Notes for Ernest Gottlieb Mann:

December 14, 1988 - In 1915, when the Bridgewater Elevator was built by Charles Schurer and William Rentschler, Bridgewater was a bustling community that boasted a church, post office, bank, and railroad depot. The train stopped their daily to pick up passengers, produce, milk, and other materials in demand around the nation. Schurer and Rentschler were businessmen who bought and sold wool. They also started the Bridgewater Bank, which operated in the tiny village for many years before it became a tavern and then a restaurant. In 1919, the Elevator was purchased by area farmers who took stock in the company and changed its name to the Farmers Produce Company. Schurer remained as manager.

In 1927, Ernest G. Mann sold his Freedom Township farm and moved to Bridgewater to manage the cooperative. In 1938, Mann and his sons, Earl and Willard, bought the cooperative from Rentschler after Rentschler and August Henes bought out the stockholders. Mann forged a partnership with his sons and started E. G. Mann & Sons at the old Bridgewater Elevator.

"oats were 48 cents a bushel, corn was 65 cents a bushel, and soy oil meal was $1.75 for a hundred pounds. Today, oats are $2 a bushel, corn is $2.39 a bushel, and meal is $15.85 for a hundred pounds. Feed salt was $1 for a hundred pounds then; today it's $9.90," says Glen Mann. Glen, grandson of Ernest, has been working in the family-owned elevator and agricultural supply business since 1962 with his brother, Vic, and mother, Billie. In 1940, Mann bought the Manchester mill from William Blaess and Willard Mann moved to Manchester to manage it. Ernest became ill in 1952 and sold his interest in the company to his sons. He died in 1955. By 1962, Earl and his wife, Billie, and Willard and his wife, Dorothy, incorporated the partnership and became the principal stockholders. Earl died in 1968 and Glen and Vic were taken on as stockholders along with Willard son, Ron. Willard retired in 1976 and sold his stock to his sister-in-law and her sons. Glen and Vic took the reins of E.G. Mann & Sons in Bridgewater and Ron assumed ownership of the Mann Feed Mill in Manchester. As corn and oats are food staples, the Elevator has been a staple for the area's agricultural community. Mann's buy, sell, and store corn, oats, soybeans, and wheat; maintain a grain bank; spray fields with herbicides and fertilizers; and sell fertilizer, herbicides, livestock and pet feeds, bird seed, and salt pellets.

Over the years, the Mann's have added to the elevator operation. Now, they boast a 70,000-bushel capacity with a grain dryer and grain cooler. "Grain out here comes into the elevator wet. It carries about 20-30 percent moisture. We put it into the grain dryer at 220 degrees and then cool it before storing. If you store wet grain, it will mold in three days," Glen explains. While 70,000 bushels seems like a huge operation, Glen notes that the Anderson facility near Stockbridge has a 10 million-bushel capacity; Most of the crops stored at E. G. Mann are products of local farms although the oats now stored there came from Argentina. "It was a bad oat crop this year so we had to buy some," he says. The elevators range from 45-105 feet high; from the peak of the highest elevator you can see the water towers of Saline and Manchester. In days past, grain was hand weighed and hand loaded. Now, machines do much of the heavy labor. There are machines that load grain, machines that grind grain, and machines that weigh grain. For example, a semi can park under the bin and, in 5 minutes, have a 1,000 bushel load in the trailer. The grist machine grinds wheat and other grain as well as livestock feed blends. With the reduction in the oat crop, many farmers now use an oat substitute for cattle and horse feed.

Since its 1938 founding, E.G. Mann & Sons has expanded and expects to serve the agricultural community for many more years. There are hopes it will remain "all in the family." "My son will graduate from Michigan State this month and he plans to come to work here," says Glen. "I've always been in this business. I've never worked in a shop or anything. It's a job somebody has to do."

Funeral services were held Sunday August 7, 1955 for Ernest G. Mann, 69, at the Lockwood Funeral Home in Saline. Mann was a widely known Washtenaw grain elevator operator who retired from business in 1952. He died at his home at 116 W. Michigan Ave., Saline, after a long illness. Mr. Mann was a co-partner with two of his sons in the ownership and operation of grain elevators at Bridgewater and Manchester. The former they bought on March 1, 1927 and the later on July 1, 1940. Mr. Mann was active in several Masonic orders including the Meridan Chapter 48 of Manchester, the Saline Masonic Lodge, Ann Arbor Council 86, Knights Templar 13 of Ann Arbor and Zal Grotto of Ann Arbor. He was a member of the Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed church of Manchester and the Saline Rotary Club. He was born September 23, 1885, in Freedom Township, the son of Gottlieb and Mary Rentschler Mann and was married on Aug. 16, 1911 in Saline Township to Laura A. Feldkamp who died on February 12, 1948. He was married in February, 1950, to Mrs. Anna- Fosdick in Saline.

Surviving are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Milderd Nill of Gross Pointe; three sons, two who were co-partners in his elevator business Earl Mann of Bridgewater and Willard Mann of Manchester and the third son, Paul, who is cashier and vice-president of the Chelsea State Bank. Other survivors are one brother, Ralph Mann of Saline Township; four sisters, Mrs. Clara Schlicht of Manchester, Mrs. Tema Baurer of Saline Township, Mrs. Nora Haussler, Saline Township and Miss Louis Mann of Ann Arbor and 12 grandchildren.

The Rev. Alvin Siemsen of Saline officiated at the funeral Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Lockwood Funeral home, and burial was in Oakwood Cemetery, Saline.

Notes for Christian Bohnet:

The last will and testament of Christian Bohnet is on file in Ann Arbor, Michigan county court house, book 44 page 755. Administration of the will was Joseph Jedele and Johnna Schaible. It was written in German and dated March 22, 1859:

"In the Name of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. Here I, Christian Bohnet, live in Township Lodi, County Washtenaw, State of Michigan. For some time God have had upon me this pain and illness. As I can see I will not live very long (have much time among my loved ones) so I would like my house in order (my testament) on the 10th of November 1858. My mind is still clear and I wish to write my last will in front of two witnesses, to make my wishes known and legal for the time I say good bye to this world. I desire that I, Christian Bohnet, through Florian Muehlig and Fredrick Schmidt, give authority to them to take of my estate; and take care of my wife and children herein. I will say that money from my land and livestock will pay off all my debts. The land I live on right now will be sold. Each of my eight children will divide the money equally. No one will get it until the youngest is proper age. It is also my will that my wife, Catharina Bohnet, with my children, stay on my land and work together as a family. If there ever should be a time my wife and children can sell or rent the land for a better profit, Florian Muehlig and Fredrick Schmidt may do so, with her permission. It is my will if one of my children lives a bad life style or treat their mother or other brothers or sisters bad or if they don't listen to Muehlig or Schmidt they can be asked to leave the premises and be excluded from my will. It is my will to use money from land and livestock for family necessity, substance and upkeep. If there is money left over the administers should get some (Muehlig and Schmidt). They should do what they think is the best for wife and children. It is my will that the child (Laudavin) which my wife brought with her can stay with the mother to receive and board as my children. All this I said here, my last will and testimony is legal. I am saying it here in front of my witnesses." Signed, Christian Bohnet

On May 4, 1855; he signed as witness to a paper between Peter and Sarah Rouse who deeded to Martin Rouse (book 47 page 543) land in Lodi Twp; 2.5 acres for $5.00. 1169. Rev. Friedrich¹⁰ Schmid (Anna Katharina⁹ Pfeifle, Anna Katharina⁸ Frey, Johann Peter⁷, Andreas⁶, Georg⁵, Johannes⁴, Conrad³, Hans Cunrad², Jerg¹) was born 06 Sep 1807 in Walddorf, Calw, Wurtemberg, and died 30 Aug 1883 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Sophia Louisa Mann 04 Sep 1834 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Jonathan Mann and Juliane Haller. She was born 21 Jul 1817 in Muenchingen, Ludwigsburg, Wurtemberg, and died 10 Mar 1889 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Rev. Friedrich Schmid:

In 1831, Salem's first house of God was a log cabin located about 1/2 mile north of Scio-Church Road where the present Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church is located. In 1832, Jonathan Henrich Mann acting for a group of early German settlers in Washtenaw County, Michigan petitions the Evangelical Missionary Institute of Basel, Switzerland (Rev. Josehans), to send a pastor.

On June 8, 1833 Rev Friedrich Schmid set sail from the port of Havre, France on the ship 'Florida' and a journey of about nine weeks arrived in Detroit, Michigan on August 16, 1833 staying with August Kunz. Then on August 18, 1833 in Detroit, Michigan held the first Lutheran service ever held in Michigan.

Rev. Friedrich Schmid arrives in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan on August 20, 1833 in response to the call. He provides the first service in Washtenaw County in a little log schoolhouse in Scio Township on Territorial Road four miles west of Ann Arbor on August 26, 1833. Late in August 1833 (maybe Sept. 20, 1833) an Evangelical congregation (of about 25 families) is organized under the name of "The First German Evangelical Society of Scio" (Die Erste Deutsche Evangelische Gesellschaft yu Scio). A small church (26' x 34') was built late in December 1833 at Scio (total cost $265.32), on an acre of ground donated by Daniel F. Allmendinger. The church was called Zion Church and dedicated to the glory and service of God.

In 1845, the congregation decides to build a church in Ann Arbor and buys a lot on the corner of First and Washington streets. The new church is built (cost $1,820) and is dedicated as Bethlehem Church on June 24, 1849 located on Fourth Street.

As the first Lutheran pastor in Michigan, he help the early development of the church in Michigan. With his untiring missionary activity he made his way on horseback along forest trails to help organize congregations in Detroit, Monroe, Ypsilanti, Plymouth, Wayne, Waterloo, Freedom, Northfield, Lansing, Grand Rapids, Saginaw, Sebawaing, Marshall, Allegan, Adrian, Fredonia, Woodland, Cohoctah, etc. At regular intervals he would minister unto these congregations, eventually supplying them with a pastor from Basel Mission Society or one personally tutored and trained by him in Scio.

September 20, 1833 Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church was officially organized by the name "The Second German Evangelical Society of Scio" in a log cabin located about 1/2 mile north of Scio-Church Road where the present Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church is located. In about 1835-1837, Salem congregation built a new structure on 7474 Scio-Church Road in Scio Twp., it was 30' x 40' at an expense of $1,000. The two acre parcel of land in Section 32 of Scio Township was donated by Jacob Paul. A donation of $200 and a set of sacramental vessels was received from fellow Christians in Echterdingen, Wurtemberg (one mile south of Stuttgart). He established his first pastorate, in due time on Scio-Church Road in Lodi Twp., on the opposite side of the street from Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church. Rev. Stephen Klingmann served from 1867-1891 and his son, Rev. Julius Klingmann, from 1891-1901.

Rev. F. Schmid continued to serve Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church until 1867. And at Bethlehem, in 1871 Pastor F. Schmid retires and Rev. Herman Reuter is called. Plans for a new church are made. Differences in congregation over how the members would fund the project results in the withdrawal of a group of members (including Pastor Schmid) who then organized the Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church.

In 1843 Rev. F. Schmid with a small number of other pioneer pastors organized the first Lutheran Synod of Michigan. It was called the Mission Synod, for it planned extensive mission work among the Indians in the state. Because of doctrinal differences this first Lutheran synodical body was abandoned in 1846. Salem became a member of the Ohio Synod, which was severed in 1859. In 1860 Rev. F. Schmid and eight other pastors (including Rev. Stephan Klingmann of Adrian and Christian Eberhardt of Hopkins) and three delegates from different congregations, organized another Michigan Synod. Rev. F. Schmid served as chairman from 1860-1866 and Rev. Stephan Klingmann from 1867-1880. Salem retained membership of this organization until 1892 when Michigan Synod in conjunction with Synod of Minnesota and the Synod of Wisconsin organized the larger body of the Joint Synod of Wisconsin.

Rev. Friedrich Schmid passed away in Ann Arbor, Michigan on August 30, 1883.

Pastor Friedrich Schmid arrived in Oakwood, Milwaukee Co, Wisconsin (12 miles south of Milwaukee) in October 2, 1843 and left in 1844 returned to Michigan.

Rev. Friedrich Schmid. The venerable F. Schmid, the first Lutheran pastor in the State of Michigan, and residing since 1833 in or near Ann Arbor, fell asleep August 3, 1883. He was not only a pastor of the various German settlements in Washtenaw County, but was in labors most abundant and in journeys oft, seeking out the scattered German settlers over the state. Educated in the Mission House of Basle, he had the mission spirit in an eminent degree and with many prayers and sacrifices commenced and carried on for years the first mission of our American church among the North American Indians. He was also the founder of the Synod of Michigan, now in connection with the General Council. Like not a few of the old German pioneers from Wurtemberg, who were educated in Basle, Father Schmid had his own troubles in his long and eventful life. In this intensely practical atmosphere, where principles rapidly develop into actual life he suffered greatly from withdrawals of pastors and churches from the Synod because of its too Lutheran character. These went to the United Synod of the West! Not less was he distressed and embarrassed by the withdrawal of others to the Missouri Synod, to whom his Synod was not sufficiently Lutheran. Even the missionaries he had trained for the Indian mission among the Chippewas, were carried away by the last movement, taking we believe both the Indian and the German congregations with them.

Since 1860 this venerable man has been suffering from paralysis, but he bore this great trial with quiet submission, although for fourteen years he has been confined to his room orb. "Verily, he rests from his labors and his works follow him." He leaves behind him a family of ten children, among whom are Rev. Prof. E. Schmid, of Capital University, Columbus, Ohio, and the wife of Rev. Pastor Voltz, of Buffalo, New York. On Monday, September 3, his earthly remains were committed to the grave, from the German Lutheran church in Ann Arbor, a large number of his brethren in the Synod being present, and an immense concourse of people from various parts of the surrounding country. —Workman.

CHURCHES:

Detroit - St. John's German Evangelical Church - Rev. Friedrich Schmid on August 18, 1833, in a carpenter shop owned by John Hais, located on the corner of Woodbridge & Bates Streets in Detroit, Michigan. He gave a service out of which started St. John's German Evangelical Church. Rev. F. Schmid preached at this church until July 1836, then Rev J. P. Schwabe took over. St. John's Church was built on the northeast corner of Monroe Avenue & Farrar Street in January 1836.

Detroit - St. Peter's Evangelical Church - established 1841 by Rev. Frederick Herman. First held in members homes. The minor differences between the Evangelical and the Lutherans led to misunderstandings and in 1846 the Lutheran group withdrew to organize their own church. The remaining group incorporated on December 8, 1848 as "The German Lutheran Church of St. Peter". In 1926 with the coming of Rev. Oscar Laubengayer the name was changed to "St. Peter's Evangelical Church". The old church building (the second one) built in 1865 was razed and a new structure was built.

Detroit - St. Paul's German Evangelical Church - was an out growth of the St. John's Evangelical Church in October 21, 1872 (incorporated in November 1, 1872). It was located on the corner of Seventeenth & Rose Street in Detroit, Michigan. Rev. J. G. Hildner was the first pastor.

Detroit - St. Mark's German Evangelical Church - located on the corner of Military & Dix Avenues was dedicated on January 16, 1884.

Detroit - Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church - organized in 1850 (incorporated March 10, 1851). Rev. J.M.G. Schaller was the first pastor and accepted a calling November 1851. They meet in a building on Woodbridge Street, in rear of Christ Church.

Detroit - German Evangelical Church of Delray established February 25, 1885. And for a time was named St. John's II Church. Later called Trinity Evangelical Church. This church was established with the help of both Rev. C. Haass and Rev. J. Hildner. The first minister was Rev. J. Jann in August 1885. And succeeded him in 1886 by Rev. R. Beutler. The old church burned in 1918. Rebuilt on West Fort Street in October 1919.

Detroit - Immanuel Evangelical Church - begun on June 30, 1893 with the help of Rev. J. Lambrecht of St. Mark's Church.

Detroit - Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church - organized August 22, 1882, by Rev. K.L. Moll on Welch Avenue, near Michigan Avenue. Dedicated on July 8, 1883.

Sebewaing - New Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church - in the fall of 1852 a few young members of Salem in Scio Twp. were encouraged by Rev. F. Schmid to leave and to establish a new home in Sebewaing Twp., Huron Co., Michigan. The pastor assigned was Johann Jacob Friedrich Auch by Rev. F. Schmid.

Sebewaing - Immanuel Lutheran - (800 E. Bay Street) Its beginning dates back to the year 1851. As early as 1845, Rev. J. J. Auch had come to this region as a missionary to the Indians. He had been sent by Rev. Fr. Schmidt of Ann Arbor. Rev. Auch was probably the first white man who entered this territory. The assistant, who accompanied him, was Rev. Simon Dumser. These two pioneers preached to the Indians at Sebewaing and at Wishkawking, now called Unionville. There was another Indian settlement at Shebahyonk, nine miles north from Sebewaing. Rev. J. Roeder had been sent there as missionary by the Missouri Synod. The Indians in this part of the state were Chippewas. Those at Sebewaing numbered about 100 souls; about 80 were at Shebahyonk, and about 60 at Wishkawking or Unionville. The Indian chief at Sebewaing was Nock-chi-co-me. He remained away from the Christian church and did all he could to keep others away. Yet, strange to say, he wanted his children to be instructed in the Christian school. This old heathen was no opponent of Christian day schools like so many so-called Christians of our day.

Sebewaing - St. Peter's Lutheran - (9667 Bach Road)

Unionville - St. Paul Lutheran - (6356 Center Street) This congregation is a daughter of Emmanuel Lutheran Church at Sebewaing. Several families belonging to that congregation lived here in Unionville and vicinity. As the way was far and the roads were bad, divine services were conducted now and then in the homes of these members by the pastors, Auch and Speckhard. With the permission of the mother church, on February 14th, 1876, these families united and organized a new congregation, consisting of but seven voting members. Small as it was, it soon grew, and in 1883 it felt strong enough to call its own pastor.

In 1864 the first church building 20 x 30 feet was erected, first called 'The first Evangelical Church in Livingston County'. It belonged to the circuit of Owosso, Flint, Pierpont and Howell. In 1968 it merged with the Methodist Church. The charter members were: John & Catherine Shedel, John & Barbara Bohm, Henry & Anna Unbahoun, George & Mary Schrepfer, Charles & Henrietta Greener, Henry & Hannah Zahn, John & Mary Drost, Margaret Stelzer, and John Bohm.

Schulz. The senior choir will sing "Psalm VIII," by Warner, and the combined senior and junior choirs will offer "Praise the Lord, Ye Heavens, Adore Him," by Pritchard.

The history of the Emanuel church dates back to 1853, when a small band of German Lutheran families, who had migrated to Lansing, wishing to continue worship in their mother tongue, met and held services in the various homes. Worship also was held for a time in the North Lansing school.

In 1855 under the direction of Rev. Frederick Schmid, the pioneer Lutheran pastor of Michigan, the 52 families organized the first Lutheran church in the city. Mr. Schmid had previously organized the first Lutheran congregation in the state in Scio Township, west of Ann Arbor in 1833.

Back in Europe, under the leadership of Rev. Loehe, the German Protestant Church had been known as the German Evangelical State Church. This church body contained both Lutheran and Reformed clergy. To this date Rev. Schmid is claimed by the Lutherans and the Reformed (now the United Church of Christ) as their founding Pastor in Michigan.

The Basel Mission

The German Missionary Society (subsequently became the Basel Evangelical Missionary Society) came into being as a result of a pledge taken by few dedicated Christians at Basel in the face of a military threat. It was the year 1815 when Napoleon had escaped from the Island of Elba (where was a prisoner), and landed in France. The War continued in Europe. The City of Basel was very close to the borders of Germany and France. The French General Barbanegre threatened to blow up Basel. A group of pious Christians, both Clergy and Laymen, belonging to the Reformed Church of Basel and the Lutheran Church of Wurtemberg pledged to start a seminary for the training of Missionaries, if God would spare their city. The Tartars and Calmucs marched through Basel to invade France with the Russian Army, made these people feel even more convinced regarding their seminary. The French General capitulated and Napoleon met his doom at Waterloo. In the same year, on 26th September 1815, six Christian men, a Professor of Philosophy, three Clergymen, a Merchant and a Notary, gathered in the Rectory of St. Martin in Basel under the Presidency of Rev. Nikolaus von Brunn, constituted themselves as the Evangelical Missionary Society of Basel. They applied to the Government for permission to start an Institution for training Missionaries. On 26th August 1816, this Institution was opened with seven students with Rev. C.C. Blumhardt in charge

LUTHERANS IN MICHIGAN AND DETROIT

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther, a German Roman Catholic priest, nailed 95 theses to the door of the Wittenburg Church. Martin Luther wanted to discuss various ways in which the church of the day could cleanse itself of corrupt practices that crept into its life. He, as well, possessed a burning desire to make available the Holy Scriptures in a language the people could read and understand. The theme of the Reformation was "Solely by Scripture, Solely by Faith, Solely by Grace". Luther attempted to work within the framework of the church hierarchy of the day. He held bold discussions and diets (conferences) on the scripture, on the Lord's Supper in two kinds, the cleansing of the church of indulgences, and the separation of the church and the state, etc. Martin Luther had little desire to start a new church, much less one in his name, i.e., The Lutheran Church.

History tells us that many reforms arose out of the Reformation. There were those who loved the Roman Catholic liturgy, its masses and its worship services. There were those who said anything that was "too catholic" had to go. They tore out stained glass windows and stripped the church of statues, artifacts, and altars. Over the next decades many "reformed" movements, denominations, and sects arose over doctrinal differences as well as differences in church practices and administration. Some groups maintained the hierarchy of the Bishop, while others wanted the authority to be administered by a convention body of the laity.

As financial and economic times became more difficult in Europe, more taxes were extracted from the people by the state. Many taxes were collected for the maintenance of the church. The church became involved in the state's affairs and the state became entrenched in the operation of the church. The Reformation and Renaissance of the 1500's and early 1600's changed the face of the world. The 30 Year War in the mid 1600's took a heavy toll on the lives of the Europeans.

In a very broad sense, two basic philosophies had developed by the 1700's. PIETISM emphasized chiefly practical Christian charity and the personal piety. That led to the OXFORD MOVEMENT, mainly in England. RATIONALISM condemned emotionalism and deism and dealt primarily with morality and self interest. It promoted social, scientific and literary interests which led to CONFSSIONAL MOVEMENT and flourished mainly in Germany, Holland, and Scandinavia. Out of this emerged the United Evangelical State Church in Germany during the 1800's. More and more the Germans were finding their mother church torn apart by various difficulties and they began to flee Europe. Also, the failure of the Revolution of 1848 in the Germanies sent thousands to America seeking political asylum, economic opportunity, freedom from military conscription and religious freedom. The American land became a magnet for Europeans and the cry, "Go to America", was heard everywhere throughout Europe. The drawing power was freedom of speech, freedom of the press, and freedom of religion. So they came from Europe to the U.S. As one pastor said, "There was no evangelism program then; the people just kept coming by the boat full. Each separate boat brought its own form of Lutheranism to these shores."

