Notes for Rev. Daniel Keller Breunsbach:

Home City - The Rev. Daniel K. Breunsbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Breunsbach was commissioned as a missionary Sunday afternoon, June 7, 1959, at Frieden's Lutheran church, by the Rev. David Vikner, former missionary of Japan, who flew from New York for the occasion. Other dignitaries present included the Rev. Alfred Young, Omaha, Nebraska; Rev. and Mrs. Henry Gettler, Lanham, Nebraska; Rev. and Mrs. Richard Dunning, Lancaster, Rev. Carl C. Nuebel, Bendena, Rev. and Mrs. Dean E. Sudman, Kansas City, Missouri; Rev. and Mrs. H. T. Lenser, Hanover; the Rev. Robert Buhr, school of missions, Maywood, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Jenny, Fremont, Nebraska, and others. Mrs. Alta Breunsbach was commissioned as a co-worker with her husband. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sandoz of Dawson, Nebraska; her brother Glen Sandoz and his wife of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were here for the services in morning and afternoon. Many other relatives and friends from a distance came. Dinner and lunch was served.

June 3, 1979 - When Dr. Roger Gieschen, Kansas City, Missouri, president of the central States Synod, Lutheran Church in America, arrives to dedicate Fellowship Lutheran Church, 6727 S. Sheridan Road, at 3 p.m. Sunday, he may be surprised at the altar behind which he's expected to stand. Built by Fred Losber, a master craftsman, the altar is of oak with brass inserts – and 4-1/2 feet square.

"It is a little unusual," admitted the Rev. Daniel K. Breunsbach, the parish's founding pastor, "but our worship area is 46 feet square, and we decided it was somewhat biblical to build the altar just a tenth of the size." Besides, Breunsbach said, the altar is on hidden casters, so that it can be placed in front of the faceted glass windows, in the center of a wall or in the middle of the room for different worship patterns - or it can be rolled into a closet so the room can be utilized for other purposes. One of the aims of the Fellowship congregation since the church was begun - in shopping center office space at 6125-C S. Sheridan Road - has been to make their facilities available to community groups. A third medically-related group, the Tuberous Sclerosis Association, recently has begun meeting in the church. The congregation already was host to monthly meeting of the Tulsa chapter of the Oklahoma Lupus Association, and the Feingold Association, a group of parents who devise special diet to help their children overcome hyperactivity.

Another unusual factor about the Fellowship building is that, despite inflation, the 5,200-square-foot structure cost just about what the architects, Ragsdale-Christensen Architectural Collective, estimated when construction began in May, 1978 – approximately $270,000. All of the building's space has been designed for multi-purpose use, so that an assembly room in the educational wing which can be divided into smaller classrooms will also be large enough for fellowship dinners.

Also scheduled for dedications Sunday are The public will be welcome at all the services at all churches.

In a pretty summer setting of flowers and candles at St. Mark's Lutheran church in Verdon, Nebraska, Miss Alta Sandoz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sandoz, Dawson, Nebraska, became the bride of Mr. Daniel Breunsbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Breunsbach, Home City. The bride's gown fashioned of embroidered tulle, was detailed with a sheer long-sleeved jacket laced with embroidered flowers. The embroidered motif was repeated on the deeply scalloped tiers of the waltz length skirt. She carried a bouquet of red roses with white satin streamers. Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Rex Bevins of Lincoln. Bridesmaids are Miss Alice Kay Sandoz, sister of the bride and Miss Betty Naaf. The attendants' gowns were styled with three-tiered skirts of ballerina length. The bodice featured a turned down cuff. Mrs. Bevins's gown was light green, Miss Sandoz', yellow and Miss Naaf's, pink. The attendants wore matching stoles and ruffled headbands and carried colonial bouquets. Robert Beckstrom served as best man. Ushers were Glen Sandoz and Warren Keller. Douglas Naaf was ring bearer.

Notes for Rev. Charles Rex Bevins:

Lincoln, June 22, 2002 - When the Rev. Rex Bevins became pastor of Saint Paul United Methodist Church in 1980, he got a letter from a colleague saying, "You have just made the most stupid career decision in your life. The clergy friend predicted that in 10 years Bevins would "feel more like a curator of a museum than the leader of a downtown church." Bevins said he took that letter as a challenge. He definitely proved his friend wrong. By the early 1990s, the Saint Paul congregation was charting its future as a strong and vital downtown church. Now, as Bevins prepares to retire June 30, the church has a major new addition with a gymnasium, offices and classrooms, a completely remodeled sanctuary and a fine new organ. Bevins, who turned 70 in May, is far from ready to retire. But United Methodist rules require that ministers step down at that age.

Instead of resting, he's looking forward to new challenges as director of financial development for Encounter With Christ in Latin America and the Caribbean, a mission project of the United Methodist Church; and by starting his own consulting firm, helping churches and non-profit agencies with strategic planning and fund raising. "I know something about that, I think, and I believe I have some expertise to offer," Bevins said. A native of Cedar Rapids, Neb., Bevins said he "struggled with the issue" of becoming a minister for several years before finally making the decision. "I sometimes say I didn't enter the ministry until God had to hit me over the head," he said. While a student at Nebraska Wesleyan University and planning to major in engineering, Bevins attended an evangelistic meeting at the State Fair grounds where he had a religious experience that changed his life. "I suddenly felt the presence of the risen Christ and felt my sins were forgiven, and I trusted in Christ alone for my salvation," he said. The next week he told the director of religious life at Wesleyan that he was considering becoming a minister. "Because I had not been an exemplary student, the poor man almost had a stroke," Bevins recalled. But he went on to try student ministry at a church in nearby Otoe. He started as a substitute, planning to serve two to three weeks, and ended up serving that church for three and a half years. "I learned preaching on the job," he said. "It was a gift I really didn't know that I had. That church gave me a chance to use it Obviously, to this day, preaching is very important to me.

Not only the 1,760 members of Saint Paul, but the many others who listen to his sermons at 11:30 a.m. each Sunday on KFOR-AM radio, can attest to his ability as a preacher. St Paul's services also are carried on KFAB-AM in Omaha and "Worship at Saint Paul" on Time Warner Cable Channel 13. Bevins attended the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, California, serving as youth pastor at a church in Oakland, California, and then for seven years at a church in the Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco. When he began that assignment in 1957, the "new community," often called hippies, had not yet begun to move in. But as "flower children" poured into San Francisco from all over the country, Bevins helped design new ministries to reach young people who had run away from home, were experimenting with drugs and seeking a new purpose in life. "It was a wonderful experience because it opened me up to all kinds of new challenges, and to see people in new ways," he said.

From 1964-69 Bevins was pastor of a suburban church in San Carlos, California, where he helped start a teen discotheque to counter the drug problem. "We decided that youths and adults could work together if given a specific task and responsibility," Bevins said, noting that teen-agers got involved in doing drug referral and outreach. Bevins returned to Nebraska, where he was pastor of Warren United Methodist Church from 1969-74, and then executive director of ministries for the Nebraska Conference of the UMC until going to Saint Paul in 1980. Bevins said when he first came to Saint Paul, the congregation was divided because of difficulties with a previous minister. Bevins stayed neutral, seeking to heal wounds and empower the congregation to mold its own future.

In 1992, Bevins was a candidate for bishop but withdrew to support the election of the Rev. Joel Martinez, the first Hispanic bishop in the United Methodist Church, who later became bishop of Nebraska. Bevins also said he wanted to stay at Saint Paul to help the congregation move forward in expanding its ministries. Marilyn Moore, lay leader for the congregation, called Bevins "a very, very fine preacher" as well as an excellent administrator. "It's very challenging to be a vibrant downtown church in these days and times," she said. "Rex has made a huge contribution in bringing Saint Paul to where it is now. She also had warm comments about the Rev. David Lux, who will become senior pastor of Saint Paul on July 1. Lux is well-known to the congregation because he served as associate pastor from 1983-89. "His style is quite different from Rex's, but people are delighted that he's coming," Moore said. An open house reception for Bevins is scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday. The public is invited.

Notes for Gary Leon Wuster:

Gary Leon Wuster June 23, 1939 – October 6, 2012 Gary Wuster walked his last fairway in this life Saturday evening after a courageous battle with Alzheimer's and heart disease. He was 73. A celebration of life will be held at Bookcliff Country Club on Thursday, October 11th at 2:00 p.m. A reception will follow. Please come in casual or golfing attire. Gary will be missed by all of those who were blessed to be part of his family and the many others who had the chance to call him a friend.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Milton and Irene. He is survived by his wife of 22 years, Judy; brother, Andy (Marvelyn) of Lincoln, Nebraska; sons, Trent (Beckie) of Fruita; Tracy (Jennifer) of Austin, Texas; Mark Rhyne of Los Angeles, and Ron (Lisa) Rhyne of Pinedale, Wyoming; daughters, Karla (Gene) Coleman of Grand Junction; Julie Kochevar of Grand Junction; grandchildren, Tristan, Tanner, Nickie, Tyler, Jennifer, Curtis, Matt, Ryan and Landon.

He was also blessed to have nieces and extended family in Nebraska and many good friends and golfing buddies who affectionately called him 'Wooten'. Gary was born in Dawson, Nebraska. The family later moved to Lincoln, Nebraska when he was five years old. His memories of this time included growing a large garden and raising rabbits to sell. He later graduated from Northeast High School in 1957. He then attended Nebraska Wesleyan University where he received a degree in business. After graduating, he spent a short time in the Marine Corps Reserves at Camp Pendleton in California. Upon returning to Lincoln, he became an assistant professional at Hillcrest Country Club. Even though his love of and talent for golf eventually would bring him to Colorado, his love for the "Big Red" Cornhuskers never left his heart. After attending the Professional Golfer's Business school in Dallas, Texas, he moved to Colorado to be an assistant golf pro at Hyland Hills. He then came to Grand Junction in 1969, with his wife, Sandy, to become Head golf pro at Book Country Club, having Trent and Tracy a short time later. He spent many years at the club teaching many people to golf and developing lasting friendships. In 1978, he was named PGA Golf professional of the year for Colorado. Gary enjoyed many golf adventures with family and friends in beautiful places across the country and even got the chance to travel and play in golf's birthplace of Scotland. His talents gave him the opportunity to meet many legends including Ben Hogan and Jack Nicklaus and nearly earned him a spot in the U.S. Open. He also held the course record at the Country Club for many years. He was still playing almost weekly up until the time of his passing.

A career change in 1983, led to him to start his lawn care and landscaping business which he didn't completely retire from until just this year. He was meticulous in his work making sure his customers were always happy and that the work was done with care. He was particularly proud of winning The Daily Sentinel's yard of the month last year and of his dazzling and of creating extensive Christmas light displays. Gary's family was blessed to share so many great times with him. He married Judy in 1990, and they enjoyed golfing together and traveling to many great places such as Hawaii and Nova Scotia. Whether it was fishing, playing cards, attending grandkid's sporting events and activities, celebrating holidays and birthdays, or watching golf, he always enjoyed the company of his family and friends. His quick wit and generous spirit will be missed tremendously. We know he is on the course somewhere now telling someone to "hit it straight partner". Gary was instrumental in helping to develop a golf scholarship for local students. Contributions can be made to this organization in his name to the Western Colorado Golf Foundation, P.O. Box 2415, Grand Junction, Colorado. 81502.

Notes for Constance Lou (Connie) Heim:

Constance "Connie" H. Metherell peacefully passed away on February 26th in Salt Lake City, Utah after a New Year's diagnosis of brain cancer. She was born in Montoursville, Pennsylvania on June 12, 1933. She was the daughter of the late Luther and Constance A. Heim. Connie married Robert D. Metherell in 1951. While working for the National Park Service they raised three children: Kenneth (Kay), Michael, and Kathryn (Dayle) Flanigan.

Connie had the opportunity to live in many beautiful national parks from the Northeast to the Southwest. While living in Cedar City, Utah, she was preceded in death by her husband in the winter of 1973. She enjoyed old friends, travel, and meeting new people. She began teaching alpine skiing at Brian Head, Utah. That work and a desire to experience city life, led her to Salt Lake City, Utah where she taught skiing at Park City. Connie was an avid reader with a great love of learning. Many charitable organizations have been grateful for her generous support. She was a good friend and kept in touch with many folks she had enjoyed throughout her life. Family was first for Connie and she always felt lucky to have spent good time with her four grandsons and seven great grandchildren. Connie often expressed gratitude for the spouses who joined the family along the way. Her great presence and beautiful smile will be missed by all who called her Connie, Mom, Grandma, Goldie, and friend.

To reflect and celebrate her life, there will be two separate gatherings of family and friends. One will be held in Salt Lake City on March 17. Summer will find her family traveling to Montoursville, Pennsylvania where she will rest in a cemetery with her husband, mother and father. In lieu of flowers, Connie wanted donations made to the hurricane relief fund for the island of Anguilla, BWI. She loved the many friends she made there and it was her favorite travel destination. A reputable charity is Anguilla Progressive Association of New York Inc.

Notes for Thomas Roger Boyer:

If the measure of a life well lived is loving well, Tom Boyer nailed it. Born Feb. 4, 1957 and raised in McMinnville, Oregon, Tom Boyer, 64, spent his life farming his family's land and cultivating community with his beloved wife of 30 years, Barbara. He left behind the legacy of a community deeply rooted in love and service to one another when he passed away, following his year-long battle with cancer. Despite his suffering, Boyer lived into the words of the French Renaissance writer, doctor and humanist Francois Rabelais: "For all your ills I give you laughter." Making people laugh was one of the things Tom did best. For a man of few words, Boyer is adored and remembered for his wry humor, quick wit and endless supply of "Tom-isms." "It's not all about you, buddy," he'd say with his trademark twinkle in his eyes. If you didn't really want to know what he thought about a thing, it was best not to ask because Tom could be counted on for two things: the truth and showing up.

Tom Boyer was all about his people and showing up for them. Whether it was to lend a hand with a project or to celebrate a milestone, you could count on Tom to show up. He knew how to hustle through harvest to get hay in the barn before the rains came, but he also knew when to put on his party hat and dance. As hard as he worked on the farm, he only worked a few Sundays in his entire career. And even then it was because he was helping someone else. He knew when it was time to swap work boots for his signature shorts and flip-flops.

Tom loved traveling with his wife and friends. He especially loved his "windshield" time with Barbara, AKA road trips to Mexico, hay deliveries and camping. He loved being in nature, sharing meals and stories with friends and laughing by the bonfire. Creative and resourceful, everything was an adventure with Tom Boyer, whether it was scouting for the best bargain on something or delighting his family and friends at the annual campout hosted on the farm, a tradition he and Barbara took over for his late brother Bob. From hauling a carnival slide down by the camp kitchen, or making sure the fire was going no matter the time, Tom gave his heart to make sure people felt at home and welcome at his farm, because everyone was.

Boyer was preceded in death by his mother, Inez Runner Boyer; father, Theodore John Boyer; and brother, Bob Boyer. He is survived by his wife, Barbara; son, Theodore John Boyer II; granddaughters, Josi and Zsa Zsa; sister, Mary Lou Hughes; and brother, Bill Boyer, all from McMinnville; niece, Carly Boyer; and nephew, Mitchell Boyer of Eugene; as well as his community of beloved friends.

Holding a celebration at a later date will allow us to hold hands, hug and have large belly laughs safely. A lover of all things with feathers, donations may be made to the Audubon Society of Portland

On January 29, 2016, he married the love of his life, Debbie Eippert Terry, in a ceremony surrounded by his closest friends. Fred had a true zest for life and was always ready to plan a trip to experience a new adventure. Everyone who knew Fred knew of his love of deep sea fishing. Fred never met a stranger and was always interested in learning about the lives of the people he met during his lifetime, which endeared him to so many. Fred joins his mother and father, Ernest and Anna Regina Terry, on the next stage of his journey. As Fred would say, now he is really "living the dream." He leaves his loving wife, Debbie; 2 sisters, Melinda Terry and Carol (Pete) Peterson; niece and nephew, Lisa and Joey; his extended Eippert family, and countless friends who he cherished and loved.

Thank you to everyone for the overwhelming support and for the constant prayers, phone calls, text messages, and visits to see Fred. In lieu of flowers, Donna requested memorial gifts. They may be sent to the family in care of Dea Epley Birtwistle/ 275 N. Taft #202 /Mason City, Iowa 50401 or directed to Sharon Center United Methodist Church, or to the Red Bird Medical Clinic in Beverly, Kentucky. The Peterseim Funeral Home is assisting the family.

Donna was born in Beverly, Kentucky on January 3, 1930 where her father, Dr. Harlan Heim, was the first medical doctor in southeastern Kentucky, and a missionary at Red Bird and a licensed minister for what is now the United Methodist Church. Her mother, Golda Heim, was a high school teacher at the Red Bird Mission School. Her younger years were spent in the poverty-ridden mountains of Appalachia where she watched her father start the first child-wellness clinic, family medical insurance for the loggers, and build the first hospital in the area.

On May 11, 1952 she married an older classmate from Westmar College, Lloyd Epley, at the Methodist Church in Humboldt, Nebraska. They were married for 67 years, and Lloyd comments that marrying Donna was the best decision he ever made in his life. They modeled a wonderful partnership for their friends and family. During their first year of marriage, Donna taught high school English in Ogden, Iowa while Lloyd was in Korea. Donna and Lloyd then settled into home in Coralville, Iowa. She was a life-long learner, and her involvement in many activities demonstrated her passion for diversity. She and Lloyd took vacations with their children to all 50 states primarily camping at national parks and also traveling to several European countries. They participated in mission trips to Red Bird in Kentucky, Guatemala, Mexico, Nome, Alaska, the Heifer Project in Perryville, Arkansas, McCurdy School in Espanola, New Mexico, the United Methodist Committee of Church Relief (UMCOR) in Baldwin, Louisiana, and Mission Jamaica. Later in life they enjoyed Elderhostel trips to Japan, Big Bend, Texas, and Canada.

In the 1980s, Donna returned to school, first getting an LPN through Kirkwood and then going on to obtain her RN license. She worked as a nurse at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics for ten years caring for adults who had recently received a bone marrow transplant. When Iowa City Hospice started and needed adults to comfort those in their homes, Donna volunteered. Donna was a vivacious and brilliant woman who was a natural leader and played that role in almost every organization she was a part of at both the local and state level. Governor Branstad acknowledged her with a state volunteer award. She was instrumental in starting the Coralville Library when she was a Girl Scout troop leader for her daughters. She was the president of Cardinal Girl Scout Council and later the Executive Director for the Girl Scouts of Eastern Iowa and Western Illinois, overseeing the merger with councils in Cedar Rapids, Davenport and western Illinois. As her son grew, she was also an active leader for the Hawkeye Area Council of Boy Scouts.

Steadfast faith radiated from Donna, and she was a Sunday School teacher and Bible School teacher for over 65 consecutive years at the churches she attended. She was active in United Methodist Women and Church Women United. She was a member of PEO, Chapter KP in Iowa City and a 50-year member of the University of Iowa NN (No Name) Book Club. She was an active member of Sharon Center United Methodist Church in rural Kalona for over 65 years serving on many committees, primarily with education and missions. At the University of Iowa, she served as a docent volunteer for the Field Museum for many years conducting field trips.

Donna was acknowledged in the 2016 Coralville Parade for her community work, on the Parks and Recreation Commission and the Coralville Library. In 2018, she was the state recipient of the Trustee Award for the Iowa State Library Association. She was passionate about the baby book bags that she assembled and which were delivered to every new parent attending the library in Coralville. Moreover, Donna was compassionate and gracious. Her home served as a hearth for many fantastic meals for new-comers to the community including international students as well as local and far-away friends. She was the first to offer help for a family experiencing a crisis and was the communication switchboard for her family. There were no strangers with her, only friends she had not yet met. Her greatest joy was her family, and her children and grandchildren modeled from her how to bird-watch and savor a good book.

Donna is survived by her husband Lloyd Epley of Mason City, her children, Dea Epley Birtwistle (John) of Mason City, and their daughter Anne of Milwaukee; Jean Epley Carleton and her children, Dr. Timothy Carleton (Justine) of Columbia, Missouri, Chris Carleton of Dallas, Texas, and Katie Carleton of Houston, Texas; and her son, David Epley (Barb) of Indianola, and children Chloe Epley of Iowa City, Mina Epley of Cedar Rapids and Mitchell and Nathan Epley of Indianola. She embraced her husband's family and is also survived by many special nieces and nephews.

The law firm continues today as Honohan, Epley, Braddock, and Brenneman. The Johnson County Legal Secretaries Association named him Boss of the Year in 1972. Over the years, he modeled civility to his co-workers and clients and enjoyed mentoring young law students.

