Notes for Captain Andreas (John Theodore Andrew Hoover) Huber:
Biographies; 1905; "History & FInancial Resources of Louisville, Nebraska", Cass County, Nebraska:

Captian John T. A. Hoover - Upon our streets every day of the year may be seen the gray-haired, venerable old gentleman, who, more than thirty long years ago, laid out the plans for the beautiful little town in which we make our home today. He put up the first house in the place, and the town has since been the object of his fostering care.

This man is Captain John T.A. Hoover, born at Nagold, Wurtemberg, Germany, September 13, 1826, and the record left behind in those seventy-six years on earth is one occupying a place second to none among the early promoters of our state.

Attending the common schools of his native country until he was fourteen years of age, he entered a laboratory and learned the compounding of medicines, devoting most of his time to the study of chemistry. At the age of eighteen he entered the employ of Dr. Frances Croener, spending two years with this gentleman traveling about Europe. By this time his parents had decided to emigrate to America so young Hoover gave up the road and in 1846 accompanied them to this country, settling on a farm in Ohio. In 1848 Mr. Hoover was married to Miss Effie Houfnatrale, of Pennsylvania, her parents having spent their last days in Ohio. He still stayed at home with his parents, working for them on the farm. In 1853 he joined the Ohio state militia, soon afterward becoming captain of his company, commissioned by the governor. His father died in 1856 and young Captain was then left in whole charge of the farm affairs. This he did until the breaking out of the war in 1861. At the first call for volunteers he made up a company known as Co. D 58th Ohio Vol. infantry of which he was the head, receiving his commission from Governor Denison of Ohio. He was thus actively engaged for two years being compelled to return home in '63 owing to ill health.

Upon return to his family, whom he had left on the farm well cared for during his absence, he disposed of all his property in Ohio and removed to Cass County, Nebraska, and purchased land on section 23, Louisville precinct, securing at once 320 acres, upon which there were no improvements, with the exception of a small log house. Under many disadvantages he commenced the opening up of a farm, and six years later erected a large stone dwelling, which is today his present home. The material for this structure was quarried on his own land.

After signalizing himself in a most decided manner as a man well fitted for positions of trust and responsibility, Captain Hoover was, in 1865, elected to represent this county in the Nebraska legislature [sic] on the Republican ticket, endorsed by the democrats. He served his term acceptably there and returned to his farm. In 1870, when the B. & M. Railroad Company built their road through this section, Mr. Hoover gave them $500 out of his own pocket to locate their station at this place. This move was the foundation of Louisville. He then erected a small frame building on what today are Second and Main streets. Here he kept the first post office of the town, together with a small stock of groceries, tobacco, etc., at the same time caring for his farm and promoting the interests of our little city. In 1881 he resigned his commission as postmaster to Mr. J.V. Glover, and turned his whole attention to his farm. Captain

Hoover is now retired from active service but he and his faithful wife still live on the old home place with plenty of this world's goods to make their last years, years of contentment and pleasure; to which they are so justly entitled.

Ten children were born to Captain and Mrs. Hoover, four boys and six girls, all of whom are living.

Andreas' History of the State of Nebraska – Cass County:

Captian James T. A. Hoover, farmer and manufacturer, Section 23, Town 12, Range 11. Capt. Hoover was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, September 26, 1826. His father was a revolutionist, and determined to throw off the fetters of his government by going away from it. All his sons except James were in the Emperor's service, and he declared that James, the youngest, should never go into the service, and in 1844, when James was about eighteen, he emigrated to America, settling in Darke County, Ohio, and engaged in farming. James, for many years, was Captain of a company in the Fifth Ohio Militia. In August, 1861, he received a commission from Gov. Dennison to raise a company for the Fifty-eighth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, which he did, and in January, 1862, was elected and commissioned Captain of Company D. Their first engagement was with the enemy at Fort Donelson, and after that followed the fortunes of his regiment, which was attached to the Twelfth Division, Seventeenth Army Corps, participating in the battles of Corinth, Island No. 10, Shiloh, the first battle of Vicksburg, etc., campaigning in Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana chiefly. At the battle of Shiloh, Capt. Hoover was wounded by a fragment of a shell, which struck him in both legs, the same fragment taking off both legs of Corp. Meyar, of which wound he died. The Captain, also, at Shiloh, received a saber wound in the wrist by a long Texan.

In 1863, much broken down in health, he tendered his resignation, which was accepted, when he returned home in April, and in May of the same year moved to Cass County, Nebraska, and purchased the farm on which he now resides, containing 320 acres of land. He has on his farm the finest deposit of white clay yet discovered in the West for the manufacture of terra cotta stone ware, fire-brick, fire-clay, etc. Samples of the clay have been used in Germany, England, New Jersey, Ohio and Chicago, and stood the highest test. Capt. Hoover principally erected the Louisville pottery; laid out the village of Louisville, owning a third interest in the original plat. He has manufactured fire and building brick for several years, and is now making preparations to manufacture the present season half a million brick. In 1865, Capt. Hoover was elected a member of the Territorial Legislature, serving the term 1865-66. He is a fluent writer and talker in the German, English and French languages. He was appointed Postmaster at Louisville in the spring of 1869, and held the office until April, 1880, when he resigned, to be succeeded by John V. Glover.

He was married in Greenwich, Ohio, December 31, 1848, to Miss Isa Huoffunhele, who was born in Lebanon, Pennsylvania, September 3, 1832. They have nine children--Benjamin G., born December 5, 1849; Ellen C., May 28, 1852; James M., January 8, 1854; Elizabeth, December 18, 1856; Mary, March 19, 1858; Amelia, September 27, 1859; Andrew, December 10, 1861; William Herman, May 1, 1871; Isabella, September 25, 1872; all, except the two latter, born in Ohio.

Louisville - Cass County, Nebraska

Louisville is nestled in the tree-lined hills in north-central Cass County bordered by the Platte River. In addition to good croplands and an abundance of wildlife, the area is rich in limestone, sand and clay.

Gardner Powers first settled here in 1857, building a log cabin on Mill Creek just south of what is now 3rd Street. He registered a plat for the town of "Louisville" in February of that year, which was incorporated under a special act of the territorial legislature. By August 18, 1857, papers were filed by 13 original stockholders in the "Town Association of Louisville." Although the vision never materialized beyond the paper it was written on, the action did provide for some later advantages.

Among the settlers in the area in 1863 was John T. A. Hoover, a German by birth, who came from Ohio after serving in the Union Army, sustaining serious wounds in the Battle of Shiloh. Hoover purchased 320 acres of land on which was discovered some of the finest white clay in the region, used in the making of terra cotta stoneware. He established Louisville pottery, and in 1865 was elected to the territorial legislature. Hoover, who wrote eloquently in German, English, and French, was instrumental in getting a free-school policy in Nebraska law. He also promoted the building of several schoolhouses, one being on lot 771 in "the town of Louisville," known as Urwin School. In 1867 he was appointed postmaster of Louisville.

In 1869, when the Burlington & Missouri River Railroad arrived in Cass County, Hoover used his influence and a great deal of his personal resources to get it routed through Louisville. With the foresight of what the railway would do for the town -- a means of transporting raw materials and manufactured goods to markets around the world -- he capitalized on the opportunity. The B&MRR arrived in Louisville in 1870, by which time he had laid out a new plat, giving two-thirds of it to the railroad. Hoover built a store in which he put the post office, and Louisville immediately began to grow.

The town, resurveyed by M. Willsey, was officially recorded March 1, 1872, and a public dedication was held in 1872 honoring Capt. and Mrs. Hoover as "Founders of Louisville." Incorporation under state laws was not accomplished until August 1882 which, unfortunately, had retarded the development of certain civic activities and a "town school."

For many years the Platte could only be crossed in flatboats, except in winter, or when the water level was low. The Missouri Pacific Railroad bridged the Platte in 1881 between Omaha and Louisville. In 1890 the first road-bridge was constructing using 20-foot spans and oak planking. Nearly 600-foot washed out in 1903. When it washed out again in 1905, it was not repaired. A toll bridge, built in 1909, was paid off and given to the state in 1926, only to be ruled as unsafe in 1929. A steel bridge was built in 1930, which also required a toll until 1939. The fourth and present bridge, completed in 1973, has a 42-foot roadway for two-lane traffic.

A "cyclone" in 1908 caused great destruction, injury and death in Louisville, as did a flood entering the town as a wall-of-water on Mill Creek in 1923. Water swept away homes and whole families in its path, and was classified as "the greatest calamity in the history of the town." Telephone operators Marjorie Twiss and Lydia Pautsch were given "Vail Medals" for remaining at their posts all night trying to help people in need.

The importance of Louisville's limestone deposits are obvious. The quarries employed as many as 500 men in the 1880s for the building of bridges, foundations, and buildings. Later, gravel and crushed rock were widely used in building roads.

In addition to Hoover's pottery, Lyman-Richey Sand, National Stone Quarries, Patrick Stone, Kahler Pottery, and Hugh Murphy Construction companies have all helped to make Louisville grow. In 1927 the Ash Grove Cement Company established a plant on land that had been quarried out. Ash Grove has expanded many times and reports that it still have over 100-years of limestone to quarry from its deposits.

Because of our proximity to Omaha and Lincoln, we will always be in competition for business. However, with the development of recreation and the Platte River State Park, Louisville, with a population of 1,022, brings people from the city to enjoy our small-town cafes, and many antique shops.

Notes for Emma Weitbrecht:
Oct. 5, 1932 - Forty years ago this very moment Howell was a bedlam of excitement. "Fire, Fire" was the word upon every lip. The local fire department was struggling heroically to conquer the flames. Lansing was rushing firefighting equipment to Howell on a special train. Fowlerville rushed chemicals and equipment. Hundreds of citizens carried water, or aided in the removal of goods from the stores threatened by flames. Fire broke out about 1:15 P.M. in the basement of the building now occupied by W.O. Richards on East Grand River. Despite all that could be done the flames licked their way west and the entire block from the building now occupied by Newcomb's Shoe Store was a smoking mass of ruins. In the midst of conflagration, the people of the community gasped as it was discovered that two of Howell's prominent men bad perished when the floors of the buildings had caved in, and a half a score of people had narrowly escaped the same fate.
At one o'clock great volumes of smoke burst from the basement of the Cooperative Store in charge of Wm. Holden (Isaac Bush owned the stock of goods). The department responded promptly and hundreds of men leaped to assist in fighting the flames and carrying out the merchandise stocks. Goods from H.C. Briggs Jewelry Store and E.K. Johnson Drug Store were carried to the court house square. The property in Ed Daniels Saloon was arranged for removal at a minutes notice, as were the goods in the Goodnow & Hickey Store. The Herald printing plant and other nearby property was filled with smoke. At 2:30 the flames gained in volume and were masters of the situation. Goods from the Democrat office in the rear of the burning block were removed. Merchandise from the Goodnow & Hickey store was removed. It was evident that the whole block of the six best stores in Howell was in grave danger. Lansing was called for aid and at 3 o'clock an engine was on its way. The streets were now thronged with people. Every person, and conveyance from wheelbarrow to wagon was pressed into service. Flame burst from the Daniels, Saloon and in creditable time from the Goodnow store.
Suddenly as people were removing the goods from the Goodnow & Hickey store the second floor crashed in. Mrs. Hickey, Carrie and Emma Weitbrecht were caught in the crash and rescued with difficulty. Then the first floor gave way plunging the panic-stricken people into the basement. Charles Goodnow, Al. Cook, Ora Beach and John Culver were caught. A rift in the smoke revealed Mrs. Hickey caught in the debris calling for aid. Frank Bailey and John Martin barely escaped when the second floor collapsed. At four o'clock a report gained headway that Frank Hickey was buried in the debris. Later E.D. Wines was found missing. The crowd became panic stricken as the news spread. At 4:15 the walls of the Greenaway building fell in toward O.J. Parkers. At 4:30 the Lansing engine arrived. But the whole block was a mass of smoking ruins, only the one building at the east end of the block remained standing. The loss was placed at $50,000.00. The same block had been destroyed by fire but without loss of life five years before.
Two of Howell's prominent men had perished in the flames. A pale of sorrow hung over the community as people whispered about the sad fate of Frank Hickey and E.D. Wines. The stores and business places of the city were closed the following Saturday as the entire population of the community paid tribute at the biers of the deceased. Death and disaster had visited the community. But new Howell was to rise on the ruins.
In the window of W.E. Beach's insurance agency will be found a group of pictures of the conflagration taken by Mr. Beach. The cut we publish is from Mr. Beach's collection and was taken from the outside steps on the east side of the building now occupied by the McPherson Bank. A horde of men were busy pouring water on the roof and sides of the building as the picture was taken. Wet carpets hung over the windows. But let some of the boys tell the personal story of this cruel day in Howell.

