Notes for Amelia Groll:

Died, Saturday, Jan.2, 1897, Mrs. John B. Waltz, at the family residence on Main Street, aged 65 years, 8 months and 6 days.The cause of death was paralysis from which she suffered for several weeks.The funeral of the deceased was held from theBaptist church Monday at 1:30 p.m., Rev. J. W. Wallace officiated, assisted by Rev. Rutledge. Notwithstanding the bad roads a large congregation was present. The interment took place at the German Ev. cemetery.

Amelia Groll was born in Heshire, Germany, April 26, 1831, and was brought to this country by her parents when she was only six months old, and settled in Detroit. She was married to John B. Waltz in May, 1850, at Detroit; from Detroit they moved to Lansing, back to Detroit, to Romeo and finally to Capac after the war, in April, 1866. Here Mr. Waltz worked at his trade as cobbler for many years, and then moved onto a farm which he had bought in Emmet township, three and a half miles east of this village. In 1890, after having settled three of their sons upon farms, they built themselves a comfortable home in this village and moved here, where they had since resided.

For forty-six years this couple had walked together and many had been the hard struggles they encountered and triumphed over. To them were born ten children, seven boys and three girls. The girls and three of the boys have passed over the river. Thebereaved husband was seventy years of age on Dec. 28, 1896.The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

He married Mary Viola Hough 25 Dec 1915 in Ceresco, Calhoun Co, Michigan; born 23 Jan 1894 in Michigan; died 25 Jan 1992 in Battle Creek, Calhoun Co, Michigan.

Notes for Clifton Frederick Lutz:

Clifton Lutz was a farmer in the Ceresco area all his life. He was a hard working man and an efficient farmer. Mary (Hough) took china painting lessons upon completing high school. She has kept up on painting through the years, and, at present, she gives lessons on china painting. When the telephone office was located in Ceresco, Mary was an operator for about two years. She is also a faithful worker in her church. Mary was a deeply kind and beloved woman who was known for decades as "Aunt Mary" to everyone in her community. They had no children. Note: Clifton and his brother, Russell Michael Lutz, married sisters, Mary and Edna Hough.

Ceresco - Clifton F. Lutz, 67, lifelong resident of the Ceresco vicinity, died at 10:10 p.m. Tuesday Nov. 12, 1957 in Battle Creek where he had been a patient fir two weeks. He had been in poor health for three years. Mr. Lutz was born Nov. 10, 1890, in Fredonia Township, son of Fred and Ada (DeKoeyer) Lutz, and was married Dec. 12, 1915 to Mary V. Hough. He was a retired farmer.
Surviving besides his wife are three brothers, George E., Russell N. and Arthur E., all of Ceresco.

Ceresco, Sept. 27, 1964 - The old Lutz family farm, purchased by Fred Lutz in 1908, has been sold by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clifton Lutz, to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Abrahamson of 157 Fairway Dr., Battle Creek. The deal includes the tenant house where Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Iler and family have lived for 25 years, operating the farm since March 1, 1957. A story about the farm was related in a paper written by the late Caroline (Beardslee) Cameron for the Marshall News in 1909, and kept by the Lutz family all these years.

Under the head, "Discover Another White Family," the newspaper account tells about a Mr. and Mrs. Stiles and their family who lived on a small shanty on the property in 1832 when this area was all wilderness. According to Mrs. Cameron's report, the Stiles' children were at play one day when they saw two white women and a child riding horseback. They ran to tell their mother, who replied "They must be Indians," as she knew of no white settlers in the area. The women, however, were not Indians. They were Mrs. Grenville Beardsell and her sister who was visiting from Rochester, New York, at Beardsell home on what is now the Vern Peck farm. When the women left to return home from visiting at the Stiles farm, Mr. Stiles followed them, blazing the trail with an ax, and thus marking for future use a road between the two houses. This old Stiles farm was the one which Fred Lutz bought in 1908. The family lived there until Mr. Lutz built a bungalow on the edge of the farm, next door to an old friend, Simary Phelps, who operated the grocery store in Ceresco.

Mr. and Mrs. Lutz's children were Dora, who married Dr. R. M. Gubbins of Ceresco, and George, Clifton, Russell and Arthur. In 1944 Mr. Lutz sold 185 acres of his farm to his son, Clifton, who later bought 80 more acres. All the buildings were newly built during 1945-1950, and a new brick house was built in 1948. Clifton Lutz died in 1957.

During the summers of 1960, 1961 and 1963, the farm was visited by youngsters from Friendship Home at Hamtramck, who each year spend a wonderful day watching cows being machine milked, seeing baby pigs and calves, riding on ponies, hay wagons, motor boats, and rafts, and swimming in the Kalamazoo river.

Now that her house is sold, Mrs. Lutz, called "Aunt Mary" by most area children, plans to build a smaller house on a lot reserved for her in the transaction, adjoining the house of her brother, John Hough, where a creek runs to the Kalamazoo River between the two lots. On the other side of the Houghs' lives Russell Lutz and his wife, Edna.

Notes for Christian F. Mohrhardt:

July 30, 1928 - It is doubtful if many Lansing residents are aware of the fact that sausage, frankfurts, bolognas and luncheon hams, or what have you in the line of cold meats, are manufactured right here in the city. In the factory of C. F. Mohrhardt and Sons which is operated at 119 E. Grand River Avenue by the company, a very complete line of cold meat is manufactured. Service Riven by the local dealers in meats, is the best possible. C. Mohrhardt suited Saturday. He said that it was the aim of the concern to have a truck at the door of its customers' establishments every morning. In this way retail meat and grocery dealers may always supply their patrons with fresh cold meats because of the fine service given them by the Mohrhardt firm.

"Unexcelled" luncheon hams are a particular specialty with the concern, which also make veal loaf, minced ham, boiled ham, corned beef and other cold meat products which serve to make luncheons and picnic dinners so appetizing. For over 14 years C. F. Mohrhardt and Sons have been manufacturing moat products in Lansing and the firm has come to be known as maintaining a factory which is sanitary to the highest degree. This factor is especially important in making food and meat products, as impure foods are the cause of much sickness and digestive trouble.

The line of meats made by the firm is distributed wholesale to grocers and meat dealers in this vicinity and some are also dis posed of to the retail patrons the concern enjoys. Ten men are employed by the company at present and Christian F. Mohrhardt, proprietor, states that the firm has a very brisk business at present, with prospects that it will pick up to an even greater extent when the picnic season opens.

July 30, 1936 - Harold Mohrhardt, formerly in the wholesale meat business in this city with his father. Christian Mohrhardt, was reported in critical condition Wednesday night in a hospital in Denver, Colorado. Upon receipt of telegraphic news of Mr. Mohrhardt s condition, his mother left Immediately for Denver.

C. F. Mohrhardt, 80, former North Lansing merchant, died Friday evening May 6, 1949 at the home, 1116 Hickory St., after a lingering illness. A resident of Lansing since 1915, he was proprietor of the firm of Mohrhardt and Sons, wholesale and retail meat dealers until 1942. He was born in Germany, but came to this country while a young man.

He a is survived by the widow, Pauline; two sons, Edward W. Mohrhardt and Harold Mohrhardt, both of Lansing: two daughters. Mrs. Bernice Waltz and Mrs. Beatrice Morofsky, both of Lansing, and two grandchildren.

Mr. Mohrhardt was a life member of P. & A.M. Lodge No. 66. Funeral services will be held at o'clock Monday afternoon from the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home. Rev. JE. E. Hosts of the Pilgrim Congregational church will officiate. Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery. The Masonic lodge will have part in the service.

Seyfried, twin 26 Apr 1957 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; born 29 Apr 1937 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 29 Dec 1991 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Harold George Hieber:
Harold George Hieber, age 91, passed away peacefully at his home in Saline on Tuesday, January 21, 2025, shortly after his niece, Lori Krull, visited with him. Harold's daughter, Krystal, and her loving family were by his side during his passing. Harold was born April 13, 1933 at the home of his parents, Fred Hieber and Meta Waltz, in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Harold was their youngest son. He was baptized and confirmed, alongside his older brother, Herman, and married Barbara Seyfried on April 28, 1957 at St. Thomas Lutheran Church on Ellsworth Road in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Barbara passed in 1991.

In addition to his parents, Harold was preceded in death by his sisters, Luella McGranahan and her husband, Marley; Dorothy Smith and her husband, Walter; and his brother, Herman, who died when he was 25. Harold was also preceded in death by numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. Several years after Barbara's passing, Harold met and fell in love with Linda Whittaker Boyd, whom he married July 24, 1999. Linda preceded him in death April 15, 2021.

Harold is survived by his loving daughter, Krystal Woodard and her husband, William, along with his grandchildren, Beth Boyd and Shawn Hastings and his girlfriend, Tatyana, who is expecting Harold's first great-grandchild. Harold is also survived by his sister-in-law Kathy McPherson (Mike) and Sherry Banks; and his brother-in-law, Mark Whittaker. In addition, Harold is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews, along with their families.

Harold worked at the University of Michigan when he was very young. He also worked at R&B in Saline and the Meijer store on Saline Ann Arbor Road. Harold was an extremely hard worker and retired from Meijer when he was 80 years old. Harold loved to "grab a bite to eat" at Saline Inn and Mark's Coney Island. He enjoyed talking to the people who worked at these restaurants. Harold shared many childhood stories with his nieces. He had many nieces and nephews, all of whom he loved. Harold was 89 when he was first hospitalized. He would brag to the doctors and nurses that he had never been in the hospital before then. Up until September 2024, Harold kept very busy around the house. Harold was also very proud of the fact that, until age 90, he did not take any medications.

Unfortunately, in November 2024, Harold was diagnosed with cancer, which he battled with grace. Harold's daughter, Krystal, lovingly cared for her father with the help of her family. Harold was under the care of Arbor Hospice when he passed. Time passes quickly – if you have older family members, please listen to their stories – they are priceless.

Everyone is welcome for a time of visitation on Wednesday, January 29, 2025 from 10:00 A.M. until 12:00 P.M. at the Robison-Bahnmiller Funeral Home in Saline. A funeral service will then be held at 12:00 P.M. Pastor Drex Morton will officiate. Burial will immediately follow at Forest Hill Cemetery, Ann Arbor. Anyone wishing to

Notes for John Frederich Maulbetsch:
Ann Arbor, Michigan, Sept. 14, 1950 - Johnny Maulbetsch, 58, one of the all-time football greats, of the University of Michigan, died of cancer in his home here today. Maulbetsch was head football coach at Oklahoma, A. & M. from 1921 through 1928. lie shifted to a similar job at Marshall College at Huntington, West Virginia, in 1929. Maulbetsch made Walter Camp's All-America team in 1914.

