Notes for Michael Friederich Kern:

History of Allen and Woodson Counties, Kansas: Edited and Compiled by L. Wallace Duncan and Chas. F. Scott. Iola Registers, Printers and Binders, Iola, Kansas: 1901; page 195:

Michael F. Kern, of Humboldt Township, Allen County, was born in the province of Wurtemberg, Germany, July 2, 1833. He was a son of John Adam Kern, who emigrated to the United States in 1859 and settled in the state of Michigan. In Washtenaw County his parents died, the mother in 1869 and the father ten years later. Eight children were born to this worthy couple, four of whom survive, viz: Lena, who, married Carl Haddock and resides in Lawrence, Kansas; Catherine, wife of Andrew Reule, of Ann Arbor, Michigan; John M. and Michael F. Kern.

The subject of this sketch resided five years in Michigan and then set out for the frontier. He came down into Allen County during the war and preempted the land upon which he has since resided. He was acquainted with the methods of successful farming and began at once to devote himself thereto. The improvement of his premises also received his attention and in his thirty-five years of citizenship he has expanded and developed materially to the extent of a substantially improved, high-cultivated and exceedingly productive two hundred and forty acre farm.

As a feeder and grower of cattle and other marketable stock Mr. Kern is well known in southern Allen County. For many years his farm has furnished a market for much surplus grain of the community and his extensive interests demand the employment of labor throughout the year. His home presents the appearance of neatness and cleanliness. Everything has its proper place and, when not in use, is found in its place. He planned his improvements for convenience and the arrangement of his barns, sheds and fences indicate the perfection he attained.

Michael F. Kern was married in October 1865 to Sarah W. Schmidt, whose father, Henry Schmidt, was born in Hanover, Germany. Mrs. Kern was born in Lafayette County, Missouri.

During the war Mr. Kern belonged to the state militia, doing guard duty along the border, and upon several occasions was called into the field to drive out the invading rebels and bushwhackers. In politics he has been without aspirations. While he has been interested in all political controversies it has been the interest of a citizen and not of a candidate. He affiliates with the Republicans and is regarded in some measure as a controlling influence in local elections.

- 2054 i. George John<sup>9</sup> Bohnet, born 10 Jan 1875 in Sylvan Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 20 Jul 1961 in Eight Point Lake, Clare Co, Michigan. He married Blanche L. Harris 1904; born Feb 1879; died 1938 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for George John Bohnet:

George J. Bohnet, 86, who built Lansing's first steam automobile and became recognized as the city's first automobile salesman, died Thursday July 20, 1961 at his cottage at Eight Point Lake in Clare County. He divided his time between the lake and his home at 1025 N. Chestnut St. Mr. Bohnet, who assembled his first car by hand and made many of the parts by hand, had been a resident of Lansing for 67 years. He came here from the little settlement of Francisco in Jackson County, near Chelsea. While working in the bicycle department of Holmes & Son music store, long since removed from the local scene, Mr. Bohnet assembled his first steam car. He sold it for less than $1,000 to a DeWitt physician and then built another on order for William Lansing, then affiliated with the Capital Electric company. His first job here was with the E. Bement son's stove works, which occupied the former State Journal site at Grand Ave. and Ottawa St., but often recalled that the late W. K. Prudden offered him a job as his secretary. He didn't know anything about shorthand, so the job went to the late Harry Harper. Harper put together the Prudden company and Auto Wheel and Gier Steel to form Motor Wheel.

Later Mr. Bohnet became affiliated with Mr. Prudden in the Capital Automobile company. He left that company in 1932, when his interests were purchased. He was a member of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, and a charter and life member of Lansing Lodge No. 196, B. P. O. Elks.

Surviving are three brothers, William F., Ernest H. and Herman C. Bohnet, all of Lansing, and two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Turner of Lansing and Mrs. Emma Spathelf of Big Rapids.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Monday at the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel. Rev. R. E. Eshmeyer of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church will officiate. Burial will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Victor Spathelf, Harold Walter, Kenneth Bohnet, Gale Adams, Ronald Bohnet and James Walter.

Notes for Johannes Gutekunst:

John Gutekunst, one of the early settlers in State Center, died at Dexter, Michigan Wednesday morning, June 22, 2010. He had been sick only since the Monday preceding. Mrs. Gutekunst and son Giffert, were called from here by telegram on Tuesday, but they did not reach Dexter until Wednesday afternoon and death had ensued by that time. Death was caused by erysipelas. Mr. Gutekunst had been in Michigan about a month looking for farming interests. Before going there he had been in his usual health, but on Monday before his death his son receive a letter which was written on Saturday stating that he was not feeling at all well. The next word from his was a telegram from his physicians summoning his wife and son to his beside.

John Gutekunst was born at Ann Arbor, Michigan September 30, 1835. He came to State Center in 1864 and in 1872 was married to Mary Devers at Detroit, Michigan. She died at Pinckney, Michigan January 12, 1884. In 1888 he was married the second time at Merrill, Iowa to Louisa O Todd, who survives him with their only son, Giffert. Mr. Gutekunst having been a resident of this community nearly half a century, he saw this country transformed from wilderness into a veritable garden. He was a man of keen business acumen and highest integrity. He was a material factor in the development of this community. In his quiet way he was benevolently disposed. This community had met with a loss in his passing away. He was mayor of State Center during the years 1890 and 1891.

Funeral services were held at Dexter, Friday morning and the body was shipped to Chicago, where it was cremated at Oakwood cemetery. The remains were accompanied from Dexter by a delegation from the Masonic lodge there, including Worshipful Mast Charles Case with James Devine and Henry Jewell. They were met in Chicago by Worshipful Master R A Buck, William Vance, Theodore Engle and O F Ecklund, of the local Masonic Lodge, who brought the ashes and accompanied Mrs. Gutekunst and son to State Center, arriving Sunday morning. Brief funeral services were conducted at the home at 2:30 Sunday afternoon by Rev W H Clement, of Vernon Center, Minnesota, and burial was made in Hillside cemetery by the side of his mother.

Notes for George Blaich:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

George Blaich, in whose life history the familiar but oft misused term of a self-made man finds exemplification, has from the age of ten years been dependent upon his own resources and his utilization of opportunity coupled with unremitting diligence has proved the strong elements in his success. He is a native of the Empire state, his birth having occurred in Fulton, Oswego County, New York, on the 7th of August, 1857. His father, David Blaich, was a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, and was a farmer by occupation. Coming to America in 1852, he was for many years a resident of New York, while his last seven years were spent at the home of his son George in Chelsea, Michigan, where his death occurred on the 21st of February, 1897. He had for fourteen years survived his wife, who bore the maiden name of Frederica Keck. She was born March 8, 1834, and came to this country in 1852, being thirty-eight days upon the water. She arrived in Syracuse, New York, September 18, 1852, and was married February 2, 1854. She died at Onondaga Hill, New York, December 1, 1883. In the family were eleven children, eight of whom are yet living: David, a resident farmer of this county, his home being three miles west of Chelsea; George; Charles, who follows farming in Salem township; Lillie, the wife of Theodore E. Wood, cashier of the Chelsea Savings Bank of Chelsea; William, a merchant of Cleveland, (Ohio); John, a merchant of Syracuse, New York; Mrs. Rosa Garthe, of Syracuse; and Edward, who is with the National Biscuit Company at Cleveland, Ohio.

George Blaich spent his early boyhood in his parents' home but in 1867, when but ten years of age, left the parental roof and has since been dependent upon his own resources for a living. It was an early age for him to start out and fight life's battles but he soon realized the responsibilities of life and valued conditions at their true worth. While working on farms at Onondaga Hill, New York, he also embraced the opportunity that came him to attend school and after a time determined to enter a walk of life demanding intellectuality, close application and special preparation. He worked for Dr. Wheating, with whom he remained for a year, after which he went to Syracuse, New York, where he secured a situation in the grocery store of Thomas Rice. Subsequently he was with the firm of Curtiss & Sandwald, carriage manufacturers, for three years, on the expiration of which period he entered business on his own account and for three years was a factor in commercial life in Syracuse. He then sold out to his partner and entered the oil business, in which he continued for three years, subsequent to which time, on the 6th of April, 1886, he came to Chelsea, Michigan, on a visit. Being pleased with this part of the country, he decided to remain and purchased the grocery store of L. D. Loomis, after which he conducted the business at Chelsea for ten years, when on account of failing health he retired from mercantile life there. After a rest of two and a half years he came to Ann Arbor and on the 18th of October 1897, established a grocery store at No. 1219 South University Avenue. He is still in business at this location, having a large trade in high class groceries and bottled and canned goods of all descriptions. He carries an extensive stock of a fine line of goods and has secured a large and profitable trade.

In May 29, 1888, Mr. Blaich was married to Mrs. Myrta Cornwell, of Chelsea, Michigan. Although their residence in Ann Arbor has covered a comparatively brief period they have gained many friends here and the hospitality of many of the best homes is freely accorded them. Mr. Blaich is prominent in Masonry, holding membership in Golden Rule lodge, No. 156, A. F. & A. M., of Chelsea; Grass Lake chapter, No. 98. R. A. M.; Adoniram council, No. 24, R. & S. M., of Manchester; Olive chapter, No. 108, O. E. S., of Chelsea; and Ann Arbor commandery, No. 13, K. T. He is thoroughly in sympathy with the teachings and tenets of the craft, exemplifying in his life the principles of the fraternity. Prominent in the Baptist church, he transferred his membership to the First Baptist church of Ann Arbor on his removal to the city and has since been closely and helpfully connected with a number of its activities. He has served as treasurer and in other offices and does all in his power for the growth and up building of the church. His political faith is that of the Republican Party, but he is without ambition for office, preferring to give his attention to his business interests, his church activities and his social and home relations. He holds friendship inviolable and is a man of domestic tastes. The permeating influence of his life is shown forth in an upright character, in straight - forward dealing in commercial circles and in allegiance to every trust reposed in him.

Notes for Anna Katharina (Kate) Kurtz:

Mrs. Katherine Keck, 87, Michigan pioneer and resident of Gunnisonville and Ingham County for the past 71 years, died Friday morning Feb. 29, 1924 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Heeb, 1225 N. Capitol Avenue. Mrs. suffered a broken hip when she fell April 13, 1922, and the injury kept her in practically an invalid condition to the time of death.

Funeral services will be held from the daughter's home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment in the Keck family lot in the Gunnisonville cemetery. Besides the daughter at whose home death occurred. Mrs. Keck leaves four other children: Jacob Keck, living near Lansing; Charles, a resident of Wolverine, and Mrs. Eva Andrews, south of Lansing, and Mrs. Agnes Springsteen, a resident of Watertown, Clinton County. Mrs. Keck, whose maiden name was Miss Katherine Kurtz, was born in Hesse, Darmstadt, Germany, Jan. 19, 1837. Her parents died when she was a child. In 1853, when Mrs. Keck was 16 years old, her brother, who had settled near Holt in Ingham County, sent for her.

