Notes for David Albert Wallenmaier:

The still, worm, tank and the various vessels necessary for distilling alcohol were seized at the home of David Wallenmaier in Brighton township Thursday night May 29, 1919. Mr. Wallenmaier too was taken into custody and has been boarding with Sheriff Miller since that time. In addition to the distilling apparatus there were two barrels upstairs, two barrels in the cellar and one on the first floor, but they were not all filled with the stuff. It took three barrels to bring the stuff to Howell.

The officers of Oakland county were for something in that neighborhood and ran on to the distilling outfit about a half mile from the county line. Sheriff Miller lost no time with two deputies, Tom Driver and George Sargison, in reaching the scene of action. They arrested Mr. Wallenmaier and seized everything in sight and then waited for the Detroit parties to walk into my parlor but they did not walk that night. It is thought that Mr. Wallenmaier is simply a tool in the hands of two Detroit men. The Detroit parties are said to be known and either have been arrested or soon will be.

Just how the concoction is made we do not know but they use raisens and distill the alcohol from the fermented raisens and then make some sort of a drink from that for the thirsty people of Detroit. They must be amateurs in the drinking business to pay good money for such moonshine as that. Yes there was a jug of alcohol seized that had not yet been mixed ready for the market.

56. Immanuel Heinrich⁵ Cook (Christina Catharina⁴ Zahn, Christina Barbara³ Wallenmaier, Christian Jakob (George)², Johann Gottlieb¹) was born 16 Aug 1869 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 24 Oct 1950 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Olive Lydia Wheelock 01 Jan 1891 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Emerson Wheelock and Polly Wilson. She was born 23 Apr 1868 in Bridgewater Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 10 Oct 1932 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Immanuel Heinrich Cook:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

E. H. Cook. Many of the native sons of Washtenaw County have continued their residence within its borders, finding here good advantages and business opportunities, while in the exercise of their native powers they have gained creditable and gratifying success. To this class belongs Mr. Cook, who now follows farming on section 33, Pittsfield Township. He was born in Lodi Township on the 16th of August, 1869, and is of German lineage. His paternal grandfather, John Cook, was born in Germany, and at an early date came to this state, entering land in Washtenaw County and assisting the pioneers in their efforts to reclaim this region for the purposes of civilization.

John Cook's son, Jacob Cook, father of our subject, was born on the old family homestead in Lodi Township, and at the age of twenty-five years was married to Miss Catherine Zahn, who was also born in Lodi Township, while her father, John Zahn, was a native of Germany. As the years passed Jacob Cook engaged quite extensively in farming and stock raising in York Township, where he owned and operated two hundred acres of land. In addition to the tilling of the soil and the production of crops best adapted to the climate he raised stock on a large scale and found this is a profitable source of income. He belonged to the German Lutheran church and he gave his political allegiance to the Republican Party. In his family were two daughters: Mary, the wife of Theodore Feldkamp, by whom he has three children, their family home being in York Township; and Eliza, the wife of Fred Rash, of Ann Arbor, by whom she has three children. E. H. Cook, the only son and the second child, was reared to farm life under the parental roof, giving his father the benefit of his services until eighteen years of age.

He acquired his education in the common schools and afterward worked at farm labor until twenty-two years of age, when he was married to Miss Olive Wheelock, who was born April 23, 1868, and is a daughter of Emmons Wheelock, a native of New York. Her grandfather was one of the pioneer settlers of Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Cook have become the parents of three children: Hazel, born July 25, 1895; Mildred, born April 14, 1900; and Clarence, born September 27, 1904. The home farm is a tract of eighty acres of rich and valuable land devoted to the production of various cereals and also to stock raising. Mr. Cook has recently erected a fine large residence and new outbuildings and in fact has one of the best improved farm properties in his locality. Everything about the place indicates his careful supervision, and he is well known as a practical and progressive farmer, who is winning well merited profit in his labors. In his political views he is an earnest republican, but he has no desire for office. Socially he is a member of Saline lodge, No. 133, A. F. & A. M., and he likewise belongs to Maccabees tent, No. 46, of Saline, in which he has held some offices. He is one of the prominent native sons of the county, his record having ever been in harmony with the history of the family in their identification with the best interests of the county and its substantial growth and improvement.

Emanuel H. Cook, a lifelong resident of this community, died early Tuesday morning Oct. 24, 1950 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Donna Bradbury, of Dexter, following an extended illness. He was born in Scio Township the son of Jacob and Catherine Zahn Cook on August 16, 1869, and on January 1, 1890, he was married to Olive Wheelock, who preceded him in death in October 1932. Mr. Cook was a member of the Methodist church, a life member of Saline Lodge No. 133, F. & A. M., and of Saline Chapter, O. E. S.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Mildred Hoag of Jackson, Mrs. Donna Bradbury of Dexter, and Mrs. Hazel Easton of Saline; one son Arthur; two half-brothers, Fred Koeder of Milan and Theophil Koeder of Illinois; two half-sisters, Mrs. Lida Dierherger of Jackson and Mrs. Amanda Schwartzkopf of Lansing; ten grandchildren and six great grandchildren. One son, Clarence Cook, preceded him in death in 1949. Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 2 o'clock at the Lockwood Funeral Home with Rev. R. R. Feueller, pastor of the Methodist church officiating. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery where grave side services will be conducted by members of the Masonic Lodge of Saline.

Notes for Gertrude M. Rundel:

Gertrude M. Cook, 92, died Wednesday, Feb. 23, 2000 at the Evangelical Home of Saline. She was born October 16, 1907 in Pittsfield Township, the daughter of Wilbur L. and Amelia (Chissus) Rundel. She married Clarence E. Cook and he preceded her in death on May 6, 1949. Mrs. Cook was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Saline and had worked at Universal Die Casting for more than 30 years until her retirement. She attended Cleary College.

She is survived by: one nephew, Eugene Leutheuser of Saline; three great-nephews, Roger, Richard, and Mark Leutheuser; one great-niece, Lisa Leutheuser; and several great-great-nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, Feb. 25 at the First Presbyterian Church of Saline with Rev. Judith Shipman officiating. Burial will take place in Oakwood Cemetery, Saline. Memorial contributions may be made to the church. Envelopes will be available at the Robison-Bahnmler Funeral Home in Saline, where friends may call on Thursday from 5-8 p.m. and at the church on Friday from 10a.m. until the time of the service.

It is simple to remember the first part of a famous quote by 18th-century physician Thomas Fuller: "Charity begins at home." Regrettably, it seems easier for most people to forget the second half of that phrase which carries the true message, "but, should not end there."

One long time Saline resident took this saying to heart. Beginning in the 1980s, she worked tirelessly and anonymously through her attorney, Kallian Liston, to set up a series of endowments that touched many. She began her charitable works within the boundaries of Saline and chose to expand her definition of "home" to Washtenaw County, the state of Michigan and even to other parts of the U.S. The woman who worked zealously to keep her identity secret became known as "The Angel" to many local organizations and it was only with her death on Feb. 23, 2000 that people slowly became aware of just how much Gertrude Cook was indeed, "The Angel." Her story is fascinating; a lesson in love, devotion, frugality, planning, and generosity, driven by a steely sense of purpose. It is also the realization of a dream that was shared by Mrs. Cook and her husband, Clarence.

Linda Ormsby, director of Saline Area Social Service, was a niece of Mrs. Cook and willingly shared some of the family history.

"Aunt Gert was born Gertrude Rundle about 1908," Ormsby says. "Both she and Uncle Clarence were lifelong Salinians. She was raised on the Rundle Farm the stone house on North Maple just south of Textile (on the east side of the road). She grew up there and that is where she lived while she and Uncle Clarence were courting. Her only sister was Martha Leutheuser, the mother of Gene and grandmother of Roger, the branch of the family associated with the restaurant."

An early photograph of Mrs. Cook shows an attractive young woman in a serious pose. A short wavy bob haircut frames her face. The expressive eyes gaze thoughtfully into the camera and the set mouth appears to hint equally at the promise of a smile or the reproof of a frown. She is wearing a light-colored dress or blouse with short capped sleeves and a single strand of pearls. This was Mrs. Cook's favorite portrait.

