Notes for Octave Otto Gutekunst, Jr.:

St. Martinville, Louisiana, May 20, 1971 - Octave Gutekunst Jr., vice-president and general manager of Levert-St. John, is this week's Who's Who in St. Martin Parish business. Gutekunst, a graduate of USL with degrees in chemistry and physics, is not new in the sugar business. After spending some time in the service, Gutekunst took his family to the Dominican Republic and Haiti to work in the sugar industry. He worked in the business there for 15 years, returned to St. Martinville in 1960 and went to work at Levert-St. John. He went back to Haiti in 1962 and worked in the sugar business until 1964. In 1964, Gutekunst worked for the Breaux Bridge Sugar Coop and came to Levert-St. John in 1967. "I surely am glad to be back. I always wanted to return to God's country," says Gutekunst. He is a past president of the Western Sugar producers Association and is presently manufacturing chairman of the American Sugar Cane Technologists Association. He is a member of the St. Martinville Lions Club. He and his wife, the former Eastcott Robinson, have nine children.

St. Martinville - A Memorial Mass was held Saturday, April 20, 2013, at St. Martin de Tours Catholic Church in St. Martinville, for Octave Otto Gutekunst Jr. A gathering of family and friends was held at Pellerin Funeral Home in St. Martinville. A rosary was prayed at 7 p.m. on Friday. Octave Otto Gutekunst, Jr. 'Gutie', died Thursday at his home in St. Martinville, surrounded by his family. Gutie was born in St. Martinville, youngest child of Octave and Josephine (Barras) Gutekunst. He was preceded in death by his wife (Eastcott 'Scottie' Robinson Gutekunst); his parents; his siblings Ruby Badon, Carl Gutekunst, Earl Gutekunst, Rosy Angelle, Rona Simonin; one son-in-law Elemore Morgan, Jr. 3; and a favorite niece, Rosianne Angelle Durand. Although a worldly man, Gutie died in his home a mere block from the front bedroom of his mother's home, where he was born 90 years ago. His life in between these events was full of uncommon adventures and calculated risk-taking. Gutie graduated from SLI in electrical and chemical engineering, and served during World War II in the Pacific Theater. Following the war, he spent most of his working life in the sugar industry in the Dominican Republic and Haiti, with intermediate jobs as manager of the Breaux Bridge Sugar Coop and the Levert St. John Sugar Mill. He retired as General Manager and CEO of Haitian American Sugar Company outside Port-au-Prince, Haiti. Gutie contributed to his community through various civic organizations such as: Rotary, Lion's Club, Kiwanis, St. Martin Recycling, Civitan, AARP, American Sugar Association, St. Martin Parish Book Talk, and Farm Bureau Board. He helped farmers complete applications for farm relief, he volunteered at Breaux Bridge Senior High, he gave to any charity that asked and some that didn't. He recycled, replanted, repaired and re-gifted. No tree was too small to keep, no service too big to provide. Gutie and Scottie raised their nine children by example to be kind, to be fair, and to think for themselves. His Catholic faith was strong and constant; his expressed hope was that his children find their own strong faith in God. He imparted his love and knowledge of chess, cards, tennis, and golf to his children, and showed them how to fix appliances, cars, pipes, and electrical connections. He instilled in them his adventurous spirit: over mountains, out to dams, through artichoke fields, to beaches replete with spiny sea urchins, stingrays and strong tides. He provided books, horses, dogs, cats, music, bicycles, laughter, and more books. He disciplined with a snap of his fingers and a 'Did you hear your mother?' His rendition of 'And the Tears Flowed Like Wine' healed many a skinned knee and broken heart. Family stories of Gutie's outlandish clothing and outrageous chance-taking will long be told. If he said he was doing 'Poorly', you knew he was doing just fine.

He is survived by his nine children; Mary Morgan, Carol Lagarde, Charles Gutekunst, Yvonne Kolarik, Christine Berard, Patricia Gutekunst, Claire Rogers, John Gutekunst and Jo Catherine Gutekunst; their spouses: Dr. Henry Lagarde, Eva Gutekunst, Dr. William Kolarik, Dan Berard, Ron Rogers, and Avis Gutekunst; his nieces Marjorie Had, Ruby Segura, and Rona O'Regan. He is fondly remembered by 17 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

The family is grateful for the assistance of St. Joseph Hospice and A First Name Basis. Our gratitude is extended to Daddy's sitters and his nurse, especially Brandi Etienne, Nicole Narcisse, and Cheryl Polite. Family requests, in lieu of flowers, books to your favorite library. As Gutie would have said, 'That's all she wrote!'

Notes for Maud Easkott (Scottie) Robinson:

St. Martinville - A Memorial Mass will be held at 10 a.m., on Tuesday, April 17, 2012, at St. Martin de Tours Catholic Church in St. Martinville, for Maude Eastcott "Scottie" Robinson Gutekunst, who died on April 15, 2012 in her home in St. Martinville, Louisiana, surrounded by her loving family. She was born on July 29, 1922 in Cade, LA to George and Maude Robinson. A gathering of family and friends will be held from 4 p.m. until 9 p.m. on Monday and continue on Tuesday at 7 a.m. until 9:30 a.m., at Pellerin Funeral Home in St. Martinville. A rosary will be recited at 7p.m. on Monday. Fr. Donald Pousson will officiate at the Memorial Mass. Scriptures will be read by Henry Lagarde and Gerry LeBlanc.

She leaves behind her beloved husband of 67 years, Octave Otto Gutekunst, Jr.; nine children: Mary Morgan, Carol Lagarde, Charles Gutekunst, Yvonne Kolarik, Christine Berard, Patricia Gutekunst, Claire Rogers, John Gutekunst, and Jo Catherine Gutekunst; their spouses: Hank Lagarde, Eva Gutekunst, Bill Kolarik, Dan Berard, Ron Rogers, and Avis Gutekunst. She is also remembered by seventeen grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren, and nephew, John Steven Selby.

She was preceded in death by her parents, George Albert Victor Robinson and Maude Therese Steckler Robinson; her sister, Dorothy Steckler Robinson Selby; and her son-in-law, Elemore Morgan, Jr.

Well-known for her reserve and her strict sense of fair-play, Scottie was loved by her family for her warm love, her sense of humor, her intellect, and her ability to get any joke, some of which she generated herself. Her mother-in-law, Mrs. Octave Gutekunst, Sr., would say in her French accent, "Oh that Scottie, she is so good to her children, she treats them like company." She loved to be visited by family and friends and had an ongoing concern for life to work out well for others. She read everything and could sew or knit anything. Scottie started her career as a Chemistry and English teacher, but spent most of her life educating children and grandchildren. She was almost unbeatable at Crazy Eights, could recommend a variety of books people might want to read, and delighted in seeing new places, whether they be castles in Scotland or the sand gravel pit in Parks. Tea on Wednesday nights was always best when someone brought new jokes, a crazy obituary, or a friend she didn't know yet. She will be greatly missed.

Pellerin Funeral Home, 112 New Market St., St. Martinville, Louisiana 70582, is in charge of arrangements.
