Notes for Jakob Friedrich (Graf) Graff:

A history of Jasper County, Missouri, and its people, Volume 2. By Joel Thomas Livingston.
Publishers: The Lewis Publishing Company – Chicago, New York, San Francisco – 1912. Page 945:

Jacob F. Graff.—There is no one nation that has contributed to the complex composition of our American social fabric an element of more sterling worth or of greater value in fostering and supporting our national institutions that has Germany. Of this fine class of adopted citizenship it would be difficult to discover an individual more representative from every viewpoint than Jacob F. Graff, one of the largest property holders and most prominent men in all Jasper County. He is the owner of four hundred and forty acres of the finest and most advantageously situated agricultural property, and in addition owns two residence properties in LaRussell. He is, in fact, an able exponent of the progressive spirit and strong initiative ability which have caused this section to forge so rapidly forward, and he enjoys the high regard of a wide circle of people.

Jacob F. Graff was born February 22, 1846, in Leinfelden, Oberamt Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany, and is the son of John George and Kathrena (Elsazer) Graff, farmers in the Fatherland. The grandfather, Rev. John George Graff, was a Lutheran minister, a composer of songs and the author of a prayer book. When a young man but nineteen years of age Jacob Graff came to America to seek out the fine opportunities of which he had heard so much. He came only a short time after the close of the Civil War, the date of his arrival in New York being July 17, 1865. Having an offer of employment in Michigan in the capacity of a farmer, he journeyed there and remained in the service of his first employer for a period of six years and eight months. In the meantime he learned the language and adapted himself to new conditions. In 1872, in the spring of the year, he made a momentous change by removing to Missouri, going first to Boone County, where he worked throughout the season on the farm and plantation of William Bass where he was foreman on the ranch of 2,000 acres of land. In the fall of the year he went to Lawrence County, where he arrived on the 8th of November. With his savings he bought a farm in the vicinity of Pierce City and he remained upon the same until 1890, steadily advancing in prosperity and experience. In the year mentioned he sold his Lawrence county holdings and removed to Jasper County, and on August 12, 1890, he purchased two hundred and eighty acres of fine bottom land on Spring River. Here he has prospered exceedingly and is one of the most substantial and highly regarded agriculturists of the state. His property includes a number of beautiful acres, and in 1897, in one of the most beautiful locations in Jasper County, he erected a handsome farm residence. He has since added one hundred and sixty acres to his holdings, making four hundred and forty in all. In addition to his other distinctions Mr. Graff has achieved local fame as a remarkably shrewd and accurate weather observer and prognosticator, having studied weather and atmospheric conditions for a life time. After many years of activity he is now practically retired, having given over the chief burden of farm labor into the charge of his son, William G. Graff, of whom further mention will be made in the succeeding biography.

Mr. Graff laid the foundation of a happy household and congenial life companionship when, on January 23, 1875, he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Antonia Brinkman, who, was born in Trestain Kenickrich, Saxony, and at the age of five years came to America with her mother. The mother was a physician and had practiced in Saxony, and she was one of the first women to practice medicine in the United States. After several years spent in Racine, Wisconsin, Mrs. Graff went to Michigan and from there came to Missouri. Mr. and Mrs. Graff have reared four children: Rosa, born on the 26th of January, 1876; Albert W., born on the 20th of October, 1877; William G., born on the 7th of August, 1879; and Carl, born on the 4th of August, 1881. Rosa is a gifted musician and a successful teacher of music. She has been twice married, wedding first Henry Oltmann, who was killed by lightning, and at his death he left two children, Herman T. and Harold C. She is now the wife of Lucian C. Stemmons, and they live in Newton County, Missouri. Albert W. Graff is a successful farmer and stock raiser in Sarcoxie Township, Jasper County. He married Katie Evarts, and they have four children: Earl, Altha, Freda and Dorothy. Carl Graff is a farmer and an extensive dealer and shipper of cattle and hogs. He graduated from the Great Western Business College, Webb City, Missouri, where he completed the course in five months. He married Helen Moody, of Jericho, Cedar County, Missouri.

Mr. Graff, of this review, is interested in political matters and the success of good government, and at one time he was a candidate of the Republican Party for the office of judge of county court. The family, are Baptists in their religious belief, except Mr. Jacob Graff himself, who still holds to the Lutheran faith.

Dr. Sally M. Wassum, 91 of Macomb, died at 9:10 am Friday March 17, 2006 at Heartland Health Care Center in Macomb, Illinois. She was born November 26, 1914 in Tekamah, Nebraska to Sylvester A. and Friedericka C. Wisslicen Wassum. She is survived by one sister Dorothy Ellsworth of Dallas, Texas, and several nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by one sister Erma E. Bush.