"Uncle Clarence was the third of five siblings; my mother Donna was the fourth," notes Ormsby. "They lived first out on Bemis Road and then moved in town into a house on Maple Street, the second or third house north of Michigan Avenue. He was a tall, handsome man with a brush-cut long before brush-cuts were popular."

Ormsby was uncertain just when or where the couple met, but it is known that they both attended and graduated from Saline High School. They were about the same age. "When they got married, in the late '20s or early '30s," notes Ormsby, "they moved into a brand new house on Henry Street and Aunt Gert stayed there until she moved into the Evangelical Home for health reasons. Uncle Clarence worked at the Saline Savings Bank (then located at the four-corners in the building just vacated by the TCF Bank). He began as a teller and later advanced to a position as a bank officer. "They were a wonderful couple," remembers Ormsby, eyes glistening. "Uncle Clarence and Aunt Gert didn't have any children of their own but they took care of all the nieces and nephews. They did the right thing at the right time for all the kids."

"There were nine nieces and nephews (in my generation). Aunt Gert and Uncle Clarence always remembered us at Christmas with a gift and each gift was especially chosen for each individual child."

In the summers, the oldest nieces and nephews were treated to long visits at the Cooks' home. "The biggest joy of our lives," Ormsby notes, "was at the end of the day when Aunt Gert allowed us to leave the house and walk up and meet Uncle Clarence on his way home. At times we also got to tour the bank but I didn't realize until much later that the boys actually were permitted inside the safe! The girls weren't allowed to do that," she adds with a smile.

The Cooks were a social couple and had friends throughout the community. Mrs. Cook stayed at home, tending the house and her flower gardens. Mr. Cook was a member of the Masonic Lodge and was a Past Master of that organization. He also served on the Saline Board of Education. At the time, a few people wondered why Mr. Cook would want to be on the school board since the couple didn't have any children. The simple answer was that Mr. and Mrs. Cook both cared about children, whether they were from the immediate family or the greater community.

Ormsby fondly recalls how the Cooks enjoyed interacting with the nieces and nephews and how they were always on hand to see any performances, music recitals or presentations. Gertrude and Clarence Cook were members of the Federated Church which is now the First Presbyterian Church at the corner of Michigan Ave. and Hall Street.

Touring the country was also one of the Cooks' favorite past times. They traveled to Colorado and also throughout the east coast states. "They had one of the first Nash Ramblers with the backseat that was a pull-down bed," remembers Ormsby. "They drove it on their vacations and we kids loved to climb in the back when they came out to the farm." The Cooks were frequent visitors to the farm where Ormsby grew up. "They came out almost weekly to visit and sometimes they brought us gifts and souvenirs," says Ormsby. "They were just a special, special couple. They were the perfect aunt and uncle. They did so much for us, but didn't try to replace our parents."

The Cooks also helped each individual family if they were in need. This did not run to financial support but more to sage advice and emotional assistance that permitted the families to maneuver past and over particular bumps in the road. Once the family was back on track, the Cooks recognized that it was time to step back and let go.

"I remember once," says Ormsby, "Aunt Gert and Uncle Clarence came out to the farm on a Sunday. After we ate, my dad and Uncle Clarence went into the kitchen and closed the door on the rest of us. Uncle Clarence spent the next hour or so helping my dad prepare to join the Masons."

"When we graduated from high school, we each received a final gift from Uncle Clarence and Aunt Gert. Again, it was a gift especially chosen for each of us and we knew it would be the last one, but it held special meaning." This final gift was really a rite of passage that meant each recipient was then considered an adult by the Cooks.

At one point, Clarence and Gertrude Cook left town on what has become known in the family as the "Mystery Trip." No one knew where they had gone or why. When they returned, the family discovered that the Cooks had traveled to another where Mr. Cook had taken classes to become a certified auctioneer. From that point on, they teamed up on weekends to conduct auctions. Mr. Cook was the auctioneer, while Mrs. Cook was the bookkeeper, working behind the scenes. "They did well in the auction business," reports Ormsby "but Uncle Clarence remained at his bank job and (auctioneering) was more of a hobby. Uncle Clarence enjoyed public speaking and was very good. With his ability to work and talk to all types of people, this was a natural position for him."

Suddenly, the Cooks' storybook existence was thrown into chaotic disarray. Mr. Cook was diagnosed with what was then called "malignant hypertension" or uncontrollable high blood pressure. During the 1940s and 1950s the medications and treatments now used to control and manage this disease were not yet available. Unfortunately, the worst occurred and Clarence Cook passed away at the age of 42 leaving Mrs. Cook on her own for the first time in her life.

"Aunt Gert took his death very, very hard," relates Ormsby, "but she wouldn't talk about it. She internalized everything and really became a recluse after Uncle Clarence died. She never changed a thing in the house while she remained there and for the first five or 10 years following his death, she went to the cemetery every single day."

Ormsby notes that the situation was both touching and sad—her loyalty and dedication was heart-warming as well as heart-breaking. Mrs. Cook seemed to withdraw from social acquaintances and activities, even some family gatherings. The relatives were concerned and attempted to involve Mrs. Cook in activities. For the most part all efforts failed. Even telling her that her late husband would not have wanted her to withdraw from the world didn't sway this determined woman. Ormsby likens the situation to that of a person frozen in time. Clarence Cook had been her life; the captain of the team. And now that dynamic team of two became a body of one.

Mrs. Cook was not left independently wealthy and began her working career in her late 30s or early 40s. At a time when many people reach the half-way point in their careers, Gertrude Cook began her journey into the work world. She secured employment at the old Universal Die Cast plant off Monroe St. and remained with the company for the next several years as Universal evolved into Hoover Universal and then Johnson Controls.

According to her nephew, Eugene Leutheuser, those that might remember her today may recall that little, gray-haired lady on E. Henry St. out tending her flowers or getting after the squirrels. Not a leaf came down in the fall but that Gertrude was out there after it. She was a meticulous yard-keeper.

As the surviving team member, Mrs. Cook seemed to focus on a scattering of areas that she had always loved and shared with Mrs. Cook. Children, music, nature and helping people to help themselves became the nucleus of her plan. The lone lady from the little house on Henry Street proved to be a master planner. She planned for the future. The exact amount of time and energy she expended on the development of her endowment fund will never be known, but by the 1980s an overall program had been designed and set into motion. And the watchword for this individual effort was anonymity, with a capital "A."

"Anonymity was so important to Gertrude," recalls Liston, "that special steps were taken to get her projects done, leaving no trail, but taking back to her the responses and the visual satisfaction of seeing through photographs and videos and knowing that things were getting done."

Liston adds: The kids at Mott Children's Hospital wanted to create a visual image of just who this special person might be, and it was they who came up with the image of the Angel. "The concept fit perfectly, so we used 'The Angel' as a quick reference to the anonymous donor in all the plans and projects."

Through all of her planning, Mrs. Cook never forgot Clarence Cook or the team they embodied. Liston notes in reference to her various donations, "She did not want recognition until after her death and then, she wanted the recognition to include her deceased husband."

Mrs. Cook was both a friend and client to Liston. According to him, she chose to look "...to the community of people at large and pursued interests that satisfied her. She fed people, she made their lives more spiritual or enjoyable, she reached out to many charities and created her own particular plans and had me get them accomplished."

Even when poor health necessitated her leaving her beloved home and moving into the Evangelical Home, Mrs. Cook continued planning the legacy on behalf of herself and Mr. Cook. Progressive illness did not deter this remarkable woman. She worked her plan from her wheelchair and her bed, even to the last.

"When she became physically unable to do things herself, she would give directions and view the results through videos and in other ways at the Evangelical Home," reports Liston with a note of awe and a healthy dose of respect. "And in that way, she remained active and connected with people and the things she wanted to see done, but all the while enjoying her fiercely guarded privacy."

The largest, most visible project financed by Mrs. Cook is how part of the Evangelical Home.

"Gertrude's funding produced the elegant greenhouse/sunroom you see in the F. Wing," Says Liston. "Not only did she build the sunroom, she financed the woodworking you see along the eastern wall. Gertrude's gift also purchased all of the 'stand ftg gardens' which look like little plant beds on rollers and the fountain in the corner. Gertrude was creating a space she could go to use and also for others to enjoy. Many people have been using the sunroom as a place to take their family members to have visits and other things like birthday parties and special events."

