Obituary in Buffalo Commercial Advertiser on June 25, 1877:

On Saturday an old man named Frederick Auch aged eighty-five years, and residing at No. 252 Monroe Street, was run over by Erie switch-engine No. 2 at the freight-yards, East Buffalo. Both legs were cut off, the left below the knee, and the right at the ankle. He was trying to pass under some cars to pick up wood, when the engine moved, and he was unable to get out of the way. He was taken to his home and attended by Drs. Dorr and Van Peys, who expressed their opinion that he could not survive.

Auch died from the effects of his injuries about seven o'clock on Saturday evening. Coroner Almendinger will hold an inquest.

Reading, Pennsylvania, May 2, 1911 - The account of Cyrus L. Moser, executor of the estate of John Widroder, late of Birdsboro, who died April 13, 1910, was confirmed by the court. Camilla Bean, one of the legatees, filed exceptions to the account, alleging the failure of the accountant to charge himself with all the assets of the estate, and to account for the full proceeds of the sale of the household goods, and denying the justice of the credit dated November 30, 1910, of $312, for boarding the decedent. The estate is distributed as follows: Cyrus L. Moser, $35; inheritance tax, $31.81; William H. Fox, John H. She was born 15 Nov 1848 in Perkinsville, New York, and died 08 Jun 1924 in Corning, Steuben Co, New York.

Notes for Ernst Ludwig Auch:

Obituary:

Ernest Ludwig Auch one of the few remaining Civil War veterans in this section, died January 11, 1928, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James P. McCabe, of Campbell, New York. Death was caused by complications following a broken hip sustained 11 months ago.

Born in Germany on April 28, 1841, Mr. Auch came to this country when a boy. The greater part of his life was spent in Campbell, where for 55 years he was a highly esteemed resident. Nine years of his life he spent in Corning, where he has many friends.

Four years of his young manhood Mr. Auch gave to service of his country, taking part in some of the most important battles of the Civil War. He enlisted in Elmira, in November 1861, in Co. C., of the 86th New York state infantry, when only 19 years of age.

Instead of being sent to a training camp for a few weeks of hard training the regiment was sent directly to the front with scarcely any knowledge of warfare. Mr. Auch figured in every battle excepting the one at Cold Harbor. When this battle was fought, Mr. Auch was home, on a 30 day furlough, to recuperate from wounds.

Some of the most important battles in which he took part included the first and second battles of Bull Run, Spotsylvania, Fredericksburg, battle of the Wilderness, Hatteras Run, Brandy Station and Gettysburg. Mr. Auch was promoted to the rank of corporal during his service. He was mustered out of service in the fourth of July, 1865 at Elmira.

In December 1865 he was married to Anna Hoffman, of Corning, who died about two and one-half years ago. Mr. Auch Proved his loyalty to the country of his adoption during the Civil War and during his life time in this region, he proved his devotion to the high qualities of friendship and neighborliness that won for him an enviable standing in the community in which he lived.

Report of the Adjutant General:

Disagrees on one point, in that he supposedly suffered a second wound at this Battle of Cold Harbor on June 3, 1864. George McCabe, in an interview in 1985 stated that Ernest was shot in the heel while climbing out of a creek bank, fleeing from a Confederate soldier. Ernest's daughter, Harriet McCabe stated that he was shot in the ankle, and that he told her that he was lying down with his feet crossed, and the bullet went right through his ankle.

At Gettysburg, a monument inscription reads - "This regiment held this position the afternoon of July 2, 1863. Casualties, killed 11, wounded 51 missing 4". The regiment was present at the Appomattox Court House on April 9 for the surrender of Lee and his army. This regiment took large losses during the war. Of the total of 1318 men who had been enrolled in the regiment: 172 were killed and 611 wounded. By the time they participated in the Wilderness, there were 300 men of this regiment engaged in the battle, and 150 of them were killed, wounded or missing afterwards.

Notes for Anna Hoffman:

Obituary - newspaper:

Mrs. Anna Auch, wife of Ernest L. Auch, died Sunday evening at 9 o'clock, June 8, 1924, at her home at 62 Sterling Street following an illness of about a year. Mrs. Auch was born in Perkinsville, in the town of Wayland, New York on November 15, 1848. They were married in Corning, New York on December 18, 1865 in St. Mary's Church by Rev. Peter Colgan.

Following a residence of several years in Corning, they moved to Thurston (very near Campbell) on the Wisnicki Hill Road where they purchased a farm (later owned by William Reed). This was about 1 mile up the hill from the John McCabe homestead. They resided there for 22 years, and then moved to Campbell, living there for eight years. In 1913 they moved to Corning, making their residence at 62 Sterling Street, where they lived until Anna's death. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary there in 1915.

Mrs. Auch was a devout member of St. Vincent de Paul's church. She was a most lovable woman with the motherly qualities which won for her a large circle of friends. She was friendly with everyone, and was always ready to perform little deeds of kindness. She had diabetes and rectal cancer. She died on Sunday evening June 8, 1924 at her home at 62 Sterling Street following an illness of about a year.

Johannes (Mayelin)⁶ Miley (Johann Georg (Mayelin)⁵ Maile, Johann Jacob⁴ Mayelin, Johann Georg³ Mayhlen, Jakob² Maeylin, Michel¹) was born 10 Nov 1822 in Echterdingen, Esslingen, Wurtemberg, and died 02 May 1914 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan. She was born 28 Sep 1826 in West Brighton, Monroe Co, New York, and died 08 Jun 1903 in Niles, Berrien Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johannes (Mayelin) Miley:

Davenport, Iowa - The story of the sufferings of a wounded Marion County hunter in the Big Horn basin of Wyoming reached Knoxville relatives. John Miley, born and reared near Knoxville, has a claim in the basin. Last Friday Jan. 1, 1914 accidentally shot himself through the thigh, splintering the bone. Helpless and fearing that he would be eaten by wolves, he laid alone in the deep snow for 18 hours - from 2:30 Friday afternoon until discovered by searchers at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. He had kept himself from bleeding to death by baring the wounded limb and packing it with snow which froze to the edges of the jagged wound. The limb was so badly injured from the wound and the freezing that amputation was resorted to as soon as the services of a surgeon could be secured.

South Bend, May 5, 1914 – The body of John Miley, a former resident of Niles for many years and who was a pioneer business man, was brought to Niles Monday from Grand Rapids. The funeral services were held from the Methodist church, Rev. R. A. Wright officiating. Mr. Miley was 89 years old. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Hattie McReynolds of Grand Rapids. and two sons, Willis Miley of Niles and Clarence Miley of Chicago.

Notes for Albert Henry Stollsteimer:

Regina, Saskatchewan, Sept. 8, 1934 - William Gunderson, trusty prisoner at Regina jail who is interested in the Oxford Group movement, told authorities the other day all about a crime he committed back in 1931. Gunderson was sentenced Saturday to five months by Magistrate W. B. Scott, K.C., in Mounted Police court for breaking and entering a grocery store at Flaxcombe, Saskatchewan, on October 10, 1931.

But Gunderson will only serve about one month of the sentence which became effective Saturday. Gunderson still has four months to serve of a 15-month sentence imposed upon him at Lampman in December, 1933, for attempted safe "blowing." This term concludes in January, and the one imposed Saturday in February.

Gunderson's confession gave police their first clue to what was evidently a "perfect crime," Corporal W. Lambert, R.C.M.P., prosecuting, told the court. When the safe in A. H. Stollsteimer's grocery store at Flaxcombe was found "blown" there was not a single clue, he said, and first inkling of who was responsible came with Gunderson's confession.

Troy Beaver, speaking as a friend of Gunderson's, said the man wished to clear up his past as he had a job to go to upon completion of his term and wished to be re-united with his wife and child. Mr. Beaver was emphatic Gunderson would make restitution and repay for the damaged safe when re-established. A companion of Gunderson's in the Flaxcombe episode is at present in a Manitoba jail. Gunderson told the court his previous convictions included terms of seven months in Prince Albert for selling homebrew and one month in another jail for vagrancy in addition to the Lampman sentence.

- 2139 viii. Robert W. Butchee, born 03 Sep 1860 in Polk Co, Texas; died 07 Oct 1883 in Sipe Spring, Comanche Co, Texas.

Notes for Robert W. Butchee:

October 7, 1883 - Oakland church, six miles from Sipe Springs, in this county, was the scene of a dark and terrible tragedy last Sunday evening. The following is the most reliable report of the deplorable affair we have been able to obtain: Just after the congregation had left Oakland Church last Sunday, to attend a baptizing, Robert and William Butchee became involved in a quarrel with their brother-in-law, Carter Harris. One word brought on another until Robert told Harris that "he would fight him a fair fight." Harris then turned off into the brush if toward his horse, as he was going after something. The young men and a man name Jones were left together. One of the brothers suggested that they all go on home and avoid further difficulty with Harris.

The party stated, but before they had gone far Harris returned with a gun (which he had hidden in the brush) and called to them to "hold on." The young men stopped, but Jones kept on. Robert Butchee stated to meet Harris, when the latter said, "If you come any further I'll kill you." Robert stopped and replied, "I will not come any further, then," having previously told Harris that he and his brother were both unarmed. After a few more words, Harris leveled his gun and shot the young man, inflecting a mortal wound in the stomach. As Jones looked back, he saw Harris shoot and Robert Butchee fall. Harris then cocked the other barrel of this gun, with the evident intention of shotting William, but before he could do so, the young man wither struck the murderer with a rock or sprang like a tiger upon him, and the two strongmen were locked in a death struggle the ferocity of which is hard to describe, rising and falling and rolling in the dust with all the fury of wounded lions, each straining every nerve to kill each other. There is something terribly grim in a struggle like that - it means life for one, death for the other - and the silence is broken by hisses and curses of hate and revenge, mingled with the groans of the dying brother. Both fought within cool desperation that was awful to witness, but the furious fight was finally decided in favor of William Butchee, a boy of nineteen or twenty, who wrenched the gun from Harris's hands and struck him a violent blow over the head, felling him to the ground. As Harris would rise, young Butchee used the gun as a cudgel with terrible effect. Harris soon sank to the earth disabled, and his antagonist thought him dead. His injuries on the head are dangerous, but not necessarily fatal. Physicians think he will recover. Robert Butchee died in about an hour after being shot, his remains were brought to Comanche Monday and buried in the cemetery near town on Tuesday. He was about 23 years of age, and his sad end is greatly deplored by many sorrowing relatives and friends.

October 7, 1883 - It seems that Carter Harris had married the widowed sister of the young men, and the pair recently separated on account of cruel treatment to the woman and her little children. Harris has been a source of great annoyance to the family ever since, and it is said, he went to the church last Sunday with the avowed intention of killing Robert and William Butchee. If reports are correct, there will be a damning chain of evidence drawn around Mr. Harris in the criminal court. Harris was brought to town Thursday evening and lodged in jail, to await trail. William Butchee gave bond and will have an examining trial before Judge Brewer today.

Niles, Jan. 27, 1923 - William A Reddick, retired manufacturer and capitalist, died at the Battle Creek sanitarium Thursday night Jan. 25, 1923. Mr. Reddick submitted to an operation at Epworth hospital several weeks ago and then went to Battle Creek to recuperate. The deceased was born in Niles, Jan. 2, 1843, and was a son of John B. Reddick, who came to this country from Germany when he was 10 years old. Mr. Reddick was educated in the Niles public schools. He was for many years engaged in the manufacture of building brick with his brother, the late John Reddick. Afterward Mr. Reddick invented four articles and engaged in their manufacture until he retired a few years ago. The articles were wire shovels, doll beds, mole traps and forks. He was married to Miss Catherine Miley, of Niles, who survives him, in 1866. Of the two children born of this union, one Mrs. Ruth Martin, of Denver, Colorado, survives. A grandson also survives.

The body will be brought to Niles from Battle Creek Sunday afternoon on Michigan Central train No. 12, due in Niles at 12:35 o'clock and will be taken under Masonic escort directly to Silver Brook cemetery for burial.

South Bend, Nov. 3, 1923 – Carmel R. Smith, executor for the estate of William A. Reddick, deceased Niles resident has filed a petition in the circuit court, asking Judge C. E. White to file a format decree construing certain portions of the Reddick will. Mr. Reddick, a wealthy Niles manufacturer, died Jan. 26, 1923. He will made his wife, his daughters, Mrs. Herbert Martin, and the latter's son, his sole beneficiaries. The estate includes $43,600 in bonds now in the Harris Trust & Savings bank in Chicago. A clause in the will instructs the executor to hold the bonds in trust and as the clause is indefinite the executor asks for the court's opinion before entering into a bond with the Chicago firm.

Notes for Leah Jane (Hazel) McConaughey:

Fighting a losing battle for life which lasted more than a year, Mrs. Leah Jane Kuns, wife of George Kuns of this city, passed away at the Lusk hospital at 4:00 p.m. last Thursday, August 1st, her death attributed to a brain tumor and other complications. Mrs. Kuns was 39 years, 11 months and 8 days of age at the time she was claimed.

Funeral services were conducted from the chapel of the Peet Funeral home at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, August 4th, Rev. Millard H. Marshall, pastor of the Congregational church of this city officiating. Many of her wide circle of acquaintances, attesting the esteem in which she was held in life, paid final respects to this popular young woman at the services and banks of floral tributes adorned the area surrounding the casket.

During the chapel service, Mrs. Cecil Stark and Mrs. Joe Danaher sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Abide With Me." A vocal solo, "Sweet Hour of Prayer," was sung by Mrs. H. J. Templeton, Mrs. Otto Koekerlin accompanied all selections. The remains of Mrs. Kuns were laid at rest in the Lusk cemetery, borne to their last resting place by Cecil Stark, Thomas O. Miller, C.P. Owens, Joe Danaher, Glen L. Cates and C.E. Marvin. A brief graveside service was conducted by Rev. Marshall.

Mrs. Kuns was taken ill during the spring of 1939, and in June was taken to Rochester, Minnesota, where two major operations were performed in the Mayo Brothers hospital. Returning home, Mrs. Kuns rallied for a time, but in February of this year she again submitted to surgical treatment in the local hospital. Her condition from that time had been varied, and a little more than a month ago, she again entered the hospital for treatment. The tumor is believed to have developed early in the year, and since that time her condition gradually grew worse, although everything medical science could offer was provided for her. Because of her ever-present cheerful attitude and charming personality, Mrs. Kuns had acquired a wide circle of friends. All of these, along with the relatives are deeply grieved at her passing.

Leah Jane McConaughey Kuns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac McConaughey, was born at Attica, Iowa, August 4, 1900. She resided there with her parents until she was 14 years of age when she with her parents moved to Lambertson, Minnesota. She attended high school at Lambertson and took an active part in many social and church activities, especially in singing. While in Lambertson she made many friends.

Her parents moved to Lusk in 1919 and Miss Leah made her home with a sister at Des Moines, Iowa. While living there she met her husband, George Kuns and they were married there July 9, 1928. They resided in Des Moines until August, 1929, when they came to make their home in Lusk. Throughout the last year of her life when health failed her she remained cheerful and was always glad to meet her many friends, and the many kind words of sympathy attest the high esteem and love in which she was held by her many friends. Until her illness she had been employed at the Golden Rule store in Lusk and in that capacity made hundreds of friends throughout the community.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband, George D. Kuns; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac McConaughey; three brothers, Joseph of Lusk; Paul of Sheridan, Wyoming; and Ted of Borger, Texas; and one sister, Mrs. Kate Clark of Sandy, Oregon.

Out of town relatives attending the funeral were her brothers and sister, an uncle, Nelson McConaughey of Hay Springs, Nebraska, two cousins, Alex Mart and sister, of Hay Springs; Mrs. Ada McConaughey of Lambertson, Minnesota, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kuns of Clear Lake, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. A.R. Kuhns of Forest City, Iowa.

Notes for Charles M. Miley:

South Bend – Charles Miley, a member of the civil engineering corps of the Michigan Central railroad, committed suicide here Sunday afternoon March 13, 1915 by shooting himself through the head. Poor health is believed to be the cause of his act, as he was holding a good position and was in no trouble of any kind at the time of his death. His body was found in one of the small offices in the Michigan Central building at 5 o'clock, by A. M. Moore. It was thought that he had been dead several hours when discovered. He left home soon after dinner, and the probabilities are that he went direct in to the building in which he ended his life. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Miley, prominent members of Niles society. Mr. Miley, who is connected with the dining car service of Pullman company, was notified of his son's death by telegraph. He also leaves a sister, Miss Claudine Miley. Notes for Johann Ludwig (Lewis) Staebler, Jr.:

J. Louis Staebler, Sr., was born in Germany in 1820, and died in Cooper County, Missouri, in 1903. The ancestral seat of the Stabler family is at or near Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany. Mr. Staebler immigrated to America in 1853 and settled near Urbane, Campaign Co, Ohio, at that time, was in a more or less wooded condition and the forests in process of clearing. The soil was wet and malaria was prevalent among the settlers and residents. Mr. Staebler became afflicted with malaria and was advised by his family doctor to go west, entirely out of the malaria-ridden country.

He had friends in Missouri and learned through them of the excellence of the climate in the Cooper County neighborhood. Accordingly, he disposed of his property in Ohio, and drove across country in company with two other families, their belongings being carried in six wagons. In 1859, Mr. Staebler brought his belongings to Missouri with two teams and lived for the first two years on a farm south of Boonville and Cooper County in 1863, the Confederates raided the Staebler farm, stripped the farm and home of provisions and livestock and feed, and robbed him of his money and all his possessions. A battle was fought near the Staebler place between the Union forces under General Kratz Brown and Price's men. In 1873 he located on the farm owned by his son, J. Louis Staebler, Jr. His wife was Christina Graver. She was born near Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1833 and departed this life January 20, 1917. J. Louis Staebler was the only child of his parents.

Notes for Charles A. McCune:

Charles L. McCune, an old employee of the Shellabarger Mill & Elevator company, and one of the best machinists and millwrights in the business, died very suddenly in a boarding house at Mattoon Thursday night August 31, 1911, probably early in the evening. Last Sunday Mr. McCune left Decatur, apparently in perfect health, to build an elevator at Mattoon. Nothing more was heard from him until the message came announcing his death. The message came over the telephone to D. S. Shellabarger.

Mr. McCune had worked all day Thursday in his usual health and was not taken sick until after he had eaten supper. Then he complained of a very severe pain in his stomach, and before a physician could be summoned, he died. His brother-in-law, W. A. Phares, and Earl Dodd left Thursday night for the body and they were expected back some time today. His wife is visiting relatives in Ohio. She was notified last evening of his death and left this morning for Decatur. She is expected home this evening.

Charles McCune was born August 14, 1845, in Sangamon County. After a varied career in the west, he returned to Decatur in the '70's and embarked in the contracting business, erecting elevators and other buildings. A few years later he accepted a position with Shellabarger company and for thirty-four years was in its employ. He assisted in the construction of the mill on North Water Street. He married on Feb. 29, 1877, Miss Barbara Stabler. One child was born to them, Mrs. W. A. Phares.

Mr. McCune was a member of Coeur de Leon lodge, No 189, K. P. and of the Decatur lodge, No. 144, W.M.A. He was also a member of the Grace Methodist church. He is survived by his wife, daughter and one granddaughter, and by the following brothers and sisters: Clay McCune of Springfield; Robert McCune of Olean; Will McCune, Carthage, Missouri; Elmira Flagg, Pittsburg, Kansas, and Anna McCune of Jacksonville.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Earl B. Dodd and W. A. Phares returned from Mattoon yesterday morning August 31, 1911 with the body of Charles McCune, the well-known carpenter, who died suddenly in that place Thursday. The body was taken to the Dodd undertaking establishment. Funeral services probably will be conducted Sunday afternoon. The burial will be in Greenwood cemetery. Mr. McCune was widely known in Decatur because of his long residence in this city. Being a veteran mill builder and carpenter, he was acquainted with scores of workmen and members of building crafts. He was a member of Coeur De Leon Lodge No. 189, Knights, of Pythias, and Decatur lodge No. 144, Modern Woodmen of America.

Besides his wife, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. W. A. Phares, and one granddaughter. He also leaves three brothers and two sisters. They are, Robert McCune of Oreana, Clay McCune of Springfield, Will McCune of Carthage, Missouri, Mrs. Elmira Flagg of Pittsburg, Kansas, and Miss Anna McCune of Jacksonville.

