Notes for John Gerhard (Huehle) Huehl:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

JOHN G. HUEHL is a farmer residing on section 17, Freedom Township. His father was John Huehl, a native of Prussia, where he was born in 1813, and was there employed as a farmer. Our subject's mother was Adelaide (Dresselhaus) Huehl, a native of Prussia and born in 1803. They were married in the old country and emigrating to America in 1837, proceeded at once to Michigan and remained in Freedom Township for a short time. Thence they went to Lima Township, where, however, they remained but a short time and finally located permanently upon section 17, in Freedom Township.

At the time our subject's parents came to this locality there were no improvements upon the place upon which they located, it being entirely timber land. John Huehl, Sr. was a poor man who lacked even the means to pay his passage across the ocean. On reaching this place, however, he at once began making a home for the future, first erecting a log house and then began to clear the land; he afterward bought forty acres on section 16, which he improved and sold, later buying land that adjoined his farm. The first barn, in which he stored the products of his farm and housed his animals, was of logs and later he erected the present frame barn and also remodeled the old log house. He cleared off the thirty acres of land on this farm, prior to his death, which occurred in 1882. His wife died in 1861. They were the parents of four children, of whom our subject is the only survivor.

In an early day Mr. Huehl, Sr. with a few others made a trip from here to Chicago, Illinois on foot, the journey taking seven days. They went to look for work and at nights slept in fields and barns. They worked on the canal in the Western metropolis and received $1 per day for their labor, the cost of the entire trip being to them fifty cents. The first few years here were years of hard struggle and Mr. Huehl was a hard-working man. He not infrequently walked into Ann Arbor to sell butter, eggs, etc.

John G. Huehl was born January 12, 1837, in Prussia and was an infant when brought by his parents to Michigan. In his boyhood he attended school in this district. He was reared on a farm and remained at home until the death of his father. In 1856 he was married to Adelaide Schlicht, a native of Prussia, who was born in 1836, and came to America in 1855. Our subject and his wife are the parents of six children, as follows: John Henry, Lydia, Mary Ann, Bernhard, John F. and Clara. Lydia is the wife of Henry Veogeding and lives in Freedom Township. Mr. Huehl is the owner of one hundred and ninety-five acres of land and has one hundred and fifteen acres under the plow. He here carries on general farming and has a fine lot of graded stock.

Mr. Huehl, with his family, is a member of the Evangelical Association of Freedom. He is an exhorter in the same, also a Trustee, being very active in the Sunday-school in which he presides over the Bible class. He has been for some time Superintendent of the Sunday-school. He has been a member of the School Board from district No. 2. In politics he is an ardent Republican, dating his adherence to the party since the beginning of Abraham Lincoln's second term of office.

31. Johann Heinrich (John H.)⁵ Landwehr (Anna Gesina (S.)⁴ Schlicht, Anna Gesina Adelheid³ Bertke, Hermann Bernhard², Gerdt Herman¹) was born 04 Dec 1855 in Schale, Techlenburg, Westphalia, Germany, and died 06 May 1922 in Manchester, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Henrietta Katharina (Katharina Meta) Davidter 23 Mar 1880 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Jobst Davidter and Anna Meyer. She was born 15 Jul 1857 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 1946 in Manchester, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johann Heinrich (John H.) Landwehr:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Henry J. Landwehr, proprietor of a meat market in Manchester, is a native of Prussia, born in 1854. His father, Henry Landwehr, was also a native of the same country and died in 1902 at the age of seventy-six years. He came to the United States in 1864 and located near Freedom on a small farm. He was a tailor by trade, but after coming to the United States confined his attention to agricultural pursuits and was recognized as a hard-working, industrious and frugal man, who's carefully directed labors at length made him well-to-do. He held membership in the Evangelical Lutheran church and gave his political support to the democracy. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Anna G. Schlicht, was born in Germany and is living upon the old home farm at the age of seventy-seven years. She, too, is a member of the Evangelical Lutheran church. In their family were six children: Henry J.; Olive, the deceased wife of Barney Bertkie; Carrie, the wife of Jacob Hinderer, a farmer of Lima, Washtenaw County; John, who is farming in Saline Township; Lydia, the wife of Frank Feltkamp, a farmer of Lima Township; and Bernard, who resides upon the old homestead.

Henry J. Landwehr was reared upon his father's farm and attended the district schools. He continued to assist in the operation of the fields on the old homestead until 1895. He was married March 20, 1880, to Miss Harriet Davidter, who was born in Freedom Township in 1857 and was a daughter of Justus and Catherine (Meyer) Davidter, natives of Germany, who came to Washtenaw county at an early day. Her father was a farmer by occupation and in the family were twelve children, Mrs. Landwehr being a twin. Unto our subject and his wife have been born three children: Julia, Elmer and Helen. The parents are members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church and Mr. Landwehr is a valued representative of several fraternal organizations, including the Ancient Order of United Workmen, the Modern Woodmen of America and the Mutual Benevolent Association. In his political affiliation he is a democrat and he served as treasurer and as highway commissioner of Sharon Township. While residing there he had a farm of one hundred and thirty-five acres which he cultivated for eighteen years. In 1895 he came to Manchester and opened a meat market, which he is still profitably conducting, being recognized as one of the enterprising business men of the village. Since taking up his abode here he has been active in community affairs and in 1901 was chosen supervisor of Manchester Township, since which time by successive re-elections he has continued to fill the office. He is a member of the village council, serving for the past six years, and at the present writing is president pro tem. In his life record he displays many of the sterling characteristics of his German ancestry, including the perseverance and diligence which have ever been strong features in the Teutonic race. He is, however, thoroughly American in thought and feeling and has a deep and sincere attachment for the stars and stripes.