She was a member of St. George's Episcopal Church, and served as a church director/organist in various congregations during her teaching career. Her educational background included the A.B. degree from Midland College, Master's in Music and Ph.D. from Northwestern University. She was the sixth woman in the United States to obtain a doctorate in music education. Her life-long career of teaching included public school vocal and instrumental supervision in Nebraska, Kansas and Wyoming. She held professorial appointments at the universities of Wyoming, Wisconsin, UCLA and Western Illinois University. Guest lectures and teaching assignments included the universities of Washington, Iowa and Illinois. For ten years, Dr. Wassum was textbook editor and editor in chief at Summy-Birchard Company, producers of the Birchard Music Series as well as publications of piano, choral, and instrumental music.

Post-doctoral research grants from UCLA and WIU enabled her to develop and complete the first longitudinal study of the child voice. The results and data from the study are on file in the Music Educators National Conference archives at the University of Maryland. She was involved in professional activities on a local and national basis, including the Faculty Senate, presidential merit awards committee, distinguished scholar lecturer committee, chairman of music education and the music graduate program. Professional and social memberships include Phi Kappa Phi, Delta Kappa Gamma, Music Educators National Conference, Mu Phi Epsilon, American Association of University Professors, Fortnightly Club, the Red Hat Club, and University Women. She served as state chairman of student MENC chapters. She was an enthusiastic worldwide traveler with special interest in studying art and religion. Her friends appreciated her widespread interests and sense of humor.

A memorial service will be held at 10:00 AM Wednesday at St. George Episcopal Church in Macomb. Father Edward den Blaauwen will officiate. Cremation has been accorded. Memorial Contributions may be made to St. George Episcopal Church of the charity of the donor's choice. Dodsworth-Piper-Wallen is in charge of arrangements.

April 8, 2005 - Sylvesta "Sally" Wassum, who was head of music education at Western Illinois University from 1970 to 1985, was honored Sunday at the Alumni House for her extraordinary work in the field of music education. The ceremony was planned by Western's chapter of the National Association of Music Education and was attended by a large group of Western faculty members and Macomb residents. It is fitting that this organization would honor Wassum as she served as state chair for MENC in 1998. During her time as chair, she helped increase the number of student chapters as well as student membership at Western's chapter by 50 percent.

She was born 24 Feb 1883 in Sedalia, Pettis Co, Missouri, and died Jan 1965 in Missouri.

Notes for William George Graff:

A history of Jasper County, Missouri, and its people, Volume 2. By Joel Thomas Livingston. Page 947:
William G. Graff.—As an exponent of modern auctioneering and a demonstrator of the length to which it may be developed scientifically, William G. Graff, of Sarcoxie Township, has won more than local reputation, and stands today as a man who is a leader in his profession. Possessed of those absolutely necessary traits of ready wit, repartee and convincingness, he has combined them with a pleasant personality and honorable business methods, and the whole goes to make up a character whose name is known over four counties. Mr. Graff has not limited his operations to auctioneering, however, as he is one of the best judges of livestock in his section, and raises a good many farm animals which find a ready market, in addition to carrying on general farm sales. He is a native of Lawrence County, Missouri, and was born August 7, 1879, a son of Jacob and Elizabeth Graff, whose sketch will be found preceding this.

William G. Graff attended the public schools, and even as a lad was noted for his humor and the vast fund of anecdotes upon which he could draw in an appropriate manner on all and every occasion. After graduating from the Carthage Business College, in 1893, Mr. Graff naturally took to auctioneering, and the success that he has gained shows that he made no mistake when he chose this field as the medium through which to follow his career. Mr. Graff's ready wit is spontaneous and his humor contagious. Blessed with the faculty of being able to portray the characters about whom his stories are built, he is also able to correctly pronounce the various dialects without which no story can be justice done to, and once launched on one of his famous talks he is never in want of eager, interested listeners, who appreciate his stories and linger to bid on his goods. Strictly legitimate methods have always been the only kind which he has employed, and his motto, as shown upon his business card, reads: "Prices Talk." Mr. Graff is a graduate of the leading auction school of the world, the Missouri School of Auctioneering, and his trade extends all over Lawrence, Newton, Jasper and Barton counties. Having made a special and earnest study of live-stock, he is known as an excellent judge of animals, and he follows breeding and stock raising on the farm of his father, which he has been managing for several years.

Mr. Graff married, July 14, 1906, Miss Millie Krueger, of Sedalia, Missouri, daughter of Christian Krueger, a farmer of Pettis-county, and one child has been born to this union: Willard, born July 19, 1908. Mr. and Mrs. Graff are Baptists in religious faith and valued members of the congregation of that denomination.

