Notes for Isaac Christian (Burkhardt) Burkhart:
A history of California and an extended history of Los Angeles and Evirons, Volume 3. By James Miller Guinn; Historic Record Company, in Los Angeles, California, 1915. Page 889:

Isaac Burkhart. Among the immigrants who came to this country from Germany in 1796 was Tobias Burkhart, who made settlement in Pennsylvania near Williamsport. His wife, Christena Kiess, was also of German birth and parentage and received a good education in the schools of Stuttgart, Germany. Born to these parents were four sons and two daughters, all of whom were born at Williamsport, Pa., and of whom the two daughters and one son are now living in Ohio; one son, George, died in 1913.

Isaac Burkhart was born November 28, 1840, and was therefore about seven years of age when the family home was transferred from Pennsylvania to Ohio. To this youthful traveler the journey was interesting indeed, and he well remembers the loading and unloading of the two covered wagons that held the family possessions. Settlement was made on a farm two miles east of Bucyrus, Crawford County, and there the family lived contentedly for ten years. After this, however, the children left home one by one to establish themselves elsewhere, until only Isaac and Jacob remained with the parents. Tobias Burkhart finally disposed of his property in Crawford County and settled in Williams County, also in Ohio, and purchased three hundred and forty acres of land which he gave to the two sons just mentioned.

In 1867 Isaac Burkhart was united in marriage with Elisabeth Kaiser, who like himself claimed German antecedents, although she was born in Ohio. It was about twenty years after his marriage, and after the death of both his father and mother, that Mr. Burkhart made his first trip to the west in 1888. Among other places visited was Los Angeles, which city impressed him very favorably for large business opportunity. Associated with his brother W. H. he erected an apartment house on Temple Street 60x80 feet with forty rooms. After the completion of the building Isaac Burkhart returned east for the purpose of disposing of his holdings there, and on April 17, 1890, entered Los Angeles for the second and last time, and made his home in the apartment house on Temple Street. It was during that year also that Isaac and W. H. Burkhart put in operation the Nickel Plate Railroad, a dummy line running from the end of Temple Street to Hollywood. The undertaking was carried on successfully for several years, when the brothers became owners of the Santa Fe avenue horse car line. This also was operated with good returns for several years, the brothers then purchasing from Abbot Kinney a tract of land on Dayton Avenue. The interests of the brothers in this property were divided later, each taking his share and thus ending partnership associations covering many years.

It was about 1895 that Isaac and Elisabeth Burkhart bought ninety foot frontage on Los Angeles and Seventh streets and upon it erected an apartment house of forty-five rooms, on its completion removing to it from the Temple street property. In the following year, 1896, Mr. Burkhart built a number of cottages on Dayton Avenue, still later putting up a three-story block on the corner of Temple and Figueroa streets.

Mrs. Elisabeth (Kaiser) Burkhart passed away March 31, 1900, and on January 1, 1902, Mr. Burkhart married Elisabeth Basler, a native of Germany. After holding the property on Los Angeles Street for about ten years Mr. Burkhart sold it to H. E. Huntington in 1905. A few weeks afterward he purchased property at the corner of Main and Jefferson streets, upon which he built a two-story business block and also a residence at No. 111 West Jefferson street, which has been his home ever since. In addition to the properties already mentioned he built a two-story business block at No. 2614 Pasadena Avenue, with garage, and also purchased and improved the corner of Vernon Avenue and Figueroa Street, besides improving about forty other places, and is still interested in building.

The entire life of Isaac Burkhart has been molded and influenced by religious convictions, for at an early age he was converted to a belief in the teachings of Christ, under the preaching of Mr. Shireman and George Haley in Ohio. He is identified with Salem Evangelical Church, at the corner of Twelfth and Hope streets, in which he has filled every office except that of pastor and at present is treasurer and a trustee. Although Mr. Burkhart had no children of his own several children have come under his protecting care and received educations that but for him would never have been possible. Two of these children married and died in Terre Haute, Indiana. Another, Keziah Favorite, makes her home in Eaton Rapids, Michigan. Two others live in California. Frank in Los Angeles, and Fred in Pomona. It is needless to say that Mr. Burkhart has been a keen observer of conditions and possibilities in Los Angeles during his residence of nearly thirty years here, and his investments voice his sentiments more favorably than could words.

(LA 1293. Department One. – January 31, 1905)
FRANCES BROOKS (formerly BURKHART), and WILLIAM H. BURKHART, Appellants, v. UNION TRUST AND REALTY COMPANY, Respondent.

RESULTING TRUST—PAROL EVIDENCE—RECITAL OF CONSIDERATION.—Parol evidence is admissible to establish a resulting trust in real property arising under section 853 of the Civil Code, notwithstanding the recital of a money consideration in apparent opposition thereto, which was not in fact paid by trustees, who had received the title to the property without consideration and had agreed orally to hold it in trust in definite proportions for those who had furnished the consideration.

ID.—ACTION BY DIVORCED WIFE AND FORMER HUSBAND—TITLE UNDER JUDGMENT AND SHERIFF'S SALE—JOINT OWNERSHIP—PAROL EVIDENCE.—In an action by a divorced wife remarried and her former husband to enforce a resulting and constructive trust, where the former husband had obtained a judgment which he had assigned to his wife, under which the title was obtained at sheriff's sale, the testimony of the divorced wife is admissible to show that the judgment and sheriff's sale there under belonged to herself and former husband in equal shares.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT — JURISDICTION UNDER AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION.—Under the provisions of section 4 of article VI of the constitution, as amended in 1904, this court has power to make rules having the force of positive law so far as the rights of the parties are concerned, if they do not conflict with any act of the legislature.

ID.—RULE REQUIRING SERVICE OF PETITION FOR REHEARING.—Rule XXX of this court, requiring a petition for rehearing to be served upon the adverse party within twenty days after the judgment is pronounced, and allowing time for an answer to be filed thereto, is valid; and a petition filed without such service must be disregarded if no showing is made of unavoidable accident or excusable mistake and substantial injury to be inflicted by its enforcement.

APPEAL from a judgment of the Superior Court of Los. Angeles County and from an order denying a motion for new trial. N. P. Conrey, Jud&e.

The main facts are stated in the commissioner's opinion, and further facts are stated by the court in Bank on petition for rehearing.

Dunnigan & Dunnigan, for Appellants.

Walter Bordwell, for Respondent.

SMITH, C.—This is a suit to enforce an alleged trust (resulting and constructive) in land conveyed to defendant's grantors by plaintiffs' alleged trustee. The findings and judgment were for the defendant; and the plaintiffs' appeal from an order denying their motion for a new trial. Both parties—with an exception that will be noted—rely on the same deraignment of title, which is as follows:—

1. Judgment in favor of plaintiff Burkhart against Teresa Luhring, of date September 19, 1891, for the sum of $85.85— afterwards assigned to plaintiff Brooks; who was then the wife of Burkhart, but afterwards divorced.
2. Sheriff's sale under execution on the judgment for the sum of $135.75, and certificate of sale to plaintiff Brooks, on date July, 1895; at which time, it is alleged in the complaint and not denied, she was still the wife of Burkhart. On this point there seems to be some confusion. The finding of the court is to the contrary of the allegation; and in the respondent's brief it is said that the parties had been divorced nearly two years prior to the sale. But we are cited to no evidence in support of this assertion, and have not been able to find any. The point is material only to the matter in evidence.
3. Assignment of certificate of sale, for recited consideration of $135.75, and subsequent sheriff's deed, January 22, 1896, to Daniel Burkhart and Leonard Brooks; sons, the former, of plaintiff Burkhart, the latter, of plaintiff Brooks.
4. Conveyance by Leonard Brooks to Daniel Burkhart, and allotment of the land in question to the latter, by judgment in a partition suit, in the year 1899.
5. Deed of Daniel Burkhart, during his last illness, to Sexton & Grider, of date January 8, 1901.
6. Deed from Sexton & Grider to defendant, of date January 9, 1901.

In addition to the above, it is alleged in the second count of the complaint that during the last illness of Daniel Burkhart, and before his deed to Sexton & Grider, a deed, in execution of the trust, was made and delivered by him to his father, and brother, John Burkhart. But there will be no occasion to consider this aspect of the case.

It is alleged by the plaintiff in effect: That the plaintiff Mrs. Brooks, under agreement to that effect, took the certificate of purchase at the sheriff's sale for the joint use and benefit of herself and husband, in certain definite proportions; that the certificate was assigned by her, and, by the direction of plaintiffs, the sheriff's deed made, to Leonard Brooks and Daniel Burkhart, without consideration, and upon a parol agreement and understanding that they should hold the land in trust for plaintiffs; that the deed of the former to the latter was made by direction of plaintiff Burkhart upon the same trust and confidence; that the trust was repeatedly admitted by Leonard and Daniel; and, finally, that the deeds from Daniel to Sexton & Grider, and from the latter to the defendant, were taken by the grantees, respectively, with full knowledge of the trust.

It is further alleged, in effect: That the deed to Sexton & Grider was procured by the fraud and undue influence of the grantees, acting in conspiracy with one Bigelow and others; and that the defendant took the deed with knowledge of the trust relations between Daniel and the plaintiffs, and of the fraud and conspiracy of its grantors and Bigelow. These allegations occur in the second count of the complaint, wherein all the facts set out in the first count are also alleged. On all of the issues thus raised, the findings were adverse to the plaintiffs.

The points urged by the appellants are: That the material findings are not supported by the evidence; that a new trial should have been granted on the affidavits of newly discovered evidence; and that the court erred in sustaining the objections of the defendant to questions put to the plaintiff Brooks and her son Leonard as to the agreement or understanding under which they took their respective titles.

The last point, if sustained or held to be untenable, will dispose of the appeal; and, as we are of the opinion that it is well taken, it will be sufficient to say of the others that evidence was introduced by the plaintiffs to prove their material allegations—some of it of a very cogent nature; and that it is claimed by the appellant, not without some plausibility, that "had the court not been in error upon the law of this matter, it would doubtless have granted a new trial on the affidavits." Our attention will, therefore, be confined to the point raised by the exclusion of the testimony of Mrs. Brooks and her son Leonard.

As to the former, it is urged by the respondent that the evidence offered was inadmissible because it appeared that Mrs. Brooks was "the owner of the judgment which was the consideration of the sale." But—leaving out of view that it appears that advances for sheriff's costs were made by Burkhart, which would constitute part of the consideration—her testimony as to her part interest with her husband in the property purchased (the fruit of the judgment) would have been cogent to prove that she was similarly interested in the judgment itself; and the justice of this inference is confirmed by her own express testimony to that effect. Nor were it otherwise, are we to be understood as holding that the point would be tenable.

But the principal point urged relates to the testimony of Leonard, and is, that, a money consideration being recited in the assignment of the certificate, and in the sheriff's deed to him, parol evidence was inadmissible to establish the alleged trust; in support of which contention Russ v. Mebius, 16 Cal. 350, and other cases are cited. But these were cases where the trusts sought to be established were in favor of the grantor; and if it be assumed for the purposes of the decision, that such trusts continue to exist, as resulting trusts, under the codes (Feeney v. Howard, 79 Cal. 5301), yet the principle announced in Russ v. Mebius is peculiar to that class of cases, and has no application to the kind of resulting trusts referred to in section 853 of the Civil Code. In trusts of this kind the consideration is usually recited, yet parol testimony is always admissible. (Hidden v. Jordan, 21 Cal. 93; Btylcs v. Baxter, 22 Cal. 575; Millard v. 'Hathaway, 27 Cal. 119, 142; cases cited, Pomeroy's ed. Civ. Code, section cited.) The evidence offered was, we think, clearly admissible, and its exclusion material error.

We advise that the order appealed from be reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial.

Cooper, C, and Gray, C, concurred.

For the reasons given in the foregoing opinion, the order appealed from is reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial. Van Dyke, J., Shaw, J., Angellotti, J. 112 Am. St. Kep. 162.

On petition for rehearing in Bank, the following opinion was rendered February 28, 1905, by the court in Bank:—

THE COURT.—The respondent has filed with the clerk a petition for rehearing without serving a copy thereof on the adverse party. Section 4 of article VI of the constitution, as amended November 8, 1904, contains the following provision :—

" The supreme court shall make and adopt rules not inconsistent with law for the government of the supreme court and of the district courts of appeal and of the officers thereof, and for regulating the practice in said courts."

In pursuance of this authority and command the Supreme Court has adopted rules of practice which are now in force. Rule XXX provides as follows:—

"1. Applications for a rehearing of a cause by the court rendering judgment therein must be filed and a copy served on the adverse party, within twenty days after the judgment is pronounced. The adverse party may file an answer thereto not less than two days before the expiration of the time within which the rehearing can be granted. . . .

"4. The times herein prescribed shall not be extended, and the clerk must not file any such application or answer after the time therefore has expired."

By virtue of the power conferred by the amendment, the Supreme Court now has authority to make rules of practice which have the force of positive law so far as the rights of the parties are concerned, provided such rules do not conflict with any act of the legislature. The provisions of rule XXX, above quoted, are consistent with the law. They confer a positive right upon the prevailing party to have a copy of such application served upon him, at least ten days before the expiration of the time within which the application can be considered by the court, and give him at least eight days thereafter within which to file an answer thereto. These are substantial advantages to adverse parties, and if they are wisely used the court will be materially aided in the disposition of the application. Where rules of court are of such a nature that important rights are given by them, a compliance therewith must be strictly enforced. In cases where it is shown that by unavoidable accident or excusable mistake parties have been prevented from observing such rules, and it appears that substantial injury will be inflicted by their enforcement, the court may, on proper terms, allow a departure there from. Such cases, however, must be extremely rare and the circumstances extraordinary, and the court will be reluctant to vary in the least from the exact practice prescribed. Under the circumstances here shown the petition should not have been filed without the service upon the adverse party, and it must be disregarded.

Notes for Samuel Kiess:
Mr. Kiess has quite a rare collection of bric-a-brac, which is of very great value to a lover of relics as he is. He has a Bible, the former property of a German in New York, that was printed in the year 1668, and for which he has been offered $3,000, refusing to take that amount. It is about 16" long x 10-1/2" wide x 6" thick, and is bound in what is supposed to the leather made from the skin of a hog, with heavy brass corners and clasps, and was printed in Frankfort, Germany. He also has a fine collection of ancient coins and currency, among which is a three cent piece issued by the West Branch Bank of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, on the first of January 1863; a ten-cent piece from the Williams County, Ohio, and also some from the State Bank of Ohio, bearing an early date.

Notes for Jacob John Burkhardt:
The County of Williams by William Henry Sinn, Madison Wisconsin - Northwestern Historical Association, 1905; page 314:

Jacob J. Burkhart, a successful farmer and highly respected citizen of St. Joseph Township, Williams Co, Ohio, was born in Lycoming County Pennsylvania, October 15, 1842. He is the son of Tobias and Christina (Keiss) Burkhart, both natives of Germany. Tobias Burkhart came to the United States in 1804 with his mother, Dorothy (Beal) Burkhart, and located Pennsylvania, where she died. His wife, Christina (Keiss) Burkhart, came to America in 1817, both of her parents having died in Germany. They came to Williams County, Ohio in 1865 and settled on a farm in St. Joseph Twp, where he died in 1876, aged eighty years, and she died nine years later, aged eighty-three years.

Jacob J. was reared on his father's farm and educated at Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio. Having learned the shoemaker's trade, he set up a shop in Edon, Williams Co, Ohio, and plied his avocation there for almost fifteen years. Selling his shop he invested the proceeds in a farm of sixty acres about two miles northwest of Edgerton, on which he has lived the past twenty-two years, following general farming. To public office he has never aspired, notwithstanding he is a very active Democrat.

Jacob J. Burkhart married Miss Harriet Mowery, who was born in Sandusky County, Ohio, January 27, 1851, and died November 9, 1887, aged thirty-six years, four months and twelve days. On July 4, 1889, he married Miss Mary E. Hollinger of Sandusky County, born May 24, 1859, the daughter of Charles and Philipina (Hopp) Hollinger. Charles Hollinger was born in Bavaria, Germany, September 14, 1814. He married in 1841 and emigrated to America seven years later, locating in Sandusky County, where he resided on a farm until 1867, when he removed to Williams County, Ohio, settling on a farm two miles northeast of Edgerton. His wife, also a native of Bavaria, was born June 14, 1814. They are both dead, he dying July 21, 1889, aged nearly seventy-five years, and she on January 23, 1905, aged nearly ninety-one years. They were the parents of seven daughters and three sons, all of whom are living. Bartlett Hollinger, the father of Charles Hollinger, was a native of Germany and came to the United States with his son in 1848, and died in Sandusky County. Fred, Jacob, brothers of Charles Hollinger, came over at the same time, the former dying at Fremont, Ohio, in 1889, and the latter is now a resident of Sandusky County, his farm being twelve miles west of Fremont. Henry Hollilnger, who came to Sandusky County and died at Bettsville in that county in 1889. Two sisters and a half-sister of Mr.

Burkhart's first wife emigrated to America, locating in Baltimore, Maryland, where all died except one sister, who died at Bowling Green, Ohio.

To Jacob J. Burkhart and his first wife there were born four children. They are: Fred Isaac, born December 4, 1872; Willis Daniel, born November 13, 1874; Maudie Elizabeth, born January 19, 1877, and died June 28, 1895; and Samuel Jacob, born October 18, 1881. By his second wife he had three children, all daughters: Gladys May, born January 26, 1892; Flossie Ladortha, born February 19, 1894, and Carrie Gertrude, born May 18, 1895. Mr. and Mrs. Burkhart are members of the Evangelical Association. In politics Mr. Burkhart is a staunch Democrat.

Notes for Jonathan H. Kiess:
History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 899:

J. H. Kiess, who has lived on his present farm of 160 acres, situated in Whetstone Township, Crawford County, Ohio, for 42 years, has owned this land for 36 of these, purchasing from Jonathan Heinlein, it then being called the old Burkhardt farm. Jr. Kiess was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a son of Jacob and Catherine (Roth) Kiess.

Christopher Kiess, the grandfather, was born in Germany and came from there in 1806 and settled in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, where he was one of the early school teachers. In 1850 the family decided to come to Crawford County, Ohio, and it required two weeks for the loaded farm wagons to make the long overland journey. They settled in Whetstone Township and among the good citizens of this section the name is not an unusual one. The mother of J. H. Kiess died after coming to Crawford County, leaving two children: J. H. and Lydia, the latter of whom is now deceased and is survived by her husband, Lewis Cripes. Jacob Kiess married Catherine Delker for his second wife and they had the following children: Simeon, Joseph, Daniel, Samuel, W. C., Christiana and Mary Margaret.

J. H. Kiess had but meager school advantages in the English language but in Pennsylvania attended a German school. His help was needed by his father when he was yet young and he has devoted his whole business life to agricultural pursuits. He has enriched his land and carefully cultivated it and it gives bountiful returns, and his buildings are those that are found on the farms of substantial and self-respecting people, built and kept up not only for shelter but for comfortable living. Mr. Kiess makes no attempt to raise any great amount of stock but always has enough for his own use.

In 1864,Mr. Kiess was married (first) to Miss Elizabeth Cook, a daughter of Jacob and Mary (Kiess) Cook, and to this marriage the following children were born; Mary B., Franklin J., Ella Lucinda and Matilda, all of whom are deceased; Rebecca, who is the wife of T. P. Crawl; and Ida E., who is the wife of Samuel Keiser. Mr. Kiess was married second to Miss Rachel Cook, a daughter of George and Rebecca (Young) Cook, and they have had five children: Reuben, who is deceased; Wesley, who is a mail carrier: and Olen, Charles F. and Bertha May.

Mr. Kiess has frequently served in public office but it has not been any political reward as he votes independently. He has been very useful and progressive in relation to educational matters and has been equally concerned in giving the people good roads, for some years serving as road supervisor. With his family he attends the Evangelical Church.

Jonathan H. Kiess, a widely known and popular farmer of Whetstone township, near the overhead bridge, on the Middletown Road, died at 8 o'clock, Friday morning April 26, 1912; aged 71 years, 4 months, 17 days. Funeral at 1:30 o'clock, Sunday, from the borne with concluding services at the Salem Evangelical church.

Mr. Kiess was born December 9, 1840, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and in 1851 came with his father to Ohio, settling in Whetstone township where he resided continuously until his death for a period of more than sixty years. He was a progressive farmer and an honorable man. He was married twice, both wives having preceded him to eternity. The children who survive him are Mrs. Rebecca Crall, of Oklahoma, and Mrs. Ida Kisor, of Williams County this state, S. Wesley Kiess, of Bucyrus. Three brothers, Simeon K., Joseph F. and W. C. Kiess, all of Bucyrus, and one daughter, Mrs. Christina Butts, of Jewell, Kansas.

Notes for Rachel Koch:

The many friends of Mrs. Jonathan Kiess of Whetstone township will be shocked to learn of her death, which occurred at 1 o'clock this afternoon Jan. 11, 1907 at the family home, one mile east of Bucyrus. Her death came unexpectedly and was a sad shock to her family and friends. Mrs. Kiess had recently undergone an operation for hernia, after a severe illness of ten days and though it had been feared before the operation that her recovery was a matter of grave doubt, the outlook afterward became very encouraging, in fact fear of trouble from the initial cause of her illness was almost dissipated. However, on Wednesday night or Thursday she contracted pneumonia which ran a very rapid course and came to a fatal termination this afternoon. From the first appearance of the dreaded lung trouble, the hope for her recovery was small.

Mrs. Kiess maiden name was Rachel Cook and she was a daughter of Mr. ad Mrs. George Cook, both deceased. Her birthplace was Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, but the family home has been in Whetstone township for over fifty years. Her age at dea.th was sixty-five years. She was united in marriage thirty years ago to Jonathan Kiess and they have lived near this city ever since their marriage. The husband and four children. Wesley, Olan, Charles and Bertha, and two step-children, Mrs. J.P. Crall of Galion and Mrs. Samuel Kiess of Edon, Ohio, survive. Wesley lives in Bucyrus, being a carrier on one of the rural routes.

There are also surviving following brothers and sisters; Fred Cook, of Bucyrus; George, David and William Cook of Edon, Ohio and Mrs. Elizabeth Gross of Kansas City, Missouri. A sister, Mrs. Kiess, died in Williams County two months ago. Deceased was a member of Salem Evangelical church and was a lady of great worth, highly esteemed in be neighborhood in which she lived and loved and respected alike by all who became acquainted with her. She was a loving and faithful wife and mother, sympathetic and ready with a helping hand whenever assistance was needed by others. Her death is a heavy blow to her husband and children and a loss to the community and the members of the family have the sympathy of all in their sorrow.

Funeral services will be held on Sunday morning, meeting at the home at 10 a.m., with services following at Salem Evangelical church Rev. B.E. Reams will officiate and burial will be made in the church cemetery.

Notes for Simeon Kiess:
History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 721:

Simeon Kiess and Joseph F. Kiess, retired farmers and respected citizens of Bucyrus, Ohio, are sons of Jacob and Catherine (Delker) Kiess, and grandsons of Christopher and Christina (Sheets) Kiess.

The grandfather, Christopher Kiess, and his wife were both born in Wurtemberg, Germany, and after marriage lived at Stuttgart until January, 1806, when they emigrated to America, landing probably at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, from that city moving to Lycoming County. There Christopher Kiess was a farmer and also taught school and for many years resided near the present city of Williamsport, where he died March 26, 1866, when aged 88 years and 2 months, having survived his wife for a few years. They were members of the Pietist colony, a body of religionists who came to the United States in order to follow out their religious beliefs in their daily lives. To Christopher Kiess and wife the following - children were born: Rebecca, born September 8, 1801; Abraham, born September 23, 1802; Catharine, born October 30, 1805; William, born February 26, 1808, in America; Dorothea, born October 8, 1809; Jacob, born August 6, 1812; Salome, born September 6, 1813; Sophia, born September 3, 1816; Emanuel, born July 9, 1818; and Christina, born July 23, 1820.

Jacob Kiess grew to manhood on his father's farm and continued to reside in Pennsylvania until 1852, when, with his family he started for what was then the far West, Crawford County having been little settled previously in the neighborhood of Whetstone Township. He secured a wild prairie farm, which, with the aid of his sons, was converted into a productive and valuable one, and there he and wife enjoyed some years of comfort. His death on Decoration Day, 1882, was caused by accident while crossing a railroad track. He was twice married, first to a Miss Rote and second to Catherine Delker. To his first marriage two children were born: Jonathan and Lydia. To his second marriage 5 sons were born: Simeon, Joseph F., Daniel, Samuel and William C., and two daughters, Christina and Mary Margaret. The mother of the last named family was born in 1813 in Wurtemberg, Germany, and was a child when her parents emigrated to America and settled in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. She survived her husband for two years and died at the home of a daughter in Kansas. Both she and husband were devout members of the Evangelical Church, in which he was a class leader.

Simeon Kiess grew to manhood on the home farm in Whetstone Township, having been eight years old when the long overland trip was made from Pennsylvania, where he was born January 31, 1844. He remained with his father for some years and then purchased the homestead and continued to carry on farming and stock raising there until 1906, when he shifted its heavy responsibilities to the sturdy shoulders of his sons and retired, moving then to Bucyrus. The farm contains about 40 acres, all of which, with the exception of 80 acres, has been well improved. Mr. Kiess was a very enterprising and progressive farmer and handled only first-class stock and made use of improved and labor-saving machinery.

In 1867 Simeon Kiess was married in Whetstone Township to Miss Catherine Kile, who was born there in I845, a daughter of Tobias and Carrie (Nipp) Kile, natives of Germany. They came to Ohio and after marriage located in Whetstone Township, where the father of Mrs. Kiess lived to be 83 years of age, surviving his wife for five years. To Mr. and Mrs. Kiess the following children were born: Sidney E., Harvey E. and Verne E. Sidney E., who operates a part of his father's farm, married Amanda Cook and they have two children - Raymond and Catherine. Harvey E., who completed his education in the university at Ada, Ohio, is cashier of the Farmers and Citizens Bank of Bucyrus; he married Ida Sherrard, of Gibsonburg, Ohio, and they have two children: Helen Irene and John Simeon, Verne E., who is a farmer in Whetstone Township, married Rebecca Neff of Martel, Ohio, and they have two children: Margaret and Marian. Mr. Kiess and sons are Democrats in politics and the whole family belongs to the Evangelical Church.

Notes for Joseph Frederick Kiess:
History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 722:

Joseph F. Kiess was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, September 15, 1849, and was too young to recall the adventures incident to the long trip over the mountains when his parents came to Crawford County from his native place. He grew to manhood in Whetstone Township and, with his brothers and sisters, attended the district school. When he left home he purchased a farm in the vicinity of the old homestead and still owns 390 acres of valuable land in Whetstone Township, on which he made fine improvements. He was an extensive farmer, stock raiser and sheep grower and for years kept some 500 head of sheep. In April, 1911, he retired having erected a handsome residence on the corner of Lucas and East streets, Bucyrus, and here enjoys all the comforts that modern building now provides. Formerly he was quite active in township affairs and served on the school board and in other offices.

Joseph F. Kiess was married (first) to Miss Rebecca Haldeman, who was born in Morrow County, Ohio, in April, 1856, and died in her home on the farm in Whetstone Township, March 17, 1901, having been a member of the Evangelical church for years. She was a young woman when she accompanied her parents, Rev. Christopher and Susanna (Brickley) Haldeman, to Galion, Ohio, where both died advanced in years. Mrs. Rebecca Kiess was survived by two children: Viola, who is the widow of John Sherer, who died in October, 1910, leaving three children: Catherine R., Evelyn and Joseph N., and Winfield Scott, who manages his father's large farming interests. He married Sadie Cook and they have two children: Leona and William H. Mr. Kiess was married (second) at Bucyrus, August 24, 1909, to Mrs. Elnora (Niebel) Heckman, who was born in Wyandot County, Ohio, and completed her education at the Tiffin High School. In early womanhood she was married to Scott Heckman, who was born in Wyandot County in May, 1860, and died at Sycamore, in November, 1903. He left no children. The parents of Mrs. Kiess were Abraham and Catherine (Haldeman) Niebel, who were of German ancestry but were born in Pennsylvania. They were married in Morrow County, Ohio, and then moved to Wyandot County, where the mother of Mrs. Kiess died. Her father resides at Sycamore and is in his 72nd year. Her one brother, Orval Niebel, is principal of the Sycamore Schools, married Marcella Musser and they have one daughter, Catherine. The grandfather of Mrs. Kiess, Enos Niebel, moved from Pennsylvania to Wyandot County in 1829, and died at Sycamore, Ohio, in May, 1911, when 97 years of age. His father was an early preacher in the Albright, now the Evangelical Church, to which Mr. and Mrs. Kiess belong.

Notes for William Christopher Kiess:
A Centiennial Biographical History of Crawford County, Ohio. Chicago - The Lewis Publishing Company 1902; page 38:

William C. Kiess - The subject of this review is a self-made man who, without any extraordinary family or pecuniary advantages at the commencement of his career, has battled earnestly and energetically, and by indomitable courage and integrity has achieved both character and fortune. By sheer force of will and untiring effort he has worked his way upward and is numbered among the leading citizens of Crawford County, where he is now occupying the position of judge of the probate court, having entered upon the duties of his office on the 9th of February, 1900. His public service has demonstrated that the trust reposed in him is fully merited, and his name is now found on the record of reliable and capable officials in this section of Ohio.

Mr. Kiess was born on a farm in Whetstone Township, in 1857, and is a son of Jacob and Catherine (Delker) Kiess . His paternal grandfather, Christopher Kiess , was a native of Germany, received excellent educational privileges and became a successful teacher in his native land. Crossing the Atlantic to' America, he followed the profession of teaching for twenty years in Pennsylvania. Jacob Kiess, the father of our subject, was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, and after arriving at years of maturity wedded Catherine Delker, whose birth occurred in Germany, and who came to the United States when a maiden of fifteen summers. In the year 1850 they removed to Crawford County, locating upon a farm, which the father owned and operated until his death, which occurred in 1882, when he was seventy-one years of age. His wife passed away in 1885, at the age of sixty-nine years. They were people of the highest respectability, enjoying the esteem and good will of all with whom they came in contact. Of their family, four sons and a daughter are living, namely: William Christopher, of this review; Jonathan H., Simeon and Joseph H., all of whom are successfully following farming in Whetstone Township; and Mrs. M. A. Butts, of Hiawatha, Kansas. Two sons, Daniel and Samuel, and two daughters, Lydia and May Margaret, are deceased.

Born upon his father's farm, William Christopher Kiess was there reared and early took his place in the fields to assist in the work of plowing, planting and harvesting. In the public schools he acquired his elementary education, which was supplemented by study in the Ada Normal University in the year 1887-8. Subsequently he became identified with educational work, and for seven years was known as a competent instructor in the schools of Whetstone Township. His fellow townsmen, recognizing his worth and ability, then called him to public office, and for four years he served as clerk of the township, and was also land appraiser there. In the fall of 1899 he was elected to the office of probate judge of Crawford County and entered upon his duties February 9, 1900, for a three years' term, so that he is the present incumbent. He is extremely faithful, prompt and reliable in performing the labors that devolve upon him, and is making a most creditable record.

Mr. Kiess was united in marriage, in 1879, to Miss Sarah E. Wagner, a daughter of John and Mary Wagner, of Whetstone Township, who came to Crawford County from Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, about the year 1852. Both have now passed away, the father dying at the age of sixty-four years, the mother being called to her final rest when sixty-nine years of age. The marriage of the Judge and Mrs. Kiess has been blessed with two children, Thomas Clinton, who is now seventeen years of age and is a student in the high school, and Bessie Belle, who is also pursuing her studies in the schools of Bucyrus. In his political affiliations the Judge has ever been a Democrat, and keeps well informed on the issues of the day, politically and otherwise. His religious views are indicated by his membership in the Evangelical church. On the 15th of March., 1900, he removed his family to Bucyrus, where they now occupy a pleasant home, which is celebrated for its gracious hospitality. In the county which has been his home throughout his entire life Judge Kiess has made many warm friends, owing" to his possession of those sterling traits of character which everywhere command admiration and respect.

History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 692:

William C. Kiess, vice-president of the Second National Bank of Bucyrus, Ohio, is also largely interested in real estate and conducts an extensive business along this line, dealing in both city realty and farm property. He has been a representative citizen of Crawford County for many years and has frequently been honored by election to offices of trust and responsibility by his fellow citizens. He was born on his father's farm in Whetstone Township, Crawford County, Ohio, in 1857, and is a son of Jacob and Catherine (Delker) Kiess.

Jacob Kiess was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a son of Christopher Kiess and wife, who were natives of Germany. Grandfather Kiess was an educated man and first taught school in his native land and afterward, for twenty years in Pennsylvania. He thus was useful in his day and generation although he never accumulated as much property as have a number of his descendants. In 1850, Jacob Kiess and wife settled on a farm in Crawford County, improved it and there he died in his seventieth year, in 1882. In early manhood he had married Catherine Delker, who was born in Germany, where she lived until fifteen years of age. She survived her husband, passing away in 1885, when aged 69 years. They were members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church and were worthy of their name and profession of faith. Of their children there are three sons and one daughter living, namely: William C., Simeon, Joseph F., and Mrs. M. A. Butts, of Hiawatha, Kansas. William C. Kiess was reared on the home farm and early took part in the necessary toil that successful cultivation of land demands. His education, however, was in no way neglected and he was ambitious as well as intelligent. After attending the public schools he enjoyed higher training in the university at Ada, Ohio, where he was specially prepared in the Normal classes for educational work. For seven years afterward Mr. Kiess taught school, confining his efforts to Whetstone Township, and he met with a large measure of success. He looks back upon that period as a useful season of his life, in which he did his best and felt rewarded for his efforts. Among his warmest friends of the present are those who were once his pupils. From the school-room Mr. Kiess entered public office, serving as township clerk for four years and as land appraiser in his township. On February 9, 1900, he entered upon the duties of probate judge of Crawford County, to which honorable office he had been elected in the previous autumn, and his services on the bench demonstrated his particular fitness for that position. Judge Kiess subsequently turned his attention to dealing in real estate and has numerous additional interests. He is a notary public and maintains his office in the Rowse Building.

Judge Kiess was married in 1879 to Miss Sarah E. Wagner, a daughter of John and Mary Wagner, old residents of Whetstone Township, who have long since passed to their final rest. Two children living were born to Judge and Mrs. Kiess, a son and daughter, Thomas Clinton and Bessie Belle. Judge Kiess and family are members of the Evangelical church. Their pleasant and hospitable home is at No. 475 Galion Street, Bucyrus.

Notes for Samuel Kiess:
Mr. Kiess has quite a rare collection of bric-a-brac, which is of very great value to a lover of relics as he is. He has a Bible, the former property of a German in New York, that was printed in the year 1668, and for which he has been offered $3,000, refusing to take that amount. It is about 16" long x 10-1/2" wide x 6" thick, and is bound in what is supposed to the leather made from the skin of a hog, with heavy brass corners and clasps, and was printed in Frankfort, Germany. He also has a fine collection of ancient coins and currency, among which is a three cent piece issued by the West Branch Bank of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, on the first of January 1863; a ten-cent piece from the Williams County, Ohio, and also some from the State Bank of Ohio, bearing an early date.

Oct. 24, 1973 - Lysock View's newest residents are believed to be the first set of twins to have lived at the county operated home. They are 92-year-old sisters, Lura May McClarin and Mrs. Lella May Marquardt, formerly of the 2200 block of West Fourth Street Mrs. Marquardt is the widow of William Marquardt. The sisters have lived together for many years. An official at Lysock said the sisters are the "pets of the place" with other guests. They enjoy visiting other resident and took their favorite chairs to the home. The official also commented that the sisters lived for many years with another sister, Ida, who died at the age of 97. Currently, there is one way to easily tell the twins apart Miss McClarin's right arm is in a cast as a result of a fall last July. Both are former silk mill workers. They were born in Salladasburg on May 15, 1881, daughters of Robert and Ella Thomas McClarin. They have no close relatives.

Notes for Christian Wurster, Jr.:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1149:

Another foreign-born citizen of western Richardson County who has been successful in our land of many opportunities and has been enabled to retire from active life is Christ Wuster, of Dawson, Grant Township, Richardson County. He was born in Germany, May 13, 1848, a son of Christ and Rosanna (Likes) Wuster, natives of Germany. The father was born on December 14, 1821, and died on February 1, 1885. The mother was born on February 19, 1823, and died in January, 1888. They were parents of nine children, eight of whom are living.

The Wuster family remained in their native land until 1851, when they immigrated to America, locating in Pennsylvania, in which state the parents spent the rest of their lives, and there their son Christ, Jr., grew to manhood, attending the common schools, and for several years worked on a farm in Lycoming county. After his marriage he came to Nebraska in 1890, and located on a farm four miles north of Dawson, in Porter precinct, paying ten dollars an acre for his land, which he improved and tilled with success until 1904, becoming one of the leading general farmers and stock raisers of Porter precinct. He then retired from active life and moved to the village of Dawson, where he bought a home and there he has since resided. While on the farm he made a specialty of breeding Shorthorn cattle.

On September 25, 1873, Mr. Wuster was married to Martha Marquardt, who was born on January 31, 1850, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. She is a daughter of Fred and Rosanna (Keiss) Marquardt, both natives of Germany, from which country they came to America with their respective parents and located in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the father being only ten years old when they crossed the Atlantic. They grew to maturity in the old Keystone state and were married there. Mrs. Martha Wuster was reared and educated in her native state. The following children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Wuster: Anna, who is the wife of Walter Kirk and they live on the Wuster home farm in Porter precinct; Charles, who is also living on the home place; Clara, wife of Charles Perry, now living in California; Henry, who lives in California; Thomas Frederick, who lives on a farm one mile north and one-half mile east of Dawson; David E., deceased; John A., who lives in California, and Mrs. Mary Dillon, also of California.

Christ Wuster, Jr., deserves a great deal of credit for what he has accomplished since coming to Nebraska, for he then had but six hundred dollars. He went in debt for his farm of three hundred and twenty acres, but worked hard and managed well and success eventually crowned his efforts. For several years he hauled his wheat to Salem Mills and exchanged it for flour. He lived in the old log cabin on his land for some time, or until he was able financially to build a better residence. There was considerable native timber on his land, and he got from his own woods most of the lumber with which to build his barn and other buildings. There was an apple orchard on his place, which for some time was the only one in Richardson County. This orchard brought him large returns, his apples being in great demand at fancy prices. Politically, he is a Democrat. He and Mrs. Wuster belong to the Evangelical church.

Notes for Jonathan H. Kiess:
History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 899:

J. H. Kiess, who has lived on his present farm of 160 acres, situated in Whetstone Township, Crawford County, Ohio, for 42 years, has owned this land for 36 of these, purchasing from Jonathan Heinlein, it then being called the old Burkhardt farm. Jr. Kiess was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a son of Jacob and Catherine (Roth) Kiess.

