Notes for Gottlob Philipp Hanselmann:

Ann Arbor, Michigan, March 21, 1902 - The five students arrested on the night of March 12 for singing on the streets appeared in the Justice Court today prepared to give evidence against Gottlob Hanselmann, the alleged wine-dealer, where they got the goods on the night of the arrest. Hanselmann lives on Huron Street at the edge of the city and was arrested for being engaged in selling and disposing intoxicating liquors etc., "without having filed a bond with the county treasurer," and his examination was held today. Only one of the students was placed on the stand. He swore that the wine was served to the party of five in a two-quart pitcher and that glasses were given them. He, however, said that Mr. Hanselmann did not serve the wine or receive the money for it. Justice Gibson reserved his decision until tomorrow noon. The students then pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace and were each fined $4.38 costs.

Two Killed in Sewer Cave In - Rescue workers aided by a steam shovel worked three hours Monday Dec. 10, 1956 to recover the bodies of two men who were buried alive when the dirt gave way while they were at the bottom of a 20 foot hole putting in sewer pipe for a new subdivision. The victims were Robert Meyers, 50, foreman of the construction job and Louis Hanselman, 46, both of Dexter. Rescuers, led by Washtenaw County Deputy Sheriff John Palmer, Dexter, worked desperately to remove the victims' before a second cave-in. Some workers supported the dirt walls by wooden planks and jacks while other dug around the bodies to remove dirt. A steam shovel standing nearby, which was used to dig the sewer hole, was moved into position and dug carefully around the bodies to remove dirt for rescuers.

Notes for Leon Thomas Hanselman:

Ypsilanti - Three men were electrocuted Sunday April 13, 1930 after a plane became entangled with high tension wires while attempting a landing at Ypsilanti airport. The dead: Levi Keppler, 24, bank teller, Ann Arbor; Harry Walters, 31, superintendent of the airport; William Clawson, 60, retired farmer of Ypsilanti; Leon Hanselmann, 23, Ann Arbor, owner of the plane and licensed pilot, was injured slightly. According to witnesses, Hanselmann swung the plane too low approaching the field. It struck some high-tension transmission wires, became entangled and remained suspended in the air. A wire came in contact with Keppler, killing him. The plane burst into flames. Walters ran to the plane carrying a fire extinguisher, witnesses said. As he turned on a stream of chemicals, electric current followed the liquid and knocked him to the ground. Clawson tried to assist Walters and was killed. Walters was taken to the university hospital at Ann Arbor, but died before the ambulance reached the hospital. Hanselmann Jumped from the plane, which continued to burn until employees of the Detroit Edison company cut the wires. An Inquest was ordered.

April 17, 1930 - Levi Keppler, 24, Ann Arbor; Willard Clawson, 60, Ypsilanti, and Harry Walters, 28, Ypsilanti, were electrocuted Sunday afternoon when an airplane became entangled in the high tension wires while attempting to make a landing at the Ypsilanti Airport. Leon Hanselmann, 24, of Ann Arbor, pilot, was slightly hurt and taken to Beyer hospital In Ypsilanti for treatment. Hanselmann, who has been an air enthusiast for some time, rents a hangar at the Ypsilanti airport and took his friend Keppler for a ride Sunday and was preparing to land when the accident occurred. Keppler was not injured in the fall but remained imprisoned in his seat in a tangle of high tension wires while rescuers struggled to release him. He died when he rose from his seat to jump, the change in position bringing him into contact with the high voltage.

Walters was killed when he attempted to release Keppler. Clawson, a bystander, was killed when he sought to draw Walter's body away from the wires. It is said that Hanselmann's plane approached the airport from the west, flying low with the motor apparently dead. The ship side-slipped and nearly went out of control before it got to the port. The plane's tail hooked on a high tension wire at the side of the field and burst into flames. The nose fell forward dragging the wires and throwing the pilot to the ground. Keppler, the passenger, remained imprisoned in the ship. Attendants attempted to extinguish the flames but they had gained too great a headway. Most of this was witnessed by Keppler's mother who had to be restrained from rushing into the tangle of highly charged wires.

Notes for Robert Samuel Horning:

Robert Samuel Horning of Largo, Florida Born March 16, 1926 in Ann Arbor to Samuel and Anna Barbara (Hanselmann) Horning, Robert Samuel Horning died June 13, 2019 in Largo, Florida (near Clearwater) at age 93 after receiving injuries during a recent fall. Bob attended Ann Arbor High School; he then served as a rifleman in the Army during World War II, in the 70th Infantry Division, earning two bronze battle stars in European Theater Operations, and was a prison guard in Western Germany. Upon discharge, he worked as a clerk at the U.S. Postal Service for thirty-three years. He loved life, including hiking, traveling, photography, playing cards, collecting coins and stamps. But he would drop those any time for a conversation with friends and acquaintances. He was always reading, could remember tons of trivia, and probably would have done well on Jeopardy. Later in life he became more interested in God and drew closer to him.

Bob's nearest relatives were his nephews and their wives: Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy). His brother, Walter, died in 2007.

A committal service will be at Bethlehem Cemetery on Jackson Rd. in Ann Arbor at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, July 24, 2019.

Notes for Amelia Sybilla Bauer:

Dec. 13, 1993 - Social Security officials used to write letters to Amelia Bauer Hanselman asking why she hadn't retired yet. "At the time, she was only in her 70s," recalls Mrs. Hanselman's niece, Anleah Stamper. "She had a lot more working, living and traveling to do. She led a very full life." Mrs. Hanselman, 99, of Ripley, Ohio who once taught in one-room schoolhouses died Saturday. "She said she wanted to die with her boots on," said Ms. Stamper. "I think you could say she did that. When she was in her 90s, she ran the rapids in those wild West Virginia rivers. Didn't even get wet. "When she was 92, she went to Alaska. She had always wanted to fly over the Arctic Circle. She did that." Mrs. Hanselman, however, never learned to drive a car. "But that didn't stop her from traveling," noted Ms. Stamper. "She went on trips with everybody. She was always ready to go with friends and relatives. "We called her "The Social Butterfly." She liked to fly around and go places. She liked to dress up and do things." From New England to Florida to the desert Southwest, Mrs. Hanselman never grew tired of touring America. And talking about it. "I went on trips with her, but the best part was coming back and listening to her tell people about it," noted Ms. Stamper.

Mrs. Hanselman was born Nov. 9, 1894. One of her first jobs was as a schoolteacher. She taught first-graders through eighth-graders at one-room schoolhouses in the Ripley and nearby Levanna areas. Later, she became a sales clerk and also worked at a tea room near Christ Hospital in Cincinnati. "A lot of doctors from the hospital came in and she liked talking to them," said Mrs. Stamper. "She kept working at the tea room until they tore it down." Mrs. Hanselman was preceded in death by her husband, Cecil Hanselman.

