Notes for Matthaus (Matthew) Seeger:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Matthew Seeger. A prominent German-American citizen and a farmer who keeps abreast with the progress of the times, and one who has made a record for himself in the annals of his adopted country by running the chances of war, is he whose name is at the head of our sketch. He is a native of Wittenberg, Germany, and was there born February 11, 1839. His parents, Matthew and Christine Seeger, lived in Germany for many years and were there farmers. Our subject's immediate progenitor came to America in 1852, crossing the ocean on a sailing vessel, the voyage taking fifty-two days. After landing in New York he came direct to Ann Arbor and soon after located in Lodi Township, where he lived for fourteen years. He then made his home with our subject until his death, which occurred about 1872, at the age of sixty-two years.

Mr. Seeger was reared under the influences of the Lutheran Church, that being the chosen creed of his parents. His mother died September 9, 1879. She was born in 1815. Four children blessed the union of our subject's parents, of these two are living at the present time. Matthew was thirteen years of age when his parents came to America. He attended school in Germany seven years prior to coming to this country and he afterward attended the district schools in this county to some extent, but soon began the serious business of making a living.

At fourteen years of age our subject began working out as a farm laborer, the first year receiving for his services $3 per month, the second year $4 and so on until he had received $800 in wages. In the time of our country's peril, and when the Southern and lower Middle States were reeking with blood, he enlisted in the army in 1862, joining the Twentieth Michigan Infantry, Company D, and under Col. Williams. He was at the battle of Horse Shoe Bend with Morgan, he was also a participant in the siege of Vicksburg and Jackson, then went to Kentucky and from that point to East Tennessee. In the siege of Knoxville he experienced the dread of threatening famine, his regiment being short of rations for some time. He served through the East Tennessee engagement during the winter of 1863-64. In the spring of 1864 he returned to Annapolis, Maryland, and was assigned to the Army of the Potomac, and was in all the engagements until the end of the war. He fought at Petersburg, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor and in minor engagements. May 12, 1864, he was wounded in the engagement at Spottsylvania by a shot in the breast. Again on July 30, of the same year he was shot in the shoulder at the engagement before Petersburg. He was Corporal in his regiment and at the end of his service received an honorable discharge.

In 1866 Mr. Seeger purchased the farm upon which he at present resides and has since made this his home. That same year he was united in marriage to Miss Christina Hack, who was born in Germany and came to this country with her parents in 1863. Ten children have been born to this interesting couple. They are, Katie, John G., Mary L., Emma L., Louisa D., John F., Matthew, George W., Robert E. and Ann C. Of these two are deceased. A Republican in his political affiliations, our subject has been recognized in the township as a worker. For two years he served as Township Treasurer and for five years acted as Supervisor and for nearly fifteen years has been a School Director. He belongs to the Grand Army of the Republic and to the Arbeiter Society. Both he and his wife are members of the Lutheran Church. Mr. Seeger is the owner of ninety-seven acres of land which he devotes to general farming. He here raises all kinds of cereals and also breeds stock. He started out in life with no means, whatever, and besides bringing up honorably and well a large family of children has acquired a comfortable property. He is one of the directors of the German Washtenaw Mutual Insurance Company, of this county.

Notes for Johannes Keck:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

John Keck, dealer in furniture, and Superintendent of the Keck Furniture Manufacturing Company, at the Ann Arbor. He was born in Wurtemberg, Germany 1839. He received his education in his native land. When about 15 years of age his parents emigrated to America, and located in the township of Scio, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, where Mr. Keck remained until he reached his majority, working chiefly on his father's farm. He had, however, worked a little at joiner work, and when of age he came to Ann Arbor and learned the trade of cabinetmaker with Mr. F. Muehlig. He remained with this gentleman but a short time, and entered the employ of Mr. Roller, whom he soon bought out. About six months after making the purchase, his place of business was burned, the stock being saved. He at once opened business again on Washington Street, where he remained until 1869, when he removed to South Main Street. In 1867 he started the furniture manufactory of Keck & Company, and in 1868 this company moved into larger quarters. This company during the hard times that followed employed more men than any other firm or company in Ann Arbor, having from 40 to 50 men at work. Their specialty was fine chamber furniture of their own design and pattern, and their wares were sold all over the United States. In 1879 this was changed to a stock company, of which Mr. Keck owns one-half the stock and is Superintendent. He has served the city as its Treasurer one term, and has done much as a private citizen to promote its welfare.

Ann Arbor the First Hundred Years, by Stephenson, Orlando Worth. Ann Arbor chamber of commerce, 1927. Page 210:

In 1880 the Michigan Furniture Company was begun by John Keck at the corner of West William and Fourth streets. The business was operated under his name until 1886 when the name of the Michigan Furniture Company was given to the organization.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan: together with sketches of its cities, villages and townships...and biographies of representative citizens : history of Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Keck Furniture Company.- In 1879 Mr. John Keck, of Ann Arbor, conceived the idea of forming a stock company to engage in the manufacture of furniture of the latest and most improved style and quality. He immediately went to work and in the same year the stock company was formed, consisting of 15 members, with W. D. Harriman, President; Charles Hiscock, Treasurer; John Keck, General Superintendent; Paul Snauble, Assistant Superintendent, with a capital stock of $25,000. Everything now being in readiness, a plot of ground 126x198 feet on the corner of 3d and streets, was purchased, and the buildings necessary for the enterprise were immediately erected. They consist of a factory 40x 75 feet, and three-stories high. In the basement of this building is located the planing-mill and heavy machinery; in the second story the carving and turning machinery is found; in the third story the furniture is finished and put together. From the factory the furniture is taken to the packing, painting and varnishing room, where it is put into shape for shipment to the different parts of the United States. This last building is 40x20 feet in size and two stories high, while the storage room, only a few feet distant, is also the same size. The company uses about 250,000 feet of lumber annually, consisting of walnut, ash, butternut, sycamore, cottonwood, bass and whitewood, no pine lumber being used for any purpose. The drying kiln has a capacity of 20,000 feet and is always crowded to the utmost. The machinery is run by steam, the engine used being of 35-horse power.