Christopher Kiess, the grandfather, was born in Germany and came from there in 1806 and settled in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, where he was one of the early school teachers. In 1850 the family decided to come to Crawford County, Ohio, and it required two weeks for the loaded farm wagons to make the long overland journey. They settled in Whetstone Township and among the good citizens of this section the name is not an unusual one. The mother of J. H. Kiess died after coming to Crawford County, leaving two children: J. H. and Lydia, the latter of whom is now deceased and is survived by her husband, Lewis Cripes. Jacob Kiess married Catherine Delker for his second wife and they had the following children: Simeon, Joseph, Daniel, Samuel, W. C., Christiana and Mary Margaret.

J. H. Kiess had but meager school advantages in the English language but in Pennsylvania attended a German school. His help was needed by his father when he was yet young and he has devoted his whole business life to agricultural pursuits. He has enriched his land and carefully cultivated it and it gives bountiful returns, and his buildings are those that are found on the farms of substantial and self-respecting people, built and kept up not only for shelter but for comfortable living. Mr. Kiess makes no attempt to raise any great amount of stock but always has enough for his own use.

In 1864,Mr. Kiess was married (first) to Miss Elizabeth Cook, a daughter of Jacob and Mary (Kiess) Cook, and to this marriage the following children were born; Mary B., Franklin J., Ella Lucinda and Matilda, all of whom are deceased; Rebecca, who is the wife of T. P. Crawl; and Ida E., who is the wife of Samuel Keiser. Mr. Kiess was married second to Miss Rachel Cook, a daughter of George and Rebecca (Young) Cook, and they have had five children: Reuben, who is deceased; Wesley, who is a mail carrier: and Olen, Charles F. and Bertha May.

Mr. Kiess has frequently served in public office but it has not been any political reward as he votes independently. He has been very useful and progressive in relation to educational matters and has been equally concerned in giving the people good roads, for some years serving as road supervisor. With his family he attends the Evangelical Church.

Jonathan H. Kiess, a widely known and popular farmer of Whetstone township, near the overhead bridge, on the Middletown Road, died at 8 o'clock, Friday morning April 26, 1912; aged 71 years, 4 months, 17 days. Funeral at 1:30 o'clock, Sunday, from the borne with concluding services at the Salem Evangelical church.

Mr. Kiess was born December 9, 1840, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and in 1851 came with his father to Ohio, settling in Whetstone township where he resided continuously until his death for a period of more than sixty years. He was a progressive farmer and an honorable man. He was married twice, both wives having preceded him to eternity. The children who survive him are Mrs. Rebecca Crall, of Oklahoma, and Mrs. Ida Kisor, of Williams County this state, S. Wesley Kiess, of Bucyrus. Three brothers, Simeon K., Joseph F. and W. C. Kiess, all of Bucyrus, and one daughter, Mrs. Christina Butts, of Jewell, Kansas.

Notes for Frank Masten Cary:

Frank Masten Cary, 78, retired Lafayette manufacturer and one of the city's best known and beloved citizens and philanthropists, died at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning July 7, 1936 at the family home, 709 North Sixth Street. Mr. Cary became ill last Thursday and Sunday suffered the first of two cerebral hemorrhages, the second coming Monday. His condition had been serios since Sunday, out of his friends knew of his illness and his death was a distinct shock to the community as a whole.

The body was removed to the Templeton and Jackson funeral home, and will be returned to the residence Thursday morning. Short funeral services will be held at the residence Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, followed by services at 3 o'clock in St. John's Episcopal church. The Rev. Reese F. Thornton, rector, will officiate, and interment will be in Spring Vale.

Mr. Cary was born in Detroit, Michigan, May 27, 1858, a son of Capt. Charles H. and Eliza (Owen) Cary. His father owned a line of tugs which operated in the Great Lakes. The son came to Lafayette in his early twenties, and continued to make this his home, rising to prominence in this community. On Nov. 23, 1892, he was married to Miss Jessie Levering, at St. John's church, and the couple took up residence in the house where Mr. Cary died. One son was born to them, Franklin Levering Cary, whose untimely death in 1912, at the age of 19, proved a lasting shock to his parents. Mrs. Cary died July 24, 1927.

Arrived in Lafayette, Mr. Cary took employment with the Lafayette Car Works, and for several years was a lumber buyer for this firm in northern Michigan. Always industrious, keen and intelligent, he made the best of all opportunities and began to advance in the business world.

A little later he became president of the Chicago Refrigerator Car Line company, which he operated successfully a number of years. Then he bought a controlling interest in the Barbee Wire and Iron Works here, and became its president. He re-organized the company, rehabilitated the plant, and through careful and judicious operation made it into a profitable and successful industry. Always alert to new opportunities, Mr. Cary made a number of innovations. He related that he manufactured the first baseball mask which utilized welded wires.

About 15 years ago he relinquished his interest in the company, and retired from active business. In the years since then he devoted increasing time and thought to philanthropies. About 10 years ago he purchased (1 acres of land, east of the city, and presented it to the local Boy Scout organization as a camp site, in memory of his son; ever since he has done much to keep up and develop the camp property. Then he was a heavy contributor to a men's dormitory at Purdue, which became to be known as Cary Hall, also in memory of his son.

When the county considered the erection of a new children's home, he interested himself and made a large gift, which influenced county officials to name the home in memory of his wife, Jessie Levering Cary. He also gave to many other public movements, and quietly assisted many others.

He was a 32nd degree Mason, a Knight Templar and Shrine. He also attended St. John's Episcopal church and contributed to its support. Many movements in the city found a loyal and generous friend in Mr. Cary. Always a gentleman, he endeared himself through his quiet, unobstructive and retiring manner. He always insisted on remaining in the background, but many sought him for advice and counsel. He was long a member of the now defunct Lincoln-club, and was also a member of the Lafayette Country club.

The nearest surviving relative is a nephew, Beverly Cary, of Detroit, who, with a cousin, Philo Wright, also of Detroit, have already arrived here. Two other cousins, Mrs. Evelyn Wright Hallett, Detroit, and Mrs. Virginia Wright Collier, of Pontiac, Michigan, will come for the funeral.

Kniseley. She was born 15 Dec 1866 in Tracy Twp, DeKalb Co, Indiana, and died 04 Feb 1946 in Edgerton, Williams Co, Ohio.

Notes for Joseph F. Burkhart:
The County of Williams by William Henry Sinn, Madison Wisconsin - Northwestern Historical Association, 1905; page 315:

Joseph Burkhart, a practical and prominent farmer of St. Joseph Township, Williams Co, Ohio, was born in Crawford County, Ohio, May 25, 1858. He is the son of George Burkhart, when twelve years of age he removed with his parents from his native county of Williams County, receiving his public school training in both counties. reared on a farm, it is quite natural that he has chosen farming as his avocation in life. In addition to this he has paid special attention to stock raising, a centure that has in his case proved remarkably remunerative. He is the owner of two hundred and eleven acres in St. Joseph Township and twenty acres in DeKalb County, Indiana, the two pieces of land joining. This property has practically all been made by him as he received little assistance from his father. While an active Democrat, he has never been an aspirant to public office. He and his wife attend the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she is an active member.

On December 25, 1884, he married Miss Lettie Casebere, who was born in DeKalb County, Indiana, December 15, 1866. She is the daughter of George and Elizabeth (Kniseley) Casebere, the former born October 8, 1832, in Tuscarawas County, and the latter in Canal Dover, of the same county, November 2, 1835. George Casebere was the son of John and Nancy (Smily) Casebere, who came to Williams County in 1840, where he died September 4, 1881, and she in 1869. They had twelve children, of whom eight are still living. The father of Mrs. Burkhart, George Casebere, for years a prominent merchant at Blakeslee, Williams County, died in July, 1896, and his wife three years earlier. They had four children, of whom three are still living.

Joseph Burkhart and wife are the parents of three children: Ora Glen, born July 5, 1885; Earl Lyston, born August 22, 1888; and Arthur Dale, born February 11, 1890. Mrs. Burkhart is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In politics Mr. Burkhart is a Democrat, but has never sought office. He pays strict attention to his farming interests, assisted by his sons.

A standard history of Williams County, Ohio, Volume 2. By Charles A. Bowersox; The Lewis Publishing Company; Chicago & New York, 1920. Page 16:

Joseph Burkhart. A prominent and prosperous agriculturist, and an extensive land holder, Joseph Burkhart, of St. Joseph Township, is widely known as proprietor of Twin Elm Farm, which consists of 260 acres of land, twenty acres of which lies in Dekalb County, Indiana. He also owns another farm of 240 acres in the same township, and is carrying on general farming and stock raising most successfully. A son of George Burkhart, he was born, May 12, 1858, in Crawford County, Ohio, where he lived until twelve years of age.

Born and educated in Pennsylvania, George Burkhart came to Ohio in early manhood, locating in Crawford County, where he ran a saw mill for a few seasons. Moving to Bucyrus, in the same county, he took charge of a furnace. He subsequently invented the old Excelsior reaper, the first one that had a patent dropper, and traveled on the road selling the machines. Coming to Williams County with his family in 1869, he spent his remaining years on a farm in St. Joseph Township. He was a democrat in politics, and a member of the Evangelical Church, with which he was prominently identified. He married Roxanna Songer, who was born in Pennsylvania, and as a child came with her parents to Ohio, locating in Crawford County. Of the children born of their marriage, seven are living, as follows: Joseph, the special subject of this sketch; Sarah, wife of Solomon Suffel, living near Montpelier, Williams County; Samuel F., engaged in farming in St. Joseph Township; Frank, of Edgerton; Ida, wife of Chester Isenhood; Anna, wife of John Richmond; and Sophia, the eldest child of the parental household, wife of Daniel Mowery, of St. Louis, Missouri.

Coming with the family to Williams County in 1869, Joseph Burkhart was educated in the district schools, and after finishing his studies spent many years on the home farm, remaining with his parents until twenty-five years old. Choosing the free and independent occupation to which he was reared. Mr. Burkhart has met with no failures in his undertakings, at the present writing having title to 400 acres of choice land, from which he reaps bountiful harvests, the rich soil responding readily to his methods of culture.

Mr. Burkhart married, December 25, 1884, Aletta Casebere, who was born in Tracy Township, Dekalb County, Indiana, December 15, 1866, a daughter of George Casebere, and granddaughter of John and Nancy (Smiley) Casebere, who settled in Williams County, Ohio, in 1840. George Casebere was born in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, in 1832, and died in July, 1896. His wife, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Kinsely, was born in Canal Dover, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, November 2, 1835, and died in 1893. Four children were born of their union, as follows: Lee Casebere, of Bryan, Ohio; Solomon, of Butler, Indiana; Marshall, deceased; and Aletta, now Mrs. Burkhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkhart have three children, namely: Ora Glenn, born July 5, 1885, married Ethel Spaulding; Earl Lyston, born August 22, 1888, is single, and lives at home; and Arthur Dale, born February 11, 1890, who was graduated from the Edgerton High School, and the Fort Wayne Business College, married Jette Kimball. Mr. Burkhart is a democrat in politics, and Mrs. Burkhart, true to the religious faith in which she was reared, is an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Samuel F. Burkhart, brother of Joseph Burkhart, was born in Crawford County, Ohio, near Bucyrus, June 6, 1862, and at the age of seven years came with his parents to Saint Joseph Township, where he acquired his early knowledge of books, and became acquainted with the various branches of agriculture. Finding farming both agreeable and profitable, he turned his attention to agriculture when young, and has now 180 acres of land in his home farm, and is managing it with exceptionally good results. He has accumulated considerable property, in addition to the farm which he now occupies having formerly had title to sixty-five acres nearby, and is a stockholder in the Farmers Commercial Bank of Edgerton.

Mr. Burkhart married Lena Landel, and they have three children, namely: Charles, a graduate of the Edon High School; Oscar, a graduate of the Edgerton High School, is now, in 1920, a sophomore in the University of Illinois, at Urbana; and Raymond, a student in the Edgerton High School. Mr. Burkhart is a prominent and useful member of the Evangelical Church, in which he is an elder, and is an active worker in the Sunday school, which he has served as superintendent. He is a steadfast democrat in politics, and has served as a member, and as president, of the local school board.

She was born 15 Feb 1866 in Edgerton, Williams Co, Ohio, and died 24 Oct 1946 in St. Joseph Twp, Williams Co, Ohio.

Notes for Samuel Frank Burkhart:
The County of Williams by William Henry Sinn, Madison Wisconsin - Northwestern Historical Association, 1905; page 316:

Samuel F. Burkhart, a successful farmer and livestock dealer of St. Joseph Township, Williams County, Ohio, was born in Crawford County, Ohio, June 6, 1862. He is the son of George and Rosanna (Songer) Burkhart, both natives of Pennsylvania. His grandparents were Tobias and Christina (Keiss) Burkhart, both natives of Germany. Tobias Burkhart came to the United States in 1804 with his mother, Dorothy (Beal) Burkhart, and located in Pennsylvania, where she died. His wife, Christina (Keiss) Burkhart, came to America in 1817, both of her parents having died in Germany.

Samuel F. Burkhart having been brought up on a farm, it is but natural that he has made farming his occupation for life. The thorough training that he received while working for his father fitted him for a successful life in the same line of work. His ownership of one hundred and sixty acres of the most valuable and productive land in the county, located one mile from Edgerton, measures to some extent his success as a farmer. He deals extensively in horses and buys and sells all other kinds of livestock. Having a thorough knowledge of stock of all kinds , and being a shrewd trader, he has met with unusual success as stockman. Possessed of sound judgement and good common sense, he is rated as one of the most successful business men in the county. His time is wholly taken up with the management of his business affairs, so that he has no time to engage in any other enterprises. In politics he is a stanch Democrat, but in no sense an office seeker. In church work he and wife are identified with the Evangelical Church.

On May 16, 1890, he was wedded to Miss Lana Landle, born in Edgerton, February 15, 1866, the daughter of Christopher and Lana (Miller) Landle, a prosperous farmer of St. Joseph Township. Three children have blessed the union of Mr. and Mrs. Burkhart, named Charlie, born March 15, 1893; Oscar, born October 16, 1900; and Raymond, born June 19, 1903.

While still comparatively a young man Mr. Burkhart has achieved success of which he has just cause making a close study of live stock, always depending on his own judgement, he ranks among the foremost of the men of affairs in this county.

Notes for Frank Burkhart:
The County of Williams by William Henry Sinn, Madison Wisconsin - Northwestern Historical Association, 1905; page 313:

Frank Burkhart, one of the progressive and highly successful farmers of St. Joseph Township, Williams County, Ohio, was born in Crawford County, Ohio, January 12, 1864. He is the son of George and Rosanna (Songer) Burkhart, both natives of Pennsylvania. His grandparents were Tobias and Christina (Keiss) Burkhart, both natives of Germany. Tobias Burkhart came to the United States in 1804 with his mother, Dorothy (Beal) Burkhart, and located in Lycemburg, Heppin Twp, Pennsylvania, where she died. His wife, Christina (Keiss) Burkhart, came to America in 1817, both of her parents having died in Germany. They came to Williams County, Ohio in 1865 and settled on a farm in St. Joseph Twp, where he died in 1876, aged eighty years, and she died nine years later, aged eighty-three years. The maternal grandparents of Frank Burkhart were George and Catherine (Encen) Songer, he a native of Germany and she of Pennsylvania. George Songer was born in 1807 and emigrated to America when seven years old, locating first in Pennsylvania and then Crawford County, Ohio in 1850, where he and his wife died.

George Burkhart was born March 22, 1829, in Pennsylvania, and came with his parents to Crawford County in 1847, and from there moved to Williams County in 1865, settling on a farm in St. Joseph Township, where he now resides. Prior to farming for himself he was for some years engaged in the saw and grist-mill business, in tensive patronage that he enjoyed. In politics he was an active Democrat and with his wife a member of the Evangelical Church. They have had seven children, three sons and four daughters. They are: Sophia, born July 23, 1854; Joseph, born May 24, 1858; Sarah, born January 21, 1861; Samuel F., born Jun 6, 1862; Frank, born January 12, 1864; Ida December 25, 1866, and Anna, born April 4, 1872.

Frank, the subject of this sketch, was reared on his father's farm, receiving a fair common school education. Farming is his chosen avocation, and the fact that he now owns two hundred acres of very valuable land within a mile of Edgerton proves that he has made a wise choice. In addition to general farming he deals largely in horses and the stock, shipping his purchases to all parts of the country. While affiliated with Democratic Party he has sought a public office. He and his wife attend the Evangelical Church.

On January 31, 1895, Frank was wedded to Miss Catharine Groff, born in Sterling, Illinois, January 8, 1870, the daughter of Henry and Sarah (Johnson) Groff, the former a native of Pennsylvania. He Groff followed the occupation of milling for a number of years, but now resides on a farm in St. Joseph Township. He and wife had had seven children, six of whom are still living. John Groff, the father of Henry Groff, removed from Pennsylvania to Ashland County, Ohio, in an early day and there both he and his wife died at a ripe old age. Frank Burkhart and his wife have had one child, Harry, born September 10, 1900.

Frank Burkhart. - A prominent and enterprising citizen of Edgerton, Frank Burkhart is not only vice president of the Farmers Commercial Bank, but is one of the leading farmers of Williams County, and carries on an extensive business as feeder and shipper of livestock. A son of George Burkhart, he was born, January 12, 1864, in Crawford County, Ohio, of German ancestry.

Tobias Burkhart, his paternal grandfather, was born in Germany, and as a child came with his widowed mother, Dorothea (Beal) Burkhart, to the United States in 1804, settling in Lycemburg, Heppin Township, Pennsylvania. Choosing the free and independent life of a farmer, he came with his family to Ohio a few years after his marriage to Christena Keiss, locating first in Crawford County, but later moving to Williams County, where both he and his wife spent their declining years, his death having occurred in 1876, and hers in 1885.

Born in Pennsylvania, March 22, 1829, George Burkhart came to Crawford County, Ohio, with his parents in 1847, and assisted in the pioneer labor of improving a farm in that locality. In 1870 he settled in St. Joseph Township, Williams County, Ohio, and from that time until his death was identified with the agricultural interests of the community in which he resided. He married Rosanna Songer, who was born in Pennsylvania, a daughter of George Songer, who emigrated from Germany to the United States in 1815, locating first in Pennsylvania, where he married Catherine Ence, who was born in the Keystone State in 1807, and later moving to Crawford County, Ohio, where both spent the later years of their lives.

Of the union of George and Rossana (Songer) Burkhart several children were born, as follows: Sophia, born July 23, 1854, is the wife of Daniel Mowry; Joseph, born May 25, 1858, married Lettie Casebeer; Sarah, born January 21, 1861, married Solomon Suffel; Samuel F., born June 6, 1862, now a farmer in St. Joseph Township, married Lena Landel; Frank, the special subject of this sketch; Ida, born December 25, 1866, is the wife of Chester Isenhood; and Anna, born April 4, 1872, is the wife of John Richmond.

Brought up in St. Joseph Township, Frank Burkhart obtained his early education in the district schools, and as a boy and youth acquired valuable experience in the agricultural arts. Continuing a member of the parental household until thirty-one years old, he had the entire management of the home farm the last seven years that he lived upon it. A man of undoubted business and financial ability, Mr. Burkhart has judiciously invested a part of his wealth in land, owning a fine farm of 200 acres near Edgerton, and in addition to carrying on general farming with good results makes a specialty of feeding and shipping cattle and livestock, a branch of industry that under his management is exceedingly profitable. He was one of the organizers of the Farmers Commercial Bank of Edgerton, which has the following named officers: George Weber, president; Frank Burkhart, vice president ; James J. Jennings, cashier; and the directors are George Weber, Frank Burkhart, James J. Jennings, Jessie Houlton, Lewis Groff, E. A. Geauque and D. G. Koehner.

Mr. Burkhart has been twice married. He married first, January 31, 1895, Catherine Groff, who was born in Sterling, Illinois, January 8, 1870, a daughter of Henry Groff. She died in early womanhood, leaving one son, Harry W. Burkhart, who was born September 10, 1900, and was accidentally killed January 27, 1917.

On November 29, 1916, Mr. Burkhart married Mrs. Mary (Hughes) Walker, a daughter of Ephraim and Elizabeth (Alvert) Hughes, the former of whom was born in Seneca County, Ohio, and the latter in Pennsylvania. Her father, a school teacher in his younger days, came, after his marriage in Seneca County, Ohio, to Williams County, settling on a farm in Superior Township, where he was successfully engaged in tilling the soil during his remaining years. He was a republican in politics and ever interested in local matters.

Notes for Samuel A. (Koch) Cook:

Samuel A. Cook, a prominent farmer and stock raiser of Florence Township, Williams County, Ohio, was born in Crawford County, Ohio on March 10, 1858. His is the son of David and Dorotha (Burkhart) Cook, both natives of Pennsylvania, where the former was born April 19, 1834, and the latter on October 29, 1834. His grandparents were George and Margaret (Young) Cook, both natives of Pennsylvania, and the latter the daughter of David and Rachel (Kiess) Young, natives of Germany, who settled in Pennsylvania in pioneer days. Later they removed to Crawford County, where the later died in 1835. After the death of his wife George Cook married Rebecca Ronk of Crawford County. He died in 1892.

George and Barbara (Swilly) Cook, the great grandparents of Samuel A. Cook, emigrated from Germany to America and located near Williamsport, Pennsylvania, in a very early day. David Cook, the father of Samuel A. Cook, grew to manhood on the parental farm in Pennsylvania and received his education in the log school houses of the native county. At the age of nineteen years he came to Crawford County, Ohio, and in 1864 removed to Williams County, locating on a farm of eighty-five acres in Florence Township, which he at once proceeded to clear and improve. Later he purchased an additional tract of seventy-five acres, and he now owns altogether one hundred and sixty acres of well improved a nd highly productive land. He is a Democrat in politics, having served as school director and road supervisor for a number of years.

On November 20, 1856, David Cook was wedded to Miss Dorothea Burkhart. To this marriage there have been born the following children: Samuel A.; Rebecca, the wife of George Rockey of Florence Township; and Isaac, who married Miss Essie Beebe of Richland Township, Steuben County, Indiana.

Samuel A. Cook was reared on a farm, educated in the country schools and has chosen farming as his life work. He and his brother Isaac are managing the home farm in connection with their individual and adjoining farms. They are extensively engaged in general farming and stock raising. In his own farm there are one hundred and forty-seven acres, while in that of Isaac there are seventy-eight acres. He is a Democrat and with his wife a member of the Evangelical Church.

On March 10, 1883, he chose as his helpmeet in life's journey Miss Ida M. Davids, born in Guernsey County, Ohio, on June 19, 1864, the daughter of John C. and Mary Ellen (Bell) Davids, the former a native of Ohio and the latter of Maryland. Both died in Guernsey Coounty, the former in April 1864, and the latter on February 14, 1886. John C. Davids was the son of William and Experience Davids. To Mr. and Mrs. Davids four children were born, all of whom are yet living. After the death of her first husband Mrs. Davids married Balis Kackley, by whom she had three children, all living.

To Samuel A. Cook and wife there have been two children. They are: Mary Elizabeth, who was born January 6, 1884, and died January 9, 1903, having been married on May 22, 1902, to C. W. Kappler, a native of Germany; and Irwin Dwight, born April 17, 1889, who is assisting his father in the management of the home farm.

Isaac E. Cook. - Almost without exception the men of any of the smaller cities of the country who rise to be owners of their business enterprises are possessed of the highest character. If they were not, they could not have gained the public confidence to such an extent. Where congestion is greater, dishonesty may seem to prosper for a time, but in the communities where each man's life is open to the inspection of his associates, unless he measures up to the standards they believe to be right and dependable, he soon finds that he lacks their support, and without it he cannot carry on his undertaking. Therefore, when a man in such a community has been able to interest his fellow citizens, and keep their custom, it is certain beyond any reasonable doubt that he is in every way worthy of their approval.

Isaac E. Cook, junior member of the well-known implement firm of Buell & Cook, is one of the highly respected merchants and citizens of Edon and Williams County. He was born in Florence Township, this county, August 7, 1869, a son of David and Dorothea (Burkhart) Cook, natives of Pennsylvania. They came to Crawford County, Ohio, and then to Williams County about 1856, and located in Florence Township, and there spent the rest of their lives. Early joining the Evangelical Church they were liberal and active supporters of it and were devout Christian people. In politics he was a democrat, but he never cared to hold public office, although had he cared to do so, doubtless could have been elected to one or the other of the township offices, for he was held in such high regard by his neighbors that they would have felt honored had he been willing to represent them. He and his wife had three children, namely: Samuel, who lives at Edon; Rebecca, who is the wife of George Rockey, of Edon; and Isaac E., who is the youngest.

Growing up on the old farm in Florence Township, Isaac E. Cook remained on it until his father's death and acquired a knowledge of the fundamentals of a public school education in the neighborhood. He learned the carpenter trade and worked at it until he bought a half interest in his present firm, in 1916, at which time he located permanently at Edon. In addition to his business, Mr. Cook owns 100 acres of valuable land in Florence Township.

On December 25, 1893, Mr. Cook was married to Essie Bebee. Like his father he is a democrat, and, also like him, he has never taken any active part in politics.

She was born 03 Sep 1877 in Jackson Twp, Steuben Co, Indiana, and died 25 Aug 1957 in Montpelier, Williams Co, Ohio.

Notes for Dr. David Theodore Kiess:
A standard history of Williams County, Ohio. By Chalres A. Bowersox; The Lewis Publishing Company – Chicago & New York, 1920. Page 251:

David T. Kiess. - An enumeration of those men of the present generation who have won honor and success for themselves, and at the same time by their lives have honored the locality to which they belong, would be incomplete were there failure to make mention of the one whose name forms the caption to this sketch. He has sustained a very enviable reputation in business circles and today is numbered among the progressive and enterprising citizens of Montpelier. David T. Kiess was born at Edon, Williams County, on August 3, 1867, and is a son of Samuel and Sarah (Burkhart) Kiess, both of whom were born and reared near Williamsport, Pennsylvania. They came to Williams County, Ohio, with their respective parents and here met and were married. After their marriage they located in Edon, where Mr. Kiess engaged in the boot and shoe business, having been a shoemaker by trade. Sometime later he sold this business and for a time was engaged in farming. Later in life they went West, locating in Nebraska, where their deaths occurred. They were the parents of five children, three of whom are now living, namely: D. W., a contractor in Los Angeles, California; David T.; the subject of this sketch; and Lizzie, the wife of Ora Eyster, a farmer in Williams County.

David T. Kiess received his education in the district schools of Williams County and in Nebraska. He then entered the Chicago Horological School and the Chicago Opthalmic School, where he was graduated in 1893. He then was employed as jeweler and optician at various places for fifteen years, but then located at Edon, where he engaged in the jewelry business, in which he met with good success. In 1914 Mr. Kiess came to Montpelier and opened a jewelry and optical goods store, to which he has given his personal attention, though he also still operates the store at Edon. Thoroughly qualified by training and experience both as a jeweler and optician, Mr. Kiess has met with a well-deserved prosperity and is considered a thoroughly reliable and trustworthy man in every respect, and that is as much as can be said of the best of men.

Mr. Kiess was married to Bertha L. Twichell, of Orland, Indiana, but who was born in Steuben County, Indiana. She received a good education, being a high school graduate, and prior to her marriage she was engaged as a school teacher. To this union have been born five children, namely: Reginald, who is a graduate of the Montpelier High School; Kenneth, Elinore, Esther and Robert, who are in school.

Mr. Kiess and family are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church and, politically, he gives his support to the Republican Party, having served seven years as treasurer of Edon Village. Fraternally he is a member of the Free and Accepted Masons, in which he has taken the degrees of the Blue Lodge, Chapter and Council. He and his wife are members of the Order of the Eastern Star. Among those who know him best, Mr. Kiess bears a reputation of a man of sound judgment, good business ability and an expert in his special lines of effort. He has pronounced views, keeping himself well informed on all matters pertaining to the public welfare, and because of his genial disposition and excellent qualities of character he enjoys the confidence and good will of all who know him.

Teegardin and wife, Carrie, had just purchased a home in Hamilton, and were in the process of moving at the time of his death. The couple had resided near Edon, Ohio.

Per Evelyn Everitt Teegardin Sept 1995 Russell inherited the Jacob Teegardin farm on the cable line road in Steuben County. Russell and Carrie lived there while raising their children. Approximately 1945 they sold this place and moved near Edon, Ohio to be near Herman (their son) and his family. When Herman's family moved back to Steuben County (they had been renting a farm near Cooney) and purchased land on the Cable line Road, Russell and Carrie stayed in Williams County, Ohio.

Per Susan Musser Minch 1995 As a small girl, I can remember Russell and Carrie driving down the road to visit Herman and Evelyn. It seemed you could see them coming forever because Russell drove so slowly down the road in his little pink car. I remember Russell being at least 6 ft tall, and Carrie was maybe 5 ft tall. They were quite the contrast. I also remember the farm in Edon. They lived in a 1 story house surrounded by farm fields and Carrie's flowers. Carrie was 100% German and seemed to know the special recipes of the old German cooks. She was an excellent cook.

Notes for Samuel Elmer Kiess:
Samuel E. Kiess, a son of Ex-Commissioner C.F. Kiess, died at the Crawford County Hospital at noon, Friday, August 30, 1907, death resulting from tuberculosis of the kidneys and bladder, from which he had been a sufferer for quite a long time. The funeral took place Monday, September 2, at 9:30 a.m., from his late home five miles east of Bucyrus. Services were conducted by Rev. B.E. Reams, pastor of the Evangelical church, of which he was an attendant. Burial is Oakwood cemetery.
Samuel Elines Kiess was a son of C.F. Kiess and wife and was born in Whetstone township on December 20, 1870, his age being 36 years, 8 months and 10 days. He was brought up on the farm, and always resided a short distance east of this city. He was united in marriage January 19, 1899, to Miss Jemima Pfahler, who with two sons, Wilber and Myron, is left to mourn the death of a loving and indulgent husband and father.
Mr. Kiess was widely known throughout the county, and was everywhere respected and esteemed as a man of sterling character and if absolute integrity. He was pleasant and kindly in disposition, very quiet in manner and yet fond of society and of the relaxations of social life. To him every trust was sacred, and he commanded implicit confidence from all with whom he came in contact. He was an intelligent and successful farmer and a public-spirited citizen. He did well whatever he attempted and will be greatly missed in his community. His wife and children have the sympathy of all in their sorrow, as has his father. His mother died when he was but six months old. Beyond the veil he awaits his loved ones.

She married Samuel David Kaiser 18 Dec 1894, son of William Kaiser and Eva Klink. He was born 23 Mar 1875 in Edon, Williams Co, Ohio, and died 28 Jun 1930 in Edon, Williams Co, Ohio.

Notes for Samuel David Kaiser:
A standard history of Williams County, Ohio, Volume 2. By Charles A. Bowersox; The Lewis Publishing Company; Chicago & New York, 1920. Page 225:

SAMUEL D. KAISER.—The development of Williams County has been chiefly due to the sustained efforts of individuals and families carried on year after year, resulting in the planting of homes, the clearing away of the woods, bringing the land under cultivation, and through the co-operative enterprises of road building, erection of schools and churches, and the facilities and resources that come from collective effort.

With this development for more than six decades the Kaiser family has had a more than ordinary share and participation. Of this family perhaps the best known in the present generation is Samuel D. Kaiser, whose estate, the Maple Forest Farm, near Edon, is familiar to thousands of stock growers outside of Williams County and has a well justified fame as the home of Kaiser's Registered Shropshire sheep.

Mr. Kaiser was born March 23, 1875, on the farm home two and a fourth miles north of Edon, where he and his family reside today. He is a son and the youngest child living of William F. Kaiser, Sr., and Eva Catherine (Klink) Kaiser, both now deceased.

The late William F. Kaiser was born in Kusterdingen, Wuertemberg, Germany, March 8, 1830, and in 1832 was brought to America by his parents John George and Eva Barbara Kaiser, who for four years made their home in Columbiana County, Ohio, and then moved to Richland County the same state, locating two miles east of Shelby. William F. Kaiser grew up in that locality, acquired a common school education, and for six years worked as a carpenter. In those days he was regarded as a skilled worker, and some of the buildings he constructed from the mammoth oak timber more than sixty years ago may be seen just as they were erected, while others have been remodeled and modern equipments installed.

September 7, 1858, he married Eva Catherine Klink, who was born April 20, 1839, in Chatfield Township, Crawford County, Ohio, where she grew to womanhood. Soon after their marriage in 1858, with their meager household outfit in horse drawn vehicles, over desperately muddy roads, they moved to Williams County, locating on the farm where Samuel D. was born and where they lived out the remainder of their lives. This farm at that time contained 180 acres and was in its natural state, a dense forest. The obstructive timber, great oaks, walnut, poplar and other varieties that would be of great value now, was cleared away and burned, and acre by acre was made arable until all but thirty acres, reserved for forestry, was under cultivation.

Ten children were born to William F. Kaiser and wife. Seven grew to maturity and are still living, named: Lena Krill, George F., Mary Weber, Rebecca Koerner, Anna Krill, Sarah Plogsterd and Samuel D. Kaiser. As these children one by one left the parental home to establish homes of their own, the parents provided each with a good start in life. The parents were widely known and highly respected for the charitable dispositions, and helpfulness in time of need, were always loyal members of the Methodist Episcopal Church and active in every good cause. William F. Kaiser died April 2, 1904, and some time before his death had sold eighty acres of his land. The mother controlled the balance of the homestead farm consisting of 100 acres until the time of her death September 3, 1909.

Samuel D. Kaiser acquired his education in the common schools and also took a practical business course by correspondence in the Michigan Business Institute of Kalamazoo. From the age of eighteen he managed the homestead farm for his parents, and on March 21, 1910, bought the place from the heirs of the estate. He then named it the Maple Forest Farm, the characteristic feature and source of the name being ten acres of timber mostly hard maple on the northeast corner of the farm. Mr. Kaiser firmly believes in scientific principles of farming and the maintenance of the fertility of the soil. Practice amounts to more than theory in his case, demonstrated by the quality and quantity, per acre, his soil yields in return for his labor. He has no use for scrubby stock, and is also delighted to show his line of breeding. Especially he takes pride in his flock of registered Shropshire sheep. Having studied and managed this one breed exclusively for twenty-five years, gives him a knowledge of its excellent points and the correct type of the real Shropshire. By honest, fair and square dealing with customers, there has developed a demand for his stock known as Kaiser's Shropshires, which he is never able to supply.

It is only natural that so much progressiveness in the management of his individual affairs should extend to public improvements, such as better roads, better schools, better churches. He has exhibited a community spirit of unselfishness, and at the same time is conservative in handling the public funds. For eight years he has been a member of the Florence Township Board of Education and was re-elected to that post in November, 1919. He is serving his second term as a member of the Williams County Board of Education. He is connected with various movements which he believes will bring about better marketing facilities for farm products, and is one of the men who sustain and make effective such organizations as the Williams County Farm Bureau, the Edon Farmers' Co-operative Company, the Williams County Wool Growers' Association, and the Farmers' Institute.

December 18, 1894, Mr. Kaiser married Ida E. Kiess. She was born in Whetstone Township, near Bucyrus, Crawford County, Ohio, May 28, 1876, being the youngest child of Jonathan H. and Elizabeth (Cook) Kiess. The older children consisted of a son and two daughters, the son and one daughter dying in youth. The two surviving daughters are Rebecca Crall and Ida E. Kaiser. The mother of these children died in July of the same year of Mrs. Kaiser's birth, and she was then taken by relatives to Richland Township, Steuben County, Indiana, where she was educated and grew to womanhood. Her foster parents were William F. and Mary (Cook) Kiess. Her father, Jonathan H. Kiess, remained a widower for some time and then married Rachel Cook, a cousin to his first wife. To this union were born four children, named Wesley, Olen, Charles and Bertha, the latter now Mrs. Vernon Schieber. Jonathan Kiess was born December 9, 1840, near Williamsport, Pennsylvania, and in 1851 came with his father, his mother having died three days after his birth, to Crawford County, Ohio, locating at Bucyrus, where he had his residence for more than sixty years. He was a popular farmer, owned a farm place of 160 acres, and gave to it his personal management until his death on April 26, 1912. He was public spirited, and his influence could always be counted upon for every project for the public welfare. He and his family were members of the Evangelical Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaiser have two daughters, Mildred Evadne, born October 6, 1899, and Pauline Gladys, born November 11, 1902. They were given every advantage in attending the country schools, each completing the eighth grade work at the age of twelve, and they graduated from the first grade high school at the age of sixteen. Mildred graduated from the Edon High School in the spring of 1916 and was a post graduate of the same school the following year. She then entered the Tri-State College at Angola for a four-year course of music under Professor A. G. Harshman, and received her diploma as a Bachelor of Music in the spring of 1920. While in college she was called upon temporarily to teach in the public schools, and on different occasions filled vacancies for a period of several months. During her last year in the musical conservatory of the Tri-State College she also took a course in teacher's training to qualify as musical supervisor in public schools. Pauline graduated from the Edon High School in the spring of 1919, and having also distinctive musical gifts had spent summer months as a student under Professor A. G. Harshman. In the winter of 1919 she also entered the Tri-State College to finish the musical course taking at the same time the teachers' training course. All the family are sincere and consistent members of the Edon Methodist Episcopal Church.

Samuel Wesley[9] Kiess (Jonathan H.[8], Jacob[7], Christopher[6], Johann Wilhelm[5], Hans Jacob[4], Hans Jerg (Georg)[3], Hans Jerg[2], Georg[1]) was born 21 Apr 1879 in Whetstone Twp, Crawford Co, Ohio, and died 16 Feb 1920 in Crawford Co, Ohio. He married Ruby M. Henderson 1906. She was born 01 Feb 1884 in Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio, and died 01 May 1964 in Tifflin, Seneca Co, Ohio.

Notes for Samuel Wesley Kiess:
1920 - The funeral of Wesley Kiess, who lost his life when he was struck by a train at the North Lane Street crossing of the Pennsylvania Monday morning, takes place Thursday at 1:30 o'clock at the Evangelical church Lincoln Way, Bucyrus. Rev. S.A. Shisler officiating. Burial in Oakwood cemetery. Rural mail carriers of Bucyrus have made arrangements to attend the service in a body, and as Mr. Kiess was president of the Association of Rural Mail Carriers of Crawford County at the time of his death, carriers from other cities may also attend. The body of the unfortunate man was removed from the Wise undertaking rooms, here it was prepared for burial, to the bereaved home, two miles east of Bucyrus on the North Robinson Road, Monday evening. Samuel Wesley Kiess reached his 40th birthday on April 21st, 1919. He was born and reared on the Kiess farm east of Bucyrus and his entire life was spent in the county. He followed farming for years, and later entered the mail service. He was the third oldest carrier on the Bucyrus routes. E.W. McMichael and Elmer P. Scott the oldest in service, starting work as regular carriers in the fall of 1903 while Mr. Kiess, after some service as a substitute, became a regular carrier in the, summer of 1904, having at the time of his death, practically completed 16 years of regular service.