Notes for Lloyd F. Ernst:

Ann Arbor News, September 28, 1928:

An Ann Arbor man met death and a Scio Township resident was seriously injured in two automobile accidents Thursday afternoon.

Lloyd F. Ernst, 27, of 1223 Lutz Ave., died Thursday afternoon in University Hospital where he was taken following an accident on the Saline Road about one mile north of that village. Death was due, it is believed, to a fractured skull.

Julius Reuter, 57, Liberty Road, is in University Hospital with serious injuries sustained earlier in the day in a crash west of Ann Arbor on Liberty Road, and accident which, coincidentally, was witnessed by Mr. Ernst. Mr. Reuter's condition was reported much improved today.

As there were no witnesses to the accident in which Mr. Ernst sustained fatal injuries, authorities today conducted an investigation to determine the manner in which the crash happened. Undersheriff Jacob B. Andres and Coroner E. C. Ganzhorn, after interviewing several persons, were able to piece together the story of the tragedy.

Mr. Ernst left home, at 1:30 Thursday afternoon for the Ernst Bros. Electric shop which he and a brother, Carl, had conducted for seven and one-half years. While taking material to men working at the Belt Line Highway and Liberty Road. Mr. Ernst witnessed the crash in which Mr. Reuter was injured. He went to Saline and after completing business there started for home between 3 o'clock and 3:15. It is believed that on the way home, his car, a light truck, got off the shoulder of the road and when he attempted to get it back into the highway, it turned over.

William Longfellow, Saline, drove by shortly afterward and seeing that an accident had happened, asked a farm resident nearby to telephone to Saline for a wrecking car and medical aid while he went on to Ann Arbor to notify Ernst's brother and get an ambulance. John Lamb and Leo Westphal, employees of a garage, answered the call and believing Ernst to be seriously hurt, rushed him to University Hospital. He died shortly after being admitted. The top of the truck, the windshield and the sides were damaged, and the wheels and fenders bent, indicating that the vehicle had turned over.

Lloyd Ernst was born Dec. 19, 1900, in Blissfield, the son of John and Sarah Beck Ernst. The family moved to Ann Arbor 22 years ago and he attended public schools and learned the electrical trade here. With his brother, Carl, he established the Ernst Bros. Electric shop several years ago. He was married July 6, 1920, to Edith Hertler of Saline.

He is survived by the widow, three children, Frederick, Edward and Phyllis; his mother, Mrs. Sarah Ernst, Ann Arbor; two brothers, Carl and Walter of this city, and a sister, Mrs. Frank Lang, also of Ann Arbor.

Funeral services, which will be private, will be held at 1:30 Sunday afternoon at the residence. Rev. C. H. Wittbracht of Saline will officiate. Burial will be in Bethlehem Cemetery. Friends may call at the residence until Sunday noon.

After growing up in the Lutheran Church, she became a committed member of the Christian Church, Disciples of Christ, and was a founder and for two years national president of the Association of Disciples Musicians. Dorothy was a member of Mu Phi Epsilon music honorary society and was for 66 years a member of the P.E.O Sisterhood, being past president of Chapter BC, Dallas. Even after retirement from active teaching she maintained her zeal for education through active involvement with the Dallas ISD School Board.

Dorotheas immediate survivors include: her husband, A.E. Ellsworth; daughter Kathryn E. Johnson and husband Karrell J. Johnson; granddaughters Brenda C. Johnson and Donna J. Bailey and husband, Clayton Lee Bailey; and a niece, Ricky Kurz Stapp of Denver.

La Russell School was originally known as "Swindle" school. The La Russell School was originally organized as the Swindle School District about 1870. It was located southwest of La Russell on the old Jacob Graff farm at the crossroads of Highway F and Second Road. It was used as a church and a school. Some years later a nice frame house was built on the Lewis Meador farm about 200 yards west of the present Meador home, but it was still called Swindle school.

In 1904 when the Missouri Pacific Railroad went through, La Russell was established and a 2 room, red brick building was built on a hill west of La Russell where the school now stands. A new modern room was added in 1962. The La Russell School consolidated with Sarcoxie School in 1966. Teachers:

Oscar (Mike)¹⁰ Alber, Jr. (Louise⁹ Hertler, Christina Katharina⁸ Elsasser, Michael⁷, Christina Catharina⁶ Hertfelder, Catharina⁵ Stierle, Johann Jakob⁴, Johann Jakob³, Jakob (Stierlin)², Hans¹ Stierlin) was born 05 May 1931 in Salem Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 30 Jan 2023 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Joanne (Sue) Pappas 25 Sep 1955. She was born 12 Aug 1936.