May 12, 1916 - An order authorizing W. A. Phares as executor of the last will of Mary Mackordes to pay $1 into the county to be held in trust for George Mackordes, has been entered by Judge J. H. McCoy. As executor of the will Mr. Phares filed a petition asking for an order to that effect. He related that the will if Mary Mackordes had bequeathed the sum of $1 to her to her son, George Mackordes, that the beneficiary had been absent from this neighborhood for many years, that one knew his whereabouts, or whether he was alive or dead, and for that reason, as a step necessary in the settlement of the estate, he asked to be authorized to dispose of the one dollar legacy. The dollar will remain in the custody of County Treasurer John F. Schroll and succeeding county treasurers until the missing man comes and proves ownership.

She married Louis Wolfe Fribourg. He was born 02 Dec 1854 in Lawrenceburg, Dearborn Co, Indiana, and died 12 Jul 1922 in Decatur, Macon Co, Illinois.

Louis W. Fribourg died in Macon County hospital Wednesday morning July 12, 1922 at 11 o'clock. His death was due to apoplexy, with which he was stricken in Chicago a week ago. The body was taken to the rooms of Monsom & Wilcox and funeral, services will be in their chapel Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

For more than 45 years "Lou" Fribourg had been an active figure in Decatur. He came to this city about 1877 as a cigar maker and soon, with Steve Hubert, established a business as cigar manufacturers and that partnership continued until the death of Mr. Hubert. For many years Mr. Fribourg was one of the most active members of the Odd Fellow of Decatur, and during that period his store was headquarters for members of that fraternity when they were "down town" during early evening hours. For many years, more than 20, Mr. Fribourg served as a member of one of the committees of the annual state gathering of Odd Fellows in Springfield, and through that service, probably knew as many members of the fraternity in Illinois, as did any member who had not been a grand lodge officer.

In politics he was a Republican, and for twelve years served the Seventh ward as alderman. He was a man of quick perception, and in his active days was a considerable force in local politics. In 1910 he was census supervisor of the 19th congressional district and for six years during Dar Dindeen's term as mayor, served as desk sergeant in police headquarters. In December 1921 he was appointed one of the field men in the office of the state prohibition enforcement officer, and was in that service in Chicago when he was stricken with apoplexy.

L. W. Fribourg was born in Lawrenceburg, Indiana, Dec, 2, 1854. He was married to Miss Henrietta Stabler in Decatur, Nov. 24, 1880. She died in 1890. His second marriage was with Miss Alice Billinger in 1891. She died in 1916.

He leaves three children, David A. Fribourg, and Mrs. L. W. Stuckey, Decatur, and Mrs. Morris R. Goodwin, of Villa Grove. Also he leaves two sisters, Mrs. William Friedenberger and Mrs. M. Friedman, of Dallas, Texas. He was a member of Decatur lodge 65. I.O.O.F., since 1885 and was a charter member of Decatur camp. Modern Woodmen, and a charter member of the Cigar Makers' union No. 20 of Decatur.

Children of Henrietta Stabler and Louis Fribourg are:

2308. Christof Ludwig (Charles Ludwig)⁸ Schneider (Friederika (Johanna Frederica or Anna)⁷ Renz, Johann Georg⁶, Barbara⁵ Maile, Johann Jacob⁴ Mayelin, Johann Georg³ Mayhlen, Jakob² Maeylin, Michel¹) was born 04 Sep 1867 in Echtingen, Esslingen, Wurtemberg, and died 20 Jul 1927 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Mary V. Covert 29 Oct 1890 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Andrew Covert and Margaret Fitzgerald. She was born 05 Apr 1873 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 14 Nov 1925 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Christof Ludwig (Charles Ludwig) Schneider:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

C. Ludwig Schneider - Ann Arbor is greatly indebted to the fatherland for a large portion of its representative citizens, men of marked activity and enterprise in business who by a ready adaptability to the altered conditions of the new world have so directed their efforts here as to win personal success and also contribute to the general prosperity of the localities with which they are identified. To this class belongs Mr. Schneider, whose birth occurred in Echtingen, Stuttgart, Germany, on the 4th of September, 1867. His father, John George Schneider, was a prominent contractor of that place, making his home there up to the time of his death, which occurred in 1878. His widow, Mrs. Frederica Schneider, is now living in Ann Arbor. In their family were seven children: Fred, who is now residing in Galveston, Texas; Gottlieb, Victor and Charles, who are all employed in Ann Arbor; C. Ludwig, of this review; Clara Schneider, who is living with her mother in this city; and Mrs. Fredericke Schmid.

C. Ludwig Schneider pursued his education in the schools of his native country but in his youth accompanied his mother on their removal to the United States and learned the trade of a tinner in the employ and under the direction of John Ffisterer, of this city. He has since continued in the same line and now conducts a large heating, tinsmith and plumbing business at No. 207 South Fifth Avenue, where he employs a large force of workmen and also utilizes several wagons in connection with the business. He established this enterprise in 1896 and from the beginning has met with gratifying success, the number of his patrons increasing year by year, his fellow townsmen appreciating his capable workmanship and fidelity to every business trust. His own practical understanding of the trade enables him to carefully direct the labors of those whom he employs and he is always just and considerate in his treatment of those who are in his service as well as honorable in his relations to those who award him contracts in his chosen line.

In 1890 Mr. Schneider was united in marriage to Miss Mary Covert and they have become the parents of five children: Isetta, Irene, Estella, Ludwig and Theodore. The family home is an attractive residence at No. 548 South First Street built in pleasing style of architecture and it is a favorite resort with the many friends of the family. Mr. Schneider exercises his right of franchise in support of the men and measures of the Republican Party, with which he has been identified since becoming a naturalized American citizen. He belongs to Ann Arbor lodge of Odd Fellows, to the Knights of the Maccabees and the Loyal Guards and is a valued representative of these different organizations because he is loyal to their principles and teachings. The family is all communicants of St. Thomas' Catholic Church.

Notes for William George Miley:

December 12, 1913

It took jury 35 minutes Thursday night of award Mrs. Mabel Miley $500 in the oddest alienation suit that was ever tried in the Washtenaw circuit court. Mrs. Mable Miley was suing Mrs. Margaret Miley for $2,500 for stealing the love of William Miley, once the husband of Mabel, and the husband of Margaret. Mrs. Mabel Miley testified that his rival won the affections of his husband when she, Mabel, was ill, and the defendant nursed her.

January 3, 1914

William Miley accused of assault and battery on complaint of his wife, Margaret Briggs Miley, was arraigned in Justice William C. Doty's court today. Because of the absence of Prosecuting Attorney George Burke, who was in Ypsilanti justice court at the time, the case went over until next Saturday. Miley is at liberty on $100 bail furnished by Silas A. Elsifor. He will be defended by Attorney Fran DeVine, who was also the attorney for his first wife, Mrs. Mabel Miley, when she secured a verdict of $500 for the alienation of her husband's affection against his second wife, the complainant against Miley in the present case.

Notes for Hildegard Owen Rose:

Hildegard Owen Rose Dahl was born on September 23, 1920 and passed away on Tuesday, October 3, 2017 in Bay Head, New Jersey. Judy, as she was known, was the daughter of the late Willis Miley Rose and Hildegard Owen Rose. She was predeceased by her husband, Werner F.J. Dahl, her brothers, Gilbert White Rose, Henry Martin Rose II, and her sister, Dorothy Dunham Rose DeLaGarza.

Judy grew up in Montclair and summered in Bay Head. She graduated from the Kimberly School, attended National Park College in Washington, D.C. Sweetbriar College, and graduated from the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill with a Bachelor's degree, where she also received her Master's degree. Her professional career included teaching theatre arts in Wheeling, West Virginia and working in the rare books library at Princeton University. She also promoted knitting skills by creating "Mitten Kits" for Columbia Minerva. Her talents and education were clearly wide-ranging, demonstrating how ahead of her time she was.

Her avocations were also multi-faceted; notable were her knitting and needlepoint skills, for which she received many awards. She loved dogs; her devotion to her Dachshund's was well-known. She sang in the choir at All Saints' Church in Bay Head for many years, and was also a member of the DAR. One of her greatest loves was sailing. She was a lifelong member of the Bay Head Yacht Club, where she was known for her sailing skills and love of the sport, which she imparted to many through mentoring and teaching the skills necessary to race and win. Judy had numerous trophies for sailing; after her racing days ended, she still participated by working on the race committee. She also championed the history and activities of the yacht club, especially their annual talent show, the Bubbles. She worked both behind the scenes and onstage for the Bubbles show throughout the 1930's, 40's and 50's, echoing her love of theatre; she was still a participant onstage in her 90's. Judy also loved humor in all its forms, and is endowing a Chair in the Theatre department at the University of North Carolina, appropriately named for her love of humor, irony, and Dachshunds- the "Paradachs" chair.

Judy had nine nieces and nephews, 12 grand nieces and nephews and 18 great-grand nieces and nephews. She also had many good friends, who valued her wry sense of humor, straightforward outlook, and genuine caring. She will be missed.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, Nov. 25th, at 11:00 at All Saints' Church, Lake Ave., Bay Head, New Jersey.

Burial: Mar 1975, Bethlehem Cemetery Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan

Notes for Junius Jacob (James) Mayer:

Junius J. Mayer married and divorced from Martha Mayer (see reported divorce case, Martha Mayer v. Junius J. Mayer (6 Mar 1934), which reports, in part:

The parties lived together contentedly for about 25 years. Their separation and divorce were caused by the relations of defendant [Junius Mayer] with a woman whom he met in Detroit about two years ago and for whom he was willing to leave his family and home. The parties have one child, a son 26 years old, underdeveloped mentally, able to do much simple farm work but needing direction and personal care. He lives with his mother.

The parties have always lived on a farm. Both are industrious and frugal and, except for defendant's lapse, bear excellent reputations. Defendant also has established a business in sale of tractors and farm implements, which he conducted from the homestead.

The family home is a farm of 150 acres, inherited by defendant. He owns also a farm of 40 acres, a half interest in 140 acres, a house and lot in Ann Arbor, and personal property. The court awarded plaintiff the homestead, some livestock, farm tools and one automobile, together worth from $15,000 to $18,000, and ordered defendant to pay her $50 per month during her lifetime, with the understanding that as long as the son makes his home with plaintiff defendant should not be liable for any additional sum for his support. The property retained by defendant is worth $24,000. He complains that he cannot conduct his tractor business anywhere else than on the homestead and offered to give plaintiff all the rest of the real estate if he could have the home.

Defendant inherited all the land or purchased it with inherited money. However, plaintiff assisted him in conserving it and in acquiring personal property. The property does not admit of ready division upon the basis of values alone. The proportion of worth of the award to the wife is rather more than is usual. But there is no rigid rule of division and the security of a living for the wife is a major consideration. It does not appear that the homestead may be divided conveniently. It does not appear that other property would be as suitable for the wife's livelihood. She ought not to be driven from her home because of defendant's misconduct. Defendant's business can be readily established elsewhere. We think the court reached an equitable result and it should not be disturbed.

3219. Dr. David Willard⁹ Zahn (Herman Henry⁸, David⁷, Johann Michael⁶, Anna Barbara⁵ Stierlin, Ursula Margaretha⁴ Mezger, Anna Katharina³ Mayelin, Hans² Maeylin, Michel¹) was born 10 Aug 1896 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co, Pennsylvania, and died 16 Jul 1977 in Jenkintown, Montgomery Co, Pennsylvania. He married Dorothea Alma Lutz 1922 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co, Pennsylvania, daughter of George Lutz and Ida Northardt. She was born 30 Mar 1898 in Pennsylvania, and died 24 Apr 1947 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Dr. David Willard Zahn:

April 30, 2014 - Pitman man's photos show new side of World War I

Vernon and Irene Castle had reached the peak of their fame in 1914. The husband-and-wife dance team starred in Irving Berlin's first Broadway show, Watch Your Step. They helped popularize the Fox-trot as well as ragtime, jazz rhythms, and African American music for dance. But Vernon gave up stage and stardom to fly combat missions during World War I - a decision that led to his death in a plane crash in 1918.

D. Willard Zahn of Philadelphia was there and captured the wreckage in one of 57 black-and-white pictures he assembled in an album later passed on to his son, Dick, of Pitman, Gloucester County. As the First World War's centennial is marked this July, the rare, haunting images of pilot training open a window on a bygone time when fixed-wing flight was still new and many military cadets were killed learning to fly rickety biplanes. One picture shows an obviously dejected pilot leaning against a wing as others step through a cotton field to inspect the plane he had just crash-landed. Top of Form, Bottom of Form, Top of Form, Bottom of Form. In others, a flier stands with a bandaged hand and face next to another smashed aircraft; a wrecked biplane marks the spot where a pilot died; and cadets sit on bunks and trunks in spartan Texas barracks, their flight suits hung nearby.

"These guys in World War I were the astronauts of their day," said Dick Zahn, 85, a professor of psychology who retired about 20 years ago from what was then Glassboro State College. "They were pioneers who took their lives in their hands." Zahn treasured his late father's album and shared it over the winter with John Leach, vice chairman of the Pitman Memorabilia Committee, which seeks to preserve the community's history. "I think flying was my father's great adventure," said Zahn, a Navy veteran who served in the United States at the end of World War II, and was briefly stationed in Kwajalein in the Marshall Islands and near Manila in the Philippines during the Korean War. "I guess he wanted a record of his military service, but he was very, very modest and never talked about it."

Leach was surprised to see the photos and scanned them onto a DVD for Zahn. He also checked with the National World War I Museum in Kansas City, Mo., to learn more. The images "documented an era 100 years old, from the ground school to the flight school," said Leach, a former New Jersey state trooper and civilian pilot who also lives in Pitman. "It's a real find. Where else would you find anything like this?" Numerous World War I pictures have survived, but Zahn's clear images from flight training exercises in Texas are uncommon as a personal, never-before-seen history of a pilot's experience.

"They're evidence of what we're trying to preserve," said Doug Lantry, curator of the National Museum of the U.S. Air Force at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio. "The tools, context, and surroundings [in photos] can often tell us things left out of documentary sources. "Bottom line - this is a valuable visual record," he said. "A good set of undamaged prints from that era is an exciting thing."

D. Willard Zahn completed his preflight training at Princeton University before heading to Carruthers Field near Fort Worth, Texas. His photos reflect his whole training experience. But Army Second Lt. Zahn never found himself in combat. The war ended Nov. 11, 1918, and he returned to Philadelphia, where he worked as a grade school physical education teacher, an elementary school principal, associate superintendent of schools and Temple University's dean of the College of Education. "I had a feeling he never looked back at that album," said Dick Zahn. "He lived in the present and never volunteered much about his training.

But over time, the younger Zahn learned more about his father's experience from reading histories. "Think about it," he said. "The Wright brothers had just flown [a power-driven, heavier-than-air machine] for the first time in 1903 and my father is flying in 1918.

"They didn't know how to pull out of spins back then," he said. With so many deaths, "the odds against you were pretty bad." Beating the odds seemed easy for Vernon Castle, the ballroom dancer, who started flying for the Royal Flying Corps during World War I. He completed 300 combat missions over the Western Front, shot down two aircraft, and was awarded the Croix de Guerre.

In 1918, Castle was assigned to training American pilots and was taking off with a student on Feb. 15 when his plane stalled as he tried to avoid another aircraft. He wasn't able to recover and crashed. Apparently, his pet monkey had been along for the ride. "Neither the other pilot, his student cadet, nor Vernon's pet monkey, Jeffrey, were seriously injured," according to a monument at the crash site.

D. Willard Zahn grabbed his camera and took a photo of the wreckage. "My father must have known him," said Dick Zahn. "It must have been terribly sad." Castle "was a celebrity, a great dancer, a guy with all these hundreds of hours in the air," he said. "How could it happen?" The early pilots of that time "were doing something dangerous, new and exciting," said Lantry. "And that's why a lot of them wanted to do it."

Notes for Richard Harold (Dickie) Gauss:

Richard "Dickie" Gauss 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gauss, 802 W. Washington St., was killed instantly when he was struck by lightning on the Barton Hills Country Club golf course about 6 o'clock last night. Richard had been caddying for two golfers, Josephine Lange, 71 S. Forest Ave., and Ronald Butler Detroit. It was his first day as caddy at the Barton Hills course. A sudden rainstorm had interrupted the golf game and the party had taken refuge under a clump of closely-spaced trees between the ninth and first fairways, about half way up the latter. As the rain continued, Guy Russell, another caddy, was sent to the clubhouse after a car to bring the party to shelter. While he was gone, lightning struck the tree beside Richard was standing.

Miss Lange and Mr. Butler neither of whom was injured, were said to have felt a shock and looked around and saw Richard lying on the ground. The three of them had been standing about three feet apart and Richard was about two feet from the tree which was struck. Physicians and Detroit Edison Co. employees administered artificial respiration for two hours, and the sheriff's department was called to put its inhalator into service. Richard's father is a lieutenant in the Ann Arbor fire department and a veteran golfer for who Richard had caddied a number of times.

Miss Lange is a former city women's championship golfer and Mr. Butler, who is employed of the Michigan Inspection Bureau, is a former resident of Ann Arbor, son of the late Hackley Butler, a former Chamber of Commerce secretary. Richard was well-known locally as a tap dancer and was described by critics as having considerable talent. He appeared in numerous University and city dance revues and dramatic productions since 1935 and had taken part in the annual "Juniors on Parade" show for several years. He also participated in Children's Theater productions, minstrel shows and school plays. As well as his dancing and dramatic work. Richard was known for his ability as a singer and pianist.

Richard was born July 6, 1928, in Ann Arbor. He was a student at Slauson Junior High School, where he was to have entered the ninth grade this fall. He attended Bach elementary school, where he was a safety patrol captain. He was a member of the Bethlehem Evangelical Reformed Sunday school and was confirmed in the church this year. Besides his parents, he is survived by his grandmother, Mrs. Emma Mayer of Ann Arbor, and an aunt, Mrs. John J. Burby, of Los Angeles, California.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Muehlig funeral home, with Rev. Theodore A. Schmale officiating. Burial will be in Bethlehem cemetery. Friends may call at the Muehlig chapel.

Notes for Georg Friedrich (Fred) Gollmar:

A History of Cleveland and Its Environs: Biography. By Elroy McKendree Avery, Lewis Publishing Company, Chicago-New York, 1918. Page 469:

Fred G. Gollmar. There are very few self-made men who, in looking back over the path they have successfully climbed, will really wish that their lot had been otherwise. There is a compensating satisfaction in self-earned victory that is very valuable to one who has gained it. One of the prospering business men of Cleveland is Fred G. Gollmar, who is president of F. J. Gollmar & Company, and his business success has been the direct result of his own industry and perseverance.

Fred G. Gollmar was born in Stuttgart, Germany, January 8, 1876. His parents were George and Christina Gollmar, who came to the United States in 1881 and settled with their family at Medina, Ohio. There Fred G. attended the public schools until he was sixteen years of age, when he went to work as an employee of A. I. Root Company, manufacturers of beekeepers' supplies. He was steady and industrious and remained with the company for seven years, when he came to Cleveland, where he very soon secured a position as salesman for the firm of Stranahan & Company, where, for ten years he had charge of their cigar department in the Arcade Building. It was this connection that gave him the experience that has since proved so valuable in his own enterprises.

During his long term of service with Stranahan & Company, Mr. Gollmar had contracted a wide acquaintance and made many personal friends, and when he severed his old business relations and purchased a cigar business of his own, at No. 163 Arcade Building, he found a purchasing public ready for him. As a business man on his own responsibility, Mr. Gollmar soon proved the possession of many of the business qualities that are essential to success, and in 1912 illustrated it by taking over the cigar business in the Rathskeller on East Fourth Street. In the following year he secured the cigar trade of his former employers, and in 1914 he purchased the cigar stand at No. 742 Euclid Avenue. At present he is operating all the above under the general name of the F. G. Gollmar Company, of which he is both president and treasurer. To no outside influence does Mr. Gollmar owe his business success. He worked faithfully and efficiently while in the employ of others and when the opportunity came for independence, he had the wisdom and good judgment to make use of it. He is now one of the substantial business men of this city.

In February 26, 1902, Mr. Gollmar was married at Cleveland to Miss Laura Blaschke, and they have one daughter, Anna Louise, who is attending the public school. Mr. Gollmar has always been an upright and useful citizen and has ever used his influence in the furtherance of movements that promise to be generally beneficial. In political affiliation he has preferred to be independent. He belongs to Forest City Lodge, Free & Accepted Masons, to the National Union and to the order of Maccabees, and is known to be very charitable although never, advertising his generosity.

