John A. Klein, proprietor of the Schuyler Mills, Saline, was born in this county December 26, 1836, and is the son of John P. and Mactalana Klein, natives of Germany. Mr. Klein emigrated to this country in 1833, but in coming over the "big pond" he was robbed of $140, nearly all the money he possessed in the world, leaving him with barely enough to get to Detroit. He hired out as a laborer in this latter place, and worked at that until he had accumulated a sufficient sum of money to enable him to buy 40 acres of land. Starting on this farm, he worked with energy and perseverance, and before long had increased his acreage to 160, which some years ago he divided among his 4 children - Catherine, wife of H. M. Jones; William, John A. and J. P.
John A., the subject of this sketch, was reared on a farm, and educated in the public schools. He was married April 2, 1864, to Christina, daughter of Christian Burkhart, an old pioneer of the county. There were 7 children born to them, of whom 6 are living - Horace M., Charles W., George, Alice, Anna and Minnie. Lydia is deceased. Mr. Klein purchased the Schuyler Mills, January 1, 1866. Notes for Johannes Fiegel:

Ypsilanti, September 11, 1891 - John Fiegel, a prosperous farmer of Pittsfield Township, was instantly killed last night Sept. 19, 1891. The German Lutheran Church Society, of Ann Arbor, was holding a church social at the Fiegel farm house. Ann Arbor members coming down on the Ann Arbor & Ypsilanti Street Railway, and then taking a jolly ride in Mr. Fiegel's hay rack to his home. The evening had been spent in merriment and all were preparing to leave. Twenty-five happy men and women had found seats in the wagon preparatory to returning home. Mr. Fiegel sat at the front with reins in hand when one slipped from his grasp. In attempting to recover it the team became frightened and started suddenly, throwing the unfortunate man to the ground and breaking his neck. The horses, dragging the twenty-five occupants of the wagon after them, continued on, bringing up against a neighboring barn, overturning the hay rack and throwing out everybody. Beyond a few slight bruises no one except Mr. Fiegel was injured.

Notes for Kunigunda Lambarth:
Emigrated in 1852; it is thought that Kunigunda was in poor health at the time left for US; thus she left in 1852 for Michigan with the Dieterle family to rejoin her family.

Lydia Dieterle (her second child and oldest daughter) related this story in February 1951, a few days before her 85th birthday. Kunigunda Lambarth, was left behind in Germany with her aunt and uncle (who were childless) when her family left for America in 1846 because she was too ill to go with them, she remained there for five years. It may seem hard to understand how parents could leave behind a sick child and depart for a strange country, knowing that they might not see her again for a great many years. It must be remembered, however, that in those days making an ocean voyage was a great deal more difficult than it is today. Travel was by a sailing vessel. Passage had to be booked well in advance, and provisions were taken for the trip. The voyage usually required several weeks, and the passengers had to take all the food they would need. They cooked their own food during the trip. Once arrangements had been made it was difficult to change them.

The parents had been warned that their child would not live to finish the voyage, and that if she attempted to go, she would probably have to be buried at sea. With the child's welfare thus in mind, it is easier to understand the parents' actions. The child was left in good hands. So much did they love the child, that during the time she was with them, they wanted to legally adopt her. They were deeply disappointed when Kunigunda made up her mind to join her parents in America. The decision to leave for this country, according to Lydia, came about in this way. And we are told that as a child Lydia had heard the story so often that it was as fresh in her mind today, some eighty years or so later, as it was when she had first heard it.

It seems that Kunigunda had been attending a church meeting of some kind, and there she learned that a family by the name of Maier was leaving shortly for America. Kundigunda, who then and later, was known as one with a strong will, returned home and announced to her uncle and aunt that she was going to go to America if those people would take her. The guardians tried to persuade her to stay, but to no avail, and finally they agreed to go to ask the Maiers, who lived about 12 miles away, if they would allow this child to accompany them. They walked the 12 miles! They agreed to allow her to go and preparations were made for the voyage.

When Kunigunda arrived in this country and saw her family for the first time in five years, she was disappointed. She had been accustomed to the comparative luxury of civilized Europe, and had come to this back-woods settlement of Scio township. Her brothers and sisters, expecting her arrival, were sitting astride the fence swinging their bare feet and as brown as Indians from working and playing in the sun. Her mother, too, now accustomed to the hardy life of pioneer mother, was not what the child had expected and she was keenly disappointed. But it was not long before she, too, had become a part of the life of her newly adopted country.

Kundigunda Lambarth Fiegel died at the age of 88 in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lydia Dieterle, 300 Ravena Blvd., Ann Arbor. She came to this country in 1852. The Ann Arbor News on the day following her death said that she was "a member of one of the oldest families of Washtenaw County....Mrs. Fiegel was a charter member of Zion Lutheran Church and of the Ladies' Aid Society of that church."

She was born 09 Nov 1852 in Canal Dover, Tuscarawas Co, Ohio, and died 01 Sep 1910 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Co, Oklahoma.

Notes for Johann Georg (Stierle) Stearley:
George Stearley, a native of Germany, born at Wittenberg, January 27, 1848, coming with the family to this country in 1851. George was brought up to hard work on the farm, in Jackson Township, with but meager educational advantages. At twenty-two years of age he apprenticed himself to the blacksmith trade, at Bowling Green, and later located at Asherville, where he carried on smithing up to 1880, when he sold his shop and business to a younger brother and engaged in saw-milling and the lumber trade. October 20, 1869, he married Miss Elizabeth Dutell, from whom he afterward acquired a fair education. In 1876 he was elected trustee of Jackson Township and re-elected in 1878, serving four years in this capacity. In 1880, in the county convention held in June, at Bowling Green, he was nominated by the Democratic party for sheriff, but defeated at the general election. In 1882 he was again, nominated for the same place and elected, then re-nominated and re-elected in 1884. At the expiration of his official service he retired to the farm, where he afterwards founded the town of Stearleyville, on the line of the Center Point division of the Vandalia Railroad, where he continued to reside until the year 1900, when he sold all his property interests here and moved to Oklahoma, where lie purchased lands for the members of his family and himself and engaged, also, in the real estate business for a time at Oklahoma City, where he now resides. Fraternally, he is a member of the Masonic Order, the Knights of Honor and the Knights of Labor.

George died April 4, 1930 from injuries sustained from being hit by a street car in Oklahoma City.

Counties of Clay and Owen, Indiana: Historical and biographical. Edited by Charles Blanchard; Chicago – F. A. Batty & Company, Publishers, 1884. Page 387:

George Stearley, Sheriff of Clay County, Indiana, was born in Wuerttemberg, Germany, on Jan. 27, 1848, and is the son of John & Rosanna (Burkhart) Stearley, natives of Germany. The father was a weaver by trade, but followed farming after his marriage, and came to this country in 1851.

George was reared on a farm, and had no opportunities for an education whatever, but the knowledge he possesses he acquired through his own perseverance, aided by an intellectual and educated wife, since his marriage. He worked for his father until he was twenty-two, then branched out for himself; learned the blacksmith trade at Bowling Green, the then county seat of Clay County, following this business until 1880, when he sold his shop to a younger brother and engaged in the saw mill business, which he still manages.

On October 20, 1869, he married Elizabeth Duteel, daughter of August and Josephine Duteel , of Clay County. To them have been born seven children, five of whom are living, viz.: William, Josephine, Lena, Louisa and an infant unnamed. He was elected Trustee of Jackson Township, Clay County, in 1876; was re-elected in 1878. Before the expiration of this last term his popularity secured him, at the hands of the regular Democratic Convention, the nomination for Sheriff of Clay County, but a revolution in politics having taken place, he was defeated, with the whole Democratic ticket. But Mr. Stearley possessed true courage and an invincible will; in 1882, again entered the field for Sheriff, was victor, and is now filling the office with credit and ability.

Mr. Stearley has accumulated a considerable amount of this world's goods, but his kind and benevolent traits of character have been a financial disadvantage to him, inasmuch as they have compelled him liquidate debts of his friends amounting to several thousands of dollars. He and his family are members of the German Evangelical Church. He is also a member of the Masonic fraternity, the Knights of Honor, and the Knights of Labor.

Stearleyville, a town - site, station and former post office in the south part of Jackson township, on the line of the Center Point division of the Vandalia Railroad, two miles north of Center Point, so named for the reason that it was founded by George Stearley, on his premises in 1891. The post office was established in 1892, and discontinued in 1902 succeeded by rural delivery. The postmasters were James T. Carrithers and Edward Shults. The first business house was erected on the south-east corner of the crossing, on the premises of Dr. B. F. Holmes, which was burned several years later, when Stearley put up a business room on the opposite or northwest corner of the crossing, which is still occupied. The merchants of the place have been Edward Arnink, John Hoffman, Stigler Brothers and Edward Shults. A German Reform church was erected here, known as St. Peters, perhaps prior to the founding of the town-plat.

There was a railroad depot, store, church and several dwellings. A blacksmith shop was started by George Stearley II and then operated by his brother Roy Stearley. Around 1900 there were so many offspring of the Stearleys in the area, it prompted a local saying that "Clay County was made up of Stearleys and Ragwheeds."

Oklahoma City, April 16, 1930 – Will of the late George Stearley, it listed property valued at $30,000. The will provides that the property shall be divided evenly between five daughters, Josephine Schafer of Brazil, Indiana, Magdalena Deardorf, Rosa Harrison, Louise Johnson and Frances Garlick, all of Oklahoma City, and one son, W. F. Stearley also of Brazil.

He married Agnes W. Keddie 29 Sep 1885, daughter of Thomas Keddie and Janet Taylor. She was born 18 Jan 1869 in Scotland, and died 20 Apr 1936 in Reno Co, Kansas.

Notes for John (Wiederoder) Withroder:
History of Reno County, Kansas, Volume 2. By Sheridan Ploughe. Page 638:
John Withroder, a well-known and prosperous farmer of Huntsville Township, Reno County, owner of a fine ranch in the Plevna neighborhood and accounted one of the most substantial citizens of that part of the county, is a native of Indiana, born on a farm in Clay county, that state, September 18, 1848, son of Michael and Magdaline (Berkharde) Withroder, natives of Germany, who came to the United States not long after their marriage and for a time resided in Ohio, but presently moved over into Indiana, settling in Clay county, where they spent the remainder of their lives. Michael Withroder died on October 28, 1884, and his widow died on July 30, 1907. They were members of the German Lutheran church and their children were reared in that faith. There were five of these children, Charles, Barbara (deceased), John, George and Emma.

Reared on his father's farm in Clay Township, Indiana, John Withroder obtained his schooling in the public schools of that neighborhood and remained there until 1875, in which year he came to Kansas, with a view to becoming a farmer on a somewhat larger scale than seemed possible back home. Upon arriving in Reno County he homesteaded a tract of land in section 18, Huntsville Township, in addition to which he pre-empted a timber claim, and proceeded to improve and develop the same. Ten years later he married and established his home on his homestead tract, to which he meanwhile had been adding by purchase of adjoining tracts, and as he continued to prosper he added further tracts until now he is the owner of a fine farm of two thousand two hundred and sixty acres in Reno county and six hundred and forty acres in Lipscomb county, Texas.

It was on September 29, 1885, that John Withroder was united in marriage to Agnes Keddie, who was born in Scotland and who was but eighteen months old when her parents, Thomas and Janet (Taylor) Keddie, both natives of that country, came to the United States. Thomas Keddie, who for years has been one of the best-known residents of Reno County, was born on June 21, 1844, son of John Keddie, a carpenter, and his wife was born on August 9, 1844, daughter of Henry Taylor, an expert horseman. Upon coming to this country with his family, Thomas Keddie located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where he made his home for eight years. In 1876 he came to Kansas and homesteaded a tract of land in Huntsville Township, this county, where he established his home, and at the same time preempted a timber claim. He prospered in his operations and is now the owner of twelve hundred acres of well-improved land in this county. Mr. Keddie is a well-known preacher in the Holiness church and has also taken an active part in the political affairs of the county, having been at one time a representative in the Legislature from this district. To him and his wife six children have been born, of whom Mrs. Withroder is the eldest, the others being George, Jessie, Anna, Henry and Thomas.

To John and Agnes (Keddie) Withroder six children have been born, namely: Thomas, born on December 30, 1886; Eddie, January 2, 1889; Everett, February it, 1891, who died on November 5, 1913; George, July 6, 1893; Elleta, June 14, 1900, and Gladys, August 25, 1908. Mr. and Mrs. Withroder are active members of the United Brethren church and take an earnest interest in all neighborhood good works.

Notes for Emanuel Rentschler:
Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for Emanuel Rentschler who died in. the Saline hospital last Friday Feb. 6, 1942. He was born January 13, 1864 in Freedom Township. On April 14, 1892, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Burkhardt who survives him. He is also survived by a son, Herman, of US-112; a daughter, Mrs. C. E. Wittbracht, of Detroit, and nine grandchildren. Another son, Alwin, died in 1922. Rev. C. H. Wittbracht had charge of the services at the house and St. Paul's church. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery. Mr. Rentschler took an active interest in city affairs and had served as president of the village for a number of years before the village became a city.

In 1825, John Gilbert purchased a 240-acre farmstead encompassing the land where the Rentschler Farm Museum now stands. By 1840, the property had passed into the hands of the Tate family, who farmed the land, and at some point constructed a house, barn, and tool shed on the property. In 1901, the farmstead was put up for auction and purchased by Emanuel Rentschler. A few years later, Emanuel Rentschler moved and expanded the barn. In 1906, he dismantled the original house and, with the help of his brother Matthew Rentschler, constructed a new house on the property. More outbuildings were added in subsequent years, including a milk house and henhouse.

The land continued to be used by four generations of Rentschlers before being abandoned in the late 1990s. In 1998, the city of Saline purchased the land to turn it into a museum. The farmhouse and adjacent buildings, which had been in use since 1900, were restored in 2001 by the Saline Area Historical Society, and the old farm became the Rentschler Farm Museum.

"The farmhouse, adjacent buildings, and land were NOT abandoned. The farm land was sold off in sections in various years. Warren and Marilyn Rentschler sold the last four acres and the buildings to the City of Saline in 1998. Originally, the city intended to develop the property as a visitor center. The Saline Area Historical Society petitioned the city to lease the property to them, a non-profit. This was agreed upon and the historical society developed a farm museum dedicated to all the farmers of the Saline area."

Rentschler Farm Museum is at 1265 E. Michigan Avenue, one mile east of Downtown Saline. We are near Industrial Drive (traffic light) and next door to the Sauk Trail Shopping Center. There is a driveway off Michigan Avenue, but the farm property can also be reached by turning into Sage Court and using the back entrance to the museum. Located on the east end of town on four acres of land purchased by the City of Saline in 1998, the Rentschler Farm Museum consists of a frame house and eleven outbuildings, all of which have been on the National Register of Historic Places since 2013.

The architecture of the house was borrowed from several styles, but is dominated by the Queen Anne fish scale accent in the gable and a wrap-around gingerbread porch, the latter having been restored in 2001 by the historical society. The outbuildings consist of a restored workshop, hog house, an original 19th c. shed, large equipment barn, henhouse, corncrib, upper and lower barns, a sheep barn, small equipment shed, an ice house and a windmill.

The name Rentschler means landowner or farmer. Emanuel Rentschler purchased his 216 acre farm just after the turn of the century. At that time, there was an old farmhouse and a large dairy barn that stood perpendicular to the road. The 19th century shed was still useable and there was a sprinkling of other buildings that have since been razed. Gradually, Mr. Rentschler made several improvements, including a new farmhouse in 1906, built by his brother, Matthew. Four generations of Rentschlers lived and worked on this homestead between 1901-1998. Volunteers from the Saline Area Historical Society developed the property with a focus on farm living between the years 1900-1950. These are the years that reflect a time of great change in agriculture and family living. There was the transition from horse to tractor, from kerosene to electricity, from an agriculture-based economy to a manufacturing economy. All of these are visible in the history of this farm, which we dedicate to all farm families of this area. Many of the artifacts that appear quaint today were actually innovative in their own time.

Notes for Elmer Enoch Burkhart:
Jan. 18, 1945 – Sgt. Elmer Burkhardt has written to his mother, Mrs. A. R. Lee, about his experience on Christmas. He had been stationed in England with the Signal Corps for some months and when he and 25 others his unit felt a strong sense of nostalgia on that day they gathered all the gum, and candy they could find among their outfit and set out for British Red Cross Home for war orphans. Here they found 46 youngsters all under six years of age where they spent an hour distributing the toys they had made and the sweets. He states that their hearts went out to these "kids" for no one knows what they have sacrificed in the war and that they are more or less forgotten except at Christmas time and in reality need help all of the time. He reported that at the close of the hour no one knew who had the best time the kids or the soldiers.

Notes for Reginald Spokes:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Reginald Spokes, who for twelve years has been city engineer of the water company in Ann Arbor, being for the last eight years in charge of the pumping station and well known here as a reliable business man, was born in Saline, June 17, 1850. The father, Amos Spokes, was born in Northamptonshire, England, in 1824 and crossed the Atlantic to New York in 1847. By way of the Wellington canal and the Great Lakes he journeyed westward to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and soon afterward he came to Washtenaw County, Michigan, where he established his home. He was a millwright by trade but he followed carpentering for a few years after coming to Michigan and then returned to his former occupation. At one time he owned a mill and he has done work as a millwright on all the mills along the Huron River. He was married to Miss Lydia Clark, a native of Rugby, England, who was educated at Rugby College and came to this country with her brother, Dr. Clark, settling at Dexter, Michigan. By this marriage there were born five children, of whom one died in infancy. William, a miller by trade, living in Jackson County, married Ettie Parsons and has one daughter. Temperance M. is the wife of John W. Mason, of Bicknell, Indiana, and they have two children. Reginald is the next of the family. Charles A. is a railroad conductor on the Michigan Central road running on the limited. The father was a member of the Presbyterian Church and a very devout Christian man. He was also chorister in several of the leading churches of this county. While in England he was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. In addition to his millwright business in this county he engaged in merchandising for several years in Howell and as prosperity attended him he made judicious investment in property until he owned considerable real estate here. His death occurred February 21, 1891, while his wife passed away February 21, 1904, at the advanced age of eighty-five years, having survived her husband for exactly thirteen years.

Reginald Spokes left home when a youth of eleven years and began working on a farm. He had a common-school education and was a student in the high school at Saline. When fifteen years of age he learned the painter's trade, which he followed until twenty years of age. He then came to Ann Arbor and began railroading, which he followed in all branches of the business not only upon the road but in the shop as well. After his marriage, however, he gave up railroading and operated a stationary engine in a mill in Ann Arbor for some time. Later, however, he returned to the railroad employ as an engineer but during the last twelve years he has been city engineer for the water company in Ann Arbor, acting in that capacity at the pumping station during the past eight years.

Mr. Spokes was married to Miss Annie E. Hauser, a daughter of Christopher Hauser, who was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, but came to Michigan in early life. He engaged in business at Saline as a boot and shoe merchant and made most of his own stock. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Spokes have been born three sons: Harold, seven teen years of age; William C., fifteen years old; and Raymond E., eight years of age. Mr. Spokes is a member of the Presbyterian Church and also belongs to Golden Rule lodge, No. 149, A. F. & A. M., at Ann Arbor, and Maccabees tent, No. 296. In politics he is a stalwart republican and for two years represented his ward on the board of aldermen, where he won many friends by his official integrity and his devotion to the general welfare. He now has a fine home on North Division Street and he owns considerable other property in Ann Arbor, showing that his life has been well spent and that his energies have been capably directed, for he started out on his own account when but eleven years of age and has since been dependent upon his own resources.

