Notes for Ottmar Michael Kaercher:
Obituary - Ann Arbor Newspaper:

Ottmar M. Kaercher, 66 a lifelong resident of Washtenaw county, died yesterday afternoon April 30, 1954 at his home, 2509 W. Liberty Road, Scio Township, after a long illness. Born in Lima Township, July 10, 1887, he was the son of J. Michael and Wilhelmina Walker Kaercher. He was a farmer there for many years until illness forced his retirement. Mr. Kaercher had lived at his present home for the past 27 years. He was a member of Salem Lutheran Church in Scio Township.

He was married to Melita Waltz of Lodi Township, March 2, 1916. She survives, along with two brothers, Reuben of Ann Arbor and Edwin of Lima township; and five sisters, Mrs. Edward Gross of Saline, Mrs. Emanuel Lambarth of Lodi Township, Mrs. Carl Gelenius of Ann Arbor, Mrs. William Luick of Lima township, and Mrs. Clarence Bahnmiller of Chelsea. Another sister, Mrs. Robert Toney, died in 1946.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday in the Muehlig Chapel. Burial will be in Bethlehem Cemetery. Friends may call at the chapel.

The original owners of Lot 1, West Liberty Heights - 2509 West Liberty Street; Ann Arbor, Michigan were Ottmar Michael and Melita Maria Kaercher (Waltz). Prior to moving here in 1927, they lived at 529 Fifth Street. Mrs. Esther Kaercher now lives at 744 S. Maple Rd. She is the wife of Homer Kaercher, Ottmar Kaercher's nephew. I have also spoken to Glen Steinman, son of Ben and Eleanor Steinman, William Luitje, the second owner of the home, Barbara (Kaercher) Mesnard, Ottmar's niece, Paul C. McCoy, and Ruth and Paul Jedele, who lived at 770 S. Maple Rd.

I learned from these sources that Melita Kaercher kept her house in an immaculate condition. She was a hard worker. Dorothy Kaercher Mason (whose father, Edwin Kaercher, was Ottmar's brother) said that Uncle Ottmar was a very intelligent, gentle and always good-humored and cheerful person. The Kaercher family came here from the town of Leinfelden, south of Stuttgart--the Black Forest area of Germany. They called themselves "Schvatzes" meaning "from the Black Forest." They worshipped in Musberg at one of the first established Lutheran churches after Martin Luther. They brought their knowledge, ways, values and energy to Ann Arbor where many others from their area had settled. In Michigan, the families were all members of Salem Lutheran Church on Scio Church Road, west of Ann Arbor. The church was built by those early settlers as an almost exact replica of the church they left in Musberg, Germany.

The Kaercher family acquired a farm 9430 Scio Church Road in 1836. The farm was passed down to relatives over the years and remained in the family for 165 years. It was designated as a Centennial Farm in 1946. Information about the site can be found on the Washtenaw County Historic Resource Database by searching for 9110 Scio Church Road. It was a sheep farm for a number of years then a "general" farm.

Mrs. Mason said that Ottmar used a wheel chair when he lived here and that there was a ramp on the front steps. She said that Ottmar and Melita took in several male roomers, and Melita did laundry for them as well as other families to earn money. She was sweet and quiet and loyal to her husband. Dorothy Mason remembers stopping at Ottmar and Melita's house on their way home from monthly shopping trips to Ann Arbor. "Melita had her ironing board set up in the kitchen and I could smell the fresh, clean smell of the laundry," she said.

Mrs. Mason also shared that Otto Buss, a cousin who lived at 2281 West Liberty, took Ottmar out for rides; and sometimes her father, Edwin Kaercher, transferred Ottmar into the front seat of the car when they regularly drove to Monroe, Michigan, where they filled aluminum tubs with iced-down fresh fish. They removed the back seats of the car to make room for the tubs of fish. When they returned to the area, they made the rounds of customers who purchased the fresh fish, leaving a small profit for Ottmar. It was as much an outing as a business venture. Those were great days for Ottmar.

I would love to know who built my house. One guess is that Otto Toney (Thone), the brother of Ottmar's brother-in-law, Robert Toney (Thone), may have built it. He is listed as a builder in the 1926 City Directory; and since he was a relative, I thought that perhaps he was the builder. Another possibility is that George Scott's son, Walter F. Scott, was the contractor and his father, George, provided the design. In April, 2008, I saw an advertisement for the sale of 417 Soule Boulevard, which said it was, "designed by renowned A2 architect George Scott in the late 1920's." I became curious because Ottmar Kaercher's brother, Reuben Kaercher, was the original owner of 417 Soule Boulevard. The sellers, Barbara and Norman Yoffee, allowed me to see the inside. Mrs. Yoffee told me that they had lived there for 15 years, and that she had researched the history of the house. She had the original blueprints. Here are some reasons why I thought the Scotts may have built my house.

One way the Kaerchers may have met Walter Scott is that he lived across the street from Ben Steinman. Perhaps Mr. Steinman introduced him to the Kaerchers. Another possibility is that the Kaerchers and the Scotts met because George Heinrich Kaercher (who shared a great-grandfather with Ottmar and Reuben) and his wife Tesa M. (Kern) lived in the Cutting Apartments (aka Flats) at 706 Monroe. George Kaercher is listed as being the janitor there in the 1926 and 1927 City Directories. George Scott designed the Cutting Flats in 1904.

These are just guesses. I keep hoping I will find my house's blueprints hidden away somewhere. You never know. While I was cleaning my basement last winter (2008) I found Ottmar Kaercher's name on a board in the cellar entrance. Neither Scio Township, nor the City of Ann Arbor has a record of who built the house. I thought that perhaps the house was a Sears Catalog kit home because it resembles the Sears Westly from the Sears Honor Built Homes 1925 catalog. There is an authentic Sears Westly at 602 Soule Boulevard, which the owner, Dina Cocco, was kind enough to let me tour. Similarities include the floorplan, the columns on the front porch, the windowed closets, and the mirrored closet in the living room. There are a number of differences as well. My house measures 26 x 30 feet, and the Westly 24 x 30 feet. Also, I have been unable to find any numbers on the wood in my house. So, my home's origin remains a mystery; but whoever built it was truly a craftsperson.

Ottmar and Melita Kaercher purchased Lot 1 from Benjamin Steinman on February 6, 1926. Ottmar passed away on April 30, 1954, at age 66. His obituary says that he was a farmer for many years until illness forced his retirement. He is listed in the 1928 City Directory as a salesman. Melita lived here until she moved to the Martin Luther Home in South Lyon, where she passed on September 13, 1975, at age 83. The Kaercher's had no children.

The Kaercher's deed came with restrictions, some of which, thankfully, would not be legal today:
(1) Said lots shall be occupied by people of the Caucasian Race only. (2) No building for residence purpose shall be erected on said lots, the cost of which is less than $4,000.00. (3) No house shall be erected nearer than thirty (30) feet from front property line and four (4) feet from side line, and garages not attached to house must be placed 50 feet back from front line and four (4) feet from side line. On corner lots garages must be back at least thirty (30) feet from street property line. (4) No garage shall be used as a residence longer than three (3) years. (5) No frame building shall be erected and stand more than ninety (90) days without having been painted or stuccoed. (6) No outside toilets shall be permitted on said lots. All toilets shall be of the approved chemical kind or shall be properly connected with septic tank. (7) No chickens shall be permitted to run free on said lots. They must have a clean coop with park to run in.

William and Lydia Luitje were the second owners of my house. They purchased it for $29,500 on June 1, 1973, and lived here for 13 years. Mr. Luitje said that the house was in mint condition when they purchased it.--like a time capsule, something from the 20's or 30's. They bought the house with all of its furniture. He said, When you buy the contents of a house, amazing to what extent there are problems and a solution for it. The apple tree is a Baldwin apple tree, good for cooking, bears once every other year. One of the problems - in years when it bears, it drops a lot of apples. I found a rake here that had tines on one side and loops on the other side and used that to pick up the apples.

He was right about the falling apples--there were LOTS of them. The Luitjes added insulation to the attic and remodeled the upstairs bathroom in the 70's. (The dark brown sink and tub are still here; the matching toilet had to be replaced when I moved in.) Mr. Luitje told me that rain water used to be funneled into the cistern on the west side of the house and used for washing. When I moved in, the kitchen sink had an extra spout for this water that was no longer functional. Mr. Luitje spoke as if he had fond memories of this house. He told me that his children still missed the house because of the stairs. When they were small, they would get ready for bed--had pajamas with feet in them--and they would slide down the stairs on their stomachs. I had the pleasure of meeting them (all grown up) a few years ago just after Thanksgiving.

Mr. Luitje told me that there had been a chicken coop on the rear of the garage, and there are still what look like chicken prints in the concrete there.

On October 17, 1986, the Luitjes sold 2509 W. Liberty to the City of Ann Arbor for $59,500 "when real estate was difficult to sell. The City wanted to widen one street or the other. The appraisal for the amount of land they wanted was so high, they might as well have bought the house too." The Luitjes had two children and "wanted to move where it would be better for them."

The City needed 12.42 feet along W. Liberty and three feet along S. Maple for road improvements. The City owned the house for 18 months until they sold it to Shelley Steele for $62,500 on April 19, 1988.

Notes for Emanuel (Samuel) Lambarth:

Emanuel Lambarth, 81, Lodi Township farmer and lifelong resident of the area, died Tuesday, May 29, 1962, at Saline Community hospital, after a long illness. He had resided at 7069 Waterworks Rd. He was born September 11, 1880, in Lodi Township, the son of Christian and Anna Klais Lambarth. On January 20, 1915, he married Lydia Kaercher, in Lima Township. She survives.

Also surviving are a son, Robert E. Lambarth, and two grandchildren, Mary Jane and Lee, all of Lodi Township; four brothers, Charles and Robert of Lodi Township, and Samuel and Reuben, of Saline; two sisters, Mrs. Amelia Hutzel and Mrs. Fred (Lydia) Wiedman, of Ann Arbor; and several nieces, nephews, and cousins. Three sisters and six brothers preceded him in death. He was a member of St. John Lutheran Church, of Bridgewater, and of Washtenaw county Farm Bureau. Funeral services were held Friday, June 1, at St. John's Church, the Rev. A. F. G. Daechsel officiating. Burial was in Bethlehem Cemetery, Ann Arbor.

This community was shocked by a terrible tragedy which occurred in the dense fog Friday morning when a Navy plane from the Grosse Ile base crashed Friday Sept. 11, 1942 on the Emanuel Lambarth farm on Saline Waterworks Road. The plane crashed into the side of a low valley then bounced into the air and crashed 450 feet away striking the lower limb of a tree as it dived earthward. Chief of Police Bert Gillen was summoned and state police and sheriff's deputies arrived and kept watch until Navy officials arrived.

The "buddy" of one of the men told how elated the flier was at the take-off as he had only one more hour of flying before becoming a full-fledged pilot. It is thought that because of the dense fog they did not know they were flying so close to the hill. Also the radio was still playing, further evidence they did not suspect danger. Mr. Lambarth's son, Robert, was helping with the chores. He heard the motor close overhead and the crash, then, the terrific noise as the plane bounced into the air and struck again. Then all was quiet. He could not; see because of the fog. Both men were killed and the bodies were brought to the Lockwood funeral home. Later one body was shipped to Chicago, the other to Brighton. The wrecked plane was scattered over three fields on the Lambarth farm. The community is deeply stirred by the tragedy as many Saline boys are in air service.

Notes for James Eugene Stephenson:

Former Ann Arbor Mayor James Stephenson died today after a long-term illness, said his son John Stephenson. He was 83. James Stephenson, a longtime patent attorney in Ann Arbor, was elected mayor in 1973 and served one term. John Stephenson said his father ran on a platform opposing an ordinance that made possession of marijuana a $5 civil infraction in the city of Ann Arbor. "He thought the $5 marijuana ordinance made Ann Arbor a laughingstock," John Stephenson said.

