Obituary in Buffalo Commercial Advertiser on June 25, 1877:

On Saturday an old man named Frederick Auch aged eighty-five years, and residing at No. 252 Monroe Street, was run over by Erie switch-engine No. 2 at the freight-yards, East Buffalo. Both legs were cut off, the left below the knee, and the right at the ankle. He was trying to pass under some cars to pick up wood, when the engine moved, and he was unable to get out of the way. He was taken to his home and attended by Drs. Dorr and Van Peys, who expressed their opinion that he could not survive.

Auch died from the effects of his injuries about seven o'clock on Saturday evening. Coroner Almendinger will hold an inquest.

Notes for Johann Ludwig (Lewis) Staebler, Jr.:

J. Louis Staebler, Sr., was born in Germany in 1820, and died in Cooper County, Missouri, in 1903.

The ancestral seat of the Stabler family is at or near Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany. Mr. Staebler immigrated to America in 1853 and settled near Urbane, Campaign Co, Ohio, at that time, was in a more or less wooded condition and the forests in process of clearing. The soil was wet and malaria was prevalent among the settlers and residents. Mr. Staebler became afflicted with malaria and was advised by his family doctor to go west, entirely out of the malaria-ridden country.

He had friends in Missouri and learned through them of the excellence of the climate in the Cooper County neighborhood. Accordingly, he disposed of his property in Ohio, and drove across country in company with two other families, their belongings being carried in six wagons. In 1859, Mr. Staebler brought his belongings to Missouri with two teams and lived for the first two years on a farm south of Boonville and Cooper County in 1863, the Confederates raided the Staebler farm, stripped the farm and home of provisions and livestock and feed, and robbed him of his money and all his possessions. A battle was fought near the Staebler place between the Union forces under General Kratz Brown and Price's men. In 1873 he located on the farm owned by his son, J. Louis Staebler, Jr. His wife was Christina Graver. She was born near Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1833 and departed this life January 20, 1917. J. Louis Staebler was the only child of his parents.

Notes for Dr. Johann Jakob Friedrich Auch:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Huron County, Michigan. Chapman Bros., Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1884:

John J. F. Auch, physician and farmer, Sebewaing, was born August 21, 1817, in Wurtemberg, Germany, the son of Christian and Margaret (Beck) Auch, also natives of Germany. They emigrated to the United States in 1836, first locating in Washtenaw Co., Michigan. In 1830 they came to what is now the village of Sebewaing, where the father died in 1869, and the demise of the mother occurred September 3, 1884. Their family included eight children, John J. F., Christiana, Andrew, Dorothy, Godfried, Margaret, Gotlieb and Louisa.

Dr. Auch was a student in the excellent schools of his native country until he came to the United States. He assisted on his father's farm until the age of 22 years, when he became interested in agriculture on his own behalf, in which pursuit he passed 18 months. He then determined to become a minister and began the study of theology, which he continued three years.

In 1845 he came to Sebewaing as a missionary among the Indians, among whom he labored seven years. In 1852 he received a call to settle as Pastor over the German Lutheran Church at Sebewaing, and discharged the duties of the position until 1867, when he resigned. He went to Unionville, Tuscola County, where he embarked in the saw and grist mill business, which he continued 10 years. In 1873 he returned to the family homestead in Sebewaing to watch over the declining years of his mother, and he is still resident on the farm, which contains 80 acres, with 36 acres under cultivation. He owns an undivided half of the place. While officiating as Pastor over the Church at Sebewaing, he engaged in the study of medicine under the directions of Dr. Kock, of Frankenmuth, Saginaw County, Michigan. Sebewaing was at that date without a physician, and he fully realized the necessity of a resident medical practitioner. He studied alone chiefly, and in his practice has met with good success. At present his business in that line is limited. He is a Republican in political faith.

His marriage to Maria D. Streiter took place April 3, 1840, at Ann Arbor, Mich. The only child born of this union died in infancy. Mrs. Auch was born April 28, 1818, in Germany. Her parents, Jacob and Streiter, were natives of the same county. Dr. Auch has officiated 10 years as Justice of the Peace, and many years as a school officer. With his wife, he is a member of the Lutheran Church.

Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sebewaing, Michigan - G. F. L. List, Pastor

Immanuel Lutheran Church will soon be 75 years old. Its beginning dates back to the year 1851. As early as 1845, Rev. J. J. Auch had come to this region as a missionary to the Indians. He had been sent by Rev. Fr. Schmidt of Ann Arbor. Rev. Auch was probably the first white man who entered this territory. The assistant, who accompanied him, was Rev. Simon Dumser. These two pioneers preached to the Indians at Sebewaing and at Wishkawking, now called Unionville. There was another Indian settlement at Shebahyonk, nine miles north from Sebewaing. Rev. J. Roeder had been sent there as missionary by the Missouri Synod. The Indians in this part of the state were Chippewas. Those at Sebewaing numbered about 100 souls; about 80 were at Shebahyonk, and about 60 at Wishkawking or Unionville. The Indian chief at Sebewaing was Nock-chi-co-me. He remained away from the Christian church and did all he could to keep others away. Yet, strange to say, he wanted his children to be instructed in the Christian school. This old heathen was no opponent of Christian day schools like so many so-called Christians of our day.

In the year 1849 white settlers began to come into this neighborhood. The first to arrive were Frederick Ziegler and his brother John and their families. In the same year John G. Haushahn arrived, who, together with Missionary J. Fr. Maier, drowned in Saginaw Bay. They were caught in a sudden storm on their return trip from Bay City. Being unskilled in the handling of sails, they could not keep their frail craft from capsizing.

In the following years quite a few more new settlers arrived. John Gruehbeck came and Martin and Fred Krauss. In 1851 Christian Auch arrived, the father of Rev. Auch, Godfrey Beck and Fred Schilling, Fred Schmidt, Phil. Gruehbeck, Conrad Gruehbeck, Martin Gremel, J. G. Weide, Jac. Fred Ruehle, John Muellerweiss and Justus Schmidt. Pastors Auch and Roeder served them spiritually. In the year 1851 the small flock organized a congregation and chose the name Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession. In a meeting on the 14th of December 1851, a constitution was adopted, which is still in force today. December 14, 1851, is therefore their birthday of this church.

In the year 1852 the congregation extended a formal call to Rev. Auch, who had till then been serving as missionary amongst the Indians and also as pastor of Immanuel Church. Rev. Auch could not make up his mind to abandon the work amongst the Indians entirely. He lived at Shebahyonk, where he had moved after Rev. Roeder's departure. Soon, however, a sad thing happened, which decided the place of his residence. Misled by unscrupulous Indian agents, the red men at Shebahyonk turned away from our missionary. There was now no need of his staying at that place any longer. He accepted the call of Immanuel Church and moved to Sebewaing, in order to give his full time to our congregation. Around that time a new church, built of logs, was dedicated to the service of the Lord. Previously the Lutheran people had met in a small building in town. But the membership had greatly increased and larger quarters were needed. As early as 1853 Messrs. Christian Auch, Godfrey Beck and Fred Schilling had donated six acres of land as building sites for church and school and parsonage, and another acre for a cemetery. On this site the congregation erected the log church mentioned above and dedicated it March 4, 1855.

In the same year our congregation joined the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states. Rev. Auch had become a member of the synod in 1847, the year of its foundation at Chicago. Rev. Auch joined after he had severed his connections with Rev. Schmidt of Ann Arbor.

The beginning of our congregation had thus been made. Those first settlers encountered difficulties and endured hardships which we of a later generation can hardly imagine. Most of them arrived here without funds. They did not have to starve exactly. There was an abundance of fish and game. The maples furnished sugar aplenty. And yet it frequently happened that the settlers did not see any bread on their tables for weeks, and had to subsist on potatoes and cucumbers. It is needless to say that there were no highways, as we know them, not even decent ordinary mud roads. Where we now glide along in comfortable automobiles, at the rate of 30 or more miles per hour, these pioneers had to trudge along some narrow winding Indian trails, sometimes jumping from one log to another, in order to keep their feet dry. Horse and buggy would have been useless, there being no road to drive them on. Of railroads they knew not in this part of the state. The one outlet was the Bay of Saginaw. But transportation was very irregular, no fixed schedule being maintained. It happened at times that the head of the household would carry home a bag of flour from Saginaw, or Vassar, or even from Flint, and would, on the way, very often wade in water up to his knees, or at other times balance himself on fallen trees. During the warmer part of the year mosquitoes were a terrible plague.

And yet those pioneers bore their hardships with Christian courage. They were probably more satisfied in their daily lives than we are now. Since all of them were poor, there was no room for rivalry and jealousy, which often endanger the peace of more prosperous communities. There was amongst them neighborliness and sympathy and a cheerful willingness to share the burdens of others.

In the congregation itself, there was steady growth and progress. In the year 1867, Rev. Geo. Speckhard was installed as successor to Rev. Auch. At that time the congregation numbered 86 voting members and 110 children attended our parochial school. No wonder that the first church built of logs, had become too small, though it had at one time been enlarged. On the 31st day of October, 1872, it was resolved to build a new church. The cornerstone was laid on the 21st day of July, 1873, Rev. Speckhard officiating. This was one of his last official acts at this place, because a month later he moved to Morris or North Detroit, where he took charge of our School for the Deaf. On the 19th day of October, 1873, Rev. J. L. Hahn was installed as his successor. The congregation now numbered 568 souls and 114 voting members. Shortly after Rev. Hahn's arrival, on the 16th day of November, the new church was dedicated. Rev. Hahn served this congregation till June, 1891. In that year he accepted a call to Lennox, Mich. Rev. C. J. Umbach was chosen as his successor and installed on the 29th of November, 1891.

As early as 1876, members formerly belonging to the Sebewaing church had, with the consent of the mother church, organized congregations at Unionville and at Kilmanagh. They were being served by the Sebewaing pastor. This lasted till 1883. In that year both churches called pastors of their own. Caseville was also served from Sebewaing for a time, but later on united with Kilmanagh. Rev. Umbach served Immanuel Church faithfully for almost 27 years. He died in February, 1918. Rev. G. F. L. List of Detroit was called as his successor. He was installed on the 4th of August in the same year.

Sebewaing, Michigan

The township of Sebewaing is situated in the South-West corner of Huron County on Saginaw Bay and contains the village of Sebewaing and the hamlet of Kilmanagh. This township was organized Feb. 12, 1853. Prior to this it was attached for judicial purposes to Tuscola County under the name of Auchville, Frederick Schilling was the first supervisor. Mr. Schilling, his father, mother and one sister were taken and sold as slaves when they first came to America. Their bondage continued 18 months and they had difficulty in getting their freedom. They finally escaped from Pennsylvania, going to New York. They made their way by stealth, begging food and passing three days of the time without food of any kind.

The first white man to reach what is now the town of Sebewaing was J. J. Auch, who came to preach to the Indians. He found one log house belonging to a half breed named Chas. Rodd. Mr. Auch with the aid of these Indian allies constructed the second house of logs in 1845. He labored among these children of the forest seven years. In 1849 his brother followed him and that same year John Gettel, Frederick Zeigler, John Zeigler and John Gruenbeck entered the county. In 1851 Gottfried Beck, Frederick Schilling, C. Auch and families came from Ann Arbor and were landed with much difficulty on Lone Tree Island at the mouth of the Du Fill River. This island has since been washed away.

Through the efforts of Mr. Auch the Indians were induced to carry them to the main land in a leaky canoe. They were three weeks on the island which tells part of the story of the privations and hardships they endured before finally reaching the site of their future homes. These pioneers built at first but one log house which sheltered the entire population of 45 men, women and children. They procured their supplies from Saginaw by means of small boats and during this period the mail was brought from Hampton (now Bay City) occasionally. Other pioneers who came there were Christian Bach, Jacob Streiter, Peter Schairer, Mr. Volz, Mr. Ruehle, John Mullerweiss, Jacob Roller, Martin and John Gremmel, Martin and Fred Krouse and Mr. Bauer. In the family of Mr. Volz there were 13 children. His youngest son John was born here in 1853.

The village was named Sebewaing (in the Chippewa language, a river nearby). The river gradually taking the same name, although on the early maps it is called Du Fill (in French, Thread river). It was very winding and crooked in its course but navigable for small boats for about one, mile. At the session of legislature during the winters of '62-'63 Richard Winsor obtained a grant from the state of five sections of state swamp lands to be appropriated toward laying a channel running as near straight as practicable through the marsh and bar at or near the mouth of the river so that its waters might empty directly into the bay instead of overflowing the valuable lands lying in its immediate vicinity. In addition to the above grant the business men of the village, together with the farmers at the annual township meeting raised by subscription nearly $4,000 for the same purpose.

The first school was taught by Rev. J. J. Auch in 1854. It was attached to the Lutheran church, of which Mr. Auch was pastor. He had about a dozen pupils in all. The first marriage was that of John Gruenbeck and Margaret Schmidt. The first child born was Mary, daughter of Frederick Schmidt. Many hardships were endured by the founders of what is today some of the finest homes in the county. There were the mosquitoes who never seemed to rest during the summer season, the swampy land, the lack of food other than potatoes, and last but by no means least the ague in all its varied forms. With it one could be in Iceland in the morning and in the torrid zone by midday. No person escaped the clutches of this disease very long. All these things today are but memories of the past and the children and grand-children of these hardy pioneers are enjoying the fruits of their labors.