Notes for Oscar (Mike) Alber, Jr.:

Oscar Junior Alber "Mike" born May 5, 1931 in Salem Township, the son of the late Oscar and the late Louise (nee' Hertler) Alber, and the younger brother of the late Elberta (Combs) and the late Geraldine (McGarry). Died Jan . 30, 2023. Mike attended Salem Townline a one-room schoolhouse and worked on the farm with his parents, a habit he continued to a lesser degree well into his retirement. He said he "worked as an electrician to support his farming habit"! Oscar "Mike" served in Korea from January 1953 until Jan 1955, as an Artillery Survey Specialist in the 623rd Field Artillery Battalion. At 24 years of age and happy to be home from Korea he met Joanne Pappas, age 19, on a blind date and they were married September 25, 1955, the couple had just celebrated 67 years!

In April of 1957 Mike completed the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Apprenticeship. Mike was a farmer by birth, self-taught mechanic, carpenter, plumber, roofer, beekeeper, wine maker, pilot, storyteller, machinist, welder and engineer. He was an Army-taught surveyor and a Union taught Electrician. He saw what others could not see, from the sky, in the earth, in metal and in wood. Always making and doing things that others said could not be done. While most people are drawn to either ideas, people or things, Mike understood people, and restored, invented and improved things and explained his ideas usually by drawing a diagram on a napkin.

Mike and Sue threw enormous parties from lobster boils to breakfast on the woodstove in a snowstorm. Mike and Sue were members of the Washtenaw Model T club, the "Washten-Naughties" and had fun getting together and joining in parades. They were also members of the BMW Motorcycle family, and the BMW "Airheads" and had years of adventures on their bike, across the country and the continent, and even across Costa Rica (!) on BMW's with their friends. When it came time to put the bike away they got out their little Airstream Bambi and continued their adventures. Mike had an answer for everything, there wasn't anything he couldn't do, and he always had a project going on! Mike always had a story to tell, with a beer in hand! There were always folks just dropping by, and usually there was a gang in the shop, because that is where Mike was, doing something interesting!

He is survived by his wife Joanne "Sue", his children, David, Carrie (DeJonghe) and George Albercook, 9 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren, 2 great-great grandchildren.

Visitation for Mike will be Sunday, February 5, from 4:00 PM until 7:00 PM. A graveside service will be 2:30 PM, Monday, February 6, 2023 at Washtenong Memorial Park with Military Honors under the Auspices of the Veteran's Honor Guard of Washtenaw County.

Notes for Shirley Mae Hertler:

Shirley Willits passed away May 7, 2018 in Ann Arbor. She was born on April 9, 1930 to August and Olive Hertler in Ann Arbor. She graduated from Ann Arbor High in 1948. She met her sweetheart, Bill on Peach Mountain at a corn roast, and they married in 1949. Bill and Shirley lived on Packard St. for over 20 years, raising their family and pets Cookie, Spunky and Butchie. Shirley's attention to her children, family and friends were constant sources of energy and happiness for her. Bill and Shirley enjoyed many gatherings around their swimming pool they built in the backyard. Their semi-annual family reunions were attended by scores of relatives from near and far. Shirley loved her Bridge Club and remained an avid and astute player until the time of her death. She loved her cottage on Base Lake, gardening, tailgating and UofM Football. She loved watching the band walk by playing Hail to the Victors. She loved music of all sorts. She especially enjoyed Christmas time, with Carols, with organ and guitar playing and lots of singing with family and relatives.

Her happiest days at Hillside Terrace were listening to musical performers in the Lounge. She also enjoyed hunting for more mushrooms, antiquing and her dog Lady. She fed her birds daily next to the woods outside her kitchen window. Shirley and Bill remained happily married for 47 years. They counted their blessings by the large circle of friends they had. They now rest together in eternity and those of us remaining will continue to treasure the joyful memories they created with us.

Her funeral is scheduled for 12 noon Monday, May 14, 2018 at Muehlig Funeral Chapel officiated by Rev. H Kevin Jacobi. The family will receive friends from 10:00 a.m. until the hour of the service. Shirley will be laid to rest at Bethlehem Cemetery. A reception will follow from 2-4 at Classic Cup Caf, 4389 Jackson Road. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Shirley's life. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to The Humane Society of Huron Valley at 3100 Cherry Hill Rd., Ann Arbor Michigan. Or to Great Lakes Caring Hospice.