Notes for James Milton Hoover:

Mr. James M. Hoover was born in Darke County, Ohio, in 1854, near the town of Greenville. He came west with his parents in 1863 and with them settled in Nebraska. St. Joseph was at that time the terminal of the railroad in the west, so from there they took the boat up the Missouri River landing at Plattsmouth, Nebraska. At that time Plattsmouth was a place of but a few scattered houses, and the county was inhabited by a great many more Indians than Whites. Mr. Hoover's father being a man of courage and pluck ventured up the Platte River fourteen miles and settled on a farm, where James was raised and grew to manhood With the exception of one time Mr. Hoover has not been absent from the state for a period longer than six months, his one trip out being through the states of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Colorado, but returned shortly perfectly satisfied with Nebraska. Mr. Hoover has experienced many interesting things of early Nebraska, one being the years of hoppers, 1873-6, when they took their flight, raising like a cloud and for a time shut out the light of the sun; another has been the years of drought, when farmers grew only enough for their own use and in 1883 the crops of Eastern Cass were completely destroyed by hail.

Mr. Hoover attended the schools of his district, afterwards the High school at Plattsmouth where he completed his education. Mr. Hoover is a plain practical man, and like his honored father, is always to the front when there is any enterprise on hand that is for public benefit; as much so as if it were for personal gain. Mr. Hoover was married March 11, 1878 to Miss Augusta Pankonin. This lady was born July 20, 1855, and came to Nebraska in 1871. While enroute she happened to be at Chicago when that city experienced her terrible battle with the flames. Five children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Hoover. They are Rosa, William, Ella, Laura and Hellen.

Mr. Schuholz made a career of teaching, spending two years at Clemson University and 38 years at Cass Technical High in Detroit where his expertise was focused on teaching perspective drawing, art history, and providing faculty direction for the Triangle. The priceless gift he gave to his students was his ability to teach them to discover their own hidden potential and to bring their special talents to fruition. He taught them to see the absolute "beauty" In those hallways and stairways at Cass and in the simple yet elegant lines of a plain while pitcher. He taught them discipline and pride in their craft. He was a hard taskmaster, highly respected and admired by his students and colleagues alike. He made a significant and lasting impact on two generations of students at Cass as well as the area of art education and the art community of Detroit. That is teaching at its highest level. He will be sorely missed.

Donald Staebler, Ann Arbor: The Staebler family settled the Staebler Farm at 7734 Plymouth Road in 1912. By the year 1925 six children had been born to the household. All the children attended the Frains Lake one room school, Ypsilanti High School and all graduated from college, a forester for Weyerhaeuser, an electric engineer, a registered nurse and three school teachers. I was one of the teachers. After the disruptions of World War II the children of the family moved to many parts of the country but my wife, Lena, and I elected to buy the farm and keep it going. At this time I also held an off the farm job in mechanical research and gave considerable time to the Planning and Zoning Commissions in my community. Lena, my helpmate on the farm, passed away in 1991. The farm has been a typical general farm operation with cash crops of corn, wheat, oats plus dairy cows, hogs, chickens and draft horses. At 90+ years, I continue as a beef farmer, feeding and caring, sometimes, for as many as 50 Angus cattle. The excavation for M-14 freeway fill created a large pond on my land. My neighbors were thrilled when my picturesque farm with its woods and beautiful pond was sold for a county park.

Newspaper article in Ann Arbor News Sunday, January 21, 2001, entitled "The Land of His Legacy" by Anne Rueter:

Donald G. Staebler shoves open the pump house door. Immediately, in a move he's made tens of thousands of times, he turns on the water to fill a trough in the barnyard. As the water spurts out and cattle start bawling for dinner, traffic sounds from Plymouth Road recede a bit. But you'd never forget the forces of urbanization here. Standing in the mucky barnyard, looking on either side of the calf barn, you see the streaming cars and trucks as rush hour begins: on the left across the fields on M-14, on the right on Plymouth Road. Commuters flash by the barns at 50 mph on Plymouth, on past the signs a bit further west that say "Mystic Forest - lots for sale" and "rolling wooded home sites available." But Staebler, like the 4-foot thick oaks across the creek, has stayed put on this farm nearly all his 90 years, raising cattle and hay as his family farm has become an island in a sea of houses.

And this 87-acre parcel of open fields, creek, 7-acre pond and woods is destined to keep its identity even longer than Staebler stubbornly has. Earlier this month, Staebler sold the farm to the Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission. "That land is safe form bulldozers," says Fred Barley, parks and recreation director. "I think that's what Don really wanted to do." Fifteen to 20 years from now, as suburban growth continues in the busy corridor, "that place is going to be a beautiful green island," Barley adds. The commission envisions preserving the farmstead as a demonstration farm, with fishing and picnicking by Fleming Creek and small ponds in the part of the property north of Plymouth Road. The south portion will remain as it is, and swimming and boating are not part of the plan, Barkley says.

Staebler will have a life lease to stay in the farmhouse. He says he'll keep raising and feeding cattle as long as the county wants him to. The change, though, is monumental. "I've owned it so long," he says. "To lose control all at once is something."

Since the sale became public, he's heard angry voices of neighbors across Frains Lake opposing his decision to sell the land for a park. He's also gotten a dozen letters from people he's never met, praising him for preserving a choice piece of open space for the public and foregoing the higher profits he could have had from selling to a developer. Staebler is selling the land to county for $1.5 million, compared to possibly $2.5 million some estimate he could have gotten from a developer.

"I used to work all that land, and now it's houses," he says of the area south of Frains Lake. He's watched for years as longtime neighbors up and down Plymouth Road have subdivided, finding farm earnings slim and developers' wallets fat. "All the family farms are gone," Staebler says. But houses covering his land? He's not having it. He's pleased his sisters and their offspring, who live out of state, agree. "They're behind me 100 percent," he says about his decision to sell to the county.

Though Staebler wasn't born in the house, his family ties to the area around his home go back 130 years. His father was born in a house across Frains Lakes, the son of a German immigrant who had arrived in the U.S. in 1848. His father was farming rented land and the family was living near Geddes Road when Staebler was born. In 1912, when Donald was 1-1/2, his father was able to buy the Plymouth Road farm, which had an existing farmhouse and barn. Farmed since 1824, the 98 acres included fertile farm land, small frontages on Frains and Murray lakes to the south, and a stand of mature oaks to the north. Fleming Creek bisected the fields behind the barn, and later led to the farm's punning nickname. "Click in the Back Farm," reads a homemade sign as you drive up the driveway.

With one portion sold off, now the farm consists of 86 acres. Staebler has grown corn and hay and raised cattle there virtually all his adult life, taking over the farm from his father in the 1950s. One of six children, he attended close by one-room Frains Lake school. "We could walk down to the lake and skate up to the schoolhouse," he says. Then came Ypsilanti High. At 14, he usually grabbed the wheel first to drive his brothers and sisters there in one of the family's cars. They felt lucky: It was unusual in the 1920s to have two cars. Donald mechanically minded, made sure the 1925 Ford Model T wouldn't start for his older brother, but mysteriously would for him, says Mary Ciminnisi-Staebler, his widowed sister-in-law.

Staebler earned a teaching degree at Eastern Michigan University, the called Michigan State Normal College. He married Lena, his wife of 56 years, whom he met at a church social picnic further down Fleming Creek at the Parker Mill. Lena Staebler died nine years ago. During the Depression, Staebler landed a job teaching shop at a high school in Eaton Rapids. It was a long commute, he says, but for 10 years, the couple returned to the farm each weekend to help out.

He combined farming with other jobs at other times in his life, too. During World War II, he worked nine-hour days, six days a week, teaching soldiers at a school at the nearby Willow Run Bomber Plant how to maintain B-24 bombers. After a six-month stint of more Army teaching in England, Staebler decided to come home to farm full-time as his father's partner. He then hit what he calls the cost-price squeeze all farmers experienced starting in the 1950s. "Our costs went up and our prices didn't." That's been the trend ever since. Beef on the hoof sold for 40 cents a pound then, and only 50 cents today, he says. Like many other area farmers, he looked for ways to earn outside income. He took a job at Eaton Corporation in Southfield while continuing to raise feed and raise cattle. He ended up being the only family member committed to farming. "He stayed put. The rest....scattered to the four winds," says Ciminnisi-Staebler, who cooks and does housekeeping at the farm.

Looking back, Stabler says staying pu - planting corn, milking cows season after season - was not a deliberate choice: "It just happened. ... I really didn't see any reason to move, and we didn't." For a man who's always liked to build and repair things, it's been a good fit. All around the farm are the results. The walnut inlaid desk in the dining room that he made in high school. The two vintage tractors, one a 62-year-old Joh Deere, that he still uses - "Nobody can run them but me." And the camper trailer he built in 1937. He and Lena used it to tour the country on vacations.

Daily chores of feeding suit him fine too. "What would I do if I didn't? I hate television," he says. The big white farmhouse faces three barns across the road. That's where Staebler heads twice a day to feed his herd of 47 red and black angus cattle: two bulls, cows and ever-arriving calves. He strides there, waiting with a trace of annoyance for an opening in the stream of traffic on Plymouth, which was a sandy track with horse and buggies when he was little. Staebler moves like a man 30 years younger. He says his health is good, he's not troubled by arthritis. "I think that's 'cause I keep moving," he says. When Barkley came to see the land, Staebler amazed him by climbing ladders and hopping over fences with ease.

Inside the biggest barn, built by his dad in 1922, furry cattle press tight together, mooing in a rising chorus as Staebler forks hay into feeding racks. He heads to the smaller barn he calls the cattle's "loafing barn." The simple pitched-roof structure was there when the family moved there. He points up to timbers with bark stillon, mortised together without nails, marks of construction in the count's early days. Every evening he hooks a few bales of hay and drags them there with an easy motion, so the cows ambling in later will find an after dining snack.

Staebler is pleased that the county parks commission plans to continue a contract Staebler currently has with a sharecropper who grows and harvests corn and hay in the fields by the farmhouse. For now, Staebler plans to keep on feeding about 22 bales of the hay a day to his herd of beef cattle. The heavy snow has kept him from selling some animals, as he normally would, so he feeds a hull house. This winter he had to replace a pump at the barn, a job he did himself and didn't consider a headache.

Over the years, Staebler has let lots of folks catch pike, bass, bullhead and pan fish in the pond north of the barn. But such leisurely pastimes don't appeal to him. "I never fish. It's a waste of time," he says. "I've got more important things to do than give worms fishing lessons." Like the family history on his dining room table, largely put together by him. Its latest pages tell about the farm sale. Soon, one would guess, he'll record the next details of a long consistent life on the farm.

Donald G. Staebler, age 106, passed away at the Ball Pavilion of Brevillier Village in Erie, Pennsylvania on Wednesday, March 1, 2017. Donald was born in Superior Township, Washtenaw County, near Ann Arbor, Michigan on August 18, 1910, son of the late Albert J. and Ella (Goodell) Staebler. Until very recently, Donald lived on the family farm in Ann Arbor, beginning in 1912 when he moved in with the family at age 2. Donald was preceded in death by his wife, Lena (Severance) Staebler in 1991. They were married on August 21, 1935 in Grass Lake, Michigan, Reverend Brunger officiating.

