Notes for Charles A. McCune:

Charles L. McCune, an old employee of the Shellabager Mill &Elevator company, and one of the best machinists and millwrights in the business, died very suddenly in a boarding house at Mattoon Thursday night August 31, 1911, probably early in the evening. Last Sunday Mr. McCune left Decatur, apparently in perfect health, to build an elevator at Mattoon. Nothing more was heard from him until the message came announcing his death. The message came over the telephone to D. S. Shellabarger.

Mr. McCune had worked all day Thursday in his usual health and was not taken sick until after he had eaten supper. Then he complained of a very severe pain in his stomach, and before a physician could be summoned, he died. His brother-in-law, W. A. Phares, and Earl Dodd left Thursday night for the body and they were expected back some time today. His wife is visiting relatives in Ohio. She was notified last evening of his death and left this morning for Decatur. She is expected home this evening.

Charles McCune was born August 14, 1845, in Sangamon County. After a varied career in the west, he returned to Decatur in the ‘70’s and embarked in the contacting business, erecting elevators and other buildings. A few years later he accepted a position with Shellabarger company and for thirty-four years was in its employ. He assisted in the construction of the mill on North Water Street. He married on Feb. 29, 1877, Miss Barbara Stabler. One child was born to them, Mrs. W. A. Phares.

Mr. McCune was a member of Coeur de Leon lodge, No 189, K. P. and of the Decatur lodge, No. 144, W.M.A. He was also a member of the Grace Methodist church. He is survived by his wife, daughter and one granddaughter, and by the following brothers and sisters: Clay McCune of Springfield; Robert McCune of Orean; Will McCune, Carthage, Missouri; Elmira Flagg, Pittsburg, Kansas, and Anna McCune of Jacksonville.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Earl B. Dodd and W. A. Phares returned from Mattoon yesterday morning August 31, 1911 with the body of Charles McCune, the well-known carpenter, who died suddenly in that place Thursday. The body was taken to the Dodd undertaking establishment. Funeral services probably will be conducted Sunday afternoon. The burial will be in Greenwood cemetery. Mr. McCune was widely known in Decatur because of his long residence in this city. Being a veteran mill builder and carpenter, he was acquainted with scores of workmen and members of building crafts. He was a member of Coeur De Leon Lodge No. 189, Knights, of Pythias, and Decatur lodge No. 144, Modern Woodmen of America.

Besides his wife, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. W. A. Phares, and one granddaughter. He also leaves three brothers and two sisters. They are, Robert McCune of Oreana, Clay McCune of Springfield, Will McCune of Carthage, Missouri, Mrs. Elmira Flagg of Pittsburg, Kansas, and Miss Anna McCune of Jacksonville.

May 12, 1916 - An order authorizing W. A. Phares as executor of the last will of Mary Mackordes to pay $1 into the county to be held in trust for George Mackordes, has been entered by Judge J. H. McCoy. As executor of the will Mr. Phares filed a petition asking for an order to that effect. He related that the will if Mary Mackordes had bequeathed the sum of $1 to her to her son, George Mackordes, that the beneficiary had been absent from this neighborhood for many years, that one knew his whereabouts, or whether he was alive or dead, and for that reason, as a step necessary in the settlement of the estate, he asked to be authorized to dispose of the one dollar legacy. The dollar will remain in the custody of County Treasurer John F. Schroll and succeeding county treasurers until the missing man comes and proves ownership.

For more than 45 years "Lou" Fribourg had been an active figure in Decatur. For many years Mr. Fribourg was one of the most active members of the Odd Fellow of Decatur, and during that period his store was headquarters for members of that fraternity when they were "down town" during early evening hours. In 1910 he was census supervisor of the 19th congressional district and for six years during Dar Dindeen's term as mayor, served as desk sergeant in police headquarters. In December 1921 he was appointed one of the field men in the office of the state prohibition enforcement officer, and was in that service in Chicago when he was stricken with apoplexy.

L. W. Fribourg was born in Lawrenceburg, Indiana, Dec, 2, 1854. He was married to Miss Henrietta Stabler in Decatur, Nov. 24, 1880. She died in 1890. His second marriage was with Miss Alice Billinger in 1891. She died in 1916.

He leaves three children, David A. Fribourg, and Mrs. L. W. Stuckey, Decatur, and Mrs. Morris R. Goodwin, of Villa Grove. Also he leaves two sisters, Mrs. William Friedenberger and Mrs. M. Friedman, of Dallas, Texas. He was a member of Decatur lodge 65. I.O.O.F., since 1885 and was a charter member of Decatur camp. Modern Woodmen, and a charter member of the Cigar Makers' union No. 20 of Decatur.

829 viii. Robert W. Butchee, born 03 Sep 1860 in Polk Co, Texas; died 07 Oct 1883 in Sipe Spring, Comanche Co, Texas.

Notes for Robert W. Butchee:
October 7, 1883 - Oakland church, six miles from Sipe Springs, in this county, was the scene of a dark and terrible tragedy last Sunday evening. The following is the most reliable report of the deplorable affair we have been able to obtain: Just after the congregation had left Oakland Church last Sunday, to attend a baptizing, Robert and William Butchee became involved in a quarrel with their brother-in-law, Carter Harris. One word brought on another until Robert told Harris that “he would fight him a fair fight.” Harris then turned off into the brush if toward his horse, as he was going after something. The young men and a man name Jones were left together. One of the brothers suggested that they all go on home and avoid further difficulty with Harris.

The party stated, but before they had gone far Harris returned with a gun (which he had hidden in the brush) and called to them to "hold on." The young men stopped, but Jones kept on. Robert Butchee stated to meet Harris, when the latter said, "If you come any further I'll kill you." Robert stopped and replied, "I will not come any further, then," having previously told Harris that he and his brother were both unarmed. After a few more words, Harris leveled his gun and shot the young man, inflecting a mortal wound in the stomache. As Jones looked back, he saw Harris shoot and Robert Butchee fall. Harris then cocked the other barrel of this gun, with the evident intention of shotting William, but before he could do so, the young man wither struck the murderer with a rock or sprang like a tiger upon him, and the two strongmen were locked in a death struggle the ferocity of which is hard to describe, rising and falling and rolling in the dust with all the fury of wounded lions, each straining every nerve to kill each other. There is something terribly grim in a struggle like that – it means life for one, death for the other – and the silence is broken by hisses and curses of hate and revenge, mingled with the groans of the dying brother. Both fought within cool desperation that was awful to witness, but the furious fight was finally decided in favor of William Butchee, a boy of nineteen or twenty, who wrenched the gun from Harris's hands and struck him a violent blow over the head, felling him to the ground. As Harris would rise, young Butchee used the gun as a cudgel with terrible effect. Harris soon sank to the earth disabled, and his antagonist thought him dead. His injuries on the head are dangerous, but not necessarily fatal. Physicians think he will recover. Robert Butchee died in about an hour after being shot, his remains were brought to Comanche Monday and buried in the cemetery near town on Tuesday. He was about 23 years of age, and his sad end is greatly deplored by many sorrowing relatives and friends.

October 7, 1883 – It seems that Carter Harris had married the widowed sister of the young men, and the pair recently separated on account of cruel treatment to the woman and her little children. Harris has been a source of great annoyance to the family ever since, and it is said, he went to the church last Sunday with the avowed intention of killing Robert and William Butchee. If reports are correct, there will be a damning chain of evidence drawn around Mr. Harris in the criminal court. Harris was brought to town Thursday evening and lodged in jail, to await trail. William Butchee gave bond and will have an examining trial before Judge Brewer today.

Notes for Johann Ludwig (Lewis) Staebler, Jr.:
J. Louis Staebler, Sr., was born in Germany in 1820, and died in Cooper County, Missouri, in 1903. The ancestral seat of the Stabler family is at or near Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany. Mr. Staebler immigrated to America in 1853 and settled near Urbane, Campaign Co, Ohio, at that time, was in a more or less wooded condition and the forests in process of clearing. The soil was wet and malaria was prevalent among the settlers and residents. Mr. Staebler became afflicted with malaria and was advised by his family doctor to go west, entirely out of the malaria-ridden country.

He had friends in Missouri and learned through them of the excellence of the climate in the Cooper County neighborhood. Accordingly, his disposed of his property in Ohio, and drove across country in company with two other families, their belongings being carried in six wagons. In 1859, Mr. Staebler brought his belongings to Missouri with two teams and lived for the first two years on a farm south of Boonville and Cooper County in 1863, the Confederates raided the Staebler farm, stripped the farm and home of provisions and livestock and feed, and robbed him of his money and all his possessions. A battle was fought near the Staebler place between the Union forces under General Kratz Brown and Price's men. In 1873 he located on the farm owned by his son, J. Louis Staebler, Jr. His wife was Christina Graver. She was born near Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1833 and departed this life January 20, 1917. J. Louis Staebler was the only child of his parents.

Barbara[5] Frueh, Anna Maria[4] Grauer, Martin[3], Sebastian[2], Martin[1]) was born 24 Sep 1839 in Jettenburg, Tuebingen, Wurtemberg, and died 22 May 1913 in Edon, Williams Co, Ohio. He married (2) Caroline Kline 11 Sep 1902 in Edon, Williams Co, Ohio. She was born 06 Jun 1852 in New York, and died 1915 in Williams Co, Ohio.

Notes for Christoph Walz:
In 1883 the deceased with his family migrated to America, settling down on a farm 3-1/2 miles southwest of Edon, Williams Co, Ohio where he remained to the day of his death. It was here that he experienced his share of the settler's life. It was on this farm that he saw his children grow up. It was here also that his wife in 1901 was called from his side by death. The following year he was married to Mrs. Caroline Lump, who survives him. About 6 or 7 years ago he became afflicted with asthma, and his breathing difficulties served considerably to bind him to his house. He seems not to have left home except in cases on necessity unless he was urged to do so. On May 10, while returning from a visit in the dark, he was thrown from his buggy and injured and was compelled to lie on the ground for several hours of a cold night before help arrived. The pain casued by the fall and the exposure, the numbness of this body together with his breathing difficulties cased him considerable misery, yet it seemed as though he would recover, when pnreumonia set in and rapidly carried him toweard his grave. He died on Thursday, May 22, at 6:30 in the morning. He reached the age of 73 years, 7 months, and 29 days. He is survived by his second wife, 4 sons, and 2 daughters, a great many grandchildren and many othe relatives. Funeral services wer held on Saturday, May 24, from the Lutheran Church. Interment was made in Edon Cemtery.

Notes for Johann Georg Grauer:
An engine and caboose running west of Oxford struck Hohnsyrk Grauser, a farmer living a couple of miles west of town. He had been in Oxford and was on his way home, walking up the track. It is supposed he became weary and, sitting down on the end of a tie, went to sleep. At any rate he made no move when the whistle sounded until struck in the side by the engine. He died at his home.

Notes for Albert Edward (Dal) Grauer:
Chancellor Albert Edward Grauer:

The death of an outstanding man at the height of his powers may call forth admiring testimony to the brilliance of his achievements, or it may call forth a warn eulogy on his qualities of mind and character. On occasion, such testimony and such eulogy combine, in a widespread recognition of the elements of greatness. Such occasion was the death of Albert Edward Grauer, on July 28, 1961, at the age of fifty-five.

The mature balance of forces seen in him was early forecast in the award od a Rhodes Scholarship, with its traditional fourfold stress on academic distinction, athletic prowess, good character, and the promise of leadership. Fulfillment came as expected, and came quickly. As the young professor and Head of the Social Science Department at the University of Toronto, Dal Grauer acquired the knowledge and the prestige that made him a logical choise to assist the work of the Bank of Canada and of the Rowell-Sirois Commission.

Appointed Secretary of the British Columbia Electric Company in 1939, he rose rapidly to become President, yet the far-reaching programs of expansion to which he applied his great gifts of organization and administration did not prevent him from serving his community as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Vancouver General Hospital and as President of the Vancouver Symphony Society, and his country as member of the Gordon Commission.

Elected Chancellor of his own University in 1957, and thereby bringing to that office the rare and happy blend of a distinguished academic career and subsequent broad experience of the world of men and affairs, he had his own vision of excellence for the University and strove to help it meet the challenges of its time. For his vision and his efforts we honour him. His death is a grievious loss to the University of British Columbia as well as to the people of the province as a whole.

The list of a man's achievements pays tribute to his abilities. EVen more striking, and more moving, is the universal witness to his qualities of character. Imagination, sensitivity, modesty, dignity and courtesy - these are the words that have seemed inevitable in their fitness, and have been unanimous in thier choisce. The imagination he brought to his business affairs helped him plan well for the economic development of the province, and equally fostered its social and cultural growth. His modesty and sensitivity helped men accept and support the boldness of his imaginaton. Dignity and coutesy were but two sides of a humane belief in the worth of the individual man and found expression in his family life and in personal friendship as well as in the meeting of minds upon complex problems. These virtues are those of the truly gentle man. To find them so exemplified is to re-affirm ideals that the human spirit has cherished. Mingled with regret at the untimely death oaf Dal Grauer is grateful awareness that the mind and chareacater of such a man offeer, to all who knew or met him, support for faith in the potential of human nature.

