Notes for Johann Georg Friederich Schilling:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Huron County, Michigan. Chapman Bros., Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1884:

Fredrick Schilling, one of the earliest of the pioneer settlers of the township of Sebewaing, was born February 7, 1808, in Germany. His parents, Peter and Julia A. Schilling, came to the United States in 1817, and located at Baltimore, Maryland. They were wholly ignorant of the English language and of the ways and customs, and the entire family, consisting of the parents and two children, Frederick and Catherine, were sold into slavery in Maryland, where they were held for a time and were finally transferred to Williamsport, Pennsylvania. Their bondage continued about 18 months, and they escaped from Pennsylvania to Livingston Co., New York, making their way thither by stealth, begging their food and passing three days of the time without anything to eat. They remained in the Empire State about n years, when they came to Washtenaw County, Michigan, where the parents passed the remainder of their lives.

Mr. Schilling came to Huron County in 1857, and located 400 acres of land in Sebewaing Township. His residence has been there ever since, and his present home is with his daughter Helena. He was married in 1832, in Washtenaw County, to Catherine Miller, and they, had 10 children,—Catherine, Mary, John, Christine, Lydia, Louisa, Gottfried, Ernst, Caroline and Helena.

Mr. Schilling is a Democrat. He was the first Supervisor of Sebewaing Township, and held the position altogether 14 years. He has also officiated several years as Notary Public, and a short time as Justice of the Peace. He is a member of the Lutheran Church.

Notes for Jacob Friedrich Staebler:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

J. F. Staebler, farmer, section 18, Ann Arbor Township; P.O., Ann Arbor; was born at Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1829, and is a son of Frederick and Margaret Staebler. Mr. S. crossed the ocean in 1853, and after a short residence in New York, came to Ann Arbor, where he worked as a farm hand, generously sending his surplus funds to his parents in Germany. For four years he worked for the Cornwell Paper Mills, and in 1858 took a contract to supply the mills with straw. In 1859 he married Geraldine Stoup, a daughter of Adam Stoup, of Baden, Germany. In 1862 Mr. S. purchased 56 acres of land, and in 1863 built him a commodious stone house. In 1866 he gave up his contract and devoted his time to farming, in which occupation he was very successful, and has taken several prizes at the State and county fairs, for size and quality of his grain. He supplied the Congregational Church at Ann Arbor with the stone for their beautiful edifice. In 1873 he resumed his contract with the Cornwells, and in 1874 also furnished a mill in Jackson with straw. Mr. and Mrs. Staebler have 3 children - Charles F., Frank O. and Emanuel M.

Her husband preceded her to the grave about 10 years ago, and the following children survive: George, John, William, Elmer, Charles, Mrs. John Muthler of Jersey Shore, Mrs. Albert Bergner of Monument, and Mrs. Charles Mapes of Beech Creek Township. Funeral services were held at her late residence in Beech Creek Township at 2:30 o'clock, March 10th. Rev. Louis V. Barber pastor of the Beech Creek Presbyterian Church officiated. Internment was made at Hayes Fearon Cemetery. Casket bearers were members of the Beech Creek Grange, of which the deceased had long been a member.

Clinton Republican Nov. 20, 1907 - CASPER G. PETERS OBITITUARY

Beech Creek, Nov. 15, 1907 - The community was shocked and saddened to learn of the death of Casper Peters, which was wholly unexpected. Although an old man, he had always enjoyed the most robust health and until Monday evening had not been ill having attended service in the Presbyterian Church Sunday evening last. He was seized with an agonizing pain about his heart, pronounced neuralgia of the heart, and suffered intensely until death relieved him Wednesday evening. He was aged 79 years and 10 months and was born in Germany; emigrating to America when a young man, working in the woods for many years and then taking up farming in Beech Creek township, being very successful, afterwards purchasing several farms and being very well to do. He was one of the best known and leading citizens of the township highly respected and a familiar figure to the community for the past 50 or more years. About 10 years ago he retired and purchased a home in Maidsville where he resided until his death. He was long a member of the Presbyterian Church, a man of sterling qualities and splendid character. He was always a staunch Democrat. He and his estimable wife reared a large family of children whom they might well be proud, being industrious and good citizens, who, with the widow, survive, as follows: Victoria, wife of John Muthler of the township; Anne, wife of Albert Bergner of Monument; Miss Renie, at home; George, John, William, Elmer, all occupying farms in the township; Charles who resides at home.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning, leaving the house at 10 o'clock and services held in the Presbyterian Church, internment in the Fearon cemetery.

Forty years later the sons of Casper Peters bought all of the bonds, after Lock Haven and Williamsport banks had refused them, for the new schoolhouse in Beech Creek.

Notes for Johann Gottfried Beck:

The Family Bible was given to Bethlehem United Church of Christ (Ann Arbor, Michigan). This book 'The Holy Bible, the Old and New Testaments', was published in St. Louis by Concordia Publishing House (no date given). The original marriage certificate of John Gottfried and Maria Dorothea Laubengayer was placed in the Bible.

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

J. Gottfried Beck, deceased, was a representative of the old Beck family of Scio Township and was born in that township March 18, 1839, his parents being Jacob and Catherine (Beck) Beck. The father with his parents and the other members of the family emigrated to America about 1832 and made their way direct to Washtenaw county, where the grandfather of our subject purchased a farm lying in Scio township. It was all covered with timber which he cleared away and after preparing the land for the plow he engaged in general agricultural pursuits up to the time of his death. His son Jacob afterward took charge of the home farm and was thus actively identified with general agricultural pursuits in Scio Township for many years. Eventually, however, he sold the farm to his son Gottfried and removed to the city of Ann Arbor, where he lived retired. He purchased twenty acres of land which was then at the edge of the city but is now on west Liberty Street. There he built a large brick residence making it his home until the time of his demise, his wife also passing away there. While residing in Ann Arbor he had no business cares but enjoyed the rest which he had truly earned and richly deserved.

J. Gottfried Beck pursued his education in the country schools of Scio Township and during the periods of vacation assisted in the labors of the home farm, early becoming familiar with the duties of field and meadow. He continued to assist his father until the latter's removal to Ann Arbor, when Mr. Beck, of this review, purchased the old homestead. He had been married to Miss Mary Dorothea Laubengayer, a native of this county and a daughter of John U. and Barbara (Hess) Laubengayer, both natives of Germany, whence they came to America about 1832, settling in Freedom Township, this county. Here the father engaged in farming for a few years, after which he took up his abode in Scio Township, where he carried on general agricultural pursuits until his death. His wife also died on that place. Mr. and Mrs. Beck became the parents of six children, but only two are now living: Armenia, the wife of Joseph Burkhardt, a farmer residing in Lodi Township, this county; and Otilie, who has always made her home with her mother. Those deceased are: Herman Jacob, Annie Matilda, John Oscar David and Martha Dorothea. After his marriage Mr. Beck resided upon the old homestead in Scio Township and carried on the work of field and meadow. He owned a large farm there which he brought to a high state of cultivation, so that he annually harvested good crops. He also owned a threshing machine which he operated throughout the county, doing a good business in that line. He continued upon the home farm until his death, passing away on the 19th of April, 1889, in the house in which he was born.

He lived an upright, honorable life characterized by activity, industry and integrity and those who knew him respected him for his genuine worth. He held several minor township offices in Scio Township and was a democrat in politics. His religious faith was indicated by his membership in the German Lutheran Church of Scio Township and his widow and daughter now belong to the German Lutheran church in Ann Arbor. Both the Beck and Laubengayer families are well known among the pioneer German residents of Washtenaw County. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Beck resided upon the farm for a few years but in 1896 sold that property and removed to Ann Arbor, building her present residence at No. 532 South First Street, where she and her daughter now make their home.

Notes for Dr. Johann Jakob Friedrich Auch:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Huron County, Michigan. Chapman Bros., Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1884:

John J. F. Auch, physician and farmer, Sebawaing, was born August 21, 1817, in Wurtemberg, Germany, the son of Christian and Margaret (Beck) Auch, also natives of Germany. They emigrated to the United States in 1836, first locating in Washtenaw Co., Michigan. In 1830 they came to what is now the village of Sebewaing, where the father died in 1869, and the demise of the mother occurred September 3, 1884. Their family included eight children, John J. F., Christiana, Andrew, Dorothy, Godfried, Margaret, Gottlieb and Louisa.

Dr. Auch was a student in the excellent schools of his native country until he came to the United States. He assisted on his father's farm until the age of 22 years, when he became interested in agriculture on his own behalf, in which pursuit he passed 18 months. He then determined to become a minister and began the study of theology, which he continued three years.

In 1845 he came to Sebewaing as a missionary among the Indians, among whom he labored seven years. In 1852 he received a call to settle as Pastor over the German Lutheran Church at Sebewaing, and discharged the duties of the position until 1867, when he resigned. He went to Unionville, Tuscola County, where he embarked in the saw and grist mill business, which he continued 10 years. In 1873 he returned to the family homestead in Sebewaing to watch over the declining years of his mother, and he is still resident on the farm, which contains 80 acres, with 36 acres under cultivation. He owns an undivided half of the place. While officiating as Pastor over the Church at Sebewaing, he engaged in the study of medicine under the directions of Dr. Kock, of Frankenmuth, Saginaw County, Michigan. Sebewaing was at that date without a physician, and he fully realized the necessity of a resident medical practitioner. He studied alone chiefly, and in his practice has met with good success. At present his business in that line is limited. He is a Republican in political faith.

His marriage to Maria D. Streiter took place April 3, 1840, at Ann Arbor, Mich. The only child born of this union died in infancy. Mrs. Auch was born April 28, 1818, in Germany. Her parents, Jacob and Streiter, were natives of the same county. Dr. Auch has officiated 10 years as Justice of the Peace, and many years as a school officer. With his wife, he is a member of the Lutheran Church.

Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sebewaing, Michigan - G. F. L. List, Pastor

Immanuel Lutheran Church will soon be 75 years old. Its beginning dates back to the year 1851. As early as 1845, Rev. J. J. Auch had come to this region as a missionary to the Indians. He had been sent by Rev. Fr. Schmidt of Ann Arbor. Rev. Auch was probably the first white man who entered this territory. The assistant, who accompanied him, was Rev. Simon Dumser. These two pioneers preached to the Indians at Sebewaing and at Wishkawking, now called Unionville. There was another Indian settlement at Shebahyonk, nine miles north from Sebewaing. Rev. J. Roeder had been sent there as missionary by the Missouri Synod. The Indians in this part of the state were Chippewas. Those at Sebewaing numbered about 100 souls; about 80 were at Shebahyonk, and about 60 at Wishkawking or Unionville. The Indian chief at Sebewaing was Nock-chi-co-me. He remained away from the Christian church and did all he could to keep others away. Yet, strange to say, he wanted his children to be instructed in the Christian school. This old heathen was no opponent of Christian day schools like so many so-called Christians of our day.

In the year 1849 white settlers began to come into this neighborhood. The first to arrive were Frederick Ziegler and his brother John and their families. In the same year John G. Haushahn arrived, who, together with Missionary J. Fr. Maier, drowned in Saginaw Bay. They were caught in a sudden storm on their return trip from Bay City. Being unskilled in the handling of sails, they could not keep their frail craft from capsizing.

In the following years quite a few more new settlers arrived. John Gruehbeck came and Martin and Fred Krauss. In 1851 Christian Auch arrived, the father of Rev. Auch, Godfrey Beck and Fred Schilling, Fred Schmidt, Phil. Gruehbeck, Conrad Gruehbeck, Martin Gremel, J. G. Weide, Jac. Fred Ruehle, John Muellerweiss and Justus Schmidt. Pastors Auch and Roeder served them spiritually. In the year 1851 the small flock organized a congregation and chose the name Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession. In a meeting on the 14th of December 1851, a constitution was adopted, which is still in force today. December 14, 1851, is therefore their birthday of this church.

In the year 1852 the congregation extended a formal call to Rev. Auch, who had till then been serving as missionary amongst the Indians and also as pastor of Immanuel Church. Rev. Auch could not make up his mind to abandon the work amongst the Indians entirely. He lived at Shebahyonk, where he had moved after Rev. Roeder's departure. Soon, however, a sad thing happened, which decided the place of his residence. Misled by unscrupulous Indian agents, the red men at Shebahyonk turned away from our missionary. There was now no need of his staying at that place any longer. He accepted the call of Immanuel Church and moved to Sebewaing, in order to give his full time to our congregation. Around that time a new church, built of logs, was dedicated to the service of the Lord. Previously the Lutheran people had met in a small building in town. But the membership had greatly increased and larger quarters were needed. As early as 1853 Messrs. Christian Auch, Godfrey Beck and Fred Schilling had donated six acres of land as building sites for church and school and parsonage, and another acre for a cemetery. On this site the congregation erected the log church mentioned above and dedicated it March 4, 1855.