The factory gives employment to 75 men, and the only kind of furniture turned out is bedstead and bedroom sets. The company has increased from 15 to 21 stockholders, and the business has increased so as to make necessary the erection of more buildings, which will be accomplished this year (1881). The furniture manufactured is of the latest, best and most improved styles, and find a ready sale in all parts of the Union-as far east as New York, as far south as St. Louis and Cincinnati, and as far west as Iowa.

THE KECK FAILURE

The business and commercial circles of Ann Arbor have been considerably excited the past week over the failure of the great furniture firm of John Keck & Company, of this city and Detroit.

The chattel mortgages tiled in the Recorder's office of this city are:

1st - $15,000 to Wm. Aprill, on Ann Arbor store

2nd - $44,000 to Henry A. Harmon, Trustee, on the Detroit Stocks, for Detroit National Bank, Detroit; Third National Bank, Detroit; Am. Ex. National Bank, Detroit; Wayne County Savings Bank, Detroit

3rd - $36,500 to Wm. Aprill, on both Detroit and Ann Arbor Stocks, as endorsers for First National Bank, Ann Arbor; Farmers & Mechanics Bank, of Ann Arbor; Ann Arbor Savings Bank, of Ann Arbor

4th - $5,500 to Charles H. Richmond as Trustee of 1st national Bank of Ann Arbor, on Detroit Stock

5th - $22,150 to Wm. Aprill, on both Detroit and Ann Arbor stocks

Total $123,000

The last two mortgages are repetitions, except for one note of $3,500. Deducting the amounts repeated we have $89,600 as the total mortgaged liabilities.

The brick block at the corner of Main and Liberty Streets has been deeded to Wm. Aprill, subject to the following mortgages.

One to Theodore Grube for $3,000

One to George C. Fuller for $3,500

One to George Aprill for $3,000

One to Wm. Aprill for $35,000

So it will be seen that Mr. Aprill will have to pay $9,500 before his mortgage of $35,000 can be satisfied.

The new house erected this summer on Fourth Street has also been deeded to Wm. Aprill, who allows $1,500 for the same, subject to a mortgage of $2,500 held by Wm. Wagner.

A glance over the mortgage record book in the Register of Deeds office will disclose the name of Keck very many times within the last few days. The following being a list of the amounts of mortgages filed by various brothers of John Keck;

$7,919 Frederick Keck

$6,100 John Martin Keck

$5,700 Michael Keck

$1,900 John George Keck

$21,689 Total

Miss Salina Bunting, of the Ann Arbor town, has notes of John Keck for $12,300 and has commenced four suits in the circuit court, one against John Keck alone and one each against John Keck with Michael Keck, Martin Keck and Frederick Keck.

County Clerk Robison tells us that there have been from eight to ten suits already commenced in the circuit court growing out of this affair.

It is believed by many that there has been forgery committed in the signing of several notes. Wm. Aprill, we are told, claims that his signatures are not all genuine, and Martin Keck has been sued for $6,000 worth of notes given in Detroit that he claims never to have signed, being sick and unable to attend to business at the time. It is to be hoped that there may be some mistake about this.

There are many people, and poor people, too, who have lent money to this firm who will not be able to realize very much out of their claims. One Lawyer, who is familiar with all the affairs, claims that the assets will pay about 45 cents on the dollar of the liabilities.

The failure of no other man or firm in this city could have called forth more general regret. Mr. Keck has been a man with few enemies and generally well liked. He has been a man who has helped to build up this city. Starting in a small way he brought what is now the Michigan Furniture Factory (better known as the Keck Furniture Factory) from a small concern into a factory employing some 60 or more men. Selling out his factory to a stock company he commenced business in Detroit. His next enterprise in this city was the construction of the fine three story brick clock in which his goods are now located, at the corner of S. Main and Liberty Streets. This he has always kept filled from basement to roof with the very best goods saleable in this market. It was a colossal undertaking for this city, and one that we believe he has always made profitable.

The beginning of Mr. Keck's trouble we informed came from having a partner in the Detroit business. This necessary to buy out, which made quite a load for him to swing through. Then the great increase of business in Detroit demanded larger quarters, and in these Mr. Keck had just become nicely settled. Some of his creditors became uneasy, and demanded security, and so he was forced to give the same by chattel mortgages.

Things look pretty dark now, not only for Mr. Keck, but for all connected with him. Wm. Aprill has taken possession of the store here, and Henry A. Harmon has possession in Detroit.

Mr. Keck went to Detroit Monday and has not returned here since.

Jan. 10, 1880 – The Manufacturing interests are chiefly the Ann Arbor Agricultural Works, the Keck Furniture Company and Henry Krause's boot and shoe manufactory. The Ann Arbor Agricultural Company was incorporated as a stock company about a year ago, and its business extended. Their business during the past six months was fully $15,000 larger than during the corresponding time last year. They employ a force of forty men, which will, next month, be increased to sixty. They manufacture a variety of agricultural implements and do a large business, especially in tin's State, but also in adjacent and other States. To one house alone in Philadelphia, with which they have a five years' contract, they furnished last year 1,300 plows. They report business as much improved and collections much easier.

The Keck Manufacturing Company was organized but a few months since, when a branch store was opened in Detroit. Before the business had been owned by J. Keck exclusively. The capital stock, all paid in, is 25,000, and will be further increased. They report the retail business here to be $3,000 or $4,000 in excess of the previous years. The business of their new store in Detroit has been fully equal to their expectations. Their trade is largely in this State, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin and New York. They employ fifty men, and have all the work they can do. They have manufactured more furniture the past year than during the previous year, but business has been generally better.