Marriage Notes for Lydia Klein and Edward Alber:

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Alber, 101E. McKay St., Milan, will be observed, Saturday evening, Dec. 28 1957, with a reception from 6 to 9 o'clock in the basement of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church for the immediate family and near neighbors. Members of that church, they were married oh that date in 1907 at the parsonage by the late Rev. Carl Lederer.

The bride's sister, Emma, later Mrs. Emma Smith, recently deceased, was maid of honor, and the best man, was the groom's brother, Herman Alber, Saline, who will be present at the golden anniversary. Also attending the reception will be Mrs. Alber's sister. Mrs. Minnie Bock, Ann Arbor, and Miss Lucille Myers, Detroit, who lived in the Alber home and, attended school in Saline. Besides his brother, Herman, present will be Mr. Alber's sisters, Mrs. William Kuebler, Bridgewater, and Mrs. Helen Finkbeiner, Ann Arbor, and their nieces, and nephews. Mrs. Alber is the daughter of late John Adam Klein, who owned and operated the historic Schuyler Mill for many years. She was born in the large house across the street from the mill on the present W. Michigan. Ave. Mr. Alber's parents were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Michael Albert, Who lived near Bridgewater on the present Austin Rd.

Mr. Alber had learned the miller's trade at the York Mill when S. M. Bixby owned and operated it, and after their marriage; the couple went to Eureka, Kansas, where he worked in a mill. Ten for a short time they lived in Encio, New Mexico, and Davenport, lowa. They returned to Saline in 1911 when brothers Edward and, Herman purchased the York Mill, south of town. After a, few years Herman sold his interest to Jacob Theurer, and in 1930 Ed, as he was familiarly called became sole owner and proprietor until 1944, when he sold the mill and retired. Mr. Alber could not remain inactive, so has been custodian at the Citizens Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Alber lived in the big house, near the mill and closer to the road, with their only child, Louise Clarine, who was a traffic fatality in 1932 at the age of 12, when playing with schoolmates on N. Ann Arbor St. Mr. Alber was expert miller and products bearing the York Mills label were widely known and sold.

That section was known for its beautiful scenery. The Alber property was well kept, the mill race overhung with trees and the pond in winter was the favorite skating place. For many years the road was narrow, home drawn buggies and wagons could barely pass each other, and the hill on the south was much steeper. The pond side of the road was lined with huge willow trees, between which a view of the pond could be seen as one drove past. This was changed when the road became county maintained and was widened. The mill, which was a large three story building, was a landmark for many years and was razed only a few years ago. The property is known as the . . .

Two of his sons, Chris, who resides on the homestead farm in Lima, and Otto, of Ann Arbor, left Tuesday night for Batavia and reached Ann Arbor this morning with the body. A dispatch from Batavia says: "In the man's pocket was ticket to Chelsea and a memorandum on was written the name Jas. S. Gorman, of Chelsea, who was Koch's attorney. The accident happened at Byron, New York, a small station outside of Batavia. Koch either leaped or accidentally fell from the platform of the train, death resulting instantaneously. Corner Snow, of Genesee County, New York. According to the dispatch, was notified, and at first was in doubt as to whether Koch had come to his death accidentally or whether he had planned self-destruction, but finally gave it as his belief that Koch fell from the platform accidentally."

Christian Frederick[8] Fiegel (Johannes[7], Anna Katharina[6] Burkhardt, Christian[5], Johann Georg[4], Wolfgang[3], Michael[2], Conrad[1]) was born 25 Feb 1864 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 25 Jun 1949 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Eva Blandina (Emma) Schenk 17 Mar 1887 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Johannes Schenk and Katharina Eschelbach. She was born 02 Jun 1866 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 13 Oct 1950 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Christian Frederick Fiegel:
Detroit - Although heart balm suits have been outlawed in Michigan, such actions can still be brought in Federal Court. This was demonstrated Wednesday April 1, 1936 when testimony was taken, in the $75,000 suit brought by Mrs. Bessie Lohr, thirty-four-year-old divorcee, against Fred C. Fiegel, wealthy seventy-two-year-old farmer living on Abbott Ave., near Ann Arbor. Mrs. Lohr, who also has a farm near Ann Arbor, was able to bring the case into Federal Court by establishing a residence In Toledo. As the resident of another state, she could sue a Michigan resident In the Federal courts. Although it may not be the first action of this type filed in Federal Court in Detroit, it is the only one in the memory of the oldest court clerks.

Mrs. Lohr, before a jury of seven women and five men in Judge Ernest O'Brien's court, told of a romance with Fiegel, which, she said, was to have culminated in marriage Dec. 15, 1934. However, she charged, shortly before the date which she said Fiegel set for their marriage, he revealed to her that he was already married and was unable to fulfill his promise. Mrs. Lohr, three times divorced, said she was the mother of two children. She first met Fiegel when he came to her farm as an appraiser for the Federal Crop Loan Corp. Their friendship grew, she testified, until he made a promise of marriage.

During the hearing Wednesday, Charles Bowles, former mayor of Detroit and a former judge in Recorder's Court, who is acting as Mrs. Lohr's attorney, was reprimanded by Judge O'Brien when he objected to portions of Mrs. Lohr's cross-examination by John B. Mellott, defense attorney. He made his protests from his chair. "If you want to make any objections in this court," Judge O'Brien advised him,' "stand up to make them." Mrs. Lohr had started a breach of promise suit for $100,000 against Fiegel in Washtenaw County in August, 1935. When the case was called she failed to appear.

He married Olga Bauer 26 Nov 1896 in Bridgewater Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Gottlieb Bauer and Anna Gross. She was born 11 Jun 1873 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 09 Mar 1912 in Pittsfield Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for John Edward Fiegel:

Mr. John Fiegel, a highly respected farmer of Pittsfield, was killed last evening by a very sad and unexpected accident. The ladies of Zion church, of this city, had been holding their regular weekly social at his house. When the ladies were ready to return home at about half past five o'clock, Mr. Fiegel appeared with his team to take them as far as the motor line. He had a hay-rack on the wagon with seats along the sides and twenty-one ladies and two children were loaded in the wagon. Mr. Fiegel then got up on the front seat. One of the lines either dropped or lay on the whiffletree and Mr. Fiegel reached forward to get it. As he did so, the cushion on which he was seated slipped and he fell, striking his head on the pole and breaking his neck. One of the horses kicked him, nearly severing the right ear. The horses then turned around and stated to run, bringing up between the barn and fence. Most of the ladies were thrown out. Some fell beneath the wagon. One lady was thrown over a high board fence. Mrs. Fred Schlanderer fell under the horses heels, out of the front end of the wagon, but escaped injury; Mrs. Ludwig Walz was bruised about the shoulder and wrist. No one was seriously injured, though several fainted.

Mr. Fiegel has twice been elected treasurer of Pittsfield township on the democratic ticket and was treasurer at the time of his death. His popularity among his neighbors in this strong republican town is thus strongly attested. He leaves a wife and seven children, the oldest daughter having been married but three weeks. The funeral will be held Sunday. The blow fell so suddenly that the wife could hardly believe her husband dead, and the scene was a most pitiful one.

Notes for Sylvia Elenore Fiegel:
Battle Creek - Mrs. Sylvia Hooper, 27, of 114 Orleans Avenue, died at Sheldon Memorial hospital in Albion about 3:20 this morning March 4, 1930 while her husband, William, 28, is not expected to live, following an automobile accident on US-12, near Parma, Sunday night. They received fractures of both legs when the Oldsmobile coach Mr. Hoover was driving skidded into a fence. A heavy board plowed through the side of the car and crushed their legs. A passing motorist found them unconscious in the car late Sunday night and brought them to Albion hospital.

Mrs. Hooper appeared to rally somewhat Monday but embolism set in and was the cause of her death. She sustained a triple fracture of one leg and a compound fracture of the other. Mr. Hooper has compound fractures of both legs. While the couple had not been residing long in the city both were popular and had many friends. On graduating from the University of Michigan Mr. Hooper, an Ann Arbor resident, entered the employee of G. O. Lewis company as a construction engineer, three years ago. A year ago last June he married. Mrs. Hooper was Miss Sylvia Fiegel, before her marriage, and a private secretary in the university. She has a sister residing in Detroit, but her parents are not living.

Mr. Hooper's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hooper, reside in Ann Arbor and the local couple had been visiting them and were returning when the accident happened. The couple belonged to the Masonic Country club, while Mrs. Hooper was a member of the Eastern Star. The body of Mrs. Hooper was being kept at, C. E. Marsh's undertaking establishment today awaiting further development in the condition of her husband.

Notes for William H. Hooper:
Battle Creek - William Hooper, 28, like his wife, failed to survive the severe injuries which both received in an automobile accident near Parma late last Sunday night March 2, 1930. Mr. Hooper, a construction engineer with the G. O. Lewis company, and University of Michigan graduate in engineering, died at the Sheldon Memorial hospital, Albion, about 10:05 Wednesday night March 5, 1930. Both Mr. and Ms. Hooper received compound and triple fractures of the legs when their car skidded off the US-12 highway and hit a fence, a board from which pierced the side of the automobile and struck them. The couple had been married since June 1928 and were living at 114 Orleans Avenue, Battle Creek.

Their bodies were taken today from the C. E. Marsh undertaking parlors and removed to Ann Arbor where funeral arrangements were being made today. It is believed that services will be held there Saturday with burial there likewise. Mr. Hooper is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hooper, of Ann Arbor. His wife leaves a sister in Detroit but has no parent living.

275. Albert[8] Fiegel (Johannes[7], Anna Katharina[6] Burkhardt, Christian[5], Johann Georg[4], Wolfgang[3], Michael[2], Conrad[1]) was born 31 Dec 1873 in Pittsfield Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 15 Jan 1953 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Hannah Maria Stein 22 Nov 1899 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of John Stein and Catharina Braun. She was born 26 May 1876 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 21 Aug 1968 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Albert Fiegel:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Albert Fiegel, a member of the firm of Reule, Conlin & Fiegel, clothiers, of Ann Arbor, was born in Pittsfield Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan, December 31, 1873, his parents being John and Kunigunda (Lambarth) Fiegel. The father was a prosperous farmer, who came from Germany to America in his boyhood days, and for over thirty-two years was a resident of Pittsfield Township, where he conducted extensive interests as an agriculturist. He was perhaps the best known farmer of his county, carrying on his business along modern lines of progress and improvement, his place being unsurpassed, because of the care and labor which he bestowed upon it. He held membership in the Zion Lutheran Church, in which he served as deacon, and his life was actuated by principles that neither sought nor required disguise. In his family were nine children, but the eldest died at birth. The others are: Fred C., who is married and living on a farm in Scio Township; Lydia C., the wife of Enoch Dieterle, a prosperous undertaker of Ann Arbor; John E., who is married and lives upon the homestead farm in Pittsfield township; George W., who is married and carries on farming in Scio township; Jacob, deceased; Albert, of this review; Mary C., the wife of John Sauer, of the firm of Sauer & Company, architects of Ann Arbor; and Emma, the wife of Ernest Wurster, of this city.

Albert Fiegel spent his youth upon his father's farm, and in the district schools of Pittsfield Township pursued his early education, while in the period of vacations his time and energies were devoted to the work of the fields. He afterward enjoyed the privilege of instruction in a German school in Ann Arbor, and he entered upon his business career as a clerk in the employ of Wadham, Kennedy & Reule. For five years he remained with that house, gaining an excellent knowledge of the business, both in principle and detail, and working his way steadily upward until he was admitted to a partnership, and is now actively interested in the management and ownership of the business under the firm style of Reule, Conlin & Fiegel.

Mr. Fiegel was married in 1900, to Miss Hannah M. Stein, of Ann Arbor Township, and they have two daughters, Gertrude Christina and Lucile Kunigunda. Mr. Fiegel is an active worker in the Zion Lutheran Church and for many years has been a teacher in the Sunday-school, while of the young peoples' society he is a charter member. His political views accord with the principles of democracy, but he has had no aspiration for public office as a reward for party fealty. His business career is in all ways honorable and commendable. From humble clerkships have come many of our most prominent merchants, and often those whose youth is spent among unfavorable conditions are found in later years in control of the great arteries and exchanges of traffic. Mr. Fiegel is one whose history is indicative of the positions that lie before men in the new world as a utilization of the advantages which surround all have made him one of the representative merchants of Ann Arbor.

Notes for Ernest Moriz Wurster:
On January 2, 1937, Carriage Manufacturer Ernst Wurster died; he was an Ann Arbor High School graduate in 1901, elected to the Board of Supervisors in 1913, and was elected President of the City Council in 1915, and became Mayor when Charles Sauer died, and served through 1921. He was elected Washtenaw County Sheriff, 1926-1928.

Ernst M. Wurster, who served the city and county in many capacities including those of mayor and sheriff, died at 4 o'clock Saturday morning January 2, 1937 at his home at 605 E. Jefferson Street at the age of 63 years. He had been ill since September. His life was characterized by his public service which began almost 25 years ago with his election to the board of supervisors. His greatest Victory in politics was his election as sheriff in 1926, the first successful Democratic candidate for this office in 14 years.

Mr. Ernst M. Wurster was elected to the board of supervisors as a member from the First ward of Ann Arbor in 1913, and was returned to the board for another year in the spring of 1914. In 1915, he was elected president of the city council and automatically became acting mayor after the death in December, 1915, of Mayor C. A. Sauer. His term as acting mayor was followed by two terms as mayor. He was elected in 1917 and re-elected, in 1919. His leadership as mayor covered the critical period of the last of the World War and the years immediately following. He ran for sheriff on the Democratic ticket three times. The first time he was defeated by James W. Robison but ran 7,000 ahead of the Democratic ticket and this was the factor which led to the party's selecting him to head the county ticket in 1926. That year he won, defeating Richard Elliott. Two years later, Mr. Wurster was a candidate for re-election but lost. Mr. Wurster's last public office was as city treasurer, a position he held by appointment under Edward W. Staebler, then mayor. Mr. Wurster once was an unsuccessful candidate for probate judge.

Ann Arbor - Ernest M. Wurster, 63 years old, one of the few Democrats ever elected to the offices of Mayor and Sheriff in Ann Arbor, died at his home here Saturday morning Jan. 2, 1937 after a long illness. Wurster became acting mayor in 1915 when, as president of the City Council, he automatically became mayor on the death of Mayor C. A. Sauer. He was re-elected twice thereafter, serving until 1921. He was sheriff in Washtenaw County from 1927 to 1929, and after that was appointed city treasurer for two years. Until he became ill in September, he was employed by State Highway Department as highway inspector. Wurster was a lifelong resident, of Ann Arbor. Funeral services will he ne, at 2 p. m. Monday in the Bethlehem Church.

Notes for Christian Gottlob (Christian George) Koch:
Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Christian G. Koch is a member of the firm of Koch Brothers, well known contractors of Ann Arbor with a business which at once indicates their standing in industrial circles and the trust uniformly reposed in them. Mr. Koch was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, August 22, 1862, his parents being George and Annie (Atta) Koch. The father was a merchant and game warden for the government and died when his son Christian was but two years old. The mother long survived and passed away in the place of her nativity in 1891. They were the parents of three sons and two daughters, namely: Christian G.; John, a mason contractor and builder, who is a member of the firm of Koch Brothers; Henry, who is a mason and works for the firm; Mrs. Sophie Baker, a resident of Germany; and Anna Marie, who is also living in the fatherland. Christian G. Koch spent the days of his boyhood and youth in his native country and acquired his education in the public schools there. He was a young man of about twenty-three years when in 1885, attracted by the business possibilities of the new world; he came to the United States, making his way at once into the interior of the country. Coming to Ann Arbor, he began work as a carpenter and builder in the employ of his brother John Koch, who after two years admitted him to a partnership under the present firm style of Koch Brothers. They are widely recognized as leading contractors of this city with a business that is extensive and profitable and they have erected many of the finest structures here, including the new homeopathic hospital connected with the University of Michigan, St. Thomas Roman Catholic and Zion Lutheran churches, and the Farmers and Mechanics and State Savings Banks.

Mr. Koch married Miss Sarah P. Staebler, a daughter of Jacob Staebler, of Scio Township, and unto them have been born five sons: Irwin, George C., Oscar W., Karl H., and Oswald J. The family occupy a very handsome residence at 720 South Main street. They have a large circle of warm friends and are highly respected throughout the entire community. Mr. Koch is identified with some fraternal organizations, including the Ancient Order of United Workmen and the Knights of the Maccabees, while his religious faith is indicated by his membership in the Zion German Lutheran church. He has never had occasion to regret his determination to seek a home in America, for here he has found the business opportunities he sought, which by the way are always open to young men of determination and ability. As the years have gone by through the careful utilization of the possibilities which surround all he has advanced until his position in industrial circles is a prominent one, while his business is represented by a large figure annually.

Notes for Margaret Rosetta Coltharp:
Margaret Rosetta Downing (Coltharp), 95, of Brazil, Indiana, passed away at her daughter's home, surrounded by her family, in Brazil, on August 28, 2019. Margaret lived a long and wonderful life. She was born on March 27, 1924, in Brazil, Indiana, the daughter of William and Bernice (Burkhart) Coltharp. She held many jobs throughout her life. Life, for her, began with being raised and working on the family farm. After graduating from Brazil High School she began working at Terre Haute Ordinance. She worked in the Veteran's office at the Clay County courthouse, in Brazil. She also worked as the manager at the Clay County License Branch. She was the Matron at the Clay County Jail while her husband Bill served as Sheriff. Margaret assisted him in helping with the Indiana Sheriff's Association. Margaret spent many years active in the Democratic Party. This afforded her the opportunity to meet many influential people. One memorable moment was having her drink poured by Vice President Hubert Humphrey. One of the greatest blessings of her life was when she met and married William S.

Downing. The two had the kind of love that was one for the ages. They loved each other and showed others what true love was all about. Now, she has rejoined him in Heaven. She leaves behind her legacy of love to her family who will all dearly miss her and remember her always. Margaret had been a member of the Order of the Eastern Star for many years. Margaret was a caregiver by nature. She loved her family and devoted her later years, especially, to caring for her parents and husband during their twilight years while simultaneously helping to raise her grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents William and Bernice Coltharp and husband William S. Downing.

She is survived by her daughter Sandra Barnett and her wife Tonya, and her grandchildren Jessica Manke (and Alec), Justin Tallman (and Tori), Olivia Barnett, and Kayla Barnett. She was also survived by her step-daughter's Laverne Pugh and Elizabeth Laraine Winn; as well as many extended family members.

Visitation will be at French Funeral Home, 421 E. National Ave. Brazil, Indiana 47834, on Saturday, August 31, 2019 from 1-3pm. Services will be at the funeral home, on Saturday, at 3:00pm with burial to follow at Union Cemetery. 799 iii. William Clay Stearley, born 16 Dec 1900 in Stearleyville, Clay Co, Indiana; died 24 Apr 1972 in Brazil, Clay Co, Indiana. He married Hazel Fern Gasway 04 Sep 1927 in Vigo Co, Indiana; born 22 Dec 1902 in Mt. Vernon, Indiana; died 26 Sep 1999 in Brazil, Clay Co, Indiana.

Notes for William Clay Stearley:

Terre Haute, Feb. 25, 1966 – Nice yarn about Clay Stearley's retirement from newspaperdom in the Indianapolis Star. Clay, a Brazil Boy, worked on several local sheets and in his home town, but has confined most of his efforts to Indianapolis during the past 25 years. He's a brother of General Ralph Stearley, the retired Air Corps officer who now lives in Brazil.

