Walter was raised between East Detroit and his grand-parents farm in Richmond. It was while living on the farm that young Walter would come to learn the importance of hard work ethics and becoming resourceful with his hands. Walter later served in the United States Army and was stationed in Europe for over two years. Following his military service, Walter returned home to Michigan and began a longstanding career in the building trades arena. With over 50 years under his belt as a bricklayer for Monte Cosetllo & Company, Walter extended the utmost in service excellence until accepting his well-deserved retirement. He was a proud member of Local #2 Bricklayers & Allied Craftworkers since 1948. Throughout his life, Walter was truly the go-to guy who could build or fix anything. He had a gift with his hands and built his own home and two cottages up North. Walter cherished his home away from home at the family cottage in Big Rapids, Michigan. While in retirement, Walter spent most of his time at the cottage tending to the garden which included tomatoes, corn, and even pumpkins. Walter was also very proud of his membership in the Lutheran Fraternities of America. At the end of his life, Walter could not wait for his Heavenly reunion with all of his family members and friends that had gone before him. He is surely visiting with his buddies and traveling all the golden streets of Heaven now.

Walter was the beloved husband of the late Nancy Schmid, and the dear father of Susan (Jerry) Cesulski, Nanci Milam, Tricia (Bill) Bramble, and the late Robert Schmid.
