Notes for Michael Friederich Kern:

History of Allen and Woodson Counties, Kansas: Edited and Compiled by L. Wallace Duncan and Chas. F. Scott. Iola Registers, Printers and Binders, Iola, Kansas: 1901; page 195:

Michael F. Kern, of Humboldt Township, Allen County, was born in the province of Wurtemberg, Germany, July 2, 1833. He was a son of John Adam Kern, who emigrated to the United States in 1859 and settled in the state of Michigan. In Washtenaw County his parents died, the mother in 1869 and the father ten years later. Eight children were born to this worthy couple, four of whom survive, viz: Lena, who, married Carl Haddock and resides in Lawrence, Kansas; Catherine, wife of Andrew Reule, of Ann Arbor, Michigan; John M. and Michael F. Kern.

The subject of this sketch resided five years in Michigan and then set out for the frontier. He came down into Allen County during the war and preempted the land upon which he has since resided. He was acquainted with the methods of successful farming and began at once to devote himself thereto. The improvement of his premises also received his attention and in his thirty-five years of citizenship he has expanded and developed materially to the extent of a substantially improved, high-cultivated and exceedingly productive two hundred and forty acre farm.

As a feeder and grower of cattle and other marketable stock Mr. Kern is well known in southern Allen County. For many years his farm has furnished a market for much surplus grain of the community and his extensive interests demand the employment of labor throughout the year. His home presents the appearance of neatness and cleanliness. Everything has its proper place and, when not in use, is found in its place. He planned his improvements for convenience and the arrangement of his barns, sheds and fences indicate the perfection he attained.

Michael F. Kern was married in October 1865 to Sarah W. Schmidt, whose father, Henry Schmidt, was born in Hanover, Germany. Mrs. Kern was born in Lafayette County, Missouri.

During the war Mr. Kern belonged to the state militia, doing guard duty along the border, and upon several occasions was called into the field to drive out the invading rebels and bushwhackers. In politics he has been without aspirations. While he has been interested in all political controversies it has been the interest of a citizen and not of a candidate. He affiliates with the Republicans and is regarded in some measure as a controlling influence in local elections.

He married Christiana Magdalena Ruehle 30 Oct 1844 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Joseph Ruehle and Eva Allmendinger. She was born 29 Oct 1826 in Endersbach, Rems-Murr, Wurtemberg, and died 13 Sep 1907 in Grand Rapids, Kent Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johann Georg Schairer:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906.

John George Schairer is one of five brothers, all named John, four of them of course known only by middle names. Mr. Schairer came over as a youth, learned here the shoemaker's trade, and is still industriously pounding away on his lap stone. His immigration was in 1836. He soon felt the need of informing himself of the political matters of the country, bought a spelling book and began with the English alphabet to prepare himself to gather the needed information. His memory is a mine upon which one draws with satisfaction. It is an interesting fact that his wife's sister, Mrs. Ebinger, removed from Ann Arbor to Chicago when but few houses occupied the site of that now great city, walking most of the way, attended by the ox wagon which carried the household goods.

SHOCKING FATAL ACCIDENT – John G. Schairer, Killed

A shocking accident robbed Ann Arbor of one of its oldest most respected citizens last evening, and turned a party of merrymakers into sorrow stricken mourners. John G. Schairer, who had rounded out his eighty-four years, was attending the annual reunion of the Allmendinger family at Spring Lake, and at Lakeland, on the way home; at 7 o'clock in the evening he was instantly killed by an Ann Arbor railroad train.

The party to the number of sixty had spent the day at Spring Lake, a short distance east of Lakeland, and had returned to the latter station preparatory to taking the Ann Arbor railroad back to the city. Nearly two hundred people were at the station, and the Allmendinger party was on the north side of the track. The 7:20 train for the south pulled in, and the crowd were making ready to go on board. Just before the train stopped an elderly man was seen to step on the track from the south side. The engine was scarcely twenty feet away and if everything had gone well he would have had a narrow escape. As it was he stumbled as he was stepping over the nearest rail, and fell directly in the path of the advancing engine.

An unknown man, whose name has not been learned, ran forward and at the imminent peril of his own life seized the prostrate form and tried to drag it across the track. The margin was too narrow, and he saw that handicapped as he was he could not reach a place of safety. It was a case of one life or two, so he dropped the burden and just escaped being struck himself.

The accident took place in full view of the waiting crowd, but no one knew who was the victim. The body had been carried under the engine, but one arm was thrown upon the cowcatcher in such a way the face and head were preserved from mutilation. The blood and dust so dimmed the features that no one realized who it was for several minutes. Had the daring attempt at rescue not been made by the stranger the body would have been terribly mangled, as it was lying directly across the rails.

The body was brought to this city last night, and was removed to the Dieterle undertaking establishment. As Lakeland is in Livingston County the Livingston coroner will have to sign the burial certificate.

The circumstances surrounding the death are particularly sad. The descendants of the Allmendinger family to the number of sixty had passed a day of merry making, and Mr. Schairer was one of the most light hearted of the party. His health was excellent and his mind was alert and vigorous as in the days of his early manhood, and he enjoyed every moment of the outing. Confident in his own strength and vitality he would not allow himself to be looked after by his children or grandchildren, but insisted that his age was no handicap and that he was perfectly competent to take care of himself. He was the oldest member of the party, but was not himself a member of the Allmendinger clan. His wife, who was formerly Miss Christina Ruehle was the oldest of the Allmendinger descendants, and the couple would have celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary October 31 of this year.

John G. Schairer was born in Durrweiler, oberant Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, Germany. He came to Ann Arbor in 1836 and opened a shoemaking establishment. He remained in active business until he was seventy years of age, when he yielded to the wishes of his family and retired. He leaves a widow and eleven children. During the sixty years that the couple had been married there had been only one death in the immediate family, which was that of a daughter, forty years ago. The children are: G.E. Schairer, of Saline; John J. Schairer, of Clint, Texas; Mrs. D.C. Giffard, Mrs. William Steufer; Aaron and Jessie Schairer, of Westport, Nebraska; Mrs. Samuel Krause, Mrs. M. Otto and D.F. Schairer, of this city.

June 13, 1940 - The sale of the Schairer house on Michigan Avenue marks the passing of one of Saline's old homes which has been in that family since 1870. The Schairers were one of the prominent families of Saline and date back to pioneer settlers who came from Germany to Ann Arbor in 1836. It will be remembered that Ann Arbor was a mere settlement then with cow pastures where the University now stands, a cluster of buildings, winding walks, shade trees and shrubbery, making it one of the prettiest campuses in the United States. There were no great department stores, smart dress shops, tea rooms and restaurants, but there were a few stores where staples could be purchased, a hotel to accommodate the traveling public, and people with thrifty ideas and the courage to stick through the hardships of pioneer life to lay the foundation for the present city and industrial life of the community. It was during those early days that foundations were laid for some of the family fortunes which have developed since. John George Schairer was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, February 7, 1820, and with his step-father, John Jacob Jedele, and family came to America in 1836 locating in Ann Arbor. He soon decided that he wanted to take an active part in politics and realized that in order to do so he must become familiar with the English language. So he bought a spelling book and began the study of English words and their proper spelling. With persistence and diligence he mastered the language and later was determined that his children should have an education. On October 31, 1844, he was married in Scio Township to Miss Christina Magdalena Reuhle who was also from Wurtemberg. He was a maker by trade and established a fine business in Ann Arbor. The home was at 40 S. Ashley Street, now the heart of the business district. Here their twelve children were born and all but one lived to manhood and womanhood. Here they celebrated their 50 wedding anniversary and plans were under way to celebrate the 60th when on Labor Day of that year, Sept. 4, 1904, while returning from a picnic celebrating a reunion of the Allmendinger family, Mr. Schairer was killed at Lakeland by a train. Mrs. Schairer lived until September 13, 1907. Rather unusual it is that Rev. Schmid, who was the pastor who confirmed Mrs. Schairer, officiated at her marriage, christened her 12 children and officiated at the funeral of Martha Eva, the only one of the 12 who died before reaching maturity, was also the officiating clergyman at the first wedding in her little flock, that of Louise Henrietta to Chris. Reimold.

George Edward Schairer was born in Ann Arbor August 2, 1845, one of the 12 children of John George and Christina Schairer. He was educated in the Ann Arbor schools and on Feb. 15, 1872, married Miss Sophia Sorg, daughter of Fred and Juliana Sorg of Ann Arbor. She also was educated in the Ann Arbor schools. George Edward Schairer was a carriage and wagon maker and learned his trade in the Lawson and Wurster shop in Ann Arbor. After having learned the trade he went to Cleveland, then to Chicago, St. Charles, Illinois, and on to Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, where he practiced his trade for three years; he then returned to Chicago and from there came to Saline in 1870 where he purchased the corner at the corner of Lewis Street and Michigan Avenue. This property then included the site now occupied by Herman Heininger and ran back on Lewis Street for some distance. The part of the Heininger farm implement building was the carriage shop. Here Mr. Schairer built fine carriages and surreys and took great pride in doing his work well. Buyers of that day were as proud of their plush upholstered seats and canopy tops, sturdy bodies, striped wheels and fancy paint jobs as the present automobile buyers are of their streamlined autos.

Mr. Schairer employed several men to help in this work. Aaron Howard was a wagon-maker; Andrew Tuttle a painter; Charles Nellis, a trimmer; Lon Cain, a painter; a Mr. Johnson was the blacksmith; and Ard Lashier, a harness maker. Several of these men boarded in the Schairer home and to accomplish the necessary cooking, baking, and extra housework Mrs. Schairer had help.

One can imagine the hum and stir in the shop those days. How, for instance, the news was passed by word of mouth as workers greeted each other in the morning. Since horses and carriages were the means of transportation that business compared to the garages of today. From this shop fine wagons and carriages built to order were shipped not only in this state but to many states and to many places in the east. Four children were born to the Schairers; they were Edward Oscar, who is a retired army officer and lives in San Francisco; Otto Sorg, who is a graduate of the University of Michigan and lives in Bronsville, New York; Miss Eva Sophia, a graduate of Normal College at Ypsilanti and the University at Madison, Wisconsin, now professor of home economics at the University in Grand Forks, North Dakota; and Bertha Juliana, who is now Mrs. Fred Nissly of Ypsilanti. Mrs. Schairer died while her children were all small, having contracted lingering consumption. Following her death a widowed sister came to live in the family and mother the flock. Mr. Schairer never remarried but kept faithfully to his business, providing for his children and maintaining the home. Miss Bertha succeeded her aunt in homemaking for the family and her father until his death, July 2, 1915.

As the horse and buggy era gave way to the automobile, Mr. Schairer invented a stock and wagon rack which he patented and manufactured until he retired business. Recently an auction was held to dispose of the remaining; family possessions after the children had each taken the pieces dearly prized by them. The house was sold to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kern of Bemis road. So after 70 years of sheltering one family, of welcoming a bride, echoing the first cries of baby lips, and watching those same babies slip from boyhood and girlhood to manhood and womanhood, of standing through storm and sunshine, of witnessing birth and death, the old home with its traditions and memories has passed into other hands to start anew a cycle of family history.

and daughters of the old folks, their husbands and wives and the grandchildren. The grandchildren united in presenting their grandfather with a beautiful gold-headed cane, and their grandmother with gold-mounted silk umbrella. Schairer, of Saline, the oldest son was master of ceremonies and called for a number of toasts which were responded to in a very happy way. The day was a very pleasant one to all present and will never be forgotten. The Register wishes many returns of their wedding anniversary to the happy old people.

She was born 25 May 1836 in Steinbach, Wurtemberg, and died 06 Aug 1918 in Sebewaing Twp, Huron Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johann Peter Schairer:

Johann Peter Schairer was born in the Village of Durrweiler, Freudenstadt, Baden-Württemberg, Germany. He immigrated with 2 brothers (John and John George Schairer), 1 sister (Elizabeth Catharina Schairer Beck Jedele) 2 step-brothers (John Jacob Jedele and John Frederick Jedele) 1 step-sister (Anna Maria Jedele Spring), his mother (Anna Maria Pfeifle Schairer Jedele) and step-father (Johann Jacob Jedele), arriving in this country January, 1836 and in Ann Arbor, Michigan Territory, August 30, 1836. It took 47 days to cross the ocean. He was married to Agatha Schmid Jan 21, 1845 in Scio Township, Mi. Rev F Schmid (his cousin) officiating. Peter & Agatha were first cousins.

Pastor Schmid encouraged a group of young men of his Scio congregation to purchase land in Sebewaing, Michigan and form a separate church, one in keeping with his own philosophy. Peter had gone to Sebewaing to select the 160 acres deeded to him from the US on March 15, 1851 (the land was 2 miles southeast of the settlement.) A creek runs diagonally through the land and into the Sebewaing River. So, J Peter was among the young pioneers who moved to the Sebewaing wilderness in the fall of 1852. In the fall of 1852 Peter traveled with 6 other men. They drove two yokes of oxen, 14 cows, a steer, and dogs, and hauled their winter provisions, tools, and four pigs in a wagon. The trip took 6 days with nightly stops at Brighton, Fenton, Flint or Genesee, Birch Run and Watrousville, where the road ended. Then they hired a guide for five dollars to lead them through the woods to the Sebewaing settlement. In Sebewaing, they found virgin forests and swampy land once cleared and drained left rich soil. The woods had berries, nut and fruit trees, elk, deer, bear, rabbit, quail, partridge, wild turkeys and in the rivers plenty of fish. The men felled the trees to build the crude log cabins and stables with packed earth floors. Many settlers suffered from fever as much as a quarter of the year from the mosquitos. Soon, Peter bought more land. He now had 240 acres. After more settlers arrived, Schmid's followers called on Peters to help establish a church near their homes southeast of Sebewaing. New Salem's first service was held in 1853 at Peter and Agatha's home. After awhile the Schairer home could no longer accommodate the growing congregation. In 1854 the congregation bought 300 acres on Caro Road, about two miles south of the settlement and the first name on the deed was John Peter's. They named it New Salem in honor of their parent's congregation in Scio and elected Peter and 2 others to be the first church council. They soon built a log church and school (the original church site was located at the original cemetery site). As often as he could, Rev Schmid would come on horseback the 120 miles through the forests to preach to them.