She leaves two sisters, Rose Conover, 95, of Ripley, and Viola Willis, 80, of Levanna; and a brother, Paul Bauer, 77, of Deer Park. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at Pisgah Ridge Cemetery near Ripley. Visitation will be from 9:30 a.m. to 10:15 a.m. Tuesday at Cahall, Trapp and Wilson Funeral Home in Ripley.

Notes for Lloyd F. Ernst:

Ann Arbor News, September 28, 1928:

An Ann Arbor man met death and a Scio Township resident was seriously injured in two automobile accidents Thursday afternoon.

Lloyd F. Ernst, 27, of 1223 Lutz Ave., died Thursday afternoon in University Hospital where he was taken following an accident on the Saline Road about one mile north of that village. Death was due, it is believed, to a fractured skull.

Julius Reuter, 57, Liberty Road, is in University Hospital with serious injuries sustained earlier in the day in a crash west of Ann Arbor on Liberty Road, and accident which, coincidentally, was witnessed by Mr. Ernst. Mr. Reuter's condition was reported much improved today.

As there were no witnesses to the accident in which Mr. Ernst sustained fatal injuries, authorities today conducted an investigation to determine the manner in which the crash happened. Undersheriff Jacob B. Andres and Coroner E. C. Ganzhorn, after interviewing several persons, were able to piece together the story of the tragedy.

Mr. Ernst left home, at 1:30 Thursday afternoon for the Ernst Bros. Electric shop which he and a brother, Carl, had conducted for seven and one-half years. While taking material to men working at the Belt Line Highway and Liberty Road. Mr. Ernst witnessed the crash in which Mr. Reuter was injured. He went to Saline and after completing business there started for home between 3 o'clock and 3:15. It is believed that on the way home, his car, a light truck, got off the shoulder of the road and when he attempted to get it back into the highway, it turned over.

William Longfellow, Saline, drove by shortly afterward and seeing that an accident had happened, asked a farm resident nearby to telephone to Saline for a wrecking car and medical aid while he went on to Ann Arbor to notify Ernst's brother and get an ambulance. John Lamb and Leo Westphal, employees of a garage, answered the call and believing Ernst to be seriously hurt, rushed him to University Hospital. He died shortly after being admitted. The top of the truck, the windshield and the sides were damaged, and the wheels and fenders bent, indicating that the vehicle had turned over.

Lloyd Ernst was born Dec. 19, 1900, in Blissfield, the son of John and Sarah Beck Ernst. The family moved to Ann Arbor 22 years ago and he attended public schools and learned the electrical trade here. With his brother, Carl, he established the Ernst Bros. Electric shop several years ago. He was married July 6, 1920, to Edith Hertler of Saline.

He is survived by the widow, three children, Frederick, Edward and Phyllis; his mother, Mrs. Sarah Ernst, Ann Arbor; two brother, Carl and Walter of this city, and a sister, Mrs. Frank Lang, also of Ann Arbor.

Funeral services, which will be private, will be held at 1:30 Sunday afternoon at the residence. Rev. C. H. Wittbracht of Saline will officiate. Burial will be in Bethlehem Cemetery. Friends may call at the residence until Sunday noon.

Notes for Walter Frederick Horning:

Horning, Walter F. Died peacefully January 7, at age 96. Born August 15, 1910 on a farm on Ellsworth Rd., Walter (Pork) moved to town as a boy with his German immigrant parents, Samuel and Anna. He learned English in kindergarten and at the YMCA, his second home. He graduated from Ann Arbor High and the U of M, then worked his entire career at King-Seeley/Chrysler. In 1940, Walter married Ruth Mitchell, which, as he liked to tell everyone, was the smartest thing he ever did. She lives on.

The couple has four children: Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy); 10 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren. Walter's younger brother, Bob, lives in Florida. Athletics were a big part of Pork's life. He played fast pitch softball locally, and twice earned All-America honors in volleyball for men over 35. He was the PA announcer for Pioneer High football games for many years, and worked for the UM athletic department for 58 years, selling and taking tickets for just about every sport, until age 93.

He was an active, life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church. Walter was a great man, loved life, and was a wonderful model for those of us who were fortunate to live with him so many years. Visitation will be at Muehlig's Funeral Home on Wednesday, January 10, 3-7 p.m., and from 12-1 p.m. on Thursday at Zion Lutheran Church, 1501 W. Liberty St. in Ann Arbor, immediately preceding the funeral at Zion. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Arbor Hospice or Lutheran Social Services of Michigan.

Notes for Ruth Alice Mitchell:

Ruth A. Horning died July 29, 2012. She was born in Detroit on September 5, 1917, and moved with her parents, Thomas and Mary (Brewster) Mitchell, to East Ann Arbor at the age of two. She was in 4H, the National Honor Society in High School, and attended Cleary College. Ruth worked for Detroit Edison for three years before marrying Walter Horning in 1940. He was a coach for the Pfeiffer fast-pitch softball team on which she played second base, and was state champions in 1942.

Ruth leaves behind four sons, Don (Skip), Doug (Lorrinda), Bob (Linda), and Dick (Judy), and a brother, Dwigh Mitchell. Her husband died in 2007, and her older siblings, Bill, Betty, and Tom, have also died. Walter and Ruth have ten grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren. She was active at Zion Lutheran Church, taught Sunday School and Bible class, loved gardening, reading, sports, travel, and, most of all, her family. And her family loved her. Better mothers or grandmothers don't exist. She was quietly happy, stable, consistent, hard-working, and witty to the end. Add another hundred positive adjectives and they would all fit. Now add another descriptive - missed.

Visitation will be Thursday, August 2 from 5-9 pm and Friday from 10-11 a.m. at Zion Lutheran Church. The memorial service will be Friday 11am at Zion, 1501 W. Liberty St. Ann Arbor, In lieu of flowers, donations are requested to be given to Zion Lutheran Church or Arbor Hospice.

She married Paul Everette Belting 26 Aug 1912 in Miami Co, Ohio. He was born 05 Sep 1886, and died 20 Jul 1943 in Urbana, Champaign Co, Illinois.

Notes for Paul Everette Belting:

Paul E. Belting (1887 – July 20, 1943) was an athletic director for the University of Iowa from 1924 to 1929. He was the third athletic director in school history, and he oversaw the construction of the Iowa Field House in 1927 and Iowa Stadium in 1929.

Paul Belting graduated from Eastern Illinois State Normal High School in Illiopolis, Illinois. He played football for Eastern Illinois State Teachers College in 1907 and 1908. He then attended the University of Illinois, where he played football, lettering in the sport in 1911. He later served as a high school principal in Oskaloosa, Iowa, Globe, Arizona, and Martinsville, Illinois. Belting coached Oskaloosa High School to the football state championship in 1916. He then was a high school athletic director in New York City from 1917–1920. Belting joined the College of Education at the University of Illinois in 1920. He wrote "The Development of the Free Public High School in Illinois to 1860" (ISBN 1-14020-704-0) in 1919.