John F. "Johnny" Maulbetsch (June 20, 1890 – September 14, 1950) was an All-American football halfback at Adrian College in 1911 and for the University of Michigan Wolverines from 1914 to 1916. He is also a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. After playing with an independent football team in Ann Arbor and at Adrian College, Maulbetsch became one of the most famous American football players in 1914 while playing for the University of Michigan. Maulbetsch became known as the "Human Bullet" because of his unusual low, line-plunging style of play, and was also known as the "Featherweight Fullback" because of his light weight and small size. After his performance against Harvard in 1914, in which some reports indicated he gained more than 300 yards, eastern writers, including Damon Runyan, wrote articles touting Maulbetsch. Maulbetsch was also selected by Walter Camp to his All-American team.

In 1915, Maulbetsch underwent surgery for appendicitis and did not perform to the same level as he had in 1914. He made a comeback as a senior in 1916 and was again one of the leading players in college football. Between 1917 and 1920, Maulbetsch was the head football coach at Phillips University. With Maulbetsch's name recognition, he was able to recruit big name talent to Phillips, including future Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Owen, and future United States Olympic Committee President Doug Roby. Maulbetsch quickly turned Phillips into one of the top programs in the southwest, as his teams beat Oklahoma and Texas and lost only one game in the 1918 and 1919 seasons. Maulbetsch was later the football coach at Oklahoma A&M (later known as Oklahoma State) and Marshall College in the 1920s. He has been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, and the University of Michigan awards the John F. Maulbetsch Award each year to a freshman football player based on desire, character, and capacity for leadership and future success both on and off the football field.

Ann Arbor High School and the Independents

Maulbetsch was born and grew up in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He attended Ann Arbor High School where he led the football team to consecutive state championships in 1908 and 1909. One account of the 1908 playoffs noted: "Ann Arbor's smashing play in the first half was wholly due to Maulbetsch, Ann Arbor's fullback, and his terrific line bucking. He clearly outshone his team mates."

After graduating from high school, Maulbetsch joined the Ann Arbor Independents, a football team made up of Michigan "varsity eligibles" and "townies." Maulbetsch was once reportedly called upon to drive across the goal line for the Independents in a game in which a large crowd, including a farmer with his plow-horse, gathered in the end zone. "Head down and legs working like piston rods, Maulbetsch plowed ahead until head struck the plow horse amidships. Down went the horse Mauly on top of him."

College football player - Transfer from Adrian College

Maulbetsch started his college football career at age 21, leading Adrian College to an 8–0 record in 1911, including a 15–0 win over the University of Michigan freshman team. Maulbetsch's performance drew the attention of Michigan Coach Fielding H. Yost. After watching Maulbetsch dominate Michigan's freshman team, Yost concluded: "If I could get that kid into Michigan and keep him up in his studies I'd make an All-American place for him his first year." Yost persuaded Maulbetsch to transfer, and he played with "the scrubs" in 1912. Yost told the press at the time he had "another (Willie) Heston" in Maulbetsch.

Maulbetsch did not play for the varsity team until the fall of 1914 when he was 24 years old. Before the season began, Maulbetsch was "touted as one of the fastest halfbacks who ever donned moleskins. He weighs 155 pounds, is built low, has a powerful pair of shoulders and his dashes are characterized by lightning speed." Another pre-season account said he was "a wonder as a line plunger and a wizard in the open field." From the outset, considerable attention was paid to his unusual running style. Observers noted "the peculiar manner in which he runs. . . . He has a corkscrew style of dashing, and even when tackled squarely has such a sturdy pair of legs that his assailant is usually carried back several yards."

Michigan opened the season with a 58–0 win over DePauw, followed by a 69–0 victory over Case Institute of Technology. Maulbetsch was the offensive star against Case, as he twice "carried several would-be tackles across the goal." Playing Vanderbilt the following week, Maulbetsch had runs of 25 and 35 yards, scored two touchdowns, "was worked overtime and probably advanced the pigskin more than any two other players." After starting the season 5–0, Michigan lost three of four games against top eastern schools: Syracuse, Harvard, Penn, and Cornell.

1914 Harvard game

Maulbetsch's breakthrough came on October 31, 1914, in front of 30,000 fans at Harvard. The game was one of the most anticipated matches of the year. A special train brought Michigan fans to Cambridge, Massachusetts, and hundreds of Michigan alumni from the East were on hand as "reinforcements." Though Harvard prevailed, 7–0, Maulbetsch was the big story in papers across the country. Writers from Ring Lardner to Damon Runyon told the story of Maulbetsch's performance. Lardner said: "If anyone tells you the East plays the best brand of football, Maulbetsch shot that theory full of holes." According to Runyon, the Wolverines used "the mighty Maulbetsch as their battering ram," and he "gained enough ground against Harvard to bury a German army corps." Football writer Frank G. Menke said: "No westerner ever created half the stir in the east as did this Michigander . . . His peculiar, baffling style of attack, backed by phenomenal strength almost always earned for him gains of 5 to 20 yards every time he was called upon to carry the ball." Another writer noted Maulbetsch's skill as a "line breaker" as he "carried the ball repeatedly through the Harvard line and into the secondary defense with bullet-like rushes that upset tackler after tackler." Maulbetsch was responsible for four-fifths of Michigan's ground gains, and on several occasions his dives reportedly "had so much power that he dove right through a double line of crimson players and went sprawling on the ground twelve to twenty feet clear of the double line."

While every report indicates that Maulbetsch had a big day, the accounts vary dramatically as to exactly how many yards he gained. Frank Menke reported after the game that Maulbetsch gained 300 yards. A 1938 newspaper account said he "gained 350 yards from scrimmage." Yet, his 1951 obituary indicated he gained 133 yards in 30 attempts.

Despite Maulbetsch's efforts, Michigan was never able to punch the ball across the goal line. Many blamed Michigan's quarterback who switched to another back every time after Maulbetsch "took the ball to the shadow of the Crimson goal posts." In answer to the question why Michigan was unable to score, Frank Menke said: "Ask the fellow who quarterbacked for Michigan that day. His actions were too mystifying for the spectators to figure out."

When Harvard reneged on an agreement to play a game in Ann Arbor in 1915, sports writers concluded it was to avoid facing Maulbetsch again. Said one reporter: "When faih Havard [sic] saw what Maulbetsch did in the first clash, it decided it cared to see no more of him. He was too rough."

"Human Bullet"

Much of the attention on Maulbetsch focused on his diminutive size and unique running style. At 5 ft. 7 in, and 155 lb, Maulbetsch was a small back, even by the standards of his day. And his running style saw him bend his torso and propel himself like a projectile into the opposing line. Indeed, he won several nicknames based on his size, running style, and fighting spirit, including the "Human Bullet," "Mauly," the "Human Shrapnel," the "Featherweight Fullback", the "Michigan Cannon Ball," and the "German bullet." Comparisons of Maulbetsch to military armaments were common. In addition to the "bullet," "shrapnel," and "cannonball" nicknames, the Syracuse Herald observed: "Standing up in front of a Krupp gun has its dangers, but it is not to be compared with the dangers of standing in front of Maulbetsch when he is going full speed ahead." Maulbetsch's style was described as "line-plunging." A New York newspaper noted: "When the ball is snapped to him he almost doubles himself up, and, with his head aimed at the knees of the opposing line, he dives head first. Those who have seen Maulbetsch in action marvel at the great momentum he can get up in two or three steps." Noted football writer Walter Eckersall said: "Mauly is a little fellow, being built close to the ground. They say that when he plunges at the line his head is almost on a level with his shoe tops – that he hits so low that it's well-nigh impossible to stop him." An Iowa newspaper wondered how it was possible "for a man to smash into a line of human bodies with the force that Maulbetsch does and come out of the game without a broken neck."

Maulbetsch was said to run "so low that he could dash under an ordinary table without losing his feet." At a coaching conference in the 1920s, a coach doubted the table-ducking story and challenged Maulbetsch. The doubter later recalled: "I began ribbing him about this table-ducking stuff and finally offered to bet him he couldn't do it. Well, we got a table up in a room; Johnny tucked a water pitcher under his arm and backed against the wall. Darned if he didn't do it, the only thing, that water pitcher broke in a million pieces." Asked about the incident, Maulbetsch said it was true, except one part. Maulbetsch insisted there wasn't a nick on the pitcher.

Maulbetsch makes All-American

After the loss to Harvard in 1914, Michigan rebounded with a 34–3 win over Penn. Walter Eckersall reported that the Wolverines were "led by the redoubtable Johnny Maulbetsch." Despite being "a marked man" by the Penn defense, he was not thrown for a loss in the entire game, and he scored three touchdowns. Before Michigan lost to Cornell in the final game of the season, a scandal arose when it was revealed that the owner of an Ann Arbor pool room, Joe Reinger, had written a letter intimating that he could buy Maulbetsch and Michigan's quarterback to throw the Cornell game, and win $50,000 from students willing to bet on Michigan. The letter was turned in to the Michigan athletic officials, and Reinger went to the athletic office "to try to hush the matter up." Reinger became abusive and was thrown out of the office by Coach Yost. The incident caused "the biggest stir of the season on the campus," as students demolished Reinger's pool room, and police had to guard Reinger's residence against threatening demonstrations that continued to "a late hour." Although Michigan did lose to Cornell, Maulbetsch was said to be "practically the only successful ground gainer for Michigan." Over the course of the 1914 season, Maulbetsch was said to have scored about half of Michigan's 252 points A Wisconsin newspaper noted that, "when it comes time to write a resume of the 1914 football season," Maulbetsch's play "will live in the minds of men . . . for years to come." As a reward for his efforts, Maulbetsch was named a first-team All-American at the end of the 1914 season.

Pie and coffee diet

As public attention focused on Maulbetsch as "the greatest line-plunger of a decade," the press could not get enough of Maulbetsch, even interviewing his family. His sister revealed that Maulbetsch had a fondness for home cooking and received permission from the team trainer to eat at his family's Ann Arbor home. "Now, Johnny's sister explains that each day his mother baked two pies for the athlete's supper, and that in addition he had everything else his appetite craved, including coffee." Confronted by reporters about the revelation, Maulbetsch replied: "The story was slightly exaggerated. I rarely ate more than one and one half pies for dinner." Joking references to Maulbetsch's diet continued when it was reported in 1915 that he was suffering from "acute indigestion." One reporter quipped, "Those much advertised pies of his maw's evidently aren't as great training dope as they were cracked up to be." It turned out that the indigestion was appendicitis, and Maulbetsch was hospitalized at St. Joseph's Sanitarium in Ann Arbor in April 1915, where he underwent an operation.