In 1866 the principal men of the village were Jacob Kunding, John C. Liken, John Mullerweiss, Albert Irion, Eustus Sert and Henry Lintner. There were two stores, two hotels, grist mill, saw mill, cooper shop, large stave mill, blacksmith, wagon ' shoe and tailor shops, school house and church. The various firms were shipping large quantities of oak staves, oak timber, black ash hoops" cord wood and all kinds of produce to outside markets at this date. The timber of this township was mixed beech, oak, black and white ash prevailing. There was also some maple. The land is mostly level with a strip of sand on the shores of the bay. The richest soil being in the center of the township. The land drained easily into the Saginaw Bay and the Sebewaing River with its three tributaries.

We cannot conclude the history of Sebewaing without speaking of John C. Liken, whose life history is so closely interwoven with that of the town, Mr. Liken was a cooper by trade. Coming to Sebewaing in 1865 he at once began that branch of business in connection with his other interests; He shipped large quantities of white oak staves to Germany. He built two saw mills and four stave mills, employing over 200 men. In 1871+ he erected a fine brick block where you could buy anything from drugs to dry goods. He also had branch stores at Bay Port, Kilmanagh and at Unionville in Tuscola County. He owned over 1,000 acres of land in Huron County and 500 in Tuscola County. He had a prosperous business in Sebewaing up to the date of his death in 1920.

She was born 15 Nov 1848 in Perkinsville, New York, and died 08 Jun 1924 in Corning, Steuben Co, New York.

Notes for Ernst Ludwig Auch:

Obituary:

Ernest Ludwig Auch one of the few remaining Civil War veterans in this section, died January 11, 1928, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James P. McCabe, of Campbell, New York. Death was caused by complications following a broken hip sustained 11 months ago.

Born in Germany on April 28, 1841, Mr. Auch came to this country when a boy. The greater part of his life was spent in Campbell, where for 55 years he was a highly esteemed resident. Nine years of his life he spent in Corning, where he has many friends.

Four years of his young manhood Mr. Auch gave to service of his country, taking part in some of the most important battles of the Civil War. He enlisted in Elmira, in November 1861, in Co. C., of the 86th New York state infantry, when only 19 years of age.

Instead of being sent to a training camp for a few weeks of hard training the regiment was sent directly to the front with scarcely any knowledge of warfare. Mr. Auch figured in every battle excepting the one at Cold Harbor. When this battle was fought, Mr. Auch was home, on a 30 day furlough, to recuperate from wounds.

Some of the most important battles in which he took part included the first and second battles of Bull Run, Spotsylvania, Fredericksburg, battle of the Wilderness, Hatteras Run, Brandy Station and Gettysburg. Mr. Auch was promoted to the rank of corporal during his service. He was mustered out of service in the fourth of July, 1865 at Elmira.

In December 1865 he was married to Anna Hoffman, of Corning, who died about two and one-half years ago. Mr. Auch proved his loyalty to the country of his adoption during the Civil War and during his life time in this region, he proved his devotion to the high qualities of friendship and neighborliness that won for him an enviable standing in the community in which he lived.

Report of the Adjutant General:

Disagrees on one point, in that he supposedly suffered a second wound at this Battle of Cold Harbor on June 3, 1864. George McCabe, in an interview in 1985 stated that Ernest was shot in the heel while climbing out of a creek bank, fleeing from a Confederate soldier. Ernest's daughter, Harriet McCabe stated that he was shot in the ankle, and that he told her that he was lying down with his feet crossed, and the bullet went right through his ankle.

At Gettysburg, a monument inscription reads - "This regiment held this position the afternoon of July 2, 1863. Casualties, killed 11, wounded 51 missing 4". The regiment was present at the Appomattox Court House on April 9 for the surrender of Lee and his army. This regiment took large losses during the war. Of the total of 1318 men who had been enrolled in the regiment: 172 were killed and 611 wounded. By the time they participated in the Wilderness, there were 300 men of this regiment engaged in the battle, and 150 of them were killed, wounded or missing afterwards.

Obituary - newspaper:

Mrs. Anna Auch, wife of Ernest L. Auch, died Sunday evening at 9 o'clock, June 8, 1924, at her home at 62 Sterling Street following an illness of about a year. Mrs. Auch was born in Perkinsville, in the town of Wayland, New York on November 15, 1848. They were married in Corning, New York on December 18, 1865 in St. Mary's Church by Rev. Peter Colgan.

Following a residence of several years in Corning, they moved to Thurston (very near Campbell) on the Wisnicki Hill Road where they purchased a farm (later owned by William Reed). This was about 1 mile up the hill from the John McCabe homestead. They resided there for 22 years, and then moved to Campbell, living there for eight years. In 1913 they moved to Corning, making their residence at 62 Sterling Street, where they lived until Anna's death. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary there in 1915.

Mrs. Auch was a devout member of St. Vincent de Paul's church. She was a most lovable woman with the motherly qualities which won for her a large circle of friends. She was friendly with everyone, and was always ready to perform little deeds of kindness. She had diabetes and rectal cancer. Notes for Isaac Christian (Burkhardt) Burkhardt:

A history of California and an extended history of Los Angeles and Environs, Volume 3. By James Miller Guinn; Historic Record Company, in Los Angeles, California, 1915. Page 889:

Isaac Burkhardt. Among the immigrants who came to this country from Germany in 1796 was Tobias Burkhardt, who made settlement in Pennsylvania near Williamsport. His wife, Christena Kiess, was also of German birth and parentage and received a good education in the schools of Stuttgart, Germany. Born to these parents were four sons and two daughters, all of whom were born at Williamsport, Pa., and of whom the two daughters and one son are now living in Ohio; one son, George, died in 1913.

Isaac Burkhardt was born November 28, 1840, and was therefore about seven years of age when the family home was transferred from Pennsylvania to Ohio. To this youthful traveler the journey was interesting indeed, and he well remembers the loading and unloading of the two covered wagons that held the family possessions. Settlement was made on a farm two miles east of Bucyrus, Crawford County, and there the family lived contentedly for ten years. After this, however, the children left home one by one to establish themselves elsewhere, until only Isaac and Jacob remained with the parents. Tobias Burkhardt finally disposed of his property in Crawford County and settled in Williams County, also in Ohio, and purchased three hundred and forty acres of land which he gave to the two sons just mentioned.

In 1867 Isaac Burkhardt was united in marriage with Elisabeth Kaiser, who like himself claimed German antecedents, although she was born in Ohio. It was about twenty years after his marriage, and after the death of both his father and mother, that Mr. Burkhardt made his first trip to the west in 1888. Among other places visited was Los Angeles, which city impressed him very favorably for large business opportunity. Associated with his brother W. H. he erected an apartment house on Temple Street 60x80 feet with forty rooms. After the completion of the building Isaac Burkhardt returned east for the purpose of disposing of his holdings there, and on April 17, 1890, entered Los Angeles for the second and last time, and made his home in the apartment house on Temple Street. It was during that year also that Isaac and W. H. Burkhardt put in operation the Nickel Plate Railroad, a dummy line running from the end of Temple Street to Hollywood. The undertaking was carried on successfully for several years, when the brothers became owners of the Santa Fe avenue horse car line. This also was operated with good returns for several years, the brothers then purchasing from Abbot Kinney a tract of land on Dayton Avenue. The interests of the brothers in this property were divided later, each taking his share and thus ending partnership associations covering many years.

It was about 1895 that Isaac and Elisabeth Burkhardt bought ninety foot frontage on Los Angeles and Seventh streets and upon it erected an apartment house of forty-five rooms, on its completion removing to it from the Temple street property. In the following year, 1896, Mr. Burkhardt built a number of cottages on Dayton Avenue, still later putting up a three-story block on the corner of Temple and Figueroa streets.

Mrs. Elisabeth (Kaiser) Burkhardt passed away March 31, 1900, and on January 1, 1902, Mr. Burkhardt married Elisabeth Basler, a native of Germany. After holding the property on Los Angeles Street for about ten years Mr. Burkhardt sold it to H. E. Huntington in 1905. A few weeks afterward he purchased property at the corner of Main and Jefferson streets, upon which he built a two-story business block and also a residence at No. 111 West Jefferson street, which has been his home ever since. In addition to the properties already mentioned he built a two-story business block at No. 2614 Pasadena Avenue, with garage, and also purchased and improved the corner of Vernon Avenue and Figueroa Street, besides improving about forty other places, and is still interested in building.

The entire life of Isaac Burkhardt has been molded and influenced by religious convictions, for at an early age he was converted to a belief in the teachings of Christ, under the preaching of Mr. Shireman and George Haley in Ohio. He is identified with Salem Evangelical Church, at the corner of Twelfth and Hope streets, in which he has filled every office except that of pastor and at present is treasurer and a trustee. Although Mr. Burkhardt had no children of his own several children have come under his protecting care and received educations that but for him would never have been possible. Two of these children married and died in Terre Haute, Indiana. Another, Keziah Favorite, makes her home in Eaton Rapids, Michigan. Two others live in California. Frank in Los Angeles, and Fred in Pomona. It is needless to say that Mr. Burkhardt has been a keen observer of conditions and possibilities in Los Angeles during his residence of nearly thirty years here, and his investments voice his sentiments more favorably than could words.

1103. Johannes Ludwig (Louis or Lewis)⁸ Renz (Friederika Margaretha⁷ Hoffmann, Johann Daniel⁶, Johann Ludwig⁵, Anna Barbara⁴ Auch, Hans Jakob³ Auch-Beck, Jakob² Auch, Jakob¹) was born 08 Aug 1881 in Echterdingen, Esslingen, Wurtemberg, and died 19 Jan 1963 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Sarah Johanna Amanda Gross 04 Nov 1909 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Johann Gross and Maria Jedele. She was born 28 Sep 1884 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 12 Dec 1959 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johannes Ludwig (Louis or Lewis) Renz:

An 81-year-old Lima township farmer died in his blazing home Saturday afternoon Jan. 19, 1963 after an overheated space heater exploded in the kitchen of the residence. The victim, Lewis Renz, was a brother of Mrs. William Lindemann, of Pleasant Lake road. Other survivors in this area are a son, Raymond L. Renz, of Steinbach road, and a brother, Fred, of Scio Township. The Renz home, at the corner of Liberty and Steinbach roads, was already a mass of flames when Saline firemen arrived in answer to an "assist" call from the Dexter department. Chelsea also sent trucks and men, but efforts to save the dwelling were futile. Dexter firemen entered the blazing house to find Renz body lying in a corner of the kitchen. He was believed to have been overcome by smoke and heat as he attempted to escape, and death was due to asphyxiation, according to Dr. Craig Barlow, deputy medical examiner who was called to the scene. At one point during the three hour battle against the fire, spectators were driven back by a series of explosions from within the house, apparently from stored ammunition which was exploded by the heat.

Renz, a retired farmer, was born August 8, 1881, in Germany, the son of Christian and Fredericka Hoffman Renz. Mr. Renz came to Sharon Township during infancy, moving to his Lima township address about 50 years ago. Mr. Renz was a member of Salem Lutheran Church of Scio Township. On November 14, 1909, he married Sarah J. Gross of Lima Township. She died December 12, 1959.

Surviving are two sons, Raymond of Lima Township and the Rev. Edward C. Renz of Tampa, Florida; a daughter, Mrs. Gene Scott of Munising, Michigan; two grandchildren; a brother, Fred of Scio Township; a sister, Mrs. Lindemann; and several nieces and nephews. A sister, Mrs. Carrie Sweetland, preceded him in death on February 17, 1934. Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at Salem Lutheran Church in Scio Township with burial in the church cemetery.

The Michigan League Garden of Ann Arbor was the setting Saturday evening August 7, 1948 for the marriage of Ruth Marie Sweetland and Richard Allen Burmeister. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sweetland of Scio Church Road. Mr. Burmeister's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burmeister of Saline. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the bride's cousin, Rev. Edward C. Renz of Redeemer Lutheran Church at Scottville. Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white marquisette gown styled with a full, hoop skirt. A wide ruffle gave an off-the-shoulder effect to the fitted bodice and the long sleeves ended in points over the hands. Her fingertip veil of illusion was shirred across the heart-shaped crown. She carried a bouquet of roses centered by an orchid. Mrs. Richard Anderson of Ann Arbor, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown was of pink marquisette and she wore a matching hat. Her bouquet was of red roses and aqua tinted daisies. Acting as flower girl was Miss Carol McAuliffe of Ann Arbor, the bride's niece, whose gown was aqua marquisette. She wore a matching hat and carried a basket of pink rose petals. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Roy Burmeister. Ushers were Richard Anderson and Jack Burmeister, brother of the bridegroom. Ronald Hanson of Ann Arbor, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the garden. Assisting were Mrs. D. P. McAuliffe of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Sheldon Benfield of Saline. The bridegroom's sister Barbara Burmeister was in charge of the guest book. When the couple left for a 10-day trip in Quebec, the bride was attired in a pink suit with navy accessories. She wore the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. The former Miss Sweetland, a graduate of Ann Arbor High School and Hamilton Business College, is employed as bookkeeper at the Dean W. Titus Co. Mr. Burmeister was graduated from Saline High School and attended the University, where he was affiliated with

He married Sophie (Beer) Mammel 1895 in Michigan. She was born 1870 in Michigan, and died 07 Mar 1941 in Detroit, Wayne Co, Michigan.

Notes for George William Auch:

George W. Auch (1868-1937) was a builder, educator, and politician from Detroit, Michigan. He was the president of the Detroit school board and served as a city alderman. George W. Auch was born in 1868 in Sebewaing, Michigan, the son of Sebewaing founder J.J.F. Auch. In 1890, George Auch began his studies at Addison College, a Lutheran teacher's college in Addison, Illinois. He graduated in 1893 and began teaching at Bethany Lutheran School on Detroit's east side. By 1908, Auch and his wife Sofia had nine children, and Auch decided that his teacher's salary wasn't enough to provide for his family. Quitting his teaching job, Auch started a construction business with Herman Winkler. The firm of Winkler and Auch began by working on small residential construction projects. However, by 1912, the firm was constructing schools, churches, and larger commercial buildings.