At one time Peter was elected overseer of his highway district (corduroy roads). He was responsible for seeing that all male taxpayers contributed one half-days labor for each $100 of assessed valuation of property and that all voters contributed one day's labor as a poll tax. Peter was elected Supervisor for Sebewaing Township 1855, 1857, and 1866-68. Peter continued to be active in the affairs of New Salem Lutheran Church (later in his life). He served as a delegate to the synod meeting in 1892.

Half-brother John Frederick Jedele and his wife Dorothy bought 160 acres directly south of Peter's farm. Frederick was reported to be the first farmer in the area to own a team of horses, having walked back to Ann Arbor to buy them. Sometime in the early 1860's to 70's the J Peter Schairer family moved into the large farmhouse on Caro Road. The t-shaped farmhouse was of Ann Arbor's Greek Revival influence. In 1868 Peter's half-brother Frederick died of pneumonia at the age of 37, leaving Dorothea (Dorothy) with six children, the youngest one born one day after his father's funeral. Peter did all he could to help his sister-in-law. Dorothy's eldest son, Frederick age 10 was sent back to relatives in Ann Arbor to learn farming and returned at the age of 17 to work the land. Within one year the boy died of typhoid fever and Dorothy rented the farm until her two younger sons could take over. After a long illness, Agatha died. She was 56. After the traditional period of mourning, Peter married Dorothy, his half-brothers widow in Jan 9, 1877. She was 13 years younger than Peter. She bore him 3 children.

Peter ran a wagon dealership while living on the farm. Later in life one of Peter's eyes was gored by a bull. In 1884, Peter & Dorothy retired into the Village of Sebewaing and the homestead was divided among his three sons from his first marriage.

NEW SALEM LUTHERAN CHURCH - Sebewaing, Michigan - REV. G. A. SCHMELZER, Pastor

The very beginning of New Salem Lutheran congregation is traced to good old Washtenaw County. It was in the fall of 1852 when a few courageous young men, members of flourishing Lutheran congregations in Scio, Freedom, and Ann Arbor, set out from their fathers' home to find and establish for themselves new places of abode. These young men were Peter Schairer, John Baur, Ph. Schlemmer, John Strieter. The destination of their journey were the woods or forests near Sebewaing.

These men formed the nucleus of New Salem Lutheran Church, which was organized in autumn of 1853. Their number was increased by settlers coming from Ohio, Their names are: K. Zimmer, N. Zimmer, Frederick Armbruster, Math. Armbruster, Val. Wagner, Theob. Becker, Fr. Ziegler and others. Peter Schairer, John Baur and J. Strieter were elected members of first Church Council.

The newly organized congregation was given the name New Salem, commemorative to Evangelical Lutheran Salem congregation in Scio, of which a part of these men had formerly been members. Above all, however, the name was chosen to serve them as a continual remembrance of the New Jerusalem or New Salem above, the city fair and high, the goal of their earthly pilgrimage, where they expected to find sweet repose following their trials, temptations, and battles in this vale of tears.

Having no church structure, their divine services were held in private homes. Soon, however, they became convinced that unless a congregation has its own pastor, a congregation will not make headway. Bearing this in mind, the fathers of New Salem congregation petitioned Pastor Friedrich Schmid to provide for their spiritual need. The pioneer pastor of Michigan, though indeed a very busy man, gave ear to their urgent appeal. He bent his efforts to supplying them at least a few times during the year with the means of grace, until later they would have their own minister in their midst. Pastor Friedrich Schmid was helpful in securing the services of Christian Volz, pastor in Saginaw and missionary of Saginaw Valley, for New Salem congregation in Sebewaing. Pastor Christian Volz was followed by his brother, Pastor Conrad Volz, who served the congregation for over a year. In October, 1853, Pastor Fr. Nuffer became pastor of the congregation. He was the first resident pastor of the congregation. The members now built a log house for their pastor, also a log church.

Pastor Fr. Nuffer served the congregation for four years. At the close of his pastorate (1859) New Salem Congregation affiliated with Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Michigan, which at this time was organized in Monroe, Michigan. New Salem Congregation was ready and willing to become a member of this body because it was happy to find that Synod of Michigan believed, taught and confessed God's pure word.

Johannes (John)⁷ Schairer (Michael⁶, Abraham⁵, Anna Maria⁴ Schlee^h, Michael (Schlee^h)³ Schlee, Christian (Schlee^h)², Hans (Schlee^h)¹) was born 27 Feb 1825 in Durrweiler, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 23 Sep 1876 in Dexter, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Rosina Maier 04 Apr 1854 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 11 Oct 1832 in Pennsylvania, and died 28 Nov 1878 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Johannes (John) Schairer:

Mr. John Schrier, who resided near Dexter, was killed Saturday morning by a special train of cars. His horses were also killed and his wagon demolished. The deceased was an excellent German farmer and citizen about fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and eight children. The circumstances of the killing are as follows: About eleven o'clock Mr. Schrier, who was just returning from the Peninsular Mills with a grist, was surprised by a special through train from the west, which did not whistle or sound any alarm, but came rushing past the depot at a high rate of speed. A Freight train standing on the north side track entirely hid the coming train from view. When struck the horses were directly over the track, and were riddled by the concussion, throwing Mr. Schrier and his load laterally against the cars, smashing in his skull, but not otherwise mutilating him. An inquest was held, and the jury decided that the man came to his death by negligence of the Michigan Central Railroad.

Johannes Schairer was born Feb. 27, 1825 in Durrweiler, Wuerttemberg, Germany. He immigrated with 2 brothers, 1 sister, 2 step-brothers, 1 step-sister, his mother and step-father, arriving in this country January, 1836 and in Ann Arbor, Michigan Territory, August 30, 1836. It took 47 days to cross the ocean.

Notes for Elisabetha Katharina Schleh:

Mrs. Elizabeth Katherine Kebler, wife of Christian Kebler, died at the old homestead in Eagle on Sunday last, September 24, aged 71 years, 10 months and 11 days.

The deceased was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, November 13, 1827, and was married to Christian Kebler, May 14, 1849. They came from Germany to American in August, 1854, and located in Lansing Township. After a residence there of ten years they moved to Eagle in 1864, on to the farm where they have since resided. Eleven children have been born to them, eight boys and three girls; all have been reared to manhood and womanhood and occupy respectable and useful positions in society. All were present at the funeral Wednesday forenoon, at the old homestead. The golden wedding of this couple was celebrated last spring, all the children being present at that time. The funeral services were attended by a remarkable large concourse of people, forty carriages following the remains to the Niles cemetery. The obsequies were conducted by Rev. Holler, of Nashville, assisted by Rev. Vanberger of Victor, Advent Christians, of which denomination deceased was a faithful and consistent member. She was a good wife and mother, and performed well her duties in the home and in her neighborhood; her memory will long be revered by all.

Notes for George Blaich:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S.J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

George Blaich, in whose life history the familiar but oft misused term of a self-made man finds exemplification, has from the age of ten years been dependent upon his own resources and his utilization of opportunity coupled with unremitting diligence has proved the strong elements in his success. He is a native of the Empire state, his birth having occurred in Fulton, Oswego County, New York, on the 7th of August, 1857. His father, David Blaich, was a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, and was a farmer by occupation. Coming to America in 1852, he was for many years a resident of New York, while his last seven years were spent at the home of his son George in Chelsea, Michigan, where his death occurred on the 21st of February, 1897. He had for fourteen years survived his wife, who bore the maiden name of Frederica Keck. She was born March 8, 1834, and came to this country in 1852, being thirty-eight days upon the water. She arrived in Syracuse, New York, September 18, 1852, and was married February 2, 1854. She died at Onondaga Hill, New York, December 1, 1883. In the family were eleven children, eight of whom are yet living: David, a resident farmer of this county, his home being three miles west of Chelsea; George; Charles, who follows farming in Salem township; Lillie, the wife of Theodore E. Wood, cashier of the Chelsea Savings Bank of Chelsea William, a merchant of Cleveland, (Ohio: John, a merchant of Syracuse, New York; Mrs. Rosa Garthe, of Syracuse; and Edward, who is with the National Biscuit Company at Cleveland, Ohio.

George Blaich spent his early boyhood in his parents' home but in 1867, when but ten years of age, left the parental roof and has since been dependent upon his own resources for a living. It was an early age for him to start out and fight life's battles but he soon realized the responsibilities of life and valued conditions at their true worth. While working on farms at Onondaga Hill, New York, he also embraced the opportunity that came him to attend school and after a time determined to enter a walk of life demanding intellectuality, close application and special preparation. He worked for Dr. Wheating, with whom he remained for a year, after which he went to Syracuse, New York, where he secured a situation in the grocery store of Thomas Rice. Subsequently he was with the firm of Curtiss & Sandwald, carriage manufacturers, for three years, on the expiration of which period he entered business on his own account and for three years was a factor in commercial life in Syracuse. He then sold out to his partner and entered the oil business, in which he continued for three years, subsequent to which time, on the 6th of April, 1886, he came to Chelsea, Michigan, on a visit. Being pleased with this part of the country, lie decided to remain and purchased the grocery store of L. D. Loomis, after which he conducted the business at Chelsea for ten years, when on account of failing health lie retired from mercantile life there. After a rest of two and a half years he came to Ann Arbor and on the 18th of October 1897, established a grocery store at No. 1219 South University Avenue. He is still in business at this location, having a large trade in high class groceries and bottled and canned goods of all descriptions. He carries an extensive stock of a fine line of goods and has secured a large and profitable trade.

In May 29, 1888, Mr. Blaich was married to Mrs. Myrta Cornwell, of Chelsea, Michigan. Although their residence in Ann Arbor has covered a comparatively brief period they have gained many friends here and the hospitality of many of the best homes is freely accorded them. Mr. Blaich is prominent in Masonry, holding membership in Golden Rule lodge, No. 156, A. F. & A. M., of Chelsea; Grass Lake chapter, No. 98. R. A. M.; Adoniram council, No. 24, R. & S. M., of Manchester; Olive chapter, No. 108, O. E. S., of Chelsea; and Ann Arbor commandery, No. 13, K. T. He is thoroughly in sympathy with the teachings and tenets of the craft, exemplifying in his life the principles of the fraternity. Prominent in the Baptist church, he transferred his membership to the First Baptist church of Ann Arbor on his removal to the city and has since been closely and helpfully connected with a number of its activities. He has served as treasurer and in other offices and does all in his power for the growth and up building of the church. His political faith is that of the Republican Party, but he is without ambition for office, preferring to give his attention to his business interests, his church activities and his social and home relations. He holds friendship inviolable and is a man of domestic tastes. The permeating influence of his life is shown forth in an upright character, in straight - forward dealing in commercial circles and in allegiance to every trust reposed in him.

Notes for Anna Katharina (Kate) Kurtz:

Mrs. Katherine Keck, 87, Michigan pioneer and resident of Gunnisonville and Ingham County for the past 71 years, died Friday morning Feb. 29, 1924 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Heeb, 1225 N. Capitol Avenue. Mrs. suffered a broken hip when she fell April 13, 1922, and the injury kept her in practically an invalid condition to the time of death.

Funeral services will be held from the daughter's home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment in the Keck family lot in the Gunnisonville cemetery. Besides the daughter at whose home death occurred. Mrs. Keck leaves four other children: Jacob Keck, living near Lansing; Charles, a resident of Wolverine, and Mrs. Eva Andrews, south of Lansing, and Mrs. Agnes Springsteen, a resident of Watertown, Clinton County. Mrs. Keck, whose maiden name was Miss Katherine Kurtz, was born in Hesse, Darmstadt, Germany, Jan. 19, 1837. Her parents died when she was a child. In 1853, when Mrs. Keck was 16 years old, her brother, who had settled near Holt in Ingham County, sent for her.

Mrs. Keck after a long voyage in a sailing vessel, reached New York City. Unable to speak the language of this country, she resolutely set for Michigan, her only possession the few clothes she wore since and a feather bed. When the young immigrant reached Erie, New York, her money was exhausted and she was compelled to remain in Erie nearly a year until she could earn money enough to continue her journey to Holt. Mrs. Keck sometimes related how she dreaded to cross Lake Erie, believing it another ocean. Her experiences in coming to America had been harrowing as a number of passengers died en route and were buried at sea. These deaths and burial in lonely waters are impressions she never entirely erased from her mind. When she finally reached Holt in this country, Mrs. Keck remained for a time with her brother, a struggling pioneer. In this small town she met her husband, George Keck and the two were married Jan. 1, 1858. The young couple, urged by the home making and home owning instinct, wanted a farm of their own. Mr. Keck was able to buy some timber land near Gunnisonville. The parcel consisted of 60 acres. Mrs. Keck moved and the young husband started to clear his land and to build a home. Mr. and Mrs. Keck experienced the usual privations of the early pioneers, but patiently made their way in the world without complaining. Mr. Keck died some years ago. About 13 years ago Mrs. Keck began making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Heeb. Ten years ago, she came to Lansing with Mr. and Mrs. Heeb and has her home with them ever since in this city.

Notes for Edward L. Heeb:

Edward L. Heeb, 79, "the grand old man of North Lansing," died unexpectedly Saturday evening April 21, 1951 in his home at 1225 N. Capitol Ave. of a heart attack. Mr. Heeb had been confined to his home for the past week but was not considered seriously ill. He was a resident of Lansing for 71 years. Mr. Heeb retired from the plumbing business several years ago. However, he retained real estate interests until a short time ago. During the past several years he has spent his winters in Florida, however he did not make the trip this year because of poor health. During his varied career in Lansing, Mr. Heeb served one term as city alderman. He also built over 50 homes as a private contractor. Around the turn of the century he was elected president of old Manufacturer's baseball league which played in the state park, present site of the state office building.

He was a life member of the Elks and Eagles and an active member of the I. O. O. F. No. 321. A founder of the North Side commercial he was honored with a life membership in that organization several years ago. His wife, Anna, died in 1946. They had no children. The body was removed to Estes-Leadley funeral home. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Notes for Jacob Schweitzer:

May 12, 1938 – This community, like all others has its empty houses. Perhaps one of the most interesting is the old Schweitzer house across from the Drake homestead in Lodi Township. Today it is crumbling into ruins, birds nest in the rafters that once were part of a substantial house. A frame dwelling, an upright and a "lean-to", well planned, a comfortable kitchen with spacious cupboards, the old stairway, a sagging door, a rotted window sill, a cellar yawning where the floor has caved in, all these are what the visitor today will see should he visit the place.