Notes for Johann Georg (Stierle) Stearley:

George Stearley, a native of Germany, born at Wittenberg, January 27, 1848, coming with the family to this country in 1851. George was brought up to hard work on the farm, in Jackson Township, with but meager educational advantages. At twenty-two years of age he apprenticed himself to the blacksmith trade, at Bowling Green, and later located at Asherville, where he carried on smithing up to 1880, when he sold his shop and business to a younger brother and engaged in saw-milling and the lumber trade. October 20, 1869, he married Miss Elizabeth Dutell, from whom he afterward acquired a fair education. In 1876 he was elected trustee of Jackson Township and re-elected in 1878, serving four years in this capacity. In 1880, in the county convention held in June, at Bowling Green, he was nominated by the Democratic party for sheriff, but defeated at the general election. In 1882 he was again, nominated for the same place and elected, then re-nominated and re-elected in 1884. At the expiration of his official service he retired to the farm, where he afterwards founded the town of Stearleyville, on the line of the Center Point division of the Vandalia Railroad, where he continued to reside until the year 1900, when he sold all his property interests here and moved to Oklahoma, where lie purchased lands for the members of his family and himself and engaged, also, in the real estate business for a time at Oklahoma City, where he now resides. Fraternally, he is a member of the Masonic Order, the Knights of Honor and the Knights of Labor.

George died April 4, 1930 from injuries sustained from being hit by a street car in Oklahoma City.

Counties of Clay and Owen, Indiana: Historical and biographical. Edited by Charles Blanchard; Chicago – F. A. Batty & Company, Publishers, 1884. Page 387:

George Stearley , Sheriff of Clay County, Indiana, was born in Wuerttemberg, Germany, on Jan. 27, 1848, and is the son of John & Rosanna (Burkhart) Stearley , natives of Germany. The father was a weaver by trade, but followed farming after his marriage, and came to this country in 1851.

George was reared on a farm, and had no opportunities for an education whatever, but the knowledge he possesses he acquired through his own perseverance, aided by an intellectual and educated wife, since his marriage. He worked for his father until he was twenty-two, then branched out for himself; learned the blacksmith trade at Bowling Green, the then county seat of Clay County, following this business until 1880, when he sold his shop to a younger brother and engaged in the saw mill business, which he still manages.

On October 20, 1869, he married Elizabeth Duteel, daughter of August and Josephine Duteel , of Clay County. To them have been born seven children, five of whom are living, viz.: William, Josephine, Lena, Louisa and an infant unnamed. He was elected Trustee of Jackson Township, Clay County, in 1876; was re-elected in 1878. Before the expiration of this last term his popularity secured him, at the hands of the regular Democratic Convention, the nomination for Sheriff of Clay County, but a revolution in politics having taken place, he was defeated, with the whole Democratic ticket. But Mr. Stearley possessed true courage and an invincible will; in 1882, again entered the field for Sheriff, was victor, and is now filling the office with credit and ability.

Mr. Stearley has accumulated a considerable amount of this world's goods, but his kind and benevolent traits of character have been a financial disadvantage to him, inasmuch as they have compelled him liquidate debts of his friends amounting to several thousands of dollars. He and his family are members of the German Evangelical Church. He is also a member of the Masonic fraternity, the Knights of Honor, and the Knights of Labor.

Stearleyville, a town - site, station and former postoffice in the south part of Jackson township, on the line of the Center Point division of the Vandalia Railroad, two miles north of Center Point, so named for the reason that it was founded by George Stearley, on his premises in 1891. The postoffice was established in 1892, and discontinued in 1902 succeeded by rural delivery. The postmasters were James T. Carrithers and Edward Shults. The first business house was erected on the south-east corner of the crossing, on the premises of Dr. B. F. Holmes, which was burned several years later, when Stearley put up a business room on the opposite or northwest corner of the crossing, which is still occupied. The merchants of the place have been Edward Arnink, John Hoffman, Stigler Brothers and Edward Shults. A German Reform church was erected here, known as St. Peters, perhaps prior to the founding of the town-plat.

There was a railroad depot, store, church and several dwellings. A blacksmith shop was started by George Stearley II and then operated by his brother Roy Stearley. Around 1900 there were so many offspring of the Stearleys in the area, it prompted a local saying that "Clay County was made up of Stearleys and Ragwheeds."

Oklahoma City, April 16, 1930 – Will of the late George Stearley, it listed property valued at $30,000. The will provides that the property shall be divided evenly between five daughters, Josephine Schafer of Brazil, Indiana, Magdalena Deardorf, Rosa Harrison, Louise Johnson and Frances Garlick, all of Oklahoma City, and one son, W. F. Stearley also of Brazil.

She married (2) Frank Burnett Rose Bef. 1920. He was born 28 Nov 1852 in New York, and died 13 Mar 1928.

Notes for Catherine Margaret (Katie) Stabler:

I, Catherine Rose Stabler, was asked by the Superintendent of Wind Cave, South Dakota to write my experiences while there as lady guide and explorer from 1891 through 1902 and the season of 1913 (cook and guide). I became interested in Geology from a small square of striped sandstone my father, John Stabler, picked up at Chatanuga (Chattanooga), Tennessee in 1864. He had carried it through the end of the Civil War and gave it to me when I was quite young.

My father, John Stabler, one of five children, was born of George and (sic) Margret Stabler in a part log house (still there) near a mill pond near Mifflin, Junita Co., (sic) Pennsylvania in 1847. His father owned a blacksmith shop. He died when Papa (John Stabler), the youngest of five, was quite young. His mother married Jake Meintzer and moved near Broadhead, Wisconsin. When Papa was 16 he ran away from home and joined the 7th Wisconsin, Cavalry. He was wounded at Chattanooga, Tennessee and discharged at end of Civil War.He met my mother Lydia Raymer, daughter of a very religious family, of Rock City, Illinois(1867-1866). They were married and had six children, all deceased except myself, three brothers older and 2 sisters younger.

In 1871, with their three sons, they went out west in a covered wagon where Papa acquired a grant of land from the government at MiddleCreek, Nebraska. Near Melford where 2 of Papa's sisters lived on farms and also Mother's brother lived in Melford. The youngest son, only a baby, tumbled out of the back of the wagon while enroute. It was several miles later that they missed him. They retraced their tracks and found that someone had rescued him and were waiting for them. Papa was building a house and had not completed the kitchen. It still had it's dirt floor. Mother needed some soap and as she was about to step onto this dirt floor, she remembered she had some. Father saw a white flash, (it was night) and went over and killed a large rattlesnake. Then on morning, (while the kitchen was still being built) as she was starting breakfast on the outdoor fireplace, she reached for the frying pan and there curled up was a rattlesnake. Those were the dry years and grasshoppers came in clouds, they would settle on a piece of grain and eat it to the roots, lay their eggs in the ground and rise up in a cloud and fly to a fresh field. They left bare cornstalks and dry pits on peach trees. We lived on barley coffee which Mother roasted, game Papa shot and a very few groceries. Our folks back east sent us barrels of clothes, bedding, nuts and necessities. Papa was a carpenter walking five miles each way for $1 per day. Mother was a tailoress and made clothes for people. She also pieced a quilt of calico, some material from the Civil War days. This quilt is being handed down to my great-grand daughter. One morning while Mother was getting breakfast, she saw a prairie chicken on the fence and called Papa who grabbed his gun and shot it. She skinned it and had it cooking before it's muscles stopped twitching.

The youngest son, Raymer, died the summer of 1873 and I was born October 29, 1872. The town of Middle Creek burned and all records were lost. I never got a birth certificate. When rebuilt it was named Pleasant Dale.In 1874 we moved to Hastings, Nebraska where Papa and a Mr. Deisher went into the implement business. Country was new and crops good, lots of machinery was needed, so they made good. My two sisters were born here. While living here, I remember being sent to town on an errand. In the park, I witnessed and had to pass a man being hung.They sold out in the fall of 1879 and moved to Lincoln, Nebraska where Papa started to make machinery in the prison with convict help. I remember attending the circus and riding on Jumbo's back. Also Jumbo being killed by a train and saving her baby elephant by throwing her over her back. It was at this fair that Papa had an exhibit of his machinery and had built a spiral stair case. The first of its kind and a great curiosity which drew large crowds. The Indian performances were next to his exhibit and they made me an Indian Queen. Also my cousin Harry Raymer age 3 months and weighing 33 lbs. was the prize winning largest baby. I took care of him one afternoon while mother and my aunt were shopping. He cried all the time they were gone and I had to walk the floor with him. I was sure tuckered.

Papa's (sic) buisness here was not a success as the convict help was not satisfactory and also the bank where Papa had his money went broke. (The bank president absconded with the money).We bought a home in East Lincoln and Papa went on the road selling machinery. He made good, but wanted a (sic) buisness of his own. While here I remember the blizzard of 1888. We went to school a mile from home and it had started to snow after lunch. By 2:30, traffic was stopped. Our teachers had all children living in one direction take hold of hands and walk in middle of road. Schools in country, teachers, and children stayed in school, breaking up furniture to burn. Others started out with the children and not reaching home, some died, others climbed into haystacks to keep warm.

The next fall after the blizzard of '88, we moved to Chamberlain, South Dakota and ran a hotel, The Brule. The Sioux Indian track of land was being opened for homesteads by the government. Before the rush for these government claims our house was full all of the time. The winter of 1890 and '91, the last Indian war, the Battle of Wounded Knee, every woman and child who could afford to go, left until the battle was over. I remember one Saturday night twelve Indian chiefs stayed in our house until Monday morning as no trains left on Sunday and Chamberlain was the end of the line. We had a small room across the hall from the office where they smoked pipes and pow-wowed. They were great eaters. We left them in the dining room after all other guests were gone and then put everything we had cooked on the tables and they ate and ate. They got up and shook themselves and sat down and ate again. They were on their way to Washington to see the White Father and negotiate peace.

One morning word came that Sitting Bull was on the boat that just came in so everybody rushed down to see him. He was smart, shut himself in his cabin and charged people 50¢ to see him.Not far from Chamberlain was Mitchell, South Dakota where I remember visiting the Corn Palace, the only one in the world. Also took boat trips up the Missouri to the Crow Indian reservation and went to the Indian's church. Most of them sat outside and hunted lice on their children's heads and cracked them between their teeth. Visited the beef issue across the Missouri and saw the cattle slaughtered and divided among the Brule Indians. The Indian children would run around sucking the entrails. After the crowds had filed on their homesteads, (sic) buisness dropped off so Papa sent Charles, my younger brother, with a party to Hot Springs, S.D. to look up a location. He found the Hotel Parrot on the right side of the court house almost finished and rented it. Papa packed our furniture in two freight cars and shipped them to Hot Springs. Then he bought a covered wagon, team of horses and equipment, found another family, the Vet Schofields, to share the trip, and we started on a very interesting trip. Our party consisted of Father, Mother with four children and son's wife, The Schofields and their three children. Later their baby was the first child to go in Wind Cave. Mrs. Schofield is living now in Hot Springs as Mrs. Gregory. We crossed the Missouri on a ferry, then over the Wounded Knee battle grounds which had been fought three months before. We found a few Indian war relics and ran into several war parties with their war paint on. The drinking water was a problem. We would fill our barrels only to find it bitter and would have to dump it. The Bad Lands were just Indian trails and gumbo (mud). When it would rain it clung to the wagon wheels until they were a foot or more wide and would have to scrape it off. Luckily there was a store in the heart of the badlands as we used up all our food in just one week. We thought we had brought enough for the two weeks it would take us to get through these badlands. Brother George shot some game which was scarce. To me the bad lands looked like a large winding dry river that dropped 20 to 40 feet with a wall on each side gulches which made going through two states forming a ring around it with only a few passes to enter. It was a geologist paradise with (sic) petrfied snakes, fish, toads, birds, (sic) lizzards, etc., beautiful crystals of all colors, and shapes. Rustlers used to drive stock there, keep the breeders and rebrand them as there was good grazing in parts and very hard to find the stock. There was Lame Johnny Creek which was named after a rustler who was caught and was hung there. Mother caught poison ivy which covered her body, and she nearly died before we could get to a doctor. Before we got to Buffalo Gap we were pounded twice within an hour by hail stones. The stones piled up to the horses knees, broke some the wagon staves and made black bruises on our hands where I had tried to up hold up the canvas.Next day we arrived in Hot Springs and drove to the Hotel Parrot, found our furniture stored in the basement so we moved in there while we cleaned and furnished the rooms. Then we opened to the public, we had all we could take care of.

Just six weeks after the hailstorms of our trips, we were struck again. We hurried to get sick people and guests out as it broke all windows on the North side and blew down the chimney. It had battered the headboards which stood across the rooms. This storm flooded the Fall River which runs through Hot Springs which is warm water and Cold Brook which is cold and met just above the plunge bath. My brother, his wife and my sisters and many of our guests were in this plunge bath when the storm struck. It washed out bridges, broke the glass roof over the plunge bath and the tower. They scurried to shelter and had a rough time finding their clothes as lights had gone out. The B. & M. Railroad came in the west end of town and the Northwestern came up from Buffalo Gap and very often, each year they would be washed out and then repaired at a great expense.

Some time that first summer of 1891 Papa went out to Wind Cave. There were no stairs and they went down a rope and did a lot of climbing and crawling. He was very much interested in it and saw great possibilities for development. It was occupied by a Mr. McDonald (a squatter), who had been sent by Mr. Folsom, head of a mining company, to do the assessment work. He jumped the claim and took it as a homestead. This was unknown to my father at this time or he would not have bought into the cave. McDonald's family were starving, very hardup, and was very anxious for someone to invest money in the developing of the cave. He sold Papa one-half (sic) intrest and we sent out wagon loads of food several times.

The entrance to the cave was in a deep gulch. The original opening was a small oval hole about 8"x12" worn smooth by water spouting out a geyser, (9) a geyser 12 mi. south of H.S. (at Cascade live) There are others south of Hot Springs and geologists who came from all over the world said there were so many signs of it's being an extinct geyser. The story went that two Bingham brothers hunting rabbits camped for the night on top of the gulch and while one brother made camp and got supper, his brother went down into the gulch hunting and heard this wind coming out of a hole but covered with brush and debris washed there by floods. So he scraped away the brush and as he looked into the hole, the wind took his hat up into the air. He ran back to camp and told his brother that all hell had broken loose down in the gulch. In the morning they decided to take another look at this hole, and as they neared the spot, the first man threw his hat toward the hole and said "Watch it go up!" but the wind had changed and took the hat in. They never saw the hat again. We found out later that this wind was governed by atmospheric pressure and turned out to be a true (sic) arometer. Clear days it blew out and the longer it was going to be clear, the stronger the wind. As a storm approached, the wind blew in and the closer the storm got the stronger the wind.