Born in Iowa in 1926, Stephenson grew up during the Depression and worked after-school jobs to raise tuition so he could go to engineering school at Iowa State University. He then paid for law school by working as an examiner at the U.S. Patent Office in Washington, D.C. He worked at law firms in Iowa and Michigan before starting a two-man practice in Ann Arbor in 1961. He retired in 2001.

Stephenson became active in the Republican Party in Ann Arbor in the 1960s. John Stephenson said his father was elected a 4th Ward City Council representative in 1968 and became the leader of Republicans on council. "He was always interested in improving the community around him," John Stephenson said. "He was a great guy. He was a great guy to my mom, to his kids, to his baseball team and to his friends. I don't know anybody who didn't treasure their relationship or their association with Jim Stephenson." Retired Ann Arbor attorney Ed Hood said James Stephenson was highly regarded in his field as a patent attorney and was a strong mayor. "He always met my definition of a true leader," said Hood, who called Stephenson his mentor. "He could take a group of people, and he made everybody better."

Stephenson was preceded in death by his first wife, Ruth Wood Stephenson, who died in 1970 from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, also known as Lou Gehrig's disease. Stephenson then helped raise millions for medical research to fight the disease, his son said.

He married Barbara King Stephenson in 1971 and she survives him. Sons John Stephenson of Muskegon and Daniel Stephenson of Los Angeles, California, also survive. His son David died in 1992 at age 30.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Monday at First Presbyterian Church, 1432 Washtenaw in Ann Arbor. A family reception will be held at the Ann Arbor City Club, 1830 Washtenaw Ave., following the service. Arrangements are by Generations Funeral and Cremation Services, Ann Arbor. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the ALS Association or Arbor Hospice.

Many clusters of garden flowers were used about the rooms. The bride's table with covers marked for sixteen was centered with a large decorated three-tiered bride's cake, surmounted with a miniature bride and groom under an archway holding a wedding bell. A low bowl of roses was placed at either end of the table and was flanked by tall ivory tapers, in three-branch silver holders. Each cover was marked by individual corsages. Mrs. McGuire is survived by her husband, John Thomas McGuire, whom she married Nov. 19, 1938. In 1940, she and her husband started the Guernsey Farm Dairy. They made their home in Northville and raised 14 children. Mrs. McGuire attended Marygrove College and graduated from the University of Detroit with a bachelor's degree in education. She was among the first class of women to graduate from the University of Detroit. Mrs. McGuire continued her education and received a teaching certificate from Wayne State University. Her memberships included Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church of Northville, Daughters of Isabel, OLV Mother's Club, Ladywood Mother's Club, St. Theresa Sorority. League of Catholic Women, Bishop Fulton Sheen's Spiritual Adoption Program, Focus Hope and Youth for Understanding.

She loved her family to the fullest and treasured each one as unique and individual. Her love was unconditional. Mrs. McGuire is also survived by her children, Tom (Florence) McGuire of Detroit, Pat (James) Lawson of Chevy Chase, Maryland, Jim (Helen) McGuire of Northville, Mary (Tom) Wicke of Northville, Peg Lulfs of Lakeworth, Florida, Hugh McGuire of Brighton, Joe (Ardie) McGuire of Northville, Mike (Donna) McGuire of South Lyon, Fran (John) Hardy of Prescott, Arizona, Lucy (Dave) McGuire-Ganci of Prescott, Arizona, Rita (Tom) Rice of South Lyon, Marty (Linda) McGuire of Novi, and Paul Gregory McGuire and Karen (Paul) Kinville, both of Northville; and 49 grandchildren and 42 great-grandchildren. Notes for John Thomas McGuire:

Co-owner Joe Kinville wants to make one thing perfectly clear about Guernsey Farms Dairy. His whole family — not just him — deserves credit for the success of everything, from the buttermilk and hot fudge sauce to the ice cream and newly renovated restaurant at the dairy. A dozen family members spanning three generations, including the direct owners, work in the business. “This morning, all five co-owners helped unload the truck,” he says, referring to himself, his mother, and three first cousins. Though none of them have official titles, Kinville generally handles sales, marketing, and publicity, and acts as the official spokesman. In that role, his first job is to clear up a common misconception about the dairy’s name.

“Everyone thinks our family name must be Guernsey, but it is the breed of cows my grandfather first used because their milk had high butterfat,” Kinville says of his mother’s father, John McGuire, who started the dairy in 1940 in Northville. Originally called the Red Rose Dairy and located a few miles from Guernsey’s current location, it was bought by McGuire, who promptly changed the name to honor his revenue source. Decades later, the name remains, but the Guernseys are gone. It turns out,they didn’t produce much milk. In fact, the dairy no longer has any cows. Instead, all of the dairy’s milk (2 million gallons a year) comes from Walnutdale Farms in Wayland, Michigan, a fourth-generation family-owned and -operated business. “They are awesome and totally focused on quality,” Kinville says. “Walnutdale is truly aligned with our brand. … Our brand is all about quality and connection.”

What began as a simple dairy — delivering milk locally to people’s doorsteps in glass bottles for two decades — is now a national operation. Guernsey’s milk, ice cream, and specialty products (toppings, lemonade, and a honey vanilla chai) are now sold in 750 to 800 restaurants, grocery stores, and various retail outlets across the country. “Six or seven years ago, you could not find our products outside of a 60-mile radius, and we had only five delivery vehicles,” Kinville says. “Now, we have 11 vehicles and are in 20 states.” The confectionery company Sanders now uses only Guernsey’s half-and-half (processed with no preservatives or stabilizers) to make its caramels, he says.

As of last year, the dairy also now has a full-service restaurant with a bar that resembles the original soda fountain shop where Kinville's grandfather once served milkshakes and ice cream scoops to Northville residents. In the 1970s, when the dairy stopped its home delivery service and moved to its current location in Novi, it added retail space for consumers. In 1985, it added a restaurant to accommodate the many construction workers building homes in the area requesting a hamburger to go with that milkshake. Now, in the newly renovated, 100-seat space, patrons can indulge in fried chicken made with Guernsey buttermilk batter, along with ice cream cocktails.Renovating the restaurant in 2020 was intended to be a celebration of Guernsey turning 80 years old. But then the COVID-19 pandemic hit, delaying the reopening to May 2020 and making a launch party impossible. Little else, however, affected the dairy during the pandemic. "Our regulations are all about stopping the spread of contamination, so we were in good shape to handle the pandemic," Kinville says, adding that the family did not need to furlough or let any staff go. "People always want milk and ice cream."

Perhaps Guernsey's resilience can best be traced to a tree and slate of rocks in front of its building. The oak tree is 200 years old, and the large rocks that customers lean against while licking ice cream were found during the building's construction. Kinville's grandfather, who died in 2011 at age 103, asked the workers to save the boulders. To this day, Kinville says, "the tree represents our strong roots, and the rocks our strong foundation."

John T. McGuire, age 103, of Northville, passed away peacefully in his home. October 7, 2011. Beloved husband of the late Elise "Pat". Cherished father of Tom (Florence), Pat (James) Lawson, Jim (Helen), Mary (Tom) Wicke, Peg Lulfs, Hugh, Joe (Ardie), Mike (Donna), Fran (John) Hardy, Lucy, Rita (Tom) Rice, Marty (Linda), Paul, and Karen (Paul) Kinville. Adored grandfather of 50, great-grandfather of 84, and great-great-grandfather of one. Dear brother of Julie (Cliff) Busha and brother-in-law of Annie. Total family members 200 and growing.

After retirement in 1982 from University of Michigan she was able to work at the University of Michigan Dermatology Clinic in Chelsea until she was 83 years old. She was an independent soul who persevered and overcame many challenges and difficulties in her life. She felt later in life one of her most important activities was prayer for others and she would often quote the scripture "pray without ceasing." Notes for Walter Daniel Wacker:

Lansing - Walter D. Wacker, well known in the hardware and automobile accessory trade in Lansing returned to his “First Love” Monday, March 14, 1921, when he assumed the store management of the Hawkes Tire & Rubber Co., 234 N. Washington Ave. This is not a new venture for Walter as previous to his becoming connected with the sales department of the Stahl Hardware Co.; he was a member of the firm of C. Wacker & Son, hardware and automobile accessory dealers, in North Lansing, where he received an early insight to the requirements of motorists. Before assuming his present duties, Mr. Wacker spent considerable time at the Brunswick Tire factory in Muskegon, in order to better familiarize himself with the product he was about to recommend to his many friends. His thorough investigation of Brunswick tires construction was perhaps more responsible than any other one thing in bringing Mr. Wacker with the Hawkes Tire & Rubber Co. After spending several days at the Brunswick factory and actually seeing the process of Brunswick tire construction, Mr. Wacker was convinced that he could recommend this product to all his friends as one of the most satisfactory tires on the market today. And true to the call of his "First Love" Walt is again at the service of all his friends and ready to render them whatever they require in the solution of their motor problems.

Lansing - Walter D. Wacker, 51, died Sunday afternoon April 13, 1941 at the residence, 907 Princeton Avenue. Mr. Wacker had been a resident of Lansing for 35 years, coming here from Chelsea, Michigan. He was a member of St. Paul's Evangelical church, having been the president of the church council for the past six years, and was also a member of Lansing Lodge No. 33, F. and A. M. Mr. Wacker and his brother, George, who died in March, 1941, were owners and managers of the Wacker Bros. Heating and Sheet Metal Works for the past nine years, and he had also been associated with Stahl's hardware store and Hawke's Auto Equipment company for number of years.

He is survived by the widow, Lena E. Wacker; a son, Dale W. and a daughter, Marilyn A.; and his father, Daniel C. Wacker, all of Lansing.

Notes for Alberta (Bertha) Roller:

April 1923 – “Some people say they should think I’d be glad I haven’t a baby to support,” murmured Mrs. Bertha Staebler, Friday afternoon, in the office of her attorney. “But, I guess those are the folks who’ve never had a little baby to live – and lose,” she added, tears gathering in her brown eyes Mrs. Stabler was granted an order for separate maintenance by Judge Ormond R. Hunt in circuit court, Friday morning.

The little son Mrs. Staebler has “lost” is Lamont R. Staebler, whose fifth birthday will be July 22, 1923. But, is mother has not seen him since January 29, 1920, when she returned at 1 o’clock in the afternoon from a shopping trip to find that her husband, Ray, his mother, Mrs. Delight R. Stabler, and 18-months-old Lamont, had all done away from their three rooms 234 West Warren Avenue.

Just a few days before this, Mrs. Delight Staebler had moved out, taking her furniture with her. That morning Staebler had given his wife $30 with which to buy all-verware, according to her story. He had said he was sick and wouldn’t go to work, but he had offered to take care of the baby while she went downtown. Returning, she found a note from him: “I have gone to mother. Will be back shortly. If you get home first, don’t worry – I’ll be back.”

April 14, 1923 - "Some people say they should think I'd be glad I haven't a baby to support," murmured Mrs. Bertha 5taebler, Friday afternoon, in the office of her attorney. “but I guess those are the folks who've never had a little baby to love and lose," she added, tears gathering in her brown eyes Mrs. Staebler was granted an order for separate maintenance by Judge Ormond F. Hunt in circuit court, Friday morning.

The little son Mrs. Staebler has “lost” is Lamont R. Stabler, whose fifth birthday will be July 22, 1923. But his mother has not seen him since January 29, 1920, when she returned at 1 o’clock in the afternoon from a shopping trip to find that her husband, Ray, his mother, Mrs. delight R. Staebler, and 19-months-old Lamont, had all gone away from their three rooms at 234 West Warren Avenue.

