Notes for Johann Jacob Niethammer:

Johann Jacob Niethammer was buried August 1864 in National Cemetery in Andersonville, Georgia.

More about Andersonville Prison - Andersonville, or Camp Sumter as it was officially known, was one of the largest of many Confederate military prisons established during the Civil War. It was built early in 1864 after Confederate officials decided to move the large number of Federal prisoners kept in and around Richmond, Virginia, to a place of greater security and a more abundant food supply. During the 14 months the prison existed, more than 45,000 Union soldiers were confined here. Of these, almost 13,000 died from disease, poor sanitation, malnutrition, overcrowding, or exposure to the elements.

Prison Grounds - In November 1863, Confederate Captain W. Sidney Winder was sent to the village of Andersonville in Sumter County, in south-central Georgia, near the present-day towns of Americus and Plains, to assess the potential of building a prison for captured Union soldiers.

The Deep South location, the availability of fresh water, and its proximity to the Southwestern Railroad, made Andersonville a favorable prison location. Andersonville thus became the site for a prison that was soon to become infamous in the North for prison conditions and the thousands of prisoners that would die there before war's end.

Conditions - A prison for enlisted soldiers, it was designed to hold 10,000, but by August 1864, due to deteriorating resources and the breakdown of the prisoner exchange system, the prison population had swelled to over 32,000.

This atrocious overcrowding quickly led to health and nutritional conditions that resulted in 12, 912 deaths by war's end in May 1865. The prison guards, composed mostly of older men and boys, watched from sentry boxes (called "pigeon roosts" by the prisoners) perched atop the stockade and shot any prisoner who crossed a wooden railing, called the "deadline."

Handicapped by deteriorating economic conditions, the Confederates lacked the necessary materials and amounts of food for 10,000 prisoners, not to mention the 26,000 that were confined there by June 1864. Available shelter was deduced to crude shelters huts of made scrap wood, tent fragments, or simple holes dug in the ground. Many had no shelter of any kind against the elements of rain, heat, and cold. No clothing was provided, and many prisoners were left with rags or nothing at all.

Casualties - With these unspeakably miserable conditions, almost 30 percent of the prisoners confined to Andersonville died at the camp during its 14-month existence. Diseases such as dysentery, gangrene, diarrhea, and scurvy took many. The Confederates lacked adequate facilities, personnel, and medical supplies to combat the diseases.

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

John Armbruster. One who has retired from the active duties of farm life, having accumulated a comfortable property by which he can spend the later years of his life in ease and freedom from the annoyances of restricted financial standing, our subject now lives in Ann Arbor, his residence being located at No. 60 East Washington Street. He was born November 30, 1817, in Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, in the village of Dettlingen, Germany. He is a son of George and Barbara (Kern) Armbruster.

The original of our sketch landed in America in 1838, the port which he first touched being New York. His advent into the country was greeted by the noise of guns, the popping of firecrackers and the flaunting of flags that proclaimed the memorial day of the Declaration of Independence. He had made the journey hither on a three-mast sailing vessel, the journey taking him forty-four days on the ocean. The name of the vessel was the "John George." After a short time he proceeded by rail to Ypsilanti. The family at that time comprised father, mother, a brother Joseph, Barbara, Antoine and Magdalene. Joseph settled in Scio Township and died at the age of seventy-nine years; Barbara married George Needheimer and lived in Ann Arbor, both are now deceased; Antoine lives about three miles west of Ann Arbor; Magdalene married Adam Stollsteimer of Scio Township and died in 1886.

The father of our subject settled in Scio Township near his brother Antoine and died April 14, 1843, at the age of fifty-nine years; his wife died November 30, 1844, at the age of sixty-two years. After working for two years for his father our subject engaged with Jet In galls in the city at $144 per tear. After some time he purchased eighty acres of new land, the price of which was $500, but he was enabled to pay only $250 down. In 1842 he began the improvement of the place and September 5 of that year located upon it as his home. He added another eighty acres and placed many improvements upon it, residing there until 1866, when he bought one hundred and sixty acres of the old Holmes farm in Pittsfield Township, three miles south of Ann Arbor.

In 1878 Mr. Armbruster came to Ann Arbor and bought a fine property, in the meantime looking after his other landed interests. Our subject was married August 27, 1842, to Elizabeth Niethammer of Scio Township. They had a family of seven children whose names are as follows: George, John, Herman, Reuben, Aaron, Oscar and Regina. Our subject was again married August 18, 1877, his bride being Louisa Walz, widow of Charles Walz. The lady was in her maiden days a Miss Armbruster, an adopted daughter of Joseph Armbruster of Scio. This marriage has been graced by the advent of one child, a daughter, whose name is Laura; she is now in her fourteenth year. Mrs. Armbruster is the mother of three children by her first marriage. They are Sophia, who is Mrs. Charles Feldkamp, of Saline Township; Martha, who is Mrs. W. Y. Rinehart, whose husband is an attorney of Seattle, Wash., and a graduate of the Class of '89 of the Michigan University and Joseph, deceased. Our subject is a Republican in politics. In his church relations he has been associated with the Methodist Episcopal body.

On first beginning life for himself he was much hampered for means. His first team was a yoke of steers for which he paid $16. He also bought a cow for $7 and for these he paid in wood which he sold at seventy-five cents per cord. He worked, however, to such purpose that his farm was entirely paid for at the second year. He was a redoubtable woodsman and could pile a cord of wood in one and a half hours and on a wager for a pound of plug tobacco, cut and piled two cords of wood in two hours and forty-five minutes. Our subject's present wife is a lady of striking culture and tact. One is involuntarily impressed with her being a woman of more than ordinary ability and refinement.

Notes for Ernst Immanuel Mann:

History of Washtenaw County by Chapman 1881, page 356-357:

The following is from the pen of Hon. Emanuel Mann, whose father was one of the first German settlers in this county:

"It was in the autumn of 1829 that Frederick Schilling, of Weisberg, and Jonathan Henry Mann, of Stuttgart, in the kingdom of Wurtemberg, in South Germany, crossed Lake Erie together in search of a new home in the Territory of Michigan. Schilling was accompanied by his family, consisting of wife, son and daughter. (Both son and daughter are still living at Sebewaing, Huron County.) J. H. Mann left his family at Reading, Pennsylvania, with a view to move in the following spring in case he found a desirable location in Michigan. They were advised by Daniel F. Allmendinger, also a native of Wurtemberg, living near Dansville, New York, who had visited Michigan a short time before, to go to Washtenaw County, where said Allmendinger had already purchased Government land in the township of Lodi."

"As there was some good Government land in the township of Scio, Frederick Schilling purchased 80 acres on section ____ in said township. J. H. Mann, a tanner by trade, concluded to settle in the village of Ann Arbor, and to move his family the following spring."

"On his return to Pennsylvania, he wrote a letter to his brother-in-law, Emanuel Josenhans, In Stuttgart, giving a very favorable account of what he saw of the new Territory and route by which it could be reached by immigrants from Germany, from New York via Erie Canal and Lake Erie. Mr. Josenhans circulated the letter amongst the peasantry in the neighborhood of Stuttgart. The consequence was that numerous immigration was started for Michigan by class of small farmers and mechanics who had very limited means."

"J. Henry Mann with his family arrived at Ann Arbor in the first days of June, 1830, where he purchased a tannery of Harvey Austin. Said tannery was situated at or near where the present depot of the Toledo & Ann Arbor railroad is situated. During the following summer and fall the families of Jacob Paul, Jacob Stollsteimer, Carl Horning, Jacob Gross, Christian Auch and Daniel F. Allmendinger settled in Scio. George Mayle, a shoemaker, and Emanuel G. Wildt settled in Ann Arbor. In the winter of 1830 to 1831, Professor Gottlob Nordmann from Berlin, Prussia, arrived with his family. Mr. Nordmann, was Professor of Mathematics in a military academy and lost his place on account of his liberal political views. Mr. Nordmann moved in the spring of 1831 to Lima and became farmer."

"During the year 1832, those following Germans arrived: William F. Osius, from the Granddutchy of Hesse, who immigrated to Pennsylvania in 1825, settled in Freedom. Mr. Osius was born March 21, 1797, served in the Germany army against the First Napoleon. He was for nine years Supervisor of the township of Freedom and Justice of the Peace for 20 years."

"John Schneeberger, John Hoberger, Thomas Roth, Jacob Haab, John Haas and Martin Grauer settled in Freedom. Andrew Beck, with his sons, Jacob and Godfrey; David Luick, Frederick Staebler, Michael Kaercher, Jacob Aprill, Frederick Laubengaier and Ulrich Laubengaier, Johannes Stollsteimer, Jacob Wild, Conrad Bissinger, were some of the first settlers in Scio."

"In the summer of 1833, the Evangelical Mission Institute of Basel, Switzerland, sent Rev. Fredeick Schimd as a missionary to the German Protestants in Michigan. A Church was organized and incorporated as the First German Evangelical Society of Scio. The first church building which the Germans in the Territory erected, was built by the society on an acre of land donated by Daniel F. Allmendinger for this purpose and as a burying ground. This building is still standing about two miles west of Ann Arbor, on the so-called territorial road." (Now called Jackson Road.)

"Rev. Frederick Schmid was for many years the only German Protestant minister in Michigan. He organized Churches in Detroit, Monroe, and Waterloo in Jackson county."

The foregoing were the pioneers of the German element, which now constitutes at least 30 percent of the population of Washtenaw county. In point of intelligence, in wealth, in all the goes to make up good citizens, those representing this nationality will compare favorably with others. In every station of life, as business or professional men, as office-holders, none bear a better reputation.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881. Page 1017:

Hon. Emanuel Mann, druggist, Ann Arbor, was born at Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany, June 4, 1814. When he was but 12 years of age his parents came to the United States and located at Reading, Pa., where Mr. Mann received his education. In 1830 they migrated to Michigan, and settled at Ann Arbor. Mr. Mann lived with his father and worked with him in the tanning business, later on carrying on the business for himself. In - he engaged with Mr. Eberbach in the drug business, and they continued together under the name of Eberbach & Co. until 1876, when he withdrew from the firm. He remained out of business until 1878, when he purchased the drug business at No. 39 South Main street, where he is now located. Mr. Mann was among the first Germans to come into Washtenaw County. By careful and industrious habits he has acquired a fair share of this world's goods. His strict integrity and upright ways have won for him the confidence and regard of all who know him. For three years he was a member of the Common Council of Ann Arbor, and was also one of the Board of Education of the city. In 1870 he was elected State Senator from Washtenaw County, which position he held one term.

During the winter of 1851-1852 he was apprehended and convicted of stealing wood on the ducal state. On June 4, 1852 the emigration records show, Georg, his wife, six children and 58 other citizens from Moetzingen started by boat at Mannheim via Rotterdam to go to America. This passage was funded by the town of Moetzingen. The ship, the HERMANN, landed the immigrants at Baltimore August 17, 1852.

Notes for Christoph Kusterer:

Grand Rapids and Kent County, Michigan, Volume 2. By Ernest B. Fisher, Chicago: Robert O. Law Company, 1918.

Christoph Kusterer.—Each individual is called upon to work out his destiny according to his own ideas. Some make a success of their life efforts, while others fail; but it is usually found that the men who attain the most are those who concentrate along a given line of endeavor and direct all their energies toward its successful prosecution. In the case of the late Christoph Kusterer, his record shows that he was a man who thoroughly understood his business and was never afraid of the hard work connected with it. As a result, he built up one of Grand Rapids' large industries and left his family not only wealth, but the heritage of a good name and the memory of a kind husband and father. For years he was one of the substantial men of Grand Rapids and the city benefitted by his connection with it, for he was a practical business man who believed in action rather than words. Mr. Kusterer was born May 24, 1824, in Wurttemberg, Germany, where his father owned a large estate in the Black Forest, and his education was secured in the nearby town of Freudenstadt, where he also learned the art of brewing.

At the age of twenty-two years, having been exempted from military duty, he came to the United States and immediately settled at Ann Arbor, Michigan, where he engaged in the tanning business. There he was married, April 12, 1847, to Maria Dorothea Dauble, and in the following September disposed of his interests in the tannery and came to Grand Rapids. Here he bought a one-half interest in the Pannel Brewery, which was located on what is now known as the corner of Lyon Street and Bond Avenue, and he subsequently bought out Mr. Pannel's interest. In 1850 he built the City Brewery, at the corner of Bridge and Ionia streets, the site where the Grand Rapids Brewing Company is now located, and this was conducted until 1881, when the Kusterer Brewing Company was formed, with Charles F. Kusterer as president and manager. In 1892 this was consolidated with other plants and the Grand Rapids Brewing Company was formed, the other companies being the Tusch Brothers Brewery, the Veit & Rathman Brewery, the Union Brewery of George W. Brandt & Company and the Adolph Goetz Brewery, the brewery of Frey Brothers being subsequently purchased at the administrator's sale. The officers were Charles F. Kusterer, president; Jacob Veit, vice-president; F. A. Tusch, secretary, and C. E. Kusterer, treasurer, and the capital at incorporation was $500,000, which was later increased to $1,000,000. In 1895 a new plant was erected on the same property. The present officials of the company are: G. A. Kusterer, president; F. A. Veit, vice-president and superintendent, and J. F. Cramer, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Kusterer lost his life on the ill-fated "Alpena," while making a business trip to Chicago, and at his death left a widow and eight children. Mr. Kusterer, in all his associations, with friends, business associates and competitors, and the public at large, impressed through a pleasing personality, and was widely respected and esteemed. He was interested in all that pertained to substantial progress in his adopted city, in all the cultural activities and material advancement that have made notable recent years, and, as far as lay within his power, exerted his influence in these directions. The family home for over fifty years was situated at the corner of Ionia avenue and Michigan street, where the present fine Armory is now located.

The Hydraulic Company's charter was drawn by Solomon L. Withey, who became a member of the company, and its first meeting was held, June 20, 1849, at which time its organization was completed by the election of officers. Canton Smith was its first president, and its stock books were opened for subscription, June 22, 1849. Having reached the limit of its supply, while the demand was steadily increasing, the company began to look about for more water. This they obtained from springs a little south of Wealthy Street and east of Jefferson, laying logs from that locality to Fulton Street, and thence toward the river. They then had a fairly adequate supply for the residents along their lines, and that portion of the then business part of the town west of Division and south of Pearl Street. But the city continued to grow, while the springs did not, and more water must be had. The company went still further south and gathered the outflow from several springs on what was then called the "Penney eighty." About 1854 Christopher Kusterer and John Mangold began the use of a large spring between Michigan and Hastings, a little east of Ottawa street, as a source of water supply for domestic use. Previously, at a very early day, a portion of the stream from that spring had been carried down Michigan Street to a watering trough in front of the old Bridge Street House, and this for years made an excellent watering place for horses. In the summer of 1855 the council gave permission to the proprietors of the Bridge Street House and Western Hotel to lay pipes from the spring mentioned for their own use. Kusterer and Mangold, under a franchise obtained in 1859 from the council, after having constructed a reservoir in which they collected the waters from this and other contiguous springs, laid pump logs down Michigan street and through Kent alley to Lyon street; also to and along by the buildings on the west side of old Canal street, as far south as Huron, and down old Canal street to near Pearl, giving to the residents thus reached a fair supply of excellent water for domestic use. Neither they nor the Hydraulic Company had sufficient pressure to carry water much above the second floors of buildings even on the lower levels. Only wooden pipes or logs were used until 1857, when upon the first paving of Monroe Street, the Hydraulic Company laid a small iron main down that thoroughfare.

In 1864, Amos Roberts, Warren P. Mills, James Lyman and Joseph Penney became stockholders in the Grand Rapids Hydraulic Company. The total stock subscription, Oct. 29 of that year, was $24,800. In 1870 the water rights of the Kusterer & Mangold Company were by mutual arrangement merged in those of the Hydraulic Company. In 1872 the company undertook the construction of a deep reservoir upon ground purchased of Mr. Penney toward the southeastern part of the city, in the hope of greatly increasing its supply. This was a large brick curb with a cast-iron shoe at the bottom, sunk to a depth of about thirty feet.

History:

The first brewer in Grand Rapids, Michigan was an Englishman, John Pannell, who came to town in 1836 and built a small brewery over a stream at the bottom of Prospect Hill on the east side of Kent Street. His modest output - "a barrel or two at a brewing" - of English hop beer gradually increased, and by 1844, thanks to rising demand, his brewery was doing quite well. That same year, Christoph Kusterer, a brewer trained in Germany, established a brewery on the west side of the river and shortly thereafter went into partnership with Pannell.

Christoph Kusterer was a prominent figure in the local German-American community. A founding member of the German Evangelical Lutheran Church of Immanuel in 1857, he was the captain of the Grand Rapids Rifles, a German-American militia unit. He also served as a parade marshal for the "Grand German Jollification," an event which celebrated Prussia's victory over France in 1871. Kusterer's life came to a tragic end in October 1880 when he, along with all others on board, went down with the steamer 'Alpena' in a violent Lake Michigan storm. His brewing business, however, was carried on by his sons and grandsons, and the Kusterer name remained linked to the brewing of larger beer in Grand Rapids well into the twentieth century.

The Kusterer's and other German-American brewers stressed the health-fullness of their product and advertised it as a "family drink," especially when compared with whiskey. Their claims may have had some merit, as early Grand Rapids historian Albert Baxter pointed out: "And just here is a coincidence. Ague and fever - the old-fashioned, bone shaking kind - prevailed very largely when those German beer makers came. In 1847 chills and shaking ague were terrors of malarially afflicted people, and fallow faces and feeble frames were familiar sights. In the eight years following came two experiences - a great growth in the habit of drinking lager beer, and the almost complete dying out of the shaking ague. It is not the province of the historian to moralize upon these facts, not to attempt an explanation, but only to chronicle the coincidence."

The Kusterer-Pennall partnership lasted until about 1849, when Christoph Kusterer bought out his associate and set about building a brewery on the southeast corner of East Bridge (now Michigan) and Ionia. The Kusterer family brewed lager beer at that site from 1850 until 1917. The Michigan Brewing Company took over the facility in 1935, for five years then sold to Peter Fox Brewing Company.

With the buyout of Pannell in 1849, Christoph Kusterer was the only brewer in Grand Rapids, but competition wasn't long in coming. First to challenge Kusterer's exclusive position were the Christ brothers - Gottlieb, Gustav, & Christian - German immigrants who arrived in Grand Rapids by 1849. While Gustav & Christian found work in Kusterer's brewery, Gottlieb became the proprietor of the Bridge Street House tavern. In June 1850, just a month after the citizens of Grand Rapids voted to approve the charter that would turn their village into a city, the Common Council granted Gottlieb the City of Grand Rapids' first tavern-keeper's license.

Sometime later, the Christ brothers built a large brewery on Ottawa between Bridge and Hastings. They were a leader among the beer making houses until the business was wiped out by the disastrous "Great Fire" of July 13, 1873. The Kusterer and Christ breweries found a ready market for their German-style lager beer among the German immigrants who settled on the west side of Grand Rapids immediately north and south of Bridge Street before the Civil War. Other brewers likewise appeared on the scene to try their hands at satisfying local thirsts, with varying degrees of success. In 1856, German immigrant Peter Weirich built the Michigan Brewery at Bridge and Indiana on the city's west side. Three years later, one J. H. Roberts launched a short-lived brewery operation at the corner of Fountain and Ransom.

In 1862, during the Civil War, George Brandt, who had been a brew master for Christoph Kusterer since 1856, decided to strike out on his own. Joining forces with Christopher Killinger and Fred Mayer, he established the Union Brewery at 87 (formerly 192 before 1874) South Division. By 1865 neither Killinger or Mayer remained in the business. George Brandt stayed on, increasing the value of the brewery's total annual output to about $60,000 by 1887.

The Frey brothers - Charles, Christian and Frederick - established the Coldbrook Brewery on 72 Coldbrook Street in 1874. The following year John Adrion and Andrew Greil set up the Valley City Brewery on Page between Tile and Plainfield; a short time later the city directory listed the owners of the establishment as John Adrion and Peter Kautenberger. On January 1, 1876, Jacob Veit and Paul Rathman founded the Eagle Brewery on the city's west side at the corner of First and Stocking.

A year later, Adolph Goetz, former brew master at the Kusterer brewery, and Kossuth W. Tusch built the Cincinnati Brewery at 208 Grandville Avenue and began advertising their lager beer as "equal to Cincinnati beer!" which according to claims made by the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, enjoyed a national reputation for high quality. In January of 1879 Goetz sold his interest in the Cincinnati Brewery to Kossuth's brother Frederick and left for Colorado where he hoped to setup his own brewing business. His stay out west was brief, however, and he returned to Grand Rapids to become Kusterer's brew master once again.

All of the German brewers concentrated their efforts on the production of lager beer, a light, dry carbonated beverage with a distinct taste of hops that is aged in storage from six weeks to six months before use. Lager beer was the favorite brew of German, Austrian and Dutch consumers. English and Irish beer drinkers, on the other hand, preferred ale and porter, malt beverages that are darker, heavier and usually more bitter than lager beer.

Seeking a way to counter the threat of outside competition and needing additional capital for expansion, the individual Grand Rapids brewers, like other industrialists of the time, ultimately came to recognize the advantages of joining forces. In December 1892, six Grand Rapids breweries - the Kusterer Brewing Company, Tusch Brothers, George W. Brandt and Company, Veit and Rathman, Adolph Goetz, and the Frey Brothers - consolidated their individual operations to form the Grand Rapids Brewing Company. January 1, 1893 they merged into 'The Grand Rapids Brewing Company' w/ Charles F. Kusterer president, Jacob Viet vice-president, Frederick A. Tusch secretary, CE Kusterer treasurer & Adolph Goetz brew master at SE corner of E. Bridge & Ionia Street; Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan.

History of Kent County, Michigan, Chicago – Charles C. Chapman & Company, 1881. Page 934:

The Kusterer Brewing Company.—This business was founded in 1847, by Christopher Kusterer, with a capital of $800, when he brewed the small amount of four barrels at a time, doing his own brewing and delivering, since when the business has increased to its present large proportions. Mr. Kusterer operated the business until the fall of 1880, when he took passage on the "Alpine", which was lost with all on board. The business was then purchased by the present company, whose officers are as follows: Philip Kusterer, President; Adolph Lietelt, Vice-President; Charles Kusterer, Secretary and Treasurer. The brewery at the present time consists of a substantial main building, three stories in height, 50x100 feet in size, in connection with which are two icehouses, one 60x60 and the other 25x100, capable of storing over 1,500 tons. The cellars are the largest in the city, and have a storage capacity of 3,500 barrels. The product of this brewery will average 10,000 barrels annually. The company has lately put in a large mash tub, made by Kattentidt, of Chicago, Illinois, with a capacity of 125 barrels. The firm gives employment to 25 men, and the water used in making the beer is obtained from pure springs.

History of Kent County, Michigan, Chicago – Charles C. Chapman & Company, 1881. Page 1062:

Christopher Kusterer (deceased) was a son of Jacob Kusterer, of Gumpelscheuer, Wurtemberg, Germany. He spent his boyhood in his native place, attending the public schools. After having been confirmed in the Lutheran faith, in which he was baptized and brought up, he was apprenticed to a brewer of Freudenstadt (a town 18 miles from his home), in his fourteenth year, to learn the brewer's trade. He spent seven years at that place, and when 21 years of age returned home, in obedience to the laws of his country, to run the risk of being chosen as a soldier. Not being drafted, however, he resolved to come to America, and arrived at New York in 1845. He first located at Ann Arbor, Michigan, and was employed in Mr. Kern's brewery for two years. He then removed to Grand Rapids, and became established in the brewing business. A few years later he purchased property on the corner of Ionia and East Bridge streets, and erected a large and substantial brewery. In the fall of 1880 he took passage at Grand Haven on the ill-fated "Alpena," and with the entire crew and passengers found a watery grave in the deep of Lake Michigan. After Mr. Kusterer's death a stock company was formed under the name of the "Kusterer Brewing Co.," which purchased the stock and trade of Mrs. Kusterer, and now operate the business. Mr. Kusterer was a man of the strictest business principles and firm integrity. He was Democratic in politics, and owned a large interest in the Star Flour Mills. He married Mary D. Dauble, of Ann Arbor. Mr. Kusterer was a faithful and loving husband, a kind father, and a man whose loss was mourned by all.

August 14, 1879 - A fire in Kusterer's brewery at Grand Rapids, Michigan, on the 6th inst., destroyed a large stock of grain and liquors. Loss $120,000.

Dec. 18, 1880 - Christopher Kusterer, of Grand Rapids, who was one of the victims of the Alpena disaster, held an accident insurance policy for $5,000, and that sum has been paid in full to his widow.

