Notes for Oscar Joseph Haeussler, twin:

The tornado which howled across southeastern Michigan and northern Ohio Monday evening June 8, 1953 reached a furious hand up into the Pleasant Lake area northeast of Manchester and left one man dead in its wake. Alvin Haeussler, 30, huddled with four other members of the Oscar Haeussler household and a neighbor was the only victim as the tornado roared down and leveled the large, substantially built farm home. Apparently he was hit by some of the falling debris and killed almost instantly. His chest was crushed and neck broken. Miraculously, the others in the house escaped relatively unharmed. His father, Oscar Haeussler, was blown clear of the wreckage. Roaring northeast across Freedom and Lodi Townships, the tornado cut a swath of destruction more than five miles long and up to 200 feet wide leaving the one dead and at least two others injured. Allen Alber of 13011 Bethel Church Road said he saw the twister forming and that at first it seemed to have twin funnels which as it gained speed finally molded into one near the intersection of Bethel Church and Eiseman Roads.

According to Frank Weiss who runs a filling station at Pleasant Lake, the storm gathered headway and took off northeast toward Pleasant Lake He said he thought maybe it would hit the lake and blow itself out as did one in that area over thirty years ago when a twister roared down from Rogers Corners leaving a path of destruction and finally spent itself as it churned for several days in Pleasant Lake But this was not the case It caved in barn doors at the Edgar Little farm at 6181 Ernst Road and struck the Edwin Linke home at 5870 Lima Center Road. Mrs. Linke said she stood “petrified and praying” as the two funnels—one large and one small—circled on opposite sides of the house, knocking down a chimney, a windmill television antenna and several trees. At the Oscar Renz home it blew down the garage, ruined six windows and uprooted trees.

L. Herschel Snyder, owner of a grocery store at the lake, watched a huge column of water about 150 feet picked up as the tornado snaked across the lake. Luckily the roaring funnel missed the Michigan Gas Storage’s Pleasant Lake plant but, bent on destruction, it roared down on the Haeussler home Oscar Haeussler and his sons Alvin and Glenn were outside with a neighbor, Luther Schaible. The men sounded an alarm when Oscar, seeing the twisting mass, recognized it and told the rest to go to the basement of the house. Alvin’s wife, Ruth, and four months old son were in their trailer nearby and were summoned, as the storm approached. The Haeussler’s said it roared like fifty freight cars and others in the area said it sounded like a magnified sound of crushed paper as trees and debris was gathered in its path. Mrs. Oscar Haeussler, her two sons, Alvin and Glenn, and Alvin’s wife and baby and the neighbor, Luther Schaible, raced to the basement while Oscar remained on the ground floor. The tornado roared down on the barn lot and smashed its way across that corner of the farm as it ripped off a corner of the barn roof, demolished a corn crib, tool shed and chicken house. Three of the family’s cars were badly smashed as the roof collapsed on them. According to neighbors a large cement block was driven under a back wheel of the Haeussler truck. The family’s tractor, combine, rake and many other farm implements stood silent testimony to the ravages, of the terrific storm.

As the storm hit the house which was stoutly constructed, it leveled the entire structure as though it were made of cards. Some said that a deep freeze in the basement did much to hold the heavy timbers; from falling | on others in the basement. Hop-scotching across the farm land, the tornado cut through a woods on the Weidmayer farm. It seemed miraculous that more were not killed and that the thickly populated area of the lake was left practically unharmed. Residents took to their basements .and many said they could see debris in the whirling cone. Clothing belonging to the Haeussler | household has been picked up for a mile away according to reports.

For the last time the storm struck at the Robert L. Walker farm on Ellsworth road about four miles away from the main destruction. There it blew down two barns and several out buildings. The Walkers and their daughter Janet, 14, were sitting down to supper about 7:45 when the storm struck. The first warning came when a car stopped and a woman got out. Mrs. Luella Weidmayer of Schneider road had a baby in her arms and rushed two small children ahead of her as they ran to the house. She told quickly of the approaching storm and Mr. Walker ordered everyone to the basement. They said it sounded like a freight train as in a few minutes it crashed down the two barns, silo, tool shed and trees. Luckily the house was unharmed. A bull and goat in one of the barns miraculously escaped. Some of the chickens in the brooder house were killed.