Just a few days before this, Mrs. delight Staebler had moved out, taking her furniture with her. That morning Staebler had given his wife $30 with which to buy all-verware, according to her story. He had said he was sick and wouldn’t go to work, but he had offered to take care of t he baby while she went downtown. Returning, she found a note from him: “I have gone to mother. Will be back shortly. If you get home first, don’t worry - I’ll be back.”

Mrs. Staebler has had no trace of the three since then. For sometime the police have had a warrant charging Staebler with abandonment. She has also employed private detectives, without hearing any word from the trio. In the meantime, Mrs. Staebler had supported herself by sewing. According to her story she and her husband were married October 21, 1915. Mrs. Delight Staebler came to live with them at once, though Mrs. Bertha Staebler claims that her mother-in-law had money of her own and was not dependent on her son. At the time he was working in an automobile factory for $6.80 a day. Mrs. Staebler says he insisted they must look out was obliged to do the cooking on a neighbor’s stove, take in sewing, and scrub the floors of their three-room apartment.

He husband began to buy unimproved property, out Jefferson Avenue and in the Fairfield sub-division. Mrs. Stabler says her mother-in-law found fault with everything, that she had never liked her son’s wife. Eventually, after Lamont was born. Mrs. Stabler claims her husband became jealous of the baby’s love for her, in preference to its father or grandmother. “Why wouldn't the baby love the person who cared for him all the time?" said Mrs. Staebler, Friday “I loved him to much. It was only for his sake that I stayed with Ray at all, after his mother had made trouble. Now my only hope is in finding my baby. But sometimes it seems as if I wouldn’t go on living without him. In issuing the court order, Judge Hunt decreed that Mrs. Staebler should be given custody of Lamont, if he is found, and that the two pieces of property at Windmill Pointe and in the Fairfield sub-division, should be deeded to her. Staebler had previously deeded this property to his mother, it was learned after his disappearance. Mrs. Staebler is now living with her mother, Mrs. Christine Roller, 8081 Manila Avenue.

361. Esther L.[9] Gross (Bertha Maria[8] Kaercher, Wilhelmina (Minnie)[7] Wacker, Johann Georg[6], Johann Georg[5], Johann Georg[4], Martin[3], Georg[2], Johann[1]) was born 19 Dec 1918 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 19 Nov 2013 in California. She married Dr. Alexander (Al) Hatoff 23 May 1942 in Traverse City, Grand Traverse Co, Michigan, son of Isadore Hatoff and Gertrude Feigelman. He was born 14 Feb 1916 in Brooklyn, Kings Co, New York, and died 05 May 2002 in Walnut Creek, Contra Costa Co, California.

Notes for Esther L. Gross:

Esther G. Hatoff (December 19, 1918–November 19, 2013) Longtime East Bay resident and Midwest transplant, Esther Gross Hatoff, passed away peacefully on November 19, 2013 with her children at her side. Born on a farm in a German-speaking community near Ann Arbor, Michigan, she moved with her family to nearby Saline in 1925. There, she excelled in school and graduated from the University of Michigan, Phi Beta Kappa. On completing her studies, she joined the psychology staff at the state hospital in Traverse City where she met her future husband, Alexander Hatoff, a visiting pediatrician in residence.

Their marriage in 1942 took Esther and Alexander to Richmond, California and the war effort at Kaiser Shipyards. There, Al served as Kaiser Hospital's first pediatrician. Ann Elizabeth was born in 1945, followed by David Edward and Brian William. During this period, many lifelong friendships were forged in Berkeley, Oakland, Piedmont, Walnut Creek, and Alameda, many of which continued to Esther's death just before her 95th birthday. After her children were in school, Esther attended CSU, Hayward (now East Bay) to earn a Master's degree in psychology. Thereafter, she would serve as a psychologist for Oakland Public Schools.

Passionate for the underdog, Esther supported equal rights for all and tolerance for individual beliefs-values she instilled in her offspring. Her life blended modernity and tradition. A person who savored reading The New Yorker, traveling the world, exploring ideas, and discussing a wide range of topics, she delighted in friends and family, serving meals they appreciated and entertaining with flair.

Esther found her greatest joy in time shared with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Daughter Ann (John Hammerman); son David (Julie Hatoff); son Brian (Linda Reynolds); grandchildren Megan, Alison, Jillian, Quinn; and five great-grandchildren will miss her deeply and strive to live her legacy. Esther was preceded in death by her parents, Edward and Bertha Gross, and her sister, Ruth Marion, and her husband, Alexander Hatoff.

The family suggests donations in Esther Hatoff's memory be made to the Salvation Army, St. Anthony's Foundation, or any organization providing for children.

Notes for Dr. Alexander (Al) Hatoff:

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Esther Hatoff and by their children Ann Rapp of Modesto, California, David Hatoff (Julie) of San Clemente, California and Brian Hatoff (Linda) of Alameda, California, as well as by four grandchildren - Megan, Alison, Jillian and Quinn. He is also survived by his sister Dorothy Jahre of Brooklyn, New York.

He grew up in Brooklyn, New York, graduated from Cornell University, and received a Master's degree in Public Health from the University of Michigan and his medical degree from the University of Rochester. His career in pediatrics spanned many years including private practice in Oakland, California, chief of pediatrics at Highland Hospital in Oakland, California, Director of Chapters for the American Academy of Pediatrics in Evanston, IL and medical consultant for the State of California. A private interment will be at Mountain View Cemetery with the family present.

Notes for Julie A. Swan:

September 1, 2006 - For the second time in less than a week, the MiraCosta College Academic Senate, which represents the school's faculty, anguished yesterday over the fate of a popular top administrator who was abruptly placed on paid leave. Julie Hatoff, vice president for instructional services since 1984, was told to clear out her desk by 5 p.m. Aug. 25, Senate members said. The members were unsure who ordered the move – the college's president or the college's attorneys.

Faculty member Tom Severance, in an impassioned half-hour speech yesterday, called Hatoff an icon at MiraCosta and the statewide community college system. At the beginning of the meeting, the president and vice president of the Senate announced their resignations. President Brent Pickett and Vice President Lynne Miller said their decisions were not in protest over Hatoff's departure, but were related because of the stress and time away from their families caused by the turmoil of the Hatoff situation.

Although no official reason has been given for Hatoff's ouster, many faculty and nonteaching staff members said it was the latest in an administrative housecleaning after a campus scandal last spring involving the unauthorized sale of thousands of palm trees on the Oceanside campus. Severance noted that AlleenTexeira, head of the horticulture department, also has been placed on leave, and Eileen Kraskouskas, the dean of vocational education and Texeira's boss, was asked to retire. Miller asked those in attendance yesterday to attend the college's governing board meeting at 4 p.m. today. She asked that at least five or six speakers sign up to address the board during a public-comment period. In addition, the Academic Senate has asked to present a report on its concerns at a board meeting at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday in Aztlan Rooms A and B on the Oceanside campus, 1 Barnard Drive.

Miller and Pickett said Hatoff's situation is in the hands of attorneys and there's little they can do, although a task force of Senate members will “investigate the investigation.” Kraskouskas, Hatoff and Texeira have hired lawyers and are not speaking to the media. Members of the audience yesterday said that now may be the time for MiraCosta, one of the few nonunionized community colleges, to consider forming a collective-bargaining unit. Others said there may come a time for a vote of no-confidence in the college's president, Victoria Muñoz Richart. Miller said that now is not the time.

The college issued no immediate announcement last week of Hatoff's leave. Upon request, public-relations director Bonnie Hall supplied a two-sentence statement: “Dr. Richart was informed this morning by college attorney, Daniel Shinoff, that the vice president of instructional services will be on leave until further notice. “Dr. Richart appointed Dick Robertson, vice president of student services, to also serve as interim vice president of instructional services.” Hall said yesterday that the letter from Shinoff did not give a reason for his announcement that Hatoff would be on leave. Neither Shinoff nor Richart returned calls for comment yesterday. During the leave, Hall said, Hatoff will receive her annual salary of $200,803.

Hatoff began her career at MiraCosta in 1971 as an English instructor. She was named vice president of instructional services in 1984. “She was the most beloved person,” retired instructor Larry Nugent said later. “She's given her whole life to MiraCosta and is really well-known throughout the state.” MiraCosta's governing board turned over the palm tree matter to the District Attorney's Office. Hall said yesterday that district attorney investigators have asked for further information from college officials, but she could not say what they requested.

MiraCosta College's Julie Hatoff - Came to MiraCosta in 1972. Taught English and humanities concentrating on literature of ethnic Americans, women's studies, and the intellectual history of the European inter-war period. Served two terms as Academic Senate President and department chair. Elected to the statewide Academic Senate and served as its secretary.

Founded with two colleagues from SFFCC and L.A. Valley the English Council of 2-Year Colleges (ECCTYC); cofounded the North County Higher Education Alliance with colleagues from CSU San Marcos and Palomar Community College.

Appointed Vice President, Instructional Services in 1984. Served as head of SDICCCA Chief Instructional Officers and member of statewide executive board before election in 1992 as President, California Chief Instructional Officers. Joined the Executive Committee of National Council of Instructional Administrators; elected its President in 2002. Represented NCIA on Workforce Development Commission.

August 21, 2007 - Oceanside - An ousted MiraCosta College administrator is suing the public college for $24 million, saying officials violated state labor laws when they fired her and accused her of failing to supervise workers and cooperate with an investigation into the illegal sale of palm trees. The administrator, Julie Hatoff, filed the suit in May, alleging breach of contract, negligence, extortion, harassment and labor law violations. The lawsuit names the college, former President Victoria Munoz Richart, all seven members of MiraCosta's governing board and former trustee Henry Holloway.

A scandal erupted at the college in December 2005 when a whistleblower alleged that officials in the horticulture department were raising and selling palm trees for personal profit. The ensuing 17-month probe led authorities to charge one school employee, AlleenTexeira, with a single count of theft. A handful of other employees, including Hatoff, were disciplined or resigned.

A copy of the suit obtained by the North County Times last week shows Hatoff is seeking $14 million in general and special damages, as well as punitive damages of $5 million from Richart, and $1 million each from the board members who supported Richart - board president Charles Adams and trustees Carolyn Batiste, Rudy Fernandez, Gregory Post and Holloway. Hatoff's attorney, Tracy Warren, said Monday that her client would not comment on the lawsuit.

Jim Downs, a spokesman for Taxpayers Saving MiraCosta -- a group that has backed Richart and the board majority - said the lawsuit is a waste of money and has little or no chance of prevailing. Jonathan Cole, president of the Academic Senate and a supporter of Hatoff, said he was not comfortable offering opinions about the monetary details of Hatoff's suit.

A 36-year employee of MiraCosta College, Hatoff oversaw all educational programs as the top instructional administrator. She was one of several employees investigated by the college's private attorney during the palm-tree probe. Hatoff was cleared of any criminal wrongdoing in the internal college inquiry; a separate investigation by the San Diego County district attorney's office also found no evidence of illegal activity by Hatoff.

College officials, however, accused Hatoff of failing to properly supervise employees and refusing to cooperate in the investigation. She was placed on administrative leave as vice president of instruction in August 2006 and dismissed from the post in June 2007. Hatoff drew pay for her $200,000 cabinet-level job throughout her leave. She is still on the college payroll as a tenured professor of English on leave, college officials said.

In her 39-page lawsuit, Hatoff claims that Richart had "no credible evidence that Hatoff played any part in the palm tree incident, yet for over one-year Richart led an entire college community to believe otherwise." Richart abused her position to "satisfy her own personal agenda, which included forcibly and inexplicably ousting" Hatoff due to personal friction between the two women that arose after Richart took the reins of MiraCosta in summer 2004, the suit states.