1915 season

As the 1915 season was set to get underway, Coach Yost reported, "Johnny told me he was feeling fine when I saw him recently, although he doesn't weigh as much as he used to." Despite Yost's hopes, Maulbetsch fell far short of the prior year's performance in 1915. He was several pounds lighter after the illness and surgery, and it was noted that "a few pounds means much to a man of Maulbetsch's weight." In the opening game against Lawrence, Maulbetsch scored three touchdowns, but he was "woefully weak on interference." Playing against Mount Union, Maulbetsch made several big gains, including a 50-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. His difficulties returned in the season's third game against Marietta, as "Maulbetsch was powerless to stop the Marietta forward pass, all of the successful ones being directed toward his side of the line."

After The Michigan Daily criticized his performance following the Marietta game, Maulbetsch "threatened to desert the Michigan squad and give up football for good." It reportedly took Yost several hours to coax Maulbetsch to report for practice again, and in the next game against Case, Maulbetsch did not play until the third quarter. In the season's first big game, Michigan was soundly beaten by Michigan Agricultural College, 24–0, and most of Maulbetsch's runs "didn't even get as far as his own line." In the final four games of the season, matters got worse for Michigan and Maulbetsch, as the team went 0–3–1, scoring only 14 points in four games.

In Maulbetsch's defense, some writers noted the weakness of the Michigan line, often allowing rushers into the backfield before Maulbetsch even had the ball. But some of those same observers noted that "Mauly" was not carrying the ball "at his usual pace." Sports writer Frank Menke described Maulbetsch's 1915 performance this way: "[The] Wolverine halfback skidded from the heights of greatness to the level of mediocre. . . . The lines that he had crumpled like eggshells a year before stood up under his charges, often dumping him back for losses. The once 'unstoppable' Maulbetsch not only was stopped but forced to retract." Despite the subpar performance in 1915, Michigan's varsity letter-winners elected him captain of the team for 1916.

1916 comeback

Maulbetsch made a strong comeback in 1916. Instead of spending the summer recovering from appendicitis, he spent the summer working as an assistant barkeeper on a steamship plying between Chicago, Illinois and St. Joseph, Michigan. Maulbetsch spent his afternoons swimming and running sprints up and down the beach. On one trip, a giant coal passer claimed to be the strongest man in the world, and Maulbetsch agreed to a wrestling match on the boat. "The coal passer rushed the stripling, who ducked, caught his opponent about the waist and crushed him to the deck. When the giant woke, he wanted to know if the boat hit a rock." As the season started, The New York Times wrote: "Michigan's come-back football team, headed by Bullet Maulbetsch, is going to be an eleven to be reckoned with on the gridiron this Fall." Maulbetsch returned to his prior form, and one of the writers who had criticized him in 1915 said "the great Michigander using the same method of attack, has repeatedly broken in fragments this year the lines that he couldn't dent in 1915."

Professional football

After the 1916 football season ended, Maulbetsch considered his options. There was a report that he had been engaged as a high school football coach (and math instructor) in Toledo, Ohio. Even more prevalent were reports that he had signed to play for a professional football team. Professional football was still in its infancy in 1917, and landing a well-known star would have been a boost to any of the budding franchises. In January 1917 newspapers reported that Maulbetsch had signed a contract to play professional football for Detroit Tigers owner, Frank Navin. Navin was supporting efforts to organize a professional football league in all the important Midwestern cities, including a Detroit, Michigan franchise to play at Navin Field. As late as November 1917, newspapers reported Maulbetsch had played professional football after graduating and was offered "a handsome fee" to play with the Akron Burkhardts in November 1917. Although professional football records prior to 1920 are scarce, it appears unlikely that Maulbetsch played professional football, as press accounts show he was working as a college football coach starting in 1917.

Burlington - Ray S. Cronkhite, 98, of 5401 11-Mile Road, a retired rural mail carrier and longtime farmer, died Wednesday Feb. 22, 1984 in Oaklawn Hospital in Marshall, where he had been a patient five days. He had been in failing health the past year. He was born in Emmett Township and moved to a farm in Burlington Township in 1908 with his family. He moved to Battle Creek in 1914, and worked as a rural mail carrier, out of the old Post Office, on North Jefferson Street, delivering the mail with horse and buggy in the old Camp Custer area. He passed the Civil Service examination in 1918 and became a regular carrier.

However, he returned to the family farm the next year, and didn't resume his postal career until 1951, at age 65, when many people think about retirement. In an interview during the 1960s he said he thought the word retire was the worst word in the English language. He continued as a substitute carrier in the Burlington area until retiring again at the age of 83. He had assisted on the family farm until about two years ago. His first wife, the former Bertha Gore, died in 1933, and his second wife, the former Crystal Mohrhardt Jones, died in 1953.

Notes for Donna Altize Lutz:

Battle Creek – Two persons were killed in the head-on collision of two car on the Emmett Street road just west Gorsline Road intersection at 1:20 p.m. Sunday Sept. 21, 1952. The dead are Clair F. Porter, 62, Route 5, one of the drivers, and Mrs. Donna Lucas, 56, of 60 South Broad, wife of the other driver, Jesse Lucas, 58, of the Broad Street address, the other driver, was reported as in fair condition at Leila hospital today. He suffered a fractured leg and severe head injuries. Mr. Lucas was driving westward on Emmett and Mr. Potter eastward when, for some unknown reason. Mr. Potter's car swerved into the path of the Lucas car and they crashed head-on. All three persons were taken to Leila hospital. Mrs. Lucas and Mr. Potter were pronounced dead on arrival. The deaths were the 26th and 27th in Calhoun County from traffic since the first of the year. Dr. Willard N. Putman, coroner, said that both persons died of multiple fractures and internal injuries but an autopsy was performed this morning to determine the exact cause of Mr. Potter's death. No decision about inquests has been made as yet.

Mr. Potter, who had resided in ConvisTownship for the past two years, was a mason and small contractor. He had lived most of his life in and around Battle Creek. He was born in Fennville, March 11, 1890, son of Alexander and Mary Jane (McDerby) Potter, and married Marvia Carney Nov. 10, 1944, in Battle Creek.

Surviving besides the wife are three daughters, Kathleen K. and Rozanna and Rebecca, twins, all at home; three sons, David, Arthur and Arnold, also at home, and five brothers, Perry E. of Lansing, Lloyd of Newton, Lavern of 81 Yale, Donald D. of Pennfield Township and Paul C. of 34 Chambers.

The body is at the Hebble funeral home, but arrangements for services have not been completed. Mrs. Lucas, a lifelong resident of the Battle Creek area, was born August 18, 1896, in Fredonia Township, daughter of Michael and Clara (Abbott) Lutz.

She and Jesse W. Lucas were married Dec. 24, 1912, in Newton Township and they had resided at the Broad Street address for the past 11 years. Mr. Lucas was a member of the Maple Methodist church and the Shafer circle of the church.

Surviving besides the husband are here mother, Mrs. Clara Lutz of Ceresco; three daughters, Thomas (Katherine) Boehlke of Kalamazoo, Mrs. Merlin (Thelma) Hess of Santa Anna California, and Mrs. Ernest (Arleta) Banner of North Stone, Wattles Park; one sister, Mrs. Laurence Spooner of Ceresco; two brothers, Harold Lutz of Athens and Carlton Lutz of Dowling, and two grandchildren, David Boehlke and Janon Kay Banner. The daughter from California, Mrs. Hess, and her husband left here a few days before the accident to drive back to their home, after visiting her parents. They located in Colorado, notified of Mrs. Lucas' death, and are on their way back here.

The body is at the Farley funeral home and services are scheduled at 2 p. m. Thursday, with burial in Newton cemetery.

Battle Creek, Sept. 23, 1952 – A brain tumor and a resulting stroke affecting one of the drivers caused the fatal accident in which two persons died and a third was badly injured Sunday afternoon. A post-mortem examination yesterday on the body of Clair F. Potter, 62, of Route 5, the driver who swerved from his side of the road on Emmett near the Gorsline Road, showed he suffered from a large brain tumor, according to Dr. Willard N. Putnam, coroner. The doctor said the cause of death was the tumor and resulting hypertension rather than injuries suffered in the crash.

Mrs. Donna Lucas, 56, of 60 South Broad, passenger in the other car driven by her husband, Jesse, died in the collision. Mr. Lucas was seriously hurt. State police said witnesses saw Mr. Potter suddenly swerve his car into the path of the Lucas car.

Services for Mr. Potter will be at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Hebble funeral home, conducted by the Rev. Earl Kelbaugh, and burial will be in Reese cemetery. Mr. Potter and his wife, the former Mania Carney, were married in 1943, and lived in Emmett Township the last eight years.

Marriage Notes for Neva Lutz and John Rocho:
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lutz in Ceresco was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday afternoon Aug. 5, 1924 at 4 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Neva G. Lutz and John LaVern Rocco of Newton Township were united in marriage. About 30 relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ring ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Quinton S. Walker, pastor of the First M. E. Church. The home was elaborately decorated with garden flowers and greenery, a wedding arch of ferns and evergreens being arranged in a corner of the living room where the ceremony took place. The bride wore a pretty gown of Champaign, trimmed with rhinestone braid and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and bebe's breath. She was attended by her sister, Miss Beulah Lutz, while the groom was attended by his brother-in-law, Dennie Sterns.

Following a brief reception, an elaborate three course dinner was served by Mrs. Christian Lutz, a cousin of the bride. Many lovely and useful gifts were received. The young people left later for a motor trip to the "Soo." The groom is an employee of the Grand Trunk and upon their return they will live in Ceresco. The out of town guests were Miss Minerva Parker of Battle Creek and the Misses Marion and Pauline Rogers of Albion. Among the prenuptial parties which have been given for the bride was a picnic last Friday evening, given by 12 of the girls from the bran department of Postum Cereal in Willard park, Goguac Lake. A trip around the lake in a launch with swimming and boating were the diversions. A cooperative supper was served and Mrs. Flora Woodworth, in behalf of the company, presented the bride with a handsome bedspread.

Notes for Foster Edward Mohrhardt:

Foster E. Mohrhardt (1907-1992) was among "100 Leaders We Had in the 20th Century" published in 1999"American Libraries"30, no.11. He was born in Lansing Michigan, on March 7th, 1907, to Albert Mohrhardt and Alice (Bennet)Mohrhardt. He experienced a long and illustrious career in the field of Library and Information Science as a scholar, organizer, diplomat, and member of several associations.

