Notes for Jakob Laubengayer:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Jacob Laubengayer. As Ann Arbor is the center of so rich and wide an agricultural region and is so accessible by rail to the great distributing points and ports of the country, the enterprises are numerous for dealing in the staples of the region. While manufactures are still in their infancy, the middlemen that are the medium between producer and the manufacturer are numerous. One of the most successful of these firms is that of which our subject is junior partner and which does business under the firm title of Heinzmann & Laubengayer, dealers in wool, grain, flour, feed and hides. Our subject is a product of this county, although, as his name would indicate, he is of German descent. He was born in the township of Scio, September 14, 1843, and is a son of J. Fred and Christina (Schmidt) Laubengayer, both of whom were natives of Wittenberg, Germany. They were married in Scio Township, this county.

The parents of our subject emigrated to the United States in 1830, landing at New York City, thence coming direct to Washtenaw County and located in Scio Township upon a farm where the father carried on a general agricultural business, devoting himself principally to stock-raising and the growing of wheat. He was one of the prosperous tillers of the soil of his neighborhood, employing the advanced German scientific methods in making his tract productive. His decease occurred April 22, 1891. He was born in 1805. The mother of our subject is still living on the old homestead, being in her seventy-second year. She is the mother of four children, three of whom are living—Frederick, Jacob and Tobias.

Jacob Laubengayer passed his boyhood in his native county and spent his early days in attendance at the district school of his neighborhood. He remained under the home roof of his parents until twenty-one years old. After reaching his majority he started out in life on his own account, still making his home, however, with his parents until reaching the age of twenty-four years when he bought a small farm which he began to develop and to engage in stock-raising, though his dealing in stock was in a small way. However, he kept adding to his farm until he was the possessor of two hundred and forty-seven acres, taking great pride in keeping a fine breed of cattle and good sheep. He continued to be actively engaged in agricultural pursuits until December, 1889, when he removed to Ann Arbor and embarked in the wool business in connection with various parties. In the last named year he formed a partnership with John Heinzmann and has dealt largely in the products above mentioned ever since. In connection with this business they also handle dry wood, having extensive wood yards near the grain elevator on the Toledo & Ann Arbor Railroad. The firm handles all kinds of grain and also does quite a large business in grinding feed for the farmers in the vicinity and also for general sale. The celebrated brands of flour from the Pillsbury Mills of Minneapolis are here found and the firm with which our subject is connected does a large business in this direction. They doubtless have the largest dealing in wool of any firm in Washtenaw County.

Mr. Laubengayer was married in December 1880, to Miss Amelia Weimer, of Scio Township, this county. She is a daughter of Michael Weimer, her parents having come to this country from Germany. Our subject and his wife are the parents of three children, whose name are Melinda, Robert and Walter. The original of this sketch was elected Justice of the Peace of Lodi Township, being near the line of that township. He casts his vote with the Democrat Party, in whose principles and practices he has unbounded faith. Our subject resides at No. 76 W. Huron Street, where he has a very pleasant home.

Notes for Carl (Charles) Braun:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Charles Braun, interested in general agricultural pursuits in Ann Arbor Township, was born in the city of Ann Arbor on the 29th of May, 1848. His parents were John and Anna Maria (Eberhardt) Braun, both of whom were natives of Germany, but their marriage was celebrated in Ann Arbor, Michigan. The father was born in 1816 and in 1836 crossed the Atlantic to America with a company of young men. In 1837 the mother came with a party to the new world. Mr. Braun was a mason by trade and followed that pursuit in Michigan until 1852, when he purchased eighty acres of land in Scio Township west of Ann Arbor and began farming. He lived upon that place until 1860, when he sold out and bought one hundred and eighty acres of land on section 5, Ann Arbor Township, to which he afterward added until his farm comprised two hundred and forty acres of land, which he brought to a high state of cultivation. He carried on general farming and stock raising, meeting with a creditable measure of success, and his life was characterized by unremitting diligence and energy. He died January 9, 1876, at the age of forty-nine years, while his wife survived him for a long period, passing away on March 11, 1894. His political allegiance was given to the Democratic Party. In the family were eight children: Fred B., who was born in 1840 and died in 1902; John M., born August 16, 1843; Catherine, who was born July 22, 1845, and is the wife of J. M. Stein; Charles, of this review; Christian, who was born February 23, 1850, and died December 16, 1902; Christina, who was born March 23, 1851, and is the wife of Fred Kern; Henry, who was born May 20, 1854; and Simon, who was born February 2, 1857, and died August 3, 1887.

Charles Braun of this review was reared in the usual manner of farm lands, early becoming familiar with the duties and labors that fall to the lot of the agriculturist, and his education was acquired in the public schools. After all the children were grown he purchased their interests in the farm, thus coming into possession of the old homestead property, on which he carried on general farming until 1893. He then concentrated his energies upon agricultural pursuits and is today one of the best known fruit raisers of this part of the state, having a peach orchard of twenty acres, while nine are planted to apples. He has also bought and fed stock. The farm is a well improved property on which are two good barns, one fifty-six by thirty-eight feet, the other sixty by thirty-eight feet, together with good buildings for the shelter of the grain, stock and farm machinery. The residence was erected in 1867.

Mr. Braun was married in 1887 to Miss Mary Andrews, a daughter of John Andrews, of Scio Township. They have had three children: Sylvia Maria, who was born March 10, 1888; Carl William, born June 27, 1889; and Simon Walter, born June 19, 1891. All are now attending school. Mr. Braun is recognized as one of the stalwart advocates of democracy in Washtenaw County and is active in the work of the party. He has served for three years, from 1892 until 1895, as supervisor and again filled the office from 1898 until 1902. In the fall of the latter year he was elected county treasurer for a term of two years and in 1904 was defeated for that office in the great republican landslide. In positions of public trust he is ever faithful, his course being marked by an unfaltering patriotism and devotion to the general good. He holds membership in the Zion Lutheran church of Ann Arbor and has a wide and favorable acquaintance in the city and throughout this part of the state by reason of his energy and success in business life and his activity in political circles. Since 1892 he has been secretary of the German Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company.

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Charles Braun. Among the families who have been residents of Washtenaw County ever since the old Territorial days, we are pleased to name the one represented by our subject. John Braun, his father, was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1816, and in his youth learned the brick and stone-mason's trade, emigrating to America in 1836, and settling in Ann Arbor, where for a number of years he followed his trade. While living in that city, he married Anna M. Eberhardt, like himself a native of Wurtemberg, and in 1851 he took up his residence on a farm of eighty acres in Scio Township, for which he paid the sum of $1,100. Eight years later he removed to a farm in Ann Arbor Township, where his death ensued in January 9, 1866. He had accumulated a handsome property by industry and integrity.

Our subject was born in the city of Ann Arbor, May 29, 1848, and is the fourth in his father's family, his brothers and sisters being: Frederick B., born October 20, 1840, in Ann Arbor Township; Johanna, who died in infancy; John Michael, born August 16, 1843; Catherine, July 28, 1845; Charles; Christian, born February 7, 1850; Christiana, November 23, 1851; Henry, May 20, 1854; Simeon, February 2, 1857. The last named died August 3, 1887. Frederick and Christian are living near Ann Arbor on the Dixboro Road, and John lives on an adjoining farm; Catherine is Mrs. John Michael Stein; and Christina is Mrs. Fred Kirn, of Ann Arbor; Henry is on the old Doty farm; and Charles and Simeon had worked the home farm together after Henry married and left the home some ten years since, and continued thus until a few months before Simeon's death, which was the result of consumption, following inflammation of the lungs. This is the only case of consumption in this circle, as it is not a family tendency.

Charles Braun has two hundred and seven acres which is part of the tract which his father originally located. In his youth he attended the Union school, and afterward took a course in the Ann Arbor Business College, and at twenty began to teach in the district school, which he continued for two winters. Upon the 17th of June, 1886, he was married in Scio Township, to Miss Mary D. Andress, daughter of John and Katharina Andress, the latter being still a resident of Scio Township. This lady was born in that township, March 29, 1863, and to her have been granted three children: Sylvia Maria Katharina, born March 10, 1888; Carl William, June 27, 1889; and Simeon Walter, June 19, 1891.

Like his father, our subject is a sturdy Democrat in his political views, and is now serving as Township Treasurer. He is an earnest and efficient member of the Lutheran Church, and a progressive farmer. He takes great interest in breeding Short-Horn cattle, keeping several registered animals and breeding Poland-China hogs, besides marketing large crops of wheat.

Notes for Georgia Kathryn Kurfis:

Ottawa Lake - Georgia K. Wood, whose family Christmas tree farm was a stop for many looking for just the right holiday conifer, died Wednesday in Whispering Woods dementia-care facility in Grand Rapids, Mich. She was 90. She was in poor health recently, her daughter, Bonnie DeLange, said. Mrs. Wood and her husband, Edwin "Chet" Wood, settled on 20 acres in Monroe County's Whiteford Township in 1968. Her husband didn't want to farm, but he did like to hunt and wanted to provide cover for deer. "It was sandy and good for trees, and he planted Colorado blue spruce," Mrs. DeLange said. "They put in 10,000 trees, and they started selling them to landscapers when they were small, and when they got larger, people would come and cut their own. It was a cut-your-own tree farm."

Her husband had his own business cleaning the sewage plants of restaurants, apartments, mobile home parks, and factories not connected to municipal sewers. Mrs. Wood was a homemaker - and tree tender. "She mowed the trees and kept it looking nice, and she would be home and take the calls and let the landscapers in and collect the money and did the bookkeeping," Mrs. DeLange said. During prime Christmas-tree season - from the day after Thanksgiving through Christmas Eve, especially weekends - the Woods and their daughter were outside selling trees and offering a hand when customers needed to secure their trees to their vehicles for safe trips home. "I remember some of the cars, the trees were so big you had to tie it so they could see out," Mrs. DeLange said. Mrs. Wood had a candy cane for every child. "There were generations that came. I remember this one couple, they brought their little boy, and when he was older, he was bringing his son," Mrs. DeLange said. One family's tradition was to pick their tree every Christmas Eve morning. Some customers took their Christmas card photos at the farm, and the Woods were on many families' mailing lists. "We had a lady at the house after my dad passed, and she brought cookies in and she said, 'I used to buy trees from you. Your parents were wonderful,'" Mrs. DeLange said. "That was really neat. I don't even know who she was." The tree business closed about six years ago.