Time was when it was a fine home with a drive bordered on with either side with cherry trees, beautiful in season when loaded with their luscious fruit, a bower of shade in the summer heat, a welcome from the dust and heat of the road. The house was in good condition, plastered walls with the customary spring papering greeted the caller. A well filled wood box stood in the corner, the teakettle sang on the hearth. And the pungent odors of home cooking floated round the homestead. Here Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schweitzer lived about 60 years ago. They had three daughters, Caroline, Rose, and Mary. There were two sons, Will who was born in the house which still stands, although crumbling in decay, and Emanuel.

Mary Schweitzer married John Lindemann and still lives on the Pleasant Lake Road across from the Lodi town hall. Caroline married George Bauer and lived in Ann Arbor. Rose married Fred Lambarth. She and Caroline each passed on several years ago. Emanuel lives with the Will Lindemann family on Pleasant Lake Road and Will lives with the Scherdt brothers in Freedom.

Mrs. Schweitzer was Magdalena Keck before her marriage and came from Stuttgart, Germany. Mr. Schweitzer died before the turn of century and she continued to live in the home and to finish rearing their family. She was friendly soul and a good neighbor. Miss Gertrude Drake, who lived across the road from her, recalls her clearly. After Mrs. Schweitzer died the estate was settled and Fred Hack purchased the farm. No one ever has occupied the house since Mrs. Schweitzer died and what was once not only a comfortable, but a well-cared for home, has become a relic of its former glory. Situated on a knoll, it provided a most satisfying view in all directions. A clump of lilacs still clusters round the door as if hugging the memory of former years.

Notes for Johann Wilhelm Aprill:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

William Aprill - Among the German-American families of Scio Township, none is better known for earnest industry and devotion to duty than that which is represented by the name at the head of this paragraph. Our subject was born on his father's homestead which is situated on section 32, May 26, 1836. His father, Jacob, married Magdalena Schnyder, in New York, in 1832, having come to the United States three years earlier when he was twenty-one years old. During that time he had served an apprenticeship to the shoemaker's trade at the village of Schuyler, in Herkimer County. His wife had a brother Martin Schnyder, who had come to Michigan, and they followed him hither.

When they came to Michigan Mr. Aprill had accumulated about $100, although he had been in debt when he came to this country, and his wife saved $100 from her wages during her time of service, although they were only seventy-five cents a week, he was born in Germany, and came here in her early girlhood. Her brother, M. Schnyder, has three daughters, one of whom is the wife of J. | H. Sperry. In July, 1831, our subject's father secured one hundred and four acres of Government land, and began improvements by building a log cabin. He at once set to work at his trade, exchanging work with the neighbors, and as there was but one shoemaker in Ann Arbor, and none in the country west of that city, he had a good run of custom. His wife assisted at the bench, doing the sewing for him and he followed the trade for fifteen years. Men would come ten miles in those days to get their boots soled, and he had all the work that he could do, although he frequently worked all night.

Mr. Aprill bought up more land and made a farm of about three hundred and forty acres, buying at $16 an acre, and selling at $93. He continued to live on the old farm until June 1, 1889, making fifty-eight years of residence there and an equal length of married life as his faithful and devoted wife passed from earth only nine weeks before his own demise.

Jacob Aprill, Sr., the grandfather of our subject came from Germany about the year 1842, and made his home here until his death at the age of eighty-eight. He had but the one son, Jacob, and his stepsister who came over with him and died here some four or five years ago at an advanced age, having made her home with her step-brother, for many years. Five of the children granted to Jacob Aprill, died in childhood. One son, Jacob who died in September, 1880, at the age of thirty-seven, left a widow and family, who reside near Williamston on a farm. One daughter, Mary, died April 3, 1860, when a young lady of nineteen, and the remaining members of the family are: William George, who lives on the old homestead; and Louisa, who makes her home with him.

Our subject remained at home until he was fully twenty-five years old, and was married April 4, 1861, to Miss Mary Keck, daughter of Martin Keck, of Scio, who had come from Germany when she was about seventeen years of age. Her father died here some ten years since on section 33, and his son, Martin, still lives on the old homestead. Another son, Michael Keck, died last fall. After marriage Mr. Aprill bought land on section 33, and on this ninety-five acres he lived for twenty-two years. He has since added to it until he had at one time five hundred acres, one hundred and forty of which he has now given to his son, and he still keeps fully three hundred and twenty acres. He keeps sheep, cattle and other stock sufficient for farm purposes. In 1883 he built the house and barn, a view of which may be seen elsewhere.

Our subject was Township Treasurer when twenty-one years of age, and served for two terms. He has since filled the offices of Justice of the Peace and Highway Commissioner, and was Superintendent of the Poor for six years, filling that office until 1888. Although his sympathies are with the Democratic Party, he is not much of a politician, as he always looks to the fitness of a man for the office, rather than to the dictum of the party leaders. His father's political views agreed with his. He is ever helpful in church work, and is a member of the German Lutheran Church, and the Fair Association finds an active worker in him. Mr. Aprill has met with heavy reverses, and the loss of thousands of dollars through the perfidy of others whom he had assisted and befriended, yet he stands firm as a rock, and is today one of the ablest men in the county. He has a valuable block of store buildings in Ann Arbor which brings in satisfactory revenue, and his every enterprise has been successful.

The beautiful and tasteful home of our subject is the center of a delightful family life, and the children who have been granted to him and his good wife are as follows: Jacob F., William, John M., Emanuel, Gustaf Edward, Adolph, Mary, Lydia L., Emma G., Caroline and George Robert. John and George have passed from earth; Jacob married Caroline Staebler, and lives near his father; William married Mary Staebler, and carries on the Staebler farm of ninety-three acres; the remaining children are still beneath the parental roof.

Notes for Johannes Keck:

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

John Keck, dealer in furniture, and Superintendent of the Keck Furniture Manufacturing Company, at the Ann Arbor. He was born in Wurtemberg, Germany 1839. He received his education in his native land. When about 15 years of age his parents emigrated to America, and located in the township of Scio, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, where Mr. Keck remained until he reached his majority, working chiefly on his father's farm. He had, however, worked a little at joiner work, and when of age he came to Ann Arbor and learned the trade of cabinetmaker with Mr. F. Muehlig. He remained with this gentleman but a short time, and entered the employ of Mr. Roller, whom he soon bought out. About six months after making the purchase, his place of business was burned, the stock being saved. He at once opened business again on Washington Street, where he remained until 1869, when he removed to South Main Street. In 1867 he started the furniture manufactory of Keck & Company, and in 1868 this company moved into larger quarters. This company during the hard times that followed employed more men than any other firm or company in Ann Arbor, having from 40 to 50 men at work. Their specialty was fine chamber furniture of their own design and pattern, and their wares were sold all over the United States. In 1879 this was changed to a stock company, of which Mr. Keck owns one-half the stock and is Superintendent. He has served the city as its Treasurer one term, and has done much as a private citizen to promote its welfare.

Ann Arbor the First Hundred Years, by Stephenson, Orlando Worth. Ann Arbor chamber of commerce, 1927. Page 210:

In 1880 the Michigan Furniture Company was begun by John Keck at the corner of West William and Fourth streets. The business was operated under his name until 1886 when the name of the Michigan Furniture Company was given to the organization.

History of Washtenaw County, Michigan: together with sketches of its cities, villages and townships...and biographies of representative citizens : history of Michigan. By Chas. C. Chapman & Co. Chicago: Chas. C. Chapman & Co., 1881.

Keck Furniture Company.- In 1879 Mr. John Keck, of Ann Arbor, conceived the idea of forming a stock company to engage in the manufacture of furniture of the latest and most improved style and quality. He immediately went to work and in the same year the stock company was formed, consisting of 15 members, with W. D. Harriman, President; Charles Hiscock, Treasurer; John Keck, General Superintendent; Paul Snauble, Assistant Superintendent, with a capital stock of $25,000. Everything now being in readiness, a plot of ground 126x198 feet on the corner of 3d and streets, was purchased, and the buildings necessary for the enterprise were immediately erected. They consist of a factory 40x 75 feet, and three-stories high. In the basement of this building is located the planing-mill and heavy machinery; in the second story the carving and turning machinery is found; in the third story the furniture is finished and put together. From the factory the furniture is taken to the packing, painting and varnishing room, where it is put into shape for shipment to the different parts of the United States. This last building is 40x20 feet in size and two stories high, while the storage room, only a few feet distant, is also the same size. The company uses about 250,000 feet of lumber annually, consisting of walnut, ash, butternut, sycamore, cottonwood, bass and whitewood, no pine lumber being used for any purpose. The drying kiln has a capacity of 20,000 feet and is always crowded to the utmost. The machinery is run by steam, the engine used being of 35-horse power.

The factory gives employment to 75 men, and the only kind of furniture turned out is bedstead and bedroom sets. The company has increased from 15 to 21 stockholders, and the business has increased so as to make necessary the erection of more buildings, which will be accomplished this year (1881). The furniture manufactured is of the latest, best and most improved styles, and find a ready sale in all parts of the Union-as far east as New York, as far south as St. Louis and Cincinnati, and as far west as Iowa.

THE KECK FAILURE

The business and commercial circles of Ann Arbor have been considerably excited the past week over the failure of the great furniture firm of John Keck & Company, of this city and Detroit.

The chattel mortgages tiled in the Recorder's office of this city are:

1st - $15,000 to Wm. Aprill, on Ann Arbor store

2nd - $44,000 to Henry A. Harmon, Trustee, on the Detroit Stocks, for Detroit National Bank, Detroit;

Third National Bank, Detroit; Am. Ex. National Bank, Detroit; Wayne County Savings Bank, Detroit

3rd - $36,500 to Wm. Aprill, on both Detroit and Ann Arbor Stocks, as endorsers for First National Bank, Ann Arbor; Farmers & Mechanics Bank, of Ann Arbor; Ann Arbor Savings Bank, of Ann Arbor

4th - $5,500 to Charles H. Richmond as Trustee of 1st national Bank of Ann Arbor, on Detroit Stock

5th - $22,150 to Wm. Aprill, on both Detroit and Ann Arbor stocks

Total $123,000

The last two mortgages are repetitions, except for one note of $3,500. Deducting the amounts repeated we have $89,600 as the total mortgaged liabilities.

The brick block at the corner of Main and Liberty Streets has been deeded to Wm. Aprill, subject to the following mortgages.

One to Theodore Grube for $3,000

One to George C. Fuller for $3,500

One to George Aprill for $3,000

One to Wm. Aprill for $35,000

So it will be seen that Mr. Aprill will have to pay $9,500 before his mortgage of $35,000 can be satisfied.

The new house erected this summer on Fourth Street has also been deeded to Wm. Aprill, who allows $1,500 for the same, subject to a mortgage of $2,500 held by Wm. Wagner.

A glance over the mortgage record book in the Register of Deeds office will disclose the name of Keck very many times within the last few days. The following being a list of the amounts of mortgages filed by various brothers of John Keck;

$7,919 Frederick Keck

$6,100 John Martin Keck

$5,700 Michael Keck

$1,900 John George Keck

$21,689 Total

Miss Salina Bunting, of the Ann Arbor town, has notes of John Keck for $12,300 and has commenced four suits in the circuit court, one against John Keck alone and one each against John Keck with Michael Keck, Martin Keck and Frederick Keck.

County Clerk Robison tells us that there have been from eight to ten suits already commenced in the circuit court growing out of this affair.

It is believed by many that there has been forgery committed in the signing of several notes. Wm. Aprill, we are told, claims that his signatures are not all genuine, and Martin Keck has been sued for $6,000 worth of notes given in Detroit that he claims never to have signed, being sick and unable to attend to business at the time. It is to be hoped that there may be some mistake about this.

There are many people, and poor people, too, who have lent money to this firm who will not be able to realize very much out of their claims. One Lawyer, who is familiar with all the affairs, claims that the assets will pay about 45 cents on the dollar of the liabilities.

The failure of no other man or firm in this city could have called forth more general regret. Mr. Keck has been a man with few enemies and generally well liked. He has been a man who has helped to build up this city. Starting in a small way he brought what is now the Michigan Furniture Factory (better known as the Keck Furniture Factory) from a small concern into a factory employing some 60 or more men. Selling out his factory to a stock company he commenced business in Detroit. His next enterprise in this city was the construction of the fine three story brick clock in which his goods are now located, at the corner of S. Main and Liberty Streets. This he has always kept filled from basement to roof with the very best goods saleable in this market. It was a colossal undertaking for this city, and one that we believe he has always made profitable.

The beginning of Mr. Keck's trouble we informed came from having a partner in the Detroit business. This necessary to buy out, which made quite a load for him to swing through. Then the great increase of business in Detroit demanded larger quarters, and in these Mr. Keck had just become nicely settled. Some of his creditors became uneasy, and demanded security, and so he was forced to give the same by chattel mortgages.

Things look pretty dark now, not only for Mr. Keck, but for all connected with him. Wm. Aprill has taken possession of the store here, and Henry A. Harmon has possession in Detroit.

Mr. Keck went to Detroit Monday and has not returned here since.

Jan. 10, 1880 – The Manufacturing interests are chiefly the Ann Arbor Agricultural Works, the Keck Furniture Company and Henry Krause's boot and shoe manufactory. The Ann Arbor Agricultural Company was incorporated as a stock company about a year ago, and its business extended. Their business during the past six months was fully $15,000 larger than during the corresponding time last year. They employ a force of forty men, which will, next month, be increased to sixty. They manufacture a variety of agricultural implements and do a large business, especially in tin's State, but also in adjacent and other States. To one house alone in Philadelphia, with which they have a five years' contract, they furnished last year 1,300 plows. They report business as much improved and collections much easier.