Post-master Vollmers estimate of the dead man is that he was very capable, efficient and dependable carrier. It is said that in 16 years of service he missed but a single day on his route, excepting the days when the roads were impassable and no mail could be delivered. His election to the presidency of the county association of carriers was a tribute to him not only as an individual but as an efficient workman. For years he has covered Route 8, rain or shine, sometimes under conditions which made it a constant fight to get over the roads, but he always gave his very best efforts to the service and he displayed the same sort of spirit in all his Enterprises, while he held the respect and regard of all who knew him. Among the relatives which have already arrived, called here by his death, are Mrs. Omar Henderson of Mansfield and Thomas Henderson of Columbus. Others are expected.

Marriage Notes for Verne Kiess and Edna Neff:
Thursday evening Oct. 20, 1904, a very pretty wedding ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Neff near Martel, the contracting parties being their daughter Miss Reba and Vernie E. Kiess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Kiess of Whetstone township. The house was elaborately and appropriately decorated in smilax, myrtle, autumn leaves, yellow and white chrysanthemums. At seven o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor to the music of the Lohengrin wedding march, rendered on the piano by Miss Lois Neff of Bucyrus. The officiating clergyman, Rev. Crimm of the Methodist Episcopal church of Iberia, led the party and was followed by the flower girls little Misses Marion Neff of Bucyrus and Vivian Neff. Miss Grace Campbell next appeared and then the groom, leaning upon the arm of his groomsman, Earl Cook of Whetstone township.

The graceful bride unattended then approached and the party grouped itself before a curtain of myrtle, where the solemn words of ritual services were read, joining the young people in wedlock's holy bonds. The bride's gown was a dainty creation of French lawn and the bridesmaid was clad in white silk mousseline. Over one hundred guests partook of the elegant three course wedding feast which was served. The bride's table at which sat the bride and groom, the bridesmaid, Miss Grace Campbell and the groom's man, Earl Cook, was prettily draped in smilax with a graceful center piece of pink and white carnations.

Congratulations and best wishes were then showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Kiess and a lively belling, the din of which could be heard for miles, was tendered by a crowd one hundred strong. Mr. and Mrs. Vernie E. Kiess and Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Kiess, who were married Wednesday evening, were an accompanied to the P.F.W. & O. station by a number of friends and relatives who showered the departing couples with rice, until the grounds and platform were literally white. The young people will visit relatives at Williamsport, Pennsylvania, for two weeks. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Kiess will reside with the groom's parents on the Simeon Kiess farm. The bride accomplished and highly respected young lady and the groom is equally well known and admired, being a successful and progressive young farmer. The Daily Forum joins heartily with numerous other friends in wishing them health, wealth and happiness. The array of presents was costly and beautiful. The guests present from Bucyrus were, Mrs. S. Neff, daughters Miss Lois and Marion, Misses Sadie and Juila Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Kiess and daughter Miss Helen and Clinton Kiess.

Notes for Winfield Scott Kiess:
History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 720:

WINFIELD S. KIESS, who, as his father's representative, successfully operates one of the large farms of Whetstone Township, Crawford County, Ohio, 390 acres of very valuable land, belongs to a well known and highly respected family of this section. He was, born in Whetstone Township, October 12, 1880, and is a son of Joseph and Rebecca (Haldeman) Kiess.

Joseph Kiess came to Ohio from Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and now lives retired at Bucyrus. He married Rebecca Haldeman who was born at Galion, Ohio, and died March 9, 1902. They had two children: Winfield S.; Viola, who married J. A. Shearer and has three children, namely: Catherine, Eveline, Joseph. The father of the above family has always given political support to the Democratic Party. He is a member of the Evangelical Church, to which his wife also belonged.

Winfield S. Kiess attended the public schools and afterward the Ohio Northern University, at Ada, Ohio. His business has been farming but during six winter terms he made use of his decided musical talent, being director of music during that time in the public schools of both Whetstone and Liberty Townships. His present farm, known as the Joseph Kiess homestead, not only now engages all his lime and attention but makes it necessary for him to keep two hired farmers and also to utilize the services of a boy, all the year round. Mr. Kiess is very enterprising, keeps thoroughly posted as to crops, stock and other matters pertaining to his business, and is numbered with the most reliable farmers of this part of the county.

In October, 1904, Mr. Kiess was married to Miss Sadie Cook, a daughter of Philip and Rachel (Neff) Cook, the latter of whom is deceased. Mr. Cook, who is a retired farmer now living at Bucyrus, married Mary Lust for his second wife, and three children were born to them; Minnie, Bessie and Ethel. To his first marriage the following children were born: Ella, wife of William Ronk; Sadie, wife of Winfield S. Kiess; Clara, wife of William Hosterman; Emma, wife of Clarence Kelly; and Frank. Mr. and Mrs. Kiess have two bright little ones, Leona and William. They attend the Evangelical Church. Politically Mr. Kiess is a Democrat and fraternally he belongs to the Maccabees. Although his father still owns this farm, its entire management and direction is in the hands of Mr. Kiess.

She was born 31 May 1880 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 04 May 1951 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Thomas Frederick Wuster:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 927:

Thomas F. Wuster, one of the best-known and most substantial farmers in the precinct of Grant, this county, was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, January 24, 1878, son of Christ and Martha (Marquard) Wuster, who came to this state in June, 1879, and became pioneers in Porter precinct, Richardson County. Further and fitting reference to the Wuster family in this County is made elsewhere in this volume.

Reared on the home farm in Porter precinct, he having been but two years of age when his parents settled there, Thomas F. Wuster received his schooling in the schools of that neighborhood. He began working out at the early age of eleven years and worked constantly from the time he was fourteen years of age. In the spring of 1900 he began farming for himself. For one year he rented the Strunk farm and then in 1901 he bought his present place of a quarter section in the precinct of Grant, and there established his home and has ever since resided there, he and his family being very comfortably situated. His house, built in 1908, is one of the best in that neighborhood and the general farm buildings are in keeping with the same, the place being looked upon as one of the best-improved farms in that part of the county. In addition to his general farming Mr. Wuster gives considerable attention to the raising of live stock, with particular reference to sheep and hogs. He has a flock of more than one hundred and twenty head of sheep and in 1916 fed more than four hundred head of sheep for the market.

On March 7, 1901, Thomas F. Wuster was united in marriage to Margaret Heim, who was born on a pioneer farm in the precinct of Grant, Richardson County, May 37, 1880, daughter of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, prominent and influential pioneers of this county and further and extended reference to whom is made elsewhere in this volume, and to this union seven children have been born, namely: Minerva born on December 28, 1901; Ruth, November 6, 1903; Frederick, July 3, 1905; Dorothy, December 31, 1906; Joseph, September 11, 1909; Milton, July 18, 1912, and Dwight, April 23, 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Wuster are members of the Evangelical Lutheran church and take a warm interest in church affairs, as well as in the general good works of the community in which they live, helpful in many ways in promoting such agencies as are designed to advance the common welfare thereabout. Mr. Wuster is independent in his political views, preferring to keep himself free to vote for the most competent candidate for public office without regard to party affiliations. He not only is a progressive and wide-awake farmer, but a public spirited citizen and tries to do his part in advancing the interests of the community of which he has been a resident since the days of his early childhood.

Falls City, Nebraska, June 22, 1933 - County Attorney J. H. Falloon said charges of attempted blackmail probably will be filed against 16-year-old Howard Wuster of Dawson in connection with an extortion note received by Mr. and Mrs. Israel Ulmer of Dawson. Falloon said he would defer formal action until after conferring with the youth's foster parents. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wuster of Dawson. The attorney said the action was decided upon when the youth confessed attempting to extort $50 from the Ulmers. Ulmer is a retired farmer, and the Wusters live on a farm. The note threatened the Ulmer home would be burned if the money was not paid. The youth was taken into custody after he crawled along a fence to get a bottle containing $5. The youth told officers he wanted money to finance a radio invention.

Dear Brother: I just received your welcome letter of the 11th and was glad to hear from you. I noticed that you are doing a marvelous work down there in West Virginia. Your work reminds me very much of my ministry. On my first field I drew the plans and supervised the building of a parsonage. My first field was with two churches in a new field in South Dakota, organized only three years in a territory opened to white settlers eight years. My next field was in western S. D. where I drew the plans for a church building and supervised the work. In my next field I drew the plans for a new church building; picture enclosed. This was a building that was recognized as the finest all through building in the country, using cut glacial deposit rock picked up in the same county. We gathered them and dressed them for laying in wall. They were of various colors of gray and different shades of pink. In my third field we planned for a new building but because of the depression we had to drop it for the time but then I went to another field in Nebraska to finish a building. The church got stuck financially and the pastor left.

Building was a natural for me as I had three uncles who were building contractors in Williamsport, and a brother a carpenter. However this was not all for in every field enlarged the membership in a very satisfactory way. I am retired now after 49 years in the ministry under paid service. Since then I have been in some very active work in my home church.

Well now about our genealogy! I am not sure that you are as much interested in this as I am, but it is interesting anyway to know something about our ancestry. I see that we, you and I, are not related very closely, but we do have some relationship. I am quite sure that your mother's grandfather was a brother to my grandfather. On page one of my copy I sent to you; first there is John Waltz who with his son Michael came from Germany in 1806. John George, son of John Sr. came from Germany in 1804. It is interesting to recognize that it took them, George and his group, from June 6th to September 18th to get here on their sailing. It's interesting to compare that with present air travel. On page one I gave Michael's family but did not follow it any further. I personally knew some of their descendents but not very well.

Following John George's family you will find on page 4, I am quite sure that at the top of the page 4 the name John Waltz married to Mary Sheets who I am sure were your mother's grandparents. William Waltz married to Mary Hurr was my grandparents (my Grandfather). Now then my Aunt Barbara, daughter of my grandfather married Samuel Ulmer, bottom of page 6. Now go to page 16 you will find that Elizabeth Ulmer was married to Jacob C. Waltz, who you say in your letter was your father's brother. Further on page 18 you find Bertha Ulmer who married Henry Waltz. Bertha is a sister to Elizabeth. See page 8. These went to Nebrask and then because of her health they moved to the Ozarks in Missouri, but she did not live very long. I visited them in Mo. Then Edward their brother on page 8 was a pastor in Nebraska but they moved away before I got to see them. I had a letter from him after landing in South Dakota. Emma Ulmer, page 8 married Orville Sollenberger; page 18. They also moved to Nebraska and I visited them several times while I was working for Central Seminary. She passed away about 1-1/2 years ago. I do not know any Dr. Ulmer.

You mentioned in your letter the name of Conrad Waltz. Note that on page 2 you will find a Conrad Waltz, son of Michael Waltz who came from Germany with his father in 1806. But of course, as I mentioned above I did not follow the records of that family.

I was interested to note that your mother's grandmother's name was Mary Sheets. My mother's name was Mary Sheets also. My mother had a brother George Sheets who was a minister. You may note that on page 2 there is a John Waltz married to Mary Sheets. William a brother of John was my grandfather. Maybe I mentioned that above. I am acquainted with the Anthony church and preached there once. My mother's people lived in that area.

I have been out west during all my ministry after I was ordained in 1910. The last ten years except two of my ministry I worked for the Central Seminary in Kansas City, Kansas in the department raising money for their expenses. You will note that I am out here in California. I am here visiting my daughter who lives near Los Angeles. I expect to leave in about a week and go visit my brother in Florida for a few weeks. He and I are the only ones left in our family. I have a son who is a minister in Kansas City, Missouri who is doing a fine work and expects next may to receive his D.Th from Central Seminary.

I am sure glad to have your letter and hope that you might be able to meet him sometime. When you come to the annual American [Baptist] Convention in Des Moines, Iowa, I would be glad to have you come and visit us on your way. I am not sure that I will get to attend that meeting, although it is not so very far from our place. Very cordially, A. Pierce Waltz [signed].

Notes for Winfield Scott Kiess:
History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 720:
WINFIELD S. KIESS, who, as his father's representative, successfully operates one of the large farms of Whetstone Township, Crawford County, Ohio, 390 acres of very valuable land, belongs to a well known and highly respected family of this section. He was, born in Whetstone Township, October 12, 1880, and is a son of Joseph and Rebecca (Haldeman) Kiess.

Joseph Kiess came to Ohio from Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and now lives retired at Bucyrus. He married Rebecca Haldeman who was born at Galion, Ohio, and died March 9, 1902. They had two children: Winfield S.; Viola, who married J. A. Shearer and has three children, namely: Catherine, Eveline, Joseph. The father of the above family has always given political support to the Democratic Party. He is a member of the Evangelical Church, to which his wife also belonged.

Winfield S. Kiess attended the public schools and afterward the Ohio Northern University, at Ada, Ohio. His business has been farming but during six winter terms he made use of his decided musical talent, being director of music during that time in the public schools of both Whetstone and Liberty Townships. His present farm, known as the Joseph Kiess homestead, not only now engages all his lime and attention but makes it necessary for him to keep two hired farmers and also to utilize the services of a boy, all the year round. Mr. Kiess is very enterprising, keeps thoroughly posted as to crops, stock and other matters pertaining to his business, and is numbered with the most reliable farmers of this part of the county.

In October, 1904, Mr. Kiess was married to Miss Sadie Cook, a daughter of Philip and Rachel (Neff) Cook, the latter of whom is deceased. Mr. Cook, who is a retired farmer now living at Bucyrus, married Mary Lust for his second wife, and three children were born to them; Minnie, Bessie and Ethel. To his first marriage the following children were born: Ella, wife of William Ronk; Sadie, wife of Winfield S. Kiess; Clara, wife of William Hosterman; Emma, wife of Clarence Kelly; and Frank. Mr. and Mrs. Kiess have two bright little ones, Leona and William. They attend the Evangelical Church. Politically Mr. Kiess is a Democrat and fraternally he belongs to the Maccabees. Although his father still owns this farm, its entire management and direction is in the hands of Mr. Kiess.

She was born 05 May 1863 in Blooming Grove, Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 08 Feb 1954 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Joseph Gross Heim:
History of Richardson County, Nebraska: Its People, Industries and Institutions, Volume 2, 1917, page 1331-1332:

Joseph G. Heim, of Dawson, Richardson County, is a man of varied attainments in the agricultural life of the community in which he resides. As a farmer, breeder of cattle, hogs, and sheep, as well as fruit growing, his life may be described as a busy one. He was born on March 9, 1857, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, also natives of the same county and state.

Jacob G. Heim was born on June 15, 1832, in Pennsylvania, the son of Gottlieb and Margaret (Steiger) Heim, who were natives of Wurtemberg, Germany, and who came to the United States about 1808. Jacob G. Heim, who followed the occupation of farming all his life, came to Nebraska in 1874. He located on section 15, Grant Township, Richardson County, and bought four hundred acres of land. His first experience in this place was somewhat unfortunate, as he lost the whole of his first year's crops, the grasshoppers eating every growing thing on his land. This experience, however, was not repeated and he continued to farm with much success up to the time of his retirement. A few years before his death he moved to Dawson; later he moved to the farm home of Emanuel Ulmer and died there in 1914. His wife, Regina (Gross) Heim were the parents of eleven children, four of whom are deceased, the others being Joseph G., the subject of this sketch; Mrs. Sarah Ulmer, who lives in Grant township; Samuel F.; Jonathan E.; Rebecca, the wife of Jacob S. Heim; Sophia, who married Martin D. Ulmer; and Maggie who married Thomas Wuster, and all of whom are living in Grant township, this county.

Joseph G. Heim came to Nebraska with his parents in 1874, he then being seventeen years of age. In 1882 he rented land from his father and in 1884 he bought his first farm in section 10, Grant precinct. The tract was all unimproved and he set up to work to bring it into a state fit for cultivation. He built a substantial house, put up three barns and set out ten acres to an orchard for fruit growing, in which he has been very successful, selling his fruit locally and shipping large quantities. He is regarded as one of the most progressive fruit growers in this part of the state.

Mr. Heim's entire acreage i sections 19, 26 and 27, in Grant Township, amounts to two hundred and forty acres of choice land, all of which with the exception of the portion set out to the orchard, is operated for general farming purposes. He is an extensive breeder of Holstein cattle and Duroc-Jersey hogs and has an excellent strain of pure breed Shropshire sheep, several of which he keeps for breeding purposes. For several years Mr. Heim has been a member of the Shropshire Breeders Association of Lafayette, Indiana. In all his varied business activities he has shown much enterprise and sound judgement.

On December 22, 1881, Joseph G. Heim was united in marriage to Rosa Heim, daughter of John and Margaret (Heim) Heim, who came to Richardson County in 1881, the year of their daughter's marriage to Mr. Heim. John Heim is dead and his widow is now living on the farm in section 15, Grant Township. Joseph G. Heim and wife are the parents of six children, namely: Mrs. Bertha Shively, of Calloway, this state; Mrs. May Belden, of Grant Township; Emerson, who lives on the homestead in Grant Township; Olive and John, both deceased, and Alice, who is attending high school. The Heim family are members of the United Evangelical Church and are active in all its good works.

Mr. Heim is a Republican and gives active support to that party, though sometimes voting the independent ticket. For two years he acted as township assessor, giving general satisfaction in that office. He was elected to the Dawson school board about twenty years ago and has been an active worker on the board during that time, serving as president of the board for several years. In 1892 Mr. Heim became superintendent of the Sunday school attached to the United Evangelical church in Dawson, and has continued since in that capacity. He increased the membership of the classes form twenty-five to over two hundred, thus giving evidence of his zeal on behalf of the Sunday school. He is also a trustee of the church. In June, 1916, Mr. Heim moved to Dawson where he built a modern and well-equipped bungalow and where he and his family are comfortably situated.

Falls City - Joseph G. Heim, 74, pioneer farmer and fruit grower, died Saturday night Oct. 3, 1931 at his home in Dawson following a stroke. He moved to the Dawson vicinity with the first settlers from Pennsylvania in 1874 and until a few years ago lived on a farm. He had been a community leader 20 years, was president of the school board and a member of the village council. His widow, a son and three daughters survive him.

Notes for Emanuel Ulmer:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1068:

Emanuel Ulmer, one of Richardson County's well-known and progressive farmers and the proprietor of a fine farm in the vicinity of Dawson, in the precinct of Grant, is a native of the old Keystone state, but has lived in this county since 1881 and has therefore watched the wonderful development that has been made in this region since pioneer days. He was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, March 8, 1856, son of Martin and Catherine (Shaefer) Ulmer, both of whom were born in that same county, of German parentage, and the former of whom died there in 1870, leaving his widow with a considerable family of children. In 1884 she came to Nebraska with her younger children and established her home on a farm in Grant precinct, this county, in the neighborhood of the home her elder son, the subject of this sketch, had established there two or three years previously, and there he spent the remainder of her life, her death occurring in 1903. Elsewhere in this volume there is set out somewhat more at length something of the history of this pioneer widow and her family, together with some details of the genealogy of the Ulmer family, and to that reference the attention of the reader is respectfully invited in this connection.

Having been but fourteen years of age when his father died, Emanuel Ulmer early began to "hustle" for himself and grew up earnest, sober and self-reliant. He was trained as a farmer and in the fall of 1881 came to Nebraska with a view to establishing his home on a farm out here in the beautiful valley of the Nemaha, of which he had heard much from other Pennsylvanians who had settled here earlier. He bought a tract of land from Jacob Heim, a Lycoming County, (Pennsylvania) man, who had settled here in 1874 and had made heavy investments in farm lands, and after his marriage a few months later to one of Mr. Heim's daughters, established his home on that farm and has ever since made his residence there. For the unimproved quarter section he originally bought he paid three thousand dollars and as he developed that place and prospered in his affairs he gradually added to his holdings until he became the owner of four hundred acres of fine land, but has since sold a quarter section to his sons and now holds but two hundred and forty acres, his original home quarter section and an "eighty" to the south. He has two houses on his home farm and excellent farm buildings, the entire farm plant being operated along modern and up-to-date lines. In addition to his general farming Mr. Ulmer has given considerable attention to the raising of livestock, with particular reference to Shorthorn cattle and Poland-China hogs, and has done very well, long having been regarded as one of the most substantial farmers in his neighborhood.

On December 29, 1881, just a few months after coming to this county, Emanuel Ulmer was united in marriage to Sarah Heim, who also was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, July 1, 1858, daughter of Jacob and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of that same county, who came to Nebraska in 1874 and became early recognized as among the most influential and useful pioneers of the Dawson neighborhood. Elsewhere in this volume there is set out at considerable length something of the history of the Heim family in this county, together with biographical sketches of several members of the family. Jacob Heim, the pioneer, died at his home in Grant precinct in April, 1914, at the age of eighty-two years, and his widow is now-making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer.

To Emanuel and Sarah (Heim) Ulmer six children have been born, namely: Mary, who married Charles E. Wuster, of Porter precinct, this county, and has two children, Orville and Miriam; Norman, who married Merdeth Miller and lives on the farm adjoining that of his father; Edna, who is at home; Walter, who is attending the Evangelical College at Le Mars, Iowa, and Reuben, who is farming with his brother, Norman, and who married True Stratton and has one child, a daughter, Evelyn, and Nelson, at home. Mrs. Ulmer and the children are members of the United Evangelical Church and Mr. Ulmer, who was reared a Baptist, attends the same, the family taking a proper part in all neighborhood good works, as well as in the general social activities of the community in which they live. Mr. Ulmer is a Democrat, but on local issues is inclined to cast his vote independent of party lines, preferring to recognize personal fitness rather than party allegiance as a qualification for office. Mr. Ulmer is a contributing member of the local chapter of the Red Cross Society.

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 945:

Among the extensive and prosperous farmers of Richardson County must be included Samuel F. Heim, of Grant Township, owner of seventeen hundred and sixty acres of excellent farming land, three hundred and twenty acres of which are located in sections to and 16, in Grant township, and fourteen hundred and forty acres in Hitchcock county, this state. He was born on November 17, 1859, in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, and is the son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, who were also born in the Keystone state and to whom further and more detailed reference is made in another part of this work, in the course of a sketch relating to Joseph G. Heim, a brother of the subject of this sketch.

Jacob G. Heim, who came to Nebraska in 1874, was born in Pennsylvania on June 15, 1832, the son of Gotleib and Margaret (Steiger) Heim, who came to America from Germany about 1808. Up to the time of his retirement a few years before his death, Jacob G. Heim was actively engaged in operating his farm of four hundred acres in section 15, Grant precinct, in which he was the pioneer settler of the Pennsylvania colony. He was married to Regina Gross, who was born on July 13, 1825, and is now in her ninety-second year.

Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim were the parents of eleven children, four of whom are deceased, the others being Joseph G., who lives in Dawson, this county; Mrs. Sarah Ulmer, who lives in Grant township; Samuel F., the subject of this sketch; Jonathan W.; Rebecca, the wife of Jacob Heim; Sophia, who married Martin D. Ulmer, and Margaret, who is the wife of Thomas Wuster, and all of whom are living in Grant precinct, this county. The father of these children died in 1914 and his widow now lives with her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Ulmer.

Samuel F. Heim was in his fifteenth year when he came with his parents to Nebraska, arriving on June 11, 1874, and remained at Rulo for a brief period of three weeks with some friends and on July 3, moved with his parents to Grant precinct. His first employment in Richardson County was herding cattle on the plains and farming. Sometime later he obtained his first tract of land from his father, who had purchased a half section in Grant Township, and Samuel F. Heim began farming operations on his own account.

As he prospered in his farming work, he continued to add to his land holdings and is now the owner of seventeen hundred and sixty acres of prime tillage and fattening land. On his holdings, generally, Mr.

Heim has effected some very extensive improvements and has set out an excellent grove of trees and an orchard and in the latter is engaged in fruit-growing, the produce being sold and shipped in large quantities. Mr. Heim has been one of the Richardson county farmers who has helped to reclaim the prairie and convert it into well-cultivated fields and pasture lands.

On February 14, 1889, Samuel F. Heim was united in marriage to Elizabeth Heim, who was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and is the daughter of John J. and Rosa (Heim) Heim, who were the parents of seven children, all of whom are now living. John Heim and wife now reside of section 10, Grant Township. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Heim are the parents of six children, namely: Mrs. Luella Clark Belden, residing in Montana; Mrs. Adah F. James, who lives in Porter precinct; Tillie, who married Ed. Richards, living in Porter precinct; Melvin, Mary and Richard, at home.

Mr. Heim is a supporter of the Republican Party, but has never held public office. He and his family are members of the United Evangelical church, and are liberal supporters of its various activities. In 1916 Mr. Heim installed throughout his home and barns a Delco electric system, using the lights in the home and the outbuildings; also using the electric system for pumping water, washing and many other purposes.

Samuel Franklin Heim, son of Jacob G. and Regina Gross Heim, was born near Williamsport, Pennsylvania, Nov. 7, 1859, and died Jan. 8, 1946, having attained the age of 86 years, 1 month and 21 days. Early in 1874 he moved with his parents to Nebraska, settling first at Rulo. In July of 1874 the family moved to the old Jacob G. Heim farm at Dawson, now occupied by the Arthur Heim family.

He was united in marriage to Elizabeth Heim on Feb. 14, 1889. During that summer they built the home in which they resided for more than 53 years of their married life, and which remains as an old landmark in the community. To this union were born six children, Mrs. Luella Belden of Buffalo, Montana, Mrs. Adah James of Dawson, Nebraska, Mrs. Tillie Richards who preceded him in death in 1938, Melvin J. of Dawson Nebraska, Mrs. Mary Bilsing of Culbertson, Nebraska, and Rev. Richard A. of Hastings, Nebraska.

In old age he found much comfort and Joy in his 25 grandchildren, 23 of whom survive, and in 11 great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held in the Evangelical church of Dawson, Nebraska, on Friday, Jan. 11, with the pastor, Rev. C. E. Nichols, in charge. Burial was in the Heim cemetery in Dawson.

He married Louisa S. Shafer 26 Dec 1893 in Hope, Kansas, daughter of Samuel Shafer and Maria Heim. She was born 20 Oct 1872 in Balls Mills, Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 25 Jul 1937 in Topeka, Shawnee Co, Kansas.

Notes for Jonathan W. Heim:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1086:

Jonathan W. Heim is another of those Richardson county farmers who have come to this part of Nebraska from the old Keystone state and who have become owners of land on extensive scale. He lives on a farm on which his father settled in July, 1874, containing eighty acres of land in section 15, Grant precinct, and is the owner of one hundred and sixty acres in section 10 and another tract of eighty acres west of Henry Heim's place. He was born on August 11, 1861, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of the same county and state. Who settled in Richardson County in 1874.

When Jacob G. Heim settled here he bought eighty acres of land on which his son, Jonathan W., now resides. He proceeded at once to prepare the ground for crops and was in a fair way to make a success of his work, when in common with the other settlers he suffered from the plague of grasshoppers which visited Nebraska in 1874. The first year spent on his new holding was a hard one; in addition to the grasshopper pests, it turned out to be a dry year and vegetation did not thrive. He also suffered the loss of two children. His courage, however, did not desert him and by perseverance and industry he prospered, later buying, another half section of land.

Jonathan W. Heim-was about twelve years of age when he came with his parents from Pennsylvania to the state of Nebraska. He was educated in the district schools and in Dawson, this county. He helped his father on the farm and later bought one hundred and sixty acres of land from his father. On this tract he commenced farming operations on his own account and meeting with a fair measure of success, he added to his holdings by the further purchase of eighty acres. Some time before his father's death he bought out the home place, the father having gone to reside in Dawson, and here ever since he has continued to make his home. The house in which he resides is nicely situated back from the road on a hillside, with a nice grove of walnut trees in the rear. The house and outbuildings are all in excellent condition. By his thrift and industry Mr. Heim has been in a position to pay cash for all his land.

On December 26, 1894, Jonathan W. Heim was united in marriage to Louisa Shafer, who was born on October 20, 1872, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a daughter of Samuel and Mary (Heim) Shafer, who now reside in Canada, just across the border eight miles west of Buffalo. They formerly lived in Nebraska and later went to the western portion of this state. Sometime later they went to Dickerson County, Kansas, and remained there for a number of years and in the late nineties moved to Iowa, going from there to the old home place in Pennsylvania. From the latter place they moved to Canada, across from Buffalo, about three miles from Lake Erie and now reside in a settlement among his church people, the Brethren in Christ. Mr. and Mrs. Heim are the parents of seven children, namely: Mattie M., Howard John, Pearl Mary, Wesley Laurence, all at home; Clarence Walter, who died at the age of three years; Arthur William and Edith Viola, both at home. Mr. and Mrs. Heim and family are members of the United Evangelical church and take a proper interest in all church matters. Mr. Heim is a supporter of the Republican Party, but has never been a seeker after office.

History of Richardson County, Nebraska: Its People, Industries and Institutions, Volume 2, 1917, page 1034-1035:

Another member of the Heim family who is a prominent farmer of Richardson County, is Jacob S. Heim, owner of one hundred and sixty acres of tine farming land in the northeast quarter of section 8, Grant precinct. He is a native of the Keystone state, having been born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, on July 16, 1866. He is a son of John J. and Rosina (Helm) Heim, and has been a resident of this part of Nebraska since he was sixteen years old.

John J. Heim, also a native of Pennsylvania, was born on July 2, 1847, in Lycoming County, that state. He continued to live there for thirty-five years, at the end of which time, in 1882, he came to Grant precinct, Richardson County, and bought one hundred and sixty acres of land, which he at once proceed to cultivate. As time went on, he prospered in his farming operations and later added to his land holdings. He owned the place on which his son, Jacob S., now lives, and he is now living retired on the Israel L. Heim place; his wife, who is somewhat older than he is, also lives on the same place. To John J. Heim and wife the following children were born: Elizabeth, who married Samuel Heim, of Grant precinct, this county; Jacob S., the subject of this sketch; Mrs. Anna Stoltz, who lives in Porter precinct; Mrs. Mary Stratton, who lives in Brownville, this state; Israel L., of Grant precinct, on the old Heim homestead; William, who lives in Phoenix, Arizona, and Lucy, who married E. Draper, Manila, Iowa.

As stated above, Jacob S. Heim was sixteen years old when he came with his parents to this county in 1882. For a period of five years he attended the Dawson district schools and on leaving school he worked for his father on the farm for several years, or up to the time of his marriage. He then moved to his present farm of one hundred and sixty acres, which he bought from his father. On this land he has made many valuable improvements and in 1914 built a modern house at a cost of fifty-five hundred dollars, and which is one of the most substantial residences in Grant precinct. It is equipped with furnace, hot and cold water, gas lights and other features that go to make up a comfortable home. In 1907 he erected a substantially built barn, thirty-two by thirty-eight feet, and in other ways has kept abreast of requirements making for efficiency in his farming operations.

On March 1, 1892, Jacob S. Heim was united in marriage to Rebecca Heim, who was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a dought of Jacob G. and Regenia (Gross) Heim, further mention of whom is to be found in another part of this work. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Heim are the parents of two children, namely, Verna, who was graduated from Dawson high school in 1913 and now living with her parents, and Elma, who attends the district school.

Mr. and Mrs. Heim and their children are members of the United Evangelical church and are earnest attendants on its services. Mr. Heim is a warm supporter of the Republican Party and is now serving on district No. 92 school board, and has been treasurer of the same since 1901, his interest in educational affairs being generally recognized throughout the county.

Notes for Martin Daniel Ulmer:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 908:

Martin D. Ulmer, one of Richardson county's best-known and most progressive farmers and the proprietor of a fine place of a quarter section in the precinct of Grant, is a native of the old Keystone state, but has been a resident of this county since 1884 and has thus been a witness to and a participant in the development of this region during the past thirty years and more. He was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, September 13, 1861, son of Martin and Catherine (Shaefer) Ulmer, both natives of that same county and both of German descent, the latter of whom became a pioneer of Richardson county and here spent her last days, having come here as a widow in 1884.

Martin Ulmer was the son of Leonard Ulmer, a native of Germany, a son of Leonard Ulmer, Sr., who was a son of Thomas Ulmer. The junior Leonard, the first of his family to come to this country, married Marie Stump in his native land and in 1804 came to the United States, settling in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, where he and his wife established their home and where they reared their family. Their son, Martin Ulmer, grew to manhood on the home farm in that county and there married Catherine Shaefer, a daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth (Guinter) Shaefer, also natives of Germany, who had emigrated to the United States in 1804 and had settled in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, neighbors to the Ulmers. After his marriage Martin Ulmer established his home on a farm in his native county and there spent the rest of his life, his death occurring in 1870. In 1884 his widow disposed of her interests in Pennsylvania and with her children came to Nebraska and settled in Richardson County. She bought a quarter of a section of land just across the highway from the farm owned by the subject of this sketch and Nyhich he bought at the same time, and there she lived until 1894, when she moved to Dawson, making her home with a son and daughter, her death occurring in 1903, she then being seventy-five years of age. She was the mother of five children, those besides the subject of this sketch being Henry (deceased), Israel, of Dawson, this county; Emanuel; of Grant precinct, and Sarah E., of Dawson. Emanuel Uhner married Sarah Heim and has six children, Mary, Norman, Edna, Walter, Reuben and Nelson. Mary Ulmer married Charles Wuster and has two children, Orville and Miriam. Norman Ulmer married Merdeth Miller. Reuben Ulmer married True Stratton and has one, child, a daughter, Evelyn.

As noted above, it was in 1884 that Martin D. Ulmer came to Richardson County, accompanying his widowed mother from Pennsylvania. He bought a quarter of a section of land in the precinct of Grant, the place he ever since has occupied, right across the road from the quarter section his mother bought. When he bought the place it had but slight improvements on it, a little one-room house, a tumble-down barn and a decrepit corncrib, but he went to work with energy and it was not long until he began to get results, soon having one of the best improved farms in that neighborhood and he ever has made a point of keeping his place up to standard. His fine residence occupies a commanding site on a beautiful rise and the surrounding grove of evergreens and the adjacent vineyard lend picturesqueness to the spot. The large barn and well-ordered farm buildings are in keeping with the central establishment, the entire farm plant bearing the unmistakable imprint of its owner's progressive and up-to-date methods of doing business. Upon buying that place Mr. Ulmer found it necessary to incur a considerable indebtedness, but he soon got that paid off and has prospered in his operations. In addition to his general farming he has paid considerable attention to the raising of high-grade livestock, with particular attention to Black Angus cattle and Poland China hogs, and has done very well. He and his sister now own the farm their mother formerly owned and rent the same to advantage. Mr. Ulmer is a Democrat and has ever given a good citizen's attention to local political affairs, but has not been a seeker after public office.

On December 5, 1893, Martin D. Ulmer was united in marriage to Sophia Heim, who also was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, July 19, 1868, daughter of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of Pennsylvania, who came to this county in 1874 and settled on a farm one mile north of Dawson, becoming early, recognized as among the most substantial and influential pioneers of that neighborhood. Jacob G. Heim, further and fitting reference to whom is made elsewhere in this volume, died in April, 1914, he then being eighty-two years of age, and his widow is still living in this county, now making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Emanuel Ulmer. Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer have had three children, Erma, born on May 22, 1896, who is a graduate of the Dawson high school class of 1913, and who is still at home; Wallace H., born in 1903, who died in 1904, and Mildred, born on February 15, 1909. The Ulmers have a very pleasant home and have ever taken an interested part in the general social and cultural activities of their home neighborhood and of the community at large, helpful in many ways in promoting agencies having to do with the advancement of the common welfare. Mr. Ulmer was reared a Baptist and Mrs. Ulmer is a member of the United Evangelical church, both taking a proper part in neighborhood good works. Every member of this family has contributed liberally to the Red Cross movement and Mr. Ulmer has shown his patriotism by buying Liberty Bonds.

Notes for Thomas Frederick Wuster:
History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 927:

Thomas F. Wuster, one of the best-known and most substantial farmers in the precinct of Grant, this county, was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, January 24, 1878, son of Christ and Martha (Marquard) Wuster, who came to this state in June, 1879, and became pioneers in Porter precinct, Richardson County. Further and fitting reference to the Wuster family in this County is made elsewhere in this volume.

Reared on the home farm in Porter precinct, he having been but two years of age when his parents settled there, Thomas F. Wuster received his schooling in the schools of that neighborhood. He began working out at the early age of eleven years and worked constantly from the time he was fourteen years of age. In the spring of 1900 he began farming for himself. For one year he rented the Strunk farm and then in 1901 he bought his present place of a quarter section in the precinct of Grant, and there established his home and has ever since resided there, he and his family being very comfortably situated. His house, built in 1908, is one of the best in that neighborhood and the general farm buildings are in keeping with the same, the place being looked upon as one of the best-improved farms in that part of the county. In addition to his general farming Mr. Wuster gives considerable attention to the raising of live stock, with particular reference to sheep and hogs. He has a flock of more than one hundred and twenty head of sheep and in 1916 fed more than four hundred head of sheep for the market.

On March 7, 1901, Thomas F. Wuster was united in marriage to Margaret Heim, who was born on a pioneer farm in the precinct of Grant, Richardson County, May 37, 1880, daughter of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, prominent and influential pioneers of this county and further and extended reference to whom is made elsewhere in this volume, and to this union seven children have been born, namely: Minerva born on December 28, 1901; Ruth, November 6, 1903; Frederick, July 3, 1905; Dorothy, December 31, 1906; Joseph, September 11, 1909; Milton, July 18, 1912, and Dwight, April 23, 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Wuster are members of the Evangelical Lutheran church and take a warm interest in church affairs, as well as in the general good works of the community in which they live, helpful in many ways in promoting such agencies as are designed to advance the common welfare thereabout. Mr. Wuster is independent in his political views, preferring to keep himself free to vote for the most competent candidate for public office without regard to party affiliations. He not only is a progressive and wide-awake farmer, but a public spirited citizen and tries to do his part in advancing the interests of the community of which he has been a resident since the days of his early childhood.

Notes for Jesse W. Suffel:

Fire completely consumed the county home of Jesse Suffel and family southwest of Montpelier at 10 a. m., Easter Sunday. Delma Brown, fireman, narrowly escaped injury fighting the fire when the house's chimney fell, he was burned on the shoulder by hot tar, probable from the roof. The fire broke out in the upper part of the house, and the electric wiring is believed to be the cause of the blaze. The family was unaware that the house was burning until neighbors noticed the flames in the roof and gave the alarm. Most of the furniture and personal belongings were taken from the house by the family and the neighbors. The fire blazed from 10a.m. until 11:30 a.m. The Montpelier fire department emptied two tanks of water on the fire. The firemen did not have a nearby source of water.