In the same year our congregation joined the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states. Rev. Auch had become a member of the synod in 1847, the year of its foundation at Chicago. Rev. Auch joined after he had severed his connections with Rev. Schmidt of Ann Arbor.

The beginning of our congregation had thus been made. Those first settlers encountered difficulties and endured hardships which we of a later generation can hardly imagine. Most of them arrived here without funds. They did not have to starve exactly. There was an abundance of fish and game. The maples furnished sugar aplenty. And yet it frequently happened that the settlers did not see any bread on their tables for weeks, and had to subsist on potatoes and cucumbers. It is needless to say that there were no highways, as we know them, not even decent ordinary mud roads. Where we now glide along in comfortable automobiles, at the rate of 30 or more miles per hour, these pioneers had to trudge along some narrow winding Indian trails, sometimes jumping from one log to another, in order to keep their feet dry. Horse and buggy would have been useless, there being no road to drive them on. Of railroads they knew not in this part of the state. The one outlet was the Bay of Saginaw. But transportation was very irregular, no fixed schedule being maintained. It happened at times that the head of the household would carry home a bag of flour from Saginaw, or Vassar, or even from Flint, and would, on the way, very often wade in water up to his knees, or at other times balance himself on fallen trees. During the warmer part of the year mosquitoes were a terrible plague.

And yet those pioneers bore their hardships with Christian courage. They were probably more satisfied in their daily lives than we are now. Since all of them were poor, there was no room for rivalry and jealousy, which often endanger the peace of more prosperous communities. There was amongst them neighborliness and sympathy and a cheerful willingness to share the burdens of others.

In the congregation itself, there was steady growth and progress. In the year 1867, Rev. Geo. Speckhard was installed as successor to Rev. Auch. At that time the congregation numbered 86 voting members and 110 children attended our parochial school. No wonder that the first church built of logs, had become too small, though it had at one time been enlarged. On the 31st day of October, 1872, it was resolved to build a new church. The cornerstone was laid on the 21st day of July, 1873, Rev. Speckhard officiating. This was one of his last official acts at this place, because a month later he moved to Morris or North Detroit, where he took charge of our School for the Deaf. On the 19th day of October, 1873, Rev. J. L. Hahn was installed as his successor. The congregation now numbered 568 souls and 114 voting members. Shortly after Rev. Hahn's arrival, on the 16th day of November, the new church was dedicated. Rev. Hahn served this congregation till June, 1891. In that year he accepted a call to Lennox, Mich. Rev. C. J. Umbach was chosen as his successor and installed on the 29th of November, 1891.

As early as 1876, members formerly belonging to the Sebewaing church had, with the consent of the mother church, organized congregations at Unionville and at Kilmanagh. They were being served by the Sebewaing pastor. This lasted till 1883. In that year both churches called pastors of their own. Caseville was also served from Sebewaing for a time, but later on united with Kilmanagh. Rev. Umbach served Immanuel Church faithfully for almost 27 years. He died in February, 1918. Rev. G. F. L. List of Detroit was called as his successor. He was installed on the 4th of August in the same year.

Sebewaing, Michigan

The township of Sebewaing is situated in the South-West corner of Huron County on Saginaw Bay and contains the village of Sebewaing and the hamlet of Kilmanagh. This township was organized Feb. 12, 1853. Prior to this it was attached for judicial purposes to Tuscola County under the name of Auchville, Frederick Schilling was the first supervisor. Mr. Schilling, his father, mother and one sister were taken and sold as slaves when they first came to America. Their bondage continued 18 months and they had difficulty in getting their freedom. They finally escaped from Pennsylvania, going to New York. They made their way by stealth, begging food and passing three days of the time without food of any kind.

The first white man to reach what is now the town of Sebewaing was J. J. Auch, who came to preach to the Indians. He found one log house belonging to a half breed named Chas. Rodd. Mr. Auch with the aid of these Indian allies constructed the second house of logs in 1845. He labored among these children of the forest seven years. In 1849 his brother followed him and that same year John Gettel, Frederick Zeigler, John Zeigler and John Gruenbeck entered the county. In 1851 Gottfried Beck, Frederick Schilling, C. Auch and families came from Ann Arbor and were landed with much difficulty on Lone Tree Island at the mouth of the Du Fill River. This island has since been washed away.

Through the efforts of Mr. Auch the Indians were induced to carry them to the main land in a leaky canoe. They were three weeks on the island which tells part of the story of the privations and hardships they endured before finally reaching the site of their future homes. These pioneers built at first but one log house which sheltered the entire population of 45 men, women and children. They procured their supplies from Saginaw by means of small boats and during this period the mail was brought from Hampton (now Bay City) occasionally. Other pioneers who came there were Christian Bach, Jacob Streiter, Peter Schairer, Mr. Volz, Mr. Ruehle, John Mullerweiss, Jacob Roller, Martin and John Gremmel, Martin and Fred Krouse and Mr. Bauer. In the family of Mr. Volz there were 13 children. His youngest son John was born here in 1853.

The village was named Sebewaing (in the Chippewa language, a river nearby). The river gradually taking the same name, although on the early maps it is called Du Fill (in French, Thread river). It was very winding and crooked in its course but navigable for small boats for about one, mile. At the session of legislature during the winters of '62-'63 Richard Winsor obtained a grant from the state of five sections of state swamp lands to be appropriated toward laying a channel running as near straight as practicable through the marsh and bar at or near the mouth of the river so that its waters might empty directly into the bay instead of overflowing the valuable lands lying in its immediate vicinity. In addition to the above grant the business men of the village, together with the farmers at the annual township meeting raised by subscription nearly $4,000 for the same purpose.

The first school was taught by Rev. J. J. Auch in 1854. It was attached to the Lutheran church, of which Mr. Auch was pastor. He had about a dozen pupils in all. The first marriage was that of John Gruenbeck and Margaret Schmidt. The first child born was Mary, daughter of Frederick Schmidt. Many hardships were endured by the founders of what is today some of the finest homes in the county. There were the mosquitoes who never seemed to rest during the summer season, the swampy land, the lack of food other than potatoes, and last but by no means least the ague in all its varied forms. With it one could be in Iceland in the morning and in the torrid zone by midday. No person escaped the clutches of this disease very long. All these things today are but memories of the past and the children and grand-children of these hardy pioneers are enjoying the fruits of their labors.

In 1866 the principal men of the village were Jacob Kunding, John C. Liken, John Mullerweiss, Albert Irion, Eustus Sert and Henry Lintner. There were two stores, two hotels, grist mill, saw mill, cooper shop, large stave mill, blacksmith, wagon ' shoe and tailor shops, school house and church. The various firms were shipping large quantities of oak staves, oak timber, black ash hoops" cord wood and all kinds of produce to outside markets at this date. The timber of this township was mixed beech, oak, black and white ash prevailing. There was also some maple. The land is mostly level with a strip of sand on the shores of the bay. The richest soil being in the center of the township. The land drained easily into the Saginaw Bay and the Sebewaing River with its three tributaries.

We cannot conclude the history of Sebewaing without speaking of John C. Liken, whose life history is so closely interwoven with that of the town, Mr. Liken was a cooper by trade. Coming to Sebewaing in 1865 he at once began that branch of business in connection with his other interests; He shipped large quantities of white oak staves to Germany. He built two saw mills and four stave mills, employing over 200 men. In 1871+ he erected a fine brick block where you could buy anything from drugs to dry goods. He also had branch stores at Bay Port, Kilmanagh and at Unionville in Tuscola County. He owned over 1,000 acres of land in Huron County and 500 in Tuscola County. He had a prosperous business in Sebewaing up to the date of his death in 1920.

Notes for Henry Neumann:

Henry Neuman, Supervisor of Sebewaing Township, and farmer on section 21, was born in Prussia, August 7, 1839. Gottlob and Rosana (Weisbrod) Neuman, his parents, were natives of Prussia and emigrated to the United States in 1855, and located in Sebewaing Town. Mr. Neuman, Sr., died August 22, 1883. Mrs. Neuman died July 15, 1876, in Sebewaing Township. Mr. Henry Neuman learned the trade of a cooper in his native country, and he was occupied in that business until he came to the United States. His father pre-empted 80 acres of land in Sebewaing Township, on which he assisted until he was 19 years of age. At that age he became a sailor on Saginaw Bay, and passed the sailing seasons of four years in that vocation, spending the winters in the woods. He was then employed on his father's farm until 1863, when he was drafted into the military service of the United States. He was assigned to the Second Mich. Cav., and served until the close of the war, when he returned to Sebewaing.

In 1860 he entered a claim of 40 acres of swamp land and brought 40 acres additional at $1.25 per acre. He cleared 15 acres, sold out and bought 80 acres on which he settled permanently in the fall of 1869. He now owns 133 acres in Sebewaing and Brookfield Townships, and has 45 acres in good cultivation. In political belief and connection Mr. Neuman is a Republican. He has held the offices of Drain and Highway Commissioner and Treasurer, and in the spring of 1883 was elected Supervisor, receiving a reelection to the latter position in 1884.

He was married November 26, 1868, to Mary D. Beck, and they have had six children,—Louisa M., Frederick, Adolph, Lina M., Ida S., Bruno H. and Bertha. The first-born child died before she was two years old. Mrs. Neuman was born October 20, 1845, at Ann Arbor Michigan. Her parents, Gottfried and Mary Beck, were born respectively in Germany and Maryland, and settled in Sebewaing Township in 1851. Mr. and Mrs. Neuman are members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Jacob Laubengayer. Among the leading business men of Ann Arbor, the subject of this sketch takes a prominent place, having from small beginnings reached his present strong, financial position, through hard work, perseverance and pluck. He was born in Scio Township, this county, July 13, 1840. His parents, John G. and Barbara (Kock) Laubengayer, were both natives of Germany, having been born in Wittenberg. They emigrated to the United States in 1832, locating at once in Scio Township upon a farm, which Mr. Laubengayer cleared and put on some good buildings proving a successful farmer until his death, which took place in 1868 in his sixty-second year. His wife is still living at present making her home in Ann Arbor and is now in her seventy-third year. They were the parents of three sons, Jacob, our subject; John G. residing in Philadelphia in the dry-goods business and Henry a resident of Ann Arbor.

Jacob, the subject of our sketch was educated in the district schools, receiving such advantages as one can from that source; he worked on the farm until his twentieth year, when he entered the employment of Katz & Kenchley, butchers, and remained with them for about four years, when he left them and worked for Mr. Coly for one year. Feeling desirous of making a change he went to Cleveland, Ohio, remaining there however only one year which he spent in Schots Packing House. He was not satisfied there, however, and returned to Ann Arbor, where he entered into business on his own account, starting a market on Huron Street remaining there six years in partnership with William Rayer, under the firm name of Rayer & Laubengayer. This partnership lasted six years when it was dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Laubengayer then started a market at his present stand at No. 55 South Main Street. He has a fine brick storeroom, 18x65 feet in dimensions. Mr. Laubengayer keeps a first-class stock of meats, buying them from the farmers of this county, packing all of his own meats, and has all the latest appliances necessary for conducting a first-class meat-market successfully.

The gentleman of whom we write this life record was married in 1868 to Miss Mary Luick, daughter of David Luick. She was born in this county. Her parents were formerly from Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Laubengayer have but one child, Olga B. who is a graduate in the High School, and in politics Mr. Laubengayer is a Democrat. They have a comfortable residence in the rear of the market.

Notes for Emanuel M. Luick:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Emanuel Luick is a member of the firm of Luick Bros., (Gottlob and Emanuel) manufacturers of sash, doors and blinds, their place of business being on the corner of North and Fifth Avenues, Ann Arbor. Our subject was born in Washtenaw County, April 1, 1844, and is the fourth of twelve children. His parents were David and Barbara (Beck) Luick, both of whom are natives of Germany, emigrating to the United States in 1839, and locating upon a farm in Washtenaw County. Mr. Luick was a most successful farmer until his death, which occurred in 1872, his wife preceding him to the better land in 1856.