Notes for H. Franklin (Frank) Koebbe:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Frank H. Koebbe, supervisor of Freedom township and an enterprising agriculturist, was born May 10, 1858, in the township which is still his home. His father, John H. Koebbe, was a native of Prussia and in 1846 came to the United States, making his way at once to Washtenaw County. He worked by the month in Freedom Township for a year and then purchased eighty acres of land on section 27. His father, John Koebbe, had died in Germany and the mother, Mrs. Fannie Koebbe, and his two brothers, J. Gearhart and John Bernhart, and two sisters, Ricka and Katherine, came with him to this country and lived with him at the time of the purchase of the farm. His remaining days were devoted to the cultivation and improvement of the property and in the course of years he transformed his land into a very productive tract, carrying on his work along modern lines and being widely recognized as a prosperous and enterprising farmer. He married Miss Annie Mary Davidter, who was born in Prussia and came to the United States with her parents in 1846, the Davidter family being established in Bridgewater Township. Both of her parents are now deceased. In their family were three children: Justus Davidter, who died in Sharon Township; Henry; and Annie Mary, who became Mrs. Koebbe. Unto Mr. and Mrs. John H. Koebbe were born seven children: John F., now a resident of Saline Township; Sarah, who died at the age of five years; William, a carpenter of Manchester; Frank H.; Sophia, deceased; Sarah Katarina, living in Freedom Township; and Calvin Alfred, who resides upon the old homestead farm. The parents were both members of the Evangelical Association and were earnest Christian people, taking an active and helpful part in the church work. Mr. Koebbe served as class leader and trustee. His political support was given to the democracy and he served as school inspector and highway commissioner. Interested in all matters of public improvement, he gave active and helpful co-operation to various plans for the public good and throughout the community he was respected by neighbors and friends, making for himself a creditable name in business and social circles. He died August 14, 1879, in the fifty-ninth year of his age, while his wife passed away November 14, 1891, at the age of sixty-seven years.

Frank H. Koebbe was reared upon the home farm and attended the district schools. The occupation to which he gave his attention in youth he has made his life work. He resides on section 27, Freedom Township, where he owns eighty acres of rich and fertile land that annually returns to him good crops by reason of the care and cultivation which he bestows upon the fields. He is practical in his methods, systematic in all of his business affairs and by reason of his unfailing industry has met with very desirable success.

Mr. Koebbe was married in 1893 to Miss Mary Huehl, who was born in Freedom Township in 1860 and was a daughter of John Gearhart and Adeline (Schlicht) Huehl. The parents were natives of Germany and came to the United States about 1842, settling in Freedom Township. They had six children: Henry, who is living in Freedom Township; Benjamin, who is connected with the stove factory in Chelsea; John, at home; Lydia, the wife of Henry Voegeding, of Freedom Township; Mrs. Koebbe; and Clara, the wife of Calvin Koebbe, a brother of our subject, and a resident farmer of Freedom Township. Both Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Koebbe hold membership in the Evangelical Association and take an active part in the church work. He contributes generously to the support of the church, is acting as one of its officers and is superintendent of its Sunday-school. In politics he is a Democrat and for thirteen years served as justice of the peace, during which time his decisions were so fair and impartial that he won high encomiums from people of all parties. In 1905 he was elected supervisor of Freedom Township and is now serving on the finance and other important committees. He has been a member of the county democratic central committee and at various times has been chairman of the township committee. He is popular in Washtenaw County, being known as a good neighbor and loyal citizen, manifesting at the same time those traits of character which win warm personal regard.

Notes for Raymond Jacob Schairer:

July 9, 1995 - Long-time Scio Township farmer Ray Schairer has committed a life-time to 4-H. Few can say they've spent half a century leading youngsters in the organization. Last month, the former dairy farmer was rightly honored by his former students and peers during the 4-H Youth Show. The recognition comes just four months after he was presented with the Distinguished Service Award from the Washtenaw County Livestock Council. A booth was erected by Schairer's former club members in his honor at the annual 4-H Show. On display were many of the woodworking projects his club members have made over the years. Schairer became involved in 4-H during his teen-age years back in the 1930s. A friend of his leading a garden club encouraged him to participate. At the time, Schairer lived on his family's farm the same farm he has tended to the past 50 years and still lives on.

During his club years, Schairer enjoyed working with farm crop. He raised corn, wheat and oats, and exhibited samples during the County Fair held on the county fairgrounds, now the home of Veteran's Park in Ann Arbor. When Schairer was a young man of 20, a friend asked him if he would share his woodworking hobby with a couple of boys she taught as a teacher in a country schoolhouse. "She talked me into taking it over. I did that, and kept on ever since," He said. Schairer and the boys named their 4-H Club Parker Corners Craftsmen. The name represents Parker School; the country, school he attended from grades first through eighth before going, to Dexter High. It was located on the corner of Jackson and Parker roads. Schairer said he dabbled here and there in woodworking while growing up; Dexter High School didn't have a shop, but he made do. One of his first woodworking projects he helped create with his 4-H club members was rhythm bones, a musical instrument made of wood. During their time in the club, Schairer's students continued to develop their skills, making everything from intricate clocks to temps and tables. "I've had all kinds of light furniture come out of my shop by the kids and myself," said Schairer, who continues to sell his wares at the Farmer's Market in Chelsea. Parker Corners Craftsmen have always worked diligently in preparation for 4-H Spring Achievement. "That's the one we work real hard to get ready for," Schairer said, Club members meet every Saturday, afternoon from November to April. In the early days, Schairer saw youngsters ages 10 to 18, but has since welcomed children even younger. "The eight year olds of today are as mature as my 10 year olds of yesterday," he said. "But in woodworking, I wouldn't take anyone younger than eight."