Later a log house was built over the hole which had been blasted near the original discovery. The front room being directly over it and near the trap door made in the floor and steps built down 155 feet to the first passage of cave. The wind blew so strong at times it took two of us to raise or lower this door according which way the wind blew and after it got to the first level, there was no strong wind but a regular system of circulation. Some routes of wind going in and some coming out. In fact, we used this draft to aid us in exploring. All of the rooms had two to a dozen openings and we could take our candle and put it in each opening and the one with the strongest draft indicated the largest country ahead. We carried a ball of twine which one end we tied to a rock as it was so easy to get lost.

The cave as we knew it was a number of crevices where we found the large rooms (running N.W. to S.E. - 50 to 150 ft. apart) connected by ovens, as we called them, crawling on our knees and sometimes pulling ourselves through on our (sic) stomachs. Many times we would have to make a bridge of our bodies for the others to cross on. We kept ourselves well padded, where needed. Papa made a code signaling by tapping rocks. One tap – two taps – three taps and then two and a one tap – all meaning something like Come, I've found a new room; I am lost; Am in the dark, etc. I still have this code that Papa made me.

I loved to explore and seldom missed a trip. It was a great thrill to go into a room anywhere from 12' x 12' to 3 acres of floor surface that no one had ever set eyes on before. The ceiling and sided festooned with beautiful formations, sparkled like diamonds, large rocks strewn everyplace and fun to make out images of faces, animals, etc.. The floors were as clean as the walls and showed no dirty water had flowed through, but all the water had gone up. On one occasion we were in there 18 hours with temperature of about 45 degrees. When we became tired we rested, but we never caught cold. In fact, we had some (sic) asthamatic people stay with us to go down and breath that air.

One experience I remember, Papa and I were exploring and had, it seems, been in the cave about two hours or more. The first part of the trip is pretty hazy to me, but I distinctly remember coming to a small room about 12 feet around shaped like an Indian (sic) teepee, the center having a strong draft. Papa had become tired and laid down to rest. (We often went to sleep when tired in cave and never caught cold) I looked down this hole and seeing some rocks that I thought I could reach with my feet, let myself down, my arms resting on the floor until I got my balance. I sat down and lit some magnesium ribbon which I used in large rooms while guiding. I was greatly thrilled being the first person in a room no one had ever been or seen before. It was truly beautiful. It was a very high room, about 100 feet by 50 feet wide. A portion of the ceiling about 30 feet by 15 feet had fallen just about the middle and in falling cracked open. It had their (sic) irredesent chocolate colored crystals found no other place in the cave. The rest of the room including the floor was covered with what we called Satin Spar which glistened like diamonds. The (sic) pretiest room I ever expect to find this side of heaven. I called Papa and after exploring the room further, we gathered some of the loose pieces of crystals and started our long hard crawl out. As far as I know this room was never named as it was hard to get there and was not shown.

There were three routes opened the first being The Garden of Eden in the winter of 1891 and 92. Many of the rooms were named by the guides and many more were named by the visitors themselves. The Prairie Dog and Mound was named by one of the guides who picked up a large rock which looked like the shape of a prairie dog and placed it on this mound; Snow Ball, many shapes of snowballs; Post Office, little boxes lined walls; M.E. Church, our first stop in guiding to rest and we generally sang a song. Odd Fellow's Hall, we had to cross a stone which looked like a turtle so this was named Turtle Pass. The Cross Roads, we branched off to the right to go the Garden of Eden. One room had large stones we sat on and called this room Stone Quarries. The G.A.R. Hall was named by a group of G.A.R. members who were guided through as were the Eastern Star, Odd Fellow's Hall, W.C.T.U. Hall, Union College rooms and many others.

The second route, the Fair Grounds started at the Crossroads. This route was opened in 1892-93 and so named after Papa guided Billie Bryan and (sic) Govenor Lee through the Cave. The following newspaper clipping tells the story.

John Stabler surely captivated Gov. Lee when he visited the cave last summer for besides being appointed as an Omaha exposition commissioner, John has also been named as a delegate to Stock Grower's Association at Denver on Jan. 25, 26 and 27. (1893) In speaking to Billie Bryan, Papa once said "I wish I might talk like you". Billie Bryan answered "I wish I might laugh like you".

Another newspaper clipping reads: A Transmississippi State Commission Governor Lee has appointed a new Omaha exposition commission for this state, as follows: Vice-Pres. A. McKinney, Lead; W.L. Gardner, Rapid City; Harris Franklin, Martin Chapman and Charles Davis, Deadwood; John Stabler, Hot Springs; Hance Murphy, Elk Point; C.A. Jewitt, Sioux Falls; O.H. Mann, Okobojo; Hugh Smith, Howard. The governor says that he will appoint additional members of the board at the earliest opportunity and will call the commission together and devise some means of raising money for making a state exhibit. The governor certainly made no mistake in naming John Stabler, of this place, for he can make an attractive exhibition alone if necessary – with his Wind Cave Specimens – and he no doubt will. (Sent large collection to the Smithsonian Inst. Wash.) John Stabler did have an exhibition of specimens at the State-Fair and so named the room State Fair Route. Among the Fair Grounds route rooms was the Kimball Music Hall where you could tap the columns and play an octave. Johnstone's Campground – Where Johnstone, the mind reader, slept on his three day journey through the cave for the pin head. Then we heard of Mr. Johnstone, the mind reader, coming to Hot Springs, driving through the streets blind folded and found a name in a register at a certain hotel. The name belonged to the man whose mind he read. My father met him and asked him if he thought he could find something hidden in the cave. He said "Yes". So they made arrangements for the trial. A business man of Hot Springs, Mr. Germond and Alva McDonald, our chief guide, hid the head of a scarf pin in the cave. Meanwhile Mr. Johnstone stayed in his hotel room in Hot Springs and the next morning with his manager Mr. Germond and the Associated Press reporter with Mr. Johnstone blindfolded got in an opened spring wagon. Mr. Johnstone drove the 12 miles of very bad roads in 45 minutes. This drive usually took us 1½ to 2 hours to drive. One of the horses dropped dead, the other one was never any good afterwards.

Brother Charles's wife and I saw the horse drop. As he entered the hotel he took a razor from my brother's hand (my brother was shaving my father) and shaved a few stokes. We all looked scared to death. At the table he wanted anything he would name it and touch the man next to him and reach for it before anyone else could.When he went down to the cave entrance, he sat on the step leading down in the cave and cried "I've lost my power" repeating it several times. Finally, still blindfolded, he jumped up and said "Come, I see the way". He flew down the stairs dragging the man who had the other end of string tied to his wrist. We knew where they were all of the time as we sent a guide a distance behind them in case they should get lost. This guide carried blankets to sleep on and food to places he knew they would pass. They were three days and nights and were getting exhausted, so Alva took them to the place where the pinhead was hidden. Mr. Johnstone, still blindfolded, took the pinhead up on the end of his knife blade and put it in Mr. Germond's hand. Our boys took a stretcher in, but when they got to the Post Office, they heard them coming so they stepped beside the wall and when Johnstone still in the lead, passed he didn't see them but Gerome did. Johnstone immediately said "I don't need that stretcher, watch the path".

Later when Papa got very sick, we sent for Mr. Johnstone and he hypnotized him with the thought that his pain was all gone. That really helped him more than doctors and medicine.Another room was Alpine Pass was so winding sometimes called the Merry-go-Round.

The third route, the Pearly Gates, was opened in 1892 and was so named by my brother-in-law (Mamie's husband) Oscar Merwin. He said it reminded him of what the Pearly Gates would look like. The Blue Grotto of the Pearly Gates route had a 500 foot level, the lowest we had ever been. The Raymer room named by my Grandfather Raymer when he went through the cave at the age of 81. He died at age 89.

The Wind Cave Hotel, as it was called, my father first built on a hill. It was a two story house and after moving it down off the hill Papa added two wings. One for an office and one for kitchen and two bedrooms. The lower part of the original building we used as a dining room and we served dinner to all who wanted. My brother, George, ran this hotel for the first year until papa could sell out in Hot Springs. Besides buying the half-(sic) intrest in the claim, my two brothers, brother- in-law, and myself took up homesteads to cover the surface of the cave. Also McDonald's son took up a homestead claim, McDonald having the claim which covered the entrance. George had the next claim closest to the hotel. Each claim was 320 acres consisting of 160 timber and stone, 160 tillable.

I started exploring in 1891 and also guiding a few people in the cave that first season, 1892. We explored winters and my family spent 11 winters blasting and opening routes and making them possible for women to go through without overalls. My father, mother, brother Charles and family and myself lived on my homestead. I had the deed to the only spring of water a mile away and when the stage coaches would come to water horses, they would pick me up to guide the party. Papa visited all the hotels in Hot Springs, getting people to come and tour the cave. I continued to guide steady for 11 years until 1902. Have guided many groups of students from School of Mines at (I believe) Sturgis. Also, geologists from all over the world studying the different formations, where located, etc. we would take three parties a day. At one o'clock, 5 o'clock and 12 P.M. We couldn't get the Indians to go through except one party of 10 or 12 who were in missionary work. They chanted their Indian songs all the time they were in the cave. WHERE THE WINDS PLAY

Former Stephenson County Man Finds a Mammoth Cave in the West 100 Miles Explored and the End is Not Yet – One of the World's Greatest Wonders. Rock City, Nov. 9 – Last Saturday a number of citizens of Rock City were taken by surprise when the 11:30 passenger train arrived. John Stabler, wife and daughter, who a number of years ago resided at this place, stepped off on the platform and shook hands with their many friends. Years ago, Mr. Stabler went west and settled in South Dakota. He was not expecting, at that time, that there was an underground fortune awaiting him. But an opening in mother earth was (sic) dicovered, in the form of an immense cave, and as the wind came forth with such force Mr. Stabler and a partner who was with him, concluded that they would try and enter into the opening. The result was they discovered enough to see that there was a fortune near them. So in the year 1892 a stock company was organized and Mr. Stabler was made superintendent and overseer of the cave and the name Wind Cave was the title given it. One hundred miles had been explored and yet there are new openings likely to be found. Your reporter is unable to give the names of all that has been seen and discovered in this wonderful cavern. Thousands of visitors from all parts of the world come to take a view of the wonderful sights. Mr. Stabler, the superintendent, resided ten miles from the entrance to the cave at the nearest point of railway accommodations and he has led as high as 150 persons at one time through the cave. The price for admission is one dollar for each visitor. Although this may seem to be a great speculation yet there is a large expense in erecting stairways and bridges over some of the deep crevices. Also every ten to twenty-five visitors must be furnished with a guide to conduct them through. If any of the readers of this article would like to see a large display of the relics of this cave they can do so by calling on George Raymer, of Rock City, who is the father of Mrs. John Stabler. He has one large room at his residence in Rock City that is ornamented with numerous kinds of minerals and a long list of names is given to these relics. Everybody is welcome to call at Mr. Raymer's and see these specimens. Mr. Stabler expects to remain one month before he returns home.

Newspaper Clipping1895 - A TRIP TO SOUTH DAKOTA

On Sunday morning, May 19th, after a most bountiful breakfast at the palatial Midland Hotel, Kansas City, a number of the members of the Southwest Missouri Press Association, through the kindness of The Great Burlington Route, by their gentlemanly and courteous passenger agent, Col. Ives, departed for the famed Hot Springs, S.D. From Kansas City to St. Joseph, the party was honored with the company of Mr. Harris, city passenger agent, and his beautiful wife and little daughter. After a short stay at St. Joseph, the train pulled out for the great west. A short stop was made at Lincoln, the capital of Nebraska, and the next morning at 8:40 the wonderful Hot Springs was reached. The country west of the Platte River, in Nebraska, to the foot hills in South Dakota, has a dreary look and is in reality a desert. The only vegetation visible for many miles after leaving Crawford and before reaching Edgemont was an occasional bunch of buffalo grass and sage brush. The prairie cactus was also plentiful.

On reaching Hot Springs, truly the "Carlsbad of America," the party was escorted to the Evans Hotel, the leading hotel of the place. Hot Springs is 3500 feet above sea level, and nestles in a most charming valley in the Black Hills. The scenery surrounding the city is grand and inspiring. Back of the town a short distance stands what is named "Battle Mountain", named for a terrible fight which (sic) (sic) occured years ago between the Sioux and the Cheyenne Indians for the possession of the hot springs. The city has about 3,000 inhabitants, a social, energetic and thrifty people. The buildings are modern and will compare favorably with any city in the world for beauty of architecture and convenience. The Evans Hotel, the palace resort hotel of the West, is built of pink sandstone and will accommodate 300 guests. It is equipped with all modern conveniences and is just such a home as the person seeking health, repose and comfort desires. In Hot Springs are many hotels and several fine business blocks, two newspapers, the South Dakota Soldiers' home, and many residence mansions. The great plunge bath, the wonder of the west is 275 x 150 feet. This is unquestionably the finest plunge bath in the U.S. The water temperature as it bulges from the earth is (torn) and the most glorious was torn in by man.