Our subject, Emanuel Luick, passed his boyhood on the farm, having such school advantages as were offered to the average farmer boy of that time. At the age of eighteen he learned the trade of a carpenter, which he followed for some years, until he became thoroughly acquainted with the branches of the business. He formed a partnership with his brother Gottlob under the firm name of Luick Bros., and started a planing mill, which partnership is still in existence. The brothers first started on a small scale, doing all the work themselves, but as business increased they enlarged the capacity of the mill and now have one of the most substantial industries of Ann Arbor, turning off each 3 ear a large amount of business. The main building is a two-story brick structure which was erected in 1874. They employ a large number of men, and the machinery is driven by a forty horsepower engine. Their business is centrally located in the best part of the city near the Michigan Central depot.

In 1874 Mr. Luick was married to Miss Lora Kalenbach, the daughter of Gottlob Kalenbach, of Fredonia, this county. Her parents were both natives of Germany, and were among the early settlers of Washtenaw County, to whom the county is so much indebted for its present thrift and growth. Mr. and Mrs. Luick have four children—Olive L., Albert C, Malinda and Walter. Mr. Luick is one of the stockholders of the Piano and Organ Manufactory, and is also a stockholder and director in the Vinegar and Fruit Works. In politics he is a Democrat. In the very pleasant home with good surroundings at No. 28 East Liberty Street, Mr. and Mrs. Luick take delight in dispensing hospitality to their many friends in the city.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Luick Bros., proprietors planing mill, and sash, door and blind factory, Ann Arbor, transact a large and increasing business in the above line. As the name implies, they are of German descent. They were born in Michigan, Emanuel in 1844, and Gottlieb in 1846. They were educated in Lima Twp., and learned the carpenter and joiner's trade. They have built up a lucrative business by honesty and integrity.

Notes for Gottlieb (Gottlob) Luick:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Gottlob Luick, a leading representative of the productive industries of Ann Arbor whose efforts as a private citizen and public official have contributed in substantial measure to the development and benefit of the city, is a native son of Washtenaw County, his birth having occurred in Lima Township on the 27th of March, 1846. His father, David Luick, came with his wife from Wurtemberg, Germany, to America in the year 1831 and, making his way at once to Washtenaw County, settled upon a farm in Lima Township, devoting his remaining days to agricultural pursuits. He died in the year 1872, while his wife, who bore the maiden name of Katherine Beck, passed away in 1860. In their family were twelve children, as follows: Andrew and Dorothy, both deceased; Mrs. Eliza Stark, a widow residing in Ann Arbor; Godfrey, a farmer living in Lima township; Jacob, deceased; David J., who follows agricultural pursuits in Lima township; Katherine, living in Isabella county, Michigan; Mary, the wife of Jacob Laubengayer, of Ann Arbor; Emanuel, who is in the mill with his brother; Gottlob; one who died unnamed at birth; and Anna, who is living in. Huron County, Michigan.

Gottlob Luick began his education in the public schools of his native township, wherein he continued his studies until thirteen years of age, when he put aside his text-books and entered business life, learning the carpenter's trade. When he had mastered the principles of the builder's art he joined his brother Emanuel as a contractor and builder of Lima, whence he removed to Ann Arbor in 1872. The following year he established a large planing mill and is still extensively engaged in the manufacture of lumber, employing many men in his big plant and lumberyards. The volume of business transacted by the company each year makes the enterprise one of much value to the city and the reputation which the house sustains is an unassailable one. Mr. Luick's business ability and resourceful purpose have caused his aid to be sought in the control of other commercial and industrial enterprises and he is now the vice president and one of the directors of the Ann Arbor Organ Company, a leading industrial concern of this city, and a stockholder in the famous Ypsilanti Underwear Company. His labors have been discerningly directed along well defined lines and have resulted in the acquirement of success so gratifying and extensive as to entitle him to rank with the "captains of industry" in his native county.

Active and influential in the public life of the city, Mr. Luick as the candidate of the Democratic Party has been elected to a number of offices. He served for four years as alderman of this city and was one term president and one term mayor, giving a businesslike and progressive administration, in which he has closely studied methods of economy, reform and improvement. His only son, Oscar, was city treasurer of Ann Arbor. He is a busy man, yet ready to pause in the midst of business duties to perform a personal service. He is wholly worthy of the respect that is everywhere tendered him and his name is synonymous with honorable dealing and with all that is elevating and beneficial to the city and the individual. His rank in Masonic circles is high as is indicated by the fact that he is now affiliated with the Mystic Shrine. He has a host of warm friends, while his influence in political, industrial and commercial life makes him one of the foremost residents of Ann Arbor.

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

G. LUICK is a member of the firm of Luick & Bros., large manufacturers of doors, sash, blinds, and dealers in all kinds of building material. The business was established in the year 1873 on its present site, on the corner of North and Fifth Streets. They have a large business, and patrons not only from the city but from the neighboring towns, and employ from eight to ten men constantly. Besides the costly and expensive machinery which is owned by the firm for planing, they have a lathe which turns wood ten feet in length, and consequently for turned pieces used in heavy building they are equipped to do the best work. The engine that is employed in the factory of the steam planing mill is of sixty-horse power.

Mr. Luick was born in Washtenaw County, March 27, 1846. He is a son of David and Catherine (Beck) Luick, both of whom were natives of Wittenberg, Germany. They emigrated to America in 1833 and settled in Lima Township, this county, on a farm where the father of our subject carried on a general agricultural business that included stock-raising to a considerable extent. The father was an honest and hard-working man and a loyal citizen of his adopted country. He died in 1872, when in his sixty-ninth year. His wife died in 1860. They were the parents of twelve children, having had seven sons and five daughters, ten of whom are still living.

Our subject is the youngest son of his parents. He spent his boyhood days on the home farm and during that time attended a district school. He worked on the farm until eighteen years of age and then learned the carpenter's trade, at which he served a regular apprenticeship for three years.

He worked at his trade and as a farmer in partnership with his brother, Emanuel Luick, until 1868. They continued till 1873, when they launched into their present business upon rather a small scale. So great has their success been, however, that they now use a fine brick building 62x80 feet in dimensions and two stories in height. They here turn out work of very superior character, believing it to be unworthy their reputation to do cheap and unsatisfactory work.

In 1873 Mr. Luick was married to Miss Julia Rupff, of Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. Luick are the parents of one son, Oscar D. He was educated in the schools of this city, finishing at the High School, and is now the able assistant of his father in the planing mill. Our subject has served as Alderman twice and is a Democrat. He is President of the Ann Arbor Savings and Loan Association. In connection with the other enterprises in which he is interested, he is one of the directors of the Piano and Organ Company of this city, and a director of the Ann Arbor Fruit and Vinegar Company. His home is at No. 21 Williams Street and there he enjoys all the comforts of true home life.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Luick Bros., proprietors planing mill, and sash, door and blind factory, Ann Arbor, transact a large and increasing business in the above line. As the name implies, they are of German descent. They were born in Michigan, Emanuel in 1844, and Gottlieb in 1846. They were educated in Lima Twp., and learned the carpenter and joiner's trade. They have built up a lucrative business by honesty and integrity.

Gottlob Luick, 90 years of age, a former mayor of Ann Arbor, died Thursday night, November 5, 1936, at his home in that city. He was a native of this Scio Township, where he was born March 27, 1846, the son of David and Catherine Luick. His parents came from Germany in 1833. Mr. Luick attended the rural schools until the age of 13, when he began to learn the carpenter's trade. With his brother Emanuel he formed a contracting and building firm in Lima which later moved to Ann Arbor. Mr. Luick retired in 1925, his son, Oscar, taking over the business. He was alderman of Ann Arbor for four years, president of the city council, and served two years as mayor. A plaque on a boulder, at the site of the open in recognition of his financial aid in securing the market for the city. A life-long Democrat, Mr. Luick had voted at every election until the last, even though he had to go to the polls in a wheel chair.

Of a family of 12 children, Mrs. Christina Schilling of Saginaw survives. His wife formerly Miss Julia Rupff, and their son, Oscar, died, several years ago.

Sunday afternoon, with interment in Forest Hill Cemetery. Relatives from Chelsea, who attended the funeral, were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Luick, Mr. and Mrs. David Beach and sons, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. . . . and Mrs. Leigh Luick, Mr. and Mrs. William Luick, Mrs. Anna Paul and Mrs. W. G. Lewick.

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke

Publishing Co., 1906:

J. Gottfried Beck, deceased, was a representative of the old Beck family of Scio Township and was born in that township March 18, 1839, his parents being Jacob and Catherine (Beck) Beck. The father with his parents and the other members of the family emigrated to America about 1832 and made their way direct to Washtenaw county, where the grandfather of our subject purchased a farm lying in Scio township. It was all covered with timber which he cleared away and after preparing the land for the plow he engaged in general agricultural pursuits up to the time of his death. His son Jacob afterward took charge of the home farm and was thus actively identified with general agricultural pursuits in Scio Township for many years. Eventually, however, he sold the farm to his son Gottfried and removed to the city of Ann Arbor, where he lived retired. He purchased twenty acres of land which was then at the edge of the city but is now on west Liberty Street. There he built a large brick residence making it his home until the time of his demise, his wife also passing away there. While residing in Ann Arbor he had no business cares but enjoyed the rest which he had truly earned and richly deserved.

J. Gottfried Beck pursued his education in the country schools of Scio Township and during the periods of vacation assisted in the labors of the home farm, early becoming familiar with the duties of field and meadow. He continued to assist his father until the latter's removal to Ann Arbor, when Mr. Beck, of this review, purchased the old homestead. He had been married to Miss Mary Dorothea Laubengayer, a native of this county and a (laughter of John U. and Barbara (Hess) Laubengayer, both natives of Germany, whence they came to America about 1832, settling in Freedom Township, this county. Here the father engaged in farming for a few years, after which he took up his abode in Scio Township, where he carried on general agricultural pursuits until his death. His wife also died on that place. Mr. and Mrs. Beck became the parents of six children, but only two are now living: Armenia, the wife of Joseph Burkhardt, a farmer residing in Lodi Township, this county; and Otilie, who has always made her home with her mother. Those deceased are: Herman Jacob, Annie Matilda, John Oscar David and Martha Dorothea. After his marriage Mr. Beck resided upon the old homestead in Scio Township and carried on the work of field and meadow. He owned a large farm there which he brought to a high state of cultivation, so that he annually' harvested good crops. He also owned a threshing machine which he operated throughout the county, doing a good business in that line. He continued upon the home farm until his death, passing away on the 19th of April, 1889, in the house in which he was born.

He lived an upright, honorable life characterized by activity, industry and integrity and those who knew him respected him for his genuine worth. He held several minor township offices in Scio Township and was a democrat in politics. His religious faith was indicated by his membership in the German Lutheran Church of Scio Township and his widow and daughter now belong to the German Lutheran church in Ann Arbor. Both the Beck and Laubengayer families are well known among the pioneer German residents of Washtenaw County. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Beck resided upon the farm for a few years but in 1896 sold that property and removed to Ann Arbor, building her present residence at No. 532 South First Street, where she and her daughter now make their home.

Notes for Karl Ehrhardt (Charles Earhardt) Stollsteimer:

Ann Arbor - Four men were injured, three seriously, in a crash tonight Nov. 10, 1931 on the Pleasant Lake Road, nine miles southwest of Ann Arbor, when cars driven by Julius Fritz, Route 2, Saline, and Manuel Stollsteimer, of Pittsfield, collided. Fritz, 59 years old; Charles Stollsteimer, 58, a passenger in Fritz's car, and Fred Gutekunst, 55, a passenger in Manuel Stollsteimer's machine, were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, while Manuel Stollsteimer was hurried to a physician in Saline. It was said at the hospital that Gutekunst and Charles Stollsteimer are suffering from possible skull fractures and the latter has a fractured knee. Mr. Fritz sustained lacerations and chest injuries. Deputies said Manuel Stollsteimer, coming toward Ann Arbor, was on the right side of the road, but were unable to account for Fritz's being on the wrong side. Manuel and Charles Stollsteimer are unrelated.

Ann Arbor, Nov. 11, 1931 - Three men were in St Joseph's hospital here today, two with possible skull fractures, as a result of the crash last night between automobiles driven by Julius Fritz, Saline, and Manuel Stollsteimer, of Pittsfield. Notes for Johann Friedrich Stierle:

Ann Arbor Argus-Democrat Newspaper, November 10, 1899:

The death of John Frederick Stierle, father of Herman Stierle, a clerk with Mack & Company, occurred last evening at 11 o'clock. He had been ailing only a little over a week. The funeral services will be held at his late residence in Saline Township Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Stierle was one of the respected, prosperous farmers of Saline Township. His amiable, hospitable disposition made him the friend of everyone. Many will miss his kindly face, which was often seen in Ann Arbor and Saline. He was born Unteraichen, Ober Amt Stuttgart, Wurtemberg. With his parents, for brothers and sisters, he removed to Washtenaw County in 1848, settling in Saline Township. On August 28, 1862, he married Miss Maria Zahn, the ceremony being performed by the late Rev. Frederick Schmid, in Ann Arbor. His widow and four children of seven, with which their union was blessed, survive him. They are Mrs. Ida Burkhardt, Frederick, Herman and William Stierle. Charles Stierle, of Freedom, a brother, and Mrs. Regena Stollsteimer, of Lodi, a sister, also survives. The deceased and his wife resided 23 years on the farm on which he died.