The fire department prevented the blaze from spreading to surrounding building, including a house on the opposite side of Blue's Bride road which was in danger for a time because of flying embers.

Occupants of the house, on the old Will Brown farm southwest of Montpelier, were Mr. and Mrs. Suffel, three sons, Harold, Dean, and Lester, a daughter Ruby, and a daughter in law, Mrs. Harold Suffel. The nine room house was covered by insurance

Marriage Notes for Maurice Hayward and Janis Hahn:
Miss Janis Hahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil J. Hahn, became the bride of Dale Hayward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hayward, in a pretty candlelight wedding at the Humboldt Methodist church, Sunday, Aug. 19, 1951, at 7:00 p.m. Rev. R.W. Stansted read the double ring ceremony in the presence of 250 guests. The chancel of the church was decorated with two seven-branch candelabra and baskets of white and multi-colored gladioli. Fern was used as the background. A prelude of organ music was played by Mrs. Friel Kerns, Jr. as the guests assembled. She also played the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Glenn Carpenter accompanied Clarence Meister, who sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." The candlelighters, Misses Edna Mae and Darlene Hahn of Johnson, cousins the bride, wore gowns of brocaded organdy over satin, fashioned alike. The ring bearers, Althea Barnes in blue brocaded organdy over satin, and Roger Vollertsen of Nebraska 1 City, cousin of the bride, in a white suit and black tie, each carried a ring in a spike of gladioli in which the ring was concealed. Joan Fahrenholtz, cousin of the bride, and Ann Kotouc, wearing matching dresses of pink and blue brocaded organdy over satin, were the flower girls and scattered rose petals before the bride.

The bridesmaids were Miss Eunice Hayward, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a yellow brocaded organdy gown over satin, and Mis Billie Jean Fraser, who wore a green brocaded organdy gown over satin. They each carried a colonial bouquet. Mrs. Raymond Gerdes of Auburn, in a lavender brocaded organdy gown over satin, and carrying a colonial bouquet of yellow mums surrounded with multi-colored carnations, was matron of honor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of imported all-over chantilly lace with a nylon net yoke and a draped fichu of nylon caught with orange blossoms. The bodice buttoned down the back and, had long sleeve which tapered to points over the wrists. The full bouffant skirt ended in an aisle wide train. The two-tiered fingertip length veil of imported bridal illusion was edged with chantilly lace and fell from a halo bonnet trimmed in lace and seed pearls. The bride wore a single strand of pearls, which belonged to her mother, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and white stephanotis, centered with two orchids. Glenn Hayward served his brother as best man, and Lester Feurer of Johnson, cousin of the bride, and John McConnell of Topeka, Kansas, were ushers.

A reception given by the bride's parents was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. The linen covered table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, with white tapers surrounded by asters and gladioli on either side. Miss Neloma Herr served and Mrs. Jerry Asa poured. Miss Virginia Kalous was in charge of the guest book and Miss Ardis Kors had charge of the gift table. Also assisting were Mrs. Reams Gentry, Jr., sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Elmer Rexroth and Viola Moyer.

For going away the bride chose a navy-blue gabardine dress, made by her mother. She had a shoulder corsage of white orchids and wore a matching rhinestone neck-lace and ear rings which were a gift of the bridegroom. The bride is a graduate of the Humboldt high school with the class of 1949. She is employed at the Home State bank in Humboldt. The bridegroom, also a graduate of Humboldt high school 1948, is engaged in farming with his father. The couple will make their home on a farm two and one-half miles west of Humboldt after.

Notes for Ottis Harmon Green:

1957 – Injuries received while working at the New Washington Equity Company proved fatal this morning to Ottis Harmon Green of New Washington, 46-year-old manager of the company. Mr. Green died at 12:45 a.m. today just 36 hours following his admission to Bucyrus Community Hospital after being pinned Tuesday afternoon between a loading platform at the building and a truck filled with seven tons lime. Death was due to internal hemorrhages. Mr. Green was unofficially reported to have died of a ruptured liver and pancreas and to have had transfusions of four pints of blood at the hospital, but a local physician said today that he could not cite anything more specific than "internal injuries" as being the cause of his death.

The accident reportedly occurred as Green and another employee were attempting to put a sliding door back the track on the south side of the feed room where lime is loaded. In order to reach the track to make the necessary repair, it is reported that the men planned to stand on a truck which was to be backed up to the loading platform.

His work was not just a job but an extension of his character, where he practiced kindness and fairness daily.

Charlie's impact extended far beyond his professional endeavors; he was deeply involved in his community, serving on numerous boards and commissions. His contributions to the Lycoming County Planning Commission,

He was born 12 Mar 1909 in Herrin, Williamson Co, Illinois, and died 25 Oct 1992 in Sherman Oaks, Los Angeles Co, California.

Notes for David Putnam Lewis:
David Putnam Lewis (March 12, 1909 - October 25, 1982) was a screenwriter born in Illinois. His first writing credit was for a 1947 TV adaptation of A Christmas Carol. In the 1960s, Lewis wrote extensively for Western TV shows such as Outlaws, The Wide Country and The Virginian, and many of his scripts were co-written with Andy Lewis, with whom he scripted the 1971 movie Klute. Between 1973 and 1976, Dave Lewis worked in partnership with Booker Bradshaw. Among the scripts they co-wrote were TV Shows such as Planet of the Apes (episode "The Horse Race"), Columbo and Ellery Queen. Lewis seems to have retired from screenwriting around 1980.

Oct. 30, 1992 - David P. Lewis; Creator of First TV Soap Opera
David P. Lewis, who took a handful of actors, a $300-per-episode budget and a plot line from his own saccharine novel and melded them into television's first soap opera, is dead. Lewis, an advertising copy writer, TV producer and director, was 83 when he died Sunday in a Burbank hospital of what his family called a short illness. In 1945 he was producing a radio show in Omaha for the Caples advertising company when he noticed a story in Life magazine about the commercial viability of TV. He persuaded his bosses to establish a TV division in New York and got himself appointed its head.
When the war ended, he approached the DuMont "network," a loose affiliation of Allen B. Du Mont's television interests and one of two TV broadcasters in the nation. NBC was the other. Du Mont, Lewis recalled in a 1981 interview, was desperate for programming of any kind. It was presenting old films, amateur acts or "anything they could get their hands on" during the nine hours of weekly programming it shared with NBC in New York City. Thus was born “Faraway Hill,” a 30-minute, five-actor tale of Karen St. John, an attractive widow who found love, intrigue and a new life with her cousin’s son on a primitive Kansas dirt farm, hundreds of geographic miles and cultural light years away from her sophisticated existence in Manhattan.

The first broadcast (live, of course) was on Oct. 2, 1946, from the basement of Wanamaker’s department store in Greenwich Village in a makeshift studio for DuMont’s WNEW. It was a Wednesday evening, noted Lewis, because DuMont was the only network permitted to broadcast that night. Primitive surveys showed that in 1946 there were 3,200 New York City households that contained television sets, and it was estimated that a whopping 400 of them watched the turmoil on “Faraway Hill,” a novel Lewis had started years earlier but never finished. Despite the show’s success, it ran only 10 episodes. Lewis declared at the time that it was only an experiment. It never made a cent and had no commercials. So he wrote the melodrama’s demise into its final episode over the outcry of faithful fans. He wanted, he said years later, not a successful series but to “test the mind of the viewer.”

He remained in TV to direct one of the first, if not the first, detective series--”Barney Blake, Police Reporter”--for NBC, but he pulled back from television when networks began to take programming power from sponsors. Lewis returned to advertising, moving to California in 1959, where he wrote scripts for some TV series on the side. But not another “Faraway Hill.” “I’ve never been a fan of soap operas,” he admitted.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothy, a son, a daughter and three grandchildren.

Marriage Notes for Dorothy Waltz and David Lewis:

At a charming wedding, at Camp Judson, Pactola, Saturday Sept. 12, 1936, Miss Dorothy Hope Waltz, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. A. Pierce Waltz, of Chadron, was married to David Putnam Lewis, of Chicago. Only members of the bride's family were present, each having a part in the service. The Rev. Mr. Waltz performed the ceremony. Mrs. Waltz gave her daughter's hand in marriage. Miss Mary Lenore Waltz attended her sister as bride maid, and Richard Langhorne Waltz, her brother, acted as best man. The wedding took place before a massive fireplace with burning logs. The log cabin was elaborately decorated with autumn leaves, large ferns and roses. After the ceremony the family enjoyed a wedding dinner by candle light. After dinner the newly-wed couple left for Sylvan Lake, returning later for a few days honeymoon in the cabin. The Waltz family were long residents of South Dakota, before going to Chadron eight years ago. Mrs. Lewis is a graduate of Sioux Falls college. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will make several visits in this vicinity before returning to Chicago, where they will make their home.

1542. Rev. Dr. Richard Langhorne[10] Waltz (Abraham Pierce[9], George William[8], Wilhelm[7], Catharina[6] Kiess, Johann Georg[5], Hans Jacob[4], Hans Jerg (Georg)[3], Hans Jerg[2], Georg[1]) was born 13 May 1926 in Ipswich, South Dakota, and died 22 Apr 2003 in Kansas City, Missouri. He married Hazel (Becky) Beckenridge 1950. She was born 20 Feb 1932 in De Soto, Jefferson Co, Missouri, and died 08 May 2014 in Overland Park, Johnson Co, Kansas.

Notes for Rev. Dr. Richard Langhorne Waltz:

1952 - Waltz remembers the letter that came two months before he was graduated from Washburn University. He had groomed himself through college to become a high-profile management member of uncle Don Breckenridge's hotel chain. "I got this letter from my uncle," said Waltz, the 33-year-old head pro at Overland Park Racquet Club. "It said, 'We had this board of directors meeting. They decided there was going to be this no-nepotism rule."

So much for family connections. Waltz was crushed. Waltz, a former basketball, football and tennis star, thought he had his life mapped out. Instead, he started down another route, working for Hallmark Cards. From there he went to Woodside and Homestead country clubs as an assistant pro. Five years ago Waltz returned to Overland Park. Heaven was 14 indoor courts and a year-round junior program to fill them. The rapport he developed with juniors at Woodside and Homestead carried over. Today Waltz probably is the king of the juniors in Kansas City. His former students include national-caliber players like

Sam Fotopoulos, Dave Thies, Kim Clingan and John Rippey. His latest prodigy, Andrew Schmidt, is headed to Oklahoma from Shawnee Mission West and is ranked third in the Missouri Valley boys 18s. Schmidt beat the No. 1 player in the Missouri Valley, John Schneider of St. Louis. in the consolation round of the boys national 18s hard-courts recently in Burlingame, California. "I could promise them (Overland Park) $30,000 to $50,000 before I walked in the door," Waltz said. "You just look at Overland Park. That's where the majority of juniors play. I don't want to get the other clubs mad but . . . ". . . but that's the way it is. Maybe Waltz's success comes from his ability to relate to his juniors. The relationships are more friend-friend than coach-player. "John is a big kid," said Fotopoulos, a former player at Shawnee Mission East, Texas and Oklahoma. "That's a way to describe him. He can talk in a way they understand. The one thing I admire about him is he always had time to play with me."

If Waltz doesn't have time, he tries to make it. Fifty to 60 hours a week are taken up with lessons in the summer. That falls to 40 to 50 hours in the fall and winter. The only indication of a weakness on the solid 6-foot-2, 195-pound frame is a scar on the right knee from a football injury in college. "I could still do this until I'm 65 as long as I'm healthy and in shape," Waltz said."

Richard L. Waltz, 76, of Kansas City, Missouri, died April 22, 2003, at the Specialty Hospital of MidAmerica. Funeral services will be held at the First Baptist Church of Kansas City, Kansas at 3 p.m. on Friday, April 25. Friends may call 6-8 p.m. Thursday, April 24, at the Porter Funeral Home, 8535 Monrovia, Lenexa, Kansas. A visitation will also be held one hour prior to the service at the church. Cremation. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions be made to the Central Baptist Theological Seminary, 741 N. 31st St., Kansas City, Kansas 66102 or to Baptist Camp Judson, 12965 Old Hill City Rd., Keystone, South Dakota 57751. Rev. Waltz was born May 13, 1926 in Ipswich, South Dakota, to Rev. A.P. and Mrs. Anna Waltz. He served in the infantry in World War II and was a charter member of the U.S. Army Ground Forces Band playing the trumpet. He received a degree in Mechanical Engineering from Iowa State University in 1949. He attended Central Baptist Seminary receiving a Bachelors, Masters and a Doctorate in Theology in 1959.

He was the pastor of Besonia Baptist Church, Kansas City, Missouri (1950-1959); the First Baptist Church of Parsons, Kansas (1959-1964); the Director of Evangelism & Church Extension for the Kansas Baptist Convention (1964-1970); Director of Personal Services for American Baptist Churches, USA in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania (1970-1975); pastor of the First Baptist Church of Kansas City, Kansas (1975-1985); and the Executive Minister of the American Baptist Churches of the Dakotas (1986-1991). He was a board member emeritus for Central Baptist Seminary, a member of Prairie Baptist Church, Prairie Village, Kansas, and a former member of the Kansas City, Kansas Rotary Club.

He married (1) Linda ?. He married (2) Jean Rosalyn Payne 07 Jul 1957 in Syracuse, New York. She was born 30 Sep 1937 in Cobleskill New York.

James Thomas (Jim) Williams, 88, passed away of cardiac complications December 27, 2023, in Salem, Oregon. He is survived by his wife Linda, sons Jim (Julie) and John (Amy), step-daughters Judy (Austin) Peden, Tina (Gary) Trenholm, Heather (Chris Danne) Robertson, niece Heidi (Thomas) Henniger, nephew Darren (Amelia) Gaspary, and 8 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

Jim was born June 30, 1935, in Aliquippa, Pennsylvania to James and Marguerite (Kiess) Williams. He grew up in Pennsylvania and upstate New York, graduating from high school in Vestal, New York, and Syracuse University with a degree in Pulp and Paper Technology. He had a very successful career in the paper manufacturing industry, mostly with Boise Cascade at seven western and midwestern mills. His last position was Mill Manager at the Wallula Paper Mill. Together with his previous wife Jean (Payne), they raised three sons as they lived and moved around the country. Most memorable was the time spent in International Falls, Minesota and across the border in Ft. Francis, Ontario as well as Wallula, Washington.

Jim was an ardent hunter, fisherman, photographer, and traveler. He had an uncanny ability to anticipate what deer, elk, salmon, walleyes, and crappies would do before they did. The animated chats around the annual Idaho hunt campfire were full of stories of the past and concocted plans for the next day. A voracious tinkerer in retirement, Jim woke up each morning with a design or improvement project to tackle. He was a patient teacher, always willing to help others with their projects, especially if skills were learned along the way. Jim thrived on robust, predictable solutions, yet easily adapted as conditions changed.

Jim loved to travel. Together with his wife, Linda, he traveled across the United States and through western Canada to Alaska in their motorhome. For 13 years he was a "snowbird" traveling to their home in North Ranch, Arizona for the winter and Washington or Oregon in the Summer. His favorite trip was to Tanzania, Africa in 2019. There he photographed hundreds of animals while on a safari in the Serengeti. He also cruised to New Zealand, Australia, around the southern tip of South America, several destinations in the Caribbean, through the Panama Canal, Iceland to London, River Cruise from Budapest to Amsterdam, Alaska, Hawaii and Baja Mexico.

He is preceded in death by his parents, sisters Donna and Margaret (Gerald) Gaspary, son Jeffrey, niece Heather (Gaspary) Olson, and grandchildren Valerie Williams and Matthew Emigh.

A celebration of life is planned for 11:00 AM on Saturday, February 3, 2024, at Bollman's Tribute Center, 287 SW Washington St., Dallas Oregon.

1671. Sheila Annette[10] Lane (Edward John (Jack)[9] Kiess, Jacob F.[8], Jacob[7], Johannes[6], Johann Georg[5], Hans Jacob[4], Hans Jerg (Georg)[3], Hans Jerg[2], Georg[1]) was born 07 Apr 1941 in Athens, Bradford Co, Pennsylvania. She married Robert Edmund (Bob) Halton 31 Aug 1963 in Athens, Bradford Co, Pennsylvania. He was born 02 Feb 1936 in Waverly, New York, and died 09 Dec 2023 in Rochester.

Notes for Robert Edmund (Bob) Halton:

Rochester - Robert "Bob" Edmund Halton passed away at the age of 87 from Alzheimer's on Saturday, December 9, 2023 at St. John's Home in Rochester. He was born on February 2, 1936 to Thomas and Marion (Pruyne) Halton in Waverly, New York. Bob was the fourth child of eight and one of seven boys. This close-knit group grew up spending endless hours on the Chemung and Susquehanna Rivers and in the hills surrounding Waverly exploring, swimming, building rafts and generally running around. His love and respect for the outdoors and nature became a life-long touchstone, and he enjoyed camping, fly fishing and hiking even late in life. In high school, he earned his Eagle Scout badge, an honor he was especially proud of. He also held the Waverly HS record for the mile event on the track team and played the French horn in the band.

After high school, Bob attended Alfred Tech in Alfred, New York where he earned an associate degree in mechanical engineering. Following that, he served in the army for three years and was stationed in Panama. He landed a job at the Ingersoll Rand plant back in the valley, where at a rehearsal for a singing group, he met Sheila Lane, the love of his life. They married in 1963 and were seldom ever apart. Together, they raised two daughters, Laura and Heidi, in Spencerport, New York. Bob went on to earn another degree from RIT and was employed most of his professional career by Taylor Instrument Companies (Sybron/Combustion Engineering/ABB) for 37 years, where he was known as a great boss to many over the years.

He had numerous creative gifts and talents and was in many ways self-taught. He had a beautiful tenor voice and sang in many choirs and choruses as well as doing solo work. He was an exceptional visual artist and worked in acrylic, pencil and pastel. He taught himself how to work with stained glass and he became an exceptional wood carver later in life. Numerous family members own one-of-a-kind carved Santas from Dad/Poppy/Uncle Bob. He loved to learn new things, and would read, study and practice until he perfected each of his pursuits. His favorite canvas was the house he and Sheila owned in Spencerport. Bob mastered home repairs and renovations and changed every inch of that house with drywall, paint, framing, wallpaper, wiring and more. He had a well-stocked, highly organized basement workshop, where he liked to spend his free time. His masterpiece was the playhouse he designed and built in the backyard for his daughters: a two-story gingerbread A-frame with a Dutch door. It was a marvel.

Bob was a devoted family man and nothing made him happier than being with his wife, daughters, grandchildren and extended family. He loved the annual brothers' campouts and 4th of July Halton family reunions. As great of a dad that he was, he was an even better Poppy to Julia and Devin. Always willing to get down on the floor and play, he loved whatever they were into: blocks, Legos, books, trucks. Summers with his grandkids at Conesus Lake were a magical time of swimming, boating, smores and fishing, so much so that the family took to calling Conesus "Poppy's Lake." He had limitless love, time and attention for his grandchildren.

Bob is predeceased by his brothers, Richard and James Halton. He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Sheila Halton; daughters, Laura (Brad) Lawwill of Yarmouth, Maine and Heidi Halton of Rochester, New York; grandchildren, Julia and Devin Lawwill; brothers, William (Katherine), Daniel, Patrick (Neta) and Charles Halton; sister, Mary Ellen (Dale) Barber; half-sister, Laura Bowen; numerous nieces and nephews; sister-in-law, Sallie (Richard) Belles; brother-in-law, Edward (Linda) Kiess.

Friends may call Friday, December 15 from 2-4PM at Anthony Funeral Chapel, 2305 Monroe Ave. A Funeral Service will be held Saturday, December 16, 10AM at St. Thomas Episcopal Church, 2000 Highland Avenue. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to St. John's Home Foundation, 150 Highland Avenue, Rochester 14620. The family gives special thanks to the South 4 team at St. John's.

Notes for James Hervey Rentz:

James Hervey Rentz , son of Hervey Ellis Rentz and Pearl Elizabeth Hamilton Rentz. James, who resided at 2517 Washington Street, Wilmington, Delaware, served as a Private First Class, Company A, First Battalion, 20th Regiment, 4th Marine Division, U.S. Marine Corps during World War II. He was "Killed In Action" at Saipan, Marianas Islands during the war. He had served in the Marines for two years and six months at the time of his death and was decorated with a "Silver Star" and Purple Heart.

Awarded for actions during the World War II - The President of the United States of America takes pride in presenting the Silver Star (Posthumously) to Private First Class James H. Rentz (MCSN: 802957), United States Marine Corps, for conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity as a Member of a Combat Patrol serving with the First Battalion, Twentieth Marines, FOURTH Marine Division, in action against enemy Japanese forces on the Island of Saipan in the Marianas, on 20 July 1944.

Contacting a large force of Japanese troops occupying well-concealed positions during the later stages of the fierce hostilities following our invasion of this strategic enemy base, Private First Class Rentz fearlessly risked his life to engage the Japanese, forcing his attack with determined aggressiveness and waging a bitter fight in an effort to crush the stubborn pocket of hostile resistance. Although twice wounded during the close encounter, he continued his valiant assault tactics until fatally struck down by the merciless enemy barrages. An indomitable fighter, Private First Class Rentz, by his bold initiative, relentless fighting spirit and resolute fortitude in the face of savage opposition, succeeded in releasing friendly troops pinned down by the deadly Japanese fire and in disrupting the deeply entrenched enemy strong point. His great personal courage and decisive conduct during a critical situation upheld the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service. He gallantly gave his life for his country.

Notes for George McKinley Ludwig:
A Letter From Father to Son By G.M. Ludwig (George H. Ludwig, son of G. M. Ludwig, enlisted in the army Wednesday, May 22, and is now stationed at Fort Snelling).
Dear Son George:

This is the first letter I have ever written to you. There is much I could say but most of it would probably do you very little good now. There are, however, a few things that should be of mutual benefit. You are now on your own. Up to last week most of the decisions were made for you. Tour own personality was more or less a part of the Ludwig family. Now you will no longer be recognized as "the son of" G.M. Ludwig but as George Harry Ludwig. Your personality is now your own. Your initiation into the modern complex social life will bring you both an opportunity and a responsibility. And because you are immediately so far removed from the routine of life to which you were accustomed you will find before you a new social life that will bring you both good and ill. No longer will you benefit directly because of the virtues of your parents. Neither will you be handicapped because of their vices. The primary social circle to which you were accustomed has now widened into a secondary social circle that will recognize you for what you yourself are. The people with whom you are now coming into contact will care little who your parents are, nor will they be interested in the school and the church you attended. What they will want to know is WHAT YOU ARE AND WHAT YOU CAN DO.

I am far more happy than I can tell you that your obedience to your parents was so complete. Your actions were always under parental scrutiny. Your whereabouts were always a matter of family knowledge. This is rather an old-fashioned way of bringing up children. Today, in many instances, young men, long before their 18th birthday, take a wide range of liberties and pursue a course of action of which their parents are absolutely ignorant. Your parents consider this wrong. For your obedience and your co-operation your mother and I are profoundly grateful. But now you are graduated from high school. You are a young man. It would be absolutely wrong for such a close supervision to continue. The break, in fact, already has come. You are now obliged to act for yourself. Your life habits will now be a matter of your own choosing.

We do not intend that you should sever your relationship with the Ludwig home. You will, forever, I am sure, be a part of the Ludwig family. You will want to see the old home often. You will want to come back to your old room, and find it just as you knew it during your youth. You will want to sleep again and again beneath those rustic old rafters, being lulled to sleep by the sound of the rain on the exposed shingle roof, or rocked to slumber land by the swaying of the winter storm without. The memory of your youth, you will want to cherish as long as you live. The bitter experiences will soon fade out of sight and the sweet will become ever more hallowed and sanctified. This sudden break has been all the more intensified by your enlistment into the army. Many consider this step of yours foolish. I consider it otherwise.

You have now done what twice I have been prevented from doing. First during World War I and then again World War II, I took steps to enlist as a Chaplain. In both instances' technicalities prevented me. You have now done what I didn't get accomplished. As a soldier in the army you will help defend the standard of the most wonderful nation on earth. Your devotion to Old Glory will, am sure, be just as unrestricted and wholehearted as was your devotion to your parents. There are many hirelings and "foreigners" in this country who would pollute our sacred flag had they an opportunity. Your forefathers came to America to find and preserve a home where freedom and personal opportunity should prevail. There are others, many of them, who call themselves patriots, but their hearts are corrupt. Had they the opportunity they would substitute a foreign flag. As a soldier you can help expose such treachery and insist on preserving America for Americans. The army may be your opportunity. I have yet to find a situation that cannot be accepted either as a drudgery or as a chance to do something great. If you find that which is repugnant, if you meet doubts and disappointments, look for a break. It is bound to come and challenge you to the limit of your ability. You will be sure to find the company you are looking for. Many of the boys will indulge freely in dissipations. But every time this occurs you will find some boys like yourself looking for a more sober comradeship. So be patient. What will appear as vicious ostracism at times may present you in disguise the most challenging opportunity for constructive leadership. Anywayyou are in the army now. Lots of good luck and write often.

Your father, G.M. LUDWIG

He married Marian True Stratton 16 Jun 1915 in Brownville, Nebraska, daughter of Clarence Stratton and Mary Heim. She was born 11 Nov 1895 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 16 Nov 1991 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Reuben Lauren Ulmer:
Reuben Ulmer (1893-1973) bought from his father, Emanuel Ulmer, 80 acres of treeless untilled land, bordered on three sides by farms of brothers and a sister, Reuben never traveled outside Richardson County until he went to Brownville to marry True Stratton (1895) in 1915.

Osage orange hedges were planted as fences and windbreaks which, when grown, provided fence posts and firewood (cut by axe) an grew again to posts and firewood.

Reuben built a barn and outbuildings and helped build the house. (In retirement he was a carpenter.) He and True landscaped the house area with elm and maple trees around a curving drive to the house and dreamed of when there would be enough shade for their children to play in: Marian (Leatherman) and Evelyn of Dawson; Lorraine (Shorney), Plattsmouth; Sylvia (Anderson), Springfield, Missouri; Ernest, New York City; and Nadine (Hill), Gresham, Oregon.

Reuben and True contributed much to the Dawson Evangelical Church, including as choir director, pianist and organist, and as musicians for funerals. True was a piano teacher for many years. The children all played musical instruments, encouraged by Ruby Brown, who involved nearly every Dawson school pupil in the music program. Ernest went on, following service in World War II, to a career as concert pianist and professor at the Manhattan School of Music in New York.

A progressive conservationist, Reuben planted many trees and in the 19305 an acre of hackberry trees, which did not survive the drought and were replaced by Chinese elm. The drought years of the 1930s were hard for the family and for scores of destitute men and even whole families plodding down the highway in summer, for whom Reuben and True provided food and shelter.

After 1940 the county gave support to the Stratton Cemetery near Verdon, which had been started by True's paternal grandmother – interesting because the Heim cemetery in Dawson was started by True's maternal grandparents.

Reuben and True's married life spanned changes from breaking sod by single horse-drawn walking plow to tractors; from kerosene lamps to electricity by Delco generator to the Rural Electrification Administration, with its aim of bringing electricity to every farm (Reuben was instrumental in bringing it to the county), with refrigerators replacing the old cooling method of lowering containers of food into the well by ropes anchored to a well box; from travel by horse and buggy with a heated soapstone for warmth in winter, to seeing by television man on the moon.

Marian and Wayne Leatherman now own Reuben and True's farm, where they raised five children, and brought modern equipment and methods to the farm. Their daughter Linda was the first fourth generation graduate of Dawson High School in 1964, being the great-granddaughter of Mary Heim Stratton, who graduated in 1891 in Dawson's first graduating class of five persons.

Reuben L. Ulmer, 80, Dawson, died Monday July 30, 1973 at Falls City. Survivors: wife, True: son, Reuben, New York City; Daughters, Evelyn, Mrs. Allen (Lorraine) Shorney, both Plattsmouth, Mrs. Dale (Sylvia) Anderson, Springfield, Missouri, Mrs. Wayne (Marian) Leatherman, Dawson, Mrs. Ron (Nadine) Hill, Gresham, Oregon, sisters, Mrs. Mary Wuster, Edna, both Humboldt; 13 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren.

Ernest Ulmer was born May 18, 1921, in the home of Reuben and True Ulmer north of Dawson, Nebraska. He began his study of piano at the age of three with his mother and the study of violin at age 7 with his father. He attended Peru State College with his two sisters in 1938 for one year.

The following year he stayed home. In 1940, he began piano studies under Earnest Harrison at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln. While there he also studied violin and organ. He obtained a bachelor's degree in abstentia, graduating two months early so he could go to the Army.

He was drafted into the Army in March of 1943 and attended basic training at Camp Roberts in California before being transferred to Ft. Custer, Michigan. In January of 1944 he was sent overseas, serving in France, Germany, Belgium and England for two years, landing on Normandy Beach 6 days after D-Day. Following the war, he studied at Trinity College in London with Nicolas Medtner and Marguerite Wolfe while awaiting passage to the United States. He was honorably discharged in 1946 from the Army.

When he returned to the States, he attended the University of Nebraska at Lincoln and received his Masters' degree in 1947. Subsequently in 1947 under the GI bill, he studied at Manhattan School of Music in New York under Harold Bauer and Dora Zaslavsky, and in Paris during the summer of 1948 with Robert Casadesus and at the Paris Conservatoire in 1948-1949. While at the Conservatoire, he was awarded a Premier Prix in piano. In Paris he also studied privately with Nadia Boulanger, the distinguished harmony, counterpoint, piano and composition teacher whose other students included such distinguished American composers as Aaron Copland and Elliott Carter. With Boulanger, Ernest pursued a rigorous course of study in harmony and counterpoint as well as examining a vast repertoire ranging from Monteverdi madrigals through the Bach cantatas to the music of Debussy, Ravel, and Stravinsky. After Boulanger's death, a collection of Ernest's letters to Boulanger were privately published in France with the title, "Spet lettres de Ernest Ulmer a Nadia Boulanger, 1959-1979." He also made frequent appearances with the conducting class of Eugene Bigot. He returned to New York in 1949 as a student at Manhattan School of Music, and received his Masters' Degree prior to teaching there. He became a professor of piano at Manhattan School of Music in 1956 and served as Co-Coordinator of the Piano Major Department starting in 1965. He taught there for 34 years prior to his retirement in 1990. In 1991 he received a Distinguished Faculty Citation from the school.

His debut performance in New York City was in 1950 and throughout his career he played numerous concerts in New York City at Manhattan School of Music, Town Hall (initially in 1954, "the place" to perform solo in New York City at that time), Kaufman Auditorium, two concerts at Carnegie Recital Hall, as well as concerts in the major capitals of Europe (1957-1958) and in southeast Nebraska. On March 9, 1960, the New York Times described his performance of the night before as "brilliant," "meticulous as to detail and performed with much grace." His playing was also described as "quite delightful." He was also invited to perform concertos with various local and regional orchestras during a period when every city in the United States of any size had a first rate orchestra.

In addition to his tours as a soloist, Mr. Ulmer toured the United States with chamber ensembles and the Robert Shaw Chorale (1951-1952). He was an accompanist for Ruggiero Ricci, Cleve Genzlinger, Carol Feurer, and Mrs. Ruth Lloyd (mother of actor Christopher Lloyd and Sam Lloyd). He made ensemble appearances with Camilla Wicks and the Manhattan Trio, of which he was a founding member in 1952. The two other members were Manhattan School colleagues, violinist Oliver Colbentson and cellist David Wells. The Trio regularly performed live concerts on the radio in the 1950's.

His favorite composer was Claude Debussy and he recorded the Debussy Violin Sonata with Oliver Colbentson for Concert Hall Records and in 1979, Ernest recorded his only solo album, a complete recording of Debussy's two books of Preludes for piano solo on Protone records. Stereo Review described the latter recording as "a major contender among the fine recordings of these works." He also received a rave review from Harris Goldsmith in High Fidelity magazine.

In 1988, the Vantage Press published Ernest's book on piano technique, A New Approach to Piano Technique for the Serious Musician.

In 1993-1994 he traveled to Japan, where he taught piano at Kobe College for Women for a year before returning to the United States.

Ernest was known as a French specialist, frequently performing the music of Debussy and Ravel, but his favorite composers included the three B's, Bach, Beethoven, and Brahms. Like many other musicians, Ernest was dazzled by Bach's compositional technique and he studied the contrapuntal writing in the two books of Bach's The Well-Tempered Clavier in microscopic detail. He also arranged some of Bach's organ compositions for the piano.

In the summers of the early 1980's, he traveled throughout Spain, Italy, and Switzerland with his good friend Don Edman, another American pianist trained in Paris. They met in Manhattan in the early 1950's. They were lifelong friends. Ernest's friends included artists, musicians, writers, and intellectuals who met at the home of painter John Koch and his wife, Dora Zaslavsky, a noted piano coach under whom Ernest studied. Ernest indicated he became acquainted with this couple through his friend, Mrs. Lloyd. Ernest was actually featured in several of Mr. Koch's paintings, one of which hung in his own living room for many years. In 2007 he donated this painting to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. The paintings he owned at one time were featured in a showing at a New York gallery in the late 1990's, and in a book published about Mr. Koch. He also collected paintings by Jean Minard and Maurice Grosser.

In addition to art, he collected matchbooks, stamps and coins from all over the world. He took numerous pictures while traveling in Europe. Ernest moved to Florida in 1995 to enjoy his retirement years, continuing to perform when requested for friends. He returned to Nebraska in 2003 to be closer to family. His family frequently requested performance of "The Canary," a piece he composed, as well as many others. After being in ill health for several years, Ernest died peacefully in his room at Gateway Senior Living in Lincoln, Nebraska on February 25, 2012. Ernest was preceded in death by his parents, and two sisters Evelyn Ulmer and Lorraine Shorney.

He is survived by his sisters Sylvia Anderson of Sprigfield, Missouri; Marian Leatherman of Dawson, Nebraska; Nadine Hill of Gresham, Oregon; nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

The days are long but made much shorter knowing you in my heart. Just as the days of a flower are spent in preparation, growing deeper so the blossom can be even more beautiful-just for you. The footprint you placed in my soul brings joy that can never be taken away. And now that distance separates, makes the past so much more precious bringing life into my soul. Counting the ways as each step is taken toward THE DAY of our rejoicing!

Nelson Howard Ulmer, born May 16, 1896 and died March 18, 1972, was one of six children born to Emanuel and Sarah Heim Ulmer on a farm two miles north of Dawson. Charles married Deborah Marie Calafat on January 27, 1979 in Pasadena. Their two daughters are Darlene Marie born September 16, 1982 and Crystal Joy born May 10, 1984.

He was born 22 May 1889 in Gove Co, Kansas, and died 27 Jun 1974 in McCook, Red Willow Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Tillie Myrtle Heim:

Tillie Myrtle Heim was born September 2, 1893 at Dawson, Nebraska. Here she spent the growing years of her childhood and youth. Then 24 years ago, March 18, 1914 she was united in marriage to Mr. S.E. Richards. For a number of years Mr. and Mrs. Richards made their home at Humboldt, Nebraska. In 1929 they moved on a farm northeast of Culbertson. The next year they moved to their present location from which she so recently departed from this life. Three children, Harlen, Ramona, and Donajean were born to this home.

Mrs. Richards was reared in the Christian faith. Religion in her home was a very real thing, not only on Sundays, but seven days every week. As a result of this training and influence, she joined the Evangelical church early in her youth. After her marriage and when the family moved to Humboldt, she transferred her membership to the Presbyterian church of that community, and she was a member of this fellowship at the time of her death. Mrs. Richards was an energetic worker. Her enthusiasm often carried her beyond her strength. Her health broke about a year ago, and she never completely recovered her strength after this illness. Early this spring she had another attack which proved to be the beginning of her last sickness. During these days she leaned heavily upon her God and because of this fact, it was a pleasure to minister to her spiritual needs. She prayed fervently and her faith and hope were strengthened and brightened as her bodily energy diminished.

Death came Wednesday afternoon, June 15, 1938. She was 44 years, 9 months, and 13 days old. She leaves to mourn her going her husband, S.E. Richards; her three children, Harlan, Ramona, and Donajean; one grandchild, Shirley Ann; also her father and mother of Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. S.F. Heim; and five brothers and sisters: Mrs. Clark Belden of Buffalo, Montana; Mrs. Adah James of Dawson; Melvin Heim of Dawson; Mrs. Charles Bilsing of Culbertson; and Rev. R.A. Heim of Lincoln, besides many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Evangelical Church with the Rev. H.A. Norenberg officiating and the Pade&Herrman Funeral Directors of McCook in charge. Special numbers were sung by a quartet consisting of Mrs. H.A. Norenberg, Mrs. George Hein, Alex Eisenach, and Bernard Gillespie. Ronald Clark sang a solo. Interment was in the Culbertson cemetery. The church was filled with sympathizing friends and the many beautiful and large floral pieces reflected the esteem in which she was held by the communities in which she had resided.

Mrs. Richards was a former president of the Presbyterian Working and was vice president this year. She had also been re-elected as secretary of the Culbertson Woman's Club this spring, which duties she had faithfully performed last year. Among her many other duties she took time to act as East Riverside correspondence for The Progress, who are indeed sorry to lose her as one of their correspondents.

Notes for Philip Arthur Bilsing:

Culbertson, Nebraska - Philip A. Bilsing, 26, of Culbertson, a state highway employee, was crushed to death Tuesday June 27, 1950 while unloading lumber on a siding here. Bilsing was with a state crew building a bridge south of Culbertson. C. J. Schuster, construction engineer on the bridge, said he had learned that Bilsing was on top of a flatcar full of lumber loosening the tie straps, when the loosened lumber slipped and threw him to the ground. The lumber then fell on top of him.

Philip Bilsing, 27, a member of the state highway department crew that is constructing a steel span bridge across the Republican river here, was fatally injured at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, when he was crushed beneath a pile of heavy bridge timbers that fell from a railroad flatcar located on a siding east of the Culbertson Sale Barn. Bilsing and other members of the crew were preparing to unload the 4 x 12-inch timbers of 20-foot length when the accident occurred. He and Joe Ortiz had removed three of the side stakes from the car and were in the act of taking out the fourth and last stake when about a dozen of the huge timbers, weighing around 700 pounds apiece, toppled and fell. Ortis managed to get out of the way, but Bilsing was crushed to the ground beneath the pile. Dale Lantis who was on top of the car came down with the timbers and received a badly bruised right shoulder.

Bilsing never regained consciousness and died before the arrival of a doctor and ambulance from McCook, about half an hour after the accident. He had been working with the state highway crew here for three or four months. Chest injuries are said to have caused his death. One of his legs was also fractured in several places.