Kirk VanNatter, one of Schairer's former club, members, says he fondly recalls spending many Saturdays on the Schairer farm. He can also recollect taking home a few blue ribbons for his woodworking projects created under the leadership of Schairer. He says he learned gradually, beginning at age 11 and through his teen-age years. The first piece VanNatter created was a tic tac toe board. He soon mastered the skills required and created a floor lamp with table. "He seemed to want you to do a good job. He made sure everything was right about your project," VanNatter said about his former leader. Schairer admits to his meticulous nature. "I am specifically, critical of them finishing the product. And everything must be sanded because that can cut your rating more than; anything; he explained. Still living in the area, VanNatter, a 33 year-old carpenter, remembers Schairer's attention to detail. "If you want a good woodworking project to turn out, you really need to pay attention to detail." And that is precisely what Schairer instilled in his members. VanNatter said. Schairer said he learned right along with VanNatter and the other Parker Corners club members. "We would try something and if we goofed up, we'd try again until we got it right," Schairer said. The most popular project for his youth, Schairer said, was construction in a gun cabinet. Club member Ricky Wild recently earned a blue ribbon for his piece. Nowadays, modern items such as computer desks are catching the fancy of area youth. "I let them kind of decide what they want to make," Schairer said,

Over his 50 years in 4-H, Schairer has been a mentor to more than 100 kids. "I run in to them now and then," he says. "So many of them say you got me started on the right foot." It feels good, he says, to see many of them still involved in the craft, be it as a carpenter like Van Natter or a cabinetmaker like Larry Knieper or someone who just has a woodworking shop like his own.

Raymond J. Schairer age 89, died Saturday, September 17, 2011 at his home in the Chelsea Retirement Community. He was born January 11, 1922 in Scio Township, the son of Arthur G. and Anna M. (Hinderer) Schairer.

Ray was a retired farmer; and was a member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau. He was a 4-H leader in Washtenaw County for over 55 years. While farming, he was a member of the Michigan Milk Producers Association, and the Michigan Animal Breeders Corporation. Ray volunteered at the Chelsea Retirement Community, was a very active member of the Chelsea First United Methodist Church, and was inducted into the Dexter High School Hall of Fame. Ray made between 30-40,000 "bones" and played them. He joined the writing club at Chelsea Retirement Community, and had his book "Barefoot Boy" published.

On September 2, 1950, Raymond married Jane Lenore Schlosser in Chelsea, and she survives. Other survivors include one brother, Lloyd (Marie) Schairer of Long Island, New York; one sister, Marjorie A. Dew of Oklahoma; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by a brother-in-law John Dew.

Notes for Nathanael Oscar Alber:

Alber's Cider Mill

Sippin' sweet cider in the fall was one of the fancy festivities back when grandmother was a girl, and still is. It is just as American as Thanksgiving Day and pumpkin pie—and every bit as delectable. The Alber' cider mill, last one in the Manchester area, is still grinding out apples every fall. The farm, owned and operated by Nathan Alber and his son, N. Allen Alber is at 13011 Bethel Church Road, about four and a half miles northeast of Manchester. If the weather stays mild the Albers plan to operate for several weeks in December.

The mill is part of a typical American farm—with a large white frame house—which Michael Alber, Nathan's father built 68 years ago. All of the other buildings are painted red and trimmed with white and neat as wax. The cider mill was built in 1870 as a barn and converted to a cider mill in 1890. It is part of the 217 acre farm. There are about nine acres of apples with about 300 apple trees, which are graded and sold by the peck and bushel.

Alber will tell you the best cider comes from the presses late in the fall—when the apples are good and cold. If the apples are good, you can expect about four gallons from bushel (50 pounds). Crates hold more than bushel baskets.

When Michael Alber first had his mill, there were many others in the area. All of the farmers had at least a few apple trees and there was a real demand for cider mills. They first had a steam engine for power for the presses. This gave way to the gasoline engine. And in 1928, when electricity first went through on Bethel Church Road, they immediately changed to electric power. When Albers grind their own apples—they do custom work, two-pickers in the orchard load the apples for cider on a truck which holds about 200 bushels of apples. They are taken to the mill, where they are put on a conveyor and carried through a water tank and washed. Then they are put in a grinder, which is electrically operated. The ground apples are carried down a chute to a hydraulic press, where the juice is squeezed out and pumped through a screen. The clear juice runs through a conductor to the mill basement and into waiting barrels.

Alber says the most cider he has processed is about 3,300 gallons a day. The average is about 2,000. They do a lot of custom grinding for orchards and customers who bring in tons of apples, such as a concern at Michigan Center which sells to the Jackson area. Work begins at sunup and takes until sundown to complete. Nothing is added to the pure apple juice. The farmer gets back the cider from the apples he brings and Alber can remember when he did it for 2 cents a gallon.

- 389 ii. Patricia Lease, born 01 Jul 1955. She married Pete Joseph Souza 2013 in Washington D.C.; born 31 Dec 1954 in New Bedford, Bristol Co, Massachusetts.

Notes for Pete Joseph Souza:

Oct. 21, 2013 - Official White House photographer Pete Souza married Patti Lease on Saturday in a small wedding hosted by President Barack Obama in the Rose Garden. "The ceremony was performed by Chaplain [Stan] Fornea and they were joined by roughly 35 family members and friends," a White House official said. "We all wish them well."

Peter Joseph Souza (born December 31, 1954) is an American photojournalist, the former Chief Official White House Photographer for U.S. Presidents Ronald Reagan and Barack Obama and the former director of the White House Photography Office. He was a photographer with The Chicago Tribune, stationed at the Washington, D.C., bureau from 1998 to 2007; during this period he also followed the rise of then-Senator Obama to the presidency.

Souza was born in New Bedford, Massachusetts and grew up in South Dartmouth, Massachusetts, the son of a nurse and a boat mechanic. He is of Portuguese ancestry; both sets of his grandparents emigrated from the Azores. Souza graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in public communication from Boston University and a master's degree in journalism and mass communication from Kansas State University.

