Notes for Maria (Mary Margaret) Buss:

Ann Arbor, Michigan, January 4, 1898 - Comstock Hill, administrator of the estate of Marie Osius, deceased, has begun a sensational suit against William Osius, Frederick Buss and Christina Buss, a suit in which probably $10,000 worth of property is involved. The complaint charges that William Osius and Frederick Buss, during the last few years of her life, unduly influenced Mrs. Osius and by misrepresentation, trickery and force secured possession of almost all of her real and personal property. The complainant asks for a temporary injunction to restrain the defendants from putting their property out of the way, and also ask for a full and true account of all property, real or personal, pertaining to the estate. All parties concerned are prominent in this community, and the suit will attract much attention.

Notes for Leonhard Christoph Gruner:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

LEONHARD GRUNER, dealer in boots and shoes and having one of the finest establishments of the kind in the city of Ann Arbor, was born in the village of Windecken, near Frankfurt, Germany, December 15, 1835. He is the son of Philip and Caroline (Osius) Gruner. The father emigrated to the United States in 1855 and still survives, the proprietor of a farm in Washtenaw County, where on the mother died in 1870. Their family comprised eleven children, of-whom our subject is the eldest, but of these only three are now living. One brother, George, gave up his life in the late war.

The boyhood and school days of Leonhard Gruner were passed in his native country, remaining there until eighteen years of age. Quitting school at the age of fourteen he began clerking in a store and in 1854 emigrated to the United States, landing in New York City. Thence he came direct to Fredonia, this county, where he spent his first winter in this country. In 1856 he came to Ann Arbor and was employed as a clerk by William S. Maynard, with whom he remained for a time. He afterward clerked for Stebbins & Wilson and then was with Charles Thompson, a dry-goods merchant, in all about ten years in the same capacity. He then formed a partnership with A. D. Seyler, under the firm name of Seyler & Gruner, and embarked in the boot and shoe business and was very successful in the venture. The partnership lasted for several years and on being dissolved the stock was divided, our subject continuing in the boot and shoe trade, his present store being at No. 8, S. Main Street, where he carries a large and well-selected stock of foot coverings from the best Eastern manufacturers. Mr. Gruner has a large acquaintance in the city and this in connection with his gentlemanly ways of dealing has given him control of a fine business.

His store room is 20x90 feet in dimensions and arranged with great nicety and also with an eye to convenience.

Mr. Gruner was married in 1859 to Miss Fanny Osius, of Freedom, this county. She is a native of Michigan and a daughter of William Osius, Esq. Our subject and his wife are the parents of four children—two living, Emily and Leo, the last ; named a clerk in his father's store. Mr. Gruner is a member of the School Board and has been Trustee of the same for a number of years. He is also Vice-President and Director of the Michigan Furniture Company and a Director in the Ann Arbor Savings Bank. He has a beautiful home located at No. 49 N. Main Street. The residence is well built and attractive, and the surroundings are most pleasing. Within the home is seen all the grace and delicacy which the refined taste of a cultured woman is capable of giving.

Ann Arbor Argus, July 28, 1893:

Henry Miller found the horse of Leonard Gruner hitched in front of Koch's residence on Washington Street, Sunday afternoon, and immediately appropriated the horse. He drove four miles towards Ypsilanti, exchanged his coat for one he found in the wagon, and walked into Ypsilanti. Here Deputy Sheriffs Brenner and McCabe arrested him, and he is now in jail charged with horse stealing.

13. Alvine Barbara (Alwina)<sup>4</sup> Kaercher (Armanda Maria<sup>3</sup> Osius, Wilhelm Friedrich<sup>2</sup>, Georg<sup>1</sup>) was born 18 May 1854 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 05 Jun 1919 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Johannes (John) Schaible 24 Mar 1881 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Georg Schaible and Anna Obergfall. He was born 09 Oct 1852 in Hochdorf, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 28 Sep 1904 in York Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Alvine Barbara (Alwina) Kaercher:

It has pleased the heavenly Father in His divine providence to call from this vale of tears Mrs. Alwina B. Schaible, widow of the late John Schaible. Alwina B. Kaercher was the daughter of Karl and Maria Kaercher and was born in Lima Township, Michigan, May 18, 1856. On March 24, 1881 she was united in marriage to John Schaible, who met death by an accident some fifteen years ago. To this union were born three children, Mrs. Charlie Gross, Mr. Fred Schaible and Mrs. George Bernard, all of this place. Deceased was one of nine children.