The five trustees who are being sued for more than $1 million each are part of a board majority that supported Richart throughout her tenure at the college. In her suit, Hatoff said the trustees "blindly obeyed the self-serving mandates" of Richart, who negotiated a $1.5 million buyout of her contract in late June. In regard to Hatoff's lawsuit, several legal maneuvers are in the works, including a motion by Hatoff attorney Tracy Warren to disqualify the law firm representing MiraCosta College. The motion to bar the firm, Stutz, Artiano, Shinoff and Holtz, is scheduled to be heard Friday.

Adams, the board president, on Monday offered his full support for the work of Stutz, Artiano, Shinoff and Holtz, saying the firm has served the district well. On Aug. 31, a hearing is also set on a motion by college attorneys to dismiss Hatoff's case. On the same day, the attorney representing Richart will ask the court to dismiss the case against his client as a nuisance suit.

March 10, 2016 - The San Ysidro School District sued attorney Dan Shinoff and his firm for malpractice. The suit settled without any admission of wrongdoing. The district also filed a complaint against Shinoff with the State Bar of California. Fallout from a palm tree scandal at MiraCosta College led to the departure of several administrators and lawsuits.

Palm Gate - Before there were solar panels in South County, there were palm trees in North County. In 2006, a MiraCosta College employee complained that colleagues were using college resources to grow privately owned palm trees on the Oceanside campus and planned to sell them for personal gain. The college ordered up an investigation through Shinoff's firm.

Shinoff turned to Bob Price, a private investigator who heads the San Diego company ESI International Inc. and whose credentials include 10 years working for the FBI. All told, Price's 18-month probe and all the fallout from it cost $6.8 million. A district attorney's office investigation resulted in one criminal conviction for a $305 water theft by a college employee.

Some of the concerns about the illicit palm trees turned out to be baseless. The palms were donated to the college years earlier, it turns out, but weren't properly documented. But the ordeal turned the college upside down for several years and led to the departure of top administrators via deals negotiated by Shinoff, and lawsuits by employees, fought by Shinoff.

Among those who sued and settled was the school's vice president of instruction, Julie Hatoff, who was accused by the college of knowing about the theft and doing nothing – something county prosecutors reportedly found no evidence of. Hatofftried to get Shinoff removed as counsel for MiraCosta, alleging he and Price failed to make it clear she could be targeted and made false promises of attorney-client privilege. Hatoff also lodged a complaint with the State Bar. The outcome of that complaint is unknown, but Shinoff bears no public record of discipline on the State Bar website. Hatoff, who declined to comment for this story, eventually settled with the college in 2007 for $542,000.

Three college trustees obtained their own legal counsel separate from Shinoff amid the turmoil. One said in a declaration they "all sought and received independent counsel precisely because we did not believe that Shinoff was acting in the best interests of the College," but rather in the interests of the college president, Victoria Munoz Richart. Richart, with Shinoff's help, negotiated an exit from the college in June 2007, just three years after arriving. And it cut her expected term short years before her contract was supposed to end.

She walked away with a new deal worth $1.6 million. But that wasn't the end of it. In 2009, a taxpayer challenged the settlement in court and proved it exceeded the 18-month contract payout limit in state law. Richart, who did not comment for this story, began repaying the money in small increments, but with her deal overturned, her claims of a hostile work environment were revived. She sued the college in 2011, saying she was wrongfully terminated.

That same year, MiraCosta cut ties with Shinoff's firm. Richart's case was finallysettled last April. College officials today say MiraCosta has come a long way from those dark days. Charlie Ng, MiraCosta's vice president of business since 2013, said as for the 18-month payout limit, "We are aware of that now when we enter into settlements, and we expect our attorneys to know that."

"I think that as districts spend time with an attorney and see more and more results like that, it is certainly in their best interests to make another choice," Ng said. "There are some that are better than others, but I don't know that any attorney has even been perfect." "I suspect the reason Shinoff is not with us is we wanted to go another direction. The direction we headed in is with the expectation that these kinds of things could be avoided," Ng said. "Being sensitive to settlements, that's the lesson. And paying attention to our attorneys."

Lot 3, West Liberty Heights - 744 South Maple Road; Ann Arbor, Michigan:
Benjamin and Eleanor Steinman sold this lot to Enoch Dieterle for $500 on February 1, 1926. The next record of sale I found at the Washtenaw County Registrar of Deeds was a transfer on May 31, 1946, from Clifford D. Davis to Homer and Esther Kaercher. The Kaerchers had the house built (by Kurt Lange), and the City Directory shows them living there in 1949. The Kaerchers moved to S. Maple to be close to Mr. Kaercher's aunt and uncle, Ottmar and Melita Kaercher, who were living on Lot 1 (2509 W.

Liberty). They lived at 744 S. Maple for about 30 years until they moved to Freedom Township.

The Kaerchers sold their house to A. William Klinke II and his wife Bethany L. Klinke on August 21, 1981, for $33,000. After five years, the Klinkes sold the house to Mark A. Notes for Robert Emanuel Lambarth:

Ann Arbor, Michigan - Two men were killed this morning Sept. 11, 1942 when a plane from the Grosse Ile naval base at Detroit crashed on the farm of Emanuel Lambarth, five miles west of Saline, this morning. (Authorities at the naval base declined to make public the names of the occupants of the plane pending complete identification.) Robert Lambarth, son of the farmer, was feeding the chickens when he heard the roar of the motor flying low. He said the pilot apparently cut off the motors just before the crash into a plowed field. The plane dug into the ground and then bounced, finally crashing into a tree about 450 feet from where it originally hit the ground. Both bodies one clad m a flying suit and one in overalls were found m the central part of the plane wreckage. The accident occurred about 9:15 a. m. (E. W. T.) Young Lambarth said he had been hearing the plane for several minutes before it came in from the south and shut off its motor. "I heard it gliding," he said. "It sounded just like the wind. Then suddenly there was a noise that sounded, just like dynamite under a stump a dull boom." "The ground where it hit was light colored, and the pilot probably didn't see a slight mound where he hit.

Notes for Robert John Kaercher:

Dexter, Michigan - Robert Kaercher, passed away peacefully June 29, 2018, in the arms of God; off to rejoin with his beloved wife Donna May. Robert's dear Donna, passed away in 2014, just prior to Robert and Donna celebrating 60 years of marriage. Robert was born March 12, 1922 in Ann Arbor to Anna Barbara Armbruster Kaercher and Edwin Carl Kaercher.

Robert is survived by this three children; Mary Anne (Eric) Jaeger, Jim (Jeanie) Kaercher, and Bruce (Willine) Kaercher. Robert dearly loved his grandchildren; Melissa (Mike) Schmidt, Kristina (Spencer) McFarland, Maggie and Patrick Kaercher, Robert, Alexandra, Christopher (Megan), and Jason Kaercher and Isaiah Thompson. Robert was blessed to meet his new great-granddaughter, Ella May Schmidt, after her birth this past November. Robert is also survived by his sisters; Alice Gardner and Barbara Mesnard, brother-in-law, David (Marge) Cornish.

His sister Dorothy Mason preceded him in death. Many more family members including cousins, nieces, and nephews were also proud to call Robert their own; to include his beloved nephews David Mason (who deemed Robert his second dad) and Robert's predeceased nephew Micky Mesnard. Robert grew up on Scio Church Rd., Ann Arbor, on the family centennial farm. While his education began in the one room German school house near his home, he was quite pleased when his daughter later taught at another one of his past schools, Mack School, Ann Arbor. He only knew hard work; farming his 120 acre farm in the evening, after putting in a long day for the Detroit Edison, where he advanced up to Leader of the Hot Stick Crew. One of his last assignments prior to his retirement, was setting the electrical service for the new St. Joseph Hospital, we know today. He was also assigned to climb the highest electric poles in Canada, as he was known for his ability to push beyond normal limits and barriers.

His focused strong will led him to become a full time entrepreneur from 1975 to today. This began however, in 1967 when he dug his first farm pond; leading to the opening of his future fish farm; Spring Valley Trout Farm in 1970. Year after year, he dug another pond and filled it with trout, catfish or sunfish. Robert could finally share his love of fishing with others! School buses from far and wide would spend a wonderful field trip; many children experiencing fishing for the first time, on Robert's fish farm. Strong memories and bonds were created between and among his diverse customers; who often became lifelong friends. But, when the weather cooled down, off he and Donna would roll, heading south to their little Florida house on North Hutchinson Island. There, his Melissa J boat would be waiting for him along with his Florida fishing buddies; to again conquer the ocean waters. There, Robert would be called "Michigan Bob"; the guy everyone knew and enjoyed. The question of the day was always, "Well, should we go bottom fishing or trolling?" Life was good, with any size fish caught. Robert's wife Donna, was only challenged with trying to find a new location to hang the most recent and especially big mounted fish!

Robert had a love for all animals. While he was an accomplished deer hunter; he always respected wildlife and his personal pets; to include many beloved cats and dogs. When his dog Kodi passed away; his caretaker Denise's dog, Snowy, was quickly claimed by Robert, who was affectionally referred to as Papa when speaking to little Snowy. Robert touched many lives which included his church family. He was a 59 year member of St. Andrew's United Church of Christ in Dexter, where he once served as president of the church, during the construction of the new sanctuary. His faith led him and his dog Kodi, to visit local nursing homes; to share the Gospel of Christ and his positive words with the elderly and those unable to leave their facility. Accompanying Robert on his nursing home trips, frequently were his grandchildren, benefiting from his early modeling of love and care. Prior to his years at St. Andrew's, he was a member at Zion Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor; where he completed several projects, including the basement tile flooring. During his winters in Florida, Robert and Donna attended the Community Church in Vero Beach. Robert was a proud IBEW card carrying member for over 60 years. 652 ii. Cay Antoinette Bahnmiller, born 20 Mar 1955 in Wayne Co, Michigan; died 25 Jan 2007.

Notes for Cay Antoinette Bahnmiller:
Tonight I heard my friend Cay Bahnmiller was dead. Its hard to describe how her absence will be felt. She was an artist I admired, loved and wanted to document. She drew the observer into her world and the poetic, literate dreams she wanted to construct.

Cay had a passion for the city of Detroit, and maybe it was the city that partly destroyed her. She might have been more at ease in an artist garret in Europe or South America, but Detroit fed her energy. She loved the crazy cursing parrots of Bird City, the flamboyant trans-sexuals in the trawling bars along Cass Avenue, the burning sulfur and graffiti lined walls of downriver. The broken buildings, industrial bridges and scraps of rubbish in the streets and abandoned junkyards inspired and consumed her.

Detroit was at the center of her mind, and its rusted refuse became the palette for the compacted collages and found sculpture she created. Cay was among the best artists in the Cass corridor, even as she arrived at the end of its glory days. She daily roamed the neighborhoods and streets with a sharpened eye, an ability to see inside the city's ripped and broken body. She painted and worked like a soldier at battle. At odds to her workshop intensity was a generous, soft and compassionate spirit. She gave her spirit completely, supportive to those she loved. Detroit is often ignorant, silent, and apathetic to its artists and storytellers–and Cay reflected that self-loathing attitude as well.

Cay's voice and postures could often be harsh, edgy, nearly impossible to deal with. But that was her sickness talking, a violent, combative, sometimes delirious nature she lived with and that finally consumed her. She tested people's loyalty and patience. She was a generous, brilliant, witty and energetic person. Her phone conversations and letters were long and detailed. She could talk endlessly on art, books, nature, philosophy or her own illness and loved to gossip. She'd develop ideas in brilliant flashes and often sabotage them. Cay seemed to exist in another time, a more meaningful and deeper reality highly connected with past and that was lived out in emotional storms and symbols.

