More About Karen Jean Frey:

Baptism: 21 Jan 1951, Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan - sponsors: Elton Frey & Laura Stierle

Notes for Ricky Lee Doering:

Rick Lee Doering, age 65 of Delano, passed away April 2, 2018 after courageously battling cancer with dignity and grace. He truly perceived his diagnosis as a "win-win" situation saying, "I win if I beat the cancer, and I win when I get to go to Heaven". Rick was born to Orlin and Orvella (Bullert) Doering on May 5, 1952 in Cokato, Minnesota. He was baptized on June 1, 1952 at St. James Lutheran Church in Howard Lake, Minnesota. He attended grade school at St. James Lutheran Church and School where he was confirmed on April 3, 1966. Rick graduated from Howard Lake High School in 1970 and Gustavus Adolphus College in 1974. He worked as a manager for Burger King for 5 years before spending 31 years at BFI/Republic Services. Here he was fortunate to hold a variety of jobs: Sales Rep, General Manager, Area Sales Manager, and assisted in Acquisitions. Since retiring from Republic Services, Rick spent several years doing part-time consulting work for Russ Schweihs in environmental services.

Rick was united in marriage to Karen Frey on July 9, 1977 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He loved her with all his heart enjoying every minute of their marriage. Their marriage was blessed with a loving companionship, three wonderful children and a commitment to the Lord. They first lived in Mound and later built their home in Delano in 1984, where they have since resided. Rick was known for his love of food/desserts, sense of humor, pragmatic attitude, and his warm smile. His children and grandchildren were the absolute delight of his life. Spending time and playing with them was always a top priority. Rick never missed an activity or sporting event and was their greatest cheerleader, supporter and advisor. He continued to be the rock of his family until the end. Hours before he passed, Rick awoke and saw his wife and children surrounding the bed. He looked at each, smiled and said repeatedly, "Wow. What a life!", "This has been real special", and "I love my family". Rick willingly gave his time in service to the church. He enjoyed positions of leadership and was honored to serve his Lord in many capacities. At Mt. Olive Lutheran Church, he served as President, Vice President among many other board positions in addition to serving as Treasurer and Chairman at West Lutheran High School. Many often sought his counsel when issues arose as he had a reputation for being fair and honest. He was truly amazing!

Rick was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his beloved wife Karen; children Scott (Lindsay), Julie (Micah) Martin and Krista (Andy) Giefer; grandchildren Chase, Olivia, Josiah, Nora, Mara, and Jonah; sisters Durene (Bob) Rogers and Sheri Doering Fenn and nephews Andrew, Eric, Nick and Michael.

Funeral Services were held at 11 am on Saturday, April 7, 2018 at Mt. Olive Lutheran Church in Delano. Visitation was Friday, 4 – 8 pm and continued Saturday, 10 – 11 am prior to the service, ALL at the church. Interment was in Mt. Olive East Cemetery in Delano. Notes for Edward Stanley Harook:

Edward Stanley Harook, loving father, brother, and husband, was born on May 21, 1933, in Detroit, Michigan. Ed passed away on December 26, 2020. He is survived by Garnett Puckett-Harook, his wife for the past 24 years, his brother John, his sister Agnes Miller, and his daughter Edie Lynd Harook, his stepchildren, Jeanne & Larry Samons, and Doug & Cindy Puckett. He has four grandchildren, Magnus, Elaina, Payton, Ian, three step-grandchildren, and five step-great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Rosemary, and his brother Samuel.

Ed was a graduate of Eastern High School, where he played the drums in the Detroit City Band. Soon after graduation, Ed started working for Chrysler as a technician until the Fall of 1952, when he enlisted in the U.S. Army where he served honorably until his discharge in the Fall of 1954. Ed served in the Korean War where he was awarded the Korean Service Medal, the Bronze Star, the National Defense Service Medal, and the United Nations Service Medal. Following the war, Ed attended Wayne State University, where he earned an engineering degree, and returned to Chrysler Corporation. Ed advanced to management positions and was a loyal employee for over forty years until his retirement. Ed was an avid and skilled bowler with several 300 games to his credit. Later in life, he learned to love the game of golf.

Ed was a die-hard fan of the University of Michigan and was thrilled when his daughter Edie attended. For decades Ed was a season ticket holder, and he loved attending football games at the Big House during the Schembechler era. Ed touched many people throughout his life. Ed's daughter has fond memories of his cooking skills, and he has numerous friends and colleagues in Chelsea that he shared regular meals with his meeting of the minds. For over a decade, he served as the elf photographer at Bone Island Grill's annual "Breakfast with Santa" event, where he was beloved by all. Ed loved working on the computer, and his yearly family calendar was a prized Christmas gift which we will dearly miss. He was often called upon to take videos, pictures and develop photo journals of significant church events. Ed was a profoundly religious man and became an active member of the Jeruel Baptist Church in Munith, Michigan, where he enjoyed Pastor Bob Castle's sermons. Ed shared that he had lived a full life and was looking forward to an even better life after death. He truly believed in heaven, and we know that he is looking down upon us all from the Kingdom above.