He is survived by his wife and a four-months-old daughter, Penny. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bilsing, farm residents south of Culberson, are his parents.

Funeral services are to be held in the Evangelical U.B. Church in Culbertson tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. M.G. Braun officiating. The body will lie in state at the church from 10:00 a.m. to noon that day.

1723. Arthur William[10] Heim (Jonathan W.[9], Jacob G.[8], Catharina Margaretha[7] Staiger, Lorenz[6], Johann David[5], Anna Maria[4] Kiess, Hans Jerg (Georg)[3], Hans Jerg[2], Georg[1]) was born 12 Aug 1909 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 29 Apr 1982 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. He married Lucille Marie Stratton 02 Nov 1934 in Humboldt, Richardson Co, Nebraska, daughter of Clarence Stratton and Mary Heim. She was born 04 Oct 1910 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 07 Jun 2010 in Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Arthur William Heim:
Arthur W. Heim, 72, Dawson, died Thursday April 29, 1982 in Lincoln. Survivors: wife, Lucile; daughter, Lorna M. Carter, Denver; son, Alan A., Lincoln; sisters, Mrs. Mattie M. Vermaas, Humboldt, Mrs. Pearl M. Kirkwood, Columbus, Ohio. Services: 3:30 p.m. Sunday, United Methodist Church, Dawson. Heim Cemetery, Dawson.

Arthur William Heim - August 12, 1909 - April 29, 1982 was the sixth child of Jonathan W. and Louisa Shafer Heim of Dawson. With his brothers and sisters, Mattie, Howard, Wesley, Pearl, and Edith (Clarence died in infancy), Arthur grew up on the family farm in the house built In 1874 by his grandparents, Jacob G, and Regina Gross Heim, Jacob G. (Jakey to friends and neighbors) and Regina and family were pioneer German settlers from, Pennsylvania who came to Nebraska seeking richer, less rocky farmland than they had in the East.

As a boy Arthur ranged up and down the farm's creeks, enjoyed the cold permanent spring that had caught his grandfather's eye, collected bird' eggs, and learned to farm, He soon began his lifelong interest in music. All Jonathan's children sang well and had excellent pitch, and Arthur settled into a true, mid-tenor voice. He took violin lessons as a teenager, riding the train to Humboldt once a week, played violin in the Dawson church orchestra, and was in demand for violin solos in the community,

Arthur attended elementary and high school in Dawson, walking to school over the farm fields. After high school graduation in 1927, he attended the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, where he went out for track, took banjo lessons, and began a liberal arts course. After one semester, Arthur returned to Dawson: his father had suffered a serious farm accident and could no longer work the farm. Arthur began farming the home place in 1929 and farmed for his entire life. In November 1934, he married the youngest child of Clarence and Mary' Heim Stratton, Lucile Marie born October 4,1910, whose sisters and brothers were True, John, Isaiah, and Helen (another child, Mary, lived only a few days). Arthur and Lucile had known of each other since childhood, and their friendship grew at first, not surprisingly, around music - Lucile was a talented pianist who could play all the popular jazz songs of the 1920's. Arthur and Lucile had two children, Alan Arthur born in 1937, and Lorna Mary born in 1941. They maintained their interest in music, teaching their children very early to sing and to play instruments. In the 1950's, Lucile directed the Ladies Chorus at Dawson, a group who sang for many church and community events. Both Art and Lucile lent their talents to musical variety shows, well known in the Dawson community in the 1940's and 1950's, and to church programs and plays.

Arthur Heim, a meticulous farmer, was interested in conservation of water and topsoil, terracing, good fences and floodgates, and clean and well-kept buildings, fields, and pastures, Arthur retired from full-time farming in 1971 and began renting the use of his row-crop ground. He remained very vigorous, however, raising cattle, mending and replacing fences, cutting hedge, putting up hay, mowing pastures and fencerows, improving the family home and buildings, and managing, Retirement did give him more time to read, a lifelong hobby, and to continue many activities in his beloved United Methodist• Church in Dawson, In his last winter, at 72, he reorganized a choir at the Dawson church; selected music, and rehearsed and directed the choir in both Christmas and Easter seasons.

Four generations have now lived in the large, native limestone and white pine house north of Dawson. Few are now left to recount the experience, but the house and farm remain as a tribute to the Pennsylvania family who brought their faith and hopes to Richardson County in 1874.

Dr. Harlan S. Heim was a dedicated physician and served the Humboldt, Nebraska community for over 40 years. He was an ordained minister of the United Methodist Church, and substituted for absent or vacationing pastors. He performed many marriages, conducted funerals and baptisms. His speaking ability made him a frequent choice for banquets, conferences, and commencement exercises.

He married Golda Mountain in 1927 and she was his companion for life. Golda was a housewife, mother of their three children, and during the years that they owned and operated the Humboldt Hospitals, she bought the food and hired the help for the two hospitals and was her husband's secretary and chauffeur. She often remarked that, "her occupation was to keep Doc going." And this she did!

Dr. Heim attended the Dawson Public Schools, Westmar College in LeMars, Iowa, and while there was influenced by Dr. Neibel, then secretary of the Evangelical Association, to become a medical missionary in China. A close friend, Walter Ulmer, also from Dawson, served for many years in China and encouraged Dr. Heim to follow the same path.

Receiving his B.A. from Westmar in 1920, Dr. Heim attended Cornell Medical School in New York City, which at that time was one of the few medical schools in the United States offering courses in Oriental medicine. Finishing medical school in 1924 and with two years of internship in 1926, Dr. Heim was interviewed by the Rev. J.J. DeWall, head of a new mission of the Evangelical Association at Red Bird, Kentucky. Conditions in China being unsettled, Dr. Heim went to Red Bird until the way should open up to China. It never did.

The couple spent 6 ½ years in the Cumberland Mountains. While at Red Bird Mission, Dr. Heim established a 16-bed hospital, the first to serve the Cumberland Mountain area of southeast Kentucky. Golda was quoted as saying, "On our wedding trip we rode mule back along the creeks the only roads available on the last lap of our journey in route to our home at the mission. I had never ridden a mule!" While there were many great changes at Red Bird Mission through the years, Mrs. Heim often spoke of her vivid memories of life there when she taught in the mission school. Classes were held off and on according to the weather and the condition of the creek beds. The mission dormitory housed about 100 students.

Returning to Humboldt in August of 1933, Dr. Heim started his medical practice. In addition to serving the Humboldt Community, Dr. Heim served on the board of trustees of Westmar College from 1943 to 1971, was president of the board of trustees from 1960 to 1968, and later was named the life trustee of the college.

Two daughters were born while they were in Kentucky, Betty Jean was the first baby born in the new hospital, which the Heim's were instrumental in building. She spent most of her life as a medical technician at the Espanola Hospital in Espanola, New Mexico. She passed away in 1982 and is buried in the Heim Cemetery at Dawson, beside her parents. Donna Marie was born January 3, 1930 and married Lloyd Epley, a lawyer of Coralville, Iowa, where they still make their home. A son, Robert Harlan was born January 6, 1942 and passed away August 10, 1991. He held several degrees and taught in several schools, the last being the University of Iowa at Iowa City, Iowa.

Dr. Heim was instrumental in founding a hospital in Humboldt in 1939 and he and his associate, Dr. A.P. Stappenbeck, opened the Holman Maternity Hospital in 1949. Dr. Heim was active in founding the Humboldt Community Memorial Hospital, the Colonial Acres Nursing Home and the Humboldt Clinic. He also managed a small home for older people known as the "cottage."

Dr. Heim was born on September 17, 1897, a son of Henry W. and Regina Heim, on a farm north of Dawson. Dr. Heim grew up in the Dawson Bethel Church where he held his membership all of his life. Golda passed away in 1971 while on a trip to Red Bird Mission, and Dr. Heim passed away in 1974. Both are buried in the Heim Cemetery at Dawson, Nebraska.

Humboldt, March 12, 1974 - Funeral services for Dr. Harlan S. Heim, 76, longtime physician and civic leader here, were to be held Tuesday at the United Methodist Church in Humboldt. He died Saturday, March 9, 1974. A native of Dawson, Dr. Heim came to Humboldt in 1933 after serving as a full-service missionary in Appalachia for 7-1/2 years. An ordained minister in the old Evangelical Church, Dr. Heim for many years filled area pulpits on a substitute basis, averaging about a sermon a month. He served as director of the United Methodist Church choir here for 40 years. Dr. Heim was a World War I veteran and was active in American Legion work. He was also a leader in Rotary and Masonic circles. In May of 1973 Dr. Heim was honored by his community in two days of special tribute.

Notes for William Henry Thorpe:

Most of the students in the Evening Division at La Salle are faced with many different problems which they have to overcome in order to attend school at night and attain good grades. One of these students who has suceeded in overcoming many obstacles is our "Man of the Week," Bill Thorpe. A graduate of Northeast High School, Bill served with the Army in World War II. While he was in the service, Bill was attached to the Ordnance Department with the 8th Air Force in England, where he advanced from a tech sergeant to a second lieutenant. After he received his discharge October of 1945, he returned to his position with the Philadelphia Gas Works Co., where he is now a supervisor.

Bill enrolled at La Salle in February of 1948 but after completing one semester he was forced to drop out of school for six months because his job was taking up too much of his time. However, he enrolled at La Salle In 1949 and has been going strong ever since.

A married man, Bill is the father of two boys, Bill Jr., age seven and Chris. age four and a half. In his spare time, he dabbles in child portraiture photography. Bill. an excellent student. has made the Honor List ever since attending La Salle. Majoring in Economics. he will receive his Bachelor of Science degree in June.

June 10th was a clear, cool morning. It was a perfect day for graduation exercise and William H. Thorpe, of the Street Division, was one of 384 men to receive degrees that day from LaSalle College. This was the day he had visualized when he enrolled at LaSalle Evening School back in 1948. Five long years had passed. Much mid-night oil had been burned. Many bridges had been crossed. Assured of his degree, Bill felt his marks might have earned some distinction among his classmates. College authorities maintained absolute silence on the surprise that was to come. Jittery as an actor before a Broadway opening. Bill admitted that "butterflies" were working overtime as he donned cap and gown in preparation for the long-awaited ceremonies.

The solemn march in academic procession to t he Holy Child Church for the baccalaureate address only provided more time to think of the forthcoming commencement ceremony at the Academy of Music and the honor that still remained so well shrouded in mystery. Maxima cum laude! For outstanding achievement, Bill received the rarely conferred scholastic honor "With the highest praise." The big moment thrilled not only Bill but also his wife, two children and his parents who were in the academy audience on that memorable night.

To graduate from evening school with a degree, in addition to Maxima cum laude (with the highest praise) is indeed a noteworthy achievement. While most of those who received degrees with him attended day school, Bill not only worked every day, but also had to devote some time to family responsibilities. In spite of his paternal duties, his job as a Supervisor in the Street Division, and the long wearying hours of study, Bill not only earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration, but also graduated with the highest praise. A remarkable record!

During the past five years, Bill figuratively sentenced himself to solitary confinement in his spare time to absorb the many required assignments in pursuit of higher education. His wife Ruth, and his two sons, Bill, Jr., now seven, and Christian, now five, got along as best they could with the limited time "pop" could give them. Convinced that "an investment in knowledge always pays the best interest," Bill made many sacrifices. Those who get their education at night schools will attest to the rigors and demands made upon them to successfully meet college requirements.

With his determined efforts to master each subject, and without slighting any phrase of his daily work in the Street Division, Bill's interests remain varied. He has a yen for writing and is a better than average amateur photographer. He maintains a keen interest in good music. Johannes Brahms (1833-1897) is his favorite composer and nothing pleases him more than an evening at the Academy of Music listening to Eugene Ormandy interpret a Brahms symphony or concerto. The Brahms academic Festival Overture might have been ideal music for the Thorpe graduation for it is a collection of student songs of the early Brahms era. Bill's love for good music is further exemplified by the fact that his own record player provided background music for Bach, Beethoven and Brahms night after night as he poured over corporation finances, economic, Thomistic philosophy, management and labor relations, and economics.

At the tender age of 19, Bill came to PGW as a junior clerk in the Sales Department soon after graduating from Northeast High School. About a year and a half later, He transferred to meter reading. In August 1942, he entered the Army Air Corps as a private. Following foreign duty in England, Northern France, Normandy, and the Rhineland, where he won a "spot" commission as 2nd Lieutenant, he returned to be discharged in 1945.

After his war service Bill joined the Telephone Service Division where he worked until 1948 when he transferred to the Street Division as a Work Dispatcher, later becoming an Assistant Supervisor in March 1952. He was promoted to Supervisor in January 1953.

Soon after returning from military service Bill seemed to sense more than ever that more education would be a help to him. He saw what it meant in the Air Corps so he decided to do something about it in civilian life. The years between 1939, when he graduated from night school, and 1948, when he enrolled at LaSalle Evening Schook made it difficult to readjust himself to studying. In fact, six months after he returned to books, he found himself facing a serious problem. Near the end of the fourth semester, 1949, he was forced to give up because of the demands made upon his time on a new Street Division assignment. Determined to accomplish his goal he set out again, this time with renewed vigor. Notes for Mary Jane Hempstead:

Mary Jane Hempstead was the longed for blessing born to parents who had been denied children for more than ten years. Needless to say, Mary Jane was a cherished child. Both Scott, with the artistic temperament, and Carrie, the hard-working, practical one doted on their daughter. Even when baby brother, Scott Jr. was born, the focus of attention remained on this shy, compliant but determined, talented, intelligent girl. Gifts of grace surrounded this little one from the time she was an infant to the time she left home to serve her country at the outbreak of WWII. Though her parents were very poor, even by Depression Era standards, Mary Jane suffered few denials. Naturally quiet and painfully shy, she never asked for much, but her wealthy relatives lavished her with the best of their stylish clothing, paid for years of piano lessons, and supported her through business college. She paid them back by becoming a real beauty, full of grace and dignity, an entertaining pianist, and a brilliantly competent secretary. Mary Jane attracted attention where ever she went with her meticulous grooming, chic clothing, and impeccable manners.
At Broad Street High School in Columbus, Ohio, Mary Jane loved her Latin courses and journalism classes, and her high school sweetheart, Chuck Elkins. Chuck became a regular fixture at the Hempstead house, eating dinner every evening with the family and then doing homework with his girl. Truth be told, not much homework got done. Mary Jane also enjoyed quiet pursuits like reading, working crossword puzzles, playing the piano, drawing, cutting up Sears catalogues and making paper dolls, going on family picnics, boating on Buckeye Lake with her beaux, and attending high school dances, but leaving the jitterbugging to the more energetic girls.

Not too long after high school and business college, Pearl Harbor was bombed and the world was changed forever. Mary Jane joined the Navy, mostly because the Marine uniform color and style was not as attractive on her as the Navy's, especially with the gloriously sophisticated and stylish W.A.V.E. hat. Trained as a gunner at Pensacola FL, then stationed in Hutchison KA, Mary Jane eventually met her match in Chief Warrant Officer, Henry Jackson. It was love at first sight for the Chief, who persuaded her to rush off and get married after a two month whirlwind romance.

It was a time of change and adventure for the couple. After the war was over, Hank, a highway patrol officer, and Mary Jane, a homemaker, settled in Compton, CA. Soon the children came: Josi, Jackie, and Mickey, all within four years. In addition, Mary Jane had the misfortune of contracting polio between the births of her second and third children, so things were pretty complicated and difficult for the young woman who lived over two thousand miles away from her mother in Ohio. Nevertheless, through hard work and diligence in rehabilitation, she was able to walk without a noticeable limp and eventually take care of her children again by herself.

While her children were growing up, Mary Jane tried new avenues of personal growth including becoming a member of the Toastmistress organization, honing her public speaking skills as well as organizing meetings, social events, and serving as the president several terms; quite an accomplishment for the once shrinking violet. In addition, she helped her now expert witness in accident reconstruction husband with his depositions, preparing for court dates and his testimonies. She was his right-hand man, coaching him on proper grammar and persuasive rhetoric, typing court documents perfectly. This experience helped her to gain enough confidence to pursue a position at the Downey branch of Rockwell, International. She transferred to Autonetics in Anaheim, during the exciting Apollo mission era, eventually triumphing in the landing of Neil Armstrong and his crew on the moon. That was the most exciting time in Mary Jane's life. Rockwell was her life and salvation, especially after being widowed at the young age of 48, providing her with a social network and financial support for the rest of her life. After many years of service, Mary Jane eventually retired from Rockwell, never forgetting her friends, staying in contact with them until her dying day.

All in all, Mary Jane lived an amazingly fruitful, enjoyable, and long life. Though quiet, she could have crazy fun with her friends; though not domestic, she could still bake a mean macaroni casserole; though not outgoing, she could still attract loyal friends; though not the most maternal woman on the earth, she evoked absolute devotion and service from her grown children and grandchildren. She would definitely say it was a wonderful life.

Notes for Lola Bell Kaderly:

Lola B. Kaderly Smith Drury - In the early morning of Sunday, August 22, 2021, as our mother drew her last earthly breath, there was a joyous reunion, as she began her eternity in the presence of our LORD and Savior Jesus Christ. With very heavy hearts we mourn our deep loss, but we rejoice greatly in her heavenly reward.

Lola was born on April 24th, 1939 to Bert and Hattie (Lewis) Kaderly in Barton County, Missouri, growing up in the Golden City area on their family farm, where they fished and hunted. She married Richard Smith on March 27, 1956, he preceded her in death on January 22, 1973. They had 6 children they raised in Jasper, MO where Lola would reside the rest of her life. She retired from the Jasper County Sheriff's Dept as a commissioned deputy after 27 years of service. Lola enjoyed spending time with family, playing mother/daughter softball with her daughters in their younger years and league bowling; even having a team of 5 that consisted of her and her four daughters at one point. Lola enjoyed going to the lake in years past, having coffee at Judy's with her twin sister and best friend Lois, and playing bingo. She was a longtime member of Jasper Christian Church, her family's "church home". Her children were by far her proudest accomplishment, something she did not hesitate to tell you, and grandchildren just added to that joy.

Lola was also preceded in death by her second husband, Don Drury on January 21,1993, her firstborn child, Diane Smelser on July 5, 1996, both parents, and her siblings. Lola is survived by her daughter Lola Wilhelm, Carthage; daughter Lois Yust and her husband Neil, Carthage; son Mike Smith, Jasper; son Steve Smith and his wife Misha, Jasper; daughter Rhonda Tiller, Carthage; sixteen grandchildren, Matt Smelser, Sarah Dwyer, Aaron Wilhelm, Jacob Wilhelm, Luke McWilliams, Ashley Nichols, Hannah Yust, Hunter Yust, Abbie Hasselquist, Kathryn Woodall, Payton Smith, Regan Smith, Gage Tiller, Katey Miller, Kiley Williams, and Gannon Tiller: and thirteen great grandchildren.

Service will be Saturday, August 28th at 10am at Jasper Christian Church, Minister Eric Dwyer officiating. Pallbearers will be her eight grandsons. Interment will follow at Waters Cemetery. “Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death. For me, to live is Christ and to die is gain”. Phil. 1:20-21

On March 29, 2024, June Hayward joined the heavenly choirs. She is now singing praises to her precious Savior and Lord in utter joy. She married LeRoy Krueger of Amherst, Colorado on February 8, 1955, in Humboldt. From there, the young couple traveled across the country for LeRoy's job as a surveyor for an oil company. They moved often, so often in fact, their oldest son Kim, was born in New Mexico, daughter Brenda in Nebraska, and son Kelly in Ohio.

No matter where they were living, Eunice always made it their home. The family moved to Holyoke in 1972 and a year later, Eunice went to work for the local nursing home. She became a CNA and said that she preferred to work the night shift, stating that the residents were usually asleep at that time. J She continued working there for 37 years until she retired in 2010. Throughout her years, Eunice enjoyed cross stitching, reading Danielle Steele books, playing gospel music on the organ, enjoying coffee with friends at the Sweet Shop or Dairy King and garage sales. But most importantly she enjoyed spending time with her Granddaughters, Brittney & Brook.

Eunice had a great sense of humor. Even as her mind was slipping, she would crack a joke or say something that would purposely make you laugh. She was a strong lady too and very rarely would you hear her complain or talk badly about anyone, (unless it was a politician). Eunice passed away quietly on what would have been her husband's 89th birthday and they would have celebrated their 65-wedding anniversary on Saturday, February 8th. Eunice was a loving mother and grandmother and her absence will leave a huge hole in the hearts of everyone who knew her.

Eunice passed away on February 5, 2020 at the Regent Park Nursing Home in Holyoke at the age of 86. Eunice was preceded in death by her husband - LeRoy D. Krueger; parents - Mack and Geneva (Burr) Hayward and sister - Norma Jean (Hayward) Gentry. She is survived by her son - Kim (Melody) Krueger, Erie, Colorado; daughter - Brenda (Rick) Prottsman, Holyoke, Colorado; son - Kelly (Janet) Krueger, Norfolk, Nebraska; brother - Glenn (June) Hayward, Humboldt, Nebraska; brother - Dale (Janis) Hayward, Lincoln, Nebraska; granddaughter - Brittney Prottsman, Denver, Colorado and granddaughter - Brook Prottsman, Ft. Collins, Colorado along with other relatives and friends.

The funeral service was held on Saturday, February 8, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. at the Baucke Funeral Chapel in Holyoke, Colorado. Interment followed at the Holyoke Cemetery. Baucke Funeral Home directed the service.

Notes for Rosella Mae Winch:

Bucyrus - Rosella "Rosie" Mae Fetter, 96, died on January 20, 2021 after a brief illness. Rosie was born July 1, 1924, the second daughter of Clyde and Julia (Christman) Winch and resided in Crawford County her entire life. She graduated from North Robinson High School in 1942 and on June 15, 1944, she married Eldon "Red" Fetter, who died in an automobile accident in 1992. Rosie enjoyed a lifelong love of horses, beginning when she was a girl on the family farm, when she, along with her sister Margaret, drove a team of light weight pulling horses in competition. Later, with her children, she showed her own horse and spent untold hours watching her daughters show horses around Ohio. Rosie was also a skilled fisherwoman and spent many weekend early mornings on Lake Erie fishing for perch and walleye with her husband, family, and friends. She was often the most prolific angler in the boat. Probably her fondest memory of her life was touring the western part of the United States with her husband in their motorhome and taking in a few rodeos along the way and enjoying the beauty of the open road. Rosie worked for 26 years at the Timken Company, where she made many dear friends. She retired in 1983. She was a long-time member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Leesville. Rosie was a feisty and stubborn woman and so loyal to her family and friends. She dearly loved her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren and enjoyed their visits, pictures, and stories.

She will be missed and lovingly remembered by her daughters and their families: Dianna (Richard) Zaebst, granddaughter Melissa (Gerald) Eichler, and great-grandchildren Garrett Eichler and Mallory

Notes for Rev. Millard W. Mead:

Rev. Millard W. Mead was a man who lived to serve others. His positive attitude towards life and strong sense of perseverance, despite long-term health issues and many challenges, allowed him to continue serving his God and helping others. On January 31, 2019 he earned the ultimate reward and was called home to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He was born May 27, 1930 on his family's farm in Cherry Valley, Ohio, the son of the late Myrlen and Winnifred (Mills) Mead. Millard was a 1948 graduate of New Lyme High School and that summer, on August 7, married his high school sweetheart, Janet Hummell. They shared 46 years raising a family and serving others until her death in 1994. He married Marilyn (Kiess) Linn in 1995. Marilyn survives and they've enjoyed many travels and created memories in their 23-year marriage.

Millard operated the family farm and raised Holstein dairy cattle until 1962 when he surrendered to God's call to the ministry. He grew up in the Cherry Valley UMC where he had served as a lay minister, readying him for his new profession. Millard received his B.S. in Education from Kent State University in 1970 and his Master of Divinity from the Methodist School of Theology in 1973. He ministered to the congregations of Johnston Federated UMC in Cortland, Grace UMC in Bucyrus, and St. Mark UMC in Galion before retiring in 1992 and joining Scioto UMC. Rev. Mead was honored as Pastor Emeritus at both Grace and Scioto UMC. Millard enjoyed conducting weddings and remained active in couples' lives in hopes of successful marriages. He was also thankful that God gave him words to help those in grief. Millard was active in many Methodist committees and organizations over the years and was particularly proud of his time spent on Methodist history and archive activities as well as being a founding member and trustee of the Northshore Retirement Home in Lakeside, Ohio. He was a longtime member of the Cortland Masonic Lodge No.529; Warren Council RSM; and the Jerusalem RAM.

He had the privilege of traveling all over the world and was humbled by his visits to the Holy Land. He and Janet enjoyed going to Oberammergau, Germany where they witnessed the once a decade Passion Play. He and Marilyn enjoyed many RV trips to Winter Haven, Florida and when unable to travel there, Millard enjoyed parking the RV at Foxfire Campground to just take in what God had to offer. In addition to his involvement in church life, Millard was an avid recycler of old appliances, enjoyed reading books by Zane Gray, and loved relaxing in front of the TV to a good western.

In addition to his wife, Marilyn, Millard is survived by three children, Jacqueline Doyle of Andover, Ohio, David (Robin) Mead of The Villages, Florida, and Susan Mead of Montrose, Colorado; three stepchildren and their families, Victoria Shawk, Dan (Teea) Linn, and Diana (Tim) Shroll; four grandchildren, Joshua Mead, Rebecca (Daniel) Castle, Richard Dyer, and Elizabeth Dyer; two great grandchildren, Tabitha and James Castle; two brothers, Maynard (Marvel) Mead and Leonard (Florence) Mead; one sister, Myrna (Richard) Walish; and two sisters-in-law, Leah Mead and Beverly Mead. In addition to Janet, Millard was preceded in death by two stillborn sons; two brothers, Merlin Mead and Maurice Mead; one son-in-law, Hubert Doyle; and a stepson-in-law, Dale Shawk.

The funeral service will be held on Sunday, February 3 at 4:00 pm at Scioto UMC with Pastor Dennis DeLong officiating. Friends may call at the church prior to the funeral from 3-3:55 pm. A brief service will also be held on Wednesday, February 6 at 11:00 am at the Cherry Valley UMC, OH-193 & US-6, Cherry Valley Twp., Ohio, before Millard is laid to rest in Cherry Valley Cemetery. Children of Marilyn Kiess and Gale Linn are:

3103 i. Victoria Jo[12] Linn, born 25 Aug 1955. She married ? Shawk.

3104 ii. Diane Sue Linn, born 19 May 1958. She married Tim Allen Schroll 14 Oct 1978; born Aft. 1955.

Notes for Diane Sue Linn:

March 14, 2020 - Diana Shroll is a daughter of Gene Linn and Marilyn Kiess Linn Mead. Diana's siblings are Victoria Shawk and Daniel Linn. Diana went to Holmes Liberty, Lykens and Wynford schools, where she was involved in band, choir and drama. She loved science and math because she wanted to be a nurse like her Grandma Ada Kiess. Diana was a farmgirl and said growing up on the farm was an enriching experience. She was a member of Holmes Liberty Litter-Mates and showed hogs at the fair. She has fond memories of sitting on Tim Shroll's 'fair box' in the cattle barn. He was also involved in 4-H and FFA.

When Diana graduated from Wynford in 1976 she went to Mansfield General School of Nursing for two years, then quit to marry her high school sweetheart Tim Shroll. While school was important, she told her parents, "I just wanted to get married and have kids." Tim is the son of Dale and Judy Shroll and has two brothers Tom and Roger. Tim and Diana own DT Petroleum, a propane business located near Bucyrus High School. Diana has worked there most of its 30 years. After quitting nursing, and the children were born, she became a dental assistant for Dr. Palenshus. Diana also worked for Dr. Yaussy and then about 12 years for Dr. McMurray. Next, Diana became a successful Mary Kay sales director earning seven cars, including "The Pink Cadillac" because of her high sales. Diana also started the Canine Cookie Jar business making homemade dog treats, and still bakes part time. She distributed the treats locally, and to businesses in Ashland, Mount Gilead, Columbus, Findlay, and other area. She quit doing that massive amount of baking when she opened the smoothie shop.

Diana remarked that she vowed not to be like her Grandma "Eegee" Edith Linn, but has learned she is exactly like her. Diana has always been active at Mount Zion United Methodist Church, but has stopped her Sunday school job teaching high school children. She was also their youth leader, saying she probably misses that job the most. Her family is her greatest accomplishment in her life. Their son Joshua is a physician in San Antonio, married to Sierra Vig, an oncology pharmacist. Tim and Diana's daughter Ashley is a veterinarian in Findlay married to Matt Leopold a machinist in Findlay. They are expecting their first child together in April. As a grandmother to four step-grandchildren, Matt's children; Diana is tickled pink about being a first-time grandma to their little girl Harper. Diana started baking dog treats at Ashley's request. Diana is a dog lover and has two Saint Bernard dogs, the love of her life.

"Fit Fab Fun" is located at 209 S. Sandusky Ave., one block south of the square. The business happened when Diana hired a trainer at the Fitness Warehouse in Galion. Wes Kochheiser owned the gym, and they became friends and discussed physical fitness training. Diana lost 30 pounds and, with his influence, she became more aware how people should eat and take care of themselves. While working at DT Petroleum in 2017, Steve Schifer asked Diana if he knew someone who would purchase the Picking Building where the "Fit Fab Fun" is now located. Tim and Diana felt it would be a good place for Diana to open a smoothie shop. J and F Construction totally renovated the building and they opened in July 2018. The menu offers smoothies, wraps, soups, coffee and other healthy options. Looking back on her decision, many people told Diana the business wouldn't be successful, that people in Bucyrus weren't ready for it. She said that maybe it was stupid, but she likes taking risks and she took that as a challenge. It has been almost two years and they are busy everyday no matter what the season. The number one Smoothie is the Green Fusion, which includes spinach. People have realized that Bucyrus was ready for healthy options. The priority for Diana is good food, but she prides herself in the fact that their service is as good or better than the food. Their slogan is "serving up smoothies and sunshine" and they feel passionate about making someone's day a little bit better. Diana and her staff are "Wynford girls" making them very connected. They are Michelle Light; Sarah Shifley; Rhonda Emerson Rohrer; and June Smith Gebhardt. Payton Miller and Kaylie Heckert, both college girls who work in the summer.

"I've had a very full, happy life, full of challenges, but I truly believe life is what you make it. I'm almost 62 but not ready to retire. I love working. My parents instilled a good work ethic in me, and I'm not going to be done until God says so," Diana said.

Marriage Notes for John Spreng and Kathryn Reece:

The marriage of Kathlyn Suzann Reece and John Otto Spreng, Jr., was solemnized Sunday, June 7, 1995 in an evening candlelight service in the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Layton Reece of near Mt. Victory. Anthuriuma and tall ivory tapers on the piano enhanced the setting for the double ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. Manuel Tamayo of Kenton.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a gown which was accented with a toast brown taffeta skirt with a deep hemline ruffle and empire waistline. The bodice of ivory lace was fashioned with a ring collar and lace ruffle falling over the shoulders and long lace sleeves. She carried an arm arrangement of anthuriums. Mrs. Burke Rarnege, Mt. Victory, was the matron of honor. She wore a gown fashioned in the same design as the bride's in misty mocha and carried anthuriums. James Spreng of Bucyrus served bis brother as best man. A prelude of wedding music was played by organist Jean Tamayo of Kenton and "Bless Be the Tie That Binds" as the organ benediction.

The reception, was held after the ceremony and featured a buffet table. The wedding cakes were baked by the bride and decorated with fresh roses and greenery. 2130. Shirley Jane[11] Guinther (Dorothy LaVerne[10] Kiess, Verne Etson (Willis)[9], Simeon[8], Jacob[7], Christopher[6], Johann Wilhelm[5], Hans Jacob[4], Hans Jerg (Georg)[3], Hans Jerg[2], Georg[1]) was born 16 Feb 1937. She married (1) Thomas McAlister. She married (2) Howard W. Taylor. He was born 03 Jun 1934 in Pulaskiville, Morrow Co, Ohio, and died 28 Jan 2013 in Edison, Morrow Co, Ohio.

Notes for Howard W. Taylor:

Howard W. Taylor, age 78, of Edison, died peacefully and quickly Monday afternoon, January 28, 2013, at his residence following a nice day with his family. He had been courageously battling cancer for over nine years. On June 3, 1934, Howard was born in Pulaskiville, the only son of the late Gerald and Julia (Jagger) Taylor. He graduated from Edison High School in the Class of 1953, and later earned a degree from a business school in Columbus. Following graduation, Howard started working as a timekeeper at Eaton Axel in Marion and doing carpentry work for several construction companies, until in 1963 when he founded Edison Billiard and Manufacturing. Soon thereafter, in 1964, Howard also took on a Yamaha franchise. His shop quickly became his true passion and enjoyment in life, and his customers were like family to him. Anyone who knew him, also knew that he "never stopped trying to make a buck" and probably "could sell a dress to the woman wearing it".

With a love for traveling, every August Howard would close his shop for two weeks and travel somewhere he had never been before. He "traveled the world", visiting all 50 states and most of the continents with his beloved family. Many years ago, when Howard got his first Polaroid camera, he was instantly addicted to taking photos. He rarely went anywhere without his camera, taking thousands of photos along the way. Saying Howard was a great story teller would be quite the understatement, as he had a way of making a story come to life and make you feel like you had been there. He also had "the best sense of humor!" Having a heart of gold, whenever a friend of Howard was in need, he would be there for them and give them something that would truly help them.

He will be dearly missed by his son, Jeff (Judy) Taylor, of Edison; three grandchildren: Scott (Christina) Taylor of Edison, Mindy Taylor of Johnstown, and Allison Taylor of Pensacola, Florida; one great-grandson, Joshua Taylor; three step-grandchildren: Jordan (Tessa) Burns of Caledonia, Holly (Toby) Baldwin of Mount Gilead, and Ashley Burns of LaRue; five step great-grandchildren; and his former wife, Shirley McAlister of Ostrander.

The Taylor family will greet friends from 4 - 8 p.m. on Thursday, January 31, 2013, at the Snyder Funeral Home, Craven Chapel, 67 N. Main St., Mount Gilead. Services celebrating his life will also be held there on Friday at 10:30 a.m., with Celebrant Don Lockwood officiating. Burial will follow in Maple Grove Cemetery in Chesterville. Memorial contributions may be sent to Woodside Village Care Center, c/o Activity Fund, 841 W. Marion Rd., Mount Gilead, OH 43338, as a "thank you" for the great care they took of Howard during his time there. Snyder Funeral Homes of Mount Gilead is honored to have been chosen to serve Howard's family.

2132. James Harold[11] Guinther (Dorothy LaVerne[10] Kiess, Verne Etson (Willis)[9], Simeon[8], Jacob[7], Christopher[6], Johann Wilhelm[5], Hans Jacob[4], Hans Jerg (Georg)[3], Hans Jerg[2], Georg[1]) was born 26 Jun 1944 in Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio, and died 15 Mar 2024 in Mansfield, Richland Co, Ohio. He married Darlene Alesta Duffner 23 Aug 1969. She was born 01 Jan 1951 in Crestline, Crawford Co, Ohio, and died 18 Sep 2019 in Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio.

Notes for James Harold Guinther:

James Harold Guinther, 79, of Bucyrus, died Friday, March 15, 2024 at OhioHealth Mansfield as result of a stroke. Jim was born on the family farm in Bucyrus on June 26, 1944 to the late Harold E. and Dorothy L. (Kiess) Guinther. He spent 11 years attending school at North Robinson and was in the first graduating class at Col. Crawford in 1962. He married Darlene A. Duffner on August 23, 1969. Jim absolutely adored her for 50 years of marriage and was heartbroken when she passed on September 18, 2019. Jim’s entire life was spent on or around the farm. At a very young age, he helped his grandpa, who used horses to work the land and spent years farming with his dad until his passing. Jim was a proud dairy farmer for 39 years before just grain farming. With their farm being a family affair, even Darlene, his girls, other family, and friends including Ralph Hart were all hands on, doing what was needed to complete the daily tasks. Over the years, their farm had a variety of colorful tractors. Red, orange, and green, and most of them helped to get the job done. These tractors were another passion of Jim’s. He loved to collect them, work on them, rebuild them and certainly drove them. He was glad to be part of tractor drives, to display and see all the other tractors/machinery at different shows. A fond memory of Jim's was driving a 1937 Allis Chalmers Model WC across the Mackinac Bridge during the 2022 Tractor Crossing.

Jim was happiest around people, especially his family. Following the passing of Darlene, Jim learned that he was going to become a grandpa, which gave him a new purpose in life. Papa, as he was referred to by little Liam, made time together fun. They did all sorts of activities including reading, coloring, playing games and playing with toy tractors but nothing made them happier than going for an actual tractor ride. He always wanted to be with his girls and was very proud of their accomplishments. If he was ever around a stranger, they soon became friends, as Jim was never shy about striking up a conversation with anyone. He loved making people laugh and had a joke for everyone and every occasion. Jim was a member of Bucyrus UMC (formerly Grace UMC); an honorary member of both Col. Crawford and Wynford FFA, an organization which he was extremely supportive and served as a mentor for many youth along the way. He was a founding member of the Crawford Antique Farm Machinery Association and whenever their museum had a gathering, you could count on Jim to share his knowledge with guests. He was a former member of Farm Bureau and the Moose Lodge 669 and looked forward to gathering with the Boys of '62 for coffee at the Pelican House to catch up on life.

Jim is survived by daughters, Becky (Tyler) Snyder and Samantha (Tim) Moomaw; grandson, Liam James Moomaw; sisters, Judy (Isaac) Shupe and Shirley McAlister; nephew, Brian Caldwell who he viewed like a son and several other nieces and nephews.

Visitation will take place from 4-8 pm Wednesday, March 20 at Bucyrus United Methodist Church, 227 S. Walnut St., where his funeral will be held at 11:00 am Thursday with Pastor Becky Stephens officiating. Following his funeral, Jim's body will be transported by one of his tractors and travel past his home on Crestline Road enroute to Oakwood Cemetery, where he will be laid to rest next to his wife, Darlene. Jim wasn't much for flowers and his family specifically request that if there's a desire to do something, they ask guests to consider a donation payable to Crawford Antique Farm Machinery Association (CAFMA) or to Ohio FFA. These gifts will be accepted through Wise Funeral Service or at the church on days of his services.

Notes for Darlene Alesta Duffner:

Darlene A. Guinther, 68, of rural Bucyrus died Wednesday, September 18, 2019 under the care of OhioHealth Hospice after a series of recent illnesses. She was born in Crestline on January 1, 1951, the youngest of 11 children born to the late Martin L. and Martha B. (Cochran) Duffner. After graduating from Crestline High School in 1969, she married James H. Guinther on August 23 of that year. She became the ideal farm wife, and although she didn't enjoy every chore, she helped Jim with every chore the farm required. When her daughters were born, Darlene was the faithful room mom, 4-H mom, swim mom, and any other title being their mom required. Though she didn't become a school teacher as she originally intended, her love of reading and learning was shared as an Ohio Reads volunteer, Sunday school teacher, King's Kids volunteer, and she was thrilled that both her daughters pursued the profession.

