Mr. Heim was accompanied by his father-in-law, and they came direct from Philadelphia to Hepburn Township, Lycoming County, traveling most of the distance on foot. They entered 106 acres of land, which they cleared and improved. Mr. Heim lived upon this farm up to within a few years of his death, and then made his home with his daughter Margaret the balance of his days. Notes for Sophia Ulmer:

Gazette & Bulletin:

Mrs. Sophia Ulmer Bidelspacher, 81, last member of the historical Dunkard Church, of Blooming grove, died yesterday at the Williamsport Hospital. Death followed an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Bidelspacher was the mother of Charles F. Bidelspacher, former state assemblyman and now referee in bankruptcy, of 716 Market Street. She lived with a daughter, Mrs. Martha C. Edler, of 831 Market Street, but she had recently been visiting at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Christine Myers, of State College. Seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren also survive. Mrs. Bidelspacher was the widow of Jacob Bidelspacher, prominent Hepburn Township farmer at the time of his death. Her own parents migrated from Germany to Blooming Grove in 1804. They joined other German-speaking settlers there in establishing the Dunkard congregation about 1828. In recent years worship services have not been held in the old-fashioned church, which is being preserved by descendants of the settlers as a shrine. Mrs. Bidelspacher is the last of its early members and she has been affiliated with the Hepburn Baptist Church since the Dunkard Church was closed. a prayer service will be held at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Spitler funeral home, with further services at the Blooming Grove Dunkard Church. Burial will be in the church cemetery. The Rev. Maurice A. Levy, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. W.C. Hanning, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran. Friends may call at the funeral home between 7 and 9 o'clock tonight.

Notes for Edward James Wagner:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Edward J. Wagner, an enterprising young farmer who represents one of the old pioneer families of Washtenaw County, was born in Scio Township, October 3, 1882, his parents being William H. and Margaret (Berk) Wagner. The father was also born in Scio township, his natal (lay being September 1, 1848, and he was a son of Casper and Dorothea C. (Ehemann) Wagner, both of whom were native of Wittenberg, Germany. The grandfather was born June 25, 1810, and came to this country in 1837, locating first near Toledo, Ohio, where he worked on a canal. Later he came to Washtenaw County, Michigan, where he was first employed as a farm hand, but when his labor had brought him capital sufficient to justify his engaging in farming on his own account, he bought forty acres, which he cleared and improved. In 1875, having sold his original purchase, he bought one hundred acres and after disposing of that he purchased two hundred and six acres, whereon he resided until 1889. He then built him a home in Ann Arbor, where he lived retired up to the time of his death, which occurred July 23, 1910. He was first married to a Miss Allmendinger, and their only child, a son, died in infancy. After a married life of two years Mrs. Wagner died and on the 31st of October, 1847, Casper Wagner was married to Mrs. Dorothea C. Balden, nee Ehemann, the widow of Frederick Balden. She was born in Wittenberg, Germany, January 14, 1814, and died May 9, 1904. Both Mr. and Mrs. Casper Wagner thus lived to be more than ninety years of age. They held membership in the Evangelical church. In their family were three sons: William H.; John D., who was born June 7, 1851, and is now living in Plainwell, Michigan; and Herman J., who was born November 12, 1854, and died April 16, 1894. William H. Wagner, father of our subject, was reared to the occupation of farming on the old family homestead in Scio township and continued to follow that pursuit throughout his entire life. He was married at Berlin, St. Clair county, Michigan, March 18, 1875, to Miss Margaret Berk, who was born in Lorain County, Ohio, October 22, 1851, and is a daughter of John and Catherine (Heussner) Berk, both natives of Hessen, Germany, the former born January 28, 1822, and the latter December 26, 1814. Coming to America in 1837, Mr. Berk settled in Lorain County, Ohio, and in 1866 removed to this county, taking up his abode in Dexter Township, where he purchased one hundred and twenty acres of land three miles west of Dexter. He built a new house on this land and carried on general farming until 1870, when he removed to Berlin, St. Clair County, Michigan, where he purchased a farm upon which he spent his remaining days. He died May 24, 1875, and his wife died June 16, 1887. They were the parents of three sons and four daughters. Eva Eliza, the eldest, born June 25, 1840, who became the wife of Henry Spiegelberg, and died at the age of twenty-two years, leaving one son; William H., who was born January 25, 1842, and died at the age of seventeen years; Mary C., born September 17, 1849, and now living in Capac, St. Clair County; Mrs. Margaret Wagner; John F., who was born June 24, 1854, and is now living in Port Huron, Michigan; and George B., who was born January 13, 1857, and is now living on the old homestead in Berlin, St. Clair County. Margaret Berk gave her hand in marriage to William H. Wagner when twenty-three years of age, and they began their domestic life upon the home farm. He had been educated in the public schools of Scio Township and when a young man lived at home with his parents and worked on the farm. When nineteen years of age he went on a trip to Germany, spending three months abroad in sight-seeing, and in visiting his uncles and aunts. After he had been married about three years he began working the old home farm on the shares and thus continued up to the time of his death. He made money through his farming operations, which were carefully conducted, rising as high as fifteen hundred bushels of wheat some years. He lived an honest, upright life, respected by all who knew him and left to his family a comfortable competence and an untarnished name. He acted as a member of the school board for a number of years and the cause of education found in him a warm friend. He gave his political support to the Republican Party, which has always been the faith of the family. He died May 6, 1887, and his widow is now living at No. 1214 Huron street, Ann Arbor. In their family were two daughters: Sarah S., born May 4, 1876, is the wife of Dr. Otis M. Cope, of Lorain, Ohio; and Cora, born June 9, 1879, is with her mother.

Edward J. Wagner, who was born in Scio Township on the farm where he is at present living, has always been identified with farming interests. He completed his more specifically literary education in the Ann Arbor high school; he then began clerking in Ann Arbor, remaining in the employ of E. E. Beal for two years, after which he went to Saginaw, Michigan, where he was in charge of a boot and shoe business. Again going to Ann Arbor, he was in the employ of Schairer & Millen for a year and a half, at the end of which time he attended Cleary Business College, at Ypsilanti, Michigan, at which institution he took their business course. He was married soon after finishing his course at Ypsilanti, and returned to the old homestead farm in Scio Township on the 1st of April, 1905. Here he is farming along modern business lines, and in the present year harvested about fourteen hundred bushels of wheat.

On the 8th of February, 1905, Mr. Wagner was married to Miss Maude Wilkerson, a daughter of Horace and Dora (Johnson) Wilkerson, both of whom were natives of Dundee, Monroe County, Michigan. The father, who engaged in the operation of a flour mill at Dundee, also owned an interest in a sawmill and was likewise engaged in the lumber business. He possessed excellent business equipment and was a respected and honored citizen. Fraternally he was connected with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at Dundee, and also with the Masons in which order he had taken twenty degrees. In politics he was a republican. He died in 1899, while Mrs. Wilkerson is still living in Dundee. They were the parents of three children, Margaret, Maude and Nan. Mr. Wagner is a member of the Disciples church at Ann Arbor, and he exercises his right of franchise in support of the men and measures of the Republican Party. He is well known in the city as well as in Scio Township, and is a popular young man, enterprising in business, and with a host of warm friends in the county, where almost his entire life has been passed and where his ancestors settled in pioneer days.

He married Rosina Heim 12 May 1861 in Williamsport, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, daughter of Johannes Heim and Rosina Wagner. She was born 08 Aug 1838 in Blooming Grove, Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 07 Oct 1928 in Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Johann J. Heim:

The John J. Heim family arrived in Dawson in the spring of 1882, coming from the same area of Pennsylvania as the other Heim families. When the Johnnie Heim family migrated to Nebraska in 1881, John J. came with them, the two men were brothers-in-laws as Johnnie's wife Margaret, was his sister. Probably one reason John J. came in 1881 was to see what this wonderful Nebraska looked like, as he might want to come sometime too. He liked what he saw, no stones in the fields, and the hills were not hills compared with those of Pennsylvania. He sold his 80 acre farm in Pa. for $5500 and had a public sale of property they could not use here or could not bring. They did ship a car of household goods and came by train themselves as everyone did by this time.

This family of father, mother, and seven children stayed a short time with the Johnnie Heim family until they bought the Henry Allen farm of 160 acres, paying $4500 for it. Henry Allen had passed away in 1877 at the age of 58, so this might have been at the settling of his estate or from the heirs. It was across the road from the Jacob G. Heim farm and is the present home of Violet Heim and the late Lowell Heim. He was a great grandson of John J. and Rosina Heim. All the buildings on this farm were fairly good and no changes were made until 1886 when they built a big basement barn. Since that time many changes have been made.

John J. was good at grafting fruit of all kinds and did quite a bit of it for him and for others. On his 80th birthday he set up several shocks of wheat just to prove to himself that he still could do it. Grandma Rosina loved flowers and brought with her from Pa. starts of some favorites. As the children married and had homes of their own, all received starts of them, for they loved them too. These were the very double yellow daffodils, the very fragrant Madonna lilies, the single Tiger lily and a thorn less, double white rose. She also always had a bed of Spice Pinks of various shades of pink and red.

Their family was, Elizabeth Heim, who married Samuel F. Heim. They had their own farm about 2 miles northwest of the home farm. In later years their large pear orchard should be remembered by many as it supplied many people in the area with fruit. They built all the buildings on this farm. It was raw prairie when Sam started farming it a few years before they married. A granddaughter, Janis and her late husband, Bill Martin now own the farm.

Jacob S. Heim married Rebecca Heim (the girl who lived across the road). Jake and Becky had their own farm, three and a half miles from Dawson, where Dennis Thacker now lives. Jake planted a large Cedar and White Pine Grove and parts of that grove is still standing. All buildings on this farm were built by them to relocate and renew those on the farm when they were married. Becky loved trees too and bought and planted the first Tulip tree (sometimes called Yellow Poplar) in this part of Nebraska. The last of May and first part of June it is covered with yellow tulip shaped blossoms. She had "the green thumb" if anyone did as she grew houseplants from seed. The tulip tree still stands near the drive into the Dennis Thacker home yard.

Anna Heim married Charles E. Stoltz. Anna and Charley farmed in the county and for several years owned and operated the Hardware store in Dawson. He was overseer of the Prison Farm at Lincoln for several years. After retirement they lived in San Antonio, Texas.

Mary Heim married Clarence W. Stratton. This couple worked in the area and their decedents are still living in the Dawson area.

Israel L. Heim, who married Gertrude Draper built a home of their own on his parent's farm near their small home and took over the farming. He and Gertie took care of his parents for many years. Many were the big family gatherings held first at grandpa and grandma's that soon out grew their small house and were later held at Uncle Israel's and Aunt Gertie's house instead.

William C. Heim married Ethel Barlow. He learned telegraphy from the depot agent in Dawson. Later he started working for various railroads advancing in the work as the years passed. At retirement he was chief freight agent at Phoenix, Arizona for the Southern Pacific Railroad. They then bought an apricot ranch at Cupertino, California. Through the years Ethel nearly always had a class of music students which she enjoyed teaching.

Lucy Heim married Dr. Walter E. Draper, who was a physician in Manila, Iowa, later moving to Sioux City, Iowa. He specialized in rectal disorders. After retirement they went to live near their daughter and family in Billings, Montana and Albuquerque, New Mexico.

And as you may have guessed by now, John J. and Rosina Heim were the parents of my father, and my grandparents. Jacob S. and Rebecca Heim were my parents.

Notes for Christian David Heim:

Christian D. Heim was born on the homestead in Hepburn Township, Lycoming County, August 31, 1841, and is a son of Jacob and Regina Heim. He was reared a farmer, and when twenty-three of age removed to his present home. He was married, October 6, 1864, to Elizabeth Gross, who is the mother of seven children: Louise, who married J. W. Waltz; Ephraim; Hannah, who married C. F. Fisher; Sarah A.; Susie; Joseph, and Samuel. Mr. Heim is an ardent Democrat, and has been a delegate to the county conventions a number of times, and also a member of the standing committee. He has held nearly all the offices in his township, and has been a school director for nine years, and is now township auditor. He is a member of the Dunkard Church, and one of the respected citizens of Eldred Township.

"Christmas in old Blooming Grove" (Written by Susan H. Little, and read at the Christmas Meeting of Lycoming County Historical Society, Dec. 19. 1940). - Blooming Grove is the community in Hepburn Township, centering around the old Dunkard Church, built more than a century ago. Today there is not a member of that church living. My father, Christian D. Heim, was the last person living who always belonged there. The members of that church did not observe the customs and modes of dress of the Lancaster County Dunkards. Their leaders, Dr. Haller and later "Christly" Heim, did not think it necessary for the men to wear the broad rimmed hats. Or the women wear the little white caps, yet they lived simply and plain, honest in their dealings. The old Church was seldom opened in winter. No Sunday School was ever held in the Church. The only Sunday School was held in the old Klump's school house, and then only in the summer time. Therefore, in that community there was no Christmas entertainment or observance in the Church.

What I am telling now is what I remember of my own family and our celebrating Christmas, which I suppose was typical of the families around there. Those were the days of large families and I think probably the Heim family was one of the largest. I am number five in a family of seven; my father was one of ten. Jacob and Regina Heim, who lived on a sixty-acre farm near the old church, had five sons and five daughters. All grew up, married and had families. So the family gatherings on Christmas Day were not a small one.

In our own home, we lived on the farm of my maternal Grandfather Joseph Gross, and for good measure we had, living on the farm and boarding with Grandfather, old Doctor E.M. Adams, who was written up in the history of "Early Doctors of Lycoming County." The Doctor's word was law, so it seemed, but he must have thought he was entitled to have his say since he paid his board, the sum of thirty dollars a year, which included house rent and all his fire wood - but that is another story.

We were not taught to believe in Santa Claus. They used to say, "people who love you are the Kris Kringle" -much was made of the Kris Kinder Christ Child. There was however, an old "Bels Nickle", who was supposed to visit children with a switch if they were not good. I can remember only once a neighbor young man played the part to frighten my younger brothers. We must have been good as can be "jes before Christmas". Several days before Christmas we children made long strings of popcorn and paper chains with which to decorate the tree our parents brought that in on Christmas Eve. We were hustled to bed early - but how could we sleep! The rattling of paper and voices of our parents, auntie and Grandma kept us awake a long time! About two weeks before, my mother had made her shopping trip to Williamsport, Grandfather's contribution was a dollar, to be spent for candy at "Harrington's Sugar Bowl". Many of you remember the place, on East Third St. Especially were we to have candy canes and baskets of red and white candy. How they helped decorate the tree and how pretty we thought they were - seven canes and seven baskets.

Once a year the old doctor opened his purse strings to the amount of five dollars - given to Mother to spend for the children, "but nothing foolish." I can't remember that she ever got anything for herself from him, but she appreciated the favors and could make a little money go a long way. He seemed satisfied if we all got the useful things - sometimes school books, slates or pencils, caps, mittens or the long gray woolen stockings. Real stockings they were - how we despised them...yet they kept us warm and the ugly colors kept us humble, for they didn't want pride to get into our little hearts. Once in a while, I think mother forgot the practical side and brought home dolls for the girls and even a pop gun for the small boys. The small doll I remember best was a little china one - and I broke her arm off on Christmas afternoon. For several years I dressed and undressed and cared for my little cripple. What a lark there was with the popgun, shooting paper wads for ammunition. Brother Joe, being left handed, we couldn't tell which way he was going to shoot, and I rather think the old Doctor got a shot or two - by accident, of course!

The tree was put in the center of a table and seven places, from the oldest down, were allotted to us. No matter how early we were awake none of us dared go into the room where the tree was until Doctor came. He wanted to see us enjoy our tree and gifts. After we had enjoyed everything for a while, we all got ready to go to Grandfather Heim's, a distance of two miles. It seems to be we always had snow, for my recollections are of the big sled in which we went. My older brother took his sled to go coasting with the cousins. When we arrived and went into the house - seven strong- it was always the same order of procedure, every family of the ten did the same. I think we were coached at home just what we must do, or possibly what to expect if we didn't. The old kitchen and living room were large, with a fireplace on one side and a big wood stove on the other. We left our warps in the bedroom just off the kitchen, with its four-poster bed and patchwork quilt, home made rag carpet on the floor and a real Grandfather's clock in the corner. Then we were marched up to shake hands with Grandfather, who was rather a stern person. By that time we were feeling a bit shaky. All of us were to say our "Christmas Verse" to him - "Glory to God in the highest," etc. in German. When it came my turn I had heard it often enough I could say it quite easily - and it is the only German verse I could say today. Grandfather then brought out a basket of English walnuts, something we saw only on Christmas. Each child was given three nuts. Then Grandmother came with her gifts. To each child a half-pound of Clear Toy candy wrapped in pages of the German paper, "Der Weltboten," tied with colored carpet chain. Grandfather did some weaving and chain was cheap.

To the older boys and girls they gave gifts. Once I recall each boy got a quarter and we were quite impressed with such wealth. The girls got sewing kits, needles, thimble and thread. They were expected to be industrious and of course, couldn't manage finances like the boys. To the small girls was given a bright colored piece of calico, two yards in length, to be used in making quilts. Imagine the thrill of a nine-year-old over a piece of calico. I never found use for mine, and still have several pieces among my souvenirs. After all this was over we could go out to play. Grandmother passed out cookies; nice fat ones with a raisin in the middle, some cut out in the shape of stars or birds. The big girls helped set the tables and the aunties got the dinner, which was served promptly at noon. There were a healthy lot of men and women around that first table and the plain food was enjoyed. By the time we were called to dinner, in spite of all the apples, cookies and walnuts, we were ready to eat what was put before us. Sometimes the old minister, Rev Carl Roose, who lived alone, was invited for the day. Once I remember he asked us all if we were good girls and boys. Some meekly said yes, they were, but when it came to my sister Hannah, it was too much for her, and she said, "Not always, just sometimes." That was chance for a sermonette on always being good. For a time it looked as if she might not get her candy after all, but I think mother defended the child, saying she was glad she told the truth. Another time the Doctor, who didn't like women, came in and when he saw the group sitting around, each holding one of her offspring, he said "Well I suppose each one of you thinks you have the prettiest child." Dear old Grandmother said, "No Doctor, not the prettiest, but the dearest."

Before we went home all met in the largest room and Grandfather took down his family Bible and read the beautiful chapter, "There were in the same country shepherds abiding in the fields," ect. He told of the love, peace and good will the Christ Child came to bring, and that's why we are happy on that day. The day was spent and we went home, perhaps some of us went to sleep on the way. But we were happy and eagerly looked forward to the long time till another Christmas came. We didn't seem to care how little we had; it was just one happy day with the cousins. Once when there forty grandchildren there, Grandmother said, "Well children, I was glad to have you come, but I'm glad too, that you all have your mothers to go home with." What would she and Grandfather say if they saw the Christmas lights on our streets, the bright trees with all the modern tinsel, could hear the radio send out on the air, "Stille Nacht, Heilige Nacht?"

I am glad I had the opportunity of taking my parents on their one visit to Philadelphia on a sight seeing trip and through Wanamakers's just before Christmas. They could hardly believe anything could be so wonderful. Have children lost something of the thrill we had? Or does it take more for them? My young granddaughter, aged nine, calmly looking over her gifts, perhaps more than we had all together, said, "I still think there must be a Santa Claus, for daddy and mother wouldn't put our so much money on us." Money seems to have entered into the Christmas Spirit.

Our parents didn't know about the "budget". That was a new word to them. Nor had they heard of the installment plan or "buy now and pay next year." I'm glad I lived to know that kind of a Christmas, but am more thankful for the better things of now, which perhaps, we enjoy more because we didn't have them then.

The ten children of Jacob and Regina Heim, who with their families celebrated Christmas as described in this article, were: Gottlieb and Sarah Marvin Heim, Frederick and Dorothy Heim Shafer, Jacob Jr. and Mary Shafer Heim, John J. and Rosina Heim Heim, Christian D. and Elizabeth Gross Heim, John (Johnnie) and Margaret Heim Heim, John B. and Regina Heim Waltz, Joseph and Catherine Waltz Heim, Simon and Christina Heim Waltz, Samuel and Mary Heim Shafer

Williamsport, Feb. 21, 1935 – The ancient Blooming Grove church, built in 1828 by men and women who came from Germany in search of religious freedom, stands silent and deserted again now that its last member has died. The church, little changed since the day it was erected, was reopened recently for the funeral of Christian D. Heim, who died at the age of 93. Heim was a son of one of the builders.

A handmade wooden table serves as a pulpit. Worshipers sat on backless benches. The walls are of hand-hewn white pine from virgin forest, of a length and breadth which surprise, those unfamiliar with the forest of the early days. Adze marks are plain on their squared surface. The logs have weathered to a beautiful reddish brown, and the cracks have been filled with white plaster. Hardware and hinges are handmade. Heim related that years ago some member walked as much as six miles to Sunday afternoon services, carrying children too young to walk. Youngsters who went to sleep were laid on the floor under the benches until the service ended. Men and women sat on opposite sides of the church.

Notes for Johann (John or Johnnie) Heim:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1087:

The late John Heim, who for more than a generation was a well-known and well-to-do farmer of Dawson, Richardson county, was a native of the old Keystone state, which he left and came to Nebraska in 1881 and farmed in this county for the remainder of his life, or up to the time of his death in 1916. He was born on July 18, 1836, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the son of Christian and Rosina (Wagner) Heim, natives of Germany, who came to the United States in an early day.

John Heim left Pennsylvania in 1881 and on coming to Richardson County settled on a farm north of Dawson. His first investment in land was one hundred and sixty acres, on which he carried out many necessary improvements and planted to crops. Later, he added a further tract of one hundred and sixty acres and still later he bought eighty acres of prime land, all lying in Dawson. He met with considerable success on these different parcels of land and was regarded as an enterprising and modern farmer in his methods, and at the time of his death on April 14, 1916, his passing was a source of much sorrow to his many relatives and friends throughout this and neighboring counties. Mrs. Heim's son-in-law, Henry W. Heim, is now the owner of the old home place on which John Heim originally settled; the eldest son, Jonas A. Heim, owns the other one hundred and sixty acres and Mrs. Heim is in occupation of the eighty acres on the site of which the United Evangelical church and cemetery are located.

John Heim was united in marriage on April 27, 1861, to Margaret Heim, who was born on December 31, 1843, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a daughter of Jacob and Regina (Steiger) Heim, natives of German and Pennsylvania, respectively. To John and Margaret Heim, eight children were born as follow: Rosa, Regina, Jonas A., Christian F., Martha, who died in infancy; Malinda, Bertha, who died in infancy, and Alma. Of these children, Rosa became the wife of Joseph G. Heim, of Dawson; Regina married Henry W. Heim and has seven children, Lottie, Charles, Martha, Paul, Harlan, Jessie and John, and Lottie married Clyde Iloff and has two children, Harlan and Enid; Charles married Pearl Klima and has two children. Anna Martha and Genevieve; Martha is the wife of Arthur Klimar and has one child. Virginia, Jonas A., a farmer near Dawson, married Ida Emerson and has four children, Linden, Edna, Waldo and Marie, Christian F., of Eddyville, this state, married Ada Barlow and has two children, Margaret Ruth and Ellen; Malinda, who married Bert Judd, of Dawson, and has two sons, John H. and Delbert, and Alma, who was the wife of William James and was the mother of one child, Alma. Mrs. Heim has seventeen great grandchildren.

The late John Heim was a member of the Dunkard Church while living in Pennsylvania, and was a consistent supporter of that organization. In politics he was a Republican, but had never been a seeker after public office. His death was the occasion of general regret in this and neighboring counties, where he was well known and esteemed.

Notes for Robert Edward Muehlig:

Edward R. Muehlig, 83, owner of the Muehlig and Lanphear Hardware store at 311 S. Main Street and a lifelong resident of Ann Arbor, died suddenly last night April 27, 1960 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a week's illness. His home was at 801 W. Liberty Street. Mr. Muehlig was born on Dec. 24, 1876, in Ann Arbor, a son of John and Lydia Volz Muehlig. He and Lydia W. Guenther of Ann Arbor were married on Sept. 24, 1903. She survives.

He started in the hardware business here at the Muehlig and Schmid Hardware, located at 205 S. Main Street, in 1888. In 1929, Mr. Muehlig and the late O. Don Lanphear bought the business from an uncle, Edwin Muehlig, and moved it to its present location. Mr. Muehlig bought out the Lanphear interest in 1947. He was a member of Zion Lutheran Church and had served the church council for more than 25 years. Mr. Muehlig was a life member of Golden Rule Masonic Lodge, No. 159, F&AM.

Survivors, in addition to his wife, include two sons, Erwin W. Muehlig, who was associated with his father in the hardware store, and Robert E. Muehlig of the Muehlig Funeral Home; and four grandchildren, Kathleen C., Carol A., Linda D., and Gary R., all of Ann Arbor.

Funeral services for Mr. Muehlig will be held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Muehlig Chapel, with the Rev. Ralph B. Piper officiating. Burial will follow in Forest Hill Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to Zion Lutheran Church.

Sept. 15, 1961 – Muehlig & Lanphear Hardware, which has conducted business operations at 311 S. Main Street since 1929, is going out of business. The firm owned by Erwin Muehlig and his brother, Robert E. Muehlig, assistant manager of the Muehlig Funeral Chapel, Inc. Erwin said all hardware stock and fixtures are involved in a special sale prior to closing out the business in settlement of the Edward Muehlig Estate.

The late Edward Muehlig, who died a year ago, owned the hardware firm, sharing ownership with the late Donald Lanphear until he sold his interest to Mr. Muehlig in 1947. Mr. Lanphear died three years ago. Neither of the Muehlig's can recall when the hardware firm was originated. Prior to 1929, it was located at 205 S. Main and was known as Muehlig and Schmid Hardware. Before that the firm was called Schuh & Muehlig.

Erwin Muehlig said the close-out sale is expected to last three to four weeks. Mrs. James J. O'Kane of Ann Arbor owns the building which houses the hardware store. So far the store has not been leased to another concern. Mrs. O'Kane husband said.

To them were born four children, three sons and one daughter, all living: Lee, Norman, Mary and Leonard. He became a member of the Presbyterian Church upon a confession of his faith, December 4, 1912. Until failing health prevented he was a frequent attendant at Sunday school and church services. He was very industrious and frugal in his habits and these characteristics were rewarded. He leaves to his family an abundance of this world's goods. He was a worthy example of what a young man may do if he embraces his opportunities.

A loving husband, a tender father and a kind neighbor and the highest type of Christian citizenship, he leaves a wife, four children and one brother to mourn his loss. The funeral was held in the Presbyterian Church at Delphos Nov. 4, at 2:30 p.m., conducted by G.S. Smith, assisted by the pastor of the Methodist Church at Ada. Interment in the Delphos Cemetery with the burial rites of the I.O.O.F. of which he was a member.

Notes for Walter B. Ryals:

Walter B. Ryals, 81, of Boise, passed away Tuesday, Dec. 12, 1995, in a local hospital. Services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 16, at Summers Funeral Homes, Boise Chapel. The Rev. Kent Schaufelberger of Mountain States Tumor Institute will officiate. Burial will follow in Terrace Lawn Cemetery.

Walter was born July 17, 1914, in Boise. He was the son of Walter Bert and Clara H. Ryals. He grew up in the Boise-Mayfield area and attended Boise schools. He met his childhood sweetheart, Ruby T. Ulmer, when she was in the sixth grade. They were married June 9, 1934, and were married 54 years, until Ruby's death in May of 1990. Walter worked as a welder in many shops in Boise, the latest being Jones Boiler and Mechanical, Inc. Walter and Ruby and their daughter moved to Seattle during World War II, where he was a leadman at the shipyard. They moved back to Boise in 1949 where they lived the rest of their lives. He enjoyed dancing, singing and lively music. He also enjoyed camping and fishing, especially with his grandson Jeff.

Walter was a very dedicated family man. He would be there for all of us anytime any of us needed him. His family was his life. He will always be loved and missed by all. As Walter leaves us, he leaves us with these thoughts: Miss Me, But Let Me Go When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little, but not too long, and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love we once shared., Miss me but let me go! For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go it alone. It's a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know, and bury your sorrow in doing good deeds. Miss me, but let me go.

Walter is survived by his daughter, LaMoyné Rognlie and her husband Paul of Boise; four grandchildren, Shauna Howell and her husband Dick of Kirkland Washington, Jeff Records and his wife Kolleen of Boise, Dawn Monroe and her husband Ken of Boise, and Candace Adkins of Boise; six great-grandchildren, Aaron, Ruby and Christopher Howell, Jennifer Records, Jonathan Monroe and Zackaire Adkins. He is also survived by his sisters Cecile O'Day, Palm Desert, California, and Hazel Hurlburt, New Plymouth; and a sister-in-law and brother-in law, Wanda and Carl Borup, Boise; and many nieces and nephews. He leaves behind a very "Special Friend" and dance partner, Mabel Valentine, Caldwell.

Walter was preceded in death by his parents, his wife and his sister, Esther.

Memorials may be made to the Boise Senior Center, 690 Robbins Rd., Boise Idaho 83702, or flowers may be sent. Friends may call today, Dec. 15, until 7 p.m. at Summers Funeral Homes, Boise Chapel.

Notes for Leone Valentine Shaffer:

Leone Shaffer, the eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shaffer was fatally torn and cut in a mowing machine last Saturday morning. The accident happened on the Shaffer farm near Lindsey. Leone, although never allowed in the field alone, had gone with his father that morning, he running the mowing machine, and his father the tractor in the same field. After making several rounds of the field, Mr. Shaffer looking back, noted that Leone had stopped his team, but noting nothing unusual went a little farther and turned the corner. He then saw the team Leone had been driving, coming to the house. Upon investigating he found Leone unconscious, lying face downward. Turning him on his back, he found that the boy was badly cut, and immediately sent for help. An artery was cut in his left shoulder and one in his leg, and he lived but a few minutes. The reins were hung on the lever, showing that Leone had gotten down for something, and from the looks of the ground it appeared that the horses had plunged several times.

Leone Valentine Shaffer was born near Lindsey, Feb. 14, 1910, and died July 23, 1921, at 10:00 o'clock, aged eleven years, five months and nine days. Funeral services were held at the Free Methodist church at Lindsey Monday, July 25, at 2 p.m., conducted by Rev. Fike, assisted by rev. York. Music was furnished by Mrs. L.E. Harvey and Mrs. Arthur Rees. The pall bearers were six of Leone's little friends: Herbert Gottschall, Sonny Hill, Hershal Pitts, Kenneth Hart, Everett Bruce, and George Jones. Leone was a good boy, and will be deeply missed by all who knew him. The sympathy of the community goes out to the grief-stricken relatives.

575. Una Marguerite⁷ Thomas (Rosina⁶ Gohl, Johann Jakob⁵, Anstadt (Anastasius)⁴, Johann Georg³, Anstadt², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 01 Feb 1890 in Minneapolis, Ottawa Co, Kansas, and died 11 May 1914 in Ottawa Co, Kansas. She married Herbert Henry Startzman 24 Apr 1912. He was born 13 Nov 1891 in Bennington, Ottawa Co, Kansas, and died 08 Nov 1970 in Minneapolis, Ottawa Co, Kansas.

Notes for Una Marguerite Thomas:

Una Marguerite Startzman, youngest daughter of W.M. and Rosie Thomas, was born February 1, 1890, in Ottawa County, Kansas, near Minneapolis. Una spent her childhood days in the district schools until she had completed the grades and then attended the high school at Minneapolis. The following winter she completed a business course in the Milliken Business College at Amarillo, Texas. She was married to Herbert Henry Startzman April 24, 1912, by Rev. Osgood and has lived on a farm northwest of Bennington since. A daughter, Joan Startzman, came to their home on the evening of May 10, 1914, and preceded its mother to the Spirit World by only a few hours. Una passed to her eternal life at 1:22 a.m., May 11, 1914.

When the seriousness of her illness was noted, her mother recommended her child to the care of Christ and Una, in her pain answered, "Yes, I know and trust." She was conscious to the last and told them she was dying and bid her Jesus "Come." Una's love of music, her cheerful disposition and unselfish life made her the sunshine of home.

She leaves her husband, parents, five sisters, one brother and numerous relatives and friends to mourn her loss. One brother, Franklin Thomas, passed away June 26, 1896. The sisters were present at the funeral, but the brother, Elmer Thomas, of Ghost Pine, Canada, was unable to be present.

The funeral service was held in the home of Mr. Thomas, father of the deceased Wednesday at 1 p.m. and interment took place in the Highland cemetery at Minneapolis. Rev. F.H. Osgood officiated at the funeral. The text of the sermon was Job 19:21, "Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me." Music was furnished by a choir from Minneapolis, composed of Mrs. Jesse George, Mrs. Arthur Rees, Frank Woods and Charles Brown; Miss Gladys Popham, organist.

Marriage Notes for Una Thomas and Herbert Startzman:

April 25, 1912 – At eight last evening at the residence of the bride's parents near Lindsey, Miss Una Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Thomas, and Herbert Startzman, son of Mr. and Mrs. D.B. Startzman, were united in marriage. A wedding reception followed the ceremony, giving many of the friends of the happy couple, both of the older and younger generations, a chance to extend congratulations and good wishes.

Two estimable Ottawa County families are joined by this wedding, and two of our most charming and popular young people start out in life together. May the craft of their affections, pleasures and fortunes steer always clear from perils of life's ocean, to enjoy a voyage replete with blessings.

633. Emanuel⁷ Ulmer (Martin⁶, Johann Leonard⁵, Christina Margaretha⁴ Gohl, Johann Michael³, Isaac², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 08 Mar 1856 in Blooming Grove, Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 30 Jun 1934 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. He married Sarah Elizabeth Heim 29 Dec 1881 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, daughter of Jacob Heim and Regina Gross. She was born 01 Jul 1858 in Warrensville, Eldred Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 29 Mar 1935 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Emanuel Ulmer:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1068:

Emanuel Ulmer, one of Richardson County's well-known and progressive farmers and the proprietor of a fine farm in the vicinity of Dawson, in the precinct of Grant, is a native of the old Keystone state, but has lived in this county since 1881 and has therefore watched the wonderful development that has been made in this region since pioneer days. He was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, March 8, 1856, son of Martin and Catherine (Shaefer) Ulmer, both of whom were born in that same county, of German parentage, and the former of whom died there in 1870, leaving his widow with a considerable family of children. In 1884 she came to Nebraska with her younger children and established her home on a farm in Grant precinct, this county, in the neighborhood of the home her elder son, the subject of this sketch, had established there two or three years previously, and there he spent the remainder of her life, her death occurring in 1903. Elsewhere in this volume there is set out somewhat more at length something of the history of this pioneer widow and her family, together with some details of the genealogy of the Ulmer family, and to that reference the attention of the reader is respectfully invited in this connection.

Having been but fourteen years of age when his father died, Emanuel Ulmer early began to "hustle" for himself and grew up earnest, sober and self-reliant. He was trained as a farmer and in the fall of 1881 came to Nebraska with a view to establishing his home on a farm out here in the beautiful valley of the Nemaha, of which he had heard much from other Pennsylvanians who had settled here earlier. He bought a tract of land from Jacob Heim, a Lycoming County, (Pennsylvania) man, who had settled here in 1874 and had made heavy investments in farm lands, and after his marriage a few months later to one of Mr. Heim's daughters, established his home on that farm and has ever since made his residence there. For the unimproved quarter section he originally bought he paid three thousand dollars and as he developed that place and prospered in his affairs he gradually added to his holdings until he became the owner of four hundred acres of fine land, but has since sold a quarter section to his sons and now holds but two hundred and forty acres, his original home quarter section and an "eighty" to the south. He has two houses on his home farm and excellent farm buildings, the entire farm plant being operated along modern and up-to-date lines. In addition to his general farming Mr. Ulmer has given considerable attention to the raising of livestock, with particular reference to Shorthorn cattle and Poland-China hogs, and has done very well, long having been regarded as one of the most substantial farmers in his neighborhood.

On December 29, 1881, just a few months after coming to this county, Emanuel Ulmer was united in marriage to Sarah Heim, who also was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, July 1, 1858, daughter of Jacob and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of that same county, who came to Nebraska in 1874 and became early recognized as among the most influential and useful pioneers of the Dawson neighborhood. Elsewhere in this volume there is set out at considerable length something of the history of the Heim family in this county, together with biographical sketches of several members of the family. Jacob Heim, the pioneer, died at his home in Grant precinct in April, 1914, at the age of eighty-two years, and his widow is now-making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer.

To Emanuel and Sarah (Heim) Ulmer six children have been born, namely: Mary, who married Charles E. Wuster, of Porter precinct, this county, and has two children, Orville and Miriam; Norman, who married Merdeth Miller and lives on the farm adjoining that of his father; Edna, who is at home; Walter, who is attending the Evangelical College at Le Mars, Iowa, and Reuben, who is farming with his brother, Norman, and who married True Stratton and has one child, a daughter, Evelyn, and Nelson, at home. Mrs. Ulmer and the children are members of the United Evangelical Church and Mr. Ulmer, who was reared a Baptist, attends the same, the family taking a proper part in all neighborhood good works, as well as in the general social activities of the community in which they live. Mr. Ulmer is a Democrat, but on local issues is inclined to cast his vote independent of party lines, preferring to recognize personal fitness rather than party allegiance as a qualification for office. Mr. Ulmer is a contributing member of the local chapter of the Red Cross Society.

He married Sophia Heim 05 Dec 1893 in Richardson Co, Nebraska, daughter of Jacob Heim and Regina Gross. She was born 19 Jul 1868 in Warrensville, Eldred Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 31 Jan 1951 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Martin Daniel Ulmer:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 908:

Martin D. Ulmer, one of Richardson county's best-known and most progressive farmers and the proprietor of a fine place of a quarter section in the precinct of Grant, is a native of the old Keystone state, but has been a resident of this county since 1884 and has thus been a witness to and a participant in the development of this region during the past thirty years and more. He was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, September 13, 1861, son of Martin and Catherine (Shaefer) Ulmer, both natives of that same county and both of German descent, the latter of whom became a pioneer of Richardson county and here spent her last days, having come here as a widow in 1884.

Martin Ulmer was the son of Leonard Ulmer, a native of Germany, a son of Leonard Ulmer, Sr., who was a son of Thomas Ulmer. The junior Leonard, the first of his family to come to this country, married Marie Stump in his native land and in 1804 came to the United States, settling in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, where he and his wife established their home and where they reared their family. Their son, Martin Ulmer, grew to manhood on the home farm in that county and there married Catherine Shaefer, a daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth (Gunter) Shaefer, also natives of Germany, who had emigrated to the United States in 1804 and had settled in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, neighbors to the Ulmers. After his marriage Martin Ulmer established his home on a farm in his native county and there spent the rest of his life, his death occurring in 1870. In 1884 his widow disposed of her interests in Pennsylvania and with her children came to Nebraska and settled in Richardson County. She bought a quarter of a section of land just across the highway from the farm owned by the subject of this sketch and Nyhich he bought at the same time, and there she lived until 1894, when she moved to Dawson, making her home with a son and daughter, her death occurring in 1903, she then being seventy-five years of age. She was the mother of five children, those besides the subject of this sketch being Henry (deceased), Israel, of Dawson, this county; Emanuel; of Grant precinct, and Sarah E., of Dawson. Emanuel Uhner married Sarah Heim and has six children, Mary, Norman, Edna, Walter, Reuben and Nelson. Mary Ulmer married Charles Wuster and has two children, Orville and Miriam. Norman Ulmer married Merdeth Miller. Reuben Ulmer married True Stratton and has one, child, a daughter, Evelyn.

As noted above, it was in 1884 that Martin D. Ulmer came to Richardson County, accompanying his widowed mother from Pennsylvania. He bought a quarter of a section of land in the precinct of Grant, the place he ever since has occupied, right across the road from the quarter section his mother bought. When he bought the place it had but slight improvements on it, a little one-room house, a tumble-down barn and a decrepit corncrib, but he went to work with energy and it was not long until he began to get results, soon having one of the best improved farms in that neighborhood and he ever has made a point of keeping his place up to standard. His fine residence occupies a commanding site on a beautiful rise and the surrounding grove of evergreens and the adjacent vineyard lend picturesqueness to the spot. The large barn and well-ordered farm buildings are in keeping with the central establishment, the entire farm plant bearing the unmistakable imprint of its owner's progressive and up-to-date methods of doing business. Upon buying that place Mr. Ulmer found it necessary to incur a considerable indebtedness, but he soon got that paid off and has prospered in his operations. In addition to his general farming he has paid considerable attention to the raising of high-grade livestock, with particular attention to Black Angus cattle and Poland China hogs, and has done very well. He and his sister now own the farm their mother formerly owned and rent the same to advantage. Mr. Ulmer is a Democrat and has ever given a good citizen's attention to local political affairs, but has not been a seeker after public office.

On December 5, 1893, Martin D. Ulmer was united in marriage to Sophia Heim, who also was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, July 19, 1868, daughter of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of Pennsylvania, who came to this county in 1874 and settled on a farm one mile north of Dawson, becoming early, recognized as among the most substantial and influential pioneers of that neighborhood. Jacob G. Heim, further and fitting reference to whom is made elsewhere in this volume, died in April, 1914, he then being eighty-two years of age, and his widow is still living in this county, now making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Emanuel Ulmer. Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer have had three children, Erma, born on May 22, 1896, who is a graduate of the Dawson high school class of 1913, and who is still at home; Wallace H., born in 1903, who died in 1904, and Mildred, born on February 15, 1909. The Ulmers have a very pleasant home and have ever taken an interested part in the general social and cultural activities of their home neighborhood and of the community at large, helpful in many ways in promoting agencies having to do with the advancement of the common welfare. Mr. Ulmer was reared a Baptist and Mrs. Ulmer is a member of the United Evangelical church, both taking a proper part in neighborhood good works. Every member of this family has contributed liberally to the Red Cross movement and Mr. Ulmer has shown his patriotism by buying Liberty Bonds.

- 1241 v. Ruth Evelyn Ulmer, born 11 Jul 1907 in Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania; died 25 Jan 2009 in Ashland, Boyd Co, Kentucky.

Notes for Ruth Evelyn Ulmer:

Williamsport Sun Gazette, January 27, 2009;

Ruth Evelyn Ulmer, (II Tim. 4:7: "...I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.") of Ashland, Kentucky, went to be with her Lord on January 25, 2009. She was born on July 11, 1907 in Hepburn Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the daughter of the late Thomas L. and Ida Jane Waltz Ulmer. Ruth grew up on her parent's farm near Balls Mills, Pennsylvania.

Born again into God's family at the age of 10, she was baptized and accepted into the membership of Hepburn Baptist Church, Cogan Station, Pennsylvania in 1917. She graduated from Philadelphia School of the Bible, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1930 and attended Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1931 also in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Upon completion of her schooling, Ruth served the Lord at Green Pasture Jewish Mission, Brooklyn, NY and then in the youth ministry of the local church at Mehoopany, PA. In 1932, from deep in the mountains of eastern Kentucky, there came a call for help. A missionary had to leave her field of service due to illness. Would someone please come and take over her work? So, Ruth like Abraham, "went out by faith, not knowing wither (s)he went" (Hebrews 11:8), Virgie, Kentucky was not even on the map; but the Lord was leading and she followed. There was no promise of support so she stood firmly on Philippians 4:19; God promised he would provide. She had nine wonderful, thrilling, years sharing his word with the people of Virgie. Through the years, there followed other areas of service: Printer, Kentucky for 10 years, at Volga, Kentucky for 27 years and finally at Ashland, Kentucky, working in the local church in Sunday School work and visitation ministry. All who knew Ruth were impressed by her gentle spirit. From time to time, she would come back to Pennsylvania, where she was always invited to speak at churches in the local area. She told of different experiences that revealed her love for God and the people she served.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Nelson W. Ulmer and T. Theodore Ulmer and her sisters, Florence A. Gehr and Gertrude E. Paulhamus.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday, January 29 at the Summit Church of the Nazarene, with Pastor Tim Daniels officiating. Burial will follow in Coalton Cemetery. Funeral arrangements by Steen Funeral Homes.

694. Joseph Gross⁷ Heim (Jacob G.⁶, Gottlieb⁵, Christina⁴ Gohl, Johann Georg³, Anstadt², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 09 Mar 1857 in Warrentown, Eldred Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 03 Oct 1931 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. He married Rosina (Rosa) Heim 1881, daughter of Johann Heim and Margaretha Heim. She was born 05 May 1863 in Blooming Grove, Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 08 Feb 1954 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Joseph Gross Heim:

History of Richardson County, Nebraska: Its People, Industries and Institutions, Volume 2, 1917, page 1331-1332:

Joseph G. Heim, of Dawson, Richardson County, is a man of varied attainments in the agricultural life of the community in which he resides. As a farmer, breeder of cattle, hogs, and sheep, as well as fruit growing, his life may be described as a busy one. He was born on March 9, 1857, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, also natives of the same county and state.

Jacob G. Heim was born on June 15, 1832, in Pennsylvania, the son of Gottlieb and Margaret (Steiger) Heim, who were natives of Wurtemberg, Germany, and who came to the United States about 1808. Jacob G. Heim, who followed the occupation of farming all his life, came to Nebraska in 1874. He located on section 15, Grant Township, Richardson County, and bought four hundred acres of land. His first experience in this place was somewhat unfortunate, as he lost the whole of his first year's crops, the grasshoppers eating every growing thing on his land. This experience, however, was not repeated and he continued to farm with much success up to the time of his retirement. A few years before his death he moved to Dawson; later he moved to the farm home of Emanuel Ulmer and died there in 1914. His wife, Regina (Gross) Heim were the parents of eleven children, four of whom are deceased, the others being Joseph G., the subject of this sketch; Mrs. Sarah Ulmer, who lives in Grant township; Samuel F.; Jonathan E.; Rebecca, the wife of Jacob S. Heim; Sophia, who married Martin D. Ulmer; and Maggie who married Thomas Wuster, and all of whom are living in Grant township, this county.

Joseph G. Heim came to Nebraska with his parents in 1874, he then being seventeen years of age. In 1882 he rented land from his father and in 1884 he bought his first farm in section 10, Grant precinct. The tract was all unimproved and he set up to work to bring it into a state fit for cultivation. He built a substantial house, put up three barns and set out ten acres to an orchard for fruit growing, in which he has been very successful, selling his fruit locally and shipping large quantities. He is regarded as one of the most progressive fruit growers in this part of the state.

Mr. Heim's entire acreage i sections 19, 26 and 27, in Grant Township, amounts to two hundred and forty acres of choice land, all of which with the exception of the portion set out to the orchard, is operated for general farming purposes. He is an extensive breeder of Holstein cattle and Duroc-Jersey hogs and has an excellent strain of pure breed Shropshire sheep, several of which he keeps for breeding purposes. For several years Mr. Heim has been a member of the Shropshire Breeders Association of Lafayette, Indiana. In all his varied business activities he has shown much enterprise and sound judgement.

On December 22, 1881, Joseph G. Heim was united in marriage to Rosa Heim, daughter of John and Margaret (Heim) Heim, who came to Richardson County in 1881, the year of their daughter's marriage to Mr. Heim. John Heim is dead and his widow is now living on the farm in section 15, Grant Township. Joseph G. Heim and wife are the parents of six children, namely: Mrs. Bertha Shively, of Calloway, this state; Mrs. May Belden, of Grant Township; Emerson, who lives on the homestead in Grant Township; Olive and John, both deceased, and Alice, who is attending high school. The Heim family are members of the United Evangelical Church and are active in all its good works.

Mr. Heim is a Republican and gives active support to that party, though sometimes voting the independent ticket. For two years he acted as township assessor, giving general satisfaction in that office. He was elected to the Dawson school board about twenty years ago and has been an active worker on the board during that time, serving as president of the board for several years. In 1892 Mr. Heim became superintendent of the Sunday school attached to the United Evangelical church in Dawson, and has continued since in that capacity. He increased the membership of the classes form twenty-five to over two hundred, thus giving evidence of his zeal on behalf of the Sunday school. He is also a trustee of the church. In June, 1916, Mr. Heim moved to Dawson where he built a modern and well-equipped bungalow and where he and his family are comfortably situated.