Notes for Elayne Ada Launer:

Elayne Bloom went home to be with the Lord on April 2, 2018. She passed quietly at her home in Aledo, Texas with her daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter in attendance. She was born on April 28, 1924. She was beautiful outwardly and inwardly, gracious and loved people. She treasured visitors and always made them feel welcome. As a young woman in her teens, she loved to sing and was asked to join a travelling band to which her mother wisely said no. She was an executive secretary most of her working life, but developed an interest in real estate sales and changed careers. She had a passion for decorating and creating, so her later years saw her in the business of designing and selling gift baskets to those who wanted "one of a kind". It was a good description of her as well.

She was a loving wife, losing her husband to a crop-dusting accident in 1961. She was a loving mother who stayed ever devoted to her daughter and a doting grandmother to her granddaughter. Active in Calvary Chapel, Simi Valley, California before moving back to Texas in 2017, she shared the wisdom of her years with the ladies of the Bible studies and worked to setup and decorate for events until it was no longer possible for her. Elayne was predeceased by her four brothers and leaves behind her daughter Traci Miller, granddaughter Layne Miller, son-in law Rick Miller and numerous nieces and nephews whom she loved staying in touch with.

Bless you, Mother, you will be missed beyond words. Memorial service will be held at Calvary Chapel Simi Valley, California on May 20th following Sunday service.

Notes for Dr. George Roger Klare:

George R. Klare was born April 17, 1922, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, son of George C. Klare, and Lea L. (Launer) Klare. He served as senior class president in North Bend High School in North Bend, Nebraska and graduated from that school in 1940. He received a Regents Scholarship to the University of Nebraska, where he studied before being called into the Army Air Force in 1942. He then took more college and officer training at the University of Missouri.

Following military and flight training, Klare served as a navigator on B-17 bombers in the Eighth Air Force in England. On Dec. 31, 1944, he was shot down over Germany. He spent the rest of World War II in German POW camps. He was liberated by advancing Soviet troops from Stalag Luft One on May 1, 1945. He was honorably discharged as a First Lieutenant in December, 1945, receiving the Air Medal, the Purple Heart, European area ribbons and the Prisoner of War medal.

Klare later recounted his experiences as a prisoner of war in a chapter entitled "Questions" in Interrogations, Confessions, and Entrapment, published by Springer in 2004. In this extraordinary account, Klare tells how he narrowly escaped death three times on January 3, 1945. While on a railroad car en route to the Luftwaffe Interrogation Center, Klare survived a friendly-fire bombing in the rail yard in Fulda, Germany, the target on this third mission one week earlier. Klare and his crew were ordered by a German guard to remove packages from the Fulda freight station that was on fire from the Allied bombing. The guard then ordered the men out of the burning building just before it collapsed. A crowd of angry German civilians soon gathered near the collapsed freight station. The German guard, who was an English-speaking Luftwaffe captain, was armed only with a pistol. Yet he managed to hold off the mob and take Klare and his crew to a safe building. "I owe my life to him," Klare wrote. "He was the bravest man I ever saw."

After World War II, Klare earned a BA degree cum laude in 1946, a MA degree in 1947, and a PhD degree in 1950 in psychology from the University of Minnesota. After working for The Psychological Corporation in New York City and the University of Illinois, he became an assistant professor of psychology in 1954 at Ohio University. It was during that period, he published, with Byron Buck, Know Your Reader: The Scientific Approach to Readability. This work introduced to the public the extensive research behind the popular readability formulas of the likes of Rudolf Flesch and Robert Gunning. The book showed the average reader in America was an "adult of limited reading ability," with half the population reading below the 9th-grade level. The readability formulas could be used to select and create literature and texts of different reading levels. Without appropriately graded texts, people will not read or improve their reading skill. His other books include Elementary Statistics (with P. A. Games), A Manual for Readable Writing, How to Write Readable English, and The Measurement of Readability. He also published 85 articles and book chapters.

Klare won a Fulbright grant to the Open University of England. He also won the Best of Show award in the Journal Article Competition of the International Technical Communication Conference in 1978 and the Oscar S. Causey Award for Outstanding Contributions to Reading Research in 1981, and was elected to the Reading Hall of Fame of the International Reading Association in 1997. He served on the editorial boards of eight journals, as well as The Literary Dictionary. He is listed in Who's Who in America and was listed in the Fourth Edition of Who's Who in the World. In 1978, he was named Distinguished Professor of Psychology. While at Ohio University, he served as chair of the Psychology Department from 1959 to 1963, as acting dean of the College of Arts and Sciences in 1965–66 and in 1984–85, and as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1966 to 1971. He was also acting associate provost for graduate and research programs from 1986 until his retirement in 1987.