3506. Linda (Lula or Lena)⁹ Grauer (Michael Jakob (Jacob Joseph)⁸, Johann Jakob⁷, Anna Margaretha⁶ Weber, Anna Barbara⁵ Schaefer, Hans Jakob⁴, Margaretha³ Mayhlen, Jakob² Maeylin, Michel¹) was born 05 Mar 1872 in Palestine Twp, Cooper Co, Missouri, and died 14 Mar 1956 in Boonville Twp, Cooper Co, Missouri. She married Henry Carl Friedrich 07 Jan 1891 in Cooper Co, Missouri, son of Herman Friedrich and Martha Sonnenschein. He was born 11 Feb 1866 in Fritzlar, Schwalm-Eder, Hessen, Germany, and died 29 Aug 1950 in Boonville Twp, Cooper Co, Missouri.

Notes for Henry Carl Friedrich:

History of Cooper County, Missouri by W.F. Johnson in 1919; page 408:

The life story of Henry Carl Friedrich, of the Billingsville neighborhood, Palestine Township, is a record of industry, energy, good business management, and of an interest taken in good works beyond that of the ordinary citizen. Since the purchase of his first modest farm of 121 acres in Aug., 1909, Mr. Friedrich has been prosperous and enterprising. His present home place of 214.70 acres is a fine farm, good land, which raises good crops each year. This farm, which is fairly well improved, was purchased by Mr. Friedrich in 1909 at a cost of $74 an acre, or a total cost of $16,000. Mr. Friedrich has done considerable improving of the property since he purchased it. He has built over seven miles of woven wire fencing. He handles pure bred Hereford cattle and Duroc Jersey hogs.

Henry Carl Friedrich was born in Germany, Feb. 11, 1866. He is a son of Herman and Martha Elizabeth (Sunshine) Friedrich. His father was a public school teacher in Hesse-Cassel, and died in 1868, leaving seven children: Mary died in Germany; William came to America, settled in Cooper County, Mo., and died here in 1897; August died in the land of his birth; Ferdinand lives in Pennsylvania; Charles lives on a farm eight miles east of Boonville; Henry Carl, subject of this review; Adam resides on a farm south of Bunceton, Missouri. The mother of these children was born May 3, 1835, and is living at the home of Mr. Friedrich.

Henry Carl Friedrich received a good education in his native land, which he left in 1885, accompanied by his mother and his brother, Adam Friedrich. When he arrived in Cooper County, he was possessed of $200 in cash. He first worked out by the month until he became familiar with conditions and then began renting land. He has made a success of his vocation as an intelligent tiller of the soil. His first farm was bought on time payments and the first crop season, that of the famous dry year of 1901, was a period of discouragement to him. However, everybody suffered the same hardships and like his neighbors, he managed to pull through and has had enough good crops in past years to enable him to trade his first homestead for his present place. This trade placed him $8000 in debt, but this is all paid and the Friedrich farm is clear of all indebtedness.

Jan. 7, 1892, Henry Carl Friedrich and Miss Lena Grauer were married. Mrs. Lena Friedrich was born March 5, 1872, near Boonville, Missouri, and is a daughter of Jacob and Catherine Grauer, natives of Germany and Texas, respectively, the latter of whom died in 1881.

The children born to Henry Carl and Lena Friedrich are: Ferdinand, Edward Carl, Arthur Henry, Oscar Harmon, Henry Rudolph, Adolph Eugene, and Adolph Elmer. Ferdinand William Friedrich was born Nov. 19, 1892. He is a farmer and owns 85 acres of land. He married Lydia Delius. Edward Carl Friedrich was born Jan. 23, 1895, is a farmer and land owner. He was called to the colors to serve in the National Army July 26, 1918. He was in training at Camp Funston, received his honorable discharge in Jan., 1919, and returned to his home Jan. 14, 1919. Arthur Henry Friedrich was born Feb. 7, 1897, and is a land owner and farmer. Oscar Herman Friedrich was born Jan. 30, 1899. Henry Rudolph Friedrich was born Nov. 3, 1902. Adolph Eugene Friedrich was born March 27, 1908. Adolph Elmer Friedrich was born July 8, 1916.

Mr. Friedrich is a republican. For a number of years he has been a member of the local school board and is serving as president of the board. For the past 13 years he has been trustee of the Billingsville Evangelical Church. He is active in educational work, is a teacher of the Bible Class in the Sunday School and has been superintendent of the Sunday school for a number of years. He is a member of the Modern Woodmen of America and is active in lodge circles. He holds membership in the Woodmen of the World and he and his brother Charles inaugurated and were the principal organizers of the Speed Camp of Woodmen in 1900. He is a member of the Ladies' Circle and Auxiliary of the Woodmen.

Notes for Dr. Sylvesta Marie (Sally) Wassum:

Dr. Sally M. Wassum, 91 of Macomb, died at 9:10 am Friday March 17, 2006 at Heartland Health Care Center in Macomb, Illinois. She was born November 26, 1914 in Tekamah, Nebraska to Sylvester A. and Friedericka C. Wisslicen Wassum. She is survived by one sister Dorothy Ellsworth of Dallas, Texas, and several nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by one sister Erma E. Bush.

She was a member of St. George's Episcopal Church, and served as a church director/organist in various congregations during her teaching career. Her educational background included the A.B. degree from Midland College, Master's in Music and Ph.D. from Northwestern University. She was the sixth woman in the United States to obtain a doctorate in music education. Her life-long career of teaching included public school vocal and instrumental supervision in Nebraska, Kansas and Wyoming. She held professorial appointments at the universities of Wyoming, Wisconsin, UCLA and Western Illinois University. Guest lectures and teaching assignments included the universities of Washington, Iowa and Illinois. For ten years, Dr. Wassum was textbook editor and editor in chief at Summy-Birchard Company, producers of the Birchard Music Series as well as publications of piano, choral, and instrumental music.

Post-doctoral research grants from UCLA and WIU enabled her to develop and complete the first longitudinal study of the child voice. The results and data from the study are on file in the Music Educators National Conference archives at the University of Maryland. She was involved in professional activities on a local and national basis, including the Faculty Senate, presidential merit awards committee, distinguished scholar lecturer committee, chairman of music education and the music graduate program. Professional and social memberships include Phi Kappa Phi, Delta Kappa Gamma, Music Educators National Conference, Mu Phi Epsilon, American Association of University Professors, Fortnightly Club, the Red Hat Club, and University Women. She served as state chairman of student MENC chapters. She was an enthusiastic worldwide traveler with special interest in studying art and religion. Her friends appreciated her widespread interests and sense of humor.

A memorial service will be held at 10:00 AM Wednesday at St. George Episcopal Church in Macomb. Father Edward den Blaauwen will officiate. Cremation has been accorded. Memorial Contributions may be made to St. George Episcopal Church of the charity of the donor's choice. Dodsworth-Piper-Wallen is in charge of arrangements.

April 8, 2005 - Sylvesta "Sally" Wassum, who was head of music education at Western Illinois University from 1970 to 1985, was honored Sunday at the Alumni House for her extraordinary work in the field of music education. The ceremony was planned by Western's chapter of the National Association of Music Education and was attended by a large group of Western faculty members and Macomb residents. It is fitting that this organization would honor Wassum as she served as state chair for MENC in 1998. During her time as chair, she helped increase the number of student chapters as well as student membership at Western's chapter by 50 percent.

She married (2) Frank Burnett Rose Bef. 1920. He was born 28 Nov 1852 in New York, and died 13 Mar 1928.

Notes for Catherine Margaret (Katie) Stabler:

I, Catherine Rose Stabler, was asked by the Superintendent of Wind Cave, South Dakota to write my experiences while there as lady guide and explorer from 1891 through 1902 and the season of 1913 (cook and guide). I became interested in Geology from a small square of striped sandstone my father, John Stabler, picked up at Chatanuga (Chattanooga), Tennessee in 1864. He had carried it through the end of the Civil War and gave it to me when I was quite young.

My father, John Stabler, one of five children, was born of George and (sic) Margret Stabler in a part log house (still there) near a mill pond near Mifflin, Junita Co., (sic) Pennsylvania in 1847. His father owned a blacksmith shop. He died when Papa (John Stabler), the youngest of five, was quite young. His mother married Jake Meintzer and moved near Broadhead, Wisconsin. When Papa was 16 he ran away from home and joined the 7th Wisconsin, Cavalry. He was wounded at Chattanooga, Tennessee and discharged at end of Civil War. He met my mother Lydia Raymer, daughter of a very religious family, of Rock City, Illinois (1867-1866). They were married and had six children, all deceased except myself, three brothers older and 2 sisters younger.

In 1871, with their three sons, they went out west in a covered wagon where Papa acquired a grant of land from the government at Middle Creek, Nebraska. Near Melford where 2 of Papa's sisters lived on farms and also Mother's brother lived in Melford. The youngest son, only a baby, tumbled out of the back of the wagon while enroute. It was several miles later that they missed him. They retraced their tracks and found that someone had rescued him and were waiting for them. Papa was building a house and had not completed the kitchen. It still had it's dirt floor. Mother needed some soap and as she was about to step onto this dirt floor, she remembered she had some. Father saw a white flash, (it was night) and went over and killed a large rattlesnake. Then on morning, (while the kitchen was still being built) as she was starting breakfast on the outdoor fireplace, she reached for the frying pan and there curled up was a rattlesnake. Those were the dry years and grasshoppers came in clouds, they would settle on a piece of grain and eat it to the roots, lay their eggs in the ground and rise up in a cloud and fly to a fresh field. They left bare cornstalks and dry pits on peach trees. We lived on barley coffee which Mother roasted, game Papa shot and a very few groceries. Our folks back east sent us barrels of clothes, bedding, nuts and necessities. Papa was a carpenter walking five miles each way for $1 per day. Mother was a tailoress and made clothes for people. She also pieced a quilt of calico, some material from the Civil War days. This quilt is being handed down to my great-grand daughter. One morning while Mother was getting breakfast, she saw a prairie chicken on the fence and called Papa who grabbed his gun and shot it. She skinned it and had it cooking before it's muscles stopped twitching.

The youngest son, Raymer, died the summer of 1873 and I was born October 29, 1872. The town of Middle Creek burned and all records were lost. I never got a birth certificate. When rebuilt it was named Pleasant Dale. In 1874 we moved to Hastings, Nebraska where Papa and a Mr. Deisher went into the implement business. Country was new and crops good, lots of machinery was needed, so they made good. My two sisters were born here. While living here, I remember being sent to town on an errand. In the park, I witnessed and had to pass a man being hung. They sold out in the fall of 1879 and moved to Lincoln, Nebraska where Papa started to make machinery in the prison with convict help. I remember attending the circus and riding on Jumbo's back. Also Jumbo being killed by a train and saving her baby elephant by throwing her over her back. It was at this fair that Papa had an exhibit of his machinery and had built a spiral stair case. The first of its kind and a great curiosity which drew large crowds. The Indian performances were next to his exhibit and they made me an Indian Queen. Also my cousin Harry Raymer age 3 months and weighing 33 lbs. was the prize winning largest baby. I took care of him one afternoon while mother and my aunt were shopping. He cried all the time they were gone and I had to walk the floor with him. I was sure tuckered.

Papa's (sic) buisness here was not a success as the convict help was not satisfactory and also the bank where Papa had his money went broke. (The bank president absconded with the money). We bought a home in East Lincoln and Papa went on the road selling machinery. He made good, but wanted a (sic) buisness of his own. While here I remember the blizzard of 1888. We went to school a mile from home and it had started to snow after lunch. By 2:30, traffic was stopped. Our teachers had all children living in one direction take hold of hands and walk in middle of road. Schools in country, teachers, and children stayed in school, breaking up furniture to burn. Others started out with the children and not reaching home, some died, others climbed into haystacks to keep warm.

The next fall after the blizzard of '88, we moved to Chamberlain, South Dakota and ran a hotel, The Brule. The Sioux Indian track of land was being opened for homesteads by the government. Before the rush for these government claims our house was full all of the time. The winter of 1890 and '91, the last Indian war, the Battle of Wounded Knee, every woman and child who could afford to go, left until the battle was over. I remember one Saturday night twelve Indian chiefs stayed in our house until Monday morning as no trains left on Sunday and Chamberlain was the end of the line. We had a small room across the hall from the office where they smoked pipes and pow-wowed. They were great eaters. We left them in the dining room after all other guests were gone and then put everything we had cooked on the tables and they ate and ate. They got up and shook themselves and sat down and ate again. They were on their way to Washington to see the White Father and negotiate peace.

One morning word came that Sitting Bull was on the boat that just came in so everybody rushed down to see him. He was smart, shut himself in his cabin and charged people 50¢ to see him. Not far from Chamberlain was Mitchell, South Dakota where I remember visiting the Corn Palace, the only one in the world. Also took boat trips up the Missouri to the Crow Indian reservation and went to the Indian's church. Most of them sat outside and hunted lice on their children's heads and cracked them between their teeth. Visited the beef issue across the Missouri and saw the cattle slaughtered and divided among the Brule Indians. The Indian children would run around sucking the entrails. After the crowds had filed on their homesteads, (sic) buisness dropped off so Papa sent Charles, my younger brother, with a party to Hot Springs, S.D. to look up a location. He found the Hotel Parrot on the right side of the court house almost finished and rented it. Papa packed our furniture in two freight cars and shipped them to Hot Springs. Then he bought a covered wagon, team of horses and equipment, found another family, the Vet Schofields, to share the trip, and we started on a very interesting trip. Our party consisted of Father, Mother with four children and son's wife, The Schofields and their three children. Later their baby was the first child to go in Wind Cave. Mrs. Schofield is living now in Hot Springs as Mrs. Gregory. We crossed the Missouri on a ferry, then over the Wounded Knee battle grounds which had been fought three months before. We found a few Indian war relics and ran into several war parties with their war paint on. The drinking water was a problem. We would fill our barrels only to find it bitter and would have to dump it. The Bad Lands were just Indian trails and gumbo (mud). When it would rain it clung to the wagon wheels until they were a foot or more wide and would have to scrape it off. Luckily there was a store in the heart of the badlands as we used up all our food in just one week. We thought we had brought enough for the two weeks it would take us to get through these badlands. Brother George shot some game which was scarce. To me the bad lands looked like a large winding dry river that dropped 20 to 40 feet with a wall on each side gulches which made going through two states forming a ring around it with only a few passes to enter. It was a geologist paradise with (sic) petrified snakes, fish, toads, birds, (sic) lizzards, etc., beautiful crystals of all colors, and shapes. Rustlers used to drive stock there, keep the breeders and rebrand them as there was good grazing in parts and very hard to find the stock. There was Lame Johnny Creek which was named after a rustler who was caught and was hung there. Mother caught poison ivy which covered her body, and she nearly died before we could get to a doctor. Before we got to Buffalo Gap we were pounded twice within an hour by hail stones. The stones piled up to the horses knees, broke some the wagon staves and made black bruises on our hands where I had tried to up hold up the canvas. Next day we arrived in Hot Springs and drove to the Hotel Parrot, found our furniture stored in the basement so we moved in there while we cleaned and furnished the rooms. Then we opened to the public, we had all we could take care of.

Just six weeks after the hailstorms of our trips, we were struck again. We hurried to get sick people and guests out as it broke all windows on the North side and blew down the chimney. It had battered the headboards which stood across the rooms. This storm flooded the Fall River which runs through Hot Springs which is warm water and Cold Brook which is cold and met just above the plunge bath. My brother, his wife and my sisters and many of our guests were in this plunge bath when the storm struck. It washed out bridges, broke the glass roof over the plunge bath and the tower. They scurried to shelter and had a rough time finding their clothes as lights had gone out. The B. & M. Railroad came in the west end of town and the Northwestern came up from Buffalo Gap and very often, each year they would be washed out and then repaired at a great expense.

Some time that first summer of 1891 Papa went out to Wind Cave. There were no stairs and they went down a rope and did a lot of climbing and crawling. He was very much interested in it and saw great possibilities for development. It was occupied by a Mr. McDonald (a squatter), who had been sent by Mr. Folsom, head of a mining company, to do the assessment work. He jumped the claim and took it as a homestead. This was unknown to my father at this time or he would not have bought into the cave. McDonald's family were starving, very hardup, and was very anxious for someone to invest money in the developing of the cave. He sold Papa one-half (sic) intrest and we sent out wagon loads of food several times.

The entrance to the cave was in a deep gulch. The original opening was a small oval hole about 8"x12" worn smooth by water spouting out a geyser, (9) a geyser 12 mi. south of H.S. (at Cascade live) There are others south of Hot Springs and geologists who came from all over the world said there were so many signs of it's being an extinct geyser. The story went that two Bingham brothers hunting rabbits camped for the night on top of the gulch and while one brother made camp and got supper, his brother went down into the gulch hunting and heard this wind coming out of a hole but covered with brush and debris washed there by floods. So he scraped away the brush and as he looked into the hole, the wind took his hat up into the air. He ran back to camp and told his brother that all hell had broken loose down in the gulch. In the morning they decided to take another look at this hole, and as they neared the spot, the first man threw his hat toward the hole and said "Watch it go up!" but the wind had changed and took the hat in. They never saw the hat again. We found out later that this wind was governed by atmospheric pressure and turned out to be a true (sic) arometer. Clear days it blew out and the longer it was going to be clear, the stronger the wind. As a storm approached, the wind blew in and the closer the storm got the stronger the wind.

Later a log house was built over the hole which had been blasted near the original discovery. The front room being directly over it and near the trap door made in the floor and steps built down 155 feet to the first passage of cave. The wind blew so strong at times it took two of us to raise or lower this door according which way the wind blew and after it got to the first level, there was no strong wind but a regular system of circulation. Some routes of wind going in and some coming out. In fact, we used this draft to aid us in exploring. All of the rooms had two to a dozen openings and we could take our candle and put it in each opening and the one with the strongest draft indicated the largest country ahead. We carried a ball of twine which one end we tied to a rock as it was so easy to get lost.

The cave as we knew it was a number of crevices where we found the large rooms (running N.W. to S.E. - 50 to 150 ft. apart) connected by ovens, as we called them, crawling on our knees and sometimes pulling ourselves through on our (sic) stomachs. Many times we would have to make a bridge of our bodies for the others to cross on. We kept ourselves well padded, where needed. Papa made a code signaling by tapping rocks. One tap – two taps – three taps and then two and a one tap – all meaning something like Come, I've found a new room; I am lost; Am in the dark, etc. I still have this code that Papa made me.

I loved to explore and seldom missed a trip. It was a great thrill to go into a room anywhere from 12' x 12' to 3 acres of floor surface that no one had ever set eyes on before. The ceiling and sided festooned with beautiful formations, sparkled like diamonds, large rocks strewn everyplace and fun to make out images of faces, animals, etc.. The floors were as clean as the walls and showed no dirty water had flowed through, but all the water had gone up. On one occasion we were in there 18 hours with temperature of about 45 degrees. When we became tired we rested, but we never caught cold. In fact, we had some (sic) asthmatic people stay with us to go down and breath that air.

One experience I remember, Papa and I were exploring and had, it seems, been in the cave about two hours or more. The first part of the trip is pretty hazy to me, but I distinctly remember coming to a small room about 12 feet around shaped like an Indian (sic) teepee, the center having a strong draft. Papa had become tired and laid down to rest. (We often went to sleep when tired in cave and never caught cold) I looked down this hole and seeing some rocks that I thought I could reach with my feet, let myself down, my arms resting on the floor until I got my balance. I sat down and lit some magnesium ribbon which I used in large rooms while guiding. I was greatly thrilled being the first person in a room no one had ever been or seen before. It was truly beautiful. It was a very high room, about 100 feet by 50 feet wide. A portion of the ceiling about 30 feet by 15 feet had fallen just about the middle and in falling cracked open. It had their (sic) irredesent chocolate colored crystals found no other place in the cave. The rest of the room including the floor was covered with what we called Satin Spar which glistened like diamonds. The (sic) pretiest room I ever expect to find this side of heaven. I called Papa and after exploring the room further, we gathered some of the loose pieces of crystals and started our long hard crawl out. As far as I know this room was never named as it was hard to get there and was not shown.

There were three routes opened the first being The Garden of Eden in the winter of 1891 and 92. Many of the rooms were named by the guides and many more were named by the visitors themselves. The Prairie Dog and Mound was named by one of the guides who picked up a large rock which looked like the shape of a prairie dog and placed it on this mound; Snow Ball, many shapes of snowballs; Post Office, little boxes lined walls; M.E. Church, our first stop in guiding to rest and we generally sang a song. Odd Fellow's Hall, we had to cross a stone which looked like a turtle so this was named Turtle Pass. The Cross Roads, we branched off to the right to go the Garden of Eden. One room had large stones we sat on and called this room Stone Quarries. The G.A.R. Hall was named by a group of G.A.R. members who were guided through as were the Eastern Star, Odd Fellow's Hall, W.C.T.U. Hall, Union College rooms and many others.

