Notes for Ida Catherine Rossman:

About Ida Catherine Rossman told to Shirley Vandemark by Mrs. Echenman on June 23, 2013:

Jean Eschenman, a descendent of James and Ida Irvin, researched the family history in the 1960s and 1970s. She encountered several problems with Ida's birth. She was born in 1865 to Eliza Rossman. In the 1870 census, Ida Rossman lives with her maternal grandparents, Bartholomew and Margaret Rossman. The fact that Ida was given the same last name as her mother's maiden name suggests that she was born out of marriage and that her father's identity had to be obscured.

Soon after that enumeration, David Taylor Bock and Eliza Rossman were married. David Bock had been married once before. His first wife was Teliah Gelwicks. He married Teliah after the 1860 census and had two daughters. Teliah died in 1869.

In the late 1960's, Mrs. Eschenman travelled to Fannettsburg to meet with an elderly Bock descendent and of learned Ida's true origins. Bock family lore maintained that David Taylor Bock was Ida Rossman's biological father. He and Eliza had an affair during David's first marriage. Ida was born but couldn't be recognized by David as one of his own children. After Teliah died in 1869, David married Eliza and finally adopted his own biological daughter, Ida.

Notes for Dr. George Alois Hirscher:

Masonic funeral rites for Dr. George A. Hirscher, widely known Merrill dentist who died yesterday in the Holy Cross hospital, will be held here next Monday and at Waupun on Tuesday.

Private funeral services will be held at the residence 402 Mill Street at 2:15 Monday followed by a Service in the Scott Memorial Church, the Rev. C.E. Hagen officiating. The body will then be taken to Waupun where final rites and internment will be held on Tuesday. The Waupun Services will be in charge of the Masonic Organization in that city. The body will lie in state in the residence here from 10 Sunday until the hour of the service on Monday. Dr. Hirscher's death caused a profound shock in this community passed away following an illness of about a month. He had been ailing for nearly a year but only recently had been compelled to undergo medical treatment. He had been in the hospital for about ten days. His passing brought words of regret from his host of friends and professional associates all of whom had held him in great esteem. In years past, he had been one of the foremost practitioners in this community. He occupied a prominent position in civic affairs as well as in the profession.

For a number of years he had been President of the Lincoln County Training School Board, and secretary treasurer of the Lincoln County dental association. He was active in Masonic affairs. Dr. Hirscher was a member of Virginia Falls Lodge #226 F&AM. Dr. Hirscher was born in Juneau County Wisconsin on 9/10/79, son of the late Alois and Mary Kieni Hirscher. He was graduated from Waupun High School and later matriculated the Old Chicago of Dental Surgery (now part of Loyola University) and which conferred upon him the degree of doctor of dental surgery. As a young practitioner he came to Merrill about 1905 and opened his office here maintaining it until his late illness. He shared a suite with Dr. F.H. Kelly in the Peterman Brothers building. Surviving him are his wife, formerly Maude Robertson of Milwaukee, their daughter Susanna and two sisters Anna and Rose Hirscher of Waupun.

He grew up in Waupun on Carrington Street. He spent a year out in Oregon, after graduating from High School with George Kieni. During that year he played for the University of Oregon even though he did not attend the university. He was a good athlete. Then he attended the University of Chicago - Dental School where he was a member of the Si Omega Dental Fraternity. After graduation, he started a Dental practice in Merrill.

The reason for Merrill, was that his father traveled the area and tried to convince his son to move to Wausau. He was President of the School Board of the Lincoln County Normal Teacher's Training School, Secretary-Treasurer of the Lincoln County Dental Association and a member of the Masonic Lodge. His interests were fishing, hunting and game sports.

He was born 17 Apr 1867 in Hornberg, Calw, Wurtemberg, and died 10 Oct 1944 in Sylvan Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Friederika Mathilda Keck, twin:

Oct. 31, 1963 - Mrs. George Klink, a Chelsea area resident for more than 50 years, recalled yesterday that it was exactly 60 years ago, on Oct. 30, 1903, that she arrived in America from her native Germany. Accompanied by two other young girls - Rose and Lena Reule - she came here from Wildbad, in Wuerttemberg, where she and the other two girls had been employed in one of the famous German sanitariums near there. The ocean trip, in the ship known as the Rhine, took 17 days because of delay caused by storms. Mrs. Klink, whose maiden name was Mathilda Keck, remained in New York for eight years before coming to Chelsea. The other two girls came directly to Chelsea, Rose Reule later marrying Michael Kappler. They lived north of Chelsea for many years. Several years after his death Mrs. Kappler married Fred Boos and lived at Whitmore Lake. Since his death she makes her home with a daughter, Mrs. Richard Springman, at 207 North Seventh St., Ann Arbor. Her sister, who married a man named Thelen, made her home in Toledo until her death 27 years ago. Mrs. Klink's husband came to the United States 20 years before she did. In 1883, but it happened, he had traveled on the same ship on which Mrs. Klink arrived when she came in 1903. They met and married in Chelsea after she came here from New York. Mr. Klink died in 1944.

Sabetha, Kansas, May 24, 1917 - Last Wednesday Berwick had a fire while the east bound freight train was going thru Berwick sparks from the engine set fire to a stray pile by Joe Harter's barn and it was only a few minutes until the fire department was out. A. F. Grote was fire chief, Frank Grote was assistant chief, Dad Niccum was the chemical engine. Dad Niccum was at the well pumping the water Mrs. Niccum,

Mrs. Grote, Mrs. Stolsteimer, Mrs. Harter, Mrs. J. H. Strahm were in the bucket brigade. They carried the water. A.F. Grote, fire chief told the assistant, Frank Grote, where to pour the water. Now Sabetha don't need to call on the Berwick fire department unless they have a big fire, they don't go out for small fires.

The Sabetha Herald, Friday, January 20, 1893; p. 1 col. 4

George Stollsteimer and family have moved into town and will occupy the Perkins house in the east part of the city. They have met with a sad loss in the death of their little girl. Mr. and Mrs. Stollsteimer wish to express their thanks to their kind neighbors and friends who gave them help and sympathy in their late bereavement.

Friday, January 20, 1893; p. 1 col. 6

Stollsteimer. --- On Wednesday afternoon, January 11, 1893, Pearl America, only daughter of George and Caroline Stollsteimer, aged 2 years, 9 months and 23 days. The little girl had been ill but was better and, on Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Stollsteimer came to town and told the physician of her favorable symptoms. While standing talking, at that very moment, a message was handed to the telegraph operator at Berwick, summoning the doctor, as the child had been taken worse and was in spasms. For some reason unknown to anyone but the operator, the message was two hours in reaching this station and when the father returned home, happy in the thought of seeing his little one, he found her lying cold in death. Shortly after, the doctor arrived, only forty minutes after receiving the telegram, but too late. Little Pearl was a lovely, winning child and her loss leaves the parents almost heartbroken. They have the sympathy of all.

Sabetha, Kansas, Jan. 26, 1893 - We regret to chronicle the death of the little daughter of Mrs. and Mr. George Stollsteimer which occurred last week. She was apparently improving after a spell of fever, but was taken with a spasm and died within a few hours afterwards. She was two years, nine months and twenty-three days old and was the only daughter of devoted parents, there being one little son, six years of age left. We extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy in their sad bereavement.

Notes for Johannes (John) Frey:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan: together with sketches of its cities, villages and townships...and biographies of representative citizens: history of Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Northern Brewery - In 1872 George Krause built this brewery in the lower town of Ann Arbor, on Mill Street. He sold out to John and Fred Frey, and in 1873 Fred sold out his interest to his brother John, who has operated it since. Mr. Frey makes about 2,400 barrels of beer annually, and consumes about 5,000 bushels of grain and 4,000 lbs. of hops in the manufacture of this beverage. During 1880 he stored up about 1,000 tons of ice.

In 1872, George Krause bought the site for his brewery. He was attracted by its proximity to Traver Creek and to the natural springs nearby. Krause used the spring water to make his beer, and ice harvested from the creek to keep it cool. Krause sold his Northern Brewery to brothers John and Fred Frey. John bought out Fred and then sold the business to German-trained brewer Herman Hardinghaus in 1885. The next year Hardinghaus built a substantial two-story brewery - "a fine brick block," Samuel Beakes called it in his 1891 Portrait and Biographical Album. According to Beakes, in addition to beer Hardinghaus brewed "a superior quality of ale which he ships to different cities and towns."

Hardinghaus ran the brewery until it closed in 1908. Although there was no sign that heavily Germanic Ann Arbor had lost its taste for beer, many small brewers were folding then in the face of competition from regional and national brands. When Krause opened the brewery in 1872, there were five other breweries in Ann Arbor alone. By the time Hardinghaus closed it, only one other was left.

SHARPE, Chief Justice.

This is a chancery suit to expunge and remove from the record the record of redemption from a mortgage sale which was recorded in the office of the register of deeds, Lenawee county.

The material facts are not in dispute. In 1922, George Heimerdinger died intestate, leaving his widow, a son, and a daughter as his sole heirs at law. Part of his estate consisted of a farm of 153 acres, 6 acres of which are located in Lenawee county and the balance in Washtenaw county. The **845 farm had been used as one parcel and one farm for many years. The county line runs directly through the dwelling house on the farm which consists of 10 or 12 rooms, is two stories in height, and has a central heating plant. It is not divided into apartments and is used as one dwelling house for one family. The county line passes through the sitting room and bed room down stairs and also cuts rooms upstairs. The front part of the house is in Lenawee county and the back part of the house is in Washtenaw county.

In 1923, the widow, Minnie M. Heimerdinger, and daughter, Anna C. Heimerdinger, sold their interest in the farm to the son, Clarence G. Heimerdinger, giving him a deed and taking back a mortgage in the sum of $10,933.33, which mortgage was recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Lenawee county. In 1932, the mortgage was foreclosed by advertisement. In accordance with the statute, a separate sheriff's deed was made of the Washtenaw county portion and a separate price bid placed thereon; and a separate sheriff's deed was made of the Lenawee county portion and a separate price bid of $801 *152 placed thereon, which deed was recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Lenawee county.