In Cay's heart she was a romantic poetess, foot soldier and artist. She fought poverty, mediocrity and politics -out on the front-lines, smashing the state. A revolutionary thinker with a defiant nature, she fought alongside and sympathized with the underdogs, the bums outside her door and the soldiers in Iraq, the poets locked up in Siberia and executed in death marches.

The Russian Odessa poet Anna Akhmatova was her heroine and adopted model and muse. She took on the poetess signature haircut; shortly bobbed with straight short bangs across her forehead, her aristocratic bearing and dark mythology. Cay's fascination with decadence, personal history and self-criticism was mixed with inner feelings of censorship and neglect. Cay fell into her own version of Russian exotica. "No sadness, my soul's no more of this world," said Akhmatova.

Cay's death was not surprising. She spoke of death often, imagining various cancers, invented broken bones and rare blood diseases eating her insides. Extremity and death hung around her and fed the work, it was something you needed to get used to or left behind. Her cries for help held a core of truth: that Cay was always in pain. A pain that shared transference in her mind with the city's own wounds. A pain that was part of the world. Detroit was Cay's personal Leningrad, Fallujah and gulag; a city that both inspired creativity and constrained it. Many of her friends saw her pain and tried to help, but Cay needed a breakthrough to help herself out of the prison. She was way too smart to follow directions and advice from doctors and others.

The future will be kinder to Cay, as it was to the poet Akhmatova. There was much beauty and insight she had to offer, much that was overlooked, and more we can honor and learn from her life. We will miss you and pray that your journey now is safer and less troubled than before. Sweet dreams Cay. My sincere condolences to her friends and family.

What Pipeline is honored to present the work of Cay Bahnmiller in her first posthumous solo exhibition. Cay Bahnmiller (b. 1955 Wayne, Michigan; d. 2007 Detroit) received a BFA Summa Cum Laude from the University of Michigan in 1976. She was a polymath with a fervent appetite for languages, architecture, philosophy, poetry, literature and art. Her work infused these subjects with an intense lived experience that was at times emotionally fraught. She exhibited at Feigenson Gallery and Susanne Hilberry Gallery, was collected by Gil and Lila Silverman, and is in the collection of the Detroit Institute of Arts. This show consists of works spanning 26 years, from 1980 to 2006, and serves as a reintroduction to Bahnmiller's work. It's a selective survey representing overlapping bodies of work in an attempt to capture her nature, including late work that has never been exhibited. "I've always been told I'm too sensitive. I find that most of the world isn't sensitive enough... If you're comfortable today, I'm a bit concerned because there are so many people that are not comfortable."

Bahnmiller was legendary not only for her prodigious output but also for her presence, which could be charming or destructive. She knew her work, and herself, were difficult but fought for both to be seen. Making it plain that she had "nothing to hide,"Bahnmiller was open about her mental and physical trauma, and about being a survivor of a violent sexual assault. She related as an underdog, struggling to make sense of the world and the pain inflicted on the sick and the poor. Seeing her personal strife reflected in the increasingly apparent problems of the world, she wrote errant messages on the backs of works such as "no computer don't want one/pray for the rainforest."

She spent her youth in Argentina and Germany, and words like Rosada and IhreShuhe run through works like threads. But Detroit, the city of her birth, was her obsession. In letters to friends filled paradoxically with self-doubt and self-assurance, she questioned the city's ability to support her, but could not leave. Her first major body of work, exhibited in 1980, used Detroit as a conceptual investigative framework, exploring and documenting specific locations and land use, especially in Southwest Detroit. She sketched parks and interviewed locals about changes in public spaces, noting their reactions and thoughts in detailed surveys that remain as archives of the city at that time.

This documentation manifested in volumes of notebooks, slides, drawings, Xeroxes, paintings and sculptures. Referring to the resulting works as "very Bauhaus and severe," she said she "exhausted the possibilities of the city" and thereafter began turning inward, opening her work to interiority, memory and dreams. The resulting works are "wholly subjective expressions of an interiorized space" built from "close investigation of the immediate urban environment and the simultaneous overlay of text and thought upon object and place." This exploration would continue to inform numerous series of work throughout the rest of her life. "Painting is inscription, rather than description."

Besides painting, Bahnmiller's life revolved around reading and writing. She was an extensive letter writer and journaler, logging decades of dreams and attempts at their interpretation. If she read a book over and over again "it becomes a painting," she said, its pages thick with drawings and paint. Poets who wrote about despair and death reappeared as text scrawled into layered brushstrokes. She frequently evoked Emily Dickinson, writing "Dickenson [sic] was one of the earliest to embody the negative dialectics that Adorno much later went on to explicate. Often my method of painting, where the paint is applied and negated, excavated, resembles a similar poetic." Other important recurring figures include Russian poet Anna Ahkmatova and her life situated on the Neva River, and D.H. Lawrence, whose poem The Ship of Death inspired a large series of works.

Despite the often-dour subjects, Bahnmiller's work was not without irony. She saw "cycles of history" in Detroit's inversion into landscapes returning to nature, and used motifs like stagecoaches to create a "condensation of memory and satire." In her expressive work she implored for justice, but also sought the refuge of mental and spiritual escape. Poet Mei-meiBerssenbrugge, a contemporary influence, wrote "such emotional disturbances are interruptions in landscape." Bahnmiller similarly shifted between relating experience with abstract language and exacting detail, stating "I work on unstretched pieces of canvas, and employ both collage, drawing and methods akin to quilting and soldering in some of the works, while maintaining a search for pure painting."

What Pipeline presents this solo exhibition in what we endeavor to be the first of many opportunities to explore the work and life of Cay Bahnmiller. In addition to this show, a series of works on paper will be featured in the 2021 edition of Art Mile Detroit.

Notes for Stella Josephine Kozbiel:
Stella J. Shellenberger, age 84, of Marshall, died peacefully at her home on Tuesday, April 3, 2007. Stella was born on March 19, 1923 at 5 AM at her parent's home in Albion to Daniel and Helen (Gavolin) Kozbiel. Both Stella's parents had immigrated here from Poland, and instilled a strong work ethic in Stella that stayed with her throughout her life. She grew up in Albion and attended Albion Schools until graduating from Washington Gardner High School. Stella then worked in Albion and Homer grocery stores, mainly as a cashier.

In the mid-1940's, Stella was married to Robert F. Anderson. Their marriage ended in divorce in 1958. She lived in Albion and Homer over the years until 1960. On May 21 of that year, she married Lewis P. Shellenberger and moved to Marshall where she has made her home since. Stella was a Stanley Home Products dealer for 46 years. Her husband, Lewis P. Shellenberger, had worked with her until his death on Oct. 16, 2000.

They had Stanley booths at both the Calhoun County and Hillsdale County fairs for many years. Stella had a widespread and loyal customer base because of her dedication to her clients and her service as a saleswoman and dealer. She won numerous awards from Stanley for her sales, and enjoyed her work to this day. In 1977, Stanley Home Products appointed her as District Sales Manager. She was very active in the Marshall community. Stella was a former member and past president (in 1967) of the Marshall Business and Professional Women. She was a steadfast member of Zion Lutheran Church and volunteered with their former Walter League, working with church youth.

Stella was a dedicated volunteer with area youth over the years, something she enjoyed very much. She started as a recreation and photography leader in 1957. She served a number of years as Acting Administrative Leader for the 4 Leaf Clovers 4-H Club. She resigned from that position in 1977, but continued her work as a leader in her areas of photography and recreation. She structured her photography groups to start with children when they were 10, and taught them different skills until they graduated from high school. Over the many years, she only had two children that started in the group that did not finish all of it. Stella loved family holidays and gatherings. No matter how sick she may have been as she battled health problems, she insisted on organizing and being at those special events.

Surviving are her daughter, Kathleen Sue (Michael) Hewitt of Marshall; her step-sons, Lewis H. Shellenberger and Larry L. Shellenberger both of Marshall; 2 grandchildren, Derrick L. Wirebaugh of Homer, and Todd R. Wirebaugh of Fremont; 6 great-grandchildren, Travis, Kimmy, Amber, Justin, Rebecca and Mikenna; 2 sisters, Helen Anulevicz and Sophia Pelsinski both of Jackson; nieces and nephews. She was also preceded in death by 2 brothers, Walter and Richard Kozbiel.

Children of Louis Shellenberger and Bernice Anderson are:

705 i. Lewis H.[11] Shellenberger, born 08 May 1936 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan; died 28 Apr 2015 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan. He married Linda M. Whittington 1989 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan; born 19 Sep 1947 in Hagerstown, Washington Co, Maryland; died 04 Mar 2014 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan.

Notes for Lewis H. Shellenberger:

Lewis H. Shellenberger, age 78, of Marshall, died at Oaklawn Hospital on Tuesday, April 28, 2015 after a lengthy illness. Lewis was born on May 8, 1936 to Lewis P. and Bernice (Slate) Shellenberger. He attended Marshall Schools and was a member of the Marshall High School graduating class of 1955. His interest in the fire service started as a youngster when he was a frequent visitor to the Marshall Fire Department. He would catch the back step of the fire engine as the firefighters left on a call. He started his career as a volunteer firefighter with Marshall Fire Department during his senior year in high school, in 1955.

In March of 1957 he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force. He served as an aircraft crash and rescue specialist, as well as serving on base fire equipment as a structural firefighter. Lewis returned to Marshall in April of 1960, rejoining Marshall Fire Department as an auxiliary firefighter. He became a career member of the Battle Creek Fire Department that same year. He served at Station 1 on the Rescue Squad for 3 and ½ years. An opening for a career firefighter came up at Marshall Fire Department and he earned that position when he was hired on October 24, 1962 by Chief Bruce O'Leary. He served as a Captain and department training officer. On July 10, 1970 he was promoted to Assistant Fire Chief by then Chief Chester Travis. On February 4, 1974 he was again promoted by City Manager Richard Chesney and became Marshall's Fire Chief. He served until his retirement on April 24, 1993. After his retirement he enjoyed working for many years at the National House Inn until ill health prevented him from working.

During his career he served as Assistant Civil Defense Director for Marshall, and was appointed in March of 1974 as Chief of Fire Services in Calhoun County under Calhoun County's Coordinator of Emergency Services Joseph Liebherr. His professional memberships included International Association Of Fire Chief's, Michigan Fire Chief's Association (and served as a board member), Michigan State Firefighter's Association, Michigan Chapter of International Association of Arson Inspectors, Charter Member of National Police and Firefighter's Association, Charter Member of Fire Service Section of National Fire Protection Association, member and Past President of Calhoun County Firefighter's Association. For many years he volunteered the majority of the week during the Calhoun County Fair when the County Firefighters Association provided gate, parking and security services.

Lewis enjoyed antique fire apparatus. He owned a 1929 LaFrance fire engine. He participated in many fire musters in Michigan, including some he helped organize in Marshall. He was a member of the Society for the Preservation and Appreciation of Antique Motor Fire Apparatus and was a charter member of Greenfield Village International Antique Fire Apparatus Association. He was a former member of the Marshall Optimist Club and a member of Christ Lutheran Church. In the mid 1960's, Marshall's funeral homes went out of the ambulance business. The City of Marshall attempted to run a service for a period of time, but was unsuccessful. Lewis reacted personally to the need for emergency care in Marshall's extended community and founded Marshall Ambulance Service in 1967. He owned and operated this until 1974 when he sold it. He also formerly owned and operated a Marathon Service Station and Wrecker Service at the corner of W. Michigan and Fountain Street in the later 1960's. He served the city as a Reserve Police Officer for many years.