The second route, the Fair Grounds started at the Crossroads. This route was opened in 1892-93 and so named after Papa guided Billie Bryan and (sic) Govenor Lee through the Cave. The following newspaper clipping tells the story.

John Stabler surely captivated Gov. Lee when he visited the cave last summer for besides being appointed as an Omaha exposition commissioner, John has also been named as a delegate to Stock Grower's Association at Denver on Jan. 25, 26 and 27. (1893) In speaking to Billie Bryan, Papa once said "I wish I might talk like you". Billie Bryan answered "I wish I might laugh like you".

Another newspaper clipping reads: A Transmississippi State Commission Governor Lee has appointed a new Omaha exposition commission for this state, as follows: Vice-Pres. A. McKinney, Lead; W.L. Gardner, Rapid City; Harris Franklin, Martin Chapman and Charles Davis, Deadwood; John Stabler, Hot Springs; Hance Murphy, Elk Point; C.A. Jewitt, Sioux Falls; O.H. Mann, Okobojo; Hugh Smith, Howard. The governor says that he will appoint additional members of the board at the earliest opportunity and will call the commission together and devise some means of raising money for making a state exhibit. The governor certainly made no mistake in naming John Stabler, of this place, for he can make an attractive exhibition alone if necessary – with his Wind Cave Specimens – and he no doubt will. (Sent large collection to the Smithsonian Inst. Wash.) John Stabler did have an exhibition of specimens at the State-Fair and so named the room State Fair Route. Among the Fair Grounds route rooms was the Kimball Music Hall where you could tap the columns and play an octave. Johnstone's Campground – Where Johnstone, the mind reader, slept on his three day journey through the cave for the pin head. Then we heard of Mr. Johnstone, the mind reader, coming to Hot Springs, driving through the streets blind folded and found a name in a register at a certain hotel. The name belonged to the man whose mind he read. My father met him and asked him if he thought he could find something hidden in the cave. He said "Yes". So they made arrangements for the trial. A business man of Hot Springs, Mr. Germond and Alva McDonald, our chief guide, hid the head of a scarf pin in the cave. Meanwhile Mr. Johnstone stayed in his hotel room in Hot Springs and the next morning with his manager Mr. Germond and the Associated Press reporter with Mr. Johnstone blindfolded got in an opened spring wagon. Mr. Johnstone drove the 12 miles of very bad roads in 45 minutes. This drive usually took us 1½ to 2 hours to drive. One of the horses dropped dead, the other one was never any good afterwards.

Brother Charles's wife and I saw the horse drop. As he entered the hotel he took a razor from my brother's hand (my brother was shaving my father) and shaved a few stokes. We all looked scared to death. At the table he wanted anything he would name it and touch the man next to him and reach for it before anyone else could. When he went down to the cave entrance, he sat on the step leading down in the cave and cried "I've lost my power" repeating it several times. Finally, still blindfolded, he jumped up and said "Come, I see the way". He flew down the stairs dragging the man who had the other end of string tied to his wrist. We knew where they were all of the time as we sent a guide a distance behind them in case they should get lost. This guide carried blankets to sleep on and food to places he knew they would pass. They were three days and nights and were getting exhausted, so Alva took them to the place where the pinhead was hidden. Mr. Johnstone, still blindfolded, took the pinhead up on the end of his knife blade and put it in Mr. Germond's hand. Our boys took a stretcher in, but when they got to the Post Office, they heard them coming so they stepped beside the wall and when Johnstone still in the lead, passed he didn't see them but Gerome did. Johnstone immediately said "I don't need that stretcher, watch the path".

Later when Papa got very sick, we sent for Mr. Johnstone and he hypnotized him with the thought that his pain was all gone. That really helped him more than doctors and medicine. Another room was Alpine Pass was so winding sometimes called the Merry-go-Round.

The third route, the Pearly Gates, was opened in 1892 and was so named by my brother-in-law (Mamie's husband) Oscar Merwin. He said it reminded him of what the Pearly Gates would look like. The Blue Grotto of the Pearly Gates route had a 500 foot level, the lowest we had ever been. The Raymer room named by my Grandfather Raymer when he went through the cave at the age of 81. He died at age 89.

The Wind Cave Hotel, as it was called, my father first built on a hill. It was a two story house and after moving it down off the hill Papa added two wings. One for an office and one for kitchen and two bedrooms. The lower part of the original building we used as a dining room and we served dinner to all who wanted. My brother, George, ran this hotel for the first year until papa could sell out in Hot Springs. Besides buying the half-(sic) interest in the claim, my two brothers, brother-in-law, and myself took up homesteads to cover the surface of the cave. Also McDonald's son took up a homestead claim, McDonald having the claim which covered the entrance. George had the next claim closest to the hotel. Each claim was 320 acres consisting of 160 timber and stone, 160 tillable.

I started exploring in 1891 and also guiding a few people in the cave that first season, 1892. We explored winters and my family spent 11 winters blasting and opening routes and making them possible for women to go through without overalls. My father, mother, brother Charles and family and myself lived on my homestead. I had the deed to the only spring of water a mile away and when the stage coaches would come to water horses, they would pick me up to guide the party. Papa visited all the hotels in Hot Springs, getting people to come and tour the cave. I continued to guide steady for 11 years until 1902. Have guided many groups of students from School of Mines at (I believe) Sturgis. Also, geologists from all over the world studying the different formations, where located, etc. we would take three parties a day. At one o'clock, 5 o'clock and 12 P.M. We couldn't get the Indians to go through except one party of 10 or 12 who were in missionary work. They chanted their Indian songs all the time they were in the cave. WHERE THE WINDS PLAY

Former Stephenson County Man Finds a Mammoth Cave in the West 100 Miles Explored and the End is Not Yet – One of the World's Greatest Wonders. Rock City, Nov. 9 – Last Saturday a number of citizens of Rock City were taken by surprise when the 11:30 passenger train arrived. John Stabler, wife and daughter, who a number of years ago resided at this place, stepped off on the platform and shook hands with their many friends. Years ago, Mr. Stabler went west and settled in South Dakota. He was not expecting, at that time, that there was an underground fortune awaiting him. But an opening in mother earth was (sic) discovered, in the form of an immense cave, and as the wind came forth with such force Mr. Stabler and a partner who was with him, concluded that they would try and enter into the opening. The result was they discovered enough to see that there was a fortune near them. So in the year 1892 a stock company was organized and Mr. Stabler was made superintendent and overseer of the cave and the name Wind Cave was the title given it. One hundred miles had been explored and yet there are new openings likely to be found. Your reporter is unable to give the names of all that has been seen and discovered in this wonderful cavern. Thousands of visitors from all parts of the world come to take a view of the wonderful sights. Mr. Stabler, the superintendent, resided ten miles from the entrance to the cave at the nearest point of railway accommodations and he has led as high as 150 persons at one time through the cave. The price for admission is one dollar for each visitor. Although this may seem to be a great speculation yet there is a large expense in erecting stairways and bridges over some of the deep crevices. Also every ten to twenty-five visitors must be furnished with a guide to conduct them through. If any of the readers of this article would like to see a large display of the relics of this cave they can do so by calling on George Raymer, of Rock City, who is the father of Mrs. John Stabler. He has one large room at his residence in Rock City that is ornamented with numerous kinds of minerals and a long list of names is given to these relics. Everybody is welcome to call at Mr. Raymer's and see these specimens. Mr. Stabler expects to remain one month before he returns home.

Newspaper Clipping 1895 - A TRIP TO SOUTH DAKOTA

On Sunday morning, May 19th, after a most bountiful breakfast at the palatial Midland Hotel, Kansas City, a number of the members of the Southwest Missouri Press Association, through the kindness of The Great Burlington Route, by their gentlemanly and courteous passenger agent, Col. Ives, departed for the famed Hot Springs, S.D. From Kansas City to St. Joseph, the party was honored with the company of Mr. Harris, city passenger agent, and his beautiful wife and little daughter. After a short stay at St. Joseph, the train pulled out for the great west. A short stop was made at Lincoln, the capital of Nebraska, and the next morning at 8:40 the wonderful Hot Springs was reached. The country west of the Platte River, in Nebraska, to the foot hills in South Dakota, has a dreary look and is in reality a desert. The only vegetation visible for many miles after leaving Crawford and before reaching Edgemont was an occasional bunch of buffalo grass and sage brush. The prairie cactus was also plentiful.

On reaching Hot Springs, truly the "Carlsbad of America," the party was escorted to the Evans Hotel, the leading hotel of the place. Hot Springs is 3500 feet above sea level, and nestles in a most charming valley in the Black Hills. The scenery surrounding the city is grand and inspiring. Back of the town a short distance stands what is named "Battle Mountain", named for a terrible fight which (sic) (sic) occurred years ago between the Sioux and the Cheyenne Indians for the possession of the hot springs. The city has about 3,000 inhabitants, a social, energetic and thrifty people. The buildings are modern and will compare favorably with any city in the world for beauty of architecture and convenience. The Evans Hotel, the palace resort hotel of the West, is built of pink sandstone and will accommodate 300 guests. It is equipped with all modern conveniences and is just such a home as the person seeking health, repose and comfort desires. In Hot Springs are many hotels and several fine business blocks, two newspapers, the South Dakota Soldiers' home, and many residence mansions. The great plunge bath, the wonder of the west is 275 x 150 feet. This is unquestionably the finest plunge bath in the U.S. The water temperature as it bulges from the earth is (torn) and the most glorious was torn in by man.

The after (torn) day there was devoted to a drive over the city. To our friend, Capt. A. B. Connor we are greatly indebted for this pleasure. Our better-half and daughter were the guests in a like pleasure of Col. Fred T. Evans., Capt. Connor was stationed at Fort Wyman in this city and was instrumental in the construction of the same, and also Ft. Ditty near the School of Mines. He was, after that and for many years, with Gen. Crooke and Gen. Custer. He retired from the service, but a few weeks before Gen. Custer met his death at the hands of the Savages at Big Horn. He and Col. Evans are possessors of large tracts of land adjoining Hot Springs. To Dr. W.E. Adams, Kennett F. Harris, the Stanley Bros., Congressman Lucas and others who names have escaped our memories, we are under obligations for many courtesies.

The evening was devoted to a pretty dancing party given by Col. Evans which was interspersed with music, song and story. As only a few newspapermen ever indulge in tripping the light fantastic the party was not as largely represented as Col. Evans had desired. The Burlington's travel agent, Col. G. H. Baxter, a most genial gentleman, was on and did much to make all who happened near him enjoy themselves. The next morning after a good night's rest, in two large tally-ho coaches, a large number of party started for Wind Cave, a distance of twelve miles. The owners of this wonderful handiwork of nature, Messrs. Stabler & McDonald, had us under their wing, and although the air was crisp and bracing, the distance was quickly covered by these gentlemen.

The story of the discovery of Wind Cave, which is ninety-six miles long and the most unique and wonderful cave formation in the known world, was that a hunter in 1881 chased a deer to its opening. So wonderful was the rush of air from the small opening that he returned the next day with his brother to whom he had told the story. An investigation was begun and from an original opening of eight by twelve inches, it has been enlarged to admit three men walking abreast. Twenty-five thousand dollars have been expended on inside improvements making it the finest and easiest traveled underground wonder known. There are twenty-five hundred subterranean chambers, and the contract has been closed to light everyone with electricity. A good hotel adjoins and the meals are excellent. Our party explored this wonderful cavern to the depth of 350 feet and a distance of three and a half miles. We are utterly unable to give a description of what can be seen here. The formations are different from those found in any other cave in the known world, while their (sic) brilliancy and beauty are marvelously grand. This cave has been explored ninety-seven miles, and resembles an eight-story building. All who have visited this wonderful place pronounce it the first of the known wonders of the world.

On our return from Buffalo Gap, a distance of sixty miles. Prairie-dog villages are numerous along the route. After a most refreshing bath, and an excellent dinner, the remainder of the evening was spent with billiards, genuine western hospitality led by Congressman Lucas and a delegation from Edgemont headed by Mr. Russell Thorp, and a (sic) progressive euchre party. At cards the Missourians proved themselves on par with the men in the wild and wooly west who had taken lessons from the heathen Chinese, and won every prize but one – that a “booby”.

The next morning at 8 o'clock, the sad farewell was said and (sic) accompanied by a pleasant bevy of ladies and gentlemen, the train was taken for Deadwood and the vast gold field of the Black Hills.

Notes for Walter Henry Schnirring:

Feb. 3, 1940 - That good Sac county farmer. W. H. Schnirring, near Sac City, owns one of the good farms of northwest Iowa. It has taken Schnirring the greater part of 40 years to build it up to the present excellence. Schnirring is the land of farmer who realizes the necessity of keeping good livestock along with tilling the soil. He has good herds of Holsteins and Brown Swiss that are the answer to his livestock problems. They do their part by filling the buckets with rich, wholesome milk and are able to do it because Schnirring is a good provider when it comes to furnishing the feed.

She married William Arthur Phares 29 Nov 1899. He was born Aft. 1870, and died Aft. 1921.

Notes for Maude McCune:

Mrs. Maude Phares, former Decatur resident, died at 5:30 p.m. Saturday July 30, 1949 in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Richard Kent of Flushing, New York. She was born in Decatur, a daughter of Charles and Barbara McCune. She married Arthur Phares here and the family moved to Indianapolis about 20 years ago. Besides her husband and daughter, she also leaves one grandson. Services and burial will be in New York.

Notes for William Arthur Phares:

Oct. 15, 1921 - W. A. (Art) Phares is absent from Decatur, his whereabouts unknown. Persons interested are checking his books and accounts admitted that appearances indicate that Phares is a defaulter to the extent of $50,000 as the minimum, and it may be $100,000. No one knows at this time and the high figures are guesses. Miss Ella Race, whose confidential business manager he had been for many years, will lose not less than $25,000, and the Pan-American Auto Co., of which he was treasurer, will doubtless have a loss of not less than $25,000.

"We know that he is short not less than $20,000 in his accounts with our company," said Edward Danner, president of the Pan-American Co., "but that is as far as we care to go in making positive statements. Yes, it is possible that the shortage might be as much as $40,000, but if I should say more than I have said, it would be conjecture and I prefer not to make such statements for publication. When the audit of the books has been completed we shall have positive knowledge. The audit may not be completed before the last of the month.

"The first intimation of anything wrong I had was Monday, when Mrs. Phares called me and told me of a letter forwarded to her by a relative in Indianapolis in which Art said that he was not coming back to Decatur. I got busy at once. We trusted him implicitly and felt justified in that, in view of the business path he had trod coming to our company. We liked him personally. He was absolutely in charge of his department. Knowing him to be competent, and having confidence in his honesty, we did not concern ourselves about his accounts."

W. A. Phares was for many years confidential business manager for John R. Race, and following his death acted in the same capacity for Miss Ella Race, who inherited a large part of her father's fortune. She trusted and relied upon Phares because of his long association with her father. On Oct. 8 Miss Race received by mail from Phares, then in West Baden, Indiana, the key to her safety deposit box. In that box has been found a note signed by W. A. Phares for $24,000, payable to Miss Race. It is unsecured. The inference is that Phares used securities to the value of $24,000 and put the note in the box to square the account. Attorney Horace W. McDavid, representing Miss Race, said: "The note for $24,000 suggests the thought that Phares owes Miss Race at least that much money. How much more I do not know. There is much to be done in studying the accounts with which I have had no familiarity, for I did not handle the money end of the business. I cannot say how much it was possible for Miss Race to lose through the defalcation of Phares."

W. A. Phares left Decatur two weeks ago today, his business associates understanding that he was going to West Baden, Indiana, for a visit. It was from West Baden he wrote to an Indianapolis relative of his wife, saying he was in bad and would not return to Decatur. That letter was forwarded to Mrs. Phares in Decatur and she at once informed Edward Danner, of the Pan-American Co. Members of Mr. Phares family insist that they know nothing concerning his absence. More than 20 years ago Art Phares was bookkeeper for the Race Clothing Co., and thus became confidential man for John R. Race. About 17 years ago he entered the employ of the National Bank of Decatur and in time became cashier. He resigned his position in the bank in April 1917 to become secretary of the Pan-American company.

Playing the board is reported to have been the avenue through which Phares unloaded the easy money he was handling. That has been shown to the satisfaction of some persons by the cancelled checks found in Phares personal accounts. The statement is made too that there has been sufficient study of the accounts of Phares to show that within a period of 12 months he was one-time loser of $30,000 on the board, and that one time he was winner of $15,000, or was that much temporarily to the good. But it is admitted that even then he might have been short for no one knows how much it had been necessary for him to invest to win that $15,000. More than a year ago Edward Danner asked Phares if he was playing the board and the company secretary admitted that he one time had indulged in such high flyers, but he had abandoned the game, and his statement was accepted as truthful.

Nov. 15, 1922 - W. Arthur Phares, former official of the Fan-American Motors corporation, now serving a term in the Chester penitentiary for embezzling funds of that company, will be brought to Decatur to testify in the case of Ella Race against the National Bank of Decatur, to recover $10,000 for stock which Phares sold to H. R. Gregory, cashier of the bank. Judge Baldwin, in the circuit court Tuesday, issued a writ for the return of Phares to Decatur for the trial of the case which is scheduled to come up on Wednesday, Nov. 22. The writ was requested by Redmon, Hogan & Redmon, attorneys for the bank. Phares is being brought here to testify about his part in the deal in which he sold stock of the bank owned by Miss Race. The defense, it is hinted, will try to prove that Phares was acting as the business agent of Miss Race when he dispose of her holdings in the bank early in 1920. She claims that she knew nothing of the sale until last fall when shortages were uncovered in the affairs which were conducted for her by Phares. McDavid, Monroe & Hershey wilt represent Miss Race in the trial which is one of the most interesting on the civil docket for this term of court.

Nov. 24, 1922 - The Race-National bank of Decatur suit was continued Thursday until the January term at the suggestion of H. W. McDavid, attorney for Miss Race, who declared In an affidavit presented to the court that Arthur Phare, principal witness in the suit, changed certain statements he made to him about the affairs of Miss Race.

Mr. McDavid said that in an interview with Phares in Chester penitentiary Nov. 2, Phares told him that he sold Miss Race's stock in the bank without her authority and appropriated the funds to his own use to cover losses sustained in grain deals. A few days ago, in another interview with Phares in the Macon County jail, Phares completely changed his version of the application of the funds and made other statements, which Mr. McDavid says contradicted statements made Nov. 2. The developments made it necessary to study the case from a new angle and for this purpose Mr. McDavid requested more time, which the court granted. Phares has been here since last Saturday awaiting the trial of the case. He will be taken back to the penitentiary in a day or two. Phares has not been locked up all of the time, but has enjoyed considerable freedom, and Thursday was seen loafing in the court house corridor.

Feb. 9, 1923 - Was Arthur Phares, who is now serving time in Chester penitentiary for embezzlement, the general agent of Miss Ella Race when he sold her stock in the National Bank of Decatur to the officers of that institution in April, 1920? The question of agency is the important one in the suit of Miss Race against the bank for $10,000, which started in the circuit court Thursday. Phares, the trusted friend of the Race family for years, and who by Miss Race's admission on the stand Thursday afternoon had authority from her to sign numerous checks against her account and sell half of her bank stock, sat with other spectators in the courtroom while his dealings were aired before the jury. He was brought here from Chester to testify as a witness for the defense and may get on the stand today to explain the authority that he had to do business for Miss Race. The trust, which Miss Race placed in Phares, who attended to many of her business affairs and advised her on financial matters, was brought out by her in her testimony. In ill health and often unable to attend to her affairs because of absence from the city for the benefit of her physical condition, she authorized Phares, who was a trusted friend of her father's before his death, and later executor of his will, to sign checks against her account and to keep the key to her safety deposit box. On trips she would write him for money and he would send her drafts. Annually he would make a report to her of her financial standing. She did not discover the true state of affairs until late in 1921.