From SAXONY the Dresden group of the Lutherans began in 1781 and developed the Dresden Bible and Mission Society in 1814. They elected a Pastor Martin Stephan as their Bishop in 1820. By 1836 they broke from the Basel Mission Society to become the Evangelical Lutheran Mission Society. They took their boat to America in 1839 and settled in Perry County in Missouri. Bishop Stephan put all of their money in a common treasury and, while on board ship, demanded obedience both in spiritual and secular matters on their way to establishing their new home in Missouri. He built himself a nice house, lived an immoral life, and squandered the funds of the faithful. He was put on a boat in the Mississippi River and sent to Red Bud, Illinois, where today he is buried outside the fence of the church graveyard.

Meanwhile in St. Louis, Missouri, another Saxon Pastor, Carl Ferdinand Wilhelm Walther, was publishing a Lutheran paper called "der Lutheraner". He was sent down to Perry County to straighten matters out. From this event, "the Altenberg Debate", came the strong sentiment for a church hierarchy free of the "Bishop", but strong in "congregational authority". Dr. Walther stressed the doctrine of the Office of Keys and gave the congregation the authority to call the Pastor. This finally led to the beginning of the Missouri Synod in Ohio and in other states in 1847. The Rev. Gottlieb Schaller of Trinity Detroit was elected the first vice president, with Dr. C. F. W. Walther, Sr., as President. Rev. Schaller later left Trinity Detroit for Old Trinity, St. Louis, to be Pastor Friedrich Konrad Dietrich Syneken's assistant. Pastor Wyneken had been the famous circuit rider and "Father of Home Missions in the LCMS" in the Fort Wayne, Indiana area.

This was most evident in the establishment of the Lutheran Church in Michigan and Detroit. As early as 1820 there were attempts to establish a Lutheran church in Detroit. The many boats kept coming and they kept bringing "so-called" preachers with them. None took hold until 1830 when Jonathan Heinrich Mann, a layman from Ann Arbor, wrote asking the Mission House at Basel to send a pastor to Michigan. On August 16, 1833, Rev. Friedrich Schmid arrived in Detroit and stayed with an August Kunz. Later Rev. Schmid married the daughter of Jonathan Heinrich Mann. On August 18, 1833, Rev. Schmid preached the first Lutheran sermon in Detroit, in the carpenter shop of John Haik (the present site of the Ford Auditorium). Rev. Schmid then left for Scio Township to establish the Lutheran Church to which he had been called. He established Salem Lutheran Church, now on Scio Church Road in Ann Arbor. It was the first official Lutheran church in Michigan, organized September 20, 1833, as the First German Evangelical Society of Scio.

Rev. Schmid continued to return to Detroit, walking all the way from Ann Arbor and back every five weeks for three years. Five weeks after his first Detroit sermon on August 18, 1837, he established the German Protestant Church. There is much confusion over this name as it was also called the German Lutheran Church. In 1872 it was named St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Lutheran Church, and in 1873 we find it listed also as Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Back in Europe, under the leadership of Loehe, the German Protestant Church had been known as the German Evangelical State Church. This church body contained both Lutheran and Reformed clergy. To this date Rev. Schmid is claimed by the Lutherans and the Reformed (now the United Church of Christ) as their founding Pastor in Michigan.

The next pastor sent by this group to Detroit was a Rev. F. P. Schwabe in 1836, three years after the German Protestant Church was established by Schmid. Rev. Schwabe established the church as the St. John's Reformed Church. Today it is Old St. John's or St. John's-St. Luke United Church of Christ.

Rev. Schmid continued his missionary zeal from the Ann Arbor area. With the help of missionaries from the European Societies, and particularly Loehe, he established Lutheran Churches in Detroit, Monroe, Lansing, Marshall, Adrian, Grand Rapids, Sebawaing, Saginaw, Waterloo, Chelsea, Bridgewater, Northfield, Saline, Ypsilanti, Plymouth, Jackson and Wayne. Loehe's men, Otto F. Hattstaedt in Monroe, Philipp Jakob Trautmann in Adrian, Friedrich Lochner in Toledo, Friedrich August Craemer in Frankenmuth and F. K. Wyneken in Fort Wayne, were called to these parishes. Wyneken was the Pastor who got Loehe interested in the church in the U.S.

Rev. Schmid found himself caught up in various European church struggles and the various Synods in America. In 1840 he started the Michigan Synod I as a mission synod for both Lutherans and Reformed. This Synod I died out in 1846 because the Lutheran-Reformed mix was impractical. It later affiliated with the newly formed Missouri Synod.

In 1860 Rev. Schmid tried again to start a Michigan Synod II. By now the Buffalo Synod had entered Michigan, and many of its members joined the St. John's Reformed Church. Later these Lutheran members left St. John's to join Trinity after it had been established in 1850. Another group of Lutherans broke away from the Buffalo Synod and moved to Iowa and formed the Iowa Synod.

Meanwhile, an American Indian mission in the Frankenmuth area requested Rev. Schmid of Ann Arbor to send them some missionaries for their Bethany American Indian Mission. Schmid sent them three preachers from Loehe, two Lutheran and one Reformed. The Lutherans of The Saginaw Valley were offended by the Reformed preacher, and some broke off and left for Wisconsin to join the new "True Lutheran" seminary. The others remained in Michigan and established Wisconsin Synod parishes.

Salem Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor joined the new Wisconsin Synod and drove their pioneer pastor, Rev. Schmid, out of the congregation. He went to Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor where he served until his death, and is buried in Forest Hill Cemetery in Ann Arbor. For years there was an annual pilgrimage to his grave in thanks for his great pioneer spirit on behalf of Lutherans in Michigan.

Not only did "the boats keep coming" and the Synods keep springing up, affecting the church at large, but it also affected the local parishes. Some congregations in their earlier years would be in Buffalo Synod, then Independent, then Ohio Synod, then another Synod. Local parishes were formed around three basic issues. (1) A bishop form of church government or a congregational form of government. (2) The use of candles, statues, etc., or the non-use of them. (3) Whether private confession was necessary before Holy Communion. At one time one Detroit area parish had three facility locations under the same church name, at the same time, based on these three issues.

On the local scene, Rev. Schmid had begun the Lutheran church in Detroit, but when Rev. Schwabe arrived the church became a Reformed church. Therefore, the Lutherans did not become official in Detroit again until in 1845, when Rev. Johann Friedrich Winkler arrived and established the first official Lutheran Church in Detroit, St. Matthews. St. Matthews Lutheran Church started as an independent Lutheran Church on Cadieux and East Warren. St. Matthews built a church at Rivard and Congress, and in November of 1845 became a Buffalo Synod Church. Pastor Winkler also started St. Peters Church in Erin Township (East Detroit) in 1846. St. Matthews was in constant turmoil over the synodical issue and the authority of the bishop vs. congregation.

In 1850, Rev. Winkler excommunicated a member from the church without church officers approval. He said as Pastor it was his right. Seventeen men said it was the congregation's decision, and as a result they broke off and formed Trinity Church in 1850. These seventeen Lutherans, together with other Lutherans who had remained at St. John's Reformed Church, formed Trinity and associated themselves with the Missouri Synod that began in 1847. Thus Trinity became the Mother Church in Detroit of the Missouri Synod.

Notes for Thomas Francis Farrell:

Thomas Francis Farrell was a colorful figure in Republican political circles in Wayne County and the City of Detroit, Michigan. He served as Wayne County Clerk from 1908-1933 and is credited with indexing 26,176 naturalization cases; revising 66 years of corporate and business association records; and returning money with interest to the litigants. Thomas also instituted a systematic court bond filing system, which eliminated days of researching unindexed bonds.

Thomas also served as Director of the First State Bank in Hamtramck and at some point, he was a Clerk for the Police Court in Detroit. He and his wife, Pauline (Lena), lived at the shores of Lake Huron in Lexington, Michigan.

Although Thomas and Lena did not have any children of their own, they raised and later adopted, two nephews, John and William Pfeifle. The boys appear to have been the sons of Lena's brother, William Pfeifle, and his wife, Hazel.

During their retirement years, Thomas and Lena resided in Miami, Florida. They traveled extensively and vacationed in many parts of the world.

Thomas F. Farrell. Wayne County Clerk for 20 years, died Friday Feb. 13, 1953 in Miami, Florida. Mr. Farrell was a colorful figure in County and City Republican political circles before the Democratic landslide of 1932 swept him from office. He was born Feb. 3, 1870, In Peoria, Illinois. Mr. Farrell engaged at various times in the surety bond and real estate businesses. At one time, he was a director of the First State Bank of Hamtramck. His first political job was clerk of the old Police Court. In 1908, he was the successful candidate for County Clerk and held that post until 1933 except for two terms served by the late Milton Oakman. As County Clerk, Mr. Farrell was credited with indexing and numbering 26,176 naturalization cases, revising 66 years of corporate and business association records and returning to litigants their money with accrued interest. He also instituted a systematic court bond filing system which eliminated days of search for bonds which were tied together in bundles and stowed away unindexed.

Mr. Farrell was a member of the Detroit Athletic Club, the Harmonie Club, the Elks, the Turnverein, the Maccabees and the Woodmen of the World.

Surviving are his wife, Pauline, and a sister, Mrs. Margaret Kraetke, all of Detroit. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

1193. Agatha (Agnes)¹⁰ Schmid (Eva Maria⁹ Pfeifle, Anna Katharina⁸ Frey, Johann Peter⁷, Andreas⁶, Georg⁵, Johannes⁴, Conrad³, Hans Cunrad², Jerg¹) was born 18 Nov 1819 in Cresbach, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 05 Jan 1876 in Sebewaing Twp, Huron Co, Michigan. She married Johann Peter Schairer 21 Jan 1845 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Michael Schairer and Anna Pfeifle. He was born 30 Aug 1822 in Durrweiler, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 03 Dec 1911 in Sebewaing Twp, Huron Co, Michigan.

Notes for Agatha (Agnes) Schmid:

Agatha Schmid Schairer was born in Cresbach, Freudenstadt, Wuertemberg, Germany. Agatha immigrated in 1844 with her sister Elizabetha (age 11 born Feb. 14, 1833) and sister Anna Maria Schmid Frey (Anna's husband Christian Frey, who was a blacksmith and their infant daughter Anna Maria Frey). She also had a brother Johann George who was born Dec. 16, 1815 and had immigrated in about 1840 and also lived in Washtenaw County. Agatha gave birth to 10 children only 5 living to adulthood. Six of the children were born in Scio Township between 1845 and 1853:

John Jacob born in May 29 1845 in Scio Township, Michigan died young

Anna Marie born on Aug 17, 1846 in Scio Township, Michigan died young and another unnamed child.

Johannes (John) born on Jan 11, 1851 in Freedom Township, Michigan. died young.

It is unclear if Johannes lived long enough to make the trip to Sebewaing with Elizabeth, Friedrich, and their mother. The other three who lived to adulthood, all born in Sebewaing were Lydia (born Aug 2, 1855), George (born April 26, 1859) and John Peter, called John (born Aug 2, 1861. John Peter's grandson recalls hearing that a child who died before there was a cemetery was buried in the orchard behind the barn. Agatha & her husband J Peter Schairer were 1st cousins. Cause of death: After a long illness Agatha died of cancer and consumption.

Cause of Death: cancer

Notes for Johann Peter Schairer:

Johann Peter Schairer was born in the Village of Durrweiler, Freudenstadt, Baden-Württemberg, Germany. He immigrated with 2 brothers (John and John George Schairer), 1 sister (Elizabeth Catharina Schairer Beck Jedele) 2 step-brothers (John Jacob Jedele and John Frederick Jedele) 1 step-sister (Anna Maria Jedele Spring), his mother (Anna Maria Pfeifle Schairer Jedele) and step-father (Johann Jacob Jedele), arriving in this country January, 1836 and in Ann Arbor, Michigan Territory, August 30, 1836. It took 47 days to cross the ocean. He was married to Agatha Schmid Jan 21, 1845 in Scio Township, Mi. Rev F Schmid (his cousin) officiating. Peter & Agatha were first cousins.

Pastor Schmid encouraged a group of young men of his Scio congregation to purchase land in Sebewaing, Michigan and form a separate church, one in keeping with his own philosophy. Peter had gone to Sebewaing to select the 160 acres deeded to him from the US on March 15, 1851 (the land was 2 miles southeast of the settlement.) A creek runs diagonally through the land and into the Sebewaing River. So, J Peter was among the young pioneers who moved to the Sebewaing wilderness in the fall of 1852. In the fall of 1852 Peter traveled with 6 other men. They drove two yokes of oxen, 14 cows, a steer, and dogs, and hauled their winter provisions, tools, and four pigs in a wagon. The trip took 6 days with nightly stops at Brighton, Fenton, Flint or Genesee, Birch Run and Watrousville, where the road ended. Then they hired a guide for five dollars to lead them through the woods to the Sebewaing settlement. In Sebewaing, they found virgin forests and swampy land once cleared and drained left rich soil. The woods had berries, nut and fruit trees, elk, deer, bear, rabbit, quail, partridge, wild turkeys and in the rivers plenty of fish. The men felled the trees to build the crude log cabins and stables with packed earth floors. Many settlers suffered from fever as much as a quarter of the year from the mosquitos. Soon, Peter bought more land. He now had 240 acres. After more settlers arrived, Schmid's followers called on Peters to help establish a church near their homes southeast of Sebewaing. New Salem's first service was held in 1853 at Peter and Agatha's home. After awhile the Schairer home could no longer accommodate the growing congregation. In 1854 the congregation bought 300 acres on Caro Road, about two miles south of the settlement and the first name on the deed was John Peter's. They named it New Salem in honor of their parent's congregation in Scio and elected Peter and 2 others to be the first church council. They soon built a log church and school (the original church site was located at the original cemetery site). As often as he could, Rev Schmid would come on horseback the 120 miles through the forests to preach to them.

At one time Peter was elected overseer of his highway district (corduroy roads). He was responsible for seeing that all male taxpayers contributed one half-days labor for each $100 of assessed valuation of property and that all voters contributed one day's labor as a poll tax. Peter was elected Supervisor for Sebewaing Township 1855, 1857, and 1866-68. Peter continued to be active in the affairs of New Salem Lutheran Church (later in his life). He served as a delegate to the synod meeting in 1892.

Half-brother John Frederick Jedele and his wife Dorothy bought 160 acres directly south of Peter's farm. Frederick was reported to be the first farmer in the area to own a team of horses, having walked back to Ann Arbor to buy them. Sometime in the early 1860's to 70's the J Peter Schairer family moved into the large farmhouse on Caro Road. The t-shaped farmhouse was of Ann Arbor's Greek Revival influence. In 1868 Peter's half-brother Frederick died of pneumonia at the age of 37, leaving Dorothea (Dorothy) with six children, the youngest one born one day after his father's funeral. Peter did all he could to help his sister-in-law. Dorothy's eldest son, Frederick age 10 was sent back to relatives in Ann Arbor to learn farming and returned at the age of 17 to work the land. Within one year the boy died of typhoid fever and Dorothy rented the farm until her two younger sons could take over. After a long illness, Agatha died. She was 56. After the traditional period of mourning, Peter married Dorothy, his half-brothers widow in Jan 9, 1877. She was 13 years younger than Peter. She bore him 3 children.

Peter ran a wagon dealership while living on the farm. Later in life one of Peter's eyes was gored by a bull. In 1884, Peter & Dorothy retired into the Village of Sebewaing and the homestead was divided among his three sons from his first marriage.

NEW SALEM LUTHERAN CHURCH - Sebewaing, Michigan - REV. G. A. SCHMELZER, Pastor

The very beginning of .New Salem Lutheran congregation is traced to good old Washtenaw County. It was in the fall of 1852 when a few courageous young men, members of flourishing Lutheran congregations in Scio, Freedom, and Ann Arbor, set out from their fathers' home to find and establish for themselves new places of abode. These young men were Peter Schairer, John Baur, Ph. Schlemmer, John Strieter. The destination of their journey were the woods or forests near Sebewaing.

These men formed the nucleus of New Salem Lutheran Church, which was organized in autumn of 1853. Their number was increased by settlers coming from Ohio, Their names are: K. Zimmer, N. Zimmer, Frederick Armbruster, Math. Armbruster, Val. Wagner, Theob. Becker, Fr. Ziegler and others. Peter Schairer, John Baur and J. Strieter were elected members of first Church Council.

The newly organized congregation was given the name New Salem, commemorative to Evangelical Lutheran Salem congregation in Scio, of which a part of these men had formerly been members. Above all, however, the name was chosen to serve them as a continual remembrance of the New Jerusalem or New Salem above, the city fair and high, the goal of their earthly pilgrimage, where they expected to find sweet repose following their trials, temptations, and battles in this vale of tears.

Having no church structure, their divine services were held in private homes. Soon, however, they became convinced that unless a congregation has its own pastor, a congregation will not make headway. Bearing this in mind, the fathers of New Salem congregation petitioned Pastor Friedrich Schmid to provide for their spiritual need. The pioneer pastor of Michigan, though indeed a very busy man, gave ear to their urgent appeal. He bent his efforts to supplying them at least a few times during the year with the means of grace, until later they would have their own minister in their midst. Pastor Friedrich Schmid was helpful in securing the services of Christian Volz, pastor in Saginaw and missionary of Saginaw Valley, for New Salem congregation in Sebewaing. Pastor Christian Volz was followed by his brother, Pastor Conrad Volz, who served the congregation for over a year. In October, 1853, Pastor Fr. Nuffer became pastor of the congregation. He was the first resident pastor of the congregation. The members now built a log house for their pastor, also a log church.

Pastor Fr. Nuffer served the congregation for four years. At the close of his pastorate (1859) New Salem Congregation affiliated with Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Michigan, which at this time was organized in Monroe, Michigan. New Salem Congregation was ready and willing to become a member of this body because it was happy to find that Synod of Michigan believed, taught and confessed God's pure word.

Notes for Christian Bohnet:

The last will and testament of Christian Bohnet is on file in Ann Arbor, Michigan county court house, book 44 page 755. Administration of the will was Joseph Jedele and Johnna Schaible. It was written in German and dated March 22, 1859:

"In the Name of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. Here I, Christian Bohnet, live in Township Lodi, County Washtenaw, State of Michigan. For some time God have had upon me this pain and illness. As I can see I will not live very long (have much time among my loved ones) so I would like my house in order (my testament) on the 10th of November 1858. My mind is still clear and I wish to write my last will in front of two witnesses, to make my wishes known and legal for the time I say good bye to this world. I desire that I, Christian Bohnet, through Florian Muehlig and Fredrick Schmidt, give authority to them to take of my estate; and take care of my wife and children herein. I will say that money from my land and livestock will pay off all my debts. The land I live on right now will be sold. Each of my eight children will divide the money equally. No one will get it until the youngest is proper age. It is also my will that my wife, Catharina Bohnet, with my children, stay on my land and work together as a family. If there ever should be a time my wife and children can sell or rent the land for a better profit, Florian Muehlig and Fredrick Schmidt may do so, with her permission. It is my will if one of my children lives a bad life style or treat their mother or other brothers or sisters bad or if they don't listen to Muehlig or Schmidt they can be asked to leave the premises and be excluded from my will. It is my will to use money from land and livestock for family necessity, substance and upkeep. If there is money left over the administrators should get some (Muehlig and Schmidt). They should do what they think is the best for wife and children. It is my will that the child (Laudavin) which my wife brought with her can stay with the mother to receive and board as my children. All this I said here, my last will and testimony is legal. I am saying it here in front of my witnesses." Signed, Christian Bohnet

On May 4, 1855; he signed as witness to a paper between Peter and Sarah Rouse who deeded to Martin Rouse (book 47 page 543) land in Lodi Twp; 2.5 acres for $5.00. It was located in the NW corner of NE 1/4 of NE 1/4 of Section 18. town 3S or range 5 east running 3 rods east and east & 80 rods south.

Notes for Florian Muehlig:

May 18, 1986 - Five local businesses will receive Centennial Business Awards from the Ann Arbor Historic District Commission this afternoon. The awards, given for the first time this year, will honor firms which have been continuously in business in Ann Arbor for 100 years or more. They will be presented at the commission's award ceremony from 2-4 p.m. at the Kempf House Center for Local History, 312 S. Division. Recipients of this year's awards are: Schlenker Hardware (1886), Muehlig Funeral Chapel (1852), Godfrey Moving and Storage (1881), Hutzel Plumbing and Heating (1857) and The Ann Arbor News (1835). Displays of memorabilia and photographs from each business will be on display at the Kempf House throughout the month of May.

Muehlig Funeral Chapel Inc. was established by Florian Muehlig in Ann Arbor in 1852 and is presently the oldest continuously operating funeral parlor in the state of Michigan. It was first located at 307 S. Main Street and has been moved only once in its history - in 1929, to its present location at 400 S. Fourth Ave. Since it formerly had been Dr. Lynd's Hospital, some residents remember having their children born there. The building was constructed around 1875 by Joseph T. Jacobs, a local clothier, as his private residence. The Muehligs were skilled cabinet makers and in 1852 they were advertising for logs suitable for making coffins. Other family members went into related businesses such as hardware, and some became institutions in their own right: granddaughter Bertha Muehlig ran B.E. Muehlig's on Main St. for many years. Descendants of this family still run the funeral parlor today. On display at the Kempf House will be an 1880s ledger in German, photographs from the 1930s of hearses in front of the building and bills for a funeral in 1887.

1214. Johann Georg¹⁰ Schairer (Anna Maria⁹ Pfeifle, Anna Katharina⁸ Frey, Johann Peter⁷, Andreas⁶, Georg⁵, Johannes⁴, Conrad³, Hans Cunrad², Jerg¹) was born 07 Feb 1820 in Durrweiler, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 05 Sep 1904 in Lakeland, Hamburg Twp, Livingston Co, Michigan. He married Christiana Magdalena Ruehle 30 Oct 1844 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Joseph Ruehle and Eva Allmendinger. She was born 29 Oct 1826 in Endersbach, Rems-Murr, Wurtemberg, and died 13 Sep 1907 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johann Georg Schairer:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906.