Mrs. Cook considered flowers "friendly spirits." Even when she could no longer see flowers, she had them near her and could smell their fragrance. The greenhouse/sunroom allows others to commune with those friendly spirits and perhaps it's not too implausible to believe that a new spirit has joined the others sometime during the last 14 months.

"Trying to get Gertrude to spend money on herself was a chore," remarks Liston. "She denied and refused everything. She repeatedly said that being in the Saline Evangelical Home was a good place to be and they took care of her needs. That was enough; that was all she wanted for herself. There was no forcing this lady."

So it is not surprising that it was Mrs. Cook who funded a small cash gift given to all of the employees at the Evangelical Home. Each gift was accompanied by a printed card. The exact words were not Mrs. Cook's but the context and sentiments were. The note read in part: "Please accept and enjoy this gift to you in the spirit in which it is given; on behalf of the collective spirit of all the residents of the Evangelical Home....You work with us and help us in so many very personal ways. You show us kindness, sometimes even when we are not being so kind....You try to keep us engaged, involved and active....you give us a measure of dignity and respect." And we do sense that. And we do appreciate that; each of us in our own way. We thank you." This was probably as close as she came to letting anyone know she was involved with the gifts because the card was signed, "Your friends," meaning all the residents of EVH.

The Saline Schools were a natural stop along Mrs. Cook's endowment path. After all, the schools involved children, music and an agriculture program. Bob Phillips, Saline orchestras' director and founder of Fiddlers Philharmonic, was one of the staff members consulted at the schools. He and the rest of the music staff were told only that there was an anonymous donor who wanted to fund projects for youth in Saline. In conversations and discussions with Liston, many ideas were examined in an attempt to decide on a project that would touch the greatest number of students. The group finally settled on one of Mrs. Cook's original ideas: the creation of a music library resource that would be available to the entire community. Again, several locations were considered and after talking with the music staff and the Saline Music Parents Association, the school system seemed the ideal place to house such a library.

"Gertrude's contribution put new music resources into the hands of teachers at every public school, at every level," says Liston. "Some of the things were hard items like instruments used in the elementary schools, and some of the things were in the form of music resources that go far beyond anything anyone would expect to see at a middle school or a high school."

Since February of 2000, Saline students have had access to the music library and instruments. However, a portion of the endowment has been put aside to allow for expansion of the library in the future. Eventually Phillips was made aware that Mrs. Cook loved fiddling as well as other forms of music and live performances. The Fiddlers were not strangers to the Evangelical Home, but four or five years ago they received a request to move some of their performances from the center of the building to a certain dining room. At the time, Phillips and the Fiddlers were only told that "the donor" could hear the performances from this location. The performances were well received and a donation was made to Fiddlers that helped out with projects and travel expenses. A later contribution allowed Phillips to realize a dream to purchase electric, acoustic guitars.

"Well," responds Phillips, this was a dream come true. The guitars are still being used now. They made an incredible difference in being able to amplify the group and keep the acoustic sound!" As an offshoot of the Fiddlers performances, a music outreach program was started.

Using monies provided by Mrs. Cook, Pam Phillips, Bob's wife and Fiddlers' business manager, volunteered to coordinate scheduling and work with the music staff so that groups from the bands, orchestras, choirs and Fiddlers performed at the EVH and Mott Children's Hospital. "The various music groups played many times over a two year period for those institutions," notes Pam Phillips. Working with the Saline Music Parents, a state of the art outfit of recording equipment for the school resulted from Mrs. Cook's kindness.

"This is used to record every concert on CD," says Pam Phillips. "Many students also come in to record audition tapes to be sent with applications for music camps, colleges and scholarships."

The Saline High School horticulture Award is also a direct result of Mrs. Cook's largess.

The award was established in 1999. Each year, two seniors receive a check for $1,000 at Senior Awards Night. The qualifications for application are minimal. Because Mrs. Cook so enjoyed nature, "there just has to be a grower element to the Horticulture Award, explains Liston. "This is in recognition of present achievement and accomplishments with horticulture."

According to the attorney, the award is aimed at "those kids who are showing the love of growing things; in particular flowers, but it could be crops, it could be a specialty, it could be ornamentals. "This is not a scholarship; it is an award," he stresses. "There are no strings attached. It doesn't matter what your grade point is. We don't even ask. It doesn't matter what your future plans are: we already know. (The recipients) are going to be out there in the dirt in some capacity for the rest of their lives."

The Saline District Library received funds and according to Director Leslee Niethammer, she and the Library Board decided to divide the amount received in two and earmarked each half for different projects. "We used one half to enhance our music and video collections," notes Niethammer. "It would be impossible to name all of the tapes and CDs that resulted from this generous gift. However, as an example, we purchased two audio series, How to Listen and Understand Great Music and How to Listen and Understand Opera. "We literally added hundreds of CDs of all types of music and many videos including several Broadway shows. The endowment allowed the Youth Department to begin a collection of pop youth CDs and we purchased a multi-media computer with head phones so patrons can come to the Library and listen to music."

The second half of the bequest was used to improve the woodland trails that adjoin the library to the south. "In 1998, we were able to work with a group of students from the U-M School of Natural Resources to improve the trails," reports Niethammer. This included putting up the entrance sign and other markers along the path. The students designed orientation brochures for walkers to use and coloring books for children. Last year, Niethammer and the board called on U-M again. This time it was a different group and a different project.

"The students concentrated on developing trail aids for people with visual difficulties that cover the first half of the trail," says Niethammer. "This time brochures and audio tapes were produced. Using a brochure read by a friend, a person with limited vision can still enjoy the walk through the trail and is told what to 'look' for by feeling, listening and smelling. The audiotapes serve the same purpose.

A plaque on a large, pink-tinged boulder at the entrance of the trail is inscribed: "The Sensory Trail is made possible by the generosity of Gertrude and Clarence Cook." According to Niethammer, in recent months, the Library has been recognized statewide for its innovative woodland trail system. "Without the donation from the Cooks, our trail system would still be in its infancy today," says Niethammer.

Space and privacy does not allow for the publication of every person or organization touched by the generosity of Gertrude and Clarence Cook. Liston compiled a, "summary of gifting" and this six-page document records more than 40 organizations or individuals who received single or multiple gifts during the last 15-20 years. The scope of this team effort is even more staggering when the bottom line is read: the total funds allocated to the various organizations exceeded a half million dollars.

Perhaps the most challenging part of the assignment for Liston was concealing and preserving "The Angel's" secret identity. For the most part he was incredibly successful but in some cases he needed assistance. As a result, a very small group of people, sworn to secrecy, helped Liston facilitate several of Mrs. Cook's projects. Bob and Pam Phillips were members of this elite group. After some of the music programs were started, Liston introduced Bob and Pam to Mrs. Cook. "When the Fiddlers or one of the orchestra groups performed at the EVH, Bob would go to her room and visit for a minute before or after the performance," remembers Pam Phillips. "As her health worsened, music events were videotaped so she could see them in her room. Once, on a good day, Kallian took Gertrude for a drive and visited with Bob at our home. Just these small things brought a smile to her face. She had proof of what she was helping to accomplish."

About five years before Mrs. Cook's death, Ormsby, as director of Saline Area Social Service, found her organization the recipient of money from an anonymous donor. "Every few months, a check for Social Service would arrive from Kallian's office. I didn't know who the donor was. Very few strings came with the checks. The money was to be used to help people where Social Services knew the need existed. No reports or audits were requested. "The donor trusted that we would use the funds wisely. Occasionally, a check would come with a specific purpose attached. One check was used to help children with musical needs." That single requirement allowed Ormsby and her staff to purchase instruments, lessons, music books and uniforms where needed.

"I was always amazed at the generosity of this unknown benefactor," smiles Ormsby. "I thought about who this person might be, but I noticed that the checks were issued from a bank in Cincinnati, and I never, connected Aunt Gertrude with an out-of-state bank." Eventually, Ormsby began to have suspicions as to the identity of the donor. "But," she maintains, "I did not know for sure, until the day of her funeral. When it was revealed that Aunt Gert was the person so many of us knew as 'The Angel,' it brought the family closer together. "There was not a word of disappointment or reproach from any family member." "Isn't it wonderful," muses Ormsby with a sense of pride, "how someone could be so unselfish when it came to giving?"