Notes for Erhard Theodore (Aaron) Alber:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Erhard Theodore Alber, the senior partner of the firm of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel, is a native son of Washtenaw County and in his business career has displayed the enterprise which has been the dominant factor in the up building of the great Middle West. He was born in Lodi Township on the 25th of August, 1866. His father, John George Alber, became a resident of this county when eighteen years of age and settled upon a farm in Lodi Township, where for many years he was identified with general agricultural pursuits. At the time of his arrival this was largely an unsettled district in which the work of improvement and progress had scarcely been begun and he entered from the government a claim of eighty acres, to which he has since added as his financial resources have increased until he is now the owner of a valuable farm of one hundred and thirty-six acres, which under his careful supervision and cultivation has become very productive. In religious faith a Lutheran, he is an active worker in the church, doing all in his power to promote its growth and extend its influence. In his political allegiance he is a democrat. He married Miss Marguerita Metzger, who died in 1899, leaving seven children, as follows: Charles Michael, a resident farmer of Saline, Michigan; John George, who also makes his home at Saline; John August, a contractor residing in Ann Arbor; Fred Erhard, who is living in Perry, Lodi Township; William Henry, who is engaged in general farming near Saline; and Emanuel Gottlob, who is engaged in painting at Saline.

Erhard T. Alber, the other member of the family, was reared upon the old homestead farm in the usual manner of lads of the period and when about six years of age he began his education in the district schools of his native township. He pursued his studies through the winter months and in the summer seasons worked upon the home farm until about twenty years of age, when thinking that he would find other occupation more congenial he left the parental roof and began learning the carpenter's trade. Subsequently he spent five years in the employ of the Ann Arbor Railroad Company, working in the line of his trade and on the expiration of that period he began contracting and building on his own account, in which he continued for five years. In 1891 he took up his abode in Ann Arbor and he is now engaged in the hotel business as a partner of Nathan Horning, under the firm style of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel. They conduct a strictly modern hostelry of twenty-five rooms heated with steam and there is a barber shop and buffet in connection. Mr. Alber is popular with the patrons of the hotel and receives a liberal patronage from the traveling public. Everything possible is done for the comfort and convenience of the guests and the hotel is conducted along the most modern lines, so that it would be a credit to a city of much larger size than Ann Arbor.

In the year of his removal here Mr. Alber was married to Miss Emma K. Horning, who was born in Pittsfield Township. A Mason, he belongs to Fraternity lodge, No. 262, A. F. & A. M. and is in hearty sympathy with the principles of the craft. His political allegiance is given to the Republican Party and he is a member of the Zion Lutheran church. His entire life has been passed in the county of his nativity and his deep interest in its welfare is manifest in the public spirited support which he gives to various measures for the general good. He is recognized as a man of good business qualifications, of keen foresight and unfaltering enterprise and his success is the merited reward of his persistent labor.

Oct. 24, 1973 - Lysock View's newest residents are believed to be the first set of twins to have lived at the county operated home. They are 92-year-old sisters, Lura May McClarin and Mrs. Lella May Marquardt, formerly of the 2200 block of West Fourth Street Mrs. Marquardt is the widow of William Marquardt. The sisters have lived together for many years. An official at Lysock said the sisters are the "pets of the place" with other guests. They enjoy visiting other resident and took their favorite chairs to the home. The official also commented that the sisters lived for many years with another sister, Ida, who died at the age of 97. Currently, there is one way to easily tell the twins apart Miss McClarin's right arm is in a cast as a result of a fall last July. Both are former silk mill workers. They were born in Salladasburg on May 15, 1881, daughters of Robert and Ella Thomas McClarin. They have no close relatives.

The regiment remained in Memphis until in January, 1865, when it was ordered to New Orleans, where it was encamped for some time on the old battlefield eight miles below the city. It next took passage for Mobile and, shortly after its arrival there, joined General Canby's army. The regiment was now a part of the Third Brigade, Third Division of the Sixteenth Army Corps, and its brigade was under the command of its colonel, James L. Geddes, while the regiment was commanded by Lieut. Col. W. B. Bell. The maneuvers leading up to the beginning of the siege of Spanish Fort were participated in by the Eighth Iowa; and in the siege operations, lasting from March 27th until April 8, 1865, when the assault was made and the fort captured, the regiment bore a most conspicuous part and suffered heavy loss. Lieutenant Colonel Bell gives a graphic account of the terrific fighting during the assault, and the desperate resistance made by the enemy. After describing in detail the passage of his regiment through an almost impassable swamp, during which it was under a heavy fire from the enemy, he says:

As soon as the regiment gained the crest of the hill, where our skirmishers were, the fight commenced in full force, but of such a character that it is difficult to describe. The regiment moved by the right flank in rear of the enemy's rifle pits, and carried them for a distance of 500 yards, either killing, wounding, or capturing the entire force of the enemy occupying the same. One thing that was very much in our favor was, the enemy's works, from their extreme left for a considerable distance up, consisted of a series of small pits, without direct connection with each other. This enabled us to attack them in detail, and we had carried a considerably portion of their works before their main force was aware that we had turned their left. We here witnessed the spectacle of dying in the last ditch, as quite a number of the rebels refused to surrender, and were shot in their ditches, and on the other hand, quite a number of them who were taken prisoners ought, in justice to our men, to have been killed, as they would first fire at our men after being ordered to surrender, then throw up both hands and surrender. * * * Soon after this, Colonel Geddes came up and directed me to place my command outside the enemy's works, and—facing toward them, and using them for breastworks—to throw out a company as skirmishers to my right and front, which orders were promptly complied with. * * * Soon after this, Captain Kettenring, of my command, in charge of the skirmish line, reported the enemy advancing in heavy column. They advanced within thirty or forty yards of us, calling out, "We surrender," and then fired on us. When they got within twenty-five yards of us, I ordered my command to fire and fix bayonets, which was done with a will. The enemy broke and ran, but soon after rallied and returned, and when within fifty yards of us halted. I ordered two companies to give them a volley, which caused them to break, and we saw them no more. Soon after this Colonel Geddes returned, formed his brigade and marched it through the fort, and to the bay beyond, after which, by his directions, I moved my command to camp. I claim for my regiment the honor of making the attack, and of being the only regiment that engaged the enemy inside of his works, also of capturing three stands of colors, five pieces of artillery, and four hundred and fifty prisoners, seven of them commissioned officers. * * *

Where all do their duty it is a difficult and delicate matter to make any discrimination. The several companies of the regiment were commanded by the following officers: Company A, Captain Muhs; Company B, Captain Kettenring; Company E, Lieutenant Clark; Company F, Lieutenant Harper; Company G, Lieutenant Vineyard; Company H, Lieutenant Bell; Company I, Sergeant Taylor; Company K, Captain Weeks. I would respectfully present to the favorable notice of the Colonel commanding brigade, the following named officers: Capt. Henry Muhs, who was conspicuous for his coolness while in command of the skirmish line; Lieut. Henn^A Vineyard, commanding Company G, in skirmish line, who was wounded in the arm early in the engagement, but continued in command of his company, until he received a wound which broke his leg, and will probably prove fatal; Captain Weeks, who was conspicuous for his bravery throughout the engagement; Captain Kettenring, who was severely wounded while bravely leading his company; Lieutenant Gardiner, who took command of his company after Captain Kettenring was wounded, and led it through the engagement with ability, and Sergeant Betz, Company G, who took command of his company after Lieutenant Vineyard was wounded, and handled it well. I am under obligations to Adjutant Marsden for valuable assistance rendered me in communicating instructions to the command. In addition to the names above mentioned, many enlisted men deserve honorable mention, but they are so numerous that it would make this report too voluminous.

Notes for Herman Zimmerly:

Akron, Ohio Obituary January 10, 1954

Services for Herman Zimmerly, 85, one of Akron's early meat dealers and founder of the Zimmerly Bros. meat market, will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday in the Billow Chapel. The Rev. Reuben J. Schorer will officiate. Burial will be in Mt. Peace Cemetery. Friends may call at the chapel after 4:30 today. Mr. Zimmerly, a native of Switzerland, who learned the meat business as a young man in Akron, died Saturday in Barberton Citizens Hospital after a short illness.

He came to Akron from the "land of clocks and cheese," as he used to say, in 1881 and soon went to work in a butcher shop on Sherman Street. The owner was a Swiss who made the first frankfurters sold in Akron. Working under this man Mr. Zimmerly learned the mechanics of the meat business. When he was offered a partnership, he refused, knowing he wanted to go into business with his brothers, John, Jacob and Gottlieb. Mr.

Zimmerly, youngest of the brothers, used to explain: "I wanted to work with my brothers because my mother told us that if you put four match sticks together you can't break them as easily as you can break a single stick."

The year 1894 marked the opening of the Zimmerly meat market at Main and Center Streets. Herman, youngest of six brothers, actually started the business. He was the last of the brothers to die. Besides John, Jacob, Gottlieb and Herman, there were Fred and Sam. The brothers peddled frankfurters and sausages by horse and wagon at first. Herman and several of his brothers made sausages in the basement of a house at Main and Center streets.

Their business grew and they built a packing house on the outskirts of town in 1904 - the "outskirts" now being Kenmore District. John ran the office, Jacob managed the packing house, Gottlieb handled the retail side of the business and Herman bought the cattle. The brothers moved the store in 1920 out to the site of the packing house because of the rapid expansion of business in the present heart of the city. Six years ago the two remaining Zimmerly brothers, Herman and Gottlieb, sold the business that had been in existence 53 years.

Herman, who lived at 4332 Manchester Rd, Portage Lakes, was a member of the Swiss Society, Akron Liedertafel and Turner Club and was an honorary member of the Kiwanis Club. Mr. Zimmerly's wife, Emma died 10 year ago. He leaves three nieces, Ida Zimmerly and Mrs. T. B. Tomkinson of Akron and Mr. G. S. Work of Auburndale, Florida and a nephew, Dr. J. F. Planz of Akron.

Burial: Jul 1875, Zion Lutheran Cemetery Valley City, Medina Co, Ohio

Notes for Johann Carl (Charles Jetter) Yetter:

Charles Yetter enlisted for Civil War service as a private, August 21, 1862, at Medina, Ohio (Medina County), August 21, 1862, in Company K of the 103rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiment, for a term of 3 years. Occupation: Shoemaker. He was mustered out May 18, 1865, at Camp Dennison Ohio by Order of the U.S. War Department. His brother, John H. Yetter, also served in Company K, of the 103rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

Charles was born in Liverpool Township, Medina County Ohio and died in what is now Brunswick Hills Township, Medina County Ohio. At the time of his death he lived with his wife and three children at what is now 1925 Marks Road in Brunswick Hills Township, Medina County Ohio. The original farmhouse was severely damaged by a fire in 2009 and by early 2011 it had been razed. The farm had originally consisted of 40 acres, on which were located the house which had been added on to, a large barn, and a smaller storage-type barn-like structure. The woman living on the property in about 1973 was named Carol Miller. The property was for sale then for $80,000.00. The property changed hands and in the 1990s was subdivided twice. The first parcel to the east now has a luxury home with a small private lake and a parcel to the north was developed into a cul-de-sac with access from Marks Road containing about 15 new homes. The property which contained the old farm house and barns was close to Marks Road and the house was even closer to the road. As of May 3, 2011, it is unknown what will become of this property.

Charles was married a first time and had two sons, John and George before his wife died. He then married Magdalena Groll. They actually had four children (William P. Yetter, Anna Yetter, and Minnie Yetter). One child died as an infant.

If is quite possible that the parents of Charles and John H. Yetter are buried in Lot 61. The cemetery records are very unclear if so. If they are neither has a grave stone.