John George Schairer is one of five brothers, all named John, four of them of course known only by middle names. Mr. Schairer came over as a youth, learned here the shoemaker's trade, and is still industriously pounding away on his lap stone. His immigration was in 1836. He soon felt the need of informing himself of the political matters of the country, bought a spelling book and began with the English alphabet to prepare himself to gather the needed information. His memory is a mine upon which one draws with satisfaction. It is an interesting fact that his wife's sister, Mrs. Ebinger, removed from Ann Arbor to Chicago when but few houses occupied the site of that now great city, walking most of the way, attended by the ox wagon which carried the household goods.

SHOCKING FATAL ACCIDENT – John G. Schairer, Killed

A shocking accident robbed Ann Arbor of one of its oldest most respected citizens last evening, and turned a party of merrymakers into sorrow stricken mourners. John G. Schairer, who had rounded out his eighty-four years, was attending the annual reunion of the Allmendinger family at Spring Lake, and at Lakeland, on the way home; at 7 o'clock in the evening he was instantly killed by an Ann Arbor railroad train.

The party to the number of sixty had spent the day at Spring Lake, a short distance east of Lakeland, and had returned to the latter station preparatory to taking the Ann Arbor railroad back to the city. Nearly two hundred people were at the station, and the Allmendinger party was on the north side of the track. The 7:20 train for the south pulled in, and the crowd were making ready to go on board. Just before the train stopped an elderly man was seen to step on the track from the south side. The engine was scarcely twenty feet away and if everything had gone well he would have had a narrow escape. As it was he stumbled as he was stepping over the nearest rail, and fell directly in the path of the advancing engine.

An unknown man, whose name has not been learned, ran forward and at the imminent peril of his own life seized the prostrate form and tried to drag it across the track. The margin was too narrow, and he saw that handicapped as he was he could not reach a place safety. It was a case of one life or two, so he dropped the burden and just escaped being struck himself.

The accident took place in full view of the waiting crowd, but no one knew who was the victim. The body had been carried under the engine, but one arm was thrown upon the cowcatcher in such a way the face and head were preserved from mutilation. The blood and dust so dimmed the features that no one realized who it was for several minutes. Had the daring attempt at rescue not been made by the stranger the body would have been terribly mangled, as it was lying directly across the rails.

The body was brought to this city last night, and was removed to the Dieterle undertaking establishment. As Lakeland is in Livingston County the Livingston coroner will have to sign the burial certificate.

The circumstances surrounding the death are particularly sad. The descendants of the Allmendinger family to the number of sixty had passed a day of merry making, and Mr. Schairer was one of the most light hearted of the party. His health was excellent and his mind was alert and vigorous as in the days of his early manhood, and he enjoyed every moment of the outing. Confident in his own strength and vitality he would not allow himself to be looked after by his children or grandchildren, but insisted that his age was no handicap and that he was perfectly competent to take care of himself. He was the oldest member of the party, but was not himself a member of the Allmendinger clan. His wife, who was formerly Miss Christina Ruehle was the oldest of the Allmendinger descendants, and the couple would have celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary October 31 of this year.

John G. Schairer was born in Durrweiler, oberant Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, Germany. He came to Ann Arbor in 1836 and opened a shoemaking establishment. He remained in active business until he was seventy years of age, when he yielded to the wishes of his family and retired. He leaves a widow and eleven children. During the sixty years that the couple had been married there had been only one death in the immediate family, which was that of a daughter, forty years ago. The children are: G.E. Schairer, of Saline; John J. Schairer, of Clint, Texas; Mrs. D.C. Giffard, Mrs. William Steufer; Aaron and Jessie Schairer, of Westport, Nebraska; Mrs. Samuel Krause, Mrs. M. Otto and D.F. Schairer, of this city.

June 13, 1940 - The sale of the Schairer house on Michigan Avenue marks the passing of one of Saline's old homes which has been in that family since 1870. The Schairers were one of the prominent families of Saline and date back to pioneer settlers who came from Germany to Ann Arbor in 1836. It will be remembered that Ann Arbor was a mere settlement then with cow pastures where the University now stands, a cluster of buildings, winding walks, shade trees and shrubbery, making it one of the prettiest campuses in the United States. There were no great department stores, smart dress shops, tea rooms and restaurants, but there were a few stores where staples could be purchased, a hotel to accommodate the traveling public, and people with thrifty ideas and the courage to stick through the hardships of pioneer life to lay the foundation for the present city and industrial life of the community. It was during those early days that foundations were laid for some of the family fortunes which have developed since. John George Schairer was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, February 7, 1820, and with his step-father, John Jacob Jedele, and family came to America in 1836 locating in Ann Arbor. He soon decided that he wanted to take an active part in politics and realized that in order to do so he must become familiar with the English language. So he bought a spelling book and began the study of English words and their proper spelling. With persistence and diligence he mastered the language and later was determined that his children should have an education. On October 31, 1844, he was married in Scio Township to Miss Christina Magdalena Reuhle who was also from Wurtemberg. He was a maker by trade and established a fine business in Ann Arbor. The home was at 40 S. Ashley Street, now the heart of the business district. Here their twelve children were born and all but one lived to manhood and womanhood. Here they celebrated their 50 wedding anniversary and plans were under way to celebrate the 60th when on Labor Day of that year, Sept. 4, 1904, while returning from a picnic celebrating a reunion of the Allmendinger family, Mr. Schairer was killed at Lakeland by a train. Mrs. Schairer lived until September 13, 1907. Rather unusual it is that Rev. Schmid, who was the pastor who confirmed Mrs. Schairer, officiated at her marriage, christened her 12 children and officiated at the funeral of Martha Eva, the only one of the 12 who died before reaching maturity, was also the officiating clergyman at the first wedding in her little flock, that of Louise Henrietta to Chris. Reimold.

George Edward Schairer was born in Ann Arbor August 2, 1845, one of the 12 children of John George and Christina Schairer. He was educated in the Ann Arbor schools and on Feb. 15, 1872, married Miss Sophia Sorg, daughter of Fred and Juliana Sorg of Ann Arbor. She also was educated in the Ann Arbor schools. George Edward Schairer was a carriage and wagon maker and learned his trade in the Lawson and Wurster shop in Ann Arbor. After having learned the trade he went to Cleveland, then to Chicago, Ill., Charles Illinois, and on to Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, where he practiced his trade for three years; he then returned to Chicago and from there came to Saline in 1870 where he purchased the corner at the corner of Lewis Street and Michigan Avenue. This property then included the site now occupied by Herman Heininger and ran back on Lewis Street for some distance. The part of the Heininger farm implement building was the carriage shop. Here Mr. Schairer built fine carriages and surries and took great pride in doing his work well. Buyers of that day were as proud of their plush upholstered seats and canopy tops, sturdy bodies, striped wheels and fancy paint jobs as the present automobile buyers are of their streamlined autos.

Mr. Schairer employed several men to help in this work. Aaron Howard was a wagon-maker; Andrew Tuttle a painter; Charles Nellis, a trimmer; Lon Cain, a painter; a Mr. Johnson was the blacksmith; and Ard Lashier, a harness maker. Several of these men boarded in the Schairer home and to accomplish the necessary cooking, baking, and extra housework Mrs. Schairer had help.

One can imagine the hum and stir in the shop those days. How, for instance, the news was passed by word of mouth as workers greeted each other in the morning. Since horses and carriages were the means of transportation that business compared to the garages of today. From this shop fine wagons and carriages built to order were shipped not only in this state but to many states and to many places in the east. Four children were born to the Schairers; they were Edward Oscar, who is a retired army officer and lives in San Francisco; Otto Sorg, who is a graduate of the University of Michigan and lives in Bronsville, New York; Miss Eva Sophia, a graduate of Normal College at Ypsilanti and the University at Madison, Wisconsin, now professor of home economics at the University in Grand Forks, North Dakota; and Bertha Juliana, who is now Mrs. Fred Nissly of Ypsilanti. Mrs. Schairer died while her children were all small, having contracted lingering consumption. Following her death a widowed sister came to live in the family and mother the flock. Mr. Schairer never remarried but kept faithfully to his business, providing for his children and maintaining the home. Miss Bertha succeeded her aunt in homemaking for the family and her father until his death, July 2, 1915.

As the horse and buggy era gave way to the automobile, Mr. Schairer invented a stock and wagon rack which he patented and manufactured until he retired business. Recently an auction was held to dispose of the remaining family possessions after the children had each taken the pieces dearly prized by them. The house was sold to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kern of Bemis road. So after 70 years of sheltering one family, of welcoming a bride, echoing the first cries of baby lips, and watching those same babies slip from boyhood and girlhood to manhood and womanhood, of standing through storm and sunshine, of witnessing birth and death, the old home with its traditions and memories has passed into other hands to start anew a cycle of family history.

Among these were Peter Schairer, a brother of the groom and daughter, of Sebawaing, Michigan, William Steufer, D. C. Giffert and Mrs. Aaron Schairer, of West Point, Nebraska, and Mrs. John Schairer, of Clint, Texas, Mrs. Elizabeth Hirth, of Toledo, came up to extend congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Frey, of Scio, and Alfred, Elizabeth, Mattie, and Clara Schairer of the city were also among the guests. It was twelve o'clock when the family sat down to a bountiful dinner prepared by the old folks. There were nearly fifty in all present, consisting of the sons and daughters of the old folks, their husbands and wives and the grandchildren. The grandchildren united in presenting their grandfather with a beautiful gold-headed cane, and their grandmother with gold-mounted silk umbrella. The children gave their father a well-filled purse of gold. There were numerous other valuable presents. Mr. Geo. Schairer, of Saline, the oldest son was master of ceremonies and called for a number of toasts which were responded to in a very happy way. The day was a very pleasant one to all present and will never be forgotten. The Register wishes many returns of their wedding anniversary to the happy old people.

1215. Johann Peter¹⁰ Schairer (Anna Maria⁹ Pfeifle, Anna Katharina⁸ Frey, Johann Peter⁷, Andreas⁶, Georg⁵, Johannes⁴, Conrad³, Hans Cunrad², Jerg¹) was born 30 Aug 1822 in Durrweiler, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 03 Dec 1911 in Sebewaing Twp, Huron Co, Michigan. He married (1) Agatha (Agnes) Schmid 21 Jan 1845 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Johann Schmid and

Eva Pfeifle. She was born 18 Nov 1819 in Cresbach, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 05 Jan 1876 in Sebewaing Twp, Huron Co, Michigan. He married (2) Dorothea Layer 09 Jan 1877 in Sebewaing Twp, Huron Co, Michigan, daughter of Michael Layer. She was born 25 May 1836 in Steinbach, Wurtemberg, and died 06 Aug 1918 in Sebewaing Twp, Huron Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johann Peter Schairer:

Johann Peter Schairer was born in the Village of Durrweiler, Freudenstadt, Baden-Württemberg, Germany. He immigrated with 2 brothers (John and John George Schairer), 1 sister (Elizabeth Catharina Schairer Beck Jedele) 2 step-brothers (John Jacob Jedele and John Frederick Jedele) 1 step-sister (Anna Maria Jedele Spring), his mother (Anna Maria Pfeifle Schairer Jedele) and step-father (Johann Jacob Jedele), arriving in this country January, 1836 and in Ann Arbor, Michigan Territory, August 30, 1836. It took 47 days to cross the ocean. He was married to Agatha Schmid Jan 21, 1845 in Scio Township, Mi. Rev F Schmid (his cousin) officiating. Peter & Agatha were first cousins.

Pastor Schmid encouraged a group of young men of his Scio congregation to purchase land in Sebewaing, Michigan and form a separate church, one in keeping with his own philosophy. Peter had gone to Sebewaing to select the 160 acres deeded to him from the US on March 15, 1851 (the land was 2 miles southeast of the settlement.) A creek runs diagonally through the land and into the Sebewaing River. So, J Peter was among the young pioneers who moved to the Sebewaing wilderness in the fall of 1852. In the fall of 1852 Peter traveled with 6 other men. They drove two yokes of oxen, 14 cows, a steer, and dogs, and hauled their winter provisions, tools, and four pigs in a wagon. The trip took 6 days with nightly stops at Brighton, Fenton, Flint or Genesee, Birch Run and Watrousville, where the road ended. Then they hired a guide for five dollars to lead them through the woods to the Sebewaing settlement. In Sebewaing, they found virgin forests and swampy land once cleared and drained left rich soil. The woods had berries, nut and fruit trees, elk, deer, bear, rabbit, quail, partridge, wild turkeys and in the rivers plenty of fish. The men felled the trees to build the crude log cabins and stables with packed earth floors. Many settlers suffered from fever as much as a quarter of the year from the mosquitos. Soon, Peter bought more land. He now had 240 acres. After more settlers arrived, Schmid's followers called on Peters to help establish a church near their homes southeast of Sebewaing. New Salem's first service was held in 1853 at Peter and Agatha's home. After awhile the Schairer home could no longer accommodate the growing congregation. In 1854 the congregation bought 300 acres on Caro Road, about two miles south of the settlement and the first name on the deed was John Peter's. They named it New Salem in honor of their parent's congregation in Scio and elected Peter and 2 others to be the first church council. They soon built a log church and school (the original church site was located at the original cemetery site). As often as he could, Rev Schmid would come on horseback the 120 miles through the forests to preach to them.

At one time Peter was elected overseer of his highway district (corduroy roads). He was responsible for seeing that all male taxpayers contributed one half-days labor for each $100 of assessed valuation of property and that all voters contributed one day's labor as a poll tax. Peter was elected Supervisor for Sebewaing Township 1855, 1857, and 1866-68. Peter continued to be active in the affairs of New Salem Lutheran Church (later in his life). He served as a delegate to the synod meeting in 1892.

Half-brother John Frederick Jedele and his wife Dorothy bought 160 acres directly south of Peter's farm. Frederick was reported to be the first farmer in the area to own a team of horses, having walked back to Ann Arbor to buy them. Sometime in the early 1860's to 70's the J Peter Schairer family moved into the large farmhouse on Caro Road. The t-shaped farmhouse was of Ann Arbor's Greek Revival influence. In 1868 Peter's half-brother Frederick died of pneumonia at the age of 37, leaving Dorothea (Dorothy) with six children, the youngest one born one day after his father's funeral. Peter did all he could to help his sister-in-law. Dorothy's eldest son, Frederick age 10 was sent back to relatives in Ann Arbor to learn farming and returned at the age of 17 to work the land. Within one year the boy died of typhoid fever and Dorothy rented the farm until her two younger sons could take over. After a long illness, Agatha died. She was 56. After the traditional period of mourning, Peter married Dorothy, his half-brothers widow in Jan 9, 1877. She was 13 years younger than Peter. She bore him 3 children.

Peter ran a wagon dealership while living on the farm. Later in life one of Peter's eyes was gored by a bull. In 1884, Peter & Dorothy retired into the Village of Sebewaing and the homestead was divided among his three sons from his first marriage.

NEW SALEM LUTHERAN CHURCH - Sebewaing, Michigan - REV. G. A. SCHMELZER, Pastor

The very beginning of New Salem Lutheran congregation is traced to good old Washtenaw County. It was in the fall of 1852 when a few courageous young men, members of flourishing Lutheran congregations in Scio, Freedom, and Ann Arbor, set out from their fathers' home to find and establish for themselves new places of abode. These young men were Peter Schairer, John Baur, Ph. Schlemmer, John Strieter. The destination of their journey were the woods or forests near Sebewaing.

These men formed the nucleus of New Salem Lutheran Church, which was organized in autumn of 1853. Their number was increased by settlers coming from Ohio. Their names are: K. Zimmer, N. Zimmer, Frederick Armbruster, Math. Armbruster, Val. Wagner, Theob. Becker, Fr. Ziegler and others. Peter Schairer, John Baur and J. Strieter were elected members of first Church Council.

The newly organized congregation was given the name New Salem, commemorative to Evangelical Lutheran Salem congregation in Scio, of which a part of these men had formerly been members. Above all, however, the name was chosen to serve them as a continual remembrance of the New Jerusalem or New Salem above, the city fair and high, the goal of their earthly pilgrimage, where they expected to find sweet repose following their trials, temptations, and battles in this vale of tears.

Having no church structure, their divine services were held in private homes. Soon, however, they became convinced that unless a congregation has its own pastor, a congregation will not make headway. Bearing this in mind, the fathers of New Salem congregation petitioned Pastor Friedrich Schmid to provide for their spiritual need. The pioneer pastor of Michigan, though indeed a very busy man, gave ear to their urgent appeal. He bent his efforts to supplying them at least a few times during the year with the means of grace, until later they would have their own minister in their midst. Pastor Friedrich Schmid was helpful in securing the services of Christian Volz, pastor in Saginaw and missionary of Saginaw Valley, for New Salem congregation in Sebewaing. Pastor Christian Volz was followed by his brother, Pastor Conrad Volz, who served the congregation for over a year. In October, 1853, Pastor Fr. Nuffer became pastor of the congregation. He was the first resident pastor of the congregation. The members now built a log house for their pastor, also a log church.

Pastor Fr. Nuffer served the congregation for four years. At the close of his pastorate (1859) New Salem Congregation affiliated with Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Michigan, which at this time was organized in Monroe, Michigan. New Salem Congregation was ready and willing to become a member of this body because it was happy to find that Synod of Michigan believed, taught and confessed God's pure word.

Notes for Johannes (John) Schairer:

Mr. John Schrier, who resided near Dexter, was killed Saturday morning by a special train of cars. His horses were also killed and his wagon demolished. The deceased was an excellent German farmer and citizen about fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and eight children. The circumstances of the killing are as follows: About eleven o'clock Mr. Schrier, who was just returning from the Peninsular Mills with a grist, was surprised by a special through train from the west, which did not whistle or sound any alarm, but came rushing past the depot at a high rate of speed. A Freight train standing on the north side track entirely hid the coming train from view. When struck the horses were directly over the track, and were riddled by the concussion, throwing Mr. Schrier and his load laterally against the cars, smashing in his skull, but not otherwise mutilating him. An inquest was held, and the jury decided that the man came to his death by negligence of the Michigan Central Railroad.

Notes for Rev. Christian Frederick Spring:

Battle Creek, Sept. 3, 1995 - The Zion Lutheran Church traces its beginning to 1848 when the Rev. Frederick Schmid of Ann Arbor first came to serve 40 Lutheran families. He came to Marshall once every six weeks on his regular circuit through central Michigan. The Church was formally organized in 1856, and the old Trinity Episcopal Church on the present site was purchased in late 1857. The Church's first pastor was Rev. H. Spring.

An early Marshall pioneer, S. J. Burpee gave the congregation his old store building which was moved to the church property, and used as a school. By 1868, 160 students were enrolled in Sunday School, which was taught by eleven teachers. On October 2, 1900, the congregation decided to build the current church for a sum not to exceed $10,000, and it was to be known as the Zion Lutheran Church.

The cornerstone was laid on June 9, 1901, and the congregation had grown to 500 members. The Church was built largely through the efforts of Pastor Christopher Heidenreich who was called to serve the original building before on December 8, 1896. the construction of the Pastor Heidenreich educational wing in 1969. served the congregation for This tremendous project was nearly 50 years, before retiring in 1946. The current Pastor, Rev. Maurice G. Shackell has been with Zion Lutheran Church since 1976. Many additions and modifications were made to 1970. The woodwork in the Sanctuary is charming and enhances the beauty of the church interior. The altar, pulpit and pews are all made of beautiful oak.

Marshall, Feb. 22, 1970 - The congregation of Zion Lutheran Church today began marking the first of four weeks of dedication services denoting completion of the new educational-fellowship building and the rededication of the renovated church. Former pastors and church leaders are scheduled to speak at each of the Sunday dedication services March 1, March 8 and March 15. A fellowship dinner will be served at 5 p.m. today and at the same time during the following three Sundays. The dedication of the educational-fellowship building was to take place at 10:30 a.m. today. Guest speaker was to be the Rev. E. H. Hessler of Trinity Lutheran Church, Conklin. Evening speaker will be Donald Kell, assistant superintendent of Christian education for the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod of Michigan. Activities will close with a vesper service conducted by the Rev. H. H. Hasten, Zion pastor.

About 122 years have lapsed since the first church service for German Lutherans was held at the Calhoun County Court House and the dedication today of the new and refurbished facilities. The handsome educational wing affords an all-purpose room on the main floor, including a basketball, volleyball and shuffleboard area, plus a kitchen, a church office and pastor's study. The second floor contains a choir robing and music area, a large classroom and a balcony overlooking the main floor. In the lower level are 14 individual classrooms and a service area.

The church building, dedicated 69 years ago, has a "new look." The brick has been sandblasted and tuck-pointed and the framework painted. A new entrance has been added, including outside lights and a white steeple topped by a gold cross. New wiring and lights have been installed. There's a new floor in the nave, the pews have been refinished, and a new public address and radio broadcasting system added. The interior has been given a n extensive redecorating job. The Kilgen pipe organ that served the congregation for a half-century has been rebuilt and will continue to provide music for the services. An added new feature are the Calhoun County fieldstone bulletin board and accents at the entrances. The history of the Marshall congregation goes back to 1848 when the Rev. Frederick Schmid of Ann Arbor, armed with his Bible and liturgy, a blanket and a hatchet, traveled 70 miles every six weeks to conduct services here.

The church was organized in 1856 with the Rev. Christian H. Spring as first pastor. The following year, the congregation purchased the old frame former Trinity Episcopal Church then on the site of the present church. Someone donated an old store building which the church converted into a school, where classes were held six months out of the year to instruct children of the church in the German language and the doctrines of the church. In 1867 the congregation raised enough money to build a parsonage south of the church. By the late 1880's the old church was in need of extensive repair and remodeling to meet the needs of the growing congregation. Plans were launched to build the present church which was dedicated in December 1901.

The Rev. Christopher Heidenreich, then pastor of the church, officiated at the dedication ceremony. He served the church as pastor for 50 years before his retirement in 1946. A special service in his honor was held at the church on Feb. 21, 1954, two days before his 80th birthday anniversary. In 1934, the church became the place of ordination for his son, Herbert M. Heidenreich, when he entered the Lutheran ministry.