In 2004, Jeff Zeleny, now a political correspondent for CNN, asked Souza to take photographs for a project documenting Barack Obama's first year as U.S. senator. Souza covered Obama's arrival to the Senate in 2005 and met him for the first time on Obama's first day in the Senate. He documented Obama's time in the Senate, following him in many foreign trips, including those to Kenya, South Africa, and Russia. In the process he not only became close to Senator Obama, he ended up following his rise to the presidency. In July 2008, Souza published a bestseller photo-book The Rise of Barack Obama, featuring photographs between 2005 and 2008. In May 2009, Souza began using Flickr as an official conduit for releasing White House photos. The photos were initially posted with a Creative Commons Attribution license which required that the original photographers be credited. Flickr later created a new license which identified them as "United States Government Work" which does not carry any copyright restrictions.

Souza was an assistant professor of photojournalism at Ohio University's School of Visual Communication. After the November 2008 election, he was asked to become the official White House photographer for his second time for the new President-elect Obama. On January 14, 2009, the new presidential portrait was released; it is the first time that an official presidential portrait was taken with a digital camera. A week later Souza was present at the inauguration and the following day he was the only photographer present for Obama's second swearing-in on Obama's first workday in the Oval Office. In 2010, National Geographic produced a program about Souza titled The President's Photographer, which featured Souza as the main subject while also covering the previous White House photographers.

As White House photographer, Souza traveled with the president to document each meeting, trip and encounter for historical record. Along with his staff, Souza produced up to 20,000 pictures a week. In November 2011, Souza was included on The New Republic's list of Washington's most-powerful, least-famous people. As well as using very high end cameras for his presidential photography, Souza occasionally took square shots on his iPhone.

Pete Souza is a best-selling author, speaker and freelance photographer based in Madison, Wisconsin. He is best known for his tenure as the Chief Official White House Photographer for President Obama and the Director of the White House Photo Office. His book, Obama: An Intimate Portrait debuted at #1 on the New York Times best-sellers list and is one of the best-selling photography books of all time. Souza became known as "the king of shade" during the Trump administration for juxtaposing his Obama photographs on Instagram with the tweets and quotes of the 46th president. His book, Shade: A Tale of Two Presidents also debuted at #1 on the New York Times best-sellers list. Pete Souza will be inducted into the International Photography Hall of Fame at a ceremony October 29th, 2021.

Previously Souza was an Assistant Professor of Photojournalism at Ohio University, the national photographer for the Chicago Tribune, a freelancer for National Geographic, and an Official White House Photographer for President Reagan. His books include the New York Times bestseller The Rise of Barack Obama, which documents the president's meteoric ascent from his first day in the United States Senate through the 2008 Pennsylvania presidential primary. Souza is currently a freelance photographer based in Washington, D.C. and is a Professor Emeritus at Ohio University's School of Visual Communication.

Pete Souza is a freelance photographer in the Washington, D.C. area and Professor Emeritus of Visual Communication at Ohio University. Souza was the Chief Official White House Photographer for President Obama and the Director of the White House photo office.

His book, "Obama: An Intimate Portrait," was published by Little, Brown & Company in 2017, and debuted at #1 on the New York Times bestseller list. It is one of the best-selling photography books of all time. His latest book, "Shade: A Tale of Two Presidents," also debuted at #1 on the New York Times bestseller list in October 2018. Shade is a portrait in Presidential contrasts, telling the tale of the Obama and Trump administrations through a series of visual juxtapositions. Here, more than one hundred of Souza's unforgettable images of President Obama deliver new power and meaning when framed by the tweets, news headlines, and quotes that defined the first 500 days of the Trump White House.

After leaving the White House, Souza photographed Brandi Carlile for her album, "By the way, I forgive you," which garnered six Grammy nominations and three Grammy awards. Souza also sang backup vocals on the song, "Hold Out Your Hand."

Previously Souza worked as an Assistant Professor of Photojournalism at Ohio University, the national photographer for the Chicago Tribune based in their Washington bureau, a freelancer for National Geographic and other publications, and Official White House Photographer for President Reagan. His book, "The Rise of Barack Obama," was published in July 2008 and includes exclusive photographs of the Senator Obama's rise to power. The book was also on the New York Times bestseller list.

In addition to the national political scene, Souza has covered stories around the world. After 9/11, he was among the first journalists to cover the fall of Kabul, Afghanistan, after crossing the Hindu Kush mountains by horseback in three feet of snow.

Also while at the Tribune, Souza was part of the staff awarded the Pulitzer Prize in 2001 for explanatory reporting on the airline industry. As a freelancer, Souza photographed two stories on assignment for National Geographic Magazine and three photo essays for Life Magazine. His photographs have also been published in many other magazines and newspapers around the world including on the covers of Life, Fortune, Newsweek, and U.S. News & World Report.

In 1992, Souza produced and published "Unguarded Moments: Behind-the-Scenes Photographs of President Reagan," a coffee-table book based on his 5 1/2 years in the White House. Former Sen. Howard Baker Jr. said in his introduction to the book that Souza recorded "some of the most intimate, honest and humanizing scenes of the presidency I've ever seen." A updated book, "Images of Greatness: An Intimate Look at the Presidency of Ronald Reagan," was published in June 2004 by Triumph Books. Souza was also the official photographer for the June 2004 funeral of President Reagan.

In 1996, Souza published a documentary photography book entitled, "Plebe Summer at the U.S. Naval Academy". The book chronicles one company of incoming midshipmen through the six-week indoctrination period of Plebe Summer. Souza has won numerous photojournalism awards including several times in the prestigious Pictures of the Year annual competition, the NPPA's Best of Photojournalism, and the White House News Photographers Association's yearly contest.

Notes for Erwin Theodore Blumenauer:

A Manchester area family was left homeless Saturday after April 13, 1968 when a fire of unknown origin completely destroyed their home. Erwin and Thelma Blumenauer and their children are now staying with her parent, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Blaisdell, on Burmeister Rd. The blaze was spotted at 2:15 p.m. Saturday by a neighbor, who called the Manchester Fire Department to report that the Blumenauer house, at 1220 Lima Center Rd., in Bridgewater Township, was "all afire". The building has apparently been burning for some time and was virtually gutted before the fire broke through and was sighted, Manchester Fire Chief Jim Kensler said. The cause may have been a faulty heater, he said, "but there's no way to be for sure because there's nothing left." Barns and outbuildings were saved. The Saline Fire Department assisted in fighting the fire for more than an hour and a half.

