Notes for Julia Herlinger:

Mrs. Julia Weimer, aged 89, 245 Jefferson St., for 80 years a resident of Youngstown, oldest living member of the Martin Luther Church and one of its charter members, died at five a.m. today as the result of a fall two weeks ago. Mrs. Weimer had been in apparently good health until she fell in her home, injuring her hip. She never rallied from the shock of the fall.

Born in Germany Dec. 13, 1841, Mrs. Weimer came to the United States and to this city in 1851. Charles Weimer, her husband, died some years ago. Until her injury Mrs. Weimer was active in her church. She wanted to live to see the dedication of the new Martin Luther Church now under construction at Hudson Drive and Clearmont Ave. She was widely known in the Brier Hill district where she leaves many friends to mourn her passing. Mrs. Weimer always attended the annual Lutheran picnic and had expected to attend the outing of her Church this year. Mrs. Weimer made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Schroeder.

She leaves three other children, Mrs. Julius H. Dahman, Mrs. Lena Klemm and William Weimer. Miss Julia M. Dahman of 404 N. Worthington St. is a granddaughter. Mrs. Weimer leaves 13 other grandchildren.

Notes for Gustave Adolph Niethammer:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Adolph G. Niethamer, a member of the well-known firm of Huss & Niethamer, contractors and builders of Ann Arbor with an extensive business which covers this city and Washtenaw County, was born in Scio Township, May 27, 1870. His father, Jacob Niethamer, was a native of Stuttgart in the duchy of Wurtemberg, Germany, and coming to America he purchased an eighty-acre farm at Scio, where he died when his son Adolph was only two years old. His wife, who prior to her marriage was Mary Gengenbach, was also a native of Stuttgart. Adolph G. Niethamer attended the public schools of his native township until he was fourteen years of age. He had two brothers; Johnson F., a grocer; and Moses G., a carpenter and builder, both of whom are now living in Ann Arbor. There were also two sisters in the family: Minnie, who (lied at the age of sixteen years; and Lydia, who became the wife of Henry Frey, of Francis, Michigan, and died in 1899.

At the age of eighteen years Adolph G. Niethamer began learning the carpenter's and builder's trade under the direction of his brother Moses. The following year lie went to work for John Walz, of Ann Arbor, with whom he remained for eleven years with the exception of eighteen months spent in the employment of the state at work upon the university buildings. In 1904 he entered into partnership with Aaron C. Huss, a well known carpenter and builder of Ann Arbor, thus forming the firm of Huss & Niethamer, now doing contract work on an extensive scale in this city and the county. Many important contracts have been awarded them and they are insured a continuance of a liberal patronage by reason of their fair and honorable methods and the excellent work executed by them.

On the 15th of December, 1892, Mr. Niethamer was married to Miss Mary L. Eiding and they have two children, a daughter, Delta K., now five years of age, and a son, Woodard A., who is two years old.

Although Mr. Niethamer ever gives an unfaltering support to the democracy he has never been a candidate for office. He is a member of the American Health & Sickness Association and attends the Fourth Avenue Evangelical Bethlehem church of Ann Arbor. Having always lived in this city he is widely known and has attained a creditable position in business circles through his own well directed efforts and merit.

Notes for Leonard Emanuel Ginebaugh:
The Portland Observer, April 23, 1925:

Leonard Ginnebaugh Found Dead In Bed By His Wife Early Friday Morning. Leonard Ginnebaugh, aged 58 years was found dead in bed by his wife Friday morning, his death coming as a distinct shock to the entire community. Mr. Ginnebaugh retired the night before apparently in the best of health. During the night he complained to his wife of a pain in his stomach but insisted that she not get up as it was of minor importance and would soon pass away. He got up to relieve the pain and told her he would finish the night on a cot. When Mrs. Ginnebaugh arose in the morning, she discovered the dead body of her husband. Funeral services were held at the Collins church Sunday afternoon and burial was made in the Portland cemetery.

Leonard was the son of Eliza Morse and John Ginnebaugh/Ginebaugh. Len married Florence "Flora" Chipman on January 1, 1895 in Ionia, Michigan. Mr. Ginnebaugh had been a lifelong resident of Portland Township. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ginnebaugh were pioneer settlers of Collins where he had spent the greater portion of his life. For many years he had operated a threshing outfit and had become well known throughout this district. Some time ago he accepted a position at the Collins elevator which he filled up to the time of his death.

He had been married two times. His first wife's maiden name was Flora Chipman. Four children were born to this union: Fred and Margaret, of Battle Creek; Esther, of Lansing, and John, of California. After the death of his first wife he was married to Mabel Gates, who with five children from that union survive. He is also survived by one brother, Charles Ginnebaugh."

Notes for Flora Alice (Florence) Chipman:
The Portland Observer, Thursday, March 4, 1915.

Mrs. Len (Leonard) Ginnebaugh expired suddenly and very unexpectedly early Thursday evening at her home a mile east of Collins. She had been in ill health all winter but her condition was not considered serious, and the summons came as a keen shock to members of the family and many friends. The obsequies took place at the Collins church Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, Rev. W. H. Skentelbury, of Portland, officiating, and the remains were brought to this place for burial.

Mrs. Ginnebaugh's maiden name was Flora Chipman. She was a daughter of the late M. J. Chipman and was born May 10, 1872, while her father was serving the government in an official capacity at Washington, D. C. The family returned to Portland when Mrs. Ginnebaugh was eight years of age and deceased had been a resident of this vicinity continuously since.

Twenty years ago deceased was married to Len Ginnebaugh, who with four children, Fred, aged 17, John, aged 9, Margaret, aged 6, and Esther, aged 4, survive. There are three sisters, Mrs. Leon Williamson, of Lansing, Mrs. Clara Starks, of Scottsville, Mich., and Miss Ethel Chipman, of Pueblo, Colorado.

Mrs. Ginnebaugh's father died in Pueblo a little more than a year ago and was brought to Portland for burial Mrs. Ginnebaugh affiliated with the Congregational church while attending school here years ago and was an active member of the society until the duties of rearing a family developed upon her. She was of a kind and charitable disposition and universally admired by her neighbors. Her death naturally is a matter of sincere regret.

Notes for Bertha C. Sherman:
The Portland Observer, Thursday, October 31, 1912:

In the sudden death of Mrs. Charles Ginebaugh, which occurred at the family residence northwest of Portland Tuesday morning, the community loses one of its most highly esteemed residents. Apparently in perfect held until a few moments before her death, Mrs. Ginebaugh was suddenly seized with an attack of heart failure, and before medical assistance could be rendered, she had breathed her last. Dr. Allen, who was summoned, found no evidences of life when he arrived.Mrs. Ginebaugh's sudden death has cast a pall over the entire community. She has always been highly regarded in the vicinity and her death is deeply mourned by many friends.

Her maiden name was Bertha Sherman and she was born at Ithaca, Gratiot County, in December 1883, her marriage to Charles Ginebaugh occurring about eleven years ago. The couple have two children, aged seven and nine. Besides the sorrowing husband and children deceased is also survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sherman of Toledo, Ohio, and a sister, Mrs. James McClain of Ithaca, who will all be here to attend the funeral.

Rev. Vreeland of the Baptist church will conduct services at the house at 10:00 o'clock Friday morning, and the remains will be brought to Portland for burial.

Lyons Herald, November 7, 1912

Charles Ginebaugh and his two children have the sympathy of all who know them in their sad bereavement of wife and mother. Mrs. Ginebaugh died suddenly Tuesday morning, Oct. 29, 1912, before Doctors Alton and Allen, summoned from Portland, could reach the farm near Collins where Mr. and Mrs. Ginnebaugh had lived happily since coming from Grayling 11 years ago. Two hours before her death Mrs. Ginebaugh was chatting pleasantly with her husband, with no indication that the end was near. Just the evening before she had gone for an automobile ride and retired in the best of health. Tuesday morning, she was slightly indisposed and though it was hardly deemed of sufficient importance to summon a physician, two were sent for when she began growing worse. Dr. Alton drove into the yard just as she breathed her last. Heart failure was the cause.

Funeral services were held Friday at the house, Rev. W.W. Slee, of the M. E. church, officiating. Burial was in Portland. Among those present were Mrs. Wm. Tubbs, mother, and Mrs. James MacLean, sister, both of Ithaca.

Mr. and Mrs. Ginebaugh were married at Bay City 12 years ago and spent one year in Grayling, after which they moved to the farm where they have since resided. Their two children are Irma and Gilbert, aged 10 and 9 respectively. It was but a few weeks ago that Mr. Ginebaugh lost a barn from fire, the origin of which was a mystery and the loss heavy.

Notes for George Jacob Genebach:
History of Calhoun County, Michigan. By Hon. Washington Gardner, The Lewis Publishing Company - Chicago & New York, 1913.

GEORGE J. GENEBACH. One of the most prominent and progressive men of Battle Creek is George J. Genebach, correspondent with the Nichols & Shepard Company, his intimate connection with which during the past several years has made him an influential factor in its development and prosperity. 'Prominent alike in social, public and business affairs, with versatile talents and abilities, he is a citizen at once prominent and useful, filling with credit to himself and with satisfaction to others the multiform duties and obligations imposed upon those whom talent and industry have placed in positions of responsibility and trust. George J. Genebach was born in Brooklyn, Jackson County, Michigan, June 29, 1874, and is a son of Charles F. and Barbara (Stocker) Genebach. His father is identified with real estate interests of Brooklyn, where he and his wife still reside.

The early education of George J. Genebach was secured in the public schools, and subsequently he took a course in Cleary Business College, Ypsilanti, where he was graduated in 1891, this being supplemented by attendance at the State Normal College, where he took a special course. In 1892 he matriculated in the law department of the University of Michigan, and was graduated in June, 1894, having been previously admitted to the bar. He had early formulated plans, and thus his preliminary training had tended toward a business and law education, while it might be noted that he was the youngest member of a class of two hundred and seventy students. While a student in college he took a great interest in athletic sports and was a member of the track team. Immediately after his graduation he established himself in the practice of his profession in Jackson, where his energy and ability soon gained him recognition. On January 1, 1895, he entered into a co-partnership with Elmer Kirkby, who had just retired from the office of prosecuting attorney, although at the expiration of one year the partnership was dissolved. In February, 1898, Mr. Genebach was tendered the position of deputy county clerk, of which he remained the incumbent until July 1, 1900, when he resigned to enter upon his duties as justice of the peace, having been elected to that position during the preceding spring. His personal popularity was clearly indicated in this election, since he received a majority of three hundred and seventy-three votes, while the head of the ticket upon which his name appeared was defeated by more than four hundred votes. Mr. Genebach entered upon the discharge of his official duties on July 4, 1900, and during the administration which followed his rulings were in accord with justice and free from partiality, meeting the approval of superior courts wherever reviewed. On the completion of his service in the office of justice of the peace Mr. Genebach became connected with the International Harvester Company, in their Jackson office, as assistant to the manager, and acted in that capacity from 1904 to October, 1907. On October 7th of the latter year he came to Battle Creek and became connected with Nichols & Shepard Company, as correspondent, a position which he still holds. He is also connected with the United Steel and Wire Company, formerly the Battle Creek Oven Rack Company, which was organized in Battle Creek, in February, 1909, by Mr. Genebach. In April, 1912, this became the United States Steel and Wire Company, of which he is now secretary and manager, and to which he gives a part of his time, and during the year 1912 a new factory was erected in Battle Creek, at the corner of Burchard Street and Fonda Avenue.

In politics Mr. Genebach is a staunch supporter of the principles of the Republican Party. For three years he was a member of the National Guard of Michigan, and while residing in Jackson belonged to the following fraternal organizations: Independent Order of Foresters, which he joined in January, 1897; Elks, which he joined in July, 1898; Maccabees, with which he became connected in February, 1900, and Jackson Lodge, F. & A. M., with which he affiliated in September, 1901. He was also a member of the Jackson City Club, held the office of vice chief ranger of the Foresters, was later elected chief ranger, a position which he held for three years, and in February, 1901, was made high chancellor of the high court of this order for the western jurisdiction of Michigan. At the present time he belongs to Battle Creek Lodge No. 12, F. & A. M., Battle Creek Lodge No. 131, B. P. O. E., and the Country and Athelstan Clubs of Battle Creek. With his family, Mr. Genebach attends the Baptist church, and the comfortable modern family home is situated at No. 7, North Jay Street.

Mr. Genebach was married November 18, 1896, in the city of Jackson, Michigan, to Miss Ida B. Stevens, who was born in Titusville, Pennsylvania, daughter of Henry C. Stevens, who was formerly one of the leading oil operators of the Keystone state, and is now a resident of Jackson. Mr. and Mrs.

Genebach have had two children: Carleton Grey, who was born September 16, 1897; and Lowell Burke, born October 13, 1898, both of whom are attending the Battle Creek schools.

The ritual of the Episcopal church will be augmented by affectionate recollections of numberless friends and associates at funeral services to be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for George J. Genebach. The service at St. Thomas Episcopal church, to be conducted by the Rev. William A. Simms. pastor, will Include only the formal service. Interment will be made in the family lot at Memorial Park cemetery. Since news of Mr. Genebach's sudden death on Saturday April 7, 1945 at his summer lodge near Luther in Lake County was received, tributes from many organizations and Individuals have emphasized the notable contributions he had made to his community. So quietly had Mr. Genebach pursued many of his contributions to public and civic life that even some of his close acquaintances were not fully aware of their scope.

Only active bearers had been named for the funeral service tomorrow, comprising close friends and business associates. They are Goddie Phillipps, Glenn O. Hoffhines, Claude Warburton, Frank E. Bechmann, Glenn O. Cross and Charles Cinder. The body will not lie in state at the church, but friends will be received at the Shaw funeral home until 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. It was announced today that the offices and plants of the United Steel 4. Wire Co., of which Mr. Genebach was the founder and president, will be closed all day tomorrow. The Michigan National bank, of which Mr. Genebach was vice chairman of the board, will close at 1 p. m. Tuesday for the remainder of the day. The board of supervisors will meet as scheduled at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, but William Bemer of Albion, chairman, said an adjournment would be taken at noon and that the session probably would be resumed on Wednesday. Mr. Genebach is a former chairman of the supervisors and at the time of his death was serving as chairman of the board ways and means committee. Expressions of regret over Mr. Genebach's sudden death were universal today at the United Steel L Wire Co., from top executives through the rank and file of employees.

Charles H. Babcock. secretary-treasurer of the company, has had the longest business association with Mr. Genebach. He Joined the company and served as its office force while the business was still located in the building of the old Kneeland Engine Co., now occupied by the King Seed Co., near the lower mill pond. That was in 1912, the year that the company moved to its present location m Fonda Avenue. "Our long association has been most pleasant." said Mr. Babcock. 'Mr. Genebach was the type of efficient executive who passed along some of his responsibilities to his associates." Charles Secord, plant foreman who joined the company in 1914, Is the next oldest veteran. His association with the firm has been interrupted by only one year, in 1928-9. Under direction of Glenn D. Lake, president of Local No. 374. UAW-CIO, at the plant, employees today arranged for a beautiful blanket of roses. "We all felt close to Mr. Genebach and he was a frequent visitor in all departments of the plant." said Mr. Lake. "A little thing like grease was never any bar to a cordial handshake from him. His passing has brought genuine sorrow to all employees."

An important contribution made by Mr. Genebach while a member of the city commission was recalled today by J. W. Murphy. Jr., who served a mayor during those four years from 1933 to 1937. "Mr. Genebach and Joseph McAuliffe were elected commissioners at the same time I was elected mayor and we were all reelected in 1935." said Mr. Murphy. "Mr. Genebach was in charge of accounts and finance at one of the most difficult tunes in the city's history. Despite the depression and the fact that outstanding bonds fell due in record-breaking amounts. Mr. Genebach was largely instrumental in the accomplishment of greatly reducing the city's debt." Scores of tributes and recollections of incidents in Mr. Genebach's life were received today by the Enquirer and News. Among them were: Mayor Bernard E. Godde "I regarded Mr. Genebach as one of my closest friends. I often went to him for advice and always found him most gracious and considerate of everyone. Battle Creek has lost a public-spirited citizen and leader." Glenn O. Hoffhines, senior vice president, Michigan National bank "Here at the bank we had learned to rely on his judgment and Mr. Genebach made a notable contribution to the policies which we follow. My own association with him goes back only eight years, but during that time I have learned to appreciate those qualities which were clearly discerned by those who had known him much longer " William E. Bemer of Albion, chairman of the board of supervisors "Supervisor Genebach will be missed in the counsels of the board. I consider him to have been the outstanding member on the board. He held the high regard, respect and confidence of the entire board."