In 1924, Iowa's head football coach and athletic director, Howard Jones, left Iowa to take the head coaching position at Duke University. The University of Iowa hired Paul Belting to succeed Jones as Iowa's athletic director on March 13, 1924. Belting now needed to hire a football coach, and after a failed attempt to hire Notre Dame head coach Knute Rockne, Belting hired fellow Illinois alumnus Burt Ingwersen. Many Iowa alumni were displeased with Belting hiring a fellow Illini to the post.

Paul Belting consolidated athletics with the Physical Education program at Iowa and planned several new athletic buildings. Within five years, Belting oversaw the constructions of the Iowa Field House and Iowa Stadium. Belting got funding and architectural plans approved in a surprisingly short time. "If it hadn't been for him, Iowa's new stadium probably wouldn't have been built for another 20 years", former Iowa sports information director George Wine wrote.

Belting abruptly resigned at the end of his five-year contract on April 26, 1929. Two weeks later, Iowa was suspended from Big Ten athletic competition by the conference for allegedly maintaining a "slush fund" for prospective athletes. This fund was nicknamed the "Belting fund" in the press, while Belting accused the university of not having proper faculty control of athletics. Iowa fans held Belting responsible for their suspension from Big Ten athletic competition and threw eggs at his home.

Belting moved back to Illinois and took a job as an assistant state superintendent of public instruction. He wrote "The Modern High School Curriculum" (ISBN 1-40673-815-8) in 1942.

Marriage Notes for Pauline Hanselman and Olin Kester:

Jonquils and greenery with the soft glow of tapers made the charming setting in the chapel of the Hardin Methodist church for the nuptial vows of Miss Pauline Hanselman and Sergeant Olin G. Kester which were repeated at half after six o'clock Wednesday evening Jan. 24, 1945, the seventeenth of January. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hanselman of Hardin Road, and the bridegroom who is with the United States air corps, home from overseas service, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kester, of Parkersburg, West Virginia. Music was heard throughout the service played softly by Mrs. Paul Park, using the strains of "Ava Marie", "Liebestrum", and "Moonlight Sonata" as the musical background for the service. Attending the young couple were Mrs. Wayne Hanselman, sister-in-law of the bride, as her matron of honor, and Gene Shoemaker, of Dayton, was the best man. The Rev. Howard Hines official ted, performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a handsome spring suit in gold color, and her smart accessories were in black. She carried a white Bible to the altar which had been a gift of her mother. Pinned to the lapel of her jacket was her bridal corsage of orchids. Her attendant wore a turquoise two-piece suit and her accessories, like the bride's, were in black. Pink rose buds made her corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony wedding dinner was served in the Hanselman home, where the bride's parents received with the young couple. Mrs. Hanselman wore an embroidered brown crepe and her flowers were a corsage of gardenias. The guests witnessing the ceremony were received, and were seated for the dinner at a beautifully laid table centered with the wedding cake holding the traditional emblems of a miniature bride and bridegroom. The service used was all in the matching crystal which was among the beautiful wedding gifts the bride received. Ahe chose to use it at this time as she will be unable to take it with her to use in the temporary home the young couple will establish for the present at Dalhart, Texas, where the bridegroom is stationed since his return from foreign service. Jonquils were the flowers given prominence in the decorations throughout the home.

When the bride and bridegroom left for their trip to Dalhart, Texas, the bride wore a black and white checked ensemble. They left for the southern city later Wednesday night. The new Mrs. Kester has been an active member of the Sidney-Shelby County Civic chorus, and a member of several social clubs and groups. She has had a position with the office of the Monarch Machine Tool company. Sergeant Kester is with the United States air corps and before enlisting was with the engineering department of the state highway of West Virginia. He was stationed overseas for thirty-one months in New Guinea, and in Australia. He is now at the Dalhart army air base, Dalhart, Texas.

Notes for Harold Edgar McDorman:

Harold Edgar McDorman, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Berl McDorman, died at their home at Newport in Cynthian township Saturday night, Sept. 18, 1926, aged 7 years, 11 months and 26 days. The boy was born September 22, 1918. Funeral services at the Oran Christian church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock standard time. Interment at Houston.

Harold Edgar McDorman son of Beryl and May McDorman was born at New Port, Ohio September twenty-second, nineteen hundred eighteen and departed this life at the home of his parents near Hardin, Ohio September eighteenth at nine minutes past eight o'clock p.m. at the age of seven years eleven months and twenty-six days. He leaves to mourn his departure a loving father and mother; three sisters, namely Martha Ellen, Velma and Betty Jane, one paternal grandfather Mr. G.W. Hanselman; two grandmothers, Mrs. Mattie B. Hanselman and Mrs. Hulda Greer, uncles and aunts and many distant relatives and friends to mourn his departure from this life to the eternal home that Jesus went to prepare for him.

The master said suffer little children to come unto me and for bid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." It was always little Harold's desire to be in Sabbath School, thus hearing the call of the master, little children come unto me. A fair young life that was full of promises and grand possibilities has passed to the invisible world. In life his feet trod the path of rectitude, in childhood he was bright and intelligent and commanded the respect of all his playmates. As he pressed toward youth hood that respect ripened into admiration which was genuine. The longings of this heart to ever be in the Sabbath school are way marks to not only guide his playmates but a guide post to the aged to fulfill our mission in life, while duty calls.

And before entering into the bloom and flower of life age, Harold was stricken down suddenly with that dreaded disease of Kidney trouble and for a few days only the ravages of that relentless disease absorbed his vitality. Physicians and friends did all human skill could impart to him to relieve the death grapple and to ward off the cruel shaft of heath but all was hopeless.

When it became known that death would claim Harold and all hope of his recovery had died out, his parents, grandparents, sisters gathered about his bead, with prayer and tears, to wipe the death damp form his brow. We are to be pitted rather than he. Within the eternal fold of the master safe and secure from all sorrows and disappointments. "And now he slept and never more, Will his steps fall by the old home door, Nor his voice be heard with its living tone, By the lone ones left round his hearthstone. He has done, He has gone, to all home afar – To the beautiful land where the angels are." His pains are o'er, his sorrows past Life's armour laid aside, He reaps the great reward at last, In heaven to abide. Dearest Harold, thou hast left us, And our lost we keenly fell, It was death and sin that bereft us, God alone can save and heal, Tho lost from sight, in memory dear, Thou ever will remain, One only hope our hearts can cheer, That God has planned to save our dear. Farewell Harold, we bid you good night, Burt some day our master will call us, then, We'll say good morning, in the land of flowers, And sunshine, in the land of health and beauty, Farewell, my boy, farewell my son.

Saturday morning Sept. 18th we were called to Harolds bedside and the ordinance of water. Baptism were administrated to him. As we people prayed and the scriptures were complied with each and all felt the presence of God and little Harold seemed to rest with more perfect ease.