The storm went on across fields and through woods and blew itself out. It was not believed that the snaking mass of destruction crossed Waters road. Detroit Edison Company sent emergency crews to the area as power was cut off at 7:45. Telephone service was disrupted. Washtenaw County Road Commission crews worked all night clearing roads. Flood lights were brought to the scene of the Haeussler tragedy by the Saline fire department and sheriff’s officers worked to maintain order—in the worst storm here in many years.

A queer bit of coincident came Monday night when ninety-year-old Mrs. H. T. Yungclas who had been visiting her sons in Iowa, called the Frank Reck home and told her granddaughter Linda that she was flying back to Michigan on Thursday where there weren’t any tornadoes. She said that there had been six in that area since she arrived and that one on Sunday night leveled the large farm barn on her son’s farm which Mrs. Yungclas’s husband had built in 1903 what a surprise she’ll have when she returns to Michigan where we don’t have tornados!

Jan 1969 - Oscar Haeussler, maintenance chief and “you name it; he’ll fix it” wizard at Saline Community Hospital for the past 10 years, will retire next year. “We will all be missing him,” said Vince Catacuzzeno, hospital administrator. Haeussler, who has kept the hospital working smoothly and enjoys being around people, installed most of the air-conditioning units, besides his regular work. He gives his age as “a little over 20” . . . but he was born in 1896 and was a lifelong farmer and resident of Freedom Township until he and his wife moved to town in the fall of 1957. They now live on Linden Court. In 1952,

Notes for Ina Katherine Feldkamp:

Mrs. Ina Haeussler - Rural Teacher

Mrs. Ina Haeussler resigned after a 28-year teaching career. She taught school for six years before her marriage and returned to the profession in 1944. She has held offices in the local, district and regional Michigan Education Association and has just finished three years as local treasurer of the MEA. She was employed at the Short School east of the village when it was consolidated with the Manchester system and she was transferred to teach the fourth grade. When enrollment reached a new high and two rural schools were put into use again she returned to the third grade in one of these.

It was no hardship for Mrs. Haeussler to teach in the country school-even though she had only one grade the second time around. She liked the variation of different classes. School enrollments ranged from 15 to 42 and she doesn't remember when she didn't have at least one child in each grade, kindergarten through eighth. There was more to being a country school teacher than met the eye. The teacher tried to be at school at 7:30 a.m. and the children came at 9 a.m. In the winter there were paths to be shoveled, not only to the road, but also to a couple of "little buildings" not too far away. Another path led to the pump. A pail of water had to be brought in. Everyone used the dipper.

Often on an icy cold Sunday, she and her husband, Erwin, would drive to school and start the fire so it wouldn't be so chilly Monday morning. With school out for the children at 4 p.m. the teacher would find herself sweeping and cleaning to prepare for another day. There was a closeness and friendliness in the country school that is lacking in the larger systems. Older children accept the responsibility of caring for the little ones. At recess they taught youngsters to play games and how to get along with one another and helped them in and out of their heavy wraps.

"Children no longer come to school barefooted," she recalled. "One early spring a family of children came barefooted. About noon it started to snow and continued all afternoon. They were worried. I suggested that the bigger boys help me by chopping kindling after school and the younger ones help put the room in order so I could leave a little early and I would take them home. They were so happy!" In those days you didn't miss school because of the weather-at least the teacher didn't. But if there was sickness or some major reason for not having school the teacher and children made it up at the end of the year.

The highlight of the year was the Christmas program. The children were given parts to learn around Thanksgiving. Parents helped and loaned furniture and other props. The night of nights came and the little country school would bulge at the seams with relatives, friends and folks in the area, with or without children. The teacher provided a gift for each child. It was expected and she did it gladly.

With the close of school was another treat. Sometimes Mrs. Haeussler chartered a bus for a field trip, maybe to Greenfield Village or the zoo. This was her party. Occasionally parents offered to drive and take a load of youngsters. She said she tried to plan something to give the rural children an opportunity to know some of the things that their city cousins took for granted.

Children are far more advanced today for their age than they were when she launched on a teaching career, said Mrs. Haeussler. But in the rush and hurry of today, she believes some important things are lost along the way. With a teacher so devoted, it was understandable that when one of her former students, not yet in high school, on hearing that Mrs. Haeussler was leaving, rushed up and grasped her hand, "You aren't leaving? You just can't."