Brazil, Indiana – W. Clay Stearley, a well-known retired journalist, suffered an attack at 4 a.m. Monday April 24, 1972 at his residence, 1110 Northwood Drive, West, Brazil, and was pronounced dead on arrival at Clay County Hospital a few minutes later.

Stearley, 71, who had been in failing health for over three years, suffered from a severe respiratory ailment and previously had been hospitalized on several occasions. A native of Clay County, he was born near the village of Stearleyville, where his parents. the late Mr. and Mrs. William Stearley, had been pioneer settlers during Clay County's early years.

A graduate of Brazil High School, Stearley entered the United States Military Academy atWest Point, New York, after a presidential appointment in June, 1920. A too rigorous schedule, however, forced him to accept an honorable discharge. He later attended Indiana State University at Terre Haute, but in 1921, left school to enlist in the U.S. Army, where he served with the First Cavalry Division in Arizona and Texas.

In 1923 Stearley began his career in journalism by accepting a job as a reporter for the former Terre Haute Post. He remained with the Post until 1932, when the paper was purchased by the Terre Haute Tribune, and publication was suspended. He then accepted a position as telegraph editor of the Evansville Press. In April of 1938 he returned to the work he loved and was employed several months by the Brazil Gazette before accepting an editorial assignment with the former Indianapolis Times. In 1940, he joined the staff of the Indianapolis Star as a copy editor.

Stearley is survived by the widow, Hazel Gasway Stearley; a sister, Mrs. Ruth Bullerdick, Brazil; three brothers, Harold E., Brazil, Maj. Gen. Ralph F. Stearley (Retired), RR 3, Brazil, and Maj. Arthur W. Stearley (Retired), Piegeon Forge, Tennessee, several nieces and nephews.

The body was taken to the Lawson Funeral Home, where announcement of funeral arrangements is pending the arrival of relatives vacationing in Hawaii and the Virgin Islands.

467. George William (Willie)[9] Withroder (Karl Michael (Charles)[8] Wiederoder, Maria (Magdalena)[7] Burkhardt, Johann Georg[6], Johannes[5], Johann Georg[4], Wolfgang[3], Michael[2], Conrad[1]) was born 23 Aug 1885 in Liberal, Seward Co, Kansas, and died 16 Apr 1979 in Citrus Heights, Sacramento Co, California. He married Hattie Swan Aft. 1905, daughter of Cyrus Swan and Mary Estes. She was born 04 May 1889 in Nebraska, and died 11 Jan 1963 in Santa Cruz Co, California.

Notes for George William (Willie) Withroder:

March 14, 1943 in Hutchinson, Kansas - A quiet title decision by Judge Franklin Hettinger of Reno County district court, which concerns a quarter section of land in Pence Creek neighborhood, has upheld by the Kansas supreme court and the decision by the higher court clarified and settled a question which had its inception from a divorce action 40 years ago. The Kansas supreme court affirmed Judge Hettinger's findings in the case where Will G. Withroder sought to have title quieted in the south half of the northwest quarter of section 1-23-10w.

The district court had found Henry P. Withroder, a brother, had a valid claim in one-fifth of the 80 acres, but a sister, Ida Mar Copas, was enjoined from any claim. Will G. Withroder was vested with four-fifths interest in the 80 acres. Payoff on this case, which is as interesting a title action as has been filed in this county in years, lies in the fact that the quarter section once was a none-too-valuable sandy farm in the extreme northeast corner of Hayes township.

Today it has four maximum oil wells on it and probably will get four more when Kansas returns to 20-acre well spacing after the war. In wartime four wells is all that can be drilled on the quarter. Monthly Output 14,000 Barrels. Mrs. Copas Owns the north 80 acres, her brother the south 80 acres. In the month of February, the pipeline runs from the four wells totaled 14,824 barrels of oil. The March allowable as shown by the Kansas Corporation commission report is 14,646 barrels. Transwestern CO. holds the lease on the north 80 and was responsible for development. Tidewater Oil Co. has the lease and wells on the south 80. Yet not a cent of royalty has thus far been paid the landowners since the question of quieting title remained unsettled.

Behind all this is the long story of what caused the cloud on the title to this rich oil producing property. Little publicity was given cause when first heard in district court last year. It was passed off as just another title action. But the full history was reviewed in the supreme court syllabus received several days ago.

It had its inception in 1903 when Charles and Catherine Weideroder (this was the original spelling which has since been changed by certain descendants) encountered domestic troubles and Catherine sued for divorce. But this action was not pushed, the couple patched things up and the family of seven remained intact. Weideroder and his wife entered into a property settlement which involved the home quarter section that 40 years later was to become rich with oil. Mrs. Weideroder was given a life estate in the quarter with the five children: Will G., Henry P., Charles E., Anna and Ida, having equal interest.

Second Suit Filed – The domestic calm failed to last, however, and in 1904 Catherine filed a second divorce. The mother claimed she hadn't been fully advised as t size of the family fortune which had grown until it included nine quarter sections on land. This time the divorce action ran its course. In March of 1905 Mrs. Weideroder obtained a divorce and acquired four quarter-sections of the land she and her husband had amassed. This case reached the supreme court which confirmed district court findings in 1907. Catherine Wiederoder outlived her ex-husband many years, residing on the old home place. In 1926 came the first inkling that oil might be found in the community.

Major companies began leasing in the district and naturally approached Mrs. Wiederoder. She sought to convey a lease and only then did she realize that signatures of all the children were necessary to make the agreement binding. Later warranty deeds were executed. Will G. Withroder acquired the south 80 acres, Mrs. Copas the north 80 of the home quarter.

Oil Development in 1941 – The mother died in 1930 about a year after the Keesling oil test, first of a dozen dry holes in the area which preceded actually discovery of commercial oil production. Leases were dropped in the Area, activity was down to zero, then boomed again overnight in July of 1941 when the Peace creek discovery well was completed.

Several years after the death of the mother, Will G. Withroder and Mrs. Copas were said to have agreed in writing to assign one-fifth interests to each other in their respective 80's. Withroder maintained he kept this share of the bargain but the sister did not. When Will G. Withroder filed the action to quiet title in him, the defendants, Henry Weideroder and Mrs. Copas, filed separate answers and cross petitions asking that separate, undivided one-fifths be quieted in them. Henry Succeeded.

Now that the supreme court's decision has been handed down the pipeline companies can be governed accordingly in their royalty payments.

WITHRODER v. ELMORE et al. (No. 22463.) (Supreme Court of Kansas. Feb. 7, 1920.) (Syllabus by the Court.)
1. Mines and Minerals <j=»74— Action By Purchaser Of Interest In Lease To ReScind Fob Fraud Is An Action Fob Rescission, And Becovert Is Not Limited To Abatement Of Price.
In an action by the purchaser of an interest in an oil and gas lease against his vendors, asking a rescission of the bargain, and judgment for the amount he had paid, on the ground that he had been defrauded by representations that the lease had cost them more than was the fact, it is held:

The action was one for rescission, not involving an affirmance of the contract, and the recovery was not limited to an abatement of the purchase price in proportion to the difference between what the lease had cost the original owners and what they represented they had paid for it.

2. Mines And Minerals <®=374—Defrauded Purchaser Of Interest In Oil and Gas Lease May Sue To Rescind Or Being Action For Damages.

The plaintiff had a right to proceed either in that manner or by an action for damages on the theory of an affirmance of the contract.

3. Mines And Minerals <©=74 — Purchaser Of Interest In Oil and Gas Lease Suing To Rescind Bargain Was Not Required To Sign Ant Release To Defendants.

No writing having been given the plaintiff in evidence of his purchase, it was not necessary for him to sign any release in order to restore to the defendants what he had obtained from them.

4. Mines And Minerals <S=>74—Scope Of EfFect Of Deception As To Cost Of Oil And Gas Lease As To One Purchasing An InterEst Therein.

The effect of such deception was not necessarily limited to causing the plaintiff to pay more for his interest in the lease than he would otherwise have done. It may have been the inducement to his making the purchase on any terms.

5. Mines and Minerals <g=74 — Verdict In ACTION FOR FRAUD FOR LESS THAN AMOUNT SUED FOR.

The fact that the verdict was for a less amount than the full purchase price may be accounted for by assuming that one of the three subscriptions made by the plaintiff was found not to have been brought about by any misrepresentation.

6. Appeal And Error ©=281(1) — Without Motion Fob New Trial Rulings Against ApPellee Cannot Be Reviewed.

Inasmuch as the plaintiff recovered a judgment, from which the appeal is taken, and filed no motion for a new trial, no review can be had herein of any trial ruling made against him.

Appeal from District Court, Reno County.

Action by E. J. Withroder against M. C. Elmore and others. Verdict and Judgment for plaintiff, and defendants appeal. Affirmed.

P. L. Martin, John M. Martin, and Walter P. Jones, all of Hutchinson, for appellants.

C. M. Williams and D. C. Martindell, both of Hutchinson, for appellee.

MASON, J. In September, 1917, E. J. Withroder purchased of M. C. Elmore, O. O. Combs, and J. H. Leslie an interest in an oil and gas lease. On December 3, 1917, he brought an action asking a recovery of the amount he had paid them, on the ground that he had been induced to make the purchase by fraud on their part. A verdict was returned in his favor on which judgment was rendered. The defendants appeal.

[1] 1. The fraud relied upon was a representation by the defendants that the lease had cost them $32,000, when in fact they bad paid but $20,000 for it, or perhaps $21,000. The defendants' contention is that the action Is one for damages, the proper measure of which would be the proportion of the amount of the purchase price paid by the plaintiff that 20,000 bears to 32,000. We regard the action, however, as one for rescission, which was expressly asked for in the petition, the prayer being also for a Judgment for the amount he had paid—in other words, for the return of his money—which was the practical relief to be obtained through rescission. The action, being for the recovery of money, was properly tried with the aid of a jury, In accordance with the usual practice.

[2] 2. The defendants say that rescission, being an equitable remedy, was not open to the plaintiff, because he could have been adequately protected by a Judgment for the amount of his damages. He had a right to a choice of remedies, however, in the absence of some special reason to the contrary. The contract had not been performed or partly performed in such sense as to prevent its cancellation. There was no difficulty In restoring the original status. Nothing had been done beyond the payment of the money, and its return would place the parties where they had been before. The facts that, If the defendants had not sold the Interest to the plaintiff when they did, they might have made an equally good bargain with some one else, and that the lapse of time had prevented any ocner sale, through a depreciation In the market value of the lease, cannot avail them as a defense. The character of the fraud was such as to Justify rescission. 1 Black on Rescission, § 84.

[3] 3. It is urged that in order to be entitled to rescission it was incumbent upon the plaintiff to execute a reconveyance of the Interest he had acquired in the property bought. So far as the evidence shows, he received no written evidence of his purchase. As the whole transaction rested in parol, his demand for the return of his money implied a surrender of whatever rights he had obtained under it,
[4] 4. It Is argued that, if the defendants told the plaintiff they had paid $32,000 for the lease, when In fact it had cost them but $20,000, he was induced by the falsehood not to make1 the purchase, but merely to pay more for his Interest than he otherwise would have done. This, however, by no means follows. He may have been willing to go into the deal at the price named if (as such price in comparison with the alleged cost would indicate) he were to be allowed to buy on the same basis as the original investors—to be let in on the ground floor—but unwilling to embark on the enterprise on any terms If he stood on a different footing, and they were to make a profit from the sale to him. The jury must be deemed to have found that this was the case; for they were instructed that the plaintiff could recover only If he had been induced to make the purchase by reliance on the false statement referred to.
[5] 5. It is suggested that the amount of the verdict can hardly be reconciled with this theory of the case. The plaintiff testified that he had made three subscriptions and payments at different times, for $200, $500, and $300, respectively. The verdict was for $850, which was obviously based on a recovery of $800 and interest, implying a finding for the plaintiff on two of the payments, but not on the other.
[6] 6. Because other cases of the same character are awaiting trial, the plaintiff asks a review of the refusal of the district court to instruct the jury that he might recover on another ground than that already discussed, on the theory that the defendants were under an obligation affirmatively to disclose the facts concerning the amount of their investment In order for a trial ruling to be passed upon by this court, it must first have been submitted to the re-examination of the trial court In a motion for a new trial. The plaintiff not having filed such a motion, and obviously not desiring a new trial, the question suggested Is not before us, and an expression of opinion on it would be mere dictum.

The Judgment is affirmed. All the Justices concurring.

Notes for Johann Christian Burkhardt:
History of Vulcan Information Packaging

From the day Vulcan Information Packaging opened its doors in 1947, the company has found a home at the forefront of the custom information packaging and loose leaf binder industry. Since its inception, Vulcan has been known for its ability to handle the most challenging assignments in the industry as well as continually experimenting with new concepts, materials and products to anticipate the needs of its customers.

Formed as Vulcan Binder & Cover by EBSCO Industries, Inc., in 1947, the company began by manufacturing single-copy magazine binders for medical waiting rooms. Vulcan's first facility was located near Birmingham in West End, Alabama. The company took its name from a Birmingham landmark—the 55-foot tall statue of Vulcan, the Roman god of the forge, which sits atop Red Mountain near the city center.

In 1967, EBSCO acquired Burkhardt Company, a binder manufacturer located in Detroit, Michigan, and merged Vulcan and Burkhardt into a single company in 1969. That same year, Vulcan opened a 70,000 square-foot facility in Vincent, Alabama, which would become the company's headquarters. Since that time, the company has increased manufacturing and office space on three separate occasions, expanding into the 200,000 square-foot space where Vulcan's 250 employees operate today. In 1997, the company dropped the 'Binder & Cover' designation and changed its name to Vulcan Information Packaging, a description that better fits the wide range of products and services provided by the nation's largest custom packaging provider.

Vulcan bought ImageSource, formerly known as Graphic Looseleaf Products, in 1998. The operation, based out of Crawfordsville, Indiana, was moved to the Vincent, Alabama where the two companies merged under the name Vulcan Information Packaging.

Detroit, August 5, 1934 - The Burkhardt Co., bookbinders at 545 W. Lamed St., has on permanent display one of the largest collections or decorative covers in use by any industry and commerce. The growth of this display during the past 20 years has provided an Interesting panorama of the changes in public preference toward various broad styles of decoration. It also graphically shows the wide range of artistic endeavor between the earliest examples of book design and present-day styles.

One interesting comparison among many is between the examples of Fourteenth Century hand-tooled design and the present day "Century of Progress" style which had become so popular. The craftsmen in the ancient monasteries and guilds laboriously decorated book covers by tooling of molding leather in elaborate and intricate designs, often inlaying various colored leathers with precious metals and rare jewels.

Burkhardt craftsmen duplicate the skill of these old masters in producing covers of rare beauty, but do so in such quantities that the cost is so low as to be adapt able to even the widest commercial use. At the other extreme is the new "Century of Progress" style, so named because of theinfluence that exposition has had in its development. This style uses heavy solids or series of parallel lines for decoration as against the intricate curves and molded areas of the hand tooled style. Clean, sharp lettering; open, spacing, brevity of title, heavy, evenly proportioned letters, are all common to this new and popular design. Both the hand-tooled and modern styles require exceptional ability to execute if the results are to have the proper symmetry and beauty associated with good design.

Adapting all types of decorative design to commercial purposes requires an exact knowledge, not only of design, but also of practical application. The Burkhardt artists are specially trained to recommend appropriate designs for business and other purposes. Persons interested in decorative book or loose-leaf binders are invited to visit the Burkhardt display in the Burkhardt Building any week day between 8 a. m. and 5 p.m.

Paulie came into this world having to overcome a lot of obstacles in life, but never let anything get in his way. He wasn't one to sit around and let his disability stop him. He loved people, Michigan football, the Detroit Tigers, farming, Case International tractors, and tractor pulls. He considered himself the Karaoke champion. He had a love/ hate relationship with the Detroit Lions. He enjoyed watching Leave It To Beaver and Big Time Wrestling. Over the years, he made a living recycling enormous amounts of scrap iron. You knew he was not happy when he would bang his elbow on a table. He could be very stubborn at times. He was a proud German and very religious. October was his favorite month; you couldn't meet Paulie and not end up knowing he was born on Halloween. He looked forward to his birthday hayrides and Michigan Football Saturdays. He so loved his Stivers family and the girls who spoiled him every day with extra helpings of this and that, mostly pie. He could out eat anyone, especially at the Friday night all you can eat fish fry. Paulie will be forever loved and missed by all who knew him.
Visitation will be held at the Staffan-Mitchell Funeral Home on Tuesday, October 9th, from 6-8 p.m. Funeral Services will be held at St. Thomas Lutheran Church, located at 10001 W. Jan. 7, 1987 - Dexter Cider Mill has been sold to a local family, Dick and Katherine Koziski of Chelsea. Mrs. Wagner had other offers, but chose to sell the mill to the Koziskis, who she characterizes as "fine people who will continue the cider mill operation as before." Katherine Staffan Wagner has known Katherine Merkel Koziski all her life, since both come from prominent Chelsea families. When Mrs. Koziski was a teen-ager, she used to babysit for Mrs. Wagner's children. Dexter Cider Mill was built in 1886 by Mr. Tuttle and Mr. Van Ettan and originally produced jelly as well as cider. It changed hands several times in the, first 14 years, but in 1900 was sold to John Frederick Wagner and has stayed in the same family until now. When John Wagner died, his son, Otto took over. In 1935, Otto's son, Frederick, became a partner and the mill name changed to "O. Wagner & Son Cider Mill." In 1937 Frederick, married Katherine Staffan. They lived in Chelsea most of their married life.

The mill operation has remained basically the same for 100 years. In 1953 modern bottling equipment was installed and in 1957 a grill to produce donuts was added. Frederick Wagner died in 1981. Katie Wagner took over the operation with the help of Steve Snay who had already worked for her husband 15 years. Steve will continue as operating manager under the Koziskis' ownership. When Katie

Wagner decided she could no longer run the mill, wanting free time to travel and pursue her own interests, her three children were all engaged in successful careers and none could take off three months a year to make cider, although all of them helped when they could. In recent years, granddaughter Kellie Kanten also assisted. Mrs. Wagner's oldest son, Frederick W. Wagner, is chairman of the department of Urban and Regional Planning at the University of New Orleans. Daughter Stephanie Kanten is a second grade teacher in the Dexter Public Schools and a member of the Chelsea village council. John Wagner works for an HMO insurance company In Phoenix, Arizona. The village of Dexter, fearing a future buyer might tear down the mill that is a trademark of their community, attempted to buy it. $1,166.05 in cash was raised and an additional $525 was pledged. 214 people expressed their interest in preserving the mill by contributing money or writing letters of support.

However, village officials came to the conclusion that the only way to raise enough money was either to get a grant from the state or to levy a millage, neither of which could be accomplished by the first of the year, which was the date that Mrs. Wagner wanted to have the matter settled. So about three weeks ago they decided to abandon their efforts. People who contributed money for the mill have the choice of having it returned or contributing it to a Dexter tree fund or for public improvements in the downtown area. If not enough money is earmarked for either of these projects, the money will be returned.