About a week after the mortgage sale, defendant Clarence G. Heimerdinger deposited the sum of $801 plus interest with the Lenawee county register of deeds for the redemption of the parcel of land located in said county and the register of deeds wrote across the record of the sheriff's deed the words: 'Redeemed January 19, 1933 by Clarence G. Heimerdinger. L. A. Warner, Register of Deeds.'

Subsequently and before the period of redemption expired, the Washtenaw county portion of the farm was made the subject of a moratorium suit. An order under the statute was made and the Washtenaw county portion of the farm remained under the moratorium until November, 1938, at which time plaintiffs went into possession of the Washtenaw portion of the farm and buildings.

In January 1940, plaintiffs filed a bill in chancery and asked that they be declared the owners of the Lenawee county land claimed to have been redeemed. Defendant Myrle S. Heimerdinger is the wife of Clarence G. Heimerdinger and defendant David Hicks is the present tenant of the six acres located in Lenawee county and holds by lease from Clarence G. Heimerdinger. Upon hearing, the trial court dismissed plaintiffs' bill.

Plaintiffs appeal and contend that if the lands located in two different counties comprise a single farm, the entire farm must be redeemed from the sale.

The mortgage having been foreclosed by advertisement in 1932, the law, relating to such foreclosure sale as of that date, reads as follows: *153 'THE OFFICER OR PERSON MAKING THE SALE SHALL Forthwith execute, acknowledge, and deliver, to each purchaser a deed of the premises bid off by him; and if the lands are situated in several counties he shall make separate deeds of the lands in each county, and specify therein the precise amounts for which each parcel of land therein described was sold. And he shall endorse upon each deed the time when the same will become operative in case the premises are not redeemed according to law. Such deed or deeds shall, as soon as practicable, and within twenty (20) days after such sale, be deposited with the register of deeds of the county in which the land therein described is situated, and the register shall endorse thereon the time the same was received, and for the better preservation thereof, shall record the same at length in a book to be provided in his office for that purpose, and shall index the same in the regular index of deeds; and the fee for recording the same shall be included among the other costs and expenses allowed by law. In case such premises shall be redeemed, the register of deeds shall, at the time of destroying such deed, as provided in section twelve (12) of this chapter, write on the face of such record the word 'Redeemed,' stating at what date such entry is made, and signing such entry with his official signature.' 3 Comp.Laws 1929, § 14433 (Stat Ann. 27.1229).

[1] Under the above section it became the duty of the officer making such sale to make a separate deed for the lands sold in each county and to specify the amount for which each parcel of land was sold. In the case at bar, the above provisions were accurately followed by the officer making the sale.

The law relating to redemption of such premises in 1933 and prior to Act No. 62, Pub. Acts 1937, was as follows: 'If the mortgagor, his heirs, executors, administrators, or any person lawfully claiming from, or *154 under him or them, shall, within one (1) **846 year from the time of such sale, redeem the entire premises sold, by paying to the purchaser, his executors, administrators or assigns, or to the register of deeds in whose office such deed is deposited for the benefit of such purchaser, the sum which was bid therefor, with interest from the time of the sale at the rate per cent, borne by the mortgage, not exceeding ten (10) per cent, per annum, and in case such payment is made to the register of deeds, the sum on one (1) dollar as a fee for the care and custody of such redemption money, then such deed shall be void and of no effect; but in case any distinct lot or parcel separately sold shall be redeemed, leaving a portion of the premises unredeemed, then such deed shall be inoperative merely to the parcel or parcels so redeemed, and to those portions not so redeemed shall remain valid and of full effect.' 3 Comp.Laws 1929, § 14435 (StatAnn. § 27.1231).

[2] The policy of our court in construing the provisions of the statute relative to statutory foreclosure of mortgages is well expressed in Cameron v. Adams, 31 Mich. 426, where we said: 'If the sale had been made under the decree of a court, the authorities cited on the argument would, bear very strongly in favor of relieving complainant. Courts of equity have large powers for relief against the consequences of inevitable accident in private dealings, and may doubtless control their own process and decrees to that end. But we think there is no such power to relieve against statutory forfeitures. Where a valid legislative act has determined the conditions on which rights shall vest or be forfeited, and there has been no fraud ill conducting the legal measures, no court can interpose conditions or qualifications in violation of the statute. The parties have a right to stand upon the terms of the law. This principle has not been open to controversy, and is familiar and elementary.'

[3] *155 In Wood v. Button, 205 Mich. 692, 703, 172 N.W. 422, 425, we said: 'The right to redeem from a foreclosure at law is a legal right, is created by the statute, and can neither be enlarged nor abridged by courts. A redemption is complete when one having the right to redeem pays in proper time, to a proper person, 'the sum which was bid, * * * with interest from the time of the sale at the rate per cent borne by the mortgage, * * * and, in case such payment is made to the register of deeds, the sum of one dollar as a fee. * * *' 3 Comp.Laws 1915, § 14959.'

See, also, Detroit Trust Co. v. Detroit City Service Co., 262 Mich. 14, 247 N.W. 76, Detroit Trust Co. v. George, 262 Mich. 362, 247 N.W. 697.

Plaintiffs rely upon the language of the above act and Powers v. Golden Lumber Co., 43 Mich. 468, 5 N.W. 656, and Wood v. Button, supra, in support of their claim that if the lands located in two different counties comprise a single farm, the entire farm must be redeemed from the sale. The cases cited by plaintiffs do not relate to lands in more than one county, consequently they are not controlling.

[4] In the case at bar, the foreclosure sale was conducted as provided by statute and separate bids were received for the portion of land in each county, separate deeds were issued and each deed was deposited in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which the particular land was located. In our opinion, defendant Clarence G. Heimerdinger had a legal right to redeem either or both parcels of land; and upon payment of the amount for which the land was sold plus all lawful charges, it was the duty of the register of deeds to mark the deed 'redeemed.'

*156 There is some merit to the observation of the trial judge, who, in dismissing the petition of plaintiffs, said in his opinion: 'In other words, they have had the opportunity of speculating over a period of seven years. They are dissatisfied with it. Now, they want these defendants to assume that burden, and it isn't fair, gentlemen.' The above statement is supported by the fact that defendant Clarence G. Heimerdinger has paid the taxes and kept up the insurance on the Lenawee portion of the house and land ever since the property was redeemed.

[5] There is no evidence that the redemption price was under the fair market value of the land. Plaintiffs having set the price for which this' parcel of land could be redeemed may not now complain of the purchaser having paid the price asked.

The decree of the trial court is affirmed, with costs to defendants. BUSHNELL, BOYLES, CHANDLER, NORTII, STARR, WIEST, and BUTZEL, JJ., concur. 299 N.W. 844, 299 Mich. 149

Notes for Christian George Aprill:

Ann Arbor, December 7, 1897 - Christian Aprill, a well-known young farmer living a mile south of this city, met with an accident while hunting this afternoon which may cost him his life, and if he survives is pretty sure to cause him to lose his right arm. He and a neighbor's son named Staeb were out in the woods hunting rabbits. Aprill had sat down on a log to rest when young Staeb scared up a rabbit. He turned quickly around and aiming his gun at the rabbit, fired the whole of an unusually large charge of No. 4 shot into Aprill's body at short range. The shot covered the whole fore part of the entire body, chest, abdomen and both arms, especially his right arm. He was hastily loaded into a buggy and brought to the university hospital for treatment. The surgeons are still uncertain as to whether any of the shot have penetrated the lungs or abdomen. If they have not, the hurt is not necessarily dangerous, although the man is in great pain. The rabbit escaped without injury.

Notes for Theodore Christian (Ted) Schneirla:

Theodore Christian Schneirla (July 23, 1902, Bay City, Michigan — Aug. 20, 1968, New York, New York) was an American animal psychologist who performed some of the first studies on the behavior patterns of army ants. Schneirla was educated at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor (M.S., 1925; Sc.D., 1928), and joined the staff of New York University in 1928. He made the first of eight trips to the Barro Colorado Island, Panama Canal Zone, to study the behavior of army ants in 1932. His "Studies on Army Ants in Panama," published the next year, provided new insight into their behavior. He discovered that these ants operate on a 36-day cycle consisting of a 16-day nomadic pattern followed by a 20-day stationary phase. In 1934 he reported that ants follow a particular pattern when moving into new territory and that raids by these insects peak once during the morning and again in the afternoon. Sudden changes in weather also were found to give rise to sudden bursts of activity. In 1944 he showed that their raids were caused by the level of excitability of the ant colony and not by a scarcity of prey.

In 1943 Schneirla became associate curator of the Department of Animal Behavior at the American Museum of Natural History, New York City. After his return from a study of army ants in southern Mexico, he became the full curator of the museum in 1947.

Schneirla was the author of a large number of scientific papers and the coauthor of several books on psychology, including Principles of Animal Psychology (with N.R.F. Maier; 1935) and Recent Experiments in Psychology (with L.W. Crafts; 1938). The concept of integrative levels permeated almost all of his papers. Six of his publications are directly devoted to the application of the concept of integrative levels to comparative psychology and social organization. Schneirla has been noted for his effectiveness in combining the concept of integrative levels with behavioral ontogeny to create a comprehensive theory of how organisms develop during their individual lives and how development changes across evolution. This theory provided a picture of more and more complex developmental processes as we go from lower to higher animal species.