Lloyd and Donna raised their three children in Coralville, Iowa. He enjoyed camping with his family at national parks all over the United States, gardening, teaching Sunday School and singing in a praise band well into his nineties. He was an avid Cubs and Hawkeyes fan and a voracious reader. He said his greatest accomplishment in life was being part of the "Dirty 30" from Iowa who collaborated with Afro-Americans and others in Dallas in 1968 to merge the Evangelical United Brethren Church and the United Methodist Church. Although vilified by some, he did what he believed was right and what God directed him to do.

Lloyd considered all of Johnson County his home. He was active in the Coralville, Iowa City, Sharon Center, and Kalona communities. He served on the Johnson County Civil Service Commission, the Zoning Board for Coralville as well as the Coralville Library Board and the Johnson County Historical Society. He was also on the Goodwill Board in Iowa City. He was a member of Old Capital Toastmasters in Iowa City as well as a long-term member of the Kalona Rotary and a Paul Harris Fellow. He was active in Gideons and the Oakdale Prison Ministry. He was on the Pleasantview Nursing Home Board in Kalona. The organization that captured his involvement later in life was the local chapter of Veterans for Peace. Lloyd and Donna were active members of the Sharon Center United Methodist Church where he was a lay minister. He considered Sharon Center UM Church members to be part of his family. They were involved in many mission trips and Elderhostels in the U.S. and abroad. He retired in Kalona, Iowa in 2016 with his wife and then lived in Mason City until moving back to Coralville in April of 2023. Music continued to be a big part of his life, and he witnessed to staff in the four different nursing homes where he lived by singing hymns from memory and speaking of his blessings after surviving COVID three times.

Proceeding him in death were his parents, and his four older sibling and their spouses, Milton Epley (Mae), Perry Epley (Chalice), Florence Lundberg (Bert) and Ivan Epley (Evelyn), and his cherished wife, Donna, who died in 2019. Survived by wife, Martha, of Omaha; sister, Cindy Nisley (Ken); son, Oliver (Robin); daughter, Andrea "Andee"; son, Noel (Andrea); step-son, Jim Pearson (Carmen); step-daughter, Amy Chittenden (Stuart); grandchildren: Ivy, Noel, Bailey, Ryan, Braden, and Griffin; former wife, Mary Lou Hoig.

The family will receive friends on Friday, Jan. 11th from 5pm to 7pm at Countryside Community Church, 8787 Pacific. CELEBRATION OF LIFE: Saturday, Jan. 12th at 2pm, Countryside Community Church. In lieu of flowers, memorials are suggested to University of Nebraska Foundation—Robert G. Hoig Scholarship.

Bob Hoig was well known in the community for his professional and civic accomplishments. In 2012, he was inducted into the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce's Business Hall of Fame, selected as the Omahan of the Year by the Suburban Rotary Club of Omaha, and doubly honored by the Omaha Press Club as part of the first father-daughter "Faces on the Barroom Floor" (with Andee Hoig, publisher of metroMAGAZINE) and by being inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame. Bob once said he didn't want people to know him as just a publisher.

He took his first flying lesson at age 70 and bought a Cessna 182 two years later. He took up skiing in his 60s and continued well into his 70s. Bob swam daily throughout the 1960s and 1970s as he approached middle age, and even taught himself to play the saxophone in his 40s. He also loved playing tennis, a sport he continued into his early 80s. "It never occurred to me to place some kind of age restriction on what I could do if I was really interested," he said. Bob also had a wanderlust that began when he was 16 years old and hitchhiked across the country on Route 66. In 1983 he visited every country in Europe and returned to the continent 21 more times by the early 2000s.

Before he became a publisher, Bob was a shoe-leather journalist. He was only 24 in 1957 when, on his way to a corporate job interview, the New York Daily News building drew him in. Bob landed a job there as a copy boy, soon working his way into a promotion. "I had plenty of derring-do about me, chutzpah. I'd try anything," he said. Over the next two decades, Bob also wrote for the Miami News, wire service United Press International, the Lincoln Journal and the Omaha World-Herald. He also served as managing editor of the Omaha Sun and the Douglas County Gazette. During much of his tenure as a writer, Bob served as a crime and corruption reporter. In 1971, he was nominated for a Pulitzer for an Omaha World-Herald series that led to changes in state law. Bob saw an opportune niche in Omaha media when, in 1975, he launched this publication. It was a risky endeavor at the time, but Bob considered a willingness to take risks "one of the hallmarks of my definition of an entrepreneur."

His words about his love of flying, "And you're off into the wild blue..." now take on a special significance. Fly high, Bob.

Jan. 27, 2019 - As publisher of... the Midlands Business Journal, the regional weekly business newspaper he founded in 1975, Robert Gregg "Bob" Hoig has become a well-known figure in the community who's been lauded repeatedly for his professional and civic accomplishments. In the last five years alone, Hoig was inducted into the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce's Business Hall of Fame, selected as the Omahan of the Year by the Suburban Rotary Club of Omaha, and doubly honored by the Omaha Press Club as part of the first father-daughter "Faces on the Barroom Floor" (with Andee Hoig, publisher of metroQuarterly) and by being inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame.

As he approaches his 85th birthday in September, Hoig can reflect on a remarkable life. But what's most remarkable now for him is life. After a heart attack, several strokes and a bout with pneumonia earlier this year, his prognosis was grim. His heartbroken family was making hospice arrangements and preparing themselves for the painful task of planning memorial services in the midst of their grief.

But Hoig surprised everyone. Instead of mourning the end of his life, the family is delighted to be supporting him as he makes an incredible and unexpected recovery. "To me, he's come back to life," Andee Hoig said. "That he's still here and doing great is amazing." It's not the first time Hoig has amazed the people around him. It's not even the first time he's beaten the odds medically. When Hoig was two years old and critically ill, his grandparents—who were raising him at the time—were told "flat-out that my chances were one in a thousand," he said.

But "It was a bit of luck having the grandparents I had," Hoig said. "Granddad worked for the Missouri Pacific Railroad." What sounds like a minor biographical fact was actually an extremely fortunate situation: Hoig's grandfather's employment meant his grandson could be admitted to a particular hospital that just happened to have a physician on staff with the rare expertise needed to treat him. In short, Hoig lost a kidney instead of his life. And he hasn't slowed down since.

In fact, his current state of recuperation is a testament to the benefits of maintaining an active lifestyle. Hoig said he's glad he quit smoking cold turkey and gave up alcohol—once hallmarks of a newsman—decades ago. He ignored standard retirement age almost two decades ago. He took his first flying lesson when he was 70 years old and bought a Cessna 182 two years later. He took up skiing in his 60s and continued well into his 70s. Hoig swam daily throughout the 1960s and 1970s as he approached middle age, and even taught himself to play the saxophone in his 40s. "Saxophone playing and swimming had a lot in common for me from the standpoint of getting out of yourself and losing yourself in the moment," he said. Hoig also loved playing tennis, a sport he began at age 11 and continued into his early 80s. He played competitively for years, winning in several local championships as well the Senior Olympics in the 1980s. Some of his local tennis opponents included esteemed physician Dr. John Sage, television personality Dave Webber and former U.S. Senator Dave Karnes.

His enthusiasm for tennis took him to the U.S. Open on more than one occasion. And whenever Hoig traveled, he took his tennis racquet along in hopes of finding a friendly game of tennis in cities like Munich and London—which he always found, Hoig recalled, although he admitted that many of his opponents wearied of playing against a man "who traveled with his racquet." Hoig's wanderlust began as a young twentysomething in the early 1950s when he and a friend hitchhiked across the country on Route 66. In 1983 he headed over to Europe and visited every country. The following year he returned with son Noel to attend the winter Olympics in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia. He visited Europe 21 more times with current wife Martha in the late 90s and into the 2000s. "It never occurred to me to place some kind of age restriction on what I could do if I was really interested," he said. "In fact, it was more like a powerful current, where once I got in the current I was just rafted along."

Being pulled into a current is an apt metaphor for the start of his journalism career, too. Hoig was only 24 in 1957, hoping to make his way in New York City. On his way to a promising job interview with a major airline, something caught his eye. "I was walking in the 200 block of East 42nd Street. There was this building, this beautiful building with a big globe in the lobby I caught in my peripheral vision," he recalled. It was the New York Daily News. Hoig had a little college under his belt but no journalism background or even any previous aspirations to be a reporter. At the time, he actually fancied himself to be more of a poet, despite criticism received at age 18 that he recalls to this day: "Your work strikes me as a strange mixture of banking and alchemy." Something else struck the hiring manager. "I had plenty of derring-do about me, chutzpah. I'd try anything," Hoig said. He managed to get himself hired as a copy boy, and soon worked his way into a promotion. "It was a very fortuitous way to get started in that business, with that newspaper, because in those days, you had to work your way up internally. So I landed on my feet with that," he said. "Landing such an important newspaper job at that age was wonderful. Other papers in town, they wouldn't even talk to you."

Over the next two decades, Hoig also wrote for the Miami News, wire service United Press International, the Lincoln Journal and the Omaha World-Herald. He also served as managing editor of Omaha Sun and the Douglas County Gazette. During much of his tenure as a writer, Hoig served as a crime and corruption reporter. An early highlight was covering a Sheldon, Iowa, banking scandal for UPI that was picked up all over the country. In 1965, Hoig authored a surrender plea carried by UPI that induced 22-year-old bank robber/murderer Duane Earl Pope, a Kansan whose crime was committed in Big Springs, Nebraska, to turn himself in after a nationwide manhunt. In 1971, Hoig was nominated for a Pulitzer for an Omaha World-Herald series about loose security procedures for sexual psychopaths at what was then the Nebraska State Hospital; it led to changes in state law. He also interviewed a host of legendary figures from World War I-era pilot and later Eastern Airlines Chairman Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker and Everest climber Sir Edmund Hillary to former presidents Lyndon Johnson, Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford. The gregarious Hoig became acquainted with some interesting everyday people as well.

"Some people, you meet and they seem really screwy. But you get to know them for a while and you listen to their ideas and they become more familiar. And eventually—you discard the ones who are really screwy, and some, they grow on you," he said. Hoig's colleagues ranged from brilliant to barely competent. "You get around enough of these kind of people and you just think, 'I don't want to let them call the shots for my life.'" By the mid-'70s, "I finally, frankly, just became tired of working for other people."

As a reporter, Hoig had to be independent and self-driven, qualities that suited a latent entrepreneur. "I always thought I would be sort of a Warren Buffett figure, somebody who would amass different businesses and run them all brilliantly," he said. "It happened that I didn't have the proper credentials for that kind of thinking. I was much too anxious to not make mistakes, which is not a good habit for an entrepreneur. I soon got rid of that habit, but then just losing that habit doesn't guarantee you're going to find a good one." So although he didn't aspire to be a mogul, he did see an opportune niche in Omaha media. In 1975, Hoig launched the Midlands Business Journal. The fledgling publication had some serious detractors.

"'No chance.' 'It's foolish.'" he recalled. A colleague told him, "Within a week you'll be begging for your job back at the Herald." "My response was, 'Just find a way to help me get some advertising and I won't be back begging for a job from anybody; I'll be on my own and successful.'" Even the optimists were hesitant to commit. "People very quickly offer their support but you find that there can be quite a time lapse between when it's supposedly going to come and when it actually does," Hoig said. "Anybody who's ever started their own paper can sympathize with that."

The Midlands Business Journal slowly gained steam and a name for itself. "I did have the good wishes of a guy who billed himself as a 'futurist.' He saw a copy of one of the papers we'd set around the lobby of different hotels and one of them was where he was staying," Hoig said. "And he said, 'I saw your paper, and to me, that's the thing of the future.' It caught the eye of somebody who stood out in his area, and that further spurred me on." With increasing success, Hoig learned to take risks. "It's one of the hallmarks of my definition of an entrepreneur, if you're willing to try things that hold promise and then abandon them quickly without a lot of tears," he said. His many successful ventures include adding the Lincoln Business Journal in 1996 and the annual "40 Under 40" awards started in 2002 to honor young businesspeople. Hoig said innovation isn't always about coming up with something new. "It's more a question of being willing to steal something," he said. "You know, I was far from the first '40 Under 40' program in the country."

Kim Davis worked for Hoig as a new college graduate when the Midlands Business Journal was still a relatively young venture. "I look back fondly on those years," she said. "Bob is remarkable." Davis recalled her two and a half years at the paper, her very first job before leaving to pursue a master's degree, as a great learning experience. "It was hard work, but it was good work, and he set an example for a young person just starting out," she said. "He was supremely ethical in everything, and it taught me the value of hard work. We had to do 10 stories a week, two a day—and those weren't short stories. And we also had to work on Saturday mornings... You learned a valuable work ethic when you worked for him, and he was right there next to you. It wasn't as though he was out golfing or something. "He was very proud of his paper, you could tell he was he had very high expectations for it. Once he began to trust you he didn't micromanage. But he did review every story."

Davis said Hoig had a distinctive brand of criticism and a "tell it like it is" approach to writing evident when he returned the first draft she submitted to him. "It was covered in red ink. I made the changes, and after looking at what I had written and what the suggestions had been, it was a way better article when he made the changes to it," she said. "He sat me down and said he didn't want me to be disappointed; he was very nurturing even then. And he said, 'Here's the thing, Kim. A lot of people who read the magazine, they know what the word ameliorate means, but they don't want to have to think that hard.' I'm like, 'Okay, I get it. You're spending a lot of time making it pretty and that's not what anyone wants.'" Davis still works in the field of communications today as the vice president of development for the Nebraska Humane Society. Her time at the Midlands Business Journal was in the era of manual typewriters, pre-Internet and email, but she said many of the skills she learned there she still uses today. "I learned to act like a professional."

Linda Lovgren, president and CEO of Lovgren Marketing Group, has also known Hoig since the early days of the Midlands Business Journal and said she sees his legacy as even larger than being a publisher: local champion of small businesses. "Bob, through his publication—and personally as well because he's such an advocate—has given small businesses visibility they might not otherwise have had, and a way to build their brand," she said. "The success of a business is the sum of all the people who have influenced the life of a business, and he certainly has been one of those individuals." Lovgren isn't alone in characterizing Hoig as an important catalyst for business development. Cella Quinn, president of Cella Quinn Investment Services, said, "Bob helped small businesses grow by telling us about each other. We didn't have to leave our businesses to network, we could read the Midlands Business Journal and find other compatible companies with which to exchange ideas and do business."

Quinn also acknowledged that Hoig has been a good newsman above all. "A good reporter holds a mirror up to society so we can all objectively see ourselves and make changes we deem merited. Whether it was business news or the legal notices in the middle of MBJ, Bob managed to do that," she said. "He did this in a special way because he believed in the adage attributed to an anonymous Texas newspaper editor, 'A news story should be like a miniskirt on a pretty woman: long enough to cover the subject but short enough to be interesting.'" Greater Omaha President and CEO David Brown, whose organization has a mission to ensure a thriving business community, praised Hoig for his genuine enthusiasm and unflagging support.

"Bob has a real passion for small business, and I think that was reflected in the path that the MBJ took. There are a lot of different markets it could have covered, but I think he has such a keen interest in seeing small businesses being supported and recognized for the impact that they have on the community, that he decided that the Journal should be focused on that type of topic," he said. "I think Bob's passion shows up in how the MBJ is written every week." That passion is even more evident in person, Brown added, like at the annual "40 Under 40" awards. "He seems to always be in his element at those events because he is surrounded by small-business people. And he loves being around folks that have the same passion for small business that he does," he said. "So whenever I think of Bob, I think of this those moments I saw him at those awards breakfasts, smiling from ear to ear because he's surrounded by people he respected a lot."

Hal Daub, another notable Omahan who's "had the pleasure of knowing Bob and his wife and family before they started their journalistic enterprise," remarked on Hoig's extraordinary commitment to the business community. "I've known him because I've active in local affairs, not just political affairs but community affairs as well as business here. I got to know him and I can tell you that—through my experiences with him before I went to Congress, while I was privileged to be in the House of Representatives, and while I was privileged to be mayor and now as a member of the Board of Regents, and as a practicing lawyer for 50 plus years here in Omaha—Bob Hoig has been the steadfast champion of Omaha and her small business interests," he said. "The family have been great citizens of the community. They've been charitable and philanthropic and they spend lots of time encouraging people to get together and do good for our community. They're not only great citizens of Omaha and our state, but they're very patriotic and really believe in America and free enterprise, and I think that's what Bob teaches, mostly, that free enterprise is the cure for all the ills of life."

Daub also said Hoig has made the Midlands Business Journal is a blend of edifying and interesting. "If you stop to think about it, every small business is affected or afflicted by city, county, state and federal government and the bureaucracy of regulations and licensing. So when you can pick up the Midlands Business Journal, you get stories of small business, you get all new corporate filings going on in Douglas County, and you get some flavor of the philosophical/political things that are going on," he said. "You've got a perfect half an hour to an hour of wonderful learning experience every time the Midlands Business Journal hits your in box."

Like Daub, John Bothof (president of Northwest Bank) said he considers Hoig a friend as much as someone to be admired. "Bob is a historian and passionate about his country and his business. Bob is a friend, a visionary, a risk-taker and a great businessman. Businesses of Omaha and all of Nebraska have a great asset in the MBJ and most importantly, Bob Hoig," he said. "Bob has had a huge impact on small business with the introduction of the Midlands Business Journal. Bob stepped out and, like other small businesses and entrepreneurs, risked his professional reputation and personal finances for what would become the Friday business paper that we all wait to be delivered. If you want to know what is happening in Omaha in business, business expansion, new technology or who is doing what, you read the Midlands Business Journal." Both of said his company's relationship with the Midlands Business Journal has been beneficial.

"The MBJ provides a medium to tell your businesses story. Many businesses subscribe to the MBJ and it has been a good method for Northwest Bank to open doors to new opportunities," he explained. "Several years ago, we decided to join with Bob for the introduction of the "40 Under 40" event. This event recognizes 40 people under 40 years of age on their business or professional success. We thought it was an excellent opportunity for a new start-up bank to invest in recognizing the future leaders of our community. The "40 Under 40" event moved our brand to new heights." He also noted Hoig's boldness. "If the stories of businesses in the MBJ doesn't take all of your idle time, you have to read Bob's editorials and get a common-sense approach to issues facing business, our country, and the political environment, to name a few." Hoig has made friends everywhere he goes. Restaurateur Leo Fascianella of Pasta Amore said Hoig has been a patron since 1986. "I've known Bob since day one when I opened the restaurant. He's always been an inspiration to me and encouraged me about the business and told me how wonderful I was doing," Fascianella said. "He's a beautiful person to talk to and such a nice man. I feel like I'm part of his life, I've known him for so long. He's very encouraging, very supportive of small business in Omaha. He's such a great person."

Fascianella also mentioned Hoig's love for flying small aircraft, a pastime he's had to regretfully step away from. "That's the most devastating thing about this...when you have to give up something you just so truly love," Hoig said. "It took me such a small amount of time to build a thousand hours. Flying gets in your system. It gives you a certain push to your life to just know you've got the keys in your pocket to simply at any time go to Eppey, cart off the plane and you're off into the wild blue." Stepping out of the cockpit is just one hard adjustment forced by age, and as Hoig recovers, his plans for the future are still in flux. But he said he's developed a renewed sense of gratitude for his loved ones.

"The joys of family, and the understanding of how family can rally around you and it really means something, not just a cliché. That's probably the most significant truth of my life right now," he said. Taking stock of his family, Hoig said he's glad to have a friendly relationship with ex-wife Mary Lou, the mother of his children. He's happy in his current marriage to Martha. And he's especially proud of who his three adult children (Oliver, Andee and Noel) have become. "That's one of the real satisfactions of life, once you've seen the path that you chose is the one that is right, and they're all in their own separate careers—with some small help from you in choosing the right thing at the right time for them," he said. And looking back at his 85 years, Hoig said he doesn't want people to know him as just a publisher. "Good father in an odd way. Pilot in a good way. Skier in an unusual way," he said. A remarkable life. Still aiming higher. "The joys of family, and the understanding of how family can rally around you and it really means something, not just a cliché. That's probably the most significant truth of my life right now." ~ Bob Hoig

He was always working to provide for his family. He and his wife were founding members of Berean Bible Church in Sanatoga, PA where they attended for over 40 years and Mr. Klabe served as a deacon for a time. His faith was an important part of his life that he often shared with others, and he gave generously to charity. A few years before his retirement, he and his wife purchased a larger farm in central PA which became a great vacation spot despite the fact they were never able to move there permanently. She married Augustine Daniel O'Donnell 01 Aug 1945 in Harvard, Clay Co, Nebraska. He was born 23 Dec 1920 in Fairbank, Buchanan Co, Iowa, and died 24 Jan 1997 in Madrid, Boone Co, Iowa.

Notes for Jacqueline Helen (Jackie) Stratton:

Jacqueline Helen (Stratton) O'Donnell, the mother of all the years, died on the evening of Saturday, December 30, 2017, at the Bickford Cottage assisted living facility in Ames, Iowa. She was just eight days short of her 94th birthday. Nine of her 14 living children, a granddaughter and a son-in-law and daughter-in-law were with her. The body has been cremated. A memorial service will be held later this year.