Mrs. Wood was an artist who painted portraits and landscapes in oils after taking a class from Sylvania artist June DeVries. A member of the Bedford Artists Club, Mrs. Wood accepted commissions and exhibited her work in several area shows. She was born April 14, 1924, to Anna and Frank Kurfis, the second youngest of 11. She grew up in Wood County near Stony Ridge and was a 1942 graduate of Perrysburg High School. Afterward, she operated an overhead crane at Erie Proving Grounds in Ottawa County.

She and her husband met on a blind date, and while he was in the Army in Europe during World War II, they exchanged letters. He returned in the summer of 1945, proposed, and the couple married Nov. 24, 1945. He died April 21, 2005. Surviving are her daughter, Bonnie DeLange and sister, Eva Gentry.

Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m. today in Reeb Funeral Home, Sylvania, where services are at 11 a.m. Monday. The family suggests tributes to the Alzheimer's Association, northwest Ohio chapter.

Notes for Virginia Maria Hutzel:

Virginia Maria (Ginny) Hutzel late '20s early 30's

I have always been told that Ginny made two different trips to New York to work as a dancer -- which she did... on Broadway. I also always heard that she swam in Billy Rose's Aquacade and was engaged (for a time) to Johnny Weissmuller. This description at least marries two of those legends together: Billy Rose's Aquacade was a music, dance and swimming show produced by Billy Rose at the Great Lakes Exposition in 1937. Later Aquacade moved to the 1939 New York World's Fair where it was the most successful production of the fair (Lowe). The Art Deco 11,000 seat amphitheater was designed by architects Sloan & Robertson. Shows were staged by John Murray Anderson to the orchestrations of Ted Royal. The pool and the 300 by 200-foot (61 m) stage could be hidden behind a lighted 40-foot (12 m) high curtain of water. The inaugural Aquacade starred Olympians Eleanor Holm, Johnny Weissmuller (later replaced by Buster Crabbe) and newcomer Esther Williams. Rose married Holm after divorcing his first wife, comedienne Fanny Brice. Duke Ellington played in a 1955 edition for several weeks. It is here that Ellington is said to have created a drink called the Tornado. For the New York Aquacade, Rose interviewed 5,000 applicants and chose 500 dancers, actors and swimmers. Gertrude Ederle, a Flushing, Queens resident and the first woman to swim the English Channel, was an Aquacade star. Queens Borough President Donald R. Manes dedicated the pool to her in 1978.

Marriage Notes for Leonard Hutzel and Dorothy Warner:

A very pretty wedding took place in Saline Thanksgiving morning November 1936 at the home of Mrs. Amelia Hutzel, uniting in marriage Miss Dorothy Warner of Traverse City and Mr. Leonard Hutzel. The couple spoke their vows before Rev. C. H. Wittbracht of the Lutheran Evangelical Church. They were attended by Miss Mary Warner of Traverse City, sister of the bride, and Raymond Morin of Erie.

The bride was attractively attired in brown crepe with matching accessories. The shoulder corsages of the bride and her attendant were of roses, heather, fern and baby marigolds, the colors harmonizing with their costumes. The bridegroom and best man were dressed in dark business suits with a single white rosebud in their lapels.

Guests at the ceremony were Mrs. Amelia Hutzel, mother of the groom, Miss Dorothy Haselswerdt of Chelsea and Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Wiedman and daughter, Dorothy, of Ann Arbor.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Directly after, Mr. and Mrs. Hutzel left for Detroit where they spent the remainder of the Thanksgiving vacation.

Notes for Dr. Nancy Jean Kurfess:

May 1, 2024, Cleveland — Dr. Nancy Kurfess Johnson is truly a medical pioneer. She grew up south of Toledo, in a small town called Luckey. A farm girl for whom hard work was second nature. "We ate our food out of the ground, and manure was the only chemical. I worked seven days a week, we milked cows twice a day, seven days a week for 50 years," Dr. Nancy said. Her family had modest means and no money for higher education, so Nancy worked hard to earn a full scholarship to Mather College for Women in Cleveland. She remembers the strict rules. "We had to be in at 7 o'clock at night," she recalls.

She graduated from college in 1948, but her dream of attending the Case Western Medical School, was just that -- a dream. "We were told, 'you'll just take up a space, you'll just get married and have children,'" she said. Instead, Nancy attended graduate school and became a researcher. She started taking med school classes on the side, until the day the dean of the medical school stopped her after class. "He said, 'one of the sophomore guys wants to become a history teacher, would you like his spot?' And I thought, 'now I'll have to pay $300 but I'd better grab it,' so I did," she says smiling. During medical school and beyond, she began to see some of the firsts in Cleveland medicine, including open heart surgery, the development of the Kay Cross oxygenator, the beginning of dialysis and more. "I saw all the tragedies of polio. I delivered a baby in an iron lung, all the stuff I did at Metro, I was in there of all months, August. Polio 24 hours, we were doing lumbar punctures around the clock," she said. It was delivering the baby in the iron lung that made her decide her career would be in obstetrics and gynecology. She remembers the first ultrasound machines, when pap smears became routine, but she also knew she needed to know more.

She graduated from Case Western Medical School in 1954 and received her M.D. In 1955, she completed her internship year at St. Luke's Hospital. Some of her patients there lived in Solon — then a farming community without a physician. With no office buildings in the city, she looked at a house under construction on the main road. She and her husband worked on converting the garage into a three-room office, while the family lived in the basement. In late October 1955, her converted garage opened. In her book, The Doctor Wears Pearls, she says: "In 1955, no male physician would even consider adding a female to his group. A paid position was not an option anywhere, Solon welcomed me." Over the years she delivered babies, she worried that some of the more complex cases were beyond the scope of her education. "I was better than the head of my department at delivering babies, but I didn't know some of the things that the medical students knew," she said.

So, in her forties she became the first woman in 22 years to return to the Medical School at Case to study gynecological surgery. Times were finally changing. "In about 1976 suddenly the class became full of women, and they walked out of the chauvinistic lectures," she recalls. Dr. Johnson became the first woman board certified Ob-Gyn to set up private practice in 1977 and did her part to transform healthcare for women as much as she could. One example was explaining to her mail counterparts that breast exams are part of women's health. "You had to change the culture from the inside," she says.

She was in family practice for 18 years, and after becoming board-certified, she spent the next 25 years in a career in Women's Health. After 50 years in the field, Dr. Nancy retired in August 2001. Dr. Nancy Kurfess Johnson, the farm girl from Luckey, never bet on chance, because her hard work blazed the trail for all women in medicine who followed. She will be honored with the Academy of Medicine of Cleveland and Northern Ohio Legacy Award this weekend.

Marriage Notes for Nancy Kurfess and Henry Kowalchick:

St. John's Lutheran Church, Stony Ridge, was the scene Saturday evening June 14, 1950 at 7:30 o'clock of the marriage of Miss Nancy Jean Kurfess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kurfess, of near Luckey, and Henry Kowalchick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kowalchick, of Pennsylvania.

The Rev. Herbert Veler, Stony Ridge, and the Rev. Dale Recker, Cleveland Heights, officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony. The altar was decorated with bouquets of white flowers and palms.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown which she had made herself, fashioned with a white Chantilly lace bodice and tunic over a full hooped white satin skirt ending in a long train. She wore matching gauntlets of lace and carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, and pink daisies entwined with lace from her grandmother's wedding gown. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a circle of lace and satin.

Mrs. Lloyd Hahn, of near Perrysburg, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink taffeta gown with a full hooped skirt. Miss Mary Jane Greiner, cousin of the bride, and Misses Patricia Penton, of Cleveland, and Arlene Bartlow, of Canton, former classmates, served as bridesmaids. They wore aqua taffeta gowns designed like that of the matron of honor. All of the bride's attendants wore matching mitts and floral headpieces. All carried baskets of mixed flowers. Robert Ainsworth, of Cleveland, was best man for Mr. Kowalchick. Ushers were Keith Crewson, Alf red Holb and Carl Kroeger, all of Cleveland, farmer classmates, and Charles Kurfess, brother of the bride.

Miss Kathleen Kurfess, cousin of the bride, sang "At Dawning," "I Love You Truly," and "Yours is My Heart Alone" before the ceremony and "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go," during the ceremony. Robert Rudduck, violinist, accompanied Miss Kurfess in "I Love You Truly," and played "Traumerei" as a solo. Mrs. Glenn Ackenberger was organist.

Mrs. Ackenberger and Mr. Rudduck provided music for the reception which was held in the parish hall immediately following the wedding. Mrs. Glenn Henry and Miss Virginia Ruth Henry, cousins of the bride, served at a beautifully decorated table. The couple are now spending two weeks in Florida after which they will make their home in Cleveland. Miss Kurfess is a graduate of Western Reserve University and is now a graduate student at the Medical School at the University. She is a 1945 graduate of Troy-Luckey High School. Mr. Kowalchick is also a graduate of Western Reserve and is now studying at the Law School there. He served four years with the United States Army.

He married Virgil Esther Frost 10 Jun 1930 in Blue Rapids, Marshall Co, Kansas, daughter of John Frost and Myrtle Pullerine. She was born 24 Dec 1907 in Blue Rapids, Marshall Co, Kansas, and died 27 Mar 1992 in Meade, Meade Co, Kansas.

Notes for Eugene Frederick Laubengayer:

Sept. 19, 1977 - After 55 years it's time to set the record straight. It was Gene Laubengayer, not Leonard Corporon, who blocked the punt back in 1922 to help Salina to a 126 victory over McPherson. The Salina Journal of that day reported Corporon made both the block and the touchdown. "I blocked the kick," Laubengayer, 607 E. Wilson, recalled this week after reading my column about the termination of the 55-year-old Salina-McPherson series and the history of the school's nicknames. This is the final year for the present CKL setup and this Fall's game was the last game in the series. It may have been the longest uninterrupted series in the state. I looked into the records to learn about that 1922 game between the 2 CKL schools and found that Salina was referred to as the Coyote Cubs and McPherson as the Bulldog Pups. "I don't think we had a nickname at the time," recalled Laubengayer, who played left tackle. He weighed only 133 pounds, was 5-9 and an 18-year-old senior. "Our yearbook just referred to the squads as the football team or the basketball team."