The First Methodist Church of Chelsea was the scene Saturday May 3, 1958, of the wedding of the former Beatrice A. Fowler, of Ann Arbor and Mr. Glen Haeussler of Saline. The Rev. S. D. Kinde was the officiating clergyman. The bride wore a pure silk bombazine gown styled with a chapel train. Alencon lace trimmed the neckline and bodice which had long sleeves. A tiny bombazine Juliet cap trimmed in Alencon lace and seed pearls held a fingertip French illusion veil, and the bride carried a white orchid on a white prayer book. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence V. Fowler of Ann Arbor. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Haeussler of Saline. Mrs. William M. They were dressed alike in waltz length princess styled dresses of aqua over taffeta. They wore matching crowns and carried arm bouquets of roses.

Victor Haeussler of Saline served his brother as best man. Ushers were Weston Haeussler of Tecumseh, another brother of the bridegroom, and Andrew Luckhardt of Pleasant Lake. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement. The 3-tiered cake was cut and served by the bride's aunt Mrs. Harold Boltz. The groom's cake was served by the groom's sister Mrs. Don Steiner. Mrs. Victor Haeussler poured the coffee and Miss Ruth Haeussler served at the punch table. Marriage Notes for Robert Heisler and Marlene Green:

Miss Marlene Green became the bride of Robert Gary Heisler at a ceremony which took place Feb. 15, 1957 at 7 o'clock in the evening at St. Thomas Episcopal Church. The Rev. Kenneth Davis officiated at his first marriage service since becoming curate of the church, using the double ring ceremony. A musical program was given by the organist, Earl G. Mest. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Green of Bellevue who have recently been making their home with Mrs. Green's mother, Mrs. A. J. Fox at 21 Convis St. She was given in marriage by her father and wore a floor-length princess gown of white brocaded satin, with a bonnet of white panne velvet and a short veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and garnet roses. Mrs. Arthur Green of Bellevue, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor, and Mrs. Lowell Mead was the bridesmaid. Mr. Green, the bride's brother, served as best man, and the ushers were the groom's brother Cecil Heisler, Jr. and Donald Barnett both of Olivet.

A reception followed the ceremony in the parish house. A decorated wedding cake made by Mrs. Arthur Green and Mrs. Jack Thornton, cousin of the bride was cut by Mrs. Heisler. Miss Donna June Swafford served punch and Miss Lee Ann Heisler kept the guest register. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Heisler have returned to Battle Creek, and the groom left Wednesday for Philadelphia where he will go on two years active duty as a Naval Reserve, He expects to have shore leave during the summer when he will be joined by his bride who will be graduated in June from Bellevue High School. She will continue to reside at her grandmother's home here. Mr. Heisler, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Heisler of Route 2, Olivet, has been employed by the Fisher Body Corp, of Lansing.

She married Barry George Grossman 05 Sep 1959 in Bridgewater Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Roland Grossman and Elizabeth Lowery. He was born 1938.

Notes for Ellen Marie Haeussler:

Ann Arbor, Michigan - Ellen Marie (Haeussler) Grossman had a full and wonderful life filled with her passions: music, travel and most importantly, family. She passed away at home with family at her side on February 28, 2024, from congestive heart failure. Ellen was born to Ralph and Florence (Bohms) Haeussler at the family farm in Freedom Township (Manchester) on September 2, 1938. She attended the Silver Lake one-room schoolhouse from kindergarten through 8th grade. She was often kept home from school to work the farm including driving the tractor to disc and cultivate the family fields or follow the combine with a truck to be filled with wheat, oats, or corn. Her daily job was to bottle-feed animals before walking the mile to school. Her family had a large garden from which she learned how to can and freeze. She continued this tradition with her own gardens for many years. Some cherished family moments were making ice cream as a Sunday treat.

Ellen and Barry Grossman met while attending Manchester High School (1952-1956) and started officially dating after their Senior Trip to New York City. They loved to listen to and dance to many of the touring big bands at the Wampler's Lake Pavilion. Three years after starting to date, Ellen and Barry married at St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater, Michigan on September 5, 1959. Their love of music and dance permeated their lives together. Ellen sang in church (St. John's Lutheran Church and Webster United Church of Christ) and held the longest membership in the Women's Chamber Chorus in Ann Arbor. She was able to combine her singing with travel on several European trips with church choirs. She loved singing in cathedrals in Ireland, England, and Spain.