Falls City - Joseph G. Heim, 74, pioneer farmer and fruit grower, died Saturday night Oct. 3, 1931 at his home in Dawson following a stroke. He moved to the Dawson vicinity with the first settlers from Pennsylvania in 1874 and until a few years ago lived on a farm. He had been a community leader 20 years, was president of the school board and a member of the village council. His widow, a son and three daughters survive him.

Notes for Emanuel Ulmer:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1068:

Emanuel Ulmer, one of Richardson County's well-known and progressive farmers and the proprietor of a fine farm in the vicinity of Dawson, in the precinct of Grant, is a native of the old Keystone state, but has lived in this county since 1881 and has therefore watched the wonderful development that has been made in this region since pioneer days. He was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, March 8, 1856, son of Martin and Catherine (Shaefer) Ulmer, both of whom were born in that same county, of German parentage, and the former of whom died there in 1870, leaving his widow with a considerable family of children. In 1884 she came to Nebraska with her younger children and established her home on a farm in Grant precinct, this county, in the neighborhood of the home her elder son, the subject of this sketch, had established there two or three years previously, and there he spent the remainder of her life, her death occurring in 1903. Elsewhere in this volume there is set out somewhat more at length something of the history of this pioneer widow and her family, together with some details of the genealogy of the Ulmer family, and to that reference the attention of the reader is respectfully invited in this connection.

Having been but fourteen years of age when his father died, Emanuel Ulmer early began to "hustle" for himself and grew up earnest, sober and self-reliant. He was trained as a farmer and in the fall of 1881 came to Nebraska with a view to establishing his home on a farm out here in the beautiful valley of the Nemaha, of which he had heard much from other Pennsylvanians who had settled here earlier. He bought a tract of land from Jacob Heim, a Lycoming County, (Pennsylvania) man, who had settled here in 1874 and had made heavy investments in farm lands, and after his marriage a few months later to one of Mr. Heim's daughters, established his home on that farm and has ever since made his residence there. For the unimproved quarter section he originally bought he paid three thousand dollars and as he developed that place and prospered in his affairs he gradually added to his holdings until he became the owner of four hundred acres of fine land, but has since sold a quarter section to his sons and now holds but two hundred and forty acres, his original home quarter section and an "eighty" to the south. He has two houses on his home farm and excellent farm buildings, the entire farm plant being operated along modern and up-to-date lines. In addition to his general farming Mr. Ulmer has given considerable attention to the raising of livestock, with particular reference to Shorthorn cattle and Poland-China hogs, and has done very well, long having been regarded as one of the most substantial farmers in his neighborhood.

On December 29, 1881, just a few months after coming to this county, Emanuel Ulmer was united in marriage to Sarah Heim, who also was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, July 1, 1858, daughter of Jacob and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of that same county, who came to Nebraska in 1874 and became early recognized as among the most influential and useful pioneers of the Dawson neighborhood. Elsewhere in this volume there is set out at considerable length something of the history of the Heim family in this county, together with biographical sketches of several members of the family. Jacob Heim, the pioneer, died at his home in Grant precinct in April, 1914, at the age of eighty-two years, and his widow is now-making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer.

To Emanuel and Sarah (Heim) Ulmer six children have been born, namely: Mary, who married Charles E. Wuster, of Porter precinct, this county, and has two children, Orville and Miriam; Norman, who married Merdeth Miller and lives on the farm adjoining that of his father; Edna, who is at home; Walter, who is attending the Evangelical College at Le Mars, Iowa, and Reuben, who is farming with his brother, Norman, and who married True Stratton and has one child, a daughter, Evelyn, and Nelson, at home. Mrs. Ulmer and the children are members of the United Evangelical Church and Mr. Ulmer, who was reared a Baptist, attends the same, the family taking a proper part in all neighborhood good works, as well as in the general social activities of the community in which they live. Mr. Ulmer is a Democrat, but on local issues is inclined to cast his vote independent of party lines, preferring to recognize personal fitness rather than party allegiance as a qualification for office. Mr. Ulmer is a contributing member of the local chapter of the Red Cross Society.

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 945:

Among the extensive and prosperous farmers of Richardson County must be included Samuel F.

Heim, of Grant Township, owner of seventeen hundred and sixty acres of excellent farming land, three hundred and twenty acres of which are located in sections to and 16, in Grant township, and fourteen hundred and forty acres in Hitchcock county, this state. He was born on November 17, 1859, in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, and is the son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, who were also born in the Keystone state and to whom further and more detailed reference is made in another part of this work, in the course of a sketch relating to Joseph G. Heim, a brother of the subject of this sketch.

Jacob G. Heim, who came to Nebraska in 1874, was born in Pennsylvania on June 15, 1832, the son of Gotlieb and Margaret (Steiger) Heim, who came to America from Germany about 1808. Up to the time of his retirement a few years before his death, Jacob G. Heim was actively engaged in operating his farm of four hundred acres in section 15, Grant precinct, in which he was the pioneer settler of the Pennsylvania colony. He was married to Regina Gross, who was born on July 13, 1825, and is now in her ninety-second year.

Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim were the parents of eleven children, four of whom are deceased, the others being Joseph G., who lives in Dawson, this county; Mrs. Sarah Ulmer, who lives in Grant township; Samuel F., the subject of this sketch; Jonathan W.; Rebecca, the wife of Jacob Heim; Sophia, who married Martin D. Ulmer, and Margaret, who is the wife of Thomas Wuster, and all of whom are living in Grant precinct, this county. The father of these children died in 1914 and his widow now lives with her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Ulmer.

Samuel F. Heim was in his fifteenth year when he came with his parents to Nebraska, arriving on June 11, 1874, and remained at Rulo for a brief period of three weeks with some friends and on July 3, moved with his parents to Grant precinct. His first employment in Richardson County was herding cattle on the plains and farming. Sometime later he obtained his first tract of land from his father, who had purchased a half section in Grant Township, and Samuel F. Heim began farming operations on his own account.

As he prospered in his farming work, he continued to add to his land holdings and is now the owner of seventeen hundred and sixty acres of prime tillage and fattening land. On his holdings, generally, Mr. Heim has effected some very extensive improvements and has set out an excellent grove of trees and an orchard and in the latter is engaged in fruit-growing, the produce being sold and shipped in large quantities. Mr. Heim has been one of the Richardson county farmers who has helped to reclaim the prairie and convert it into well-cultivated fields and pasture lands.

On February 14, 1889, Samuel F. Heim was united in marriage to Elizabeth Heim, who was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and is the daughter of John J. and Rosa (Heim) Heim, who were the parents of seven children, all of whom are now living. John Heim and wife now reside of section 10, Grant Township. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Heim are the parents of six children, namely: Mrs. Luella Clark Belden, residing in Montana; Mrs. Adah F. James, who lives in Porter precinct; Tillie, who married Ed. Richards, living in Porter precinct; Melvin, Mary and Richard, at home.

Mr. Heim is a supporter of the Republican Party, but has never held public office. He and his family are members of the United Evangelical church, and are liberal supporters of its various activities. In 1916 Mr. Heim installed throughout his home and barns a Delco electric system, using the lights in the home and the outbuildings; also using the electric system for pumping water, washing and many other purposes.

Samuel Franklin Heim, son of Jacob G. and Regina Gross Heim, was born near Williamsport, Pennsylvania, Nov. 7, 1859, and died Jan. 8, 1946, having attained the age of 86 years, 1 month and 21 days. Early in 1874 he moved with his parents to Nebraska, settling first at Rulo. In July of 1874 the family moved to the old Jacob G. Heim farm at Dawson, now occupied by the Arthur Heim family.

He was united in marriage to Elizabeth Heim on Feb. 14, 1889. During that summer they built the home in which they resided for more than 53 years of their married life, and which remains as an old landmark in the community. To this union were born six children, Mrs. Luella Belden of Buffalo, Montana, Mrs. Adah James of Dawson, Nebraska, Mrs. Tillie Richards who preceded him in death in 1938, Melvin J. of Dawson Nebraska, Mrs. Mary Bilsing of Culbertson, Nebraska, and Rev. Richard A. of Hastings, Nebraska.

In old age he found much comfort and Joy in his 25 grandchildren, 23 of whom survive, and in 11 great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held in the Evangelical church of Dawson, Nebraska, on Friday, Jan. 11, with the pastor, Rev. C. E. Nichols, in charge. Burial was in the Heim cemetery in Dawson.

Notes for Jonathan W. Heim:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1086:

Jonathan W. Heim is another of those Richardson county farmers who have come to this part of Nebraska from the old Keystone state and who have become owners of land on extensive scale. He lives on a farm on which his father settled in July, 1874, containing eighty acres of land in section 15, Grant precinct, and is the owner of one hundred and sixty acres in section 10 and another tract of eighty acres west of Henry Heim's place. He was born on August 11, 1861, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of the same county and state. Who settled in Richardson County in 1874.

When Jacob G. Heim settled here he bought eighty acres of land on which his son, Jonathan W., now resides. He proceeded at once to prepare the ground for crops and was in a fair way to make a success of his work, when in common with the other settlers he suffered from the plague of grasshoppers which visited Nebraska in 1874. The first year spent on his new holding was a hard one; in addition to the grasshopper pests, it turned out to be a dry year and vegetation did not thrive. He also suffered the loss of two children. His courage, however, did not desert him and by perseverance and industry he prospered, later buying, another half section of land.

Jonathan W. Heim was about twelve years of age when he came with his parents from Pennsylvania to the state of Nebraska. He was educated in the district schools and in Dawson, this county. He helped his father on the farm and later bought one hundred and sixty acres of land from his father. On this tract he commenced farming operations on his own account and meeting with a fair measure of success, he added to his holdings by the further purchase of eighty acres. Some time before his father's death he bought out the home place, the father having gone to reside in Dawson, and here ever since he has continued to make his home. The house in which he resides is nicely situated back from the road on a hillside, with a nice grove of walnut trees in the rear. The house and outbuildings are all in excellent condition. By his thrift and industry Mr. Heim has been in a position to pay cash for all his land.

On December 26, 1894, Jonathan W. Heim was united in marriage to Louisa Shafer, who was born on October 20, 1872, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a daughter of Samuel and Mary (Heim) Shafer, who now reside in Canada, just across the border eight miles west of Buffalo. They formerly lived in Nebraska and later went to the western portion of this state. Sometime later they went to Dickerson County, Kansas, and remained there for a number of years and in the late nineties moved to Iowa, going from there to the old home place in Pennsylvania. From the latter place they moved to Canada, across from Buffalo, about three miles from Lake Erie and now reside in a settlement among his church people, the Brethren in Christ. Mr. and Mrs. Heim are the parents of seven children, namely: Mattie M., Howard John, Pearl Mary, Wesley Laurence, all at home; Clarence Walter, who died at the age of three years; Arthur William and Edith Viola, both at home. Mr. and Mrs. Heim and family are members of the United Evangelical church and take a proper interest in all church matters. Mr. Heim is a supporter of the Republican Party, but has never been a seeker after office.

History of Richardson County, Nebraska: Its People, Industries and Institutions, Volume 2, 1917, page 1034-1035:

Another member of the Heim family who is a prominent farmer of Richardson County, is Jacob S. Heim, owner of one hundred and sixty acres of fine farming land in the northeast quarter of section 8, Grant precinct. He is a native of the Keystone state, having been born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, on July 16, 1866. He is a son of John J. and Rosina (Helm) Heim, and has been a resident of this part of Nebraska since he was sixteen years old.

John J. Heim, also a native of Pennsylvania, was born on July 2, 1847, in Lycoming County, that state. He continued to live there for thirty-five years, at the end of which time, in 1882, he came to Grant precinct, Richardson County, and bought one hundred and sixty acres of land, which he at once proceeded to cultivate. As time went on, he prospered in his farming operations and later added to his land holdings. He owned the place on which his son, Jacob S., now lives, and he is now living retired on the Israel L. Heim place; his wife, who is somewhat older than he is, also lives on the same place. To John J. Heim and wife the following children were born: Elizabeth, who married Samuel Heim, of Grant precinct, this county; Jacob S., the subject of this sketch; Mrs. Anna Stoltz, who lives in Porter precinct; Mrs. Mary Stratton, who lives in Brownville, this state; Israel L., of Grant precinct, on the old Heim homestead; William, who lives in Phoenix, Arizona, and Lucy, who married E. Draper, Manila, Iowa.

As stated above, Jacob S. Heim was sixteen years old when he came with his parents to this county in 1882. For a period of five years he attended the Dawson district schools and on leaving school he worked for his father on the farm for several years, or up to the time of his marriage. He then moved to his present farm of one hundred and sixty acres, which he bought from his father. On this land he has made many valuable improvements and in 1914 built a modern house at a cost of fifty-five hundred dollars, and which is one of the most substantial residences in Grant precinct. It is equipped with furnace, hot and cold water, gas lights and other features that go to make up a comfortable home. In 1907 he erected a substantially built barn, thirty-two by thirty-eight feet, and in other ways has kept abreast of requirements making for efficiency in his farming operations.

On March 1, 1892, Jacob S. Heim was united in marriage to Rebecca Heim, who was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a daughter of Jacob G. and Regenia (Gross) Heim, further mention of whom is to be found in another part of this work. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Heim are the parents of two children, namely, Verna, who was graduated from Dawson high school in 1913 and now living with her parents, and Elma, who attends the district school.

Mr. and Mrs. Heim and their children are members of the United Evangelical church and are earnest attendants on its services. Notes for Martin Daniel Ulmer:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 908:

Martin D. Ulmer, one of Richardson county's best-known and most progressive farmers and the proprietor of a fine place of a quarter section in the precinct of Grant, is a native of the old Keystone state, but has been a resident of this county since 1884 and has thus been a witness to and a participant in the development of this region during the past thirty years and more. He was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, September 13, 1861, son of Martin and Catherine (Shaefer) Ulmer, both natives of that same county and both of German descent, the latter of whom became a pioneer of Richardson county and here spent her last days, having come here as a widow in 1884.

Martin Ulmer was the son of Leonard Ulmer, a native of Germany, a son of Leonard Ulmer, Sr., who was a son of Thomas Ulmer. The junior Leonard, the first of his family to come to this country, married Marie Stump in his native land and in 1804 came to the United States, settling in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, where he and his wife established their home and where they reared their family. Their son, Martin Ulmer, grew to manhood on the home farm in that county and there married Catherine Shaefer, a daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth (Günter) Shaefer, also natives of Germany, who had emigrated to the United States in 1804 and had settled in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, neighbors to the Ulmers. After his marriage Martin Ulmer established his home on a farm in his native county and there spent the rest of his life, his death occurring in 1870. In 1884 his widow disposed of her interests in Pennsylvania and with her children came to Nebraska and settled in Richardson County. She bought a quarter of a section of land just across the highway from the farm owned by the subject of this sketch and Nyhich he bought at the same time, and there she lived until 1894, when she moved to Dawson, making her home with a son and daughter, her death occurring in 1903, she then being seventy-five years of age. She was the mother of five children, those besides the subject of this sketch being Henry (deceased), Israel, of Dawson, this county; Emanuel; of Grant precinct, and Sarah E., of Dawson. Emanuel Uhner married Sarah Heim and has six children, Mary, Norman, Edna, Walter, Reuben and Nelson. Mary Ulmer married Charles Wuster and has two children, Orville and Miriam. Norman Ulmer married Merdeth Miller. Reuben Ulmer married True Stratton and has one, child, a daughter, Evelyn.

As noted above, it was in 1884 that Martin D. Ulmer came to Richardson County, accompanying his widowed mother from Pennsylvania. He bought a quarter of a section of land in the precinct of Grant, the place he ever since has occupied, right across the road from the quarter section his mother bought. When he bought the place it had but slight improvements on it, a little one-room house, a tumble-down barn and a decrepit corncrib, but he went to work with energy and it was not long until he began to get results, soon having one of the best improved farms in that neighborhood and he ever has made a point of keeping his place up to standard. His fine residence occupies a commanding site on a beautiful rise and the surrounding grove of evergreens and the adjacent vineyard lend picturesqueness to the spot. The large barn and well-ordered farm buildings are in keeping with the central establishment, the entire farm plant bearing the unmistakable imprint of its owner's progressive and up-to-date methods of doing business. Upon buying that place Mr. Ulmer found it necessary to incur a considerable indebtedness, but he soon got that paid off and has prospered in his operations. In addition to his general farming he has paid considerable attention to the raising of high-grade livestock, with particular attention to Black Angus cattle and Poland China hogs, and has done very well. He and his sister now own the farm their mother formerly owned and rent the same to advantage. Mr. Ulmer is a Democrat and has ever given a good citizen's attention to local political affairs, but has not been a seeker after public office.

On December 5, 1893, Martin D. Ulmer was united in marriage to Sophia Heim, who also was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, July 19, 1868, daughter of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of Pennsylvania, who came to this county in 1874 and settled on a farm one mile north of Dawson, becoming early, recognized as among the most substantial and influential pioneers of that neighborhood. Jacob G. Heim, further and fitting reference to whom is made elsewhere in this volume, died in April, 1914, he then being eighty-two years of age, and his widow is still living in this county, now making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Emanuel Ulmer. Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer have had three children, Erma, born on May 22, 1896, who is a graduate of the Dawson high school class of 1913, and who is still at home; Wallace H., born in 1903, who died in 1904, and Mildred, born on February 15, 1909. The Ulmers have a very pleasant home and have ever taken an interested part in the general social and cultural activities of their home neighborhood and of the community at large, helpful in many ways in promoting agencies having to do with the advancement of the common welfare. Mr. Ulmer was reared a Baptist and Mrs. Ulmer is a member of the United Evangelical church, both taking a proper part in neighborhood good works. Every member of this family has contributed liberally to the Red Cross movement and Mr. Ulmer has shown his patriotism by buying Liberty Bonds.

Notes for Thomas Frederick Wuster:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 927:

Thomas F. Wuster, one of the best-known and most substantial farmers in the precinct of Grant, this county, was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, January 24, 1878, son of Christ and Martha (Marquard) Wuster, who came to this state in June, 1879, and became pioneers in Porter precinct, Richardson County. Further and fitting reference to the Wuster family in this County is made elsewhere in this volume.

Reared on the home farm in Porter precinct, he having been but two years of age when his parents settled there, Thomas F. Wuster received his schooling in the schools of that neighborhood. He began working out at the early age of eleven years and worked constantly from the time he was fourteen years of age. In the spring of 1900 he began farming for himself. For one year he rented the Strunk farm and then in 1901 he bought his present place of a quarter section in the precinct of Grant, and there established his home and has ever since resided there, he and his family being very comfortably situated. His house, built in 1908, is one of the best in that neighborhood and the general farm buildings are in keeping with the same, the place being looked upon as one of the best-improved farms in that part of the county. In addition to his general farming Mr. Wuster gives considerable attention to the raising of live stock, with particular reference to sheep and hogs. He has a flock of more than one hundred and twenty head of sheep and in 1916 fed more than four hundred head of sheep for the market.

On March 7, 1901, Thomas F. Wuster was united in marriage to Margaret Heim, who was born on a pioneer farm in the precinct of Grant, Richardson County, May 37, 1880, daughter of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, prominent and influential pioneers of this county and further and extended reference to whom is made elsewhere in this volume, and to this union seven children have been born, namely: Minerva born on December 28, 1901; Ruth, November 6, 1903; Frederick, July 3, 1905; Dorothy, December 31, 1906; Joseph, September 11, 1909; Milton, July 18, 1912, and Dwight, April 23, 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Wuster are members of the Evangelical Lutheran church and take a warm interest in church affairs, as well as in the general good works of the community in which they live, helpful in many ways in promoting such agencies as are designed to advance the common welfare thereabout. Mr. Wuster is independent in his political views, preferring to keep himself free to vote for the most competent candidate for public office without regard to party affiliations. He not only is a progressive and wide-awake farmer, but a public spirited citizen and tries to do his part in advancing the interests of the community of which he has been a resident since the days of his early childhood.

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 945:

Among the extensive and prosperous farmers of Richardson County must be included Samuel F. Heim, of Grant Township, owner of seventeen hundred and sixty acres of excellent farming land, three hundred and twenty acres of which are located in sections to and 16, in Grant township, and fourteen hundred and forty acres in Hitchcock county, this state. He was born on November 17, 1859, in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, and is the son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, who were also born in the Keystone state and to whom further and more detailed reference is made in another part of this work, in the course of a sketch relating to Joseph G. Heim, a brother of the subject of this sketch.

Jacob G. Heim, who came to Nebraska in 1874, was born in Pennsylvania on June 15, 1832, the son of Gottleib and Margaret (Steiger) Heim, who came to America from Germany about 1808. Up to the time of his retirement a few years before his death, Jacob G. Heim was actively engaged in operating his farm of four hundred acres in section 15, Grant precinct, in which he was the pioneer settler of the Pennsylvania colony. He was married to Regina Gross, who was born on July 13, 1825, and is now in her ninety-second year.

Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim were the parents of eleven children, four of whom are deceased, the others being Joseph G., who lives in Dawson, this county; Mrs. Sarah Ulmer, who lives in Grant township; Samuel F., the subject of this sketch; Jonathan W.; Rebecca, the wife of Jacob Heim; Sophia, who married Martin D. Ulmer, and Margaret, who is the wife of Thomas Wuster, and all of whom are living in Grant precinct, this county. The father of these children died in 1914 and his widow now lives with her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Ulmer.

Samuel F. Heim was in his fifteenth year when he came with his parents to Nebraska, arriving on June 11, 1874, and remained at Rulo for a brief period of three weeks with some friends and on July 3, moved with his parents to Grant precinct. His first employment in Richardson County was herding cattle on the plains and farming. Sometime later he obtained his first tract of land from his father, who had purchased a half section in Grant Township, and Samuel F. Heim began farming operations on his own account.

As he prospered in his farming work, he continued to add to his land holdings and is now the owner of seventeen hundred and sixty acres of prime tillage and fattening land. On his holdings, generally, Mr. Heim has effected some very extensive improvements and has set out an excellent grove of trees and an orchard and in the latter is engaged in fruit-growing, the produce being sold and shipped in large quantities. Mr. Heim has been one of the Richardson county farmers who has helped to reclaim the prairie and convert it into well-cultivated fields and pasture lands.

On February 14, 1889, Samuel F. Heim was united in marriage to Elizabeth Heim, who was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and is the daughter of John J. and Rosa (Heim) Heim, who were the parents of seven children, all of whom are now living. John Heim and wife now reside of section 10, Grant Township. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Heim are the parents of six children, namely: Mrs. Luella Clark Belden, residing in Montana; Mrs. Adah F. James, who lives in Porter precinct; Tillie, who married Ed. Richards, living in Porter precinct; Melvin, Mary and Richard, at home.

Mr. Heim is a supporter of the Republican Party, but has never held public office. He and his family are members of the United Evangelical church, and are liberal supporters of its various activities. In 1916 Mr. Heim installed throughout his home and barns a Delco electric system, using the lights in the home and the outbuildings; also using the electric system for pumping water, washing and many other purposes.

Samuel Franklin Heim, son of Jacob G. and Regina Gross Heim, was born near Williamsport, Pennsylvania, Nov. 7, 1859, and died Jan. 8, 1946, having attained the age of 86 years, 1 month and 21 days. Early in 1874 he moved with his parents to Nebraska, settling first at Rulo. In July of 1874 the family moved to the old Jacob G. Heim farm at Dawson, now occupied by the Arthur Heim family.

He was united in marriage to Elizabeth Heim on Feb. 14, 1889. During that summer they built the home in which they resided for more than 53 years of their married life, and which remains as an old landmark in the community. To this union were born six children, Mrs. Luella Belden of Buffalo, Montana, Mrs. Adah James of Dawson, Nebraska, Mrs. Tillie Richards who preceded him in death in 1938, Melvin J. of Dawson Nebraska, Mrs. Mary Bilsing of Culbertson, Nebraska, and Rev. Richard A. of Hastings, Nebraska.

In old age he found much comfort and Joy in his 25 grandchildren, 23 of whom survive, and in 11 great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held in the Evangelical church of Dawson, Nebraska, on Friday, Jan. 11, with the pastor, Rev. C. E. Nichols, in charge. Burial was in the Heim cemetery in Dawson.

History of Richardson County, Nebraska: Its People, Industries and Institutions, Volume 2, 1917, page 1034-1035:

Another member of the Heim family who is a prominent farmer of Richardson County, is Jacob S. Heim, owner of one hundred and sixty acres of fine farming land in the northeast quarter of section 8, Grant precinct. He is a native of the Keystone state, having been born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, on July 16, 1866. He is a son of John J. and Rosina (Helm) Heim, and has been a resident of this part of Nebraska since he was sixteen years old.

John J. Heim, also a native of Pennsylvania, was born on July 2, 1847, in Lycoming County, that state.

He continued to live there for thirty-five years, at the end of which time, in 1882, he came to Grant precinct, Richardson County, and bought one hundred and sixty acres of land, which he at once proceeded to cultivate. As time went on, he prospered in his farming operations and later added to his land holdings. He owned the place on which his son, Jacob S., now lives, and he is now living retired on the Israel L. Heim place; his wife, who is somewhat older than he is, also lives on the same place. To John J. Heim and wife the following children were born: Elizabeth, who married Samuel Heim, of Grant precinct, this county; Jacob S., the subject of this sketch; Mrs. Anna Stoltz, who lives in Porter precinct; Mrs. Mary Stratton, who lives in Brownville, this state; Israel L., of Grant precinct, on the old Heim homestead; William, who lives in Phoenix, Arizona, and Lucy, who married E. Draper, Manila, Iowa.

As stated above, Jacob S. Heim was sixteen years old when he came with his parents to this county in 1882. For a period of five years he attended the Dawson district schools and on leaving school he worked for his father on the farm for several years, or up to the time of his marriage. He then moved to his present farm of one hundred and sixty acres, which he bought from his father. On this land he has made many valuable improvements and in 1914 built a modern house at a cost of fifty-five hundred dollars, and which is one of the most substantial residences in Grant precinct. It is equipped with furnace, hot and cold water, gas lights and other features that go to make up a comfortable home. In 1907 he erected a substantially built barn, thirty-two by thirty-eight feet, and in other ways has kept abreast of requirements making for efficiency in his farming operations.

On March 1, 1892, Jacob S. Heim was united in marriage to Rebecca Heim, who was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a daughter of Jacob G. and Regenia (Gross) Heim, further mention of whom is to be found in another part of this work. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Heim are the parents of two children, namely, Verna, who was graduated from Dawson high school in 1913 and now living with her parents, and Elma, who attends the district school.

Mr. and Mrs. Heim and their children are members of the United Evangelical church and are earnest attendants on its services. Mr. Heim is a warm supporter of the Republican Party and is now serving on district No. 92 school board, and has been treasurer of the same since 1901, his interest in educational affairs being generally recognized throughout the county.

She was a charter member of the Evangelical church where she attended faithfully until about four years ago when she could no longer leave her home.

734. Anna Margaret⁷ Heim (Johann J.⁶, Jacob⁵, Christina⁴ Gohl, Johann Georg³, Anstadt², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 11 Feb 1869 in Blooming Grove, Hepburn Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 03 Oct 1961 in San Antonio, Bexar Co, Texas. She married Charles Edward Stoltz 1894, son of William Stoltz and Mary Ulmer. He was born 23 Apr 1870 in Cogan Station, Lycoming Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 22 Jun 1944 in San Antonio, Bexar Co, Texas.

Notes for Charles Edward Stoltz:

Charles E. Stoltz, for years a well-known and successful farmer, living in Franklin precinct, this county, has recently disposed of his fine farm consisting of one hundred and sixty acres of prime land, all in an excellent state of improvement; however, he is still the owner of forty acres of land in Texas, in the irrigated section of the Rio Grande. He was born on April 23, 1870, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the son of William and Mary (Ulmer) Stoltz, also natives of the same county and state. William Stoltz was a son of Jacob Stoltz, a native of Germany. Mary Ulmer was the daughter of Isaac Ulmer and wife.

William Stoltz came to Richardson County from Pennsylvania in 1886 and located between Dawson and Stella, where he bought one hundred and sixty acres of raw prairie land. He moved his family to the farm the following spring and began the task of clearing the ground for cultivation. William Stoltz was born in 1847 and died on March 20, 1915. His wife, Mary Ulmer, was born on May 31, 1849, and died on January 11, 1901. They were the parents of the following children: Charles E., the subject of this sketch; Jacob F., who lives in Aurora, Illinois; Isaac H., of Onaga, Kansas; Samuel, who lives in Chicago; William F., who lives on the home farm; Ezra W., of Jerome, Idaho; Daniel, who died in 1878; Martin, who died in 1896; Mrs. Clara Bobbitt, who lives in Jerome, Idaho, and Hattie, who lives in Porter precinct. Of these children, Charles E. was educated in the Lycoming county schools, Pennsylvania, and Jacob was graduated from the Stella high school and from the University of Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. William Stoltz were married on June 22, 1869.

Following his education, Charles E. Stoltz assisted his father in building up a home and continued in this way up to the time of his marriage in 1893. In the latter year he rented his father's farm for four years and later bought out the home place, subsequently selling it. In 1904 he moved to Dawson and for two years was engaged in the hardware and implement business and then sold out. In 1906 Mr. Stoltz bought an improved farm near Holdridge, Phillips County, Nebraska. He was the second man to pay fifty dollars an acre for land in that locality, and sold his holding at an enhanced price of seventy-five dollars an acre. He then moved to Franklin precinct, this county, and bought the farm which he vacated about twelve months ago, paying one hundred dollars an acre for the same in 1908. This tract of one hundred and sixty acres he parted with in 1916, obtaining one hundred and seventy-five dollars an acre for the land.

On February 9, 1893. Charles E. Stoltz was united in marriage to Anna Heim, who was born in Lycoming county-, Pennsylvania, on February 11, 1869, daughter of John J. and Rosina Heim, also natives of that state. Further mention of this branch of the Heim family will be found in another part of this work in a sketch relating to Israel Heim. To Mr. and Mrs. Stoltz four children have been born, as follow: Esther, born on June 23, 1895; Iva, December 27, 1900; Carl, December 30, 1904, and Mildred, October 20, 1908.

Mr. Stoltz is a Democrat, but has never sought public office. He is a member of the Knights of Pythias and of the Modern Woodmen, and in the affairs of both organizations he takes a warm interest. He and his wife and family are members of the United Evangelical church.

Notes for Israel Luther Heim:

History of Richardson County, Nebraska: Its People, Industries and Institutions, Volume 2, 1917, page 1061-1062:

Israel L. Heim figures among the best and most enterprising members of the farming community in Richardson County. As a breeder of thorough bred registered cattle his name is known outside the limits of his county, many breeders of Aberdeen Polled Angus cattle attending his private sales to obtain some of that choice starin for breeding purposes. He was born on October 26, 1873, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a son of John J. And Rosina (Heim) Heim, also natives of the Keystone state, the former born on July 2, 1839, and now living with his son, Israel, on the old homestead, and latter born on August 8, 1838, who came to Richardson County in 1882.

Israel L. Heim was educated in the schools of Dawson and after completing his schooling he remained on his father's farm, a valuable aid to him in the work of cultivating the land. He subsequently bought the farm from his father and had the house, which was, built in 1899, remodeled in 1913 and is now modern in every respect, amply surrounded by shade trees and evergreens. His farm of one hundred and sixty acres is located in section 10, Grant Township, and is well improved and in excellent condition. In 1912 Mr. Heim began breeding Aberdeen Polled Angus cattle and has some splendid specimens of thoroughbred, "Dinsmore Lad", bought, from L. H. Howe, of Humboldt. He sells much of this stock to cattle breeders at private sales. He also raises thoroughbred Duroc-Jersey hogs, of which he ships about a carload annually.

On October 4, 1899, Israel L. Heim was united in marriage to Gertrude Draper, who was born in Iowa, on January 16, 1878, a daughter of William I. and Isabelle (Talboys) Draper, who came to Nebraska in 1879, settling in Richardson County. To Israel L. and Gertrude the following children have been born: Theodore, born July 1, 1901, now attending Dawson High School; Rosina, March 14, 1903, and Lucy, March 23, 1911.

Mr. Heim is a supporter of the Republican Party, but reserves the right to vote independently as occasion demands and has never been a seeker after public office. Occupation 2: Bet. 1900 - 1920, college professor Bucknell University Lewisburg, Union Co, Pennsylvania

Notes for Elizabeth Eddelman:

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Eddelman Heim, wife of Professor Ephraim M. Heim, of Bucknell University, died on Saturday morning, June 30, 1923, came as a shock to the University and to Lewisburg. For several months Mrs. Heim had not been enjoying her usual health, but no alarming symptoms had appeared until June 20, when, upon the advice of her physician, she went to the Geisinger Hospital, Danville, Pennsylvania. After a necessary operation, she was critically ill for several days. Later she became stronger and gave hopes of rallying, but on Saturday morning she suddenly grew worse and died within an hour.

Elizabeth Eddelman was born in Greensburg, Indiana, December 11th, 1867, where she lived with her parents until she went to Franklin college Indiana, in 1888. After completing her course at Franklin, she went to Wellesley for a year of graduate work in French and German. During the following year she taught in Peddie Institute, Hightstown, New Jersey. In the fall of 1894, Miss Eddelman came to Bucknell Institute, where she remained as an instructor in German and Latin until her marriage with Professor Ephraim Heim, in 1898.

To her former students, the name of Mrs. Eddelman will always stand for refined and well-poised womanhood. As a member of the church and of other organizations in Lewisburg, Mrs. Heim filled a place of great influence. As a wife and mother she lived up to the highest ideals, and held the regard of a wide circle of friends.

She joined the Greensburg Baptist church at the age of twelve, where she held her membership until she united with the Lewisburg Baptist church in December, 1898. Mrs. Heim was an active member of the Civic Club of Lewisburg, and also of the Daughters of the American Revolution, having served the latter organization as Regent of the chapter from 1900 to 1901. Her sudden death has caused deep sorrow, not only in the University, but also in the church and in the town. Mrs. Heim was aged fifty-five years six months and nineteen days, and is survived by her husband, three sons, Edward, of Salt Lake City, Utah; Herbert, Robert, and one daughter, Rachel, at home.

Funeral services, under the direction of Charles W. Hower, funeral director, were held On Monday afternoon from their home on West Market Street, conducted by her pastor, Rev. R.M. West. Interment was made in Lewisburg cemetery.

She married John Wesley Little 04 Dec 1900, son of John Little and ?. He was born 24 Aug 1867 in Pennsylvania, and died 27 Sep 1923.

Notes for John Wesley Little:

Dec. 2, 1967 - A charming and touching memoir has just been published in Williamsport, a biography of the artist, John Wesley Little, whose watercolors of farms and valleys of Lycoming and Sullivan County made him the artistic voice of the Loyalsock. The little book was written by the three children of the artist, Jean E. Little of South Williamsport, who is a member of the DPA staff in Lycoming County, and her brother, now a Fulbright scholar in Yugoslavia, and her sister, Eleanor Little Eanes, who lives in the South.

The work of Wesley Little, including oils as well as the water colors which especially made him famous, was exhibited at Bucknell University last year. Some of his informal sketches are used to illustrate the book in which his son and daughters recalled their memoirs of him and the chronicle of his life and his training and work as an artist. There is also a reproduction of a portrait, a pen sketch and a photograph of the artist, who was born near Forksville and had a studio at Hughesville. Of special interest to people in Lock Haven, the first chapter of the book opens with a poem by the late Mary Elizabeth Crocker, for many years librarian of the Ross Library here, and a great friend of Mr. Little.

One stanza is an eloquent description of the delicate and lively work of Mr. Little's brush: "Here on his lifting hills the light, lies soft, soft blooms the sky, And Grassy pasture lands are borne, Where sheep browse lazily; Here drowsing cattle lies asleep, while the pale moonlight swings, The dying day to mystery on its soft-shadowed wings."

Miss Crocker would have enjoyed this sincere and loving appreciation, written after the Littles read their father's diaries and letters after the death of their mother, Sue Heim Little, a few years ago. At 90, she was still helping at the desk of the Williamsport Hospital

Notes for Joseph Gross Heim:

History of Richardson County, Nebraska: Its People, Industries and Institutions, Volume 2, 1917, page 1331-1332:

Joseph G. Heim, of Dawson, Richardson County, is a man of varied attainments in the agricultural life of the community in which he resides. As a farmer, breeder of cattle, hogs, and sheep, as well as fruit growing, his life may be described as a busy one. He was born on March 9, 1857, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, also natives of the same county and state.

Jacob G. Heim was born on June 15, 1832, in Pennsylvania, the son of Gottlieb and Margaret (Steiger) Heim, who were natives of Wurtemberg, Germany, and who came to the United States about 1808. Jacob G. Heim, who followed the occupation of farming all his life, came to Nebraska in 1874. He located on section 15, Grant Township, Richardson County, and bought four hundred acres of land. His first experience in this place was somewhat unfortunate, as he lost the whole of his first year's crops, the grasshoppers eating every growing thing on his land. This experience, however, was not repeated and he continued to farm with much success up to the time of his retirement. A few years before his death he moved to Dawson; later he moved to the farm home of Emanuel Ulmer and died there in 1914. His wife, Regina (Gross) Heim were the parents of eleven children, four of whom are deceased, the others being Joseph G., the subject of this sketch; Mrs. Sarah Ulmer, who lives in Grant township; Samuel F.; Jonathan E.; Rebecca, the wife of Jacob S. Heim; Sophia, who married Martin D. Ulmer; and Maggie who married Thomas Wuster, and all of whom are living in Grant township, this county.

Joseph G. Heim came to Nebraska with his parents in 1874, he then being seventeen years of age. In 1882 he rented land from his father and in 1884 he bought his first farm in section 10, Grant precinct. The tract was all unimproved and he set up to work to bring it into a state fit for cultivation. He built a substantial house, put up three barns and set out ten acres to an orchard for fruit growing, in which he has been very successful, selling his fruit locally and shipping large quantities. He is regarded as one of the most progressive fruit growers in this part of the state.

Mr. Heim's entire acreage i sections 19, 26 and 27, in Grant Township, amounts to two hundred and forty acres of choice land, all of which with the exception of the portion set out to the orchard, is operated for general farming purposes. He is an extensive breeder of Holstein cattle and Duroc-Jersey hogs and has an excellent strain of pure breed Shropshire sheep, several of which he keeps for breeding purposes. For several years Mr. Heim has been a member of the Shropshire Breeders Association of Lafayette, Indiana. In all his varied business activities he has shown much enterprise and sound judgement.

On December 22, 1881, Joseph G. Heim was united in marriage to Rosa Heim, daughter of John and Margaret (Heim) Heim, who came to Richardson County in 1881, the year of their daughter's marriage to

Mr. Heim. John Heim is dead and his widow is now living on the farm in section 15, Grant Township. Joseph G. Heim and wife are the parents of six children, namely: Mrs. Bertha Shively, of Calloway, this state; Mrs. May Belden, of Grant Township; Emerson, who lives on the homestead in Grant Township; Olive and John, both deceased, and Alice, who is attending high school. The Heim family are members of the United Evangelical Church and are active in all its good works.

Mr. Heim is a Republican and gives active support to that party, though sometimes voting the independent ticket. For two years he acted as township assessor, giving general satisfaction in that office. He was elected to the Dawson school board about twenty years ago and has been an active worker on the board during that time, serving as president of the board for several years. In 1892 Mr. Heim became superintendent of the Sunday school attached to the United Evangelical church in Dawson, and has continued since in that capacity. He increased the membership of the classes from twenty-five to over two hundred, thus giving evidence of his zeal on behalf of the Sunday school. He is also a trustee of the church. In June, 1916, Mr. Heim moved to Dawson where he built a modern and well-equipped bungalow and where he and his family are comfortably situated.

Falls City - Joseph G. Heim, 74, pioneer farmer and fruit grower, died Saturday night Oct. 3, 1931 at his home in Dawson following a stroke. He moved to the Dawson vicinity with the first settlers from Pennsylvania in 1874 and until a few years ago lived on a farm. He had been a community leader 20 years, was president of the school board and a member of the village council. His widow, a son and three daughters survive him.

Notes for Jonathan W. Heim:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1086:

Jonathan W. Heim is another of those Richardson county farmers who have come to this part of Nebraska from the old Keystone state and who have become owners of land on extensive scale. He lives on a farm on which his father settled in July, 1874, containing eighty acres of land in section 15, Grant precinct, and is the owner of one hundred and sixty acres in section 10 and another tract of eighty acres west of Henry Heim's place. He was born on August 11, 1861, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a son of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, natives of the same county and state. Who settled in Richardson County in 1874.

When Jacob G. Heim settled here he bought eighty acres of land on which his son, Jonathan W., now resides. He proceeded at once to prepare the ground for crops and was in a fair way to make a success of his work, when in common with the other settlers he suffered from the plague of grasshoppers which visited Nebraska in 1874. The first year spent on his new holding was a hard one; in addition to the grasshopper pests, it turned out to be a dry year and vegetation did not thrive. He also suffered the loss of two children. His courage, however, did not desert him and by perseverance and industry he prospered, later buying, another half section of land.

Jonathan W. Heim was about twelve years of age when he came with his parents from Pennsylvania to the state of Nebraska. He was educated in the district schools and in Dawson, this county. He helped his father on the farm and later bought one hundred and sixty acres of land from his father. On this tract he commenced farming operations on his own account and meeting with a fair measure of success, he added to his holdings by the further purchase of eighty acres. Some time before his father's death he bought out the home place, the father having gone to reside in Dawson, and here ever since he has continued to make his home. The house in which he resides is nicely situated back from the road on a hillside, with a nice grove of walnut trees in the rear. The house and outbuildings are all in excellent condition. By his thrift and industry Mr. Heim has been in a position to pay cash for all his land.

On December 26, 1894, Jonathan W. Heim was united in marriage to Louisa Shafer, who was born on October 20, 1872, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a daughter of Samuel and Mary (Heim) Shafer, who now reside in Canada, just across the border eight miles west of Buffalo. They formerly lived in Nebraska and later went to the western portion of this state. Sometime later they went to Dickerson County, Kansas, and remained there for a number of years and in the late nineties moved to Iowa, going from there to the old home place in Pennsylvania. From the latter place they moved to Canada, across from Buffalo, about three miles from Lake Erie and now reside in a settlement among his church people, the Brethren in Christ. Mr. and Mrs. Heim are the parents of seven children, namely: Mattie M., Howard John, Pearl Mary, Wesley Laurence, all at home; Clarence Walter, who died at the age of three years; Arthur William and Edith Viola, both at home. Mr. and Mrs. Heim and family are members of the United Evangelical church and take a proper interest in all church matters. Mr. Heim is a supporter of the Republican Party, but has never been a seeker after office.

Notes for Samuel Kiess:

Mr. Kiess has quite a rare collection of bric-a-brac, which is of very great value to a lover of relics as he is. He has a Bible, the former property of a German in New York, that was printed in the year 1668, and for which he has been offered $3,000, refusing to take that amount. It is about 16" long x 10-1/2" wide x 6" thick, and is bound in what is supposed to be the leather made from the skin of a hog, with heavy brass corners and clasps, and was printed in Frankfort, Germany. He also has a fine collection of ancient coins and currency, among which is a three cent piece issued by the West Branch Bank of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, on the first of January 1863; a ten-cent piece from the Williams County, Ohio, and also some from the State Bank of Ohio, bearing an early date.

Notes for Lella M. McClarin:

Oct. 24, 1973 - Lysock View's newest residents are believed to be the first set of twins to have lived at the county operated home. They are 92-year-old sisters, Lura May McClarin and Mrs. Lella May Marquardt, formerly of the 2200 block of West Fourth Street Mrs. Marquardt is the widow of William Marquardt. The sisters have lived together for many years. An official at Lysock said the sisters are the "pets of the place" with other guests. They enjoy visiting other resident and took their favorite chairs to the home. The official also commented that the sisters lived for many years with another sister, Ida, who died at the age of 97. Currently, there is one way to easily tell the twins apart Miss McClarin's right arm is in a cast as a result of a fall last July. Both are former silk mill workers. They were born in Salladasburg on May 15, 1881, daughters of Robert and Ella Thomas McClarin. They have no close relatives.

Notes for Christian Wurster, Jr.:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1149:

Another foreign-born citizen of western Richardson County who has been successful in our land of many opportunities and has been enabled to retire from active life is Christ Wuster, of Dawson, Grant Township, Richardson County. He was born in Germany, May 13, 1848, a son of Christ and Rosanna (Likes) Wuster, natives of Germany. The father was born on December 14, 1821, and died on February 1, 1885. The mother was born on February 19, 1823, and died in January, 1888. They were parents of nine children, eight of whom are living.

The Wuster family remained in their native land until 1851, when they immigrated to America, locating in Pennsylvania, in which state the parents spent the rest of their lives, and there their son Christ, Jr., grew to manhood, attending the common schools, and for several years worked on a farm in Lycoming county. After his marriage he came to Nebraska in 1890, and located on a farm four miles north of Dawson, in Porter precinct, paying ten dollars an acre for his land, which he improved and tilled with success until 1904, becoming one of the leading general farmers and stock raisers of Porter precinct. He then retired from active life and moved to the village of Dawson, where he bought a home and there he has since resided. While on the farm he made a specialty of breeding Shorthorn cattle.

On September 25, 1873, Mr. Wuster was married to Martha Marquardt, who was born on January 31, 1850, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. She is a daughter of Fred and Rosanna (Keiss) Marquardt, both natives of Germany, from which country they came to America with their respective parents and located in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the father being only ten years old when they crossed the Atlantic. They grew to maturity in the old Keystone state and were married there. Mrs. Martha Wuster was reared and educated in her native state. The following children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Wuster: Anna, who is the wife of Walter Kirk and they live on the Wuster home farm in Porter precinct; Charles, who is also living on the home place; Clara, wife of Charles Perry, now living in California; Henry, who lives in California; Thomas Frederick, who lives on a farm one mile north and one-half mile east of Dawson; David E., deceased; John A., who lives in California, and Mrs. Mary Dillon, also of California.

Christ Wuster, Jr., deserves a great deal of credit for what he has accomplished since coming to Nebraska, for he then had but six hundred dollars. He went in debt for his farm of three hundred and twenty acres, but worked hard and managed well and success eventually crowned his efforts. For several years he hauled his wheat to Salem Mills and exchanged it for flour. He lived in the old log cabin on his land for some time, or until he was able financially to build a better residence. There was considerable native timber on his land, and he got from his own woods most of the lumber with which to build his barn and other buildings. There was an apple orchard on his place, which for some time was the only one in Richardson County. This orchard brought him large returns, his apples being in great demand at fancy prices. Politically, he is a Democrat. He and Mrs. Wuster belong to the Evangelical church.

Notes for Jane Ada (Jennie) Brindle:

Mrs. Jane Ada Ulmer, widow of the late Engineer J.B. Ulmer, died April 1910 at her home, 243 Spruce Street, this morning, it is presumed by inhaling gas which escaped from the stove while she was preparing breakfast for her son. Mrs. Ulmer got up between five and six o'clock to get breakfast for her son, Howard. About eight o'clock when the son got up, he found his mother dead, leaning over the gas stove. The jet was open and the room was filled with the deadly fumes, but there were no indications that the gas had been lighted. It is believed that Mrs. Ulmer was seized with a fainting spell while in the act of lighting the gas and fell on the stove, her death resulting from inhaling the fumes.

The deceased, was aged about 57 years and is survived only by her son Howard. Her maiden name was Brindle and she has a host of friends who deeply regret her demise. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

But a celebration of his life will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday at All About Care Assisted Living Home, 2505 Azurite Court, in Anchorage. Donald was born April 13, 1913, the third of five children born to Willard Irvin Stroble and Alma Pearl Dangle Stroble in Elmira, N.Y. In 1918, the family moved to a farm in rural Pennsylvania. Don farmed and remained there until 1946, when an adventurous spirit lured him to Alaska. First, he milked cows on a farm near Fairbanks. He then moved on to a job on a Yukon River boat during the summer of 1947. In the fall of 1947, he was transferred to Whittier to be employed as a hostler in the roundhouse for the Alaska Railroad. Later, in 1948, he changed to the Post Engineers and was employed as a boiler fireman and diesel-electric operator. In April 1950, he bought a property in Spenard, where he lived and rented out apartments until 1978.