Darlene adored animals and had dozens of pets over the years including dogs, barn cats, raccoons, cows and more. She was active with Jim in the Farm Bureau and Crawford Antique Farm Machinery Association. Countless crafts and cards have blessed family and friends over the years. Her deep and abiding faith in her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, was lived every day and shared with her church family at Bucyrus United Methodist Church and the former Grace UMC. She was well loved and loved everyone. She recently shared, "I love my husband and family more than anything. But I love God more."

Darlene is survived by husband Jim, the love of her life for 50 years; daughters, Becky (Tyler) Snyder and Samantha (Tim) Moomaw; siblings, Larry (Carol) Duffner, Duane Duffner, Kevin (Mary Jane) Duffner, Zoa Duffner, and Maureen Caldwell; and many nieces, nephews, and extended family. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by siblings, Faith Miller, Kay Ivy, Crystal Ditmars, Sandy Woods, and Lanny Duffner.

Darlene's family will receive friends on Monday, September 23 from 2-4 and 6-8 pm at the Bucyrus UMC Worship Center, 227 S. Walnut St. In honor of her love of reading to her own children and to others, please bring a book to donate if you are able. Her funeral will be in the church on Tuesday at 10:30 am with Pastor Mike Corwin officiating. Burial will follow in Oakwood Cemetery. Memorial donations are encouraged to be made payable to Bucyrus UMC, Crawford Reads 20, or the Humane Society Serving Crawford County and given at the church or through Wise Funeral Service.

3203 i. Michele Janeen[12] Menne, born 07 Nov 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts; died 19 Mar 2016 in Bowie, Maryland. She married John Forney.

Notes for Michele Janeen Menne:

Michele Janeen Menne Forney, 49, on Saturday March 19, 2016 died of brain cancer at the home of her parents in Bowie, Maryland. Michele was born on November 7, 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts, the daughter of Rev. Galen Menne and Carolyn Menne. Mrs. Forney was a beloved media specialist (school librarian) in Prince Georges County Schools. Prior to her illness which began in November 2014, Michele was librarian both at High Bridge Elementary School in Bowie, Maryland and Seabrook Elementary School in Seabrook, Maryland. She previously was a librarian at Anne Arundel County Schools: Jessup Elementary School and Manor View Elementary School.Michele graduated from Eleanor Roosevelt High School in Greenbelt, Maryland in 1984. She attended Towson University and received a bachelor's degree in mass communications in 1988 and later earned a Master's Degree in library science.

She was a member of Pasadena United Methodist Church, sang in the choir and was elected as president of the United Methodist Women. As a librarian, she was president of the Maryland Association of State Librarians and served on the Black-Eyed Susan Committee to select children's books to be read by children at participating schools. Michele was also a member of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Bowie Chapter, where she has served as secretary.

Eulogy for Michele Forney-part 1 - Michele was born on November 7, 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts to her parents Carolyn and Galen Menne. Her parents moved from Pennsylvania to Ware so that Galen could be a student pastor of the Methodist Church in that town while also being a student at Boston University School of Theology. As many of you know, Michele worked as a school librarian. Since she was always selecting children's books to be part of the Black-Eyed Susan nominations for the year or reading to the children that came to the library, we could not resist reading a child's book that she received this past Christmas. The title is "On the Night You Were Born" and the author is Nancy Tillman. Michele this book is dedicated to you.

On the night you were born, the moon smiled with such wonder that the stars peeked in to see you and the night wind whispered, "Life will never be the same." Because there has never been anyone Like you…ever in the world.So enchanted with you were the wind and rain that they whispered the sound of your wonderful name. The sound of your name is a magical one. Let's say it aloud before we go on. MICHELE!It sailed through the farmland high one the breeze. Who in the world is exactly like you ? Who whowho.Over the ocean and through the trees…Until everyone heard it and everyone knew of the one and only ever you. Not once had there been such eyes, such a nose, such silly, wiggly wonderful toes. In fact, I think I'll count to three so you can wiggle your toes for me.

When the polar bears heard, they danced until dawn. From far away places the geese flew home. The moon stayed up until morning next day. And none of the ladybugs flew away.So whenever you doubt just how special you are and you wonder who loved you, how much and how far, listening for the honking. High in the sky. (They're singing a song to remember you by.)Or notice the bears asleep at the zoo. (It's because they've been dancing all night for you!)Or drift off to sleep to the sound of the wind (Listen closely…it's whispering your name again!)If the moon stays up until morning one day, or a lady bug lands and decides to stay, or a little bird sits at your window awhile, it's because they're all hoping to see your smile.For never before in story or rhyme (not even once upon a time has the world ever known a you, my friend, and it never will, never ever again…Heaven blew every trumpet and played every horn on the wonderful, marvelous night you were born.

Michele entered the world and was cared for by her parents and always surrounded by a loving and caring family of those who were in the church. Five times Michele moved with her family—(from Ware to Peabody, Massachusetts) then (from Peabody to Hagerstown, Maryland,) then from Hagerstown to Lothian, Maryland,) then from (Lothian to Damascus, Maryland,) and lastly (Damascus to Glenn Dale, Md.). Michele was always making new friends at each place she lived, then would leave them and say goodbye and start all over. When Michele grew up she kept on doing what she was good at—making new friends. She has made many, many friends and they stood by her during her illness. They visited her, they cheered her up, they brought food, they brought flowers, they brought gifts and most importantly of all was that they remembered her in their prayers.

Michele had many happy days in her early years. When she was just two years old, her mother would read a book over and over again and soon Michele was able to say the words out loud on one page and know what words to say when the pages were turned. When she was four years old, her brother Jeremy was born. Michele loved her baby brother and as they grew up they played together, Michele especially enjoyed the trips to see her grandparents, aunts and uncles, and cousins in Pennsylvania. She loved the sights and sounds of living in the country and getting to know the farm animals. She went with her family on summer vacations to the town where she was born. Michele and Jeremy would sit in the back seat of the car with the ice chest in between so that they did not fight.

Michele loved going to the library and checking out books. What a joy it was for her when she was able to read books herself. It opened up a whole new world. One assignment she had in elementary school was for her to write a children's book. She did write a book and treasured it. She brought it to her school library one day and showed it to the students. Maybe one day the students that saw her book will write a book too or perhaps even become a school librarian.Michele attended three different high schools- Damascus High School in Damascus, DuVal High School in Lanham, and Eleanor High School in Greenbelt. Michele was an alto and sang in the choirs at each of the schools including the production of the Sound of Music. In addition, she received varsity letters in both cross country and track. Her goal was to get to state competition in each of these sports Michele's first job was at Baskins and Robins dipping ice cream. In 1984, she graduated from Eleanor Roosevelt High School.

Then she went on to Towson University, graduating in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in mass communications.

Eulogy for Michele Menne Forney –part 2 - Shortly after completing college, Michele married John Forney, who was a member of the Glenn Dale Church. Michele began a job working for The Baltimore-Washington Corridor Chamber of Commerce in Laurel. Soon her son Colin was born. So she ended her job so that she could take care of him. When he was a couple of years old, she would read books to Colin. From that time on until his teenage years, she made sure that at every birthday party she read a book to all of the children attending. Michele looked forward to family vacations and was a good mother. When Colin was in elementary school Michele encouraged him to participate in activities within his church and school. For a time Colin took lessons at playing the violin and he was in the Cub Scouts.

Things changed for Michele when her marriage ended in divorce. She worked part-time and then went back to school at Towson University. From there, she received a Master of Science degree in library science. She became a librarian in Anne Arundel County Schools—Jessup Elementary School and Manor View Elementary School. Michele was the fourth generation of school teachers. Later she became a librarian at Prince George's County Schools—Seabrook Elementary School and High Bridge Elementary School. Michele lobbied the school board seeking more money in the school budget for library services.

In the years before her illness, she worked 3 days at one school and 2 days at the other. Michele was a member of the Maryland Association for School Librarians since 2004 and served as president in 2010-2011. She was also a member of the Black Eyed Susan Awards Committee since 2006 and helped nominate the children's books to be read in Maryland elementary schools for each year. At her schools, Michele encouraged students to read these books and then select the book or books that they liked the best. She always planned an ice cream party for all children that participated. Her favorite annual event was to attend the National Book Festivals held in Washington. Michele's biggest thrill was to meet an author of a children's book and then have him or her autograph the book. She would even write to some of the authors telling them how much the children at her school liked the book.

Michele's life changed when a friend introduced her to Michael Morris. They dated, became close friends, and after awhile they became engaged. Michael, Michele and Colin traveled to Florida to visit a friend. While there, Michael became ill, was taken to the hospital, and there he died. Michele went through a rough time in her life. Then someone suggested that she attend a meeting made up of persons who were grieving because of some loss that they had experienced. There she met a woman who would become her closest friend and soon they both were having some fun times not alone but together. Michele always showed ways to care for her friends. She liked to send greeting cards—birthday, sympathy, anniversary, thinking of you—just to name a few occasions. When someone was hurting, she was there to listen.

Michele found time not only to attend her church, but participate in many ways. She attended Baldwin Memorial United Methodist Church and then Pasadena United Methodist Church. She sang in the choir, was the story teller at Vacation Bible School, participated in Christmas plays, helped at Bazaars, and was a member of the United Methodist Women. At Pasadena Church she was president of the United Methodist Women prior to her illness. The summer before she became ill she went with her church work team to Camp Hope. Camp Hope is a project stationed in Frostburg, Maryland which brings together over the summer adult teams of workers to make repairs to the homes of shut-ins and persons with low incomes. Michele enjoyed this outreach program so much and planned on going again.

Michele also experienced some exciting times of travel. In 2003 she and her grandmother went to London, England because her parents were living there that summer. Her grandmother who was in her eighties had never ridden on an air plane before. Michele had so much fun showing her grandmother around. Michele and Colin went on two cruises to the Caribbean. Michele had other interests as well. On Friday nights she would play bunko. She was also a member of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Bowie Chapter, where she served for a time as secretary.

Michele first discovered that she had brain cancer in November 2014. She moved into the home of her parents in Bowie. She entered into a series of chemo and radiation treatments at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. Many friends came to visit. Many friends kept her in prayer even to go as far by putting this prayer request on the prayer list of their church. Many persons kept track of how Michele was doing by going to the internet to a website called "Caring Bridge." And still others dropped by to visit. This past July Michele no longer had the strength to walk. She was confined to a bed. She received help from Hospice.

There was a point in this struggle that Michele could say only a few words. One morning she awoke and spoke two sentences. One sentence was "Can I go to school today." Her friend Karen, who introduced the first song, read the words to it and then shared a portion of the eulogy, came to visit Michele and brought her bunny rabbit. She placed the bunny on Michele's bed and immediately the bunny cuddled under her chin. This time Michele spoke one word. She said "Wow!" And that happened to be the last word that she would speak. God is at work in mysterious ways and is still performing wonders. What an awesome God you and I have—WOW!

Friends, soon, come Sunday, we will add to the one word of WOW. We will hear the words "Christ the Lord is Risen" and we will respond "He is Risen, Indeed." Death is not the end. Because Christ lives, we shall live also.

He married Susan Caputo 1999.

Notes for Joseph I. Hamilton II:

Joseph I. “Joe” Hamilton, II, 78, of Cogan Station, passed away Sunday, April 28, 2024 peacefully at home. Surviving is his loving wife of 25 years, Susan (Caputo) Hamilton. Joe’s family is happy to know he is once again enjoying banana splits in Heaven, without the bananas, of course. Born January 28, 1946, in Williamsport, he was a son of the late George W. and Catherine R. (Pepperman) Hamilton. Joe's journey began when he left school early to contribute to the family farm. It was there, amidst the fields and machinery, that he honed his remarkable work ethic and learned the valuable skill of fixing broken things—a talent that would define his life. He was employed at both Sheddy and Sintex and later retired as a Heavy Equipment Operator from the Lycoming County Landfill, retiring in December of 2007.

Joe’s dream in life was to own a tractor and become a puller. Sue and Joe found a 1937 John Deere tractor one day with a tree growing through it. They decided to buy it and spent the next three months restoring it together. This was how Joe’s love of John Deere tractors began. His dream became reality as he often participated in tractor pulls throughout the area a few times a year. Joe was a man who knew how to save money in order to spend it on things he really wanted, such as adding to his collection of toy John Deere tractors. He was also extremely proud to be one of the founders of the Trout Run Tractor Club, creating the club in 1998, and serving as the current Vice President. He also could be found at other local tractor pull events and participating in parades. Joe's enduring love for John Deere tractors, a theme that ran through his entire life, reflected his appreciation for tradition, excellence, and the simple pleasures of rural life.

Surprisingly, he was a man who loved the beach, enjoying three yearly trips to Chincoteague where he may have been the only man on the beach in long pants and work boots. He relished in the outdoors, from fishing trips with Captain Matt to taking his gun for a walk in the woods. He also enjoyed many outings and excursions with Sue where the destinations were endless, from Bass Pro, to New York, Missouri and beyond. Above all else, Joe was a family man who would do anything for those he loved. He was a caring husband and a loving father and grandfather, often being called “Pappy Put-Put.” The sight of Joe atop a gleaming John Deere was a symbol of joy for his family, and something that he cherished deeply. He and Susan were also proud to plan and run their annual Hamilton family reunion, creating more memories together every single year.

Surviving in addition to his wife are three children, Kendra Brown (Cliff) of South Williamsport, Keri Hamilton and Joseph Hamilton, III, both of Williamsport; two step-children, Mike Bieber, of Montgomery, and Randy Bieber, of Ottumwa, Iowa; five grandchildren, Aaron, Jeffrey, and Joshua Hamilton, Wesley Brown, and Dylan Long; a brother, David Hamilton; two sisters, Shirley Selders, and Mary Albright; as well as numerous nieces and nephews. In addition to his parents, Joe was preceded in death by five brothers, John “Pete”, Donald, LeRoy, George, and William Hamilton; and three sisters, Betty Yarison, Joyce Hamilton, and Alice Tubbs.

A funeral service to honor the life of Joe will be held 11 a.m., Thursday, May 2, at Sanders Mortuary, 821 Diamond St., Williamsport. Burial will follow in Woodward Township Cemetery. A viewing will be held from 10 a.m. until the time of service, Thursday, at Sanders. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Joe’s name to the Trout Run Antique Tractor Pullers Association, 5010 North Way Rd.,

Williamsport, Pennsylvania 17701.

Both of their sons are actively involved in church ministry roles. Rosemary had four grandchildren, Faith (with her husband Hudson Steidl), Bethany, Grace and Joshua. She also has two great grandchildren, Tessalyn Elise Steidl and Weston Taylor Steidl.

In John 14:2, Jesus said, "I go to prepare a place for you that where I am, there ye may be also." On Thursday morning, Rosemary was escorted to her celestial home where the streets are paved with gold and there is no more cancer, no more blood pressure issues, no more pain or suffering, no more weakness, no more lethargy, no more stupor. She is home, safe in the arms of Jesus. She was a good and godly woman, the example of what a mother and Christian wife ought to be. She never wanted to be in the spotlight but preferred to serve in the background. She had a godly parents and grandparents, uncles that were pastors, aunts that were missionaries, and multiple others that were deacons, teachers and church leaders. She learned to serve early teaching children's classes at Anthony Baptist Church on Quenshukeny Road in Linden, Pennsylvania. At Bible School Park she was the girl that all the other girls sought out when they needed a friend or someone to listen to their fears, concerns and heartaches. She followed her husband to the mission fields of Latin America giving up the parents and friends she loved to live in a foreign culture with a language she did not understand. She struggled with the Spanish, but she didn't quit. When she was laid aside with hepatitis shortly after the birth of her first baby, she endured without asking, "Why me?"

She packed up and moved from country to country, from one nationality to the next. She took on the dauting task of teaching her son at home. She loved the students at the Bible College in St. Vincent in the West Indies. Pearl was a special girl who cleaned our home and washed our clothes and did whatever was needed. She married a Vincentian pastor but was called home to heaven a few years later. Then there was Ma Forbes. She was the cook at the Bible College. A simple woman who loved being with the students as well.

For 35 years, while her husband taught in the School of Church Planting, Rosemary served as the unofficial "hostess," the jack of all trades, the go-to girl who welcomed numerous missionaries, pastors, students and church planters from around the world. She greeted them, introduced them to the teachers, herded them to their meals and then back to their classes. She ran countless errands, made copies, coordinated and care for a thousand and one details that go into running conferences. Several people have referred to her as being "spunky" with a mischievous "Can Do" attitude. She loved to joke and tease.

For years, she would accompany her husband to executive meetings in Cleveland, Ohio and while he met in counsel with other field council representatives, she would be back in the finance office opening letters, sorting mail, and enjoying time with "the girls" in the Home Office of Baptist Mid-Missions. For a dozen years, she helped her husband organize and direct the North American field conferences held at Faith Baptist Bible College in Ankeny, Iowa. They would be the first to arrive and the last to leave. They cared for room assignments, coordinated meeting schedules, and made sure food was prepared and ready for the hungry guests. She collected the dorm keys, made sure people who needed a ride to the airport had one, she checked the dorms to make sure the garbage was picked up, and was there when her husband paid the bills from those conferences. If you wanted to know something, you asked Rosemary. The days were long and demanding, but she met them with grace and kindness and determination. She proofread thousands of pages of her husband's writings. Letters, sermon notes, PowerPoints, nearly eighty editions of the Church Planter's Toolbox, multiple book manuscripts, they all fell under her watchful eye and red ink pen. Her husband's writings were better because of her and thousands around the world were blessed as a result.

Rosemary and her husband retired in 2016 after fifty-two years of missionary service, but they found retirement harder than active missionary service. A "servant" knows only one thing – to serve, and when she and her husband stepped down from full-time missionary service, there was a void. It didn't take her long to find something to do. She loved to crochet, work her word search puzzle books, and served as the "gram dame" of the Classic Life Bible Class at her church. She was loved and looked up to by nearly everyone who knew her. Her ready smile, her attention to detail, he willingness to pitch in and help all endeared her to others. Now, she is gone, but not far away. Her husband can hear the sound of her voice in each room of the house, her handiwork is everywhere. Her chair sits empty and her John Deere hat lies on the countertop to be used no more. We miss her, but she lives on in our hearts. She has transcended this life into an even better one in the presence of her Lord and Savior who she served. She now can breathe deep, run and jump with ease. But most of all, she loves to fall at the feet of her loving Savior who died to make it possible for her to be where she is. She leaves behind her a godly heritage. The world is a better place because of her. Her tombstone sums it up best and speaks so eloquently of her when it says for all to behold, "A servant of Christ." She loved plants and flowers, baking, crocheting, word search books, and going to Bible studies. She loved her husband of fifty-six years, her children and grandchildren, her church, her pastor, and her Lord Jesus Christ. She was an example of a godly woman. She came from a long line of godly pastors, missionaries, and church leaders and left behind a heritage of humble service to others.

Rosemary was predeceased by her mother and father, Paul and Mildred Ulmer, a baby brother, Daniel, and a host of aunts and uncles who served in various ministry roles. She is survived by her husband of fifty-six years, Roger, her two sons, Shawn and Shane, four grandchildren, two great grandchildren and a host of cousins, nephews and nieces.

Alta I. Breunsbach, age 90, passed away on Tuesday, May 2, 2023. She was born in 1932, to Albert and Ruth (Wuster) Sandoz. Alta was born near Dawson, Nebraska, graduating from Dawson High School and attended Peru State College. For two years she taught elementary students in a one room school in rural Nebraska. She continued her education at Midland College in Fremont, where she met Dan Breunsbach, a pre-theological student. They were married June 3, 1955. She supported them by teaching during Dan's seminary days at Central Seminary. Daniel Mark was born in Fremont. Dan accepted a call to Foreign Missions upon graduation. They moved to Maywood, Illinois for a year at the School of Missions.

The family continued living in Fukuoka until 1974 when Dan resigned and relocated to Tulsa, Oklahoma.

In Tulsa, Alta and Dan were co-founders of Fellowship Lutheran Church where Alta was instrumental in getting the Sunday school organized and in leading the Women of the LCA. She enjoyed quilting at the church and making gifts for those in need and also making quilts at home for her loving family. Her magnum opus was a Christmas quilt that took two years to complete! Alta volunteered in the local polling place in Tulsa. She was also employed at Blue Cross Blue Shield as an accountant. From 1991-1994, Alta and Dan served in the International Lutheran Church of Seoul, Korea. Alta worked as financial secretary of the church there and also taught KATUSA soldiers on the U.S. Army base there. From 1994-1998, Alta and Dan lived in the parsonage while Dan served as pastor of Immanuel Lutheran in Cushing and at Prince of Peace in Ponca City. While at Cushing, Alta was part of quilting circle. After they retired, they traveled extensively throughout the world, visiting every continent except Antarctica. Notes for Rev. Daniel Keller Breunsbach:

Home City - The Rev. Daniel K. Breunsbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Breunsbach was commissioned as a missionary Sunday afternoon, June 7, 1959, at Frieden's Lutheran church, by the Rev. David Vikner. former missionary of Japan, who flew from New York for the occasion. Other dignitaries present included the Rev. Alfred Young, Omaha, Nebraska; Rev. and Mrs. Henry Gettler, Lanham, Nebraska; Rev. and Mrs. Richard Dunning, Lancaster, Rev. Carl C. Nuebel, Bendena, Rev. and Mrs. Dean E. Sudman, Kansas City, Missouri; Rev. and Mrs. H. T. Lenser, Hanover; the Rev. Robert Buhr, school of missions, Maywood, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Jenny, Fremont, Nebraska, and others. Mrs. Alta Breunsbach was commission-ed as a co-worker with her husband. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sandoz of Dawson, Nebraska; her brother Glen Sandoz and his wife of Council Bluffs, lowa, were here for the services in morning and afternoon. Many other relatives and friends from a distance came. Dinner and lunch was served.

June 3, 1979 - When Dr. Roger Gieschen, Kansas City, Missouri, president of the central States Synod, Lutheran Church in America, arrives to dedicate Fellowship Lutheran Church, 6727 S. Sheridan Road, at 3 p.m. Sunday, he may be surprised at the altar behind which he’s expected to stand. Built by Fred Losber, a master craftsman, the altar is of oak with brass inserts – and 4-1/2 feet square.

“It is a little unusual,” admitted the Rev. Daniel K. Breunsbach, the parish’s founding pastor, “but our worship area is 46 feet square, and we decided it was somewhat biblical to build the altar just a tenth of the size." Besides, Breunsbach said, the altar is on hidden casters, so that it can be placed in front of the faceted glass windows, in the center of a wall or in the middle of the room for different worship patterns - or it can be rolled into a closet so the room can be utilized for other purposes. One of the aims of the Fellowship congregation since the church was begun - in shopping center office space at 6125-C S. Sheridan Road - has been to make their facilities available to community groups. A third medically-related group, the Tuberous Sclerosis Association, recently has begun meeting in the church. The congregation already was host to monthly meeting of the Tulsa chapter of the Oklahoma Lupus Association, and the Feingold Association, a group of parents who devise special diet to help their children overcome hyperactivity.

Another unusual factor about the Fellowship building is that, despite inflation, the 5,200-square-foot structure cost just about what the architects, Ragsdale-Christensen Architectural Collective, estimated when construction began in May, 1978 – approximately $270,000. All of the building's space has been designed for multi-purpose use, so that an assembly room in the educational wing which can be divided into smaller classrooms will also be large enough for fellowship dinners.

Also scheduled for dedications Sunday are . . . . The public will be welcome at all t he services at all churches.

Notes for Rev. Charles Rex Bevins:

Lincoln, June 22, 2002 - When the Rev. Rex Bevins became pastor of Saint Paul United Methodist Church in 1980, he got a letter from a colleague saying, "You have just made the most stupid career decision in your life. The clergy friend predicted that in 10 years Bevins would "feel more like a curator of a museum than the leader of a downtown church." Bevins said he took that letter as a challenge. He definitely proved his friend wrong. By the early 1990s, the Saint Paul congregation was charting its future as a strong and vital downtown church. Now, as Bevins prepares to retire June 30, the church has a major new addition with a gymnasium, offices and classrooms, a completely remodeled sanctuary and a fine new organ. Bevins, who turned 70 in May, is far from ready to retire. But United Methodist rules require that ministers step down at that age.

Instead of resting, he's looking forward to new challenges as director of financial development for Encounter With Christ in Latin America and the Caribbean, a mission project of the United Methodist Church; and by starting his own consulting firm, helping churches and non-profit agencies with strategic planning and fund raising. "I know something about that, I think, and I believe I have some expertise to offer," Bevins said. A native of Cedar Rapids, Neb., Bevins said he "struggled with the issue" of becoming a minister for several years before finally making the decision. "I sometimes say I didn't enter the ministry until God had to hit me over the head," he said. While a student at Nebraska Wesleyan University and planning to major in engineering, Bevins attended an evangelistic meeting at the State Fair grounds where he had a religious experience that changed his life. "I suddenly felt the presence of the risen Christ and felt my sins were forgiven, and I trusted in Christ alone for my salvation," he said. The next week he told the director of religious life at Wesleyan that he was considering becoming a minister. "Because I had not been an exemplary student, the poor man almost had a stroke," Bevins recalled. But he went on to try student ministry at a church in nearby Otoe. He started as a substitute, planning to serve two to three weeks, and ended up serving that church for three and a half years. "I learned preaching on the job," he said. "It was a gift I really didn't know that I had. That church gave me a chance to use it Obviously, to this day, preaching is very important to me.

Not only the 1,760 members of Saint Paul, but the many others who listen to his sermons at 11:30 a.m. each Sunday on KFOR-AM radio, can attest to his ability as a preacher. St Paul's services also are carried on KFAB-AM in Omaha and "Worship at Saint Paul" on Time Warner Cable Channel 13. Bevins attended the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, California, serving as youth pastor at a church in Oakland, California, and then for seven years at a church in the Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco. When he began that assignment in 1957, the "new community," often called hippies, had not yet begun to move in. But as "flower children" poured into San Francisco from all over the country, Bevins helped design new ministries to reach young people who had run away from home, were experimenting with drugs and seeking a new purpose in life. "It was a wonderful experience because it opened me up to all kinds of new challenges, and to see people in new ways," he said.

From 1964-69 Bevins was pastor of a suburban church in San Carlos, California, where he helped start a teen discotheque to counter the drug problem. "We decided that youths and adults could work together if given a specific task and responsibility," Bevins said, noting that teen-agers got involved in doing drug referral and outreach. Bevins returned to Nebraska, where he was pastor of Warren United Methodist Church from 1969-74, and then executive director of ministries for the Nebraska Conference of the UMC until going to Saint Paul in 1980. Bevins said when he first came to Saint Paul, the congregation was divided because of difficulties with a previous minister. Bevins stayed neutral, seeking to heal wounds and empower the congregation to mold its own future.

In 1992, Bevins was a candidate for bishop but withdrew to support the election of the Rev. Joel Martinez, the first Hispanic bishop in the United Methodist Church, who later became bishop of Nebraska. Bevins also said he wanted to stay at Saint Paul to help the congregation move forward in expanding its ministries. Marilyn Moore, lay leader for the congregation, called Bevins "a very, very fine preacher" as well as an excellent administrator. "It's very challenging to be a vibrant downtown church in these days and times," she said. "Rex has made a huge contribution in bringing Saint Paul to where it is now. She also had warm comments about the Rev. David Lux, who will become senior pastor of Saint Paul on July 1. Lux is well-known to the congregation because he served as associate pastor from 1983-89. "His style is quite different from Rex's, but people are delighted that he's coming," Moore said. An open house reception for Bevins is scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday. The public is invited.

Notes for Gary Leon Wuster:

Gary Leon Wuster June 23, 1939 – October 6, 2012 Gary Wuster walked his last fairway in this life

Saturday evening after a courageous battle with Alzheimer's and heart disease. He was 73. A celebration of life will be held at Bookcliff Country Club on Thursday, October 11th at 2:00 p.m. A reception will follow. Please come in casual or golfing attire. Gary will be missed by all of those who were blessed to be part of his family and the many others who had the chance to call him a friend.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Milton and Irene. He is survived by his wife of 22 years, Judy; brother, Andy (Marvelyn) of Lincoln, Nebraska; sons, Trent (Beckie) of Fruita; Tracy (Jennifer) of Austin, Texas; Mark Rhyne of Los Angeles, and Ron (Lisa) Rhyne of Pinedale, Wyoming; daughters, Karla (Gene) Coleman of Grand Junction; Julie Kochevar of Grand Junction; grandchildren, Tristan, Tanner, Nickie, Tyler, Jennifer, Curtis, Matt, Ryan and Landon.

He was also blessed to have nieces and extended family in Nebraska and many good friends and golfing buddies who affectionately called him 'Wooten'. Gary was born in Dawson, Nebraska. The family later moved to Lincoln, Nebraska when he was five years old. His memories of this time included growing a large garden and raising rabbits to sell. He later graduated from Northeast High School in 1957. He then attended Nebraska Wesleyan University where he received a degree in business. After graduating, he spent a short time in the Marine Corps Reserves at Camp Pendleton in California. Upon returning to Lincoln, he became an assistant professional at Hillcrest Country Club. Even though his love of and talent for golf eventually would bring him to Colorado, his love for the "Big Red" Cornhuskers never left his heart. After attending the Professional Golfer's Business school in Dallas, Texas, he moved to Colorado to be an assistant golf pro at Hyland Hills. He then came to Grand Junction in 1969, with his wife, Sandy, to become Head golf pro at Book Country Club, having Trent and Tracy a short time later. He spent many years at the club teaching many people to golf and developing lasting friendships. In 1978, he was named PGA Golf professional of the year for Colorado. Gary enjoyed many golf adventures with family and friends in beautiful places across the country and even got the chance to travel and play in golf's birthplace of Scotland. His talents gave him the opportunity to meet many legends including Ben Hogan and Jack Nicklaus and nearly earned him a spot in the U.S. Open. He also held the course record at the Country Club for many years. He was still playing almost weekly up until the time of his passing.

A career change in 1983, led to him to start his lawn care and landscaping business which he didn't completely retire from until just this year. He was meticulous in his work making sure his customers were always happy and that the work was done with care. He was particularly proud of winning The Daily Sentinel's yard of the month last year and of his dazzling and of creating extensive Christmas light displays. Gary's family was blessed to share so many great times with him. He married Judy in 1990, and they enjoyed golfing together and traveling to many great places such as Hawaii and Nova Scotia. Whether it was fishing, playing cards, attending grandkid's sporting events and activities, celebrating holidays and birthdays, or watching golf, he always enjoyed the company of his family and friends. His quick wit and generous spirit will be missed tremendously. We know he is on the course somewhere now telling someone to "hit it straight partner". Gary was instrumental in helping to develop a golf scholarship for local students. Contributions can be made to this organization in his name to the Western Colorado Golf Foundation, P.O. Box 2415, Grand Junction, Colorado. 81502.

Notes for Marc Bryan Entz:

Marc Bryan Entz passed away at his home on October 6, 2022. Marc was born on October 12, 1960 in Tacoma, Washington. Marc was raised in Moses Lake by his parents, Ned and Jeanette, where he attended Moses Lake schools K-12. He attended Central Washington University and received a BA in Business. At a young age, Marc was inquisitive and full of adventure. Marc was a handsome and intelligent young man who excelled in everything from academics to sports. He was a socially active youth who enjoyed a broad association of friends across many different "walks of life". He was always engaging and shared his love of life with his friends and siblings.

Marc was preceded in death by his father, Ned W. Entz; grandparents: Howard and Christine Trullinger, Herbert and Lillian Entz; Uncles: Thomas Murphy, Lowell and Warren Trullinger, Robert and David Entz, Cousins: LeAnna, Lindsay and Jessica. Marc is survived by his Mother, Jeanette; brother Ray (Jeanne); sister Tracy Risdon; three nephews Derek (Anna),and Justin Entz, Cooper Risdon; one niece Lindsey Risdon; many aunts, uncles, cousins, and extended family and friends.

Marc lost a long and arduous 43-year battle with mental illness and the arsenal of medications that took a lasting toll on his body. As we all do, his family and friends struggled with his illness along with him in silence. Whether trying to understand it, cope with it, or simply trying to be aware of it, it shaped our relationship with him. This personal struggle is more evident now than ever before. His death is a light teaching us that it was never important to understand or cope, but to enjoy the moments we had and let those moments create the space to just be present and available.

If you were a friend or family, you know the reality of life with mental illness. As you read this, we ask that you not turn away from this group of people but see them and engage them as part of our community. Embrace them and do not just look away, ignoring them and their circumstance. We cannot address mental illness if our first reaction is to turn away and avoid confronting them or the issues they endure. Be kind and love one another.

Notes for Andrew Walter Stabler, Jr.:

Andrew W. Stabler Jr., who rose from clerk at The Grit, which billed itself as “America’s Greatest Family Newspaper,” to president of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Association while providing generous support to his family and community, died on Tuesday. He was 86. He died of heart failure in his home in Montoursville. Stabler’s strong Christian ethics defined his life and guided his business practices, extensive donations and volunteer work. He served on the board of the American Rescue Workers and for many years volunteered as a chaplain in the Susquehanna Health System. He was an active member of Community Baptist Church in Montoursville, and in the past had served as an elder there.

His business savvy enabled him to guide the Grit through years of growth, until he became President of its publishing company and Lamco Communications. Later, he served as chair of the Christian Businessmen’s Committee and president of Williamsport’s Industrial Management Club. While making careful management decisions, Stabler also freely gave his time and money to innumerable worthy causes. His family, friends and city remember him for endless generosity. Keith Stiger, 66, of Bradenton, Florida, native of Muncy, died peacefully on Monday, June 27, 2022, with his wife Sara Dodge and stepson Gregory at his side. In high school, Keith played many sports, among them were wrestling, football, and volleyball. Keith was on the winning Muncy High Volleyball team, which participated in a Pennsylvania State level competition held in State College.

After high school, Keith went out west with his posse of friends to ride horses and fix fences as a ranch hand for the historic A Bar A Guest Ranch, and later for the Heart-Bar Heart Working Ranch in Wyoming state. After returning to Pennsylvania, Keith worked as a Millwright for Sprout-Waldron, Construction Specialties, and other local construction and manufacturing businesses. In later years, Keith enjoyed fathering and spending time with his stepson Gregory Dodge Converse.

After taking retirement, Keith spent his time taking day trips with his wife Sara, to visit towns and beaches located along the Florida Gulf of Mexico, speed-boating on the Sarasota Bay. Keith also enjoyed spending time working with his leather craft, where he was skilled at making handgun and buck knife holsters, waist band cell phone monogrammed leather wallets, sun-visors, small leather bowls, leather beer cozy, leather bow ties, and other leather products, which he then gave to his loved ones as gifts.

Keith is survived by his wife Sara Dodge, son Gabriel Stiger, and brothers, Barry Stiger (Barb), Randy Stiger (Barb), Kent Stiger (Deb), David Stiger (Kris) and Donald Stiger (Sue), as well as numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews. Funeral services will be held at 11 am Saturday, February 8, 2020, at the Grace United Methodist Church in Tiffin, where there will be a time of visitation from 9am Saturday until the services and following during the reception. Nona L. Ludwig was born November 9, 1934, at Mercy Hospital in Iowa City, the daughter of George and Alice (Heim) Ludwig. She grew up in Tiffin where she attended school, graduating from Tiffin High School in 1953. While in school Nona was involved in many school activities, including the girls' basketball team. She had many memories of her basketball days, some of these memories stayed with her to her final days as she cherished and relished them. After two years of dating, Nona married Ivan L. Walker at the Grace United Methodist Church on February 10, 1954. The first eight months of married life began in Oklahoma as Ivan completed his Army service. They then returned to Iowa to farm and start their family. Their life together would span over sixty-two years before Ivan's death.

Farming became a true partnership when they talked about Nona going to work away from home, or she could become the "hired hand" to further the family business. She was there beside him in everything they did, with that smile and work ethic that few could match. She would be the first to tell you how blessed she was with her family, friends and good neighbors. She lived to be around everyone, always the generous and loving hostess. She could cook, bake, garden, keep the kids, Ivan and livestock where it needed to be, and yet could still shoot a mean basket from her glorious days of basketball with the grandkids. Keeping pantry shelves stocked with canned goods from the garden and freezer well-stocked with garden produce and farm-raised chickens was among her "hobbies", often providing for church meals as well. She had a true servant's heart and filled many positions and duties with the Tiffin United Methodist Church. She became a grandma at a young age, but it was certainly a term of endearment that she held proudly. She enjoyed babysitting and the many special activities she shared with the grandkids including baking cookies, coloring Easter eggs, carving pumpkins, and Play-Doh time.

Her family includes her three children, Debbie Bryant, Mike Walker (Elizabeth) and Linda Osbron (Roscoe); grandchildren, Dessie Myers (Mike), Dena Dietzler (Bryan), Rex Bryant (Jessi), Bart Bryant, Bailey Dickey (Brian), Kate Walker, Nick Walker, Jeremy Johnson (Ashley), Wesley Johnson, Jake Johnson, Jacqueline Osbron and Ashley Arbes (Bruce); great-grandchildren, Ian, Audrey, Cora, Jocelyn, Tyler, Max, Evelyn, Taylor, Dane, Nathan, David, Channing, Casen and Lily; sisters-in-law, Mildred Lovetinsky, Ros Ludwig and Kathleen Ludwig.

Nona was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Ivan; son-in-law, Richard Bryant; grandson, Alex Myers; brothers, George, Robert and Dean Ludwig; and sisters, Phyllis Ludwig and Genevieve Merck as well as brothers-in-law Arthur Merck, Orville Walker, Leo Hotz, Jack Lovetinsky, and sisters-in-law Betty Walker and Velma Hotz.

Notes for Ivan Leroy Walker:

Ivan L. Walker, 83, longtime resident of the Tiffin area, died at his home Tuesday, June 14, 2016. Ivan Leroy Walker was born July 17, 1932, in rural Johnson County, near Lone Tree, the son of Earl and Marie (Cline) Walker. His family moved to Tiffin where he attended schools graduating from Tiffin High School with the class of 1950. From 1952 thru 1954 he served his country in the United States Army. On February 10, 1954, he married Nona L. Ludwig at the Grace United Methodist Church in Tiffin. The couple has farmed their entire married lives near Tiffin, raising their children, enjoying their grandchildren and great-grandchildren on their farm. He raised hogs and feeder cattle, later changing to a grain only operation and sold seed corn and beans for a number of years. He was known for careful maintenance of his equipment and vehicles.