Notes for Frank Louis Tompkins:

July 12, 2001 - Okeana - In a special public ceremony this weekend, Morgan Township will honor Frank L. Tompkins, its first fire chief and a man whose dedication to volunteer firefighting shortened his life. A permanent memorial, consisting of a red fire hydrant flanked by two large stones in front of the township's fire station and administration building will be unveiled at 7 p.m., Saturday. One stone bears the words, "This fire station is dedicated in memory of Fire Chief Frank L. Tompkins for his 34 years of dedicated service to the community of Morgan Township."

The other stone lists the name of the founding member of the Morgan Township Fire Department: Earl Bennett, Zelotes Brown, Homer Davis, Leonard Fagaly, Robert L. Kimball, Fred Mabis, Eli Parkhurst, Stanley Scheering, Carl Skjoldader and Mr. Tompkins. The son of a Cincinnati firefighter, Mr. Tompkins became the township's first fire chief in 1948. A mechanic, he served in that volunteer position until his death in 1982. His death stemmed from smoke he had inhaled at a fire 10 years earlier, said Rob Keiler, a Morgan Township fire fighter who led the effort to honor Mr. Tompkins.

"We had hoped to honor him when the fire station was built several years ago, but we couldn't make it happen then," he said. Later, Mr. Keiler organized a committee to establish a permanent memorial for Mr. Tompkins. The Morgan Township Fire and EMS Association paid the $2,200 cost of the memorial.

Mr. Tompkins' son Frank Jr., his daughter Judy and his granddaughter Tracy served in the fire department. His grand son Jason is a Morgan Township firefighter now. "For many years, he was the fire department." Mr. Keiler said. "If anyone served to have the firehouse dedicated to him, it's him."

Notes for Joseph John Fischer:

Joseph J. Fischer, 55 years old, 715 W. Jefferson Street, a well-known electrician employed by the Detroit Edison Co. for 20 years, was electrocuted about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon when he came in contact with a live wire carrying 24,000 volts at the company's Argo sub-station, 987 Broadway. Mr. Fischer received the terrific electrical shock when he started to paint a rusty bolt to which the wire was connected, according to William Folske, 206 Montgomery Ave., the foreman in charge of the maintenance crew which had been inspecting, repairing and repainting the wires and connections in the sub-station's bank of transformers.

Mr. Folske said Mr. Fischer's fingers apparently were touching the metal strip on the brush which held the bristles in place, the current passing through the paint and the metal to his body. Half the circuit at the sub-station had been shut off during the repair work, but Mr. Folske said a minute before the accident he had warned Mr. Fischer that the particular wire was "hot." The shock threw Mr. Fischer to the ground 15 feet below where he had been working, his head striking a cement mat. Mr. Folske and Mr. Fischer's brother, William F. Fischer, of Barton Drive, applied artificial respiration immediately. Two minutes later Mr. Fischer partly revived, mumbling the word, "sit," but he collapsed again a moment later and could not be revived despite continued artificial respiration and heart stimulants.

A lifelong resident of Ann Arbor Mr. Fischer was born, here Nov. 3, 1883, a son of the late Matthias and Christiana Waltz Fischer. He was a member of Zion Lutheran Church, Golden Rule lodge, No. 159, F.&A.M., Zal Gaz Grotto, No. 34, M.O.V.P.E.R., Elks Lodge, No. 325, of Ann Arbor, and the Schwaben Verein.

He was married Oct. 12, 1904, to Julia Wenger of this city, and is survived by his widow; two sons, Jack and Robert, and two daughters, Miss Marian Fischer and Mrs. W.H. Emerick, all of this city; three grandchildren, Ann Elizabeth, Janet and Nanette Sue Emerick of Ann Arbor; two brothers, Matt C. Fischer of Kalamazoo and William F. Fischer of Ann Arbor; three sisters, Mrs. Louise Dietrich of Detroit, Miss Ann Fischer of Ann Arbor and Mrs. V.E. Hulett of San Springs, Oklahoma; and several nephews and nieces.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Muehlig chapel with Rev. E.C. Stellhorn officiating. Burial will be in Washtenong memorial park. Friends may call at the chapel. Pallbearers will be the following six fellows of the Detroit Edison Co.; Grover Hauser, Gus Harnack, William Folske, Clarence Beuerle, Fred DuPont and Ruddy Oestreicher.

- + 1340 iii. Marcia Marie McGarry, born 13 Mar 1953.

Notes for Oscar (Mike) Alber, Jr.:

Oscar Junior Alber "Mike" born May 5, 1931 in Salem Township, the son of the late Oscar and the late Louise (nee' Hertler) Alber, and the younger brother of the late Elberta (Combs) and the late Geraldine (McGarry). Died Jan . 30, 2023. Mike attended Salem Townline a one-room schoolhouse and worked on the farm with his parents, a habit he continued to a lesser degree well into his retirement. He said he "worked as an electrician to support his farming habit"! Oscar "Mike" served in Korea from January 1953 until Jan 1955, as an Artillery Survey Specialist in the 623rd Field Artillery Battalion. At 24 years of age and happy to be home from Korea he met Joanne Pappas, age 19, on a blind date and they were married September 25, 1955, the couple had just celebrated 67 years!

In April of 1957 Mike completed the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Apprenticeship. Mike was a farmer by birth, self-taught mechanic, carpenter, plumber, roofer, beekeeper, wine maker, pilot, storyteller, machinist, welder and engineer. He was an Army-taught surveyor and a Union taught Electrician. He saw what others could not see, from the sky, in the earth, in metal and in wood. Always making and doing things that others said could not be done. While most people are drawn to either ideas, people or things, Mike understood people, and restored, invented and improved things and explained his ideas usually by drawing a diagram on a napkin.

Mike and Sue threw enormous parties from lobster boils to breakfast on the woodstove in a snowstorm. Mike and Sue were members of the Washtenaw Model T club, the "Washten-Naughties" and had fun getting together and joining in parades. They were also members of the BMW Motorcycle family, and the BMW "Airheads" and had years of adventures on their bike, across the country and the continent, and even across Costa Rica (!!) on BMW's with their friends. When it came time to put the bike away they got out their little Airstream Bambi and continued their adventures. Mike had an answer for everything, there wasn't anything he couldn't do, and he always had a project going on! Mike always had a story to tell, with a beer in hand! There were always folks just dropping by, and usually there was a gang in the shop, because that is where Mike was, doing something interesting!

He is survived by his wife Joanne "Sue", his children, David, Carrie (DeJonghe) and George Albercook, 9 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren, 2 great-great grandchildren.

Visitation for Mike will be Sunday, February 5, from 4:00 PM until 7:00 PM. A graveside service will be 2:30 PM, Monday, February 6, 2023 at Washtenong Memorial Park with Military Honors under the Auspices of the Veteran's Honor Guard of Washtenaw County.