After retirement, he traveled throughout the United States and Mexico. In Guadalajara, he met Ana Maria Bravo, the lady who became his wife in 1984. Don was fortunate to be well-regarded as a quiet, courteous and compassionate man. He will be especially remembered by those who knew him.

Notes for Charles R. Bidelspacher:

CHARLES R. BIDELSPACHER - In The Court Of Common Pleas Of Lycoming County, Pennsylvania NO: 93-01724

IN RE: Appointment of a Committee to draft Resolution in the death of CHARLES R. BIDELSPACHER, ESQUIRE

RESOLUTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE - TO THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF THE COURT:

The Committee appointed by your Honorable Court to prepare Resolutions concerning the death of Charles R. Bidelspacher, Esquire, reports as follows:

Charles R. Bidelspacher was born January 19, 1911, in Washington, D.C., when his father was in government service. He was the son of Charles F. and Grace Raper Bidelspacher. Mr. Bidelspacher departed this life on September 28, 1993.

Surviving are his daughter, Ann Treneer Bidelspacher Groves of London, England, and Lundie Castle, Edgell, Angus, Scotland, and two (2) sons, Charles R. Bidelspacher, III of Montoursville, Pennsylvania, and Robert Bidelspacher of St. Croix, United States, Virgin Islands. He was preceded in death by his wife of forty-eight (48) years, Margery Treneer Bidelspacher, who died on February 15, 1986. Mr. Treneer, Margery Treneer Bidelspacher's father, developed the process (that was patented) that allowed Alka-Seltzer to be capsulized and sold with shelf life.

Mr. Bidelspacher was graduated from the Williamsport High School in 1929. In each of his three years at the Williamsport High School, he competed in the National Oratoricaloration on the United States Constitution and placed first in these competitions. While at Bucknell University he was a member of the debating team that competed at universities all over the United States. He graduated from Bucknell University in 1933, with an A.B. degree. He was accepted at both Harvard and the University of Pennsylvania Law School. He chose to attend the University of Pennsylvania where he qualified for a scholarship and graduated in 1936. He passed the Pennsylvania Bar exam immediately after graduation at a time when the passage rate was under fifty (50%) percent. He was admitted to the Lycoming County Bar on October 10, 1936, and maintained an active practice of law from that time until the time of his death.

Mr. Bidelspacher initially practiced law with his father, Charles F. Bidelspacher, Sr., a member of the Lycoming County Bar, who also served as a member of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives for eight (8) consecutive terms from 1916 to 1932. Mr. Bidelspacher's father was chairman of both the Judiciary and Forests and Waters committees. While Mr. Bidelspacher's father was chairman of the Forests and Waters Committee, legislation was passed to have the state take over thousands of miles of county roads as state highways. [This was the legislation that got the farmers out of the mud.]

He was a former City Solicitor of the City of Williamsport from 1938 to 1964. Mr. Bidelspacher was also Solicitor for the Borough of South Williamsport and Loyalsock Township for equally long periods of time. As City Solicitor, he played vital roles in the inauguration of a whole series of institutions that have underpinned the development of Williamsport as a commercial, trading and industrial center. He had the foresight to advance an airport for the region, at a time when the railroads exercised dominating influence over all transportation. He was instrumental in setting up the Williamsport Lycoming Airport Authority and served as its Solicitor until 1966. As Airport Authority Solicitor, he tried and won significant air route cases before the Civil Aeronautics Board of the Federal Government that enabled Williamsport to be a part of the route and structure of early aviation.

Mr. Bidelspacher also played a significant role in the development of the construction of the dike levee system on the Susquehanna River. He negotiated, as City Solicitor, for the contracts and financial backing of the federal government that enabled Williamsport and surrounding communities to build the dikes that have protected these municipalities from flooding—particularly the 1972 Hurricane Agnes storm. As City Solicitor, Mr. Bidelspacher negotiated for the purchase of the privately owned water company from a public utilities consortium and was instrumental in the formation of the Williamsport Water Authority and Williamsport Sanitary Authority that put these agencies in municipal ownership.

Mr. Bidelspacher played a vital role in the formation of the Williamsport Parking Authority that has supplied off-street parking for the central business district and which has enabled Williamsport to serve the motoring public at no net outlay in tax dollars, and which today has a net worth in excess of $5 million dollars and over 1,000 parking spaces, all at no cost to the taxpayers and paid through user-fees. In all of these actual areas of infrastructure of water, sewer, parking and air traffic, Mr. Bidelspacher was on the cutting edge of securing these vital services for the area that have served us so well and which we all now take for granted.

He acted as his own general contractor when he refurbished and constructed the four (4) story Bidelspacher Building office building at 428 Market Street in the mid-50s. This construction was the first major improvement in center city Williamsport in twenty-five plus years. During those twenty-five plus years, there had not been major construction in downtown. It was funded entirely with his own resources without federal, state or city financing or tax concessions of any type or nature.

He served on the Board of Directors of Allegheny Airlines, the predecessor of U.S. Air, that serve not only the Williamsport Lycoming County Airport, but the world.

ML Bidelspacher was first and foremost a litigator and an advocate. He had a varied and extensive trial and appellate court practice involving all sorts of cases in innumerable jurisdictions in both the State and Federal Courts. His adversaries were invariably metropolitan law firms from New York, Philadelphia, and Washington, including the likes of Cavath, Swain & Moore. He had remarkable success in redressing fraud. Two of his most notable cases were the "Wire Rope" and the "Fickle Fanny" cases. In the Wire Rope case, where he served as chief counsel with the assistance of the Honorable Charles F. Greevy, he overturned a sale of assets of the Williamsport Wire Rope Company after that company had filed bankruptcy and recovered (some fifteen (15) years after the sale) $10 million for the shareholders. To put this matter in perspective, in 1952, attorneys were searching titles for $35.00. Directly as a result of this sale, a Federal Judge resigned while his impeachment trial was pending before the Senate of the United States; a Scranton attorney associated with this 1937 sale of Williamsport Wire Rope assets was convicted of a conspiracy to obstruct justice and was incarcerated in the Lewisburg Federal Penitentiary.

In the "Fickle Fanny" case, (The Keta Gas and Oil Company vs. Jents) he championed the rights of a small landowner against an entrenched corporation and was able to prevail because he proved that "ancient documents" of the opposition were spurious and of recent origin and manufacture. Mr. Bidelspacher had many other successful cases and was recognized by metropolitan newspapers for his successful prosecution of these cases.

Mr. Bidelspacher was an avid sportsman and environmentalist and had particular strong feelings about the preservation of West Branch River and the Eagles Mere Lake. To that end, he organized the Williamsport Yacht Club and the Eagles Mere Association. He was also a co-founder of the St. Croix Yacht Club, in the United States Virgin Islands.

His daughter, Ann Treneer Bidelspacher Groves, is a graduate of Tufts University. She had a career in the Secretariat of the United Nations and now resides in London and Scotland with her attorney husband, John Groves, Esquire.

Mr. Bidelspacher's identical twin sons, Charles Bidelspacher, III, and Robert Bidelspacher, are graduates of Denison University. Charles Bidelspacher was associated with his father in his business interests and worked as a paralegal with his father. Robert Bidelspacher has his own real estate brokerage office in St. Croix, Virgin Islands. Mr. Bidelspacher is also survived by his sister, Katherine Wheeler and three (3) grandchildren.

BE IT RESOLVED that through the death of Charles Bidelspacher, Esquire, the Lycoming County Bar has lost an able and capable member; the community a contributing and valued citizen and his family a loving father, grandfather and brother. He will also be missed by his friends and his acquaintances.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Court and its Bar do hereby extend to his children, grandchildren and sister a deep and heartfelt expression of sympathy by this Resolution.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Resolution be spread at length upon the minutes of the Court of Common Pleas of Lycoming County and that copies of the same be sent to his children, grandchildren and sister.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

CHARLES A. SZYBIST, ESQUIRE, Chairman

DEAN R. FISHER, ESQUIRE

GEORGE E. ORWIG, II, ESQUIRE

Child of Erwin Muehlig and Adelyn Collier is:

- 1941 i. Kathleen Cheryl⁹ Muehlig, born 1947; died 09 Jul 2013 in Ypsilanti, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Donald Jeremy Cramer 11 Jul 1970 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan; born Aft. 1935.

Notes for Kathleen Cheryl Muehlig:

KATHLEEN "KATHY" (MUEHLIG) CRAMER⁹ of Ypsilanti, Michigan, age 66, died on July 9, 2013, from complications of multiple sclerosis. She is survived by her husband, Don Cramer, and her cousins, Carol Muehlig of Ann Arbor and Linda Muehlig, of Northampton, Massachusetts. She was preceded in death by her mother, Adelyn "Fay" Muehlig, and father, Erwin Muehlig.

Kathie graduated from Ann Arbor High School and attended the University of Michigan (1964-68), where she studied languages and engineering, and Washtenaw Community College (1968-70), where she studied languages and mathematics. She graduated from Eastern Michigan University with a BBA in business computing in 1979. At Eastern, she first worked at the school library, and in 1983, began working in the University Computing department in financial aid and then in student systems. When she was diagnosed with MS in 1993, she continued to work at the university and then from home, until her retirement in 2005.

Don and Kathie first met in 1967 and discovered their mutual interests in computers, motorcycles, theater, and cats. They became engaged in 1969 and were married on July 11, 1970 at the First Congregational Church in Ypsilanti, departing after the reception on a motorcycle, with Kathie wearing her wedding veil. In the 1970s, they often joined the Michigan Cycle Conservation Club for trail rides.

Kathie was a hobbyist in the fiber arts. Knitting (and shopping at yarn stores) was her favorite, with rug-hooking being a close second. She also did some spinning, weaving, macrame and bobbin lace. Kathie played Dungeons and Dragons, and later became an avid online "gamer" in multi-player adventure/fantasy games, interests that she eagerly pursued for almost three decades. Don and Kathie enjoyed trips to Seattle, Charleston, South Carolina, and a trip to London and the Isle of Man, but their favorite trip was a Smithsonian cruise on the Alaskan inside passage, a late celebration of their 20th anniversary. In 1998, they custom-designed and built their timber-framed home in Ypsilanti with accessibility features to accommodate Kathie and her mobility scooter. Kathie didn't allow MS to discourage her in any way. A memorial service will be held in late July at the Muehlig funeral chapel in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Jeneva D. Heimer, age 88, passed away Monday, February 11, 2013. She was preceded in death by her husband, Roy; siblings, Darrell "Bern" Prentice, Earline "Erky" Poe, Marvin Prentice; brother-in-law, Earl Heimer, sister-in-law, Ruth Weih; brother-in-law, Roger Heimerdinger. Surviving are her children, Heidi Heimer, Peter and Julie Heimer, Jodi Heimer; her grandchildren, Seth Heimer, Christa and Kyle Snyder, Troy Heimer and Beau Heimer. Also surviving are her sister, Mary Giffin; and several nieces and nephews and her longtime friend, Virginia Goorhouse. Memorial services for Mrs. Heimer will be held Wednesday, February 20, 2013 at 1PM at Heritage Lifestory Funeral Homes, 2120 Lake Michigan Dr. NW. Friends may greet the family from noon until time of service. Memorial contributions may be made to Mary Free Bed Hospital, 235 Wealthy SE, 49503.

Jeneva Delphine Prentice Heimer was born April 10, 1924 in Grandville, Michigan to Darrell and Jennie (Strandberg) Prentice. She was one of five children supported by loving parents—her father as a postal worker and her mother in factory work. Jeneva, otherwise lovingly referred to as, "Sookie" by her family and close friends, along with her brothers and sisters—Darrell "Bern", Earline "Erky", Mary and Marvin—had a close and abiding connection that lasted into adulthood. As teens, they belonged to AYH (American Youth Hostels) and took many bicycle trips through Canada and the East coast. But when she got her first blue Studebaker convertible, Jeneva hit the road on four wheels. She and her sister Mary liked nothing better than cruising around in her flashy machine. When they grew up and had families of their own, the siblings still loved spending holidays together and sharing wonderful summertime vacations in Pentwater.

Somewhat ahead of her time, Jeneva not only completed high school, she also went on to college and into the work force. From Grandville elementary schools and Central High School in Grand Rapids, she attended Davenport College. During World War II, she worked in a defense plant making fuses for bombs. Because of the need for a large number of aircraft, R.C. Allen Business Machines was converted into aviation manufacturing and produced delicate instruments needed for the war effort. R.C. Allen also became the place where Jeneva met her future husband, Roy Heimer. He had come home from the service and took a job at the plant, only to meet a young woman who stole his heart. The relationship grew into love and marriage, and the couple made their vows at an Ohio Justice of the Peace on November 25, 1955.

Jeneva and Roy settled into a house on Gold Avenue SW in Grand Rapids. It truly became a home when they welcomed three children into their lives: Heidi, Peter, and Jodi. Family became the focus of Jeneva's life, and her children came to know that she would do anything to help them succeed. Home life was made delightful by Jeneva's wonderful cooking, and she elevated serving to an art form. She was babysitter for many neighborhood children and still found time for hobbies such as gardening, doll collecting and jewelry. She was also an avid reader—James Patterson being her favorite author—and enjoyed watching QVC home shopping on TV. Jeneva was looking forward to turning 100 so that she could be acknowledged by Willard Scott of the Today Show on the Smucker's birthday announcement segment. She was well on her way, keeping pace with her Siamese cats and dog Oscar and walking every day to visit her best friend Virginia.

Mrs. Jeneva D. Heimer, age 88, passed away Monday, February 11, 2013. She will be remembered and cherished by the family she dearly loved. They include her children, Heidi Heimer, Peter and Julie Heimer, Jodi Heimer; her grandchildren, Seth Heimer, Christa and Kyle Snyder, Troy Heimer and Beau Heimer. Also surviving are her sister Mary Giffin and several nieces and nephews and her longtime friend, Virginia Goorhouse. She was preceded in death by her husband, Roy, siblings Darrell "Bern" Prentice, Earline "Erky" Poe, Marvin Prentice; brother-in-law, Earl Heimer, sister-in-law, Ruth Weih, brother-in-law, Roger Heimerdinger.

1031. Ruth Ann⁸ Heimerdinger (Jakob Wilhelm⁸, Andreas (Andrew)⁷, Dorothea⁶ Gohl, Christian⁵, Christian⁴, Christian³, Hans Jerg², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 14 Nov 1922 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan, and died 26 Nov 2004 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan. She married William Weih 21 Jun 1947 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan, son of George Weih and Kunigunda Greittlipa. He was born 10 Apr 1920 in Byorn, Germany, and died 03 Jun 1997.

Notes for Ruth Ann Heimerdinger:

Ruth Heimerdinger Weih (November 14, 1922 - November 27, 2004) was a kind, caring mother, grandmother, and sister. Her heart was warm and full of love, and this showed when her lips curved into her familiar smile. Her laughter was a beautiful, frequent sound, and like her personality, it encouraged happiness and high spirits wherever it was heard. In the year 1922 all of America was tapping its foot to the big band music that matched the prosperous and happy spirit of this post-war era. With the booming economy, this was a good time to start a family, and this is exactly what Jake Heimerdinger and his wife Amanda Stierle set about doing. In November of 1922, there was a new member in the family house at 33 Gold Street SW; this was the day that their first and only daughter Ruth was born.

Ruth enjoyed a typical childhood, growing up on the West Side of Grand Rapids with the company of her three brothers. She attended Straight Elementary School, and the family belonged to the St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church on Broadway NW, where Ruth sang in the choir. Ruth enjoyed trips to the beach, especially to Grand Haven, where she liked to go swimming with her family and friends. At sixteen years of age, Ruth was riding in a car with her friends--there was an accident, Ruth's arm was broken in two places, and she spent the next months confined to her bed while she recuperated. As far as automobiles were concerned, that was enough for Ruth and she never drove a car for the rest of her life.

Ruth went to Union High School, where she was a member of the French Club and the Audubon Club. She also found time to work at Herpolsheimers in the downtown area. As she pushed toward her graduation in the year 1941, tensions in Europe were quickly heading toward all-out war. World War II would require the service of all three of Ruth's brothers; Roy and Earl joined the Army, while Roger fought with the Navy. Thankfully, all three of her brothers returned home from the war safe and sound, but this was a difficult and nervous time for Ruth and her family. After graduating from high school, Ruth found a job at Winters and Crampton. It was at this job that she made friends with Carol Scott, marking the beginning of a friendship that would last her entire life. She would keep this job for a short while, before moving on to a career at the local pharmaceutical firm Humiston-Keeling where she filled drug orders. It was also around this time that Ruth was introduced to the man she would end up falling in love with. St. John's Church had arranged a dance in honor of the service boys from the war, and this is how Ruth met William Weih. He was a paratrooper in the service. They dated for a while and then married in June of 1947 at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church. After a honeymoon in Niagara Falls, the newlyweds returned to Grand Rapids where they found an apartment on National Street. Although the marriage would not last due to irreconcilable differences, this union provided Ruth with the greatest blessings in her life: one son and three daughters.

It was in the apartment on National Street that Ruth gave birth to her first child Bill in 1948. With a new member in the family, Ruth and her husband decided to find a more accommodating home. They moved into the house at 27 Gold SW where the family has lived ever since. It was while the Weihs were living in this home that Ruth gave birth to her three daughters, Linda in 1951, Carol in 1953, and finally Janice in 1955. Following in their mother's footsteps, all of Ruth's children attended Lexington and Straight Elementary, and with the exception of Bill, who graduated from Grandville High School, all graduated from Union High School.

In 1956, just one year after the birth of their youngest daughter, Ruth and Bill agreed to divorce. Ruth remained unmarried ever since. She instead dedicated her time and energy to her role as a mother. The family often took trips to Lincoln Lake, where they would all go swimming, or to the Ionia Free Fair. The kids all liked to play in John Ball Park, where they would skate on the pond in the wintertime. As an incentive to return home, the children always had Ruth's cooking to look forward to. They knew when dinner was on the way by the sound of their mother's singing voice, as Ruth loved to sing while she cooked. Her dishes were always excellent, and her holiday meals especially beckoned a full and eager dinner table. Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter were all spent at Ruth's house, which was always decorated according to the theme of the holiday. These meals were often followed by one of Ruth's wonderful cakes, a treat that everyone loved.

Christmas was the most exciting time for Ruth and her family. As the special day approached, Ruth would take her kids downtown to go window-shopping. All the store windows were filled with animated elves, moving mannequins, and other decorations that heralded the holiday season. Christmas day itself was always magical. Ruth's brother Roy would enhance the magical feeling by doing things that would make the children think Santa had been there. He would even put footprints on the roof of the house for his children to see. At the age of sixty-five, Ruth retired from her job at Humiston-Keeling. With her children grown up and moved out of the house, she had plenty of time to dedicate to her hobbies. With her artistic personality, she loved to craft and produced many gifts for friends and family. Her radio played the music of her era, big bands, Bing Crosby, and Frank Sinatra. She loved the old war era crooners. Twice she managed to visit the World Fair, in New York and then San Francisco. Frequently she travelled into downtown Grand Rapids to go shopping, one of her favorite pass-times. She would visit all the stores, from S.S. Kreske's to Woolworths, from Greens Department Store to Steketees and Wursburgs.

Soon after her retirement, Ruth's health became a problem. She experienced lots of forgetfulness and memory loss, and she was soon diagnosed with dementia. This diagnosis was later changed to Alzheimer's. This terrible disease progressively dominated Ruth's life. To help with the difficult battle, her daughter Linda invited her into her home in 1991. It was apparent that Ruth could no longer take care of herself, and so for the next ten years she lived in Byron Center in the loving presence of her family. When it seemed that the end was near, Linda and her siblings made the decision to put Ruth under hospice care, but still at home. Her will to survive was strong, and Ruth hung on for the next three years, making her the longest hospice patient in the Hospice of Michigan history. On the fourteenth of last November, the family had gathered together to celebrate her 82nd birthday.

Ruth died in her daughter Linda's home on Saturday morning, November 27, 2004 with her family at her side. She is survived by her children, Bill Weih, Linda and Allen Tatro, Carol and Robert Westdorp, Janice and William Caceres; her grandchildren, Melissa, Brandon, William, Christopher and Stacey; five great grandchildren, Daniel, Lilianna, Sean, Aaron, and Alex; her brother Roger Heimerdinger; her sister-in-law, Jeneva "Sookie" Heimer, other nieces and nephews and many friends. Relatives and friends may meet her family at Alt & Shawmut Hills Chapel, 2120 Lake Michigan Dr. NW on Sunday from 7-9 PM. The funeral service will be held at the funeral home on Monday at 10:00 AM with burial in Rosedale Cemetery. Please visit Ruth's personal webpage at www.lifestorynet.com where you can sign the guestbook, leave your favorite memories of her and make contributions in her memory to the Alzheimer's Association.

Ruth was a kind and loving woman, whose warm smile and wonderful laughter will be frequently remembered by all who knew her.

Slipping Away by Stacey Tatro, Ruth's granddaughter

As you slip away

You look so innocent and sweet

I will miss you

Even though I never really knew you.

As every day goes by

I sit and wonder why.

Why you? Poor little one....

I wish everything could get better

But it's not, it never will.

You will never get any better.

I do pray and hope for the best

But as you slip away

Day by day,

I miss you more and more...

I love you.

Brother, rest from Sin and sorrow,
Death is ore and life is won;
On thy slumber dawns no morrow;
Rest, thine earthly race is run.
Brother, wake! the night is waning;
Endless day is round thee poured;
Endless thou the rest remaining
For the people of the Lord.
Fare thee well, tho woe is blending
With the tones of early love,
Triumph high and joy unending
Wait thee in the realms above.

Notes for Lillian Virgin:

A little over a century ago, as the world was coming out of the Spanish Flu pandemic, Lillian Virgin was born July 29, 1919 in Rexburg, Idaho to Jehu G. T. and Charlotte "Lottie" Virgin. She was untouched by the Spanish flu pandemic, living to see the second pandemic, COVID 19, which she also eluded. On July 13, 2022, her body simply wore out, though her spirit never did.

She grew up during hard times, helping her mother and her family eke out a living on dry farms in southern Idaho. She and her six brothers and sisters moved constantly because affordable housing was in scarce supply, often requiring them to live in accommodations that lacked even the most basic amenities. When she talked about growing up, she always prefaced it with "my poor mother". "Lottie" was the very definition of pioneer stock. After graduating from Sugar City High School, she was able to attend classes at what is now Idaho State University. It was there that she met Eldon R. Ulmer, who was studying to be a pharmacist. They married May 1st, 1942, not long before Eldon enlisted in the U. S. Navy, where he served as an officer on a destroyer in the South Pacific. After he returned from the war, they bought into a small drugstore in Nyssa, Oregon, and settled down to raise a family.

In 1949, Eldon was offered a pharmacy job by his brother-in-law at the Co-op Drugstore in Fairbanks, Alaska. He was persuaded to take the job by the offer of a new Studebaker convertible. He could not resist the deal, and in 1950, they drove out of Idaho with three little children in tow, up the Alaska-Canadian Highway, with its 1200 miles of dusty, muddy, washboard road. The road had only been open to the public for two years. They had hardly moved into an apartment above the Fairbanks drugstore when a fire broke out in the middle of a minus 53-degree night, destroying the structure. They barely made it out with their lives, losing most of what they owned. Lillian returned to Idaho temporarily with her kids while the store was rebuilt. Back in Fairbanks, two more children were born including their only little girl.

In 1955, they decided to move to Anchorage and buy the Downtown Rexall Drugstore. They moved into Alaska's first planned subdivision, Turnagain By-the-Sea. Lillian was once again able to enjoy her church, bridge games, bowling and crafts. They moved to a new home on Sand Lake in 1960, providing an idyllic setting for raising a family. As the kids grew up, Lillian was able to get involved in the business, helping with bookkeeping and banking. Eldon passed away unexpectedly in 1994, after which she moved to a condominium near the park strip. She always missed the lake house, affectionately referred to by her kids as "The Resort". In her later years, she enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and crafts, including resurrecting her quilt-making skills. She set a goal of making quilts for each of her five kids, their seven kids, and 11 great-grandkids. She came close to her goal, falling short only because of failing eyesight. She loved and worried about her family until her last breath. She wanted to reach the age of 103 but fell short by just 16 days. She never failed to astound her caregivers with her humor and kind spirit.

Lillian was preceded in death by her husband, Eldon, her daughter, Sue Ulmer, her brothers, Oliver, Wesley, LeRoy and Kay, and her sisters Mae Harris and Thelma Walker. She leaves one sister, Dorothy Browning, who is 98. Thelma lived to be 102, Mae to 95, and her mother Lottie to 100. Her spirit lives on in her children. Brent (Sharon), Jerry (Gricelda), Scott, and Reed (Kathy). She also left behind seven grandkids and 11 great-grandkids.

Private family services will be held on what would have been her 103rd birthday; she will be buried with her husband at Fort Richardson National Cemetery.

1112. Wanda Marilla⁸ Ulmer (Torrence Cecil (Ted)⁷, Isaac William⁶, Jacob⁵, Anna Barbara⁴ Gohl, Johann Georg³, Anstadt², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 14 Apr 1924 in Star, Ada Co, Idaho, and died 20 May 2014 in Boise, Ada Co, Idaho. She married Carl William Borup 17 Oct 1942 in Boise, Ada Co, Idaho. He was born 12 Jan 1920 in Boise, Ada Co, Idaho, and died 16 Apr 2000 in Boise, Ada Co, Idaho.

Notes for Wanda Marilla Ulmer:

Wanda Marilla Ulmer Borup, 90, of Boise, passed away Tuesday morning, May 20, 2014, peacefully leaving this world after a brief illness. Wanda was born April 14, 1924, in Star, Idaho, to Torrence Cecil (Ted) Ulmer and Winifred Rose Tarter Ulmer, the youngest of five children. She attended school in Boise, graduating from Boise High School in 1942. Wanda married Carl William Borup in Oregon in 1942. She worked in a variety of jobs during her lifetime; first and foremost, as a stay-at-home mother, then as a seamstress at Idaho Laundry, a cook at North Junior High School and a fishing rod maker at Fenwick. She was also a "Rosie The Riveter" in Oregon for a brief time before she started her family. Wanda found a religion later in life that fulfilled her spiritual needs, becoming Catholic in 1991. She was a member of Sacred Heart Parish in Boise.

Wanda lived most of her life in Idaho. She was an avid crafter, seamstress, fisherwoman, and gardener. She was a life-long Democrat and the quintessential "Blue girl in a red state." In her later years, she became a devoted viewer of political news and shows, primarily on MSNBC. Wanda also was a wonderful storyteller, with a terrific sense of humor that not everyone might have had the chance to see. Most importantly, though, Wanda was a true giver; to her community and to her family and friends. Throughout her life, she cared for many people, from her growing children and grandchildren, to her mother, Uncle Ross, brother Paul and finally, to her husband, Carl. It defined her in so many ways, to be able to provide comfort to those around her.

Wanda is survived by her three children, Marilyn (Ralph) Sword of Boise, Burke Borup of Nampa, and Karen (Gary) Stroder of Twin Falls; grandchildren Jeremy (Nancy) Borup, Mark Loening, Jessica Lorello, Scott (Kristin) Sword, Audrey Borup and Alex Borup; great-grandchildren Colby Borup, Jordan Borup, Spencer Lorello, Michael Loening and Margo Sword; niece LaMoyne (Paul) Rognlie and numerous additional nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ted and Winifred Ulmer, husband, Carl William Borup, sister Ruby Ryals, brothers Eldon Ulmer, Paul Ulmer, Harold Ulmer and son-in-law Michael Loening.

At her request, Wanda asked that there be no funeral service. Instead, she will be cremated and buried next to her infant brother, Harold, as she felt that he had no one to be with throughout eternity. There will be a memorial celebration held at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Marilyn and Ralph Sword, 1717 Holden Lane in Boise from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. on June 1st, 2014. All are welcome to come and share in memories of Wanda's life. The family would like to thank the staff on the 5th floor, South Tower of St. Alphonsus for their excellent care of Wanda in her last days. In lieu of any flowers, please consider making a donation to the Idaho Humane Society, the Idaho Botanical Garden or a charity of your choice. Wanda loved her father dearly, often talking about how sad she was that he did not live long enough to see all of her children come into this world. He'll be there, waiting for her, saying, "Janie, what took you so long?"

Charles E. Stoltz, for years a well-known and successful farmer, living in Franklin precinct, this county, has recently disposed of his fine farm consisting of one hundred and sixty acres of prime land, all in an excellent state of improvement; however, he is still the owner of forty acres of land in Texas, in the irrigated section of the Rio Grande. William Stoltz was a son of Jacob Stoltz, a native of Germany. Mary Ulmer was the daughter of Isaac Ulmer and wife.

William Stoltz came to Richardson County from Pennsylvania in 1886 and located between Dawson and Stella, where he bought one hundred and sixty acres of raw prairie land. He moved his family to the farm the following spring and began the task of clearing the ground for cultivation. William Stoltz was born in 1847 and died on March 20, 1915. His wife, Mary Ulmer, was born on May 31, 1849, and died on January 11, 1901. They were the parents of the following children: Charles E., the subject of this sketch; Jacob F., who lives in Aurora, Illinois; Isaac H., of Onaga, Kansas; Samuel, who lives in Chicago; William F., who lives on the home farm; Ezra W., of Jerome, Idaho; Daniel, who died in 1878; Martin, who died in 1896; Mrs. Clara Bobbitt, who lives in Jerome, Idaho, and Hattie, who lives in Porter precinct. Of these children, Charles E. was educated in the Lycoming county schools, Pennsylvania, and Jacob was graduated from the Stella high school and from the University of Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. William Stoltz were married on June 22, 1869.

Following his education, Charles E. Stoltz assisted his father in building up a home and continued in this way up to the time of his marriage in 1893. In the latter year he rented his father's farm for four years and later bought out the home place, subsequently selling it. In 1904 he moved to Dawson and for two years was engaged in the hardware and implement business and then sold out. In 1906 Mr. Stoltz bought an improved farm near Holdridge, Phillips County, Nebraska. He was the second man to pay fifty dollars an acre for land in that locality, and sold his holding at an enhanced price of seventy-five dollars an acre. He then moved to Franklin precinct, this county, and bought the farm which he vacated about twelve months ago, paying one hundred dollars an acre for the same in 1908. This tract of one hundred and sixty acres he parted with in 1916, obtaining one hundred and seventy-five dollars an acre for the land.

On February 9, 1893. Charles E. Stoltz was united in marriage to Anna Heim, who was born in Lycoming county-, Pennsylvania, on February 11, 1869, daughter of John J. and Rosina Heim, also natives of that state. Further mention of this branch of the Heim family will be found in another part of this work in a sketch relating to Israel Heim. To Mr. and Mrs. Stoltz four children have been born, as follow:

Esther, born on June 23, 1895; Iva, December 27, 1900; Carl, December 30, 1904, and Mildred, October 20, 1908.

Mr. Stoltz is a Democrat, but has never sought public office. He is a member of the Knights of Pythias and of the Modern Woodmen, and in the affairs of both organizations he takes a warm interest. He and his wife and family are members of the United Evangelical church.

Notes for William F. Stoltz:

Among the well-known and progressive farmers of Porter precinct, Richardson County, is William F. Stoltz, owner of three hundred and twenty acres of land of prime quality in section 35. He was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, on October 20, 1878, the son of William and Mary (Ulmer) Stoltz, also natives of the same county and state. William Stoltz was a son of Jacob Stoltz, a native of Germany. Mary Ulmer was the daughter of Isaac Ulmer and wife.

William Stoltz came from Pennsylvania to Richardson County in 1886 and located between Dawson and Stella, where he bought one hundred and sixty acres of raw prairie land. He moved his family to the farm in the following spring. William Stoltz was born in 1847 and died on March 20, 1915. His wife, Mary Ulmer, was born on May 31, 1849, and died on January 11, 1901. They were the parents of the following children: Charles E., Jacob F., who lives in Aurora, Illinois; Isaac H., of Onago, Kansas; Samuel, who lives in Chicago; William F., who lives on the home farm; Ezra W., of Jerome, Idaho; Daniel, who died in 1878; Martin, who died in 1896, and Mrs. Clara Bobbitt, who lives in Jerome, Idaho, and Hattie, who lives in Porter precinct. Of these children, Charles E. was educated in the Richardson county schools and Jacob was graduated from the Stella high school and the University of Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Stoltz were married on June 22, 1869.

William F. Stoltz, the subject of this sketch, was seven years old when his parents came to this county from Pennsylvania. He attended the district schools and later went to the high school of Stella. When he had completed the latter course, he attended the Lincoln Business College. Thus equipped by preparatory training he began working for himself. He started to work as a farm hand in 1901 and continued for one year, and in 1902 he rented his present farm from his father and from his maternal uncle, Daniel Ulmer. In 1908 he bought one hundred and sixty acres of excellent land and later, when the estate was settled in 1916, he bought out the other heirs. In 1905 he erected a substantial well-planned house and here he and his family make their home, comfortably situated.

On October 2, 1904, William F. Stoltz was united in marriage to Effie Tolly, daughter of R. J. and Julia (McQueen) Tolly, natives of Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. Tolly were among the early settlers of Richardson County and are now living near Stella on a farm. Mr. and Mrs. Stoltz are the parents of one child named Carroll, born on September 21, 1905. Mr. Stoltz and his wife are members of the Baptist church, of which they are liberal supporters and in the activities of which they are earnestly interested. Mr. Stoltz is a Democrat, but has never sought public office.

1230. Reuben Lauren⁸ Ulmer (Emanuel⁷, Martin⁶, Johann Leonard⁵, Christina Margaretha⁴ Gohl, Johann Michael³, Isaac², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 24 Feb 1893 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 30 Jul 1973 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. He married Marian True Stratton 16 Jun 1915 in Brownville, Nebraska, daughter of Clarence Stratton and Mary Heim. She was born 11 Nov 1895 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 16 Nov 1991 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Reuben Lauren Ulmer:

Reuben Ulmer (1893-1973) bought from his father, Emanuel Ulmer, 80 acres of treeless untilled land, bordered on three sides by farms of brothers and a sister, Reuben never traveled outside Richardson County until he went to Brownville to marry True Stratton (1895) in 1915.

Osage orange hedges were planted as fences and windbreaks which, when grown, provided fence posts and firewood (cut by axe) and grew again to posts and firewood.

Reuben built a barn and outbuildings and helped build the house. (In retirement he was a carpenter.) He and True landscaped the house area with elm and maple trees around a curving drive to the house and dreamed of when there would be enough shade for their children to play in: Marian (Leatherman) and Evelyn of Dawson; Lorraine (Shorney), Plattsmouth; Sylvia (Anderson), Springfield, Missouri; Ernest, New York City; and Nadine (Hill), Gresham, Oregon.

Reuben and True contributed much to the Dawson Evangelical Church, including as choir director, pianist and organist, and as musicians for funerals. True was a piano teacher for many years. The children all played musical instruments, encouraged by Ruby Brown, who involved nearly every Dawson school pupil in the music program. Ernest went on, following service in World War II, to a career as concert pianist and professor at the Manhattan School of Music in New York.

A progressive conservationist, Reuben planted many trees and in the 1930s an acre of hackberry trees, which did not survive the drought and were replaced by Chinese elm. The drought years of the 1930s were hard for the family and for scores of destitute men and even whole families plodding down the highway in summer, for whom Reuben and True provided food and shelter.

After 1940 the county gave support to the Stratton Cemetery near Verdon, which had been started by True's paternal grandmother – interesting because the Heim cemetery in Dawson was started by True's maternal grandparents.

Reuben and True's married life spanned changes from breaking sod by single horse-drawn walking plow to tractors; from kerosene lamps to electricity by Delco generator to the Rural Electrification Administration, with its aim of bringing electricity to every farm (Reuben was instrumental in bringing it to the county), with refrigerators replacing the old cooling method of lowering containers of food into the well by ropes anchored to a well box; from travel by horse and buggy with a heated soapstone for warmth in winter, to seeing by television man on the moon.

Marian and Wayne Leatherman now own Reuben and True's farm, where they raised five children, and brought modern equipment and methods to the farm. Their daughter Linda was the first fourth generation graduate of Dawson High School in 1964, being the great-granddaughter of Mary Heim Stratton, who graduated in 1891 in Dawson's first graduating class of five persons.

Reuben L. Ulmer, 80, Dawson, died Monday July 30, 1973 at Falls City. Survivors: wife, True: son, Reuben, New York City; Daughters, Evelyn, Mrs. Allen (Lorraine) Shorney, both Plattsmouth, Mrs. Dale (Sylvia) Anderson, Springfield, Missouri, Mrs. Wayne (Marian) Leatherman, Dawson, Mrs. Ron (Nadine) Hill, Gresham, Oregon, sisters, Mrs. Mary Wuster, Edna, both Humboldt; 13 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren.

Notes for Ernest Reuben Ulmer:

Ernest R. Ulmer age 90 of Lincoln, formerly of Dawson, NE. Passed away Saturday, February 25, at the Gateway Senior Living Center in Lincoln, Nebraska. A funeral service for Ernest Ulmer will be held Saturday, March 3, at 10:30 a.m. at the Methodist Church in Humboldt, Nebraska. Burial will follow at the Hiem Cemetery near Dawson, Nebraska. Military Graveside Honor will be provided by the Humboldt American Legion Honor Guard and the Army National Guard Honor Guard. No viewing or visitation is scheduled for Ernest Ulmer.

Ernest Ulmer was born May 18, 1921, in the home of Reuben and True Ulmer north of Dawson, Nebraska. He began his study of piano at the age of three with his mother and the study of violin at age 7 with his father. He attended Peru State College with his two sisters in 1938 for one year.

The following year he stayed home. In 1940, he began piano studies under Earnest Harrison at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln. While there he also studied violin and organ. He obtained a bachelor's degree in absentia, graduating two months early so he could go to the Army.

He was drafted into the Army in March of 1943 and attended basic training at Camp Roberts in California before being transferred to Ft. Custer, Michigan. In January of 1944 he was sent overseas, serving in France, Germany, Belgium and England for two years, landing on Normandy Beach 6 days after D-Day. Following the war, he studied at Trinity College in London with Nicolas Medtner and Marguerite Wolfe while awaiting passage to the United States. He was honorably discharged in 1946 from the Army.

When he returned to the States, he attended the University of Nebraska at Lincoln and received his Masters' degree in 1947. Subsequently in 1947 under the GI bill, he studied at Manhattan School of Music in New York under Harold Bauer and Dora Zaslavsky, and in Paris during the summer of 1948 with Robert Casadesus and at the Paris Conservatoire in 1948-1949. While at the Conservatoire, he was awarded a Premier Prix in piano. In Paris he also studied privately with Nadia Boulanger, the distinguished harmony, counterpoint, piano and composition teacher whose other students included such distinguished American composers as Aaron Copland and Elliott Carter. With Boulanger, Ernest pursued a rigorous course of study in harmony and counterpoint as well as examining a vast repertoire ranging from Monteverdi madrigals through the Bach cantatas to the music of Debussy, Ravel, and Stravinsky. After Boulanger's death, a collection of Ernest's letters to Boulanger were privately published in France with the title, "Spet lettres de Ernest Ulmer a Nadia Boulanger, 1959-1979." He also made frequent appearances with the conducting class of Eugene Bigot. He returned to New York in 1949 as a student at Manhattan School of Music, and received his Masters' Degree prior to teaching there. He became a professor of piano at Manhattan School of Music in 1956 and served as Co-Coordinator of the Piano Major Department starting in 1965. He taught there for 34 years prior to his retirement in 1990. In 1991 he received a Distinguished Faculty Citation from the school.

His debut performance in New York City was in 1950 and throughout his career he played numerous concerts in New York City at Manhattan School of Music, Town Hall (initially in 1954, "the place" to perform solo in New York City at that time), Kaufman Auditorium, two concerts at Carnegie Recital Hall, as well as concerts in the major capitals of Europe (1957-1958) and in southeast Nebraska. On March 9, 1960, the New York Times described his performance of the night before as "brilliant," "meticulous as to detail and performed with much grace." His playing was also described as "quite delightful." He was also invited to perform concertos with various local and regional orchestras during a period when every city in the United States of any size had a first rate orchestra.

In addition to his tours as a soloist, Mr. Ulmer toured the United States with chamber ensembles and the Robert Shaw Chorale (1951-1952). He was an accompanist for Ruggiero Ricci, Cleve Genzlinger, Carol Feurer, and Mrs. Ruth Lloyd (mother of actor Christopher Lloyd and Sam Lloyd). He made ensemble appearances with Camilla Wicks and the Manhattan Trio, of which he was a founding member in 1952. The two other members were Manhattan School colleagues, violinist Oliver Colbentson and cellist David Wells. The Trio regularly performed live concerts on the radio in the 1950's.

His favorite composer was Claude Debussy and he recorded the Debussy Violin Sonata with Oliver Colbentson for Concert Hall Records and in 1979, Ernest recorded his only solo album, a complete recording of Debussy's two books of Preludes for piano solo on Protone records. Stereo Review described the latter recording as "a major contender among the fine recordings of these works." He also received a rave review from Harris Goldsmith in High Fidelity magazine.

In 1988, the Vantage Press published Ernest's book on piano technique, A New Approach to Piano Technique for the Serious Musician.

In 1993-1994 he traveled to Japan, where he taught piano at Kobe College for Women for a year before returning to the United States.

Ernest was known as a French specialist, frequently performing the music of Debussy and Ravel, but his favorite composers included the three B's, Bach, Beethoven, and Brahms. Like many other musicians, Ernest was dazzled by Bach's compositional technique and he studied the contrapuntal writing in the two books of Bach's The Well-Tempered Clavier in microscopic detail. He also arranged some of Bach's organ compositions for the piano.

In the summers of the early 1980's, he traveled throughout Spain, Italy, and Switzerland with his good friend Don Edman, another American pianist trained in Paris. They met in Manhattan in the early 1950's. They were lifelong friends. Ernest's friends included artists, musicians, writers, and intellectuals who met at the home of painter John Koch and his wife, Dora Zaslavsky, a noted piano coach under whom Ernest studied. Ernest indicated he became acquainted with this couple through his friend, Mrs. Lloyd. Ernest was actually featured in several of Mr. Koch's paintings, one of which hung in his own living room for many years. In 2007 he donated this painting to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. The paintings he owned at one time were featured in a showing at a New York gallery in the late 1990's, and in a book published about Mr. Koch. He also collected paintings by Jean Minard and Maurice Grosser.

In addition to art, he collected matchbooks, stamps and coins from all over the world. He took numerous pictures while traveling in Europe. Ernest moved to Florida in 1995 to enjoy his retirement years, continuing to perform when requested for friends. He returned to Nebraska in 2003 to be closer to family. His family frequently requested performance of "The Canary," a piece he composed, as well as many others. After being in ill health for several years, Ernest died peacefully in his room at Gateway Senior Living in Lincoln, Nebraska on February 25, 2012. Ernest was preceded in death by his parents, and two sisters Evelyn Ulmer and Lorraine Shorney.

He is survived by his sisters Sylvia Anderson of Springfield, Missouri; Marian Leatherman of Dawson, Nebraska; Nadine Hill of Gresham, Oregon; nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

The days are long but made much shorter knowing you in my heart. Just as the days of a flower are spent in preparation, growing deeper so the blossom can be even more beautiful-just for you. The footprint you placed in my soul brings joy that can never be taken away. And now that distance separates, makes the past so much more precious bringing life into my soul. Counting the ways as each step is taken toward THE DAY of our rejoicing!

He married Cecilia Caroline Smith 23 Mar 1921 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. She was born 17 Mar 1900 in Brooklyn, New York, and died 29 May 1967 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Nelson Howard Ulmer:

Nelson Howard Ulmer, born May 16, 1896 and died March 18, 1972, was one of six children born to Emanuel and Sarah Heim Ulmer on a farm two miles north of Dawson. Following graduation from Dawson High School in 1914 Nelson farmed for his father and completed a course in agriculture at the University of Nebraska then purchased eighty acres of farmland from his father. On August 20, 1918 he was drafted into the Motor Transport Corps of the Army and sent to France to serve in the Army of Occupation. His time in service was difficult, having suffered mumps, tonsillitis and diphtheria. The one bright spot was playing cornet in an orchestra that accompanied a vaudeville troupe touring the occupied territory of Germany. He was discharged September 23, 1919 and returned to farming. Soon he met Cecelia Caroline Smith, born March 17, 1900 and died May 29, 1967, an orphan from Brooklyn, New York, who was brought to Richardson County by train with her four brothers and a sister in 1915. The younger children were placed in foster homes but Cecelia at the age of fifteen worked for her keep in homes wherever help was needed. She completed eighth grade at Grand Avenue country school.

On March 23, 1921, Nelson and Cecelia were married at the Emanuel Ulmer home at the north edge of Dawson by W.W. Underkoffler, pastor of the Evangelical Church where both the bride and groom had been and continued to be active members the remainder of their lives. Three daughters were born to this union: Genevieve Mae on February 8, 1922; Dolores Irene on May 4, 1923 and Caroline Ruth was stillborn on July 8, 1924.

Genevieve attended school in Dawson from kindergarten through graduation in 1940 and was hired as secretary to the school superintendent that fall. In May 1942 she accepted a Civil Service position in Washington, D.C. where in 1946 she met and on September 13 married Herbert Lee Young who was born November 8, 1920 in West Virginia. They made their home in the D.C. area for thirty-two years. Their children are Ray Nelson born August 26, 1947, Charles Edward born December 17, 1949 and Wayne Cortland born September 14, 1956. Following graduation from the University of Maryland, Ray and Charles found employment and settled in California. Ray married Nancy Josephine Goudie on June 22, 1949 in San Francisco. Charles married Deborah Marie Calafat on January 27, 1979 in Pasadena. Their two daughters are Darlene Marie born September 16, 1982 and Crystal Joy born May 10, 1984.

Following his retirement from government service, Herbert, Genevieve and Wayne moved to Humboldt in 1974. Wayne was graduated from Peru and Northwest Missouri State Colleges. On May 16, 1980 he married Dee Ann Dettmer and they live in Lenexa, Kansas where he has employment.

The ancestry of the Ulmer and Heim families is recorded in Edwards History of Richardson County.

Notes for Rev. Arthur Albert Schade:

Taken from Arthur A. Schade: His Life and Ministry, self-published in 1992, written by Sarah M. Elsesser (his daughter):

Mrs. Schade was born on December 5, 1885, the identical date on which her husband was born, she in Lycoming County, near Williamsport, Pennsylvania, he in the vicinity of Herring, Kansas. Her father was the Rev. Thomas J. Schaefer and her mother was Sarah Margaret Schaefer, born Ulmer. She emanates from an ancestry which settled in Pennsylvania 1812 onward, making the journey from Philadelphia to Williamsport, a distance of approximately 140 miles, on foot. There they cleared the dense forest and established a sort of a colony of the Dunkard Faith. Her father grew up on the farm, attended normal school, as was the fashion those days, and became a country school teacher. After being married and establishing a family on the farm, he heard the call to become a Minister of the Gospel and attended an academic and theological school in Rochester, New York. After graduation he accepted a missionary appointment to South Dakota and became minister of Baptist churches in Parkston and a neighboring town. They lived in the city of Yankton at the time of his death from typhoid fever in February 1895.