Henry Krause has a large tannery where he tans the leather he uses in the manufactory of boots and shoes. During the past year he has opened a retail store, and he finds business good. He tanned 7,000 or 8,000 pieces of leather last year, a considerable increase over the previous year, and his manufactory has a capacity of 300 pairs of boots and shoes a week, keeping fifty or sixty men employed the year around.

Detroit, Dec. 2, 1886 - The furniture firm of John Keck & Co., doing business at 225, 227 and 229 Woodward Avenue, filed with the City Clerk yesterday two chattel mortgages aggregating $81,100 on their stock; in their old and new quarters. One of the mortgages runs to Wm. Aprill, Superintendent of the Poor of Washtenaw County, who is a wealthy farmer of the Township of Scio, to secure three notes indorsed by Martin Keck, Michael Keck, Frederick Keck and the mortgagee, held as follows: Ann Arbor Savings Bank, $3,500; Farmers and Mechanics' Bank, of Ann Arbor, $5,000; First National Bank, of Ann Arbor, $28,000.

The other mortgage is given to Henry A. Harmon, of this city, as accommodation indorser with Martin, Michael and Frederick Keck to secure thirteen notes, held by banks in Detroit as follows: Detroit National Bank, seven notes amounting to $21,000; Third National Bank, one note of $3,000; American Exchange National Bank, three notes amounting to $13,000; Wayne County Savings Bank, one note for $1,500.

There will be no halt in the business of the firm, Mr. Keck says that the enormous increase in stock after moving into the new establishment necessitated a large outlay of money which came through the different banks on the indorsed notes. He says that the assets of the firm are sufficient to meet all liabilities and that the filing of the chattel mortgages was merely to secure the banks, which were becoming uneasy, and that no assignment will be made.

Detroit - In September 1886, the firm of John Keck & Co. was succeeded by an incorporated company styled The Keck Furniture Company, with an authorized capital of $100,000, of which $75,000 was claimed to be paid in. At this time John Keck personally assumed the liabilities of the old firm and took the accounts due, transferring his interest in the furniture held by the old concern to the new corporation, accepting stock in payment for the same. His son, George F. Keck, was given stock in the new company, and also W. G. Dieterle of Manchester, Michigan. The change to a corporation was made by Mr. Keck under the impression that new capital could be enlisted and their liabilities, some of which were being pressed for settlement, thus be provided for. At the time of the change the assets of the company were given as $89,000 and the liabilities at $30,000. It is understood that Mr. Keck's plan to place the stock of the new company did not succeed. Their removal to the new Parker building, for which they made a ten years' lease at me rate of $7,200 per annum, was attended by increased expense. The mortgages given today were made by "John Keck, doing business as John Keck & Co."

Detroit, Dec. 2, 1886 - The business community was surprised yesterday afternoon to learn of the serious embarrassment of John Keck Co., one of the largest furniture houses in the State, the firm having been doing business on Woodward Avenue. They filed two chattel mortgages today to secure endorsers on $81,000 worth of notes held by the banks here and in Ann Arbor, where the firm have large factories.

The largest creditors are the Detroit National Bank of this city and First National Bank of Ann Arbor. The former holds $25,000 of Keck Co.'s paper, and the latter $28,000, Henry Herman is made trustee for the indorser of the notes held one mortgage, and Wm. A. Prell under the other. Mr. Keck says that the mortgages were given because the indorsers were uneasy, and not because he was about to fail. He says they will pull through without making an assignment.

Ann Arbor, December 9, 1886 - John Keck arrived here from Detroit last evening and went, to his house, where he has since remained. He is not at home to visitors, though a few of his warm personal friends have been admitted to his presence, among them Rev. Neumann, who Keck owes $1,000. He is a thoroughly sick man, sick in mind and body. His face has a haggard look and he is unable to sleep. He has hoped until the last moment to weather the financial storm which has been made. It is believed, however, that such a step will be made tomorrow, as an attorney of considerable prominence has been sent for, for consultation tonight. He believes that he could have managed to get through without failing had his Ann Arbor creditors been as lenient as his Detroit creditors were disposed to be. The charges of forgery made against him are not believed by a majority of the people here, who pronounce John Keck an honest man. Numerous attachments have been issued, but only one has been as yet filed with the Register of Deeds. This is the attachment of Anna Maria Buessler against John and Frederick Keck, filed several days ago. The Michigan Furniture Company today entered suit against John Keck for $560, and within an hour A. W. Hamilton, as attorney for Mr. Keck, had entered his appearance.

The note for $3,500 held by the Savings Bank and to which Aprill's indorsement was claimed to be forged was settled by an assignment of $5,000 of the accounts of the Ann Arbor store. This assignment must have been made with Aprill's consent as he had the keys of the store. United States Marshal Pennell was here today to make further attachments and so was a Detroit attorney, who wished Keck to make an assignment to him. Experts who have seen the notes to which Aprill's signatures were said to be forged unite in the expression of the belief that the signatures have all the peculiarities found in Aprill's signatures. It is not at all probable that any steps will be taken looking towards a criminal prosecution.

John Keck left the city for Ann Arbor at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. On Tuesday he dined with his niece, Mrs. Dieterle, on Spencer Street, and was expected to return to tea, but did not do so, nor was he again seen at the house until half an hour before the departure of his train, apparently desiring an abiding place more secure from reportorial intrusion. He said, before leaving, that several gentlemen were urging upon him the advisability of making an assignment and that he had nearly concluded to do so. These gentlemen accompanied him to Ann Arbor and the assignment may be looked for at any time.