Ernest C. Rice, president of Chamber of Commerce "I have known Mr. Genebach since he became a resident of Battle Creek and have been associated with him in many activities, including the city commission, board of supervisors and in airport development. His counsel and advice will be missed not only by the chamber, but by our entire community." Arch R. Flannery, director of civic recreation "Mr. Genebach was the founder of civic recreation in Battle Creek and my association with him in tins activity goes back to 1922. Since he organized tile Civic Recreation association. Ins interest in it had continued without interruption. I know that the city is appreciative of the head start he gave the community through the organization that has developed into our civic recreation department." F. Campbell Bowers, president of the Rotary club - We were neighbors and friends for 40 years. Mr. Genebach was a number of the Rotary club for a quarter of a century and the members of Rotary will miss his friendly greeting and line cooperative spirit. He will be missed also by those of us who had the pleasure of serving with him on the board of the Michigan National bank. The passing of such an outstanding personality is a severe loss and I will always cherish the memory of this fine friend and neighbor."

Thomas F. Arnett, president, Calhoun County Bar association - "Though net engaged in the practice of law. Mr. Genebach maintained his interest in the bar association and attended our meetings regularly. He is listed by the bar on the 'retired' membership, but this means only that he was not in law practice. Actually, he was a trustee and his advice and counsel were regarded highly." John A. Wagner, president, board of education "Members of the board were shocked by the news of Mr. Genebach's death. In earlier years he proved to be a hard-working member of the board. Just as he gave his lull efforts to whatever he undertook. He was able and courageous, never being afraid to step out and grapple with Issues." T. Ben Johnston. Boy Scout executive "Mr. Genebach gave our organization the first registered charter of a Boy Scout troop In Battle Creek, of which he was the scoutmaster. He was of greatest assistance to us all through the years. He was the kind of a man who has never declined to help whenever called upon." Charles Binder, merchant and director of the Michigan National bank - "I have known Mr. Genebach ever since he arrived in Battle Creek 38 years ago. I regard myself as one of his oldest friends and we have had a long association at the bank. He was congenial, able and conscientious." Robert W. Keith, chairman, city planning commission - "News of Mr. Genebach's death has come as a blow to every citizen. Though not a member of our commission, he rendered invaluable service on the airport and railroad crossing committees. We have lost a valued member of our community."

The will of George J. Genebach. which was admitted to probate at Marshall yesterday afternoon April 13, 1945, direct that except for four specific bequest his entire estate shall be placed in trust for his two sons and their survivors. No estimate was made of the value of the estate. Mr. Genebach, founder and president of the United Steel & Wire Co. and energetic civic worker in Battle Creek for nearly 40 years, died unexpectedly a week ago today at his fishing lodge near Luther in Lake County. He made his will July 13, 1944.

Cash bequests of $500 each were made to three of Mr. Genebach personal employees. Charles P. Archer, caretaker, and Mae H. Allen, housekeeper, at the West Michigan Avenue residence, and Harry J. Smith, caretaker at Mr. Genebach's farm in Pennfield Township. Mr. Genebach collection of old firearms, a library on Gen. George A. Custer and numerous other items, were bequeathed to his grandson, Lieut. Larry Genebach, now an observation pilot serving in Germany. The will slated that this bequest was made because this grandson "has shown an interest in it and to which he has made some contribution." The two sons, Carleton G. Genebach and Lowell B. Genebach and the Michigan National bank are made co-executors. Two trust funds are to be set up, one for each of the sons, and detailed stipulation as to their operation are provided.

Apart from Mr. Genebach's collections, all of his personal effects, including his automobile, horses household furniture and other items were left to the two sons, to be divided as they agree. The trust set up for the two on are identical, providing annual Income and to be distributed as they respectively reach the age of S5 years. In the meantime, it is directed that they shall receive both an income and a portion of the principal. If the sons should die before attaining that age, the trust are to continue for the benefit of their heirs.

June 30, 1946 - If Battle Creek's late industrialist and student of western history, George J. Genebach, were alive today, he would undoubtedly derive great amusement from learning that Tombstone, Arizona, is experiencing a second "boom" as a health center. Any conception of Tombstone as a health center is amusing in an ironical way, for the story of Its birth and its infant years reveals that a man's health then depended on his ability to wield a six-gun. Mr. Genebach died April 7, 1945, four months before Tombstone's Medical center was established. But four years before that, in 1941, he had purchased the land known as the O. K. Corral to preserve it as an historical landmark. At the time, Mr. Genebach's enthusiasm over the historical value of the land was not shared by the Tombstone city council.

However, in late 1945, the city council of Tombstone wrote Lowell B. Genebach, Sr., and Carlton G. Genebach, his sons, asking that the city of Tombstone be allowed to repurchase the land. The transaction was made involving a "token consideration from the city" but with the stipulation that the land was to be used only as a memorial park and not to be resold to private Interests for any purpose. That was in accordance with the late Mr. Genebach's desires.

That would seem to have been a wise proviso in the light of subsequent events. Prom a 1940 census population of 822 persons, Tombstone has now boomed to an estimated 2.500. The population doubled in the last eight months. Tombstone's inhabitable dwellings have all been bought up and Its outskirts are dotted with trailers. The boom Is a healthy one and the reason for it is health. Recent rapid advances in the use of chlorine gas at the Tombstone Medical center, pioneer in the treatment of sinus and arthritis, have brought sufferers from these afflictions in hordes. The trek is being made from all of the 43 states and Canada, New Zealand, and the Canal Zone. Rooms in the Tombstone courthouse and Jail which, given voice, could tell stories of life-and-death trials, are now being renovated as hotel accommodations. "The toughest town on earth in the 1830's no longer reeds a Jail." Mayor John P. Geacoma said recently. He anticipates that the health boom may return the population of Tombstone to the 15,000 figure it enjoyed soon after Ed Schieffelin discovered silver there in 1877. Health seekers who walk in the sun and breathe in the dry air of this desert town will see only a few mute testimonies to an era when violence was accepted and many "died with their boots on." There is the "Welcome to Tombstone and Boothill Graveyard" sign which stands outside the city's limits. There Is the tombstone inscribed "Dan Dowd, Red Sample, Tex Howard, Bill DeLaney, Dan Kelly legally hanged 1884." And there is the "O. K. Corral" which Mr. Genebach and his sons established for posterity's curio seekers.

The story of George J. Genebach's interest in Tombstone is reflected in his large collection of western stories, history, and data which Lowell B. and Carleton G. Genebach inherited along with U. S. Steel and Wire Co., from their father, its founder. What led to Mr. Genebach's purchase of the O. K. Corral was not so much the famous gun battle that occurred there in 1881 as his interest in the life story of one of its participants, Wyatt Earp, frontiersman and later U. S. marshal. Wyatt Earp was born In Illinois in 1849. He drifted west in his youth to become a buffalo hunter and professional gambler. Impeccable in character and tough in physical and moral strain, Earp became "the law" in Wichita, which was as "hard boiled" as any town east of the Missouri. His fists and guns later quelled the unruly in Dodge City where he was marshal from 1877 to 1879.

Tradition has it that Earp was "never licked" in battle. His courage was undebatable. He was an expert shot in the days when shooting was an art practiced for self-preservation. His search for more dangerous living led him farther and farther west and the towns behind him became divested of outlaws and settled into comparative quiet. He came to Tombstone, like 12.000 others, to compete for a fortune in silver. He was persuaded to become U. S. marshal and. armed with this commission and a pair of "shooters." he entered the Tombstone scene in December. 1879. He was not alone, however. His brother, Virgil was town marshal and his brother Morgan, a deputy. "Doc" Holliday, a consumptive dentist who was a cold-blooded killer and expert shot, aligned himself with the three because he "took a fancy to 'em."

A gun battle that still lives as one of the most violent the west ever saw took place on the morning of October 26, 1881. A long feud had existed between the participants. Ike and Billy Clanton with their cohorts, Billy Claiborne and Frank and Tom McLowery. were responsible for a long series of stagecoach hold-ups and other unlawful deeds. The Earps were on their trail. It converged to the point where it became "a question of them or us." The Clantons let it be known that they were going to "run Earp and his pack out of town." Word got to Wyatt Earp and he and his two brothers plus Doc Holliday sought out the outlaws at the O. K. Corral where they were waiting to do battle. Marshal Virgil Earp advanced to the line of waiting outlaws and told them they were under arrest. What happened thereafter has been argued for six decades yet it was over in a matter of 30 seconds or less.

Frank McLowery and Billy Clanton fired first upon Wyatt Earp but as their bullets rustled through his clothing, his first slug caught Frank above the belt buckle. As Clanton fired twice more at Wyatt, Morgan winged Clanton's gun arm. Claiborne fired twice at Virgil, missed, and dashed for cover, firing and missing as he ran. Tom McLowery's second shot got Morgan Earp in the left shoulder. Clanton, hit in the arm, continued to fire with his left hand. But slugs from the guns of Morgan and Virgil put him out of battle.

As Ike Clanton broke for cover, Tom McLowery fired again. But a double charge of buckshot from the sawed-off Wells-Fargo shotgun of Doc Holliday brought McLowery to earth and Wyatt Earp tagged him with a six-gun slug. Frank McLowery, severely wounded, but fighting, aimed at Holliday. But Holliday dropped the shotgun and plumped McLowery through the heart with his favorite nickel-plated revolver. At the same time, a bullet fired by Morgan Earp caught Frank Just behind the ears. Virgil Earp and Billy Clanton still were fighting it out. Firing on the run, Clanton caught Virgil in the leg, but bullets from the guns of Virgil and Wyatt brought Billy down, to die a few seconds later. The battle was over. Tom and Frank McLowery were dead. Billy Clanton was dying. Claiborne and Ike Clanton had run away. Virgil and Morgan Earp had ugly but not serious wounds. Doc Holliday had merely a scratch. Wyatt Earp's clothing was bullet-riddled but he was untouched. Four of the outlaws had fired 17 shots, scoring three hits, none serious. The Earps and Holliday had fired 17 shots, also, but to better advantage. Thirteen of them had been hits.

Later Morgan Earp was shot from the dark while playing pool. He died. Virgil Earp. shot in similar fashion, was crippled for life. Wyatt Earp and Doc Holliday "went out-side the law" to avenge the murder of Morgan. All left Tombstone. Wyatt Earp went to the Pacific coast and Doc Holliday died in bed, coughing his life away while he mused over the irony of death by disease after escape from death in all his gun battles. This is one of the many gun battles contained in the Genebach collection of the west. It will live in print. And for the townspeople and tourists who flock to Tombstone the O. K. Corral will forever remain, thanks to George J. Genebach and his heirs who saw to it. Mr. Genebach spent more than two decades of his life in research on General George A. Custer. "Custer's Last Stand" are words that every schoolboy knows. But Mr. Genebach's extensive studies of Custer's last battle won him membership in one of the nation's most select "clubs" - "The Custer Battle field Students" whose members number only a dozen or so. Mr. Genebach made five trips to the Custer battlefield where he studied, mapped, measured and photographed that area.

June 3, 1940 - A man who has been more than reminiscing during the current conflict in Europe is William G. Spahr, of 2264 Dudley, who this week was presented the Purple Heart award, distinguished medallion for valor to World war veterans wounded in active service. Spahr is one of the few veterans in Lincoln to receive the award, a heart-shaped medal with a purple inlay forming the background to the head of George Washington. Confident the French will out-maneuver the Nazi troops, this member of the first AEF was a private, first class, 125th infantry, company A, 32nd division. Gunshot wounds in the battle of Juvigny in the Soissons sector presently seeing another war caused him loss of his left leg. While being taken from the field with four German prisoners aiding the stretcher bearers, he had to pull his .45 automatic to force the bearers, to carry him out of machine gun fire. Spahr is married. He has no children.

John Heinzmann. From early historical days when Northern Italy was the Mecca of merchants and when by internicine troubles and foreign wars were scattered the goldsmiths, workers in steel, leather merchants and dealers in oriental stuffs to the four winds, Germany has been at the head of commercial life. No other merchants show such great energy and such foresight as do they. Those that have become citizens of the United States have brought with them their strength in this direction and to them America is indebted in a great degree for being so widely known as one of the greatest marts of the world.

Although located in an inland town the trade of the gentleman whose name is at the head of this sketch has gone beyond local limits, and he with his partner, is a large dealer in flour, grain, wool, leather and hides. Their house in Ann Arbor is located at No. 9 W. Washington Street, the firm being known as that of Heinzmann & Laubengayer. Our subject was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, September 5,1847. He is a son of Jacob and Catherine (Duttenhofer) Heinzmann, both of whom were born in Wittenberg, Germany. They emigrated to the United States in1826, locating first in the city of New York, thence they removed to Columbiana County, Ohio, settling in the town of Columbiana, where the father was engaged in the tanning business. In 1851 our subject's parents removed with their family to Ann Arbor, where both father and mother still reside. Their family comprises six children four sons and two daughters. Of these our subject is the eldest. His school days were passed in the city schools of Ann Arbor, and on leaving these excellent educational centers he took a course in the business college of this city. He then began working in a tannery in partnership with his father, under the firm name of J. Heinzmann & Son. They continued in business together from 1860 until 1888, when our subject's father retired from the firm and the works were shut down. Three years later he formed a partnership with Jacob Laubengayer and for the past seven years this gentleman and our subject have handled in a very extensive manner the articles above named. They have engaged extensively in the leather business. In 1887 our subject built an elevator on the track of the Toledo & Ann Arbor Railroad. The capacity of this elevator is ten thousand bushels. This firm handles all sorts of grain. Their storeroom is 21x80 feet in dimensions and three stories in height. All of this is used in the business.

Mr. Heinzmann has been twice married. His first union was with Miss Barbara Weimer, their, marriage taking place in 1877. The lady was a daughter of Michael Weimer and died in 1881. She left one child, a son, whose name is J. Eugene. Four years later, February 5, 1885, he was united, in marriage with Helen Weimer, a sister of his first wife. This union has been most happy, Mrs. Heinzman making a pleasant home for her husband. Politically of whom we write is a Republican. He has served as Alderman from the Second Ward for four years. Our subject owns a pleasant home at No. 9 West Washington Street.

Notes for Jakob Laubengayer:
Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Jacob Laubengayer. As Ann Arbor is the center of so rich and wide an agricultural region and is so accessible by rail to the great distributing points and ports of the country, the enterprises are numerous for dealing in the staples of the region. While manufactures are still in their infancy, the middlemen that are the medium between producer and the manufacturer are numerous. One of the most successful of these firms is that of which our subject is junior partner and which does business under the firm title of Heinzmann & Laubengayer, dealers in wool, grain, flour, feed and hides. Our subject is a product of this county, although, as his name would indicate, he is of German descent. He was born in the township of Scio, September 14, 1843, and is a son of J. Fred and Christina (Schmidt) Laubengayer, both of whom were natives of Wittenberg, Germany. They were married in Scio Township, this county.

The parents of our subject emigrated to the United States in 1830, landing at New York City, thence coming direct to Washtenaw County and located in Scio Township upon a farm where the father carried on a general agricultural business, devoting himself principally to stock-raising and the growing of wheat. He was one of the prosperous tillers of the soil of his neighborhood, employing the advanced German scientific methods in making his tract productive. His decease occurred April 22, 1891. He was born in 1805. The mother of our subject is still living on the old homestead, being in her seventy-second year. She is the mother of four children, three of whom are living—Frederick, Jacob and Tobias.

Jacob Laubengayer passed his boyhood in his native county and spent his early days in attendance at the district school of his neighborhood. He remained under the home roof of his parents until twenty-one years old. After reaching his majority he started out in life on his own account, still making his home, however, with his parents until reaching the age of twenty-four years when he bought a small farm which he began to develop and to engage in stock-raising, though his dealing in stock was in a small way. However, he kept adding to his farm until he was the possessor of two hundred and forty-seven acres, taking great pride in keeping a fine breed of cattle and good sheep. He continued to be actively engaged in agricultural pursuits until December, 1889, when he removed to Ann Arbor and embarked in the wool business in connection with various parties. In the last named year he formed a partnership with John Heinzmann and has dealt largely in the products above mentioned ever since. In connection with this business they also handle dry wood, having extensive wood yards near the grain elevator on the Toledo & Ann Arbor Railroad. The firm handles all kinds of grain and also does quite a large business in grinding feed for the farmers in the vicinity and also for general sale. The celebrated brands of flour from the Pillsbury Mills of Minneapolis are here found and the firm with which our subject is connected does a large business in this direction. They doubtless have the largest dealing in wool of any firm in Washtenaw County.