Grand Rapids, November 4, 1881 - At about 2:30 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the brewery of M. D. Kusterer, the largest of the several lager beer manufacturing institutions of this city. The fire was not subdued until nearly morning, and the better part of the brewery was gutted. The loss is estimated at nearly $15,000, with an insurance of $12,000. There are some in the city, superstitiously inclined, who connect the present casualty with the drowning of the founder of the concern, Christopher Kusterer, on the Alpena, something over a year since, and think there is something a little out of the ordinary line in it. These, people, however, are the same who see the supernatural cropping out in every mishap that occurs. The fire was one of the most exciting that the city has seen for some time.

Notes for Rev. Joseph Friedrich Niethammer:

Rev. Joseph F. Niethammer - Chronological History of Ordained Ministers serving as pastors at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran LaPorte, Indiana:

St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church was founded on the 6th Sunday after Trinity, 7th Sunday after Pentecost, July 19, 1857, with 14 voting members. Three were elected as elders - Carl Backhaus, Fred Steigly, and Conrad Popp. Conrad Popp also was to serve as treasurer. Candidate Fred R. Tramm was chairman. A week later the membership increased by six. The pastor's salary was $200 per year; by August 1863 it was raised to $300.

In one of the first meetings of the voters, the question was brought up whether ladies could be accepted as members. There seemed to be no opposition to the idea. However, according to the records, only about three availed themselves of the opportunity within the first ten years after the founding of the congregation.

Soon after its founding the Civil War began. Searching the records for any mention of the war, we found a request by the government in 1861 for prayers for the country. There were no records of casualties.

1873, February 7 - Rev. Joseph F. Niethammer became pastor

1890, May 7 - Death of Rev. Joseph F. Niethammer

Succeeded F.W. Richmann as pastor of Trinity Sponagle Lutheran Church in Sugar Grove, Ohio.

Notes for Friedrich Jacob Heusel:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Friedrich Heusel- The business interests of Ann Arbor have a worthy and well known representative in Friedrich Heusel, the extent and scope of his operations having made him a successful man. He was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, May 1, 1850, a son of Friedrich Heusel, Sr., who died in the fatherland in 1900. The mother, who bore the maiden name of Mary Steinmaier, has also departed this life. Friedrich Heusel, reared and educated in his native country, came to America when twenty-three years of age. He located first in New Haven, Connecticut, where for four years he was employed in a machine shop, but the better business opportunities of the west with its greater competition and advancement more quickly secured, attracted him and he made a visit to the Mississippi valley in 1877, spending some time in Chicago, Omaha, St. Louis and other cities. However, at that time he returned to New Haven, where he worked in a large bakery, which he conducted until 1879. That year witnessed his arrival in Ann Arbor and for fourteen years he was employed by the firm of Koch & Haller. In 1894 he established a large bakery at the present site of 206 East Huron street, and is now conducting an extensive wholesale bakery and confectionery business with a well equipped plant, and the excellence of the product secures a very extensive and growing patronage.

In 1883 Mr. Heusel was united in marriage to Miss Mary Niethammer, of Freedom, Michigan, and they have two sons and two daughters: Friedrich J., who is in business with his father: Amanda Paulina;

Erwin Carl; Frieda marguerita. Mr. Heusel is a member of the Arbeiter Verein and his political views are in accord with republican principles. He has gained and retained the confidence and respect of his fellowmen and is distinctively one of the leading citizens of Ann Arbor, being the founder and owner of the business which contributes to general commercial prosperity as well as individual success. It is a matter of history that the Teutonic race has been a most important element in the colonization, up building and progress of many lines and the German-American citizenship of America possesses a worth acknowledged by all. Mr. Heusel displays many of the strong and sterling characteristics of the fatherland, which, combined with the enterprise and progressive spirit that dominates the Middle West has made him one of the prosperous residents of his adopted city.

Notes for Friedrich Carl (Fritz) Horning:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Frederick C. Horning, deceased, was the first German child brought into Washtenaw County, and reared to manhood here he eventually became actively interested in farming pursuits and at the time of his death was a prosperous agriculturist of the locality in which he had so long resided. He was born in Germany, September 21, 1829, his parents being Charles Frederick and Catherine Horning, both of whom were natives of the fatherland, whence they came to America in 1830. They did not tarry on the Atlantic coast but made their way at once into the interior of the country and took up their abode in Freedom Township, this county, being among the pioneer settlers here. The father purchased land from the government and cleared a small farm, while eventually he became the owner of a large and valuable tract of land in the same township, carrying on agricultural interests up to the time of his death. Both he and his wife died in that locality and their loss was deeply, deplored by many friends for they had become recognized as worthy citizens of their community, Mr. Horning being held in high esteem because of his business success and his many excellent personal traits of character.

Frederick C. Horning of this review was reared amid the wild scenes of frontier life and the environments common on the frontier. He acquired his education in the public schools of Freedom Township and studied both English and German. When not occupied with the duties of the schoolroom he aided his father in the labors of the home farm and subsequently he purchased a threshing machine, which he operated in various parts of the county, doing all kinds of threshing. For ten years he followed that business and then with the profits he had acquired he purchased a tract of land in Pittsfield Township and began farming on his own account.

While living in Freedom Township Mr. Horning was united in marriage to Miss Barbara Cook, a native of that locality, born October 3, 1839. She was the first white child born in -this county, her parents being John George and Catherine Cook, who were natives of Germany, the former born on the 4th of July, 1813, and the latter on the 2nd, of February, 1816. They emigrated to America in 1831 and landed in New York city, whence they made their way to Buffalo and on to Cleveland. As the father's supply of money gave out at that point he had to leave his family there while he came on by wagon to Washtenaw County, arriving here on the 19th of April, 1831. He then borrowed the money to send for his family and he took up his abode upon a small farm of forty acres. It was covered with timber but he at once began to clear away the trees and brush and in due time the land was ready for cultivation. He purchased a yoke of oxen and built a log house. At one, end of the room was an immense fireplace with a spacious chimney and over this fire the cooking was done. His wife would walk to market at Ann Arbor, a distance of seventeen miles, in order to dispose of butter and eggs and other farm products and buy the necessary supplies for the family. Hardships and privations were born in those early days but eventually prosperity crowned the efforts of the family, who in the course of years purchased another farm of one hundred and sixty acres in Freedom Township. A few years later Mr. Cook removed to Lodi Township, where he owned several farms, his landed possessions aggregating over four hundred acres. Here he lived for seven years and then removed to Pittsfield Township, where he purchased a large farm, making his home thereon for six years. On the expiration of that period he took up his abode in Ann Arbor, where he lived retired until his death, enjoying a rest which he had truly earned and richly deserved. He was a man of marked industry and enterprise in his business affairs and his prosperity resulted entirely from his own well directed efforts for he came to America empty-handed but eventually became one of the substantial residents of Washtenaw County. He passed away August 7, 1902, at the very advanced age of eighty-nine years, while his wife died in November, 1900, at the age of eighty-four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Horning became the parents of six children: Martha, now the wife of Julius Bliss, of Lodi Township; Samuel, who married Anna Heinzelman and lives on the old Cook farm in Pittsfield township, that he purchased from his mother; Lydia, the wife of Alfred Sites, of Lodi Township; Emma, the wife of E. T. Alber, who is living at St. James Hotel in Ann Arbor; Mary, the deceased wife of Charles Bliss; and Nathan, who married Katie Roth and also lives in Ann Arbor, where he and his brother-in-law, Mr. Alber, conduct the St. James Hotel. Following his marriage Mr. Horning continued to carry on general farming in Pittsfield Township and was thus closely associated with agricultural interests up to the time of his death, which occurred on the 17th of December, 1884. In all his work he was practical, realizing how to use his advantages in the best possible way and so improving his opportunities that he gradually advanced on the high road to prosperity and at his death left an excellent property. In politics he was a democrat, while Mr. Cook was a republican in his political affiliation. Both were gentlemen of genuine personal worth and no history would be complete without mention of them because of their close identification with pioneer life and the agricultural progress of the county. Mrs. Horning is a member of the Zion Lutheran Church of Ann Arbor. Following her husband's death she sold the farm to her son and removed to this city, where she has since lived, owning a nice brick residence at No. 525 South First Street. She has a nephew residing with her, William Horning, a painter by trade, who is now twenty-seven years of age. She has in her possession a very interesting family relic, a record of the Cook family and also of Washtenaw county prepared by her father when he first came to this county in 1831. It is a document of considerable historic value. Few people are so closely connected with two prominent families as Mrs. Horning, who was the first white child born in this county, while her husband was the first German child brought to the county. In her memory are many pictures of frontier scenes and pioneer experiences and she can relate many interesting reminiscences of the early days when the work of improvement and progress seemed scarcely begun here, when the land was untilled, the forests uncut and the rivers unbridged. Great changes have occurred and in the agricultural progress of this part of the state the Horning and Cook families have taken a most active and helpful part.

Notes for Erhard Theodore (Aaron) Alber:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Erhard Theodore Alber, the senior partner of the firm of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel, is a native son of Washtenaw County and in his business career has displayed the enterprise which has been the dominant factor in the up building of the great Middle West. He was born in Lodi Township on the 25th of August, 1866. His father, John George Alber, became a resident of this county when eighteen years of age and settled upon a farm in Lodi Township, where for many years he was identified with general agricultural pursuits. At the time of his arrival this was largely an unsettled district in which the work of improvement and progress had scarcely been begun and he entered from the government a claim of eighty acres, to which he has since added as his financial resources have increased until he is now the owner of a valuable farm of one hundred and thirty-six acres, which under his careful supervision and cultivation has become very productive. In religious faith a Lutheran, he is an active worker in the church, doing all in his power to promote its growth and extend its influence. In his political allegiance he is a democrat. He married Miss Marguerita Metzger, who died in 1899, leaving seven children, as follows: Charles Michael, a resident farmer of Saline, Michigan; John George, who also makes his home at Saline; John August, a contractor residing in Ann Arbor; Fred Erhard, who is living in Perry, Lodi Township; William Henry, who is engaged in general farming near Saline; and Emanuel Gottlob, who is engaged in painting at Saline.

Erhard T. Alber, the other member of the family, was reared upon the old homestead farm in the usual manner of lads of the period and when about six years of age he began his education in the district schools of his native township. He pursued his studies through the winter months and in the summer seasons worked upon the home farm until about twenty years of age, when thinking that he would find other occupation more congenial he left the parental roof and began learning the carpenter's trade. Subsequently he spent five years in the employ of the Ann Arbor Railroad Company, working in the line of his trade and on the expiration of that period he began contracting and building on his own account, in which he continued for five years. In 1891 he took up his abode in Ann Arbor and he is now engaged in the hotel business as a partner of Nathan Horning, under the firm style of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel. They conduct a strictly modern hostelry of twenty-five rooms heated with steam and there is a barber shop and buffet in connection. Mr. Alber is popular with the patrons of the hotel and receives a liberal patronage from the traveling public. Everything possible is done for the comfort and convenience of the guests and the hotel is conducted along the most modern lines, so that it would be a credit to a city of much larger size than Ann Arbor.

In the year of his removal here Mr. Alber was married to Miss Emma K. Horning, who was born in Pittsfield Township. A Mason, he belongs to Fraternity lodge, No. 262, A. F. & A. M. and is in hearty sympathy with the principles of the craft. His political allegiance is given to the Republican Party and he is a member of the Zion Lutheran church. Notes for Heinrich (Henry) Paul:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Henry Paul. Among the most valued and prominent farmers of Pittsfield Township, we name with pleasure the successful agriculturist just mentioned. He is a 'native of Washtenaw County, his birth taking place in Scio Township, June 3, 1840. His parents were Jacob and Mary (Zender) Paul, both natives of Wurtemberg, Germany. His father was by occupation a weaver but followed farming most of his life coming to this country in 1828 and locating in the State of New Jersey, where he remained for a period of two years before coming to the then Territory of Michigan. When he came to Detroit in 1830 he found no means of conveyance in this county except "shanks ponies," and he therefore walked hither prospecting and back to Detroit, following Indian trails through the woods. He took up his place from the Government locating on section 22, Scio Township. The educational advantages of our subject were exceedingly limited, as his father claimed his time whenever there was work for him to do upon the farm and he also found it necessary to work for others in order to earn money to purchase his books. Neither did he have teachers who were sufficiently learned to teach such advanced studies as grammar and geography. Upon reaching his majority he began working for his father for wages and was soon able to buy the home farm which he did in 1862. Here he lived until 1866 when he sold out his property and removed to Ann Arbor, where he spent twelve years and was engaged in various lines of industry, carrying on a lime kiln, selling goods for merchants and assisting in building the factory of the Michigan Furniture Company, of which he was then the proprietor. In 1877 he purchased the place where he now resides and removed his family onto it, the marriage with our subject with Miss Catherine Koch, of Lodi Township, took place May 29, 1862, and this union has been blessed by the birth of three children, Alfred J., born March 24, 1867; Emelia, August 15, 1870, and Augustus, June 7, 1874. The daughter is now married and makes her home in Ann Arbor, and the oldest son has charge of the farm. The parents of our subject have passed to the other world, the mother dying in 1862 and the father in 1875. The political principles of our subject bring him into alliance with the Democratic Party and he has held the office of Supervisor of his township, and for the past thirteen years has been the able Director of Schools for his district. Both he and his wife are active and useful members of the German Lutheran Church and in every department of life they have made themselves felt as helpers in every good work.

Notes for Johann Karl (Koch) Cook:

Dr. C. P. Lathrop, Barry County coroner, said Friday night May 13, 1938 that he found a heart attack the cause of death of Charles J. Cook, 64, Orangeville Township farmer, who died Friday afternoon, a few minutes after being found, badly burned, where he had been burning grass. Mr. Cook was discovered lying in the burned area by Frank Maskin, a neighbor. Mr. Maskin said the Injured man was alive when he found him but that he died a few minutes later. His clothing was burned from his body. He was dead when the Delton fire department arrived to extinguish the grass fire which had spread and attracted the attention of neighbors. Coroner Lathrop and Sheriff Jay Blakney, after investigating, said that Mr. Cook evidently had started the fire in some brush and then had suffered a heart attack and fallen into the path of the flames.

Mr. Cook was born in Pittsfield, Washtenaw County, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Cook, and came to Orangeville Township at the age of 18 months. At the time of his death his home was at Burnip Corners. He never married.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Katherine Hazel of Kalamazoo and two brothers, Fred of Orangeville and Eugene of Hastings.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Sunday from the Henton funeral home in Delton. The Rev. Ralph L. Bates will be in charge. Burial will be in the Prairieville cemetery.

Notes for Emma Barbara Margaretha Stollsteimer:

"Life-long Salinian." Emma Armbruster brings new meaning to this old expression. It's remarkable enough that Emma will turn 100 years old November 21, 1983. But she has lived her whole life within half a mile of her birthplace on Brassow Road. For the last 37 years, Emma has lived right next door to the place where the old farmhouse once stood. She lives with her sister, Mary Waar — who at 97 is nearing the century mark herself. That's Emma on the right and Mary on the left. The two still cook and keep house and take care of themselves. Until a few years ago, they even cut their own lawn with push mowers!

Emma was born in 1883, one of five children of George and Anna Stollsteimer. She received her schooling at the little one-room Lodi Plains schoolhouse which stood at the end of the road. When Ed Armbruster came courting, it was with a horse and buggy. Ed and Emma were married in 1902 and lived on a farm on Maple Road. Armbruster passed away in 1946, and Emma came to stay with Mary, who in the meantime had married Ed Waar. Waar died in 1958, and the two sisters have been on their own ever since. "I've always enjoyed having her with me," Mary said of Emma. "We've worked together really well and never had an argument worth mentioning." Perhaps that's what has kept them looking so lovely all these years!

Naturally Emma has seen many changes in Saline during 100 years. "It's altogether different now," she said. "It used to be the only streets were uptown — the others were dirt roads. It was all swamp along E. Michigan Avenue. "We always went to town on Saturday nights to walk around, shop a bit, and meet the neighbors," Emma continued. "There wasn't much else to do for fun then," Mary noted. Emma always has attended St. Paul Church, and has helped at Pittsfield Grange activities. She crocheted and did many kinds of fancywork until her sight worsened in the last few years. She also made her own clothes — including the dress she's wearing in the photograph. An open house for Emma's 100th birthday will be held Sunday, Nov. 27, from 2-5 p.m. in the Fellowship Room of St. Paul UCC. It will be hosted by nieces and nephews of Emma and Mary — Mr. and Mrs.

Clifford Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stollsteimer, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stollsteimer, and Eunice Buss.

Emma Armbruster of Brassow Rd. reached that age last Thursday Nov. 21, 1985. She enjoyed the day in good health and good spirits, in the company of good friend and she looks forward to more of the same in the years to come. One secret of her long life and her serene outlook is her skill at accommodating, developed through years of practice. "When I was young, I wanted to clerk in a store, more than anything else," Emma recalled on her birthday. "But then in 1892, at age 19, Edward Armbruster and I got married. I never did clerk in a store. We settled on the Armbruster farm, on Maple Rd., and there was no time for clerking." But Emma accommodated happily.

She and Ed had been classmates at the old one-room Lodi Plains School and life with him was good. After Armbruster died, Emma and her young sister May Wahr who'll be only 100 next May took up housekeeping together at their present home on Brassow Rd. They have devotedly looked after each other, ever since joining forces in 1946. "We never have a cross word. Maybe a little difference of opinion, now and then, but hardly ever," they agree. Fun and happiness for Emma and May are still very real present-day things. "We enjoy it the most when young friends and neighbors come to visit." And with the couple as alive and alert as they are, company and visits are almost daily happenings. Most appreciated is the help that the two ladies accept from nieces, nephews and neighbors.

Until recent years, Emma and May were proud to take care of everything at their home. But now they are happy to accept assistance with the heavier chores. They especially offer thanks to Cliff Olson, who "does almost everything for us." And Emma, born the week before Thanksgiving, sums up her 102 years on a note of deep gratitude. "The more the years go by, the more I have to be thankful for," she smiles.

Emma S. Armbruster, who celebrated her 102nd birthday last November, died Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1986 at Saline Community Hospital. She was born November 21, 1883 in Saline, the daughter of George and Anna Gruner Stollsteimer. A Saline resident her entire life, she was married to Edward Armbruster October 1, 1902; he preceded her in, death May 22, 1946. A friend of St. Paul United Church of Christ in Saline, Mrs. Armbruster farmed and lived off Maple Road until her husband's death. A member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Armbruster is survived by: her sister, Mrs. Mary Wahr of Saline; two nephews, Frederick Stollsteimer and his wife Katie, and Glen Stollsteimer and his wife Pat of Saline; one niece, Mrs. Eunice Buss of Pinckney; dear friends, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Olson of Pinckney; and several great-nieces and great-nephews. She was preceded in death by one sister, Mrs. Ida Hawker, and three brothers, Oscar, George, and Fred Stollsteimer.

Funeral services for Mrs. Armbruster will be held this Thursday, Feb. 20 at 1 p.m. from the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline with Rev. Ronald Boldman officiating. Burial will follow in Lodi Township Cemetery. Visitation is scheduled for Wednesday evening from 7-9, at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to the Saline Evangelical Home.

Notes for Frederick Schmid:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Frederik Schmid is the junior member of the firm of dry goods merchants that is extensively known as that of Mack & Schmid of Ann Arbor. Frederick Schmid was born in Lodi Township, this county, May 17, 1839. He is the third of twelve children, six boys and six girls. The parents were Frederick and Louisa (Mann) Schmid who came to the United States when young. They were married in this city. Our subject's mother came here in 1829. She was a daughter of Henry J. Mann, who was the first German settler in Washtenaw County. Frederick Schmid, the immediate progenitor of our subject, was a Lutheran minister and coming from Germany located in Washtenaw County in 1833, and in company with Mr. Mann was extremely useful in influencing the settlement of many good German families in Washtenaw County.

Our subject's father was very active in organizing the Lutheran Church in this county and the result of his effort has been most happy. He came here from the Fatherland in the first place as a missionary and well did he perform his charge. He came from Basle, Switzerland and was a recognized factor of large influence in the Lutheran Church. His death occurred August 30, 1883. His wife died in 1889. Frederick Schmid, Sr., was a man who was very zealous in his religious belief and although in pioneer days he made his circuit to the different charges on foot through heavily timbered country and through mud and water he was always punctual in meeting his appointments.

Of twelve children born to the parents, eleven are now living. Our subject, Frederick, Jr., remained on the home farm until reaching his twelfth year. During that time he attended the district school in the vicinity and worked out on the neighboring farms, receiving $12 per month for his services. He was thus engaged until nineteen years of age and then left the farm and entered the employ of John W. Maynard in the capacity of clerk and with him he remained for some months. After that he was employed by Christian Mack, and at the end of eighteen months was taken into the firm as partner and has since continued his relationships with the business.

The firm of Mack & Schmid is among the leading dry-goods houses of Ann Arbor. They not only deal extensively in everything with which to clothe the body that appeals to the feminine taste and instincts of beauty, also in carpets, but deal besides largely in wool. The original of our sketch was married in 1862, to Miss Eliza Mann, a daughter of Emanuel Mann. Mrs. Schmid was born in this city and here was reared and educated. To our subject and his wife have been born three children, whose names are Emma E., Oscar F. and Edwin E. Oscar is a chemist and engaged in the drug and chemical works in Jackson, Michigan.

Our subject has been honored by election to various municipal offices. He has been Alderman for one term and is now President of the Ann Arbor Piano & Organ Company and is Vice-President of the Ann Arbor Brick & Tile Company and holds the same position in the Business Men's Association. He was appointed Trustee of the Eastern Michigan Asylum for the Insane and is an interested worker for any humanitarian or progressive enterprise. Our subject is the owner of a valuable farm in this county. In politics he affiliates with the Democratic Party. In their church associations our subject with the other members of his family belongs to the Zion Church. He is Superintendent of the Sunday-school and also one of the Church Trustees. His elegant residence is located on Fifth Avenue and denotes refinement and culture in its owner and occupant.

Notes for Jonathan Heinrich Mann:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Henry J. Mann for forty-three years, or from boyhood down to the present time, Henry J. Mann has been a representative of the business interests of Christian Mack and now of his estate. He was born in Ann Arbor January 3, 1847. His paternal grandfather, Jonathan Henry Mann, was born in Germany April 26, 1784, and came to America in 1826. He settled first in Pennsylvania and on the 20th of May, 1830, he arrived in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He had been married in Germany on the 10th of September, 1809, to Miss Louise Haller, who was born in that country August 6, 1786. They were resident of this city for more than a third of a century and here Mrs. Mann died on the 9th of July, 1864, her husband surviving until the 18th of August, 1865. They were the parents of ten children, all of whom were born in the fatherland, and with the exception of three all died prior to the emigration of the parents to the new world. The eldest of the survivors was Emanuel E. Mann. Louise, who was born June 21, 1817, became the wife of Rev. Frederick Schmid, the first Lutheran minister in Michigan and the organizer of many of the German churches of this state, where he arrived in 1833. Mrs. Schmid departed this life March 10, 1889. Sophie H. Mann, who was born November 10, 1821, and is the only living representative of her father's family, is now enjoying good health at the age of eighty-four years. She married August Frederick Hutzel, who was born in Germany, February 25, 1807, and died September 18, 1889. Emanuel E. Mann, whose birth occurred in Germany June 4, 1814, died in Ann Arbor, November 24, 1887. He came to America with his parents in 1826 and was married in this city to Anna Niethamer, who was born in Germany February 9, 1825, and died in Ann Arbor November 2, 1880. Emanuel Mann learned the tanner's trade under the direction of his father in early life and later he built the first steam tannery in this city, which was located back of the old jail on Allen's creek. This he operated alone until 1848, when it was destroyed by fire. He then entered into partnership with Christian Eberbach under the firm name of Eberbach & Company, and they began dealing in drugs and similar goods, the partnership being maintained until 1881, when it was discontinued. A year later Mr. Mann purchased the George Granville drug store, which was located on Main Street where the Goodyear drug store now stands. Later he removed his store to the location now occupied by his sons under the firm name of Mann Brothers, and it was there that he sold out to them. On retiring from commercial pursuits he settled on his farm, where his remaining days were passed. He was a very successful man, much esteemed by all who knew him. In politics he was a republican and was vice-president of the republican meeting held "under the oaks" at Jackson, Michigan, when the Republican Party had its inception. At the time when he was conducting business as a member of the firm of Eberbach & Company his store used to be the meeting place of many politicians of the day and also the place of rendezvous for prominent and well known early settlers. At one time Mr. Mann represented his district in the state senate and he held various local offices, serving on the school board of the city and also as alderman. He was very active in city and council affairs and wielded a wide and beneficial influence, his efforts proving effective in promoting the general good, in his family were eleven children, of whom seven are yet living, namely: Eliza, Henry J., Emilie, Eugene G., Albert, Clara and Charles F. Henry J. Mann obtained his education in the schools of Ann Arbor and on leaving the high school in 1862 entered the employ of the firm of Mack & Schmid as a clerk. He continued with the firm for many years as confidential clerk and right hand man, and in fact so continued until the death of Christian Mack in 1901 - a period of thirty-eight consecutive years. He was at that time acting as bookkeeper in the loaning and banking department of their business and on the death of Mr. Mack he became the bookkeeper of the Christian Mack estate, in which capacity he is yet serving and is also the manager of the Christian Mack Agency, which was established by his late employer and has since been conducted most successfully. Mr. Mann has been in the employ of this house for forty-three years, from boyhood to the present time and his business position has ever been of the most honorable, his business integrity above question. On the 27th of May, 1880, in Ann Arbor Mr. Mann was married to Miss Mary Wagner, a native of this city and a daughter of John Wagner, one of the early settlers of Washtenaw County. They have one child, Louise A., who was born in Ann Arbor.

