Jan. 27, 1927 - Many friends and neighbors gathered at the Presbyterian church Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock to attend the funeral services for the late Edward U. Scharr. Arthur Driscoll sang "Face to Face," and Burt Carr sang "No Burdens Yonder " and "When I Shall Fall Asleep." Rev. B. Scott Bates testified to the quiet, unassuming, faithful life of Mr. Scharr and spoke from the text, "Christ is All in All," emphasizing Christ's all-sufficiency for life's journey. Lake lodge No. 50, I.O.O.F., attended the funeral in a body and conducted the ritualistic services at the grave. The deceased was a member of the Odd Fellow lodge at Prescott, Wisconsin. The pall bearers were Forest R Rockwood, Tom Stevens, Roy Schaller, Chester King, M.A. Peterson and William Koegler.

Edward U. Scharr was a native of Pepin, Wisconsin, being born March 13, 1861. He was united in marriage at Prescott, Wisconsin, in December, 1889, to Miss Clara Eckstein. She married (1) ? Fessel. She married (2) George Lavon Strain 03 Sep 1949 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan. He was born 18 Jun 1929 in Albion, Calhoun Co, Michigan, and died 06 Feb 1954 in Albion, Calhoun Co, Michigan.

Notes for George Lavon Strain:

Feb. 6, 1954 - The fiery collision of two cars at the entrance to the U.S. 12 by-pass just west of Parma Saturday night claimed two more lives Sunday. The toll for the night accident is now four. A fifth person, Mrs. Phyllis Scholz, 26, of Jackson, is still in critical condition at Sheldon Memorial Hospital in Albion with severe burns over much of her body.

Those who died early Sunday were Mrs. Scholz's husband, Richard F. Scholz, 29, of Jackson, believed to have been one of the drivers, and Mervin J. Struckman, 29, of Jackson. Mr. Scholz, a New York Central fireman, died at 12 :50 a.m. Sunday, and Mr. Struckman, a printer, died at 2 :10 a.m. Sunday. Killed outright in the accident were George L. Strain, 24, of 207 Park Street, Albion, who was driving alone; and Mrs. Neoma Struckman, 27, of Jackson. who was burned to death in the Scholz car.

Mr. and Mrs. Struckman and Mr. and Mrs. Scholz were driving to Marshall to celebrate two birthdays when their car was struck in the rear by the car driven by Mr. Strain, state police said. The crash ruptured the gasoline tank of the Scholz car, the fumes exploded and ballooning flames engulfed both cars as they careened into the barnyard of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Norton, who called state police and the Parma fire department. Troopers said both cars were on "old", U.S. 12, driving westward, as they approached the entrance to the new U.S. 12 bypass. Troopers believe that the Scholz car halted for the stop sign before entering the bypass intersection, and that Mr. Strain had failed to slow sufficiently to stop in time. There were no witnesses to the accident, however, and Mrs. Scholz cannot be questioned because of her serious condition.

Parma firemen had to soak both cars before they could reach the dead and injured. Mr. Strain was not burned, and is believed to have died from a skull fracture and internal injuries. The body of Mrs. Struckman was found on the rear floor of the Scholz car. She was burned beyond recognition. Mr. Scholz and Mrs. Struckman both were severely burned and had severe cuts and other injuries. Mr. Strain was a furnace installer employed by the Wildt Plumbing & Heating Co. at Albion. He was enroute home from Jackson. where he had been either working or taking part in National Guard activities. He was a first sergeant in the 943rd Field Artillery Battalion in Jackson.

The Struckmans and the Scholzes have been close friends for many years, and were on their way to Marshall to celebrate the birthdays of Mr. Struckman and Mrs. Scholz. Coroner Loren Bates of Jackson said today that he did not think an inquest would be held. Mr. Strain was the father of two small sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Struckman were the parents of a 15-month-old son, Jimmy. George Lavon Strain was born on July 18, 1929, in Albion, a son of Forrest L. and Edwina (Smith) Strain. He had lived in Albion all of his life, and graduated from Albion High School in 1947. He and Joan Hainenach were married on Sept. 3, 1949, in Marshall. He was employed at the Corning Glass Works prior to joining the Wildt firm. Prior to that he worked for the Holland Furnace Co., and was in the heating business with his father for a time.

