Furniture Manufactory - The furniture manufactory of Thomas Rauschenberger & Co. is situated on the west side of Jewett, between Huron and Liberty streets, in Ann Arbor, and was built in 1870 by John Rauschenberger, who operated the factory for about seven years, when he sold out to the present proprietors. Although a small building, only 30x40 feet, one and a half stories high, the firm does quite an extensive business and employs seven hands. The furniture manufactured was sold at Detroit for some time, but of late years the firm has sold all their furniture inside the county. The machinery is run by water-power, furnished by a race about one-fourth of a mile long, this race being fed by about a dozen springs.

Notes for Jakob Friedrich (Jacob Fritz) Schuh:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Jacob F. Schuh, belonging to the firm of Schuh & Muehlig, is a dealer in hardware, and is located at No. 31 S. Main Street, Ann Arbor. Mr. Schuh is a native of Remergheim, Wittenberg, Germany, and was there born October 29, 1843. He is the son of Andrew and Mary (Frank) Schuh, who emigrated to the United States and for a time located in Little Falls, N. Y., later coming to Ann Arbor. The mother survived until 1873 and expired when in her sixty-eighth year. They were the parents of five children, there being three boys and two girls, and of these our subject is the third. In his boyhood he attended school at Little Falls and after coming to Michigan enjoyed the advantages of the High School of the city of Ann Arbor. After finishing his education he began his mercantile experience as clerk in the establishment of A. Widdman, a hardware dealer in this city. After a time he entered into partnership with his employer under the firm name of Widdner & Schuh, and remained thus connected for ten years.

In 1873 our subject started m business on his own account, at No. 37 S. Main Street. In 1878 he removed to his present stand, No. 31 S. Main Street, where he keeps a complete stock of the best hardware goods. He at the same time manufactures all kinds of tinware that is used in the domestic line and in house building. In 1883 he formed a partnership with Andrew Muehlig and this connection constitutes at the present time the firm above mentioned.

Mr. Schuh was married in 1878 to Miss Salina Cropsey, of Ann Arbor, a daughter of George W. Cropsey, and the mother of one son - Carl F. Mr. Schuh has been City Treasurer for three years and has also been a member of the Committee on Public Works for three years. Politically he is a Democrat. He has been Chairman of the Democratic County Committee for the past six years and takes great interest in local and county politics. His residence on Fifth Avenue presents a pleasing appearance from without and is charmingly arranged within. The store of which he is senior partner, is three stories in height and proportionately large in width and depth. He carries a very fine line of stock and the man who cannot be suited here must be hard to please.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

J. F. Schuh, hardware merchant, Ann Arbor, was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, in 1843. At three years of age he moved with his parents to New York, and remained there six years. The family then immigrated to Washtenaw Co., where the father died shortly after arriving. At 12 years of age Mr. Schuh obtained at clerkship in one of the hardware stores of Ann Arbor, and remained in that line of trade till he was able to go into business for himself. This he did in 1861, and entered into partnership with Mr. Weidman, and continued in that connection until 1872, when Mr. Schuh started in business alone, since which time he has built up a fine trade, and occupies a three-story building on Main street, filled with hardware of the best quality. In 1877, he married Salina Cropsey, a daughter of George Cropsey.

A Look into Nina Moessner's Life - Interview with Nina Lou Moessner, 2002, by Ian Macek
THE BEGINNING

Grandma was the second of four daughters born into the Harms family. Her parents attended the University of Chicago, with her father earning a degree as a social worker in 1912. Grandma was influenced by them and was a very empathetic individual her whole life – a reflection of her upbringing and faith.

One of my favorite stories is when she'd ride the streetcar to downtown Detroit with her mother to go to Hudson's. She could still describe the giant department store and the merchandise located on each floor. One of her jobs as a teenager was at Sanders on Woodward Avenue in downtown Detroit. She cultivated her ice cream knowledge which continued all her life, sharing ice cream sundaes and chocolate ice cream sodas with all of her children and grandchildren!

When the Great Depression hit, her family left for a new employment opportunity in Bay City, MI. There, she attended college for a while and helped out the family by working at a department store. Her family attended Madison Avenue Methodist Church, and that is where she met her husband, Erwin Moessner. They were married in 1942.

FAMILY LIFE - Erwin and Nina made their home in Saginaw, Michigan, joining Jefferson Avenue United Methodist Church. They raised four children, and were together for 60 years before his passing in 2002.

Grandma was a stay at home mom who had her hands full with their four children. She taught the Kindergarten Sunday school class at their church for many years, was a scout leader, enjoyed dance club and camping with Grandpa, and participated in other social groups. She made terrific science fair exhibits for her children. Her job was 24 hours a day, seven days a week. In the 1960s she joined a group called "Another Mother for Peace", out of concern for the Vietnam War, and damage to troops from such things as Agent Orange. An admirer of Amelia Earhart, she attended flight school on her own and learned to fly. Grandma also went back to college, taking classes at Oakland University.

RESOURCEFUL - Grandma loved the opera, read two newspapers daily, and read books for their knowledge rather than for entertainment. She was a follower of fashion, and always stylish in her own way. She was a very bright woman and the latest technology intrigued her. Modern living agreed with her. She bought herself a computer and learned to use it in her 80's, saying she felt connected to the world thanks to computers, cable television, the internet, cell phones, etc.

LIFE LESSONS - With age also comes wisdom. I asked Grandma to tell me three important things she has learned from her life that she would like to pass on. The first was that she is proud of her children. Even as adults, her kids are friends with each other and it made her proud that they have remained so close. The second was to be a seeker of knowledge. Grandma did this while growing up, and I find that she still followed this throughout her life. I was amazed that she knew as much as she did, always well informed and "up" on modern topics. The third was to be happy with what you have. Things do not bring happiness, you bring happiness to things. Grandma lived a life full of faith, adventure, and happiness. She was very kind and wise. We all love her very much and will always have tremendous admiration and respect for her.

"This then, is our Mother, Grandmother, and Great Grandmother; a kind and gentle soul, unique at all times, loving faith and family, a trooper through her long, full life. She loved her family, husband, children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. She looked neither backward nor forward, and taught us to live in the moment. Our mother is alive – she lives in her faith and lives deep in our hearts, in that special spot that holds all who have loved us."

Colby, son of Mrs. Fred Nesbitt and the late Sidney Colby of Milan, exchanged vows, Saturday June 30, 1951, before one hundred and seventy-five guests assembled at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church in Ann Arbor. Rev. C. A. Brauer read the marriage sermon. For her wedding'1 the bride chose a French organdy over satin with sweetheart neckline, trimmed with lace rose point with fitted bodice and full skirt worn over a hoop. Her fingertip veil was secured by a small lace bonnet and she carried a bouquet of white camellias. The maid of honor Miss Doris Alber wore lavender Swiss organdy over lavender taffeta. The dress had a high collar and sleeveless bodice closed with eight small organdy covered buttons. The full skirt was worn over a hoop. Her head-piece was of yellow daisies and she carried yellow daisies centered with green. Miss Betty Noble, Miss Joan Eisman and Mrs. James C. Klinedinst were the other attendants. They wore gowns similar to the maid of honor except for green Swiss organdy over green taffeta, with head pieces of yellow daisies and they carried yellow daisies centered with lavender and green. Serving as best man was Glen Rowe of Ypsilanti. The ushers seating the guests were Ray Sampler of Whittaker, Robert Allen of Willis and George Cook of Saline.

The reception followed in the church parlor with Miss Rosetta Colby, sister of the groom in charge of the guest book. Misses Barbara and Mary Lou Wurster, of Ann Arbor, cousins of the bride, poured coffee and served ice cream. Miss Rosie D'Agostino cut the cake with Mrs. Alan Cole assisting, Mrs. Charles Francis poured punch and Mrs. Mable Gleason had charge of the gifts.