1126. Ludwig Christof (Lewis Miller)⁹ Mueller (Gottfried⁸, Christina Barbara⁷ Steckroth, Johann Georg⁶, Anna Katharina⁵ Kurfess, Katharina⁴ Woelfle, Hans Jerg³ Woelflin, Jacob², Cunrad¹ Woelfle) was born 04 Nov 1844 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 10 Aug 1875 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Fredericka Burkhardt 09 May 1867 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Jacob Burkhardt and Christina Stierlin. She was born 08 Dec 1844 in Oberaichen, Esslingen, Wurtemberg, and died 11 Sep 1916 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Ludwig Christof (Lewis Miller) Mueller:
 History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Lewis Miller (deceased) was born in Scio Township, Washtenaw County, in 1844, and was a son of Godfrey Miller, a native of Wurtemberg, Germany. He married, in Scio Township, Fredericka Burkhardt, who settled in this county in 1848. Mr. Miller became a farmer of prominence in Scio Township, owning at the time of his death 235 acres of valuable land. His widow sold this property in 1880, and at present resides in Ann Arbor, where she owns valuable city property.

Michigan Argus, August 13, 1875:

A shocking tragedy occurred in Scio, six miles and half west of this city on Tuesday night. Ludwig Miller, a farmer of considerable property and of good social standing was murdered in cold blood. The deed was committed by an adopted son only fifteen years of age, who bears the name of George Luman Burkhardt. This lad entered the bed room of Mr. Miller, where he was in bed and asleep with his wife and a young child, and deliberately shot him, causing his almost instantaneous death. The lad had made careful preparations for his deed, sometime in advance, as an extra gun loaded and cocked and standing against a brick oven in the rear of the house, seemed to indicate, he evidently intended to use this if the other failed. An old bookcase or cupboard in a room over the woodshed, in which Mr. Miller kept his powder and shot, and which was securely locked, was found to have been broken into, and a portion of the contents taken. Suspicion early fastened upon him, and when threats were made in his presence he ran away. He was soon caught however and put under arrest. For a long time all efforts to get a confession from him failed, but at length he made a clear breast of the whole matter, and said that he had killed Mr. Miller because he was recently whipped him and since that time he did not like him. He said he had prepared the guns in the evening, and when all were quiet and asleep, between eleven and twelve o'clock, he approached the bed of Mr. Miller, which was plainly seen by the light of a burning lamp in a room adjoining, and saw him lying on his right side and well up on the pillow. He took deliberate aim at his breast and fired. He then replaced the gun beside the other at the brick oven, and returned to his room upstairs. He was afterward on hand when the alarm was given, and ran to one of the neighbors to tell them that Mr. Miller had been struck by lightning.

Mrs. Miller does not know how she was aroused, but when awake, she smelled the burning sleeve of her husband's shirt, which had been ignited by the wad from the gun. Extinguishing this she noticed his unnatural breathing, and tried to arouse him, but failing she thought he must have been struck by lightning and immediately called a hired man from the chamber. He ran to a neighbor to convey this intelligence, but before he had returned the unfortunate man had breathed his last. Not till after this did they learn what was the true cause of his death, as but few drops of blood came from the wound.

On a post mortem examination performed by Dr. Frothingham, it was ascertained that the charge from the gun had entered the breast just below the left shoulder, passed between the second and third ribs, through the two lobes of the left lung, shattered the seventh and eighth ribs and finally lodged within the body.

The hardened youth took the matter of his arrest very coolly, and burst into laughter when the handcuffs were put upon his wrists. On coming to this city he asked of the sheriff what work he would probably have to do in State Prison, and seemed to look forward to it with some degree of pleasure. It is hardly conceivable that so unprovoked and premeditated a deed could have been wrought by the hands of this young boy, who had never wanted for anything that would make him industrious, honest and educated. Mr. Miller had always been very kind to him, using no more chastisement in his training than any father upon his son. He had endeavored to keep him at Sunday school instead of having him roaming in the fields or woods hunting on the Sabbath, and this curb on his vicious spirit had provoked to this horrible deed. The boy was always well clothed, and had plenty of spending money when he needed it; the verdict of all Mr. Miller's neighbors is that he treated him too well.

The earlier history of this boy murderer is as follows: Mrs. Miller's brother a Mr. Burkhardt, shortly before the war married a young French woman. Two sons were the fruits of this union, when the father joined the army, and not long after was killed, leaving his widow with these two children, one of them George something over two years old. Their mother being poor and not caring to be burdened, put them into the County House. One of her husband's relatives, in pity took them to this home and reared them up till George was eight years old. At this time Ludwig Miller was married and George Burkhardt was bound over to him as an adopted son. But alas! for human calculations, the efforts of an honest, hopeful man to reclaim a cast-off child have recoiled upon him, and caused the shedding of his life's blood. The annals of Crime present scarcely anything so repulsive as this horrible murder, and we can hardly feel satisfied with the leniency of justice in the punishment of its perpetrator. It is almost beyond comprehension that a youth of his age could become so hardened as to deliberately shoot his own benefactor. Even the brute creation have more feeling than this!

Mr. Miller, by his death, leaves a wife, two small children and a widowed mother. But they are not without abundant means subsistence, as a farm of 245 acres is left for their support. A large number of wealthy relatives and kind friends stand ready to offer their assistance and sympathy. Mr. Miller was a nephew of Mr. Henry Paul, of this city, and brother of J. G. Miller who died recently and quite suddenly on Detroit Street. He was thirty years of age, and was doing finely in the way of the world's possessions. His funeral will be held at his residence this morning at ten o'clock.

The crime has given the community a shock from which it will not soon recover, and will form one of the darkest chapters in the history of this county, if not the State.

- 2982 i. George Lyman¹⁰ Burkhardt, born 02 Jan 1860 in Michigan; died 07 Jun 1925 in Los Angeles Co, California.

Notes for George Lyman Burkhardt:

Michigan Argus, September 17, 1875:

The boy murderer, Lyman Burkhardt, was brought into court at the opening of the session on Wednesday afternoon, to answer to the charge of the murder he committed. In reply to the question of "guilty or not guilty," he said promptly, "guilty." When asked further by the Court if he knew what pleading guilty meant, he replied that he understood it perfectly well. Again the judge inquired: "Do you really comprehend the enormity of the crime you have committed?" "I do," he calmly answered. His whole bearing and conversation in court were marked by the same cold indifference and heartlessness that have characterized him all along. He was ordered by the judge to be returned to prison to await his formal trial, which by the law of the State must be granted.

Michigan Argus, October 1, 1875 (from Jackson Patriot):

It is hard to think of a boy "fifteen years old and in person for life," but that is the brief history of Lyman Burkhardt, who was brought yesterday from Ann Arbor, to begin the punishment awarding him for the shooting of his foster father, Mr. Miller, in Scio, Washtenaw County, last month. The story of his crime has been told before in this columns and needs no rehearsal at length. At the prison yesterday we sought him out and had some little conversation with him. He is fifteen years old and very slight even for his age. He is dark in complexion with large grey eyes, small mouth, large, irregular teeth and full lips. His expression is far from being brutal or devilish, and in any other place and under circumstances less odious he would be regarded as a handsome boy. To sit and look at him would find it hard to persuade oneself that it is the face of a cold-blooded murderer; but at times as he became excited in telling his story his eyes would flash and there would come into them a look of fierce passion that made one shudder, and which showed that he possessed a large share of latent evil in his composition, and which was enough to inform the observer what sent him there. He told his story briefly but frankly. That he murdered the old man he at once admitted, and said that he did it because he was severely and continually maltreated by Mr. Miller, who took him from his father seven years ago to live with him, his father being very poor.

The boy's actions and demeanor since he committed the crime have been a riddle. He made no attempt to escape and did not seem to realize the probable consequence of his act; he had slaked his revenge and was satisfied. When he first arrived yesterday he manifested the same indifference, or assumption of it, for it is difficult to tell whether he is or is not playing stoic by an effort of will. If he really can realize his situation and future and experiences and emotion he does not care to have it known, for once Saturday it was seen that his eyes were filled with tears, but as soon as he saw he was observed he dashed them away, and refused to say what had moved him. In the afternoon he had evidently been doing some thinking, and was more disposed to look his future in the face. He enters on his life with a feeling of hope and asks us if we did not think he would be let out in six years if he was good. The idea that his whole life must be spent inside alls his mind did not seem able to comprehend, and he was confident that his term would be shortened by some dispensation of Providence. The opinion of nearly every one who has seen him is that his mind is not sound, and that he is mentally unable to comprehend more than vaguely what he has done and what it entails.

It is saddening to talk with or think of this boy convict, with what seems only blankness before him. It is bad enough to think of any man being sentenced to prison for life, but when a mere child, one just at the threshold of life, as it were, is called on to undergo this ordeal it is simply fearful to contemplate.

Notes for August C. Sack:

August C. Sack, 95, of 904 N. Walnut St., died Tuesday night August 12, 1958 at a local hospital, where he had been admitted a few weeks earlier. He had been a resident of Lansing for 51 years. Death was due to the infirmities of old age. Mr. Sack, who marked bis 95th birthday July 2, came to America with his family in a windjammer at the age of 8. Born in Germany in 1863, the son of a French and a German father, he learned to speak three languages, English, German and French. His earlier years in this country were spent in Chesaning, Chicago and Detroit, where he attended school. Mr. Sack was a builder by trade and erected churches and houses in many communities of the area before he retired 30 years ago. He also was employed by the city service department for several years and as a supervisor in the pattern shop of the Olds Motor works. He was the oldest member of the Emanuel First Lutheran church of Lansing. Friends and relatives feted him on his 95th birthday earlier this summer but his greatest thrill of the day was a birthday card sent by air mail from President Eisenhower.

Surviving are the widow, Katherine; three son, Arthur E. of Lansing, Lawrence A. of Detroit and Harold W. of Phoenix, Arizona; a daughter, Mrs. Robert J. Hesse of Warren; nine grand-children; five great-grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Matilda Krauss of Lansing.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Friday at the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel, Rev. Karl Krauss officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery.

Notes for Johann Martin Stabler:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Ingham and Livingston Counties, Michigan. Chapman Bros., Chicago - Biographical Company, 1891.

Martin J. Stabler. The future of our great commonwealth depends upon the stability and integrity of the young people of today, and among those who are contributing to the general progress is the gentleman whose name introduces these paragraphs and whose life thus far has been crowned with success. One of the young and enterprising agriculturists of Lansing Township, Ingham County, his pleasant estate is located on section 7, where he is the fortunate owner of seventy-six acres of fine land. He has embellished his farm with a commodious residence of modern style of architecture, and elegantly furnished with everything that can contribute to the comfort of the household. Mr. Stabler devotes considerable attention to the breeding of stock and has large barns and good stabling, as well as other outbuildings which a progressive farmer now deems essential to the proper management of his estate.

Mr. Stabler is now in the early prime of life, having been born January 28, 1860. His parents. Charles and Barbara (Roller) Stabler, were natives of Germany, and possessed those qualities of thrift and energy which are prominent characteristics of that nation. About the year of 1848 they emigrated to America, and immediately after landing proceeded to Michigan and settled in Ann Arbor. That city then bore but few indications of its present high development and was only a little hamlet in the midst of uncultivated surroundings. After residing there three years the parents removed to Lansing, where Martin J., of this sketch, was born. He is proud to claim the capital city as his birthplace and now ranks among the most influential native-born citizens of Ingham County.

At the age of three years our subject accompanied his parents in their removal to Clinton County, where he was reared to manhood. He received a good education of which he is making practical use, and keeping thoroughly posted upon all events of interest he ranks among the well-informed men of the community. Until he was twenty-four years of age he worked for his father, in the meantime acquiring habits of thrift and prudence. On October 4, 1883, he was happily married to the lady who now gracefully presides over his household. She bore the maiden name of Mary L. Burke and is the daughter of John and Klenora Burke, natives of Germany. In that country Mrs. Stabler was born September 3, 1861, and thence at the age of four years she accompanied her parents to the New World. They sojourned in Ohio until 1872, when they removed to Clinton County, Mich., where they still reside. One child has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Stabler, a daughter, Florence E. who was born May 16, 1887.

Always interested in every movement calculated to advance the general welfare of the county, Mr. Stabler feels that the best interests of the commonwealth are subserved by the Republican Party and his vote and sympathies are usually with the candidates pledged to the principles of that party. Realizing his ability his fellow-citizens have often called upon him to aid in the carrying on of public affairs and these duties he has always discharged to the satisfaction of all. He was Treasurer of Lansing Township two years and was there as elsewhere faithful to the trust reposed in him. He and his amiable wife are members of the German Methodist Church and enjoy the esteem of those who have been associated with them since they first located on section 7.

May 29, 1923 - Martin J. Stabler, 63, of 508 . . .afternoon following a week's illness. Mr. Stabler was born in Lansing, January 28, 1860, and lived here all his life. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. For several years he had followed the occupation of a building contractor.