Mrs. O'Donnell, who until recently lived in Slater, shaped the lives of her children and their offspring and contributed to her community in ways that will reverberate for decades. In the early 1960s she began an 18-year career as a postal clerk and became friends with nearly everyone in town, often learning their personalities, problems and histories. In retirement, she helped found a local historical association and museum and served as an officer, spending hours organizing documents and developing exhibits. Mrs. O'Donnell was a volunteer first responder and also helped develop the Heart of Iowa Nature Trail from Slater to Huxley and beyond. But she was most proud of the family she raised with her husband, Augustine Daniel O'Donnell: eight boys and six girls. (Another daughter, Nora, died shortly after birth in November 1966.) All 14 attended college, an aspiration Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell had always held for their children. Many have advanced degrees. "And not a bum among them," as Mrs. O'Donnell sometimes said.

She was born Jacqueline Stratton on January 7, 1924, on a farm near Raymond in southeast Nebraska, the daughter of Isaiah "Jack" Stratton and the former Yvonne Marie Ernestine Pavard, whom Mr. Stratton had met in France during World War I. The family, including two older brothers, struggled to survive through the Depression. Mr. Stratton worked a series of jobs and farmed. Food often was short, but Yvonne Stratton was adept at stretching a meal, gardening and canning, teaching her children a resourcefulness and work ethic they employed later in life. As a teenager, Mrs. O'Donnell was named the healthiest girl in Nebraska. She graduated from Stockham High School and attended York College for a year. She taught primary school for a year and worked briefly at a California airplane factory during World War II. Mrs. O'Donnell was a clerk at Harvard Air Base, an Army Air Force training center in southeast Nebraska, when she met her future husband, a handsome sergeant who had served as an airplane mechanic in New Guinea and was awaiting his discharge. After a brief, intense courtship, they married on August 1, 1945. Mr. O'Donnell trained in the building trades at Iowa State College in Ames and then worked in construction. The couple (now with three children) moved to Slater in 1949. They lived in a succession of houses, each bigger than the previous one to accommodate more (and more) children until 1961, when they found a foursquare with ample bedrooms.

For four decades, Mrs. O'Donnell devoted herself to her husband and family. She sewed dozens of shirts and dresses, raised and canned vegetables and oversaw homework and prayers. She was her children's first and best teacher, finding small and large lessons in everything from insects to stars. Each child got as much attention as he or she needed, plus a little more. In the mid-1950s, A.D. O'Donnell got a job with Capp Homes, makers of pre-cut houses, and for years lived away from home during the week as he helped construct the buildings on site. By the early 1960s the couple had 13 children whom Mrs. O'Donnell would shepherd alone (albeit with help from the oldest ones) while her husband was away. The couple wrote each other regularly and their letters provide insights into their deep love. In 1963, Mr. O'Donnell wrote this from a Fairfield motel: "I hope this tells you what I've thought to myself so many times. How proud of my whole big bunch I am. How glad that I can provide you with a nice, big house that you all can be happy in. Also, how proud I am of you that you look so nice to me, not in spite of 13 children but because of them. ... You are the mother of all the years." Mrs. O'Donnell replied: "I only hope that when the kids are all raised and on their own that you & I can have a few years to get to know each other again, to be able to talk together without interruption, to be able to enjoy a few fruits of our labor."

Mr. O'Donnell later worked at Capp Homes' Des Moines plant, allowing him to come home each night. He developed Parkinson's disease, a condition that shortened the years the couple hoped to enjoy together. Mrs. O'Donnell cared for her husband until his death in January 1997. She often said her one regret was that her husband didn't live to see his children's success and to know many of his grandchildren. For most of the next 20 years, Mrs. O'Donnell volunteered and traveled, often with her daughter, Mary, who came to live with her in Slater in 2010. Mrs. O'Donnell rarely spoke a harsh word of others. Her strongest oath was "Lord, give me strength," uttered only when managing a family of 14 verged on the impossible. She was an amateur botanist and ornithologist, able to identify any wild plant or bird. Words cannot describe how much her wisdom, caring and love will be missed.

Survivors include six daughters: Louise and Josephine "Jodi" O'Donnell of Ames, Mary O'Donnell and Yvonne (David) Raes of Slater, Margaret O'Donnell (Rick Herrman) of Ft. Davis, Texas, and Jacqueline O'Donnell of Davenport; eight sons: Michael (Cynthia Michaelson) of Northfield, Minnesota, Daniel (Joyce) of Loveland, Colorado, Robert (Robin) of Payson, Arizona, Charles (Helen) of Westerville, Ohio, Patrick (Nancy) of Sioux Center, Thomas (Paula Mohr) of Ames, Alphonsus (Patricia) of Ft. Collins, Colorado, and Cole (Peggy) of East Moline, Illinois; 32 grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren. Apart from her husband and a daughter, Mrs. O'Donnell was preceded in death by her parents, brothers Marcel and Walter Stratton, and two grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the Slater Area Historical Association, Box 487, or Friends of the Slater Library, Box 598, both in Slater, Iowa 50244; or St. Malachy's Catholic Church, 405 Gerald Street, Madrid, Iowa 50156.

Nov. 2023 - How my parents raised 14 children in small town Iowa - Louise O'Donnell as told to Ronna Faaborg with the Des Moines Register.

Editor's note: Louise O'Donnell first told this story on stage at the Des Moines Storytellers Project's "Family." The Des Moines Storytellers Project is a series of storytelling events in which community members work with Register journalists to tell true, first-person stories live on stage. An edited version appears below. Picture this — around the dining table sit my family, all 15 of them. Oh, excuse me, 14, one was still in the highchair. Later on there would be one more, to total 14 children. I was the oldest. Some statistics from this 1963 scene — our family consumed 25 loaves of bread a week, 15 pounds of sugar, 10 quarts of orange juice, four dozen eggs, 18 gallons of milk, 20 pounds of potatoes and about four pounds of butter. For a while we kept a cow, Bridey. She lived in the ditch across the street. She would get out and there is no way to understand how big a Holstein is until you see her eating the neighbor's peonies. The truth is, my dad was supporting a small village.

Back to the scene. Mom, Jackie O'Donnell, is at one end of the table, Dad, Gus O'Donnell, at the other. If you were lucky enough to be at his end, that's where the food collected and where the real butter resided. Seats were assigned to prevent internecine warfare and there was a social structure. There were big kids and little kids. The big kids closely guarded this caste system. Of course, being a big kid gave you some privileges but more tasks too. The real reason was the right to boss the little kids around. It was a fiefdom. Whenever I cautiously tell people that I am the oldest of a large family, that I have eight brothers and five sisters, the inevitable question is "How did your mother do it?" When mom was asked this question she answered, "Well we just did it one at a time." I guess that's true. What is just one more?

I have a parlor trick. Every night we would say our prayers and almost every year I added another name to the "God Bless" list. Louise, Mary, Mike, Dan, Margy, Jacki, Robby, Charlie, Jodi, Pat, Tom, Evy, Al, Cole. I think dad had all those kids to tell stories to, and to open the garage door and change the channel on the TV and fetch his one Pepsi a night he allowed himself. We did not get soda, the Pepsi was his treat and privilege. When I was very little I would imagine fratricide. There would be a car accident and everyone but me, mom and dad and, of course, the baby were sort of evaporated. We all always loved the baby until it was it was supplanted by the next one.

My mother was born a true optimist. She didn't see the bad, she saw the good, and she loved children. After my youngest brother was born, she spoke wistfully of having another. We kids always loved the new babies and a favorite memory is being sat in a line on the sofa and then passing the baby around when mom and baby had arrived home from the hospital. Mom was also indomitable. I would never use the word tough, that she was not, but she climbed each mountain without complaint.

When I was 14 and absolutely clueless, as you could be in the very early 1960s, I went upstairs where mom was changing beds, which she did every week. We all had our own beds, so let's see, that would have been 11 or 12 total beds at that time. I remember standing there while she said that she thought she might have the baby tonight and she was going to drive to Ames to the hospital, 15 miles away, that evening. My father was working on the road and was out of town. Later I climbed into the Lutheran minister's wife's car. She was my ride to the concert we were giving at school. I blithely announced that my mom was going to go to the hospital that night and she was driving herself. "Oh no she's not," announced Mrs. Bjorlie, who herself was the mother of I think five. She promptly fetched mom. My sister Evy was born that night.

Mom and dad raised us without any family or any close friends around to help in our small town of Slater. There wasn't a complaint, although my dad, who had married this optimist, had a little of the melancholy Irishman about him. They had known each other briefly and it was said that they had their first serious date on the Fourth of July and were married Aug. 1 after dad thought he was going to be mustered out. Mom describes their dates, dad borrowed a buddy's car and they went to a dance and sang songs all the way home. When he thought he was going to be leaving the base, he said he didn't want to leave her, she took off the ring — she was engaged to an absent pilot — and they started off on their great adventure.

Mom said later in life that it was all planned. I think it was in defense of having so many children and some comments that were inevitably made. Planned maybe, but the fact that my father was diagnosed with Parkinson's at 45 and retired at the age of 50 with nine children at home was not a plan. Mom once said she never worried. Really? But I guess you couldn't have 14 children and been a worrier. Dad made up for it — after all he was supporting his small village. I remember when I was small him saying to mom that he didn't know how they were going to make it through the winter. I went to bed and with my little 8-year-old brain tried to figure out how to save the family. I was the oldest, and I took life very seriously.

So here we are this big family. What was it like for my mother and for us? We all had chores of course, but we all also felt we were a little spoiled. We all have memories of the special things she would do for each of us, taking time and care to make sure something we wanted would happen. She nurtured our curiosity — taking us out in the evening and laying on the grass to look at the stars while she pointed out the constellations. Teaching us tumbling in the yard. She was just having fun. Until I was 14 we lived in a small four-bedroom house with one bathroom and one closet. With one bathroom you did not linger, and on bath night it went chronologically which meant sometimes, being the oldest, I was up until, wow, 10 o'clock. Then we moved into the big house with two bathrooms, six bedrooms and a seventh in the basement.

There was no library in town. We had a small library in our school classroom. For me, initially, there was the family Bible which had big color photos of classic paintings that I looked at over and over again. Mom bought books at house sales. I read the "Pony Rider Boys in Louisiana," "Dave Darrin's First Year at Annapolis" — you get the picture. But she did buy, I think with box tops or something, a series of classic books we all grew up with, "Heidi," "Black Beauty," "Robin Hood," "Huckleberry Finn," "Through the Looking Glass" and more. By the time I was in college, dad had built floor to ceiling shelves in the TV room and they were full of books.

Each August, mom bought several bolts of cloth and cut out three shirts for each boy. At one time she had six boys in school. She whipped them up and did the buttonholes by hand. The boys hated it since they looked like their brothers, with the same fabric for each shirt. She made us dresses, blouses, skirts, shorts, all kinds of clothing. And she made prom dresses and wedding dresses for us. She even made my brother Charlie a suit. She would be up until 1 in the morning meeting some event deadline. This was her relax and play time. She helped us make all our valentines for school, sitting with us with red construction paper, doilies, paste and scissors. So maybe 20 to 30 for each child, times maybe five, so over 100 valentines. The same with May Day baskets, and she took us out to deliver them in big boxes in the back seat. Then Halloween, with so many homemade costumes. In one instance I was, I think, in first grade and came home for lunch and announced I needed a costume that afternoon. She promptly sat down and made me a wonderful ghost costume out of an old sheet and saved me from being the odd kid with no outfit.

Mom and dad read to us at night. Mom at one point wrote a children's book. I think she sent it off, but I was so small I never asked her about it. All this was done while she kept up her schedule, a necessity to keep our village functioning. Monday wash, Tuesday ironing, Wednesday ironing, Thursday the upstairs cleaning, Friday the downstairs, Saturday the grocery shopping, Sunday make the dinner, usually with three pies. Fit into this cooking dinner every night and making lunch every day. And caring for the baby.

My job was usually vacuuming, which we did every day. I was a mean and dangerous older sister, throwing away treasured rocks, feathers, and once, alas, a baby tooth in a glass of water waiting for the Tooth Fairy. Not good. I deeply desired order which was rather hopeless. Sister Mary usually helped cook. Every night promptly at 5:30 we had a full meal with some meat, potato, vegetable, salad and dessert. On Friday mom could make a 13-egg omelet in an old cast iron skillet, high and fluffy and stuffed with Velveeta! Mom made dad's lunch and our lunches. She would lay out the Wonder Bread on the counter in a row, take the squirt bottle of ketchup and run it along the row of slices, then slap down the bologna and put the lid on them. She wrapped them in wax paper, and if we were lucky she would have some pudding or dessert that she put into used baby food jars, a great embarrassment to many of us.

My parents made sure we had piano lessons and astoundingly put up with the practice on the old upright in the small dining room. And we each played an instrument, mine the clarinet, which I was banished to practice in the closed off stairway. Patience only went so far. Mom and dad loved to sing and favorite memories are of singing in the car sometimes with made up songs. She said that was a part of falling in love with dad. They sang in the car on their dates.

They were building us brick by brick with the cement of example. My parents would pack us up and head out — to the fair, to the art center, to the park, lunches packed, and baby in tow. The amount of energy to do this amazes me. Arriving at the fair with a carful of kids — one year we were tied together just to make sure they didn't lose anyone. We ate in the car, and dad stood on the roof to see the races in the Grandstand.

Often dad would yell "Who wants to go for a ride?" on a Sunday afternoon and you would of course say yes in the very outside chance he might stop for ice cream. The only long trip we would take once a year was to grandma's house, a little house in a little town in Nebraska. Eventually we got farmed out to neighbors to sleep. We didn't really visit other people. Who needs a small village descending on them? About 1959 dad bought a Cadillac limousine, a big black car that had been a mourners' car and still had smelling salts in the glove compartment. No power steering. I took my driver's test in that car and I didn't even have to parallel park. Later dad bought another limousine, a Marshall Field company car. This one had air conditioning and, best of all, a window that went up between the driver and the peanut gallery in the back. The seating was strategic to get everyone in, with little kids on big kids' laps. Dad was really great at yelling he was going to stop the car and drop us off if we didn't behave. Actually one time they forgot my brother Charlie at a gas station. Mom's line when I was very small was "I'm leaving and I'm never coming back because you are so bad," then she'd tie on her babushka and put on her jacket and go hang up the clothes.

One Easter when I was maybe 8 which meant Mary was 7, Mike was 6, Danny was 5, Margy was 4, Jackie 2, and Robby was 1, I woke up and smelled baking but went back to sleep. The next morning we didn't have candy, I don't know if they didn't get to the store or if they were watching the money, but she had worked through the night to make each of us a big gingerbread bunny which stood up on legs and was decorated. Of course we wanted candy. She loved making bean bag games, rocking horses, toys, and more. We always had a birthday cake. Our allowance was a quarter, but on our birthday we got $1. My little sister was born three days after my 15th birthday. I remember mom making my cake and it just fell apart when she tried to frost it. She went upstairs and wouldn't come back down, so dad took us to a movie, a REALLY special and rare event. It was "Cinderella" with Jerry Lewis. Hey it was air cooled.

Without fail we went to church every Sunday. If you were on the ball, you got up and went with mom to 7 o'clock mass. If you were a lay about, you went with dad to the 9 o'clock mass. Dad was always late, so you ignominiously usually walked in with our crowd late and had to march up to the front pew. But if you went with dad his personal treat and ritual was to stop at a shop in town and get a chocolate malt and a Saturday Evening Post and shoot the breeze while we went through the comic book rack. If you sat in the front seat you may have gotten to steer while he drank his malt and read the magazine on the way home.

I was out of the house at college by the time my last sibling was born. Through those years mom was president of the PTA, Cubmaster, founding member of the historical society, advocate for the trails. How could we her children not grow up to contribute as both mom and dad set as examples? I was the first to go to college and in the end all 14 did, with a doctorate and masters degrees, authors, executives, professors, scientists and public servants. The example our parents set meant more than any lecturing. My parents created and raised a village of people and set them out into the world with no looking back except to realize how fortunate we all were in the choice of our parents. How lucky can you be?

My dad made it to their 50th wedding anniversary when we all gathered. After many speeches mom stood up and gave her short brief speech, "Well, I kept you clean and fed."

4690. Marjorie May¹⁰ Heim (Linden Emerson⁹, Jonas A.⁸, Margaretha⁷, Jacob⁶, Christina⁵ Gohl, Anna Maria⁴ Ulmer, Caspar³, Hans Jacob², Johannes¹) was born 25 May 1931 in Pawnee Co, Nebraska. She married Dr. Floyd James Fithian 08 Nov 1952 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. He was born 03 Nov 1928 in Vesta, Nebraska, and died 27 Jun 2003 in Annandale, Virginia.

Notes for Dr. Floyd James Fithian:

Floyd James Fithian (November 3, 1928 – June 27, 2003) was an American educator and politician who served as a United States Representative from Indiana as a Democrat. He was one of the forty nine Watergate Babies who won election to the House of Representatives in the wake of the Watergate scandal during the 1974 House elections with Fithian himself defeating Earl Landgrebe, who became infamous for his stalwart defense of President Richard Nixon. He was one of the fourteen members of the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) and believed that the Kennedy assassination in 1963 was orchestrated by members of organized crime.

Floyd James Fithian was born in Vesta, Nebraska on November 3, 1928, and graduated from Vesta High School in 1947. In 1951 he became the first in his family to graduate from college when he received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Peru State College in Peru, Nebraska. He enlisted into the United States Navy in the same year and rose to the rank of lieutenant by the time he left in 1955. However, he continued to serve in the United States Navy Reserve, retiring in 1971 as a commander. While in the navy, Fithian was able to attend the University of Nebraska, where he received his Master of Arts in 1955 and, after teaching at a high school from 1956 to 1959, a Ph.D. in American history in 1964 from the same institution. He taught briefly at Nebraska Wesleyan University and moved to Lafayette, Indiana in 1964 to become an associate professor of history at Purdue University. During his time at Purdue, he managed and operated a small farm in Tippecanoe County.

During the 1968 presidential election he served as an associate Tippecanoe County coordinator for Robert Kennedy's presidential campaign. Afterwards he served as an associate Tippecanoe County coordinator for Birch Bayh's reelection campaign in Indiana's Senate race. During the 1970 midterm elections he served as Tippecanoe County coordinator for Philip A. Sprague's house campaign against incumbent Republican Earl Landgrebe and as president of the 2nd District Win-Dems organization. Landgrebe narrowly defeated Sprague in the general election by only 1,204 votes, but he was the first Democratic congressional nominee to win Tippecanoe County since the 1930s. He was also selected to be one of the Democratic nominees for Tippecanoe County's three council seats by the county Democratic Central Committee, but came in fourth place.

Fithian ran for Indiana's Second Congressional District during the 1972 elections and won the Democratic nomination. In the general election Landgrebe easily defeated him by riding off of the coattails of Richard Nixon's landslide victory in the 1972 presidential election and in Indiana where he received 66.1% of the vote statewide against George McGovern and received 72,000 more votes than Landgrebe in the second congressional district. During the Watergate scandal Landgrebe was a stalwart defender of Nixon, explaining his refusal to listen to or read the transcript of the "smoking gun" tape that was released on August 5, 1974, and documented Nixon's complicity in the Watergate coverup, by stating, "Don't confuse me with the facts. I've got a closed mind. I will not vote for impeachment. I'm going to stick with my president even if he and I have to be taken out of this building and shot." Landgrebe received a massive backlash from voters in his district for his support of Nixon and was resoundingly defeated in the 1974 election in a rematch with Fithian. Fithian easily defeated Landgrebe in a landslide with 101,856 votes to 64,950 votes becoming the first Democratic candidate to win in Indiana's Second Congressional district since George R. Durgan in the 1932 elections when the Democrats also saw a landslide victory nationally.

In the 1976 elections the Indiana Republican Party ran a slate of candidates to defeat Fithian in the general election and retake the formerly strong Republican seat and chose Assistant Secretary of Agriculture William Erwin out of a five-man primary. However, Fithian won reelection with 54.6% of the vote against Erwin. In the 1978 elections Fithian saw his second largest margin of victory, behind his victory against Landgrebe in 1974 due to the Watergate scandal hurting Republicans, due to Republicans running Jay Philip Oppenheim, a failed primary candidate in the district from the 1976 attempt to unseat Fithian, who had little name recognition and with William Costas, a Republican turned independent, taking votes from Oppenheim gave Fithian a 20.3% margin of victory. Despite the Republicans performing well nationally in the 1980 elections and in Indiana, Fithian was able to win reelection by 8%.