She is survived by four brothers and three sisters, and two grandchildren are left to mourn her death. During her sickness she was always cheerful and bore her suffering bravely, trusting in her Savior. She passed quietly away Thursday morning, June 5, 1919. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon.

Gone But Not Forgotten.
Weep not that her trials are over,
Weep not that her race is run,
God grant that we may rest as calmly.
When our work, like hers, is done.
'Til then we yield with gladness
Our loved one to God, to keep.
And rejoice in the sweet assurance
God giveth His loved one sleep.

Notes for Frederick Carl Schaible:

February 16, 1971, Fred Schaible Honored on Birthday 89 - A small but happy party Tuesday marked the 89th birthday of Fred Schaible, former Saline resident now making his home in Ann Arbor. Schaible, born and raised on a farm in Lima Township, was married to the former Laura Feuerbacher. They spent most of their married years at their home on Saline-Milan Rd. He was a carpenter. Mrs. Schaible passed away about 25 years ago, and in 1963, when Fred fell and broke his hip, he moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Spradlin, 1444 Glastonbury Rd., Ann Arbor — where he's now "practically a member of the family," according to Mrs. Spradlin. Fred enjoys The Reporter, radio and he likes to work jigsaw puzzles — and when the weather is favorable, he loves to get out for drives through the Washtenaw countryside. Joining all Saline in best birthday wishes to him this week were his sister, Mrs. Clara Gross, Henry St., and a niece, Mrs. Richard Heller, N. Ann Arbor Street.

Frederick C. Schaible, 93, passed away Feb. 19, 1975 at the Evangelical Home of Saline. Born Feb. 16, 1882 in Lima Township, he was the son of John and Alwina Kaercher Schaible. On Nov. 22, 1911 he married Laura Feuerbacher in Freedom Township; she preceded him in death in 1941. Mr. Schaible was associated with Herman Alber as a thresher for many years. He was a former member of the Trinity Lutheran Church of Saline.

Survivors include: one sister, Mrs. Clara Gross of Saline; two nieces, Mrs. Lorena Pann of Jonesville, Mrs. Richard Heller of Saline; two nephews, Ldean Bernard of Saline, Charles Gross of Tecumseh. He was preceded in death by a sister, Mrs. Marie (Amanda) Bernard.

Services were held Saturday at 3 p.m. from the Bahnmler Funeral Home with the Rev. Stanley Hartmann officiating. Burial followed in Oakwood Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the Evangelical Home, Saline.

Notes for Homer John Kaercher:

Lot 3, West Liberty Heights - 744 South Maple Road; Ann Arbor, Michigan:

Benjamin and Eleanor Steinman sold this lot to Enoch Dieterle for $500 on February 1, 1926. The next record of sale I found at the Washtenaw County Registrar of Deeds was a transfer on May 31, 1946, from Clifford D. Davis to Homer and Esther Kaercher. The Kaerchers had the house built (by Kurt Lange), and the City Directory shows them living there in 1949. The Kaerchers moved to S. Maple to be close to Mr. Kaercher's aunt and uncle, Ottmar and Melita Kaercher, who were living on Lot 1 (2509 W. Liberty). They lived at 744 S. Maple for about 30 years until they moved to Freedom Township.

The Kaerchers were married on October 25, 1941, and had one son, Daniel W. Kaercher who is a Licensed Pharmacist in Traverse City, Michigan. Homer Kaercher was born in Ann Arbor on August 9, 1916. He worked at the First of America Bank in Ann Arbor for 39 years until he retired in 1976. He was also a veteran of World War II. Mr. Kaercher passed away on April 17, 1993. Esther worked at the Ann Arbor YMCA as a bookkeeper. Until recently, she volunteered every Tuesday in the office of the Zion Lutheran Church on West Liberty.