In 1913, Auch was elected school inspector, an office he held until 1917. He was elected president of the Detroit School Board twice during that time, and served as an officer of the National Education Association. Auch served as alderman of the city of Detroit from 1916-1918, running as a Republican. During the World War I years, the construction business was slow; at some point during that time, Auch and Winkler parted ways and the George W. Auch Company emerged. During the 1920s, Auch built homes in Detroit's Boston-Edison and Indian Village districts, as well as homes in Grosse Pointe and Grosse Pointe Park. During the 1930s, Auch's business suffered due to the Great Depression, but his firm did win the carpentry contracts for the Historic Trinity Lutheran Church and the United States Marine Hospital in Norfolk, Virginia.

Auch, however, did not live to see his company emerge from the recession. George W. Auch died in 1937 due to lingering complications from an automobile accident. The leadership of the George W. Auch Company passed to his son Fred, who held it until the 1960s. Subsequent presidents included Hank Auch, George W. (Bill) Auch III, Fred J. Auch Jr, David Hamilton and Vincent DeLeonardis. The company has grown significantly over the years, averaging over $150 million in annual revenue between 1998 and 2008. As of 2016, the George W. Auch Company, now called Auch Construction, is still in business as a leading contracting firm in Southeastern Michigan.

The body of George W. Auch, president of George W. Auch Co., contractors and builders, will be at the Messiah Lutheran Church, Lakewood and Kercheval Aves, from noon Thursday until the services at 2 p.m. Burial will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Auch, who lived at 1258 Three-Mile Drive, died Sunday Feb. 21, 1937 in Grace Hospital of complications resulting from injuries suffered in an automobile accident last year. He was born April 23, 1867, in Sebawaing, Michigan, and attended Addison College, Illinois. He taught in the Bethany Lutheran School, Detroit, for 12 years, entering the building business in 1905.

He was a Member of the Board of Education for three years and was board in 1915. He also was a member of the Common Council in 1917-18; former president of the Carpenter Contractors Association and former president of the Builders and Traders Exchange.

Surviving are his wife, Sophie; four daughters, Mrs. Clara Gross, Mrs. Adeline Jinsky, Mrs. Bertha Gnekow and Martha; five sons, Fred, Otto, John, George W. Jr., and Herman H., and 13 grandchildren.

1315. Augusta⁸ Roeder (Dorothea Barbara (Doris)⁷ Auch, Johann Christian⁶, Johann Jakob⁵, Johann Jakob⁴ Auch-Beck, Hans Jakob³, Jakob² Auch, Jakob¹) was born 12 Mar 1855 in Middleton, Ontario, Canada, and died 23 Oct 1936 in Des Plaines, Cook Co, Illinois. She married Christian Gottlieb Frederich Militzer 17 May 1875 in Chicago, Cook Co, Illinois, son of John Militzer and Wilhelmina Holtzmueller. He was born 03 Aug 1852 in Saxony, Germany, and died 28 Mar 1933 in Arlington Heights, Cook Co, Illinois.

Notes for Augusta Roeder:

Arlington Heights, Illinois, Oct. 30, 1936 – Augusta Militzer, the second of nine children was born to Edmund and Dorothea Roeder on the 12th of March, 1855, in the province of Ontario, Canada, near the city of Hamilton. In 1868 her father, who had previously served in missionary work among the Chippewa Indians of lower peninsula of Michigan and then taken charge of a pastorate among the rugged pioneers of the cutting province, was called as first pastor of the newly organized Evangelical Lutheran St. Peters congregation of Dunton - the name which Arlington Heights was called at that time. With the family she came to this village and was a resident for 68 years.

On May 17, 1875 she was united in marriage to Frederick Militzer, who had begun his activities as teacher of the parochial school in the fall of 1873. Fifty-eight years of undiminished loyalty and devotion marked her contribution as the outstanding character of this bond. Trials and tribulations were not lacking during this period, but even the bitterness and grief was born in unrelenting faith with a firm grip on the "Staff That Comforts."

The most tender love of mother's heart was bestowed upon the four sons and three daughters, a love that did not shirk the responsibility of admonition or punishment when needed. No sacrifice was too great, no effort too burdensome to provide for the welfare of those who depended on her loving care. On March 29, 1933. the Lord called her companion of 58 years to the realm of eternal rest. During the last years the discrepancies of age began to foreshadow the end of a long journey. This only increased her desire to spread cheerfulness and happiness among those with whom she came into contact.

In the early hours of Oct. 23, 1936, after having retired in good spirits without any apparent discomfort she heard the beckoning call of the Lord Saviour: "Come! I have redeemed thee! thou art mine." Ever ready and prepared to answer the final summons, after only a few minutes of suffering she embraced the loving arms of her Redeemer and left his earthly vale of mortality. We who mourn in humility thank Thee, Lord Heavenly Father for Thy bountiful mercy in giving us this example of a truly Christian life – a devoted sister, spouse, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother.

Notes for Louis William (Lewis) Dorn:

Fort Wayne, April 6, 1918 - The death of Prof Louis A. Dorn is scarcely less of a loss to Concordia college than to the city of Fort Wayne. He belonged to that class whose activities cannot be limited to the sphere of the vocation. And this because of his keen appreciation of the obligations of citizenship. A man of commanding ability, a strong intellectual figure in educational circles, he impressed his work indelibly upon the great institution he served so long. His work here was never neglected. And his work here was of a congenial character and he might have prolonged his life had he settled down to the selfish employment of that work and refused his active co-operation in civic movements beyond that sphere. An orator of unusual ability his services were in constant demand for special occasions over the country and this would have furnished him abundant opportunity for distinction had he cared for that alone. But he was big enough to comprehend the co-operative nature of an organized society that functions properly and he was temperamentally incapable of shirking obligations to his fellows that added greatly to his burdens and yet gave him pleasure in their discharge. If every American were as conscientious in their attitude toward society, the city, the county, the state and nation, as Professor Dorn most of the weaknesses of our system would disappear. The system is weak only in the failure of the people to do their duty in this respect Prof Dorn stands out as a shining example.

His appointment to a position on the park board was one of the most commendable ever made. He was keenly alive to the civic advantages of beautification. He took his appointment seriously; such men always do. But perhaps his greatest service to the community was in connection with his residency of the Port Wayne Anti-Tuberculosis league, a work in which he manifested a deep and intelligent interest and through persistent efforts directed along practical lines. He laid the foundation on the rocks. His loss here will be deeply felt but the effect of his methods will persist.

One year ago - less than a year ago - two people took it upon themselves in the midst of the excitement incidental to the commencement of the war to bold the public interest true to the work of the league. These two were models of citizenship, and both have died, partly as a result of overwork, within the last two weeks Prof. Dorn and Miss Byron will long be remembered. But nothing in the career of Prof Dorn was more impressive than the ardent patriotism with which he, a German American, threw himself into the support of the government in the prosecution of the war No man understood more thoroughly the richness of the intellectual life of Germany. No man probably could have, been fonder of the memories that cluster about the German hearth. But no man, no matter what, his race or blood, was more appreciative of the advantages of American citizenship. No doubt he, too, felt the sting of the bitter shafts hurled at the nation of his fathers, but he subordinated everything to the manifest duty of the occasion. In the early stage of the war when the boys were called to the color and the spirit of Americanism was being fanned his voice was heard with frequency and the note, he sounded was invariably rich in Americanism.

A brilliant educator, an eloquent orator, a cultured gentleman, an ideal citizen, a delightful neighbor, an uncompromising American, he leaves behind him a gracious memory that will long abide.

He married Marion Christine McDonald 02 Aug 1941 in Bloomfield Hills, Oakland Co, Michigan; born 24 May 1913 in Zanesville, Muskingum Co, Ohio; died 01 Mar 2002 in Rochester, Oakland Co, Michigan.

Notes for Dr. John Ferdinand Gaensbauer:

Detroit, May 31, 1994 - Dr. Ferdinand T. Gaensbauer was a top obstetrician and gynecologist in Pontiac, yet he never forgot that his first job was sweeping floors at Stroh's brewery for 6 cents an hour. Born in 1907 in Woman's Hospital in Detroit to a bookkeeper and a seamstress, he grew up to become chief of the medical staff at what used to be Pontiac General Hospital and was president of the staff of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac. Dr. Gaensbauer, formerly of Bloomfield Hills, died of cancer Sunday May 29, 1994 at his home in Sun City, Arizona. He was 86. Dr. Gaensbauer's early life in Detroit was hard. His father was a poorly paid bookkeeper for the Studebaker car company.

When he was 13 and visiting relatives in Saginaw, he started high school there. "He had made many friends there, and he liked the schools, and we were very poor," recalled his sister, Mary Louise Gaensbauer. Dr. Gaensbauer played football and graduated from Arthur Hill High School. He was a bright student, and an uncle paid his tuition to the University of Michigan. During the summer, he worked at Stroh's in Detroit as an equipment oiler and sweeper. He graduated from U-M Medical School in 1931. As a medical student, he watched a birth and made a decision that shaped his career. "He thought the miracle of birth was so tremendous," said his sister. "I remember when he delivered his first baby, he wanted to dress that baby," Mary Louise Gaensbauer said. "He wanted to bathe it, and he wrapped it in the blanket so he would really have the feel."

"He thought it was very important in the medical profession to have the human touch," she said. "He took time," said his daughter Gretchen Breese. "My dad would always talk to people in his office before he would examine them, and after they were dressed he would talk to them again." Dr. Gaensbauer loved to travel. With his wife, Christine, he traveled around the world four times. At different times, he left his Pontiac practice to serve as a physician in Guatemala, Kenya, Afghanistan, Haiti and Java. He often carried two or three cameras. He was president of the Pontiac Rotary in 1974 and showed his travel slides to Rotary groups. But during those shows, his wife did most of the narrating, Breese said. "He was sort of humble, just a quiet man," she said.

In addition to his wife of 53 years, Dr. Gaensbauer is survived by another daughter Carolyn Cardoza; son, Dr. Theodore Gaensbauer, and sue grandchildren. A memorial service and burial are being planned in Arizona.

Ann Arbor - Four men were injured, three seriously, in a crash tonight Nov. 10, 1931 on the Pleasant Lake Road, nine miles southwest of Ann Arbor, when cars driven by Julius Fritz, Route 2, Saline, and Manuel Stollsteimer, of Pittsfield, collided. Fritz, 59 years old; Charles Stollsteimer, 58, a passenger in Fritz's car, and Fred Gutekunst, 55, a passenger in Manuel Stollsteimer's machine, were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, while Manuel Stollsteimer was hurried to a physician in Saline. It was said at the hospital that Gutekunst and Charles Stollsteimer are suffering from possible skull fractures and the latter has a fractured knee. Mr. Fritz sustained lacerations and chest injuries. Deputies said Manuel Stollsteimer, coming toward Ann Arbor, was on the right side of the road, but were unable to account for Fritz's being on the wrong side. Manuel and Charles Stollsteimer are unrelated.

Ann Arbor, Nov. 11, 1931 - Three men were in St Joseph's hospital here today, two with possible skull fractures, as a result of the crash last night between automobiles driven by Julius Fritz, Saline, and Manuel Stollsteimer, of Pittsfield. Notes for Johann Friedrich Stierle:

Ann Arbor Argus-Democrat Newspaper, November 10, 1899:

The death of John Frederick Stierle, father of Herman Stierle, a clerk with Mack & Company, occurred last evening at 11 o'clock. He had been ailing only a little over a week. The funeral services will be held at his late residence in Saline Township Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Stierle was one of the respected, prosperous farmers of Saline Township. His amiable, hospitable disposition made him the friend of everyone. Many will miss his kindly face, which was often seen in Ann Arbor and Saline. He was born Unteraichen, Ober Amt Stuttgart, Wurtemberg. With his parents, for brothers and sisters, he removed to Washtenaw County in 1848, settling in Saline Township. On August 28, 1862, he married Miss Maria Zahn, the ceremony being performed by the late Rev. Frederick Schmid, in Ann Arbor. His widow and four children of seven, with which their union was blessed, survive him. They are Mrs. Ida Burkhardt, Frederick, Herman and William Stierle. Charles Stierle, of Freedom, a brother, and Mrs. Regena Stollsteimer, of Lodi, a sister, also survives. The deceased and his wife resided 23 years on the farm on which he died.

Notes for Erhard Theodore (Aaron) Alber:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Erhard Theodore Alber, the senior partner of the firm of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel, is a native son of Washtenaw County and in his business career has displayed the enterprise which has been the dominant factor in the up building of the great Middle West. He was born in Lodi Township on the 25th of August, 1866. His father, John George Alber, became a resident of this county when eighteen years of age and settled upon a farm in Lodi Township, where for many years he was identified with general agricultural pursuits. At the time of his arrival this was largely an unsettled district in which the work of improvement and progress had scarcely been begun and he entered from the government a claim of eighty acres, to which he has since added as his financial resources have increased until he is now the owner of a valuable farm of one hundred and thirty-six acres, which under his careful supervision and cultivation has become very productive. In religious faith a Lutheran, he is an active worker in the church, doing all in his power to promote its growth and extend its influence. In his political allegiance he is a democrat. He married Miss Marguerita Metzger, who died in 1899, leaving seven children, as follows: Charles Michael, a resident farmer of Saline, Michigan; John George, who also makes his home at Saline; John August, a contractor residing in Ann Arbor; Fred Erhard, who is living in Perry, Lodi Township; William Henry, who is engaged in general farming near Saline; and Emanuel Gottlob, who is engaged in painting at Saline.