In 1975 he introduced a balanced budget constitutional amendment, but it failed to gain any traction. In 1977 he supported the Torrijos–Carter Treaties which would give control of the Panama Canal to Panama in 1999 despite the majority of his district being against it. In 1976 he sent a letter to Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld asking him to demand former Air Force Undersecretary James W. Plummer's resignation as executive vice president of Lockheed Corporation due to the conflict of interests that would be created. In 1982 he reintroduced the Equal Rights Amendment which had failed to be ratified by 38 states before its deadline, but it failed to pass. During his tenure, Fithian served on the House Small Business Committee, the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, the House Committee on Agriculture and the House Committee on Government Operations where he served on the House Select Committee on Assassinations to investigate the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr.

In 1982 Indiana lost a congressional district after the 1980 Census. Fithian's district was split between three more conservative districts. Fithian criticized the reapportionment and brought up that according to the apportionment formula Indiana was entitled to 10.574 congressional districts and New Mexico was entitled to 2.505 congressional districts yet despite the Indianan figure being higher Indiana was losing a district and New Mexico was gaining a district.

On July 13, 1981, Fithian announced that he would retire from the House and would not seek reelection in either the 3rd, 5th, or 7th congressional districts or challenge Senator Richard Lugar and would instead run for Secretary of State. However, on February 16, 1982, he announced that he would seek the Democratic nomination for Senator to challenge Lugar in the 1982 election. In the Democratic primary he faced Indiana State Senator Michael Kendall, who he earlier encouraged to run for the Senate who he defeated with 59% of the vote. On November 2, 1982, he was defeated by Lugar who won with 54% of the vote against Fithian's 46% and won by 149,901 votes.

After his defeat he served as Chief of Staff for Illinois Senator Paul Simon from 1983 to 1992, and worked as the campaign manager for Simon's 1988 presidential campaign. Fithian also worked for Senator Lloyd Bentsen as the finance director when he was the head of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee from 1983 to 1985. After working for Simon, he joined the Department of Agriculture working as Secretary of the Farm Credit Administration. In 1991 Oliver Stone's JFK, a political thriller based on the investigation into the Kennedy assassination by Jim Garrison, to critical acclaim although it was criticized for its historical inaccuracies and Floyd criticized the film for its manipulation of the past. On March 14, 2003, he joined seventy two other former congressmembers and signed a letter asking President George W. Bush and Prime Minister Tony Blair to give more time to the United Nations inspectors in Iraq. On June 27, 2003, Fithian died at his retirement home in Annandale, Virginia after suffering from Parkinson's disease and was interred in Arlington National Cemetery.

He was born 03 Dec 1933 in Jersey Shore, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 06 Apr 1987 in Williamsport, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Ann Louise Waltz:

Ann (Waltz) Thomas, cherished mother, caring sister, and beloved aunt, departed this world on Sept. 23, 2022, at Geisinger Medical Center, Danville, with her son Greg by her side, and was met by her loving husband, Gary, on the cusp of their wedding anniversary. Ann was born on Feb. 11, 1940, in Williamsport, the daughter of the late Howell and Evelyn (Paulhamus) Waltz, where she was raised on the family farm, and then resided just above her homestead in a house she and Gary built together, and where they enjoyed and created many happy memories together, and for many other people. She attended the one-room schools of Steam Mill and Stoney Gap until ninth grade, when she went to Williamsport, and graduated in the class of 1958 from the "old" high school.

Immediately after high school, she worked briefly at the Grit, and then she went to the former Bank of Newberry, where she worked for many years before Greg came along and she became a full-time mother until 1990, when she went back to the workforce and worked for Jersey Shore State Bank where she worked until her retirement in 2005. She was an active member of the State Road United Methodist Church, where she was the organist for over 60 years, taught Sunday School, helped with VBS, cooked meals, played piano at the various nursing homes, was the altar guild, etc. If the church doors were open, she was there doing something or at least helping out in the background. She was a volunteer for Meals on Wheels for many years, and enjoyed the friendships she made not just with the clients, but also with the other volunteers as well. She was also a life-member of the Blooming Grove Historical Society, and was proud of the fact that her family was one of the original settlers in Anthony Township, and according to lore, the location of her house was one of the first locations in the township that was cleared.

She met the one and only love of her life, Gary Thomas, on a blind date at a bowling alley, and they were wed at the State Road church on September 25, 1965, and together, they celebrated 21 years before his passing on April 6, 1987.

She is survived by her son, Greg, of Jersey Shore; her brother, Marvin (Kathryn) Waltz, Jersey Shore; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

A funeral service will be held 10 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 28 at State Road United Methodist Church, 6738 Daughertys Run Road, Linden, with her Pastor Elizabeth Jackson officiating. She will be laid to rest beside her husband in Wildwood Cemetery immediately after the service. A viewing will be held Tuesday, Sept. 27 from 6 to 8 p.m. at Knight-Confer Funeral Home 1914 Memorial Ave., Williamsport. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Ann's name to Blooming Grove Historical Society, 397 Dunkard Church Rd, Cogan Station, PA 17728.

Notes for Mark Renz Roos:

After a brief illness, Mark Renz Roos left this Earth on Saturday, April 16, 2022. His beloved daughter, Kate (Willibey) Eberhardt of Ypsilanti was by his side. Mark was born in Ann Arbor on Leap Year Day, February 29, 1952, to Harlan C. (Sox) and Dorothy Mae (Renz) Roos. He had a sister, Martha (Stark) Rehder and a brother and sister-in-law, Matt (Jean) Roos. His parents and brother preceded him in death. Mark won numerous trophies for bowling and golf, both of which were his passions. Another passion was fast-pitch softball. He was a winning pitcher for several years in an Ann Arbor league where he made life-long friends. Mark's career began as a mechanic at Colonial Lanes Bowling Alley before he took a position at Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation in 1986 and from which he retired in 2015. Mark was a master craftsman and "Jack of All Trades." He won awards for his intricate counted cross-stitch artwork and he could make or fix anything. His hobbies also included working with leather, building art sets for toy trains and crafting complex model ships out of wood. Mark loved New Mexico and all things southwest, particularly Native American art, and his cross-stitch creations often reflected that deep interest. He was a quiet, introspective man but was willing to share his views when he felt passionate about something; an act that often put him on probation with Facebook.

In addition to Kate, he was the loving father of Kristin (Willibey) Lacagnina of Asheville, North Carolina. Mark is also survived by his sons-in-law, Quanel Eberhardt and Marco Lacagnina; granddaughters, Farrah Commerford, Layla Eberhardt and Ivoree Griffin and her two children, Harmonee and Armani; nephews Mike and Scott Stark, and niece Michelle (Roos) Leonard, as well as several grand and great-grand nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Mark's honor to his two favorite charities: St. Jude's Hospital or ASPCA. A Celebration of Life will occur at a later date for family and close friends.

Local mother, Deidra Stierle, finds support with cancer battle

Jazzercise instructor says students, staff in her corner

By Alison Marable, Special Writer

PUBLISHED: August 14, 2008

Deidra Stierle's life was the envy of many. She was a healthy, 35-year-old Jazzercise instructor with a good job at a local firm and she had recently returned from a family trip to Disney World. The day Stierle got the call from the hospital, she was a parent helper at her son's preschool. James was a leader at Pooh Corner in Saline because the next day he would be turning 4 years old. Stierle has never forgotten that day in May when the voice over the telephone confirmed that her cells were indeed cancerous. As any mother would, she had to contain herself in front of her son and the other children, finish out the day and then call her husband.

Following her diagnosis of Stage 1 breast cancer, Stierle began a series of four rounds of chemotherapy, to be followed by seven weeks of radiation treatment. As a woman in her 30s, Stierle describes the experience as a "horrible emotional rollercoaster." One doctor told her that she was too young for cancer and that she was simply a "victim of technology." "She was upset by the misleading comments about being a victim of technology," said golfing partner and friend Shelly Butler.

During her first chemotherapy session at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, she looked around the room and noticed that most of the other women were seniors. She noted that some of the hospital staff seemed surprised to be treating someone of her age and were compassionate when they discovered she has such a young child. "I couldn't believe that this could happen to someone as young, active and healthy as Deidra," said close friend Tammy Miller. "It seems like more women in their 30s are being diagnosed and I think it's scary; however, it may be a reflection of better technology and doctors being trained to find it earlier," Stierle said.

Stierle has a master plan in place to keep herself motivated and positive. One step she took to be in control of her situation was to look for information on breast cancer and treatment. "She spent hours on the Internet reading legitimate sites and staying away from the blogs with the horror stories," her husband said. Miller said, "She has extensively researched information about breast cancer and her particular situation so that she is knowledgeable of all the facts, and she is managing her recovery with great fortitude." Stierle is known for her strength and can-do attitude. "She has a fire inside that she channels to help deal with the situation," said her husband. "Her personality is strong, positive and determined," said Miller.

Longtime friend Stephanie McCarthy said Stierle has handled the diagnosis with grace and strength, accepting the side effects that she likely will have from the treatment without one note of self pity. McCarthy will run the Susan G. Komen race for the Cure in Toledo in September and will place the name "Deidra Stierle" on her runner number. "The race will have a more special meaning for me this year," she said.

Stierle credits a large support system for her upbeat attitude. She considers her co-workers at the Saline Jazzercise Center to be family members. "It's more than a place to work out -- we're a sisterhood of sorts," she said. She continues to work and teach Jazzercise, altering her routine to compensate for any fatigue or having other instructors help with classes. "I want her to concentrate on her treatment, work and Jazzercise. The last two are important because it helps her to keep as normal a routine as possible," said Brian Stierle. Her friends at Jazzercise have provided gift cards for iTunes so that she will have new exercise music, items to pamper her during the tough times, comfortable clothes, nutrition cookbooks, and toys for her son. "They are a fantastic bunch and I couldn't ask for more sincere, genuine, caring people than my Jazzercise ladies," Diedra Stierle said.

Stierle has been employed at McNaughton & Gunn for nine years and finds the support at work priceless. Co-worker and friend Terri Conway said, "Here at work she doesn't let this get her down. Her professionalism is still what it has always been and she is on the ball." Stierle offers words of advice to women newly diagnosed with the disease. "Don't panic if you are faced with the word 'cancer' and listen to the doctors and experts rather than well-meaning family and friends," she said. Stierle advises friends and family not to offer unsolicited opinions on what a cancer patient should do or what kind of treatment they should receive. "I think the best thing they can do is offer support, but not advice," she said. Many friends sent cards to her home just letting her know she was in their thoughts. "It's a very simple act, but it means a lot to know people care," she said.

Stierle's parents, Denny and LeeAnne Roberts of Blissfield, her mother-in-law, Barb Stierle of Saline, as well as her 38-year-old sister, Renee Dashner of Blissfield, have been on hand to help with watching and caring for James. Stierle recalls that she and her son have always cuddled while he touched her hair. "To help ease her son into the certainty of losing her hair, she went out and had it cut real short to make the loss a bit less dramatic for James," Butler said. She and her mother also have been making scarves and pins for hats in anticipation of possible hair loss.

In 2006, Stierle's husband underwent surgery for chronic Crohn's disease so he not only had a great role model for being a supportive spouse, but he can now see what it is like to be on the other side. "I understand the worry she went through and I have a greater appreciation for all she did," he said. Their son is too young to know more than the fact that his mother is sick and sometimes won't feel well. Despite his age, he offers his own kind of support. "He is so full of energy that even if she is feeling down, he gets her laughing in an instant and takes her mind off the situation for a while," Brian Stierle said. Diedra Stierle's future plans include taking a cruise with her husband once the holidays are over and her treatment has come to an end. "I love her with all my heart and plan on growing old with her," said her husband.

5051. Natalee Anne¹¹ Guenther (Robert Frederick¹⁰, Rubin Friedrich (Reuben F.)⁹, Johann Friedrich⁸, Wilhelm⁷, Rosina⁶ Wagner, Caspar⁵, David Wilhelm⁴, Margaretha³ Ulmer, Hans Jacob², Johannes¹) was born 02 Feb 1963 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Gary Alan Ceccolini 02 Jul 1988 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He was born 24 Apr 1956.

Notes for Natalee Anne Guenther:

Guenther Homes is foremost a family-owned business. It was started by Reuben Guenther back in 1946. Reuben's commitment to quality and customer service anchored the company's philosophy and mission. Reuben believed in quality construction and a close working relationship with his customers. These ideals were passed down to Reuben's son, Bob, who grew the company by proudly upholding these impeccable standards of excellence. "From the time I was 12, my dad brought me to work," Bob says. "I've been involved with it all my life." By the time Bob took over for Reuben in 1963, he'd already accumulated years of experience as a laborer and a carpenter. Bob Guenther's success is directly attributable to the fact that he knows home building from all levels. Most of all, he knows it is a people business.

Now, the business has passed to the third generation: Natalie Ceccolini and Rob Guenther "We are proud to carry on the Guenther Homes commitment to building quality homes in great locations and service to the customer". says Natalie. "I enjoy dealing with people and being an effective problem solver. This is really a great company with a great team!"

And now a fourth generation of the Guenther Family has come aboard. Jessica Ceccolini earned a degree in business administration and has taken the role of office administrator and customer service coordinator. Nick Ceccolini has a construction management degree and is an on-site construction supervisor.

December 29, 2013 - The doorbell rings at Natalie and Gary "Chic" Ceccolini's home in Ann Arbor, and before either of them get to the front door two barking dogs emerge. The Old English sheepdog, Cosmo, is a mainstay, but the yellow Labrador, Murphy, is a visitor. The Detroit Red Wings are on the road, so the Ceccolinis are watching Murphy for goalie Jimmy Howard. Well, technically, they're watching Murphy for James Howard, Jimmy's 2-year-old son, to whom Natalie and Chic are Nana and Papa. Behind Murphy and Cosmo in the living room, stockings hang above the fireplace for Natalie, Chic and their three children, but there's three more: One for Jimmy, one for James and one for Rachel, Jimmy's wife. It's only appropriate, considering it's where the Howards often spend the holiday season.

Dog-sitting, stocking hanging, Christmas dinners. These are normally reserved for members of the same family and this is no exception. There's no blood relation between the Ceccolinis and Howard, but ever since Howard lived with the Ceccolinis in Ann Arbor more than a decade ago while playing with the United States National Team Development Program, they've been like family. "It's been great just to be able to have someone here," Howard said. "It's great because I'm constantly gone. If every once and a while, if Rachel needs some help they're always there and never hesitate. We're very thankful that they're 25 minutes away, front door to front door. And James loves them a lot, so it's good to have them." The U.S. NTDP roster includes top hockey prospects ages 16-18 from all over the country. When the players make the team, they attend Pioneer High School and live with host families. The Ceccolinis were long a hockey family – Chic and Natalie's two sons and daughter all played – in Ann Arbor and in the infancy of the program were recruited to be a host family.

They've hosted eight players over the years. Their backyard pond, which Chic had dug in the shape of an ice rink, has hosted many a pickup hockey game, sometimes involving Olympians and the top players in the NHL today. Natalie and Chic said each player they hosted was a little different. Former New York Islanders goalie Rick DiPietro was the ladies man, Chic jokes, and it's no insult to any of the other eight to say Jordan Pearce was the smart one. Pearce – with whom the Ceccolinis remain close – maintained a 4.0 G.P.A. while attending Notre Dame and will attend medical school now that his pro hockey career with the Red Wings organization is over.

"(Jordan) was great to have around for the kids for homework," said Chic. "They'd come up to me and 'I'd say, go see Jordan.'" But for whatever reason Howard was the player that grew closest with the Ceccolinis. Most of the players they hosted were there for two years, but despite Jimmy only being there for one, they clicked. On the rare weekend that the team didn't have games, while most players would go out, Jimmy chose to stay in and hang out with his adopted younger brothers and sister. "It's not like they had a lot of moments to go out anyway, but the opportunities that they did have, he would usually just say, 'no, I'll stay home and babysit. You guys go ahead and go out,'" Natalie recalls.

"There was a definite connection, even when he was at college at the University of Maine, it was like he never left the house," Chic said. "Phone calls all the time, we would go out to Maine, he would come out here." Gary "Chic" Ceccolini, left, Natalie Ceccolini, middle, and Detroit Red Wings goalie Jimmy Howard share a laugh at the Ceccolini home. Proximity has helped keep the relationship strong and grow, but it was luck of the draw that it worked out that way. The Ceccolinis attended the 2003 NHL Draft in Nashville, Tennessee with Howard. All the players they hosted were drafted, but Howard's was the only one they attended.

When the Red Wings announced Howard as their second round pick, it was a surreal moment for everyone in attendance. "Talk about the stars aligning for these two," Howard jokes.

Howard said the Red Wings were the last team he expected to pick him in the draft. Of all the teams he met with during pre-draft preparations, his meeting with Detroit personnel was the shortest. "To be their first pick of the day was shocking to say the least, but it was definitely an honor and it has worked out great,” Howard said. When it became apparent that Howard would be in Detroit permanently he called Natalie and said he and Rachel were going to move into the basement. Natalie was flattered by the gesture, but instead offered to act as his unofficial real estate agent. Natalie found a house for the two to rent and Howard signed the contract sight unseen. “I trusted Nat,” Howard said. “It’s worked out.” They’ve only grown closer as a result. To James, Natalie and Chic are Nana and Papa. To Nick, Tony and Jessica Ceccolini, Howard is like an older brother. “It was just always a good fit. That’s the bottom line right there,” Chic said.

With Howard and the Red Wings playing in the Winter Classic against the Toronto Maple Leafs at Michigan Stadium on New Year’s Day, it will be somewhat of a homecoming and Howard’s treating it as such with help from the Ceccolinis. Howard said around 50 of his extended family will be in town for the outdoor game and the Ceccolini home will be home base for it all. After the family skate at The Big House – which Chic and Natalie plan on participating in – everyone will make their way to the Ceccolinis for a New Year’s Eve party and Chic will move the setup to the Pioneer parking lot on game day. Howard injured his knee two-and-a-half weeks ago, and has been out of the Detroit lineup since December 10, but plans to be ready for the New Year’s Day game. “It’s going to be a special day for everyone,” Howard said. “I’m just looking forward to having so many people share the day with us.”

Howard is one of five former U.S. NTDP players expected to play in the game along with teammate Patrick Eaves and Maple Leafs Phil Kessel, John Michael Liles and James van Riemsdyk. For van Riemsdyk, this will be his third Winter Classic – he played at Fenway Park in Boston and Citizen’s Bank Park in Philadelphia while a member of the Philadelphia Flyers. He said playing in Ann Arbor will be special after spending two years in the care of Mark and Sue Foster. “It’ll definitely be special. Ann Arbor will always hold kind of a special place for me,” van Riemsdyk said. “I don’t know how much time we’ll have, but I know my parents are planning on coming and I’m sure we’ll all see the Fosters. “That’ll be fun to see them after.”

Toronto Maple Leafs forward James van Riemsdyk, far left, spent his 17th birthday in 2006 in Ann Arbor while playing with the United States National Team Development Program. Pictured with him are members of his host family Sarah Foster, middle, Josh Foster, far right, and Mark Foster, behind window. Unlike the Ceccolinis, the Fosters aren’t a hockey family, but actually ended up connected with van Riemsdyk through St. Paul’s Lutheran Church. A Lutheran Faith was something van Riemsdyk’s parents, Allison and Frans, hoped his host family would share and the Fosters became connected with the hockey program through the church. “When I heard about the program, I just started thinking, if I was a mom, sending my kid off at 16, I’d want him in a home that would have similar values,” Sue Foster recalls. “We immediately felt very comfortable,” Frans said.

“After dropping him off, the whole car ride home I was just a little anxious, but then when we got back to New Jersey I just got this feeling that I felt very good about it and I was right,” said Allison. Sue Foster remembers not thinking of van Riemsdyk as future NHL player, but just a another kid. “I personally had no clue how good he was,” Foster said. “To me he was always just a kid I was helping to take care of. And it’s not like he would tell us, he was just a humble kid.” The van Riemsdyks will be in attendance at the Winter Classic and may end up staying at the Fosters’ home, like they did the first Thanksgiving that James played with Team USA. There are 82 games on the NHL schedule, but only one of them will be played in front of more than 100,000 people outdoors on New Year’s Day, making the Winter Classic a rather special event. And for players like Howard and van Riemsdyk, making it a family affair will make it even more memorable. “I really can’t wait, it’s going to be special,” Howard said.

Marriage Notes for Julie Niethammer and Mark Choate:

Hurricane Harvey tried to put a damper on the wedding of Julie Niethammer and Mark Choate, but the show went on anyway. The couple are now happily hitched and honeymooning in Iceland, far north of the current storm action in the Atlantic Ocean. "We still got married on Sept. 3 in Magnolia, Texas, just outside of Houston," said Julie, a 2012 Dexter High School graduate, via e-mail on Tuesday. "We had to plan everything again. Thankfully, our families stepped in and helped." Niethammer shared her story of trying to spontaneously make arrangements for a Sept. 3 wedding after her original plans were destroyed by Hurricane Harvey.