A few years later the athletic teams were known as the Maroons. Stu Dunbar, The Journal's first sports editor, gave Salina its nickname. "He came to The Journal in 1928, I believe," Laubengayer said. "I remember that Dunbar used to come over to the YMCA and there was always a crowd following him. Someone asked me who that guy was that always attracted a crowd. I told him it was Stu Dunbar, the new sports editor of The Salina Journal. The crowd used to follow him because he was great at telling sports stories." Laubengayer still remembers the starting lineup and, along with himself, 3 other members of that team reside in Salina. They are Hap Broman, Bill Kane and Larry Gutsch. Laubengayer played left tackle and recalls, in blocking the punt, "the ball hit me squarely in the stomach" and flew into the end zone where Corporon, the right tackle, recovered for a touchdown. The late Howard (Red) Yeager, who was to marry the daughter of Roy Bailey, editor-publisher of The Journal, and become an admiral in the U. S. Navy, was the fullback.

Joe Anderson was at quarterback. "He later went to play at Kansas State," Laubengayer said. The ends were Royal Brown, who has died, and R. E. (Howdy) Nelson, who lives in Virginia. Harry (Ed) Day was the right guard. In the backfield with Anderson and Yeager were Paul Reitz and Brian Blades. The defensive lineup was the same, except Brown played safety and Anderson left end. Laubengayer replaced regular left tackle Bob Muir, who was injured in the McPherson game. Gutsch was the reserve quarterback and Laubengayer said, "I remember that the football squad went over to Mrs. Gutsch's house for chicken dinner. She treated the squad. "We were outplayed in the McPherson game, even though we won," he said. "We didn't have too good a team. Lihdsborg beat us 3-0, but come to find out, that their kicker was ineligible and they had to forfeit. We beat St. John's Military 7-0 and Kingman 16-6. Just one year, before Kingman beat us 101-0.

"We played 10 games and the season ended on Thanksgiving Day. We had 18 letter winners and you had to play 13 quarters to letter. I played 30." Rounding out the 1922 squad were Thomas Dopp, Ernest Yockers, Don Brown, La Verne Aimes and Willard Ruling.

Eugene F. Laubengayer was born January 21, 1905, in Brookville, Kansas. He died August 25, 1985, in Minneola, Kansas. Mr. Laubengayer was an employee of the Salina Journal for 39 years. Notes for Florence E. Johnson:

Florence Schmid, a resident of Wheaton, Illinois, went to be with the Lord on Monday, November 11, 2019. She was born December 25, 1932 in Chicago to Palmer and Marie Johnson. Florence grew up in the Roseland neighborhood, attended Chicago Christian High School, and later graduated from college with a B.A. in Communications. She returned to the Chicago area where she met and married Theophilus (Ted) Schmid III in 1957 at Bethany Reformed Church. Throughout their years together, they demonstrated a deep love for God, their family, and their local church.

God gifted Florence with creativity. This was evident in the beautiful home that she and Ted made with their five daughters. She delighted in celebrating birthdays, holidays, and everyday meals together. Lunchtime found the girls coming home from school for grilled cheese and dramatic readings of Little House on the Prairie and other classics. She worked for many years in radio drama, including at WMBI in Chicago. A favorite program she hosted was "The Listening Post," in which she made children's books come alive for a wider audience. In addition to radio drama, Florence did voiceover work and co-hosted the Focus on the Family radio program.

In 1967 Florence and Ted moved from Chicago to the western suburbs where they developed the family business—Schmid Pharmacy in Glen Ellyn. The pharmacy flourished and in 1976 they moved to a new space on Pennsylvania Avenue where Flo created a gift and antique section that made the store a destination for many community members. Customers fondly remember the homemade fudge and unique gifts. After Ted's death in 1988, Florence continued as owner of the store and valued her interactions with employees and customers for many years. In 1967 Florence and Ted became active members at College Church in Wheaton, where she taught God's Word in Women's Bible Study, made lifelong friends, and served in many capacities. She was a godly mother and grandma and enjoyed reading stories, attending games and plays, and encouraging each one in their varied pursuits. She restored the Schmid cottage in Wisconsin to accommodate her many grandchildren and foster family ties. Through the years she took every opportunity to share her love for the Lord Jesus and her own story of his forgiveness and faithfulness.

Florence is survived by her children, Laurel (Bruce) Aulie of Wheaton, Illinois, Becky (James) Cook of Wheaton, Lisa (David) Helm of Chicago, Amy (Jon) Dennis of Chicago and Julie (David) Sohmer of Wheaton. She is survived by her 27 grandchildren Karis (Israel) Vazquez, Melinda Aulie, Alegra Aulie, Caleb Aulie, Emma (Nate) Vogel, Sarah Cook, Rachel Cook, Theophilus Cook, Noah (Julie) Helm, Joanna (Ben) Panner, Baxter Helm, Silas Helm, Mariah Helm, Micah (Claire) Latimer-Dennis, Julia Dennis, Liza (John) Gemmel, Anna Dennis, Joshua Dennis, Hannah Sohmer, Lydia (Caleb) Krumsieg, Sam Sohmer, Chloe Sohmer, Theophilus Sohmer, Calvin Sohmer, Phoebe Sohmer, Josiah Sohmer, Selah Sohmer and 9 great-grandchildren: Nathan Vazquez, Olive Vazquez, Iria Vazquez, Anniah Vazquez, Noa Vazquez, Luke Helm, Piper Panner, Jeremiah Panner, and Levi Panner. She was preceded in death by her husband Ted, her brother, David Johnson, and her parents.

A memorial service will be held Monday, November 18, 2019 at 7:00 p.m. at College Church, 332 E. Seminary Avenue in Wheaton. Family and friends can greet the family from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. prior to the service and at a reception immediately following the service. Memorials may be directed to College Church, 332 E. Seminary Ave., Wheaton, Illinois 60187.

Notes for Charles Fredeick Braun:

Charles F. Braun, age 79, passed away at his home, after a short bout with pancreatic cancer on April 19, 2013, with his family members by his side. He was born on August 14, 1933 to the late Carl and Hilda (Fiegel) Braun in Ann Arbor Township and remained an Ann Arbor Township resident his entire life. After his father died in 1944, Charles, at the age of 10, was thrust into the role of becoming a man and farming the family homestead. Charles attended the Braun one-room school and graduated from Ann Arbor High School in 1952. He went on to college at Michigan State University and graduated in the school's Agricultural Short Course. Charles returned to the farm with new and better ideas. He was a deep thinker! He retained a lot of knowledge and his head was full of ideas. Many of these ideas were expounded upon, experimented with, and finally implemented into his farming operation or business ventures. One of these experiments was planting and harvesting cucumbers with the help of migrant labor. He, also, was the first in the area to plant huge fields of pumpkins. Charles was the master-mind; the labor and implantation jobs fell mostly to his three step-sons or his employees in later years. He employed men and women from the surrounding areas with many of them hired from his own neighborhood community.

Charles was a confirmed member of the Zion Lutheran Church. He was a member of the Michigan Christmas Tree Association and was a prominent retailer of Christmas trees for Braun's Tree Farm the last several years at his farm in Ann Arbor Township. He was also a member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and a former member of the local Webster Providers Farm Bureau Group. Charles was a noted grower of Michigan Certified Seed throughout the state. Charlie served Ann Arbor Township Fire Department as a volunteer fireman for many years beginning in the early 1950's. He, then, became assistant chief and his dedication to the Fire Department led him later to become Fire Chief for six years in the 1980's. C. F., as he was known by some, formerly owned and operated the 49er Truck Stop located at the near-by corner of North Territorial and Whitmore Lake Roads. He, also, built the C.F. Braun Company farm elevator from the ground up. This was one of the largest grain elevator operations in the county at that time. He had a dealership for the German-made Deutz tractors and sold other farm implements as well. He served local area farmers for years with seed, fertilizer, chemicals, supplies, and purchased their harvested grain. A devastating fire, touched off by a propane gas explosion, consumed and demolished his business in April 1978, but Charles, along with his wife, Catherine, faced the challenge of rebuilding his business and went on to assist the farming community until he sold the business in 1985, after serving the farm community for over thirty years. Charlie was well-known throughout the state for his farming expertise. In April 1963, he was featured on the cover of the Successful Farming magazine with his 2-row corn planter attached to his plow. He implemented this new "plow-plant" system. When he finished plowing the field, he had completed the planting! He was never afraid to try anything new, before unheard of, in farming. He did exactly what he wanted to do in his lifetime, which was farming, and also, helped other farmers attain their goal in farming. At the height of his agri-business days, he had many semi drivers on the road delivering anhydrous ammonia to various areas throughout the state, as well as semis hauling grain to the Maumee, Ohio River elevator where the farm grain was loaded onto boats and shipped around the world.

Charles is survived by his loving wife, Catherine (Fishbeck) Judkins Braun; two daughters, Mary Catherine (James) McCreedy and Pamela Anne Braun; one step-daughter, Linda Judkins (Nick Contompasis); three step-sons, Kenneth Judkins, Richard (Sheri) Judkins, and Bruce Judkins; two grandchildren, Abigail Marie and Justin James McCreedy; six step-grandchildren, Tyler Hartman Knutson, Spencer Truman Knutson, Ashley Suzanne Judkins, Alexandria Renee Judkins, twins, Emily Catherine and Nicole Elizabeth Judkins; one step-great-granddaughter, Bailey Stubbe; his brother, David C. Braun of Grand Rapids, Michigan; cousins, Frieda (Kent) McCullough, John Braun, Mary Pfau and Barbara (Luther) Schaible. Charlie also leaves behind his cherished dog, "Sadie" and cat "Tip" who will greatly miss his daily attention. The family wishes to thank Arbor Hospice of Ann Arbor for their help and excellent care at this difficult time.

The family will receive friends on Wednesday, April 24, 2013 from 2-8 PM at the Nie Family Funeral Home, Liberty Road Chapel, 3767 W. Liberty Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Funeral Services will be held on Thursday, April 25, 2013 at 11:30 AM with an hour of visitation prior to the service at the funeral home with Pastor David Bracklein officiating. Burial will follow at Washtenong Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions in honor of Charles may be made to Arbor Hospice of Ann Arbor or the Huron Valley Humane Society.