Upon leaving for the honeymoon, a trip to the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, Mrs. Colby wore a tangerine linen suit with white accessories and the camellias from her bridal bouquet. Mrs. Colby is a graduate of Saline High School and attended Central Michigan College and Michigan State Normal College. Her husband attended Michigan State Normal College and was a member of Kappa Phi Alpha Fraternity. He is now serving in the United States Navy. Woodrow Jones was soloist and Mrs. Hiser, the organist. Detroit - The Grosse Ile naval air base reported today the bodies of two missing fivers have been recovered from Lake Erie. Both flyers presumably were victims of a dive bomber crash May 15, 1948. The air base said one body was identified as that of Robert D. Gute, 24, of Owosso, aviation machinist's mate. He was the son of Mrs. Beulah Gute, Owosso. Gute, an enlisted man, was flying with Ensign Frank M. Schaffer, 25, of Saginaw on a routine flight. Their dive bomber crashed near Pelee Island. Gute's body was recovered yesterday and that of the second man today, both northeast of Kelley's Island about a mile apart. Residents saw the bodies afloat. Coast Guardsmen at Marblehead, Ohio, recovered the bodies. The air base here said positive identification of the second body awaited its return to the base.

Notes for Hubert Harrison Kitch:

After coming safely through the service of their country in the armed forces, three young Elsinore veterans of the recent conflict met death tragically last Sunday night in an automobile crash on Grand Avenue. Instantly killed was Hercules Bouris and another occupant of the car, Jack Oliver Worthy, who died before he could be given medical care. Hubert Harrison Kitch, the third passenger to lose his life, lived until 3:25 a.m. Monday Dec. 8, 1946, when he died at the Riverside Community Hospital.

Two other young men seriously injured and now under hospital care in Riverside are Wesley Morrell, said by investigating officer; to have been the driver of the car, and Bob Boscacci. The five friends had just finished a dinner honoring the birthday of Bob Boscacci.

An inquest conducted by Riverside County Coroner Ben White Tuesday afternoon at the Evans and Peterson Mortuary, exonerated the driver at the car. Testimony of an eyewitness at the inquest was given by Emil Aarup of the Elsinore Boat Center. He was near the entrance to the boat center when he saw the car approaching, but was unable to give any explanation for the evident application of the car's brakes which sent it careening into olive trees at the side of the avenue, coming to rest on all four wheels.

The speed of the car was estimated at between sixty and sixty-five miles per hour by inquest witnesses. Lee Peirano, California Highway Patrol officer to whom the investigation was turned over by Deputy Sheriff Floyd Baldwin, said that the car left skidmarks for 205 feet and that it was 80 feet from the end of the marks to the point where the car struck the trees. According to reports late Wednesday, the two injured veterans, Bob Boscacci and Wesley Morrell are expected to recover, although the former has repeatedly lost consciousness. All of the accident victims were twenty-one years of age, except Mr. Morrell, who is twenty-three.

Services for Hubert Kitch will be held today (Thursday) at 10 a.m. in the Evans and Peterson Chapel, followed by burial in the Elsinore Valley cemetery. The ceremony will be conducted by Rev. Paul Nielson of the Elsinore Church of Christ. He leaves his mother, Mrs. Martha Kitch of Elsinore, two sisters, Mrs. Esther While of Elsinore, and Mrs. Lois Hannum of Perris, and three brothers, Walter Kitch of Temecula, Howard Kitch of Elsinore and Robert Kitch of Philadelphia. He had volunteered for service in the Navy, was assigned to the amphibious forces on June 7, 1943, and took part in the invasion of Okinawa. Before his discharge last March, he had earned the rating of BM1/c. Military burial services for Jack Worthy will be held this afternoon (Thursday) under the auspices of the American Legion following services at 2 o'clock at the Evans and Peterson Chapel. He leaves his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Worthy of Elsinore; his sister, Mrs. Lillian Tattersall of Long Beach; and a nephew and niece, Roland and Joyce Tattersall of Long Beach.

The service for Jack Worthy will be in charge of Rev. Arthur Worthy of Bell, California. Tomorrow (Friday) afternoon, services for Hercules Bouris will begin at the Evans and Peterson Chapel at 1:30 p.m., and will be conducted by Rev. Mustakides of Los Angeles, followed by military rites at the Valley cemetery under direction of the American Legion. A veteran of some of the hottest South Pacific battles during which he served as a first-class quartermaster, he had escaped unhurt when a Japanese Kamikaze plane made a direct hit on his vessel. He leaves his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bouris; a brother, Johnny Bouris, and a sister, Helen Bouris.

Marriage Notes for Isa Maxton and Earl Ford:

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Isa Maxton of Wichita, daughter of Frank S. Maxton, Columbus, Kansas, to Earl G. Ford, also of this city, son of Mrs. E.E. Williams of Sturgis, South Dakota. Rev. D.E. Cox read the double ring vows, August 3, 1947, at 3 p.m., at the First Presbyterian church in Columbus. Two baskets of white and salmon pink colored gladioli decorated the altar, which was banked with ferns. White tapers illuminated the setting. Mrs. Vern Robison, organist placed "Clair de Lune" and "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" preceding the ceremony and "To A wild Rose" during the reading of the vows. Mrs. Forrest Richard Smithson sang "When Song is Sweet" and "The Lord's Prayer." Traditional wedding march were used. The bride was gowned in white satin with long sleeves pointed over the wrists, tiny buttons down the back of the bodice, a moline yoke and round neckline. Her over full skirt swept in a wide train. A tiara of orange blossoms held her fingertip veil in place. She carried a white Bible topped with a purple orchid.

Miss Helen Throckmorton, maid of honor, wore a pink satin gown fashioned like that of her bride's and she carried a nosegay of pink roses, babies' breath, and white carnation. Bridesmaids, Mrs. Warren Lyerla and Miss Elizabeth Welsh, wore net dresses over satin with square necklines and full skirts. They chose pink and blue respectively, and wore corsages of pink carnations. Mrs. Lyerla also served as taper lighter and Miss Welsh presided over the guest book. Mrs. Alice Case, close friend of the bride, was attired in a grey Bemberg dress, white accessories, and wore a pink rose corsage. Mrs. William Ford, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, chose a navy-blue crepe dress, navy accessories, and a red rose corsage. William Ford of this city served his brother as best man. Ushers were Edward Maxton, brother of the bride, and Clarence Slover, brother-in-law of the bride.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. A four-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom and garlanded with fern and pink rose-buds centered the bride's table. Tapers tied with pink roses were at either side. Mrs. Clarence Slover, the bride's sister, poured the punch and Mrs. Duncan Cunningham, Jr., cut the wedding cake.

The bride was graduated from Columbus high school, Pittsburg Teachers college and Greeley Colorado college. She has served as president of the Young Business Women's league in Wichita. Mr. Ford is a graduate of Sturgis high school and Schadron Nebraska Teacher college. He is past grande of Odd Fellows Lodge here. For their wedding trip through Nebraska and South Dakota, the bride chose a light blue dotted swiss suit, navy accessories, and an orchid corsage. The couple is now at home at 1233-1/2 Lewellen Street in this city.

Henry Kitch, 32 years of age, a carpenter died in the offices of Dr. F.L. McKinney Saturday July 1917 about six a.m., from an attack of blood poisoning. Mr. Kitch has lived in Galena for a number of years and is well known. He was a carpenter by trade, and several weeks ago he cut his left hand whilesawing a plank for a house which he was erecting in Oklahoma. He thought nothing of the matter, but about a week later his arm and left side began bothering him and he went to a physician who informed him blood poisoning had set in, and that it would be necessary to perform an operation. Mr. Kitch went to the offices of Dr. McKinney where an operation on his left side was performed. This failed to bring any relief, however, and another operation was performed several days ago. Mr. Kitch got weaker and weaker after the second operation, and finally passed away Saturday morning. He is survived by his wife, Mollie Kitch, and four small children and a number of other relatives.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Sixth Street Baptist church. Mrs. Lou Love officiated. Burial was in the Oak Hill cemetery. The I.O.O.F., had charge of the funeral.

Notes for Edward J. Chrusciel:

Camp Gordon Johnston - Pfc Edward J. Chrusciel saved the lives of two men of his 264th medical battalion company who were plunged into the water when their boat overturned in Lake A late Wednesday May 26, 1944. A third man was drowned. The accident was announced today but the name of the drowned soldier was withheld pending notification of the next of kin.

Chrusciel was ashore when he saw the small boat overturn during a party being given at the lake by the 264th. He jumped into the water, splashed 100 yards to the accident scene and dived repeatedly under water for the struggling soldiers. He brought one to the surface and immediately dived for another. When he brought the second man up the first had again disappeared.

Two men were finally rescued through Chrusciel's efforts and immediate attempts were made to find the body of the third. Soldiers dragged the lake from the sides of a duck. A diver from an engineer port construction and repair group was summoned and went down to look for the body which was finally recovered today.