405 Fourth Street; John Keck and Company (Argus Building), 1866-1884. situated in the heart of the Old West Side Historic District, this red-brick building began as a furniture factory. It was constructed in three phases, beginning with a wood-frame building facing William Street built in 1866 by John Keck and Company and now covered with brick veneer. In 1879 additional stock in the company was sold in order to finance a four-story brick building along Fourth Street. More construction followed in 1884 when the company was reorganized as the Michigan Furniture Company and a four-story building was built at the corner of Fourth and William, thus connecting the two older structures.

Keck came to America from Wurttemberg in 1854 at the age of 15 and apprenticed to cabinetmaker and coffin builder Florian Muehlig. By 1866 he was able to establish his own furniture factory with his brothers Frederick, George and Martin. The 1860s and 70s had been decades of rapid mechanization in the furniture industry. The steam engine had replaced water as a power source and specialization accompanied expansion as machines became more and more specialized. Despite the Depression of 1873, Keck employed 40 to 50 men and became one of the town's major businesses.

By 1879, when Keck formed a stock company, the decision had been made to specialize in bedroom suites (pronounced "suits"). They concentrated on making bedsteads, commodes and dressers and would continue this emphasis until they ceased operations in 1929. Unfortunately for antique collectors, Keck never marked his furniture and thus his products today are, in the words of journalist Mary Hunt, "distressingly anonymous."

Keck's designs were in the then-popular Renaissance Revival style, massive pieces with layers of elaborately carved woodwork, topped by carved pediments. A collection of Keck's drawings, recently discovered in the Grand Rapids Public Museum, gives a sense of the range of designs he produced. In 1884 the prominence of the buildings of the Michigan Furniture Company was noted in a local paper, which asserted that every visitor to Ann Arbor always inquired "What is that large four-story building?" Keck, who was no longer with the company, had opened another factory on Detroit Street in the mid-1880s. His success there was short lived, however, and he spent the rest of his life working in Detroit and Grand Rapids.

After furniture making ceased in 1929, Charles Verschoor acquired the building and began manufacturing his popular Kadette tabletop radios. Never one to sit on his hands, Verschoor traveled to Germany in 1936 to study camera manufacturing. When he returned, he began to mass produce a small 35mm camera -- the famous Argus Model A. The camera was an instant success, selling 30,000 units in its first week on the market. In 1939 the name of the company was changed to Argus and the Argus C-3 camera was introduced. It remained the staple of the company until 1957.

During World War II, Argus received many contracts from the government for telescopes, binoculars, periscopes, and gunsights. However, after the war Argus was unable to compete with Japanese cameras and the company was sold to Sylvania. In 1963 the building was sold to the University of Michigan which used it for various research institutes including an amphibian lab.

The recession of the 1980s prompted the University to sell the building in 1983 to C-3 Partners who undertook the enormous task of restoring and renovating this historic structure in 1986. Quinn/Evans Architects provided the expertise and the newly renovated space preserves the best of the old and the new. O'Neal Construction, one of the C-3 partners along with First Martin Corp., is now headquartered here and their offices feature the original heavy timbers and red bricks walls that characterized these simple factory buildings.

In 1891 the at Ann Arbor asserted that "when the visitor at Ann Arbor is shown about the city . . . he invariably inquires: "What is the large four-story brick building yonder?" That, he is told, is the Michigan Furniture Company." It is doubtful whether that question was as invariable as the newspaper article suggested. Nevertheless, the 200-foot-long brick factory at 401 Fourth Street was impressive, especially when compared with the university town's other industries, most of them still in fledgling stages. The company employed 85 men and produced around $100,000 worth of goods a year. In 1866 the factory began as a three-story frame cabinet shop at the same location. John Keck purchased this shop in 1868 and operated it as John Keck & Company until 1879, when a stock company was formed to raise capital for the big main building.

The 1860's and 1870's were decades of rapid expansion and mechanization in the furniture industry. The steam engine replaced the water wheel as the usual power source. Enterprising furniture manufactures in Grand Rapids designed cost and labor-saving machinery for furniture production which made the city's name synonymous with mass-produced furniture to many people all over the world. Smaller furniture factories followed Grand Rapids' lead in techniques, styles and methods of organization. These factories were dotted across the Midwestern hardwood belt that extended south of the virgin pine forests from southern Michigan and Wisconsin through Indiana and Ohio. These firms usually developed from small workshops, and their employees were often skilled craftsmen from Germany and the Netherlands. Mass production brought specialization to the industry, since expensive machines were often designed to perform a single type of wood-working operation very quickly. There was the Sheboygan Chair Company, the Moon Desk Company, the Knoxville Table Company and the Atlas Parlor

Furniture Company.

The Michigan Furniture Company decided to specialize in bedroom suites when it expanded in 1879. Its bedsteads, dressers and commodes (with metal lined compartments to hold chamber pots) are today distressingly anonymous to collectors of Ann Arbor memorabilia. The company's name does not appear on its furniture, so authentication is nearly impossible.

Ann Arbor boosters in 1891 were eager to praise the furniture as some tangible evidence of the city's belatedly blossoming industrial promise. In the words of the Register reporter, "the great variety of handsome suites, ranging in price from $20 to $60, elegantly finished in all modern finishes of elm, ash, maple, oak and walnut and their unique Sixteenth century finish, forms a pleasing sight indeed."

Ann Arbor's retarded industrial development was discussed in the first part of this series. "It had become customary in some quarters to speak of the city in a derogatory manner," according to the Register, but the furniture factory's "wonderful business development" and other small industrial successes resulted in an improved attitude. The Register was able to report in 1891, "Today no one speaks of Ann Arbor with the sneering accents so often heard in the olden time."

The solid growth of the Michigan Furniture Company encouraged local citizens to promote the establishment of more furniture companies in the area. An 1891 Register article suggested how Ann Arbor's location favored this type of enterprise; "Hardwood forests are not far distant, fuel is cheap, and the markets are easily accessible." However, no other local furniture factory rivaled the Michigan Furniture Company in size.

