old, leaving a mother with three children to rear, but she accomplished a high school education and was a devoted reader of all types of written material all of her life.

She had to seek employment while still in school, taking jobs in many fields, one of the most colorful as a Broadway dancer in shows where she met such diverse notables as the aviator Frank Hawks, the showman Billy Rose, the gangster "Legs" Diamond, the comedian Red Skelton, the South Pacific singer Ezio Pinze, the comedienne Lucille Ball, et al. Until the last five years of her life, she designed and made virtually all of her clothes, being an accomplished seamstress. She enjoyed oil painting, decorating, floral design, and was a true homemaker to her husband who predeceased her in 1979, and her son who learned much from her, was loved by her and loved her in return

Politically, she was fiercely independent, never a member of a party, but made a practice of voting in all elections, She was able to forgive precious leaders and administrations at the federal level their indiscretions, with the exception of the present one which she considered wrong-headed.

She appreciated the expert treatment she received at the NRCC from Dr. Steven Butler and from her general practitioner, Dr. Stephen Shaub - as well as Dr. John Malloy, her now-retired general practitioner. Her sincere thanks also to their fine and thoughtful staffs, and to Deb French, the Rosebud and Treasure County nurse. Near the end of her life, she was given tender and excellent care by Dr. William Anderson and the staff of the Rosebud Health Care Center, to whom she was deeply grateful.

She is survived by her son Bob Schulze of Hysham.

Anna has requested no services, cremation and that her ashes be spread in Monument Valley where she felt closest to spiritual fulfillment. Beals Mortuary of Forsyth is assisting the family with these arrangements.

Child of Anna Dieffenbacher and ? Schulze is:

114 i. Robert H.¹⁰ Schulze, born 24 Oct 1935.