The widow moved back to Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and supported the family through farming operations. Emma, the second oldest of the five daughters, followed her father in attending Normal School and becoming a country school teacher. After three years she decided to dedicate her life to Christian work and entered the Baptist Christian Training Institute in Philadelphia. The summer before she entered, Arthur A. Schade accepted an invitation to serve as assistant pastor of the country church to which she belonged, the Hepburn Baptist Church in the Blooming Grove Valley, becoming acquainted with Emma Schaefer. The acquaintance developed into a courtship and resulted in their marriage on August 4th, 1910, after Arthur had completed his theological course and Emma her training course.

The Schades pastored three churches over a period of eighteen years, 1910 to 1928, seven years in Cincinnati, Ohio, four years in Kankakee, Illinois, and seven years in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. After another for years during which time Arthur held a position as Secretary of Young People's Work and Christian Education, they moved to Rochester, New York, where he held a position as professor at his alma mater, the Rochester Theological Seminary, for a period of twelve years.

The Schade couple moved to South Dakota January 1, 1946, where Arthur served as the Executive Secretary of the South Dakota Council of Churches. During this time he came across the tragic need for retirement and nursing homes to minister to the needs of the aged. On January 1, 1951, they moved to the town of Faulkton, South Dakota, where Mr. Schade held the position of administrator of the newly built Hill-Burton, Faulk County Memorial Hospital. At the same time they rented what had served as a hospital for a period of thirty-five years, the old Morse Home, and opened a nursing home with a view to getting first-hand experience in the operation of such a facility. Mrs. Schade was the hostess and superintendent in one person. It was during this period that they received the idea of retirement homes after the pattern of the David M. Dorsett Home. Having developed the plans for the home, it finally found realization in the first of the Pioneer Memorial Manors, the David M. Dorsett Home.

The availability of the Dorsett Legacy for the construction of a home for the aged in the city of Spearfish led to their moving to Spearfish in the fall of 1954, where they labored together to secure the funds for the construction of the home. She was receptionist and a sort of housemother until her health necessitated her complete retirement. She was still able with her husband to take a trip abroad during the summer of 1960 in recognition of their golden wedding anniversary. Since that time her condition slowly became worse until the summer of 1962, when she became a patient in the nursing home.

She expired peacefully on November 24, 1962, in the Dorsett Home at the age of 76 years, 11 months and 20 days, and is survived by her widowed husband, with whom she labored so intimately in such a wide range of service to their generation: three sons, Arthur Thomas, born on Christmas morning 1911, a very important person in the Electronics Division of General Electric Company, Liverpool, New York; Rev. Paul Gerhardt Schade, Chaplain in the United States Air Force, presently stationed at Wright-Patterson Air Base, Dayton, Ohio; Robert August Schade, born on their seventh marriage anniversary, connected with Republic Steel Works, and living in Youngstown, Ohio; two daughters, Emma Clara Klein, wife of Rev. Ernst E. Klein, minister of Old Cambridge Baptist Church, Cambridge, Massachusetts; and Sarah Margaret Elsesser, wife of Rev. Alex Elsesser, minister of the Community Baptist Church, Manchester, Connecticut; and seventeen grand-children.

Mrs. Schade was blessed with an amiable disposition and knew the secret of living harmoniously with people. Her husband pays her the tribute of never in all her public relationships or family relationships having given occasion for tensions of any kind.

Interment is to take place in the ancestral burial ground where her ancestors of several generations are resting, the burial ground of the Dunkard log meeting house dating back approximately two centuries, located some nine miles from Williamsport, Hepburnville Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. A memorial service to be held in the Spearfish Congregational Church with the Rev. Westwood in charge, and in the Dunkard Church, Blooming Grove, with the Rev. Arthur Weisser, minister of the Andrews Street Baptist Church, Rochester, New York, officiating.

Rev. Arthur Albert Schade - Originally named Elbert Robert, but when his mother Clara was so grief-stricken by their eldest son Arthur's tragic death, she was so anxious to have an Arthur, that they renamed Elbert as Arthur Albert.

1890-1901 • Junction City, Geary, Kansas, USA - Attended the High Prairie Schoolhouse (1.5 m walk from home) until he was sixteen, when he had to drop out for a couple of years to help with the work on the farm.

Marriage Notes for Thomas Heim and Ruth Haines:

A very pretty but quiet wedding occurred at Winfield yesterday Sept. 12, 1918 when Miss Ruth Violet Haines became the bride of Thomas J.S. Heim, of Williamsport, Pennsylvania. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents at 2:30 p.m., and was most beautifully solemnized by Rev. C.S. Roush, associate pastor of the First Baptist church, of Elmira, New York, a brother-in-law of the bride.

Both of the young people were very well known throughout this community. Miss Haines is the youngest daughter of A. Haines of Winfield, and a graduate of the Bucknell School of music in the class of 1915, in which class she took the "Aviragnet" prize for excellence in music. Mr. Heim also a student of Bucknell University, at the present time being a member of the Junior class. During the past year he has held the position of Student Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., besides being very actively connected with many other college organizations. During the past summer Mr. Heim has served as summer pastor of the Eagles Mere Baptist church and worked as clerk at the Forest Inn Hotel, Eagles Mere Park. The bride is a member of the Mu Phi Epsilon Sorority at Bucknell and the groom a member of the Delta Sigma Fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Heim will be at home to their many friends at North Second Street, Lewisburg after November 1, at which place Mr. Heim expects to continue his studies in preparation for the ministry.

Marriage Notes for Herbert Ulmer and Marion Swanberg:

August 5, 1934 – Announcement is made today of the engagement and approaching marriage of Mrs. Marion Jordan of 2701 Niles Avenue to Dr. Herbert David Ulmer of Denver, Colorado. The marriage is to take place in Denver, August 26 and Mrs. Jordan and her family are leaving August 24 for that city to make their home.

Dr. Ulmer and Mrs. Jordan were friends when the doctor was attending medical school and Mrs. Jordan was a college student. For a number of years, they were out of touch with one another. Dr. Ulmer, whose wife died several years ago, has two sons, and Mrs. Jordan, who was the wife of the late Thayer Jordan of this city, has three children. They met again a year ago after a long interval.

Dr. Ulmer, who has a general medical practice in Denver, is also on the staff of St. Anthony's hospital in that city, where he has been in practice for the past 16 years.

- 2330 ii. Victor Kenneth Ulmer, born 16 Oct 1927 in Denver Co, Colorado; died 04 May 2016 in Saratoga, California. He married Barbara Cherney 26 Dec 1954 in Sonoma, California; born 24 Nov 1929 in San Francisco Co, California.

Marriage Notes for Victor Ulmer and Barbara Cherney:

In one of the prettiest weddings of the holiday season, Barbara Cherney became the bride of Victor Ulmer of Denver, Colorado, the day after Christmas Dec. 1954 in an afternoon ceremony in the Burnside Road home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cherney. Judge J. Robertson of Guerneville performed the rites as the young couple stood in the archway of the Cherney home, surrounded by more than 150 relatives and friends.

For her wedding the bride chose a lovely lavender faille ballerina gown with bandeau of orange blossoms in her hair and her aunt's pearl necklace at her throat. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white stock and was accompanied by her twin sister, Joan, who for the past three years has been Mrs. Wallace R. MacDonald of San Francisco. For the occasion, the matron of honor wore her white lace wedding gown with an aqua slip, and wore a corsage of tiny buff orchids. As the double ring ceremony was read, Mr. Cherney gave his daughter's hand in marriage, and Erling Hansen of Berkeley stood by as the best man.

A piano medley of Grieg selections was offered by Mrs. Charles Alancraig of Walnut Creek preceding the ceremony, and record music suffused the rooms and patio of the beautifully decorated home during the reception which followed. The hostess received in a two-piece blue lace dress and wore a corsage of white roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. Herbert Ulmer was attired in a blue taffeta gown with a lavender orchid at her shoulder.

A buffet supper preceded the serving of the traditional four-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with white roses and silver leaves and topped with a miniature bride and groom. The dining table was covered with a handmade embroidered Italian cutwork and drawnwork cloth which belonged to Mrs. Joseph Mirhelio who made her niece's (the bride's) gown. Sterling candelabra held tall red candles and the conversational centerpiece of a special homemade strudel was flanked by white goblets filled with white stock.

The guests who congratulated the newlyweds' included relatives from New York who came out for this special occasion, namely, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rand, Mrs. Joseph Cherney and Mrs. Joseph Gutnick. Others gathered from Los Angeles and the bay area. The groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert David Ulmer, flew from Denver to be present. This made their second trip during 1954, as they attended the American Medical Convention in California in June.

The bride and groom are both teachers, she at the High school level and he, at present, at the elementary level. He will receive his M.A degree in September at the University of California at Berkeley, and will then be eligible to enter the high school field. She received her degree at San Francisco State after having completed a course of study at the University of California at Berkeley. They have both studied in Denmark on scholarships, she for one year and he for two. The winning of this scholarship by Barbara inspired Paula McCord of San Anselmo, who caught the bride's bouquet, to enter the 1954 Odd Fellows competition on "What the U.N. Means to Me" in which she came out a winner, also. The new Mrs. Ulmer is at present teaching English at a Belmont, California, high school near where they plan to make their home. As the young couple departed for two-week honeymoon at an undisclosed destination, the bride wore a spun orlon jersey burgundy tweed dress with a grey coat.

Gohl, Johann Georg³, Anstadt², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 23 Nov 1923 in Rose Valley, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 27 Feb 2015 in Canton, Stark Co, Ohio. He married Lois Irene Paulhamus 24 Aug 1945 in Anthony Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania. She was born 1928.

Notes for Rev. Charles William Ulmer, Jr.:

Rev. Charles William Ulmer went to be with our Lord on Feb. 27, 2015 at the Aultman Compassionate Care Center. He was the son of Charles and Margaret (Dangle) Ulmer, and was raised on the family farm in Rose Valley, Pennsylvania. with his five brothers and five sisters. He attended Sharon Center High School near Medina, Ohio his first year, but returned home where he graduated from the Williamsport High School in the class of 1944. He graduated from Cleveland Bible College (Malone University) in 1948. He pastored two Evangelical United Brethren Churches in McZena, Ohio. While there, he went to Ashland College and graduated with a B.A. degree, followed by one year at Ashland Seminary. He then moved to Naperville, Illinois for two years, where he completed his seminary at Evangelical Theological Seminary and received his B.D. degree. While there, he served the Pontiac Evangelical United Brethren Church. He returned to Ohio, where he received an appointment from the East Ohio Annual Conference as Pastor of the McDonaldsville St. Paul Evangelical United Brethren Church (now United Methodist) in 1955. He served McDonaldsville for 32 years, retiring in 1987, and was given the title of Pastor Emeritus by the congregation. While there and as the church family grew, he was involved in three building programs: the parsonage, the educational unit, and the addition to the sanctuary and social room. Following retirement he became Pastor of Visitation for 14 years at Westbrook Park United Methodist Church in Canton, OH, retiring in 2001. In the United Methodist Church Conference, he served on the Board of Ordained Ministry and on the Council of Ministries in the Canton District, and served as Youth Director for the Canton District several years.

He was a compassionate, humble Pastor, living an exemplary life doing God's work, putting other people's needs before his. He was always "On Call", 24 hours a day, seven days a week, even postponing vacations because someone needed him, whether it be church family or someone outside the church. We will miss his beautiful, meaningful prayers, both at church services or functions, and our family gatherings, and the annual reading of the Christmas story with the family on Christmas Day. Their large garden was his & Lois' hobby.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife of almost 70 years, Lois I. (Paulhamus) Ulmer, three daughters, Marvalene (Dennis) Matson, Marcia Ulmer, and Diane (Kim) Morrison, and one son, Charles W. (Sheryl) Ulmer, II, PhD. Notes for George McKinley Ludwig:

A Letter From Father to Son By G.M. Ludwig (George H. Ludwig, son of G. M. Ludwig, enlisted in the army Wednesday, May 22, and is now stationed at Fort Snelling).

Dear Son George:

This is the first letter I have ever written to you. There is much I could say but most of it would probably do you very little good now. There are, however, a few things that should be of mutual benefit. You are now on your own. Up to last week most of the decisions were made for you. Your own personality was more or less a part of the Ludwig family. Now you will no longer be recognized as "the son of" G.M. Ludwig but as George Harry Ludwig. Your personality is now your own. Your initiation into the modern complex social life will bring you both an opportunity and a responsibility. And because you are immediately so far removed from the routine of life to which you were accustomed you will find before you a new social life that will bring you both good and ill. No longer will you benefit directly because of the virtues of your parents. Neither will you be handicapped because of their vices. The primary social circle to which you were accustomed has now widened into a secondary social circle that will recognize you for what you yourself are. The people with whom you are now coming into contact will care little who your parents are, nor will they be interested in the school and the church you attended. What they will want to know is WHAT YOU ARE AND WHAT YOU CAN DO.

I am far more happy than I can tell you that your obedience to your parents was so complete. Your actions were always under parental scrutiny. Your whereabouts were always a matter of family knowledge. This is rather an old-fashioned way of bringing up children. Today, in many instances, young men, long before their 18th birthday, take a wide range of liberties and pursue a course of action of which their parents are absolutely ignorant. Your parents consider this wrong. For your obedience and your co-operation your mother and I are profoundly grateful. But now you are graduated from high school. You are a young man. It would be absolutely wrong for such a close supervision to continue. The break, in fact, already has come. You are now obliged to act for yourself. Your life habits will now be a matter of your own choosing.

We do not intend that you should sever your relationship with the Ludwig home. You will, forever, I am sure, be a part of the Ludwig family. You will want to see the old home often. You will want to come back to your old room, and find it just as you knew it during your youth. You will want to sleep again and again beneath those rustic old rafters, being lulled to sleep by the sound of the rain on the exposed shingle roof, or rocked to slumber land by the swaying of the winter storm without. The memory of your youth, you will want to cherish as long as you live. The bitter experiences will soon fade out of sight and the sweet will become ever more hallowed and sanctified. This sudden break has been all the more intensified by your enlistment into the army. Many consider this step of yours foolish. I consider it otherwise.

You have now done what twice I have been prevented from doing. First during World War I and then again World War II, I took steps to enlist as a Chaplain. In both instances' technicalities prevented me. You have now done what I didn't get accomplished. As a soldier in the army you will help defend the standard of the most wonderful nation on earth. Your devotion to Old Glory will, am sure, be just as unrestricted and wholehearted as was your devotion to your parents. There are many hirelings and "foreigners" in this country who would pollute our sacred flag had they an opportunity. Your forefathers came to America to find and preserve a home where freedom and personal opportunity should prevail. There are others, many of them, who call themselves patriots, but their hearts are corrupt. Had they the opportunity they would substitute a foreign flag. As a soldier you can help expose such treachery and insist on preserving America for Americans. The army may be your opportunity. I have yet to find a situation that cannot be accepted either as a drudgery or as a chance to do something great. If you find that which is repugnant, if you meet doubts and disappointments, look for a break. It is bound to come and challenge you to the limit of your ability. You will be sure to find the company you are looking for. Many of the boys will indulge freely in dissipations. But every time this occurs you will find some boys like yourself looking for a more sober comradeship. So be patient. What will appear as vicious ostracism at times may present you in disguise the most challenging opportunity for constructive leadership. Anyway you are in the army now. Lots of good luck and write often.

Your father, G.M. LUDWIG

She married Samuel Edwin Richards 18 Mar 1914 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, son of Milton Howard Richards. He was born 22 May 1889 in Gove Co, Kansas, and died 27 Jun 1974 in McCook, Red Willow Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Tillie Myrtle Heim:

Tillie Myrtle Heim was born September 2, 1893 at Dawson, Nebraska. Here she spent the growing years of her childhood and youth. Then 24 years ago, March 18, 1914 she was united in marriage to Mr. S.E. Richards. For a number of years Mr. and Mrs. Richards made their home at Humboldt, Nebraska. In 1929 they moved on a farm northeast of Culbertson. The next year they moved to their present location from which she so recently departed from this life. Three children, Harlan, Ramona, and Donajean were born to this home.

Mrs. Richards was reared in the Christian faith. Religion in her home was a very real thing, not only on Sundays, but seven days every week. As a result of this training and influence, she joined the Evangelical church early in her youth. After her marriage and when the family moved to Humboldt, she transferred her membership to the Presbyterian church of that community, and she was a member of this fellowship at the time of her death. Mrs. Richards was an energetic worker. Her enthusiasm often carried her beyond her strength. Her health broke about a year ago, and she never completely recovered her strength after this illness. Early this spring she had another attack which proved to be the beginning of her last sickness. During these days she leaned heavily upon her God and because of this fact, it was a pleasure to minister to her spiritual needs. She prayed fervently and her faith and hope were strengthened and brightened as her bodily energy diminished.

Death came Wednesday afternoon, June 15, 1938. She was 44 years, 9 months, and 13 days old. She leaves to mourn her going her husband, S.E. Richards; her three children, Harlan, Ramona, and Donajean; one grandchild, Shirley Ann; also her father and mother of Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. S.F. Heim; and five brothers and sisters: Mrs. Clark Belden of Buffalo, Montana; Mrs. Adah James of Dawson; Melvin Heim of Dawson; Mrs. Charles Bilsing of Culbertson; and Rev. R.A. Heim of Lincoln, besides many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Evangelical Church with the Rev. H.A. Norenberg officiating and the Pade&Herrman Funeral Directors of McCook in charge. Special numbers were sung by a quartet consisting of Mrs. H.A. Norenberg, Mrs. George Hein, Alex Eisenach, and Bernard Gillespie. Ronald Clark sang a solo. Interment was in the Culbertson cemetery. The church was filled with sympathizing friends and the many beautiful and large floral pieces reflected the esteem in which she was held by the communities in which she had resided.

Mrs. Richards was a former president of the Presbyterian Working and was vice president this year. She had also been re-elected as secretary of the Culbertson Woman's Club this spring, which duties she had faithfully performed last year. Among her many other duties she took time to act as East Riverside correspondence for The Progress, who are indeed sorry to lose her as one of their correspondents.

Notes for Samuel Edwin Richards:

Notes for Philip Arthur Bilsing:

Culbertson, Nebraska - Philip A. Bilsing, 26, of Culbertson, a state highway employee, was crushed to death Tuesday June 27, 1950 while unloading lumber on a siding here. Bilsing was with a state crew building a bridge south of Culbertson. C. J. Schuster, construction engineer on the bridge, said he had learned that Bilsing was on top of a flatcar full of lumber loosening the tie straps, when the loosened lumber slipped and threw him to the ground. The lumber then fell on top of him.

Philip Bilsing, 27, a member of the state highway department crew that is constructing a steel span bridge across the Republican river here, was fatally injured at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, when he was crushed beneath a pile of heavy bridge timbers that fell from a railroad flatcar located on a siding east of the Culbertson Sale Barn. Bilsing and other members of the crew were preparing to unload the 4 x 12-inch timbers of 20-foot length when the accident occurred. He and Joe Ortiz had removed three of the side stakes from the car and were in the act of taking out the fourth and last stake when about a dozen of the huge timbers, weighing around 700 pounds apiece, toppled and fell. Ortiz managed to get out of the way, but Bilsing was crushed to the ground beneath the pile. Dale Lantis who was on top of the car came down with the timbers and received a badly bruised right shoulder.

Bilsing never regained consciousness and died before the arrival of a doctor and ambulance from McCook, about half an hour after the accident. He had been working with the state highway crew here for three or four months. Chest injuries are said to have caused his death. One of his legs was also fractured in several places.

He is survived by his wife and a four-months-old daughter, Penny. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bilsing, farm residents south of Culbertson, are his parents.

Funeral services are to be held in the Evangelical U.B. Church in Culbertson tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. M.G. Braun officiating. The body will lie in state at the church from 10:00 a.m. to noon that day.

1365. Arthur William⁸ Heim (Jonathan W.⁷, Jacob G.⁶, Gottlieb⁵, Christina⁴ Gohl, Johann Georg³, Anstadt², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 12 Aug 1909 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 29 Apr 1982 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. He married Lucille Marie Stratton 02 Nov 1934 in Humboldt, Richardson Co, Nebraska, daughter of Clarence Stratton and Mary Heim. She was born 04 Oct 1910 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 07 Jun 2010 in Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Arthur William Heim:

Arthur W. Heim, 72, Dawson, died Thursday April 29, 1982 in Lincoln. Survivors: wife, Lucile; daughter, Lorna M. Carter, Denver; son, Alan A., Lincoln; sisters, Mrs. Mattie M. Vermaas, Humboldt, Mrs. Pearl M. Kirkwood, Columbus, Ohio. Services: 3:30 p.m. Sunday, United Methodist Church, Dawson. Heim Cemetery, Dawson.

Arthur William Heim - August 12, 1909 - April 29, 1982 was the sixth child of Jonathan W. and Louisa Shafer Heim of Dawson. With his brothers and sisters, Mattie, Howard, Wesley, Pearl, and Edith (Clarence died in infancy), Arthur grew up on the family farm in the house built in 1874 by his grandparents, Jacob G. and Regina Gross Heim, Jacob G. (Jakey to friends and neighbors) and Regina and family were pioneer German settlers from, Pennsylvania who came to Nebraska seeking richer, less rocky farmland than they had in the East.

As a boy Arthur ranged up and down the farm's creeks, enjoyed the cold permanent spring that had caught his grandfather's eye, collected bird' eggs, and learned to farm, He soon began his lifelong interest in music. All Jonathan's children sang well and had excellent pitch, and Arthur settled into a true, mid-tenor voice. He took violin lessons as a teenager, riding the train to Humboldt once a week, played violin in the Dawson church orchestra, and was in demand for violin solos in the community,

Arthur attended elementary and high school in Dawson, walking to school over the farm fields. After high school graduation in 1927, he attended the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, where he went out for track, took banjo lessons, and began a liberal arts course. After one semester, Arthur returned to Dawson: his father had suffered a serious farm accident and could no longer work the farm. Arthur began farming the home place in 1929 and farmed for his entire life. In November 1934, he married the youngest child of Clarence and Mary' Heim Stratton, Lucile Marie born October 4, 1910, whose sisters and brothers were True, John, Isaiah, and Helen (another child, Mary, lived only a few days). Arthur and Lucile had known of each other since childhood, and their friendship grew at first, not surprisingly, around music - Lucile was a talented pianist who could play all the popular jazz songs of the 1920's. Arthur and Lucile had two children, Alan Arthur born in 1937, and Lorna Mary born in 1941. They maintained their interest in music, teaching their children very early to sing and to play instruments. In the 1950's, Lucile directed the Ladies Chorus at Dawson, a group who sang for many church and community events. Both Art and Lucile lent their talents to musical variety shows, well known in the Dawson community in the 1940's and 1950's, and to church programs and plays.

Arthur Heim, a meticulous farmer, was interested in conservation of water and topsoil, terracing, good fences and floodgates, and clean and well-kept buildings, fields, and pastures, Arthur retired from full-time farming in 1971 and began renting the use of his row-crop ground. He remained very vigorous, however, raising cattle, mending and replacing fences, cutting hedge, putting up hay, mowing pastures and fencerows, improving the family home and buildings, and managing, Retirement did give him more time to read, a lifelong hobby, and to continue many activities in his beloved United Methodist Church in Dawson, In his last winter, at 72, he reorganized a choir at the Dawson church; selected music, and rehearsed and directed the choir in both Christmas and Easter seasons.

Four generations have now lived in the large, native limestone and white pine house north of Dawson. Few are now left to recount the experience, but the house and farm remain as a tribute to the Pennsylvania family who brought their faith and hopes to Richardson County in 1874.

He married Golda Ellen Mountain Jun 1927 in Beverly, Bell Co, Kentucky. She was born 31 Dec 1897 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 11 Sep 1971 in Beverly, Bell Co, Kentucky.

Notes for Dr. Harlan Stabler Heim:

Dr. Harlan S. Heim was a dedicated physician and served the Humboldt, Nebraska community for over 40 years. He was an ordained minister of the United Methodist Church, and substituted for absent or vacationing pastors. He performed many marriages, conducted funerals and baptisms. His speaking ability made him a frequent choice for banquets, conferences, and commencement exercises.

He married Golda Mountain in 1927 and she was his companion for life. Golda was a housewife, mother of their three children, and during the years that they owned and operated the Humboldt Hospitals, she bought the food and hired the help for the two hospitals and was her husband's secretary and chauffeur. She often remarked that, "her occupation was to keep Doc going." And this she did!

Dr. Heim attended the Dawson Public Schools, Westmar College in LeMars, Iowa, and while there was influenced by Dr. Neibel, then secretary of the Evangelical Association, to become a medical missionary in China. A close friend, Walter Ulmer, also from Dawson, served for many years in China and encouraged Dr. Heim to follow the same path.

Receiving his B.A. from Westmar in 1920, Dr. Heim attended Cornell Medical School in New York

City, which at that time was one of the few medical schools in the United States offering courses in Oriental medicine. Finishing medical school in 1924 and with two years of internship in 1926, Dr. Heim was interviewed by the Rev. J.J. DeWall, head of a new mission of the Evangelical Association at Red Bird, Kentucky. Conditions in China being unsettled, Dr. Heim went to Red Bird until the way should open up to China. It never did.

The couple spent 6 ½ years in the Cumberland Mountains. While at Red Bird Mission, Dr. Heim established a 16-bed hospital, the first to serve the Cumberland Mountain area of southeast Kentucky. Golda was quoted as saying, "On our wedding trip we rode mule back along the creeks the only roads available on the last lap of our journey in route to our home at the mission. I had never ridden a mule!" While there were many great changes at Red Bird Mission through the years, Mrs. Heim often spoke of her vivid memories of life there when she taught in the mission school. Classes were held off and on according to the weather and the condition of the creek beds. The mission dormitory housed about 100 students.

Returning to Humboldt in August of 1933, Dr. Heim started his medical practice. In addition to serving the Humboldt Community, Dr. Heim served on the board of trustees of Westmar College from 1943 to 1971, was president of the board of trustees from 1960 to 1968, and later was named the life trustee of the college.

Two daughters were born while they were in Kentucky, Betty Jean was the first baby born in the new hospital, which the Heim's were instrumental in building. She spent most of her life as a medical technician at the Espanola Hospital in Espanola, New Mexico. She passed away in 1982 and is buried in the Heim Cemetery at Dawson, beside her parents. Donna Marie was born January 3, 1930 and married Lloyd Epley, a lawyer of Coralville, Iowa, where they still make their home. A son, Robert Harlan was born January 6, 1942 and passed away August 10, 1991. He held several degrees and taught in several schools, the last being the University of Iowa at Iowa City, Iowa.

Dr. Heim was instrumental in founding a hospital in Humboldt in 1939 and he and his associate, Dr. A.P. Stappenbeck, opened the Holman Maternity Hospital in 1949. Dr. Heim was active in founding the Humboldt Community Memorial Hospital, the Colonial Acres Nursing Home and the Humboldt Clinic. He also managed a small home for older people known as the "cottage."

Dr. Heim was born on September 17, 1897, a son of Henry W. and Regina Heim, on a farm north of Dawson. Dr. Heim grew up in the Dawson Bethel Church where he held his membership all of his life. Golda passed away in 1971 while on a trip to Red Bird Mission, and Dr. Heim passed away in 1974. Both are buried in the Heim Cemetery at Dawson, Nebraska.

Humboldt, March 12, 1974 - Funeral services for Dr. Harlan S. Heim, 76, longtime physician and civic leader here, were to be held Tuesday at the United Methodist Church in Humboldt. He died Saturday, March 9, 1974. A native of Dawson, Dr. Heim came to Humboldt in 1933 after serving as a full-service missionary in Appalachia for 7-1/2 years. An ordained minister in the old Evangelical Church, Dr. Heim for many years filled area pulpits on a substitute basis, averaging about a sermon a month. He served as director of the United Methodist Church choir here for 40 years. Dr. Heim was a World War I veteran and was active in American Legion work. He was also a leader in Rotary and Masonic circles. In May of 1973 Dr. Heim was honored by his community in two days of special tribute.

Surviving are his son, Robert of Iowa City, Iowa; daughters, Betty Jean Heim of Espanola, New Mexico, and Mrs. Lloyd (Donna) Epley of Coralville, Iowa; brother, John of Fremont; sisters, Martha Klima of Kansas City, Missouri, and Mrs. James. DeWeese of Humboldt; and three grandchildren.

1432. Marian True⁸ Stratton (Mary Louise⁷ Heim, Johann J.⁶, Jacob⁵, Christina⁴ Gohl, Johann Georg³, Anstadt², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 11 Nov 1895 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 16 Nov 1991 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. She married Reuben Lauren Ulmer 16 Jun 1915 in Brownville, Nebraska, son of Emanuel Ulmer and Sarah Heim. He was born 24 Feb 1893 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 30 Jul 1973 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Reuben Lauren Ulmer:

Reuben Ulmer (1893-1973) bought from his father, Emanuel Ulmer, 80 acres of treeless untilled land, bordered on three sides by farms of brothers and a sister, Reuben never traveled outside Richardson County until he went to Brownville to marry True Stratton (1895) in 1915.

Osage orange hedges were planted as fences and windbreaks which, when grown, provided fence posts and firewood (cut by axe) and grew again to posts and firewood.

Reuben built a barn and outbuildings and helped build the house. (In retirement he was a carpenter.) He and True landscaped the house area with elm and maple trees around a curving drive to the house and dreamed of when there would be enough shade for their children to play in: Marian (Leatherman) and Evelyn of Dawson; Lorraine (Shorney), Plattsmouth; Sylvia (Anderson), Springfield, Missouri; Ernest, New York City; and Nadine (Hill), Gresham, Oregon.

Reuben and True contributed much to the Dawson Evangelical Church, including as choir director, pianist and organist, and as musicians for funerals. True was a piano teacher for many years. The children all played musical instruments, encouraged by Ruby Brown, who involved nearly every Dawson school pupil in the music program. Ernest went on, following service in World War II, to a career as concert pianist and professor at the Manhattan School of Music in New York.

A progressive conservationist, Reuben planted many trees and in the 1930s an acre of hackberry trees, which did not survive the drought and were replaced by Chinese elm. The drought years of the 1930s were hard for the family and for scores of destitute men and even whole families plodding down the highway in summer, for whom Reuben and True provided food and shelter.

After 1940 the county gave support to the Stratton Cemetery near Verdon, which had been started by True's paternal grandmother – interesting because the Heim cemetery in Dawson was started by True's maternal grandparents.

Reuben and True's married life spanned changes from breaking sod by single horse-drawn walking plow to tractors; from kerosene lamps to electricity by Delco generator to the Rural Electrification Administration, with its aim of bringing electricity to every farm (Reuben was instrumental in bringing it to the county), with refrigerators replacing the old cooling method of lowering containers of food into the well by ropes anchored to a well box; from travel by horse and buggy with a heated soapstone for warmth in winter, to seeing by television man on the moon.

Marian and Wayne Leatherman now own Reuben and True's farm, where they raised five children, and brought modern equipment and methods to the farm. Their daughter Linda was the first fourth generation graduate of Dawson High School in 1964, being the great-granddaughter of Mary Heim Stratton, who graduated in 1891 in Dawson's first graduating class of five persons.

Reuben L. Ulmer, 80, Dawson, died Monday July 30, 1973 at Falls City. Survivors: wife, True; son, Reuben, New York City; Daughters, Evelyn, Mrs. Allen (Lorraine) Shorney, both Plattsmouth, Mrs. Dale (Sylvia) Anderson, Springfield, Missouri, Mrs. Wayne (Marian) Leatherman, Dawson, Mrs. Ron (Nadine) Hill, Gresham, Oregon, sisters, Mrs. Mary Wuster, Edna, both Humboldt; 13 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren.

Vermaas, Humboldt, Mrs. Pearl M. Kirkwood, Columbus, Ohio. Services: 3:30 p.m. Sunday, United Methodist Church, Dawson. Heim Cemetery, Dawson.

Arthur William Heim - August 12, 1909 - April 29, 1982 was the sixth child of Jonathan W. and Louisa Shafer Heim of Dawson. With his brothers and sisters, Mattie, Howard, Wesley, Pearl, and Edith (Clarence died in infancy), Arthur grew up on the family farm in the house built in 1874 by his grandparents, Jacob G. and Regina Gross Heim, Jacob G. (Jakey to friends and neighbors) and Regina and family were pioneer German settlers from Pennsylvania who came to Nebraska seeking richer, less rocky farmland than they had in the East.

As a boy Arthur ranged up and down the farm's creeks, enjoyed the cold permanent spring that had caught his grandfather's eye, collected bird eggs, and learned to farm. He soon began his lifelong interest in music. All Jonathan's children sang well and had excellent pitch, and Arthur settled into a true, mid-tenor voice. He took violin lessons as a teenager, riding the train to Humboldt once a week, played violin in the Dawson church orchestra, and was in demand for violin solos in the community.

Arthur attended elementary and high school in Dawson, walking to school over the farm fields. After high school graduation in 1927, he attended the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, where he went out for track, took banjo lessons, and began a liberal arts course. After one semester, Arthur returned to Dawson: his father had suffered a serious farm accident and could no longer work the farm. Arthur began farming the home place in 1929 and farmed for his entire life. In November 1934, he married the youngest child of Clarence and Mary Heim Stratton, Lucile Marie born October 4, 1910, whose sisters and brothers were True, John, Isaiah, and Helen (another child, Mary, lived only a few days). Arthur and Lucile had known of each other since childhood, and their friendship grew at first, not surprisingly, around music - Lucile was a talented pianist who could play all the popular jazz songs of the 1920's. Arthur and Lucile had two children, Alan Arthur born in 1937, and Lorna Mary born in 1941. They maintained their interest in music, teaching their children very early to sing and to play instruments. In the 1950's, Lucile directed the Ladies Chorus at Dawson, a group who sang for many church and community events. Both Art and Lucile lent their talents to musical variety shows, well known in the Dawson community in the 1940's and 1950's, and to church programs and plays.

Arthur Heim, a meticulous farmer, was interested in conservation of water and topsoil, terracing, good fences and floodgates, and clean and well-kept buildings, fields, and pastures. Arthur retired from full-time farming in 1971 and began renting the use of his row-crop ground. He remained very vigorous, however, raising cattle, mending and replacing fences, cutting hedge, putting up hay, mowing pastures and fencerows, improving the family home and buildings, and managing. Retirement did give him more time to read, a lifelong hobby, and to continue many activities in his beloved United Methodist Church in Dawson. In his last winter, at 72, he reorganized a choir at the Dawson church; selected music, and rehearsed and directed the choir in both Christmas and Easter seasons.

Four generations have now lived in the large, native limestone and white pine house north of Dawson. Few are now left to recount the experience, but the house and farm remain as a tribute to the Pennsylvania family who brought their faith and hopes to Richardson County in 1874.

Marriage Notes for Dorothy Heim and Jim McArtor:

May 2, 1946 - Linden E. Heim announces the engagement of his daughter, Dorothy Ione Heim, and Jim B. McArtor of Grant. Miss Heim attended the University of Nebraska and is now teaching in Ogallala. Mr. McArtor was recently discharged from the Navy after four years of service. The wedding will take place in early summer.

Candelabra of tall white tapers lighting the altar banked with syringa and the chancel beautiful with baskets of pink peonies and pink rambler roses, set the scene for an unusually pretty wedding at the Evangelical church in Dawson on Sunday afternoon, June 2, 1946, at 3:00 o'clock, when Miss Dorothy Ione Heim, eldest daughter of Linden E. Heim of Dawson, became the bride of Jim Bill McArtor, son of Mr. and Mrs. V.V. McArtor of Grant, Nebraska. Marjorie Heim, youngest sister of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly," and Mrs. Alex Lambrecht, sister of the groom, sang "Ich Liebe Dich" and "Because," with Miss Arlene Sobolka (the bride's roommate at Ogallala, where both have been teaching), accompanying at the piano.

Miss Betty Nichols and Miss Nadine Ulmer, wearing floor-length dresses of pastel pink with corsages of white and pink roses, lighted the tapers. Then as Miss Sobolka played the opening measures of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, Rev. C.E. Nichols, officiating clergyman, the groom and his best man. Don Woodruff of Chappell, took their places at the altar to await the bride and her attendants. Miss Evelyn Heim, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, and Mrs. Duane Dunning of Lincoln (college roommate of the bride) a matron-of-honor preceded the bride to the altar. The former wore floor-length aqua chiffon and a white bonnet with matching aqua ribbons and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses, the latter wore floor-length pink chiffon and a white bonnet with matching pink ribbons and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses. Little Alan Dale Fiala, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Fiala of Beatrice, and cousin of the bride, wearing all-white suit, carried the rings upon a white satin cushion, and Lorna Heim, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heim, dressed in floor-length frock of pastel blue eyelet embroidery, scattered rose petal before the steps of the bride.

Then, upon the arm of her father, came the bride, chaste in a pure white satin gown with embroidered net overskirt and court train, wearing a beaded tiara and carrying her bride's bouquet of red roses and baby-breath. Complying with the traditional "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue," she wore a prized family heirloom of the McArtor's - a gold brooch which had been the groom's great-great-grandmother's and is at least two hundred years old. Sweet and sacred were the solemn words as each repeated the vows of the double ring ceremony which made them man and wife. And tender and fervent were the host of silent prayers of blessing which ascended from the large congregation of witnesses as Rev. Nichols offered a prayer of blessing and pronounced a benediction upon their union.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the basement rooms of the church. Ushers for the wedding were Loren Noa and Roy Auxier. Miss Margaret Sue Fishwood was in charge of the guest book, Miss Blondena Howerton, Miss Juanita West and Mrs. Dwight Wuster were in charge of the gifts. Mrs. H.M. Fishwood, Mrs. C.E. Nichols, Mrs. Floyd Howerton, Mrs. R.L. Ulmer and Mrs. Henry A. Georgi served the refreshments of white cake and fruit punch at the reception. A three-tier white bride's cake, decorated with pink roses and ornamented by a miniature bride and groom on top, centered the reception room. Mrs. John L. Parriott, Mrs. Nelson H. Ulmer and Miss Edna Ulmer furnished flowers for the decorations in both sanctuary and reception rooms. The bride and groom left soon after the reception amidst a shower of confetti and in an appropriately decorated car, for a brief wedding trip, and will be at home by June 10 at their farm home ten miles from Grant Nebraska.

The bride wore a rose-colored traveling suit of butcher's linen with hat to match and black accessories. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. V.V. McArtor and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lambrecht, Grant; Mr. and Mrs. Joe McArtor, Plymouth; Mrs. A.B. Sobotka and Miss Arlene Sobotka, Crete; Don Kildare, Ogallala; Mr. and Mrs. Duane Dunning, Lincoln; Mrs. Eva Lyons, Auburn; Mrs. Kate Lyons, Peru; Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Fiala and sons of Beatrice; Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Heim and family, Pekin, Illinois; Donal Woodruff, Chappell; Mr. and Mrs. Verner H. Shier, Falls City; Rev. C.F. Heim, York; Dr. and Mrs. Harlan S. 2619 ii. Dr. Alan Dale Fiala, born 09 Nov 1942 in Beatrice, Gage Co, Nebraska; died 26 May 2010 in Arlington, Virginia.

Notes for Dr. Alan Dale Fiala:

Dr. Alan Dale Fiala, astronomer and expert on solar eclipses, died on May 26, 2010 in Arlington, Virginia, of respiratory failure after a brief illness. He was 67. Fiala had been a staff astronomer at the U.S. Naval Observatory in Washington, D.C., for his entire professional career, where he rose from a position as a summer intern to become the Chief of the Nautical Almanac Office, responsible for annual publications for astronomy and navigation that are used the world over. He retired from the observatory in 2000. Although a childhood case of polio affected his mobility for the rest of his life, he seldom let his physical constraints limit his activities, which were many and varied.

Alan Fiala was born in Beatrice, Nebraska on November 9, 1942, the middle son of Emil A. ("John") and Lora Marie Fiala. Fiala's father was a postal clerk and Civil Service examiner. Fiala expressed interest in astronomy at a very young age. He contracted polio when he was 9. He graduated from Beatrice High School in 1960 with a straight-A average and went on to study at Carleton College. He received his B.A. summa cum laude after three years, in 1963, with a major in astronomy and minors in physics and mathematics. He was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi, and Pi Mu Epsilon (mathematics).

In 1962, Alan Fiala obtained a job as a summer intern at the Naval Observatory in Washington, working in the Nautical Almanac Office (NAO). He entered the graduate program at Yale University and continued to work summers at the observatory. He received his Ph.D. in 1968, under Gerald Clemence. His dissertation was titled "Determination of the Mass of Jupiter from a Study of the Motion of 57 Mnemosyne". After receiving his doctorate, Fiala became a permanent member of the Naval Observatory staff. Computers were just being introduced there and he participated in the automation of many procedures used to prepare the annual publications of the Nautical Almanac Office. One of his first assignments was to prepare a visual identification chart of the navigational stars to be used for backup navigation on Apollo 8 and several subsequent space missions.

In 1973, Alan Fiala was assigned to take over and modernize the prediction of solar and lunar eclipses. He developed software for calculating eclipse phenomena and generating eclipse maps that is still the basis of the computations at the observatory almost four decades later. As one of the world's experts on eclipse calculations, he was the lead author of the chapter on eclipse calculations in the 1992 Explanatory Supplement to the Astronomical Almanac, and was also the co-author of Canon of Lunar Eclipses 1500 B.C.–A.D. 3000 with Bao-Lin Liu, the foremost Chinese expert. In 1979, Alan Fiala began a collaborative effort with two other colleagues, supported by NSF and NASA, to observe solar eclipses in order to detect possible long-term variations in the solar diameter. Fiala pioneered the use of portable video cameras to record the disappearance and reappearance of the Sun from behind the Moon's limb during an eclipse, as viewed from the edges of the central eclipse paths. He was the leader or co-organizer of expeditions to ten solar eclipses around the world and was the co-author of several articles on this project.

In 1996, Alan Fiala was appointed Chief of the Nautical Almanac Office. The office, which dates from 1849, is responsible for four annual publications that set the international standard for accuracy for positional astronomy and celestial navigation. Fiala made great progress in modernizing and standardizing the production process for the publications. He also began revision of the scientific basis of the books while adding complementary information on the Internet. Fiala was Chief of NAO during its sesquicentennial and, with Steven J. Dick, co-edited the Proceedings of the Nautical Almanac Office Sesquicentennial Symposium.

Alan Fiala received numerous awards during his career at the Observatory, including the Captain James Melville Gilliss Award for service. Minor planet 3695 Fiala was named in his honor on the occasion of his retirement in 2000. Alan Fiala was elected to the International Astronomical Union in 1976. He was also a member of the American Astronomical Society, Institute of Navigation, and several other professional societies. He served as the chair of the AAS Division on Dynamical Astronomy during its 25th year.

Alan Fiala had many interests outside of astronomy, including sports car racing. He started as a member of a racing team and continued as a volunteer official in technical inspection for the Sports Car Club of America. He was generous with his time, serving as a leader of citizens groups in Northern Virginia and a national organization for people with post-polio syndrome. Other interests included genealogy, gardening, photography, cooking, travel, languages, literature, and the arts. He was also a master beekeeper.

Fiala is survived by his two brothers, John and Kent. He was buried in Odell, Nebraska, not far from his childhood home. Fiala will be remembered fondly by his many friends and colleagues, who will miss his good humor and his meticulous approach to any subject he wished to master. Fiala's life was an inspiration to many, and he left behind a valuable legacy of work not just for astronomy, but also for the many organizations to which he donated his time.

A remembrance by Dave Ignat: Alan Fiala died May 26, 2010, in Arlington, VA from respiratory failure, one of the effects of polio contracted in youth. He graduated in 1963 with several awards, including magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa and the Sigma Xi prize, three years after entering Carleton with the class of 1964. In the Yale graduate program in astronomy he concentrated on celestial mechanics following the lead of professor Dirk Brouwer. At the US Naval Observatory he became expert on calculating voluminous data useful in studying solar eclipses, including precise measurement of the solar radius. On his retirement from the USNO in 2000 colleagues arranged to have his name assigned to an asteroid discovered in 1973, which is now "3695 Fiala." He had many interests outside of astronomy. When we were roommates in New Haven in 1963-1964 I found his regular attendance at pro wrestling in the arena across the street from our apartment an interesting contrast to his academic achievements. Later he was a member of a sports car racing team and a master beekeeper. Two formal obituaries: By George Kaplan, U.S. Naval Observatory In the Beatrice, Nebraska Daily Sun, June 4, 2010 Dave Ignat Update: An Alumni Distinguished Achievement Award will be given posthumously to Alan Fiala at the Carleton College reunion in June 2013.

Alan Dale Fiala came to Carleton from Beatrice, Nebraska, the son of a postal clerk, and the second of three boys raised in a four-room house in a small prairie town. He was a brilliant student, graduating magna cum laude in three years with a major in astronomy and a minor in mathematics, elected to Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi and Pi Mu Epsilon. Although his degree was awarded in 1963, he always considered himself to be part of the Carleton class of 1964. During a summer break at Carleton, Al arranged an internship at the Naval Observatory in Washington, D.C., and after being awarded a Ph.D. in astronomy from Yale in 1968, he went on to spend his entire career at the Observatory, winning numerous awards as an internationally recognized astronomer.

Assigned in 1973 to modernize prediction of lunar and solar eclipses, Al developed software for calculating eclipse phenomena and created eclipse maps that are still the basis of computations at the Observatory. He wrote numerous articles and papers on eclipse calculations, and was leader or co-organizer of expeditions to ten solar eclipses around the world. In 1996, Al was appointed chief of the Nautical Almanac Office, where he'd been a summer intern in 1962. He was responsible for four annual publications that set the international standard for accuracy for positional astronomy and celestial navigation, modernizing them, revising their scientific basis, and overseeing public distribution through the Internet. He won frequent recognition during his observatory career, including the Captain James Melville Gilliss award for service. When he retired in 2000, his colleagues named a minor planet discovered in 1973 as "3695 Fiala" in his honor.

At age 9 in Nebraska, Al Fiala was diagnosed with polio, leaving him with impaired mobility and a lifetime of associated health issues. But he refused to allow his physical condition to define him, or to interfere with his incredibly diverse interests in science, music, sports, gardening, beekeeping, literature, cooking or travel. He learned to play the tuba during high school, and he even managed, as a young man, to join a sports car racing team as a mechanic. His brother John Fiala later noted Al's tenacity: "Alan went through several surgeries all alone at hospitals in Minneapolis. The surgeries were to put a rod in his spine, which partially straightened the scoliosis and increased his height by seven inches. His later work as a mechanic bending over that low Team

Celtic Lotus strengthened his abdomen so that combined with the spine surgery, he could abandon his back brace."

Throughout his life, Al amazed friends with his positive outlook, his sense of humor, and his meticulous attention to detail in any project he decided to pursue. He was an inveterate sports fan, from Carleton and Yale football to professional wrestling. For nearly two decades, he was a regular at the Indianapolis 500. He loved to cook, and specialized in overseeing holiday dinners with his family. When his brother started doing genealogy research on his parents, Al pitched in enthusiastically, scheduling stops at libraries and courthouses in Illinois and Indiana, and even taking classes in the Czech language to try to help translate what they found. Al was blessed in his later years by his relationship with Mary McHugh, a longtime friend who joined his travel around the world and in the U.S. They particularly enjoyed driving to Garrison Keillor's "Prairie Home Companion" tapings in various places, including a European cruise featuring the entire cast.

As his brother John later recalled, "Mary's sudden tragic illness and death in 2008...was a devastating blow to Alan, and he did not ever really recover from the loss." An obituary prepared for the American Astronomical Association noted Alan's professional achievements, his inevitable good humor, his grace under adversity, and his constant willingness to donate his time to innumerable worthwhile causes. It concluded: "His life was an inspiration to many."

She was born 03 Sep 1877 in Jackson Twp, Steuben Co, Indiana, and died 25 Aug 1957 in Montpelier, Williams Co, Ohio.