Mohrhardt earned his A.B. degree from Michigan State University in 1929 while working as an assistant to the University Librarian. He then earned a B.S. Degree in 1930 from Columbia University and subsequently received a diploma from the University of Munich in 1932. He completed his M.A. in 1933 at the University of Michigan and was enrolled in the Ph.d program at Columbia University in 1934-35.

Upon Completing his formal education, Mohrhardt worked with William Bishop on an advisory group on junior college libraries for the Carnegie Corporation of New York from 1935 to 1937. During this time he traveled the country extensively meeting various school representatives of junior college libraries with the purpose of compiling a list of books for junior colleges. His compilation was published as "List of Books for Junior College Libraries" by the ALA in 1937.

From 1938 to 1946 he served as Librarian of Washington and Lee University. During his tenure there he was responsible for completing renovations to the Library building as well as developing special collections. In December of 1941 the U.S. was drawn into World War 2. During this time the Library of Congress was interested in protecting some of their more valuable collections and Mohrhardt offered surplus space available at Washington and Lee University for this purpose. Mohrhardt also performed his military service during this time; serving in both the U.S. Army Air Corps and the U.S. Navy.

In 1946 he served as chief of the Library and Reports Division, Office of Technical Services. This agency was responsible for collecting, disseminating, and indexing various civilian and military documents and evaluating their use in the public and private sector.

Mohrhardt then simultaneously served as a consultant at Brookhaven National Laboratory and visiting professor at Columbia University from 1947 to 1948. His activities at Brookhaven National Laboratory are unavailable due to a lack records. While at Columbia University Mohrhardt taught courses in library management and collection development until autumn 1948 when he returned to federal service.

Arriving at the Library Services for the Veteran's Administration Mohrhardt worked as assistant director briefly until taking over as director. From 1948 to 1954 his responsibilities included 450 collections located domestically and overseas. He established a reputation for skillfully organizing and streamling the procurement and cataloguing systems that endeared him for assignment to the U.S. Department of Agriculture Library.

Mohrhardt served as director of the U.S. Department of Agriculture Library until his retirement from federal service in 1968. During his time there he helped accomplish the redesignation of the USDA Library to the National Agricultural Library, remarking that it had been a truly national library since its inception. Ever the organizer, Mohrhardt also set about reorganizing and streamlining the administration. He placed the functions of the library into four categories: Public Services, Technical Services, Field and Special Services, and Management Services. He then used these changes to facilitate coordination with various national and international agricultural libraries. It is important to note that during Mohrhart's time at the National Agricultural Library he was also active in numerous associations and commissions. Some positions he held included President of ARL, 1966, President of ALA, 1967-68, Vice President of IFLA, 1965-71, President of the National Federation of Science Abstracting and Indexing services, 1964-65, and chairman of the U.S. National commission for FID in 1965. His work with these associations, particularly the International Federation of Library Associations, demonstrated his reputation as an international diplomat. This can be characterized by one incident that occurred during a board meeting when an Eastern-bloc representative became distraught at the course of dialogue. Mohrhardt reportedly left the room and returned with a flower for the woman and was able to diffuse the tense situation with his charm.

Foster Morhardt died June 7, 1992 in Arlington Virginia leaving his wife Katherine, Son David, daughter Katri Nowak, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. He experienced a long and productive career that left an indelible mark on his field. His greatest achievement was the transformation of the National Agricultural Library, establishing it alongside the Library of Congress and the National Library of Medicine as the defining institutions of their fields. In addition to this he built a reputation as a professional dedicated to the organization and use of knowledge for the public. He was able to see beyond the borders of his own nation and worked with people from around the world productively in order to ensure that knowledge was shared so all humankind could benefit.

Marriage Notes for James Grashuis and LaVonne Rognese:

Miss LaVonne Darlene Rogness and James Dennis Grashuis exchanged wedding vows Saturday evening December 8, 1962 in the Trinity Lutheran Church before an altar banked with white chrysanthemums accented with gold-topped foliage which reflected the light of two large tree candelabra. Rev. Erling C. Thompson officiated for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Rogness and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Grashuis. The bride was escorted by her father along an aisle lighted by candles tied with large gold bows and green ribbons. Her wedding gown of brocade satin was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and long sleeves pointed at the wrist. The skirt with front cross-pleats, was styled with a back bustle, and culminated in a brush train. A silk veil cascaded from her headpiece of net petals centered with pearls sent from Germany by the bride's sister. A cascade bouquet of red roses completed her bridal attire.

Miss Elaine Rogness, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were misses Marilyn Rogness, sister of the bride, Mrs. John Reid, sister of the groom, and Miss Mary Ann Raden. The bridal attendants were attired in gowns of emerald green brocade taffeta. Satin roses with gold leaves fastened circlet veils of green to their hair. They carried bouquets of white mums accented with gold bows. David Grashuis, was best man for his brother. John Reid, David McNickle and Ross LeMaster, Jr. were ushers. Daniel Rogness, the bride's brother, and Richard Holmes, were the candlelighters. Mrs. Rogness chose a rose beige sheath dress of silk shantung for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of ice-green brocade styled in a sheath. Both mothers accented their costumes with corsages of pink roses.

Those assisting at the reception in the church parlors which followed the cermony included Mesdames Lauris Overland, the bride's aunt; Nels Jensen, Ross LeMaster, Jr., George Connor, Ray Meadows, Misses Ingrid Haglund, Virginia Langford, Kathie Jones and Elizabeth Macey. Rodney Rogness, the bride's brother, passed groom's cake. For a wedding trip to California the bride chose a princess-styled sheath dress of white wool and a red coat with black accessories.

The bride, a graduate of Franklin Pierce, attended Pacific Lutheran University and Western Washington State College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Franklin Pierce. The new home will be made in Tacoma.

Notes for Walter Alwin Kalmbach:
Feb. 5, 1986 - In .June of 1905, 14 year-old Walter Kalmbach and his 12-year-old sister Alma Kalmbach, children of Michael and Emma (Eisenbeiser) Kalmbach joined the Salem Grove United Methodist Church near Francisco. They had seven older brothers and one younger brother at the time. Walter's parents immigrated from Germany in the mid-1800's. His father and uncle were very much involved in the building of the present Salem Grove Church building, which was dedicated in 1888. They helped to build the stone foundation wall and his father built the chimney in 1886, slaking his own lime. This chimney is still in use and only the top above the roof has had to be repaired over the years. In the early days of the church all services were conducted in German and were not changed to English until the early 1900's, when the church joined the English Conference, which included Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana. One reason for the change was the larger pension fund paid to pastors. The Kalmbach children attended Sunday school. Walter started by the time he was five years old. The children preferred walking to riding in the horse-drawn buggy because they could take a shorter route. They declined remaining for the church service because they could not understand the German language used by the pastor in the church service.

The Rev. Henry Lenz served as pastor beginning in 1904, and during his pastorate he organized fine programs for the children. In 1907 the Rev. Joseph Beal become the pastor. He was a talented musician and organized and directed a church choir. Walter and his sister began singing in the choir at that time and he sang with a quartet at age 16. In the early 1920's he became choir director. He and his sister were well known for singing duets for special occasions for many years. His duties other than choir director for more than 50 years have included the office of treasurer for 25 years, leader of the Epworth League during the 1920's and member of the administrative board for many, many years and also finance chairman. Walter graduated from Grass Lake High school and Geary College in Ypsilanti. Following this he worked as a stenographer for Cadillac Motor Co. for three years and three years in the Sociological Department of Ford Motor Co.

In 1918 he enlisted in the U.S. Army and served In France. After his time in the army he sold real estate in Detroit until he decided to enter the banking business. He started at the Farmer's State Bank in Grass Lake and continued to work there for 30 years.

In 1926 he was married to Elsie Heydlauff, now deceased. They had two children, a daughter, Phyllis, who has served as church organist for the past 30 years, and a son Waiter, Jr., who resides in Saginaw. Walter has always been active in community affairs having served on the Francisco rural school board also on Grass Lake and Jackson intermediate school board. Walter holds an 80-year membership record in Salem Grove Methodist Church having joined in June 1905. His relatives and friends all join in wishing him a Happy 95th Birthday on Feb. 5th.

An open house will be held Sunday, Feb, 3, 1991 from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. at Salem Grove Church to honor Walter Kalmbach, who will celebrate his 100th birthday Feb. 5. Kalmbach joined the church in 1905 at the age of 14. In 1907 he joined the choir, which he directed for more than 50 years. Kalmbach worked at the Grass Lake Bank and held church and school offices. He married Elsie Heydlauff, who died in 1980. He has a daughter, Phyllis, who is organist at the church. He also has a son, Walter, Jr., and daughter-in-law, Virginia, two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Walter A. Kalmbach of Grass Lake died Oct 8, 1994, aged 103. He is survived by one son, Walter Jr. (Virginia), and one daughter, Phyllis; two grandchildren; four great-grandchildren. He was a veteran of the US. Army serving in France in 1918 during World War I, charter member of the Grass Lake Lions Quo, life member of the Masonic Lodge. He served on the Francisco and Jackson intermediate School Board. Notes for Robert Lee Heydlauff:
Robert Lee Heydlauff; a lifelong Chelsea resident; died at his home on April 17, 2010. Bob was born June 6, 1955, to Willis and Jean Hafley Heydlauff. He inherited his father's love for music and played first-chair trumpet and tuba in Chelsea Public School bands. Years later he taught himself to play the banjo. Bob was also involved in Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts and played football at Chelsea High, where he graduated in 1973. Bob was far more intellectual than many people realized. Though he had no college degree, he was an avid reader throughout his life, reading the entire Encyclopedia Britannica and almost anything to do with history. Television's History Channel was endlessly interesting to him. Like his mother, Bob was very adept at crossword puzzles. During the challenging years that Bob was one of Michigan's many unemployed citizens, he surprised himself by getting a 4.0 in classes he took at Washtenaw Community College at the ripe old age of 53. He received his Nurse Assistant Certification last year. At the time of his death, Bob was planning to take more classes at WCC. High school teacher George Prinzing got Bob involved in working with recording and sound equipment. Bob used this skill over the years to work with several Chelsea-area bands. Like his father, Bob was employed at the Chelsea Milling Company for many years, was a member of the Rod and Gun Club and played cards at Seitz's Tavern on a weekly basis. Bob had happy memories of participating in Chelsea-area euchre tournaments and winning a few of them. He also enjoyed NASCAR, football and playing golf. Bob had a simple, reserved yet generous personality, much like his dad. Surviving Bob are his sister, Gloria J. Heydlauff of Tigard, Oregon; and his brother, David G. Heydlauff of Traverse City, his wife, Sue, and their two children, George and Elizabeth; Bob is also survived by long-time friends, Dan and Pat Bertke, and Tom and Jean Winans.
A gathering to remember Bob will be held on Sunday, May 9, at 2 to 4 p.m. at Chelsea Rod & Gun Club at 7103 Lingane Road. If you wish to make a donation in honor of Bob's life, the family suggests that you contribute to the American Diabetes Association. You will be able to do this at the May 9 gathering. Inviting someone who lives alone to join you for dinner, a game of cards or some other pleasurable activity would also be a wonderful way for you to honor Bob and his life. The family would like to thank all of those who helped enrich Bob's life, and who just dropped in to bug and pester him.