She was born 18 Sep 1870 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 23 Jan 1950 in Ft. Steilacoom, Pierce Co, Washington.

Notes for Gustave Adolph Niethammer:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Adolph G. Niethamer, a member of the well-known firm of Huss & Niethamer, contractors and builders of Ann Arbor with an extensive business which covers this city and Washtenaw County, was born in Scio Township, May 27, 1870. His father, Jacob Niethamer, was a native of Stuttgart in the duchy of Wurtemberg, Germany, and coming to America he purchased an eighty-acre farm at Scio, where he died when his son Adolph was only two years old. His wife, who prior to her marriage was Mary Gengenbach, was also a native of Stuttgart. Adolph G. Niethamer attended the public schools of his native township until he was fourteen years of age. He had two brothers; Johnson F., a grocer; and Moses G., a carpenter and builder, both of whom are now living in Ann Arbor. There were also two sisters in the family: Minnie, who (died at the age of sixteen years; and Lydia, who became the wife of Henry Frey, of Francis, Michigan, and died in 1899.

At the age of eighteen years Adolph G. Niethamer began learning the carpenter's and builder's trade under the direction of his brother Moses. The following year he went to work for John Walz, of Ann Arbor, with whom he remained for eleven years with the exception of eighteen months spent in the employment of the state at work upon the university buildings. In 1904 he entered into partnership with Aaron C. Huss, a well known carpenter and builder of Ann Arbor, thus forming the firm of Huss & Niethamer, now doing contract work on an extensive scale in this city and the county. Many important contracts have been awarded them and they are insured a continuance of a liberal patronage by reason of their fair and honorable methods and the excellent work executed by them.

On the 15th of December, 1892, Mr. Niethamer was married to Miss Mary L. Eiding and they have two children, a daughter, Delta K., now five years of age, and a son, Woodard A., who is two years old. Although Mr. Niethamer ever gives an unfaltering support to the democracy he has never been a candidate for office. He is a member of the American Health & Sickness Association and attends the Fourth Avenue Evangelical Bethlehem church of Ann Arbor. Having always lived in this city he is widely known and has attained a creditable position in business circles through his own well directed efforts and merit.

Marriage Notes for Arthur Brady and Elsie Roller:

A pretty wedding occurred last week Thursday evening, October 29, 1920, at 6:00 o'clock at the town home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Roller, Sr., on East State Street, when their daughter, Elsie A. was united in marriage to Arthur Brady, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Brady, in the presence of the members of the contracting parties' families. The house was charmingly decorated in green and white with roses. Fern and wedding bells were attractively used in the decorative scheme. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Mrs. G.B. Metzger, sister of the groom, and the beautiful ring service of the Moravian Church was read by Rev. Theo. Weingarh.

The bride, who attired in a handsome traveling suit of blue worn with a hand embroidered blouse, was attended by her sister, Miss Sophia Roller, of Detroit, who was becomingly attired in blue silk. Both ladies carried bride's roses. The groom wore the conventional black and was supported by Mr. Hermon Bitzer.

The decoration of the dining room were green and white. The bride's favors to the guests were little flower baskets filled with mints, and were used as plate cards. The dinner was served at seven o'clock in four courses and was charming in all its appointments. Many gifts in silver and cut glass were received. The bride and groom are among the most popular young people of the community. The groom is an ex-service man, and a rising young farmer. The bride is a delightful young woman of pleasing personality and charming manners. For some time, she was the popular operator for the Valley Home Telephone Co., and has many friends in this locality.

The young couple left on motor trip after which they will be at home at the Brady homestead where the groom has taken charge of affairs since his return from France. All will join with the Crescent in wishing them a long life of happiness and success.

Notes for Charles August Sauer:

Obituary in Daily Times News, Ann Arbor, Michigan on Monday, December 6, 1915: "City Mourns the Death of Mayor Sauer"

Mayor Charles August Sauer died at 3:30 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph's sanitarium where he had been ill of typhoid fever the past three weeks. Mr. Sauer assumed the duties of mayor about six months ago, never having held a political office before, although a resident of this city since 1886.

He had devoted all his energies toward building up his business, beginning as an architect and designer and later becoming one of the foremost contractors in the county. He continued this line of business with more and more success and finally enlarged his interests, engaging in the lumber and planning mill business. About three years ago he began general contracting in Detroit, in addition to his flourishing business here.

Mr. Sauer was a member of the Elks and Knights of Pythias lodges in this city, and also belonged to the Fellowship club of Detroit, and the Sledge club of Toledo.

Mr. Sauer was born December 18, 1866 in Stratford, Canada, and moved with his parents to Saline when he was five years old. At the age of 20 he left Saline, coming to Ann Arbor, and in 1892 married Miss Julia Katherine Koch of Saline, who survives him with their four children: Nola, Laura, Karl and Waldo.

He is also survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Sauer of Saline, two sisters Miss Barbara Sauer of this city, and Mrs. Katherine Vandamark of Clinton, and two brothers, Adam and John Sauer of this city.

The body will lie in state tomorrow from 12 to 3 p.m. at the residence, 512 Packard Street. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the residence, Rev. Courtland Miller officiating, and the remains will be placed in the mausoleum in Bethlehem Cemetery.

The pallbearers will be Ross Granger, Titus Hutzler, Andrew Reule, Samuel Heusel, John Feiner and Michael Fritz.

Obituary in Saline Observer: Mayor Charles A. Sauer of Ann Arbor - Passed Away Monday Morning December 6, 1915

Charles A. Sauer, well known in Saline for many years and for the past 29 years a prominent contractor and lumber dealer of Ann Arbor, died at the St. Joseph sanitarium Tuesday morning of typhoid fever. Deceased was born in Stratford, Ontario, December 18, 1866, and with his parents came to this village five years later.

In 1892 he was married to Miss Julia Katherine Koch of this village and is survived by the bereaved, widow, four children, Nola, Laura, Karl, and Waldo; also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Sauer of this place, two sisters, Miss Barbara Sauer of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Katherine Vandermark of Clinton, and two brothers, Adam and John Sauer of Ann Arbor. Mr. Sauer had never had any political aspirations until last April, when he was elected mayor of Ann Arbor. He was, however, identified with several orders, the Elks and the Knights of Pythias of Ann Arbor, the Fellowship club of Detroit and the Sledge club of Toledo. The funeral services were held at the home in Ann Arbor Wednesday afternoon and the remains placed in the mausoleum in Bethlehem Cemetery.

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

C. A. Sauer is the senior member of the firm of C. A. Sauer & Company, manufacturers of lumber, building materials and architectural work, in which connection he has contributed to the commercial and industrial prosperity of the city, in which he resides. A native of Canada, he was born in 1867, and when six years of age was brought by his parents, Adam and Ann (Schank) Sauer, both of whom were natives of Germany. After living for some time in the Dominion they made their way in 1873 to this state, settling in Saline Township, Washtenaw County, where the father has since followed carpentering. Unto him and his wife were born five children, all of whom are living: Barbara, C. A., Kate, Adam and John. C. A. Sauer pursued his education in the public schools at Saline, and in his youth learned the carpenter's trade with his father, becoming familiar with the business both in principle and detail, and he gained considerable skill in that line. He afterward came to Ann Arbor, where he followed his trade on his own account for two years, but before starting in business for himself, he was for two years in the service of George Scott, an architect, whom he represented as draughtsman. He then began general contracting and building, which he continued for twelve years, a liberal patronage being accorded him. He entered upon his varied duties with admirable equipment because of his thorough training under his father; his excellent workmanship, fidelity to the terms of contract and straightforward dealing securing him a constantly growing patronage. When twelve years had passed he was joined by his brothers, Adam and John, in the organization of the lumber firm of C. A. Sauer & Company, and they are now engaged in the manufacture of all kinds of lumber, building materials, supplies and architectural work. They have a well-equipped planing mill in connection with the lumber plant, and are doing an extensive business, their patronage having continually grown in gratifying manner since the organization of the firm in 1899.

Mr. Sauer was married in 1892 in Saline Township, to Miss Julia Koch, a native of Pittsfield Township, Washtenaw County, and a daughter of John Koch. Their marriage has been blessed with four children: Nola, Karl, Laura and Waldo. Throughout almost his entire life Mr. Sauer has remained in this county, and has made for himself an enviable position in business circles. He has always been identified with building or manufacturing interests, and is thoroughly conversant upon everything connected with the builder's trade. He has been watchful of every indication pointing to success, and since the establishment of the present lumber firm, has promoted its interests along modern lines that have resulted in its permanent and substantial growth.

Gruner and Kuebler built their factory on the corner of South Fourth Avenue and East Madison, nestled into a bend of Allen's Creek--the creek passed along the building's Fourth Avenue side and then curled around the back. Gruner and Kuebler's equipment was steam driven, so they didn't need the creek's waterpower; more likely, they chose the site to be near their labor market, the skilled craftsmen who lived on what is now known as the Old West Side. In 1899, after Kuebler died and Gruner moved to Cincinnati, Charles Sauer bought the property. Sauer was born in Canada to German parents and learned carpentry from his father before moving to Ann Arbor at age twenty. He worked as a draftsman and as a contractor before forming Sauer Lumber with his two brothers, Adam and John.

The new business offered architectural services and contracting, as well as lumber for all kinds of building. In the early years, the Sauers also still sold furniture, possibly using the same tools and craftsmen who worked for Gruner and Kuebler. They extended the business west, building a small mill in the yard for custom work, and an office at 543 South Main. "They have a well-equipped planing mill in connection with the lumber plant and are doing an extensive business," Samuel Beakes wrote in the 1906 edition of Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan, "their patronage having continually grown in a gratifying manner since the organization of the firm in 1899."

The Sauer brothers built Ann Arbor's 1906-1907 city hall, kitty-corner from the present one, on the corner now occupied by the Dahlmann City Center Building. Eight years later, Charles Sauer himself moved into the mayor's office. Sadly, he died just six months into his term, at age forty-nine. On the day of his burial, all business and governmental offices closed from 2 to 3:30 p.m. during the funeral. Although it passed out of family hands, the Sauer Lumber business kept going until the mid-1940s. Colin Fingerle, whose family owned a competing lumberyard nearby, recalls that Sauer's specialized in doors and windows, making them from scratch.

Notes for Robert Samuel Horning:
Robert Samuel Horning of Largo, Florida Born March 16, 1926 in Ann Arbor to Samuel and Anna Barbara (Hanselmann) Horning, Robert Samuel Horning died June 13, 2019 in Largo, Florida (near Clearwater) at age 93 after receiving injuries during a recent fall. Bob attended Ann Arbor High School; he then served as a rifleman in the Army during World War II, in the 70th Infantry Division, earning two bronze battle stars in European Theater Operations, and was a prison guard in Western Germany. Upon discharge, he worked as a clerk at the U.S. Postal Service for thirty-three years. He loved life, including hiking, traveling, photography, playing cards, collecting coins and stamps. But he would drop those any time for a conversation with friends and acquaintances.

He was always reading, could remember tons of trivia, and probably would have done well on Jeopardy. Later in life he became more interested in God and drew closer to him.

Bob's nearest relatives were his nephews and their wives: Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy). His brother, Walter, died in 2007.

A committal service will be at Bethlehem Cemetery on Jackson Rd. in Ann Arbor at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, July 24, 2019.

Immanuel Heinrich¹⁰ Cook (Johann Jacob⁹ Koch, Maria Catharina⁸ Niethammer, Johann Georg⁷, Johann Jacob⁶, Johann Georg⁵, Johann Conrad⁴, Georg³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 16 Aug 1869 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 24 Oct 1950 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Olive Lydia Wheelock 01 Jan 1891 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Emerson Wheelock and Polly Wilson. She was born 23 Apr 1868 in Bridgewater Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 10 Oct 1932 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Immanuel Heinrich Cook:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

E. H. Cook. Many of the native sons of Washtenaw County have continued their residence within its borders, finding here good advantages and business opportunities, while in the exercise of their native powers they have gained creditable and gratifying success. To this class belongs Mr. Cook, who now follows farming on section 33, Pittsfield Township. He was born in Lodi Township on the 16th of August, 1869, and is of German lineage. His paternal grandfather, John Cook, was born in Germany, and at an early date came to this state, entering land in Washtenaw County and assisting the pioneers in their efforts to reclaim this region for the purposes of civilization.

John Cook's son, Jacob Cook, father of our subject, was born on the old family homestead in Lodi Township, and at the age of twenty-five years was married to Miss Catherine Zahn, who was also born in Lodi Township, while her father, John Zahn, was a native of Germany. As the years passed Jacob Cook engaged quite extensively in farming and stock raising in York Township, where he owned and operated two hundred acres of land. In addition to the tilling of the soil and the production of crops best adapted to the climate he raised stock on a large scale and found this is a profitable source of income. He belonged to the German Lutheran church and he gave his political allegiance to the Republican Party. In his family were two daughters: Mary, the wife of Theodore Feldkamp, by whom he has three children, their family home being in York Township; and Eliza, the wife of Fred Rash, of Ann Arbor, by whom she has three children. E. H. Cook, the only son and the second child, was reared to farm life under the parental roof, giving his father the benefit of his services until eighteen years of age.

He acquired his education in the common schools and afterward worked at farm labor until twenty-two years of age, when he was married to Miss Olive Wheelock, who was born April 23, 1868, and is a daughter of Emmons Wheelock, a native of New York. Her grandfather was one of the pioneer settlers of Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Cook have become the parents of three children: Hazel, born July 25, 1895; Mildred, born April 14, 1900; and Clarence, born September 27, 1904. The home farm is a tract of eighty acres of rich and valuable land devoted to the production of various cereals and also to stock raising. Mr. Cook has recently erected a fine large residence and new outbuildings and in fact has one of the best improved farm properties in his locality. Everything about the place indicates his careful supervision, and he is well known as a practical and progressive farmer, who is winning well merited profit in his labors. In his political views he is an earnest republican, but he has no desire for office. Socially he is a member of Saline lodge, No. 133, A. F. & A. M., and he likewise belongs to Maccabees tent, No. 46, of Saline, in which he has held some offices. He is one of the prominent native sons of the county, his record having ever been in harmony with the history of the family in their identification with the best interests of the county and its substantial growth and improvement.

Emanuel H. Cook, a lifelong resident of this community, died early Tuesday morning Oct. 24, 1950 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Donna Bradbury, of Dexter, following an extended illness. He was born in Scio Township the son of Jacob and Catherine Zahn Cook on August 16, 1869, and on January 1, 1890, he was married to Olive Wheelock, who preceded him in death in October 1932. Mr. Cook was a member of the Methodist church, a life member of Saline Lodge No. 133, F. & A. M., and of Saline Chapter, O. E. S.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Mildred Hoag of Jackson, Mrs. Donna Bradbury of Dexter, and Mrs. Hazel Easton of Saline; one son Arthur; two half-brothers, Fred Koeder of Milan and Theophil Koeder of Illinois; two half-sisters, Mrs. Lida Dierherger of Jackson and Mrs. Amanda Schwartzkopf of Lansing; ten grandchildren and six great grandchildren. One son, Clarence Cook, preceded him in death in 1949. Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 2 o'clock at the Lockwood Funeral Home with Rev. R. R. Feuall, pastor of the Methodist church officiating. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery where grave side services will be conducted by members of the Masonic Lodge of Saline.

It is simple to remember the first part of a famous quote by 18th-century physician Thomas Fuller: "Charity begins at home." Regrettably, it seems easier for most people to forget the second half of that phrase which carries the true message, "but, should not end there."

One long time Saline resident took this saying to heart. Beginning in the 1980s, she worked tirelessly and anonymously through her attorney, Kallian Liston, to set up a series of endowments that touched many. She began her charitable works within the boundaries of Saline and chose to expand her definition of "home" to Washtenaw County, the state of Michigan and even to other parts of the U.S. The woman who worked zealously to keep her identity secret became known as "The Angel" to many local organizations and it was only with her death on Feb. 23, 2000 that people slowly became aware of just how much Gertrude Cook was indeed, "The Angel." Her story is fascinating; a lesson in love, devotion, frugality, planning, and generosity, driven by a steely sense of purpose. It is also the realization of a dream that was shared by Mrs. Cook and her husband, Clarence.

Linda Ormsby, director of Saline Area Social Service, was a niece of Mrs. Cook and willingly shared some of the family history.

"Aunt Gert was born Gertrude Rundle about 1908," Ormsby says. "Both she and Uncle Clarence were lifelong Salinians. She was raised on the Rundle Farm the stone house on North Maple just south of Textile (on the east side of the road). She grew up there and that is where she lived while she and Uncle Clarence were courting. Her only sister was Martha Leutheuser, the mother of Gene and grandmother of Roger, the branch of the family associated with the restaurant."

An early photograph of Mrs. Cook shows an attractive young woman in a serious pose. A short wavy bob haircut frames her face. The expressive eyes gaze thoughtfully into the camera and the set mouth appears to hint equally at the promise of a smile or the reproof of a frown. She is wearing a light-colored dress or blouse with short capped sleeves and a single strand of pearls. This was Mrs. Cook's favorite portrait.

"Uncle Clarence was the third of five siblings; my mother Donna was the fourth," notes Ormsby. "They lived first out on Bemis Road and then moved in town into a house on Maple Street, the second or third house north of Michigan Avenue. He was a tall, handsome man with a brush-cut long before brush-cuts were popular."

Ormsby was uncertain just when or where the couple met, but it is known that they both attended and graduated from Saline High School. They were about the same age. "When they got married, in the late '20s or early '30s," notes Ormsby, "they moved into a brand new house on Henry Street and Aunt Gert stayed there until she moved into the Evangelical Home for health reasons. Uncle Clarence worked at the Saline Savings Bank (then located at the four-corners in the building just vacated by the TCF Bank). He began as a teller and later advanced to a position as a bank officer. "They were a wonderful couple," remembers Ormsby, eyes glistening. "Uncle Clarence and Aunt Gert didn't have any children of their own but they took care of all the nieces and nephews. They did the right thing at the right time for all the kids.

"There were nine nieces and nephews (in my generation). Aunt Gert and Uncle Clarence always remembered us at Christmas with a gift and each gift was especially chosen for each individual child." In the summers, the oldest nieces and nephews were treated to long visits at the Cooks' home. "The biggest joy of our lives," Ormsby notes, "was at the end of the day when Aunt Gert allowed us to leave the house and walk up and meet Uncle Clarence on his way home. At times we also got to tour the bank but I didn't realize until much later that the boys actually were permitted inside the safe! The girls weren't allowed to do that," she adds with a smile.

The Cooks were a social couple and had friends throughout the community. Mrs. Cook stayed at home, tending the house and her flower gardens. Mr. Cook was a member of the Masonic Lodge and was a Past Master of that organization. He also served on the Saline Board of Education. At the time, a few people wondered why Mr. Cook would want to be on the school board since the couple didn't have any children. The simple answer was that Mr. and Mrs. Cook both cared about children, whether they were from the immediate family or the greater community.

Ormsby fondly recalls how the Cooks enjoyed interacting with the nieces and nephews and how they were always on hand to see any performances, music recitals or presentations. Gertrude and Clarence Cook were members of the Federated Church which is now the First Presbyterian Church at the corner of Michigan Ave. and Hall Street.

Touring the country was also one of the Cooks' favorite past times. They traveled to Colorado and also throughout the east coast states. "They had one of the first Nash Ramblers with the backseat that was a pull-down bed," remembers Ormsby. "They drove it on their vacations and we kids loved to climb in the back when they came out to the farm." The Cooks were frequent visitors to the farm where Ormsby grew up. "They came out almost weekly to visit and sometimes they brought us gifts and souvenirs," says Ormsby. "They were just a special, special couple. They were the perfect aunt and uncle. They did so much for us, but didn't try to replace our parents."

The Cooks also helped each individual family if they were in need. This did not run to financial support but more to sage advice and emotional assistance that permitted the families to maneuver past and over particular bumps in the road. Once the family was back on track, the Cooks recognized that it was time to step back and let go.

"I remember once," says Ormsby, "Aunt Gert and Uncle Clarence came out to the farm on a Sunday. After we ate, my dad and Uncle Clarence went into the kitchen and closed the door on the rest of us. Uncle Clarence spent the next hour or so helping my dad prepare to join the Masons.

"When we graduated from high school, we each received a final gift from Uncle Clarence and Aunt Gert. Again, it was a gift especially chosen for each of us and we knew it would be the last one, but it held special, meaning." This final gift was really a rite of passage that meant each recipient was then considered an adult by the Cooks.

At one point, Clarence and Gertrude Cook left town on what has become known in the family as the "Mystery Trip." No one knew where they had gone or why. When they returned, the family discovered that the Cooks had traveled to another where Mr. Cook had taken classes to become a certified auctioneer. From that point on, they teamed up on weekends to conduct auctions. Mr. Cook was the auctioneer, while Mrs. Cook was the bookkeeper, working behind the scenes. "They did well in the auction business," reports Ormsby "but Uncle Clarence remained at his bank job and (auctioneering) was more of a hobby. Uncle Clarence enjoyed public speaking and was very good. With his ability to work and talk to all types of people, this was a natural position for him."

Suddenly, the Cooks' storybook existence was thrown into chaotic disarray. Mr. Cook was diagnosed with what was then called "malignant hypertension" or uncontrollable high blood pressure. During the 1940s and 1950s the medications and treatments now used to control and manage this disease were not yet available. Unfortunately, the worst occurred and Clarence Cook passed away at the age of 42 leaving Mrs. Cook on her own for the first time in her life.

"Aunt Gert took his death very, very hard," relates Ormsby, "but she wouldn't talk about it. She internalized everything and really became a recluse after Uncle Clarence died. She never changed a thing in the house while she remained there and for the first five or 10 years following his death, she went to the cemetery every single day."

Ormsby notes that the situation was both touching and sad—her loyalty and dedication was heart-warming as well as heart-breaking. Mrs. Cook seemed to withdraw from social acquaintances and activities, even some family gatherings. The relatives were concerned and attempted to involve Mrs. Cook in activities. For the most part all efforts failed. Even telling her that her late husband would not have wanted her to withdraw from the world didn't sway this determined woman. Ormsby likens the situation to that of a person frozen in time. Clarence Cook had been her life; the captain of the team. And now that dynamic team of two became a body of one.

Mrs. Cook was not left independently wealthy and began her working career in her late 30s or early 40s. At a time when many people reach the half-way point in their careers, Gertrude Cook began her journey into the work world. She secured employment at the old Universal Die Cast plant off Monroe St. and remained with the company for the next several years as Universal evolved into Hoover Universal and then Johnson Controls.

According to her nephew, Eugene Leutheuser, those that might remember her today may recall that little, gray-haired lady on E. Henry St. out tending her flowers or getting after the squirrels. Not a leaf came down in the fall but that Gertrude was out there after it. She was a meticulous yard-keeper.

As the surviving team member, Mrs. Cook seemed to focus on a scattering of areas that she had always loved and shared with Mrs. Cook. Children, music, nature and helping people to help themselves became the nucleus of her plan. The lone lady from the little house on Henry Street proved to be a master planner. She planned for the future. The exact amount of time and energy she expended on the development of her endowment fund will never be known, but by the 1980s an overall program had been designed and set into motion. And the watchword for this individual effort was anonymity, with a capital "A."

"Anonymity was so important to Gertrude," recalls Liston, "that special steps were taken to get her projects done, leaving no trail, but taking back to her the responses and the visual satisfaction of seeing through photographs and videos and knowing that things were getting done."

Liston adds: The kids at Mott Children's Hospital wanted to create a visual image of just who this special person might be, and it was they who came up with the image of the Angel. "The concept fit perfectly, so we used 'The Angel' as a quick reference to the anonymous donor in all the plans and projects."

Through all of her planning, Mrs. Cook never forgot Clarence Cook or the team they embodied. Liston notes in reference to her various donations, "She did not want recognition until after her death and then, she wanted the recognition to include her deceased husband."

Mrs. Cook was both a friend and client to Liston. According to him, she chose to look "...to the community of people at large and pursued interests that satisfied her. She fed people, she made their lives more spiritual or enjoyable, she reached out to many charities and created her own particular plans and had me get them accomplished."