Mrs. Keck after a long voyage in a sailing vessel, reached New York City. Unable to speak the language of this country, she resolutely set for Michigan, her only possession the few clothes she wore since and a feather bed. When the young immigrant reached Erie, New York, her money was exhausted and she was compelled to remain in Erie nearly a year until she could earn money enough to continue her journey to Holt. Mrs. Keck sometimes related how she dreaded to cross Lake Erie, believing it another ocean. Her experiences in coming to America had been harrowing as a number of passengers died en route and were buried at sea. These deaths and burial in lonely waters are impressions she never entirely erased from her mind. When she finally reached Holt in this country, Mrs. Keck remained for a time with her brother, a struggling pioneer. In this small town she met her husband, George Keck and the two were married Jan. 1, 1858. The young couple, urged by the home making and home owning instinct, wanted a farm of their own. Mr. Keck was able to buy some timber land near Gunnisonville. The parcel consisted of 60 acres. Mrs. Keck moved and the young husband started to clear his land and to build a home. Mr. and Mrs. Keck experienced the usual privations of the early pioneers, but patiently made their way in the world without complaining. Mr. Keck died some years ago. About 13 years ago Mrs. Keck began making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Heeb. Ten years ago, she came to Lansing with Mr. and Mrs. Heeb and has her home with them ever since in this city.

Notes for Edward L. Heeb:

Edward L. Heeb, 79, "the grand old man of North Lansing," died unexpectedly Saturday evening April 21, 1951 in his home at 1225 N. Capitol Ave. of a heart attack. Mr. Heeb had been confined to his home for the past week but was not considered seriously ill. He was a resident of Lansing for 71 years. Mr. Heeb retired from the plumbing business several years ago. However, he retained real estate interests until a short time ago. During the past several years he has spent his winters in Florida, however he did not make the trip this year because of poor health. During his varied career in Lansing, Mr. Heeb served one term as city alderman. He also built over 50 homes as a private contractor. Around the turn of the century he was elected president of old Manufacturer's baseball league which played in the state park, present site of the state office building.

He was a life member of the Elks and Eagles and an active member of the I. O. O. F. No. 321. A founder of the North Side commercial he was honored with a life membership in that organization several years ago. His wife, Anna, died in 1946. They had no children. The body was removed to Estes-Leadley funeral home. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Notes for Jacob Schweitzer:

May 12, 1938 – This community, like all others has its empty houses. Perhaps one of the most interesting is the old Schweitzer house across from the Drake homestead in Lodi Township. Today it is crumbling into ruins, birds nest in the rafters that once were part of a substantial house. A frame dwelling, an upright and a "lean-to", well planned, a comfortable kitchen with spacious cupboards, the old stairway, a sagging door, a rotted window sill, a cellar yawning where the floor has caved in, all these are what the visitor today will see should he visit the place.

Time was when it was a fine home with a drive bordered on either side with cherry trees, beautiful in season when loaded with their luscious fruit, a bower of shade in the summer heat, a welcome from the dust and heat of the road. The house was in good condition, plastered walls with the customary spring papering greeted the caller. A well filled wood box stood in the corner, the teakettle sang on the hearth. And the pungent odors of home cooking floated round the homestead. Here Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schweitzer lived about 60 years ago. They had three daughters, Caroline, Rose, and Mary. There were two sons, Will who was born in the house which still stands, although crumbling in decay, and Emanuel.

Mary Schweitzer married John Lindemann and still lives on the Pleasant Lake Road across from the Lodi town hall. Caroline married George Bauer and lived in Ann Arbor. Rose married Fred Lambarth. She and Caroline each passed on several years ago. Emanuel lives with the Will Lindemann family on Pleasant Lake Road and Will lives with the Scherdt brothers in Freedom.

Mrs. Schweitzer was Magdalena Keck before her marriage and came from Stuttgart, Germany. Mr. Schweitzer died before the turn of century and she continued to live in the home and to finish rearing their family. She was friendly soul and a good neighbor. Miss Gertrude Drake, who lived across the road from her, recalls her clearly. After Mrs. Schweitzer died the estate was settled and Fred Hack purchased the farm. No one ever has occupied the house since Mrs. Schweitzer died and what was once not only a comfortable, but a well-cared for home, has become a relic of its former glory. Situated on a knoll, it provided a most satisfying view in all directions. A clump of lilacs still clusters round the door as if hugging the memory of former years.

Notes for Johann Wilhelm Aprill:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

William Aprill - Among the German-American families of Scio Township, none is better known for earnest industry and devotion to duty than that which is represented by the name at the head of this paragraph. Our subject was born on his father's homestead which is situated on section 32, May 26, 1836. His father, Jacob, married Magdalena Schnyder, in New York, in 1832, having come to the United States three years earlier when he was twenty-one years old. During that time he had served an apprenticeship to the shoemaker's trade at the village of Schuyler, in Herkimer County. His wife had a brother Martin Schnyder, who had come to Michigan, and they followed him hither.

When they came to Michigan Mr. Aprill had accumulated about $100, although he had been in debt when he came to this country, and his wife saved $100 from her wages during her time of service, although they were only seventy-five cents a week, he was born in Germany, and came here in her early girlhood. Her brother, M. Schnyder, has three daughters, one of whom is the wife of J. | H. Sperry. In July, 1831, our subject's father secured one hundred and four acres of Government land, and began improvements by building a log cabin. He at once set to work at his trade, exchanging work with the neighbors, and as there was but one shoemaker in Ann Arbor, and none in the country west of that city, he had a good run of custom. His wife assisted at the bench, doing the sewing for him and he followed the trade for fifteen years. Men would come ten miles in those days to get their boots soled, and he had all the work that he could do, although he frequently worked all night.

Mr. Aprill bought up more land and made a farm of about three hundred and forty acres, buying at $16 an acre, and selling at $93. He continued to live on the old farm until June 1, 1889, making fifty-eight years of residence there and an equal length of married life as his faithful and devoted wife passed from earth only nine weeks before his own demise.

Jacob Aprill, Sr., the grandfather of our subject came from Germany about the year 1842, and made his home here until his death at the age of eighty-eight. He had but the one son, Jacob, and his stepsister who came over with him and died here some four or five years ago at an advanced age, having made her home with her step-brother, for many years. Five of the children granted to Jacob Aprill, died in childhood. One son, Jacob who died in September, 1880, at the age of thirty-seven, left a widow and family, who reside near Williamston on a farm. One daughter, Mary, died April 3, 1860, when a young lady of nineteen, and the remaining members of the family are: William George, who lives on the old homestead; and Louisa, who makes her home with him.

Our subject remained at home until he was fully twenty-five years old, and was married April 4, 1861, to Miss Mary Keck, daughter of Martin Keck, of Scio, who had come from Germany when she was about seventeen years of age. Her father died here some ten years since on section 33, and his son, Martin, still lives on the old homestead. Another son, Michael Keck, died last fall. After marriage Mr. Aprill bought land on section 33, and on this ninety-five acres he lived for twenty-two years. He has since added to it until he had at one time five hundred acres, one hundred and forty of which he has now given to his son, and he still keeps fully three hundred and twenty acres. He keeps sheep, cattle and other stock sufficient for farm purposes. In 1883 he built the house and barn, a view of which may be seen elsewhere.

Our subject was Township Treasurer when twenty-one years of age, and served for two terms. He has since filled the offices of Justice of the Peace and Highway Commissioner, and was Superintendent of the Poor for six years, filling that office until 1888. Although his sympathies are with the Democratic Party, he is not much of a politician, as he always looks to the fitness of a man for the office, rather than to the dictum of the party leaders. His father's political views agreed with his. He is ever helpful in church work, and is a member of the German Lutheran Church, and the Fair Association finds an active worker in him. Mr. Aprill has met with heavy reverses, and the loss of thousands of dollars through the perfidy of others whom he had assisted and befriended, yet he stands firm as a rock, and is today one of the ablest men in the county. He has a valuable block of store buildings in Ann Arbor which brings in satisfactory revenue, and his every enterprise has been successful.

The beautiful and tasteful home of our subject is the center of a delightful family life, and the children who have been granted to him and his good wife are as follows: Jacob F., William, John M., Emanuel, Gustaf Edward, Adolph, Mary, Lydia L., Emma G., Caroline and George Robert. John and George have passed from earth; Jacob married Caroline Staebler, and lives near his father; William married Mary Staebler, and carries on the Staebler farm of ninety-three acres; the remaining children are still beneath the parental roof.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

John Keck, dealer in furniture, and Superintendent of the Keck Furniture Manufacturing Company, at the Ann Arbor. He was born in Wurtemberg, Germany 1839. He received his education in his native land. When about 15 years of age his parents emigrated to America, and located in the township of Scio, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, where Mr. Keck remained until he reached his majority, working chiefly on his father's farm. He had, however, worked a little at joiner work, and when of age he came to Ann Arbor and learned the trade of cabinetmaker with Mr. F. Muehlig. He remained with this gentleman but a short time, and entered the employ of Mr. Roller, whom he soon bought out. About six months after making the purchase, his place of business was burned, the stock being saved. He at once opened business again on Washington Street, where he remained until 1869, when he removed to South Main Street. In 1867 he started the furniture manufactory of Keck & Company, and in 1868 this company moved into larger quarters. This company during the hard times that followed employed more men than any other firm or company in Ann Arbor, having from 40 to 50 men at work. Their specialty was fine chamber furniture of their own design and pattern, and their wares were sold all over the United States. In 1879 this was changed to a stock company, of which Mr. Keck owns one-half the stock and is Superintendent. He has served the city as its Treasurer one term, and has done much as a private citizen to promote its welfare.

In 1880 the Michigan Furniture Company was begun by John Keck at the corner of West William and Fourth streets. The business was operated under his name until 1886 when the name of the Michigan Furniture Company was given to the organization.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan: together with sketches of its cities, villages and townships...and biographies of representative citizens : history of Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Keck Furniture Company.- In 1879 Mr. John Keck, of Ann Arbor, conceived the idea of forming a stock company to engage in the manufacture of furniture of the latest and most improved style and quality. He immediately went to work and in the same year the stock company was formed, consisting of 15 members, with W. D. Harriman, President; Charles Hiscock, Treasurer; John Keck, General Superintendent; Paul Snauble, Assistant Superintendent, with a capital stock of $25,000. Everything now being in readiness, a plot of ground 126x198 feet on the corner of 3d and streets, was purchased, and the buildings necessary for the enterprise were immediately erected. They consist of a factory 40x 75 feet, and three-stories high. In the basement of this building is located the planing-mill and heavy machinery; in the second story the carving and turning machinery is found; in the third story the furniture is finished and put together. From the factory the furniture is taken to the packing, painting and varnishing room, where it is put into shape for shipment to the different parts of the United States. This last building is 40x20 feet in size and two stories high, while the storage room, only a few feet distant, is also the same size. The company uses about 250,000 feet of lumber annually, consisting of walnut, ash, butternut, sycamore, cottonwood, bass and whitewood, no pine lumber being used for any purpose. The drying kiln has a capacity of 20,000 feet and is always crowded to the utmost. The machinery is run by steam, the engine used being of 35-horse power.

The factory gives employment to 75 men, and the only kind of furniture turned out is bedstead and bedroom sets. The company has increased from 15 to 21 stockholders, and the business has increased so as to make necessary the erection of more buildings, which will be accomplished this year (1881). The furniture manufactured is of the latest, best and most improved styles, and find a ready sale in all parts of the Union-as far east as New York, as far south as St. Louis and Cincinnati, and as far west as Iowa.

THE KECK FAILURE

The business and commercial circles of Ann Arbor have been considerably excited the past week over the failure of the great furniture firm of John Keck & Company, of this city and Detroit.