Notes for Shirley Mae Hertler:

Shirley Willitis passed away May 7, 2018 in Ann Arbor. She was born on April 9, 1930 to August and Olive Hertler in Ann Arbor. She graduated from Ann Arbor High in 1948. She met her sweetheart, Bill on Peach Mountain at a corn roast, and they married in 1949. Bill and Shirley lived on Packard St. for over 20 years, raising their family and pets Cookie, Spunky and Butchie. Shirley's attention to her children, family and friends were constant sources of energy and happiness for her. Bill and Shirley enjoyed many gatherings around their swimming pool they built in the backyard. Their semi-annual family reunions were attended by scores of relatives from near and far. Shirley loved her Bridge Club and remained an avid and astute player until the time of her death. She loved her cottage on Base Lake, gardening, tailgating and UofM Football. She loved watching the band walk by playing Hail to the Victors. She loved music of all sorts. She especially enjoyed Christmas time, with Carols, with organ and guitar playing and lots of singing with family and relatives.

Her happiest days at Hillside Terrace were listening to musical performers in the Lounge. She also enjoyed hunting for morel mushrooms, antiquing and her dog Lady. She fed her birds daily next to the woods outside her kitchen window. Shirley and Bill remained happily married for 47 years. They counted their blessings by the large circle of friends they had. They now rest together in eternity and those of us remaining will continue to treasure the joyful memories they created with us.

Her funeral is scheduled for 12 noon Monday, May 14, 2018 at Muehlig Funeral Chapel officiated by Rev. H Kevin Jacobi. The family will receive friends from 10:00 a.m. until the hour of the service. Notes for Marguerite Anne (Margaret) Ronhaar:

Margaret Anne Jedele was called to heaven to join her beloved husband Emerson on Oct. 5, 2015, at the age of 94. She was born on the 4th of July, 1921, in Clover Valley, to John and Elizabeth (Abrahamse) Ronhaar. As a young woman, her parents sold the farm in Clover Valley to the Navy and moved into town. Margaret was a member of the Oak Harbor High School graduating class of 1939. Following high school, Margaret went to work for the phone company as an operator. A young soldier from Michigan, Emerson Jedele, was working at Fort Casey with the Signal Corps, and he was the switchboard operator for the fort. He talked with Margaret on a regular basis and on one of his liberty days, he visited Oak Harbor and looked up Margaret. Margaret introduced Emerson to her parents and her father took an immediate liking to Emerson. Romance ensued and on June 3, 1943, Margaret and Emerson were married. Daughter Coriene was added to the family in 1944.

Emerson was discharged from the service and he moved his young family to Ann Arbor, Michigan, and son Keith joined the family. Emerson worked in Michigan for a time, but returned to Oak Harbor in 1956. He was hired by Whidbey Press as a pressman and bookbinder. Margaret began her career in Oak Harbor when she was hired by Ray Cusworth at Everett Trust and Savings Bank to work as a teller. She advanced through the various positions within the bank and the various mergers, moving from Everett Trust to Pacific Northwest Bank and finally to Wells Fargo. She retired from banking as a secretary with more than 30 years of service.

Margaret and Emerson became lifelong members of Oak Harbor Lutheran Church. Margaret eventually held every office within Oak Harbor Lutheran Church and also taught confirmation class for many years. She also became one of the earliest members of the Stephen's Ministers at Church. She was very active within the community, serving as a longtime member of the Business and Professional Women's Organization. She was even nominated for Citizen of the Year for Oak Harbor. Margaret was a very gifted seamstress, producing tailor quality work. She also was an accomplished organist and pianist. Margaret moved to Mount Vernon six years ago to be near her daughter.

Margaret is survived by her children, Coriene (Donald) DeVries of Sedro Woolley and Keith (Donna) Jedele of San Antonio, Texas; by one brother John "Jim" Ronhaar and one sister Doris Nyhoff, both of Oak Harbor; and one sister-in-law Beatrice Ronhaar of Lynden. He later coached wrestling and taught at Pioneer High, before buying Stein and Goetz Sporting Goods, which would later become the M-Den. Two of Doug's greatest loves were softball and golf. He played fastpitch softball for a number of years before devoting himself to coaching his daughters and countless others. In 1997, Doug was named to the Michigan ASA Softball Hall of Fame for his meritorious service. His love for the game continued into his retirement years as he gained yet another softball family playing near his home in Florida. He loved golf, and spent much of his time on the course with family and friends, whether it was in Ann Arbor, or on his beloved yearly golf trips with his closest friends in Las Vegas. Though his life and business revolved around sports, the true center of his being was his family and friends. He was a man of integrity and generosity, always devoting himself to others. He married Elizabeth Bernadine Bailor 31 Jul 1943 in Comanche Co, Oklahoma. She was born 13 Jan 1920 in Champaign Co, Ohio, and died 20 Dec 2002 in Washington Co, Tennessee.

Notes for Wayne Everett Hanselman:

August 5, 1953 - "It's motoring 'Heaven' to drive on these good roads, - seeing waving, tall, corn fields fall in the same class," were some of the first comments on being "glad to be home" of Major Wayne E. Hanselman, who has completed serving three years in Japan. For his wife, Mrs. Bernadine Bailor Hanselman, it was the first stops in "America's wonderful stores," that thrilled her and six-year-old daughter, Jill, found the ten-cent stores "irresistible" as she did lolly-pops, - the latter were not on the supply list at the post where the Hanselman family lived at Sanida, Japan. Major Hanselman completed his third year of service at that station in July.

The family enjoyed its Japanese stay; found it fascinating but, are very glad to be home. The summer countryside in the States are particularly pleasing for them. They comment, "no matter how large and luscious looking the vegetables grown in Japan Americans never partake of them. They stick to what is found at the post. They had not seen tall fields of corn since they left. The only corn they saw in Japan was grown in small patches and was sweet corn.

Since 1940 Major Hanselman has been in the United States Service. He has a thirty-day leave at the present time before going to his replacement assignment at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. They are guests in the homes of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hanselman at Hardin and Mr. I and Mrs. Emerson Bailor at Rosewood.

The daughter Jill reaches her sixth birthday tomorrow, August 6, and to honor it a party is being planned in the country home of an aunt, Mrs. Paul Jenkins, near Rosewood. Major Hanselman's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Kester, (Pauline Hanselman) of Parkersburg, West Virginia, plan to join them in the Hanselman home on August 15 to spend a week.

Wayne E. Hanselman, 57, 1811 Sundale Road, died at his residence early Wednesday morning July 7, 1976. He was a native of Sidney, Ohio, and had been a resident of Johnson City since 1957. Mr. Hanselman was preceded in death by his father, Harve W. Hanselman. Mr. Hansel was a member of Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church, the North Johnson City Optimist Club and the St. Paris, Ohio, Masonic Lodge No. 355 and was 32nd degree Mason. He was a retired lieutenant colonel of the U.S. Army and was a former member of the Johnson City Elks Lodge.

Survivors include his widow, Bernadine B. Hanselman, two daughters, Jill Hanselman, Atlanta, Georgia and Lisa Hanselman, of the home, the mother Mrs. Amy K. Hanselman, Parkersburg, West Virginia, one sister, Mrs. Pauline Kester, Parkersburg, West Virginia. Morris-Baker is in charge.