H. R. Gregory, cashier of the banking institution, and defendant with the bank in the suit, was called as the first witness in behalf of the plaintiff. Miss Race, to identify the stock certificates of the bank and give other information concerning the deal for the stock, which he consummated with Phares in 1920, long before Phares was ever suspected of overstepping his authority in the Race affairs or in the Pan-American Motors corporation, which he served as treasurer. Miss Race, according to Mr. Gregory, possessed 33 shares of stock in the bank and 16 of these were sold by Phares to him Feb. 14, 1920, and on April 14, the remaining 17 were disposed of. Miss Race was then in California. A stock dividend of 63-5 shares, declared in January, 1920 were also disposed of to Mr. Gregory by Phares, at the rate of $250 a share, while the other shares of stock were bought at $253, or a total of approximately $10,000. The par value of the stock was $100, Mr. Gregory said, and he gave it as his opinion that $253 was a fair cash market value.

"The transaction took place at my desk in the bank," Mr. Gregory said. "W. A. Phares came there and produced the stock certificate and a letter in the handwriting of Miss Ella Race and said that he had authority to sell the stock. I did not read the letter." Mr. Gregory explained a discrepancy in the date of issuance of the stock as shown on the records, by the fact that the stenographer who made out the certificates affixed the same date as the date shown on the stock dividends. Checks were produced showing that Mr. Gregory paid to Miss Race the money for the stock and that Phares deposited to her account $3,198, and took the remaining $6,801 in cash at the teller's window. What he did with it has not been brought out.

"W. A. Phares has been connected with the business affairs of our family for 25 years," Miss Race testified. After the death of my father, he was made executor of his will and since then I have looked to him to help me. Nearly every year I have been gone for two or more months for my health. Mr. Phares transacted a great deal of my business. He paid the taxes, insurance, collected rents, made some of my charitable donations; collected dividends on my bank stock. But always he consulted me and I gave him the authority. "I had a conversation about the sale of my bank stock with Mr. Meriweather, president of the bank, and wrote to Mr. Phares about it March 16 and 29, 1920. He replied to both of my letters and on April 8 I received a certificate, from him which I afterwards learned was a certificate granting power of attorney to Mr. Phares. I signed it and returned it on the same day. I wrote Mr. Phares two letters in which I authorized him to sell, one half of the stock. I did not know that all of the stock had been sold until October, 1921 when Mr. Meriweather informed me of it. I learned that out of the proceeds of $9,999 only a little more than $3,000 had been deposited to my account."

At this point her attorneys introduced a dozen checks of different dates, one as far back as February, 1917, and for amounts from $100 to $1,000, totalling altogether $7,020. which Phares signed. Miss Race said she did not authorize him to sign the checks and did not receive any benefit from them. Two were to the Bartlett-Frazier Grain Co. "Mr. Phares was not my general agent," Miss Race testified on cross examination. "He had been transacting my business for about 13 years. I authorized him to pay my bills but I usually wrote to him to tell him what bills should be paid. He had no legal power of attorney. We had a verbal agreement between us that he could sign checks against my account when I authorized him to do so from time to time. That agreement existed until October, 1921. He attended to business under my supervision. He collected money from the buyers of lots in Raceland and if any payments were made to him by check he had the power to endorse the check.

"I authorized Mr. Phares to buy the stock in the bank, and told him to buy Leader Iron Works stock.

Government bonds, and he made many loans for me. When they came due he collected and would tell me about it. The loans were made by him by check on my account and he had authority to endorse my name on them. I only saw the first issue of the Government bonds that he bought. I never saw a single mortgage that he made. "Whenever anything would come up he would write to me, and I would then give him instructions. He had authority to sell 16 shares of my bank stock. I knew he was writing my name to checks and that he was receiving checks payable to me. He made a statement to me every year showing the conditions of my finances.

"When I was gone he usually sent drafts. In 1920 he sent several drafts. He got the money by writing my name on the checks. When I was away my expenses were never more $300 a month, except in the spring or fall when I needed clothes. I would write to him and he usually sent me a draft for whatever I wanted. I usually signed the checks for my clothes. In 1920 I made a trip to Alaska, and I received the expense money through Mr. Phares who was authorized to sign my name, to the checks. I have no knowledge of a check for $500 that was issued May 1, 1920." Miss Race was asked about Phares' dealings on the board of trade.

"In 1917 Mr. Phares approached me and said that we, ought to buy some corn. I said "I don't know what you mean." He said he had a chance to buy some and make money, and I told him that I wouldn't invest more than $100 or $150. I didn't know until four years later that he did invest the money. "I authorized him to buy Midvale steel and authorized him to pay for it out of the proceeds from the bank stock. I have since learned that I never was on the books of the company. I didn't know that he could buy it on the board of trade. He told me that it would be a better investment than bank stock; that it would draw 8 percent, instead of 5 percent which the bank stock paid.

"I always supposed that the bank stock was in the bank. Yes, it was in the possession of Mr. Phares. I had a safety deposit box there. Mr. Phares carried the key and always had it. During all of the years I never saw the contents of the box. My securities were in the custody of Mr. Phares. I supposed that he looked after them. I don't know how the dividends on the bank stock were paid. (Miss Race at this point identified a number of dividend checks on bank stock endorsed by Phares). He had authority to endorse my name on the back of the check if it was issued to me. He had authority to sell land. I would sign blank deeds and he would fill them out as the land was sold if I happened to be out of the city. "I knew the state of my bank account. In 1921 I found that it was overdrawn. Mr. Phares always gave me statements which I accepted. I authorized him to look after all of the business that I specified." The cross examination of Miss Race will be concluded this morning.

Dec. 14, 1924 - Arthur Phares, after serving 30 months in the Chester penitentiary following his plea of guilty to two indictments charging embezzlement, has been paroled with permission to leave the state and go to Indianapolis. He visited in Decatur for a few hours Friday and then went to Indianapolis.

There remain on the criminal docket of the circuit court of Macon County, three indictments charging Phares with embezzlement. It is not unlikely that those indictments will be stricken with leave to re-instate for Phares will not be entitled to a clean bill on his parole until a 12 months period has elapsed. Phares served in the penitentiary a larger term than he had anticipated when he went to that institution. When he had been there a year he wanted to be released on parole. He was advised that such petition would be resisted by the authorities of Macon County, the intimation being that the least that he should expect was two years in the prison. Also he was advised to remember that there were yet in force three indictments on which he might be brought to trial if he was paroled.

State's Attorney C. F. Evans Saturday night said that he did not care to make any announcement concerning the action that would be taken in relation to the three Indictments on which Phares had not been brought to trial, but he did say, "When Phares had been in the penitentiary about a year and wanted to be paroled, I declared that the persons who suggested his release, that I would not stand for his parole at that time unless I was compelled to do so. I thought that such short term was insufficient and so informed his friends. Now he has served about 30 months. When his petition for parole was filed I simply did not make any statement to the board of pardons. The members of the board were familiar with the case. I am not prepared to make a statement concerning the course to be pursued on the three indictments yet on the docket."

If Phares does not violate the provisions of his parole, at the end of 12 months he may ask the governor for a full pardon and restoration to citizenship. Citizenship does not automatically reinvest in a convict when his period of parole has elapsed, even though his conduct during that period has been exemplary. To be restored to citizenship he must petition the governor for that privilege. The crime for which W. A. Phares was indicted and convicted was the squandering for his personal enjoyment, the major portion of the estate of Miss Ella Race, whose confidential agent he had been since the death of her father, John W. Race, having been his confidential business agent for a number of years.

Marriage Notes for Maude McCune and William Phares:

At 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening Nov. 29, 1899 at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. McCune at 1044 West Eldorado Street, occurred the marriage of Miss Maude McCune and W. Arthur Phares. The nuptial service was celebrated by Rev. J. F. Wohlfarth, pastor of the Grace M. E. church, in the presence of a party of 100 guests which included Mr. and Mrs. George Ritscher of Owaneco, Mrs. E. E. Reed of Taylorville, Mrs. E. S. Daigh of Taylorville, Mrs. George Daigh of Mechanicsburg, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Flock of Springfield, the groom's sisters the Misses Lulu and Bertha Phares and brother Otis Phares of Grove City, Miss Mae Walker of Taylorville, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hurd and Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Laugblin of Cerro Gordo.

The ceremony was performed under a canopy of ferns, smilax and white chrysanthemums which was arranged in the corner of the front parlor. The couple were attended by two flower girls, the Misses Gertrude Damrow and Amelia Wiefel, who carried silver baskets filled with large white chrysanthemums. As the bridal party took their places Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Ina Kincaid and this was continued softly during the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of French organdie simply made with a yoke of valenciennes insertion and lace which was outlined with fluffy ruffles of the organdie edged with ruching. The skirt was trimmed with the ruffles edged with ruching and set to form a drapery at the aide front. The collar and belt were of crushed silk. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses tied with white satin ribbon. The little flower maidens were dressed in gowns that differed only in color. Miss Damrow in light blue silk with white applique yoke and Miss Wiefel was in light pink silk with white applique yoke. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served. The bride's table was decorated with large fern leaves laid carelessly on the cloth. There was a vase of white and pink chrysanthemums in the center and one large white chrysanthemum tied with white satin ribbon was placed at each corner. The other tables were in similar dress. Mr. McCune was assisted in receiving by the Misses Laura Dillehunt and Emma Russell. The gifts were many and of more than ordinary beauty and value. Among them was a handsome lamp, the gift of the Race Clothing company and tire employees and a silver service. Mr. and Mrs. Phares fleet for Chicago on the Diamond Special last night for a short visit. Returning they will reside with the bride's parents. Mr. Phares is the book keeper for the Race Clothing company.

Notes for Robert Dean Oldfield:

Robert Oldfield, 16, of 511 South Crea Street, was treated for an injury to his right leg Friday night Dec. 8, 1939 after a traffic accident in the 900 block East Wood Street at 6:30 p. m. According to police reports a truck driven by C. A. Howerton, 970 East Wood street was parked and the boy ran into the back of it with his bicycle. The police report indicated lights were on the truck.

Dec. 13, 1941 - Bob Oldfield, son of Mr. and Tonnie Oldfield, 511 South is with the navy in Harbor, Hawaii.

June 19, 1942 - Robert D. Oldfield, young Decatur sailor on a United States cruiser docked at a West Coast port, got so homesick to see his parents that he deserted and came home. Last Sunday young Oldfield gave himself up to Decatur police, Thursday word was received from Washington to turn the young sailor over to naval authorities at the Great Lakes Naval Training school. Police will take him there today. In his cell at the county jail and young Oldfield said that now he was happy that he had seen his parents. Mr. & Mrs. T. Oldfield, 511 South Crea Street, and wanted to return to this ship to see more action against the Japs. He expected to be punished for going A.W.O.L. but thought the trip home would be worth the price.

Incidentally, young Oldfield has been in the thick of the battle against the Japs in the Coral sea action, as well as in the Gilbert Island area. He is a fireman, first class, and was working below decks of his ship when the battle of the Coral sea was fought. But he said that he was permitted to go on deck after the battle was over, and that he saw the sinking of the United States Carrier Lexington. "The ship was blazing from stern to stern, and I saw our own ships torpedo her before she went to the bottom. My ship took on most of the survivors of the Lexington and brought them to a West Coast port," young Oldfield said.

In the Gilbert Island battle Oldfield saw direct action, saying that was acting as street, was acting as a gun loader at time and was on deck in action as the Jap airplanes flew at the ships and were met by terrific anti-aircraft fire. He said he was not permitted to talk much about the action he had seen but that it was a never-to-be-forgotten occurrence. He said he was anxious to get back and see more battles now.

Two persons were in St. Mary's Hospital Thursday night July 28, 1966 one in serious to critical condition following a two-car accident on U. S. 51 on the north edge of Elwin. In serious to critical condition was Robert D. Oldfield, 43, of Route 2, Macon, the driver of one auto. In fair condition was Mrs. Lena Klarner, 66, who was a passenger in the auto driven by her husband, John Klarner, 1820 N. Church St., Decatur. According to state police, the Oldfield car was traveling north on U.S. 51 at 6:08 p.m. when the car went out of control, spun around and stopped in the south - bound lane of traffic, where it was hit from the rear by the Klarner auto. Klarner was treated at St. Mary's Hospital and released.

He had a long and successful career as an Electrical Engineer in many States. John was also very active with the Red Cross of Ann Arbor.

Notes for Pamela Cushing Jessop:

Brunswick, Maine - Pamela Cushing (Jessop) Miley died this morning Jan. 1, 2016 after enduring Alzheimer's dementia for the past six years. Born September 30, 1936 in Peterborough, New Hampshire to Lionel and Alwilda Jessop, Pam spent her formative years in Peterborough, graduated from Nashua High School, and earned an Associate's Degree from Westbrook Junior College, a Bachelor of Arts and two Master's Degrees from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. She and John E. Miley wed in Peterborough on November 7, 1970 and spent the next forty years deeply involved in whichever community they found themselves.

In addition to her teaching career, Pam always made the time to volunteer in many and varied local arts, historical and educational associations. She was actively involved in programming at the Sharon Arts Center in New Hampshire and at the Ann Arbor Arts Center, working behind the scenes at the annual Art Fair, a nationally recognized event. Noted for her calligraphy, she developed her personal line of greeting cards and taught classes throughout her life. A lifelong student and teacher, Pam influenced myriad children and adults during her several careers as science teacher, art teacher, mentor and guide, both in public schools and private foundations. Public schools students in Amherst and Nashua, New Hampshire; Wayland, Massachusetts and San Francisco, California benefitted from her extraordinary talents and knowledge. While schools were off for the summer, Pam wasn't. Her enthusiasm carried over as an instructor of nature and science courses at Beaver Brook Nature Center in Hollis, New Hampshire and classes ranging from calligraphy to Ukrainian egg decorating at Sharon Arts Center. Until dementia made it impossible, Pam continued to celebrate the successes of and correspond with former students from all stages of her career.

Pamela was predeceased by her parents, her husband and her sister Deborah Lawrence (Jessop) Whitcomb. She leaves two sisters, Susan Pierce (Jessop) Moody and husband William V. of Swansey, New Hampshire and Penelope Canfield Jessop and husband David Chittim of Lewiston, Maine as well as four nephews: Jeffrey Whitcomb (Lisa) of Keene, New Hampshire, Scott Whitcomb (Robin Jervey) of Plymouth, Massachusetts, Noah Chittim (Kate) of San Juan, Puerto Rico and Ethan Chittim (Ashley) of Warren, Maine and one niece, Merideth (Whitcomb) Cutler (Randy) of Denver, Colorado as well as five grand nieces and nephews.

Alzheimer's disease is often called "The Long Goodbye" and is particularly difficult on those closest to the sufferer. Enormous gratitude goes out to those who helped Pam with her journey through this last stage of her life, in particular her special sister-in-law and caregiver Mary Lou Miley, lifelong friends Tom and Carolyn Scott, gentle and caring guardian and advocate Joelle Gurnoe and the dedicated and compassionate staff of The Garden, where Pam spent the last two years after moving from Ann Arbor. A memorial celebration will be held this summer at the Unitarian Church in Peterborough, New Hampshire. Tributes may be made to the Lionel and Alwilda Jessop Scholarship Fund, established by Pam and John in her parents' honor at the University of New England.

Notes for Henry Martin Rose:

Henry Martin Rose II passed away on Sunday, July 12, 2015, at the age of 96. He was born in 1918 in New York City, raised in Upper Montclair, summered in Bay Head until he eventually moved to Bay Head permanently in 1973. He was educated at the Ridgefield School and Cornell University, where he received a Bachelor's degree in Engineering. He was a member of Delta Phi Fraternity. After college, he joined the navy, and was sent to the US Naval Academy for an accelerated program in naval architecture. After completing the 18 month program at the academy, he became an officer and remained in the navy until the end of World War II. After the war, he worked for the Lovell Dressel Co., Congoleum Nairn, the Celanese Corp. and finally at Burns and Roe, Inc., where he was vice president and assistant to the chairman of the board, as well as vice president for Roe Engineering Enterprises. During this time, he was active in the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. He proudly remained a licensed Professional Engineer until his death.

He married Joan Kastner in 1942. They have four children, Christopher Duncan Rose, Peter Dunham Rose, Holly Martin Rose Hubbell Lonsdale, and Joan Miley Rose.

Henry loved sailing from his childhood, so much so that he built his own sailboat, a Howard Chappelle-designed Garvey, which was launched in 1953, and was featured in the July 1955 issue of Yachting Magazine. Henry was not only an avid sailor and tennis player, he also loved model railroading. His greatest renown, however, was for his skill in model building, including scale models of airplanes and ships. His model of the George Washington, a War of 1812 gunboat sailboat, was chosen as the most representative of the early US Navy, and sat on display in the Trenton Statehouse during the 1976 Bi-centennial year. Most recently, over twenty of his models of contemporary warships have been on display in several museums, including the Intrepid Air and Space Museum in NYC, the US Naval Academy Museum, and the US Naval Surface Warfare Center. He also won several awards for his models. While building models was a passion, he was also an artist, painting many scenes of Bay Head and Mantoloking, especially scenes of sailing races at both the Bay Head and Mantoloking Yacht Clubs. In his younger years, he painted watercolors of scenes in the western United States, where he was stationed during the war, as well as pictures of various warships on the water.

After marrying in 1942, he eventually moved to Montclair and later Glen Ridge. During those early years he loved being part of the Montclair Dramatic Club, doing sets and lighting. After retirement, he became very active at the Bay Head Yacht Club, serving as a trustee and club secretary for 18 years. This very talented man is survived by his wife of 73 years, Joan, 4 children, 7 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren, and his sister, Judy Dahl.

His memorial service is Saturday, July 18th, at All Saints Episcopal Church, Lake Avenue, Bay Head, at 10 a.m. Van Hise & Callagan Funeral Home 812 Arnold Ave., Point Pleasant Beach is in charge of the arrangements.

Notes for Joan Helen Kastner:

Joan Kastner "Pudy" Rose was born on February 23, 1922, In Montclair NJ, where she grew up. She graduated from Montclair High School and the Berkeley Secretarial School. Joan met her future husband, Henry Martin Rose II, in Bay Head, NJ; they married in 1942. They lived in Manhattan, then moved back to Montclair after the birth of their first child. They subsequently lived in Upper Montclair, Wallingford, Pennsylvania, and settled finally in Glen Ridge, New Jersey, where they raised their children through high school. Joan (mostly known as Pudy), loved medicine, and decided to become a medical secretary in 1962. She worked for two doctors for the next decade. In 1973, Pudy and Henry decided to move to Bay Head permanently.

Pudy was always an active volunteer; she worked at Mountainside Hospital in Montclair, under the auspices of the Montclair Junior League, for many years. She served as a vestry member of Saint Luke's Church, Montclair. After her move to Bay Head, she found herself volunteering for the fledgling hospice of Ocean County, and provided care, chauffeuring and feeding for many terminally ill people. She took up paddle tennis at the Bay Head Yacht Club, forming a group known as Pudy's paddlers. She was also a member of the Seaweeds Garden Club of Bay Head, the Literary Guild, Clams Investment Club, and was a very active member and volunteer at All Saints' Church, Bay Head. She served on the All Saints' vestry, and was the volunteer "wedding coordinator," shepherding many brides and their bridal parties down the aisle. She sailed with her husband often, crewing for him in many races. And, for the past 45 years, you could find her at the bridge table.

Pudy leaves behind four children: Christopher Duncan of Wilmington, Delaware, Peter Dunham of Easton, Pennsylvania, Holly Hubbell Lonsdale of Bay Head, and Joan Miley Rose of Oak Harbor, Washington. She also has seven adoring grandchildren, and 13 great grandchildren.

A service will be held on Saturday, Sept. 1st, at 11:00 at All Saints' Church, Lake Ave, Bay Head.

4993. Anna Elizabeth¹⁰ Dieffenbacher (Emilie⁹ Stoll, Ludwig⁸, David⁷, Anna Maria⁶ Zahn, Johann Melchior⁵, Anna Katharina⁴ Mezger, Anna Katharina³ Mayelin, Hans² Maeylin, Michel¹) was born 28 Feb 1908 in New York, Queens, New York, and died 24 Dec 2003 in Forsyth, Rosebud Co, Montana. She married ? Schulze. He was born Aft. 1900.

Notes for Anna Elizabeth Dieffenbacher:

My mother, Betty Schulze, who achieved 95 years of life before her departure on Wednesday, Dec. 24, 2003, was a true American who embodied our most noble characteristics of love, independence and hard work. She did not have a privileged childhood. Her father, a New York City harbor inspector, died of typhoid during 1908 when she was six months old, leaving a mother with three children to rear, but she accomplished a high school education and was a devoted reader of all types of written material all of her life.