960 i. Shirley[10] Fick, born 02 May 1937; died 07 Oct 1972 in Lapeer, Lapeer Co, Michigan. She married ? Braxton.

Notes for Shirley Fick:

Lapeer - Shirley Fick was born in her maternal grandparents' old farmhouse in the early spring of 1938. Dr. John Dorland helped bring her into this world. The farm ranged across a hill near the railroad tracks on Millville Road. "It was nothing to have hoboes sitting on the porch in the morning," she said. They would ask her grandmother, "Ma'am, do you have any work I could do for a meal?" Her grandmother, Ella Waltz, worked in the kitchen and Bldg. 33 at the Lapeer State Home and Training School. Ella's husband Harry H. Waltz also worked at the institution, seasonally, training young male patients to do farm chores, like driving a team of horses and caring for livestock.

Shirley's father, Bill Fick, dated her mother Hazel and got her pregnant. They married and her parents took them in. Bill worked as a hired hand. Shirley's earliest days were spent in that farmhouse on the hill. That once happy household is now a distant memory, and so are the tracks. Shirley was first of the couple's six stair-step children. The older kids were born in the shadow of the Great Depression. The family's finances were bleak and so was their future.

She's not sure when her grandparents moved to 727 S. Saginaw Street. Her grandfather left his job at the state home and went to work at Bostick Foundry on Court Street. Meanwhile, she and her younger brothers and sisters were growing up in poverty. "My dad was a drunk and my mom was a whore," Shirley said. "Plain and simple. A woman of the streets. She was a sick woman, mentally, emotionally…" Destitute, unable to pay rent, the couple and their children moved here and there. Shirley started first grade when they stayed in a house on Liberty Street next to the flower shop. Later they lived at Potter's Lake, where her father worked as a farmhand somewhere in the neighborhood.

Robert, the sixth and last child of this ill-starred marriage, was a very sick baby, born with an enlarged heart. One day, when the family lived at Potter's Lake, Shirley's mother told her to go check on her baby brother. She did as she was told, and found him cold and dead in his crib. He was nine months old. "I was very sad," she said. The baby was dead. World War II was raging overseas, and her dad received a draft letter in the mail. He went into the infantry and was immediately deployed overseas. He fought in the Battle of the Bulge. The worst days of Shirley's childhood followed his departure. They would haunt her for life. She was seven. They were living in a shack on South Main, near a store. Her mother sold almost everything they owned. "We had no furniture. No nothing," she said. The children should have been in school but didn't have decent clothes. They were barefoot most of the time. Their mother drove a junky, rusted old truck. Some nights, she gussied up as best she could; Then she drove off into the night to sell her body for money to bring home and put food on the table for the kids.

Shirley was left alone to care for her younger sisters and brothers. They were often cold, hungry and scared. "I spent the better part of three years taking care of my siblings," she said. "I would go to the store, steal an empty bottle, take it inside and sell it to them so they would give me a nickel for the telephone. I would call grandma, and my aunts would come running to get us. If grandma was home, she would come and get us." The tumble-down house the children lived in was not far from Saginaw Street, but to a seven-year-old it may as well have been a hundred miles away. Too far for her to carry a baby and a toddler, and guide the two other small children in the dark. Many times she tried to steal food from the store to feed herself and her siblings. She suspects they may have seen her a few times and turned a blind eye because they knew what was going on.

Eventually, the state got involved. Her mother was declared unfit and the children were taken away. "She was unable to care for us — no money and no housing. She was very young with five small children. Poor and little education," Shirley wrote in May, 2014. "To this day I do not blame her. She was mom and did the best she could. Most days and nights I was the caregiver for four small hungry children. I'm glad I was there for my siblings." The kids were sent to the American Legion billet (orphanage) in Otter Lake. Shirley was placed in one building, Betty and LeRoy were in another, and the two youngest. Darlene and Stanley, in a third.

The babies fussed and cried most of the time. The employees couldn't get them settled down for naps, or to sleep at night, because they were so used to their older sister taking care of them. Time after time, the staff went to find Shirley, even when she was in public school, and led her back to Darlene and Stanley. The Fick children were at the orphanage for about a year. Then came the day when their father returned home from the war. He and Hazel got back together in hopes of salvaging their marriage.

Shirley has a picture of her family standing together near a brick building at the billet in Otter Lake. Their father is holding Stanley, their mother is smiling and the other four children are in front. It looks like they were all happily reunited, and maybe they were. But not for long.

Marion Louise[10] Lutz (Glenn Frederick[9], Carl Jacob[8], Anna Maria[7] Mohrhardt, Jakob (Morehart or Morhard)[6], Jakob (Morhard)[5], Johann Jakob[4], Johann Georg[3] Morhardt, Georg[2], Peter[1]) was born 22 Jan 1938 in Ceresco, Calhoun Co, Michigan. She married Jerry Lee Glubke, son of Joseph Glubke and Teresa Lybarger. He was born 28 Feb 1935 in Battle Creek, Calhoun Co, Michigan, and died 07 Apr 2021 in Battle Creek, Calhoun Co, Michigan.

Notes for Jerry Lee Glubke:

Jerry L. Glubke, 86, a Battle Creek native and longtime resident, died on Wednesday, April 7, 2021, at Reflections Memory Care where he had lived a little more than two weeks. Jerry was born on February 28, 1935, in Battle Creek, the son of Joseph N. and Teresa A. (Lybarger) Glubke. He was a 1953 graduate of Battle Creek Central High School and also had attended the old Battle Creek Community College and Kellogg Community College.

Jerry worked for 35 years at the Carton and Container Division of Post Cereals, retiring in 1988. At C&C, he was in the accounting department for 21 years, rising to the role of budget supervisor. He then worked 14 years in the manufacturing department where he was the finishing-warehouse foreman. In August 1965, Jerry transferred to the Post plant in Saratoga Springs, New York, where he and his young family lived for about two years before returning to Battle Creek. Jerry was proud of his time at Post and, as a manager, always tried to treat others the way he wanted to be treated. Jerry was a member of the Post 25 Year Club. He served on the Board of Directors of the Post Employees Credit Union for 17 years, and was the treasurer for 15 of those years.

Jerry was a man of many passions and golf was perhaps his greatest passion of all. He was an outstanding golfer most of his adult life and, over the years, had been a member of Marywood Country Club, Bedford Valley Country Club, Riverside Country Club and Cedar Creek Country Club. He was proud of the fact that he shot in the low 70s much of his adult life. In August 2010, at the age of 75, he shot a hole-in-one on the 170-yard 11th hole at Cedar Creek, something he always regarded as a peak experience. Jerry also enjoyed watching boxing, football, basketball, and baseball. For several years in the 1970s, he coached Mike's little league team.

He was an avid music fan and almost always had music playing in the background. A trumpeter in his high school marching band, Jerry especially enjoyed jazz trumpet and swing music. He was a big fan of the Brass Band of Battle Creek and rarely missed a concert.

Jerry and Marion loved to travel and, in 2001, they took a trip to Italy and Switzerland to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. They also had traveled throughout the United States and Canada. They made dozens of trips to New York City to visit Mark and Jeff, and made numerous trips to Orange County, California, and Austin, Texas, to visit Mike and Jody and their family. For several years, Jerry and Marion spent part of each winter in Austin to be near Mike and his family.

Jerry always said that his family was the most important thing in his life and there was nothing he enjoyed more than family gatherings. He also had a keen interest in family history. He was proud of his Polish heritage and loved sharing memories of his Glubka (that was the original family name) ancestors from Minnesota. In 2013, Jerry and Mark took a genealogy trip to Minnesota to find ancestral sights and reconnect with cousins he had not seen in decades. Jerry was an animal lover and volunteered for years at the Humane Society of South-Central Michigan. He also loved antique cars (especially Kaiser and Chevrolet), mystery novels, Battle Creek history, Broadway theater, gangster movies of the 1930s and 1940s, and a good Reuben sandwich. Jerry was a warm, funny, humble and unpretentious man who was loved by all who knew him. He laughed easily and frequently, and genuinely seemed to enjoy his life. It is a testament to his character that several people outside the immediate family regarded him as an important father figure.

60 years ago this month, Jerry married the love of his life, the former Marion L. Lutz. Their wedding took place on April 22, 1961, in the Ceresco Baptist Church. In addition to Marion, Jerry is survived by his three children, Mark (Jeffrey White) Glubke of Kalamazoo, Mike (Jody) Glubke of Austin, Texas, and Kristen (Chad) Bevins of Battle Creek; six grandchildren, Sarah (Joe) Kelsey of Kansas City, Missouri, Allison (Rick) Downs of Battle Creek, Brandon Marsh of Kalamazoo, and Nolan, Jillian and Gracelyn Glubke, all of Austin, Texas; a sister-in-law, Marilyn Glubke of Battle Creek; and many nieces, nephews and friends. He was preceded in death by his brother and best friend, Louis C. Glubke.

A visitation will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. Friday, April 16, at Farley-Estes Funeral Home. A celebration of Jerry's life will be held at noon Saturday, April 17, at Riverside Country Club. Burial will take place at Memorial Park Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the South Michigan Food Bank, the Humane Society of South-Central Michigan or the Alzheimer's Foundation of America.

Notes for Alvin George Reimold:
Manchester - Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Reimold, Manchester, have been notified by the War department that their son, Pvt. Alvin G. Reimold, has been missing “somewhere in France” since Aug. 4. Pvt. Reimold, selected for service last December, was an infantryman, and had been seen action in Franc since the early part of July. He was home last April on a 14-day furlough before going overseas the following month. The 20-year-old soldier was trained at Camp Sheeler, Georgia, Fort George Meade, Maryland, and Camp Grant, Illinois. Before joining the Army, Reimold worked on his father’s farm near Manchester.