Edward J. Chrusciel, 71, died Sunday, April 6, 1997, in Biloxi. Mr. Chrusciel had been a resident of the community since 1969. He was a member of the American Legion Post No. 33, the D. A. Notes for Barbara Louise McBride:

Barbara L. (McBride) Stickles, 90, of Clay City, Indiana passed away on September 10, 2021 while staying at Harrison's Crossing Rehabilitation Center in Terre Haute, Indiana. Prior to her recent stay there she resided at Villas of Hollybrook in Brazil, Indiana. Barbara married the late Bob (John Robert) Stickles on October 14, 1950. After Bob's service in the US Air Force which included many moves and living in a 21-foot Airstream trailer, they established their home on their farm near Clay City.

Barbara graduated from Freedom High School and attended (now) Indiana State University studying home economics prior to their marriage. Together they farmed in southern Clay County their entire lives. In addition to her farm responsibilities of bookkeeping, marketing, field work, and farmer's wife, Barbara was a substitute teacher and mother.

Barbara was involved in the community and served in many leadership roles. Barbara was president of CCHS Band Boosters, Sunday School teacher for both youth and adults, church camp counselor, Farm Bureau Women's Board member at the county and state levels, and member of the Order of the Eastern Star. She also served in many leadership roles in the United Methodist Church at the local, district, and conference levels. A consummate cook and hostess, she prepared, or organized, countless meals through the years. It might have been Easter Sunrise breakfast, Thanksgiving dinner for 60, 4-H and Band Booster stand food at the fairs and festivals, funeral dinners, field workers' meals, or after Clay City basketball game celebrations. Barbara continued sharing her love of cooking with her friends in Tara Woods where she and Bob enjoyed winters in N. Fort Myers. Their "dirty dozen" group played golf, had dinners, and many of their holidays at her table.

Barbara and Bob enjoyed their work together and supporting their daughters' and grandsons' activities. They traveled extensively with friends. In recent years they participated in the Grasshopper's Club, a golf group that met at various Indiana locations. This and National Telephone Cooperative meetings and National Farm Bureau, Pork Producers and farm supplier trips were often shared with good friends Cliff and Louise Phillips of Greencastle. The biggest and most long-lived trip was the annual family trip to the Ozarks after the Clay County fair with the Liechty's, Coopridge's, and Gerber's.

Barbara was born to Clarence and Vada (Noel) McBride on March 8, 1931. They preceded her in death as did brothers Fred McBride (Marilyn), Gary McBride and David McBride. Also preceding her was bonus-grandson John ("Sam") McDaniel.

Barbara is survived by her daughters Debra Van (Mike) of Leesburg, Indiana and Beth Stickles-McDaniel (Dave) of Carmel, Indiana. Notes for Grady Fay Smith:

Oct. 22, 1998 - Grady F. Smith lost his parents in a car accident and had little more than his high IQ when he joined the Marines in 1937. His superiors recognized his talent and sent him to law school at George Washington University. In his two decades in the Marine Corps, the Decatur resident fought in World War II, decoded documents at the Pentagon and stood guard outside President Franklin D. Roosevelt's bedroom window, said his son, Richard R. Smith of Atlanta.

A private funeral was held for Mr. Smith, 80, who died of complications from a stroke Thursday at the Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Decatur. Wages & Sons Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. A native of Oak Park in South Georgia, Mr. Smith practiced law in Decatur for 35 years, handling mostly wills, adoption and real estate closings. His parents died when he was a teenager, and Mr. Smith "went down to the grocery store and got a job and fed the family," his son said. "He joined the Marine Corps the day he was old enough." He was a drill instructor at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, and a sharpshooter in the Pacific and Asiatic theaters during World War II. Mr. Smith served in Japan after the war, where his duties included transporting cash payments from Japanese banks to the United States, his son said. In the late 1940s and early 1950s, Mr. Smith served as editor of the Marine Corps manual. He scored highly on an aptitude test and was sent to George Washington University to earn his law degree. He graduated first in his class in 1954, his son said.

Mr. Smith opened his law office in Decatur after his discharge in 1957. He was a member of the Chamblee Masonic Lodge No. 444 and a 32nd-degree Scottish Rite Mason. An ordained Baptist minister, Mr. Smith belonged to the Wieuca Road Baptist Church.

Survivors other than his son included another son, Jeffrey Alan Smith of Milford, New Jersey; three daughters, Carolyn Louise McNeely of Doraville, Bonnie Elaine Holliday of Marietta and Barbara Ann Zavada of Portage, Indiana; two brothers, Virgil Smith of Ellabell and Alvie Smith of Birmingham, Michigan; and three grandchildren.

Marriage Notes for Rosalie Harmon and Rolland Hillis:

St. Mary Church, Bremen, was the setting for the wedding of Miss Rosalie Harmon and Rolland D. Hillis on Saturday, Sept. 12, 1970. The Rev. Paul Laurinaitis solemnized the 12:30 ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harmon, 239 Oak Street, Bremen and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Hillis, Park Road, New Lexington. Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Harold Hockman, organist and Miss Marjorie Saffell, soloist. Beauty vases of assorted flowers and palms enhanced the altar for the double ring service, while white satin bows marked the pews.

The bride selected for her wedding, an empire waist floor length gown of white silk organza over taffeta, featuring a high neckline and sheer organza Juliet sleeves, trimmed with delicate lace. The front of the gown flowed with a bibb effect of tucked organza from the neckline to the hemline. Rows of the same delicate lace scalloped the hemline of the skirt and the detachable chapel length train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held gracefully in place by daisies centered with seed pearls in a cascade effect. She carried a white orchid atop a Bible, tucked within which was a lace handkerchief, belonging to a great aunt.

Mrs. Paul F. List was matron of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Rose Hillis, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Nancy Culp and Mrs. James Bright. They were attired in floor length gowns of apricot chiffon over taffeta, featuring empire waistline in vanilla Venice lace and pulled ribbons, which defined the high neckline, Bishop sleeves at the cuffs and the front of the bodice. Petite bows added detail to the front and back of the gowns. And the softly gathered skirts had extra fullness in back. To complete their ensembles, each attendant wore a headpiece of apricot net and leaves interspersed in loops and bows with short veils. Each carried a fireside basket of assorted flowers.

Little Miss Kristin Kay Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harmon, Lancaster, was flower girl for her aunt. Her floor length gown of white georgette over taffeta was fashioned similar to the bride's gown and trimmed in dainty ruffled lace, with threaded apricot ribbon. She had a matching headpiece and carried a basket of rose petals, which she scattered in the pathway of the bride. Master Matt Sorg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sorg, Lancaster, was ring bearer for his uncle. He carried the rings on a satin pillow, studded with rows of seed pearls and had clipped appliques and edged in lace. Larry Hillis was best man for his brother and Frank and Steve Hillis, also brothers, and Jim Neff, a cousin, served as attending groomsmen and ushers. Miss Tamala Harmon, niece of the bride, presided at the guest book and Miss Linda Harmon, also a niece, disturbed the rice packets.

Following the ceremony, a reception and luncheon was held at the Bremen American Legion Home, attractively decorated for the occasion. Acting hostesses were Miss Rosemary Davisson, Miss Judy Miller, Miss Cathy McNeal and Miss Kay Fast. Later in the day, the new Mr. and Mrs. Hillis departed for a wedding trip, their destination undisclosed. Upon their return, they will establish residence in Zanesville, where Mr. Hillis is employed as a lab technician for the Good Samaritan Hospital. The former Miss Harmon was associated with the Western and Southern Life Insurance Co., in Lancaster prior to her marriage.

Notes for Bernard Alfred Wint:

Bernard W. Wint - World War II Navy enlisted 22 Sept 1944-2 May 1946. b. 1.6.1920-12.21.1992. This is just a casual look at my dad. He was a wonderful father, husband, brother, and son. An Ann Arbor High School graduate where he learned the Tool & Die trade and worked with his Dad, Alfred Bernard Wint at King Seeley in Ann Arbor. He later worked at Hatch Stamping Company until his retirement. He raised and bred AKC Beagle dogs and competed in Field Trials at the Southern Michigan Beagle Club and around the Great Lakes area. He also loved golf. A member of the Inverness Golf Club he and his two sons Jim and Dave and his father Al, participated in the Father's Day Golf Tournaments. Our family camped in the Western Michigan while we were all young. In his later years he and his wife Bolly would go to Florida and spend winter time on their golf courses. It was a hot day in December when he finished a round of 9 holes with a park friend when he played additional three holes and had his fatal heart attack. He is missed, not only by his children but especially by his Bolly.