Notes for Elizabeth Bernadine Bailar:

Bernadine Bailar Hanselman, 82, of 1811 Sundale Road, Johnson City, Tennessee, died Friday, Dec. 21, 2002 in NHC Health Care. Mrs. Hanselman was a native of Rosewood but lived in Johnson City most of her life. She was the daughter of the late Emerson and Nellie Bailar. She was a graduate of Bowling Green State University and East Tennessee State University in Johnson City. Mrs. Hanselman retired in 1982 from teaching at North Side Elementary School and St. Mary's Catholic School. Mrs. Hanselman was a charter member of Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church, where she had served as a trustee, Sunday school teacher, and a member of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee. She had been a member of the American Business Women's Association, Franklin Chapter, and was voted their "Woman of the Year" in 1993. Mrs. Hanselman was a former member of the Johnson City Business and Professional Women's Club. For many years, she was involved with the literacy program of the Women's Club and the Johnson City Vocational School. She was preceded in death by her husband, Lt. Col. (retired) Wayne Hanselman, in 1976, and a sister, Betty Jenkins.

Survivors include two daughters, Jill Hanselman and Lisa Hanselman, both of Johnson City; one brother, Willis Bailar, of Sidney; three nieces and two nephews.

The family will receive friends today at the Morris-Baker Funeral Home, 2001 Oakland Ave., Johnson City, Tennessee, from 6-8 p.m. Graveside services and burial will be conducted at 11 a.m. Friday in the Cedar Point Cemetery, Pasco, with Rev. 1239. He married Maribeth Patterson 24 Jun 1939 in Washington, D.C.. She was born 09 Dec 1914 in Dayton, Montgomery Co, Ohio, and died 28 Jan 1996 in Milford, Clermont Co, Ohio.

Notes for David Perry Tarbell:

Winston Churchill, England's prime minister, is a handsome, meticulously groomed gentlemen. His complexion is clear and rosy, his face firm and his eyes small beady and bright. That's the impression of the British member of the Big Three gained by Lt. David P. Tarbell, husband of Mrs. Maribeth Patterson Tarbell of 325 Shaw Ave., who was one of the those privileged to hear the prime minister's report to parliament Feb. 26, following his return from the Yalta conference.

Lt. Tarbell, a member of the staff of the judge advocate section for the Oise sector in France, happened to be back in England on business when Churchill was scheduled to make his report. He had been told, he reported in a letter to his wife, who is the daughter of Judge Robert Paterson, formerly of Dayton and new in Washington, D.C., that it would be impossible to get in Commons. "I decided the one chance in a million was worth taking so went down to parliament early Tuesday morning. Stood outside the door for a couple of hours and finally the bobby let me into the building to see the sergeant-at-arms, though he said it was a waste of time. I got through a dozen security posts and finally into the sergeant-at-arms.

"He said of source it was a waste of time and 'my dear sir, you can't imagine the number of terribly important people who are simply besieging me to get it – it will take years to smooth over the hard feelings we've caused since the PM's speech was announced." Not discouraged, however, Lt. Tarbell went to the reception.

Cincinnati - Services for David P. Tarbell, 45, widely known attorney, will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Gilligan funeral home. He died Friday morning July 26, 1957 at Holmes hospital following a heart attack. A native of Georgetown, he was solicitor for Evandale village, director of the City Charter committee, former county prosecutor and in 1951, a special U.S. attorney for the Office of Price Stabilization. Tarbell was associated with the Cincinnati law firm of Waite, Schindell and Bayless at the time of his death.

Mrs. Tarbell is the former Maribeth Patterson, daughter of the late Judge Robert C. Patterson of Dayton and a sister of R. William Paterson, 419 Sandalwood Drive, city commissioner. Surviving are four daughters, Cathy, Nancy, Mary and Patty and two sons, James and Tommy.

Marriage Notes for David Tarbell and Maribeth Patterson:

A wedding of prominent interest here was that of Miss Maribeth Patterson, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Robert C. Patterson of Washington, D.C., formerly of Dayton, and David Perry Tarbell, son of the late Judge and Mrs. James Tarbell of Georgetown, Ohio, which was solemnized at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon June 24, 1939 in the Chapel of Our Lady of Good Counsel in Washington. Ferns and palms and many lighted cathedral tapers were used effectively with white gladioli, lilies and baby's breath in adornment of the altar. The right Rev. Monsignor Michael J. Ready performed the ceremony and organ numbers included the traditional wedding marches of Wayner and Mendelsohn and Schuberts "Ave Maria," "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

Miss Ann McTague of Montclair, New Jersey, attended the bride as maid of honor. Her gown was of Periwinkle blue net made with fitted bodice, full skirt and short puffed sleeves. She wore with it a small hat of American beauty shade adorned with little bows and she carried American beauty roses.

The bride's gown was created with white satin bodice and full net skirt falling into a circular train. It was made over a satin slip. The sleeves were short and puffed and she wore with it a veil which fell to the end of the train and was held to her head with orange blossoms.

She was given in marriage by her father. Her flowers were lilies of the valley and gardenias. Roy Fitzgerald, Jr., attended the bridegroom as best man and the ushers were John F.W. Patterson, brother of the bride, and James Roberr Buchanan of Columbus, a cousin of the bridegroom.

A reception will be held at the Shoreham hotel following the wedding. Mrs. Paterson wore for the wedding and reception a gown of clover pink chiffon made with tucked bodice, full skirt and short sleeves. She wore a corsage of orchids. Mr. And Mrs. Tarbell left for a motor trip to New England and will reside after August 1 in Georgetown. The latter is traveling in linen dress of Persian lime shade and a burnt Sienna linen hat.

Notes for Deborah Jean Kolander:

"Hard working, bright, outgoing, dedicated students." Those are just a few of the adjectives that High School Principal Paul Thibault used to describe Michele Hall and Deborah Kolander, two Saline High School seniors who died Friday afternoon when their car swerved off State Rd. and struck a tree. Their deaths shocked the Saline community and cast a pall over the Saline-Riverview football game as word of their death spread through the crowd last Friday evening. That was to have been Debbie's last performance with the band. She played baritone in the marching band, clarinet in the wind ensemble, and had written the program for the band's presentation of senior members at the game. Michele was also active in the music program at Saline. She was a member of the High School philharmony, and had been a majorette in the marching band for one year. High School Orchestra Director Bob Phillips said that "Michele and Debbie were both outstanding musicians and real leaders in the music program. Debbie was a member of every instrumental ensemble we have at SHS. In each group, she exhibited the kind of leadership which creates excellence. "Michele was one of the leaders in our string program. She, along with three other seniors, were the people instrumental in developing high school string camps. Michele was always ready to step forward and volunteer for extra projects for orchestra. "I have had both Michele and Debbie in class for six years and I've never known two finer young ladies."