A son of the congregation. the Rev. Mr. Heidenreich, now pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Sturgis and counselor of the Sturgis Circuit, will be one of the guest speakers at the dedication services, Sunday, March 15. Another son, Theophil Heidenreich of Marshall, played the organ for church services for many years. The church celebrated its centennial on Sunday, March 25, 1956. There have been more than a dozen pastors serving the church since its organization over a century ago. The most recent is the Rev. H. H. Kasten, installed August 10, 1969. Remainder of the dedication services scheduled: Sunday, March 1, guest pastor will be the Rev. Marcus Buuck, who served here from 1946 to 1957. Evening speaker will be the Rev. Theodore Zeile, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Flint. Sunday, March 8. will be a folk service at 10:30 a.m. under the direction of the Concordia Swingers of Fort Wayne, Indiana. Morning speaker will be Capt. Kenneth Kuhlman of Ft. Knox, Kentucky. The Swingers will be featured in a hour-long program at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, March 15, the Rev. Theodore Taykowski, former pastor, will be guest speaker. Assisting him will be Prof. Roland Haas of Concordia Senior College, Fort Wayne, Ind. Guest speaker for the afternoon service will be the Rev. Herbert M. Heidenreich of Trinity Lutheran Church, Sturgis. Architect for the church was Christopher King of Vermontville.

Contractors were: F. J. Skidmore & Son, Inc., Battle Creek, general construction; Behnke and Sons, Inc., Charlotte, mechanical construction, and Union Electric, Inc., of Battle Creek, electrical work. Members of the building committee are William Crumrine, Alfred Church, Richard Embry, Paul Kiessling, William Knobbs, Clifton Eyre, Arthur Goodwin, James Buckenburger, Paul Noneman, Metro Berezonsky, Joseph Dobbertien, Milo Hess, Dr. Walter W. Heidenreich and Theophil Heidenreich.

Notes for Johannes (John Schlee) Schleh:

October 4, 1906 - Death has again entered our midst and claimed another of our honored and highly respected citizens who has been well and favorably known here for many years. John Schleh was born February 19, 1837, in Durweiler, Wuerttemberg, Germany. His parents were John Schleh and Regina, whose maiden name was Fry. His mother died when he was four years of age. In 1865 Mr. Schleh came to America and has since made Saline his home, living on the farm south-west of town until three years ago when he and Mrs. Schleh moved into the village. About a year ago signs of disease began to creep upon him and he has since been a patient sufferer until death came at an early hour Saturday morning.

November 12, 1869 he was married to Miss Sarae Katz, and this union was blessed with five children, four sons and one daughter. One son Frederick, met accidental death by getting into a horsepower at the age of 8 years. John was drowned at the age of 17. The other children Mrs. George Ehnis of Plymouth, and the two sons Chris and Carl of this place Survive him.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon October 1, 1906 at the Lutheran Church. Rev. C. A. Lederer officiated in German and Rev. C. A. Lederer Jr. of the Freedom church, in English. Besides the three children, a bereaved wife and eight grand-children survive him.

Johannes (John)¹⁰ Frey (Eva Maria⁹, Andreas⁸, Rosina⁷, Michael⁶, Nicolaus⁵, Johannes⁴, Nicolaus (Claus)³, Hans Cunrad², Jerg¹) was born 09 Aug 1847 in Huzenbach, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 05 Sep 1884 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Dorothea Barbara Stollsteimer 11 Feb 1873 in Washtenaw Co., Michigan, daughter of Johann Stollsteimer and Anna Pfeifle. She was born 01 Apr 1853 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 01 Sep 1885 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johannes (John) Frey:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan: together with sketches of its cities, villages and townships...and biographies of representative citizens: history of Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Northern Brewery - In 1872 George Krause built this brewery in the lower town of Ann Arbor, on Mill Street. He sold out to John and Fred Frey, and in 1873 Fred sold out his interest to his brother John, who has operated it since. Mr. Frey makes about 2,400 barrels of beer annually, and consumes about 5,000 bushels of grain and 4,000 lbs. of hops in the manufacture of this beverage. During 1880 he stored up about 1,000 tons of ice.

In 1872, George Krause bought the site for his brewery. He was attracted by its proximity to Traver Creek and to the natural springs nearby. Krause used the spring water to make his beer, and ice harvested from the creek to keep it cool. Krause sold his Northern Brewery to brothers John and Fred Frey. John bought out Fred and then sold the business to German-trained brewer Herman Hardinghaus in 1885. The next year Hardinghaus built a substantial two-story brewery - "a fine brick block," Samuel Beakes called it in his 1891 Portrait and Biographical Album. According to Beakes, in addition to beer Hardinghaus brewed "a superior quality of ale which he ships to different cities and towns."

Hardinghaus ran the brewery until it closed in 1908. Although there was no sign that heavily Germanic Ann Arbor had lost its taste for beer, many small brewers were folding then in the face of competition from regional and national brands. When Krause opened the brewery in 1872, there were five other breweries in Ann Arbor alone. By the time Hardinghaus closed it, only one other was left.

- 3316 i. Helene Maria¹¹ Klumpp, born 15 Apr 1902 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 05 Mar 1983 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Rudolph Michael (Butch) Gross 03 Aug 1931 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; born 15 Sep 1903 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 27 Mar 1990 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Helene Maria Klumpp:

An Open House Sunday at Pleasant Lake School win honor Helen Gross (Mrs. Rudolph Gross, of 7385 Noble Rd.), who retire this year (May 1962) after 41 of teaching. The Open House, for former students, fellow teachers, and friends, is scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m., at the school where Mrs. Gross has taught since 1953.

Mrs. Gross graduated from Saline High School in 1921. She taught for half a year at a school in Lima Township, and then went to Jedele school in Lodi Township for three years. She taught at Dold school in Lodi Township for 16 years School, then taught at Kuebler school in Freedom township for a year at Mooreville for a year, and then returned to Kuebler. Along the line in 1931 she graduated from Eastern Michigan. She got married that same year.

She always had time for outside activities, including her own orchestra, "Helen's Orchestra", to play at parties and square dances -- "I'm a fiddler, not a violinist," she says -- travel every summer that has so far taken her to 44 states, and gardening, indoors and out. Just last week, at a PTA function in her honor, she was presented with a floor planter for her famed African violets.

The 41 busy years have left many memories, including the fact that her starting salary was $85 a month, and there was wood to carry in and ashes to carry out, and the ink froze overnight in the winter. She remembers older ways of travel, when parents at Dold brought their children to school in bob sleighs, and she had to shovel her way home every night and out in the morning. "There hasn't been so much snow lately." She remembers the hayrides that were enjoyed by parents and students alike, at Kuebler school, and the many Christmas programs that brought families from miles around. She also recalls vividly a birthday surprise party that really was a surprise to her, at Pleasant Lake school in 1956.

Yes, teaching has changed a great deal, she believes. For one thing, "children have much more freedom now in the school room than they used to"; and "children used to walk to school Now they take busses". For another thing, there are more visiting teachers, these days -- to teach music, art, and even special reading.

She recalls the first school officers she met at each of her schools: at Jedelee, it was Albert Frey, George Bohnett and Mark Sweetland; at Dold, it was Lauren Stark, Reuben Bredernitz, Alfred Rentschler. At Kuebler, her first officers were Jake Bihlmeyer, Oscar Staebler, and Christ Kuebler; at Mooreville, Clarence Searfoss, Gus Grams, A. J. Turner; and at Pleasant Lake, Alton Horning, Roy Bihlmeyer, and Nathan Alber. By and large, they are all pleasant memories and she believes she'll "miss it, when fall comes". In fact, says Mrs. Gross, "I may do a little substitute teaching once in a while."

Helen (Klump) Gross (b. 15 Mar. 1902 Lodi Twp., Washtenaw Co., Michigan, d. there 5 Mar. 1983) of Lodi Township, Washtenaw County, was a retired teacher. She was the daughter of Jacob and Christina Klump who were themselves children of German immigrants. She learned to play from her father, and played for dances; in later years, she regularly played for them at the rod and gun club in Willis. Helen was an influential fiddler from Saline, Michigan. Helen played for dances from her youth and influenced other fiddlers in the area.

Helen M. Gross, 7385 Noble Road in Lodi Township, died March 5, 1983 at Saline Community Hospital. She was born April 15, 1902 at the above residence where she had lived her entire life, the daughter of Jacob and Tina Stierle Klump. On August 3, 1931, she married Rudolph (Butch) Gross in Ann Arbor; he survives. Mrs. Gross was a member of St. Paul United Church of Christ and the Ladies Fellowship of the church, the Saline Woman's Club, the Saline Hospital Auxiliary, the Washtenaw Farm Bureau, the Ann Arbor Senior Citizens, the Saline Senior Citizens, the National Retired Teachers Association, the M.R.T.A., and the M.E.A. She taught school in Washtenaw County for more than 40 years. Mrs. Gross enjoyed music and was a musician for many years. She is survived by her husband, Rudolph; one uncle and cousin.

Funeral services were held Monday at Bahnmiller Funeral Home with Rev. Ronald Boldman officiating. Burial followed in Lodi Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Paul United Church of Christ Building Fund or the Michigan Heart Association.

Notes for Raymond George Klumpp:

A devastating fire at the Raymond Klumpp residence located north and west of Bridgewater on Weber Road required services of both the Saline and Manchester fire departments. Wednesday morning March 15, 1950 at approximately nine o'clock Mrs. Paul Heiber, who was driving her children to school, noticed smoke billowing from the roof of the Klumpp residence. She immediately notified her husband, who called the Saline Fire Department. Mrs. Klumpp was at work and Mr. Klumpp, returning from the ham after having done his morning chores, observed the fire. There was no one in the house at the time the fire started. The Manchester Fire Department was called and arrived just in the nick of time with added chemicals to aid in extinguishing the blaze. The majority of household furnishings were removed. It is thought the fire was caused by sparks from the chimney. Damage was estimated at between four and five thousand dollars. The farm is owned by George Weber.

Marriage Notes for Raymond Klumpp and Lorena Hack:

The marriage of Miss Lorena Hack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Hack of Lodi, and Raymond Klumpp, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Klumpp of Lodi, took place at an impressive ring ceremony on Saturday, June 29, 1935, at the bride's home. The marriage service was performed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon with Rev. Adolf Lederer, Evangelical Lutheran pastor of Saline, officiating.

The bridal party descended the stairs as Miss Mildred Hoeft, cousin of the bride, played the Lohengrin wedding march. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white satin fashioned with a cowl necklace and long tight sleeves and extended train. White pearls across the front with orange blossoms at either side of her head held the bride's cap in place. Her finger-tip veil fell in graceful folds about her shoulders. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses, snapdragons and swansonias. Dozens of white and pink peonies against a background and extended sides of evergreens, with small evergreen trees on either side, made a lovely background for the nuptials in the sun room. Assorted bouquets of roses, snap-dragons, fox-gloves, peonies and delphinium gave the remaining rooms their lovely attraction.

The bridesmaid, Miss Sylvia Klumpp, sister of the groom, was gowned in a pink georgette dress with a high neck line and full elbow length sleeves. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and blue delphiniums. Leon Hack, brother of the bride, performed the duties of best man. Two beautiful flower girls, Marjorie Noble and Corine Kinsley, cousins of the bride, added a lovely attraction to the bridal party. Their frocks were of white organdie trimmed in pink, wearing hair ribbons to match. They carried colonial bouquets consisting of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a two-course wedding supper was served to eighty guests. The bride's table was centered with a large white ring cake holding a small ornament in the center. White candles burned in silver holders on the table while two bouquets of white roses on either side added the remaining attraction. The other table was also decorated with candles and bouquets of flowers. On their return from a trip through the east, Mr. and Mrs. Klumpp will reside in Lodi.

Notes for Johannes (John) Bruestle:

Mr. and Mrs. John Bruestle of 112 S. Macomb St., Manchester, will be honored at a family dinner Sunday Dec. 8, 1963 in observance of their 60th wedding anniversary. They have lived in Manchester since June, 1952; prior to that their home for many years was on Sharon Hallow Rd. in Sharon Township. Mrs. Bruestle is the former Emma Klumpp, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Klumpp. She and Mr. Bruestle were married Dec. 9, 193, at the parsonage of St. John's United Chinch of Christ, at Francisco, by the Rev. Jacob Gruber. For a time after their marriage they lived in Chelsea while Mr. Bruestle worked at the old Glazier Stove Works. Mrs. Bruestle was 80 years old on Sept. 11; her husband was 87 years old on Oct. 15. He was born in Bridgewater Township and both he and Mrs. Bruestle have always lived in this vicinity. They are members of Emanuel United Church of Christ at Manchester and their pastor and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Kiether, have been invited to attend Sunday's dinner.

The couple's two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bruestle of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bruestle of Ann Arbor, and their twin daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Haist (Ethel) and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Slane (Edith), will be present, Sunday. The Bruestles' family, in addition to those who will attend the dinner Sunday, are eight grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Ethel's (Bruestle-Haist) Stories....

The history of mother and father, John and Emma Bruestle. My father was born in 1876 and died in 1966. Mother was born in 1883 and died in 1976. They were married on December 9, 1903. They lived in downtown Chelsea on South Main Street for about 4 years while my father worked in the stove factory. Then they moved to a small farm in Sharon Township and father worked for another farmer. A short time after that they moved to the Bruestle Homestead. They had 2 sons, Emil and Harold and twin daughters Edith and Ethel. Emil was born in 1904, and Harold in 1906. Edith and Ethel were born in 1908. We had a younger sister who was born in 1914 and died in 1938.

Our farm had eighty acres, which was enough to farm. With the horses and the tools they had at that time, it wasn't very much. There were quite a few hills on the land. There was a pond in the middle of a large field where Edith and I used to go frogging a lot. We ate quite a few and they sure were good eating. We all helped our father with the hay. He would rake it and we would bunch it and my mother would mow it away. Mother had her hands full. We always had seven at the table at all times. Then she did the neighbors washing all by hand and also had a big wash for herself.

In 1917 we built a new house. We had to keep the carpenters at night besides funding them all the time. We moved into the house in 1917. Grandma and Grandpa helped us. Harold and mother were awful sick with the flu. It wasn't very long after that that Grandpa George Klumpp had a heart attack and died. Grandma Louise Klumpp came and lived with us for seven years, which we enjoyed very much.

We all really loved our mother and father. They were both good to us and we got most anything we wanted even if the times were hard. The best thing we got was to go Sunday school and Church, although we had to walk two miles to get there. Our mother was the organist and our father was the janitor of the church. We didn't miss much Sunday school.

Mother and father sold their farm; they couldn't keep on working anymore because of their age and health. They got a house in Manchester on Macomb Street where they were able to celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary. We were all able to be there and celebrate with them. Our parents really meant a lot to us. We couldn't have had better parents. Thank the Lord for that. (The children; Emil and Harold, Edith and Ethel and Alma.)

Notes for Friedrich (Brickyard) Schaible:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881. Page 1350:

Fred Schaible, farmer and brick manufacturer, of Manchester, was born in Wurtemberg, Germany in 1839, where his father still resides. When 21 years of age he came to America to escape military service. He proceeded to Ann Arbor, Michigan, where he had a brother living. Very soon after he went to Freedom Township, where he worked for four years. He then purchased 40 acres of land, and in 1867 sold it, and bought 160 acres northwest of Manchester. He at once opened a brick-yard, which he still owns, but is a present operated by other parties. He still resides on his farm. In 1880 he was appointed County Drain Commissioner. Mr. Schaible is a member of the Lutheran Church, and of the A.O.U.W. IN 1866 he married Katherine Kuepler, of Lodi Township, a native of Wurtemberg. They have 3 daughters and 4 sons.

Notes for Maria Sophia Buss:

The angel of death has again reproved a lifelong resident of Washtenaw County. Mary Buss was born in Freedom on May 18, 1843. She was married to Christian Bohnett May 7, 1867, and to this union three children were born, George Bohnett of Lodi, Mrs. Clara Fritz of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Martin Schaible of York. Her husband passed away eight years ago. She spent four years on the farm and with her daughter in Ann Arbor, and the past four years with Mrs. Schaible. She had been in poor health and a great sufferer with Bright's disease for the past year, although she was confined to her bed only a week, always hearing her afflictions with the utmost patience. She passed away Thursday evening, March 11, 1915.

Besides the three children Mrs. Bohnett left several grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, grandmother, friend and neighbor. She endeared herself to all by her kind, and loving, disposition. Short services-were held at the home of Mrs. Schaible at 9 a. m, Sunday by Rev. Lederer, followed by a funeral services and burial at Scio, Rev. Thrum officiating.

Notes for Johann Georg Bohnett:

John G. Bohnett, 86, chief of the Battle Creek fire department for 11 years from 1881 to 1892 and a veteran of the Civil War, died Saturday night March 19, 1932 in the St. Lawrence hospital of Lansing after an illness of six weeks. Mr. Bohnett left Battle Creek about 21 years ago and since then has lived in Lansing and Mason. For the last seven years he has made his home at Mason.

Chief W. P. Weeks succeeded Mr. Bohnett as chief of the local department in 1892. During the time Mr. Bohnett was chief Mr. Weeks was assistant chief. Former Chief Bohnett was regarded highly by the members of the department during the time he was in charge. It was during Chief Bohnett's time that the city's firemen were first given pay for their work. He organized the first paid company of firemen in Battle Creek and also instituted horse drawn fire wagons in place of the hand drawn apparatus.

When Mr. Bohnett was appointed chief all of the city's firemen were volunteers, serving without pay. The fire department then was located in the city hall on the site of the Old-Merchants bank tower and whenever there was a fire the bell rang to summon the volunteers. After leaving the service of the fire department in 1892 Mr. Bohnett made his home at Lansing where he served for several years as a guide in the Capitol building. About 10 years ago his health began to fall and he became janitor in one of the state buildings. Seven years ago he was forced to give up his work and retired to Mason where he spent the rest of his life. He attended the community dinner given for Chief Weeks on his fiftieth year with the department. Mr. Bohnett was the only living charter member of Farragut post, B3, G. A. R. Each Memorial Day he came to Battle Creek to take part in services as one of the city's few remaining Civil war veterans. Mr. Bohnett marched with General Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. After the Civil war he returned to Battle Creek and was appointed chief of the fire department in 1881. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. number 29.

Members of the local fire department will serve as pallbearers at his funeral to be held in Mason at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. He will be buried in Oak Hill cemetery. There will be a prayer service at the grave at 1 o'clock, with a burial squad from the Legion post at Mason in attendance. The pallbearers will be Chief Weeks, Assistant Chiefs G. W. Collins and A. J. Burrows, Captains W. B. Johnson and R. W. Garrison, and Alex Rosenjack, master mechanic. Other members of the fire department who will attend the funeral are Captains W. W. Watkins and John Bryant, R. W. Hess, A. J. Huff, C. S. Owen and F. S. Towsley.

Mr. Bohnett is survived by one daughter, Mrs. DeWitt Coone, 201 Main, and a son, William R. Bohnett of Chicago. He also leaves two sisters in Ann Arbor, a brother in California, five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Members of the Battle Creek fire department, local I. O. O. F. lodge and the Mason post of the American Legion were present at the burial service Tuesday afternoon for John G. Bohnett, one-time chief of the fire department, at Oak Hill cemetery. The American Legion firing squad of Mason had intended to fire a salute over the grave of Mr. Bohnett but was unable to make the trip because of the heavy snow. Funeral services for Mr. Bohnett were held at the Ball funeral home at Mason in the morning. Members of the Battle Creek fire department were pallbearers. They were: Chief Weeks, Assistant Chiefs G. W. Collins and A. J. Burrows, Captains W. B. Johnston and R. W. Garrison, and Alex Rosenjack, master mechanic. Other members of the local department who attended the services were Captains W. W. Watkins and John Bryant, R. W. Hess, A. J. Huff, C. S. Owen and F. S. Towsley. Mr. Bohnett was chief of the local department from 1881 to 1892. He was succeeded by Chief Weeks.

Lansing - Death removed another Civil war veteran from Michigan's dwindling ranks when John George Bohnet, 86, died at his home in Mason about 7 o'clock Saturday night March 19, 1932. Mr. Bohnet, resident of Ingham County for 40 years or more, served the state of Michigan for 28 years and was a resident of Lansing during this service. Mr. Bohnet was born in Washtenaw County on September 11, 1845. When a young man he enlisted for service with the Union army. He was mustered into Company C, 28th Michigan Infantry. After the war Mr. Bohnet went to Battle Creek and became Battle Creek's chief of the fire department later. He served in this capacity for 14 years. Mr. Bohnet was appointed to a state job and gave up his position with the Battle Creek fire department. Seven years ago the aging man left the state's service and went to Mason to live.

Death Saturday night was due to infirmities of old age. Besides the widow, Mr. Bohnet leaves a son, William, of Chicago, and a daughter, Mrs. Dewitt Coon, Battle Creek.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday forenoon at 10 o'clock at Mason. Battle Creek fire department will send six pallbearers who will accompany the body from Mason to Battle Creek where interment will be made. The American Legion of Mason will also send a bugler and firing squad who will perform the military services the grave. Mr. Bohnet was a member of Charles T. Foster Post, G. A. R., this city. None of his old comrades of the post, however, is physically able to go to Battle Creek.

After the death of his father in 1858, he lived with and was raised by Ulrich & Regina Laubengayer's of Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. Then in about 1870, when he was about 23 years old, he moved to California. He purchased a ranch from John Baker in 1876. In 1890, he purchased another 48 acres in Santa Clara Co, California, where he planted the entire ranch to fruit bearing trees; prunes, apricots, cherries. His farm was known as the 'Orange Grove Farm' because of the groves of orange trees in front of the white farm house.

He was one of the pioneers in the apricot and prune drying industry. In 1919, Joseph built a bungalow on his ranch for himself and Floyd, his son, moved into the old family home. After his retirement, he carved small wooden horses, and played the harmonica and developed his own one man band. Joseph was a republican, charter member of Orchard City Grange & Master of the organization for two years.

He served as trustee of the Cambrian School District for 30 years. In 1936, the Cambrian District near Campbell, California named the Elementary School 'Joseph Bohnett Elementary School', in honor of his many years of service to the School District.

The loss is estimated at $3,000, and there are insurances of $750 on the house and $350 on the furniture in the Washtenaw German Insurance Company.