She is the mother of Jan DeRosia, Jim, and Dave Wint, and has seven grandsons and nine great-grandchildren. She was the stamp and fluoride lady, as well as school cook aide, at the Whitmore Lake schools in the 1950s. Her talents in art live on through her descendents and will be remembered by many through individual hand-made Christmas cards celebrating over fifty holidays. Her family is grateful for the loving care of the staff at Turner Clinic, friends from Florida, and the Ann Arbor area during her ninety-one years. Her presence will be missed, but her influence will be long remembered. Arrangements under the direction of Muehlig Funeral Chapel, Ann Arbor, Michigan. written by Jan W. DeRosia

Notes for Walter Albert Prochnow:

Walter A. Prochnow Jr. died at home in the early hours of Saturday, October 20, 2007 surrounded by family and loved ones. He was the owner and president of his family business, Ann Arbor Buick and Suzuki, until semi-retirement in 1998 when he entered into real estate management. A resident of Ann Arbor all his life, he was born at home at 821 W. Huron Street on July 19, 1929. He was the beloved son of Walter and Ella Rose (Bareis) Prochnow. His father and mother preceded him in death in 1930 and 1985, respectively. He is survived by his sister, Elizabeth Hogan and his two children, Kathy Marx (Paul) and Karen Prochnow (Mark Stranahan) as well a niece (Nancy Lanz), three nephews (Jack, James and Mike Hogan) and three grand-children (Ella Rose and Evan Marx and Mason Stranahan).

Known as "Sonny" into adulthood, he attended Ann Arbor High School and Michigan State University, graduating with a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration in 1954. During school he traveled back to Ann Arbor on weekends to learn the family business, automotive sales. After graduating, he joined his mother (the first women automobile dealer in the United States) working at Ann Arbor Buick Service Company. The business was started by his father in 1923. The dealership was located where the bus depot now stands on Huron Street in downtown Ann Arbor. Two years later it moved a block west to the corner of Huron and Ashley into a three story Italianate building. The first floor was the showroom and parts department. Cars had to be brought up into the second floor to the service and repair departments by a giant elevator. Problems with the downtown building became acute in 1958 when the new Buick Roadmaster Limited proved to be too big to fit into the elevator. General Manager then, he began construction at a new location, 3165 Washtenaw, which opened in 1964, now the location of the Whole Foods Market shopping center. He sold the franchise back to General Motors in 1998 having participated in operating the business for nearly 75 years. The business was his life and he often took his only vacation to the National Automobile Dealers Association (NADA) or Michigan Automobile Dealer Associations (MADA) conventions. A winner of numerous awards and sales achievement records he began travelling around the world in receipt of those contests and gained a great love of travel and foreign culture.

He continued to travel in retirement having returned from a trip to Russia and northern Europe just one month ago. He served in the military as a veteran of the Korean War, being honorably discharged in 1960. As an avid golfer he often spent summer afternoons at Barton Hills Country Club where he was a life member having lived most of his life in Barton Hills Village. He was also a dedicated University of Michigan sports fan despite having graduated from Michigan State. He rarely missed a U of M football Saturday as a season ticket holder. He was a member of the Lion's Club, Bethlehem United Church of Christ and the Victor's Club. Walter was beloved by his many friends and was known for his generosity, kindness and humor throughout the community. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

The Visitation will be Tuesday, October 23rd from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m. at Muehlig Funeral Chapel, 403 S. Fourth Ave., Ann Arbor, Michigan and again Wednesday, October 24th at 10 a.m. at Bethlehem United Church of Christ, 432 S. Fourth Ave., Ann Arbor, Michigan. Funeral services will be Wednesday, October 24th at 11 a.m. at Bethlehem United Church of Christ. He will be interred in the family plot next to his mother at Bethlehem United Church of Christ Cemetery, Jackson Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan

She married Neil Roland Celley 18 Mar 1952 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He was born 24 Oct 1927 in Leoneth, Minnesota, and died 24 Oct 2019 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Neil Roland Celley:

Neil 'The Seal' Celley is a former American ice hockey coach and player who was a member of the US national team at the 1948 Winter Olympics. Neil Celley joined the Michigan ice hockey team after winning a State Championship in 1945. He left the program a year later to take part in first Winter Olympics since 1936 (due to World War II) and was chosen as a member of the USOC's squad. A competing USA team was also sent to St. Moritz that year, one representing the Amateur Hockey Association that openly allowed professional players in their lineup. After tense negotiations the AHA team was allowed to play in the games but only in an unofficial capacity (they would be ineligible for a medal). The USOC team was allowed to march in the opening ceremony which would be the extent to which Celley could contribute to the team. Celley returned to Ann Arbor the following fall and finished out his college career without further interruption. He played in 3 consecutive NCAA tournaments finally winning one in his senior season. Celley was named to the All tournament team and recorded a team record 37 goals and 37 assists in the regular season (later broken by Red Berenson).

After graduating from the School of Education in 1951 Celley immediately began his coaching career at Denver, taking over the two-year-old program from Vern Turner. While receiving his Master of Arts in 1952 Celley led the Pioneers to a second-place finish (tied) in the newly created MCHL, unfortunately his alma mater Michigan (with whom his team had tied) was selected for the 1952 tournament instead. Celley's teams would finish with a winning record every year but were never selected for the postseason tournament. In 1956, after kicking four players off the squad for violating team rules, Celley stepped down mid-season and ended his coaching career.

Ann Arbor, Michigan - Neil R. Celley, passed away October 24, 2019. At the age of 92, Neil passed away peacefully at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital surrounded by his family. Born October 24, 1927 in Eveleth, Minnesota to Vienna and David Celley, Neil excelled in every sport but ice hockey was his passion. Neil was the last surviving member of the first Minnesota high school ice hockey championship team for which he played the entire championship game defeating Thief River Falls 4 to 3. After graduating from high school, Vic Heyliger recruited Neil to come to the University of Michigan. World War II interrupted his academic career where he served in the U.S. Army as part of the occupation force in Japan from August 1946 through December 1947. Upon completion of his honorable service, in January 1948 the United States Olympic committee selected Neil to be a team member of the U.S. Olympic amateur ice hockey team for the games in Saint Moritz, Switzerland. However, he did not play as the U.S. also sent a second team of paid professionals who were ultimately chosen to skate in the tournament. From 1948 - 1951 Neil completed his academics and played left wing for the University of Michigan where he set a seasonal scoring record of 40 goals and 39 assists not surpassed until 1977, was selected as an All-American, and was an esteemed member and Most Valuable Player of the 1951 National Collegiate Athletic Association national championship team. After graduation, he married his U of M sweetheart, and Ann Arbor native, Virginia Zeeb. He then skated for 9 days with the Detroit Red Wings until he was offered the positions as Head Coach of the Denver University hockey team and golf team. During his relatively short tenure from 1951 - 1956 as the Denver University hockey coach he had an impressive winning average of .649 (82W, 43L, 6T). Following his departure from Denver University, Neil returned to Ann Arbor to earn his Master of Arts Degree and accepted a position with the Chelsea School District then Bloomfield Hills Michigan School District. At Bloomfield Hills he shaped the lives of many young adults as a High School Counselor. He established the ice hockey program and coached from 1967 to 1984. Neil had many god given talents including the ability to make the child in everyone smile and laugh at a moments notice. With this talent he chose to finish his career as an elementary school physical education teacher. Upon retirement, Neil renewed his interest in golf where he had three witnessed holes in one and one unwitnessed. He and Virginia traveled to the warm climate of Panama City Beach, Florida where he would golf and paint many lovely water colors overlooking the cooling breeze of the ocean. He was a loving husband, father, dotting grandfather, role model to generations of athletes and students, and friend to many wherever he went. Neil lived a full life on his own terms.

Neil was pre-deceased by his eldest son, Todd, and survived by his wife Virginia, daughter Marsha Kalember, granddaughters Kristin and Karin and his youngest son, Michael.