Even when poor health necessitated her leaving her beloved home and moving into the Evangelical Home, Mrs. Cook continued planning the legacy on behalf of herself and Mr. Cook. Progressive illness did not deter this remarkable woman. She worked her plan from her wheelchair and her bed, even to the last.

"When she became physically unable to do things herself, she would give directions and view the results through videos and in other ways at the Evangelical Home," reports Liston with a note of awe and a healthy dose of respect. "And in that way, she remained active and connected with people and the things she wanted to see done, but all the while enjoying her fiercely guarded privacy."

The largest, most visible project financed by Mrs. Cook is how part of the Evangelical Home.

"Gertrude's funding produced the elegant greenhouse/sunroom you see in the F. Wing," Says Liston. "Not only did she build the sunroom, she financed the woodworking you see along the eastern wall. Gertrude's gift also purchased all of the 'stand ftg gardens' which look like little plant beds on rollers and the fountain in the corner. Gertrude was creating a space she could go to use and also for others to enjoy. Many people have been using the sunroom as a place to take their family members to have visits and other things like birthday parties and special events."

Mrs. Cook considered flowers "friendly spirits." Even when she could no longer see flowers, she had them near her and could smell their fragrance. The greenhouse/sunroom allows others to commune with those friendly spirits and perhaps it's not too implausible to believe that a new spirit has joined the others sometime during the last 14 months.

"Trying to get Gertrude to spend money on herself was a chore," remarks Liston. "She denied and refused everything. She repeatedly said that being in the Saline Evangelical Home was a good place to be and they took care of her needs. That was enough; that was all she wanted for herself. There was no forcing this lady."

So it is not surprising that it was Mrs. Cook who funded a small cash gift given to all of the employees at the Evangelical Home. Each gift was accompanied by a printed card. The exact words were not Mrs. Cook's but the context and sentiments were. The note read in part: "Please accept and enjoy this gift to you in the spirit in which it is given; on behalf of the collective spirit of all the residents of the Evangelical Home....You work with us and help us in so many very personal ways. You show us kindness, sometimes even when we are not being so kind....You try to keep us engaged, involved and active....you give us a measure of dignity and respect." And we do sense that. And we do appreciate that; each of us in our own way. We thank you." This was probably as close as she came to letting anyone know she was involved with the gifts because the card was signed, "Your friends," meaning all the residents of EVH.

The Saline Schools were a natural stop along Mrs. Cook's endowment path. After all, the schools involved children, music and an agriculture program. Bob Phillips, Saline orchestras' director and founder of Fiddlers Philharmonic, was one of the staff members consulted at the schools. He and the rest of the music staff were told only that there was an anonymous donor who wanted to fund projects for youth in Saline. In conversations and discussions with Liston, many ideas were examined in an attempt to decide on a project that would touch the greatest number of students. The group finally settled on one of Mrs. Cook's original ideas: the creation of a music library resource that would be available to the entire community. Again, several locations were considered and after talking with the music staff and the Saline Music Parents Association, the school system seemed the ideal place to house such a library.

"Gertrude's contribution put new music resources into the hands of teachers at every public school, at every level," says Liston. "Some of the things were hard items like instruments used in the elementary schools, and some of the things were in the form of music resources that go far beyond anything anyone would expect to see at a middle school or a high school."

Since February of 2000, Saline students have had access to the music library and instruments. However, a portion of the endowment has been put aside to allow for expansion of the library in the future. Eventually Phillips was made aware that Mrs. Cook loved fiddling as well as other forms of music and live performances. The Fiddlers were not strangers to the Evangelical Home, but four or five years ago they received a request to move some of their performances from the center of the building to a certain dining room. At the time, Phillips and the Fiddlers were only told that "the donor" could hear the performances from this location.

The performances were well received and a donation was made to Fiddlers that helped out with projects and travel expenses. A later contribution allowed Phillips to realize a dream to purchase electric, acoustic guitars.

"Well," responds Phillips, this was a dream came true. The guitars are still being used now. They made an incredible difference in being able to amplify the group and keep the acoustic sound!" As an offshoot of the Fiddlers performances, a music outreach program was started.

Using monies provided by Mrs. Cook, Pam Phillips, Bob's wife and Fiddlers' business manager, volunteered to coordinate scheduling and work with the music staff so that groups from the bands, orchestras, choirs and Fiddlers performed at the EVH and Mott Children's Hospital. "The various music groups played many times over a two year period for those institutions," notes Pam Phillips. Working with the Saline Music Parents, a state of the art outfit of recording equipment for the school resulted from Mrs. Cook's kindness.

"This is used to record every concert on CD," says Pam Phillips. "Many students also come in to record audition tapes to be sent with applications for music camps, colleges and scholarships."

The Saline High School horticulture Award is also a direct result of Mrs. Cook's largess.

The award was established in 1999. Each year, two seniors receive a check for $1,000 at Senior Awards Night. The qualifications for application are minimal. Because Mrs. Cook so enjoyed nature, "there just has to be a grower element to the Horticulture Award, explains Liston. "This is in recognition of present achievement and accomplishments with horticulture."

According to the attorney, the award is aimed at "those kids who are showing the love of growing things; in particular flowers, but it could be crops, it could be a specialty, it could be ornamentals. "This is not a scholarship; it is an award," he stresses. "There are no strings attached. It doesn't matter what your grade point is. We don't even ask. It doesn't matter what your future plans are: we already know. (The recipients) are going to be out there in the dirt in some capacity for the rest of their lives."

The Saline District Library received funds and according to Director Leslee Niethammer, she and the Library Board decided to divide the amount received in two and earmarked each half for different projects. "We used one half to enhance our music and video collections," notes Niethammer. "It would be impossible to name all of the tapes and CDs that resulted from this generous gift. However, as an example, we purchased two audio series, How to Listen and Understand Great Music and How to Listen and Understand Opera. "We literally added hundreds of CDs of all types of music and many videos including several Broadway shows. The endowment allowed the Youth Department to begin a collection of pop youth CDs and we purchased a multi-media computer with head phones so patrons can come to the Library and listen to music."

The second half of the bequest was used to improve the woodland trails that adjoin the library to the south. "In 1998, we were able to work with a group of students from the U-M School of Natural Resources to improve the trails," reports Niethammer. This included putting up the entrance sign and other markers along the path. The students designed orientation brochures for walkers to use and coloring books for children. Last year, Niethammer and the board called on U-M again. This time it was a different group and a different project.

"The students concentrated on developing trail aids for people with visual difficulties that cover the first half of the trail," says Niethammer. "This time brochures and audio tapes were produced. Using a brochure read by a friend, a person with limited vision can still enjoy the walk through the trail and is told what to 'look' for by feeling, listening and smelling. The audiotapes serve the same purpose.

A plaque on a large, pink-tinged boulder at the entrance of the trail is inscribed: "The Sensory Trail is made possible by the generosity of Gertrude and Clarence Cook." According to Niethammer, in recent months, the Library has been recognized statewide for its innovative woodland trail system. "Without the donation from the Cooks, our trail system would still be in its infancy today," says Niethammer.

Space and privacy does not allow for the publication of every person or organization touched by the generosity of Gertrude and Clarence Cook. Liston compiled a, "summary of gifting" and this six-page document records more than 40 organizations or individuals who received single or multiple gifts during the last 15-20 years. The scope of this team effort is even more staggering when the bottom line is read: the total funds allocated to the various organizations exceeded a half million dollars.

Perhaps the most challenging part of the assignment for Liston was concealing and preserving "The Angel's" secret identity. For the most part he was incredibly successful but in some cases he needed assistance. As a result, a very small group of people, sworn to secrecy, helped Liston facilitate several of Mrs. Cook's projects. Bob and Pam Phillips were members of this elite group. After some of the music programs were started, Liston introduced Bob and Pam to Mrs. Cook. "When the Fiddlers or one of the orchestra groups performed at the EVH, Bob would go to her room and visit for a minute before or after the performance," remembers Pam Phillips. "As her health worsened, music events were videotaped so she could see them in her room. Once, on a good day, Kallian took Gertrude for a drive and visited with Bob at our home. Just these small things brought a smile to her face. She had proof of what she was helping to accomplish."

About five years before Mrs. Cook's death, Ormsby, as director of Saline Area Social Service, found her organization the recipient of money from an anonymous donor. "Every few months, a check for Social Service would arrive from Kallian's office. I didn't know who the donor was. Very few strings came with the checks. The money was to be used to help people where Social Services knew the need existed. No reports or audits were requested. "The donor trusted that we would use the funds wisely. Occasionally, a check would come with a specific purpose attached. One check was used to help children with musical needs."That single requirement allowed Ormsby and her staff to purchase instruments, lessons, music books and uniforms where needed.

"I was always amazed at the generosity of this unknown benefactor," smiles Ormsby. "I thought about who this person might be, but I noticed that the checks were issued from a bank in Cincinnati, and I never, connected Aunt Gertrude with an out-of-state bank."Eventually, Ormsby began to have suspicions as to the identity of the donor. "But," she maintains, "I did not know for sure, until the day of her funeral. When it was revealed that Aunt Gert was the person so many of us knew as 'The Angel,' it brought the family closer together."There was not a word of disappointment or reproach from any family member."Isn't it wonderful," muses Ormsby with a sense of pride, "how someone could be so unselfish when it came to giving?"

And Ormsby was not alone in this discovery. As the chairman of the renovation committee for the First Presbyterian Church, Taylor Jacobsen knew about money that an unidentified donor had given for remodeling and a new organ as well as funds given to the church's Youth Ministry. Liston had worked closely with Jacobsen and his art students who designed the Horticulture Award Certificates. "But honestly," says Jacobsen, "I didn't know who the donor was until the day of the funeral. I still find the number and variety of projects Mrs. Cook supported over the years absolutely amazing."

What a remarkable story about an exceptional couple and an extraordinary woman. It would have been interesting to hear the conversations that took place in that "little house on Henry Street," to know what transpired between this devoted couple. Somewhere a seed was planted; a seed that Mrs. Cook lovingly nurtured for 50 years. That small seed blossomed into a unique legacy that is both a testament to a very special team and a benefit to current and future generations.

"She was out there in the community, working her plans to the last, pulling for a team that hadn't been together as a team for more than 50 years. "On her desk, at her home was a motto," notes Liston. "It went something like this: I'm only one person but I can make a difference. If I make a difference, maybe others will, too."

Notes for Alfred Jonathan Paul:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Alfred J. Paul, one of Ann Arbor's native sons, was born March 24, 1867. His father, Henry Paul, was a native of Scio Township, Washtenaw County, and there his death occurred in December, 1891. He had for many years been actively engaged in business in Scio and later in Ann Arbor. He married Miss Katherine Cook, a native of Michigan, who is now living in this city. and unto this marriage were born a son and two daughters, the latter being Amelia, now the wife of Andrew Reule, of Ann Arbor, mentioned elsewhere in this volume; and Augusta, who died and was buried in the cemetery here. Alfred J. Paul, the eldest of the family, acquired his education in the public schools of this city and on putting aside his text-books went upon his father's farm, being actively engaged in general agricultural pursuits until 1900. He is now in business at No. 109 North Main Street, conducting a fine and splendidly equipped buffet opposite the courthouse.

Mr. Paul was married in 1903 to Miss Emma Gwinner, a representative of one of the old families of Ann Arbor, in which city her birth occurred. Mr. Paul is a Mason, also belongs to the Knights of Pythias lodge and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, and he attends the Bethlehem Evangelical church. He represents a pioneer family of the county and he has a wide acquaintance here, where he has maintained his residence from his boyhood to the present. His friends embrace many who have known him from his youth as well as the acquaintances of his later years.

Notes for Leon Thomas Hanselman:

Ypsilanti - Three men were electrocuted Sunday April 13, 1930 after a plane became entangled with high tension wires while attempting a landing at Ypsilanti airport. The dead: Levi Keppler, 24, bank teller, Ann Arbor; Harry Walters, 31, superintendent of the airport; William Clawson, 60, retired farmer of Ypsilanti; Leon Hanselmann, 23, Ann Arbor, owner of the plane and licensed pilot, was injured slightly. According to witnesses, Hanselmann swung the plane too low approaching the field. It struck some high-tension transmission wires, became entangled and remained suspended in the air. A wire came in contact with Keppler, killing him. The plane burst into flames. Walters ran to the plane carrying a fire extinguisher, witnesses said. As he turned on a stream of chemicals, electric current followed the liquid and knocked him to the ground. Clawson tried to assist Walters and was killed. Walters was taken to the university hospital at Ann Arbor, but died before the ambulance reached the hospital. Hanselmann jumped from the plane, which continued to burn until employees of the Detroit Edison company cut the wires. An Inquest was ordered.

April 17, 1930 - Levi Keppler, 24, Ann Arbor; Willard Clawson, 60, Ypsilanti, and Harry Walters, 28, Ypsilanti, were electrocuted Sunday afternoon when an airplane became entangled in the high tension wires while attempting to make a landing at the Ypsilanti Airport. Leon Hanselmann, 24, of Ann Arbor, pilot, was slightly hurt and taken to Beyer hospital in Ypsilanti for treatment. Hanselmann, who has been an air enthusiast for some time, rents a hangar at the Ypsilanti airport and took his friend Keppler for a ride Sunday and was preparing to land when the accident occurred. Keppler was not injured in the fall but remained imprisoned in his seat in a tangle of high tension wires while rescuers struggled to release him. He died when he rose from his seat to jump, the change in position bringing him into contact with the high voltage.

Walters was killed when he attempted to release Keppler. Clawson, a bystander, was killed when he sought to draw Walter's body away from the wires. It is said that Hanselmann's plane approached the airport from the west, flying low with the motor apparently dead. The ship side-slipped and nearly went out of control before it got to the port. The plane's tail hooked on a high tension wire at the side of the field and burst into flames. The nose fell forward dragging the wires and throwing the pilot to the ground. Keppler, the passenger, remained imprisoned in the ship. Attendants attempted to extinguish the flames but they had gained too great a headway. Most of this was witnessed by Keppler's mother who had to be restrained from rushing into the tangle of highly charged wires.

Notes for Andreas (Andrew) Muehlig:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Andrew Muehlig. Among the gentlemen prominent in business in Ann Arbor there is perhaps no one more worthy of mention than the junior member of the firm of Schuh & Muehlig, dealers in hardware, stoves, tinware, mantels, grates and tiling, who also carry on plumbing and gas-fitting. Our subject is a native of this city where he began his earthly career November 21, 1860. He is a son of Flora and Christina Muehlig, natives of Wittenberg, who emigrated to the United States and here landed in New York City. The father was a cabinet-maker and upon his arrival in Ann Arbor he undertook this line of business, manufacturing and dealing in furniture, and thus continuing up to the time of his death in 1865, being then in his sixtieth year. His wife died in 1883 in her sixty-first year. Three sons and one daughter constituted the household of which our subject was a part, and three of that number are still living. Our subject is the youngest of that number and he grew up in Ann Arbor, attending the public schools and the High School, and began his mercantile career as a clerk in the store of J. F. Schuh, where he remained for eighteen months. He then went to Chicago where he entered the employ of Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co., as clerk in their wholesale hardware establishment. After remaining with them for one year he returned to Michigan and at Reed City embarked in the hardware business, purchasing the stock of J. L. Ray fuse, taking as his partner Theodore Huss, under the firm name of Muehlig & Huss. This connection lasted for eighteen months when both partners sold out their business.

Returning to Ann Arbor Mr. Muehlig bought an interest with J. F. Schuh, thus forming the partnership in which he now is engaged. They are carrying on a large business and handle a fine stock of goods, occupying all the floors of three stores, and making a great success of their work as they are both practical business men.

In 1886 our subject married Miss Julia Gall, of Ann Arbor, daughter of John Gall, Esq., and to them have been born one son. The political views of our subject are in harmony with the declarations of the Democratic Party and he is a staunch adherent to its policy and principles. Both he and his wife are earnest members of the Zion Lutheran Church, and their pleasant home at No. 61 S. Main Street is the abode of domestic happiness and the center of true hospitality.

Marriage Notes for Lloyd Armbruster and Gloria Johnson:

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Johnson announced March 8, 1945 the engagement of their daughter, Gloria, to Lloyd A. Armbruster of Oak Ridge and Saline, Michigan. The wedding will be an event of early June. Mr. Armbruster is a graduate of Michigan State Normal, receiving his degree in chemical engineering in 1943. Since his graduation he has been connected with Tennessee Eastman Corporation. The bride-elect is also with the Eastman Corp., having been employed there since June, 1943. This interesting nuptial announcement was revealed at a pretty party at the Johnson home on last Saturday evening. After the guests had arrived, they assembled in the dining room to draw their tally cards from the bowl-shaped chandelier, which served as a container for the tallies. Attached to the red-and-white streamers were tiny red hearts, lettered in white, and after these had been unjumbled they spelled the names of the engaged couple. The centerpiece for the dining table was of red bleeding hearts and Queen Ann's lace.

Following an evening of bridge the tables were laid with white covers and centered with a red heart of paper lace, on which were placed miniature vases of bleeding hearts and Queen's lace. The red and white color scheme was also carried out in the refreshment plate by the small heart and diamond shaped sandwiches, olives, baked, apple, nuts and tea.

A pretty and impressive wedding was solemnized on Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, May 6, 1945, at Loudon, Tennessee, when Miss Gloria Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson of that place and Lloyd Armbruster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Armbruster, were united in marriage at the Cumberland Presbyterian church by the Rev. E. R. Webster, pastor of the First Baptist church. The church was decorated with cedars, ferns and other greenery interspersed with two arrangements of Dentizia and orange blossoms, three candelabra with white tapers were used to light the altar. Corsages of daisies tied with white ribbons served as pew markers. Preceding the ceremony the church organist, Mrs. J. E. McCall, gave a program of wedding music including "Because", "I Love You Truly", "Thine Alone", "O Promise Me" and the traditional wedding marches. Miss Joyce Johnson, sister of the bride, entered the church first; wearing a floor length dress of green satin and net, fashioned with a fitted bodice of the satin with the net forming a bouffant skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow carnations. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin gown, made with sweetheart neckline outlined with rows of seed pearls, long fitted sleeves, and a court train. Her finger-tip veil was made with a short face veil. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of white rosebuds, and she wore a strand of pearls, the gift of the groom. Elvin Armbruster attended his brother as best man and ushers were four friends of the couple from Oak Ridge.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Following a wedding trip to Gatlinburg Mr. and Mrs. Armbruster will be at home at 154 Wade Lane, Oak Ridge, Tennessee, where he is employed with the Tennessee Eastman Corporation as a chemical engineer.

Notes for Huldah Gertrude Huber:

Huldah G. Hirth, age 104, passed away peacefully on April 1, 2011 at The Chelsea Retirement Community. She was born in Ann Arbor on May 24, 1906 one of three daughters to Gottlieb and Lydia Huber. She was married on July 10, 1941 to Fred Hirth, who preceded her in death. She is survived by her son, David (Barbara); and daughter, Carol (Tom) Hanselman; as well as six grandchildren, Scott (Rennae) Hirth, Mark (Lisa) Hirth, Julie (David) Corrin, Jill (Steve) Dunham, Todd (Nichole) Hanselman, and Amy (Brian) Morse; as well as 14 great- grandchildren.

Her life centered on her family and serving her church, Salem Evangelical Lutheran. She much appreciated the many friendships forged during her 25 years of living at Lurie Terrace. Always an intrigued mind, she lamented the late arrival of the computer age so late in her life. The Detroit Tigers have lost one of their most loyal fans, the score of every game being meticulously recorded. All who love her are thankful for the quality of life she enjoyed to the very end. We thank Arbor Hospice and The Chelsea Retirement Community for the loving care. Funeral service took place Tuesday, March 5, 2011 at Salem Lutheran Church. Memorials may be made to Salem Lutheran Church 7474 Scio Church Road, 48103.

Notes for Joy Ann Van Gelderen:

In Loving Memory of Joy Hirth

The Lord took our pastor's wife, Joy Hirth, home to Heaven on Friday, February 19, 2010. She was diagnosed with cancer eight years ago. At that time, the doctors said she had six months to a year. The Lord has graciously done many miracles in the last eight years to give her more time with us. She has lived the last eight years vibrantly and full of life. She always had a sweet spirit and never complained. Even though we will miss her, we are rejoicing that she is with the Lord and we will see her again someday. Please keep our Pastor and church family in your prayers during this time. The funeral service will be at our church on Saturday, February 27th at 11:00 a.m.

Joy Ann Hirth of Ann Arbor, Michigan, beloved wife, sister, and aunt, went to be with her Lord on February 19, 2010, with her loving husband at her side. She was 53 years of age. Joy was born on July 5, 1956 in Miami, Florida, the daughter of the late Martin Wayne Van Gelderen, Sr. and Tirrell Lyman Stoutenborough. Joy is survived by her husband Gary O. Hirth and brothers: Wayne Van Gelderen, Jr. (Beverly) and their five children, Jim (Rhonda) and their three daughters, John (Marylynn) and their son. She is also survived by her sister Joanna Gillmore (Mark) and their nine children as well as by her Aunt Elinor Van Gelderen, Uncle James Stoutenborough, and several others.

Visitation will be held at Ann Arbor Baptist Church, 2150 S. Wagner on Friday, February 26, 2010, 6-8 p.m. and Saturday, February 27, 2010, 9-10:45 a.m.. Ninety friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Lindemann, R. 2, Saline gathered at the American Legion Hall, Saturday evening Feb. 22, 1947 to help them celebrate the 25th anniversary of their wedding day. The evening's entertainment started with all playing games. Prizes were awarded to those winning high and low scores. Rev. H. L. Engel gave a reading of a Jewish wedding, which was followed by group singing. A mock wedding caused much merriment when the bride appeared with all male attendants and the bridegroom was escorted by girls, dressed in funny costumes. A lovely four tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom and served with refreshments. The couple received many, lovely gifts of silver, also a purse of silver.

Notes for Helene Rosina Weber:

Helen Hirth has retired (Oct. 1968) . . . but life is still exciting. Helen, who lives at 309 N. Harris, had worked at Universal Die Casting Division for 24 years, ever since the plant included only one room with two die-casting machines "and a couple of pressers and a couple of tappers". Before she left, in mid-September, her fellow employees gave her "a wonderful, wonderful party and lovely gifts". Since then, lots of things have happened. First, she spent a week with her son, Dale, in Plymouth, and his family . . . then, on Friday night, she went to Saginaw to see her granddaughter, Sherry Lee (Dale's daughter) take part in Homecoming ceremonies. Sherry Lee, a student at the Michigan Lutheran Seminary in Saginaw, was chosen as junior class representative in the court of the Homecoming Queen. There was another big event for Helen last week. She had let her driver's license lapse 22 years ago ... so, on Thursday, she gathered her nerve, went over and took the test, passed with flying odors . . . and got her license back. Yet, even with all this going on, she misses the girls at UDC . . . and habit wakes her up every morning at 5:30 a.m. She stays in bed, visualizing the scurry of her old friends to get to work . . . "I know just what each one is doing" . . . and in her mind's eye she gets them all safely to the plant and checked in. A 7 a.m. bell rings, at the plant . . . and then, and only then, Helen turns over and goes back to sleep.

March 14, 1928 - Benjamin Klager, superintendent of school at Manistee, pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery on Ernest Kihuke, 19 years old, a student. Kihuke charged Klager attacked him in the superintendent's office, following an argument about Kihuke's pay for running the school moving picture machine, pushing him through a window pane and striking him with his fist. Klager paid a fine and cost of $3.50.

Bay City, Feb. 14, 1948 - Benjamin Klager, Superintendent of Schools here for 12 years, was in effect dismissed today as the Board of Education failed to renew his contract. A motion to give Klager a new three-year contract was defeated 6 to 1 by the seven-man board at its meeting Friday night. The Superintendents current term will be completed July 1. A wrangle between Klager and the Board over school policies has been going on since last year's election when a new group gained control of the Board. Only one Board member who supported the Superintendent has remained in office. The School Board charged Klager with failure "to co-operate properly with the teaching staff, destroying the efficiency of the system."

April 23, 1948 - Charles B. Park, 46-year-old Mt. Pleasant school superintendent, is the new head of the Bay City school system. His appointment effective July 1 was announced today by Bourke W. Lodewyk, president of the board of education. He replaces Benjamin Klager. The board refused to renew Klager's contract last February 13, charging lack of confidence between Klager and the board and lack of cooperation between the administration and the teaching staff. Klager's salary was $7,500 a year. He came to Bay City in 1936 from Manistee.