The Kaerchers sold their house to A. William Klink II and his wife Bethany L. Klink on August 21, 1981, for $33,000. After five years, the Klinkes sold the house to Mark A. Burke on June 20, 1986, for $62,500. Mark A. and Brigitte A. Burke stayed for six years, selling the house to Christine L. Lutz for $112,500 on April 14, 1992. Four years later, on May 28, 1996, Christine L. Lutz sold the house to Amy E. Rothberg for $121,000.

Notes for Casper M. Enkemann:

Ann Arbor News, March 12, 1982 - Ex-chief Enkemann dies; recalled a firm, fair, honest:

"He was firm, he was fair, He was honest." Suc wasa the laconic tribute paid to Casper (Cap) Enkemann when he retired more than two decades ago after 30 years with the Ann Arbor Police Department, 14 of them as its chief. Enkemann, whose retirement was declared a "loss for the city" in a 1960 Ann Arbor News editorial, died thursday at the Saline Evangelical Home. He was 76 years old.

Cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be held at 3 p.m. Monday at the Bethlehem United Church of Christ with the Rev. Orval L. E. Willimann officiating.

While describing him as a friendly and likeable man who could be firm when occasion demanded,

The News praised Chief Enkemann as a "quiet, but determined and efficient officer," and noted that the city "should be grateful for having had his services for three decades." Enkemann came to the department in the summer of 1930 as a patrolman earning $1,800 a year. He worked his way through the ranks and acquired a reputation as a stubborn and determined investigator. He became chief of the department in 1948.

In 1980 Enkemann and two other former city police chiefs - Rolland (Barney) Gainsley and Walter Krasny - met for a special reunion and reflected on more than a century of city history and police work. Gainsley, who replaced Enkemann as chief in 1960, died last April. Krasney left the department in 1980 and still lives in Ann Arbor. He could not be reached this morning.

"Chief Enkemann has excelled in many ways as a law enforcement official," observed a News editorial writer in 1960. "He not only capable and honest himself, but he insists on high standards all through the department. "His investigations were always quick and thorough, and if there was reason for corrective measures in his department he never hesitated to act. " Ann Arbor has an outstanding Police Department." the editorial concluded, "and it is likely to continue to be one because of the firm foundation laid by Chief Enkemann."

Enkemann was born Dec. 9, 1905, in Cleveland, Ohio. He was a former member of the Ann Arbor Rotary Club; past president of the Michigan Chapter of the FBI; a past president of the Michigan Chiefs of Police; and the first person to receive the Human Relations Award from the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Survivors include Gladys Enkemann, his wife of more than 5 years, a son and for grandchildren.

Notes for Linda Jane Hellner:

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Linda J. Issa who peacefully passed away on March 22, 2025, at the age of 77. A lifelong resident of Ann Arbor, Michigan Linda was known for her warmth, curiosity, and unwavering love for family, history, and animals. Born on October 6, 1947 to William and Virginia (Walters) Hellner, Linda grew up in a close-knit family and graduated from Pioneer High School in 1965. She began a long and fulfilling career at the University of Michigan, where she worked diligently until her retirement in 2014. Her passion for learning extended beyond her career-on weekends, she took joy in driving the Bookmobile for the Ann Arbor Public Library which brought the gift of literature to the community.

Linda had an incredible gift for conversation-engaging, insightful, and always full of laughter. She never met a stranger, only a friend she hadn't yet made. She was an avid reader and found solace in the pages of books, often immersing herself in history, fiction, and stories of the past. Music also filled her days with joy. She had a deep appreciation for the stars-both in the sky and in the zodiac. Linda loved astrology, finding wonder and meaning in the alignment of the cosmos, and she enjoyed sharing her insights with family and friends. Linda's love for family was evident in the joy she brought to every gathering, especially with her homemade sweets. Her sweets were always a highlight at family celebrations. She also cherished annual trips to the Washtenaw Dairy in Ann Arbor, where she enjoyed family, ice cream and creating lasting memories. Linda's deep appreciation for family, food and special moments were undeniable.