Notes for Catherine Ann Fishbeck:

Catherine Ann (Fishbeck) Judkins Braun, aged 89, of Ann Arbor Township passed away peacefully Friday, March 8, 2024. Catherine was born to Murray & Harriet Fishbeck on October 12, 1934. Catherine was raised on the family dairy farm that also contained Murray Lake Club on Plymouth Road in Superior Township. Catherine attended grade school at Frains Lake, which was a one room country schoolhouse. She graduated from Ypsilanti High School in 1952 then went on to attend Cleary College and graduated with an Associates Degree in Business Administration in 1954. Growing up, Catherine and her younger brother swam in the family lake and helped raise the farm animals and participated in the many duties of running the family farm alongside their Dad. She was involved in 4H and enjoyed sewing, cooking and showing the farm animals.

She attended Dixboro Methodist Church and later was a member of Zion Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor. Catherine traveled with her mother Harriet to Europe, Japan, Africa, Australia and New Zealand.

Catherine married David Judkins in 1955. She and David had 5 children together: Linda, Keith, Kenny, Rick, and Bruce. Cathy and David divorced in 1961. Catherine married Charles F. Braun in 1964. She and her 4 kids moved into Charlie's family home on Whitmore Lake Road in Ann Arbor, MI. For the next 20 years she and Charlie owned and successfully operated C.F. Braun Company. They grew wheat, corn, soybeans, cucumbers, pumpkins and sunflowers on the farm. They also sold fertilizer and other farming chemicals as well as farm equipment including Charlie's beloved Deutz Tractors.

Catherine was instrumental in the success of the business working side-by-side with Charlie. During this time Mary and Pamela were born. They sold the home and business on Whitmore Lake Road in 1987 and built their dream home approximately 1 mile away on Warren Road. She and Charlie lived there for the next 26 years until Charlie passed away in 2013. During that time, she and Charlie, with the help of their children and grandchildren, started and operated Braun's Tree Farm, selling Christmas trees. Catherine enjoyed spending time with her family, she especially enjoyed shopping with her daughters and watching her sons farm. She derived great pleasure in the giving of gifts to her friends and family. Her greatest joy was in spending time with her 8 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren. Catherine was elected as the Ann Arbor Township Clerk and served for 12 years. During this time she formed some life long friendships. Catherine was active in the Webster Providers Farm Bureau Group for many years as well.

Catherine is survived by her children, Linda Judkins (Nick Contompasis), Kenneth Judkins, Rick (Sheri) Judkins, Bruce Judkins, Mary (Jim) McCreedy, and Pamela Braun; 8 Grandchildren: Ashley (Dominick) Merollis, Tyler (Maile) Knutson, Alexandria (Matt) Lucas, Spencer Knutson (Fiancée Olivia Sharp), Abigail McCreedy, (Fiancée Nick Ansin), twins Nicole and Emily Judkins and Justin McCreedy; 5 Great-Grandchildren: Bailey Stubbe, Kaleb Knutson, Millie Merollis, Emma Merollis and Aurora Knutson

Braun in 2013; parents, Murray and Harriet Fishbeck, Carl and Hilda (Fiegel) Braun; and brother-in-law, David Braun; and infant son, Keith Judkins.

Catherine was laid to rest at Washtenong Memorial Cemetery with her cherished family in attendance. A celebration of life will take place at a later date, yet to be determined. He married Helyn Rudolph on June 2, 1956 at St. John's Lutheran Church, Stony Ridge and they celebrated 67 years of marriage. Raised in Perrysburg Township, Chuck graduated from Troy Luckey High School, received a Bachelor's Degree from Bowling Green State University where he was a member of the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity, completed graduate work at Wayne State University and received his Juris Doctorate from The Ohio State University.

As a law student at Ohio State University, Chuck was elected to the Ohio House of Representatives. From 1956 to 1978 he would represent parts of northwestern Ohio in the House. For much of his tenure in the House, Chuck would serve as the ranking Republican holding the title of Speaker of the House or Minority Leader. He would also serve on the Governing Board of the Executive Committee of the Council of State Governments, an appointment by Presidents Nixon and Ford. Chuck also maintained a law firm in Bowling Green for over 30 years. Following his retirement from the House, he was elected to two terms as a judge in the Wood County Court of Common Pleas and after retirement from the court would continue to serve Northwest Ohio as a visiting judge into his 80's.

His career in public service led to many awards of distinction for Kurfess including: Bowling Green State University Outstanding Alumnus, Bowling Green State University Centennial Alumni Award; Ohio State University Alumni Archie M. Griffin Professional Achievement Award; Thomas J. Moyer Award for Judicial Excellence; and the Eastwood Alumni Hall of Fame. Chuck also served on various committees and task forces for the Ohio Judicial Conference, the Ohio Supreme Court, and the Ohio Constitutional Modernization Commission. Kurfess was a founding member of the National Council of State Legislatures and vice president and president of the organization.

Chuck served in the U.S. Army Counterintelligence Corp in the Far East during the Korean War. A lifetime member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Stony Ridge, Chuck served the congregation in many leadership roles.

The greatest roles in the life of Chuck Kurfess were those he held in his family...a true patriarch as husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, and sibling. While she enjoyed being by his side, Helyn was in her element on the family's mini farm raising a menagerie of animals from sheep to peacocks and maintaining the large garden which yields she would then freeze and can. Many special memories were made at the Kurfess lake home in Lakeside, Ohio. Over the past 40 years five generations of the family enjoyed the peaceful life of Lakeside. Helyn was very involved in her children's school activities and this involvement continued though the generations as she enjoyed supporting her grandchildren and great grandchildren in school, sports and church activities. Her greatest service was as a lifetime member of St. John's Lutheran Church. As a member of the church family, she served on many committees and assisted with activities whenever needed. Her fellowship reached those of every age group and need of the church.

Marriage Notes for William Kurfess and Genevieve Bowen:

An evening wedding in Trinity Evangelical United Brethren Church Saturday Nov. 27, 1954 at 7:30 made Genevieve Bowen, of the E. Poe Road, Bowling Green, the bride of William J. Kurfess, of Tracy Road, Perrysburg. The couple repeated their vows to the Rev. John C. Searle Sr., who read the double ring ceremony. Palms, candelabra filled with burning cathedral tapers, and four floor vases of white chrysanthemums, decked the altar.

The wedding music was played by Ruby Bower, organist. Maxwell Challen was the soloist. The selections were "Saviour Like A Shepherd Lead Us" by Bradbury; "Liebestraum" by Liszt; "O Promise Me" by Reginald DeKoven; "Why Do I Love You?" by Jerome Kern; "On e Alone" by Sigmund Romberg; "Because" by Guy d'Hardelot; "Indian Love Call", by Rudolf Friml and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride's father, Frank Bowen, came down the aisle with his daughter and gave her to the bridegroom. Her gown of tulle and rose point lace was made with a fitted bodice, modified Elizabethan collar embellished with iridescent sequins and tiny pearls, and traditional long bridal sleeves. The full gathered skirt had a center panel of sunburst pleated tulle set off by a cross band of gallon lace. A beaded crown held her double tier silk illusion veil which was appliqued with sprays of rose point lace. Her pearl necklace and ear-rings were a gift from the groom. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and a white orchid.

Mrs. Eloise Carpenter, sister of the bride, from Defiance, was matron of honor in a gold gown of crystallette and tulonet. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of yellow spider fuji chrysanthemums. The bride's cousin, Betty Jo Dowling, of Jackson, Michigan, and Betty Strock, of Bowling Green, were bridesmaids. The junior bridesmaid was Judy Bowen, niece of the bride, of Bowling Green. The three maids all wore turquoise gowns of crystallette and tulonette with tiaras and carried bouquets like the matron's. Melody Patrice Carpenter, of Defiance, and Cynthia Bowen, of Bowling Green, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. The ring bearer was Richard Allen Carpenter, of Defiance, nephew of the bride. John Metzger, of Maumee, was best man for his cousin. Ushers were John Deuble, of Luckey; Jerry Hoffman and Charles Kurfess, both of Perrysburg and all cousins of the groom, and Benny Langen, of Toledo. The bride's mother wore a rose beige lace dress with crepe inset, and winter white and black accessories. The groom's mother wore a mauve dress with black and mauve accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

The reception was in the church parlors. The three -tier cake was topped with wedding bells. Crystal candle holders on either side held burning tapers. A floral centerpiece was used on the punch table. Floor vases of chrysanthemums stood on either side of the gift table. The couple left immediately after the reception for an extended trip through Mexico. The bride went away in a pink knit suit with pink and black accessories and a winter white full-length coat to which the orchid from her bridal bouquet was pinned. They will be at home on Tracy Rd., Perrysburg.

Notes for LaDonna Mae Kurfis:

LaDonna Mae (nee Kurfis) Lucas, 82, of Luckey, Ohio, passed away on Saturday, August 7, 2021. She was born May 18, 1939 in Toledo, Ohio to the late Edward and Lucille Kurfis. Preceded in death by her parents, sister, Sondra Bockbrader (nee Kurfis) and great-niece, Valerie Bockbrader. LaDonna is survived by her husband, Thomas Lucas, sons, Robert (Denise) Lucas and Troy (Jennifer) Lucas; and grandchildren, Mason, Max, Makenna, Evan, Carter, and Avery; her brother, Thomas (Diane) Kurfis and extended family.

Thomas and LaDonna were married in 1958. They quickly settled in Luckey, Ohio where they raised their boys. LaDonna worked as a secretary at various local schools, retiring from Wood Lane – Wood County Board of Developmental Disabilities. You didn't have to go far to find a relative of LaDonna or Thomas; they loved being so close to their family and added many close camping friends along the way. They delighted in being active and adoring parents and later, grandparents. The early years of raising kids involved various gatherings with extended family and friends, and many different sporting events of Robert and Troy. You could always find LaDonna on a bleacher cheering on one of her boys. The Lucas home was always active with family and friends who would gather for game nights, sleepovers, and of course, food! LaDonna and Thomas always made sure everyone was well fed. Vacations were typically at some camping spot filled with laughter around picnic tables and campfires in Mohican State Park, Pokagon State Park, and Sauder Village. LaDonna enjoyed reading, cross-stitch, and puzzles. She also loved to play cards, bingo, and color, especially if one of her grandkids were sitting nearby. LaDonna will be remembered for her devotion to raising her two sons, and the love and care given to her six grandchildren.