Marriage Notes for Dorothy Niethammer and Lowell Smith:

Bright as summer sunshine were the yellow and white flowers which banked the altar of the First Methodist Church for the late Saturday afternoon wedding June 16, 1962 of Miss Dorothy Ruth Niethammer to Lowell Richard Smith. The Rev. Lawrence J. Linnemann officiated at the ceremony which united the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Woodard A. Niethammer and the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dolton Smith.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, and while Dr. Niethammer escorted his daughter along the ribbon-and-iris-marked aisle, Dr. E. Byard Fritts, organist, accompanied Dr. Bruce Rodgers, soloist, who sang the wedding songs. The pretty bride wore a gown of traditional satin which she designed and made herself. The imparted ivory-colored delustrated satin was diagonally intertucked to release full unpressed pleats which formed the elegant sweeping skirt and chapel length train. The princess-styled bodice had long sleeves and was appliqued in pearl embroidered peau d'ange lace. A satin cap held a mantilla of peau d'ange lace and a blush veil of bridal illusion to her hair. She carried a handkerchief which the bridegroom's mother carried at her own wedding in 1903. Her bridal bouquet was fashioned of white stephanotis and roses.

Mrs. Richard C. Hamilton (Mary Niethammer) of Carmichael, California, and Mrs. Royce N. Hilton (Jean Niethammer) were honor attendants for their sister. Miss Marilyn Rehn of Gig Harbor, Miss Lisa Nero and Miss Karen Ceder were attendants. They wore gowns of maize colored silk organza over taffeta fashioned with cap sleeves, semi-Sabrina necklines and full skirts accented at the waistline with silk roses. Ivory-colored accessories and bouquets of yellow roses backed with yellow satin leaves completed their attire. Catherine M. Hamilton, niece of the bride, in a bouffant frock of white organdy over a yellow floral print, was the flower girl. She carried a bouquet of tiny yellow tea roses. Kevin L. Hilton, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer for the double-ring ceremony. Stephen P. Smith was his brother's best man, and Woodard A. Niethammer Jr., brother of the bride. Robert I. MacGregor of Seattle, Richard F. Armstrong of Salem, Oregon, Alan D. McLeod, David L. Scott and Theodore E. Reynolds Jr., of Corvallis, Oregon, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Niethammer chose a gown of Wedgewood blue silk with which she wore white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Smith wore a gown of imported chiffon in tones of brown accented with a brown satin belt, cocoa brown accessories and a green orchid corsage.

Some 300 guests were received in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. Assisting were Mesdames James F. Wilhelmi, Lyle H. Lemley, Roy C. Hatcher, August W. Jann, Raymond W. Nelsan, Forrest G. Rothwell E. Kenneth Wallin, Atkin G. Harrelson, Paul M. Smith, Hume A. Cleland, Harold W. McClary of Shelton, Harry A. Johnson, John P. Schack, Robert W. Collins, Saima K. Stuart, of Auburn, Robert N. MacGregor of Steilacoom, Robert I. McGregor of Seattle, Misses Carolyn Rothwell, Jane Hanson, Christine Duren of Gig Harbor, Jean Stuart, Robin Holmes and Kay Whitacre.

Rice of South Norwalk, Connecticut, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Deyo, and their sons, of Mahtomedi, Minnesota, aunts and uncles of the bridegroom.

Arthur E. Kusterer.—Grand Rapids figures as one of the most attractive, progressive and prosperous communities of the State of Michigan, justly claiming a high order of citizenship and a spirit of enterprise which is certain to conserve consecutive development in the material up building of the city. In this development, civic, business and personal interests are affected by many factors, one of the most important of which is that represented by the investment banking and brokerage business. In this field it is necessary that there be men of judgment and foresight, in order that the communities investing capital can be placed in a legitimate manner and that it not be diverted from the channels that make for strength and stability in our institutions. Of the men engaged in this line of business at Grand Rapids, one who has met with success is Arthur E. Kusterer, president of the firm of Kusterer, Hilliker & Perkins. He is still numbered among the younger business men of the city, but has already made a name and reputation for himself in his chosen field. Mr. Kusterer was born at Grand Rapids, April 4, 1883, son of Charles F. Kusterer. He was educated in the graded and high schools of the city and at the University of Michigan, in which institution he was graduated in 1905, with the degree of Bachelor of Science. After graduating he returned to Grand Rapids to enter his present field, the investment banking and brokerage business. The first five years were spent in the employ of local investment banking firms, after which the investment banking firm of A. E. Kusterer & Company was formed, which was succeeded after several years by Kusterer, Hilliker & Perkins, of which firm he is president. He has been a participant in a remarkable success that has attended this firm's operations and has qualified unreservedly as a business man of marked energy, great capacity and thorough knowledge in his special line. In the affairs of the nation, as expressed by political matters, Mr. Kusterer is a non-partisan voter, and in local matters he is guided by the man rather than the party, preferring to use his own judgment rather than to follow blindly the choice of the organization. He belongs to the Park Congregational church, and his social connections include membership in the Peninsular Club and the Kent Country club. Mr. Kusterer was married, Oct. 3, 1908, to Miss Emma Foss, daughter of Willis O. Foss, of Auburn, Me., and of this union have been born two children, twins—Virginia and Elizabeth.

Arthur E. Kusterer, 68, retired investment broker, died yesterday April 14, 1951 at his home, 919 Napoli Drive, Pacific Palisades. He started in the investment business 40 years ago in Philadelphia and later was with J. P. Morgan & Co. For many years he headed his own concern, A. E. Kusterer & Co., Grand Rapids, Michigan. Mr. Kusterer, who moved to Santa Monica 20 years ago, was a member of the Los Angeles Country Club. The body will be sent by Pierce Bros. Santa Monica Mortuary to Grand Rapids for funeral services. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Florence Kusterer.

She was born 11 Apr 1900 in Sharon Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 11 Oct 1972 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Nathanael Oscar Alber:
Alber's Cider Mill

Sippin' sweet cider in the fall was one of the fancy festivities back when grandmother was a girl, and still is. It is just as American as Thanksgiving Day and pumpkin pie—and every bit as delectable. The Alber' cider mill, last one in the Manchester area, is still grinding out apples every fall. The farm, owned and operated by Nathan Alber and his son, N. Allen Alber is at 13011 Bethel Church Road, about four and a half miles northeast of Manchester. If the weather stays mild the Albers plan to operate for several weeks in December.

The mill is part of a typical American farm—with a large white frame house—which Michael Alber, Nathan's father built 68 years ago. All of the other buildings are painted red and trimmed with white and neat as wax. The cider mill was built in 1870 as a barn and converted to a cider mill in 1890. It is part of the 217 acre farm. There are about nine acres of apples with about 300 apple trees, which are graded and sold by the peck and bushel.

Alber will tell you the best cider comes from the presses late in the fall—when the apples are good and cold. If the apples are good, you can expect about four gallons from bushel (50 pounds). Crates hold more than bushel baskets.

When Michael Alber first had his mill, there were many others in the area. All of the farmers had at least a few apple trees and there was a real demand for cider mills. They first had a steam engine for power for the presses. This gave way to the gasoline engine. And in 1928, when electricity first went through on Bethel Church Road, they immediately changed to electric power. When Albers grind their own apples—they do custom work, two-pickers in the orchard load the apples for cider on a truck which holds about 200 bushels of apples. They are taken to the mill, where they are put on a conveyor and carried through a water tank and washed. Then they are put in a grinder, which is electrically operated. The ground apples are carried down a chute to a hydraulic press, where the juice is squeezed out and pumped through a screen. The clear juice runs through a conductor to the mill basement and into waiting barrels.

Alber says the most cider he has processed is about 3,300 gallons a day. The average is about 2,000. They do a lot of custom grinding for orchards and customers who bring in tons of apples, such as a concern at Michigan Center which sells to the Jackson area. Work begins at sunup and takes until sundown to complete. Nothing is added to the pure apple juice. The farmer gets back the cider from the apples he brings and Alber can remember when he did it for 2 cents a gallon.

Patrolman Douglas D. Downing had been gunned down. Downing, an Ann Arbor native, was killed as he stepped through the rear door of the National Bank of Ypsilanti branch at 200 E. Downing, a seven-year veteran of the Ypsilanti police Department who just turned 37 Thursday, was responding to a silent alarm triggered during a robbery at the bank about 1:40 p.m. Friday. He was shot three times in the chest from close range. Downing is believed to be the first Ypsilanti police officer in recent history killed in the line of duty.

1024. Herbert Adolph¹⁰ Diuble (Adolph Friedrich⁹, Abraham⁸ Daeuble, Maria Dorothea⁷ Rinderknecht, Anna Margaretha⁶ Niethammer, Conrad⁵, Johann Jacob⁴, Johannes³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 14 May 1916 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 27 Aug 1998 in Tecumseh, Lenawee Co, Michigan. He married Louisa Barbara Herter 28 Jan 1939 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of George Herter and Laura Zahn. She was born 06 Mar 1916 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 09 Feb 2000 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Herbert Adolph Diuble:

Herb and Louisa Diuble began ambitiously when they married, back in 1939. They rented three farms on Waters Rd. and began the beef and dairy and crop operation that has been their living. They also built a family; four daughters and two sons. Now, looking back through the years, it must seem that they built a Diuble dynasty, based on good Washtenaw land, and good Washtenaw stock. By 1946, the couple had done well enough with their three rentals that they were able to buy the one they were living on. That spread, on Waters Rd., was the place where the young Diuble's were raised. Arlene, Ralph, Donna, and Donnie, the twins, and Nancy and Sharon. They all came up on the land, working alongside their father and mother—learning all about farming and livestock the “hands-on” way. They got their formal education in the Saline Area Schools. But they learned lots about life, and the rewards of hard work, on the farm. The Diuble's started building their beef and dairy herds at the very outset. They began with Hereford and Angus crossbred, buying calves and feeding them for market. Their dairy herd grew to 45 head of Holstein milkers. Then, in 1953, young Ralph earned Grand Champion honors with his Hereford entry in Steer Club competition at the Saline Community Fair. His animal sold at a really exciting price: 60 cents per pound! Ralph did it again in '54. Another Grand Champion Hereford, and another 60-cent bonanza for the young livestock feeder. Arlene followed in 1955. Grand Champ steer at the Fair. A few years later, in 1960, Nancy had her turn in the spotlight. Her beef entry took the winner's trophy as the best in the Steer Club Show. Donnie went the 4-H route, with the same results: A Grand Champ steer at the Washtenaw Achievement Show. A short horn Hereford cross took the trophy. Sharon followed in 1972. Another Saline Fair Grand Champ.

Donna went into sheep—and her Southdown entries were top winners or contenders on the Fair and 4-H circuits. The children's success at raising premium animals had a strong impact on the family. In 1968, the Diuble's sold off their dairy herd and moved into beef feeding all the way. Instead of going with the crossbreds, they concentrated on purebred Angus, the breed that Nancy and Sharon had scored with. They've prospered—but possibly their greatest satisfaction has come from the winning ways of their children—and now their grandchildren. This year, Ralph's son and daughter, David and Sally, mopped up top honors in beef competition at the Washtenaw 4-H Show, and then added more ribbons and trophies in the Steer Club judging at the Saline Community Fair. David had done well in 1984 with Reserve Champ at the Fair and in '85 with Reserve Champ steer and Grand Champ Market heifer at the County 4-H Show. There was one basic difference between their 1986 success story and that of their father back in the early '50s. Remember the 60-cent price that Ralph was paid? David's 4-H Grand Champ brought a cool $1.15 per pound. Sally's Saline Steer Club Grand Champion went for $3 per pound.

And the Dynasty will surely live on. Nancy, married to Steve Thelen, a businessman, in the Olivet area, has a career herself, as 4-H extension agent for Eaton County. The two of them have a two-year-old daughter, Renee. "Whenever we see her," says Herb proudly, "she tells me, 'Grandpa, I want a black cow!'" Sharon and her husband, Dan Vassen, make their home on the original Diuble spread on Waters Rd. They're expecting their first child next February, and the elder Diuble's won't be too surprised if the child grows up in the family fashion, working the farm and concentrating on beef cattle. Meanwhile, Herb and Louisa have moved to another farm home on Scio Church Rd. They continue to prosper—but occasionally they're reminded that livestock farming is a gambler's business, with a dash of danger thrown into the mix for excitement. In the midst of David's and Sally's triumph at the 4-H Fair, one of David's prize animals, the Grand Champion Market heifer, broke loose. Herb, holding the trophy for his grandson, tried to stop the animals. "It knocked me down and jumped right over me," Herb recalls. "I got a few aches and bruises, but at least I hung onto the trophy, and it didn't get a scratch." Herb and Louisa don't push themselves quite as hard as they did when they were a little younger. For almost a quarter-century, for instance, Herb has been pretty much the judge of which animals to buy in the cattle yards at Gaylord, for Saline Steer Club members' projects each year. "I may have to give it up," he says now. "It's getting awfully hard to choose good feeder stock." But he's out in his fields every day. Although he turned 70 last May, he's not about to stop farming. "good exercise," he says. "I wouldn't dare quit." He wants to be ready, when Renee and her young cousin come around for help on their first project animals!

Marriage Notes for Herbert Diuble and Louisa Herter:

Herbert A. Diuble, 22 years old, of Ann Arbor, came to the County Courthouse Tuesday morning Jan. 17, 1939 to get a marriage license and immediately was given a chance to work out its cost. Attorneys trying a case had exhausted a panel of 30 jurors, with three places still to be filled. As Deputy Sheriff Erwin Klager went in search of a fresh supply of talesmen, he saw Diuble and drafted him along with five others. Conscripted into the jury box before he even had a chance to get his license, Diuble slatted earning an unexpected $4 a day. It was the first time in a year and a half, court officials said, that the regular panel had been exhausted. Diuble got his license at the jury's noon recess. He will marry Louise B. Herter, 22, of Route Four, Ann Arbor.

Miss Louisa Herter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Herter of Scio Church Road, and Herbert Diuble, of Ellsworth Road, were united in marriage by Rev. Arthur Wacker at a double ring ceremony at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon January 28, 1939, at the Scio Lutheran Church.

Miss Herter chose a white embroidered marquisette frock with which she wore a short tulle veil and carried Johanna Hill roses. She was attended by Miss Erma Luckhardt of Lodi Township as maid of honor, wearing pink taffeta, and by two bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Diuble, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Margaret Larmee of West Liberty Road, both wearing aquamarine net. All carried harmonizing noses. Katherine Gartman of Freedom Township as flower girl wore aqua blue taffeta and carried a basket of rose petals. Elmer Diuble assisted his brother as best man and the ushers were three cousins of the bride, Walter, Paul and Erwin Herter, and a cousin of the bridegroom, Raymond Diuble.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herter after the ceremony. The couple will live on and Waters Road.

Notes for Steven Lee Diuble:

Sept. 9, 1994 - Trigger is at the top of his game. No Australian terrier has won more in the United States this year than he has. Champion The Farm's Trigger Happy, a 3-year-old owned by handler Steve Diuble of Saline and breeder Sheila Dunn of Grass Lake, beat 14 champions in breed at the Westminster Kennel Club Show at Madison Square Garden in February. Trigger, who stands 11 inches tall and weighs 18 pounds, is competing Saturday in the Saginaw Valley Kennel Club All-Breed Dog Show & Obedience Trial and Sunday in the Livonia Kennel Club All-Breed Dog Show & Obedience Trial. Diuble can't say enough about the blue and tan terrier: "Trigger's an ambassador for the breed. He's got a wonderful temperament. He's very loving and affectionate, outgoing and sensible. He's a fun show dog, He's very animated in the ring, but not hyperactive." Trigger's also being worked in obedience by Dunn, and Diuble said he will compete for a Companion Dog obedience title next year.

Diuble and Dunn also own Trigger's dad, Champion The Farm's Free Style, the nation's top Australian terrier in 1989-90. Freebie, 9, has sired 25 champions. "This is a big dog in a small package," Diuble said of the breed. "They're very adaptable. They can live in an apartment or on a farm. They require minimum grooming and are a very sturdy, healthy breed on the whole. They live 12 to 16 years." The standard was established in 1896 in Australia, where it is a working breed. "They controlled rodents and killed snakes there," said Diuble, who is publicity chairman of the Ann Arbor Kennel Club and the accounting manager for First of America Bank. Australian terriers were recognized by the American Kennel Club in 1960 and are judged in the Terrier Group. American Kennel Club statistics show only 36 dogs and 17 litters were registered in 1994.

Margaret was a member of the Oak Harbor High School graduating class of 1939. Following high school, Margaret went to work for the phone company as an operator. A young soldier from Michigan, Emerson Jedele, was working at Fort Casey with the Signal Corps, and he was the switchboard operator for the fort. He talked with Margaret on a regular basis and on one of his liberty days, he visited Oak Harbor and looked up Margaret. Margaret introduced Emerson to her parents and her father took an immediate liking to Emerson. Romance ensued and on June 3, 1943, Margaret and Emerson were married. Margaret began her career in Oak Harbor when she was hired by Ray Cusworth at Everett Trust and Savings Bank to work as a teller. She advanced through the various positions within the bank and the various mergers, moving from Everett Trust to Pacific Northwest Bank and finally to Wells Fargo. She retired from banking as a secretary with more than 30 years of service.

Margaret and Emerson became lifelong members of Oak Harbor Lutheran Church. Margaret eventually held every office within Oak Harbor Lutheran Church and also taught confirmation class for many years. She also became one of the earliest members of the Stephen's Ministers at Church. She was very active within the community, serving as a longtime member of the Business and Professional Women's Organization. She was even nominated for Citizen of the Year for Oak Harbor. Margaret was a very gifted seamstress, producing tailor quality work. She also was an accomplished organist and pianist. Margaret moved to Mount Vernon six years ago to be near her daughter.

Margaret is survived by her children, Coriene (Donald) DeVries of Sedro Woolley and Keith (Donna) Jedele of San Antonio, Texas; by one brother John "Jim" Ronhaar and one sister Doris Nyhoff, both of Oak Harbor; and one sister-in-law Beatrice Ronhaar of Lynden. Unionville Girl Learns to Fly in Single Day

"What is believed to be a world's record in learning to fly a four-passenger plane was marked up Monday at Sebewaing Township airport by Miss Lois Strieter, 20, of Unionville. Miss Strieter started her training at 7:50 o'clock in the morning under the guidance of Franklin O. Hofmeister, airport manager. At 5:30 o'clock the same evening she made her first solo flight after only 6 hours and 6 minutes of student training. According to officials at the airport, there have been numerous solo flights in smaller planes after one-day training flights, but there is no record showing a solo in a four-place plane in such a brief training. In learning to fly, Miss Strieter made 50 lands on the runway in a Piper four-place plane before making her solo flight. In order to obtain a private license, Miss Strieter must now clock 25 hours of solo flying and five hours of dual cross country flight

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Strieter, of Unionville, Miss Strieter had never before had any flight training and before Monday had been up in a plane only a few times. To show that flight training is not too strenuous, Miss Strieter left the flying field to play an evening soft-ball game with a girls team of which she is a member."

Notes for Walter Frederick Horning:

Horning, Walter F. Died peacefully January 7, at age 96. Born August 15, 1910 on a farm on Ellsworth Rd., Walter (Pork) moved to town as a boy with his German immigrant parents, Samuel and Anna. He learned English in kindergarten and at the YMCA, his second home. He graduated from Ann Arbor High and the U of M, then worked his entire career at King-Seeley/Chrysler. In 1940, Walter married Ruth Mitchell, which, as he liked to tell everyone, was the smartest thing he ever did. She lives on.

The couple has four children: Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy); 10 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren. Walter's younger brother, Bob, lives in Florida. Athletics were a big part of Pork's life. He played fast pitch softball locally, and twice earned All-America honors in volleyball for men over 35. He was the PA announcer for Pioneer High football games for many years, and worked for the UM athletic department for 58 years, selling and taking tickets for just about every sport, until age 93.

He was an active, life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church. Walter was a great man, loved life, and was a wonderful model for those of us who were fortunate to live with him so many years. Visitation will be at Muehlig's Funeral Home on Wednesday, January 10, 3-7 p.m., and from 12-1 p.m. on Thursday at Zion Lutheran Church, 1501 W. Liberty St. in Ann Arbor, immediately preceding the funeral at Zion. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Arbor Hospice or Lutheran Social Services of Michigan.

She was in 4H, the National Honor Society in High School, and attended Cleary College. Ruth worked for Detroit Edison for three years before marrying Walter Horning in 1940. He was a coach for the Pfeiffer fast-pitch softball team on which she played second base, and was state champions in 1942.

Ruth leaves behind four sons, Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy), and a brother, Dwigh Mitchell. Her husband died in 2007, and her older siblings, Bill, Betty, and Tom, have also died. Walter and Ruth have ten grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren. She was active at Zion Lutheran Church, taught Sunday School and Bible class, loved gardening, reading, sports, travel, and, most of all, her family. And her family loved her. Better mothers or grandmothers don't exist. She was quietly happy, stable, consistent, hard-working, and witty to the end. Add another hundred positive adjectives and they would all fit. Now add another descriptive - missed.

Visitation will be Thursday, August 2 from 5-9 pm and Friday from 10-11 a.m. at Zion Lutheran Church. The memorial service will be Friday 11am at Zion, 1501 W. Liberty St. Ann Arbor, In lieu of flowers, donations are requested to be given to Zion Lutheran Church or Arbor Hospice.

Julius Theodore¹¹ Feldkamp (Mary Katherine¹⁰ Cook, Johann Jacob⁹ Koch, Maria Catharina⁸ Niethammer, Johann Georg⁷, Johann Jacob⁶, Johann Georg⁵, Johann Conrad⁴, Georg³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 02 Oct 1893 in York Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 28 Jul 1983 in Plymouth, Wayne Co, Michigan. He married Adeline Louise (Addie) Laflin 29 Jun 1915 in Ypsilanti, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Horace Laflin and Amelia Smith. She was born 08 Sep 1889 in Michigan, and died 29 Aug 1972 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Julius Theodore Feldkamp:

Saline, Michigan, Feb. 12, 1932 - A lone robber who held up a Saline grocery store and then marched the proprietor, deputy sheriff and two other persons up the street and into another grocery store where he staged a second holdup was being sought Friday by Washtenaw county deputies and state police. Shortly after 7 o'clock Thursday night the robber entered the first grocery store and at the point of a revolver ordered the proprietor to throw up his hands. The proprietor, Julius Feldkamp, did so quickly. Turning to the stove in one end of the store, the bandit saw three other men. One was Deputy Sheriff Melvin Alber. The others were Mr. Alber's father, J. A. Alber and a vagrant who had entered the store to get warm.

All four men were ordered to lie down on the floor while the robber scooped about $30 from the cash register. Then he ordered his prisoners to stand up and quietly herded them out of the door and down the street, forcing them to turn into the second grocery establishment. Here he lined the four men and Fred Gruenwald and Waldo Gross, clerks, up against the wall while he emptied the cash register of $25.38. He then turned and walked out of the store and disappeared. He was described as being about 35 years old and about five feet six inches tall.

Marriage Notes for Hazel Cook and Oscar Weber:

Mrs. Hazel Easton and Oscar Weber, both of Saline, were united in marriage Friday evening, Nov. 26, 1954, at the home of the bride's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Bersuder. To the strain of the wedding march from Lohengrin, the bridal party took their places before the fireplace, beautifully decorated with yellow and white mums. Harold Easton of Tecumseh gave his mother in marriage. Rev. Alvin Siemsen performed the double ring ceremony. Two songs, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung during the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bradbury of Dexter, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, attended the couple. The bride was beautifully gowned in an antique rose nylon and taffeta street length dress with black accessories. She wore a rhinestone and pearl choker, matching earrings and bracelet and a corsage of white rosebuds. Mrs. Bradbury wore a teal blue, crepe street length dress with black accessories and a corsage of white mums.

A reception followed the ceremony and the punch was served by Marjorie Bradbury, a niece of the bride. A buffet lunch was served. Mrs. Lee Ormsby, Norfolk, Virginia, another niece of the bride, presided at the coffee service. Mrs. Clarence Cook and Mrs. Martha Dietiker cut the wedding cake. Others assisting with the serving were Mrs. Loren Bersuder and Mrs. Hazel Easton. Linda Kay Easton, granddaughter of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. The couple spent a weekend trip in Lansing and Kalamazoo after which they are residing at 109 North Lewis Street. They expect to go South at a later date. Mrs. Weber chose for traveling a light navy blue suit with burgundy accessories and she wore her wedding corsage.

The farthest to come to the party also was a "surprise," as oldest son Gary and his wife Angie flew in from Incline Village, Nevada, making stops in Flagstaff, Phoenix, and Atlanta along the way before landing in Detroit. "They were picked up by my son, Lynn of Ann Arbor, and bedded down for the night," said Al, now a resident of Ann Arbor. "I had to work on the 25th, so I took care of rototilling the garden and mowing the lawn. We got such good 'service' and food at the party, I made reservations for May 25, 2015, ten years down the bumpy road."