The chattel mortgages tiled in the Recorder's office of this city are:

1st - $15,000 to Wm. Aprill, on Ann Arbor store

2nd - $44,000 to Henry A. Harmon, Trustee, on the Detroit Stocks, for Detroit National Bank, Detroit;

Third National Bank, Detroit; Am. Ex. National Bank, Detroit; Wayne County Savings Bank, Detroit

3rd - $36,500 to Wm. Aprill, on both Detroit and Ann Arbor Stocks, as endorsers for First National Bank, Ann Arbor; Farmers & Mechanics Bank, of Ann Arbor; Ann Arbor Savings Bank, of Ann Arbor

4th - $5,500 to Charles H. Richmond as Trustee of 1st national Bank of Ann Arbor, on Detroit Stock

5th - $22,150 to Wm. Aprill, on both Detroit and Ann Arbor stocks

Total $123,000

The last two mortgages are repetitions, except for one note of $3,500. Deducting the amounts repeated we have $89,600 as the total mortgaged liabilities.

The brick block at the corner of Main and Liberty Streets has been deeded to Wm. Aprill, subject to the following mortgages.

One to Theodore Grube for $3,000

One to George C. Fuller for $3,500

One to George Aprill for $3,000

One to Wm. Aprill for $35,000

So it will be seen that Mr. Aprill will have to pay $9,500 before his mortgage of $35,000 can be satisfied.

The new house erected this summer on Fourth Street has also been deeded to Wm. Aprill, who allows $1,500 for the same, subject to a mortgage of $2,500 held by Wm. Wagner.

A glance over the mortgage record book in the Register of Deeds office will disclose the name of Keck very many times within the last few days. The following being a list of the amounts of mortgages filed by various brothers of John Keck;

$7,919 Frederick Keck

$6,100 John Martin Keck

$5,700 Michael Keck

$1,900 John George Keck

$21,689 Total

Miss Salina Bunting, of the Ann Arbor town, has notes of John Keck for $12,300 and has commenced four suits in the circuit court, one against John Keck alone and one each against John Keck with Michael Keck, Martin Keck and Frederick Keck.

County Clerk Robison tells us that there have been from eight to ten suits already commenced in the circuit court growing out of this affair.

It is believed by many that there has been forgery committed in the signing of several notes. Wm. Aprill, we are told, claims that his signatures are not all genuine, and Martin Keck has been sued for $6,000 worth of notes given in Detroit that he claims never to have signed, being sick and unable to attend to business at the time. It is to be hoped that there may be some mistake about this.

There are many people, and poor people, too, who have lent money to this firm who will not be able to realize very much out of their claims. One Lawyer, who is familiar with all the affairs, claims that the assets will pay about 45 cents on the dollar of the liabilities.

The failure of no other man or firm in this city could have called forth more general regret. Mr. Keck has been a man with few enemies and generally well liked. He has been a man who has helped to build up this city. Starting in a small way he brought what is now the Michigan Furniture Factory (better known as the Keck Furniture Factory) from a small concern into a factory employing some 60 or more men. Selling out his factory to a stock company he commenced business in Detroit. His next enterprise in this city was the construction of the fine three story brick clock in which his goods are now located, at the corner of S. Main and Liberty Streets. This he has always kept filled from basement to roof with the very best goods saleable in this market. It was a colossal undertaking for this city, and one that we believe he has always made profitable.

The beginning of Mr. Keck's trouble we informed came from having a partner in the Detroit business. This necessary to buy out, which made quite a load for him to swing through. Then the great increase of business in Detroit demanded larger quarters, and in these Mr. Keck had just become nicely settled. Some of his creditors became uneasy, and demanded security, and so he was forced to give the same by chattel mortgages.

Things look pretty dark now, not only for Mr. Keck, but for all connected with him. Wm. Aprill has taken possession of the store here, and Henry A. Harmon has possession in Detroit.

Mr. Keck went to Detroit Monday and has not returned here since.

Jan. 10, 1880 – The Manufacturing interests are chiefly the Ann Arbor Agricultural Works, the Keck Furniture Company and Henry Krause's boot and shoe manufactory. The Ann Arbor Agricultural Company was incorporated as a stock company about a year ago, and its business extended. Their business during the past six months was fully $15,000 larger than during the corresponding time last year. They employ a force of forty men, which will, next month, be increased to sixty. They manufacture a variety of agricultural implements and do a large business, especially in tin's State, but also in adjacent and other States. To one house alone in Philadelphia, with which they have a five years' contract, they furnished last year 1,300 plows. They report business as much improved and collections much easier.

The Keck Manufacturing Company was organized but a few months since, when a branch store was opened in Detroit. Before the business had been owned by J. Keck exclusively. The capital stock, all paid in, is 25,000, and will be further increased. They report the retail business here to be $3,000 or $4,000 in excess of the previous years. The business of their new store in Detroit has been fully equal to their expectations. Their trade is largely in this State, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin and New York. They employ fifty men, and have all the work they can do. They have manufactured more furniture the past year than during the previous year, but business has been generally better.

Henry Krause has a large tannery where he tans the leather he uses in the manufactory of boots and shoes. During the past year he has opened a retail store, and he finds business good. He tanned 7,000 or 8,000 pieces of leather last year, a considerable increase over the previous year, and his manufactory has a capacity of 300 pairs of boots and shoes a week, keeping fifty or sixty men employed the year around.

Detroit, Dec. 2, 1886 - The furniture firm of John Keck & Co., doing business at 225, 227 and 229 Woodward Avenue, filed with the City Clerk yesterday two chattel mortgages aggregating $81,100 on their stock; in their old and new quarters. One of the mortgages runs to Wm. Aprill, Superintendent of the Poor of Washtenaw County, who is a wealthy farmer of the Township of Scio, to secure three notes indorsed by Martin Keck, Michael Keck, Frederick Keck and the mortgagee, held as follows: Ann Arbor Savings Bank, $3,500; Farmers and Mechanics' Bank, of Ann Arbor, $5,000; First National Bank, of Ann Arbor, $28,000.

The other mortgage is given to Henry A. Harmon, of this city, as accommodation indorser with Martin, Michael and Frederick Keck to secure thirteen notes, held by banks in Detroit as follows: Detroit National Bank, seven notes amounting to $21,000; Third National Bank, one note of $3,000; American Exchange National Bank, three notes amounting to $13,000; Wayne County Savings Bank, one note for $1,500.

There will be no halt in the business of the firm, Mr. Keck says that the enormous increase in stock after moving into the new establishment necessitated a large outlay of money which came through the different banks on the indorsed notes. He says that the assets of the firm are sufficient to meet all liabilities and that the filing of the chattel mortgages was merely to secure the banks, which were becoming uneasy, and that no assignment will be made.

Detroit - In September 1886, the firm of John Keck & Co. was succeeded by an incorporated company styled The Keck Furniture Company, with an authorized capital of $100,000, of which $75,000 was claimed to be paid in. At this time John Keck personally assumed the liabilities of the old firm and took the accounts due, transferring his interest in the furniture held by the old concern to the new corporation, accepting stock in payment for the same. His son, George F. Keck, was given stock in the new company, and also W. G. Dieterle of Manchester, Michigan. The change to a corporation was made by Mr. Keck under the impression that new capital could be enlisted and their liabilities, some of which were being pressed for settlement, thus be provided for. At the time of the change the assets of the company were given as $89,000 and the liabilities at $30,000. It is understood that Mr. Keck's plan to place the stock of the new company did not succeed. Their removal to the new Parker building, for which they made a ten years' lease at me rate of $7,200 per annum, was attended by increased expense. The mortgages given today were made by "John Keck, doing business as John Keck & Co."

Detroit, Dec. 2, 1886 - The business community was surprised yesterday afternoon to learn of the serious embarrassment of John Keck Co., one of the largest furniture houses in the State, the firm having been doing business on Woodward Avenue. They filed two chattel mortgages today to secure endorsers on $81,000 worth of notes held by the banks here and in Ann Arbor, where the firm have large factories.

The largest creditors are the Detroit National Bank of this city and First National Bank of Ann Arbor. The former holds $25,000 of Keck Co.'s paper, and the latter $28,000, Henry Herman is made trustee for the indorser of the notes held one mortgage, and Wm. A. Prell under the other. Mr. Keck says that the mortgages were given because the indorsers were uneasy, and not because he was about to fail. He says they will pull through without making an assignment.

Ann Arbor, December 9, 1886 - John Keck arrived here from Detroit last evening and went, to his house, where he has since remained. He is not at home to visitors, though a few of his warm personal friends have been admitted to his presence, among them Rev. Neumann, who Keck owes $1,000. He is a thoroughly sick man, sick in mind and body. His face has a haggard look and he is unable to sleep. He has hoped until the last moment to weather the financial storm which has been made. It is believed, however, that such a step will be made tomorrow, as an attorney of considerable prominence has been sent for, for consultation tonight. He believes that he could have managed to get through without failing had his Ann Arbor creditors been as lenient as his Detroit creditors were disposed to be. The charges of forgery made against him are not believed by a majority of the people here, who pronounce John Keck an honest man. Numerous attachments have been issued, but only one has been as yet filed with the Register of Deeds. This is the attachment of Anna Maria Buessler against John and Frederick Keck, filed several days ago. The Michigan Furniture Company today entered suit against John Keck for $560, and within an hour A. W. Hamilton, as attorney for Mr. Keck, had entered his appearance.

The note for $3,500 held by the Savings Bank and to which Aprill's indorsement was claimed to be forged was settled by an assignment of $5,000 of the accounts of the Ann Arbor store. This assignment must have been made with Aprill's consent as he had the keys of the store. United States Marshal Pennell was here today to make further attachments and so was a Detroit attorney, who wished Keck to make an assignment to him. Experts who have seen the notes to which Aprill's signatures were said to be forged unite in the expression of the belief that the signatures have all the peculiarities found in Aprill's signatures. It is not at all probable that any steps will be taken looking towards a criminal prosecution.

John Keck left the city for Ann Arbor at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. On Tuesday he dined with his niece, Mrs. Dieterle, on Spencer Street, and was expected to return to tea, but did not do so, nor was he again seen at the house until half an hour before the departure of his train, apparently desiring an abiding place more secure from reportorial intrusion. He said, before leaving, that several gentlemen were urging upon him the advisability of making an assignment and that he had nearly concluded to do so. These gentlemen accompanied him to Ann Arbor and the assignment may be looked for at any time.

405 Fourth Street; John Keck and Company (Argus Building), 1866-1884. situated in the heart of the Old West Side Historic District, this red-brick building began as a furniture factory. It was constructed in three phases, beginning with a wood-frame building facing William Street built in 1866 by John Keck and Company and now covered with brick veneer. In 1879 additional stock in the company was sold in order to finance a four-story brick building along Fourth Street. More construction followed in 1884 when the company was reorganized as the Michigan Furniture Company and a four-story building was built at the corner of Fourth and William, thus connecting the two older structures.

Keck came to America from Wurttemberg in 1854 at the age of 15 and apprenticed to cabinetmaker and coffin builder Florian Muehlig. By 1866 he was able to establish his own furniture factory with his brothers Frederick, George and Martin. The 1860s and 70s had been decades of rapid mechanization in the furniture industry. The steam engine had replaced water as a power source and specialization accompanied expansion as machines became more and more specialized. Despite the Depression of 1873, Keck employed 40 to 50 men and became one of the town's major businesses.