Erhard T. Alber, the other member of the family, was reared upon the old homestead farm in the usual manner of lads of the period and when about six years of age he began his education in the district schools of his native township. He pursued his studies through the winter months and in the summer seasons worked upon the home farm until about twenty years of age, when thinking that he would find other occupation more congenial he left the parental roof and began learning the carpenter's trade. Subsequently he spent five years in the employ of the Ann Arbor Railroad Company, working in the line of his trade and on the expiration of that period he began contracting and building on his own account, in which he continued for five years. In 1891 he took up his abode in Ann Arbor and he is now engaged in the hotel business as a partner of Nathan Horning, under the firm style of Alber & Horning, proprietors of the St. James Hotel. They conduct a strictly modern hostelry of twenty-five rooms heated with steam and there is a barber shop and buffet in connection. Mr. Alber is popular with the patrons of the hotel and receives a liberal patronage from the traveling public. Everything possible is done for the comfort and convenience of the guests and the hotel is conducted along the most modern lines, so that it would be a credit to a city of much larger size than Ann Arbor.

In the year of his removal here Mr. Alber was married to Miss Emma K. Horning, who was born in Pittsfield Township. A Mason, he belongs to Fraternity lodge, No. 262, A. F. & A. M. and is in hearty sympathy with the principles of the craft. His political allegiance is given to the Republican Party and he is a member of the Zion Lutheran church. His entire life has been passed in the county of his nativity and his deep interest in its welfare is manifest in the public spirited support which he gives to various measures for the general good. He is recognized as a man of good business qualifications, of keen foresight and unfaltering enterprise and his success is the merited reward of his persistent labor.

Oct. 24, 1973 - Lysock View's newest residents are believed to be the first set of twins to have lived at the county operated home. They are 92-year-old sisters, Lura May McClarin and Mrs. Lella May Marquardt, formerly of the 2200 block of West Fourth Street Mrs. Marquardt is the widow of William Marquardt. The sisters have lived together for many years. An official at Lysock said the sisters are the "pets of the place" with other guests. They enjoy visiting other resident and took their favorite chairs to the home. The official also commented that the sisters lived for many years with another sister, Ida, who died at the age of 97. Currently, there is one way to easily tell the twins apart Miss McClarin's right arm is in a cast as a result of a fall last July. Both are former silk mill workers. They were born in Salladasburg on May 15, 1881, daughters of Robert and Ella Thomas McClarin. They have no close relatives.

The regiment remained in Memphis until in January, 1865, when it was ordered to New Orleans, where it was encamped for some time on the old battlefield eight miles below the city. It next took passage for Mobile and, shortly after its arrival there, joined General Canby's army. The regiment was now a part of the Third Brigade, Third Division of the Sixteenth Army Corps, and its brigade was under the command of its colonel, James L. Geddes, while the regiment was commanded by Lieut. Col. W. B. Bell. The maneuvers leading up to the beginning of the siege of Spanish Fort were participated in by the Eighth Iowa; and in the siege operations, lasting from March 27th until April 8, 1865, when the assault was made and the fort captured, the regiment bore a most conspicuous part and suffered heavy loss. Lieutenant Colonel Bell gives a graphic account of the terrific fighting during the assault, and the desperate resistance made by the enemy. After describing in detail the passage of his regiment through an almost impassable swamp, during which it was under a heavy fire from the enemy, he says:

As soon as the regiment gained the crest of the hill, where our skirmishers were, the fight commenced in full force, but of such a character that it is difficult to describe. The regiment moved by the right flank in rear of the enemy's rifle pits, and carried them for a distance of 500 yards, either killing, wounding, or capturing the entire force of the enemy occupying the same. One thing that was very much in our favor was, the enemy's works, from their extreme left for a considerable distance up, consisted of a series of small pits, without direct connection with each other. This enabled us to attack them in detail, and we had carried a considerably portion of their works before their main force was aware that we had turned their left. We here witnessed the spectacle of dying in the last ditch, as quite a number of the rebels refused to surrender, and were shot in their ditches, and on the other hand, quite a number of them who were taken prisoners ought, in justice to our men, to have been killed, as they would first fire at our men after being ordered to surrender, then throw up both hands and surrender. * * * Soon after this, Colonel Geddes came up and directed me to place my command outside the enemy's works, and—facing toward them, and using them for breastworks—to throw out a company as skirmishers to my right and front, which orders were promptly complied with. * * * Soon after this, Captain Kettenring, of my command, in charge of the skirmish line, reported the enemy advancing in heavy column. They advanced within thirty or forty yards of us, calling out, "We surrender," and then fired on us. When they got within twenty-five yards of us, I ordered my command to fire and fix bayonets, which was done with a will. The enemy broke and ran, but soon after rallied and returned, and when within fifty yards of us halted. I ordered two companies to give them a volley, which caused them to break, and we saw them no more. Soon after this Colonel Geddes returned, formed his brigade and marched it through the fort, and to the bay beyond, after which, by his directions, I moved my command to camp. I claim for my regiment the honor of making the attack, and of being the only regiment that engaged the enemy inside of his works, also of capturing three stands of colors, five pieces of artillery, and four hundred and fifty prisoners, seven of them commissioned officers. * * *

Where all do their duty it is a difficult and delicate matter to make any discrimination. The several companies of the regiment were commanded by the following officers: Company A, Captain Muhs; Company B, Captain Kettenring; Company E, Lieutenant Clark; Company F, Lieutenant Harper; Company G, Lieutenant Vineyard; Company H, Lieutenant Bell; Company I, Sergeant Taylor; Company K, Captain Weeks. I would respectfully present to the favorable notice of the Colonel commanding brigade, the following named officers: Capt. Henry Muhs, who was conspicuous for his coolness while in command of the skirmish line; Lieut. Henn^A Vineyard, commanding Company G, in skirmish line, who was wounded in the arm early in the engagement, but continued in command of his company, until he received a wound which broke his leg, and will probably prove fatal; Captain Weeks, who was conspicuous for his bravery throughout the engagement; Captain Kettenring, who was severely wounded while bravely leading his company; Lieutenant Gardiner, who took command of his company after Captain Kettenring was wounded, and led it through the engagement with ability, and Sergeant Betz, Company G, who took command of his company after Lieutenant Vineyard was wounded, and handled it well. I am under obligations to Adjutant Marsden for valuable assistance rendered me in communicating instructions to the command. In addition to the names above mentioned, many enlisted men deserve honorable mention, but they are so numerous that it would make this report too voluminous.

Notes for William H. (Burkhardt) Burkhardt:

(LA 1293, Department One. – January 31, 1905)

FRANCES BROOKS (formerly BURKHART), and WILLIAM H. BURKHART, Appellants, v. UNION TRUST AND REALTY COMPANY, Respondent.

RESULTING TRUST—PAROL EVIDENCE—RECITAL OF CONSIDERATION.—Parol evidence is admissible to establish a resulting trust in real property arising under section 853 of the Civil Code, notwithstanding the recital of a money consideration in apparent opposition thereto, which was not in fact paid by trustees, who had received the title to the property without consideration and had agreed orally to hold it in trust in definite proportions for those who had furnished the consideration.

ID.—ACTION BY DIVORCED WIFE AND FORMER HUSBAND—TITLE UNDER JUDGMENT AND SHERIFF'S SALE—JOINT OWNERSHIP—PAROL EVIDENCE.—In an action by a divorced wife remarried and her former husband to enforce a resulting and constructive trust, where the former husband had obtained a judgment which he had assigned to his wife, under which the title was obtained at sheriff's sale, the testimony of the divorced wife is admissible to show that the judgment and sheriff's sale there under belonged to herself and former husband in equal shares.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT — JURISDICTION UNDER AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION.—Under the provisions of section 4 of article VI of the constitution, as amended in 1904, this court has power to make rules having the force of positive law so far as the rights of the parties are concerned, if they do not conflict with any act of the legislature.

ID.—RULE REQUIRING SERVICE OF PETITION FOR REHEARING.—Rule XXX of this court, requiring a petition for rehearing to be served upon the adverse party within twenty days after the judgment is pronounced, and allowing time for an answer to be filed thereto, is valid; and a petition filed without such service must be disregarded if no showing is made of unavoidable accident or excusable mistake and substantial injury to be inflicted by its enforcement.

APPEAL from a judgment of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County and from an order denying a motion for new trial. N. P. Conrey, Jud&e.

The main facts are stated in the commissioner's opinion, and further facts are stated by the court in Bank on petition for rehearing.

Dunnigan & Dunnigan, for Appellants.

Walter Bordwell, for Respondent.

SMITH, C.—This is a suit to enforce an alleged trust (resulting and constructive) in land conveyed to defendant's grantors by plaintiffs' alleged trustee. The findings and judgment were for the defendant; and the plaintiffs' appeal from an order denying their motion for a new trial. Both parties—with an exception that will be noted—rely on the same deraignment of title, which is as follows:—

1. Judgment in favor of plaintiff Burkhart against Teresa Luhning, of date September 19, 1891, for the sum of $85.85— afterwards assigned to plaintiff Brooks; who was then the wife of Burkhart, but afterwards divorced.
2. Sheriff's sale under execution on the judgment for the sum of $135.75, and certificate of sale to plaintiff Brooks, on date July, 1895; at which time, it is alleged in the complaint and not denied, she was still the wife of Burkhart. On this point there seems to be some confusion. The finding of the court is to the contrary of the allegation; and in the respondent's brief it is said that the parties had been divorced nearly two years prior to the sale. But we are cited to no evidence in support of this assertion, and have not been able to find any. The point is material only to the matter in evidence.
3. Assignment of certificate of sale, for recited consideration of $135.75, and subsequent sheriff's deed, January 22, 1896, to Daniel Burkhart and Leonard Brooks; sons, the former, of plaintiff Burkhart, the latter, of plaintiff Brooks.
4. Conveyance by Leonard Brooks to Daniel Burkhart, and allotment of the land in question to the latter, by judgment in a partition suit, in the year 1899.
5. Deed of Daniel Burkhart, during his last illness, to Sexton & Grider, of date January 8, 1901.
6. Deed from Sexton & Grider to defendant, of date January 9, 1901.

In addition to the above, it is alleged in the second count of the complaint that during the last illness of Daniel Burkhart, and before his deed to Sexton & Grider, a deed, in execution of the trust, was made and delivered by him to his father, and brother, John Burkhart. But there will be no occasion to consider this aspect of the case.

It is alleged by the plaintiff in effect: That the plaintiff Mrs. Brooks, under agreement to that effect, took the certificate of purchase at the sheriff's sale for the joint use and benefit of herself and husband, in certain definite proportions; that the certificate was assigned by her, and, by the direction of plaintiffs, the sheriff's deed made, to Leonard Brooks and Daniel Burkhart, without consideration, and upon a parol agreement and understanding that they should hold the land in trust for plaintiffs; that the deed of the former to the latter was made by direction of plaintiff Burkhart upon the same trust and confidence; that the trust was repeatedly admitted by Leonard and Daniel; and, finally, that the deeds from Daniel to Sexton & Grider, and from the latter to the defendant, were taken by the grantees, respectively, with full knowledge of the trust.

It is further alleged, in effect: That the deed to Sexton & Grider was procured by the fraud and undue influence of the grantees, acting in conspiracy with one Bigelow and others; and that the defendant took the deed with knowledge of the trust relations between Daniel and the plaintiffs, and of the fraud and conspiracy of its grantors and Bigelow. These allegations occur in the second count of the complaint, wherein all the facts set out in the first count are also alleged. On all of the issues thus raised, the findings were adverse to the plaintiffs.

The points urged by the appellants are: That the material findings are not supported by the evidence; that a new trial should have been granted on the affidavits of newly discovered evidence; and that the court erred in sustaining the objections of the defendant to questions put to the plaintiff Brooks and her son Leonard as to the agreement or understanding under which they took their respective titles.

The last point, if sustained or held to be untenable, will dispose of the appeal; and, as we are of the opinion that it is well taken, it will be sufficient to say of the others that evidence was introduced by the plaintiffs to prove their material allegations—some of it of a very cogent nature; and that it is claimed by the appellant, not without some plausibility, that "had the court not been in error upon the law of this matter, it would doubtless have granted a new trial on the affidavits." Our attention will, therefore, be confined to the point raised by the exclusion of the testimony of Mrs. Brooks and her son Leonard.

As to the former, it is urged by the respondent that the evidence offered was inadmissible because it appeared that Mrs. Brooks was "the owner of the judgment which was the consideration of the sale." But—leaving out of view that it appears that advances for sheriff's costs were made by Burkhart, which would constitute part of the consideration—her testimony as to her part interest with her husband in the property purchased (the fruit of the judgment) would have been cogent to prove that she was similarly interested in the judgment itself; and the justice of this inference is confirmed by her own express testimony to that effect. Nor were it otherwise, are we to be understood as holding that the point would be tenable.

But the principal point urged relates to the testimony of Leonard, and is, that, a money consideration being recited in the assignment of the certificate, and in the sheriff's deed to him, parol evidence was inadmissible to establish the alleged trust; in support of which contention Russ v. Mebius, 16 Cal. 350, and other cases are cited. But these were cases where the trusts sought to be established were in favor of the grantor; and if it be assumed for the purposes of the decision, that such trusts continue to exist, as resulting trusts, under the codes (Feeney v. Howard, 79 Cal. 5301), yet the principle announced in Russ v. Mebius is peculiar to that class of cases, and has no application to the kind of resulting trusts referred to in section 853 of the Civil Code. In trusts of this kind the consideration is usually recited, yet parol testimony is always admissible. (Hidden v. Jordan, 21 Cal. 93; Btylcs v. Baxter, 22 Cal. 575; Millard v. Hathaway, 27 Cal. 119, 142; cases cited, Pomeroy's ed. Civ. Code, section cited.) The evidence offered was, we think, clearly admissible, and its exclusion material error.