Notes for Frederich Christian Klingler:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Frederich C. Klingler has spent his entire life in Ann Arbor, his native city. He was born February 22, 1870. His father, Charles Klingler, was a native of Wurtemberg, Germany. After coming to Ann Arbor he followed farming in Lima Township, Washtenaw County. He married Frederica Frey, who is living in Chelsea, Michigan, and they became the parents of seven children, of whom four are living: William, a farmer, residing near Grass Lake, Michigan; Mrs. Amelia Henbriker, of Chelsea, Michigan; Frederich C.; and Christian, a farmer, residing in Sylvan Township, this county. Frederich C. Klingler was a student in the Lima district school in his early boyhood and then entered upon his business career in the employ of G. F. Stein, proprietor of a meat market at Ann Arbor, with whom he continued for four years. He was afterward in the service of Henry Matthews for three years and five years ago entered the firm of Overbeck & Klingler, since which time he has had charge of the meat department in this extensive establishment at the corner of Fourth and Liberty streets. The firm has enjoyed a very successful existence, a growing trade adding continually to their prosperity.

In 1893 Mr. Klingler was married to Miss Lizzie Cox, of Petrolia, Ontario, and they have a daughter, Vivian, now eleven years of age, and a student in the Ann Arbor schools. The parents hold membership in the Zion Lutheran church and Mr. Klingler is also connected with Golden Rule lodge, No. 59, A. F. & A. M., and with the Knights of the Maccabees. In his political allegiance he is a democrat. Having always lived in Washtenaw County his acquaintance within its borders is wide and he is best liked where best known—a fact which indicates his fidelity to principles that in every land and clime command respect and confidence.

Notes for Helene Maria Klumpp:

An Open House Sunday at Pleasant Lake School win honor Helen Gross (Mrs. Rudolph Gross, of 7385 Noble Rd.), who retire this year (May 1062) after 41 of teaching. The Open House, for former students, fellow teachers, and friends, is scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m., at the school where Mrs. Gross has taught since 1953.

Mrs. Gross graduated from Saline High School in 1921. She taught for half a year at a school in Lima Township, and then went to Jedele school in Lodi Township for three years. She taught at Dold school in Lodi Township for 16 years School, then taught at Kuebler school in Freedom township for a year at Mooreville for a year, and then returned to Kuebler. Along the line in 1931 she graduated from Eastern Michigan. She got married that same year.

She always had time for outside activities, including her own orchestra, "Helen's Orchestra", to play at parties and square dances -- "I'm a fiddler, not a violinist," she says -- travel every summer that has so far taken her to 44 states, and gardening, indoors and out. Just last week, at a PTA function in her honor, she was presented with a floor planter for her famed African violets.

The 41 busy years have left many memories, including the fact that her starting salary was $85 a month, and there was wood to carry in and ashes to carry out, and the ink froze overnight in the winter. She remembers older ways of travel, when parents at Dold brought their children to school in bob sleighs, and she had to shovel her way home every night and out in the morning. "There hasn't been so much snow lately." She remembers the hayrides that were enjoyed by parents and students alike, at Kuebler school, and the many Christmas programs that brought families from miles around. She also recalls vividly a birthday surprise party that really was a surprise to her, at Pleasant Lake school in 1956.

Yes, teaching has changed a great deal, she believes. For one thing, "children have much more freedom now in the school room than they used to"; and "children used to walk to school .... Now they take busses". For another thing, there are more visiting teachers, these days -- to teach music, art, and even special reading.

She recalls the first school officers she met at each of her schools: at Jedele, it was Albert Frey, George Bohnett and Mark Sweetland; at Dold, it was Lauren Stark, Reuben Bredernitz, Alfred Rentschler. At Kuebler, her first officers were Jake Bihlmeyer, Oscar Staebler, and Christ Kuebler; at Mooreville, Clarence Searfoss, Gus Grams, A. J. Turner; and at Pleasant Lake, Alton Horning, Roy Bihlmeyer, and Nathan Alber. By and large, they are all pleasant memories and she believes she'll "miss it, when fall comes". In fact, says Mrs. Gross, "I may do a little substitute teaching once in a while."

Helen (Klumpp) Gross (b. 15 Mar. 1902 Lodi Twp., Washtenaw Co., Michigan, d. there 5 Mar. 1983) of Lodi Township, Washtenaw County, was a retired teacher. She was the daughter of Jacob and Christina Klumpp who were themselves children of German immigrants. She learned to play from her father, and played for dances; in later years, she regularly played for them at the rod and gun club in Willis. Helen was an influential fiddler from Saline, Michigan. Helen played for dances from her youth and influenced other fiddlers in the area.

Helen M. Gross, 7385 Noble Road in Lodi Township, died March 5, 1983 at Saline Community Hospital. She was born April 15, 1902 at the above residence where she had lived her entire life, the daughter of Jacob and Tina Stierle Klumpp. On August 3, 1931, she married Rudolph (Butch) Gross in Ann Arbor; he survives. Mrs. Gross was a member of St. Paul United Church of Christ and the Ladies Fellowship of the church, the Saline Woman's Club, the Saline Hospital Auxiliary, the Washtenaw Farm Bureau, the Ann Arbor Senior Citizens, the Saline Senior Citizens, the National Retired Teachers Association, the M.R.T.A., and the M.E.A. She taught school in Washtenaw County for more than 40 years. Mrs. Gross enjoyed music and was a musician for many years. She is survived by her husband, Rudolph; one uncle and cousin.

Funeral services were held Monday at Bahnmiller Funeral Home with Rev. Ronald Boldman officiating. Burial followed in Lodi Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Paul United Church of Christ Building Fund or the Michigan Heart Association.

At a ceremony which took place Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mae M. Koch became the bride of Norman Pfitzenmaier, son of Leo Pfitzenmaier. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Koch, spoke her vows in St. Paul's Evangelical church with the Rev. C. H. Wittbracht performing the ceremony. Candelabra with white tapers and baskets of Madonna lilies from her mother's garden were used at each side of the altar. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white marquisette gown with long sleeves and high neck, the cuffs and collar of lace, also an inset of lace at the waist, the full skirt ending in a train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a wreath of white flowers. She carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath tied with white satin ribbon with streamers of the same. Mildred M. Pfitzenmaier, sister of the groom, the maid of honor, wore pastel pink marquisette trimmed with pink velvet ribbon, and also wore pink ribbons in her hair. Her bouquet was of Johanna Hill roses and light blue delphinium tied with blue satin ribbon. The bridesmaids, Lena Hedelsky, Ann Arbor, and Claire MacArthur, were dressed in gowns of blue marquisette, trimmed with blue velvet ribbon and wore blue ribbons in their hair. They carried bouquets of pink roses and snapdragons tied with pink satin ribbon.

Edwin Pfitzenmaier of Pleasant Lake Road was the best man and the ushers were Raymond Buss, Ann Arbor, cousin of the groom, and Wayne Klager, Ann Arbor, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Koch's dress was of blue and rose print with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses with baby's breath. Mrs. Fred Stollsteimer, aunt of the groom, at whose home he has lived for several years, wore a blue and white print dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses and baby's breath.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the dining room of the church. A buffet supper of sandwiches and coffee, ice cream and cake was served to the eighty guests by Jean Fosdick, Helen Lambarth, Doris Jean Henne and Ruth Hack, classmates of the bride. The three-tiered wedding cake in white with miniature bride and groom, flanked on each side with white candles, were the decorations for the buffet table, while on the tables for the bridal party and guest's bowls of pink roses and white candles were used. Mrs. Raymond Buss and Mrs. Lloyd Dell poured. The bride is a graduate of Saline High School and is employed at Hoover Ball and Bearing, and the groom is employed at Ford Motor Company, Saline. For a trip through northern Michigan the bride wore a dress of aqua and white print with white accessories and a corsage of white roses and baby's breath, which was a part of the bridal bouquet. They will be at home after July 6 at 210 North Lewis Street, Saline. Following the rehearsal on Friday night light refreshments were served at the bride's home. Notes for Clarence Edwin Haarer:

Feb. 19, 1953 - Clarence Haarer was born and raised in Manchester. He operated a meat market in Manchester for six years, and for two of those years, he also operated a meat and grocery market in Tecumseh. In spite of his varied business activities, Haarer found time to serve six years on the Village Council in Manchester. In 1930, Haarer came to Saline and opened the Haarer's Quality Market at 106 W. Michigan. Since coming to Saline, he has continued to take an active part in civic activities. He served three terms on the Saline City Council and was Mayor pro-tem for two of those terms. Haarer is now serving his ninth year as a member of the Board of Education for Saline High School. He has always been an active member of the Saline Community Fair, and has been a Board member ever since it was organized. He served for two years as Vice-President of the Fair, and in 1945, he went to Marshall, Michigan, and purchased 18 steer club calves. The Saline Junior Livestock Association was started with these 18 calves. They were purchased by Haarer with the hopes that they would start a steer club. His hopes were realized, for the club developed into the present active organization, and began the ground work for our present successful Community Fair. In addition to his other activities, Haarer has been a member of the Saline Rotary for ten years, and has served as President in- 1948 and 1949. Haarer is a member of St. Paul's Church. He is married and has two sons, Gerald, 18, who is presently attending Michigan State College, and Neil 11, who is a student at Saline High.

Auto accidents in the area yesterday morning Jan. 1, 1965 resulted in injuries to three persons while police from the city, state and county sheriff's departments reported several small accidents due to the hazardous driving conditions where cars went out of control on slippery roads.

According to the sheriff's department, May Bolinger, 75, R-3 Petoskey sustained a fractured pelvis in a two-car accident shortly before noon yesterday at the intersection of Atkins and Maplewood Roads. She was riding in a pickup truck driven by Frank Keck, 53, R-3 Petoskey who was uninjured but another passenger, Phyllis Keck, 42, received a laceration of the right forehead. Both were taken to Little Traverse Hospital by the Ambulance Service Company.

Deputy sheriff Leo Grant said a car, driven by Judy Hickman, 23, R-3, Petoskey, struck the Keck car broadside at the intersection. She was issued a summons for failure to yield the right of way. Both cars were driven away on their own power.

He married Zelda Wyone Devine 03 Sep 1932 in East Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, daughter of Warren Devine and Mae Salisbury. She was born 17 Jun 1908 in Grand Ledge, Eaton Co, Michigan, and died 19 Jul 1988 in East Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for William G. Keck:

Painted Post, New York - William G. (Bill) Keck passed away April 22, 2002 in Painted Post, New York. Born November 1, 1905 to the late Emanuel and Frederica (Geil) Keck, this humble man led a life epitomized by selflessness and service. He married Zelda Divine on September 3, 1935 and they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary prior to her death in 1988.