He leaves a wife, Charlotte B. Stabler, one daughter, Mrs. Fred Hunnell of Lansing and two grandchildren; one brother, Jacob Stabler of Sebawaing, Michigan; and three sisters, Mrs. Gus Wahnes of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Theo. Stoll of Watertown; and Mrs. Herman Roy of Lansing.

Funeral services will be held from the home at 2:00 o'clock, Thursday afternoon. Interment will be at Mt. Hope cemetery.

- 3199 iii. Richard Franklin Rey, born 17 Nov 1898 in Michigan; died 07 Oct 1933 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for Richard Franklin Rey:

Oct. 20, 1933 - Six lives have been lost, five of them directly as a result of construction of the Logan street viaduct, and one apparently an indirect result of the bridge job. Five bridge workers were killed in collapse of a cofferdam when the bridge was being built and Richard F. Rey, city bridge engineer during the construction project, ended his own life recently. It was believed that he had worried over testifying in the case although it was said that he had been cleared-of any blame. The city was represented in the federal court suit by Raudabaugh and Alva M. Cummins, prominent Lansing attorney. The bridge company was represented by the Lansing law firm of Shields, Silsbee, Ballard & Jennings.

Richard F. Rey, 34, former city bridge engineer, committed suicide at his home, 311 West Maple Street, shortly before 11 o'clock Saturday morning Oct. 7, 1933. He took his life with a .12-gauge shotgun, shooting himself in the head. Mr. Rey's act was attributed to the fact that he was due to take the stand in the suit of the Folwell Engineering company against the city. As bridge engineer he designed the Logan Street bridge and grade separation, which were built by this firm. During the construction a cofferdam collapsed, five men losing their lives. Mr. Rey had been at the trial for six weeks, but had not been called to the witness stand. He had, according to Richard Raudabaugh, city attorney, who is handling the case, been cleared of any responsibility or negligence in planning the structure. He was to take the stand Friday, but on Thursday Collins Thornton, employed in the city engineer's office and another witness at the trial, which is being heard in federal court in Detroit, noticed that Rey was not himself and spoke to Mr. Raudabaugh about it. Mr. Raudabaugh said that he went to Rey's room and went over the case with him, and at the conclusion of their talk said that there was nothing to cause the witness to worry. Shortly before noon Friday, however, Rey said that he could not testify during the afternoon, and court was adjourned with Rey due to take the witness stand next Wednesday. He rode home with Mr. Raudabaugh and Mr. Thornton, with Thornton driving, and said that he felt all right when he reached Lansing. He had previously said that he would be able to take the stand when court resumed again. City officials and employees were shocked by the tragedy, as Mr. Rey had long been associated with the city engineer's department. When the staff was reduced some time ago, with no bridge construction planned immediately, he lost his employment with the city, but had been employed recently by the state highway department.

According to Coroner Ray Gorsline Mr. Rey got up Saturday morning, went downstairs to the kitchen, and then returned to his room, where he kept his shotgun and the ammunition for the gun. The sound of the shot soon followed. Mr. Rey was a graduate of Central high school and Michigan State college. Mr. Rey is survived by his father, Herman Rey, and a brother, Clarence, both living at the Maple Street address.

He was born 15 Aug 1850 in Wolfsoelden, Ludwigsburg, Wurtemberg, and died 27 Oct 1908 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Regina (Rachel) Staebler:

It has pleased Almighty God in His divine providence to call from this world Mrs. Regina Gall, nee Stabler. She was born in Freedom Township, Michigan, July 24, 1860. April 29, 1879 she was married to Gottlieb Gall. To this union eight children were born, four sons and four daughters. Since the death of her husband, which occurred in 1908, Mrs. Gall made her home with her children, and during the last two years she leapt house for her son, Otto.

Mrs. Gall was a devoted Christian and a faithful member of St. Paul's Church, and also of the Ladies Aid. After an illness of about six weeks she passed peacefully away January 31, 1920, and because of her Christian faith we have reason to hope she has entered into the rest prepared for the people of God.

The time of her earthly pilgrimage was 59 years, 6 months and 3 days. She leaves to mourn for her four sons, four daughters, seven grandchildren, two brothers and four sisters.

Her trials and her griefs are passed, A blessed end is her's at last. She bore Christ's yoke and did it well. And the she died, she liveth still, well.

Notes for Charlotte Lydia Stabler:

Houston, Texas - Puzzled Harris County officers hunted clues today in the mystery death of Miss Charlotte L. Stabler seventy-one-year-old La Porte woman. The woman's body was found Saturday March 10, 1951 in Clear Lake. An autopsy showed that she died from a brain concussion and not by drowning as first suspected. Justice of the Peace Calder Ewing of La Porte said he wanted more evidence in the case before returning a verdict. The body was found floating face-down about six yards from shore. Miss Stabler's automobile was found nearby, but the keys were missing. Her spectacles and the hearing aid which she habitually wore were found at her home, eight miles away. Friends theorized Miss Stabler could not have driven her car eight miles without her glasses. Capt. Lloyd D. Frazier, who is investigating the death, declined to say whether he thought the death was a murder, but other officers said there was a possibility she was killed at her home and taken to the Lake. Sheriff Buster Kern said a locked safety deposit box in the South Texas National Bank, which he hoped to see opened today, n hold the secret of the death. The dead woman was one of La Port's pioneer citizens.

La Porte, Texas, March 12, 1951 - Foul play was hinted today in the strange death of a 72-year-old La Porte woman who was found in Clear Lake. An autopsy revealed that Miss Charlotte Stabler died of concussion, caused by a blow on her head. The not drowning. Authorities believe she fell against something hard or was hit with a blunt instrument. Justice of the Peace Ewings said he wants more evidence before he returns a verdict. Miss Stabler lived alone at her home in La Porte. Her automobile was found near Clear Lake but her dentures and a $100 check she received in a deal to sell her home were missing.

Baytown, Texas, March 13, 1951 - Averdict of accidental death from unknown causes was found today in the death of Miss Charlotte L. Stabler, 71, whose body was found floating in Clear Lake Saturdaymorning. Justice of the Peace Calder Ewing of La Porte returned the verdict after Miss Stabler's purse was found andhersafe deposit box at a Houston bank was examined by Sheriff C. V. (Buster) Kern. Any suspicions investigators had of foul play disappeared when the purse was foundin the sand near the point where the body was found. In the purse was $147 in cash, proving that she was not killed in a robbery, officers said. Her car was parked on the road near the lake and her keys were in the purse. Also, in the handbag was a key to her safety deposit box which contained a will and several bonds. The will bequeathed $500 each to two cousins in Michigan and left the rest of her estate to Faith Home.

Investigators said Miss Stabler had been seriously ill for a long while. They theorized that shearose early after a sleepless night and sent for a drive. They believe that she stopped he car and suffered a dizzy spell or tripped and fell, striking her head on some posts piled nearby. She probably fell at the edge of the water, and when the tidy came in her body was swept toward the bank, she said. She was seen on her porch by neighbors about 6 a.m., investigators found. They believed she died about an hour later. Funeral services were to be at 2 p.m. today in the La Porte Community Church, with Dr. John Eichorn officiating. Burial will be in Forest Park Cemetery in Houston.

Rev. Horace Cady Wilson of the First Presbyterian Church performed the ceremony. There were no attendants. Miss Leadley wore her afternoon gown of navy-blue crepe meteor silk and a corsage of tilly pink rose buds and stevia. The wedding took place in the sun parlor in the southeast wing of the home and this was made unusually attractive with a setting of palms and ferns. After the ceremony a four-course luncheon was served in the dining room. Deep red roses centered the table and red and white candles in crystal sticks were used in lighting the room. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left for Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, to visit Mr. Wilson's parents.

Notes for Christian Emmanuel Stabler:

Lansing - The city council Monday night June 21, 1948 accepted an invitation from the board of cemetery and public park commissioners to attend a dedication ceremony at Stabler park, three blocks south of Kalamazoo Street on Allen Street, at 1 :30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The park property was given to the city by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stabler. 412 West Ottawa Street, in 1937 as a memorial to their only son, Milburn E. Stabler, who with his two children, was drowned in a motor boat accident in 1931 at Morrison Lake. The gift was made by the Stabler's with the provision that it be developed into a park and that a recreation building be erected on the site, with a tablet dedicated to their son. The Stabler's also recently donated $1,500 and five lots adjoining the park for further development. Mayor Ralph Crego will give the dedication address, and Dr. D. Stanle Coors, pastor of Central Methodist church, will give the invocation. The tablet will be unveiled by Catherine I. Dale, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dale, 152 Chesterfield Parkway, East Lansing, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stabler. The two grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. Stabler will be unable to attend the ceremony, as the one, Robert C. Dale is attending college in Denver, Colorado, and the other, James C., is vacationing in the upper peninsula. Ernest Gibbs, president of the park and cemetery board, will be chairman of the dedication program, and other members of the board will be present.

Lansing - Christian E. Stabler, 95, one of Lansing's early residents and a key figure in the preliminary growth of the city, died Wednesday Jan. 26, 1955 at his home, 413 W. Ottawa St. With the exception of but a few years spent in Minnesota, Mr. Stabler had lived in the Lansing area since he was seven-year-old. He was the founder and senior partner of the C. E. Stabler Coal company, located originally where the Hotel Olds now stands, sad with a brother, Jacob, was one of the city's early real estate dealers.

In 1887 and 1888 he bought and timbered 405 acres of land, the bulk of it in the area now known as Waverly park. In 1892, forced to find larger quarters, he moved the Stabler coal company to 636 E. Michigan Ave.

Later, he sold the Waverly park property and purchased the old Bush farm of 183 acres. He cut the timber, but left enough standing for a park to be built and after sale of the property to J. H. Moores, Francis park and the Lansing Country club were established on the site.

Mr. Stabler retired from the coal and wood business in 1938, leaving it to a son, Milburn, and son-in-law, Clarence Dale, but still remained active in real estate and was treasurer of a company that bought the Cameron farm, east of Holmes St. In 1930, he donated five and a half acres of that property to the city for Stabler park, in memory of his son and two grandsons who had drowned in Morrison Lake.

Mr. Stabler was a member of Central Methodist church and had assisted on its official board for many years. He was a life member of Capitol Lodge No. 66, F. and A. M., Capitol Chapter No. 9, R.A.M., Lansing Commandery No. 25, Knights Templar, and a member of Arbutus Chapter No. 45, O.E.S.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Dale of East Lansing; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel. Rev. Paul Morrison of Central Methodist church officiating. Interment will be in Deepdale cemetery.

Marriage Notes for Christian Stabler and Katharina Eppley:

Lansing - The C. E. Stabler home, 115 North Chestnut Street, was brilliant with flowers Tuesday Nov. 23, 1937 for the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Stabler. All afternoon large floral arrangements containing blooms of every shade of yellow and gold were received from friends, and in the evening about 125 persons called. Mr. and Mrs. Stabler greeted their guests with their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Dale and Mr. Dale. Mrs. Stabler wore a deep blue cut velvet gown and a corsage of yellow rosebuds, and her daughter wore a red velvet gown trimmed in brilliants. Robert and James Dale, grandsons of the honored couple, greeted the guests at the door. Palms formed the background for the bouquets of chrysanthemums of all varieties and roses of golden hues which were placed in the two living rooms and music room. Assisting in these rooms were Mrs. Martin Lather Fox, wearing blue velvet, Mrs. Joseph H. Burton, wearing a red crepe gown trimmed with brilliants, and Mrs. Earl O. Davidson, wearing an Alice blue gown trimmed in white satin.

The dining room table was centered with a spreading bouquet of Garcia, pom-poms, and yellow roses. Presiding at the silver service were Mrs. Carl Richardson and Mrs. Samuel Young who poured from 8 to 9 o'clock and Mrs. Frank Dent and Mrs. George Dean who poured from 9 to 10 o'clock. The buffet was centered with golden Melba chrysanthemums, pom-poms, and roses. A tall bouquet of tiny talisman rosebuds stood near a window. Miss Mina Leadley and Mrs. E. R. Wilson were assisted by Mrs. William C. Peck, Miss Virginia Robinson, Miss Margaret Tower, and Mrs. A. M. Dean. The honored couple received many gifts.

Notes for William Casper Peter:

Largest Family Award Given William C. Peter - Huge Family Gathering Sees Presentation - Of National Honor; Mr. Peter Joins Church - Profession of Christian Faith Before Family

William C. Peter, of Beech Creek Township, father of the largest family in the U. S. according to the records of the National Father's Day Committee, was made an honorary citizen of Lock Haven yesterday. He came from his home, with his family, to be officially congratulated by Mayor Charles E. Herr who acted as spokesman for the national committee. Mayor Herr presented Mr. Peter with a $100 U. S. Savings Bond during a brief ceremony and commended the father of 18 children for bringing them up in the true American fashion.