We advise that the order appealed from be reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial.

Cooper, C, and Gray, C, concurred.

For the reasons given in the foregoing opinion, the order appealed from is reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial. Van Dyke, J., Shaw, J., Angellotti, J. 112 Am. St. Kep. 162.

On petition for rehearing in Bank, the following opinion was rendered February 28, 1905, by the court in Bank:—

THE COURT.—The respondent has filed with the clerk a petition for rehearing without serving a copy thereof on the adverse party. Section 4 of article VI of the constitution, as amended November 8, 1904, contains the following provision:—

"The supreme court shall make and adopt rules not inconsistent with law for the government of the supreme court and of the district courts of appeal and of the officers thereof, and for regulating the practice in said courts."

In pursuance of this authority and command the Supreme Court has adopted rules of practice which are now in force. Rule XXX provides as follows:—

"1. Applications for a rehearing of a cause by the court rendering judgment therein must be filed and a copy served on the adverse party, within twenty days after the judgment is pronounced. The adverse party may file an answer thereto not less than two days before the expiration of the time within which the rehearing can be granted. . . .

"4. The times herein prescribed shall not be extended, and the clerk must not file any such application or answer after the time therefore has expired."

By virtue of the power conferred by the amendment, the Supreme Court now has authority to make rules of practice which have the force of positive law so far as the rights of the parties are concerned, provided such rules do not conflict with any act of the legislature. The provisions of rule XXX, above quoted, are consistent with the law. They confer a positive right upon the prevailing party to have a copy of such application served upon him, at least ten days before the expiration of the time within which the application can be considered by the court, and give him at least eight days thereafter within which to file an answer thereto. These are substantial advantages to adverse parties, and if they are wisely used the court will be materially aided in the disposition of the application. Where rules of court are of such a nature that important rights are given by them, a compliance therewith must be strictly enforced. In cases where it is shown that by unavoidable accident or excusable mistake parties have been prevented from observing such rules, and it appears that substantial injury will be inflicted by their enforcement, the court may, on proper terms, allow a departure there from. Such cases, however, must be extremely rare and the circumstances extraordinary, and the court will be reluctant to vary in the least from the exact practice prescribed. Under the circumstances here shown the petition should not have been filed without the service upon the adverse party, and it must be disregarded.

Notes for Samuel Kiess:

Mr. Kiess has quite a rare collection of bric-a-brac, which is of very great value to a lover of relics as he is. He has a Bible, the former property of a German in New York, that was printed in the year 1668, and for which he has been offered $3,000, refusing to take that amount. It is about 16" long x 10-1/2" wide x 6" thick, and is bound in what is supposed to be the leather made from the skin of a hog, with heavy brass corners and clasps, and was printed in Frankfort, Germany. He also has a fine collection of ancient coins and currency, among which is a three cent piece issued by the West Branch Bank of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, on the first of January 1863; a ten-cent piece from the Williams County, Ohio, and also some from the State Bank of Ohio, bearing an early date.

Notes for Jacob John Burkhardt:

Jacob J. Burkhardt, a successful farmer and highly respected citizen of St. Joseph Township, Williams Co, Ohio, was born in Lycoming County Pennsylvania, October 15, 1842. He is the son of Tobias and Christina (Keiss) Burkhardt, both natives of Germany. Tobias Burkhardt came to the United States in 1804 with his mother, Dorothy (Beal) Burkhardt, and located Pennsylvania, where she died. His wife, Christina (Keiss) Burkhardt, came to America in 1817, both of her parents having died in Germany. They came to Williams County, Ohio in 1865 and settled on a farm in St. Joseph Twp, where he died in 1876, aged eighty years, and she died nine years later, aged eighty-three years.

Jacob J. was reared on his father's farm and educated at Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio. Having learned the shoemaker's trade, he set up a shop in Edon, Williams Co, Ohio, and plied his avocation there for almost fifteen years. Selling his shop he invested the proceeds in a farm of sixty acres about two miles northwest of Edgerton, on which he has lived the past twenty-two years, following general farming. To public office he has never aspired, notwithstanding he is a very active Democrat.

Jacob J. Burkhardt married Miss Harriet Mowry, who was born in Sandusky County, Ohio, January 27, 1851, and died November 9, 1887, aged thirty-six years, four months and twelve days. On July 4, 1889, he married Miss Mary E. Hollinger of Sandusky County, born May 24, 1859, the daughter of Charles and Philipina (Hopp) Hollinger. Charles Hollinger was born in Bavaria, Germany, September 14, 1814. He married in 1841 and emigrated to America seven years later, locating in Sandusky County, where he resided on a farm until 1867, when he removed to Williams County, Ohio, settling on a farm two miles northeast of Edgerton. His wife, also a native of Bavaria, was born June 14, 1814. They are both dead, he dying July 21, 1889, aged nearly seventy-five years, and she on January 23, 1905, aged nearly ninety-one years. They were the parents of seven daughters and three sons, all of whom are living. Bartlett Hollinger, the father of Charles Hollinger, was a native of Germany and came to the United States with his son in 1848, and died in Sandusky County. Fred, Jacob, brothers of Charles Hollinger, came over at the same time, the former dying at Fremont, Ohio, in 1889, and the latter is now a resident of Sandusky County, his farm being twelve miles west of Fremont. Henry Hollinger, who came to Sandusky County and died at Bettsville in that county in 1889. Two sisters and a half-sister of Mr. Burkhardt's first wife emigrated to America, locating in Baltimore, Maryland, where all died except one sister, who died at Bowling Green, Ohio.

To Jacob J. Burkhardt and his first wife there were born four children. They are: Fred Isaac, born December 4, 1872; Willis Daniel, born November 13, 1874; Maudie Elizabeth, born January 19, 1877, and died June 28, 1895; and Samuel Jacob, born October 18, 1881. By his second wife he had three children, all daughters: Gladys May, born January 26, 1892; Flossie Ladortha, born February 19, 1894, and Carrie Gertrude, born May 18, 1895. Mr. and Mrs. Burkhardt are members of the Evangelical Association. In politics Mr. Burkhardt is a staunch Democrat.

Notes for Jonathan H. Kiess:

J. H. Kiess, who has lived on his present farm of 160 acres, situated in Whetstone Township, Crawford County, Ohio, for 42 years, has owned this land for 36 of these, purchasing from Jonathan Heinlein, it then being called the old Burkhardt farm. Jr. Kiess was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a son of Jacob and Catherine (Roth) Kiess.

Christopher Kiess, the grandfather, was born in Germany and came from there in 1806 and settled in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, where he was one of the early school teachers. In 1850 the family decided to come to Crawford County, Ohio, and it required two weeks for the loaded farm wagons to make the long overland journey. They settled in Whetstone Township and among the good citizens of this section the name is not an unusual one. The mother of J. H. Kiess died after coming to Crawford County, leaving two children: J. H. and Lydia, the latter of whom is now deceased and is survived by her husband, Lewis Cripes. Jacob Kiess married Catherine Delker for his second wife and they had the following children: Simeon, Joseph, Daniel, Samuel, W. C., Christiana and Mary Margaret.

J. H. Kiess had but meager school advantages in the English language but in Pennsylvania attended a German school. His help was needed by his father when he was yet young and he has devoted his whole business life to agricultural pursuits. He has enriched his land and carefully cultivated it and it gives bountiful returns, and his buildings are those that are found on the farms of substantial and self-respecting people, built and kept up not only for shelter but for comfortable living. Mr. Kiess makes no attempt to raise any great amount of stock but always has enough for his own use.

In 1864, Mr. Kiess was married (first) to Miss Elizabeth Cook, a daughter of Jacob and Mary (Kiess) Cook, and to this marriage the following children were born; Mary B., Franklin J., Ella Lucinda and Matilda, all of whom are deceased; Rebecca, who is the wife of T. P. Crawl; and Ida E., who is the wife of Samuel Keiser. Mr. Kiess was married second to Miss Rachel Cook, a daughter of George and Rebecca (Young) Cook, and they have had five children: Reuben, who is deceased; Wesley, who is a mail carrier; and Olen, Charles F. and Bertha May.

Mr. Kiess has frequently served in public office but it has not been any political reward as he votes independently. He has been very useful and progressive in relation to educational matters and has been equally concerned in giving the people good roads, for some years serving as road supervisor. With his family he attends the Evangelical Church.

Jonathan H. Kiess, a widely known and popular farmer of Whetstone township, near the overhead bridge, on the Middletown Road, died at 8 o'clock, Friday morning April 26, 1912; aged 71 years, 4 months, 17 days. Funeral at 1:30 o'clock, Sunday, from the borne with concluding services at the Salem Evangelical church.

Mr. Kiess was born December 9, 1840, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and in 1851 came with his father to Ohio, settling in Whetstone township where he resided continuously until his death for a period of more than sixty years. He was a progressive farmer and an honorable man. He was married twice, both wives having preceded him to eternity. The children who survive him are Mrs. Rebecca Crall, of Oklahoma, and Mrs. Ida Kisor, of Williams County this state, S. Wesley Kiess, of Bucyrus. Three brothers, Simeon K., Joseph F. and W. C. Kiess, all of Bucyrus, and one daughter, Mrs. Christina Butts, of Jewell, Kansas.

Notes for Rachel Koch:

The many friends of Mrs. Jonathan Kiess of Whetstone township will be shocked to learn of her death, which occurred at 1 o'clock this afternoon Jan. 11, 1907 at the family home, one mile east of Bucyrus. Her death came unexpectedly and was a sad shock to her family and friends. Mrs. Kiess had recently undergone an operation for hernia, after a severe illness of ten days and though it had been feared before the operation that her recovery was a matter of grave doubt, the outlook afterward became very encouraging, in fact fear of trouble from the initial cause of her illness was almost dissipated. However, on Wednesday night or Thursday she contracted pneumonia which ran a very rapid course and came to a fatal termination this afternoon. From the first appearance of the dreaded lung trouble, the hope for her recovery was small.

Mrs. Kiess maiden name was Rachel Cook and she was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cook, both deceased. Her birthplace was Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, but the family home has been in Whetstone township for over fifty years. Her age at death was sixty-five years. She was united in marriage thirty years ago to Jonathan Kiess and they have lived near this city ever since their marriage. The husband and four children. Wesley, Olan, Charles and Bertha, and two step-children, Mrs. J.P. Crall of Galion and Mrs. Samuel Kiess of Edon, Ohio, survive. Wesley lives in Bucyrus, being a carrier on one of the rural routes.

There are also surviving following brothers and sisters; Fred Cook, of Bucyrus; George, David and William Cook of Edon, Ohio and Mrs. Elizabeth Gross of Kansas City, Missouri. A sister, Mrs. Kiess, died in Williams County two months ago. Deceased was a member of Salem Evangelical church and was a lady of great worth, highly esteemed in her neighborhood in which she lived and loved and respected alike by all who became acquainted with her. She was a loving and faithful wife and mother, sympathetic and ready with a helping hand whenever assistance was needed by others. Her death is a heavy blow to her husband and children and a loss to the community and the members of the family have the sympathy of all in their sorrow.

Funeral services will be held on Sunday morning, meeting at the home at 10 a.m., with services following at Salem Evangelical church Rev. B.E. Reams will officiate and burial will be made in the church cemetery.

2019. Simeon⁸ Kiess (Jacob⁷, Christopher⁶, Sophia Dorothea⁵ Auch, Johann Georg⁴, Jacob³, Andreas², Jakob¹) was born 31 Jan 1844 in Anthony Twp, Lycoming Co, Pennsylvania, and died 1921 in Bucyrus, Crawford Co, Ohio. He married Catherine Kile 1868 in Crawford Co, Ohio. She was born 1845 in Whetstone Twp, Crawford Co, Ohio.

Notes for Simeon Kiess:

History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 721:

Simeon Kiess and Joseph F. Kiess, retired farmers and respected citizens of Bucyrus, Ohio, are sons of Jacob and Catherine (Delker) Kiess, and grandsons of Christopher and Christina (Sheets) Kiess.

The grandfather, Christopher Kiess, and his wife were both born in Wurtemberg, Germany, and after marriage lived at Stuttgart until January, 1806, when they emigrated to America, landing probably at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, from that city moving to Lycoming County. There Christopher Kiess was a farmer and also taught school and for many years resided near the present city of Williamsport, where he died March 26, 1866, when aged 88 years and 2 months, having survived his wife for a few years. They were members of the Pietist colony, a body of religionists who came to the United States in order to follow out their religious beliefs in their daily lives. To Christopher Kiess and wife the following - children were born: Rebecca, born September 8, 1801; Abraham, born September 23, 1802; Catharine, born October 30, 1805; William, born February 26, 1808, in America; Dorothea, born October 8, 1809; Jacob, born August 6, 1812; Salome, born September 6, 1813; Sophia, born September 3, 1816; Emanuel, born July 9, 1818; and Christina, born July 23, 1820.