Donald attended the Frains Lake one room school house through 8th grade, and afterwards Ypsilanti High School, graduating in 1929. He attended Michigan State Normal College (now Eastern Michigan University) graduating in 1934 with a BS in Industrial Arts, and a life Certificate to teach. He taught industrial arts and was principal at Eaton Rapids High School, MI, after graduation. While there, he was a member of the Eaton Rapids Kiwanis, and served as its president for a year. In 1942, he became a maintenance instructor at the Willow Run Bomber Plant in Ypsilanti, Michigan, working for Ford Motor Company, under a contract with the Army Airforce Technical Training Command. From 1945 to 1946 he was an instructor at the Warton Army Technical School, Lancashire, England, set up to provide technical and industrial training for American servicemen prior to return to civilian life. Upon returning home, he worked with his father on the family dairy farm until 1952, when he purchased the farm.

In 1961, he sold the dairy herd, turned the farm to raising beef cattle, and began a career as a Technician Supervisor at the Eaton Corporation Research Center, Southfield Michigan, retiring in 1975. After retirement, he remained on the farm, raising beef cattle. In 2001 he sold the farm to Washtenaw County for future use as a park, retaining a life lease to live there. In addition, from 1946-1958, Donald taught auto mechanics in the Adult Education Program at Ann Arbor High School 2 nights per week, and from 1948 1978 he served on the Superior Twp. Planning Commission, Board of Review, and Zoning Board of Appeals. For a few years, he was chairman of all three. He was also a long time member of the Dixboro Methodist Church, Ann Arbor, Michigan, and for a while served as Superintendent of Sunday School, and Secretary of the Finance Committee. Donald had a lifelong love of wood working, and continued for many years to make furniture in the shop he built in 1946. He loved to travel, and for many years enjoyed seeing the corners of the United States with Lena in the travel trailer he built. He also was dedicated to preserving the family history, and the history of the farm, writing many stories of his experiences there.

Donald was preceded in death by brothers Lloyd Staebler of Erie, Pennsylvania, George Staebler of Centralia, Washington, and Melvin Staebler of Orange, California, and sisters Helen Kranish of Merced, California and Ruth Hileman of Tucson, Arizona. He is survived by sisters-in-law Stellajoe Staebler of Centralia Washington, and Mary Ciminnisi-Staebler of North East, Pennsylvania, who had been Donald's faithful caregiver for the last 20 years, Mary's extended family who adopted Donald as their own, and Donald's 10 nieces and nephews and their families spread across the country, who knew him fondly as their beloved Uncle Duck.

Interment will be held at the Dixboro Oak Grove Cemetery, and a later memorial service will be held at Dixboro Methodist Church, Ann Arbor Michigan, 11 AM May 13, 2017. In lieu of flowers, tax deductible donations may be made to the Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission, which can be abbreviated as WCPARC on the check. Be sure to write "Staebler Farm County Park" on the comment line. Funeral arrangements are being handled by the Dusckas Funeral Home, Inc., 2607 Buffalo Road, Erie, PA 16510.

She married Mark Thomas Penny 14 Jun 1955 in Mecklenburg Co, North Carolina; born 16 Jan 1935 in Charlotte, Mecklenbrug Co, North Carolina; died 2002 in Rick Hill, South Carolina.

Notes for Mary Louise Froebe:
Sept. 27, 1957 - "Whatever became of Mary Froebe?" The question came up in a group that remembered his tall, blue-eyed blonde girl who, during her junior and senior years at Central High School, held a list of titles that looked like a page from Who's Who. Mary's still a very important part of the community and still just as lovely at 20 as when she was elected Mecklenburg County's first Dairy Queen in 1952. Now she is Mrs. Mark T. Penny and lives with her husband and 17-month-old daughter, Priscilla Lynn, in their charming home at 1901 Optimist Lane. Mary Froebe Penny is the same kind of wife, mother, and homemaker that she was 4-H girl some years back-capable, versa tile and loving every minute of it! "Yes," say Mary laughing, "I entered ever thing when I was a 4-H girl. And for eight years I didn't win. But during those eight years I learned to lose-which I much more important than walking away with the prizes." Mary hit her stride in junior and senior years at high school. "I won practically everything I entered those years," she reminisces happily. "Bu t by that time I was ready for it, after losing all those years," she adds wisely.
Once she carried the county colors to the state finals in a National Vegetable Growers Contest. She won a love in a cooking contest and second place in an essay on test. She was chief marshal her junior year at Central, class officer and editor of the high school annual and state secretary for 4-H Girl Club. She went to girls Nation where she was elected Secretary of State. "I held the same office as Mr. Dulles for a while," Mary giggles. During these years Mary was constantly baking for pie baking contests and entering every other contest that came along.

Mary spent 10 happy years at Thompson Orphanage and she speaks affectionately and enthusiastically about her contacts there. When complimented on her spotless, immaculately kept house she replied, "I learned that from the inspection tour Mom Whisnant (wife of Thompson Orphanage administrator) gave each day when I was at the orphanage."

From the beginning Mary has had the innate qualifications for homemaking. Many times, at Thompson Orphanage she would prepare breakfast f or the entire group (75) when the cook didn't show u p and always was a willing helper with various housekeeping duties. This young woman takes her role as homemaker quite seriously. Her family duties come first in her life. Her only outside activities now are 4-H group leader f or the Home Demonstration Club and worship chairman of the Woman's Auxiliary at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Mary and Mark have the good fortune of built-in baby sitters, who are eager to be called upon. Mary's father and Mark's mother both live conveniently nearby. This enables the couple to get out for an occasional show or dinner, but they do really rather have friends in their home for a meal. This they do at fairly frequent intervals. "I always plan a menu that is easy and dishes that can be prepared ahead for the most part," Mary reports. "Then I can be free to enjoy the company and not get in a rush at the last minute." This efficient young cook uses few mixes and frozen foods – pancake mix, frozen broccoli and French fries are the exception. "I bake my cakes from scratch," Mary says. She does the bulk of her shopping once a week and spends between $17 and $20 weekly for groceries. Mary does all her own work, preparing her meals with expert precision while Prissy sits on the wide Formica cabinets top by the sink, inspecting the shining ports and pans or watching her pretty Mama as she moves about the kitchen.

Marriage Notes for Mary Froebe and Mark Penny:

The secretary of State of Girls Nation and Governor of North Carolina Girls State, Mary Louise Froebe, was married Tuesday June 14, 1955 to Mark Thomas Penny. The ceremony, at five o'clock, took place at St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The Rev. W.H. Wheeler officiated, and music was by Miss Vernir Goodman. The son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Penny of Charlotte was attended by Larry Stafford as best man. Ushers included Henry Froebe. Brother of the bride; and Bill Howie.

The bride was given in marriage by Manley Dowell Whisnant, and wore a gown of white tulle over taffeta. It was fashioned with a molded bodice, and fitted basque. The full skirt, accented with pleated ruffles, extended into an aisle-wide train. Her tiered silk veil was worn with a cap made of lace and seed pearls. She carried a while prayer book with a bouquet of white orchids, lilies of the valley and stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. Whisnant entertained at a reception after the ceremony. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Penny left for a trip to the mountains. Mrs. Penny was graduated from Central High School, where she was editor of the year book and a class officer. She was a member of Girls Good Sports Club and the Student Council. She is an officer of girls 4-H Club. The bridegroom was graduated from East Mecklenburg High School and served as assistant chaplain in the Army. He was stationed in Austria for the past two years. The couple will be at home in Hendersonville and Charlotte.

Notes for Lee H. La Tour:

CPO Lee H. LaTour, USN. Ret. 1921 to 2013 She left him in the Springtime.....He followed her in the Fall. Once again together and in the glorious presence of their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, Lee and Myrtle are forever celebrating. They met and married in 1946 in San Diego California as World War II was ending. He the young "Sailor boy" and she the adventurous "Rosie the Riveter." Lee was looking forward to these re-acquaintances and family reunions as many friends and family members preceded him in death. In addition to his wife Myrtle of 66 years, are his parents Lee La Vita LaTour and Helen Pauline Hoover, his sister Helen (Bob) Geckelmeyer.

Those surviving him whom he is expecting along in turn are his Stepson, Jack (Fay) Harvey; grandson Jason (Alicia) Harvey; granddaughter Keli (Scott) Mayberry; great grandsons Bryan and Jackson Harvey and Cody and Josiah Mayberry; great-great grandson Lucas Harvey; great granddaughters Frances Harvey Emmons, Hannah Harvey Allen and Elizabeth Harvey; great-great granddaughters Skyler Harvey, Hallie and Carrie Emmons and Kylie Allen as well as numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Lee was born and raised in Omaha, Nebraska . He graduated Louisville High School in 1940, signed up for draft in the Navy and was called up in 1943. He served in airplane maintenance on the Aircraft Carrier U.S.S. Wake Island in the Atlantic, Luzon, Okinawa and Iwo Jima after serving in the Pacific, Philippines and North and South Africa. During his duty the Carrier was damaged out of commission by a Japanese Kamikaze. He spent a month on board ship in Guam while the injured and dead were cared for and extensive repairs were made. He was later aboard ship off the coast of Iwo Jima awaiting orders to hit the beach to assist the ground troops in taking the Island. Oh, what a celebration aboard the Wake Island when those Sailors saw "Old Glory" hoisted up on the beach! They were ever grateful to those five Marines and the Navy Corpsman who scaled Mount Suribachi and raised the flag that fateful day in Feb.1945. After his tour of duty Lee stayed in the Navy Reserves and worked Civil Service in aircraft maintenance at Coronado Island Navy Base, California. In the 1970's his crew repaired one of the Blue Angel's planes when they were on tour in San Diego. He loved the Pensacola Naval Aviation Museum where he spent many hours remembering history and giving informal tour guides. He helped raise his step-son Jack Harvey, participated in Church activities and danced away many hours with Myrtle as members of the "Black Mountain Squares." Together he and Myrtle made many trips to visit the east coast and finally retired to Pensacola in 1978. He was an active member of the Brownsville Assembly of God Church and spent many fun hours of activities and travel with the "Golden Agers" church group. They continued to make annual trips to California and North Carolina and even visited the White House with friends a few times. During these last 35 years Lee has been known as "Pappy" to the four generations of younger family members who know him as a truly genuine patriot and one of the last of "America's Great Generation."

Please celebrate Lee's life with us on Wednesday, October 30, 2013 at the Brownsville Assembly of God Church, 3100 W. DeSoto Street. The viewing will be at 10:00 a.m. and the celebration service will follow at 11:00 a.m. with Reverend Pastor Evon Horton officiating. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations may be made to the Brownsville Assembly of God Church.

Notes for Myrtle Harvey:

Our adventuresome Myrtle LaTour with little fanfare but decades of thoughtful planning left solo on her latest and greatest adventure last Friday, April 13, 2012, with her family by her side to see her off. Not having to go through Atlanta she was immediately transported into the heavenly presence of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Myrtle was looking forward to re-acquaintances and family reunions as many friends and family members preceded her in death. Among them was her father and mother, William Harry and Bessie Harvey; sisters, Ruth Edmonds and June Russell; brothers, William H. Harvey, Jr. and Charles O. Harvey.

Those surviving her whom she will be expecting along in turn are her husband, Lee of 66 years; sister, Ruby Blankenship; son, Jack Harvey (Fay); grandson, Jason Harvey (Alicia); granddaughter, Keli Mayberry (Scott); great grandsons, Bryan and Jackson Harvey and Cody and Josiah Mayberry; great granddaughters, Frances Harvey Emmons, Hannah Harvey Allen and Elizabeth Harvey; great great granddaughters, Skyler Harvey and Hallie and Carrie Emmons as well as many cousins, nieces and nephews. And special family member, Melanie Eubanks.

Myrtle was born and raised in Asheville, North Carolina, where she completed high school. Family circumstances including a move to New York in the 1930's no doubt inspired her life of adventure. After New York what's to fear? On to California with a friend via train in the 1940's where she landed a job with aircraft builder Convair. With World War II taking our men out of the work force many women filled the void. Myrtle was among that distinguished group during the war known as "Rosie The Riveter" as her major job task was "riveting".