No one was at home when the fire broke out; Blumenauer had left two hours before. Mrs. Blumenauer is employed in the meat department at the Ceselo Market here, and the children were at their grand parents' home.

He married Janet Lee Mohr 15 Sep 1962. She was born 23 Feb 1938 in Michigan.

Notes for John Richard Ernst:

John Richard Ernst, age 82, passed away peacefully at his home in Tawas City/Alabaster Township surrounded by family on Sunday, Jan. 27, 2019. While expressing gratitude for his many blessings, Richard declared countless times that his greatest blessing is his wife, Janet (Mohr) Ernst, whom he met while in law school and married on Sept. 8, 1962. They raised three beloved children, Matthew E. Ernst, Julia L. Ernst (Richard Clement) and Andrew J. Ernst (Lisa); and had seven treasured grandchildren, John (Jack) Ernst, Kara Ernst, Stephen Ernst, Cosette Clement, Shuwang Clement (deceased), Otto Ernst II and Joseph Ernst.

Richard loved spending time with his family, including playing games, going on trips, hunting, fishing, camping and watching the kids and then grandkids play sports and give performances. He was well-known for grilling marvelous foods. Rich and Jan enjoyed playing cards with good friends, traveled worldwide, and were active members in Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, where he handed out Life Savers to the kids. As a young man, he played football and fixed up an old truck into a hot rod. Other interests included golfing and bowling. He adored his dogs, including Laddie, Kota, Hobbes, Gita, Rosie, Wilson and Winnie – whom he spoiled with dog bones. He always had a twinkle in his eye and delighted in teasing others. Both kind-hearted and generous, Richard helped many individuals, community organizations, and charities over the years. For example, he helped take special needs children to the Shrine Circus and supported the Shriners Hospitals for Children and the Children's Dyslexia Centers (a Scottish Rite charity). He was an active member of the Tawas Kiwanis Club, Tawas Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite Bay City Consistory, Elf Khurafeh Temple and Iosco County Historical Society.

He also volunteered as a Little League coach and a Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmaster for the Boy Scouts of America, and strongly supported the Girl Scouts, as well. Deeply patriotic, he served in the U.S. Army Enlisted Reserve from 1956-1962 and was active duty in the 1st Cavalry Division in Japan from 1956-1958.

After earning a BA in Economics from Yale University in 1960 and an LLB from the University of Michigan Law School in 1963, Richard worked in private practice at the law firm of Bodman Longley in Detroit and then as the Iosco County Prosecuting Attorney from 1965-1968. He served as the 81st District Court Judge from 1969-1980 and the 23rd Circuit Court Judge from 1980-2003.

Upon retiring, Rich and Jan spent a year in Armenia, where he volunteered with the American Bar Association's Central European and Eurasian Law Initiative. He was a member of the American Bar Association, the Michigan Bar Association, and the Michigan Judges Association and was active in the Michigan Retired Judges Association. He was delighted to be sworn into the U.S. Supreme Court Bar together with his daughter.

Richard was born in Detroit on May 28, 1936 to Louise Eugenia (Burgeson) Ernst (1903) and Otto Paul Ernst (1898). Louise's parents emigrated from Sweden and met in Michigan, where they married and established a farm in East Tawas that is still in the family. Otto's parents originated from Germany and lived in Manchester. Richard had one brother, Robert Ernst (Nancy), both deceased. Richard grew up in Mt. Clemens, and graduated from Mt. Clemens High School.

428 ii. Julia Louise Ernst, born May 1969.

Notes for Julia Louise Ernst:

February 26, 2019 - Associate Professor of Law Julia Ernst and her mother Janet Mohr Ernst descend from the first English colonists of what is now the United States, who arrived on the Mayflower almost 400 years ago. At this week's Faculty Lecture Series installment, Ernst will present the Mayflower Compact's influence on American democracy. Photo by Connor Murphy/UND Today. Julia Ernst is descended from a scoundrel, and proud of it.

Her ancestor, John Billington, came to what is now the United States on the Mayflower in 1620. "We grew up hearing stories of our family coming from England on the Mayflower," said Ernst, associate professor of law, who will present "The Mayflower Compact and the U.S. Constitution" at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 27, in the Memorial Union Lecture Bowl. A reception will precede the event at 4 p.m. It's an appropriate topic, said Ernst, given that the 400th anniversary of the Compact is next year. She teaches and researches constitutional law, along with legislation, human rights and gender law.

Ernst's mother, Janet (Mohr) Ernst became interested in genealogy and was able to establish that her ancestor, John Billington, did indeed sail on the Mayflower to the New World. That work sparked Ernst's interest in the Mayflower Compact and its impact on the Constitution. Ernst said that her mother is flying in from Michigan to hear her give the lecture. "My interest in genealogy has definitely piqued my interest in history and has become a joyful adventure that I now share with my daughter," said Janet Ernst.

"We thought John Billington was one of the original pilgrims who fled England for religious reasons, until we did some research," said Ernst. "He was not a 'Saint' as the separatists from the Church of England called themselves; Billington was one of the so-called 'Strangers.'" The investors in England who funded the journey had selected others—including craftsmen, merchants, indentured servants and orphaned children—to accompany the "Saints" to ensure the success of the colony. Billington was accused, said Ernst, of being one of the mutineers on the Mayflower. Although Billington and his family were crucial in helping the settlement survive the first winter, he was also the first person to be hanged in the colony.