Jacob Kiess grew to manhood on his father's farm and continued to reside in Pennsylvania until 1852, when, with his family he started for what was then the far West, Crawford County having been little settled previously in the neighborhood of Whetstone Township. He secured a wild prairie farm, which, with the aid of his sons, was converted into a productive and valuable one, and there he and wife enjoyed some years of comfort. His death on Decoration Day, 1882, was caused by accident while crossing a railroad track. He was twice married, first to a Miss Rote and second to Catherine Delker. To his first marriage two children were born: Jonathan and Lydia. To his second marriage 5 sons were born: Simeon, Joseph F., Daniel, Samuel and William C., and two daughters, Christina and Mary Margaret. The mother of the last named family was born in 1813 in Wurtemberg, Germany, and was a child when her parents emigrated to America and settled in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. She survived her husband for two years and died at the home of a daughter in Kansas. Both she and husband were devout members of the Evangelical Church, in which he was a class leader.

Simeon Kiess grew to manhood on the home farm in Whetstone Township, having been eight years old when the long overland trip was made from Pennsylvania, where he was born January 31, 1844. He remained with his father for some years and then purchased the homestead and continued to carry on farming and stock raising there until 1906, when he shifted its heavy responsibilities to the sturdy shoulders of his sons and retired, moving then to Bucyrus. The farm contains about 40 acres, all of which, with the exception of 80 acres, has been well improved. Mr. Kiess was a very enterprising and progressive farmer and handled only first-class stock and made use of improved and labor-saving machinery.

In 1867 Simeon Kiess was married in Whetstone Township to Miss Catherine Kile, who was born there in 1845, a daughter of Tobias and Carrie (Nipp) Kile, natives of Germany. They came to Ohio and after marriage located in Whetstone Township, where the father of Mrs. Kiess lived to be 83 years of age, surviving his wife for five years. To Mr. and Mrs. Kiess the following children were born: Sidney E., Harvey E. and Verne E. Sidney E., who operates a part of his father's farm, married Amanda Cook and they have two children - Raymond and Catherine. Harvey E., who completed his education in the university at Ada, Ohio, is cashier of the Farmers and Citizens Bank of Bucyrus; he married Ida Sherrard, of Gibsonburg, Ohio, and they have two children: Helen Irene and John Simeon, Verne E., who is a farmer in Whetstone Township, married Rebecca Neff of Martel, Ohio, and they have two children: Margaret and Marian. Mr. Kiess and sons are Democrats in politics and the whole family belongs to the Evangelical Church.

Notes for Joseph Frederick Kiess:

History of Crawford County, Ohio, by John E. Hopley. Page 722:

Joseph F. Kiess was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, September 15, 1849, and was too young to recall the adventures incident to the long trip over the mountains when his parents came to Crawford County from his native place. He grew to manhood in Whetstone Township and, with his brothers and sisters, attended the district school. When he left home he purchased a farm in the vicinity of the old homestead and still owns 390 acres of valuable land in Whetstone Township, on which he made fine improvements. He was an extensive farmer, stock raiser and sheep grower and for years kept some 500 head of sheep. In April, 1911, he retired having erected a handsome residence on the corner of Lucas and East streets, Bucyrus, and here enjoys all the comforts that modern building now provides. Formerly he was quite active in township affairs and served on the school board and in other offices.

Joseph F. Kiess was married (first) to Miss Rebecca Haldeman, who was born in Morrow County, Ohio, in April, 1856, and died in her home on the farm in Whetstone Township, March 17, 1901, having been a member of the Evangelical church for years. She was a young woman when she accompanied her parents, Rev. Christopher and Susanna (Brickley) Haldeman, to Galion, Ohio, where both died advanced in years. Mrs. Rebecca Kiess was survived by two children: Viola, who is the widow of John Sherer, who died in October, 1910, leaving three children: Catherine R., Evelyn and Joseph N., and Winfield Scott, who manages his father's large farming interests. He married Sadie Cook and they have two children: Leona and William H. Mr. Kiess was married (second) at Bucyrus, August 24, 1909, to Mrs. Elnora (Niebel) Heckman, who was born in Wyandot County, Ohio, and completed her education at the Tiffin High School. In early womanhood she was married to Scott Heckman, who was born in Wyandot County in May, 1860, and died at Sycamore, in November, 1903. He left no children. The parents of Mrs. Kiess were Abraham and Catherine (Haldeman) Niebel, who were of German ancestry but were born in Pennsylvania. They were married in Morrow County, Ohio, and then moved to Wyandot County, where the mother of Mrs. Kiess died. Her father resides at Sycamore and is in his 72nd year. Her one brother, Orval Niebel, is principal of the Sycamore Schools, married Marcella Musser and they have one daughter, Catherine. The grandfather of Mrs. Kiess, Enos Niebel, moved from Pennsylvania to Wyandot County in 1829, and died at Sycamore, Ohio, in May, 1911, when 97 years of age. His father was an early preacher in the Albright, now the Evangelical Church, to which Mr. and Mrs. Kiess belong.

Notes for William Christopher Kiess:

A Centiennial Biographical History of Crawford County, Ohio. Chicago - The Lewis Publishing Company 1902; page 38:

William C. Kiess - The subject of this review is a self-made man who, without any extraordinary family or pecuniary advantages at the commencement of his career, has battled earnestly and energetically, and by indomitable courage and integrity has achieved both character and fortune. By sheer force of will and untiring effort he has worked his way upward and is numbered among the leading citizens of Crawford County, where he is now occupying the position of judge of the probate court, having entered upon the duties of his office on the 9th of February, 1900. His public service has demonstrated that the trust reposed in him is fully merited, and his name is now found on the record of reliable and capable officials in this section of Ohio.

Mr. Kiess was born on a farm in Whetstone Township, in 1857, and is a son of Jacob and Catherine (Delker) Kiess. His paternal grandfather, Christopher Kiess, was a native of Germany, received excellent educational privileges and became a successful teacher in his native land. Crossing the Atlantic to America, he followed the profession of teaching for twenty years in Pennsylvania. Jacob Kiess, the father of our subject, was born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, and after arriving at years of maturity wedded Catherine Delker, whose birth occurred in Germany, and who came to the United States when a maiden of fifteen summers. In the year 1850 they removed to Crawford County, locating upon a farm, which the father owned and operated until his death, which occurred in 1882, when he was seventy-one years of age. His wife passed away in 1885, at the age of sixty-nine years. They were people of the highest respectability, enjoying the esteem and good will of all with whom they came in contact. Of their family, four sons and a daughter are living, namely: William Christopher, of this review; Jonathan H., Simeon and Joseph H., all of whom are successfully following farming in Whetstone Township; and Mrs. M. A. Butts, of Hiawatha, Kansas. Two sons, Daniel and Samuel, and two daughters, Lydia and May Margaret, are deceased.

Born upon his father's farm, William Christopher Kiess was there reared and early took his place in the fields to assist in the work of plowing, planting and harvesting. In the public schools he acquired his elementary education, which was supplemented by study in the Ada Normal University in the year 1887-8. Subsequently he became identified with educational work, and for seven years was known as a competent instructor in the schools of Whetstone Township. His fellow townsmen, recognizing his worth and ability, then called him to public office, and for four years he served as clerk of the township, and was also land appraiser there. In the fall of 1899 he was elected to the office of probate judge of Crawford County and entered upon his duties February 9, 1900, for a three years' term, so that he is the present incumbent. He is extremely faithful, prompt and reliable in performing the labors that devolve upon him, and is making a most creditable record.

Mr. Kiess was united in marriage, in 1879, to Miss Sarah E. Wagner, a daughter of John and Mary Wagner, of Whetstone Township, who came to Crawford County from Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, about the year 1852. Both have now passed away, the father dying at the age of sixty-four years, the mother being called to her final rest when sixty-nine years of age. The marriage of the Judge and Mrs. Kiess has been blessed with two children, Thomas Clinton, who is now seventeen years of age and is a student in the high school, and Bessie Belle, who is also pursuing her studies in the schools of Bucyrus. In his political affiliations the Judge has ever been a Democrat, and keeps well informed on the issues of the day, politically and otherwise. His religious views are indicated by his membership in the Evangelical church. On the 15th of March., 1900, he removed his family to Bucyrus, where they now occupy a pleasant home, which is celebrated for its gracious hospitality. In the county which has been his home throughout his entire life Judge Kiess has made many warm friends, owing" to his possession of those sterling traits of character which everywhere command admiration and respect.

William C. Kiess, vice-president of the Second National Bank of Bucyrus, Ohio, is also largely interested in real estate and conducts an extensive business along this line, dealing in both city realty and farm property. He has been a representative citizen of Crawford County for many years and has frequently been honored by election to offices of trust and responsibility by his fellow citizens. He was born on his father's farm in Whetstone Township, Crawford County, Ohio, in 1857, and is a son of Jacob and Catherine (Delker) Kiess.

Jacob Kiess was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, a son of Christopher Kiess and wife, who were natives of Germany. Grandfather Kiess was an educated man and first taught school in his native land and afterward, for twenty years in Pennsylvania. He thus was useful in his day and generation although he never accumulated as much property as have a number of his descendants. In 1850, Jacob Kiess and wife settled on a farm in Crawford County, improved it and there he died in his seventieth year, in 1882. In early manhood he had married Catherine Delker, who was born in Germany, where she lived until fifteen years of age. She survived her husband, passing away in 1885, when aged 69 years. They were members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church and were worthy of their name and profession of faith. Of their children there are three sons and one daughter living, namely: William C., Simeon, Joseph F., and Mrs. M. A. Butts, of Hiawatha, Kansas. William C. Kiess was reared on the home farm and early took part in the necessary toil that successful cultivation of land demands. His education, however, was in no way neglected and he was ambitious as well as intelligent. After attending the public schools he enjoyed higher training in the university at Ada, Ohio, where he was specially prepared in the Normal classes for educational work. For seven years afterward Mr. Kiess taught school, confining his efforts to Whetstone Township, and he met with a large measure of success. He looks back upon that period as a useful season of his life, in which he did his best and felt rewarded for his efforts. Among his warmest friends of the present are those who were once his pupils. From the school-room Mr. Kiess entered public office, serving as township clerk for four years and as land appraiser in his township. On February 9, 1900, he entered upon the duties of probate judge of Crawford County, to which honorable office he had been elected in the previous autumn, and his services on the bench demonstrated his particular fitness for that position. Judge Kiess subsequently turned his attention to dealing in real estate and has numerous additional interests. He is a notary public and maintains his office in the Rowse Building.

Judge Kiess was married in 1879 to Miss Sarah E. Wagner, a daughter of John and Mary Wagner, old residents of Whetstone Township, who have long since passed to their final rest. Two children living were born to Judge and Mrs. Kiess, a son and daughter, Thomas Clinton and Bessie Belle. Judge Kiess and family are members of the Evangelical church. Their pleasant and hospitable home is at No. 475 Galion Street, Bucyrus.

Notes for Samuel Kiess:

Mr. Kiess has quite a rare collection of bric-a-brac, which is of very great value to a lover of relics as he is. He has a Bible, the former property of a German in New York, that was printed in the year 1668, and for which he has been offered $3,000, refusing to take that amount. It is about 16" long x 10-1/2" wide x 6" thick, and is bound in what is supposed to be the leather made from the skin of a hog, with heavy brass corners and clasps, and was printed in Frankfort, Germany. He also has a fine collection of ancient coins and currency, among which is a three cent piece issued by the West Branch Bank of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, on the first of January 1863; a ten-cent piece from the Williams County, Ohio, and also some from the State Bank of Ohio, bearing an early date.

Notes for Christian Wurster, Jr.:

History of Richardson County Nebraska; published 1917 B.F. Bowen & Company, Inc. Indianapolis, Indiana; page 1149:

Another foreign-born citizen of western Richardson County who has been successful in our land of many opportunities and has been enabled to retire from active life is Christ Wuster, of Dawson, Grant Township, Richardson County. He was born in Germany, May 13, 1848, a son of Christ and Rosanna (Likes) Wuster, natives of Germany. The father was born on December 14, 1821, and died on February 1, 1885. The mother was born on February 19, 1823, and died in January, 1888. They were parents of nine children, eight of whom are living.

The Wuster family remained in their native land until 1851, when they immigrated to America, locating in Pennsylvania, in which state the parents spent the rest of their lives, and there their son Christ, Jr., grew to manhood, attending the common schools, and for several years worked on a farm in Lycoming county. After his marriage he came to Nebraska in 1890, and located on a farm four miles north of Dawson, in Porter precinct, paying ten dollars an acre for his land, which he improved and tilled with success until 1904, becoming one of the leading general farmers and stock raisers of Porter precinct. He then retired from active life and moved to the village of Dawson, where he bought a home and there he has since resided. While on the farm he made a specialty of breeding Shorthorn cattle.

On September 25, 1873, Mr. Wuster was married to Martha Marquardt, who was born on January 31, 1850, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. She is a daughter of Fred and Rosanna (Keiss) Marquardt, both natives of Germany, from which country they came to America with their respective parents and located in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, the father being only ten years old when they crossed the Atlantic. They grew to maturity in the old Keystone state and were married there. Mrs. Martha Wuster was reared and educated in her native state. The following children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Wuster: Anna, who is the wife of Walter Kirk and they live on the Wuster home farm in Porter precinct; Charles, who is also living on the home place; Clara, wife of Charles Perry, now living in California; Henry, who lives in California; Thomas Frederick, who lives on a farm one mile north and one-half mile east of Dawson;

David E., deceased; John A., who lives in California, and Mrs. Mary Dillon, also of California.

Christ Wuster, Jr., deserves a great deal of credit for what he has accomplished since coming to Nebraska, for he then had but six hundred dollars. He went in debt for his farm of three hundred and twenty acres, but worked hard and managed well and success eventually crowned his efforts. For several years he hauled his wheat to Salem Mills and exchanged it for flour. He lived in the old log cabin on his land for some time, or until he was able financially to build a better residence. There was considerable native timber on his land, and he got from his own woods most of the lumber with which to build his barn and other buildings. There was an apple orchard on his place, which for some time was the only one in Richardson County. This orchard brought him large returns, his apples being in great demand at fancy prices. Politically, he is a Democrat. He and Mrs. Wuster belong to the Evangelical church.