The Keck Manufacturing Company was organized but a few months since, when a branch store was opened in Detroit. Before the business had been owned by J. Keck exclusively. The capital stock, all paid in, is 25,000, and will be further increased. They report the retail business here to be $3,000 or $4,000 in excess of the previous years. The business of their new store in Detroit has been fully equal to their expectations. Their trade is largely in this State, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin and New York. They employ fifty men, and have all the work they can do. They have manufactured more furniture the past year than during the previous year, but business has been generally better.

Henry Krause has a large tannery where he tans the leather he uses in the manufactory of boots and shoes. During the past year he has opened a retail store, and he finds business good. He tanned 7,000 or 8,000 pieces of leather last year, a considerable increase over the previous year, and his manufactory has a capacity of 300 pairs of boots and shoes a week, keeping fifty or sixty men employed the year around.

Detroit, Dec. 2, 1886 - The furniture firm of John Keck & Co., doing business at 225, 227 and 229 Woodward Avenue, filed with the City Clerk yesterday two chattel mortgages aggregating $81,100 on their stock; in their old and new quarters. One of the mortgages runs to Wm. Aprill, Superintendent of the Poor of Washtenaw County, who is a wealthy farmer of the Township of Scio, to secure three notes indorsed by Martin Keck, Michael Keck, Frederick Keck and the mortgagee, held as follows: Ann Arbor Savings Bank, $3,500; Farmers and Mechanics' Bank, of Ann Arbor, $5,000; First National Bank, of Ann Arbor, $28,000.

The other mortgage is given to Henry A. Harmon, of this city, as accommodation indorser with Martin, Michael and Frederick Keck to secure thirteen notes, held by banks in Detroit as follows: Detroit National Bank, seven notes amounting to $21,000; Third National Bank, one note of $3,000; American Exchange National Bank, three notes amounting to $13,000; Wayne County Savings Bank, one note for $1,500.

There will be no halt in the business of the firm, Mr. Keck says that the enormous increase in stock after moving into the new establishment necessitated a large outlay of money which came through the different banks on the indorsed notes. He says that the assets of the firm are sufficient to meet all liabilities and that the filing of the chattel mortgages was merely to secure the banks, which were becoming uneasy, and that no assignment will be made.

Detroit - In September 1886, the firm of John Keck & Co. was succeeded by an incorporated company styled The Keck Furniture Company, with an authorized capital of $100,000, of which $75,000 was claimed to be paid in. At this time John Keck personally assumed the liabilities of the old firm and took the accounts due, transferring his interest in the furniture held by the old concern to the new corporation, accepting stock in payment for the same. His son, George F. Keck, was given stock in the new company, and also W. G. Dieterle of Manchester, Michigan. The change to a corporation was made by Mr. Keck under the impression that new capital could be enlisted and their liabilities, some of which were being pressed for settlement, thus be provided for. At the time of the change the assets of the company were given as $89,000 and the liabilities at $30,000. It is understood that Mr. Keck's plan to place the stock of the new company did not succeed. Their removal to the new Parker building, for which they made a ten years' lease at the rate of $7,200 per annum, was attended by increased expense. The mortgages given today were made by "John Keck, doing business as John Keck & Co."

Detroit, Dec. 2, 1886 - The business community was surprised yesterday afternoon to learn of the serious embarrassment of John Keck Co., one of the largest furniture houses in the State, the firm having been doing business on Woodward Avenue. They filed two chattel mortgages today to secure endorsers on $81,000 worth of notes held by the banks here and in Ann Arbor, where the firm have large factories.

The largest creditors are the Detroit National Bank of this city and First National Bank of Ann Arbor. The former holds $25,000 of Keck Co.'s paper, and the latter $28,000. Henry Herman is made trustee for the indorser of the notes held one mortgage, and Wm. A. Prell under the other. Mr. Keck says that the mortgages were given because the indorsers were uneasy, and not because the firm was about to fail. He says they will pull through without making an assignment.

Ann Arbor, December 9, 1886 - John Keck arrived here from Detroit last evening and went, to his house, where he has since remained. He is not at home to visitors, though a few of his warm personal friends have been admitted to his presence, among them Rev. Neumann, who Keck owes $1,000. He is a thoroughly sick man, sick in mind and body. His face has a haggard look and he is unable to sleep. He has hoped until the last moment to weather the financial storm which has been made. It is believed, however, that such a step will be made tomorrow, as an attorney of considerable prominence has been sent for, for consultation tonight. He believes that he could have managed to get through without failing had his Ann Arbor creditors been as lenient as his Detroit creditors were disposed to be. The charges of forgery made against him are not believed by a majority of the people here, who pronounce John Keck an honest man. Numerous attachments have been issued, but only one has been as yet filed with the Register of Deeds. This is the attachment of Anna Maria Buessler against John and Frederick Keck, filed several days ago. The Michigan Furniture Company today entered suit against John Keck for $560, and within an hour A. W. Hamilton, as attorney for Mr. Keck, had entered his appearance.

The note for $3,500 held by the Savings Bank and to which Aprill's indorsement was claimed to be forged was settled by an assignment of $5,000 of the accounts of the Ann Arbor store. This assignment must have been made with Aprill's consent as he had the keys of the store. United States Marshal Pennell was here today to make further attachments and so was a Detroit attorney, who wished Keck to make an assignment to him. Experts who have seen the notes to which Aprill's signatures were said to be forged unite in the expression of the belief that the signatures have all the peculiarities found in Aprill's signatures. It is not at all probable that any steps will be taken looking towards a criminal prosecution.

John Keck left the city for Ann Arbor at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. On Tuesday he dined with his niece, Mrs. Dieterle, on Spencer Street, and was expected to return to tea, but did not do so, nor was he again seen at the house until half an hour before the departure of his train, apparently desiring an abiding place more secure from reportorial intrusion. He said, before leaving, that several gentlemen were urging upon him the advisability of making an assignment and that he had nearly concluded to do so. These gentlemen accompanied him to Ann Arbor and the assignment may be looked for at any time.

405 Fourth Street; John Keck and Company (Argus Building), 1866-1884. situated in the heart of the Old West Side Historic District, this red-brick building began as a furniture factory. It was constructed in three phases, beginning with a wood-frame building facing William Street built in 1866 by John Keck and Company and now covered with brick veneer. In 1879 additional stock in the company was sold in order to finance a four-story brick building along Fourth Street. More construction followed in 1884 when the company was reorganized as the Michigan Furniture Company and a four-story building was built at the corner of Fourth and William, thus connecting the two older structures.

Keck came to America from Wurttemberg in 1854 at the age of 15 and apprenticed to cabinetmaker and coffin builder Florian Muehlig. By 1866 he was able to establish his own furniture factory with his brothers Frederick, George and Martin. The 1860s and 70s had been decades of rapid mechanization in the furniture industry. The steam engine had replaced water as a power source and specialization accompanied expansion as machines became more and more specialized. Despite the Depression of 1873, Keck employed 40 to 50 men and became one of the town's major businesses.

By 1879, when Keck formed a stock company, the decision had been made to specialize in bedroom suites (pronounced "suits"). They concentrated on making bedsteads, commodes and dressers and would continue this emphasis until they ceased operations in 1929. Unfortunately for antique collectors, Keck never marked his furniture and thus his products today are, in the words of journalist Mary Hunt, "distressingly anonymous."

Keck's designs were in the then-popular Renaissance Revival style, massive pieces with layers of elaborately carved woodwork, topped by carved pediments. A collection of Keck's drawings, recently discovered in the Grand Rapids Public Museum, gives a sense of the range of designs he produced. In 1884 the prominence of the buildings of the Michigan Furniture Company was noted in a local paper, which asserted that every visitor to Ann Arbor always inquired "What is that large four-story building?" Keck, who was no longer with the company, had opened another factory on Detroit Street in the mid-1880s. His success there was short lived, however, and he spent the rest of his life working in Detroit and Grand Rapids.

After furniture making ceased in 1929, Charles Verschoor acquired the building and began manufacturing his popular Kadette tabletop radios. Never one to sit on his hands, Verschoor traveled to Germany in 1936 to study camera manufacturing. When he returned, he began to mass produce a small 35mm camera -- the famous Argus Model A. The camera was an instant success, selling 30,000 units in its first week on the market. In 1939 the name of the company was changed to Argus and the Argus C-3 camera was introduced. It remained the staple of the company until 1957.

During World War II, Argus received many contracts from the government for telescopes, binoculars, periscopes, and gunsights. However, after the war Argus was unable to compete with Japanese cameras and the company was sold to Sylvania. In 1963 the building was sold to the University of Michigan which used it for various research institutes including an amphibian lab.

The recession of the 1980s prompted the University to sell the building in 1983 to C-3 Partners who undertook the enormous task of restoring and renovating this historic structure in 1986. Quinn/Evans Architects provided the expertise and the newly renovated space preserves the best of the old and the new. O'Neal Construction, one of the C-3 partners along with First Martin Corp., is now headquartered here and their offices feature the original heavy timbers and red bricks walls that characterized these simple factory buildings.

In 1891 the at Ann Arbor asserted that "when the visitor at Ann Arbor is shown about the city . . . he invariably inquires: "What is the large four-story brick building yonder?" That, he is told, is the Michigan Furniture Company." It is doubtful whether that question was as invariable as the newspaper article suggested. Nevertheless, the 200-foot-long brick factory at 401 Fourth Street was impressive, especially when compared with the university town's other industries, most of them still in fledgling stages. The company employed 85 men and produced around $100,000 worth of goods a year. In 1866 the factory began as a three-story frame cabinet shop at the same location. John Keck purchased this shop in 1868 and operated it as John Keck & Company until 1879, when a stock company was formed to raise capital for the big main building.

The 1860's and 1870's were decades of rapid expansion and mechanization in the furniture industry. The steam engine replaced the water wheel as the usual power source. Enterprising furniture manufacturers in Grand Rapids designed cost and labor-saving machinery for furniture production which made the city's name synonymous with mass-produced furniture to many people all over the world. Smaller furniture factories followed Grand Rapids' lead in techniques, styles and methods of organization. These factories were dotted across the Midwestern hardwood belt that extended south of the virgin pine forests from southern Michigan and Wisconsin through Indiana and Ohio. These firms usually developed from small workshops, and their employees were often skilled craftsmen from Germany and the Netherlands. Mass production brought specialization to the industry, since expensive machines were often designed to perform a single type of wood-working operation very quickly. There was the Sheboygan Chair Company, the Moon Desk Company, the Knoxville Table Company and the Atlas Parlor Furniture Company.

The Michigan Furniture Company decided to specialize in bedroom suites when it expanded in 1879. Its bedsteads, dressers and commodes (with metal lined compartments to hold chamber pots) are today distressingly anonymous to collectors of Ann Arbor memorabilia. The company's name does not appear on its furniture, so authentication is nearly impossible.

Ann Arbor boosters in 1891 were eager to praise the furniture as some tangible evidence of the city's belatedly blossoming industrial promise. In the words of the Register reporter, "the great variety of handsome suites, ranging in price from $20 to $60, elegantly finished in all modern finishes of elm, ash, maple, oak and walnut and their unique Sixteenth century finish, forms a pleasing sight indeed."

Ann Arbor's retarded industrial development was discussed in the first part of this series. "It had become customary in some quarters to speak of the city in a derogatory manner," according to the Register, but the furniture factory's "wonderful business development" and other small industrial successes resulted in an improved attitude. The Register was able to report in 1891, "Today no one speaks of Ann Arbor with the sneering accents so often heard in the olden time."

The solid growth of the Michigan Furniture Company encouraged local citizens to promote the establishment of more furniture companies in the area. An 1891 Register article suggested how Ann Arbor's location favored this type of enterprise; "Hardwood forests are not far distant, fuel is cheap, and the markets are easily accessible." However, no other local furniture factory rivaled the Michigan Furniture Company in size.

The beard of the Michigan Furniture Company, and itself an object of civic pride, was the factory's "magnificent 100-horsepower Corliss engine" which "keeps up its steady, majestic motion from morning to night, as if it were aware that upon it depended the action of countless wheels and various pieces of machinery above."

This steam engine was made in Ann Arbor. Hoover's Ann Arbor Engine Works had been . . .

Notes for Johann Jacob Rapp:

In 1869 J. J. Rapp established a milling project at Millwood called the Stranger Valley Mills, from which the town of Millwood derived its name. It was more commonly known as "Rapp's Mill." The structural work on this mill was done by Michael Lakner, a millwright, who then lived in Leavenworth but who afterward became a resident of Millwood and for years operated a tavern and store there. He erected some of the best mills in that time in Kansas. The Millwood mill was a large structure of native stone, which was later used in the building of the hospital at Easton.

The mill was operated by both steam and water power. When the writer left Kansas in 1917, remains of the millrace and dam could still be seen. The mill passed into the hands of William Griswold, of DeKalb County, Missouri, after Rapp's death, and from him to the late John Davitz, of Oak Mills, who operated it for about eight years, and then engaged in the milling business at Oak Mills. Davitz finally sold the machinery of the old Millwood mill to Ashby and Son, of Leavenworth, and the mill itself, to Elijah Downing, also of Leavenworth, after which it was torn down. The writer has preserved in his Millwood scrap-book a drawing of the ruins of the old mill, made by Judge Leroy Hand, of Leavenworth, in 1909.

Notes for Gottlieb Christian Mann:

During the past week the people of our village have been called to mourn the loss of another of one of our highly esteemed and respected citizens, whose death came suddenly and unexpectedly. Gottlieb C. Mann was born in Freedom Township, this county, August 28, 1853, and died in Ann Arbor on August 16, 1914. He was the eldest son of Conrad Mann and Christina Roehm Mann. On December 22, 1874, he was married to Miss Mary Rentschler, and is survived by the bereaved wife; four daughters, Mrs. Jacob Bauer of Lodi, Mrs. William Schlicht of Manchester, Misses Nora and Louise Mann, at home; two sons, Ernest, who is on the farm, and Ralph; also one brother, George Mann, president of the German American bank of Ann Arbor, and one sister, Mrs. Fred Rentschler.