Mr. Laubengayer was married in December 1880, to Miss Amelia Weimer, of Scio Township, this county. She is a daughter of Michael Weimer, her parents having come to this country from Germany. Our subject and his wife are the parents of three children, whose name are Melinda, Robert and Walter. The original of this sketch was elected Justice of the Peace of Lodi Township, being near the line of that township. He casts his vote with the Democrat Party, in whose principles and practices he has unbounded faith. Our subject resides at No. 76 W. Huron Street, where he has a very pleasant home.

Notes for La Verna Mueller Sinclair:
Jan. 22, 1950 - Mrs. Walter Laubengayer of Ann Arbor, a frequent Port Huron visitor and sister-in-law of Mrs. George C. Dunn of 4444 Gratiot Avenue, is in the race for the republican nomination for lieutenant governor. Mr. Laubengayer is a brother of Mrs. Dunn. Announcement of Mrs. LaVerna Laubengayer's candidacy is made in a news release from her home. Mrs. Laubengayer is described as a matron, housewife, traveler and lecturer, and she makes the announcement on an optimistic note.
"My campaign will be complete in detail, including speaking in each of Michigan's 83 counties," said Mrs. Laubengayer. "This is no time for republican pessimism. The party is politically solvent at the voter level. The people want social progress without a "welfare state. They demand businesslike administration in government."
Mrs. Laubengayer, who spent last summer at Birch Beach, says further of her candidacy: "I shall pull no punches. The capitol in Lansing should be a peoples' clearing house, not a rendezvous of intrigue, nor a private trading post. Women merit responsibility in government."
LaVerna Laubengayer is a native of Bay City, the daughter of George and the late Amanda Sinclair. In Washtenaw County she has been long prominent in republican circles, the State Historical society, the Ann Arbor Garden club and a frequent exhibitor and judge at floral shows.
She and her husband also operate 300-acre dairy farm in Washtenaw County. He is a graduate of the forestry department of the University of Michigan and the University of Washington in Seattle. He's a constant forester and active in pulp and paper interests and general timber operations.

Bright as summer sunshine were the yellow and white flowers which banked the altar of the First Methodist Church for the late Saturday afternoon wedding June 16, 1962 of Miss Dorothy Ruth Niethammer to Lowell Richard Smith. The Rev. Lawrence J. Linnemann officiated at the ceremony which united the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Woodard A. Niethammer and the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dolton Smith.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, and while Dr. Niethammer escorted his daughter along the ribbon-and-iris-marked aisle, Dr. E. Byard Fritts, organist, accompanied Dr. Bruce Rodgers, soloist, who sang the wedding songs.The pretty bride wore a gown of traditional satin which she de- signed and made herself. The imparted ivory-colored delustred satin was diagonally intertucked to release full unpressed pleats which formed the elegant sweeping skirt and chapel length train. The princess-styled bodice had long sleeves and was appliqued in pearl embroidered peau d'ange lace. A satin cap held a mantilla of peau d'ange lace and a blush veil of bridal illusion to her hair. She carried a handkerchief which the bridegroom's mother carried at her own wedding in 1903. Her bridal bouquet was fashioned of white stephanotis and roses.

Hilton, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer for the double-ring ceremony. Stephen P. Smith was his brother's best man, and Woodard A. Neithammer Jr., brother of the bride. Robert I. MacGregor of Seattle, Richard F. Armstrong of Salem, Oregon, Alan D. McLeod, David L. Scott and Theodore E. Reynolds Jr., of Corvallis, Oregon, were ushers.

Notes for Karl Kurt Klipfel:

Karl Kurt Klipfel was born March 3, 1933, in Toledo, Ohio. This first-generation American lost his father when he was a child, and his mother raised Karl and his big brother into the highly achieving and wonderful men they were. Karl achieved a Bachelor of Engineering degree from the University of Michigan in 1955. He was Phi Delta Theta President and busboy at the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority across the street, where they called him “Cute Karl”.

Karl married Shirley Ginebaugh on June 25, 1960 not long after they met on a blind date. He loved his bride of 52 years “as much as the ocean and as high as the sky.” The loss of his son in 1997 had a profound effect on the whole family, but Karl steadfastly maintained his relationship with Bill’s boys David and Doug, their mother and their step-dad. Karl was a proud grandfather of four. His youngest grandson Billy described his grandfather as “nice, great, and funny”.

Karl tried to retire after a successful career in mainframe computer marketing at IBM and Amdahl, but found himself keeping busy with a variety of jobs. Grooming the grounds at Orchard Lake Country Club and Birmingham Country Club afforded him the chance to hit the links himself when the clubs were closed. Most recently Karl formed Wolverine Legal Services. Finding adventure in everything he did, Karl loved to travel and took his family on wonderful trips to fun locations including Walt Disney World, Boyne and a cross-country motor home trip. Karl took Shirley on many wonderful trips including Jamaica and cruises in the Baltic Sea and Alaska. He was particularly fond of London and Anna Maria Island, Florida. Karl was a lifetime learner and voracious reader. He loved the game of golf and anything related to the University of Michigan. Open-minded and respectful of differing opinions, he read both the Wall Street Journal and The New Yorker. Karl enjoyed masterfully creative entertaining. He was a past board member at Forest Lake Country Club and participated on many committees at the First United Methodist Church of Birmingham.

We will always remember favorite quotes from Karl, including:

- Super Fantastic!
- Why can’t it be Christmas twelve months of the year?
- Hard work and product knowledge
- Love one another!
- Imagination is more important than knowledge
- WGCS (World’s Greatest Computer Salesman)
- Ice cream and tootsie rolls cure everything

Karl maintained his humor, positive attitude and strong faith throughout his cancer battle. We are pleased to know that he is now celebrating comfortably in heaven with his son, brother and other family and friends whom he missed so dearly here on earth. Go Blue!

Karl is survived by his beloved wife of 52 years, Shirley and children, Rebecca Klipfel and Katie (Don) Kirkpatrick. He is also survived by his grandchildren, David, Douglas, Julia, and William, and many nieces, nephews, and friends. Karl is preceded in death by his son, William (Donna Klipfel-Tuka) Klipfel, and brother, Ernest Klipfel.

She was born 03 Aug 1904 in Battle Creek, Calhoun Co, Michigan, and died 22 Apr 1996 in Santa Cruz, Santa Cruz Co, California.

Notes for Carleton Grey Genebach:

St. Thomas Episcopal Church was filled yesterday afternoon with old friends and associates gathered in final tribute to Carleton G. Genebach, executive vice president of the United Steel & Wire Co. The Anglican service was conducted by the Rev. William A. Simms, rector, and burial was made at Memorial Park. Mr. Genebach died unexpectedly early Wednesday morning August 22, 1956 at his home, 265 E. Hamilton Lane, after 40 years as an employee and executive in the company. Offices and plants of the company were closed and employees from all segments of the firm joined with representatives of industry, banking, business and the professions in mourning the passing of a friend. Although the family had suggested memorial contributions to the Michigan Heart Fund, which can be made through the Battle Creek Community Chest, floral tributes were received at the Shaw Funeral Home in greater profusion than experienced in recent years. At the church, flowers were arranged with simplicity, with baskets of white and red flowers at either end of the bier and groupings of red roses on the altar. The wealth of flowers permitted a generous distribution to the city's hospitals, the American Legion and Veterans hospitals and to local nursing home.

As the funeral party left the church the casket was draped with the American flag by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, of which Mr. Genebach was a member. At the graveside the flag was folded by Alton C. Britton and Ralph H. Lemm and presented to Mrs. Genebach. Following the services more than 50 out-of-town friends were received at the Genebach home for a buffet luncheon. In addition to those previously 'mentioned, relatives and friends; who were here from other communities included: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Simons Jr. of St. Joseph; Charles Wiselogel, Lafayette, Indiana; Wayne Husband, Kokomo, Indiana; Edward Feist, Kalamazoo and Keith and Welton Mayette of Jackson.

Michigan. He married Mildred Tobey 28 Jun 1922 in Michigan, daughter of Winifred A. Tobey. She was born 30 Jun 1902 in Michigan, and died 09 Feb 1986 in Fairfax, Virginia.

Notes for Lowell Burke Genebach:
In 1917 Lowell Genebach started 1 game at quarterback and another at right halfback for the University of Michigan football team. He was also on the 1918 University of Michigan football team that won the National Campionship. He played on the 1920 University of Michigan baseball team and was a cathcer.

Services for Lowell B. Genebach, the prominent civic leader and churchman who died Friday Sept. 8, 1978, will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday in St. Thomas Episcopal Church. The Rev. Charles P. James, rector, who will officiate at the Requiem Celebration of the Holy Communion, said Friday that Genebach was "a man devoted to the service of the community, but also to the service of people." "I think that all of that grew out of his love and devotion for the Lord.

Genebach, 79, of 225 W. Columbia Ave., had served on the St. Thomas Church vestry for 30 years and had been the recipient of several church awards, including the Bishop's Cross. In March, he was named outstanding churchman. But James said: "He wasn't just a Sunday worshipper. He reall his put his shoulder to the wheel in religious matters." Battle Creek Mayor Frederick R. Brydges, who spoke of Genebach's "deep interest and abiding faith in the religion of his church," recalled his association with Genebach on several civic ventures, including the Military Affairs Committee of the Battle Creek Area Chamber of Commerce of which Genebach was chairman. "I did appreciate the model of hospitality and warm friendship that were such a cardinal part of the man's character," Brydges said.

U.S. Rep. Garry Brown, R-Schoolcraft, also cited Genebach's association with the military. "Where there were things to be done, such as planning an Armed Services Day luncheon or other events relating to the military presence in Battle Creek, Genebach was always one you could depend on. He was a doer not a talker," Brown said. He also credited Genebach for helping to build Battle Creek's reputation as "a good assignment for the military due to the arm of friendship and hospitality extended by those such as Lowell." Brown said, "Lowell was a very sincere, warm and extremely loyal gentleman never one to be ostentatious and often kept the things he did .in the background." Kermit Krum, who had been active with Genebach in chamber of commerce activities for many years, called him "a great guy who extended the friendship of himself and the community to those who move around a lot (the military) in government circles." Genebach was given an Enquirer and News George Award in 1965 for his efforts on behalf of the Military Affairs Committee. An active patron of the arts in Battle Creek, he was eulogized as "a loyal and fine (Battle Creek Community Concert Association) board member" by Mrs. Lawrence G. Fell, herself a patron of the arts and longtime president of the association. "It seems like he was always on the (Community Concert) board and most of us remember him for his interest in opera," she said. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Shaw Funeral Home. Visitation for Genebach will start Sunday. "I did appreciate the model of hospitality and warm friendship that were such a cardinal part of the man's character," Brydges said.

Notes for Mildred Tobey:

May 6, 1956 - When Mildred Genebach plays Judith Bliss, the actress, in Noel Coward's "Hay Fever" for the Battle Creek Civic group this month, she will be doing a role for which she tried cut 23 years ago. She didn't get the part then, as she was deemed not efficiently mature, and it was taken by Mary Redner, who was herself not too mature. But Mrs. Genebach has played many stellar roles since 1933. Included in Mrs. Genebach's appearances are two versions of Vinnie, wife of Clarence Day, one in "Life with Father" and the other in "Life With Mother". In the father one, William Smith was her husband and in the other, Gerhard Lindemulder. When she had the Tallulah Bank-head role of Regina in "The Little Foxes" an unusual incident happened. Linwood Brown, who was playing Ben, was called away by illness, and Mr. Lindemulder stepped into the cast at 6 p.m., playing the role after one rehearsal.

Mrs. Genebach set a new record in 1935-37. She won the Moon - Journal "best player" award for three consecutive seasons - for Eustacia in "Dover Road", for Mrs. Phelps in 'The Silver Chord" and for Lady Chaney in "The Circle". The winner was decided by a committee" of three each time. In "Strange Bedfellows" Mrs. Genebach played Julie, the grandmother, and in "You Can't Take It With You" she was Penny, the amateur authoress. Back in the Pagan days she appeared in various one-act plays, including "The Artist", which she and Al Beller presented after only two days of rehearsal. Mrs. Genebach always had a yen for acting, which began when she was 10 years old. But her mother wanted her to be a pianist, so she studied with Wilhelmina Smith and laid a good foundation. Though born in Kalamazoo, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Tobey, she was graduated from Battle Creek High School. Later she studied at Rockford College in Illinois.

Dramatics seem to run in the Genebach family. This afternoon the daughter, Jeanne (Mrs. Martin Gal in private life; Jeanne Tobey in the Guild), is appearing on TV in New York City as Sagarnio in Maurice Evans' color production of "The Cradle Song." Lowell Genebach, Jr., has just appeared with the West Point Players as Jules in "My Three Angels." When overseas, Lowell did the senator in "John Loves Mary" in Germany. She was a founder in the 1930s of the group which became the Battle Creek Civic Theatre, and served as the theater's first president in 1947. For more than 40 years, she was involved in every aspect of the theater from backstage to acting, and supported the purchase of the present theater building as an important step in the revitalization of downtown Battle Creek and the Michigan Mall. She also directed the financing and staging of operettas in 1958 and 1959 with the Battle Creek Community Chorus as part of the Cereal City Festival. She was named a 1 959 George Award by the Battle Creek Enquirer for community service. In 1963, she was chairman of the local United Negro College Fund fund drive. She was a life member of the Battle Creek Civic Theatre board of directors, and a member of St. Thomas Episcopal Church and its Service Guild, the Battle Creek DAR Chapter, Battle Creek Country Club, and Athelstan Club. Marriage Notes for Lowell Genebach and Mildred Tobey:

Simple but beautiful in all of its appointments was the wedding which took place at 10 o'clock this morning June 28, 1922 in the chapel of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, when Miss Mildred L. Tobey, only daughter of Mrs. Winifred A. Tobey of 33 Guest Street, became the bride of Lowell B. Genebach, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Genebach of Garrison Avenue. The chapel was beautifully decorated for the occasion with a profusion of lilies, Yucca blossoms and daisies, tastefully arranged in tall wicker baskets. Bouquets of the blossoms further beautified the altar. At the appointed hour the wedding party entered and approached the altar to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. Its members included the maid-of-honor. Tis Charlotte O'Brien, who wore yellow organdie; the four bridesmaids. Miss Catherine Coburn, who wore green organdie, Miss Margaret Coburn, pink; Miss Barbara Flint, blue, Miss Margaret McGee, lavender organdie. The gowns were all fashioned alike, along very simple lines, and all wore organdie hats to mat m their gowns," and carried bouquets of old-fashioned flowers. Little Barbara and Carolyn Veley, cousins of the bride, from Kalamazoo, in dainty frocks served as flower girls, strewing rose petals in her path. The bride was lovely in a short gown of white crepe meteor with pearl trimming, and wore a long wedding veil fastened to a bandeau of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Winifred A. Tobey, who gave her away. The groom was attended by his brother, Carleton G. Genebach. James Bryant, William Riley, Earl F. Freeman and Charles Bradley served as ushers. Sixty relatives and friends, which included guests from Kalamazoo, Detroit and Jackson, witnessed the wedding service which was read by the Rev. Wm. G. Studwell, rector of the church.

Immediately following the service at the church, the wedding party motored to the Battle Creek Country club where the breakfast was served. The tables were beautified with bouquets-of old-fashioned flowers and candles, while the mantel was banked with rei rambler roses and hollyhocks. Many beautiful gifts were received by the young people. Both are graduates of the Battle Creek high school. The bride later attended Rockford college and the groom is also a graduate of the University of Michigan. He is now associated with his father and brother in the United Steel and Wire company of this city, occupying the position of sales manager. Following an extended motor trip. Mr. and Mrs. Genebach will spend the summer at Goguac Lake. Many pre-nuptial parties have been given for the bride and groom, the final function being the rehearsal dinner which was given Tuesday evening at the Battle Creek Country club by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Genebach, covers being laid for 20 guests.

Two Battle Creek Georges who have been involved in a variety of volunteer services to this community are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary today June 28, 1972. And Mr. and Mrs. Lowell B. Genebach of 301 Woodland Drive will be sharing the festivities and memories with more than 100 friends at a reception tonight at the Battle Creek Country Club. It's being given by their daughter, Mrs. Martin (Jean) Gal of Kalamazoo, and their son, Lowell Genebach Jr., of Reston, Virginia.