Tema Haab, age 99 was called home by her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Sunday, December 26, 2021 at the Henry Ford Allegiance Hospice Home in Jackson, Michigan. Tema, born July 5, 1922, was the third of nine children born to Charles Kohler and Matilda (Boettger) Kohler. Tema developed a love of reading at an early age, and after graduating from Saline High School in 1941, she earned her teaching certificate from Normal College. She began her long teaching career in country schools. During World War II, she served her country by assembling the B-24 Liberator military aircraft at the Willow Run Bomber Plant and was proud to be a Rosie the Riveter. On August 24, 1944 she married her loving husband Waldemar George Haab. Together for sixty-one years, they built a beautiful home and family in Ann Arbor Michigan. Tema furthered her education by obtaining her Bachelor of Science and Masters Degree in Reading from Eastern Michigan University, and published a book in 1969 entitled, "Individualized Reading – First Grade Language Arts Program". She went on to teach the first grade for 40 years and was considered an expert on how to teach a child to read.

She was baptized in the Holy Spirit and confirmed in the Lutheran faith. She was a lifelong member of St. Thomas Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor, Michigan where she was active in the Ladies Aid and Altar Guild. Despite being busy with her career and family, she always took the time to visit with the elderly or sick, and sent out many cards and notes. She led a very active social life attending ice cream socials, euchre parties, church functions, country school events and family events with her brothers and sisters. She traveled to several places in the United States and Europe. Many folks stopped by or honked when they drove by Wally and Tema's house. She had an interest in family genealogy and during her later years she continued to enjoy her love of reading. She had a beautiful spirit and will be missed dearly by her family and friends.

Social Security Number: 537-36-1264

Marriage Notes for Woodard Niethammer and Marilyn Rehn:

Four hundred guests were in attendance as Miss Marilyn Dianna Rehn entered Central Lutheran Church Saturday June 1, 1963 to become the bride of Woodard Avery Niethammer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rehn of Gig Harbor and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Woodard A. Niethammer. The Rev. Carl E. Lucky officiated before an altar made beautiful with white floral bouquets and candelabra.

The white motif was further carried out with the costumes of the bride and her attendants, colorful bouquets of red roses elegantly accenting the gowns' simplicity. The bride was lovely in a classically styled gown of bloom silk appliquéd with Alençon lace in a scroll and floral pattern. Seed pearls trimmed the bodice, which was designed with a crescent-shaped décolletage and long sleeves, tapered at the wrists. The full-length skirt, also trimmed with applique lace, extended into a chapel-length train.

On her head, the bride wore a pearl medallion to which was gathered a veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses in a sunburst design. Sentiment was provided in the antique handkerchief which she carried and which had belonged to a grandmother.

Miss Marsha Nixon was maid of honor. Mesdames Kurt Corey, Ed Bevis, Glen Vannoy, Lee Pierson and Lowell Smith, the latter the twin sister of the bridegroom, were attendants. All were gowned in white crystalline peau made with fitted bodices and bell-shaped skirts. Their red roses were arranged in colonial nose-gays. Born in Brooklyn, New York, in 1926 to Marion and Owen Groves, Charlotte was raised in Garden City, New York, where her father was a professor at Adelphi University. She spent her summers with her parents in South Hero, Vermont, a place she returned to every year for nearly all her life. More than anything, Charlotte loved being at the shore, and she and Stan spent many happy summers welcoming friends and family to their home on Long Beach Island. The fun only grew as her grandchildren got older and could join her in rounds of fantan, her favorite card game, after a day in the sun.

1593. Nathan Allan¹¹ Alber (Nathanael Oscar¹⁰, Mary Christina⁹ Diuble, Abraham⁸ Daeuble, Maria Dorothea⁷ Rinderknecht, Anna Margaretha⁶ Niethammer, Conrad⁵, Johann Jacob⁴, Johannes³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 19 Mar 1930 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 21 Jan 2007 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Ann Iona Way 23 Aug 1952 in Manchester, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 31 Mar 1930 in Pittsford, Hillsdale Co, Michigan.

Notes for Nathan Allan Alber:

Nathan A. (Al) and Ann Alber, Manchester: The Alber family settled in Freedom Twp. in June of 1855. Being of German heritage they were farmers who grew grains, forage and raised livestock. They also managed an orchard and cider mill. Horses powered the mill. In 1981 John M. Alber, my great grandfather purchased 75 acres from Jason Gillet. This was sold to my grandfather Michael P. Alber in December of 1887. He then installed a (modern) cider mill powered by a steam engine in 1890. This was replaced by a gasoline engine in 1911 and electricity in 1927. The 75 acres was then passed down in turn, to Nathan O. in 1938 to Nathan A. in 1973 (was certified a centennial farm in 1987) and to Michael A. Alber in 1992. Michael A. in 1998 chose to pursue other interests and sold the property. Ann and I still live on the farm by Silver Lake that was purchased by my grandfather in 1901, (certified a centennial farm in 2001). We have enjoyed our life together her. We have seen many changes over the years, perhaps the most significant of which was the transition from horses to the tractors of today. The advent of hybrid seeds and the use of chemicals for weed and insect control also made life on the farm easier and more profitable. I regret the seeming necessity of government farm subsidies and believe that they are destroying the values that were so prized by previous generations.

Alber, Nathan A. (Al), Born March 19, 1930 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw County, MI passed away January 21, 2007. The son of Nathan O. and Emma K. (Schlicht) Alber. Al married Anna I. Way on August 23, 1952 and she survives, also survived by two children, Pamela S. Hughes and Michael A. Alber, as well as six grandchildren: Daniel, Andrea, Michelle, Emily, Alisha and Philip.

He was a life-long member of the Emanuel United Church of Christ, life member of the NRA. He lived and worked until retirement in 1992 on the family farm in Freedom Twp. Al also owned and operated Alber Orchard and Cider Mill, first with his parents, then with his wife and children. Al served on the board of directors of Union Savings Bank and Freedom Twp, board of review. After retiring Mr. Alber also was a part-time hourly employee of Pioneer HI-BRED Inc.

Cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be held on May 12, 2007. Private interment Oak Grove Cemetery, Manchester. Memorial donations may be made to "Dutchmen fire-fighters". Arrangements entrusted to Borek Jennings Funeral Home, Jenter Chapel.

She married (1) Stanley Dyer, Jr. 26 Jul 1963 in Chelsea, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; born Aft. 1935. She married (2) William Ronald Prather 06 Apr 1968 in Arizona; born 14 Nov 1942 in Arkansas.

Marriage Notes for Nancy Carter and Stanley Dyer:

Nancy Lee Carter and Stanley A. Dyer, Jr., exchanged wedding vows during a candlelight service at St. Paul's United Church of Christ at 7 o'clock Friday evening July 26, 1963. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Pau M. Schnake in the presence of approximately 150 guests. The traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Carl Mayer. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Julius Blaess of N. Fletcher Rd., and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Dyer, Sr., of E. Summit St. The bride's floor-length gown was of white silk organza with a slightly .scooped neckline and long sleeves. Lace was used for a yolk on the bodice and front panels on the skirt. The lace was trimmed with iridescent sequins. Wide folds at the back of the skirt gave a bustle effect and extended to form a chapel train. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a small crown trimmed with seed pearls. The bride carried a white Bible with a flower arrangement which included a white orchid and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom.

Patricia Carter, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her street-length- dress was of mint green taffeta with white lace covering the entire bodice. Back interest was provided by a large bow at the waistline. Her head-piece was fashioned of matching taffeta to simulate flower petals and secured her tiny circular veil. A bouquet of white roses and white baby carnations completed her ensemble. Carol Dancer and Linda Koengeter, former classmates of the bride, were bridesmaids. They were gowned like the maid of honor, their bouquets, however, being of all white baby carnations. Judith Blaess, sister of the bride, and Vickie Sager, a niece of the bridegroom were flower girls. Carrying out the green and white color theme of the wedding, they wore white organdy dresses with mint green, sashes.

The bride's mother wore lime colored silk sheath dress with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother, in royal blue chiffon, chose black patent accessories. She also had a corsage of gardenias. Tim Whitesall of Chelsea and Jim Millis of Webberville, served as usher, while Jerry Abdon, also of Chelsea, assisted the bridegroom as best man.

At the reception which followed in the church hall, the bride's cousin, Linda Blaess, cut the wedding cake; Mary Ann Hanson poured punch; Sue Lofquist poured coffee; and Linda Jacob was in charge of the guest book. Following the reception at the church, a party was given by the bridegroom's parents at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lake. When the couple left for a week-end trip to the western part of the state, the bride was wearing a coral linen suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. They are now residing at 233 Jefferson St. The bride is a graduate of Chelsea High School and attended Michigan State University at East Lansing. She is employed at Chelsea Drug Store. The bridegroom who is manager of the Sun Oil Co. service station at Fleteher Rd. and 1-94, is also a graduate of Chelsea High School and attended Michigan State University. Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from Ann Arbor, Jackson and Lansing and from points in Ohio and New Jersey. Pre-nuptial parties for the bride included two-showers, one given by Mrs. Beverly Sager and Mrs. Ernest Norman and one by Carol Dancer.

Defying odds only a mathematician could appreciate, a trio of Saline area cousins stood the proverbial stork on end at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor last week.

He was baptized and confirmed at St. Paul United Church of Christ in Saline. He graduated from Ann Arbor High School in 1941. He met Elizabeth (Betty) Blaess at the Pittsfield Grange and they were married at Bethlehem United Church of Christ in Ann Arbor on November 24, 1945, where he remains a member.

Ronald Elmer¹¹ Diuble (Elmer Ernest¹⁰, Adolph Friedrich⁹, Abraham⁸ Daeuble, Maria Dorothea⁷ Rinderknecht, Anna Margaretha⁶ Niethammer, Conrad⁵, Johann Jacob⁴, Johannes³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 22 Dec 1947. He married Peggy Ann Winter 07 Jun 1969 in Petersburg, daughter of Arnold Winter. She was born 10 Jun 1948.

Notes for Ronald Elmer Diuble:

Lodi Twp, Michigan, Jan. 27, 2002 - The guys at Diuble Equipment and Peg Diuble, too don't feel like they're on the endangered species list Yes, in 1940 there were 14 farm equipment dealerships 'in Washtenaw County, and now there are three left the kind that sell big tractors and harvesting equipment, not just suburban lawn mowers. It's true that 24,049 acres went out of agricultural production in Washtenaw County between 1987 and 1997. But those statistics don't spell doom to three generations of Diubles (pronounced "Di-blees). With a ready grin, a Diuble Equipment cap pushed slightly back over his white hair, Elmer Diuble, 80, leans on the counter inside the Lodi Township store and repair shop. He looks forward to dozens of familiar faces and the chance to chew the fat about good hay-baling weather, the relatively poor soybean crop, or his view that the U.S. needs to rely on its own farmers for food considering the recent terrorist attacks.

He founded the company 34 years ago. Now his son Ron Diuble, daughter-in-law Peg and three grandsons, Scott, Mike and Kevin Diuble, run the business. And business is good, they say. Judging by loyal customers such as George Schnierle - he's stopped by to check on the new $135,000 combine he ordered - area farmers, along with more recent country dwellers, are buying enough to keep this venerable family business a going concern. Used tractors in faded oranges and reds stake but the boundaries of the gravel lot around the business. But the gleaming Agco tractors with 6-foot wheels and air-conditioned cabs near the door tell you this place is headquarters for 21st century farmers, not a sentimental resting place for vintage machines.

Looking beyond the tall signs announcing that Bobcat, Hesston, Simplicity and six other lines of agricultural equipment are sold here, you can see the neat white farmhouse where Elmer Diuble has lived and farmed since 1956. He still goes to work daily. Richard Miller stopped in recently to buy $61 worth of baler twine. He lives in Dexter and farms near Grass Lake, but he'll often swing south to the big steel building. "I'll go out of my way to come here for parts, because they'll usually have them," he says. Schnierle's new combine is the fifth he's bought from the Diubles. At 69, Schnierle farms 380 acres and does 900 acres of custom work around Washtenaw County. "They always keep you moving," he says. Take the day he called Diuble 40 minutes before the store's closing time when his equipment broke down.

"They brought me the gear to the field," he says. Past filters, oil, generators and riding mowers, customers swivel on three padded stools at the counter, where they can josh with one another as they look for parts in catalogs or plunk down a mower blade needing repair. A lot of information gets swapped here. "I really like these guys," says Mark McCullough, who has a tractor from his landscaping business being repaired. "I don't go anywhere else for the services and products they provide." On this day, he's giving the staff a good-natured hard time: His tractor's not ready. The Diubles are giving him a loaner. "It's like a small-town type of atmosphere," says McCullough.

"We've got over 100 years of experience, total," Elmer Diuble says. He's got 61. In 1940, he began selling farm equipment at Ann Arbor Implement. "I helped sell horse-drawn equipment when I started," he says. Now his youngest grandson, Kevin Diuble, 27, is Diuble Equipment's resident electronics technician for complex, versatile tractors and harvesters' farmers now use. Agco's biggest combines list at $235,000. Diuble sells about four a year. The company also gets an important chunk of its income from the increasing demand for smaller equipment: riding lawn mowers, Bobcat snow sweeper-road scrapers and the like. But its core business still is with farmers. Some come from Lenawee and Monroe counties. Ron Diuble heads the operation. But you'd never know it, says his dad, because he's not tucked away in his cramped office. "We have no dead wood here," Elmer Diuble says. Peg, Ron's wife, has kept the books for the business for nearly a dozen years. But Elmer Diuble says he left it up to his offspring to decide whether they wanted to work in the family business. "They all had a trial job elsewhere," he says. Customers can order "Field-star" on-board computers that measure yields from different parts of the field during harvesting and record differing moisture levels. The information helps farmers tailor fertilizer amounts for next year. Mike Score thinks he knows why the Diubles' business is surviving.

"They focus on building relationships with customers and then maintaining them." Score, the agricultural agent for Washtenaw County-Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service, says Elmer Diuble is one of a handful of veteran farmers who know the farms and families of the area. "He is a walking history book of farming in Washtenaw County." Elmer Diuble was raised about a mile from the business he founded. On the farm that his great-grandfather bought in 1835, Elmer grew up speaking German at home. Almost everyone he knew was part of Lodi's German farm community. "I can speak German even today," he says. He learned arithmetic at Blaess School, the one-room schoolhouse that still stands, which the Saline Area Historical Society plans to move and preserve. Diuble enjoys the status of wise community elder, talking at the store counter to sons and grandsons of people he's known all his life. "We talk about anything and everything, the crops and the yields," he says. "We talk about the good and the bad." He comes most days to the dealership because otherwise, he says, "I get bored. The only time I don't get bored is when I'm working on the farm." Soon he'll be harvesting soybeans on his farm next door and on land he leases, except for some help hauling from his 75-year-old brother. Washtenaw County has 150,000 acres in agricultural production. Those acres have soils that won't perk for septic fields, Score says, so they're likely to remain crop and grazing land. "We're not on our deathbed as an agricultural economy, and that's why Diuble is still selling farm equipment."

She excitedly awaits the birth of her first grandchild in summer 2017.

Geradine Simkins is a midwife, writer, activist, and visionary who passionately provided midwifery care in a variety of settings for over thirty years. She has dedicated her work years to maternal and child health, women's healthcare in Northern Michigan, and serving marginalized people in community-based programs, such as American Indians and migrant farm workers. While Geradine has been a midwifery leader in her own community and region, she also spent two decades in national midwifery leadership as President of the Board of Directors of the Midwives Alliance of North America (MANA), as MANA's first Executive Director, as a member of many national maternal and child health coalitions, as an expert consultant for the National Institutes of Health (NIH), and as a member of the Governing Council of the International Confederation of Midwives.

Geradine travels the world making connections and forging partnerships. She also travels to have fun and to meet new friends. Geradine is the proud mother of three amazing homeborn, homegrown children who are now adults working to make the world a better place.

At the Greenhouse Birth Center in Okemos Michigan. On New Year's Day of 2007 Geradine woke up with the inspiration for this anthology. Someone whispered in her ear that it was time to write this book. She made lists of eligible midwives from across the country whose life stories she would like to collect. There were over one hundred. She sent out invitations to a few dozen people and began the meticulous work of collecting, organizing and editing the narratives written by each midwife/author. The skills she had honed in her consulting business—qualitative research, interviewing, report and grant writing, authorship and oral presentations, curriculum development—all served her well.

Geradine then gently but firmly shepherded each author into telling her life story and crafting and re-crafting each memoir to be accessible and interesting to a mainstream readership. She hired a professional editor (Max Regan) to assist her in the process of refining and editing the anthology. After 4 years of concentrated effort it all came together in an elegant and cohesive package published by Spirituality & Health. In addition to managing the entire project from conception to fruition, Geradine has written several sections for the anthology included the Opening, Introduction, her own memoir, the Afterword, and Resources. Into These Hands, Wisdom from Midwives © is Geradine's most impressive published work to date.

He married Georgena Katherine (Gena) Lirette 15 Apr 1950 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of George Lirette and Elsa Stoll. She was born 12 Dec 1929 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 19 Dec 2009 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Leon Ernest Niethammer:

Leon Ernest Niethammer of Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 84, passed away on Thursday, February 10th, 2011 at Arbor Hospice. Leon was born in 1926 in Ann Arbor to Ernest and Selma (Finkbeiner) Niethammer. He married Georgena Lirette in 1950 and they had 59 years of life together before her passing in December 2009. Leon was a lifelong resident of Ann Arbor, graduating from Ann Arbor High School in 1944. After a two-year stint in the Navy Air Corps, he enrolled and graduated from Cleary College. Leon worked for 7-Up Bottling Company for 38 years until his retirement in 1988. That same year he began work at Ed's Bread as the delivery person and bakery helper and worked there until his 80th birthday, at which time he felt he was "too old" to work anymore. Others thought differently, and in 2007 he was hired to work the Ed's Bread booth at Saline Farmers' Market, where he worked until December 2010. Leon was a life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church, where he gave much of his time and energy, by serving on the building and grounds committee, and money counting committee. He sat in the same pew every Sunday until his illness. Leon was well-loved by all who knew him. His gruff exterior hid the softness inside. He was there for all of his family helping them in many ways. He will be greatly missed, but the memory of his oft-repeated statements will live on in all of us.

Leon is survived by his three daughters, Leslee Niethammer (David Rhoads), Judy (Ron Schinske) and Sandie Niethammer (Thom Byrd); six granddaughters, Amanda Schinske (Bob Whitmore), Katie Schinske (Matt Sebolt), Emily Schinske, Veronica Schinske, Greta Niethammer, Hannah Niethammer; and three great grandsons, Noah Sebolt, Adam Sebolt and Isaac Whitmore. Leon has a surviving sister, Helen Shelley and sisters-in-law, Beverly Kirsh and Doris Niethammer. Many Finkbeiner, Stoll and Niethammer cousins, including his special friend and cousin-in-law Ron Mason, survive him. Cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be at Zion Lutheran Church, 1501 W. Liberty, in Ann Arbor on Tuesday, February 22, 2011 at 11 a.m. where the family will receive visitors at 10 a.m. Pastor Barry Ludwig will officiate. Memorial contributions can be made to Zion Lutheran Church or to Arbor Hospice.

Notes for Georgena Katherine (Gena) Lirette:

Georgena Katherine (Lirette) Niethammer of Ann Arbor, Michigan, passed away on Saturday, December 19, 2009 at her home. Gena was born in 1929 in Ann Arbor, Michigan to George and Elsa (Stoll) Lirette and celebrated her 80th birthday this month. She married Leon Ernest Niethammer in 1950 and they had 59 years of life together. Gena worked outside the home until the birth of her daughters and then devoted her time to raising and playing with her girls. Gena was a lifelong resident of Ann Arbor and a member of Zion Lutheran Church, where she and Leon gave much of their time and energy. Family was the center of her life and many good times were enjoyed at Sugar Loaf Lake and other gatherings. Gena was quite creative and enjoyed crocheting and crafting, when she wasn't shopping. The shopping trips resulted in summer garage sales, which made for animated discussions with Leon and her cousin Ron Mason, who did all the heavy lifting.

Gena is survived by her husband Leon; her daughters, Leslee Niethammer (David Rhoads), Judy (Ron Schin-ske), and Sandie Niethammer (Thom Byrd); six grand-daughters, Amanda Schinske (Bob Whitmore), Katie Schin-ske (Matt Sebolt), Emily Schinske, Veronica Schinske, Greta Niethammer, Hannah Niethammer; and two great-grandsons, Noah Sebolt and Isaac Whitmore. Gena also has a surviving sister, Beverly Kirsh and many cousins.

Cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be held at Zion Lutheran Church, 1501 W. Liberty, in Ann Arbor on Tuesday, January 5, 2010 at 11am. Visitation with family is at 10am at the church. Pastor Mike Walters will officiate. Gena loved flowers, but she would be pleased to know that a contribution was made to Zion Lutheran Church or to Arbor Hospice in her memory.

Marriage Notes for Erwin Wild and Pearl Wackenhut:

Pearl and Erwin Wild, longtime Bridgewater residents, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a special party given in their honor last Sunday Sept. 1986. The event, held at Travis Pointe Country Club and attended by more than 100 well-wishers, was hosted by the couple's children, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Rentschler and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wild, and grandchildren, Scott and Greg Rentschler, and Connie, Brian, Mary, Amy and Jean Wild. The festive affair, which included special remembrances by friends and family, was emceed by Robert Feldkamp and featured musical entertainment by Lawrence Wackenhut and David Dettling. Harold Wild, the groom's brother and best man at the wedding, delivered a toast at the celebration, which also was attended by wedding party members Esther Feldkamp, Della Sell, Barbara Behnke, and Doris Burmeister. Eleanor Linke, a musician at the wedding 50 years ago, was unable to attend Sunday's event due to illness. Pastor Dennis Falk presented the invocation at the event, which was capped off by the singing of "I Love You Truly," a poignant song also featured on the Wilds' wedding day. Pearl, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wackenhut, and Erwin, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wild, were wed September 12, 1936 in the Saline Township home of the bride's parents.

The newlyweds, who delayed their honeymoon a day to help "clean up" after the reception, then departed with $60 in hand for a week's honeymoon to Niagara Falls. Mrs. Wild was employed by Ypsilanti Regional Psychiatric Hospital for 12 years, while her husband previously owned a general service garage in Bridgewater before retiring from Ford Motor Co. The Wilds, who enjoy a wealth of friends in the Saline area, have resided in Bridgewater throughout their marriage.

Notes for Frederick J. Schmid:

Ann Arbor, July 21, 2000 - When B. J. Zahn was growing up, he worried a little bit every time his father left to begin his shift as an Ann Arbor firefighter. Now, it's his dad's turn to fret. That's because B.J. Zahn is following in his father's footsteps, just as his father did and his grandfather before that. It's a family affair that spans 84 years. Besides being a fourth-generation Ann Arbor firefighter, B.J. Zahn is also the fourth Benjamin John Zahn to wear an Ann Arbor firefighter's badge. Although having four generations at the same department is unusual, the tradition of father and son firefighters is common across the country, said Michelle Snider, executive assistant with the Michigan Professional Firefighters Union.

"I think that as boys and some girls grow up, Daddy is a hero in their eyes and they want to be like Daddy," Snider said. "It's very common in this profession." Ben Zahn Sr. was the first Ann Arbor firefighter in the family. He was hired in 1916 and served as the chief from 1935 until his retirement in 1955. Then came Ben Jr., who was hired in 1953 and retired in 1981 as deputy fire marshall. B. John Zahn was the third generation when he began working with his father in 1971. He retired in December as an assistant chief. B.J. Zahn picked up the tradition when he was hired in March. "We're a close-knit family and we've all been proud of what our fathers did," John Zahn said. "I tried to stay out of it, for B.J. and just let him make his own decision, and of course I'm proud of the decision he made."

Ten current Ann Arbor firefighters are the sons of retired Ann Arbor firefighters. And many more Ann Arbor firefighters have sons on other departments or are the sons of firefighters in different cities. B.J. Zahn said Ann Arbor was the only place he applied because he wanted to keep the tradition alive. "There's nowhere else I want to be," said the 23-year-old Zahn. "This is something I've always wanted to try. I wasn't sure I wanted to make it my career until I got in, and now it's my life. There's nothing else I'd want to do." But firefighting sons admit that it can be a little intimidating at first to follow in their father's footsteps. John Zahn remembers that well, which was one reason he decided to retire as his son was coming on board. John Zahn worked under his father for a decade. "I spent the first 10 years trying not to embarrass my dad. After he left, I was able to be my own person a little more," said Zahn, 50. "It's a little difficult to be compared to your forefathers."