Five days before the wedding Julie and Mark, a Houston native, had so meticulously planned, they found themselves pulling together with their families to make sure they could still say 'I do,' even though it wouldn't be at their planned venue, which was by then flooded. With the Houston airport closed, Mark flew to Dallas from Chicago, where the couple lives. Julie's parents also rerouted to Dallas while the bride confirmed that her other planned vendors — including a bartender and photographer, were safe and could still provide services. They were out of luck on finding a hotel or church to serve as a wedding location since they were needed for disaster relief, but were able to use as a last option the vacation rental home at which Julie's parents were staying.

On Sept. 3, with all new plans in place, Julie and Mark stood together on the front steps of the spacious two-story home, ready at last to be married. "I was filled with excitement, I couldn't stop smiling," said Julie. "I kept thinking to myself how much I love him and that I was looking forward to our future adventures. I love absolutely everything about him, especially how at ease he makes me." Mark, a man of few words, said while the hurricane had placed stressed on the family, when he finally said his vows to the woman he loves, he felt "happy."

The couple, who met and fell in love at Michigan State University, continued the celebration with a party on the back porch that included gumbo and shrimp boil made by Mark's uncle, and side dishes provided by Julie's family. While not all their guests from out of state could make it due to flight cancellations, the new husband and wife will have another celebration in Michigan in November.

"It turned out lovely," said Julie of her Houston post-hurricane wedding. "It actually went really well for being put together in five days. This struggle actually bodes well for our marriage because it shows how much we can support each other through the ups and downs and very stressful times." The wedding will make a good story to tell their future children and Julie knows just what she will say: "I will tell them you don't have to have an extravagant event to know how much people love and care about you."

6988 iv. Zachary Taylor Owings, born 17 Dec 1997 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Zachary Taylor Owings:

Eastern Michigan University junior infielder Zachary Owings (Saline, Michigan) was selected in the 33rd round, 981st overall, by the Miami Marlins in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft Wednesday afternoon, June 5, 2019. Owings becomes the 76th EMU player to be drafted all-time into the MLB, and becomes the third selection from EMU in as many years, joining 2017 Seattle Mariners pick Sam Delaplane, and 2018 Oakland Athletics selection Max Schuemann. Owings is the second Eastern player to be drafted into the Marlins organization, joining Steve Weber.

Owings was EMU's best offensive weapon in 2019, as he led the team in batting (.345), slugging (.527), on-base percentage (.395), stolen bases (14), runs (38), and doubles (18), as well as hits (76) and RBIs (34). The infielder also tied for the team lead in triples (five), and ranked second in home runs (four). Owings piloted the team with 26 multi-hit games, and paced the EMU lineup with seven multi-RBI games. Additionally, Owings added a 23-game reached base streak to go along with his team-best 14 game hitting streak.

Within the Mid-American Conference's regular season, Owings ranked fourth in hits, sixth in total bases, ninth in batting average, 10th in slugging percentage, and tied for fourth in both doubles and triples, respectively. The junior is no stranger on the national stage either, as he ranked inside the top-30 in triples, and inside the top-60 in hits and doubles. In the field, Owings was outstanding, defending the hot corner at a near-perfect .974 clip. In all, the third baseman made just five errors in nearly 200 opportunities. The anchor of the fourth most efficient fielding unit in the MAC, Owings closed the season without making an error in his last 25 games played.

In addition to his top-tier statistics, Owings has compiled an impressive list of awards in 2019. The infielder was twice named the MAC's Scholar Athlete of the Week, recognized by College Sports Madness as the league's player of the week, named Eastern Michigan University Credit Union's Athlete of the Week, and was named a National Strength and Conditioning Association All-American for the second straight year. Most recently, the junior was tabbed as one of league's best for the second straight year, as he was named Second Team All-MAC, and to the All-MAC Defensive Team.

Owings closed his third season at EMU having played in 157 contests, including making 146 starts. The lefty has knocked 187 hits, including 34 doubles, seven triples, and 10 home runs, on his way to batting .325, good for 15th all-time at Eastern.

Notes for Cheryl Lynn Blumenauer:

November 19, 2013 – by Cheryl Sweetland - Washtenaw County Farm Bureau members, I am excited to have the opportunity to serve on the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau (WCFB) board as a member at-large. I am a lifelong resident of the county and grew up on a farm in Manchester. While at home my father, Mark Blumenauer, and our family raised cattle, farrowed pigs, fattened out feeder pigs, grew crops and baled lots of hay. I was involved in 4-H and FFA, and went on to Ferris State University where I earned a Bachelor of Science in health systems management. After graduation, I accepted a position at the University of Michigan (UM) in the hospital finance department where I worked for nine years prior to moving to the department of internal medicine where I since served as the faculty affairs manager. I celebrated my 20-year service anniversary at UM last month.

I married Brian Sweetland in 1996 and we have four children: Nicole, Natalie, Emily and Bradley ranging in age from five to 12. Brian is a third-generation dairy farmer and the fifth-generation to farm the Sweetland homestead farm in Lodi Township. He milks 50 cows and we grow corn, soybeans, wheat and hay. We work hard and take great pride in what we do; a consistent theme embedded across the farming community.

Why am I excited to take on this service role? The short answer is because it is important. The long answer comes to light when revisiting the ordeal my husband and I went through with the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) in 2012. Prior to our experience, we didn't understand the impact of state and federal regulations or more importantly, that common sense is missing from the equation when those regulations are being interpreted. We were fortunate to have support from my dad, close friends and the farming community.

WCFB helped organize a meeting with legislators, members and members of the community to share our story. Michigan Farm Bureau was also there for us. Specifically, our MFB Regional Representative. Our story is not unique; other stories like ours are playing out all over the state and across the country. The agricultural sector is small, but the goods we produce feed the world. We need to partner with one another, speak up and educate others who are otherwise unaware of the effort to produce goods and the care, immense integrity and pride we take in our approach while doing so. Farm Bureau is dedicated to supporting members and ensuring our voice is heard. We, as growers and producers, have a part to play. Don't be afraid to engage Farm Bureau and ask for help, I'm sure glad we did.

- 7079 ii. Bradley James Feldkamp, born Aft. 1998.

Notes for Bradley James Feldkamp:

April 7, 2023 - Marine Corps Base Quantico, Virginia -- "Marines to be awarded! Center! March!" rang throughout the courtyard. At the back of the formation, three U.S. Marines march around the formation to the front, stopping to face their superiors, Marine Corps Embassy Security Group Executive Officer Lt. Col. Matthew McNerney and Chief Instructor Advisor Gunnery Sgt. Aric Lonchar. "... the Secretary of the Navy has awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal to Corporal's John W. Darby and Bradley J. Feldkamp and Lance Cpl. Nicholas M. Dural, United States Marine Corps for professional achievement in the performance of their duties while serving as Marine Security Guards with Marine Corps Embassy Security Group, Quantico, Virginia on one April 2023." Lonchar read aloud.

Lance Cpl. Dural and Cpls. Darby and Feldkamp did not expect their Saturday would go the way that it did. After finishing their errands in Stafford, Virginia, the three decided to stop by a local Chick-fil-A to grab some lunch. They ordered their food then sat down in a booth at the back of the restaurant. Scanning his surroundings, Dural noticed two suspicious seeming teenagers glancing over at a man sitting down nearby. "When I saw the two individuals, I was on edge a little bit," said Dural. Moments later, the two teenagers began to verbally berate the man before things became physical between them.

"The teenagers went over to antagonize the other person sitting down and while they're antagonizing him, they said something that sent him over the edge," continued Dural. "And that's whenever the man got up and he went to tackle both of them, and they slammed into a woman too. Pushing her up against a wall." Immediately, Dural shot up out of his seat to intervene. Seeing what their friend was about to do, Darby and Feldkamp ran over to help with the situation. Dural tried to deescalate the situation by verbally telling the teenagers they had to leave, while Darby went over to the woman pushed to make sure she was okay. "I was trying to get her to call the police because she was physically hit by them. She was kind of okay, she was fine, but she was kind of out of it. With Dural yelling at them, 'this is not the right thing to do. Not the right place, not the right time, not the right crowd and everything,' I felt like he was doing a pretty good job at it but obviously the people who were fighting had a different idea. And then it just escalated," added Darby. The teenagers weren't listening, all of a sudden one of the teenagers pulled out a knife. When Dural saw the knife, the first thing he felt was surprise. But he knew that it was a danger to everybody nearby, and that action was needed. Instinctively, Dural grabbed the teen's arm holding the knife to disarm him, bringing him to the ground.

"This is serious, this went from one level to a whole different level. At that point I realized that there are women and children here, I couldn't let anyone get hurt," recalled Dural. Darby and Feldkamp stood over the two, preventing both the man and the other teenager from causing any harm. "Darby, grab the blade," yelled Dural. Darby looked down, at the knife that had been snapped in half while restraining the teen that was attempting to pry the knife back from Dural. Darby reached down and quickly took the knife away, bringing it to the Chick-fil-A manager.

"I honestly don't remember it was just kind of blank. It was fight or flight. In the Marine Corps and in MSG training they teach you that your body will push yourself to a limit that you won't understand until you get there. When you're in a high stress situation, you go back to your most basic form of training and the last training that I had was MSG training," said Dural. "I think the defensive tactics like wrist locks and the manipulations that we learn, I think it definitely gave me the basis to do what I needed to do. I remember I was cross-armed so my left hand was on the blade and then my right arm was still putting pressure on his elbow joint. I knew that I needed to control that wrist. I know I needed to manipulate that wrist to have any chance of doing anything productive. I definitely think MSG training helped a lot." When the teenager noticed the knife was snapped, he stopped fighting Dural, who then released him. Both teenagers fled through the back exit of the restaurant.

Luckily, there were police officers already in the vicinity, when the call was made, so they were able to detain one of the teens, as the other one ran off across the street. Within 10 minutes, the police were able to apprehend the teenager and bring them both in custody. When the Marines were asked why they chose to act in the face of danger, the Marines had a few things to say. "Basically, as soon as it happened, my only thought was to keep Dural safe. If anything happens to him, it's my responsibility to keep him safe. I thought once he involved himself we all had to," explained Darby. Dural went on to say, "I'm going to be honest. I don't know. I took care of my sisters growing up. And I've always felt real protective. And I saw little kids running around. And I just didn't want one of these innocent children, one of these mothers, somebody's daughter or sister to be stabbed. I'm a Marine, I'll be okay. I'll figure it out. I'm going to figure it out. So, yeah, that pride kicked in. And because I know that if my sister was in that Chick-fil-A, I would have done the same thing. Because I'm not letting anybody get close to my family. You know? And I would hope somebody would do that for my sisters. I was gonna be alright, regardless, I was gonna figure it out. Because of God and country. So, if God didn't want me there, he wouldn't have put me there."

"I feel like it was instinct. What if it would have gone way south if none of us were there to hop in. When the people saw the scuffle, they were going for the doors. So there weren't many people in there that were trying to help out. Then suddenly the knife came out and more people got scared. None of us are really scared of a knife, we had to go help somebody out before it got worse," added Feldkamp. The three Marines don't think too highly of themselves for their actions. They believe that any Marine would have done the same in their shoes. "We were all in the situation. Dural decided to act. We followed his initiative and then just like that, we went on with it. It should be expected that in any situation where something hits the fan this severely, that Marines will act like Marines," said Darby. "Like, you know, whenever I join the Marine Corps, that's what I thought Marines do, you know, so I don't expect anybody to treat me differently. I personally don't like being treated differently," said Dural. "I'm just another Lance Corporal trying to do my job in the Marine Corps. And that's how I look at it and it's gonna stay that way."

"We are in the business of continuing a legacy, and those actions that were conducted this weekend by those three Marines had done just that. They continued the legacy of previous generations of Marine Security Guards, by doing what we do best, protecting those around us," said Lonchar.

Children of Carolyn Metzger and Galen Menne are:

- 7249 i. Michele Janeen¹² Menne, born 07 Nov 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts; died 19 Mar 2016 in Bowie, Maryland. She married John Forney.

Notes for Michele Janeen Menne:

Michele Janeen Menne Forney, 49, on Saturday March 19, 2016 died of brain cancer at the home of her parents in Bowie, Maryland. Michele was born on November 7, 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts, the daughter of Rev. Galen Menne and Carolyn Menne. Mrs. Forney was a beloved media specialist (school librarian) in Prince Georges County Schools. Prior to her illness which began in November 2014, Michele was librarian both at High Bridge Elementary School in Bowie, Maryland and Seabrook Elementary School in Seabrook, Maryland. She previously was a librarian at Anne Arundel County Schools: Jessup Elementary School and Manor View Elementary School. Michele graduated from Eleanor Roosevelt High School in Greenbelt, Maryland in 1984. She attended Towson University and received a bachelor's degree in mass communications in 1988 and later earned a Master's Degree in library science.

She was a member of Pasadena United Methodist Church, sang in the choir and was elected as president of the United Methodist Women. As a librarian, she was president of the Maryland Association of State Librarians and served on the Black-Eyed Susan Committee to select children's books to be read by children at participating schools. Michele was also a member of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Bowie Chapter, where she has served as secretary.

Eulogy for Michele Forney-part 1 - Michele was born on November 7, 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts to her parents Carolyn and Galen Menne. Her parents moved from Pennsylvania to Ware so that Galen could be a student pastor of the Methodist Church in that town while also being a student at Boston University School of Theology. As many of you know, Michele worked as a school librarian. Since she was always selecting children's books to be part of the Black-Eyed Susan nominations for the year or reading to the children that came to the library, we could not resist reading a child's book that she received this past Christmas. The title is "On the Night You Were Born" and the author is Nancy Tillman. Michele this book is dedicated to you.

On the night you were born, the moon smiled with such wonder that the stars peeked in to see you and the night wind whispered, "Life will never be the same." Because there has never been anyone Like you...ever in the world. So enchanted with you were the wind and rain that they whispered the sound of your wonderful name. The sound of your name is a magical one. Let's say it aloud before we go on. MICHELE! It sailed through the farmland high one the breeze. Who in the world is exactly like you? Who who who. Over the ocean and through the trees...Until everyone heard it and everyone knew of the one and only ever you. Not once had there been such eyes, such a nose, such silly, wiggly wonderful toes. In fact, I think I'll count to three so you can wiggle your toes for me.

When the polar bears heard, they danced until dawn. From far away places the geese flew home. The moon stayed up until morning next day. And none of the ladybugs flew away. So whenever you doubt just how special you are and you wonder who loved you, how much and how far, listening for the honking. High in the sky. (They're singing a song to remember you by.) Or notice the bears asleep at the zoo. (It's because they've been dancing all night for you!) Or drift off to sleep to the sound of the wind (Listen closely...it's whispering your name again!) If the moon stays up until morning one day, or a lady bug lands and decides to stay, or a little bird sits at your window awhile, it's because they're all hoping to see your smile. For never before in story or rhyme (not even once upon a time has the world ever known a you, my friend, and it never will, never ever again...Heaven blew every trumpet and played every horn on the wonderful, marvelous night you were born.

Michele entered the world and was cared for by her parents and always surrounded by a loving and caring family of those who were in the church. Five times Michele moved with her family—(from Ware to Peabody, Massachusetts) then (from Peabody to Hagerstown, Maryland,) then from Hagerstown to Lothian, Maryland,) then from (Lothian to Damascus, Maryland,) and lastly (Damascus to Glenn Dale, Md.). Michele was always making new friends at each place she lived, then would leave them and say goodbye and start all over. When Michele grew up she kept on doing what she was good at—making new friends. She has made many, many friends and they stood by her during her illness. They visited her, they cheered her up, they brought food, they brought flowers, they brought gifts and most importantly of all was that they remembered her in their prayers.

Michele had many happy days in her early years. When she was just two years old, her mother would read a book over and over again and soon Michele was able to say the words out loud on one page and know what words to say when the pages were turned. When she was four years old, her brother Jeremy was born. Michele loved her baby brother and as they grew up they played together, Michele especially enjoyed the trips to see her grandparents, aunts and uncles, and cousins in Pennsylvania. She loved the sights and sounds of living in the country and getting to know the farm animals. She went with her family on summer vacations to the town where she was born. Michele and Jeremy would sit in the back seat of the car with the ice chest in between so that they did not fight.

Michele loved going to the library and checking out books. What a joy it was for her when she was able to read books herself. It opened up a whole new world. One assignment she had in elementary school was for her to write a children's book. She did write a book and treasured it. She brought it to her school library one day and showed it to the students. Maybe one day the students that saw her book will write a book too or perhaps even become a school librarian. Michele attended three different high schools- Damascus High School in Damascus, DuVal High School in Lanham, and Eleanor High School in Greenbelt. Michele was an alto and sang in the choirs at each of the schools including the production of the Sound of Music. In addition, she received varsity letters in both cross country and track. Her goal was to get to state competition in each of these sports. Michele's first job was at Baskins and Robins dipping ice cream. In 1984, she graduated from Eleanor Roosevelt High School. Then she went on to Towson University, graduating in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in mass communications.

Eulogy for Michele Menne Forney –part 2 - Shortly after completing college, Michele married John Forney, who was a member of the Glenn Dale Church. Michele began a job working for The Baltimore-Washington Corridor Chamber of Commerce in Laurel. Soon her son Colin was born. So she ended her job so that she could take care of him. When he was a couple of years old, she would read books to Colin. From that time on until his teenage years, she made sure that at every birthday party she read a book to all of the children attending. Michele looked forward to family vacations and was a good mother. When Colin was in elementary school Michele encouraged him to participate in activities within his church and school. For a time Colin took lessons at playing the violin and he was in the Cub Scouts.

Things changed for Michele when her marriage ended in divorce. She worked part-time and then went back to school at Towson University. From there, she received a Master of Science degree in library science. She became a librarian in Anne Arundel County Schools—Jessup Elementary School and Manor View Elementary School. Michele was the fourth generation of school teachers. Later she became a librarian at Prince George's County Schools—Seabrook Elementary School and High Bridge Elementary School. Michele lobbied the school board seeking more money in the school budget for library services.

In the years before her illness, she worked 3 days at one school and 2 days at the other. Michele was a member of the Maryland Association for School Librarians since 2004 and served as president in 2010-2011. She was also a member of the Black Eyed Susan Awards Committee since 2006 and helped nominate the children's books to be read in Maryland elementary schools for each year. At her schools, Michele encouraged students to read these books and then select the book or books that they liked the best. She always planned an ice cream party for all children that participated. Her favorite annual event was to attend the National Book Festivals held in Washington. Michele's biggest thrill was to meet an author of a children's book and then have him or her autograph the book. She would even write to some of the authors telling them how much the children at her school liked the book.

Michele's life changed when a friend introduced her to Michael Morris. They dated, became close friends, and after awhile they became engaged. Michael, Michele and Colin traveled to Florida to visit a friend. While there, Michael became ill, was taken to the hospital, and there he died. Michele went through a rough time in her life. Then someone suggested that she attend a meeting made up of persons who were grieving because of some loss that they had experienced. There she met a woman who would become her closest friend and soon they both were having some fun times not alone but together. Michele always showed ways to care for her friends. She liked to send greeting cards—birthday, sympathy, anniversary, thinking of you—just to name a few occasions. When someone was hurting, she was there to listen.

Michele found time not only to attend her church, but participate in many ways. She attended Baldwin Memorial United Methodist Church and then Pasadena United Methodist Church. She sang in the choir, was the story teller at Vacation Bible School, participated in Christmas plays, helped at Bazaars, and was a member of the United Methodist Women. At Pasadena Church she was president of the United Methodist Women prior to her illness. The summer before she became ill she went with her church work team to Camp Hope. Camp Hope is a project stationed in Frostburg, Maryland which brings together over the summer adult teams of workers to make repairs to the homes of shut-ins and persons with low incomes. Michele enjoyed this outreach program so much and planned on going again.

Michele also experienced some exciting times of travel. In 2003 she and her grandmother went to London, England because her parents were living there that summer. Her grandmother who was in her eighties had never ridden on an air plane before. Michele had so much fun showing her grandmother around. Michele and Colin went on two cruises to the Caribbean. Michele had other interests as well. On Friday nights she would play bunko. She was also a member of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Bowie Chapter, where she served for a time as secretary.

Michele first discovered that she had brain cancer in November 2014. She moved into the home of her parents in Bowie. She entered into a series of chemo and radiation treatments at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. Many friends came to visit. Many friends kept her in prayer even to go as far by putting this prayer request on the prayer list of their church. Many persons kept track of how Michele was doing by going to the internet to a website called "Caring Bridge." And still others dropped by to visit. This past July Michele no longer had the strength to walk. She was confined to a bed. She received help from Hospice.