Several poster-sized enlargements of the 1922 wedding will be on display. They show the proud young manufacturer and former University of Michigan football hero with his petite and smiling red-haired bride, the former Mildred Tobey. The ceremony was at St. Thomas Episcopal Church where both are still active and the reception was at the old Battle Creek Country Club, where they still belong and he is a past president. With their wide variety of interests and friends, talk tonight could range from business to politics, theater, church, sports, the military or even the OK Corral of gun-fight fame. And on every subject, you'd find Genebach involvement.

Each received a George Award at a different time and for different contributions to the community, making them the only husband and wife to hold such honors. (The Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Ryan, the only other husband and wife Georges, received a joint award in one field.) Mrs. G. became a George in 1959 for her "steady and active interest in the Battle Creek Civic Theatre" and for successfully producing operettas in connection with the Cereal City Festival in 1958 and 1959. Her steady and active interest in theater dates back to 1932, when she was one of the organizers of a community theater group. She served five terms as president, was a long-time and now is a lifetime board member and still an ardent worker for theater. Besides being an organizer and producer for many shows, she appeared on stage, too, and was named best player 1935-37 by the former Moon Journal. Her favorite roles, however, came later in Noel Coward's "Hay Fever," as Vinnie the wife in "Life with Father," and as Regina in "The Little Foxes." She also found time in the early 1950's to serve with the Battle Creek Ground Observer Corps and was Calhoun County cochairman of the 1963 drive to help support the United Negro College Fund.

Genebach's George Award in 1966 lauded "his effort and donation of countless hours and personal funds toward making governmental and military visitors feel at home here." These activities included...planning the social itinerary for a group of NATO representatives...a similar assignment for 41 military attaches assigned here temporarily... serving as chairman and co-chairman of the government affairs committee of the Greater Battle Creek Area Chamber of Commerce and...organizing and getting started the largest Navy League Chapter in the United States. The award called him "one who never says no when asked to do something for the community," and the description was apt. For in addition to his duties as president of United Steel & Wire Co., started by his father in 1909, Genebach was active in church and civic affairs, Republican politics and on numerous ranking committees for the National Association of Manufacturers.

At St. Thomas, he served on the vestry for 30 years, 10 as a senior warden... has been superintendent of the church school for 25 years and still is...and was the first Battle Creek man to receive the Bishop's Cross, highest award given a layman by the Episcopal. Church. lie also has been a long-time board member of the Episcopal Diocese of Western Michigan, where he was a trustee for the Bishop Whittmore Foundation. As general chairman of the Religion in American Life (RIAL) program here in 1962, he was instrumental in starting the publishing of daily front page prayers in the Enquirer and News for several years.

Active in Republican politics for many decades, he was an early supporter of George Romney, serving as regional director of Romney's Citizens for Michigan Group and on a cabinet committee during the gubernatorial campaign. Other community activities ranged from heading a Community Chest Campaign to serving on the boards of Community Concert Association, Battle Creek Symphony, Michigan National Bank, the Battle Creek Area Development Corp. the Chamber of Commerce, Calhoun County Tax Allocation, and the United Health Welfare Fund of Michigan, while also serving as chairman of its Calhoun County group. Though Genebach is no longer connected with the company founded by his father, he is still far from retired. After selling the firm in 1959 to Debco Corp. of Chicago, a holding company, he continued as president for two years and then remained on its board of directors until "retiring" in 1964.

Meanwhile, the Genebachs in 1962 had purchased Pilot, Inc., which makes trailer hitches and tow-bar units, and keep regular office hours there. To this day, Genebach is considered to be one of U-M's biggest boosters and football fans. He played varsity quarterback and right halfback on the 1917 and 1918 football teams. His eyes twinkle as he talks about his coach, the legendary Fielding Yost, and his biggest thrill calling the plays against Cornell and piling up a 42-0 score against the then-powerful Big Reds.

After graduation, Genebach joined his father's business but continued his interest in athletics. He played semipro ball, assisted Battle Creek Central High School football coaches Tommy Thompson and Jimmy Bryant and for two years was baseball coach. Another extra-curricular activity that covered a quarter century was officiating at high school and college football and basketball games. Highlight was serving as lineman for the famous Army-Notre Dame game at Yankee Stadium in 1946, when the score was 0 to 0.

A Civil War buff and collector, Genebach also has an abiding interest in the OK Corral in Tombstone, Arizona. His father, the late George Genebach, bought the corral in 1936 to preserve it for posterity. After his father's death in 1944, Genebach gave the historical site to the City of Tombstone for a token fee and the provision that the corral would be used only as a memorial park and not be resold to a private interest for any purpose. Even with all their involvement here, the Genebachs visit the corral periodically, just to be sure it is being preserved as a bit of the past for future generations like their eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Notes for Alma Viola Bolgos:
Oscar H. and Alma V. Bolgos Koch, 5071 Plymouth Road, Dixboro, Oscar found his dream girl just around the corner and up the hill. The Koch homestead was on a farm on Earhart Road (at Warren Road). Oscar's future bride, Alma, was raised on her family's dairy farm (later Bolgos Dairy), at 3601 Plymouth Road (the present location of Cleary College), whichis less than two miles from the Koch residence. So, the offspring of two well-known farm families- Koch and Bolgos- were united in marriage on June 30, 1924. Over the next 41 years, until Oscar's passing in 1965, their mutual admiration and love served as a community role model. Oscar's warm friendliness dovetailed nicely with his earned reputation as the community's furnace repairman. He would usually begin a sentence with, "What I meant was..." Oscar crafted the unique, deep metal eve trough that carries the rainwater off the large roofs covering the Dixboro Church complex. Alma outlived Oscar and also one of their three sons. Her husband's namesake "Junior" (Oscar, Jr.) succumbed in 1976 to a long illness contracted by sitting through a cold and rainy Michigan football game. Alma passed away in 1983 at the age of 81 but I remember seeing her on a dance floor rock & rolling approaching her 80th birthday.

Notes for Robert Jacob Laubengayer:
Jan. 27, 1914 Salina, Kansas, Laubengayer Garage Places Big Order for Studebakers - Mr. Laubengayer, of the Laubengayer garage, South Santa Fe Avenue, has returned from Detroit, Michigan, where he went through the Studebaker automobile factory. While there Mr. Laubengayer placed an order for an entire trainload of Studebaker cars which will arrive here in divided shipments. Mr. Laubengayer was well pleased with what he saw at the factory and especially the business showing, the Studebaker cars having most rapid floor sales in the east. Lawrence Oliver, mechanic at the Laubengayer garage will soon leave for the Detroit factory where he will take a thorough course in automobile work, especially that pertaining to electric machines.

Feb. 5, 1916 Mrs. Laubengayer ill of appendicitis in Chicago Hospital - R. J. Laubengayer of the Studebaker garage returned last evening from the east. He and Mrs. Laubengayer attended the automobile show in New York and on the way home Mrs. Laubengayer was taken suddenly ill of appendicitis. She was operated on in a hospital in Chicago a few days ago and is doing as well as could be expected at this time. Mr. Laubengayer will return to Chicago next week. Before returning to Salina Mr. Laubengayer will visit the Studebaker factory for several days.

Kansas City, Oct. 24, 1916 - Less than a month after his divorce from Ella Pearl Robinson Laubengayer, Robert J. Laubengayer, a motor car agent of Salina, married Miss Jessie Lee Stremming at noon here yesterday Oct. 23, 1916. By terms of a divorce decree obtained by Laubengayer, September 26 here, his first wife forfeits sixty dollars per month alimony if she returns to Kansas City or Kansas within nine years. Mrs. Laubengayer s maiden name was restored. She receives five dollars per week alimony for nine months after the decree until conditional alimony is effective.

Laubengayer's allegations were that his first wife accused him of misconduct, spread this report among friends and objected to his employees, insisting that he discharge them. He alleges that he did as she wished relative to the employees but this was not satisfactory. The first wife was in Chicago when served with the notice of divorce and immediately retained attorneys but she did not appear at the divorce heating in Kansas City. When she learned of the approaching marriage, she wrote a letter toher Kansas City, attorneys severely criticizing Laubengayer's actions.

Mr. and Mrs. Laubengayer formerly lived at 642 South Santa Fe Avenue. She went to Chicago more than a year ago and it was reported that she was ill there. Laubengayer resided at the Muehlebach in Kansas City for the past year. He and his second wife have leased apartments at the Colonial the new Welgner apartment house on North Tenth Street.

Oct. 19, 1921 Salina, Kansas - Two robbers, masked with white handkerchiefs having slits for the eyes and armed with two revolvers, obtained $4,500 worth of diamonds and jewelry, the biggest holdup in Salina'shistory, from Charles Lamer, his wife and dinner guests at their home, 720 South Santa Fe, at 7:30 last night. The loot consisted of three rings. The holdup men entered the residence through the kitchen, while Mr. and Mrs. Lamer, R. J. Laubengayer, and Miss Charlotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lamer, were at dinner. "We are just going to have some fun with Mr. Lamer," the tallest of the men told the maid, as he opened the kitchen door, and then sail, "You'd better come with us." Thinking they were Hallowe'en jokers, she went ahead.

Entering the dining room, one of the men covered the dinner party, while the other pulled down the window shades. On demand of "hands up." all complied. "I slipped my diamond ring off my finger, and hid it under the table cloth," Mr. Laubengayer reported. "After lobbing Mr. and Mrs. Lanier, the tall man turned to the short, fellow, and said, pointing to me "Did you get that fellow's ring? He has a shiner in it. Get it! "And they made me come across. They searched me, too, but overlooked $40 I had in cash. To save trouble I gave them my ring.

"Mrs. Lamer remonstrated and told them that she wanted her wedding ring back. They gave it to her, and then backed out of the house, after they cut the telephone wires. "As they backed out. they told us if we called the police, they would blow up the house with dynamite. "We all thought that it was a joke at first, and especially Mr. Lamer. When we were commanded to throw up our hands, Mr. Lamer smiled and complied "of course, I'll accommodate you." he said. "Then we looked into the barrels of two revolvers, the tall man carrying a 44 and the short man a 38. The only argument that ensued was when Mrs. Lanier begged for the return of her wedding ring." The police were immediately notified. A fair description of the two men was given, but the police were unable to get a single clew. Ail trains were watched. Police presume the men disappeared in an auto. Mr. Laubengayer says the white handkerchiefs hid the men's faces from their noses to their hats. The tall man was about 5 feet, 11 inches tall, about 30 or older, and weighed 175 pounds. The short man was about 22, 25 years, 5 feet, 6 inches. "The men were deliberate, and knew what they were doing," Mr. Laubengayer said. "Evidently came especially for Mr. Lanier's diamond ring. After taking it they asked him if he carried insurance on it and if it was for $2,000. How they knew the ring was insured and for that amount is a mystery."

Police Chief C. O. Drevits stated today he had no clue but indicated his belief the robbers are professionals, and probably from Kansas City or some other big center. Mr. Laubengayer says that both men were cool, and the big fellow seemed to be in charge of the holdup, giving most of the directions. Judging from the manner of the robbers, their victims and the police believe they planned the robbery to get Mr. Lanier's $3,600 thirty-second degree 7 1-4 karat diamond masonic ring. After taking his ring, the holdup men took M.S. Lamer's diamond ring and wedding ring, then Mr. Laubengayer's ring. "We want that ring," was the first demand of the men, according to Mr. Laubengayer. "Fork it over. The rest of the loot was: Mrs. Lanier's 88-100 karat diamond set in a platinum and studded with six small diamonds, valued at $600; from Mr. Laubengayer, who was a dinner guest, a 91-100 karat diamond set in a double eagle thirty-second degree Masonic emblem. These jewels were not Insured.

Funeral services for R. J. Laubengayer, 74, of Salina, Kansas, a director of the Dunn Paper company, 218 Riverview Street, who died of a heart attack in St Francis Hospital, Topeka, Kansas, Friday Dec. 26, 1958, will be conducted at 10 p.m. Monday in Ryan Mortuary, Salina. Mr. Laubengayer, who was a frequent visitor to Port Huron, attended a board of directors meeting of the company here Dec. 17, and visited his sister, Mrs. George C. Dunn, 4444 Gratiot Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn left for Salina where they will attend the funeral services for Mr. Laubengayer. A niece of Mr. Laubengayer's, Mrs. Thomas Bottomley, 4969 Lake Shore Road, said Mr. Laubengayers' health was good the last time he was in Port Huron. Mr. Laubengayer was also president of radio station KSAL in Salina. Burial will be in Salina Cemetery.

Dec. 28, 1958 Salina, Kansas - Bob Laubengayer is dead. While he lived, he personified American enterprise. He was one of the vigorous, visionary, hard-driving, get-there-first business pioneers. He and men like him made Salina. They made Kansas. In the process they made money. That also is American. Bob didn't stand still; there was nothing reactionary about his enterprise. When the automobile came,Bob took a dealership. When radio came, Bob started a station. When the farmer got in trouble, Bob helped Henry Wallace invent the Triple-A program. When the banks closed their doors in the 30's, Bob had a major hand in pushing the federal deposit insurance plan.

Although 74 years of age, Robert J. Laubengayer showed the enterprise of a far younger man up to the moment of his first heart attack a week ago Friday. He had played golf in the winter's cold at the Salina Country Club. He prided himself on shooting a score equal to his age ever since he was tp. He had been to Detroit to look after his paper mill interests. On his way home, he stopped in Topeka to attend a directors meeting of the Kansas Power and Light Cp., of which he was a vice president. He was ready to return to Salina when the first pains came. Taken to St. Francis Hospital in Topeka, he rallied for a few days, his family around him. Then the attacks resumed. He died Friday night Dec. 26, 1958.

The funeral will be at 10 am at the Guy R. Ryan Sons Mortuary, the Rev. Dr. James Elliott officiating. Burial will be in Gypsum Hill cemetery. The Knights Rose Croix Masonic service will be held. Laubengayer was a member of the Isis Temple Shrine, Salina Consistory Scottish Rite, 32nd degree, and Salina Lodge No. 60, AF&AM. The family suggests memorials to either Asbury or St. John's hospitals. Bob Laubengayer's first job was as a news boy in Ann Arbor, Michigan, where he was born Dec, 15, 1884. He continued an interest in newspapers throughout his life. He helped consolidate the Salina Journal and the Salina Daily Union in 1925 and directed the resulting newspaper. When The Journal was incorporated in 1938, he was elected president, an office he held until the newspaper was sold to the Harris Group in 1949. Laubengayer had intended to be lawyer and was graduated from University of Michigan law school. Instead, he came to Kansas to seek adventure.

Brookville was a promising frontier town, a rail and ranch center, and the home of an uncle. So, Bob made his living there, breaking and training wild horses in Kansas and Colorado. He brought back burros from Mexico and sold them. For a short time, he ran a cafe under the building south of the Brookville bank.

About 1911, he promoted the first football game ever played in Brookville. He organized and coached a group of Brookville huskies and challenged the Salina team. Brookville lost, 6-0. Laubengayer's first Salina enterprise was the distributorship of E.M.F. and Flanders automobiles for 40 Kansas counties. The Studebaker Co., took those lines shortly afterwards and Bob continued as a distributor. The garage was at the site of the present Vogue theatre. After selling the Studebaker agency to Morgenstern, Pyle and Robinson, Laubengayer and the late Charles W. Lamer formed the U.S. Farm Sales Co., to sell surplus war material bought in France from the U.S. government. Bob made three trips to France and brought back as many shiploads of equipment that could be used by farmers, mostly harness, saddles, etc. The company sent auctioneers as far as Texas to sell the gear at livestock sales. They also sold horses and harness to the Mexican Army. He became interested in stocks and went to New York City to obtain a seat on the stock exchange returned to Salina to consolidate the newspapers.

Of all his activities, the one of Bob Laubengayer was most proud was his part in helping the farmer get fair treatment during the depression. He spent months in Washington at his own expense. The Triple-A plan was developed in his hotel room. To reward Laubengayer for his aid, Henry Wallace, then Secretary of Agriculture, flew out to Salina to announce the details of the plan. The benefit price the government would pay was settled in a meeting at the Laubengayer home.Later, Wallace was to write Bob: "Your letter carried me back 18 years to a hot afternoon of a June day in the playroom basement of your home at a time we were trying to use democratic methods to get a wheat program started."