And Ormsby was not alone in this discovery. As the chairman of the renovation committee for the First Presbyterian Church, Taylor Jacobsen knew about money that an unidentified donor had given for remodeling and a new organ as well as funds given to the church's Youth Ministry. Liston had worked closely with Jacobsen and his art students who designed the Horticulture Award Certificates. "But honestly," says Jacobsen, "I didn't know who the donor was until the day of the funeral. I still find the number and variety of projects Mrs. Cook supported over the years absolutely amazing."

What a remarkable story about an exceptional couple and an extraordinary woman. It would have been interesting to hear the conversations that took place in that "little house on Henry Street," to know what transpired between this devoted couple. Somewhere a seed was planted; a seed that Mrs. Cook lovingly nurtured for 50 years. That small seed blossomed into a unique legacy that is both a testament to a very special team and a benefit to current and future generations.

"She was out there in the community, working her plans to the last, pulling for a team that hadn't been together as a team for more than 50 years. "On her desk, at her home was a motto," notes Liston. "It went something like this: I'm only one person but I can make a difference. If I make a difference, maybe others will, too."

Marriage Notes for Wesley Dietiker and Marian Hauser:

The marriage of Sgt. Marian Hauser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hauser, of Buffalo, New York, and Sgt. Wesley Carleton Dietiker, son of Mrs. Earl Dietiker and the late Mr. Dietiker of Saline, Michigan, took place in the Methodist Church Chapel in Rockville, Maryland, in a most impressive ceremony held December 5, 1945 at 4 p. m. Both were in uniform and unattended. The Rev. Eden, pastor of the church, officiated. Later, a large reception was given near Warrenton, Virginia, at Weston, the beautiful country home of the Misses Constance and Charlotte Nourse, which dates back to 1753. The huge 26-room mansion was aglow with soft white candlelight in every room. The bridal couple were greeted by about 100 guests before the huge log fire in the front parlor. The bride was lovely her uniform being adorned with a beautiful corsage of yellow roses. 'Miss Liza' who has served Weston for almost 80 years, assisted in serving a most delicious wedding dinner. A very large and beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride. The couple left for a short honeymoon trip in the Great Smokies.

The bride is a graduate of Buffalo High School and also of the University of that city. She taught in New York schools for several years before joining the WAC. She has been engaged in Intelligence Research in the same office in which Sgt. Dietiker is located. Sgt. Dietiker is a graduate of Saline High School and received his A. B. Degree at Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti, Michigan in a pre-law course. He is a member of the Chi Delta Fraternity there. He taught school in the Royal Oak High School for five years. He was engaged in technical research work for the Cadillac Motor Co., for a year before enlisting December 11, 1942. Sgt. Dietiker received his basic training at Camp Crowder, Missouri, following which he was assigned to Intelligence Research work near Warrenton, Virginia. He is a member of the famous 2nd Signal Service Battalion, parts of which are stationed in many corners of the world and which received a Presidential Citation for faithful service during the most critical times of the war. Sgt. Marion is at Camp Dix, New York, this week receiving her honorable discharge after which Sgt. and Mrs. Dietiker will be at home to their friends at Warrenton, Virginia.

She was born 08 Sep 1889 in Michigan, and died 29 Aug 1972 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Julius Theodore Feldkamp:

Saline, Michigan, Feb. 12, 1932 - A lone robber who held up a Saline grocery store and then marched the proprietor, deputy sheriff and two other persons up the street and into another grocery store where he staged a second holdup was being sought Friday by Washtenaw county deputies and state police. Shortly after 7 o'clock Thursday night the robber entered the first grocery store and at the point of a revolver ordered the proprietor to throw up his hands. The proprietor, Julius Feldkamp, did so quickly. Turning to the stove in one end of the store, the bandit saw three other men. One was Deputy Sheriff Melvin Alber. The others were Mr. Alber's father, J. A. Alber and a vagrant who had entered the store to get warm.

All four men were ordered to lie down on the floor while the robber scooped about $30 from the cash register. Then he ordered his prisoners to stand up and quietly herded them out of the door and down the street, forcing them to turn into the second grocery establishment. Here he lined the four men and Fred Gruenwald and Waldo Gross, clerks, up against the wall while he emptied the cash register of $25.38. He then turned and walked out of the store and disappeared. He was described as being about 35 years old and about five feet six inches tall.

Marriage Notes for Hazel Cook and Oscar Weber:

Mrs. Hazel Easton and Oscar Weber, both of Saline, were united in marriage Friday evening, Nov. 26, 1954, at the home of the bride's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Bersuder. To the strain of the wedding march from Lohengrin, the bridal party took their places before the fireplace, beautifully decorated with yellow and white mums. Harold Easton of Tecumseh gave his mother in marriage. Rev. Alvin Siemsen performed the double ring ceremony. Two songs, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung during the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bradbury of Dexter, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, attended the couple. The bride was beautifully gowned in an antique rose nylon and taffeta street length dress with black accessories. She wore a rhinestone and pearl choker, matching earrings and bracelet and a corsage of white rosebuds. Mrs. Bradbury wore a teal blue, crepe street length dress with black accessories and a corsage of white mums.

A reception followed the ceremony and the punch was served by Marjorie Bradbury, a niece of the bride. A buffet lunch was served. Mrs. Lee Ormsby, Norfolk, Virginia, another niece of the bride, presided at the coffee service. Mrs. Clarence Cook and Mrs. Martha Dietiker cut the wedding cake. Others assisting with the serving were Mrs. Loren Bersuder and Mrs. Hazel Easton. Linda Kay Easton, granddaughter of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. The couple spent a weekend trip in Lansing and Kalamazoo after which they are residing at 109 North Lewis Street. They expect to go South at a later date. Mrs. Weber chose for traveling a light navy blue suit with burgundy accessories and she wore her wedding corsage.

Philip A. Luetke, 85, of Sylvania, died July 13, 2008, at Lutheran Village of Wolf Creek. Until he semi-retired 20 years ago, he was owner of his own advertising-public relations business in downtown Toledo for more than 30 years. Earlier, he worked in the newsrooms of The Toledo Blade and The Toledo Times; as director of promotions and publications at the Owens-Illinois glass container plant in Bridgeton, New Jersey; Sports Information director at the University of Toledo; and account executive at the former Fournoy & Gibbs public relations firm. He also served as executive secretary of the Toledo Dental Society and taught journalism, public relations and English courses at UT and Stritch High School. A lifetime resident of the Toledo area, he grew up as a preacher's kid from Zion Lutheran Church in the old Lenk's Hill neighborhood of the near south end. He attended Trinity Lutheran grade school and graduated from Libbey High School and UT, where he was editor of the Campus Collegian student newspaper. He was a veteran of World War II, serving nearly three years with the 15th Air Force in Italy. Phil was the author of two books about Lenk's Hill and the other neighborhoods near downtown Toledo. He made frequent presentations to local audiences about life during the Great Depression of the 1930s and wrote a monthly column on the topic for the Sylvania Advantage newspaper. He appeared in several "Toledo Stories" programs on public television about the city's ethnic heritage. He was also a regular contributor to the "Reader's Forum" of The Blade. He was a former president of the University of Toledo Alumni Association, a recipient of the University's "Blue T" award, and a member of the Golden Alumni steering committee. He was also active in the Toledo Post American Legion, the 483rd Bomb Group Association, and other local organizations.

He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Wilma (Racker); daughter, Mary (Thomas) Fairlie of Temple, Texas; sons, Mark (Sandy) of Sylvania and Philip of Ft. Wayne, Indiana; sister, Mary (John) McGowan of Toledo; grandchildren Trinity (David) Gawron and Molly Luetke; and great-granddaughter, Sophia Gawron. He was preceded in death by his parents, the Rev. George and Mary (Zahn) Luetke; sister, Irmgard Diehl; brothers Paul and Nathaniel, and in-laws, Dietrich and Margaret Racker.

According to his wishes, visitation will be held at Foth-Dorfmeier Funeral Home, 3815 Sylvania Avenue, on Thursday, July 17, from 11 a.m. until a 1 p.m. service for family and close friends. An interment service with military honors will follow at Ottawa Hills Memorial Park. The family is grateful for the staff at Lutheran Village and Hospice of Northwest Ohio for their loving care. Memorial donations may be made to the University of Toledo Foundation or the charity of the donor's choice.