The after (torn) day there was devoted to a drive over the city. To our friend, Capt. A. B. Connor we are greatly indebted for this pleasure. Our better-half and daughter were the guests in a like pleasure of Col. Fred T. Evans., Capt. Connor was stationed at Fort Wyman in this city and was instrumental in the construction of the same, and also Ft. Ditty near the School of Mines. He was, after that and for many years, with Gen. Crooke and Gen. Custer. He retired from the service, but a few weeks before Gen. Custer met his death at the hands of the Savages at Big Horn. He and Col. Evans are possessors of large tracts of land adjoining Hot Springs. To Dr. W.E. Adams, Kennett F. Harris, the Stanley Bros., Congressman Lucas and others who names have escaped our memories, we are under obligations for many courtesies.

The evening was devoted to a pretty dancing party given by Col. Evans which was interspersed with music, song and story. As only a few newspapermen ever indulge in tripping the light fantastic the party was not as largely represented as Col. Evans had desired. The Burlington's travel agent, Col. G. H. Baxter, a most genial gentleman, was on and did much to make all who happened near him enjoy themselves. The next morning after a good night's rest, in two large tally-ho coaches, a large number of party started for Wind Cave, a distance of twelve miles. The owners of this wonderful handiwork of nature, Messrs. Stabler & McDonald, had us under their wing, and although the air was crisp and bracing, the distance was quickly covered by these gentlemen.

The story of the discovery of Wind Cave, which is ninety-six miles long and the most unique and wonderful cave formation in the known world, was that a hunter in 1881 chased a deer to its opening. So wonderful was the rush of air from the small opening that he returned the next day with his brother to whom he had told the story. An investigation was begun and from an original opening of eight by twelve inches, it has been enlarged to admit three men walking abreast. Twenty-five thousand dollars have been expended on inside improvements making it the finest and easiest traveled underground wonder known. There are twenty-five hundred subterranean chambers, and the contract has been closed to light everyone with electricity. A good hotel adjoins and the meals are excellent.

Our party explored this wonderful cavern to the depth of 350 feet and a distance of three and a half miles. We are utterly unable to give a description of what can be seen here. The formations are different from those found in any other cave in the known world, while their (sic) brillancy and beauty are marvelously grand. This cave has been explored ninety-seven miles, and resembles and eight-story building. All who have visited this wonderful place pronounce it the first of the known wonders of the world.

On our return from Buffalo Gap, a distance of sixty miles. Prairie-dog villages are numerous along the route. After a most refreshing bath, and an excellent dinner, the remainder of the evening was spent with billiards, genuine western hospitality led by Congressman Lucas and a delegation from Edgemont headed by Mr. Russell Thorp, and a (sic) progessive euchre party. At cards the Missourians proved themselves on par with the men in the wild and wooly west who had taken lessons from the heathen

Chinese, and won every prize but one – that a "booby".

The next morning at 8 o'clock, the sad farewell was said and (sic) accompained by a pleasant bevy of ladies and gentlemen, the train was taken for Deadwood and the vast gold field of the Black Hills.

He married Maria Sophie Von Bargen. She was born 17 Dec 1874 in Laack, Germany, and died 09 Nov 1937 in Sac City, Sac Co, Iowa.

Notes for Walter Henry Schnirring:

Feb. 3, 1940 - That good Sac county farmer. W. H. Schnirring, near Sac City, owns one of the good farms of northwest Iowa. It has taken Schnirring the greater part of 40 years to build it up to the present excellence. Schnirring is the land of farmer who realizes the necessity of keeping good livestock along with tilling the soil He has good herds of Holsteins and Brown Swiss that are the answer to his livestock problems. They do their part by filling the buckets with rich, wholesome milk and are able to do it because Schnerring is a good provider when it comes to furnishing the feed.

Children of Walter Schnirring and Maria Von Bargen are:

Maude[10] McCune (Barbara[9] Stabler, Samuel (Staebler)[8], Anna Catharina[7] Grauer, Johann Jakob[6], Johannes[5], Sebastian[4], Hans[3], Sebastian[2], Martin[1]) was born 1877 in Illinois, and died 30 Jul 1949 in New York. She married William Arthur Phares 29 Nov 1899. He was born Aft. 1870, and died Aft. 1921.

Notes for Maude McCune:

Mrs. Maude Phares, former Decatur resident, died at 5:30 p.m. Saturday July 30, 1949 in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Richard Kent of Flushing, New York. She was born in Decatur, a daughter of Charles and Barbara McCune. She married Arthur Phares here and the family moved to Indianapolis about 20 years ago. Besides her husband and daughter, she also leaves one grandson. Services and burial will be in New York.

Notes for William Arthur Phares:

Oct. 15, 1921 - W. A. (Art) Phares is absent from Decatur, his whereabouts unknown. Persons interested are checking his books and accounts admitted that appearances indicate that Phares is a defaulter to the extent of $50,000 as the minimum, and it may be $100,000. No one knows at this time and the high figures are guesses. Miss Ella Race, whose confidential business manager he had been for many years, will lose not less than $25,000, and the Pan-American Auto Co., of which he was treasurer, will doubtless have a loss of not less than $25,000.

"We know that he Is short not less than $20,000 in his accounts with our company," said Edward Danner, president of the Pan-American Co.,"but that is as far as we care to go in making positive statements. Yes, it is possible that the shortage might be as much as $40,000, but if I should say more than I have said, it would be conjecture and I prefer not to make such statements for publication. When the audit of the books has been completed we shall have positive knowledge. The audit may not be completed before the last of the month.

"The first intimation of anything wrong I had was Monday, when Mrs. Phares called me and told me of a letter forwarded to her by a relative in Indianapolis in which Art said that he was not coming back to Decatur. I got busy at once. We trusted him implicitly and felt justified in that, in view of the business path he had trod coming to our company. We liked him personally. He was absolutely in charge of his department. Knowing him to be competent, and having confidence in his honesty, we did not concern ourselves about his accounts."

W. A. Phares was for many years confidential business manager for John R. Race, and following his death acted in the same capacity for Miss Ella Race, who inherited a large part of her father's fortune. She trusted and relied upon Phares because of his long association with her father. On Oct. 8 Miss Race received by mail from Phares, then in West Baden, Indiana, the key to her safety deposit box. In that box has been found a note signed by W. A. Phares tor $24,000, payable to Miss Race. It is unsecured. The inference is that Phares used securities to the value of $24,000 and put the note in the box to square the account. Attorney Horace W. McDavid. representing Miss Race, said: "The note for $24,000 suggests the thought that Phares owes Miss Race at least that much money. How much more I do not know. There is much to be done in studying the accounts with which I have had no familiarity, for I did not handle the money end of the business. I cannot say how much it was possible for Miss Race to lose through the defalcation of Phares."

W. A. Phares left Decatur two weeks ago today, his business associates understanding that he was going to West Baden, Indiana, for a visit. It was from West Baden he wrote to an Indianapolis relative of his wife, saying he was in bad and would not return to Decatur. That letter was forwarded to Mrs. Phares in Decatur and she at once informed Edward Danner, of the Pan-American Co. Members of Mr. Phares family insist that they know nothing concerning his absence. More than 20 years ago Art Phares was bookkeeper for the Race Clothing Co., and thus became confidential man for John R. Race. About 17 years ago he entered the employ of the National Bank of Decatur and in time became cashier. He resigned his position in the bank in April 1917 to become secretary of the Pan-American company.

Playing the board is reported to have been the avenue through which Phares unloaded the easy money he was handling. That has been shown to the satisfaction of some persons by the cancelled checks found in Phares personal accounts. The statement is made too that there has been sufficient study of the accounts of Phares to show that within a period of 12 months he was one-time loser of $30,000 on the board, and that one time he was winner of $15,000, or was that much temporarily to the good. But it is admitted that even then he might have been short for no one knows how much it had been necessary for him to invest to win that $15,000. More than a year ago Edward Danner asked Phares if he was playing the board and the company secretary admitted that he one time had indulged in such high flyers, but he had abandoned the game, and his statement was accepted as truthful.

Nov. 15, 1922 - W. Arthur Phares, former official of the Fan-American Motors corporation, now serving a term in the Chester penitentiary for embezzling funds of that company, will be brought to Decatur to testify in the case of Ella Race against the National Bank of Decatur, to recover $10,000 for stock which Phares sold to H. R. Gregory, cashier of the bank. Judge Baldwin, in the circuit court Tuesday, issued a writ for the return of Phares to Decatur for the trial of the case which is scheduled to come up on Wednesday, Nov. 22. The writ was requested by Redmon, Hogan & Redmon, attorneys for the bank. Phares is being brought here to testify about his part in the deal in which he sold stock of the bank owned by Miss Race. The defense, it is hinted, will try to prove that Phares was acting as the business agent of Miss Race when be dispose or her holdings in the bank early in 1920. She claims that she knew nothing of the sale until last fall when shortages were uncovered in the affairs which were conducted for her by Phares. McDavid, Monroe & Hershey wilt represent Miss Race in the trial which is one of the most interesting on the civil docket for this term of court.

Nov. 24, 1922 - The Race-National bank of Decatur suit was continued Thursday until the January term at the suggestion of H. W. McDavid, attorney for Miss Race, who declared In an affidavit presented to the court that Arthur Phare, principal witness in the suit, changed certain statements he made to him about the affairs of Miss Race.

Mr. McDavid said that in an interview with Phares in Chester penitentiary Nov. 2, Phares told him that he sold Miss Race's stock in the bank without her authority and appropriated the funds to his own use to cover losses sustained in grain deals. A few days ago, in another interview with Phares in the Macon County jail, Phares completely changed his version of the application of the funds and made other statements, which Mr. McDavid says contradicted statements made Nov. 2. The developments made it necessary to study the case from a new angle and for this purpose Mr. McDavid requested more time, which the court granted. Phares has been here since last Saturday awaiting the trial of the case. He will be taken back to the penitentiary in a day or two. Phares has not been locked up all of the time, but has enjoyed considerable freedom, and Thursday was seen loafing in the court house corridor.

Feb. 9, 1923 - Was Arthur Phares, who is now serving time in Chester penitentiary for embezzlement, the general agent of Miss Ella Race when he sold her stock in the National Bank of Decatur to the officers of that institution in April, 1920? The question of agency is the important one in the suit of Miss Race against the bank for $10,000, which started in the circuit court Thursday.
Phares, the trusted friend of the Race family for years, and who by Miss Race's admission on the stand Thursday afternoon had authority from her to sign numerous checks against her account and sell half of her bank stock, sat with other spectators in the courtroom while his dealings were aired before the jury. He was brought here from Chester to testify as a witness for the defense and may get on the stand today to explain the authority that he had to do business for Miss Race. The trust, which Miss Race placed in Phares, who attended to many of her business affairs and advised her on financial matters, was brought out by her in her testimony. In ill health and often unable to attend to her affairs because of absence from the city for the benefit of her physical condition, she authorized Phares, who was a trusted friend of her father's before his death, and later executor of his will, to sign checks against her account and to keep the key to her safety deposit box. On trips she would write him for money and he would send her drafts. Annually he would make a report to her of her financial standing. She did not discover the true state of affairs until late in 1921.

H. R. Gregory, cashier of the banking institution, and defendant with the bank in the suit, was called as the first witness in behalf of the plaintiff. Miss Race, to identify the stock certificates of the bank and give other information concerning the deal for the stock, which he consummated with Phares in 1920, long before Phares was ever suspected of overstepping his authority in the Race affairs or in the Pan-American Motors corporation, which he served as treasurer. Miss Race, according to Mr. Gregory, possessed 33 shares of stock in the bank and 16 of these were sold by Phares to him Feb. 14, 1920, and on April 14, the remaining 17 were disposed of. Miss Race was then in California. A stock dividend of 63-5 shares, declared in January, 1920 were also disposed of to Mr. Gregory by Phares, at the rate of $250 a share, while the other shares of stock were bought at $253, or a total of approximately $10,000, The par value of the stock was $100, Mr. Gregory said, and he gave it as his opinion that $253 was a fair cash market value.

“The transaction took place at my desk in the bank," Mr. Gregory said. “W. A. Phares came there and produced the stock certificate and a letter in the handwriting of Miss Ella Race and. said that he had authority to sell the stock. I did not read the letter." Mr. Gregory explained a discrepancy in the date of issuance of the stock as shown on the records, by the fact that the stenographer who made out the certificates affixed the same date as the date shown on the stock dividends. Checks were produced showing that Mr. Gregory paid to Miss Race the money for the stock and that Phares deposited to her account $3,198, and took the remaining $6,801 in cash at the teller's window. What he did with it has not been brought out.

"W. A. Phares has been connected with the business affairs of our family for 25 years," Miss Race testified. After the death of my father, he was made executor of his will and since then I have looked to him to help me. Nearly every year I have been gone for two or more months for my health. Mr. Phares transacted a great deal of my business. He paid the taxes, insurance, collected rents, made some of my charitable donations; collected dividends on my bank stock. But always he consulted me and I gave him the authority. “I had a conversation about the sale of my bank stock with Mr. Meriweather, president of the bank, and wrote to Mr. Phfcres about it March 16 and 29, 1920. He replied to both of my letters and on April 8 I received a certificate, from him which I afterwards learned was a certificate granting power of attorney to Mr. Phares. I signed it and returned it on the same day. I wrote Mr. Phares two letters in which I authorized him to sell, one half of the stock. I did not know that all of the stock had been sold until October, 1921 when Mr. Meriweather informed me of it. I learned that out of the proceeds of $9,999 only a little more than $3,000 had been deposited to my account."

At this point her attorneys introduced a dozen checks of different dates, one as far back as February, 1917, and for amounts from $100 to $1,000, totalling altogether $7,020. which Phares signed. Miss Race said she did not authorize him to sign the checks and did not receive any benefit from them. Two were to the Bartlett-Frazier Grain Co. “Mr. Phares was not my general agent." Miss Race testified on cross examination. "He had been transacting my business for about 13 years. I authorized him to pay my bills but I usually wrote to him to tell him what bills should be paid. He had no legal power of attorney. We had a verbal agreement between us that he could sign checks against my account when I authorized him to do so from time to time. That agreement existed until October, 1921. He attended to business under my supervision. He collected money from the buyers of lots in Raceland and if any payments were made to him by check he had the power to endorse the check.