Notes for Michael Auck:

Michael Auck was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, July 23, 1842. He received a good common-school education, and has been doing business for himself ever since he reached his majority, although he and his parents always made their homes together. He was united in marriage with Miss Caroline Ehman Sept. 20, 1866. She was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, Feb. 9, 1845. There are six children from this union - Mary J., John C., Lacy E., William H., Priscilla S. and Samuel F. Mr. Auck owns 204 acres of well-improved land, and is one of the prominent and influential men of Whetstone Township. He is the present Township Treasurer. He is a Democrat in politics, and a member of the German Reformed Church.

A CENTENNIAL BIOGRAPHICAL HISTORY OF CRAWFORD COUNTY, OHIO. CHICAGO - The Lewis Publishing Company 1902; page 184:

MICHAEL AUCK, a well known resident of Bucyrus, is a son of Christopher Auck, a native of Germany, born in Wurtemberg January 31, 1813. The name was originally spelled Auch. The father obtained a fair education in his native land, and at an early age was apprenticed to learn the tailor's trade. In the year 1831 he emigrated to the United States, locating in Pennsylvania, where, in 1841, he was united in marriage to Rachel Wagner. By this union three children were born, the living being Michael and Elizabeth, while Mary is now deceased. In the year 1848 the father removed from Pennsylvania to Crawford County, Ohio; and purchased a farm in Whetstone Township. His first wife died on the 2nd of September, 1875, and on the 7th of September of the following year he was united in marriage to Catherine Flick, who was born in 1818, and since the demise of her husband has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Kunkle, of Bellefontaine, Ohio, with whom she is now living, in her eighty-fourth year. Christopher Auck was long a respected and honored citizen of Crawford County. He never sought or desired office, but undoubtedly could have enjoyed political preferment had he so desired. He was a reliable citizen, a faithful friend and considerate neighbor, and wherever known was held in high esteem.

Michael Auck, whose name forms the caption of this review, was born in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, July 23, 1842, and acquired a good common-school education. On attaining his majority he started out in life on his own account, and on the 20th of September, 1866, he wedded Miss Caroline Ehman, who was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, February 9, 1845. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Auck have been born six children: Mary J., who became the wife of D. S. Schieber, of Bucyrus, in 1887; John C, who is living on the old homestead in Whetstone Township, and who in 1892 married Ora Andrews, a daughter of F. L. Andrews, of Liberty Township; William H., who in 1898 wedded Theresa Seifert, of Jefferson county, Pennsylvania, and was for one year an assistant in the office of county treasurer, his father being his superior, after which the position of assistant cashier in the Second National Bank was tendered him and accepted; Lucy E., who was married, in 1890, to J. E. Myers, of Liberty Township; Priscilla S., who, in October, 1900, became the wife of H. G. Hoover, of Bucyrus; and Samuel E., who was married, in December, 1900, to Lulu Viola Knoedler. He succeeded his brother William in the position of deputy treasurer, and retained the office under the successor of his father, being now the bookkeeper for the American Gay-Working Machinery Company.

Michael Auck was elected township treasurer of Whetstone Township in 1880, and continued to serve in that position for seven years. On his retirement he became actively identified with business life, and has been connected with several mercantile ventures and industrial pursuits. He has devoted some time to the operation of his farm, and at intervals has engaged in the administration of estates, often acting as guardian and trustee. In all of these the character of the man has been attested by his honesty and integrity in the discharge of his duties. Now, when almost sixty years of age, Mr. Auck is in the vigor and prime of an active business life, and frequently lends his aid for the transaction of business affairs in the office of county treasurer. In the year 1895 he became a candidate for that position and was elected, and on the 7th of September, 1896, was installed in that office, which he held for two consecutive terms. Upon his retirement, in 1900, his friends and associates presented him with a beautiful gold headed cane, appropriately inscribed, as a testimonial of respect for him and in appreciation of the honesty and fidelity with which he had discharged the duties committed to his keeping. As the result of thirty years of continued and well directed effort in business affairs he is now the possessor of a comfortable competence, a handsome residence in Bucyrus, together with a farm of one hundred and sixty acres in Liberty Township and another of two hundred and four acres in Whetstone Township, Crawford County. His land is very valuable and productive and therefore brings to him a good income. In his political views he has always been a Democrat of the Jeffersonian type, and in his religious belief is connected with the German Reformed Church.

MICHAEL AUCK, who has been a leading citizen of Bucyrus, Ohio, for the past 15 years, and a resident of Crawford County since he was six years old, is a member of an old peasant family of Germany, his ancestors having lived in the village of Moehringen, Wurtemberg, near the present noble city of Stuttgart, as far back as 1600. The Aucks were of the class that is rightly named the backbone of the country to which it belongs-sturdy people in all their characteristics, quiet, industrious, religious and law abiding. For generations they tilled the soil but in more recent times they have entered the trades and professions and have proved their quality in every line of activity.

The Auck family of Crawford County, Ohio, traces its direct line to George Auck, who was born in Germany, in, 1775, and died in 1830. He was a small farmer and he gave generous support to the Lutheran Church. His wife was named, Rosina Frank, whose family ancestry and circumstances were similar to his own, and she also died in Germany. One of her brothers, Jacob Frank, came to America and located in Medina County, Ohio, where his descendants still reside. Two sons and three daughters were born to George and Rosina Auck and with the exception of one daughter, all came to America. The first of the family to cross the Atlantic Ocean was Christopher Auck and he was followed by his brother Michael and his two sisters, Christina and Dorothea, the former of whom was then the wife of Jacob Ulmer and they died in Pennsylvania. Dorothea Auck never married but lived into advanced age and died in Crawford County.

Christopher Auck was born January 31, 1813, and died January 20, 1896. He grew to the age of 18 years in his native province, before that time realizing that in the closely settled district of his birth it would be almost impossible for him to secure enough land to enable him to live as a farmer, hence he learned the tail-or's trade and made use of the first money he was able to earn thereby and save, in the payment of his passage to America, the land of opportunity. He had made his way to Havre, France, undoubtedly working as a journeyman as he traveled, and at that port embarked on one of the old-time sailing vessels which voyaged from European harbors to the United States in the emigrant service. Although for 57 days he was on the ocean, suffering greatly from sea sickness and from the hardships that made a sea voyage at that time sometimes a terrible experience, he reached land safely in 1831, landing at the port of New York. From that city he traveled to Philadelphia in a coasting vessel and there found employment at his trade and worked in different tailor shops for two years. He was just 21 years old when he started on foot from Philadelphia for Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, and after reaching there turned his hand to anything that came his way in the line of honest work, all the time cherishing the hope of being able to secure farm land.

In Lycoming County, in 1841, he was married to Rachel Wagner, who was born April 1, 1820, and died in Crawford County, Ohio, September 2, 1875. Her parents were John and Rosa (Stroble) Wagner and they were old neighbors of the Aucks in Wurtemberg, Germany, where they married and afterward emigrated to America and spent their subsequent lives in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. They were members of the religious sect called Pietists, a name given to a body of reformers in the Lutheran Church in Germany. The leader of this movement was Philip Jacob Spener, pastor of a Lutheran Church at Frankfurt, whose teachings were adopted as rules of life by a considerable number of pious people, and whose written work, named, Three Desirable Things in Religion, was something of a text-book with the Pietists, as similar publications of belief are acceptable to many people of the present day. At one time there was a flourishing Pietist colony in Lycoming County, many, of the sect having found religious freedom in America, the observance of their religious freedom in America, the observance of their religious rites not being permitted in Germany after Pastor Spener's death. To this body of good people, for self denial and close adherence to the Scriptures marked their life and conversation, the Strobles belonged. After the death of his first wife, Christopher Auck was married to Mrs. Catherine (Patterson) Flick, September 6, 1876.

About the time of his marriage, Mr. Auck acquired 100 acres of land in Lycoming County and he and wife continued to live there until 1848, when, with their three children - Michael, Elizabeth and Mary, the last named dying at the age of six years, they started in wagons to seek a new location in Ohio. For three weeks they journeyed before they reached Crawford county, where, shortly afterward, Mr. Auck purchased 50 acres of land in Whetstone township and this place continued to be his home as long as he lived and to its development and cultivation he devoted the larger part of his subsequent life. He became a well known and highly respected man and in the course of years added to his possessions until he became one of Whetstone township's men of ample fortune. While still living in Lycoming County he had become naturalized and afterward was an interested citizen. From conviction he was a Democrat and gave constant and hearty support to his party but never desired political office for himself. He was an earnest member of the Lutheran Church up to the time of death, which occurred January 20, 1896.

Michael Auck, only son of Christopher Auck, was born July 23, 1842, in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. From the age of six years until the present (1912) he has been a resident of Crawford County, for a half century living on the old homestead in Whetstone Township, which property came into his possession in 1876 and of which he is still the owner. In addition to managing and operating this farm he has had additional farm lands and during his long career as an agriculturist he justified all the old traditions of the family. He has, by no means, however, confined his energies to farming, his activities in other directions proving him to be one of the progressive men of his community. In public matters he has been very active, a strong Democrat like his father, and is recognized as the possessor of those desirable qualities which determine good citizenship. In 1880 he was elected treasurer of Whetstone Township and served as such until 1887, and in 1895 he was elected county treasurer, an office of great responsibility, in which he acquitted himself with credit throughout his two terms. In 1896 he moved to Bucyrus, where he is one of the elders of St. John's Reformed Church, having been active in this religious organization for years.

Mr. Auck was married in Whetstone Township to Miss Caroline Ehmann, who was born February 9, 1845, in Wurtemberg, Germany, a daughter of John and Frederica (Fritz) Ehmann. In 1853 the family came to Crawford County but some years later moved to Wyandot County, where the father of Mrs. Auck purchased 80 acres of land and continued to live there until his death, on October 12, 1870, when aged 68 years and ten days. The mother of Mrs. Auck died in Wyandot County, January 28, 1884, aged 69 years, one month and 29 days. In Germany the family belonged to the Lutheran Church but united with the Evangelical Association in America. Mrs. Auck is one of a family of two sons and five daughters.

To Mr. and Mrs. Auck six children were born: Mary J., who is the wife of D. S. Schieber of Bucyrus, and has two sons, Arthus L. and Harold L.; John C., a farmer residing in Whetstone Township, who married Orie E. Andrews, and has two sons, L. Paul and Ralph M.; Lucy E., who is the wife of J. E. Myers, of Bucyrus, and has two children, Miriam C. and Cyril E.; William H., a prosperous and respected business man of Bucyrus, who married Teresa E. Syphrit, and has one son, Dale Kenneth; Priscilla S., who is the wife of H. G. Hoover, residing at Chicago, Illinois; and Samuel E., who is associated with his brother William H., in the real estate and insurance business at Bucyrus, and who married Lulu V. Knoedler, and has two children, Carol Elizabeth and Donald K. Fraternally, Michael Auck is identified with both the Masons and the Odd Fellows.

Notes for Elizabeth Auck:

ELIZABETH HEINLEN, farmer; P. O. Broken Sword: was born Nov. 20, 1877; is a daughter of Christopher and Rachel (Wagner) Auck, of Crawford Co., widow of the late Henry Heinlen, who died March 23, 1877, who was a son of Lewis and Hannah (Wise) Heinlen. Since her husband's death, she has taken charge of the business pertaining to a farm of 160 acres, showing by the extensive improvements which she has made, and the high state of cultivation under which she has the land, that the weaker sex are capable of assuming responsible positions, if the opportunity is given them.

She was married to Henry Heinlen Feb. 4, 1868. From this union there were four children—Clara Malinda, born Nov. 28, 1868; Manuel Edward, born May 6, 1871; Caroline Rebecca, born Nov. 26, 1873; Sarah Elmira, born Oct. 31, 1876, died March 8, 1877: the remaining three are living at home with their mother. Notes for Dr. Robert Lee (Kunkel) Kunkle:

Dr. Robert Kunkle, Piqua physician for 35 years, dies early Wednesday:

"Highly Respected General Practitioner and Friend of Hundreds Succumbs in Hospital - was World Veteran and Former City Health Officer"

Members of the medical profession in Piqua lost a highly respected and deeply admired associate and many Piqua families relinquished a wise and sympathetic councilor when Dr. Robert Lee Kunkle, 63, of 32 West High Street, died at three o'clock this morning at Memorial Hospital. Although his health had been affected for some time by an incurable disease, it was only four weeks ago that he became too ill to engage in active practice.

A practitioner of general medicine in this city since 1904 when he was graduated from Ohio Medical School, Columbus, he had established himself as a considerate, benevolent, understanding and skillful family doctor in the 35 years that have elapsed since he began to practice.

As a young doctor he capably fulfilled the duties as Piqua Health officer and city physician. During the World War he was commissioned as a first lieutenant in the United States Medical Corps. Since his 21st birthday he had been actively affiliated with the Masonic lodge; he was a member of the Piqua lodge of Elks, the Presbyterian Church, the Miami County Medical association and the American Legion.

Born in Galion, Ohio, March 10, 1876, the son of Elias and Sarah Flick Kunkle. In 1895 he graduated from Galion High School and took his pre-med work at Otterbein College, Westerville. He received his degree in medicine at Ohio Medical School of Ohio State University, coming to Piqua shortly thereafter. He established his office at 22 West High Street where he remained until four weeks ago when illness forced him to discontinue practice.