Survivors include his wife, Joan; two sons, Michael, 2, and Patrick, two months; his parents; a sister, Mrs. Lois Lance of Battle Creek; a grandmother. Mrs. Minnie Smith of Monroe; four aunts and several cousins.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the King & Helrigel Funeral Home in Albion, with the Rev. S. Conger Hathaway of Battle Creek officiating. Burial will be at Riverside Cemetery, and burial ceremonies will be under the auspices of the National Guard. Mrs. Struckman was a niece of Mrs. Martin O. Miller of 538 Fairfield Ave., Battle Creek.

Marriage Notes for Mary Schermerhorn and Lynn Wolf:

The Faith Lutheran church in Portland set the marriage last Sunday July 16, 1950 of Miss Mary Jane Schermerhorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Schermerhorn of Corvallis, and Lynn Edwin Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Wolf of Portland. The double-ring ceremony took place in the late afternoon amid pastel gladiolas and softly glowing candelabras which decorated the altar. The bride was given in marriage by her father before Rev. Herbert Nottbohn. The ever-popular "Oh Promise Me", was selection chosen by the couple as their memory tune. The formal bridal costume was of white marquisette over a taffeta hoop skirt. Two tiers of white ruffles on the yoke complimented the three tiers on her skirt which down the aisle. Her bouquet was of two purple orchids set on a white Bible. Stephanotis and white ribbon in long strands formed her flowing marker.

Maid of honor, Miss Beverly Joy Kubat of Chicago, Illinois, preceded the bride to the altar dressed in a blue marquisette formal-length dress with a full skirt. She wore matching gauntlets and a heart-shaped bonnet also of blue marquisette. Her flowers consisted of pink gladiola buds interlaced in a white heart-shaped frame. Serving as best man for his brother was Eldon A. Wolf, who came to Portland from his home in Albany, California. The two ushers were Joseph Lakefish and George Parrish, both of Portland. Mrs. Schermerhorn chose for her daughter's wedding a street-length dress of sheer print in black and white. Her picture hat was of black straw and the remainder of her accessories were white. She wore a corsage of variegated shades of pink carnations. The groom's mother also wore street-length dress, but of turquoise crepe; her accessories, black and straw-colored. Her corsage was similar to that of Mrs. Schermerhorn.

Following the tying of the nuptial knot, a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Eldon A. Wolf, wife of the best man, took charge of the pouring, while Mrs. Bruce Hahn, of Corvallis, cut the cake. They were assisted by Misses Rosemary Both and Janet Wilson, of Portland and North Powder, respectively. Miss Ruth Sono, also of Portland, attended to the guest book as relatives and friends of the newly-married couple intermingled in the room gayly decorated with pink and white snapdragons on the tables and pink and white gladiolas over the fire place. Candles served as the only lighting.

Dressed for her going-away, the bride later appeared in a suit aqua sharkskin. Her accessories were white; her corsage, two purple orchids. The new Mrs. Wolf was graduated from Calumet High school in Chicago, and is a 1950 graduate of the Oregon State college pharmacy school. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi social sorority and of Lambda Kappa Sigma, a pharmacy sorority. Her husband, a graduate of Benson Technical High school in Portland, is also a 1950 graduate of O.S.C. pharmacy school. Previous to his college entrance, he had served 26 months with the army. He is employed at The Dalles Pharmacy in The Dalles, Oregon, where the honeymooners returned to live.

Janine Wolf, Dec. 13, 2001 - That's me riding an elephant across the Broadway Bridge in Portland from the train station to the Memorial Coliseum...a stunt for Barnum & Bailey Circus in 1978 for KYTE Radio. Check out the shoes...what was I thinking? After 40+ years on the radio, I have decided to hang up my headphones and retire. I truly didn't think I'd be as emotional about it as I am because I'm ready, but at the same time, I'm letting go of a career that I have loved. How lucky am I that I get to finish my career after eleven years at an amazing radio station, K103. I'm thankful to get to do it on my terms, and grateful for all the wonderful people I've met, worked with, and become life-long friends with because of it. Above all, I'm thankful for the listeners, YOU are the biggest reason I have loved this work so much!