Lewis was well known for his skills in the kitchen! The fire crews enjoyed wonderful meals he enjoyed cooking, and the Fire Department Christmas and family parties all benefited from his ability to create great meals for large groups of people. He will be remembered for mentoring many young people who he saw have an early interest in serving their community in the fire service and/or emergency medical field. Lewis gave them opportunities while still teen agers that resulted in many of them serving even today.

Surviving are his partner of 34 years, John Seiler, his brother Larry (Phyllis) Shellenberger; step-sister Kathleen Sue Hewitt and nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at Craig K. Kempf Family Funeral Home, Marshall on Thursday from 6 PM-8 PM. Services to celebrate his life will be held at the funeral home on Friday, May 1, at 1 PM with Rev. James Codde officiating. Interment will follow in Oakridge Cemetery. Following interment, friends and family will gather back at Kempf's Fellowship Hall at the funeral home for snacks and fellowship. A three-quarter length veil was draped from a small net turban and her flowers were an arm bouquet of white roses, lilies and white sweet peas. Notes for Archie Robert Caswell:

Party of Eight Crowded Into Ford Touring Car When Driver Swerves at Curve - A young wife was killed and seven other persons were injured when the automobile in which they were riding was wrecked on US-12 two miles east of Battle Creek shortly after 10 o'clock Saturday night Oct. 29, 1932. Mrs. Evelyn Williams, 18, of Stewart lake, south of Marshall, died at the scene of the accident. She was taken to Nichols hospital, however, before it was determined that she was dead. Her husband, Pownell Williams, suffered a fractured left shoulder.

Others injured were the driver of the car, Archie Caswell, 25, of 422 North Mulberry, Marshall, his side hurt; Miss Ida Large, 18, of 113 East VanBuren, Battle Creek, badly bruised and shocked; Misa Freida Potter, 18, of Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Freed of Spring Street, Battle Creek, and Walter Adams of 422 North Mulberry, Marshall, who received minor scratches and bruises.

The party of Battle Creek and Marshall persons, crowded Into Caswell's Ford touring car, were on their way from Battle Creek to the Williams home at Stuart lake, southwest of Marshall. The accident happened on a curve a short distance east of the Calhoun, county hospital.

Caswell told Coroner Willard N. Putman and police who investigated the accident that he was driving about 50 miles per hour and had passed a truck just before rounding the curve to discover a slowly-moving automobile in his path and another approaching from the opposite direction. To avoid smashing into the car ahead, he said, he swerved sharply to the left. The car turned over, righted itself and then crashed into a telephone pole. Remarkably, none of the occupants was thrown out.

The driver of the car ahead, Fred Fausz, also of Marshall, and Thomas Stoke, South Division Street garageman who had been working on a truck close by, assisted the injured to leave the car. All except, Adams were taken to Nichols hospital. It was not immediately learned that Mrs. Williams was dead, those at the scene believing she was merely unconscious. They thought they detected her breathing, but Coroner Putman afterward expressed the opinion that she died immediately after the crash. Death, he said, was due to a fractured skull.

Mr. Fausz and Mr. Stoke each took several of the injured to the hospital. Adams drove the damaged car on to Marshall, where he went to Oaklawn hospital to have a scalp wound treated. None of the others was believed to have a serious injury, and only Miss Large, severely shocked, remained under care early this morning. Coroner Putman questioned Caswell at police headquarters after his side injury had been treated at the hospital. He was not detained. Dr. Putman said he was undecided, whether to hold an inquest.

Marshall - Archie R. Caswell, 76, of 1016 S. Kalamazoo Ave., died today April 24, 1984 in Community Hospital, Battle Creek, where he had been a patient since Monday. He was born in Gratiot City and had resided in Marshall most of his life. He was employed by the Eaton Corp. and retired in 1975 after 46 years of service. He was a former member of Marshall Moose Lodge 676.

Notes for Duane Paul Braun:

Duane Paul Braun passed away early November 24, 2019 peacefully at home. Born June 26, 1927 to Paul H. Braun and Melvina Clough. He lived a rich and happy life. His early years were in the Ann Arbor and Saline area, then in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan where he met his wife of 72 years, Jean (McInnis). They married in June of 1947 and soon moved back to the Ann Arbor area settling in Dexter where they raised three children, Andy, Bob and Cheri.

Duane made many lifelong friends. Many whom he met while working in the Ann Arbor area at King Seeley, Chrysler, Sycor, Northern Telecom and Hy-Stat as a Set-up man, and eventually, Foreman. Not only was he a mentor to those at work, but he developed close friendships with them. He reinforced those friendships by spending time outside of work - auto-racing, bowling, hunting, golfing, fishing, and playing cards. He was very social! Friendships continued even after his retirement to Florida in 1985. A great do-it-yourselfer, he was always willing to help on a home project, car issue, and give you the confidence to just try, even if you had to do it again. A conversation, game of cards and a beer were always available. Family and friends were the most important things to him, consequently the Braun home (and garage) was full of laughter and fun, resulting in many stories. He loved people. During his 92 years, Duane loved his life and lived it to the fullest - even while fighting health challenges. His family will miss him dearly and appreciates the example he set on how to love others.

Duane is survived by his wife Jean F. Ethel's (Bruestle-Haist) Stories....
April 1998 - My Engagement

I met my husband when I was 19 years old.We met on a blind date set up by Erwin's sister Lorine and her husband Milton.I knew Milton because he lived with my cousin Ben (Aunt Kay's son) and his wife Lill for a while.Milton was dating Lorine, Erwin's sister.They picked me up in Manchester and we went to a lake.The first gift Erwin gave to me was a cedar chest for Christmas.I still have it today.He had to work really hard by picking apples to save up enough money to buy my engagement ring.I was 21 when he proposed.We were engaged for quite a while.I was 23 and he was 25 when we got married.We had our ceremony at the house of Pastor Brueckner in Freedom Township on April 25, 1931.We had coffee and doughnuts at our house afterwards.That night we stayed at Aunt Ida's and returned the next day. That was the only vacation we ever had.

We didn't go out often because Erwin had to work on the farm .He used to get up around 5 o'clock and brush the horses off then work in the fields until late at night. The only time he wouldn't work was on Sunday because he would always go to church. His whole family were good church people. Erwin's mother was only 47 years old when she passed away in 1930 on Thanksgiving Day. He surely loved his parents. When he was 21 years old they bought him a new brown Buick. (We have the picture)

After we were married we lived with his parents until Milton's house was completed being fixed up. Milton, Lorine and Joyce moved into the house and George, Erwin's father moved down with them. We saw them every day because we had chores down there also. Erwin used to pick apples and sell them to Clark's store. During the winters he froze his feet. We always got our little chickens in March, so we had lots of work to do. One year I was going to work in the garden and I took Kenny. He was about one year old. I set him on a blanket and all at once a large woodchuck came out of the grass and was heading towards Kenny. I was really scared. I took my hoe and hit it over the head. I killed it. It was such a relief to know my boy was safe.

I was real happy with my marriage because Erwin was a real good husband and good father to his children. He never had to get after them. I never saw him mad at anybody even his family. I sure miss him. From the time we were married we had four children. Arlene Martha born Sept. 5, Doris Marie born Feb. 14, Kenneth Erwin born Aug. 8 and Richard George born Nov. 5.We had the misfortune of losing our first baby Duane who was born dead at birth.

When the children got old enough they would help carry in wood, help with the hay and also take care of the sheep and pigs. They all joined the 4-H Club. They had sheep and steers for the fairs, but they never missed their Sunday School. When I mowed the lawn I used to put the children in the high chair and tie them in so they could watch me mow from the window. Some of the time I would find them on the floor when I came in the house.

We had a lot of sickness in those days. When Arlene was 14 years old she had Polio. When Doris was 2 1/2 she had pneumonia and we just about lost her. Kenneth had meningitis and we about lost him too. We surely thank the good Lord. Richard never got real sick.
I always took care of my children. I never had a babysitter. My children were real good. They went to the country school which they had to walk a mile to get to. When it snowed they played fox and geese and they liked to slide down the hills. They had a lot of games they played out doors.

August 1998 - The Erwin Haist Farm

The farm originally belonged to Erwin's father, George Haist. He bought the farm about 94 years ago. Erwin was 2 months old when they moved in. His father and mother lived there most of their lives. There were 88 acres but they also farmed for other people. Erwin was only 12 years old when he would run home from school so he could help his father on the farm, which he loved very much. They had very nice neighbors, who lived across the road. Their name was Wagner and the other neighbors were good also.

Erwin's father, George Haist bought another place on South Fletcher Rd, where his daughter Lorine and her husband Milton lived. George lived with them after his wife passed away from Cancer. George lived with them until Lorine passed away with cancer. After that, George moved in with Erwin and I on the farm for three and one half years.

Erwin and I were married on April 25th 1931.We had sheep which were taken to the fairs. We worked 3 farms all together. We also did thrashing and husked corn .My husband and I husked corn in an 8 acre field. All by hand we husked 2800 bushel of corn. We also did a lot of butchering. We used to butcher 5 pigs at a time. The neighbors helped us make sausage, liver sausage and blood sausage. We also took care of a large garden. One year the coon's cleaned out the entire garden. I had 2 ears of corn left after they got done. We finally caught 25 of them and a skunk in a live trap.
We also had a lot of haying and plowing to do. We got help with the haying. The children did what they could to help. The children always took sheep to the fairs. They belonged to the 4-H.They also took cattle to the fair. Now, they are all married. We have 13 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. None of them are on farms. My husband passed away July 27th, 1992 at the age of 88.

July 1998 - My Life After Marriage - Written by Ethel Haist, January 2000

I was married April 25, 1934.I immediately joined the Zion Lutheran Church and Ladies Aid.On July 20, 1954 I received a lifetime membership of the Ladies Aid from Washington. I did many jobs throughout my life including caring for the man across the road who had just had a heart attack.I mowed my lawn and worked the gardens, planted the gardens, and washed clothes. I had 250 hens and 500 baby chicks. Once a week I took 60 dozed eggs to be delivered in Ann Arbor and 5 dozen were taken to Chelsea.I did this for 50 years.

I also helped my husband in the fields and on the farm.One of the tasks was to feed lambs with bottles of milk.I helped my uncle bunch beans in the field.After that I worked for Sidney Toroly doing housework.Then I went to Roy Haselschwart to do housework.Then I worked for Mr. Gardener picking strawberries all summer. I did housework in the day time then washed strawberries till 12 o' clock then took them to the market in Detroit.
I also worked at the Hoover Ball factory in Ann Arbor for 5 months. Then I worked for my aunt all summer.Next I worked for Mr. Grant in the market for 4 summers.I also worked for Faith-in-Action for 7 years.I worked for Elmer Myers while his wife taught school.

When my children went to school I cleaned their rooms and did their washing.My husband and I husked all the corn by hand.There was one field where we husked 2,400 bushel of corn.I used to go with him to auction to get cattle for butchering and to sell our cattle.

I also worked at the blood bank in Chelsea several times.I worked at the school during elections.Over the years I worked for Reverend Grabowski and Reverend Pesterman.

When you are working 3 farms there is always lots of work to do.My husband had to quit working the fields on account of a bad foot.He eventually had to have his foot taken off and spent 5 weeks in the St. Joe's Hospital.Towards the end of his life he spent 2 months in the Stockbridge Nursing Home.He sure is missed very much.He couldn't have been a better husband.He was such a good father to his children.We farmed together for 68 years and enjoyed working together.

Life Written by Ethel Haist, December 1997

After my children grew up, I still did housework.I helped my husband as I could although he was in poor health.He had an operation in which he had part of his leg removed because his feet were not getting enough blood.The doctors said he had been working too hard and had to quit farming. We had three farms that we were farming all at one time.We had cattle, eight at a time.We also had lots of sheep, which we always took to the Detroit Fairs.We sold the sheep and rams in Michigan and other places.Our children all took sheep to the fairs through 4-H.They got lots of champions on their cattle and sheep. They also won many prizes.