She had to seek employment while still in school, taking jobs in many fields, one of the most colorful as a Broadway dancer in shows where she met such diverse notables as the aviator Frank Hawks, the showman Billy Rose, the gangster "Legs" Diamond, the comedian Red Skelton, the South Pacific singer Ezio Pinze, the comedienne Lucille Ball, et al. Until the last five years of her life, she designed and made virtually all of her clothes, being an accomplished seamstress. She enjoyed oil painting, decorating, floral design, and was a true homemaker to her husband who predeceased her in 1979, and her son who learned much from her, was loved by her and loved her in return

Politically, she was fiercely independent, never a member of a party, but made a practice of voting in all elections, She was able to forgive precious leaders and administrations at the federal level their indiscretions, with the exception of the present one which she considered wrong-headed.

She appreciated the expert treatment she received at the NRCC from Dr. Steven Butler and from her general practitioner, Dr. Stephen Shaub - as well as Dr. John Malloy, her now-retired general practitioner. Her sincere thanks also to their fine and thoughtful staffs, and to Deb French, the Rosebud and Treasure County nurse. Near the end of her life, she was given tender and excellent care by Dr. William Anderson and the staff of the Rosebud Health Care Center, to whom she was deeply grateful.

She is survived by her son Bob Schulze of Hysham.

Anna has requested no services, cremation and that her ashes be spread in Monument Valley where she felt closest to spiritual fulfillment. Beals Mortuary of Forsyth is assisting the family with these arrangements.

Child of Anna Dieffenbacher and ? Schulze is:

- 6228 i. Robert H.¹¹ Schulze, born 24 Oct 1935.

He attended Lawrence Technical Institute and thereafter managed and owned Patterson Laboratories in the Detroit area. He persevered with his flying and the US Air Force and honorably retired as a Lieutenant Colonel in March, 1972.

Dick was always a business man and many of his friends and associates were champions of various industries. He was an avid sportsman with many golf, handball, and speed skating triumphs over the years. He succeeded in a variety of real estate ventures in Michigan and made his way to the Valley of the Sun in the 1980's. Dick has lived in Fountain Hills, Prescott, and Sun City West, Arizona. His interests were varied but he took special care to be an excellent Rotarian (Paul Harris Fellow) with perfect attendance for forty years. He was a Mason, a supporter of many and varied benevolent and charitable agencies, and a loyal member of his church. The Shepherd of the Hills United Methodist Church has been his spiritual home through the joys, successes and trials of life and a comfort in his last days. He was a member of the First Congregational Church of Chelsea.

Dave was a passionate individual who loved horses and cattle. He would often enjoy a cup of coffee and share some wild and crazy stories about his past, such as when he rode his horse into the V.I. in Grass Lake! Dave was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone who needed it. He would have achieved 40 years of sobriety in June and knew the importance of AA meetings and mentorship. Dave was devoted to helping others in the program. A public visitation will be held at Cole Funeral Chapel on Tuesday, February 6th, from 4-7 p.m. A private memorial for family members only will follow.

Jo An (Joan) was born on June 29, 1926 in Wishart, Missouri to Willard (Button) and Phyllis Miller. Raised in rural Missouri, Joan found the love of her life when she met and later married a young sailor from Louisiana. Her husband, Mel (many fondly called him Gene), served his country in the U.S. Navy during WW II, the Korean conflict and the Cold War. Mel was often away from home, leaving Joan to raise their four children on her own. She was a brave, intelligent, strong-willed woman who never failed at anything she attempted in life. Joan had a sense of adventure and loved to travel. As the wife of a career Navy man she had ample opportunities to travel. With her young children in tow she traveled and made a home for her family in Guam, Hawaii, North Carolina, Oregon, Washington state, Missouri, and Northern California. After the death of Melder in 1986, Joan moved to Nevada and later settled in Sandpoint, Idaho. Joan never lost her sense of adventure, faith in independent thought and action, nor waived in her love of family and friends. All who knew and loved her will miss her.

Notes for Frederick J. Schmid:

Ann Arbor, July 21, 2000 - When B. J. Zahn was growing up, he worried a little bit every time his father left to begin his shift as an Ann Arbor firefighter. Now, it's his dad's turn to fret. That's because B.J. Zahn is following in his father's footsteps, just as his father did and his grandfather before that. It's a family affair that spans 84 years. Besides being a fourth-generation Ann Arbor firefighter, B.J. Zahn is also the fourth Benjamin John Zahn to wear an Ann Arbor firefighter's badge. Although having four generations at the same department is unusual, the tradition of father and son firefighters is common across the country, said Michelle Snider, executive assistant with the Michigan Professional Firefighters Union.

"I think that as boys and some girls grow up, Daddy is a hero in their eyes and they want to be like Daddy," Snider said. "It's very common in this profession." Ben Zahn Sr. was the first Ann Arbor firefighter in the family. He was hired in 1916 and served as the chief from 1935 until his retirement in 1955. Then came Ben Jr., who was hired in 1953 and retired in 1981 as deputy fire marshall. B. John Zahn was the third generation when he began working with his father in 1971. He retired in December as an assistant chief. B.J. Zahn picked up the tradition when he was hired in March. "We're a close-knit family and we've all been proud of what our fathers did," John Zahn said. "I tried to stay out of it, for B.J. and just let him make his own decision, and of course I'm proud of the decision he made."

Ten current Ann Arbor firefighters are the sons of retired Ann Arbor firefighters. And many more Ann Arbor firefighters have sons on other departments or are the sons of firefighters in different cities. B.J. Zahn said Ann Arbor was the only place he applied because he wanted to keep the tradition alive. "There's nowhere else I want to be," said the 23-year-old Zahn. "This is something I've always wanted to try. I wasn't sure I wanted to make it my career until I got in, and now it's my life. There's nothing else I'd want to do." But firefighting sons admit that it can be a little intimidating at first to follow in their father's footsteps. John Zahn remembers that well, which was one reason he decided to retire as his son was coming on board. John Zahn worked under his father for a decade. "I spent the first 10 years trying not to embarrass my dad. After he left, I was able to be my own person a little more," said Zahn, 50. "It's a little difficult to be compared to your forefathers."

Battalion Chief Tom Schmid was hired on as "Chief Fred Schmid's son" in 1977. He couldn't shake that label for years, even after his father retired in 1985. Upon the elder Schmid's retirement, Tom became "Retired Chief Fred Schmid's son." "We had a little back and forth thing going. I kept telling him, 'One day, I won't be retired Chief Fred Schmid's son. I'll just be me,'" said Tom Schmid, 43. Tom and Fred Schmid both remember that day. Several younger firefighters visited Stadium Hardware one afternoon, where Fred Schmid was working part-time. He was introduced to the group as "Battalion Chief Tom Schmid's dad." He immediately called his son. "I told him right away and he said, 'Well, it's about time,'" Fred Schmid said. Schmid was surprised when his son ended up in the same department. Tom told his dad he wanted to be a firefighter but didn't say where he had applied. When Ann Arbor had openings, the personnel department sent Fred Schmid a hiring list and Tom Schmid's name was at the top. "I called the administrator right away and said, 'What do I do here? That's my son's name,'" Fred Schmid said. Tom Schmid's 16-year-old son, Adam, recently decided he wants to follow in his father's footsteps too. He's part of the fire department's Explorers program. "I wasn't too surprised because he's been around it since he was born," Tom Schmid said.

Notes for Richard L. Lepre:

Hackensack, New Jersey - Albert P. Schmidt Construction Co. of Franklin Lakes, an award-winning builder of corporate and industrial buildings in New Jersey for 50 years, has been acquired by Barr & Barr Inc., one of the nation's top builders and construction managers. Established in 1927, Barr & Barr is prominently known for building major projects and restoring landmark buildings from Maine to Florida. In New York, for example, the firm was selected to build the Time-Life Building and Rockefeller Center's Promenade, Skating Rink, and Gardens. In New Jersey, Princeton University has been a showcase for its work on many projects there for 20 years. In announcing the acquisition, Barr & Barr President Donald M. Barr also named Richard L. Lepre as vice president in charge of the Barr & Barr New Jersey office. Lepre, an architect and career construction executive, had also led the A. P. Schmidt Construction team for former owner, McBride Enterprises. In 2000, A.P. Schmidt had projects in excess of $28 million.

Historically, the Barr & Barr name has been the benchmark of quality for new building and modernization of the most prestigious universities and health-care institutions in the nation. Engineering News Record, which reports on the construction industry, currently ranks Barr & Barr as the 40th largest construction manager in the United States. Founded 73 years ago, the firm has third-generation members of the Barr family active in management of the firm today. Main offices are in New York, Boston, Connecticut, and Vermont; the New Jersey office will operate from Franklin Lakes, as did A.P. Schmidt. In recent years, Barr & Barr's New Jersey projects have included the state-of-the-art 220,000-square-foot Saint Barnabas Ambulatory Care Center in Livingston and Princeton University's Fisher Hall and Molecular Biology Lab.

A poem favored by her mother, Dear folded hand so worn with care
So quiet on the pulseless breast, Will any burden need you there
If Heaven is a place of rest? And you dear heart will you forget
The struggles of these lower lands, Or is there some sweet service
Yet for folded hands.

He was born 21 May 1925 in Bakersfield, Franklin Co, Vermont, and died 28 Mar 2015 in Morrisville, Lamoille Co, Vermont.

Notes for Laura V. Burgess:

Bakersfield – Laura Burgess Doan L. age 83, passed peacefully into her new life on July 6, 2008, in Fletcher Allen Health Care in Burlington with her husband and children at her side. Laura was born Feb. 12, 1925, in Jackson, Michigan, the daughter of the late Grant and Clara (Vetter) Burgess. She graduated from Michigan State University with a degree in Animal Husbandry. She used her training for two years at Guacio Presbyterian Mission in Puerto Rico where she met Holden T. Doane of Bakersfield who was also serving there. They were married Sept. 21, 1952, and bought the Solomon Davis farm in Bakersfield where they had worked side by side for nearly 56 years. Laura was responsible for all the farm books and records and spent many hours beside Holden canning and packing maple syrup and making deliveries around the state, and once even in New York City. Laura as a long-standing member of the United Methodist Church, serving in many facets from church treasurer, deacon, and member of the WSCS that is now the United Methodist Women's Fellowship. Her commitment to Christ as Lord and Savior was an integral part of all she was and all she did. In addition to her farm and church duties, Laura served as town auditor for many years and a term as Town Clerk/Treasurer.

Together Holden and Laura raised four children and their home became known affectionately as the "Doane Hotel" as they welcomed friends, relatives and occasionally complete strangers for a night, a week or even months as needed. Laura was always a warm and gracious host genuinely interested in the well-being of her family and friends. Her quick wit and love of learning made her a delight to be around. She was loving and patient and could tolerate anything except "fulsome praise." Townspeople will remember her for compassion and caring, always ready to serve with a helping hand, a card, a ride, or a pot of corn chowder. Her grandchildren will remember her stories, her never-ending supply of ice cream and twix and the loss of her ability to say "no!"

She is survived by her soulmate and love of her life. She and Holden had the kind of marriage others envy, completely one, each always for the other. In addition, she leaves her four children, Linda of Bakersfield, Martha Cooper and husband Reid of Providence, Rhode Island, Tennyson and wife Joy of Bakersfield, and Perry and wife Rebekah of Decatur, Indiana; seven grandchildren, Matt and Catherine Cooper of Providence, Rhode Island, Tennyson Doane and wife Jennie of Quincy, Massachusetts, Cameron and Caelyn Doane of Bakersfield, and Holden and Rebekah Doane of Decatur, Indiana; several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her parents; two sisters, Barbara Gabriel and Elizabeth Richards; three, Margaret, Elizabeth and Carol; and a grandson, Anderson Doane.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, July 12, at 1 p.m. at the Bakersfield Methodist Church with Rev. Sue Marie Baskette officiating. In lieu of visiting hours, immediately following the memorial service, Laura's family will visit with family and friends at a gathering which will be held at the Bakersfield Elementary School. For those who wish, contributions in Laura's memory may be made to the United Church of Bakersfield and Fairfield, P.O. Box 215, Bakersfield, Vermont 05401-2312.

Children of Laura Burgess and Holden Doane are:

- 6983 i. Linda Lou¹² Doane, born 08 Nov 1953 in St. Albans, Franklin Co, Vermont; died 23 Dec 2015 in Burlington, Chittenden Co, Vermont.

Notes for Linda Lou Doane:

Linda Lou Doane, age 62, passed on to her new life on December 23rd, 2015, at the UVM Medical Center in Burlington, Vermont, with her brother and sister-in-law, Tennyson and Joy, at her side. Linda was born on November 8th, 1953, the eldest child of the late Holden and Laura Doane of Bakersfield. Linda loved her family, enjoyed young children, was interested in medicine and fascinated with machines, tools, computers and technology. She was involved in all of these varied interests at different points in her life. She completed a B.A. in Nursing at University of Vermont in 1975, and worked caring for children during the summers to support herself. Linda began her nursing career in Florida, later completing her RN at Texas Women's University in Dallas, and continued work as a nurse for several years. Linda attended the State University of New York Polytechnic Institute in Utica, New York, completing a degree in computer programming. She used this combination of expertise to work for companies that wrote programs for medical applications in Albany, New York, and Dedham, Massachusetts, among others. In later years, Linda wanted to be closer to family and moved back to Vermont. She worked at IBM in Burlington for over 10 years while living near her parents and brother and his family in Bakersfield. She cared very deeply for her family, including her nieces and nephews and their children and enjoyed being near them as they grew up. While in Bakersfield, she also became a member of the Bakersfield and Fairfield United Church and the Franklin UCC Church. Linda cared for her father, Holden, for the last few years of his life—a truly loving and devoted daughter—bringing to bear much of the nursing expertise she had gained so many years before. In turn, she was blessed by, and so appreciative of the generous and kind care given to her in her illness by family and friends.

Linda is survived by three siblings—Martha Cooper and her husband Reid of Providence, Rhode Island; Tennyson Doane II and his wife Joy of Bakersfield, Vermont; and Perry Doane and his wife Rebekah of Decatur, Indiana; and their children and grandchildren: Tennyson Doane III, his wife Jennie and two daughters, Adaleigh and Brooke of Syracuse, New York; Matthew Cooper, his wife Jessie, and children Eleanore and Albert of Luoyang, China; Catherine Cooper of Vancouver, British Columbia; Cameron Doane and his wife Emily of Woodbridge, Virginia; Caelyn Doane of Bakersfield, Vermont; and Holden and Rebekah Doane of Decatur, Indiana.

She is also survived by her uncles and aunts: Harrison Doane of Bakersfield, Carlton and Phyllis Doane of Canton, New York, Waynona Brown of Champaign, Illinois, and Patte Richards of Traverse City, Michigan; as well as numerous cousins including Marie Doane of Morrisville, Vermont who was especially attentive to Linda in her last months.

A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, January 6 at the Bakersfield United Church. Visiting hours will be held January 5 from 4:00 - 7:00 pm at Spears Funeral Home, 96 Dickinson Ave., Enosburg Falls, Vermont. Interment will take place in June in Maple Grove Cemetery in Bakersfield. Gifts in Linda's name made be made to Franklin County Home Health, 3 Home Health Circle, St. Albans, Vermont 05478 who cared so faithfully for Linda and assured her last hours were as comfortable as possible, and to Heifer International, which Linda greatly supported.

From the Manistee News-Advocate:

Walter E. "Wally" Herrmann, 78, of Onekama, formerly of Manistee, died unexpectedly on Saturday, Oct. 21, 2006, at West Shore Medical Center in Manistee. He was born Oct. 10, 1928, in Manistee, the son of Frank and Rosa (Harthun) Herrmann. Wally graduated from Manistee High School - class of 1946. He graduated from Ferris State Institue in 1951 with a bachelors degree in pharmacy. From 1947 until 1955, he served in the United States Naval Reserve. In 1952, he was commissioned an Ensign and ordered to active duty during the Korean Conflict. He attained the rank of Lieutenant (junior grade) while serving as the gunnery and anti-submarine warfare officer aboard the USS SMALLEY (DD-565).

He married Reva Rogers in Chicago, Illinois, on Nov. 30, 1956. Wally and Reva would have celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in November of this year. After his service in the Navy, Wally began his career as a pharmacist. He worked for his brother, Karl, at the former Red Cross Pharmacy in Manistee for several years. He then worked for the Packaging Corporation of America - Filer Mill, where he was in charge of the lab. Following this, he worked at the City Drug Store and later in the pharmacy at the Manistee County Medical Care Facility until his retirement in 1988. Following his retirement, Wally worked part time for Richmond Drug in Bear Lake.

After his retirement, Wally spent his time playing golf and pinochle, working in his shop, and visiting with his friends at the Manistee American Legion Post. He was a member of the USS SMALLEY (DD-565) reunion group and the Tin Can Sailors Association. He enjoyed attending ship reunions and the camaraderie and exchange of "sea-stories" with his former shipmates. He was also a member and past commander of the American Legion, Post #10, in Manistee. But he most enjoyed spending time with his granddaughter, Kayla, who was the light of his life from the time she was born right up to the present.

Family and friends will gather to remember Wally from 7-9 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 24, at the American Legion Post in Manistee. There will be no formal ceremony, but please come, visit and share with the family any stories and memories you might have of Wally. The family requests that, in lieu of flowers, those wishing to remember Wally might consider a donation for the continuing education of his granddaughter, Kayla. Wally was always actively involved in supporting her education both with his enthusiasm and encouragement and also by helping to finance her education. Envelopes will be available at the funeral home and the American Legion gathering. The family is being served by the Johnson Funeral Home of Manistee.

Born on Aug 6, 1959, in Cedar Falls to Leo and Suzanne (Gordon) Peters, Brian moved to Ames with the family in 1961 and graduated from Ames High School in 1977. On Aug. 18, 1984, he married Joan Booth in Indianola. The couple moved to Omaha, Nebraska, then in 1989 to Sussex County, Delaware, where they remained until relocating to Maine in 2016. During his time in Delaware, Brian earned bachelor's and master's degrees from Wilmington University.

Although most of his formal career was spent working for the State of Delaware, where he rose to the position of deputy director, Brian believed his job was what he did, not who he was. Truly never defined by his career, he devoted his energy and passion to his family and numerous hobbies. Always active, he was a competitive runner and single-digit handicap golfer as well as an enthusiastic hiker and explorer of woods and the seashore. Brian was an accomplished photographer, and his pictures were featured in magazines and used by charitable and humanitarian organizations both in the U.S. and abroad. Friends and family who were fortunate enough to receive his artwork as gifts cherish these photographs and display them proudly. Upon his retirement, Brian became involved with the Marine Education, Research and Rehabilitation (MERR) Institute, volunteering and serving on its board of directors. Here he combined his love of nature and its documentation with his substantial gifts as a writer and planner to have a deep impact for a cause he was passionate about. Above all, his main focus was his family, to whom he gave the majority of his time and energy and about whom he spoke with boundless pride.

Left to mourn his loss are his wife of 32 years, Joan, his son Andrew, of Toronto, and his daughter Ellen (Taylor) Milleson, of Wilmington, North Carolina. In addition, he leaves behind eight siblings: Mark (Marie) Peters, of Wilmington, Delaware, Lisa (Jackson) Price, of Oswego, Illinois, Juliette Peters, of Bloomington, Illinois, Diane Peters (David Rix), of Portland, Oregon, Nancy Peters, of Iowa City, Amy Peters, of Ames, Teresa Peters (Eric Reed), of Dallas, Texas, and Eric (Katie) Peters, of Ankeny, as well as 18 nieces and nephews and five grand-nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Leo and Suzanne Peters.

Notes for Joanne ?:

Middleton/Milton/Greenfield/Wisconsin Rapids JoAnne Janz passed away on December 11, 2017, in Middleton, Wisconsin. Though a long journey of Alzheimer's Disease brings her story to its end, JoAnne Janz was grateful for 78 remarkably healthy and happy years finding reasons to smile everyday. JoAnne was born in Wisconsin Rapids, the eldest of three daughters. Heartbreak followed just 9 years later when JoAnne's father contracted Polio and died. Prayers were answered when her mother married Roland, and this kind and gentle man adopted JoAnne and her sisters going on to celebrate decades of family milestones. JoAnne graduated from Lincoln High School and Spencerian Business College in Milwaukee. On a gorgeous fall day, JoAnne married David Janz in Wisconsin Rapids. Together they raised their two children, Brian and Barbara, in Greenfield, WI. JoAnne worked for more than 30 years for the School District of Greenfield as a teacher's aid, head middle school secretary, and assistant to the district's business manager.

