Notes for Johannes (Johann G.) Haarer:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

John Harrer. There is nothing more fascinating to a lover of ideas than a bookstore filled with the choice works of ancient and modern writers. Within their uncut pages are the treasures of all the ages, we of to-day who boast of our advance in science and even in methods of thinking, being but the heirs of ages of evolution in thought and progress. One of the most popular resorts in the city of Ann Arbor to the man or woman who loves books, is that of which Mr. Haarer is the proprietor, he having a fine book and stationery establishment in the College City of Michigan.

The original of our sketch was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in the village of Oeschelbronn in the county of Herrenberg, February 22, 1840. He is the son of Michael Haarer, who was a farmer by calling. Our subject's mother was prior to her marriage Fraulein Christina Gauss, a native of the same place as was her husband. Her death occurred when our subject was twenty-seven years of age. Our subject's father emigrated to the United State in 1880 and located in Mexico, Missouri, who he died in 1882. Of a family of seven children was born in the Fatherland, all are now citizens of the United States, where they are scattered in different directions. John Haarer was the third in order of birth of his mother's family. His attendance at school began when eight years of age, going to the quaint village school where the children were taught the practical things of life as well as the knowledge of books. He remained in the school until fourteen years of age, during which time he became thoroughly familiar with his native tongue and also quite an adept in Latin.

John Haarer emigrated to the United States in 1861 and landed in New York City. Thence he removed to Ann Arbor, Michigan, and on coming here at once began to look about for employment, and the first that he found was an eight days' engagement in the harvest field. He afterward was employed for three months with a railroad company as a section hand and then started in the ambrotype business. This departure promising success, he opened up a gallery on South Main Street, and was very successful in his undertaking. The old building into which he first moved with his business he occupied until 1888 when he moved the frame upon another lot and erected in its place a fine brick building. It is three stories in height and 22x80 feet in dimensions. Here he runs a German book and stationery store in connection with his gallery. Mr. Haarer has progressed with the times in his chosen calling, which has achieved a distinction among the arts.

Mr. Haarer was married September 11, 1871 to Miss Christina Widemann, of Hutzenbach in the county of Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, who died one year after her marriage. Mr. Haarer was married again July 15, 1875 to Miss Catherine Zimmer, of Ann Arbor. Her parents are residents of Canada of which place she is a native. Mr. and Mrs. Haarer are the parents of seven children whose names are as follows: John W., Mary C, Oscar H., Julius F., Elinora, Ernest and George. Socially he of whom we write belongs to the Ancient Order of United Workmen being Master of the lodge, to which he has belonged for many years. He is also a member of the Turn Verine of which he was President several time. Although our subject adheres to the principles and theories as held by the Republican Party, by is rather independent in his vote, giving his recognition to the best men rather than to party favorites. He and his wife are members of the Zion Lutheran Church. They reside over their store at No. 5 W. Liberty Street.

Notes for Johann Wilhelm Haarer:

Lansing - John W. Haarer, 65, district supervisor for the intangible tax division of the state tax commission, a former state treasurer and later a local banker, died unexpectedly of a heart attack in Jackson at 3:20 o'clock Thursday afternoon April 24, 1941. Mr. Haarer, according to information received here, was sitting in his car in front of the Jackson county courthouse when fatally stricken. He had gone to Jackson to check probate court records with John L. Carey, Grand Rapids, special examiner for the tax division. Before leaving Lansing, he complained of "not feeling well" and went to his home at 207 West St. Joseph Street for a time before making the trip.

While in Jackson he complained of a severe headache and someone there planned to drive him back to Lansing. It was reported he went outside to wait in his car and a few minutes later was found dead. Born in Ann Arbor in 1876. Mr. Haarer attended the public schools of that city and then engaged for a time in the insurance business there. He served as a deputy state treasurer under two administrations and in 1912 was elected state treasurer. He was re-elected to that office in 1914. Previous to his state connect inn. he served as president of the Ann Arbor city council and he had served in the Spanish-American war, retiring with the rank of major. He had been a captain of Company A, 31st Regiment of Michigan Volunteers. After leaving the state position he became cashier and then executive vice president of the old City National bank and served in that capacity until the institution was merged with the former Capital National bank late in 1931.