- Notes for Ezra Herman Bohnett:
Ezra Herman Bohnett, was a very quit and hard working person. He never talked about his past and never said a bad word about anybody. He was a small man, Height about 5'4", weight about 150 #. He served in the US Marine Corps in 1921 and he never married. Ezra finally started working for the Eaton Rapids Hospital and after 43 years of service, he retired in 1977. He also served many years on board of the First Baptist Church of Eaton Rapids. Edward B. McRee, President of Ingham Medical Center (Lansing, Michigan), sums up Ezra's life and as a person, in the article he wrote for the Eaton Rapids Hospital newsletter.
- He made a Difference: Ezra Bohnett, (abt. 1984) "He bends over a bit as he walks, and yet every day he plods the length of Main Street. While his head is bent and he seldom looks up or down, if you meet him, he will greet you in the strong and vigorous voice which gives you some idea of the hearty soul that's within. He's seen by scores of eyes daily and most likely is thought to be just another workman, and few probably give much thought beyond a mere glance. But he deserves much more than the quick look and passing afterthought, for he is a grand contributor to this community. He's much more than just the name, Ezra Bohnett, who spent his life caring for the looking after the physical plant which has sheltered the birthing and the dying of a large segment of this population, as well as the healing and mending of even greater numbers. He represents a way of life, a way of thinking, which benefits all of us, and over many, many years has contributed immeasurably to the wellbeing of this city.
- For me, he was a splendid example of dedication, as he rose in the wee hours of every day to begin the careful polishing of the hospital corridors in order to have them immaculate and shining when morning activity began. He cared about everything that concerned the hospital, and it was from him that I learned a spark of patience, and a bit of endurance as he placidly carried out the myriad tasks, which were required to ensure that all would function well in this building, which protected so many.
- Because he cared, nothing was too hard or too burdensome for him to undertake. The hours were long and arduous, the demands frequently exasperating. Some of the tasks were endlessly repetitive, and certainly uninteresting. But there was a toughness about him that demanded his all, and to this day his walks down Main Street are stridently laced with this vigor which I'm confident will never disappear.

How grandly he persevered. Today in retirement, he lives in quiet obscurity. But how encouraged I am for having known him! "

Burial was made in the Oakdale Cemetery. Elizabeth KREITMANN was born to Fred KREITMANN and Mary SHRADE KREITMANN at Plymouth, Massachusetts on February 2, 1854. When a small child she moved with her parents to Aurora, Illinois. Later the family moved to a farm near Newton, Iowa. On November 11, 1877 she was married to Charles OFE at Newton where they continued to live for about seven years. They moved to Madison, Nebraska and then to Creston, Nebraska, living there for about 16 years. In 1903 they purchased a farm in St Clair Valley and in 1908 moved to a small farm just outside Oakdale. Notes for Charles Ofe:

Obituary-The Oakdale Sentinel-August 3, 1923

Charles OFE was born in Macklanburg, Germany, August 4, 1856, and came to America at the age of 17 years and located on a farm near Kellogg, Iowa. He was married to Miss Elizabeth KREITMANN of Newton, Iowa, August 1, 1878. The early years of their married life was spent on a farm in Iowa, near Newton. Here three of their children were born. They came to Creston, Nebraska, where they remained for sixteen years and where the other children were born. They next moved to St Clair Valley, Antelope County, where Mr. OFE bought a farm. For five years they lived in this beautiful valley when in order to give their children better school advantages, they bought the Jones farm, one-half mile northeast of Oakdale, where they have since lived. Mr. OFE had been ailing for a long time and during the past year his friends had noticed his rapid failure. Last Thursday, July 26, 1923, being no worse than usual, he ate a hearty dinner and lay down on the couch to rest but passed away so quietly that his departure was unnoticed by those about the house.

Besides his wife, there remain seven children; Herman, Charles, Albert, Mary, and Clara, all of Oakdale, George of Casper, WY, Frank of Norfolk. He is survived also by two brothers, H. L. OFE of Oakdale and Henry OFE of Plattsmouth. Mr. OFE's parents were Lutherans and their son Charles was reared in that faith. He was baptized in infancy, confirmed at the age of 14 years and adhered to that Church all his life. As a citizen he held high rank and his relations with his fellow man were always honorable. He was devoted to his home and family his wise counsel and guiding hand will be sorely missed. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, July 29, at the home, conducted by Rev. C. L. MEYERS, and interment was made in the Oakdale Cemetery. The attendance was large, many old friends and neighbors coming from a distance.

Abridged Obituary - The Oakdale Sentinel, Thursday, January 31, 1946

The news of the sudden death of Miss Clara OFE early Saturday morning came as a shock to this community. Although she had been in poor health for quite some time, nevertheless it was not expected that the end was so near. She was suddenly stricken with pneumonia and together with heart trouble the struggle for life was an unequal one. Clara Elizabeth OFE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles OFE, was born on a farm southeast of Madison, Nebraska, on September 23, 1885, and passed away early Saturday morning, January 26, 1946, at her home near Oakdale at the age of sixty years, four months and three days. She moved from, Madison with her parents to Creston, Nebraska, where she resided for sixteen years. In 1903 the family moved to the Oakdale vicinity, locating on a farm south of Oakdale, at which place she resided for five years and then moved to her present home at Oakdale. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and had served as treasurer of that organization for many years in a most efficient manner. She was a faithful member, always ready to assume her part, and the vacancy in the Auxiliary caused by her death will bring much sadness to the organization. She was also a member of the Birthday Club which she enjoyed so much and will be greatly missed by those members. Clara's failing health compelled her to give up many of the things she desired to accomplish. She was a woman of excellent character, esteemed and respected because of her amiable traits; retiring in her disposition and kindly in her manner toward others. But it is in the home circle of brothers and sister where her absence will be felt the keenest. The kind and sympathetic understanding of her brothers was a source of much happiness. Her father and mother having preceded her in death, she leaves to mourn her death one sister, Mary OFE and brothers Herman OFE, Charles OFE, Albert OFE and George OFE all of Oakdale, Frank OFE of Des Moines, Iowa; also two nephews, one niece and one great-niece and many friends. Rev. Dawson J. PARK conducted funeral services Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church. Burial was made in the Oakdale Cemetery, the American Legion Auxiliary having charge of services at the grave.

- 3831 v. Albert Ofe, born 01 Mar 1888 in Creston, Platte Co, Nebraska; died 29 Dec 1962 in Tilden, Nebraska.

2370. Emmanuel (Edward)¹¹ Schmid (Friedrich¹⁰, Anna Katharina⁹ Pfeifle, Anna Katharina⁸ Frey, Johann Peter⁷, Andreas⁶, Georg⁵, Johannes⁴, Conrad³, Hans Cunrad², Jerg¹) was born 03 Jul 1835 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 28 Dec 1897. He married Wilhelmina Schmidt 28 Dec 1858. She was born 1839 in Ohio, and died 1884.

Notes for Emmanuel (Edward) Schmid:

American Lutheran biographies: or, Historical notices of over three hundred and fifty Leading Men of the American Lutheran Church. By Rev. Jens Christian Jensson; in 1890. Page 669:

Rev. Prof. Emmanuel Schmid was born July 3rd, 1835, at Ann Arbor, Michigan, then a small hamlet of a few hundred inhabitants, with Indian camps in the neighborhood. Wakening to life just previous to the anniversary of our national day, while Michigan was yet a territory (became a state, 1837). Prof. Schmid appears from early childhood to have been associated with the religious and intellectual growth and development of our country. His father, Rev. Friedrich Schmid, accompanied by his wife, Louisa, planted the Lutheran Church in that wilderness frontier, and for many years he was the only Lutheran minister in Michigan. Emmanuel Schmid made frequent trips with him to the scattered and lonely settlements of German Lutherans, through a large portion of the state; now and then also visiting the Indians. From earliest youth, he had the purpose to become a minister, and these missionary tours increased this desire.

After having attended the common school, and part of the year the parochial, and then the academy, with also the privilege of enjoying private instructions in Latin and Greek, he entered as freshman the University of Michigan in 1851, receiving three years after the honorary degree of A. M. A few months after graduating, in August, 1855, he left for Germany to study theology. Again the name of Schmid appears as pioneer, but this time eastward. In that comparatively early period of the development of the center of our continent, attendants at German Universities from this so called western country, were not often met with, and many frontier log houses were to be passed in going to reach those old, densely populated and ornate seats of European culture. While the starry lamp of empire was moving westward, it proved necessary with many to return, as it were, to the fountain source, for a new supply of oil. He entered the University of Tuebingen, where there were then prominent as Theological Professors Palmer, Beck, Landerer, Oehler and Baur.

After spending three "semesters" at Tuebingen, he went to Erlangen, where many theological students at that time congregated, to hear such men as Hofmann, Delitzsch, Schmid, Thomasius and Zetzschw. The vacations were spent in traveling through a large portion of Germany, Switzerland, France, and Italy.

In the later part of 1857, he returned to America, with the intention of entering the ministry. At first he assisted his father in his extensive field of labor in Michigan. A few months after his return, he received a call to Columbus, O. This was a two-fold one: as Professor of Latin and Greek in "Capital University" of the Lutheran Joint Synod of Ohio, and as pastor of a small English Lutheran congregation in Columbus. He accepted both calls, and at Easter, 1858, moved to Columbus. He was married the same year to Wilhelmine C., youngest daughter of Rev. Prof. W. Schmidt, the first professor and founder of the Theological Seminary in Columbus. His wife died in 1884, leaving two daughters. He suffered greatly from withdrawals of pastors and churches from the Synod because of its too Lutheran character. These went to the United Synod of the West! Not less was he distressed and embarrassed by the withdrawal of others to the Missouri Synod, to whom his Synod was not sufficiently Lutheran. Even the missionaries he had trained for the Indian mission among the Chippewas, were carried away by the last movement, taking, we believe, both the Indian and the German congregations with them.

Soon after the arrival of Emmanuel Schmid in Columbus, he also took charge of a German congregation in Grove City nearby. After serving these congregations some years, he resigned their charge and accepted the call of another congregation (English and German) seven miles from Columbus, which he has served twenty-eight years, and of which he is now pastor. As professor, he has now, without interruption, been connected with "Capital University" nearly thirty-three years. For twenty-two years he taught the languages and history, then of the languages a few years only Greek. Since 1883, his labors have been confined to lectures on Universal History. Since 1863 he has also filled the office of Secretary of the Faculty continuously to this day. When the Joint Synod in 1859 resolved to publish a German paper, The Lutherische Kirchen-Zeitung, he was appointed associate editor with Prof. Lehmann. The department edited by Prof. Schmid was that of Church News, and it is yet, after thirty-one years. During all this time he has enjoyed the blessing of good health, so that not a single number of the periodical has appeared without some news published by him. Of "Luther's House Postil," published in English by the Rev. J. A. Schulze, he translated the first volume and the greater part of the second. During his connection with the "Ohio Synod," he has held for thirteen years the office of president of the "Western District," and holds it at the present time.

It will be observed that a special feature of the life of Prof. Schmid is the continuousness of his occupancy of the positions he has held.

Notes for Rev. Christian Volz:

Lansing, Nov. 26, 1955 - The colorful history of the beginning of Lutheranism in the city more than 100 years ago, will be reviewed Sunday in a "Founder Day" observance at Emanuel First Lutheran church. The day's services will climax the month-long centennial observance of the oldest Lutheran organization in the city. Rev. Oscar J. Naumann, St. Paul, Minnesota, president of the Evangelical Lutheran Joint Synod of Wisconsin and other states, will speak at both the German service at 9:30 a. m. and the English service at 11 a.m. Special music will be under the direction of Victor J. Schulz. The senior choir will sing "Psalm VIII," by Warner, and the combined senior and junior choirs will offer "Praise the Lord, Ye Heavens, Adore Him," by Pritchard.

The history of the Emanuel church dates back to 1853, when a small band of German Lutheran families, who had migrated to Lansing, wishing to continue worship in their mother tongue, met and held services in the various homes. Worship also was held for a time in the North Lansing school.

In 1855 under the direction of Rev. Frederick Schmid, the pioneer Lutheran pastor of Michigan, the 52 families organized the first Lutheran church in the city. Mr. Schmid had previously organized the first Lutheran congregation in the state in Scio Township, west of Ann Arbor in 1833.

Rev. Christian Volz became the first regular pastor, serving the organization from 1855 to 1857. Other pastors who have served the church were: Adam Buerkle, 1857-1866; John Her, 1866-1869; Robert Conrad, 1870-1873; Louis Zuber, 1873-1876; John Eipperle, 1876-1889; William Kramer, 1889-1909; Frederick M. Krauss, 1909-1941; and the present pastor Karl F. Krauss, serving since 1921. Leonard J. Koeninger, co-pastor, was appointed in 1933. The early pastors also served congregations in Westphalia Township, Woodland, and Grand Ledge. The first parsonage was erected in 1867 and remained in use until 1912. A day school was erected in 1868. The school was discontinued in 1927.

In 1884, the congregation had grown to the extent that it was necessary to enlarge the church by 30 feet. A teacherage was erected in 1902, and is being used today as the custodian's residence. In 1912 steps were taken toward the erection of a new church edifice. Property was acquired at the present location, N. Capitol Ave. at Kilborn St., and construction on the new brick church was started in 1915. The building was dedicated in November, 1916. Two parsonages were erected in 1922, and a new altar was installed in the church in 1929.

Additional property north of the church was acquired in 1944 and 1931, for the purpose of erecting a new parish house. The Centennial hall was dedicated in 1953. Another parsonage also has been acquired this year by the group. From 52 families in 1855, the congregation has grown to 851 families in 1955, and from a little frame church to a large attractive church, four dwellings and a modern parish house.

American Lutheran biographies: or, Historical notices of over three hundred and fifty Leading Men of the American Lutheran Church. By Rev. Jens Christian Jenson; in 1890. Page 819:

Rev. Christian Volz. Pastor Christian Volz was born at Walddorf, in Wurtemberg, on the 29th of September, 1826. At the age of fifteen he entered the Teachers' Seminary at Esslingen. Later he became tutor at a deaf and dumb institute. In 1852 he came to Ann Arbor, Michigan. Rev. Fried. Schmidt, whose kind hospitality he received, advised him to enter the ministry. After his ordination he served several congregations in Michigan. In 1857 he received a call from the St. John's Church in Buffalo, where Pastor Gunther had labored for more than twenty-four years. At the meeting of the Ministerium at Utica, in 1857, Pastor Volz was made a member of the northern district of the Ohio Synod.

His congregation numbered at this time, over a thousand communicants. His heart beat warmly on behalf of the orphans and their Christian training. He was deeply interested in education. He sent hundreds of dollars to Columbus, Ohio, for the support of the Capital University of the Ohio Synod, and in this he followed the example of Dr. Stohlmann. He regularly gathered alms for the Orphan Asylum, at Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. Finally he conceived the idea of establishing such an institution himself. At this he made a beginning in 1864. On Sunday Latare, after having preached a sermon on the feeding of the five thousand, he announced to his congregation his purpose of establishing such an institution to the honor of God and the relief of poor orphans. As one man, the congregation seconded his noble project. For this purpose, the house of the sainted Pastor Gunther was bought for $2,000. After having enlarged and remodeled the building, it was appropriately dedicated as an Orphan Home, on the 9th of May, 1865. The Lord prospered the work, and through the kindness of charitable people, the sum of $3,716.14 was donated to the Home, besides considerable furniture and such like. Notwithstanding these liberal contributions, there was a debt of $1,541.42 resting upon the institution at its dedication. But "what is that among so many friends of the orphans"; thus argued the founder and first director of the Orphan Home, Pastor Volz, at the dedication service.

At the first anniversary there had already been received thirteen children into the Home. It was a day of thanksgiving and joy, because of the manifest help of the Lord, who had so abundantly prospered the work. Not only had the debt been paid, but a surplus of $3,042.81 had been received. In 1867 the number of orphans had risen to 27. Notwithstanding the number of children which was constantly increased, the treasury contained at the end of this year, a surplus of $3,986.70. It now became necessary to enlarge the Orphan Home. During the fourth year the number of children rose to thirty-seven. It was during this year, that the property at Sulphur Springs, New York, was added to the institution. At the fourth anniversary, which was celebrated on June 27th, 1869, a large number of people from far and near partook in the festivities, of which a prominent feature was the dedication of the Orphan Home for Boys, at Sulphur Springs. In 1871 the Orphan Home had to be enlarged. The addition was built of brick, while the old was a frame-building. In 1876 the Orphans' Home at Sulphur Springs was destroyed by fire. But this did not discourage Pastor Volz and his co-laborers. A new, beautiful, and massive building was immediately erected in the neighborhood of where the old building had stood. In 1879 Pastor Volz lost his much esteemed co-laborers, Mrs. Louise Adelberg, who had acted as matron of the Orphan House for nearly ten years, the being called to the Deaconess Institute at Baiern. This year the number of children amounted to ninety-five. With characteristic perseverance and Christian devotion, Pastor Volz discharged his ever augmenting labors. Besides the supervision of his two Orphan Homes and the numerous cares connected with them, he faithfully ministered to a congregation of over two thousand communicants. During the twenty-seven years of his pastorate, he baptized 6,702, confirmed 3,034, administered communion to 49,971, married 1,675, and buried 2,929.

On Sunday, November 11th, 1883, he preached with unusual cheerfulness, it being the four-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Dr. M. Luther. On Wednesday evening, November 14th, he attended a meeting of the directors of his Orphan Home for Girls, when he was suddenly taken ill and died. Pastor Volz was married in 1856 to Miss Louise Schmidt, daughter of Pastor Fried. Schmidt of Ann Arbor, with whom he had three daughters. At his death he was fifty-seven years, one month and sixteen days old. His congregation erected a full-sized marble statue on his grave, which was unveiled with appropriate ceremonies, at the meeting of the Synod, at Buffalo, in 1885.—Nieum's History.

Evangelical Lutheran St. John's Congregation - In addition to the detailed history of the origin of the above name congregation which is found in another part of this book, the following may be said:

In the year 1897 the congregation purchased a magnificent Pipe-organ consisting of three manuals at a cost of $4,000.00. The twenty-fifth anniversary of the dedication of the present church was celebrated in the year 1900. At this time the interior of the church was handsomely frescoed, new stained glass windows, which with but a few exceptions were presentations of families in memory of their departed ones, were placed; electric lights put in and the exterior received a suitable coat of painting, so that it compares favorably with the many beautiful churches of our city, and bears testimony of the benevolence and christian spirit of the congregation. A stately brick parsonage was erected in 1900. This building is directly opposite the church and school on Hickory Street. The school was built in 1888, in which the various societies have their rooms. The present officers of the church are: President, Rev. J.A.W. Kirsch; F. Kandel (deceased), J.J. Haffa and F. Hause as Elders; P. Ihrig, A. Allinger and J. Vogelmann as Wardens; C. Flierl, Jr., G.A. Herner, F. Erion, J. Hoeckh, Geo. Flierl and C. Mueller as Trustees.

The corner-stone of the present church edifice was laid in the year 1874, and in the month of October of the following year the church was solemnly dedicated. At this time the conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Ministry of the State of New York and adjoining states was held in the church. And at the twenty-fifth anniversary of the dedication of the present church the congregation again had the privilege of entertaining this conference. The church was built under the pastorate of Rev. Christian Volz and is a splendid testimony of his successful activity, as the old church, which formerly occupied the space next to the present one and which was replaced in 1888 under the pastorate of Rev. J. Brezing by a spacious school, had by far become to [sic] small for the constantly increasing congregation. Both the exterior and interior of the church are an evidence of the love of the congregation for their house of worship and of the generosity which is prevalent in maintaining and beautifying the same.

The beautiful new parsonage of the congregation, which occupies the space next to the former parsonage on Hickory Street, is directly opposite the new school and was completed in the summer of 1900. It was erected upon the lot that formally occupied the parsonage of the first pastor of the church, the Rev. H. Guenther, and which was afterwards used as the girl's branch of the St. John's Evang. Lutheran Orphan Home. This property was purchased by the trustees of the congregation from the Orphan Home that they might erect thereupon a large parsonage with all modern improvements, thus effectuating the unanimous resolution of the congregation. On the 26th of August the parsonage was dedicated and answers very well to its intended purpose.

The schoolhouse was erected in 1888 and is used for the parochial school and for society purposes. The Sunday school finds its rooms in the entire second floor of the building and can be divided into three departments. In the parochial school the instructions are given in both German and English languages. The instructions in the English language correspond with those of the public schools, as the same books are used, so that children that are transferred from the school into the public school are familiar with all forms of education as given there. For children of the church the instruction- and text books are free. The present able teacher, Mr. F.L. Luebben, who is also organist and chorister of the church received his education in one of our own seminary's.

Pastor Francis H. Gunther received his theological education in an institution called the Hartwick Seminary, which was established in the forepart of this century by the Lutheran pastor, Johann Christoph Hartwig, in Otsego County, New York. He was licensed to preach in 1823. Several years he was active in missionary work in the vicinity of Mohawk, and after that he labored six years in the congregations at Ernestown and Frederickstown in Canada. On account of poor health he was obliged to resign his parsonage in Canada in 1831. He resided for a while in New York, and then served a congregation at Rush near Rochester. In 1833 he accepted an invitation to visit Buffalo, where he founded the St. John's congregation, which he served as pastor for 23 years, until poor health and old age compelled him to resign his pastorate. He died on the 2nd day of June 1863, at the age of 70 years. Pastors Volz and Knapp officiated at his burial and his remains were interred in the cemetery of the congregation in the midst of members of his flock who had preceded him into eternity.

Pastor Johannes Albert Wilhelm Kirsch was born on the 5th day of August, 1865, at Kappeln, Schleswig-Holstein, in Germany. After he had absolved [graduated from] the school of his native town he entered the theological seminary at Knopp, to prepare himself for the church service of the Lutheran Church in America and to serve the same as represented by the General Council. In the year 1887 he arrived in America. After having served awhile as vicar in Brooklyn and Sangerties, and after he acquainted himself with the religious circumstances in this country, he was active in Webster, Flatbush (Brooklyn) and Canajoharie, in the State of New York. Last named congregation he served for over five years, and it required a second call of the Evangelical Lutheran St. John's congregation of Buffalo, N.Y., until his congregation permitted him to go in peace into his new field of labor. The union of the pastor and congregation, which was formed by the act of solemn installation on the 5th of July, 1889, prove itself a blessing for the congregation, and this union has been preserved by both parties unto this day.

Pastor George V. Bosse was educated in a theological seminary at Kropp in Germany, and since 1889 has served several congregations in America. He was assistant pastor in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, pastor at Egg Harbor City, New Jersey, and in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, after which in 1899 he received a call as father of the orphans at the St. John's Evangelical Orphan Home at Sulphur Springs in the town of West Seneca, New York, which he accepted. His knowledge of many situations of Christian charity in Germany and his intelligence of their methods of work enabled him in a large degree to take the management of an office, which requires judgement [sic], patience and self-denial. In his amiable and judicious wife he finds a good assistant in his labors.