Bill is survived by his son Donald, daughter-in-law Ruth, by two grandchildren, Lynne Ann (Richard) Vaia of Dayton, Ohio and Brian William (Molly) Keck of Lake Elmo, Minnesota, and a great-granddaughter Annika Clare Vaia.

He grew up in Utica, Michigan and was valedictorian of his high school class. He graduated with a BS in physics from Michigan State University in 1929 and, until the depression, worked for Pure Oil as a geophysicist. For a time he taught physics at Michigan State before leaving to obtain a doctorate in physics from University of Michigan in 1941. For the next several years he studied geophysical methods applied to ground water hydrology which would later become his career. During World War II he applied his physics knowledge with the Naval Ordinance Laboratory to invent several anti-submarine detection devices that were deployed in the war effort. After the war he returned to East Lansing, Michigan where he formed a ground water hydrology consulting firm, W. G. Keck & Associates. He led this company to perfect a series of ground-water instruments sold throughout that industry as well as to provide consulting services to help municipalities and industries find sufficient water for their needs. He sold his company and retired in 1970 after receiving the medal of distinction from the American Groundwater Association for his years of service.

Always thinking about others, his life was filled with service. He helped found Edgewood United Church and taught Sunday School for many years. He was a cative with the Scouting movement, serving as a troop and district leader. He became involved with and loved Rotary International whose motto "service above self" echoed his philosophy. He served the Okemos, Michigan club as secretary for more than a decade.

Upon moving to Corning, New York in 1989, he joined and supported the Corning Rotary Club. He was a Rotary international Paul Harris Fellow. At age 88 he became a driving force that helped found the Southeastern Steuben County Habitat for Humanity.

Over the past decade he became known in the Corning area for his marquetry skills. He taught classes in this art at the Corning Senior Center, later in conjunction with Corning Community College. His "Habicrafters" sold their marquetry work for the benefit of Habitat for Humanity. A voracious reader, Bill could speak with wisdom on most any subject. His love of fishing honed his gift of patience. His humbleness was an inspiration to all. His deep and abiding faith provided a source of strength to himself and countless others.

The funeral service and committal will occur in East Lansing, Michigan on Saturday, April 27, 2002. A memorial service will take place in Corning, NY at a later date. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to Southeastern Steuben Habitat for Humanity or First Congregational UCC - Corning, in his name.

Notes for Harry E. Potter:

Harry E. Potter - Born Feb. 10, 1901 Manistique, Michigan and Died Oct. 26, 1980 Muskegon, Michigan

A graduate of Manistique High School in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, Harry Potter pursued a college career at Western Michigan University (then called Western State Normal). In the mid 1920s Harry was a three sport star at Western in football, basketball and baseball (his favorite sport). His teammates at Western included future Muskegon-area coaches C. Leo Redmond and Oscar "Okie" Johnson. Redmond had signed on as football coach at Muskegon High School and persuaded Potter, his college teammate, to come to Muskegon as an assistant coach in 1927.

Between 1927 and 1942, Potter handled the football and basketball second-team coaching duties at Muskegon High School, compiling an 84-14-3 mark on the gridiron and a 154-62 record on the cage court.

In 1943, he moved up to the varsity basketball position, posting a 36-26 record in three seasons, before succeeding Redmond as head coach of the Big Red football squad in 1947. His 1951 team, under the direction of quarterback Earl Morrall, went undefeated and was named Class A state champions. Potter guided the Big Reds to a 57-24-8 mark and three Southwestern Conference crowns in his 10 years at the helm.

But possibly Potter's proudest personal achievement at Muskegon was the establishment of a baseball program in 1937 to represent the Port City in Southwest Conference competition. He coached the Big Red baseball team for 30 years, including a then-record streak of 55 consecutive victories between 1941 and 1945. Potter remained as athletic director at Muskegon until his retirement in 1966.

Marriage Notes for Arthur Wiedmayer and Edna Rothfuss:

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Paul's parsonage Saturday afternoon October 9, 1937 at 4 o'clock, when Rev. C. H. Wittbracht united Miss Edna Rothfuss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rothfuss of US-112, in marriage to Arthur Wiedmayer, son of Mrs. John Wiedmayer, also of US- 112. The occasion was saddened by the severe accident the night before in which Miss Lucille Schmid was injured, as Moss Schmid was to have been bridesmaid. Because she was unable to attend the groom's sister, Mrs. Edna. Walker, of Ann Arbor was maid of honor, and Edwin Wiedmayer, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Refreshments were served. The young couple received many lovely gifts. They left on a wedding trip and have not made definite plans as to where they will locate upon their return.

He married Genevieve Florence (Gene) Camburn 25 Jun 1931 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of John Camburn and Grace Kuder. She was born 17 Feb 1910 in Macon, Lenawee Co, Michigan, and died 01 Mar 2000 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Alwin Friedrich (Allie) Gross:

The Gross hardware store was broken into Monday night May 29, 1933 sometime between 2 and 6 a. m., and about $200 worth of merchandise taken. The thieves gained entrance through the window at the rear of the store. After helping themselves to all the baseball equipment, they started on the guns and ammunition, pocket knives, flashlights, and then sorted over the locks. Going upstairs they tried several of the keys in the door of the office occupied by Dr. Sigler, finally springing the door, but could find nothing but a sweater Mrs. Sigler sometimes wears in the office. They overlooked about a hundred dollar worth of gold Dr. Sigler uses for fillings. The sheriff's office was notified immediately when Alwin Gross arrived at 6 o'clock and Deputy Knight came over in Search of clues. Later Sheriff Andres arrived, bringing a finger print expert of the state police force. It is understood some good fingerprints were- secured. Saline has been the victim of about enough robberies lately and it is thought the sheriff's force soon will get to the bottom of all of them. Several suspects are being watched and no, doubt arrests will be made soon.

Notes for Robert George Wingerter:

Robert G. Wingerter, age 94, Perrysburg, Ohio, who led Libbey - Owens - Ford Company during a 12-year period of growth and expansion, passed away on Monday, January 3, 2011. He had a 44-year career in glass and automotive-related industries in Ohio and Michigan, and also served on a number of corporate boards in addition to giving service to civic and community organizations. Bob Wingerter was born in Detroit on October 5, 1916 to Hugh and Bertha (Seeger) Wingerter. He grew up in Detroit during difficult economic times and graduated with honors from Denby High School. He attended Wayne State University (then Detroit City College) on scholarship graduating Cum Laude in 1938 with a B.S. degree in mechanical engineering. Thirty years later, in appreciation for the contribution Wayne State made to his career, he endowed the Wingerter Awards. These cash awards are made annually to each of four graduating seniors in the College of Engineering who have demonstrated excellent qualities of character, scholarship, and leadership. Awards have gone to 134 students since 1968 and will continue in the future.

Immediately following his college graduation, Wingerter joined Timken Roller Bearing Co., Canton, Ohio, as a trainee sales engineer, and advanced through a number of management positions to become sales director and general manager of the firm's automotive division. In 1963, he joined Rockwell-Standard Corp. in Detroit as president of its' automotive division and a director of the company. Four years later, he was recruited by LOF as president and CEO, with the express mission of diversifying the company and directing the firm's transition into the newly developed float glass manufacturing processes. When he retired in 1979 the company had constructed several new glassmaking facilities and had acquired plastics and fluid power companies. During his business career, Wingerter was on the board of directors of LOF, Toledo Trust Co., Toledo Edison and Marathon Oil Company. He held numerous civic posts, including serving on the board of regents for Capital University, as chairman of a YWCA renovation campaign, chairman of the board of trustees for the Libbey Estates Endowments, president of the Toledo Museum of Art, and 1974 chairman of the Toledo Community Chest and United Way. He was also a trustee or director of several national organizations including The American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research, the American Defense Preparedness Association, the Society of Automotive Engineers, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, and Tau Beta Pi. He graduated from Columbia University's advanced management program in 1955. He received an honorary doctorate in laws from Capital University in 1967. His memberships included the Belmont Country Club, Ocean Reef Club in Key Largo, Florida, the Toledo Club, the Toledo Answer Club, the Newcomen Society of North America, the Automotive Old Timers, and as an honorary member of the Toledo Rotary Club. Bob Wingerter was an avid golfer, skier, fisherman, and traveler. He held a keen interest in competitive sports, earning varsity letters in baseball, golf, and tennis in high school and was captain of his university's golf team two of the three years he lettered. He held a 2 or 3 golf handicap through age 50 and won a number of club championships.

Mr. Wingerter is survived by his wife, the former Dorothy E. Dipman, who is also a Wayne State graduate. They were married on August 5, 1939 at Mt. Zion Lutheran Church in Detroit where both had been members since childhood. They have been members of Zoar Lutheran Church, Perrysburg, since 1968.

Also surviving are daughters, Gail E. Sponseller and Janice R. Dixon. He was preceded in death by a son, Robert H. Wingerter. #### Notes for Dorothy Elizabeth Dipman:

Dorothy Elizabeth (Dipman) Wingerter, age 96, passed peacefully on November 24, 2014, with the assistance of Hospice of Northwest Ohio and nurses at Kingston of Perrysburg where she has resided for the last 4 years. Dorothy was born July 30, 1918, in Detroit, the fourth child in a family of five to Henry Dipman and Emma Schoen Dipman. The oldest child, Harold, died of diphtheria at the age of 8. Dorothy graduated from Edwin Denby High School, located in Detroit, in 1934. It was at Denby that romance started in a Latin class where Dorothy excelled and impressed Bob Wingerter. She married Robert George Wingerter August 5, 1939, at Mt. Zion Lutheran Church in Detroit where they had met early in their lives. Dorothy had just graduated from Wayne State University in June of that same year with a degree in education.