Linda was also deeply dedicated to genealogy, spending years tracing her family's rich history back to the 1500s, uncovering stories and connections that spanned generations. This meticulous research became a labor of love for Linda, as she worked to preserve the rich legacy of her family's past. She was proud to share her findings with relatives, ensuring that the stories of her ancestors were passed down and remembered. Linda's work in genealogy was a testament to her dedications to family and history.

Linda was preceded in death by her beloved parents and siblings Gary (Nina), Glenn (Katherine), Michael (Pat), and Ralph (Su) Hellner, as well as her sister Bonnie (Daryl) Zemke. She is survived by her devoted sisters, Patricia (Stephen) Cottrell, Kathleen (Richard) Britton, and Sharon (Michael) Pendy, along with many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and great-great-nieces and nephews, all of whom will forever cherish her love, wisdom, and stories. She also leaves behind extended family and friends who were touched by her kindness and generosity.

Among her greatest joys in life were her beloved cats, Tangierslair and Suzy Q, who were her faithful companions. Her profound love for animals extended beyond her own pets, as she was a passionate advocate for their well-being. A celebration of life will be held in her honor in Fall 2025. Details will be shared with family and friends closer to the celebration. In lieu of flowers and to honor Linda's love for animals, the family kindly request donations be made in her memory to the Humane Society of Huron Valley. Linda's spirit, humor, and boundless love for family will remain in our hearts forever. May she rest in peace, guided by the stars she so deeply admired, surrounded by the love of those who went before her and remembered in the warmth of every shared dessert and cherished family gathering.

Notes for John Strohm (Jack) Walters:

John Strohm Walters of Venice, Florida (formerly of Ann Arbor, Michigan), age 80, died of a heart attack in Venice, Florida on March 6, 2004. John Strohm Walters, known as Jack Walters, was born April 13, 1923 in Bridgewater, Michigan to Frances Gruner Walters and Harry C. Walters. At age four, he moved with his mother and two older sisters, Virginia and Elizabeth (Betty), to Ann Arbor, where they lived at 315 North Main Street with his maternal great-grandmother Frances Gruner and great-aunt Emilie Blake. He attended Johnes Elementary and Junior High School, and graduated from Ann Arbor High School in 1941. He was a busy youth, taking jobs selling newspapers on the streets and from a paper route, and later working at the A&P super market on East Huron Street. He was also captain of the Safety Patrol; one of his happiest memories from his school days was of a trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in the Safety Parade.

On graduation, John worked at the Ford Motor Farm Camp at Willow Run, as an apprentice at the Ford River Rouge plant, and at the newly built Willow Run bomber plant before entering the United States Army Air Corps in March of 1943. He served for three years as Military Police officer attached to a bomber group in India, Burma and China. On his return to Ann Arbor at the close of World War II, John was offered a position with the Ann Arbor Police Department, where he worked as a traffic control officer and motorcycle policeman before being promoted to the detective bureau. He later worked at the University of Michigan scheduling office and in charge of the parking lots and garages.

John was an active member of the Trinity Lutheran Church, and as Chairman of the Vestry helped to write the church's constitution. Through his work with the Ann Arbor/Washtenaw Council of Churches he became involved with Youth For Understanding (YFU), a nonprofit student exchange program working to promote world peace, first on a volunteer basis, and later as International Treasurer. John's work with YFU allowed him to combine his passion for working with young people with his love of travel, visiting YFU offices throughout Europe and South America, Mexico and the Philippines. In the 1970s he moved to Rio de Janeiro for five years, where he started International Culture Exchange (ICX), a student exchange program for Brazilian, American and French youth. He continued to work with students on his return to the States, moving to Fort Lauderdale, Florida to work with Florida Cultural Exchange. He remained in Florida first in Gainesville and, after a nine month road trip in Europe, finally settling in Venice, Florida in 1986.