"I authorized Mr. Phares to buy the stock in the bank, and told him to buy Leader Iron Works stock. Government bonds, and he made many loans for me. When they came due he collected and would tell me about it. The loans were made by him by check on my account and he had authority to endorse my name on them. I only saw the first issue of theGovernment bonds that he bought. I never saw a single mortgage that he made. "Whenever anything would come up he would write to me, and I would then give him instructions. He had authority to sell 16 shares of my bank stock. I knew he was writing my name to checks and that he was receiving checks payable to me. He made a statement to me every year showing the conditions of my finances.

"When I was gone he usually sent drafts. In 1920 he sent several drafts. He got the money by writing my name on the checks. When I was away my expenses were never more $300 a month, except In the spring or fall when I needed clothes. I would write to him and he usually sent me a draft for whatever I wanted. I usually signed the checks for my clothes. In 1920 I made a trip to Alaska, and I received the expense money through Mr. Phares who was authorized to sign my name, to the checks. I have no knowledge of a check for $500 that was issued May 1, 1920.” Miss Race was asked about Phares' dealings on the board of trade.

"In 1917 Mr. Phares approached me and said that we, ought to buy some corn. I said “I don't know what you mean.” He said he had a chance to buy some and make money, and I told him that I wouldn't invest more than $100 or $150. I didn't know until four years later that he did invest the money. “I authorized him to buy Midvale steel and authorized him to pay for it out of the proceeds from the bank stock. I have since learned that I never was on the books of the company. I didn't know that he could buy it on the board of trade. He told me that it would be a better investment than bank stock; that it would draw 8 percent,instead of 5 percent which the bank stock paid.

“I always supposed that the bank stock was in the bank. Yes, it was in the possession of Mr. Phares. I had a safety deposit box there. Mr. Phares carried the key and always had it. During all of the years I never saw the contents of the box. My securities were in the custody of Mr. Phares. I supposed that he looked after them. I don't know how the dividends on the bank stock were paid. (Miss Race at this point identified a number of dividend checks on bank stock endorsed byPhares). He had authority to endorse my name on the back of the check if It was issued to me. He had authority to sell land. I would sign blank deeds and he would fill them out as the land was sold if I happened to be out of the city.“I knew the state of my bank account. In 1921 I found that it was overdrawn. Mr. Phares always gave me statements which I accepted. I authorized him to look after all of the business that I specified." The cross examination of Miss Race will be concluded this morning.

Dec. 14, 1924 - Arthur Phares, after serving 30 months in the Chester penitentiary following his plea of guilty to two indictments charging embezzlement, has been paroled with permission to leave the state and go to Indianapolis. He visited in Decatur for a few hours Friday and then went to Indianapolis.

There remain on the criminal docket of the circuit court of Macon County, three indictments charging Phares with embezzlement. It is not unlikely that those indictments will be stricken with leave to re-instate for Phares will not be entitled to a clean bill on his parole until a 12 months period has elapsed. Phares served in the penitentiary a larger term than he had anticipated when he went to that institution. When he had been there a year he wanted to be released on parole. He was advised that such petition would be resisted by the authorities of Macon County, the intimation being that the least that he should expect was two years in the prison. Also he was advised to remember that there were yet in force three indictments on which he might be brought to trial if he was paroled.

State's Attorney C. F. Evans Saturday night said that he did not care to make any announcement concerning the action that would be taken in relation to the three Indictments on which Phares had not been brought to trial, but he did say, "When Phares had been In the penitentiary about a year and wanted to be paroled, I declared that the persons who suggested his release, that I would not stand for his parole at that time unless I was compelled to do so. I thought that such short term was insufficient and so informed his friends. Now he. has served about 30 months. When his petition for parole was filed I simply did not make any statement to the board of pardons. The members of the board were familiar with the case. I am not prepared to make a statement concerning the course to be pursued on the three indictments yet on the docket."

If Phares does not violate the provisions of his parole, at the end of 12 months he may ask the governor for a full pardon and restoration to citizenship. Citizenship does not automatically reinvest in a convict when his period of parole has elapsed, even thought his conduct during that period has been exemplary. To be restored to citizenship he must petition the governor for that privilege. The crime for which W. A. Phares was indicted and convicted was the squandering for his personal enjoyment, the major portion of the estate of Miss Ella Race, whose confidential agent he had been since the death of her father, John W. Race, having been his confidential business agent for a number of years.

Notes for Robert Dean Oldfield:
Robert Oldfield, 16, of 511 South Crea Street, was treated for an injury to his right leg Friday night Dec. 8, 1939 after a traffic accident in the 900 block East Wood Street at 6:30 p. m. According to police reports a truck driven by C. A. Howerton, 970 East Wood street was parked and the boy ran into the back of it with his bicycle. The police report indicated lights were on the truck.

Dec. 13, 1941 - Bob Oldfield, son of Mr. and Tonnie Oldfield, 511 South is with the navy in Harbor, Hawaii.

June 19, 1942 - Robert D. Oldfield, young Decatur sailor on a United States cruiser docked at a West Coast port, got so homesick to see his parents that he deserted and came home. Last Sunday young Oldfield gave himself up to Decatur police, Thursday word was received from Washington to turn the young sailor over to naval authorities at the Great Lakes Naval Training school. Police will take him there today. In his cell at the county jail and young Oldfield said that now he was happy that he had seen his parents. Mr. & Mrs. T. Oldfield, 511 South Crea Street, and wanted to return to this ship to see more action against the Japs. He expected to be punished for going A.W.O.L. but thought the trip home would be worth the price.

Incidentally, young Oldfield has been in the thick of the battle against the Japs in the Coral sea action, as well as in the Gilbert Island area. He is a fireman, first class, and was working below decks of his ship when the battle of the Coral sea was fought. But he said that he was permitted to go on deck after the battle was over, and that he saw the sinking of the United States Carrier Lexington. “The ship was blazing from stem to stern, and I saw our own ships torpedo her before she went to the bottom. My ship took on most of the survivors of the Lexington and brought them to a West Coast port," young Oldfield said.

In the Gilbert Island battle Oldfield saw direct action, saying that was acting as street, was acting as a gun loader at time and was on deck in action as the Jap airplanes flew at the ships and were met by terrific anti-aircraft fire. He said he was not permitted to talk much about the action he had seen but that it was a never-to-be-forgotten occurrence. He said he was anxious to get back and see more battles now.

Two persons were in St. Mary's Hospital Thursday night July 28, 1966 one in serious to critical condition following a two-car accident on U. S. 51 on the north edge of Elwin. In serious to critical condition was Robert D. Oldfield, 43, of Route 2, Macon, the driver of one auto. In fair condition was Mrs. Lena Klarner, 66, who was a passenger in the auto driven by her husband, John Klarner, 1820 N. Church St., Decatur. According to state police, the Oldfield car was traveling north on U.S. 51 at 6:08 p.m. when the car went out of control, spun around and stopped in the south - bound lane of traffic, where it was hit from the rear by the Klarner auto. Klarner was treated at St. Mary's Hospital and released.

Notes for Henry Carl Friedrich:
History of Cooper County, Missouri by W.F. Johnson in 1919; page 408:

The life story of Henry Carl Friedrich, of the Billingsville neighborhood, Palestine Township, is a record of industry, energy, good business management, and of an interest taken in good works beyond that of the ordinary citizen. Since the purchase of his first modest farm of 121 acres in Aug., 1909, Mr. Friedrich has been prosperous and enterprising. His present home place of 214.70 acres is a fine farm, good land, which raises good crops each year. This farm, which is fairly well improved, was purchased by Mr. Friedrich in 1909 at a cost of $74 an acre, or a total cost of $16,000. Mr. Friedrich has done considerable improving of the property since he purchased it. He has built over seven miles of woven wire fencing. He handles pure bred Hereford cattle and Duroc Jersey hogs.

Henry Carl Friedrich was born in Germany, Feb. 11, 1866. He is a son of Herman and Martha Elizabeth (Sunshine) Friedrich. His father was a public school teacher in Hesse-Cassel, and died in 1868, leaving seven children: Mary died in Germany; William came to America, settled in Cooper County, Mo., and died here in 1897; August died in the land of his birth; Ferdinand lives in Pennsylvania; Charles lives on a farm eight miles east of Boonville; Henry Carl, subject of this review; Adam resides on a farm south of Bunceton, Missouri. The mother of these children was born May 3, 1835, and is living at the home of Mr. Friedrich.

Henry Carl Friedrich received a good education in his native land, which he left in 1885, accompanied by his mother and his brother, Adam Friedrich. When he arrived in Cooper County, he was possessed of $200 in cash. He first worked out by the month until he became familiar with conditions and then began renting land. He has made a success of his vocation as an intelligent tiller of the soil. His first farm was bought on time payments and the first crop season, that of the famous dry year of 1901, was a period of discouragement to him. However, everybody suffered the same hardships and like his neighbors, he managed to pull through and has had enough good crops in past years to enable him to trade his first homestead for his present place. This trade placed him $8000 in debt, but this is all paid and the Friedrich farm is clear of all indebtedness.

Jan. 7, 1892, Henry Carl Friedrich and Miss Lena Grauer were married. Mrs. Lena Friedrich was born March 5, 1872, near Boonville, Missouri, and is a daughter of Jacob and Catherine Grauer, natives of Germany and Texas, respectively, the latter of whom died in 1881.

The children born to Henry Carl and Lena Friedrich are: Ferdinand, Edward Carl, Arthur Henry, Oscar Harmon, Henry Rudolph, Adolph Eugene, and Adolph Elmer. Ferdinand William Friedrich was born Nov. 19, 1892. He is a farmer and owns 85 acres of land. He married Lydia Delius. Edward Carl Friedrich was born Jan. 23, 1895, is a farmer and land owner. He was called to the colors to serve in the National Army July 26, 1918. He was in training at Camp Funston, received his honorable discharge in Jan., 1919, and returned to his home Jan. 14, 1919. Arthur Henry Friedrich was born Feb. 7, 1897, and is a land owner and farmer. Oscar Herman Friedrich was born Jan. 30, 1899. Henry Rudolph Friedrich was born Nov. 3, 1902. Adolph Eugene Friedrich was born March 27, 1908. Adolph Elmer Friedrich was born July 8, 1916.

Mr. Friedrich is a republican. For a number of years he has been a member of the local school board and is serving as president of the board. For the past 13 years he has been trustee of the Billingsville Evangelical Church. He is active in educational work, is a teacher of the Bible Class in the Sunday School and has been superintendent of the Sunday school for a number of years. He is a member of the Modern Woodmen of America and is active in lodge circles. He holds membership in the Woodmen of the World and he and his brother Charles inaugurated and were the principal organizers of the Speed Camp of Woodmen in 1900. He is a member of the Ladies' Circle and Auxiliary of the Woodmen.

JACOB WALZ.—Since he was a boy eleven years, Jacob Walz of Low Land Farm in Florence has been a resident of Williams County. He was born February 20, 1872, in Wiirtemberg, Germany. He is a son of Christopher and Barbara (Hainz) Walz who were children together in Germany and emigrated to the United States several years after their marriage in that country. They came direct to Williams County in 1883, and they bought a farm in Florence Township and settled there. Their children are: Christopher, of Kansas; Catharine, wife of Henry Durr, of Steuben County, Indiana; Adam, of Florence Township; Mary, wife of George Kaiser, of Florence Township; Jacob, who enrolls the family in the "History of Williams County," and Fred Walz of Center Township.

The Walz family are Lutherans in their church relation and they vote with the democratic party. While the children were born in Germany they were educated in America, Jacob Walz being only eleven and coming to the United States young enough to learn American methods in everything. There was a German school in Edon and they had common school education. Until he was twenty, Jacob Walz worked for his father and then he went among others working by the month. He was the young man to save his money.

On January 21, 1897, Jacob Walz married Susan J. Lerch. She was born in Allen and reared in DeKalb County, Indiana. They settled on the farm where they live today and have always lived there. Their children are: Clara, Lavina, William, Edna and Dora. All are being given a common school education, the older ones having graduated from the public schools. They are all members of the Lutheran Church at Edon. Mr. Walz is a member of the Farmers' Co-operative Association, and is interested in the welfare of the man in the country. There are 168 acres in Low Land Farm and it is under an excellent state of cultivation.

1250. Johannes Ludwig (Louis or Lewis)[11] Renz (Friederika Margaretha[10] Hoffmann, Dorothea Barbara[9] Kraemer, Jakob Friedrich[8], Rosina[7] Steckroth, Johann Jakob[6], Anna Rosina[5] Grauer, Sebastian[4], Hans[3], Sebastian[2], Martin[1]) was born 08 Aug 1881 in Echterdingen, Esslingen, Wurtemberg, and died 19 Jan 1963 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Sarah Johanna Amanda Gross 04 Nov 1909 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Johann Gross and Maria Jedele. She was born 28 Sep 1884 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 12 Dec 1959 in Lima Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johannes Ludwig (Louis or Lewis) Renz:

An 81-year-old Lima township farmer died in his blazing home Saturday afternoon Jan. 19, 1963 after an overheated space heater exploded in the kitchen of the residence. The victim, Lewis Renz, was a brother of Mrs. William Lindemann, of Pleasant Lake road. Other survivors in this area are a son, Raymond L. Renz, of Steinbach road, and a brother, Fred, of Scio Township. The Renz home, at the corner of Liberty and Steinbach roads, was already a mass of flames when Saline firemen arrived in answer to an “assist” call from the Dexter department. Chelsea also sent trucks and men, but efforts to save the dwelling were futile. Dexter firemen entered the blazing house to find Renz body lying in a corner of the kitchen. He was believed to have been overcome by smoke and heat as he attempted to escape, and death was due to asphyxiation, according to Dr. Craig Barlow, deputy medical examiner who was called to the scene. At one point during the three hour battle against the fire, spectators were driven back by a series of explosions from within the house, apparently from stored ammunition which was exploded by the heat.