George R. Klare, 83, died Friday, March 3, 2006, at his home in The Plains, Ohio, from pneumonia. He was born April 17, 1922, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, son of the late George C. Klare, and the late Lee L. (Launer) Klare. A 1940 graduate of North Bend, (Neb.) High School, he served as senior class president. He received a Regents Scholarship to the University of Nebraska before being called into the Army Air Force in 1942, taking additional college and officer training at the University of Missouri.

Following basic military and flight training, he served as a navigator on B-17 bombers in the Eighth Air Force in England until he was shot down on Dec. 31, 1944. He spent the remainder of World War II in German POW camps, and was liberated by advancing Soviet troops from Stalag Luft One on May 1, 1945. He was honorably separated as a first lieutenant in December, 1945, receiving the Air Medal, the Purple Heart, European area ribbons and the Prisoner of War medal.

After World War II, he earned a BA degree cum laude in 1946, a MA degree in 1947 and a PhD degree in 1950 in psychology from the University of Minnesota. After holding positions at The Psychological Corporation in New York City and the University of Illinois, he became an assistant professor of psychology in 1954 at Ohio University. He was named Distinguished Professor of Psychology in 1978, retiring in 1987. While at Ohio University, he served as chair of the Psychology Department from 1959-63, acting dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1965-66 and 1984-85, and dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1966-71. He also served as acting associate provost for graduate and research programs in 1986-87. He was author or co-author of five books, including "Know Your Reader," "The Measurement of Readability," "Elementary Statistics," "A Manual for Readable Writing" and "How to Write Readable English," the latter published in London in 1985. He also published 85 articles and book chapters, including "Assessing Readability," which was named a Citation Classic by the Institute for Scientific Information. He served on the editorial boards of eight journals, as well as "The Literary Dictionary."

He received numerous research grants and contracts, and served as a consultant to a number of education, industrial and military organizations. He also held a Fulbright grant to the Open University of England. He received the Best of Show award in the Journal Article Competition of the International Technical Communication Conference in 1978 and the Oscar S. Causey Award for Outstanding Contributions to Reading Research in 1981, and was elected to the Reading Hall of Fame of the International Reading Association in 1997. He is listed in "Who's Who in America" and was listed in the Fourth Edition of "How's Who in the World."

He is survived by his wife, Julie M. Klare of The Plains; a daughter, Deborah Fox of Vero Beach, Florida; a son, Roger, and daughter-in-law, Connie Schmittauer, of Dublin, Ohio; and a daughter, Barbara, and son-in-law, Galen Fultz, of San Anselmo, California. Census: 08 Apr 1950, 1757 Granville; Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co, California ED 66-862

Occupation: 1950, research electrical engineer aircraft manufacturing Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co, California

Notes for Carol H. Watt:

Resident of San Mateo - Carol Watt Parker, age 81, passed away peacefully Saturday evening, April 25, 2009, with her four daughters by her side. Born in New York City in 1927, she grew up in McKeesport, Pennsylvania, and attended Carnegie Tech, where she met and married her husband of 37 years, Norman F. Parker. They moved to southern California in 1949, where she attended UCLA to finish her degree in chemical engineering. From Whittier, the family moved to Michigan for 2 years, then to Woodside in 1968. Carol was always involved in community activities, from Girl Scouts, PTA and Children's Home Society when her children were young, to worldwide organizations involved in exploring and preserving nature later in her life. She loved the outdoors, traveling extensively to see places throughout the world. She hiked and camped with enthusiasm. Her adventures included sports car rallies, skiing, and whitewater rafting. Never idle, even indoors, she was an accomplished seamstress, knitter, and pottery maker. She enjoyed both bridge and Yahtzee. Her biggest love, though, was horses. She was active in most of the local equestrian groups, both as a rider and a volunteer. She was known in the San Mateo County Horseman's Association, the Los Altos Hunt, Los Viajeros Riding Club, the Woodside Town Trails Committee, the Woodside Trail Club, Jack Brook Horse Camp and the Folger Stable project, for her lively participation and her strong support. Carol took life in stride and rose above many obstacles along her way. Alzheimer's was her biggest challenge- she retained only fragments of herself as the disease progressed. Her cheerfulness and her polite behaviors, as well as her enjoyment of music and her great fondness for ice cream, were the last to go and will be long remembered by those who knew her.

She is survived by her daughters and their husbands- Leslie and Al Sasuga of Bishop, California, Kerry and Rick DeBenedetti of Woodside, Sandy and Henry Garbowski of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Noel and Art Ortiz of Twain Harte, California, and 6 grandchildren and their spouses- Miles and Beth (Obenour) DeBenedetti, Alan DeBenedetti, Torey (Sasuga) and Carson Beach, Cabe Sasuga, Liana Garbowski and Michael Garbowski.

