Johannes (John)⁵ Rauschenberger (Eva⁴ Broesamle, Johann Adam³, Johann Michael², Georg¹) was born 02 Aug 1833 in Unterwaldach, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 13 Sep 1923 in Jeffersonville, Clark Co, Indiana. Notes for Johannes (John) Rauschenberger:
Written by John Rauschenberger (self autobiography):

I was born August 2, 1833 Unterwaldach. Healthy and eager to learn, I started to school when I was 5-1/2 years old. We also received religious instruction, and at Easter 1847 we were confirmed by our pastor, Laux, My consecration saying was: "Conduct you life always mindful of God; Take whatever comes as a well-intentioned gift." The saying that was selected for me has always been in my memory, and has been a consolation in joy and sorrow, good fortune and bad fortune.

Late in 1847, I entered an apprenticeship to learn the blacksmith trade from master Mathaeus (Matthew) Hirtle in Salzstetten, in the district of Horb. I was under contract to work for 3 years without pay. He was a good master. There was enough to eat and drink, but there wasn't any lack of work either. In one respect he was very strict: at 4 o'clock in the morning he would call, "Johann, Get up!?" But he was himself the first on as well as the last one at work, as when we sometimes worked until 9 PM. After my 3-year apprentice period was over, I took my examination in the county seat of Horb in presence of the guild. I passed it with a good grade and received my certificate as a journeyman blacksmith, signed by the President and Secretary of the guild.

After spending a few weeks at home, I went with my guardian on June 21, 1851 to the courthouse in Freudenstadt. There I received my travel document under the guarantee of my guardian that I would appear for compulsory military service when I was 21 years old.

With staff in hand and knapsack on my back, I undertook my journeying and quite soon found employment. I worked several places in Stuttgart, and then in Esslingen with master blacksmith Swegter. Also in the machine works (Car & Locomotive Works), which I enjoyed very much. I learned a lot and made good money. But because the time for military service was drawing near, I came after mature deliberation to decision to emigrate to America and not to devote the best time of my adult years to military service. Early in 1852 I made ready for the trip and worked for a few weeks for my old master Hirtle. He said, "Johann, you stay here as long as it takes to get your trunks all ready, because ship chests have to be well made and reinforced with iron."

In the company of my guardian I then went to the county court in Freudenstadt and renounced my citizenship. In keeping with that, he was released as a guarantor for me and I received an emigration visa for myself and my youngest sister, Margaretha, who wanted to emigrate to America with me.

We made a contract with the sailing "Carolus Magnes" (Charles the Great or Charlemagne) which sailed to New York. On May 1, 1853 we departed from the home, traveling through Baden and France to LeHavre. The route was: arrived in Strasbourg May 3 and left there May 5, arrived in Paris May 6 at 4 AM and left there the same day at 9 PM, arrived in LeHavre May 7 at 7 AM. Now it was a matter of getting ready for the ship journey, for which we had to provide our own bedding and food. We brought a mattress and provisions to supplement the food that we had brought from home. On May 9 we boarded the ship.

On the whole, the voyage was pleasant, although the majority of the passengers became seasick. Our party was not excluded from this. There were 25 to 30 of us young people who came from the same area and perhaps had known each other in school. There were both boys and girls, acquaintances and relatives. We amused ourselves as a family would. Since I was only one who escaped seasickness, I had to look after the cooking. It was an unfamiliar task for me, but with the help of the girls I did pretty well at cooking noodle soup. When the seasickness was gone and good appetites had returned, the girls took over most of the cooking, although we boys helped. The kitchen was always full, and it often took arguments and even blows to get room to hang our kettles over the fire. But we brought good food and drinks from home; hams, sausage, eggs, lard, and bread. We also had wine and all sorts of liqueurs. We had a few storms, and most of the time the weather was warm and pleasant on the deck. We amused ourselves with music and singing. We had good musicians and also singers. We made up a mixed chorus and let our school and folk songs resound, like brothers and sisters of a family. We all were of one faith, educated and brought up in the Evangelical Church.