She and Bob moved frequently in response to Bob's career. They first lived in Canton, Ohio for 5 years, then Detroit and Grosse Pointe, MI for 15 years, back to Canton for another 5 years, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan for 3 years and then finally moved to Perrysburg in 1967. Dorothy and Bob attended Zoar Lutheran Church in Perrysburg and she was a member of the founding board of Abundant Life of Perrysburg, a Zoar sponsored senior housing project. She was very active in various Lutheran churches during her lifetime, as Sunday School Teacher and Superintendent, a director of Christmas Pageants, and Vacation Bible School.

Dorothy was involved in mental health in the Toledo area. She was on the Toledo Mental Health

Board for two terms and volunteered in the Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation at the Toledo Mental Health Center. She served on the Wood County Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, known as the 648 Board. Dorothy learned to play golf in self-defense, as Bob loved the game. She soon learned to love the game as well and played well enough to win a number of woman's club championships at Brookside Country Club in Canton, Ohio, Bloomfield Hills Country Club near Detroit, and Belmont Country Club in Perrysburg.

Along with golf, Dorothy loved to garden, and watch and identify the birds in her yard. She enjoyed many years of skiing during winter, and fishing and boating in Florida. She liked to play bridge with friends as well.

As a mother, Dorothy was the glue that always held the family together with many fun holiday gatherings and vacations. She and Bob had three children, Gail E. Sponseller, Janice R. Dixon, and Robert H. Wingerter; five grandchildren, Leslie (Sponseller) Patron, and Stephen Sponseller, Sarah (Dixon) Magoun, and Ericka and Bo Wingerter. To Dorothy's delight she was blessed with five great-grandchildren, Henry, Jake and Katherine Magoun, Ned Patron, and Logan Wingerter and sister, Ruth Schultz.

Dorothy was sadly preceded in death by her son, Robert H. Wingerter and her husband, Bob, who died on January 3, 2011. She will be missed greatly by her family who enjoyed her humor and spirit for life.

Friends will be received on Thursday, December 4, 2014, from 3:00 to 6:30 p.m. in the Witzler-Shank Funeral Home, 222 East South Boundary St., Perrysburg, Ohio 43551 (419-874-3133). Funeral services will be held on Friday, December 5, 2014, at 10:30 a.m. at Zoar Lutheran Church, 314 east Indiana Ave, Perrysburg, Ohio 43551. Burial will follow at Fort Meigs Union Cemetery. Those planning an expression of sympathy are asked to consider Hospice of Northwest Ohio and Cherry Street Missions.

Notes for Donald Lee Reule:
March 2, 2020 - A Korean War-era veteran will be buried alone unless strangers show their support.   The Texas General Land Office invited Corpus Christi-area residents to attend the burial of U.S. Navy Seaman Donald Lee Reule.   Reule's burial will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday, March 3 at the Coastal Bend State Veterans Cemetery, 9974 Inter- state Highway 37 Access Road.   Reule served in the Navy from April 20, 1952 to Feb. 22, 1954, according to a news release.   He was the recipient of the National Defense Service Medal and the Korean Service Medal.   It is not uncommon for veterans to have no next-of-kin attend their funeral. The Land Office often invites the public to their burials to ensure no veteran is left alone.   Thursday, the office invited the public to attend Seaman Recruit Don Lesley Ward's burial. Ward served in the U.S. Navy from Aug. 6, 1975 to Dec. 15, 1976.

Notes for Louis Emerson Neller:

Lansing - Louis Neller, 72, general contractor and real estate man and onetime legislator and alderman, died about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning Oct. 9, 1945 at his home, 501 Sunset Lane, East Lansing. He had been in ill health since he fell and broke a leg early this year. A native of Clinton County, where he was born September 10, 1873, Mr. Neller served in the house of representatives for one term, 1913-1914, and held position on some of the more important committees. Later he was elected alderman from Lansing's fifth ward, serving four years as a member of the council. Although he dealt extensively in real estate during his early years as a resident of Lansing, Mr. Neller had engaged chiefly in the building business in recent years. He erected some of the city's finest structures, including the Michigan Avenue Methodist church. Civic and religious affairs also occupied much of Mr. Neller's attention. A member of the central Methodist church, where he was active, he formerly served as trustee of the Mt. Hope, Michigan Avenue and Potter Park Methodist churches. He was a director of the Y.M.C.A. for eight years and was active in the boys' work program. He also was a member of the Gideons and the Business Men's Bible club.

He is survived by the widow, Rosa; a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Robert, also of East Lansing, and two sons, Alvin A. Neller, local attorney, and Louis E. Neller, Jr., recently discharged from the United States navy and who was associated with his father in the construction business.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel, with Rev. D. Stanley Coors officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery.

HOME AT MIDDLE SPRING BURNS William Rockwell Property Completely Destroyed by Fire on Monday Loss is About $5000:

Fire believed to have been started by an overheated stove pipe, completely destroyed the William Rockwell home and most of the house furnishing, near Middle Spring, at about 9:30 o'clock Monday morning. The loss was estimated at $5000.

Mr. Rockwell had gone to his work at the Peerless Furniture Company, leaving his wife and a small child at home. While Mrs. Rockwell was preparing to leave the house for Shippensburg, she discovered the fire on the roof of the house.

Spreading the alarm, Mrs. Rockwell attempted to remove the house furnishings, but was only successful in securing a small amount of clothing for the small child.

Neighbors in the section rushed to the scene of the fire, but were unable to stop the flames from consuming the entire house, which was partly brick and wood. A number of papers, valuable to the family were saved, but the house furnishings, with the exception of a few pieces, were lost with the dwelling.

A small frame building, which stood nearby, also was burned. The building had been used as a wash house, it was explained. Other buildings in the vicinity of the home were spared by the wind, which carried the flames and sparks in the opposite direction.

Mrs. Rockwell explained to a representative of the News-Chronicle, that she had planned to leave for Shippensburg in about one-half hour, when the fire was discovered on a section of the building which was covered with shingles.

More trouble followed in the next year when the family was robbed by Chicken thieves. The News-Chronicle carried the following story on Tuesday, October 21, 1930.

CHICKEN THIEVES CALMLY FORCE WOMAN TO AID IN THEFT: William Rockwell Home Near Middle Spring Scene of Bold Robbery; Mrs. Rockwell Made To Hold Flashlight During Operation & Man Informs Woman Of Former Raids At Home

Operations of chicken thieves were actively resumed Saturday night when about sixty chickens were boldly stolen from the William Rockwell farm near Middle Spring. Mrs. Rockwell was at home alone, two younger children being in bed asleep, when a tall blonde, dark dressed man entered the newly erected Rockwell home through a window from the porch and calmly announced to Mrs. Rockwell that she was being robbed of some chickens. Mrs. Rockwell was forced to supply food for the man and his partner and to help them take away the chickens.

Slightly before 9:30 Saturday night the intruder entered the Rockwell home. Mrs. Rockwell came to the front room from the kitchen. Here she was seized by the man who demanded wine and food. Mrs. Rockwell was quite stunned by the action but replied that she could give him some food and water. Meanwhile the man led Mrs. Rockwell to the kitchen in the rear of the house where he sat down and repeated his demands. Apparently not satisfied by Mrs. Rockwell's reply, the man went down to the cellar where he carried on a fruitless investigation. Returning to the kitchen he demanded some bread, buttered. Mrs. Rockwell buttered two slices of bread and gave them to him. He then demanded more and she gave two more slices, finally she had eight slices of bread which he placed in the poke from which the bread had come from Mrs. Wengerd, a neighbor who baked bread.

Having secured the food the intruder proceeded to tell Mrs. Rockwell the previous occasions on which he had visited their farm and taken chickens. He recalled one time in May, 1929, when he said he too 300 chickens and later in August when he took 125. A check up at the end of the year showed the Rockwell flock, originally numbering around 5000, to be short by almost 700 chickens. In March of this year the intruder recalled taking 100 chickens on two different occasions. Even last week Mrs. Rockwell recalled seeing a flash light as from a pocket flash flickering near the house. At the time she looked out the window but was unable to see anyone. The intruder on Saturday told Mrs. Rockwell that he was near enough to hit her with his club at the time.

The accounts of his previous visits related, the large blonde man led Mrs. Rockwell to the chicken house about 50 yards west of the house. He held his hand over her mouth so that she could not scream. On reaching the chicken house they were joined by a second man, equally large, dark complexioned and wearing dark clothes. This second man had filled one crate with chickens, apparently taken from the barn. The chickens roost in the barn, the coop, and the tree limbs. The second crate was filled with thirty chickens as Mrs. Rockwell held the light, while the men collected the fowls. The flashlight was taken from Mrs. Rockwell and the men walked off. Some distance beyond the coop, Mrs. Rockwell heard a police whistle blown three short blasts.

While being forced to walk out to the chicken coop from the house, Mrs. Rockwell's mouth was held tightly by the intruder. Because she wears false teeth, this action almost choked her so that she was unable to reply to the man when he demanded "where in h-l do you buy your chickens". After the two men had left the coop Mrs. Rockwell dropped her teeth and then groped around in the dark but could not find them. It was 9:00 o'clock when she returned to the house.

When Mr. Rockwell returned from Shippensburg he was told of the robbery and he immediately notified Chief of Police Robert Burns and Chambersburg State Police who arrived about 1:00 o'clock Sunday morning and searched the vicinity for about three hours.

Corporal Fritchey and Private Kelley from the Chambersburg station failed to find any tracks and treated the whole account as rather unreasonable. They stated they had nothing to work on. The case is quite unusual as the intruder made no attempt to hide his features and demanded bread when there were much more tempting dishes at hand including pies. The partner loaded chickens in the barn and then Mrs. Rockwell was forced to hold the flash which the blonde man had to collect the chickens in the coop. The intruder was quite bold in casually recalling his former ravages and sitting in the kitchen for ten or fifteen minutes.