John was survived by Rauni Walters, his wife of 57 years, and four of their five children, Ron Walters of Abingdon, UK, Jerry Walters of Camas, Washington, Merri Walters of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Wendy Walters of Brooklyn, New York; sister Virginia Hellner of Ann Arbor; 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; their eldest son John L. Ellen Marie<sup>7</sup> Haeussler (Ralph Jacob<sup>6</sup>, Julia Allamanda<sup>5</sup> Bauer, Maria Sophia<sup>4</sup> Kaercher, Armanda Maria<sup>3</sup> Osius, Wilhelm Friedrich<sup>2</sup>, Georg<sup>1</sup>) was born 12 Sep 1938 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 08 Feb 2024 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Barry George Grossman 05 Sep 1959 in Bridgewater Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Roland Grossman and Elizabeth Lowery. He was born 1938.

Notes for Ellen Marie Haeussler:

Ann Arbor, Michigan - Ellen Marie (Haeussler) Grossman had a full and wonderful life filled with her passions: music, travel and most importantly, family. She passed away at home with family at her side on February 28, 2024, from congestive heart failure. Ellen was born to Ralph and Florence (Bohms) Haeussler at the family farm in Freedom Township (Manchester) on September 2, 1938. She attended the Silver Lake one-room schoolhouse from kindergarten through 8th grade. She was often kept home from school to work the farm including driving the tractor to disc and cultivate the family fields or follow the combine with a truck to be filled with wheat, oats, or corn. Her daily job was to bottle-feed animals before walking the mile to school. Her family had a large garden from which she learned how to can and freeze. She continued this tradition with her own gardens for many years. Some cherished family moments were making ice cream as a Sunday treat.

Ellen and Barry Grossman met while attending Manchester High School (1952-1956) and started officially dating after their Senior Trip to New York City. They loved to listen to and dance to many of the touring big bands at the Wampler's Lake Pavilion. Three years after starting to date, Ellen and Barry married at St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater, Michigan on September 5, 1959. Their love of music and dance permeated their lives together. Ellen sang in church (St. John's Lutheran Church and Webster United Church of Christ) and held the longest membership in the Women's Chamber Chorus in Ann Arbor. She was able to combine her singing with travel on several European trips with church choirs. She loved singing in cathedrals in Ireland, England, and Spain.

As a couple they were dedicated square dancers since 1962 and combined their love of travel, music, and dance by traveling throughout Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, and Virginia. They danced internationally in Canada, England, Germany, and Italy, as well as cruising and dancing on a Caribbean Cruise ship. The mode of travel expanded when Barry earned his private pilot license in 1966 while a member of the Ann Arbor Fliers Flying Club. Ellen and Barry flew to many places in Michigan and once flew as far as Key West, Florida.

Education was also a cornerstone of Ellen's life. After attending Manchester HS and graduating as Valedictorian, she went on to graduate (also in 1956) from the Comptometer School in Jackson, Michigan and attended Eastern Michigan University all while working summer clerical jobs with Sunstrand Corp. in Ann Arbor and Sealtest Foods in Ypsilanti. She graduated from EMU with B.A in Education with a major in math and minors in Spanish and physics in 1960 and a master's in Education in 1962. After graduation she taught middle school math at Marshall Junior High School in Westland, Michigan for one year and then George C. Marshall Junior High School in South Redford, Michigan for 7 years. Ellen's stint with teaching ended with the arrival of the couple's first child. Her love of learning spanned her lifetime- she was rarely without a book or something to read. Autobiographies were a favorite. As their family grew, they continued their traveling by visiting and/or camping in 48 out of the 50 United States (North Dakota and Hawaii were missed) and southern Canada. As with dancing, the couple traveled internationally and added Australia (with the family), New Zealand, Israel, Egypt, and many other countries in Europe to their list of places they had visited. Cancun, Mexico became a favorite destination to wait out winter-made better by traveling with friends from Plymouth, Michigan.

Ellen's faith was an integral part of who she was, and her faith was intricately intertwined with her passion for music. She was baptized and confirmed into membership at St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater and went on to sing in the choir there. In 1981 the couple brought their family to Webster United Church of Christ where she and Barry remain(ed) active members. She continued to sing at Webster as long as she could. She loved openly and lived fully. She made sure that Barry, her children, and her grandchildren knew that she loved them. Her motto in her later years was "live life to its fullest, because you don't know about tomorrow."