Battalion Chief Tom Schmid was hired on as "Chief Fred Schmid's son" in 1977. He couldn't shake that label for years, even after his father retired in 1985. Upon the elder Schmid's retirement, Tom became "Retired Chief Fred Schmid's son." "We had a little back and forth thing going. I kept telling him, 'One day, I won't be retired Chief Fred Schmid's son. I'll just be me,' " said Tom Schmid, 43. Tom and Fred Schmid both remember that day. Several younger firefighters visited Stadium Hardware one afternoon, where Fred Schmid was working part-time. He was introduced to the group as "Battalion Chief Tom Schmid's dad." He immediately called his son. "I told him right away and he said, 'Well, it's about time,' " Fred Schmid said. Schmid was surprised when his son ended up in the same department. Tom told his dad he wanted to be a firefighter but didn't say where he had applied. When Ann Arbor had openings, the personnel department sent Fred Schmid a hiring list and Tom Schmid's name was at the top. "I called the administrator right away and said, 'What do I do here? That's my son's name,' " Fred Schmid said. Tom Schmid's 16-year-old son, Adam, recently decided he wants to follow in his father's footsteps too. He's part of the fire department's Explorers program. "I wasn't too surprised because he's been around it since he was born," Tom Schmid said.

Joseph Mohler Mast passed away peacefully on May 30, 2019 at the age of 87. Joe was born on June 19, 1931 to Herman and Gertrude Mast in Washington, DC. He was an incorrigible kid and was sent to Randolph-Macon Military Academy in the 8th grade, which he believed was a decision that guided the direction of his life. He was a Battalion Commander his 5th year, which was the highest level attainable.

After attending Randolph-Macon College for 1 1/2 years, he joined the Coast Guard spending more than three years overseas on Palawan Island of the South Pacific.

Joe met his wife Lois on a blind date and they were married September 3, 1955. Following his time in the Coast Guard, Joe attended George Washington University and graduated with a degree in mechanical engineering. He and Lois then relocated to Toledo, OH for a position with Devilbiss Co. Joe got the bug for construction when he started building spec houses with Banis & Robel Lumber, leading him to later form his own construction company. Commercial construction projects including fire stations, highway info stations, post offices, and apartment complexes were Joe's passion. Tamaron Apartment complexes and Tamaron Country Club kept him busy. He built the Pro Shop and brought life to the Country Club, as well as later built Tamaron Manor Apartments.

Joe loved Devils Lake and vacationing on Sanibel Island with his good friends the Bakers. He was very proud of his children's accomplishments and his grandchildren were the lights of his life. He treasured attending their countless academic and sporting events. He was also blessed the last nine years with a special relationship with Jessica Aldrich, whom he adored.

Joe was preceded in death by his wife, Lois; brother, David; and parents. Left to treasure his memory are his children, Debbie Laycock, Kathy (Bob) Marquardt, and Jim (Shelly) Mast; his grandchildren, Mason, Paige, Laura, Bobby, Ryan, Justin, Braden, Alex, and Mackenzie; and his great-grandchildren, Bobby and Leah.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made in his name to The Ability Center of Greater Toledo. A Celebration of Joe's life will be held on July 6, 2019, 1:00 pm at the Marquardt's home for all who knew him.

Research Interests & Areas

Chemical nanosensors and microsensors are valuable tools for investigating complex biological systems. These tiny sensors, which have active sensing elements between 100 nm and 10 μ m wide (about 1/1000th to 1/10th the diameter of a hair), can measure very small changes in concentration in real time with very high spatial resolution. Such advantages can be exploited in two ways. First, a chemical image can be created by systematically measuring the concentrations of chemical species as a function of sensor location. A technique that we extensively employ, Scanning Electrochemical Microscopy (SECM), is based upon this principle. Second, transient and localized changes in the concentration of a chemical species can be monitored in real time using a stationary sensor. This principle serves as the basis of several techniques (such as amperometry and fast-scan voltammetry) for real-time monitoring dynamic biological systems. 5 μ m microsensor Our research is aimed at combining these two powerful approaches into a single instrument, the Biological Scanning Electrochemical Microscope (BioSECM), particularly for investigating neurotransmitter release from cultured neurons during growth and neurodegeneration. One significant advantage of the BioSECM over other methods for investigating these systems is that topographical and chemical imaging can take place simultaneously. This means that structure-function relationships of neurons (or model neurons) can be studied. Schematic Diagram of the BioSECM Imaging Process Because of the interdisciplinary nature of this research, students from both biology and chemistry (or biochemistry) are needed. Those with an interest or aptitude in instrumentation (e.g. electronics, computer hardware, and computer programming), cell culture, or nanotechnology will find this research particularly rewarding. In order to realize the potential of the BioSECM, substantial improvements in the instrumentation and the sensor must be achieved. These improvements, along with brief descriptions of the biological applications of the instrument, are summarized below.

Instrument Improvement In order to use the SECM for high-resolution chemical and topographical imaging of biological samples, we must develop our own hardware, software, and techniques. We have recently developed a method for imaging cultured model neurons directly in the growth media, a critical step toward our long-term goal of measuring release during neuronal development. However, this goal can only be achieved if the BioSECM is adapted to function under incubation conditions (i.e. 37°C, 5% CO₂ atmosphere), and so we are presently developing an incubation chamber suitable for this purpose.

Sensor Development The sensor is the heart of the SECM. It provides the specificity necessary for chemical imaging, and its size determines the spatial resolution of the technique. For this reason, a primary thrust of our research is the development of new chemically selective nanosensors and microsensors. Presently, we are working to modify carbon nano-ring sensors so that they are capable of imaging neurotransmitter release and imaging cell morphology with high resolution. We are also developing multifunctional sensors that will be capable of imaging multiple species simultaneously.

Applications

Neurodevelopment and synaptogenesis. One distinct advantage of the BioSECM is its capability for imaging both cell morphology and neurotransmitter release. We wish to investigate how neurotransmitter release, both its time course and spatial distribution, changes during neuronal growth and the formation of synapses with other cells, a process known as synaptogenesis. By studying these processes, we can learn fundamental mechanisms involved in neuronal development.

Neurodegeneration. The types of microsensors and nanosensors used for the BioSECM are also capable of producing short-lived chemical species that are known to exert oxidative stress on cells. These reactive oxygen species (predominately superoxide, O₂⁻, hydroxyl radical, OH, and hydrogen peroxide, H₂O₂) are suspected of playing a role in neurodegenerative diseases such as Alzheimer's Disease and Parkinson's Syndrome. We plan to use the BioSECM to apply a local dose of the reactive oxygen species and then image changes in morphology and neurotransmitter release. In this way the role of reactive oxygen species in neurodegeneration can be investigated, and potential therapies evaluated. Scanning Electrochemical Microscopy Imaging of Model Neurons
 Cellular damage due to oxidation has been observed in neurodegenerative diseases such as Parkinson's disease and Alzheimer's disease. Scanning Electrochemical Microscopy (SECM) is a technique well suited to study the effects of oxidative damage on cells such as neurons. The electrochemical analysis of model neurons using SECM can provide a unique view of cellular activity and can be used to observe effects on neuronal signaling. It is possible to detect the release of neurotransmitters such as dopamine, norepinephrine, and serotonin from individual cells using these electrochemical techniques (Cannon et al., Borland et al., Travis et al., Adams et al.). The ultramicroelectrode of the SECM can also focally generate the molecules that cause cellular oxidative damage and then the electrode can be used to measure neurotransmitter release from those neurons. We are using SECM in collaboration with the J.E.Baur lab at Illinois State University as a method to investigate the chemical signaling processes that occur between model nerve cells, looking particularly at the effects of oxidative stress and its relationship to neurodegenerative diseases.

Notes for Sharon Louise Bach:

Sharon Louise Kayden, 82, of Auburn, Michigan passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family on March 31, 2025. Sharon was the oldest of 6 children born March 12, 1943, to the late Albert and Linda (Armbruster) Bach. Sharon grew up on the family farm in Sebewaing and graduated from Sebewaing High School in 1961. She was married to Gary Kayden in 1964 in Bay City. Sharon was a member of Grace Lutheran Church of Auburn for 53 years. She enjoyed many service activities at Grace with her church family including being in the Handbell Choir and serving on the Bereavement Committee. Sharon spent many years working at various office positions throughout the Great Lakes Bay area with most of those years being at Stanford LP Gas in Midland. Besides her work life, Sharon had a deep appreciation for living her life to the fullest, giving to others, and enjoying time with family and friends. She looked forward to attending all her grandchildren's events, organizing and taking vacations, and she played in multiple card groups for more than 20 years where she developed enduring friendships. Sharon also became guardian to Aaron Stanford in her mid-50's, honoring her dear friend Pam Stanford upon her passing.

Sharon is lovingly remembered by her children: Steve Kayden (Debbie), Paul Kayden (Teresa), Laurie Blanke (John Mantle) and Aaron Stanford (Liz) who are deeply grateful for her sacrifices, her sense of humor, her love, and her strength. She leaves behind 10 wonderful grandchildren: Lauren, Kayla, Hollie, Taryn, Alexis, McKenzie, Jonathan, Gary, Nathan, Matthew and 2 great grandchildren who will carry the best of Grandma Sharon within them. She is also survived by her siblings: Judy Halstead, Chris O'Brien (Tom), Dan Bach, Donna Thede, Mary Pelham (Jim) and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, and 2 brother-in laws.

Sharon's love, generosity, laughter, and wit brought joy to her family and friends. With her passing, we celebrate a life well-lived, a path well-traveled, and a mom, grandma, nana, sister, and a friend well-loved. Sharon's family would like to thank her Grace family for helping her attend church activities, services, and visiting her often. The family is also incredibly grateful for the many people who entered her life to care for her, including Right At Home, StoryPoint, Toni & Trish House, as well as her hospice team.

Visitation at Grace Lutheran Church, Auburn, Michigan will be on Friday, April 4, 2025 from 9-11 am prior to the service. Funeral service will begin at 11am with a luncheon following. Graveside Service to take place at Home Cemetery at 2 pm. 1898. Doris Blaess¹² Smith (Emma O.¹¹ Blaess, Martha Maria Dorothea¹⁰ Horning, Maria Barbara⁹ Koch, Maria Catharina⁸ Niethammer, Johann Georg⁷, Johann Jacob⁶, Johann Georg⁵, Johann Conrad⁴, Georg³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 31 Mar 1925 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 04 Apr 2021 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Howard J. Buettner 22 Jun 1946 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of William Buettner and Hattie ?. He was born 20 Aug 1921 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 18 Jan 1984 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Doris Blaess Smith:

Doris Blaess (Smith) Buettner passed away on Easter Sunday, April 4, 2021, at her residence with her daughter at her side. Doris was born in Saline, Michigan on March 31, 1925 to Carl and Emma Smith. Doris graduated from Saline High School. Her parents preceded her in death as well as her brothers, Harold (in infancy) and John. She was raised in the Lutheran faith at Trinity Lutheran Church and was currently a member at Redeemer Evangelical Church in Ann Arbor.

Doris married Howard J. Buettner in 1946 and together they welcomed two daughters, Pamela and Trudy. Doris's greatest tragedies were the loss of her husband and daughter, Trudy.

Most of her life Doris was a homemaker whose clean house was always sparkling and the food was extremely delicious. She was also an avid vegetable gardener. Howard was employed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and Doris joined with other wives in a group called the Fish Wives for years. Howard and Doris were founding members of Redeemer Lutheran Church. Doris finally convinced Howard to travel and they made trips to Europe and Hawaii. After Howard's passing, Doris made it a point to continue her worldly travel by joining the Jackson Trippers and a Pittsfield Township senior group to see the world. Much appreciation goes to Lucinda and Karen Fleckenstein for working out the ability of their bridge group bunch to meet for many years: Francis Spelman, Barb Rolfe and Lucinda who was the self-appointed chauffeur as the women aged. Additional thanks to Doris's next-door neighbor on Agincourt, DJ Johnson, who took care of her home maintenance and looked out for her. And lastly, special thanks to the Brookhaven staff and the Arbor Hospice team who provided help and guided the family to the end.

A visitation will be held on Wednesday, April 14, 2021 at 3:30 pm before the funeral service at 4:00 pm at Redeemer Lutheran Church, 1360 Pauline Blvd, Ann Arbor, MI 48103. Light refreshments will be served in the next door building prior to the service. Masks and social distancing will be observed. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, attendance limitations may apply as the church can have up to 50 people. Memorial contributions may be made in Doris's honor to Redeemer Lutheran Church or to Arbor Hospice. In sadness, Doris will not be able to see her beloved magnolia tree bloom this year nor will her daughter, Pamela continue to receive the daily call to double check that she is okay.

She married Chad T. Ellington. He was born 30 Aug 1969 in Florence, Pinal Co, Arizona, and died 17 Jun 2001 in Goleta, Santa Barbara Co, California.

Notes for Amy Irene Niethammer:

Los Angeles - A search-and-rescue team found the body of a missing Ojai woman at the bottom of a steep ravine north of Ojai on Monday afternoon April 5, 1999, close to her mangled black Jeep, authorities said. Coroner's investigator Jim Wingate identified the woman as Amy (Niethammer) Ellington, a 31-year-old mother who was reported missing Saturday by family members. Wingate said she apparently died in a single-vehicle accident. Ellington left her Ojai home the day before to drive to a relative's home in Pleasanton. It appears her Jeep veered off the road near the Pine Mountain summit and plunged 500 feet down a cliff, Wingate said. An autopsy will be performed today, he said. Ellington was reported missing after she failed to arrive at the relative's residence. She was driving to the Northern California community alone, authorities said. A sheriff's helicopter crew searching for Ellington spotted the Jeep around 1:45 p.m., officials said. Wingate said Ellington was married and had children, but he didn't have any additional information.

After Amy Ellington's car tumbled 500 feet off California 33 nearly two years ago, her husband wanted assurance no one else would die the same way. When a settlement was reached last week, Chad Ellington finally felt relief. Although the California Department of Transportation is not bound to build a guardrail or wall along the road, attorneys for both sides said something most likely will be constructed to make the road safer. "Nothing is going to bring Amy back, but when they build something that could save someone else's family this pain, that is the only consolation I have," said Ellington, a Goleta resident who lived in Ojai when his wife died. "I don't allow anyone I know to drive that road the way it is."

On April 2, 1999, Amy Ellington's car slid on a patch of ice and went over the cliff near Pine Mountain Summit. Attorneys say Ellington, 31, was traveling about 25 mph on her way to visit her son, who was staying with her mother in Livermore. Several hours later, Chad Ellington received a call from his wife's mother, who was wondering why Amy had not arrived. Ellington spent the next three days looking for his wife, driving past the spot of the accident at least eight times, he said. "I wasn't given the chance to save her because I didn't know where she was," he said. "She could have been lying down there for two days waiting for me."

On one drive along the road, Ellington said, he was driving about 5 mph and his wheels slid on the same patch of ice. At least two other area residents contacted him saying they had problems at the same spot. In addition to the barrier, Ellington and the couple's three children will receive $2 million from the state. Half the money will go toward an education fund to help the children pay for college. The other half will pay Ellington $1,000 a month for the rest of his life. The children will have the same arrangement when they reach 21. Ellington said any type of barrier might have saved his wife by giving rescue workers an indication of the accident site.

Caltrans attorneys said a guardrail at the site would seem to be a good idea, but added there are structural difficulties. A guardrail would make the road more dangerous by narrowing it, said David Simmes, deputy chief counsel for Caltrans. "We don't know what will go in there . . . there may be some other solution," he said. "We are looking at other options besides a guardrail to keep the road in safe condition for people who drive responsibly." Geoff Wells, attorney for the Ellington family, said he believes Caltrans will build a barrier at the accident site because the agency has acknowledged there is a problem. "There is inadequate protection at that corner for a driver that might encounter black ice," Wells said. "A lady died, and a number of other people had near-misses. They have to do something, because it's definitely dangerous."

Amy Irene Ellington, age 31, of Ojai, died Friday, April 2, 1999. She was born January 30, 1968, in Bellevue, Washington, and lived in Ojai for one year, coming from Fresno. Mrs. Ellington was a Waitress and Beautician, as well as a Homemaker. She was also a Courtesy Clerk for Vons Market. She was preceded in death by her father, Woodard Niethammer, on March 16, 1998.

Amy is survived by her husband, Chad Ellington, of Oiai; daughters, Haley and Brooke Ellington; son, Patrick Boyz; mother, Marilyn Niethammer, of Pleasanton, and brothers, Dard, Michaeli and Darren Niethammer.

A Memorial Service will be held at Clausen Funeral Home, Oiai on Saturday, April 10, 1999, at 1:00 P.M. Pastor Jan Nairn, of Holy Cross Lutheran Church, will officiate.

Community mourning loss of nine-year-old boy hit by car

One week ago today, 9-year-old Shawn Niethammer was in his fourth grade class at Vintage Hills Elementary School. Come Monday, his seat was noticeably empty. The Pleasanton boy was hit by a car Oct. 6 as he rolled out of a driveway on his bicycle in the 700 block of Palomino Drive--just a few blocks from where he lived, police said. The driver of the Lincoln SUV, a 53-year-old man, was heading eastbound on Palomino, just east of Norton Way to visit a friend nearby. It happened at 5:37 p.m. and as the collision threw the boy from his bicycle, he sustained injuries to his neck and spine that later proved to be fatal. He was wearing a safety helmet at the time. The driver immediately stopped at the scene of the accident and has been fully cooperating with police, according to Sgt. Michael Collins. No charges have been filed against the man and Collins said according to normal procedure, the case will eventually be forwarded to the county district attorney.

The vehicle was traveling at or slightly above the posted 25 mph speed limit, which isn't uncommon because on average, 15 percent of motorists drive slightly above the posted speed limit, Collins said. As of press time, the police department was withholding the driver's name. Collins said it's been years since a tragic event like this has happened in Pleasanton, but cautioned that incidents like these could potentially happen at any time.

"Almost every parent has had a kid go darting into the street and but for the grace of God nothing has happened," he said. "Unfortunately in this case, that's not what happened. It appears to be a momentary lapse of judgement." The bright and fun-loving 9-year-old will be best remembered by his loved ones as someone who loved to play sports and who always had a smile on his face. "He wanted to be friends with everybody," said his father, Darrin Niethammer. "He had a laugh that was so contagious that it would make anyone laugh. He was my little buddy and my life." Niethammer said Shawn was riding his bicycle from his mother's house to a friend's house just a few blocks away. When he discovered the friend wasn't home, he headed back out of the friend's driveway where the accident occurred. "That area seems to have a lot of school traffic for kids," Niethammer said. "I would like to see some speed bumps in there because it doesn't only stop speeding, but it makes people look too."

Shawn's step-father Pat Simon said he will always cherish the times he used to take him to Callippe Preserve Golf Course to play golf or the times he would take him along on his handyman trips to people's homes to make housecalls. "He would do anything for anybody and would always put other people first and at 9, you wouldn't think that," said mother Veronica Simon. She said she's been overwhelmed by the outpouring of support from the community. "So many people that we don't even know have come over and offered their condolences and brought meals and you don't know what a wonderful community you have unfortunately until something like this happens," she said.

Ron Hyde, a close friend of Pat Simon's has set up a bank account at the Bank of Walnut Creek at 249 Main St., titled "The Shawn Neithammer Memorial Fund for the Benefit of Youth Golf." Donations will go towards benefiting youths in golf camps who would otherwise not be able to afford them. The 9-year-old participated in the youth golf program this past summer at Callippe. At Shawn's school, efforts are under way to memorialize him as well as help his family, according to Vintage Hills Principal Carolyn Parker. Extra counselors were brought on campus to talk to students and parents about the incident. The students in Kasey Poet's fourth grade class have already found ways to remember their classmate, Parker said. Students are given a number that corresponds with where their name falls in alphabetical order and that number is used on homework and class assignments. Shawn's number was 20, and students asked that they "retire" his number so as to never forget him.

The school has also set up a bank account for charitable donations at Fremont Bank, 6654 Koll Center Parkway, Ste. 345. Anyone who wants to make a donation can either go to the bank or drop off a donation at Vintage Hills. The account is titled "The Shawn Niethammer Memorial Fund." The bank can be reached at 417-7671. Some parents have also sent out e-mails to city officials and local businesses to solicit donations to help defray the funeral costs for the family.

To honor Shawn's love of baseball, Vintage Hills will host a baseball drive in which students can bring in new or used baseball equipment that will be sent to an organization that will donate the supplies to needy Cambodian children. "I think Shawn would be happy to know that there would be a lot of kids with this equipment that they can play baseball with," Parker said. The school plans to have a memorial sometime next month.

Shawn Michael-Harold Niethammer is survived by his mother Veronica and her husband Pat Simon, his father Darrin Niethammer and his wife Tina, grandmother Marilyn Niethammer, grandparents Michael and Dorothy Berthelsen, stepbrothers Kyle and Sean and stepsister Robin and by his uncles, aunts, cousins and other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his grandfather Woodard Niethammer.

A private viewing was scheduled for Wednesday for the family, according to Graham-Hitch Mortuary. A service will be held today at 4 p.m. at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 1020 Mocho St. in Livermore. In lieu of flowers, the family suggest memorial donations be made in care of the Holy Cross Lutheran Church to be used for children's charities, to junior golf or the Pleasanton National Little League.

2136. Shirley Mae¹² Sommerhof (Cleo Friede Maria¹¹ Niethammer, Albert Georg Friedrich Johann¹⁰, Albert⁹, Georg Friedrich⁸, Johann Jakob⁷, Johann Georg⁶, Johannes⁵, Johann Jacob⁴, Johannes³, Jacob², Hans¹) was born 01 Dec 1926 in Pennsylvania, and died 01 Aug 2018 in West Chester, Pennsylvania. She married (1) John W. Colvin. He was born 1921, and died 16 Mar 2018. She married (2) ? Baressi.

Notes for Shirley Mae Sommerhof:

Shirley Baressi, a resident of Sun City West for over 35 years who moved back East four years ago to be near her children, has died at the age of 92 years in West Chester, Pennsylvania peacefully surrounded by her children. Shirley was known for her fun-loving personality, a generous heart and a smile for everyone. She was born and raised by Roy and Cleo Sommerhof in Erie, Pennsylvania and received her Bachelor's in Science degree from Mercyhurst University. Shirley was a trailblazer: She became the first woman Executive Director of the American Heart Association in Erie; the first woman President of the PA Township Secretary's Association; and became a nursing home administrator of a 400-bed County Home spearheading reforms for compassionate care. During her retirement in Sun City West, she founded a "Handicapables Club" to advance recreational services to retirees facing physical challenges and raised funds for a pool lift so those in wheel chairs could enjoy the water and she even taught Water Aerobics well into her eighties.

Her eight grandchildren remember her fondly as "Grandma Zona" with visits at Sun City West. They have given her five great-grandchildren. Her four children, Linda, Jack, Jodi and Paul remember a mother who taught them to live the Golden Rule, to love life, to find humor when you feel most down, to pick yourself back up and know, as she told them many times, "This, too, shall pass."

Condolences to family members may be sent to: Linda M. Rhodes, 1690 East Strasburg Rd., West Chester, Pennsylvania 19380

Notes for John W. Colvin:

John W. Colvin, 97 years old, and a former Summit Township Supervisor, died on Friday, March 16th, 2018, surrounded by family, in the home he built 70 years ago. He spent his childhood working on his grandparents' farms in Summit and went onto serve in the Army during World War II as a Tech Sargent First Class with the 5th Army, 88th Division, in Italy. Following the war, he ran the family business, Colvin Dairy, which he eventually passed on to his son, Paul.

John married and raised a family in Summit, all the while being active in his community. He organized parish members to build a rectory for St. Matthew-in-the-Woods Church, was a 4th Degree Color Corps member of the Knights of Columbus, a lifelong member of the Zukor Club, an usher at St. George's Church for 50 years, and a member of the St. Joseph's Bowling Team. He became a three-term supervisor of Summit Township, spearheading development of water lines that spurred economic growth in the township, leading to new business and residential developments, along with new recreational services for the community. John stuttered as a child and was teased for it. As a result, he taught his children to "always look out for the little guy and never make fun of anyone." He practiced this by hiring young men who were first-time offenders on probation to work at the milk plant, so they would have a second chance, and mentally disabled youth to help deliver milk.

His parents, Clarence and Emma (Brennan) Colvin, predeceased him, as did siblings, Thomas, Jim, Marie, Genevieve, and Pat; his youngest son, Paul; and the mother of his children, Shirley (Sommerhof).

He is survived by his brother, Dr. Charles Colvin; his children, Linda Rhodes, Jack Colvin and Jodi Gorman; eight grandchildren, one of whom, Riley Colvin, lived with him; and five great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

A viewing will be held at the Burton Westlake Funeral Home, 3801 W. 26th Street (at Powell Avenue), on Tuesday, March 20th from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. and are invited to attend a Mass of Christian Burial held on Wednesday, March 21st at St. George Church, 5145 Peach Street, Erie, PA 16509, at 11:00 a.m. followed by interment at Calvary Cemetery and a reception at 1:30 p.m. at the Summit Township Senior Center, 1450 Townhall Road West. Contributions in his memory can be made to the National Stuttering Association.