In San Diego she met and married her husband, Lee, in 1946. She then became a working wife and mother and active church member. She sewed everything from Barbie doll clothes to men's suits. Most family members still have something she made uniquely for them. She volunteered her enclosed patio and oversaw the voting polls for her precinct during elections. For many years Myrtle and Lee danced with the Black Mountain Squares. After retirement they packed up and moved back across country to Pensacola in 1978 to be near their family. During these last 34 years, Myrtle has been "Nanny" to all the younger family members. She volunteered 20 years at the West Florida Hospital. Often on Sundays you would find her greeting guests at the Brownsville Assembly of God Church, where she was an active member for 21 years. She and Lee spent many fun hours of activities and travel with the "Golden Agers" group at church and continued annual trips to California and North Carolina. In 1996 at the age of 80 she talked a younger family member into go the Holy Land with her and a tour group from church. It was the thrill of her life to be baptized in the Jordan River.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations may be made to Covenant Hospice or the Brownsville Assembly of God Church. Please join us to celebrate our Myrtle on Wednesday, April 18, 2012 at the Brownsville Assembly of God Church, 3100 West DeSoto Street. The viewing will be at 10:00 a.m. with the celebration service following at 11:00 a.m. Bayview Hisher-Pou Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

He married Stellajoe (Stella Jo) English 30 Nov 1943 in Texas. She was born Jun 1916 in Morristown, Hamble Co, Tennessee, and died 21 Apr 2018.

More About George Russell Staebler:
Social Security Number: 286-16-3270

Notes for Stellajoe (Stella Jo) English:

Stellajoe English Staebler was born in Morristown, Tennessee, in 1916, to Jessie Bell Jarnagin and John Calton English. As she had hoped, she died as she slept, on April 21, 2018, just short of 102 years. Stellajoe loved the Great Smoky Mountains, the Pacific Northwest, and the flora of each—leaving thousands of photographs for her daughters to deal with. And she loved her family: her husband of 51 years, George R. Staebler, who preceded her in death by 23 years; daughters Jo Ann, Gretchen, and Rebecca; son-in-law Peter; grandchildren Nicholas, Joanna, Emma, and Joel; granddaughters-in-law Kristy and Wynne, and grandson-in-law Michael; and great-grandsons Max, Ethan, Elliot, and Adrian. Her only regret in dying was to miss those little boys growing up.

Stellajoe was a secretary and bookkeeper for Tennessee Valley Authority when she met George, a happily displaced Michigander. They courted in the Smoky Mountains before he enlisted in the Army Air Corps and entered meteorology training at NYU, far from her for the next year. Following his training, they married and spent six weeks together in Texas before he half-unexpectedly shipped overseas. They were separated for another two and a half years, linked by love poured out in 1000 letters. During their separation, determined to help the war effort and end that “terrible” event, Stellajoe worked for the Civil Service at airfields in Washington, Michigan, and Florida, courageously moving around the country by train. When George returned and was employed by the U.S. Forest Service, they moved west as they had dreamed in their letters, finally settling in Centralia in 1960.

Stellajoe worked as a secretary for the Forest Service until their first child was born and then cared for home, husband, and children for the rest of her life. She sold World Book Encyclopedias door-to-door until she earned a set for her family, hoping to inspire in them a pursuit of knowledge. She sold Community Concert tickets and took her family to every concert as reward. She served many years as a Girl Scout leader and Sunday school teacher, in keeping with her passion for service to others, particularly children and youth. As a nonagenarian, she volunteered at the senior center. A patron of native arts, she befriended and drove basket weavers from the Chehalis Tribe to grass collection sites and purchased their baskets, along with needlework of the Laotian women who lived in Centralia. After her daughters left home, she joined George, who served as Director of Forestry Research for Weyerhaeuser Company, on trips around the country and the world, always collecting handcrafts of the indigenous people. She enjoyed dabbling in art and craft herself—proven by boxes of fabric scraps, jars of homemade dye, and bags of dried wildflowers. When an eye surgery made it difficult to endure sunlight, she became queen of hats, especially those of a local maker.

In her mid-60s she reestablished herself as a quiet activist—begun as a high school senior speaking out against racial segregation in the Deep South. She became involved in world peace efforts, environmental protection, gun control, the Tinnitus Association, and late in life spoke out for marriage equality. At age 100, after moving from her home to Cooks Hill Manor, she joined the resident council, advocating for better food after holding a personal sit-in in the dining room. Born before women had the right to vote, she thrilled at the opportunity to cast her ballot for a woman for president in 2016. She was proud of her appearance in the book, We the Resilient: Wisdom for America from Women Born before Suffrage.

Following George’s death, she maintained the family home with the assistance of a cadre of friends and hired help who became friends. She called her 80s her favorite decade. When she was 86, first her youngest daughter and 10 years later the middle one returned home to live with and care for her—though mostly she thought she was caring for them.

Her greatest passion was protecting the forest behind her Seminary Hill home. In 1980, she approached the City of Centralia with a plea and a plan to preserve the area from logging, led a successful signature drive, and cofounded the Friends of Seminary Hill Natural Area (FSHNA). She remained an active member even when she could no longer clean or walk the trails, securing refreshments, making calls, and distributing photo cards. In 2016, on her 100th birthday, the new shelter at the Seminary Hill Natural Area was dedicated to and named for her. In 2017, she was awarded the Rufus Kaiser Award for her work in establishing FSHNA. Fittingly, she slipped earth's bonds hours before FSHNA's annual Earth Day cleanup. Her last request was that her daughters tell her how many came to the workday (34). She will be forever found in the trees and wildflowers on her beloved hill.

A celebration of Stellajoe's life will be held June 9, 2pm, at Centralia First United Methodist Church. Arrangements by Sticklin Funeral Chapel. In lieu of flowers, donations can be mailed to The Stellajoe Staebler Scholarship Fund at the Community Foundation of South Puget Sound, 212 Union Ave SE, Suite 102, Olympia, WA 98501

Ruth Marie[9] Staebler (Albert John (Christian Albert)[8], Gertrude (Anna Friedericke)[7] Weitbrecht, Andreas[6], Martin[5], Christian[4], Anna Maria[3] Huber, Johann Jacob[2], Johann Heinrich (Huober)[1]) was born 17 May 1918 in Superior Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 12 Oct 2016 in Tucson, Pima Co, Arizona. She married Dr. Walter Thayne Hileman 15 Jun 1941 in Dixboro, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Walter Hileman and Daisy ?. He was born 05 Feb 1917 in Plymouth, Marshall Co, Indiana, and died 20 Aug 2001 in Tucson, Pima Co, Arizona.

Notes for Ruth Marie Staebler:

Ruth Marie Hileman died at Peppi's House in Tucson on October 12, 2016, at peace and surrounded by love. She was born in 1918, one of six children born to Albert and Ella Staebler on their Michigan farm. Ruth graduated from Michigan State Normal College and received her B.S. in home economics in 1940. She married Walter Hileman in 1941, and thus began an extraordinary marriage that endured 60 years. When Walt was sent to Europe during World War II, Ruth stayed at the farm and worked at Willow Run, where the B24 Liberators were manufactured. In 1949, Ruth and Walt moved to Tucson where he was a radiologist at St. Mary's. They had four children, and later welcomed with elation the arrival of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Ruth and Walt traveled extensively and adventurously, around the world as well as closer to home on the backroads of Mexico and the desert southwest. But Tucson was their home, and they loved their house and the desert surrounding it. They were dedicated stewards of the land, and could often be seen walking along the property, picking up litter and maintaining the pathway that ran across it. Ruth had a great appreciation for the arts and crafts of the local indigenous people. She collected many items, often directly from the maker. She was an avid and discerning reader, and loved to discuss the latest book she had read. Above all, Ruth loved her family. She was never happier than when she was holding a baby or two.

She and Walt are survived by their four children, John, Stephen, Edward, and Karen; and by numerous cherished grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her brother, Donald Staebler and her sister-in-law, Stellajoe Staebler.

A Memorial Service for Ruth will be held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, December 10, 2016 at St. Mark's Presbyterian Church in Tucson. In lieu of flowers, please contribute to Mobile Meals or the charity of your choice. Arrangements by Adair Funeral Home, Dodge Chapel.

Notes for Stewart George Huber:
Appleton, Wisconsin - Stewart G. Huber age 88 of Clintonville, passed away on Friday, December 27, 2013 at the Shawano Medical Center after a long bout with prostate cancer. Stewart was born December 12, 1925, in Fergus Falls, Minnesota, and he spent his early years on his parent's large grain and livestock family farm in Minnesota's Red River Valley. The depression years of the 1930's dust bowl, drought, disastrously low farm prices which prompted the Huber family to move their operation lock, stock, and barrel to a small 120-acre farm in Larrabee Township west of Clintonville, Waupaca County. It was from this new base that Stewart Huber received his high school and university education and grew into manhood.

He and Lorraine Myhre were married on September 25, 1954 in Bagley, Minnesota. The young couple set up a joint family farming operation on the Huber farm in earnest. It was fortunate that Lorraine became immediately involved because Stewart was called away from the farm early and often for certain civic duties, and she used her management skills in keeping the farm going and growing during his periodic absences until their sons were old enough to pitch in. Huber spent a lot of time commuting between the farm and Madison. He first was appointed to the Wisconsin Soil and Water Conservation Board. Then at various times at USDA-FSA first as District Director in one administration - then as State Executive Director in another - and finally on the three-person State Committee in yet another administration. He was also instrumental - along with key others - in the development of a regional milk cooperative. He served at various times as the General Manager, CEO, Board member, and President of the Madison based coop originally known as Farmers Union Milk Marketing.

Huber was also very involved in Ag, Conservation, and Industrial trade matters which often required his presence at our nation's capital in Washington and sometimes on trade matters at certain other European capitals. He also served on the local bank, public school, and church etc. boards at various times along the way. He said he welcomes his opportunities at public service but said his favorite thing was working with members of his family in growing a great crop of corn or soybeans according to God's design. Stewart was a member of the United Methodist Church, Clintonville.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Lorraine Four sons: Raymond (Joan) Huber, George Huber, Benjamin (Dawn), Huber and Bill Huber all of Clintonville, Four grandchildren: Ana, Zac, Alexander, and Caitlin Huber, His sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Fay & Carl Keller, Clintonville, Ben & Yvonne Myhre, Corning, California. He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister in infancy.

Funeral services will be held 11 A.M. Monday, December 30, 2013 at the United Methodist Church, Clintonville. Spring interment will be in the Graceland Cemetery, Clintonville. Friends may call at the Eberhardt-Stevenson Funeral Home & Crematory, Clintonville on Sunday from 12 noon until 3 P.M. and after 10 A.M. Monday at the church until the time of the service.

Notes for Helen Marie Ahrens:

Helen M. Mast of Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 79, died Monday, December 2, 1996 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. She was born October 30, 1917 in Sharon Township, the daughter of William and Anna (Huber) Ahrens. On June 24, 1939 she married Walter E. Mast; he preceded her in death March 3, 1994. Mrs. Mast had been a life-long Ann Arbor area resident. She was a graduate of Manchester High School and a member of Bethlehem United Church of Christ. In 1942, she co-founded Mast Shoes and was currently serving as its President. Survivors include two sons, Thomas (Linda Barnes) Mast and Gregory (Cynthia Crouch) Mast, both of Ann Arbor; six grandchildren, Steven (Karen), Brian, Kevin, Molly, Kyle and Jill; one great granddaughter, Katherine; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by seven brothers and two sisters.

Funeral service will be held 11 a.m. Thursday, December 5 at Bethlehem United Church of Christ with Rev. Dr. Orval L. E. Willimann officiating. Interment will follow at Washtenong Memorial Park. Memorial tributes may be made to Bethlehem United Church of Christ. The family will receive friends at the Muehlig Chapel Wednesday 3-5 and 7-9 p.m.

When Walter Mast went off to fight in World War II, his wife Helen stepped in to do what he couldn't. "When my dad was gone," says their son, Tom Mast, "my mother got their business off ground. Had she not been here, we probably wouldn't have today."

Helen Mast died Monday at the age of 79. At the time, she was president of Mast Shoes, having succeeded her husband after his death in 1994. During the war, the Masts lived above their store at 117 S. Main St. in downtown Ann Arbor, where NBD Bank now is. Helen Mast had friends from high school pitching in as salespeople, but there were times, says Tom Mast, who was an infant at the time, she'd leave him in his swing long enough to dash down and wait on a customer.

The war was a boon to business, says Mast, as leather was rationed and customers quickly snapped up any leather shoes that appeared. After the war, Helen Mast became the company secretary. Sons Tom and Greg currently run the three-store chain. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at Bethlehem United Church of Christ. Burial will follow at Washtenong Memorial Park.