Notes for Barbara Helen Winesburg:

Barbara Helen Winesburg was born October 26, 1930 in Elkhart, Indiana. She began her lifelong passion for baton twirling at the age of 9 when she started taking lessons. She competed in many competitions in Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan as both a solo twirler and as a duet with her younger sister. She became a champion baton twirler and her talents garnered the attention of Barnum Bailey Circus who offered her a starring position in their shows at the age of 17. She declined in order to finish high school and stay with her family. Her twirling career slowed down at the age of 19 when she met and married the man who became the love of her life – Richard Stickel – a young apprentice mortician, while she was working in downtown Elkhart. They were married in Elkhart on April 16, 1950. Barbara loved to tell the story of how they met and how they had to wait 10 years for children because the Lord knew what was best.

Barbara and Richard's life took them from Elkhart, Indiana to Ft. Riley, Kansas courtesy of the Army during the Korean Conflict where Barbara continued to teach twirling. After that, they continued moving west to Glendale, Arizona and onward to Santa Monica, California working for various mortuaries while Richard attended mortuary college before discovering the town of Mojave in 1959 while on a Sunday drive. There was a set of local mortuaries for sale there and with the help of family, they were able to purchase their own mortuary. Barbara and Richard moved to Mojave in January 1960 and became well-known throughout Kern County and the Antelope Valley for their kind and compassionate service to the communities that they served for more than 30 years as the owners and then in semi-retirement for another 10 years. It was in Mojave that Barbara and Richard were finally able to have their three beloved children and build the life and family that they wanted. In addition to their busy lives in the mortuary business, Barbara taught twirling until about 1970 and continued to twirl with much delight until the age of 90 when a stroke made her unable to continue.

Barbara was a member of Tehachapi Order of the Eastern Star for 47 years, served as secretary of the Mojave historical society during its formation, served on the advisory board of Mojave Order of Rainbow for Girls for many years, and provided support for several other local groups and causes throughout her 62 years in Mojave. While raising her three children, Barbara provided countless meals, love, support, and transportation to many other local children and gave a home to many stray animals that she encountered.

Barbara always had a kind word for everyone she met, she lived her life with a smile and a positive outlook, and never ceased to be grateful for what she had. In addition, Barbara was a huge fan of Elvis Presley and enjoyed following ice skating and Dancing with the Stars. She will be remembered by her family for her unfailing love and emotional support.

Family was everything for Barbara. She is survived by her three children: Debby (Robert) Goosey of Scotts Valley, California, John (Dawn) Stickel of Palmdale, California, and David Stickel of Mojave, California; 3 grandchildren: Andrea Villavicencio, Lindsay Rickman, and Stephanie Stickel; and 5 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her sister Judy Cooper of Hicksville, Ohio. Barbara was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 64 years, Richard, in 2014, and a brother, Harold A. Braden, son of Mrs. Gertrude Braden of Salem and the late James Braden. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain Oliver H. Kelley (Colonel Ret.), a great uncle of the bride. Vows were offered at an altar marked with floral arrangements, greens and light tapers. Mrs. Thomas Fredrickson of Champaign was organist and James McClughen of Mahomet was soloist.

The bride's parents gave her in marriage. She chose for her wedding a floor length A-line gown of Chantilly lace made with an Empire bodice. This was complemented by long tapered sleeves and a scalloped neckline traced with seed pearls. The bride's detachable chapel train of nylon taffeta was trimmed with matching lace. Her elbow length veil of illusion was caught by a pillbox trimmed with pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade of white pompon mums with a white orchid at the center.

Miss Mary Honn of Mahomet was maid of honor and Miss Kathy Braden and Miss Margaret Braden of Salem sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Paul Henken of Alma was bestman; Gary Hawkins of Salem and Dennis Osborne of Alma, groomsmen; and Travers Ervin of Pesotum, an uncle of the bride, and Kenny Neilson of Salem, ushers. Gowns worn by the bridal aides were made on Empire lines with easy sheath skirts. The cotillion blue dresses featured back neckline bows which fell into watteau panels that extended to short trains. The attendants wore white fur headpieces with matching blue scalloped nose tip veils trimmed with seed pearls. They carried white fur muffs with blue carnations and ribbons.

Guests were received in the church parlors after the wedding. They attended from Belvidere, Marengo, Champaign, Mahomet, Salem, Alma, Pesotum, Tuscola, Decatur, Sadorus, Savoy, Fisher, Dewey, Monticello and Grayslake and were registered by Miss Viola Barracks of Mahomet.

Alicia Humbolt was flower girl; Rachel Dawn Shugart, sister of the bride, was train bearer; and Paul Walters carried the rings. John A. Potter served as best man for his brother, and Jerry Gribble and Bill Rollins seated guests. John Dudley Meadows, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darie Meadows, Kilgore Road, which was solemnized on December 18, 1945 in Tulsa. The lovely ceremony was performed in the Second Presbyterian church by Rev. Herbert R. Howard, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church reading the rites. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with a background of polma with three tall candle holders bearing lighted cathedral candles placed at vantage points. Huge iron urns filled with white Gladioli and chrysanthemums flanked each side of the flower-decked altar while a maroon and white prayer bench marked the center. Organ music was provided by Mrs. E.H. Benedict which included "Clair De Lune," "Loves Old Sweet Song," the processional by Lohengrin and the recessional by Mendelssohn. Mrs. Benedict also accompanied Miss Mary Ann Price as she sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin and chiffon gown designed with a sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. Beaded butterflies were appliquéd on the shoulders and on the finger-tip veil. Orange blossoms trimmed the dainty bandeau. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom and carried a small white Bible topped with a bouquet of white gardenias and carnations with long white streamers caught with sweet peas, carnations and fern. The refreshment table was spread with a white lace cloth and was centered with a three-tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Bill Wait served the cake while Mrs. Dwight B. Minton presided at the punch bowl, placed on the buffet. Mary Virginia Meadows had charge of the guest book.

The reception rooms were made attractive with arrangements of white mums, daisies and gladioli. Out-of-town guests were Miss Mary Virginia and Miss Dolores Meadows of Longview. After spending the Christmas holidays with the groom's parents. The couple will go to Miami, Florida, for a wedding trip. In the latter part of January, Lt. Meadows will report to Love Field, Dallas. Notes for Dr. Lawrence Samuel Wrightsman:

Lawrence ("Larry") Samuel Wrightsman, Jr., was born in Houston, Texas on Halloween of 1931, son of a school teacher and a petroleum engineer, and was raised in the River Oaks neighborhood. At Southern Methodist University, he majored in psychology, and his minor in journalism led him to the editorship of the college newspaper, the SMU Campus, and to work as a reporter for the Houston Post. He left journalism to study social psychology, educational psychology, and mass communications at the University of Minnesota, earning a Ph.D. in 1959 with Stanley Schachter. Larry remembered that Schachter "showered me with affection and aggression in almost the same breath."

While in graduate school, Larry met and married fellow graduate student Shirley Fish in 1955. They had a son, Allan Wrightsman, who died in 2011 (Allan is survived by his wife, Karen Mock Wrightsman). After a brief second marriage, Larry maintained a decades-long relationship with Bea Gray, who died just 12 months before Larry. Prof. Wrightsman's first academic job was at George Peabody College for Teachers (now a part of Vanderbilt University) in Nashville. In 1976, Larry moved to the University of Kansas as Chair and Professor in the Department of Psychology. His term as Chair lasted five years. He disliked the interpersonal conflict that was an inevitable part of the role, but he relished research, teaching, and writing for the remainder of his career. He retired in 2008, but continued writing and playing a role in the life of the Social Psychology program. After his retirement, he published four chapters and five authored or edited books. Larry Wrightsman's research in social psychology, psychology and law, and education has been recognized many times. He received the Distinguished Service Award from the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues (SPSSI), and the Distinguished Contribution Award of the American Psychology-Law Society. The University of Kansas recognized him several teaching awards.

Larry's service to the field of social psychology and psychology and law is legendary. He was President of SPSSI and the Society of Personality and Social Psychology. He chaired the Public Interest Coalition of APA, served on innumerable editorial boards, gave keynote addresses, and did much of the unglamorous work building the infrastructure of social psychology and law and psychology. He attended more than 50 American Psychological Association conventions in a row. By the numbers, Larry's contribution was extraordinary. He was justly proud of having published over 50 books, including both edited and authored books. His last book was Ten Little-Known Facts about the Supreme Court published in 2016, and still available on Amazon.com.

Larry is known by many generations of undergraduates for his outstanding textbooks in social psychology. Social Psychology in the Seventies (1972) was a publishing breakthrough. Not only was it popular—a genuine bestseller—but it also established social psychology as a “relevant” discipline, interweaving basic research in social psychology with pressing social issues. This combination of basic research and the discussion of social problems became the model of social psychology textbooks for decades to come. Larry's work in Tennessee was also social issues-related; racial integration was beginning in Tennessee, and he collaborated with Stuart Cook on interventions designed to reduce racial prejudice.