Several years ago, Ernst said that she and her family went with friends to a luncheon of the Society of Mayflower Descendants in Michigan at the prestigious Grosse Pointe War Memorial. "People were asked to rise when their ancestor was announced," said Ernst. "When John Billington was announced, my mother and I proudly stood up. And someone at the next table murmured, 'I can't believe they admit they're Billingtons!'" The mutinous dissent took place because the Mayflower was driven off course and landed near Cape Cod in Massachusetts instead of their original destination. Therefore, some of the "Strangers" argued that the patent under which they sailed was void. To quell the rebellion, most of the adult male colonists signed what became the Mayflower Compact, an agreement establishing the governance of the new colony. "Winter was coming," said Ernst. "They landed at what is now known as Plymouth Rock and knew everyone was needed to help the colony survive. They needed to work together, so the Compact was signed before they left the ship."

Julia Ernst teaches and researches constitutional law, along with legislation, human rights and gender law at the UND School of Law. She says it's important to learn, know, cherish and embrace the history of democratic freedoms – something she has been able to do first-hand, through her family ties. Photo by Shawna Schill/UND Today.

"Democracy was a new concept in 1620," Ernst said. "There were monarchies in Europe and England, influenced by the Magna Carta. The Mayflower Compact was an iconic idea of self-governance and democracy in the New World, and it spread to other colonies." The settlers had to govern themselves, she said. "The New World was so far removed from Great Britain. The monarchs were unable to impose hands-on governance. It was a laboratory experiment in self-rule. "The seeds of democracy were there, and the Mayflower Compact was a seminal piece of American history that led to democracy and our freedoms today," said Ernst. "It's so important to know and embrace that history."

The Mayflower Compact helped shape the governance of Plymouth Colony, and led to the Pilgrim Code of Law in 1636. Then in the 1700s, as King George tried to clamp down and establish more control, the colonies began to rebel. "They had grown up under the democratic process," Ernst said. "At the same time, The Age of Enlightenment was taking place and influencing the colonies." The exchange of ideas eventually led to the Revolutionary War and independence. That independence was tenuous at first. The Articles of Confederation, which originally bound the new states together, formed a very weak central government. "Loyalty was to each state," Ernst said. "The United States was not necessarily united. It was under threat of falling apart." Alexander Hamilton and others, including an initially-reluctant George Washington, began advocating for a stronger central government. This resulted in the U.S. Constitution and the foundation of our current democratic system, she said. "When the Constitution was signed, only 6 percent of the population could vote," Ernst said. "Twenty percent of the population was enslaved. Democracy as we know it today evolved over time. "Democracy is never guaranteed," said Ernst. "It's important to learn, know, cherish and embrace the history of democratic freedoms so we can continue to keep them."

267. Nathan Allan⁷ Alber (Emma Katherine⁶ Schlicht, Johann William⁵, Johann Heinrich (John H.)⁴, Anna Gesina Adelheid³ Bertke, Hermann Bernhard², Gerdt Herman¹) was born 19 Mar 1930 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 21 Jan 2007 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Ann Iona Way 23 Aug 1952 in Manchester, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 31 Mar 1930 in Pittsford, Hillsdale Co, Michigan.

Notes for Nathan Allan Alber:

Nathan A. (Al) and Ann Alber, Manchester: The Alber family settled in Freedom Twp. in June of 1855. Being of German heritage they were farmers who grew grains, forage and raised livestock. They also managed an orchard and cider mill. Horses powered the mill. In 1981 John M. Alber, my great grandfather purchased 75 acres from Jason Gillet. This was sold to my grandfather Michael P. Alber in December of 1887. He then installed a (modern) cider mill powered by a steam engine in 1890. This was replaced by a gasoline engine in 1911 and electricity in 1927. The 75 acres was then passed down in turn, to Nathan O. in 1938 to Nathan A. in 1973 (was certified a centennial farm in 1987) and to Michael A. Alber in 1992. Michael A. in 1998 chose to pursue other interests and sold the property. Ann and I still live on the farm by Silver Lake that was purchased by my grandfather in 1901, (certified a centennial farm in 2001). We have enjoyed our life together her. We have seen many changes over the years, perhaps the most significant of which was the transition from horses to the tractors of today. The advent of hybrid seeds and the use of chemicals for weed and insect control also made life on the farm easier and more profitable. I regret the seeming necessity of government farm subsidies and believe that they are destroying the values that were so prized by previous generations.

Alber, Nathan A. (Al), Born March 19, 1930 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw County, MI passed away January 21, 2007. The son of Nathan O. and Emma K. (Schlicht) Alber. Al married Anna I. Way on August 23, 1952 and she survives, also survived by two children, Pamela S. Hughes and Michael A. Alber, as well as six grandchildren: Daniel, Andrea, Michelle, Emily, Alisha and Philip.

He was a life-long member of the Emanuel United Church of Christ, life member of the NRA. He lived and worked until retirement in 1992 on the family farm in Freedom Twp. Al also owned and operated Alber Orchard and Cider Mill, first with his parents, then with his wife and children. Al served on the board of directors of Union Savings Bank and Freedom Twp, board of review. After retiring Mr. Alber also was a part-time hourly employee of Pioneer HI-BRED Inc.

Cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be held on May 12, 2007. Private interment Oak Grove Cemetery, Manchester. Memorial donations may be made to "Dutchmen fire-fighters". Arrangements entrusted to Borek Jennings Funeral Home, Jenter Chapel.

The Aldus Society, a Columbus-based organization for lovers of books and the printed arts. He was a board member, past president and newsletter editor for the group. Additionally, he was a board member for both the Friends of the OSU Libraries and The Fellowship of American Bibliophilic Societies (FABS). Over the years he built his own collection of antiquarian books, maps and prints, with a particular emphasis on works associated with 18th-century explorer Capt. James Cook.