Deceased had lived, on the farm where he was born for 58 years, on until August 31, 1911, when he came to this village to reside. Mr. Mann had been a faithful member of Bethel Church in Freedom since his boyhood, and for twelve years was a member of the board of deacons. He was one of the prominent officials of the Saline Savings bank, having been a member of the board of directors since its organization, and at the time of his death was serving his second year as vice president. He was a man of broad acquaintance, with friends wherever known, upright in his dealings, and a good citizen and neighbor. Seemingly he had enjoyed good health until July 3rd, when his final trouble made its appearance, yet in no way alarming, and it was not until August 8 that he gave up to confinement. The following week, August 12, the case suddenly became more serious and the next morning he was taken to the hospital at Ann Arbor, where an operation was performed the same day. It was too late. The trouble, which was a growth of cancerous nature, made rapid progress and he gradually failed until Sunday morning at one o'clock, when the end came.

The obsequies, which were held at the home Tuesday forenoon and later at the church in Freedom, were very largely attended, conducted by Rev. F. Mayer of Bethel church and Rev. C. H. Wittbracht of St. Paul's Church.

2288. Emanuel⁸ Rentschler (Kunigunde (Kate)⁷ Dieterle, Anna Maria (Schleeh)⁶ Schlee, Christian (Schleh)⁵, Christian (Schleeh)⁴, Hans Jacob (Schleeh)³, Hans Georg², Hans (Schleeh)¹) was born 13 Jan 1864 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 06 Feb 1942 in Saline Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married Anna Elizabeth Burkhart 14 Apr 1892 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Michael Burkhart and Sarah Renz. She was born 26 Apr 1866 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 25 Aug 1948 in Saline, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Emanuel Rentschler:

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for Emanuel Rentschler who died in. the Saline hospital last Friday Feb. 6, 1942. He was born January 13, 1864 in Freedom Township. On April 14, 1892, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Burkhardt who survives him. He is also survived by a son, Herman, of US-112; a daughter, Mrs. C. E. Wittbracht, of Detroit, and nine grandchildren. Another son, Alwin, died in 1922. Rev. C. H. Wittbracht had charge of the services at the house and St. Paul's church. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery. Mr. Rentschler took an active interest in city affairs and had served as president of the village for a number of years before the village became a city.

In 1825, John Gilbert purchased a 240-acre farmstead encompassing the land where the Rentschler

Farm Museum now stands. By 1840, the property had passed into the hands of the Tate family, who farmed the land, and at some point constructed a house, barn, and tool shed on the property. In 1901, the farmstead was put up for auction and purchased by Emanuel Rentschler. A few years later, Emanuel Rentschler moved and expanded the barn. In 1906, he dismantled the original house and, with the help of his brother Matthew Rentschler, constructed a new house on the property. More outbuildings were added in subsequent years, including a milk house and henhouse.

The land continued to be used by four generations of Rentschlers before being abandoned in the late 1990s. In 1998, the city of Saline purchased the land to turn it into a museum. The farmhouse and adjacent buildings, which had been in use since 1900, were restored in 2001 by the Saline Area Historical Society, and the old farm became the Rentschler Farm Museum.

"The farmhouse, adjacent buildings, and land were NOT abandoned. The farm land was sold off in sections in various years. Warren and Marilyn Rentschler sold the last four acres and the buildings to the City of Saline in 1998. Originally, the city intended to develop the property as a visitor center. The Saline Area Historical Society petitioned the city to lease the property to them, a non-profit. This was agreed upon and the historical society developed a farm museum dedicated to all the farmers of the Saline area."

Rentschler Farm Museum is at 1265 E. Michigan Avenue, one mile east of Downtown Saline. We are near Industrial Drive (traffic light) and next door to the Sauk Trail Shopping Center. There is a driveway off Michigan Avenue, but the farm property can also be reached by turning into Sage Court and using the back entrance to the museum. Located on the east end of town on four acres of land purchased by the City of Saline in 1998, the Rentschler Farm Museum consists of a frame house and eleven outbuildings, all of which have been on the National Register of Historic Places since 2013.

The architecture of the house was borrowed from several styles, but is dominated by the Queen Anne fish scale accent in the gable and a wrap-around gingerbread porch, the latter having been restored in 2001 by the historical society. The outbuildings consist of a restored workshop, hog house, an original 19th c. shed, large equipment barn, henhouse, corncrib, upper and lower barns, a sheep barn, small equipment shed, an ice house and a windmill.

The name Rentschler means landowner or farmer. Emanuel Rentschler purchased his 216 acre farm just after the turn of the century. At that time, there was an old farmhouse and a large dairy barn that stood perpendicular to the road. The 19th century shed was still useable and there was a sprinkling of other buildings that have since been razed. Gradually, Mr. Rentschler made several improvements, including a new farmhouse in 1906, built by his brother, Matthew. Four generations of Rentschlers lived and worked on this homestead between 1901-1998. Volunteers from the Saline Area Historical Society developed the property with a focus on farm living between the years 1900-1950. These are the years that reflect a time of great change in agriculture and family living. There was the transition from horse to tractor, from kerosene to electricity, from an agriculture-based economy to a manufacturing economy. All of these are visible in the history of this farm, which we dedicate to all farm families of this area. Many of the artifacts that appear quaint today were actually innovative in their own time.

Notes for William Rentschler:

December 14, 1988 - In 1915, when the Bridgewater Elevator was built by Charles Schurer and William Rentschler, Bridgewater was a bustling community that boasted a church, post office, bank, and railroad depot. The train stopped there daily to pick up passengers, produce, milk, and other materials in demand around the nation. Schurer and Rentschler were businessmen who bought and sold wool. They also started the Bridgewater Bank, which operated in the tiny village for many years before it became a tavern and then a restaurant. In 1919, the Elevator was purchased by area farmers who took stock in the company and changed its name to the Farmers Produce Company, Schurer remained as manager.

In 1927, Ernest G. Mann sold his Freedom Township farm and moved to Bridgewater to manage the cooperative. In 1938, Mann and his sons, Earl and Willard, bought the cooperative from Rentschler after Rentschler and August Henes bought out the stockholders. Mann foaled a partnership with his sons and started E. G. Mann & Sons at the old Bridgewater Elevator.

2328. Agatha (Agnes)⁸ Schmid (Johann Georg⁷, Elisabetha⁶ Schlee, Jakob⁵ Schleh, Jacob⁴, Jacob³, Peter (Schleh)² Schlee, Hans (Schleeh)¹) was born 18 Nov 1819 in Cresbach, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 05 Jan 1876 in Sebewaing Twp, Huron Co, Michigan. She married Johann Peter Schairer 21 Jan 1845 in Washtenaw Co, Michigan, son of Michael Schairer and Anna Pfeifle. He was born 30 Aug 1822 in Durrweiler, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 03 Dec 1911 in Sebewaing Twp, Huron Co, Michigan.

Notes for Agatha (Agnes) Schmid:

Agatha Schmid Schairer was born in Cresbach, Freudenstadt, Wuertemberg, Germany. Agatha immigrated in 1844 with her sister Elizabetha (age 11 born Feb. 14, 1833) and sister Anna Maria Schmid Frey (Anna's husband Christian Frey, who was a blacksmith and their infant daughter Anna Maria Frey). She also had a brother Johann George who was born Dec. 16, 1815 and had immigrated in about 1840 and also lived in Washtenaw County. Agatha gave birth to 10 children only 5 living to adulthood. Six of the children were born in Scio Township between 1845 and 1853:

John Jacob born in May 29 1845 in Scio Township, Michigan died young

Anna Marie born on Aug 17, 1846 in Scio Township, Michigan died young and another unnamed child.

Johannes (John) born on Jan 11, 1851 in Freedom Township, Michigan. died young.

It is unclear if Johannes lived long enough to make the trip to Sebewaing with Elizabeth, Friedrich, and their mother. The other three who lived to adulthood, all born in Sebewaing were Lydia (born Aug 2, 1855), George (born April 26, 1859) and John Peter, called John (born Aug 2, 1861. John Peter's grandson recalls hearing that a child who died before there was a cemetery was buried in the orchard behind the barn. Agatha & her husband J Peter Schairer were 1st cousins. Cause of death: After a long illness Agatha died of cancer and consumption.

Notes for Johann Peter Schairer:

Johann Peter Schairer was born in the Village of Durrweiler, Freudenstadt, Baden-Württemberg, Germany. He immigrated with 2 brothers (John and John George Schairer), 1 sister (Elizabeth Catharina Schairer Beck Jedele) 2 step-brothers (John Jacob Jedele and John Frederick Jedele) 1 step-sister (Anna Maria Jedele Spring), his mother (Anna Maria Pfeifle Schairer Jedele) and step-father (Johann Jacob Jedele), arriving in this country January, 1836 and in Ann Arbor, Michigan Territory, August 30, 1836. It took 47 days to cross the ocean. He was married to Agatha Schmid Jan 21, 1845 in Scio Township, Mi. Rev F Schmid (his cousin) officiating. Peter & Agatha were first cousins.

Pastor Schmid encouraged a group of young men of his Scio congregation to purchase land in Sebewaing, Michigan and form a separate church, one in keeping with his own philosophy. Peter had gone to Sebewaing to select the 160 acres deeded to him from the US on March 15, 1851 (the land was 2 miles southeast of the settlement.) A creek runs diagonally through the land and into the Sebewaing River. So, J Peter was among the young pioneers who moved to the Sebewaing wilderness in the fall of 1852. In the fall of 1852 Peter traveled with 6 other men. They drove two yokes of oxen, 14 cows, a steer, and dogs, and hauled their winter provisions, tools, and four pigs in a wagon. The trip took 6 days with nightly stops at Brighton, Fenton, Flint or Genesee, Birch Run and Watrousville, where the road ended. Then they hired a guide for five dollars to lead them through the woods to the Sebewaing settlement. In Sebewaing, they found virgin forests and swampy land once cleared and drained left rich soil. The woods had berries, nut and fruit trees, elk, deer, bear, rabbit, quail, partridge, wild turkeys and in the rivers plenty of fish. The men felled the trees to build the crude log cabins and stables with packed earth floors. Many settlers suffered from fever as much as a quarter of the year from the mosquitos. Soon, Peter bought more land. He now had 240 acres. After more settlers arrived, Schmid's followers called on Peters to help establish a church near their homes southeast of Sebewaing. New Salem's first service was held in 1853 at Peter and Agatha's home. After awhile the Schairer home could no longer accommodate the growing congregation. In 1854 the congregation bought 300 acres on Caro Road, about two miles south of the settlement and the first name on the deed was John Peter's. They named it New Salem in honor of their parent's congregation in Scio and elected Peter and 2 others to be the first church council. They soon built a log church and school (the original church site was located at the original cemetery site). As often as he could, Rev Schmid would come on horseback the 120 miles through the forests to preach to them.

At one time Peter was elected overseer of his highway district (corduroy roads). He was responsible for seeing that all male taxpayers contributed one half-days labor for each $100 of assessed valuation of property and that all voters contributed one day's labor as a poll tax. Peter was elected Supervisor for Sebewaing Township 1855, 1857, and 1866-68. Peter continued to be active in the affairs of New Salem Lutheran Church (later in his life). He served as a delegate to the synod meeting in 1892.

Half-brother John Frederick Jedele and his wife Dorothy bought 160 acres directly south of Peter's farm. Frederick was reported to be the first farmer in the area to own a team of horses, having walked back to Ann Arbor to buy them. Sometime in the early 1860's to 70's the J Peter Schairer family moved into the large farmhouse on Caro Road. The t-shaped farmhouse was of Ann Arbor's Greek Revival influence. In 1868 Peter's half-brother Frederick died of pneumonia at the age of 37, leaving Dorothea (Dorothy) with six children, the youngest one born one day after his father's funeral. Peter did all he could to help his sister-in-law. Dorothy's eldest son, Frederick age 10 was sent back to relatives in Ann Arbor to learn farming and returned at the age of 17 to work the land. Within one year the boy died of typhoid fever and Dorothy rented the farm until her two younger sons could take over. After a long illness, Agatha died. She was 56. After the traditional period of mourning, Peter married Dorothy, his half-brothers widow in Jan 9, 1877. She was 13 years younger than Peter. She bore him 3 children.

Peter ran a wagon dealership while living on the farm. Later in life one of Peter's eyes was gored by a bull. In 1884, Peter & Dorothy retired into the Village of Sebewaing and the homestead was divided among his three sons from his first marriage.

NEW SALEM LUTHERAN CHURCH - Sebewaing, Michigan - REV. G. A. SCHMELZER, Pastor

The very beginning of .New Salem Lutheran congregation is traced to good old Washtenaw County. It was in the fall of 1852 when a few courageous young men, members of flourishing Lutheran congregations in Scio, Freedom, and Ann Arbor, set out from their fathers' home to find and establish for themselves new places of abode. These young men were Peter Schairer, John Baur, Ph. Schlemmer, John Strieter. The destination of their journey were the woods or forests near Sebewaing.

These men formed the nucleus of New Salem Lutheran Church, which was organized in autumn of 1853. Their number was increased by settlers coming from Ohio. Their names are: K. Zimmer, N. Zimmer, Frederick Armbruster, Math. Armbruster, Val. Wagner, Theob. Becker, Fr. Ziegler and others. Peter Schairer, John Baur and J. Strieter were elected members of first Church Council.

The newly organized congregation was given the name New Salem, commemorative to Evangelical Lutheran Salem congregation in Scio, of which a part of these men had formerly been members. Above all, however, the name was chosen to serve them as a continual remembrance of the New Jerusalem or New Salem above, the city fair and high, the goal of their earthly pilgrimage, where they expected to find sweet repose following their trials, temptations, and battles in this vale of tears.

Having no church structure, their divine services were held in private homes. Soon, however, they became convinced that unless a congregation has its own pastor, a congregation will not make headway. Bearing this in mind, the fathers of New Salem congregation petitioned Pastor Friedrich Schmid to provide for their spiritual need. The pioneer pastor of Michigan, though indeed a very busy man, gave ear to their urgent appeal. He bent his efforts to supplying them at least a few times during the year with the means of grace, until later they would have their own minister in their midst. Pastor Friedrich Schmid was helpful in securing the services of Christian Volz, pastor in Saginaw and missionary of Saginaw Valley, for New Salem congregation in Sebewaing. Pastor Christian Volz was followed by his brother, Pastor Conrad Volz, who served the congregation for over a year. In October, 1853, Pastor Fr. Nuffer became pastor of the congregation. He was the first resident pastor of the congregation. The members now built a log house for their pastor, also a log church.