The beard of the Michigan Furniture Company, and itself an object of civic pride, was the factory's "magnificent 100-horsepower Corliss engine" which "keeps up its steady, majestic motion from morning to night, as if it were aware that upon it depended the action of countless wheels and various pieces of machinery above."

This steam engine was made in Ann Arbor. Hoover's Ann Arbor Engine Works had been . . .

Notes for Raymond George Klumpp:

A devastating fire at the Raymond Klumpp residence located north and west of Bridgewater on Weber Road required and services of both the Saline and Manchester fire departments. Wednesday morning March 15, 1950 at approximately nine o'clock Mrs. Paul Heiber, who was driving her children to school, noticed smoke billowing from the roof of the Klumpp residence. She immediately notified her husband, who called the Saline Fire Department. Mrs. Klumpp was at work and Mr. Klumpp, returning from the ham after having done his morning chores, observed the fire. There was no one in the house at the time the fire started. The Manchester Fire Department was called and arrived just in the nick of time with added chemicals to aid in extinguishing the blaze. The majority of household furnishings were removed. It is thought the fire was caused by sparks from the chimney. Damage was estimated at between four and five thousand dollars. The farm is owned by George Weber.

Marriage Notes for Lorena Hack and Raymond Klumpp:

The marriage of Miss Lorena Hack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Hack of Lodi, and Raymond Klumpp, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Klumpp of Lodi, took place at an impressive ring ceremony on Saturday, June 29, 1935, at the bride's home. The marriage service was performed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon with Rev. Adolf Lederer, Evangelical Lutheran pastor of Saline, officiating.

The bridal party descended the stairs as Miss Mildred Hoeft, cousin of the bride, played the Lohengrin wedding march. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white satin fashioned with a cowl necklace and long tight sleeves and extended train. White pearls across the front with orange blossoms at either side of her head held the bride's cap in place. Her finger-tip veil fell in graceful folds about her shoulders. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses, snapdragons and swansonias. Dozens of white and pink peonies against a background and extended sides of evergreens, with small evergreen trees on either side, made a lovely background for the nuptials in the sun room. Assorted bouquets of roses, snapdragons, fox-gloves, peonies and delphinium gave the remaining rooms their lovely attraction.

The bridesmaid, Miss Sylvia Klumpp, sister of the groom, was gowned in a pink georgette dress with a high neck line and full elbow length sleeves. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and blue delphiniums. Leon Hack, brother of the bride, performed the duties of best man. Two beautiful flower girls, Marjorie Noble and Corine Kinsley, cousins of the bride, added a lovely attraction to the bridal party. Their frocks were of white organdie trimmed in pink, wearing hair ribbons to match. They carried colonial bouquets consisting of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a two-course wedding supper was served to eighty guests. The bride's table was centered with a large white ring cake holding a small ornament in the center. White candles burned in silver holders on the table while two bouquets of white roses on either side added the remaining attraction. The other table was also decorated with candles and bouquets of flowers. On their return from a trip through the east, Mr. and Mrs. Klumpp will reside in Lodi.

Marriage Notes for Walter Graf and Charlotte Korte:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Curtiss was the scene for a lovely wedding Saturday evening April 22, 1944 when Miss Irene C. Korte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Korte, was united in marriage to Walter M. Graf, son of Albert Graf. The ceremony was read by the Rev. H. L. Engel at eight o'clock, the fireplace in the living room forming the background, which was flanked on either side by ferns and baskets of white snapdragons. The bride wore a navy blue suit, matching blue hat and white accessories. Her flowers were a corsage consisting of red rose bordered by white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Jacob Marion, who was similarly attired in a navy suit, blue hat and white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow rose and peach carnations. Mr. Marion attended the groom as best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Korte wore a black sheer dress and black hat and her flowers were a corsage of gardenias. The wedding march was played Mrs. Otto Gall and Mrs. H. L. Engel and Mrs. Gall sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord is My Shepherd."

Following congratulations a reception for 46 guests was held in the recreation room of the Curtiss home. The bridal table was centered by the wedding cake flanked on either side by candelabra and spring flowers.

Guests were seated at small tables each having a bouquet of spring flowers. The refreshments consisted of ice cream and cake, coffee, mints and Jordan almonds. Out of town guests attending the wedding came from Detroit, Wyandotte, Ypsilanti and Dexter. Mr. and Mrs. Graf left immediately after the reception for their home on the Albert Graf farm on US-112.

Notes for Luther Seeger Graf:

One of those terrible tragedies that are happening every day, struck with sickening force near home Saturday December 14, 1935, when two young men of west of Saline were instantly killed in a head-on collision near Cambridge Junction at 7 o'clock in the morning. A little earlier, Frederick Seeger, 25, Luther Graf, 25, of Saline, Lawrence Rump, 28, Bernard Siefker, 30, Joseph Siefker, 38, and John Foss, 55, all of Milan, had started on a hunting trip. It is presumed that they were driving pretty fast and when near Cambridge Junction they collided head-on with a truck being driven by Leo King, 35, of Detroit, who has since admitted that he had probably fallen asleep at the wheel, being exhausted from three long trips without rest. John Stanley of Detroit was riding with King at the time of the accident. Mr. Rump also was instantly killed; Bernard Siefker died in a Jackson Hospital Saturday night, Joseph Siefker passed away in the Bixby hospital, Adrian, Saturday afternoon; John Foss died in Bixby hospital on Monday.