Carl Willougby, Dexter village manager, was glad to hear of the purchase of the mill by the Koziskis, saying "The village's intent was to continue a tradition and landmark which contributes to the character of the village. If that' has been satisfied without the need for the village to be involved, we are very happy." The new owners are also very happy. Dick Koziski has wanted to buy the cider mill for 25 years and says he "feels very fortunate to want something so long and finally get it." He grew up in Massachusetts in the Berkshire Mountains where cider mills abound. When he came to Michigan and courted his wife, Katherine, the Dexter Cider Mill made him nostalgic for home and it was then that he first tried to buy it. He has worked for Ford Motor Co. for 30 years and has moved around the country, but whenever he returned to this area, he always visited the cider mill. The Koziskis have now returned to Michigan for good, settling at Cavanaugh Lake. Katherine Koziski has joined her husband as a Ford employee. The couple have four daughters and two sons-in-law, all of whom also want to help with the mill, so it will again be a family operation. The Koziskis plan to run the mill "exactly as it has been for 100 years, to basically maintain the mill's current operating season, as well as its meaningful historical presence to so many people in the area." Dick describes it as a "romantic setting that doesn't need messing with." The Koziskis will probably take over ownership Feb. 1. One of the first things they plan to do is plant some white birches on the site, thinking white clumps of trees will look beautiful next to the river and the red barn. Meanwhile, Katie Wagner plans to travel, going first to Phoenix and then spending three months in California. But she will return in plenty of time to help the Koziskis get started on their first cider season.

Katie Wagner has sold the Dexter Cider Mill that she helped her husband run for many years and then managed for the last five years after her husband's death. But no one is worried about her being at loose ends with nothing to do since she has always been extremely active in the community. She is probably best known for her involvement in the McKune Library, serving on the board for 36 years, and also for years of service to the Chelsea Woman's Club of which she is a charter member. These two activities are interconnected, since the Woman's Club, which was founded in 1931, founded the McKune Library in 1932. The building that houses the library, the McKune house, was owned by Katie's aunt, Katherine McKune. Fellow board member and cousin, Ann Belser, says Katie was active in all aspects of the Library Board, serving as president and secretary, but that one of her biggest contributions was working with Jean Eaton on setting up the Archives Room which is very much used.

Katie's sister-in-law, Katherine Staffan, describes Katie as "always interested in civic affairs." In addition to the library and Woman's Club, Katie works with Chelsea Social Services and is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and St. Paul United Church of Christ. Katie is a life-long resident of Chelsea, the granddaughter of the founder of Staffan Funeral Home (now Staffan-Mitchell). Her grandfather. Frank Staffan, was a building contractor who got into the funeral business because he made caskets. Katie attended the local Chelsea schools and Ypsilanti Normal College, Employment outside the home included working for Dr. Fisher and at the U-M Athletic Department. In 1937 she married Frederick Wagner. They had three children, Frederick W., John, and Stephanie "Sis" Kanten. Katie is an avid bridge player, playing twice a month with the same group that started when she was 15 years old. She also likes to travel, going to many places in the United States and Europe. Her next trip is planned for next spring when she will go with the Chelsea Senior Citizens to Alaska.

Harold George Hieber, age 91, passed away peacefully at his home in Saline on Tuesday, January 21, 2025, shortly after his niece, Lori Krull, visited with him. Harold's daughter, Krystal, and her loving family were by his side during his passing. Harold was born April 13, 1933 at the home of his parents, Fred Hieber and Meta Waltz, in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Harold was their youngest son. He was baptized and confirmed, alongside his older brother, Herman, and married Barbara Seyfried on April 28, 1957 at St. Thomas Lutheran Church on Ellsworth Road in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Barbara passed in 1991.

In addition to his parents, Harold was preceded in death by his sisters, Luella McGranahan and her husband, Marley; Dorothy Smith and her husband, Walter; and his brother, Herman, who died when he was 25. Harold was also preceded in death by numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. Several years after Barbara's passing, Harold met and fell in love with Linda Whittaker Boyd, whom he married July 24, 1999. Linda preceded him in death April 15, 2021.

Harold worked at the University of Michigan when he was very young. He also worked at R&B in Saline and the Meijer store on Saline Ann Arbor Road. Harold was an extremely hard worker and retired from Meijer when he was 80 years old. Harold loved to "grab a bite to eat" at Saline Inn and Mark's Coney Island. He enjoyed talking to the people who worked at these restaurants. Harold shared many childhood stories with his nieces. He had many nieces and nephews, all of whom he loved. Harold was 89 when he was first hospitalized. He would brag to the doctors and nurses that he had never been in the hospital before then. Up until September 2024, Harold kept very busy around the house. Harold was also very proud of the fact that, until age 90, he did not take any medications.

Unfortunately, in November 2024, Harold was diagnosed with cancer, which he battled with grace. Harold's daughter, Krystal, lovingly cared for her father with the help of her family. Harold was under the care of Arbor Hospice when he passed. Time passes quickly – if you have older family members, please listen to their stories – they are priceless.

Everyone is welcome for a time of visitation on Wednesday, January 29, 2025 from 10:00 A.M. until 12:00 P.M. at the Robison-Bahnmiller Funeral Home in Saline. 595. Frederick Oscar[9] Wiedman (Christina Caroline[8] Hieber, Christina Catharina[7] Fiegel, Anna Katharina[6] Burkhardt, Christian[5], Johann Georg[4], Wolfgang[3], Michael[2], Conrad[1]) was born 07 Sep 1884 in Bridgewater Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 26 Sep 1966 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Lydia Adina Lambarth 10 Jun 1915 in Bridgewater Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Christian Lambarth and Anna Klais. She was born 23 Jul 1892 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 07 Jun 1980 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Frederick Oscar Wiedman:

On Tuesday, August 1, 1950, Fred O. Wiedman started on his thirty-sixth year as a sales agency for Ford automobiles. It was in 1915 that he started business here in Saline in what is now the pool room in the Martin Blair building on East Michigan Avenue. At that time a Ford car, fully equipped with what cars were equipped at that time, sold for $340 all ready to run. Wiedman continued to operate his business in that building, on which Mr. Boettner later built an addition, until 1920, when he built the building now occupied by the R & B Tool Company. In 1943, when buildings were in much demand and there were no cars to sell, he disposed of the building and purchased the old Chevrolet garage on West Michigan Avenue which is now used for his tractor sales and farm machinery.

In 1946 he built the structure at the comer of North Ann Arbor and McKay Streets, the new home of the Wiedman Auto Co., and one of the most modern and best constructed sales and service establishments the county. Like the slogan of the Hubbard Hardware Company in Flint, "I sold your grandfather ox-yokes," Wiedman during the past 35 years has sold thousands of Ford cars, trucks and tractors, many of the early purchasers being the fathers and grandfathers of his present day customers. Besides his interests in the automotive business, Mr. Wiedman is vice-president of the Saline Savings Bank and is the proprietor of Stadium Hills Golf Course. He devotes the greater part of his time to the business at West Michigan avenue and his nephew, Al Wiedman, manages the Auto Sales and Service on North Ann Arbor street, Fred and Mrs. Wiedman have their home in Ann Arbor and have one daughter, a grandson and a granddaughter. "We have weathered four depressions, two world wars and the many changes that have taken place during the past 35 years," he remarked on his anniversary date.

Fred O. Wiedman, 82, a Saline businessman for more than 50 years, died early Monday Sept. 26, 1966 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, where he had been a. patient for the past week. A vice president of the Saline Savings Bank for the past 20 years and a director since 1920, he was also the Ford car and tractor dealer here from 1915 until his retirement in 1960.He was a charter member and past president of the Saline Rotary Club, and was instrumental in founding the Steer Club, which began with his program to raise money for crippled children by selling tickets on steers. Rotary still sponsors the club. He was a life member of the Saline Lodge 133, F. & A.M. He and his family lived here from 1915 to 1926 and were members of the St. Paul's Church at that time. He served on the church board. He was born September 2, 1884, in Bridgewater Township, the son of Frederick J. and Caroline Hieber Wiedman. He married Lydia Lambarth on June 10, 1915, in Saline.

Surviving are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Gerhard (Dorothy) Bauer, Ann Arbor; two grandchildren, Stephen and Patricia; a brother, Emanuel G. of Ypsilanti; and one sister, Mrs. Julius (Olga) Hutzel, of Winter Haven, Florida. He was preceded in death by four brothers, Albert, Otto, Erwin, and Paul. Funeral services were held Wednesday at Muehlig Chapel in Ann Arbor, the Rev. Ralph B. Piper officiating. Notes for Dea Ann Gillfillan:
WGU Indiana has created a $2,000 scholarship that is dedicated to night shift nurses who want to return to school. Night shift nurses are known for their hard work and dedication to their profession. They live with the reality that people need care beyond standard business hours. While it's a job that might not be attractive to everyone, many night shift nurses love what they do. WGU Indiana student and WGU Night Shift Nurse Scholarship recipient DeaGillfillan is one of them. She thoroughly enjoys her role as a night shift nurse.

"I think we have a better time at night," said Gillfillan. "We work on our own and get our stuff done. We also have camaraderie amongst each other and we make sure to help each other with any problem we might be facing."When Gillfillan received a WGU Indiana Night Shift Nurses scholarship in 2017, it enabled her to work less and put more focus on obtaining her degree with WGU Indiana. Gillfillan says WGU Indiana was a perfect choice. An online university that was flexible with courses and time commitment was number one on her list. A year into her degree program, she is more confident than ever and is looking forward to finishing her bachelor of science in nursing degree (BSN) in 2019.

Being a night shift nurse also plays a role in Gillfillan being successful as a student. As a night shift nurse, it's important that to be a self-starter. This self-starter attitude Gillfillan uses at work helps her stay on top of her courses and studying, with the help of her course mentor.Working the night shift and pursuing a degree fits perfectly in Gillfillan's schedule. "I plan a lot. I have a calendar to write down when I work, when things are due, and when I should study," she said. Gillfillan has motivated other night shift nurses to return to school, as well. "It's surprising what you can do when you put your mind to it," explained Gillfillan. "If you're not doing it, you're not trying."

Notes for Forest Edward Bolte:
Pamella Withroder - I didn't start out in my life to be a writer, far from it. I am a trained Dietitian, drove a truck for 10 years, and owned and operated a flower shop for over 20 years. But most of my life has been in the art field. I started designing porcelain figurines. I was taught and then became a teacher in the art of fine china painting. Then took many years of art training, and eventually became a watercolorist, and have taught it for years. It was my watercolors that got me to writing. Or shall I say originally illustrating.

I had drawn many illustrations and a story about three cats. One of my students, a retired teacher, told me to put it together and have it published. Children needed what I had to say. So I started my writing journey. Off to college for a refresher course in writing and English. Then the illustrations were picked up by Skipping Stones Magazine, they wanted to publish them in their magazine for children. I cheerfully agreed. The story goes from there, but I eventually published two children's books, The Adventures of Wee Three and The Adventures of Wee Four.

Of course, when you write, you write and enter everything, and a writing contest won me a spot in the Voices an Anthology of Story Stories, from the Ozark Writers League. I am working on three books at this time. One about my grandmothers adventures West as a seven year old child. She left me her journals to do so. The second is a continuation of the first two books, a story of a special cat and a fairy. The third book is a murder mystery. These are all pending my finishing them, and I hope to do that next year. All of this and I still teach watercolors weekly.

The bindery operated from 1911 until the early 1960s. Mr. Burkhardt took a personal sense of responsibility for his business and helped bind books of historical records for Detroit and the state, said John C. Burkhardt V, another son. "He worked hard and loved what he did," he said. "Many of the books he bound are still here and held in high value by our family."

Mr. Burkhardt was a member of the organizing committing for Detroit's 250th anniversary celebration in 1951 and a founder of the South Oakland Shelter for the Homeless. He served his community as the president of the local Parent Teachers Association, church usher and Boy Scout leader.

Willard (Bill) E. Burkhardt Jr., of Grand Rapids, age 71, passed away on Jan . 16, 2018 following a brief illness. He was the beloved and devoted son of June (Jenney) and Willard E. Burkhardt Sr. who predeceased him. Bill was truly a wonderful man and a loving, loyal friend. All who knew him describe Bill as one of the nicest, kindest and most thoughtful men they ever knew. He was always polite, respectful, humble and honest. He was smart, well organized and detailed oriented. He had an amazing memory and took copious notes. With a twinkle in his eyes, Bill often sported a vintage Gatsby newsboy cap which made him look so dapper. He enjoyed all things vintage... books, records, radios, telephones. He also enjoyed browsing at estate sales. Bill graduated from East Grand Rapids High School and received his Bachelor's Degree from Western Michigan University. Following college, he proudly served in the US Army and was a Viet Nam Veteran. He retired from the State of Michigan Department of Labor as a business representative for the MESC (Unemployment Agency). Bill's lifelong passion was his love of player pianos and player piano music rolls. He often said it was the "thrill of the hunt" to find a classic music roll and research its history. He was a true aficionado. He was a staunch education advocate for those battling celiac disease. He served on an advisory panel to advance the production of more and tastier gluten free food products.

Bill will be forever and deeply missed by his very dear friends, John Carlson, Jim Benes, John Perschbacher, Floyd Everling, Patricia Sayles, Jane and Al Kula, Steve and Kim Smith, Sonia Speakman, Bonnie Garrison, LeRoy Barnett, Sue Ward, John Milan and countless others too numerous to name. He is also survived by special cousins, Carol Park, Paul Garter, and Michael Whalen all of Brunswick, Georgia, Jane Gerth of Portage, Michigan, and Jim Bowen of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Cremation by Memorial Alternatives has taken place. Per Bill's request, no formal funeral services will be held. However, to honor dear Bill, a gathering of family, friends, and neighbors will be held at a future date so all may share warm memories of him. Those wishing to make a donation in Bill's memory may consider the American Cancer Society, the Humane Society of West Michigan, the Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp, or the Disabled American Veterans (DAV).

Notes for Erwin C. Feldkamp:
April 23, 1953 - Mr. Erwin Feldkamp, Supervisor of Production Control at the Ford Manchester Plant, resides in Bridgewater. Mr. Feldkamp has been a resident of this area all of his life. He graduated from Saline High School in 1935. Prior to his ten years of service with the Ford Motor Company, Mr. Feldkamp was employed at Goodyear’s. He is the father of three children and served as director of the Bridgewater Station School.

Lifelong Bridgewater resident and 37-year Ford Motor Company employee, Erwin Feldkamp, 63, will retire February 29, 1980 from his position as-Superintendent of Material Handling at the Saline plant — and as fate has it, Erwin is working a day extra, this being Leap Year Week! "Ford has been real good to me; it's a good company to work for," Erwin says. Throughout Erwin's years at Ford, his wife Esther and their family have been an important part of his life. "My wife, Esther Wackenhut before we were married, is a local girl and we've known each other our whole lives," Erwin says. "We were married in 1939 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater." In 1943 Erwin quit a job with Goodyear Department Store as home furnishing salesman and installation man — he tiled the basement of the Curtiss Mansion as his first job -- to join Ford. He took a considerable pay cut. "I decided that to get into Ford Motor Co. would be better for the future," Erwin explains. The day after Erwin quit Goodyear's and was hired by Ed Hering at the Ford Soybean Mill (now Weller's), he started as astock handler.

Between that first Ford job and the one he has now, Erwin has been transferred to different jobs and plants seven times. Most of the moves have involved promotions, but he had another reason for welcoming the last change, to head of Material Handling at the Saline plant."I like this last job the best because of the people I work 3- with and because the plant's near home. I like being in my oldhome town!" Erwin says.

Erwin was born in 1916 on the farm where he was 3 raised, in Saline Township. After elementary grades in a one-room school, he attended the Saline Public School's original Union School building for one semester and then helped,move fixtures, etc. to the new building - today's UnionSchool."I remember the old school's rickety stairways," Erwinsays.He graduated from high school May 29, 1935. "Saline has changed tremendously since then; I used to know everyone in town ... funny the way it grows," Erwin says. "Now I read names of streets, in the paper, and I don't even know where they are ... So many names of peopletoo, and I don't know them anymore."But no matter how big Saline grows, Erwin will never losetrack of his family and old friends.

Erwin and Esther have three sons and one daughter. They are: Bob, a Millwright, currently full time Union Representative for Skilled Trades, married to Nancy who owns Arbor’s Beauty Shop in Tecumseh; James who works in Sales andPricing in Ford's Electric and Electronic Division at the Ford Rawsonville Plant, married to Carolyn who teaches school in Adrian; Dave, the manager of Lenawee Tire and Auto Supply Co. in Adrian, married to Karol, a teacher in Clinton. Their daughter Kathy is a Research Assistant for the Michigan Evaluation and Resource Center in Ann Arbor. Erwin and Esther have seven grandchildren.

Erwin's mother, who will be 88 soon, lives in the-; Evangelical Home, Saline. His brothers and sisters are: Harold of Saline, LeRoy of Adrian, and Arlene Hoeft of Ann Arbor. J Erwin and Esther belong to St. John's Church, where they were married. Through the years Erwin has served his church and community in many ways, as a Director of the old grade school in Bridgewater, Director of the Zoning Board in Bridgewater Township, President of the Church Council; and he is currently serving on the Board of Directors of Saline Community Hospital. He has won the Ford Motor Co. Citizenship Award for his years of community service. "I plan to stay in the automotive business, in the sales end, on a part-time basis," Erwin says for the future. Even so, without a doubt, his buddies at the plant will miss him dearly. Erwin's co-workers have planned a retirement party for him at the American Legion Hall, Friday, March 21.

RETIRING THIS FRIDAY FROM FORD'S, after a 37-year career with the automaker, Erwin Feldkamp reminisces about the good old days. A grouping of Taylor Jacobsen's prints of Old Time Saline, which hangs in the front office at the local Ford Plant, shows some of the buildings that Erwin's life has been involved with. Gordon McKay, Operations Manager at today's Saline Plant, is a willing audience as Erwin points to the shed at the former Soybean Plant [now Weller's] where he-, first worked for Ford. Feldkamp attended the old three-story Union School on McKay and Ann Arbor St. for one year, then helped move into the present-day Union School where he graduated in 1935. He did his banking at the old three-story Citizens Bank and his first job, with Goodyear's Department Store, took him to the Curtiss Mansion for a tiling installation.

Erwin C. Feldkamp of Bridgewater, Michigan, age 88, died Saturday, June 5, 2004 at Saline Community Hospital, as a consequence of congestive heart failure. Mr. Feldkamp was born June 22, 1916, in Bridgewater, MI, son of Clarence and Lillie (Weber) Feldkamp. He had been a resident of Bridgewater all of his life and affectionately known too many as the Mayor of Bridgewater. On June 22, 1939, he was married to Esther Wackenhut and she preceded him in death on April 21, 1998. Erwin was a life member of the St. John's Lutheran Church, also in Bridgewater, Michigan. In his professional life, Mr. Feldkamp was employed by Ford Motor Company for 38 years, retiring in 1980. After retiring from Ford he continued employment at George Underwood Lincoln-Mercury Ford Dealership in Clinton, MI, as a car and truck salesperson.

Erwin's survivors include four children, Robert (Pamela) Feldkamp, James (Carolyn) Feldkamp, all of Tecumseh, David (Karol) Feldkamp of Adrian, Michigan, and Kathy (Randy) Johnson of Scotts Valley, California. Other survivors include twelve grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; one brother, Leroy of Adrian, Michigan; one sister, Arlene Hoeft of Huntington, WV; a sister-in-law, Rena Feldkamp of Saline; and several nieces and nephews. In addition to his wife, Esther; he was preceded in death by one brother, Harold Feldkamp. Erwin was a loving father, grandfather, and husband and will be greatly missed.