Mr. Haarer later served as director of the state accident fund and was for a time connected with the corporation and securities division after its creation a few years ago. He was active in civic affairs and at one time headed the Chamber of Commerce. For many years Mr. Haarer engaged in stamp collecting as a hobby and was prominent in philatelic circles. He had been inactive in this field in recent years but maintained a keen interest in another hobby, that of collecting coins. He was considered one of the leading authorities in the state on old coins and their value. He was an honorary member of the Lansing Kiwanis club and its former president and was affiliated with Lansing Commandery No. 35, Knights Templar, and the Ann Arbor Blue lodge and Royal Arch Masons.

Survivors are the widow. Klara A.; one son, John, Jr.; a sister, Mrs. Charles Toms, Lansing, and four brothers, Oscar, Julius, Ernest and George, all of Ann Arbor.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Estes-Leadley chapel with the Rev. Mr. Clarence Brickman of St. Paul's Episcopal church officiating. Interment will be in Deepdale cemetery. The Knights Templar will participate in the final rites.

Notes for Dr. John G. (Jack) Haarer:

Ionia - The medical superintendent of Ionia State Hospital for the Criminal Insane was prisoner and his wife beaten and knifed by an insane patient. While Dr. John Haarer lay bound and locked in a closet, his Ruth, 35, fought with the patient and finally persuaded him, with help from a bottle of vodka, free her husband. The four-hour ordeal took place Sunday morning July 13, 1958 at the Haarer residence on the hospital grounds. It was disclosed today after state police took the patient, 35-year-old John Erskine, into custody.

Mrs. Haarer was treated for severe shock. She suffered a cut lip and numerous cuts and bruises. Haarer, 39, gave this account: He and his wife had returned from a trip Saturday and were asleep Sunday when awakened by Erskine, a trusty who had access to their basement. Erskine got upstairs through a laundry chute and armed himself with a kitchen knife and toy club belonging to Haarer's son, Frederic, 13.

Haarer said Erskine held the knife at his throat, tied him up, shoved him in a closet and covered with a blanket, locked the door announced he was going to kill Mrs. Haarer. He threatened the woman, an attractive blonde, and as she fought him off slashed at her with the knife and slugged her. Mrs. Haarer pleaded with Erskine and when he said he wanted drink, told him she knew where was a bottle of vodka. He accompanied her to the kitchen and drinking most of the liquor, finally responded to her pleas and freed her husband.

Dr. Haarer said: "I told him he'd better clean-up the house first because he'd left such a mess," the doctor said. "He went to work we headed for the state police at Ionia." Officers found Erskine cleaning blood from the bedroom walls. Erskine, of Mount. Clemens, was committed to the hospital in 1946

Washtenaw County as a criminal sexual psychopath.

Ionia, July 15, 1958 - Dr. John Haarer, who with his wife was held prisoner by a knife-wielding psychopath, today was trying to help save his captor's life. John Erskine, 35, Mt. Clemens, was committed to Ionia state hospital in 1947. Sunday, he gained entrance to the home of Dr. Haarer, hospital superintendent. After tying up Haarer and his wife, Ruth, Erskine found a bottle of vodka and drank it. Mrs. Haarer finally talked him into letting her and her husband free.

The Haarer's called state police, who found Erskine drunk. Searching his pockets, they found a box of sleeping pills. When Erskine failed to come out of a coma yesterday, hospital authorities realized his condition was caused by the sleeping pills and not the vodka. Haarer ordered special drugs electric shock treatments to keep Erskine alive. Haarer said Erskine also has a touch of pneumonia.