The National Father's Day Committee said today that Mr. Peter was being honored for being the father of the largest family in the nation, and that the news reels taken here yesterday would be shown at the banquet of the committee on Father's Day in New York City, when a "Father of the Year" title would be awarded. Family Fills Hall Audience for the presentation was made entirely by Mr. Peter's married sons and daughters, their husbands and wives, and a large number of his grandchildren. They filled to overflowing the council chamber at City Hall. It was necessary to move to the second floor to a larger room. Throughout the ceremonies Mr. Peter patiently posed for photographers. Following the formalities the whole family was photographed by a Pathe Newsreel cameraman outside City Hall. Several scenes were shot, including Mr. Peter holding his 16-day-old great-granddaughter, Linda Lee Peter, in his arms and a final view of the entire clan walking past the movie camera to emphasize for theatre audiences their large number.

George F. Hess, president of the Clinton County Historical Society, a neighbor of Mr. Peter's, spoke in detail on the history of the Peter family. His speech was made against a background of occasional wails from the ten babies in the audience. Referring to the size of Mr. Peter's family he turned to the 79-year-old farmer and told him that he had made some of the history which the historical society records.

Referring to Mayor Herr's point that the audience before him, all Peters directly or by marriage, were "real Americans," Mr. Hess said this was proven by his own records. Mr. Hess is justice of the peace in Beech Creek. He said his books showed that no members of the family ever appeared before him during the quarter century that he was a magistrate.

Set Fine Example He added that his records show, that a Peter had not even been brought before him on a motor vehicle violation. The family is worthwhile members of the Beech Creek community (Page 2, Col. 5)

Notes for Leon Thomas Hanselman:

Ypsilanti - Three men were electrocuted Sunday April 13, 1930 after a plane became entangled with high tension wires while attempting a landing at Ypsilanti airport. The dead: Levi Keppler, 24, bank teller, Ann Arbor; Harry Walters, 31, superintendent of the airport; William Clawson, 60, retired farmer of Ypsilanti; Leon Hanselmann, 23, Ann Arbor, owner of the plane and licensed pilot, was injured slightly. According to witnesses, Hanselmann swung the plane too low approaching the field. It struck some high-tension transmission wires, became entangled and remained suspended in the air. A wire came in contact with Keppler, killing him. The plane burst into flames. Walters ran to the plane carrying a fire extinguisher, witnesses said. As he turned on a stream of chemicals, electric current followed the liquid and knocked him to the ground. Clawson tried to assist Walters and was killed. Walters was taken to the university hospital at Ann Arbor, but died before the ambulance reached the hospital. Hanselmann jumped from the plane, which continued to burn until employees of the Detroit Edison company cut the wires. An Inquest was ordered.

April 17, 1930 - Levi Keppler, 24, Ann Arbor; Willard Clawson, 60, Ypsilanti, and Harry Walters, 28, Ypsilanti, were electrocuted Sunday afternoon when an airplane became entangled in the high tension wires while attempting to make a landing at the Ypsilanti Airport. Leon Hanselmann, 24, of Ann Arbor, pilot, was slightly hurt and taken to Beyer hospital in Ypsilanti for treatment. Hanselmann, who has been an air enthusiast for some time, rents a hangar at the Ypsilanti airport and took his friend Keppler for a ride Sunday and was preparing to land when the accident occurred. Keppler was not injured in the fall but remained imprisoned in his seat in a tangle of high tension wires while rescuers struggled to release him. He died when he rose from his seat to jump, the change in position bringing him into contact with the high voltage.

Walters was killed when he attempted to release Keppler. Clawson, a bystander, was killed when he sought to draw Walter's body away from the wires. It is said that Hanselmann's plane approached the airport from the west, flying low with the motor apparently dead. The ship side-slipped and nearly went out of control before it got to the port. The plane's tail hooked on a high tension wire at the side of the field and burst into flames. The nose fell forward dragging the wires and throwing the pilot to the ground. Keppler, the passenger, remained imprisoned in the ship. Attendants attempted to extinguish the flames but they had gained too great a headway. Most of this was witnessed by Keppler's mother who had to be restrained from rushing into the tangle of highly charged wires.

1660. George William⁹ Auch (Johann Jakob Friedrich⁸, Margaretha⁷ Beck, Dorothea⁶ Woelfle, Johann Georg⁵, Johann Jakob⁴, Hans Jerg³ Woelflin, Jacob², Cunrad¹ Woelfle) was born 23 Apr 1867 in Sebewaing, Huron Co, Michigan, and died 21 Feb 1937 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan. He married Sophie (Beer) Mammel 1895 in Michigan. She was born 1870 in Michigan, and died 07 Mar 1941 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan.

Notes for George William Auch:

George W. Auch (1868-1937) was a builder, educator, and politician from Detroit, Michigan. He was the president of the Detroit school board and served as a city alderman. George W. Auch was born in 1868 in Sebewaing, Michigan, the son of Sebewaing founder J.J.F. Auch. In 1890, George Auch began his studies at Addison College, a Lutheran teacher's college in Addison, Illinois. He graduated in 1893 and began teaching at Bethany Lutheran School on Detroit's east side. By 1908, Auch and his wife Sofia had nine children, and Auch decided that his teacher's salary wasn't enough to provide for his family. Quitting his teaching job, Auch started a construction business with Herman Winkler. The firm of Winkler and Auch began by working on small residential construction projects. However, by 1912, the firm was constructing schools, churches, and larger commercial buildings.

In 1913, Auch was elected school inspector, an office he held until 1917. He was elected president of the Detroit School Board twice during that time, and served as an officer of the National Education Association. Auch served as alderman of the city of Detroit from 1916-1918, running as a Republican. During the World War I years, the construction business was slow; at some point during that time, Auch and Winkler parted ways and the George W. Auch Company emerged. During the 1920s, Auch built homes in Detroit's Boston-Edison and Indian Village districts, as well as homes in Grosse Pointe and Grosse Pointe Park. During the 1930s, Auch's business suffered due to the Great Depression, but his firm did win the carpentry contracts for the Historic Trinity Lutheran Church and the United States Marine Hospital in Norfolk, Virginia.

Auch, however, did not live to see his company emerge from the recession. George W. Auch died in 1937 due to lingering complications from an automobile accident. The leadership of the George W. Auch Company passed to his son Fred, who held it until the 1960s. Subsequent presidents included Hank Auch, George W. (Bill) Auch III, Fred J. Auch Jr, David Hamilton and Vincent DeLeonardis. The company has grown significantly over the years, averaging over $150 million in annual revenue between 1998 and 2008. As of 2016, the George W. Auch Company, now called Auch Construction, is still in business as a leading contracting firm in Southeastern Michigan.

The body of George W. Auch, president of George W. Auch Co., contractors and builders, will be at the Messiah Lutheran Church, Lakewood and Kercheval Aves, from noon Thursday until the services at 2 p.m. Burial will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Auch, who lived at 1258 Three-Mile Drive, died Sunday Feb. 21, 1937 in Grace Hospital of complications resulting from injuries suffered in an automobile accident last year. He was born April 23, 1867, in Sebewaing, Michigan, and attended Addison College, Illinois. He taught in the Bethany Lutheran School, Detroit, for 12 years, entering the building business in 1905.

He was a Member of the Board of Education for three years and was board in 1915. He also was a member of the Common Council in 1917-18; former president of the Carpenter Contractors Association and former president of the Builders and Traders Exchange.

Surviving are his wife, Sophie; four daughters, Mrs. Clara Gross, Mrs. Adeline Jinsky, Mrs. Bertha Gnekow and Martha; five sons, Fred, Otto, John, George W. Jr., and Herman H., and 13 grandchildren.

1665. Augusta⁹ Roeder (Dorothea Barbara (Doris)⁸ Auch, Margaretha⁷ Beck, Dorothea⁶ Woelfle, Johann Georg⁵, Johann Jakob⁴, Hans Jerg³ Woelflin, Jacob², Cunrad¹ Woelfle) was born 12 Mar 1855 in Middleton, Ontario, Canada, and died 23 Oct 1936 in Des Plaines, Cook Co, Illinois. She married Christian Gottlieb Frederick Miltzer 17 May 1875 in Chicago, Cook Co, Illinois, son of John Miltzer and Wilhelmina Holtzmueller. He was born 03 Aug 1852 in Saxony, Germany, and died 28 Mar 1933 in Arlington Heights, Cook Co, Illinois.

Notes for Augusta Roeder:

Arlington Heights, Illinois, Oct. 30, 1936 – Augusta Militzer, the second of nine children was born to Edmund and Dorothea Roeder on the 12th of March, 1855, in the province of Ontario, Canada, near the city of Hamilton. In 1868 her father, who had previously served in missionary work among the Chippewa Indians of lower peninsula of Michigan and then taken charge of a pastorate among the rugged pioneers of the cutting province, was called as first pastor of the newly organized Evangelical Lutheran St. Peters congregation of Dunton - the name which Arlington Heights was called at that time. With the family she came to this village and was a resident for 68 years.

On May 17, 1875 she was united in marriage to Frederick Militzer, who had begun his activities as teacher of the parochial school in the fall of 1873. Fifty-eight years of undiminished loyalty and devotion marked her contribution as the outstanding character of this bond. Trials and tribulations were not lacking during this period, but even the bitterness and grief was born in unrelenting faith with a firm grip on the "Staff That Comforts."

The most tender love of mother's heart was bestowed upon the four sons and three daughters, a love that did not shirk the responsibility of admonition or punishment when needed. No sacrifice was too great, no effort too burdensome to provide for the welfare of those who depended on her loving care. On March 29, 1933. the Lord called her companion of 58 years to the realm of eternal rest. During the last years the discrepancies of age began to foreshadow the end of a long journey. This only increased her desire to spread cheerfulness and happiness among those with whom she came into contact.

In the early hours of Oct. 23, 1936, after having retired in good spirits without any apparent discomfort she heard the beckoning call of the Lord Saviour: "Come! I have redeemed thee! thou art mine." Ever ready and prepared to answer the final summons, after only a few minutes of suffering she embraced the loving arms of her Redeemer and left his earthly vale of mortality. We who mourn in humility thank Thee, Lord Heavenly Father for Thy bountiful mercy in giving us this example of a truly Christian life – a devoted sister, spouse, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother.

Notes for Louis William (Lewis) Dorn:

Fort Wayne, April 6, 1918 - The death of Prof Louis A. Dorn is scarcely less of a loss to Concordia college than to the city of Fort Wayne. He belonged to that class whose activities cannot be limited to the sphere of the vocation. And this because of his keen appreciation of the obligations of citizenship. A man of commanding ability, a strong intellectual figure in educational circles, he impressed his work indelibly upon the great institution he served so long. His work here was never neglected. And his work here was of a congenial character and he might have prolonged his life had he settled down to the selfish employment of that work and refused his active co-operation in civic movements beyond that sphere. An orator of unusual ability his services were in constant demand for special occasions over the country and this would have furnished him abundant opportunity for distinction had he cared for that alone. But he was big enough to comprehend the co-operative nature of an organized society that functions properly and he was temperamentally incapable of shirking obligations to his fellows that added greatly to his burdens and yet gave him pleasure in their discharge. If every American were as conscientious in their attitude toward society, the city, the county, the state and nation, as Professor Dorn most of the weaknesses of our system would disappear. The system is weak only in the failure of the people to do their duty in this respect Prof Dorn stands out as a shining example.

His appointment to a position on the park board was one of the most commendable ever made. He was keenly alive to the civic advantages of beautification. He took his appointment seriously; such men always do. But perhaps his greatest service to the community was in connection with his residency of the Port Wayne Anti-Tuberculosis league, a work in which he manifested a deep and intelligent interest and through persistent efforts directed along practical lines. He laid the foundation on the rocks. His loss here will be deeply felt but the effect of his methods will persist.

One year ago - less than a year ago - two people took it upon themselves in the midst of the excitement incidental to the commencement of the war to bold the public interest true to the work of the league. These two were models of citizenship, and both have died, partly as a result of overwork, within the last two weeks Prof. Dorn and Miss Byron will long be remembered. But nothing in the career of Prof Dorn was more impressive than the ardent patriotism with which he, a German American, threw himself into the support of the government in the prosecution of the war No man understood more thoroughly the richness of the intellectual life of Germany. No man probably could have, been fonder of the memories that cluster about the German hearth. But no man, no matter what, his race or blood, was more appreciative of the advantages or American citizenship. No doubt he, too, felt the sting of the bitter shafts hurled at the nation of his fathers, but he subordinated everything to the manifest duty of the occasion. In the early stage of the war when the boys were called to the color and the spirit of Americanism was being fanned his voice was heard with frequency and the note, he sounded was invariably rich in Americanism.