Ivan has always believed others came first, he was an active member of their church, Grace United Methodist Church, has served on or has been a member of numerous boards, organizations and community functions over the years including Clear Creek School Board, Green Castle Aero Club, Consumer Coop, American Legion, Tiffin Gun Club, and Madison Township Clerk. He enjoyed much in his life, shooting, hunting, pulling in tractor pulls, traveling the country, especially the Black Hills; playing cards with family and friends, and of course he could always find a reason to go down to the casino! But most of all, Ivan loved his family and friends. He had a ready smile and infectious laugh.

His family includes his wife, Nona; their children, Debbie Bryant, Mike Walker (Elizabeth), and Linda Osbron (Roscoe); 12 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, sister, Mildred Lovetinsky, and sisters-in-law, Betty Walker, Phyllis Ludwig, Ros Ludwig, and Kathleen Ludwig..

Ivan was preceded in death by his parents, son-in-law, Richard Bryant; brothers, Aaron, Orville, and Loren Walker; a sister, Velma Hotz; a great-grandson, Alex Myers; along with in-laws, Leo Hotz, Jack Lovetinsky, George, Robert, and Dean Ludwig, Genevieve and Arthur Merck.

Funeral services will be held at 11am Saturday, June 18, 2016, at the Grace United Methodist Church in Tiffin, where visitation will be held from 4 to 7:30 pm Friday. 2678. Jean Martha[11] Heim (Howard John[10], Jonathan W.[9], Jacob G.[8], Catharina Margaretha[7] Staiger, Lorenz[6], Johann David[5], Anna Maria[4] Kiess, Hans Jerg (Georg)[3], Hans Jerg[2], Georg[1]) was born 01 Mar 1930 in Lafayette, Tippecanoe Co, Indiana, and died 20 Dec 2021 in Houston Co, Georgia. She married Richard Benson Feitshans 23 Jan 1954. He was born 18 Apr 1923, and died 10 Jun 2014 in Perry, Houston Co, Georgia.

Notes for Jean Martha Heim:

Jean Feitshans, née Heim, departed this life on Monday, December 20, 2021. She was 91. She resided in Houston County, Georgia. She is survived by two sons, Stephen, also a resident of Houston County, and Theodore (Ted), of Raleigh, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Richard Feitshans, and her parents, Howard J. Heim, and Gretchen Heim, née Sprecher. As one of Stephen's fellow Rotarian said when told her death, "She was one spunky woman!" And that she was! But she always surprised and amazed me with her vibrant intellect and her love and knowledge of plant life (she held a master's degree in plant physiology from Purdue… graduating top in her class!). She would probably fuss at us for sharing that, since she never was one to promote herself.

After receiving her master's degree, she worked for Charles "Boss" Kettering in his laboratory in Dayton, Ohio. The research in which Jean was engaged was on the use of algae as a food source for the world's growing population. After her marriage to Richard, she joined him at the residence on his farm near Greenville, Ohio. In 1960, she helped Richard and two outside investors with establishing Mossy Creek Farms, a few miles north of Perry, Georgia. She was able to apply her training in plant physiology to great benefit in their farming operation. She also taught at Perry High School for a semester or two.

Yet Jean was so much more than that. She devoted her life to being a good wife to her husband Richard, and to being the mother of Stephen and Ted. She followed her love of nature by continuing to be a student of God's beautiful creation and by promoting it through her involvement with the American Camellia Society and other organizations. Her yard around her house is full of all varieties of unique plant life! And she had that special quality of wisdom… not just knowledge… and she would gently share that wisdom when she felt it might be helpful, as she has on several occasions with her sons, and many others. She will be greatly missed…

Arrangements for a memorial have not been completed at this writing, but Stephen has indicated to me that they want to get pass the Holidays, and this recent upsurge of COVID infections, and perhaps do something in March. Her cremated remains will be interred in the Heim Cemetery in Dawson, Nebraska, beside those of her husband, Richard, and adjacent to the graves of her parents. Please remember family in your thoughts and prayers. The family asks that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made in Jean's name to the American Camellia Society.

She left a legacy of unconditional love and service to others. Visitation will be November 29th from 4:00 to 7:00 PM at Sharon Center United Methodist Church in rural Kalona, Iowa. A Celebration of Life service will be at 10:30 AM on November 30th at the church. Donna wishes were to donate her body to the University of Iowa Deeded Body Program for research. In lieu of flowers, Donna requested memorial gifts. They may be sent to the family in care of Dea Epley Birtwistle/ 275 N. Taft #202 /Mason City, Iowa 50401 or directed to Sharon Center United Methodist Church, or to the Red Bird Medical Clinic in Beverly, Kentucky. The Peterseim Funeral Home is assisting the family.

Donna was born in Beverly, Kentucky on January 3, 1930 where her father, Dr. Harlan Heim, was the first medical doctor in southeastern Kentucky, and a missionary at Red Bird and a licensed minister for what is now the United Methodist Church. Her mother, Golda Heim, was a high school teacher at the Red Bird Mission School. Her younger years were spent in the poverty-ridden mountains of Appalachia where she watched her father start the first child-wellness clinic, family medical insurance for the loggers, and build the first hospital in the area.

On May 11, 1952 she married an older classmate from Westmar College, Lloyd Epley, at the Methodist Church in Humboldt, Nebraska. They were married for 67 years, and Lloyd comments that marrying Donna was the best decision he ever made in his life. They modeled a wonderful partnership for their friends and family. During their first year of marriage, Donna taught high school English in Ogden, Iowa while Lloyd was in Korea. Donna and Lloyd then settled into home in Coralville, Iowa. She was a life-long learner, and her involvement in many activities demonstrated her passion for diversity. She and Lloyd took vacations with their children to all 50 states primarily camping at national parks and also traveling to several European countries. They participated in mission trips to Red Bird in Kentucky, Guatemala, Mexico, Nome, Alaska, the Heifer Project in Perryville, Arkansas, McCurdy School in Espanola, New Mexico, the United Methodist Committee of Church Relief (UMCOR) in Baldwin, Louisiana, and Mission Jamaica. Later in life they enjoyed Elderhostel trips to Japan, Big Bend, Texas, and Canada.

In the 1980s, Donna returned to school, first getting an LPN through Kirkwood and then going on to obtain her RN license. She worked as a nurse at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics for ten years caring for adults who had recently received a bone marrow transplant. When Iowa City Hospice started and needed adults to comfort those in their homes, Donna volunteered. Donna was a vivacious and brilliant woman who was a natural leader and played that role in almost every organization she was a part of at both the local and state level. Governor Branstad acknowledged her with a state volunteer award. She was instrumental in starting the Coralville Library when she was a Girl Scout troop leader for her daughters. She was the president of Cardinal Girl Scout Council and later the Executive Director for the Girl Scouts of Eastern Iowa and Western Illinois, overseeing the merger with councils in Cedar Rapids, Davenport and western Illinois. As her son grew, she was also an active leader for the Hawkeye Area Council of Boy Scouts.

Steadfast faith radiated from Donna, and she was a Sunday School teacher and Bible School teacher for over 65 consecutive years at the churches she attended. She was active in United Methodist Women and Church Women United. She was a member of PEO, Chapter KP in Iowa City and a 50-year member of the University of Iowa NN (No Name) Book Club. She was an active member of Sharon Center United Methodist Church in rural Kalona for over 65 years serving on many committees, primarily with education and missions. At the University of Iowa, she served as a docent volunteer for the Field Museum for many years conducting field trips.

Donna was acknowledged in the 2016 Coralville Parade for her community work, on the Parks and Recreation Commission and the Coralville Library. In 2018, she was the state recipient of the Trustee Award for the Iowa State Library Association. She was passionate about the baby book bags that she assembled and which were delivered to every new parent attending the library in Coralville. Moreover, Donna was compassionate and gracious. Her home served as a hearth for many fantastic meals for new-comers to the community including international students as well as local and far-away friends. She was the first to offer help for a family experiencing a crisis and was the communication switchboard for her family. There were no strangers with her, only friends she had not yet met. Her greatest joy was her family, and her children and grandchildren modeled from her how to bird-watch and savor a good book.

Donna is survived by her husband Lloyd Epley of Mason City, her children, Dea Epley Birtwistle (John) of Mason City, and their daughter Anne of Milwaukee; Jean Epley Carleton and her children, Dr. Timothy Carleton (Justine) of Columbia, Missouri, Chris Carleton of Dallas, Texas, and Katie Carleton of Houston, Texas; and her son, David Epley (Barb) of Indianola, and children Chloe Epley of Iowa City, Mina Epley of Cedar Rapids and Mitchell and Nathan Epley of Indianola. She embraced her husband's family and is also survived by many special nieces and nephews.

He served in Korea in the Army in 1952 as a supply sergeant after being trained as a psychiatric attending in Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio. During his years of service as a conscientious objector, he received three Bronze Stars, Two Overseas Bars, a United Nations Service Medal, and a Meritorious Unit Citation. He was discharged as an Army Corporal in 1953 and moved with his wife to Iowa City to finish law school, graduating in 1955. Lloyd and his partners renovated an old feed store on Gilbert Street in Iowa City and he practiced in Iowa City as well as Kalona until he retired after 60 years from law at the age of 90. The law firm continues today as Honohan, Epley, Braddock, and Brenneman. The Johnson County Legal Secretaries Association named him Boss of the Year in 1972. Over the years, he modeled civility to his co-workers and clients and enjoyed mentoring young law students.

Lloyd and Donna raised their three children in Coralville, Iowa. He enjoyed camping with his family at national parks all over the United States, gardening, teaching Sunday School and singing in a praise band well into his nineties. He was an avid Cubs and Hawkeyes fan and a voracious reader. He said his greatest accomplishment in life was being part of the "Dirty 30" from Iowa who collaborated with Afro-Americans and others in Dallas in 1968 to merge the Evangelical United Brethren Church and the United Methodist Church. Although vilified by some, he did what he believed was right and what God directed him to do.

Lloyd considered all of Johnson County his home. He was active in the Coralville, Iowa City, Sharon Center, and Kalona communities. He served on the Johnson County Civil Service Commission, the Zoning Board for Coralville as well as the Coralville Library Board and the Johnson County Historical Society. He was also on the Goodwill Board in Iowa City. He was a member of Old Capital Toastmasters in Iowa City as well as a long-term member of the Kalona Rotary and a Paul Harris Fellow. He was active in Gideons and the Oakdale Prison Ministry. He was on the Pleasantview Nursing Home Board in Kalona. The organization that captured his involvement later in life was the local chapter of Veterans for Peace. Lloyd and Donna were active members of the Sharon Center United Methodist Church where he was a lay minister. He considered Sharon Center UM Church members to be part of his family. They were involved in many mission trips and Elderhostels in the U.S. and abroad. He retired in Kalona, Iowa in 2016 with his wife and then lived in Mason City until moving back to Coralville in April of 2023. Music continued to be a big part of his life, and he witnessed to staff in the four different nursing homes where he lived by singing hymns from memory and speaking of his blessings after surviving COVID three times.

Proceeding him in death were his parents, and his four older sibling and their spouses, Milton Epley (Mae), Perry Epley (Chalice), Florence Lundberg (Bert) and Ivan Epley (Evelyn), and his cherished wife, Donna, who died in 2019. He is the last of his generation, the descendants of Jacob and Mary (Becker) Epley of Waverly, preceded in death by all his first cousins and all but one of his second cousins.

He was extremely proud of his family and is survived by his three children and his eight grandchildren: Dea Epley Birtwistle (John) of Tiffin and their daughter Anne Nankee (Bryant) of Milwaukee, Jean Epley Carleton of Plano, Texas and her children, Timothy Carleton (Justine) of Phoenix, Christopher Carleton of Dallas, and Kathleen Miller (Sam) of North Augusta, and David Epley (Barb) of Indianola and their children, Corey Epley of Des Moines, Mina Epley of North Liberty, Mitchell Epley of Ankeny and Nathan Epley of Indianola. Survived by wife, Martha, of Omaha; sister, Cindy Nisley (Ken); son, Oliver (Robin); daughter, Andrea "Andee"; son, Noel (Andrea); step-son, Jim Pearson (Carmen); step-daughter, Amy Chittenden (Stuart); grandchildren: Ivy, Noel, Bailey, Ryan, Braden, and Griffin; former wife, Mary Lou Hoig.

The family will receive friends on Friday, Jan. 11th from 5pm to 7pm at Countryside Community Church, 8787 Pacific. CELEBRATION OF LIFE: Saturday, Jan. 12th at 2pm, Countryside Community Church. In lieu of flowers, memorials are suggested to University of Nebraska Foundation—Robert G. Hoig Scholarship.

Bob Hoig was well known in the community for his professional and civic accomplishments. In 2012, he was inducted into the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce's Business Hall of Fame, selected as the Omahan of the Year by the Suburban Rotary Club of Omaha, and doubly honored by the Omaha Press Club as part of the first father-daughter "Faces on the Barroom Floor" (with Andee Hoig, publisher of metroMAGAZINE) and by being inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame. Bob once said he didn't want people to know him as just a publisher.

He took his first flying lesson at age 70 and bought a Cessna 182 two years later. He took up skiing in his 60s and continued well into his 70s. Bob swam daily throughout the 1960s and 1970s as he approached middle age, and even taught himself to play the saxophone in his 40s. He also loved playing tennis, a sport he continued into his early 80s. "It never occurred to me to place some kind of age restriction on what I could do if I was really interested," he said. Bob also had a wanderlust that began when he was 16 years old and hitchhiked across the country on Route 66. In 1983 he visited every country in Europe and returned to the continent 21 more times by the early 2000s.

Before he became a publisher, Bob was a shoe-leather journalist. He was only 24 in 1957 when, on his way to a corporate job interview, the New York Daily News building drew him in. Bob landed a job there as a copy boy, soon working his way into a promotion. "I had plenty of derring-do about me, chutzpah. I'd try anything," he said. Over the next two decades, Bob also wrote for the Miami News, wire service United Press International, the Lincoln Journal and the Omaha World-Herald. He also served as managing editor of the Omaha Sun and the Douglas County Gazette. During much of his tenure as a writer, Bob served as a crime and corruption reporter. In 1971, he was nominated for a Pulitzer for an Omaha World-Herald series that led to changes in state law. Bob saw an opportune niche in Omaha media when, in 1975, he launched this publication. It was a risky endeavor at the time, but Bob considered a willingness to take risks "one of the hallmarks of my definition of an entrepreneur."

His words about his love of flying, "And you're off into the wild blue…" now take on a special significance. Fly high, Bob.

Jan. 27, 2019 - As publisher of... the Midlands Business Journal, the regional weekly business newspaper he founded in 1975, Robert Gregg "Bob" Hoig has become a well-known figure in the community who's been lauded repeatedly for his professional and civic accomplishments. In the last five years alone, Hoig was inducted into the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce's Business Hall of Fame, selected as the Omahan of the Year by the Suburban Rotary Club of Omaha, and doubly honored by the Omaha Press Club as part of the first father-daughter "Faces on the Barroom Floor" (with Andee Hoig, publisher of metroQuarterly) and by being inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame.

As he approaches his 85th birthday in September, Hoig can reflect on a remarkable life. But what's most remarkable now for him is life. After a heart attack, several strokes and a bout with pneumonia earlier this year, his prognosis was grim. His heartbroken family was making hospice arrangements and preparing themselves for the painful task of planning memorial services in the midst of their grief.

But Hoig surprised everyone. Instead of mourning the end of his life, the family is delighted to be supporting him as he makes an incredible and unexpected recovery. "To me, he's come back to life," Andee Hoig said. "That he's still here and doing great is amazing." It's not the first time Hoig has amazed the people around him. It's not even the first time he's beaten the odds medically.

When Hoig was two years old and critically ill, his grandparents—who were raising him at the time—were told "flat-out that my chances were one in a thousand," he said.

But "It was a bit of luck having the grandparents I had," Hoig said. "Granddad worked for the Missouri Pacific Railroad." What sounds like a minor biographical fact was actually an extremely fortunate situation: Hoig's grandfather's employment meant his grandson could be admitted to a particular hospital that just happened to have a physician on staff with the rare expertise needed to treat him. In short, Hoig lost a kidney instead of his life. And he hasn't slowed down since.

In fact, his current state of recuperation is a testament to the benefits of maintaining an active lifestyle. Hoig said he's glad he quit smoking cold turkey and gave up alcohol—once hallmarks of a newsman—decades ago. He ignored standard retirement age almost two decades ago. He took his first flying lesson when he was 70 years old and bought a Cessna 182 two years later. He took up skiing in his 60s and continued well into his 70s. Hoig swam daily throughout the 1960s and 1970s as he approached middle age, and even taught himself to play the saxophone in his 40s. "Saxophone playing and swimming had a lot in common for me from the standpoint of getting out of yourself and losing yourself in the moment," he said. Hoig also loved playing tennis, a sport he began at age 11 and continued into his early 80s. He played competitively for years, winning in several local championships as well the Senior Olympics in the 1980s. Some of his local tennis opponents included esteemed physician Dr. John Sage, television personality Dave Webber and former U.S. Senator Dave Karnes.

His enthusiasm for tennis took him to the U.S. Open on more than one occasion. And whenever Hoig traveled, he took his tennis racquet along in hopes of finding a friendly game of tennis in cities like Munich and London—which he always found, Hoig recalled, although he admitted that many of his opponents wearied of playing against a man "who traveled with his racquet." Hoig's wanderlust began as a young twentysomething in the early 1950s when he and a friend hitchhiked across the country on Route 66. In 1983 he headed over to Europe and visited every country. The following year he returned with son Noel to attend the winter Olympics in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia. He visited Europe 21 more times with current wife Martha in the late 90s and into the 2000s. "It never occurred to me to place some kind of age restriction on what I could do if I was really interested," he said. "In fact, it was more like a powerful current, where once I got in the current I was just rafted along."

Being pulled into a current is an apt metaphor for the start of his journalism career, too. Hoig was only 24 in 1957, hoping to make his way in New York City. On his way to a promising job interview with a major airline, something caught his eye. "I was walking in the 200 block of East 42nd Street. There was this building, this beautiful building with a big globe in the lobby I caught in my peripheral vision," he recalled. It was the New York Daily News. Hoig had a little college under his belt but no journalism background or even any previous aspirations to be a reporter. At the time, he actually fancied himself to be more of a poet, despite criticism received at age 18 that he recalls to this day: "Your work strikes me as a strange mixture of banking and alchemy." Something else struck the hiring manager. "I had plenty of derring-do about me, chutzpah. I'd try anything," Hoig said. He managed to get himself hired as a copy boy, and soon worked his way into a promotion. "It was a very fortuitous way to get started in that business, with that newspaper, because in those days, you had to work your way up internally. So I landed on my feet with that," he said. "Landing such an important newspaper job at that age was wonderful. Other papers in town, they wouldn't even talk to you."

Over the next two decades, Hoig also wrote for the Miami News, wire service United Press International, the Lincoln Journal and the Omaha World-Herald. He also served as managing editor of Omaha Sun and the Douglas County Gazette. During much of his tenure as a writer, Hoig served as a crime and corruption reporter. An early highlight was covering a Sheldon, Iowa, banking scandal for UPI that was picked up all over the country. In 1965, Hoig authored a surrender plea carried by UPI that induced 22-year-old bank robber/murderer Duane Earl Pope, a Kansan whose crime was committed in Big Springs, Nebraska, to turn himself in after a nationwide manhunt. In 1971, Hoig was nominated for a Pulitzer for an Omaha World-Herald series about loose security procedures for sexual psychopaths at what was then the Nebraska State Hospital; it led to changes in state law. He also interviewed a host of legendary figures from World War I-era pilot and later Eastern Airlines Chairman Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker and Everest climber Sir Edmund Hillary to former presidents Lyndon Johnson, Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford. The gregarious Hoig became acquainted with some interesting everyday people as well.

"Some people, you meet and they seem really screwy. But you get to know them for a while and you listen to their ideas and they become more familiar. And eventually–you discard the ones who are really screwy, and some, they grow on you," he said. Hoig's colleagues ranged from brilliant to barely competent. "You get around enough of these kind of people and you just think, 'I don't want to let them call the shots for my life.'" By the mid-'70s, "I finally, frankly, just became tired of working for other people."

As a reporter, Hoig had to be independent and self-driven, qualities that suited a latent entrepreneur. "I always thought I would be sort of a Warren Buffett figure, somebody who would amass different businesses and run them all brilliantly," he said. "It happened that I didn't have the proper credentials for that kind of thinking. I was much too anxious to not make mistakes, which is not a good habit for an entrepreneur. I soon got rid of that habit, but then just losing that habit doesn't guarantee you're going to find a good one." So although he didn't aspire to be a mogul, he did see an opportune niche in Omaha media. In 1975, Hoig launched the Midlands Business Journal. The fledgling publication had some serious detractors.

"'No chance.' 'It's foolish.'" he recalled. A colleague told him, "Within a week you'll be begging for your job back at the Herald." "My response was, 'Just find a way to help me get some advertising and I won't be back begging for a job from anybody; I'll be on my own and successful.'" Even the optimists were hesitant to commit. "People very quickly offer their support but you find that there can be quite a time lapse between when it's supposedly going to come and when it actually does," Hoig said. "Anybody who's ever started their own paper can sympathize with that."

The Midlands Business Journal slowly gained steam and a name for itself. "I did have the good wishes of a guy who billed himself as a 'futurist.' He saw a copy of one of the papers we'd set around the lobby of different hotels and one of them was where he was staying," Hoig said. "And he said, 'I saw your paper, and to me, that's the thing of the future.' It caught the eye of somebody who stood out in his area, and that further spurred me on." With increasing success, Hoig learned to take risks. "It's one of the hallmarks of my definition of an entrepreneur, if you're willing to try things that hold promise and then abandon them quickly without a lot of tears," he said. His many successful ventures include adding the Lincoln Business Journal in 1996 and the annual "40 Under 40" awards started in 2002 to honor young businesspeople. Hoig said innovation isn't always about coming up with something new. "It's more a question of being willing to steal something," he said. "You know, I was far from the first '40 Under 40' program in the country."

Kim Davis worked for Hoig as a new college graduate when the Midlands Business Journal was still a relatively young venture. "I look back fondly on those years," she said. "Bob is remarkable." Davis recalled her two and a half years at the paper, her very first job before leaving to pursue a master's degree, as a great learning experience. "It was hard work, but it was good work, and he set an example for a young person just starting out," she said. "He was supremely ethical in everything, and it taught me the value of hard work. We had to do 10 stories a week, two a day—and those weren't short stories. And we also had to work on Saturday mornings…You learned a valuable work ethic when you worked for him, and he was right there next to you. It wasn't as though he was out golfing or something. "He was very proud of his paper, you could tell he was he had very high expectations for it. Once he began to trust you he didn't micromanage. But he did review every story."

Davis said Hoig had a distinctive brand of criticism and a "tell it like it is" approach to writing evident when he returned the first draft she submitted to him. "It was covered in red ink. I made the changes, and after looking at what I had written and what the suggestions had been, it was a way better article when he made the changes to it," she said. "He sat me down and said he didn't want me to be disappointed; he was very nurturing even then. And he said, 'Here's the thing, Kim. A lot of people who read the magazine, they know what the word ameliorate means, but they don't want to have to think that hard.' I'm like, 'Okay, I get it. You're spending a lot of time making it pretty and that's not what anyone wants.'" Davis still works in the field of communications today as the vice president of development for the Nebraska Humane Society. Her time at the Midlands Business Journal was in the era of manual typewriters, pre-Internet and email, but she said many of the skills she learned there she still uses today. "I learned to act like a professional."

Linda Lovgren, president and CEO of Lovgren Marketing Group, has also known Hoig since the early days of the Midlands Business Journal and said she sees his legacy as even larger than being a publisher: local champion of small businesses. "Bob, through his publication—and personally as well because he's such an advocate—has given small businesses visibility they might not otherwise have had, and a way to build their brand," she said. "The success of a business is the sum of all the people who have influenced the life of a business, and he certainly has been one of those individuals." Lovgren isn't alone in characterizing Hoig as an important catalyst for business development. Cella Quinn, president of Cella Quinn Investment Services, said, "Bob helped small businesses grow by telling us about each other. We didn't have to leave our businesses to network, we could read the Midlands Business Journal and find other compatible companies with which to exchange ideas and do business."

Quinn also acknowledged that Hoig has been a good newsman above all. "A good reporter holds a mirror up to society so we can all objectively see ourselves and make changes we deem merited. Whether it was business news or the legal notices in the middle of MBJ, Bob managed to do that," she said. "He did this in a special way because he believed in the adage attributed to an anonymous Texas newspaper editor, 'A news story should be like a miniskirt on a pretty woman: long enough to cover the subject but short enough to be interesting.'" Greater Omaha President and CEO David Brown, whose organization has a mission to ensure a thriving business community, praised Hoig for his genuine enthusiasm and unflagging support.

"Bob has a real passion for small business, and I think that was reflected in the path that the MBJ took. There are a lot of different markets it could have covered, but I think he has such a keen interest in seeing small businesses being supported and recognized for the impact that they have on the community, that he decided that the Journal should be focused on that type of topic," he said. "I think Bob's passion shows up in how the MBJ is written every week." That passion is even more evident in person, Brown added, like at the annual "40 Under 40" awards. "He seems to always be in his element at those events because he is surrounded by small-business people. And he loves being around folks that have the same passion for small business that he does," he said. "So whenever I think of Bob, I think of this those moments I saw him at those awards breakfasts, smiling from ear to ear because he's surrounded by people he respected a lot."

Hal Daub, another notable Omahan who's "had the pleasure of knowing Bob and his wife and family before they started their journalistic enterprise," remarked on Hoig's extraordinary commitment to the business community. "I've known him because I've active in local affairs, not just political affairs but community affairs as well as business here. I got to know him and I can tell you that—through my experiences with him before I went to Congress, while I was privileged to be in the House of Representatives, and while I was privileged to be mayor and now as a member of the Board of Regents, and as a practicing lawyer for 50 plus years here in Omaha—Bob Hoig has been the steadfast champion of Omaha and her small business interests," he said. "The family have been great citizens of the community. They've been charitable and philanthropic and they spend lots of time encouraging people to get together and do good for our community. They're not only great citizens of Omaha and our state, but they're very patriotic and really believe in America and free enterprise, and I think that's what Bob teaches, mostly, that free enterprise is the cure for all the ills of life."

Daub also said Hoig has made the Midlands Business Journal is a blend of edifying and interesting. "If you stop to think about it, every small business is affected or afflicted by city, county, state and federal government and the bureaucracy of regulations and licensing. So when you can pick up the Midlands Business Journal, you get stories of small business, you get all new corporate filings going on in Douglas County, and you get some flavor of the philosophical/political things that are going on," he said. "You've got a perfect half an hour to an hour of wonderful learning experience every time the Midlands Business Journal hits your in box."

Like Daub, John Bothof (president of Northwest Bank) said he considers Hoig a friend as much as someone to be admired. "Bob is a historian and passionate about his country and his business. Bob is a friend, a visionary, a risk-taker and a great businessman. Businesses of Omaha and all of Nebraska have a great asset in the MBJ and most importantly, Bob Hoig," he said. "Bob has had a huge impact on small business with the introduction of the Midlands Business Journal. Bob stepped out and, like other small businesses and entrepreneurs, risked his professional reputation and personal finances for what would become the Friday business paper that we all wait to be delivered. If you want to know what is happening in Omaha in business, business expansion, new technology or who is doing what, you read the Midlands Business Journal." Both of said his company's relationship with the Midlands Business Journal has been beneficial.

"The MBJ provides a medium to tell your businesses story. Many businesses subscribe to the MBJ and it has been a good method for Northwest Bank to open doors to new opportunities," he explained. "Several years ago, we decided to join with Bob for the introduction of the "40 Under 40" event. This event recognizes 40 people under 40 years of age on their business or professional success. We thought it was an excellent opportunity for a new start-up bank to invest in recognizing the future leaders of our community. The "40 Under 40" event moved our brand to new heights." He also noted Hoig's boldness. "If the stories of businesses in the MBJ doesn't take all of your idle time, you have to read Bob's editorials and get a common-sense approach to issues facing business, our country, and the political environment, to name a few." Hoig has made friends everywhere he goes. Restauranteur Leo Fascianella of Pasta Amore said Hoig has been a patron since 1986. "I've known Bob since day one when I opened the restaurant. He's always been an inspiration to me and encouraged me about the business and told me how wonderful I was doing," Fascianella said. "He's a beautiful person to talk to and such a nice man. I feel like I'm part of his life, I've known him for so long. He's very encouraging, very supportive of small business in Omaha. He's such a great person."

Fascianella also mentioned Hoig's love for flying small aircraft, a pastime he's had to regretfully step away from. "That's the most devastating thing about this…when you have to give up something you just so truly love," Hoig said. "It took me such a small amount of time to build a thousand hours. Flying gets in your system. It gives you a certain push to your life to just know you've got the keys in your pocket to simply at any time go to Eppley, cart off the plane and you're off into the wild blue." Stepping out of the cockpit is just one hard adjustment forced by age, and as Hoig recovers, his plans for the future are still in flux. But he said he's developed a renewed sense of gratitude for his loved ones.

"The joys of family, and the understanding of how family can rally around you and it really means something, not just a cliché. That's probably the most significant truth of my life right now," he said. Taking stock of his family, Hoig said he's glad to have a friendly relationship with ex-wife Mary Lou, the mother of his children. He's happy in his current marriage to Martha. And he's especially proud of who his three adult children (Oliver, Andee and Noel) have become. "That's one of the real satisfactions of life, once you've seen the path that you chose is the one that is right, and they're all in their own separate careers—with some small help from you in choosing the right thing at the right time for them," he said. And looking back at his 85 years, Hoig said he doesn't want people to know him as just a publisher. "Good father in an odd way. Pilot in a good way. Skiier in an unusual way," he said. A remarkable life. Still aiming higher. "The joys of family, and the understanding of how family can rally around you and it really means something, not just a cliché. That's probably the most significant truth of my life right now." ~ Bob Hoig

Ruth Elizabeth[11] Bower (Pearl A.[10] Heim, Charles E.[9], Abraham[8], Catharina Margaretha[7] Staiger, Lorenz[6], Johann David[5], Anna Maria[4] Kiess, Hans Jerg (Georg)[3], Hans Jerg[2], Georg[1]) was born 30 May 1925 in Pennsylvania, and died 23 Feb 2016 in Houston, Harris Co, Texas. She married Murray Joseph Monse Aft. 1942 in Pennsylvania. He was born 12 Oct 1922 in Brooklyn, Kings Co, New York, and died 18 Feb 1995 in Houston, Harris Co, Texas.

Notes for Ruth Elizabeth Bower:

Ruth Elizabeth Bower Monse departed this life on February 23, 2016, in the presence of family. Ruth was born in Rose Valley, Pennsylvania, on May 30, 1925, the third of five children of Lawrence Bower and Pearl Heim Bower. She grew up on the family farm, which instilled a grit and work ethic that never waned. Both were on display from early on. After graduating from Montoursville High School at age 18, she moved to Washington, DC, to work for the Department of the Treasury during World War II. Other friends had also agreed to go, but even after they backed out at the last minute, she bravely went ahead alone. She later worked for Railway Express before stepping out of the workforce for 20 years to raise her children. In 1974, she returned to work, this time for Viking Associates Realty in Houston, where she was employed for more than 30 years, retiring when she was long past 80.

In May of 1946, Ruth met Murray J. Monse, a Brooklyn-born GI who had just moved to Washington after his discharge from the Army. For decades afterward, Ruth and Murray told different stories about how they met. She said she saw him across the dining room at a local lunch spot. He said she tried to sell him nylons as he walked past the car in which she sat waiting for a friend. Not until the early 1990s did her family realize that Ruth and Murray were both right: They simply remembered different parts of the same day. On their first date, July 12, 1946, as they sat on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial, Murray told Ruth he was going to marry her. She laughed at him, to no avail. They were married in a church wedding in Pennsylvania exactly one year later. They enjoyed it so much they got married a second time, on July 14, before a small-town justice of the peace who packed a pistol. Their union endured until Murray's death on February 18, 1995. Ruth and Murray tried for years to start a family, but were unsuccessful until they joyously welcomed son Mark in 1954, followed by Lisa, Michelle, Eric, and Jacqueline. As Murray was fond of saying, once they got started, it was hard to stop.

The family lived in Silver Spring, Maryland, and then moved to Cincinnati, Ohio; Overland Park, Kansas; and finally Houston, Texas, in 1970. The family occasionally traveled by air to visit the Pennsylvania relatives. On one such occasion, Ruth rang the flight attendant's call button. The harried attendant finally responded, and apologized, explaining that she had been dealing with nine children on the flight. Ruth wryly replied, "Yes, I know, five of them are mine." Despite having five children, Ruth was active in volunteer work such as the National Council of Jewish Women, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, and the PTAs of her children's schools. Once she moved to Houston, Ruth discovered a love for growing roses, which she did with great passion and success for many years. At one time, she had more than 100 rose bushes growing in her Houston yard, which regularly stopped traffic with its lush displays. Ruth always loved animals, starting with a pet duck she had growing up in Pennsylvania, and extending to a menagerie assembled by her children. At its largest, the herd included two dogs, three cats, and a revolving roster of pet snakes. The long-suffering Ruth even allowed Eric to keep frozen toads in the freezer for the snakes.

Ruth was preceded in death by her parents, husband, sister Eleanor Bower Kepner (Rose Valley, Pennsylvania), and brother John Bower (Montoursville, Pennsylvania) and son-in-law Andrew Ritzell (Katy, Texas). She is survived by her son Mark Monse of Coppell, Texas; daughter Lisa and son-in-law Clinton Harman of Houston, Texas; daughter Michelle Monse of Dallas, Texas; son Eric Monse and his wife Lisa Jo, of Rosharon, Texas; and daughter Jackie Monse Ritzell, of Katy, Texas. Ruth was a devoted "Grammy" to her grandchildren: Kacey Harman Hahn and her husband Josh Hahn, of Pearland, Texas; Paul Murray Harman of Houston, Texas; David Monse of Coppell, Texas; Caitlyn Monse of Denton, Texas; and Alec Ritzell and Nicolas Ritzell, of Katy, Texas. Ruth is also survived by her sisters Helen Bower Ulmer and Aletha Bower Wright. She was especially close to niece Shirley Kepner Oehrli and her husband Niles.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations to the Houston BARC Foundation, the Houston Arboretum & Nature Center, or the charity of your choice. The family would like to thank C & S Healthcare for their help in allowing Ruth to remain with her family in her later years. They also thank Dr. Phillip C. Haas for his many attentive years as her cardiologist. Finally, thanks to VITAS Hospice and their team of dedicated caregivers, who were an enormous comfort and help to the family in Ruth's last days. The Monse family will be present to receive friends Friday, February 26, 2016 from 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM at Dettling Funeral Home, 14094 Memorial Drive, Houston, Texas 77079. A Funeral Service celebrating Ruth's life will be held Saturday, February 27, 2016 at 11:00 AM at St. Mark Lutheran Church, 1515 Hillendahl Blvd., Houston, Texas 77055. Ruth will be laid to rest in Glenwood Cemetery immediately following services.

Stoltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Stoltz, Jerome. Baskets of yellow and white gladioli and daisies carrying out the bride's color theme, decorated the altar. The 6:30 p.m. double ring rite was performed by the Rev. L.M. Dougherty. Mrs. H.L. Lee was organist.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white embroidered nylon organdy over taffeta. It was fashioned with a lifted waistline with round neck-line and short sleeves and featured a short tulle train falling from the back of the neckline. A waist length veil of bouffant illusion sheer was attached to a crown of nylon leaves and pearls. Her cascade bouquet of white daisies was accented with a yellow bow.

Eileen Taney, Blackfoot, maid of honor, and Mrs. Leroy H. Swann, Reseda, California, the bride's sister and Claudette Creger, Torrance California, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns street-length, and in a soft yellow chrome spun, the gowns were designed like the bride's. Ribbon streamers fell from the back of neckline to the hem. They wore headpieces of daisies with ribbon streamers. Mrs. Taney carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies with gold ribbon and the bridesmaids' bouquets were backed with white ribbon. Best man was William Bennett, Carlin, Nevada, and ushers were Harold Stoltz, Jerome, brother of the bridegroom, and Loyd Harris, Twin Falls. The bride's mother selected a light blue boucle empire sheath dress with electric blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose rose lace with a white satin hat and beige accessories. White gladioli corsages complimented their ensembles. Sally Olsen, Mackay, registered the guests.

After a reception in the Hotel Bannock Pioneer room, the new Mrs. Stoltz changed to a red striped Madras bolero dress with red accessories and a natural straw hat for a wedding trip to Boise. 3899 iii. Austin Etcheson, born Jun 2002.

Notes for Austin Etcheson:

Oct. 6, 2021 – Austin Etcheson grew up in Jasper, Missouri, with his parents Joe and Penny Etcheson. Early on, he began helping his uncle Louis Etcheson with cattle chores and his dad with construction. He soon understood how to care for cattle and had a good grasp on his dad's business, Etcheson Construction. His grandpa had once farmed but sold his ground in the 1970s and Austin said he has always wanted to get into farming. About four years ago, Austin started working for Russell Dintaman, a local farmer. His dad Joe knew Russell and it provided a great opportunity for him to get involved in farming. "I was the only one at the time working for him and I helped pick up rocks, row crop, take soil samples, work ground, spray and work on tractors and equipment," Austin said.

During the school year, Austin, worked for about three hours every evening. After about a year, he started to help plant and Russell started a pivot irrigation business called Steele Rain Irrigation. Austin helped put together pivots and the first summer they built three pivots in Laclede County, Mo., driving from Jasper every day. "Whenever we first started putting pivots together, he hired more people. We went from just me to six other guys. I managed the other help and kept everyone on track. The pivots are sent on a semi-trailer bundled up. We put them together and make sure they run properly. We can also troubleshoot them to find out what is wrong and fix it. I still help him on the farm as well. He can now give me an idea of what we need to get done such as spraying or planting, and I can just go out and take care of it. During the summer, especially when we are building pivots and going really hard, 70 or 80 hours a week is not outrageous. "I would advise young people to work hard. sometimes it's not going to be fun, but you just have to do it anyways. If you work hard, you'll be rewarded."

"Once I worked for Russell long enough, I was able to get myself into a place where I could rent 80 acres of pasture and buy some cows," he said. Austin currently has 25 black Angus cows of his own he really enjoys. He still occasionally helps his dad with dirt work, building terraces and waterways and putting in drain tile for other farmers. "Some jobs are better than others, but I enjoy all of it," he said. Austin also bales hay for local farmers. He already had a mower, but recently has bought his own tractor and baler. Austin was his FFA chapter's vice president, and the organization is a part of his family's legacy as well.