Notes for Robert Lewis Ketter:

Robert L. Ketter (Born: 1928, Death: 1989), a member of the university faculty since 1958, Robert L. Ketter served as the first chairman of the Department of Civil Engineering, Dean of the Graduate School, and the Vice President for Facilities Planning. During his tenure as President (1970-1982), he oversaw the construction of the new campus, strengthened the university's research programs, and initiated international programs in Korea, Japan, and China. He was founder and first director of the university's Multidisciplinary Center for Earthquake Engineering Research. Robert L. Ketter Hall, home of the Department of Civil, Structural and Environmental Engineering, was dedicated in his honor in 1987. In 1988 Ketter was named SUNY Distinguished Professor of Civil Engineering by the SUNY Board of Trustees. Affiliation(s): President/Chancellor, Engineering and Applied Sciences.

Buffalo, New York – Robert L. Ketter, an authority on earthquake engineering research and former president of the State University of New York at Buffalo, died of a heart attack Tuesday April 18, 1989 in Millard Fillmore Hospital here. He was 60 and lived in Buffalo. Ketter, a civil engineer, was director of the National Center for Earthquake Engineering Research, which was established three years ago at the university under the auspices of the National Science Foundation.

He served as president of the university from 1970 until 1982, assuming office after more than a year of strife that had divided the 23,000-student campus. He was regarded by many students and faculty members as a "law and order" president and periodically faced opposition from the student Senate and son faculty groups. But he won praise for the directing the construction of a new $750 million campus, which was completed in large part during his tenure as president. He also initiated university programs in Korea, Japan, Canada and China.

The national earthquake center consists of more than 80 researchers in the United States and has core components at the Lamont-Doherty Geological Observatory of Columbia University and at Cornell, Leigh and Princeton universities and the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, as were as at the SUNY campus in Buffalo. Ketter was the author of more than 40 technical and educational papers and chapters in scientific journals and books. He was a co-author of several engineering texts.

Ketter, a native of Welch, West Virginia, was a graduate of the University of Missouri. He received his doctorate in civil engineering from Lehigh, where he taught before joining the Buffalo faculty in 1958 as the first chairman of a newly created civil engineering department. IN 1964 he was appointed dean of the university's Graduate School of Arts and Sciences and in 1967 he became first vice president for facilities planning, where he began the design and construction of a new North Campus in Amherst, New York.

Ketter is survived by his wife, a son, and three daughters and 10 grandchildren.

Notes for Lorelei (Lolly) Zimmerman:

Lorelei Zimmerman Ketter a former resident of the Town of Grove, entered into eternal rest on Friday, August 14, 2020, at the ECMC in Buffalo. She was born on October 1, 1928. She was the beloved partner to Harry Luther Seifert. Earlier in her life, Lolly married Robert Lewis Ketter on December 22, 1948 for 40 years, until his passing in April 1989. Lolly worked tirelessly with Robert during his years at the University of Buffalo. She was known for a sense of adventure, love of travel, endless hospitality, and impressive cooking skills — second only to her love of water color painting. Never one to live a boring life, she learned to drive at the age of 60, after Robert's passing, then moved on to get her pilot's license to be able to view her farm from the sky. Harry and Lolly had a very active social life, and were seen frequently at restaurants, yard sales, and historic venues around Le Roy and their home.

Lolly is survived by her daughters, Katheryn (Reverend Gary Nottis), Susannah, Mary (William Franklin). She was predeceased by her son, Michael (Regina). She followed both her children and grandchildren's careers vicariously, and embraced joyfully all their successes. Her grandchildren's artwork, awards and honors covered her walls, known as the "Family Gallery." Dear to her heart were the many friends that she and Harry made. Rare was a day not filled with their company. Forever helpful, forever needed, and forever loved as family and her dear friends, Mark and Sue, who have been an important part of Lolly and Harry's lives.