Notes for Dr. David Theodore Kiess:

A standard history of Williams County, Ohio. By Chalres A. Bowersox; The Lewis Publishing Company – Chicago & New York, 1920. Page 251:

David T. Kiess. - An enumeration of those men of the present generation who have won honor and success for themselves, and at the same time by their lives have honored the locality to which they belong, would be incomplete were there failure to make mention of the one whose name forms the caption to this sketch. He has sustained a very enviable reputation in business circles and today is numbered among the progressive and enterprising citizens of Montpelier. David T. Kiess was born at Edon, Williams County, on August 3, 1867, and is a son of Samuel and Sarah (Burkhart) Kiess, both of whom were born and reared near Williamsport, Pennsylvania. They came to Williams County, Ohio, with their respective parents and here met and were married. After their marriage they located in Edon, where Mr. Kiess engaged in the boot and shoe business, having been a shoemaker by trade. Sometime later he sold this business and for a time was engaged in farming. Later in life they went West, locating in Nebraska, where their deaths occurred. They were the parents of five children, three of whom are now living, namely: D. W., a contractor in Los Angeles, California; David T.; the subject of this sketch; and Lizzie, the wife of Ora Eyster, a farmer in Williams County.

David T. Kiess received his education in the district schools of Williams County and in Nebraska. He then entered the Chicago Horological School and the Chicago Ophthalmic School, where he was graduated in 1893. He then was employed as jeweler and optician at various places for fifteen years, but then located at Edon, where he engaged in the jewelry business, in which he met with good success. In 1914 Mr. Kiess came to Montpelier and opened a jewelry and optical goods store, to which he has given his personal attention, though he also still operates the store at Edon. Thoroughly qualified by training and experience both as a jeweler and optician, Mr. Kiess has met with a well-deserved prosperity and is considered a thoroughly reliable and trustworthy man in every respect, and that is as much as can be said of the best of men.

Mr. Kiess was married to Bertha L. Twichell, of Orland, Indiana, but who was born in Steuben County, Indiana. She received a good education, being a high school graduate, and prior to her marriage she was engaged as a school teacher. To this union have been born five children, namely: Reginald, who is a graduate of the Montpelier High School; Kenneth, Elinore, Esther and Robert, who are in school.

Mr. Kiess and family are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church and, politically, he gives his support to the Republican Party, having served seven years as treasurer of Edon Village. Fraternally he is a member of the Free and Accepted Masons, in which he has taken the degrees of the Blue Lodge, Chapter and Council. He and his wife are members of the Order of the Eastern Star. Among those who know him best, Mr. Kiess bears a reputation of a man of sound judgment, good business ability and an expert in his special lines of effort. He has pronounced views, keeping himself well informed on all matters pertaining to the public welfare, and because of his genial disposition and excellent qualities of character he enjoys the confidence and good will of all who know him.

William H. Kiess, clerk in the office of the register and recorder, was born at Blooming Grove, in Hepburn Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, February 7, 1862, son of Jacob D. and Sophia (Kehrler) Kiess, natives of Lycoming County, and of German origin. His mother died in December, 1862, and several years after her death, his father moved to Iowa. William H. was their only child, and was reared by his grandfather, Abraham Kiess, of Queneshaque, Anthony Township.

He was educated in the common schools of that township and at the Muncy Normal School. At the age of sixteen he engaged in school teaching during the winter season, and attended school during the summer. In 1883 he graduated from the State Normal School at Lock Haven, after which he taught for two years in the public schools and was then one of the teachers in the Williamsport Commercial College for three years. Mr. Kiess was appointed assistant postmaster of Williamsport in 1888, and filled that position until 1890, when he was appointed clerk in the prothonotary's office, and in January, 1891, he was appointed to his present position. He is a staunch Democrat, and is now a member of the school board from the Eighth ward. He has been connected with the I. O. O. F. since 1884, and has passed through the chairs.

Mr. Kiess was married in 1889 to Annie M., daughter of Levi Bender, of Williamsport. Mrs. Kiess is a member of Mulberry Street Methodist Episcopal church, and our subject attends the Baptist church.

She was born 31 May 1880 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 04 May 1951 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska.

Notes for Thomas Frederick Wuster:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 927:

Thomas F. Wuster, one of the best-known and most substantial farmers in the precinct of Grant, this county, was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, January 24, 1878, son of Christ and Martha (Marquard) Wuster, who came to this state in June, 1879, and became pioneers in Porter precinct, Richardson County. Further and fitting reference to the Wuster family in this County is made elsewhere in this volume.

Reared on the home farm in Porter precinct, he having been but two years of age when his parents settled there, Thomas F. Wuster received his schooling in the schools of that neighborhood. He began working out at the early age of eleven years and worked constantly from the time he was fourteen years of age. In the spring of 1900 he began farming for himself. For one year he rented the Strunk farm and then in 1901 he bought his present place of a quarter section in the precinct of Grant, and there established his home and has ever since resided there, he and his family being very comfortably situated. His house, built in 1908, is one of the best in that neighborhood and the general farm buildings are in keeping with the same, the place being looked upon as one of the best-improved farms in that part of the county. In addition to his general farming Mr. Wuster gives considerable attention to the raising of live stock, with particular reference to sheep and hogs. He has a flock of more than one hundred and twenty head of sheep and in 1916 fed more than four hundred head of sheep for the market.

On March 7, 1901, Thomas F. Wuster was united in marriage to Margaret Heim, who was born on a pioneer farm in the precinct of Grant, Richardson County, May 37, 1880, daughter of Jacob G. and Regina (Gross) Heim, prominent and influential pioneers of this county and further and extended reference to whom is made elsewhere in this volume, and to this union seven children have been born, namely: Minerva born on December 28, 1901; Ruth, November 6, 1903; Frederick, July 3, 1905; Dorothy, December 31, 1906; Joseph, September 11, 1909; Milton, July 18, 1912, and Dwight, April 23, 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Wuster are members of the Evangelical Lutheran church and take a warm interest in church affairs, as well as in the general good works of the community in which they live, helpful in many ways in promoting such agencies as are designed to advance the common welfare thereabout. Mr. Wuster is independent in his political views, preferring to keep himself free to vote for the most competent candidate for public office without regard to party affiliations. He not only is a progressive and wide-awake farmer, but a public spirited citizen and tries to do his part in advancing the interests of the community of which he has been a resident since the days of his early childhood.

She is survived by step-daughter Marion, granddaughters Coral and Pearl Gordon, and several cousins. She was preceded in death by her husband, G. Kenneth Gordon, whom she married in 1974. She was Director of Nursing Education at Sister Kenny Institute and taught for 17 years as an associate professor in the School of Public Health at the University of Minnesota. She authored many professional articles, ten textbooks in the field of nursing, and a pioneering textbook on long term care administration co-authored with her husband, Ken. For several years she wrote a monthly column, "Decisions in Aging" for the St. Paul Pioneer Press. Ruth's many friends and colleagues remember her as spirited, direct, hardworking, witty and bright, and deeply loyal to her friends and to her causes. Her work included offices with the New Century Club, the Minnesota chapter of the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America, and the Stratis Health Board. She served on the Board of Trustees at Unity Church Unitarian, being its first female Board Chairperson.

In retirement combined her lifelong enthusiasm for dogs and her writing skills in "Magic Dog," a biography of Ken and Ruth's first beloved golden retriever. She went on to write more books about valiant and interesting dogs including: Don't Fence Their Spirit; It Takes a Dog to Raise a Village; Good Dogs. Notes for George Kenneth Gordon:

George Kenneth Gordon was born February 26, 1932 in Buffalo, New York. He died September 26 at Episcopal Homes. His parents and two sisters were born in Scotland and immigrated to the United States in 1928, making Ken the only Yankee in his family. He is predeceased by his first wife, Esther, his parents, John and Mary, and two sisters, Maisie and Isabella. Ken attended Westminster College in New Castle, Pennsylvania where he found an emerging call to the ministry. After graduation, he volunteered as a missionary for three years in Egypt where he taught English and basketball at a boys' school. Returning home, he attended Pittsburgh Xenia Seminary where he found intellectual stimulation in a field that was close to his heart. After graduation, he was the minister for Presbyterian parishes in Guernsey and Fort Laramie, Wyoming. He found that community problems were spilling into the churches requiring additional skills so he received his doctorate degree in education from Indiana University where he then served on the faculty. He also served as Chief of Literacy at the Indiana Women's Prison System leading a one-year pioneering literacy project. His second pioneering project came when he joined the faculty of the Program in Hospital Administration at the University of Minnesota. Here he headed the Center for Long-Term Care Administration, one of six centers in the U.S. funded by the Kellogg Foundation when legislation mandated licensure of nursing home administrators. This required the development of a curriculum to transform this work into an academically based profession. He co-authored the first textbook in the field which went into four editions. Ken served on the Board of Unity Unitarian Church, received the 1994 Education Award from the American College of Health Care Administrators, and both the St. Paul and Roseville clubs of Rotary International recognized him for his active role in their world-wide polio eradication program. Ken loved to fish, play tennis and golf. He also loved classical music and played the piano beautifully, mainly 30s-50s songs. He and his wife, Ruth, spent ten winters in Puerto Vallarta, many summers at their home in Marine-on-St. Croix and enjoyed traveling to various countries in Central America and Europe.

Ken is survived by his wife, Ruth Stryker-Gordon, his daughter, Marion Gordon, two granddaughters, Coral and Pearl Gordon, and several nieces and nephews. A memorial service will be held at Unity Unitarian Church, 733 Portland Avenue, St. Paul on Friday, October 11 at 3PM. Burial will be private. Anna Elizabeth⁹ Dieffenbacher (Emilie⁸ Stoll, Katharina Barbara⁷ Guenther, Abraham⁶, Eva Christina⁵ Henke, Eva Christina⁴ Gohl, Christian³, Hans Jerg², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 28 Feb 1908 in New York, Queens, New York, and died 24 Dec 2003 in Forsyth, Rosebud Co, Montana. She married ? Schulze. He was born Aft. 1900.

Notes for Anna Elizabeth Dieffenbacher:

My mother, Betty Schulze, who achieved 95 years of life before her departure on Wednesday, Dec. 24, 2003, was a true American who embodied our most noble characteristics of love, independence and hard work. She did not have a privileged childhood. Her father, a New York City harbor inspector, died of typhoid during 1908 when she was six months old, leaving a mother with three children to rear, but she accomplished a high school education and was a devoted reader of all types of written material all of her life.

She had to seek employment while still in school, taking jobs in many fields, one of the most colorful as a Broadway dancer in shows where she met such diverse notables as the aviator Frank Hawks, the showman Billy Rose, the gangster "Legs" Diamond, the comedian Red Skelton, the South Pacific singer Ezio Pinze, the comedienne Lucille Ball, et al. Until the last five years of her life, she designed and made virtually all of her clothes, being an accomplished seamstress. She enjoyed oil painting, decorating, floral design, and was a true homemaker to her husband who predeceased her in 1979, and her son who learned much from her, was loved by her and loved her in return

Politically, she was fiercely independent, never a member of a party, but made a practice of voting in all elections. She was able to forgive precious leaders and administrations at the federal level their indiscretions, with the exception of the present one which she considered wrong-headed. She appreciated the expert treatment she received at the NRCC from Dr. Steven Butler and from her general practitioner, Dr. Stephen Shaub - as well as Dr. John Malloy, her now-retired general practitioner. Her sincere thanks also to their fine and thoughtful staffs, and to Deb French, the Rosebud and Treasure County nurse. Near the end of her life, she was given tender and excellent care by Dr. William Anderson and the staff of the Rosebud Health Care Center, to whom she was deeply grateful.

She is survived by her son Bob Schulze of Hysham.

Anna has requested no services, cremation and that her ashes be spread in Monument Valley where she felt closest to spiritual fulfillment. Beals Mortuary of Forsyth is assisting the family with these arrangements.

Child of Anna Dieffenbacher and ? Schulze is:

3072 i. Robert H.¹⁰ Schulze, born 24 Oct 1935.

Her other hobbies included reading, cooking, gardening, sewing and bicycling. She enjoyed nature, and loved family gatherings. He was born 29 Jul 1927 in Beardstown, Cass Co, Illinois, and died 30 Aug 2003 in Lock Haven, Clinton Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Elsie June Stroble:

June Stroble Looker passed away on Dec. 27, 2012, in Newville, Pennsylvania. She was born on June 24, 1928, in Williamsport, Pennsylvania to Carl and Althea Stroble. After finishing her high school education at Williamsport High School, she attended Lock Haven State Teachers College (now known as Lock Haven State University.) She graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in special education. Her first teaching post was in Arlington, Virginia. Following that she pursued her master's degree in special education at Penn State University. While helping to care for her grandfather in Trout Run, Pennsylvania, and continuing to pursue her master's degree, she met her husband of 46 years, the Rev. Russell L. Looker. They were married on July 6, 1956.

Together, they served the Park Avenue Presbyterian Church in Bloomfield, New Jersey from 1956 to 1966. In the summer of 1966, Russ and June were called to serve the Great Island Presbyterian Church Lock Haven, Pennsylvania. It was there that they both excelled in teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ and helping countless young people to prepare to live out their lives boldly and lovingly as Christians. During her time in Lock Haven, June Looker taught as a short and long-term substitute teacher in several schools in Keystone Central School District.

As a faithful servant of the Lord Jesus Christ, she actively served His Church as the moderator of the Northumberland Presbytery, provided strong leadership to a very large junior and senior high youth group at Great Island Presbyterian Church, and served on countless Presbytery, Synod, and General Assembly committees in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). For those who had the privilege of knowing and loving June Looker, she will be fondly remembered as an enthusiastic, strong, articulate, kind, professional, and loving teacher to the countless special education students she taught over the years. And, to those whom she served in the Church, she will always be remembered as a role model for what it truly means to be a Christian.

June was preceded in death by her husband, Russell in 2003, and her son David in 1988. She is survived by her son Christopher (Genny) Looker of Vienna, Virginia, and Stephen Looker of New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, and grandsons, Benjamin, Samuel, and Liam Looker.

Memorial services will be announced at a later date. Arrangements are under the direction of the Yost-Gedon Funeral Home, 121 W. Main St., Lock Haven, Pennsylvania. Memorial gifts may be given in loving memory of June S. Looker to the Lubondai Christian Mission Fund, a fund that supports the building of a hydro-electric dam in one of the poorest communities in the world, Lubondai, Democratic Republic of the Congo. This special fund, administered by the First Presbyterian Church of Annandale in Virginia, where June's son, Chris, is the Senior Pastor, has funded the building of a 50-kilowatt hydro-electric dam that will be completed in 2014 and will bring clean drinking water and electricity to the Nursing School, Hospital, and people of Lubondai. Donations may be send to: The First Presbyterian Church of Annandale ("FPCA") Lubondai Mission Fund, 7610 Newcastle Drive, Annandale, Virginia, 22003.

Nylon net peplums dipped in points from the front waistline and fell into an aisle wide train edged with ruffles over the full satin skirt. The bridesmaids wore identical dresses in cornflower blue faille, with white gardenia sprays in their hair, and carried nosegays of blue gladiolus. Susan June and Sandra Lee Smith of New York City, twin cousins of the bride, were flower girls. Notes for James Clark Maneval:

James Clark (Jim) Maneval passed away peacefully on February 15, 2021, in Fredericksburg, Virginia. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 62 years Emma Charlotte (Ryan) Maneval, and is survived by his seven children, Jim, Dan, Charlie, Cathy, Tom, John, and Mary, fourteen grandchildren, and three great grandchildren. In his time among us, he brought kindness, warmth, and love to those who knew him. He was a caring and wonderful father, uncle, grandfather, and great-grandfather.

Jim was born in Waterbury, Connecticut, the only child of Clifford and Martha Maneval. He grew up in Williamsport, Pennsylvania and in Corning, New York, where he graduated from Northside High School in 1952. He then attended Syracuse University, earning a degree in journalism in 1956. After Syracuse, Jim went on to a 36-year career with the DuPont Company in advertising and marketing.

On a blind date one summer evening, he met the love of his life, Emma Charlotte (Moddy) Ryan. From that day on, the two were inseparable partners in a journey through a long and love-filled life. Jim and Moddy married in 1958 and settled down in Hockessin, Delaware to raise their brood of seven children. They made Graves Road a special place, enjoying the company of neighbors and forming friendships that lasted over the years. Upon his retirement from DuPont, Jim and Moddy moved to Wellsboro, Pennsylvania, then to Del Mar, California, with Jim making a final move to Fredericksburg. Jim was also "Uncle Jim" to a large contingent of nieces and nephews. His talents for ballad singing and storytelling around the campfire touched family and visitors at the annual campout in Wellsboro, Pennsylvania. He was a kind and patient father, uncle, grandfather, and surrogate grandfather, always supporting the positive side of life in everyone. He gave love, compassion, and help whenever and to whomever it was needed. He was ever slow to anger and fast to welcome and embrace.

Jim's artistic skills were manifold and renowned. His handdrawn birthday and special-occasion cards were a delight to receive. By including drawings and personal messages, he made each card a masterpiece as well as a personal treasure. Later in life, he took up watercolor painting and was exhibited in Wellsboro's Gmeiner Art Gallery. He was also a lifelong fan of comic art that stretched from the days of Terry and the Pirates to the current-day Marvel Cinematic Universe, a passion he shared with his children and grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at a later date, as will a joint memorial celebration for Jim and Moddy. In lieu of flowers, the family hopes that you will make contributions in his name to your local welfare operations, especially ones that care for children, or to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital to support the work done there.

Notes for Emma Charlotte Ryan:

Emma Charlotte (Ryan) Maneval passed away peacefully in the presence of family on July 9, 2020 in San Diego, California. Known to all since childhood as Moddy, she led a long and love-filled life. She is survived by Jim Maneval, her husband of 62 years, seven children, Jim, Dan, Charlie, Cathy, Tom, John, and Mary, fourteen grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and a brother, Norman. They will all miss her very much.

Moddy was born in Corning, New York on August 18, 1936, the youngest child of John and Idabell Ryan. After marrying Jim, the love of her life, in 1958, she settled in Hockessin, Delaware. Over the course of 35 years, she and Jim raised their family with love, kindness, and compassion. When the nest was finally empty, she and Jim moved to Wellsboro, PA (16 years) and then to San Diego, California, where she remained active in both family and community affairs.

In lieu of flowers, the family hopes that you will make contributions in her name to a local charity for children or consider supporting the work at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Saturday, August 21, 2021 at 10am at St. Mary of the Assumption Church, 7200 Lancaster Pike Hockessin Delaware. Memorial to follow at noon at the Hockessin Memorial Hall, 610 Yorklyn Road, Hockessin, Delaware.

Rev. Frank Noll officiated at the ceremony. Dr. Frederick G. Brown accompanied soloists Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt on selections including "We've Only Just Begun," "There Love," "Someday, Somewhere" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, chose a chiffon net gown trimmed with schiffli embroidery, a scalloped V-neckline and bishop sleeves with deep cuffs. Her full skirt featured a hemline flounce and a chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a cap style headpiece of Venise lace. She carried a semi-cascade of white miniature carnations and yellow roses.

A friend of the bride, Susan James, Watsontown, served as matron of honor. She wore a blue floral printed gown of lustre knit with a scoop neckline, split sleeves accented at the shoulders with self-tie bows, blouson bodice and pleated skirt. Gail Myers, Danville, sister-in-law of the bride; Kathaleen Garvey, Danville, friend of the bride, attended and Faith Whitenight, Berwick, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid. Their gowns were similar to the honor attendant's and they carried hand bouquets of blue and yellow miniature carnations, daisies and sweetheart roses. They also wore matching Downen in their hair. Lori Sue Whitenight, Nescopeck, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a yellow polyester gown with a full skirt, short sleeves and Peter Pan collar trimmed with white daisies and yellow ribbon. She carried a basket of flowers identical to the attendants. Burton Eckrohl, Bloomsburg RD 5, served as his cousin's best man. Richard Whitenight, Nescopeck, brother of the groom, and Dale Myen, Danville, brother of the bride, ushered.

Mother of the bride selected an apricot knit gown with a round neckline, natural waist, accented with Venice lace and softly gathered skirt. A matching jacket and corsage of apricot and yellow daisies completed her ensemble. Mother of the groom chose a light blue sleeveless gown, featured a full skirt and white jacket. She wore a corsage of pink roses and white daisies.

A reception for 125 guests was held at the social hall of the church. The bride is a graduate of Danville High School and Danville Licensed Practical Nursing Center. She is employed at Geisinger Medical Center. The groom is a graduate of Central Columbia High School and is employed at Weis Potato Chip Factory, Berwick. Notes for Charles David Springman:

Charles D. "Charlie" Springman, 92 of Williamsport passed away November 30, 2023, at home with family by his side. Born on August 5, 1931, he was a son of the late Rev. Harold L. and Laura E. (Newcomer) Springman. Charlie graduated from Williamsport High School in 1949 and went on to serve his country in the United States Air Force during the Korean War. He returned home to earn a Bachelor's degree in Economics from Lycoming College, and a Master's in retail from the University of Pittsburgh. Throughout his professional life, Charlie was a respected figure in retail management. He retired in 1995 as the Senior Vice President of Operations for Lord & Taylor Department Stores in New York City, where he oversaw more than 60 stores across the United States. His astute business acumen and equitable management style earned him the admiration of his colleagues and employees alike. His work was not just a job but an extension of his character, where he practiced kindness and fairness daily.

Charlie's impact extended far beyond his professional endeavors; he was deeply involved in his community, serving on numerous boards and commissions. His contributions to the Lycoming County Planning Commission, Lycoming County Board of View, and Loyalsock Township Zoning Board showcased his commitment to local development and his desire to see his community thrive. His love for his alma mater was evident through his service on the Lycoming College Board of Trustees, and he also lent his expertise to the Ross Club, Central Oak Heights, a place near and dear to his heart, Williamsport Rotary Club, Blooming Grove Historical Society, Eureka Lodge 335 F.&A.M., and the Scottish Rite Valley of Williamsport, where he was honored as a 33rd degree Mason. Charlie's commitment to his community was unwavering. As a member Emeritus of the Salvation Army Williamsport Board of Directors and Advisory member of the American Rescue Workers, he played an instrumental role in establishing thrift store shops and locations, ensuring those less fortunate had access to essential goods and services. He was the recipient of numerous community honors and service awards, a reflection of his generous spirit and dedication to the well-being of others.

An active member of Pine Street United Methodist Church, Charlie's faith was the cornerstone of his existence. In addition to the various roles he served at Pine Street, he also served in many different capacities for the United Methodist Conference. Charlie lived his beliefs through every action and interaction, from the way he conducted himself in business to his volunteer work. Charlie's interests were as diverse as his contributions to the community. He enjoyed golfing, boating, and spending time with friends at the Laurel Lodge Hunting Club. He had an innate ability to make everyone he met feel valued and important. His warm smile and kind words were a soothing presence that will be missed by many.

Charlie leaves behind his wife of 70 years, Shirley A. (Solomon) Springman, the love of his life and steadfast companion. Charlie's love for Shirley was the kind of love that inspired all who were fortunate enough to witness it. He is also survived by two sisters, Virginia Springman and Eleanor Mutchler, both of Cogan Station and three nieces whom he cherished, Sharon Taylor (Paul), Barbara Willier (Bruce), and Jane Zarker (Doug), as well as six great-nieces and nephews.

A funeral service to honor the life of Charlie will be held 10:30 a.m. Thursday, December 7 at Pine Street Church, 441 Pine St. Williamsport. Burial will follow in Twin Hills Memorial Park, Muncy. A viewing will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 6 at Sanders Mortuary, 821 Diamond Street.

Notes for Orville Junior Schmidt, Jr.:

Never one to acquire or take stock in material possessions or the riches of many, Orville Schmidt enjoyed the simple pleasures in life. A hard working man, he provided well for the family he loved deeply in his own quiet way. With a faith filled heart, he served his community while his keen sense of humor added much to the days of those around him. Sadly missed, he will be long remembered in the hearts of those he leaves behind. Orville's story began in the year 1925 as a sense of joy filled the air. Charlie Chaplin flicks and Babe Ruth baseball was all the rage while the Roaring Twenties brought forth the Charleston and the infamous flapper. Not only was America experiencing a time of rapid growth, a young couple from Portland, Indiana was as well. Raymond and Marie Schmidt were blessed with the birth of their first child, a son they named Orville on April 21, 1925. Hard working farmers, Orville was a welcome addition to their lives.

While just a two-year-old toddler, Orville's family packed up their life in Indiana and headed north to Michigan, settling in the town of Kendall. Over time young Orville became a big brother to four siblings, Pauline, Everett, Richard and Frances. During his youth he occasionally helped his father clean the Kalamazoo Speedway which was an exciting time for him. As the onset of the Great Depression cast a shadow of hardship and struggle for all from coast to coast, Orville's family was no exception. Like many during this time in small rural communities, he attended school in a one room schoolhouse in Kendall before eventually setting out to find work. Before long Orville found himself with a family of his own. He married a young woman named Elsie Like and together they made their home in Plainwell. It was a good place to raise a family, and they were soon blessed with two children, Karen and Jim. Orville supported his family with his work at Allied Paper which he acquired in the 1950s. He began there as a truck loader and then as a mechanic. In time he worked his way into becoming a truck driver for the paper mill and after 38 years of dedicated employment there, he eventually retired. Sadly, his wife, Elsie passed away in 1974.

Often described as a quiet fellow, Orville had quite a sense of humor. He was very personable and enjoyed the company of close friends and family. However, when his sister, Pauline wanted him to meet a friend of hers, Orville simply put aside the phone number of Peggy Rhodes for several weeks before deciding to do anything with it. He did, however, finally make that phone call, and before they knew it they were exchanging vows of marriage. On May 26, 1977 he married Margaret "Peggy" Schmidt in the front room of their home.

At the age of 52, Orville's life turned in an exciting new direction. It was then when he accepted the Lord into his life, was baptized and became a dedicated member of the First Baptist Church of Plainwell. With faith as his guide, Orville found a sense of contentment and new meaning in his life. He worked as a constable for the City of Plainwell police department for a few years, and spent over 50 years volunteering on both the Plainwell and Gun Plain Township fire departments. With a shared love for travel, Orville and Peggy traveled often and nearly each summer enjoyed visiting the state of Pennsylvania. Among his varied interests, Orville liked dancing and was an avid polka dancer. He collected belt buckles and had quite a sweet tooth he fancied satisfying well into his later years. In time health issues overcame Orville and at the age of 86, he passed away on Friday, July 29, 2011. Gone but never to be forgotten, he will be dearly missed.

Orville's family will receive friends Monday, August 1, 2011 from 4-7 PM at the Life Story Funeral Home, 120 S. Woodhams, Plainwell (685-5881). Funeral services will be held Tuesday, August 2, 2011, 11:00 AM at the First Baptist Church of Plainwell. Burial will be at the Hillside Cemetery. Orville's family includes his wife, Margaret "Peggy"; children: Karen Rocha and Jim (Liz) Schmidt, both of Kalamazoo; two step-children: Daniel (Jan) Rhodes of Portage and Diana (Dale) Curtis of Grand Rapids; nine grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; sister, Pauline Anderson of Plainwell; his brothers: Everett (Pat) Schmidt of Otsego and Richard Schmidt of Plainwell; numerous nieces and nephews. Along with his first wife, Elsie, Orville was also preceded in death by his sister, Frances Pittsley.

She married Rev. Alex H. Elsesser Bef. 1963. He was born 02 Mar 1918 in Winnipeg, Canada, and died 14 Jul 2009.

Notes for Sarah Margaret Schade:

Sarah Margaret Elsesser, formerly of Manchester, beloved wife of the Rev. Alex H. Elsesser, passed away peacefully Tuesday (December 4, 2007), at home in Penney Farms, Florida. She was 84. Born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, she was the youngest of five children of the Rev. Arthur A. Schade, former professor at Rochester Divinity School and a nursing home pioneer, and Emma (Schaefer) Schade, a descendant of the German Baptist Dunkard community in Pennsylvania's Blooming Grove Valley. Sarah, who enjoyed playing piano, met her future husband when she was asked by her father to accompany the divinity school student as he played the musical saw on a visit to the professor's home. She and Alex went on to make touching music together during 64 years of marriage. Besides being a devoted partner in Rev. Elsesser's ministry in Meriden; Dayton, Ohio; and at Community Baptist Church in Manchester, Sarah also became a librarian and media specialist for the town of Manchester, working in the elementary schools. She wrote and published teaching materials on library skills and, later, family biographies and essays. The Sarah M. Elsesser Media Center at Robertson Elementary School in Manchester is named in her honor.

Her passion for music extended to stints as a church organist, including at Memorial Baptist Church in Hartford, and various choirs, including the Manchester Chorale. Sarah was a tough competitor, not only in the many games she loved, especially mah-jongg and Scrabble, but in life as well, confounding doctors with her stoic resolve in overcoming one medical adversity after another in her later years. Many who came to know her were inspired by her selflessness, her always-positive outlook and her view of time as a precious gift, to make music, to sew, to write, to read -- right to her dying day.

Besides her husband, she leaves four children, Ruth E. Elsesser of Cottonwood, Arizona; Lois J. Elsesser and her husband, Joseph F. Nunes, of West Hartford; Paul H. Elsesser and his wife, Kathy, of Glen Ellyn, Illinois; and John A. Elsesser and his wife, Holly, of Coventry. She also leaves five cherished grandchildren, Alexandra R. Elsesser and Sarah Cortney "Cori" Elsesser of Glen Ellyn; Sarah Rose Nunes and Daniel J. Nunes of West Hartford; and Jenna E. Elsesser of Coventry; two step-grandchildren, Jesse Nunes of Boston and Derek Freedline of Framingham, Massachusetts; a sister, Clara Gallup of Brookline, Massachusetts; and many nieces and nephews and their families, including Marjorie and David Nelson of Newtown.

A memorial service will be held December 27 at 10 a.m. in Memorial Church at Penney Farms. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Commons Library at Penney Farms Retirement Community, Penney Farms, FL 32079.

Notes for Rev. Alex H. Elsesser:

The Rev. Alex H. Elsesser, formerly of Manchester, an American Baptist minister who served in Ohio, Connecticut and Western Massachusetts over 40 years, died peacefully Tuesday, (July 14, 2009) at home in Penney Farms, Florida. He was 91. Born March 2, 1918, in Winnipeg, Canada, Alex was the youngest of three children of Heinrich and Katherine Maier Elsesser, religious pacifists of German heritage who had fled Russia in 1912 in the face of the Bolshevik Revolution. The family eventually settled in Milwaukee, where Alex was raised and developed lifelong electrical skills at Boys' Technical and Preparatory High School. Instead of pursuing an electrical engineering degree, Alex followed a path to the ministry at Rochester (New York) Theological Seminary. A consummate lifelong learner, he graduated from Wesleyan University in Middletown, Hartford Seminary, Andover Newton Seminary in Boston and the University of Connecticut at Storrs. As a young seminarian, he mastered the lost art of playing the musical saw. While looking for an accompanist on piano, he knocked on a professor's door and met his future wife and love of his life, Sarah Schade Elsesser. Alex and Sarah were wed a week before his ordination in July 1943, and they went on to make joyous music together during 64 years of marriage, until her death in December 2007. Alex's Christian ministry began at Liberty Street Baptist Church in Meriden, where he served as pastor for four years before becoming pastor of the new Shroyer Road Baptist Church in Dayton, OH in 1947. The church enjoyed much growth under Alex's leadership, and he left at the end of 1955 to become director of Christian education for the Ohio Baptist Convention. In that capacity, Alex's achievements included developing two year-round youth camps from the ground up. In 1960, with the family having grown to include four children, Alex returned to Connecticut to become pastor of Community Baptist Church in Manchester, where an effective outreach program again generated steady growth. A stint as chairman of the Connecticut Baptist Convention's camping program led to his becoming minister of Christian education for the American Baptist Churches of Connecticut in 1965. In that role, Alex helped expand Camp Wightman in North Stonington, revitalized church curriculums, developed seminars on marriage enrichment and church stewardship, and often served as pastor to the pastors. After completing his work with ABCCConn in 1977, Alex became area minister for the American Baptist Church of Massachusetts, working with 63 churches in Western Massachusetts for whom he served as a resource person, consultant and spiritual adviser before retiring in 1983. As a proverbial jack of all trades, Alex routinely provided a helping hand to parishioners and friends that often went beyond the spiritual plane. Many older vintage garage-door openers in the state likely still bear his fingerprints. After moving to Penney Farms in 1992, Alex continued his ministry in different ways, working with Habitat for Humanity, serving as chaplain at the nursing-care center and singing with the Shuffle-Aires. As colleague George E. Daniels wrote in honor of Alex in 1977, "It is...the unselfish giving of himself in sharing God's gift of Good News that grips his heart and compels him to act and be, clearly marking what he is-a Teacher of the Faith."

Alex leaves four children, Ruth E. Elsesser of Cottonwood, Arizona, Lois J. Elsesser and her husband, Joseph F. Nunes, of West Hartford, Paul H. Elsesser and his wife, Kathy, of Glen Ellyn, Illinois, and John A. Elsesser and his wife, Holly, of Coventry.

He also leaves five beloved grandchildren, Alexandra R. Elsesser and Sarah Cortney "Cori" Elsesser of Glen Ellyn; Sarah Rose Nunes and Daniel J. Nunes of West Hartford; and Jenna E. Elsesser of Coventry; two step-grandchildren, Jesse Nunes of Abington, Massachusetts and Derek Freedline of Southborough, Massachusetts; sister-in-law, Clara Klein Gallup of Brookline, Massachusetts; several nieces and nephews, including Marjorie and David Nelson of Newtown and Janet Klein of Peabody, Massachusetts; and many close friends and their families, including Wilda Stratton Loughhead of Penney Farms.

A memorial service and burial will be held at the convenience of the family at Penney Farms. Contributions in his memory may be made to Community Baptist Church, 585 E. Center St., Manchester, CT 06040-441. Helm Funeral Home, 1811 Idelwild Ave., Green Cove Springs, FL is handling arrangements.

Notes for Eli Raymond Shaheen:

The Rev. E. Raymond Shaheen, special assistant to the president of Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, died on Dec. 12, 2006, at Nottingham Village in Northumberland. A pastor and ambassador, Raymond was affectionately referred to as "Padre" within the Susquehanna University family. Raymond was born May 9, 1915, in Williamsport, the son of Eli Shaheen, a Lebanese immigrant, and his wife, Ida Mae Borack. A graduate of Montoursville High School, he earned a bachelor of arts degree from Susquehanna University in 1937 and a divinity degree from Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary in 1940. That same year, he married the former Winifred Heim. They had two sons, David, who is now pastor of Christ Lutheran Community Church in Upper Darby, and Jon, who died in 1989. Raymond and Winifred enjoyed nearly 62 years of marriage together until her death in February 2002.

Raymond served as pastor of Messiah Lutheran Church in South Williamsport from 1940 until 1956 before moving his family to Silver Spring, Maryland, where he served as pastor of St. Luke Lutheran Church for 29 years. In addition, he wrote weekly columns for The Grit and Williamsport Sun-Gazette newspapers. During his tenure at St. Luke, Raymond served as Dean of the Washington District of the Maryland Synod and on the Executive Council of the Lutheran Church in America. In addition to this work, he conducted retreat sessions for military chaplains and church pastors, and served as a preacher and evangelist in India and South America.

Upon his retirement from St. Luke in 1985, he returned to his alma mater and volunteered for the next 20 years, twice as interim chaplain, in 1986 and 1996, and as special assistant to Susquehanna's president. His devotion to Susquehanna University was exceptional. He coordinated numerous special events for alumni and students, and was special missionary for various local congregations. In 1990, he founded the Susquehanna University Institute for Lifelong Learning to provide educational and social opportunities for hundreds of older adults in the central Pennsylvania region as well as at branches in York and Silver Spring, Md. He guided and nurtured the institute's growth over the next 11 years, bringing people together for fellowship and personal enrichment, before retiring as director in 2001.

Raymond was the inspiration for such awards as the Class of '37 Scholarship, the Ruth Cunningham Scholarship Fund, the Stephen C. Fiedler Memorial Prize, the Pastor Raymond Shaheen Scholarship Endowment, and the Susquehanna University Institute for Lifelong Learning Scholarship. His achievements were honored in 1999 by the award of an honorary Doctor of Public Service degree from Susquehanna, and in 2002 he received the Alumni Association Award for Service from Susquehanna, in addition to the Alumni Award for Service in a Parish Setting from the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg. He was also awarded an honorary doctorate of divinity from Gettysburg College. Raymond was once quoted as saying, "I try to affirm the worth of every person I meet." That goal was realized thousands of times over in the interactions he had with friends and first-time acquaintances alike. Raymond was a one-of-a-kind individual who had a special way of making us feel better in his presence. A kind word, an amusing anecdote, a provocative question or an encouraging insight ñ these were his trademarks.

Raymond is survived by a son, the Rev. David Shaheen, his wife Teri, and two grandsons, Timothy and Christopher. A memorial service at Susquehanna University will be planned and announced at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made to Susquehanna University, 514 University Avenue, Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania 17870, and will be added to existing scholarship funds honoring the Shaheen family.

Notes for Thomas Haines Heim:

Thomas H. Heim, 87, passed away on September 20, 2007, at Warren Manor Nursing Home in Warren, Pennsylvania. Mr. Heim was born on February 9, 1920, in Winfield, Pennsylvania, to the late, I. After moving to West Lafayette, Indiana, in 1972, she worked at Klondike Elementary as a teacher's aide, at Smitty's Foodliner on Northwestern Avenue, and at Federated Church as coordinator of homebound visitation, this being her favorite "job" because she felt a calling to this ministry.

A deeply religious person, she served as a Sunday School & Vacation Bible School teacher. She was also active in the Northumberland Baptist Women's Association, serving as its president in 1962 and also held office at the state level. She and her husband, Tom, were longtime members of the Hepburn Baptist Church near Williamsport. After moving to NY, they became members of the Rushville United Methodist congregation. Notes for Thomas Roger Boyer:

If the measure of a life well lived is loving well, Tom Boyer nailed it. Born Feb. 4, 1957 and raised in McMinnville, Oregon, Tom Boyer, 64, spent his life farming his family's land and cultivating community with his beloved wife of 30 years, Barbara. He left behind the legacy of a community deeply rooted in love and service to one another when he passed away, following his year-long battle with cancer. Despite his suffering, Boyer lived into the words of the French Renaissance writer, doctor and humanist Francois Rabelais: "For all your ills I give you laughter." Making people laugh was one of the things Tom did best. For a man of few words, Boyer is adored and remembered for his wry humor, quick wit and endless supply of "Tom-isms." "It's not all about you, buddy," he'd say with his trademark twinkle in his eyes. If you didn't really want to know what he thought about a thing, it was best not to ask because Tom could be counted on for two things: the truth and showing up.

Tom Boyer was all about his people and showing up for them. Whether it was to lend a hand with a project or to celebrate a milestone, you could count on Tom to show up. He knew how to hustle through harvest to get hay in the barn before the rains came, but he also knew when to put on his party hat and dance. As hard as he worked on the farm, he only worked a few Sundays in his entire career. And even then it was because he was helping someone else. He knew when it was time to swap work boots for his signature shorts and flip-flops.

Tom loved traveling with his wife and friends. He especially loved his "windshield" time with Barbara, AKA road trips to Mexico, hay deliveries and camping. He loved being in nature, sharing meals and stories with friends and laughing by the bonfire. Creative and resourceful, everything was an adventure with Tom Boyer, whether it was scouting for the best bargain on something or delighting his family and friends at the annual campout hosted on the farm, a tradition he and Barbara took over for his late brother Bob. From hauling a carnival slide down by the camp kitchen, or making sure the fire was going no matter the time, Tom gave his heart to make sure people felt at home and welcome at his farm, because everyone was.

Boyer was preceded in death by his mother, Inez Runner Boyer; father, Theodore John Boyer; and brother, Bob Boyer. He is survived by his wife, Barbara; son, Theodore John Boyer II; granddaughters, Josi and Zsa Zsa; sister, Mary Lou Hughes; and brother, Bill Boyer, all from McMinnville; niece, Carly Boyer; and nephew, Mitchell Boyer of Eugene; as well as his community of beloved friends.

Holding a celebration at a later date will allow us to hold hands, hug and have large belly laughs safely. A lover of all things with feathers, donations may be made to the Audubon Society of Portland 2318. Ruth Elizabeth⁹ Bower (Lawrence S.⁸, Emma⁷ Ulmer, Johannes⁶, Margaretha⁵ Heim, Christina⁴ Gohl, Johann Georg³, Anstadt², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 30 May 1925 in Pennsylvania, and died 23 Feb 2016 in Houston, Harris Co, Texas. She married Murray Joseph Monse Aft. 1942 in Pennsylvania. He was born 12 Oct 1922 in Brooklyn, Kings Co, New York, and died 18 Feb 1995 in Houston, Harris Co, Texas.

Notes for Ruth Elizabeth Bower:

Ruth Elizabeth Bower Monse departed this life on February 23, 2016, in the presence of family. Ruth was born in Rose Valley, Pennsylvania, on May 30, 1925, the third of five children of Lawrence Bower and Pearl Heim Bower. She grew up on the family farm, which instilled a grit and work ethic that never waned. Both were on display from early on. After graduating from Montoursville High School at age 18, she moved to Washington, DC, to work for the Department of the Treasury during World War II. Other friends had also agreed to go, but even after they backed out at the last minute, she bravely went ahead alone. She later worked for Railway Express before stepping out of the workforce for 20 years to raise her children. In 1974, she returned to work, this time for Viking Associates Realty in Houston, where she was employed for more than 30 years, retiring when she was long past 80.

In May of 1946, Ruth met Murray J. Monse, a Brooklyn-born GI who had just moved to Washington after his discharge from the Army. For decades afterward, Ruth and Murray told different stories about how they met. She said she saw him across the dining room at a local lunch spot. He said she tried to sell him nylons as he walked past the car in which she sat waiting for a friend. Not until the early 1990s did her family realize that Ruth and Murray were both right: They simply remembered different parts of the same day. On their first date, July 12, 1946, as they sat on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial, Murray told Ruth he was going to marry her. She laughed at him, to no avail. They were married in a church wedding in Pennsylvania exactly one year later. They enjoyed it so much they got married a second time, on July 14, before a small-town justice of the peace who packed a pistol. Their union endured until Murray's death on February 18, 1995. Ruth and Murray tried for years to start a family, but were unsuccessful until they joyously welcomed son Mark in 1954, followed by Lisa, Michelle, Eric, and Jacqueline. As Murray was fond of saying, once they got started, it was hard to stop.

The family lived in Silver Spring, Maryland, and then moved to Cincinnati, Ohio; Overland Park, Kansas; and finally Houston, Texas, in 1970. The family occasionally traveled by air to visit the Pennsylvania relatives. On one such occasion, Ruth rang the flight attendant's call button. The harried attendant finally responded, and apologized, explaining that she had been dealing with nine children on the flight. Ruth wryly replied, "Yes, I know, five of them are mine." Despite having five children, Ruth was active in volunteer work such as the National Council of Jewish Women, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, and the PTAs of her children's schools. Once she moved to Houston, Ruth discovered a love for growing roses, which she did with great passion and success for many years. At one time, she had more than 100 rose bushes growing in her Houston yard, which regularly stopped traffic with its lush displays. Ruth always loved animals, starting with a pet duck she had growing up in Pennsylvania, and extending to a menagerie assembled by her children. At its largest, the herd included two dogs, three cats, and a revolving roster of pet snakes. The long-suffering Ruth even allowed Eric to keep frozen toads in the freezer for the snakes.

Ruth was preceded in death by her parents, husband, sister Eleanor Bower Kepner (Rose Valley, Pennsylvania), and brother John Bower (Montoursville, Pennsylvania) and son-in-law Andrew Ritzell (Katy, Texas). She is survived by her son Mark Monse of Coppell, Texas; daughter Lisa and son-in-law Clinton Harman of Houston, Texas; daughter Michelle Monse of Dallas, Texas; son Eric Monse and his wife Lisa Jo, of Rosharon, Texas; and daughter Jackie Monse Ritzell, of Katy, Texas. Ruth was a devoted "Grammy" to her grandchildren: Kacey Harman Hahn and her husband Josh Hahn, of Pearland, Texas; Paul Murray Harman of Houston, Texas; David Monse of Coppell, Texas; Caitlyn Monse of Denton, Texas; and Alec Ritzell and Nicolas Ritzell, of Katy, Texas. Ruth is also survived by her sisters Helen Bower Ulmer and Aletha Bower Wright. She was especially close to niece Shirley Kepner Oehrli and her husband Niles.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations to the Houston BARC Foundation, the Houston Arboretum & Nature Center, or the charity of your choice. The family would like to thank C & S Healthcare for their help in allowing Ruth to remain with her family in her later years. They also thank Dr. Phillip C. Haas for his many attentive years as her cardiologist. Finally, thanks to VITAS Hospice and their team of dedicated caregivers, who were an enormous comfort and help to the family in Ruth's last days. The Monse family will be present to receive friends Friday, February 26, 2016 from 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM at Dettling Funeral Home, 14094 Memorial Drive, Houston, Texas 77079. A Funeral Service celebrating Ruth's life will be held Saturday, February 27, 2016 at 11:00 AM at St. Mark Lutheran Church, 1515 Hillendahl Blvd., Houston, Texas 77055. Ruth will be laid to rest in Glenwood Cemetery immediately following services.

- 3685 ii. Marc Bryan Entz, born 12 Oct 1960 in Tacoma, Washington; died 06 Oct 2022.

Notes for Marc Bryan Entz:

Marc Bryan Entz passed away at his home on October 6, 2022. Marc was born on October 12, 1960 in Tacoma, Washington. Marc was raised in Moses Lake by his parents, Ned and Jeanette, where he attended Moses Lake schools K-12. He attended Central Washington University and received a BA in Business. At a young age, Marc was inquisitive and full of adventure. Marc was a handsome and intelligent young man who excelled in everything from academics to sports. He was a socially active youth who enjoyed a broad association of friends across many different "walks of life". He was always engaging and shared his love of life with his friends and siblings.

Marc was preceded in death by his father, Ned W. Entz; grandparents: Howard and Christine Trullinger, Herbert and Lillian Entz; Uncles: Thomas Murphy, Lowell and Warren Trullinger, Robert and David Entz, Cousins: LeAnna, Lindsay and Jessica. Marc is survived by his Mother, Jeanette; brother Ray (Jeanne); sister Tracy Risdon; three nephews Derek (Anna), and Justin Entz, Cooper Risdon; one niece Lindsey Risdon; many aunts, uncles, cousins, and extended family and friends.

Marc lost a long and arduous 43-year battle with mental illness and the arsenal of medications that took a lasting toll on his body. As we all do, his family and friends struggled with his illness along with him in silence. Whether trying to understand it, cope with it, or simply trying to be aware of it, it shaped our relationship with him. This personal struggle is more evident now than ever before. His death is a light teaching us that it was never important to understand or cope, but to enjoy the moments we had and let those moments create the space to just be present and available.

If you were a friend or family, you know the reality of life with mental illness. As you read this, we ask that you not turn away from this group of people but see them and engage them as part of our community. Embrace them and do not just look away, ignoring them and their circumstance. We cannot address mental illness if our first reaction is to turn away and avoid confronting them or the issues they endure. Be kind and love one another.

3686 iii. Ray Entz, born 13 May 1965.

Notes for Kurt Andrew Stabler:

June 30, 2016 - When Kurt Stabler and his family moved to North Carolina nine years ago, they were unsure as to whether they would continue to farm. Previously, Kurt and his family had lived in Pennsylvania, where they ran a successful, small-scale farm. They moved to Dunn, North Carolina so that they could attend Foundations Bible Collegiate Church and so that their children could attend the academy and college sponsored by the church. Crownview Farm is one of the premier vendors at the WakeMed Farmers Market. They are also unique in that the farm is operated for the benefit of the students it employs from nearby Foundations Bible College. The students who work at Crownview Farm use the money from the sale of their crops to help pay for their college education(s). Owner of Crownview Farm, Kurt Stabler, explains: We're not a nonprofit, but we kind of run [the farm] that way. My wife and I don't make anything off of the farm; it's just for the kids.