Funeral services will be held 11 a.m. Wednesday, June 9, 2004 at the St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater, MI, with Rev Kurt Peterson officiating. Burial will follow in the St John's Lutheran Church cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the St John's steeple/elevator fund, or the charity of one's choice. Envelopes will be available at the Robison-Bahnmiller Funeral Home, Saline, where friends may begin calling on Tuesday, June 8 from 1-4 pm and 6-8 pm, and at Church on Wednesday, June 9, from 10 am until time of service.

Notes for Betty J. Coy:

Perhaps the most difficult task people ever face is saying goodbye to a loved one who has died. One never knows whether it's better to let a standard obituary present "just the facts," or express some prejudicial sentiment that captures the essence of someone whose life touched the lives of somany others in her community.

Betty Finkbeinerof Saline, was a fine gentle lady and a good Christian woman born in 1922, a period sometimes called the Modern Age, which often was ungentle in its history and hostile to the traditional virtues of Christian teachings in which she was raised. The harsh winds of cultural change blew fiercely from the first quarterof the 20th century when she was born to the finally years of this millennium when she passed on. Many who were caught in that cultural maelstrom were bent, broken, or swept away from the traditional morality of their ancestors.

Not Betty Finkbeiner. Though never a physically strong person, Betty possessed the heart of a lioness, and throughout her life and in her simple, but important roles in it, she became what T.S. Eliot called a defender of the permanent things, those Christian virtues of Faith, Hope and Charity which have been the cornerstones of Western Civilizations for more than 2,000 years and without which a decent society cannot survive. She was no mover or shaker inthe major events of her time. She did not march with the bigbattalions. But at the level of what Edmund Burke called the little platoons"—her Family, church and community—Betty helped conserve what was best in the age in which she lived.

She had a good start. The second of four daughters of Gladys and Enin Coy, Betty and her sisters, Mildred, Vemita, and Margaret grew up in Manchester in a proud clan Scot-English stock. Betty endured the privations of the Great Depression and made the sacrifices made necessary by World War II, when a woman often was required to do aman's job.

At the end of this trial, she met Milton Finkbeiner, who had endured much the same history. She married and with him made her stand in the rich, fertile soil of Saline, where they took the raw material God had granted them for children and attempted to raise their three sons to honorable manhood.

I was the first-born and since I was my father's son, my mother naturally assumed I would inherit his talent for building things. I soon disabused both of them of that notion. Still, she did what she could with each of us. She read to me and my brothers constantly, hoping that we might learn the valuable lessons that children's literature had to teach. My favorite was Cock, the Mouse and the Little Red Hen. It was a wonderful tale that taught the virtues of patients, persistence, courage, and forgiveness. For me and my brothers, Bruce and John, it taught what should be done even if we could not always doso. And like so many other mothers then and now, Betty had to battle demon television for our mind's and heart's attention during the placid '50s. She won some and lost some, never really understanding how any child could choose Elvis over Glenn Miller.

When she could, Betty tended to her beloved gardenand fed the colorful songbirds that she seemed to attract. She also clung to her old inherited faith and traditional ways. Though it was not the fashion of the turbulent '60s and '70sthat followed, she remained always faithful and married to her sometimes cantankerous but loving husband. She was proud of her boys when theydid right by her lights. Their marriages to their respective wives gave her particular pleasure: John married Brenda Rentschler, Bruce was wed to Sherry Sheats, and myself to Marianne Michaud. Betty was not above admonishing any of them severely when they did wrong. And in the decade that followed, when some of them did not live up to her expectations, she never forsook, but waited patiently for good reason, maternal love, and a little Divine Intervention to bring her erring brood to the one true fold. This patience andlove later was extended to her grandchildren: Chad, Jill, Caryn, Jenny, Emily, Joni, and Kira.

One of the great sources of satisfaction of Betty's life was her associations in her local community. Nothing gave her more happiness than her membership in St. Paul's United Church of Christ; in her labors in the Saline Schools; her activities in the American Legion Auxiliary. To be a citizen of the finest small town in America gave her tremendous pride. Her life was, like many of her generation, a severe trial and struggle. Betty was no saint. She was prone to the minor vices and simple vanities with which even the best of mankind is plagued. But she acquitted her journey on earth with fidelity, dignity, and love, and was rewarded by joining the community of souls who know that everlasting peace that has no end when she passed away May 29, 1998 in her 75th year.

Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms, and she carried a bridal bouquet of roses with an orchid which served as the corsage for her going-away suit of a fuschia shade. The matron of honor, Mrs. Waldemar Rothfuss, sister of the bride, wore a gown of poudre blue taffeta with matching veil. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and ponpons. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald O'Hara of Clinton, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Byron Moore, of Manchester, who wore gowns of dusty rose taffeta, similarly styled, and each carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses with white ponpons, and each wore a gardenia in her hair.

Dear Friends:

I have been in the Army now for about six weeks, and I can truthfully say that I have enjoyed every minute of my time. I am stationed at Fort Eustis, which is an Anti-Aircraft Recruit Replacement Center. We have a very hard training schedule that calls for 36 various marches, starting at three miles in length, and ending with 25-rifle hikes during our last week of basic training. The motto down here, as far as I can see, is “Kill or cure,” and the way things look, there are going to be a lot of dead soldiers around here before the 13 weeks of our basic training is over. All kidding aside, we are having a very good time. My parents have been sending “The Saline Observer” to me every week and I really appreciate the news that it contains. The paper is my only connection with home, except for the letters I receive, and it really helps to keep my spirits up during my off-duty hours. I hope that I can continue to receive the good news from home, and I know that those who remain behind will keep our city in the good shape it has always been in until the boys in the service can come back to it again. Pvt. Dean Burkhardt. Btry "B", 6th Bn., Fort Eustis, Virginia.

Her baking skills, honed from lessons with her mother-in-law, delighted her family with delicious treats and added a special touch to every holiday. Their summers in South Haven were a highlight for Nancy, where she reveled in the simple pleasure of spending time with her family and the cherished memories made there. Whether enjoying Sherman's ice cream, having fun at the pool or beach, or getting up early to get a good spot at the Fourth of July parade, to her family, Nancy was summer.

Nancy's kindness extended beyond her family to everyone she encountered. Her warm, engaging presence was a hallmark of her interactions, whether at the grocery store or in the community. Her ability to connect with others and offer genuine care left a lasting impression on all who knew her.

Nancy is survived by her loving husband, John; her two children Tim Schenk (Barb) and Laura Baker; and her beloved grandchildren Luke and Liesel Baker, Rachel and John Schenk, and her sister Marilyn Farone who will carry forward the lessons of love, compassion, and acceptance she imparted. Notes for Wilbert Christian Koch:

On June 30, 1986, secretary of state Richard H. Austin certified 23 farms in 20 Michigan counties as centennial farms—owned by the same families for the last 100 years. One of those farms belongs to Wilbert and Helen Koch, 595 S. Fletcher Rd. At the rate things change there, more Kochs will be around in the year 2086 to be recognized for 200 years of farming the same land. The Kochs live in the house that grandfather Jacob and grandmother, Christiane Koch, immigrants from southern Germany, bought in 1885. Though semi-retired, Wilbert Koch still farms the 95 acres his grandfather started with. And the 20-acre woodlot on N. Fletcher Rd., purchased by Christian and Tema Koch, is still family property and swells the farm's total acreage to 115. Jacob sold Christian the farm in 1906. Christian died in 1942 and Wilbert, the oldest of five children, has worked the farm ever since. He bought it from his mother in 1957. No part of the farm has been sold off, said the Koch's. The original bam burned down years ago and was replaced. Other than that, the only building of significance that has been added is the home of son Gary Koch, who lives next door with his wife and four children. Gary Koch and his son Kevin, 19, now help with the farming, and son Jason, 15, may be ready to start as well. "I suppose that's the way it'll go," Wilbert Koch said when asked if the younger men will take over. There appears to be no intent in either household to part with the farm. Signs posted on the lawn before each house reflect the onetime threat of a buyout by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, and the resolve of the occupants to stay put. The signs say, "This Land Is Not for Sale to H.C.M.A."

There isn't even much turnover of farm equipment. Wilbert Koch gets along with two Allis- Chalmers tractors from the 1950s and a 1963 Case, all of which he keeps repairing. "For what I did here, I always got along with them," he said. As he recalled, his own father was not' entirely enamored of modern contrivances; even though the family had a telephone, they knew how to get by without it. "Dad used to take out the phone once in a while because he said it cost too much," Wilbert remembered. Helen Koch, who has no quarrel to pick with contrivances, has also played a big part in the farm's history. The former Helen Neyer of Scio Church Rd., she married Wilbert in 1943 and raised daughter Lynda, today of Sylvan Center, and sons Gary and Ronald, who died In Vietnam in 1968. She also tended the big kitchen gardens until this year; arthritis in one hip socket and the period of recuperation for surgery on the other has limited her mobility. The Koch's continue to practice what they call "general farming," planting com, oats, wheat and hay this season. They still keep chickens and about 15 beef cattle. Sheep and dairy cows have been part of the farm at various times.

Yet she scoffed at the notion that the centennial farm distinction implied any special contribution to Michigan life, as the award certificate states. "All we done wag, we did our farming and took our crop," she said. Since the program's start in 1548, over 5,400 farms have been certified as 100-year veterans, owned by members of the same family and having at least 10 acres. A token amount of cash business must be conducted as well. Wilbert Koch said the farm could not always support his family. He held various other jobs to supplement the farm income. For some years, he drew milk at dairy farms in the area. He drove a Chelsea school bus. And he put in 11 years at the University of Michigan as a maintenance man.

For the most part, at least, the farm supported itself; only when the Koch's had dairy cattle did they need to buy extra feed for their animals. In the years when Christian Koch owned sheep, Wilbert helped drive them to the woodlot- pasture on N. Fletcher Rd. He recalled that marauding dogs killed so many sheep that the family eventually gave up raising them. If the farm could not always offer its owners extravagant returns, it could offer them security. The Koch's recalled no significant threats to the farm, other than the temporary annoyance caused by talk of the HCMA's wanting to buy their property. Interstate 94 went in about a mile to the north, just far enough away to leave the property intact and to keep traffic noise from being a bother, but just close enough to make for easy access. However, Wilbert Koch said he could not imagine driving sheep on Fletcher Rd., where it passes over 1-94 today. There are a few things that change.

Wilbert C. Koch of Chelsea, age 78, died suddenly Wednesday, Sept. 6, 1995 at Chelsea Community Hospital. He was born Feb. 8, 1917 in Lima Township, the son of Christian and Tema (Homing) Koch. She married William Robert Yek 02 Dec 1932 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Gustav Yek and Wilhelmina Schmidt. He was born 23 Dec 1908 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 14 Jan 1967 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Esther Dena Horning:
Esther D. (Horning) Yek, age 98, died peacefully on January 23, 2008 surrounded by her loving family and beloved cat Dasher, after a very long and rich life. Esther was born on August 9, 1909 to William and Dean (Frey) Horning in Ann Arbor. She married William R. Yek on December 2, 1932; he preceded her in death on January 14, 1967. Esther was a life-long member of Zion Lutheran Church and lived in Ann Arbor until moving to Connecticut three years ago to live with her daughter and son-in-law. She is survived by her son, William T. (Judy) Yek of Ann Arbor, daughter Deanne (Richard) Mincer of Ridgefield, Connecticut, granddaughter, Tiffany (Robert) Rounds, three great grandchildren: Camrie, Chloe, and Colton of San Diego, California and a sister, Luetta Werner of Ann Arbor. Esther also touched the lives and is survived by her step grandson, Scott Mincer, and his son, Michael of Las Vegas, Nevada and a granddaughter, Elizabeth McDermott of Honolulu, Hawaii.

The family would also like to acknowledge and thank Mia Fahey, who helped care for Esther so lovingly the last couple of years. Esther's life and the times in which she lived are now long-ago history to most of us. The year Esther was born, Ann Arbor was a small town with 15,000 residents and approximately 40 automobiles; women would not have the right to vote for almost ten more years. Her family's home was on First Street and had a hitching post in front and a barn in the back (the hitching post remains today). Esther's mother died when she was a teenager, so as a very young woman, she became a homemaker for her father and younger sister. Esther enthusiastically embraced her mother's talents, learning to sew and embroider little samplers, which are still in the family; cooking and baking and carefully writing out the recipes. Her sewing ability allowed her to pursue this interest in her first job as a seamstress for a downtown men's tailor shop. Her attention to detail produced exceptional clothing for customers and family. After the birth of her first child she stayed home to be a wife and mother. Esther's life took a dramatic change when her beloved husband of 35-years passed away unexpectedly; she then learned to drive and started a new job at the University of Michigan. Also at this time, Esther had the opportunity to travel with her daughter and son-in-law, accompanying them on many trips within the US and Europe.

Once she saw the world outside of Ann Arbor, she never lost her desire to see and experience more, traveling well into her 80's. Every Christmas, family and friends would enjoy Esther's homemade cookies which always included her beautifully decorated cut-out cookies. Several years ago, she wrote the recipes down in books and gave them to members of the family as Christmas gifts. These books will be cherished always, but the cookies made will never replicate her exquisite little confections. Esther experienced much in her life which came close to spanning a century. She was a sweet gentle soul who will be missed greatly by her family. Rest peacefully, Mom. Visitation will be from 4-6 p.m. Monday January 28 at Muehlig Funeral Chapel. The funeral service will be at 11 a.m. on Tuesday at Zion Lutheran Church Chapel (South Entrance), 1501 West Liberty, Pastor Bracklein officiating. Burial will follow at Bethlehem Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in her memory may be made to Zion Lutheran Church or the American Heart Association.

1638 ii. Deanne Kay Yek, born 23 Mar 1943 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married (1) Richard O. Mincer; born 15 Aug 1938. She married (2) Robert George Danjowicz 06 Jan 1968 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan; born 01 Jun 1941.

Notes for Deanne Kay Yek:
Deanne Mincer's teachings are grounded in the steadfast belief that each of us is the Light of Eternal Life and Love and that we can come to know the Truth while in this lifetime. In concert with her beliefs, she has authored The 52: Discovering the True You in 52 Simple Lessons - Inspired by the Profound Truths of A Course in Miracles, Classic Yoga Texts, and the Mystical Poetry of Rumi and has created "Divine Love: A Unique Yoga Nidra Experience, " in collaboration with Sacred Acoustics. This groundbreaking recording brings together for the first time,the powerful meditative guidance of Yoga Nidra (sleeping meditation) with the consciousness altering sounds and tones of Sacred Acoustics. Deanne is an inspiring speaker on the subject she likes best, learning to love yourself in every moment of your life. Her talks are filled with meaningful quotes, personal stories, demonstrations on muscle testing and clearing negative belief systems, as well as humor, joy and fun. She sees every person as the Light of Divine and Eternal Love and wants to share this vision with you.

Deanne has been a long-time student of spiritual studies. For many years, she was a practitioner of yoga and in the late 1980's she was drawn to share her enthusiasm by becoming a yoga teacher. Her certification, from the Himalayan Institute, was a comprehensive two-year program including the study of anatomy, diet, nutrition, Ayurvedic medical practices, the methods of teaching hatha yoga, the science of breath and the study of raja (the royal path of yoga) philosophy. She has taught yoga, meditation, and spiritual classes for more than twenty-five years. In the mid-1990s, she experienced a spiritual awakening called shaktipat and her teachings took on a new and freshly informed understanding.

This was the beginning of many mystical transformations that were brought about from guru's and teachers, both in their bodies and out, and by ascended masters of the highest order. These involved signs, manifestation, and messages that emerged from unlikely sources. As Deanne continued her studies, she explored Reiki and also studied with Henry Grayson, Ph.D. where she refined her work with muscle testing and the complex of energy healing methods Dr. Grayson has developed for use with his patients. Dr. Grayson's work is illuminated in his books, Mindful Loving and Use Your Body to Heal Your Mind. This work, which engages many modes of healing, is taught in a private setting and scores of individuals has made great strides in learning to love themselves and let go of issues and traumas that kept their lives in states of fear, anger, depression, and hopelessness. For many years she brought her attention to the profound teachings of A Course in Miracles, concentrated on every word of the three major parts of the book. She now offers regular groups called "Into the Light of Miracles," guiding through the daily lessons.

Another popular and unusual program she presents is called "Rumi and Me." this includes the reading of the mystical Sufi poet, Rumi, and participants learn a rare form of meditation called whirling, as followed by the "whirling dervishes" in seeking unity with God. Deanne's special interest in this springs from a completely unexpected encounter with Rumi himself when she entered his shrine in Konya, Turkey. Deanne has, in the past, offered classes in yoga as well as stress reduction programs and meditation in many forms (sitting, walking, whirling, meditation in action, and "sleeping" meditation called yoga nidra). She has developed methods of using yoga in treating those with life threatening diseases as in the programs she designed for Gilda's Club and Friends in Deed in New York City.

She was a consulting producer on an alternative health program for CNBC's Alive and Wellness, and she has demonstrated yoga on network television. Deanne created the audio CD Inner Light Yoga with Deanne Mincer and she has spoken widely and demonstrated meditation in many venues. Deanne is an enthusiastic and joyful teacher. She is known for the keen interest she takes in her students' physical and spiritual development. She stresses that each student should work at their own pace in a non-competitive and caring environment. You can read some of the comments her students have shared in the Testimonials Section of this site. Her teaching is grounded in her own steadfast spiritual awareness - that each of us is a being of eternal light and love and that we can all come to knowing this truth for ourselves. She is eager to help guide you on this joyful path of body, mind, breath and spirit. And to come face to face with your True Self.

She married Frederick Eugene (Bud) Stein 23 Jul 1948 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Eugene Stein and Lorena Bissinger. He was born 14 Sep 1921 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 27 Mar 2013 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Annabel Virginia Schultz:

Ann Arbor, Michigan - Annabel (Annie) Stein passed away peacefully on Wednesday, February 14, 2024 only nine days after enjoying a long weekend of celebration for her 100th birthday with family and friends. She is survived by her daughter, Cindy Nordlinger, her granddaughter, Julie Ziesemer, and Julie's husband, Shawn Ashley. Annie was preceded in death by her husband of 64 years, Fred (Bud) Stein; her parents, Otto Schultz and Alma (Schlafer) Schultz; her brother, Neil Schultz and wife Dorothy; and her nephew Charles Raab, whose wife Betty survives. She is also survived by her niece Mary Jean Raab (John Boyer); niece Phyllis Valentine; nephew, Ken (Pam) Schultz, and great grandpuppy, Sunny.

Annie was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan in 1924. She was a member of the first graduating class of Slauson Junior High School. She graduated from Ann Arbor High School and The University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Science degree in actuarial mathematics. She worked as the bookkeeper at her husband's business, Stein & Goetz Sporting Goods Store. Together, they traveled extensively and enjoyed 40+ trips to their adopted country Switzerland. She retired in 1976 when they sold the sporting goods store to Dave Hirth and Doug Horning, who later changed the name to the M Den. She was a lifetime resident of Ann Arbor until 1990 when she and Bud began splitting their time between Ann Arbor and Tarpon Springs, Florida. In 2018 she returned permanently to live out her last years with her family in Ann Arbor.