Although Mrs. Rockwell did not hear any machine and believed the men walked off in the direction of Shippensburg carrying the two crates, one above the other, between them, Mrs. Levi Hoover, a neighbor, said she heard the sound of an automobile about 8:30 and again at 9:30. The lane leading to the Rockwell home is not often trafficked so the motor sound might be noticed particularly.

On November 7th, 1930, the Chambersburg Public Opinion reported the arrest of 11 men from Carlisle and Plainfield who perpetrated the robberies and hustled the stolen chickens. The gang targeted hundreds of farms throughout four counties.

He married Jane Marie Hunt Bet. 1947 - 1951. She was born 30 Jun 1925, and died 06 Aug 2001 in Washington D.C..

Notes for William Gordon Irvin, Jr.:

William G. Irvin Jr., who worked as business manager and treasurer at Chevy Chase Presbyterian Church in Northwest Washington from 1953 to 1983, died of heart disease October 19 at Sibley Memorial Hospital. He was 91. Prior to his tenure at the church, Mr. Irvin was a home builder. He built a significant number of houses in the Woodside Park section of Silver Spring.

A history published by the Woodside Park Civic Association said one of his homes became a model for other Irvin-built homes in Woodside Forest. It "had six rooms, breakfast room, two baths, and first floor lavatory. It was described as 'quality built for a careful buyer' and 'an excellent house in a community of fine homes,' " the history recounted.

Mr. Irvin was a native Washingtonian who first lived in the city's Petworth neighborhood and moved to the home his father built in the Chevy Chase section of Northwest Washington in 1923. He lived the remaining 84 years of his life in that home.

He graduated from Western Senior High School and George Washington University. He served in the Army's Counter Intelligence Corps and was stationed in Germany at the end of World War II. After the war, he returned to the building business for a few more years before working at the church. A member of Chevy Chase Presbyterian since childhood, he was acknowledged earlier this year as the longest-tenured member of the church. After his retirement, Mr. Irvin served as a volunteer with the Friendship Fire Association, providing relief and support to D.C. firefighters at the scene of major fires and emergencies. Besides responding to emergency incidents, he also served as the organization's secretary and treasurer.

His wife of more than 50 years, Jane Irvin, died in 2001. Survivors include two sons, Paul Irvin of Garrett Park and Peter Irvin of Washington; and two grandchildren.

Notes for Kenneth Woodrow Staebler:
Obituary - Temple City, California:

Kenneth Woodrow Staebler, age 89, died on November 3, 2003, at his home in Temple City, Calif. A memorial service was held on November 10, 2003, at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Arcadia, California.

Ken was born December 3, 1913, in Floyd County. He was the youngest of six sons born to George W. and Geneva (Porter) Staebler. He graduated from Colwell High School in 1931. On January 20, 1934, he married Frances L. Waidelich at St. John Lutheran Church in Charles City. They made their home in Floyd County and Charles City until 1942, when they temporarily moved to Minneapolis with their four young children.

Ken, Frances and their children returned to Charles City in 1946 where Ken began a 22-year career with Farm Service Co-op. During these years, he was active in community and parenting activities. He especially enjoyed singing in the choir at St. John's as well as in the BelCanto Chorus. In 1967, the Staebler family moved to California where three of their four children lived. Ken began a second career in facilities maintenance at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena. He retired in 1978, but remained very active in senior activities, assisting his sons in property management and, as always, being an outstanding husband, father, grandfather, friend and neighbor. During a long struggle with cancer, he participated as a patient in several medical research projects.

Mr. Staebler was preceded in death by his wife of 66 years, Frances, in 2000; daughter Bernita Lewis in 1985; their grandson, Kenneth, in 1996; and great-grandson, Jayson Clubb, in 2000. He is survived by two sons and their spouses, Roger and Jackie Staebler and Ron and Loretta Staebler of Arcadia, Calif.; and his daughter, Barbara, and her husband, Philip Boleng, who reside in Glen Rose, Texas. Mr. Staebler is also survived by eight grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Mr. Staebler's ashes will be returned to Charles City at the time of the family's annual reunion on the 4th of July, 2004. His final resting place will be with his wife and daughter at Sunnyside Memory Gardens. Memorial donations may be made to the Kenneth Staebler Tourette Syndrome Camp, 532 Campesina Road, Arcadia, CA 91007, or to the City of Hope Cancer Research, 1500 East Duarte Road, Duarte, CA 91010.

Notes for Paige David Robertson:
Robertson-Drago Funeral Home - West Plains Missouri
By Brooke Mayfield

Howell County community fixture Robertson-Drago Funeral Home has been in business since 1934. The business, originally started by Paige Robertson and Dorothy Drago Robertson, featured founders with early experience. They were both previously employed at McFarland Undertaking Company owned by Kitty McFarland. Paige worked as an embalmer and Dorothy as a dress maker. In 1928, the West Plains Dance Hall explosion caused one of the biggest amounts of casualties West Plains has ever seen. Along with two of Dorothy's sisters, Kitty McFarland lost her life in the explosion.

The undertaking company then went to the hands of Kitty's son, Jack. At this time Dorothy decided to go to school to become a licensed mortician and the couple stayed employed at McFarland's. In 1934 Jack McFarland was called to the military, selling the building to Paige and Dorothy. This began Robertson Funeral Home. It was originally located on Court Square near the place of the current opera house. In 1940 they moved the business to its current one located on West Main Street. It was originally the residence of Judge W.N. Evans and has since then been built on to. After WWII George and Robert Drago, younger brothers of Dorothy, attended mortuary college in St. Louis, Missouri.

At Paige's death in 1958, Robert Drago purchased part of the business and his wife Vivian began working at the funeral home as well. She was previously a school teacher and superintendent of the county's schools. Two of their children, Charles and Marjorie, soon went to Dallas, Texas, to attend mortuary college. In 1980, while they were still in school, Robert passed away. Marjorie and Charles then returned to West Plains to help their mother with the business. Vivian retired in 1991 and Charles purchased the funeral home from his mother. That same year Vivian donated a building also located on West Main and funding to renovate said building to Missouri State University-West Plains. The building is now the current location of the V.H. Drago College Store, named in her honor.

In 1997 the addition of the crematory was added to the funeral home. They preform cremations for several surrounding funeral homes as well. That same year Howell Memorial Park Cemetery was purchased from Roy and Ola Mae Marshall. It's a beautiful park located on Highway 63; the first burial dating back to 1959. Also in the area are about 75 rural cemeteries and Charles is an avid supporter in keeping these functional. To help support his own community, they offer free services to families suffering from the death of babies. There are also designated plots in Howell Memorial for veterans with free-of-charge grave space. It has already seen expansion.

The following years were both prosperous and difficult for Charles. In 2006 he purchased West Plains Vault Company and two years later added West Plains Monument to his list of responsibilities. Its origin dates back to the 1880's being one of the oldest established business' in West Plains. In 2009 the family suffered the loss of Marjorie and the following year, Vivian passed as well. Losing both of these women was tough for both the family and the business. Robertson-Drago has always had the special benefit of having a female embalmer on staff and luckily enough have found another. Elena Stewart is the current woman on staff. The funeral home has a strong family-type staff, having all worked together for at least 10 years.

They keep trying to better the experience for those who use Robertson- Drago. They now have an active website, robertsondrago.com, where you can see what they can do for you, and add even more customer service by adding videos of services that loved ones far away cannot attend. Due to the heightening number of cremations, services can now be held at more convenient times for the family. In order to easier meet families' needs, they have recently bought a chapel on Langston Street. This idea came about when Charles decided to keep and restore his mother's home located near the chapel. He and his wife Pam are selling their home and moving in, to help keep historic West Plains alive.

Springfield, Missouri - Funeral services for Paige D. Robertson, West Plains funeral director, who died Wednesday, August 13, 1958, will be at 10 a. m. today in All Saints' Episcopal Church at West Plains with the Rev. David Barclay officiating.

She was born 04 Jan 1894 in Rulo, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 29 Feb 1940 in Pueblo, Pueblo Co, Colorado.

Notes for Charles Herman Stollsteimer:

Sabetha, Kansas, Nov. 28, 1912 – We are sorry to hear that Charles Stollsteimer had the misfortune to break his leg by being upset with a load of corn.

Sabetha, Kansas, March 29, 1917 - Herman Stollsteimer has been down seeing the sights in St. Joseph for a few months. He is now running the sheep ranch for J. D. Hartter. Between trips to Cas. Feldman's. Charles Stollsteimer is catching pocket gophers. He has caught thirty-eight.

Sabetha, Kansas, Sept. 27, 1917 - Charles Stollsteimer has taken a contract to fill all of Charles Feldman's empty bottles with catsup Charles has a large crop of tomatoes.

Jan. 9, 1919 - Two Gila monsters caused consternation in a crowd of Berwick and nearby residents Tuesday afternoon. Cas Feldman was rendered speechless, and it was some time before he recovered. It was like this. Charley Stollsteimer and George Keck chose sides for a game hunt Tuesday. The winning side was to set up an oyster supper. The game brought in was to be sold for the benefit of the Red Cross. The latitude given was from north pole to south pole. There was a schedule of points for various birds and animals. Among them the gila monster was listed at 5,000 points. Charley Stollsteimer and Cas Feldman and Bob Ruse and the balance of Stollsteimer's crew worked all day, tramping thru the snow. They dragged themselves in at the appointed hour, 3 o'clock in the afternoon. They had done a noble work and they counted more than 12,000 points. Keck's heroes looked glum as the best they could show were 7,500 points. About this time Oscar Cave drove in from the direction of Sabetha. He flaunted out of the sleigh with a few sparrows and the victorious Stollsteimer and Feldman hosts threatened to fine him a dollar for being unable to make a better showing. Cave's sparrows were duly counted. "It's all over but the shouting," said Fehلمان, "there's nothing left but to eat the oysters on the other gang."