Her Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, July 17, 2021, at 11:00 AM, at the Sunnyview Cemetery in the Town of Grove, with Reverend Gary N. Nottis, officiating. Lolly was an avid supporter of Historical Society of the Le Roy Memorial Garden, a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Genesee Country Village, where many of her antiques found their home and Roswell Park Cancer Institute. If desired, donations may be made to one of these organizations in Lorelei's name.

C. Gerald (Jerry) Haarer Laurence Bonita Springs, Florida (formerly of East Lansing, Michigan), age 71, passed away peacefully Friday, February 17, 2006 at Naples Community Hospital. He and his wife

Jean celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on December 31, 2005. In 1952, Jerry moved to the Lansing area to attend Michigan State University. In association with William Brittain, Jerry formed Mahogany Farms in 1969 that later developed into Premier Cattle Corporation, a nationally recognized organization. Additionally, Jerry and Jean established Manor Hill Farms, where an Angus cattle breeding program and Arabian horses were managed, shown, and cared for by their children. In 1979 Jerry became the first Land Management Director at Michigan State University. Jerry's vision and passion was to establish a state-of-the-art facility where livestock exhibitors could showcase agriculture to the general public. He inspired others to share in his vision that led to the construction of the Pavilion for Agriculture and Livestock Education. Retiring in 2000, Jerry Haarer has left an extraordinary legacy of service to his family and all those involved in the livestock and horse industry. In 2004, the Agriculture Department at MSU established a Livestock Industry Scholarship in his name to continue to recognize Jerry's and to thank him for all he had done.

Jerry is survived by his wife, Jean and their five children, Ronald Haarer of Bloomfield, Michigan, Terry (Christopher) Saxton of Plymouth, Michigan, Jeff (Michelle) Haarer of Lansing, Michigan, Pam (Kevin) Collins of Windermere, Florida and Karen (Robert) Ziolkowski of Naples, Florida, twelve grandchildren and sister-in-law, Paula Haarer.

Lansing, Feb. 20, 2006- A humble farmer and diligent worker, C. Gerald Haarer helped establish an agricultural empire at Michigan State University. As the first director of the MSU Land Management Department, Haarer oversaw the construction of the MSU Pavilion and enhanced the university's off-campus properties and facilities. Haarer, 71, died of congestive heart failure Friday at a hospital in Naples, Florida. He was surrounded by his wife, Jean, and their children and grandchildren. "His whole life and vision has been in agriculture and farms," said Haarer's daughter, Pam Collins of Windermere, Florida. "I've never met a harder working, humbler man who never wanted credit for anything."

Achieving a lifelong dream, Haarer saw the construction of the Pavilion for Agriculture and Livestock Education before he retired in 2000. The massive pavilion at Farm Lane and Mount Hope Road, built for $14.5 million, is now a staple of Spartan life, hosting hundreds of rodeos, shows, auctions and tournaments each year. As land management director, Haarer was in charge of research facilities at 44 sites with more than 20,000 acres in 28 counties. He came to Lansing to study at MSU, where he was a member of the livestock judging team, after graduating from Saline High School in 1952.

In 1957, he started a small meat processing plant with his father and brother. He later formed Mahogany Farms, which developed into Premier Cattle Corp., and then Manor Hill Farms, featuring an Angus cattle breeding program and Arabian horses. He became the first land management director at MSU in 1979. "Jerry's great impact was that he saw each of the MSU locations as a reflection of the university," said Roger Wilkinson, the former MSU vice president of finance, who worked with Haarer for 12 years. "He had a major responsibility and was a wonderful man to work with."

"He dabbled in all the arts and was a master in all."

Mr. Ketter died last Sunday of an anoxic brain injury. He was 48. Mr. Ketter could boast of having created at least eight shows on WBCQ, centering on everything from music to the politics of the day. "He was so bright and so talented and such a sweet man," said Mr. Ketter's wife, Regina. Mr. Ketter was born and raised in Buffalo. After graduating from high school, he moved to New York City, where he worked at Olden Camera Co. and immersed himself in the fast-paced world of fashion photography.