Friends and family will be received Tuesday, August 17, 2021 from 9:30-10:30 a.m. at Witzler-Shank-Walker Funeral Home, 222 E. South Boundary Street, Perrysburg (419-874-3133) where a funeral service will be held at 10:30 a.m. Burial will follow in Troy Township Cemetery. It was never a question how proud LaDonna was of her children and grandchildren, so in lieu of flowers, contributions are suggested to Dysautonomia International: LaDonna's granddaughter, Makenna, was diagnosed with POTS, a form of Dysautonomia, last March, and donations to POTS research are much appreciated.

Notes for Thomas Robert Lucas:

Thomas Robert Lucas, a beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, passed away peacefully under hospice care on Saturday, November 16, 2024. Tom was a devoted husband to the late LaDonna Lucas, with whom he shared a beautiful life centered on family, love, and laughter. Together, they raised their two sons, Robert (Denise) and Troy (Jennifer) with a spirit of adventure and encouragement, embracing camping trips, outdoor activities, and countless hours spent on the sidelines cheering for their boys at various sporting events. Tom and Donna created a home always filled with family-cooked meals, endless friends and family gatherings, old western movies on the television, plans for the next camping getaway, and a never-ending stream of family dogs. Tom's working life was spent as a telephone service technician, which provided many perks while raising his two sons—things like a never-ending supply of old telephone poles for campfires and the ability to hook up telephones in every room of the house, even the bathroom.

Tom most enjoyed working alongside his brothers, the late Jerry (Gerry), Bill (Carrol), and Larry (Alice) and relished the many coffee breaks when they could gather and shoot the breeze. Above all, Tom's greatest joy came from being "Pa Tom" to his six adored grandchildren: Mason, Max, Evan, Carter, Makenna, and Avery. He took pride in their accomplishments and cherished every moment spent cheering them on—whether swimming, playing soccer, flipping across the gym floor, or playing baseball and softball. He enjoyed going camping with the grandkids, which always involved a large breakfast, games at the picnic table, or shouting BINGO. He never took his eyes off the grandkids when they were around, ready to get them laughing or talking with him.

Tom's life was a testament to the power of family, resilience, and love. Kindness shone in his eyes, and he never wavered in his support for his kids and grandkids. His steadfast presence in our family will be deeply missed but forever remembered. A celebration of Tom's life will be held on Tuesday, November 26, at 11:00 a.m. Visitation will begin at 10:00 a.m. for family and friends to gather. The service and visitation will be held at Witzler-Shank Funeral Home, 222 E South Boundary St., Perrysburg, Ohio 43551.

He married Catherine Lee VonAhrens 19 Dec 1972 in Walbridge, Ohio. She was born 12 May 1954 in Toledo, Lucas Co, Ohio.

Notes for Neil Thomas Goeckerman:

Neil Thomas Goeckerman (68) passed away Sunday, October 2, 2022 at his home in Taylor, Michigan. He was born November 28, 1953 in Toledo Ohio to parents Donald and Thelma Goeckerman. Neil is preceded in death by his parents, brother John, Donald Jr., and nephew Fritz Jr. He is survived by his sister Jennie, brothers Fritz and Gary, and the wonderful nieces and nephews who he shared good times – Dawn, Troy, Tim, Tammy, Deena, Arick, Andrew.

Neil brought lives into this world with his Lake High School sweetheart Catherine Lee VonAhrens; son Casey Jones (aka Jones Bones), daughter Heidi Erin (aka Fritus Delightus), and daughter Gretchen Elise (aka Stretchen Gretchen). Heidi's children Kelsey, Maggie, Ben, Abby, and Austin and Gretchen's son David are the legacy Neil left with us to make this world a better place.

Neil started out his professional life working at a shoe store, then the railroad (hence son named Casey Jones), and after several educational residencies became a yacht broker, and then the Vice President of a company providing the vehicles that carry us everywhere we go. He was a born marketer second to none. Summing up Neil's life is impossible. He could deliver the best joke ever; you didn't know he was telling one until the punchline arrived. He was an avid sailor traveling all over the Western hemisphere mastering the power of wind. Sailing with his kids was the best. He also owned his own airplane and walked and/or swam away from at least one or two crashes. He loved to fish and be out on the boat with his brothers Fritz and Tom (Trombly) for the Lake Erie perch and walleye and those halibut and salmon in Alaska where Casey was stationed. He was an avid skier and loved the outdoors so much he took up the game of golf and could crush a 3-iron farther than golfers can hit the driver. He loved some Cedar Point Rollercoasters as well – just ask his kids.

His children say the funniest memories are when he lived in Sterling Heights Michigan Highway 75 Exit 69 Big Beaver Road (always reminded them of it), always wore his boxer shorts higher than they should be worn, and wore sock garters with golf shirts (remnant of Casey's Air Force career).

One thing Neil left with us was this advice – no matter what it costs today if you remember an adventure when you are 70 years old it is a small price to pay. Do it. We love and miss you dad, brother, grandfather, and uncle. Until we meet again. A celebration of Neil's life is in progress. Notification will be posted on this site. Howe-Peterson Funeral Home & Cremation Services – Taylor.

He married (1) Ruth Ann Miller 08 Jul 1961 in Toledo, Lucas Co, Ohio. She was born 29 May 1942. He married (2) Zarelda ? 2010.

Notes for Richard Edson (Dick) Hazel:

Richard Edson "Dick" Hazel, age 84, of Calhoun, Georgia, peacefully passed away July 16, 2023, after complications from a recent surgery. He was born on April 29, 1939, to Edson and Lavina Hazel, Stony Ridge, Ohio, who both preceded him in death. He graduated in 1957 from Troy-Luckey High School and served in the U.S. Army. Dick was a Boy Scouts of America Eagle Scout, which included travelling to New Mexico and canoeing in Canada. Dick was an avid car and motorsport enthusiast. After high school he enjoyed drag racing his 1958 Pontiac in the area and at the Detroit Dragway, winning many trophies.

Dick's first automotive job was at Ed Schmidt Pontiac (then Front Pontiac), Perrysburg, as a mechanic, working with his father, Edson "Ed" Hazel, who was the service manager. In 1972, upon his father's retirement, Dick proudly became service manager until 1982. Dick treasured his time working with his father in the automotive industry he loved. Dick's abilities extended beyond automotive to include electrical, plumbing, construction and the ability to fix or install just about anything. He loved a challenge. He was proud of having built his home in Stony Ridge, doing most of the work himself. Dick often said, "If you don't have time to do it right, then where will you find time to do it over."

Dick relocated his family to Canyon Lake, Texas, in 1982, working as a General Motors factory rep for dealerships in the area. Dick then opened an automotive and hardware business in Canyon Lake. After many years, Dick returned to the area and began a new career path as a project manager at his sister, Nancy, and husband, Kim Klewer's, security and fire system company, now Asset Protection Corporation, Inc., Toledo. Dick was the commercial project manager for significant local and national security projects. Dick relocated to the Atlanta, Georgia, area and took a position as a security engineer at Eagle Pitcher, Inc., and then a global security engineer at Novelis, Inc. Dick also owned Five Point Security, LLC, which installed security, access control and video systems. He always looked forward to seeing the latest security technology at the annual International Security Expo in Las Vegas.

Dick had a passion for work, with no plans to retire, still installing security systems almost until his last day. He loved driving cross country, visiting family and friends. He liked dining at his favorite Mexican restaurants, always enjoying a good margarita. After moving to Georgia, Dick had great times on Lake Allatoona on his nephew's boat with his sister, family and friends. Growing up he enjoyed summer family vacations in Indian River, Michigan, staying in cottages along the river. Years later, Dick cherished the annual family camping trips to Burt Lake State Park, Indian River, and watching the yearly "Top O' Michigan" outboard boat races. This year marked the 75th year and in memory of Dick; one racer had Dick's name and lifespan on the bow of his boat.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife, Zarelda, of 13 years; a beloved father of sons, Richard "Rick" Hazel Jr. and Randall "Randy" Hazel (Canyon Lake, Texas) and daughter, Rachel Hazel (New Braunfels, Texas); grandchildren, Aubrey Hazel, Kristin (Andrew) Clasen, Meghan Hazel, Duston (Dana) Hazel; great-grandchild, Teagan Hazel; and his "little sis," Nancy (Kim) Klewer (Perrysburg); nephews, Matthew (Jenn) Gallagher (Woodstock, Georgia), and Troy (Christine) Wallace (Holland); niece, Michele (Shayne) Kitts (Loveland, Ohio); five greatnieces and nephews, and one great-great-niece. He also is survived by his former wife, Ruth Hazel (Canyon Lake).

Graveside services and interment will be at Troy Township Cemetery, Luckey, Saturday, October 21, at 2 p.m. A Celebration of Life will follow. Contact the Klewer family for details.

Marriage Notes for Nancy Hazel and John Haar:

White snow drift pomps were the altar flowers with candles and palms Friday evening April 11, 1969 for the wedding of Nancy Kay Hazel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Hazel, Route 2, Perrysburg, and John Charles Haar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Haar, Route 1, Perrysburg, in the United Methodist Church, Stony Ridge. The couple made their vows and exchanged rings before Rev. Lewis A. Wilson Jr. During a half hour of nuptial music played by Mrs. Wayne Hazel before the double ring ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albright, sang.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length A-line gown of silk organza and lace. The detachable Watteau train was chapel length. A cluster of organza and lace petals held her veil. She carried a cascade of gardenias and white orchids.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Bobbie Ann Smith, Rossford. The bridesmaids were Miss Patti Goodman, rural Walbridge; Miss Karen Greifendorf, rural Woodville, and Mrs. Ruth Hazel, Stony Ridge. Their identical empire gowns were floor length aqua chiffon made with scoop necklines and long puff sleeves. Their headpieces and shoes were tinted to match their dresses. They wore heart-shaped necklaces, which were gifts of the bride, and carried yellow daisies. The ring bearer was Ricky Hazel, nephew of the bride.

Thomas Haar, rural Walbridge, brother of the groom, was best man. James Haar, Lorrance, California, another brother; William Sandwisch and Leroy Ameling, rural Perrysburg, cousins of the groom, seated the guests. Their boutonnieres were white carnations. Mrs. Hazel wore a light turquoise dress. Mrs. Haar chose a melon-color. Both had matching accessories and orchid corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the DC Ranch, Perrysburg. A miniature bridal pair topped the 4-tier wedding cake. Mrs. Jean Haar and Mrs. Pat Anderson cut the cake. Miss Kimm Albright and Miss Susan Ballard, cousins of the bride, were in charge of the guest book. The bride wore a yellow linen dress with matching accessories when the couple left for a trip to the Smoky Mountains and then to New Orleans to visit Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haar. They will be at home in Rossford.