By 1879, when Keck formed a stock company, the decision had been made to specialize in bedroom suites (pronounced "suits"). They concentrated on making bedsteads, commodes and dressers and would continue this emphasis until they ceased operations in 1929. Unfortunately for antique collectors, Keck never marked his furniture and thus his products today are, in the words of journalist Mary Hunt, "distressingly anonymous."

Keck's designs were in the then-popular Renaissance Revival style, massive pieces with layers of elaborately carved woodwork, topped by carved pediments. A collection of Keck's drawings, recently discovered in the Grand Rapids Public Museum, gives a sense of the range of designs he produced. In 1884 the prominence of the buildings of the Michigan Furniture Company was noted in a local paper, which asserted that every visitor to Ann Arbor always inquired "What is that large four-story building?" Keck, who was no longer with the company, had opened another factory on Detroit Street in the mid-1880s. His success there was short lived, however, and he spent the rest of his life working in Detroit and Grand Rapids.

After furniture making ceased in 1929, Charles Verschoor acquired the building and began manufacturing his popular Kadette tabletop radios. Never one to sit on his hands, Verschoor traveled to Germany in 1936 to study camera manufacturing. When he returned, he began to mass produce a small 35mm camera -- the famous Argus Model A. The camera was an instant success, selling 30,000 units in its first week on the market. In 1939 the name of the company was changed to Argus and the Argus C-3 camera was introduced. It remained the staple of the company until 1957.

During World War II, Argus received many contracts from the government for telescopes, binoculars, periscopes, and gunsights. However, after the war Argus was unable to compete with Japanese cameras and the company was sold to Sylvania. In 1963 the building was sold to the University of Michigan which used it for various research institutes including an amphibian lab.

The recession of the 1980s prompted the University to sell the building in 1983 to C-3 Partners who undertook the enormous task of restoring and renovating this historic structure in 1986. Quinn/Evans Architects provided the expertise and the newly renovated space preserves the best of the old and the new. O'Neal Construction, one of the C-3 partners along with First Martin Corp., is now headquartered here and their offices feature the original heavy timbers and red bricks walls that characterized these simple factory buildings.

In 1891 the at Ann Arbor asserted that "when the visitor at Ann Arbor is shown about the city . . . he invariably inquires: "What is the large four-story brick building yonder?" That, he is told, is the Michigan Furniture Company." It is doubtful whether that question was as invariable as the newspaper article suggested. Nevertheless, the 200-foot-long brick factory at 401 Fourth Street was impressive, especially when compared with the university town's other industries, most of them still in fledgling stages. The company employed 85 men and produced around $100,000 worth of goods a year. In 1866 the factory began as a three-story frame cabinet shop at the same location. John Keck purchased this shop in 1868 and operated it as John Keck & Company until 1879, when a stock company was formed to raise capital for the big main building.

The 1860's and 1870's were decades of rapid expansion and mechanization in the furniture industry. The steam engine replaced the water wheel as the usual power source. Enterprising furniture manufactures in Grand Rapids designed cost and labor-saving machinery for furniture production which made the city's name synonymous with mass-produced furniture to many people all over the world. Smaller furniture factories followed Grand Rapids' lead in techniques, styles and methods of organization. These factories were dotted across the Midwestern hardwood belt that extended south of the virgin pine forests from southern Michigan and Wisconsin through Indiana and Ohio. These firms usually developed from small workshops, and their employees were often skilled craftsmen from Germany and the Netherlands. Mass production brought specialization to the industry, since expensive machines were often designed to perform a single type of wood-working operation very quickly. There was the Sheboygan Chair Company, the Moon Desk Company, the Knoxville Table Company and the Atlas Parlor Furniture Company.

The Michigan Furniture Company decided to specialize in bedroom suites when it expanded in 1879. Its bedsteads, dressers and commodes (with metal lined compartments to hold chamber pots) are today distressingly anonymous to collectors of Ann Arbor memorabilia. The company's name does not appear on its furniture, so authentication is nearly impossible.

Ann Arbor boosters in 1891 were eager to praise the furniture as some tangible evidence of the city's belatedly blossoming industrial promise. In the words of the Register reporter, "the great variety of handsome suites, ranging in price from $20 to $60, elegantly finished in all modern finishes of elm, ash, maple, oak and walnut and their unique Sixteenth century finish, forms a pleasing sight indeed."

Ann Arbor's retarded industrial development was discussed in the first part of this series. "It had become customary in some quarters to speak of the city in a derogatory manner," according to the Register, but the furniture factory's "wonderful business development" and other small industrial successes resulted in an improved attitude. The Register was able to report in 1891, "Today no one speaks of Ann Arbor with the sneering accents so often heard in the olden time."

The solid growth of the Michigan Furniture Company encouraged local citizens to promote the establishment of more furniture companies in the area. An 1891 Register article suggested how Ann Arbor's location favored this type of enterprise; "Hardwood forests are not far distant, fuel is cheap, and the markets are easily accessible." However, no other local furniture factory rivaled the Michigan Furniture Company in size.

The beard of the Michigan Furniture Company, and itself an object of civic pride, was the factory's "magnificent 100-horsepower Corliss engine" which "keeps up its steady, majestic motion from morning to night, as if it were aware that upon it depended the action of countless wheels and various pieces of machinery above."

This steam engine was made in Ann Arbor. Hoover's Ann Arbor Engine Works had been . . .

Notes for Johann Jacob Rapp:

In 1869 J. J. Rapp established a milling project at Millwood called the Stranger Valley Mills, from which the town of Millwood derived its name. It was more commonly known as "Rapp's Mill." The structural work on this mill was done by Michael Lakner, a millwright, who then lived in Leavenworth but who afterward became a resident of Millwood and for years operated a tavern and store there. He erected some of the best mills in that time in Kansas. The Millwood mill was a large structure of native stone, which was later used in the building of the hospital at Easton.

The mill was operated by both steam and water power. When the writer left Kansas in 1917, remains of the millrace and dam could still be seen. The mill passed into the hands of William Griswold, of DeKalb County, Missouri, after Rapp's death, and from him to the late John Davitz, of Oak Mills, who operated it for about eight years, and then engaged in the milling business at Oak Mills. Davitz finally sold the machinery of the old Millwood mill to Ashby and Son, of Leavenworth, and the mill itself, to Elijah Downing, also of Leavenworth, after which it was torn down. The writer has preserved in his Millwood scrap-book a drawing of the ruins of the old mill, made by Judge Leroy Hand, of Leavenworth, in 1909.

Notes for Johannes (John) Frey:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan: together with sketches of its cities, villages and townships...and biographies of representative citizens: history of Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Northern Brewery - In 1872 George Krause built this brewery in the lower town of Ann Arbor, on Mill Street. He sold out to John and Fred Frey, and in 1873 Fred sold out his interest to his brother John, who has operated it since. Mr. Frey makes about 2,400 barrels of beer annually, and consumes about 5,000 bushels of grain and 4,000 lbs. of hops in the manufacture of this beverage. During 1880 he stored up about 1,000 tons of ice.

In 1872, George Krause bought the site for his brewery. He was attracted by its proximity to Traver Creek and to the natural springs nearby. Krause used the spring water to make his beer, and ice harvested from the creek to keep it cool. Krause sold his Northern Brewery to brothers John and Fred Frey. John bought out Fred and then sold the business to German-trained brewer Herman Hardinghaus in 1885. The next year Hardinghaus built a substantial two-story brewery - "a fine brick block," Samuel Beakes called it in his 1891 Portrait and Biographical Album. According to Beakes, in addition to beer Hardinghaus brewed "a superior quality of ale which he ships to different cities and towns."

Hardinghaus ran the brewery until it closed in 1908. Although there was no sign that heavily Germanic Ann Arbor had lost its taste for beer, many small brewers were folding then in the face of competition from regional and national brands. When Krause opened the brewery in 1872, there were five other breweries in Ann Arbor alone. By the time Hardinghaus closed it, only one other was left.

Notes for Johann Georg Heimerdinger:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

George Heimerdinger is a farmer residing on section 9. He was born in Wedinburg near Stuttgart, Germany, October 12, 1830. His father, George H. Heimerdinger, was born in the same town, there passing his entire life and his decease taking place in 1831 when our subject was one year old. He was a farmer and also a weaver by trade. Our subject's mother, Miss Dora Reimolt, was a native of the same place in Germany where her husband was born. She came to America in 1839 and her decease took place in this State at the age of eighty-five years. She was the mother of eight children, six of whom were the fruit of the first union, she having been twice married. All of these are now living, the youngest being fifty-six years old; moreover they are all heads of families. He of whom we write is the youngest of the six children above mentioned.

Our subject came with his mother and her family to America in 1839 and located in Washtenaw County, Freedom Township, where they purchased their first tract of land. The whole family bent their efforts to improving the place and here our subject staid until twenty-five years of age. He then bought out the interest of the others and after remaining thereon for six years, sold it and purchased another farm comprising two hundred and two acres in the same township. There he remained until 1868, at which time he removed to the place where he now resides.

The marriage of Mr. Heimerdinger occurred April 1, 1856, his bride being Christina Schumacher, like himself a native of Germany. She came to this State in 1854 and here became acquainted with our subject. This worthy couple is the parents of nine children whose names are George, Mary, William, Fredericka, Fred, Amy, Charles, Henry and Christian, all of whom were born in this county.

Mr. Heimerdinger has acquired a handsome property here and is the owner of Hle hundred and ten acres, which is in a good state of cultivation. Their home, a view of which is presented on another page, is a fine two-story farm house, built in 1885 at a cost of over $3,000. The barn is a capacious and well-modeled building, erected in 1879 at a cost of $1,200. Here they do a general farming business, keeping over three hundred head of sheep, thirty head of cattle and eleven head of horses. Our subject had $500 to start with and this he has invested to such good purpose that it has made him a wealthy man. He was content to make a humble beginning, his first home being in a log house in the woods, but has grown in proportion to his circumstances. He, with the members of his family, is a member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church and has been a generous sup, porter of the same, having contributed $1,000 at the time of its building. He is one of its Deacons and has been Trustee for a number of years, being a leading member to whom the spread of Gospel work in a truly Christian spirit is very dear.

- 4266 iii. Wilhelm (Willie) Stierle, born 08 Aug 1890 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 29 Nov 1922 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Wilhelm (Willie) Stierle:

William Stierle, aged 32, employee of William Marken, was instantly killed last Wednesday evening Dec. 6, 1922 about 6:00 o'clock, when his team ran away on Lewis Street. It is presumed that his neck; was broken by the reins when the horses started to run. While there were no actual eyewitnesses, he was seen walking alongside his loaded wagon with the reins slipped over his shoulders shortly before the accident happened. Just a few minutes later the team, without load or driver, ran into the Saline Garage where they were brought to a stop. Upon investigation it was found that the driver's body lay alongside the curbing on Lewis Street where the team started to run, and the load of wood was thrown-off not far from this point. Examination of Mr. Stierle's body showed that it had not been dragged at all, giving rise to the theory; he had met his death as outlined above.

Funeral services, for Mr. Stierle were, held Saturday afternoon, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Herman Klumpp, who-lives two miles west of Saline, Rev. G. A. Lederer officiating. Deceased is survived by three sisters and one younger brother, all of whom live in this vicinity. Interment was made in Oakwood Cemetery.