In 1979, Mr. Ketter moved to Pittsburgh to attend The Art Institute and played in several punk rock bands in the early 1980s. A mutual friend and a mutual interest in music brought him together with his wife, then a music student at Duquesne University. "It was a kind of love-at-first-sight thing," said Ms.

Ketter. "A little light bulb went off in my head and I just knew it."

They married in 1983. In 1987, when radio station WYEP-FM received a grant to come back to the airwaves, Mr. Ketter worked to help the station begin anew. He worked as a studio engineer, designing the studio, selecting and purchasing necessary equipment and training staff. Mr. Ketter served as operations manager through the 1990s. "Michael could pretty much figure out any issue that came up technically," said Rosemary Welsch, Afternoon Mix host and producer at WYEP. "He was really into the mechanics of things but he was also a very spiritual person ... very calm, very centered, very focused." After leaving WY.....

Notes for Harold P. (Zeke) Zilka:

Ballston Spa - Harold P. (Zeke) Zilka, born Nov. 21, 1938, the son of Frank S. and Mary Zilka

(deceased), passed away Monday, Jan. 7, 2013. He was the beloved father of his sons, Frank S. Zilka II and his wife, Suzanne, and grandchildren, Katie, Andrew and Jon; and Timothy R. Zilka. Zeke enjoyed a close relationship with his in-laws, the Mann family of Queensbury. He was predeceased by his wife, Jane Widmayer Flynn, and survived by his stepdaughter, Christine Flynn Curran and her husband, Dr. Joshua Curran.

Zeke graduated in 1956 from Johnstown High School, where he lettered in five sports per year. Prior to high school graduation, he was offered a scholarship to the University of Buffalo for football but chose to attend RIT for baseball and engineering and graduated with a degree in mechanical engineering. As a starter at RIT in baseball, he drew the attention of major league scouts and received no less than seven opportunities in professional baseball.

In 1960, he married Olivette Bunner Williams, his lifelong friend and the mother of their two sons, Frank and Tim. She survives him. His athletic career after college included being an original member in 1962 of the Glove Cities Colonials semi-pro football team. He played semi-pro baseball with the Schenectady Kralcs through the '60s, and in 1968 he took up the game of golf. His golf career spanned 44 years, having won numerous area golf tournaments. He was a member of Edison Club, Mohawk Club, Glens Falls Country Club and Saratoga National Golf Club. In 1978, Zeke set a modern-day course record at Edison Club. Zeke qualified and played as an amateur in the BC open in Endicott and was low amateur for the tournament. Zeke was an avid skier and a certified member of Professional Ski Instructors of America. He was a member of the West Mountain and Gore Mountain ski schools. Zeke was an avid outdoor sportsman and a member of the Gooley Club since 1962. He received his pilot's license in 1964.

In 1960, he joined Schenectady Chemical Co., and in 1972 he joined Pneutronics Group Inc. as a sales engineer. In 1981, he struck out on his own and incorporated H2O Technology. His sons, Frank and Tim Zilka, joined their father in 1984 as partners and the three grew the business to a multi-state operation. That business was sold in 1992 to Waste Management. In 1993, he incorporated Tech Services International, a pipeline cleaning and consulting company in which he remained active until his passing. He felt that Obama and the present administration were out to destroy small business.

He never missed his sons' athletic endeavors, his granddaughter Katie's ski races or lacrosse games or his grandsons', Andrew's and Jon's, football games. He played golf and hunted with his sons and grandsons until he entered the hospital Dec. 12, 2012. He touched the lives of many people as an athlete, outdoorsman and entrepreneur. He was dearly loved and will be missed by many, including his beloved dogs.

Relatives and friends are invited to a celebration of his life at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 15, 2013, at Saratoga National Golf Club, 458 Union Ave., Saratoga Springs. In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations in Zeke's name to Saratoga Hospital Foundation, 211 Church St., Saratoga Springs, New York 12866.