George Farrell, USDA official, related that Laubengayer's insistence that payments be based on acreage, instead of crop, increase benefits to Kansas farmers by $50 million during the life of the program.While Laubengayer was in Washington, Harry Woodring, then Secretary of War, announced plans for a $70 million appropriation for a flood control dam at Kiro near Topeka. Learning the Kiro dam would prevent money being spent on projects west of Salina, Laubengayer enlisted the aid of the late Guy Helvering to block the Kiro dam. So, the Kanopolis and Cedar Bluffs reservoirs were constructed. Laubengayer and Helvering worked together to get highway US-40 paved from Abilene west and to start Highway 45. Laubengayer developed the Country Club Heights sub-division, still the leading residential section of Saline.

He was a leader in the group that built the United Life office building "to take Salina out of the hick class". After 1937, Laubengayer founded radio station KSAL and continued president until his death. He also was active in starting KTVH-TV in Hutchinson. Until a year ago, he was a director in Farmers National Bank of Saline. Many of Laubengayer's efforts in behalf of Salina and Kansas were never told the public. When he controlled The Journal, he did not permit it to report his civic work. But the walls of his office on the second floor of The Journal were lined with pictures Salina of American and Kansas statesmen who paid tribute to his enterprise in behalf of the people. His real joy, however, was not his accomplishments or his power. It was in his four grandchildren.

Mr. Laubengayer also is survived by his widow, of the home, Country Club Road, two daughters, a sister, Mrs. George Dunn, Port Huron, Michigan, and a brother, Walter Laubengayer, Ann Arbor, Michigan. One of the daughters is Mrs. Peter Macdonald, Hutchinson, wife of the assistant general manager of the Harris newspaper group. The other is Mrs. Don Dieter, wife of a surgeon in Salina they moved recently to Eustis, Florida.

Topeka - Robert J. Laubengayer, president of KSAL inc. at Salina and former publisher of Salina Journal, died last night Dec. 26, 1958 at St. Francis Hospital just a week after the first of a series of heart attacks. He was 74 but had been active in his many business interests until he was stricken while attending a meeting of the board of the Kansas Power and Light Co. in Topeka. Two or three times in recent weeks it had taken snow to drive him off the golf course at Salina. Laubengayer came to Kansas after graduating from the University of Michigan law school and one of his first business ventures was the U. S. Farm Sales Co., which bought up army surplus goods after World War I and reconditioned it for sale to farmers. A few years later he and associates bought the Journal. In 1937 Laubengayer founded KSAL. He also was active in starting KTVH- TV in Hutchinson. Laubengayer stayed on as head of KSAL when the Journal and the station were sold to the John P. Harris newspaper group with headquarters at Hutchinson. Until about a year ago he also was a director of the Farmers National Bank of Salina.

Laubengayer leaves a widow and two daughters. One of the daughters is Mrs. Peter Macdonald, wife of the general manager of the Harris newspaper group at Hutchinson. The other is Mrs. Don Dieter, wife of a physician in Salina until they moved recently to Florida.

Notes for Larry Norman Bohnett:
A terrible tragedy took place in Saline Friday afternoon April 12, 1940 when Larry Norman Bohnet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bohnet, was killed. Everything happened in the flash of an eye and because of the sudden shock to everyone, details may be lacking. However, in some manner, Larry, who had been sitting in the car with his mother at the corner of Michigan Avenue and Monroe Street, opened the door. He was a very active child and moved swiftly. Before anyone could realize what was taking place, he ran in front of the car and crashed into the fender of a passing truck and was killed instantly. Larry was three years old March 10, and the only child. The truck, which was a heavy type used in hauling brick, was east bound and driven by Norman Kehn of Detroit. He was exonerated of all blame and released after questioning. The parents are prostrated with grief and the sympathy of- the entire community is extended to them. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Trinity Lutheran church with Rev. H. L. Engel officiating.

Notes for Dr. Mary Christine Jackson:

Mary Ginnebaugh began international folk dancing in 2007, above the curling rink in the small, Maritime Provence town of Wolfville, Nova Scotia. This international dance group was relatively small but well established and as a newcomer, Mary was welcomed to join in. It was the music that really stuck in her head and made this whole new learning experience so much fun. After leaving Nova Scotia in 2008 and returning to Green Bay, Wisconsin she was delighted to find there was a folk-dance group in Appleton … the International Folk Dancers of the Fox Valley! With the encouragement of the late Betty White along with Linda Blohowiak, Becky Bookter and others from the Fox Valley, she continued to learn various folk dances from many countries and was even brave enough to teach a dance or two that she had learned from attending the Madison Folk Ball or the Door County Folk Festival.

Since moving to Milwaukee in 2021, she dances less than when she lived in Green Bay, but still enjoys dancing and attends the Madison Folk Ball and the Door County Folk Festival. Mary is still engaged in political activities, supports Great Lakes environmental research and works with the social justice initiatives of Milwaukee.

Mary Ginnebaugh received this award in recognition of her long-time service to IAGLR. Ginnebaugh, who is retired from Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, joined the association in 1985. Her recent service includes a term on the IAGLR Board of Directors, where she provided an important voice in financial strategy and the hiring of a new executive director. She also took on co-chairing the Conference Committee during a critical time as we returned to in-person meetings after the pandemic. In 2013, Ginnebaugh established the David D. Dolan Scholarship in memory of her husband and continues to provide oversight and financial support to the benefit not only of the graduate students conducting the research, but to the understanding and management of Great Lakes ecosystems. Ginnebaugh and Dolan, who also served on the board, received the Anderson-Everett award jointly in 2001.

Norman Wayne[13] Ginebaugh (Gilbert John[12], Charles Chester[11], Johann Jacob[10] Gennebaugh, Johann Jakob[9] Gengenbach, Johann Jakob[8], Johann Jakob[7], Hans Jacob[6], Frantz[5], Hans[4], Franz[3], Conrad[2], Franz[1]) was born 09 Mar 1937 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan, and died 26 Jan 2013 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan. He married Lois E. Hoffman 20 Jun 1959 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan, daughter of Vincent Hoffman and Luella Cline. She was born 01 Jul 1937 in Michigan.

Notes for Norman Wayne Ginebaugh:
Norman Wayne Ginebaugh, 75, son of Gilbert and June Ginebaugh (deceased) and brother of Phillip (deceased), passed away Saturday, January 26th, 2013. He is survived by his loving wife, of 53 years, Lois; his children, Gregory and Kathy Ginebaugh, Charles and Sarah Ginebaugh, James and Amy Ginebaugh; his grandchildren, Deborah, Shawn and Andy Smith, David, Brian, Andrew, Collin, Jordan, Scott and Geoffrey.

Norm graduated from South High School in Grand Rapids and Western Michigan University with a degree in business. His entire career was in the financial service industry. While in his fifties, Norm retired and began his second career, following a calling to serve others, particularly children in need. In his later years, Norm focused his efforts upon benefiting Kids Food Basket, St. John's Home and local food pantries, logging thousands of hours picking up donated food and delivering it to the hungry. Norm was frequently recognized for his outstanding volunteerism and was the recipient of several awards including: Daily Points of Light, Booker T. Washington Volunteer Award, and the Humana Star Light Award. An active member of the North Grand Rapids Kiwanis Club, Norm enjoyed golf, gardening and cooking. Every Christmas, he loved dressing as Santa and delighting the children of St. John's Home. "Grandpa Norm" was a favorite of his grandchildren, both natural and "adopted". He will be greatly missed by his family and many friends for his generosity, humor and love of life.

Visitation will be held Friday, February 1 from 4 - 7 P.M. and again on Saturday, February 2 from 11 AM - 2 PM at the Heritage Life Story Funeral Home, Van Strien - Creston Chapel, 1833 Plainfield N.E. A private family service will be held. For those who wish donations may be sent to Kids Food Basket or D. A. Blodgett/St. John's Home.

Norman Ginebaugh will be remembered for his plentiful gardens and bread made from scratch, his unwavering work ethic and his complete devotion to his family, but what will be his lasting legacy is the way he selflessly gave so much of himself for the benefit of others. Whether he was delivering food to those in need, donating blood, or handing out gifts as Santa Claus, he reached so many in the community he called home throughout much of his life. Norm loved being a husband and father, but perhaps it was becoming a grandfather that was his greatest gift. A blessing in every sense of the word, he will be deeply missed while the impact he made in the lives of countless others continues to multiply in amazing ways.

Although the Great Depression covered our nation like a wet blanket throughout the 1930s, a young couple from Lyons, Michigan, was filled with unspeakable joy as they welcomed their son, Norman W., into their hearts and home on March 9, 1937, in Lansing. He was the first of two sons born to his parents, Gilbert and June (Prichard) Ginebaugh, and his father worked in the sawmill industry.

As a student Norm began his education at an elementary school in Lyons, and it continued at Sheldon Elementary School in Grand Rapids when his family moved there when he was seven years old. In school he was known as someone who was outgoing and friendly, and as a student at Grand Rapids South High School he was known as the class flirt. Right after graduating from high school in 1955, Norm went on to Grand Rapids Junior College and then transferred to Western Michigan University where earned his bachelor's degree in business.

Not to be forgotten during Norm's years in high school was his introduction to the young woman who would later steal his heart. Her name was Lois Hoffman, and although they didn't date in high school they did begin dating after he stopped in at the telephone company where she worked while he was a college student. They were married at Second Congregational Church in Grand Rapids in 1959 just a week after Norm graduated from Western Michigan University. Norm's strong work ethic began during his earliest years in the workforce when he began working in gas stations and doing other odd jobs as a young teenager. He even put himself through college selling diamonds and pots and pans. As a young newlywed Norm worked at Old Kent Bank and Trust Company before settling in at GE Financial where he remained for 13 years.

After learning the ins and out of his career in Farmington, Norm and Lois returned to Grand Rapids where they settled into a home on N. Park Lane Dr. N.E.. It was there that they raised their three sons: Gregory, Charles, and James. Norm made one final career move to a firm that was a division of Xerox Corporation. He enjoyed a successful career there as the local office manager. Norm and Lois joined Second Congregational Church where they were actively involved over the years.

Being with his family was always a priority in Norm's life. He was an active father who was involved in the Boy Scouts when his boys were in the program, and he was also there for their school activities as well. Summers often found them camping in a travel trailer as a family to places throughout Northern Michigan and also to other locations around the country like Yellowstone National Park, Mt. Rushmore, and Florida. As a family the Ginebaughs enjoyed golfing on the course at the Elks Country Club where they were members, and it was not uncommon for the family to gather around the campfire that Norm often made in the backyard.

Throughout his life Norm was a man of many interests. His family appreciated his cooking, especially his mac and cheese, and his neighbors fully appreciated his abundant vegetable garden. Norm liked fishing and took several fishing trips up North, and he also liked cross country skiing. After he retired at the age of 55 he and Lois headed to Alabama for a month during the winter in their motor home or fifth wheel. Norm also had more time for the game he loved - golf. He was an active Kiwanian and was awarded the honor of "Kiwanian of the Year". He was known for concluding the Kiwanis meetings with a bit of wisdom or encouragement called "A Notable Quotable".

Norm's life was forever changed when he heard a voice tell him to spend his time helping others while he was driving home one day. His efforts began by bringing joy to the patients at DeVos Children's Hospital where he was known as Grandpa Norm or Santa at Christmas time. Norm also worked as a volunteer at Lincoln School where he sponsored a pancake breakfast to help bring some added money into their fund for school furnishings. During this time he also began collecting surplus food to distribute to places in need such as Other Way Ministries with his fellow Kiwanian, Frank Churchill. In 1999 Norm began delivering food to St. John's Home and he also worked with the kids who lived there. Grandpa Norm is how he was usually known there as well, and as Santa during the holidays he always made sure that every child received a gift. A day of service typically found him leaving the house shortly after breakfast and heading to local grocery stores that had surplus food waiting for him. Norm then spent a good part of the day delivering the food to various pantries and ministries in the community. Norm also donated a total of more than 21 gallons of blood over the years.

Although Norm was always a humble man, his efforts didn't go unnoticed. He was awarded with the Family Futures Booker T. Washington Volunteer Award for his service to children as well as the Humana Starlight Award for his volunteer work with Access of West Michigan, Kids food Basket, and the Salvation Army's Booth Family Services and the Daily Points of Light. Norm was a finalist in the Senior Volunteer of the Year race for the 2012 Governor's Service Awards. Life became more difficult for Norm and his loved ones when he was diagnosed with cancer just this past spring, but his faith, courage, and optimism never wavered. A generous, compassionate, and vibrant man, Norman Ginebaugh was a treasure in the lives of those too numerous to count. His family, whether through bloodlines or heart strings, was his greatest gift. The timeless legacy Norm leaves behind will be carried on by the loved ones he cherished most.

After Officer Candidate School he was commissioned 2d Lieutenant at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Liaison basic flight training at Pittsburg, Kansas, advanced artillery training at Fort Sill, and specialized flight training at Camp Bowie, Texas prepared him for his arrival in the European Theatre of Operation in November, 1944 at Epinal, France, at the age of 20 years. Notes for Nona Ellen Nielsen:

Nona Nielsen Genebach, 90, died Sunday, June 1, 2008, in Madison County, Virginia, with her husband, Larry Genebach, by her side. In addition to her husband, she is survived by her sister, Madjol Klein of Phoenix, Arizona; her three daughters, Carol Lewis of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Sharon Luke of Sperryville, Virginia, and Susan Munday of Warrenton, Virginia; by her six grand-children, Katherine Otero, Ann Armijo, and Susan Carter all of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Christina Luke and Ben Luke of Sperryville, Virginia, and Sarah Batchelder, of Warrenton, Virginia; and by six great-grandchildren, Richard Sanchez of Maryland, Frances Steckbauer, Mariah Steckbauer, Ryann Carter, Victor Armijo, and Jada Carter, all of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Mrs. Genebach was born March 2, 1918, in Burlington, Wisconsin, the daughter of Nellie and Charles Nielsen. In her young adult years, she was a professional trumpet player and in the 1940s had her own dance band. One evening in the spring of 1948, a young soldier came into the club where she was playing, and fell in love at first sight. He returned every evening until she agreed to go out with him. They were married 11 days later and they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary this year on April 17.

After raising her daughters, Mrs. Genebach worked for many years as a store detective in Fairfax County, Virginia. She enjoyed her years in law enforcement and had an impressive arrest and conviction record. In 1976, she helped her daughter Sharon open her law practice in Washington, Virginia, and subsequently worked there as a legal secretary for 30 years. She loved her job, learning about the legal profession, and mastering the use of a computer in her 1970's. She enjoyed her association with the attorneys, courthouse staff, clients and others she met through her work, and she became good friends with many of them.

The family is grateful to Dr. James Dale of Luray, Virginia, Dr. Jerry Martin of Washington, Virginia, and Dr. Thomas Sentz of Warrenton, Virginia for their professional care and friendship during Mrs. Genebach's long illness, and to Gloria Treadway of Madison, Virginia, who provided loving home care to her during the last months of her life. Notes for Virginia Marie Zeeb:
Born to Rose and Elmer Zeeb on September 15, 1925, Virginia M. Celley passed away July 22, 2024 with her daughter Marsha at her side. She was one of the greatest generation, a true Ann Arborite in a long line of German descendants after which Zeeb road is named. Witnessing life from the perspective of her father, a plumber and gentleman farmer, she appreciated the land they coexisted with and protected it to allow nature to be in harmony with the environment. She applied that same nurturing spirit to her family. As a kindergartner and primary school student she attended a one room school house. She advanced to the original Ann Arbor High School when World War 2 was on-going and the men and women graduates of A2 High School were proudly proclaiming how their careers and lives were in support of our nation. She is only one of three students to ever graduate from the A2 school system with a perfect attendance record.

She took this tenacity and enrolled as an English major at the University of Michigan. It was there that she met her lifelong love and husband, Neil R. Celley. Upon graduation Virginia supported Neil's god given athletic ability by moving with him to the Denver University area where she bore her first and second children, Todd and Marsha. As the wife of a coach, she was great at running the home her mother and father built, and bore her third and final child, Michael. In 1968 she had the good fortune of working for the Ann Arbor News where she put her organizational skills to use and advanced over her 25-year career to manage the Classified Advertising Department. Upon retirement she and her husband were both free to spend their time nurturing their love for each other, their family, and community. They would travel as snow birds to Florida in the winter and return to Michigan in the summer to spend time with their family, golfing, attending games and supporting the U of M Women's Basketball Team, visiting with friends at Huron Valley Swim Club, and neighbors at home.

She is survived by her children Marsha and Michael and their granddaughters Kristin and Karin. She will continue to live in the memories of the many who loved her next to the hand of Jesus along with her husband and son.