After a voyage of 33 days we landed in New York in good shape at noon on June 13. All of us made ready for the journey to our destinations, where we had friends and acquaintances. My sister and I went with friends of ours, the Gottlieb Blickley family, to Detroit, where he had two married brothers. Our route was: left New York June 15, by steamboat to Albany, then by railroad to Buffalo, arrived in Buffalo 4 PM, June 16. Left that evening by steamboat for Detroit. Arrived in Detroit June 17, 1853. We were received very kindly, and the family found a service job for my sister. I found work with a blacksmith who worked on steamboats, and Englishman named Blair. It was a hard beginning for me, in that I didn't know English and it was always necessary for someone to interpret. My wages were small and I was always low on cash, when I needed money for my board. Mr. Blickley would give me a check for sugar or coffee or the like, but no cash. Often I thought of the good job I had had in Esslingen in the Car & Locomotive Works. But my friend Blickley cared about me. One evening when I came in, he spoke to me about work in Michigan City.

Arrived at Michigan City, Indiana, Jly 1853. Taken out my citizen paper in Laporte, Laporte Co, Indiana, in 1859, being a citizen of Indiana over 60 years.

John Rauschenberger (1833-1923) arranged for various family members to join him here in America. IN 1854, he made travel arrangements for his mother to join him in just one year after arriving in the States himself.

In October 1879, John arranged for his nephew, also named John, and two nieces to immigrate to the United States. All were the children of John's brother Georg who remained in Germany to look after the family saw mill in Unterwaldach. Newpew John (1863-1931) also worked as a blacksmith and owned a small farm in Butler, Butler Co, Pennsylvania. The property held two houses, and a barn large enough to keep a few milk cows and supplied the neighborhood with fresh cream for a price. The small house on the back of the property remains in the family and was occupied by members of the Rauschenberger, grandson of John, lived in the home after marriage. Curt, grandson of Floyd, great-great-grandson of John, and his wife Joyce Rauschenberger lived for the first five years of their marriage.

Of the nieces, Mary married John Hoehn and lived in Butler, Pennsylvania. (It was while visiting his sister that nephew John met his future wife.) Catherine (1864-1884) was unmarried and died of homesickness, or so the story goes.

Notes for Lyle Wayne Paul:

Marshall – A 16-year-old Marshall girl is in critical condition at Bronson hospital in Kalamazoo today following a car-train crash at 11:54 p.m. Saturday Feb. 26, 1950 near Galesburg, in which the driver of the car, Eugene Brenner, 16, also of Marshall, was killed. A third and fourth passenger were reported in "fair" condition. Kathleen Hill, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hill of 723 West Hanover, who was reported critical, suffered a possible skull fracture, pelvic fracture, fractured right leg and possible internal injuries. A second girl, Donna Lapham, 16, daughter of Mrs. Avis Lapham of Route 4, Marshall, and Dale Lapham of Hastings, received a fractured pelvis and internal injuries. The other boy in the crash, Lyle Paul, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Paul of Route 5, Battle Creek, in Emmett Township, has a possible skull and jaw fracture and internal injuries.

All are juniors at Marshall high school, Donna and Kathleen recently appeared in the school's annual junior play and Lyle is on the football squad. Eugene played varsity basketball until he quit the team a few weeks ago. Kalamazoo County sheriff's officers said that the four were returning home after ice skating at Echo valley. Brenner was driving a car owned by his parents when it stalled on a New York Central Railroad crossing one mile west of Galesburg. Miss Lapham, the only one conscious following the accident, told officers that they saw the lights of an approaching freight train only seconds before the crash. The train hit the left side of the car and left it a total wreck.

Brenner and Miss Hill were in the front seat, while Paul and the Lapham girl were in the rear. The Hill girl is a cousin of Miss Virginia Hartman, 18, of Route 1. Tekonsha, who died last December of injuries received in a crash November 29 near Homer. Eugene Levi Brenner was born March 5, 1933, in Marshall, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brenner of 507 Clinton. He would be 17 years old next Sunday.