When Erwin got sick, he was in the hospital for five weeks.When he came home he had to take treatments three times a week in Chelsea.A few years later he had to go to a nursing home in Stockbridge.He was there two months before he passed away on July 27, 1992 at the age of 88.I lived by myself for almost three years, which was very difficult.I knew I couldn't do it form much longer.The children all had their own homes and were afraid for me to be alone.I had a terrible fall and had to go to the hospital.The doctor discovered I had to have a gallstone removed.The children didn't think I was going to make it.I knew the Lord would be good to me.

Right now I am living in the Chelsea Methodist Home.It sure is a nice place to live.I miss my home though.I had lived there for 66 years and I was happy there.The person I miss the most is my husband.He sure was a wonderful man.I sure wish him back again.I have lost a lot of family.My twin sister, my brother and my sister-in-law all past away in the past three years.I sure appreciate what all my dear friends have done for me.I appreciate that they have prayed for me.I also know there is nobody who has done more for me than my own family.I can't praise them enough.I think the world of them.

819 i. Duane Albert[11] Strieter, born 04 Mar 1949 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 17 May 1981. He married Patricia Gayle Farmer 26 Apr 1969 in Bridgewater Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; born 1941.

Notes for Duane Albert Strieter:

Duane Strieter, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Strieter, 5186 Austin Rd., suffered a crushed pelvis and a broken rib, when he was run over by a pickup truck being driven by his father, Wednesday August 28, 1957 at 6 p.m. The accident occurred as Mr. Strieter, who had been working in a field on the north side of the toad in back of the house, was backing the truck up to cross the road to the farm buildings. Duane, who was in the back of the pickup, fell to the ground, face down, as it started to move and was run over by the right wheel. His companion, David Burmeister, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Burmeister, 5475 Austin Rd., remained in the pickup. Duane was rushed to the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor by Saline Police Officer James Levleit. Mr. Strieter is the clerk of Saline Township.

A local youth was arrested early Sunday morning Nov. 12, 1967 after a high speed chase, that ended with the crash of the pursuing police car. Duane Strieter, 18, of 5186 Austin Rd., was arraigned Tuesday in Municipal Court in Ann Arbor, on a charge of fleeing from a police officer. The charge, stemming from legislation that is new this year, carries a maximum penalty of a $1,000 fine or one year in jail, or both. It is a high court misdemeanor (i.e., it must be heard in Circuit Court). Damage to the police car has not been estimated, but the vehicle is "driveable". The new 1968 Dodge had been in use for only two days before the accident. No one was hurt in the crash. Police said that Officer Lawrence Tilford first noticed the Strieter car proceeding west on Michigan Avenue at a high rate of speed at about 5 a.m. Sunday. Tilford followed and signaled with his flasher for the speeding car to stop. Tilford then gave chase out W. Michigan Avenue, at speeds up to 120 miles per hour, police said. The Strieter car followed a course on Austin Road, turned onto Dell Road at alleged speed of 60 to 70 miles per hour, and then turned onto Weber Road, where the speed was estimated at 70 to 80 miles per. hour. It ended when the police car went out of control on the gravel of Weber Road, left the road, and struck a fence. Strieter was also ticketed for driving 65 miles per hour in a 35 mph zone in the city. Examination on the "fleeing" charge has been set for November 22, and Strieter was released on $50 bond.

Notes for Margaret Caroline Wacker:

Lansing - Margaret Caroline Wacker Ricks Halava, born July 16, 1918 in Lansing, and whose remarkable careers ran the gamut from public service to business to music to painting, passed away at age 93 on December 12, 2011. She served as secretary to two Michigan governors - G. Mermen Williams and John B. Swainson - and as district manager for Congressman Billie S. Farnum. She worked at the Mackinac Bridge Authority while the bridge was being built.

She followed her passion for music by enrolling in the School of Music at Michigan College, later Michigan State University, and held a job as a music teacher at Resurrection School in 1938. She was a Charter Member of the Lansing Symphony Orchestra in 1929 at age 11, and served as Concert Master at the end of her tenure in 1956. Previously, insisting she needed a better way to support herself, her father insisted she enroll at Acme Business School. In addition to her political career, she worked for HomeTown Communications Corporation for 20 years where she retired in 1987 as Vice President for Human Resources. She filled her retirement with her interest in and growing skill at watercolor painting which enriched her travels to Europe and other continents, as well as her new life on Maui, Hawaii, where she moved 17 years after her retirement from business. While in Hawaii, she painted the sights of the islands, taught watercolor to young children, and was a violin mentor to one particularly talented young musician. She moved back to Michigan in December 2010, where she has lived in the Independent Living Area of Burcham Hills Retirement Center in East Lansing, Michigan. Her family held an enormous party to celebrate her 93rd birthday in July of this year, and Margaret was thrilled to see so many of her family, former co-workers and political friends who joined her. Margaret passed away in her apartment, under the care of Hospice and her loving caregivers, with family by her side.

She is survived by her son, Donald Ricks of Bath, Michigan; son, Neil Halava of Jeffersonville, Indiana; and daughter, Gail Halava of Maui, Hawaii. Margaret is also survived by 8 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews, all who adored their beloved aunt and grandmother.

The Cremation Society of Michigan handled the arrangements, and the family has requested that any who wish to honor Margaret's life make a donation to The Lansing Symphony Orchestra, 501 S Capital Avenue, Suite 400, Lansing, Michigan 48933. "Margaret's range of capability was prodigious," said Phil Power, for whose newspaper publishing company she worked. "She brought enormous energy, terrific focus and ferocious loyalty to everything she did." "Shortly before Margaret was born, somebody up there broke the mold," Power said. "I've never known anybody with as remarkable a range of talents as Margaret Halava. She enriched profoundly her family, her friends and her business associates."

Marriage Notes for Nancy Mayer and James Grau:

The engagement of Nancy K. Mayer to James R. Grau was announced during the Christmas holidays in December 1961. The bride-elect, daughter of Mrs. Alfred Mayer, 737 South Main St., and the late Mr. Mayer, is a senior at Albion College where she is affiliated with Pi Beta Phi sorority. Mr. Grau, son of Mrs. Alton Grau Sr., 3380 Fletcher Road, and the late Mr. Grau, is presently employed by the A. D. Mayer Insurance Agency. Both are 1958 graduates of Chelsea High School. The couple plans June 30 as their wedding date.

Nancy Kay Mayer, daughter of Mrs. Alfred D. Mayer and the late Mr. Mayer, and James Robert Grau exchanged wedding vows at 4 o'clock double-ring ceremony Saturday June 30, 1962 at St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church with the Rev. Paul M. Schnake officiating. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Alton Grau, Sr. and the late Mr. Grau. Mrs. Carl Mayer, an aunt of the bride, served as organist and Howard Flintoft was soloist. Accompanied by Mrs. Mayer he sang "O Perfect Love" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Daniel D. Mayer, wore a white floor-length gown of silk organza over taffeta. Re-embroidered alencon lace, with sequins and seed pearls, formed a full length front panel and appliques on the skirt and also outlined the portrait neckline. The back of the gown was adorned with a large bow at the waist and the skirt extended into a chapel-train. Her elbow-length veil of imported illusion was held in place with a crystal crown. She carried a bouquet of orchids, roses and stephanotis.

Lynne Brown of Midland, for her role as maid of honor, wore moon-beam yellow sheer cotton with a woven ribbon stripe. Style features were daisy and lattice trim at the waistline and on the sleeves, and a sweetheart neckline. An open pill box hat, matching the dress, with a butterfly veil attached, completed her ensemble. She earned a bouquet of light blue daisies. Bridesmaids, identically dressed, were Mrs. Jack Cattell, cousin of the bride, Judith Wagner and Cheryl Grau, a niece of the bridegroom. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mayer wore a frosted fern green shantung dress and a flowered heat in a pastel coral shade while the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of wedgewood blue silk and straw hat of light and wedgewood blue. Each had a corsage of yellow cymbidium orchids. Fatal crash on west side of Ann Arbor resulted from driver suffering medical condition, police say

A 66-year-old man (John Richard Fritz) died Thursday after his car was hit by a 48-year-old man who suffered a medical condition, causing him to pass out and run a red light, according to police. The accident occurred at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the intersection of Maple Road and Dexter Avenue, according to Ann Arbor police Lt. Renee Bush. She said the 48-year-old man was traveling east on Dexter Avenue when a medical issue caused him to pass out. His Saturn ran a red light and he collided with the 66-year-old man's Toyota, which was traveling north on Maple Road, Bush said.

The 66-year-old man died at the scene from the injuries he sustained in the collision. Bush said the 48-year-old man was transported to the hospital by Huron Valley Ambulance to be treated for his medical issue. Police are not releasing the nature of the medical issue that caused the man to pass out, Bush said.The Toyota was hit near the driver's side door, pinning the 66-year-old man inside the vehicle, Bush said. Ann Arbor Fire Department Battalion Chief Robert Vogel said when firefighters arrived at the scene, the man was pinned inside the vehicle and not breathing.Vogel said firefighters used the Jaws of Life to remove the man from the Toyota, but he was declared dead at the scene.

Authorities originally reported three cars were involved in the crash, but Bush said only two cars were involved. The third car thought to be involved in the crash was actually a witness who had pulled over to the side of the road to wait for authorities, Bush said.The identities of the men involved in the crash have not been released.Thursday saw two traffic accidents resulting in deaths. A man was killed after being hit by a semi-truckwhile walking onto Interstate 94 near Stone School Road. Police reported witnesses said the man appeared to walk out in front of the truck deliberately.

Notes for Melissa Mary Jaeger:

The Oakland University women's swimming and diving team announced Wednesday that Melissa Jaeger (Ann Arbor, Michigan) will be coming to Oakland University in the fall of 2003 as a member of the Golden Grizzlies swimming and diving team. Jaeger is currently a member of the Ann Arbor Pioneer High School's swim team who won last year's class 'A' state championship. Thus far in her senior year, Jaeger has qualified for every event in the upcoming high school state championships. She is the top returning swimmer in the state in the 200 individual medley (2:07.21) and one of the top three in the 100 butterfly (57.35). In last year's state championships, Jaeger was the runner-up in the 200 yard IM, the third place finisher in the 100 yard butterfly, and a member of the second place finishing 200 freestyle relay team. Tabbed a high school All-American in 2001, Jaeger captains this year's Pioneer swim team and will look to lead her team to back-to-back state championship titles.

A daughter of Eric and Mary Ann Jaeger, the family resides in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Oakland head swimming coach Pete Hovland, is very excited about Jaeger's decision to come to Oakland and his hopeful about her future here as both a swimmer and student. "The staff's excited about Melissa's decision to become a Golden Grizzly next season," commented Hovland. "She's not only an outstanding swimmer, but an excellent student and an outstanding individual - we think she'll fit in very well. "Melissa is also coming from a high school which has a great swimming background and have won the state championships a number of times," continued Hovland. "The Pioneer's are currently the defending Class A state champs and Melissa played a major role in that championship. We're excited to sign someone from a winning program, which will continue to help Oakland with it's winning tradition."

Melissa Schmidt says that her parents, Eric and Mary Anne Jaeger, determined long ago that if they were blessed with children, those children would attend schools which were diverse and challenging. Schmidt and her sister, fellow teacher Kristina McFarland of Lakewood Elementary, attended the Ann Arbor Public Schools. After attending Northside, Dicken, and Slauson, Schmidt graduated from Pioneer High School, where she had been a member of the first Pioneer National Championship Women's High School Swim Team her senior year. That led to swimming at the University of Michigan, where her specialty was the 200 Fly. And that led her to compete in the Olympic Trials in 2008.