"Wait a moment." said Cave, "I forgot something; credit our side with two gila monsters. He opened a box and cast the two gilans right down into Keck's pile. It was here that Feldman was rendered speechless. They were gila monsters all right. When Feldman and his cohorts found their voices, they could have heard a mile or two. Both sides went round and round Gus Grote who was acting as judge. Nobody could assault the claim that they were gila monsters for they were so Stollsteimer's side assaulted Cave. They accused Cave of being crooked and buying the gila monsters only to that members of their own side had attempted to do the same thing but had been beaten to it by Cave. The upshot or it all was that the gila monsters were thrown out of court and another world war was narrowly averted. The rabbits, more than 600 of them, were sold to the Marysville Poultry house at $1.50 to $1.75 a dozen.

Where did the gila monsters come from? Shed Ellington brought them from Arizona last summer. In order to keep them thru the winter be put them in a manure pile to keep them warm. The manure climate disagreed with them so they died. Then Cave got them.

Marriage Notes for Clarence Aprill and Florence Nelson:

Ann Arbor, June 21, 1934 - Miss Fidelia Haughn, secretary and stenographer to Clarence J. Aprill, Ann Arbor insurance man, is named as a love thief in a suit for $25,000 against her started by Mrs. Florence Aprill, school teacher and second wife of Aprill. The suit is on file in circuit court here. Mrs. Aprill also is suing Aprill for divorce and names him, Miss Haughn, Mrs. Paulena Aprill, his mother, and others in suits in which she alleges he has deeded his property away and made it impossible for her to obtain a financial settlement with her husband.

Allegations in Mrs. Aprill's suit against Miss Haughn are that Miss Haughn started attracting Aprill's attentions about Christmas, 1930, that in 1931 she moved in from her farm home near Milan, and has since been in Aprill's company frequently. She also has had full use of two cars Aprill purchased, is alleged to have had Aprill as a frequent visitor in her apartment, has had him with her at her farm home numerous week-ends, and that he has taken her to football games.

Miss Haughn has been employed by Aprill for five years and has enjoyed many more vacations than employees usually receive, the declaration states. Mrs. Aprill's suit for divorce names Miss Haughn as co-respondent. Aprill has filed a cross-bill charging that his wife is unduly jealous. The couple were married in November, 1929, about four years after Aprill's first wife, Gertrude, obtained a divorce. In other suits the defendants are charged with conspiring to defraud Mrs. Aprill of her dower rights, through the transfer by Aprill of a $5,000 piece of property here to his mother. The names of Jacob Aprill, brother of Clarence and his wife, Laura, appear as defendants in another similar suit.

Ann Arbor, July 17, 1934 - Clarence J. Aprill, Ann Arbor insurance man, kept his hair fingerwaved and bought hair nets to keep the waves in place nights, but he forced his wife to feed the ducks and chickens, spray the fruit trees, mow the lawn and put up the storm windows, Mrs. Florence Aprill testified Tuesday in her suit for divorce. Proofs were taken in open court without an appearance by Aprill. Only Mrs. Aprill and her sister, Miss Mabel Nelson, of 8551 Quincy Ave., Detroit, testified, and at the conclusion of the hearing Circuit Judge George W. Sample granted a decree on grounds of extreme cruelty.

The divorce decree and a property settlement brought to conclusion four other cases filed by Mrs. Aprill, one of them an alienation of affections suit in which Mrs. Aprill sought $25,000 from Miss Fidelia Haughn, Aprill's secretary and co-respondent in the divorce action. The other three were suits against Aprill and members of his family, seeking to set aside deeds to property which Aprill owned and which he said to have transferred to the ownership of his mother, the late Mrs. Paulina Aprill, and others. The settlement gives Mrs. Aprill $3,500 in cash and provides for payment of several bills incurred during the time the couple lived together. The settlement was declared satisfactory to Mrs. Aprill, but Mr. Aprill refused to comment. It was mentioned, as significant in connection with the settlement that Mr. Aprill received $500 in the recently filed will of his mother, and his brother Jacob and sister, Clara Koch, received the residue. The mother was co-defendant in the suits to have deeds set aside. Her death occurred shortly after filing of the suits.

The Aprill's were married Nov. 16, 1929, and lived together until last August. Mrs. Aprill was given permission to resume her maiden name, Florence Nelson. Aprill also was divorced by his first wife, Louise Maulbetsch Aprill, in 1925. In that suit she charged that he gave her $3.75 weekly with which to run the house, and that on occasion he would bring home three pork chops, eat one of them while she was putting the dinner on the table, and divide the other two equally with her.

Marriage Notes for Ruth Aprill and Lawrence McNamara:

The marriage of Miss Ruth Aprill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aprill, and Lawrence L. McNamara of Eaton Rapids, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McNamara of Trenary, Michigan, took place Tuesday evening June 25, 1935 at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Bertram Ede of the Methodist Episcopal Church read the service in the presence of fifty relatives and close friends. Palms and candelabra furnished the background for the improvised altar, which was beautifully decorated with baskets of peonies, roses and delphinium, in keeping with the pink and blue color scheme which was followed throughout.

Before the ceremony Miss Katherine Briggs sang "Because" and "At Dawning," and then to the strains of the Lohengrin bridal chorus, played by Miss Clara Schroen, the bridal party took its place. The bride wore a floor length dress of pink net over taffeta fashioned with a shoulder cape. Large rosettes of ruffled net gracefully encircled the cape and bottom of the skirt. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and delphinium. The maid of honor, Miss Lucile Aprill, sister of the bride, wore blue silk lace fashioned in straight lines and carried pink roses. Assisting Mr. McNamara, as best man, was Wallace Gibbons of Three Rivers. The bride is a graduate of Saline High school, and the groom of Munising High school. Both hold degrees from Michigan State Normal College. The bride has been a teacher in the Lansing public schools for several years, and the groom is engaged in the automobile business in Eaton Rapids, where the young couple will make their home.

At the reception held after the ceremony, Misses Ella and Doris Kuehner, and Laura and Jane Biddle, cousins of the bride, assisted in serving refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. McNamara left on a short trip immediately after the reception. For her going away outfit Mrs. McNamara wore a blue print dress, white coat and small felt hat. Out of town guests were present from Chicago, Ann Arbor, Eaton Rapids, Ypsilanti and Willis.

She married Charles William Leverett 20 Dec 1942 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Harold Leverett and Edith ?. He was born 24 Jul 1920 in Ypsilanti, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 19 Nov 1976 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Dorothy Marie Gross:

Dorothy Gross Leverett and her late husband Charles (Chuck) ran Leverett Country Market at the corner of Packard and Carpenter Road on Carpenter's corners. And that market started in 1956, and the story that Dorothy told me was that it began when her brother-in-law had some extra corn and asked if the kids wanted to go down to the road and sell it. And they did, and they sold it all in two hours. And so the market was born.

I met Chuck at the Pittsfield Grange at Saturday night dances in 1937. We both graduated from high school in 1938. I was from Dexter High and he was from Ypsilanti High. I attended Henry Ford Nursing School on a scholarship and Chuck went to Michigan State. When war broke out in 1941, I went to work at the bomber plant. We were ... I worked there for about six months, I guess, and then I went to visit my husband who was in the service. We were married in December of 1942, while he was in his senior year, having been allowed to finish as he was in ROTC. He graduated in 19 ... April '43. Three weeks after graduation he reported for military duty, went to Fort Custer at Battle Creek, and then to Camp Barclay in Abilene, Texas. He entered into the Officer's Medical Training School. In July, I went to Texas and we had a one-room apartment with a lovely family. Chuck had to be at camp but usually had week-end passes. In December '43, after nine months of training, he graduated as a Second Lieutenant in the Medical Corps.

Overseas duty followed in March of '44. He left on April 1st. I arrived in Corsica and then on to Italy. He was lost in the Alps while helping one of his fellow officers who had been injured. And then he went on to France. He served in French hospitals, then Germany for the next 21 months. I lived with my parents near Dexter and our daughter Judith was born July 1944. We were with them for 23 months.

During this time, the property on the farm for the trailer park was sold. I don't have the exact dates of it, but I mean, that's when it was handled. Chuck returned from overseas in 1946 to his first child of 19 months. Still was in the Army Reserve, attended meetings once a week. He obtained the rank of First Lieutenant while overseas and actually shy of two weeks of being a Captain. We had a short to get reacquainted with his wife and child and now look for a job. Jim Warner, owner of Warner Dairy on Washtenaw Ave, asked him to come to work. His major in college was Dairy Manufacturing. He offered him $200 a month, six day a week. He accepted. He became the plant superintendent immediately. But after two years there would be no chance for advancement as Jim's son-in-law had started working there.

So in 1948, Chuck and his father talked it over and decided to go back to general farming and the farm house was made over for both families. The folks moved upstairs and our family was downstairs. We had two children at that time. Becoming a resident of Pittsfield Township, I registered to vote with Dan Ellsworth, who was the clerk. Dan Ellsworth farm was the corner of Carpenter and Ellsworth.

Well, August 22nd, 1962 was the day our son was killed under the tractor. He and Bill Brooks were going to go get sweet corn and that's been 39 years ago. All property south of Packard and Ellsworth, actually to 194 we farmed. And the farm on Ellsworth Road known as Doc Cady Farm, which is now all private homes we used for farmland. We rented a farm on Morgan Road and a farm on Liberty Road and that's all now in a big subdivision.

The Christmas of 1962, we had purchased our Christmas trees and the Boy Scouts sold them. We had everybody in the subdivision and all our friends had been so generous, we set up a memorial fund. And the Scouts came and sold the trees, and all the profit went into the fund. And I think we did that for four years. And many boys and girls in the Carpenter District were allowed to apply for help to start their college. I think it was $300 they would give them. It was handled by the Ann Arbor Trust. It has been closed out. Some went to the Saline Church Home and they decided the remainder should go to our son Mike's college upon the death of his father.

