Notes for Johannes (John Mayer) Maier:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

John Mayer, who has been foreman of the Michigan Furniture Company more than twenty-five years, was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1854, and acquired his early education in that country. His father, John Mayer, was a millwright by trade, and died December 24, 1896, at Linnville, Indiana. His mother, whose maiden name was Mary Bahlinger, died in 1874. When thirteen years of age John Mayer came with his parents to America, and after landing on the Atlantic coast they made their way direct to Washtenaw County, arriving on the 21st of November, 1867. The family home was established at Scio, where for some years John Mayer attended the district schools, as did his two brothers, John J. Mayer, who is now pastor of the German Evangelical church at Bloomingdale, Illinois, and Gottlieb, a carriage manufacturer at Lake Odessa, Michigan. There are also two sisters: Justine, now the wife of Rev. William Hausman, a resident of Adrian, Michigan, and Katie, the wife of Rev. Michael Mehl, of Linnville, Indiana.

After completing his education John Mayer began work on the farm of William Aprill, of Scio, where he remained for two years. He then began learning the trade of a cabinet maker under the direction of Florian Muehlig, of Ann Arbor, and for two and a half years was thus employed on the second floor of the last frame building that stood on Main Street between Liberty and Huron streets. The first floor of the same building was occupied as a butcher shop by Mr. Sipple, the father of the present fire chief of Ann Arbor. After remaining with Mr. Muehlig for two years Mr. Mayer entered the employ of John Keck, who was then conducting a small factory on Fourth Street. The business has since been greatly enlarged and is now conducted on the same site under the firm name of the Michigan Furniture Company. Mr. Mayer has now been foreman of this concern for over a quarter of a century, a fact which indicates his thorough understanding of the trade, his capability in the discharge of his duties and his unquestioned loyalty to the company which he represents. On the 11th of August, 1874, Mr. Mayer was united in marriage to Miss Christine Klinck, a daughter of Frederick Klinck, of Wurtemberg, Germany. Both of her parents died in the fatherland several years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Mayer have become the parents of seven children: John E., Henry G., Carl F., Herman G., Robert E., Ernest W. and Mrs. Sophie Weimer. It is rather a remarkable fact that each of the sons is an expert rifle shot, and they have repeatedly issued challenges to any other family in the state to a contest at the target.

For several years Mr. Mayer has been prominently connected with fraternal organizations. He has been president for three terms of two years each of the Ann Arbor Arbeiter Verein, two terms of one year each of the Ann Arbor Schuetzenbund, eight years president of Germania lodge, No. 476, D. O. H., of Ann Arbor, and for three terms of two years each president of D. O. H., of the state of Michigan, which office he is holding at present. He is also prominently identified with the Ancient Order of United Workmen in Ann Arbor. Although he has never been a candidate for office he has always been a consistent democrat and is a member of the Bethlehem German Evangelical church of this city, serving on the building committee at the time of the erection of the house of worship. His advancement in business life is due to no fortunate combination of circumstances or to any family influence, but has come as the direct result of his own untiring labor, perseverance and capable management.

47. James Arthur⁷ Mayer (Arthur Gottlieb⁶, Jacob Heinrich⁵, Johannes (John Mayer)⁴ Maier, Johannes³, Johannes², Johannes¹) was born 15 Oct 1934 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 28 Apr 2020 in Stuart, Martin Co, Florida. He married Lynn Danette Sherman 12 Aug 1961 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 26 Oct 1937 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 01 May 2010 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for James Arthur Mayer:

James Arthur Mayer passed away the morning of April 28, 2020, at the age of 85 while in hospice care in Stuart, Florida. Jim was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan, in Oct. 15, 1934 to Arthur and Anna Mayer. He grew up in the Wildwood Park Area of Ann Arbor's West Side and attended Ann Arbor High School, where he played football, hockey and wrestled. He furthered his education at Eastern Michigan University and served in the Army, stationed in Germany, from 1957-59.

Upon returning from the service, he met and married Lynn (Sherman) on August 12, 1961. They have two children, Rick (Palm City, Florida) and Lisa (Ann Arbor, Michigan). He was a longtime employee of Michigan Bell (a subsidiary of ATT), retiring in 1989. He was a member of the Ann Arbor Jaycees for many years. Jim was an avid sports fan. He followed professional and college sports, and was a UM season football ticket holder for more than 30 years. (And to our recollection, he never missed a home game in all those years - Go Blue!) He enjoyed exercising and socializing at Liberty Athletic Club (Ann Arbor) and at the YMCA in Florida during the Winter months. He gave up softball when Lynn said, "It's either softball or golf." He played in a golf league and enjoyed drinking a beer with the fellas after a round. He also enjoyed reading and travelling with Lynn. If you knew Jim, then you know he liked things a certain way. He took great care of everything, from shoes to cars to the yard. His pond, yard and gardens were well maintained and made a lovely backdrop for outdoor entertaining on the deck, or playing with his grandkids in the yard.

He's preceded in death by his wife Lynn (2010); his parents, Anna and Arthur Mayer; his sister's husband Kenneth Behnke; and Lynn's parents Daniel Charles and Leah Sherman, as well as her brother, Daniel Newton. Jim is survived by his son Rick, his daughter, Lisa and her husband Greg Schneider, and their two children, Jack and Emma. He also leaves behind a brother, William, and his wife Jane, a sister Marilyn Behnke and numerous nieces and nephews. Jim was a "Townie," so he also leaves behind many friends and colleagues in the Ann Arbor and surrounding areas.

Jim will be interred at Washtenong Memorial Cemetery, Ann Arbor, Michigan, in the coming weeks. Due to the pandemic, there are no plans to hold a service at this time. We shall miss Jim's teasing sense of humor, hearty laugh, tell-it-like-it-is personality, and, above all, his love for family and friends. Lynn was a member of Liberty Athletic Club, where she participated in water aerobics and socializing with her friends. Lynn was also a member of Heirloom Rug Hookers, and made many beautiful rugs. Lynn was fortunate to have traveled to Europe, the Caribbean, Alaska and Hawaii throughout her life and marriage. Traveling was always one of her passions. Some of Lynn's favorite pastimes were tending to her many plants, and flower gardens, shopping for antiques, going to plays, movies and reading books. She loved being involved in her children and grand-children's lives, attending birthday parties, car races, sporting events and musical concerts. Lynn was a long time Michigan resident, but looked forward to wintering in Palm City, Florida, where her son, Rick Mayer lives. She enjoyed the occasional evening cocktail or glass of wine (sometimes afternoon; but never morning) with her family, friends and neighbors in both states.

Her parents and her only brother, Dan Sherman (Tulsa, Oklahoma), preceded her in death. Lynn leaves behind Jim, her husband of 48 years; son, Rick; daughter and son-in-law Lisa and Greg Schneider (Dexter, Michigan), and her twin grandchildren, Emma and Jack Schneider.