Notes for Wilma M. Racker:

Wilma M. (Racker) Luetke passed away peacefully on February 17, 2011, in Lutheran Village at Wolfe Creek at the age of 87. Wilma was preceded in death by her husband, Philip Luetke, and her parents Dietrich and Margaret Racker. She is survived by her daughter, Mary (Thomas) Fairlie of Temple, Texas; sons, Mark (Sandy) of Sylvania and Philip of Ft. Wayne, Indiana; grandchildren, Trinity (David) Gawron and Molly (David) Datson; and great granddaughters, Sophia and Maggie Gawron. Wilma was born on June 28, 1923, in Bremen, Germany. She and her mother immigrated to the United States in 1924 to join her father in Toledo, where he and two of his brothers had found work. Like many German families of the time, they settled in the Lenk's Hill neighborhood, where Wilma attended St. Petri Lutheran School and Robinson Junior High. After a move to West Toledo, Wilma attended DeVilbiss High School, where she graduated in 1941. She attended the University of Toledo and was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She graduated in 1945.

She met her future husband Philip at Utah -- the two dated and then corresponded for nearly two years while he served in Europe during World War II. They were married on November 24, 1946. Wilma's main focus was raising three children, but she returned to the University in the late 60s to earn a specialist degree in elementary education. She then worked for a number of years at Zion and Holy Cross Lutheran schools. She was an active member of Zion for nearly 50 years and enjoyed singing in the choir and volunteering for the Ladies Aid Society. Wilma and Phil also maintained close relationships with many friends made at Utah, particularly Wilma's card club and "The Group" -- couples that included the Johnsons, Siemens, Kellers and Davises. In 1995, Wilma and Phil gave up their house on Belmar Avenue in West Toledo and moved to a condo at Stonehenge in Sylvania to be closer to their family. They became appreciative audience members of the Cassandra Ballet, and avid fans of the Cougarettes and Cougar women's basketball at Southview high School.

Visitation will be held at Foth-Dorfmeier Mortuary, 3815 Sylvania Avenue, on Sunday, February 20, from 3 to 6 p.m. Funeral services will be Monday, February 21, at 1 p.m. at Corpus Christi University Parish, 2955 Dorr Street, followed by a private entombment service at Ottawa Hills Memorial Park. The family is grateful for the staff at Lutheran Village and Hospice of Northwest Ohio for their loving care. Memorial donations may be made to Hospice of Northwest Ohio or the charity of the donor's choice.

Notes for Jeffrey Richard Bullerman:

Jeffrey Richard Bullerman, age 62, of Marysville, died peacefully June 26, 2019 at home after an extended illness, surrounded by those who knew and loved him so deeply. Jeffrey was born February 18, 1957 in Fort Wayne, Indiana to the late Richard "Dick" and Sheila Logan Bullerman. In 1959, the Bullerman family moved to Marysville when Jeff's father was relocated to manage Stocksdale's Supermarket. Jeff would later assist his father in the basement of the store with soda bottle returns as was the case back in the 1960's. As a youth, he grew up in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, where he attended grade school and developed faith in Jesus Christ. A 1975 graduate of Marysville High School, Jeff was a longtime fixture in the men's accessories department at the former Weiss Department Store in downtown Marysville and later worked for Scholastic Book Fairs, MAC tools and Signstrut. He was an avid sports lover and participated in baseball, basketball and downhill skiing. A devoted Buckeyes fan, he enjoyed supporting Ohio State both at the games and being a "armchair coach" in front of the television set at home or at friends' homes. Jeff also had a consuming passion for music, so very insinuated by his collection of vinyl and cd's in addition to concert voyages to see the likes of David Bowie, Pink Floyd, Todd Rudgren, Joe Walsh, Steely Dan, Kiss, Bad Company and the Rolling Stones. He also enjoyed the epic masters such as The Beatles, Paul McCartney and Wings, War, Johnny Cash, Edgar and Johnny Winter, Crosby Stills Nash and Young, BB King, Eric Clapton, Jeff Beck and Jimmy Page among many others. He continued throughout his life to open himself to many new music and art venues as well. Jeff also had a talent and passion for photography. He was a sincere and creative soul with a fighting spirit and outlook, as well as an honest appraiser of life itself. He enjoyed giving others "the business" in a humorous fashion. He fiercely loved life and fought to live it along with those he loved.

Jeff will be greatly missed, loved and remembered by his wife of fifteen years, Sarah Ellen McGowan of Marysville; his brother, Bruce (Regina) Bullerman of Plain City; his niece and nephews, Carolyn Rose (Casey Castenir) McGowan, Corey Bullerman, Benjamin Baine and Nicholas (Elaine) Baine; a brother-in-law, John (Mary) McGowan of Fairview Park; a sister-in-law, Mary Rose McGowan (Larry) Baine of Michigan; and other relatives and friends.

Jeff's family would like to thank Memorial Hospital, the OSU Wexner Center, the James Cancer Clinic, the Martha Morehouse Outpatient Care and most especially, Loving Care Hospice, as well as all who have compassionately supported him through this last journey of Jeff's life. A memorial service to celebrate his life will be held at a later date. Memorial contributions may be directed toward Loving Care Hospice or a charity of choice or by simply making somebody laugh and smile. Marriage: 2004

162. Dorothea Elizabeth (Dorothy)⁶ Zahn (Samuel Gottlieb⁵, Johann Gottlieb⁴, Christina Barbara³ Wallenmaier, Christian Jakob (George)², Johann Gottlieb¹) was born 10 Mar 1919 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 05 Mar 1995 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Robert James Foster 09 Aug 1941 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Keron Foster and Mary Brown. He was born 09 Jul 1920 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 04 Mar 2008 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Dorothea Elizabeth (Dorothy) Zahn:

In her early twenties, Dorothy Elizabeth Zahn enrolled into The Hamilton College of Business, in downtown Ann Arbor. It was there that she would learn basic office skills, such as typing and short-hand. For a period of time, she worked as an office clerk for a local business in downtown. With the desire to be closer to her young children, she decided to leave her job. She would, however, continue her career from home.

With her decision to work from home, Dorothy became a typist. Most of her clients were students of the University of Michigan, working on their doctoral dissertations. However, on occasion she would also work for aspiring authors. Along with turning handwritten manuscripts into type, she would also provide editorial suggestions, and creative input. One of her most notable clients was the author Donald Hall, a protégée of the famous poet Robert Frost (who briefly taught at the University of Michigan, in the 1920's). So appreciative of her work, Donald Hall would go on to credit Dorothy's input, in his book titled Life Work.

Upon his return from the war, Robert Foster would find employment as a mill man, at Fingerle Lumber Company – located on the edge of downtown Ann Arbor, just eight blocks from his home. It was here that he would spend the remainder of his career, crafting custom pieces of finish trim for homes, as well as building pews for local churches. He would retire from the profession when he was in his early 60's.

It was in their retirement that Robert and Dorothy would fill their days with such activities as golfing, and spending time with their grandchildren – Kevin, Jill, Jennifer and Jeff, during the warm summers at the family cottage on North Lake. It too was also built by K. Fred Foster. Working side by side, an addition was later built by both K. Fred and Robert. It was in the early spring of 1995 that Dorothy would take ill, with complications from diabetes. After a fulfilling and cheerful life, that began on a rural farm in Dexter, she would peacefully pass away at nearly the age of 76, on March 5, 1995.

Notes for Robert James Foster:

Robert Foster was K. Fred's and Mary's fourth child. Along with his four other siblings, he grew up on the edge of downtown Ann Arbor, and attended Ann Arbor High School, located on the corner of State Street and Huron Street. Always busy, at the age of twenty Robert was given one of his first jobs, as a gas station attendant at Liberty Gulf Service. The following year he became a millworker for O.E. Thompson & Sons, in Ypsilanti. In the years following, he would hold such positions as a factory worker, and an assembler for Ford Motor Company – traveling with a group of fellow workers every day, from Ann Arbor to Detroit. In his early twenties, Robert would meet a girl named Dorothy Zahn. She was a farmer's daughter – growing up just a few miles outside of Ann Arbor, in the village of Dexter. Dorothy Zahn was born on March 10, 1919, to Samuel G. Zahn and Olive E. Gross. She was the youngest of the couple's two daughters. Her mother Olive would pass away when she was only 11 years old. She would be left alone on the farm with her father, and sister Gertrude.