“It was just like the old mouse trap play in football," said Pvt. Alvin G. Reimbold in describing capture by the Germans last August. The 20-year-old member of the Fourth Infantry Division has just returned to the United States, after being interned by the Germans for nearly 10 months. "We were riding on tanks through France, and thought that the going was pretty easy. Four of the tanks got off onto the wrong road, and for a while we wondered if the Germans were still in the country. After a while we approached the town of Versailles, near Paris, and rolled right in without a bit of opposition. "Then it happened, we had driven right past the German emplacements, and once inside town they opened up. At first we tried to escape, but the Germans cut us to ribbons. Out of the 75 men in the group, only 15 were taken prisoner, the rest were killed."

Reimbold had very high praise for the American Air Force. "We were first taken to Lindburg, and then to Mooseburg," he said, "and during the time that they didn't make us walk, we were herded into boxcars. It is a funny feeling to be bombed and strafed by your own planes, but the AAF hit every thine that moved in Germany. Our train was wrecked, but luckily, I wasn’t hurt. I can say that though the Germans didn't feel very well, we weren't kick around by them. They did stripe us of everything, including my watch. "I was then taken to Munich where they put me to work on the railroad for a while. That was about the most useless task I ever did, because as soon as we fixed the rail, American boomers wrecked them again. The city was a mass of destruction. The rail yards were all torn up, with the rails standing straight up in the air.

"The living conditions were terrible, and the food was worse, but the latter was aided by Red Cross parcels, which I got about once a week. We had to sleep on a straw tick, with no bed. It was so full of lice and bedbugs, that most of the time I just slept on the floor. "Then I got a break. I was sent to work on a farm about 50 miles from Munich, and there, was treated very well. The men ate the same food that the farmer did, we had clean clothes, and a good place to sleep.

"The German for whom we worked had a son who was a prisoner in New York. He told us his boy was 15 years old, and was set to become an officer when he was captured. The German press and radio had been telling the people about the terrible destruction that German planes were dealing out to New York City, but few of the people believed it, except the soldiers on the front lines. The farm I worked on was very backward. The only thing that I learned there was how to drive a team of oxen. There were few tractors, but this may have been because of the fuel shortage. "We were liberated by American troops early one morning in May, and then spent the rest of the day rounding up Germans. We also led the American troops to other farms, where we knew Americans were being kept. I wanted to go on with the patrol that freed us, and finish the war, but it was no go. They sent us, to Munich, and from there we flew to LaHarve, France, and from there we were sent home."

Reimbold entered the Army Dec. 4, 1943, and was trained at Camp Wheeler, Georgia. He was sent to Fort Meade, Maryland, where he left for England, arriving in July, 1944. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reimbold, Manchester are holding an open house in his honor from 1 to 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Alvin G. Reimold of Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 84, died Monday Jan. 28, 2008 at the University of Michigan Hospital. He was born July 5, 1924 in Freedom Twp, Michigan, the son of Alfred E. and Alma (Kappler) Reimold. He married Irene M. Wilson and she preceded him in death on June 25, 1997. Notes for Betty June Richards:

Betty June Wedemeyer 1921 - 2010 "If the world gives you lemons, then you make lemonade." This was the philosophy Betty June Wedemeyer lived by. To hear her talk, you'd think God blessed her more than any other person that ever lived. Because she was so blessed, the majority of her energy was spent seeking to bless others. This was her calling. Wherever she went, she looked for opportunities to meet new people and to bring sunshine, hope and joy into their lives. Her smile was contagious and hugs were freely shared. Betty June's greatest joy was her family, her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. When she wasn't engaged with her family and many wonderful friends, you might find her working on one of the seventy plus dolls she made by hand in her lifetime. Or you might find her using her green thumb on her African violets, organizing her turtle collection, reading or working on a puzzle. In the last years of her life, Betty June was especially grateful for the love and friendship of the Seniors Ministry team members of the First United Methodist Church of Bakersfield. They were always there for her. Life began for Betty June in Kalamazoo, Michigan on December 13, 1921 and came to a peaceful conclusion in her daughter's home Thanksgiving Day, 2010. Her last words were expressions of love for her family. Thanksgiving will forever be a time to give thanks to God for Betty June. Private services are being planned.

Beloved friend to many including Brian Mahieu, Tom Harris, and his dogs; Wingnut, Voo Doo, Barb, and Nosey.

Kevin was a once in a lifetime husband, family member and friend that will be remembered by so many. He was one of the most intelligent people many of his friends knew and was much desired as a trivia night team member, especially if you desired a winning team. He was a bottomless wealth of useless knowledge. He also enjoyed breaking computers (for the joy of fixing them again), watching movies and television (especially bad ones), playing Dungeons and Dragons and spending time with his family, friends and his greyhounds. He helped many greyhounds find their forever homes after they retired. Everyone who made Kevin's acquaintance was better for it. He always made people feel special and had a laugh or funny comment for any occasion. He was someone you could count on if you needed him and who would never turn his back on a friend. Kevin can be summed up best by his beloved Aunt Peach (Paige) who said "Kevin was brilliant and funny." As his friend Brian so eloquently put it, "Well-loved and deeply grieved, our hearts break with missing you."

Notes for Clois Bernard Worley:

Mr. Clois Bernard Worley, age 81, husband of Sandra Gray Lutz Worley, died on Wednesday, February 15, 2023, at his residence on Jaudon Road in Elberton. Clois was born in Elberton on September 30, 1941, son of the late Dunston Baker Worley, Jr. and Eunice Gladell Lovinggood Worley Taylor. Growing up, he was the baby of the family, joining brother Roland and sister Gladell. Clois was a 1959 graduate of Elberton High School and furthered his education at Atlanta Business College. He had dreams of becoming an electrician, but failed a color test that prevented him from being able to obtain his license. Clois then moved back to Elberton and went into the granite business with his brother at Worley Monument Company, Inc. He served his country in the Georgia Army National Guard.

Clois later met Sandra Gray Lutz, and the two would go on to become soulmates and best friends. They were privileged to celebrate 58 years of marriage. From the time he was born, he was spoiled rotten and Sandra continued that throughout their married years. In return, Clois did the same for her. A very talented man, he could make absolutely anything, and especially enjoyed steel work and working on race cars. Clois was an avid traveller who enjoyed family trips to Destin, Florida, scuba diving, and cave diving. He used his love of diving to benefit others. Clois was a member and former Vice President of the Elbert County Rescue Unit Dive Team and a certified scuba diver instructor. Of all the places he had been privileged to travel, he was always quick to say Gills Point in Lincoln County was his favorite. Clois enjoyed may summers there boating and waterskiing. He was a talented roller skater who taught most of his grandchildren how to skate. He was extremely proud of the fact that he could dance on skates. Clois and Sandra have been devout Jehovah's Witnesses for many years. They have enjoyed working together with fellow witnesses with their time and resources to further Jehovah's kingdom. Clois will be remembered as a kind, loving, generous, and noble man who never met a stranger.

Survivors, in addition to his wife Sandra, include his children: Clois Shane Worley of Elberton, Kevin Trace Worley of Athens, and Marjorie Elizabeth Worley of Elberton; and sister, Gladell Worley Brock of Athens. He was the fun loving and devoted "Papa" to his grandchildren: Candace Worley Erlandson, Timothy Clois Worley, Cassidy Elizabeth Worley, and Emily Destyn Higginbotham and his great-grandchildren: Erin, KJ, Elizabeth, Clii-Lynn, Chevy Clois, and Adriel. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his brother, Sidney Roland Worley.

He married Patricia Ann Toon 02 Sep 1967 in Louisville, Jefferson Co, Kentucky. She was born 15 Nov 1945.

Marriage Notes for Michael Willbur and Patricia Toon:

Miss Patricia Ann Toon, of Louisville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ray Toon, of Medora, became the bride of Michael Jerome Willbur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome E. Willbur, of Battle Creek, Michigan, in a double ring ceremony read at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, September 2, 1967, in Buechel Methodist Church, Louisville, Kentucky, of which the bride is a member. Dr. William H. Poore, pastor of the church, officiated at the rites.

Two seven-ranched candelabra were used on wither side of the chancel. Three huge individual brass candleholders, each containing a single large candle, and a three-branched candelabra holding two lighted candles were also used at the chancel. During the ceremony the bride and groom lighted the center candle of the candelabra and extinguished the two already burning, signifying their oneness. Also featured in the sanctuary setting were groups of palms flanking a pair of white marble columns topped with arrangements of white gladioli, snap-dragons and daisy chrysanthemums. A large arrangement of flowers was used on the altar, and pews were marked by white satin ribbons, greenery and white tapers. Every other pew held a brass holder with a hurricane lamp, and an aisle runner was also used.

Mrs. Willis Anderson, of Louisville, was vocalist, and prior to the ceremony she sang "Beloved, It is Morn", "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee", and, during the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Walter Harper, of Louisville, was organist, also playing "Hymn to Joy", Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring", "Litany", "Arioso", "Trumpet Voluntary in D. Major" and Trumpet Tune in D. Major". The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional floor-length gown of rich ivory peau de soie in an A-line silhouette. The bodice, with gently scooped neckline and bell sleeves adorned with peau d'Ange lace, was created with an Empire waistline defined by medallions of matching lace entrusted with bridal pearls and crystals. A deep border of delicate lace scalloped the hemline of the slender skirt. From a yoke of peau d'ange lace appliques over soft pleats, a Watteau train embellished with lace motifs flowed. The bride's vail featured a bubble effect and floated the entire length of her train. It was caught by a headdress of complementing lace, richly embroidered with pearls and iridescents and ornamented by a peau de soie bow knotted with pearls. The bride's ivory gloves were wrist length, and tiny seed pearl earrings were her only jewelry. She carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis, and also carried a white linen handkerchief, gift of her maid-of-honor.

Miss Sue Hall, former Louisville apartment mate of the bride and daughter of County Commissioner and Mrs. Thomas W. Hall, of Medora, was the bride's maid-of-honor, and Laura Lynn Rietsma, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Rietsma, of Marshall, Michigan, and niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Miss Hall was attired in a floor-length gown of moss green linen in skimmer silhouette, fashioned with short sleeves and scooped neckline. The front was adorned by a softly tailored bow. Two petite bows held a Watteau panel which fell to the hem from the deeply squared neckline at the back. Miss Hall's headdress was a veil of illusion in matching moss green, falling to the hemline. She wore wrist-length gloves of ivory, and her shoes matched her gown. Single cultured pearl earrings were her only jewelry, and she carried three long-stemmed yellow roses. Laura's costume was identical to that of Miss Hall, and she carried a garden basket of yellow petals.