There was a point in this struggle that Michele could say only a few words. One morning she awoke and spoke two sentences. One sentence was "Can I go to school today." Her friend Karen, who introduced the first song, read the words to it and then shared a portion of the eulogy, came to visit Michele and brought her bunny rabbit. She placed the bunny on Michele's bed and immediately the bunny cuddled under her chin. This time Michele spoke one word. She said "Wow!" And that happened to be the last word that she would speak. God is at work in mysterious ways and is still performing wonders. What an awesome God you and I have—WOW!

Friends, soon, come Sunday, we will add to the one word of WOW. We will hear the words "Christ the Lord is Risen" and we will respond "He is Risen, Indeed." Death is not the end. Because Christ lives, we shall live also.

Joseph I.¹¹ Hamilton II (Catherine Regina¹⁰ Pepperman, Alice Mary⁹ Kiess, Andrew J.⁸, John Clement⁷, Dorothea⁶ Ulmer, Leonhard⁵, Thomas⁴, Caspar³, Hans Jacob², Johannes¹) was born 28 Jan 1946 in Williamsport, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 28 Apr 2024 in Cogan Station, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania. He married Susan Caputo 1999.

Notes for Joseph I. Hamilton II:

Joseph I. "Joe" Hamilton, II, 78, of Cogan Station, passed away Sunday, April 28, 2024 peacefully at home. Surviving is his loving wife of 25 years, Susan (Caputo) Hamilton. Joe's family is happy to know he is once again enjoying banana splits in Heaven, without the bananas, of course. Born January 28, 1946, in Williamsport, he was a son of the late George W. and Catherine R. (Pepperman) Hamilton. Joe's journey began when he left school early to contribute to the family farm. It was there, amidst the fields and machinery, that he honed his remarkable work ethic and learned the valuable skill of fixing broken things—a talent that would define his life. He was employed at both Sheddy and Sintex and later retired as a Heavy Equipment Operator from the Lycoming County Landfill, retiring in December of 2007.

Joe's dream in life was to own a tractor and become a puller. Sue and Joe found a 1937 John Deere tractor one day with a tree growing through it. They decided to buy it and spent the next three months restoring it together. This was how Joe's love of John Deere tractors began. His dream became reality as he often participated in tractor pulls throughout the area a few times a year. Joe was a man who knew how to save money in order to spend it on things he really wanted, such as adding to his collection of toy John Deere tractors. He was also extremely proud to be one of the founders of the Trout Run Tractor Club, creating the club in 1998, and serving as the current Vice President. He also could be found at other local tractor pull events and participating in parades. Joe's enduring love for John Deere tractors, a theme that ran through his entire life, reflected his appreciation for tradition, excellence, and the simple pleasures of rural life.

Surprisingly, he was a man who loved the beach, enjoying three yearly trips to Chincoteague where he may have been the only man on the beach in long pants and work boots. He relished in the outdoors, from fishing trips with Captain Matt to taking his gun for a walk in the woods. He also enjoyed many outings and excursions with Sue where the destinations were endless, from Bass Pro, to New York, Missouri and beyond. Above all else, Joe was a family man who would do anything for those he loved. He was a caring husband and a loving father and grandfather, often being called "Pappy Put-Put." The sight of Joe atop a gleaming John Deere was a symbol of joy for his family, and something that he cherished deeply. He and Susan were also proud to plan and run their annual Hamilton family reunion, creating more memories together every single year.

Surviving in addition to his wife are three children, Kendra Brown (Cliff) of South Williamsport, Keri Hamilton and Joseph Hamilton, III, both of Williamsport; two step-children, Mike Bieber, of Montgomery, and Randy Bieber, of Ottumwa, Iowa; five grandchildren, Aaron, Jeffrey, and Joshua Hamilton, Wesley Brown, and Dylan Long; a brother, David Hamilton; two sisters, Shirley Selders, and Mary Albright; as well as numerous nieces and nephews. In addition to his parents, Joe was preceded in death by five brothers, John "Pete", Donald, LeRoy, George, and William Hamilton; and three sisters, Betty Yarison, Joyce Hamilton, and Alice Tubbs.

A funeral service to honor the life of Joe will be held 11 a.m., Thursday, May 2, at Sanders Mortuary, 821 Diamond St., Williamsport. Burial will follow in Woodward Township Cemetery. A viewing will be held from 10 a.m. until the time of service, Thursday, at Sanders. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Joe's name to the Trout Run Antique Tractor Pullers Association, 5010 North Way Rd., Williamsport, Pennsylvania 17701.

She married Rev. Roger N. McNamara Aft. 1961. He was born 24 Jan 1942.

Notes for Rosemary Ulmer:

Rosemary Ulmer McNamara, 77, of Brandy Station, Virginia, was promoted from her home to Heaven on Thursday morning, June 18, 2020. Her battle with multiple illnesses ended in triumph as she stepped into the presence of her God and Savior, Jesus Christ. Rosemary was born on October 17, 1942 in Williamsport, Pennsylvania to Paul and Mildred (Smith) Ulmer of Linden, Pennsylvania. After graduating from Williamsport High School in 1960, she earned a three-year diploma at Practical Bible Training School in Johnson City, New York and then graduated from Williamsport School of Nursing in 1964.

While at Practical Bible Training School she became engaged to Roger McNamara of North Colesville, New York, a fellow student at the School. They were wed July 11, 1964 and four days later were accepted by Baptist Mid-Missions of Cleveland, Ohio as missionaries to South America. They served in Mexico, Costa Rica, Venezuela, St. Vincent, West Indies, Canada, Liberia, Africa as well as in the United States before their retirement in 2018 after fifty-two years of missionary service. Rosemary served through teaching children and ladies' classes, being the church pianist for forty years, and by being a friend, hostess and counselor to multiple women, missionaries and pastors' wives. She was her husband's constant helpmeet and encourager.

She and her husband, Roger, had two sons: Shawn David (wife Chris) of Indianapolis, Indiana and Shane Paul (wife Ami) of Georgetown, Texas. Both of their sons are actively involved in church ministry roles. Rosemary had four grandchildren, Faith (with her husband Hudson Steidl), Bethany, Grace and Joshua. She also has two great grandchildren, Tessalyn Elise Steidl and Weston Taylor Steidl.

In John 14:2, Jesus said, "I go to prepare a place for you that where I am, there ye may be also." On Thursday morning, Rosemary was escorted to her celestial home where the streets are paved with gold and there is no more cancer, no more blood pressure issues, no more pain or suffering, no more weakness, no more lethargy, no more stupor. She is home, safe in the arms of Jesus. She was a good and godly woman, the example of what a mother and Christian wife ought to be. She never wanted to be in the spotlight but preferred to serve in the background. She had a godly parents and grandparents, uncles that were pastors, aunts that were missionaries, and multiple others that were deacons, teachers and church leaders. She learned to serve early teaching children's classes at Anthony Baptist Church on Quenshukeny Road in Linden, Pennsylvania. At Bible School Park she was the girl that all the other girls sought out when they needed a friend or someone to listen to their fears, concerns and heartaches. She followed her husband to the mission fields of Latin America giving up the parents and friends she loved to live in a foreign culture with a language she did not understand. She struggled with the Spanish, but she didn't quit. When she was laid aside with hepatitis shortly after the birth of her first baby, she endured without asking, "Why me?"

She packed up and moved from country to country, from one nationality to the next. She took on the daunting task of teaching her son at home. She loved the students at the Bible College in St. Vincent in the West Indies. Pearl was a special girl who cleaned our home and washed our clothes and did whatever was needed. She married a Vincentian pastor but was called home to heaven a few years later. Then there was Ma Forbes. She was the cook at the Bible College. A simple woman who loved being with the students as well.

For 35 years, while her husband taught in the School of Church Planting, Rosemary served as the unofficial "hostess," the jack of all trades, the go-to girl who welcomed numerous missionaries, pastors, students and church planters from around the world. She greeted them, introduced them to the teachers, herded them to their meals and then back to their classes. She ran countless errands, made copies, coordinated and care for a thousand and one details that go into running conferences. Several people have referred to her as being "spunky" with a mischievous "Can Do" attitude. She loved to joke and tease.

For years, she would accompany her husband to executive meetings in Cleveland, Ohio and while he met in counsel with other field council representatives, she would be back in the finance office opening letters, sorting mail, and enjoying time with "the girls" in the Home Office of Baptist Mid-Missions. For a dozen years, she helped her husband organize and direct the North American field conferences held at Faith Baptist Bible College in Ankeny, Iowa. They would be the first to arrive and the last to leave. They cared for room assignments, coordinated meeting schedules, and made sure food was prepared and ready for the hungry guests. She collected the dorm keys, made sure people who needed a ride to the airport had one, she checked the dorms to make sure the garbage was picked up, and was there when her husband paid the bills from those conferences. If you wanted to know something, you asked Rosemary. The days were long and demanding, but she met them with grace and kindness and determination. She proofread thousands of pages of her husband's writings. Letters, sermon notes, PowerPoints, nearly eighty editions of the Church Planter's Toolbox, multiple book manuscripts, they all fell under her watchful eye and red ink pen. Her husband's writings were better because of her and thousands around the world were blessed as a result.

Rosemary and her husband retired in 2016 after fifty-two years of missionary service, but they found retirement harder than active missionary service. A "servant" knows only one thing – to serve, and when she and her husband stepped down from full-time missionary service, there was a void. It didn't take her long to find something to do. She loved to crochet, work her word search puzzle books, and served as the "gram dame" of the Classic Life Bible Class at her church. She was loved and looked up to by nearly everyone who knew her. Her ready smile, her attention to detail, her willingness to pitch in and help all endeared her to others. Now, she is gone, but not far away. Her husband can hear the sound of her voice in each room of the house, her handiwork is everywhere. Her chair sits empty and her John Deere hat lies on the countertop to be used no more. We miss her, but she lives on in our hearts. She has transcended this life into an even better one in the presence of her Lord and Savior who she served. She now can breathe deep, run and jump with ease. But most of all, she loves to fall at the feet of her loving Savior who died to make it possible for her to be where she is. She leaves behind her a godly heritage. The world is a better place because of her. Her tombstone sums it up best and speaks so eloquently of her when it says for all to behold, "A servant of Christ." She loved plants and flowers, baking, crocheting, word search books, and going to Bible studies. She loved her husband of fifty-six years, her children and grandchildren, her church, her pastor, and her Lord Jesus Christ. She was an example of a godly woman. She came from a long line of godly pastors, missionaries, and church leaders and left behind a heritage of humble service to others.

Rosemary was predeceased by her mother and father, Paul and Mildred Ulmer, a baby brother, Daniel, and a host of aunts and uncles who served in various ministry roles. She is survived by her husband of fifty-six years, Roger, her two sons, Shawn and Shane, four grandchildren, two great grandchildren and a host of cousins, nephews and nieces.

The family will hold memorial services on Thursday, June 25th at 10:00 a.m. at City Light Baptist Church, 1121 Sperryville Pike, Culpeper, Virginia and again on Saturday, June 27th at 10:00 a.m. at Anthony Baptist Church, 4750 Quenshukeny Road, Jersey Shore, Pennsylvania 17740. The bride, who was celebrating her birthday, wore a gown fashioned with a petal pointed neck-line with sheer nylon featuring a band of lace with iridescents. The skirt, worn over an old-fashioned hoop and skirts of crinoline, had wide panels of the lace sweeping down the sides and again in the back and forming a cathedral train. Her finger-tip veil of imported illusion fell from a half hat of tulle trimmed with pearl's and iridescents. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

She was given in marriage by her father. The matron of honor was her twin sister, Mrs. Roger Pugh of Athens. The senior bride maids were Mrs. Ray Scheerer of Kent, a sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Leota Brinkerhoff of this city. Junior bridesmaids were the Mises Mary and Martha Scheerer, twin sisters of the bride. The attendants wore strapless ballerina length gowns of dotted nylon with full skirts. They

About 175 guests were entertained at the reception in the church social rooms. A four-tiered wedding cake decorated with white roses and silver leaves centered the bride's table. 5895. Charles Carter¹¹ Baker, Jr. (Ruth Mildred¹⁰ Boyer, Mary Ann⁹ Stabler, Elizabeth⁸ Ulmer, Isaac L.⁷, Johann Leonard⁶, Leonhard⁵, Thomas⁴, Caspar³, Hans Jacob², Johannes¹) was born 26 Jul 1939 in Oregon. He married Carroll Ann Mincks Aft. 1962. She was born 1944.

Notes for Charles Carter Baker, Jr.:

My Dad, Charles Carter Baker (Chuck, Sonny, Papa Kahn) was born July 26, 1939 to Charlie Carter Baker and Ruth Mildred Boyer Baker. He was their third child and only son. At age six, he fell from a slide, acquiring a head injury that left him with epilepsy. From a very young age, he determined to be a Christian. He shunned wrong doing and devoted his life to church work and godly living. That didn't stop him from being fun loving and adventurous. He had several girlfriends before he met my mother, Carrol Ann Mincks. He has a terrible memory due to his epilepsy and so I don't know his first recollections very well, but I've heard lots of stories. According to my mom, he was engaged once before he met my mother and one stunt he did to impress his "other" girl was to do flips around the bar that extends off a telephone pole. He was a bit wild with his "adventures". He would take any dare. He tried to swim across the rapidly flowing Rogue River, and ended up in the middle of the river with cramps. He did death defying dives. He was party to pranks and other fun loving displays. He terrorized his younger sister, Darlene like his son, my brother David did years later to me.

My dad was named after my grandfather, Charlie Carter Baker. We didn't realize his name wasn't Charles until he passed away and grandma found his birth certificate with Charlie printed on it. Charlie was from Texas. I believe I still have cousins there.

Grandma Ruth was from Pennsylvania. I don't know how she and Gramps met up. I do know that her maiden name was Baer, but her family changed it to Boyer so they wouldn't seem so German after the atrocities were exposed in WWII. Grandma was the only grandmother I knew. She was always busy. She and Grandpa would snore in chorus, one breathing in while the other breathed out. She was brisk and not overly affectionate, but I knew I was loved. She made fudge and other Christmas candies, carrot jello, salisbury steak and always had hard candy available. I loved searching through her drawers and finding treasures. She would give one quick hard hug whenever she greeted us or said goodbye. She would stand on the porch whenever we would leave her home in Grants Pass, Oregon and would wave until we were out of sight. My grandparents both lived to be in their 80's. My aunt Pearl passed away when she was 18 years old in a fatal car accident that took several other lives as well. She was riding with her friend's family as they headed out for a picnic. A dairy truck, causing Pearl, her friend's brother and his wife and a few of their children to die hit them. Her friend, Leta Olsen and her niece, Sharon survived, I'm not sure who else. Dad doesn't remember his sister much.

Charlie Carter Baker and Ruth Naomi Baker had four children, Neoma Joli, Pearl Baker, Charles Carter Baker, and Darlene Haberman.

Dad and mom were married just a few short years, my sisters Annie and Penny were little girls and Dad wanted healing from his epilepsy. He had prayed over the years for God to intervene and to take away his ailment. He did all he could think to, but never received healing. He was unable to drive a car and wasn't able to do certain jobs. My Dad is a poet and his experience I am going to share with you is best read in his poem, "It was the night before Christmas". I'll have to get a copy of that and type it in. But, in my words, it was the night before Christmas. Dad was tired of trying to get God to heal him. He put his medicine on the chest and just told God how he was feeling. He normally had his seizures at night. That night, he laid down in his bed and he felt that seizure coming on. He has told me that he felt God draw a line, and that seizure never came. I never knew my dad as an epileptic. He is a car hog, hardly ever letting my mom drive their new fancy wheels. His job is crane operator. For years he was the Sunday school bus superintendent, participating and over bus driving schedules.

Pocatello, June 12, 1959 - St. Anthony's Catholic church was the scene last Saturday of a ceremony uniting Dorald Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald C. Wright, and Thomas W. Stoltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Stoltz, Jerome. Baskets of yellow and white gladioli and daisies carrying out the bride's color theme, decorated the altar. The 6:30 p.m. double ring rite was performed by the Rev. L.M. Dougherty. Mrs. H.L. Lee was organist.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white embroidered nylon organdy over taffeta. It was fashioned with a lifted waistline with round neck-line and short sleeves and featured a short tulle train falling from the back of the neckline. A waist length veil of bouffant illusion sheer was attached to a crown of nylon leaves and pearls. Her cascade bouquet of white daisies was accented with a yellow bow.

Eileen Taney, Blackfoot, maid of honor, and Mrs. Leroy H. Swann, Reseda, California, the bride's sister and Claudette Creger, Torrance California, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns street-length, and in a soft yellow chrome spun, the gowns were designed like the bride's. Ribbon streamers fell from the back of neckline to the hem. They wore headpieces of daisies with ribbon streamers. Mrs. Taney carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies with gold ribbon and the bridesmaids' bouquets were backed with white ribbon. Best man was William Bennett, Carlin, Nevada, and ushers were Harold Stoltz, Jerome, brother of the bridegroom, and Loyd Harris, Twin Falls. The bride's mother selected a light blue boucle empire sheath dress with electric blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose rose lace with a white satin hat and beige accessories. White gladioli corsages complimented their ensembles. Sally Olsen, Mackay, registered the guests.

After a reception in the Hotel Bannock Pioneer room, the new Mrs. Stoltz changed to a red striped Madras bolero dress with red accessories and a natural straw hat for a wedding trip to Boise. For the summer, the couple is living at 344 Second Avenue north in Twin Falls where the bridegroom is employed by Ralph Harris Moving and Storage company. This fall they will return here to attend Idaho State college. The bride attended Los Angeles Valley college for two years transferring to ISC where she will be a senior Journalism major. She worked in the college news bureau and was news editor of the college paper. Graduating from Jerome high school, the bridegroom will be a radio and television production senior major at ISC. He was president of the student radio organization at the college.

Marriage Notes for David Shorney and Linda Dasher:

At a 7:30 p.m. candlelight ceremony July 7, 1973, Linda Dasher became the bride of David Shorney at the First United Methodist Church in Plattsmouth. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Linford Dasher and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Shorney, all of Plattsmouth. The Rev. Keith Griffith performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown in Nottingham ivory lace. It was fashioned with a round neckline, defined with seed pearls and full wide cuffed sleeves on an empire bodice and held by a softly gathered shirt enhanced with scallops. A crown of matching lace petals, accented with seed pearls held the elbow length veil of imported illusion. She carried a cascade of peach prose, snowflake pompon and stephanotis, accented with velvet streamers.

Mrs. Carla Wiles was matron of honor. She wore a dress of mint green bonded crepe. The empire bodice and sleeves were accented with white daisy trim. She wore mint green daisies in her hair and carried a bouquet of peach carnations, mint green daisies and baby's breath. Ken Shorney, brother of the groom, was best man. He wore a mint green dinner jacket identically styled to that worn by the groom, with a peach carnation boutonniere. Ushers were Bob Mink and Tim Leatherman, cousin of the groom. Candlelighters were Andrew Tipton and Peter Tipton, cousins of the bride. Vocalist was John Engle, with Mrs. Keith Griffith as organist. Mr. Engle sang "Wedding Song" and "We've Only Just Begun."

The bride's mother chose a floor-length gown of mint green linen, which was trimmed with white daisies. The mother of the groom wore a street-length dress of peach double knit. Both mothers wore a corsage of peach carnations and roses. Mrs. Dee Shorney, sister-in-law of the groom, was in charge of the guest book. Miss Julie Tipton, cousin of the bride, was in charge of gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dasher, aunt and uncle of the bride, were hosts at the reception held in the church parlor following the ceremony.

Mrs. Charles Mendenhall and Mrs. Marvin Winters poured punch and coffee. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Alfred Molinaro and Miss Lorraine Tipton. The wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Dorothea Schmidt. Following a wedding trip to the Black Hills, Yellowstone and Colorado, the couple is at home in Plattsmouth.

Children of Jacqueline Monse and Andrew Ritzell are:

- 7767 i. Alec D.¹² Ritzell, born 03 Nov 1994; died 09 Mar 2020.

Notes for Alec D. Ritzell:

Alec D. Ritzell's fascination with the natural world began when he was a toddler gleefully watching the moon. As he grew, his loves expanded to elephants, mammoths and mastodons—he could explain the difference by age 4—deer, fish, and birds. His life ended while he was a graduate student studying bobwhite quail. He was 25. Born in Denver in 1994, Alec grew up in Colorado and Texas with his beloved brother Nicolas, mother Jackie, and father Andrew Ritzell. Andrew predeceased him, as did his grandparents William Ritzell, of Hemphill, TX, and Ruth and Murray Monse, of Houston, Texas. Alec had a history of beating long odds. At birth, he was a 4-lb. preemie who fit in the palm of his father's hand. At age 24, he was a 210-lb. weightlifter. He started community college with developmental math classes. He graduated in 2017 with a 4.0 and a B. S. from Sul Ross

State University in Alpine, before pursuing a master's degree at Texas A&M – Kingsville.