The bride, a 1966 graduate of Eastwood and Penta County Vocational School, is a secretary for the department of speech and radio station, WBGU, at Bowling Green State University. The groom, a 1962 graduate of Eastwood, who served in the Navy, is employed at Chrysler Corp. in Perrysburg. The groom's parents were hosts at a rehearsal dinner Thursday evening at the Ambassador Restaurant. Bridal showers were given for the bride by Mrs. Bobbie Ann Smith and Mrs. Pat Anderson.

Notes for William Carl Laubengayer:

William Carl "Bill" Laubengayer died Sunday, December 6th, 2020 at his Coralville home. Family Funeral Services will be held at 1 PM, Friday, December 18, 2020 at Lensing's Oak Hill Funeral Home, 210 Holiday Road, Coralville. Rev. Jill Cameron Michel will officiate. Friends may watch the service by way of Zoom. The Zoom link may be found on Bill's obituary page at www.lensingfuneral.com Friends are welcome to attend a visitation from 11 AM to 12 PM, prior to the service, and the graveside committal at Oak Hill Cemetery, Coralville, which will follow the family service. Social distancing and wearing of masks will be required for the health and safety of all attendees. Thank you. Memorials may be made to Iowa Valley Habitat for Humanity, Iowa City Hospice or First Christian Church.

Bill was born July 1, 1938 in Salina, Kansas, the eldest son of Ruth and Carl Laubengayer. He graduated from Salina High School and earned his E.E. degree from Kansas State in 1960. While an engineering student, Bill served an internship at Collins Radio in Cedar Rapids. He claimed he missed the class on how to fill out an employment application so remained at what became Rockwell Collins for 36 years, retiring in 1996. The experiences of the Collins years focused on HF communications needs in varied situations including shipboard, aircraft and mines, this taking him to many countries and U.S. sites on Collins contracts. He was a mentor, supervisor and educator to many young engineers over the years. At Rockwell he also claimed one patent to his name.

Bill married Patricia Andas in 1963 in Grinnell. They resided in Marion and had two sons, Karl and Kevin. They later divorced. Bill was a life-long motorcycle enthusiast who loved curvy roads and fast bikes. Bill and Eve Casserly met in the late 1970's while arguing over putting up fencing preparing for a BMW motorcycle rally at the Keith Dempster Rally Grounds in Coralville. They were married May 26, 1990 in a private back porch ceremony. In following years, their respective work lives were enriched by fun travel over most of the lower 48 on their BMW bikes when Bill wasn't traveling for Collins or volunteering in the community. In latest years overseas travel to over two dozen countries took the place of the motorcycling and providing for enriching experiences.

Bill's community service included the Coralville Police Department, Coralville Center for the Performing Arts, serving on Coralville Planning and Zoning Commission and – especially – Iowa Valley Habitat for Humanity where he helped build over 100 homes in this area consistently serving over 1000 hours each year for more than 20 years. His work included preliminary frame construction cutting in his basement shop, supervising Women's Build projects and general whatever-it -takes tasks on job sites. Bill's (AKA "The Grouch") Habitat work led to his being inducted into the Iowa Volunteer Hall of Fame at the Iowa State Capitol in 2017. A workshop containing his donated tools is named for him at the Iowa City HabLab.

Notes for Robert Edward Laubengayer:

Robert Edward Laubengayer passed away on Sunday, June 21, 2020, after taking a fall and a short stay in the hospital. Bob, as he was known by his family and friends, was born on February 9, 1941, in Great Bend, Kansas the second son of Carl & Ruth Laubengayer. He was raised in Salina, Kansas where as a youth he was active in Boy Scouts and his church youth group and choir. Bob was also an accomplished athlete and in addition to lettering in football he also took 4th place in the state wrestling tournament. Following high school, he attended Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma and eventually earned a Bachelor of Arts in History going on to become a high school social studies teacher. Before earning his B.A., Bob very proudly served for 3 years in the United States Marine Corps and was stationed in San Diego, California where he met the love of his life, Shiela Grace Rogers and the two were married in 1963. After teaching for 2 years in Oklahoma, Bob & Shiela decided to move back to San Diego where he attended law school at the University of San Diego and earned his J.D. and passed the bar exam.

Bob was a very enthusiastic fly fisherman and loved to talk about fly fishing nearly as much as he enjoyed standing in a stream trying to outsmart the trout. He passed this love of fishing and the outdoors on to his children Robert Craig Laubengayer (m. Deneen Urbank), Roger Carl Laubengayer (m. Rebecca Svaty), Richard Matthew Laubengayer (m. Khey Besino), and Amanda Grace Belt, as well as his grandchildren, Rebecca, Roger, Rory, Emma, Grace, Bobby, Dylan, Abigail, Samantha, and Nick and seven great-grandchildren. Bob also took great joy in singing throughout his life. He sang in several choirs and was a regular fixture at numerous Karaoke nights pouring his heart out in country and love songs usually dedicated to Shiela. Bob will always be remembered for his kindness and the love he showed his family. He was always quick with a joke and loved to tell stories with varying degrees of accuracy and veracity. The people who really knew him will miss the sound of his laughter.

In addition to his wife, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, Bob is also survived by his brothers, William Laubengayer (m. Eve Casserly) and Richard Laubengayer (m. Susan St. Clair). As per his wishes, Bob will be cremated and most appropriately have remains spread along one of his favorite fishing spots. A fitting end to a life well spent and a race fully run.

The La Grande Observer- Union County, Oregon - Friday, December 30, 2011

Mary Louise Russell, 88, of Joseph, died December 27 at Wallowa Memorial Hospital after a short illness. Mary was born August 11, 1923, to Ab and Mildred Daisley. She had a twin brother who died at birth. Mary was raised in Wallowa County. She married Verne Russell August 12, 1941, the day after her 18th birthday. Mary was a housewife, mother and grandmother. She worked for a time at the Wallowa County nursing home after her children were raised. He has been in the retail mortgage industry for over twenty years, beginning his career at Standard Federal Bank and LaSalle Bank in Troy.

"Jim is a true professional, loves the mortgage industry, and I am confident he will be a great leader for our successful mortgage team. Last year, our mortgage team experienced significant growth and enjoyed record-level performance, seeing increases in applications, closed loans and revenues. It is a shared vision that Jim will continue this upward climb," says Tim Marshall, president and CEO of Bank of Ann Arbor. He was born 15 Jun 1954.

Notes for Nancy Susan Agler:

Nancy Susan Milam, of Dexter, age 66, passed away unexpectedly on June 15, 2018 at home. She was born on May 10, 1952 in Ann Arbor, Michigan the daughter of William Agler and Marion (Sumner) Agler. She was preceded in death by her parents, and brother Thomas Agler. Nancy married William P. Milam on August 11, 1984 and is survived by him, their daughter Michelle Milam, and grandson Evan.

Nancy was passionate about many things, including family, gardening, real estate, travel, ancestry, new friends and animals. An avid rider, both she and Michelle took horseback riding lessons together for many years, and in 1986, the Milam's moved from Ann Arbor to Dexter to raise horses. Many adventures were had with 4H shows, breeding their Morgan horses and later owning a team of Percherons that both she and Bill enjoyed driving, along with a myriad of dogs and cats throughout the years. The family took a fantastic opportunity to move to England in 1990 for a year and traveled extensively while there. Over the past 28 years, Nancy was a Realtor, who was passionate about finding the perfect property for her clients. She took great pride in being honest, forthright and informed about the Dexter/Ann Arbor real estate market and would always have advice for anyone looking to buy or sell a home. Despite her health issues over the years, Nancy remained spirited and upbeat, always planning what was next. Her next RV trip, the next bucket list location, the next popular restaurant, the next trip to see her grandson. Her generous and friendly nature provided her with amazing friends and endless memories.

Visitation with the family will be held at Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home in Chelsea, Michigan on Saturday, June 23rd at 1:00 pm, followed with a memorial service starting at 2:00. Expressions of sympathy may be made in Nancy's name to the American Heart Association.

He married Catherine ?.

Notes for Gary Dean Hutzel:

Gary Dean Hutzel (November 4, 1955 – March 1, 2016) was an American visual effects supervisor from Ann Arbor, Michigan who worked on the television series Star Trek: The Next Generation, Star Trek: Deep Space Nine, and Battlestar Galactica, among others. He was nominated more than 20 times for Emmy Awards, winning on four occasions.

Gary Hutzel was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He studied mechanical engineering at the University of Michigan for a period, but decided that he wanted to pursue a career in films and moved to California, where he studied photography at the Brooks Institute. His first job in the industry was as a van driver for the commercial production house FilmFair. While there, he decided that he wanted to pursue visual effects.

His first visual effects job was as second assistant cameraman on the 1985 film Teen Wolf. He then began to freelance for CBS, working on The Twilight Zone. In 1986, he was recruited to work on the new Star Trek television series, Star Trek: The Next Generation as a visual effects coordinator. He continued to work on the show for the following five seasons, before moving to work on the spin-off series Star Trek: Deep Space Nine where he was the visual effects supervisor for all seven seasons. During his work on the Star Trek franchise, he worked on a great number of visual effects shots including the breakapart model of the Borg Cube seen in the two-part episode "The Best of Both Worlds", the design of the USS Defiant and the blending of old and new footage required for "Trials and Tribbles-ations". He also produced renderings for several non-canon Star Trek novels, although he was known as being reluctant to use computer generated imagery and preferred to work with physical models where possible. Hutzel co-wrote The Magic of Tribbles: The Making of Star Trek Deep Space Nine – "Trials and Tribbles-ations" alongside Terry J. Erdmann and Paula M. Block. Following the end of Deep Space Nine, Hutzel worked on the film Red Planet and the Spy Kids franchise. He was hired by writer Ronald D. Moore to work on the rebooted Battlestar Galactica television series. Hutzel had worked with Moore on Deep Space Nine. In addition, Hutzel went on to work on the prequel to Battlestar Galactica, Caprica. He then worked as visual effects supervisor for the television series Defiance.