Pastor Fr. Nuffer served the congregation for four years. At the close of his pastorate (1859) New Salem Congregation affiliated with Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Michigan, which at this time was organized in Monroe, Michigan. New Salem Congregation was ready and willing to become a member of this body because it was happy to find that Synod of Michigan believed, taught and confessed God's pure word.

Notes for John Jedele:

Ann Arbor, Sept. 4, 1912 - John Jedele of Lodi narrowly escaped, death under an overturned motor car when he and a party of three other young men, riding in a new car driven by Albert Jedele, suddenly struck a sandy road which had become deeply rutted. The wheels skidded sharply to the right and the machine turned turtle, catching John Jedele underneath. The others were thrown out of the car and were unhurt. Jedele was pinned down by the seat rim. But for the fact that there was a slight depression in the seat rim just where it rested on his neck, he would most surely have been instantly killed. As it is, he has a badly strained neck and is under the care of a physician.

Notes for Johann Emmanuel Jedele:

John E. Jedele, 68, Lodi Township in Washtenaw County, was killed Saturday night March 23, 1957 when he was struck by a car on a rural road near Ann Arbor.

Funeral services for J. Emanuel Jedele, 68, who was fatally injured when, struck by a car Saturday night March 23, 1957, were held Tuesday at the Lockwood Funeral Home, with Rev. H. L. Engle officiating. Jedele of 2925 Brassow Road, Lodi Township, was walking along Pleasant Lake Road at 9:15 when he was struck by a car driven by Leo A. Schnurstein, 40, of 433 S. First Street in Ann Arbor, according to sheriff deputies. The accident occurred a half mile west of the Saline-Ann Arbor Road. Schnurstein told deputies that he did not see Jedele until too late to avoid hitting him. He said that the victim was walking in the center of the road, and because he was wearing dark clothing it was impossible to see him until too late to avoid the accident. Deputies said that Schnurstein, in swerving his car following the impact of the accident, slid into a five-foot deep ditch.

Walter Lindemann of 4820 Pleasant Lake Road, told sheriff's deputies that he had seen Jedele walking in the center of the road a few minutes before the accident, and that he had to swerve his car to avoid hitting him. Jedele was the sixth fatal accident victim in Washtenaw County during 1957. Survivors include two sisters. Miss Mary and Miss Martha Jedele of Lodi Township. Two sisters and a brother preceded him in death.

Marriage Notes for Bertha Schairer and Frederick Nissley:

A beautiful wedding took place Tuesday morning June 27, 1933 at 10 o'clock, when Miss Bertha Schairer and Mr. Fred H. Nissly of Ypsilanti exchanged vows. Rev. David Porter of the First Presbyterian Church in Ypsilanti performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Eva Schairer, of Grand Forks, North Dakota, and the groom by Arthur Nissly of Detroit. The bride wore a gown of rose silk lace and carried her mother's wedding handkerchief and a shower bouquet of brides roses and delphinium, and the bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink Killarney roses.

The old-fashioned mantle in the living room was banked by lacy sprays of alder blossoms and the stately stems of hollyhocks. In front of this were baskets of roses and delphinium and on the mantle were Hiawatha roses and delphinium. After the ring ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Nissly left for a short wedding trip, after which they return to, Saline for the summer. In the fall they will reside in Ypsilanti. Mrs. Nissly received a cablegram from her brother, Otto S. Schairer, of the R.C.A. of London, England, extending his best wishes and congratulations.

A year after her marriage on Sept. 21, 1884, the family moved from Saline, Michigan, to West Point where, they have lived since except for two years that were spent in Crowell, Nebraska. The deceased was a member of Grace Lutheran church, Ladies Aid Society of which she was secretary for six years and treasurer for three years; and the missionary society. She was also a member of the Rose Star chapter No. 238 and treasurer of that organization for 23 years.

Surviving her are two daughters, Sarah Eunice, Mrs. Gale Washburn of this city, and Mary Louise, Mrs. John Blanchard of Omaha; one son, Stuart of Clint, Texas; four grandchildren, Delphis Ann and Deltah Lou, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Schairer, and Mae Jo and Gale Washburn, Jr., daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Gale Washburn; one niece, Mrs. Vernon Allmendinger of Dexter, Michigan, and one nephew, William Muir, of Elkhart, Ind. Marriage Notes for Aaron Schairer and Josephine Muir:

June 8, 1933 - More than 200 guests registered Sunday at the A. M. Schairer home, when Mr. and Mrs. Schairer held open house for their friends in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage, solemnized at Ann Arbor, Michigan, May 17, 1883. Mr. and Mrs. Schairer have lived in West Pont for 49 years of the half century of their married life. Among out of town well-wishers joining the local friends in the Sunday calls were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Killoran and daughter Catherine, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rich, Mrs. Norman Davis, Mrs. Christina Nelight, Mrs. C. W. Feldman, Miss Minnie Baumann, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sterling, Mrs. R. B. Hasselquist and Richard Krause, all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taggart and daughter, Sally, of Sioux City, Iowa; Mrs. J.W. Merriman, and daughter, Jean, of Dallas, Texas; Mrs. Gus Von Essen of Oakland, Romig Krause of Bancroft; Mrs. Leonard Hobel and little son of Leigh; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Baas of Beecher; Mr. and Mrs. D. McEachen of Meadow Grove and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lashley of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Gifts of flowers and many other tokens of esteem of friends and organizations, in which Mr. and Mrs. Schairer have found association during their long residence here, were on display in the home which war beautifully decorated with flowers as a setting for the happy occasion. Last evening, the evening of the golden wedding day, the immediate family, some of them guests from afar, observed the anniversary at a dinner, covers being laid for 23 persons. The home decorations of flowers and the golden appointments for the tables made an appropriate setting. The dinner was served in three courses and was interspersed and followed by an informal program of toasts and reminiscences, with Mrs. Sam Krause as toastmistress. Following the dinner a happy evening of renewing association with visiting relatives and reminiscences of former associations was greatly enjoyed. Diversional episodes introducing much merriment included a charivari by neighbor friends of Mrs. Schairer, who appeared early in the evening and were treated to refreshments for reward; a charivari by the family group later in the evening and a Shower of comical gifts which the golden wedding bride was required to open and display. The gift display of the Sunday occasion had meantime been augmented by gifts brought by the relatives.

Out of town relatives included were a daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blanchard, of Omaha, who arrived Saturday and are still guests at the family home, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Schairer and daughters Delphia Anne and Delta Loue, of Clint, Texas and her niece. Miss Eileen Bramwell, of Tornillo, Texas, who arrived on Sunday; Mrs. W. H. Huelster and Mrs. Sam Krause of Grand Rapids, Michigan, sisters of Mr. Schairer, who arrived Tuesday and are leaving today; and two nieces of Mr. Schairer, Mrs. Robert Staeber of Kalamazoo, Michigan, and Miss Elizabeth Reimold of South Bend, Indiana, who arrived on Tuesday.

Local members of the family at the dinner included the honored pair, of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Washburn and son, Jr., who live at the family home, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Baumann, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baumann, John Baumann and Mr. and Mrs. John Rich. Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Klink of the Grace Lutheran Church were also guests.

Alfred Charles⁸ Schairer (Johannes (John)⁷, Michael⁶, Abraham⁵, Anna Maria⁴ Schlee, Michael (Schlee)³ Schlee, Christian (Schlee)², Hans (Schlee)¹) was born 25 Oct 1874 in Scio Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 26 Nov 1962 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. She was born 10 Aug 1876 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 23 Feb 1949 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Alfred Charles Schairer:

Past and Present of Washtenaw County, Michigan by Samuel W. Beakes, Chicago: The S. J. Clarke Publishing Co., 1906:

Alfred C. Schairer, whose interest in the intellectual and moral as well as material development of Ann Arbor makes his a well rounded character, while his energy prompts his active co-operation in these various lines of activity, was born in Scio Township, Washington County, on the 25th of October, 1874. His father, John Schairer, was born in Germany and was only eight years of age when brought to Michigan. Reared to manhood in this state, he eventually began farming on his own account and owned and operated ninety acres of land on the Jackson Territory Road. He married Rose Meyer and both have now departed this life. In their family were eleven children, of whom nine are yet living: Frank, a farmer residing in Lima Township; Mrs. William Stierle, whose husband is an agriculturist of Scio; Jacob and William, who follow farming in Scio Township; Mrs. George Heppler, who is living in Ann Arbor Township; Simon, a merchant of Dexter, Washtenaw County; Mattie, living in Ann Arbor; Alfred C., of this review; and Clara of this city.

Alfred C. Schairer at the usual age entered the district schools and was a student in Scio Township until nine years of age, after which he continued his studies in Lima Township until fifteen years of age. At that time he came to Ann Arbor and entered the city schools. His connection with the printing business began as an employee of the Inland Press, remaining with that house until about 1900, when in connection with Messrs. Gates & Kerr he established the Athens Press in the Athens Theatre building, just north of the Ann Arbor post office. The company has large quarters on the main floor, and are printers of general commercial and society work, pamphlets, booklets, etc. The Athens Press is noted for its high class work, its thorough reliability and its continuous progress in keeping with the most advanced ideas of the industrial art. Mr. Schairer has a thorough and practical understanding of the trade and in the development and growth of the enterprise he has put forth earnest purpose guided by laudable ambition and sound judgment.

On the 25th of August, 1898, Mr. Schairer was married to Miss Lydia Staebler, of Ann Arbor Township, and they have a little daughter, Esther, who, at the age of six years, is now attending school. Mr. Schairer takes a deep interest in those concerns which effect humanity and the betterment of the race. He has been corresponding secretary of the local Young Men's Christian Association and for three years was one of its board of directors. The association has fine new quarters in a beautiful brick structure, and the organization has a large and growing membership. Mr. Schairer belongs to the Bethlehem Church and has been a co-operate factor in many activities promoting the moral development of the community. He is a man of kindly sympathy, of ready charity and benevolent disposition, and while he is conducting a business of considerable extent and importance and meeting- therein a justly merited and gratifying success, he is never so busy but that he can find time to devote to church or religious work. He is always willing to extend to any one the courtesy of an interview, and his ready sympathy has made him greatly beloved by many who have benefited by his assistance. Fraternally he is connected with the Woodmen of America, while his political relation is with the Republican Party.

Notes for Wilhelm D. (Will) Kebler:

KEBLER-CLARK HOME - 314 Madison Street

1911 Craftsman - Home Tour 2003

This turn-of-the-century home is built in one of the oldest neighborhoods in Grand Ledge. The home is located on lot 6, Block 9 of the original village as it was platted in 1854. The original owner of the land in this area was William Thompson. He located the land in May 1836, and received the land patent from the United States government in 1839. His tract of land consisted of about 151 acres. The house itself on lot 6 was built during the early years of the 20th century, and was a modern home with all of the conveniences of the new century.

The abstract of the property shows that various members of the Esler/Wood family owned the lot for a number of years prior to the building of the home. They were prominent members of the community and were brick masons and merchants in town. They owned a great deal of property in the northwest section of town and lived in the neighborhood. Oliver and Lucy Wright bought the lot in 1902 and in turn sold it to a man named William Kebler in 1906 for $275.

William (Wilhelm) Kebler was the son of Christian and Elizabeth Kebler. The elder Keblers came to this country from Germany in 1854. They spent some time in East Lansing before settling on their homestead farm in Eagle Township, Clinton County. William was born into their large family on the farm on January 8, 1868. Will grew up a farmer, but he was also a cement mason and he built barns, silos, roads, bridges, and several homes on the north side of town.

In 1911, William decided to build a home in town on his lot on Madison Street. Many farmers had homes in town as well as on their farms. William had the talent and the materials to craft a well-built modern home on his lot. As a cement man, he brought his machinery to the lot and made the building blocks on site. The house also had a poured foundation and chimney, unusual touches for the time. There are several photos of the construction in progress, one of which is dated 1911 by the photographer, E.A. Russell, confirming the actual construction date of the home. The Kebler farm provided raw materials the black ash woodwork was made from trees harvested from the family homestead at the corner of M-100 and U.S. 16. Will built the house with modern amenities such as electricity and plumbing. The old-fashioned electrical switches and doorbell are still in the house, and they must have seemed as wonderfully modern then as they seem nostalgic to us today. The house has built-in closets, specifically designed by Mr. Kebler to be spacious by the standards of the time and even by today's standards.

After the house was built, Will decorated and furnished the home and moved in with his father Christian and his widowed sister Mary Kebler Goodrich. They lived in the house and leased the family farm. After their deaths, Will married Myrtie E. Howe and they had their first child, Elizabeth, in 1917. The Keblers continued to live in their town house throughout the 1920s. Their second and third children were born there, twins Geneva and Vaughan. The Depression arrived with the end of the decade, but being farmers, the Kebler were luckier than most people. They moved back out to the family farm and rented out their home on Madison Street. William Kebler died on the family farm. His obituary noted that he lived on that same farm where he had been born for sixty-four years of his life. He was described as a quiet home-loving man devoted to his family and friends. He was seventy years old when he died on July 5, 1938. He was buried at Niles Cemetery.

Myrtie Howe and her younger daughter Geneva moved back to the Madison Street home in 1946. Fortunately for them and for us, the house was well maintained during the rental years; the tenants were long-term renters and well-established members of the community. The only major architectural change occurred during the years of World War II when housing was in short supply. The Kebler created a temporary apartment upstairs in the area of the back bedroom. A kitchen sink was installed and later removed.

Myrtie lived the rest of her life in the house excepting the last few years when she was an invalid and stayed with Geneva. After she died on March 15, 1977, her surviving daughters Elizabeth Kebler Kruger and Geneva Kebler Wiskemann sold the house to Roger and Joan Clark in November of that year.

Roger Clark has fond memories of his twenty-five years in the house where his children grew up. He did some restoration work; the home was in good condition but needed some redecorating and updating when he moved in. The biggest project Roger tackled was updating the kitchen. They fitted the cupboards with custom-made doors, brought in new appliances, stripped the woodwork (this room had the only painted woodwork in the house) and added raised panel doors. Roger recalls being delighted to discover a floor joist signed by Will Kebler himself. In the rest of the house, they stripped old wallpaper from the walls and ceilings and decorated the home to meet the needs of their young family.