Alvin Siemsen officiated at the service, which included the reading of the obituary and sermon. The Rev. C. H. Wittbracht who had baptized the serviceman in his infancy and not only confirmed him, but also his mother, used the words of Robert's confirmation memory verse, "My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways" Prov. 23, 26, as the basis for his meditation. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Schmid offered as a duet, "Sometime We'll Understand," and Mr. Schmid sang Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar."

Robert William Heusel was born in Ann Arbor, the son of William and Esther Burkhardt Heusel, on December 1, 1924. He attended school in the neighborhood of his home on Scio Church Road, and graduated from the Ann Arbor High School on June 10, 1942, following which he was employed at Fiegel's clothing store until his enlistment in the U.S. Marine Corps on March 13, 1943. On October 26, 1948, he went to Camp Elliott and thence overseas. He was in the Hawaiian Islands until January when he participated in the Eniwetok Atoll, and later took part in the invasion of Guam, Palou and Okinawa, where he was instantly killed in action by enemy artillery fire on May 15, 1945.

- 239 i. Florence Beatrice⁸ Briston, born 26 Sep 1929 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 02 Oct 2020 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Morris Willard Pike 16 Nov 1950 in Pinckney, Livingston Co, Michigan; born 20 May 1928 in Mesick, Wexford Co, Michigan; died 30 Apr 1997 in Michigan.

Notes for Florence Beatrice Briston:

Florence Beatrice Pike (née Briston) – affectionately known as Flossie to those who loved her – died peacefully at home surrounded by family on October 2, 2020. She was 91. She is survived by her six children: Karen Pike of Mount Clemens, Diane (James) Moore of Traverse City, Rebecca (Don) Drob of Armada, Deborah (Tom) Odorcich of Lake Orion, Michael (Renee) Pike of St. Clair Shores, and Denise (Ricardo) Guzman of Mount Clemens. Additionally, she will be greatly missed by 14 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren and her siblings Kate Bell, Charlotte Clark, Louise Schultz, Janet Watts, Judy Johnson and John (Sharon) Briston. She is also survived by many “adopted” grandchildren all of whom she loved. Flossie was pre-deceased by the love of her life Morris W. Pike and a grandson, Andrew Cuthbertson.

Flossie was born in Chelsea, Michigan to Florence and Charles (Charlie) Briston on September 26, 1929, the eldest of seven children. Her early years were spent in Scio Township, outside Ann Arbor. She loved music, especially the sprightly marches of John Philip Sousa, and played flute in the band. She often recounted a story when, in junior high, she was invited on a trip to Chicago with the high school band to play at Soldier Field and how she – a country girl – ran into a streetlight while gawking at the sights of the big city. She regularly talked about her first jobs: working behind the meat counter at Kroger in Dexter, waitressing at Barton Hills Country Club, and making auto parts at the King Seeley Co. Scio Township plant. Other cherished memories growing up include enjoying ice cream sodas at the Washtenaw Dairy, ice skating on the Huron River with her siblings and father - who could skate faster backward than she could forward - and tobogganing. She said they were the only family in the neighborhood that had a toboggan, so all the neighbor kids would join them at Beisiegel's Farm to sled. The Great Depression shaped her early life. She was frugal, knowing how to make a little go a long way, but never with her love for her family. Morris and Flossie met at the home of mutual family friends just outside Mesick, Michigan.