Acting Pittsfield Police Chief Frank Pesta said the accident that claimed the two girls' lives occurred about 3:30 Friday afternoon as Kolander was driving north on State Rd. about one-tenth of a mile south of Textile Rd. Pesta said Kolander went off the road on the east shoulder and apparently lost control of the car when she attempted to bring it back onto the pavement. The car, a white Chevy Nova, then slid across the roadway, went into a ditch on the west side of the road and hit a tree. The impact point was at the passenger side door. "She might have overcorrected when she tried to bring it back on the road," said Pesta Monday afternoon. "I don't think there is any evidence of excessive speed, but there is no indication of braking. She may have tried to do all the control with steering. That meant that the car got the full impact when it hit the tree." Michele, the passenger, was pronounced dead at the scene. Debbie was pronounced dead on arrival at University Hospital.

Both of the girls were members of the Saline Chapter of the National Honor Society. Debbie was President Of the group. Debbie was also among six seniors at Saline High who achieved "commended" status in the 27th annual National Merit Scholarship Program. The designation was accorded to the six based upon their performance on the PSAT/NMSQT examination last year. Debbie was a science whiz and had set her sights on the medical program at John Hopkins University in Baltimore. Besides being an outstanding scholar in the top five percent of her class, Michele was also a first class track participant who held several school records. "She was excellent in the long jump and sprints," said Girls Track Coach Joe Schwartz. "She was very interested in the finer points of starting in the sprints, and that's where her intelligence showed. She knew there were right and wrong ways to do it, and she was very interested in learning them'." One of the ways that Michele attempted to hone her skills was through extra work and dedication. "I WILL always remember that when I looked around after practice, when most everyone else was done and gone, Michele and a few other girls would still be taking an extra 8-10 starting out of the blocks," said Schwartz. Michele and Deborah were also remembered in many other ways this week, as teachers, students, and administrators reacted to the news of their deaths. Supt. Norman Katner said, "It's a tragic loss for the school district as well as society at large. These two girls had a great deal to offer our local district, and would have continued to make many contributions to society. Now those contributions are gone, and society as a whole will suffer because of their tragic deaths. "It has had a tremendous impact on the student body," Katner continued. "A loss of two wonderful people is a sobering thing for teenagers to experience, if it teaches us anything it teaches us that life is fragile and that it can be taken away at any time." Thibault agreed. "It's very upsetting. It creates a void that is not easy to fill, particularly when they were such outstanding citizen-scholars. They were so active and did so many things in clubs and organizations, that the school can't help but be thrown off balance when you lose two people like that."

General opinions and impressions of Debbie and Michele from other administrators, teachers, and students echoed Thibault's comments. "They were two of the best students I have taught during my teaching career. They were - extremely intelligent, motivated, and sophisticated people ..." "Trustworthy, versatile, and caring. They valued their education and were always striving to improve ..." "They were capable, efficient students who expected a lot of themselves and weren't afraid to meet those demands ..." "Possessed a sensitivity to others, a sense of humor, and high scholarly goals. They accepted responsibility 'with enthusiasm..." "Exceptional young women whom we all admired. I feel privileged to have worked with them; they touched my life and for that I am grateful. We will all miss them and remember their fun-loving enthusiasm. . . ." They had personal integrity and emotional stability ..." Worked well with others and respected their opinions..."

"Teachers sometimes wait years to have students like Michele and Debbie. I feel fortunate I had the opportunity to teach them and to know them. The immense sense of loss the school and the community feels, I believe, is a reflection of the extraordinary contributions Michele and Debbie made. They accomplished so much in such a tragically brief period of time. They truly knew how to live life—and this, I hope, is the legacy they will leave behind, especially to their classmates. They were two remarkable women." Michele Hall was born in Ypsilanti on June 8, 1964, the daughter of Fred L. and Susan V. Breeman Hall. Her mother died November 11, 1970. Survivors include her father and stepmother, Fred and Loraine Hall of Saline; and one stepbrother, David Johnson of N. Carolina. Funeral services were conducted from the Webb Funeral Home, Spruce Pine, North Carolina. Contributions may be made in her name to the National Honor Society Scholarship Fund.

Deborah Kolander was born in Saline on April 5, 1964, the daughter of David A. and Marilyn J. Tobias Kolander. She is survived by her mother, Marilyn Kolander of Saline; her father and stepmother, David and Virginia Kolander of Grand Forks, North Dakota; two sisters, Julia Kolander of Hays, Kansas and Rebecca Kolander, and two brothers Jedidiah and Jacob Kolander, all of Grand Forks; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Orson E. Tobias of Saline; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kolander of Dexter; great grandmothers. Mrs. Daniel Parsons of Chelsea and Mrs. August Kolander of Dexter. Cremation has taken place. A memorial service was held Tuesday, Nov. 10 at the United Methodist Church with the Rev. Daniel J. Wallace officiating. May 9, 2019 – Bloomington, Indiana – You could call them Indiana University's unintentional All-Americans. Except Kelsey and Haley Harris, identical twins from Carmel, did not become who they are by accident. Track and field? OK, yeah, that was an accident. They went into it "kicking and screaming," according to their father, Bill Harris. The twins liked cross-country well enough. Their Carmel teams ran to state titles in all four years of high school. But they were year-round swimmers, and when time allowed, softball players. They didn't race on the track until they were juniors, and even then didn't produce times to lure college recruiters. Such skepticism did not deter them nor Hoosiers coach Ron Helmer. "I think that just mainly motivated us even more," Kelsey said. "Because we knew what we were potentially capable of, and what could possibly happen. I think coach Helmer knew that, too."

The twins will compete in their final Big Ten Championships together Saturday and Sunday at Iowa. Haley, a senior, is moving on to a PricewaterhouseCoopers internship and accounting career. Kelsey has one college season left in cross-country and outdoor track. The twins come from an athletic family. One brother, Trey, is a freshman runner at Butler, and another, Trevor, 16, was on Carmel's freshman basketball team. They also have a sister, Jenna, 9. The twins' father was a swimmer at Michigan, and both grandfathers were athletes there: Billy Harris was a wide receiver who played in the Rose Bowl, and Doug Horning was a Big Ten wrestling runner-up. An aunt, Kym Horning, was a softball pitcher for Wisconsin. The twins made their own history in the Big Ten. Haley and Kelsey ran second and fourth legs, respectively, for the team that won the 3,200-meter relay at the recent Penn Relays. It was the first time the Hoosiers had ever won a women's relay at the 125-year-old event. Fittingly, they won together. "They were always competitive," Bill Harris said. "Just not with one another." Helmer learned to tell the twins apart from hairstyles — Kelsey wears braids — and personality. Kelsey is outgoing, Haley introspective. The coach conceded he has kept them in different races and training groups because he didn't want them "constantly butting heads." As it turns out, he need not have worried.