David Yehl and Jennifer Kennard purchased the home from Roger Clark in July 2002. They have continued to restore and redecorate the home to meet their tastes and needs. They wallpapered the dining room, replaced the old flooring in the upstairs bath, and converted a small laundry area off the kitchen into a comfortable breakfast nook. The home retains many of the original touches that made it a well-built, classic home in the first decade of the last century. The black ash woodwork and columns still have their original finish, the elegant beveled glass windows draw in the light, and the original doorknobs and hinges are still in place. This lovely home is a combination of old and new, and is as comfortable a family home today as when it was built many years ago.

2653. Christian⁸ Hornberger (Christina⁷ Schaible, Margaretha⁶ Schleh, Johann Adam⁵, Johann Michael⁴ Schlee, Christian (Schleeh)³, Christian (Schleeh)², Hans (Schleeh)¹) was born 25 Jan 1846 in Gruental, Freudenstadt, Wurtemberg, and died 02 May 1932 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan. He married Maria K. Roller 29 Oct 1874 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan, daughter of Johann Roller and Eva Guenther. She was born 18 Mar 1853 in East Saginaw, Saginaw Co, Michigan, and died 11 Jan 1921 in Marshall, Calhoun Co, Michigan.

Notes for Christian Hornberger:

Christian Hornberger, another of Marshall's German born citizens, who has reared his family and gained a plentitude of this world's goods during his residence in this city. His birth place was Wurtemberg, Germany, and his parents were George and Christina (Schaible) Hornberger, who emigrated in 1866 to Fredonia Township, Calhoun County, Michigan. His brothers and sisters all reside in this state. Mathias is a prosperous farmer of Fredonia Township; George is a painter, residing in Lansing; Christina is the wife of Louis Younghind of Lansing, and John is also a resident of Lansing.

Christian Hornberger began this life's activities in the German fatherland on the 25th day of January, 1846, and was twenty years of age when the voyage of the family to America was undertaken. After the landing in New York the young man came directly to Marshall, and then to Kalamazoo, where he remained for one year. At the end of that time he made a journey to the far west, where he continued to occupy his time in various occupations for two years. During this time he was located chiefly in Kansas. Eventually, however, the homelike atmosphere of Marshall again attracted him, with the result that in 1873 he returned to his first American home. Here he began in a small way to build up a brewery business. He met with success, his commercial operations gradually growing in extent and in pecuniary importance, and he continued in the business until the year 1881, when he disposed of his brewery interests. Mr. Hornberger then engaged in the wholesale beer business, supplying Marshall and many neighboring towns in Calhoun and adjoining counties.

During his second year after his returned to Marshall, Mr. Hornberger was united in marriage with Miss Mary Roller. She is a native of Saginaw and the daughter of Peter Roller, who was among Saginaw's earliest settlers but later moved to Marshall and was for many years a merchant in that city. Four daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Hornberger: Anna is the wife of Henry Spees, of Marshall, Michigan; Lillian lives at home; Laura, a graduate in music, is the wife of Earl R. Page, also in Marshall, and Louisa makes her home with her parents.

The residence of the Hornberger family is a commodious and comfortable one, well looked after by its owner, who since his retirement from business, has occupied his time chiefly in the oversight of this and his other extensive properties, all of which are located in the city of Marshall. He enjoys excellent health and looks back with satisfaction upon his steady rise from financial dependence to affluence, through the exercise of industry and close attention to business. His political interests are those of the Democratic party. His chief enjoyments are domestic rather than social or fraternal, his only affiliation with organizations of a fraternal nature being the State Arbeiter Society and the Order of Maccabees.

Christopher Hornberger, 86, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Schneider, 120 West Spruce, at 5:10 o'clock this morning May 2, 1932. Mr. Hornberger was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, January 25, 1846. He came to Calhoun County when a young man, coming directly to Marshall, where he has lived since with the exception of two years which he spent in the west. He was united in marriage to Miss Marie Roller of Marshall October 29, 1874. He was a member of the Arbeiter society and the Lutheran church.

Four daughters survive, Mrs. Henry Schneider, Mrs. Henry Spies, Mrs. Earl Page, all of Marshall and Miss Louise Hornberger of Battle Creek, also four grandchildren, Carlton Spies of Detroit, Mrs. Vern Elsie, Miss Eleanor Page and Miss Gwendolyn Page of Marshall.

Funeral service will be held Wednesday afternoon from the Kesler and More funeral home. The Rev. Heidenreich will be in charge and burial will be in Oakridge cemetery.

Lansing - Frederick G. Schaible, 54, assistant postmaster of the Lansing office, died late Wednesday afternoon March 18, 1931 at his home, 217 West Madison Street. Death was due to complications following a year of illness. Four weeks ago, Mr. Schaible was removed from the St. Lawrence hospital where he had been taken for observation and treatment. Death came to him peacefully as he had been reconciled for some time to the fact that he could not recover.

Mr. Schaible was born in Lansing November 6, 1876. With the exception of two years when he attended the public schools at Homer where he graduated, his entire life was spent in the Capital City. He began an apprenticeship with the old tailoring firm of John Herrmann's Sons. North Washington avenue, but did not finish as he decided to enter civil service. Having successfully passed the governmental examinations, his name was placed on the eligible list and shortly after he was appointed to a clerkship in the registry department of the Lansing office during the administration of Postmaster Seymour Foster 31 years ago. Later Mr. Schaible was promoted to head of the accounting and financial department and became assistant postmaster in 1917. Previous to his first illness a year ago Mr. Schaible was given the responsibility of general superintendency of the Lansing post office.

On June 23, 1902, Mr. Schaible was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Gladden. Besides the widow, a daughter, Miss Marjorie G. Schaible, and two sisters, Mrs. Matilda Lee, Lansing, and Mrs. Margaret Schurtz, Pasadena, California, survive.

Notes for Charles W. Wells:

History and Biography of Jackson County, Michigan - published in Chicago: Inter-State Publishing Company, 1881, pages 748-751:

Charles Wells, carriage-maker, was born in Berkeley County, Virginia, September 4, 1830. When a small child his parents, Nicholas and Elizabeth Wells, emigrated to Hocking County, Ohio, in 1831, took up government land and made a farm, where he resided until his death, which occurred in 1869. The subject of this sketch apprenticed to a man by the name of Michael Moore, and remained four years. He then worked as a "jour." and traveled over the western states. In 1849 he crossed the plains to California, but his health failing, he returned to Ohio. In the spring of 1851 he came to Ann Arbor and followed his trade a short time.

In 1861 he enlisted in the 16th Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, Co. K, and served three years, was in all the engagements of the regiment up to the battle of Gettysburg, where he was injured by a cannon ball coming so close to his head that it knocked him down, and it was supposed a horse ran over him. After the war he came back to Ann Arbor and remained there until 1878, then came to Jackson and remained since. He married Miss Elizabeth Schaible, a native of Germany, she was born in 1847. They have 1 child, Lada. In politics Mr. Wells is a Republican.

He married (1) Katharina Friedericka Kauffmann 05 Nov 1876 in Freedom Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, daughter of Johann Kauffmann and Barbara Gensley. She was born Jul 1856 in Lodi Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan, and died 11 Nov 1885 in Ann Arbor, Washtenaw Co, Michigan. He married (2) Ella Curtis 29 Jun 1926 in Howell, Livingston Co, Michigan, daughter of Jonas W. Curtis. She was born 1878 in Michigan.

Notes for Jacob Friedrich Schaible:

Howell - In his opening statement to the jury Tuesday afternoon July 26, 1921. Prosecuting Attorney Glenn C. Telland outlined in detail the events leading up to the alleged robbery at the home of Fred and Christiana Schaible near here on May 26, 1921 last for which the two Italian bandits, Anthony Valenti and Sinegrande Fingo, are on trial at a special term of the Livingston County circuit court in session here as being accomplices in the robbery. How their operations had been traced by the officers from the time they first entered this county until they were arrested in the county of Oakland, that they made three trips here from Detroit, each time going over the same route, up Grand River Road to what is known as the Hubbard hill and from there taking the town line road around the lake and thence through a cross road by the Devereaux farm and on through to the Hartland Road via the F. E. Eager place, and leaving the Hartland Road passing on down past the Schaible farm which is about a mile north of the so-called Hartland Road. The first trip they stopped at the Schaible home on Sunday, May 22, and asked MI. Schaible what he raised there and requested the purchase of a dozen eggs, tendering; a $1 bill in payment at this time. On the Wednesday following that Anthony Valenti and John Conti, Jr., had come out with a motorcycle with side car and this time had passed the Schaible home and stopped at the Durfee place which is about a mile farther north and purchased a dozen eggs and inquired the way to Detroit, that this trip was made wholly for the purpose of getting the lay of the land and that some eight or ten different persons had noticed the men on the first trip especially on account of their driving a Stutz car which has a righthand drive and wire wheels, this style of car not being numerous in that locality. The men in the motorcycle and side car had been identified by these same men who were employed on construction of a new state road and others as two of the occupants of the Stutz car which had made a trip over the same road a few days previous, and who were also seen on the day the robbery was committed.

Immediately following the opening statement, Attorney F. J. Shields, special prosecutor, called Thomas Eager as the first witness for the prosecution. After a few questions had been asked Eager as to his age, occupation and place of residence, Attorney Mathews, of Pontiac, who is assisting Attorney Webster, of the same city, in the defense, objected to the trial continuing further until Miss Schaible had given her testimony, and Judge Collins excused the jury and took a recess until Miss Schaible, who is 76 years of age and very feeble, could be brought from her home about three and one-half miles in the country.

Miss Schaible stated that on the Sunday previous to the day the robbery was committed, which was on Thursday, May 26, two men had come to her home and requested the purchase of a dozen eggs which she produced for them, one of them tendered a one dollar bill in payment and that she stepped into the pantry where she kept her pocketbook to get the change. The men asked her if she had ever seen them before and she at first said that she didn't remember but later recognized them as the two that had stopped at her place two years before and asked her to care for one of them, who was sick. After conversing with her a few moments the men left.

On the morning the robbery was made Miss Schaible testified that these same two men came to her home and asked for a pail in which to carry water for the radiator of their car and in returning the pail asked for three dozen eggs, which she got for them, this time tendering a $10 bill in payment and that after she stepped into the pantry to get her money from the tin coffee can, to make change, one of the men, who she identified as Fornelli followed her in and held a handkerchief saturated with chloroform to her nostrils and when asked if she struggled with him. Miss Schaible replied "You better believe I did."

She said he put the handkerchief to her face several times, each time struggling with him until she was overcome with the drug. She said she saw the man identified as Peter Brusso, who was killed in the gun battle later in the day, pick up the $10 bill and also take the contents of her two pocket-books, one in which she kept small change and a larger one which contained about $40 in bills. That when partly conscious she heard them whispering and later heard them walking around upstairs. That she was unconscious for about one-half hour and finally when she came to, found herself on the floor and by making a great effort got up by hanging onto the stove and pantry door. John Conti, Jr., and Anthony Valenti were positively identified by Oral Durfee as the two men who came to his home the Wednesday before the robbery at the Schaible home and asked for drink of water. H. Durfee, Oral's father also identified the men. Both men said that they came to the house in a motorcycle. Oral Durfee stated that he talked with the men for half an hour.

This was the most important evidence introduced during the course of the trial of Fornelli. Valenti and Fingo for the robbery of Miss Christine Schaible on May 26, Wednesday forenoon.

Thomas Eager was the first witness called. He lives about two miles from the Schaible home. He stated that he saw the Stutz car occupied by five men go by his farmhouse on Sunday previous to the robbery at 8:30 in the morning. He said that he could not identify the men but did identify the car as the same one as is now in Hoff Brothers garage in Howell, which he said to be the one used by the alleged bandits. He stated that he knew them to be foreigners because he heard them conversing in some strange language. Mr. Eager also said that he saw the same car on the day of the robbery.

Notes for Matthauss (Matthew) Seeger:

Portrait and Biographical Album of Washtenaw County, Michigan. Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company 1891:

Matthew Seeger. A prominent German-American citizen and a farmer who keeps abreast with the progress of the times, and one who has made a record for himself in the annals of his adopted country by running the chances of war, is he whose name is at the head of our sketch. He is a native of Wittenberg, Germany, and was there born February 11, 1839. His parents, Matthew and Christine Seeger, lived in Germany for many years and were there farmers. Our subject's immediate progenitor came to America in 1852, crossing the ocean on a sailing vessel, the voyage taking fifty-two days. After landing in New York he came direct to Ann Arbor and soon after located in Lodi Township, where he lived for fourteen years. He then made his home with our subject until his death, which occurred about 1872, at the age of sixty-two years.

Mr. Seeger was reared under the influences of the Lutheran Church, that being the chosen creed of his parents. His mother died September 9, 1879. She was born in 1815. Four children blessed the union of our subject's parents, of these two are living at the present time. Matthew was thirteen years of age when his parents came to America. He attended school in Germany seven years prior to coming to this country and he afterward attended the district schools in this county to some extent, but soon began the serious business of making a living.

At fourteen years of age our subject began working out as a farm laborer, the first year receiving for his services $3 per month, the second year $4 and so on until he had received $800 in wages. In the time of our country's peril, and when the Southern and lower Middle States were reeking with blood, he enlisted in the army in 1862, joining the Twentieth Michigan Infantry, Company D, and under Col. Williams. He was at the battle of Horse Shoe Bend with Morgan, he was also a participant in the siege of Vicksburg and Jackson, then went to Kentucky and from that point to East Tennessee. In the siege of Knoxville he experienced the dread of threatening famine, his regiment being short of rations for some time. He served through the East Tennessee engagement during the winter of 1863-64. In the spring of 1864 he returned to Annapolis, Maryland, and was assigned to the Army of the Potomac, and was in all the engagements until the end of the war. He fought at Petersburg, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor and in minor engagements. May 12, 1864, he was wounded in the engagement at Spottsylvania by a shot in the breast. Again on July 30, of the same year he was shot in the shoulder at the engagement before Petersburg. He was Corporal in his regiment and at the end of his service received an honorable discharge.