An accomplished pianist, JoAnne loved movies, dancing, music of all kinds, and attending musicals and concerts (especially those featuring her own children and grandchildren) and relished time with her husband, family, and her adored Shih Tzu. Travel around the US and to Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, and France while spending time with family filled her diary with memories to cherish. Boating and camping led to retirement years spent making good friends on the shores of Lake Koshkonong. Besides feeding those she loved and cradling them in her arms, she wrapped them in many beautifully hand-knitted afghans, scarves, and more--many times donating her hand-crafted items to hospitals. JoAnne was quick with her beautiful smile, her easy laugh, and her sometimes-sassy sense of humor. The party began when JoAnne arrived, and her grandkids quickly learned that fun was in motion when Grandma Jo was holding their hands.

JoAnne is survived by her lovingly devoted husband of 58 years, David, who didn't leave her side even when her cherished memories did. She is further survived by those who filled her world with wonder and joy, their children and grandchildren: son, Brian (the late, Lisa) Janz of Memphis, Tennessee; daughter, Barbara (Richard) Schramm of Middleton; grandchildren, Brianna Janz (Abraham) Farhat of Omaha, Nebraska; Cameron and Addison Janz of Memphis, Tennessee; Evan Schramm of Middleton; and Andrew Schramm of New York, New York. JoAnne was grateful for beloved sisters, Karen (the late, David) Vallin of Tampa, Florida, and Marilyn (Ronald) Jevnick of Wisconsin Rapids, WI, dear sisters-in-law, Carolyn (Lawrence) Graff of Menomonee Falls; Luetta (the late, James) Hartz of Mosinee; and Mary (the late, Les) Janz of Olympia, Washington; Judith (the late, Alfred) Janz and brother-in-law, Gary (Danelle) Janz, all of Mosinee; as well as many nieces, nephews, and friends.

JoAnne is also preceded in death by her parents, Gordon, Marion, and Roland; parents-in-law,

Alfred and Bertha; and brother-in-law, Norman.

The family wishes to thank Heartland Hospice for their professionalism, comfort, and kindness and the compassionate caregivers of Artisan Senior Living and Memory Care in Middleton. A visitation will take place from 10:00 AM until the time of the Memorial Service at 11:30 AM on December 16, 2017, at the Cress Center, 6021 University Ave., Madison, Wisconsin 53705. Should you wish to do so, memorials may be made in JoAnne's name to the Alzheimer and Dementia Alliance of Wisconsin, 517 N. Segoe Road #301, Madison, Wisconsin 53705.

Notes for Elayne Ada Launer:

Elayne Bloom went home to be with the Lord on April 2, 2018. She passed quietly at her home in Aledo, Texas with her daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter in attendance. She was born on April 28, 1924. She was beautiful outwardly and inwardly, gracious and loved people. She treasured visitors and always made them feel welcome. As a young woman in her teens, she loved to sing and was asked to join a travelling band to which her mother wisely said no. She was an executive secretary most of her working life, but developed an interest in real estate sales and changed careers. She had a passion for decorating and creating, so her later years saw her in the business of designing and selling gift baskets to those who wanted "one of a kind". It was a good description of her as well.

She was a loving wife, losing her husband to a crop-dusting accident in 1961. She was a loving mother who stayed ever devoted to her daughter and a doting grandmother to her granddaughter. Active in Calvary Chapel, Simi Valley, California before moving back to Texas in 2017, she shared the wisdom of her years with the ladies of the Bible studies and worked to setup and decorate for events until it was no longer possible for her. Elayne was predeceased by her four brothers and leaves behind her daughter Traci Miller, granddaughter Layne Miller, son-in law Rick Miller and numerous nieces and nephews whom she loved staying in touch with.

Bless you, Mother, you will be missed beyond words. Memorial service will be held at Calvary Chapel Simi Valley, California on May 20th following Sunday service.

He married Julia Marie Price 24 Dec 1946. She was born 05 Feb 1922.

Notes for Dr. George Roger Klare:

George R. Klare was born April 17, 1922, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, son of George C. Klare, and Lea L. (Launer) Klare. He served as senior class president in North Bend High School in North Bend, Nebraska and graduated from that school in 1940. He received a Regents Scholarship to the University of Nebraska, where he studied before being called into the Army Air Force in 1942. He then took more college and officer training at the University of Missouri.

Following military and flight training, Klare served as a navigator on B-17 bombers in the Eighth Air Force in England. On Dec. 31, 1944, he was shot down over Germany. He spent the rest of World War II in German POW camps. He was liberated by advancing Soviet troops from Stalag Luft One on May 1, 1945. He was honorably discharged as a First Lieutenant in December, 1945, receiving the Air Medal, the Purple Heart, European area ribbons and the Prisoner of War medal.

Klare later recounted his experiences as a prisoner of war in a chapter entitled "Questions" in Interrogations, Confessions, and Entrapment, published by Springer in 2004. In this extraordinary account, Klare tells how he narrowly escaped death three times on January 3, 1945. While on a railroad car en route to the Luftwaffe Interrogation Center, Klare survived a friendly-fire bombing in the rail yard in Fulda, Germany, the target on this third mission one week earlier. Klare and his crew were ordered by a German guard to remove packages from the Fulda freight station that was on fire from the Allied bombing. The guard then ordered the men out of the burning building just before it collapsed. A crowd of angry German civilians soon gathered near the collapsed freight station. The German guard, who was an English-speaking Luftwaffe captain, was armed only with a pistol. Yet he managed to hold off the mob and take Klare and his crew to a safe building. "I owe my life to him," Klare wrote. "He was the bravest man I ever saw."

After World War II, Klare earned a BA degree cum laude in 1946, a MA degree in 1947, and a PhD degree in 1950 in psychology from the University of Minnesota. After working for The Psychological Corporation in New York City and the University of Illinois, he became an assistant professor of psychology in 1954 at Ohio University. It was during that period, he published, with Byron Buck, Know Your Reader: The Scientific Approach to Readability. This work introduced to the public the extensive research behind the popular readability formulas of the likes of Rudolf Flesch and Robert Gunning. The book showed the average reader in America was an "adult of limited reading ability," with half the population reading below the 9th-grade level. The readability formulas could be used to select and create literature and texts of different reading levels. Without appropriately graded texts, people will not read or improve their reading skill. His other books include Elementary Statistics (with P. A. Games), A Manual for Readable Writing, How to Write Readable English, and The Measurement of Readability. He also published 85 articles and book chapters.

Klare won a Fulbright grant to the Open University of England. He also won the Best of Show award in the Journal Article Competition of the International Technical Communication Conference in 1978 and the Oscar S. Causey Award for Outstanding Contributions to Reading Research in 1981, and was elected to the Reading Hall of Fame of the International Reading Association in 1997. He served on the editorial boards of eight journals, as well as The Literary Dictionary. He is listed in Who's Who in America and was listed in the Fourth Edition of Who's Who in the World. In 1978, he was named Distinguished Professor of Psychology. While at Ohio University, he served as chair of the Psychology Department from 1959 to 1963, as acting dean of the College of Arts and Sciences in 1965–66 and in 1984–85, and as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 1966 to 1971. He was also acting associate provost for graduate and research programs from 1986 until his retirement in 1987.

George R. Klare, 83, died Friday, March 3, 2006, at his home in The Plains, Ohio, from pneumonia. He was born April 17, 1922, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, son of the late George C. Klare, and the late Lee L. (Launer) Klare. A 1940 graduate of North Bend, (Neb.) High School, he served as senior class president. He received a Regents Scholarship to the University of Nebraska before being called into the Army Air Force in 1942, taking additional college and officer training at the University of Missouri.

He also served as acting associate provost for graduate and research programs in 1986-87. He was author or co-author of five books, including "Know Your Reader," "The Measurement of Readability," "Elementary Statistics," "A Manual for Readable Writing" and "How to Write Readable English," the latter published in London in 1985. He also published 85 articles and book chapters, including "Assessing Readability," which was named a Citation Classic by the Institute for Scientific Information. He served on the editorial boards of eight journals, as well as "The Literary Dictionary."

He received numerous research grants and contracts, and served as a consultant to a number of education, industrial and military organizations. He also held a Fulbright grant to the Open University of England. Census: 08 Apr 1950, 1757 Granville; Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co, California ED 66-862

Occupation: 1950, research electrical engineer aircraft manufacturing Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co, California

Notes for Carol H. Watt:

Resident of San Mateo - Carol Watt Parker, age 81, passed away peacefully Saturday evening, April 25, 2009, with her four daughters by her side. Born in New York City in 1927, she grew up in McKeesport, Pennsylvania, and attended Carnegie Tech, where she met and married her husband of 37 years, Norman F. Parker. They moved to southern California in 1949, where she attended UCLA to finish her degree in chemical engineering. From Whittier, the family moved to Michigan for 2 years, then to Woodside in 1968. Carol was always involved in community activities, from Girl Scouts, PTA and Children's Home Society when her children were young, to worldwide organizations involved in exploring and preserving nature later in her life. She loved the outdoors, traveling extensively to see places throughout the world. She hiked and camped with enthusiasm. Her adventures included sports car rallies, skiing, and whitewater rafting. Never idle, even indoors, she was an accomplished seamstress, knitter, and pottery maker. She enjoyed both bridge and Yahtzee. Her biggest love, though, was horses. She was active in most of the local equestrian groups, both as a rider and a volunteer. She was known in the San Mateo County Horseman's Association, the Los Altos Hunt, Los Viajeros Riding Club, the Woodside Town Trails Committee, the Woodside Trail Club, Jack Brook Horse Camp and the Folger Stable project, for her lively participation and her strong support. Carol took life in stride and rose above many obstacles along her way. Alzheimer's was her biggest challenge- she retained only fragments of herself as the disease progressed. Her cheerfulness and her polite behaviors, as well as her enjoyment of music and her great fondness for ice cream, were the last to go and will be long remembered by those who knew her.

She is survived by her daughters and their husbands- Leslie and Al Sasuga of Bishop, California, Kerry and Rick DeBenedetti of Woodside, Sandy and Henry Garbowski of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Noel and Art Ortiz of Twain Harte, California, and 6 grandchildren and their spouses- Miles and Beth (Obenour) DeBenedetti, Alan DeBenedetti, Torey (Sasuga) and Carson Beach, Cabe Sasuga, Liana Garbowski and Michael Garbowski.

The family would like to thank everyone at Canyon House in Menlo Park, for their years of kindness and care. No memorial service is planned; Carol may be remembered through contributions made in her name to the Alzheimer's Association of Northern California.

Michael Dean Hahn of Saline, passed away peacefully on Sunday, January 9th 2017, surrounded by his family at U of M medical center. He is preceded in death by his mother Joline (Howard) Hahn and his father Robert Hahn. He is survived by his wife, Dianne Hahn; sons, Michael (Robin) Hahn, Aaron (Destiny) Hahn, Max (Jennifer) Hahn; daughter, Aubrey (Dennis) Wagner; grand-children, Jackson Hahn, Cole Hahn, Emilee Jane Hahn, Andrew Hahn, Cecilia Wagner and Juliet Wagner. Mike was a considerably unique soul with a never-ending canvas. He did things his way, in his own time, and he loved every minute of it.

A Memorial Celebration of Mike's life will be held at the Ann Arbor Art Center (117 W. Liberty St) between 2:30-6:30 PM on Saturday, January 14th. The Hahn and Wagner families encourage all family and friends to come by to celebrate and support him. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the Ann Arbor Art Center in Mike's memory.

Michael was born on August 4th, 1948 and was raised in the great Ann Arbor, Michigan. As a youngster, he enjoyed and spent lengthy visits in Eastern Kentucky, with his cousins and family of his mother. It was surely here where Mike developed his deep love for Blue Grass music and a taste for Biscuits and Gravy. His parents owned a cottage "Up-North" in Lovells, Michigan where Mike enjoyed snow mobiles and learned to shoot guns and bow-and-arrow. As Mike grew into a young man, he attended and completed his high school at Ann Arbor High School. Possessing a passion for all things U of M (Go Blue) and Detroit sports, he also acquired a hobby and interest in art, and a commitment and desire to learn U.S. and World History. In addition to his multi-faceted interests, he always enjoyed the local Ann Arbor/Detroit music scene and became an extremely polished billiards player, schooling many of the regulars in the local halls and pubs. After high-school, Mike continued his education at Washtenaw Community College before being drafted into the United States Army, ultimately serving a tour in Vietnam. When Mike returned from his services abroad, he briefly worked at Ann Arbor Telephone Company, where he had the fate of installing a phone line for a beautiful girl, who would become the love of his life. He ultimately earned a steady living working for his father, Bob Hahn, alongside his cousin Richard "Dickie" Hale, as a truck-driver for Hahn & Company.

Mike married Dianne (Vedder) Hahn on October 13, 1973 and from 1975-1981 the Hahn family expanded with the birth of three sons (Michael, Aaron and Max) and one daughter (Aubrey). Settling and remaining in Saline, Michigan, Mike's new chapter as a father and family man was his greatest and most passionate act. Family fun was filled with vacations to Cape Hatteras, Myrtle Beach, Disney World, Florida, and Gulf Coast beaches, as well as regular trips "Up North" where he enjoyed canoeing down the Pine River. When the family was not vacationing, Mike was an active participant or spectator in his children's extracurricular activities, whether it was sports, music recitals and more. He enjoyed coaching his sons' and daughter's sports teams, both officially and un-officially. Mike's presence and passion was heard and visible at All of these events. Mike worked as a city driver and eventual Union Stewart at Yellow Freight trucking company, out of Detroit, Michigan. He was only 57 years young when he retired in 2004 after thirty years of service. It was this accomplishment of supporting his family and contributing to the graduation of all four of his children from major universities that Mike took the most pride in. He was able to enjoy a fulfilling retirement at a relatively young age and watch his sons and daughters marry and start families of their own.

Shortly into this next chapter, and prior to becoming the proudest grandpa that one can imagine, Mike re-visited his passion and hobby in the Arts. He picked up the paint brush once again and displayed the genius that had been put on the back-burner for so many years. His paintings made an extreme impression on willing eyes. If you knew Mike, he certainly loved to impress. Soon after, Mike joined local art-groups and even had a brief stint with a local acting club. He began to sell his works of art and was showcased in several exhibits within Washtenaw County. Fortunate to become a member of the exclusive Chelsea Painters Club, Mike gained new friends and connections within the Art community. A true family man, he loved his family and friends dearly. As he put it shortly before his passing, "I love living." This year, on New Years Day, Mike was so enthusiastic about how much he treasured spending this day celebrating the holidays with his wife, children, and grandchildren. Breathe easy, sweet genius. The impressions you have made will never fade.

Marriage: 10 Aug 1985, Washtenaw Co, Michigan

Children of Amy Schneider and John Anderson are:

- 7594 i. Justin¹² Anderson, quadruplet, born 23 Dec 1994.

Notes for Justin Anderson, quadruplet:

July 23, 2013 - Austin, Connor, Justin and Kara Anderson are all preparing to attend different colleges this fall, a first for the quadruplets. I ring the doorbell at The Anderson's home. KC, a golden retriever, greets me at the door. Amy ushers me in, telling me how KC is just too friendly. Kara comes and shakes my hand. Then Connor comes from the other room. Justin walks down the steps and then Austin bounces down last. I later meet Hunter, another sibling and their dad, Bill. So many people have greeted me. They're all so friendly. And more than half of them share the same birthday.

Kara, Connor, Justin and Austin are quadruplets who have just recently graduated high school from Brentwood Academy. Most families, especially large ones, have some element of loudness and sibling camaraderie, or rather, bickering. Sitting down with the quads I can't help but laugh and smile, because the amount of back and forth, asides, embarrassment and annoyance all combines into this chatter that is so happy. I guess that's what happens when you've been around the same people since you were in the womb.

Connor and Austin look alike. They get mistaken for each other a lot. Justin relaxes and talks occasionally, but never looks annoyed. Kara is the mom of the group. She answers for everyone, even when they assure her they can answer for themselves. She shows her love for them by how attentive she is to each of their personalities. Austin brings the party. He says he can cheer everyone up pretty easily. I'm hanging out with them to find out how they feel about going off to college. All of them are going to different schools and doing different things.

Kara is attending the University of Virginia and majoring in foreign affairs. She was the Class of 2013 valedictorian at BA. She played soccer and softball and was a part of many clubs. The boys joke that she got all the smarts in the family. Bill interjects and reminds them that she just got the work ethic. Kara wants to be a part of the CIA one day. She recently started learning martial arts and she plans to learn Persian to aid in this dream.

Connor is going to Baylor University for biology. Justin is attending Texas Christian University. He plans to try out as a walk on for their football team and he either wants to go into business or journalism. Austin is attending Samford for business. The boys have had the same friends for most of their lives, especially in high school. For so long they've been identified as the quads, as a unit. They're not all completely sure how it will go being separated, but they all feel bittersweet excitement. "I said I'm not gonna miss them now, but I will," Austin said. Kara said they'll probably have a group message for all of them to keep in touch. Amy gets a little teary eyed looking back on how close the kids are, much to the embarrassment of the quads. She said sometimes they'll come home from hanging out with friends and she'll catch them all just sitting at the kitchen table talking about their days. She imagines she'll see a similar scenario when they all come back from school. "It's pretty cool to have three people by your side, sharing in your experiences and your struggles," Kara said.

This is the first time in their lives where they won't have each other nearby to walk through new experiences. "I can depend on them a lot. Justin made friends and he basically helped me make friends. In college I just have to make them on my own," Austin said. Hunter, their 14-year-old brother, thinks he'll probably get bored without them around. "I'm gonna quote what he said. He says he's gonna like when we leave because he'll get the Xbox to himself," Justin said. "He already gets the Xbox to himself," Kara added.

Bill is excited to see the kids go to all different schools. He just wants to get through the week where he has to send them off. There are four different schools, all over the country, that they have to be at in a week's time. "It's always an adventure. We do everything big," Bill said. At their 8th grade graduation, they had at least 100 people over for a party. For their high school graduation, there was a four-layer cake, with each layer a book with the names of their schools on it. "I know that when you go through phases in their life, whether it's puberty or anything, everything is very intense," Amy said. "If there's a problem at school, I'm the first to know about it. I always know what's going on because I have four together in the same class. Just how close they are, what they've shared together, is pretty major."

A surprising thing about the Andersons is that no one appears worried. They all love the experiences they've shared. None of them dislike being a quad. They all just enjoy what they've had and they're all looking forward to what this next part of life will look like. As I take their photo on the front porch, Connor joked about not putting the same colors next to other so they don't clash, just like his and Austin's faces, or if they should put shoes on and worry if KC is looking at the camera. I hear a very happy family with an extremely unique experience that has formed their life in a way that not many people will ever understand personally. But, they are still very normal. And that is a good thing to see.

He married Lisa Marie Scott 27 Nov 1982 in Ramsey Co, Minnesota. She was born 22 Mar 1960 in Beloit, Rock Co, Wisconsin, and died 13 Aug 2016 in Germantown, Shelby Co, Tennessee.

Notes for Lisa Marie Scott:

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Lisa Marie (Scott) Janz of Germantown, Tennessee on August 13, 2016 after a courageous battle with endometrial cancer. She is survived by her husband of almost 34 years, Brian, who was the love of her life, always a supportive partner and never left her side, and her daughter and son-in-law, Brianna (Janz) Farhat and Abraham; and her sons Cameron and Addison, all of whom were the center of her universe. Lisa was born in Beloit, Wisconsin on March 22, 1960 to Tom and Sonia (Meyers) Scott, and had a wonderful childhood with her brothers Bradly (Shannon) and Stephen, and sister Julie (Scott) Belden (Jim). Lisa also loved visiting with her extended family, including her sister-in-law Barbara Schramm (Richard), her in-laws David and JoAnne Janz, and many aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews, and nieces that she loved dearly.

Although the depths of our grief is so very deep, we gain comfort in thinking about Lisa's upbeat and optimistic outlook on life and the role model she was to so many. At a very early age Lisa learned the love of the outdoors, and Lisa, Brian, and the kids could often be found on some kind of adventure -- whether it be hiking in the woods, biking on the road, sailing, windsurfing, swimming, fishing, and wakeboarding on lakes, or scuba diving on ocean coral reefs. Lisa loved to travel, whether it was as an exchange student to Turkey in 1977, visiting her own 2008 exchange student "son" Jakub Slavicek in the Czech Republic, hiking the cities and countryside of Germany, France, and Austria, or the jungles of Madagascar and Costa Rica. After graduating from Beloit Turner High School in 1978 and earning a degree in computer science in 1982 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Lisa enjoyed a rewarding career as a database administrator in the field of information technology at Sperry Univac, American Express, and FedEx, and took special joy in mentoring young women entering her chosen field of information technology. People loved Lisa's infectious smile and laugh which were the result of the great joy she derived from her "work family" at FedEx, her wonderful friends from the SWAK cooking and book club, and the "biker chicks" in the Memphis Hightailers Bike Club. Finally, Lisa was grateful for the care she received from Dr. Linda Smiley and the staff at the West Clinic, as well as the wonderful nurses and staff at Methodist Healthcare's Hospice team. Together, they helped to provide a high quality of life for Lisa and her family during her final adventure.