After earning her ELMAC (Elementary Masters of Arts and Certification) at U-M, she began her teaching career with three teaching positions: computers at Lawton, EL at Allen and kindergarten at Logan. She taught third grade for four years at Pittsfield Elementary, before deciding to pursue an International Baccalaureate position at Mitchell. Now into her eighth year teaching, Schmidt teaches third grade at Mitchell School and focuses her free time on IB curriculum development, the soon to be first IB accredited school in the district.

She and her husband of nearly five years, Mike Schmidt, live in Ann Arbor with their cat, Alfred. She enjoys setting annual running goals with her sister and mom, which has included the Key West Half Marathon. When her running partners aren't near, she also likes to sneak in a little Pure Barre.

CPR was begun at the scene and Shellenberger was taken to the hospital where he died. Funeral arrangements are pending at the Craig K. Kempf Funeral Home in Marshall. Richard Charles Shellenberger III died unexpectedly on Friday, Jan. 22, 2016, after a brief battle with pneumonia and complications of congestive heart failure. Rich was 43 years old, and will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him. Rich was a resident of Holden, where he lived with his family.

Rich was born in Panorama City, California, on Aug. 25, 1972, and grew up in Battle Creek, Michigan, where many of his close friends and family still reside. Rich was born with Down Syndrome and attended school at the Doris Klaussen Center until the age of 18, was active in Special Olympics in his younger years and loved bowling. He tried his hand at various jobs after graduation before deciding he was happiest creating art and being a writer while spending more time with his family and friends - especially his dad. He loved being the center of attention, enjoyed playing his guitar, singing karaoke and going to dances and other activities with friends from the Johnson County Sheltered Workshop and the Down Syndrome Guild of KC. Rich made friends everywhere he went, loved to give and receive hugs, and was particularly concerned with helping those who were hurting or sad. He had a strong and simple faith in God, and often spoke of heaven and those who had passed on before him.

Rich loved nothing better than being in the middle of a large gathering of friends and family—the more, the better. In keeping with his wishes to celebrate with everyone whose lives he touched, even briefly, all are cordially invited to his memorial service to honor his memory and celebrate his life.

Richard Haist formerly of Chelsea, Michigan, at age 72, passed away peacefully Sunday, January 15, 2017 in Richmond, Virginia after living with Alzheimer's disease. Richard was born November 5, 1944 in Chelsea, MI to Erwin and Ethel Haist.

He will be greatly missed by his wife Bonnie of Richmond, Virginia and their three children: Lydia (Adam) Beauchamp of Wassenaar, Netherlands; Jamake Haist of Bellville, Michigan; and Paloma Haist of Los Angeles, California. His two grandsons, Jakob and Samuel Beauchamp were the loves of his life. Richard grew up helping on his parent's farm, which is where his love of nature began. He had a passion for learning, especially about other people and their cultures. He graduated from Chelsea High School in 1962 then went on to graduate from Western Michigan University and attended grad school at the University of Chicago. His love of the environment led him to first work for the Ministry of Energy in Fiji and then for the United Nations, starting the Department of Energy for the Solomon Islands government. Richard was smart, kind, thoughtful, humorous and incredibly generous. He loved his family. His children are grateful for their unique childhood from living and traveling around the world to showing sheep at the Chelsea Fair.

The family will have a celebration of life this summer in Michigan. In Richard's memory, he would love you to carry out an act of kindness for someone else.

A local boy was treated at the Saline hospital Friday evening July 28, 1967 for extensive bruises and a bite, after he was beaten with a tire iron by three youths from Ypsilanti. Cary Strieter, 16, of 5186 Austin Rd., was given a tetanus shot for the bite he received in the scuffle, which occurred outside a restaurant on E. Michigan Ave., about 10 p.m. Strieter told police he had driven there to turn to turn around, after attending a softball game in Saline; while he was making the turn, another car drove in and blocked the exit from the lot. When he tapped the horn of his car, three young men got out of the other car, cursed him, pulled him from his vehicle, and attacked him. Several Saline boys attempted to assist Strieter; one of them, Marvin Dimon, was also bitten. The driver of the Ypsilanti care stayed behind the wheel. Notes for Zachary Taylor Owings:
Eastern Michigan University junior infielder Zachary Owings (Saline, Michigan) was selected in the 33rd round, 981st overall, by the Miami Marlins in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft Wednesday afternoon, June 5, 2019. Owings becomes the 76th EMU player to be drafted all-time into the MLB, and becomes the third selection from EMU in as many years, joining 2017 Seattle Mariners pick Sam Delaplane, and 2018 Oakland Athletics selection Max Schuemann. Owings is the second Eastern player to be drafted into the Marlins organization, joining Steve Weber.

Owings was EMU's best offensive weapon in 2019, as he led the team in batting (.345), slugging (.527), on-base percentage (.395), stolen bases (14), runs (38), and doubles (18), as well as hits (76) and RBIs (34). The infielder also tied for the team lead in triples (five), and ranked second in home runs (four). Owings piloted the team with 26 multi-hit games, and paced the EMU lineup with seven multi-RBI games. Additionally, Owings added a 23-game reached base streak to go along with his team-best 14 game hitting streak.

Within the Mid-American Conference's regular season, Owings ranked fourth in hits, sixth in total bases, ninth in batting average, 10th in slugging percentage, and tied for fourth in both doubles and triples, respectively. The junior is no stranger on the national stage either, as he ranked inside the top-30 in triples, and inside the top-60 in hits and doubles. In the field, Owings was outstanding, defending the hot corner at a near-perfect .974 clip. In all, the third baseman made just five errors in nearly 200 opportunities. The anchor of the fourth most efficient fielding unit in the MAC, Owings closed the season without making an error in his last 25 games played.

In addition to his top-tier statistics, Owings has compiled an impressive list of awards in 2019. The infielder was twice named the MAC's Scholar Athlete of the Week, recognized by College Sports Madness as the league's player of the week, named Eastern Michigan University Credit Union's Athlete of the Week, and was named a National Strength and Conditioning Association All-American for the second straight year. Most recently, the junior was tabbed as one of league's best for the second straight year, as he was named Second Team All-MAC, and to the All-MAC Defensive Team.

Owings closed his third season at EMU having played in 157 contests, including making 146 starts. The lefty has knocked 187 hits, including 34 doubles, seven triples, and 10 home runs, on his way to batting .325, good for 15th all-time at Eastern.

For some it's about beauty, for others it's about pride; but for these two families, it's about a rich Saline heritage. Members of the Stegenga family recently looked on as they watched their third Miss Saline named on Sept. 2. Nicole Stegenga became the most recent in a line dating back 25 years when her mother, Laurie Vogel Stegenga won the same title in 1978. Five years later, her sister, Beth Vogel Newman, reigned as Miss Saline of 1982.
"It was so exciting to have both daughters compete in the pageant," says Dorothy Vogel, mother of Laurie and Beth and grandmother to Nicole. "Watching Nicole compete on Tuesday took me back in time. Her grandfather, Bill, and I had to pinch ourselves. We couldn't believe we were there, 25 years later, watching Nicole compete."
The Vogels acknowledged the tough decision the judges had because all of the girls were "just delightful young women," says Dorothy. The Vogels have been involved in the fair for years and that played a part in why their daughters and granddaughter wanted to be involved in the Miss Saline Pageant. "I can't wait to see Nicole become involved in the community even more so than she is now. That is such an important part of being MissSaline," says Dorothy.

Notes for Bretin Staudacher:
Oct 24, 2018 - Northview senior Bretin Staudacher wasn't sure if he was going to play football this fall after missing all last year due to a broken right wrist. The freak injury was so painful, and the rehabilitation process has been so long that Staudacher said he didn't even know if he wanted to play again. "I didn't know if it was worth it," the 5-foot-11, 215-pound linebacker said. Once Staudacher made up his mind to play, there has been no stopping him. Staudacher, who also plays right tackle, is the leading tackler on a Northview team that has qualified for the Division 3 state playoffs and will visit Grand Rapids Christian in Friday's round-one game. It still hurts during games and practices, and he plays with a cast. He continues to work on his flexibility, too. But Staudacher said it has all been worth it. Northview, which finished 1-8 in each of the past two seasons, has been one of the area's most pleasant surprises this fall. The Wildcats have won six-straight and head to the postseason 7-2. "Oh yeah, everything is worth it. I would do everything all over again if I could," Staudacher said. "It's because of my team. I know how hard they are working and the pain of going 1-8 two seasons in a row, and how they keep fighting and how hard they are trying and how much heart they are giving. It pushes me to want to do better for them."
Staudacher was a starter his sophomore season, and expectations were high entering his junior year. However, Staudacher was injured the second day of two-a-days in the second practice when he tackled a blocking dummy. "I looked at my hand, and it was all puffy," Staudacher said. "I went to the coach and trainer and showed them, and they had me go see the doctor. The doctor said I broke my scaphoid and ulna. He said the injury was one in a million." Northview coach Trip Gallery said Staudacher has been a key reason for the Wildcats' turnaround this fall, and he praised him for the leadership he has showed in the weight room after the injury. The Wildcats defense has cut the number of points they have allowed from a year ago in half. Northview has given up 203 points compared to 411 last season. "He has had a huge impact," Gallery said. "We are really emphasizing the defensive side of the ball this season, and he has been a lightning rod at the linebacker position. He is fast and has made a lot of tackles in key situations. His performance has been a huge reason for the team's success.
"He was a young man who had some injuries his sophomore year and a serious injury his junior year. He had reservations (about returning), but the support of our community through private donations have redone our entire weight room. He was the leader in there for his rehabilitation. He did a great job with his preparation in the offseason." Swimming been a part of his rehabilitation, too. Staudacher is a member of the Northview swim team and competes in the butterfly event. He served as an alternate on a Northview relay that qualified for state last year. "I started swimming ever since I could pretty much walk," Staudacher said. "That was my first sport, and it has helped me with football. It is an all-around full body workout, and it has made me faster and more powerful." Staudacher has goals of playing college football, too. "I would imagine that there would be a lot of places where he would be a great fit," Gallery said.

Marriage Notes for Aaron Parisho and Kaitlin Edmondson:

While planning their August wedding, Kaitlin Edmondson (25 and a wedding planner) and Aaron Parisho (27 and a certified public accountant) knew one thing for sure: A barn was an absolute must. "Both of our mothers grew up on their family farms, so the idea of a barn wedding just felt right," Kaitlin says. The only problem? The venue they had their eye on was under heavy construction. "We had to climb a makeshift staircase, and you could see the first floor via holes in the second-story floor," Kaitlin says of their first visit to Cottonwood Barn in Dexter, Michigan. "I may have raised a few eyebrows when I showed people our venue, but the end product was absolutely stunning." Armed with a muted color palette of blush and gold, the couple used gold sequined linens and mismatched vintage china to turn their rustic venue into a romantic reception space. For a luxe contrast to the natural wood detail of the space, gold chiavari chairs and gilded candles were also brought in. One detail we especially loved: the lush arrangements of dahlias, garden roses and astilbes created by Eden Designs of Brighton, Michigan. "I wanted arrangements that looked as if you'd run through a field of wildflowers and picked some up," Kaitlin says. "Our florist absolutely nailed it." After exchanging vows in an outdoor ceremony overlooking a small pond, the newlyweds and 200 guests retreated to the air-conditioned barn for dinner and dancing among high-top tables made from whiskey barrels. As for wedding favors, the couple treated guests to handmade pretzels, a wedding tradition common in Aaron's family. "Every detail represented us perfectly," Kaitlin says of their celebration. "We just wanted to make sure our guests understood how thankful we were to be surrounded by all our family and friends."