The Leverett farm was sold to Sam Frankl for a shopping center. That was in 1963, and that was when they put our house up on beams and got it ready and we cleared the orchard out. And I remember that was a time that President Kennedy was shot and I ran all the way down to the orchard to tell Chuck and the other guys that were working. And we also put up a barn to hold all our machinery, reopened our market with Robert Lilly doing the carpenter work. Later flowers she had attached to the market which served its use for the sale of flowers and Christmas trees. The market was opened May 1st to November 1st and then we opened December 1st usually till about the 18th.

In 1975, Judy and Christine, now out on their own, no longer helped at the market. Christine was married and she had an adopted son, our grandson from Korea. Mike was in college at Western Michigan. Chuck was doing more soy beans, grain farming, possibly thinking of ending the market business. With all the kids gone it was kind of hard. Some worked after school too. Some of those Lilly kids worked over there too.

And then November 1976, my husband had a heart attack in the morning, and was rushed to the hospital. By 6:30 that night he was ... had a massive heart attack on the operating table and passed away.

Mike was still in college. He came home weekends and we worked till late at night, combining and ... One night the combine on Morgan Road got mired in wet area, and thanks to Richard Sakstrup, who came to our rescue and pulled it out.

We decided the farm work had to come to a close. The market we could handle. Did do the sweet corn for another year, as Mike was home in the summer. Then a great friend said he would raise our sweet corn and we could pick it up each morning freshly picked. We had really built our business on our sweet corn because it was always fresh, being picked all day long. Weekends we had sold 300 dozen per day. We never went back to that amount though. All our corn was picked by hand, carried on a bushel basket.

Mike did transfer to Eastern which made it easier, except it added one year of college to him. We have continued going to Detroit market three to five days a week for produce and plants and flowers. This means leaving for Detroit by two a.m. and then come home and work from nine to seven, seven days a week. Long hours, but still rewarding.

We had an auction and sold all our farm equipment after we decided not to do any more farming. In 1979, I sold the farmhouse there. And Mike and I bought a condo on Earhart Road and I lived there 19 years. And then in 1986, we heard the house was going to be sold for a car wash, and we knew it adjoined the rest of us, so we bought ... I bought it back.

So we rented the market out for one year. He didn't succeed and he left without paying, so that was ... the building stands empty as far as I'm concerned. Then my daughter Chris did it for a year, and she didn't make out too well, so she said it was too many hours for no little ... for nickels and dimes. It's been empty for several years. In two ... last ... in 2000, this couple opened it through July and October but they're not planning on doing it.

We're doing wholesale only now. My son Mike is the manager. He still buys in Detroit. He does all the buying. He has the long hours, and this will be our 40th year purchasing trees from Duddle's Tree Farms. They sent me a note with our Christmas card this year. And this is our 45th year in business. We're going to continue on the wholesale business and Christmas trees in December. Seems to be slowing down myself. I turned 80 last December but still work three mornings a week to help pack the produce and I hope I can continue.

Dorothy Leverett was born in Dexter, Michigan on December 18, 1920. She grew up in Dexter on the Gross family farm, on the same property where she lives today. She graduated from Dexter High School in 1938 and took one year of nurses training at Henry Ford Nursing School. When World War II broke out, she went to work at the Ypsilanti Bomber plant doing office work. She married her husband Charles, whom she met at a Pittsfield Grange dance in 1937, in December of 1942. He served in the Medical Corps in Europe during the war. They had four children: Judith, Charles W. (who was killed in a farm accident in 1962), Kristine, and Michael. Her husband Charles died of a heart attack in 1976.

In 1948, Charles went back to general farming at his family farm located at Carpenter's Corner (Carpenter and Packard Roads). In 1957 they opened a produce stand, which evolved into Leverett's Country Market, which became a 45-year institution in the Township. This interview deals mostly with Mrs. Leverett's memories of running the market.

He was beloved by several relatives: Dave and Martha Luick, Joan and Jim Hoffmeyer and Joan's son and grandson, Duane and Dale Luick.

Dean was raised on the family farm on East Michigan Avenue which he continued to manage throughout his lifetime. He was elected county commissioner several times and served two terms on the Jackson County Road Commission, retiring in 1992. Grass Lake residents who are now adults may remember him for his years driving a school bus for Grass Lake students. Dean had long working relationships with both the Pierce family and the Wolpert family. We also want to mention the help given by the Low family and the wonderful support given by Kim Miller as well as Dean's nephew, Larry Champney. We want to recognize the long-term friendship Dean had with Phil and Sally Sherwood and their thoughtful assistance in caring for our father on many occasions. He will be remembered as a hard-working, skilled farmer, cooperative with others, generous to his friends, a dedicated member of the United Methodist Church, thoughtful and affectionate to his family, an entertaining story-teller and a gently competitive Euchre player. He loved to travel, visiting countries in Europe and South America. One of his last trips was an ocean cruise around New England with his adult grandchildren. He enjoyed the many family reunions and visiting family around Michigan. He was a regular at VFW meetings and a welcomed participant at coffee gatherings for neighbors, friends, and fellow farmers.

Thank you to all of his friends, nurses and doctors who cared for our beloved Dean over the years. A celebration of life service is being planned for the summer at the Grass Lake United Methodist Church. Arrangements are entrusted to Sherwood Funeral Home, Grass Lake.

- 8664 iv. Jennifer Lee Gross, born 23 Sep 1958 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 02 Sep 1991 in Pleasant Plains, Lake Co, Michigan. She married Brett Matthew Fischbach 18 Sep 1982 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan; born 25 Jun 1953 in Corona, Riverside Co, California; died 24 Oct 2007 in Baldwin, Lake Co, Michigan.

Notes for Brett Matthew Fischbach:

Brett M. Fischbach, (formerly of Saline) editor of the Lake County Star, died Oct. 24, 2007, at his home in Baldwin. He was 54. Mr. Fischbach was born June 25, 1953, at the U.S. Naval Hospital in Corona, Calif., the son of Frederick and Marylouise Fischbach. Even as a child, he gave evidence of a lively intelligence, boundless curiosity and a passion for fishing. Mr. Fischbach attended grade and high school in Ann Arbor and Saline, graduating from Saline High School in 1971. At the age of 18, he volunteered to serve in the U.S. Army and served in the Third Army at Fort Ord in Seattle and Fort Bliss in El Paso, Texas. He was honorably discharged in 1974. Following his Army service and 13 years in the Merchant Marine, he earned college degrees from Central Michigan University in zoology and history, ultimately attaining master's degree in both disciplines. He also taught undergraduate courses in ichthyology, fisheries biology, limnology and zoology, and served as assistant curator of the university's Museum of Cultural and Natural History. A longstanding love of ships and the sea inspired Mr. Fischbach to pursue a career in the Merchant Marine. Following his training at the Harry Lundeburg School of Seamanship in Piney Point, North Carolina, he received his Able Seaman's certificate and, for many years, worked on Great Lakes vessels, both as a deckhand and later as boatswain.

In 1983, Mr. Fischbach married Jennifer Lee Gross of Ann Arbor. His beloved first wife died after a long illness in 1991. In 2005, he was wed to Cappy Beins, originally from Toledo, Ohio, whom he recruited to write as a regular contributor to the Lake County Star.

Mr. Fischbach assumed the post of editor of this weekly newspaper in 2002. He quickly established a reputation for being a fine reporter who relentlessly pursued stories, and a clever feature writer who's popular and award-winning "Virtual Bait Shop" became one of the best-loved columns in the area. Being a Master Angler as well as an avid football fan, Mr. Fischbach was well equipped to cover a wide variety of outdoor activities and sports. He was also profoundly interested in politics and extraordinarily well informed about current events. A fervent champion of the common man, who despised cant and was always willing to speak his mind in the face of any opposition, Mr. Fischbach composed a fine series of "op-eds" on subjects ranging from war to the economy to public welfare and education, never failing to provoke thought and useful discussion. He was recognized for his outstanding work as a writer and editor by the Michigan Press Association.

Everyone who knew Mr. Fischbach well agrees that he was a most remarkable and truly unique individual. Humorous, bright, kind, and amazingly well read, he never lost his childlike fascination with ecology, gardening, chess, wartime strategy and field equipment. An expert on the American Civil War and World War II, he could identify any and every tank, plane or weapon from memory. There was not a single general on either side that he did not recognize by sight. While serving at Fort Bliss, Mr. Fischbach's Army colleagues who knew of his chess talent arranged a match for him with a Mexican National Master from nearby Chihuahua. Mr. Fischbach won the match when the master made a "poor move" in Mr. Fischbach's words at about the eighth move.

Mr. Fischbach was outstanding in biological taxonomy: his powers of retention were such that he could quickly classify any animal, whether terrestrial or aquatic, and explain its most important characteristics. Perhaps most of all, his relatives and friends will cherish the memory of his wonderful conversation. He lived a life that was jam-packed with adventures and could relate delightful anecdotes about rescues in the waters of Lake Superior, violent storms, occasional wild encounters with very colorful characters from Mexico to northern Canada, and fine musical concerts. Though he met literally hundreds of people during his life, Mr. Fischbach never forgot a name (or the lyrics to a song). Mr. Fischbach was a member of the American Legion, the Pere Marquette Watershed Council, the Lake County Property Owners Association, and the Federation of Fly Fishers.

Besides his widow and parents, survivors include three siblings, Cort S. (Maureen) Fischbach of Pinckney, Kristin Louise (Harold "Hal") Holcomb of Chelsea and Dirk F. (Kathryn "Katy") Fischbach of Saline; nephews Skylar Smith of Pinckney, Evan and Colwyn Fischbach of Saline, and Scott and Kenneth Gross; one uncle, R. Curtis Fischbach of Adrian; nine cousins; Jennifer's beloved mother, Jutta Gross; and a host of friends.

A memorial service will be held noon Saturday at Reddeman Farms, 555 S. Dancer Road. Another service is planned noon Nov. 10 at Verdun Funeral Home in Baldwin. Cremation has taken place, with ashes to be interred at Lakeview Cemetery in Ludington following the service. Memorial contributions in Mr. Fischbach's name may be directed to Museum of Cultural and Natural History, Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, MI 48859. Envelopes will be available at the services. Rest in peace.