Notes for Walter Erwin Mast:

Walter Erwin Mast Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 81, died Thursday, March 3, 1994 at Naples Community Hospital, Naples, Florida. He was born August 5, 1912 in Ann Arbor, the son of Andrew Phillip and Emma Clara (Seitz) Mast and had been a life-long Ann Arbor resident. In June 1939, he married Helen Marie Ahrens, and she survives. Mr. Mast was a life-long member of Bethlehem United Church of Chris where he served on church council for six years. He was a 1929 graduate of Ann Arbor High School, and served with the U.S. Anny during World War
II. In 1942, he founded Mast Shoes and served as its President for 52 years. He was a member of Ann Arbor B.P.O.E. #325.

Surviving in addition to his wife are two sons, Thomas (Linda Barnes) Mast and Gregory Cynthia Crouch) Mas both of Ann Arbor; six grandchildren, Steven (Karen), Brian, Kevin, Molly, Kyle and Jill; one nephew, Andrew Mas ID; three nieces, Andrea Knoph, Carolyn Gray and Jacqueline Viegel. He was preceded in death by a brother, Andrew II in 1952.

Funeral service will be held at 1:30 p.m., Tuesday, March 8, 1994 at the Bethlehem United Church of Christ with Rev. Dr. Orval L. E. Willimann officiating, Entombment will follow at Washtenong Memorial Park. Memorial tributes may be made to Bethlehem Church or the American Heart Association. The family will receive friends at the Muehlig Chapel on Monday 2-4 and 7-9 pm.

After graduating from Ann Arbor High School in 1929, Walter Mast enrolled in a business course at what is now Eastern Michigan University. His academic career was short-lived. "He said he'd rather be in business than study it," said Mast's son, Tom. Walter Mast spent more than 60 years in the shoe business in Ann Arbor. He died Tursday in Naples, Florida. He was 81.

"'He was a people-oriented person," said Tom Mast, who runs the four Mast shoe stores with his brother, Greg. "He continued to work in retail until he was 80 years old because he liked people. "His whole life was going in and talking to the customers, and selling them shoes and getting to know them." Walter Mast was semi-retired. He and his wife, Helen, spent winters in Florida.

He was born in Ann Arbor in 1912. Mast sold shoes at two downtown department stores - the old Mack & Co. store and Jacobson's - before he and Helen opened their first shop on South Main Street in 1942. Soon after, he entered the U.S. Army, leaving Helen to run the store while he served in France and Germany during World War 11 Mast's friends had warned him against the business venture because there were already eight shoe stores on Main Street and he had only enough money to carry one line of shoes, his son said.

In the end, Mast Shoes was the lone survivor. There also are Mast stores on East Liberty Street, in the Westgate shopping center and in Cadillac. Tom Mast said his father was proud to have founded a company that endured for 52 years and was entering its third generation as a family business. Some of Mast's six grandchildren are now involved with the company.

Services are at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at Bethlehem United Church of Christ, where Walter Mast was a lifelong member. Visitation is scheduled from 24 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. Monday at Muehlig Funeral Chapel, 403 S. Fourth Ave.

Marriage Notes for Evelyn Keck and Paul Cook:

A wedding of unusual interest to the families of the contracting parties and their many friends in this locality was solemnized at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keck, three miles west of Auburn, last Sunday afternoon, Oct. 7, 1923 at 2:30 when their daughter, Evelyn Faye was married to Mr. Paul Pakes Cook, youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. John W. Cook of Harveyville. The living room of the Keck home was tastefully decorated with pink roses and white carnations, and the bride and groom stood before a bank of ferns while the Rev. John Cook, father of the groom, pronounced the words that made them man and wife. R v. Cook, though in his ninetieth year, has been privileged to perform themarriage ceremony for each of his six children, a distinction rarely accorded one person. The bride was most attractive in a pretty white gown, wearing a veil fastened with orange blossoms, and carrying a bridal bouquet of Orphelia roses.

The color scheme of pink andwhite was also carried out in the refreshment served immediately following the ceremony. Only members of the two immediate families were present to witness the marriage service. Mr. Cook is one of Harveyville's young men who have made good, and is now assistant cashier of theKansas Reserve State Bank in Topeka. Mr. and Mrs. Cook went to Topeka Sunday evening where he had a home all ready prepared at 1247 Wayne Ave. The congratulations and hearty good wishes of many friends inthe old home town are extendedlo these worthy young people.

Miss Fay E. Keck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Keck of Auburn, was united in marriage Sunday Oct. 7, 1923, to Paul E. Cooke, assistant cashier of the Reserve State bank of Topeka and son of Rev. and Mrs. Cooke of Harveyville. The ceremony was performed at the hoe of the bride near Auburn.

The bride and groom were both seventh children in their respective families and Rev. Cooke, who is one the two oldest ministers in the Kansas Methodist conference, performed the marriage ceremony and likewise officiated at the marriage of each of his other six children. Mrs. F.M. Hartman and A.M. Cooke of Frankfort are sister and brother of the groom and were present at the ceremony as was Mrs. A. M. Cooke and son, Jack.

He returned home and attended Ohio University-Athens on the GI bill. While there, he was a walk-on on both the baseball and basketball teams. His senior year he served as captain of both of those teams. In 1956, he received his Bachelor of Education from Ohio University and shortly thereafter was hired by the Portsmouth City Schools. He had also played on the former Deemer's Market Baseball team that included other local baseball legends such as Gene Bennett. He was an incredible athlete who also loved playing a fast paced racquetball match against his dear friend, Al Oliver. Harry had also served as a scout for both the

He served in the Navy during WWII as a Carpenters Mate learning the skill of woodworking. Before leaving for the Navy he would spend his summers running speed boats at Lake Lansing. He was an avid golfer and would spend his winters at Siesta Key, Florida where he would enjoy looking at the Intercostal Waterway out his back door. He loved to sing and could be easily coaxed into singing almost anywhere at any time. Most of all, his passion was for his family, often being heard saying "I love my family."

Cremation has already taken place. Family will receive friends on Tuesday, June 27, 2017 from 4:00 to 8:00 pm at Gorsline Runciman Funeral Homes, 900 E. Michigan Ave., Lansing. A memorial luncheon will be held at noon on Wednesday, June 28, 2017 at the Banquet & Conference Center of Dewitt, 1120 Commerce Park Dr. DeWitt. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to a charity of your choice.

Grant graduated from Eastern High School in 1975 and was the General Manager at Martin Block Corporation until his diagnosis in 2005. He was an avid motorcyclist, outdoorsman and loved all motorsports. He was an intense businessman who always found time to have fun. He was known for his devilish grin, his one-liners and his sense of humor; he had us all laughing until the very end. Some of his favorite things were hunting (especially in Alaska), making the annual trip to Sturgis, South Dakota on his Harley, and spending time with his family at Houghton Lake and Siesta Key, Florida. 1107. Frederick Gordon[10] Wilkinson (Harold J.[9], Amelia[8] Katz, Anna Maria[7] Weitbrecht, Andreas[6], Martin[5], Christian[4], Anna Maria[3] Huber, Johann Jacob[2], Johann Heinrich (Huober)[1]) was born 19 Jul 1928 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan, and died 26 Nov 2014. He married Violet Marie Minor 25 Jun 1949 in Frankfort, Benzie Co, Michigan. She was born 27 Nov 1931.

Notes for Frederick Gordon Wilkinson:

Fred Wilkinson was born July 19, 1928 to Harold and Lillian Wilkinson in Detroit, Michigan and went to be with his Lord on Wednesday, November 26, 2014. After his graduation from Cass Tech in 1946, he joined the Coast Guard. In 1949 he was honorably discharged. On June 25, 1949 he married the love of his life, Mickey Minor. They were married for 65 years. Together they raised three children: Fred II, Tammy and Cathy. After his discharge, he enrolled in the University of Michigan and graduated from the school of Business Administration with a BBA degree in 1953. He remained very loyal to his Alma Mater, especially the football program. He had not missed a home game in Ann Arbor for 60 years. After graduation, he worked for a public accounting firm for 5 years and then went into private accounting working for Paul H. Johnson. He retired in 2010. This was not only a business relationship but a wonderful friendship. His love of the "Up North" brought him to buy a home on Long Lake near Traverse City where he spent many wonderful days summer and winter. Besides his love of family and his church, Fred loved to travel. Going to the Passion Play in Oberammergau Germany in 1980, 1990, 2000. Venice, Rome and Ireland were three of the places he enjoyed and talked often of returning. Recently his trips had been cruises. He called them his "hotel at sea." Fred was very civic minded. In 1962 he ran and was elected to the school board in Dearborn Heights - first as a trustee and then Chairman of the Board. After moving to Bloomfield Township in 1968, he served on the Board of Appeals for several years. When we attended Cross of Christ in 1969, we knew we had found our church home. Fred wanted a church that taught the true Gospel of Jesus Christ and in Cross of Christ he found that. Fred became very active in the church serving on several committees and becoming chairman of the congregation. But one of his proudest days was when the cross was raised on the new Sanctuary.

Fred is survived by his loving wife, Mickey; children Fred Wilkinson II, Tammy Wilkinson (Darrell Brink) of Traverse City, Michigan, Cathy Huffman (Mike) of Bellaire, Michigan, 6 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren and a sister Virginia Johnson of Florida. Fred was a loving husband, father, grandfather and brother. He was greatly loved by them in return and all of us.

Dr. Bruce Erwin[10] DeSpelder (Nevene Eva[9] Katz, Joseph G.[8], Anna Maria[7] Weitbrecht, Andreas[6], Martin[5], Christian[4], Anna Maria[3] Huber, Johann Jacob[2], Johann Heinrich (Huober)[1]) was born 19 Apr 1918 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan, and died 17 Jul 2011 in Bellaire, Artrim Co, Michigan. He married Dorothy Jane Rodiger 09 Mar 1942 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan. She was born 26 Nov 1918 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan, and died 15 Mar 2011 in Grand Traverse Co, Michigan.

Notes for Dr. Bruce Erwin DeSpelder:

If it is possible to die from a broken heart, then 93-year-old Bruce Erwin DeSpelder, Sr., did so. After burying his wife of 69 years on the 1st of July, he experienced a massive stroke in the early morning hours of the 4th. Hospice provided comfort care at his home in Bellaire with support for his caregivers until he died on the 7th of July. His stroke and subsequent death affirm that his wish to be with his wife, Dorothy, was granted. Bruce lived his life taking care of Dorothy, especially in his later years. He was known for his dry wit and a twinkle in his eye when he "got you." Bruce Erwin DeSpelder, Sr., Captain USN-R was born on the 19th of April 1918 to Nevene Eva Katz (Tower) and Donald Canby DeSpelder in Detroit. He graduated from Southeastern High School and what later became Wayne State University, where he joined the Arab Fraternity. After earning his B.A., he maintained lifelong contact with his fraternity brothers and their families. On March 9th in 1942 he married Dorothy Jane Roediger while serving in the Navy during WWII. After tours of duty in charge of an oil tanker gun crew, Lieutenant DeSpelder became a blimp pilot hunting enemy submarines off the West Coast. Bruce obtained his MBA at the University of Michigan while becoming tenured as an associate professor of management in the business school at Wayne State. He attained his Ph.D. in 1959 at Ohio State University. His dissertation, Ratios of staff to line personnel in the automotive parts manufacturing industry, is still quoted today. In retirement, his talent and interest in words kept Bruce busy with crossword puzzles. Dawn would find him up and out after the paper and, as sleepy family members awoke, he would be sitting in the living room with his cup of coffee, donut hole, and the daily crossword.