A celebration of Lisa's life will be held on Friday, August 19th, at the Lichterman Nature Center located at 5992 Quince Road. Welcoming of family and friends will take place from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Lisa was a strong believer in life-long learning, and wanted to know that young people would continue to get a good start on their careers in the field of information technology. In this spirit, in lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be sent to The Brian and Lisa Janz Scholarship in Business Information and Technology at the University of Memphis Foundation, PO Box 1000, Dept. 238, Memphis, Tennessee 38148.

2007. Nick was a family man who devoted his life to his children and wife. He loved sharing his passion and knowledge of the outdoors with them and they all enjoyed hunting, fishing, shooting, hiking, bear-baiting, and critter cruises together. Raising puppies and training dogs was a family affair. He enjoyed teaching his wife and kids life skills like building things, fixing things, and changing oil. He loved watching his kids play hockey, softball, and baseball and was even learning how to coach baseball. He went on horse-back rides because his kids wanted him to and had 5 dogs and some "stupid" chickens because his wife wanted him to.

Nick was an active member of the community and helped coach youth sports. He was a coach for the Black River Falls Shooting Tigers and had plans to coach hockey this winter. Nick was also a very active member of the Wisconsin Bear Hunters Association. Nick worked at Volk Field for the Department of Military Affairs since 2010. Nick will be remembered as passionate, opinionated, and hard-working. He gave 110% to every project he ever worked on. We will see him in all the things he built and fixed for us. He will guide us with every critter we track, animal we harvest, dog we raise, and shot we take. His love and passion for life will always live on in us.

Memorial Services will be held Saturday, July 6, 2019, 1:00 p.m. at St. Matthews Lutheran Church, 4285 US Hwy 12, Warrens, Wisconsin. Pastor Kory Janneke will officiate. Family and friends are invited for visitation on Saturday from 10:30 a.m. until the time of service at the church.

He graduated from Oconto Falls High School and later from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay where he earned his degree in computer science. Paul spent the last 10 years with the love of his life, Sara Janz, by his side. Paul and Sara were blessed with life's greatest gift on April 15, 2015 with the arrival of their daughter, Lilyanna. Child of Cortney Stollsteimer and Ricci Spagnuolo is:

7820 i. Arlo Lyla Perrino¹³ Stollsteimer, born 22 Mar 2021; died 19 Apr 2023.

Notes for Arlo Lyla Perrino Stollsteimer:

Jan 25, 2022 - A 10-month-old St. Johns girl is fighting a movement disorder so rare her doctors believe she may be the only one who has it, her moms said. Arlo's mothers, Ricci and Cortney Stollsteimer, are desperate to discover more information about the disorder that is causing her symptoms. "I think the hardest part is just seeing Arlo in pain and knowing that she's probably so confused and scared when this happens," Cortney Stollsteimer said. "We can't comfort her, we can't stop what's happening to her."

Arlo has some form of a movement disorder similar to dystonia. She has muscle spasms across her body and she involuntarily can arch her back or move her head. During this, she has no control of her body, Stollsteimer said. During these episodes, Arlo's heart rate increases and her temperature uncontrollably rises, Stollsteimer said. It's gone up as high as 105 degrees. Most recently, Arlo's episodes have lasted for hours, Stollsteimer said. She's conscious the entire time. The only treatment that has worked is IV sedation, Stollsteimer said. If she's asleep, her body won't move so it gives her a chance to rest. "It's incredibly stressful and worrisome," Stollsteimer said. "This is new, she's never had episodes this bad. I think this is the progression of her condition."

Her physicians have done nearly all diagnostic tests available and they cannot find a root diagnosis, Stollsteimer said. At this point, they're just treating her symptoms. "This is just really hard on her and we're hoping maybe someone can see this and have had a similar experience or knows a doctor who may be able to help or something," Stollsteimer said. Arlo has been at Sparrow Hospital in the intensive care unit since Jan. 17, Stollsteimer said. Doctors say she's critically stable. That started the battle to find a diagnosis and treatment for their baby girl, with constant tests, appointments and hospital stays. Arlo is physically disabled and cannot yet hold her head up by herself, Ricci Stollsteimer said. She cannot speak or emote, though her mothers have been able to get her to smile periodically, she said.

She has cerebellar hypoplasia (a condition where one of the brain's lobes is smaller than usual or not completely developed) and vocal chord dysfunctions that stop her from swallowing and protecting her airway, Ricci Stollsteimer said. Arlo has a feeding tube and isn't able to eat by mouth, Cortney Stollsteimer said. She could do so until about 6 months old, when she lost the ability. Doctors plan to surgically place a feeding tube straight into her small intestine to help her avoid her aspiration and reflux issues. Once Arlo is stable, her neurologist wants her moms to take her to a children's hospital that specializes in movement disorders to see if they have any ideas, Cortney Stollsteimer said.

But for right now, the Stollsteimers and their doctors are just hoping to get Arlo back to her baseline, where her episodes aren't hours long and she is awake and alert. Arlo was just officially adopted by the Stollsteimers last week and they hope to be able to celebrate properly when she is out of the woods. "We do not know what her life will look like, or how long she will be able to sustain life," Ricci Stollsteimer wrote in a post on Facebook. "But we do know, that she is a fighter, and we will advocate and reach high and low to give her the best life while she is here with us. "She has the most stunning blue eyes, and she tells us everything with them." The Stollsteimer's family has set up a GoFundMe page to raise money to cover Arlo's medical expenses.

Feb 2, 2022 - Two mothers in St. Johns are desperate for answers for their 10-month-old baby girl Arlo, who they adopted last month. She's battling a movement disorder so rare her doctors call her a medical mystery. Arlo's moms Ricci and Cortney Stollsteimer tried to have a baby almost immediately after they were married in 2016. But after years of fertility treatments without success, the couple began fostering.

That's how they met baby Arlo. "On April Fools Day, actual — I kind of thought it might be a joke — We got a phone call that was life-changing, and they said they had a baby girl that needed a pre-adoptive placement," Ricci explained. They had been chosen to foster Arlo. "For the next two-and-a-half/three weeks, we spent every day and every night in the NICU with baby Arlo," said Ricci. "She just had kind of a traumatic birth." "And then she had trouble eating," Cortney added. "She actually never took a bottle until we started seeing her and working with her. She left being able to eat," said Ricci. "From then it was just tons of joy."

Then, they started to notice some health issues. "She was considered to be just colicky or maybe a reflux baby just because she was crying all day long." But by August, Arlo started experiencing episodes of severe dystonic movements. "When she has these episodes, her temperature goes up very quickly to 105, 106, and stays there until they can stop her movements," said Cortney. These episodes can last hours. "Her last one, we were in the emergency room five or six hours, and she was awake the entire time moving her body and couldn't stop," said Cortney. "I can't imagine how hard it is for her. I mean, just to watch it, it will break your heart." Arlo has been in and out of the hospital since August. Her moms say she has a doctor for just about everything. "It's nothing that the doctors have seen before," said Ricci. Cortney said Arlo has had multiple EEGs, but doctors aren't seeing any seizure activity.

Ricci said the hardest part is not knowing what is causing her baby so much pain and not knowing what her quality of life will be down the road. "Because they don't know the underlying disease, they can't tell us how often this might happen, how often she'll have to be hospitalized, if this will progress," said Cortney. Arlo is currently at Sparrow Hospital. Dr. Kabelo Thusang is Arlo's neurologist. "We've been talking to experts in the U.K. and also the children's hospital in Washington D.C. because they too have movement disorder specialists, since this is my first case," said Dr. Thusang. "If medication don't work, there's a surgery that's been done in adults, but it's trying to find somebody who can do it for a child."

The Stollsteimers hope that by sharing their story, it will lead them to answers. Our number one hope is to find maybe someone somewhere that has either treated another patient like this or maybe just has some different, totally out-of-the-box ideas about maybe testing they could do to find her underlying condition." The Stollsteimers ask if anyone has any information or suggestions, to send ideas to BraveLikeArlo@gmail.com.

May 24, 2022 - Earlier this year, Cortney and Ricci Stollsteimer were desperately seeking answers for their then-10-month-old daughter, Arlo, who has a movement disorder so rare her doctors call her a medical mystery. Now one-year-old, Arlo is home on hospice. Arlo experiences hours-long episodes of involuntary movements that cause her temperature to spike as high as 106 degrees. She has been in and out of hospitals since August without any signs of improvement.

Her mothers say she has a doctor for just about everything but still no answers. "It just seemed like either her disease was progressing or her medications were not working," Ricci said. "We weren't real certain and neither were doctors, actually." Ricci said Arlo also started to experience gastrointestinal issues as well. "April 20, we went back to the hospital, which seemed pretty routine, actually, at first. We thought it was maybe medication management or issues with her GI tract," Ricci said. Two weeks later, they were still at the hospital.

"They finally ordered an MRI of her brain and she had to be sedated for that," Ricci said. The results were something no one was expecting. "It showed that her brain and her brain stem were significantly atrophied," Ricci said. "Her neurologist, her geneticist, her doctors—nobody could have imagined how dramatically this had been happening." The Stollsteimers have been home on hospice with Arlo since the first week of May, and they still aren't sure what to expect. "Because her illness is unknown. So, there's a lot of, 'We don't know' around that. Based on the atrophy of the brain and the amount of time from her last MRI, the geneticist did say three months," Ricci said. "We didn't think should would make it through the weekend, but she did. So, we really just don't know. We're taking it moment by moment." They are keeping her as comfortable as possible.

"We have a hospital bed in our front room where she sits and we have the whole window covered in sun-catchers for her and it's mostly just comfort-management and feeding," Ricci said. "She is finally able to take more formula. There was a few days where she wasn't able to get any nutrition that way." Some days are better than others. Ricci said majority of the time, Arlo is asleep. "But, today she did have a long period of time where she was able to have her eyes open," Ricci said. As her parents, they will continue to hope. They are going to start a trial drug that has a 1 percent chance of stopping Arlo's brain and brain stem from continuing to atrophy. "It won't improve what has already happened," Cortney said.

The Stollsteimers want to share Arlo's story as a reminder that life is short and precious. "I think a lot of people have been impacted by her, and maybe in the future, if there's another child or anyone that has something that they can't find answers for, maybe more people will step in and help," Ricci said. "We were lucky to be able to share her story and to get lots of public eyes on Arlo and lots of people trying, and they're still trying, and I think even if she is to pass on, they'll continue to try and search for answers."

Arlo Lyla Perrino Stollsteimer, passed away peacefully in the arms of her parents on April 19, 2023 after a brave and courageous journey with a rare neuro-degenerative disease at Sparrow Hospital. She was just 2 years old. She has touched the hearts of many and her impact will be everlasting. Arlo was born March 22, 2021. She bravely endured what no child should have to and she is finally free of her body.

Arlo is survived by her Mama, Cortney Stollsteimer, and her mommy, Ricci Stollsteimer, Forever remembered and treasured by her biggest brother Lance Corporal Austin Spagnuolo, and doting sibling Gabriel Stollsteimer. She is also loved and remembered by grandparents Wendy and Bob Stollsteimer of Elsie, Michigan, Terry and Jackie Wagner of Ovid, Michigan, Gayla and Ron Gossman of Lakeland, Florida, Bonus Grandparents Sue and Frank Spagnuolo of Grand Ledge, Michigan. Treasured in the hearts of her aunts and uncles, Tristan (Patricia) Stollsteimer of Bannister, Terry Wagner Jr of Grand Ledge, Jamie (Dave) Madar of St Johns, Roni (Brad) Behrens of Ovid. Step Aunts and Uncles Kathy (Jim) Blunt, Kirt (Lyndsey) Lover, Bobbi-Jo (Dustin) Howard, Ashlie (Ryan) Randolph, Ben (Debbie) Gossman, Corey (Doug) Jones, and Becky Gossman. Many special cousins and friends made along the way.

Arlo was preceded in death by many great grandparents and grandparents, and shared an incredible and special close bond with her Great Grandma (Nani) Mary Ferrall who passed in November 2022 and who we know was waiting for her angel to come home.

Arlo spent her entire life enveloped in the best of care and love and knew nothing more. Her parents advocated until her last breath to make sure that Arlo was well cared for and will continue their mission to find Arlo's diagnosis and to help others. Arlo had quite a personality, and she found her own ways to communicate with her parents and others. She used her eyes, sounds and even her feet to do so. She was curious and sassy, and when she didn't like something, she let you know. She watched closely anyone who came near her with scrubs on, she did things her own way always, and would make a liar out of any Dr, Specialist or Nurse because Arlo was Arlo, and no one told her how things would go. She defied odds and science almost her entire life. She loved to watch Toy Story, to be sang to, to tell stories in her own way, to be read to, spending time with her cousins, to sit in her wheelchair and watch out the window. She enjoyed cuddling with her pets, watching her lights from her mobile and listening to music. She had the bluest most incredible eyes and lashes, and the most perfect angels kiss birthmark on her left cheek.

Arlos strength is one that will never be matched. Our hearts are broken, but they are also more full, and our souls are richer because of her. We will see you in the skies Arlo. Til we meet again. Special mention to her hospice Nurse Karen who took great care of Arlo and the family since May 2022. Dr Erika who went above and beyond overseeing Arlo's care. Being the parents to a medically fragile child can be isolating, but these 2 made sure to share in valleys and peaks. We will never forget you, and either will Arlo. Also, thank you to Sparrow PICU Nurses and staff who took great care of Arlo, always.

A Funeral Service will be held at McGeehan Funeral Homes, Keck-Coleman Chapel, 1500 Waterford Pkwy, St. Johns on Saturday, April 22, 2023 at 4 PM. Friends and family may visit the funeral home on Saturday from 2 PM until the time of the service. Cremation will follow. Donations can be made to the family by way of the funeral home. The family is also asking that in lieu of flowers special pillows be purchased and sent to the funeral home or to the family. They will be given to Lansing Sparrow PICU to help raise the children's spirits and also be functional in positioning

Notes for Lane Jay Knudtson:

Lane Jay Knudtson, 61 of Brownsburg, Indiana (formerly of DeForest) died on April 6, 2019. He was born on April 8, 1957 to Dean and Carol Knudtson. His father preceded him in death. Lane graduated from DeForest High School Class of 1975. Together with his father, he owned and operated Tree Trimmers Ltd. and was proud to say that he worked on the grounds of the Wisconsin State Capitol and the Governor's Mansion. He was also proud to have designed and built his own log home in Rio. He had a love for all things outdoors, especially opening day of hunting season. He also loved fishing, boating, and camping (even if it was once in a teepee in his parents' backyard). He will be remembered as a talented and inquisitive man who loved life, never met a stranger, could fix anything, knew something about everything, and helped anyone who asked. He lived as the saying says...Life should not be a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving in a well-preserved body, but rather to skid in sideways in a cloud of smoke, totally worn out, shouting "Wow! What a ride!"

Lane is survived by his mother, Carol; daughter, Hannah Telfer and son-in-law, Drew; grandchildren, Kendall, Landon, and Brynn; sister, Kris Hill, and brother-in-law Tony, and their children Delaney, Dawson, and Keldon.

Visitation will Sunday, April 14 from 4pm-5pm at Christ Lutheran Church in DeForest with a memorial service beginning at 5 pm. An open house will be held for Indiana friends and family at Dawson's Too in Brownsburg, Indiana on Sunday, April 28 from 1-4 p.m.

Notes for Wilson Harris Clark:

Wilson Harris "Highpockets" Clark was born on January 29, 1962 to the union of his late father, Israel Wilson Clark and his late beloved mother, Edna Murlene Clark, and he passed from this life at home surrounded by his loving family on July 12, 2021, after an extended illness. Harris was a loving husband and father to his family and he means the world to them. He worked as a Motorman for Reading and Bates Drilling Company during the 80's for six years. After the oilfield days and being a fifth-generation cotton farmer, he decided to stay off the Gulf and started Clark Farms and operated it for twenty-nine years in his hometown of Hebert. In between farming he worked as a carpenter, a cabinetmaker, furniture builder and concrete finisher. He was an avid outdoorsman. He loved to hunt, especially duck hunt, which led to his hobby, training Labrador Retrievers to, in his words, "Fetchem' Up!" He became a lifetime member of the North Louisiana Hunting Retriever Club where he served several terms as President. He also served as a Volunteer Fireman for both the Hebert and Grayson Fire Departments. Harris was a faithful member of the Hebert Community Church.

Left to cherish his memory is his beloved wife of thirty-eight years, Karen Hagel Clark, their two sons: Steven Harris Clark (special friend, Karen Martin) and Adam Kyle Clark (girlfriend, Christine Wagers); his treasured granddaughter Raeleigh Clark; two sisters: Kay Clark and Karen Clark; his brother, Dale Clark; his two dog "buddies": Rain and Jazzy; and a host of other family members and friends.

Serving as pallbearers are his two sons, Steven and Adam; his co-workers, Dave Cobb and Sammy Shipp; and his nephews, Kenny Grant and Lee Boyett. Honorary pallbearers are the men and women of the Hebert Fire Department, the members of the North Louisiana Hunting Retriever Club and Billy McClanahan. The Clark family will receive visitors on Thursday July 15, 2021 at the chapel of Riser & Son Funeral Home, 7131 U S Highway 165, Columbia from 5:00 PM until 8:00 PM. Funeral services will be held Friday, July 16, 2021 at the Hebert Community Church at 1:00 PM with Bro. Billy Lane McClanahan officiating. There will be visitation at the church prior to the service beginning at 9 A.M. The church (formerly Hebert Church of God) is located at 696 Highway 848, Columbia, Louisiana. The Clark family would like to extend their gratitude to the Matriarch of the Clark Family, our Aunt Shermie, for being there at mom's time of need, also to Judy Blackwell for sitting with dad, his nurse Phil, and Dr. Hinson's office for dad's end stage care.

Children of Wilson Clark and Karen Hagel are:

- 7888 i. Steven Harris¹³ Clark.
- 7889 ii. Adam Kyle Clark.

Notes for Ryan Michael Scott:

Ryan Michael Scott, 29, of Boonville passed away Monday, December 21, 2020. Ryan Michael Scott was born January 7, 1991 the son of Jeff Scott and Marsha Van Boening. Ryan had the biggest heart and most quirky sense of humor. He loved to tell jokes, play pranks and tease everyone around him. Ryan began working for Ward Tile and Stone out of Marshall as a tile craftsman. He quickly developed an eye for detail and took great pride in the work he did. He loved his job and was always eager to learn more. Ryan's hobbies included raising bees and producing local honey. Ryan had a love for music, but his favorite job was being a father and he was so proud of his little boy Isaac. He loved Isaac with all his heart and would do absolutely anything for him. Ryan enjoyed the outdoors and had a love for animals. He enjoyed taking Isaac mushroom hunting, to the park, and teaching Isaac about raising bees. Ryan believed that somethings are better left unsaid and somethings are better left alone, don't make mountains out of mole hills. Ryan tried to live by this and turned the other cheek even if it hurt him in the process. He was loved by so many and will be dearly missed.

Ryan is survived by his parents Jeff Scott of Boonville and Marsha (William) Van Boening of Boonville, son Isaac Scott of Boonville, brothers Brandon Roberts of Boonville, Tyler (Kylee) Scott of Jamestown, Austin Scott of Bunceton, and Colton Scott of Boonville, grandparents Alfred (Billie) Friedrich of Bowling Green, Barbara Friedrich of Boonville, and Bunny Scott of Boonville, as well as nieces, nephews, many aunts, uncles, and cousins. Ryan is preceded in death by his grandfather Troy Scott of Boonville and uncle Jerry Friedrich of Boonville.

Visitation for Ryan will be held at Howard Funeral Home Monday, December 28, 2020 from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. with a service beginning at 11:30 a.m. with Tim Fairley officiating. Burial will follow in Pleasant Green Cemetery. Memorial contributions are suggested to his son Isaac.

Child of Ryan Michael Scott is:

7940 i. Isaac¹⁴ Scott.