"My dad and two sisters were in FFA and I wanted to be in it. I came into FFA as a freshman and did horse judging the first year, making it to state. From then on, I really enjoyed it. Last year, I won a proficiency in ag service with repair and maintenance. Our agronomy team made it to state, placing fourth. I have learned a lot from FFA and being an officer has helped me on the job manage my team of guys." Austin also received his State FFA Degree this year and won the state Star Placement Award at the State FFA Convention in Sedalia, Mo., for his work with Steele Rain Irrigation and will go through a few more interviews and represent Missouri at nationals. "I would advise young people to work hard. Sometimes it's not going to be fun, but you just have to do it anyways," Russell said. "If you work hard, you'll be rewarded. I got started working with my dad and he has always inspired me. I helped him when I was younger, and he helped me get the job with Russell. He said he didn't care what I did as long as I was working and enjoyed it most of the time." Austin is attending Crowder College this fall for ag business, with an emphasis in agronomy. He would then like transfer to Missouri State University to obtain a bachelor's degree in agronomy with hopes of finding a job thereafter and continuing to expand his own farm.

Candace Sue Kiess, Poole Road, became the bride of Thomas Emerson Schreck of Lemert at a double ring ceremony Sunday July 25, 1971 at 2:30 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church, Bucyrus. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kiess, Poole Road, Bucyrus, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schreck Jr. of Lembert repeated their vows and exchanged wedding rings in the service performed by Rev. Russell Mase, following a half-hour interlude of traditional nuptial music.

Mrs. Randall Eppley played the organ and the musical offerings were "One Hand, One Heart", "Theme from Love Story", "The Lord's Prayer", "Theme from Romeo and Juliet", and "How Great Thou Art". A college friend of the bride from Indianapolis, Indiana, Mrs. Phil Captain, was the soloist and her vocal selection were "Because", "Whither Thou Goest", "Of Love I Sing", and "Wedding Prayer" during the service as the couple knelt at the alter. The processional was "Bridal Chorus" by Wagner and the recessional was Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride's parents gave her in marriage: She was escorted down the aisle on her father's arm during the open church ceremony. The bride wore a Satapeau gown with imported Chantilly lace outlining the empire line, bodice and full sleeves with accents sweeping the chapel train. White daises edged the hemline and daisy appliques were featured on the full skirt. The four-tier, waist-length, bridal illusion veil was held in place by a forward headpiece of lace and organza loop bows trimmed with seed pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade of phaleanopsis orchids with pink sweetheart roses, white Marguerite daisies, stephanotis, ivy and strands of pearls.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Gene Best of Lima, Ohio, sister of the bride. Her dress was a floor length Empire style of pink dotted nylon organza with short puff sleeves. The neckline and bodice were trimmed with Val lace and satin ribbon. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold McDaniel, Lemert, sister of the groom, Miss Cheryl Eppley, Reservoir Road, Bucyrus, friend of the bride, and the junior bridesmaid was Miss Jill Kiess, bride's sister of Poole Road, Bucyrus. The bridesmaids wore dresses identical to the honor attendant and all wore matching, open-crown, picture hats outlined with lace trim and streamers and bows of netting at the back. The attendants carried natural wicker princess baskets of pink elegance miniature carnations, white Pinocchio pompoms, purple statice and baby breath. In addition, the attendants held a Grecian garland of flowering boxwood and pink asters in the procession, the unbroken chain symbolizing never-ending love.

The pews were marked with pink satin bows and lily of the valley. The alter was decorated with two pedestal baskets of pink and white gladioli and asters, and a pair of 7-branch candelabra with garlands of lily of the valley. Dale Schreck of Lemert was best man for his brother and ushers were Michael Schreck, Rt. 1, Bucyrus, brother of the groom; Kim Kiess, Poole Road, Bucyrus, brother of the bride; and Jeffrey Heeder, cousin of the groom from Rochester, New York. Miss Wendy Schreck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schreck, Bucyrus, and niece of the groom served as flower girl. She was gowned identical to the other attendants and carried a miniature basket of flowers. The ring bearer was Scotty Best, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Best of Lima, and nephew of the bride. He carried the ring on a white, heart-shaped pillow covered with rows of lace. The candle lighter was Jeffrey Kiess, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a pink crepe dress with sheer long sleeves and pink and "hit" accessories. The groom's mother wore a light green dress with matching short jacket and bone accessories. Both mothers wore pink cymbidium orchids.

Greeting the guests as they arrived and at the guest book were cousins of the bridal couple, Miss Jan Hubble, and Mrs. Allen Dible, both of Bucyrus. A reception was held in Fellowship Hall immediately following the service for approximately 200 guests. Serving were Mrs. Hugh Black, Bucyrus, bride's aunt; Mrs. Franklin Heeder, Rochester, New York, groom's aunt; Miss Doreen Adams, cousin of the groom, Bucyrus; Mrs. Michael Schreck, Bucyrus; and Miss Chris Weber, bride's college friend from Bowling Green State University.

The serving table was decorated with lily of the valley garlands, pink satin bows, and two 3-branch silver candelabra with pink candles. The three-tiered cake was topped with a bell and bridal couple. Pink streamers led to side cakes with large pink bells. Coffee, punch, mints and nets completed the refreshments. For their trip to Virginia Beach, the bride changed to a yellow cotton print with gathered waist and lantern sleeve. She wore a matching gold Alli McGraw beret and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses and stephanotis. The couple will return around August 1st and reside in Lemert until college resumes at the end of August. Both the bride and groom graduated from Wynford High School in 1968, attended Bowling Green State University and later transferred to Taylor University in Upland, Indiana, where they will be seniors this fall.

Jeff enjoyed trapshooting and was the Ohio State Champion in 1994. He loved his friends and family very much. He would do anything to make sure they were happy. He loved going out and having a good time, and was always the life of the party. He was larger than life. He married the loved of his life, Judy, on January 8, 2002, at Abundant Life Fellowship. They enjoyed traveling to many states on the motorcycle that Jeff built, and later on, on his Indian Motorcycle.
He will be dearly missed by his many friends and family: his mother, Shirley (Tom) McAlister; his loving wife, Judy Taylor; children: Scott (Holly) Taylor, Melinda (Grace) Custis-Taylor, Allison Taylor, Jordan (Tessa) Burns and Ashley Webb; grandchildren: Josh and Kayla Taylor, Jaden and Colton Burns, Kampten Christner, Kyler Webb, and Alexis and Addison Baldwin.
Jeff's family will greet friends from 4 - 8 p.m. on Thursday, March 19, 2020, at the Snyder Funeral Homes, Craven Chapel, 67 N. Main Street, Mount Gilead. Services to honor and celebrate his life will be held there at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, March 20, 2020, with Minister Ken Boswell officiating. Burial will follow in Caledonia Cemetery. In Jeff's memory, his family asks you do something to help out someone you know. Pay it forward, as Jeff would always do. Or you could make a contribution to the Ambidextrous Pallbearers Association, LOL! Your choice.

Lindsay M. Entz, 17, of 161 Ruth Lane, Jersey Shore, went to be with the Angels Thursday, Feb. 5, 2004, as a result of injuries sustained from a motor vehicle crash on Route 44. Born Feb. 6, 1986, in Williamsport, she was the daughter of Eugene D. Entz and the former Michelle C. Stabley. Her mother and father and a brother, Evan D. Entz, survive her. Also surviving are her paternal grandparents, C. David and Donna Entz of Salladasburg; a paternal great-grandmother, Laura Mae Swarthout of Jersey Shore; maternal grandparents, Sam and Helen Lowmiller of Mosquito Valley and Ronald and Linda Stabley of Pine Creek; a maternal great-grandfather, Harry Robison of Avis; and a maternal great-grandmother, Lois Stabley of Jersey Shore.

Lindsay's education started at Salladasburg Elementary School in September of 1991. She attended Jersey Shore Area High School where she would have graduated with the class of 2004. Lindsay's dream was to attend college and become a teacher for special needs children. While attending Jersey Shore schools, Lindsay was involved in many activities, including being a cheerleader for 10 years and a member of the track and field team for four years. She participated in softball and assisted the varsity wrestling team at Jersey Shore High School for three years; filming all the team videos and assisting coaches in any way possible. Lindsay helped to plan the Junior-Senior Prom and the Junior-Senior Girls Powder Puff Football game.

She was a conscientious and energetic worker, having been employed by Crist Farms, The Crest Restaurant, The Gamble Farm Inn and presently by The Restless Oaks. She was also a caring and loving baby-sitter to many area families. More importantly than her school or work activities, Lindsay had a passion for sharing her love of Christ with others. Lindsay had strong feelings and was tender-hearted to both the young and the old. She took pleasure in visiting with her grandmother, great-grandmother and their friends at Manor Care. In her spare time, Lindsay loved spending time with her family and friends, especially her boyfriend, Samuel Eck. Every year, Lindsay looked forward to hunting with her Dad and brother Evan and was very accomplished, having bagged a deer every year. Notes for Kurt Andrew Stabler:

June 30, 2016 - When Kurt Stabler and his family moved to North Carolina nine years ago, they were unsure as to whether they would continue to farm. Previously, Kurt and his family had lived in Pennsylvania, where they ran a successful, small-scale farm. They moved to Dunn, North Carolina so that they could attend Foundations Bible Collegiate Church and so that their children could attend the academy and college sponsored by the church. Crownview Farm is one of the premier vendors at the WakeMed Farmers Market. They are also unique in that the farm is operated for the benefit of the students it employs from nearby Foundations Bible College. The students who work at Crownview Farm use the money from the sale of their crops to help pay for their college education(s). Owner of Crownview Farm, Kurt Stabler, explains: We're not a nonprofit, but we kind of run [the farm] that way. My wife and I don't make anything off of the farm; it's just for the kids.

History of Crownview Farm -We moved from Pennsylvania about nine years ago, and we were doing some farming (which was small scale) up there; and when we came here, we didn't really know if we were going to continue. We bought Crownview Farm in 2010; and I work at Foundations Bible College, which is right next door to our farm. We have five children that are here in this area. My son, Timothy, actually runs the operations in the field and oversees the other kids who work here. We really embarked on this farm for them [the students]. Originally, we started out with one young man who needed help going to school, and last year, we had about twelve different kids involved.

My mother grew up on a dairy farm in Pennsylvania, so I kind of had something in the background. Also, when I was young, my grandparents had gardens, and we did a little bit. When we were living in Pennsylvania, we bought a small farm. We just started with a garden, and we read and learned. At that point, I was actually working in town, in printing. I'd come home in the afternoon and work with the kids. I had an older son who thought he wanted to farm, and he did it for a couple of years before he changed career paths. So, when he got out, the rest of the family just took it over. We had several children in the early teens back then, and rather than go into town and get a job, we decided – "Well, let's just try to do this and make it work here on the farm." From there, it just kept growing, and it went so well that I finally quit my town job, and we started doing it on a larger scale.

We've been farming now for about 15 – 16 years, and we don't do anything original. We've read and talked to other farmers. For example, we had some really good Amish friends that taught us a lot – and you just read, read, read, and you try things and get better. My kids would tell you that one of my favorite sayings is, "Well, next year…" because you start, and you plant, and you see what happens about 60 days later, and then it's too late for this season. We're not certified organic, but we do an all-natural, chemical-free approach, so we need things that are disease resistant.

We try things all of the time. We buy our seeds from catalogs and online, and it's pretty much commercial seed. Most of what we grow, you wouldn't find the seed packets at Lowes or Walmart. We're also taking things fresh to the local markets, so we want stuff that's tender, that's tasty – and oftentimes, what's at the big stores does well at the store…but you put it in the field, and it may not taste the best. For example, we've tried a dozen different broccoli types to get it to the ones that work best for us, and we've tried a bunch of different lettuce. All of our lettuce is selected to take the heat as well as be flavorful. I know there's a big debate out there whether a natural, chemical-free approach is any safer. All of the chemical industry came out of what they learned in WWII- so for thousands of years, people were farming without chemicals, and they made it work. We're just a throwback to the way it was when my mom was a kid on the farm; we use manures and rock powders, and compost.

My property is about 5.25 acres, and we'll have about 2.5 acres in production. We use every bit of space that's available to us. The timing of the weather is the biggest challenge. We've got to do things when we have a window of opportunity. When we get behind, we get in trouble. Many of our crops are transplanted every week, so you have a continuous batch of stuff. Something like the squash gets planted every three weeks, and it will be harvested over a long period of time – but lettuce? You cut it, and it's gone. So, next week, you've got to have the next batch in there. If we get behind, we could dip at the market and not have something that everyone's looking for…or if the weather is extra warm and things grow quickly, two batches could get ready at the same time, and we might not be able to sell it all.

Most of the kids who come to work at the farm don't know anything about agriculture or farming. However, most of the things that we do are not hard to learn at all. We try to teach the kids not only what we're doing but why we're doing it. We want them to learn the principles behind things so that they understand what they're doing (versus feeling like they're just doing a task). For a lot of kids, this is their first outside-of-the-home job that they've had, so they have to learn how to work, how fast to work, how well to work, etc…and that's a good process. This is a great environment for them to learn in.

This is a biological, living system. Today, farming has gone more towards a business model. Now, you've got to be a businessman to make a living in farming – but you can't treat crops like machines! I worked in printing. It's a lot different to work around printing presses and folding machines than it is crops. Crops are living, and you've got to treat it as such and respond to its needs. The soil for us is everything.

We try to take care of that and be in harmony with the way God created it, and it will grow us crops.

This is for these kids. In order for us to make money for them, we've got to produce a really good product that's in demand out there. People are wanting chemical-free stuff, and that's what we do. Crownview Farm is based out of Dunn, NC. You can visit Crownview Farm at the WakeMed Farmers Market, Tuesdays, at the Raleigh Campus from 10am – 2pm throughout the summer.

He married Janet Kaye Cavalli 05 Aug 1962. She was born 09 Dec 1942.

Notes for Darrel Lee Blevins:
Darrel Lee Blevins died in Powell on Nov. 6, 2013, after a courageous battle with pulmonary fibrosis. He was 71. Darrel was born in Powell on Sept. 18, 1942. After graduating from high school in Helena, Mont., he began college at Northwest Community College in 1961 before marrying Janet Kaye Cavalli on Aug. 5, 1962. Darrel and Janet met when they were 15 years old and living in Cheyenne. After they married, they lived in Powell until 1963 when they moved to California so that he could attend USC.

Darrel's career with Safeway stores began in 1959 as a box boy and continued until 1989. In those 30 years, he held several positions, but spent most of his career as director of human resources for the Butte, Portland and Salt Lake City divisions. He also spent time in the Bay Area offices. He and Janet embarked on a new career, with the urging of his brother, Ron, by opening Red Lodge Office Supply in 1991. They then purchased Powell Office Supply in 2003 and moved back to Powell, finally coming back home after 40 years. During his various careers, Darrel volunteered with many different organizations, including Boy Scouts of America, and touched many lives over the years. Darrel was the scoutmaster for Troop 411 in Sandy, Utah. During his tenure as scoutmaster, he mentored many Boy Scouts to go on and lead by his example. He was a man who preferred to do good work with many different people, and shied away from being recognized for all that he accomplished.

Darrel was a true family man and loved spending time with his children and grandchildren, especially in the mountains.This quote by Winston Churchill helps describe Darrel's life: "We make a living by what we get; we make a life by what we give."

He leaves behind his wife and best friend of 51 years, Janet Blevins and their two sons, Randy Blevins (Vickie) of Colorado Springs, Colorado, and Martin Blevins (Heidi) of Bainbridge Island, Washington; and six grandchildren, Justin, Tyler, Donavan, Darrel, Zoe and Sophie. He also leaves behind his brother Ron Blevins of Powell.

There will be a celebration of life to honor Darrel at 11 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 16, at United Methodist Church in Powell. 3606. Charol Lynn[12] Heim (Lloyd Harold[11], Emerson Walter[10], Joseph Gross[9], Jacob G.[8], Catharina Margaretha[7] Staiger, Lorenz[6], Johann David[5], Anna Maria[4] Kiess, Hans Jerg (Georg)[3], Hans Jerg[2], Georg[1]) was born 12 May 1942 in Seward, Nebraska, and died 22 Feb 2022 in Omaha, Douglas Co, Nebraska. She married (1) Wayne Knudsen Aft. 1960. She married (2) Daniel Pleiss 1982.

Notes for Charol Lynn Heim:

Charol Lynn (Heim) Pleiss, 79, of Omaha, Nebraska, was born on May 12, 1942, in Seward, Nebraska, to Harold Lloyd and Charlotte (Moorman) Heim. She grew up in Dawson, Nebraska, and was the oldest of four children. Charol attended school in Dawson through her high school graduation. She went to Wesleyan University for a short time before marrying Wayne Knudsen. They had three children, Kris, Linda, and Kent. In 1982, she married Dan Pleiss and became step-mom to Deb and Phil. Nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren soon followed.

Charol's life began with a story. When she was born, her parents decided it would be fun to combine their names to create her name. So, Charlotte and Harold became Charol. And for the next 79 years she told this story to those who asked why her name was spelled C-H-A-R-O-L. Her hobbies included sewing, knitting, and puzzles of all kinds. Charol was also an avid reader. While she was especially interested in Nebraska authors and stories, she read a wide variety of fiction and nonfiction, and enjoyed her time in book clubs over the years. Always reading; always learning.

One of Charol special interests was genealogy, and in particular the history of the Heims and other families who settled in Dawson, Nebraska in the nineteenth century. Always active in the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society, she worked for many years as the secretary of that organization, and was instrumental in establishing the Penn Colony Museum. She spent time working with her Aunt Shirley, Keith Heim, and others to produce the newsletter. Her work also included fundraising, acquiring historical items and documents for the museum, and arranging the annual watermelon feed and picnic. She always enjoyed visiting with family and catching up with old friends and neighbors at these events, which were the culmination of a long year of hard work. Charol felt a strong connection to the past, and her commitment to the Penn Colony was a celebration of that connection and a way to share that connection with others.

Working together side-by-side, Dan and Charol started their own CPA firm and ran it very successfully when they decided to merge with another firm in the mid-1980s. After a few more years with that firm and then starting their own CPA business again, they retired in March of 2021, making many lifelong friends along the way. On February 22, 2022, with her family by her side, Charol passed away at her home in Omaha, Nebraska. She was preceded in death by her parents; niece Stacie Olson.

Charol is survived by her husband, Daniel; children: Kristin (Bruce) Eckhardt of Lincoln, Nebraska, Linda (Robert Cavigli) Knudsen of Anthem, Arizona; Kent (Ann) Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Debra (Richard) Clopton of Auburn, Nebraska; Philip (Marian) Pleiss of Omaha, Nebraska; grandchildren: Matt (Jessica) Eckhardt of Lincoln, Nebraska; Jennifer (Ryan) Adams of Phoenix, Arizona; Chelsea (Jesse Sanchez) Eckhardt of Vicenza, Italy; Jim Kinghorn of Omaha, Nebraska; Audrey Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Jane Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Ellis Clopton of Lincoln, Nebraska; Danielle (Robbie) Gilbert of Omaha, Nebraska; Jenni (Calloway Tims) Pleiss of Omaha, Nebraska; great-grandchildren: Eleanor Eckhardt, Jackson Adams; brothers: Doug (Judy) Heim of Omaha, Nebraska; Don Heim of Atkins, Arkansas; and sister: Barbara (Gary) Schacht of Petaluma, California; aunt: Shirley (Neal) Pierce of Salem, Oregon; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, February 27, in Omaha, NE, at Heafey Hoffman Funeral Home. Pastor Glenn Schacht officiated. Interment was on Monday, February 28, in Dawson, Nebraska, at Heim Cemetery. Officiants were Glenn Schacht and Charol's dear friend, Pastor Mary Ellen Gaither-Marburger of Humboldt, Nebraska. Charol's son-in-law, Rich Clopton, recited the poem Last Fragment by Raymond Carver. A luncheon followed at the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society of Nebraska Museum in Dawson, Nebraska. Memorial contributions may be given to the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society.

She married Robert A. Ramsay. He was born 30 Mar 1957.

Notes for Kathy Ludwig:

July 3, 2015 - Life is indeed short. There's no time to waste and it's never too late to try something new. Especially something that carries on Crozet's spirit of farm business. Bob and Kathy Ramsay wanted some livestock on their secluded small farm on the south side of Crozet, which they've named Wynott Farm. Bob's family had moved from Maryland to Missouri when he was 10 years old and there he grew up on a small farm his parents, Jim and Jeanne Ramsay (who now live next door), named Wynott Farm. Bob—and his brother, who has an operation called Wynott Quarter Horses—have carried on the name. The family came back east to Virginia in 1975. "We like to say about the soap, 'Have you tried it? Wynott?'" said Ramsey.

Kathy started out with chickens and still raises them. "She recommended goats to me," recalled Bob, who was not initially taken with the suggestion. "About eight months later, I thought, yes. I came across an Internet group on mini-Nubians that included someone from Charlottesville, who it turned out we knew." Now they raise mini-Nubians, a breed that began to be developed about 25 years ago when Nubians, a dairy breed, began to grow too large and breeders sought to reduce their size. Nubians were crossed with Nigerian Dwarfs. Breeders are trying to retain all the other Nubian characteristics such as long, dangly ears and Roman nose, Ramsey said.

There are now four does, eight kids and of course, a buck. While they're fresh, the does are milked twice a day, 12 hours apart, on the sixes. The Ramsay refrigerator is crammed with containers of creamy-looking milk. The goats, inside a fence of welded panels—goats are good at defeating a fence—are guarded by two Karakachans, an old breed developed in Bulgaria that by reputation is willing to take on bears. The large dogs raised exclusively with the goats, regard them as part of their pack and defend them accordingly.

Ramsay bought a seven-goat herd from an elderly woman who was selling out. Since then he's also bought goats from Wisconsin, Wyoming and one that hails all the way from Washington State. He transports them with a camper shell on his pickup. That separated from the truck once while travelling and blew off, but amazingly none of the 17 goats on board decided to jump out. Since them he confines them in dog crates for transport. "We got the mini-Nubian breeding business going, and one day I saw goats' milk soap for sale. I came home and said, 'Let's start making soaps! It was like a high school [science] experiment. There are five qualities in soap recipes, things like 'handiness,' 'lather.' We loved the soap."

Soap-making takes the goat milk, which reacts with lye, the cleaning agent, and adds fats such as coconut oil and shea butter and finally scent oils. Once the ingredients are properly blended in their kitchen, the soap is poured into wooden molds to cure. Molds line the hallways of their home. Once ready, the Ramsay's package the five-ounce bars in a burlap wrap secured with their Wynott logo sticker. Kathy's mom Ros Ludwig helps with that. The soap is offered in 10 scent varieties based on five essential oils, mainly used in combinations, such as lemon/eucalyptus, cedarwood/rosemary, coffee/peppermint or lavender/teatree (their best-selling scent). There is also an unscented bar. Six months ago they had a logo designed for them and from there it's been all about getting soaps to markets. They are making about 500 bars a month now. They rest while the goats are dry in January and February. (Like most farmers, they have full-time nonfarm jobs, Bob at State Farm and Kathy as a nurse.)

Kathy took some bars to the Crozet Farmers Market and sold nine at $6.50 each the first time out.

Now the soap, also available in a 2.5-ounce size, is offered at the Charlottesville City Market as well as a dozen stores including Parkway Pharmacy and the new Crozet Artisans Depot. It can be found in shops in Charlottesville, at Michie Tavern, in Staunton, Lexington, and at The Cheese Shop in Stuarts Draft, too. It can ordered online though their website, wynottfarm.com. "I'm just thrilled for only doing it for two years. I love talking about it," he said. "I learned a whole lot from the managers at the city market," said Bob. "They were very encouraging." A new project is a gift shaving kit that includes the Wynott soap, a shaving brush and a small, locally made pottery mug.

"Everything in the soap is natural, no chemicals, no alcohol, no detergents," said Kathy. "Goat milk is good for you and your skin; it helps people with sensitive skin. It moisturizes and it has lactic acid, which helps remove dead skin cells. It's packed with vitamin A, which helps reduce wrinkles, and it has vitamins C and B and zinc, too. It's pH level is very close to that of skin. You won't go back to another soap. We know Cleopatra used to bathe in goat's milk. She knew it was good for her."

She was born October 5, 1934, in Talmage, Kansas to Glen and Anna Margaret Haynes. She married John Humphreys on February 14, 1956, and of this marriage two children were born, Jeff and Jane. Notes for Andrew David Ritzell:

Andrew David Ritzell, 43, of Katy, Texas passed away July 18, 2013. He was born February 28, 1970 in Warrington, England to William Ritzell and Maureen Espeche. He is survived by his parents; his wife Jacqueline Monse Ritzell; sons, Alec David Ritzell and Nicolas William Ritzell; siblings, Jeffrey Peter Leight & wife Penny, Elizabeth Anne Shulark, Jonathan Lee Espeche; Nieces & Nephews, Brandon Leight, Sarah Shulark, Kacey Harman, Paul Harman, David Monse, Caitlyn Monse as well as numerous other relatives and friends.

Andrew was born in England and grew up in and around Southeast Asia. He moved to the United States at age 13. Andrew was a student at Jakarta International School as well as Stratford High School. He attended the Spartan School of Aeronautics in Tulsa, OK where he received his Aviation Mechanics License. After his schooling he worked for National Oilwell Varco (NOV) for 15 years in oilfield management. Andrew was an avid hunter and outdoorsman. He loved trucks and hotrods. Because of his years in SE Asia, Andrew developed a very sophisticated palate and enjoyed eating exotic foods. He loved spending quality time with his two sons and family. Andrew was an excellent father and good friend to all who knew him and will be greatly missed.

The Ritzell family will be present to receive friends Friday, July 26, 2013 from 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM at Dettling Funeral Home, 14094 Memorial Dr. at Kirkwood in Houston. Children of Jacqueline Monse and Andrew Ritzell are:

4369 i. Alec D.[13] Ritzell, born 03 Nov 1994; died 09 Mar 2020.

Notes for Alec D. Ritzell:

Alec D. Ritzell's fascination with the natural world began when he was a toddler gleefully watching the moon. As he grew, his loves expanded to elephants, mammoths and mastodons—he could explain the difference by age 4—deer, fish, and birds. His life ended while he was a graduate student studying bobwhite quail. He was 25. Born in Denver in 1994, Alec grew up in Colorado and Texas with his beloved brother Nicolas, mother Jackie, and father Andrew Ritzell. Andrew predeceased him, as did his grandparents William Ritzell, of Hemphill, TX, and Ruth and Murray Monse, of Houston, Texas. Alec had a history of beating long odds. At birth, he was a 4-lb. preemie who fit in the palm of his father's hand. At age 24, he was a 210-lb. weightlifter. He started community college with developmental math classes. He graduated in 2017 with a 4.0 and a B. S. from Sul Ross State University in Alpine, before pursuing a master's degree at Texas A&M – Kingsville.

Alec was a superb student and dedicated worker, endearing himself to his professors and other students (except, perhaps, those peers who were angry that he'd blown the curve). His academic achievements enabled him to attain research assistantships and internships at the Borderlands Research Institute, the Noble Foundation, Rolling Plains Quail Research Foundation, and Caesar W. Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute. He also garnered many scholarships. Due to the generosity of these organizations and donors, Alec would have graduated with a minimal amount of student loans, an accomplishment that gave him great satisfaction.

Alec had a beautiful singing voice, and was the King of Karaoke, especially when singing Johnny Cash tunes at the Railroad Blues bar in Alpine. And he loved to talk, usually on long telephone calls with family and friends. He had endless topics to discuss and fended off any attempt to end a call with the plea, "Just one more thing…." He loved the outdoors, whether walking alone in the hills behind his dorm at Sul Ross, hiking with "The Crew" in Big Bend National Park, hunting with his brother across Texas, or fishing at the Post in Marathon. Alec's last fishing trip, in early June 2019, was with his brother Nic at Baffin Bay in South Texas, using the Kistler fishing rods his Grandpa Bill had given him.

When Alec was diagnosed with glioblastoma a few weeks later, Alec's family and friends were hopeful he would beat the odds once again. He fought with everything he had. He spent a month in neuro ICU, largely paralyzed, undergoing radiation and chemotherapy. By mid-September, he regained his ability to speak—and most importantly to Alec—eat. And eat he did, usually starting his day with salmon, cream cheese, caviar, and capers. Spurred by fond memories and too many hours watching the Food Network, his food "wish list" grew to many pages, leading his family to call him the "Man of Flavor."

The nickname "Master of Flirting" would have fit, too. On Alec's first visit to Alpine in 2014, his Aunt Michelle had to bribe him to ask a young lady to dance. After that, he never looked back. Through multiple rounds of radiation, chemotherapy, and hospitalization, Alec flirted with his nurses, telling one "That mask can't disguise how pretty you are." Not that Alec was a player—far from it. He was genuinely guileless and utterly sincere. During Alec's cancer treatment, Alec and Jackie lived with Uncle Clint and Aunt Lisa Harman in Houston. Jackie and Lisa were his constant caregivers for the next eight months. Despite his gains in fall 2019, Alec began struggling after Christmas, and was hospitalized repeatedly. An MRI in late February 2020 showed the spread of Alec's cancer to his neck and spine. No further treatment being possible, his family moved him to Houston Hospice on March 5, where he died four days later, surrounded by family and friends.

In addition to his mother Jackie (Austin, Texas) and brother Nic (Dallas, Texas), Alec's survivors include his Uncle Mark Monse (Powderly, Texas); Aunt Lisa Monse Harman and Uncle Clint Harman (Houston, Texas); Aunt Michelle Monse (Dallas, Texas); Uncle Eric Monse and Aunt Lisa Jo Monse (Rosharon, Texas); and cousins David Monse, Caitlyn Mangun (and husband Bryce) (Dallas area), Kacey Hahn (and husband Josh), and Paul Harman (Houston area). The family is grateful that Jackie's boyfriend Kevin Ham drove from Austin to Houston weekly throughout this ordeal to support Jackie, helping her shoulder this overwhelming burden. The family also wants to thank Nic's girlfriend, Breanne Kurtz, for her steady and loving support.

A few days before Alec's death, the family pastor reminded Alec and the family that Christians do not say goodbye. We look forward to the day we will see him again. The family is grateful for the dedicated care that Alec received from so many, including his oncology team, the ambulance drivers who took him to treatment, his speech and physical therapists, and the compassionate nurses at Houston Hospice.

Alec's family will inter him privately in Houston in March and hold a celebration of his life in Alpine later this spring. (Date to be announced.) In lieu of flowers, anyone wishing to honor Alec may contribute to the Alec D. Ritzell Endowed Scholarship Fund at Sul Ross State University, the Caesar W. Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute, or a charity of your choice. Or just take a walk, listen to the birds, and praise God for Alec's life and the natural world he loved. Alec D. Notes for James Michael Iliff:

Jim Iliff, 61 of Glenwood, Iowa, unexpectedly passed away at his home on November 30, 2018. James Michael Iliff, one of four children of Richard Dale and Frances "Peggy" Irene (Wheeler) Iliff, was born on March 11, 1957 in Omaha, Nebraska. He grew up and attended school in Omaha, graduating from Burke High School in 1975. Jim worked at a number of different places through the years, Glenwood Resource Center, established, owned and operated Iliff's TV Repair in Glenwood for a while, worked at ECI as a computer programmer in Glenwood for a number of years, and lastly was employed as a team leader at Moody's Analytics in Omaha, Nebraska.

While working at the Glenwood Resource Center, Jim met Evelynn Louise Dunlap. The couple married on August 14, 1982 in Glenwood, Iowa. They were blessed with three children, Adam, Stephanie, and Michael. Jim and Evelynn moved to outside of Glenwood to a small acreage where Jim loved living in the country where he raised a vegetable garden. He had a knack for building computers, writing computer programs and was great at troubleshooting glitches. Jim enjoyed astronomy and searching the night sky with his telescope, building robotics and using his 3-D printer, and was a true computer geek. He loved spending time with his family and grandchildren, who were his pride and joy. Jim was a wonderful husband, dad and grandpa.

Jim unexpectedly passed away at his Glenwood home on November 30, 2018 at the age of 61 years, 8 months, and 19 days. He was preceded in death by his father.

Jim is survived by his wife of 36 years Evelynn; children, Adam Iliff and wife Jill of Ann Arbor, Michigan, Stephanie Courtier and husband Jeff of Malvern, Iowa, and Michael Iliff of West Des Moines, Iowa; five grandchildren, Jon Courtier, Kurt Iliff, Oliver Iliff, Skyler Courtier, and Maxwell Iliff; mother Peggy Iliff of Omaha, Nebraska; siblings, Kathy Luers and husband Larry, Richard "Rich" Iliff and wife Theresa, and Patti Bahle and husband Jerry, all of Omaha; nieces and nephews; and other relatives.

Per his family's wishes, cremation will take place. A Time of Gathering Visitation will be held from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, December 4, 2018 at the Loess Hills Funeral Home in Glenwood. In lieu of flowers, memorials are directed to the family.

Notes for Dustin John (Bunk) Crites:
Monday, March 13, 2017

A Grabill man was killed Sunday night after being struck by a car on Interstate 69 in Steuben County, the county sheriff's department said. The sheriff's department said it was called about 8:30 p.m. Sunday to the 344-mile marker of the interstate, south of Angola, because a pedestrian had been struck. Dustin J. Crites, 36, was driving north on I-69 when his vehicle became disabled, the sheriff's department said. Crites pulled his vehicle into the berm, turned on his hazard lights, called a relative for help and then got out of his vehicle, police said. For some reason, police said, he crossed the median into the southbound lane of I-69, where he was hit by a vehicle driven by a 49-year-old Angola woman. Crites died at the scene, and the crash is under investigation.

Dustin "Bunk" Crites was an artistic, gentle soul known for giving everything to help others. He got the nickname Bunk as a child. He named a stuffed animal Bunky, and the name stuck. His family said almost nobody called him "Dustin" or "Dusty." It was always Bunk. "One day I went to pick Bunk up so he could get his car. I ran out of the house and forgot to grab my purse. I got to the gas station, where his car was, and realized that I was out of gas. He handed me the $20 from his wallet and told me to fill up. I told him I only needed $5, but he insisted I take it all. A few hours later, I got a call from my mother-in-law, Mary, because she had just picked him up. He had gotten himself stranded by running out of gas because he'd given me all of his cash and was out of gas, too," Liz Crites, his sister-in-law, said. That's just the type of guy he was said his family. He was always giving everything to everyone.

"The world needs more people like Bunk," she said. "He was an all around, amazing person." Crites always had his guitar on him. He enjoyed singing and writing lyrics. His mother, Mary Crites said music was his therapy. "He relieved his anxiety by playing music, sitting in nature, and more recently going to church," she said. "He recommended music to help solve your problems," his daughter Lexy Crites said. His mother shared when Dustin was little, they were camping as a family and she asked the kids what they wanted to do when they grew up. She expected the typical answers of firefighter or police man. Bunk's answer was, "I want to be a good dad." She joked and told him fine, but pick something else, too. He was persistent, saying that all he wanted in life was to be a good dad.

Crites has two children, Dakota Crites-Osmun and Lexy Crites. "He loved his kids dearly. He was a great father," his daughter Lexy's mother, Cassandra Crites said. "He was a great guy, a great dad." "We (Lexy and Dakota) meant a lot to him. He always put us first," Lexy said.
Crites' kids were his life, and he was involved with his niece and nephews as well. He loved to show them the woods, take them mushroom hunting and hiking and out to enjoy nature. "His son is very much like him," Summer Osmun, mother of Dakota said.

Bunk was known to help others through their own struggles, even when he was struggling himself. He had been in touch with others recently that had been down paths similar to his own, and his family said he was encouraging them to keep going. He also served every Thanksgiving at the St. Mary's Soup Kitchen, 1101 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Indiana, with his mother. "He loved serving at St. Mary's every year," she said. Bunk was very close with his father, Kenny Crites. They both worked for Lakeside Farms, and would eat breakfast together every morning before work, and dinner every night after. On Fridays, they'd go to a men's Bible breakfast at church before going into work. The two would go out west during the wheat harvest and help out. "We'd run harvest from Texas to Canada," Kenny said.

Bunk was never one driven to fame or money. He wanted to use his life to make people happy and make music. He sometimes envied his brother, Jason Crites, saying that he wanted to be like Jason because he had his life together, where Bunk was "living day by day." Liz said she finds comfort in that for the last few months, Bunk had made peace with Jesus and had accepted Him."He struggled at times with his faith, but in the end he had found Jesus again and started going back to church," she said. "Bunk had a good sense of humor and laughed at all the jokes. He caught the funny moments and was always laughing," Liz said.

Mary has been in contact with the woman involved in Dustin's accident, and she thought about what he would want her to do. "It didn't take me long to know I had to reach out to her," she said. "This woman hasn't been able to drive since the accident because she's afraid. I've encouraged her to stop dwelling on what happened because it's not her fault. He wouldn't want her suffering." Mary reached out to the woman on social media, and has kept in contact with her because it's what Bunk would want. Liz Crites said they also gave the last few dollars out of his wallet to Jason Mavis for his upcoming mission trip. "Bunk was so passionate about supporting Jason, so we knew exactly what he'd want done with the money," she said. He lived his life without a lot of possessions; his family said he didn't need them. To be happy, he needed his music and his family.

Dustin John “Bunk” Crites, 36, passed away Sunday March 12th, from injuries sustained in a traffic accident. He was born March 6, 1981 in Fort Wayne, Indiana, to Mary and Kenny Crites. Dustin graduated from Fairview High School in 1999. His childhood was spent exploring the woods and farm at his home in Hicksville, Ohio. Dustin married Cassandra Blue on September 22, 2007. He worked at Lakeside Farm Market in Angola, Indiana. Bunk was an individual, a free spirit. He was artistic, musical, and passionate. He had a way with words, a way to make people feel special, feel included. Bunk had a contagious smile, and he had a sense of humor that not many possess. He found the most comfort in nature, and would often say; “A walk in the woods can sooth an anxious mind.” Bunk was extremely smart and loved to study new things. He was never afraid to ask questions. He was inquisitive. Bunk was passionate about music and could feel music in his soul, it spoke to him. You would often see him strumming his guitar and learning new songs. He was generous, and often saw the good in others that no one else could see. He was compassionate. He was loved. "The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched. They must be felt within the heart." -Helen Keller

He is survived by his children, Dakota, son of Summer Osmun, and Lexy, daughter of Cassandra Crites. Also surviving are his mother, Mary Crites of Fort Wayne, Indiana, his father, Kenny Crites of Angola, Indiana, and his brother Jason (Liz) Crites of Orland, Indiana. Dustin was a proud uncle to Emma, Jacob, and Mason Crites.