Company 1891:

George Wahr, a successful dealer in the book and stationery trade, who has his establishment at No. 4, North Main Street, Ann Arbor, where he succeeded to George Osius Co., was born near Chelsea, this county, February 18, 1861. He is the son of Gottlieb and Agnes (Katz) Wahr. They were both natives of Germany, who emigrated to the United States in 1835, in hopes of bettering their fortunes. The father was a man of moderate means, and his goodly family of two sons and four daughters, taxed his resources to care for and educate them. Our subject is third in order of age in this household, and he received his school training in the city of Ann Arbor.

He of whom we write began his mercantile experience as clerk in the store of John Moore, a dealer in books and stationery, and there he remained for ten years, after which he formed a partnership with Mr. Osius under the firm name of George Osius & Co. Somewhat later he purchased his partner's interest in the concern, and now carries on the business at the same stand here. He has a fine stock of the latest and most popular works of the day, as well as the best known and favored lines of stationery. He also keeps a large stock of wall paper and such notions as are usually to be found in a store of this kind, and he makes a specialty of periodicals and books.

On the 10th of September, 1884, Mr. Wahr was united in marriage with Miss Emma Stabler, daughter of Fred Stabler, a prominent stockbroker of Ann Arbor, and to this couple has been born one little daughter, Nathalie. They are constant attendants of the Lutheran Church, and their home on South Fourth Avenue, possesses many comforts and is pleasantly situated.

George and Emma Wahr House, 1890 - 445 South Fourth Avenue

Four years before George Wahr constructed a similar high-style Queen Anne house on North Division Street next to the Wilson-Wahr House, he built this house on South Fourth Avenue near the intersection with Packard Street. Embellished with an elaborate display of the woodworker's craft, the house is detailed with carved barge boards, sunbursts, dormers, bays and gables, all blending together in a wonderful example of Victorian excess. It is rumored that Wahr had a feud with his neighbor who hung the wash out on a line to dry. This apparently upset him enough to move to the other side of town! (His increasing prosperity might also have prompted the move to a more exclusive part of town.) Wahr's bookstore on Main Street became quite successful by the late 1880s when his name appears in bold letters in the City Directory. Four years after he built this house, he opened his second bookstore on State Street. It outlasted his Main Street store by many years, remaining in business until the 1970s. The first occupant after that was Border's Books, then a used and rare book shop.

Wahr sold the property to the Schaffer family who lived here for close to a century, which helps explain its intact condition today. George D. and Elizabeth Schaffer moved into the house in 1894 and by 1900 they had seven children: Anna, Bertha, Carrie, Elizabeth, Ella, George Jr. and William H. By 1915 only Carrie, Anna, and Bertha were still living with their parents and by the mid-1930s only Anna and Bertha were still here. In 1935, their mother Elizabeth, a widow, married the man next door, Mr. Frank Ohlinger, and moved into 451 South Fourth Avenue. In 1965 she was again widowed. In the late 1970s, probably after her mother's death, Bertha moved into 451 and rented out 445.

After Bertha's death, both properties were sold and the house at 445 was purchased by the William Johnson family in 1981. They did a major overhaul of the house, restoring it to its original splendor. They were recognized by the Historic District Commission in 1988 for their splendid efforts at reviving this glorious structure.

Notes for William Frederick Bohnet:

William F. Bohnet, 83, founder of the electrical company bearing his name at 331 N. Washington Ave., Lansing, Michigan, died at 1 p.m. Friday August 11, 1961 at Edward W. Sparrow hospital after a short illness. He lived at 1408 W. Washtenaw St. At his bedside was his daughter, Mrs. Harold (Helen) Walter, of 3234 S. Cambridge Rd. She had cut short a European trip, rushing home by airliner from Rome to be with her father. Mr. Bohnet died of an ailment diagnosed by his family doctor as multiple myeloma, a bone disease, with which he was stricken in May. He was hospitalized May 28, released June 27 and rushed back to the hospital on Aug. 3, when he suffered a relapse. A resident of Lansing for 66 years, Mr. Bohnet came here as a lad with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bohnet, from Jackson County. He was born there. From E. P. Kinney, who operated an electrical company, he learned the electrician trade. He also met his future wife, then Phebe Crofts, at the Kinney company. She worked there as a bookkeeper. Three years before establishing his own electrical company (1906) he married Miss Crofts in the brick house that still stands on the northwest corner of Saginaw and Chestnut Sts. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Crofts. She died in 1953. Establishing their home at 521 N. Walnut St., Mr. Bohnet and his wife lived there until about 1945 when they moved to 1408 W. Washtenaw St.

Founding his electrical firm in the 100 block of E. Ottawa St., in the vicinity of the site formerly occupied by Barker-Fowler, Mr. Bohnet later took into the company his brothers, Ernest and Herman. Herman left the firm to open his own business. Since Mr. Bohnet retired in 1947, the business has been operated by Ernest and his son, Ronald. Later, Mr. Bohnet moved the electrical company to 326-327 N. Washington Ave. before locating at 331 N. Washington Ave. With his brother, George, who preceded him in death by three weeks, Mr. Bohnet assembled the city's first steam car to be successfully operated, shortly after the turn of the century. Unassuming about his accomplishments, Mr. Bohnet usually devoted his thoughts and efforts toward the future. Occasionally, he did reminisce telling about the wiring of the county building at Mason and the Shiawassee County building at Corunna. Affiliations included the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church and Lansing Lodge 196, B. P. O. Elks.

Besides the daughter, he is survived by two grandsons, James F. Walter of Lansing and Gordon E. Walter of Holland; two brothers, Ernest H. and Herman C. Bohnet, both of Lansing; and two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Turner of Lansing and Mrs. Emma Spathelf of Big Rapids.

The body was removed to the Estes-Leadley funeral home. where funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Monday in the Colonial chapel. Rev. R. E. Eshmeyer, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church, who cut short a vacation, will conduct the rites. Burial will be in Mt. Hope cemetery. Pallbearers will be nephews, Ronald E. Bohnet, Kenneth C. Bohnet, Victor F. Spathelf, Harold C. Crofts, William G. Crofts and Elver Ostrom.

William F. Bohnet of 1408 W. Washtenaw St., Lansing, age 83 years, died Aug. 11, 1961 at a local hospital. Notes for Victor Franz Spathelf:

Big Rapids - Victor F. Spathelf is retiring this year as president of Ferris State College, a job he has held for the past 18 years. In a letter to the school's Board of Control, the 60-year-old Spathelf said he will retire Dec. 15 with the thought in mind that "the college is once again in a forward momentum." In an apparent reference to scattered racial incidents which flared on the Ferris State campus during the early months of 1969, Spathelf said he would have retired earlier "were it not for the unforeseen interim developments which I felt challenged the well-being of the institution."

During Spathelf's tenure, which began only two years after the college became a state institution, Ferris' enrollment grew from 700 students to a predicted 9,000 for this fall. He had also seen the school receive full accreditation and it's campus, the center of this West Michigan community, expand from 19 to 470 acres. Spathelf, who held various administrative posts at Wayne State University in Detroit before coming to Ferris, said his retirement plans include "taking a vacation to recharge my batteries."

Victor Franz Spathelf, son of Eugene H. Spathelf and Emma Rae (?), was born on 29 March 1911 in Benton Harbor, Berrien County, Michigan. He lived with his parents, Emma and Eugene, in 1920 at 308 Harrison Avenue in Elkhart, Elkhart County, Indiana. In 1928 he ran on Wayne State University's mile relay team. Victor Franz Spathelf was employed by principal of Madison High School at Royal Oak and athletic director; superintendent of schools for District 19 in Royal Oak Township and assistant superintendent of Highland Park schools. Victor Franz was Director of Student Affairs from 1946 to 1952 at Wayne State University, Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan.

Victor Franz was as president from 9 July 1952 to 15 December 1970 at Ferris College, Big Rapids, Mecosta County, Michigan. When his track coach at Wayne State University, David L. Holmes, retired in June, 1959, Victor gave him a blanket and plaque commemorating a half century of coaching. The presentation was made at a dinner for Ferris College athletic letter winners.

In March 1969, 250 Ferris students staged a lock-in at the school auditorium. Eighty-five riot equipped state troopers, sent at the request of Victor Spathelf, shattered the main glass door to the building and routed the demonstrators. After the incident he announced a set of "get tough" student conduct rules saying the disorders resulted from irresponsible behavior of a group of students. On June 5 1971 he delivered the commencement address at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, Michigan. At that time he received an honorary doctor of laws degree. Victor died on 6 October 1998 in Sarasota County, Florida, at age 87.

- 4723 v. Orville Friedrich Wurster, born 10 Aug 1907 in Manchester Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 18 Mar 1942 in Manchester, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Orville Friedrich Wurster:

A University of Michigan pathologist reported today that Orville E. Wurster, 34-year-old Manchester store clerk whose burned body was found in a woods yesterday March 17, 1942, may have died by asphyxiation. Dr. Robert J. Parsons, who performed an autopsy, said in a preliminary report that he had found indications of asphyxiation and that Wurster had not died from burns. The report Wurster was turned over to Prosecutor George Meader of Washtenaw County.

The autopsy disclosed smoke in the lungs, showing that Wurster was alive apparently at the very time when his clothes were set afire, Doctor Parsons said. The pathologist said also that he had found kerosene in the stomach. Bits of earth taken from beneath the fingernails will be compared with the earth in a shallow trench about 300 yards from where, the body was found. Doctor Parsons said his report would not be complete until further examinations, including chemical analyses, were made. Meanwhile sheriff's officers returned to the little Washtenaw County community to question friends of Wurster, examine two kerosene cans and a shovel for fingerprints, and comb the grounds in the vicinity where the body was found for possible new clues.

The body was discovered by a searching party at 10 a. m. Tuesday. Wurster was first reported missing early Monday morning when he failed to show up for work at the store, which was operated by his uncle. G. R. Breitenwischer. Beside the body were found the two cans. The shovel was discovered about 300 yards away, beside a shallow trench. In which was buried Wurster's outer clothing. Wurster lived with his mother, Mrs. Dora Wurster. The mother told officers she spent Sunday night in Saline, Mich., with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Haar. Mrs. Wurster said her son's bed clothing was ruffled enough to indicate that he had slept there Sunday. "I know he didn't kill himself, Mrs. Wurster told officers. "He was always considerate of me. he was happy, and he knew I needed him to take care of me.

The car which Wurster drove, although it was owned by his uncle, was discovered Monday morning parked in front of the store. Night watchmen told officers they thought it had been parked there between 4 and 6 a. m. Just a week ago Wurster had been rejected for selective service by draft board physicians. His mother told officers he had been lame since childhood, and walked with a limp.

Wurster's death came almost exactly a year after the charred body of Hazel Briggs, of Detroit, was found in a deserted rubbish pile on the other side of Manchester, three miles away. Both bodies were discovered in locations where they could not be seen from the nearest road because of an intervening hill. Both bodies were burned, and oil cans were found lying beside each of them. Miss Briggs' body was not found until nearly a month after she disappeared, however, while Wurster's body was discovered the next day. County officers have not yet been able to explain the Briggs death.