Luther Graf was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Graf, and is survived by his parents and five brothers, Raymond of Platt, Erwin, Ann Arbor, Walter at home, Harold, Wyandotte, and Willard of Ypsilanti. Frederick Seeger is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Seeger; two brothers, Carl and Matthew, and two sisters, Lorena and Elsie. The stricken families have the deepest sympathy of all in their bereavements. Double funeral services were held for the young men Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 at the Graf residence and at 2 o'clock at Trinity Lutheran Church, Rev. Adolf Lederer officiating.

Notes for Friedrich Matthaues Seeger:

One of those terrible tragedies that are happening every day, struck with sickening force near home Saturday December 14, 1935, when two young men of west of Saline were instantly killed in a head-on collision near Cambridge Junction at 7 o'clock in the morning. A little earlier, Frederick Seeger, 25, Luther Graf, 25, of Saline, Lawrence Rump, 28, Bernard Siefker, 30, Joseph Siefker, 38, and John Foss, 55, all of Milan, had started on a hunting trip. It is presumed that they were driving pretty fast and when near Cambridge Junction they collided head-on with a truck being driven by Leo King, 35, of Detroit, who has since admitted that he had probably fallen asleep at the wheel, being exhausted from three long trips without rest. John Stanley of Detroit was riding with King at the time of the accident. Mr. Rump also was instantly killed; Bernard Siefker died in a Jackson hospital Saturday night, Joseph Siefker passed away in the Bixby hospital, Adrian, Saturday afternoon; John Foss died in Bixby hospital on Monday.

Luther Graf was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Graf, and is survived by his parents and five brothers, Raymond of Platt, Erwin, Ann Arbor, Walter at home, Harold, Wyandotte, and Willard of Ypsilanti. Frederick Seeger is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Seeger; two brothers, Carl and Matthew, and two sisters, Lorena and Elsie. The stricken families have the deepest sympathy of all in their bereavements. Double funeral services were held for the young men Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 at the Graf residence and at 2 o'clock at Trinity Lutheran Church, Rev. Adolf Lederer officiating.

Notes for Georg Wilhelm Seeger:

A well-known resident, George Seeger, observed his 83rd birthday last Thursday October 16, 1958 in a happy manner, for he accompanied Everett Wolfen to Grand Rapids to attend the sessions that day of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. His faithful service of 34 years as Sentinel of the Saline Chapter of the O.E.S. was recognized in the East. Mr. Seeger is also a Past Master of the Saline Lodge of the A.F.&M. On Saturday evening his daughter, Mrs. Lucille Seeger, entertained at a surprise party at their Home, the diversion being euchre.

This week a lifetime of civic service ended, when funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at that same church for George W. Seeger, 84, who had served his community for many years as a former City Councilman, Fire Chief, and treasurer of the Board of Education before the consolidation of the school district. A lifelong resident of the Saline area, Mr. Seeger had been in business here for 48 years. For a time he operated a hardware store, in partnership with his brother-in-law, the late Henry Schroen. Later, he operated a harness shop, and finally — until a few days before his death -- a shoe repair shop in the building at the corner of Michigan Avenue and N. Ann Arbor Street. Although he missed a day at work last winter because of icy weather, he had never been sick in his life until he suffered a stroke about two weeks before his death Friday at Saline Community hospital. Besides his charter membership and board membership in the church, he was active in such other community efforts the building of Henne Field . . . for which he was given the honor of laying the final piece of sod.

Notes for Hellen T. Ehnis:

March 9, 1941 - Miss Helen Ehnis, Monroe, telephone operator, estimates that she has switched more than 5,000,000 calls in the 25 years she has been in the business. For a great part of the time she was on the night switchboard, her hours running from 10 p.m. to 7 a.m., and most of the time no other operator was on duty.

Highlights of Miss Ehnis' experiences came when there were fires. In the old days, it was her reasonability, in cases of an alarm, to wake up each of the 19 Monroe firemen, and to call the pumping station to tell the engineer to turn on the high pressure. Then she had the fun, if any, of answering enquiries from excited residents who wanted to know where the fire was. When the Monroe Paper Mill burned down, she answered 250 calls in 40 minutes, and gave each inquirer a correct and courteous answer. Top month for fires was December, 1922, when an incendiary set of 24 of them, three of them in one night. But Miss Ehnis was equal to the occasion, and rang up the firemen for a total of 458 wake-up. She didn't keep track of the number who called up to ask where the fires were.

April 25, 2002 - By Renee Lapham Collins Associate Editor In its "World Fact Book," the Central Intelligence Agency defines Cambodia as a "land of paddies and forests dominated by the Mekong River and Tonle Sap," with an estimated population of more than 12 million. The Southeast Asia country grabbed headlines in the 1960s and 1970s when U.S. involvement in Vietnam was at its peak, and in 1975 when more than a million people were killed by communist Khmer Rouge forces. After a 13-year war with its Vietnamese neighbors to the east, the United Nations intervened and helped Cambodians bring some sense of order to their chaotic government. Still, Cambodia is considered a third-world nation filled with poverty, disease, and a population with a life expectancy of less than 60 years. Many families, seeking a better life for their children, abandon them at orphanages, where they are sought for international adoption. Such an orphanage currently is the home of a 7-month-old girl that has been adopted by Diane and Richard Alber of York Township. The couple, already the parents of four grown children and grandparents as well, have been waiting since December to pick up the daughter they plan to call Malaya. "We received our approval September 12, and found out that the Embassy in Cambodia had received it," says Diane. "We thought, what a blessing, soon we'd get a referral. And on September 28, we did." But allegations of baby trafficking and reports of Cambodian women having their children stolen for sale internationally shook the INS, which already was reeling from the September 11 fallout, and delayed hundreds of foreign adoptions. "We should have had our decree and been able to go and pick her up since we had our approval long before December," says Diane. "But, things were at a standstill because of the Cambodian Embassy, and December 21, the INS called for a moratorium on U.S. families adopting children from Cambodia." The country is one of the most popular for prospective parents because adoptions reportedly are completed much more quickly than in other countries.