As a couple they were dedicated square dancers since 1962 and combined their love of travel, music, and dance by traveling throughout Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, and Virginia. They danced internationally in Canada, England, Germany, and Italy, as well as cruising and dancing on a Caribbean Cruise ship. The mode of travel expanded when Barry earned his private pilot license in 1966 while a member of the Ann Arbor Fliers Flying Club. Ellen and Barry flew to many places in Michigan and once flew as far as Key West, Florida.

Education was also a cornerstone of Ellen's life. After attending Manchester HS and graduating as Valedictorian, she went on to graduate (also in 1956) from the Comptometer School in Jackson, Michigan and attended Eastern Michigan University all while working summer clerical jobs with Sunstrand Corp. in Ann Arbor and Sealtest Foods in Ypsilanti. She graduated from EMU with B.A in Education with a major in math and minors in Spanish and physics in 1960 and a master's in Education in 1962. After graduation she taught middle school math at Marshall Junior High School in Westland, Michigan for one year and then George C. Marshall Junior High School in South Redford, Michigan for 7 years. Ellen's stint with teaching ended with the arrival of the couple's first child. Her love of learning spanned her lifetime- she was rarely without a book or something to read. Autobiographies were a favorite. As their family grew, they continued their traveling by visiting and/or camping in 48 out of the 50 United States (North Dakota and Hawaii were missed) and southern Canada. As with dancing, the couple traveled internationally and added Australia (with the family), New Zealand, Israel, Egypt, and many other countries in Europe to their list of places they had visited. Cancun, Mexico became a favorite destination to wait out winter-made better by traveling with friends from Plymouth, Michigan.

Ellen's faith was an integral part of who she was, and her faith was intricately intertwined with her passion for music. She was baptized and confirmed into membership at St. John's Lutheran Church in Bridgewater and went on to sing in the choir there. In 1981 the couple brought their family to Webster United Church of Christ where she and Barry remain(ed) active members. She continued to sing at Webster as long as she could. She loved openly and lived fully. She made sure that Barry, her children, and her grandchildren knew that she loved them. Her motto in her later years was "live life to its fullest, because you don't know about tomorrow."

Ellen was preceded in death by her parents, Ralph and Florence Haeussler; her three brothers, Harold, William, and Gerald. Ellen is survived by her beloved husband, Barry; daughter, Susan (John) Baughn; and son, B. Brian (Karla) Grossman; grandchildren, Erin and John Baughn, Kathryn and Elysabeth Grossman, and many cousins, nieces, nephews, and exchange grandchildren.

The family wishes to thank Arbor Hospice for their loving care. A Memorial Service and interment will take place at Webster United Church of Christ on March 23, 2024, at 11:00-12:00 with a luncheon to follow.

- 588 ii. Karen Ann Haeussler, born 09 Nov 1972. She married Robert Jason Carrigan; born 24 Jul 1972.

Notes for Robert Jason Carrigan:

November, 2014: "This is a new place to call home," says Karen Carrigan, sitting with husband Jason in their Carrigan Cafe four days after the grand opening. Brian and Lori Sun used to own the space, formerly called My Favorite Cafe. Reached by phone, Brian Sun explains, "We have aging parents to care for, so we decided to sell." The Carrigans were ready to buy. After inking the deal on September 4, the Carrigans closed for twenty-two days while they completed a few touch-ups. Today its floor-to-ceiling windows illuminate newly finished pine plank floors and freshly painted pale green walls. The interior exposed brick remains, and, continuing the Suns' commitment to showcase local talent, the walls are adorned with works by whichever artist is currently featured at Two Twelve Arts Center.