Robert and Dorothy were eventually engaged, and the couple was married on August 9th, 1941. They would move into one of the homes that K. Fred Foster had built – located at 547 Sixth Street, in Ann Arbor. Situated on the Old West Side of Ann Arbor, it was the perfect place to start a family. Less than a year later, Dorothy become pregnant with the couple's first child. Over the years, they would raise two children together:

Judith Louise – born October 29, 1942

James Robert – born July 3, 1946

It was soon after the birth of their daughter Judith (Judy), that the nation was thrown into a state of turmoil, as the United States would enter World War II. It was within a year or two of the start of the war, that Robert would be drafted into the Army, to fight in the European campaign, against the Germans. Serving as a communications officer, he would go on to fight in the bloodiest battle of the war, known as the Battle of the Bulge – a major German offensive that would claim the lives of 19,000 American soldiers. Robert would survive. He returned to Ann Arbor in 1945. Shortly after, the couple gave birth to their second child, James Robert Foster.

It was in 1953, that Robert and Dorothy would buy a second house. Purchased for the price of $7,500, it was located at 714 West Madison Street, and sat adjacent to the back of their property. It was a historic, small one-bedroom home. It would primarily serve as a rental property throughout the years – most often to students and faculty of the University. Their son James would briefly live there in the early 1980's.

Robert would survive without Dorothy for another 13 years. His elder years were spent along side his dog Sam. From the small woodshop tucked away in the corner of his basement, he would toil with small carpentry projects, such as door knockers and lawn ornaments – his pieces usually being given away as gifts, to family and friends. It was in the morning hours of March 4, 2008, that Robert would sit alone in his favorite living room chair, adding the finishing touches of paint detail to one of his projects. Doing what he loved most, it was then, in the quiet of his own home, that Robert Foster would peacefully pass away of old age. He was 87 years old.

Robert James Foster of Ann Arbor, Michigan, age 87, passed away peacefully at his home on March 4, 2008. He was born July 9, 1920 in Ann Arbor, MI, the son of K. Fred and Mary (Braun) Foster. He enjoyed over 50 years of marriage with his wife, Dorothy (Zahn), deceased.

Mr. Foster served in the Army during World War II. Retirement from Fingerle Lumber Co. allowed him time to pursue his hobbies, which included golf, visits to the family cottage at North Lake, and woodworking. He leaves a daughter, Judith L. Ripple of Gainesville, FL, and a son, James R. and his wife, Leonor Foster of San Francisco, CA; four grandchildren, Jeffrey and Jennifer Ripple, Jill Whitehill, and Kevin Foster; and a great-granddaughter, Isabella Whitehill.

Cremation has taken place. A private memorial service will be held. The family requests that a donation to the Michigan Parkinson Foundation be sent in lieu of flowers. There will be no visitation.

Arrangements entrusted to the Muehlig Funeral Chapel, Ann Arbor.

Notes for Donna Marie Rutkowski:

Donna Marie Fehrle (formerly Rutkowski) of Dexter, Michigan, passed away from liver disease Tuesday March 31, 2020 at her home. Born June 19, 1965. She was 54. Donna graduated from Dexter High School and in 1999 earned a B.A. from Eastern Michigan University in geology, communication and marketing. Her career was incredibly varied. Donna's fondness for the outdoors inspired her to work as a ski instructor, lifeguard, and wildlife photographer. Her farm roots led her to jobs with a dairy farm and cattle breeding operation. Her outgoing personality made her very successful as a door-to-door encyclopedia saleswoman, earning her trips to Brazil, Hawaii, and other destinations. But it was her abounding love of children that led to her most rewarding pursuits: She was a nanny, daycare provider, St. Paul Lutheran School food service manager, and mother to a beautiful daughter. Among Donna's hobbies were cooking, quilting, gardening, photography, and travel – she was proud to have visited 45 of the 50 states. An FFA member and longtime 4-H club leader, she spent her life caring for animals, including show horses, ponies, chickens, pigs, cattle, cats and dogs. In 2002, Donna married Tim Fehrle – whom she called, to the end, "the best thing that ever happened to me" – in three separate ceremonies to accommodate their many friends and family members. The couple was active with Ann Arbor's German Park Recreation Club, St. Joseph Catholic Parish of Dexter, and St. Paul Lutheran Church & School of Ann Arbor.

Donna was preceded in death by her father, who passed away just months after her birth; her best friend, Angie Radke, in 2010; and her beloved nephew Kord, in 2018. She is survived by her 94-year-old mother, Theresa Rutkowski; husband, Tim; daughter, Truly; two sisters, Danette Rutkowski of North Carolina and Patti Herrmann of Colorado; a brother, Christopher Rutkowski of Utah; and many in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A Catholic memorial service will be held at a later date at St. Joseph in Dexter, where Donna was baptized, confirmed, and married. In lieu of flowers, donations to her daughter's college fund would be appreciated.

195. Judith Marah (Judy)⁶ Streufert (Edna Ricka⁵ Zahn, Christian Jacob⁴, Christina Barbara³ Wallenmaier, Christian Jakob (George)², Johann Gottlieb¹) was born 10 May 1937 in Aurora, DuPage Co, Illinois, and died 06 May 2019 in Glen Ellyn, DuPage Co, Illinois. She married Carl Henry Waldow, Jr. Aft. 1955, son of Carl Waldow and Rose Stular. He was born 21 May 1936 in Berwyn, Cook Co, Illinois, and died 30 Jul 1995 in Glen Ellyn, DuPage Co, Illinois.

Notes for Judith Marah (Judy) Streufert:

Judith Waldow taught second graders at Madison Elementary School in Wheaton for more than 30 years, starting each day by playing the piano as children walked into her room. "More than anything, when I think of Judith, I think of that piano in her classroom, and how she tried to incorporate that into all aspects of her curriculum," said retired Madison principal Gene Sikorski. "She just knew how to motivate children, and her special gift was through music."

Waldow, 81, died of complications from dementia on May 6, 2019 at the Arden Courts of Glen Ellyn assisted living facility in Glen Ellyn, said her daughter, Marah. Born Judith Streufert in Aurora, Waldo earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1959 from Concordia College in River Forest — now known as Concordia University — and then, well into her career as a teacher, picked up a master's degree in education in 1990 from Northern Illinois University.

Her first job was teaching elementary school in south suburban Lansing. She then moved with her husband to New York before returning to the Chicago area and settling in West Chicago. In 1974, Waldow was hired as a teacher's aide at the now-shuttered Jefferson Elementary School in Wheaton.

She soon shifted to working as a classroom teacher at Madison, teaching second grade. "She would always tell stories about this kid or that kid and about seeing the light go on (in a child's head) and having that 'Aha!' moment," Waldow's daughter said. "She loved every single kid she taught. She loved the community in the school."

Retired Madison second-grade teacher Jan Ballak recalled Waldow's positive attitude and willingness to "lend a helping hand not only to the children who were entrusted to her but also to share (teaching methods) in a real team effort." "She was the ideal type of mentor that any teacher coming into a new building would want to have standing behind their shoulders," Ballak said. Sikorski called Waldow "the most innovative teacher that I have had the pleasure of working with." "She was a real positive influence on the kids and on the entire staff," he said. "She helped set the tone in our school." Waldow, who also privately taught piano lesson to youngsters, retired from Madison at age 71 in 2008. "She was very proud of that," her daughter said. "She was going to teach as long as she could, because that was her life."

Waldow's husband, Carl, died in 1995. Waldow is survived by another daughter, Lisa; a son, Martin; six grandchildren; five sisters, Anita Meyers, Magdalene Karsel, Martha Jander, Cynthia Rossow and Rachel Nolen; and three brothers, Daniel, Stephen and Jonathan Streufert.

Services were held.

Judith M. Waldow, nee Streufert, age 81, a resident of Glen Ellyn, Illinois, passed away on Monday, May 6, 2019, at Arden Courts of Glen Ellyn in Glen Ellyn, Illinois. She was born May 10, 1937 to Albert and Edna (nee Zahn) Streufert. The oldest of 10 children, Judith was born in Aurora, Illinois and spent much of her childhood in Michigan. Judith graduated from Concordia College in River Forest with a degree in Education. She earned her Master's Degree from Northern Illinois University. Judith married Carl M. Waldow and had three children. She was an elementary school teacher for District 200, spending the majority of her career in the second-grade classroom at Madison School, Wheaton until she retired at age 71. She was a longtime active member of St. John Lutheran Church in Wheaton. Judith was an avid reader and enjoyed baking. She also loved music and taught piano for many years. She was a people person with a big heart who loved to stay in touch with her many friends and family. Her laughter will be missed by all who knew her.