Bruce is survived by his daughter Lynne Ann DeSpelder and son-in-law Albert Lee Strickland of Capitola, California; his son Bruce DeSpelder of New Derry, Pennsylvania; and his grandchildren Matt Strickland and his wife Kelley of Caldwell, Texas, Heather Strickland Krupens and her husband, Doug of Fresno, California, Spencer DeSpelder and his fiancée, Brandi Mroczek of Tempe, Arizona, and Danielle DeSpelder of Dearborn. He also leaves six great-grandchildren, Kayla Strickland, Jocelyn and Gia Krupens, and Madeline, Kassidy, and Baron Strickland. He is also survived by cousins Joyce and Lyman Wine of Cincinnati, Ohio; Ron and Ruth Woods of Ashville, North Carolina; and Elisabeth Rindskopf Parker and her husband Bob of Sacramento, California. Many lifelong friends include Mary and Don Boegler of Harrison Township and Joann and Marne Homberg of Torch Lake and Jane Karber of Lake Bellaire. Bruce outlived his wife, Dorothy, who died suddenly on March 15th, his daughter-in-law Coleen, who died in 2001 after a lengthy battle with cancer; his neighbor Tony Schultz (2009); and all of his generation's Arab fraternity brothers and friends.

The family extends gratitude to the caregivers who assisted Bruce in maintaining his independent living. Amber Carr of Kalkaska headed a homecare team that included Beth Mason, Paula Davila, and Marvelle DiNofrio of Bellaire, Paul Tate and Sue Luton of Mancelona, and Terry Ryan of Central Lake. In keeping with his Navy service during and after World War II, his private burial with full military honors provided by the Elk Rapids AmVet Post 114, will be in the DeSpelder plot at Eldred Cemetery alongside Dorothy and Coleen. Bruce enjoyed reading, especially the Wall Street Journal from the library. Contributions can be made to the Bellaire Library in his name (post office box 477, Bellaire, Michigan 49615.) Books purchased with donations will carry a bookplate in memory of Bruce and include the donor's name. Contributions also can be made to the Antrim County Commission on Aging (COA) (post office box 614, Bellaire, Michigan 49615). COA's services were essential to his living at home until the time of his death. Bruce DeSpelder loved his country, his community, and his family. In his memory, please take the time to do so yourself.

Notes for Dorothy Jane Rodiger:

Few live to age 92 with a marriage lasting sixty-nine years. Dorothy DeSpelder died suddenly following emergency surgery at Munson Medical Center in Traverse City. Her husband Bruce Erwin DeSpelder Sr., also hospitalized for acute bronchitis, was able to be with her before and after she died. Unable to recover from major surgery, Dorothy died of organ failure in the early hours of the 15th of March. Along with Bruce Sr., Dorothy was supported in her dying by caregivers Amber Carr and Beth Mason along with longtime family friend and neighbor Dee Dee Schultz. Immediate reactions from the community and extended family reminisced about her grace, charm, wondrous smile, and giving nature. Dorothy lived her life with determination, especially in her later years. Dorothy Jane Roediger was born on the 26th of November 1918 to William Leonard Roediger and Edith Edna Parnell in Detroit. She graduated from Central High School and what later became Wayne State University with a degree in elementary education. On March 9th in 1942 she married Bruce DeSpelder before he entered the Navy during WWII. After tours of duty in charge of a tanker gun crew, Lieutenant DeSpelder served as a blimp pilot protecting the West Coast.

Dorothy and Bruce lived in Corona del Mar while stationed in Southern California where their first child, Lynne Ann, was born in 1944. By 1949 they had returned to Detroit where their second child, Bruce Erwin DeSpelder, Jr., was born. Dorothy returned to teaching after her children were in school. She taught first grade in several schools, ending her career at Krolik elementary, where she taught from 1963 until her retirement in 1982. Dorothy's love of teaching extended to her children and grandchildren. Along with Bruce she emphasized the value of education and provided many opportunities for learning. Regular trips across the country along with visits to Europe were a big part of Dorothy's family life. During retirement she and Bruce traveled extensively with good friends and family to Africa, Alaska, New Zealand, Japan, and China. Dorothy's world was large. Skiing and playing golf well into her early 80s, Dorothy enjoyed the "game of life." Above all, she valued helping others. We remember her for all that she gave to her family, community, and church both in Detroit and later when they made Bellaire their permanent home. Her talents for crafts changed over the years from sewing exquisite doll clothes and spectacular formal dresses to knitting, making candles, and Christmas decorations. She later turned to decoupage and finally stained-glass creations. Extraordinary stained glass lighting fixtures were the culmination of her art work. A Michigan girl at heart, her last days were spent on an outing to Sam's club and rooting for the Red Wings.

Dorothy is survived by her husband Bruce of Bellaire; her daughter Lynne Ann DeSpelder and son-in-law Albert Lee Strickland of Capitola, California; her son Bruce DeSpelder of Washington, Pennsylvania; and her grandchildren Matt Strickland and his wife Kelley of Caldwell, Texas, Heather Strickland Krupens and her husband, Doug of Fresno, California, Spencer DeSpelder of Tempe, Arizona, and Danielle DeSpelder of Dearborn. She also leaves six great-grandchildren, Kayla Strickland, Joselyn and Gia Krupens, and Madeline, Kassidy, and Baron Strickland. She is also survived by cousins Joyce and Lyman Wine of Cincinnati, Ohio; Ron and Ruth Woods of Ashville, North Carolina; and Elisabeth Rindskopf Parker and her husband Bob of Sacramento, California. Many lifelong friends include Mary and Don Bogler of Harrison Township; Joann and Marne Homberg of Torch Lake. and Jane Karber of Lake Bellaire. Dorothy outlived her daughter-in-law Coleen, who died in 2001 after a lengthy battle with cancer; her neighbor Tony Schultz (2009); and her computer guru Bob Karber (2010.)

Our family extends gratitude to the caregivers who assisted Dorothy in maintaining her independent living. Amber Carr of Kalkaska heads a team that includes Beth Mason, Paula Davila, and Marvelle DiNofrio of Bellaire; Paul Tate and Sue Luton of Mancelona; and Sue Wagner of Central Lake. Services for Dorothy will begin with a visitation from 6–8 pm on April 8th at Mortensons Family Chapel, 106 Birch Street in Bellaire. Her funeral will take place at 1 pm on the 9th at Church in the Hills, 6401 Shanty Creek Road with Duane Ferris conducting the service. Her body will be cremated and private burial will be in the DeSpelder plot at Eldred Cemetery alongside Coleen. Dorothy was a voracious reader, especially of mysteries and thrillers. Contributions can be made to the Bellaire Library in her name (post office box 477, Bellaire, Michigan 49615.) Books purchased with donations will carry a bookplate in memory of Dorothy and include the donor's name. Contributions can also be made to the Atrim County Commission on Aging (COA) (post office box 614, Bellaire, Michigan 49615). COA's services assisted Dorothy in continuing to live with her husband in their home until the time of her death. Dorothy DeSpelder lived her life thinking of others. In her memory, please take the time to do so yourself.

He married Betty Jean Craig 23 Dec 1961. She was born 23 Feb 1941.

Notes for David Lloyd Staebler:
David L. Staebler is an American electrical engineer. He received his BSEE degree from Pennsylvania State University in 1962. The following year he was awarded an MSEE degree from the same institution. He became a member of the technical staff at RCA Laboratories in 1963. In 1970, he gained his Ph.D. in electrical engineering from Princeton University. While primarily remaining at RCA, he served as visiting professor at the Instituto de Fisica e Quimica de Sao Carlos, Brazil 1974–1975. In 1979–1980, he was a visiting staff member at Laboratories RCA Limited in Zurich, Switzerland. He was appointed as head of the Kinematic Systems group at RCA Laboratories in 1980. He later worked for Thomson Consumer Electronics and was the manager of the Materials Science Branch at the National Renewable Energy Lab. He serves as a consultant to Nanergy Corporation.

Dr. Staebler has performed research investigations on photochromism in materials, electrochromism, storage of holograms in electro-optic crystals, plus amorphous silicon solar cells produced by discharge. In 1980 he worked with Christopher R. Wronski to study light-induced metastable changes in the properties of hydrogenated amorphous silicon (a-Si:H); now known as the Staebler–Wronski effect.

Some experimental results
• Photoconductivity and dark conductivity decrease rapidly at first before stabilizing at a lower value. Interruptions in the illumination has no effect on the subsequent rate of change. Once the sample is illuminated again, the photoconductivity will drop as though there was no interruption.
• Annealing the amorphous silicon at a few hundred degrees Celsius for a few hours reverses the effect. Annealing can also take place at lower temperatures, however the process takes a longer amount of time.
• The use of protocrystalline Si:H has been shown to improve stability but not eliminate it.]
Suggested explanations - Nanocrystalline silicon suffers less from the Staebler–Wronski effect than amorphous silicon, suggesting that the disorder in the amorphous silicon Si network plays a major role. Other properties that could play a role are hydrogen concentration and its complex bonding mechanism, as well as the concentration of impurities.

The exact nature and cause of the Staebler–Wronski effect is still not well known. Historically, the most favored model has been the hydrogen bond switching model. It proposes that an electron-hole pair formed by the incident light may recombine near a weak Si–Si bond, releasing energy sufficient to break the bond. A neighbouring H atom then forms a new bond with one of the Si atoms, leaving a dangling bond. These dangling bonds can trap electron-hole pairs, thus reducing the current that can pass through. However, new experimental evidence is casting doubt on this model. More recently, the H collision model proposed that two spatially separated recombination events cause emission of mobile hydrogen from Si–H bonds to form two dangling bonds, with a metastable paired H state binding the hydrogen atoms at a distant site.

New Columbia - The Staebler family mourns the passing of David Lloyd Staebler, 84, on Jan. 1, 2025. He is survived by Betty Jean Craig Staebler, his wife of 63 years, his daughters Laurie and Lisa; sisters, Judith Holbrook (David) of Prescott, Arizona, and Linda Sensor (Robert) of Erie, PA; in-laws Robert & H. In 1970, he earned his Ph.D. from Princeton University. He worked in renewable energy, holograms & co-discovered the Staebler-Wronski effect in 1976. David most recently took classes at the Bucknell Institute for Life Long Learning. David was a volunteer with The Buffalo Creek Watershed Alliance, Middle Susquehanna Riverkeeper, Linn Land & Waterways Conservancy & Cape Fear River Watch. He was a member of the Cape Fear Cyclist, North Carolina, & enjoyed race walking, hang gliding, kayaking & running. Most of all he enjoyed time with his wife and family. Notes for Ricky Lee Doering:
Rick Lee Doering, age 65 of Delano, passed away April 2, 2018 after courageously battling cancer with dignity and grace. He truly perceived his diagnosis as a “win-win” situation saying, “I win if I beat the cancer, and I win when I get to go to Heaven”. Rick was born to Orlin and Orvella (Bullert) Doering on May 5, 1952 in Cokato, Minnesota. He was baptized on June 1, 1952 at St. James Lutheran Church in Howard Lake, Minnesota. He attended grade school at St. James Lutheran Church and School where he was confirmed on April 3, 1966. Rick graduated from Howard Lake High School in 1970 and Gustavus Adolphus College in 1974. He worked as a manager for Burger King for 5 years before spending 31 years at BFI/Republic Services. Here he was fortunate to hold a variety of jobs: Sales Rep, General Manager, Area Sales Manager, and assisted in Acquisitions. Since retiring from Republic Services, Rick spent several years doing part-time consulting work for Russ Schweihs in environmental services.

Rick was united in marriage to Karen Frey on July 9, 1977 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He loved her with all his heart enjoying every minute of their marriage. Their marriage was blessed with a loving companionship, three wonderful children and a commitment to the Lord. They first lived in Mound and later built their home in Delano in 1984, where they have since resided. Rick was known for his love of food/desserts, sense of humor, pragmatic attitude, and his warm smile. His children and grandchildren were the absolute delight of his life. Spending time and playing with them was always a top priority. Rick never missed an activity or sporting event and was their greatest cheerleader, supporter and advisor. He continued to be the rock of his family until the end. Hours before he passed, Rick awoke and saw his wife and children surrounding the bed. He looked at each, smiled and said repeatedly, “Wow. What a life!”, “This has been real special”, and “I love my family”. Rick willingly gave his time in service to the church. He enjoyed positions of leadership and was honored to serve his Lord in many capacities. At Mt. Olive Lutheran Church, he served as President, Vice President among many other board positions in addition to serving as Treasurer and Chairman at West Lutheran High School. Many often sought his counsel when issues arose as he had a reputation for being fair and honest. He was truly amazing!