Ellen was preceded in death by her parents, Ralph and Florence Haeussler; her three brothers, Harold, William, and Gerald. Ellen is survived by her beloved husband, Barry; daughter, Susan (John) Baughn; and son, B. Brian (Karla) Grossman; grandchildren, Erin and John Baughn, Kathryn and Elysabeth Grossman, and many cousins, nieces, nephews, and exchange grandchildren.

The family wishes to thank Arbor Hospice for their loving care. A Memorial Service and interment will take place at Webster United Church of Christ on March 23, 2024, at 11:00-12:00 with a luncheon to follow.

- 254 ii. Karen Ann Haeussler, born 09 Nov 1972. She married Robert Jason Carrigan; born 24 Jul 1972.

Notes for Robert Jason Carrigan:

November, 2014: "This is a new place to call home," says Karen Carrigan, sitting with husband Jason in their Carrigan Cafe four days after the grand opening. Brian and Lori Sun used to own the space, formerly called My Favorite Cafe. Reached by phone, Brian Sun explains, "We have aging parents to care for, so we decided to sell." The Carrigans were ready to buy. After inking the deal on September 4, the Carrigans closed for twenty-two days while they completed a few touch-ups. Today its floor-to-ceiling windows illuminate newly finished pine plank floors and freshly painted pale green walls. The interior exposed brick remains, and, continuing the Suns' commitment to showcase local talent, the walls are adorned with works by whichever artist is currently featured at Two Twelve Arts Center.

Karen, forty-two, was raised on a farm in Manchester. It's no longer in the family, but the farm work ethic and support system live on. Her mom Ruth Haeussler, sister Alicia Smith, and nieces pitched in to help get the cafe ready for opening day. Jason, also forty-two, isn't quitting his day job yet, although he wouldn't mind giving up the commute to Trenton, where he works for Chrysler. "For now, I'm the guy writing the checks," he jokes. Karen Carrigan brings education and experience to the table: a 1995 WCC degree in culinary arts, a 2013 EMU degree in hotel and restaurant management, and years of restaurant work at everything from the WXYZ cafeteria in Southfield to Saline's beloved Drowsy Parrot. She's excited to feature local vendors: Guernsey Farms, Plymouth's Coffee Express, Milan Coffee Works, Benny's Bakery, Ed's Bread, Barry's Bagels, and Rumi's Passion Gluten Free Bakery.

Carrigan's sandwich menu offers a half-dozen choices. All $6.99, they have names like the Clover (turkey, Swiss, tomato, honey mustard, and mayo on farmhouse white) and the Carrigan Club (bacon, chicken breast, lettuce, tomato, provolone, and roasted red pepper sauce on sesame French bread); there's also a design-your-own-sandwich option. "It's an evolving menu," explains Karen. She promises breakfast sandwiches, soups, and salads. "I'm still looking into a local soup maker, and I'm definitely making my egg salad," she says. Jason says that he and Karen want Carrigan Cafe "to be like the cafes of old, a venue that nurtures artists, poets, singer-songwriters and storytellers." His late father, Andrew Carrigan, was a schoolteacher and beloved local poet. His mother was also a teacher. "They were an inspiration, always encouraging me to do what I want to do," says Karen. Throughout the afternoon, customers come and go steadily, several calling Karen by name. Circling back to the home theme, she says, "It's like seeing family." Carrigan Cafe, 107 S. Ann Arbor Street, Saline, Daily 6 a.m.-7 p.m.

Notes for Brig. Gen. James Arthur Pocock:

Lansing, July 1, 1953 - Pocock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Pocock. He is a 1952 graduate of East Lansing high school, and won a scholarship to Princeton university where he studied one year before applying for West Point. Pocock was active in high school, holding offices in student government and participated in athletics in addition to other extracurricular activities

Jan. 4, 1964 - Mr. and Mrs. James A. Pocock's return from five years in Germany with the Army made it possible for them to take in the party, too. Mrs. Pocock, the former Gloria Lippold and a '54 graduate, and her husband were here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Lippold of Jeffersontown. They've gone on with sons, Jimmy and Johnny, to East Lansing, Michigan, to visit his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Bryant Pocock.