A celebration of life will be held September 1, 2024 from (11 am - 2 pm) at the Carlyle Grill. A private interment service for family and invited guests will be held later. In lieu of flowers, please visit with us at the celebration of life. Arrangements entrusted to Vickers Leslie Funeral Home, 109 N. Church St./PO Box 503, Leslie, Michigan 49251.

Notes for Neil Roland Celley:

Neil 'The Seal' Celley is a former Americanice hockey coach and player who was a member of the US national team at the 1948 Winter Olympics. Neil Celley joined the Michigan ice hockey team after winning a State Championship in 1945. He left the program a year later to take part in first Winter Olympics since 1936 (due to World War II) and was chosen as a member of the USOC's squad. A competing USA team was also sent to St. Moritz that year, one representing the Amateur Hockey Association that openly allowed professional players in their lineup. After tense negotiations the AHA team was allowed to play in the games but only in an unofficial capacity (they would be ineligible for a medal). The USOC team was allowed to march in the opening ceremony which would be the extent to which Celley could contribute to the team. Celley returned to Ann Arbor the following fall and finished out his college career without further interruption. He played in 3 consecutive NCAA tournaments finally winning one in his senior season. Celley was named to the All tournament team and recorded a team record 37 goals and 37 assists in the regular season (later broken by Red Berenson).

After graduating from the School of Education in 1951 Celley immediately began his coaching career at Denver, taking over the two-year-old program from Vern Turner. While receiving his Master of Arts in 1952 Celley led the Pioneers to a second-place finish (tied) in the newly created MCHL, unfortunately his alma mater Michigan (with whom his team had tied) was selected for the 1952 tournament instead. Celley's teams would finish with a winning record every year but were never selected for the postseason tournament. In 1956, after kicking four players off the squad for violating team rules, Celley stepped down mid-season and ended his coaching career.

Ann Arbor, Michigan - Neil R. Celley, passed away October 24, 2019. At the age of 92, Neil passed away peacefully at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital surrounded by his family. Born October 24, 1927 in Eveleth, Minnesota to Vienna and David Celley, Neil excelled in every sport but ice hockey was his passion. Neil was the last surviving member of the first Minnesota high school ice hockey championship team for which he played the entire championship game defeating Thief River Falls 4 to 3. After graduating from high school, Vic Heyliger recruited Neil to come to the University of Michigan. World War II interrupted his academic career where he served in the U.S. Army as part of the occupation force in Japan from August 1946 through December 1947. Upon completion of his honorable service, in January 1948 the United States Olympic committee selected Neil to be a team member of the U.S. Olympic amateur ice hockey team for the games in Saint Moritz, Switzerland. However, he did not play as the U.S. also sent a second team of paid professionals who were ultimately chosen to skate in the tournament. From 1948 - 1951 Neil completed his academics and played left wing for the University of Michigan where he set a seasonal scoring record of 40 goals and 39 assists not surpassed until 1977, was selected as an All-American, and was an esteemed member and Most Valuable Player of the 1951 National Collegiate Athletic Association national championship team. After graduation, he married his U of M sweetheart, and Ann Arbor native, Virginia Zeeb. He then skated for 9 days with the Detroit Red Wings until he was offered the positions as Head Coach of the Denver University hockey team and golf team. During his relatively short tenure from 1951 - 1956 as the Denver University hockey coach he had an impressive winning average of .649 (82W, 43L, 6T). Following his departure from Denver University, Neil returned to Ann Arbor to earn his Master of Arts Degree and accepted a position with the Chelsea School District then Bloomfield Hills Michigan School District. At Bloomfield Hills he shaped the lives of many young adults as a High School Counselor. He established the ice hockey program and coached from 1967 to 1984. Neil had many god given talents including the ability to make the child in everyone smile and laugh at a moments notice. With this talent he chose to finish his career as an elementary school physical education teacher. Upon retirement, Neil renewed his interest in golf where he had three witnessed holes in one and one unwitnessed. He and Virginia traveled to the warm climate of Panama City Beach, Florida where he would golf and paint many lovely water colors overlooking the cooling breeze of the ocean. He was a loving husband, father, dotting grandfather, role model to generations of athletes and students, and friend to many wherever he went. Neil lived a full life on his own terms.

Neil was pre-deceased by his eldest son, Todd, and survived by his wife Virginia, daughter Marsha Kalember, granddaughters Kristin and Karin and his youngest son, Michael.

Notes for Kenneth Arthur Zeeb:
Ken and Joanne Zeeb: My great grandfather, George Zeeb came from Kirchentellensfurt, Germany in 1856 and settled in Scio Township. Zeeb Road was named for the original farm homestead. My great-grandfather lived in a log cabin until it burned. He then built our present home on Earhart in 1891. We remodeled the house in 1989 and still live there. It is a centennial farm. My grandfather owned a steam engine powered threshing machine and threshed for other are farmers. He also owned a saw mill and a complete workshop with forge, drill press and grinder. He did all his own repair and built many items for the farm. My father, Arthur Zeeb, built his home with lumber sawed at the family mill. While I was growing up we raise sheep, turkeys, chickens, pigs, milk cows and a few steers. We also had apple trees and grapes. We made cider and wine each fall. My father died the year I graduated from high school. I continued farming and went into dairying with all the crops going to the cattle. We married in 1956 and raised four daughters who helped with the farm work, including milking the cows. They are all married. We have nine grandchildren. Much of the farm land in our area has now succumbed to development.

Kenneth Zeeb, age 83, of Ann Arbor, died November 11, 2017 after lingering health issues called him to his heavenly home. He passed away surrounded by his loving family at his Centennial Farm home, built by his great-grandfather. He was proud to be associated with Ann Arbor's well known Zeeb Road, which got its name due to the location of the original Zeeb farmstead, located at the corner of Jackson and Zeeb Roads, where his great-great grandfather settled after immigrating from Germany in the mid-1800's. Funeral services were held on Saturday, November 18th. Memorial contributions can be made to St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, General Fund, 2945 E. Northfield Church Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan, 48105.

Ken was born February 20, 1934, the son of Arthur Walter Zeeb and Marie Katherine (Prochnow) Zeeb. Ken spent his elementary school years at the one-room Leland School, where he was taught by his aunt, Cora Zeeb. He later attended Slauson Middle School and then Ann Arbor High School, graduating in 1952. While in high school, Ken's father suffered an extended illness and neighbors helped him keep the farm going while he completed his education. Ken's father passed away in 1952, leaving 18-year-old Ken to run the farm. Mentored by neighboring farmers, Ken eventually partnered with his second cousin, Merle Kern, to share field work and farm equipment, planting and harvesting many seasons of crops together. Ken and his father had raised hogs but he soon switched to a dairy herd and milked cows for 32 years until the herd was sold in 1987, after which he raised beef cattle for many more years. Ken was a long time member of the Michigan Milk Producers Association. In addition, he sold and delivered Pioneer Seed to neighboring farmers for over 25 years.

Ken married the love of his life, Joann Enders, of Eau Claire, Michigan on October 27, 1956 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Sodus, Michigan. They enjoyed 61 happy years together. Ken is survived by his wife and their four daughters: Glenda (Kenneth) Stegenga of Saline; Elaine (Kurt) Beckstrom of Watertown, Minnesota; Debra (Jerry) Diuble of Saline; and Kristine (Joel) Dreffs of Ann Arbor.

Ken is also survived by nine grandchildren and five great grandchildren: Samantha (Mark) Kish and daughter Taylor, Stacey Stegenga, Steven Stegenga (fiancée Alexandra Waldie), Daniel "Gus" Beckstrom, Jacob Beckstrom, Crystal (Joshua) Stephenson and son Grayson, Ryan (Danielle) Diuble and children Anabelle, Meredith and Edmund, Kora Dreffs and Ezra Dreffs.

Ken was preceded in death by his parents, Arthur and Marie Zeeb, his sister Marjorie Jean Morrow, his aunt Cora Zeeb, uncles William Prochnow, Frederick Prochnow, and David Prochnow, nephew Brian Morrow, niece Carol Model, and second cousin Merle Kern.

Ken was a lifetime member of St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, Northfield, where he was baptized and confirmed. He was a past trustee of the church council as well as a member and a long-time treasurer of the Men's Club. While always busy on the farm, Ken had many interests and made time to live life to the fullest. He liked to visit friends and played euchre every chance he got, belonging to the Interfraternal Euchre League on the Grotto Terrors team, which competed weekly. He cherished the time he spent riding his Gold Wing motorcycle, touring around the countryside on evenings and weekends. He and Joann also enjoyed traveling and spent many winters in Punta Gorda, Florida and long summer weekends in northern Michigan at the lake. They had a wide network of friends but especially treasured socializing and traveling with life-long friends Cary and Dorothy (Kapp) Shear. Ken always looked forward to hunting on the family farm, greatly anticipating opening day for the pheasant, turkey and deer seasons.

Over the past two years, Ken worked with various neighbors who restored his 1929 McCormick-Deering 10-20 tractor. This was the first tractor on the farm. Ken enjoyed driving many of his tractors in the Whitmore Lake 4th of July parade and this year proudly drove the recently restored 10-20. Ken devoted many hours of service to his community. He was a former member of the Webster Providers Farm Bureau group, and a former volunteer fireman with both the Northfield Township and Ann Arbor Township Fire Departments. Ken was also President of the Board of the Leland Cemetery in Northfield Township. In addition, for many years he was a member of the Washtenaw County 4-H Service Club and also served as a Community Committeeman for the Washtenaw County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) in Northfield Township. In summing up Ken's life, we can say that he was very proud to be a 4th generation farmer on the family farm. He dearly loved his wife, family and church.

Most of all he loved his Savior who brought him to faith and finally to Heaven.

Notes for Joann Enders:

Joann Zeeb, age 92, passed away on May 21, 2023 at her home in Ann Arbor, Northfield Township, surrounded by her loving family. She was born March 29, 1931 to Paul and Marie (Hibnar) Enders in Berrien Center, Michigan. She was raised one of seven children on a small fruit and vegetable farm during the Great Depression in Eau Claire, Michigan. By necessity, this taught her the lifelong skill of thriftiness and to "make do" with what you have. Joann graduated from Eau Claire High School in 1949 and worked at Auto Specialties in St. Joseph, Michigan until she was married.

She met her husband, Kenneth Zeeb, on a blind date set up by a mutual friend. They were married on October 27, 1956 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Sodus, Michigan. They celebrated 61 years together before Ken's passing in 2017. Joann and Ken were active partners in managing the family's dairy and crop Centennial Farm and raising their four daughters. Joann was very involved in the community and over the years she worked as an Election Official at the Northfield Township Precinct Two polling location and was a member of the Northfield Township Historical Society. She was also a member of the Washtenaw County 4-H Service Club; a long-time leader of the Go-Getters 4-H Club, and a member of the Webster Providers Farm Bureau Group. Joann was a devoted member of St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, where she belonged to the Ladies Aid Society, serving as secretary for a few years. Joann and Ken enjoyed traveling and took many trips around the country, often with neighborhood friends or family. After retirement from milking cows, they both appreciated spending summers at Surrey Lake in Farwell, Michigan and avoiding the worst of winter in Punta Gorda, Florida.

Joann was a passionate gardener with a green thumb and loved to get up early on summer mornings to hoe in her garden. She liked to preserve the bounty from her garden and took pride in having her fruit cellar and freezer well-stocked when fall came around. Joann enjoyed having flowers around her home and passed this love of gardening on to her daughters and family. For many years, Joann put her passion for gardening to good use by working part-time at T&B Computing, where she cared for the plants in their offices. She also briefly worked at R. A. Sheets Greenhouse in South Lyon. Additionally, Joann enjoyed playing cards, collecting postcards, thimbles, and plates, and was an avid bird watcher and reader. Her family will greatly miss her kind and loving nature, her strong Christian faith, her warm hugs, big smile and her positive attitude. Joann's shining sense of humor was often shared along with encouraging words meant to instill courage, confidence, and faith in the Lord.

Joann is survived by her four daughters: Glenda (Kenneth) Stegenga of Saline; Elaine (Kurt) Beckstrom of Watertown, Minnesota; Debra (Jerry) Diuble of Saline; and Kristine (Joel) Dreffs of Ann Arbor. Joann is also survived by nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren: Samantha (Mark) Kish and children Taylor and Chase; Stacey Stegenga; Steven (Alexandra) Stegenga and daughters Suzie and Claire; Daniel "Gus" Beckstrom; Jacob Beckstrom; Crystal (Joshua) Stephenson and children Grayson and Maisy; Ryan (Danielle) Diuble and children Anabelle, Meredith and Edmund; Kora Dreffs, and Ezra Dreffs. She is also survived by her sister-in-law, Betty Jane Enders Wright and brother-in-law, Carl Johnson. Joann was blessed with many special nieces and nephews, with whom she loved to keep in touch.

Joann was preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth Arthur Zeeb; her parents, Paul and Marie Enders; brothers, Dale (Wilma) Enders, Dick (Millie) Enders, Robert Enders; sisters, Mary (Bill) Klein, Betty (Edmund) Kunst, and Eva Johnson; and her second cousin by marriage, Merle (Harriette) Kern.

Visitation will be at Nie Funeral Home, 3767 W. Liberty Road, on Friday, May 26th from 4:00 to 7:00 pm. Funeral Services will be held at St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, 2945 E. She married Chad T. Ellington. He was born 30 Aug 1969 in Florence, Pinal Co, Arizona, and died 17 Jun 2001 in Goleta, Santa Barbara Co, California.

Notes for Amy Irene Niethammer:
Los Angeles - A search-and-rescue team found the body of a missing Ojai woman at the bottom of a steep ravine north of Ojai on Monday afternoon April 5, 1999, close to her mangled black Jeep, authorities said. Coroner's investigator Jim Wingate identified the woman as Amy (Niethammer) Ellington, a 31-year-old mother who was reported missing Saturday by family members. Wingate said she apparently died in a single-vehicle accident. Ellington left her Ojai home the day before to drive to a relative's home in Pleasanton. It appears her Jeep veered off the road near the Pine Mountain summit and plunged 500 feet down a cliff, Wingate said. An autopsy will be performed today, he said. Ellington was reported missing after she failed to arrive at the relative's residence. She was driving to the Northern California community alone, authorities said. A sheriff's helicopter crew searching for Ellington spotted the Jeep around 1:45 p.m., officials said. Wingate said Ellington was married and had children, but he didn't have any additional information.

After Amy Ellington's car tumbled 500 feet off California 33 nearly two years ago, her husband wanted assurance no one else would die the same way.When a settlement was reached last week, Chad Ellington finally felt relief. Although the California Department of Transportation is not bound to build a guardrail or wall along the road, attorneys for both sides said something most likely will be constructed to make the road safer."Nothing is going to bring Amy back, but when they build something that could save someone else's family this pain, that is the only consolation I have," said Ellington, a Goleta resident who lived in Ojai when his wife died. "I don't allow anyone I know to drive that road the way it is."

On April 2, 1999, Amy Ellington's car slid on a patch of ice and went over the cliff near Pine Mountain Summit. Attorneys say Ellington, 31, was traveling about 25 mph on her way to visit her son, who was staying with her mother in Livermore.Several hours later, Chad Ellington received a call from his wife's mother, who was wondering why Amy had not arrived.Ellington spent the next three days looking for his wife, driving past the spot of the accident at least eight times, he said."I wasn't given the chance to save her because I didn't know where she was," he said. "She could have been lying down there for two days waiting for me."

On one drive along the road, Ellington said, he was driving about 5 mph and his wheels slid on the same patch of ice. At least two other area residents contacted him saying they had problems at the same spot.In addition to the barrier, Ellington and the couple's three children will receive $2 million from the state. Half the money will go toward an education fund to help the children pay for college. The other half will pay Ellington $1,000 a month for the rest of his life. The children will have the same arrangement when they reach 21. Ellington said any type of barrier might have saved his wife by giving rescue workers an indication of the accident site.

Caltrans attorneys said a guardrail at the site would seem to be a good idea, but added there are structural difficulties.A guardrail would make the road more dangerous by narrowing it, said David Simmes, deputy chief counsel for Caltrans."We don't know what will go in there . . . there may be some other solution," he said. "We are looking at other options besides a guardrail to keep the road in safe condition for people who drive responsibly."Geoff Wells, attorney for the Ellington family, said he believes Caltrans will build a barrier at the accident site because the agency has acknowledged there is a problem."There is inadequate protection at that corner for a driver that might encounter black ice," Wells said. "A lady died, and a number of other people had near-misses. They have to do something, because it's definitely dangerous."