The charred body of Orville Wurster, 34, of Manchester, was found today March 17, 1942 in a woods two miles east of Manchester and three miles from the scene of the unsolved torch death of Miss Hazel Briggs, also 34, of Detroit. Miss Briggs died last May while visiting relatives near Manchester. The investigation of her death is still being continued. William Uhr came upon Wurster's body at 9:30 a. m. today on the farm of Oscar Buss. Uhr was a member of a searching party that began a hunt for Wurster after friends of the dead man reported he had been missing overnight. Deputy Sheriff Tom Knight said two gasoline cans were found near the body. A thorough search of the vicinity disclosed no weapon, he added, and burns apparently were the sole cause of death. Knight said the dead man's clothing and a shovel had been buried approximately 200 yards from the body. The shovel apparently had been used to break the tough woodland sod, he explained, and then concealed in a rude trench over which the sod was replaced and fumed by someone's foot.

Knight said Wurster had been in ill health since childhood, and that he would recommend an investigation of the possibility of suicide. Wurster lived here with his mother, Mrs. Dora Wurster, and was employed in the dry goods store operated by his uncle, G. H. Breitenwischer. Breitenwischer said today he had no reason to suspect that his nephew's death was either murder or suicide. He said Wurster was a good clerk and popular with customers of the store. The automobile in which Wurster was accustomed to drive to the store at 8 a. m. each day was noticed parked outside the establishment as early as 6:40 a. m. on Monday. Breitenwischer said that Wurster, a partial cripple who walked with a decided limp, was rejected for army service last week. The search for Wurster this morning was directed by R. B. Haeusler, mayor of Manchester.

Mrs. Dora Wurster, his mother, told county officers she thought her son was well-liked by everyone he knew." She said he was an active church worker, president of his church men's brotherhood, and that Rev. H. S. Van Rague of the Emanuel Evangelical church was his most intimate confidant. Reverend Van Rague, called to testify at a special inquest in the Manchester jury rooms, said he had known Wurster for some 13 years, and that during that whole time he was ambitious, helpful, and at no time moody or depressed. "Just last Thursday at our brotherhood meeting he was planning activities far in advance, trying to improve the organization. He was extremely ambitious, always looking ahead, and wasn't the sort of person who would tend to give up and take his own life," Reverend Van Rague asserted. Ermine Wurster of Saginaw, brother of Orville, told officers "I'm positive my brother didn't commit suicide. He had no worries and just wasn't the kind of person who would do that." Prosecutor George Meader called the inquest and heard the following testimony. Deputy Sheriff Raymond Roy reported that Wurster's burned body was discovered at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday by two members of a town posse that was organized when the man was reported missing. The body was resting on a matting of wet leaves and there were no footprints or tire marks to be found. Two oil cans stood near the body, both partly filled with kerosene. Wurster's outer clothing was buried in a shallow trench 600 feet away. Carl Schabile, Wursters cousin reported that Wurster's house was locked and his bed mussed, indicating it had been slept in Sunday night. His mother was visiting relatives in Saline at the time.

Manchester, March 19, 1942 - Alarmed citizens of this village of 1,200 persons, still without an official explanation of the torch death of 34-year-old Orville E. Wurster, probed their memories today in search of a clue that might explain why the popular young store clerk would take his own life or why anyone would want to kill him. Murder or suicide, a motive is missing up to now, Sheriff John Osborn said.

Wurster's burned body was discovered Tuesday morning in a lonely woods more than a mile from the heart of town. The discovery came almost a year after the body of Miss Hazel Briggs of Detroit was found, charred beyond recognition, in a rubbish dump on the other side of the village. The similarity of the two deaths has caused Mayor R. B. Haeusler and others to fear that one person was responsible for both killings. The Briggs mystery has never been solved.

"Every woman in the village is afraid to go on the street now, Haeusler said. "Windows are bolted and doors locked. Everyone is afraid. We've got to get an explanation for Orville's death. If county officers don't do it, we'll post a reward here and conduct an investigation of our own." Friends and relatives testified at an inquest yesterday and without exception stated that Wurster had no enemies, had no fears and anxieties, and was not likely to commit suicide.

Notes for Jacob George Keck:

Jacob G. Keck, pioneer farmer of Clinton County, died at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning July 30, 1941 at his farm home on the Gunnisonville Road, three miles north of Lansing. Mr. Keck, who had been in ill health for the past year, would have been 80 years of age had he lived until October 3. His death occurred within a short distance of the original Keck homestead where he was born. His father and mother. George and Catherine Keck, were among the original settlers of the Gunnisonville community in Clinton county. The father cleared the land and built the home where Mr. Keck was born. While Mr. Keck's health was impaired, it was not until the past three weeks that his condition became critical.

Besides the widow, Mrs. Rickey Keck, Mr. Keck leaves four children, Mrs. Edward Seyfried, of DeWitt; Mrs. Bertha Wilber, of Detroit, and Miss Edith Keck and Walter Keck who lived with their parents. Mr. Keck also leaves a brother, Charles Keck, of Wolverine, and three sisters, Mrs. Edward L. Heeb, Mrs. Eva Andrews and Mrs. Agnes Springsteen, all residents of Lansing.

Mr. Keck was a member of Emanuel First Evangelical Lutheran church of this city. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1 :30 o'clock at the Estes-Leadley funeral home, the Rev. Karl F. Krauss officiating. Interment will be in the old Gunnisonville cemetery.

Funeral services for Jacob G. Keck, who died Wednesday morning July 30, 1941 at the residence on route No. 4 Gunnisonville Road, will be held at 1 :30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Estes-Leadley funeral home, with Reverend Herman J. Schwarzkopf officiating. Interment will be in Gunnisonville cemetery.

Notes for Catherine Agatha (Agnes Elizabeth) Keck:

Feb. 3, 1952 - It will be a wonderful day Monday for Mrs. Agnes Springsteen even if the sun is hidden by layers of dark clouds. That day she will be celebrating her 80th birthday and an open house has been planned for her from 6 to 9 p. m., at her home, 2119 Sunnyside St. Mrs. Springsteen, widow of L. D. Springsteen, has lived in Lansing since 1928 when she moved here with her husband from a farm near Holly. She was born at Gunnisonville where she was "raised" in the Gunnisonville Church aid. She and her husband were married in 1892 and in 1942 celebrated their golden wedding anniversary March 2. Mr. Springsteen died the following year. Helping Mrs. Springsteen celebrate her birthday will be her two sons, Harold of 529 N. Pine St., and Clinton of Eagle. She also has eight grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Feb. 3, 1957 - Mrs. Agnes Springsteen who is 85 today spends most of her time caring for "elderly" people. She lives with one of eight grandchildren, Mrs. Alex Raczkowski and her husband at 1011 VerLinden Ave. But Mrs. Springsteen is seldom home! This pinochle and party-loving octogenarian is usually holding down a full-time job as companion or practical nurse to someone years her junior. Mrs. Springsteen's face is softly creased with laugh lines and her wavy white hair hints of a blonde past. She's as active as one of her 20 great-grandchildren. Her day starts at 7 a. m. and ends at 11 p. m. "Some people are burned out at 50," she said, "but I can't see it. If they would keep busy they'd have more energy." "Maybe," she remarked, lifting her eyebrow, "I don't tire because I don't diet. Tried it once and almost died. I took to eating again right away. All her friends and some of her patients call Mrs. Springsteen "grandma." "The last woman I stayed with called me that," "Grand-ma" mused. "She wasn't very old." Mrs. Springsteen has cared for dozens of elderly men and women. And how does she get along with them? "Be cheerful don't cross them. Let them have their own way until they find out they're wrong."

Smoothing the skirt on her ample lap, Mrs. Springsteen added, "Old people are very appreciative, but sometimes they are worse to take care of than children." She's an authority on the latter, too. In addition to the children in her own family, she sometimes cares for other youngsters. Since November she's been "grandmothering" the two, four and six-year-old children of Jerry VanNorman. She lives in their home, prepares all meals and does some of the cleaning.

Mrs. Springsteen and her husband celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1942. He died in 1943. Their two married sons live in the Lansing area. Harold, resides at 539 N. Pine St., and Clinton's home is in Eagle. They will be on hand today when Mrs. Springsteen blows out 85 candles on her birthday cake. So, will a host of friends who will attend an open house given by me Raczkowskis to age mark "Grandma's big day. I'm proud of every one of those 85 years," Mrs. Springsteen said, "but it's getting so I don't like to tell anyone my age." "Because," she chuckled, "they think I'm telling a story."

Mrs. Springsteen Dies in Hospital - Funeral services will be held here at 2 p.m. Tuesday for Mrs. K. Springsteen, 91, of 317 W. Hillsdale St., who died Saturday April 13, 1963 in a Lansing hospital. A life-long resident of the city Springsteen is survived by sons, Joe of Eagle and Harold E. of Lansing; 9 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren. will be at the Estes-Leadley Colonial Chapel and burial will be in Gunnisonville Cemetery.

Notes for Rev. John Ude Reininga:

Clay Center, Kansas, Feb. 3, 1916 - Rev. John Reininga, who for a number of years has been the popular pas tor of the German Lutheran church of this city, has tendered his resignation to his congregation, his resignation to take place March 1st, 1916, at which time he and his family go to West Cliff, Colorado, which is located in Custer county in the Wet Mountain Valley. Mr. Reininga, in leaving Clay Center and the pastorate here, goes to a larger church and to a larger work and although it is with regret that the people of Clay Center see him go he will have the best wishes from all his acquaintances and fellow-workers for a prosperous work at the new residing place. Mr. Reininga has been with the Clay Center congregation for ten years, devoting a part of his services to the German Lutheran church at Riley, during the times that that church was without a pastor. During his stay here the present church edifice has been built and much good work done under his charge. During the past seven years he has also devoted his time to the conducting of the German Lutheran school, located, in the basement of the church building. The church is now free from debt and in a prosperous condition, all of which is in part due to Mr. Reininga's diligent and efficient work. He will deliver his farewell sermon February 27th and leave the first of next week with the members of his family, who likewise will be greatly missed from the congregation, for the new home in Colorado. Rev. A. Dubberstein of Bellefont has been called to the Clay Center charge.

Evansville - Rev. J. U. Reininga, 45, formerly of Scott Twp., died Wednesday Sept. 17, 1919 at West Cliffe, Colorado, where he is in charge of a Lutheran church. He left his mother, Mrs. W. Reininga of Scott Twp., and five brothers, Henry, Gerhard, William, Otto, and Rev. Fred Reininga of Logan, Missouri; two sisters, Mrs. Theodore Umbach of Center Twp., and Mrs. G. S. Stratman, a wife and six children.

She married Rev. Friederich Heinrich (Reininger) Reininga 04 Aug 1907 in Vanderburgh Co, Indiana, son of Athe Reininga and Maria Schlensker. He was born 05 Mar 1884 in Evansville, Vanderburgh Co, Indiana, and died 07 Aug 1971 in Illinois.

Notes for Rev. Friederich Heinrich (Reininger) Reininga:

St. Louis, Missouri, Oct. 21, 1929 - The Rev. Fred Reininga, former pastor of Advent United Lutheran Church, who was arrested last July, 1929 when a Health Department instructor found him peddling birth control instructions, was found guilty of posing as a physician today by Judge Butler of the Court of Criminal Correction and sentenced to six months in the Workhouse. The former pastor, who resigned after his arrest last July, did not testify. The defense attempted to show, through testimony of his family physician, that he had been in a highly nervous state and that sanitarium treatment had been recommended.