Renz, a retired farmer, was born August 8, 1881, in Germany, the son of Christian and Fredericka Hoffman Renz. Mr. Renz came to Sharon Township during infancy, moving to his Lima township address about 50 years ago. Mr. Renz was a member of Salem Lutheran Church of Scio Township. On November 14, 1909, he married Sarah J. Gross of Lima Township. She died December 12, 1959.

Surviving are two sons, Raymond of Lima Township and the Rev. Edward C. Renz of Tampa, Florida; a daughter, Mrs. Gene Scott of Munising, Michigan; two grandchildren; a brother, Fred of Scio Township; a sister, Mrs. Lindemann; and several nieces and nephews. A sister, Mrs. Carrie Sweetland, preceded him in death on February 17, 1934. Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at Salem Lutheran Church in Scio Township with burial in the church cemetery.

Notes for Harold Frederick (Dick) Renz:
Harold "Dick" Renz died on June 13, 2020, at the age of 91. He was born on October 3, 1928 in Ann Arbor, Michigan, at the family farm. His parents were Fred G. and Eliesa Jedele Renz. Dick was a life-long farmer. He was briefly employed by the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. Then he served with the City of Ann Arbor Fire Department for 23 years, retiring in 1989. He was a hunter and fisherman who also enjoyed traveling. He was a member of the Ann Arbor Eagles Aerie #2154 and Zion Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor.

He married Virginia Place in 1970 and they were together until her death in 2003. He was also preceded in death by: his parents, sisters Luella Frey and Virginia Walsh, his son Channing Sneyd, nephew Thomas Walsh, and a special friend Mary Ann Lee. Dick is survived by his daughter Pamela (Tony) Martin, and several nieces and nephews who will miss his stories, his laugh and Euchre playing.

We also remember fondly how he was such a friendly outgoing character that he never went anywhere without seeing a friend, or someone he knew! Dick lived the last four months of his life at the Chelsea Retirement Center's Towsley Village. The staff there befriended him and took very good care of him – and became like family to him, especially during the last couple of months when his real family was not allowed to visit due to the pandemic. Thank you one and all! In lieu of flowers, please make donations to: The Barn Sanctuary, 20179 McKernan Dr., Chelsea, Michigan 48118. This non-profit provides a safe haven for abused and neglected farm animals. A private service has taken place due to the pandemic.

1993 iii. William Clay Stearley, born 16 Dec 1900 in Stearleyville, Clay Co, Indiana; died 24 Apr 1972 in Brazil, Clay Co, Indiana. He married Hazel Fern Gasway 04 Sep 1927 in Vigo Co, Indiana; born 22 Dec 1902 in Mt. Vernon, Indiana; died 26 Sep 1999 in Brazil, Clay Co, Indiana.

Notes for William Clay Stearley:
Terre Haute, Feb. 25, 1966 – Nice yarn about Clay Stearley's retirement from newspaperdom in the Indianapolis Star. Clay, a Brazil Boy, worked on several local sheets and in his home town, but has confined most of his efforts to Indianapolis during the past 25 years. He's a brother of General Ralph Stearley, the retired Air Corps officer who now lives in Brazil.

Brazil, Indiana – W. Clay Stearley, a well-known retired journalist, suffered an attack at 4 a.m. Monday April 24, 1972 at his residence, 1110 Northwood Drive, West, Brazil, and was pronounced dead on arrival at Clay County Hospital a few minutes later.
Stearley, 71, who had been in failing health for over three years, suffered from a severe respiratory ailment and previously had been hospitalized on several occasions. A native of Clay County, he was born near the village of Stearleyville, where his parents. the late Mr. and Mrs. William Stearley, had been pioneer settlers during Clay County's early years.
A graduate of Brazil High School, Stearley entered the United States Military Academy atWest Point, New York, after a presidential appointment in June, 1920. A too rigorous schedule, however, forced him to accept an honorable discharge. He later attended Indiana State University at Terre Haute, but in 1921, left school to enlist in the U.S. Army, where he served with the First Cavalry Division in Arizona and Texas.
In 1923 Stearley began his career in journalism by accepting a job as a reporter for the former Terre Haute Post. He remained with the Post until 1932, when the paper was purchased by the Terre Haute Tribune, and publication was suspended. He then accepted a position as telegraph editor of the Evansville Press. In April of 1938 he returned to the work he loved and was employed several months by the Brazil Gazette before accepting an editorial assignment with the former Indianapolis Times. In 1940, he joined the staff of the Indianapolis Star as a copy editor.
Stearley is survived by the widow, Hazel Gasway Stearley; a sister, Mrs. Ruth Bullerdick, Brazil; three brothers, Harold E., Brazil, Maj. Gen. Ralph F. Stearley (Retired), RR 3, Brazil, and Maj. Arthur W. Stearley (Retired), Piegeon Forge, Tennessee, several nieces and nephews.
The body was taken to the Lawson Funeral Home, where announcement of funeral arrangements is pending the arrival of relatives vacationing in Hawaii and the Virgin Islands.

A History of Cleveland and Its Environs: Biography. By Elroy McKendree Avery, Lewis Publishing Company, Chicago-New York, 1918. Page 469:

Fred G. Gollmar. There are very few self-made men who, in looking back over the path they have successfully climbed, will really wish that their lot had been otherwise. There is a compensating satisfaction in self-earned victory that is very valuable to one who has gained it. One of the prospering business men of Cleveland is Fred G. Gollmar, who is president of F. J. Gollmar & Company, and his business success has been the direct .result of his own industry and perseverance.

Fred G. Gollmar was born in Stuttgart, Germany, January 8, 1876. His parents were George and Christina Gollmar, who came to the United States in 1881 and settled with their family at Medina, Ohio. There Fred G. attended the public schools until he was sixteen years of age, when he went to work as an employee of A. I. Root Company, manufacturers of beekeepers' supplies. He was steady and industrious and remained with the company for seven years, when he came to Cleveland, where he very soon secured a position as salesman for the firm of Stranahan & Company, where, for ten years he had charge of their cigar department in the Arcade Building. It was this connection that gave him the experience that has since proved so valuable in his own enterprises.

During his long term of service with Stranahan & Company, Mr. Gollmar had contracted a wide acquaintance and made many personal friends, and when he severed his old business relations and purchased a cigar business of his own, at No. 163 Arcade Building, he found a purchasing public ready for him. As a business man on his own responsibility, Mr. Gollmar soon proved the possession of many of the business qualities that are essential to success, and in 1912 illustrated it by taking over the cigar business in the Rathskeller on East Fourth Street. In the following year he secured the cigar trade of his former employers, and in 1914 he purchased the cigar stand at No. 742 Euclid Avenue. At present he is operating all the above under the general name of the F. G. Gollmar Company, of which he is both president and treasurer. To no outside influence does Mr. Gollmar owe his business success. He worked faithfully and efficiently while in the employ of others and when the opportunity came for independence, he had the wisdom and good judgment to make use of it. He is now one of the substantial business men of this city.

In February 26, 1902, Mr. Gollmar was married at Cleveland to Miss Laura Blashke, and they have one daughter, Anna Louise, who is attending the public school. Mr. Gollmar has always been an upright and useful citizen and has ever used his influence in the furtherance of movements that promise to be generally beneficial. In political affiliation he has preferred to be independent. He belongs to Forest City Lodge, Free & Accepted Masons, to the National Union and to the order of Maccabees, and is known to be very charitable although never, advertising his generosity.

Always a Yankees fan, John had a life-long love of baseball. In 1942, he volunteered for the Armed Forces and was assigned to an aerial gunnery unit at Tyndall Field, Florida where he was preparing to train other gunners. Unfortunately, Roy suffered a heart attack in 1943 and John was honorably discharged to return to the family farm.

He was a Future Farmers of America leader and served as beef superintendent at the Tippecanoe County Fair from 1948-1987. John continued to work on the family farm after retirement and he and Joyce stayed active in the Bethany Presbyterian Church. He served the last 2 years of the war in the South Pacific on the USS Skagit (AKA-105). He piloted a 50-foot Higgins landing craft, an accomplishment of which he was proud his entire life. The Skagit was the first US ship to enter Tokyo Bay after the Japanese surrender and was the fifth ship down from the USS Missouri when the formal surrender document was signed by the US and Japan on September 2, 1945.

When his military service ended in 1946, Max returned to Clay County. One day at a church ice cream social he met Helen Roeschlein. He asked Helen if he could take her home, and her father said yes. Max and Helen were married on June 10, 1948. Using the GI Bill, and with Helen working to support them, he graduated from Indiana Central College (now University of Indianapolis) in 1950 and Indiana University School of Medicine in 1954. He and Helen moved to Springfield, Ohio, where Max completed his internship at City Hospital. One year later in June 1955 Max moved his small family to Covington, Indiana, and began his life's work as a small-town doctor. His first office was above the Ben Franklin 5 & 10 cent store. In 1959 he built a small cement block and brick office at 416 Union Street next to the granary and down the street from the town jail. Doc Hoffman was a general practitioner. He did everything: delivered babies, performed surgeries, and made house calls - sometimes with the help of the town's snowplow - and saw thousands of patients in the little brick office on Union Street. Among his many professional affiliations, he was active in the Fountain-Warren County Medical Society and Board of Public Health, the Indiana State Medical Association and the American Medical Association. He was Chief of Staff at both Lakeview and St. Elizabeth Hospitals in nearby Danville, Illinois. Max was an avid traveler, fisherman, mushroom hunter, and gardener. He loved spending time with his family, playing golf with his friends, Covington High School sports, the Chicago White Sox, and any good outdoor project.

Max loved Covington and his contributions are too numerous to list. He was particularly committed to creating opportunities for Covington kids. He helped create the Citizens' Scholarship Foundation, the Trojan Athletic Complex and the Western Indiana Community Foundation. He and Helen established the Hoffman-Aesculapian Scholarship and Hoffman-Trojan Scholarship for graduates of Covington High School. Max served on the Fountain Trust Company Board of Directors for over 50 years. He and Helen were lifelong members of Bethel Lutheran Church in Danville. In 1985 Indiana Governor Evan Bayh named Max a Sagamore of the Wabash, an award reserved for Indiana residents who have rendered distinguished service to the state. Max retired from general practice in 1993 after 38 years. He and Helen stayed in Covington until 2013 when they left their home of 58 years and moved to Huntsville, Alabama, to live near their daughter and her family. Two years later when he turned 90, a Facebook post marking the occasion resulted in over 100 cards and 164 Facebook messages from former patients and friends. By then he had been retired for 22 years.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his brothers. Max is survived by his wife of 71 years and 316 days, Helen; his daughter Gail Hoffman Perna (Sam) and son Mark Hoffman; grandchildren Spencer Williams (Jennifer), Laura Williams Jossey and Hannah Hoffman; three great-grandchildren, Ella Jossey, Stark and Minette Lee Williams; sister-in-law Dorothy Hoffman, and 7 nieces.

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, final arrangements were delayed for months. The funeral was held on July 11, 2020, at St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Huntsville. Max will rest in peace in the church columbarium until it is safe for his family to take him home to Indiana. He will ultimately be laid to rest in Covington's Mount Hope Cemetery.

Marriage Notes for Leonora Sweetland and Richard Anderson:

Before a fireplace mantel decked with candelabra and flanked on either side with large baskets of gladiola, the wedding vows of Miss Lenora Sweetland to Richard E. Anderson were solemnized at 2 o’clock Sunday afternoon, Sept. 26, 1943, at the home of the bride’s parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sweetland of Scio Church Road, the Rev. Arthur Wacker of Scio Church officiating. The groom is the son of Mrs. Gladys Anderson of Saline and Alfred Anderson of Clarion, Iowa. For her wedding the bride chose a princess gown of white satin, a fingertip veil gathered to a tiara of seed pearls, and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. A single-strand pearl necklace, gift of the groom, was her only ornament. The bride’s sister, Miss Ruth Sweetland, was maid of honor and wore a similar gown of pink and carried pink roses. The groom’s brother, Charles Anderson, acted as best man.

A reception for the sixty relatives and friends was held directly following the ceremony, after which the happy couple left for a honeymoon trip to Iowa. For traveling the bride chose a hand-tailored suit of yellow flannel trimmed in brown and carried brown accessories. Both are high school graduates, the bride of Ann Arbor, and the groom of Corning, Iowa. After October 17th they will be at home to friends at Kingsley and State Streets, Ann Arbor, where he is employed at King-Seeley’s. Pre-nuptial showers were given the bride by Mrs. J. Butler and Mrs. Glenn Hanson.

Visitation will be at the cemetery from 12:30 pm until time of service Saturday.

Jo An (Joan) was born on June 29, 1926 in Wishart, Missouri to Willard (Button) and Phyllis Miller. Raised in rural Missouri, Joan found the love of her life when she met and later married a young sailor from Louisiana. Her husband, Mel (many fondly called him Gene), served his country in the U.S. Navy during WW II, the Korean conflict and the Cold War. Mel was often away from home, leaving Joan to raise their four children on her own. She was a brave, intelligent, strong-willed woman who never failed at anything she attempted in life. Joan had a sense of adventure and loved to travel. As the wife of a career Navy man she had ample opportunities to travel. With her young children in tow she traveled and made a home for her family in Guam, Hawaii, North Carolina, Oregon, Washington state, Missouri, and Northern California. After the death of Melder in 1986, Joan moved to Nevada and later settled in Sandpoint, Idaho. Joan never lost her sense of adventure, faith in independent thought and action, nor waivered in her love of family and friends. All who knew and loved her will miss her.