Jan. 24, 1991 - With a change of coat and tie in his Lansing office, Ingham County Friend of the Court James Pocock becomes U.S. Army Reserve Brig. Gen. James Pocock. The military Pocock, wearing a uniform bedecked with medals, said Wednesday that one of his command units arrived in Saudi Arabia this week to set up a camp for 12,000 future prisoners of war. But Pocock won't be on the firing line in this war. The 56-year-old Okemos resident and decorated Vietnam veteran will stay home. His feelings are mixed, Pocock said. "I would like to participate, particularly with my friends and fellow soldiers with whom I've worked many years." But as a combat veteran, Pocock said he knows the ordeal and sacrifice which would fall on his family if he went to war once more. In a Pentagon meeting Tuesday, Pocock learned that he and his Inkster-based, 125-member headquarters unit of the 300th Military Police Command are staying put.

Other units in Pocock's 2,400-person command are bound for the Mideast. So far, with the war largely a test of planes and missiles, only about 20 Iraqi troops have fallen into the hands of allied forces in the Persian Gulf region. But the U.S. Army is setting up several camps to handle more than 60,000 Iraqi war prisoners, Pocock said. When he's not administering military police training for thousands of U.S. Army reservists in the Midwest, Pocock enforces child custody and support orders of the Ingham County court. A West Point graduate, Pocock served in the Army from 1957 to 1969. He later worked for a life insurance company until his 1973 appointment as Friend of the Court. The biggest problem ahead in keeping thousands of Iraqi war prisoners may lay in the logistics shipping prisoners and supplies across the deserts, Pocock said. The prisoner camps may be havens for battle-shocked Iraqis. They will be fed, clothed, allowed to worship in the Islamic ways, and given some training on U.S.-style democracy, Pocock said. "I hope they live better in our camps than in their own army, which would be an indication that their army is in bad shape," Pocock said.

Jan 24, 1991 - James Pocock, age 56, home Okemos, Michigan, education: Bachelor of military science from the U.S. Military Academy, master's degree in communications from Michigan State University. Presently work at Ingham County Friend of the Court.

May 25, 2005 - James Pocock, age 70, home East Lansing, married, four grown children, 10 grandchildren; retired Ingham County friend of the court; retired major general in the U.S. Army Reserve. His education: East Lansing High School graduate, undergraduate work at Princeton University and the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, master's degree in communications from Michigan State University.

May 25, 2005 - As an American soldier in the 1960s, James Pocock patrolled the barbed wire border between East and West Germany. "I always wondered what life was like on the other side," said Pocock, former Ingham County friend of the court and a retired major general in the U.S. Army Reserve. He got the chance to find out during a visit to the reunified country several years ago. "I had a lot of contact with the German people there, and the experience got me thinking," he said. The result: "Across the Barbed Wire," Pocock's self-published first novel, which came out in January and has earned high praise.

It's a fictional story of a mother and her young son who are separated while trying to escape from East Germany and the mother's 30-year quest to discover what happened to him. The story also deals with the American servicemen who help her, following them through the Vietnam War and Desert Storm and showing the sacrifices their families make. And the story illuminates his life in East Germany, where the son grows up to become a communist and member of the secret service. "It has something for the military buff, it is a love story (or two), it is packed full of action, it has great characters that pull you into their lives, and it even educates the reader about the Cold War without trying to be a history book," said reviewer Jim Vahle.

Gisela Schild, a neighbor of Pocock's who shares a first name with his heroine, said the book brought back memories of growing up on the western side of the border. "I was stunned," she said. "Parts of the book were like having my life laid out in front of me. It puts you right there." Pocock said he refined the story in discussions with his wife, Gloria, during drives to see her mother in Kentucky. Pocock relied on several sources to make the book historically accurate, including his 38-year military career, information from people on both sides of the border and research. The book took four years to complete. "I had to fit all the different elements covering a 30-year span from the Cold War through Desert Storm into a sequence that made sense," he said.