While in Ann Arbor, she volunteered at Bud's Kiwanis club, her church, and for many of her daughter's activities growing up. She was a member of the U of M Alumni Association's Camp Michigania Camp Council, and she was the first female President of the Ann Arbor YM-YWCA. If you knew Annie, you knew her competitive streak that served her well as an accomplished local bowler, golfer, and tennis player. She still played tennis on her 90th birthday. She never met a card game she didn't win! Four days before turning 100 she won her last game of Mahjongg against dear friends. Annie's pride and joy was her granddaughter Julie who enriched her life for the past 42 years as they traveled and attended Michigan athletic events together. This past November was a very special time for her family. Julie's "Bops," Bud Stein, received an Honorary M athletic letter posthumously from the U of M's Letterwinners M Club. Annie felt overwhelmed that he would finally receive this honor that he missed when he left the university during his junior year to serve in the Navy during World War II.

There will be no funeral or memorial service. Donations in her memory can be made to the Letterwinners M Club, 1000 S. State St., Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109.

Notes for Frederick Eugene (Bud) Stein:

Wednesday evening, March 27, 2013, Fred "Bud" Stein passed away peacefully at his home in Ann Arbor at the age of 91. He was preceded in death by his parents, Eugene (Ike) and Lorena (Bissinger) Stein and his sister, Jean Marie (Stein) Raab. Born in Ann Arbor, he was a life-time resident and member of Bethlehem United Church of Christ until retiring to Tarpon Springs, Florida, where he lived during the winters with his wife of 64 years, Annabel (Schultz) Stein. Bud was a graduate of the Ann Arbor High School Class of 1939 (Basketball, Track) and the University of Michigan (Basketball). He served in the Navy in WWII on a PT Boat stationed in New Guinea. He left the Navy as an Ensign after spending a year at Harvard Business School. He worked for his dad at Stein Cleaners then in 1954, opened Stein & Goetz Sporting Goods (currently the M Den) with his cousin, Ward Goetz. They sold Stein & Goetz to Dave Hirth and Doug Horning in 1976 and he continued to work there until his retirement in 1982.

Bud was the consummate community leader and served as a director for The Chamber of Commerce, The United Way, The YM-YWCA (Ann Arbor Y) and the Downtown Business Association, among others. Bud led the successful campaign to establish the Downtown Promenade on Main Street despite mayoral opposition. His presentation to the National Civic League resulted in Ann Arbor being awarded the All-America City in 1965. One of his passions was the Ann Arbor Downtown Kiwanis Club where he was a Past-President and had perfect attendance for 57 Years. He holds that record today. His other passion was the University of Michigan Alumni Association where he was a Board member, Camp Michigania Council member and a Distinguished Alumni Volunteer. He was instrumental in promoting Camp Michigania Switzerland and the Alumni Alpine Adventure. After 40+ trips to Switzerland, he never tired of hiking through the mountains and riding the trains through his beautiful adopted country.

Along with his wife, Annie, he generously shared this passion with their daughter, Cindy and her former husband, Doug Ziesemer and their daughter, Julie Ziesemer. He shared a special bond with his only granddaughter and was fondly known as Bops. Every home football Saturday morning, she traipsed after him through the Michigan Stadium to help raise the stadium's Big Ten pennants as he had done with his dad when he was growing up. In addition to his wife, Annabel; daughter, Cindy (John) Nordlinger; and granddaughter, Julie Ziesemer, he is survived by niece, Mary Jean Raab (John Boyer); nephew, Charles (Betty) Raab; niece, Phyllis Valentine; and nephew, Ken (Pam) Schultz.

First St., Ann Arbor, MI 48104 or The University of Michigan Alumni Association: Camp Michigania, 200 Fletcher St., Ann Arbor, MI 48109. The family thanks everyone for their love and prayers.

1099. Charles Fredeick[10] Braun (Hilda Emma[9] Fiegel, Christian Frederick[8], Johannes[7], Anna Katharina[6] Burkhardt, Christian[5], Johann Georg[4], Wolfgang[3], Michael[2], Conrad[1]) was born 19 Aug 1933 in Ann Arbor Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 19 Apr 2013 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Catherine Ann Fishbeck, daughter of Fred Fishbeck and Harriet ?. She was born 12 Oct 1934 in Michigan, and died 08 Mar 2024 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Charles Fredeick Braun:

Charles F. Braun, age 79, passed away at his home, after a short bout with pancreatic cancer on April 19, 2013, with his family members by his side. He was born on August 14, 1933 to the late Carl and Hilda (Fiegel) Braun in Ann Arbor Township and remained an Ann Arbor Township resident his entire life. After his father died in 1944, Charles, at the age of 10, was thrust into the role of becoming a man and farming the family homestead. Charles attended the Braun one-room school and graduated from Ann Arbor High School in 1952. He went on to college at Michigan State University and graduated in the school's Agricultural Short Course. Charles returned to the farm with new and better ideas. He was a deep thinker! He retained a lot of knowledge and his head was full of ideas. Many of these ideas were expounded upon, experimented with, and finally implemented into his farming operation or business ventures. One of these experiments was planting and harvesting cucumbers with the help of migrant labor. He, also, was the first in the area to plant huge fields of pumpkins. Charles was the master-mind; the labor and implantation jobs fell mostly to his three step-sons or his employees in later years. He employed men and women from the surrounding areas with many of them hired from his own neighborhood community.

Charles was a confirmed member of the Zion Lutheran Church. He was a member of the Michigan Christmas Tree Association and was a prominent retailer of Christmas trees for Braun's Tree Farm the last several years at his farm in Ann Arbor Township. He was also a member of the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and a former member of the local Webster Providers Farm Bureau Group. Charles was a noted grower of Michigan Certified Seed throughout the state. Charlie served Ann Arbor Township Fire Department as a volunteer fireman for many years beginning in the early 1950's. He, then, became assistant chief and his dedication to the Fire Department led him later to become Fire Chief for six years in the 1980's. C. F., as he was known by some, formerly owned and operated the 49er Truck Stop located at the near-by corner of North Territorial and Whitmore Lake Roads. He, also, built the C.F. Braun Company farm elevator from the ground up. This was one of the largest grain elevator operations in the county at that time. He had a dealership for the German-made Deutz tractors and sold other farm implements as well. He served local area farmers for years with seed, fertilizer, chemicals, supplies, and purchased their harvested grain. A devastating fire, touched off by a propane gas explosion, consumed and demolished his business in April 1978, but Charles, along with his wife, Catherine, faced the challenge of rebuilding his business and went on to assist the farming community until he sold the business in 1985, after serving the farm community for over thirty years. Charlie was well-known throughout the state for his farming expertise. In April 1963, he was featured on the cover of the Successful Farming magazine with his 2-row corn planter attached to his plow. He implemented this new "plow-plant" system. When he finished plowing the field, he had completed the planting! He was never afraid to try anything new, before unheard of, in farming. He did exactly what he wanted to do in his lifetime, which was farming, and also, helped other farmers attain their goal in farming. At the height of his agri-business days, he had many semi drivers on the road delivering anhydrous ammonia to various areas throughout the state, as well as semis hauling grain to the Maumee, Ohio River elevator where the farm grain was loaded onto boats and shipped around the world.

Charles is survived by his loving wife, Catherine (Fishbeck) Judkins Braun; two daughters, Mary Catherine (James) McCreedy and Pamela Anne Braun; one step-daughter, Linda Judkins (Nick Contompasis); three step-sons, Kenneth Judkins, Richard (Sheri) Judkins, and Bruce Judkins; two grandchildren, Abigail Marie and Justin James McCreedy; six step-grandchildren, Tyler Hartman Knutson, Spencer Truman Knutson, Ashley Suzanne Judkins, Alexandria Renee Judkins, twins, Emily Catherine and Nicole Elizabeth Judkins; one step-great-granddaughter, Bailey Stubbe; his brother, David C. Braun of Grand Rapids, Michigan; cousins, Frieda (Kent) McCullough, John Braun, Mary Pfaus and Barbara (Luther) Schaible. Charlie also leaves behind his cherished dog, "Sadie" and cat "Tip" who will greatly miss his daily attention. The family wishes to thank Arbor Hospice of Ann Arbor for their help and excellent care at this difficult time.

The family will receive friends on Wednesday, April 24, 2013 from 2-8 PM at the Nie Family Funeral Home, Liberty Road Chapel, 3767 W. Liberty Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Funeral Services will be held on Thursday, April 25, 2013 at 11:30 AM with an hour of visitation prior to the service at the funeral home with Pastor David Bracklein officiating. Burial will follow at Washtenong Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions in honor of Charles may be made to Arbor Hospice of Ann Arbor or the Huron Valley Humane Society.

1103. Barbara Grace[10] Geiger (Lydia E.[9] Fiegel, Christian Frederick[8], Johannes[7], Anna Katharina[6] Burkhardt, Christian[5], Johann Georg[4], Wolfgang[3], Michael[2], Conrad[1]) was born 01 Aug 1936 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She married Luther John (Luke) Schaible 06 Jul 1957, son of Herman Schaible and Magdalena Girbach. He was born 13 Mar 1930 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 19 Dec 2020 in Manchestrer, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Luther John (Luke) Schaible:

Luke and Barbara Schaible, Manchester: Luke and Barbara were both born and raised on farms. In 1957 they married and purchased a farm on Fletcher Road, 2 miles from his homestead. They raised five children, 2 sons and 3 daughters. The dairy cows were sold in 1967 to focus on sheep and market lambs. Their sons now manage the bulk of the lamb operation. When Luke was 9 years old he begged his parents for an accordion. He formed a dance band in 1964 and continues to play for various community functions, weddings and other ethnic celebrations. We are blessed with eleven grandchildren and most of them play a musical instrument. The farm fence at the entrance to the farm reads “Trohlich Spielen & Singing.” Translated, that means “Happily playing and singing.” That’s been our story for the last 45 years! During our lifetime we witnessed many changes- from the one room schoolhouse in the country to consolidation in town, from farming with horses to tractors- from feeding with 5-gallon pails to computer controlled mechanization.

Luther John Schaible, 90, of Manchester, Michigan passed away peacefully on Saturday, December 19, 2020 with his family by his side. Born on June 2, 1934 of Manx and German heritage, Allan decided to become a physician at age 5 and was known to childhood friends by the nickname "Doc," after he began treating playground injuries with band-aids. As a teenager, he played saxophone in a dance band and was on the wrestling and debate teams. A lifelong Ann Arborite with a historian's memory, Allan learned the name of every street in town as a delivery driver for his father's grocery store - Grennan and Clague's on Packard. Allan completed all of his education in Ann Arbor: he was valedictorian of Ann Arbor High School's Class of 1952 and received the Chute Medal "in recognition of the highest type of school citizen," he received his B.A. in philosophy from the University of Michigan in 1957, and completed U-M medical school in 1961. After an internship and residency at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, he returned to U-M to study neurology and became an expert in electroencephalography, serving as Clinical Professor at U-M Medical Center (1968 - 91). He directed the EEG labs at St. Joseph and Herrick Hospitals. Also in private practice, he devoted himself to both patients and an old-school approach to personalized medicine. He retired on Jan. 1, 2015 at age 80, but proudly maintained his medical license. Allan was a true Wolverine football fan, who for over 70 years attended nearly every home game. He first entered the Big House in 1943 at age 9 as a last-minute substitute water boy. Rain or shine, win or lose, Allan stayed to the last snap.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the American Heart Foundation or Kidney Fund. Doctor, husband, father, and grandfather, Allan was mentally sharp until the last and in so many ways more joyful than ever. He will be missed, never forgotten, and he passed as he dearly wished - at home with his wife of nearly 52 years to whom he was utterly devoted.

Gale lived his entire life on the family's farm in Manchester. He had an uncanny ability to recall facts, such as the prices of a bushel of corn, or the cost of a bale of hay, dating back to his time as a young boy working the farm with his father. Gale will be remembered as a kind and caring man who enjoyed spending time at his farm with family and friends. He enjoyed looking at pictures and documents from previous generations and especially the opportunity to show his son-in-law, Dave the beauty of farm life. Gale was part of the "Men's night", a group of longtime friends that gathered regularly for dinner at different Manchester farms.

To honor Gale's memory, the family will hold a celebration of life on Tuesday, October 24th from 3:00-7:00 p.m. at the family farm in Manchester. Memorial contributions are suggested to Legacy Land Conservancy at 6276 Jackson Road, Suite G, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103

Marriage Notes for Carl Staebler and Edith Pettit:
It was a lovely wedding Friday morning August 3, 1945 at 10 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P.H. Pettit on Capitola Drive when their daughter, Miss Edith Emily Pettit of Santa Cruz, became the bride of Carl Robert Staebler of Ann Arbor, Michigan, with Rev. Norman H. Snow officiating, at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a light blue suit with white accessories, and a lovely corsage of stephanotis blossoms. The vows were exchanged in the living room before the fireplace, which was beautifully decorated with roses, glads and agapanthus. The newlyweds cut their cake, which was served with other light refreshments. The cake was beautifully decorated with white frosting, yellow and green ornaments, and surmounted by a miniature bride and groom.

Carl Robert Staebler, who has just received an honorable discharge from the army, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Staebler of Ann Arbor, Michigan.Having just returned from the Pacific war theater, Mr. Staebler has seen action during the Philippine Islands campaign. Notes for Ralph Darl Bolhouse:

Ralph D. Bolhouse, age 88, passed away peacefully in his sleep from congestive heart failure on April 30, 2015 surrounded by his family at Arbor Hospice in Ann Arbor, following a 4 year battle with cancer that was in remission for several months. Ralph was born in Grand Rapids to Ivan and Dorothia Bishop on May 4, 1926. He was adopted by his mother's Aunt Permilla and Uncle Jacob Bolhouse of Grand Haven at a young age. He attended Grand Haven High School and graduated in 1944 as the Salutatorian of his senior class, and relocated in Ann Arbor where he attended the U of M for 2 years. He enlisted in the civilian air patrol at Muskegon airport as an aviation cadet in the reserve; he was called to duty directly upon graduation. In 1944-46 he served his country during World War II in the Air Force. After his duty he married Betty Jean Davidson in 1946 and in that marriage 4 children were born David, Barbara, Rick, and Sally. He purchased Freeman's Food Market and renamed it "Ralph's Market" in 1956 later selling it in 1975. In 1960 he married the love of his life Frances Ashbay. In that union they had a daughter Ann Marie. He became a father to Frances's children Steven and Lauren Ashbay. He was also employed by Systems and Forms and went into Real Estate. Ralph joined Don Chesham selling numerous condominiums and lots in the Stonebridge subdivision in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Upon the completion of that development, Ralph became the owner of his own company named Builder's Listing Service. Ralph was elected to the Ann Arbor Public School Board in 1971. He was a founding partner of the Breakfast Optimist Club and a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church where he was an Elder and the Head of Sessions. He was also the Executive Director of the American Flag Foundation, dedicated to the Americanization and inspiration of the people of America through its youth, established in 1950 by Rev. Karl Keefer. He adored classical music and all animals, especially his beloved past pets; cats Rusty and Permilla, and his dogs Cocoa, Mocha, Blitzen, Max, Meisha, Pierre, and Maxine who survives and misses him. Survivors include his devoted wife, Frances; sons David (Suzie) Bolhouse, Rick Bolhouse, Steven Ashbay; daughters Barbara Kelly, Lauren (John) Callaway, Ann (Jeffery) Salter; Brother Delvin (Kay) Bishop. He was preceded in death by his parents Dorothia and Ivan Bishop, his adopted parents Permilla and Jacob Bolhouse, his daughter Sally Oman and her son Bobby Oman, and sister Charlene Schroeder. Ralph had 11 grandchildren including Michael Bolhouse, Sheila Bolhouse Keltsch, Shawn Kelly, Jamie Bolhouse, Mandy Breman, Tomi Block, Steven Ashbay, April Ashbay Russell, Erin Callaway Sadler, Sarah Callaway Brown, Leah Salter and 14 great grandchildren. At Ralph's request, a private family memorial service was held at Muehlig Chapel with Rev. Diane Smith presiding, entombment immediately followed at Washtenong Memorial Park; donations may be made to the local Humane Society of Huron Valley he was a fond supporter. Important to the direction of his life was a poem his mother Permilla cut from the Grand Haven newspaper and recited to him in 1942 as he departed for active duty: Four things that I may happy bel pray that God will give to me Someone to love with all my heart, Something to do by toil or art, Something to hope for further on, A memory sweet to muse upon. Author Unknown Circa 1926.

REFLECTIONS You know, time has a way of moving quickly and catching you unaware of the passing years. It seems just like yesterday that I was a youngster, just married and embarking on my new life with my mate. And yet in a way, it seems like eons ago, and I wonder where all the years went. I know that I lived them all And I have glimpses of how it was back then and of all my hopes and dreams but, here it is the winter of my life and it catches me by surprise How did I get here so fast? Where did the years go and where did our children go? And where did my youth go? I remember well seeing older people through the years and thinking that they were years away from me and that winter was so far off that I could not fathom it or imagine fully what it would be like But, here it is spouse retired and really getting gray moving slower, and I see an older person now. In much better shape than me in some ways but, I see the great change not the one I married who had dark hair was young and strong but, like me, age is beginning to show and we are now those older folks that we used to see and never thought we'd be. Each day now, I find that just getting a shower is a real target for the day! And taking a nap is not a treat any more it's mandatory! 'Cause if I don't on my own free willl just fall asleep where I sit! And so, now I enter into this season of my life unprepared for all the aches and pains and the loss of strength and ability to go and do things. But, at least I know, that though the winter has come, and I'm not sure how long it will last This I know, that when it's over it's over Yes, I have regrets. There are things I wish I hadn't done. things I should have done. But indeed, there are many things I'm happy to have doneIt's all in a lifetime. So, if you're not in your winter yet let me remind you, that it will be here faster than you think.

So, whatever you would like to accomplish in your life please do so quickly! Life goes by quickly.so do what you can today, because you can never be sure whether this is your winter or not! You have no promise that you will see all the seasons of your life so, live for good today and say all the things that you want your loved ones to remember "Life is a gift to you. The way you live your life is your gift to those who came after. Make it a fantastic one." Live it well!! ---Author unknown---

Wally had battled fiercely for two years with cancer. Numerous rounds of chemo, radiation, and trial drugs never kept him down. He always said that at the end of his battle he wanted to do something that would make a difference, whether that meant being a police officer, firefighter, or paramedic, but in the end he chose to donate himself to science in the hope of finding a cure for the late relapse of cancer that he experienced.

Wally graduated from Chelsea High School in 1999. He liked working on computers, trying to fix them. He loved working on cars and his favorites were Chevys. He also loved working on projects around the house. He was one who couldn't sit still. He was the biggest kid at heart and this was reflected through his love for Optimus Prime from his favorite childhood cartoon, Transformers. Wally had worked as a binder operator for Malloy, which is now Edwards Brothers Malloy. He was a very likable guy and a good friend to all he met. He was helpful and giving, never turning away anybody who asked for help. He was a jack of all trades, the handy man. He was a fighter, hero, and angel for his family. He was a good brother and son, and a loving husband and father.

Notes for David Lance Hudson:

BROOKVILLE -- David Lance Hudson, 70, of Brookville, died Friday, Oct. 5, 2012. He was the firstborn of Paul and Ila (Withroder) Hudson, on Nov. 21, 1941, in the farmhouse of his parents in rural Reno County. In 1944, the Hudson family moved to Wichita County near Leoti, where they established their farming and ranching operation.

At an early age, his desire for a horse became reality when his uncle, George Withroder, upon returning home from World War II, gave him his first horse. Rex was his best friend and companion, and for several years, the two were almost inseparable. During this time, Dave became an excellent rider.

He attended grade school at Beulah, north of Leoti, and high school at Wichita County Community High School, in Leoti. While in high school, he participated in football, basketball and track. Also, while in high school, he was a member of FFA, serving as an officer and was named a Star Farmer of Kansas in 1958. Although he participated and excelled in sports, his real love was for the rodeo life.