St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Orphan Home

On the 6th day of March 1864, on the Sunday called Laetare, the St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church on Hickory Street, Buffalo, New York, in pursuance to a call for a special meeting by the pastor, Rev. Christian Volz, resolved to institute by free will offerings an Evangelical Lutheran Orphan Home in the city of Buffalo. The object of the institution should be to give to destitute orphans a christian home and education. The board of management, however, reserved the right to admit so-called half-orphans when it might be feared that they would be neglected. On the admittance of orphans neither the native land nor the religious creed of the deceased parents should be considered. By a special act of the Legislature of the state the Orphan Home was incorporated on the 14th day of April, 1865, with the following named gentlemen as directors: Rev. Christian Volz, Jacob H. Koons, George Kney, Andrew Grass, Daniel Lang, Anthony Hasselbach, Jacob Reimann, Carl Sauer and Fr. Wuest. By an act of Legislature on the 22nd day of May, 1874, the act of incorporation was amended giving power to erect in West Seneca, New York, a branch institution which served as a home for boys up to the year 1898, while girls found their home in the city. This home of the boys, which formerly was a bathing establishment in Sulphur Springs, was destroyed by fire in 1876, but forthwith a new building was erected. The indefatigable and self-sacrificing founders and leaders, as in former years, had especially during this period of visitation been assisted energetically in their work of charity by the German inhabitants of Buffalo, who always manifested a deep interest in this Orphan Home.

In the course of time several other German and English congregations grew out of St. John's Church, which have preserved a warm feeling not only to their mother church, but also to this Orphan Home and have assisted in its maintenance as much as possible. To maintain and deepen this interest among these churches the board of directors, which thus far consisted of pastor and members of St. John's Church, resolved that beginning with the year 1897 one member of each of these various churches shall be represented in the board of Directors. This change undoubtedly proved to be beneficial to the home. - Soon after a ladies auxiliary was organized consisting of two ladies out of each of the seven Lutheran churches which assist in maintaining the home. The cost of maintenance which at an average of 90 children is indeed, not a small sum is, aside from the assistance received by a few friends of the home in Buffalo, raised by the surrounding German churches through the efforts of the Board of Directors and the Ladies Auxiliary.

In the year 1898 a large new building was erected in addition to the present one in Sulphur Springs in the town of West Seneca with an expenditure of $40,000.00. Thus the directors were able to unite the home, transferring the girls from the city to this new building where both boys and girls may receive their education and training. In the 36 years of its existence between 4-500 children have found a home here, protected against many dangers of life under Christian guardianship. At present there are 90 children in the home which is in charge of Rev. George von Bosse and his wife who are assisted in their work of charity by several male and female teachers. The present board of Directors consist of the following gentlemen: Rev. J.A.W. Krisch, Director; Conrad Machemer, Secretary; J. Ansteth, Financial Secretary; H. Zipp, Treasurer; Frank Beer, deceased; Anthony Degenfelder, John Henrich, W. Heiser, W. Hengerer, Chr. Klinck, Ed. Liebetrut, C.L. Sauer, Jac. Schaller, Jac. Schell and Fr. Wendling. The officers of the Ladies Auxiliary are: President, Mrs. Cath. Reimann; Vice-President, Miss Julia Volz; Secretary, Mrs. Th. Guenther; Treasurer, Mrs. W. Heiser.

The Life of Rev. Christian Volz, Pastor and Foster-Father of Buffalo, New York

Christian Volz, formerly the pastor of the Lutheran St. John's Congregation on Hickory Street was born on the 29th of September, 1826, at Waldorf, in Württemberg. [1] His parents were Fredr. Volz and Anna Maria, nee Schmied. After he had frequented the country school for 8 years and was confirmed, he entered the teachers seminary at Esslingen. After he had gone through its course and passed his examination, he went for a short time to a missionary institution "Chrischona" near Basel in Switzerland, but soon accepted a call as teacher of deaf-mutes at Gmünd, where he was active for some time. In his 22nd year of life he came to America and went to the state of Michigan, where a great many of his native people had settled [2]. Pastor F. Schmid of Ann Arbor was the Lutheran pioneer pastor in that state. As the young man had a great inclination for the clerical profession, he studied theology under him for a year and was then ordained to the ministry. In the Saginaw Valley the young minister organized a Lutheran congregation, which was afterwards served by his brother Conrad Volz as his successor. Afterwards he served a congregation at Bridgewater, near Ann Arbor and then at Lansing. A year after he followed a call of a new congregation at Lansing, Mich., which he organized. At this time he married Miss Louise Schmid, a daughter of Rev. Friedrich and Louise Schmid. In the year 1856 he traveled in the east and visited Pastor Guenther at Buffalo. After that he received a call of the St. John's congregation of this place, which he accepted and came here in the year 1857. As pastor he preserved his love for poor pitiful children. The consequence of it was that in 1864 in harmony with his congregation he founded an orphan asylum in the neighborhood of the church. As evidently a blessing rested upon this work, a little farm 3 miles from the city was soon bought, and a separate institution organized for the orphan boys, while the house on Hickory Street was reserved for the orphan girls. This was a great undertaking for him, in connection with his many duties as pastor of the congregation, which was continually growing, but his love for his holy work and the assistance of his beloved congregation lightened his labors. His whole heart was directed to these orphan asylums, and by his fatherly cares the orphans found here a veritable home. It was a sad experience for him when on the 23rd day of February, 1876, the institution at Sulphur Springs was destroyed by fire. But through his indefatigable zeal he soon solicited a large sum of money by subscription and in July of the same year the corner stone of the new building could be laid. At the 50th anniversary festivities of the congregation on the 11th day of February 1883 Pastor Volz was enabled to report that since the foundation of the asylum already 200 orphans had found a home in the institution. What a joy it must have been to him to see his work prospering so well. In his congregation he was indefatigably active, early and late, Sundays and weekdays. With abundant blessings he was able to perform his pastoral duties for 27 years. He enjoyed the privilege two years before his decease of celebrating his 25th anniversary as pastor of his congregation. On this occasion many congratulations were rendered him and his family from his loving congregation and numerous gifts from various members were made unto him thus showing their high esteem, appreciation and love to their faithful pastor.

That this active pastor should so soon be called from his field of labor nobody expected, as he was apparently in good health and industrious. On the 11th of November he celebrated with his congregation the festival of the reformation. The sermon of this festival was his valedictory sermon to his congregation. Wednesday the 14th of November he attended a meeting with the Board of trustees of his congregation. After the closing of the meeting he pronounced the benediction, and after he had said the word "amen," he fell, being struck with paralysis. "I am dying" was his last word. He was carried dead from the orphan asylum to the nearby parsonage. The horror with which his family, the congregation and his colleagues were seized at the intelligence of his sudden death can be better felt than described. In his 57th year of age the Lord called him suddenly from his labors. He was survived by a sorrowful widow and 3 daughters mourning his demise. The congregation, which he served so faithfully unto his end, still preserves a warm memory for him.

[1] The German text states that Pastor Volz was born "in Walddorf, in the upper district of Nagold, in the Kingdom of Württemberg."

[2] The German text states "In his 22nd year of life (1852) he came to America..." Doing the math would put the year at 1848.

Buffalo, New York - The laying of a cornerstone for a new hospital was the principal feature of the annual festival of the Evangelical Lutheran St. John's Orphan Home, held yesterday July 15, 1908 at Sulphur Springs. The hospital will be known as the Volz Memorial Hospital in memory of the Rev. Christian Volz, who was pastor for twenty-three years and who was instrumental in founding the orphanage. The Rev. J. A. W. Kirsch, president of the board of trustees of the home, presided at the ceremonies.

Services were held at 11 o'clock in the orchard of the home and at 2 o'clock, preparatory to laying the cornerstone, speeches were made in German and English. A band concert was given during the afternoon and evening and dinner and supper were served by the ladies' auxiliary, composed of members of several churches who have worked untiringly for the success of the festival. The board of trustees, composed of a number of prominent Buffalonians, did much toward making the affair the big success that it was. The report of Financial Secretary Liebetrut for the fiscal year ending June 30th showed the total receipts to be $20,719.14. A number of bequests, both large and small, were made during the year. The largest was that of Henry Coons, who bequeathed $5,000 toward the maintenance of the home.

2372. Frederick¹¹ Schmid (Friedrich¹⁰, Anna Katharina⁹ Pfeifle, Anna Katharina⁸ Frey, Johann Peter⁷, Andreas⁶, Georg⁵, Johannes⁴, Conrad³, Hans Cunrad², Jerg¹) was born 14 May 1839 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 25 Oct 1916 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Anna Elise (Elizabeth) Mann 16 Sep 1862 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Ernst Mann and Anna Niethammer. She was born 27 Jan 1845 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 05 Dec 1922 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Frederick Schmid:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Frederik Schmid is the junior member of the firm of dry goods merchants that is extensively known as that of Mack & Schmid of Ann Arbor. Frederick Schmid was born in Lodi Township, this county, May 17, 1839. He is the third of twelve children, six boys and six girls. The parents were Frederick and Louisa (Mann) Schmid who came to the United States when young. They were married in this city. Our subject's mother came here in 1829. She was a daughter of Henry J. Mann, who was the first German settler in Washtenaw County. Frederick Schmid, the immediate progenitor of our subject, was a Lutheran minister and coming from Germany located in Washtenaw County in 1833, and in company with Mr. Mann was extremely useful in influencing the settlement of many good German families in Washtenaw County.

Our subject's father was very active in organizing the Lutheran Church in this county and the result of his effort has been most happy. He came here from the Fatherland in the first place as a missionary and well did he perform his charge. He came from Basle, Switzerland and was a recognized factor of large influence in the Lutheran Church. His death occurred August 30, 1883. His wife died in 1889. Frederick Schmid, Sr., was a man who was very zealous in his religious belief and although in pioneer days he made his circuit to the different charges on foot through heavily timbered country and through mud and water he was always punctual in meeting his appointments.

Of twelve children born to the parents, eleven are now living. Our subject, Frederick, Jr., remained on the home farm until reaching his twelfth year. During that time he attended the district school in the vicinity and worked out on the neighboring farms, receiving $12 per month for his services. He was thus engaged until nineteen years of age and then left the farm and entered the employ of John W. Maynard in the capacity of clerk and with him he remained for some months. After that he was employed by Christian Mack, and at the end of eighteen months was taken into the firm as partner and has since continued his relationships with the business.

The firm of Mack & Schmid is among the leading dry-goods houses of Ann Arbor. They not only deal extensively in everything with which to clothe the body that appeals to the feminine taste and instincts of beauty, also in carpets, but deal besides largely in wool. The original of our sketch was married in 1862, to Miss Eliza Mann, a daughter of Emanuel Mann. Mrs. Schmid was born in this city and here was reared and educated. To our subject and his wife have been born three children, whose names are Emma E., Oscar F. and Edwin E. Oscar is a chemist and engaged in the drug and chemical works in Jackson, Michigan.

Our subject has been honored by election to various municipal offices. He has been Alderman for one term and is now President of the Ann Arbor Piano & Organ Company and is Vice-President of the Ann Arbor Brick & Tile Company and holds the same position in the Business Men's Association. He was appointed Trustee of the Eastern Michigan Asylum for the Insane and is an interested worker for any humanitarian or progressive enterprise. Our subject is the owner of a valuable farm in this county. In politics he affiliates with the Democratic Party. In their church associations our subject with the other members of his family belongs to the Zion Church. He is Superintendent of the Sunday-school and also one of the Church Trustees. His elegant residence is located on Fifth Avenue and denotes refinement and culture in its owner and occupant.

Notes for Christian Mack:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Christian Mack, President of Ann Arbor Savings Bank and one of the leading dry-goods merchants in Ann Arbor, was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1834. He was educated in his native land, and there learned the mercantile business. When 17 years of age Mr. Mack came to America, believing he could do better here than in Germany. From being in company with his employer's children who could speak English, he had learned the language. He first located at Sandusky, Ohio, remaining there but a short time. In 1851 he came to Ann Arbor, where he for a short time was employed on a farm. He remained only a few months and then entered the store of Mr. Ainslee, for whom he worked until Mr. Maynard bought out Mr. Ainslee. In 1857 he went into the dry-goods for himself, and in 1860 took into the business as partner Mr. Friedrich Schmid, Jr. In 1875 he was elected President of the Ann Arbor Savings Bank. He is also a member of the Board of Education of Ann Arbor, and has been for some years. By careful and economical habits Mr. Mack has come to be one of Ann Arbor's leading merchants.

Ann Arbor, Michigan, August 14, 1901 – Shortly before noon today Christian Mack was found dead in the basement of Mack & Co.'s large department store. He was lying on the floor, where he had been for twenty or more minutes. He had not been feeling well of late, and only yesterday had been troubled with an irregularity in the action of his heart. The supposition is that this morning he did not feel keen and hence went to the basement in search of a cool place, and that while there death overtook him. Dr. Martin L. Belsee, who examined the body, gave it as his opinion that the cause of death was heart failure.

For half a century Mr. Mack had been associated with Ann Arbor, and for the greater part of that time in a business way. He had been president of the Ann Arbor Savings Bank for more than twenty-five years.

He was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1834. His early education was secured in his native land. When 17 years of age he left Germany and came to the United States, believing that his chances were better in America. He first located at Sandusky, Ohio. Here he learned English language from the children of his employer. After a short stay at Sandusky he came to Ann Arbor and went to work on a farm. Soon after he entered a store as a clerk and later launched into business for himself. For over a quarter of a century he has been a member of the school board and he has devoted a great share of his time toward building up the school system of the city to its present term on the school board would have expired in September.

The deceased leaves a widow and four children. The latter are as follows: Edwin F. Mack of the Union Trust Company of Chicago, formerly of the Citizens' Saving bank of Detroit; Mrs. Willis J. Abbott, of Ann Arbor; Walter C. Mack, of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Henry W. Hawley, of Berkeley, California, Walter C. Mack is in New York on Business at present.

Ann Arbor, Michigan, August 23, 1901. The will of the late Christian Mack was offered for probate this afternoon. The bulk of the estate remains intact, the income being left to the widow during her life. At her death it will be divided equally among the four children, who also receive certain immediate bequests. Mrs. Christian Mack, Edwin F. Mack and Walter C. Mack are appointed executors, the latter having been appointed special executor.

Buffalo, New York, August 27, 1901 - The opportunities which this country affords to those who have the ability to rise are well illustrated in the career of Christian Mack, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Ann Arbor, Michigan, who recently passed away. Christian Mack came to this country from Germany when a lad and entered a general store on a stipend of $8 a week. He rose rapidly in his business and in 1855 opened a store of his own. He did not accumulate a colossal fortune, as fortunes go now a days, but at his demise his property amounted to nearly a million dollars. He was one of the organizers of the Ann Arbor Savings Bank and for a quarter of a century was its president. One of Mr. Mack's surviving children, Amanda, is the wife of Willis J. Abbott, the brilliant editor of the Pilgrim and a leader writer, on the New York Journal and the Chicago-American.

Notes for Nathaniel Schmid:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Nathaniel Schmid. Among the active business men of the village of Manchester this gentleman who is a native of Washtenaw County, his birth having taken place June 20, 1854, in the city of Ann Arbor. His father is the Rev. Frederick Schmid, a sketch of whom will be found with that given of another son, Frederick Schmid, one of the residents of Ann Arbor. The parents had a true patriarchal family of twelve, and five brothers and four sisters are still living.

Our subject was educated in the High School at Ann Arbor and came to Manchester as manager for the firm of Mack & Schmid, who were handling dry goods and notions here in 1876. After a while he bought out the firm and has since continued alone in this business. His marriage October 10, 1878 brought to his home a faithful helpmate in the person of Joannah Lehn, who was born in Manchester Township, Washtenaw County, December 19, 1857. She is the second daughter of Conrad and Magdalene (Hagg) Lehn. Her father, a native of Germany, came to Manchester in 1854 and here built five stores and six dwelling houses. He was one of the first German business men in the village and was in the hardware and grocery business. He for many years filled the office of Treasurer and was a member of the Village Council. He died February 20, 1890, having been bereaved of his faithful wife July 3, 1873.

Mr. Schmid is one of the leading business men in Manchester, a member of the Village Council, and has been for four years a School Inspector. He was village Treasurer for eight years and is President pro-tem of the village Board. He is a charter member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, and one of the founders of the Workmen's Aid Society, of which he is President and is also a member of the Knights of the Maccabees. As Mr. Schmid has so wide an acquaintance among the foreign born population he has a large business for them as a Notary Public, and in negotiating exchanges, and is also in the insurance business. He was Treasurer for the State Association of the German Workman's Aid Society for two years and in that capacity handles some $90,000 yearly.

Besides the lines of business already indicated, Mr. Schmid is in the wool business, buying and selling, and is also in the manufacturing business with Mr. Kimble, manufacturing the iron clad stone boat which was patented by Mr. W. Kimble in 1889. Mr. and Mrs. Schmid are the parents of one son and four daughters, namely: Alma, Louise, Nathaniel, Marie and Amanda and the domestic happiness found in this home makes a bright spot, and is promotive of much true sociability.

Notes for Johann Jakob Knapp:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

J. KNAPP. One of the leading German-American farmers of Freedom Township is he whose name is at the head of this sketch, where he owns a farm on section 35. He is a son of John Jacob Knapp, a native of Wurtemberg, Germany. The elder Mr. Knapp while in his native land learned the business of a butcher, but later became a farmer. Our subject's mother was Anna Mary (Northway) Knapp, also a native of Wurtemberg. The family emigrated to America in 1828-29, settling first in Philadelphia, where the head of the family followed the business of butchering for a period of about three years. In 1842 they came to Michigan and settled upon the farm which our subject now owns in Freedom Township.

At the time of our subject's advent hither there were but few improvements in the township. The country was almost all heavily timbered and there was on the place a tiny log house and a log stable. Our subject's father died in 1857. His mother survived until 1884. They were the parents of five children, two of whom are now living—our subject and his brother, William J., who is in the hardware business at Chelsea. The religious training to which Jacob Knapp was brought up was that of the Evangelical Church of which his parents were members, the father having been a Deacon in the same. He also took an active part in local politics and was an old-line Whig. Many times he stood as candidate for various offices in this locality, but his party was in hopeless minority.

Jacob Knapp was the eldest child born to his parents, his birthday being March 15, 1842, and his natal place being Philadelphia. The same year the family came to Michigan where as the child grew older he attended the district school and acquired a practical knowledge of the ordinary branches there taught. He also had the additional advantages of a short time at the Union School of Jackson. The decease of his father occurring when he was fifteen years of age, three years later he assumed the full charge of the farm and has ever since remained here. He is now the owner of two hundred and fifty-two acres, having about one hundred and seventy-five acres under cultivation. He carries on general farming. Since becoming proprietor in full of the place our subject has greatly increased its value by adding to its buildings and erecting new barns. He here has a very pleasant home and everything required to lead a comfortable and happy life. He is the owner of some fine stock, making a specialty of fine-wool sheep. He also has some fine draft horses and ideals in the last named stock to quite a considerable extent, making frequent trips to Ohio for the purpose of their buying the finer breeds.

In 1866 the original of our sketch was married to Miss Dora Schmidt, a daughter of Peter and Christina (Beutler) Schmidt, who came to Michigan about 1843-44, settling first in Scio Township. The decease of Mrs. Knapp's parents occurred at our subject's home, they passing away within two years of each other. They were the parents of seven children, all of whom are living. Mrs. Knapp was born in Germany in 1843. She there received a good education. Our subject and his wife have had their union blessed by the birth of two children—Adam, who is now a student at the High School at Manchester, and Emma Johanna Christina, who attends school at home. Our subject and his wife are members of the Evangelical Church in Freedom Township. He of whom we write has been an incumbent of local offices in the district for many years. He is a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen at Manchester, and is a Trustee of that society at the present time. He also united with the Knights of Honor of Manchester, where he also occupies a position of Trustee. He moreover belongs to the Arbeiter Verein of Manchester and is a Trustee of that order; he is also a member of the Masonic order of Manchester. In politics Mr. Knapp has always been very active and is a warm adherent of the Democratic Party. He has served as Constable of Freedom Township and as Highway Commissioner for many years and for five years held the position of Drain Commissioner; was Township Clerk for three years and Deputy Township Clerk for five years and Justice of the Peace for twelve years, which latter office he is now holding. He is also Health Officer at the present time and has been Township Treasurer. In 1880 he was elected County Treasurer and re-elected in 1882 thus serving four years in this capacity. For twelve years past he has attended every county convention and has also served many terms on the Board of Canvass and for eight years past has been an attendant at the District and Senatorial conventions, frequently serving upon political committees. Mr. Knapp is known as figuring among the prominent politicians of this State.

Notes for Friedrich Seitz:

Howell - Monday afternoon Sept. 20, 1926 a call was sent to Sheriff Teeple's office to the effect that two men were probably in the Schoollot Lake some three miles northwest of Pinckney and two deputies were at once dispatched to the scene of the accident. Monday afternoon Fred Seitz, aged 41 of 52 Seitz St., Ann Arbor engaged a boat of Guy Hinchey to go fishing on Schoollot Lake. About five o'clock Mr. Hinchey and his daughter Mildred noticed the boat riding at anchor but no one appeared to be in their boat. An investigation followed and one body was located. Jerald Reason of Pinckney dove and recovered the body of Philip Seitz in about ten feet of water. After deputies, Roy Hardy and Burnett arrived. Mr. Hardy recovered the body of the other man in about twelve feet of water.

Coroner Henry Beurmann decided that an inquest was not necessary and the bodies were taken to Ann Arbor by the Wilkinson ambulance. Fred Seitz watch stopped at 4:55 and the body was recovered at 5:30 showing probable time the men were in the water. Mr. Hinchey is reported as saying that the men although weighing about 200 lbs. each chose a small boat for their fishing. The boat as the Republican is informed was not tipped over but was partly filled with water. Just how the men and the boat were separated may never be known. One of the men was casting and may have lost his balance and have fallen over, the brother may have gone to his rescue. Just why the men in the water did not cling to the sides of the boat is not plain.

Philip Seitz who is survived by his wife and two daughters and his brother are two of a family of six brothers contractors in Ann Arbor.

Philip Seitz, age 41, of 520 Sixth Street and his brother Fred Seitz, 44, of 1003 West Liberty Street, were drowned about 5 o'clock Monday afternoon September 20, 1926 at Schoolot Lake, three miles north of Pinckney. The two men were fishing, when it is believed the boat which was anchored about 30 feet off shore capsized. Henry Benurmann, Howell corner was called and asserted in his opinion, the drowning was accidental. The two went on the lake at 4:30 and as the watch of one stopped at seven minutes to 5 o'clock; the accident is believed to have occurred shortly before 5 o'clock. A paper floating on the water with the name of Philip Seitz written on it, aided in establishing his identity.