History of Crownview Farm -We moved from Pennsylvania about nine years ago, and we were doing some farming (which was small scale) up there; and when we came here, we didn't really know if we were going to continue. We bought Crownview Farm in 2010; and I work at Foundations Bible College, which is right next door to our farm. We have five children that are here in this area. My son, Timothy, actually runs the operations in the field and oversees the other kids who work here. We really embarked on this farm for them [the students]. Originally, we started out with one young man who needed help going to school, and last year, we had about twelve different kids involved.

My mother grew up on a dairy farm in Pennsylvania, so I kind of had something in the background. Also, when I was young, my grandparents had gardens, and we did a little bit. When we were living in Pennsylvania, we bought a small farm. We just started with a garden, and we read and learned. At that point, I was actually working in town, in printing. I'd come home in the afternoon and work with the kids. I had an older son who thought he wanted to farm, and he did it for a couple of years before he changed career paths. So, when he got out, the rest of the family just took it over. We had several children in the early teens back then, and rather than go into town and get a job, we decided – "Well, let's just try to do this and make it work here on the farm." From there, it just kept growing, and it went so well that I finally quit my town job, and we started doing it on a larger scale.

We've been farming now for about 15 – 16 years, and we don't do anything original. We've read and talked to other farmers. For example, we had some really good Amish friends that taught us a lot – and you just read, read, read, and you try things and get better. My kids would tell you that one of my favorite sayings is, "Well, next year..." because you start, and you plant, and you see what happens about 60 days later, and then it's too late for this season. We're not certified organic, but we do an all-natural, chemical-free approach, so we need things that are disease resistant.

We try things all of the time. We buy our seeds from catalogs and online, and it's pretty much commercial seed. Most of what we grow, you wouldn't find the seed packets at Lowes or Walmart. We're also taking things fresh to the local markets, so we want stuff that's tender, that's tasty – and oftentimes, what's at the big stores does well at the store...but you put it in the field, and it may not taste the best. For example, we've tried a dozen different broccoli types to get it to the ones that work best for us, and we've tried a bunch of different lettuce. All of our lettuce is selected to take the heat as well as be flavorful. I know there's a big debate out there whether a natural, chemical-free approach is any safer. All of the chemical industry came out of what they learned in WWII- so for thousands of years, people were farming without chemicals, and they made it work. We're just a throwback to the way it was when my mom was a kid on the farm; we use manures and rock powders, and compost.

My property is about 5.25 acres, and we'll have about 2.5 acres in production. We use every bit of space that's available to us. The timing of the weather is the biggest challenge. We've got to do things when we have a window of opportunity. When we get behind, we get in trouble. Many of our crops are transplanted every week, so you have a continuous batch of stuff. Something like the squash gets planted every three weeks, and it will be harvested over a long period of time – but lettuce? You cut it, and it's gone. So, next week, you've got to have the next batch in there. If we get behind, we could dip at the market and not have something that everyone's looking for...or if the weather is extra warm and things grow quickly, two batches could get ready at the same time, and we might not be able to sell it all.

Most of the kids who come to work at the farm don't know anything about agriculture or farming. However, most of the things that we do are not hard to learn at all. We try to teach the kids not only what we're doing but why we're doing it. We want them to learn the principles behind things so that they understand what they're doing (versus feeling like they're just doing a task). For a lot of kids, this is their first outside-of-the-home job that they've had, so they have to learn how to work, how fast to work, how well to work, etc...and that's a good process. This is a great environment for them to learn in.

This is a biological, living system. Today, farming has gone more towards a business model. Now, you've got to be a businessman to make a living in farming – but you can't treat crops like machines! I worked in printing. It's a lot different to work around printing presses and folding machines than it is crops. Crops are living, and you've got to treat it as such and respond to its needs. The soil for us is everything. We try to take care of that and be in harmony with the way God created it, and it will grow us crops.

This is for these kids. In order for us to make money for them, we've got to produce a really good product that's in demand out there. People are wanting chemical-free stuff, and that's what we do. Crownview Farm is based out of Dunn, NC. You can visit Crownview Farm at the WakeMed Farmers Market, Tuesdays, at the Raleigh Campus from 10am – 2pm throughout the summer.

Tiffin - Nona L. Walker, 85, lifelong area resident died Monday, February 3, 2020, at the Briarwood

Health Care Center in Iowa City. Funeral services will be held at 11 am Saturday, February 8, 2020, at the Grace United Methodist Church in Tiffin, where there will be a time of visitation from 9am Saturday until the services and following during the reception. Memorial donations can be made in Nona's memory to Grace United Methodist Church, Tiffin First Responders, or Essence of Life Hospice.

Nona L. Ludwig was born November 9, 1934, at Mercy Hospital in Iowa City, the daughter of George and Alice (Heim) Ludwig. She grew up in Tiffin where she attended school, graduating from Tiffin High School in 1953. While in school Nona was involved in many school activities, including the girls' basketball team. She had many memories of her basketball days, some of these memories stayed with her to her final days as she cherished and relished them. After two years of dating, Nona married Ivan L. Walker at the Grace United Methodist Church on February 10, 1954. The first eight months of married life began in Oklahoma as Ivan completed his Army service. They then returned to Iowa to farm and start their family. Their life together would span over sixty-two years before Ivan's death.

Farming became a true partnership when they talked about Nona going to work away from home, or she could become the "hired hand" to further the family business. She was there beside him in everything they did, with that smile and work ethic that few could match. She would be the first to tell you how blessed she was with her family, friends and good neighbors. She lived to be around everyone, always the generous and loving hostess. She could cook, bake, garden, keep the kids, Ivan and livestock where it needed to be, and yet could still shoot a mean basket from her glorious days of basketball with the grandkids. Keeping pantry shelves stocked with canned goods from the garden and freezer well-stocked with garden produce and farm-raised chickens was among her "hobbies", often providing for church meals as well. She had a true servant's heart and filled many positions and duties with the Tiffin United Methodist Church. She became a grandma at a young age, but it was certainly a term of endearment that she held proudly. She enjoyed babysitting and the many special activities she shared with the grandkids including baking cookies, coloring Easter eggs, carving pumpkins, and Play-Doh time.

Her family includes her three children, Debbie Bryant, Mike Walker (Elizabeth) and Linda Osbron (Roscoe); grandchildren, Dessie Myers (Mike), Dena Dietzler (Bryan), Rex Bryant (Jessi), Bart Bryant, Bailey Dickey (Brian), Kate Walker, Nick Walker, Jeremy Johnson (Ashley), Wesley Johnson, Jake Johnson, Jacqueline Osbron and Ashley Arbes (Bruce); great-grandchildren, Ian, Audrey, Cora, Jocelyn, Tyler, Max, Evelyn, Taylor, Dane, Nathan, David, Channing, Casen and Lily; sisters-in-law, Mildred Lovetinsky, Ros Ludwig and Kathleen Ludwig.

Nona was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Ivan; son-in-law, Richard Bryant; grandson, Alex Myers; brothers, George, Robert and Dean Ludwig; and sisters, Phyllis Ludwig and Genevieve Merck as well as brothers-in-law Arthur Merck, Orville Walker, Leo Hotz, Jack Lovetinsky, and sisters-in-law Betty Walker and Velma Hotz.

Notes for Ivan Leroy Walker:

Ivan L. Walker, 83, longtime resident of the Tiffin area, died at his home Tuesday, June 14, 2016. Ivan Leroy Walker was born July 17, 1932, in rural Johnson County, near Lone Tree, the son of Earl and Marie (Cline) Walker. His family moved to Tiffin where he attended schools graduating from Tiffin High School with the class of 1950. From 1952 thru 1954 he served his country in the United States Army. On February 10, 1954, he married Nona L. Ludwig at the Grace United Methodist Church in Tiffin. The couple has farmed their entire married lives near Tiffin, raising their children, enjoying their grandchildren and great-grandchildren on their farm. He raised hogs and feeder cattle, later changing to a grain only operation and sold seed corn and beans for a number of years. He was known for careful maintenance of his equipment and vehicles.

Ivan has always believed others came first, he was an active member of their church, Grace United Methodist Church, has served on or has been a member of numerous boards, organizations and community functions over the years including Clear Creek School Board, Green Castle Aero Club, Consumer Coop, American Legion, Tiffin Gun Club, and Madison Township Clerk. He enjoyed much in his life, shooting, hunting, pulling in tractor pulls, traveling the country, especially the Black Hills; playing cards with family and friends, and of course he could always find a reason to go down to the casino! But most of all, Ivan loved his family and friends. He had a ready smile and infectious laugh.

His family includes his wife, Nona; their children, Debbie Bryant, Mike Walker (Elizabeth), and Linda Osbron (Roscoe); 12 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, sister, Mildred Lovetinsky, and sisters-in-law, Betty Walker, Phyllis Ludwig, Ros Ludwig, and Kathleen Ludwig..

Ivan was preceded in death by his parents, son-in-law, Richard Bryant; brothers, Aaron, Orville, and Loren Walker; a sister, Velma Hotz; a great-grandson, Alex Myers; along with in-laws, Leo Hotz, Jack Lovetinsky, George, Robert, and Dean Ludwig, Genevieve and Arthur Merck.

Funeral services will be held at 11am Saturday, June 18, 2016, at the Grace United Methodist Church in Tiffin, where visitation will be held from 4 to 7:30 pm Friday. Memorial donations can be made in Ivan's memory to Tiffin First Responders, Grace United Methodist Church or to the charity of your choice. 2482. Jean Martha⁹ Heim (Howard John⁸, Jonathan W.⁷, Jacob G.⁶, Gottlieb⁵, Christina⁴ Gohl, Johann Georg³, Anstadt², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 01 Mar 1930 in Lafayette, Tippecanoe Co, Indiana, and died 20 Dec 2021 in Houston Co, Georgia. She married Richard Benson Feitshans 23 Jan 1954. He was born 18 Apr 1923, and died 10 Jun 2014 in Perry, Houston Co, Georgia.

Notes for Jean Martha Heim:

Jean Feitshans, née Heim, departed this life on Monday, December 20, 2021. She was 91. She resided in Houston County, Georgia. She is survived by two sons, Stephen, also a resident of Houston County, and Theodore (Ted), of Raleigh, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Richard Feitshans, and her parents, Howard J. Heim, and Gretchen Heim, née Sprecher. As one of Stephen's fellow Rotarian said when told her death, "She was one spunky woman!" And that she was! But she always surprised and amazed me with her vibrant intellect and her love and knowledge of plant life (she held a master's degree in plant physiology from Purdue... graduating top in her class!). She would probably fuss at us for sharing that, since she never was one to promote herself.

After receiving her master's degree, she worked for Charles "Boss" Kettering in his laboratory in Dayton, Ohio. The research in which Jean was engaged was on the use of algae as a food source for the world's growing population. After her marriage to Richard, she joined him at the residence on his farm near Greenville, Ohio. In 1960, she helped Richard and two outside investors with establishing Mossy Creek Farms, a few miles north of Perry, Georgia. She was able to apply her training in plant physiology to great benefit in their farming operation. She also taught at Perry High School for a semester or two.

Yet Jean was so much more than that. She devoted her life to being a good wife to her husband Richard, and to being the mother of Stephen and Ted. She followed her love of nature by continuing to be a student of God's beautiful creation and by promoting it through her involvement with the American Camellia Society and other organizations. Her yard around her house is full of all varieties of unique plant life! And she had that special quality of wisdom... not just knowledge... and she would gently share that wisdom when she felt it might be helpful, as she has on several occasions with her sons, and many others. She will be greatly missed...

Arrangements for a memorial have not been completed at this writing, but Stephen has indicated to me that they want to get pass the Holidays, and this recent upsurge of COVID infections, and perhaps do something in March. Her cremated remains will be interred in the Heim Cemetery in Dawson, Nebraska, beside those of her husband, Richard, and adjacent to the graves of her parents. Please remember family in your thoughts and prayers. The family asks that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made in Jean's name to the American Camellia Society.

2501. Alta Inez⁹ Sandoz (Ruth Inez⁹ Wuster, Thomas Frederick⁸, Martha (Mattie)⁷ Marquardt, Rosanna⁶ Kiess, Dorothea⁵ Ulmer, Christina Margaretha⁴ Gohl, Johann Michael³, Isaac², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 11 Aug 1932 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska, and died 02 May 2023. She married Rev. Daniel Keller Breunsbach 03 Jun 1955 in Verdan, Nebraska. He was born 10 Nov 1932.

Notes for Alta Inez Sandoz:

Alta I. Breunsbach, age 90, passed away on Tuesday, May 2, 2023. She was born in 1932, to Albert and Ruth (Wuster) Sandoz. Alta was born near Dawson, Nebraska, graduating from Dawson High School and attended Peru State College. For two years she taught elementary students in a one room school in rural Nebraska. She continued her education at Midland College in Fremont, where she met Dan Breunsbach, a pre-theological student. They were married June 3, 1955. She supported them by teaching during Dan's seminary days at Central Seminary. Daniel Mark was born in Fremont. Dan accepted a call to Foreign Missions upon graduation. They moved to Maywood, Illinois for a year at the School of Missions.

In 1959, the family moved to Tokyo, Japan for two years of study of the Japanese language. While in Tokyo, Emily Anne was born. Alta taught some students English conversation and Bible studies. She and the family then moved to Kurume, Japan where she was the superintendent of the local Lutheran kindergarten. She continued English Bible classes in her home. After a furlough year in Lincoln, Nebraska, Alta and family relocated to Fukuoka, Japan. Where Matthew David was born. He passed away one day later. The family continued living in Fukuoka until 1974 when Dan resigned and relocated to Tulsa, Oklahoma.

In Tulsa, Alta and Dan were co-founders of Fellowship Lutheran Church where Alta was instrumental in getting the Sunday school organized and in leading the Women of the LCA. She enjoyed quilting at the church and making gifts for those in need and also making quilts at home for her loving family. Her magnum opus was a Christmas quilt that took two years to complete! Alta volunteered in the local polling place in Tulsa. She was also employed at Blue Cross Blue Shield as an accountant. From 1991-1994, Alta and Dan served in the International Lutheran Church of Seoul, Korea. Alta worked as financial secretary of the church there and also taught KATUSA soldiers on the U.S. Army base there. From 1994-1998, Alta and Dan lived in the parsonage while Dan served as pastor of Immanuel Lutheran in Cushing and at Prince of Peace in Ponca City. While at Cushing, Alta was part of quilting circle. After they retired, they traveled extensively throughout the world, visiting every continent except Antarctica. In their lifetimes they had also been in all 50 states. Alta's commitment to her family and her faith will be remembered by all who knew her.

She is survived by her husband, Daniel Breunsbach; son, Daniel (Kathy) Breunsbach; daughter, Emily Traub; four grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; infant son, Matthew Breunsbach; brother, Glen Sandoz; sister, Alice Koba; many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. A Celebration of Life is planned for June 3, 2023, at 11:00 AM at First Lutheran Church, 1206 Whitehall Rd., North Muskegon, Michigan 49445, with a luncheon to follow. Arrangements entrusted to The Sytsema Chapel of Sytsema Funeral & Cremation Services, 737 E. Apple Ave., Muskegon, Michigan 49442.

Notes for Rev. Daniel Keller Breunsbach:

Home City - The Rev. Daniel K. Breunsbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Breunsbach was commissioned as a missionary Sunday afternoon, June 7, 1959, at Frieden's Lutheran church, by the Rev. David Vikner, former missionary of Japan, who flew from New York for the occasion. Other dignitaries present included the Rev. Alfred Young, Omaha, Nebraska; Rev. and Mrs. Henry Gettler, Lanham, Nebraska; Rev. and Mrs. Richard Dunning, Lancaster, Rev. Carl C. Nuebel, Bendena, Rev. and Mrs. Dean E. Sudman, Kansas City, Missouri; Rev. and Mrs. H. T. Lenser, Hanover; the Rev. Robert Buhr, school of missions, Maywood, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Jenny, Fremont, Nebraska, and others. Mrs. Alta Breunsbach was commissioned as a co-worker with her husband. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sandoz of Dawson, Nebraska; her brother Glen Sandoz and his wife of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were here for the services in morning and afternoon. Many other relatives and friends from a distance came. Dinner and lunch was served.

June 3, 1979 - When Dr. Roger Gieschen, Kansas City, Missouri, president of the central States Synod, Lutheran Church in America, arrives to dedicate Fellowship Lutheran Church, 6727 S. Sheridan Road, at 3 p.m. Sunday, he may be surprised at the altar behind which he's expected to stand. Built by Fred Losber, a master craftsman, the altar is of oak with brass inserts – and 4-1/2 feet square.

"It is a little unusual," admitted the Rev. Daniel K. Breunsbach, the parish's founding pastor, "but our worship area is 46 feet square, and we decided it was somewhat biblical to build the altar just a tenth of the size." Besides, Breunsbach said, the altar is on hidden casters, so that it can be placed in front of the faceted glass windows, in the center of a wall or in the middle of the room for different worship patterns - or it can be rolled into a closet so the room can be utilized for other purposes. One of the aims of the Fellowship congregation since the church was begun - in shopping center office space at 6125-C S. Sheridan Road - has been to make their facilities available to community groups. A third medically-related group, the Tuberous Sclerosis Association, recently has begun meeting in the church. The congregation already was host to monthly meeting of the Tulsa chapter of the Oklahoma Lupus Association, and the Feingold Association, a group of parents who devise special diet to help their children overcome hyperactivity.

Another unusual factor about the Fellowship building is that, despite inflation, the 5,200-square-foot structure cost just about what the architects, Ragsdale-Christensen Architectural Collective, estimated when construction began in May, 1978 - approximately $270,000. All of the building's space has been designed for multi-purpose use, so that an assembly room in the educational wing which can be divided into smaller classrooms will also be large enough for fellowship dinners.

Also scheduled for dedications Sunday are The public will be welcome at all the services at all churches.

Notes for Rev. Charles Rex Bevins:

Lincoln, June 22, 2002 - When the Rev. Rex Bevins became pastor of Saint Paul United Methodist Church in 1980, he got a letter from a colleague saying, "You have just made the most stupid career decision in your life. The clergy friend predicted that in 10 years Bevins would "feel more like a curator of a museum than the leader of a downtown church." Bevins said he took that letter as a challenge. He definitely proved his friend wrong. By the early 1990s, the Saint Paul congregation was charting its future as a strong and vital downtown church. Now, as Bevins prepares to retire June 30, the church has a major new addition with a gymnasium, offices and classrooms, a completely remodeled sanctuary and a fine new organ. Bevins, who turned 70 in May, is far from ready to retire. But United Methodist rules require that ministers step down at that age.

Instead of resting, he's looking forward to new challenges as director of financial development for Encounter With Christ in Latin America and the Caribbean, a mission project of the United Methodist Church; and by starting his own consulting firm, helping churches and non-profit agencies with strategic planning and fund raising. "I know something about that, I think, and I believe I have some expertise to offer," Bevins said. A native of Cedar Rapids, Neb., Bevins said he "struggled with the issue" of becoming a minister for several years before finally making the decision. "I sometimes say I didn't enter the ministry until God had to hit me over the head," he said. While a student at Nebraska Wesleyan University and planning to major in engineering, Bevins attended an evangelistic meeting at the State Fair grounds where he had a religious experience that changed his life. "I suddenly felt the presence of the risen Christ and felt my sins were forgiven, and I trusted in Christ alone for my salvation," he said. The next week he told the director of religious life at Wesleyan that he was considering becoming a minister. "Because I had not been an exemplary student, the poor man almost had a stroke," Bevins recalled. But he went on to try student ministry at a church in nearby Otoe. He started as a substitute, planning to serve two to three weeks, and ended up serving that church for three and a half years. "I learned preaching on the job," he said. "It was a gift I really didn't know that I had. That church gave me a chance to use it Obviously, to this day, preaching is very important to me.

Not only the 1,760 members of Saint Paul, but the many others who listen to his sermons at 11:30 a.m. each Sunday on KFOR-AM radio, can attest to his ability as a preacher. St Paul's services also are carried on KFAB-AM in Omaha and "Worship at Saint Paul" on Time Warner Cable Channel 13. Bevins attended the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, California, serving as youth pastor at a church in Oakland, California, and then for seven years at a church in the Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco. When he began that assignment in 1957, the "new community," often called hippies, had not yet begun to move in. But as "flower children" poured into San Francisco from all over the country, Bevins helped design new ministries to reach young people who had run away from home, were experimenting with drugs and seeking a new purpose in life. "It was a wonderful experience because it opened me up to all kinds of new challenges, and to see people in new ways," he said.

From 1964-69 Bevins was pastor of a suburban church in San Carlos, California, where he helped start a teen discotheque to counter the drug problem. "We decided that youths and adults could work together if given a specific task and responsibility," Bevins said, noting that teen-agers got involved in doing drug referral and outreach. Bevins returned to Nebraska, where he was pastor of Warren United Methodist Church from 1969-74, and then executive director of ministries for the Nebraska Conference of the UMC until going to Saint Paul in 1980. Bevins said when he first came to Saint Paul, the congregation was divided because of difficulties with a previous minister. Bevins stayed neutral, seeking to heal wounds and empower the congregation to mold its own future.

In 1992, Bevins was a candidate for bishop but withdrew to support the election of the Rev. Joel Martinez, the first Hispanic bishop in the United Methodist Church, who later became bishop of Nebraska. Bevins also said he wanted to stay at Saint Paul to help the congregation move forward in expanding its ministries. Marilyn Moore, lay leader for the congregation, called Bevins "a very, very fine preacher" as well as an excellent administrator. "It's very challenging to be a vibrant downtown church in these days and times," she said. "Rex has made a huge contribution in bringing Saint Paul to where it is now. She also had warm comments about the Rev. David Lux, who will become senior pastor of Saint Paul on July 1. Lux is well-known to the congregation because he served as associate pastor from 1983-89. "His style is quite different from Rex's, but people are delighted that he's coming," Moore said. An open house reception for Bevins is scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday. The public is invited.

Gary Leon Wuster June 23, 1939 – October 6, 2012 Gary Wuster walked his last fairway in this life Saturday evening after a courageous battle with Alzheimer's and heart disease. He was 73. A celebration of life will be held at Bookcliff Country Club on Thursday, October 11th at 2:00 p.m. A reception will follow.

Please come in casual or golfing attire. Gary will be missed by all of those who were blessed to be part of his family and the many others who had the chance to call him a friend.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Milton and Irene. He is survived by his wife of 22 years, Judy; brother, Andy (Marvelyn) of Lincoln, Nebraska; sons, Trent (Beckie) of Fruita; Tracy (Jennifer) of Austin, Texas; Mark Rhyne of Los Angeles, and Ron (Lisa) Rhyne of Pinedale, Wyoming; daughters, Karla (Gene) Coleman of Grand Junction; Julie Kochevar of Grand Junction; grandchildren, Tristan, Tanner, Nickie, Tyler, Jennifer, Curtis, Matt, Ryan and Landon.

He was also blessed to have nieces and extended family in Nebraska and many good friends and golfing buddies who affectionately called him 'Wooten'. Gary was born in Dawson, Nebraska. The family later moved to Lincoln, Nebraska when he was five years old. His memories of this time included growing a large garden and raising rabbits to sell. He later graduated from Northeast High School in 1957. He then attended Nebraska Wesleyan University where he received a degree in business. After graduating, he spent a short time in the Marine Corps Reserves at Camp Pendleton in California. Upon returning to Lincoln, he became an assistant professional at Hillcrest Country Club. Even though his love of and talent for golf eventually would bring him to Colorado, his love for the "Big Red" Cornhuskers never left his heart. After attending the Professional Golfer's Business school in Dallas, Texas, he moved to Colorado to be an assistant golf pro at Hyland Hills. He then came to Grand Junction in 1969, with his wife, Sandy, to become Head golf pro at Book Country Club, having Trent and Tracy a short time later. He spent many years at the club teaching many people to golf and developing lasting friendships. In 1978, he was named PGA Golf professional of the year for Colorado. Gary enjoyed many golf adventures with family and friends in beautiful places across the country and even got the chance to travel and play in golf's birthplace of Scotland. His talents gave him the opportunity to meet many legends including Ben Hogan and Jack Nicklaus and nearly earned him a spot in the U.S. Open. He also held the course record at the Country Club for many years. He was still playing almost weekly up until the time of his passing.

A career change in 1983, led to him to start his lawn care and landscaping business which he didn't completely retire from until just this year. He was meticulous in his work making sure his customers were always happy and that the work was done with care. He was particularly proud of winning The Daily Sentinel's yard of the month last year and of his dazzling and of creating extensive Christmas light displays. Gary's family was blessed to share so many great times with him. He married Judy in 1990, and they enjoyed golfing together and traveling to many great places such as Hawaii and Nova Scotia. Whether it was fishing, playing cards, attending grandkid's sporting events and activities, celebrating holidays and birthdays, or watching golf, he always enjoyed the company of his family and friends. His quick wit and generous spirit will be missed tremendously. We know he is on the course somewhere now telling someone to "hit it straight partner". Gary was instrumental in helping to develop a golf scholarship for local students. Contributions can be made to this organization in his name to the Western Colorado Golf Foundation, P.O. Box 2415, Grand Junction, Colorado. 81502.

Roberts final combat was with the 2nd Marine Division at Okinawa prior to the atomic bombing of Japan. The kamikaze attacks were very active during their landing on Okinawa. Following military service he married Marjorie Dale Klima on September 8, 1946. Marjorie and Bob moved from Denver to Tulsa in August 1962 when Bob joined North American Aviation to work on the Apollo Moon Landing Program. One month later in September, they celebrated their 16th wedding anniversary dancing. Donna Marie (Heim) Epley, 89, passed away on October 22, 2019 at Heritage Nursing Home in Mason City, Iowa after a long and courageous battle with Alzheimer's. She left a legacy of unconditional love and service to others. Visitation will be November 29th from 4:00 to 7:00 PM at Sharon Center United Methodist Church in rural Kalona, Iowa. A Celebration of Life service will be at 10:30 AM on November 30th at the church. Donna wishes were to donate her body to the University of Iowa Deeded Body Program for research. In lieu of flowers, Donna requested memorial gifts. They may be sent to the family in care of Dea Epley Birtwistle/ 275 N. Taft #202 /Mason City, Iowa 50401 or directed to Sharon Center United Methodist Church, or to the Red Bird Medical Clinic in Beverly, Kentucky. The Peterseim Funeral Home is assisting the family.

Donna was born in Beverly, Kentucky on January 3, 1930 where her father, Dr. Harlan Heim, was the first medical doctor in southeastern Kentucky, and a missionary at Red Bird and a licensed minister for what is now the United Methodist Church. Her mother, Golda Heim, was a high school teacher at the Red Bird Mission School. Her younger years were spent in the poverty-ridden mountains of Appalachia where she watched her father start the first child-wellness clinic, family medical insurance for the loggers, and build the first hospital in the area.

On May 11, 1952 she married an older classmate from Westmar College, Lloyd Epley, at the Methodist Church in Humboldt, Nebraska. They were married for 67 years, and Lloyd comments that marrying Donna was the best decision he ever made in his life. They modeled a wonderful partnership for their friends and family. During their first year of marriage, Donna taught high school English in Ogden, Iowa while Lloyd was in Korea. Donna and Lloyd then settled into home in Coralville, Iowa. She was a life-long learner, and her involvement in many activities demonstrated her passion for diversity. She and Lloyd took vacations with their children to all 50 states primarily camping at national parks and also traveling to several European countries. They participated in mission trips to Red Bird in Kentucky, Guatemala, Mexico, Nome, Alaska, the Heifer Project in Perryville, Arkansas, McCurdy School in Espanola, New Mexico, the United Methodist Committee of Church Relief (UMCOR) in Baldwin, Louisiana, and Mission Jamaica. Later in life they enjoyed Elderhostel trips to Japan, Big Bend, Texas, and Canada.

In the 1980s, Donna returned to school, first getting an LPN through Kirkwood and then going on to obtain her RN license. She worked as a nurse at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics for ten years caring for adults who had recently received a bone marrow transplant. When Iowa City Hospice started and needed adults to comfort those in their homes, Donna volunteered. Donna was a vivacious and brilliant woman who was a natural leader and played that role in almost every organization she was a part of at both the local and state level. Governor Branstad acknowledged her with a state volunteer award. She was instrumental in starting the Coralville Library when she was a Girl Scout troop leader for her daughters. She was the president of Cardinal Girl Scout Council and later the Executive Director for the Girl Scouts of Eastern Iowa and Western Illinois, overseeing the merger with councils in Cedar Rapids, Davenport and western Illinois. As her son grew, she was also an active leader for the Hawkeye Area Council of Boy Scouts.

Steadfast faith radiated from Donna, and she was a Sunday School teacher and Bible School teacher for over 65 consecutive years at the churches she attended. She was active in United Methodist Women and Church Women United. She was a member of PEO, Chapter KP in Iowa City and a 50-year member of the University of Iowa NN (No Name) Book Club. She was an active member of Sharon Center United Methodist Church in rural Kalona for over 65 years serving on many committees, primarily with education and missions. At the University of Iowa, she served as a docent volunteer for the Field Museum for many years conducting field trips.

Donna was acknowledged in the 2016 Coralville Parade for her community work, on the Parks and Recreation Commission and the Coralville Library. In 2018, she was the state recipient of the Trustee Award for the Iowa State Library Association. She was passionate about the baby book bags that she assembled and which were delivered to every new parent attending the library in Coralville. Moreover, Donna was compassionate and gracious. Her home served as a hearth for many fantastic meals for new-comers to the community including international students as well as local and far-away friends. She was the first to offer help for a family experiencing a crisis and was the communication switchboard for her family. There were no strangers with her, only friends she had not yet met. Her greatest joy was her family, and her children and grandchildren modeled from her how to bird-watch and savor a good book.

Donna is survived by her husband Lloyd Epley of Mason City, her children, Dea Epley Birtwistle (John) of Mason City, and their daughter Anne of Milwaukee; Jean Epley Carleton and her children, Dr. Timothy Carleton (Justine) of Columbia, Missouri, Chris Carleton of Dallas, Texas, and Katie Carleton of Houston, Texas; and her son, David Epley (Barb) of Indianola, and children Chloe Epley of Iowa City, Mina Epley of Cedar Rapids and Mitchell and Nathan Epley of Indianola. She embraced her husband's family and is also survived by many special nieces and nephews.

Notes for Lloyd Arthur Epley:

Lloyd Arthur Epley, 97, died peacefully in Coralville at Lantern Park Specialty Care on September 21, 2023. He was a servant leader and leaves a legacy of wisdom, kindness, and caring to all those he encountered. The law firm continues today as Honohan, Epley, Braddock, and Brenneman. The Johnson County Legal Secretaries Association named him Boss of the Year in 1972. Over the years, he modeled civility to his co-workers and clients and enjoyed mentoring young law students.

Lloyd and Donna raised their three children in Coralville, Iowa. He enjoyed camping with his family at national parks all over the United States, gardening, teaching Sunday School and singing in a praise band well into his nineties. He was an avid Cubs and Hawkeyes fan and a voracious reader. He said his greatest accomplishment in life was being part of the "Dirty 30" from Iowa who collaborated with Afro-Americans and others in Dallas in 1968 to merge the Evangelical United Brethren Church and the United Methodist Church. Although vilified by some, he did what he believed was right and what God directed him to do.

They were involved in many mission trips and Elderhostels in the U.S. and abroad. He retired in Kalona, Iowa in 2016 with his wife and then lived in Mason City until moving back to Coralville in April of 2023. Notes for Robert Gregg Hoig:

Robert G. "Bob" Hoig (September 11, 1932 – Jan 7, 2019), age 86. Preceded in death by mother, Eleanor G. Hoig, and father, Ivan E. Hoig. Survived by wife, Martha, of Omaha; sister, Cindy Nisley (Ken); son, Oliver (Robin); daughter, Andrea "Andee"; son, Noel (Andrea); step-son, Jim Pearson (Carmen); step-daughter, Amy Chittenden (Stuart); grandchildren: Ivy, Noel, Bailey, Ryan, Braden, and Griffin; former wife, Mary Lou Hoig.

The family will receive friends on Friday, Jan. 11th from 5pm to 7pm at Countryside Community Church, 8787 Pacific. CELEBRATION OF LIFE: Saturday, Jan. 12th at 2pm, Countryside Community Church. In lieu of flowers, memorials are suggested to University of Nebraska Foundation—Robert G. Hoig Scholarship.

Bob Hoig was well known in the community for his professional and civic accomplishments. In 2012, he was inducted into the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce's Business Hall of Fame, selected as the Omahan of the Year by the Suburban Rotary Club of Omaha, and doubly honored by the Omaha Press Club as part of the first father-daughter "Faces on the Barroom Floor" (with Andee Hoig, publisher of metroMAGAZINE) and by being inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame. Bob once said he didn't want people to know him as just a publisher.

He took his first flying lesson at age 70 and bought a Cessna 182 two years later. He took up skiing in his 60s and continued well into his 70s. Bob swam daily throughout the 1960s and 1970s as he approached middle age, and even taught himself to play the saxophone in his 40s. He also loved playing tennis, a sport he continued into his early 80s. "It never occurred to me to place some kind of age restriction on what I could do if I was really interested," he said. Bob also had a wanderlust that began when he was 16 years old and hitchhiked across the country on Route 66. In 1983 he visited every country in Europe and returned to the continent 21 more times by the early 2000s.

Before he became a publisher, Bob was a shoe-leather journalist. He was only 24 in 1957 when, on his way to a corporate job interview, the New York Daily News building drew him in. Bob landed a job there as a copy boy, soon working his way into a promotion. "I had plenty of derring-do about me, chutzpah. I'd try anything," he said. Over the next two decades, Bob also wrote for the Miami News, wire service United Press International, the Lincoln Journal and the Omaha World-Herald. He also served as managing editor of the Omaha Sun and the Douglas County Gazette. During much of his tenure as a writer, Bob served as a crime and corruption reporter. In 1971, he was nominated for a Pulitzer for an Omaha World-Herald series that led to changes in state law. Bob saw an opportune niche in Omaha media when, in 1975, he launched this publication. It was a risky endeavor at the time, but Bob considered a willingness to take risks "one of the hallmarks of my definition of an entrepreneur."

His words about his love of flying, "And you're off into the wild blue..." now take on a special significance. Fly high, Bob.

Jan. 27, 2019 - As publisher of... the Midlands Business Journal, the regional weekly business newspaper he founded in 1975, Robert Gregg "Bob" Hoig has become a well-known figure in the community who's been lauded repeatedly for his professional and civic accomplishments. In the last five years alone, Hoig was inducted into the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce's Business Hall of Fame, selected as the Omahan of the Year by the Suburban Rotary Club of Omaha, and doubly honored by the Omaha Press Club as part of the first father-daughter "Faces on the Barroom Floor" (with Andee Hoig, publisher of metroQuarterly) and by being inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame.

As he approaches his 85th birthday in September, Hoig can reflect on a remarkable life. But what's most remarkable now for him is life. After a heart attack, several strokes and a bout with pneumonia earlier this year, his prognosis was grim. His heartbroken family was making hospice arrangements and preparing themselves for the painful task of planning memorial services in the midst of their grief.

But Hoig surprised everyone. Instead of mourning the end of his life, the family is delighted to be supporting him as he makes an incredible and unexpected recovery. "To me, he's come back to life," Andee Hoig said. "That he's still here and doing great is amazing." It's not the first time Hoig has amazed the people around him. It's not even the first time he's beaten the odds medically. When Hoig was two years old and critically ill, his grandparents—who were raising him at the time—were told "flat-out that my chances were one in a thousand," he said.

But "It was a bit of luck having the grandparents I had," Hoig said. "Granddad worked for the Missouri Pacific Railroad." What sounds like a minor biographical fact was actually an extremely fortunate situation: Hoig's grandfather's employment meant his grandson could be admitted to a particular hospital that just happened to have a physician on staff with the rare expertise needed to treat him. In short, Hoig lost a kidney instead of his life. And he hasn't slowed down since.

In fact, his current state of recuperation is a testament to the benefits of maintaining an active lifestyle. Hoig said he's glad he quit smoking cold turkey and gave up alcohol—once hallmarks of a newsman—decades ago. He ignored standard retirement age almost two decades ago. He took his first flying lesson when he was 70 years old and bought a Cessna 182 two years later. He took up skiing in his 60s and continued well into his 70s. Hoig swam daily throughout the 1960s and 1970s as he approached middle age, and even taught himself to play the saxophone in his 40s. "Saxophone playing and swimming had a lot in common for me from the standpoint of getting out of yourself and losing yourself in the moment," he said. Hoig also loved playing tennis, a sport he began at age 11 and continued into his early 80s. He played competitively for years, winning in several local championships as well the Senior Olympics in the 1980s. Some of his local tennis opponents included esteemed physician Dr. John Sage, television personality Dave Webber and former U.S. Senator Dave Karnes.

His enthusiasm for tennis took him to the U.S. Open on more than one occasion. And whenever Hoig traveled, he took his tennis racquet along in hopes of finding a friendly game of tennis in cities like Munich and London—which he always found, Hoig recalled, although he admitted that many of his opponents wearied of playing against a man "who traveled with his racquet." Hoig's wanderlust began as a young twentysomething in the early 1950s when he and a friend hitchhiked across the country on Route 66. In 1983 he headed over to Europe and visited every country. The following year he returned with son Noel to attend the winter Olympics in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia. He visited Europe 21 more times with current wife Martha in the late 90s and into the 2000s. "It never occurred to me to place some kind of age restriction on what I could do if I was really interested," he said. "In fact, it was more like a powerful current, where once I got in the current I was just rafted along."

Being pulled into a current is an apt metaphor for the start of his journalism career, too. Hoig was only 24 in 1957, hoping to make his way in New York City. On his way to a promising job interview with a major airline, something caught his eye. "I was walking in the 200 block of East 42nd Street. There was this building, this beautiful building with a big globe in the lobby I caught in my peripheral vision," he recalled. It was the New York Daily News. Hoig had a little college under his belt but no journalism background or even any previous aspirations to be a reporter. At the time, he actually fancied himself to be more of a poet, despite criticism received at age 18 that he recalls to this day: "Your work strikes me as a strange mixture of banking and alchemy." Something else struck the hiring manager. "I had plenty of derring-do about me, chutzpah. I'd try anything," Hoig said. He managed to get himself hired as a copy boy, and soon worked his way into a promotion. "It was a very fortuitous way to get started in that business, with that newspaper, because in those days, you had to work your way up internally. So I landed on my feet with that," he said. "Landing such an important newspaper job at that age was wonderful. Other papers in town, they wouldn't even talk to you."

Over the next two decades, Hoig also wrote for the Miami News, wire service United Press International, the Lincoln Journal and the Omaha World-Herald. He also served as managing editor of Omaha Sun and the Douglas County Gazette. During much of his tenure as a writer, Hoig served as a crime and corruption reporter. An early highlight was covering a Sheldon, Iowa, banking scandal for UPI that was picked up all over the country. In 1965, Hoig authored a surrender plea carried by UPI that induced 22-year-old bank robber/murderer Duane Earl Pope, a Kansan whose crime was committed in Big Springs, Nebraska, to turn himself in after a nationwide manhunt. In 1971, Hoig was nominated for a Pulitzer for an Omaha World-Herald series about loose security procedures for sexual psychopaths at what was then the Nebraska State Hospital; it led to changes in state law. He also interviewed a host of legendary figures from World War I-era pilot and later Eastern Airlines Chairman Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker and Everest climber Sir Edmund Hillary to former presidents Lyndon Johnson, Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford. The gregarious Hoig became acquainted with some interesting everyday people as well.

"Some people, you meet and they seem really screwy. But you get to know them for a while and you listen to their ideas and they become more familiar. And eventually—you discard the ones who are really screwy, and some, they grow on you," he said. Hoig's colleagues ranged from brilliant to barely competent. "You get around enough of these kind of people and you just think, 'I don't want to let them call the shots for my life.'" By the mid-'70s, "I finally, frankly, just became tired of working for other people."

As a reporter, Hoig had to be independent and self-driven, qualities that suited a latent entrepreneur. "I always thought I would be sort of a Warren Buffett figure, somebody who would amass different businesses and run them all brilliantly," he said. "It happened that I didn't have the proper credentials for that kind of thinking. I was much too anxious to not make mistakes, which is not a good habit for an entrepreneur. I soon got rid of that habit, but then just losing that habit doesn't guarantee you're going to find a good one." So although he didn't aspire to be a mogul, he did see an opportune niche in Omaha media. In 1975, Hoig launched the Midlands Business Journal. The fledgling publication had some serious detractors.

"No chance.' 'It's foolish.'" he recalled. A colleague told him, "Within a week you'll be begging for your job back at the Herald." "My response was, 'Just find a way to help me get some advertising and I won't be back begging for a job from anybody; I'll be on my own and successful.'" Even the optimists were hesitant to commit. "People very quickly offer their support but you find that there can be quite a time lapse between when it's supposedly going to come and when it actually does," Hoig said. "Anybody who's ever started their own paper can sympathize with that."

The Midlands Business Journal slowly gained steam and a name for itself. "I did have the good wishes of a guy who billed himself as a 'futurist.' He saw a copy of one of the papers we'd set around the lobby of different hotels and one of them was where he was staying," Hoig said. "And he said, 'I saw your paper, and to me, that's the thing of the future.' It caught the eye of somebody who stood out in his area, and that further spurred me on." With increasing success, Hoig learned to take risks. "It's one of the hallmarks of my definition of an entrepreneur, if you're willing to try things that hold promise and then abandon them quickly without a lot of tears," he said. His many successful ventures include adding the Lincoln Business Journal in 1996 and the annual "40 Under 40" awards started in 2002 to honor young businesspeople. Hoig said innovation isn't always about coming up with something new. "It's more a question of being willing to steal something," he said. "You know, I was far from the first '40 Under 40' program in the country."

Kim Davis worked for Hoig as a new college graduate when the Midlands Business Journal was still a relatively young venture. "I look back fondly on those years," she said. "Bob is remarkable." Davis recalled her two and a half years at the paper, her very first job before leaving to pursue a master's degree, as a great learning experience. "It was hard work, but it was good work, and he set an example for a young person just starting out," she said. "He was supremely ethical in everything, and it taught me the value of hard work. We had to do 10 stories a week, two a day—and those weren't short stories. And we also had to work on Saturday mornings... You learned a valuable work ethic when you worked for him, and he was right there next to you. It wasn't as though he was out golfing or something. "He was very proud of his paper, you could tell he was he had very high expectations for it. Once he began to trust you he didn't micromanage. But he did review every story."

Davis said Hoig had a distinctive brand of criticism and a "tell it like it is" approach to writing evident when he returned the first draft she submitted to him. "It was covered in red ink. I made the changes, and after looking at what I had written and what the suggestions had been, it was a way better article when he made the changes to it," she said. "He sat me down and said he didn't want me to be disappointed; he was very nurturing even then. And he said, 'Here's the thing, Kim. A lot of people who read the magazine, they know what the word ameliorate means, but they don't want to have to think that hard.' I'm like, 'Okay, I get it. You're spending a lot of time making it pretty and that's not what anyone wants.'" Davis still works in the field of communications today as the vice president of development for the Nebraska Humane Society. Her time at the Midlands Business Journal was in the era of manual typewriters, pre-Internet and email, but she said many of the skills she learned there she still uses today. "I learned to act like a professional."

Linda Lovgren, president and CEO of Lovgren Marketing Group, has also known Hoig since the early days of the Midlands Business Journal and said she sees his legacy as even larger than being a publisher: local champion of small businesses. "Bob, through his publication—and personally as well because he's such an advocate—has given small businesses visibility they might not otherwise have had, and a way to build their brand," she said. "The success of a business is the sum of all the people who have influenced the life of a business, and he certainly has been one of those individuals." Lovgren isn't alone in characterizing Hoig as an important catalyst for business development. Cella Quinn, president of Cella Quinn Investment Services, said, "Bob helped small businesses grow by telling us about each other. We didn't have to leave our businesses to network, we could read the Midlands Business Journal and find other compatible companies with which to exchange ideas and do business."

Quinn also acknowledged that Hoig has been a good newsman above all. "A good reporter holds a mirror up to society so we can all objectively see ourselves and make changes we deem merited. Whether it was business news or the legal notices in the middle of MBJ, Bob managed to do that," she said. "He did this in a special way because he believed in the adage attributed to an anonymous Texas newspaper editor, 'A news story should be like a miniskirt on a pretty woman: long enough to cover the subject but short enough to be interesting.'" Greater Omaha President and CEO David Brown, whose organization has a mission to ensure a thriving business community, praised Hoig for his genuine enthusiasm and unflagging support.

"Bob has a real passion for small business, and I think that was reflected in the path that the MBJ took. There are a lot of different markets it could have covered, but I think he has such a keen interest in seeing small businesses being supported and recognized for the impact that they have on the community, that he decided that the Journal should be focused on that type of topic," he said. "I think Bob's passion shows up in how the MBJ is written every week." That passion is even more evident in person, Brown added, like at the annual "40 Under 40" awards. "He seems to always be in his element at those events because he is surrounded by small-business people. And he loves being around folks that have the same passion for small business that he does," he said. "So whenever I think of Bob, I think of this those moments I saw him at those awards breakfasts, smiling from ear to ear because he's surrounded by people he respected a lot."

Hal Daub, another notable Omahan who's "had the pleasure of knowing Bob and his wife and family before they started their journalistic enterprise," remarked on Hoig's extraordinary commitment to the business community. "I've known him because I've active in local affairs, not just political affairs but community affairs as well as business here. I got to know him and I can tell you that—through my experiences with him before I went to Congress, while I was privileged to be in the House of Representatives, and while I was privileged to be mayor and now as a member of the Board of Regents, and as a practicing lawyer for 50 plus years here in Omaha—Bob Hoig has been the steadfast champion of Omaha and her small business interests," he said. "The family have been great citizens of the community. They've been charitable and philanthropic and they spend lots of time encouraging people to get together and do good for our community. They're not only great citizens of Omaha and our state, but they're very patriotic and really believe in America and free enterprise, and I think that's what Bob teaches, mostly, that free enterprise is the cure for all the ills of life."

Daub also said Hoig has made the Midlands Business Journal is a blend of edifying and interesting. "If you stop to think about it, every small business is affected or afflicted by city, county, state and federal government and the bureaucracy of regulations and licensing. So when you can pick up the Midlands Business Journal, you get stories of small business, you get all new corporate filings going on in Douglas County, and you get some flavor of the philosophical/political things that are going on," he said. "You've got a perfect half an hour to an hour of wonderful learning experience every time the Midlands Business Journal hits your in box."

Like Daub, John Bothof (president of Northwest Bank) said he considers Hoig a friend as much as someone to be admired. "Bob is a historian and passionate about his country and his business. Bob is a friend, a visionary, a risk-taker and a great businessman. Businesses of Omaha and all of Nebraska have a great asset in the MBJ and most importantly, Bob Hoig," he said. "Bob has had a huge impact on small business with the introduction of the Midlands Business Journal. Bob stepped out and, like other small businesses and entrepreneurs, risked his professional reputation and personal finances for what would become the Friday business paper that we all wait to be delivered. If you want to know what is happening in Omaha in business, business expansion, new technology or who is doing what, you read the Midlands Business Journal." Both of said his company's relationship with the Midlands Business Journal has been beneficial.

"The MBJ provides a medium to tell your businesses story. Many businesses subscribe to the MBJ and it has been a good method for Northwest Bank to open doors to new opportunities," he explained. "Several years ago, we decided to join with Bob for the introduction of the "40 Under 40" event. This event recognizes 40 people under 40 years of age on their business or professional success. We thought it was an excellent opportunity for a new start-up bank to invest in recognizing the future leaders of our community. The "40 Under 40" event moved our brand to new heights." He also noted Hoig's boldness. "If the stories of businesses in the MBJ doesn't take all of your idle time, you have to read Bob's editorials and get a common-sense approach to issues facing business, our country, and the political environment, to name a few." Hoig has made friends everywhere he goes. Restaurateur Leo Fascianella of Pasta Amore said Hoig has been a patron since 1986. "I've known Bob since day one when I opened the restaurant. He's always been an inspiration to me and encouraged me about the business and told me how wonderful I was doing," Fascianella said. "He's a beautiful person to talk to and such a nice man. I feel like I'm part of his life, I've known him for so long. He's very encouraging, very supportive of small business in Omaha. He's such a great person."