Rick was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his beloved wife Karen; children Scott (Lindsay), Julie (Micah) Martin and Krista (Andy) Giefer; grandchildren Chase, Olivia, Josiah, Nora, Mara, and Jonah; sisters Durene (Bob) Rogers and Sheri Doering Fenn and nephews Andrew, Eric, Nick and Michael.

Funeral Services were held at 11 am on Saturday, April 7, 2018 at Mt. Olive Lutheran Church in Delano. Visitation was Friday, 4 – 8 pm and continued Saturday, 10 – 11 am prior to the service, ALL at the church. Interment was in Mt. Olive East Cemetery in Delano. In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred.

Notes for Julia Leticia Baroni:
May 28, 2013 - Julia Van Aken recently spoke about her duties as pharmacist and store manager at Longe Drugs on East Ganson Street in Jackson:
Age: 60
Residence: Grass Lake
Position and Workplace: Pharmacist and store manager at Longe Drugs, 900 E. Ganson St., Jackson
Length of employment: 36 years as a pharmacist; 12 years at Longe Drugs.
Family: Married to husband Tim for 12 years. Two step-children, Justin, 32, and Jessica, 30; and one step-granddaughter, Raiden, 5
Q. How did you get into this line of work?
A. My dad was a high school counselor. He told me being a pharmacist would be a good job for a woman.
Q. What is your favorite part of your job?
A. Interacting with people; (especially) the people that I work with. We're in such a close proximity … you have to really love the people you work with. We're shoulder-to-shoulder eight and a half hours a day. We spend more time together than we do with our spouses.
Q. What has been your proudest or most memorable moment at work?
A. There is a particular customer that I have helped a number of times. She's a mental health patient. She's had times where her doctor needed to be contacted and I went out of my way to reach her doctor for her. That's the most rewarding.
Q. Have you had a most embarrassing moment at this job?
A. When (co-workers) bought me a pair of black silk panties that were so big they would have fit a 300-pound man. One of the girls gave them to me all wrapped up nice for some occasion. There were customers standing around and I opened them up. Everyone was in on the joke but me. I put them right on over my pants. It was really funny. I could have fit three of me in them.
Q. If you could change one thing about your job, what would it be?
A. I wish the store were bigger and we had more room.
Q. How do you like to spend your free time?
A. Horseback riding. I've crisscrossed Michigan on a horse. It's a 520-mile ride. I also run. I get up at quarter to four in the morning, run six miles; then come to work. I just started doing that two years ago. I've run 5Ks. I'm usually outside.
Q. If you could have a "dream job," what would it be?
A. Something with horses. I worked at a camp store for awhile. I was like a camp counselor in a horse barn and I really liked that. I don't mind mucking stalls, feeding horses, brushing horses and doing the down-and-dirty work. … That would be perfect if I could make a living at that.

He was born 29 Mar 1928 in Klemme, Hancock Co, Iowa, and died 10 Oct 2015 in Bettendorf, Scott Co, Iowa.

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Freeman:
Mary E. (Freeman) Schaefer, a resident of Bettendorf, died of complications following hip replacement repair surgery at Trinity Health Center, just after midnight, April 21, 2007. Mary was born December 4, 1928, the second daughter of Percy and Zelma Freeman of Methodist Hollow, McGregor, Iowa. Her father was a worker on the Rob Roy II Ferry Boat (between McGregor and Prairie Du Chein), was a night watchman, policeman and was a farmer from 1946-1973). Zelma was a full working partner in all of Percy's work. Mary attended the McGregor Public Schools from 1st grade through the 12th. She was an honor student, Class President both her freshman and sophomore years, participated in drama, cheerleading, sang in the sophomore sextette and the church choir, played clarinet in band from 4th through12th grade, basketball 9th through 12th grade, was a nominee for Prom Queen and received the Good Citizenship/Leadership award (8th grade), the Literary Award (12th grade) and an academic scholarship to Upper Iowa University. She was the salutatorian of her class of 1946, and was selected to deliver the class address at graduation.

At Upper Iowa she completed the Two Year Teachers course with high honors (2nd in the entire sophomore class of 1948), was President of the UIU Future Teachers - Elementary, UIU Band President, and was elected President of her Dormitory. She was a college cheerleader, the Future Teachers' nominee for Homecoming Queen, and was selected as the UIU Homecoming Queen of 1947-1948. She did her practice teaching in 1st grade, Fayette schools. She met her husband to be, Donald A. Schaefer at Upper Iowa in 1947, where Don was a returning GI studying in mathematics, physics and philosophy on the GI bill. They were married August 15, 1948 at McGregor Congregational Church. The minister was Professor/Reverend William Richards, who was their philosophy and religion teacher. Mary taught 1st grade in Postville, Iowa 1948 -1949, while Don was finishing his degree work at UIU. With the birth of their first son, Randy, in September, 1949, Mary (who always wanted to be a teacher) decided that an even more important job was as a full time wife and mother, and as five more sons were born, she did that job to perfection for the next 18 years. She worked as a part time elementary substitute teacher from 1954 -1956, in West Union, where her husband was a math and science teacher, and 1964 -1967 in Bettendorf. She worked as a Teacher Associate in Learning Disabilities from 1967 until she retired in 1990 (so she and her husband could spend retirement time together). She was also a Cub Scout Leader (1958-1965), PTA vice-president at Grant Wood, District Secretary, Robe Mother and Youth Choir Assistant at Asbury Methodist Church (2 years), a charter member of Arts and Crafts group (Faculty Wives, Bettendorf School System). This group gave numerous $500 scholarships to students planning to become elementary teachers, with all income from handmade craft work done by this group.

She enjoyed creative craft work of all kinds, was a member of the Mississippi Valley Quilters Guild, and family activities with her husband, her sons and their families. She was her grandson Shane's number one baseball fan, though she had to attend all games in a wheelchair. All family members tried to come home for Christmas every year. She accompanied her husband to India (where he taught summer programs for Indian physics teachers). The Schaefers and two other American Physics teachers and their wives lived in the guest house at North Bengal University and in 1965 had a chance to travel to Darjeeling and see Kanchenjunga, the world's third tallest mountain.

Mary was preceded in death by two of her sons (Randall - 45, and Mark - 1 day), her parents Percy and Zelma Freeman, Mcgregor, her husband's parents Emery and Caroline Schaefer, Forest City, her brother-in-law Kenneth Moore, McGregor, her husband's brother Elwyn Schaefer of Guttenberg, 2 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

She is survived by her sons Steven (Sheri) Schaefer of Davenport, Craig (Judith) Schaefer of Terre Haute, Thom Schaefer of Carrollton, Texas, Jeffrey (Sherri) Schaefer of Ft. Worth, and Sharon Schaefer of Cottonwood, Texas, (widow of Randall Schaefer). Mary and Don have 13 grandchildren or step-grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

She was a loving wife, mother and grandmother and a fine teacher, with unlimited patience - she was a gentle, compassionate lady. She was an inspiration to her entire family and a role model in every positive way. She provided a warm, loving haven from the world for her entire family. She thought of everyone else, first.

Visitation was held Tuesday, April 24, at Asbury Methodist Church with services following. Mary was buried at Davenport Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the “Donald and Mary Science Scholarship” fund at the Bettendorf Community School's Foundation.

Notes for Donald Alvin Schaefer:

Donald A. Schaefer, of Bettendorf, passed away in his sleep peacefully. Don was born March 29, 1928, the eldest of four sons of Emery and Caroline Schaefer of Klemme, Iowa. He spent the first 17 years of his life on his parents’ small farm near Klemme, attending a one-room country school (Liberty 8) for his first eight years and graduating from Klemme High School in 1945. He was selected to participate in the last Army Specialized Training Reserve Program (ASTRP), an accelerated program in pre-engineering and advanced military training at South Dakota State College during the academic year of 1945-1946, where he also excelled in boxing. He later served in the Army at Camp Polk, LA and Fort Dix, New Jersey, being discharged in the spring of 1947. He then attended college at Upper Iowa University, Fayette, Iowa, (on the G.I. Bill), receiving his B.S. degree in math, physics and philosophy in 1949. It was at Upper Iowa, in 1947, that he met and married Mary E. Freeman of McGregor, Iowa, who was the College Homecoming Queen for 1947-1948. He always said that this was the most important thing that ever happened to him, and Mary was the most important person in his life. They were married in McGregor in August of 1948, and were together for nearly 59 years, until her untimely and unexpected death in April of 2007. On their marriage, Mary said: “It will be my purpose to be an inspiration to you and to any children we have.” She spent the next 58 years, even giving up her lifelong desire to be a teacher to inspire and assist Don. She literally gave Don and her family her life for all their years together.

Don taught math and science at West Union High School from 1949-1956, (where he had done his practice teaching in advanced math). He was one of 50 U.S. math and science teachers selected for the first NSF-sponsored Academic Year Institute at the U. of Wisconsin (Madison), receiving his M.S, in Science Education degree in June 1957 (with work in chemistry, biology and astrophysics). Don and Mary and four sons then came to Bettendorf where Don taught physics, chemistry and advanced science from 1957 through 1990, when both Don and Mary retired. From 1952–1985, Don also did graduate work at Carnegie Institute of Technology, Michigan State University, Reed College, M.I.T., Knox College, Ohio State University and the University of Maryland. In 1957, Don was selected as one of the first 50 U.S. physics teachers to help develop and introduce the new PSSC Physics course in U.S. high schools, and BHS was one of the test schools. He also helped with the testing and evaluation of the Advanced Physics Topics course, (BHS was on of 12 test schools in the U. S.) and he introduced the Harvard Project Physics course and the CHEM Study chemistry course at Bettendorf High School.

He taught other physics teachers in NSF-sponsored programs at Nebraska Wesleyan University, Knox College, the University of Iowa, and San Diego State University and was one of 13 high school physics teachers selected to do research work at Denver Research Institute where Don did work in x-ray diffraction He and professor Byron Youtz of Reed College introduced the (then) new PSSC physics course into Africa (Southern Rhodesia, Northern Rhodesia and Nyasaland by teaching 85 science teachers from those three countries at the University College of Rhodesia and Nyasaland in Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia now Zimbabwe), sponsored by Columbia University, the University Grants Commission of India and USAID. Don also helped introduce the new physics program into India, teaching Indian physics teachers at North Bengal University (with Dr. Wayne Denny of Grinnell College) and at Agra College (with Dr. Joe Schaefer of Loras College and Iowa State University). He participated in the Physics Teaching Resource Agent program in the 1980s, and after being selected as the Iowa science teacher to receive the Presidential Award for Excellence in Science Teaching from President Reagan, in 1985, he participated in a physics program at Fermilab, near Chicago. The teacher selected to receive the Presidential Award for excellence in math teaching in 1985 was a former student of Don's. Don was selected as a keynote speaker for the 1986 Presidential Award awardees in Washington, D.C. In 1967, he did the first experimental work with both computers and video recording at BHS, and later taught computer usage courses to other Bettendorf teachers and outside of class time, taught Bettendorf Physics students how to program in FOCAL, BASIC and PASCAL.

Don received the Outstanding Educator award from the Bettendorf Junior Chamber of Commerce, both the Excellence in Science Teaching and Excellence in Physics Teaching awards from the Iowa Academy of Science (where he was also selected as a science Fellow), the Outstanding Educator Award from the University of Iowa, Outstanding Alumnus from Upper Iowa University, and in 2001 he was awarded the honorary Doctor of Science degree (the only high school teacher to have received that award from UIU). He always said that any awards he received were also earned by his fellow top science and math teachers at BHS, administrators and board members and top level students who helped provide the science program at BHS and who nominated him for these awards, and more than anyone else, due to the inspiration, encouragement and assistance of his wife, Mary during their 58 years of marriage, where she gave life and the primary loving care for their six sons. Don wrote a number of articles published in national publications, including The Physics Teacher and Science Teacher magazines and gave presentations at numerous regional and national science and physics teacher conventions. In 1959, Bettendorf High School was selected by the American Association of Physics Teachers as one of the top 10 high school physics department in the U.S.