Being on the radio was never my intention when I graduated from PSU in 1976. I tried getting into pharmaceutical sales, thinking it would be lucrative and interesting, and because I thought I'd be good at it since my parents were pharmacists and I grew up working at our neighborhood drug store in North Portland. But after turning down three incredibly good offers, one including a new Cutlass Supreme, I realized it wasn't for me, my heart wasn't in it. A little seed had been planted by the late Les Sarnoff, who at the time, was a part-time disc jockey at KGON, and a substitute teacher, who I ended up working with when I was doing my student teaching at Madison High School. Les was hired to substitute when my mentor teacher faked a physical accident breaking up a fight in the cafeteria, long story, but the guy went to Pebble Beach to be in a golf tournament (and I never told on him). One day after watching me teach, Les said to me, "you know, you'd make a really good disc jockey." It was from out of left field, but it was THAT seed.

After I decided against pharmaceutical sales, I started looking into jobs in journalism, at The Oregonian, and small local newspapers, but it didn't pan out. But while I was waiting in the lobby for an interview for a copywriting job at KOIN TV, a woman I knew from PSU journalism classes, the late Jane Hoyt, who worked in news at KOIN Radio, saw me and asked me why I was there. When I told her she said, "you don't want to do that, come find me when you're done." I found Jane, she took me into a news booth, handed me copy and a set of headphones, and recorded me reading the news. That was it! I found what I was going to love doing for over 40 years.

My career started in Portland, but I was in Los Angeles for 25 years, where I also did a little TV. During my career I got to play Disco when it was brand new, was the first female disc jockey ever at the biggest radio station in Portland, Super 62 KGW, and got to be country when country was cool during the Urban Cowboy faze. I've done Top 40, Adult Contemporary, Rock, Soft Rock, Hot AC, Smooth Jazz, News, co-hosted a nationally syndicated home improvement talk show, co-hosted a national Country count-down show, was a TV booth announcer, Los Angeles Emmy Nominated TV show host and producer, and the voice of Mexicana Airlines, and I don't speak Spanish! Because of radio I've met so many interesting people and celebrities, from Dolly Parton to Cher, Al Gore, Billy Joel, Johnny Cash, Tina Turner, my favorite, John Candy, and so many more. I learned how to ski, drive a motorcycle, ride an elephant, and a mechanical bull because of radio. I got to go to free concerts and events, fly in a Lear Jet, and visit Disney World. Through radio I had the opportunity to work with amazing causes from Komen to Make-A-Wish, The Salvation Army, Pink Lemonade Project and so many more. I have been blessed!

Many people have helped me throughout my career, I'd like to thank a few now, in reverse chronological order:

-God, my parents, and my family.

-You Listeners.

-The entire K103 staff and all of Heart Portland, some of the finest pros I've ever worked with, and my boss, Michael La Crosse for making my last two years, two of the best.

-John Williams, for being an amazing radio partner and forever friend.

-iHeart's Tony Coles, for his integrity, leadership, example, and for hiring me in Portland...twice!

-All the amazing talent and staff that I worked with at Westwood One Radio Networks, Los Angeles.

-Ken Sutherland, for the opportunities and your friendship.

-Melanie Steensland, for helping me get into TV, for always supporting my career, and for your friendship of nearly 40 years.

-Charlie Cook, who changed my life by hiring me at my first job in LA at the legendary KHJ, and for opening so many doors for me, not to mention our 40-year friendship.

-The late Mike Phillips, for hiring me at my first big job at KGW and for telling me that if I physically smiled, I'd always sound happy on the air.

-Kim Hollaway, my radio sister and forever friend.

-The late Ron Allen, for his love and for always being my cheerleader.

-The Portland PD, who after my first time as a disc jockey told me I'd never be good at it...that's all I needed to hear.

-Rich, the Program Director at KUIK, Hillsboro, who gave me my first radio job in 1977 after telling me on a Tuesday, if I got my FCC License by Friday, I'd get the job, never believing I'd get it, but I did and he said, "I've taken that test 3 times and failed, you got the job!"

-Bob Brooks, when he was the Program Director at KGON, for giving me the study guide and telling me to get my FCC License.

-The late Jane Hoyt, who put me behind that mic for the first time.

-The late KISN Good Guy, Pat Pattee, who I fell to sleep listening to on my transistor radio under my pillow every night as a teen...I went through a lot of batteries!

A Facebook friend wrote on my page, "You're not retiring, are you? Don't do it, it's boring." What he doesn't know about me is I'm rarely bored, so no worries!