He has coached many sets of twins, he said, and they are the first "who were genuinely excited for their sibling's success." When they are on the same team, look out. Their former cross-country coach, Mark Ellington, once organized a kickball game at a preseason camp at Lincoln State Park. Teams were divided by classes, and even though they were freshmen, the twins were going for the win. "It was a lot of fun, but man, they took it seriously," Ellington said. "In the heat of it, there was a lot of yelling and screaming and intensity. They just approach everything they do like they're going to dominate it."

The twins were swimmers on the most dominant dynasty ever, considering Carmel has a record 33 straight state championships. Kelsey never swam at state, but Haley was on the 2015 team that was arguably the best in high school history. In her final swim race, Haley was fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke. The winner: Lilly King. Carmel swim coach Chris Plumb said the aerobic foundation the twins built in the pool enhanced their performance after concentrating on the track. There were autumn weeks when the Harrises did swimming and running workouts on the same day. "They never complained. They went to work every single day," Plumb said. "That's the one thing I remember." He was not the only one noticing the twins' attitude. Haley was the Mental Attitude Award winner at the 2015 state track meet.

The Harrises started running because cross-country and track were the only sports available to sixth-graders in middle school. Instead of spring track, they played softball, in which they were outfielders. They were so fast, in fact, that the coach persuaded the right-handed twins to bat left-handed and become slap hitters. They were always getting on base. Soon after they quit spring swimming, they finished 1-2 in a mile race in 4 minutes, 58.72 seconds and 4:58.99, respectively. As seniors, Kelsey was third in the state in the 800 in 2:13.10 and Haley sixth in the 1,600 in 4:56.79. Yet on a national scale, such times were "pretty ordinary," Helmer said. Here's the thing: The twins knew it. "I just wanted to work as hard as I could and see where it could go," Haley said. "Because in high school, we never committed full-time to running. I think that helped a lot, just doing one sport continuously." Helmer is convinced Haley has a "big breakthrough 1,500 in her" at the Big Ten meet. Her highest conference finish is fifth in last year's indoor mile.

Haley and Kelsey became All-Americans together on the team that finished seventh in the distance medley relay at March's NCAA Indoor Championships. Kelsey was also seventh in the 800, earning her third All-America designation (she was fourth in the relay in 2018). Kelsey has finished second once and third twice at Big Ten meets, and she ranks No. 4 on IU's all-time list at both 800 and 1,500 meters (2:03.89 and 4:18.23). Drop another second in the 800, and she could qualify for next year's U.S. Olympic Trials. There are other runners with the talent to improve as the twins did, Helmer said, if they would approach as they did: be secure in themselves, accept challenges, "and just get up and keep rolling."

The twins have replied emphatically to those who thought they would not become elite runners nor should attend the same college. They pushed each other more than any coach could have. "I think we've been able to form and be our own person here while also remaining as really close friends and teammates," Kelsey said. "Honestly, I don't regret anything. I would do it all over again. "I've loved being her teammate for the last four years. I'm sad that's going to end soon."

She was first and foremost a patient and caring mother, a supporter of her children, a loving caregiver to her grandchildren and the right hand to her husband, John J. Garlinger, for 49 wonderful years. She was born March 16, 1943, in Hanford, California, to Guy R. Clow and Erma Gutekunst Clow. She grew up in the small farm town of Corcoran, Calif., and loved living close to family. A cousin introduced her to John and a few short months later she married her beloved husband on Nov. 9, 1961. She was the office manager to the family land surveying company in San Diego, California, and a member of the genealogical society. She was an avid reader, loved painting, writing, and making porcelain dolls. Her love of knitting for others continued until her health failed. Judy was preceded in death by her parents, Guy and Erma Clow, and one grandson, John Byers.

Notes for John Jackson Garlinger, Jr.:

John Jackson Garlinger Jr., 84, of Bentonville passed away Monday, October 10 in Springfield, Mo. following a traffic accident. He was born April 7, 1932 in Riverside, California to the late John Jackson Garlinger Sr. and Lois Allecia Schooler Garlinger. In his younger years he attended New Mexico Military Institute on a football scholarship, was the New Mexico Golden Gloves state champion and served his country during the Korean conflict. Following discharge, he returned to school at the University of New Mexico. John was especially proud of his achievements as a professional land surveyor, having assisted in many housing developments throughout California and building a successful land surveying company in Southern California with the love of his life, Judith Clow Garlinger, who preceded him. Together for over 49 years, they worked side-by-side both in the business and at home.

In addition to his parents and wife he was also preceded by his sister, Marjorie Watson; his brother, George Garlinger and his grandson, John Byers. John's interest in football never wavered from high school to college, as a member of Army's team and watching whoever was on TV today, he loved watching the game. In fact, games of most sorts. He especially loved playing board games and traveling across the country with his family... and often to visit extended family in the motor home while whistling to big bands, Waylon or Willie on the 8 track. Following his retirement as a professional land surveyor, he continued to enjoy football, fellowship with Elks and his Tuesday night poker club.

Survivors include his daughters, Heidi Scott and Suzy Byers (Robert) of Bentonville and Kathryn Wroten (Michael) of Maine; his brother, Earle Garlinger of Bentonville; grandchildren, Lauryn Garlinger, Grayson Scott (Jaime), Jared Scott and Rebecca Scott, Jack Wroten, Josh Wroten and Camryn Byers; numerous nieces, nephews, associates, poker buddies and dear friends.

He is survived by his children Sarah Jackoboice (John), Daniel Horning (Julie) and Susan Elizalde; grandchildren Ashley Horning Gasper (Daniel), Jill Horning Margulis (Bruce), John Mikel Elizalde and Cecilia Jill Elizalde, nieces and nephews and his devoted special friend, Mary White.

David was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan on March 1, 1929. He was educated in the public systems including Grand Rapids Junior College. He transferred to the University of Michigan with a bachelor of Arts and Doctor of Medicine degree. Following his internship at Mercy Health St. Mary's, he had his residency training in surgery at the University of Michigan and Urology at the University of Kansas. Dave's residency training was interrupted by his service in the US Navy as a Flight Surgeon assigned to the First Marine Aircraft Wing with duty in Korea, Japan and Okinawa and aboard aircraft carriers in the Western Pacific.

Dr. Horning returned to Grand Rapids to practice until his retirement in 1998. He was on the Consulting Staff at St. Mary's Hospital, Butterworth Hospital, Blodgett Hospital, Ferguson-Droste-Ferguson Hospital and Mary Free Bed Hospital and was the Chief of Urology at Butterworth in the late 1960's and at St. Mary's from the early 1970's until his retirement. A sailor, hunter and fisherman, Dave always took time to enjoy outdoor activities with his family and many friends at the Kinne Creek Club. He loved to read, listen to his many jazz CD's and filled his calendar with dinner and play dates with his many friends to Circle Theater, Civic Theater, Broadway Theater and to the University of Michigan performances. He would also be very disappointed if his obituary didn't shout out a big "GO BLUE!!"