The opportunity to compete in high school rodeos was very limited, so he participated in area rodeos. As his riding skills increased, he began to enter rodeos all over the state of Kansas. While he was still in high school, he was able to compete at the Houston Stock show, but the highlight of the trip was the chance to go deep sea fishing. His senior year, he attended the National High School Finals in Sulphur, Louisiana, and came home with runner-up All round Cowboy award. After completing high school, Dave talked his parents into purchasing a set of rodeo bucking stock from the Harrisions in Wallace, Kansas. He devoted his time, over the next 20+ years to the operation of Hudson Brothers Rodeo Company, which he owned with his two brothers, Deone and Dale.

Dave strived to maintain a good set of bucking bulls, the bucking horses were his pride and joy and he was always on the lookout for the next great bucking horse. Even after being out of the business 40 years, he could tell you details about any horse, where they were purchased, who had made the good rides on them and also the spectacular buck offs they caused. He enjoyed bucking the good cowboys off but was equally thrilled when the two would produce an excellent exhibition. He was extremely proud when some of their stock was allowed to perform at the National Finals Rodeo.

In 1964, Dave married Candyce Luther, of North Platte, Nebraska. This union produced three sons. With the demands of producing rodeos and raising a family, time was not available to compete at as many rodeos as he would have liked, but when he did, he was always a threat in every event he entered.

Dave was a member of the Leoti Masonic Lodge No. 340 of Leoti, for 49 years. In 1974, Hudson Brothers Rodeo Company was purchased by Deone. Dave began to pursue other interests. He spent a few years working for Loretta Lynn's Longhorn Championship Rodeo Company. One of Dave's many passions was fishing. With fishing rather limited in Western Kansas, he moved to Brookville. It did not take Dave long to find the good fishing holes and frequent them often.

Upon his retirement from employment with Saline County, he could devote more time to his fishing. He was once heard to say he never intended to have anything so important to do that he could not stop and go fishing. Dave will be remembered as a very caring and generous person and he will be greatly missed by his family and friends. Dave was preceded in death by his parents, Paul and Ila, and nephews, Aaron and Cole.

Survivors include three sons, Tom (Kim), of Bennett, Colorado, Tyler (Deb), of Morrill, Nebraska, and True (Christy), of Lompoc, California; two brothers, Deone (Connie), of Sharon Springs, and Dale (Janie), of Brewster; grandchildren, Curtis Orth, of Brookville, Chase (Kenda) Barker, of Brookville, Richard Mahaffee, of Richmond, Virginia, Brittaney Hudson, of Bennett, Colorado, Kory Hudson, of Bennett, Colorado, Ashlee (Greg) Gompert, of Morrill, Nebraska, Tracer Hudson, of Hays, Samantha Schneider, of Tucson, Arizona, Sarah Hudson, of Lompoc, California, Chelsie DeHavilland, of Lompoc, California, and Kaity DeHavilland, of Lompoc, California; great-grandchildren, Richard Jr. and Reggan, both of Richmond, Virgnia, Haylee, of Morrill, Nebraska, and Brinlee, of Brookville; niece, Jill, of Long Pine, Nebraska; nephews, Billy Joe, of Hastings, Nebraska, Cauy, of Brewster, and Caleb Hudson, of Hays.

Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 9, at Ryan Mortuary, 137 N Eighth St, Salina, KS. Visitation will be from 4-8 p.m. Monday, at Ryans. Burial will be in Brookville City Cemetery, Brookville. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials be made to the Brookville Volunteer Fire Department or Leoti Rodeo Club.

Notes for Yvonne May Mousseau:
Yvonne May Mousseau McClain passed away September 7, 2016. She was born on March 11, 1928 to Charles and Alta Mousseau. She grew up on a rural farm in Michigan with her two brothers, and three sisters, later moving to Detroit. She grew up in a Christian family whose values carried her through life until the day she died. After the war in 1947, she married a very handsome man named Charles McClain. Chuck was in college on the GI bill when he and Yvonne started their family in Detroit where Andrea, Michael, and Jeanne were born. Upon completion of Chuck's degree in industrial design, the family moved to Los Angeles, California and along came Robert!!! Now they were a family of six and their great life adventure was underway. Yvonne's dream was to become a teacher. With four young children, running a home, and the help of Chuck she went through college, (mostly at night), and received her bachelors degree in English from Long Beach State University. She began her career teaching high school English, and continued for 30 years in Los Angeles, New Orleans, and San Diego. Upon returning to California, she earned a Masters Degree in Multicultural Studies from San Diego State University. Her high school students adored her, often came to her home, and together they produced award winning yearbooks and school newspapers. Yvonne and Chuck valued education so highly that all four of their children received college degrees and went into productive careers in education, medicine, and aerospace. They were very proud of each of their children, loving and supporting them throughout their lives.

Upon Yvonne's retirement she assumed a regional leadership role for Outreach International, an organization working to eradicate the deepest poverty in developing countries. Outreach International kept her busy for many years working in development and traveling to many of the countries involved. She began the idea of "fast a thons" (fundraisers) for youth groups at her church to contribute to this wonderful cause. Yvonne and Chuck also traveled the world together, enjoying the cultures of many foreign countries, and set foot on nearly all of the continents. After traipsing around the world, they made their home in the Coronado Cays and enjoyed sailing on the San Diego Bay, going to Catalina, and Baja California. Yvonne was Chuck's first Mate!!! Henderson, Nevada became their home for their final retirement years, enjoying many of their family members close by. They shared daily companionship, meals, entertainment and love. And don't forget the many visits from all her little chickadees!!!

Yvonne was a devoted lifetime member of The Community of Christ church, holding the office of Elder in the priesthood. She loved contributing to the many congregations that she attended throughout her life. She had an overwhelming faith in God and was always there for people in need, graciously accepting any task given to her and was an inspiration to many that knew her. Yvonne was the kindest person you would ever meet. She loved Jesus, her husband, her children and grandchildren. She also loved the ocean, sailing, traveling, teaching, entertaining, giving to others, life, and Shakespeare! If you knew Yvonne, you knew her for the smile that was always on her face and the children around her feet.

We love you and thank you for helping shape us into the best people we can be. Andrea, Michael, Jeanne and Karl and Robert; Kristin and Chuck, Rachel and Eric, Garrett and Melanie, Nicole, Ryan, Ashley and Ned; Blaze, Renee, Emily, Keira, Kelan, Asher, Wyatt, and Shea.

His limited and rare "downtime," was enjoyed at his Ann Arbor and Ludington homes with the love of his life Cindy, and their beloved dogs, family and friends. Not only did Bob have a deep passion for family, he also cultivated and valued friendships. This was evident at the end, when his friends stood by him cheering him on even when he could no longer communicate his love for them. Active in his community, Bob served as President of the local Home Builders Association and was a dedicated member of the Washtenaw Land Trust, which reflected his commitment to preserving local land from over development. Bob was also a successful and motivated business owner and ran several local businesses and partnerships which brought growth to many surrounding communities.

We hope Bob's legacy of love for family, friends, dedication to community and ambitious spirit will continue to inspire all who knew him. He was born 11 Oct 1964.

Notes for Barbara Ann Horning:
My name is Barbara (Horning) Shannon and we are distant cousins. My brother is David Horning and we both live in the Atlanta, Georgia, area (and both work at Emory University--David in the Hospital and myself in the College of Arts and Sciences--Biology Department), but we grew up in Ann Arbor. I have been using your information in the published volumes of our German ancestors, which is very interesting, as I am in the process of assembling my own ancestry books (which are turning into photo albums). I was stationed twice in Germany (I am retired U.S. Army, SSG/E-6) but did not have this information at that time, or I would have looked up our relatives! Thank you very much for all of your work in putting that together, as well as your history of the German settlers in the Ann Arbor area. Also very interesting.

My father, Norman Julius Horning, passed away at age 93 on October 24, 2016, after an unexpected medical condition (aortic aneurism, successful surgery, and then succumbed to CDIF and Sepsis infections). He is the son of Martha (Furthmueller) (Horning) Hoeft and Julius Horning, if you would like to update your information. David and I were in Ann Arbor in mid-July, as we had my father's burial (at Washtenog Memorial Park, next to my mother, Gena Irene (Inman) Horning) on July 14th, a graveside service for him on July 15th which included a 21-gun salute (he was a World War II Veteran and participated in the Battle of Normandy) by the Washtenaw County Honor Guard, and a celebration of life (in conjunction with our annual family reunion at Murray Lake in Ann Arbor) for my father, his sister Doris (Horning) (Stevenson) Bowling (who passed away in April of 2016), and Aunt Esther (Stevenson) Agner (not blood related to us but has always been part of the family and is Aunt Doris's first husband Lester's (Bud) twin sister and Doris's best friend). I also saw Edward Gebhardt (my cousin and GodFather; his wife Virginia passed away a few years ago) and Joan Gebhardt while in Ann Arbor (the wife of Fred Gebhardt who also passed away unexpectedly in the same 8 month time period, in addition to our cousin Nancy Lutz (can't think of her married name). Joan also has an ancestry book of her own, in addition to your published volumes, so your material is being put to good use, even though you did all of the hard work! Well, I just wanted to say hello and to connect with you via FaceBook. I hope you will accept my friend request. Sincerely, Barbara 2452 ii. Elspeth Rene Geiger, born 1986.

Notes for Elspeth Rene Geiger:

Nov. 20, 2008 - Clinton High School graduates Elspeth and Kylista Geiger gave a final plea to Clinton Board of Education members to change the school's mascot during the public comment portion of the regular meeting held Monday. "I want to focus specifically on how it creates disrespect for the people it's supposed to be honoring," Elspeth told the board as she read to them of how the origin of the adoption of Native American names as mascots was not done to honor Native Americans, but came as a result of stereotypical images propagated from movies and stories of non-native origin. Kylista followed her sister in making a final argument, saying the use of the mascot is discriminatory and over-simplifies the meaning behind the names.

Both women, who are of Native-American descent, began a petition drive in early October in hopes of getting the mascot issue before the board. Supt. David Pray gave the Geiger sisters the petition stipulating that 40 percent of the signatures needed to be in favor of changing the mascot name in order for it to be placed on the board agenda at the November regular meeting. The petition signatures, tallied earlier this month, showed more than 90 percent in favor of keeping Redskin as Clinton Community Schools mascot.

The Geigers were not alone in their plea, however. Several members of various tribes attended the meeting to speak out on how the name disrespects their heritage. Marsha Traxler was the first to speak, telling the board members that Native Americans were forced out of the area at one time, long ago, and those who stayed were forced to mask their identity fearing for their lives. "My guess is the people who signed the petition don't understand that these people live among us," she said. She also told listeners of the American Indian Religious Freedom Act, adopted in 1978, and how that marked the start of when Native Americans could pray openly in this country, a country founded on principles of religious freedom, she reminded board members.

Christine Herdman, who is Mohawk, referred to Indian mascots when she said, "These things keep us stuck in the past. Our kids look at these and think, 'Jeepers, this is what they think of us, of our ancestors.'" She said that the term Redskin, which she added is a term she prefers not to use, has historically been associated with death and violence and urged the board to take another look at changing the name.

North American Indian Association of Detroit Vice President Andrea Pierce commented, stating 12 Michigan tribes have passed resolutions that consider the use of Indian names by schools and professional sports teams as discriminatory and promoting stereotypes rather than honoring the history of Native Americans in Michigan. She was followed by former Eastern Michigan University sociology professor Karen Sherman who noted several resolutions adopted by governmental bodies that condemn the use of Native American names as mascots, but she highlighted the 2003 State of Michigan Board of Education self-study made in 2003 that looked at all of the schools that use Native American names for logos. The result of the study was a resolution urging schools to eliminate culturally associated logos or mascots. This also was the resolution the Geiger sisters cited as a reason for initiating the petition drive at Clinton. "It is time for Clinton schools to do a self-assessment and a checklist," said Sherman. "Schools should not use their influence to perpetuate stereotypes of any group."

Rose Johnson, a Comanche, Aztec and Apache, urged the board members to listen not with their ears but with their hearts. "You choose to honor my people with a funny looking Indian guy. At least use a true representation," she said. She said she did not feel honored by the name Redskin. "I'm just saying if you are going to honor us, pray for us. Don't make fun of us."

Linda Crypet-Kilbourne, of Marshall, addressed the board using her Native American name ZhaawanongNimkiiKwew (Southern Thunder Woman). She told board members that the district will never qualify for Michigan's Blue Ribbon Exemplary Schools Program, even with its many academic accomplishments, strictly because it chooses to keep the name Redskin. Beyond the practical aspect of the school's choice, she noted, as did others, the hurtful nature of the mascot name and hoped the board members would use education as a tool for honoring the Native American people. "Education is the way. We all need to be educated on many different levels with many different people," she said.

One parent, Troy Bevier, did note his support of the Redskin name and in support of the way that Pray has handled the controversy after commenting on the school's advance placement program. 1989 Clinton High School graduate Shawn Phillips, a Chippewa, chose not to speak during public comment, although, he and his brother, Jeremy, who could not make the meeting because of recent surgery, have supported the district's decision to keep the name. "I'm not offended at all by it. I did do a lot of research. I've mentioned it to other Indians in conversations and haven't found any who take offense to it," he said following the meeting.

Not present at the meeting were representatives from the local organization Leh-Nah-Weh Native American Organization based in Lenawee County.The school board did not take action, but Pray remained firm on putting the issue to rest, stating that petitions show the community supports keeping the mascot and logo. "The reason why we issued the petition is because in 2003 the school board made a decision to say they were not going change the mascot without input from the community. Community members came forward later saying they would have liked input. Our community is very strong on the issue," he said. He added that he understood the view of the people who spoke, but the community supports keeping the name.

Elspeth Geiger said, however, that the issue is not over. "We really need to all get together and discuss where we go from here. I can tell you that this is not going to be the end, but I don't know where we go from here," she said.

Leslie Allen[11] Kopka (Jean Marie[10] Trinkle, Otto George[9], Julia Catherina[8] Staebler, Anna Catharina[7] Fiegel, Anna Katharina[6] Burkhardt, Christian[5], Johann Georg[4], Wolfgang[3], Michael[2], Conrad[1]) was born 12 Dec 1951 in Tecumseh, Lenawee Co, Michigan, and died 10 Aug 2017 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married (1) Debra Marie Paul 20 Nov 1971 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Arthur Paul and Dorothea Pucak. She was born 04 Jan 1953 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 16 Mar 2014 in Adrian, Lenawee Co, Michigan. He married (2) Linda Lorgina Janeway 07 Nov 1981 in Manchester Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 04 Apr 1947 in Middlesburgh, Kentucky.

Notes for Leslie Allen Kopka:

June 15, 2012 - After almost losing his home due to severe flood damage, a World War II veteran was given the best gift he could have asked for at the Clayton Township Board Meeting Thursday night. Elmen Kopka, 86, of Clayton Township, came to the meeting believing he was addressing the board and audience regarding the recent decision made by the Federal Emergency Management Agency to deny Genesee County major disaster assistance.

At the meeting Clayton Township Police Chief Mike Powers surprised Kopka with his World War II uniform he thought had been destroyed when his basement flooded due to storms that hit the area in early May. During the meeting Kopka gave an emotional recount of his time in Germany during the Battle of the Bulge where he was wounded. He said he was lucky to be alive, because a bullet had grazed the side of his head in a downward angle and into his shoulder.

Kopka and his wife Aretia returned from Florida on Mother's Day to find more than three feet of water standing in their basement. "I knew everything was ruined down there because I could see on the stairs how high the water had come up." Kopka said. His uniform was hanging in one of the finished rooms in the basement that his wife uses to paint. He said when he looked at the uniform his heart sank – it was covered in mold and was destroyed. "When I looked in there I just felt sick," Kopka said. "But there was nothing I could do about it then." While doing door-to-door damage assessments for residents who had filled out claims, Powers said he, Township Treasurer Chris Gehringer, and Township Trustee Richard Tesner came to Kopka's home to assess the damage.

Elmen Kopka and his wife Aretia help Clayton Township Police Chief Mike Powers fold and place Kopka's World War II uniform back into its box. Powers surprised Kopka with the uniform at the Clayton Township Board Meeting on Thursday, June 14. Kopka thought his uniform had been damaged beyond repair after his home flooded due to severe storms in early May. "The water was gone but the house was just devastated, mold had already taken over the upstairs." Powers said. "He went and got a couple of garbage bags out and he said 'I lost these' and there was his uniform. It was soaking wet and full of mold." Although there was nothing he and the board members could do about Kopka's home, they could try to do something with his uniform. "You could just see how important it was to him, it was a deeply personal loss to him. We couldn't repair his house, and we couldn't fix his basement, but we this was the one thing we could."

Kopka and his wife had tried to take the uniform to a cleaners, but due to the mold they were unable to do anything with it. Powers said Gehringer contacted Jan's Professional Dry Cleaners in Clio because they specialize in restoration, and they were able to return the uniform to its former glory. Powers also contacted Hubbard's Military Surplus and they were able to replace Kopka's ribbons and cleaned up his medals. "It was the right thing to do to make sure that he got that back." Powers said. "It was a little thing but it had a big effect on him." Kopka said having his uniform restored means the world to him because of what it reminds him of. "I think I came out of the war a better person knowing I helped this country keep its freedom." Kopka said.

2525 i. Brett Adam[12] Barron, born 06 May 1979; died 11 Aug 2018.

Notes for Brett Adam Barron:

Manistee, Michigan - Brett Adam Baron passed away unexpectedly on August 11, 2018 while ascending some of the most rugged and remote ridges of Montana's Crazy Mountains. Brett was a highly intelligent and skilled outdoorsman, volunteering to survey backcountry wildlife populations in unmarked alpine terrain at the time of his death. Brett was a career service member of the US Naval Special Warfare Community, a mentor, athlete, and conservationist with an unmatched spirit. Brett was born on May 6, 1979 to his beloved mother Barbara Ann Barron (deceased) of Ann Arbor, Michigan. After losing his mother at the young age of eight, Brett was raised by his Grandmother Virginia Burr (deceased). He was able to excel despite the loss of his mother, ultimately pursuing finance studies before deciding to enlist with the US Navy at age 19. Brett's passion and competence lead him through multiple deployments with the US Naval Special Warfare Community where he received individual recognition for his diligence and commitment over his 13 years of service. During his time in the service, Brett lived in Virginia Beach and Chicago. Brett competed in numerous triathlons, marathons and ultramarathons including the Boston Marathon, Iron Man Louisville, Iron Man Wisconsin, and Iron Man St. Louis. He acquired chronic physiological complications during his time serving our country and chose to "embrace the suck", as he said, while he relearned to walk, run and swim. After moving to Nashville, he told almost no one of his accomplishments or condition. Instead, he worked to maintain his physical dexterity by bow hunting, hiking, and leading back country land navigation courses.

In recent years Brett returned to Ann Arbor, where he was a volunteer coach for the University of Michigan boxing team. He also volunteered at the Ark music venue and frequently visited his wooded property in Stockbridge, Michigan with close friends and family. He ultimately settled in Manistee Michigan, living in a home surrounded by both Lake Michigan and the National Forest. Brett demonstrated extreme selflessness and humility throughout his life. His fervor for challenge and teamwork served as a lamp to the feet of those he deeply loved, as well as strangers. He was adored by many and will be woefully missed. A service of remembrance will be held for Brett September 14, 2018 at 1:00 p.m. at Zion Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Visitation will be held from 11:001:00 the day of service. A military service will follow at Bethlehem Cemetery.