While working on the special effects for the Freeform television series Beyond on March 1, 2016, in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, he had a heart attack and died. Freeform released a statement saying "We are deeply saddened by the loss of our friend and colleague, Gary Hutzel. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and our 'Beyond' family". He had a wife, a daughter and two sons.

Gary Dean Hutzel (November 4, 1955 - March 1, 2016) Born in Ann Arbor, Michigan to Dean and Janet Hutzel, Gary grew up surrounded by faith, family, and the values of "do unto others as you would want them to do to you." This became his credo, and he lived by the Golden Rule in both his personal and professional life. Time and time again, it is always mentioned how Gary paved a path for many by recognizing their talent, which in turn allowed them to have careers, family, and a sense of accomplishment they believe they would not have had without knowing Gary. Accolades fill his shelves-four Emmys, and six Visual Effects Society awards-but he was not boastful. Most people upon meeting him would not know of his greatness. In Gary's mind, the work was paramount, not him. In his personal and professional life, Gary was an inspiration to all. Everyone he met benefited from his kind heart, keen eye, and the ability to allow you to be your best without any fear of rejection or reprisal. He was the epitome of a boss who led without threat or anger. Gentle and calm, he had the ability to diffuse tense situations and sooth egos without insult. People did not recognize those times when Gary got them to change their mind or attitude; they always thought they figured it out for themselves. He was a guiding light to the artists who worked with him. His own artistic talent showed through his ability to create alien worlds and landscapes that were unparalleled in television. Motion picture quality work was his standard, not the exception. Always a perfectionist, he set the bar very high on all projects, even the smallest. Everyone will miss his amazing sense of humor and his ability to turn any terrible situation into a beautiful one.

Survived by his wife Catherine and their three children (William, Andrew, and Frances) Gary's legacy will live on through them. Gary truly made the world a better place and he will be dearly missed. Memorial services are planned for March 19, at 2:15 p.m. at Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Newhall, California. A reception will follow.

Notes for Roger Carl Laubengayer:

Oct. 13, 1988, Los Angeles, California - Roger Laubengayer, a guard on the Occidental College football team, relishes the afternoons he can don his tie-dye shirt, make the 35-minute drive to Venice Beach and just hang out. To Laubengayer, Venice is a constant reminder that he is worlds away from the impoverished rural surroundings of Ellsworth, in central Kansas, where he was raised. Last year, Laubengayer transferred from Coffeyville Junior College, where his penchant for originality was often a point of controversy. "I guess I was basically a redneck that's all there was," Laubengayer said. "So once in a while, if I wore a pink shirt, that was something everyone would talk about." Laubengayer, who says he never heard anyone speak a language other than English until he got to Coffeyville, felt stifled in Kansas. His parents had moved to Sacramento and he had wanderlust. "Most of the kids I knew are probably married and working on the farm or the salt mine or the brick plant," he said. "I haven't kept in touch with most of my friends. I call one or two of them at Christmas."

At Occidental, Laubengayer, who is an academic senior with a fifth season of football eligibility, has found an alternative way to make his presence known he dominates on the field. The first time Tiger Coach Dale Widolff saw the Coffeyville game films, Laubengayer was hardly inconspicuous. "We realized that he was the type of guy that could make a big impact," said Widolff, who was impressed with Laubengayer's aggressive style. Widolff's appraisal was accurate. Last year, Laubengayer was second-team All-Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and led the team in "ticket takers" hits on unsuspecting opponents who have stopped before the whistle has been blown. At 6 feet, 235 pounds, Laubengayer was considered by many Division I recruiters as too small to play guard. He had, however, caught the eye of scouts from Kansas, Kansas State and Clemson. But he long dreamed of living near the ocean and he wanted a crack at playing at a Division I school on the West Coast.

Instead, in the first Coffeyville intrasquad scrimmage of the 1986 season, it was Laubengayer's knee that cracked. A teammate landed on him in a pile and crushed his leg. Laubengayer underwent surgery to repair torn ligaments, sat out his sophomore year and completed a rigorous rehabilitation program. After a year, his knee had healed sufficiently and Laubengayer was ready to resume his quest for a scholarship. But word of his injury spread fast. He was labeled damaged goods and the intermittent recruiting letters dwindled accordingly. The reality of his situation soon sunk in and Laubengayer sought the advice of his coach, Dick Foster. "Every kid has visions of grandeur coming into our program," said Foster, who has a record of 122-22-2 in 14 seasons at Coffeyville. "Most kids are so level-conscious that they don't realize that wherever you go, if you're successful academically and athletically, you'll be happy."

Foster saw a promising future for Laubengayer, who maintained a 3.96 grade-point average at Coffeyville. "He's a great student and a great kid," Foster said. "To me, he's the epitome of a college football player." Laubengayer took Foster's advice to heart, and when he got a letter from Occidental, which has won or shared 4 of the past 5 SCIAC titles, his interest was piqued. "I picked up the letter and it was from Los Angeles, so naturally I called back," Laubengayer said. When you've spent your whole life looking at amber waves of grain, even the freeways of Southern California can be appealing. But when the game starts, Laubengayer is just a big, ol' tough Midwesterner, and few things fire his competitive spirit more than challenges on the football field. Chief among the challenges he's faced at Occidental has been the annual game with Claremont, when he lines up against all-conference linebacker Rory Wilson, dubbed "The Grinch" by his Claremont teammates. "He's the only linebacker that I really thought was any good last year," Laubengayer said. "I was pretty psyched up to play against him this year. And he didn't play bad against us, it's just that he was on a ship that was dying, going down. So you could tell that he was frustrated. "And they played him at defensive line, so I don't think he was at his position." Occidental drubbed Claremont, 29-0.

Offensive line coach Bill Dobson saw the last meeting between Laubengayer and Wilson as more of a mismatch, however. "Roger took that guy on a roller-skate ride about 10 yards downfield and deposited him on his back," Dobson recalled. But Laubengayer's strongest suit might be his ability to recognize and execute the nuances of the position. His appreciation for the finer points of the game, Dobson says, sets him apart from the other linemen in the conference. "It's such an exact science," said Dobson, adding a lineman can miss his block if his step is an inch off. "The angle of that step has to be precise because you've got a guy lined up right across from you, whereas when you get out in space like a running back) or wide receiver you can afford to be less precise."

Dobson says Laubengayer has established an outstanding work ethic and has a knack for focusing on the task at hand. One notable instance was when he was having a difficult time with his Spanish class last year. "I was thinking, 'Boy, I wonder how I could get down there and study Spanish this summer,'" he said. So Laubengayer organized a study trip to Guatemala for 7 Occidental students and a professor. But taking that initiative didn't surprise his coaches. "If he's going to get a Nobel Prize for bringing peace to Central America, or discover a cure for AIDS, or figure out a way to end the deficit he's just one of those people," Dobson said.

June 14, 1989 Folsom, California - With all the latest reports of recruiting violations and steroids, it is refreshing to meet an individual who has excelled in football without abusing either. Roger Laubengayer is the person I'm referring to, and he has taken football to a high level without the use of drugs or system abuse. Probably the most interesting thing about Laubengayer is the fact that his education is the No. 1 priority, but he still made first-team All-American in Division III National Collegiate Athletic Association football play last season in his junior year. Laubengayer has been attending Occidental College in Los Angeles since his sophomore year, where he plays strong guard for the offensive unit. Occidental finished 8-1 last season, ranked 17th in the nation in Division III. The college's policy of closely adhering to NCAA Division III restrictions for football and tough academic guidelines are what attracted Laubengayer. "They did not offer any scholarships. They could not recruit off campus and did not have full-dress spring practice. It was football played the traditional way. More important to me was the importance of establishing a future without football," said Laubengayer. "Occidental's winning record combined with the academic program is what I wanted. I realized there was more to life than just football."

Unfortunately for Laubengayer, the realization came after a painful injury to his right knee suffered in a scrimmage sidelined him at Coffeyville Community College for his entire sophomore season. "Looking back, I see that injury as a blessing in disguise. I used to eat, sleep, and dream football 25 hours a day, eight days a week.

While I was rehabilitating, I came to the conclusion that there is life besides football," said Laubengayer. When asked about steroids at the college he immediately condemns the use of but natural means to become bigger. (He stands 6-1 and weighs in at 250 without ever using any steroids.) I lead coach Dale Widolff has put together the winningest program in the school's history in his six years as leader. And the program is one of a select few of all football schools in the NCAA with an 85 percent won lost ratio. The team sticks to the traditional form of football with a 70 percent ground game known as the "power team." "We're a running team, we take it right to them. Our defense is like no other. We have three-down field linemen and use D-backs (defensive backs) to keep the opposition's offense off balance," said Laubengayer. He began his football career at Ellsworth High School in Kansas where he grew up. He was multi-talented in a variety of sports, but liked football the most. The decision to attend Coffeyville Community College after graduation was made on the strength of the fine football tradition. It has been ranked in the top 10 in the nation for the last 15 years and was the 1983 national champion community college team. Professional football greats Mike Rosier, Jeff Wright, Ron Springs and Mel Gray all hail from Coffeyville.

The future for Laubengayer seems bright upon receiving his BA in diplomacy and world affairs, but it does not include pro football. "I'm going to play my last year at Oxy and then quit. I'm getting married July 22 in Guatemala and would like to teach English with my wife in foreign countries. Our goal is to help people learn English while we travel and see the world. Third World countries are not as primitive as people think; the large urban cities where we plan to live are just like Sacramento and other large cities."

He married Patricia A. (Patsy) Collins, daughter of Dan Collins. She was born 18 Feb 1958.

Notes for Jeffrey L. Hall:

Jeff Hall - Dealer, and his wife Patsy took over this business 25 years ago. Prior to this adventure, Jeff was a John Deere Governmental Salesman in Arizona. Native to Bend, coming back to Lakeview for this adventure made sense, considering his love of cars. Jeff has continuously worked to keep the small-town atmosphere the center of his business, it is his favorite part of coming to work. Outside of being Hall Motor's main Tow guy, Jeff loves boating, skiing, snow-mobiling and family time. A fun fact about Jeff: He has seven grand-dogs!