Mrs. Ruth Light, 1507A Menard Street, testified that Reininga had come to her door last June, identified himself as Dr. Charles Heiner of Brooklyn, New York, one of five physicians "passing through St. Louis on vacation," and offered to instruct her in birth control for a fee ranging from $5 to $50, depending on financial circumstances of the "patient." Mrs. Light asked him to return and talk to her husband, but received a typed card postponing that appointment. When he did return. Deputy Health Commissioner Fishwick, who had heard of activities in the neighborhood and was making a canvass of his own, walked up and asked "Dr. Heiner" if he was a physician.

St. Louis, Missouri, Oct. 31, 1929 - The pastor said that he was, Fishwick testified, and declared that he was licensed in New York. In his pocket Fishwick found the Rev. Mr. Reininga's notebook, he testified, but he "doctor" insisted his name was Heiner until Fishwick confronted him with a mutual acquaintance whose name he found in the notebook and who identified the preacher. Motion was filed for a new trial.

Notes for Johann Georg (John George) Reichert:

Ann Arbor Argus-Democrat Newspaper, June 2, 1899:

The celebrated divorce case of Mrs. Catherine C. Reichert vs. John G. Reichert, of Scio, was taken up this morning and the plaintiff has occupied that stand most of the day. She charged cruelty during the last four years of their married life and the main cruelty charged seems to have been an attempt to send her to an insane asylum and her son to the reform school. Property seems to cut a big figure in the suit and the cross-examination of Attorney Lehman is particularly severe, evidently having a bearing upon the suit alienation of affections brought by the defendant in this suit.

Judge Kinne Said there Was No reason Why They Should Not Live Together and Be Happy - The conclusion of the divorce case of Katherine C. Reichert vs. John G. Reichert occupied the time of the circuit court today until after 3 o'clock. The defendant testified to what he was worth when he married his wife and what he was worth now. Coming to the difficulty between himself and wife he said they had always lived happily together until during the past three or four years. He related the many terrible accusations his wife had made against him, including unfaithfulness and drunkenness but denied them all emphatically. He also related some of the bad things he had said to his wife while in anger.. But he declared he still loved her, that he had never had improper relations with any other woman, that his home was open for her to return and that he would be glad to have her return at any time, that if she did not like to live in the county he would willingly move to town. He related the numerous times he had called to see his wife but she always repulsed him. He declared that he never believed her other than a pure woman.

When the evidence was all in the attorneys stated that they had no arguments to make to the court. The court declared that his mind was so fully made up in the matter that he did not think arguments of attorneys would change it, nevertheless he would willingly listen to attorneys.

Judge Kinne then stated that he could not grant the divorce. There was no law for it under the evidence.. These people, he said, ought to fix up their differences. There appeared to be no valid reason why they should not live together and be happy. They ought to do this on their own account, on account of their children and the community in which they lived. Mr. Sawyer stated his would be impossible and that the case would be taken to the supreme court. Judge Kinne said attorneys should help on a reconciliation and from the matter right where he left it. This the defense seemed willing to do, but stated their intention to fight if it was necessary.

Oct. 16, 1899 - John G. Reichert, of Scio, is suing his wife's family for $20,000, charging them with alienating the affections of his spouse, who is suing for a divorce.

Ann Arbor Argus-Democrat Newspaper, October 20, 1899:

The $20,000 case of alienation of affections is now in progress in the circuit court. John George Reichert of Scio is suing Barbara Keck (his mother-in-law), Michael and Jacob Keck (his brothers-in-law), Gottfried Zahn and John Feldkamp, for the amount, alleging that they have separated his wife from him. Much of the testimony is unfit for publications. The allegations of the plaintiff are that the Keck's told Mrs. Reichert that her husband was talking around that she was crazy; the mother-in-law demanded that he divide up the property with his wife; that some of the defendants charge him with being intimate with his own sister; that Zahn accused him of playing the dirtiest trick ever played in Washtenaw - with conspiring to send his wife to an insane asylum; that Feldkamp meddled in the family affairs and said that if he could prevent it Mrs. Reichert would never go back to live with Mr. Reichert. The case will last all day tomorrow.

Ann Arbor Newspaper articles: April 14, 1904 George Reichert Died This Morning - Was a Prominent Scio Farmer - Funeral Will be Sunday

Mr. George Reichert dies at his home in Scio about eleven o'clock this morning at the age of forty-eight years. He lived on the old family homestead where practically his whole life had been passed. Funeral services will be held Sunday at ten o'clock in the Salem church.

Cut Off His Children with One Dollar Each - Georg Reichert Leaves His $8,200 Estate to His Nephews and Nieces

... the late John George Reichert ... has been filed for .... not only cuts off his ... without a cent but he ... son and daughter the sum of one dollar each. The case was a sensation ... bitter neighborhood feeling ... children with their mother. ... interesting clause of the ... follows: " ... son, Julius H. Reichert and my daughter, Hermina B. Reichert, having chosen the wrong instead of the right,, and having refused to visit or communicate with me, I give and bequeath to each of them the sum of one dollar only." By the provisions of the will, after paying $500 for a monument the rest and residue of the estate is to go to his nephews and nieces to share alike. The estate is valued at $7,000 real estate and $1,200 personal property. John Jacob Reichert, a brother, is named as executor.

They have Appealed - Reichert Heirs Take Case to Circuit Court - Estate Worth $7,000 - Children Cut Off Without Any Property on Account of Family Troubles: Julius and Hermina Reichert have appealed from the decision of the probate court admitting the will of their father, John G. Reichert to probate. They allege that the judge was in error in taking away from the jury and in directing them to bring to a verdict declaring the will valid. They also object to numerous other details in the trial. The Reichert estate is valued at about $7,000 and it was all left to nephews and nieces. There had been family difficulties and the father states in his will that he cut his children off without any property because they sided with their mother. The children tried to have the will set ... the grounds that their father ... duly influenced.

Notes for Johannes (John) Keck:

Mrs. May Schmitt accuses John Keck, Lodi highway overseer, of slander (defamed character) brings suit for $5,000. The remarks imputed to Keck was in German, and are alleged to reflect upon the character of Mrs. Schmitt. The suit is an outgrowth of the trouble that arose between Schmitt and Keck in the spring over the grading of the road in front of Schmitt's farm. Keck and a gang of men were driving through the country with a scraper, and Schmitt tried to prevent their removing a certain bank in front of his house. A quarrel ensued and as a result Schmitt was arrested and later bound over to the circuit court on the charge of assault upon Keck with intent to do great bodily harm less than the crime of murder.

In his plea Keck states that Schmitt's attorney, Frank Stivers, came to him and stated that if he would drop the assault case he would give a bond to keep the peace, but that if the case was continued suit would be brought against him for slander.

A motion has been filed by Keck's attorneys, Arthur Brown and Philip Blum, for security for costs from the plaintiff, on the grounds that the suit was brought merely to case Keck annoyance and that the Schmitt's are financially irresponsible.

Notes for Georg Wilhelm (William) Dieterle:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

William G. Dieterle. The large furniture and undertaking establishment of W which our subject is proprietor, is located in the city of Ann Arbor, and here may be found the most skilled products from the hands of the best workmen. In spite of his name, which proclaims him to be of Teutonic origin, our subject was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, September 23, 1866. He is the second son of Adam and Christina (Meier) Dieterle, both of whom are natives of Germany. Our subject's parents came to the United States from their native land in 1846 and located at Grand Rapids. The father was a cooper by trade, which he followed as long as he was in the above named city. When our subject was three years old his parents removed to Ann Arbor, where the youth was educated in the common schools of the city. After finishing his educational course he was apprenticed to John Keck & Co., cabinetmakers. He remained with them for two years, and then returned to his native place where he entered the employ of Burkey & Gay, manufacturers of furniture. He remained with them for eighteen months and at the expiration of that time returned to Ann Arbor, and was again in the employ of the gentleman with whom he learned his trade. After remaining two years with Messrs. Keck & Co., Mr. Dieterle, who had been able to accumulate some capital by his prudent ways and industry, went to Manchester, Washtenaw County, where he purchased a stock of furniture and embarked in business on his own account. After remaining there for four years, during which time he purchased the outfit of two other furniture establishments, he sold out his entire business and went to Detroit, where he again entered the employ of his old employer, Mr. Keck, who had established himself at that place. Our subject remained with the firm in Detroit until it closed its doors and then returned to Ann Arbor, purchasing the stock of John Muehlig, and continuing the business at the same stand for five years. At the expiration of that time he removed his stock to his present store, which is located at No. 37, S. Main Street. Here he keeps a full and well-selected stock of furniture of the latest and most artistic designs. His store room is 22x120 feet in dimensions, reaching from street to alley, and is three stories in height, all of which room he uses to its fullest capacity in his business. Mr. Dieterle is genial and popular, and his patronage is among the best people of this portion of the country. He was married in 1880 to Miss Christina Keck, of Manchester, a niece of John Keck, with whom he had been so long in business. She was born in Washtenaw County, and her parents were formerly from Germany. The home is brightened by the presence of two attractive children, a daughter and son, who are named respectively Emma and William. While in Manchester, Mr. Dieterle served one term as Alderman, and has occupied the same official position, representing the First Ward in this city. He ran as a candidate for County Clerk and was defeated by a very small majority. Their pleasant residence is located at No. 38, Fourth Avenue, and it is as attractive in the surroundings as it is neat and comfortable in its interior arrangements.

 Luella Lambarth, assistant cashier of the Saline Savings Bank, retired Friday after nearly 20 years with the bank. She, officially started work at the bank on November 1, 1950, but had worked part time "to help out" before that. She was guest of honor at a retirement party last week at Leutheuser's Restaurant, attended by members of the staff and the board of directors and their wives, and she was presented with a stereo-FM radio. Born and raised in Saline, she graduated from Saline High School and attended Cleary College. She was employed by the late F. O. Wiedman, former Ford dealer here, for 12 years before she worked in the bank. Miss Lambarth, who now knows nearly everyone in Saline, has "enjoyed the work immensely." She found it "intriguing," she said, and wishes "I could have gone directly into banking, earlier." She has also maintained many other activities. She was treasurer of the United Fund for six years and is now treasurer of the Business and Professional Women's club. She is a member of the Women's Guild of St. Paul's Church and has served as treasurer and a member of the church council. She lives at 202 W. Henry St.

Marriage Notes for John Hartman and Florence Kleinschmidt:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kleinschmidt was the scene of lovely wedding ceremony at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon October 16, 1937 when their daughter, Florence, was united in marriage to John Hartman of Scio Township, son of Mrs. Anna Hartman. The bridal party descended the stairs to Lohengrin's wedding march, which was played by Mrs. Erwin Eiseman, and assembled at the end of the living room. Palms and fall flowers formed the setting for the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. C. H. Wittbracht, the double ring ceremony being used. The bride chose for her wedding a gown of royal blue crepe, set in design of georgette to match a V neckline, a rhinestone buckle and bracelet sleeve, with matching accessories. Her bridal bouquet was of talisman roses and white baby mums tied with pink figured tulle. Miss Doris Kleinschmidt, sister of the bride, wore a gown of slate blue crepe, high neck line and elbow length sleeves with matching accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of talisman roses. Harold Kleinschmidt, cousin of the bride, acted as best man.