Judith is survived by her children, grandchildren, brothers, sisters and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband and her parents.

A visitation will be held on Thursday, May 9, from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Hultgren Funeral Home, 304 N. Main St., Wheaton. A funeral service will be held on Friday, May 10, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. at St. John Lutheran Church, Main St. at Franklin St., Wheaton. Interment will follow at Chapel Hill Gardens West in Oakbrook Terrace, Illinois. Notes for Sandra Ann (Sandy) Schwarzkopf:

Marshallville, Georgia - Sandra Ann "Sandy" Schwarzkopf Rister, 84, entered fully into the presence of the Lord on May 23, 2021. She peacefully left this earth following a long struggle with Alzheimer's Disease. Sandy was born in Lansing, Michigan, to the late Joseph Schwarzkopf and the late Martha Hanson Schwarzkopf. She was an honor graduate of Clearwater High School and went on to earn her RN degree from St. Petersburg Jr. College in St. Petersburg, Florida.

While in nursing school, she met and married the love of her life, James Rister, who was a young AF airman at the time. She met Jim at a dance organized for the local airmen and the nursing students. Because military life brought travel, Sandy chose to work in some locations while staying home with the children in others. Sandy was a devoted homemaker, continuously working to create a loving, nurturing, and encouraging home in which to raise their daughters. A career air force life brought tours in Germany, California, Delaware, Florida, and Arizona. They were assigned RAFB 3 different times.

They decided to make this their home upon Jim's retirement. Sandy actively volunteered with Meals on Wheels for eight years and was a member of Sandy Valley Baptist Church. Things Sandra enjoyed included her daily Bible study, crocheting, reading, doing Sudoku puzzles, and sewing, a skill she passed on to her daughters. Travel was also a favorite, especially to the beaches of Clearwater where she grew up, and when driving over the causeway approaching Clearwater Sandy would always say, "I feel better already!" She especially delighted in being a Grandma to five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren and was known for her "famous egg sandwich."

Left to cherish the memories they made with Sandy are her daughters; Karen Bryant (Rickey) of Macon, Georgia and Janice Davis (Frank Turner) of Ft. Valley, Georgia; her grandchildren; Chris Bryant (Michelle), Chad Bryant (Christina), and Dr. Joshua Bryant, Cassie Spivey, and Tyler Davis; and four great-grandchildren; Tucker Bryant, Tanner Bryant, Lorelei Bryant, and Genevieve Bryant. Sandy was preceded in death by her parents, Joe and Martha Schwarzkopf, of Clearwater, Florida; her beloved husband of sixty years, James Rister; and her sister, Joanne Shultz, of Michigan.

Special thanks and appreciation go to the loving staff of The Oaks Nursing Home in Marshallville where Sandy was cared for nearly two years, and the loving staff of Antebellum Grove Assisted Living where Sandy was taken cared of for three-and-a-half years. A Visitation to express love and support for Sandy's family and friends was held on Thursday, May 27, 2021 from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. in the Chapel at Watson-Hunt Funeral Home. A private Graveside Service was held in Andersonville National Cemetery in Andersonville, Georgia. In lieu of flowers, the family respectfully requests donations in memory of Sandra Rister to Alzheimer's Association, 886 Mulberry Street, Macon, Georgia 31201.

Notes for Alec James Royce Rister:

Kathleen, Georgia - James Royce Rister, 82, joined his Heavenly Father on Saturday, September 23, 2017, leaving this earth peacefully. Jim was born on June 21, 1935 in Midland City, Florida the 8th child of the late Judge and Emma Rister. He joined the United States Air Force, making it a 20-year career. He married the love of his life Sandra, and they lived in many places including Germany while serving in the Air Force and raising their family. Upon retirement, Jim worked for Bluebird Bus Co. and then as a civil servant at RAFB, where he retired as well. Jim loved raising goats and chickens, tending his garden, and sharing his abundant produce with others. He was an avid storyteller, a devoted grandparent, and he made friends with strangers everywhere. Jim was a humble man and he practiced the "Golden Rule."

Memories of Jim will be cherished by a loving and grateful family including his wife of 60 years Sandra Rister of Kathleen; daughters Karen Bryant (Rickey) of Macon and Janice Davis of Ft. Valley; 3 grandchildren: Joshua Bryant of Macon, Cassandra Spivey of Kathleen, and Tyler Davis of Warner Robins; step-grandchildren Chris Bryant (Michelle) of Macon and Chad Bryant (Christina) of Sharpsburg; step-great-grandchildren Tucker Bryant, Tanner Bryant, Lorelei Bryant and Genevieve Bryant; brother Gene Rister of Marianna, Florida; many nieces, nephews, and friends; and his beloved dachshund Jazmine. Notes for David Lee Schultz:

Formerly of Lansing - David Lee Schultz, 55, was taken from us too soon on March 6, 2018. He was born in Lansing, Michigan on March 9, 1962 to parents, Bob and Joanne Schultz. He always had the need for speed, which he satisfied with jet skis, motorcycles, snow mobiles, and lastly, dirt bikes. He was an amazing uncle to Dustin and Chad when they were young, climbing trees, swimming, cycle rides, and outings. He was very caring and generous, helping anyone in need, even after death through organ donation. He was a great handy-man, like his father, and always put the needs of others ahead of his own. He sold waterbeds, worked for General Motors, worked for various mortgage companies, and finally sold luxury autos at Fletcher-Jones Imports in Las Vegas.

He is survived by his sister, Lynda (Bryan) Fox; 2 nephews, Dustin (Sarah) Fox and Chad Fox; 3 great-nieces, Camryn, Jordyn, and Dilyn; his four-legged sons, Nolan and Maverick; and a host of close friends.

He also had lots of love for his many Vegas friends who became family over his last 20+ years out there. David will be sorely missed by all who knew him. Rest in Peace, David. You will remain in our hearts forever. A Celebration of Life will be held 1-3 PM Saturday, May 19, 2018 at Tiffany Funeral Home, 3232 W. Saginaw, Lansing. Donations may be made in his memory to the ASPCA.

Notes for Donald Robert Bornemeier:

Donald Robert Bornemeier, 83, passed away peacefully at his Sterling Heights home April 13, 2020 after a long battle with Alzheimer's and Parkinson's. Don was born in Taylor, Nebraska April 17, 1936 to Rev. Daniel Simon and Martha (Ohs) Bornemeier. He lived in several towns in that state and graduated from Chase County High School, Imperial. He attended North Central College in Naperville, Illinois where he met Sheila, the love of his life "at first sight", and earned an engineering degree. His first job after a wedding and graduation was with Boeing in Renton, Washington, followed by moves to Slidell, Louisiana and Huntsville, Alabama, finally leaving Boeing in 1965 to come to LTV in Michigan, then Chrysler Defense. He retired from General Dynamics after almost 25 years in 2001.

Don was a selfless, very private man of integrity who deeply valued love of family, loyalty and a super-strong work ethic which he fortunately instilled in his children. He loved all sports, coached his sons' teams, and attended all his kids' events. Although he was never a Boy Scout he was an active leader in Troop 80 for years where he proudly saw all three sons earn their Eagle awards. Traveling with the whole family early on and his wife after retirement allowed him to visit all 50 states and 20 countries.

He was predeceased by his youngest son, Craig; his brother, Dwight; and his parents. Surviving are his loving wife of 61 years, Sheila, and daughter, Debra (Kevin) Northup of Sterling Heights; sons Dirk (Judi) Bornemeier and Eric Michaels of Chicago. She moved into the veterinary pharmaceutical field with Intervet and went on to manage a sales force for Schering-Plough (Merck). She was serious and very successful in her work and career and loved her job and the people she came to know. She was eternally grateful to Merck for partnering with NEADS to provide her beloved service dog Chesty, who preceded her in death. Allison was a true lake girl! She loved to be on the water, in the sun, swimming and boating, whether in Michigan on Gull Lake or in Chicago on Lake Michigan. She also loved snow skiing, traveling and great food. She was up for anything if it made for a good story and a good laugh. After moving back to Gull Lake to live with her parents, Allison often laughed about having become part of the 5 o'clock happy hour with her parents' retired group of friends. Anyone who had the opportunity to spend time with Allison was inspired by her spirit.

