Marriage Notes for Mildred Whitman and Arthur Lutz:

Arthur and Mildred Whitman Lutz of Macon Road observed their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday August 1982 with a private get together at the home of their daughter Ruth Broesamle. Art, 87, and Mildred, 79, met when they were both attending a Sunday school teachers' conference in Milan. They, were married six months later on August 31, 1932 at the, Methodist Church in Chippewa Lake, Mildred's home church. Daughter Ruth lives with her husband Allen and their four-year-old son John near Chelsea. William lives with his parents on the family farm, which he now owns and operates. Virginia Engelman, Mildred's sister who served as the honor attendant in the wedding, traveled from her home in Indianapolis to attend the anniversary celebration.

Mildred taught school in Saline full time for two years before her marriage and then was a substitute teacher for 18 years. She started teaching first grade in the Jones Building on McKay Street, which served as Saline's first grade classroom until the present Union School was completed in January 1931, halfway through Mildred's first year of teaching in Saline. The next year, Mildred taught third grade in the new school. During her years as a substitute teacher, Mildred taught classes from kindergarten through sixth grade. Before coming to Saline, Mildred taught grades 1-8 in a rural school in Mecosta County near Mount Pleasant. Besides operating his 135-acre farm, Art served on the board of the Citizens Bank of Saline for 54 years before retiring in 1980. Both Art and Mildred taught Sunday school at the First Presbyterian Church in Saline for many years and also were 4-H leaders.