The textbooks, articles, and addresses that Larry wrote helped create the field of psychology and law as we know it. His books on the subject are known to cohort after cohorts of forensic psychology, including Psychology and the Legal System, which has gone through so many editions and is so popular that it now appears as Wrightsmen's Psychology and the Legal System with new authors, and The American Jury on Trial (with Saul Kassir), among many others. He initiated the Courtwatch column which has long appeared in the APA Monitor. Despite his many years in Minnesota, Tennessee, and Kansas, Larry still retained the lessons of River Oaks in Houston. He grew up to emulate his fellow Texan Larry McMurtry's respect for used books, and to honor the contributions of his fellow Texan writers Molly Ivins and Bill Moyers.

Larry used a wheelchair during the last six years of his life, and enjoyed reading, sports, C-SPAN, Jeopardy!, and stamp collecting, almost to the end. Larry died at home on July 28, 2019. He leaves behind many former students, colleagues, collaborators, caretaker Monique Glynos and her team, and many friends. A memorial service will be held 3:30pm Wednesday, October 30, in the Kansas Room at the University of Kansas Union.

He had worked at RCA as a Group Leader for 28 years, was a Monroe County Deputy Sheriff for 14 years and had worked at Crane as a security guard before his retirement. He was a member of the Monroe Lodge #22, the Blue Lodge and York Rite, Chapter, Council & Commandry. He had been re-baptized and attended West 2nd St. Church of Christ. In the late '60s, he spent time overseas in Okinawa and was involved in building the first U.S. Naval base in Guam.

Tom's passion in life was auto racing. He started as a very young man working on midgets and sprint cars locally. He was a fixture at racetracks throughout the state. Tom was a longtime member of the United Midget Racing Association both as a driver and car owner. Tom started his son Travis racing G-Karts at the age of 12. Travis moved to midgets in the UMRA where he is currently an active driver with Tom always working on the car. The last place Tom visited was Bloomington Speedway on Friday night for the Sheldon Kinser memorial. When Tom left Bloomington to join the SeaBees, the late Larry Incollingo published an article in the then Harold Telephone, titled "They'll miss him at the track"; again Tom will be missed at the track.

Notes for Kenneth Dale Smith:

Kenneth "Kenny" D. Smith, 84, of Ashland went to be with the Lord, Wednesday, June 22, 2016, at the Cleveland Clinic surrounded by his loving family following a two-year battle with cancer. On April 22, 1932, in Lucas, Kenny was born to George W. and Pauline (ne Flenner) Smith. He had been a resident of Ashland County most of his life and retired after 42 years of service with the Tappan Co. Kenny was a member of Ashland Church of Christ and a veteran of the U.S. Army, having served during the Korean War.

Kenny loved the Lord and his family with all his heart. His loving kindness and genuine concern for others was an inspiration to his family and friends. He had the heart and love of a Christian servant every day of his life. He used his carpentry and building talents as well as his "fix anything ability" to build and renovate homes for family and friends. As Peach (his daughter) always said, "He's the smartest man in the world and can fix anything." He loved spending time with his family. Whether it was holiday get-togethers, birthdays, family vacations, cub scouts, band concerts, sporting events or teaching the boys carpentry skills, he was there every step of the way and such a big part of our lives. We would like to share two of the many comments from family members. "If we can finish life caring for others as the example he set with his kindness, we will make this world a better place," Roy King said. "Heaven gained a great man. He can be a carpenter right beside Jesus," said Darlene Bean. These are very fitting tributes for a loved man.

On Nov. 6, 1954, Kenny married Dorothy Shafer, who survives. Also surviving are two daughters, Tamera "Tammy" (Leonard) Parsons of Ashland and Peach (Mick) Rettig of Mansfield; grandchildren, Steve (Beth) Carpenter, Mike (Jennifer) Carpenter, Ryan Knell, Ty (Tiffany) Knell, Dustin Knell, Ian (Jihye) Parsons, Jordan Parsons and Luke Parsons; great-grandchildren, Gavin, Lexi, Jade and Spencer Carpenter, Mylo, Liam, Julia Carpenter, Grace Knell and Hayden Parsons; sisters, Betty Nussbaum and Marge Smith; sister-in-law, Helen Rosenbluh; brother-in-law, John (Sondra) Shafer; and numerous nieces and nephews. Kenny was preceded in death by his parents; sisters, Bessie Smith and Shirley Iceman; brothers, Robert "Bobby", Charles "Chuck" and Don Smith; sisters-in-law, Evelyn Shafer and Doris McFadden; and niece, Basquin.

Services for Kenny will be 11 a.m. Monday, June 27, 2016, at Ashland Church of Christ, 1185 County Road 1356, Ashland, with Pastor Tim Nowlin officiating. Interment will be in Ashland Cemetery, where military honors will be presented by the Ashland Veterans Honor Guard. There will be no visitation. The family suggests memorial contributions may be made in Kenny's name, as he loved children, to Ashland Church of Christ Playground Project, 1185 County Road 1356, Ashland, Ohio, 44805.

The Rockford Evangelical United Brethren Church provided an attractive setting for the June 18, 1961 ceremony which united in marriage Miss Patricia Anne Friedly and Wilmer L. Iler. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Verl D. Friedly of Rt. 1, Mendon; and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Iler, formerly of Rockford and now of Rt. 1, London, Ohio, are the parents of the bridegroom. Rev. Russell L. Clark, pastor, performed the double-ringservice at 2:30 p.m. before the altar flanked by vases of white gladioli. A fan arrangement of white daisies and seven-branch candelabra, adorned with white satin bows, completed the chancel appointments.

During the half hour of nuptial music which preceded the recitation of vows, Miss Connie Rhoades. Presided at the organ. Her numbers included; 'Liebestraum,' "I Love You Truly", and "Whither Thou Goest". Donald Dudgeon brother-in-law of the bride sang "The Lord's Prayer", "Through the Years", "O Promise Me", and "Because". Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Donald Dudgeon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jane Friedly, also a sister, Mrs. Janet Friedly, a sister-in-law, and Miss Marcia Iler, sister of the bridegroom. All the attendants wore street-length, gown of orchid nylon velvety over taffeta. The fitted sleeveless bodices featured high square neckline and matching taffeta cummerbunds. In the back, cascades of bows fell from the waist over full skirts designed with scalloped hems. Their orchid hats had wide brims and open, crowns. Their flowers were white daisies.

As the bride was escorted to the altar by her father, she was wearing a white floor-length gown of Schiffli-embroidered nylon. The Basque bodice was fashioned with scalloped Sabrina neckline and plain nylon sleeves which tapered to points over the wrists. The bouffant skirt was styled with embroidered panels from waist to hem, ending in brush train. The veil of pure silk illusion was secured to a scalloped crown of crystals and seed pearls, and the Bible that he carried was topped by an arrangement of ivy and stephanotis centered by a white purple-throated orchid and releasing white satin streamers. James D.

Iler attended his brother was best man, and seating, guests in pews marked by white satin bows were Donald E. Friedly, brother of the bride, and D. Lowell Booher and Thomas E. Ingledue. Mrs. Anita Kintz, supervised registration. Both Mrs. Friedly and Mrs. Iler chose lace dresses for the wedding. Mrs. Friedly received their guests in pastel blue with which she combined white accessories. The bridegroom's mother selected a green jacketed frock and green accents. Both wore white orchid corsages.

The reception following the ceremony was held at the Rockford School cafeteria where tables were decorated in orchid and white. Assisting at the bride's table, which was centered by a four-tiered cake, were Mrs. Connie French and Miss Kathy Koch, cousins of the bride; and Miss Judy Miller, Miss Barbara Dudgeon, Miss Joyce Beall, Mrs. Janice Kohn, Miss Evelyn Shindeldecker, and Miss Linda Royer, friends of the bride.

For their trip to Florida, Mrs. Iler changed to a lavender dress complemented by white accessories and her bridal orchid. Upon returning, the couple will reside at 2762 Defiance Drive, Columbus.