Karen, forty-two, was raised on a farm in Manchester. It's no longer in the family, but the farm work ethic and support system live on. Her mom Ruth Haeussler, sister Alicia Smith, and nieces pitched in to help get the cafe ready for opening day. Jason, also forty-two, isn't quitting his day job yet, although he wouldn't mind giving up the commute to Trenton, where he works for Chrysler. "For now, I'm the guy writing the checks," he jokes. Karen Carrigan brings education and experience to the table: a 1995 WCC degree in culinary arts, a 2013 EMU degree in hotel and restaurant management, and years of restaurant work at everything from the WXYZ cafeteria in Southfield to Saline's beloved Drowsy Parrot. She's excited to feature local vendors: Guernsey Farms, Plymouth's Coffee Express, Milan Coffee Works, Benny's Bakery, Ed's Bread, Barry's Bagels, and Rumi's Passion Gluten Free Bakery.

Carrigan's sandwich menu offers a half-dozen choices. All $6.99, they have names like the Clover (turkey, Swiss, tomato, honey mustard, and mayo on farmhouse white) and the Carrigan Club (bacon, chicken breast, lettuce, tomato, provolone, and roasted red pepper sauce on sesame French bread); there's also a design-your-own-sandwich option. "It's an evolving menu," explains Karen. She promises breakfast sandwiches, soups, and salads. "I'm still looking into a local soup maker, and I'm definitely making my egg salad," she says. Jason says that he and Karen want Carrigan Cafe "to be like the cafes of old, a venue that nurtures artists, poets, singer-songwriters and storytellers." His late father, Andrew Carrigan, was a schoolteacher and beloved local poet. His mother was also a teacher. "They were an inspiration, always encouraging me to do what I want to do," says Karen. Throughout the afternoon, customers come and go steadily, several calling Karen by name. Circling back to the home theme, she says, "It's like seeing family." Carrigan Cafe, 107 S. Ann Arbor Street, Saline, Daily 6 a.m. - 7 p.m.

Marriage Notes for Andrea Haeussler and Anthony Lauderdale:

When planning their big day, Andrea Haeussler (27 and a physical therapist) and Anthony Lauderdale (33 and an analyst) made sure to include the bride's favorite colors, pink and purple, while keeping a traditional feel. Bright blooms and rich purple bridesmaid dresses lent a romantic and modern touch to the classic church wedding. "I wanted my flowers to tie in the bright pinks for our color palette. I was less concerned with what type of bloom and more interested in the quality of color and variety of textures to really pop against the ladies' purple dresses. Grey Fox Floral did a great job of bringing my vision to life," says Andrea. When looking for a ceremony location, the Chicago residents browsed in the Ann Arbor, Michigan, area in order to be closer to the bride's family.

After viewing many options, Andrea and Anthony chose to be married at Trinity Lutheran Church, the same church the bride's parents married in, 32 years before. In the company of 120 of their closest friends and family members, Andrea and Anthony exchanged Christian vows. Andrea wore a lace coverup during the traditional ceremony, as a modest addition to her strapless dress. Andrea's mother gifted the bride with a hand-beaded belt, which added a glamorous touch to the bride's lace gown. The bride and groom invited guests to celebrate their nuptials at the Holiday Inn in Ann Arbor. "It was a surprising location in my book, but we chose this for a number of reasons. The ballroom had the perfect clean, contemporary look I was hoping for. They had recent renovations throughout their facilities, which showed beautifully. Finally, they had the perfect location for travel and downtown access, and onsite accommodations for our many out-of-town guests, really bringing everything together for us," says Andrea.

Notes for Julian Patrick Moore:

Julian Patrick Moore, born June 10, 1957 passed away early morning of Tuesday August 14, 2018 from a heart attack. We all knew Pat in our own special way; Father, Brother, Uncle, and Friend. Let us reflect in our hearts what he was to us and remember him as the kind-hearted, generous, and loving man we all knew and loved so dearly. He loved the outdoors; was an avid motorcyclist; had the best sense of humor; strong work ethic and was the best storyteller. Pat would do anything for anyone in need. He was a kind and patient man. However, if you ever got "the look", you knew patience was running thin.

Pat is preceded in death by his parents Marcus and Elizabeth Moore and brother in law Ed Hanson. He is survived by his daughters Kaitlyn Moore, Mandi Kish, and Leta Kish, and son Cameron Rose. Siblings, June White (Don), Barbara Hanson, Michael Moore, Keith Moore (Sabrina), Rockie Moore (Maria), James Moore (Maria), Ladson Moore (Carole). Grandchildren, Dailyn, Cherish, Riley, Jaxson, a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
