Children 2: 1910, 3 w/ 2 living

Notes for James Hart, twin:

James Hart, the second son of Solomon and Pauline Townsend Hart, was born in St. Clair County on June 3, 1863, and departed this life on December 27, 1961, at the age of 98 years. At an early age his family moved to Deerfield township, Livingston county, where he chose a neighbor girl, Miss Ella Hatt, to be his bride. Two children were born to this union, Pauline (Mrs. Thurber Cornell) and Minnie (Mrs. Howard Sutton) now deceased.

Mr. Hart was first and always an industrious and prosperous farmer. Tragedy struck early in this family, leaving James wife two small daughters to care for. In due time, he met and married Mrs. Louisa Neathamer Linly and another daughter, Mildred Grace, was added to the family. She preceded her father in death in 1953.

Upon the sale of his Bennett Lake farm some 37 years ago he purchased the Edwin Batchelor property on Botsford Road in Oceola township and continued farming operations there. Shortly after moving to this community he attended the Hardy Methodist church and after being convert, joined and continued his membership there.

Following his wife's death in 1939 and disposing of his farm, he took up his residence with his grandson, Stanley Cornell, remaining there, a happy participant in a living family until the day of his death. Because of no recent illness, his death came as a shock to all. He had remained strong and vigorous to the very end.

Of the seven children in this long living family, only James' twin sister, Mrs. Charlotte Tamlyn of the Chelsea Methodist Home and Leis (88) of Fowlerville remain. Mrs. Stella Bennett, a sister, a former Howell librarian, passed away earlier this year at the age of 91. Beside his daughter, Mrs. Thurber Cornell, he leaves 24 grandchildren, 25 great-grandchildren and 18 great-great-grandchildren, several nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Memorial services were held at the Schnackenberg funeral home at 2:30 Saturday, December 30th, with Reverent George Manhart and Reverend W.E. Varian officiating. Interment was at Sharpe cemetery in Deerfield Center.