Brett is survived by his girlfriend Hannah Huddleston of Huntsville Alabama, Uncle William (Cathy) Burr of Columbus, Indiana, cousins Sarah Burr of Dallas, Texas, Matthew (Emily) Burr of Chelsea, Michigan, Eric (Sarah) Burr of New Bern, North Carolina, godmother Donna Maul of Palm Springs, California, sponsor Norman Weiner of Ann Arbor, Michigan, as well as multiple extended cousins in the Ted (Ruth) Aprill family of Ann Arbor.

Memorial contributions can be made to The Navy SEAL Foundation, Starr Commonwealth (Albion, Michigan), The Rocky Mountain Goat Alliance, or the Park County Sheriff's Office Search and Rescue Team of Park County, Montana.

Notes for Christine Marie Woods:

Born and raised north of Boston, Christine Marie Woods assumed she was in for a normal Saturday night out in the City with her friends in the Spring of 2015. Fresh off of a long twelve-hour shift at the hospital, she nearly cancelled at the last minute. Having only recently moved to the City, Bobby Aprill was still adjusting to life away from his home state of Michigan. After spending the previous two years in Tennessee, he naturally jumped at the opportunity to attend "country night" at a Boston Bar with some of his newly made friends. As both Christine and Bobby stood with their friends enjoying the live band, little did they know they were standing less than 10 feet from each other. The exact details are debatable, but something drew the two together and they eventually found themselves deep in conversation about their favorite music, excitement for the upcoming warm weather, and (Christine's) love of running. Nearly a month later the two went on their first date. In a small candlelit speakeasy in Somerville, the two spent hours talking about life, their dreams, families, and everything in-between. Both felt during that very first date this was something special....and you know the rest!

He married Angela June Martone 07 Oct 1995 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 02 Jul 1970.

Notes for Jason Ronald Koch:

On April 23, 2015 - Jackson, Michigan - While a Jason Koch awaited his sentence for a first-degree criminal sexual conduct charge, a prosecutor told the judge there is no number of years that can remedy the damage caused by the his actions. "We already know that whatever you do isn't going to rehabilitate him or fix him, if that weren't already painfully clear based on our own experience his comments make it crystal clear," Jackson County Chief Assistant Prosecutor Kati Rezmierski said. "These kids are never going to be any better. There isn't a magic number of years that you can give him that will make (the victims) any better." Rezmierski's statements were made in response to Jason Koch's claim that, outside of the events the charge stems from, he "had never done anything like this before."

Koch was originally charged with three counts of first-degree criminal sexual conduct and three counts of second-degree criminal sexual conduct for sexual assaults against three girls under the age of 13 over several years, according to court testimony. Chief Circuit Judge Thomas Wilson sentenced Koch to 25 to 50 years for the crimes on April 23. During her allocution, Rezmierski said the prosecutor's office was forced to offer Koch a plea deal after the victims were coached by individuals close to the case. In exchange for a guilty plea of first-degree criminal sexual conduct, which Koch entered on March 20, the remaining charges against him were dropped. Wilson said the only "good thing" that he could say about the case was that the victims were spared the pain of testifying during a trial.

Koch's attorney, Brent Leder, told the judge Koch suffers from "significant alcohol problems" but added that he and his client realize there is no excuse for his behavior. Leder also said Koch has shown "genuine" remorse since his arrest and has been cooperative with investigators. Koch apologized for his actions and told the judge "it was all because of alcohol" a claim Wilson said he did not believe. Koch was credited 142 days for time served.

Helber made the announcement at the close of her review of the last six years in the district as a "highlight" of her career in education. She said she has served in education since 1988 when she was hired as an assistant teacher at High Point School, a public school in Ann Arbor run by the Washtenaw Intermediate School District for students with different abilities. Since that first position, she's been an elementary teacher, curriculum coordinator, middle school and high school administrator, and superintendent of three school districts in Washtenaw County. "I've met and worked with the most amazing staff," said Helber. She thanked the board for hiring her in 2016 as the first female superintendent in the district, and for their support. "I'm proud of what we've been able to do," she said, referencing the district's advancements during her tenure. Helber went on to thank the district's administrators, teachers, staff, and community for their "tireless efforts on behalf of our Chelsea students.

"The last few years have not been easy and you've all shown grit and resiliency throughout and I'm so thankful to you," she said. She then announced her intention to retire with the commitment to fulfill her responsibilities to the best of her ability. "To end my career as a Bulldog is a privilege," she said. "I will always hold Team Chelsea in my heart. Thank you so much." Helber's retirement announcement followed her sad news that her father-in-law, Paul Helber, had passed away on May 21. She spoke lovingly of him as a wonderful father and man, who lived a life of service in education and was "legendary" in athletics, leaving a legacy of influence on thousands of children. Helber received a lengthy round of applause from the audience and board members present at the meeting.

Board President Jason Eyster thanked Helber for her initiative and innovation during her leadership. The board voted six to zero to accept her retirement; trustee Shawn Quilter was absent.
Board Secretary Laura Bush motioned for approval of Michigan Leadership Institute (MLI) to represent the district in conducting a superintendent search. "We're sorry to see you go," she said to Helber. "I know we can find somebody to replace you, but it won't be easy. It's been great working with you for the last six years." MLI will conduct a search throughout the country, and will assist the board with training on selecting and interviewing candidates. Interview dates will be posted and the community will be invited to attend.

Dear Chelsea Staff, Students, Parents and Community - The last six years have been a highlight of my career. When I came to Chelsea in 2016 my husband and I were new to the area and I became a new superintendent. I was honored to be chosen as the first female superintendent to lead the Chelsea School District. After a career in education that spans over thirty years I announced my retirement from the Chelsea School District, effective August 1, 2022 at the Board of Education meeting this evening.

When I began my tenure in the district, I was welcomed by the board of education, students, staff and families to this wonderful community. I would like to thank all of the Board of Education members who have served during my time as Superintendent of the Chelsea School District. Your unwavering dedication to the families and staff has been admirable and I am so thankful to have had your support.

I would also like to thank our staff across the district. It has been an honor and privilege working alongside you and I will truly miss you as I move on to future endeavors. I thank our students; I have been so fortunate to be involved in the lives of so many young people over the course of my career and I have so many fond memories that I will carry with me throughout the next phase in my life. To the families and community members; thank you for embracing me as your superintendent, for welcoming me to Chelsea, and for your friendship. We have no plans to move from the area, and I hope to continue to see you around town.

I am proud of all that we have been able to accomplish over the past six years. This would have never been possible without the support of the Board of Education, our top-notch staff, outstanding building and district leaders, our students and families and our community. I truly believe we have the best of the best and look forward to watching the district continue to grow and flourish. I am dedicated to finishing out these last few months to the best of my abilities and supporting the district through this transition.

My husband and I are ready for the next phase in our lives and to celebrate my retirement after a career spent in education throughout Washtenaw County. Thank you for the opportunity to serve. I am so grateful that my educational journey led to the Chelsea School District prior to retirement. Team Chelsea will forever be in my heart.

Sincerely, Julie D. Helber, Ed.D, Superintendent of the Chelsea School District

2811 vi. Ryan Matthew Estrada, born 14 Jan 2000 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 09 Dec 2016 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Ryan Matthew Estrada:
Jan 12, 2017 Saline, Michigan - Few would suspect a three-sport varsity athlete to have underlying health concerns, so it came as a shock to Ryan Estrada's friends and family when the Saline High School junior was found unresponsive at wrestling practice on Dec. 9, 2016. Estrada, 16, was in the locker room waiting to weigh in before wrestling practice, his mother Kim Estrada later found out. Having gone right from football season to wrestling, Ryan Estrada was trying to drop 15 pounds to make his weight class. He lay down on the bench in the locker room to wait for his turn on the scale, but when his turn came his friends couldn't rouse him, Kim said.

"Fellow teammates quickly contacted staff who began treatment. EMS arrived at the scene and continued to provide support for Ryan," Saline Area Schools Superintendent Scot Graden wrote in a letter to Saline families after the incident. Ryan was transported to the University of Michigan Hospital, and he died the next day, Dec. 10, 2016. It turned out he had an enlarged heart that resulted in sudden cardiac death, Kim said. The Mayo Clinic says having an enlarged heart is the most common cause of heart-related sudden death in people under 30, and it's the most common cause of sudden death for athletes - although it's still rare overall for young people to die of sudden cardiac arrest.

Pittsfield Township Police Deputy Police Chief Gordy Schick previously told The Ann Arbor News the department would forego an investigation because the circumstances of Ryan's death were not deemed suspicious. "It's something you just don't know, unless you know what signs you're really looking for," said Kim Estrada, who has been married to Ryan's father, Henry Estrada Sr., for 22 years. "He had a headache earlier in the week - that's one sign. He went from football right into wrestling, so he said his upper body was a little sore. But he had that every year - that would be another sign." Henry Estrada Sr. said Ryan had been laughing and joking like he always did the night before his collapse at school, with no indication anything was wrong.

"The morning of it was the usual drag him out of bed," Kim said with a laugh, seated beside Henry Sr. in their Saline home on Tuesday, Jan. 10. "We said, 'Good-bye, love you and have a good day. I'll see you tonight.'" In the void left by the sudden loss of their youngest child, Kim and Henry leaned on their other children - Henry Estrada Jr. and his wife Jessica Clarke-Estrada, Carolyn Estrada and Amanda Estrada - plus their grandchildren - Jonathan, Manuel, Jazlyn and Alexandra - to get through the holiday season. Ryan also is survived by his grandfather Boyd Werner and many uncles, aunts and cousins.

The Saline community has been a great source of support since Ryan's death, Kim said. Parents of Ryan's football and wrestling teammates provide them with meals three times a week. Ryan's close friends accompanied him to the hospital that Friday in December, and many of his friends have stopped by the Estradas' house in the past few weeks to visit the family. "They're the same age as him. It just was comforting to have them here," Henry Sr. said. Ryan's teammates signed his No. 79 football jersey and gave it to Kim and Henry Sr. His friends also made a scrapbook for Ryan's parents with photos of Ryan and messages sharing their favorite memories with him. "Ryan was a great kid to be around. He was always positive and kind," said Saline head football coach Joe Palka. "He was well liked by students and appreciated by teammates. He had a great demeanor and a huge smile. He was always enjoyable to be with. He will be missed greatly by all of us."

Ryan's visitation and funeral were held at Saline High School auditorium on Dec. 17 to accommodate the large turnout. University of Michigan football coach Jim Harbaugh sent an autographed football helmet and handwritten card with his condolences to the service.

A GoFundMe account set up to help the family with funeral expenses has raised more than $24,000 to date, exceeding the $15,000 goal set for the campaign. Money leftover after covering the cost of the funeral will go to the Ryan Estrada Saline HS Football and Wrestling Camp Fund his family established. Wrestling teams from other schools also sent cards to the family or made donations to the scholarship fund, Kim said. "I wish I could thank everybody," she said. "I wish I could individually thank everybody, but I'm having a hard time. It's just been so overwhelming."

Ryan was a lifelong University of Michigan football fan, and he had hoped to become a Michigan Man one day. His grandfather is a season ticket holder, so he attended as many games as he could. When Ryan was old enough, he attended summer football camps at U-M. His bedroom walls are covered in U-M memorabilia. Ryan began playing football in middle school, started throwing shot put on the track and field team in eighth grade and picked up wrestling in high school. "He spent most of his life in that gym," Henry Sr. said, recalling picking up Ryan from the high school at 10 p.m. some days after meets or games. "I never heard him complain about too much of anything. ... He was a heck of a good kid, and I'm not just saying that because he was mine. He was just a very quiet, funny kid."

While the 6-foot, 300-pound teenager certainly was a physical presence, Ryan's friends and family remember him most for his sense of humor. He loved comedian Gabriel Iglesias, who has a bit about being "fluffy," not fat. Ryan's friends nicknamed him "Fluffy," and he would wear Hawaiian shirts in imitation of Iglesias' signature style, Kim said. "He was always making people laugh," she said. "Even if it was the stupidest thing, he could make you laugh."

Ryan liked to dance, especially to Michael Jackson and other "oldies" music, his sister Carolyn Estrada said. Kim treasures memories of their family's summer trips to Alanson, Michigan, and making peanut brittle with Ryan at Christmas time.

Saturday, Jan. 14, would have been Ryan's 17th birthday. The family plans to go out for dinner - possibly at Olive Garden, Ryan's usual pick for his birthday - to mark the occasion. The wrestling team planned to pay tribute to Ryan at their first home meet of the season on Wednesday, Jan. 11. They named him an honorary captain this year, and some of the wrestlers carry a bag of Ryan's gear with them to the mat at the start of their dual meets, said Coach Scott Marvin. "He brought to the team a zest for life. He was always very happy. I can say I never really saw him too down," Marvin said. "All the kids enjoyed being around him."

Ryan had a good understanding of his abilities as an athlete, Marvin said, and he was willing to work hard to improve. He recalled their wrestling camp this past summer, when Ryan ran 29 miles over the course of four days even though running typically was a struggle for him. Marvin said Saline High School is planning to rename its annual wrestling tournament this month the "Ryan Estrada Memorial Tournament," and half of the admission sales from the tournament each year will be donated to sports camp scholarship fund in Ryan's name.

Ryan M. Estrada, Saline, Michigan. It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Ryan Matthew Estrada. Ryan was taken from us much too soon at the age of 16 on Saturday, December 10th, 2016 at the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor, MI. He was a life-long resident of Saline, Michigan and a proud Hornet. Ryan was born on January 14th, 2000 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He is survived by his loving parents, Kim Werner-Estrada and Henry Sr. Estrada; his siblings, Henry Jr. Estrada, Carolyn Estrada, Amanda Estrada and Jessica Clarke-Estrada; his grandfather, Boyd Werner; his nephews and nieces, Jonathan, Manuel, Jazlyn and Alexandra. Ryan was also loved by many uncles, aunts and several cousins, as well as his dear pets, Osito, Chiquito, and Snickers. He is predeceased by his grandparents, Asension and Virginia Estrada and Carol Ann Werner.

Ryan was a junior at Saline High School and he participated in a variety of sports. He played on the varsity football team, the varsity wrestling team and threw shot put for the track team. Ryan's love for the University of Michigan football program was apparent to anyone who knew him. One of his favorite things to do was watch the football games with his family. On weekends you could find Ryan tossing a football with his brother or spending time with his friends at Fifth Corner.

We will be celebrating Ryan's life on Saturday, December 17th, 2016. Funeral arrangements entrusted to the Robison-Bahnmiller Funeral Home in Saline, MI. Visitation will take place Saturday morning from 9 AM to 11:30 AM in the Saline High School Auditorium, 1300 Campus Pkwy. Saline, Michigan 48176. A funeral service will follow the visitation and will take place at 12 PM. A private burial will follow in Oakwood Cemetery in Saline. In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made in Ryan's name to the Ryan Estrada Saline HS Football and Wrestling Camp Fund. Donations can be mailed to 212 Clark St. Clinton, MI 49236 c/o Jessica Clark-Estrada. Ryan will always be remembered for his humor, kindness and huge smile.

Notes for Michelle Kay Elliott:
Michelle Hilliard, math teacher and assistant principal at Complete High School Maize, has been named a 2019 Kansas Master Teacher. She is one of seven educators statewide to receive the distinction. She was surprised at school on Monday with a phone call from Emporia State University sharing the news. Michelle also receives $1,000 via the Bank of America Charitable Foundation. She will be recognized on Master Teacher Day, April 3 at Emporia State University. In 1954, Emporia State began the annual Kansas Master Teacher awards, which recognize "the outstanding qualities of earnest and conscientious teachers."

Earlier this month, Michelle and a few of her students presented to the Maize Board of Education about Complete High School Maize's General Store, which students operate at Reflection Ridge Retirement Community near 21st Street and Tyler Road in Wichita. The experience builds relationships and teaches finance and marketing, among other subjects.Students of Maize USD 266's nationally recognized alternative high school explained about how they purchase and manage inventory for the store; take requests for inventory from Reflection Ridge Retirement Community residents; and track finances, including bank statements, deposits, and withdrawals, to balance the store's books.

Students build relationships with the residents by making them birthday cards and teaching them during a Technology Day event how to use computers and phones. The students work in the store during the summer and are learning what it's like to run a small business. Complete pays $1 a year to rent the space from Reflection Ridge. Michelle Hilliard leads the General Store project and uses it to teach her students. It is just one of many examples of how she uses heart and innovation in her teaching.

Michelle Hilliard, Mathematics Teacher, Complete High School Maize, USD 266 Maize. "Math is difficult to teach at any school. Math is REALLY difficult to teach at an alternative school where students are all working on individualized contracts," said Michelle Hilliard, who has taught at Complete High School Maize since 2007. As an alternative school, Hilliard says, there are stereotypes of the students who attend the school. However, Hilliard maintains, "There are 60 to 70 students who are there for 60 to 70 different reasons."

Hilliard earned a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Wichita State University in 1994, a master's in curriculum and instruction from Wichita State in 2003, and second master's in education, building leadership, from Kansas State University in 2016.

Hilliard began her career in 1994, teaching third grade at Maize Elementary School. In time, she moved to teaching middle school English. Then, she said, "When the alternative school called, I only briefly hesitated at the thought of going back to school [to get high school certification]. Few future teachers go to college with the goal of teaching at an alternative school."

When a local retirement community needed a general store, Hilliard and her students stepped forward. Students run the store, provide delivery to residents who have difficulty walking and tech support as well. "There is no way to measure the magic that happens when a pink-haired alternative school student with a nose ring and a white-haired senior citizen sit down for their monthly 'Cards and Conversations' date, where students and residents play cards and talk," Hilliard said. Her presence provides an impact to students and colleagues alike. Of the new teachers Hilliard has mentored, three have won Horizon Awards and one of those received the Milken Award. If a new teacher asks Hilliard how to connect with at-risk students, she answers, "No matter what, we never, never, never give up on them. Why? Because every now and then, probably more frequently than even we admit, a student will come back and say 'Thank you for never giving up on me. You were the only ones who never gave up on me.'"

Notes for Katelyn Joy (Katie) Daratony:
April 2, 2019 - A massive fire leveled a hay barn at a family-owned equestrian event and training farm in Dexter, Michigan on Saturday. Katie Trinkle, 27, and her sister Jenny Smith, 30, were both helping with preparations for a scheduled horse show between 4:30 p.m. and 5 p.m. at Cobblestone Farms, 6301 Gregory Road, when yells alerted them to the fire in a hay barn. By the time Trinkle made it from an arena to the barn, it was engulfed and threatening the nearby horse barn. "The horses were freaking out," she said. "They were spinning in there." Trinkle noted the situation was particularly difficult, because she couldn't show her panic to the horses. "It was a good thing people came in for the horse show because we had so much help getting the horses out," she said.
Trinkle's father, Jim Daratony, who owns the farm with his wife Darlyn, initially attempted to fight the fire with a hose, but sprained his ankle and burned his arm while doing so, Jenny Smith said. Daratony was not immediately available to speak, but Dexter Area Fire Chief Robert Smith confirmed that two people were treated at the scene for minor injuries.
By the time Kim Trinkle, Katie Trinkle's mother-in-law, arrived after rushing over from her nearby home when she saw smoke, neighbors and those already at the farm were working as a "well-oiled machine" to remove all the horses and make sure all students at the scene were accounted for, she said. "The neighborhood stuck together," she said.