Notes for Tyler Philip Canniff:

Annandale – Tyler Canniff grew up on the ice playing hockey, but over the last six months he hasn't seen anything that resembles an iced surface since he was transferred to Turkey by the United States Air Force. Canniff played for and graduated from Osbourn Park High School, where he saw action in 30 games over his career. He scored five times and gave seven assists in his career. After high school, Canniff he decided to stay home and enrolled at Northern Virginia Community College and suited up for the hockey team. With the Nighthawks, Canniff played for a couple of years and was a big part of the conference championship team in 2016. Over the course of his career, Canniff scored eight times and gave seven assists as a defenseman.

"Playing for NOVA provided me with some of the best memories," Canniff said. "We went 0-19 one season and the next season we won the championship after going 18-5." One of those memories for Canniff comes from the Nighthawks trip to Florida where they defeated Florida Tech 8-4, but lost to Florida Atlantic 5-2. During the last game in Florida, Canniff slipped on the ice causing him to run into an opponent and was injured. The injury forced him to go to the hospital. "We went to Florida back in 2016, and against Florida Tech I got a massive laceration on my elbow from a hockey skate," Canniff said. "The whole team went to the hospital after the game with me, but the whole trip was such a blast."

It wasn't all hockey for Canniff, in the classroom during the spring semester in 2016 he was a Presidential Scholar after earning a 4.0 GPA. "Higher education teaches you time management, patience and perseverance through difficult times," Canniff said. "All of these things have enabled me to excel in the USAF." He continued to take classes at NOVA after his hockey playing days were over following the 2016 season. After taking his last class in 2018, Canniff followed his dream and joined the United States Air Force. "It was always a dream of mine to join the USAF, and one day I decided to go for it," Canniff said. "I do plan to continue my education after I'm finished with my time in USAF, and I will take advantage of the free education." It's been roughly two years of service time for E-3/Airman First Class Canniff, who has been stationed in Turkey the last six months. Canniff currently serves in the communications field as Cable and Antenna Systems.

Even though he hasn't played any hockey since being stationed in Turkey, Canniff is expecting a transfer to Germany in the near future. The Air Force will have him in Germany for two years, and says he is planning on playing hockey there.

- 3807 ii. Cody Patrick Canniff, born 2000.

Notes for Cody Patrick Canniff:

May 6, 2021 - Alexandria Police have executed an emergency custody order (ECO) for a West End man with a history of mental illness and violent behavior. As of April 21, Cody Patrick Canniff was under evaluation at Inova Alexandria Hospital after throwing a "large tree" at an Alexandria Police officer outside his apartment building in the 300 block of Yoakum Parkway. The incident was the second mental health complaint against Canniff that day. Canniff was arrested for brandishing a firearm against a family inside a 7-Eleven convenience store in 2012, and was also arrested for assault and battery against his then-wife in October 2016.

Four years later, on Dec. 26, 2020, Canniff was then taken into custody under an ECO after allegedly throwing machetes at people from his balcony, according to police. Several knives and a Smith and Wesson handgun were seized. "Mr. Canniff stated that the devil had taken custody of his body," Police said of the Dec. 26, 2020 incident. Canniff was also taken into custody for an ECO in February for allegedly walking around his apartment complex and threatening residents with a machete. "During the incident, he was mentally unstable and not making coherent statements and also attempted to jump out the window," police said in a search warrant affidavit.

Also in February, Canniff's girlfriend reported to police that he abducted and physically assaulted her multiple times. Police conducted another search for weapons at his apartment after he was taken into custody on April 21, and said in the search warrant that it was necessary to do so "for his safety as well as the community's."

Notes for Paul Frederick Barnes:

Paul Frederick Barnes, of Saline, age 65, passed away on Wednesday, May 7, 2008 at The Bronson Hospital located in Kalamazoo, Michigan. His death resulted from severe injuries sustained three days prior when he was involved in a tragic accident in Albion, Michigan. He was born September 7, 1942 in Artesia, California, the son of Frank and Catherine (Warren) Barnes and had family ties to both Michigan and California. Paul enlisted in the U.S. Naval Reserves as a senior at Glendora High School and became active in the CB Division of the U.S. Navy after graduation. He had been employed by the Ann Arbor Fire Department for over twenty-five years until his retirement. Paul also spent over 30 years farming properties on Mooreville Road and Weber Road in Saline. Paul was never short of ideas when it came to growing his crops or expanding his businesses. Barnes Pickle Farm soon became Barnes Farm Market which eventually led to a greenhouse and sweet corn business. At the peak of his career, Paul was as famous for his blueberry donuts as he was for his unconventional farming. In recent years Paul had developed much of his 40-acre farm into two subdivisions and has overseen the construction of several homes.

Survivors include one son, Michael (Amy) Barnes of Swartz Creek, Michigan and one grandson Colby Barnes also of Swartz Creek; daughters, Michele Barnes of Thailand and Tamara Barnes of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; cherished friend, Candace Boehlke of Albion, Michigan; and faithful companion "Sis." Notes for Mary Antonia Lorenzo:

Mary Antonia Lorenzo Brelsford, age 72, of Flourtown, Pennsylvania, passed away on Thursday, April 8, 2021, at her home surrounded by her family. Mary was born in Philadelphia on June 10, 1948; dear daughter of the late Anthony S. Lorenzo and the late Mary M. Lorenzo (nee: Famularo); beloved wife of 40 years of Jeffrey C. Brelsford; loving mother of Jeffrey Drew Brelsford, Anthony Brelsford, and Cara Brelsford Kaminski; dear cousin of Joanne Pascuzzi, and Alex and Fran Famularo; dear sister-in-law of Julie Gibson, Ann Brelsford, and Rebecca Perozze; and dear lifelong friend of Mary Clare Henon.

Mary was a sweet, kind, caring, and generous person. A loving, devoted wife and mother, she was the one we all turned to for love, guidance, and comfort. She always had a positive outlook even amidst the most difficult of times. Her strength will continue to guide us throughout life. Mary was an avid reader of westerns and mystery novels. She instilled a love of reading in her children, and always read to them when they were young. She cherished summers at the beach in Cape May with her friends and family, and always looked forward to visiting with family in Florida each year. Throughout her life she went on many adventures with her husband, Jeffrey, including visiting San Francisco, the Grand Canyon, Monument Valley, Yellowstone, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, and Germany.

Mary attended Little Flower grade school where she met her dearest friend, Mary Clare. She attended high school at Mount Saint Joseph Academy for girls in Flourtown where her daughter, Cara, would later attend. She graduated from Chestnut Hill College with a Bachelor's degree in History and a teaching certificate. She later attended Drexel University and received a Master's Degree in Library Science. Mary fondly remembered her school days and loved getting together with friends from grade school and attending her high school reunions. Mary was a teacher and librarian at Archbishop Ryan High School in Philadelphia for 30 years. She was the last high school librarian in the Philadelphia Archdiocese. Mary was often sought after for her advice, and was well respected by her various principals and fellow teachers. In 2010, she received the Fr. Rene Barzak O.F.M. Award for Service and Dedication.

Mary was a passionate rosarian and active member of the Philadelphia Rose Society for over three decades. Her love of roses was contagious and inspirational. Mary played an integral role in the Rose Society, creating and maintaining the Rose Society's website, as well as helping to organize and run the annual Rose Show. As a board member of the Rose Society, Mary was always able to offer practical and pragmatic solutions to any problems or concerns that arose. Mary was thoughtful, dedicated, hard-working, and loved by all who knew her.

Relatives, friends, and colleagues are invited to attend her visitation on Thursday, April 22, 2021, from 10:30 to 11:30 am (a private viewing for immediate family will be held beforehand), followed by her Funeral Mass at 11:30 am at St. Alphonsus Church, 33 Conwell Drive, Maple Glen, Pennsylvania 19002. Interment at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. All are welcome to attend a luncheon following the interment. We will all miss her terribly, but her spirit will always live in us. He married Mary Frances Garner 19 Feb 1955 in Smith Co, Texas. She was born 13 May 1935 in Bullard, Cherokee Co, Texas, and died 08 Jul 2019 in Boerne, Kendall Co, Texas.

Notes for William Mac Orman:

William M. Orman died September 8, 2017 after a short illness. He was born June 4, 1933 in Shreveport, Louisiana. Bill served 26 years in the Air Force, retiring on January 1, 1980 as a Chief Master Sergeant on the Inspector General's staff. He then went on to remodel and build custom homes throughout Austin. In 1987 he moved to the San Francisco Bay Area continuing in this profession and where he married his wife, Diane and where his youngest daughter was born. Upon returning to Austin in 1993 he resumed his career in construction. After retiring Bill loved nothing more than fishing and playing dominoes with his children and grandchildren. Bill was preceded in death by his parents, Paul and Sybil Orman.