The family would like to thank everyone at Canyon House in Menlo Park, for their years of kindness and care. No memorial service is planned; Carol may be remembered through contributions made in her name to the Alzheimer's Association of Northern California.

She was first and foremost a patient and caring mother, a supporter of her children, a loving caregiver to her grandchildren and the right hand to her husband, John J. Garlinger, for 49 wonderful years. She was born March 16, 1943, in Hanford, California, to Guy R. Clow and Erma Gutekunst Clow. She grew up in the small farm town of Corcoran, Calif., and loved living close to family. A cousin introduced her to John and a few short months later she married her beloved husband on Nov. 9, 1961. She was the office manager to the family land surveying company in San Diego, California, and a member of the genealogical society. She was an avid reader, loved painting, writing, and making porcelain dolls. Her love of knitting for others continued until her health failed. Judy was preceded in death by her parents, Guy and Erma Clow, and one grandson, John Byers.

Notes for John Jackson Garlinger, Jr.:

John Jackson Garlinger Jr., 84, of Bentonville passed away Monday, October 10 in Springfield, Mo. following a traffic accident. He was born April 7, 1932 in Riverside, California to the late John Jackson Garlinger Sr. and Lois Allecia Schooler Garlinger. In his younger years he attended New Mexico Military Institute on a football scholarship, was the New Mexico Golden Gloves state champion and served his country during the Korean conflict. Following discharge, he returned to school at the University of New Mexico. John was especially proud of his achievements as a professional land surveyor, having assisted in many housing developments throughout California and building a successful land surveying company in Southern California with the love of his life, Judith Clow Garlinger, who preceded him. Together for over 49 years, they worked side-by-side both in the business and at home.

In addition to his parents and wife he was also preceded by his sister, Marjorie Watson; his brother, George Garlinger and his grandson, John Byers. John's interest in football never wavered from high school to college, as a member of Army's team and watching whoever was on TV today, he loved watching the game. In fact, games of most sorts. He especially loved playing board games and traveling across the country with his family... and often to visit extended family in the motor home while whistling to big bands, Waylon or Willie on the 8 track. Following his retirement as a professional land surveyor, he continued to enjoy football, fellowship with Elks and his Tuesday night poker club.

Survivors include his daughters, Heidi Scott and Suzy Byers (Robert) of Bentonville and Kathryn Wroten (Michael) of Maine; his brother, Earle Garlinger of Bentonville; grandchildren, Lauryn Garlinger, Grayson Scott (Jaime), Jared Scott and Rebecca Scott, Jack Wroten, Josh Wroten and Camryn Byers; numerous nieces, nephews, associates, poker buddies and dear friends.

- 1488 ii. Deborah Jean Kolander, born 05 Apr 1964 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died Abt. 07 Nov 1981.

Notes for Deborah Jean Kolander:

"Hard working, bright, outgoing, dedicated students." Those are just a few of the adjectives that High School Principal Paul Thibault used to describe Michele Hall and Deborah Kolander, two Saline High School seniors who died Friday afternoon when their car swerved off State Rd. and struck a tree. Their deaths shocked the Saline community and cast a pall over the Saline-Riverview football game as word of their death spread through the crowd last Friday evening. That was to have been Debbie's last performance with the band. She played baritone in the marching band, clarinet in the wind ensemble, and had written the program for the band's presentation of senior members at the game. Michele was also active in the music program at Saline. She was a member of the High School philharmony, and had been a majorette in the marching band for one year. High School Orchestra Director Bob Phillips said that "Michele and Debbie were both outstanding musicians and real leaders in the music program. Debbie was a member of every instrumental ensemble we have at SHS. In each group, she exhibited the kind of leadership which creates excellence. "Michele was one of the leaders in our string program. She, along with three other seniors, were the people instrumental in developing high school string camps. Michele was always ready to step forward and volunteer for extra projects for orchestra. "I have had both Michele and Debbie in class for six years and I've never known two finer young ladies."

Acting Pittsfield Police Chief Frank Pestasaid the accident that claimed the two girls' lives occurred about 3:30 Friday afternoon as Kolander was driving north on State Rd. about one-tenth of a mile south of Textile Rd. Pesta said Kolander went off the road on the east shoulder and apparently lost control of the car when she attempted to bring it back onto the pavement. The car, a white Chevy Nova, then slid across the roadway, went into a ditch on the west side of the road and hit a tree. The impact point was at the passenger side door. "She might have overcorrected when she tried to bring it back on the road," said Pesta Monday afternoon. "I don't think there is any evidence of excessive speed, but there is no indication of braking. She may have tried to do all the control with steering. That meant that the car got the full impact when it hit the tree." Michele, the passenger, was pronounced dead at the scene. Debbie was pronounced dead on arrival at University Hospital.