A brilliant educator, an eloquent orator, a cultured gentleman, an ideal citizen, a delightful neighbor, an uncompromising American, he leaves behind him a gracious memory that will long abide.

He married Marion Christine McDonald 02 Aug 1941 in Bloomfield Hills, Oakland Co, Michigan; born 24 May 1913 in Zanesville, Muskingum Co, Ohio; died 01 Mar 2002 in Rochester, Oakland Co, Michigan.

Notes for Dr. John Ferdinand Gaensbauer:

Detroit, May 31, 1994 - Dr. Ferdinand T. Gaensbauer was a top obstetrician and gynecologist in Pontiac, yet he never forgot that his first job was sweeping floors at Stroh's brewery for 6 cents an hour. Born in 1907 in Woman's Hospital in Detroit to a bookkeeper and a seamstress, he grew up to become chief of the medical staff at what used to be Pontiac General Hospital and was president of the staff of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac. Dr. Gaensbauer, formerly of Bloomfield Hills, died of cancer Sunday May 29, 1994 at his home in Sun City, Arizona. He was 86. Dr. Gaensbauer's early life in Detroit was hard. His father was a poorly paid bookkeeper for the Studebaker car company.

When he was 13 and visiting relatives in Saginaw, he started high school there. "He had made many friends there, and he liked the schools, and we were very poor," recalled his sister, Mary Louise Gaensbauer. Dr. Gaensbauer played football and graduated from Arthur Hill High School. He was a bright student, and an uncle paid his tuition to the University of Michigan. During the summer, he worked at Stroh's in Detroit as an equipment oiler and sweeper. He graduated from U-M Medical School in 1931. As a medical student, he watched a birth and made a decision that shaped his career. "He thought the miracle of birth was so tremendous," said his sister. "I remember when he delivered his first baby, he wanted to dress that baby," Mary Louise Gaensbauer said. "He wanted to bathe it, and he wrapped it in the blanket so he would really have the feel."

"He thought it was very important in the medical profession to have the human touch," she said. "He took time," said his daughter Gretchen Breese. "My dad would always talk to people in his office before he would examine them, and after they were dressed he would talk to them again." Dr. Gaensbauer loved to travel. With his wife, Christine, he traveled around the world four times. At different times, he left his Pontiac practice to serve as a physician in Guatemala, Kenya, Afghanistan, Haiti and Java. He often carried two or three cameras. He was president of the Pontiac Rotary in 1974 and showed his travel slides to Rotary groups. But during those shows, his wife did most of the narrating, Breese said. "He was sort of humble, just a quiet man," she said.

In addition to his wife of 53 years, Dr. Gaensbauer is survived by another daughter Carolyn Cardoza; son, Dr. Theodore Gaensbauer, and sue grandchildren. A memorial service and burial are being planned in Arizona.

Notes for Jakob Laubengayer:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Jacob Laubengayer. As Ann Arbor is the center of so rich and wide an agricultural region and is so accessible by rail to the great distributing points and ports of the country, the enterprises are numerous for dealing in the staples of the region. While manufactures are still in their infancy, the middlemen that are the medium between producer and the manufacturer are numerous. One of the most successful of these firms is that of which our subject is junior partner and which does business under the firm title of Heinzmann & Laubengayer, dealers in wool, grain, flour, feed and hides. Our subject is a product of this county, although, as his name would indicate, he is of German descent. He was born in the township of Scio, September 14, 1843, and is a son of J. Fred and Christina (Schmidt) Laubengayer, both of whom were natives of Wittenberg, Germany. They were married in Scio Township, this county.

The parents of our subject emigrated to the United States in 1830, landing at New York City, thence coming direct to Washtenaw County and located in Scio Township upon a farm where the father carried on a general agricultural business, devoting himself principally to stock-raising and the growing of wheat. He was one of the prosperous tillers of the soil of his neighborhood, employing the advanced German scientific methods in making his tract productive. His decease occurred April 22, 1891. He was born in 1805. The mother of our subject is still living on the old homestead, being in her seventy-second year. She is the mother of four children, three of whom are living—Frederick, Jacob and Tobias.

Jacob Laubengayer passed his boyhood in his native county and spent his early days in attendance at the district school of his neighborhood. He remained under the home roof of his parents until twenty-one years old. After reaching his majority he started out in life on his own account, still making his home, however, with his parents until reaching the age of twenty-four years when he bought a small farm which he began to develop and to engage in stock-raising, though his dealing in stock was in a small way. However, he kept adding to his farm until he was the possessor of two hundred and forty-seven acres, taking great pride in keeping a fine breed of cattle and good sheep. He continued to be actively engaged in agricultural pursuits until December, 1889, when he removed to Ann Arbor and embarked in the wool business in connection with various parties. In the last named year he formed a partnership with John Heinzmann and has dealt largely in the products above mentioned ever since. In connection with this business they also handle dry wood, having extensive wood yards near the grain elevator on the Toledo & Ann Arbor Railroad. The firm handles all kinds of grain and also does quite a large business in grinding feed for the farmers in the vicinity and also for general sale. The celebrated brands of flour from the Pillsbury Mills of Minneapolis are here found and the firm with which our subject is connected does a large business in this direction. They doubtless have the largest dealing in wool of any firm in Washtenaw County.

Mr. Laubengayer was married in December 1880, to Miss Amelia Weimer, of Scio Township, this county. She is a daughter of Michael Weimer, her parents having come to this country from Germany. Our subject and his wife are the parents of three children, whose name are Melinda, Robert and Walter. The original of this sketch was elected Justice of the Peace of Lodi Township, being near the line of that township. He casts his vote with the Democrat Party, in whose principles and practices he has unbounded faith. Our subject resides at No. 76 W. Huron Street, where he has a very pleasant home.

He married May Lillie Wood 29 Dec 1897 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of John Wood and Alice Cooley. She was born 18 Feb 1878 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 07 Feb 1968 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Otto David Luick:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Otto D. Luick, filling the position of county treasurer, but residing upon the old home farm in Lima Township, is a representative of one of the pioneer families of Washtenaw county, his grandfather and his father having settled here when this part of the state was a frontier district, and the work of improvement had hardly been instituted.

The latter, John D. Luick, is indeed a native of Lima Township, where he is still living, and throughout his active business career he has carried on farming. David Luick, the grandfather, was a native of Germany, and taking up his abode in the new world, he became one of the original white settlers of Lima Township, where he died, during the early youth of his grandson Otto. He assisted in reclaiming this district from the domain of the red men and in contributing to the early substantial improvement of Washtenaw County. John D. Luick, reared amid the environment of pioneer life, early became familiar with farm labor, and as an agriculturist has kept pace with ideas of modern progress in relation to farm methods. He married Miss Catherine Laubengayer, who died at the age of thirty-six years, leaving two daughters and a son, Amanda, Otto D. and Bertha, the last named being the wife of Edward Beach.

Otto D. Luick acquired his early education in the public schools of Lima Township, and afterward enjoyed the advantage of a course in the Ypsilanti Business College, from which he was graduated with the class of 1891. He then; went to Chicago, Illinois, where he filled a position as bookkeeper for a year, but the close confinement of the store proved detrimental to his health, and in consequence he returned to Lima, where he resumed farming operations on the old homestead, carrying on the work of field and meadow until his election to office. It was in 1904 that he was chosen county treasurer of Washtenaw County, which position he is now capably filling, his term of incumbency covering two years. In his political views Mr. Luick has always been a stalwart Republican. Prior to his election to the present office he was township clerk of Lima Township for eleven years and was also school inspector for two years. Fraternally he is connected with the Knights of Pythias, and in the lodge has held various offices, acting as chancellor commander at the present time. Although his official duties call him daily to Ann Arbor, Mr. Luick still maintains his residence upon the home farm in Lima Township. He was married in 1897 to Miss May L. Wood, a native of Lima Township, and a daughter of John J. Wood, one of its early settlers and a leading farmer. Their home has been blessed with three children, Leigh M., Beulah B. and Gerald G.

Notes for Archie Robert Caswell:

Party of Eight Crowded Into Ford Touring Car When Driver Swerves at Curve - A young wife was killed and seven other persons were injured when the automobile in which they were riding was wrecked on US-12 two miles east of Battle Creek shortly after 10 o'clock Saturday night Oct. 29, 1932. Mrs. Evelyn Williams, 18, of Stewart lake, south of Marshall, died at the scene of the accident. She was taken to Nichols hospital, however, before it was determined that she was dead. Her husband, Pownell Williams, suffered a fractured left shoulder.

Others injured were the driver of the car, Archie Caswell, 25, of 422 North Mulberry, Marshall, his side hurt; Miss Ida Large, 18, of 113 East VanBuren, Battle Creek, badly bruised and shocked; Misa Freida Potter, 18, of Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Freed of Spring Street, Battle Creek, and Walter Adams of 422 North Mulberry, Marshall, who received minor scratches and bruises.

The party of Battle Creek and Marshall persons, crowded Into Caswell's Ford touring car, were on their way from Battle Creek to the Williams home at Stuart lake, southwest of Marshall. The accident happened on a curve a short distance east of the Calhoun, county hospital.

Caswell told Coroner Willard N. Putman and police who investigated the accident that he was driving about 50 miles per hour and had passed a truck just before rounding the curve to discover a slowly-moving automobile in his path and another approaching from the opposite direction. To avoid smashing into the car ahead, he said, he swerved sharply to the left. The car turned over, righted itself and then crashed into a telephone pole. Remarkably, none of the occupants was thrown out.

The driver of the car ahead, Fred Fausz, also of Marshall, and Thomas Stoke, South Division Street garageman who had been working on a truck close by, assisted the injured to leave the car. All except, Adams were taken to Nichols hospital. It was not immediately learned that Mrs. Williams was dead, those at the scene believing she was merely unconscious. They thought they detected her breathing, but Coroner Putman afterward expressed the opinion that she died immediately after the crash. Death, he said, was due to a fractured skull.

Mr. Fausz and Mr. Stoke each took several of the injured to the hospital. Adams drove the damaged car on to Marshall, where he went to Oaklawn hospital to have a scalp wound treated. None of the others was believed to have a serious injury, and only Miss Large, severely shocked, remained under care early this morning. Coroner Putman questioned Caswell at police headquarters after his side injury had been treated at the hospital. He was not detained. Dr. Putman said he was undecided, whether to hold an inquest.

Marshall - Archie R. Caswell, 76, of 1016 S. Kalamazoo Ave., died today April 24, 1984 in Community Hospital, Battle Creek, where he had been a patient since Monday. He was born in Gratiot City and had resided in Marshall most of his life. He was employed by the Eaton Corp. and retired in 1975 after 46 years of service. He was a former member of Marshall Moose Lodge 676.

Surviving are his wife, the former Margaret L. Bramble; a daughter, Karen Cubbon of Nottawa Lake; a son, Carl Caswell of Fort Wayne, Indiana; and three grandchildren.

Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Craig K. Kempf Funeral Home. Memorial donations may be made to the National Kidney Foundation of Michigan.

Notes for Albert Thomas Warner:

Grand Rapids – Albert T. Warner, 64, retired stationary engineer, and his wife Mary, 65, died within an hour of each other Saturday morning July 24, 1925 after the husband, despondent or deranged from the knowledge he was suffering on incurable disease of the stomach, killed his wife with a .32 automatic revolver bullet and then fired a bullet through his head in their home.

The wife was preparing to join her husband in breakfast when Warner apparently surprised her and shot. She fell to the floor beside the kitchen table and the husband then went to a front room, lay on a newspaper he had placed on the floor, and shot himself. He lived but an hour. The wife died instantly.

The double tragedy was discovered by a son-in-law, Frank Tobey, a city fireman, who lives in the adjoining portion of the two-family residence.

Feb. 3, 1940 - That good Sac county farmer. W. H. Schnirring, near Sac City, owns one of the good farms of northwest Iowa. It has taken Schnirring the greater part of 40 years to build it up to the present excellence. Schnirring is the land of farmer who realizes the necessity of keeping good livestock along with tilling the soil. He has good herds of Holsteins and Brown Swiss that are the answer to his livestock problems. They do their part by filling the buckets with rich, wholesome milk and are able to do it because Schnirring is a good provider when it comes to furnishing the feed.