Fascianella also mentioned Hoig's love for flying small aircraft, a pastime he's had to regretfully step away from. "That's the most devastating thing about this...when you have to give up something you just so truly love," Hoig said. "It took me such a small amount of time to build a thousand hours. Flying gets in your system. It gives you a certain push to your life to just know you've got the keys in your pocket to simply at any time go to Eppey, cart off the plane and you're off into the wild blue." Stepping out of the cockpit is just one hard adjustment forced by age, and as Hoig recovers, his plans for the future are still in flux. But he said he's developed a renewed sense of gratitude for his loved ones.

"The joys of family, and the understanding of how family can rally around you and it really means something, not just a cliché. That's probably the most significant truth of my life right now," he said. Taking stock of his family, Hoig said he's glad to have a friendly relationship with ex-wife Mary Lou, the mother of his children. He's happy in his current marriage to Martha. And he's especially proud of who his three adult children (Oliver, Andee and Noel) have become. "That's one of the real satisfactions of life, once you've seen the path that you chose is the one that is right, and they're all in their own separate careers—with some small help from you in choosing the right thing at the right time for them," he said. And looking back at his 85 years, Hoig said he doesn't want people to know him as just a publisher. "Good father in an odd way. Pilot in a good way. Skier in an unusual way," he said. A remarkable life. Still aiming higher. "The joys of family, and the understanding of how family can rally around you and it really means something, not just a cliché. That's probably the most significant truth of my life right now." ~ Bob Hoig

Notes for Jacqueline Helen (Jackie) Stratton:

Jacqueline Helen (Stratton) O'Donnell, the mother of all the years, died on the evening of Saturday, December 30, 2017, at the Bickford Cottage assisted living facility in Ames, Iowa. She was just eight days short of her 94th birthday. Nine of her 14 living children, a granddaughter and a son-in-law and daughter-in-law were with her. The body has been cremated. A memorial service will be held later this year.

Mrs. O'Donnell, who until recently lived in Slater, shaped the lives of her children and their offspring and contributed to her community in ways that will reverberate for decades. In the early 1960s she began an 18-year career as a postal clerk and became friends with nearly everyone in town, often learning their personalities, problems and histories. In retirement, she helped found a local historical association and museum and served as an officer, spending hours organizing documents and developing exhibits. Mrs. O'Donnell was a volunteer first responder and also helped develop the Heart of Iowa Nature Trail from Slater to Huxley and beyond. But she was most proud of the family she raised with her husband, Augustine Daniel O'Donnell: eight boys and six girls. (Another daughter, Nora, died shortly after birth in November 1966.) All 14 attended college, an aspiration Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell had always held for their children. Many have advanced degrees. "And not a bum among them," as Mrs. O'Donnell sometimes said.

She was born Jacqueline Stratton on January 7, 1924, on a farm near Raymond in southeast Nebraska, the daughter of Isaiah "Jack" Stratton and the former Yvonne Marie Ernestine Pavard, whom Mr. Stratton had met in France during World War I. The family, including two older brothers, struggled to survive through the Depression. Mr. Stratton worked a series of jobs and farmed. Food often was short, but Yvonne Stratton was adept at stretching a meal, gardening and canning, teaching her children a resourcefulness and work ethic they employed later in life. As a teenager, Mrs. O'Donnell was named the healthiest girl in Nebraska. She graduated from Stockham High School and attended York College for a year. She taught primary school for a year and worked briefly at a California airplane factory during World War II. Mrs. O'Donnell was a clerk at Harvard Air Base, an Army Air Force training center in southeast Nebraska, when she met her future husband, a handsome sergeant who had served as an airplane mechanic in New Guinea and was awaiting his discharge. After a brief, intense courtship, they married on August 1, 1945. Mr. O'Donnell trained in the building trades at Iowa State College in Ames and then worked in construction. The couple (now with three children) moved to Slater in 1949. They lived in a succession of houses, each bigger than the previous one to accommodate more (and more) children until 1961, when they found a foursquare with ample bedrooms.

For four decades, Mrs. O'Donnell devoted herself to her husband and family. She sewed dozens of shirts and dresses, raised and canned vegetables and oversaw homework and prayers. She was her children's first and best teacher, finding small and large lessons in everything from insects to stars. Each child got as much attention as he or she needed, plus a little more. In the mid-1950s, A.D. O'Donnell got a job with Capp Homes, makers of pre-cut houses, and for years lived away from home during the week as he helped construct the buildings on site. By the early 1960s the couple had 13 children whom Mrs. O'Donnell would shepherd alone (albeit with help from the oldest ones) while her husband was away. The couple wrote each other regularly and their letters provide insights into their deep love. In 1963, Mr. O'Donnell wrote this from a Fairfield motel: "I hope this tells you what I've thought to myself so many times. How proud of my whole big bunch I am. How glad that I can provide you with a nice, big house that you all can be happy in. Also, how proud I am of you that you look so nice to me, not in spite of 13 children but because of them. ... You are the mother of all the years." Mrs. O'Donnell replied: "I only hope that when the kids are all raised and on their own that you & I can have a few years to get to know each other again, to be able to talk together without interruption, to be able to enjoy a few fruits of our labor."

Mr. O'Donnell later worked at Capp Homes' Des Moines plant, allowing him to come home each night. He developed Parkinson's disease, a condition that shortened the years the couple hoped to enjoy together. Mrs. O'Donnell cared for her husband until his death in January 1997. She often said her one regret was that her husband didn't live to see his children's success and to know many of his grandchildren. For most of the next 20 years, Mrs. O'Donnell volunteered and traveled, often with her daughter, Mary, who came to live with her in Slater in 2010. Mrs. O'Donnell rarely spoke a harsh word of others. Her strongest oath was "Lord, give me strength," uttered only when managing a family of 14 verged on the impossible. She was an amateur botanist and ornithologist, able to identify any wild plant or bird. Words cannot describe how much her wisdom, caring and love will be missed.

Survivors include six daughters: Louise and Josephine "Jodi" O'Donnell of Ames, Mary O'Donnell and Yvonne (David) Raes of Slater, Margaret O'Donnell (Rick Herrman) of Ft. Davis, Texas, and Jacqueline O'Donnell of Davenport; eight sons: Michael (Cynthia Michaelson) of Northfield, Minnesota, Daniel (Joyce) of Loveland, Colorado, Robert (Robin) of Payson, Arizona, Charles (Helen) of Westerville, Ohio, Patrick (Nancy) of Sioux Center, Thomas (Paula Mohr) of Ames, Alphonsus (Patricia) of Ft. Collins, Colorado, and Cole (Peggy) of East Moline, Illinois; 32 grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren. Apart from her husband and a daughter, Mrs. O'Donnell was preceded in death by her parents, brothers Marcel and Walter Stratton, and two grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the Slater Area Historical Association, Box 487, or Friends of the Slater Library, Box 598, both in Slater, Iowa 50244; or St. Malachy's Catholic Church, 405 Gerald Street, Madrid, Iowa 50156.

Notes for Augustine Daniel O'Donnell:

Nov. 2023 - How my parents raised 14 children in small town Iowa - Louise O'Donnell as told to Ronna Faaborg with the Des Moines Register.

Editor's note: Louise O'Donnell first told this story on stage at the Des Moines Storytellers Project's "Family." The Des Moines Storytellers Project is a series of storytelling events in which community members work with Register journalists to tell true, first-person stories live on stage. An edited version appears below. Picture this — around the dining table sit my family, all 15 of them. Oh, excuse me, 14, one was still in the highchair. Later on there would be one more, to total 14 children. I was the oldest. Some statistics from this 1963 scene — our family consumed 25 loaves of bread a week, 15 pounds of sugar, 10 quarts of orange juice, four dozen eggs, 18 gallons of milk, 20 pounds of potatoes and about four pounds of butter. For a while we kept a cow, Bridey. She lived in the ditch across the street. She would get out and there is no way to understand how big a Holstein is until you see her eating the neighbor's peonies. The truth is, my dad was supporting a small village.

Back to the scene. Mom, Jackie O'Donnell, is at one end of the table, Dad, Gus O'Donnell, at the other. If you were lucky enough to be at his end, that's where the food collected and where the real butter resided. Seats were assigned to prevent internecine warfare and there was a social structure. There were big kids and little kids. The big kids closely guarded this caste system. Of course, being a big kid gave you some privileges but more tasks too. The real reason was the right to boss the little kids around.

It was a fiefdom. Whenever I cautiously tell people that I am the oldest of a large family, that I have eight brothers and five sisters, the inevitable question is "How did your mother do it?" When mom was asked this question she answered, "Well we just did it one at a time." I guess that's true. What is just one more?

I have a parlor trick. Every night we would say our prayers and almost every year I added another name to the "God Bless" list. Louise, Mary, Mike, Dan, Margy, Jacki, Robby, Charlie, Jodi, Pat, Tom, Evy, Al, Cole. I think dad had all those kids to tell stories to, and to open the garage door and change the channel on the TV and fetch his one Pepsi a night he allowed himself. We did not get soda, the Pepsi was his treat and privilege. When I was very little I would imagine fratricide. There would be a car accident and everyone but me, mom and dad and, of course, the baby were sort of evaporated. We all always loved the baby until it was supplanted by the next one.

My mother was born a true optimist. She didn't see the bad, she saw the good, and she loved children. After my youngest brother was born, she spoke wistfully of having another. We kids always loved the new babies and a favorite memory is being sat in a line on the sofa and then passing the baby around when mom and baby had arrived home from the hospital. Mom was also indomitable. I would never use the word tough, that she was not, but she climbed each mountain without complaint.

When I was 14 and absolutely clueless, as you could be in the very early 1960s, I went upstairs where mom was changing beds, which she did every week. We all had our own beds, so let's see, that would have been 11 or 12 total beds at that time. I remember standing there while she said that she thought she might have the baby tonight and she was going to drive to Ames to the hospital, 15 miles away, that evening. My father was working on the road and was out of town. Later I climbed into the Lutheran minister's wife's car. She was my ride to the concert we were giving at school. I blithely announced that my mom was going to go to the hospital that night and she was driving herself. "Oh no she's not," announced Mrs. Bjorlie, who herself was the mother of I think five. She promptly fetched mom. My sister Evy was born that night.

Mom and dad raised us without any family or any close friends around to help in our small town of Slater. There wasn't a complaint, although my dad, who had married this optimist, had a little of the melancholy Irishman about him. They had known each other briefly and it was said that they had their first serious date on the Fourth of July and were married Aug. 1 after dad thought he was going to be mustered out. Mom describes their dates, dad borrowed a buddy's car and they went to a dance and sang songs all the way home. When he thought he was going to be leaving the base, he said he didn't want to leave her, she took off the ring — she was engaged to an absent pilot — and they started off on their great adventure.

Mom said later in life that it was all planned. I think it was in defense of having so many children and some comments that were inevitably made. Planned maybe, but the fact that my father was diagnosed with Parkinson's at 45 and retired at the age of 50 with nine children at home was not a plan. Mom once said she never worried. Really? But I guess you couldn't have 14 children and been a worrier. Dad made up for it — after all he was supporting his small village. I remember when I was small him saying to mom that he didn't know how they were going to make it through the winter. I went to bed and with my little 8-year-old brain tried to figure out how to save the family. I was the oldest, and I took life very seriously.

So here we are this big family. What was it like for my mother and for us? We all had chores of course, but we all also felt we were a little spoiled. We all have memories of the special things she would do for each of us, taking time and care to make sure something we wanted would happen. She nurtured our curiosity — taking us out in the evening and laying on the grass to look at the stars while she pointed out the constellations. Teaching us tumbling in the yard. She was just having fun. Until I was 14 we lived in a small four-bedroom house with one bathroom and one closet. With one bathroom you did not linger, and on bath night it went chronologically which meant sometimes, being the oldest, I was up until, wow, 10 o'clock. Then we moved into the big house with two bathrooms, six bedrooms and a seventh in the basement.

There was no library in town. We had a small library in our school classroom. For me, initially, there was the family Bible which had big color photos of classic paintings that I looked at over and over again. Mom bought books at house sales. I read the "Pony Rider Boys in Louisiana," "Dave Darrin's First Year at Annapolis" — you get the picture. But she did buy, I think with box tops or something, a series of classic books we all grew up with, "Heidi," "Black Beauty," "Robin Hood," "Huckleberry Finn," "Through the Looking Glass" and more. By the time I was in college, dad had built floor to ceiling shelves in the TV room and they were full of books.

Each August, mom bought several bolts of cloth and cut out three shirts for each boy. At one time she had six boys in school. She whipped them up and did the buttonholes by hand. The boys hated it since they looked like their brothers, with the same fabric for each shirt. She made us dresses, blouses, skirts, shorts, all kinds of clothing. And she made prom dresses and wedding dresses for us. She even made my brother Charlie a suit. She would be up until 1 in the morning meeting some event deadline. This was her relax and play time. She helped us make all our valentines for school, sitting with us with red construction paper, doilies, paste and scissors. So maybe 20 to 30 for each child, times maybe five, so over 100 valentines. The same with May Day baskets, and she took us out to deliver them in big boxes in the back seat. Then Halloween, with so many homemade costumes. In one instance I was, I think, in first grade and came home for lunch and announced I needed a costume that afternoon. She promptly sat down and made me a wonderful ghost costume out of an old sheet and saved me from being the odd kid with no outfit.

Mom and dad read to us at night. Mom at one point wrote a children's book. I think she sent it off, but I was so small I never asked her about it. All this was done while she kept up her schedule, a necessity to keep our village functioning. Monday wash, Tuesday ironing, Wednesday ironing, Thursday the upstairs cleaning, Friday the downstairs, Saturday the grocery shopping, Sunday make the dinner, usually with three pies. Fit into this cooking dinner every night and making lunch every day. And caring for the baby.

My job was usually vacuuming, which we did every day. I was a mean and dangerous older sister, throwing away treasured rocks, feathers, and once, alas, a baby tooth in a glass of water waiting for the Tooth Fairy. Not good. I deeply desired order which was rather hopeless. Sister Mary usually helped cook. Every night promptly at 5:30 we had a full meal with some meat, potato, vegetable, salad and dessert. On Friday mom could make a 13-egg omelet in an old cast iron skillet, high and fluffy and stuffed with Velveeta! Mom made dad's lunch and our lunches. She would lay out the Wonder Bread on the counter in a row, take the squirt bottle of ketchup and run it along the row of slices, then slap down the bologna and put the lid on them. She wrapped them in wax paper, and if we were lucky she would have some pudding or dessert that she put into used baby food jars, a great embarrassment to many of us.

My parents made sure we had piano lessons and astoundingly put up with the practice on the old upright in the small dining room. And we each played an instrument, mine the clarinet, which I was banished to practice in the closed off stairway. Patience only went so far. Mom and dad loved to sing and favorite memories are of singing in the car sometimes with made up songs. She said that was a part of falling in love with dad. They sang in the car on their dates.

They were building us brick by brick with the cement of example. My parents would pack us up and head out — to the fair, to the art center, to the park, lunches packed, and baby in tow. The amount of energy to do this amazes me. Arriving at the fair with a carful of kids — one year we were tied together just to make sure they didn't lose anyone. We ate in the car, and dad stood on the roof to see the races in the Grandstand.

Often dad would yell "Who wants to go for a ride?" on a Sunday afternoon and you would of course say yes in the very outside chance he might stop for ice cream. The only long trip we would take once a year was to grandma's house, a little house in a little town in Nebraska. Eventually we got farmed out to neighbors to sleep. We didn't really visit other people. Who needs a small village descending on them? About 1959 dad bought a Cadillac limousine, a big black car that had been a mourners' car and still had smelling salts in the glove compartment. No power steering. I took my driver's test in that car and I didn't even have to parallel park. Later dad bought another limousine, a Marshall Field company car. This one had air conditioning and, best of all, a window that went up between the driver and the peanut gallery in the back. The seating was strategic to get everyone in, with little kids on big kids' laps. Dad was really great at yelling he was going to stop the car and drop us off if we didn't behave. Actually one time they forgot my brother Charlie at a gas station. Mom's line when I was very small was "I'm leaving and I'm never coming back because you are so bad," then she'd tie on her babushka and put on her jacket and go hang up the clothes.

One Easter when I was maybe 8 which meant Mary was 7, Mike was 6, Danny was 5, Margy was 4, Jackie 2, and Robby was 1, I woke up and smelled baking but went back to sleep. The next morning we didn't have candy, I don't know if they didn't get to the store or if they were watching the money, but she had worked through the night to make each of us a big gingerbread bunny which stood up on legs and was decorated. Of course we wanted candy. She loved making bean bag games, rocking horses, toys, and more. We always had a birthday cake. Our allowance was a quarter, but on our birthday we got $1. My little sister was born three days after my 15th birthday. I remember mom making my cake and it just fell apart when she tried to frost it. She went upstairs and wouldn't come back down, so dad took us to a movie, a REALLY special and rare event. It was "Cinderella" with Jerry Lewis. Hey it was air cooled.

Without fail we went to church every Sunday. If you were on the ball, you got up and went with mom to 7 o'clock mass. If you were a lay about, you went with dad to the 9 o'clock mass. Dad was always late, so you ignominiously usually walked in with our crowd late and had to march up to the front pew. But if you went with dad his personal treat and ritual was to stop at a shop in town and get a chocolate malt and a Saturday Evening Post and shoot the breeze while we went through the comic book rack. If you sat in the front seat you may have gotten to steer while he drank his malt and read the magazine on the way home.

I was out of the house at college by the time my last sibling was born. Through those years mom was president of the PTA, Cubmaster, founding member of the historical society, advocate for the trails. How could we her children not grow up to contribute as both mom and dad set as examples? I was the first to go to college and in the end all 14 did, with a doctorate and masters degrees, authors, executives, professors, scientists and public servants. The example our parents set meant more than any lecturing. My parents created and raised a village of people and set them out into the world with no looking back except to realize how fortunate we all were in the choice of our parents. How lucky can you be?

My dad made it to their 50th wedding anniversary when we all gathered. After many speeches mom stood up and gave her short brief speech, "Well, I kept you clean and fed."

Steinauer until Dick was 6 years old, at which time they moved to Junction City, Kansas, where his father worked as a barber at Ft Riley. While working for the National Park Service they raised three children: Kenneth (Kay), Michael, and Kathryn (Dayle) Flanigan.

Connie had the opportunity to live in many beautiful national parks from the Northeast to the Southwest. While living in Cedar City, Utah, she was preceded in death by her husband in the winter of 1973. She enjoyed old friends, travel, and meeting new people. She began teaching alpine skiing at Brian Head, Utah. That work and a desire to experience city life, led her to Salt Lake City, Utah where she taught skiing at Park City. Connie was an avid reader with a great love of learning. Many charitable organizations have been grateful for her generous support. She was a good friend and kept in touch with many folks she had enjoyed throughout her life. Family was first for Connie and she always felt lucky to have spent good time with her four grandsons and seven great grandchildren. Connie often expressed gratitude for the spouses who joined the family along the way. Her great presence and beautiful smile will be missed by all who called her Connie, Mom, Grandma, Goldie, and friend.

To reflect and celebrate her life, there will be two separate gatherings of family and friends. One will be held in Salt Lake City on March 17. Summer will find her family traveling to Montoursville, Pennsylvania where she will rest in a cemetery with her husband, mother and father. In lieu of flowers, Connie wanted donations made to the hurricane relief fund for the island of Anguilla, BWI. She loved the many friends she made there and it was her favorite travel destination. A reputable charity is Anguilla Progressive Association of New York Inc.

2617. Marjorie May⁹ Heim (Linden Emerson⁸, Jonas A.⁷, Margaretha⁶, Jacob⁵, Christina⁴ Gohl, Johann Georg³, Anstadt², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 25 May 1931 in Pawnee Co, Nebraska. She married Dr. Floyd James Fithian 08 Nov 1952 in Dawson, Richardson Co, Nebraska. He was born 03 Nov 1928 in Vesta, Nebraska, and died 27 Jun 2003 in Annandale, Virginia.

Notes for Dr. Floyd James Fithian:

Floyd James Fithian (November 3, 1928 – June 27, 2003) was an American educator and politician who served as a United States Representative from Indiana as a Democrat. He was one of the forty nine Watergate Babies who won election to the House of Representatives in the wake of the Watergate scandal during the 1974 House elections with Fithian himself defeating Earl Landgrebe, who became infamous for his stalwart defense of President Richard Nixon. He was one of the fourteen members of the House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA) and believed that the Kennedy assassination in 1963 was orchestrated by members of organized crime.

Floyd James Fithian was born in Vesta, Nebraska on November 3, 1928, and graduated from Vesta High School in 1947. In 1951 he became the first in his family to graduate from college when he received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Peru State College in Peru, Nebraska. He enlisted into the United States Navy in the same year and rose to the rank of lieutenant by the time he left in 1955. However, he continued to serve in the United States Navy Reserve, retiring in 1971 as a commander. While in the navy, Fithian was able to attend the University of Nebraska, where he received his Master of Arts in 1955 and, after teaching at a high school from 1956 to 1959, a Ph.D. in American history in 1964 from the same institution. He taught briefly at Nebraska Wesleyan University and moved to Lafayette, Indiana in 1964 to become an associate professor of history at Purdue University. During his time at Purdue, he managed and operated a small farm in Tippecanoe County.

During the 1968 presidential election he served as an associate Tippecanoe County coordinator for Robert Kennedy's presidential campaign. Afterwards he served as an associate Tippecanoe County coordinator for Birch Bayh's reelection campaign in Indiana's Senate race. During the 1970 midterm elections he served as Tippecanoe County coordinator for Philip A. Sprague's house campaign against incumbent Republican Earl Landgrebe and as president of the 2nd District Win-Dems organization. Landgrebe narrowly defeated Sprague in the general election by only 1,204 votes, but he was the first Democratic congressional nominee to win Tippecanoe County since the 1930s. He was also selected to be one of the Democratic nominees for Tippecanoe County's three council seats by the county Democratic Central Committee, but came in fourth place.

Fithian ran for Indiana's Second Congressional District during the 1972 elections and won the Democratic nomination. In the general election Landgrebe easily defeated him by riding off of the coattails of Richard Nixon's landslide victory in the 1972 presidential election and in Indiana where he received 66.1% of the vote statewide against George McGovern and received 72,000 more votes than Landgrebe in the second congressional district. During the Watergate scandal Landgrebe was a stalwart defender of Nixon, explaining his refusal to listen to or read the transcript of the "smoking gun" tape that was released on August 5, 1974, and documented Nixon's complicity in the Watergate coverup, by stating, "Don't confuse me with the facts. I've got a closed mind. I will not vote for impeachment. I'm going to stick with my president even if he and I have to be taken out of this building and shot." Landgrebe received a massive backlash from voters in his district for his support of Nixon and was resoundingly defeated in the 1974 election in a rematch with Fithian. Fithian easily defeated Landgrebe in a landslide with 101,856 votes to 64,950 votes becoming the first Democratic candidate to win in Indiana's Second Congressional district since George R. Durgan in the 1932 elections when the Democrats also saw a landslide victory nationally.

In the 1976 elections the Indiana Republican Party ran a slate of candidates to defeat Fithian in the general election and retake the formerly strong Republican seat and chose Assistant Secretary of Agriculture William Erwin out of a five-man primary. However, Fithian won reelection with 54.6% of the vote against Erwin. In the 1978 elections Fithian saw his second largest margin of victory, behind his victory against Landgrebe in 1974 due to the Watergate scandal hurting Republicans, due to Republicans running Jay Philip Oppenheim, a failed primary candidate in the district from the 1976 attempt to unseat Fithian, who had little name recognition and with William Costas, a Republican turned independent, taking votes from Oppenheim gave Fithian a 20.3% margin of victory. Despite the Republicans performing well nationally in the 1980 elections and in Indiana, Fithian was able to win reelection by 8%.

In 1975 he introduced a balanced budget constitutional amendment, but it failed to gain any traction. In 1977 he supported the Torrijos–Carter Treaties which would give control of the Panama Canal to Panama in 1999 despite the majority of his district being against it. In 1976 he sent a letter to Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld asking him to demand former Air Force Undersecretary James W. Plummer's resignation as executive vice president of Lockheed Corporation due to the conflict of interests that would be created. In 1982 he reintroduced the Equal Rights Amendment which had failed to be ratified by 38 states before its deadline, but it failed to pass. During his tenure, Fithian served on the House Small Business Committee, the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, the House Committee on Agriculture and the House Committee on Government Operations where he served on the House Select Committee on Assassinations to investigate the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr.

In 1982 Indiana lost a congressional district after the 1980 Census. Fithian's district was split between three more conservative districts. Fithian criticized the reapportionment and brought up that according to the apportionment formula Indiana was entitled to 10.574 congressional districts and New Mexico was entitled to 2.505 congressional districts yet despite the Indianan figure being higher Indiana was losing a district and New Mexico was gaining a district.

On July 13, 1981, Fithian announced that he would retire from the House and would not seek reelection in either the 3rd, 5th, or 7th congressional districts or challenge Senator Richard Lugar and would instead run for Secretary of State. However, on February 16, 1982, he announced that he would seek the Democratic nomination for Senator to challenge Lugar in the 1982 election. In the Democratic primary he faced Indiana State Senator Michael Kendall, who he earlier encouraged to run for the Senate who he defeated with 59% of the vote. On November 2, 1982, he was defeated by Lugar who won with 54% of the vote against Fithian's 46% and won by 149,901 votes.

After his defeat he served as Chief of Staff for Illinois Senator Paul Simon from 1983 to 1992, and worked as the campaign manager for Simon's 1988 presidential campaign. Fithian also worked for Senator Lloyd Bentsen as the finance director when he was the head of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee from 1983 to 1985. After working for Simon, he joined the Department of Agriculture working as Secretary of the Farm Credit Administration. In 1991 Oliver Stone's JFK, a political thriller based on the investigation into the Kennedy assassination by Jim Garrison, to critical acclaim although it was criticized for its historical inaccuracies and Floyd criticized the film for its manipulation of the past. On March 14, 2003, he joined seventy two other former congressmembers and signed a letter asking President George W. Bush and Prime Minister Tony Blair to give more time to the United Nations inspectors in Iraq. On June 27, 2003, Fithian died at his retirement home in Annandale, Virginia after suffering from Parkinson's disease and was interred in Arlington National Cemetery.

He was born 03 Dec 1933 in Jersey Shore, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 06 Apr 1987 in Williamsport, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Ann Louise Waltz:

Ann (Waltz) Thomas, cherished mother, caring sister, and beloved aunt, departed this world on Sept. 23, 2022, at Geisinger Medical Center, Danville, with her son Greg by her side, and was met by her loving husband, Gary, on the cusp of their wedding anniversary. Ann was born on Feb. 11, 1940, in Williamsport, the daughter of the late Howell and Evelyn (Paulhamus) Waltz, where she was raised on the family farm, and then resided just above her homestead in a house she and Gary built together, and where they enjoyed and created many happy memories together, and for many other people. She attended the one-room schools of Steam Mill and Stoney Gap until ninth grade, when she went to Williamsport, and graduated in the class of 1958 from the "old" high school.

Immediately after high school, she worked briefly at the Grit, and then she went to the former Bank of Newberry, where she worked for many years before Greg came along and she became a full-time mother until 1990, when she went back to the workforce and worked for Jersey Shore State Bank where she worked until her retirement in 2005. She was an active member of the State Road United Methodist Church, where she was the organist for over 60 years, taught Sunday School, helped with VBS, cooked meals, played piano at the various nursing homes, was the altar guild, etc. If the church doors were open, she was there doing something or at least helping out in the background. She was a volunteer for Meals on Wheels for many years, and enjoyed the friendships she made not just with the clients, but also with the other volunteers as well. She was also a life-member of the Blooming Grove Historical Society, and was proud of the fact that her family was one of the original settlers in Anthony Township, and according to lore, the location of her house was one of the first locations in the township that was cleared.

She met the one and only love of her life, Gary Thomas, on a blind date at a bowling alley, and they were wed at the State Road church on September 25, 1965, and together, they celebrated 21 years before his passing on April 6, 1987.

She is survived by her son, Greg, of Jersey Shore; her brother, Marvin (Kathryn) Waltz, Jersey Shore; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

A funeral service will be held 10 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 28 at State Road United Methodist Church, 6738 Daughertys Run Road, Linden, with her Pastor Elizabeth Jackson officiating. She will be laid to rest beside her husband in Wildwood Cemetery immediately after the service. A viewing will be held Tuesday, Sept. 27 from 6 to 8 p.m. at Knight-Confer Funeral Home 1914 Memorial Ave., Williamsport. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Ann's name to Blooming Grove Historical Society, 397 Dunkard Church Rd, Cogan Station, PA 17728.

Mr. Waltz, who also was active in church and civic affairs in Johnson City, had suffered several heart attacks during the last six years. He had been a patient at Wilson Hospital for about a week. His home was at 3111 Kensington Road, Endwell. A native of Linden, Pennsylvania, Mr. Waltz was a graduate of Pennsylvania State University. He did additional work at Lehigh University, Ithaca College and Bowling Green University. He taught at schools in Dushore and Mount Jewett, Pa., from 1932 until he came to Johnson City in 1937. Mr. Waltz taught mathematics in Johnson City High School until 1945, when he joined the Felters Co. plant in Johnson City. He was general manager of the plant in 1957, when tile plant closed. He then became general manager of the company's other plant in Millbury, Massachusetts. Because of ill health, Mr. Waltz left Felters and returned to Johnson City where, in 1959, he became a mathematics instructor in C. Fred Johnson Junior High School. Last fall, he was appointed chairman of the mathematics department for grades 7 through 12 in the Johnson City School System. Mr. Waltz was at one time vice-president of the Johnson City Chamber of Commerce, assistant treasurer of the Broome County United Fund and member of the Johnson City Board of Education. He was a past President of the Johnson City Kiwanis Club, Johnson City YMCA, the Johnson City Community Chest and Johnson City Youth Services, Inc. Brad was born in Memphis, Tennessee December 30, 1949, spent his childhood in Bryan, Texas and moved with his family to Gainesville in 1964. He was a graduate of Gainesville High School and of the University of Florida, where he was a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity. Brad played on the GHS basketball team and on the freshman basketball team at UF. He earned a law degree from the University of Virginia and practiced law with Fulbright and Jaworski L.L.P. in Houston and Austin, Texas. He had a successful career as a litigator in the field of Administrative Law. Following his retirement, he returned to Gainesville, where he reconnected with family as well as numerous friends and thoroughly enjoyed being a local Gator fan. He also had a home in Telluride, Colorado where he liked spending part of each year.

Brad lived life to its fullest extent. He loved people, dogs, golf, skiing and Gator sports equally and enthusiastically. He had and wore enough hats to open his own haberdashery. They symbolized his dual citizenship as a Texan and a Gator. His homes were always open and full of people who enjoyed his unsurpassed hospitality. He was a wonderful storyteller and had an infectious laugh. As his great niece said, "He was so silly. I will miss him."

Brad is survived by his sister Gwen Wagner (Gainesville), two nephews, three great nephews, a niece, a great niece, his dog Porche and dear friends too many to count. His beloved parents, William G. and Wilmeth N. Wagner, preceded him in death. A memorial celebration is being planned for April 8 at 3 pm at Haven Hospice (4200 NW 90th Blvd. Gainesville, casual attire). In lieu of flowers, donations in Brad's honor may be made to Haven Hospice or St. Francis Pet Care, PO Box 358462, Gainesville, Florida 32635.

3334. Charles Carter¹⁰ Baker, Jr. (Ruth Mildred⁹ Boyer, Mary Ann⁸ Stabler, Elizabeth⁷ Ulmer, Isaac L.⁶, Johann Leonard⁵, Christina Margaretha⁴ Gohl, Johann Michael³, Isaac², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 26 Jul 1939 in Oregon. He married Carroll Ann Mincks Aft. 1962. She was born 1944.

Notes for Charles Carter Baker, Jr.:

My Dad, Charles Carter Baker (Chuck, Sonny, Papa Kahn) was born July 26, 1939 to Charlie Carter Baker and Ruth Mildred Boyer Baker. He was their third child and only son. At age six, he fell from a slide, acquiring a head injury that left him with epilepsy. From a very young age, he determined to be a Christian. He shunned wrong doing and devoted his life to church work and godly living. That didn't stop him from being fun loving and adventurous. He had several girlfriends before he met my mother, Carrol Ann Mincks. He has a terrible memory due to his epilepsy and so I don't know his first recollections very well, but I've heard lots of stories. According to my mom, he was engaged once before he met my mother and one stunt he did to impress his "other" girl was to do flips around the bar that extends off a telephone pole. He was a bit wild with his "adventures". He would take any dare. He tried to swim across the rapidly flowing Rogue River, and ended up in the middle of the river with cramps. He did death defying dives. He was party to pranks and other fun loving displays. He terrorized his younger sister, Darlene like his son, my brother David did years later to me.

My dad was named after my grandfather, Charlie Carter Baker. We didn't realize his name wasn't Charles until he passed away and grandma found his birth certificate with Charlie printed on it. Charlie was from Texas. I believe I still have cousins there.

Grandma Ruth was from Pennsylvania. I don't know how she and Gramps met up. I do know that her maiden name was Baer, but her family changed it to Boyer so they wouldn't seem so German after the atrocities were exposed in WWII. Grandma was the only grandmother I knew. She was always busy. She and Grandpa would snore in chorus, one breathing in while the other breathed out. She was brisk and not overly affectionate, but I knew I was loved. She made fudge and other Christmas candies, carrot jello, salisbury steak and always had hard candy available. I loved searching through her drawers and finding treasures. She would give one quick hard hug whenever she greeted us or said goodbye. She would stand on the porch whenever we would leave her home in Grants Pass, Oregon and would wave until we were out of sight. My grandparents both lived to be in their 80's. My aunt Pearl passed away when she was 18 years old in a fatal car accident that took several other lives as well. She was riding with her friend's family as they headed out for a picnic. A dairy truck, causing Pearl, her friend's brother and his wife and a few of their children to die hit them. Her friend, Leta Olsen and her niece, Sharon survived, I'm not sure who else. Dad doesn't remember his sister much.

Charlie Carter Baker and Ruth Naomi Baker had four children, Neoma Joli, Pearl Baker, Charles Carter Baker, and Darlene Haberman.

Dad and mom were married just a few short years, my sisters Annie and Penny were little girls and Dad wanted healing from his epilepsy. He had prayed over the years for God to intervene and to take away his ailment. He did all he could think to, but never received healing. He was unable to drive a car and wasn't able to do certain jobs. My Dad is a poet and his experience I am going to share with you is best read in his poem, "It was the night before Christmas". I'll have to get a copy of that and type it in. But, in my words, it was the night before Christmas. Dad was tired of trying to get God to heal him. He put his medicine on the chest and just told God how he was feeling. He normally had his seizures at night. That night, he laid down in his bed and he felt that seizure coming on. He has told me that he felt God draw a line, and that seizure never came. I never knew my dad as an epileptic. He is a car hog, hardly ever letting my mom drive their new fancy wheels. His job is crane operator. For years he was the Sunday school bus superintendent, participating and over bus driving schedules.

Stoltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Stoltz, Jerome. Baskets of yellow and white gladioli and daisies carrying out the bride's color theme, decorated the altar. Escorted by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white embroidered nylon organdy over taffeta. It was fashioned with a lifted waistline with round neck-line and short sleeves and featured a short tulle train falling from the back of the neckline. A waist length veil of bouffant illusion sheer was attached to a crown of nylon leaves and pearls. Her cascade bouquet of white daisies was accented with a yellow bow.

Eileen Taney, Blackfoot, maid of honor, and Mrs. Leroy H. Swann, Reseda, California, the bride's sister and Claudette Creger, Torrance California, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns street-length, and in a soft yellow chrome spun, the gowns were designed like the bride's. Ribbon streamers fell from the back of neckline to the hem. They wore headpieces of daisies with ribbon streamers. Mrs. Taney carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies with gold ribbon and the bridesmaids' bouquets were backed with white ribbon. Best man was William Bennett, Carlin, Nevada, and ushers were Harold Stoltz, Jerome, brother of the bridegroom, and Loyd Harris, Twin Falls. The bride's mother selected a light blue boucle empire sheath dress with electric blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose rose lace with a white satin hat and beige accessories. White gladioli corsages complimented their ensembles. Sally Olsen, Mackay, registered the guests.

After a reception in the Hotel Bannock Pioneer room, the new Mrs. Stoltz changed to a red striped Madras bolero dress with red accessories and a natural straw hat for a wedding trip to Boise. While at Practical Bible Training School she became engaged to Roger McNamara of North Colesville, New York, a fellow student at the School. They were wed July 11, 1964 and four days later were accepted by Baptist Mid-Missions of Cleveland, Ohio as missionaries to South America. They served in Mexico, Costa Rica, Venezuela, St. Vincent, West Indies, Canada, Liberia, Africa as well as in the United States before their retirement in 2018 after fifty-two years of missionary service. Rosemary served through teaching children and ladies' classes, being the church pianist for forty years, and by being a friend, hostess and counselor to multiple women, missionaries and pastors' wives. She was her husband's constant helpmeet and encourager.

She and her husband, Roger, had two sons: Shawn David (wife Chris) of Indianapolis, Indiana and Shane Paul (wife Ami) of Georgetown, Texas. Both of their sons are actively involved in church ministry roles. Rosemary had four grandchildren, Faith (with her husband Hudson Steidl), Bethany, Grace and Joshua. She also has two great grandchildren, Tessalyn Elise Steidl and Weston Taylor Steidl.

In John 14:2, Jesus said, "I go to prepare a place for you that where I am, there ye may be also." On Thursday morning, Rosemary was escorted to her celestial home where the streets are paved with gold and there is no more cancer, no more blood pressure issues, no more pain or suffering, no more weakness, no more lethargy, no more stupor. She is home, safe in the arms of Jesus. She was a good and godly woman, the example of what a mother and Christian wife ought to be. She never wanted to be in the spotlight but preferred to serve in the background. She had a godly parents and grandparents, uncles that were pastors, aunts that were missionaries, and multiple others that were deacons, teachers and church leaders. She learned to serve early teaching children's classes at Anthony Baptist Church on Quenshukeny Road in Linden, Pennsylvania. At Bible School Park she was the girl that all the other girls sought out when they needed a friend or someone to listen to their fears, concerns and heartaches. She followed her husband to the mission fields of Latin America giving up the parents and friends she loved to live in a foreign culture with a language she did not understand. She struggled with the Spanish, but she didn't quit. When she was laid aside with hepatitis shortly after the birth of her first baby, she endured without asking, "Why me?"

She packed up and moved from country to country, from one nationality to the next. She took on the daunting task of teaching her son at home. She loved the students at the Bible College in St. Vincent in the West Indies. Pearl was a special girl who cleaned our home and washed our clothes and did whatever was needed. She married a Vincentian pastor but was called home to heaven a few years later. Then there was Ma Forbes. She was the cook at the Bible College. A simple woman who loved being with the students as well.

For 35 years, while her husband taught in the School of Church Planting, Rosemary served as the unofficial "hostess," the jack of all trades, the go-to girl who welcomed numerous missionaries, pastors, students and church planters from around the world. She greeted them, introduced them to the teachers, herded them to their meals and then back to their classes. She ran countless errands, made copies, coordinated and care for a thousand and one details that go into running conferences. Several people have referred to her as being "spunky" with a mischievous "Can Do" attitude. She loved to joke and tease.

For years, she would accompany her husband to executive meetings in Cleveland, Ohio and while he met in counsel with other field council representatives, she would be back in the finance office opening letters, sorting mail, and enjoying time with "the girls" in the Home Office of Baptist Mid-Missions. For a dozen years, she helped her husband organize and direct the North American field conferences held at Faith Baptist Bible College in Ankeny, Iowa. They would be the first to arrive and the last to leave. They cared for room assignments, coordinated meeting schedules, and made sure food was prepared and ready for the hungry guests. She collected the dorm keys, made sure people who needed a ride to the airport had one, she checked the dorms to make sure the garbage was picked up, and was there when her husband paid the bills from those conferences. If you wanted to know something, you asked Rosemary. The days were long and demanding, but she met them with grace and kindness and determination. She proofread thousands of pages of her husband's writings. Letters, sermon notes, PowerPoints, nearly eighty editions of the Church Planter's Toolbox, multiple book manuscripts, they all fell under her watchful eye and red ink pen. Her husband's writings were better because of her and thousands around the world were blessed as a result.

Rosemary and her husband retired in 2016 after fifty-two years of missionary service, but they found retirement harder than active missionary service. A "servant" knows only one thing – to serve, and when she and her husband stepped down from full-time missionary service, there was a void. It didn't take her long to find something to do. She loved to crochet, work her word search puzzle books, and served as the "gram dame" of the Classic Life Bible Class at her church. She was loved and looked up to by nearly everyone who knew her. Her ready smile, her attention to detail, her willingness to pitch in and help all endeared her to others. Now, she is gone, but not far away. Her husband can hear the sound of her voice in each room of the house, her handiwork is everywhere. Her chair sits empty and her John Deere hat lies on the countertop to be used no more. We miss her, but she lives on in our hearts. She has transcended this life into an even better one in the presence of her Lord and Savior who she served. She now can breathe deep, run and jump with ease. But most of all, she loves to fall at the feet of her loving Savior who died to make it possible for her to be where she is. She leaves behind her a godly heritage. The world is a better place because of her. Her tombstone sums it up best and speaks so eloquently of her when it says for all to behold, "A servant of Christ." She loved plants and flowers, baking, crocheting, word search books, and going to Bible studies. She loved her husband of fifty-six years, her children and grandchildren, her church, her pastor, and her Lord Jesus Christ. She was an example of a godly woman. She came from a long line of godly pastors, missionaries, and church leaders and left behind a heritage of humble service to others.

Rosemary was predeceased by her mother and father, Paul and Mildred Ulmer, a baby brother, Daniel, and a host of aunts and uncles who served in various ministry roles. She is survived by her husband of fifty-six years, Roger, her two sons, Shawn and Shane, four grandchildren, two great grandchildren and a host of cousins, nephews and nieces.

After high school, Keith went out west with his posse of friends to ride horses and fix fences as a ranch hand for the historic A Bar A Guest Ranch, and later for the Heart-Bar Heart Working Ranch in Wyoming state. After returning to Pennsylvania, Keith worked as a Millwright for Sprout-Waldron, Construction Specialties, and other local construction and manufacturing businesses. In the latter half of his career, Keith served as an Information Technology Computer Desktop/Network Technician for the Susquehanna Hospital Health System, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS), and the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) General Services Administration (GSA) Contracting Directorate.

Keith had many friends; he was full of fun and wit, and he had something funny to say in every situation. He especially loved being a father. The best part of his day was after work, when he could take his sons Christopher and Gabriel along with him in his truck as he went out to visit with his Hughesville friends. In later years, Keith enjoyed fathering and spending time with his stepson Gregory Dodge Converse.

After taking retirement, Keith spent his time taking day trips with his wife Sara, to visit towns and beaches located along the Florida Gulf of Mexico, speed-boating on the Sarasota Bay. Keith also enjoyed spending time working with his leather craft, where he was skilled at making handgun and buck knife holsters, waist band cell phone monogrammed leather wallets, sun-visors, small leather bowls, leather beer cozy, leather bow ties, and other leather products, which he then gave to his loved ones as gifts.

Keith is survived by his wife Sara Dodge, son Gabriel Stiger, and brothers, Barry Stiger (Barb), Randy Stiger (Barb), Kent Stiger (Deb), David Stiger (Kris) and Donald Stiger (Sue), as well as numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews. The family asks that donations in Keith's name be made to the American Cancer Society. Private, closed funeral services and interment. Please send prayers.

Notes for Andrew David Ritzell:

Andrew David Ritzell, 43, of Katy, Texas passed away July 18, 2013. He was born February 28, 1970 in Warrington, England to William Ritzell and Maureen Espeche. He is survived by his parents; his wife Jacqueline Monse Ritzell; sons, Alec David Ritzell and Nicolas William Ritzell; siblings, Jeffrey Peter Leight & wife Penny, Elizabeth Anne Shulark, Jonathan Lee Espeche; Nieces & Nephews, Brandon Leight, Sarah Shulark, Kacey Harman, Paul Harman, David Monse, Caitlyn Monse as well as numerous other relatives and friends.

Andrew was born in England and grew up in and around Southeast Asia. He moved to the United States at age 13. Andrew was a student at Jakarta International School as well as Stratford High School. He attended the Spartan School of Aeronautics in Tulsa, OK where he received his Aviation Mechanics License. After his schooling he worked for National Oilwell Varco (NOV) for 15 years in oilfield management. Andrew was an avid hunter and outdoorsman. He loved trucks and hotrods. Children of Jacqueline Monse and Andrew Ritzell are:

- 4945 i. Alec D.¹¹ Ritzell, born 03 Nov 1994; died 09 Mar 2020.

Notes for Alec D. Ritzell:

Alec D. Ritzell's fascination with the natural world began when he was a toddler gleefully watching the moon. As he grew, his loves expanded to elephants, mammoths and mastodons—he could explain the difference by age 4—deer, fish, and birds. His life ended while he was a graduate student studying bobwhite quail. He was 25. Born in Denver in 1994, Alec grew up in Colorado and Texas with his beloved brother Nicolas, mother Jackie, and father Andrew Ritzell. Andrew predeceased him, as did his grandparents William Ritzell, of Hemphill, TX, and Ruth and Murray Monse, of Houston, Texas. Alec had a history of beating long odds. At birth, he was a 4-lb. preemie who fit in the palm of his father's hand. At age 24, he was a 210-lb. weightlifter. He started community college with developmental math classes. He graduated in 2017 with a 4.0 and a B. S. from Sul Ross State University in Alpine, before pursuing a master's degree at Texas A&M – Kingsville.

Alec was a superb student and dedicated worker, endearing himself to his professors and other students (except, perhaps, those peers who were angry that he'd blown the curve). His academic achievements enabled him to attain research assistantships and internships at the Borderlands Research Institute, the Noble Foundation, Rolling Plains Quail Research Foundation, and Caesar W. Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute. He also garnered many scholarships. Due to the generosity of these organizations and donors, Alec would have graduated with a minimal amount of student loans, an accomplishment that gave him great satisfaction.

Alec had a beautiful singing voice, and was the King of Karaoke, especially when singing Johnny Cash tunes at the Railroad Blues bar in Alpine. And he loved to talk, usually on long telephone calls with family and friends. He had endless topics to discuss and fended off any attempt to end a call with the plea, "Just one more thing...." He loved the outdoors, whether walking alone in the hills behind his dorm at Sul Ross, hiking with "The Crew" in Big Bend National Park, hunting with his brother across Texas, or fishing at the Post in Marathon. Alec's last fishing trip, in early June 2019, was with his brother Nic at Baffin Bay in South Texas, using the Kistler fishing rods his Grandpa Bill had given him.

When Alec was diagnosed with glioblastoma a few weeks later, Alec's family and friends were hopeful he would beat the odds once again. He fought with everything he had. He spent a month in neuro ICU, largely paralyzed, undergoing radiation and chemotherapy. By mid-September, he regained his ability to speak—and most importantly to Alec—eat. And eat he did, usually starting his day with salmon, cream cheese, caviar, and capers. Spurred by fond memories and too many hours watching the Food Network, his food "wish list" grew to many pages, leading his family to call him the "Man of Flavor."

