Lansing, June 2, 1951 - A short - lived windstorm, hitting with mixed fury in scattered locations in the Lansing; area, resulted in one fatality and rendered extensive damage to suburban and rural homes, barns, utility lines and trees Friday night June 1, 1951 but soared the capital city itself. Killed during the storm, which struck shortly before 9 p.m., was Mrs. Ruth Whiting, 31, of 4872 Justamere St., Holt. State police said she was riding with her husband, Herman, on Aurelius Rd., when a large wild cherry tree was uprooted by the high wind and fell on their automobile. Mrs. Whiting was crushed in her seat and died instantly, according to Coroner Ray Gorsline. Wrecking crews were forced to pry the car apart before removing her body. Mr. Whiting was in critical condition in Edward W. Sparrow hospital, suffering from a possible skull fracture, internal injuries and severe cuts and bruises. Mrs. Whiting, a bride of a little more than one year, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kussmaul, 2331 Forest Rd. The couple had lived in Holt since their marriage. Mrs. Whiting had been an employee of Melling Forging company for 15 years, and had left her job recently. She was an expectant mother in July, according to relatives.

A survey early Saturday morning showed that at least six barns in the Lansing vicinity were blown down by sudden wind gusts, one was destroyed by fire resulting from lightning, the second story and roof of a suburban home was blown off, other homes were damaged by wind and falling trees, and four house trailers were tipped on their sides. In addition, electric and telephone poles were toppled in several rural sections mostly around Holt and Leslie with service over wide areas being disrupted for hours during the night.

Lansing - Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Ruth Whiting, 31, of 4872 Justamere Rd., who was crushed to death by a falling tree during Friday night's wind storm, were delayed today due to the condition of her husband, Herman W., who was seriously hurt. Mr. Whiting, who suffered possible internal injuries and skull fracture, was reported "Improved" by attendants at Edward W. Sparrow hospital. His condition was given as "fair." Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kussmaul, 2331 Forest Rd., put off making funeral plans pending runner improvement of their son-in-law, according to a spokesman for the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home. Mrs. Whiting's body was removed there after being cut from the automobile crushed by an uprooted wild cherry tree about 9 p.m. Friday on Aurelius Rd.

Besides the parents, Mrs. Whiting is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Wibel and Mrs. Pearl Tucker, both of Lansing, and Mrs. Agnes Danley, St. Johns, and two brothers, Howard Kussmaul of Lansing and Arthur Kussmaul of Belleville. The couple were married Oct. 14, 1910, and separated June 7, 1911. During the nine months of their married life the husband says his wife used such endearing terms in addressing him as "fool," "bull head" and other like epithets, and also persisted in staying out late at night, taking in the dances at Waverly park and going automobile riding with other men. The husband also says his wife refused to permit him to accompany her when she went out nights and then when he remonstrated with her about remaining out until nearly morning she would become sulky and refuse to speak to him for several days at a time.

28. David⁵ Kussmaul (Anton⁴, Gottlieb³, Johann Jacob², Andreas¹) was born 18 Dec 1886 in Ionia Co, Michigan, and died 20 May 1941 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan. He married Helen J. Heidt 24 Nov 1910 in Michigan, daughter of John Heidt. She was born 1890 in DeWitt Twp, Clinton Co, Michigan, and died 23 Sep 1981.

Notes for David Kussmaul:

A Lansing man was instantly killed, and his wife seriously injured just north of the Lansing city limits late Tuesday morning, May 20, 1941, when their car crashed into a tree. David Kussmaul, 51, of 115 North Foster Avenue lost his life when his car got out of control on highway US-27 north of Lansing and struck a huge tree. The victim's wife, Helen J. Kussmaul, 50, suffered a possible fractured nose, a broken leg and severe lacerations of the face and was removed to Edward W. Sparrow hospital where her condition was reported serious. Witnesses told state police who investigated the crash that the car suddenly swerved over to the east side of the highway and ran directly into the tree. The whole front of the car was partially wrapped around the tree. Kussmaul apparently was thrown against the windshield of the car with great force, because the glass was completely shattered. Kussmaul was dead when removed from the wrecked car.

State police said the car was traveling south on the highway when the accident occurred. Coroner Harry Leadley who investigated the fatality said that he could find no cause for the accident. He said that it appeared Kussmaul had suddenly cramped the front wheels and swerved into the tree for no apparent reason. It was first reported that the dead man was a resident of near DeWitt, as was indicated by a driver's license found in his pocket, but state police later learned that Kussmaul had moved to the Lansing address several weeks ago. The victim is survived by a son, Clarence D. Kussmaul, living at home. The body was removed to the Estes-Leadley funeral home here to await funeral arrangements.

Funeral services for David L.