Notes for Patricia A. (Patsy) Collins:

Patsy Hall - Dealer, moved home to Lakeview, Oregon with her husband 25 years ago to work with her father, Dan Collins and eventually take over the Ford Dealership. From her first roots at Daniel Collins Ford, the business has grown and the GMC line was open in 2008. Prior to running this business, Patsy worked in accounting. However, her automobile industry roots run deep. This industry is at the root of her being and fulfills her passion day in and out. A huge part of that fulfillment comes from knowing customers that come in daily. Being able to work in a relationship-based environment with customers and employees is the center of Hall Motor's operations. Outside of building a successful business and desirable work environment, Patsy enjoys spending time with family, and weekends away boating. Fun fact about Patsy: She cannot drive a stick shift – despite her years in the industry!

Children of Jeffrey Hall and Patricia Collins are:

- 1195 i. Daniel Lee<sup>16</sup> Hall, born 25 Apr 1988. He married Samantha Bogart.

Notes for Daniel Lee Hall:

With retirement in their future Patsy and Jeff Hall are considering the younger generation of the Hall family taking over Hall Motor Company, who all enthusiastically jumped on board. Kati Clemens and her spouse Kasey Clemens, along with her brother Dan Hall and Sam Bogart, who are engaged to get married; jumped on board when their mom and dad asked them if they would be interested in taking over the family business. While the process of taking over will take a couple of years, already the new generation is involved in the business and working in different departments learning how each area of the dealerships work.

Kati and Kasey spent time moving around from city-to-city as Kasey's job as a construction manager often lacked stability. "We are not city folk, and his (Kasey's) job was not stable," said Kati. "We wanted the small-town lifestyle where we can hunt, fish and ski.” Dan and Sam came from urban areas as well, with Sam living in Portland. While it has been an adjustment for Sam getting used to living in a small town, she finds it nice and less stressful, especially since there is no longer a long commute and sitting in traffic for long stretches of time.

Dan, who was working as a helicopter pilot, was looking at settling down and marrying Sam, but his job kept him away from home over 250 days a year -- one of the reasons they jumped on the opportunity when his parents called about the opportunity. He plans to bring his helicopter to the Lakeview area at some point in the future. Dan describes himself and his sister, Kati, as both having an entrepreneurial itch and getting into the automotive dealership business was one way of fulfilling it, more so than just continuing the family tradition.

They are already thinking about what they would do when they take full control of the two dealerships. One of those ideas is incorporating technology, especially the use of social media and expanding their outreach to reach more consumers across the region. They want to expand their message to people outside of Lakeview and promise to treat every customer and community they reach like family.

One area that might present a challenge is the electric car and truck market. With Ford requiring every dealership to have electric charging stations, everyone acknowledged that selling electric vehicles, even trucks, in Lake County will be difficult. They are excited about having the electric charging stations, as it will help drive tourists who have electric vehicles to visit Lakeview and Lake County, as right now there are no electric charging stations in the County. The closest charging stations currently are in Alturas, California, and Klamath Falls.

Currently Dan is focusing on parts and service, Sam on finance and sales, Kasey on inventory and Kati on accounting. All of them will learn how the other departments work as part of their cross-training, so if anyone is not at work they know what to do. Hall Motor Company is located at 1700 N. 4th St., Lakeview.

Daniel Hall - Service Department, joins the company from the aviation industry, where he was both a pilot, mechanic and service advisor. Daniel has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Small Business Management from University of Phoenix. A local to Lakeview, Oregon, Daniel enjoys the small town in which he lives and works. He loves the American Product that he works with, the small-town atmosphere and the great morals and ethics that Hall Motor runs their business on. In his free time, Daniel flies and works on aircraft, enjoys skiing at Warner Canyon, hiking and golfing. Fun fact about Daniel: he rebuilt his own helicopter to gain knowledge and experience!

Notes for Samantha Bogart:

Samantha Bogard - Sales, joins Hall Motor Company from the sales and finance industry. A background in technical sales management, and finance and banking, Samantha also has degrees in Applied Behavior Analysis, and Psychology from New England College, and is currently set to finish her Master of Business Admin in 2020. From small town, Salem Indiana, Sam loves Hall Motor because of the family-oriented atmosphere extended not only to employees, but customers alike. In her free time, Sam enjoys going to the gym, skiing at Warner Canyon and playing music on one of seven different instruments. Fun fact about Sam: She is trained operatic vocalist!

Notes for Baxter Helm:

Baxter Helm - grew up on the South Side of Chicago in the Hyde Park neighborhood. He is an avid Chicago sports fan, and his first job was with the Chicago White Sox as an usher. He completed his B.A. in Business / Economics at Wheaton College and worked in the asset management industry for over five years before pursuing a full-time program through the Charles Simeon Trust called "The Chicago Course on Preaching." The summer of 2021, he joined College Church as High School Pastor. Baxter loves to preach God's word to himself and to others.

Baxter is married to his best friend, Kelsie. They enjoy live music, exploring restaurants, lawn games, and laughing together with family, friends, and students. They have a deep love for those in their high school years and were transformed during their own high school years as part of the local church.

Baxter Helm - My wife, Kelsie, and I are especially excited to be candidating at College Church for the role of Senior High School Pastor. It's been a privilege to be a part of this process and we have been encouraged by the gospel work currently happening at College Church. Ironically, this church has played an important role in my life from the very beginning. I was the first boy baptized in the new sanctuary at College Church. My mom, Lisa (Schmid) Helm grew up in this church, daughter of Ted and Florence Schmid, and my dad, David Helm, served on staff for many years. They, along with my Uncle Jon and Aunt Amy (Schmid) Dennis, were sent out as College Church's first church plant, Holy Trinity Church in Chicago. Presently my sister Joanna is serving in the college ministry along with her husband Ben, who is the College Pastor. I'm incredibly grateful for the faithful legacy of this church and the impact it has had on me and my family for many years.

The Lord put the work of church ministry on my heart at a young age. I was active in my own high school youth group as a student leader while at Holy Trinity. I also served on the student leadership team in the College Ministry at College Church while at Wheaton College, majoring in business/economics and minoring in Bible and theology. Following my undergrad years, I joined a team that was newly developed at PT Asset Management. I worked there for five and a half years as a wholesaler, covering clients across the country, and later as the manager of the internal wholesaling team. I was fortunate to learn and grow in that professional environment for many years.

In 2015 I committed to Holy Trinity's church plant in the Pilsen neighborhood. Since then I have served as an Elder, a community group leader, on the worship team, and as a member of the preaching team. After a season of prayer, Kelsie and I believed the Lord was calling us into full-time ministry work. I left my job last year and have been in a full-time ministry training program called "The Chicago Course on Preaching" through The Charles Simeon Trust. The program equips pastors and ministry leaders in rightly handling and teaching God's word. During this time, I've grown in my conviction for biblical exposition and have been given the regular opportunity to preach. I hope to use these tools for years to come, that students might cultivate a deeper love for God's word. One way I enjoy personally connecting with the Lord is through creating music. I love playing guitar and piano. I find much joy in "singing a new song to the Lord" as Psalm 96:1 says. I hope to find avenues to continue to encourage the hearts of students through writing music alongside them for us to sing corporately.

Kelsie and I met at Holy Trinity Church in Pilsen when she moved to Chicago after graduating from Taylor University. She enrolled in a graduate program and received a degree in clinical counseling and art therapy. She currently works in community mental health in the city of Chicago. We were married in December of 2019, it was a great day! She is my best friend, the one I love to laugh with, and my teammate for life. We enjoy exploring new restaurants, museum exhibits, and any live music events. I am a big Chicago sports fan, namely the Bulls and a certain baseball team on the south-side of Chicago, which I have been advised not to talk about that much during my candidacy. I hope to get to know many of you and labor alongside you in the gospel work at College Church.

Child of Baxter Helm and Kelsie Collins is:

Notes for Ben Panner:

Ben Panner - moved to Chicago to take on the role of Director of Workshops for the Charles Simeon Trust. Prior to this, he served in pastoral ministry at College Church in Wheaton for 12 years. He has a heart for training others to rightly handle the Bible. He will assist Pastor Helm to provide this kind of practical training for the men of Christ Church Chicago. He and his wife Joanna love life in the city with their five children.

Ben Panner became the Director of Workshops in 2024. Before joining the Trust, he spent 12 years serving as a pastor at College Church in Wheaton, IL (2012-2024). After earning a Bachelor's in Business and Economics and a Master's in Christian Formation and Ministry from Wheaton College, he continued his theological training by completing an MDiv through Reformed Theological Seminary. In 2024, he was ordained in the Presbyterian Church in America. He has been a Workshop Instructor for the Simeon Trust since 2018. As the Director of Workshops, Ben will continue to instruct, train instructors, and work with a great team to coordinate workshops around the globe. Ben and his wife Joanna are enjoying the fullness of life with five young kids: Piper, Jeremiah, Levi, Simeon, and Seth.

Hall of Honor in 2024 Wheaton High School - Ben Panner was one of the most effective and productive players for the Wheaton men's basketball team, starting all 114 games he played for the Thunder over four years. He ranks fifteenth on the all-time Wheaton career scoring list with 1,499 points. He is seventh with 179 career three-pointers, and twelfth with 282 career assists. He was a D3hoops.com

All-American his senior year following the 2008-2009 season, helping lead Wheaton to the Division III Tournament for the third-consecutive year. In addition, he was selected as a second-team All-Midwest Region by the National Association of Basketball Coaches and a Third Team regional selection by D3Hoops.com.

Considering life-lessons he learned while at Wheaton, Ben writes, "My time at Wheaton developed a love for cultivating a team culture. Learning to serve one another, and pursue a unified goal was life-changing. I have leaned on my experience learned from Coach Harris and Coach Schauer about how to invest and develop a unified team culture." When asked to describe a particularly meaningful athletic memory, Ben writes, "In 2009, Wheaton basketball secured the CCIW regular season championship in front of a packed King Arena. This led to two more victories at home to win the conference tournament. We were able to play in the first three rounds of the NCAA tournament in front of a packed home crowd. We had a heart-breaking loss to the eventual champion, Washington University, in the Sweet 16, but that stretch of games, from the end of the regular season to the Sweet Sixteen, was one of the most memorable times in my athletic memory." Ben graduated with a degree in Business/Economics, then earned a master's degree in Christian Formation and Ministry from Wheaton Graduate School, then an MDiv from Reformed Theological Seminary. Earlier this year, he was ordained in the Presbyterian Church in America. He is currently Director of Workshops for the Charles Simeon Trust, an organization training Biblical expositors worldwide. Ben and his wife Joanna have five children, ages three to nine: Seth, Simeon, Levi, Jeremiah, and Piper.