The nickname "Master of Flirting" would have fit, too. On Alec's first visit to Alpine in 2014, his Aunt Michelle had to bribe him to ask a young lady to dance. After that, he never looked back. Through multiple rounds of radiation, chemotherapy, and hospitalization, Alec flirted with his nurses, telling one "That mask can't disguise how pretty you are." Not that Alec was a player—far from it. He was genuinely guileless and utterly sincere. During Alec's cancer treatment, Alec and Jackie lived with Uncle Clint and Aunt Lisa Harman in Houston. Jackie and Lisa were his constant caregivers for the next eight months. Despite his gains in fall 2019, Alec began struggling after Christmas, and was hospitalized repeatedly. An MRI in late February 2020 showed the spread of Alec's cancer to his neck and spine. No further treatment being possible, his family moved him to Houston Hospice on March 5, where he died four days later, surrounded by family and friends.

In addition to his mother Jackie (Austin, Texas) and brother Nic (Dallas, Texas), Alec's survivors include his Uncle Mark Monse (Powderly, Texas); Aunt Lisa Monse Harman and Uncle Clint Harman (Houston, Texas); Aunt Michelle Monse (Dallas, Texas); Uncle Eric Monse and Aunt Lisa Jo Monse (Rosharon, Texas); and cousins David Monse, Caitlyn Mangun (and husband Bryce) (Dallas area), Kacey Hahn (and husband Josh), and Paul Harman (Houston area). The family is grateful that Jackie's boyfriend Kevin Ham drove from Austin to Houston weekly throughout this ordeal to support Jackie, helping her shoulder this overwhelming burden. The family also wants to thank Nic's girlfriend, Breanne Kurtz, for her steady and loving support.

A few days before Alec's death, the family pastor reminded Alec and the family that Christians do not say goodbye. We look forward to the day we will see him again. The family is grateful for the dedicated care that Alec received from so many, including his oncology team, the ambulance drivers who took him to treatment, his speech and physical therapists, and the compassionate nurses at Houston Hospice.

Alec's family will inter him privately in Houston in March and hold a celebration of his life in Alpine later this spring. (Date to be announced.) In lieu of flowers, anyone wishing to honor Alec may contribute to the Alec D. Ritzell Endowed Scholarship Fund at Sul Ross State University, the Caesar W. Kleberg Wildlife Research Institute, or a charity of your choice. Or just take a walk, listen to the birds, and praise God for Alec's life and the natural world he loved. Alec D. Notes for Lindsay M. Entz:

Lindsay M. Entz, 17, of 161 Ruth Lane, Jersey Shore, went to be with the Angels Thursday, Feb. 5, 2004, as a result of injuries sustained from a motor vehicle crash on Route 44. Born Feb. 6, 1986, in Williamsport, she was the daughter of Eugene D. Entz and the former Michelle C. Stabley. Her mother and father and a brother, Evan D. Entz, survive her. Also surviving are her paternal grandparents, C. David and Donna Entz of Salladasburg; a paternal great-grandmother, Laura Mae Swarthout of Jersey Shore; maternal grandparents, Sam and Helen Lowmiller of Mosquito Valley and Ronald and Linda Stabley of Pine Creek; a maternal great-grandfather, Harry Robison of Avis; and a maternal great-grandmother, Lois Stabley of Jersey Shore.

Lindsay's education started at Salladasburg Elementary School in September of 1991. She attended Jersey Shore Area High School where she would have graduated with the class of 2004. Lindsay's dream was to attend college and become a teacher for special needs children. While attending Jersey Shore schools, Lindsay was involved in many activities, including being a cheerleader for 10 years and a member of the track and field team for four years. She participated in softball and assisted the varsity wrestling team at Jersey Shore High School for three years; filming all the team videos and assisting coaches in any way possible. Lindsay helped to plan the Junior-Senior Prom and the Junior-Senior Girls Powder Puff Football game.

She was a conscientious and energetic worker, having been employed by Crist Farms, The Crest Restaurant, The Gamble Farm Inn and presently by The Restless Oaks. She was also a caring and loving baby-sitter to many area families. More importantly than her school or work activities, Lindsay had a passion for sharing her love of Christ with others. Lindsay had strong feelings and was tender-hearted to both the young and the old. She took pleasure in visiting with her grandmother, great-grandmother and their friends at Manor Care. In her spare time, Lindsay loved spending time with her family and friends, especially her boyfriend, Samuel Eck. Every year, Lindsay looked forward to hunting with her Dad and brother Evan and was very accomplished, having bagged a deer every year. Lindsay also had a special talent for arts, crafts and pottery-making.

Funeral services will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 10, in the Jersey Shore Church of God. Friends may call from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. in the church. Burial will be in the Jersey Shore Cemetery. Notes for Darrel Lee Blevins:

Darrel Lee Blevins died in Powell on Nov. 6, 2013, after a courageous battle with pulmonary fibrosis. He was 71. Darrel was born in Powell on Sept. 18, 1942. After graduating from high school in Helena, Mont., he began college at Northwest Community College in 1961 before marrying Janet Kaye Cavalli on Aug. 5, 1962. Darrel and Janet met when they were 15 years old and living in Cheyenne. After they married, they lived in Powell until 1963 when they moved to California so that he could attend USC.

Darrel's career with Safeway stores began in 1959 as a box boy and continued until 1989. In those 30 years, he held several positions, but spent most of his career as director of human resources for the Butte, Portland and Salt Lake City divisions. He also spent time in the Bay Area offices. He and Janet embarked on a new career, with the urging of his brother, Ron, by opening Red Lodge Office Supply in 1991. They then purchased Powell Office Supply in 2003 and moved back to Powell, finally coming back home after 40 years. During his various careers, Darrel volunteered with many different organizations, including Boy Scouts of America, and touched many lives over the years. Darrel was the scoutmaster for Troop 411 in Sandy, Utah. During his tenure as scoutmaster, he mentored many Boy Scouts to go on and lead by his example. He was a man who preferred to do good work with many different people, and shied away from being recognized for all that he accomplished.

Darrel was a true family man and loved spending time with his children and grandchildren, especially in the mountains. This quote by Winston Churchill helps describe Darrel's life: "We make a living by what we get; we make a life by what we give."

He leaves behind his wife and best friend of 51 years, Janet Blevins and their two sons, Randy Blevins (Vickie) of Colorado Springs, Colorado, and Martin Blevins (Heidi) of Bainbridge Island, Washington; and six grandchildren, Justin, Tyler, Donovan, Darrel, Zoe and Sophie. He also leaves behind his brother Ron Blevins of Powell.

There will be a celebration of life to honor Darrel at 11 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 16, at United Methodist Church in Powell. The family would like to encourage memorial donations sent to Powell Valley Hospital Hospice, in memoriam of Darrel Blevins, 777 Ave. H, Powell, Wyoming 82435, or National Jewish Health for research on Pulmonary Fibrosis at 1400 Jackson Street, Denver, Colorado 80206-2761.

3792. Charol Lynn¹⁰ Heim (Lloyd Harold⁹, Emerson Walter⁸, Joseph Gross⁷, Jacob G.⁶, Gottlieb⁵, Christina⁴ Gohl, Johann Georg³, Anstadt², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 12 May 1942 in Seward, Nebraska, and died 22 Feb 2022 in Omaha, Douglas Co, Nebraska. She married (1) Wayne Knudsen Aft. 1960. She married (2) Daniel Pleiss 1982.

Notes for Charol Lynn Heim:

Charol Lynn (Heim) Pleiss, 79, of Omaha, Nebraska, was born on May 12, 1942, in Seward, Nebraska, to Harold Lloyd and Charlotte (Moorman) Heim. She grew up in Dawson, Nebraska, and was the oldest of four children. Charol attended school in Dawson through her high school graduation. She went to Wesleyan University for a short time before marrying Wayne Knudsen. They had three children, Kris, Linda, and Kent. In 1982, she married Dan Pleiss and became step-mom to Deb and Phil. Nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren soon followed.

Charol's life began with a story. When she was born, her parents decided it would be fun to combine their names to create her name. So, Charlotte and Harold became Charol. And for the next 79 years she told this story to those who asked why her name was spelled C-H-A-R-O-L. Her hobbies included sewing, knitting, and puzzles of all kinds. Charol was also an avid reader. While she was especially interested in Nebraska authors and stories, she read a wide variety of fiction and nonfiction, and enjoyed her time in book clubs over the years. Always reading; always learning.

One of Charol special interests was genealogy, and in particular the history of the Heims and other families who settled in Dawson, Nebraska in the nineteenth century. Always active in the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society, she worked for many years as the secretary of that organization, and was instrumental in establishing the Penn Colony Museum. She spent time working with her Aunt Shirley, Keith Heim, and others to produce the newsletter. Her work also included fundraising, acquiring historical items and documents for the museum, and arranging the annual watermelon feed and picnic. She always enjoyed visiting with family and catching up with old friends and neighbors at these events, which were the culmination of a long year of hard work. Charol felt a strong connection to the past, and her commitment to the Penn Colony was a celebration of that connection and a way to share that connection with others.

Working together side-by-side, Dan and Charol started their own CPA firm and ran it very successfully when they decided to merge with another firm in the mid-1980s. After a few more years with that firm and then starting their own CPA business again, they retired in March of 2021, making many lifelong friends along the way. On February 22, 2022, with her family by her side, Charol passed away at her home in Omaha, Nebraska. She was preceded in death by her parents; niece Stacie Olson.

Charol is survived by her husband, Daniel; children: Kristin (Bruce) Eckhardt of Lincoln, Nebraska, Linda (Robert Cavigli) Knudsen of Anthem, Arizona; Kent (Ann) Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Debra (Richard) Clopton of Auburn, Nebraska; Philip (Marian) Pleiss of Omaha, Nebraska; grandchildren: Matt (Jessica) Eckhardt of Lincoln, Nebraska; Jennifer (Ryan) Adams of Phoenix, Arizona; Chelsea (Jesse Sanchez) Eckhardt of Vicenza, Italy; Jim Kinghorn of Omaha, Nebraska; Audrey Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Jane Knudsen of Omaha, Nebraska; Ellis Clopton of Lincoln, Nebraska; Danielle (Robbie) Gilbert of Omaha, Nebraska; Jenni (Calloway Tims) Pleiss of Omaha, Nebraska; great-grandchildren: Eleanor Eckhardt, Jackson Adams; brothers: Doug (Judy) Heim of Omaha, Nebraska; Don Heim of Atkins, Arkansas; and sister: Barbara (Gary) Schacht of Petaluma, California; aunt: Shirley (Neal) Pierce of Salem, Oregon; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, February 27, in Omaha, NE, at Heafey Hoffman Funeral Home. Pastor Glenn Schacht officiated. Interment was on Monday, February 28, in Dawson, Nebraska, at Heim Cemetery. Officiants were Glenn Schacht and Charol's dear friend, Pastor Mary Ellen Gaither-Marburger of Humboldt, Nebraska. Charol's son-in-law, Rich Clopton, recited the poem Last Fragment by Raymond Carver. A luncheon followed at the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society of Nebraska Museum in Dawson, Nebraska. Memorial contributions may be given to the Pennsylvania Colony Historical Society.

Notes for Kathy Ludwig:

July 3, 2015 - Life is indeed short. There's no time to waste and it's never too late to try something new. Especially something that carries on Crozet's spirit of farm business. Bob and Kathy Ramsay wanted some livestock on their secluded small farm on the south side of Crozet, which they've named Wynott Farm. Bob's family had moved from Maryland to Missouri when he was 10 years old and there he grew up on a small farm his parents, Jim and Jeanne Ramsay (who now live next door), named Wynott Farm. Bob—and his brother, who has an operation called Wynott Quarter Horses—have carried on the name. The family came back east to Virginia in 1975. "We like to say about the soap, 'Have you tried it? Wynott?'" said Ramsey.

Kathy started out with chickens and still raises them. "She recommended goats to me," recalled Bob, who was not initially taken with the suggestion. "About eight months later, I thought, yes. I came across an Internet group on mini-Nubians that included someone from Charlottesville, who it turned out we knew.” Now they raise mini-Nubians, a breed that began to be developed about 25 years ago when Nubians, a dairy breed, began to grow too large and breeders sought to reduce their size. Nubians were crossed with Nigerian Dwarfs. Breeders are trying to retain all the other Nubian characteristics such as long, dangly ears and Roman nose, Ramsey said.

There are now four does, eight kids and of course, a buck. While they're fresh, the does are milked twice a day, 12 hours apart, on the sixes. The Ramsay refrigerator is crammed with containers of creamy-looking milk. The goats, inside a fence of welded panels—goats are good at defeating a fence—are guarded by two Karakachans, an old breed developed in Bulgaria that by reputation is willing to take on bears. The large dogs raised exclusively with the goats, regard them as part of their pack and defend them accordingly.

Ramsay bought a seven-goat herd from an elderly woman who was selling out. Since then he's also bought goats from Wisconsin, Wyoming and one that hails all the way from Washington State. He transports them with a camper shell on his pickup. That separated from the truck once while travelling and blew off, but amazingly none of the 17 goats on board decided to jump out. Since then he confines them in dog crates for transport. “We got the mini-Nubian breeding business going, and one day I saw goats' milk soap for sale. I came home and said, ‘Let's start making soaps! It was like a high school [science] experiment. There are five qualities in soap recipes, things like ‘handiness,’ ‘lather.’ We loved the soap.”

Soap-making takes the goat milk, which reacts with lye, the cleaning agent, and adds fats such as coconut oil and shea butter and finally scent oils. Once the ingredients are properly blended in their kitchen, the soap is poured into wooden molds to cure. Molds line the hallways of their home. Once ready, the Ramsay's package the five-ounce bars in a burlap wrap secured with their Wynott logo sticker. Kathy's mom Ros Ludwig helps with that. The soap is offered in 10 scent varieties based on five essential oils, mainly used in combinations, such as lemon/eucalyptus, cedarwood/rosemary, coffee/peppermint or lavender/teatree (their best-selling scent). There is also an unscented bar. Six months ago they had a logo designed for them and from there it's been all about getting soaps to markets. They are making about 500 bars a month now. They rest while the goats are dry in January and February. (Like most farmers, they have full-time nonfarm jobs, Bob at State Farm and Kathy as a nurse.)

Kathy took some bars to the Crozet Farmers Market and sold nine at $6.50 each the first time out. Now the soap, also available in a 2.5-ounce size, is offered at the Charlottesville City Market as well as a dozen stores including Parkway Pharmacy and the new Crozet Artisans Depot. It can be found in shops in Charlottesville, at Michie Tavern, in Staunton, Lexington, and at The Cheese Shop in Stuarts Draft, too. It can be ordered online through their website, wynottfarm.com. “I'm just thrilled for only doing it for two years. I love talking about it,” he said. “I learned a whole lot from the managers at the city market,” said Bob. “They were very encouraging.” A new project is a gift shaving kit that includes the Wynott soap, a shaving brush and a small, locally made pottery mug.

“Everything in the soap is natural, no chemicals, no alcohol, no detergents,” said Kathy. “Goat milk is good for you and your skin; it helps people with sensitive skin. It moisturizes and it has lactic acid, which helps remove dead skin cells. It's packed with vitamin A, which helps reduce wrinkles, and it has vitamins C and B and zinc, too. It's pH level is very close to that of skin. You won't go back to another soap. We know Cleopatra used to bathe in goat's milk. She knew it was good for her.”

Glenda "Corkey" Humphreys, age 90, passed away on February 22, 2025, in Olathe, Kansas with her daughter and son-in-law by her side. She was born October 5, 1934, in Talmage, Kansas to Glen and Anna Margaret Haynes. She married John Humphreys on February 14, 1956, and of this marriage two children were born, Jeff and Jane. John preceded her in death in 2002.

Corkey is survived by her daughter, Jane (Bob) Ledford of Olathe Kansas; son, Jeff (Brenda) Humphreys of Versailles, Indiana; brother, Chet (BG) Haynes of Warner Robbins, Georgia; granddaughters, Candace (Russ) Lyman of Auburn, Alabama and Calisa (Jeffery) Wesley of Churchula, Alabama; along with several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

In her work, Corkey was a woman of many hats. She was a secretary at Alco Duckwall, worked alongside John feeding cattle, upholstered, drove a semi-truck with John and, finally, managed the Abilene Area Food & Clothing Center for many years. She was never afraid to take on a challenge. If you were lucky enough to know her, you felt her warmth and love. She just loved to love people and always strived to ensure that everyone felt included and welcome. When you think of her, take a moment to smile, and do something kind for someone else. She'd like that.

He married Cynthia Ann Michaelson. She was born 14 Jul 1956 in Ottawa, Illinois, and died 05 Feb 2022 in Northfield, Minnesota.

Notes for Cynthia Ann Michaelson:

Cynthia Ann Michaelson, known to a generation of middle school and high school students as "Mrs. M," died Feb. 5 in peace at home in Northfield, Minnesota, after a decades long struggle with cancer. She was 65. Cynthia served as a substitute teacher for many years in south-central Minnesota schools. She loved working with students, and she had a soft spot for those in alternative schools or with special needs. She took delight in the music of their names as she called the roll in the morning, and she often came home with anecdotes about the kids, always interesting and often amusing.

She was trained as a journalist and read the newspaper front to back every day. She took special pleasure in the unusual, so the police blotter was her favorite item to read. She was an avid bicyclist who averaged better than 1,000 miles a year along nearby bike trails. The Root River trail through Lanesboro was her favorite. Cynthia was never happier than when she was behind the wheel of her car on a cross-country trip. Late in life, she often put her bike on the rack and took off for places near as Faribault and as far away as Albuquerque.

Cynthia was born July 14, 1956, in Ottawa, Illinois, to Richard and Theresa (Bernardini) Michaelson. The family moved to Peru, Illinois, in the 1960s, where her father worked in the grocery business. She loved the parks of central Illinois, with a special affection for Starved Rock State Park. She graduated from LaSalle-Peru High School and attended Illinois Valley Community College before transferring to Southern Illinois University, where she discovered her passion for journalism. At Southern, she rose to become editor in chief of the Daily Egyptian, the university's award-winning student-operated newspaper. Her first job after college was as a copy editor at the Quad-City Times in Davenport, Iowa. There she met her husband, Michael O'Donnell, a sportswriter for the paper. They were married in January 1982. They moved to Evanston, Illinois, in 1983 when Michael was hired by the Chicago Tribune. Cynthia worked as publications director for the Chicago CPA firm Blackman Kallick, then took on her favorite and most important job, raising her two daughters. The family moved to Forest City, Iowa, then to Albert Lea, Minnesota, and finally Northfield, Minnesota. She began substitute teaching in 2009.

Cynthia is survived by her husband, Michael O'Donnell; daughters Frances O'Donnell (William Blakeley) of Auburn, Alabama, and Dana O'Donnell (Patrick Vernon) of San Diego; brothers Steve (Sher) Michaelson of Williams Bay, Wisconsin, and David (Lori) Michaelson of Granville, Illinois; her beloved aunt Lora Lockhart of Ottawa, Illinois; and dozens of nieces, nephews, cousins, and sisters- and brothers-in-law.

No services will be held. Memorials should be made to the ThreeSixty Journalism program at the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Notes for Jacqueline Marie O'Donnell:

Jacki O'Donnell, Davenport, Iowa, 51 years since Ballard High: I have always lived in Iowa. Slater, Ames, Iowa City and now Davenport for the past 39 years. I ran a gamut of jobs, including 23 years at home raising my children. I volunteered relentlessly for non-profit organizations; at one point I started my own nonprofit for community gardening. My final job was as Executive Director of the Quad Cities Cultural Trust, a privately endowed fund to support the arts in the Quad Cities. I'm retired now, the job I was born for.

I raised two very fine children, Pat and Jackie Mobley, who are living out their passions in life, Pat as a civil rights attorney, and Jackie as an organic farmer and animal wrangler. I do not have grandchildren; thank you for asking.

The pandemic kept me from my children, my family, and my friends. Luckily I am an introvert and managed enough human contact to keep me sane. I decided to make face masks as a Zen practice, and donated them to a refugee organization, to a civil rights organization, to family, friends and neighbors. In the side mirror I see the pandemic retreating, but "objects in (the) mirror are closer than they appear" certainly applies.

Notes for Michael Robert Metherell:

Michael Robert Metherell passed away at his home in Cornville, Arizona on Saturday, August 15, 2020 surrounded by his family. Michael was a 'park brat' growing up in Acadia, Yosemite, Yellowstone and Zion National Parks where his father was a biologist. As a young man, Michael traveled to both Canada and South America to work as a fishing guide before permanently settling in Jackson Wyoming. In Jackson, he worked for Barker Ewing as a whitewater river guide for over 25 years running the biggest water ever recorded on the Snake River. In the fall he worked for several different outfitters in Wyoming guiding hunters into the mountains surrounding Jackson. Michael's biggest passion, besides his family, was fly fishing.

Michael relocated to Arizona in 2006 and worked as a carpenter and a ranch hand. He retired in 2013 after moving to Cornville where he enjoyed helping neighbors and visiting with friends new and old. Michael was often seen driving the back roads with his four dogs piled around him barking all the way. He was the President of Rippling Waters Irrigation Association for three years until he resigned due to health issues.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Connie and Robert Metherell. He is survived by his sons, Jakob (Molly) Metherell of Apple Valley Minnesota, Luke (Becki) Metherell of Anchorage, Alaska; grandchildren, Quinn and Griffin Metherell; sister, Kathy (Dayle) Flanigan of Beaver, Utah; brother, Ken (Kay) of Salt Lake City Utah; nephews, Jake (Sarah) Flanigan of Salt Lake City, Seth (Jennie) Flanigan of Boise, Idaho and grand nephews, Liam, Westley and Lochlan and grand nieces, Sloan and Aster, as well as his partner, MaryAnn Canning; her children, Cody Canning, Emma Canning; son-in-law, Jorge Tejada and grandchildren, Iris Marie, Nico and Penelope and dog, Thomas.

In lieu of flowers, Michael asked that donations be made in his name to Ivy Brain Tumor Center of Phoenix

Longtime Jackson Hole resident, outfitter and guide Michael Metherell died Aug. 15 at his home in Cornville, Arizona, at age 66. He passed away peacefully after a valiant 15-month battle against glioblastoma. His family provided the following. Michael was born Feb. 22, 1954, in Williamsport, Pennsylvania. His father worked for the National Park Service as a ranger, and Michael was afforded a youth surrounded by the best scenery this country has to offer. They lived in Blue Ridge Parkway, Acadia, Yosemite, Yellowstone and Zion national parks. That upbringing instilled in him a love for wild places that he carried with him throughout his life.

Michael settled in the Jackson area in 1973, living with family friends in Grand Teton National Park. He began a career as a guide on the Snake River for Barker-Ewing that would span 25 years and would lead to guiding opportunities from Manitoba to Argentina and Peru. Michael was at his best behind the oars and left an indelible impression on all who encountered him in the riparian realm. The fall months found Michael high in the backcountry of the Wyoming and Wind River ranges chasing big game as a guide for various outfits. Experience gained there led to the purchase of Swift Creek Outfitters, which Michael owned and operated with his family for a number of years. The remainder of the year Michael found employment where he could, including Jackson Hole Mountain Resort. After realizing that the path of the seasonal journeyman made it difficult to feed his growing boys Michael transitioned into a full-time career as a carpenter, where his methodical perfectionism served him well.

In his twilight years Michael moved to the Verde Valley in Arizona. He found residence and employment on the Rockin' River Ranch, where he could work with his beloved horses and dogs. That led to a life of quiet retirement on a small and beautifully irrigated parcel in the community of Cornville. It was just big enough for his two horses, dogs, cats and chickens. There he could pursue his passion for gardening, and a short walk away was a spring-fed creek for fly-fishing. Michael was passionate about fly-fishing and could cast to a timeless rhythm that many seek but few actually find. To watch him with a fly rod was nothing short of mythic. Watching him cast was emblematic of how he lived his life as a whole: slow, calm, quiet, present and in tune with the natural world around him. Michael's impact on this world will continue to reverberate here with us and beyond just like the ripple from a perfectly placed dry fly.

Of all of Michael's accomplishments he was foremost an incredible father and grandfather. His love survives with his partner Maryann Canning, brother Ken (Kay), sister Kathy (Dayle) Flanigan, children Jakob (Molly) and Luke (Beki), Maryann's children Cody and Emma (Jorge), grandchildren Quinn and Griffin, Maryann's grandchildren Niko, Iris and Penny, nephews Seth (Jenny) Flanigan, and Jake (Sarah) Flanigan, their children Liam, Sloan, Westly, Lochlan and Aster, and most importantly his beloved dog Thomas.

A memorial for Michael will be held at a future date. In lieu of flowers please send donations to the Barrow Neurological Foundation IBTC, 124 W. Thomas Road, Suite 250, Phoenix, Arizona 85013

- 5344 i. Michele Janeen¹¹ Menne, born 07 Nov 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts; died 19 Mar 2016 in Bowie, Maryland. She married John Forney.

Notes for Michele Janeen Menne:

Michele Janeen Menne Forney, 49, on Saturday March 19, 2016 died of brain cancer at the home of her parents in Bowie, Maryland. Michele was born on November 7, 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts, the daughter of Rev. Galen Menne and Carolyn Menne. Mrs. Forney was a beloved media specialist (school librarian) in Prince Georges County Schools. Prior to her illness which began in November 2014, Michele was librarian both at High Bridge Elementary School in Bowie, Maryland and Seabrook Elementary School in Seabrook, Maryland. She previously was a librarian at Anne Arundel County Schools: Jessup Elementary School and Manor View Elementary School. Michele graduated from Eleanor Roosevelt High School in Greenbelt, Maryland in 1984. She attended Towson University and received a bachelor's degree in mass communications in 1988 and later earned a Master's Degree in library science.

She was a member of Pasadena United Methodist Church, sang in the choir and was elected as president of the United Methodist Women. As a librarian, she was president of the Maryland Association of State Librarians and served on the Black-Eyed Susan Committee to select children's books to be read by children at participating schools. Michele was also a member of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Bowie Chapter, where she has served as secretary.

Eulogy for Michele Forney-part 1 - Michele was born on November 7, 1966 in Ware, Massachusetts to her parents Carolyn and Galen Menne. Her parents moved from Pennsylvania to Ware so that Galen could be a student pastor of the Methodist Church in that town while also being a student at Boston University School of Theology. As many of you know, Michele worked as a school librarian. Since she was always selecting children's books to be part of the Black-Eyed Susan nominations for the year or reading to the children that came to the library, we could not resist reading a child's book that she received this past Christmas. The title is "On the Night You Were Born" and the author is Nancy Tillman. Michele this book is dedicated to you.

On the night you were born, the moon smiled with such wonder that the stars peeked in to see you and the night wind whispered, "Life will never be the same." Because there has never been anyone Like you...ever in the world. So enchanted with you were the wind and rain that they whispered the sound of your wonderful name. The sound of your name is a magical one. Let's say it aloud before we go on. MICHELE! It sailed through the farmland high on the breeze. Who in the world is exactly like you? Who who who. Over the ocean and through the trees...Until everyone heard it and everyone knew of the one and only ever you. Not once had there been such eyes, such a nose, such silly, wiggly wonderful toes. In fact, I think I'll count to three so you can wiggle your toes for me.

When the polar bears heard, they danced until dawn. From far away places the geese flew home. The moon stayed up until morning next day. And none of the ladybugs flew away. So whenever you doubt just how special you are and you wonder who loved you, how much and how far, listening for the honking. High in the sky.

(They're singing a song to remember you by.)Or notice the bears asleep at the zoo. (It's because they've been dancing all night for you!)Or drift off to sleep to the sound of the wind (Listen closely...it's whispering your name again!)If the moon stays up until morning one day, or a lady bug lands and decides to stay, or a little bird sits at your window awhile, it's because they're all hoping to see your smile.For never before in story or rhyme (not even once upon a time has the world ever known a you, my friend, and it never will, never ever again...Heaven blew every trumpet and played every horn on the wonderful, marvelous night you were born.

Michele entered the world and was cared for by her parents and always surrounded by a loving and caring family of those who were in the church. Five times Michele moved with her family—from Ware to Peabody, Massachusetts) then (from Peabody to Hagerstown, Maryland,) then from Hagerstown to Lothian, Maryland,) then from (Lothian to Damascus, Maryland,) and lastly (Damascus to Glenn Dale, Md.). Michele was always making new friends at each place she lived, then would leave them and say goodbye and start all over. When Michele grew up she kept on doing what she was good at—making new friends. She has made many, many friends and they stood by her during her illness. They visited her, they cheered her up, they brought food, they brought flowers, they brought gifts and most importantly of all was that they remembered her in their prayers.

Michele had many happy days in her early years. When she was just two years old, her mother would read a book over and over again and soon Michele was able to say the words out loud on one page and know what words to say when the pages were turned. When she was four years old, her brother Jeremy was born. Michele loved her baby brother and as they grew up they played together, Michele especially enjoyed the trips to see her grandparents, aunts and uncles, and cousins in Pennsylvania. She loved the sights and sounds of living in the country and getting to know the farm animals. She went with her family on summer vacations to the town where she was born. Michele and Jeremy would sit in the back seat of the car with the ice chest in between so that they did not fight.

Michele loved going to the library and checking out books. What a joy it was for her when she was able to read books herself. It opened up a whole new world. One assignment she had in elementary school was for her to write a children's book. She did write a book and treasured it. She brought it to her school library one day and showed it to the students. Maybe one day the students that saw her book will write a book too or perhaps even become a school librarian.Michele attended three different high schools- Damascus High School in Damascus, DuVal High School in Lanham, and Eleanor High School in Greenbelt. Michele was an alto and sang in the choir at each of the schools including the production of the Sound of Music. In addition, she received varsity letters in both cross country and track. Her goal was to get to state competition in each of these sports Michele's first job was at Baskins and Robins dipping ice cream. In 1984, she graduated from Eleanor Roosevelt High School. Then she went on to Towson University, graduating in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in mass communications.

Eulogy for Michele Menne Forney –part 2 - Shortly after completing college, Michele married John Forney, who was a member of the Glenn Dale Church. Michele began a job working for The Baltimore-Washington Corridor Chamber of Commerce in Laurel. Soon her son Colin was born. So she ended her job so that she could take care of him. When he was a couple of years old, she would read books to Colin. From that time on until his teenage years, she made sure that at every birthday party she read a book to all of the children attending. Michele looked forward to family vacations and was a good mother. When Colin was in elementary school Michele encouraged him to participate in activities within his church and school. For a time Colin took lessons at playing the violin and he was in the Cub Scouts.

Things changed for Michele when her marriage ended in divorce. She worked part-time and then went back to school at Towson University. From there, she received a Master of Science degree in library science. She became a librarian in Anne Arundel County Schools—Jessup Elementary School and Manor View Elementary School. Michele was the fourth generation of school teachers. Later she became a librarian at Prince George's County Schools—Seabrook Elementary School and High Bridge Elementary School. Michele lobbied the school board seeking more money in the school budget for library services.

In the years before her illness, she worked 3 days at one school and 2 days at the other. Michele was a member of the Maryland Association for School Librarians since 2004 and served as president in 2010-2011. She was also a member of the Black Eyed Susan Awards Committee since 2006 and helped nominate the children's books to be read in Maryland elementary schools for each year. At her schools, Michele encouraged students to read these books and then select the book or books that they liked the best. She always planned an ice cream party for all children that participated. Her favorite annual event was to attend the National Book Festivals held in Washington. Michele's biggest thrill was to meet an author of a children's book and then have him or her autograph the book. She would even write to some of the authors telling them how much the children at her school liked the book.

Michele's life changed when a friend introduced her to Michael Morris. They dated, became close friends, and after awhile they became engaged. Michael, Michele and Colin traveled to Florida to visit a friend. While there, Michael became ill, was taken to the hospital, and there he died. Michele went through a rough time in her life. Then someone suggested that she attend a meeting made up of persons who were grieving because of some loss that they had experienced. There she met a woman who would become her closest friend and soon they both were having some fun times not alone but together. Michele always showed ways to care for her friends. She liked to send greeting cards—birthday, sympathy, anniversary, thinking of you—just to name a few occasions. When someone was hurting, she was there to listen.

Michele found time not only to attend her church, but participate in many ways. She attended Baldwin Memorial United Methodist Church and then Pasadena United Methodist Church. She sang in the choir, was the story teller at Vacation Bible School, participated in Christmas plays, helped at Bazaars, and was a member of the United Methodist Women. At Pasadena Church she was president of the United Methodist Women prior to her illness. The summer before she became ill she went with her church work team to Camp Hope. Camp Hope is a project stationed in Frostburg, Maryland which brings together over the summer adult teams of workers to make repairs to the homes of shut-ins and persons with low incomes. Michele enjoyed this outreach program so much and planned on going again.

Michele also experienced some exciting times of travel. In 2003 she and her grandmother went to London, England because her parents were living there that summer. Her grandmother who was in her eighties had never ridden on an air plane before. Michele had so much fun showing her grandmother around. Michele and Colin went on two cruises to the Caribbean. Michele had other interests as well. On Friday nights she would play bunko. She was also a member of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Bowie Chapter, where she served for a time as secretary.

Michele first discovered that she had brain cancer in November 2014. She moved into the home of her parents in Bowie. She entered into a series of chemo and radiation treatments at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. Many friends came to visit. Many friends kept her in prayer even to go as far by putting this prayer request on the prayer list of their church. Many persons kept track of how Michele was doing by going to the internet to a website called "Caring Bridge." And still others dropped by to visit. This past July Michele no longer had the strength to walk. She was confined to a bed. She received help from Hospice.

There was a point in this struggle that Michele could say only a few words. One morning she awoke and spoke two sentences. One sentence was "Can I go to school today." Her friend Karen, who introduced the first song, read the words to it and then shared a portion of the eulogy, came to visit Michele and brought her bunny rabbit. She placed the bunny on Michele's bed and immediately the bunny cuddled under her chin. This time Michele spoke one word. She said "Wow!" And that happened to be the last word that she would speak. God is at work in mysterious ways and is still performing wonders. What an awesome God you and I have—WOW!

Friends, soon, come Sunday, we will add to the one word of WOW. We will hear the words "Christ the Lord is Risen" and we will respond "He is Risen, Indeed." Death is not the end. Because Christ lives, we shall live also.

4240. Joseph I.¹⁰ Hamilton II (Catherine Regina⁹ Pepperman, Alice Mary⁸ Kiess, Andrew J.⁷, John Clement⁶, Dorothea⁵ Ulmer, Christina Margaretha⁴ Gohl, Johann Michael³, Isaac², Georg (Jerg)¹) was born 28 Jan 1946 in Williamsport, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 28 Apr 2024 in Cogan Station, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania. He married Susan Caputo 1999.

Notes for Joseph I. Hamilton II:

Joseph I. "Joe" Hamilton, II, 78, of Cogan Station, passed away Sunday, April 28, 2024 peacefully at home. Surviving is his loving wife of 25 years, Susan (Caputo) Hamilton. Joe's family is happy to know he is once again enjoying banana splits in Heaven, without the bananas, of course. Born January 28, 1946, in Williamsport, he was a son of the late George W. and Catherine R. (Pepperman) Hamilton. Joe's journey began when he left school early to contribute to the family farm. It was there, amidst the fields and machinery, that he honed his remarkable work ethic and learned the valuable skill of fixing broken things—a talent that would define his life. He was employed at both Sheddy and Sintex and later retired as a Heavy Equipment Operator from the Lycoming County Landfill, retiring in December of 2007.

Joe's dream in life was to own a tractor and become a puller. Sue and Joe found a 1937 John Deere tractor one day with a tree growing through it. They decided to buy it and spent the next three months restoring it together. This was how Joe's love of John Deere tractors began. His dream became reality as he often participated in tractor pulls throughout the area a few times a year. Joe was a man who knew how to save money in order to spend it on things he really wanted, such as adding to his collection of toy John Deere tractors. He was also extremely proud to be one of the founders of the Trout Run Tractor Club, creating the club in 1998, and serving as the current Vice President. He also could be found at other local tractor pull events and participating in parades. Joe's enduring love for John Deere tractors, a theme that ran through his entire life, reflected his appreciation for tradition, excellence, and the simple pleasures of rural life.

Surprisingly, he was a man who loved the beach, enjoying three yearly trips to Chincoteague where he may have been the only man on the beach in long pants and work boots. He relished in the outdoors, from fishing trips with Captain Matt to taking his gun for a walk in the woods. He also enjoyed many outings and excursions with Sue where the destinations were endless, from Bass Pro, to New York, Missouri and beyond. Above all else, Joe was a family man who would do anything for those he loved. He was a caring husband and a loving father and grandfather, often being called "Pappy Put-Put." The sight of Joe atop a gleaming John Deere was a symbol of joy for his family, and something that he cherished deeply. He and Susan were also proud to plan and run their annual Hamilton family reunion, creating more memories together every single year.

Surviving in addition to his wife are three children, Kendra Brown (Cliff) of South Williamsport, Keri Hamilton and Joseph Hamilton, III, both of Williamsport; two step-children, Mike Bieber, of Montgomery, and Randy Bieber, of Ottumwa, Iowa; five grandchildren, Aaron, Jeffrey, and Joshua Hamilton, Wesley Brown, and Dylan Long; a brother, David Hamilton; two sisters, Shirley Selders, and Mary Albright; as well as numerous nieces and nephews. In addition to his parents, Joe was preceded in death by five brothers, John "Pete", Donald, LeRoy, George, and William Hamilton; and three sisters, Betty Yarison, Joyce Hamilton, and Alice Tubbs.

A funeral service to honor the life of Joe will be held 11 a.m., Thursday, May 2, at Sanders Mortuary, 821 Diamond St., Williamsport. Burial will follow in Woodward Township Cemetery. A viewing will be held from 10 a.m. until the time of service, Thursday, at Sanders. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Joe's name to the Trout Run Antique Tractor Pullers Association, 5010 North Way Rd., Williamsport, Pennsylvania 17701.

She married Shane Eia 22 May 2004 in Pennsylvania. He was born 01 Mar 1981.

Notes for Trena Marie (Trina) Shaffer:

Jan. 2019 - A series of devastating events emotionally pummeled Trina Eia and her young family the first week of November, leaving the 36-year-old mother of four struggling to regain her composure. A Nov. 5 X-ray discovered a 6-centimeter mass in the Paxtonville woman's chest near her esophagus/trachea/heart region. A followup CT scan on Nov. 8 revealed a 3-centimeter mass in her lower right lung.

"That first week was especially brutal. My grandmother, who I was really close to, passed away the Sunday before my masses were discovered. The whole time at her funeral, I kept thinking, 'Am I going to be next?'" said Eia. "I had a hard time sleeping and would wake up crying. I couldn't think about my awesome husband or wonderful children without bawling. I even recorded a message to be played at my funeral." A Nov. 14 bronchoscopy lead to news that she did, indeed, have cancer. On Dec. 6, she met with a team of doctors who shared that her cancer was Stage 3 mucoepidermoid carcinoma of the lung, an extremely rare form of cancer. "Mucoepidermoid carcinoma is usually associated with the salivary gland, and even then it is considered rare," said Dr. Rajiv Panikkar, chair of the cancer institute at Geisinger Medical Center. "Only about 6 to 8 percent of people who have cancer of the head, neck or throat have mucoepidermoid carcinoma, and it is much more rare for it to show up in the lung.”

Treatment options for Eia’s condition are limited. “At this point, they’re pretty sure it is considered low-grade, which means chemotherapy would not work, and I agree with the doctors that surgery would be too dangerous because of where the lymph nodes are placed in relation to the rest of my body,” said Eia. “Because of its rarity, they were not 100 percent sure yet if radiation would work.” On Dec. 11, Eia had a second consultation at the Envita Medical Center in Arizona and was encouraged by some of the facility’s treatment options.

“We had lunch with someone who actually went there and is currently cancer-free and would recommend it to anyone who has cancer,” she said. “Because they also do more natural ways of dealing with cancer, a majority of the treatment will not be covered by insurance and the typical range for Stage 3 cancer like this at the facility ranges from $80,000 to $100,000.” Despite the numerous potential hurdles, Eia relayed that she is in a much better place emotionally thanks to her faith. “One day in the shower, I felt the overwhelming love of God. I did not know if I would live or die, but I did know at that moment that Jesus Christ loved me very deeply,” she said. “Since then, my emotions are a whole lot better. I just keep thinking of how I can best glorify God through this process.”

The experience has led to healthier eating for Eia — which has, in turn, helped reduce some of the symptoms she’s experienced with chest pain and chronic coughing. “I learned through some research that cancer feeds on sugars, so the day after finding out about the mass in my chest, I cut out all processed and refined sugars,” she said. “Now my diet consists of raw vegetables, fruits, nuts and seeds. While I do not enjoy eating this type of food, I feel so much better.” Another thing that has helped throughout the dark moments of the process is the outpouring of support the family has received so far. “It has been a truly humbling experience. I feel such love from God and others. People have sent cards, prayed with us, cleaned our house, gave our family Christmas presents, brought meals, offered to babysit, gave money and helped our children transition from homeschooling to taking classes at the Juniata Mennonite School,” she said.

Trina and her husband, Shane, are not new to suffering or other’s generosity — but have done quite a bit to reach out and help others. After a series of miscarriages and issues with infertility, the family decided to adopt two children from Ethiopia. “We sent our paperwork over to start the process, and found out a month later that I was pregnant,” Eia said. “Thankfully, the adoption agency allows us to continue with the adoption.” Several months later, they were matched with Zeynu and Fozia, both around 18 months old at the time. “When we brought them home, they were still in 3-6 month clothing. Our son could not handle any textures in his mouth and just started to crawl at that time,” she said. “They received a lot of therapy and once again, we were blessed by those around us.” Zeynu and Fozia are now each 8 years old, Leif is 7 and the couple’s second biological son, Elias, is 5. “It is a lot easier now that they are older, but when they were 3 and under, it was extremely challenging,” Eia said. Despite the dire diagnosis, Eia admitted that God’s love and provision through the family’s current trials is visible through those who have offered their love and assistance. “It has been very humbling and encouraging to see people’s love and kindness to our family,” she said. “I really appreciate the prayers and I pray that God would be glorified through this all.” A GoFundMe account has been set up to help the family offset Trina’s growing medical costs.

On Sunday, April 18, 2021, Trina Eia, incredible wife and loving mother of four dearly loved children, passed away at the age of 38. Trina was born Aug. 9, 1982, in Lewisburg, to David and Marilyn (Ulmer) Shaffer. She graduated from Middleburg High School in 2001 and Lancaster Bible College in 2004 with a bachelor’s in social work. On May 22, 2004, she married Shane Eia in a field at her parents’ home. We eventually had three sons, Zeynu, Leif and Elias, and a daughter, Fozla.

Being a mother was something she always wanted and enjoyed it greatly. She homeschooled our kids until she was diagnosed with cancer and was unable to do it any longer. We were married just shy of 17 years; she has been a true pleasure to be married to and we will miss her greatly. She loved the Lord and wanted her life and eventual death to bring Him glory. Beyond being active in her church, Christ Church of Beaver Springs, she was passionate about missions and making Christ known. She would often tell me that she didn’t want to be remembered as a good person but rather as a sinner saved by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone. She had no enemies besides the weeds in her garden. Everyone who knew her will forever remember her smile and she would never let anyone go without a goodbye hug. If you had an ailment, she always had an oil for that. There is much more than could be said, I'm just sorry if you didn't know her, she was a true joy to know and be around.

In addition to her husband and children, she is survived by her parents, Dave and Marilyn Shaffer; siblings, Michelle Moran and husband Ken, Daniel Shaffer and wife Paula, Calvin Shaffer and wife Nichole; in-laws, David and Cindy Eia; brothers-in-law, Caleb Eia and wife Ashley, Andrew Eia and wife Angela; as well as sister-in-law, Amber Ulrich and husband Brent, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She has chosen to donate her body for science so there will be no viewing or funeral. A time of visitation with the family will be held from 10 to 11 a.m. Saturday, April 24, at Christ Church of Beaver Springs, 800 Center Ave., Beaver Springs, followed by a Celebration of Life ceremony at 11 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations are being accepted for a fund to benefit the children when they get older. Donations can be sent to Shane Eia, 2083 Paxtonville Road, Middleburg, Pennsylvania 17842. Arrangements are by the Hummel Funeral Home, 574 Hill St., Middleburg.

Miss Wanda Lou Hummel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hummel, RD 3, Box 364, Cogan Station, and Thomas William MacAvoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon MacAvoy, 65 N. Main Street, Shavertown, exchanged wedding vows June 20, 1981 at 2 p.m. in St. Michael's Lutheran Church, Quiggleville. Rev. Peter Fauerbach, officiated. The church was adorned with vases of blue carnations, white pompons and baby's breath.

Slit bishop sleeves were over long tapered sleeves, also enhanced with matching lace. A wide border of Chantilly lace, featured on the circular skirt, gave an apron effect in the back which flowed into a cathedral length train. She wore a juliet cap of Chantilly lace attached to lace trimmed illusion carried a nosegay of white roses, white daisies, light blue baby's breath. Mrs. Kimberly Holdridge of Somerset, Pennsylvania, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She selected a blue gown of silesta knit featuring a scoop neckline, cape sleeves and a blouson bodice. Self-fabric bows accented the shoulders and waistline and the full circular skirt fell from a natural waistline. She wore a cluster of baby's breath and a miniature carnation in her hair and carried a nosegay of white daisies and blue miniature carnations with white streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Susan MacAvoy, of Shavertown, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Judy MacAvoy, Newport News, Virginia, also sister of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Gina Green, Renova. They were attired in blue gowns similar to the matron of honor and carried similar bouquets with blue streamers. They also wore floral clusters in their hair. Daniel MacAvoy served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Fred Pfeiffer, Montgomery; Kevin Owens, York; David Holdridge of Somerset, Pennsylvania, brother-in-law of the bride.

A dinner and reception was held at Ascension Parish Hall, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to the Bahamas and Florida. A rehearsal dinner was held at Genetti-Lycoming by parents of the bridegroom. Mrs. MacAvoy graduated from Williamsport Area High School and Susquehanna University, where she received a bachelor of music degree in music education and church music. Notes for Gary Linn Martin:

Gary L. Martin Sr., 63, of Linden passed away on Thursday, August 18, 2022 at home surrounded by his family. Surviving is his loving wife of 40 years, Crystal L. (Courter) Martin. Born April 18, 1959 in Williamsport he was a son of the late William H. Martin and Helen "Faye" (Tilley) Martin of Cogan Station. He was a graduate of Jersey Shore High School and worked as a lead doorman at Overhead Doors for 31 years. Gary was a member of the Polish Club and the V.F.W. Post #7863, Duboistown. He enjoyed spending time outdoors; whether he was camping, hunting, fishing, or sitting on his porch watching a NASCAR race while taking in the joys of his home and surroundings.

Gary was a jack of all trades. He was constantly tinkering and fixing things around the house, could be found doing mechanical things and out and about riding his motorcycle with his wife by his side. Gary had a great sense of humor, enjoyed drinking a cold Busch and was often considered the life of a party with his outgoing, social ways. He was a loving husband, father, Pappy, Papster, brother, and friend who will be greatly missed.

Surviving in addition to his wife and mother are three children, Gary L. Martin, Jr. (Jennifer) of Waco, Texas, Shawnda M. Forbes (Edwards) of South Mills, North Carolina, and Melissa S. Martin of Williamsport; 10 grandchildren, Peter, Jessica, Matthew, Haylea, Joseph, Briana, Sean, Daeyan, Keyanna and Marquise; one great granddaughter, Charlotte; a half-brother, Arnold Gee; brother, Kenneth Martin; sister, Cheryl Roupp; and numerous nieces, nephews and a large circle of friends. In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by a half-sister, Cindy Lukens.

A funeral service to honor the life of Gary will be held 11 a.m. Thursday, August 25 at Sanders Mortuary, 821 Diamond St. Williamsport. Burial will follow in Woodward Township Cemetery. A viewing will be held 10 a.m. until the time of service on Thursday at Sanders.