Notes for Lillian Diuble:

June 10, 2019 Diuble sisters have a spring filled with honors. Congressman Tim Walberg was in Manchester last Monday to present a special commendation to Abigail Diuble for her work with the Diuble Family Vision Foundation to provide bed-shaking alarms for children with visual or hearing disabilities, during an emergency such as the family experienced when a tornado struck their home in 2015.

Abby and Lilly Diuble, ages 15 & 17, have received multiple awards and recognition this spring for their community service. Abby, who is finishing her freshman year at Manchester High School, and Lilly, who will be a senior at Manchester next fall, are the daughters of Angela and Scott Diuble of Manchester. Abby and Lilly Diuble joined eight other Washtenaw County high school students in being celebrated for outstanding community service as finalists in the 21st annual Young Citizen of the Year scholarship competition. The Robert Bruce Dunlap Memorial Fund, administered by the Ann Arbor Area Community Foundation, provides a $2,000 college scholarship to the Young Citizen of the Year, and nine finalists, including the Diuble sisters, received $1,000 scholarships.

As two of the founders of the Diuble Family Vision Foundation, the girls have both been involved in community service through the school's Leo Club, as Sunday School teachers at Bethel United Church of Christ, and primarily via their extensive involvement in the Foundation Fighting Blindness' annual Vision Walk. Lilly has personally raised more than $200,000 total for the VisionWalk; Abby has also raised $50,000 for her special project, "Warning Hearing Impaired People (WHIP)" that distributes an alarm system to wake hearing-impaired people, especially children, in case of an emergency during the night hours. To date, more than 40 alarms have been distributed through Abby's WHIP program. It was the WHIP program that attracted the attention of Congressman Tim Walberg, who visited Manchester High School on Monday morning to present Abby with a special commendation. He spent time visiting with Lilly and Abby one-on-one about their accomplishments and also conversed with parents Scott and Angela Diuble about insurance issues.

"Not only is Lillian Diuble hard of hearing, she also has low vision," wrote Diuble Family Vision Foundation board member Kelli Ripple in her nomination letter. "She likely has a condition called Usher Syndrome, which is a progressive loss of hearing and sight. Currently there is no treatment or cure for Usher Syndrome; but instead of feeling sorry for herself, Lillian — at the age of 7 — decided to do something not only to help herself, but to help others too," describing Lilly's involvement in the VisionWalk over the past 10 years. Fellow board member Katelyn Schaible stated, "I am impressed with Abigail's maturity, organization, and people skills; and her willingness to improve the lives of others within our community and the world beyond." Abby also serves as Class President of her class of 2022.

Finally, Lilly, a charter member of the WISD Leo Club, the Lions Club youth service branch—which now meets at Manchester High School thanks to Lilly's efforts—received a prestigious award from the Lions' Michigan District 11 and the state of Michigan. "Lilly was nominated to be the club 'Leo of the Year,'" said Barry Allen of the Manchester Lions Club. "This went to our District Governor, along with nominations from the other Leo Clubs, and she was chosen to represent our six-county District. That selection also put her in the running for the Lions Leo of the Year at the state level, and the Council of Governors selected her above the other entries."

Allen introduced Lilly and briefly described the evening the tornado ripped through their rural farm house, then Lilly provided a few words of thanks. As the Michigan "Leo of the Year," Allen explained, Lilly is also in the running for the Lions Clubs International "Leo of the Year" and those results have not yet been announced.

Lillian Diuble, age: 16, Manchester High School junior, parents: Angela Diuble and Scott Diuble. Community service: fundraiser for Foundation Fighting Blindness, including involving her class in her first VisionWalk team and raising more than $200,000 total for the foundation; youth chair on the VisionWalk board of directors; public speaker for Foundation Fighting Blindness, which aims to find cures and treatments for blinding-eye diseases; fundraiser and youth chair of Diuble Family Vision Foundation; founder of scholarship funded by her family's foundation to recognize community service by a Manchester High School graduating senior; charter member of Washtenaw Intermediate School District's Leo Lions Club, who helped move the club to her school this year; and Sunday school teacher.

Nominated by: Kelli Ripple, member of Diuble Family Vision Foundation board of directors "Not only is Lillian Diuble hard of hearing, she also has low vision. She likely has a condition called Usher Syndrome, which is a progressive loss of hearing and sight," Ripple wrote in her nomination letter. "Currently there is no treatment or cure for Usher Syndrome. Instead of feeling sorry for herself, Lillian -- at the age of 7 -- decided to do something not only to help herself, but to help others too."

Marriage Notes for Julie Niethammer and Mark Choate:

Hurricane Harvey tried to put a damper on the wedding of Julie Niethammer and Mark Choate, but the show went on anyway. The couple are now happily hitched and honeymooning in Iceland, far north of the current storm action in the Atlantic Ocean. "We still got married on Sept. 3 in Magnolia, Texas, just outside of Houston," said Julie, a 2012 Dexter High School graduate, via e-mail on Tuesday. "We had to plan everything again. Thankfully, our families stepped in and helped." Niethammer shared her story of trying to spontaneously make arrangements for a Sept. 3 wedding after her original plans were destroyed by Hurricane Harvey.

Five days before the wedding Julie and Mark, a Houston native, had so meticulously planned, they found themselves pulling together with their families to make sure they could still say 'I do,' even though it wouldn't be at their planned venue, which was by then flooded. With the Houston airport closed, Mark flew to Dallas from Chicago, where the couple lives. Julie's parents also rerouted to Dallas while the bride confirmed that her other planned vendors — including a bartender and photographer, were safe and could still provide services. They were out of luck on finding a hotel or church to serve as a wedding location since they were needed for disaster relief, but were able to use as a last option the vacation rental home at which Julie's parents were staying.

On Sept. 3, with all new plans in place, Julie and Mark stood together on the front steps of the spacious two-story home, ready at last to be married. "I was filled with excitement, I couldn't stop smiling," said Julie. "I kept thinking to myself how much I love him and that I was looking forward to our future adventures. I love absolutely everything about him, especially how at ease he makes me." Mark, a man of few words, said while the hurricane had placed stressed on the family, when he finally said his vows to the woman he loves, he felt "happy."

The couple, who met and fell in love at Michigan State University, continued the celebration with a party on the back porch that included gumbo and shrimp boil made by Mark's uncle, and side dishes provided by Julie's family. While not all their guests from out of state could make it due to flight cancellations, the new husband and wife will have another celebration in Michigan in November.

"It turned out lovely," said Julie of her Houston post-hurricane wedding. "It actually went really well for being put together in five days. This struggle actually bodes well for our marriage because it shows how much we can support each other through the ups and downs and very stressful times." The wedding will make a good story to tell their future children and Julie knows just what she will say: "I will tell them you don't have to have an extravagant event to know how much people love and care about you."

Helber. Bob grew up alongside his older brother and lifelong best friend, Paul. Bob graduated from Ann Arbor Pioneer High School in 1961 and pursued a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Eastern Michigan University.

Bob is survived by his wife Cindy Helber of 60+ years of marriage; his two children, Lisa (Joe) Desormeaux and Bobby (Anne) Helber and his six grandchildren: Cory (Joyce) Rayburn, Libby (Chris) Stepp, Benjamin (Yetta) Helber, Garrette Helber, Julia and Kate Desormeaux. He was actively involved in the lives of his six great-grandchildren: Piarra, Riley, Paisley, Levi Stepp, Wyatt Rayburn, and Maximillian Helber.

Bob had a deep passion for the outdoors and his family. He enjoyed skiing, hunting, scuba diving, biking, horseback riding, and sailing. His limited and rare "downtime," was enjoyed at his Ann Arbor and Ludington homes with the love of his life Cindy, and their beloved dogs, family and friends. Not only did Bob have a deep passion for family, he also cultivated and valued friendships. This was evident at the end, when his friends stood by him cheering him on even when he could no longer communicate his love for them. Active in his community, Bob served as President of the local Home Builders Association and was a dedicated member of the Washtenaw Land Trust, which reflected his commitment to preserving local land from over development. Bob was also a successful and motivated business owner and ran several local businesses and partnerships which brought growth to many surrounding communities.

We hope Bob's legacy of love for family, friends, dedication to community and ambitious spirit will continue to inspire all who knew him. If you wish to honor Bob's memory, please consider a donation to the either of the following organizations: Humane Society of Huron Valley or to Legacy Land Conservancy.

Notes for Rev. Aaron M. Voss:

Pastor Aaron Voss blessed to serve as pastor at Living Water Lutheran Church in Wind Lake. He is originally from Williamston, Michigan, where he grew up as the third of four sons born to loving Christian parents. His dad is a pastor, so he kind of naturally gravitated toward becoming one himself. That thought was cemented by my education. He went to high school at Michigan Lutheran Seminary in Saginaw, Michigan, a preparatory school operated by the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS) which encourages its students to think about being pastors and teachers. After graduating high school in 2007, he attended Martin Luther College in New Ulm, Minnesota, beginning formal study for the pastoral ministry. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in 2011. Later that fall he enrolled at Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary in Mequon, Wisconsin, and graduated in 2015. As part of my seminary training during the 2013-2014 school year, he served as a vicar (pastoral intern) at Lord of Life Lutheran Church and School in Thornton, Colorado. That experience introduced him to a wide variety of ways that a pastor can serve both a church and a community.

After graduating seminary, he was assigned to be a tutor (dorm pastor and instructor) at Luther Preparatory School in Watertown, Wisconsin, another one of the ministerial prep schools operated by WELS. He served there from 2015-2017, where he was fortunate enough to do typical pastoral duties like preaching and counseling. Other tasks that he really enjoyed doing included teaching in the classroom and coaching both basketball and track and field. In May of 2017 he was reassigned to be pastor at Living Water.

His wife, Jenilee, married in 2016. She, too, is originally from Michigan and graduated from Michigan State University in 2012 before settling in the metro Detroit area. Jenilee is the head volleyball coach at Wisconsin Lutheran College in Milwaukee, and they live in Muskego.

He is thrilled to serve Living Water Lutheran Church and is looking for ways to serve you and the community, sharing the good news of free and full forgiveness won for us by Jesus Christ.

She enjoyed quilting, knitting, washcloths, bingo, traveling, snorkeling, catching lobsters, shrimping, eating ice cream at the Outrigger, gardening, playing cards, shopping for bargains, and playing pool volleyball. She was very active in Faith Lutheran Church where she also sang in the choir. She loved Christmas and everything about it (just ask the Griswold's!). She was especially devoted to her family, and loved anything to do with her grandkids and helping out her favorite daughter.

On September 30, 1968 she married Harold A. "Hal" Losey, and he survives. Also surviving are two children: Shannon (Dave) Agar of Pinckney, and Shawn (Mike) Kennedy of Texas; four grandchildren Spencer, Samantha, Izabel, and Mackenzie; three siblings: Ronald (Jill) Jedelev of Saline, Sandi (Gary) Graff of Chelsea, and Richard (Renee Holly) Jedelev of Pinckney; also her mother Joan (Keith) Chambers of Pinckney. She was preceded in death by her father.

Notes for Harold Allen (Hal) Losey:

Harold Allen "Hal" Losey, age 77, of Dexter, Michigan, passed away peacefully with his family by his side on October 12, 2025 at his home in Lima Twp, Michigan. Harold was born on July 6, 1948 in Ypsilanti, MI, the son of Richard and Donna (Price) Losey. He served in the US Army from 1968-70, and then was transferred to the Reserves being discharged in 1974.

On September 30, 1968, he married Teresa A. "Terry" Jedeled, and they were married for nearly 48 years before she passed away in 2016. Hal worked as a lineman for Michigan Bell, retiring after 27 years of service. He was an extraordinarily patriotic man with a witty sense of humor until the very end. He loved music and had the talent to play almost anything he picked up. His favorites were piano and guitar, and he even performed on a stage in Nashville, when his daughter challenged him. He was an avid outdoorsman. He enjoyed hunting and fishing, although we definitely knew it would rain when he went, but that didn't stop him. He was a talented woodworker and could usually be found doing some sort of wood working or whittling something out of one piece of wood. He was an all around handyman and could fix most anything. He loved traveling and spending time with his family and especially his grandkids, and he was the only man we knew who still used a paper map to plan his travels. He was active in the Chelsea Senior Center and the Vietnam Veterans of America.

Hal is survived by two children, Shannon (Dave) Agar of Pinckney, and Shawn (Mike) Kennedy of Texas; his step-son, Andy Steiskal; his step-daughter, Megan (Jeremy) Powell-Float; four grandchildren: Spencer, Samantha, Izabel, and Mackenzie; six step-grandchildren, Emerson, Hudson, Shelby, Greyson, Camryn, and Colton; and his siblings, Kris Losey, Paul (Karen) Losey, Eric Losey, and Gary (Mary) Losey. He was preceded in death by his parents, and his first wife, Teresa "Terry", and his second wife, Margaret "Mokie".

Visitation will be held at the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home, Chelsea on Wednesday, October 15, 2025, from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. A Memorial Service will be held at Shalom Lutheran Church, 1740 M-36, Pinckney, on Thursday, October 16, 2025 at 10:00 a.m., with Pastor Dan Quagliata officiating. Burial will follow at Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly, Michigan. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations be made to Freedom River in memory of Hal Losey.

May 9, 2019 – Bloomington, Indiana – You could call them Indiana University's unintentional All-Americans. Except Kelsey and Haley Harris, identical twins from Carmel, did not become who they are by accident. Track and field? OK, yeah, that was an accident. They went into it "kicking and screaming," according to their father, Bill Harris. The twins liked cross-country well enough. Their Carmel teams ran to state titles in all four years of high school. But they were year-round swimmers, and when time allowed, softball players. They didn't race on the track until they were juniors, and even then didn't produce times to lure college recruiters. Such skepticism did not deter them nor Hoosiers coach Ron Helmer. "I think that just mainly motivated us even more," Kelsey said. "Because we knew what we were potentially capable of, and what could possibly happen. I think coach Helmer knew that, too."

The twins will compete in their final Big Ten Championships together Saturday and Sunday at Iowa. Haley, a senior, is moving on to a PricewaterhouseCoopers internship and accounting career. Kelsey has one college season left in cross-country and outdoor track. The twins come from an athletic family. One brother, Trey, is a freshman runner at Butler, and another, Trevor, 16, was on Carmel's freshman basketball team. They also have a sister, Jenna, 9. The twins' father was a swimmer at Michigan, and both grandfathers were athletes there: Billy Harris was a wide receiver who played in the Rose Bowl, and Doug Horning was a Big Ten wrestling runner-up. An aunt, Kym Horning, was a softball pitcher for Wisconsin. The twins made their own history in the Big Ten. Haley and Kelsey ran second and fourth legs, respectively, for the team that won the 3,200-meter relay at the recent Penn Relays. It was the first time the Hoosiers had ever won a women's relay at the 125-year-old event. Fittingly, they won together. "They were always competitive," Bill Harris said. "Just not with one another." Helmer learned to tell the twins apart from hairstyles — Kelsey wears braids — and personality. Kelsey is outgoing, Haley introspective. The coach conceded he has kept them in different races and training groups because he didn't want them "constantly butting heads." As it turns out, he need not have worried.

He has coached many sets of twins, he said, and they are the first "who were genuinely excited for their sibling's success." When they are on the same team, look out. Their former cross-country coach, Mark Ellington, once organized a kickball game at a preseason camp at Lincoln State Park. Teams were divided by classes, and even though they were freshmen, the twins were going for the win. "It was a lot of fun, but man, they took it seriously," Ellington said. "In the heat of it, there was a lot of yelling and screaming and intensity. They just approach everything they do like they're going to dominate it."

The twins were swimmers on the most dominant dynasty ever, considering Carmel has a record 33 straight state championships. Kelsey never swam at state, but Haley was on the 2015 team that was arguably the best in high school history. In her final swim race, Haley was fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke. The winner: Lilly King. Carmel swim coach Chris Plumb said the aerobic foundation the twins built in the pool enhanced their performance after concentrating on the track. There were autumn weeks when the Harrises did swimming and running workouts on the same day. "They never complained. They went to work every single day," Plumb said. "That's the one thing I remember." He was not the only one noticing the twins' attitude. Haley was the Mental Attitude Award winner at the 2015 state track meet.

The Harrises started running because cross-country and track were the only sports available to sixth-graders in middle school. Instead of spring track, they played softball, in which they were outfielders. They were so fast, in fact, that the coach persuaded the right-handed twins to bat left-handed and become slap hitters. They were always getting on base. Soon after they quit spring swimming, they finished 1-2 in a mile race in 4 minutes, 58.72 seconds and 4:58.99, respectively. As seniors, Kelsey was third in the state in the 800 in 2:13.10 and Haley sixth in the 1,600 in 4:56.79. Yet on a national scale, such times were "pretty ordinary," Helmer said. Here's the thing: The twins knew it. "I just wanted to work as hard as I could and see where it could go," Haley said. "Because in high school, we never committed full-time to running. I think that helped a lot, just doing one sport continuously." Helmer is convinced Haley has a "big breakthrough 1,500 in her" at the Big Ten meet. Her highest conference finish is fifth in last year's indoor mile.

Haley and Kelsey became All-Americans together on the team that finished seventh in the distance medley relay at March's NCAA Indoor Championships. Kelsey was also seventh in the 800, earning her third All-America designation (she was fourth in the relay in 2018). Kelsey has finished second once and third twice at Big Ten meets, and she ranks No. 4 on IU's all-time list at both 800 and 1,500 meters (2:03.89 and 4:18.23). Drop another second in the 800, and she could qualify for next year's U.S. Olympic Trials. There are other runners with the talent to improve as the twins did, Helmer said, if they would approach as they did: be secure in themselves, accept challenges, "and just get up and keep rolling."

The twins have replied emphatically to those who thought they would not become elite runners nor should attend the same college. They pushed each other more than any coach could have. "I think we've been able to form and be our own person here while also remaining as really close friends and teammates,” Kelsey said. “Honestly, I don’t regret anything. I would do it all over again. “I’ve loved being her teammate for the last four years. I’m sad that’s going to end soon.”

An aunt, Kym Horning, was a softball pitcher for Wisconsin. The twins made their own history in the Big Ten. Haley and Kelsey ran second and fourth legs, respectively, for the team that won the 3,200-meter relay at the recent Penn Relays. It was the first time the Hoosiers had ever won a women’s relay at the 125-year-old event. Fittingly, they won together. “They were always competitive,” Bill Harris said. “Just not with one another.” Helmer learned to tell the twins apart from hairstyles — Kelsey wears braids — and personality. Kelsey is outgoing, Haley introspective. The coach conceded he has kept them in different races and training groups because he didn’t want them “constantly butting heads.” As it turns out, he need not have worried.

He has coached many sets of twins, he said, and they are the first “who were genuinely excited for their sibling’s success.” When they are on the same team, look out. Their former cross-country coach, Mark

Ellington, once organized a kickball game at a preseason camp at Lincoln State Park. Teams were divided by classes, and even though they were freshmen, the twins were going for the win. "It was a lot of fun, but man, they took it seriously," Ellington said. "In the heat of it, there was a lot of yelling and screaming and intensity. They just approach everything they do like they're going to dominate it."

The twins were swimmers on the most dominant dynasty ever, considering Carmel has a record 33 straight state championships. Kelsey never swam at state, but Haley was on the 2015 team that was arguably the best in high school history. In her final swim race, Haley was fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke. The winner: Lilly King. Carmel swim coach Chris Plumb said the aerobic foundation the twins built in the pool enhanced their performance after concentrating on the track. There were autumn weeks when the Harrises did swimming and running workouts on the same day. "They never complained. They went to work every single day," Plumb said. "That's the one thing I remember." He was not the only one noticing the twins' attitude. Haley was the Mental Attitude Award winner at the 2015 state track meet.

The Harrises started running because cross-country and track were the only sports available to sixth-graders in middle school. Instead of spring track, they played softball, in which they were outfielders. They were so fast, in fact, that the coach persuaded the right-handed twins to bat left-handed and become slap hitters. They were always getting on base. Soon after they quit spring swimming, they finished 1-2 in a mile race in 4 minutes, 58.72 seconds and 4:58.99, respectively. As seniors, Kelsey was third in the state in the 800 in 2:13.10 and Haley sixth in the 1,600 in 4:56.79. Yet on a national scale, such times were "pretty ordinary," Helmer said. Here's the thing: The twins knew it. "I just wanted to work as hard as I could and see where it could go," Haley said. "Because in high school, we never committed full-time to running. I think that helped a lot, just doing one sport continuously." Helmer is convinced Haley has a "big breakthrough 1,500 in her" at the Big Ten meet. Her highest conference finish is fifth in last year's indoor mile.

Haley and Kelsey became All-Americans together on the team that finished seventh in the distance medley relay at March's NCAA Indoor Championships. Kelsey was also seventh in the 800, earning her third All-America designation (she was fourth in the relay in 2018). Kelsey has finished second once and third twice at Big Ten meets, and she ranks No. 4 on IU's all-time list at both 800 and 1,500 meters (2:03.89 and 4:18.23). Drop another second in the 800, and she could qualify for next year's U.S. Olympic Trials. There are other runners with the talent to improve as the twins did, Helmer said, if they would approach as they did: be secure in themselves, accept challenges, "and just get up and keep rolling."

The twins have replied emphatically to those who thought they would not become elite runners nor should attend the same college. They pushed each other more than any coach could have. "I think we've been able to form and be our own person here while also remaining as really close friends and teammates," Kelsey said. "Honestly, I don't regret anything. I would do it all over again. "I've loved being her teammate for the last four years. I'm sad that's going to end soon."

He married Rose O'Connor.

Notes for Lee A. Feldkamp:

Lee A. Feldkamp died in Novi, MI on March 13, 2021 after an 18-year struggle with Parkinson's Disease. Lee was born August 27, 1942, the eldest child of Lee E. Feldkamp, M.D. and Jeanne Girard Feldkamp. During his elementary school years, the family moved to Plymouth where Lee graduated from Plymouth High School. Lee spent his entire college career at the University of Michigan, culminating in a PhD in nuclear engineering. He then joined the Physics Department of Ford Research Laboratory as a staff scientist in 1969 where he remained until retirement in 2008. During the course of his career, Lee co-authored a book, Dynamics of Perfect Crystals, was granted a dozen patents, and had published over one hundred scientific papers. Lee traveled the world presenting papers on micro CT technology, fuzzy logic and neural networks. He was past president of the International Neural Network Society and selected as a Distinguished Graduate of the U of M Rackham School of Graduate Studies. One of Lee's greatest accomplishments was his invention of an algorithm improving the clarity of micro CT images which is still used today in fields as varied as medicine and archaeology. Lee worked with the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in the area of artificial intelligence. He collaborated in the development of a chip at the beginning of the breakthrough of neural network technology, taking it into the mainstream. For Aston Martin, Lee designed a chip which went into production of a luxury vehicle. Also, in the field of neural networks, Lee was a consultant working with AmericaOne, leading United States challenger for America's Cup 2000 in yacht racing, developing new technology in the area of wind prediction. All of these projects were to varying degrees collaborative efforts. Lee was always scrupulous about sharing credit, particularly with the younger members of his team, indicative of his modesty and kindness. Lee loved his work, but in his free time, enjoyed hiking, cross-country skiing and especially tennis. He was a lover of all music, particularly classical, including modern composers. From his childhood, Lee spent many happy summer vacations with his family on Lake Huron near Forest, Ontario. He was a great fan of U of M football and basketball. Lee was preceded in death by his parents, sister, Mary Arbour and brother-in-law, John Thomas.

He is survived by his wife, Rose O'Connor, son, Timothy of Ann Arbor, brother, Robert (Kitty) of Canton, sister, Joan Thomas of Lake Worth, Florida, brother, Gerald (Linda) of Beaverton, Oregon, brother, Gregory (Diane Phelps) of Southlake, Texas, brother, Douglas (Laurel) of Dearborn, sister, Jeannette Schwab (John) of East Tawas, brother, James (Barbara) of Grand Ledge, brother-in-law, Robert Arbour of Westland, sister-in-law, Judy Zakrzewski of Marshall, brother-in-law, Patrick (Kenna) Zakrzewski of Mt. Pleasant, Wisconsin and many nieces and nephews.

Lee was deeply loved and will be greatly missed. The family would like to thank the University of Michigan, Michigan Medicine Neurosurgery DBS Team for enabling the quality of life Lee enjoyed almost until the end. Thanks particularly to Wilma MacKenzie, N.P. and Donna Rossini, N.P. who followed Lee for years in the Geriatric Neurology Clinic. Memorial contributions may be made to the Michigan Medicine Neurosurgery Department, DBS Program, 1500 E. Medical Center Drive SPC 5338, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109-5338. A Memorial Service will be held later this year.

There, Lesley Luckhardt and husband Carl Quaglia are raising their four sons, CJ 13, Aidan 12, Cole 2, and Greyson 7 months, along with 21 equines (and counting).