Allison is survived by her parents, Dr. Steven and Elaine Ginsberg of Gull Lake; her sister, Aimee M. (Brian) Greenfield of Rocky River, Ohio; her brother Nick G. (Wendy) Ginsberg of Grandville, Michigan; her maternal grandmother, Ruth Newland of Kalamazoo; a niece Maia Ginsberg, three nephews, Joe and Ben Greenfield and Parker Ginsberg, and by her service dog Floral.

A memorial gathering to celebrate Allison's life will be held on Thursday, August 16th at 11:00 am with a buffet lunch to follow at Gull Lake Country Club, 9725 W. Gull Lake Drive, Richland, Michigan 49083. Final interment will be in Yorkville Cemetery, Ross Township. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Allison's honor may be directed to NEADS (National Education for Assistance Dog Services). The Farley Estes Dowdle Funeral Home & Cremation Care, Richland Chapel is assisting Allison's family.

331. Benjamin John⁷ Zahn II (Benjamin John⁶, Benjamin John⁵, Christian Jacob⁴, Christina Barbara³ Wallenmaier, Christian Jakob (George)², Johann Gottlieb¹) was born 30 Jun 1949 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Barbara Ann Poland 26 Aug 1972 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Geordie Poland and Margaret LaRue. She was born 09 Sep 1951 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Benjamin John Zahn II:

July 20, 2000 - Firefighting's all in the family for this clan 4 generations of Michigan family rise to the rescue - When B. J. Zahn was growing up, he worried a little every time his father left to begin his shift as an Ann Arbor firefighter. Now, it's dad's turn to fret That's because B. J. arm is following in his father's footsteps, just as his father did and his grandfather before that If s a family affair that spans 84 years. Besides being a fourth-generation Ann Arbor firefighter, B. J. Zahn is also the fourth Benjamin John Zahn to wear an Ann Arbor firefighter's badge. Although having four generations at the same department is unusual, the tradition of father and son firefighters is common across the country, said Michelle Snider, executive assistant with the Michigan Professional Firefighters Union. "I think that as boys and some girls grow up, Daddy is a hero in their eyes and they want to be like Daddy," Snider said. "It's very common in this profession." Ben Zahn Sr. was the first Ann Arbor firefighter in the family. He was hired in 1916 and served as the chief from 1935 until retiring in 1955. Then came Ben Jr, who was hired in 1953 and retired in 1981 as deputy fire marshal B. John Zahn was the third generation when he began working with his father in 1971. He retired in December as an assistant chief. B.J. Zahn picked up the tradition when he was hired in March.

"We're a close-knit family, and we've all been proud of what our fathers did," John Zahn said "I tried to stay out of it for B.J. and just let him make his own decision, and of course I'm proud of the decision he made." Ten current Ann Arbor firefighters are the sons of retired Ann Arbor firefighters. And many more Ann Arbor firefighters have sons on other departments or are the sons of firefighters in different cities. But firefighting sons admit that it can be a little intimidating at first to follow in their father's footsteps. John Zahn remembers that well, which was one reason, he decided to retire as his son was coming on board. John Zahn worked under his father for a decade. "I spent the first 10 years trying not to embarrass my dad. After he left, I was able to be my own person a little more," said Zahn, 50. "It's a little difficult to be compared to your forefathers."

Battalion Chief Tom Schmid was hired on as "Chief Fred Schmid's son" in 1977. He couldn't shake that label for years, even after his father retired in 1985. "We had a little back and forth thing going. I kept telling him, 'One day, I won't be retired Chief Fred Schmid's son. I'll just be me,' " said Tom Schmid, 43. Tom and Fred Schmid both remember that day. Several younger firefighters visited Stadium Hardware one afternoon, where Fred Schmid was working part-time. He was introduced to the group as "Battalion Chief Tom Schmid's dad." He immediately called his son. "I told him right away and he said, Well, it's about time," Fred Schmid said.

Bob Girbach this week was named the first winner of the Neil Still - Russ Michalke Award as Saline High School's best senior athlete of 1969. Saline's five varsity coaches pick the winner of the award. Choice is based on athletic performance, though a winner must be well-respected, well- liked. The winner must be a graduating senior. Still and Michalke were members of the 1966 graduating class. Both were star athletes. Each died tragically. The award is a memorial in their honor. Girbach received seven varsity letters during his high school career. He played guard and center on the Hornet football team, and got all-state honorable mention last season. Bob earned two letters for wrestling. He high jumped and threw the shot for the track team. And this spring, he lettered as a right fielder on the baseball team. Bob hopes to attend Michigan State University this fall. He plans to take a short course in agriculture. He is a 4-H Club member and an F.F.A. officer. Eventually, Bob hopes to farm in the Saline area. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Girbach, Mohardt Rd.

Notes for Lee A. Feldkamp:

Lee A. Feldkamp died in Novi, MI on March 13, 2021 after an 18-year struggle with Parkinson's Disease. Lee was born August 27, 1942, the eldest child of Lee E. Feldkamp, M.D. and Jeanne Girard Feldkamp. During his elementary school years, the family moved to Plymouth where Lee graduated from Plymouth High School. Lee spent his entire college career at the University of Michigan, culminating in a PhD in nuclear engineering. He then joined the Physics Department of Ford Research Laboratory as a staff scientist in 1969 where he remained until retirement in 2008. During the course of his career, Lee co-authored a book, Dynamics of Perfect Crystals, was granted a dozen patents, and had published over one hundred scientific papers. Lee traveled the world presenting papers on micro CT technology, fuzzy logic and neural networks. He was past president of the International Neural Network Society and selected as a Distinguished Graduate of the U of M Rackham School of Graduate Studies. One of Lee's greatest accomplishments was his invention of an algorithm improving the clarity of micro CT images which is still used today in fields as varied as medicine and archaeology. Lee worked with the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in the area of artificial intelligence. He collaborated in the development of a chip at the beginning of the breakthrough of neural network technology, taking it into the mainstream. For Aston Martin, Lee designed a chip which went into production of a luxury vehicle. Also, in the field of neural networks, Lee was a consultant working with AmericaOne, leading United States challenger for America's Cup 2000 in yacht racing, developing new technology in the area of wind prediction. All of these projects were to varying degrees collaborative efforts. Lee was always scrupulous about sharing credit, particularly with the younger members of his team, indicative of his modesty and kindness. Lee loved his work, but in his free time, enjoyed hiking, cross-country skiing and especially tennis. He was a lover of all music, particularly classical, including modern composers. From his childhood, Lee spent many happy summer vacations with his family on Lake Huron near Forest, Ontario. He was a great fan of U of M football and basketball. Lee was preceded in death by his parents, sister, Mary Arbour and brother-in-law, John Thomas.

He is survived by his wife, Rose O'Connor, son, Timothy of Ann Arbor, brother, Robert (Kitty) of Canton, sister, Joan Thomas of Lake Worth, Florida, brother, Gerald (Linda) of Beaverton, Oregon, brother, Gregory (Diane Phelps) of Southlake, Texas, brother, Douglas (Laurel) of Dearborn, sister, Jeannette Schwab (John) of East Tawas, brother, James (Barbara) of Grand Ledge, brother-in-law, Robert Arbour of Westland, sister-in-law, Judy Zakrzewski of Marshall, brother-in-law, Patrick (Kenna) Zakrzewski of Mt. Pleasant, Wisconsin and many nieces and nephews.

Lee was deeply loved and will be greatly missed. The family would like to thank the University of Michigan, Michigan Medicine Neurosurgery DBS Team for enabling the quality of life Lee enjoyed almost until the end. Thanks particularly to Wilma MacKenzie, N.P. and Donna Rossini, N.P. who followed Lee for years in the Geriatric Neurology Clinic. Memorial contributions may be made to the Michigan Medicine Neurosurgery Department, DBS Program, 1500 E. Medical Center Drive SPC 5338, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109-5338. A Memorial Service will be held later this year.