Notes for Joanne ?:

MIddleton/Milton/Greenfield/Wisconsin Rapids JoAnne Janz passed away on December 11, 2017, in Middleton, Wisconsin. Though a long journey of Alzheimer's Disease brings her story to its end, JoAnne Janz was grateful for 78 remarkably healthy and happy years finding reasons to smile everyday. JoAnne was born in Wisconsin Rapids, the eldest of three daughters. Heartbreak followed just 9 years later when JoAnne's father contracted Polio and died. Prayers were answered when her mother married Roland, and this kind and gentle man adopted JoAnne and her sisters going on to celebrate decades of family milestones. JoAnne graduated from Lincoln High School and Spencerian Business College in Milwaukee. On a gorgeous fall day, JoAnne married David Janz in Wisconsin Rapids. Together they raised their two children, Brian and Barbara, in Greenfield, WI. JoAnne worked for more than 30 years for the School District of Greenfield as a teacher's aid, head middle school secretary, and assistant to the district's business manager.

An accomplished pianist, JoAnne loved movies, dancing, music of all kinds, and attending musicals and concerts (especially those featuring her own children and grandchildren) and relished time with her husband, family, and her adored Shih Tzu. Travel around the US and to Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, and France while spending time with family filled her diary with memories to cherish. Boating and camping led to retirement years spent making good friends on the shores of Lake Koshkonong. Besides feeding those she loved and cradling them in her arms, she wrapped them in many beautifully hand-knitted afghans, scarves, and more--many times donating her hand-crafted items to hospitals. JoAnne was quick with her beautiful smile, her easy laugh, and her sometimes-sassy sense of humor. The party began when JoAnne arrived, and her grandkids quickly learned that fun was in motion when Grandma Jo was holding their hands.

JoAnne is survived by her lovingly devoted husband of 58 years, David, who didn't leave her side even when her cherished memories did. She is further survived by those who filled her world with wonder and joy, their children and grandchildren: son, Brian (the late, Lisa) Janz of Memphis, Tennessee; daughter, Barbara (Richard) Schramm of Middleton; grandchildren, Brianna Janz (Abraham) Farhat of Omaha, Nebraska; Cameron and Addison Janz of Memphis, Tennessee; Evan Schramm of Middleton; and Andrew Schramm of New York, New York. JoAnne was grateful for beloved sisters, Karen (the late, David) Vallin of Tampa, Florida, and Marilyn (Ronald) Jevnick of Wisconsin Rapids, WI, dear sisters-in-law, Carolyn (Lawrence) Graff of Menomonee Falls; Luetta (the late, James) Hartz of Mosinee; and Mary (the late, Les) Janz of Olympia, Washington; Judith (the late, Alfred) Janz and brother-in-law, Gary (Danelle) Janz, all of Mosinee; as well as many nieces, nephews, and friends.

JoAnne is also preceded in death by her parents, Gordon, Marion, and Roland; parents-in-law, Alfred and Bertha; and brother-in-law, Norman.

The family wishes to thank Heartland Hospice for their professionalism, comfort, and kindness and the compassionate caregivers of Artisan Senior Living and Memory Care in Middleton. A visitation will take place from 10:00 AM until the time of the Memorial Service at 11:30 AM on December 16, 2017, at the Cress Center, 6021 University Ave., Madison, Wisconsin 53705. She married Walter Norman (Bud/Bumpy) Schropp 15 Nov 1944 in Oxford, Johnson Co, Iowa. He was born 20 Jun 1920 in Johnson Co, Iowa, and died 16 Jul 2012 in Swisher, Johnson Co, Iowa.

Notes for Hazel Marie Grauer:

Dec. 6, 2016, Swisher - As she does every year, Hazel Schropp began putting up her outdoor

Christmas decorations just after Halloween this year. Her goal is always to finish by the Saturday after Thanksgiving. At 92 years old, the task seems monumental, especially given the wonderland of displays - everything from Nativity scenes and lighted trees to reindeer, Santas and snowmen - that adorn Schropp's yard at 2629 120th St. NW, near the intersection of Highway 965 between Swisher and Shueyville. But then, you don't know Hazel Schropp. 'I'm a farmer's wife," she says, explaining her work ethic and determination to get those lights up each year. 'I did get help one day this year ... for a couple hours."

Approaching her front door, one is greeted by two toy soldiers, two angels, a couple lighted candles, a few wreaths, two candy canes, a nativity scene, a holiday Ferris wheel and a piece showing Mary, Joseph and the baby Jesus. And that's just the front door display. Extension cords run all around the yard of the home, providing power to strands of colorful lights, three wise men on camels, a family of a dozen snowmen, a lane of lighted peppermints and a sleigh being pulled by nine reindeer. When the sun goes down, Schropp's yard lights up the night. 'My electric bill is about $500 a month when I have the lights on," said Schropp. 'But I have electric heat, too." Schropp said she has lived in the house since 1959, moving there with her husband Walter after living in the farm house next door for more than 10 years.

The couple married in 1944 and after Walter served for a brief time in the U.S. Army, they returned to Iowa to begin a life of farming. Over the years, they raised hogs, milk cows, cattle and feeder pigs, as well as corn, soybeans and hay. Most of the farm's 240 acres are now in the state's Conservation Reserve Program, while other acres are rented out, Schropp said. Walter Schropp died in 2012 at age 92. Hazel Schropp said he always enjoyed the Christmas lights, though he was usually too busy farming to help put them up. That job was left to her. The couple raised six children - girls Judy Bracy, Joyce Sirowy and Debbie Takes and boys Gary, Jerry and Rick - all of whom remain with their families in Iowa. 'There are 70 of us now," Hazel Schropp says proudly, explaining she has 21 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. 'I have six or seven Christmases."

As for her lighting display, Schropp says nothing is particularly old and she doesn't really have a favorite, though she has an affection for Nativity displays, including one tucked under her porch and another that sits on a hay wagon in the yard. A couple times each year, she'll get a knock on the door, like she did last week, from a passer-by asking to have a closer look. And when the holiday season ends, Schropp says she'll start taking the lights down a little at a time. 'I turn them off after New Year's,' she said. 'Last year I had some help; it was my Christmas present from someone."

Walter served on the Jefferson Township School Board, was a member of the ASCS Board, Board President of the Swisher Telephone Company, and was a Jefferson Township Trustee for many years. He married Iola Mae Hudachek 21 Oct 1956 in West Liberty, Muscatine Co, Iowa. She was born 03 Jan 1934, and died 08 Nov 2019 in Oxford, Johnson Co, Iowa.

Notes for Iola Mae Hudachek:

Iola M. Grauer (Plotz) age 85 of Oxford died Friday, November 8, 2019 from complications of dementia. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 am Wednesday, November 13, 2019, at the Oxford United Methodist Church with burial at the Czech National Cemetery in Cedar Rapids. Visitation will be from 4 to 7 pm Tuesday at the United Methodist Church in Oxford. In lieu of flowers memorial donations can be made in her memory to the Oxford Fire and First Responders. Gay & Ciha Funeral and Cremation Service is caring for Iola's family and her services.

Iola Mae Hudachek was born January 3, 1934, the daughter of Arthur Hudachek and Carolyn Becicka Hudachek Johnson (Maynard). Iola graduated from West Liberty High School and later married Kenneth Grauer October 21, 1956, in West Liberty. Ken and Iola farmed in the North Liberty area where they raised two children - Dennis and Sue. Iola always had a large garden where she canned the harvest every year. She also had her 2 milk cows Bessie and Bonnie plus her chickens. Iola decided to go to work after Sue started school in 1966 as a school cook at the original Clear Creek elementary school in Tiffin. She also worked at the Oxford elementary and the Clear Creek high school in Tiffin, retiring in 1998 after 32 years. There was always laughter in the school kitchens where she made many teacher and administrator friends and students. Iola loved to laugh and tell stories. She was a proud member of the Ladies Birthday Club as she enjoyed hosting meetings and attending all their activities through the years. She also was on the Voting board for Johnson County and served with Joanne Kahler and Adelaide Cochran for many years. Ken and Iola enjoyed summer trips to their lake house on Big Thunder Lake near Remer, Minnesota. She loved to fish for pan fish with her old cane pole and told people she didn't need a new pole. They met many new friends and she shared laughs & recipes and brought wild rice recipes back to Iowa. After she retired, they spent a few winters in Phoenix, AZ. Most of all Iola loved to dance and listen to the Sunday Morning Czech Party with Leo Greco where we learned the Prune Song, Beer Barrel polka and the Anniversary waltz. Ken and Iola spent many Friday and Saturday nights at the Swisher Ballroom, Walford and many others dancing with their many friends. She would dance around the kitchen and tried to teach her children the waltz, fox trot and of course the polka. As she became unable get out and dance in her later years, it did not stop her from tapping her feet when the music started! Iola also brought to the area a Country Music Show from Missouri to raise funds for Clear Creek High School Music Department for few years. She helped convince and schedule a polka band from northern Minnesota (Chimileski Bros) to the Swisher Ballroom to make the 10 hour trip.

Iola's passion, learned from her mother, was her baking. There wasn't a Czech pastry she had not tried. Her kolaches, cinnamon rolls, zelnicky & poppy seed babovka were well known. Thankfully her traditon was passed on her daughter-in-law, Barb and daughter Sue. There was not a cook book that Iola did not have and use. Dinners won't be the same without Iola's Goulash, cottage cheese horseradish salad and of course, kolaches. After Ken passed away in 2000, Iola later married Eugene Plotz. After he passed in 2016, she moved to the Solon Care Center.

Iola's family consists of son, Dennis and wife Barb (Stahl) Grauer, their 3 children, Anna Boals (Chris) and their 2 sons Caleb and Hudson, Aaren Grauer and Tyler Grauer all in the Oxford area. Daughter, Sue Grauer and her daughter Cara in Denver, Colorado; half sisters, Marie Livings, Linda Riggan, Elaine Kerf; and sister-in-laws: Hazel Schropp, Marianne Tresnak, Audrey Kosina, Eileen & Larry Jiras, Delores Grauer.

Iola will be greatly missed along with her Czech heritage and a few choice phrases she passed on to us. Sbohem and Milujeme te' (Fairwell and we love you) Matka (mother) and Babicka (Grandmother).

Notes for Gary Alvin Weidmayer:
Farming a family tradition Weidmayers worry about future of small farms
By Alana West, Special Writer - PUBLISHED: August 2, 2007

Gary Weidmayer of Bridgewater Township is a farmer, born and bred, and almost always has been. He plants corn, winter wheat and soybeans, raises cattle, and sells hay to stable owners for their horses on a farm that his father bought in 1940. But his family ties to the Manchester area go back further than that. His relatives have lived there since at least 1840, when they helped establish and build Bethel United Church of Christ.

"My great-great-grandfather worked on that," said Weidmayer, who said the ancestors of his wife, Karen, also worked on the project. "They were the Kueblers. It was the Kueblers and Weidmayers who built the church," said Karen Weidmayer, who is a secretary at Manchester High School. Both Gary and Karen have attended Bethel church all of their live.

The family owns 380 acres and rents 750 acres more. Their large, white farmhouse sits on a slight hill amid numerous outbuildings and barns, with two silos tucked behind. He only has two exceptions to his life's work in the farming industry – a three-month stint at a factory and three weeks in the National Guard during the 1967 riots. "I know where I was 40 years ago," he said last week. "I was down there two weeks setting up communications with the 156 signal corps. There was mass confusion. ... After that, everybody needed riot control training."

Something he finds satisfying about farming is taking a tour of his fields on his tractor, especially with his loyal companion, Sparky, the couple's Border Collie, at his side. "That dog will ride the combine, a tractor, the pickup. When the pickup goes down the road, it had better have the dog in it. She will sit and wait for him, or go look for him at the neighbor's," Karen Weidmayer said. Baling hay was on the agenda last Monday, and Gary Weidmayer was a bit discouraged at lunchtime about the decreased amount of hay because of a lack of rainfall. "The last six weeks have been really dry. We don't have irrigation. "We don't have enough acres (of hay), so we can't justify digging a well," Weidmayer said, adding that irrigation would not solve the problem, since that would make the ground too wet in some circumstances to grow hay. "We were hoping for rain, but we get just enough," said Karen Weidmayer. Her husband agreed, remembering the drought of 1988, which ended in mid-July with downpours the rest of the growing year.

Their corn is growing and looks green in the field; however, if there is no rain, the ears may not develop. "The soybeans look good, but if they don't get rain when they're podding up, the pods don't grow," Karen Weidmayer said. She expected the roots of the corn would grow deeper to find water. "Corn is probably our biggest crop here," she said. "It's expensive to grow because of the cost of the fertilizer." The Weidmayers sell the corn to Global Ethanol, a new company in Riga that converts corn to diesel fuel. Weidmayer bought stock in the company because he believes in the future of it as a fuel source, and to help boost the price and demand for corn. Weidmayer said the company uses 50,000 bushels of corn a day, and was getting more efficient at making the product. It sells the by-products as livestock feed, so there is little waste, he said.

Weidmayer is concerned about the future of farming. He foresees a continual decline in the small farm because of the cost of equipment, and the money invested in livestock and crops. "What I look at is, there will be more big farms, not as many small farms," he said. "You plant corn in April or May, and you don't get your money until October or November, and maybe you don't sell it all at once. All of that money is invested. You need to borrow when you need it, and pay it back when you can."

Weidmayer tries to buy and sell cattle every month. He gets double what he pays for them, but he feeds and cares for them for a year before he sells them. It is a big investment, so it helps to have some money coming in every month. Weidmayer served for 14 years on the Farm Credit Board, a board that lends money to farmers, so he knows the bind farmers get into with credit. He knows they need a good banker who knows what they need. During his term on the board, he saw a number of farm foreclosures.