Alec was a superb student and dedicated worker, endearing himself to his professors and other students (except, perhaps, those peers who were angry that he'd blown the curve). His academic achievements enabled him to attain research assistantships and internships at the Borderlands Research Institute, the Noble Foundation, Rolling Plains Quail Research Foundation, and Caesar W. Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute. He also garnered many scholarships. Due to the generosity of these organizations and donors, Alec would have graduated with a minimal amount of student loans, an accomplishment that gave him great satisfaction.

Alec had a beautiful singing voice, and was the King of Karaoke, especially when singing Johnny Cash tunes at the Railroad Blues bar in Alpine. And he loved to talk, usually on long telephone calls with family and friends. He had endless topics to discuss and fended off any attempt to end a call with the plea, "Just one more thing...." He loved the outdoors, whether walking alone in the hills behind his dorm at Sul Ross, hiking with "The Crew" in Big Bend National Park, hunting with his brother across Texas, or fishing at the Post in Marathon. Alec's last fishing trip, in early June 2019, was with his brother Nic at Baffin Bay in South Texas, using the Kistler fishing rods his Grandpa Bill had given him.

When Alec was diagnosed with glioblastoma a few weeks later, Alec's family and friends were hopeful he would beat the odds once again. He fought with everything he had. He spent a month in neuro ICU, largely paralyzed, undergoing radiation and chemotherapy. By mid-September, he regained his ability to speak—and most importantly to Alec—eat. And eat he did, usually starting his day with salmon, cream cheese, caviar, and capers. Spurred by fond memories and too many hours watching the Food Network, his food "wish list" grew to many pages, leading his family to call him the "Man of Flavor."

The nickname "Master of Flirting" would have fit, too. On Alec's first visit to Alpine in 2014, his Aunt Michelle had to bribe him to ask a young lady to dance. After that, he never looked back. Through multiple rounds of radiation, chemotherapy, and hospitalization, Alec flirted with his nurses, telling one "That mask can't disguise how pretty you are." Not that Alec was a player—far from it. He was genuinely guileless and utterly sincere. During Alec's cancer treatment, Alec and Jackie lived with Uncle Clint and Aunt Lisa Harman in Houston. Jackie and Lisa were his constant caregivers for the next eight months. Despite his gains in fall 2019, Alec began struggling after Christmas, and was hospitalized repeatedly. An MRI in late February 2020 showed the spread of Alec's cancer to his neck and spine. No further treatment being possible, his family moved him to Houston Hospice on March 5, where he died four days later, surrounded by family and friends.

In addition to his mother Jackie (Austin, Texas) and brother Nic (Dallas, Texas), Alec's survivors include his Uncle Mark Monse (Powderly, Texas); Aunt Lisa Monse Harman and Uncle Clint Harman (Houston, Texas); Aunt Michelle Monse (Dallas, Texas); Uncle Eric Monse and Aunt Lisa Jo Monse (Rosharon, Texas); and cousins David Monse, Caitlyn Mangun (and husband Bryce) (Dallas area), Kacey Hahn (and husband Josh), and Paul Harman (Houston area). The family is grateful that Jackie's boyfriend Kevin Ham drove from Austin to Houston weekly throughout this ordeal to support Jackie, helping her shoulder this overwhelming burden. The family also wants to thank Nic's girlfriend, Breanne Kurtz, for her steady and loving support.

A few days before Alec's death, the family pastor reminded Alec and the family that Christians do not say goodbye. We look forward to the day we will see him again. The family is grateful for the dedicated care that Alec received from so many, including his oncology team, the ambulance drivers who took him to treatment, his speech and physical therapists, and the compassionate nurses at Houston Hospice.

Alec's family will inter him privately in Houston in March and hold a celebration of his life in Alpine later this spring. (Date to be announced.) In lieu of flowers, anyone wishing to honor Alec may contribute to the Alec D. Ritzell Endowed Scholarship Fund at Sul Ross State University, the Caesar W. Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute, or a charity of your choice. Or just take a walk, listen to the birds, and praise God for Alec's life and the natural world he loved. Alec D. Notes for Lindsay M. Entz:

Lindsay M. Entz, 17, of 161 Ruth Lane, Jersey Shore, went to be with the Angels Thursday, Feb. 5, 2004, as a result of injuries sustained from a motor vehicle crash on Route 44. Born Feb. 6, 1986, in Williamsport, she was the daughter of Eugene D. Entz and the former Michelle C. Stabley. Her mother and father and a brother, Evan D. Entz, survive her. Also surviving are her paternal grandparents, C. David and Donna Entz of Salladasburg; a paternal great-grandmother, Laura Mae Swarthout of Jersey Shore; maternal grandparents, Sam and Helen Lowmiller of Mosquito Valley and Ronald and Linda Stabley of Pine Creek; a maternal great-grandfather, Harry Robison of Avis; and a maternal great-grandmother, Lois Stabley of Jersey Shore.

Lindsay's education started at Salladasburg Elementary School in September of 1991. She attended Jersey Shore Area High School where she would have graduated with the class of 2004. Lindsay's dream was to attend college and become a teacher for special needs children. While attending Jersey Shore schools, Lindsay was involved in many activities, including being a cheerleader for 10 years and a member of the track and field team for four years. She participated in softball and assisted the varsity wrestling team at Jersey Shore High School for three years; filming all the team videos and assisting coaches in any way possible. Lindsay helped to plan the Junior-Senior Prom and the Junior-Senior Girls Powder Puff Football game.

She was a conscientious and energetic worker, having been employed by Crist Farms, The Crest Restaurant, The Gamble Farm Inn and presently by The Restless Oaks. She was also a caring and loving baby-sitter to many area families. More importantly than her school or work activities, Lindsay had a passion for sharing her love of Christ with others. Lindsay had strong feelings and was tender-hearted to both the young and the old. She took pleasure in visiting with her grandmother, great-grandmother and their friends at Manor Care. In her spare time, Lindsay loved spending time with her family and friends, especially her boyfriend, Samuel Eck. Every year, Lindsay looked forward to hunting with her Dad and brother Evan and was very accomplished, having bagged a deer every year. Lindsay also had a special talent for arts, crafts and pottery-making.

Funeral services will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 10, in the Jersey Shore Church of God. Friends may call from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. in the church. Burial will be in the Jersey Shore Cemetery. Notes for Darrel Lee Blevins:

Darrel Lee Blevins died in Powell on Nov. 6, 2013, after a courageous battle with pulmonary fibrosis. He was 71. Darrel was born in Powell on Sept. 18, 1942. After graduating from high school in Helena, Mont., he began college at Northwest Community College in 1961 before marrying Janet Kaye Cavalli on Aug. 5, 1962. Darrel and Janet met when they were 15 years old and living in Cheyenne. After they married, they lived in Powell until 1963 when they moved to California so that he could attend USC.

Darrel's career with Safeway stores began in 1959 as a box boy and continued until 1989. In those 30 years, he held several positions, but spent most of his career as director of human resources for the Butte, Portland and Salt Lake City divisions. He also spent time in the Bay Area offices. He and Janet embarked on a new career, with the urging of his brother, Ron, by opening Red Lodge Office Supply in 1991. They then purchased Powell Office Supply in 2003 and moved back to Powell, finally coming back home after 40 years. During his various careers, Darrel volunteered with many different organizations, including Boy Scouts of America, and touched many lives over the years. Darrel was the scoutmaster for Troop 411 in Sandy, Utah. During his tenure as scoutmaster, he mentored many Boy Scouts to go on and lead by his example. He was a man who preferred to do good work with many different people, and shied away from being recognized for all that he accomplished.

Darrel was a true family man and loved spending time with his children and grandchildren, especially in the mountains. This quote by Winston Churchill helps describe Darrel's life: "We make a living by what we get; we make a life by what we give."

He leaves behind his wife and best friend of 51 years, Janet Blevins and their two sons, Randy Blevins (Vickie) of Colorado Springs, Colorado, and Martin Blevins (Heidi) of Bainbridge Island, Washington; and six grandchildren, Justin, Tyler, Donovan, Darrel, Zoe and Sophie. He also leaves behind his brother Ron Blevins of Powell.

There will be a celebration of life to honor Darrel at 11 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 16, at United Methodist Church in Powell. The family would like to encourage memorial donations sent to Powell Valley Hospital Hospice, in memoriam of Darrel Blevins, 777 Ave. H, Powell, Wyoming 82435, or National Jewish Health for research on Pulmonary Fibrosis at 1400 Jackson Street, Denver, Colorado 80206-2761.

6338. Charol Lynn¹¹ Heim (Lloyd Harold¹⁰, Emerson Walter⁹, Joseph Gross⁸, Jacob G.⁷, Gottlieb⁶, Christina⁵ Gohl, Anna Maria⁴ Ulmer, Caspar³, Hans Jacob², Johannes¹) was born 12 May 1942 in Seward, Nebraska, and died 22 Feb 2022 in Omaha, Douglas Co, Nebraska. She married (1) Wayne Knudsen Aft. 1960. She married (2) Daniel Pleiss 1982.

Notes for Charol Lynn Heim:

Charol Lynn (Heim) Pleiss, 79, of Omaha, Nebraska, was born on May 12, 1942, in Seward, Nebraska, to Harold Lloyd and Charlotte (Moorman) Heim. She grew up in Dawson, Nebraska, and was the oldest of four children. Charol attended school in Dawson through her high school graduation. She went to Wesleyan University for a short time before marrying Wayne Knudsen. They had three children, Kris, Linda, and Kent. In 1982, she married Dan Pleiss and became step-mom to Deb and Phil. Nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren soon followed.

Charol's life began with a story. When she was born, her parents decided it would be fun to combine their names to create her name. So, Charlotte and Harold became Charol. And for the next 79 years she told this story to those who asked why her name was spelled C-H-A-R-O-L. Her hobbies included sewing, knitting, and puzzles of all kinds. Charol was also an avid reader. While she was especially interested in Nebraska authors and stories, she read a wide variety of fiction and nonfiction, and enjoyed her time in book clubs over the years. Always reading; always learning.

One of Charol special interests was genealogy, and in particular the history of the Heims and other families who settled in Dawson, Nebraska in the nineteenth century. Always active in the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society, she worked for many years as the secretary of that organization, and was instrumental in establishing the Penn Colony Museum. She spent time working with her Aunt Shirley, Keith Heim, and others to produce the newsletter. Her work also included fundraising, acquiring historical items and documents for the museum, and arranging the annual watermelon feed and picnic. She always enjoyed visiting with family and catching up with old friends and neighbors at these events, which were the culmination of a long year of hard work. Charol felt a strong connection to the past, and her commitment to the Penn Colony was a celebration of that connection and a way to share that connection with others.

Working together side-by-side, Dan and Charol started their own CPA firm and ran it very successfully when they decided to merge with another firm in the mid-1980s. After a few more years with that firm and then starting their own CPA business again, they retired in March of 2021, making many lifelong friends along the way. On February 22, 2022, with her family by her side, Charol passed away at her home in Omaha, Nebraska. She was preceded in death by her parents; niece Stacie Olson.

Charol is survived by her husband, Daniel; children: Kristin (Bruce) Eckhardt of Lincoln, Nebraska, Linda (Robert Cavigli) Knudsen of Anthem, Arizona; Kent (Ann) Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Debra (Richard) Clopton of Auburn, Nebraska; Philip (Marian) Pleiss of Omaha, Nebraska; grandchildren: Matt (Jessica) Eckhardt of Lincoln, Nebraska; Jennifer (Ryan) Adams of Phoenix, Arizona; Chelsea (Jesse Sanchez) Eckhardt of Vicenza, Italy; Jim Kinghorn of Omaha, Nebraska; Audrey Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Jane Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Ellis Clopton of Lincoln, Nebraska; Danielle (Robbie) Gilbert of Omaha, Nebraska; Jenni (Calloway Tims) Pleiss of Omaha, Nebraska; great-grandchildren: Eleanor Eckhardt, Jackson Adams; brothers: Doug (Judy) Heim of Omaha, Nebraska; Don Heim of Atkins, Arkansas; and sister: Barbara (Gary) Schacht of Petaluma, California; aunt: Shirley (Neal) Pierce of Salem, Oregon; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, February 27, in Omaha, NE, at Heafey Hoffman Funeral Home. Pastor Glenn Schacht officiated. Interment was on Monday, February 28, in Dawson, Nebraska, at Heim Cemetery. Officiants were Glenn Schacht and Charol's dear friend, Pastor Mary Ellen Gaither-Marburger of Humboldt, Nebraska. Charol's son-in-law, Rich Clopton, recited the poem Last Fragment by Raymond Carver. A luncheon followed at the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society of Nebraska Museum in Dawson, Nebraska. Memorial contributions may be given to the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society.

Notes for Kathy Ludwig:

July 3, 2015 - Life is indeed short. There's no time to waste and it's never too late to try something new. Especially something that carries on Crozet's spirit of farm business. Bob and Kathy Ramsay wanted some livestock on their secluded small farm on the south side of Crozet, which they've named Wynott Farm. Bob's family had moved from Maryland to Missouri when he was 10 years old and there he grew up on a small farm his parents, Jim and Jeanne Ramsay (who now live next door), named Wynott Farm. Bob—and his brother, who has an operation called Wynott Quarter Horses—have carried on the name. The family came back east to Virginia in 1975. “We like to say about the soap, ‘Have you tried it? Wynott?’” said Ramsey.

Kathy started out with chickens and still raises them. “She recommended goats to me,” recalled Bob, who was not initially taken with the suggestion. “About eight months later, I thought, yes. I came across an Internet group on mini-Nubians that included someone from Charlottesville, who it turned out we knew.” Now they raise mini-Nubians, a breed that began to be developed about 25 years ago when Nubians, a dairy breed, began to grow too large and breeders sought to reduce their size. Nubians were crossed with Nigerian Dwarfs. Breeders are trying to retain all the other Nubian characteristics such as long, dangly ears and Roman nose, Ramsey said.

There are now four does, eight kids and of course, a buck. While they’re fresh, the does are milked twice a day, 12 hours apart, on the sixes. The Ramsay refrigerator is crammed with containers of creamy-looking milk. The goats, inside a fence of welded panels—goats are good at defeating a fence—are guarded by two Karakachans, an old breed developed in Bulgaria that by reputation is willing to take on bears. The large dogs raised exclusively with the goats, regard them as part of their pack and defend them accordingly.

Ramsay bought a seven-goat herd from an elderly woman who was selling out. Since then he’s also bought goats from Wisconsin, Wyoming and one that hails all the way from Washington State. He transports them with a camper shell on his pickup. That separated from the truck once while travelling and blew off, but amazingly none of the 17 goats on board decided to jump out. Since then he confines them in dog crates for transport. “We got the mini-Nubian breeding business going, and one day I saw goats’ milk soap for sale. I came home and said, ‘Let’s start making soaps! It was like a high school [science] experiment. There are five qualities in soap recipes, things like ‘handiness,’ ‘lather.’ We loved the soap.”

Soap-making takes the goat milk, which reacts with lye, the cleaning agent, and adds fats such as coconut oil and shea butter and finally scent oils. Once the ingredients are properly blended in their kitchen, the soap is poured into wooden molds to cure. Molds line the hallways of their home. Once ready, the Ramsay’s package the five-ounce bars in a burlap wrap secured with their Wynott logo sticker. Kathy’s mom Ros Ludwig helps with that. The soap is offered in 10 scent varieties based on five essential oils, mainly used in combinations, such as lemon/eucalyptus, cedarwood/rosemary, coffee/peppermint or lavender/teatree (their best-selling scent). There is also an unscented bar. Six months ago they had a logo designed for them and from there it’s been all about getting soaps to markets. They are making about 500 bars a month now. They rest while the goats are dry in January and February. (Like most farmers, they have full-time nonfarm jobs, Bob at State Farm and Kathy as a nurse.)

Kathy took some bars to the Crozet Farmers Market and sold nine at $6.50 each the first time out. Now the soap, also available in a 2.5-ounce size, is offered at the Charlottesville City Market as well as a dozen stores including Parkway Pharmacy and the new Crozet Artisans Depot. It can be found in shops in Charlottesville, at Michie Tavern, in Staunton, Lexington, and at The Cheese Shop in Stuarts Draft, too. It can be ordered online though their website, wynottfarm.com. “I’m just thrilled for only doing it for two years. I love talking about it,” he said. “I learned a whole lot from the managers at the city market,” said Bob. “They were very encouraging.” A new project is a gift shaving kit that includes the Wynott soap, a shaving brush and a small, locally made pottery mug.

“Everything in the soap is natural, no chemicals, no alcohol, no detergents,” said Kathy. “Goat milk is good for you and your skin; it helps people with sensitive skin. It moisturizes and it has lactic acid, which helps remove dead skin cells. It’s packed with vitamin A, which helps reduce wrinkles, and it has vitamins C and B and zinc, too. It’s pH level is very close to that of skin. You won’t go back to another soap. We know Cleopatra used to bathe in goat’s milk. She knew it was good for her.”

Michael Robert¹¹ Metherell (Constance Lou (Connie)¹⁰ Heim, Luther Delroy⁹, Joseph Adam⁸, Christian David⁷, Jacob⁶, Christina⁵ Gohl, Anna Maria⁴ Ulmer, Caspar³, Hans Jacob², Johannes¹) was born 22 Feb 1954 in Williamsport, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 15 Aug 2020 in Cornville, Yavapai Co, Arizona.

Notes for Michael Robert Metherell:

Michael Robert Metherell passed away at his home in Cornville, Arizona on Saturday, August 15, 2020 surrounded by his family. Michael was a 'park brat' growing up in Acadia, Yosemite, Yellowstone and Zion National Parks where his father was a biologist. As a young man, Michael traveled to both Canada and South America to work as a fishing guide before permanently settling in Jackson Wyoming. In Jackson, he worked for Barker Ewing as a whitewater river guide for over 25 years running the biggest water ever recorded on the Snake River. In the fall he worked for several different outfitters in Wyoming guiding hunters into the mountains surrounding Jackson. Michael's biggest passion, besides his family, was fly fishing.

Michael relocated to Arizona in 2006 and worked as a carpenter and a ranch hand. He retired in 2013 after moving to Cornville where he enjoyed helping neighbors and visiting with friends new and old. Michael was often seen driving the back roads with his four dogs piled around him barking all the way. He was the President of Rippling Waters Irrigation Association for three years until he resigned due to health issues.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Connie and Robert Metherell. He is survived by his sons, Jakob (Molly) Metherell of Apple Valley Minnesota, Luke (Becki) Metherell of Anchorage, Alaska; grandchildren, Quinn and Griffin Metherell; sister, Kathy (Dayle) Flanigan of Beaver, Utah; brother, Ken (Kay) of Salt Lake City Utah; nephews, Jake (Sarah) Flanigan of Salt Lake City, Seth (Jennie) Flanigan of Boise, Idaho and grand nephews, Liam, Westley and Lochlan and grand nieces, Sloan and Aster, as well as his partner, MaryAnn Canning; her children, Cody Canning, Emma Canning; son-in-law, Jorge Tejada and grandchildren, Iris Marie, Nico and Penelope and dog, Thomas.

In lieu of flowers, Michael asked that donations be made in his name to Ivy Brain Tumor Center of Phoenix

Longtime Jackson Hole resident, outfitter and guide Michael Metherell died Aug. 15 at his home in Cornville, Arizona, at age 66. He passed away peacefully after a valiant 15-month battle against glioblastoma. His family provided the following. Michael was born Feb. 22, 1954, in Williamsport, Pennsylvania. His father worked for the National Park Service as a ranger, and Michael was afforded a youth surrounded by the best scenery this country has to offer. They lived in Blue Ridge Parkway, Acadia, Yosemite, Yellowstone and Zion national parks. That upbringing instilled in him a love for wild places that he carried with him throughout his life.

Michael settled in the Jackson area in 1973, living with family friends in Grand Teton National Park. He began a career as a guide on the Snake River for Barker-Ewing that would span 25 years and would lead to guiding opportunities from Manitoba to Argentina and Peru. Michael was at his best behind the oars and left an indelible impression on all who encountered him in the riparian realm. The fall months found Michael high in the backcountry of the Wyoming and Wind River ranges chasing big game as a guide for various outfits. Experience gained there led to the purchase of Swift Creek Outfitters, which Michael owned and operated with his family for a number of years. The remainder of the year Michael found employment where he could, including Jackson Hole Mountain Resort. After realizing that the path of the seasonal journeyman made it difficult to feed his growing boys Michael transitioned into a full-time career as a carpenter, where his methodical perfectionism served him well.