"Since the process isn't that long, we expected to have her soon," says Diane. The Albers are concerned for the health of their adopted daughter. In Cambodia, Diane explains, "once children are 8 years old, if they aren't adopted from the orphanages, they are turned out in the streets to try and make it on their own. "Many of the children in the orphanages are sick, malnourished, and need medical attention," she adds. Diane thought at first it was a case of the "empty nest" syndrome, but, once their four children were grown and on their own, "we had time to do other things besides raising children, but we felt like something was missing in our lives." She and Richard first considered adopting another child in 1998, but found that adopting a child from the U.S. was difficult. "We made many calls to many agencies to adopt, and finally I talked with a person that I knew had adopted a U.S. child," Diane recalls. "She told me that if she considered adoption again, she would pursue an international adoption. "Most of the children in the U.S. are bounced from foster home to foster home before they are placed into adoption. The wait was very long, and the cost overwhelming." Members of Fellowship Baptist Church, the Albers had seen a brochure tacked to the church's bulleting board about a meeting in which they could get more information on adopting a child from China. At that time, they decided the cost was "more than we could afford," but after investigating the possibilities of adopting a U.S. child, they turned again to the international scene. "We decided the Lord was leading us to reconsider China," says Diane. "We searched on the Internet and made many calls, and Finally found an agency." They attended a meeting, put in an application and continued with applying for the I-600-A orphan petition for International Adoption. The process is a long one, but it went smoothly for the Albers. "We didn't know where we would get the money to pursue this, but as time went on, the Lord started to provide income," Diane says. "My son hired me to work as a secretary for his carpet cleaning business, and we gave up our yearly vacation and a new car." As part of the adoption procedure, a social worker had to conduct a home study, and the Albers had to provide proof of income, marriage, birth certificates, and be fingerprinted and investigated by the FBI. "In July 1999, we received our approval to adopt, and our petition was sent to China in August," says Diane. "Then the wait began." Eight months later, the Albers received word that they would be able to adopt a little girl, and in May 2000, they traveled to China to pick up Shiyona, who now is 4. "She runs to every baby she sees," says Diane. "She was raised with a baby in China, and she misses her.

Richard decided that the Lord was again speaking to us to adopt another child, and we asked our social worker what she thought. "She said that if we did indeed adopt another child, we needed to choose a younger child since Shiyona is doing so well." Richard says he balked at adopting a child at first, because he felt they had raised their children, but soon changed his mind. Says Diane with a smile, "When we talked about adopting a second child, he was the one who wanted to do it and I was the one who was hesitating. Then, when we talked Richard woke me up one night and said that the Lord told him not to worry about his age. Richard felt it would be best for Shiyona to have a sister to grow up with." Since hearing that their decree has been held up, Diane and Richard have been "faxing, e-mailing, and calling our senators and congressmen. "Some of them are members of the adoption coalition," she says. "Senator Carl Levin is one of them. Senator Debbie Stabenow's office also has been involved in trying to help the families proceed to bring their children home to the U.S." Some families are receiving their decrees, including several who were on the waiting list behind the Albers. In particular, Diane points to actress Angelina Jolie, who with her husband, Billy Bob Thornton, picked up her adopted Cambodian child while on a location shoot for a new movie in Africa. Jolie starred in The Bone Collector and Lara Croft: Tomb Raider. According to an article published by the Associated Press, Cambodia is the ninth largest source of foreign babies adopted by Americans, with upward of 100 children each month being picked up by their new American parents. Diane, who continues to work with their son for Authentic Cleaning, was born and raised in Milan. Her father, Charles Woolcott, was a barber. Richard grew up on a farm in York Township—in fact, the Albers live on property that once belonged to Richard's parents. He graduated from Saline High School with a number of record-breaking performances in track, and now works for Russell Finch and Sons Trucking in Milan. Diane says that she and Richard have a friendly rivalry when the Big Reds and the Hornets face off in prep sports. Three of their children were in the Milan High band program, their youngest attended Saline Schools, and their granddaughters have been involved in Milan swimming. "We really have been blessed," she says. "We love each of our children and grand-children."

The Albers hope to go to Cambodia and bring their new daughter, 7-month-old Malaya, home. children dearly," The Albers have been in touch with a number of other families who are in the same boat—with children awaiting them in Cambodian orphanages. Already, some of them have marched on Washington, D.C. in hopes of expediting the process. In March, the INS announced that dozens of parents who had been waiting for their adopted children could see the paperwork finalized by April. Diane and Richard are hopeful that they will be among those who will finally get their "visa appointment" in Cambodia, the last step before they receive the INS immigration visa for their daughter. A second march is being planned for May, depending on the outcome of the latest announcement. Diane says that she would be willing to go to Washington and be part of the second march because she feels that the INS and state department have not been consistent or fair in determining which children will be allowed to leave the country with new adoptive parents and which will remain behind. "We can only pray that our government is listening to the pleas of other parents and that all the families who are involved in this situation will be allowed to proceed. "The government can change the process later if it needs to be changed, but right now, these children need to be allowed to come home." Diane says she 'and Richard could have adopted another child from China, but age requirements would not allow them to receive a child younger than Shiyona. So they continue to wait. "In our hearts, we feel that these children need families, love, and homes to call their own," says Diane of the Albers' decision to adopt Shiyona and Malaya. "We feel that if we would not have been led to adopt, Shiyona might not have had this opportunity. To hear her say that she loves family and that she has said those words so many times is just awesome. "Having Shiyona has been nothing less than a blessing—we have enjoyed every moment. "The truth is, we are the ones that have received the blessing and our lives would not have seen this kind of joy if we hadn't been led to adopt Shiyona."