A wedding supper was served to 25 guests by Mrs. Erwin Eiseman and Mrs. Ellwyn Guenther, assisted by Mrs. William Guenther and Mrs. John Bodmer, following the ceremony. The table was very dainty in its decorations of pink and white and the color scheme was carried out in full throughout the home. A large wedding cake formed the centerpiece of the table. The happy couple left for an eastern wedding trip and upon their return will make their home, near Ann Arbor.

Notes for William Weidmayer:

It was with deep sorrow that the many friends of William Wiedmayer learned of his passing on Wednesday, January 24, 1934, after an illness of only two weeks. His genial personality and kindly nature had won him many friends, and his willingness to render help whenever called upon to do so marked him as a good neighbor. He was born February 3, 1875, in Lodi Township, the son of Peter and Dorothy Kaercher Wiedmayer, both of whom died in 1933. The greater part of his life had been spent in the neighborhood where he lived at the time of his death, his home having been the family homestead.

On March 7, 1901, he was united in marriage with Miss Christine Hartmann, and to this union eight children were born. The eldest, Elsa, (Mrs. Otto Bredernitz) passed away twelve years ago. Almost all his life he had been connected with St. James Church, having been confirmed there Palm Sunday, 1888, and since then he had rendered many services and untiring support to the church, serving on the church board at various, intervals. He had also served at times on the Benton District school board. He leaves to mourn his departure, the widow, Christine; five sons, Clarence, Edwin, Paul, Arthur and Raymond, and two daughters, Erma, (Mrs. Arthur Alber) and Dorothy; four grandchildren; three brothers, John, Aaron and Alfred, and two sisters, Lydia- (Mrs. Ernest Lamparter) and Tema.

Funeral serviced were held for him Saturday afternoon, at the residence at 1:45 and at St. James Church at 2 o'clock. Because of illness of the pastor, Rev. Otto Papsdorf, the services were conducted by Rev. W. G. Mauch of Rogers Corners and were largely attended. Interment took place in St. James Cemetery.

Notes for Helene Maria Klumpp:

An Open House Sunday at Pleasant Lake School win honor Helen Gross (Mrs. Rudolph Gross, of 7385 Noble Rd.), who retire this year (May 1962) after 41 of teaching. The Open House, for former students, fellow teachers, and friends, is scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m., at the school where Mrs. Gross has taught since 1953.

Mrs. Gross graduated from Saline High School in 1921. She taught for half a year at a school in Lima Township, and then went to Jedelee school in Lodi Township for three years. She taught at Dold school in Lodi Township for 16 years School, then taught at Kuebler school in Freedom township for a year at Mooreville for a year, and then returned to Kuebler. Along the line in 1931 she graduated from Eastern Michigan. She got married that same year.

She always had time for outside activities, including her own orchestra, "Helen's Orchestra", to play at parties and square dances -- "I'm a fiddler, not a violinist," she says -- travel every summer that has so far taken her to 44 states, and gardening, indoors and out. Just last week, at a PTA function in her honor, she was presented with a floor planter for her famed African violets.

The 41 busy years have left many memories, including the fact that her starting salary was $85 a month, and there was wood to carry in and ashes to carry out, and the ink froze overnight in the winter. She remembers older ways of travel, when parents at Dold brought their children to school in bob sleighs, and she had to shovel her way home every night and out in the morning. "There hasn't been so much snow lately." She remembers the hayrides that were enjoyed by parents and students alike, at Kuebler school, and the many Christmas programs that brought families from miles around. She also recalls vividly a birthday surprise party that really was a surprise to her, at Pleasant Lake school in 1956.

Yes, teaching has changed a great deal, she believes. For one thing, "children have much more freedom now in the school room than they used to"; and "children used to walk to school .... Now they take busses". For another thing, there are more visiting teachers, these days -- to teach music, art, and even special reading.

She recalls the first school officers she met at each of her schools: at Jedelee, it was Albert Frey, George Bohnett and Mark Sweetland; at Dold, it was Lauren Stark, Reuben Bredernitz, Alfred Rentschler. At Kuebler, her first officers were Jake Bihlmeyer, Oscar Staebler, and Christ Kuebler; at Mooreville, Clarence Searfoss, Gus Grams, A. J. Turner; and at Pleasant Lake, Alton Horning, Roy Bihlmeyer, and Nathan Alber. By and large, they are all pleasant memories and she believes she'll "miss it, when fall comes". In fact, says Mrs. Gross, "I may do a little substitute teaching once in a while."

Helen (Klumpp) Gross (b. 15 Mar. 1902 Lodi Twp., Washtenaw Co., Michigan, d. there 5 Mar. 1983) of Lodi Township, Washtenaw County, was a retired teacher. She was the daughter of Jacob and Christina Klumpp who were themselves children of German immigrants. She learned to play from her father, and played for dances; in later years, she regularly played for them at the rod and gun club in Willis. Helen was an influential fiddler from Saline, Michigan. Helen played for dances from her youth and influenced other fiddlers in the area.

Helen M. Gross, 7385 Noble Road in Lodi Township, died March 5, 1983 at Saline Community Hospital. She was born April 15, 1902 at the above residence where she had lived her entire life, the daughter of Jacob and Tina Stierle Klumpp. On August 3, 1931, she married Rudolph (Butch) Gross in Ann Arbor; he survives. Mrs. Gross was a member of St. Paul United Church of Christ and the Ladies Fellowship of the church, the Saline Woman's Club, the Saline Hospital Auxiliary, the Washtenaw Farm Bureau, the Ann Arbor Senior Citizens, the Saline Senior Citizens, the National Retired Teachers Association, the M.R.T.A., and the M.E.A. She taught school in Washtenaw County for more than 40 years. Mrs. Gross enjoyed music and was a musician for many years. She is survived by her husband, Rudolph; one uncle and cousin.

Funeral services were held Monday at Bahnmler Funeral Home with Rev. Ronald Boldman officiating. Burial followed in Lodi Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Paul United Church of Christ Building Fund or the Michigan Heart Association.

Notes for August H. Fischer:

History of Bates County, Missouri; by W.O. Atkeson. Historical Publication Company, 1918. Page 852

August Fischer - The "Fischer Farm," located two and a half miles south of the village of Pleasant Gap in the township of the same name is one of the best and most productive in Bates County. The house and buildings are well located upon a sloping hillside from which every acre of the farm can be overlooked - an ideal setting for a farm home. This fine farm comprises two hundred forty acres of valuable land the cultivation of which yields its owner a good income. All the buildings are the handiwork of the proprietor, August Fischer, who has profitably combined the trade of carpenter and builder with the vocation of farming. Unlike the shoemaker and the painter whose children are unshod and whose house is left unpainted Mr. Fischer used his skill and genius in erecting as his own domicile one of the best farm residences in Bates County and the other buildings grouped around about are also kept in a good state of repair. His big barn built in 1900, measures 32 x 60 feet with a height of sixteen feet to the square. He has a substantial corn crib hog house, granary and a machine shed, chicken house and hog houses - the buildings on the place forming a little village all in themselves. Probably the most valuable adjunct to the farming operations is a never failing well which was drilled to a depth of two hundred forty-six feet the water being raised by wind-mill power and the underground stream having a steady flow of over one gallon each minute. Mr. Fischer carries on general farming and stock raising.

August Fischer was born May 17, 1863 in Germany the son of Louis and Johanna (Niedenmeier) Fischer, natives of Germany, who came to America in 1880 and made a settlement in Pleasant Gap Township, where Louis Fischer died on January 29, 1893. Louis and Johanna Fischer were parents of nine children: Louis, Fred and Augusta Steiner, deceased Charles, August, Mrs. Caroline Wittee, Henry, William, Mrs. Geyeta Halwig. August Fischer came to America in 1879. August Fischer came to Bates County in the spring of 1879 and ten years later he made his first purchase of land, investing his savings in eighty acres of land known as the "Louis Fischer Farm." Prosperity has smiled upon him, and by means of hard work good management and thrift he has added another quarter section to the original home place. Mr. Fischer learned the trade of carpenter and builder when a young man and he plied his trade in many parts of Bates County, his mechanical ability enabling him to turn many hundreds of dollars into his purse and was of great help to him in making a good start in Bates County. In addition to his home farm of two hundred forty acres, Mr. Fischer is owner of a tract of sixty-two and a half acres in Rockville Township.

On September 25, 1887, August Fischer and Miss Mary Kern, of Rockville born October 2, 1863, near Humboldt, Kansas were united in marriage. She is a daughter of Martin Kern, who died in 1899, and is buried in Prairie City Cemetery. Her mother resides at Rockville. The Kerns located in Bates County in 1869. Mr. and Mrs. August Fischer have children as follow: Herman a farmer in Mt Pleasant Township; Caroline wife of R.F. Davis Hudson Township; Willie died at the age of eleven years; Yetta wife of Joseph Bowers Rockville Township; Augusta at home with her parents Sophia at home.

Since coming to Bates County thirty-eight years ago, Mr. Fischer has risen to become one of the leading and most substantial citizens of this county. His first purchase of eighty acres was made on time - his beginning as a farmer having been practically made without capital. Diligence, careful management good judgment and unfailing optimism in hard times have enabled him to forge ahead and become well to do. He is one of the leaders in his township and is president of the Pleasant Gap Boosters Club, an organization formed among the best people of his neighborhood by Mr. Fischer and others for the purpose of advancing the social and business welfare of the neighborhood in general. This club is a very popular and busy concern and is behind the project for the erection of the Community Hall at Pleasant Gap.

Notes for Anna Maria Kalmbach:

Mrs. Louise Esslinger, 82, residing at 2115 Ninth Street, resident of Columbus for over a half a century, died at 6:40 p.m. yesterday Feb. 14, 1936 at her home. Her death was caused by complications incident to her advanced age. She was bedfast the last two months. Mrs. Esslinger, numbered among the pioneers of the city, had made her home here since shortly after her marriage to Mr. Esslinger, which took place on Jan. 1, 1879 in Danville, Illinois. Throughout the many years of residence here she formed many lasting friendships, and was held in highest esteem by all who knew her. They observed their golden wedding anniversary on Jan. 1, 1929.

She was born on July 1, 1854 in Nagold, Wurtemberg, Germany, and left for the United States on her 21st birthday. She remained in the east for a time, then went to Indiana and later to Danville, Illinois. It was while residing there that she met Mr. Esslinger, who had come to Nebraska in 1873 with his parents, and had then returned to Danville, where he followed his trade as a carpenter and wagon maker. They remained at Danville only a short time, then came to Nebraska. Back here, Mr. Esslinger continued his trade as a carpenter. He also worked for a period of 20 years as a wagon maker and carpenter for Louis Schreiber.

Mrs. Esslinger was a devout and active member of the Immanuel Lutheran church, and when her health permitted, she took an active part in the ladies' social affairs. Although they never had any children of their own, Mr. and Mrs. Esslinger adopted Mrs. Jess Newman when she was but a girl of eighty years old, and she resided with them until she grew to womanhood. Besides Mr. Esslinger, and their adopted daughter, Mrs. Newman, who is ill in a Lincoln hospital, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Barbara Fix, of Charles City, Iowa.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Immanuel Lutheran church, with Rev. A. H. Guettler, pastor, officiating. Burial will be made in Columbus cemetery. The body will lie in state tomorrow at the Gass Funeral home and will be taken to the family home Monday morning.