Acting as Mr. Willbur's best man was his brother-in-law, Gary L. Rietsma, of Marshall, Michigan. Lt.

Michael Nichols, of Battle Creek, ushered, as did George M. Smith, of Medora, cousin of the bride. Bernard Ray Toon II, brother of the bride, was acolyte. Mrs. Leslie Stahl, the former Miss Rita Lee, of Vallonia, registered guests in the narthex of the church prior to the wedding. Mrs. Toon, mother of the bride, wore a turquoise silk frock with accessories of a slightly darker turquoise. Her gloves were white kid. Mrs. Willbur, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gold linen dress with matching jacket and moss green accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white roses.

A reception was held in the party room of the church. Tables were laid with floor-length lace cloths, replicas of those used in the White House. Silver service and candelabra were used on the cake table, with white tapers in the candelabra. Around the base of each were yellow roses and smilax. The four-tiered wedding cake was topped by yellow roses, and round its base were yellow roses and smilax. Each guest were presented with a small package of rice in ivory net, tied with moss green ribbon. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Keith Schap, of Bloomington; Mrs. James Butt, of Brownstown; Mrs. Norman Beck and Mrs. James Kiel, of Seymour; and Miss Sue Gallican, Miss Frances Gieszl and Mrs. Margaret Karcher, of Louisville.

For her traveling costume as the newlyweds left on a northern trip. Mrs. Willbur chose a tailored suit of shades of green in hopsacking material, with monogrammed blouse. She wore navy blue accessories, white gloves and a gardenia corsage. On the small finger of her right hand the bride wore a signet ring bearing her new initial “W”, with the mounting including three diamonds which ere from her maternal grandmother Prather’s wedding ring. Since Saturday Mr. Willbur and his bride, have been at home at 1108 Plato, Country Club Apt. No. 48, Duncan, Oklahoma.

A graduate of Medora High School with the Class of 1963, Mrs. Willbur attended Indiana University. She is a member of Phi Beta Psi sorority and was a member of Medora Evangelical United Brethren Church prior to the past year, serving as organist. Mr. Willbur, who will be attending officers' Candidate School at Fort Sill, was graduated in 1981 from. Lakeview High School, Battle Creek, Michigan. He is a member of Lakeview Baptist Church, in Battle Creek. He received his bachelor of science degree and a master of business administration degree from the University of Michigan in 1965. Prior to this entrance in the U.S. Army in April, he was employed with Arthur Young and Company,a national accounting firm, in Chicago, Illinois.

After graduation she worked for a short time at the Kellogg Company in Battle Creek then started her career at State Farm Insurance Company Regional Office in Marshall. She worked at the Marshall office transferring to the Portage office where she retired in 2009 after 46 years of service. Ralph's sister, Tracy, introduced Connie to her brother Ralph W. Connie and Ralph were Cub Scout leaders, coached T-Ball in Charlotte, and hosted 4 foreign exchange students over the years. They always had time to help others, many times taking special interest and providing help to a troubled child. Connie led an active life working with Ralph on their 17 acres mowing the lawn, landscaping, and tending her myriad of flowers. Her hard work in their garden provided the many good things which she loved to can and cook. Connie found time for her many friends through bowling, belonging to a card club, and volunteering at both the Eaton County Fair and Charlotte Frontier Days. She loved to crochet and donated countless hats to area hospitals for newborns. She loved to camp and fish, and dearly loved her many dogs and cats throughout the years.

Groveland Twp. -- An Oakland County Sheriff's deputy had to have his leg amputated below the knee after a traffic accident that occurred following his retirement party. Deputy Keith Palmer was riding on a motorcycle Friday, Oct. 8 when he was involved in a collision with another motorist. "It's very, very sad," said Sheriff Michael Bouchard, "especially on a day that should have been a celebration of his career. "We're doing all we can to help him and his family." Sheriff's officials said the accident happened the same day as Palmer's last day, celebrating his 28 years on the job, police said. Palmer was heading northbound on Dixie Highway and had stopped at a traffic light at the Grange Hall Road intersection. Another motorist heading north fell asleep at the wheel, drifted into the other northbound lane and struck Palmer, Michigan State Police said. He was taken to Genesys Hospital. Notes for Kody James Strieter:
Diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL) at age 11

Kody Strieter isn't a typical teenager. He's soft-spoken, articulate and an avid golfer. Some of Kody's even-keel attitude likely comes from lessons learned on the links. Or perhaps because he has overcome an obstacle that few his age have faced. At 11 years old, suffering from bouts of fatigue, Kody was referred to specialists at Texas Children's, where he was diagnosed with ALL. After his family's initial shock, Kody approached treatment with composure and confidence. In only a matter of months, his recovery was virtually complete. Kody celebrated his victory with a trip to The Children's Grand Adventure In July of 2010. "It was amazing, " he says. "Mountains, snow, bear, elk, moose – we don't have anything like that in Texas." But what Kody does have back home are plenty of friends he made at The Grand Adventure. "We text each other a lot, " he says. "A bunch of us even went to a pro soccer game together. We plan to stay close for a long, long time."

She married Dennis Ronald Buccigrossi. He was born 15 Jul 1959 in New Jersey, and died 13 Nov 2021.

Notes for Dennis Ronald Buccigrossi:

Dennis Buccigrossi passed away November 13, 2021, at age 62. Born in New Jersey in 1959 as the youngest of 5 siblings, Dennis carried a little of his back East roots, and a lot of his Italian heritage, across the country when he and his parents, Mary and Alfonso, along with his sister, Joann, moved to Arizona in 1968. Fun was had as a teen in the 70s—fun he didn't tell his kids about until they were grown—and he graduated from Maryvale High School in 1977.

As an adult, Dennis was a successful and loyal employee. In 1980, he began working for Allied Signal, where he spent 20 years. This was proceeded by another 19 with the United States Postal Service where he worked proudly, gently scolding his family if they ever mailed packages FedEx or UPS. Dennis was also a master of the kitchen, channeling his Italian roots to make spaghetti and meatballs that were often asked for by request. His true passion though lied in construction and being an all-around MacGyver with a toolbelt. If he didn't know how to build or fix something, he'd figure it out. The only safety hazard Dennis ever created on the job was confusing people with a detailed explanation of how he did what he did.

Some of these confused, but grateful, recipients of his handyman skills are those loved ones by whom he is survived, including his much-beloved wife of 29 years, Brenda, who lives in the home he remodeled for them with extreme precision and care. He also leaves behind three daughters, Christina (Kat), Lauren, and Alyssa, who all talk with their hands just like their dad. His nephew, Zachary, also held a special place in his life.

Dennis was blessed with 6 grandchildren. Kat's 3 boys Brendan, Colin, and Xander; and Lauren's triplets Jase, Payton, and Adam; all of whom miss their grandpa dearly but already show signs of carrying on his legacy, whether it be their love for building, cooking, or hand gesturing.

A private celebration of life for Dennis will be held for family and close friends.

1545 i. Delanie Claire[12] Maute, born 15 Oct 2009 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 31 Dec 2022.

Notes for Delanie Claire Maute:

On December 31, 2022 our sweet angel, Delanie Claire Maute, age 13, lost her courageous 10-month battle with cancer. Through our grief, we can rest with the knowledge that she is no longer suffering and is now able to rest peacefully with our Heavenly Father. Delanie was born on October 15, 2009 in Ann Arbor, Michigan and grew up in Chelsea, Michigan. Delanie loved all animals, she had many throughout her short life. She had two dogs that she adored named Malibu and Murphy and a guinea pig named Capy. She shared many stories about her 3 furry friends with the doctors and nurses that cared for her throughout these last 10 months. She spent a lot of time on TikTok and her feed was filled with dog, capaybara, Roblox and Marvel related videos. We spent many hours when she wasn't feeling well due to the chemotherapy watching Marvel movies one of her favorite characters was the Scarlet Witch. She also played many, many hours of her favorite video game Roblox. She recently started collecting Marvel memorabilia and fostered a video editing skill that she became really good at and even had a video or 2 go viral. She enjoyed many sports throughout her youth, starting with gymnastics at the early age of 4. She switched to team sports as she entered middle school, preferring the comradery that they provided. She played softball, basketball and volleyball. Delanie was competitive and didn't like to lose. This fighting spirit of hers helped her tremendously in her fight against cancer.

For Delanie, family and friends meant everything. Whether it was everyone gathering for large family dinners or just hanging out with a group of her friends, that was when she was in her element. Her infectious smile could light up the room, and her spunk and sass would keep everyone entertained. What really made us proud though was her kind, giving spirit. As Christmas approached and her cancer progressed, all Delanie was concerned about was making sure she could give presents to her friends and family. Receiving gifts was not important. She spent multiple nights in the hospital ordering last minute gifts to ensure everyone was taken care of. We were blessed to be able to have Delanie home for 5 days over Christmas and the memories of that time will live on forever with us.

Delanie is survived by her loving parents Darrel (Rebecca) Maute and Carrie Childs-Thor (Jamie); sister Elleri; stepsister Kali (Luke) Coppernoll, Jerica (Jesus) Thor-Arriaga; stepbrothers Hunter and Carson Presson, Jake and Dylan Thor; grandparents Ralph and Glenda Childs, Robert Maute and Sally Sherwood; step-grandparents Gregg and Sharon Baxter, Fred and Lyn Thorand, Ronald Fargo and many loving aunts, uncles and cousins.

Visitation will be held on Friday from 2-8 P.M. at the Faholo Tabernacle, 3000 Mt. Hope Road, Grass Lake, Michigan. Funeral services to celebrate Delanie's life will be held at 11 A.M. Saturday, January 7, 2023, at the Faholo Tabernacle. To honor Delanie's memory and continue Delanie's legacy, a memorial scholarship fund has been set up so Delanie can continue to give back. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating in her memory.

Donations can be made through gofundme here GO FUND ME. Or by mailing payments to The Delanie Claire Maute Scholarship Fund C/O Sherwood Funeral Home 1109 Norvell Road Grass Lake, MI 49240. Special thanks to Delanie's medical teams at C.S. Mott Children's Hospital and Beaumont Children's Hospital for all of their efforts. Also, a tremendous thank you to Aunt Missie Gatza for all of your kind, compassionate and caring love for Delanie.