Both of the girls were members of the Saline Chapter of the National Honor Society. Debbie was President Of the group. Debbie was also among six seniors at Saline High who achieved "commended" status in the 27th annual National Merit Scholarship Program. The designation was accorded to the six based upon their performance on the PSAT/NMSQT examination last year. Debbie was a science whiz and had set her sights on the medical program at John Hopkins University in Baltimore. Besides being an outstanding scholar in the top five percent of her class, Michele was also a first class track participant who held several school records. "She was excellent in the long jump and sprints," said Girls Track Coach Joe Schwartz. "She was very interested in the finer points of starting in the sprints, and that's where her intelligence showed. She knew there were right and wrong ways to do it, and she was very interested in learning them'." One of the ways that Michele attempted to hone her skills was through extra work and dedication. "I WILL always remember that when I looked around after practice, when most everyone else was done and gone, Michele and a few other girls would still be taking an extra 8-10 starts out of the blocks," said Schwartz. Michele and Deborah were also remembered in many other ways this week, as teachers, students, and administrators reacted to the news of their deaths. Supt. Norman Katner said, "It's a tragic loss for the school district as well as society at large. These two girls had a great deal to offer our local district, and would have continued to make many contributions to society. Now those contributions are gone, and society as a whole will suffer because of their tragic deaths. "It has had a tremendous impact on the student body," Katner continued. "A loss of two wonderful people is a sobering thing for teenagers to experience, if it teaches us anything it teaches us that life is fragile and that it can be taken away at any time." Thibault agreed. "It's very upsetting. It creates a void that is not easy to fill, particularly when they were such outstanding citizen-scholars. They were so active and did so many things in clubs and organizations, that the school can't help but be thrown off balance when you lose two people like that."

General opinions and impressions of Debbie and Michele from other administrators, teachers, and students echoed Thibault's comments. "They were two of the best students I have taught during my teaching career. They were - extremely intelligent, motivated, and sophisticated people ..." "Trustworthy, versatile, and caring. They valued their education and were always striving to improve ..." "They were capable, efficient students who expected a lot of themselves and weren't afraid to meet those demands ..." "Possessed a sensitivity to others, a sense of humor, and high scholarly goals. They accepted responsibility 'with enthusiasm..." "Exceptional young women whom we all admired. I feel privileged to have worked with them; they touched my life and for that I am grateful. We will all miss them and remember their fun-loving enthusiasm. . . " They had personal integrity and emotional stability ..." Worked well with others and respected their opinions..."

"Teachers sometimes wait years to have students like Michele and Debbie. I feel fortunate I had the opportunity to teach them and to know them. The immense sense of loss the school and the community feels, I believe, is a reflection of the extraordinary contributions Michele and Debbie made. They accomplished so much in such a tragically brief period of time. They truly knew how to live life—and this, I hope, is the legacy they will leave behind, especially to their classmates. They were two remarkable women." Michele Hall was born in Ypsilanti on June 8, 1964, the daughter of Fred L. and Susan V. Breeman Hall. Her mother died November 11, 1970. Survivors include her father and stepmother, Fred and Loraine Hall of Saline; and one stepbrother, David Johnson of N. Carolina. Funeral services were conducted from the Webb Funeral Home, Spruce Pine, North Carolina. Contributions may be made in her name to the National Honor Society Scholarship Fund.

Deborah Kolander was born in Saline on April 5, 1964, the daughter of David A. and Marilyn J. Tobias Kolander. She is survived by her mother, Marilyn Kolander of Saline; her father and stepmother, David and Virginia Kolander of Grand Forks, North Dakota; two sisters, Julia Kolander of Hays, Kansas and Rebecca Kolander, and two brothers Jedidiah and Jacob Kolander, all of Grand Forks; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Orson E. Tobias of Saline; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kolander of Dexter; great grandmothers. Mrs. Daniel Parsons of Chelsea and Mrs. August Kolander of Dexter. Cremation has taken place. A memorial service was held Tuesday, Nov. 10 at the United Methodist Church with the Rev. Daniel J. Wallace officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to the Music Department of Saline High School. A special concert honoring the two girls was also held at Saline High School on Tuesday night featuring the combined Saline bands and orchestras, and a posthumous tribute by Senior Class President Todd Knepper.