Pocock said his purpose in writing the book had to do with his family. "I wanted to tell the story so my children and grandchildren understand better what I went through in the Army and Army Reserve," he said. Three of Pocock's 10 grandchildren, one in Okemos and two in Colorado, already have taken the book to school as part of history class studies of the Cold War. "I'm gratified that my grandchildren who have read it are asking questions," he said.

On Nov. 20th, in a packed Capitol Building Rotunda, eight families finalized adoptions. Catholic Social Services of Montana served two of the families on their journey to adoption. Their stories show that each adoption is as unique as the families and children involved.

When Adam Stoll called his wife, it's no surprise that Sarah was in the mountains of Nevada. The couple spends plenty of time enjoying the outdoors hiking and camping. The spring break of 2018 was a little different though. They were apart, with Adam back home in Helena, and by the time Sarah was home, they would be parents. Bethany had just come into the world and Adam was driving to meet her, so of course, he asked Sarah "Guess where I'm going."

Bethany's Birth Mother had selected the Stoll's from among several profiles of potential adoptive families. Profiles include thorough background information and evaluations by child-care authorities and experts. For Bethany's Birth Mother, the personal information and letter to expectant parents made the difference. She liked that they had no other children and that they love the outdoors, so she contacted Jan Petek with Catholic Social Services just prior to giving birth. Jan called Adam with the news that there was a baby to pick up, Adam called Sarah, and the Stoll's adoption journey suddenly had an end, and a new beginning, in sight.

After trying to conceive for several years and considering In Vitro Fertilization they pursued adoption. Sarah said, "We looked at the cost of IVF and couldn't see how we could do it when there are kids just waiting for families." Adam and Sarah placed their hopes for a child in God's hands, with Sarah adding, "We see it as God's providence, that we're supposed to be Bethany's parents." The timing of an open adoption (where birth parents and adoptive parents are known to one another) is a tricky business with layers of moving parts. The intersection of the lives of adoptive parents, expecting parent(s) and adoption requirements are carefully coordinated by case workers like Jan. In her work she sees adoptions that unfold over months, don't come to fruition or, in the end, develop quickly.

Their sudden final step meant Adam would meet Bethany and her Birth Mother for the first time that day. Sarah would meet them a short time later, and they would keep in touch with Bethany's Birth Mother. Adam spent two days in the hospital before Bethany would come home and, with Sarah, they would start their new life together. Sarah said, "It was totally worth the journey, God's timing is perfect even though it's not how we would have planned it." Bethany will be hiking and camping and enjoying the outdoors right away. With Sarah's roots in Spokane, Wash., Bethany will very likely "run" her first Bloomsday fun-run in the spring.

Notes for Amanda Cope:

July 10, 2018 - Since she first took a job as pre-treatment coordinator with the Angola Wastewater Department, Amanda Cope has had her mind set on becoming the city engineer. With the retirement of past city engineer Bill Boyer at the end of June, Cope got her wish. "I told them in my job interview for pre-treatment coordinator my goal was to be the engineer," she said. Originally, Cope decided to go to college at Ball State University for architecture, but she found it was "too right-brained" for her. She was on a scholarship to Ball State for track and field in the throwing events. She recalled a project in which they had to create a pavilion and present it. Hers, she said, was fine but not great. The girl behind her designed hers completely out of glass, nothing else. When asked how to actually build it, the girl said "not my problem" and Cope didn't like that answer.

As someone who enjoys math and financial work, such as financial planning, Cope decided to change her major and pursue a degree in finance at Ball State instead. She graduated and worked in banking for a bit, but she didn't enjoy all the cold-calling her job required as she said she doesn't have the personality for that. At age 23, she finally listened to what her mom had been telling her since she was 18 or 19 and decided to go back to college to pursue a degree in civil engineering. "I didn't want to go away to school again," she said. Since she was living back at home in Angola at the time, she decided attending Tri-State University, now Trine, would be the best fit. It was at Tri-State she completed her bachelor's in civil engineering. But Cope wasn't done with college just yet. She later completed a master's in civil engineering at Purdue University.