In his twilight years Michael moved to the Verde Valley in Arizona. He found residence and employment on the Rockin' River Ranch, where he could work with his beloved horses and dogs. That led to a life of quiet retirement on a small and beautifully irrigated parcel in the community of Cornville. It was just big enough for his two horses, dogs, cats and chickens. There he could pursue his passion for gardening, and a short walk away was a spring-fed creek for fly-fishing. Michael was passionate about fly-fishing and could cast to a timeless rhythm that many seek but few actually find. To watch him with a fly rod was nothing short of mythic. Watching him cast was emblematic of how he lived his life as a whole: slow, calm, quiet, present and in tune with the natural world around him. Michael's impact on this world will continue to reverberate here with us and beyond just like the ripple from a perfectly placed dry fly.

Of all of Michael's accomplishments he was foremost an incredible father and grandfather. His love survives with his partner Maryann Canning, brother Ken (Kay), sister Kathy (Dayle) Flanigan, children Jakob (Molly) and Luke (Beki), Maryann's children Cody and Emma (Jorge), grandchildren Quinn and Griffin, Maryann's grandchildren Niko, Iris and Penny, nephews Seth (Jenny) Flanigan, and Jake (Sarah) Flanigan, their children Liam, Sloan, Westly, Lochlan and Aster, and most importantly his beloved dog Thomas.

A memorial for Michael will be held at a future date. In lieu of flowers please send donations to the Barrow Neurological Foundation IBTC, 124 W. Thomas Road, Suite 250, Phoenix, Arizona 85013

He married Sara Dodge.

Notes for Keith Ward Stiger:

Keith Stiger, 66, of Bradenton, Florida, native of Muncy, died peacefully on Monday, June 27, 2022, with his wife Sara Dodge and stepson Gregory at his side. Born on September 24, 1955, in Williamsport, he was a son of the late Roy W. Stiger and the late Yvonne F. (Larson) Stiger. Keith graduated from high school in Muncy - Class of '73, having completed its business curriculum courses. In high school, Keith played many sports, among them were wrestling, football, and volleyball. Keith was on the winning Muncy High Volleyball team, which participated in a Pennsylvania State level competition held in State College.

After high school, Keith went out west with his posse of friends to ride horses and fix fences as a ranch hand for the historic A Bar A Guest Ranch, and later for the Heart-Bar Heart Working Ranch in Wyoming state. After returning to Pennsylvania, Keith worked as a Millwright for Sprout-Waldron, Construction Specialties, and other local construction and manufacturing businesses. In the latter half of his career, Keith served as an Information Technology Computer Desktop/Network Technician for the Susquehanna Hospital Health System, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS), and the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) General Services Administration (GSA) Contracting Directorate.

Keith had many friends; he was full of fun and wit, and he had something funny to say in every situation. He especially loved being a father. The best part of his day was after work, when he could take his sons Christopher and Gabriel along with him in his truck as he went out to visit with his Hughesville friends. In later years, Keith enjoyed fathering and spending time with his stepson Gregory Dodge Converse.

After taking retirement, Keith spent his time taking day trips with his wife Sara, to visit towns and beaches located along the Florida Gulf of Mexico, speed-boating on the Sarasota Bay. Keith also enjoyed spending time working with his leather craft, where he was skilled at making handgun and buck knife holsters, waist band cell phone monogrammed leather wallets, sun-visors, small leather bowls, leather beer cozy, leather bow ties, and other leather products, which he then gave to his loved ones as gifts.

Keith is survived by his wife Sara Dodge, son Gabriel Stiger, and brothers, Barry Stiger (Barb), Randy Stiger (Barb), Kent Stiger (Deb), David Stiger (Kris) and Donald Stiger (Sue), as well as numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews. The family asks that donations in Keith's name be made to the American Cancer Society. Private, closed funeral services and interment. Please send prayers.

Child of Keith Stiger and Sara Dodge is:

7984 i. Gabriel¹² Stiger.

She was born October 5, 1934, in Talmage, Kansas to Glen and Anna Margaret Haynes. She married John Humphreys on February 14, 1956, and of this marriage two children were born, Jeff and Jane. In her work, Corkey was a woman of many hats. She was a secretary at Alco Duckwall, worked alongside John feeding cattle, upholstered, drove a semi-truck with John and, finally, managed the Abilene Area Food & Clothing Center for many years. She'd like that.

He married Cynthia Ann Michaelson. She was born 14 Jul 1956 in Ottawa, Illinois, and died 05 Feb 2022 in Northfield, Minnesota.

Notes for Cynthia Ann Michaelson:

Cynthia Ann Michaelson, known to a generation of middle school and high school students as "Mrs. M," died Feb. 5 in peace at home in Northfield, Minnesota, after a decades long struggle with cancer. She was 65. Cynthia served as a substitute teacher for many years in south-central Minnesota schools. She loved working with students, and she had a soft spot for those in alternative schools or with special needs. She took delight in the music of their names as she called the roll in the morning, and she often came home with anecdotes about the kids, always interesting and often amusing.

She was trained as a journalist and read the newspaper front to back every day. She took special pleasure in the unusual, so the police blotter was her favorite item to read. She was an avid bicyclist who averaged better than 1,000 miles a year along nearby bike trails. The Root River trail through Lanesboro was her favorite. Cynthia was never happier than when she was behind the wheel of her car on a cross-country trip. Late in life, she often put her bike on the rack and took off for places near as Faribault and as far away as Albuquerque.

Cynthia was born July 14, 1956, in Ottawa, Illinois, to Richard and Theresa (Bernardini) Michaelson. The family moved to Peru, Illinois, in the 1960s, where her father worked in the grocery business. She loved the parks of central Illinois, with a special affection for Starved Rock State Park. She graduated from LaSalle-Peru High School and attended Illinois Valley Community College before transferring to Southern Illinois University, where she discovered her passion for journalism. At Southern, she rose to become editor in chief of the Daily Egyptian, the university's award-winning student-operated newspaper. Her first job after college was as a copy editor at the Quad-City Times in Davenport, Iowa. There she met her husband, Michael O'Donnell, a sportswriter for the paper. They were married in January 1982. They moved to Evanston, Illinois, in 1983 when Michael was hired by the Chicago Tribune. Cynthia worked as publications director for the Chicago CPA firm Blackman Kallick, then took on her favorite and most important job, raising her two daughters. The family moved to Forest City, Iowa, then to Albert Lea, Minnesota, and finally Northfield, Minnesota. She began substitute teaching in 2009.

Cynthia is survived by her husband, Michael O'Donnell; daughters Frances O'Donnell (William Blakeley) of Auburn, Alabama, and Dana O'Donnell (Patrick Vernon) of San Diego; brothers Steve (Sher) Michaelson of Williams Bay, Wisconsin, and David (Lori) Michaelson of Granville, Illinois; her beloved aunt Lora Lockhart of Ottawa, Illinois; and dozens of nieces, nephews, cousins, and sisters- and brothers-in-law.

No services will be held. Memorials should be made to the ThreeSixty Journalism program at the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Notes for Jacqueline Marie O'Donnell:

Jacki O'Donnell, Davenport, Iowa, 51 years since Ballard High: I have always lived in Iowa. Slater, Ames, Iowa City and now Davenport for the past 39 years. I ran a gamut of jobs, including 23 years at home raising my children. I volunteered relentlessly for non-profit organizations; at one point I started my own nonprofit for community gardening. My final job was as Executive Director of the Quad Cities Cultural Trust, a privately endowed fund to support the arts in the Quad Cities. I'm retired now, the job I was born for.

I raised two very fine children, Pat and Jackie Mobley, who are living out their passions in life, Pat as a civil rights attorney, and Jackie as an organic farmer and animal wrangler. I do not have grandchildren; thank you for asking.

The pandemic kept me from my children, my family, and my friends. Luckily I am an introvert and managed enough human contact to keep me sane. I decided to make face masks as a Zen practice, and donated them to a refugee organization, to a civil rights organization, to family, friends and neighbors. In the side mirror I see the pandemic retreating, but "objects in (the) mirror are closer than they appear" certainly applies.

May 4, 2024 - Pat O'Donnell is a resident of Sioux Center and spent 37 years serving in Iowa public schools as a teacher, principal and superintendent. The vouchers, created under the Students First Act, provide public money for "education savings accounts," which parents can use to pay their children's tuition to an accredited Iowa private school. "Allowing parents to choose the education that's best for their children levels the playing field and creates equal opportunities for Iowa's students," Governor Kim Reynolds said, describing the voucher program's goal.

Kristin Elise¹² Roos (Mark Renz¹¹, Dorothea May¹⁰ Renz, Tema Lydia⁹ Guenther, Johann Georg⁸, Johann Georg⁷, Rosina⁶ Wagner, Caspar⁵, David Wilhelm⁴, Margaretha³ Ulmer, Hans Jacob², Johannes¹) was born 07 Sep 1972. She married (1) Marco LaCagnina. He was born 1958. She married (2) ? Commerford.

Notes for Marco LaCagnina:

Feb. 7, 2018 - The one thing Marco Lacagnina didn't want to do was monkey around with the menu at Mac's. "If it ain't broke, don't fix it," he said last week at the grill beside Black Mountain Police Department. There was no reason to change up the burgers and Philly cheesesteaks that people had come to love during the nine years that Pam and Justin Makinson owned the restaurant, he said. "I've been telling everyone, the only that's changed is the accent" of the owner, Lacagnina said in his native New York accent.

In the five months that he and wife Kristin Lacagnina ("Laca-nina") have owned the restaurant, not much else has changed, he said. And that's the way he and their customers like it, he said. The name, the menu, the hand-cut fries are still the same. Marco has a distinguished history in restaurants. His Italian-born great-uncle started a pizzeria in East Harlem in 1933, Patsy's Pizzeria, that became something of a legend in New York. Pasquale "Patsy" Lancieri and his wife Carmella served up home cooking to the waves of Italians moving to America.

Their brick oven yield pizzas that introduced the pie to many native New Yorkers. Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Tony Bennett were regulars. So were Yogi Berra, Joe DiMaggio and Phil Rizzutto of the New York Yankees. Francis Ford Coppola was so inspired by the restaurant that he shot a scene in "The Godfather" that evoked Patsy's Old World charm.

Marco owned and operated Marco's Pizzeria in Asheville for 21 years, retiring after his children took it over. He took a few years off, and, with Kristen, went out. One of the places they would go was Mac's.

They got to know the Makinsons, and when they learned they wanted to return to Florida, Marco saw an opportunity to get back into the restaurant business. He's a restaurant kind of guy. He likes the kitchen camaraderie, and the satisfaction of feeding people well. "When they tell you that it was so good and (the restaurant) felt so good because the atmosphere, that's the part that I really like the best – how people feel when they leave," he said.

He's always liked cooking. He's from a big Italian family (he has 41 first cousins). Life for them centered around the kitchen table. "No matter what event has taken place – births, deaths, anniversaries, happy time, good times – it's all around the table," he said. "It's just been an atmosphere of happiness."

After the pronouncement of man and wife, the couple shared their first holy communion and presented their mothers with tokens of love. Candles were lighted by Dawn and Carol Heisler and Donna Knott of RD Tamaqua.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville L. Koch. The bridegroom's parents were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Waranavage. Mr. Koch presented his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of sheer organza with lace and pearl trim on the bodice and sleeves, sheer yoke, detachable train and appliqued A-line skirt. Her head-piece was a Camelot cap of re-embroidered lace with pearl trim with a bouffant veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses, baby breath and greens.

Mrs. Sally Coleman of Tuscarora, sister of the bridegroom, matron of honor; Vernell Heisler, Tamaqua RD, maid of honor, and Kimberly Heisler, Tamaqua RD, flower girl wore bottle green knit gowns fashioned with high necklines, long sleeves, banded empire-waistlines with sleeveless matching coats: Bridesmaids Peggy Peoples, Mifflintown; Bernadetta Tomalavage, Middleport, and Susan Schiller, Emporium, wore similar gowns and coats in burgundy knit. They all carried hurricane lamps with lighted candles and surrounding cascades of red and white roses. Walter Coleman of Tuscarora, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. Eugene Marko of Tuscarora was head usher and ushers were Linwood and Samuel Koch, Tamaqua RD, brothers of bride, and Bruce Kemmery, Mary D. The ring bearer as the nephew of the bridegroom, Ronnie Coleman of Tuscarora.

Following a reception in the Fiesta Room of O'Lear's, McAdoo, the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. Mrs. Waranavage was graduated from Tamaqua Area High School in 1972 and from the Pennsylvania Junior College of Medical Arts, Harrisburg in 1974. She is employed by Dr. J.W. Lee, Pottsville. Her husband is a 1961 graduate of Tamaqua Area High School. He is employed by J.E. Morgan Knitting, Hometown, as a knitter.

She married Shane Eia 22 May 2004 in Pennsylvania. He was born 01 Mar 1981.

Notes for Trena Marie (Trina) Shaffer:

Jan. 2019 - A series of devastating events emotionally pummeled Trina Eia and her young family the first week of November, leaving the 36-year-old mother of four struggling to regain her composure. A Nov. 5 X-ray discovered a 6-centimeter mass in the Paxtonville woman's chest near her esophagus/trachea/heart region. A followup CT scan on Nov. 8 revealed a 3-centimeter mass in her lower right lung.

"That first week was especially brutal. My grandmother, who I was really close to, passed away the Sunday before my masses were discovered. The whole time at her funeral, I kept thinking, 'Am I going to be next?'" said Eia. "I had a hard time sleeping and would wake up crying. I couldn't think about my awesome husband or wonderful children without bawling. I even recorded a message to be played at my funeral.” A Nov. 14 bronchoscopy lead to news that she did, indeed, have cancer. On Dec. 6, she met with a team of doctors who shared that her cancer was Stage 3 mucoepidermoid carcinoma of the lung, an extremely rare form of cancer. “Mucoepidermoid carcinoma is usually associated with the salivary gland, and even then it is considered rare,” said Dr. Rajiv Panikkar, chair of the cancer institute at Geisinger Medical Center. “Only about 6 to 8 percent of people who have cancer of the head, neck or throat have mucoepidermoid carcinoma, and it is much more rare for it to show up in the lung.”

Treatment options for Eia’s condition are limited. “At this point, they’re pretty sure it is considered low-grade, which means chemotherapy would not work, and I agree with the doctors that surgery would be too dangerous because of where the lymph nodes are placed in relation to the rest of my body,” said Eia. “Because of its rarity, they were not 100 percent sure yet if radiation would work.” On Dec. 11, Eia had a second consultation at the Envita Medical Center in Arizona and was encouraged by some of the facility’s treatment options.

“We had lunch with someone who actually went there and is currently cancer-free and would recommend it to anyone who has cancer,” she said. “Because they also do more natural ways of dealing with cancer, a majority of the treatment will not be covered by insurance and the typical range for Stage 3 cancer like this at the facility ranges from $80,000 to $100,000.” Despite the numerous potential hurdles, Eia relayed that she is in a much better place emotionally thanks to her faith. “One day in the shower, I felt the overwhelming love of God. I did not know if I would live or die, but I did know at that moment that Jesus Christ loved me very deeply,” she said. “Since then, my emotions are a whole lot better. I just keep thinking of how I can best glorify God through this process.”

The experience has led to healthier eating for Eia — which has, in turn, helped reduce some of the symptoms she’s experienced with chest pain and chronic coughing. “I learned through some research that cancer feeds on sugars, so the day after finding out about the mass in my chest, I cut out all processed and refined sugars,” she said. “Now my diet consists of raw vegetables, fruits, nuts and seeds. While I do not enjoy eating this type of food, I feel so much better.” Another thing that has helped throughout the dark moments of the process is the outpouring of support the family has received so far. “It has been a truly humbling experience. I feel such love from God and others. People have sent cards, prayed with us, cleaned our house, gave our family Christmas presents, brought meals, offered to babysit, gave money and helped our children transition from homeschooling to taking classes at the Juniata Mennonite School,” she said.

Trina and her husband, Shane, are not new to suffering or other’s generosity — but have done quite a bit to reach out and help others. After a series of miscarriages and issues with infertility, the family decided to adopt two children from Ethiopia. “We sent our paperwork over to start the process, and found out a month later that I was pregnant,” Eia said. “Thankfully, the adoption agency allows us to continue with the adoption.” Several months later, they were matched with Zeynu and Fozia, both around 18 months old at the time. “When we brought them home, they were still in 3-6 month clothing. Our son could not handle any textures in his mouth and just started to crawl at that time,” she said. “They received a lot of therapy and once again, we were blessed by those around us.” Zeynu and Fozia are now each 8 years old, Leif is 7 and the couple’s second biological son, Elias, is 5. “It is a lot easier now that they are older, but when they were 3 and under, it was extremely challenging,” Eia said. Despite the dire diagnosis, Eia admitted that God’s love and provision through the family’s current trials is visible through those who have offered their love and assistance. “It has been very humbling and encouraging to see people’s love and kindness to our family,” she said. “I really appreciate the prayers and I pray that God would be glorified through this all.” A GoFundMe account has been set up to help the family offset Trina’s growing medical costs.

On Sunday, April 18, 2021, Trina Eia, incredible wife and loving mother of four dearly loved children, passed away at the age of 38. Trina was born Aug. 9, 1982, in Lewisburg, to David and Marilyn (Ulmer) Shaffer. She graduated from Middleburg High School in 2001 and Lancaster Bible College in 2004 with a bachelor’s in social work. On May 22, 2004, she married Shane Eia in a field at her parents’ home. We eventually had three sons, Zeynu, Leif and Elias, and a daughter, Fozla.

Being a mother was something she always wanted and enjoyed it greatly. She homeschooled our kids until she was diagnosed with cancer and was unable to do it any longer. We were married just shy of 17 years; she has been a true pleasure to be married to and we will miss her greatly. She loved the Lord and wanted her life and eventual death to bring Him glory. Beyond being active in her church, Christ Church of Beaver Springs, she was passionate about missions and making Christ known. She would often tell me that she didn't want to be remembered as a good person but rather as a sinner saved by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone. She had no enemies besides the weeds in her garden. Everyone who knew her will forever remember her smile and she would never let anyone go without a goodbye hug. If you had an ailment, she always had an oil for that. There is much more than could be said, I'm just sorry if you didn't know her, she was a true joy to know and be around.

In addition to her husband and children, she is survived by her parents, Dave and Marilyn Shaffer; siblings, Michelle Moran and husband Ken, Daniel Shaffer and wife Paula, Calvin Shaffer and wife Nichole; in-laws, David and Cindy Eia; brothers-in-law, Caleb Eia and wife Ashley, Andrew Eia and wife Angela; as well as sister-in-law, Amber Ulrich and husband Brent, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She has chosen to donate her body for science so there will be no viewing or funeral. A time of visitation with the family will be held from 10 to 11 a.m. Saturday, April 24, at Christ Church of Beaver Springs, 800 Center Ave., Beaver Springs, followed by a Celebration of Life ceremony at 11 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations are being accepted for a fund to benefit the children when they get older. Donations can be sent to Shane Eia, 2083 Paxtonville Road, Middleburg, Pennsylvania 17842. Arrangements are by the Hummel Funeral Home, 574 Hill St., Middleburg.

Notes for Gary Linn Martin:

Gary L. Martin Sr., 63, of Linden passed away on Thursday, August 18, 2022 at home surrounded by his family. Surviving is his loving wife of 40 years, Crystal L. (Courter) Martin. Born April 18, 1959 in Williamsport he was a son of the late William H. Martin and Helen "Faye" (Tilley) Martin of Cogan Station. He was a graduate of Jersey Shore High School and worked as a lead doorman at Overhead Doors for 31 years. Gary was a member of the Polish Club and the V.F.W. Post #7863, Duboistown. He enjoyed spending time outdoors; whether he was camping, hunting, fishing, or sitting on his porch watching a NASCAR race while taking in the joys of his home and surroundings.

Gary was a jack of all trades. He was constantly tinkering and fixing things around the house, could be found doing mechanical things and out and about riding his motorcycle with his wife by his side. Gary had a great sense of humor, enjoyed drinking a cold Busch and was often considered the life of a party with his outgoing, social ways. He was a loving husband, father, Pappy, Papster, brother, and friend who will be greatly missed.

Surviving in addition to his wife and mother are three children, Gary L. Martin, Jr. (Jennifer) of Waco, Texas, Shawnda M. Forbes (Edwards) of South Mills, North Carolina, and Melissa S. Martin of Williamsport; 10 grandchildren, Peter, Jessica, Matthew, Haylea, Joseph, Briana, Sean, Daeyan, Keyanna and Marquise; one great granddaughter, Charlotte; a half-brother, Arnold Gee; brother, Kenneth Martin; sister, Cheryl Roupp; and numerous nieces, nephews and a large circle of friends. In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by a half-sister, Cindy Lukens.

A funeral service to honor the life of Gary will be held 11 a.m. Thursday, August 25 at Sanders Mortuary, 821 Diamond St. Williamsport. Burial will follow in Woodward Township Cemetery. A viewing will be held 10 a.m. until the time of service on Thursday at Sanders.