Notes for Johannes Nicolas J. Zonneveld:

Johannes (John) N.J. Zonneveld (December 13, 1949-February 13, 2005) It hardly seems possible that 10 years have passed since our father, John, passed away at the age of 55. How can we pay tribute to the years of love and support he gave us? It's all too easy to focus on our loss and the regret of what could have been had he not left; the fact that he didn't get to see all that we would become: his daughter, Lisa, finding her calling to become a nurse; his son, John, rising in his company's hierarchy; his oldest granddaughter, Maya ("Grandpa's Princess"), heading to college; and the births of her younger sister and brother, Kyla and Christiaan. Instead, we try to take comfort in the belief that he does see us and what we have become, that he hears us in those private moments when he is in our thoughts, and that he knows that he was a good father and that "who we are" is a testament to him.

Dad was born in The Hague, The Netherlands and, at the age of 7, emigrated to the United States with his family. He attended St. Thomas Aquinas grade school and graduated in 1967 from Earl Wooster High School. After serving in the United States Marine Corps. as an aircraft mechanic during the Vietnam War era, he attended the University of Nevada, Reno, where he met our mother, Elizabeth LaFond, to whom he was married for almost 35 years before his death. Dad was an award-winning institutional food service representative for most of his career. These facts are some of the things that made our father who he was, but they aren't what we think about when we think about Dad. As kids, we strived to establish our individuality. As adults, we reflect on and appreciate all of those bits and pieces of Dad that we find in ourselves today:

A love of the outdoors. One of Dad's greatest pleasures was taking us camping and waterskiing almost every weekend during the summer. There was nowhere we would rather be. To this day, when I'm getting ready to tee off on the golf course, I so often recall fond memories of golfing with Dad at Wildcreek Golf Course. The thrill of taking chances. One of Lisa's first adventurous memories was riding behind Dad on his motorcycle. She has continued this adventuresome spirit by learning to ride and she has scoured the western United States on her motorcycles with her husband, friends and, sometimes, by herself.

A strong work ethic and the strength to persevere. We admired these traits in Dad. He cared deeply about his customers and worked hard to make sure they were taken care of. Dad taught us to never shy away from hard work and to finish what we started. A strong sense of patriotism and respect for the military. Dad didn't just serve in the Marine Corps., he was a Marine. Dad always wanted to fly the F-4 Phantoms he worked on and he instilled in me a love of flying and aircraft. He was so proud to be an American and he would belt out at a moment's notice and without hesitation the song, "Coming to America" by Neil Diamond. It was his favorite song. The patience to be a good parent. So often tested by our adolescent behavior, his patience with us serves us to this day.

The importance of family. Above all else, we knew that Dad loved us. He always provided for us, and we never worried about whether or not he would protect us, no matter the cost. Sometimes he would let us test the limits but would fiercely defend us if he thought any real harm would come to us. Thank you, Dad. We feel your presence every day and we miss you every day. You live in our hearts and we will love you forever. Lisa and John

To my children, Lisa and John, and my beloved grandchildren, Maya, Kyla and C.J.:

If I go while you are still here
Know that I still live on,
Vibrating to a different measure
Behind a thin veil you cannot see through.
You will not see me,
so you must have faith.

I await the time when we can soar together again,
all aware of each other.
Until then. live your lives to the fullest,
And when you need me,
just whisper my name in your heart.
I will be there.
All my love, Dad/Grandpa Z.

Samuel Anthony Manino Jr. - As many of you know my son, Tony Manino, was diagnosed with NonHodgkins Lymphoma in April of this year. It was truly a shock to the family. Over the last several of months he has been receiving chemotherapy and then about a month ago we were told that he was clear, except for tumors that were directly under his arm. Chemo was ended and he began radiation treatment. Great relief went out through the family.

Unfortunately, Tony has been experiencing pain and was told to return to the hospital to have it checked out. After a few days in the Midland Hospital, he was transported yesterday morning to the University of Michigan Cancer Hospital. Today we received the news that we were hoping not to hear. The cancer has returned to his spine. Once again, Trisha has taken Family Medical Leave to be at Tony's side, meaning that she receives no pay during this time. Over the last several months, due to all of Tony's appointments, she has only been able to work part-time. Meanwhile, the bills have continued to add up and at times things have been shut off.

His family and I ask if there is anyway that you could help defray some of these expenses of him being in the hospital and the bills that are adding up, through a donation it would be greatly appreciated. If you are not able to donate, then please consider sharing this post. Prayers are also very welcomed.