Amy Irene Ellington, age 31, of Oiai, died Friday, April 2, 1999. She was born January 30, 1968, in Bellevue, Washington, and lived in Oiai for one year, coming fromFresno. Mrs. Ellington was a Waitress and Beautician, as well as a Homemaker. She was also a Courtesy Clerk for Vons Market. She was preceded in death by her father, Woodard Niethammer, on March 16, 1998.

Amy is survived by her husband, Chad Ellington, of Oiai; daughters, Haley and Brooke Ellington; son, Patrick Boyz; mother, Marilyn Niethammer, of Pleasanton, and brothers, Dard, Michaeli and Darren Niethammer.

Community mourning loss of nine-year-old boy hit by car

One week ago today, 9-year-old Shawn Niethammer was in his fourth grade class at Vintage Hills Elementary School. Come Monday, his seat was noticeably empty. The Pleasanton boy was hit by a car Oct. 6 as he rolled out of a driveway on his bicycle in the 700 block of Palomino Drive--just a few blocks from where he lived, police said. The driver of the Lincoln SUV, a 53-year-old man, was heading eastbound on Palomino, just east of Norton Way to visit a friend nearby. It happened at 5:37 p.m. and as the collision threw the boy from his bicycle, he sustained injuries to his neck and spine that later proved to be fatal. He was wearing a safety helmet at the time. The driver immediately stopped at the scene of the accident and has been fully cooperating with police, according to Sgt. Michael Collins. No charges have been filed against the man and Collins said according to normal procedure, the case will eventually be forwarded to the county district attorney.

The vehicle was traveling at or slightly above the posted 25 mph speed limit, which isn't uncommon because on average, 15 percent of motorists drive slightly above the posted speed limit, Collins said. As of press time, the police department was withholding the driver's name. Collins said it's been years since a tragic event like this has happened in Pleasanton, but cautioned that incidents like these could potentially happen at any time.

"Almost every parent has had a kid go darting into the street and but for the grace of God nothing has happened," he said. "Unfortunately in this case, that's not what happened. It appears to be a momentary lapse of judgement." The bright and fun-loving 9-year-old will be best remembered by his loved ones as someone who loved to play sports and who always had a smile on his face. "He wanted to be friends with everybody," said his father, Darrin Niethammer. "He had a laugh that was so contagious that it would make anyone laugh. He was my little buddy and my life." Niethammer said Shawn was riding his bicycle from his mother's house to a friend's house just a few blocks away. When he discovered the friend wasn't home, he headed back out of the friend's driveway where the accident occurred. "That area seems to have a lot of school traffic for kids," Niethammer said. "I would like to see some speed bumps in there because it doesn't only stop speeding, but it makes people look too."

Shawn's step-father Pat Simon said he will always cherish the times he used to take him to Callippe Preserve Golf Course to play golf or the times he would take him along on his handyman trips to people's homes to make housecalls. "He would do anything for anybody and would always put other people first and at 9, you wouldn't think that," said mother Veronica Simon. She said she's been overwhelmed by the outpouring of support from the community. "So many people that we don't even know have come over and offered their condolences and brought meals and you don't know what a wonderful community you have unfortunately until something like this happens," she said.

Ron Hyde, a close friend of Pat Simon's has set up a bank account at the Bank of Walnut Creek at 249 Main St., titled "The Shawn Neithammer Memorial Fund for the Benefit of Youth Golf." Donations will go towards benefiting youths in golf camps who would otherwise not be able to afford them. The 9-year-old participated in the youth golf program this past summer at Callippe. At Shawn's school, efforts are under way to memorialize him as well as help his family, according to Vintage Hills Principal Carolyn Parker. Extra counselors were brought on campus to talk to students and parents about the incident. The students in Kasey Poet's fourth grade class have already found ways to remember their classmate, Parker said. Students are given a number that corresponds with where their name falls in alphabetical order and that number is used on homework and class assignments. Shawn's number was 20, and students asked that they "retire" his number so as to never forget him.

The school has also set up a bank account for charitable donations at Fremont Bank, 6654 Koll Center Parkway, Ste. 345. Anyone who wants to make a donation can either go to the bank or drop off a donation at Vintage Hills. The account is titled "The Shawn Niethammer Memorial Fund." The bank can be reached at 417-7671. Some parents have also sent out e-mails to city officials and local businesses to solicit donations to help defray the funeral costs for the family.

To honor Shawn's love of baseball, Vintage Hills will host a baseball drive in which students can bring in new or used baseball equipment that will be sent to an organization that will donate the supplies to needy Cambodian children. "I think Shawn would be happy to know that there would be a lot of kids with this equipment that they can play baseball with," Parker said. The school plans to have a memorial sometime next month.

Shawn Michael-Harold Niethammer is survived by his mother Veronica and her husband Pat Simon, his father Darrin Niethammer and his wife Tina, grandmother Marilyn Niethammer, grandparents Michael and Dorothy Berthelsen, stepbrothers Kyle and Sean and stepsister Robin and by his uncles, aunts, cousins and other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his grandfather Woodard Niethammer.

A private viewing was scheduled for Wednesday for the family, according to Graham-Hitch Mortuary. A service will be held today at 4 p.m. at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 1020 Mocho St. in Livermore. In lieu of flowers, the family suggest memorial donations be made In care of the Holy Cross Lutheran Church to be used for children's charities, to junior golf or the Pleasanton National Little League.

Notes for Madison Elswick Eger:
Our Story (told by Madison Eger Ginnebaugh)
Our story started over 10 years ago, when we met while both enrolled in the junior sailing program at the Grosse Pointe Club. We quickly became friends, bonding over the fact that I had been coached by Kevin's brothers for several summers prior. For the next few years, our paths really only crossed during the summer months. We always kept in touch though: frequently picking up the phone to vent to each other about our hectic college course loads and sharing details of our recent sailing ventures.
When I moved back to Grosse Pointe in the spring of 2016, we almost immediately started running into each other pretty regularly. Every time it happened; we would vow to meet up soon. After all, we were finally living in the same state after so many years apart. We were both so busy though; Kevin started medical school that fall and I was still easing into my first real job. The timing was never right. Before we ever got the chance to do anything together, we would be bumping into each other at Costco again, making the same plans we tried (and failed) to make a few weeks before.
This continued for nearly a year until we ended up at the same sailing regatta early in the summer of 2017. Finally! An opportunity to spend time together was laid right out in front of us and we couldn't pass it up even if we wanted to. It was during that weekend that we were reminded of all our shared interests and how much we enjoy each other's presence. Even though our friendship had been long-distance for nearly a decade, it felt like we had hardly spent a day apart. We were (and still are) completely inseperable. By the end of the event, Kevin was already joking about marriage: at one point even getting down on one knee in the Bayview Yacht Club parking lot and proposing with a Coors Light. I wasn't able to give him an answer then, but almost a year and a half later he traded in the beer for a ring and I couldn't say couldn't say yes fast enough.

She enjoyed quilting, knitting washcloths, bingo, traveling, snorkeling, catching lobsters, shrimping, eating ice cream at the Outrigger, gardening, playing cards, shopping for bargains, and playing pool volleyball. She was very active in Faith Lutheran Church where she also sang in the choir. She loved Christmas and everything about it (just ask the Griswold's!). She was especially devoted to her family, and loved anything to do with her grandkids and helping out her favorite daughter.

On September 30, 1968 she married Harold A. "Hal" Losey, and he survives. On September 30, 1968, he married Teresa A. "Terry" Jedele, and they were married for nearly 48 years before she passed away in 2016. Hal worked as a lineman for Michigan Bell, retiring after 27 years of service. He was an extraordinarily patriotic man with a witty sense of humor until the very end. He loved music and had the talent to play almost anything he picked up. His favorites were piano and guitar, and he even performed on a stage in Nashville, when his daughter challenged him. He was an avid outdoorsman. He enjoyed hunting and fishing, although we definitely knew it would rain when he went, but that didn't stop him. He was a talented woodworker and could usually be found doing some sort of wood working or whittling something out of one piece of wood. He was an all around handyman and could fix most anything. He loved traveling and spending time with his family and especially his grandkids, and he was the only man we knew who still used a paper map to plan his travels. He was active in the Chelsea Senior Center and the Vietnam Veterans of America.

She married Dr. Boyd Edgar Smith. He was born 08 Jun 1946.

Notes for Dr. Boyd Edgar Smith:

September 2, 2015 - As Dr. Boyd Smith was retiring in 2009 after more than 30 years as a pathologist in Salina, the University of Kansas School of Medicine was preparing to open. It looked like a really interesting opportunity, a small medical school opening in Salina," Smith said. He joined the faculty, teaching histopathology and later gross anatomy to the classes of eight students in the smallest medical school in the country. He was recently recognized by the University of Kansas for his work in the classroom, earning the Chancellor's Distinguished Teaching Award. "I really had never taught before," Smith said. "It's really rewarding to teach great students in a small class. It was a surprise for me how well it went." When he started, he said, his biggest challenge was the technology. "Instead of using a microscope and slides, everything is digitized, and I had to learn that system," he said. "All the students are very savvy, and they've been very nice to me about it -- patient with my lack of expertise with IT things."

Smith said that he keeps the lectures to a minimum, in favor of a "conference-like, problem-solving atmosphere." "I emphasize active learning, with a question-and-answer format, open-ended discussions and a relaxed professional learning process," Smith said. "I find that if I allow the students to lead the discussion, the students put information into their own words in enough detail and in simple enough language to make them conversant with the subject, and the subject becomes understandable." Dr. William Cathcart-Rake, dean of the Salina campus, said there is a call for nominations each year for the chancellor's award, and faculty and students had wanted to nominate Smith in previous years.

But the rules required nominees to be full-time faculty, either with tenure or on a tenure track. "Both I and some students complained to the powers that be about these arbitrary rules," Cathcart-Rake said. "Either they changed the rules or decided to ignore them." "This is just his fifth year of doing this and he didn't come up through the academic ranks," Cathcart-Rake said. "He retired and came to help us and has just excelled. He's certainly in his element." Smith agreed. "A small group of gifted students is a good match for me. It's a good fit for me," he said. "Just please don't make me responsible for a group of junior high kids."

He married Cheryl Lynn Blumenauer 14 Dec 1996 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Mark Blumenauer and Margie Guenther. She was born 07 Sep 1971.

Notes for Cheryl Lynn Blumenauer:

November 19, 2013 – by Cheryl Sweetland - Washtenaw County Farm Bureau members, I am excited to have the opportunity to serve on the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau (WCFB) board as a member at-large. I am a lifelong resident of the county and grew up on a farm in Manchester. While at home my father, Mark Blumenauer, and our family raised cattle, farrowed pigs, fattened out feeder pigs, grew crops and baled lots of hay. I was involved in 4-H and FFA, and went on to Ferris State University where I earned a Bachelor of Science in health systems management. After graduation, I accepted a position at the University of Michigan (UM) in the hospital finance department where I worked for nine years prior to moving to the department of internal medicine where I since served as the faculty affairs manager. I celebrated my 20-year service anniversary at UM last month.

I married Brian Sweetland in 1996 and we have four children: Nicole, Natalie, Emily and Bradley ranging in age from five to 12. Brian is a third-generation dairy farmer and the fifth-generation to farm the Sweetland homestead farm in Lodi Township. He milks 50 cows and we grow corn, soybeans, wheat and hay. We work hard and take great pride in what we do; a consistent theme embedded across the farming community.

Why am I excited to take on this service role? The short answer is because it is important. The long answer comes to light when revisiting the ordeal my husband and I went through with the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) in 2012. Prior to our experience, we didn't understand the impact of state and federal regulations or more importantly, that common sense is missing from the equation when those regulations are being interpreted. We were fortunate to have support from my dad, close friends and the farming community.

WCFB helped organize a meeting with legislators, members and members of the community to share our story. Michigan Farm Bureau was also there for us. Specifically, our MFB Regional Representative. Our story is not unique; other stories like ours are playing out all over the state and across the country. The agricultural sector is small, but the goods we produce feed the world. We need to partner with one another, speak up and educate others who are otherwise unaware of the effort to produce goods and the care, immense integrity and pride we take in our approach while doing so. Farm Bureau is dedicated to supporting members and ensuring our voice is heard. We, as growers and producers, have a part to play. Don't be afraid to engage Farm Bureau and ask for help, I'm sure glad we did.

He married Nancy Ann Melvin. She was born 25 Jun 1964 in Syracuse, Onondaga Co, New York, and died 18 Nov 2003.

Notes for Kip Paul Taylor:

Major Kip Taylor was excited about the coming months for two reasons very dear to him: the birth of his second child in late October and a promotion in November. Now, his wife, Nancy, and family are gathered in his McLean, Virginia, home waiting to receive word that Taylor's remains have been recovered. Taylor, among those missing at the Pentagon, had been stationed there for about three years, said his brother, U.S. Army Lt. Col. Dean Taylor. "He was the poster boy for the U.S. Army," Taylor said. The son of a career Army officer, Kip Taylor enlisted after graduating in 1985 from Northern Michigan University. At the time of the attack, Taylor, 38, worked in the adjutant general's corps and was a key aide to Lt. Gen. Timothy Maude, who is also missing. Taylor was soon to become Lt. Col. Taylor, his brother said, but delayed the ceremony until late November so relatives could attend. They also would see his new baby. "It was going to be a meaningful thing," his brother said.

Lieutenant Colonel Kip Paul Taylor's 16-year ascent through the Army ranks began when he received his commission from the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Northern Michigan University, a unit run by his father, Don. A few months after graduation, Taylor was shipped to a base in Nuremberg, Germany, where he served for 3 1/2 years. The Michigan native returned stateside at the end of 1989 for a 15-month stint as an instructor at Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indiana. He was again sent on a foreign tour in 1991, this time as an adjutant for a task force in Honduras. After that five-month assignment, he rose to commander of a troop brigade back in Indiana, where he remained until the summer of 1994.

Taylor moved from base to base for four years before arriving at the Pentagon as executive officer in the Army's Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel in July 1998. The 38-year-old career serviceman -- who enjoyed running, basketball and golf in his free time -- was serving as a military assistant in that office when he was killed September 11, 2001. "His office was on the outside ring and took a direct hit," Taylor's sister, Ann Zaenglein, was quoted as saying in USA Today. "There was nothing left of his office." A Major at the time of his death, Taylor was posthumously promoted to Lieutenant Colonel. He is survived by his wife and son.

The joys and trials of new fatherhood were on KipTaylor's mind. At 8:26 a.m. on September 11, 2001, he e-mailed friends from his office in the Pentagon about how his life had changed since the birth of his son, Dean, almost two years earlier. He was happily anticipating the birth of his second son in a month. "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say, 'Hi honey, I'm home wrote the U.S. Army Major. "My conclusion is that what we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day."

At about 9:40 a.m., Taylor, 38, was killed when American Flight 77 hit the Pentagon. "We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life," said his wife, Nancy. "I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." The Taylors were happy because they had achieved something that earlier seemed impossible. After their attempts to conceive had failed, the couple turned to medical science to help them have children. Dean was the result of in vitro fertilization, as was Luke, born October 25.

The babies are a great source of comfort. "I can't imagine if I had gone through the IVF two times and it had not been successful, and then lost my husband,"Nancy Taylor said. So, when her husband's friends and admirers started asking where they could donate money in his memory, the answer seemed obvious. Nancy Taylor started a charity for infertile military couples and called it the Kip P. Taylor Fund. She explained that there are only two military facilities worldwide where in vitro fertilizations are performed, one in Washington, D.C., and one in Texas, making it difficult for military couples stationed abroad or elsewhere in this country to receive the subsidized treatment.

The fund will help couples offset the cost of traveling to the clinics and paying for lodging and food. Its Web site, www.kiptaylorfund.com, estimates that couples pay up to $5,100 out of pocket for treatments. Donations from family, friends and neighbors have brought the fund to $40,000 to date. "It's a lot," Nancy Taylor said. "But it's not enough to sustain this."

Having children is a challenge for military couples, she said, with being stationed in various places, long absences and combat service. But children play just as important a role in military families as they do in any other community, she said. "The military community does really rally around its children." To Taylor, balancing his work with a home life was essential. Though the 6-foot-5 Major cut an imposing figure in uniform, he was just as happy in jeans, cooking on his outdoor grill, building a deck on the couple's McLean, Virginia, home or tending to the lawn. But most of all, his wife said, he loved fatherhood and couldn't wait to someday coach his sons' Little League teams and attend their music recitals. Without him, his wife said, she tries to enjoy the "blessing" of her sons. But it's hard. She has not yet felt ready to return to her job as the editor of a medical newsletter. "At first I was getting by hour to hour," she said. "Then it was day to day. Now it's week to week. I hope some day it will be month to month. But it will be a while."