The body of Philip was discovered within an hour after the time of the accident is believed to have occurred and his brother's body about 12 o'clock midnight. Both bodies were brought to Hildinger's Funeral home here. Philip Seitz was born October 10, 1885 at Saline and attended the public school there. He came to Ann Arbor 15 years ago, and since had been a carpenter and contractor. For three years, he with his brothers, Fred, Martin, William and Philip formed the firm known as Seitz Brothers, contractors. The past two years he was in business for himself. He was a member of the Carpenter's union and St. Paul's Lutheran Church. He was married April 6, 1911 to Miss Ida Jedele.

Fred Seitz was born April 5, 1882 at Saline and also attended the school there, coming to Ann Arbor about 30 years ago. He was employed as a cabinet maker for six years at the Michigan Furniture Co, and later worked in Detroit and Pontiac. He returned to Ann Arbor in 1913. He was a member of the firm of Seitz Bros, and for about a year had been, working for his brother Philip. He was married May 21, 1911 to Miss Lillie Schmid of Dexter. He was a member of the Carpenter's union and Zion Lutheran Church.

Besides the widow, Philip Seitz is survived by two daughters, Delia and Melinda, both at home. Fred Seitz also leaves six brothers, David Martin, William and Emanuel of Ann Arbor, John of Long Beach, California, and Paul of Saline and three sisters, Mrs. Clara Laubengayer and Mrs. Carl Sweet of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Floyd Wirth of Ypsilanti.

Notes for Jakob Laubengayer:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Jacob Laubengayer. As Ann Arbor is the center of so rich and wide an agricultural region and is so accessible by rail to the great distributing points and ports of the country, the enterprises are numerous for dealing in the staples of the region. While manufactures are still in their infancy, the middlemen that are the medium between producer and the manufacturer are numerous. One of the most successful of these firms is that of which our subject is junior partner and which does business under the firm title of Heinzmann & Laubengayer, dealers in wool, grain, flour, feed and hides. Our subject is a product of this county, although, as his name would indicate, he is of German descent. He was born in the township of Scio, September 14, 1843, and is a son of J. Fred and Christina (Schmidt) Laubengayer, both of whom were natives of Wittenberg, Germany. They were married in Scio Township, this county.

The parents of our subject emigrated to the United States in 1830, landing at New York City, thence coming direct to Washtenaw County and located in Scio Township upon a farm where the father carried on a general agricultural business, devoting himself principally to stock-raising and the growing of wheat. He was one of the prosperous tillers of the soil of his neighborhood, employing the advanced German scientific methods in making his tract productive. His decease occurred April 22, 1891. He was born in 1805. The mother of our subject is still living on the old homestead, being in her seventy-second year. She is the mother of four children, three of whom are living—Frederick, Jacob and Tobias.

Jacob Laubengayer passed his boyhood in his native county and spent his early days in attendance at the district school of his neighborhood. He remained under the home roof of his parents until twenty-one years old. After reaching his majority he started out in life on his own account, still making his home, however, with his parents until reaching the age of twenty-four years when he bought a small farm which he began to develop and to engage in stock-raising, though his dealing in stock was in a small way. However, he kept adding to his farm until he was the possessor of two hundred and forty-seven acres, taking great pride in keeping a fine breed of cattle and good sheep. He continued to be actively engaged in agricultural pursuits until December, 1889, when he removed to Ann Arbor and embarked in the wool business in connection with various parties. In the last named year he formed a partnership with John Heinzmann and has dealt largely in the products above mentioned ever since. In connection with this business they also handle dry wood, having extensive wood yards near the grain elevator on the Toledo & Ann Arbor Railroad. The firm handles all kinds of grain and also does quite a large business in grinding feed for the farmers in the vicinity and also for general sale. The celebrated brands of flour from the Pillsbury Mills of Minneapolis are here found and the firm with which our subject is connected does a large business in this direction. They doubtless have the largest dealing in wool of any firm in Washtenaw County.

Mr. Laubengayer was married in December 1880, to Miss Amelia Weimer, of Scio Township, this county. She is a daughter of Michael Weimer, her parents having come to this country from Germany. Our subject and his wife are the parents of three children, whose name are Melinda, Robert and Walter. The original of this sketch was elected Justice of the Peace of Lodi Township, being near the line of that township. He casts his vote with the Democrat Party, in whose principles and practices he has unbounded faith. Our subject resides at No. 76 W. Huron Street, where he has a very pleasant home.

Notes for La Verna Mueller Sinclair:

Jan. 22, 1950 - Mrs. Walter Laubengayer of Ann Arbor, a frequent Port Huron visitor and sister-in-law of Mrs. George C. Dunn of 4444 Gratiot Avenue, is in the race for the republican nomination for lieutenant governor. Mr. Laubengayer is a brother of Mrs. Dunn. Announcement of Mrs. LaVerna Laubengayer's candidacy is made in a news release from her home. Mrs. Laubengayer is described as a matron, housewife, traveler and lecturer, and she makes the announcement on an optimistic note.

"My campaign will be complete in detail, including speaking in each of Michigan's 83 counties," said Mrs. Laubengayer. "This is no time for republican pessimism. The party is politically solvent at the voter level. The people want social progress without a "welfare state. They demand businesslike administration in government."

Mrs. Laubengayer, who spent last summer at Birch Beach, says further of her candidacy: "I shall pull no punches. The capitol in Lansing should be a peoples' clearing house, not a rendezvous of intrigue, nor a private trading post. Women merit responsibility in government."

LaVerna Laubengayer is a native of Bay City, the daughter of George and the late Amanda Sinclair. In Washtenaw County she has been long prominent in republican circles, the State Historical society, the Ann Arbor Garden club and a frequent exhibitor and judge at floral shows.

She and her husband also operate 300-acre dairy farm in Washtenaw County. He is a graduate of the forestry department of the University of Michigan and the University of Washington in Seattle. He's a constant forester and active in pulp and paper interests and general timber operations.

Notes for Kate May Castle:

Chicago, Jan 16, 1956 - Mrs. Kate Castle Hattstaedt sat down yesterday to a quiet dinner – her 101st birthday celebration - in her home in the Seneca hotel. A year ago, her birthday was observed at a large party. Mrs. Hattstaedt, widow of John J. Hattstaedt, founder of American Conservatory of Music and mother of John R. Hattstaedt, its current president, was somewhat excited. She had just spoken to her daughter, Mrs. Louise Comer Winter, of Beverly Hills, California, over the telephone. "I don't know that I can give a formula for a long life," she said. "If anything, I've been careful about what I ate. I eat less rich foods, but I've always had a good appetite three times a day.

"I always kept up my interests. I've been interested in progress, music, and lectures. I read the newspapers, altho not too much nowadays." Mrs. Hattstaedt, Chicago's oldest music patron, watches television to keep up with music, does some knitting reads, and takes walks. Every Friday she goes to the Cordon club, 410 S. Michigan and every Saturday to the American Conservatory of Music for recitals. Mrs. Hattstaedt also goes to other musical events, and shops downtown, said her companion of the last five years, Mrs. Jessie Gillan. Mrs. Gillan prepared the birthday dinner for Mrs. Hattstaedt, her son, and two grandchildren. Friends and relatives dropped in during the day to extend birthday greetings. The centenarian also received many telephone calls.

Hollywood, California - Mrs. Kate M. Hattstaedt, widow of the founder of the American Conservatory of Music, in Chicago, died tonight August 7, 1961. She was 106. He had been residing in Palm Springs since 1956 with her daughter, Mrs. Louise Winters, a former television director, and her husband, Hugh Winters. Mrs. Hattstaedt was one of the-foremost patrons of music in Chicago for more than 70 years. Her husband, John J., 1 died in 1931, founded the American Conservatory of Music in 1885. Mrs. Hattstaedt had attended the opening of 62 seasons of the Chicago Symphony orchestra. She was born in Beloit, Wisconsin, in 1855. She moved to Chicago at the age of 16 in 1871, the year of the Chicago fire.

She recalled having as one of her playmates Abraham Lincoln, the grandson of the Civil war president. In her early 20s she decided to take voice lessons. She said she didn't have a very good voice but did like the teacher. She later married him and helped him in founding the conservatory. At the time of her marriage she had been secretary to Florenz Ziegfeld, the theater impresario. She was feted on her 100th in 1955 at a party given by the conservatory and attended by 200 musicians, many of whom were trained by the conservatory.

Mrs. Hattstaedt lived in Chicago until 1956 when at the age pf 101 she moved west to live with her daughter. She attributed her long life to "just not worrying, watching the food I eat, and keeping an interest in life." Services will be held in California and plans for a memorial service in Chicago are being made. Their son, John R., who resides at the Edgewater Beach apartments, 5555 N. Sheridan Rd., is now president of the conservatory.

Notes for Christina Pfeifle:

Died Of Appendicitis. — Mrs. Christine Kirn, who died at St. Vincent's hospital, Tuesday night, was the widow of Frederick Kirn, who lost his life while exploring Mount Hood without a guide in the summer of 1897. Mrs. Kirn was taken sick with appendicitis, Saturday, at Newport, where she was spending the month with her daughters, Miss Lenora Kirn, and Mrs. C. R. Rieger, of this city, and Mrs. Matilda Calhoun, of San Francisco. Her physicians advised her immediate removal to Portland for treatment, and she was brought to St. Vincent's hospital by Miss Kirn. She died within an hour after her reception at the hospital. The body is now at Holman's parlors, from which place the funeral will take place as soon as Mrs. Rieger and Mrs. Calhoun arrive from Newport.

Notes for Friedrich Kirn:

Frederic Kirn Caught By An Avalanche On Mount Hood. Attempting to Make the Ascent, He Strayed From the Path, and Was Hurlled Over a Precipice. Frederick Kirn, an Albina grocery man met a fearful death on Newton Clarke glacier, on the north slope of Mount Hood, yesterday afternoon. In the ascent of the mountain he strayed from the path and was caught by a mass of sliding rock, which carried him 300 feet down the steep side of the mountain to the brink of a cliff, over which his body was plunged to the rocks, 400 feet below.

Kirn left Portland late last week, and reached Cloud Cap inn Sunday afternoon, coming on foot from Hood River. In the afternoon, he asked Mr. W. A. Langille, of the inn, several questions about the ascent of the mountain, declaring his intention to make it the following day. He declined the services of a guide. He had examined the road with his field glasses, he said, and would have no difficulty in following it all the way up.

He retired early and arose yesterday morning at 4 o'clock, drinking a cup of coffee before he started on the climb, which he did at 4:30, all alone. When at 5:30 yesterday afternoon Kirn did not return, Mr. Langille became alarmed for his safety, and started in search of him. He soon found that he had good cause for his alarm. Kirn's trail could be easily followed to within 700 feet of the summit. At this point it varies from the regular trail, which it had thus far followed, and led away to a treacherous, rock-covered district near the head of Newton Clarke glacier. Her Mr. Langille discovered to his horror that the unfortunate man had been caught in a mass of sliding rock, which he had probably loosened with his feet, and had been carried with it swiftly to the brow of a precipice below, over which the furrows made in the snow by the small avalanche disappeared. Working his way cautiously, and with the skill of the veteran mountaineer that he is, to the edge of the cliff, Mr. Langille saw the body lying among the loos rock far below at the mouth of the glacier. Kirn's death had been swift and terrible.

It was then 8:30 and growing rapidly dark. Mr. Langille, being all alone, could not bring the body back to the inn, and after nightfall would have had to take desperate chances even to reach it. Had there been any chance of the man's being alive, he would have taken the latter course, but no one could have survived such a fall an instant. He therefore returned to the inn and telephoned the news to the police station, Captain Barclay, who was on watch when the message came in, at once dispatched patrolman Velguth to Kirn's residence, 853 Albina Avenue, to acquaint his family with his fearful fate. The officer found Kirn's wife and daughter, who at first refused to believe the news. When they fully realized it, they were prostrated with grief. C.R. Rieger, of the undertaking firm of Finley & Rieger, who was the son-in-law of the victim of the accident, was also notified. He will leave for Hood River today, and bring the body back to Portland.

Kirn had lived in Portland a long time, and was very well known. He was well advanced in years, but was vigorous and healthy. He left Portland expecting to make the ascent of the mountain Sunday, and to return early in the week. He little knew what a fate was in store for him.

Notes for Selinda Kirn:

A School Girl Shot – Tragic Death of 15-year-old Selinda Kirn, of Albina. She Was Tampering With a Loaded Pistol When It Was Accidentally Discharged. A deplorable accident occurred at the home of Mr. Frederick Kirn, 853 Albina Avenue, yesterday afternoon shortly before 1 o'clock. His youngest daughter, Selinda Kirn, a bright and attractive girl 15 years of age, was instantly killed by the accidental discharge of a pistol, a bullet sent crashing through her brain, and in a moment a happy household was plunged into the depths of deepest sorrow.

No one will ever know exactly how Selinda Kirn was shot, or whether any cause prompted her to kill herself. To all appearances her death was purely accidental and those to whom she was most closely related do not for a moment entertain the thought that the girl ever contemplated self-destruction. During the morning hours she had been engaged in performing usual household duties, and when they were completed she went to a room for the purpose of changing her attire. A few minutes later the sharp report of a pistol was heard, and members of the household, rushing to the room, were horrified to see the young girl lying prostrate on the floor, a stream of blood flowing from a frightful wound in the right temple. At the side of the girl lay the still smoking weapon that mutely told the story of her awful death. Examination of the body showed the girl to be dead. She probably never knew the cause of her death, as the bullet had pierced her brain and caused death instantly.

It is presumed that on retiring to the room Miss Kirn opened a bureau drawer for the purpose of selecting some garments he intended to wear. In the drawer was a Smith & Wesson revolver, .38 caliber, with all the chambers loaded, and the supposition is that the girl picked the weapon up and was curiously examining it. The muzzle must have been pointing directly at her head, when unwittingly she pressed too hard upon the easy-moving trigger, causing the hammer to fly back and explode one of the cartridges. Coroner Cornelius was promptly notified of the accident and went to the house. After making a partial investigation he decided to hold an investigation this morning.

The home of the Kirns is pleasantly situated in Lower Albina. Mr. Kirn is engaged in the grocery business, and over his store his family, consisting of himself, wife and three daughters, occupy apartments. The family is highly respected among neighbors, and the news of the tragic death of Selinda Kirn created a great sensation. It was a severe shock to numerous friends of the family and schoolmates of the girl. She was a pupil at the high school, a member of the classes of Mr. L. D. Martin and Miss Carrie A. Barnes, the latter being instructor of algebra and mathematics. When informed of the death of her pupil, Miss Barnes was greatly shocked, and spoke in the kindest terms of the unfortunate girl. Among her classmates Miss Kirn was well liked, and always of a jovial and cheerful disposition. It seemed incredible to them that the girl could have taken her own life, and the theory that he death was purely accidental, as above related, is generally accepted.

A reporter was refused admittance to the Kirn residence last evening, as a neighbor who stood watch at the door stated that the members of the family were in no condition to discuss the accident. Mr. J. W. Watson, a neighbor, said in an interview: "I was called soon after the accident, and found the family involved in great grief over the accidental shooting. I did my best to console the grief-stricken family, but for a time without much effect, so intense and heart-rending was their sorrow. From Mr. Kirn I learned the particulars of the accident. He and his daughter were preparing to go to the City Park, on the West Side, and she was dressing in her room above, the rest of the family being below. She had been especially cheerful and happy all morning, and went to her room to dress. She had been there a short time when the family heard a fall in her room, and they ran up to ascertain the cause, and were horrified to find her weltering on the floor in her blood. It would seem that either the pistol was pulled from the drawer when she took her clothes out, or she picked it up thoughtlessly to examine it, when it was discharged by falling, or when in her hands. It was a self-cocker, and easily discharged. It was on the floor beside her when the family found her. She must have been killed instantly, from the nature of the wound. The family are most excellent neighbors, and they have the sympathy of the entire community. Both father and mother take the fearful accident very hard."

The funeral of Miss Kirn will take place tomorrow afternoon from the residence of her parents on Albina Avenue. The classmates of the dead girl will attend the funeral in a body to pay a last tribute of respect and love to one whose life has so suddenly gone out.

2433. Peter¹¹ Pfeifle (Johann Peter¹⁰, Johann Adam⁹, Anna Katharina⁸ Frey, Johann Peter⁷, Andreas⁶, Georg⁵, Johannes⁴, Conrad³, Hans Cunrad², Jerg¹) was born 1852 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan, and died 05 Nov 1898 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan. He married Asnaline Rosine (Emma) Graf 16 Dec 1875 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan, daughter of Johann Graff and Gottliebe Schaible. She was born 1857 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan, and died 10 Aug 1901 in Clay, St. Clair Co, Michigan.

Notes for Peter Pfeifle:

Detroit, Nov. 7, 1898 – Dead List of Eleven – Three more dead bodies found in the wreck of the New Wonderland Theater, with two still missing.

Additional dead: Peter Pfeifle, carpenter-laborer for Teakle & Golden; residence, 777 Chene Street; Frank A. Wolf, tinner for J. D. Candler & Co.; residence, 294 Wilkins Street; Max Pett, tinner's helper for J.D. Candler & Co.; residence, 102 Hale Street.

Bright and early yesterday morning 123 workmen entered the funnel-shaped mass or wreckage in the New Wonderland building and recovered the bodies of three more men, making a total of eleven dead, as a result of the terrible event of Saturday afternoon. The more one observes the wreckage the stronger is the conception of the awful whirlpool of death that held absolute sway for that one brief moment while the heavy roof was falling live stories to the basement. There were few that entertained even a faint hope yesterday of seeing anyone rescued alive, yet when the news of the slight accident to Benjamin Webb, one of the rescuing party, was passed about the city. It was distorted into a wild tale about a man rescued alive. One look at the wreck is enough to make anyone wonder how any of the workmen in the ill-fated building escaped with his life Saturday. And after twenty-four hours beneath such a snarl and ponderous weight of debris, the discovery of a living victim was not even hoped for by the rescuers. So that yesterday was not the daywall to knock down loose brick work. This is the wall from which a section 50 feet across and 20 feet deep peeled off at 5:20 Saturday evening, and caused the grand stampede from the wrecked building. Each man crawled out on his hand and knees, at a height of at least 75 feet from the basement floor, and on a ragged, tremulous surface only 16 inches wide - this, too, in the teeth of the stiff wind. While resting upon his knees and left hand, each worked away with a long stick in his right hand, knocking off the loose bricks. Then, for a change, they straddled the wall and worked, away at the loose masonry with both hands.

It soon became apparent that this work was decidedly risky for the men, although it should be understood that they were not ordered there, but went voluntarily. Then they were called off, and upon the arrival of hook and ladder truck No. 1, Capt. Peter Garr and ten men went to work with long pikes and succeeded in throwing down considerable more. The work of both laborers and firemen was most praiseworthy, for a large part of the wall left standing after Saturday evening crash was buckled several inches around the center. At last everything appeared to be in snug shape for the recommencement of the rescue work.

From 9 o'clock until 9:45 the entire force of men was busy in throwing out of the way the debris they had cast down. Finally, they got down to the level, where they had left off Saturday evening. After a few minutes of well-directed effort the labors of the men were rewarded by the recurrence of the shout: "Here's a man!" All that could be seen of the body at that moment was the upturned sole of a shoe and part of the man's ankle. The ninth victim proved to be Peter Pfeifle, a carpenter-laborer, who had resided at 777 Chene Street. He had been in the employ of Teakle & Golden, the carpentry contractors for the building. He was the worst injured man that had been taken from the wreck. He had suffered compound fractures of both lower legs, right upper arm fractured and both shoulders broken. He was tenderly lifted into a wicker-ware stretcher and conveyed in F. G. Marshall's conveyance to that morgue. As the stretcher was being carried to the wagon, Mayor Maybury and others doffed their heads as it passed.

Then with redoubled energy, willing hands wielded shovels, pickaxes, crowbars, saws and axes, while sledge hammers and chisels soon ate through large iron beams, permitting them to be more easily removed. The sonorous blows of axes on heavy planks were mingled with the grating crush of sliding beams and the shouts of the searchers. By 10 o'clock the men at work must have numbered more than 125. Supt. Gallagher had about twenty White Wings in ordinary dress at work, but he delegated the authority of directing all the men to John Campbell and his two efficient foremen, James Finley and Frank Crosby. The men were handled well. Gangs of forty or fifty would seize hold of a rope attached to an immense beam and drag it up out of the building into the alley. Herbert Hockin was one of the best workers seen. He was everywhere at once and just where he was needed, performing dangerous pieces of work with perfect calmness and good judgment.

Detroit, Nov. 14, 1958 - Two compromised claims totaling $20,000 against the estate of the late Edward N. Barnard, prominent Detroit attorney, were approved Thursday. Probate Judge Joseph A. Murphy awarded $15,000 to Mrs. Agnes Secor Pfeifle, of 1035 Whittier, Grosse Pointe Woods. Mrs. Pfeifle, for 34 years Barnard's secretary, asked $18,822 in overtime and debts. The judge granted $5,000 to friends and relatives of Maurice Hamilton, a convicted slayer now serving a life term in Jackson Prison. The friends and relatives said they had retained Barnard to appeal Hamilton's conviction and had paid half of a $10,000 fee. Barnard died Oct. 10, 1957, before he could make the appeal to the State Supreme Court. More than $200,000 in other claims are pending against Barnard's estate, estimated at 1-1/2 million dollars. A meters Government is also asking $717,000 in back income he taxes.

Notes for Wilhelmina Breitmeyer:

Detroit - Early yesterday morning April 12, 1903 while Richard Brown was fishing on the banks of Clinton River, he saw an object floating on the water, which proved to be the body of Mrs. Robert Klagge, who resided on Guschow Avenue. An effort was made to procure a boat, but before one could be gotten out the remains had drifted to the foot of Kibbey Street. They were finally taken out of the water and removed to Hubbard's undertaking rooms on Walnut Street, and later on taken to the family residence. Mrs. Klagge had been in failing health for some time and during the past winter had been suffering from nervous prostration. Yesterday morning she got up at 3 o'clock to give one of the children a drink of water, and not returning to her own bed, her husband supposed she had remained with the children. At 6 o'clock her absence from the house was discovered, and soon after a search was commenced for the missing woman. While they were looking for her Mr. Klagge received word that her body had been found in the river.