He leaves behind his wife, Diane, former wife, Mary Orand of Boerne, four children: David Orman (Jeana) of Alamo Heights, Andrea (Mrs. Donald) Salter of Bulverde, Janet (Mrs. David Bryant) of Boerne and Becky Orman of Los Angeles; sister, Charlotte Spurlock of Denton, sister, Paula Ellis of Mt. Belvieu and brother, Dennis (Glynda) of Spring. Services will be private.

Notes for Mary Frances Garner:

Services for Mary Frances Garner Orman Orand, 84, will be held at 2pm on Friday, July 12, 2019, at Tyler Memorial Funeral Home in Tyler, Texas. Burial will follow at Tyler Memorial Cemetery. Mary passed away on July 8, 2019, in Boerne, Texas, with many of her beloved children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren by her side. Mary was born on May 13, 1935, in Bullard, Texas, to Francis and Willine Sides Garner on the farm where her mother was born. She graduated from Tyler High School in 1953 and from Tyler Commercial College in 1954. After graduating, she married Bill Orman, and they had three children – Dave, Andrea, and Janet. Bill spent 26 years in the Air Force, and during that time the family lived in England, Okinawa, and at various AF bases in Texas. Mary worked for 28 years as a Federal employee with the Department of the Air Force, Department of the Interior. She also worked for the Texas Army National Guard in Austin and then the Department of the Interior (Bureau of Land Management), in Tulsa, Oklahoma, where she retired in 1994.

Mary's greatest joy was being in the kitchen cooking her favorite foods for her large extended family and many friends. Her other great passion was animals. She could never resist caring for all the various stray dogs and cats that found their way to her porch. Most of these abandoned animals became much-loved pets as Mary would name each and every one of them. Even the neighborhood deer knew to wait by the fence for each day's leftovers and a can of deer corn thrown to them by a lady with a kind soul on a golf cart. The deer would even return with their fawns each spring to begin the cycle anew. Mary could never be convinced that deer weren't meant to eat leftover roast with bread and gravy. Mary was a member of First United Methodist Church in Boerne and greatly enjoyed attending until falling too ill preceding her passing. She made many friends there and greatly appreciated the rapport among the staff of the church and its congregants who were so kind to her.

Mary was much-beloved by her 3 children- Dave, Andrea, and Janet and their spouses, her 9 grandchildren, and her 8 great-grandchildren (with another on the way) and will be greatly missed by them all for her steadfast love, devotion, and many kindnesses. She is preceded in death by her parents and her first husband and the father of her children. She leaves behind a circle of faithful, lifelong friends and cherished relatives.

A special thank you to the women at Alamo Hospice in Boerne who so lovingly cared for Mary during her final months. She loved you all. Pallbearers will be her grandsons. Dr. Don Guthrie will be officiating.

Notes for Walter Richard (Cotton) Chattin:

Walter R. "Cotton" Chattin, Washington, after several years of serious illness, passed away at his home June 15, 2010. He was 83 — born July 31, 1926, in Washington, the son of the late Clifford B. and Daisy (Gilley) Chattin. Cotton attended Washington High School — was always very sports minded and played football, basketball and baseball. He was a member of the WHS Class of 1944, but at age 16 he chose to join the Navy Seabees and served two years in the Pacific — in the Marshall and Marianna Islands. After he was discharged from the service he went back to high school, played football again, graduated and was offered a football scholarship but decided he would rather get married. Cotton and Ruth Armes were married on Nov. 25, 1945, and they chose to make their home in Washington. Being from a "railroad" family, Cotton worked at the B and O Railroad and later went to work for the Sears Roebuck and Company where he worked in all departments. Later he was promoted to assistant manager and when the new Sears Service Center was added to the store, he was promoted to manager of that department. After 40 years of employment, he retired in May 1986. Cotton played softball at Allen Field; coached Pee-Wee football, was past president of Washington Jay-Cees, coordinator of reunions for the Class of 1944 and also worked diligently with the WHS-WCHS Alumni reunions. Cotton belonged to the Elks Club, American Legion and Masonic Lodge and was of the Methodist faith. Cotton thoroughly enjoyed his home, his flower garden and his pet, Heidi. Cotton and Ruth were married for 64 years and are the parents of one daughter, Sherri.

Cotton is survived by his wife, Ruth; daughter, Sherri of Columbus; granddaughter, Shelly McElfresh and her husband Craig, and great-grandson Garrett McElfresh of Indianapolis and Jack Plummer of Columbus; a sister, Phyllis Chattin of Washington; sister-in-law, Phyllis Chattin Hart of Evansville; niece, Judy McCamment and nephew, Gary Chattin, both of Newburgh; sister-in-law, Jane Chattin; and three nephews, Jeff, Steve and Scott Chattin, all of Washington. Cotton also leaves his lifelong friend Don Dayton and pet, Heidi. Besides his parents, Cotton's brothers, Byron Chattin and Sheldon "Pete" Chattin, preceded him in death.

Friends may call on Friday at 1 p.m. until service time at Gill Chapel; services will be at 3 p.m. Friday at Gill Chapel, with entombment to follow at Sugarland Memory Gardens Mausoleum. Steve Dayton, long-time family friend, will be officiating.

August 20, 1942 - November 28, 2017 Funeral services for Sandra Lee Alexander, 75, of Lovington, New Mexico will be held on Saturday, December 2, 2017 at 1:00 pm at First Baptist Church with Harry Pittam and Dave Rowser officiating. Burial will follow at Resthaven Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of Kirby-Smith-Rogers Funeral Home. Sandra was born on August 20, 1942 in Joplin, Missouri to Harold Jr. and Joy Lee (Wade) French and passed away on November 28, 2017 in Lubbock, Texas. A Missouri girl by birth but New Mexico would capture her heart by way of Dal Alexander. Thinking she came to Lovington to visit family but a chance encounter with Dal would change her life's path. A short time later she would walk down the aisle, right into a life of happily ever after; a life that evolved into motherhood where her strongest gifts could be seen. Betty Crocker was no match for her. Her flair for flavor was demonstrated in everything she cooked as she was the "Queen of our Kitchen"! She was also a seamstress extraordinaire; mending, patching and creating. Knowing her daughters' love for horses and talent-she became the best Jr. Rodeo mom. She drove to the ends of the earth so her girls could ride as fast as the wind. Their interests were her interests and she could shift from rodeo mom to cheer mom in an instant. Sorry Dr. Phil, but a talk with Sandra brought great wisdom and loving insight balanced with common sense. But it was her style and beauty that was iconic. She took time to always do it right. When she walked into a room her presence turned heads, not just because of her beauty but because of her loving spirit and noble character. The gift that made her shine brightest was the gift of being "Grammy." There's a little piece of her reflecting from each of her beloved grandchildren. Laying aside all her other gifts and amazing attributes it was her strength and faith in God that set her apart. Health issues and pain would rob some of her happily ever after, but what emerged was a great prayer warrior, a woman with Biblical insight and a heart filled with Godly love and compassion. It is those faith-filled characteristics that brings the hope and knowledge that as she drew her last breath on earth her next breath was on Heaven's peaceful shore; a place where she found pain-free wholeness and renewed strength resting in the arms of her Savior. So today we celebrate a life well-lived. She was preceded in death by her parents: Harold Jr. and Joy Lee French.

Surviving her is her husband Dal Alexander of Lovington, New Mexico; three daughters: Dena and husband Cliff Kirkpatrick of Post, Texas, Teri and husband Tim George of Dripping Springs, Texas and Carla Alexander of Lovington, New Mexico; two brothers: Michael and wife Paula French of Riverton, Kansas, and Randy and wife Debra French of Baxter Springs, Kansas; one sister: Jennifer Shoemaker of Galena, Kansas; four grandchildren: Sarah and husband Robert Tofan of Ft. Worth, Texas, Hannah Kirkpatrick of Ft. Worth, Texas, Will and wife Jessica George of Dripping Springs, Texas, and Daniel Alexander of Odessa, Texas; and three great-grandchildren: Jillian George, Jackson George, and R.C Tofan.

Visitation will be held on Friday, December 1, 2017 from 2:00 pm - 6:00 pm with the family in residence at the funeral home from 4:00 - 5:30 pm.