Friends may call Tuesday, 5 p.m. to 8 p.m., at SCHOEDINGER WORTHINGTON CHAPEL, 6699 N. High St. Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning, 11 a.m., at BETHEL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, 1220 Bethel Road. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to two organizations close to Ron's heart: Perkins Observatory Endowment Fund, P.O. Box 449, Delaware, OH, 43015 or The Aldus Society, c/o Dave Reiff, 5688 Pauley Ct., Columbus, OH, 43235.

The evening's program will be a tribute to Ronald Ravneberg, early member and second president of the Aldus Society, whose enthusiasm and insight was a profound contribution to the fledgling association. "A Celebration of the Book," organized by the Aldus Society in 2004, was largely Ron's inspiration and production and provided the central Ohio book community with two days of varied events including keynote addresses by Barry Moser and Nicholas Basbanes, panel discussions, book signings, and a book appraisal clinic. Ron was foremost a focused collector and articulate chronicler of the voyages and explorations of Captain James Cook whose 18th-century expeditions throughout the Pacific Ocean vastly expanded the scientific and navigational knowledge of his age.

Geoffrey D. Smith, Professor Emeritus and former Head of the Rare Books and Manuscripts Library at the Ohio State University, will present and moderate tributes by Ron's friends. Ravneberg is best known for his Captain Cook collection and his associated interests in the book arts and astronomy. The scientific field sparked and held Ron's interest in Cook. Did you know that the primary purpose of Cook's first voyage to Tahiti in 1769 was to observe the transit of Venus, a relatively rare astronomical phenomenon?

Ron Ravneberg is remembered as a Cook scholar, who published his bibliographical findings with the Captain Cook Society and addressed bibliophilic groups on a frequent basis. Ron died too young of pancreatic cancer in 2009. The Aldus Society memorialized him by the establishment of the annual Ron Ravneberg Lecture and it seems fitting, at this time, that we revisit Ron the man. Ron left his outstanding collection to the OSU Rare Books and Manuscripts Library. The speaker honorarium for this special presentation will be donated to the OSU RBML.

391. Elizabeth Susan⁸ Lease (Helen Gertrude⁷ Ernst, John Lewis⁶, Sarah Emma⁵ Schlicht, Johann Heinrich (John H.)⁴, Anna Gesina Adelheid³ Bertke, Hermann Bernhard², Gerdt Herman¹) was born 25

Apr 1958. She married Dennis Dewitt Hill 23 Jul 1983 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He was born 25 Jul 1944.

Notes for Dennis Dewitt Hill:

Dennis "Denny" Hill is a hall-of-fame swim coach who coached at Pioneer High School (Ann Arbor, Michigan) for 46 years (1969-2014 Men's Head Coach and 1973-2010 Women's Head Coach). During this tenure as coach, Pioneer High School won 31 Michigan High School State Swim Championships (15 for the men and 16 for the women) and 9 National Dual Meet (Power Points) Championships. The combined teams' overall dual meet record was 1011-128-2 (567-90 for the men and 444-38-2 for the women). The swim program produced 245 National Interscholastic Swim Coaches Association (NISCA) All-American Swimmers for a total of 862 All-American awards. Denny's wife, Elizabeth "Liz" Hill began coaching with him in 1983, and became co-head coach of the Pioneer men's and women's swim teams in 2005. They both retired from coaching the women's team in 2010 and the men's team in 2014.

Dennis Hill was born in 1944 to Harry W. and Berniece Hill. His father was a local labor leader and president of Amalgamated Local No. 734 in Lansing, Michigan, and his mother Berniece Hill was the Lansing Postmaster General. A Lansing High School was named after Harry Hill, but the school closed after 10 years due to declining enrollment; the building is now used for vocational training. Denny graduated from Lansing Eastern High School in 1962, which at the time was in the same swim conference as Pioneer High School. Denny's coach at Lansing Eastern High School, Jerry Misner, would become the coach of Pioneer High School and later recommend him for the job at Pioneer. Denny swam for Michigan State University, and was captain of the team in 1966 when they placed 4th at NCAA championships (the school's highest finish ever). He graduated with a degree in Chemistry with plans to go to dental school, but ended up going into teaching. His coaching career began at Ferndale High School in 1967, but he moved to Ann Arbor after being offered a job by Charlie Lott. He was also told by then Huron High School (Ann Arbor, Michigan) swim coach, Pat Wallace, that the city was going to build a 50-meter pool, which would allow Hill and colleagues to start a competitive summer swim program. In 1983, Denny married Elizabeth Lease (daughter of Helen Ernst and Glenn Lease). Liz swam at Pioneer and went on to become an All-American swimmer at the University of Michigan. Liz moved to Texas to teach and coach at MacArthur High School in Houston after graduating from the University of Michigan, but moved back when she married Denny. She became the Pioneer men and women's assistant swim coach in 1984 and was named co-head coach in 2005. Liz has Master of Education Leadership degree from Eastern Michigan University. Denny taught chemistry at Pioneer High School for 39 years and retired from teaching in 2007.

Denny Hill is also credited with starting Club Wolverine, the Ann Arbor-based USA Swimming club team. The program was started as a summer, long-course, swim program to provide local swimmers the opportunity to compete in summer national-level competitions. Denny's friend, Jon Urbanek, took over the club in 1983 when Urbanek became the head coach of the University of Michigan swim program. Although Club Wolverine is now a year-round swim club for all age groups, the club has remained the summer training program for elite swimmers from the University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University.

Known for her beaming smile and quick-wit humor, it was also evident the love she carried for God, for the love of her life, her family- not just by blood but connected by the heart, and her country. She conquered and survived breast cancer. Some of her noblest titles were "Mom" and "Yaya." Her heart filled with pride about the wonderful men and fathers her sons became as she relished her time as a grandmother. Everyone had an endearing and entertaining story to tell about how amazing she was. Her words of wisdom will guide us in our everyday lives, and she will be missed tremendously. However, we rest in the promise that it is not goodbye, but rather, "until we meet again" in that sweet reunion in Heaven.