On September 2, 1916, he married Miss Florence Cron, member of a well known Piqua family and has resided at 320 West High since then. Besides his widow he leaves two sisters, Miss Maude Kunkle of Newark, Ohio, and Mrs. George Jeames (Nelle) of Galion; a stepson, Francis Cron of Piqua and granddaughter, Ellen Margaret Cron, Piqua.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church with interment at Forest Hill Cemetery. Friends may call at the J.C. Cron Funeral Home Thursday afternoon and evening.

Akron, Ohio Obituary January 10, 1954

Services for Herman Zimmerly, 85, one of Akron's early meat dealers and founder of the Zimmerly Bros. meat market, will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday in the Billow Chapel. The Rev. Reuben J. Schorer will officiate. Burial will be in Mt. Peace Cemetery. Friends may call at the chapel after 4:30 today.

Mr. Zimmerly, a native of Switzerland, who learned the meat business as a young man in Akron, died Saturday in Barberton Citizens Hospital after a short illness.

He came to Akron from the "land of clocks and cheese," as he used to say, in 1881 and soon went to work in a butcher shop on Sherman Street. The owner was a Swiss who made the first frankfurters sold in Akron. Working under this man Mr. Zimmerly learned the mechanics of the meat business. When he was offered a partnership, he refused, knowing he wanted to go into business with his brothers, John, Jacob and Gottlieb. Mr. Zimmerly, youngest of the brothers, used to explain: "I wanted to work with my brothers because my mother told us that if you put four match sticks together you can't break them as easily as you can break a single stick."

The year 1894 marked the opening of the Zimmerly meat market at Main and Center Streets. Herman, youngest of six brothers, actually started the business. He was the last of the brothers to die. Besides John, Jacob, Gottlieb and Herman, there were Fred and Sam. The brothers peddled frankfurters and sausages by horse and wagon at first. Herman and several of his brothers made sausages in the basement of a house at Main and Center streets.

Their business grew and they built a packing house on the outskirts of town in 1904 - the "outskirts" now being Kenmore District. John ran the office, Jacob managed the packing house, Gottlieb handled the retail side of the business and Herman bought the cattle. The brothers moved the store in 1920 out to the site of the packing house because of the rapid expansion of business in the present heart of the city. Six years ago the two remaining Zimmerly brothers, Herman and Gottlieb, sold the business that had been in existence 53 years.

Herman, who lived at 4332 Manchester Rd, Portage Lakes, was a member of the Swiss Society, Akron Liedertafel and Turner Club and was an honorary member of the Kiwanis Club. Mr. Zimmerly's wife, Emma died 10 year ago. He leaves three nieces, Ida Zimmerly and Mrs. T. B. Tomkinson of Akron and Mr. G. S. Work of Auburndale, Florida and a nephew, Dr. J. F. Planz of Akron.

Rosina Catharina⁸ Herthneck (Rosina Katharina (Sophia)⁷ Renz, Johann Jakob⁶, Christina Barbara⁵ Curfess, Anna Barbara⁴ Auch, Jacob³, Andreas², Jakob¹) was born 09 Oct 1842 in Brunswick Twp, Medina Co, Ohio, and died 26 Jul 1875 in Brunswick, Medina Co, Ohio. She married Johann Carl (Charles Jetter) Yetter 10 Nov 1868 in Liverpool Twp, Medina Co, Ohio, son of Johannes Jetter. He was born 11 Oct 1842 in Liverpool Twp, Medina Co, Ohio, and died 17 Feb 1889 in Liverpool Twp, Medina Co, Ohio.

Burial: Jul 1875, Zion Lutheran Cemetery Valley City, Medina Co, Ohio

Confirmation: 1858, Zion's Evangelical Lutheran Church Liverpool Twp, Medina Co, Ohio

Notes for Johann Carl (Charles Jetter) Yetter:

Charles Yetter enlisted for Civil War service as a private, August 21, 1862, at Medina, Ohio (Medina County), August 21, 1862, in Company K of the 103rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiment, for a term of 3 years. Occupation: Shoemaker. He was mustered out May 18, 1865, at Camp Dennison Ohio by Order of the U.S. War Department. His brother, John H. Yetter, also served in Company K, of the 103rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

Charles was born in Liverpool Township, Medina County Ohio and died in what is now Brunswick Hills Township, Medina County Ohio. At the time of his death he lived with his wife and three children at what is now 1925 Marks Road in Brunswick Hills Township, Medina County Ohio. The original farmhouse was severely damaged by a fire in 2009 and by early 2011 it had been razed. The farm had originally consisted of 40 acres, on which were located the house which had been added on to, a large barn, and a smaller storage-type barn-like structure. The woman living on the property in about 1973 was named Carol Miller. The property was for sale then for $80,000.00. The property changed hands and in the 1990s was subdivided twice. The first parcel to the east now has a luxury home with a small private lake and a parcel to the north was developed into a cul-de-sac with access from Marks Road containing about 15 new homes. The property which contained the old farm house and barns was close to Marks Road and the house was even closer to the road. As of May 3, 2011, it is unknown what will become of this property.

Charles was married a first time and had two sons, John and George before his wife died. He then married Magdalena Groll. They actually had four children (William P. Yetter, Anna Yetter, and Minnie Yetter). One child died as an infant.

If is quite possible that the parents of Charles and John H. Yetter are buried in Lot 61. The cemetery records are very unclear if so. If they are neither has a grave stone.

Jacob⁸ Schweitzer (Agnes⁷, Agnes⁶ Arnold, Christian⁵, Johann Georg⁴, Anna Barbara³ Auch, Andreas², Jakob¹) was born 27 Oct 1833 in Leinfelden, Esslingen, Wurtemberg, and died 06 Feb 1887 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 28 Jun 1835 in Aichhalden, Calw, Wurtemberg, and died 18 Nov 1914 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Jacob Schweitzer:

May 12, 1938 – This community, like all others has its empty houses. Perhaps one of the most interesting is the old Schweitzer house across from the Drake homestead in Lodi Township. Today it is crumbling into ruins, birds nest in the rafters that once were part of a substantial house. A frame dwelling, an upright and a “lean-to”, well planned, a comfortable kitchen with spacious cupboards, the old stairway, a sagging door, a rotted window sill, a cellar yawning where the floor has caved in, all these are what the visitor today will see should he visit the place.

Time was when it was a fine home with a drive bordered on with either side with cherry trees, beautiful in season when loaded with their luscious fruit, a bower of shade in the summer heat, a welcome from the dust and heat of the road. The house was in good condition, plastered walls with the customary spring papering greeted the caller. A well filled wood box stood in the corner, the teakettle sang on the hearth. And the pungent odors of home cooking floated round the homestead. Here Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schweitzer lived about 60 years ago. They had three daughters, Caroline, Rose, and Mary. There were two sons, Will who was born in the house which still stands, although crumbling in decay, and Emanuel.

Mary Schweitzer married John Lindemann and still lives on the Pleasant Lake Road across from the Lodi town hall. Caroline married George Bauer and lived in Ann Arbor. Rose married Fred Lambarth. She and Caroline each passed on several years ago. Emanuel lives with the Will Lindemann family on Pleasant Lake Road and Will lives with the Scherdt brothers in Freedom.

Mrs. Schweitzer was Magdalena Keck before her marriage and came from Stuttgart, Germany. Mr. Schweitzer died before the turn of century and she continued to live in the home and to finish rearing their family. She was friendly soul and a good neighbor. Miss Gertrude Drake, who lived across the road from her, recalls her clearly. After Mrs. Schweitzer died the estate was settled and Fred Hack purchased the farm. No one ever has occupied the house since Mrs. Schweitzer died and what was once not only a comfortable, but a well-cared for home, has become a relic of its former glory. Situated on a knoll, it provided a most satisfying view in all directions. A clump of lilacs still clusters round the door as if hugging the memory of former years.

2758. Ernest F. O.⁹ Militzer (Augusta⁸ Roeder, Dorothea Barbara (Doris)⁷ Auch, Johann Christian⁶, Johann Jakob⁵, Johann Jakob⁴ Auch-Beck, Hans Jakob³, Jakob² Auch, Jakob¹) was born 23 Feb 1883 in Arlington Heights, Cook Co, Illinois, and died 09 Apr 1908 in McHenry Co, Illinois. He married Lydia Ketter 20 Jun 1905 in Milwaukee, Milwaukee Co, Wisconsin, daughter of Philip Ketter. She was born 04 Aug 1879 in Milwaukee, Milwaukee Co, Wisconsin, and died 1951.

Notes for Ernest F. O. Militzer:

Arlington Heights, Illinois, April 17, 1908 – Ernest Militzer was born at Arlington Heights Feb. 23, 1883, attended St. Peter's parochial school, and was confirmed when 14 years old by his grandfather, Pastor Reoder. He graduated from Arlington Heights public school, with the class of '98. Attended Addison Seminary 3 years, graduating in 1901, and immediately accepted a direct call to become the first teacher of Algonquin Lutheran parochial school, where he continued nearly seven years and built it up to 80 pupils. He married Miss Lydia Ketter, at Milwaukee, June 20, 1905.

Thursday forenoon, April 9, 1908, he completed the final examination of his school, and after dinner, at 2 p.m., started out with his gun for a few minutes' recreation. His home was on the banks, of Fox River. He went south about half a mile and shot a duck which drop into the water. He laid down is gun and followed his game downstream. In his haste he did not see a barbed wire, which lay concealed in the grass, his foot was caught and he fell forward striking his forehead on the roots of a tree that lay in his path. The shock caused instant death from concussion of the brain; the body fell in the water and was carried downstream a half mile by the current. (A farmer driving along, saw him shoot lay down the gun and start after his game.) He had an appointment to give a piano lesson at 4 o'clock, when he did of return, his wife became alarmed and notified neighbors. He was highly esteemed and many friends soon joined the searching party. They found the gun and farther on, his dog stood sentinel where the accident occurred. They then suspicioned he had been drowned and raked the river till midnight. They tried to telephone his relatives at Arlington Heights about 11 p.m., but did not get connection until 5:30 a.m. Over 100 men resumed raking the river and succeeded with a rope and grappling hook, in bringing the body to the surface, at 3:40 p.m., over 25 hours after the accident. A coroner's inquest was immediately held the post mortem by the doctors and verdict of jury, was that death was caused by concussion of the brain and not by drowning.

The funeral services were held at Algonquin, Monday, at 12 PM. The pastor, Rev. Moldenhauer, felt so sad that he invited the Dundee ministers to officiate. Rev. Stege preached in German and Rev. Doederlein in English. His church choir and pupils and choir of teachers sang at the funeral and 75 people from Algonquin accompanied the cortege to Arlington Heights, extend they sadly laid their beloved teacher to rest in the Lutheran cemetery. About 20 floral pieces decked in grave.

Deceased leaves his widow, an only daughter, born three days after her father's death, his father, mother, two brothers, Theodore and Fred O., three sisters Anna, Minna and Laura, also grandmother and many other relatives and friends who mourn his untimely death.

2759. Frederick Otto⁹ Militzer (Augusta⁸ Roeder, Dorothea Barbara (Doris)⁷ Auch, Johann Christian⁶, Johann Jakob⁵, Johann Jakob⁴ Auch-Beck, Hans Jakob³, Jakob² Auch, Jakob¹) was born 16 Aug 1885 in Arlington Heights, Cook Co, Illinois, and died 02 Apr 1932 in Arlington Heights, Cook Co, Illinois. He married Mathilda Niemeyer 25 Nov 1908 in Kane Co, Illinois, daughter of Christian Niemeyer and Engel Mueller. She was born 24 Jan 1888 in Hampshire, Illinois, and died 26 Jun 1956 in Oak Park, Cook Co, Illinois.

Notes for Frederick Otto Militzer:

April 8, 1932 - Arlington Heights and Wheeling Township were shocked Saturday evening to learn of the death of Fred O. Militzer, who suddenly passed away in his store in the Best building that afternoon. Mr. Militzer had been practically a sick man the last few weeks, his family and intimate friends realizing that he was far from well. He did keep to his home great deal and had only gone down town to keep an appointment made the previous day with a business acquaintance. When he did not return home in time for supper, Mrs. Militzer phoned to Charles Pavel, business associate, who on entering the store found his lifeless body.

If ever a man gave his life for his community, Mr. Militzer was that man. The greater part of his ill health can be attributed to his work and subsequent worry over the equalization and reduction of taxes and the court battle opposing the confirmation of the big sewer. He not only gave weeks and months of his time to these two things, but spent considerable of his own funds in an effort to reduce the excessive assessments levied against Wheeling Township real estate and the court battle over the big sewer. With the reassessment of real estate two years ago, he became member of a citizens committee formed to protect the interests of the property owners. He gave practically his entire time to this work and thru his efforts a great many reductions were secured. When the big sewer controversy arose, he again took up the cause of the property owners and organized the opposing forces that sought to force the return or saving of ap proximately $200,000 to the property owners.

Mr. Militzer has served as a village officer and spread the assessment rolls of the big sewer and other public improvements. He was very careful in this work and prided himself upon the thoroughness with which the assessments were determined and levied.

Fred O. Militzer was born in Arlington Heights Aug. 16, 1885 He married Matilda Niemeyer Nov. 25, 1908. He passed away April 2, 1932. He is survived by his wife and two daughters; a son-in-law and two grandchildren; his aged parents, one brother and two sisters.

Funeral services were Tuesday, April 5, at 2 o'clock at the home, and 2:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church in Arlington Heights. Rev. H. A. Kossack officiated. Mrs. Barry of Park Ridge sang; Miss Fern Lorenzen at the organ. The Lions club of Arlington Heights attended in a body. Interment was at Ridgewood cemetery.