Weidmayer said he used to run a dairy farm, but he and his son, Greg, who had been helping him on the farm, needed to expand and update to make it feasible. They decided to discontinue the dairy side of the business, so Greg got a full-time job with Manchester Village. He helps his father after work, maintaining the farming equipment. The Weidmayer's said they both hope that someday, their son will take over the farm.

The Weidmayer's enjoy the close bond of both of their children living nearby. Their daughter, Amy, and her family live diagonally across the field, from them, with Gary's mother, Irma, on the same road. Greg and his wife, Melanie, are a few houses down. Melanie owns the Manchester Bakery, and Amy was recently elected to the Bridgewater Township Board.

Notes for Jimmie Glynn Poole, Jr.:

On November 11, 2020, at age 66, Jimmie "Glynn" Poole, Jr., peacefully entered into eternal life after a courageous 3-month battle with leukemia in the comfort of his home surrounded by his family. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Sherwood and Eva Poole, Sherman and Jewell Clark and parents, Jimmie and Janiece Clark Poole.

Glynn is survived by the love of his life, Leighnae and their 3 children Brandie Poole Williams and husband Joe, Lori Poole McIlwain and husband Jim Bob; and son Charlie Poole Kundig. He was also blessed with 6 grandchildren, Katelyn Primm, Alyssa Bruyninckx, Karleigh Williams, Lauren Townsend, Taylor McIlwain, and Tanner McIlwain. He was blessed with two great-grandsons, Ty Primm and E.J. Hinton. He is also survived by two sons, Sherman and Daryl. Siblings Sheila Hendrix and husband, Dale, Alison Housley, Clark Poole and Stacey Parker; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

Prior to fulfilling his dream of breeding and raising cattle, he worked as a tool pusher in the oil fields of Texas for many years, where he and Leighnae met. He was best known as the "Cattle Man of North Louisiana". He spent most of his days and many nights checking his cattle, helping neighbors with their cattle as well as cutting/baling hay. He was always willing to help and advise anyone who called with sick cattle. He cherished the many years he spent teaching his children about cattle. Some of his best memories were with his children showing cattle through the 4H program in Caldwell Parish.

The family would like to thank the many physicians, PAs, NPs and the leukemia team for the weeks of wonderful and attentive care they provided at MD Anderson Medical Center in Houston, Texas. Jennifer Bennett, NP in Start, La and nurses Amy and Michelle with Compassus Hospice were of great medical and emotional support to he and his family during his last days. He married Lisa Marie Scott 27 Nov 1982 in Ramsey Co, Minnesota. She was born 22 Mar 1960 in Beloit, Rock Co, Wisconsin, and died 13 Aug 2016 in Germantown, Shelby Co, Tennessee.

Notes for Lisa Marie Scott:
It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Lisa Marie (Scott) Janz of Germantown, Tennessee on August 13, 2016 after a courageous battle with endometrial cancer. She is survived by her husband of almost 34 years, Brian, who was the love of her life, always a supportive partner and never left her side, and her daughter and son-in-law, Brianna (Janz) Farhat and Abraham; and her sons Cameron and Addison, all of whom were the center of her universe. Lisa was born in Beloit, Wisconsin on March 22, 1960 to Tom and Sonia (Meyers) Scott, and had a wonderful childhood with her brothers Bradly (Shannon) and Stephen, and sister Julie (Scott) Belden (Jim). Lisa also loved visiting with her extended family, including her sister-in-law Barbara Schramm (Richard), her in-laws David and JoAnne Janz, and many aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews, and nieces that she loved dearly.

Although the depths of our grief is so very deep, we gain comfort in thinking about Lisa's upbeat and optimistic outlook on life and the role model she was to so many. At a very early age Lisa learned the love of the outdoors, and Lisa, Brian, and the kids could often be found on some kind of adventure -- whether it be hiking in the woods, biking on the road, sailing, windsurfing, swimming, fishing, and wakeboarding on lakes, or scuba diving on ocean coral reefs. Lisa loved to travel, whether it was as an exchange student to Turkey in 1977, visiting her own 2008 exchange student "son" Jakub Slavicek in the Czech Republic, hiking the cities and countryside of Germany, France, and Austria, or the jungles of Madagascar and Costa Rica. After graduating from Beloit Turner High School in 1978 and earning a degree in computer science in 1982 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Lisa enjoyed a rewarding career as a database administrator in the field of information technology at Sperry Univac, American Express, and FedEx, and took special joy in mentoring young women entering her chosen field of information technology. People loved Lisa's infectious smile and laugh which were the result of the great joy she derived from her "work family" at FedEx, her wonderful friends from the SWAK cooking and book club, and the "biker chicks" in the Memphis Hightailers Bike Club. Finally, Lisa was grateful for the care she received from Dr. Linda Smiley and the staff at the West Clinic, as well as the wonderful nurses and staff at Methodist Healthcare's Hospice team. Together, they helped to provide a high quality of life for Lisa and her family during her final adventure.

A celebration of Lisa's life will be held on Friday, August 19th, at the Lichterman Nature Center located at 5992 Quince Road. Welcoming of family and friends will take place from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Lisa was a strong believer in life-long learning, and wanted to know that young people would continue to get a good start on their careers in the field of information technology. In this spirit, in lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be sent to The Brian and Lisa Janz Scholarship in Business Information and Technology at the University of Memphis Foundation, PO Box 1000, Dept. 238, Memphis, Tennessee 38148.

She married Daniel Joseph Takes. He was born 24 Aug 1958.

Notes for Daniel Joseph Takes:

July 6, 2021, Ely — Dan and Debbie's Creamery bestselling ice cream flavor was made as an accident. Josie Rozum, who oversees operations and is the daughter of owners Dan and Debbie Takes, notes that Purple Cow Pie came about after her mother had forgotten a key ingredient in the ice cream flavor she was supposed to be crafting and instead grabbed ingredients from the freezer that would pair well together, birthing the vanilla ice cream with black raspberries and pie crust mixed in. "It's just one of those that everyone's like, 'When is Purple Cow Pie coming back?'' so that's just funny how that works out," Rozum said. "It was a flavor that she wanted to toss and we're like, 'no.'"

Debbie and Dan Takes began operating a dairy farm in rural Ely in 1997, expanding from an initial 30 cows to about 150. In 2013, the family bought a former lumber business on Ely's Main Street and — after a three-year renovation and thousands of dollars in investments in new equipment — opened Dan and Debbie's Creamery five years ago this month. The creamery sells milk, flavored cheese curds and ice cream — all made in the building. Guided tours of the creamery were suspended in March 2020 after the COVID-19 pandemic spread to Iowa. But now the pandemic is waning, tours of the production process are making a comeback. "I think with everything going on, we were just ready to get people back in our store, continue educating because that's such a big component of what we do," Rozum said. "A couple weeks ago we rolled out the tours again. You know, obviously they can't be exactly like they were. We're trying to accommodate smaller groups just to help with spacing out and making people feel comfortable, but we're so excited to have all the people back in here and learning about what we're doing."

Growing up on a dairy farm and assisting with the storefront for five years, Rozum has a personal connection with teaching visitors farm-to-table education and awareness. "I think the reason why tours are so important for me is I want, especially our youth, to understand food just doesn't land on our table," Rozum said. "I think there's such a huge disconnect between farmers and consumers that I really want to bridge the gap, too. So that way people can trust their food again and know it's coming from a good place." While farm-to-table awareness is valuable, Rozum feels that older generations appreciate the nostalgia that come with the tours. "I think that age group of retirement-age and older, the creamery takes them back to their childhood because a lot of people are used to cream-top milk and a lot of people grew up on farms then," Rozum said. "It sort of takes them back to their childhood and that's really special, too." While the tours take place only at the storefront, at 1600 Main St. in Ely, expansions to the farm will make it possible for groups to visit it gain the true farm-to-table experience.

"Last year we started building a viewing area on our milking farm, so that way we can welcome tours," Rozum said. "We're hoping to wrap up construction by the end of the year, then we'll be able to make the tour component full circle by seeing the farm side and the production side." Tours occur three days a week, at 10 a. m Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Admission cost is $4.50, with tax and includes a private creamery tour as well as a single scoop of ice cream. Small and medium-sized groups can schedule tours up to two months in advance. Since tours resumed in mid-June, spots have been filling fast. "It's clear to me that people crave things to do right now and if they get a learning opportunity and some ice cream at the same time, that's a pretty cool thing," Rozum said.

Compared with a large dairy corporations that typically focuses on one facet of the dairy industry, Dan and Debbie's smaller-scale process allows them to exercise control over products they produce and how they produce it. "We have control long before the milk arrives here, basically what the cows eat," Rozum said. "We grow all of the crops on our family farm and harvest them ourselves. We tailor our cows' diets to really provide high-quality flavor to our milk and our products. So every little step we do in the processing farm-to-table, affects how it tastes. I also think a really unique thing is being a small organization and operation, we can get a little bit more creative and experiment with flavors." The local creamery rotates 30 to 40 ice cream flavors on a monthly basis, with seasonal flavors such as peppermint, pistachio, coconut cream pie and peaches and cream making appearances within the display case.

He married Karen Hagel.

Notes for Wilson Harris Clark:
Wilson Harris “Highpockets” Clark was born on January 29, 1962 to the union of his late father, Israel Wilson Clark and his late beloved mother, Edna Murlene Clark, and he passed from this life at home surrounded by his loving family on July 12, 2021, after an extended illness. Harris was a loving husband and father to his family and he means the world to them. He worked as a Motorman for Reading and Bates Drilling Company during the 80's for six years. After the oilfield days and being a fifth-generation cotton farmer, he decided to stay off the Gulf and started Clark Farms and operated it for twenty-nine years in his hometown of Hebert. In between farming he worked as a carpenter, a cabinetmaker, furniture builder and concrete finisher. He was an avid outdoorsman. He loved to hunt, especially duck hunt, which led to his hobby, training Labrador Retrievers to, in his words, "Fetchem' Up!" He became a lifetime member of the North Louisiana Hunting Retriever Club where he served several terms as President. He also served as a Volunteer Fireman for both the Hebert and Grayson Fire Departments. Harris was a faithful member of the Hebert Community Church.

Left to cherish his memory is his beloved wife of thirty-eight years, Karen Hagel Clark, their two sons: Steven Harris Clark (special friend, Karen Martin) and Adam Kyle Clark (girlfriend, Christine Wagers); his treasured granddaughter Raeleigh Clark; two sisters: Kay Clark and Karen Clark; his brother, Dale Clark; his two dog " buddies": Rain and Jazzy; and a host of other family members and friends.

Serving as pallbearers are his two sons, Steven and Adam; his co-workers, Dave Cobb and Sammy Shipp; and his nephews, Kenny Grant and Lee Boyett. Honorary pallbearers are the men and women of the Hebert Fire Department, the members of the North Louisiana Hunting Retriever Club and Billy McClanahan. The Clark family will receive visitors on Thursday July 15, 2021 at the chapel of Riser & Son Funeral Home, 7131 U S Highway 165, Columbia from 5:00 PM until 8:00 PM. Funeral services will be held Friday, July 16, 2021 at the Hebert Community Church at 1:00 PM with Bro. Billy Lane McClanahan officiating. There will be visitation at the church prior to the service beginning at 9 A.M. The church (formerly Hebert Church of God) is located at 696 Highway 848, Columbia, Louisiana. The Clark family would like to extend their gratitude to the Matriarch of the Clark Family, our Aunt Shermie, for being there at mom's time of need, also to Judy Blackwell for sitting with dad, his nurse Phil, and Dr. Hinson's office for dad's end stage care.

Notes for Ryan Michael Scott:
Ryan Michael Scott, 29, of Boonville passed away Monday, December 21, 2020. Ryan Michael Scott was born January 7, 1991 the son of Jeff Scott and Marsha Van Boening. Ryan had the biggest heart and most quirky sense of humor. He loved to tell jokes, play pranks and tease everyone around him. Ryan began working for Ward Tile and Stone out of Marshall as a tile craftsman. He quickly developed an eye for detail and took great pride in the work he did. He loved his job and was always eager to learn more. Ryan's hobbies included raising bees and producing local honey. Ryan had a love for music, but his favorite job was being a father and he was so proud of his little boy Isaac. He loved Isaac with all his heart and would do absolutely anything for him. Ryan enjoyed the outdoors and had a love for animals. He enjoyed taking Isaac mushroom hunting, to the park, and teaching Isaac about raising bees. Ryan believed that somethings are better left unsaid and somethings are better left alone, don't make mountains out of mole hills. Ryan tried to live by this and turned the other cheek even if it hurt him in the process. He was loved by so many and will be dearly missed.

Ryan is survived by his parents Jeff Scott of Boonville and Marsha (William) Van Boening of Boonville, son Isaac Scott of Boonville, brothers Brandon Roberts of Boonville, Tyler (Kylee) Scott of Jamestown, Austin Scott of Bunceton, and Colton Scott of Boonville, grandparents Alfred (Billie) Friedrich of Bowling Green, Barbara Friedrich of Boonville, and Bunny Scott of Boonville, as well as nieces, nephews, many aunts, uncles, and cousins. Ryan is preceded in death by his grandfather Troy Scott of Boonville and uncle Jerry Friedrich of Boonville.

Visitation for Ryan will be held at Howard Funeral Home Monday, December 28, 2020 from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. with a service beginning at 11:30 a.m. with Tim Fairley officiating. Burial will follow in Pleasant Green Cemetery. Memorial contributions are suggested to his son Isaac.

Child of Ryan Michael Scott is:
3883 i. Isaac[15] Scott.