Six weeks after losing her husband Sept. 11, their second son was born

As Nancy Taylor endured the physical pain of childbirth October 25, 2001, at Bethesda Naval Medical Center, Maryland, she also struggled with powerful emotions and memories. Just six weeks earlier, her husband, Army Lieutenant Colonel Kip Taylor, was killed in the September 11 attack on the Pentagon. "It was hard," Taylor said. "I had been there at Bethesda less than two years before, when I had Dean. I kept recalling what it was like when Kip was there." Kip's sister and sister-in-law were with her during the delivery, which was a comfort. But still, "It didn't seem right that Kip wasn't there," she said. "It was horrible."

The approaching anniversary of the attacks has been an emotional time. She often thinks about what she, Kip and Dean were doing a year ago, including a trip to the beach a few weeks before September 11. When she looks at Dean, who turns 3 on December 28, 2003, she sees his resemblance to Kip. Baby Luke, who just started crawling, looks more like her. "The kids are my saving grace," she said. "They keep me busy. It's not that I don't think of Kip every day, because I do."

Kip Taylor was the military assistant to the Army deputy chief of staff for personnel, Lieutenant General Timothy Maude, who also was killed in the attack. Taylor decided the best way to honor her husband's memory was to help military families like hers who need fertility treatments to conceive. Both her boys were conceived through in vitro fertilization at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington.

She has established a fund to help military couples with travel and lodging expenses while they receive fertility treatments at Walter Reed or at Wilford Hall Medical Center in Texas. The Web address is http://www.kiptaylorfund.com. The fund has paid the expenses for five couples so far, she said. At least one of the five has been successful in getting pregnant. The Kip Taylor Memorial Fund covers some expenses for ROTC students at Northern Michigan University in Marquette, which Kip attended on ROTC and basketball scholarships.

Taylor collects letters, pictures and other memorabilia from generals, drill sergeants and others who worked with Kip and from schoolchildren who wrote to her after September 11. She has been overwhelmed by the generosity of those who wrote and sent gifts, many of them strangers. She has tried to respond to everyone. She points to a picture of President Bush embracing her September 17, 2001, at the Pentagon as he toured the rubble. It was a chance encounter - she was there only to pick up Kip's car from the parking lot. As her escort officer walked her through the building, Bush, who was there for a memorial service that had just concluded, appeared in the hallway with his large security entourage.

"We were told to move to the side of the hallway," Taylor said. "Everyone lined up started applauding, and he stopped and began shaking hands." Taylor approached, holding a picture of her husband that she was carrying, and told Bush that Kip had been at the Pentagon on September 11 and was still missing. Bush talked to Taylor for "a good two minutes," then embraced her and urged her to take good care of herself and her baby. Now, almost a year later, she finds that the biggest changes in her life are "the littlest things."

"Kip's absence is constantly evident," she said. "It's so different, not having him here to call and talk to during the day. Not seeing him in the house, not hearing his voice is just a huge void. It's an unspeakable loss." It has changed her perception of time. "I think time passes quickly when you have something to look forward to. Not that I don't have something to look forward to, but I guess my life is just not normal," she said. "Having no contact with Kip for a year, I feel like I haven't talked to him in years."

Looking ahead, she focuses on her boys and their view of their father. She talks to her children about him often, showing them his picture. "I hope they think about their dad in a happy, positive way, and not let the sadness overcome his memory," she said. "I'm trying to overcome that myself. At night, we pray for daddy, mommy and the whole family."

In the first year of Dean's life, she put together a time capsule for him that includes audiotapes with messages from Kip and other family members. She hasn't listened to Kip's tape. When he was recording it, he asked, "You're not going to listen to this, are you?" she said. She knows he would want his children to be aware of how much he loved them: "He wanted them to be happy and have a good life." Now she's gathering items for a time capsule for Luke. But that effort is moving slowly. "I find it hard to ask people," she said. "There has been so much sadness in the family." That sadness lingers. These days, Taylor can think of Kip and find herself smiling. "But more times, I'm crying."

Notes for Nancy Ann Melvin:

Washington - When Nancy Melvin Taylor died of cancer last week (18 November 2003) at the age of 39, it was the final act of a family tragedy that began on the morning of September 11, 2001. When they bury her at Arlington National Cemetery, she will rest in the same grave with her husband, Army Lieutenant Colonel Kip P. Taylor, 38, who was killed in the terrorist attack on the Pentagon. Husband and wife will share a simple white marble marker in Section 64.

Two years ago, Kip and Nancy Taylor were living a dream. They'd struggled for years to have a child, and finally through in-vitro fertilization Nancy had given birth to a son, Dean Ross Taylor. She was eight months' pregnant, and their second child was due in October.

At 8:26 a.m. on September 11, in his office in the Pentagon, Kip sent this e-mail to friends about the joy of fatherhood: "After kids, there are days that just get going when you say: Hi honey, I'm home! ... What we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day." At 9:40, terrorists steered American Airlines Flight 77 into the offices of the Chief of Personnel of the Army, killing many of those who worked there, including Kip Taylor. Nancy said: "We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life. I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier." Six weeks later, on October 25, 2001, Nancy gave birth to their second son, John Luke Taylor. While she was in the hospital, bringing a new life to this world, the doctors discovered that Nancy had cancer. Terminal cancer.

Nancy packed as much living as she could into the precious months that were left to her. She established a charity for infertile military couples, helping to pay their way to the only two military facilities where in-vitro fertilizations can be performed. The Kip P. Taylor Memorial Fund helps offset travel, lodging and food for military couples traveling to the hospitals. (Donations to: Kip P. Taylor Fund, P.O. Box 185, McLean, Virginia 22101.)

She loved and cherished her babies full-time, even as she wrestled with her grief over the loss of Kip Taylor, a 6-foot-5 Michigan native who came into the Army with an ROTC commission at Northern Michigan University in a program run by his father, Don. Nancy said her husband had loved fatherhood and couldn't wait for the day he could coach his sons' Little League baseball teams and attend their band concerts. On October 10 of this year, Nancy was inducted into the University of Rochester's Athletics Hall of Fame. She'd been a regional All-American in field hockey while attending the Nursing School at the university. She was, her coach said, "by far the best offensive player in school history."

What will happen to two little boys, orphaned at ages 4 and 2? Kip's brother Dean and his wife will care for them - and the Special Operations Warrior Foundation will ensure that Dean Ross Taylor and John Luke Taylor will have free college educations, everything included, in token of the fact that their father served a tour as adjutant of the Army's top-secret Delta Force.

If you're looking for a worthy charity this holiday season, you might consider the Warrior Foundation (www.specialops.org), which was created in 1980 as the Colonel Bull Simons Scholarship Fund (named for Colonel Arthur D. Simons, a legendary special-ops officer who died in 1979) to provide college educations for 17 children of nine American soldiers who were killed or disabled in the Desert One mission to rescue American hostages in Iran. That fund and others supporting Special Ops troops and families merged and became the Warrior Foundation in 1995. Its purpose is "to provide a college education to every child who has lost a parent while serving in the Special Operations Command during an operational or training mission." The Warrior Foundation provides grants, not loans. It covers tuition, books, and room and board. To date, 48 children of Special Ops soldiers have graduated with this help. More than 400 children of 380 Special Ops personnel who have died in service to our country are guaranteed the assistance. That will cost $25 million through 2010. The Warrior Foundation has $3.8 million in the bank.

Nancy Ann Melvin Taylor died on November 18, 2003 at the National Naval Medical Center. She was born in Syracuse, New York on June 25, 1964. She was a graduate of Fayetteville-Manlius High School, University of Rochester Nursing School with B.S. and received an MBA from Syracuse University. Nancy worked as a nurse in Richmond, VA and then in Syracuse, NY while she worked on her MBA. She then moved to Washington where she continued working in the health field. She was inducted into the University of Rochester's Athletics Hall of Fame on October 10, 2003. Her field hockey coach referred to her as "by far the best offensive player in the school's history". She was selected for the first team, All-Mid East Regional All-American. Nancy also enjoyed skiing and more recently golfing. She was predeceased by her husband Lt. Col. Kip P. Taylor, who was killed at the Pentagon on September 11, 2001.

She is survived by her two sons, Dean Ross, 4 and John Luke 2; her parents, Merle and Ann Melvin of Manlius, New York; two brothers, Ross D. of Syracuse and John W. of Cazenovia; an aunt and uncle, May and William Legg of LaFayette, New York; and several cousins.

Calling hours are 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday, November 23, at the Arlington Funeral Home, 3901 N. Fairfax Dr., Arlington, Virginia. There will be a memorial service at the Dewitt Community Church in Dewitt, New York on December 5 at 11 a.m. Interment and private graveside services at Arlington Cemetery will take place at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Kip P. Taylor Memorial Fund, PO Box 185, McLean, Virginia 22101; or the University of Rochester, New York 14627; or the charity of your choice.

After being diagnosed with terminal breast cancer in 2002, Nancy Melvin-Taylor compiled a "to-do"list:

• Potty train her son, Dean.
• See her infant son walk and talk.
• Get her will in order.
• And return to the University of Rochester, the place of so much glory, for her induction into the Athletic Hall of Fame.

"It wasn't easy for her," says her former coach, Jane Possee. "She wasn't well enough to come in 2002 (when she was first selected), but she came back the next year. She made it."Weeks later, she was gone, a 9/11 widow leaving behind two young sons and a story so tragic it resonates more than a decade later. On Saturday, 12 of her teammates will return to UR for homecoming on Meliora Weekend. They will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the field hockey team's first state and ECAC championships — a team powered by Melvin-Taylor.And they will celebrate having known Nancy.

"Nancy was a phenomenal athlete," says former teammate Christine Mitchell, her close friend since middle school. "But you'd never know it to be around her. She was just this happy-go-lucky person."Possee recruited her along with two teammates from Syracuse's Fayetteville-Manlius High — Mitchell (the former Chris Joor) and Dorie Gostin Massie.But make no mistake."Nancy was the star," Possee says. "She was the best offensive player I'd ever seen."

The Syracuse native was UR's field hockey All-American and graduated in 1986 as the program's record-holder for game-winning goals in one season (7) and career (19), career goals (50) and career points (114). The four-year starting forward was named to three all-state Division III teams and helped UR repeat as state champs in 1985.Not bad for someone who didn't play the game seriously until high school."I credit her mom with that," says Nancy's dad, Merle, now 86. "When Nancy was in high school, everyone was playing soccer. Ann thought field hockey would be good for Nancy. And she excelled."She was a star in the classroom, too. She graduated from UR with high honors with a bachelor's degree in nursing and went on to earn an MBA from Syracuse University.

Life in D.C.

Melvin-Taylor met her husband, Kip Taylor, when she was working in medical marketing research in Washington, D.C. They married in 1996, and two years later Kip — the son of a career Army officer — began working at the Pentagon as an executive officer in the Army's Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel.The two struggled to conceive but finally welcomed their first child, Dean, on Dec. 28, 1999, through in vitro fertilization. Two years later, Nancy became pregnant again via IVF. It was, the Taylors said, a miracle.They lived in McLean, Virginia, and loved grilling on their deck and working in their yard. The 6-foot-5 Kip enjoyed running, and playing basketball and golf. He said he dreamed of one day coaching his son's Little League team or attending dance recitals.

Their second child was due in October 2001, and Kip had another reason to be excited: That November, he would be promoted from major to lieutenant colonel. He had asked the Army to delay the promotion so that his family, who would be in town to see the baby, could be there. It was a big deal.The Taylors were on top of the world, but that world was about to be turned upside down. At 8:26 a.m. on Sept. 11, 2001, Kip e-mailed friends from his office in the Pentagon and poignantly discussed how his life had changed since becoming a dad."After kids, there are days that just get going when you say, 'Hi honey, I'm home,' " he wrote. "My conclusion is that what we do until that moment pales in comparison to what we do after that point in the day."

Seventy-four minutes later, the 38-year-old Taylor was killed when American Airlines Flight 77 struck the Pentagon during the terrorist attacks on America. His office took a direct hit. Also killed was Kip's boss, Lt. Gen. Timothy Maude, with whom Kip was meeting.Maude was the highest-ranking U.S. military officer killed in the Sept. 11 attacks and the most senior U.S. officer killed by hostile action since Lt. Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner in 1945."We knew early on that Kip was missing," says Mitchell, a marketing consultant in Boston at the time. "But Nancy thought he might be in a hospital. So many people had been severely injured and hospitalized. But someone from the military came to her house two days later and said he had been in a meeting with Kip just before the plane hit. He said there was no way Kip could have survived based on where he was."

Nancy scheduled a memorial service for her husband at Arlington National Cemetery, less than two weeks before her due date. The Army posthumously promoted Kip to lieutenant colonel."For a long time, she didn't accept that he was gone," Mitchell says. "They didn't find his body until two days before the service. And that service was something. The place was packed to the gills with all sorts of military personnel, and you could see the Pentagon from the (burial) site. It was still charred."Nancy recounted her feelings in an interview with ArlingtonCemetery.net after the memorial service.

"We were very happy, about as happy as we had ever been in our married life," she said. "I guess it's better to be taken when you're happy than when you're not. But it doesn't make it any easier."On Oct. 25, 2001, Nancy gave birth to another son, Luke."The babies are a great source of comfort," she said afterward. "I can't imagine if I had gone through the IVF two times and it had not been successful, and then lost my husband."

A 37-year-old widow with two children, Nancy courageously trudged on and started a charity in her husband's name for infertile military couples. The Kip P. Taylor Fund assisted with travel and lodging expenses for couples who received fertility treatments.Nancy found it impossible to think about returning to her job as editor of a medical newsletter. There were no other family members in Washington. A part-time nanny helped, and friends like Mitchell did their part when they visited.It was a lonely, painful time."At first, I was getting by hour to hour," she told ArlingtonCemetery.net. "Now it's week to week. I hope someday it will be month to month. But it will be a while."

But time was not on Nancy's side. While nursing 3-month-old Luke in February 2002, she felt pain in her breasts. Doctors assumed it was mastitis, an infection of the breast tissue, and put her on antibiotics. When that didn't work, they did further tests and discovered Nancy had Stage 4 inflammatory breast cancer. She was given two months to live. She initially refused chemotherapy, wanting to maximize her time left with her children. But after being diagnosed with HER2-positive breast cancer, she began taking herceptin, which blocks cancer cells from growing.

"It basically buys time," Mitchell says. Melvin-Taylor packed as much life as she could into her remaining time. She worked on the fund named after her husband. She dealt with the endless paperwork that comes from being a 9/11 widow, even the chore of selling Kip's car. And she ran a gamut of emotions. "I'd go down and we'd have gloom and doom weekends," Mitchell says. "She was very angry. But there were other weekends when she was upbeat, and we'd go apple picking with the kids."

Memory lives on

Nancy died on Nov. 18, 2003, leaving behind her 4- and 2-year-old boys. She was 39. She is buried next to her husband in Arlington National Cemetery, beneath simple white markers. Dean and Luke, who soon will turn 15 and 13, have been raised in Colorado the past 11 years by Kip's brother and sister-in-law, Dean and Donna Taylor. Dean was a lieutenant colonel in the Army, and he retired to raise his brother's children. Dean and Donna did not have any children of their own. The Special Operations Warrior Foundation ensured that Dean Ross Taylor and John Luke Taylor will have free college educations. "You get through it," Merle Melvin, Nancy's father, says of the tragedy. "You take things as they come." Merle and Ann are divorced. They have four grandsons in all — Nancy's twin, John, lives in Cazenovia and has two boys. But they don't often see Dean and Luke. "It has been a while," Merle says. "I know Luke plays baseball. That much I know."

Nancy held the UR points record for 28 years until junior Michelle Relin broke it last month. UR coach Wendy Andreatta told Relin about Melvin-Taylor's life and death the day before the record fell. "It's humbling," Relin says. "I had no idea she had such a compelling story, and such a moving story. I wish I could have met her this weekend."

Melvin-Taylor remains first in career game-winning goals and third in goals scored. But again, those are just numbers. Her legacy is more about the person she was, the wife and mom she became. "She was an incredibly strong woman," says Possee, now an associate director for athletics at UR who oversees recreation programs. "She wasn't just a great athlete, she was a great person. The story is so very sad."