Notes for Mark Alan Hodney:

Mark Alan Hodney, son of Donald Carter and Cora Lou (Woehler) (1930-2015) Hodney, was born 23 January 1953, Lansing, Ingham County, Michigan. Mark graduated in 1971 from Okemos High School and went on to also graduate from Ferris State College, Big Rapids, Mecosta County, Michigan. Mark became a Real Estate Broker, developer and recognized environmentalist in Ingham County.

Mark Hodney of Briarwood Development company of Okemos was recently recognized by the Okemos Board of Education for providing time and expertise to the school district. Hodney helped in the development of the Hiawatha Elementary School.

Mark was killed in a boating accident 15 June 1996.

Tuesday 18 June 1996 - A Haslett man killed in a weekend boating accident died of head injuries, authorities said Monday. Mark Hodney, 43, a local real estate broker, suffered the fatal injuries Saturday night during a two-boat crash on darkened Lake Lansing. Preliminary autopsy results showed Hodney did not drown in the 10:24 p.m. crash. His boat collided with a boat piloted by Barry Spengler, 45, of Haslett, Ingham County Prosecutor Donald Martin said. Hodney's boat sank after the crash. He was pulled to shore but was dead when emergency workers arrived.

Dr. Laurence Simson, an Ingham County pathologist, released preliminary findings Monday but is completing other tests. Breathalyzer and blood tests showed the Spengler, who suffered minor injuries, was not intoxicated or impaired by alcohol at the time of the crash. Spengler's passenger, Joan Hrcka, 25, of Owosso, was not injured. "Test results on Hodney's blood have not been completed and may not be available for several days," Martin said. The boats collided in the middle of the lake. Authorities said speed was a factor but did not know how fast the boats were going. It was not determined whether the boats had their running lights on as required by law.

Hodney was a graduate of Okemos High School and Ferris State college. He learned his trade from his father, Donald Hodney, a well-known Meridian Township developer who built the Briarwood subdivision in the 1980's. Mark Hodney was recognized by the Okemos Board of Education in 1989 for the development of Hiawatha Elementary School. He also donated the school's Butterfly and Nature Center. "He was a person you had to love," said Bob Homan, a local real estate consultant. "He's one of the hardest working individuals I've ever known. When you asked Mark to get something done, he got something done."

He is survived by his mother and father and three children, Jennifer, Eric and Brian. "He had this real love of nature...and, on a personal level, he was just an enthusiastic father in my eyes," said Virginia White, Meridian Township clerk. A funeral is set for 4 p.m. Thursday at Gorsline-Runciman Co.'s East Chapel in East Lansing, Visitation will follow the service.

Mark A. Hodney of Haslett, age 43, born January 23, 1954; died June 15, 1996. Mark was a graduate of Okemos High School and Ferris State College; and was most recently a Real Estate Broker and member of the Board of Realtors. As the developer of the Spring Lake Neighborhood in Meridian Township, in conjunction with his father, Don Hodney, Mark was noted for his sensitivity to environmental issues. His designs received several awards, including the Environmental Awareness Award from the Greater Lansing Home Builders Association. He was commended by the Okemos Board of Education for his active role in the development of Hiawatha Elementary School, and he also built and donated the Butterfly and Nature Center of the school. Mark had been active in numerous public causes, including the preservation of the Ingham County Library system, Habitat for Humanity and the Michigan Dyslexia Institute.

Surviving are 3 children, Jennifer Lynn, Eric Scott and Brian James; father, Donald Carter Hodney; mother, Cora Lou Hodney; and 1 sister, Connie Lee (David) Dickhaut. Mark was an excellent skier, a gifted photographer, and a very loving father who will be missed by all who knew him.

A memorial service will be held on Thursday, June 20, 4 p.m. at the Gorsline-Runciman Co. East Chapel, 1730 E. Grand River, East Lansing, with the rev. Kathryn DeMougin, Unity Minister, officiating.

Notes for Cheryl Lynn Blumenauer:

November 19, 2013 – by Cheryl Sweetland - Washtenaw County Farm Bureau members, I am excited to have the opportunity to serve on the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau (WCFB) board as a member at-large. I am a lifelong resident of the county and grew up on a farm in Manchester. While at home my father, Mark Blumenauer, and our family raised cattle, farrowed pigs, fattened out feeder pigs, grew crops and baled lots of hay. I was involved in 4-H and FFA, and went on to Ferris State University where I earned a Bachelor of Science in health systems management. After graduation, I accepted a position at the University of Michigan (UM) in the hospital finance department where I worked for nine years prior to moving to the department of internal medicine where I since served as the faculty affairs manager. I celebrated my 20-year service anniversary at UM last month.

I married Brian Sweetland in 1996 and we have four children: Nicole, Natalie, Emily and Bradley ranging in age from five to 12. Brian is a third-generation dairy farmer and the fifth-generation to farm the Sweetland homestead farm in Lodi Township. He milks 50 cows and we grow corn, soybeans, wheat and hay. We work hard and take great pride in what we do; a consistent theme embedded across the farming community.

Why am I excited to take on this service role? The short answer is because it is important. The long answer comes to light when revisiting the ordeal my husband and I went through with the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) in 2012. Prior to our experience, we didn't understand the impact of state and federal regulations or more importantly, that common sense is missing from the equation when those regulations are being interpreted. We were fortunate to have support from my dad, close friends and the farming community.

WCFB helped organize a meeting with legislators, members and members of the community to share our story. Michigan Farm Bureau was also there for us. Specifically, our MFB Regional Representative. Our story is not unique; other stories like ours are playing out all over the state and across the country. The agricultural sector is small, but the goods we produce feed the world. We need to partner with one another, speak up and educate others who are otherwise unaware of the effort to produce goods and the care, immense integrity and pride we take in our approach while doing so. Farm Bureau is dedicated to supporting members and ensuring our voice is heard. We, as growers and producers, have a part to play. Don't be afraid to engage Farm Bureau and ask for help, I'm sure glad we did.