In 1866 Mr. Seeger purchased the farm upon which he at present resides and has since made this his home. That same year he was united in marriage to Miss Christina Hack, who was born in Germany and came to this country with her parents in 1863. Ten children have been born to this interesting couple. They are, Katie, John G., Mary L., Emma L., Louisa D., John F., Matthew, George W., Robert E. and Ann C. Of these two are deceased. A Republican in his political affiliations, our subject has been recognized in the township as a worker. For two years he served as Township Treasurer and for five years acted as Supervisor and for nearly fifteen years has been a School Director. He belongs to the Grand Army of the Republic and to the Arbeiter Society. Both he and his wife are members of the Lutheran Church. Mr. Seeger is the owner of ninety-seven acres of land which he devotes to general farming. He here raises all kinds of cereals and also breeds stock. He started out in life with no means, whatever, and besides bringing up honorably and well a large family of children has acquired a comfortable property. He is one of the directors of the German Washtenaw Mutual Insurance Company, of this county.

Notes for Johannes Christian (Johann Georg) Heininger:

June 29, 1944 - It isn't often that there are enough boys in one family to make up a full baseball team including the umpire, but this was the case in the Heininger family as the accompanying picture will show. The ten boys and five girls were the children of John Heininger, a veteran of the Civil War, and all were born in the vicinity of Saline, where the family once lived on a farm now part of the Fred Arend farm and later in Pittsfield Township. The father was twice married and of the older six sons, John, a retired farmer living in Saline, is the oldest. Fred is a realtor in Ypsilanti, George is a farmer in Pittsfield Township, Ed, who was in the trucking business, has retired from that and now works his farm in Saline Township. Herman is a local garage owner and implement dealer, Albert is a farmer in Pittsfield Township. There were two sisters, Mrs. Emma Hochrein and Mrs. Mary Hochrein, both deceased.

The children of the second marriage include Matthew, who was an Ann Arbor fireman at the time of his death; Carl, a retired farmer living in Saline Township, Robert, an Oklahoma rancher, and Clarence, the youngest, proprietor of a Chevrolet garage in Belleville. This group included three sisters, Mrs. Lydia Hagen, deceased, Mrs. Amanda Lederer of Chicago and Mrs. Clara Origen of St. Johns.

Of the family of fifteen children, twelve are still living, which is an unusual record when one considers that all have passed the half-century and some the three-quarter century milestone of life. Another incident worth mentioning is that of the older six sons, all of whom are living, none smokes or drinks. The father of this remarkable family lived to be upwards of 90.

- 5777 v. Orville Friedrich Wurster, born 10 Aug 1907 in Manchester Twp, Washtenaw Co, Michigan; died 18 Mar 1942 in Manchester, Washtenaw Co, Michigan.

Notes for Orville Friedrich Wurster:

A University of Michigan pathologist reported today that Orville E. Wurster, 34-year-old Manchester store clerk whose burned body was found in a woods yesterday March 17, 1942, may have died by asphyxiation. Dr. Robert J. Parsons, who performed an autopsy, said in a preliminary report that he had found indications of asphyxiation and that Wurster had not died from burns. The report Wurster was turned over to Prosecutor George Meader of Washtenaw County.

The autopsy disclosed smoke in the lungs, showing that Wurster was alive apparently at the very time when his clothes were set afire, Doctor Parsons said. The pathologist said also that he had found kerosene in the stomach. Bits of earth taken from beneath the fingernails will be compared with the earth in a shallow trench about 300 yards from where, the body was found. Doctor Parsons said his report would not be complete until further examinations, including chemical analyses, were made. Meanwhile sheriff's officers returned to the little Washtenaw County community to question friends of Wurster, examine two kerosene cans and a shovel for fingerprints, and comb the grounds in the vicinity where the body was found for possible new clues.

The body was discovered by a searching party at 10 a. m. Tuesday. Wurster was first reported missing early Monday morning when he failed to show up for work at the store, which was operated by his uncle. G. R. Breitenwischer. Beside the body were found the two cans. The shovel was discovered about 300 yards away, beside a shallow trench. In which was buried Wurster's outer clothing. Wurster lived with his mother, Mrs. Dora Wurster. The mother told officers she spent Sunday night in Saline, Mich., with her daughter. Mrs. Clarence Haar. Mrs. Wurster said her son's bed clothing was ruffled enough to indicate that he had slept there Sunday. "I know he didn't kill himself, Mrs. Wurster told officers. "He was always considerate of me. he was happy, and he knew I needed him to take care of me.

The car which Wurster drove, although it was owned by his uncle, was discovered Monday morning parked in front of the store. Night watchmen told officers they thought it had been parked there between 4 and 6 a.m. Just a week ago Wurster had been rejected for selective service by draft board physicians. His mother told officers he had been lame since childhood, and walked with a limp.

Wurster's death came almost exactly a year after the charred body of Hazel Briggs, of Detroit, was found in a deserted rubbish pile on the other side of Manchester, three miles away. Both bodies were discovered in locations where they could not be seen from the nearest road because of an intervening hill. Both bodies were burned, and oil cans were found lying beside each of them. Miss Briggs' body was not found until nearly a month after she disappeared, however, while Wurster's body was discovered the next day. County officers have not yet been able to explain the Briggs death.

The charred body of Orville Wurster, 34, of Manchester, was found today March 17, 1942 in a woods two miles east of Manchester and three miles from the scene of the unsolved torch death of Miss Hazel Briggs, also 34, of Detroit. Miss Briggs died last May while visiting relatives near Manchester. The investigation of her death is still being continued. William Uhr came upon Wurster's body at 9:30 a. m. today on the farm of Oscar Buss. Uhr was a member of a searching party that began a hunt for Wurster after friends of the dead man reported he had been missing overnight. Deputy Sheriff Tom Knight said two gasoline cans were found near the body. A thorough search of the vicinity disclosed no weapon, he added, and burns apparently were the sole cause of death. Knight said the dead man's clothing and a shovel had been buried approximately 200 yards from the body. The shovel apparently had been used to break the tough woodland sod, he explained, and then concealed in a rude trench over which the sod was replaced and fumed by someone's foot.

Knight said Wurster had been in ill health since childhood, and that he would recommend an investigation of the possibility of suicide. Wurster lived here with his mother, Mrs. Dora Wurster, and was employed in the dry goods store operated by his uncle, G. H. Breitenwischer. Breitenwischer said today he had no reason to suspect that his nephew's death was either murder or suicide. He said Wurster was a good clerk and popular with customers of the store. The automobile in which Wurster was accustomed to drive to the store at 8 a. m. each day was noticed parked outside the establishment as early as 6:40 a. m. on Monday. Breitenwischer said that Wurster, a partial cripple who walked with a decided limp, was rejected for army service last week. The search for Wurster this morning was directed by R. B. Haeusler, mayor of Manchester.

Mrs. Dora Wurster, his mother, told county officers she thought her son was well-liked by everyone he knew." She said he was an active church worker, president of his church men's brotherhood, and that Rev. H. S. Van Rague of the Emanuel Evangelical church was his most intimate confidant. Reverend Van Rague, called to testify at a special inquest in the Manchester jury rooms, said he had known Wurster for some 13 years, and that during that whole time he was ambitious, helpful, and at no time moody or depressed. "Just last Thursday at our brotherhood meeting he was planning activities far in advance, trying to improve the organization. He was extremely ambitious, always looking ahead, and wasn't the sort of person who would tend to give up and take his own life," Reverend Van Rague asserted. Ermine Wurster of Saginaw, brother of Orville, told officers "I'm positive my brother didn't commit suicide. He had no worries and just wasn't the kind of person who would do that." Prosecutor George Meader called the inquest and heard the following testimony. Deputy Sheriff Raymond Roy reported that Wurster's burned body was discovered at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday by two members of a town posse that was organized when the man was reported missing. The body was resting on a matting of wet leaves and there were no footprints or tire marks to be found. Two oil cans stood near the body, both partly filled with kerosene. Wurster's outer clothing was buried in a shallow trench 600 feet away. Carl Schabile, Wursters cousin reported that Wurster's house was locked and his bed mussed, indicating it had been slept in Sunday night. His mother was visiting relatives in Saline at the time.

Manchester, March 19, 1942 - Alarmed citizens of this village of 1,200 persons, still without an official explanation of the torch death of 34-year-old Orville E. Wurster, probed their memories today in search of a clue that might explain why the popular young store clerk would take his own life or why anyone would want to kill him. Murder or suicide, a motive is missing up to now, Sheriff John Osborn said.

Wurster's burned body was discovered Tuesday morning in a lonely woods more than a mile from the heart of town. The discovery came almost a year after the body of Miss Hazel Briggs of Detroit was found, charred beyond recognition, in a rubbish dump on the other side of the village. The similarity of the two deaths has caused Mayor R. B. Haeusler and others to fear that one person was responsible for both killings. The Briggs mystery has never been solved.

"Every woman in the village is afraid to go on the street now, Haeusler said. "Windows are bolted and doors locked. Everyone is afraid. We've got to get an explanation for Orville's death. If county officers don't do it, we'll post a reward here and conduct an investigation of our own." Friends and relatives testified at an inquest yesterday and without exception stated that Wurster had no enemies, had no fears and anxieties, and was not likely to commit suicide.

Jacob G. Keck, pioneer farmer of Clinton County, died at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning July 30, 1941 at his farm home on the Gunnisonville Road, three miles north of Lansing. Mr. Keck, who had been in ill health for the past year, would have been 80 years of age had he lived until October 3. While Mr. Keck's health was impaired, it was not until the past three weeks that his condition became critical.

Besides the widow, Mrs. Rickey Keck, Mr. Keck leaves four children, Mrs. Edward Seyfried, of DeWitt; Mrs. Bertha Wilber, of Detroit, and Miss Edith Keck and Walter Keck who lived with their parents. Mr. Keck also leaves a brother, Charles Keck, of Wolverine, and three sisters, Mrs. Edward L. Heeb, Mrs. Eva Andrews and Mrs. Agnes Springsteen, all residents of Lansing.

Mr. Keck was a member of Emanuel First Evangelical Lutheran church of this city. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1 :30 o'clock at the Estes-Leadley funeral home, the Rev. Karl F. Krauss officiating. Interment will be in the old Gunnisonville cemetery.

Catherine Agatha (Agnes Elizabeth)⁹ Keck (Johann Georg⁸, Matthias (Matthaeus)⁷, Johann Georg⁶, Johann Georg⁵, Erhard⁴, Maria³ Schleh, Hans Georg² Schlee, Hans (Schleeh)¹) was born 05 Feb 1872 in DeWitt Twp, Clinton Co, Michigan, and died 13 Apr 1963 in Clinton Co, Michigan. She married Loyal Davis Springsteen 01 Mar 1892 in DeWitt Twp, Clinton Co, Michigan, son of John Springsteen and Mary Howe. He was born 06 Dec 1864 in DeWitt Twp, Clinton Co, Michigan, and died 12 Oct 1942 in Lansing, Ingham Co, Michigan.

Notes for Catherine Agatha (Agnes Elizabeth) Keck:

Feb. 3, 1952 - It will be a wonderful day Monday for Mrs. Agnes Springsteen even if the sun is hidden by layers of dark clouds. That day she will be celebrating her 80th birthday and an open house has been planned for her from 6 to 9 p. m., at her home, 2119 Sunnyside St. Mrs. Springsteen, widow of L. D. Springsteen, has lived in Lansing since 1928 when she moved here with her husband from a farm near Holly. She was born at Gunnisonville where she was "raised" in the Gunnisonville Church aid. She and her husband were married in 1892 and in 1942 celebrated their golden wedding anniversary March 2. Mr. Springsteen died the following year. Helping Mrs. Springsteen celebrate her birthday will be her two sons, Harold of 529 N. Pine St., and Clinton of Eagle. She also has eight grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Feb. 3, 1957 - Mrs. Agnes Springsteen who is 85 today spends most of her time caring for "elderly" people. She lives with one of eight grandchildren, Mrs. Alex Raczkowski and her husband at 1011 VerLinden Ave. But Mrs. Springsteen is seldom home! This pinochle and party-loving octogenarian is usually holding down a full-time job as companion or practical nurse to someone years her junior. Mrs. Springsteen's face is softly creased with laugh lines and her wavy white hair hints of a blonde past. She's as active as one of her 20 great-grandchildren. Her day starts at 7 a. m. and ends at 11 p. m. "Some people are burned out at 50," she said, "but I can't see it. If they would keep busy they'd have more energy." "Maybe," she remarked, lifting her eyebrow, "I don't tire because I don't diet. Tried it once and almost died. I took to eating again right away. All her friends and some of her patients call Mrs. Springsteen "grandma." "The last woman I stayed with called me that," "Grand-ma" mused. "She wasn't very old." Mrs. Springsteen has cared for dozens of elderly men and women. And how does she get along with them? "Be cheerful don't cross them. Let them have their own way until they find out they're wrong."

Smoothing the skirt on her ample lap, Mrs. Springsteen added, "Old people are very appreciative, but sometimes they are worse to take care of than children." She's an authority on the latter, too. In addition to the children in her own family, she sometimes cares for other youngsters. Since November she's been "grandmothering" the two, four and six-year-old children of Jerry VanNorman. She lives in their home, prepares all meals and does some of the cleaning.

Mrs. Springsteen and her husband celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1942. He died in 1943. Their two married sons live in the Lansing area. Harold, resides at 539 N. Pine St., and Clinton's home is in Eagle. They will be on hand today when Mrs. Springsteen blows out 85 candles on her birthday cake. So, will a host of friends who will attend an open house given by me Raczkowskis to age mark "Grandma's big day. I'm proud of every one of those 85 years," Mrs. Springsteen said, "but it's getting so I don't like to tell anyone my age." "Because," she chuckled, "they think I'm telling a story."

Mrs. Springsteen Dies in Hospital - Funeral services will be held here at 2 p.m. Tuesday for Mrs. K. Springsteen, 91, of 317 W. Hillsdale St., who died Saturday April 13, 1963 in a Lansing hospital. A life-long resident of the city Springsteen is survived by sons, Joe of Eagle and Harold E. of Lansing; 9 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren. will be at the Estes-Leadley Colonial Chapel and burial will be in Gunnisonville Cemetery.