After marriage, they moved their young family down state where he found work in the Dodge Main plant. In 1958, they purchased a home in Mount Clemens and stayed for the remainder of their lives. The Pike house was filled with their own children, neighbor kids, several pets and later grandchildren, great-grandchildren and many other young people, all known to Flossie as “my kids.” Flossie was happiest surrounded by children and was often seen reading a story to one or more child sitting on her lap. Her home was the site of many Easter egg hunts, raucous Christmas mornings, Yahtzee, Scrabble and Canasta games, puzzles and afternoons on her porch swing. When she wasn't raising children, she was volunteering. She ran donation drives for the March of Dimes, was elected Vice President of the PTA at Thomas Alva Edison elementary, and served as a Brownie leader. Flossie loved to travel, visiting places around the globe first with her husband, then with her adult children including Hong Kong, England, Scotland, Alaska, Washington DC and Niagara Falls. Later she would travel to visit grandchildren in Seattle, West Virginia, Kentucky, New York City and elsewhere. She was an avid reader and always emphasized the importance of education returning to school to earn her diploma. She attended countless school plays, recitals, musical performances and horse shows. She was proudest when attending graduations, particularly those of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren from military training, college, medical school and doctoral programs. She greatly valued the democratic process, never missing an opportunity to vote and serving as an election worker for many years. She taught many lessons to those around her, but perhaps the most important was the courage and fortitude revealed as she battled cancer. She was tough as nails, surprising her doctors by surviving months longer than they thought she would. She set a goal to celebrate her 91st birthday and she did, enjoying both in-person and virtual celebrations with her family. Flossie was fiercely loved and will be terribly missed by all who knew her.

The family invites you to share in honoring her life on Thursday, October 8, from 2:00 to 8:00 pm at the Kaatz Funeral Directors, 226 Crocker Blvd., Mount Clemens. For the safety of all, masks and social distancing are required. She will be laid to rest next to her husband at Christian Memorial Gardens West in Rochester. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Flossie's favorite charity, Toys for Tots, or to the Ted B. Wahby Cancer Center in gratitude for the care provided by Drs. Frank Knechtl and Neal Bhatt, Melissa, Carl and the entire team. A virtual memorial service will be held on Sunday, October 18th, at 4:00 pm.

Notes for David Blake Steinbach:

David Blake Steinbach of North Lake, Michigan, age 64, passed away on August 9, 2023 after a courageous battle with cancer. Dave was born on May 5, 1959 in Ann Arbor, Michigan to Ray and Alice (Bregger) Steinbach. He grew up in Chelsea, Michigan and graduated from Chelsea High School in 1977. Dave attended Northern Michigan University and then joined the U.S. Navy, where he served as a Nuclear Reactor Operator on the U.S.S. Omaha based in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. On September 7, 1984, Dave married the love of his life, Shannon Springer, and while still serving in the Navy, son Sean and daughter Tracy were born. After leaving the Navy, Dave and Shannon returned to Michigan, and Dave started working at the University of Michigan, where he was employed at the College of Engineering supporting classroom technology for over 34 years.

Dave's true passions were family, the outdoors, and University of Michigan sports. He loved anything to do with hunting, fishing, and conservation. Dave was a hunter safety instructor and an active member of the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club, where he served in a number of positions, including president. He also helped start and was an active instructor of the youth shooting group since 2002. Dave also served in many positions of leadership with the local, state, and national chapters of Ducks Unlimited, Inc., where his involvement and contributions will serve the organization for years to come. Dave loved to entertain, host gatherings, and make others happy. From his famous wild game meals, to fund-raising dinners, to his annual North Lake Fireworks celebration, Dave's gift was bringing people together. One of Dave's favorite places to get away to was Murph's Camp in the Upper Peninsula, where he spent the opening week of deer season for over 30 years. The camp was also the location for relaxing and enjoying time with family and friends throughout the year.

Dave is survived by his wife, Shannon (Springer); son, Sean Steinbach; daughter, Tracy Steinbach; brother, Vic (Shari) Steinbach; mother-in-law, Sallie Springer; sisters-in-law, Sherrie Springer and Shelly (Curt) Kessler; and many nieces and nephews who affectionately called Dave "Uncle Buck." Dave was preceded in death by his parents, Ray and Alice Steinbach, and father-in-law, Sheridan Springer. Dave's life was enriched by all the friendships he made over the years and he will be dearly missed.

Visitation will be held at the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home in Chelsea, on Sunday, August 13, 2023 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. with a reception to follow at the Chelsea Rod & Gun Club, 7103 Lingane Rd., Chelsea.