Mrs. Klagge was about 45 years old, and was the eldest daughter of the late John Breitmeyer and a twin sister of Albert Breitmeyer, on Randolph street, Detroit. She- is survived by her mother and a large family, of brothers and sisters, among them being Fred and William Breitmeyer and Mrs. Charles Loushy, of this city. The husband, Robert Klagge, is a well-known florist in this locality. Besides her husband Mrs. Klagge leaves six children. There will be a coroner's inquest at the office of the sheriff this afternoon.

Detroit, April 14, 1903 - The verdict in the coroner's inquest in the case of Mrs. Robert Klagge decided that she came to her death by throwing herself into the Clinton river, while in a demented condition. The funeral will be held at the family residence on Gutchow Avenue this afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The burial being in Clinton Grove cemetery.

Andreas (Andrew)¹¹ Muehlig (Christiana¹⁰ Raus, Agatha⁹ Pfeifle, Anna Katharina⁸ Frey, Johann Peter⁷, Andreas⁶, Georg⁵, Johannes⁴, Conrad³, Hans Cunrad², Jerg¹) was born 22 Nov 1860 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 07 Jan 1944 in Ypsilanti, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. Notes for Andreas (Andrew) Muehlig:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Andrew Muehlig. Among the gentlemen prominent in business in Ann Arbor there is perhaps no one more worthy of mention than the junior member of the firm of Schuh & Muehlig, dealers in hardware, stoves, tinware, mantels, grates and tiling, who also carry on plumbing and gas-fitting. Our subject is a native of this city where he began his earthly career November 21, 1860. He is a son of Flora and Christina Muehlig, natives of Wittenberg, who emigrated to the United States and here landed in New York City. The father was a cabinet-maker and upon his arrival in Ann Arbor he undertook this line of business, manufacturing and dealing in furniture, and thus continuing up to the time of his death in 1865, being then in his sixtieth year. His wife died in 1883 in her sixty-first year. Three sons and one daughter constituted the household of which our subject was a part, and three of that number are still living. Our subject is the youngest of that number and he grew up in Ann Arbor, attending the public schools and the High School, and began his mercantile career as a clerk in the store of J. F. Schuh, where he remained for eighteen months. He then went to Chicago where he entered the employ of Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co., as clerk in their wholesale hardware establishment. After remaining with them for one year he returned to Michigan and at Reed City embarked in the hardware business, purchasing the stock of J. L. Ray fuse, taking as his partner Theodore Huss, under the firm name of Muehlig & Huss. This connection lasted for eighteen months when both partners sold out their business.

Returning to Ann Arbor Mr. Muehlig bought an interest with J. F. Schuh, thus forming the partnership in which he now is engaged. They are carrying on a large business and handle a fine stock of goods, occupying all the floors of three stores, and making a great success of their work as they are both practical business men.

In 1886 our subject married Miss Julia Gall, of Ann Arbor, daughter of John Gall, Esq., and to them have been born one son. The political views of our subject are in harmony with the declarations of the Democratic Party and he is a staunch adherent to its policy and principles. Both he and his wife are earnest members of the Zion Lutheran Church, and their pleasant home at No. 61 S. Main Street is the abode of domestic happiness and the center of true hospitality.

John F.¹¹ Rouse (Johannes (John Rouse)¹⁰ Raus, Agatha⁹ Pfeifle, Anna Katharina⁸ Frey, Johann Peter⁷, Andreas⁶, Georg⁵, Johannes⁴, Conrad³, Hans Cunrad², Jerg¹) was born 28 Jul 1851 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 02 May 1907 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan. He married Catherine M. Sattler 13 May 1880 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, daughter of Charles Sattler and Harbara Hux. She was born Dec 1853 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 10 Jul 1942 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for John F. Rouse:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Ingham and Livingston Counties, Michigan – Published Chicago: Chapman Bros. 1891; page 280:

John F. Rouse is a native of the city that Michigan is proud of to claim as her educational center, and one who college standing in many departments ranks with the best universities in the land. Mr. Rouse now holds the position of County Clerk in the town of Mason, Ingham County and in this capacity finds many an opportunity to make himself of great service to the people and is always obliging attentive and ready to do what he can. He was born at Ann Arbor, July 28, 1851, and is the son of John and Catherine (Leadlev) Rouse both natives of Germany. Mr. Rouse's parents were both children when they came to this country with their parents. His father, who was a cooper followed his trade in Ann Arbor and in Chicago, where he lived some eleven years.

While living in the metropolis of Illinois John Rouse responded to the call for volunteers in the War of the Rebellion and enlisted in Company G, of the Fifty first Regiment of Illinois Infantry, in 1864. He served about eighteen months, and although in eleven battles, received only a few slight wounds. The mother moved to Michigan soon after her husband's enlistment in order that she might be among her own people in his absence. After his discharge, our subject's father came to this State, and located in Lansing where he started a cooper shop of his own, and followed his trade until the time of his death, which occurred April 1, 1891, in the city of Lansing.

The original of our sketch in his boyhood received a good practical education, enjoying the advantages offered by the public schools of the city of Chicago, and afterward taking an additional course in the Commercial College of Lansing, this State. After finishing his education he learned telegraphy and served in the capacity of operator for about ten years in Lansing. While still manager of the telegraph office he was elected City Clerk and was re elected at different times until he served seven terms in all. After the expiration of his term on his last election Mr. Rouse engaged in the coal business, running a general retail trade in which he was proprietor of several local offices.

He of whom we write was elected County Clerk of Ingham County, Michigan, 1888, and he served in this position for four years. May 13, 1880 he took the important step of uniting his fate for better or worse with that of Miss Catherine Sattler, a daughter of Charles L. and Barbara (Hux) Sattler. Mrs. Rouse was born at Freedom, Washtenaw County, August 28, 1853. Her parents were like her husband's both from Germany. One child has come to their home to brighten the domestic life and to make stronger the bond that binds together husband and wife. She was born May 23, 1881, and her name is Nellie B., a bright attractive little miss, who is the joy of her fond parents.

While in Chicago, Mr. Rouse met with an accident in Jones & Chapin's cooper shop, by which he lost his left arm. At the time he was only eleven years old and the accident was deeply deplored by himself and parents. He is the eldest in a family of eight children, all of whom are still living. Albert F., the second son in the family, is at attorney at law in the city of Lansing he; also, strange to say, by an accident similar to that of his brother, is deprived of his arm. His loss was caused by the running away of a team. The other children are Emma, Catherine, William F., Mary, Edward, and George. Emma is now the wife of C. Adelbert Cary, who is a clerk in Lansing; Catherine married Arnold Brown, who was a large lumber dealer in Lansing; William F. also makes his home in Lansing, where he conducts a large meat market; Mary married Frank Nice, who is engaged as an engineer on the Michigan Central Road, making his headquarters and home at Lansing; Edward, who is a cooper by trade, and George, who is a clerk in a large clothing store, both reside in Lansing.

Notes for John Jedele:

Ann Arbor, Sept. 4, 1912 - John Jedele of Lodi narrowly escaped, death under an overturned motor car when he and a party of three other young men, riding in a new car driven by Albert Jedele, suddenly struck a sandy road which had become deeply rutted. The wheels skidded sharply to the right and the machine turned turtle, catching John Jedele underneath. The others were thrown out of the car and were unhurt. Jedele was pinned down by the seat rim. But for the fact that there was a slight depression in the seat rim just where it rested on his neck, he would most surely have been instantly killed. As it is, he has a badly strained neck and is under the care of a physician.

Notes for Johann Emmanuel Jedele:

John E. Jedele, 68, Lodi Township in Washtenaw County, was killed Saturday night March 23, 1957 when he was struck by a car on a rural road near Ann Arbor.

Funeral services for J. Emanuel Jedele, 68, who was fatally injured when, struck by a car Saturday night March 23, 1957, were held Tuesday at the Lockwood Funeral Home, with Rev. H. L. Engle officiating. Jedele of 2925 Brassow Road, Lodi Township, was walking along Pleasant Lake Road at 9:15 when he was struck by a car driven by Leo A. Schnurstein, 40, of 433 S. First Street in Ann Arbor, according to sheriff deputies. The accident occurred a half mile west of the Saline-Ann Arbor Road. Schnurstein told deputies that he did not see Jedele until too late to avoid hitting him. He said that the victim was walking in the center of the road, and because he was wearing dark clothing it was impossible to see him until too late to avoid the accident. Deputies said that Schnurstein, in swerving his car following the impact of the accident, slid into a five-foot deep ditch.

Walter Lindemann of 4820 Pleasant Lake Road, told sheriff's deputies that he had seen Jedele walking in the center of the road a few minutes before the accident, and that he had to swerve his car to avoid hitting him. Jedele was the sixth fatal accident victim in Washtenaw County during 1957. Survivors include two sisters. Miss Mary and Miss Martha Jedele of Lodi Township. Two sisters and a brother preceded him in death.

Marriage Notes for Bertha Schairer and Frederick Nissley:

A beautiful wedding took place Tuesday morning June 27, 1933 at 10 o'clock, when Miss Bertha Schairer and Mr. Fred H. Nissly of Ypsilanti exchanged vows. Rev. David Porter of the First Presbyterian Church in Ypsilanti performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Eva Schairer, of Grand Forks, North Dakota, and the groom by Arthur Nissly of Detroit. The bride wore a gown of rose silk lace and carried her mother's wedding handkerchief and a shower bouquet of brides roses and delphinium, and the bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink Killarney roses.

The old-fashioned mantle in the living room was banked by lacy sprays of alder blossoms and the stately stems of hollyhocks. In front of this were baskets of roses and delphinium and on the mantle were Hiawatha roses and delphinium. After the ring ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Nissly left for a short wedding trip, after which they return to, Saline for the summer. In the fall they will reside in Ypsilanti. Mrs. Nissly received a cablegram from her brother, Otto S. Schairer, of the R.C.A. of London, England, extending his best wishes and congratulations.

Notes for Josephine Muir:

Mrs. Josephine Schairer, 86, beloved West Point resident, died of flu-pneumonia at St. Joseph's Home for Aged, Sunday, Jan. 16, 1944. Funeral services are being held at 2 o'clock today at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gale Washburn, and at 2:30 o'clock at the Grace Lutheran church with Dr. W. A. Klink officiating. Following the services the Eastern Star will take charge of the funeral and interment will be made in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Josephine Muir Schairer, well know pioneer of this city for about sixty years, was born June 7, 1860 to Emeline and William Muir in Pittsfield Township near Saline, Michigan. She was the oldest of a family of four children, one sister and two brothers preceding her in death. May 17, 1883, she was united in marriage with A. M. Schairer at "The Schairer Home" at Ann Arbor, Michigan. To this union were born four children one of whom died in infancy. A year after her marriage on Sept. 21, 1884, the family moved from Saline, Michigan, to West Point where, they have lived since except for two years that were spent in Crowell, Nebraska. The deceased was a member of Grace Lutheran church, Ladies Aid Society of which she was secretary for six years and treasurer for three years; and the missionary society. She was also a member of the Rose Star chapter No. 238 and treasurer of that organization for 23 years.

Surviving her are two daughters, Sarah Eunice, Mrs. Gale Washburn of this city, and Mary Louise, Mrs. John Blanchard of Omaha; one son, Stuart of Clint, Texas; four grandchildren, Delphis Ann and Deltah Lou, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Schairer, and Mae Jo and Gale Washburn, Jr., daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Gale Washburn; one niece, Mrs. Vernon Allmendinger of Dexter, Michigan, and one nephew, William Muir, of Elkhart, Ind. Friends spoke of Mrs. Schairer as "sweet and uncomplaining and always had that indomitable sense of humor which earned her so many dear friends and made them enjoy her company so much."

Marriage Notes for Aaron Schairer and Josephine Muir:

June 8, 1933 - More than 200 guests registered Sunday at the A. M. Schairer home, when Mr. and Mrs. Schairer held open house for their friends in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage, solemnized at Ann Arbor, Michigan, May 17, 1883. Mr. and Mrs. Schairer have lived in West Pont for 49 years of the half century of their married life. Among out of town well-wishers joining the local friends in the Sunday calls were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Killoran and daughter Catherine, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rich, Mrs. Norman Davis, Mrs. Christina Nelight, Mrs. C. W. Feldman, Miss Minnie Baumann, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sterling, Mrs. R. B. Hasselquist and Richard Krause, all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taggart and daughter, Sally, of Sioux City, Iowa; Mrs. J.W. Merriman, and daughter, Jean, of Dallas, Texas; Mrs. Gus Von Essen of Oakland, Romig Krause of Bancroft; Mrs. Leonard Hobel and little son of Leigh; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Baas of Beecher; Mr. and Mrs. D. Gifts of flowers and many other tokens of esteem of friends and organizations, in which Mr. and Mrs. Schairer have found association during their long residence here, were on display in the home which was beautifully decorated with flowers as a setting for the happy occasion. Last evening, the evening of the golden wedding day, the immediate family, some of them guests from afar, observed the anniversary at a dinner, covers being laid for 23 persons. The home decorations of flowers and the golden appointments for the tables made an appropriate setting. The dinner was served in three courses and was interspersed and followed by an informal program of toasts and reminiscences, with Mrs. Sam Krause as toastmistress. Following the dinner a happy evening of renewing association with visiting relatives and reminiscences of former associations was greatly enjoyed. Diversional episodes introducing much merriment included a charivari by neighbor friends of Mrs. Schairer, who appeared early in the evening and were treated to refreshments for reward; a charivari by the family group later in the evening and a Shower of comical gifts which the golden wedding bride was required to open and display. The gift display of the Sunday occasion had meantime been augmented by gifts brought by the relatives.

Out of town relatives included were a daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blanchard, of Omaha, who arrived Saturday and are still guests at the family home, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Schairer and daughters Delphia Anne and Delta Loue, of Clint, Texas and her niece. Miss Eileen Bramwell, of Tornillo, Texas, who arrived on Sunday; Mrs. W. H. Huelster and Mrs. Sam Krause of Grand Rapids, Michigan, sisters of Mr. Schairer, who arrived Tuesday and are leaving today; and two nieces of Mr. Schairer, Mrs. Robert Staeber of Kalamazoo, Michigan, and Miss Elizabeth Reimold of South Bend, Indiana, who arrived on Tuesday.

Baumann, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baumann, John Baumann and Mr. and Mrs. John Rich. Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Klink of the Grace Lutheran Church were also guests.

Notes for Alfred Charles Schairer:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S. J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Alfred C. Schairer, whose interest in the intellectual and moral as well as material development of Ann Arbor makes his a well rounded character, while his energy prompts his active co-operation in these various lines of activity, was born in Scio Township. Washington County, on the 25th of October, 1874. His father, John Schairer, was born in Germany and was only eight years of age when brought to Michigan. Reared to manhood in this state, he eventually began farming on his own account and owned and operated ninety acres of land on the Jackson Territory Road. He married Rose Meyer and both have now departed this life. In their family were eleven children, of whom nine are yet living: Frank, a farmer residing in Lima Township; Mrs. William Stierle, whose husband is an agriculturist of Scio; Jacob and William, who follow farming in Scio Township; Mrs. George Heppler, who is living in Ann Arbor Township; Simon, a merchant of Dexter, Washtenaw County; Mattie, living in Ann Arbor; Alfred C., of this review; and Clara of this city.

Alfred C. Schairer at the usual age entered the district schools and was a student in Scio Township until nine years of age, after which he continued his studies in Lima Township until fifteen years of age. At that time he came to Ann Arbor and entered the city schools. His connection with the printing business began as an employee of the Inland Press, remaining with that house until about 1900, when in connection with Messrs. Gates & Kerr he established the Athens Press in the Athens Theatre building, just north of the Ann Arbor post office. The company has large quarters on the main floor, and are printers of general commercial and society work, pamphlets, booklets, etc. The Athens Press is noted for its high class work, its thorough reliability and its continuous progress in keeping with the most advanced ideas of the industrial art. Mr. Schairer has a thorough and practical understanding of the trade and in the development and growth of the enterprise he has put forth earnest purpose guided by laudable ambition and sound judgment.

On the 25th of August, 1898, Mr. Schairer was married to Miss Lydia Staebler, of Ann Arbor Township, and they have a little daughter, Esther, who, at the age of six years, is now attending school. Mr. Schairer takes a deep interest in those concerns which effect humanity and the betterment of the race. He has been corresponding secretary of the local Young Men's Christian Association and for three years was one of its board of directors. The association has fine new quarters in a beautiful brick structure, and the organization has a large and growing membership. Mr. Schairer belongs to the Bethlehem Church and has been a co-operate factor in many activities promoting the moral development of the community. He is a man of kindly sympathy, of ready charity and benevolent disposition, and while he is conducting a business of considerable extent and importance and meeting- therein a justly merited and gratifying success, he is never so busy but that he can find time to devote to church or religious work. He is always willing to extend to any one the courtesy of an interview, and his ready sympathy has made him greatly beloved by many who have benefited by his assistance. Fraternally he is connected with the Woodmen of America, while his political relation is with the Republican Party.

Marriage Notes for Martha Jedele and Clinton Saltsgiver:

South Bend - Miss Ida M. Jedele, daughter of Jacob Jedele, of Detroit, Michigan, and Attorney Clinton Saltsgiver, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Saltsgiver, of this city, were married this afternoon Jun 1, 1910 in Freedom, Michigan. The ceremony was performed in the Evangelical church which was attractively decorated in cut flowers, palms and ferns. The Rev. Fred Mayer, pastor and the uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony in the presence of 200 relatives and friends. The bride was gowned in white and carried bride's roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Louise Jedele, who also wore white and carried carnations. The Mendelssohn and Lohengrin marches were played by Miss Ruth Jedele. C. Albert Moore, of Mishawaka, a cousin of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony came a reception at the home of the bride's uncle, Rev. Fred Mayer, the house being attractively decorated. The collation was served by cousins of the bride. Mr. Saltsgiver and bride will spend several days in Ann Arbor and Detroit. After June 15 they will be at home at 311 East Third Street, Mishawaka.

2593. Mary Louise¹¹ Pfeifler (Gottlieb¹⁰ Pfeifle, Johannes⁹, Anna Katharina⁸ Frey, Johann Peter⁷, Andreas⁶, Georg⁵, Johannes⁴, Conrad³, Hans Cunrad², Jerg¹) was born 25 May 1854 in Saginaw, Saginaw Co, Michigan, and died 13 Dec 1931 in Edmore, Montcalm Co, Michigan. She married Edgar Steven (Shaw) Wagar 26 Oct 1875 in Cedar Springs, Kent Co, Michigan. He was born 30 Aug 1850 in Constantine, St. Joseph Co, Michigan, and died 17 Jul 1914 in Edmore, Montcalm Co, Michigan.

Notes for Edgar Steven (Shaw) Wagar:

Edgar Shaw Wagar earned his own education, and without any aid save that of his own determination to succeed, backed by a fearlessness of hard work, forced his way to the front rank in the business world. His parents located on a farm about three miles from Constantine, Michigan, in 1843, and it was here, on August 30, 1850, that he was born. When large enough to work he found plenty awaiting him on the little farm, and he divided his time between that occupation and attending the schools of the district until he was 17 years old. That summer he was employed as a shoveller with a construction train during the building of what is now the Chicago & West Michigan Railroad, between Grand Rapids and Sparta. He earned the first money he ever had in his life loading sand on cars at $1.25 a day and boarded himself out of this stipend, saving enough to pay for his tuition in the Constantine high school until the following June, when he left school and worked with a threshing machine outfit around the county, returning to school when the threshing season closed. This was his hardest school year. He had very little money, and was compelled to live very close during the term. He did his own cooking in a little back bedroom, eating his dinners very often in a frozen state. Saturdays he earned some money chopping four foot wood at 65 cents per cord.

The following summer he secured a position as clerk in a grocery store at Cedar Springs, Michigan, at $5 per week. He remained in that business for eight years, and in the summer of 1878 decided to start in the hardware business, with which he had some experience, on his own account. At that time, Edmore was just coming into existence as a prospective lumbering village, and he selected that place as the one in which to commence business. The town of Edmore was plotted in a dense pine forest and the main street was simply indicated by a marking of trees. He built a small store, and his first stock of goods did not make a good-sized load for a wheelbarrow. While in Cedar Springs he had met and married Miss Mary L. Pfeiffer, of that place, and she followed him on his pioneer venture to Edmore. He met her at McBride, the terminus of the new railroad, and together they walked through the darkness and rain a distance of four miles to their home. The first two years the young couple spent in Edmore were made up of struggles and privations, with pressing indebtedness, but he worked so hard that the neighbors used to say "Ed Wagar has set down only one in four years." The business success.

In 1887 he sold his hardware business and commenced his lumbering operations. In 1893-95 Mr. Wagar was a representative for the First district of Montcalm County, and State senator from the Eighteenth district, 1897-99. In 1907 Mr. Wagar found himself in condition to close up all his lumber deals and enter into his present business as private banker under the name E.S. Wagar's Bank, at Edmore, Michigan, in which business he still continues and has been eminently successful.

E.S. Wagar Senator from the eighteenth district, comprising the counties of Ionia and Montcalm, was born in Constantine, St. Joseph County, Michigan, August 30, 1850. He was reared on a farm, obtained his education at the public schools, and at the age of eighteen he went to Cedar Springs and engaged as a clerk in a store. In this occupation and book-keeping he continued until 1878, when he removed to Edmore, Montcalm county, and engaged in a general hardware business. In 1887, when the lumbering business was at its height, he sold out and engaged in the lumber and shingle trade, in which he was quite successful. In 1897 he succeeded Mr. Wisner in the banking business, which he still pursues. Mr. Wagar is a active member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and has been president of the Epworth league. He is an uncompromising republican, and has been for two years chairman of the republican county committee of Montcalm County. He was elected to the senate of 1897-98, and is now serving his second term, having been elected to the senate of 1899-1900 by a vote of 8,013 to 5,927 for Frank J. Lucik, democratic people's union silver candidate.

The People's State Bank of Edmore was originally organized or rather established by E.S. Wagar, in 1897, who managed it as a private bank under the name of E.S. Wagar's Bank. In 1908 Mr. Wagar incorporated it as a state bank and gave it the name which it now bears. The original capital stock was placed at $20,000 and has never been changed. The first officers were E.S. Wagar, president; William A. Wood, vice-president; Harry E. Wagar, cashier. Mr. Wagar served at the helm of this bank until his death in 1914 and in his seventeen years as head of the institution he always tried to conduct the business of the bank to the best interests of the stockholders and patrons. William A. Wood succeeded Mr. Wagar as the presidency with James Purdon as Vice-president and Harry E. Wagar retained the position of cashier.