A service is being planned for May 21, 2021 at the Fort Custer National Cemetery in Augusta, MI. The family requests donations be made in Ed's name to the Wounded Warrior Project or your local American Legion.

Local mother, Deidra Stierle, finds support with cancer battle

Jazzercise instructor says students, staff in her corner

By Alison Marable, Special Writer

PUBLISHED: August 14, 2008

Deidra Stierle's life was the envy of many. She was a healthy, 35-year-old Jazzercise instructor with a good job at a local firm and she had recently returned from a family trip to Disney World. The day Stierle got the call from the hospital, she was a parent helper at her son's preschool. James was a leader at Pooh Corner in Saline because the next day he would be turning 4 years old. Stierle has never forgotten that day in May when the voice over the telephone confirmed that her cells were indeed cancerous. As any mother would, she had to contain herself in front of her son and the other children, finish out the day and then call her husband.

Following her diagnosis of Stage 1 breast cancer, Stierle began a series of four rounds of chemotherapy, to be followed by seven weeks of radiation treatment. As a woman in her 30s, Stierle describes the experience as a "horrible emotional rollercoaster." One doctor told her that she was too young for cancer and that she was simply a "victim of technology." "She was upset by the misleading comments about being a victim of technology," said golfing partner and friend Shelly Butler.

During her first chemotherapy session at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, she looked around the room and noticed that most of the other women were seniors. She noted that some of the hospital staff seemed surprised to be treating someone of her age and were compassionate when they discovered she has such a young child. "I couldn't believe that this could happen to someone as young, active and healthy as Deidra," said close friend Tammy Miller. "It seems like more women in their 30s are being diagnosed and I think it's scary; however, it may be a reflection of better technology and doctors being trained to find it earlier," Stierle said.

Stierle has a master plan in place to keep herself motivated and positive. One step she took to be in control of her situation was to look for information on breast cancer and treatment. "She spent hours on the Internet reading legitimate sites and staying away from the blogs with the horror stories," her husband said. Miller said, "She has extensively researched information about breast cancer and her particular situation so that she is knowledgeable of all the facts, and she is managing her recovery with great fortitude." Stierle is known for her strength and can-do attitude. "She has a fire inside that she channels to help deal with the situation," said her husband. "Her personality is strong, positive and determined," said Miller.

Longtime friend Stephanie McCarthy said Stierle has handled the diagnosis with grace and strength, accepting the side effects that she likely will have from the treatment without one note of self pity. McCarthy will run the Susan G. Komen race for the Cure in Toledo in September and will place the name "Deidra Stierle" on her runner number. "The race will have a more special meaning for me this year," she said.

Stierle credits a large support system for her upbeat attitude. She considers her co-workers at the Saline Jazzercise Center to be family members. "It's more than a place to work out -- we're a sisterhood of sorts," she said. She continues to work and teach Jazzercise, altering her routine to compensate for any fatigue or having other instructors help with classes. "I want her to concentrate on her treatment, work and Jazzercise. The last two are important because it helps her to keep as normal a routine as possible," said Brian Stierle. Her friends at Jazzercise have provided gift cards for iTunes so that she will have new exercise music, items to pamper her during the tough times, comfortable clothes, nutrition cookbooks, and toys for her son. "They are a fantastic bunch and I couldn't ask for more sincere, genuine, caring people than my Jazzercise ladies," Deidra Stierle said.

Stierle has been employed at McNaughton & Gunn for nine years and finds the support at work priceless. Co-worker and friend Terri Conway said, "Here at work she doesn't let this get her down. Her professionalism is still what it has always been and she is on the ball." Stierle offers words of advice to women newly diagnosed with the disease. "Don't panic if you are faced with the word 'cancer' and listen to the doctors and experts rather than well-meaning family and friends," she said. Stierle advises friends and family not to offer unsolicited opinions on what a cancer patient should do or what kind of treatment they should receive. "I think the best thing they can do is offer support, but not advice," she said. Many friends sent cards to her home just letting her know she was in their thoughts. "It's a very simple act, but it means a lot to know people care," she said.

Stierle's parents, Denny and LeeAnne Roberts of Blissfield, her mother-in-law, Barb Stierle of Saline, as well as her 38-year-old sister, Renee Dashner of Blissfield, have been on hand to help with watching and caring for James. Stierle recalls that she and her son have always cuddled while he touched her hair. "To help ease her son into the certainty of losing her hair, she went out and had it cut real short to make the loss a bit less dramatic for James," Butler said. She and her mother also have been making scarves and pins for hats in anticipation of possible hair loss.

In 2006, Stierle's husband underwent surgery for chronic Crohn's disease so he not only had a great role model for being a supportive spouse, but he can now see what it is like to be on the other side. "I understand the worry she went through and I have a greater appreciation for all she did," he said. Their son is too young to know more than the fact that his mother is sick and sometimes won't feel well. Despite his age, he offers his own kind of support. "He is so full of energy that even if she is feeling down, he gets her laughing in an instant and takes her mind off the situation for a while," Brian Stierle said. Deidra Stierle's future plans include taking a cruise with her husband once the holidays are over and her treatment has come to an end. "I love her with all my heart and plan on growing old with her," said her husband.