He married Marcia Lynn Beal, daughter of Paul Beal and Loretta Schmitz. She was born 14 Aug 1963 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Children of Dennis Walz and Marcia Beal are:

1547 i. Jacob Charles[12] Walz, born 14 Aug 1986 in Jackson, Jackson Co, Michigan; died 06 Feb 2010 in Homer, Calhoun Co, Michigan.

Notes for Jacob Charles Walz:

A son, Jacob Charles, was born Thursday, Aug. 14, 1986 to Marcia and Denny Walz of Grass Lake. Grandparents are Paul and Loretta Beal of Stockbridge, formerly of Chelsea, and Duane and Maryann Walz of Munith. Great-grandparents are Mary Beal of Chelsea, Freida Neilly of Ft. Myers, Florida, Mrs. Harold Walz of Munith and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klink, Sr. of Chelsea.

February 08, 2010 - Jacob Walz once went to New York, but told his sister he never wanted to go back."He didn't like the big city. He likes the country. He liked the fields. He liked the open," said his sister Amber Walz, who wants to remember her brother as a man who valued family and enjoyed the outdoors. Jacob Walz of Waterloo Township died Saturday in what police believe was an alcohol-related crash in Homer. Police said he tried to flee a traffic stop, he lost control of his vehicle, and the car hit a tree. "I don't want people to remember him as that," said his sister, 20. "He wasn't that type of person to go do something stupid like that, to drink and drive."

A Homer officer turned on his emergency lights and siren and tried to stop Walz about 2:06 a.m. as Walz headed west on M-60 near Webster Street in Homer, said Calhoun County Sheriff's Capt. Matt Saxton. The officer had earlier seen Walz's car go over a pedestrian bridge south of M-60 in the east part of the village. Walz, who was not wearing a seat belt, immediately accelerated and drove about 3/4 mile on M-60. He tried to veer west on W. Main Street and lost control. His car struck a tree between W. Main Street and M-60, Saxton said. He was driving faster than 80 mph, according to a sheriff's office news release.

Authorities pronounced him dead at the scene. The crash remains under investigation by the sheriff's office accident reconstruction team. Saxton said Walz was leaving The Homer Mill, a restaurant, bar and haunted house. Amber Walz said she was not sure who her brother had been with or what he was doing. He had been living with his mother in the Homer area, his sister said.

A 2004 Stockbridge High School graduate, he grew up in Waterloo Township, where he lived with his father, Dennis, and his sister. His grandparents, who own a farm, lived nearby and he spent a lot of time with them. He always was busy helping, said his grandmother, Mary Ann Walz, who called his death "a real shock." Saturday, he was to come cut wood with his dad, she said. She said he liked tractors, especially Farmall tractors, and assisted in the past with area tractor shows. His sister said he was a NASCAR fan who enjoyed hunting deer, squirrels and rabbits. Since high school, he worked at Mason Elevator Co. for about two years and was currently employed at Horton Farms near Tekonsha, his grandmother said.

She said he had expressed an interest in doing electrical work, and she tried to encourage him to go to Jackson Community College. Amber Walz said she was not sure of his plans. "He was too young." She said she and her brother were close. They confided in each other. She cut his hair. Together as kids, they would play hockey on a pond at the farm, said Amber, who recently joined the Air Force. Jacob told her he wasn't going to come see her graduate from basic training this summer in Texas, but one of his friends told Amber he had planned to go. A jokester who almost constantly picked on her, she figures he intended to surprise her.

Jacob Charles Walz of Munith, Michigan, age 23, died as a result of a car accident on February 6, 2010 near Homer, Michigan. He was born the son of Dennis H. Walz and Marcia (Beal) Bisonet on August 14, 1986 in Jackson, Michigan, and shared the same birthday as his mother. He loved the outdoors, working with his hands, and sports of all kinds. He was a graduate of Stockbridge High School in 2004. He is and always will be a Tractor Man - he loved them all but preferred Red over Green. Jacob did not know the meaning of being still and was always on the go except when Two and a Half Men was on TV. He loved being with his family and friends.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his sisters, Amber Lynne Walz and Darby Rae Fracassa, both of Munith. Jacob is also survived by his grandparents, Paul and Loretta Beal of Stockbridge and Duane and Mary Ann Walz of Munith, along with his step-father, Jim Bisonet of Homer, step-mother Erin Fracassa of Munith, and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral services will be Thursday, February 11, 2010, 11:00 a.m., from the Caskey-Mitchell Funeral Home with Rev. Wendy Walz and Pastor Adrian Rosa co-officiating. Expressions of sympathy may be made to the family. The family will receive friends at the funeral home on Tuesday from 6-8 p.m. and on Wednesday from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m.

Notes for Jacquelyn Kay (Jackie) Tobias:

At age 63, Jacquelyn Kay Reimold passed away on Wednesday, August 31, 2016 in her home. Jackie was born on June 29, 1953 in Saline, Michigan, the daughter of Elmer and Virginia (Schoenhals) Tobias. She is survived by her husband, Alfred "Fred" G. Reimold who she married on October 16, 1976 and her two children, Alyssa Reimold and Chad (Carley) Reimold, along with her three grandchildren. Jacquelyn Reimold (Jackie) was a beautiful person who touched the lives of all who came in contact with her. She was full of life and spirit, a strong woman with an addictive smile and laugh who was grounded in faith and the love of family. Jackie grew up in Saline, Michigan as one of eight children to farmers, Elmer and Virginia Tobias. Hard work, growing and nurturing were traits that rippled through her life beyond the farm.

A retired employee of the University of Michigan Hospital, she was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She loved spending time with her sisters, grandchildren, cooking, crafting, and going to up north Michigan. Most of all she loved her family. She valued family and never drew lines on where her family ended. Everyone was welcome in her home and you felt that warmth immediately because to her, love was something everyone should have in their life. She had a big heart and extended her home to many people because she wanted them to feel devoted love and give them a safe place they could call home. Jackie considered her family her greatest achievement and loved her children, grandchildren and husband without complexities and with a depth that can't be measured. They have a love that they will carry with them forever. She taught and ingrained in her children that the simplicities of life shouldn't be taken for granted. Being kind, honest, trustworthy, and genuine will ultimately form the kind of person you will become - and she led by example. She continually showed her loved ones a strength and perseverance that was limitless and amazing. Jackie's imprint on the many lives that she touched will never be forgotten.

Survivors in addition to her husband, children and grandchildren include her extended children Vanessa Kusak, and Heidi (Ronald) Hamill-Coakley. Other survivors include her siblings Thomas (Julia) Tobias, Marilyn (Ernie) Weaver, Barbara Lopez, Linda Hopkins, Diane Banks and Timothy Tobias, twelve nieces and nephews, twenty-one great nieces and nephews, and six great-great nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents Elmer and Virginia, sister Janet Sue (Susie) Tobias, and niece Deborah Jean Kolander.

A Memorial Service will take place in the near future at the Milan Baptist Church in Milan, MI. Please check back for more information. Memorial contributions in her name may be made to The Myositis Organization for continued research and awareness Arrangements are entrusted to the Robison-Bahnmiller Funeral Home in Saline.

Sept 28, 2020 - After 12 years with Royal Oak Schools as a teacher and instructional specialist, Alyssa Reimold is the high school's new assistant principal. More than 120 people applied for the job and Reimold was selected after three rounds of interviews with candidates. She stood out for two reasons, said Michael Giromini, high school principal.

"First, she has an incredible ability to develop meaningful, supportive relationships with everyone she encounters, including students, staff and families," he said in a statement. "Second, her appreciation for diversity and her commitment to equity and inclusion have already had a profound impact on Royal Oak High School … I only see that influence growing." Reimold was the design and technology teacher at the high school last year and was named High School Teacher of the Year for the district. School officials said Reimold is known for recognizing her students as individuals and they in turn respond to her calm demeanor. Pat Wolynski, executive director of staff and student services, said in a statement that Reimold has taught at the elementary, middle school and high school levels. "She has … consistently demonstrated leadership qualities with a commitment to equity and inclusion for all students," Wolynski said. "For the past six years she has led the Student Diversity Council at Royal Oak High School."

Reimold has a bachelor's degree in visual arts education from Eastern Michigan University, where she also earned a master's degree in educational media and technology. In her profile on the school district's website before she was named assistant principal, Reimold described herself as a specialist at the high school who supports teachers with instruction and technology integration. "My passions are teaching, learning, traveling, digital design, the arts, technology, design thinking and project based learning," she said. "I wear many hats in the building and I love it all!"

Notes for Blair Leah Erickson:
Blair Erickson & Andy Prescott, September 1, 2019 - Young Harris, Georgia. We both attended the University of Georgia and had several mutual friends in college. We would cross paths at parties, football games, tailgates, and concerts, but it was a camping trip with friends in fall 2012 that marked the first significant time we spent together. We laughed and talked a lot that weekend, and went on our first date a few weeks later at Blair's sorority's semi-formal. It was a wonderful night and we spent the entire next day together cheering on the Bulldawgs in the playoffs. Nearly 7 years after that fall day in Athens, we will be married in the North Georgia mountains in front of you; our closest friends and family. Here is a bit about our lives in between our first date and wedding day…

After Blair graduated college in Summer 2013, we moved to Atlanta and spent about a year there. Blair began applying to graduate schools, and was accepted to a great match in San Francisco. It was more of an instinct than a decision for Andy to follow her, and we both moved to California in August 2014. We spent 10 months in San Francisco just a few blocks from the bay and a view of the Golden Gate Bridge, and then moved to a cozy little apartment across the bay in Berkeley. This was our home for most of our time together. We met amazing people and saw incredible things in California, but most of all we fell deeper and deeper in love.

We got engaged on one of our very last nights in Berkeley. Just a few days later we packed up our whole lives into a 2-door Honda Accord and took a cross country trip on our way to Blair's new home in Lexington, Kentucky, where she is now an intern at the Veterans Hospital. Andy moved to Nashville three hours south to work on taking his own career to another level in Music City.

It isn't easy living apart from one another during our engagement year, but our wedding day offers a constant source of excitement and joy. Our relationship was born and developed in nature, so we are so thrilled to have your join us in the beautiful North Georgia mountains for what will surely be the most memorable day of our lives.

Our ceremony will be at the Brasstown Valley Sunset Terrace. It is an outdoor venue with views that overlook the North Georgia mountains. A close friend of Andy's family, Andrew Frearson, will be conducting the ceremony. Our reception will be nearby at the Sunset Pavilion where we'll have a buffet supper, full bar, and live band made up of musician friends and colleagues.