He designed and did the first programming of the planetarium at BHS, was its first director, from 1974–1990. The planetarium was named in his honor, due to the recommendation of his fellow physics teacher, Pete Sweedy and the support of BHS administration and Board of Education upon his retirement in 1990. He was a member of the American Association of Physics Teachers, the National Science Teachers Association, honorary lifetime member of the Quad-City Astronomical Society, ISEA, NEA, DARSPA and other organizations. He was a long-time member, former newsletter editor and a former officer of QCMUG, being a Mac user since 1984. He served as a resident advocate volunteer for Manor Care Health Services and the Iowa Department on Aging after retirement in the attempt to improve patient care in hospitals and to encourage communication between doctors and other medical people, which he believed could have saved his wife's life. With the director of risk management, he made a videotape which has been used with a majority of Trinity hospital personnel and medical people at many other organizations, including Georgetown University and medical center in the attempt to improve doctor/nurse communications. Don and Mary enjoyed supporting their five sons' academic, athletic, musical, dramatic and literary activities, as well as those of their grandchildren (especially Shane, who attended Bettendorf schools) though he lived in Davenport. Don and his sons went fishing together from the time they were very young, and Don and his son Steve remained fishing partners as long as their health would permit, owning a bass boat together for many years.

He is survived by his sons Craig (Judith) of Terre Haute, Indiana, Thomas of Carrolton, Texas, and Jeffrey (Monique) of Richardsen, Texas. Don and Mary had 13 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his brother Harvey (Iola) of Forest City, Iowa, by Mary's sister Zelma/'Percie' and by numerous nephews, nieces and cousins. He was preceded in death by his sons Randall, Steven and Mark, by his parents Emery and Caroline, his wife's parents Percy and Zelma Freeman of McGregor, his wife's brother-in-law Ken Moore, his brothers Elwyn and Roger 2015, grandchildren (twin sons of Craig and Judy), great grandchildren (children of granddaughter Tammy), and Sister in law Charlotte Harlow, Don and Mary's sons Randall, Steven and Mary, his beloved wife of more than 58 years, his lifetime companion and best friend. Don always said his favorite place on Earth was anywhere his Mary was. Now they are together, forever.

Visitation will be 10 a.m. to noon on Saturday, October 10, 2015, at the Runge Mortuary, with services following at noon in the Runge Mortuary Chapel. He will be buried at Davenport Memorial Park, and the Runge Mortuary is assisting the family with arrangements. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Don and Mary Schaefer Science Scholarship fund, administered by the Community Foundation of the Great River Bend (CFGRB). In lieu of flowers contributions can be made to the Don and Mary Schaefer Science Scholarship fund, administered by the Community Foundation of the Great River Bend (CFGRB).

Craig was born in Evanston, Illinois, and graduated from Evanston High School in 1949. He was named for Episcopal Bishop George Craig Stewart, at the bishop's suggestion, which is how he got his lifelong nickname of "Bish." After he graduated from Northwestern University in 1955 as a Second Lieutenant, Craig began 28 years of active duty service in the United States Marine Corps. In addition to serving in both the Korean and Vietnam wars, he was honored with the DOD Superior Service Medal and the Bronze Star for valor, among others. He graduated from the Naval War College in 1976. After retiring as a Colonel in 1983, Craig began a second career as a consultant for eight years in Saudi Arabia, where he worked for both the Vinnell and Raytheon corporations. During those years in the Middle East, he made Nicosia, Cyprus, his favorite getaway.

A lifelong learner, Craig pursued many interests over the decades, including photography, cooking, motor-biking and travel. He made sure his family had those opportunities too, taking trips with them to Korea, Japan, Taiwan, Thailand, England, Egypt and Turkey. He became a licensed flight instructor in 1968, after owning and flying private planes with his wife. From IBM punch cards to Google Talk, Craig embraced the Digital Age. He was an accomplished computer enthusiast, keeping close contact with his family through e-mail since the 1980s. In recent years, Craig followed national, international and local politics with intensity. Craig called Omena his home for his entire adult life and made it his permanent home in 1991. Over the years in Leelanau County, he worked for the U.S. Census Bureau and the Leland Cherry Company, and had been a diligent follower of Leelanau Township debates. He married Belinda Tripp. She was born 26 Aug 1958.

Notes for Harold L. Weinbrecht:
At first glance, Harold Weinbrecht seems like just another person from Cary. He's a husband, father, grandfather, and a retired software engineer. He loves to play tennis, work out in the gym, and run. What makes Harold Weinbrecht just a little bit different from the rest of the men in Cary is that he's also the Town's Mayor. But in Harold's family, even being Mayor isn't so unique; Mayor Weinbrecht's uncle was former Mayor Fred Bond. Clearly, service runs in Harold's family.

A native of Augusta, Georgia, Harold has spent most of his life in Cary, coming here first as a child with his family then later as an adult while attending North Carolina State University. Since their marriage in 1987, Harold and his wife, Belinda, have lived and raised their two daughters in Cary. And over these many years, Harold and his family have stayed in Cary because of its charm and sense of place, its natural beauty and its people.

Wanting to keep Cary the wonderful place he's called home for so long, Harold became active in politics in 1997 when he helped start a website called Citizens for Balanced Growth where he wrote about Town government meetings and issues. It was during this endeavor that he discovered that there were many people interested in the same things as he: a slower growth rate; a stronger focus on roads, parks and schools; and an increase in communication between citizens and their government.

In 1998, Harold was chosen as the first chairman of the Town Council's newly formed Information Services Advisory Board, and in 1999, he was named to the Town's Planning and Zoning Board. Harold ran and was elected to the Cary Town Council for the first time in 1999 as an At-Large representative.

Then, and now as Mayor, Harold believes that the role of local government is to maintain a high quality of life for its citizens by providing crucial infrastructure and valuable amenities. And then as now, faith, family and hard work are the things that keep Cary Mayor Harold Weinbrecht grounded and in touch with the real issues Cary citizens face each day. Mayor Weinbrecht remains committed to managing growth, and he also believes in an open government where citizens have a strong and relevant voice.

Harold Weinbrecht (born 1956) is an American computer programmer and politician who has been the mayor of Cary, North Carolina since 2007. Weinbrecht was born in Augusta, Georgia. His family moved to Cary from 1957 to 1967. His uncle was Fred Bond, Jr, the former mayor of Cary. He attended Augusta College and North Carolina State University, receiving a B.S. in both computer science and mathematics. In 1997, amid disputes between developers and citizens, Weinbrecht launched the website Citizens for Balanced Growth where he wrote about local issues and town council meetings. He became the chair of Cary's new Information Services Advisory Board in 1998. In 1999, he was named to Cary's Planning and Zoning Board. That same year, Weinbrecht was elected to an at-large town council seat.

Though his opponent spent six times more on advertising, Weinbrecht was elected mayor of Cary in 2007, winning approval on 58% of ballots cast over incumbent Ernie McAlister. One of the key issues in the election was growth, with Weinbrecht proposing a balanced approach. During his first term as mayor, Weinbrecht formed the Citizen Issue Review Commission and created a town sustainability manager position. Weinbrecht was re-elected as mayor in 2011, 2015, 2019, and 2023. His current term expires in December 2027. Weinbrecht was endorsed by Indy Week in 2007 and 2011. He started his political career as a Democrat, but now considers himself to be an Independent. Weinbrecht is a past president of the Wake County Mayors Association. He has also served on the Wake County's Growth Management Task Force and is chairman of the Capital Area Metropolitan Planning Organization.

In 1994, he became a programmer for SAS Institute. He was previously a simulations engineer. He retired in 2022 after 28 years at SAS.

Weinbrecht married his wife Belinda and moved back to Cary in 1987. They have two children. He is a member of Cary Presbyterian Church where he teaches Sunday school. He exercises two hours each day.

Children of Harold Weinbrecht and Belinda Tripp are:

1815 i. Audrey C.[12] Weinbrecht, born 1989.

1816 ii. Cara A. Weinbrecht, born 1994.

Read, Jr.; her two children Amilynn (Andy) Annala, and Greg (Laura Langenburg) Maki; her sister Cynthia Read (Les) Miller of Grosse Pointe, her brother Scott (Amanda Stanger) Read of Ann Arbor; and her ex-husband, Gene Maki. Laura was a life-long member of the Ann Arbor Figure Skating Club. She skated on the Hockettes in the 1960s and the Debonaires (adult synchronized skating team) from the 1970s until a few years ago. Laura received her judging appointment from US Figure Skating in 1979 and judged her last event in March 2010. Laura was well loved and appreciated for her spirit, her knowledge as a judge, referee and technical panel person, her willingness to share her expertise with clubs in a wide area of the country, always displaying a calm yet passionate approach to the sport of figure skating. She will be sorely missed by many skating communities but especially in Ann Arbor where she has been a stalwart supporter and leader in so many club activities. Laura's last competition was the Finals of the Michigan State High School Figure Skating program - a program that is what it is today because of her work with it - the largest and most successful high school figure skating program in the country. At her request, Laura's body was donated to research at the University of Michigan Hospital and will be cremated at a later date. A Celebration of Life will be held at the Ann Arbor Ice Cube, her 'home away from home,' on May 16th, 3-5 p.m. Bring your skates if you have them, bring your good memories, and be ready to share your favorite Laura story. A big thanks all of Laura's family, friends, 'skating family' and the LiveStrong program at the Ann Arbor YMCA who have all been so supportive for the past two years. Donations can be made to the Laura Maki Memorial Fund (which will honor those who voluntarily serve the skating community off the ice who may also suffer from financial/medical hardships), c/o Ann Dougherty, 6 Northwick Ct, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48105.

On August 30, 1969 she married Delmar Andrew Hertler, whom she met while they were both employed at Double A Products in Manchester, and preceded her in death on August 24, 2014. After raising her children, Bonnie returned to work for Johnson Controls in accounting. After her career she volunteered for the Clinton Fall Festival, Kiwanis Club of Manchester and most recently served as the president of the Manchester Area Senior Citizens Council. Bonnie loved her family the very most. Whether it was attending her granddaughter's sporting events, babysitting, taking them on shopping sprees or picking them up on Friday night and keeping them until church on Sunday, spoiling them was all that mattered. Everyone will, but her granddaughters will especially miss her unequivocal love for them.

Angola, Indiana — Students hugged and consoled one another Monday in front of a makeshift memorial hanging in the windows at Angola High School as they tried to deal with the grief of losing four well-known and popular seniors killed in a collision in Alabama as they returned home from spring break. “Everyone was crying,“ senior Kyle Jewell said. Students said as hard as it was to go to school Monday, two days after Alexx Bauer, Matthew Roe, Evan Weaver and Riley Zimmer were killed, it helped to be together to comfort one another.

Notes for Jonathan Jason Hollinger:
Jonathan (Jason) Hollinger, 76, born September 11th, 1946 in Dayton, Ohio, died at home in Jacksonville, Florida, on March 19th, 2023. Jason was a husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, and an incredible musician. He was in many successful bands (Green Lyte Sunday, Giant, among others) in the Dayton, Ohio area. He was a renowned guitarist. The Green Lyte Sunday album is still being played in a few countries.

Jason loved cooking for his family. Scrambled eggs for Harriett every Saturday, chicken planks for the grandkids, chili, and mahi. He loved dogs, movies (his favorite was Ben Hur) Civil War history, gardening, bird watching, and chocolate, especially ovaltine. He greatly enjoyed teaching guitar to kids and adults. "But you need to practice." Jason practiced faithfully every day. "There is always room for improvement." He taught the easy E to his therapist two days before he died. He had a great sense of humor and his stories about life as a traveling musician were hilarious.

Jason was preceded in death by his mother, Ruth Ann Hollinger, father, Ken Hollinger, Aunt Sissy, and brother, Nate Hollinger. He is survived by his devoted wife, Harriett, his son, Kenny, daughters Kelly, Erisa, Melody, Rachel, and their spouses, 11 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild, and brother Nate's family, Stacy and her three children.

Jason's passing is a great loss to all of us. He was a kind and compassionate person. He was a spiritual person and believed everyone had a right to their own beliefs as long as their beliefs did not hurt others. We know he is in the hereafter playing pinochle with his family and jamming with his former bandmates. We miss him. There will be a gathering in Jason's honor at Harp's in Jacksonville on May 22nd at 2pm. This would have been Jason and Harriett's 25th anniversary.