Notes for Karl Walter Seeger:

Carl Seeger Kicked By Fractious Horse

One of the most painful accidents ever to take place in this vicinity occurred Monday afternoon July 26, 1937. A truck bearing a load of horses broke down near the Matthew Seeger farm and the driver asked the privilege of putting the horses in their barn until he could phone Detroit and have another truck sent out. Permission was given and the animals placed in the stalls. One horse which seemed nervous and more fidgety and temperamental than the rest was placed in the end stall where he would be quieter and not disturb the others so much.

Mr. Seeger and his son, Carl, had just returned from the mill. Cautioning them to keep away from the horses, as they were entirely strange to him, the truck driver left for a neighbor's house to telephone. Carl, having a great love for animals and thinking he could calm the high strung horse, went into the stall to pet and soothe him. The animal kicked him in the hip, knocking him down, then stepped on his arm, breaking it above the elbow; a second kick resulted in a fractured skull. He was rescued from beneath the animal's feet by members of the family. Seriously bruised and injured he was brought to the hospital immediately, where he was given medical and surgical attention.

Notes for Harry E. Potter:

Harry E. Potter - Born Feb. 10, 1901 Manistique, Michigan and Died Oct. 26, 1980 Muskegon, Michigan

A graduate of Manistique High School in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, Harry Potter pursued a college career at Western Michigan University (then called Western State Normal). In the mid 1920s Harry was a three sport star at Western in football, basketball and baseball (his favorite sport). His teammates at Western included future Muskegon-area coaches C. Leo Redmond and Oscar "Okie" Johnson.

Redmond had signed on as football coach at Muskegon High School and persuaded Potter, his college teammate, to come to Muskegon as an assistant coach in 1927.

Between 1927 and 1942, Potter handled the football and basketball second-team coaching duties at Muskegon High School, compiling an 84-14-3 mark on the gridiron and a 154-62 record on the cage court.

In 1943, he moved up to the varsity basketball position, posting a 36-26 record in three seasons, before succeeding Redmond as head coach of the Big Red football squad in 1947. His 1951 team, under the direction of quarterback Earl Morrall, went undefeated and was named Class A state champions. Potter guided the Big Reds to a 57-24-8 mark and three Southwestern Conference crowns in his 10 years at the helm.

But possibly Potter's proudest personal achievement at Muskegon was the establishment of a baseball program in 1937 to represent the Port City in Southwest Conference competition. He coached the Big Red baseball team for 30 years, including a then-record streak of 55 consecutive victories between 1941 and 1945. Potter remained as athletic director at Muskegon until his retirement in 1966.

Notes for Shirley Anne Terry:

Sept. 29, 2017 - Much has changed over the past four decades, but one thing that has remained the same at the Adrian District Library and that's Shirley Ehnis. A retirement celebration was held Thursday for Ehnis as she ends her career at the Adrian library after 41 years with the past four as director. It was attended by family, friends, coworkers and library patrons.

When speaking on behalf of the ADL staff, youth services librarian Cathy Chesher, who has worked with Ehnis for the past 21 years, cited some of the ways the library has changed. She said the library used to have two typewriters, now it has nearly 30 computers. It used to be called the Adrian Public Library and be in a different building. And in 2015, a vote of the community approved a millage for the library so it could stand on its own as a district library and no longer be a department of the Adrian city government. Those were just a few of the changes during her time. "But what hasn't changed is her dedication and hard work," Chesher said of Ehnis.

A graduate of Eastern Michigan University and the University of Michigan, Ehnis began her career with the library in 1976, in the position of children's library assistant. In her time, she has held a number of positions at the library of circulation assistant and reference librarian before being named director in 2013. Ehnis said the idea of becoming a librarian took hold in her as child. During her elementary school years, she said she loved being in the library, reading and doing such things as helping the librarian arrange books on the shelves. She said everyday at the library is different. From the different questions from patrons to adapting to the changes at the library, Ehnis said she enjoyed it all. She said it's now time to move on, but she plans to remain in the community and stay involved.

Ehnis was also commended by Julie Shultz on behalf of the Friends of the Adrian District Library group as well. Shultz said their group wouldn't be in the place that it is without the support of Ehnis. She said Ehnis was a wonderful leader for the library. "You lead with a listening ear and collaborative spirit," Shultz said. This point was reiterated by Ashley Gonzalez, ADL board president, who said as a board they were so thankful to have had worked with Ehnis on the library's mission to be a great community resource. Gonzalez said she couldn't say enough about Ehnis' commitment.

Adrian Mayor Jim Berryman presented Ehnis a recognition proclamation on behalf of the city, but rather than read it he said he would speak from the heart. He said Ehnis treated her role at the library as more of a calling than a job. "You have made the library stronger and because the library is stronger, the city of Adrian is stronger," he said. Ehnis said she will miss working each day with the staff and seeing patrons come to the library looking for a book, movie or help with one of its other resources.

Vikki Lynne Harris, passed away October 30, 2021, born August 7, 1959 to Ann and Cecil Thomas, Vikki moved to Sunnyvale as an early teen. She attended North Mesquite High School. In 1977, after seeing Saturday Night Fever Vikki knew she wanted to dance. She joined Arthur Murry dance school and soon became a ballroom dance instructor. Vikki entered and won many competitions. She carried her love of dance the rest of her life, even teaching a class at church and giving private lessons to future brides and grooms.

On June 24, 1994 Vikki met Billy on a baseball field. They got engaged in October 1995 and married on September 21, 1996. Tyler came along a year and a half later and Sammy 5 years after that. Until they came along the only thing she knew about baseball was it was a place to go and sweat. It wasn't long till Vikki became THE BASEBALL MOM (and umpire baiter). Vikki used that experience later to become THE BAND MOM (and judge). Vikki's greatest fear was when both boys had something going on at the same time in different places. She loved them both fiercely and would do anything for them. Her final two months proved how hard she would fight.
